ੴ ਸਤਿਨਾਮੁ ਕਰਤਾ ਪੁਰਖੁ ਨਿਰਭਉ ਨਿਰਵੈਰੁ ਅਕਾਲ ਮੂਰਤਿ ਅਜੂਨੀ ਸੈਭੰ ਗੁਰ ਪ੍ਰਸਾਦਿ॥

(ਅੰਗ 1) Ikk (or Ek) Onkar Sat Naam Kerta Purakh Nirbhou Nirvair(u) Akal Moorat(i) Ajooni Saibhun(g) Gur Persad(i).

Word Meaning: Ikk (Ek) = single. Sat(i) = True (Eternal Waheguru or God). Naam = synonymous with Waheguru; existence; His Huqam (Command); Laws of Nature. Kerta = Creator. Purakh = Living Power. Nirbhou = fearless. Nirvaiyr(u) = bears no enmity. Moorat(i) = His persona. Ajooni = never takes any life form. Saibhun(g) = self-illuminating. Gur Persad(i) = with the grace of the Guru.

MEANING: There is only one Supreme Being (Ek Onkar), His existence (Naam or His Huqam) is everlasting, He is the Creator, and is the Living Supreme Power, He is without fear, which means He has no superior, or He is above all the laws of nature and is above the effects of Maya. He bears no enmity with anyone, because He has no rivals (equals), and is perfectly just (has no biases or prejudices). Time has no effect on Him personally, so He never changes in any way over time. He never takes any life form and is self-illuminating. He can be realized only by the benevolence of the Guru.

NOTE 1: Even though Naam normally implies the name of something, Naam is also synonymous with Waheguru (God); and Naam or Naoun has also been used in Guru Granth Sahib to mean His Huqam (Command) and Laws of Nature. A couple of examples are given below.

Aapinaiy Aap(i) saajiyo, Aapinaiy ruchiyo Naaou. Dooyee kudrat saajiyaiy kur(i) aasun dittho chaaou. -------

MEANING: After self-creating Himself, Waheguru created His Huqam (Laws). He then created nature with His Huqam, and is now enjoying His nature with zest (free from all worries).

☐ ਸੁਖਮਨੀ ਸਾਹਿਬ (284) ਨਾਮ ਕੇ ਧਾਰੇ ਸਗਲੇ ਜੰਤ॥ ਨਾਮ ਕੇ ਧਾਰੇ ਖੰਡ ਬ੍ਰਹਮੰਡ॥ ਨਾਮ ਕੇ ਧਾਰੇ ਸਿਮ੍ਰਿਤਿ ਵੇਦ ਪੁਰਾਨ॥ ------

Sukhmani Sahib (284): Naam kay dhaaray suglay junt. Naam kay dhaaray khund brahmund. Naam kay dharay Simrit(i), Vayd, Puran. --------

MEANING: All living beings are supported (created) by the Huqam (laws) of Waheguru, and so are all the earths and the universe. Even the Simritis, the Vedas and the Puranas were created (written) by the Huqam of Waheguru (His Laws). See also Paurri 2 of Jap(u) Ji.

NOTE 2: Guru is a manifestation of Waheguru, and Guru could be in the form of a human, or simply Waheguru's Word (Huqam).

Sikhs label this small set of Waheguru's basic qualities (traits) 'Mool Mantar', which means the Mantra to realize Waheguru. Mantra is a very old idea, a short composition with the underlying belief that its repeated recitation enables one to please a god. Hindus have many mantras to please different gods.

However, Sikhs do not believe in any such mantras. According to Sikhism, one must cleanse one's mind by incorporating the Guru's Teachings into one's everyday life and remember Waheguru at all times. When one does this, they can overcome the attraction to Maya and connect with Waheguru. For this reason, Guru Granth Sahib as a whole is the Mool Mantar.

The Bani JAP(U) follows the Mool Mantar.

JAP(U). This is the name of the holy Bani that follows.

ਆਦਿ ਸਚੁ ਜੁਗਾਦਿ ਸਚੁ॥ ਹੈ ਭੀ ਸਚੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਹੋਸੀ ਭੀ ਸਚੁ॥

Aad(i) Sach(u) Jugaad(i) Sach(u). Haiy Bhee Sach(u). Nanak hoasi bhee Sach(u).

This is a sloak in reverence of Waheguru, and also to represent the main gist of the holy Bani.

Word Meaning: Aad(i) = from the very beginning; The source of everything. Sach(u) = Eternal Waheguru. Jugaad(i) = before the eons (joogs or yugas).

MEANING: Waheguru, which is the source of all creation, has been there ever since, and was there even before the yugas. (Guru) Nanak says that Waheguru is there even now, and will always be there.

ਸੋਚੈ ਸੋਚਿ ਨ ਹੋਵਈ ਜੇ ਸੋਚੀ ਲਖ ਵਾਰ॥ ਚੁਪੈ ਚੁਪ ਨ ਹੋਵਈ ਜੇ ਲਾਇ ਰਹਾ ਲਿਵ ਤਾਰ॥ ਭੁਖਿਆ ਭੁਖ ਨ ਉਤਰੀ ਜੇ ਬੰਨਾ ਪੁਰੀਆ ਭਾਰ॥ ਸਹਸ ਸਿਆਣਪਾ ਲਖ ਹੋਇ ਤ ਇਕ ਨ ਚਲੈ ਨਾਲਿ॥ ਕਿਵ ਸਚਿਆਰਾ ਹੋਈਐ ਕਿਵ ਕੂੜੈ ਤੁਟੈ ਪਾਲਿ॥ ਹੁਕਮਿ ਰਜਾਈ ਚਲਣਾ ਨਾਨਕ ਲਿਖਿਆ ਨਾਲਿ॥ 1॥

Soachaiy soach(i) na hovuyi jay soachi lukh waar. Chooppaiy choop na hovuyi jay laayay ruhhan livtaar. Bhookkhiyaan bhookh na ootri jay bunnah pooriyan bhaar. Sehs siyanpaan lukh hoyay, ta ikk na chullaiy naal(i). Kiv sachiara hoyiyay kiv koorraiy tootaiy paal(i). Huqam rajayee chulna Nanak likhiya naal(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Soach(i) = purity; bathing. Livtaar = meditation (full concentration). Pooriyaan = galaxies. Bhaar = weight (of all riches). Sehs = thousands. Siyanpaan = cleverness. Sachiara (pure; fully detached from worldly attractions). Koorr = false; untrue; perishable or not lasting forever; attraction for the mundane. Paal(i) = curtain. Huqam = Waheguru's Will, His Command, laws of nature; Rujayee = His Will. Naal(i) = comes with birth.

MEANING: You cannot cleanse your mind by washing your body, even if you take millions of dips at holy places. You cannot quieten your mind by keeping quiet for any length of time or by simple concentration. One cannot overcome his greed for Maya by staying hungry (and thus from Maya) for some time. The appetite for wealth of those who are greedy for it is never satisfied, even if they are offered limitless amounts of wealth from all the galaxies. None of your millions of smartness accompanies you to Waheguru's court to defend your deeds. In that case, how can one break the curtain of falsehood and realize Truth (overcome the effects of Maya)? (Guru) Nanak says that the only way to do so is to gladly accept the Will of God and obey His Command, which is a prerequisite to realizing Waheguru, and this requirement comes with the birth of the man. 1.

NOTE: Earlier, the truth seekers believed that they could achieve truth by cleansing their minds through pilgrimage, by staying quiet (so as not to engage in needless conversations), by avoiding food and wealth, and by acquiring wisdom through reading their religious books. Guru Nanak Sahib did not believe that any of these efforts enables one to be "one" with Waheguru (God). He preached that the only way to be one with Waheguru is to accept Waheguru's Will gladly (along with acquiring many other qualities).

Huqmi hovun(i) aakaar, Huqam na kuhhiya jaayee. Huqmi hovun(i) jea, Huqam milaiy vudiyayee. Huqami ootum(u) neech(u) Huqam(i) likh(i) dookh sookh paayiyay. Iknaa Huqmi bakhsheesh ikk Huqami suda bhuvaayiyeh(i). Huqmaiy undar(i) subh(u) ko baahur Huqam na koyay. Nanak huqmaiy jay boojhaiy ta houmaiy kuhhaiy na koyay. Word Meaning: Aakaar = bodies. Vudiyayee = honour; recognition. Ootum(u) = superior; respectable. Neech(u) = lowly; ignoble. Huqam(i) = by His Command (Laws). Bakhsheesh = Waheguru's kind favours. Bhuvaayiyeh(i) = is kept unsettled; subject to reincarnation. Haumaiy = selfishness; ego.

MEANING: All bodies are created by Waheguru's Huqam (natural laws), but Huqam cannot be explained (it is beyond our comprehension). (For example, how the universe came into being, or how the first human being appeared on the earth). Living bodies also come into being by Natural Laws, and people get recognition or respect by Waheguru's Will. It is by Natural Laws (Waheguru's Will) that some people are accorded respect or recognition, while others are considered lowly and are looked down upon. We also get comforts and discomforts according to natural laws. It is again due to Natural Laws that some are content and at peace (and get salvation), while others are discontent and cannot settle down, and are perpetually in the birth-death-birth cycle. Everybody is governed by Natural Laws without exception. (Guru) Nanak says that whosoever understands this secret (that everything happens according to the Laws) no longer remains selfish or has any ego. 2.

Word Meaning: Taan(u) = force; ability. Daat(i) = gifts; largesse. Neeshan = symbol; identity. Char = beautiful. Vikhum(u) = difficult; complicated. Saaj(i) = having created. Haadra Hudoor(i) = omnipresent. Kuthna = describe. Huqami = who issues commands (Waheguru). Raah(u) = path; routine (of managing the universe). Vigsaiy = blooms; is happy; enjoys. Vaypervaah(u) = care free; dissociated from the world.

MEANING: (To please Waheguru) some people sing His praise (if they have the ability to do so) thinking that He is all-powerful, while some others sing His praise with the belief that all the natural gifts (water, air, light, fire, food, shelter, etc.) are provided by Him. Some sing His praise because of His good innate qualities (like being the provider, kind, merciful, the creator of natural beauty, etc.) while others sing His praise using their thoughts (knowledge) about complicated natural phenomena (for example movement of stars and planets and other heavenly bodies and the changing phases of the moon). Some people sing His praise because He creates bodies and then destroys them, while others sing His praise because He controls death and regeneration. Some people sing His praise because He appears to be far, far away, while others sing because they think that He is omnipresent. There is no end to the number of people who describe Him in countless ways. Waheguru's generosity is limitless, so much so that living beings get tired of receiving His gifts (because there are too many and they do not have the capacity to enjoy them all. For example, too many kinds of food items, too many ways to adorn their bodies. Also, sometimes there is too much rain, too much sunshine, etc. The Creator of the Natural Laws (Waheguru) governs the universe through His Laws, yet He remains carefree (dissociated from the world) and always enjoys His creation.3.

Nanak aivaiyn jaaniyaiy subh(u) aapay Sachiyar(u). 4.

Word Meaning: Saacha = eternal; pure truth; just. Naayay = justice. Bhaakhiya = language. Bhaou = affection. Apaar(u) = infinite. Dataar(u) = the provider (Waheguru). Darbaar(u) = His Court (glimpse). Amrit Vayla = wee hours of morning. Kupprra = clothes; human body; noble qualities and love for Waheguru. Moakh(u) Dooaar(u) = the door of salvation. Sachiyar(u) = the source of all the noble qualities (Waheguru).

MEANING: You are perfectly just, and so is Your justice, oh limitless, and the eternal Waheguru! Affection is Your language (you listen to, and communicate with anyone who recites Your Naam with affection). All living beings ask You for their needs, and You kindly fulfil their needs. (So, everything is Yours, and nothing is there we can lay claim on). Given this reality, what should one offer You to have Your kind glance? (No material substance is fit for Your offering because they are all Your creation). What should one say to You so as to win Your affection? The only befitting action that one can perform is to ponder on Your magnanimity and Your eternal Naam in the early hours of morning (Amrit vayla). (Guru) Nanak says that one must recognize that Waheguru (Sachiyar) is present in every heart and everything is controlled by Him. Noble qualities and love for Waheguru (kupprra) are given to us based on our previous deeds, but we achieve salvation only by His benevolence. 4.

NOTE 1: Even though early morning hours are very effective to recite and concentrate on Waheguru's Naam, you can worship Him at any time of the day.

2. "Kupprra" normally means fabric or clothes; in some situations, it also means the human body. But in the holy Pauri above, its more appropriate meaning is the noble qualities or the love for Waheguru. This meaning is supported by the last Paurri, 27, of Majh Dee Vaar on page 150 of SGGS, which is composed by Guru Nanak Sahib, and is given below, and also by a Shabad in Perbhaati Raag(u). Focus on the underline sentence in Gurmukhi, or the bold holy line in the Roman version in each Shabad.

Guru Nanak Sahib is already in the human form, so "Kupprra" cannot imply human form in this situation. In this case, the appropriate meaning of the word will be the noble qualities and love for Waheguru. So, in Paurri 4 above, the appropriate meaning of "Kupprra" should be noble qualities (and love for Waheguru), and not the human body.

Guru Sahib espouses the same idea of Kupprra in another Shabad as well.

Jay Houn jaana aakhaan naahi kehna kuthan na jaayee. Gura ikk dayh boojhayee. Subhna jeeyaan ka ikk(i) Daata so mein vissar(i) na jaayee. 5.

Word Meaning: Thaapiya = installed; framed. Nirunjun(u) = the one who is beyond the effects of Maya – Waheguru. Sayviya = served (worshipped). Gooni Nidhaan(u) = the treasure of virtues. Perhur(i) = by dispelling; getting rid of. Ghur(i) = in the mind. Gurmukh(i) = by surrendering to the Guru; by becoming a staunch devotee. Naadun(g) = is the shabad of the yogis. Vedun(g) = is the Vedas. Boojhaayee = wisdom; enlightenment. Vissar(i) = forget.

MEANING: Unlike the Hindu gods whose idols are installed in the temples, and as per the Hindu belief, they are brought to life by special rituals, Waheguru (Niranjun) cannot be installed in any form as He is self-illuminating. You can only serve Him (recite His Naam and be a good human being as per the Teachings of the Guru). Whoever serves Him gets honoured in His Court. (Guru) Nanak says that we should sing and listen to the praise of Waheguru, who is the treasure of all the noble qualities (virtues), and we must harbour respect and affection for Him. When we do that, our discomforts are dispelled, and comforts take root in our hearts. A staunch devotee comes to realize that Waheguru is omnipresent, and for him Waheguru's Naam is the shabad (music) of the yogis (trumpet that the yogis blow into), and is also the Vedas. (In other words, a devotee of Waheguru or a true Sikh does not need to follow the practices of the yogis, and he does not need to follow the Hindu Vedas. Waheguru's Naam is the only important thing for a Gur Sikh, and he does not need to believe in Shiva, Gorakh (the founder of the Yoga faith), Brahma or goddess Parbati. (Guru) Nanak maintains that even if I (Guru Nanak) knew all the secrets of Waheguru, I would still be unable to describe Him. I only pray to Waheguru - the provider for all - that He enlightens me so that I never forget Him. 5.

NOTE: Unjun(u) (kohl or darkness) is a common name for Maya in Guru Granth Sahib. So, Nirunjun means Waheguru, who is above the effects of Maya.

Word Meaning: Teeruth = Hindu holy places (pilgrimage). Tis(u) = Him

(Waheguru). Bhaavaan = liked by. Vin(u) = without. Sirtth(i) = world; universe. Kerma = mercy; noble deeds. Ruttan, Jawahar, Maanik = rubies, jewels, pearls = noble qualities; virtues. Sikh = advice.

MEANING: (Hindus undertake pilgrimage to take a dip in holy waters with the belief that such a dip washes away their sins). (Disapproving of such beliefs) Guru Nanak Sahib says that I will undertake a pilgrimage only if it pleases Waheguru; otherwise, it is useless. Without Waheguru's mercy, I do not see anyone in the whole universe who has spiritually benefited from meaningless rituals. However, if you listen to the Teachings of the True Guru (and act on them), your thinking will be as precious (pure and noble) as the highly valuable stones, pearls, and diamonds. I only pray to the Guru, to please enlighten me so that I may never forget Him. 6.

Tayha koyee na soojhyee j(i) tis(u) goon(u) koyay kuray. 7.

Word Meaning: Aarja = age. Nuvaan Khundaan = the nine regions of the earth. Tis(u) = Him (Waheguru). Keet = worm. Goonvuntiyaan = people with noble qualities. Soojhuyee = cannot think of.

MEANING: If I am known all over the world, and everybody considers it a privilege to accompany me because I am able to have an unusual life-span equal to the length of all the four yugs (millions of years) and even ten times that, and even if I earned fame because of my good deeds and everybody praises me, it is all useless if I am ignored by Waheguru because nobody will pay attention to me in His Court. Actually, I will be considered a culprit (a felon) and be labelled as such. I will be treated just like a worm among worms. (Guru) Nanak says that only Waheguru is capable of imparting good qualities to people with no qualities at all, and of enhancing the qualities of those who already have some good qualities. No one can impart good qualities to Waheguru (because He has no superiors or even equals). 7.

NOTE: Some yogis have been known to extend their lifespans to a few centuries through yogic practices. Guru Sahib is referring to such yogis.

Word Meaning: Soor = gods. Naath = an accomplished yogi; master; king. Soor(i)

Naath = the king of gods, Indra. Dhuval = a mythical ox that supports the earth. Deep = island (earth). Loe = world (sky). Pataal = worlds beneath the earth; abysm. Poh(i) = affect. Kaal(u) = death. Vigaas(u) = blooming of mind; blissful.
MEANING: By listening to (comprehending and believing in firmly) Waheguru's Naam, one can acquire the same level of spirituality as a Sidh yogi (who is able to acquire some supernatural powers through meditation), as a Peer (Muslim holy man) or Indra, the king of gods (mythical Hindu gods). By listening to Waheguru's Naam, one can come to know the secrets of the universe, such as the power that supports the earth and the sky. (Before Guru Nanak Sahib, most people believed that the earth is supported by a dhuval – an ox). By listening to Waheguru's Naam, one can dispel the fear of death. (Guru) Nanak says that when we listen to Waheguru' Naam, all sins and discomforts are destroyed (because they are all mostly mental constructs), and Waheguru's devotees are always blissful, so they do not feel any discomfort. 8.
NOTE: Guru Nanak Sahib strongly disapproved of the use of supernatural powers.

Sooniyain Isher(u) Brahma Ind(u). Sooniyain mookh(i) slahanmund(u). Sooniyain jog joogat(i) tun(i) bhayd. Sooniyain Shaast Simrit(i) Vayd. Nanak bhugtaan suda vigaas(u). Sooniyain dookh paap ka naas(u). 9.
Word Meaning: Isher = Shiva. Ind(u) = Indra. Slahanmund(u) = appreciative; praising. Joogat(i) = technique. Tun(i) = of the body. Shaast, Simrit(i) Vayd = these are all Hindu religious books. Bhagtaan = of the devotees.
MEANING: By listening (comprehending and believing in firmly) Waheguru's Naam, one can acquire the same spiritual level as the mythical Hindu gods - Shiva, Brahma, and Indra. The listener of Waheguru's Naam is inspired to sing Waheguru's praise. (Yogis use many different and painful techniques to purify their bodies so as to connect with God), But a person who listens to Waheguru's Naam understands all these secrets without actually exercising them (meaning that a devotee does not need any of the painful techniques to connect with God). By listening to Waheguru's Naam, a devotee is able to master the principles of the Hindu holy books like the Simritis, Shastras and the Vedas (again, which means that a person who listens to Waheguru's Naam does not need to study such books and follow them). (Guru) Nanak says that all sins and discomforts are destroyed when we listen to Waheguru's Naam, and Waheguru's devotees are always blissful, so they do not feel any discomfort. 9.

Truth; high moral character. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Giyaan(u) = Divine Knowledge. Utth-sutth(i) = 60+8 = 68 (there are 68 Hindu holy places in India). Sehj(i) = stage when mind quits wandering; is peaceful; blissful.

MEANING: By listening to (comprehending and believing in firmly) Waheguru's Naam, a man acquires the noble qualities and high moral character, contentment, and Divine Knowledge. Also, one does not need to undertake the pilgrimage of the sixty-eight Hindu holy places and take dips there (with the belief to cleanse the mind), because if one listens to Waheguru's Naam, not only his mind becomes pious, but his body also becomes pious (he begins to do noble deeds with his body). By listening to Waheguru's Naam, one earns the respect of a highly knowledgeable person; and by listening to Waheguru's Naam, one easily gets focused on Him with one's mind completely at peace. Guru Nanak says that all sins and discomforts are dispelled when we listen to Waheguru's Naam, and Waheguru's devotees are always blissful, so they do not feel any discomfort. 10.

Word Meaning: Suraan = oceans. Goona = noble qualities. Gaah= to search carefully; acquire. Sheikh = a highly learned Muslim. Peer = a Muslim holy man. Raah(u) = path (to righteousness). Haath = to reach the end or the limit; fathom. Usgaah(u) = ocean (in Gurbani, usgaah has also been used as a metaphor for the world). Vigaas(u) = blooming of the heart; blissful MEANING: Listening to (comprehending and believing in) Waheguru's Naam enables a person to dive deep into the ocean of noble qualities, and acquire them, thereby enabling the devotee to get connected with the King of the sheikhs and the peers (Allah, Waheguru). By listening to Waheguru's Naam, even a blind person (of wisdom) can find the path of righteousness (to unite with Waheguru). By listening to Waheguru's Naam, one can fathom the world-ocean of life, i.e., what causes comforts and discomforts, and how to be unaffected by them. (Guru) Nanak says that all sins and discomforts are dispelled by listening to Waheguru's Naam, and Waheguru's devotees are always blissful so they do not feel any discomfort. 11.

ਮੰਨੇ ਕੀ ਗਤਿ ਕਹੀ ਨ ਜਾਇ॥ ਜੇ ਕੋ ਕਹੈ ਪਿਛੈ ਪਛੁਤਾਇ॥ ਕਾਗਦਿ ਕਲਮ ਨ ਲਿਖਣਹਾਰੁ॥ ਮੰਨੇ ਕਾ ਬਹਿ ਕਰਨਿ ਵੀਚਾਰੁ॥ ਐਸਾ ਨਾਮੁ ਨਿਰੰਜਨੁ ਹੋਇ॥ ਜੇ ਕੋ ਮੰਨਿ ਜਾਣੈ ਮਨਿ ਕੋਇ॥12॥

Munnay ki gut(i) kuhhi na jaayay. Jay ko kuhhaiy pichhaiy puchhtaayay. Kaagud(i) kulm na likhunhaar(u). Munnay ka beh(i) kern(i) veechaar(u). Aiysa Naam(u) Nirunjun(u) hoyay. Jay ko munn(i) jaanaiy mun(i) koyay. 12.

Word Meaning: Munnay = one who has firm belief (and obeys Waheguru's Will); a true devotee. Gut(i) = spiritual level. Pichhaiy = afterwards. Kaagud(i) = paper. Likhunhaar(u) = writer. Munn(i) Jaanaiy = accepts to obey (a true devotee). Mun(i) = in mind.

MEANING: The high level of spirituality of a true devotee (who internalizes Waheguru's Naam, and obeys Waheguru's Commandments of high moral values) cannot be described. If someone tries to do so, he later realizes his blunder, and feels guilty (because he would not able to do so). There is no such paper, no such pen, and no such writer who can describe the actual high spiritual level of a true devotee. People can only jointly ponder on such a high level of spirituality. Such is Waheguru's (Nirunjun's) Naam if someone believes firmly in it, and obeys it. 12.
NOTE: Anjun (or Unjun) means kohl or darkness and is used for Maya in Guru Granth Sahib. Nirunjun means which is not dark or which is unaffected by Maya – Waheguru.

ਮੰਨੈ ਸੁਰਤਿ ਹੋਵੈ ਮਨਿ ਬੁਧਿ॥ ਮੰਨੈ ਸਗਲ ਭਵਣ ਕੀ ਸੁਧਿ॥ਮੰਨੈ ਮੁਹਿ ਚੋਟਾ ਨਾ ਖਾਇ॥ ਮੰਨੈ ਜਮ ਕੈ ਸਾਥਿ ਨ ਜਾਇ॥ਐਸਾ ਨਾਮੁ ਨਿਰੰਜਨੁ ਹੋਇ॥ ਜੇ ਕੋ ਮੰਨਿ ਜਾਣੈ ਮਨਿ ਕੋਇ॥ 13॥

Word Meaning: Soorut(i) = deep understanding; enlightenment. Boodh(i) = wisdom; Divine Knowledge. Sugul Bhavun = the whole universe. Choataan = sufferings. Jum = angel of death.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is such that if someone internalizes it and obeys it, his mind and wisdom (thinking) are enlightened, and he acquires Divine Knowledge. Such a devotee understands the functioning of the universe (that everything is controlled by Waheguru and His Laws). Such a devotee does not have to face the Angel of death (Jum) and suffers no shame on his face (is not punished for his deeds because he does no bad deeds, and is honoured in Waheguru's Court). 13.
NOTE: Guru Sahib repeats the idea of Soorut(i), Mun(i) and Boodh(i) again in Paurri 36 of Jap(u) Ji.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is such that a devotee who obeys it firmly suffers no obstacles in his path of righteousness (to realize Waheguru). Such a devotee shines in Waheguru's Court (is honoured). He does not need to follow any sectarian religious path. Such a devotee gets strongly bonded (sticks) to righteousness and is honoured in Waheguru's Court, where he is given special recognition. 14.

Munnaiy paaveh(i) moakh(u) Dooaar(u). Munnaiy pervaaraiy sadhaar(u). Munnaiy turaiy, taaray Gur(u) Sikh. Munnaiy Nanak bhuveh(i) na bhikh. Aiysa Naam Nirunjun hoyay. Jay ko munn(i) jaanaiy mun(i) koyay. 15.

Word Meaning: Moakh(u) = freedom from the bonds of Maya. Dooaar = (Waheguru's door i.e. Court). Sadhaar (u) = improves; enables (to achieve a high spiritual level). Turraiy = swims across the ocean of Maya. Bhuveh(i) = wanders from door to door of different religious guides. Bhikh = alms; spiritual guidance.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is such that whoever internalizes it and obeys it strictly, achieves complete freedom from the bonds of Maya, thereby breaking his birth-death-birth cycle. Not only does he find salvation for himself, but he also leads his family members (associates, companions) to worship Waheguru and follow the path of righteousness to be emancipated. He becomes like the true guru himself, who remains connected to Waheguru and leads others to salvation. Such a devotee does not need to seek spiritual guidance from any religious sect. 15.

Word Meaning: Punch = an individual who has acquired a high spiritual level by "listening" to and obeying Waheguru's Naam. Pervaan = accepted; recognized. Perdhan(u) = spiritual leader. Sohay = held in esteem. Dhaul(u) = the mythical ox of Hindu books which supports the earth. Dherm(u) = justice; duty; responsibility. Duyya = mercy. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Soot(i) = laws; Kay = many. Voorrie Klaam = the continuously running pen. Laykha = account. Kayta= how much?

i.e.infinite. Sooalihou Roop = admirable beauty. Daat(i) = gifts, largesse. Pusaao = expanse. Kuvaao = Word; Shabad; Huqam. Duriyaao = rivers (of worlds and life).

Nirunkaar = fromless. Koodrut = nature; ability. Slaamat = safe; dependable.

NOTE: 1. Meanings will start with the last lines. For coherence of real meaning, it may be more helpful not to follow the sequence strictly.

Meaning: (Guru Nanak says) that what ability or power do I have to comprehend Your secrets, and describe them, oh Waheguru! You are so Great, and so benevolent that one life for me is not enough to sacrifice (to appreciate) Your favours. I need countless lives to do so. Whatever You do to Your liking, is for our good. You are always safe (slaamat) (ready to help us), oh formless Waheguru!

The only thing that I (Guru Nanak) can say for sure is that Your devotees who believe firmly in You (Punches) get Your acceptance, and are honoured by You, oh Waheguru! They also become spiritual leaders to guide others in seeking Your approval. Such Punches are honoured in Your Court, and they are also accorded respect in the courts of worldly rulers. The Punches have only the "One" (Waheguru) in their mind (and have faith only in their Satguru) who is enshrined in their memory.

If someone, other than the Punches, thinks about Nature, and then states a few things about You, he will readily admit that there is no limit to Your Creation and the way You manage it, oh Waheguru! {For example, talking about how the earth is supported in the universe, people have believed all the time that there is an ox (dhuval or dhaul) that carries the earth on its horns, but how can that be possible!} The ox himself needs something to stand on; so there should be another earth underneath him which needs another ox for support, and the chain continues {dherti hoar(u) purraiy hoar(u) hoar(u)}. How will the last ox bear that entire burden? (So, the idea of the ox supporting the earth is absurd). If someone thinks, and understand this secret, he will realize the truth (hovaiy sachiaar) that the support for earth (ox or dhuval) is, in fact, provided by the innate responsibility (Laws) of Waheguru which is born out of His mercy for the universe, and which provides contentment for all living beings (they are never worried about the stability of the earth).

On the other front, there are countless living beings of many different kinds and colours, whose accounts (births, deaths, deeds, etc.) are kept continuously by Waheguru's running pen (voorrie klaam). Think about that, who else can keep such limitless records (laykha)? No one has such an ability. Also, who can value Waheguru's power, the beauty of His Creation, and His endowments? He created the universe with a single Command which resulted in millions of rivers (of life and worlds).

What power do I have to describe Your grandeur? He is so kind that my one life is not enough to sacrifice for Him (to thank Him for His largesse). Whatever You do is for our good, and You are always safe (we can count on Your help), oh Waheguru. 16.

Tu suda slaamat(i) Nirunkar. 18.

Word Meaning: Undhghor = in complete darkness (completely devoid of knowledge and wisdom). Hraamkhor = parasites (dishonest) who live on others' earnings. Gulvaddh = killers; blood-suckers. Koorriaar = who rely on lies. Mulaychh = people with low mentality. Mul = unclean (earned by dishonest means). Ninduk = malicious critics; vilifiers.

Meaning: On the other hand, there are countless fools who are in complete darkness, i.e., they are completely devoid of any common sense. There are countless thieves who steal and rob others. There are countless people who forcibly exercise control over others. Countless killers kill others, and countless sinners commit sins. Countless liars live their lives based on lies, and there are countless low characters and greedy people who eat unclean (earned by dishonest means) food, as they will never get the next meal. Countless malicious people criticize others, thereby carrying more debt of sins on their heads. (Guru Nanak says) I am also one among them, but I do know that your benevolence is immeasurable, and I cannot pay that debt just in one life. I need countless lives to sacrifice for You (to thank You). Whatever You do to Your liking is good for us, and You are always there to help us, oh formless Waheguru! 18.

Sir(i) Naah(i) = not his doing; cannot take credit. Foormaayay = dictates; orders; enlightens. Paah(i) = receives. Jayta = however much. Tayta = as much. Naaoun = Laws; existence.

MEANING: Your creation is so vast that there are countless worlds beyond our reach, oh Waheguru! Assigning even the largest number to Your creation is a sin. Because of the countless worlds, there are countless places where you are remembered or worshipped, and people do so using countless names for You. (No one can put any number on Your creation) However, they can use words to name You, and they sing Your praise with words. They acquire Your knowledge (Giyan) through words and ponder on Your kindness and favours, or count Your blessings also in words. It is only through words that people express their ideas, whether in writing or speech. Also, it is through words that union with You can be described or achieved, oh Waheguru! The writer (Guru Nanak) does not claim any credit for this writing because He does (writes) only what He is enlightened about by Waheguru to do. Your Command (laws) prevails all over Your creation; there is no place without Your Command (or existence). What ability or power do I have to think and describe Your magnanimity, oh Waheguru! One life is not enough for me to sacrifice myself for You (for Your favours). I need countless lives to do so. Whatever You do to Your liking is good for us. You are always there to help us, oh formless Waheguru! 19.

Noble deeds and sins are not just a construct; they are real. Your deeds accompany you in Waheguru's Court. You reap whatever you sow. (Guru) Nanak says that you take birth or you die, by Waheguru's Will (and future life form, whether you will reincarnate as a human or as some animal), and comforts or discomforts of your next reincarnation, are governed by Waheguru's Laws, oh man. 20.

Word Meaning: Tup(u) = suffer hardships to please some deity. Dut(u) = given. Daan(u) = donations (especially to Brahmans). Til = the size of a sesame seed (negligible). Maan(u) = recognition, respect. Bhaaou = affection (to obey). Untergut(i) = internal. Soust(i) = having eternal existence; glory to thee (see Sloak M:1 page 467). Aath(i) = Maya. Baani = language; creation; heavenly bodies.

Burmaou = Mythical Hindu god Brahma who is supposed to be the creator of all life.
Soohaan(u) = majestic; comforting. Mun(i) Chaao = always cheerful or gleeful. Qadi = Qazi (a Muslim religious leader). Vukhat(u) = time. Sirtthi kuaou Saajay = creates the universe. Vudda = supreme. Naayee = justice
Meaning: (Hinduism believes that salvation can be achieved by pilgrimage, self-torture to please gods, special kindness towards some select animals, like cows, monkeys, rats, etc., and by donations to Brahmans), but Guru Nanak maintains that such acts or deeds find little recognition in Waheguru's Court. He professes that the real holy place is the human mind, where Waheguru resides invisibly. So, the real place to take a dip (to cleanse your mind) is the human mind, which you should use to listen to (comprehend and believe firmly) to internalize and believe in Waheguru's Naam and recite it with reverence. (To receive Waheguru's approval for salvation, you need to acquire noble qualities) which no one can acquire by one's own efforts because only Waheguru possesses noble qualities, and the man can acquire them only by worshipping Him.
(Hindus believe that god Brahma creates living beings, and the whole world is made up of life, Maya, and the heavenly bodies; but the fact is that it is all Your Creation (You have created the whole world, Brahma, and Maya), oh eternal Waheguru! You are everlasting, beautiful (majestic) and always cheerful. Hail thee, oh Waheguru! Nobody knows exactly the time, date, day of the week, month, or season when the universe was created. Had the pundits known that the Puranas would have mentioned it, and had the Qazies known this, the Koran would have mentioned it (but there is no such mention in either the Puranas or the Koran). Even the founder of the Yoga sect, or anybody else, does not know the date and time of the creation of the universe. Only the Creator Himself knows that. How can I know and say anything about, or describe the time of the creation? (I have no ability to do so). I do not even know how to praise Waheguru on this subject. But everybody wants to say something just for the sake of saying, and to prove that they are more intelligent than the others. (Guru) Nanak says Supreme is the Master-Waheguru (beyond our comprehension), and so is His justice (Naayee). Everything is controlled by Him. If someone else shows himself off to claim that he knows the secrets of Waheguru, he finds no respect in Waheguru's Court. 21.

Word Meaning: Pataal = worlds beneath the earth; abysm. Orruk = limits; end. Bhaal(i) = search. Sehs Atthaarah = eighteen thousand (the Western religious Books believe that God has created the universe in eighteen thousand different forms). Usloo Ikk(u) Dhaat(u)

= there is only one reality (that there is no limit to the creation of Waheguru. Vinaas(u) = destroyed.

MEANING: (Waheguru's creation is so expansive) that there are countless underworlds and countless skies. Even the Vedas admit that countless people have exhausted themselves in finding the limits of Waheguru's creation but have failed. The Western religious books (Bible, Torah, Koran, etc.) claim that God created the universe in 18000 different forms (including both living and nonliving), but even this number is not accurate. The fact is that no number can describe the limits of creation because the account is destroyed (humans run out of numbers), and no one can keep track of it. (Guru) Nanak says that only Waheguru is Supreme, and only He knows how large His creation is.

Word Meaning: Saalaheen = admirers. Salaah(i) = admired, praised. Soort(i) = wisdom; knowledge; information. Vaah = creeks. Girha = residence; treasure.

Keerri = an ant (a very poor and humble person). Tool(i) = equal.

MEANING: (Talking about the limits of Waheguru), many admirers praise Waheguru, but just like rivers and creeks, which flow into the ocean, but can never find its limits, they (the admirers) are never able to determine the limits of Waheguru (or His creation). (The only thing for humans to do is to worship Waheguru with full dedication rather than trying to find His limits). (As far as recognition in Waheguru's Court is concerned), a mighty ruler who rules over the oceans and has mountains of wealth, does not come even close to an ant (a very humble and poor person) if he harbours Waheguru's Naam in his heart, and never forgets Him. 23.

Word Meaning: Sifteen = of praises. Mun(i) Munt(u) = thoughts in the mind. Akaar = creation. Paaravaar = outer limits (beginning and the end). Kaytay = many.

Billaah(i) = struggle to the extent of crying. Oocha = high; transcendent.
Nudree = kind sight. Kermi = kindness; benevolence.
MEANING: There is no limit to the praises (of noble qualities) of Waheguru, and they cannot be described in words. There is no limit to His products, and no limits to His largesse. You can find no such limits even by seeing (if you could see that far) or by listening (if someone was able to tell). The size of His creation (universe) is limitless, and one cannot find its beginning or its end. Nobody knows what is going on in Waheguru's mind (His plans). Millions have struggled to the extent of crying to find His limits, but have failed to succeed. Nobody can find the limits of Waheguru's creation. The bigger they are described (or thought to be), the bigger they still get. The Lord is supreme and higher, and above our approach is His residence. Higher still is His Huqam or Laws (Naoun). Only that person can know the secrets of the unknowable (transcendent) Lord, who is as transcendent as He is. (Guru) Nanak says that only Waheguru knows how big He is, or how big His creation is. His largesse is showered only by His kind sight. 24.

Word Meaning: Bahouta Kerm = much of the largesse. Til(u) = the size of the sesame seed. Tamaayay = desire; greed. Jodh = gallant. Apaar = without limit. Khup(i) Tootay = struggle to exhaustion. Vekaar = without any success. Mookker(u) = refuse to admit. Daat = gift. Khalaasi = freedom from the bonds of Maya. Khaayik = idiot. Jaytiyaan = however many. Bukhshay = endows. Sift(i) Salaah = praise.
Meaning: Much of the largesse of Waheguru cannot be expressed even in writing because He endows so much without the knowledge of the man, and without the littlest (the size of a sesame seed) expectation of any gratitude. Countless valiant souls with vast resources ask for more and more from Waheguru, and their numbers cannot be counted or even imagined. On the other hand, countless struggle to the point of exhaustion to acquire wealth (and other comforts) without success. Also, countless ungrateful people do not even acknowledge the invaluable gifts of Waheguru, even though they receive and enjoy plenty of them. Countless foolish people live only to eat, and all they do is eat. At the same time, there are countless who always suffer from discomfort and hunger, which may turn out to be a boon for them (because they remember You in their difficult times), oh Waheguru! Whether humans are able to break the bonds of Maya or become more engrossed in it depends on what You decide for them, oh Waheguru. Nobody else has any such power. If some idiot claims to do so, only he knows what punishment he receives on his face from Waheguru. A few wise people do acknowledge that Waheguru knows their needs and fulfills them. But the individual, who is motivated or enabled by Waheguru to sing His praise, is the real king of kings. 25.

NOTE: In the last Pauri, Guru Nanak Sahib espouses that the individual who is kindly motivated by Waheguru or is gifted with the ability to sing His praise is the real king of kings. In this Pauri, Guru Sahib develops that idea further.

Word Meaning: Amooll or Amooll(u) = priceless. Vaapaar = business. Vaapaariyay = traders. Bhundar = treasure. Aaveh(i) = come to this word. Bhaayay = liked by. Smaah(i) = absorbed in. Dherm(u) = justice; righteousness; Deebaan(u) = court; support. Tool(u) = weighing scale. Pervaan(u) = standard weight. Bukhsheesh = largesse. Neeshaan = stamp of approval; identity. Kerm = benevolence. Phoormaan(u) = huqam; command; will. Live laayay = full concentration. Vakhiyaan = explain. Gopis = cow girls who were friends with Krishna. Ootth, Ootth Jaaheh(i) = leave this world. Boal Vigaarr(u) = a big mouth one who does not know how to talk or who distorts reality. Gavaaraan Gavaar(u) = the top uncivilized.

MEANING: Priceless are the noble qualities of Waheguru, and so are the traders in them who strive to acquire such qualities. His treasures (of noble qualities) are priceless (meaning they cannot be bought for any price at all; only acquired by singing His praise). Priceless are the individuals who come to this world to buy (acquire those qualities), and so are the ones who actually buy them. Priceless are the individuals who are liked by Waheguru, and priceless are the ones who are completely absorbed in His praise to the extent of forgetting themselves. Waheguru's justice is priceless, and so is His Court or His support. Priceless is the scale (to weigh the efforts of an individual), and so are the weights (the noble qualities) against which the effort is balanced. Priceless is the largess of Waheguru, and so is the stamp of His approval or recognition of an individual. Priceless is the benevolence of Waheguru, and so is His Word or Command. No one can describe the priceless Waheguru even though countless people have tried to do so using their practised concentration.

The reciters of the Vedas and of the Puranas try to describe Him, and so do many others who study the holy books and explain them. Many Brahmas and many Indras try to describe Him. Also, many Krishnas and the Gopies tried to do the same. Many Shivas, and many Sidh yogis, tried to describe Waheguru, and so did many Buddhas created by Waheguru. All gods and demons tried to describe Waheguru, and so did many men with godly qualities (Soor nur). Many holy men who remain quiet for a very long time (muni) and many others who serve Waheguru try to describe Him. Many more who wish to describe Waheguru try to do so, and many say something about Him and leave this world. But even if another equal number of individuals created by Waheguru tried to do so, they would never succeed. Waheguru can be as large as He chooses. Only the True (eternal Waheguru) knows how big He is. If some big mouth claims to be able to describe Waheguru, he is labelled as the leader of the most uncivilized.
NOTE: The following Pauri has special significance, as it appears thrice in Guru Granth Sahib – in Jap(u) Ji Sahib, Rehras Sahib, and Raag Assa.

Word Meaning: Dur(u) = door; entrance. Smaalay = looks after. Vaajay Naad = music produced by musical instruments. vaavanhaaray = musicians. Raag Purie = varieties of music. Baisuntur(u) = fire. Raja Dherm(u) = Dhermraj = angel of justice. Suvaaray = decorated. Jutee = celibate. Sutee = with high moral character. Suntokhi = content. Veer Kraaray. = gallants. Mohiniyaan = mind-captivating; pretty. Muchh = this world. Pyaalay = worlds beneath the earth. Ruttan = jewels; noble qualities. Khaani Chaaray = the four sources of production of life (live birth, eggs, vegetation, from air under ripe conditions). Khund, Mundal Verbhunda = parts of universe. Ruttay = imbued. Ruchna = creation. Rungi Rungi Bhaanti = of different kinds.

NOTE 1: Every religion has its own beliefs about Waheguru's residence and the entrance to His residence, where He looks after His creation. For example, Muslims believe that there are 14 skies in the universe – seven above and seven below the earth. And Allah resides in the Seventh Sky, while other saints and holy men reside in the sixth sky, and common men reside in the fifth or lower skies. Christians have a similar belief that God lives somewhere high in the sky in paradise with pearly gates.

You might have seen pictures of Jesus' resurrection on the third day after the crucifixion, showing Him being taken up into the sky, His hand held by God, out of the clouds. The idea in the picture is a reflection of the Christian belief that God lives in the sky. Hindus do not believe in a single God; rather, they believe in a multitude of gods and goddesses who are all shown to live on the tops of mountains or in some mythical paradise. The Hindus also believe that there is a god for everything, including air, water, fire, precious stones, and metals. The king of all gods, Ind (or Indra), lives in paradise somewhere in the sky.

However, Sikhism does not believe in any such paradise. In this Paurri, Guru Nanak Sahib clarifies His idea of the residence of Waheguru. He professes that Waheguru is present in each part (even in each particle) of the universe invisibly, but shows His presence only where His praise is sung (or where He is remembered) and has no particular residence. However, no one can describe His mysterious ways by which He controls the whole universe and looks after His creation.

NOTE 2: Since Waheguru is the Master of the entire universe, He is revered as the King of kings. Usually, kings have musicians in their courts, so most people believe that there must be many, many musicians in Waheguru's Court or Paradise. Hindus also believe that there are two accountants – Chit(u) and Goopt(u) – riding on the shoulders of each human being to keep continuous written records of their deeds. The mythical god Indra (Ind) is believed to be the king of all gods and therefore the ruler of paradise. But the Guru Granth Sahib does not recognize any gods. As you can read, all the gods and goddesses, if there are any, sing Waheguru's praise as the Supreme Being. They have no power in running the universe.

NOTE 3: Singing Waheguru's praise also implies obeying His Command, Will or His Laws. Guru Amar Dass Ji clarifies this in the following Shabad.

- ਰਾਮਕਲੀ ਕੀ ਵਾਰ ਮਹਲਾ ਤੀਜਾ, ਪਉੜੀ (948)॥ ਇਕਿ ਆਪਣੀ ਸਿਫਤੀ ਲਾਇਅਨੁ ਦੇ ਸਤਿਗਰੁ ਮਤੀ॥ --- ਪਉਣੁ ਪਾਣੀ ਬੈਸੰਤਰੋ ਹੁਕਮਿ ਕਰਹਿ ਭਗਤੀ॥ ਇਹਨਾ ਨੋ ਭਉ ਅਗਲਾ ਪੂਰੀ ਬਣਤ ਬਣਤੀ॥3॥
- Meaning: Waheguru puts some people to His worship by providing them Satguru's Advice. The air, the water, and the fire also worship Him by obeying His Huqam (Command). They have great fear of Waheguru, and this is how the whole universe has been created. 3.

MEANING: (Guru Nanak says), Oh Waheguru, people wonder what kind of entrance your Residence has, and what kind of residence You reside in where You look after all Your Creation. Even though I am unable to describe the exact nature of Your residence, You are omnipresent, and there are countless musical instruments and countless musicians who play them to produce many different types of lilting tunes (naad). There are many different types of lyrics and their subcategories (purees), and countless singers to sing them. (The gods of) air, water, and fire, all sing Your praise, and so does the Angel of justice on Your doorsteps. Chit(u) and Goopt(u), who are believed to keep written records of the deeds of humans, sing Your Praise with their recordings being analyzed by Dherm Raj - the Angel of justice at Your door. Many Shivas, and many Brahmas, etc., and many Parbatis sing Your praise, as a result of which they are decorated (find respect) in Your Court. Sitting on their thrones, many Indras (Ind), along with other gods, also sing Your praise at Your door. The Sidh yogis sing Your praise in their meditation, and the holy men (sadh) sing by pondering on Your magnanimity. The celibate, men with high character, and the content (santokhi), the gallant, all sing Your praise. In all eras (yugs) the learned (pundits), the great sages (rukheesur), and the Vedas sing Your praise. Even the beautiful fairies of the paradise, of the earth (muchh) and of the underworld (payaal), having charming beauties, sing Your praise. Gods of jewels created by You, sing Your praise, and so do the sixty-eight holy places believed to be made holy by the gods. The powerful valiant (jodh) and the intrepid (maha bal soora) sing Your praise, and so do the living beings from all four sources (mammals, eggs, vegetation, and the ones which grow under optimum conditions) of reproduction.
The skies, the galaxies, and the whole universe, supported by You, sing Your praise. Only those devotees sing Your Praise (are approved by You) whom You like, and who are imbued in Your affection, and enjoy singing it. I do not know, and cannot imagine how many more sing Your praise. Only the Master, Waheguru, is eternal (Such Sahib Saacha) and so is His magnanimity, and His justice (naayee). The Creator has always existed, will exist in future, and will never go away (will live forever). He has created the universe with countless varieties of different living beings and bodies, and has created attractions of different types (Maya) for them. He enjoys and looks after His Creation as He pleases. He will do whatever

He chooses, and nobody has the power to suggest any modifications (huqam na kerna jaayee). (Guru Nanak Sahib advises) That rather than wasting time and energy to find the secrets and the limits (because nobody will ever be able to do so) of Waheguru, who is the real Emperor of emperors, the man should simply sing His praise and obey His Will (rajaayee). 27.

NOTE (YOGIS): The next two Paurris (28 &29) are addressed to Sidh Yogis. This Faith was very popular in northern India, especially in Punjab, until the masses were won over by the simple and ritual-free Divine Message of Guru Nanak. The leading Yogis had several debates with Guru Nanak and tried to prove the superiority of their ideology, but they failed badly every time. They were devotees of Shiva and had a particular way of life. They would leave their homes to live in remote places (mountains, forests, etc.), but would return to towns or villages to beg for food and clothing. Their belief was to renounce worldly comforts or Maya. They would live in groups – big or small. They had their own dress code and wore very little. They would cover their bodies with ash so as not to look attractive to women, wear big glass earrings, a quilted cover (called khintha), a shallow pot called khupper or put(u) to collect alms, and a loose cloth on their shoulder to make a kind of sack (called jholie) in which to collect dry food. They would also carry a stick (baton). Sometimes, they blow a small trumpet to produce a musical note (naad) to show their presence. They referred to their spiritual leader as Nath (Master). Most of them practiced celibacy, but a few had families, too. They had acquired some supernatural powers through meditation using yoga practices. With those powers, they would impress and threaten the masses into giving them large donations for their daily needs (contradicting their own claim of having no attraction to Maya). However, unlike Guru Nanak Sahib, union with God was NOT their objective. During discussions or debates, Guru Nanak Sahib tried to explain to them the real purpose of human life (a life of high moral values and union with Waheguru), but they refused to admit it, even though they were convinced that Guru Sahib had a very strong rationale for His Message. There are many holy Shabads in Guru Granth Sahib addressed to Yogis.

Guru Nanak Sahib had His last meeting with the top Yogis (Bhangar Nath, Cherput, and Lohareepa etc.) in Feb 1539 at Achchal near Batala, at Yogis' annual gathering there. There is a Shiva temple in the village of Achchal, and a large number of people used to attend the annual gathering of the yogis, which was a carnival. Because of Guru Nanak Sahib's presence at the gathering this time, people had come to Achchal in unusual large numbers. This was also the last opportunity for the Yogis to defeat Guru Sahib, and win back the masses who had all gathered around Guru Sahib showing a total disregard for the Yogis. The frustrated Yogis displayed numerous supernatural powers to impress the masses in general, and Guru Sahib in particular. They displayed many magical tricks turning into tigers, snakes, birds and so on, but, were unable to impress the masses as Guru Sahib had convinced them not to be afraid of (or be captivated) by their tricks.

When the Yogis failed miserably in their efforts to impress the people, and were exhausted after having wasted their energies in the display of their magical tricks, they decided to defeat Guru Sahib in debate. They had a long session with Guru Nanak Sahib, and even tried to convert him to the Yoga Faith. But, as always, they failed badly to win the debate, and finally had to surrender. From that day on, the masses lost all their fear of the Yogis, and the Faith almost vanished from Punjab. Now you can see a lone Yogi in months only, who comes to visit Punjab from other parts of the Country. For our guidance, Guru Nanak Sahib has written this whole discussion with the Yogis in detail in Raag Ramkali, which is enshrined in Guru Granth Sahib on pages 938-46, and is called Sidh Gosht(i)

NOTE: Guru Granth Sahib does not give any credit to supernatural powers which can be acquired through concentration. Holy men of a high spiritual level get such powers without any special effort. However, they use them only rarely, and that too only to show the magnanimity of Waheguru. They never use to boost their own ego.

ਮੁੰਦਾ ਸੰਤੋਖੁ ਸਰਮੁ ਪਤੁ ਝੋਲੀ ਧਿਆਨ ਕੀ ਕਰਹਿ ਬਿਭੂਤਿ॥ ਖਿੰਥਾ ਕਾਲੁ ਕੁਆਰੀ ਕਾਇਆ ਜੁਗਤਿ ਡੰਡਾ ਪਰਤੀਤਿ॥ ਆਈ ਪੰਥੀ ਸਗਲ ਜਮਾਤੀ ਮਨਿ ਜੀਤੈ ਜਗੁ ਜੀਤੁ॥ ਆਦੇਸੁ ਤਿਸੈ ਆਦੇਸੁ ਆਦਿ ਅਨੀਲੁ ਅਨਾਦਿ ਅਨਾਹਤਿ ਜੁਗੁ ਜੁਗੁ ਏਕੋ ਵੇਸੁ॥ 28॥

Moonda suntokh(u) sherm(u) put(u) jholie, dhiyan ki kureh(i) bibhoot(i). Khintha kaal(u) kuvaari kaayaan, joogat(i) dunda perteet(i). Aayee punthi sugal jamaati, mun(i) jeetaiy jug(u) jeet(u). Aadays Tisaiy aadays. Aad aneel(u) unaad(i) anaahut(i) ,joog(u) joog(u) aiko vays(u). 28.

Word Meaning: Moonda = earrings. Suntokh = contentment. Sherm(u) = hard labour. Putt(u) = a shallow pot. Bibhoot(i) = ash. Khintha = a small quilt. Kuvaari Kaayaan = virgin body (high moral character). Joogat(i) = technique; way of life.

Aayee Punthi = One of the 12 sects of yogis. Sugal Jamaati = equality of all. Joogat(i) = way of life. Perteet(i) = faith. Aadays = bowing; show deep reverence. Aad(i) = from the very beginning; the source. Aneel(u) = unblemished (perfectly pure) Annahut(i) = non-perishable.

MEANING: (Addressing a yogi, Guru Nanak Sahib advises) rather than wearing meaningless glass earrings, make contentment your earrings (be content) oh yogi! And rather than carrying a shallow pot (putt) and a jholie to collect alms, and thus living off others, work hard (sherm) to earn your livelihood. Similarly, rather than covering your body with ash to look unattractive to women, meditate deeply (dhiyan), concentrating on Waheguru's Naam (which automatically takes your mind away from lust). Wearing a khintha (a quilted cover of rags – a sign of renunciation) does not make a man spiritual, and does not increase his longevity (which you always wish for), so rather than wearing a khintha, remember death (kaal) all the time that you have to die sooner or later. Do not use your body for unholy deeds; keep it morally clean. Full faith in Waheguru should be the stick in your hand so as to keep the evil away. You believe that your path to spirituality- Aayee Panth- is superior to others; this may be true only if you treat all human beings as your equals (being the children of the same Waheguru. Moreover, control your mind from chasing evil ideas; if you do that, you can control the whole world. This should be your way of life. And rather than bowing to some deity, bow to the Supreme Being, who is the root (origin) of the whole universe, is unblemished or perfectly pure, and has been there from the very beginning (i.e. you cannot find His beginning), is non-perishable, and is never changing over the eons (joog, joog aiko vays). 28.

Bhoogut(i) Giyan(u), duyya bhundaaran(i) ghut(i) ghut)i) vaajeh(i) naad. Aap(i) Nath(u), naathi subh Ja ki, ridh(i) sidh(i) uvra saad. Sunjog(u) vijog(u) dooyay kaar chulaaveh(i) laykhay aaveh(i) bhaag.

(PAGE 7): Aadays Tisaiy aadays. Aad(i) aneel(u) unaad(i) anaahut(i) joog(u) joog(u) eiko vays(u). 29.

Word Meaning: Bhoogat(i) = food (pershaad). Giyaan(u) = Divine Knowledge; connection with God. Duyya = compassion. Bhundaaran(i) = cook. Ghut(i) = in the heart. Naad = the bugle of the yogis. Nath(u) = Master. Naathi = stitched. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Uvra = different (causes of attraction for Maya). Sunjog(u) Vijog(u) = union and separation. Kaar = functioning. Bhaag = fortune.

Meaning: Distribute the Divine Knowledge with compassion as the pershad (the sweet dish that you distribute among the gathering as the gift of your Guru). The realization that God resides in every heart, should be the note of music (naad) that you produce by blowing your bugle. The Lord Himself is the Master (Nath) of the whole world, and everybody is stitched to (connected with) Him. In other words, nobody has any existence without Him. Supernatural powers and the glory associated with them (for which you strive) have their own attraction (they push you deeper into the gimmicks of Maya) and are a barrier to connecting with Waheguru (as their use boosts one's ego). Union and separation (from Waheguru, from family, relatives and mundane materials including Maya) are the two Natural forces that run the whole world, while fortune (based on man's deeds in past and present life) also play a role in this regard. So, rather than bowing to a deity, bow only to the Supreme Being which is the root of the whole universe, is unblemished or perfectly pure, whose beginning cannot be determined (anaad), is non-perishable and which never changes over the eons. 29.

ਏਕਾ ਮਾਈ ਜੁਗਤਿ ਵਿਆਈ ਤਿਨਿ ਚੇਲੇ ਪਰਵਾਣੁ॥ ਇਕੁ ਸੰਸਾਰੀ ਇਕੁ ਭੰਡਾਰੀ ਇਕੁ ਲਾਏ ਦੀਬਾਣੁ॥ ਜਿਵ ਤਿਸੁ ਭਾਵੈ ਤਿਵੈ ਚਲਾਵੈ ਜਿਵ ਹੋਵੈ ਫੁਰਮਾਣੁ॥ ਓਹੁ ਵੇਖੈ ਓਨਾ ਨਦਰਿ ਨ ਆਵੈ ਬਹੁਤਾ ਏਹੁ ਵਿਡਾਣੁ॥ ਆਦੇਸੁ ਤਿਸੈ ਆਦੇਸੁ॥ ਆਦਿ ਅਨੀਲੁ ਅਨਾਦਿ ਅਨਾਹਤਿ ਜੁਗੁ ਜੁਗੁ ਏਕੋ ਵੇਸੁ॥ 30॥

Aika maayee joogut(i) vihayee tin(i) chaylay pervaan(u). Ikk(u) sunsaari, ikk(u) bhundaari, ikk(u) laayay deebaan(u). Jiv Tis(u) bhaavaiy tivaiy chalaavaiy jiv hovaiy foormaan(u). Oh(u) vaykhaiy, ohna nudr(i) na aavaiy bahouta eh(u) vidaan(u). Aadays, Tisaiy aadays. Aad(i) aneel(u) unaad(i) anaahut(i) joog(u) joog(u) eiko vays(u). 30.

Word Meaning: Joogt(i) = technique; somehow. Viyahhi = became pregnant. Chaylay = disciples. Sunsari = creator. Bhudaari = provider. Deebaan(u) = Court (destroys). Bhaavaiy = desires. Chulaavaiy = runs (manages) the universe.

Vidaan(u) = amazement.

Meaning: Hindus believe that Maya (Maayee) somehow got pregnant and gave birth to three sons or disciples – Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva. Brahma is believed to be the creator of all life, Vishnu the provider, and Shiva the destroyer. But Guru Nanak Sahib does not believe in this myth. He professes that Waheguru alone is the controller of the universe and runs it in the ways He wishes, using His Command. He does not even need any assistance from anyone. The amazing thing is that even if any such gods do exist, they cannot see Waheguru, whereas Waheguru sees everybody. (Guru Nanak Sahib says) that I salute the Supreme Being who is the origin of everything, who is unblemished (perfectly pure), whose beginning cannot be determined, who is non-perishable, and is uniform (never changing) over the eons. 30

ਆਸਣੁ ਲੋਇ ਲੋਇ ਭੰਡਾਰ॥ ਜੋ ਕਿਛੁ ਪਾਇਆ ਸੁ ਏਕਾ ਵਾਰ॥ ਕਰਿ ਕਰਿ ਵੇਖੈ ਸਿਰਜਣਹਾਰੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਚੇ ਕੀ ਸਾਚੀ ਕਾਰ॥ ਆਦੇਸੁ ਤਿਸੈ ਆਦੇਸੁ॥ ਆਦਿ ਅਨੀਲੁ ਅਨਾਦਿ ਅਨਾਹਤਿ ਜੁਗੁ ਜੁਗੁ ਏਕੋ ਵੇਸੁ॥ 31॥

Aasun(u) loyay loyay bhundaar. Jo kichhu paaya so aika vaar. Kur(i) kur(i) vaykhaiy Sirjunhaar(u). Nanak Sachay ki Saachi kaar. Aadays, Tisaiy aadasy. Aad(i) aneel(u) unaad(i) anaahut(i) joog(u) joog(u) eiko vays. 31

Word Meaning: Aasun = seat; residence. Loyay Loyay = in every world. Bhundar = (treasures) of food and other necessary materials. Jo Kichh(u) Paaya So AIka Vaar = He filled the treasures just once forever. Sirjunhaar(u) = the Creator. Kaar = business; arrangement for looking after the universe.

Meaning: Waheguru resides in and has treasures to meet the needs of all living beings in every world. He has filled those treasures once, and for all, to the extent that they will never run out. Now the Creator simply looks over them. (Guru) Nanak says that the arrangements of the Perfect Waheguru are also perfect. I salute the Supreme Being who is the origin of everything, who is perfectly pure, is nonperishable, and whose beginning cannot be determined. He remains uniform (never changes) over the eons. 31.

ਇਕ ਦੂ ਜੀਭੌ ਲਖ ਹੋਹਿ ਲਖ ਹੋਵਹਿ ਲਖ ਵੀਸ॥ ਲਖੁ ਲਖੁ ਗੇੜਾ ਆਖੀਅਹਿ ਏਕੁ ਨਾਮੁ ਜਗਦੀਸ॥ ਏਤੁ ਰਾਹਿ ਪਤਿ ਪਵੜੀਆ ਚੜੀਐ ਹੋਇ ਇਕੀਸ॥ ਸੁਣਿ ਗਲਾ ਆਕਾਸ ਕੀ ਕੀਟਾ ਆਈ ਰੀਸ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਨਦਰੀ ਪਾਈਐ ਕੂੜੀ ਕੂੜੈ ਠੀਸ॥32॥

Ikk doo jeebhoun lukh hoh(i), lukh hoveh(i) lukh vees. Lukh(u) lukh(u) gayrra akhiyeh(i), aik(u) Naam(u) Jugdeesh. Ait(u) raah(i) Put(i) puvrriyaan, churriyaiy hoyay ikees. Soon(i) gullaan aakaash kee, keeta aayee rees. Nanak nudri paayeeyay koorreen koorraiy tthees. 32.

Word Meaning: Jeebhoun = tongue. Doo = from. Gayrra = repeat; times. Jugdeesh = the Master of the world (Waheguru). Put(I) = husband; master (Waheguru). Puvrriyaan = ladder; stairs. Ikees = one with Waheguru. Aakaash = sky (individuals who have become one with Waheguru). Keeta = ant (ignoble). Nudri = His kind sight; benevolence. Koorreen = fake; imperfect; (engrossed in Maya). Tthees = false claim.

Meaning: I wish the number of my tongues increased from one to a hundred thousand (lakh) and further increased twenty lakh times. I further wish that I could recite Waheguru's Naam a hundred thousand times with each tongue, because recitation of Waheguru's Naam acts like a ladder which enables one to reach the otherwise inaccessible Waheguru (which has a very high spiritual state; is transcendental), and become "one" with Him (ikees). When they hear about the level of bliss of such holy people. As a result of their connection with Waheguru, some Maya -engrossed people begin to copy them. But the self-praise of their efforts (tthees) is fruitless, because their efforts are as fake (hollow) as they themselves are. They cannot please Waheguru by their fake efforts (which are just show-offs).

Waheguru can be reached only with His kind sight after one puts in his honest efforts.
NOTE: My interpretation of this holy Shabad is completely opposite to that of some highly respected scholars who profess that reciting Waheguru's Naam with tongue is useless. This may be so for people who do so only to show off, but not true for the real devotees. There are many, many Shabads in Guru Granth Sahib which reiterate again and again that one must recite Waheguru's Naam with one's tongue as much as one can before it begins to take root in one's heart (mind). I will quote only a few Shabads out of hundreds.

- ਸਿਰੀ ਰਾਗ ਮ:1 ਅਸਟਪਦੀ (59)॥ ------ ਇਕੁ ਤਿਲੁ ਪਿਆਰਾ ਵਿਸਰੈ, ਦੁਖ ਲਾਗੈ ਸੁਖੁ ਜਾਇ॥ ਜਿਹਵਾ ਜਲਉ ਜਲਾਵਣੀ ਨਾਮੁ ਨ ਜਪੈ ਰਸਾਇ॥ -----

Meaning: All my comfort is lost, and discomforts start taking root in my heart if I forget my dear (Waheguru) even for a single second. The tongue, which does not recite Waheguru's Naam while enjoying it, deserves to be burnt, and should burn. ----------

- ਕਲਿਆਣ ਮਹਲਾ 4 (1320)॥ ਮੇਰੇ ਮਨ ਜਪੁ ਜਪਿ ਜਗੰਨਾਥ॥ ------ ਰਸਨਾ ਏਕ ਜਸੁ ਗਾਇ ਨ ਸਾਕੈ, ਬਹੁ ਕੀਜੈ ਰਸਨਥੇ॥ ਬਾਰ ਬਾਰ ਖਿਨੁ ਪਲ ਸਭ ਗਾਵਹਿ ਗੁਨ ਕਹਿ ਨ ਸਕਹਿ ਪ੍ਰਭ ਤੁਮਨਥੇ॥

Meaning: Recite the Naam of the Lord of the world (Waheguru), oh my mind. -------- I have only one tongue which is not enough to sing the full praise of Waheguru, so I beg Him to give me many more tongues. (Waheguru has so many noble qualities) that even if all the tongues sing His praise repeatedly every single moment, they still cannot sing all Your qualities, oh Waheguru. ----------

- ਸੂਹੀ ਮਹਲਾ 5 (780)॥ ਕਰਿ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਮੇਰੇ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਮ ਸੁਆਮੀ ਨੇਤ੍ਰ ਦੇਖਹਿ ਦਰਸੁ ਤੇਰਾ ਰਾਮ॥ ਲਾਖ ਜਿਹਵਾ ਦੇਹੁ ਮੇਰੇ ਪਿਆਰੇ, ਮੁਖਿ ਹਰਿ ਆਰਾਧੇ ਮੇਰਾ ਰਾਮ॥ ------

Meaning: Please be kind to me so that I could have a glimpse of Yours with my eyes, oh my dear Lord, Waheguru. Bless me with millions of tongues so that I may recite Your Naam with each of them. ----------

- ਆਸਾ ਨਾਮਦੇਉ ਜੀ (485)॥ ਮਨੁ ਮੇਰੋ ਗਜੁ ਜਿਹਬਾ ਮੇਰੀ ਕਾਤੀ॥ ਮਪਿ ਮਪਿ ਕਾਟਉ ਜਮ ਕੀ ਫਾਸੀ॥ 1॥ ਕਹਾ ਕਰਉ ਜਾਤੀ ਕਹ ਕਰਉ ਪਾਤੀ॥ ਰਾਮ ਕੋ ਨਾਮੁ ਜਪਉ ਦਿਨ ਰਾਤੀ॥ ------

Meaning: I use the concentration of my pure mind as the yard (to measure), and my tongue (with which I recite Waheguru's Naam all the time), as scissors to cut the noose of the angel of death (death can cause me no harm). My low caste and my low clan in the society cannot act as impediments to my reciting Waheguru's Naam day and night. ----------

Aakhun(i) joar(u) choopaiy neh joar(u). Joar(u) na mungan(i) dayn(i) na joar(u). Joar(u) na jeevan(i), mern(i) neh joar(u). Joar(u) na raaj(i) maal(i) mun)i) shoar(u). Joar(u) na soorti giyaan(i) veechaar(i). Joar(u) na joogti chhootaiy sunsaar(u). Jis(u) huth(i) joar(u) kur(i) vaykhaiy soyay. Nanak ootum(u) neech(u) na koyay. 33.

Word Meaning: Joar(u) = ability; control. Raaj(i) = on governing. Maal(i) = on property and wealth. Mun(i) shoar(u) = desires or wishes of the mind. Soorti = the one on which you focus your mind (Waheguru); wisdom. Joogti = technique. Chootaiy Sunsar(u) = freedom from the worldly attractions. Ootum(u) = superior. Neech(u) = inferior.

MEANING: (Based on the deeds of a man's previous life, and as per the Will of Waheguru based on His Laws, the man is born with some traits such as kindness, honesty, helpfulness, reliability, fear of God, etc., on one hand, and cruelty, cheating, trouble-causing, lies, antagonism and malice etc. on the other. Also, the man is born in an environment where his traits are reinforced and become unchangeable, and cannot be changed by his own efforts unless he takes shelter of the Guru.

So, we can say that he has no control or freedom over any of his behaviours.

With this background, let us now discuss the meaning of the holy Shabad. The man has no control all the time about what he says (good or bad) because he may involuntarily say something for which he may have to regret later, or he may be prompted to say something appropriate which he never intended to say, but as a result of which he may be rewarded later. Likewise, he may be forced to stay quiet in a situation, as a result of which he may lose a chance to defend himself.

Similarly, the man has no control over his demands or wishes all the time (he may wish for things he doesn't want and has no control over what he may have to give up, because the conditions may be such that things may happen against his wishes). Man has no control as to when and where he will be born or what type of future life he will have; and he has no control over when and how he will die. Man has no control over whether he will govern some state, or he will be wealthy, and man has no control even over the wishes of his mind. Man has no control over concentrating on Waheguru, or over using his knowledge to ponder Waheguru's gifts and His noble qualities. All such qualities are given to the man by Waheguru. Man has no control over acquiring the technique required to break the worldly bonds. All the controls are in Waheguru's hands, and He is using them to create and look after the living beings. Because nobody has any control (and everybody seems to be a puppet in Waheguru's hands), nobody can be superior or inferior to others.

NOTE: There are many holy shabads in Guru Granth Sahib which support this idea that Waheguru controls everything. We will quote only one such Shabad which will clearly prove this point. However, Waheguru's judgment is based on a person's own deeds – past and present.

- ਸਲੋਕ ਮਹਲਾ 1 (952)॥ ------ ਸਭਿ ਘਟਿ ਮੇਰੇ, ਹਉ ਸਭਨਾ ਅੰਦਰਿ, ਜਿਸਹਿ ਖੁਆਈ (ਖੁਆਰ ਕਰਾਂ) ਤਿਸੁ ਕਉਣੁ ਕਹੈ॥ ਜਿਸਹਿ ਦਿਖਾਲਾ ਵਾਟੜੀ ਤਿਸਹਿ ਭੁਲਾਵੈ ਕਉਣ॥ ਜਿਸਹਿ ਬੁਲਾਈ ਪੰਧ ਸਿਰਿ ਤਿਸਹਿ ਦਿਖਾਵੈ ਕਉਣੁ॥ 1॥

Meaning: -------- (Waheguru says) All the hearts are mine, and I reside in each one of them. If I want someone to suffer, who can help him? If I guide someone (or show him the right path), no one can mislead him, but if I misguide someone right at the start, nobody can guide him to the right path.

NOTE: Guru Nanak Sahib has defined five spiritual stages (or states) of a man's spiritual development on the path to realizing Waheguru. These stages are called Khunds, and are named Dherm Khund (Stage of Responsibility), Giyaan Khund (Stage of Knowledge), Sherm Khund, (Stage of Dedication and Hard Work), Kerm Khund (Stage of Benevolence) and Such Khund (State of Union with God or His Residence). The next four Paurris define and explain the duties and the achievements of the man for each stage or Khund.

Sacha Aap(i) Sacha Durbaar(u). Tithaiy sohun(i) punch pervaan(u). Nudri kerm(i) puvaiy neeshaan(u). Kuch pukayee oathaiy paayay. Nanak guyyaan jaapaiy jaayay. 34.

Word Meaning: Rooti = seasons. Thiti = days based on the phases of the moon. Thaap(i) = established; framed. Dhermshaal = place to learn and to perform noble deeds. Kay = many; infinite. Kermi = depending upon their deeds. Sacha = just. Sohun(i) = look distinguished; are recognized. Nudri Kerm(i) = the sight of kindness of Waheguru. Neeshaan(u) = identification; stamp of approval. Kuch Pukayee = unacceptable (bad) or acceptable (good) deeds; under-accomplishments and accomplishments. Jaapaiy = realize.

MEANING: Before creating life on this planet, Waheguru created conditions suitable for life, and for life to flourish. He created nights, days, seasons, and the changing phases of the moon. He also created air, water, fire, and the underworlds (pataal). After having created all these conditions, Waheguru has made the Earth a place for humans to learn and develop a character of righteousness. There are many kinds of living beings with diverse lifestyles on Earth. There are countless names for different life forms. Each living being (especially humans) is closely watched for their deeds, which are evaluated by Waheguru. Waheguru is perfectly Just and so is His Court. The Punches (spiritually accomplished holy men. See Paurri 16) look distinguished in Waheguru's Court. The kind Waheguru's generosity puts the stamp of approval on their deeds. (Guru) Nanak says you come to realize this only when you are in Waheguru's Court, where accomplishments and underachievements are carefully evaluated. This early stage of performance, or of righteousness, is called Dherm Khund. 34.

NOTE: When a noun ends with a (u) at the end, it represents a male. But male nouns without a (u) at the end signify plural form.

Word Meaning: Dherm(u) = expected high-moral behaviour; responsibility. Kerm(u) = description of happenings. Vaaisuntar = fire. Gharrut(i) Ghurriyeh(i) = construct beautifully. Kerm Bhoomi = earth-like places where humans perform deeds as in Dherm Khund. Mayr = A mythical mountain of precious stones. Mundal Days = solar systems; galaxies. Dayv = gods. Daanuv = demons. Ruttan Smoond = seas of precious stones (all mythical). Khaani = sources of reproduction. Baani = language. Narind = king. Soorti = different forms of concentration.

MEANING: Explained above is the description of the Dherm Khund (or the stage of Responsibility or Righteousness). Now follows the description of Giyaan Khund (stage of Knowledge). There are many, or countless, types of puvun or air (gases), water (liquids), and fire (energy), and countless gods like Krishna and Shiva. (According to Hindu Granths, Brahma is believed to be the creator of all living beings) However, there are countless Brahmas who create bodies of many looks (roop), colours and dresses (meaning varieties). (The qualifier "countless" implies that there is no power other than Waheguru in the universe to assist Him in any way. He alone is the creator, the provider, and the destroyer). There are countless earths (kerm bhoomi) for humans to develop the noble quality of righteousness.

(Continuing the description of Giyaan Khund, Guru Sahib says) that there are countless Dhroovs with similar advice or similar stories. There are countless types of clouds (Indra is considered the god of rain), countless moons and suns, and countless solar systems (mundal days). There are countless Sidh Yogis with limited degrees of supernatural powers, countless enlightened holy men like the Buddha, countless accomplished yogis, and countless goddesses with different ideologies (vays or dresses). There are countless other gods, countless demons, countless hermits (mooni) and countless mythical seas of precious stones. (It is generally believed that there are four khaanis or sources of reproduction of life – live births, eggs, vegetation, and from seeds or eggs in air which come to life under favourable conditions. Likewise, it is believed that there are four kinds of ways of communication. But Guru Nanak Sahib professes that the above is NOT true. There are countless sources of reproduction (which scientists are certifying now) and countless ways by which living beings - including vegetation - communicate, and countless rulers (in all four sources of reproduction). There are countless devotees who meditate with varying degrees of deep concentration. Guru Nanak says that there is no end to the wonders of the Creator!! 35.

NOTE 1: (Dhoo or Dhroov was the son of a mythical king who lived hundreds of thousands of years ago. The King had several queens, but Dhroov's mother was the very first or the prime wife. One day, Dhroov was sitting in his father's lap, when his step mother pulled him out of the King's lap. Dhroov was hurt deeply at this "step- motherly" treatment, but, at the advice of his mother he went to the nearby forest to worship God).

NOTE 2: From this Paurri, it is clear that how deep knowledge of the universe did Guru Nanak Sahib possess!!

ਗਿਆਨ ਖੰਡ ਮਹਿ ਗਿਆਨੁ ਪਰਚੰਡ॥ ਤਿਥੈ ਨਾਦ ਬਿਨੋਦ ਕੋਡ ਅਨੰਦੁ॥

Giyaan khund meh(i) giyaan(u) perchund. Tithaiy naad binoad koad anund(u).
(PAGE 8): Sherm khund kee bani roop(u). Tithaiy ghaarrut(i) ghurriyaiy bahout(u) anoop(u). Taa keeyaan gullaan kuthiyaan na jaah(i). Jay ko kuhhaiy pichhaiy puchhtaayay. Tithaiy ghurriyaiy soorut(i) mut(i) mun(i) boodh(i). Tithaiy ghurriyaiy sooraan sidhaan ki soodh(i). 36.

Word Meaning: Giyan Khund = Stage of Knowledge. Perchund = very bright.
Naad= music. Binoad = amazing. Koad = uncanny. Anund(u) = bliss. Sherm Khund = Stage of dedication and hard work. Bani = development. Gharrut(i) = shape; design. Ghurriyaiy = to mould; to create. Anoop(u) = beautiful. Kuthiyaan = described. Soorut(i) = concentration; wisdom. Sooraan = of gods. Soodh(i) = enlightenment.

MEANING: Divine Knowledge (Giyan) shines brightly in the Stage of Knowledge (enlightens the mind) to the extent that one begins to feel the bliss of lilting music, and amazing and uncanny performances. Simply put, the Stage of Dedication and Hard Work is the stage of development for the beauty (roop) of the mind. In this Stage, man's mind and thinking are moulded with unparalleled beauty. The mental or spiritual level of such accomplished holy men is beyond description. If someone tries to describe that, he begins to feel stupid because of his futile (unsuccessful) effort. In that Stage, new concentration, new thinking, and new wisdom are created in the mind of the devotee who has already attained the Second Stage. Also, such a devotee is bestowed with a high level of enlightenment like that of the gods. 36.

NOTE: Compare the last two sentences with the idea in Paurri number 13.

Kerm khund kee baani joar(u). Tithaiy hoar(u) na koyee hoar(u). Tithaiy jodh mahabul soor. Tin meh(i) Ram(u) ruhhiya bherpoor. Tithaiy seeto seeta mehma maah(i). Ta kay roop na kuthnay jaah(i). Na oh(i) murrh(i) na tthaagay jaah(i). Jin kaiy Ram(u) vussaiy mun maah(i). Tithaiy bhugat vussaiy kay loe. Kureh(i) anund(u) Sacha mun(i) Soyay. Sach khund(i) vussaiy Nirunkaar. Nanak kuthnaa ker-rraw saar(u). 37.

Word Meaning: Kerm Khund = Stage of Benevolence. Baani = construction; development. Jodh Mahabul Soor = gallants (who have controlled their minds). Bherpoor = full to the brim.

Seeto seeta = firmly stitched (connected). Mehma = praise. Tthaagay = robbed; cheated. Kay loe = of many worlds. Nihaal = fully satisfied and blissful. Verbhund = galaxies. Ker-rraw= tough. Saar(u) = iron; steel.

MEANING: When a man reaches the Stage of Benevolence, his soul develops to the level where his mind becomes extremely strong (perfectly stable; no effect of Maya), and he feels nothing other than Waheguru in his mind. The devotees who attain that level of soul development are the true gallant and valiant. At that level, the devotees are completely connected to Waheguru and sing His praise. Their spiritual beauty (roop) is beyond description. Being "one" with Waheguru, such devotees have always Waheguru in their mind, and they neither die (because they are "one" with Waheguru), nor are they robbed of their spiritual development. At that level, the devotees "see" that there are many other devotees at that level from other worlds who feel blissful with Waheguru (Sacha) in their mind, which becomes a dwelling for Waheguru. The next higher level is the Sach Khund, where the devotee can "see" how Waheguru looks after His Creation with a kind sight, and is always blissful. The devotee can "see" that there are countless solar systems and galaxies in Waheguru's creation that nobody can find their end. In all these countless worlds, the living beings do exactly what Waheguru's Will (His laws) dictates. (Guru) Nanak says that it is as difficult to describe that "view" as to chew steel with teeth (of wax). However, Waheguru thinks of and looks after His Creation happily (without any stress on Him), and enjoys it. 37.

ਜਤੁ ਪਾਹਾਰਾ ਧੀਰਜੁ ਸੁਨਿਆਰੁ॥ ਅਹਰਣਿ ਮਤਿ ਵੇਦੁ ਹਥਿਆਰੁ॥ ਭਉ ਖਲਾ ਅਗਨਿ ਤਪ ਤਾਉ॥ ਭਾਂਡਾ ਭਾਉ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਿਤੁ ਤਿਤੁ ਢਾਲਿ॥ ਘੜੀਐ ਸਬਦੁ ਸਚੀ ਟਕਸਾਲ॥ ਜਿਨ ਕਉ ਨਦਰਿ ਕਰਮੁ ਤਿਨ ਕਾਰ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਨਦਰੀ ਨਦਰਿ ਨਿਹਾਲ॥ 38॥

Jut(u) pahaara dheeraj(u) sooniyaar(u). Ehrun(i) mut(i) vayd(u) huthiyaar(u). Bhuou khullan ugun tup taao. Bhaanda bhaaou amrit(u) tit(u) dhaal(i). Ghurriyaiy shabad(u) Sachi tuksaal. Jin kuou nudr(i) kerm(u) tin kaar. Nanak Nudri nudr(i) nihaal. 38.

Word Meaning: Jut(u) = control on sensual pleasures. Pahaara = machine shop. Dheeruj = patience. Suniyaar = goldsmith. Ehrun(i) = anvil. Vayd = knowledge. Huthiyaar(u) = weapon (hammer). Bhuou = fear (of God). Khullan = leather (wind pipe); bellows. Tup = hard meditation or perseverance (on Waheguru's Naam). Bhaanda = vessel (mind). Bhaaou = affection and respect for Waheguru. Dhaal(i) = by moulding. Shabad = expected behaviour; duty. (see the note below). Sachi Tuksaal = the True mint (of high moral values). Nudri = the one who casts kind sight.

Nudr(i) = kind sight. Nihaal = eternal bliss.

Note the difference between Nudri and nudr(i).

NOTE: In most cases the word "Shabad" means Guru's Advice or Waheguru's praise. But occasionally, the word also means expected behaviour or duty. Pay attention to the following holy Shabad.

- ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:2 ਆਸਾ ਦੀ ਵਾਰ (469)॥ ਜੋਗ ਸਬਦੰ ਗਿਆਨ ਸਬਦੰ ਬੇਦ ਸਬਦੰ ਬ੍ਰਾਹਮਣਹ॥ ਖਤ੍ਰੀ ਸਬਦੰ ਸੂਰ ਸਬਦੰ ਸੂਦ੍ਰ ਸਬਦੰ ਪਰਾਕ੍ਰਿਤਹ॥ ਸਰਬ ਸਬਦੰ ਏਕ ਸਬਦੰ ਜੇ ਕੋ ਜਾਣੈ ਭੇਉ॥ ਨਾਨਕੁ ਤਾ ਕਾ ਦਾਸੁ ਹੈ ਸੋਈ ਨਿਰੰਜਨ ਦੇਉ॥ 4॥

MEANING: The expected behaviour of the yogis is to acquire knowledge of their faith, and that of the Brahmans is to read the Vedas. The expected behaviour of the Khattris is to be warriors, and that of the untouchables (low castes) is to serve the upper classes. However, the expected behaviour of all human beings is to worship the "One" (Waheguru). I would be the slave of the individual who realizes this secret (achieves this objective), oh Nanak. Such an individual becomes like God. 4.

MEANING: At the end, Guru Nanak Sahib advises that (concisely) the path to raise the level of your soul so that it can be "one" with Waheguru is that you need to follow the recipe as described next, oh man! (Compare your present state of mind to a nugget of raw gold, and your elevated soul to a beautiful ornament). Just as a goldsmith works with raw gold in his machine shop to refine the nugget to give it the shape of the desired ornament, you need to do something similar with your mind (soul). The goldsmith heats the nugget with a small blowpipe, then melts it and places it in the die to give it the desired shape. Finally, he strikes the still rough ornament with a small hammer using his skill, wisdom, and patience to refine it. Now the beautiful ornament is ready.
To refine your soul, you also need a shop which requires your control over your sensual pleasures, oh man! Patience should act as the goldsmith. Guru's wisdom or His teachings should function as the anvil (to shape or soften your mind), and knowledge acquired from the Guru should be the hammer. Respectful fear of Waheguru should be the windpipe to control the size of the flame (to melt your mind so that it can be shaped as desired), and your perseverance should be the fire or temperature (taao) to melt the raw mind. Respect and love for Waheguru (bhaaou) should serve as the die that shapes your mind. Such noble characteristics constitute the eternal mint in which the expected noble behaviour (approved by Waheguru and which leads to union with Him) is shaped. However, only those lucky individuals follow this recipe to whom the Kind Waheguru (Nudri) casts His kind sight, and the individuals attain the level of eternal bliss (nihaal).

SLOAK

Puvun(u) guru paani pita maata dhert(i) meht(u). Divus raat(i) dooyay daayee daaya khaylaiy sugal jugat(u). Chungiyayiaan booriyayiaan vaachaiy Dherm(u) hudoor(i). Kermi aapo aapni kay nayrraiy kay door(i). Jinhee Naam(u) dhiyayaa, guyyay mashukut(i) ghaal(i). Nanak tay mookh oojlay kaytee chhootti naal(i).

Word Meaning: Puvun = air. Meht(u) = of great significance. Daayee Daaya = female and male nannies. Khaylaiy = plays, enjoys. Sugal Jugat(u) = whole world. Vaachaiy = evaluates. Hudoor(i) = In Waheguru's court. Kermi = based on one's deeds. Kay = many; some. Mashukut(i) ghaal(i) = successfulful in their hard work or efforts. Chhootti = salvaged. Naal(i) = with (in their company)

MEANING: [As explained in Paurri 34, the kind Waheguru has created the necessities of life on this planet (and on many others) for living beings to enjoy]. For example, (oxygen) in the air (puvun) purifies the blood just as the Guru purifies the soul. Water acts like father and is needed to sustain and nourish life. Earth is the great mother. The day and the night play the role of nannies, providing opportunities for rest and work, as well as for fun and eating. Thus, the whole world is enjoying life. The noble (chungiyayiaan), or the evil deeds (booriyayiaan) of the people are being constantly recorded, which the Justice of deeds (Dharma) evaluates (vaachaiy) in the Waheguru's Court (hadoor). Based on an individual's deeds, some get close to Waheguru (get connected with Him) while others get farther away (disconnected) from Him. However, those who worked hard to worship Waheguru (Naam dhiyayaa) They are successful in their efforts. (Guru) Nanak says that their faces shine (they are honoured) in Waheguru's Court, and many others also swim across the ocean of life or find salvation in their company.

NOTE: In addition to air, Puvun has been used in Guru Granth Sahib to carry a few more meanings. Air also means breathing (or breath), and it has also been used to mean the human mind because it is very fickle, like the changing direction of the wind. Air has also been used to imply Shabad.

Air is important for our living, but it does not have the same function as the Guru; so, it cannot mean breath in this Sloak. Air could mean mind because most people do follow the advice of their mind, like that of the Guru; however, mind is not one of Waheguru's basic gifts like water, earth, and fire; so again, it is not the likely implication of air in this holy Sloak. For the same reason, Shabad does not seem to be the appropriate meaning of air. For these reasons, we chose the highly deep meaning of air to be its oxygen component, which cleanses our blood the way the Guru cleanses our souls.

Such a deep knowledge of nature forces us to bow to the Great Guru Nanak!! We salute Him.
