Ek Onkar Sat(i) Naam(u) Kerta Purakh(u) Nirbhuou Nirvair(u)
Akal Moorut(i) Ajooni Saibhun(g) Gur Persad(i):

MEANING: Chaupuday = Shabads with four stanzas (verses).
There is only One Supreme Living Being; His existence is (and His Laws) are eternal; He is the creator, and is the Living Power; He is fearless (as He has no rival and is above the effects of Maya). He bears no enmity with anyone (He is completely impartial, and delivers pure justice); His persona is not affected by time (He is timeless); He takes no living form; and is self-illuminated. He can be realized only with the grace of the Guru.

(PAGE 1125): Toojh tay baahur(i) kichhoo na hoyay. Tu kur(i), kur(i) daykheh(i) jaaneh(i) soyay. 1. Kiyya kuhhiyaiy, kichh(u) kuhhi na jaayay. Jo ahhaiy, subh Tayri rujaayay. 1. Ruhaou. Jo kichh(u) kerna, su Tayraiy paas(i). Kis(u) aagaiy keechaiy ardaas(i). 2. Aakhun(u), soon-na, Tayri Bani. Tu Aapay jaaneh(i), serb vidaani. 3. Kuray kuraayay, jaanaiy Aap(i). Nanak daykhaiy thaap(i), oothaap(i). 4.1.

Word Meaning: Baahur(i) = outside of; without. Soyay = the same. 1. Ahhaiy = is. Rujaayay = Will. Pause. Paas(i) = with; to. Keechaiy Ardaas(i) = offer prayer. 2. Bani = words in (Waheguru's) praise. Serb Vidaani = performer of all amazing tasks. 3. Thaap(i) = create. Oothaap(i) = destroy. 4.

MEANING: Nothing happens without Your Huqam (approval), and You watch everything that You create (or cause to happen), oh, Waheguru. 1.
We have no ability to say anything against what You do (if we do not like that) because whatever happens, happens with Your Will. Pause. Only You have the power to do things which You like, so who should we pray to, oh Waheguru? 2.
You are the performer of all the amazing tasks, and only You know about them. We can only listen to and sing Your praise. You know what You need to do, and get others to do the same, oh Waheguru. The Lord watches things that He creates and destroys, oh, Nanak. 4.1.

EK Onkar Satgur Persad(i): Raag(u) Bhairon, Mehla 1, Ghur(u) 2:

Gur kaiy Shabad(i) turay moon(i) kaytay, Indradik, Brahmad(i) turay. Sunuk. Snundun, tupsee jun kaytay, Gur Persadi paar(i) puray. 1. Bhuvjul(u), bin(u) Shabadaiy kiyoun turiyaiy? Naam binaa jug(u) roag(i) biyaapiya, doobidhaa doob(i), doob(i) muriyaiy. 1 Ruahou. Gur(u) Deva, Gur(u) Alukh Abhayva, tirbhuvun sojhi Gur kee sayva. Aapay daat(i) kuree Gur(i) Daataiy, paaya Alukh Abhayva. 2. Mun(u) rajah, mun(u) mun tay maaniya, munsa muneh(i) smaayi. Mun(u) yogi, mun(u) binus(i) biyogi, mun(u) sumjhaiy goon gaayi. 3. Gur tay mun(u) maariya, Shabad(u) veechaariya, tay virlay sunsaasra. Nanak, Sahib bhurpoor(i) leena, Saach Shabad(i) nistaara. 4.1.2.

Word Meaning: Moon(i) = hermits; sages. Inderadik = like the god Indra. Brahmad(i) = like Brahma. Sunuk, Snundun = sons of Brahma. Tupsee = who torture themselves to please their deity. Paar(i) Puray = ferried across (the world-sea); salvaged. 1. Bhuvjul(u) = the sea of Maya. Doobidha Roag(i) Biyaapiya = suffers in indecisiveness (which is like a sickness). Pause. Deva = source of enlightenment. Alukh = incomprehensible. Abhayva = enigmatic; whose secrets cannot be known. Daat(u) = the gift of His Naam. 2. Maaniya = convinced; contented. Munsa = wishes. Binus(i) = destroy; kill one's desires. Biyogi = detached from worldly attractions (and love Waheguru). Sumjhaiy = realizes; gets enlightened. 3. Tay = those. Virlay = rare. Bhurpoor(i) Leena = fully present everywhere. Nistaara = salvation. 4.

MEANING: Countless sages and gods like Indra and Brahma, have been salvaged with Guru's Shabad (in Waheguru's praise). Sunak, Snundun (sons of Brahma), and countless worshippers, who torture themselves (to please Waheguru), have been ferried across (the world-sea) by Guru's grace. 1. How can one (no one can) swim across the world-sea (find salvation) without Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's Naam)? The world suffers badly because of its indecisiveness (to choose between Waheguru and Maya), which is like a disease, and drowns in the world-sea without Waheguru's Naam. Pause.

Guru (Waheguru) is the source of enlightenment, is incomprehensible, and His secrets (the ways He manages the universe) cannot be known. Serving Him, enlightens the mind to the level that one understands the secrets of the whole universe. The Provider Waheguru Himself grants His Naam to the devotee by which he gets connected with the incomprehensible and the enigmatic Waheguru. 2. The human mind is the rajah (controller of all his actions), but (with Waheguru's Naam) the mind gets convinced of the reality of life, and all its wishes get buried in it (is left with no desires). When all its wishes are killed, the human mind becomes detached from the world like a yogi, and begins to love Waheguru, and is enlightened to become peaceful (quits wavering) by singing Waheguru's praise. 3.

But there are only a few such devotees who kill their desires by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. With Guru's eternal Shabad, one "sees" Waheguru as fully present everywhere and is emancipated, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Prunvut(i) Nanak, Gurmukh(i) chhootus(i) Ram Naam(i) liv laagi. 4.2.3.

Word Meaning: Drisht(i) = sight; vision. Heena = weak. Jur(i) = old age. Jeetiya = overpowered by. Kaalo = death. Rung(u) = shine. Rehus = joyfulness; zest. Saacha = original. Jaalo = net. 1. Kubhoon Na = never. Chhootu(i) = get emancipation. Birtha = waste. Bhuyyo = becomes. Pause. Huoun = ego. Mumta = attachment. Kutthin = tough; severe. Rus(u) = sweetness. Inn Bidh(i) = this way. Taari = swimming.
2. Behray = deaf. Kern = ears. Hoachhi Akul(i) = shallow wisdom. Sehj(u) = blissfulness. Junum(u) Pdaaruth(u) = objective of life. Munmukh(i) = the follower of his mind. Soojhiya = think of. 3. Oodaas(u) = detached = Niraas(u). Baiyraagi = loving (devotee) of Waheguru. Prunvut(i) = suggests humbly. Liv = meditation. 4.

MEANING: Nobody can find emancipation without the Guru's eternal Shabad (Waheguru's Naam), and one wastes away his precious human life. So, recite Waheguru's Naam as your age is advancing, oh man. Pause.
As old age overpowers him, the man loses his eyesight, his body becomes weak, and death approaches him. He loses his original handsomeness, the shine of his skin and the zest, and he cannot escape the net of death. 1. The man has lust, rage, ego, and worldly attachments in his body (mind), which cause him a lot of pain and suffering (and moreover, he cannot find emancipation from them). But the devotees of the Guru recite Waheguru's Naam with their tongue, enjoying its sweetness, and swim across the world sea. 2.
(On the other hand), The follower of his mind (Maya-worshipper) is blind (of spirituality) and cannot think straight without the Guru, and loses the objective of human life. As he advances in age, he becomes deaf in his ears, and his wisdom (ability to think) becomes so weak that he cannot realize the blissfulness of mind that comes with the Guru's Shabad. 3.
But the beloved devotee of the Guru (Waheguru) controls all his wishes and desires and stays detached from the worldly attractions. He meditates on Waheguru's Naam in his high spiritual state. I make a humble submission that the Sikh of the Guru, who meditates on Waheguru's Naam, is emancipated, oh Nanak. 4.2.3.

Gur persad(i) Perm Pud(u) paaya, Nanak(u) kuhhaiy vichaara. 4.3.4.

Word Meaning: Bhoondi = awkward. Chaal = gait. Ker = hands. Khisray = lose firmness. Toocha = skin. Dayh = body. Koomlaani = lost elasticity. Dhoondh(i) = fog. Behray = deaf. 1. Paaya = earned. Chaalay = leave the world. Mool(u) = the original wealth (spirituality). Pause. Rung(i) Raati = imbued in love. Pheekay = tasteless; impolite. Ninda = malicious criticism. Viyaapus(i) = becomes a routine. Pushoo = animal. Neekay = noble. 2. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Virleen = rare. Bhayd(u) = worth; sweet taste. Un ko = of others (than Waheguru). Dur(u) Ghur(u) = door; shelter. Sachiyaara = eternal. Perm Pud = highest spiritual state. 4.

MEANING: You did not have Waheguru's Naam at heart, and did not serve the Guru; so, what did you come in the world for, oh, the (spiritually) blind man? Pause.

The follower of his mind does not recognize the worth of Waheguru's Naam throughout his life; when he gets old, his gait becomes awkward, his feet and his hands lose firmness (grip), and his skin loses elasticity (becomes loose), his vision gets blurred, and his ears become deaf (he becomes unable to focus his mind on Waheguru's Naam even if he wants to). 1.

The tongue of the worshipper of Maya does not get imbued in Waheguru's love, and his conversations are impolite. He routinely maliciously criticizes the holy saints; behaves like an animal; and never likes a person with high morality. 2.

Only some rare individuals taste the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, who connects them with Waheguru. As long as one does not recognize the worth of Waheguru's Naam, the fear of death always haunts them. 3.

The devotees of Waheguru recognize Waheguru's shelter as the only eternal support, and they do not seek the door (support) of anyone else. I, Nanak, share an idea with you: one can attain the highest spiritual state only by the grace of the Guru, oh my friends. 4.3.4.

Word Meaning: Phaahi = shackles. Junjaal(i) = in (spiritually worthless) worldly affairs. Khin(u), Pul. Ghurri = are all very short measures of time. Jaaniya = remembered. 1. Chhootus(i) = get emancipation. Bhaari = huge. Goonkaari = source of all virtues. Pause. Oondhou Kuvul = upside down heart (mind) (which cannot receive any spiritual knowledge). Hoachhi = shallow. Sir(i) Dhundha = the burden of Maya-related tasks. Kaal(u) = death. Bikaal(u) = opposite of death (birth). Phunda = chain. 2. Dugree Chaal = shaky gait. Phoon(i) = too. Shabad Soort(i) = focus of mind on Guru's Shabad. Bhaayee = liked. 3. Mool(u) = the original spirituality (noble qualities). Keh = where; how.

Doormut(i) = ignoble thinking. Vihoonay = devoid of. Rus(u) Chaakhiya = tasted (enjoyed) the sweetness. Puteenay = convinced. 4.

MEANING: The man spends all his day in worldly affairs, and his night in enjoying sensual pleasures and in sleeping, and finds no time, not even a single moment, to remember Waheguru, which has created the world. All such acts become chains for him (for his spiritual death). 1. How can you get freedom (relief) from this huge suffering (of ignoring Waheguru), oh my mind? You were born empty-handed and will leave the world empty-handed, so why don't you recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the source of all noble qualities, oh my mind? Pause.

The Maya-worshipper has shallow wisdom, and has the lotus of his heart turned upside down (which cannot acquire any noble quality). Guided by his mind, the blind does not realize that without Waheguru's Naam, the burden of his Maya-related daily affairs is growing heavier and becoming a noose around his neck, leading to the vicious cycle of births and deaths. His whole life is spent in reading the Vedas and the Shastras, which discuss only the three effects of Maya. The blind of wisdom worked just to accumulate Maya, and never liked to focus his mind on the Shabad of the Guru. Now, in old age, he has very little chance to worship Waheguru, and he cannot even walk straight, having become physically and mentally weak, and his vision has become blurred. 3.

What kind of spiritual benefit (wealth) can a person with ignoble thinking, and without any spiritual Knowledge, acquire now when he has lost even his original spirituality? But those who ponder on Guru's Shabad, taste the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, and get convinced with it (so, enshrine it in their heart, oh Nanak. 4.4.5.

Word Meaning: Sung Ruhhaiy = stays connected with. Ram Rusn(u) = Waheguru (His Naam) on the tongue. Puchhaanus(i) = recognizes; makes a connection. 1. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Uprumpur(i) = in the limitless God. Kaar Kumaavaiy = lives according to. Pause. Aad(i) Purakh = Waheguru, which is the root (basis) of the whole universe. Aadayso = saluting; obey Huqam. Niruntar(i) = continuous. Ruv Ruhhiya = is present. Sach(u) Vayso = eternal existence. 2. Jihva = tongue. Mithiya = lies. Na rye = not even a little. Gooni = having noble qualities; sincere devotees. Laaha = benefit. Vudaayi = respect. Sukhaayi = friend. 4.

MEANING: I like the individual who kills his selfishness and ego by following the Guru's Advice and is imbued with the love of the limitless Waheguru. Pause.
Such a devotee stays connected with the Guru (His Shabad) day and night, and his tongue is imbued in the love of Waheguru's Naam (recites it). By staying connected with Guru's Shabad, he recognizes Waheguru (enshrines His Naam) in his heart, and does not acknowledge anybody else to be like Him. 1.
He sees the Supreme and the eternal Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, and which is the basis of the whole universe, inside him and outside (everywhere) and in everybody's heart, and salutes Him (obeys His Will). 2.
The tongue of those who are imbued in Waheguru's love has the Amrit-like sweetness of Waheguru's Naam on it and has not even a small amount of filth of lies on it. Such devotees are imbued with the love of Guru's Shabad, and taste the sweetness of Waheguru's Amrit-like Naam, which purifies the mind, and earn respect everywhere. 3.
The devotees with noble qualities benefit from the company of one another and earn respect with Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru's Naam becomes their friend when they serve the Guru, and all their sufferings are eradicated, oh Nanak. 4.5.6.

Bin(u) Gur Shabad, mookut(i) nuhhi kubhee, undhulay dhundh(u) pusaara. 3. Akool Nirunjun siyoun mun(u) maaniya, mun hee tay mun(u) mooaa. Untar(i), baahur(i) Aiko jaaniya, Nanak uver(u) na dooaa.
Word Meaning: Dhaarun(u) = support. Amar Pdaaruth = immortalizing material. Kirtaaruth = successful. Sehj Dhiyaan(i) = focused in a peaceful state of mind. Liv = meditate. 1. Sayti = with. Ghur(i) = (Waheguru's) Residence. Pause. Bherm(u) = illusion. Bhayd(u) = discrimination. Bhuou = worldly fears. Aavut Jaat = coming (birth) and going (death). Na Jaani = does not understand the truth. 2. Dhundha = Maya-related affairs. Put(i) = dignity. Khovus(i) = will lose. Guvaara = foolish. 3. Akool =having no clan. Siyoun = with. Maaniya = convinced. Mooaa = dead towards worldly attractions. Uver(u) Na Dooaa = no one else. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is such a wealth which supports everybody, but can be acquired in the heart only with the Guru's grace. Waheguru's Naam is the immortalizing wealth, and those who meditate on it in the peaceful state of mind, achieve this objective (of acquiring this wealth) successfully. 1.
Attach yourself to the worship of Waheguru, oh my mind. A devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam by his mind (soul), in the shelter of the Guru, acquires the high spiritual state and reaches Waheguru's Residence (merges into Him). Pause.

With illusions about Maya, worldly fears in his mind, and with feelings of discrimination between people, a man does not understand the Truth (worth of Waheguru's Naam), and cannot find emancipation – keeps taking births and dying. Nobody can find emancipation without Waheguru's Naam, and drowns in the sea of Maya, which has no liquid water. 2. The man loses all his dignity (in Waheguru's Court) while working on Maya-related tasks. And the illusions of Maya do not go away from the mind of the foolish man. Nobody can find salvation without the Guru's Shabad, but the blind of wisdom (foolish) man stays engrossed in the expanse of Maya (worldly attachments). But my mind has been convinced by Waheguru, which has no clan, and all my worldly desires have died within my mind (they no longer arise). I see Waheguru inside my heart and outside, and do not acknowledge any other power in the world, oh Nanak. 4.6.7.

Word Meaning: Jugun, Hoam = a ritual to please gods in which a fire is built in a pit, and ghee and some other materials are fed to keep the fire burning while some mantras are read. Some animals are sacrificed, and food is served to Brahmans. Poonn = ritualistic noble deeds. Tup = self-torturing. Pooja = ritualistic worship. Dayh = body. Suhhaiy = endures. Luhhaiy = acquires. 1. Birthay = without any spiritual gain. Bikh(u) = (about) poisonous Maya. Nihful = without any spiritual gain. Bhermna = is taken through many lives. Pause. Poostuk Paatth = reading of (religious) books. Biyakern = grammar. Vukhaanaiy = to explain. Sundhiya Kerm = ritualistic worship. Tikaal = three times a day – morning, afternoon, and evening. Oorjh(i) = engrossed. 2. Dund = the baton of the yogis. Kumundul = a small cylindrical bucket that the yogis carry to collect milk etc. Sikha = a hair crest at the centre of head. Soot(u) = thread (Janayoo). Bhermun = roaming around. Shaant(i) = peace. 3. Jutaan Mookut(u) = a knot of matted (or tangled) hair – that is how the yogis wear their hair. Bhusm = ash. Bustar = clothes. Nugun = naked. Bhuyya = becomes. Triput(i) = contentment; peace. Kirt Kay Baandhay = bound by their previous deeds. Bhaykh = religious garb. 4. Jutar Kutar = wherever. Jhoal(i) = by mixing (stirring) well. 5.

MEANING: None of the prevalent rituals like hoam jugun, the ritualistic noble deeds, self-torturing, and idol-worshipping (is given any spiritual credit in Waheguru's Court); actually, they cause mental pressure and physical fatigue, causing a lot of suffering to the people. One cannot attain emancipation without Waheguru's Naam, which can be acquired in the shelter of the Guru. 1 Human life goes worthless without Waheguru's Naam because without the Naam, the man talks about the poisonous Maya, and enjoys the luxuries of life with the wealth earned by poisonous (dishonest) means. Without Waheguru's Naam, the man dies without any spiritual gain and is taken through many lives. Pause.
The Brahman reads the holy books, explains to the people using grammar, and performs ritualistic worship three times a day – morning, early afternoon, and evening. But no one can have emancipation without the Guru's Shabad, and dies engrossed in Maya. 2.
The Brahman wears a janayoo, a crest of hair in the centre of the head, and a dhoti as his religious symbols, while the yogis wear symbols of their faith, which include a baton, a small bucket, a quilt of rags, and visit holy places, and roam around in the country, but they cannot achieve peace of mind. On the other hand, the devotees, who recite Waheguru's Naam, swim across the sea of Maya easily (are salvaged). 3.
Yogis also wear their matted (or tangled) hair, tie it into a knot, and coat their bodies with ash. Some others do not wear any clothes and live naked. They do not find any contentment of mind, but they simply adopt the ways of life preprogrammed by Waheguru for them, based on the results of their previous deeds. 4. Waheguru is present in all the living beings on the land, in water, or in the sky, and looks after them. With Guru's grace, I have taken the sweet Amrit of Waheguru's Naam after stirring it well (pondering on it deeply), and pray to Waheguru to protect me against the attacks of Maya, oh Nanak. 5.7.8.

Word Meaning: Jaat(i) = caste. Gerb(u) = pride. Binday = understands; makes connection. 1. Guvaara = unrefined; unwise. Vikaara = immoralities. Pause. Vern = the (four) major castes according to Hindu Caste System: Brahmans, Khatris, Vaish (businessmen and farmers), the untouchable (all other jobs to serve the other three castes) – in descending order of superiority. Bind = sperm; the origin. Oput(i) = creation. 2. Maati = mud; earth. Bidh(i) = ways. Bhaanday = bodies. Ghurraiy = moulds. Koomhaara = potter (Waheguru). Punch Tut(u) = the five basic elements (earth, water, air, fire, and awareness). Beechaara = thoughts. 4. Keht(u) = says. Jeeyo = living being; man. Kerm Bundh = bound by previous deeds. 5.

MEANING: Do not be conceited of your high caste, oh Brahman. Only that individual is real Brahman (no matter what his caste is) who understands (makes a connection with Waheguru). 1. It is foolishness and unwise to be conceited of one's high caste because this conceit leads to many other immoral activities, oh foolish Brahman. Pause.
Everybody talks about the four major castes, but they do not realize that everybody (regardless of his caste) has the same root (Waheguru) as the source of his production (has a part of the same Waheguru's Soul). 2.
Like a potter makes many different kinds of pottery from the same mud, the whole world has been made from the same earth (by Waheguru). 3.
The human body is made from the five basic elements combined. How can anyone say that a particular caste has more or fewer of them? 4. The truth is that the man performs his duties based on his previous deeds (No one can find emancipation simply based on his caste); one gets emancipated only in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 5.1.

Word Meaning: Girehi = family man. Bhaykhdhaari = with religious symbols of different faiths. Sootay = asleep; intoxicated. Ahunkaari = conceit. 1. Mud(i) = liquor; intoxicant. Maata = intoxicated. Moosaiy = defraud. Pause. Punch Doot = the five demons. Vusgut(i) = controls. 2. Tut(u) = the root (Waheguru). Muraiy = kills desires. Uvrah = others. Maaraiy = kills; causes mental anguish. 3. Aiko = the "One" (God). Perkirt(i) = (attraction for) Maya. 4. Chuhoun Verna = the four major castes. Jaagaiy = awakens (is enlightened). Koyay = some rare. Jumaiy Kaalaiy = the Angel of death. Chhootaiy = is emancipated. Soyay = the same. 5. Giyan(u) Unjun(u) = the kohl of Divine Knowledge. 6.

MEANING: Everybody - be it yogis, family men, pundits, or members of some religious sects - is intoxicated in the conceit of the superiority of his faith. 1.
Asleep under the intoxication of the liquor of Maya, they are being robbed of their noble qualities; but nothing can rob the devotee, who is awake (enlightened), of his good qualities. Pause. Only that individual stays awake who gets connected with Satguru (takes His shelter), and is able to control all his five demons. 2. Also, that individual is awake (enlightened), who ponders on Waheguru (His Naam), which is the basis of all creation. Such a devotee kills his own worldly desires and does not cause any mental anguish for others. 3. Or that individual is awake who makes a connection with the "One" Waheguru, gives up his attachment with Maya, and realizes that Waheguru is the basis of the whole world. 4.

But only a rare person in all the four major castes gets enlightened, and gets emancipated when his birth-death cycle gets terminated too. 5.
Only that person gets enlightened who has the kohl (used as medication to improve one's eyesight) of Divine Knowledge in the eyes (of his mind), oh Nanak. 6.2.

MEANING: The individual, whom Waheguru keeps in His shelter, gets attached to Him, and is rewarded with the eternal gift (of Waheguru's Naam). 1.
The universe was created with Waheguru's Huqam, and everything is happening under His Huqam, oh man. So, who else can you pray to? Pause.
The visible world is supported by Waheguru, and it takes no time to be destroyed by Him. 2.
With His kindness, the Guru has shown that the whole world is a drama created by Waheguru. Also, one attains the highest spiritual state with the Guru's grace. 3.
It is Waheguru who gives life and takes life. The individual, who realizes this truth, is not misled by any misconception, oh Nanak(u). 4.3.

Punch Shabad Vujaayi = by playing the five kinds of musical instruments; with great excitement. 3. Bhunut(i) = says. Soyay = that (Waheguru). 4.
MEANING: My Waheguru is my husband (my Lord), and I am His wife (slave). I will decorate my soul whichever way He wishes. 1.

My body and my mind are for the eternal Lord (I have surrendered them before Him). He connects me with Him (enjoys union with the devotee) whenever He likes. Pause.
Who can sing His praise or vilify Him (with His Will only because) He alone is present, and operates in everybody. 2. I am attracted to Waheguru with the grace of the Guru, and have great excitement to connect with the kind Lord. 3.

MEANING: The hermits stay quiet for long times with the belief that they quieten their mind to (make it peaceful), (which is NOT true). The real hermit is the one who kills his indecisiveness (struggle to choose between Waheguru and Maya), and ponders on Waheguru's Naam. 1.
Search your mind (for Waheguru's presence), oh my friends. While searching your mind, you will acquire Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of all the nine treasures. Pause.
The Creator, Waheguru, created the world by making Maya its basis. He misleads the world by making Maya highly attractive. 2.
Because the human mind gets strongly attracted to Maya, one drowns in the sea of Maya and takes births again and again. (By the same token), If one ponders on Waheguru's Naam and understands His Huqam, he merges into Him. 3. If a man has good fortune, his mind is enlightened by the grace of the Guru, and his indecisiveness is terminated. 4.
Because the human mind (soul) is a part of Waheguru, and the fully detached Waheguru, which has no feelings, is present in every heart, it (the mind) should always be detached from the worldly attractions, by nature. 5. The individual who realizes (internalizes) this deep secret becomes like Waheguru, the root of the universe, omnipresent, above the effects of Maya, and the source of enlightenment, oh Nanak(u). 6.5.

The Naam accompanies you till the end (even after death), oh my friends. Pause. Those who do not recite Waheguru's Naam are foolish and unwise. How can they find salvation? 2.
Waheguru, Himself, kindly gifts His Naam to His devotees. We should sing His praise. 3. Waheguru connects those with Satguru whom He is kind to, and the devotees enshrine His Naam in the heart, oh Nanak. 4.6.

When Waheguru is kind to His devotee, he (the devotee) earns respect everywhere with His Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Pause. Those who have love for Waheguru's Naam find salvation not just for themselves, but also for their associates. 2.
Without Waheguru's Naam, the Maya-worshippers are sent to the court of the Angel of justice, where they suffer punishment. 3.

Word Meaning: Sunukaadik = Sunuk (Brahma's son), and others like him. 1. Maylaava = union. 2. Nij Ghur(i) = own heart; absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = with love in a peaceful state of mind. 3. Vaykhunhaar = the one who looks after (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: By pondering over Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad (in praise of Waheguru), many, like Sunuk, were salvaged when they fostered love for Waheguru. 1. When Waheguru is kind to a devotee, he fosters love for Him in Guru's shelter. Pause. When one worships Waheguru with love, He is connected with the Perfect Guru. 2. Waheguru's Naam is embedded in the heart of the devotee in the shelter of the Guru, and he gets absorbed in the Naam (gets connected with Waheguru) with his love for Him in the peaceful state of mind. 3. Only he is Waheguru's true devotee who recites His Naam, which can be acquired only through the Perfect Guru. 2. The devotee, who accepts Waheguru's Will gladly, is honoured in Waheguru's Court. Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad becomes his identity for approval in Waheguru's Court. 3.

Kulyug = in the world. Jummaayi = seed. 4.
MEANING: The man performs many religious rituals in the world, but human life is not the proper time to perform rituals which are not given any credit (for spirituality) in Waheguru's Court. 1. Waheguru's Naam is the supreme (ritual to perform) in the world. One begins to love Waheguru (His Naam) in the shelter of the Guru. Pause.
When a devotee gets attached to Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter, he searches his mind and finds him to be present in his own heart. 2.
One gets the kohl of the Divine Knowledge as medication for the eyes of his mind from the Guru. He sees Waheguru to be present in all three layers (this world, the underworlds, and the sky) of the universe. 3. Waheguru is the only power to worship in this world, and no other power should be acknowledged in human life. So, sow the seeds of Waheguru's Naam in your heart in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.10.

Word Meaning: Doobidha = indecisiveness. Roag(u) = disease. Viyaapay = affects. Trishna = fire of desires. Adhikaayi = very much. Tthaaur = shelter; peace; comfort. 1. Boojhaayi = understanding. Jugut = world. Pause. Moon(i) = hermits. Kaytay = many. Soort(i) = understanding; enlightenment. Traiy Goon = the three effects of Maya. Mumta = worldly attachments. 2. Ikk(i) = many. Nidhaano = treasure. 3. Chauthi Pudvee = the fourth spiritual state (above the three effects of Maya). Vertay = has dealings. Nij Ghur(i) Vaasa = the mind dwells (stays) in itself; connected with Waheguru. Kaar(u) = service to; obey Huqam. Roodar = Shiva. 5.

MEANING: Indecisiveness is a mental disease which impacts a Maya-lover badly, and because of which he burns in the fire of worldly desires to a large extent. (Without Waheguru's Naam), He wastes away his precious human life, keeps taking births and dying, and never finds peace (emancipation). 1. The world is suffering from the disease of haumein (selfishness and ego), which cannot be eradicated without the Guru's Shabad (in Waheguru's praise). Please be kind, and give the wisdom to the world so that it recognizes the worth of Your praise (Naam) as the cure for the disease of haumein, oh, my dear Waheguru. Pause. Countless sages (and others) study the Simritis and the Shastras, but get no spiritual enlightenment without the Guru's Shabad. The three effects of Maya, and the worldly attachments, are a disease from which everybody is suffering, and because of which they lose their spiritual wisdom. 2.

Waheguru pulls some of them out from the sea of Maya (frees from the bonds of Maya), and puts them in the service of the Guru. They acquire the treasure of Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter, and bliss takes dwelling in their mind (they enjoy bliss). 3.

The Sikhs of the Guru remain connected to Waheguru in a spiritual state above the effects of Maya, and their dealings with the world are also unaffected by Maya. With the benevolence of Satguru, they get rid of their selfishness and ego (and worldly desires). 4.

They have only one business to do – serve Waheguru, which has created the three major gods (Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva, who are mortal). Waheguru alone is immortal, not dying or going away, oh Nanak. 5.1.11.

Word Meaning: Mumta = worldly attachments. Kaal(i) = in (spiritual) death. Sir(i) Kaara = perform deeds leading to the Jum. 2. Jaata = recognized; made connection with. Birtha = empty; wastefully. Ichheh(i) = wish for. Ful(u) = reward. 4.

MEANING: The follower of his mind always suffers from indecisiveness (struggle to choose between Waheguru and Maya), which is a disease; in fact, the whole world suffers from this disease. However, Guru's Sikhs come to realize in His shelter that indecisiveness is a disease, and get rid of it by pondering on His Shabad. 1.

Waheguru puts the devotees, who get attached to His Naam in the company of the holy saints, which is an honour for them. Pause.

Worldly attachments are a disease that causes spiritual death and affects everybody. Dealings in worldly attractions put people on the path leading to the Angel of Death. The Angel of Death does not even go near the devotees of the Guru who have Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their hearts. 2. Why do the people who make no connection with Waheguru in Guru's shelter even come to this world? They never serve the Guru (ponder on His Shabad), and waste away their precious human life. 3.

Those who are put in the service of the Guru (by Waheguru) are highly fortunate. They reap the desired reward with Guru's Shabad and enjoy blissfulness, oh Nanak. 4.2.12.

Word Meaning: Kaar Kmaayay = perform deeds. Gerbh Joani = life in the womb; birth-death cycle. Bishta = feces; filth of Maya (sensual enjoyments). Smaayay = stay absorbed in. 1. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Bhaaya = liked. Pause. Naamaiy Naam(i) = only with the Naam. 2. Bhaytaiy = meet; get connected. Ful(i) = reward. Kerni = performance. Saar(u) = supreme. Dhureh(i) = acquire. Raiyn(u) = dust of feet; opportunity to serve. 3 and 4.

MEANING: The life of the person who follows his mind, and does not serve the Perfect Guru, and does not like Waheguru, is condemnable. He simply wastes away his precious human life (an opportunity to unite with Waheguru). Pause.

Such people are born with problems in life (as a result of their previous deeds), spend their life in affairs which cause more troubles for them, and they die in suffering. Because they stay engrossed in sensual enjoyments, they never get out of the birth-death cycle. 1.
Guru's Shabad is the sure cure for all suffering, but one recites and acts on Guru's Shabad only if he is prompted by Waheguru to do so. One earns respect only with Waheguru's Naam, provided he enshrines it in his heart with His benevolence. 2.
A devotee, who gets connected with Satguru, spends his life of high morals (as per the Advice of Satguru), and is rewarded (with Waheguru's Naam), which is the source of supreme bliss. Those devotees are pure in mind who love Waheguru's Naam and recite it. 3.
I would like to put the dust of the feet of those devotees who worship the Perfect Guru on my forehead (serve them diligently) if I get the opportunity. But the dust of the feet of the devotees, who are attached to Waheguru's Naam, can be acquired only with great fortune, oh Nanak. 4.3.13.

Word Meaning: Saacha = true (devotee); pure. Saacha Soyee = Waheguru. 1. Mool(u) = the original spiritual wealth (good qualities). Laaha Laabh = profit; benefit. Kidoon = how? Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Put(i) = dignity. 2. Bahlay = too many. Bhaykh = religious garbs (as a show off). Bhuveh(i) = roams around. Loojheh(i) = quarrels; debates aggressively. Baad(i) Vukhaanaiy = exchanges arguments. Soort(i) = noble sense. 3. Perm Gut(i) = highest spiritual state. 4.

MEANING: That individual is the true devotee (pure-minded) who ponders on Guru's Shabad, and has Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his heart. He suffers no trouble when he worships Waheguru day and night with love and respect. 1.
Everybody calls Him a bhagat (true devotee) respectfully, but no worship without serving Satguru is approved by Waheguru. Also, one acquires Waheguru only with great fortune. Pause. How can a Maya-worshipper expect any (spiritual) gain when he loses even his original spiritual wealth (he was born with)? He loses all his respect because of his love for Maya, and the Angel of Death always watches him carefully. 2.
Some people roam around in religious garbs, day and night (in the false hope of finding the "missing" Waheguru), but they suffer from the disease of haumein, which they never get rid of. They study the religious books but only to take part in spiritually worthless debates. They lose their noble thinking because of their love for Maya. 3.

But one attains the supreme spiritual state by serving Satguru and earns respect with Waheguru's Naam. Those who have Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their heart are honoured in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 4.4.14.

Word Meaning: Aasa = hopes; wishes. Ootraiy = comes off; goes away. Khooaayay = suffers humiliation. Oodur = belly. Naiy = river. Saan(u) = like. Trishna Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Puchaayay = burns; causes suffering. 1. Rus(i) Raatay = imbued in the sweetness of (the Naam). Doobidha = indecisiveness; wavering of mind. Triptaatay = become contented. Pause. Srisht(i) = the world. Sir(i), Sir(i) = respectively. Dhundhaiy Laayay = puts into Maya-related tasks. 2. Kihou = something. Dooja Hovaiy = stranger. Toodjaiy = in You (God). Smaayay = is absorbed; is a part of Him. Giyan(u) = knowledge (about the virtues of God). Tutt(u) = the root (origin) (Waheguru). Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Soul. 3.
MEANING: The worldly desires of the man who follows his mind (captivated by Maya) never go away (he is never satisfied), and he suffers humiliation for his love for Maya. Like a river, his belly (mind) never gets filled (satisfied), and he burns in the fire of worldly desires. 1.
(On the other hand), those, who are imbued in the sweetness of Waheguru (His Naam) are always blissful. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, their indecisiveness runs away, and they feel fully contented to drink the Amrit of His Naam. Pause.
Waheguru, who has created the whole universe and also love for Maya among the living beings, puts everybody into the kind of worldly business which is based upon the result of their previous deeds. 2.
We can say something (complain if we do not like certain things) to Waheguru only if He were a stranger; but He always knows everything about us as everybody is a part of Him. The Sikh of the Guru ponders on the virtues of Waheguru which is the origin of the whole universe, as a result of which, his soul merges into the Supreme Soul. 3.
Waheguru is always eternal, and so is His creation. Satguru has given the understanding that one finds salvation only with His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.5.15.

Word Meaning: Kul(i) = Kulyug (the worst eon according to Hinduism). Prayt = evil spirit. Puchhaata = recognized; made connection. Satyug = the first and the holiest eon. Perm Huns = the supreme swan; the purest soul. Beechaari = who ponder on Waheguru's Naam. Traita ad Dooaapur = the second and the third eons (of descending purity). Maanus Verteh(i) = live like a common man. Virlaiy = rare. 1. Vudiyaayi = respect. Pause. Lukhaiy = sees; comprehends. Saacha = true worshipper. Liv Laayi = meditated deeply. 2. Sohay = look elegant (honourable); are honoured. 3. Ruliyaan Maanaiy = enjoy all comforts. Vukhaanaiy = utter; recite. 4.

NOTE: Hindu Granths have divided time into four eons, from the dawn of civilization to the present. The first eon, called Satyug, is followed by Trayta, Dooaapur, and Kulyug. According to the Granths, the humans in Satyug had the highest morality, which kept declining with each new eon. The present eon, Kulyug, is considered the lowest in terms of morality. Also, the Granths profess that each eon had its own god (spiritual head), with its own path to be realized. But Guru Sahiban do not believe in any of these ideas. They believe and preach that it has been the same Supreme Being (which people may call God, Allah, or give Him any other name), and that there has been a single path (recite His Naam with Guru's Shabad) to realize Him, which never changes. Among the many names used for the Supreme Being, the ones Guru Nanak Sahib used most often are Kartar, Akal Purakh, and Nirunkar. However, "Waheguru" is currently the most popular name for the Supreme Being among Sikhs.

MEANING: The individuals who do not make any connection with Waheguru are truly the evil spirits who can be considered to be living in Kulyug, while those devotees who have purified their souls by pondering on Waheguru's Naam (Guru's Shabad) can be considered to be living in Satyug. The common man leading a normal life can be considered to be living in Dooaapur and Trayta, where some rare individuals overcome their selfishness and ego (with Waheguru's Naam). 1.

In the present eon (Kulyug), one earns respect only through Waheguru's Naam. But the fact is, no matter what the eon is, no one can find emancipation without Waheguru's Naam, which can be acquired only in the shelter of the Guru throughout all the eons. Pause.

A true devotee comprehends (recognizes) Waheguru in his heart and enshrines His Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Not only those devotees who stay connected with Waheguru through deep meditation (keep Him in mind all the time), but they also salvage others. 2.

My Waheguru is the source of all virtues, and the devotee burns away his ignoble qualities with the Guru's Shabad. The devotees, who enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their hearts, are honoured in Waheguru's court. 3.
Those who are shown Waheguru's Palace by Satguru enjoy blissfulness all the time. They always recite Waheguru's Naam, and whatever Waheguru tells them to do, they accept that gladly as good for them, oh Nanak. 4.6.16.

Word Meaning: Munsa = desires. Smaayay Laiy = absorb (kill) in the mind Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. Vaaro Vaar = repeatedly. 1. Aadhaar(u) = support. Perm Pud(u) = the highest spiritual state. Ichh = wishes. Poojaavunhaar(u) = fulfiller. Pause. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Boojh = understanding. Pergut(u) Hoa = becomes visible; appears. 2. Sookhdaata = the Provider (source) of all comforts. Hoarthaiy = somewhere else. Unt(i) = at the end. 3. Dhaayay = attacking. 4.
MEANING: Seek the support (shelter) of Waheguru's Naam, which fulfils all your wishes, oh my mind. Also, you can attain the highest spiritual state with the grace of the Guru. Pause. Kill your wishes within your mind by pondering on the Guru's Shabad, oh my friend. The Perfect Guru enlightens your mind, as a result of which you will never die again. 1.
One does not get the understanding without the Guru that the same Waheguru is present in everybody. My Waheguru appears in the mind of the devotee who sings Waheguru's praise day and night in the shelter of the Guru. 2.
Waheguru is the only source of all comforts, so do not look for comforts somewhere else, oh my mind. Those who do not worship Satguru, which is the source of all comforts, leave the world repenting at the end. 3.
One always acquires comforts by worshipping Satguru (obeying His Advice), and he does not suffer from troubling attacks of Maya. I have acquired Waheguru's worship (with Guru's grace), and my soul has merged with Waheguru's Soul, oh Nanak. 4.7.17.

Word Meaning: Baajh(u) = without. Buouraana = insane; confused. Choataan Khaayi = suffers punishment. Dur = Waheguru's Palace. Khubhur(i) Na = no awareness; ignorance. 1. Bhaykh Kuraiy = wears religious symbols. Chit(u) Dolaiy = mind wavers. Tisa = thirst. Bhaunkut Phiraiy = begs loudly. Dur Baar(u) = at every door. 2. Mureh = die (kill their worldly desires). Mookut(i) Dooaar = the door of emancipation. Oordhaar(i) = enshrined in the heart. 3. Chulaavaiy = (Waheguru) runs his life. 4.

MEANING: Always stay in the shelter of Satguru (stay connected with Him and listen to His Advice) as a result of which, one fosters love for Waheguru and swims across the world-sea with Satguru's Shabad, oh my mind. Pause.

Without the Guru, the world is confused and misguided from the right path; it suffers in life. (Without the Guru) The man has no knowledge about Waheguru and repeatedly suffers the pain of rebirths. 1. Those who wear religious symbols mostly have lust, rage, and conceit in their mind because of which they have no control over their mind which are overpowered by worldly attractions. They have a huge thirst and appetite for worldly attractions, and go from door to door begging loudly to satisfy their needs. 2.

But those who kill their worldly desires with the Guru's Shabad, and renew their spiritual life, reach the door of emancipation. By enshrining Waheguru in their minds, they always feel peaceful and experience bliss. 3.

However, the man is helpless and cannot change his habits or lifestyle on his own, as his path of life is predetermined by Waheguru. But the devotees of Waheguru obey Guru's Shabad (Teachings), and earn respect with Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.8.18.

Word Meaning: Khooaaya = suffers humiliation. Khuttay = earns; acquires. Khaayay = lives with. Hulk(u) = crazy like a mad dog. Bhaari = huge. Bibayk = Divine Knowledge. Bhemaayay = roams around lost. 1. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Soopany = in dream. Chaytiya = remember. Pause. Pushooaa Kerm = animal-like deeds. Boojhaiy = understands. Koorr(u) = falsehood; short-living things. Oolti = reversed thinking. Koyay = rare. 2. Gooni Nidhaan(u) = the treasure of virtues (God). Poora = Perfect (God). Chooka = ends. Abhimaan(u) = conceit; ego. 3.

MEANING: The life of the man who follows his mind becomes reprehensible (miserable) because he never remembers Waheguru even in his dream, and never develops love for Him. Pause. Such a man suffers humiliation in life because of his selfishness and ego, and for his attachment to Maya. Crazy like a mad dog with greed, he commits deeds that bring him trouble, and he lives in suffering. Without the Divine Knowledge, he cannot make a distinction between the good and the bad deeds, and is misled by the attractions of Maya, and he suffers hugely. 1. He does not realize his real objective in life, and performs tasks like animals, and dealing in falsehood (short-lived comforts), he himself becomes false (untrustworthy). But when a rare individual among many such people connects with Satguru, his thinking reverses, and he searches for Waheguru in his own heart. 2.

With Guru's grace, perfect Waheguru's Naam gets embedded in his heart, which is the treasure of all virtues, and all his conceit goes away (is eradicated). 3.

Waheguru Himself does everything, and makes others do whatever He wishes, and puts some on the path of righteousness (leading to union with Him). He puts some in the shelter of the Guru, which is an honour for them, and they merge into Waheguru with His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.9.19.

NOTE: In this holy Shabad, Guru Amar Dass Ji briefly narrates the story of Bhagat Prehlad (see INTODUCTION for the full story), to glorify Waheguru.

Word Meaning: Putiya = on the wooden-board (pupils in their elementary schools used to write on wooden-boards for better handwriting). Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for any other. Phaathay = are trapped. Jum Jaala = the net of the Angel of (spiritual) death. Pritpaala = nurturing; protection. Sookhdaata = the source of all comforts. 1. Saasna = punishment. Gum Na Kuraiy = not afraid of. Pause. Oopdayshaiy = advises. Jeeou = life. Oobaaray = save. Boojhayay = given understanding; enlightened me. 2. Sunda Merka (Shund and Amerk) = teachers of Prehlad. Pookaaray = complained loudly. Vigrriya = spoilt; misled. Chaatrray = students. Doosht Subha = the evil group. Muntar(u) Pukaaya = made firm decision (to kill Prehlad). Raakha = bodyguard; saviour. Raghuraaya = Waheguru. 3. Khurrug(u) = sword. Dhaaya = attacked. Ut(i) = extreme. Khin Meh(i) = in a short moment. Bhaiyaan Roop = a terrifying figure (human body with the head of lion). Niksiya = came out. Thummh = pillar. Oopaarr(i) = tearing through. Nukheen = with nails (paws). Bidaariya = tore apart. 4. Kaaruj Suvaaray = makes objective successful. Ikkeeh Kool = twenty-one clans (generations). Haumein Bikh(u) = the poisonous ego and selfishness. Nistaaray = salvages. 5.

MEANING: With the advice of his Guru (and contrary to the wishes of his father, King Hernakhsh, who wanted everybody in his kingdom to worship him), Prehlad would chant the Naam of the Supreme Being only, and was not afraid of any punishment. Pause.

He asked his teacher to write Waheguru and many of His other names on his wooden board, because love for anyone else leads to the net of the Angel of (spiritual) death. “My Satguru always protects me, and Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts, is always with me”. 1. His mother advised his son very affectionately to quit chanting Waheguru’s Naam and save his life. But Prehlad told his mother that his Guru had clearly explained to him (the worth of Waheguru’s Naam), so he would not quit that. 2.

Shund and Amerk, the teachers of Prehlad, and all others loudly complained to the King that Prehlad had been spoiled and was spoiling the other students, too. The evil group of the King and his courtiers made the firm decision (to kill Prehlad), but Waheguru was his protector (guard). 3. Enraged in his extreme ego, and with a sword in his hand, Hernakhsh rushed to attack Prehlad, and challenged him to show his Waheguru to save him. In a short moment, a terrifying figure (with a human body and a head of a lion) tore through the pillar, and tore apart Hernakhsh with his paws to save Prehlad. 4.

Waheguru makes all the tasks of His devotees successful; not only did He save Prehlad, but also saved his twenty-one generations. Waheguru kills the poison of one’s selfishness and ego with Guru’s Shabad, and His Naam salvages the saints, oh Nanak. 5.10.20.

Word Meaning: Daiynt = (the five) demons (lust, greed etc.). Laayay Dittay = make addicts (victims). Raakha = guard; protector. Soyee = the same (God). Shernaayi = shelter. 1. Joog(i) Joog(i) = in every eon. Rukhda = protect dignity (and life). Gayatri = a sacred Hindu Mantra. Terpun = the rituals to please the gods and the ancestors. Pause. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Nirmul = pure-minded. Soyee = the same (God). 2. Purreh(i) = fallen into. Mool(u) = Waheguru. Doosht Daiynt = the evil Hernaakhsh. Chirraya = provoked; got enraged. 3. Paiyj = dignity. Vudiyaayi = respect. Nukheen Bidaariya = tore apart with paws. Dur = (Waheguru's) Court (Justice). 5.

MEANING: Waheguru has been protecting His devotees throughout all the eons. Prehlad, the son of the evil king, Hernakhsh, did not know anything about the Gayatri Mantra or about the rituals to please the gods or his ancestors; he was connected with Waheguru through the Guru's Shabad. Pause. Waheguru Himself makes His saints (devotees) victims (addicts) of the five demons (lust, greed, etc.), and Himself protects them. But those who take His shelter do not suffer in any way. 1.

The devotees, who are imbued with the love for Waheguru, have Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their hearts and are always pure at heart. They overcome their indecisiveness through Guru Shabad and worship Waheguru day and night. 2.

The foolish fall victim to indecisiveness and do not recognize (make a connection with) Waheguru, which is the origin of the whole universe, and waste away their precious human life. They maliciously criticize the holy saints and provoke the evil (like Hernakhsh) to rage against them. 3.

Prehlad did not succumb to indecision (he remained firm in his resolve) and did not quit reciting Waheguru's Naam. He was not afraid of anyone, even when he was threatened. Waheguru is the saviour of His devotees, while death is close to the evil like Hernakhsh. 4.

By protecting His devotees and earning them respect from the people, Waheguru maintains His own dignity, in a way. The blind of wisdom, Henakhsh, did not realize the justice of Waheguru, and was torn apart by Him, oh Nanak. 5.11.21.8.21.29.

Recite Waheguru's Naam, and pray to Him that He connect you with the Perfect Guru so that you may swim across the world-sea, oh my mind. Pause.

Worship Waheguru, which is the life (soul) of the whole world. By remembering Him, your countless sins (including those in previous lives) will be eradicated, oh my mind. 2.

It is like taking dips at all sixty-eight holy places, and in the River Ganga, when you get the dust of the Feet of the Guru on your face (enshrine His Shabad in your heart) in the holy

His words in praise of Waheguru, and the morality of the devotee who works hard (to connect with Waheguru) in the shelter of the Guru, are moulded (made perfect) in the eternal mint of the holy gatherings, which instil noble qualities in the devotees. 2.

The Guru “shows” the inaccessible, and the incomprehensible Waheguru to the devotee who finds Him in his heart by searching for Him in his city-like body with Guru’s Shabad .3.

We are His children, and Waheguru is our father (guardian). I pray to Him that He casts His kind sight on us, and salvages us, oh Nanak. 4.3.

They have superior thinking and enjoy great respect, and have Waheguru's Naam embedded in their hearts. Kindly put me in their service, for by serving them I can attain a high spiritual state, oh Lord. 2.

Those who do not seek the shelter of such a Satguru are disgraced in Waheguru's Court and are thrown out from there. Such individuals are vilifiers of the saints and are not welcome in Waheguru's Court. In fact, they are reprimanded and insulted there. 3.

Waheguru is above the effects of Maya, is formless, and needs no food; yet being present in everybody, it is He who speaks through people and makes them speak (good or bad, depending on their previous deeds). Word Meaning: Saayi = that. Keerut(i) = praise. Bheena = imbues. Srayveh = serve. 1. Jugjeevun(u) = life (soul) of the world (God). Turnay = to swim across the world-sea. Anayk = Asunkh = countless. Jihva = tongue. Itt(u) = all those. Gun-nay = count. Pause. Oopdaysh = Teachings; Shabad. Kayra = of. Ghunay = immense. 2. Dhunn(u) = great; worthy of respect. Vuns(u) = clan; family. Junay = gave birth to. Giraas(i) = every bite. Bunay = approved; honoured. 3. Agumm = inaccessible. Dhurany = place; acquire. Paar(i) Puvnay = swim across the sea of Maya. 4.

MEANING: Only that gathering is holy at which one can listen to Waheguru's praise. I would like to serve their feet (an expression of deep respect) all the time from whom I listen to Waheguru's Naam, and my mind gets imbued in His love. 1.

One swims across the world-sea (is salvaged) by remembering Waheguru, which is the soul of the world. Waheguru has countless names by which people remember Him; my tongue cannot count them all. Pause.

Guru's Sikhs recite Waheguru's Naam, and sing His praise with Guru's Advice (Shabad). The devotee, who listens to the Teachings of the Guru, enjoys immense comfort. 2.

That family, that father, and that mother, who give birth to Waheguru's saints, are worthy of our respect. The devotees, who recite Waheguru's Naam with every breath and with every bite of food, are honoured in Waheguru's Court as His true devotees. 3.

Waheguru is inaccessible, but He places (implants) His Naam in the hearts of His devotees. I am a slave of Waheguru, and have acquired His Naam with the Advice of the Guru. One finds salvation by reciting Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.3.7.

Word Meaning: Theet(i) = dates based on the phases of the moon. Paas(i) Daar(i) = pushed aside; ignored. Raakhi = placed. Ashtum Theet(i) = the eighth day after the full moon in the month of Bhaadoun (mid August to mid September). Govind = God (a name for Krishna). Junma See = was born. 1. Bherm Bhoolay = misguided in false beliefs. Kert = do. Kuchraayin = baseless talks. Reht = without; beyond. Pause.
Kur(i) = by making. Punjeer(u) = a mixture of roasted flour, sugar, cumin, dried ginger, and raisins etc. to offer to the idol. Choar = thief (because it is the priest, who actually eats it because an idol does not eat). Saakut = money worshipper. Dhoar = animal. 2. Praadh = felonies; offenses; sins. Loroani = lullaby. Julou = may burn. Joani = takes life forms. 3. Smaayay = omnipresent. 4.1.

MEANING: Misguided by his false beliefs, the man makes some baseless statements (claims). But the Supreme Being (Waheguru) is beyond birth and death. Pause.
Some people make the claim that the Supreme Being was born as Krishna on the eighth day after the full moon in the month of Bhaadoun. If that is true, then what happened to the other 364 days of the year (was Waheguru not alive during those days)? (The ignorant do not realize that Waheguru is always alive and is omnipresent). 1. Making punjeer(u), the priest, feeds the idol of Krishna, but the thief eats the punjeer himself. The money-worshipper and the animal-like (priest) do not realize that Waheguru does not take birth or die. 2.
The ignorant man commits all the (grave) sins when he sings a lullaby for the idol, believing that it is God. May such a mouth burn which says the Lord takes life forms. 3.
My Waheguru is always alive, and never takes births, dies, or goes away, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Oothut = while standing. Sookhiya = blissful; in comfort. Bhuou = worldy fears. Boojhiya = understands; realizes. 1. Raakha = guardian. Ghutaan = bodies; minds. Untarjaami = omniscient. Pause. Achinta = worry-free. Vertunta = operates; present. 2. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Drirraaya = firms up. 3.

MEANING: The omniscient Waheguru alone, which knows what goes through everybody's mind, is also our guardian, oh man. Pause.
The man who understands (internalizes) this fact is always blissful, whether he is standing (working) or sitting (relaxing), and fears nothing in the world. 1.
He sleeps worry-free and awakes worry-free because he knows that Waheguru is present everywhere (to support him). 2. The devotee which firms up Guru's Shabad in his mind (always keeps in mind), enjoys bliss internally, and in the outside world, oh Nanak. 3.2.

Kuhhou Kabir, eh(u) keeya vukhaana. Gur Peer mil(u) khood(i) Khusm(u) puchhana. 5.3.

Word Meaning: Vert = impose some restrictions; fasting. Meh = month. Ramdana = Ramadan (holy month of the Muslims when they should not eat during the day light). Nidaana = at the end. 1. Goosaayeen = the Lord of the earth (Hindu name for God). Allhou = Allah. Turk = the Mughals (Muslims). Nibayra = break up. Pause. Pind = body. Paraan = life. 4. Kabir = the holy Shabad has been written by Guru Arjun Dev Ji (the Fifth Master) explaining a Shabad written by Kabir Sahib in more detail. Kabir Sahib's Shabad is at number 7, also in Raag Bhairon. Vukhaana = explain. 5.

MEANING: I do not place any Hindu ritualistic restrictions on myself (like fasting), nor do I believe in the Muslim ritual of fasting during the month of Ramadan. 1.

I have broken away from both Hinduism and Islam. I believe in only one Supreme Being, whom the Hindus call Goosaayeen, and the Muslims, Allah. Pause.

I do not go on Hajj to the Kabah, or undertake pilgrimages to the Hindu holy places. I serve only the "One" Supreme Being, and do not recognize any other power. 2.

I do not perform any ritualistic worship of the Hindus, and offer no Muslim nivaaj (prayer). I only salute the formless Waheguru whom I see in my heart. 3.

I am neither a Hindu nor a Muslim. All bodies and souls are created by the same Supreme Being, which is Allah to the Muslims, and Ram to the Hindus. 4.

I, Nanak, simply explain the fact that I realized my own Lord in the shelter of my Guru, whom some people call Peer, oh Kabir. 5.3.

NOTE: The name of Kabir Sahib at the end does not mean that this holy Shabad has been written by Kabir Sahib. In fact, Kabir Sahib has written a Shabad in the same Raag, Bhairon, with a similar meaning, in which he says that he does not follow the rituals of the Hindu or Muslim faiths as written by their priests. Guru Sahib simply elaborates on that Shabad which is enshrined in Sri Guru Granth Sahib on page 1158.

Nanak kaiy ghur(i) kayvul Naam(u). 4.4.

Word Meaning: Dus = ten. Mirgi = deer (senses). Sehjay = easily. Bundh(i) Aani = trapped; brought under control. Paanch = five. Mirg = deer (demons). Baydhay = pierced. Shiv Kee Baani= with arrows of Waheguru (His Naam); Guru's Shabad. 1. Shikaar = hunting. Ghor = horses. Huthiyaar = weapons. Aakhayr = hunting. Birt(i) = nature (to hunt for sensual pleasures). Dhaayay = rushing. Ahayra = prey (the sensual pleasures). Ghur(i) Kaiy Gaayayn = inside the body-village. 2. Haat(i) = separated from; free of. Chookh, Chhokh = piece by piece. Baandhay = away. Baat(i) = journey. 3. Ahayra = preyed; clean mind free of the demons. Keeno Daan(u) = donated. Kayvul = only. 4.

MEANING: In the company (shelter) of the Guru, I set out to hunt the deer-like demons and senses (sensual pleasures) which had stolen my noble qualities (like the deer eat farmers' crops), and caught the deer-like demons without any horses and any weapons. 1.

The ten senses were easily trapped, and the five demons were pierced with the arrows of Waheguru (His Naam) (Guru's Shabad). Pause.

My hunting nature (which was looking for sensual pleasures as the prey) came rushing out of my mind, and my clean mind (free of all evil desires) has been left in the village of my body. 2. The deer-like sensual pleasures were caught, and my mind (free of all such pleasures) became peaceful (it quit weakening for sensual pleasures) in my body. My sensual pleasures were taken on a faraway journey, piece by piece, by my Guru. 3.

My clean mind was the gift of the Guru to me. Now, I have only Waheguru's Naam in my heart (which I share with others for them to hunt their sensual pleasures), oh Nanak. 4.4.

Kun = grains. Khulhaan = stook of sheaves. Gaahun = threshing. Tiyoun = like that. Brasaaya = gain; benefit. Tit = the same. Jit(u) = to which. Laaya = put to. Bunut = system. 5.

MEANING: One ought to seek the advice of the holy saints so as to attain the highest spiritual state in the company (shelter) of the Guru. Pause.

Even if you feed Waheguru's Naam with great aspirations to a money-lover, he never brings Him to mind (thinks of Waheguru). 1.

The money-lover is like a very dry (impermeable) stone which absorbs no water. 2.

He is like that foolish person whom the Shastras are read to, but for him, the words seem to be blown away by the wind in every direction (have no effect on him). 3.

Or, he is like a stook of sheaves with no grain in them, but which are arranged for threshing. Nobody can gain anything spiritual from a man who follows his own mind (a Maya-worshipper). 4. But such a person cannot be fully blamed because he is doing just that for which his character has been predetermined by Waheguru. Such is the system that Waheguru has created, oh Nanak. 5.5.

Word Meaning: Jeeou Paraan = life. Ruchiyo = created = Oopaayay. Peer = pain; worry; concern. 1. Gur Gobind(u) = Waheguru. Jea Kaiy Kaam = support for life. Hult(i) = this world. MEANING: Waheguru, which has created life and the body, is also worried about His living beings (looks after them. 1. Waheguru is the support for all life, and His support is always there in this world and the next. Pause.

Worshipping Waheguru is a holy practice. The unholy practice (of not worshipping Him) gets destroyed in the shelter of the Guru. 2. One's friends, well-wishers, and one's wealth cannot ferry him across the world-sea (get him emancipation. Only my Waheguru (His Naam) is worthy of our worship (which supports us in His Court). 3.

Word Meaning: Aagaiy = in the future. Duyyou = the merciful (Waheguru). Paachhaiy = in the past. Mudh(i) Bhaag(i) = in the middle; at present. Rusaayin = source of all tastes (comforts) (God). 1. Shastar = the six Shastras. Saun = a book on astrology that enables one to make predictions; a horoscope. Sehj = peace. Anund = blissfulness. Greh(i) = home. Bhaun = mansion. Pause. Kern = ears. Simer(i) = remembering. Amar = immortal. Thir(u) = stable; immortal. Theevaiy = becomes. 2. Nivaaray = destroys. Unhud Shabad = auto-playing Divine music. Vujjay = plays. Durbaaray = in the tenth door. 3. Shernaagut(i) = shelter.

MEANING: Love for Waheguru is always the source of all comforts – in the past, in the future, and even at present (regardless of what eon it is). 1.

My Waheguru is the study of all Shastras, and of astrology for me (I do not need to study them). His Naam is the comfort, peace, blissfulness, and living in luxurious homes for me.

Pause. I survive by reciting His Naam with the tongue and listening to it with my ears. One can become immortal (merge with Waheguru) by reciting His Naam. 2.
His Naam destroys one's sins of many lives, and one feels as if the Divine Music is playing in his tenth door. When one takes Waheguru's shelter, He connects the devotee with Him with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 4.7.

Bin(u) Hur(i) Naam, mithiya subh chhaar(u). 4.8.

Word Meaning: Koat(i) = millions. Munoruth = objectives; wishes. Aaveh(i) Haath(i) = are acquired. Jum Marg = on the journey to the Angel of death (after death). Paath = path. 1. Ganga Jul(u) = water of the River Ganga which the Hindus believe to be very holy. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Buhourr(i) = again. Joan(i) Bhermaam = taken through many life forms. Pause. Jaap = recitation of some mantras. Taap = self-torturing. Ishnaan = dips at holy places. Nihkaam = without any desires. 2. Maal = wealth. Saadun = mansion. Durbar = court; reign. Poorun Achaar = perfect morality. 3. Beechaar(u) = thought; conclusion. Mithiya = false. Chhaar(u) = dirt. 4.

MEANING: For me, Waheguru's Naam is the water of the river Ganga (which the people believe to be very holy). Whoever drinks (recites) it attains a high spiritual state and is never taken through any life form again (never takes birth again). Pause.
Millions of objectives of the devotee (who recites Waheguru's Naam) are achieved successfully, and it becomes his companion (accompanies him) even after his death. 1.
By reciting Waheguru's Naam, the devotee loses all his worldly desires and any interest in rituals like idol worship, recitation of mantras, self-torturing, and dips at holy places, which become meaningless for him. 2. Worldly luxuries, such as the reign of a state, wealth, huge mansions, and courts (judgeships), become unimportant for the devotee who recites Waheguru's Naam, and he leads a life of high morality. 3.
I am a slave of Waheguru, and have arrived at the conclusion that everything, without Waheguru's Naam, is false (short-lived), and is worthless like dirt, oh Nanak. 4.8.

NOTE: This Shabad has great historical significance. Guru Arjun Dev ji was the youngest son of Guru Ram Dass Ji. Before leaving this mortal world, Guru Ram Dass Ji passed on the Gurushiip to Arjun Dev Ji for his pure-mindedness and spiritual transcendence, bypassing His eldest son, Pirthi Chand. Being the eldest son, Pirthi Chand believed it was his right to be the next Guru, so he became very angry when he was denied that "right". First, he tried to convince the popular Sikhs, like Baba Buddha Ji, Bhai Gurdas Ji, and others, that it was his right to Gurushiip, which must be restored to him; but when he failed to convince them, he tried some legal challenges as well, but got no success even there.
His next move was to have the infant son, Sri Hargobind Ji, the only child of Guru Arjun Dev Ji, killed. He tried many approaches, but failed in all of them. Finally, he bribed the Brahman male nurse of Sri Hargobind Ji to feed him poisoned yogurt. The Brahman tried to feed poisoned yogurt to child Hargobind Ji, but the Child would not accept it. When the Brahman tried to feed the Child forcibly, he had a sudden and severe attack of pain in his stomach, as a result of which the bowl fell from his hand, and he died then and there. A pet dog ate that yogurt and died right away. When Guru Sahib saw through the whole incident, He thankfully praised Waheguru for protecting Hargobind Ji and wrote many Shabads in Waheguru's praise to instill faith among the masses in His Greatness. This is just one of many such Shabads.
Word Meaning: Layp(u) = negative effect. Til Ka Mool(i) = not even the size of a sesame seed. Doosht(u) = evil. Sool = severe pain in the stomach. 1. Gur Pertaap(i) = with the majesty of the Guru. Pause. Aap(i) = Waheguru. Iyaana = ignorant. Paapi = sinner. Puchaaya = brned in suffering. 2. Ninduk = vilifier; evil. Maatha = forehead; face. Eehaan Oohaan = here and there; everywhere. Kaala = black; disgraced. Mulaychh(u) = ignoble. Niraas(u) = dejected. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru, Himself protects His devotees. The sinner died because of the majesty of the Guru. Pause. (Hargobind) experienced absolutely no negative effect – not even the size of a sesame seed – but the evil Brahman died of severe stomach pain. 1. Waheguru makes His devotees recite His Naam, and He causes a huge suffering for the evil sinner. 2.
Waheguru is the guardian of His devotees, like their mother and father, whereas the evil gets his face blackened (disgraced) everywhere. Waheguru listened to the prayer of His slave (Guru Arjun Dev Ji), and the ignoble sinner suffered badly, and was dejected, oh Nanak. 4.9.

Your nature is mesmerizing, and Your Feet are (Naam is) praiseworthy. Singing Your praise is a special gift (Your favour), oh my eternal Emperor. 2. You are the best support for the support-less. I always recite the Naam of Waheguru, who accords honour to the helpless (humble). 3.

The Lord is very kind to me, and I wish I never forget His Naam from my heart, my soul, and my life, oh Nanak. 4.10.

MEANING: Acquire Waheguru's eternal Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and accept His Will as good for you, oh my friends 1. Recite Waheguru's Naam with your tongue, and drink the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam from the time you wake up, and stay spiritually alive all the time. Pause. Waheguru's Naam is the only means of salvation in the world. I am simply conveying Waheguru's Huqam, oh Nanak. 2.11.

MEANING: All one's filth of many lives is washed away, and he achieves all his objectives by serving Satguru. 1. Your Naam purifies the immoral, oh Waheguru. I sing Your praise because of my prewritten good fortune based on my previous deeds. Pause.

One finds salvation in the shelter of the Guru and earns praise in Waheguru's Court. 2. Serving Waheguru's Feet (obeying His Huqam, and reciting His Naam) is the source of all wellbeing for the man. All gods, and all humans, long for the dust of His Feet. 3.
The world can find salvation by reciting His Naam; I, too, have acquired the treasure of Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.12.

Waheguru protects His devotee from the sinner (vilifier) while the sinner never finds peace of mind anywhere; he suffers badly because of his own deeds. Pause.
Waheguru's devotee has deep attachment (love) for Him, but the vilifier is just the opposite – he loves Maya. 2. Waheguru shows His innate greatness for the devotee, while the vilifier reaps the (painful) rewards of his own deeds. 3.
I am His slave, and have sought the shelter of Waheguru, who is always present everywhere, and who never comes and goes (takes birth and dies), oh Nanak. 4.13.

Word Meaning: Sridhur = supporter of Maya (Waheguru). Mohun = mind captivating (God). Oopaavun = creator. Sookhdaata = source of all comforts. Chhoad(i) = leaving aside; ignoring. Un Sayva = serving others. Bikhiya Rus = enjoyment of poisonous sensual pleasures. Maata = intoxicated. 1. Bhaaj(u) = recite (Naam). Oopaav = measures. Chitviyaiy = plan in mind. Bigrus(i) = is spoilt (ruined). Kaaj(u) = task; objective. Pause. Daasi = slave (Maya). Ugiyaana = ignorant. Nindeh(i) = vilify. Niguray = without Guru. Pushoo Smaana = like animal. 2. Pind(u) = body. Saakut = Maya-worshipper. Ahunboodh(i) = egoistic thinking. Doormut(i) = immoral thinking. Maiyli = filthy; impure. Bhuvjul Phayra = return to world-sea (rebirths). 3. Hoam = huvuns (building fire in a pit and feed the fire with ghee, and other ingredients to please gods). Yug = serving meals to Brahmans after the huvuns. Sunjum = efforts to control senses. Tut(u) = banks of holy rivers. Paaya = acquire. Mitiya Aap(u) eradicate one's selfishness and ego. Shernaayi = shelter. Jugut = world. Turaaya = salvages. 4.

MEANING: The formless Waheguru is the creator of the whole world and is the source of all comforts. What kind of poisonous tastes (sensual pleasures) could they be with which the individual is intoxicated, who, ignoring such kind Waheguru, worships some other power? (It is unbelievable that sensual pleasures could be as blissful as Waheguru's Naam). 1.
I have tried all means to acquire blissfulness, but all such means that one plans ruin his objective (to achieve bliss, which they do not provide). So, recite the Naam of Waheguru, oh my mind. Pause. The follower of his mind is blind and ignorant who ignores Waheguru, and serves (worships) Maya, which is Waheguru's slave. The individuals who do not serve the Guru and maliciously criticize Waheguru's devotees are like animals. 2.
The life, the body, and the wealth are all the gifts of Waheguru given to the man, but the Maya-worshipper claims that they are all his (acquired by him). This kind of thinking, guided by one's ego, is bad and filthy. Without taking Guru's shelter, the man keeps taking births and dying. 3. No prevalent ritual like huvuns, yugs, recitation of some mantras, self-torture, efforts to control one's senses, living on the bank of a holy river, or taking dips at holy places can please Waheguru. The world can find salvation only when one gets rid of his selfishness and ego in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.1.14.

Word Meaning: Bun = forest. Paykhiyo = saw; is seen. Trin = vegetation. Greh(i) = in households. Oodaasaayay = who have renounced the world. Dunddhaar = those who hold a baton; yogis. Jutdhaaraiy = those with permanently tangled hair (yogis). Vert Naym = followers of some commitments and principles. Teeruthaayay = pilgrims to holy places. 1. Mun Maayay = in the mind. Oobh = in the sky. Puyyaal = in the underworld. Poorun = filling completely. Rus(i) = while enjoying. Mungul Goon = virtues as source of bliss. Pause. Jut(i) = celibates. Kaapurraayay = those who cover the whole body with loose fabric. Tupeesur = well-known self-afflicters. Nut Naatiks = acrobats and stage actors. Nirtaayay = dancers. 2. Chuhoun = in the four (Vedas). Khut(u) = the six (Shastras), Dus-Ashteen = the eighteen Puranas. Simertaayay = in the Simritis. Vukhaaneh(i) = say. Dooraayay = hidden; far away. 3. Agah = unfathomable. Keem = worth. Ghut(i) = in the heart. Pegutiaayay = appears. 4.

MEANING: A devotee, who sings Waheguru's virtues - which are the source of bliss - in the shelter of the Guru with love, realizes (acquires) Him in his mind, and he sees Him fully present everywhere, including the underworld, and the sky. Pause.

Now, (connected with Waheguru) I, too, see Him in the forest, in vegetation, in family men and in those who are detached from the world (renouncers). I see Him in the yogis who hold batons in their hands and wear tangled hair, and in those who perform rituals like observing fasting, following some principles, or undertaking pilgrimages. 1.

I see Him in those who wear religious garb of yogis or of sanyasis, in yogis with tangled hair, in Jungums (a sect of yogis), and in those who cover their whole bodies with fabric. I see Him in those who torture themselves, including those who are popular in this faith, in hermits, in acrobats, in stage actors, and in those who try to please their deities by dancing. 2.

I see Him in those who read the four Vedas, the six Shastras, the eighteen Puranas, and the Simritis. When I see only Him in everybody, how can I say that He is far away from some? 3. The Lord is unfathomable, limitless, and nobody can know His worth. I am a sacrifice for those in whose hearts Waheguru appears, oh Nanak. 4. 2.15.

Nayrraiy, nayrraiy, subh(u) ko kuhhaiy. Gurmukh(i) bhayd(u) virla ko luhhaiy. 1. Ruhaou. Nicket(u) na daykhaiy, pur greh(i) jaayay. Derb(u) hiraiy, mithiya kur(i) khaayay. Puyyi tthugauri, Hur(i) sung(i) na jaaniya. Baajh(u) Guru haiy bherm(i) bhoolaaniya. 2. Nicket(i) na jaanaiy, boalaiy, koorr(u). Maya moh(i), moottha haiy moorr(u). Jun Nanak, aavaiy, na jaavaiy koyay. 4.3.16.

Word Meaning: Nicket(i) = nearby. Boojhaiy = understands. Bikh(u) = poisonous wealth. Sunchaiy = accumulates. Ur(u) = and. Bhayd(u) = secret. Mohi = captivated. 1. Burmukh(i)

= in Guru's shelter. Virla = rare. Pur Greh(i) = others' house. Derb(u) = money. Hiraiy = steals. Eats = lives on. Mithiya Kur(i) = by dishonest means. Tthugauri = deceiving shrub. Sung(i) = with. Bherm(i) Bhoolaaniya = misled by illusions. 2. Koorr(u) = lies. Moottha = robbed. Moorr(u) = foolish. Vust(u) = the priceless Naam(u). Disuntar(i) = in far away places. 3. Kerm(u) = good fortune. Mustuk(i) = Lilaat = on the forehead. Kupaat = doors of the brain (tenth door). 4.

MEANING: Everybody says Waheguru is very close to us, but a rare person finds His secrets (makes a connection with Him) in the shelter of the Guru. Pause.

A person who really understands that Waheguru is close to him (makes a connection with Him) does not do anything bad (immoral). But the individual, who accumulates poisonous wealth (by immoral means), is always afraid (from fear of its loss, or of the result of his immoral and illegal acts, etc.). Without Satguru, everybody is deceived by Maya. So, even though Waheguru is close to them, they do not know this secret (because He is hidden). 1.

A Maya-lover does not think that Waheguru is close to him, so he goes to others' houses to steal wealth and lives on money earned by dishonest means. Deceived by Maya, he does not realize that Waheguru is always with him, and without the Guru, he is misled by his misbeliefs. 2. Without taking Guru's shelter, the egoist (Maya-lover) does not think that Waheguru is close to him, so, engrossed in Maya, he tells lies, and the foolish is robbed of his spirituality. Not realizing that Waheguru, which is the source of all bliss, is present inside him, he goes to foreign lands to search for Him. 3. The individual, who has good fortune written on his forehead, serves Satguru, and the doors of his brain open up for enlightenment. He sees Waheguru inside him, outside him, and close to him, and realizes that He (Waheguru) does not come or go (He is always there), oh Nanak. 4.3.16.

(PAGE 1140): Tis(u) jun kay subh(i) kaaj(u) suvaar(i). Tis ka raakha Aiko Soyay. Jun Nanak, uppurr na saakaiy koyay. 4.4.17.

Word Meaning: Untar(i) = inside; under control. Oopaav = plans. Chitvut = thinks of. Praani = man. Choaj-Vidaani = performer of amazing feats (God). 1. Bhuou = fear. Door(i) Keeya = dispelled. Puraata = attracted to; made connection with. Phoon(i) = again. 2. Maanus = human. Baan(i) = habit; nature. Untarjami = omniscient. Soojaan(u) = wise. Tayk = Adhaar(u) = support. Sirjunhaar(u) = the Creator. Kartar(u) = Waheguru. Kaaruj Suvaar(i) = tasks completed successfully. Uppurr = reach. 4.

MEANING: Who can kill (cause any harm to) the individual who is protected by You, oh Waheguru? The whole world is in Your shelter. The man may plan millions of things, but only that happens which Waheguru – the performer of amazing feats - does. 1.
I have come to Your shelter in Your Court, kindly protect me (against the attacks of Maya) with Your benevolence, oh Waheguru. Pause.
The fearless and the source of all comforts, Waheguru, dispels all the worldly fears of His devotees, who get attached to and serve Him. The devotees become fully convinced that no one, other than Waheguru, can kill them (cause them any harm), and only that which Waheguru does happens. 2. Waheguru is wise and omniscient, and the Creator knows everything about you. So, what are you thinking as per your nature, oh man? Take His shelter only, and make Him the basis of your life. 3.
All the objectives of the individual, on whom Waheguru casts a kind sight, are achieved successfully. Waheguru becomes his guardian, and nobody can reach him (to cause any harm, or rival him in spirituality), oh Nanak. 4.4.17.

Jiyoun bhaavaiy tiyoun kureh(i) nibayraa. Dootiya naasut(i), Ikk(u) ruhhiya smaayay. Raakhou paiyj, Nanak shernaayay. 4.5.18.

Word Meaning: Kurriyaiy = fret; suffer; worry. Baahur(i) = far away. Nurhur(i) = God. Bhaayay = like. Smaayay = present. 1. Puchiya = suffer. Bherm(i), Bherm(i) = wandering aimlessly. Khupiya = get frustrated. Pause. Dooja Kerta = attempts by others to control you. Uniyaayay Ko Merta = dies of unnatural (paranormal) causes. Bhurpoor Smaahi = fully present. 2. Dhingaanaiy = aggression. Runjaanaiy = tortures. Tay = by; from. Achint = worry- free. 3. Nibayra = final decision. Dootiya = other. Naasut(i) = is not. Ikk(u) = “One” God. Paiyj = dignity. Shernaayay = shelter. 4.

MEANING: Without Waheguru’s Naam, the man gets engrossed in his love for wealth, and roams about in search of more wealth as a result of which, he gets frustrated, and suffers severely worrying about it. Pause.
The devotee, who realizes that Waheguru is present everywhere (for his support), does not worry about anything. But those who believe Him to be far away, or those who forget Him, and love something else (Maya), do suffer. 1.
One has a reason to worry if he believes that there is someone else who can do things as God does, and one has a reason to protest if he believes that some of his relatives have died of paranormal (unnatural) causes. One also worries when he is ignorant about Waheguru. The devotee, who is convinced that Waheguru is omnipresent, never frets. 2.

One has a reason to fret if he feels he is a victim of aggression, or if he commits an injustice to others, even by mistake. But when the Guru explained that whatever happens, it happens according to Waheguru's Huqam (Laws), I began to enjoy worry-free sleep (I have quit worrying). 3.
Waheguru is the Lord, and everybody belongs to Him. He makes His final judgment as He deems fit. He is the only one who is present everywhere, and there is none other. I have come to His shelter and pray to Him to protect my dignity, begs Nanak. 4.5.18.

Bin(u) paykhay kuhhou kaiyso dhiyan(u). Bin(u) bhaiy kuthnee, serb bikaar. Kuhhou Nanak, Dur ka beechaar. 5.6.19.

Word Meaning: Baajay = musical instruments. Kaiso = how can? Nirtkaari = dancing. Kuntthaiy = throat; voice. Jeel = wires. Rubaab = lute. Birthay = empty; useless. Kaaj = tasks. 1. Turiya = finds salvation. Paar Puriya = other shore (of the world-sea). Pause. Jihva = tongue. Bukta = talks. Servnaa = ears. Kuhhaan = where; how. Paykahiy = see. Na Laykhaiy = has no significance. 2. Bidiya = education. Pundit = a well educated. Amraiy = reign. Raj Mundit = royal decorations. Boojhaiy = enlightenment. Tthehraana = stabilizes; becomes peaceful. Jug(u) = world. Buouraana = crazy; eccentric. 3. Baiyraag(u) = renouncement of worldly attractions. Bairaagi = detached from the world. Huoun = ego. Tiyaag(u) = abandonment. Bus(i) = control. Punch = the five (demons). Chooray = crush (kill worldly desires). Jhooray = regret and repent. 4. Deekhiya = Advice. Paykhay = seeing. Kuthnee = talk. Bikaar = meaningless. 5.

MEANING: Just like there is no meaningful dancing without musical instruments, no singing without voice (if the throat is not working), and no playing on a lute is possible if it has no wires; all tasks are worthless (incomplete) without Waheguru's Naam. 1.
Tell me who has ever found salvation, or swum across the world-sea without Satguru? Pause.
Who can talk without the tongue, and who can listen without the ears? Just like nobody can see without eyes, the man has no spiritual knowledge without Waheguru's Naam. 2.

How can a man be considered educated without education, and how can someone have royal decorations (symbols) if he has no state to reign? Just like one cannot have a peaceful mind without spiritual enlightenment, the whole world becomes eccentric without Waheguru's Naam. 3. How can a person claim to be a renouncer of the world (detached from it),if he is still attached to the world and still suffering from his ego? How can a man claim that he has crushed all his mental wishes if his senses are not under his control? Similarly, a person always suffers from regret and resentment without Waheguru's Naam. 4.
How can a man acquire Divine Knowledge without a Guru's Advice? And how can a man focus his mind on an object if he has not seen that? I wish to share the system in Waheguru's Court that, without any fear (love and respect) for Waheguru, all one's talk is meaningless, oh Nanak. 5.6.19.

Koorunga = deer. 1. Roagi = patient; suffering. Reht = free from. Yogi = connected with (Waheguru). Pause. Jihva = tongue (taste). Meen(u) = fish. Grusiyaano = trapped. Baasun = nose (smell; fragrance). Bhuvur = bumblebee. Binsaano = destroyed. Hayt = attachment. Tribhidh(i) = the three effects of Maya. Bikaara = immoral activities. 2. Joani Bhermaiy = takes rebirths. Roag-Bundh = gripped by disease. Rehn(u) = freedom from worries; peace of mind. Rutee Na = not even a small amount. Kuteh Na = not by any means. 3.

MEANING: Every visible living being suffers from some innate killer habit. Only my Satguru is free from all such bad habits. Pause.
The man suffers from the serious disease of haumein (selfishness and ego), while the lust of the elephant traps him when the hunters deceive him by showing a model of a female. The moths' eyesight becomes their downfall: when they see a flame, they jump into it out of love. Similarly, the love of the musk deer for a particular music becomes the cause of their death. They run towards the music played by the hunters at night, and get shot by the hunters. 1. The fish gets trapped for its love of the tasty bait, and the bumblebee gets stuck to the sticky juice of the flowers when it is attracted by their fragrance. The whole world suffers from the disease of attachments to certain things. The love for the three effects of Maya (haumein) leads to a more serious disease: sensual pleasures. 2. The man dies of his worldly attachments in mind, and is reborn with them in different life forms. Gripped by the disease of worldly attachments, the man finds no mental peace at all. Without Satguru, the disease (of haumein) does not leave him (let him free) by any efforts on his part. 3.

But, when Waheguru is kind to someone, he pulls him out of the well of Maya by holding him by the arm. Waheguru puts him in the shelter of the Guru, where all his worldly bonds get broken. The Guru eradicates his disease (haumein), oh Nanak. 4.7.20.

Word Meaning: cheet(i) Aavaiy = if comes to mind. Muhha = great. Anund = bliss. Bhunj = destroyed. Sherdha = wish. Kubeh(i) Na = never. Jhoori = regrets and repents. 1. Ram Raayay = Waheguru. Pergtay Aayay = appears. Rung(i) = love for; blissfulness. Pause. Rung(i) Goolaal = deep red colour (indicative of strong union with Waheguru). Nihaal = blissful. 2. Dhunvunta = wealthy. MEANING: With His benevolence, the Perfect Guru instilled love for Waheguru in my mind and connected me with Him. Now I feel highly blissful that Waheguru has appeared in my mind. Pause. A man feels highly blissful when he thinks about Waheguru (keeps Him in mind all the time); all his troubles are eradicated, all his wishes are fulfilled, and he never has to regret and repent again. 1.
When Waheguru dwells in a man's mind, he feels as if he is the king of the whole world; all his tasks are completed successfully, his mind is dyed in deep red (with never-dying love for Waheguru), and he always feels blissful. 2. With Waheguru in his mind, the devotee is always rich in mind, has peace of mind (is never indecisive), enjoys all the tastes (luxuries) of life, and he no longer depends upon anybody else for any of his needs. 3.
With Waheguru in mind, the devotee attains a high spiritual state (above the effect of Maya) and remains absorbed in Waheguru; he always sings His praise, and his mind is fully convinced of (has full faith in) Him, oh Nanak. 4.8.21.

MEANING: My Father, Waheguru, is always eternal, and my brothers (Waheguru's devotees) also become eternal (as they get absorbed in Him). My friends (spiritual associates) also become immortal for the same reason, and all the members of the family (all devotees) remain absorbed in Waheguru (their permanent home). 1.

But only that devotee acquires and enshrines it in his heart, to whom Waheguru is kind. When a devotee has Satguru's immortalizing Shabad in his heart, all his sins of many lives get eradicated. 1. The individuals who have the treasure of Waheguru's Naam prewritten in their fortune (by Waheguru) are given room (honoured) in Waheguru's Court. One acquires all comforts and blissfulness of a high spiritual state by singing Waheguru's virtues, and one gets a special place (recognition) in Waheguru's Court, even though one may not have ever been recognized in the world. 2.

The everlasting gist of the fact is that no matter what the eon it is, recitation of Waheguru's Naam is the only truth (which immortalizes one by connecting him with Waheguru). But only that individual gets to recite Waheguru's Naam whom Waheguru provides His shelter to (connects with Him). Such an individual becomes enlightened after having been in the dark of ignorance for many, many lives. 3.

The devotees are Yours (You created and groomed them), and You are theirs (You are present in them); so, in a way, You are singing Your own praise, oh Lord. All living beings are in Your control, and You are always with them, oh Nanak. 4.16.29.

The Naam is the manifestation of the omniscient Waheguru, and makes all our tasks successful. It is present in every pore of my body, and has been gifted to me by the Perfect Satguru. 1. Waheguru's Naam makes a man truly wealthy, and it becomes his eternal wealth (which never runs out). Everybody shows respect for the devotee who has Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his heart. Waheguru's Naam also makes the devotee a perfect source of the Naam, and he becomes completely worry-free. 2.

Waheguru's Naam and love for Him are the spiritual food and the objective of life for the devotee. One does not forget Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and one feels as if Divine Music is playing in one's mind. 3.

With the Guru's grace and with the benevolence of Waheguru, one acquires Waheguru's Naam, which is like acquiring the nine mythical treasures, and the devotee falls in love with the Naam. Those devotees are truly wealthy and respectable who have the treasure of Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their hearts, oh Nanak. 4.17.30.

MEANING: I bow to the Great Waheguru all the time whose Court is unapproachable (for any undeserving favour or for any change in His Huqam (only perfect justice is delivered there). His Residence is the highest of all (inaccessible to non-devotees by any means), but millions of sins are washed away with His Naam. 1.
One always enjoys comforts (blissfulness) in His shelter when he is connected with Him (Waheguru) with His benevolence. Pause. Waheguru, whose amazing feats cannot be comprehended, and on which everybody is dependent, appears in one's mind in the shelter of the Guru. His devotees always worship Him with deep love. 2.
His treasures never run out while He delivers His gifts to His living beings. He can create and then destroy things in a moment. He is the eternal Emperor above all the worldly rulers, and nobody can erase (undo) His Huqam (Will). 3.
Everybody survives because of His protection and is fully dependent upon Him. He is the Lord, and knows all about our suffering and our comforts, and keeps the secrets (weaknesses) of His devotees from others. I always sing His praise, oh Nanak. 4.

Soag(u) = grief. 1. Bikhiya = Maya. Dhundh(u) Pusaar(u) = expanse of Maya-related affairs. Virlaiy = some rare. Pause. Tribidh(i) = of three qualities. Biyaap(i) = overpowers. Taahi Ka = his. Pervaan(u) = welcome; useful. 4.
MEANING: All the daily dealings of the man are Maya-related; some rare individual makes Waheguru's Naam the basis of his life. Pause.
Even the relatives of a dead man cry at his death to share their woeful tale. They cry to remember his relationship only because of his lost usefulness in everyday dealings. If one feels the pain of separation of a relative by understanding Waheguru's Huqam, he will not endure the suffering of any death or (the happiness) of a new birth in the family. 1.

The three qualities of Maya overpower humans, and those who become deeply attached to it suffer its consequences. One cannot enjoy blissfulness without Waheguru's Naam, but only some fortunate people acquire the treasure of Naam. 2.
If someone likes the character an actor plays, he is disappointed when the real-life character of the actor is revealed after the actor takes his makeup off. The love for worldly attractions is as useless as the shade of a moving cloud for a person (who takes its shelter believing it to be permanent). 3.
But if a person acquires the priceless Naam of Waheguru, all his tasks get completed successfully. The birth of the individual, who acquires Waheguru's Naam with the grace of the Guru, is welcome in the world (and approved by Waheguru), oh Nanak. 4.20.33.

Baad(u) = fights; bears enmity. Saad(u) = enjoyment; peacefulness. Pause. Kundh(u) = body. Chhaydaavaiy = creates holes (for noble qualities to leak out and for bad qualities to enter). Bhoonchhaavaiy = causes to receive (endure). Gulaiy = rots; suffers. Raj = royal luxuries. Tulaiy = is deprived of. 2. Gut(i) = state of peacefulness. Kut-hoon = never. Yaar = immoral relationship with other women. Jooaar = gambler. Unhoanda = which was not there before. Bhaar(u) = burden. 3. Nirvaiyr = without any enmity. Nisturaiy = is salvaged. Paiyr = Feet (Naam) of (Waheguru). Aad(i) Purakh(i) = Waheguru. Kirt(u) = the result of deeds done. Mitaaya = erase; undo. 4.

MEANING: Vilifying a holy saint causes mental sickness, and the vilifier is taken through many different life forms. The vilifiers are punished by the Angel of Justice, and they must endure many hardships. 1. The vilifier, who bears enmity against the holy saint (Guru), enjoys no peace in life. Pause. Vilification of a Waheguru's devotee creates many holes (weaknesses) in the body of the vilifier through which his noble qualities (if he is left with any) leak out, and ignoble qualities attack, and he has to endure hell-like suffering. The vilifier of a holy devotee rots in the mother's womb (goes through many different life forms), and he is deprived of all the luxuries of human life. 2. The vilifier never enjoys peace in life, but he can blame only himself because he is reaping the rewards of his own doings. He is worse than a thief, a lustful person, and a gambler, as he carries the burden which would not have been there if he had not wilfully criticized a holy saint. 3.

Waheguru's devotees bear no enmity with anyone; actually, the people who serve them find salvation. Waheguru forgets (ignores) such vilifiers (withholds His favours for them). The consequences of the deeds done by individuals cannot be undone, oh Nanak. 4.21.34.

Word Meaning: Humaaraiy = for us (devotees of Waheguru). Naad = mantras; music (played by the yogis). Kaaj = tasks. 1. Drirriyo = reinforces. Ootum = superior. Kaam = task; service. Pause. Mujun = Ishnaan = dip at holy places. Poorun = perfect. Daan(u) = gift. Tay Sugul= all those. Puveet = pure; pious. 2. Tayk(u) = shelter. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the study of the Vedas and the recitation of any mantras in our world (for Waheguru's devotee) - we do not need them. All our tasks get successfully completed because of Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru's Naam is the worship of the gods for us (we do not need that); actually, serving the Guru is the same as Waheguru's Naam for us. 1. The Perfect Guru reinforces Waheguru's Naam among His Sikhs, which is the superior most service to Waheguru. Pause.

Waheguru's Naam is the dip at holy places for us (and unlike our Hindu brothers, who make donations to Brahmans after taking a dip), Waheguru's Naam is the perfect donation we make for others. All those who recite Waheguru's Naam get their minds purified; all our brothers and friends (devotees of Waheguru) recite His Naam. 2.

Rather than considering good and bad rituals or auspicious and inauspicious times, we focus only on Waheguru's Naam (before we undertake any project), and Waheguru's Naam makes us fully content as if we have enjoyed delicious food. Waheguru's Naam is the performance of all prevalent rituals for us; it requires us to have honest dealings with people. 3.

The individual, who enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart, realizes that Waheguru is the support of all hearts. The devotees, who are given Waheguru's Naam in the holy gatherings, sing His praise with their body and mind, oh Nanak. 4.22.35.

MEANING: Serving the Royal Waheguru makes all the tasks of the devotee successful. The Lord is the doer of everything and makes others do things of His choice. Nobody is without Him (He is present in everybody). Pause.

He gives wealth to the poor; countless sins are washed away with His Naam, and the mind is purified. He gives (implants) His Naam in His devotee's heart whereby all his objectives are achieved, and all tasks get completed successfully. 1. Waheguru cures the patients' ailments and eradicates all the troubles of the suffering man. He bestows honour on a person who never enjoyed any respect before, and puts His devotee in His worship. 2.

Waheguru gets respect for the humble from the people, and the foolish become very clever and knowledgeable with His benevolence. When Waheguru takes dwelling in the heart of His devotees, all their fears, even of the highly terrifying situations, run away. 3.

Only that gathering is holy where only Waheguru's praise is sung. Pause.

One's birth-death cycle comes to an end in the shelter of the holy saints, and the Angel of justice cannot question him. Because only Waheguru's Naam is recited in the holy gatherings, even the routine conversations of the devotees become pure (no jealousy, no vilification or no immoral talks there). 2.

With Waheguru's eternal Naam being discussed there, the holy gatherings are also eternal, where all sins are eradicated. Waheguru's mind-purifying virtues are discussed in the holy gatherings because of which all the ailment of haumein runs away there. 3.

The gatherings of the holy saints are indestructible because the treasure of all virtues, Waheguru, is present there. Like the cross threads (warp and weft) in fabric, Waheguru is fully mixed with (dwells in) the gatherings of the holy saints, oh Nanak. 4.24.37.

Waheguru's Naam is always a friend of the devotees, and they always enjoy comfort who keep Waheguru in mind. Even the Angel of Death does not go near them. Pause.

When the man was not here yet, then who created him? Look at what the invisible origin of the man is (father's sperm, and mother's egg), and what beautiful shape he is given at his birth!! Waheguru, Himself kills the living beings, and Himself gives them life, and raises and nourishes (protects) His devotees. 2. We must understand that Waheguru controls everything about us, and He is the Lord even of the orphans (shelter-less). His Naam is the destroyer of all troubles, and one enjoys blissfulness by singing His praise. 3.

You control our life, soul, and our wealth, oh Waheguru. So, kindly listen to the prayer of Your devotees. This world is Yours (You created it), and everybody worships You. Please be kind to me too (and give me Your Naam), so that I may enjoy blissfulness, prays Nanak. 4.25.38.

One's mind is enlightened by the recitation of Waheguru's Naam because of which all his internal struggles (fighting with self) come to an end, and he attains the bliss of the high spiritual state. Worship Guru Govind (Waheguru), oh my mind. His worship washes away the filth of one's many lives, severs his worldly bonds, and connects him with Waheguru. Pause.
How can a stone (a man loaded with sins) be purified by dips at holy places? Actually, he gathers more filth of haumein (of his pilgrimage). Millions of rituals are actually the root of more worldly bonds. Without Waheguru's Naam, the whole package of rituals is spiritually worthless (earns no credit in Waheguru's Court). 2. A hungry man gets satisfaction only with food, and one's suffering goes away only when one's disease has been cured. Gripped in his lust, rage, greed, and worldly attachments, the man does not recite the Naam of the Creator (Waheguru) (which can rid him of the disease of his vices). 3.
The Guru is worthy of our respect, and praise-worthy is Waheguru's Naam. One should sing Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru all the time. The creator, Waheguru, is Great, and great are His devotees. I have come to the shelter of the limitless Waheguru, oh Nanak.4.

Waheguru raises and nourishes His devotees (spiritually) and keeps a kind eye on them with every breath. Not only from human beings, but Waheguru also protects His devotees even from the Angel of death by extending His hand. 3.
Praising Waheguru's devotees and emulating (following) their high-moral daily routine purifies one's mind as one remembers Waheguru. With His grace, the Guru has given me the gift, and I have acquired the treasure of Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.33.46.

Word Meaning: Laiyt = by taking (reciting). Bighun = obstacle; impediment. 1. Nirbighun = without any interruption. Bhuj(u) = recite Naam. Rusuk(i) = while enjoying. Pause. Chaakh(u) = evil sight. Johaiy = sees; watches. Daiynt Dayou = the biggest monster (the five demons). Pohaiy = touch. Budhaiy = kills (spiritually). Roodhaiy = is trapped. 2. Bayla = time. Buhou Maah(i) = among many. MEANING: One faces no obstacle in his path (to union with Waheguru) when he recites Waheguru's Naam (with full dedication). The Angel of death runs away at a distance on listening to Waheguru's Naam (as the devotee has already become "one" with Waheguru). All one's troubles are destroyed when he recites Waheguru's Naam, and the Naam takes dwelling in His heart. 1.

One faces no obstacle in his worship of Waheguru when he recites His Naam and sings His praise while enjoying every bit of it. Pause.

No one can cast an evil sight on the devotee who remembers Waheguru (keeps Him in mind), and not even the largest monster (of the five demons) can touch (go near) him. No worldly attachment, or his ego, can kill the devotee (spiritually) who keeps Waheguru in mind, and he cannot be trapped in the cycle of rebirths. 2.

(Unlike some other religions in which there are specific times when the faithful can worship God), The devotees can worship Him any time, and all the time. But there is only one such individual among many (countless) who keeps Waheguru in mind at all times. (Again, unlike some religions in which only some are privileged to worship God), Anyone, including those from low castes, can worship Waheguru, and whoever worships Him attains the high spiritual state. 3. To get fully imbued in His love, Waheguru's Naam should be recited in the company (shelter) of the Guru. I pray to Waheguru that He becomes benevolent to me, and enables me to recite His Naam with every breath, oh Nanak. 4.36.49.

MEANING: Waheguru knows the secrets of every heart, and He is the Shastras and the Vedas Himself (reading of Shastras and the Vedas is subsumed in His praise. His devotees do not need to study them). Waheguru, who is the creator of the whole universe, who is perfectly omnipotent, and to whom everything belongs, is purely light-like. 1.

Take shelter of Waheguru, and no enemy or any trouble will even come near you when you recite His Naam with the Advice of the Guru, oh my mind. Pause.

The whole universe obeys His Laws, and He looks after even the forests, all vegetation, and the whole universe. He Himself creates attraction for Maya among living beings. On the one hand, He is fully detached from worldly attractions (yet present in all living beings), and on the other hand, He also enjoys the luxuries of the world. 2.

I find Him present everywhere I look, and there is none other like Him. The world-sea can be swum across with love for Waheguru's Naam, and His praise should be sung in the company (shelter) of the Guru, oh Nanak. 3.

Waheguru controls emancipation from worldly attractions, food for all living beings, and their lifestyles; His devotees never fall short on any of those. Those devotees are highly fortunate whom Waheguru is overly pleased with, oh Nanak. 4.37.50.

Dhur = support. Joar(u) = power; strength. Poorkhaaruth = objective; effort; faith. Saaray = makes successful.

MEANING: Waheguru's devotees are always blissful with His presence in their minds; they acquire complete peacefulness of mind, and all their worries end completely. All their fears and their misconceptions disappear in a moment, and Waheguru takes dwelling in their mind. 1. The Saint Waheguru is always our supporter; He is always with us - inside and outside - and is fully present everywhere. Pause.

All my wealth, other belongings, youthfulness, and my lifestyle are given by Waheguru. He is the source of our soul, life, all comforts, and He raises and nourishes us. He never leaves His devotees alone, and is always with them; He protects them by extending His hand. 2.

There is none other who is as dear to me as the eternal Waheguru, who looks after us all the time. Waheguru is like my mother, father, children, and a close friend. His devotees have been singing His praise from the very beginning, and from the beginning of the eons. 3.

I live on His support and on His power, and there is none other like Him. I have the faith that Waheguru makes my objective successful, oh Nanak. 4.38.51.

Word Meaning: Bhaiy = Bhuou = fear. Purriya = feels threatened. Biyaadh(i) = ailment; discomfort. Trehou Goon Kee = of the three effects of Maya. Poorun = successful. Pause. Loak = people; devotees. Poorun Dhaan = perfect spiritual state (merge with Waheguru). Ders(u) = sight. Baanchhay = long for. Pooneet = holy; pious. Dhermraayay Jaam = the Angels of death and justice. 1. Mud = intoxication. Ninda = vilification. Abhimaan = conceit. Vudbhaageen = with great luck. Koorbaan = sacrifice. 2.

MEANING: When one remembers Waheguru (recites His Naam), all his ailments due to the three effects of Maya get eradicated, all his tasks are completed successfully, and even the worldly fears are threatened (they run away). Pause.

Waheguru's devotees always sing His praise and attain an eternal spiritual state (to merge with Waheguru). Even the Angel of justice and the Angel of death long for the sight of such holy devotees and become holy (their minds are purified). (So, it is clear that such Angels are all mythical and not real). 1.

One's lust, rage, greed, vilification of others, and the intoxication of one's possessions are all eradicated in the shelter of the Guru. One connects with such holy saints only by great fortune; I am always a sacrifice for such holy saints, oh Nanak. 2.39.52.

Kuhhou Nanak, tis(u) jun nuhhi bhung(u). 4.40.53.

Word Meaning: Punch Mujmi = the face (reflective) of the five demons. Punchun Raakhaiy = who harbours the five demons. Mithiya = lies. Ootth(i) = since waking up. Bhaakhaiy = talks; tells. Chukur Bunaayay = paints religious symbols on the body. Paakhund = hypocrisy. Jhoor(i) = regrets and repents. Puchaiy = burns; suffers. Triya Rund = widow. 1. Jhootth(u) = false. Saakut = worshipper of wealth. Mootth(u) = deceit. Pause. Koocheel = filthy living. Koodrut(i) = in nature (presence of Waheguru). Leepiyaiy Thaaoun = coating ground with cow-dung (a sign of purity for the Hindus). Sooch(i) = purity. Maanaiy = recognizes; gives credit. Nit = everyday; always. Put(i) = dignity. Khovaiy = loses. 2. Kaarun = for the sake of. Oopaaou = efforts. Ghaalaiy Seedha Paaou = takes the right step. Cheet(i) Aanaiy = brings to mind. Koorri = false; as a show off. Vukhaanaiy = utters. 3. Kerm Kuray = is benevolent. Biyohaar(u) = dealings. Siyoun = with. Bhung(u) = shortage; separation. 4.

MEANING: The character of an individual, who harbours the five demons (lust, greed, etc.) in his mind, is reflected in his behaviour. From the time he rises from bed, he begins to tell lies. He paints religious symbols on his body just for hypocrisy, but suffers with regrets, and repents like a widow (like her, he has no real spiritual Master- husband). 1.
Everything is false (gives short-lived joy) without Waheguru's Naam. No one can get emancipation without the Perfect Guru; the deceit of the Maya-worshipper does not work in Waheguru's Court. Pause.
Waheguru does not recognize the ritualistic purity, such as coating the ground with cow dung (thinking it purifies the ground), practiced by some people. The man, who does not "see" Waheguru in His nature, has a filthy life. He may wash his body from the outside every day, but the filth of his mind does not go away. Such an individual loses respect in Waheguru's Court. 2. Such a man makes many efforts for the sake of money (to earn more of it), but never takes a step in the right direction (does not perform noble deeds). He does not remember Waheguru, who created him; however, he may utter His Naam just to fool others. 3. But, (with Guru's Advice). He begins to love Waheguru's worship, and never experiences separation from Him, oh Nanak. 4.40.53.

Word Meaning: Phitkay = reprove; rebuke. Sunsaar(u) = the world. Jhoottha = deceitful. Biyohaar(u) = dealings. Aachaar = character 1. Ninduk = vilification. Naal(i) = with. Kurrkiyo = roars; threatens. Pause. Maanaiy = believes in. Puchhutaanay = repents. Haath Puchhoreh(i) = slap their forehead; feel sorry. Dhurn(i) = on the ground. Duyyi = the merciful (Waheguru). Chhoadaiy = let go; forgive. 2. Maangaiy = wishes. Saangaiy = spear. Bugulay = (imposter) like the heron. Punkh Pusaar(i) = spreads wings (tries to impress others). Kuddhiya Beechaar(i) = expresses thoughts. 3. Kerta Soyay = the Creator Waheguru. Nihchul(u) = for sure. Saacha = truthful; pure. Durbaar(i) = in Waheguru's Court. Tut(u) = reality. Beechaar(i) = by thinking carefully. 4.

MEANING: The whole world reproves the malicious critic of a holy saint. Such a vilifier has an immoral character, and all his public dealings are deceitful (rooted in money and selfishness). But he can cause no harm to the holy saint because Waheguru protects His devotees. 1. Waheguru protects His devotees while the vilifier suffers spiritual death; death always looms on his head and threatens him. Pause.

Nobody believes the words of the vilifier, and he repents at his lies (in Waheguru's Court). He slaps his forehead and puts his head on the ground (regrets vilifying the holy saints) and vows not to do it again, but Waheguru does not forgive him. 2.

Waheguru's devotee never wishes ill of others, but the vilifier feels as if he has been wounded by a sharp spear when he hears the praise of Waheguru's devotees from others. Like the heron which tries to fool the fish by acting like a swan, the vilifier tries to put up his best behaviour, but is quickly identified as an imposter when his evil thoughts come out clearly from his words. 3.

But Waheguru is omniscient and knows everything that goes through our minds; so, He ensures that whatever His devotee wishes, happens for sure. After careful thinking, Waheguru's slave, Nanak, submits that the fact is, Waheguru's devotees are proven honest and pure in Waheguru's Court. 4.41.54.
