Ghut unter(i) = in everybody. Niruntar(i) = continuous; without any gap. Smaana = mixed completely; be a part of. Choaj Vidaana = amazing acts. Bhoogta = user; one who enjoys. Uver(u) = somebody else. Jaana = recognize. Parbrahm = beyond reach. Bayunt(u) = limitless. Vakhaana = describe. Kurbaana = self-sacrifice. 2. Joog(u) Meh(i) = in the world. Sookhvaasi = live in comfort. Mukut(u) = free from the bonds of maya. Jum ki Phaasi = the noose of the angel of death. Nirbhuou = fearless (Waheguru). Bhou = fear. Guvaasi = eliminate. Khut(u) Kerm = six deeds (to study and to teach; to perform yagna and to motivate others to do the same; to donate and accept donations). Bhulay = approved. Bhaaveh(i) = liked. Bhugvanta = Waheguru. 4. Aad(i) = from the very beginning; the origin. Uprumpur (u) = farther and farther (with no end). Kerta = Creator. Jayvud(u) = as large. Nihchul = everlasting. Bhaavaiy = to Your liking (as per Your wishes). Vertaiy = happens; takes place. Srishut(i) = universe. Sirj(i) = after creating. Goyee = destroys. Jaanoyee = one who knows. 5.

MEANING: The Living Supreme Being, Waheguru, is above the effects of Maya. The limitless Waheguru is beyond limits. Everybody thinks of you (recites Your Naam), oh, the perfect creator, Waheguru! All living beings are Yours (created by You), and You are their provider. Always remember Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all discomforts, oh holy men! (Being present in all life) Waheguru Himself is the Lord, and Himself the server. The living being is helpless (has no control). 1.

You are present in each and every body all the time, and thus are mixed with the entire universe (everything is a part of Yours). But it is Your amazing (strange) ways, oh Waheguru, that some people are providers (limited donors), while some others are beggars. (Being present in everybody) You Yourself are the provider and yourself the user, oh Waheguru! I do not recognize anybody other than you (who can play these roles), oh my Lord! You are the greatest of all, oh limitless Waheguru! I am unable to describe all Your noble qualities. I simply wish to sacrifice my life for those who remember You (sing Your praise). 2.

Those who sing Your praise lead a comfortable life in this world, oh my Lord! They are able to break the bonds of Maya, thereby escaping the noose of the Angel of death (they become free from reincarnation). Those who recite the Naam (sing praise) of the fearless Lord get rid of all their fears, and they are absorbed in Waheguru to become “one” with Him. They are worthy of praise, and I wish to sacrifice my life for them. 3.

There are countless treasures full of Your worship (there are countless devotees who have been enabled by You for Your worship), oh my Lord! And there are countless devotees who sing Your praise for Your countless forms. And there are countless who worship you in various ways, meditating and self-afflicting (enduring hardships). There are countless others who study the Hindu holy books and perform the six recognized rituals – to study the Vedas and teach; to perform yagna and motivate others to do the same; to donate and to accept donations. However, only those devotees are approved by my Lord whom He likes. 4. You are the origin of everything, and are the creator, oh my limitless Waheguru! Nobody else can rival You. You are the only one who has always been there through the eons, and You are the everlasting creator. Only those events take place in the universe which you desire, and only that happens, which You cause (to happen). You create the entire universe, and You destroy it at Your Will. The devotee, Nanak, simply sings the praise of the Creator who knows everything. 5.

Uver(u) = somebody else. Kur(i) Kur(i) Vaykheh(i) = create and watch (look after). Gurmukh(i) = through the Guru. Purgut(u) = appear; reveal; unfold. 4.2.
MEANING: You are the source of noble qualities, are everlasting and the creator of the universe, oh my Lord, Waheguru! Only that happens that you wish; and I receive only that which You provide. Pause. The whole creation is Yours (You created everything), and everybody worships You. But only that individual realizes Your invaluable Naam, to whom You are kind. Your faithful devotees realize Your Naam while the non-believers lose it (the opportunity to realize). But it is Your own Will that some are disconnected from You while You connect with some others. 1.
You are like a river of life, oh my Lord! Everybody is contained in You (is Your part). There is nobody without You. All the living beings are Your creation. As per Your law of separation (disconnection), those who are disconnected are reconnected with you as per their destiny for reunion. 2.
Only those people know You (Your secrets) who are enabled by You. Such people always describe (disseminate) Your noble traits. Those who serve You are always absorbed in Your Naam without any special effort and lead comfortable lives. 3.
You alone are the creator, and everybody is Your creation. There is nobody other than You (as the creator and the provider). You create, and watch Your creation (look after it). You reveal Your existence through the Guru. 4.2.

MEANING: We have taken birth in such a pool (of life) which Waheguru has filled with the fire (of wanton desires such as lust, greed, attachment, etc.) rather than water. Living beings cannot take a step out of the mud of attachment, as a result of which, they are drowning in the pool (they are getting entangled more and more in their desires) as I am watching. 1. All this is happening because you have forgotten the kind Waheguru, as a result of which all your good qualities are rotting away, oh my stupid, and ignorant mind! Pause.

Neither do I have any good qualities, such as celibacy and good moral character, nor am I an educated person. My life is just like that of an ignorant, stupid person. I (Guru Nanak) humbly request my Lord to kindly give me the refuge of the holy men who have not forgotten Him. 2.3.

Kuhou Nanak hum neech kerma. Shern(i) purray kee rakhou sherma.2.4

Word Meaning: Bhuyee Praput(i) = have acquired (been given). Manookh dayhuriya = human body. Gobind = Waheguru; God. Buriya = turn, chance, opportunity. Uver(i) = other. Kaaj = tasks. Kitaiy na Kaam = of no use. Saadh Sungat(i) = holy congregation. Bhuj(u) = recite; sing the praise. Kayvul Naam = only Waheguru's Naam. 1. Srunjaam(i) = make effort (arrangements). Shern(i) = in refuge. Shermaa = dignity. 2.

MEANING: You have been given the body of a human being, which is your opportunity to realize Waheguru, oh my friend! No other task (rituals and the like) is of any use to you (in the path of spirituality). So, sing Waheguru's praise in the company of holy men. 1. You are wasting away your time enjoying the colourful world of Maya, oh my friend. Make arrangements to swim across the sea of Maya (break the worldly bonds to attain emancipation), oh my mind. Pause.

I have not recited Waheguru's Naam, or done any hard labour to realize Him. Neither have I any control over my sensual desires, nor have I performed any noble deed. I have not even learned to serve the holy men, and have not worshiped Waheguru. I (Guru Nanak) admit that all my deeds are ignoble; I humbly request You (my Lord, Waheguru), to please save my dignity as I have come to seek Your refuge. 2.4.
