Aatum meh(i) Ram(u), Ram meh(i) aatum(u), cheenus(i) Gur Beechaara. Amrit Bani, Shabad(i) puchhaani, dookh kaataiy huoun maara. 1. Nanak, haumein roag booray. Jeh daykhaan, teh aika baydun, Aapay bukhshaiy Shabad(i) dhooray. 1. Ruhaou. Aapay perkhay Perkhunhaaray, buhour(i) shoolaak(u) na hoyee. Jinh kuou nudr(i) bhuyyi Gur maylay, Prubh bhaana Sach(u) soyee. 2. Paun(u), paani, baiysuntar(i) roagi, roagi dhert(i) subhogi. Maat, pitaa Maya dayh s(i) roagi, roagi kootumb sunjogi. 3. Roagi Brahma, Bishan, Suroodra, roagi sugul sunsaara. Hur(i) Pud(u) cheen(i) bhuyyay say mooktay, Gur ka Shabad veechaara. 4. Roagi saat sumoond snudiyaan, khund, pataal s(i) roag bhuray. Hur(i) kay loak s(i) Saach(i) soohaylay, serbeen thaayeen, nudr(i) kuray. 5. ----------

Word Meaning: Ashtpudi = a Shabad with eight stanzas (verses). Aatum = every soul. Cheenus(i) = recognizes (makes connection with). Amrit Bani = Waheguru's immortalizing Naam. Puchhaani = recognizes (its worth). Huoun = selfishness and ego. Maara = kills; destroys. 1. Roag = ailments. Baydun = pain; suffering. Dhooray = from the origin (Waheguru). Pause. Perkhay = tests. Shoolaak(u) = (the pain of) a very sharp needle used to test the purity of gold. Bhaana = is liked. Sach(u) = (like) Waheguru. Soyee = that devotee. 2. Baiysuntar(i) = fire. Dhert(i) Subhogi = the earth along with its products. Kootumb = family. Sunjogi = who got connected with one another according to Waheguru's Laws of union. 3. Bishan = Vishnu. Suroodra = Shiva along with his other incarnations. Pud(i) = spiritual state. Cheen(i) = by recognizing; by attaining. 4. Sumoond = oceans. Snudiyaan = including the rivers. Khund = worlds. Pataal = underworlds. Bhuray = full of. Loak = devotees. Soohaylay = enjoy comforts; blissful. Serbeen Thaayeen = everywhere. 5.

MEANING: The sickness of selfishness and ego is really bad (highly damaging to spirituality), oh Nanak. I find the same suffering everywhere, wherever I look; with Guru's Shabad, only Waheguru can relieve this suffering of those for whom He has prewritten in their fate. Pause. It is by pondering on Guru's Shabad that one realizes that Waheguru is present in every soul (body), and our soul lives in Him (we are alive because of Him). Waheguru's immortalizing Naam, which destroys all suffering due to one's haumein, is recognized by the Guru's Shabad (when one acquires it in the heart). 1.

Waheguru examines every individual for the level of his spirituality, just like a goldsmith who tests the purity of the gold with a sharp needle, and the devotee does not have to go through the pain of testing again (in Waheguru's Court after his death). Waheguru connects the devotees, on whom He casts His kind sight, with the Guru, and absorbs those whom He likes in Him (they become like Him). 2. Even the air, the water, and the fire suffer from the ailment of ego (of serving the living beings), and so is the earth along with its products (because of them). The mother, the father, and the whole family, of which the members are joined together based on their previous deeds, all suffer from selfishness and ego. 3.

(Let alone a common man), even the gods like Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva (along with all their reincarnations) are patients of their haumein, and so is the whole world. But those who attain a high spiritual state by pondering the Guru's Shabad are saved. 4.
All seven oceans, and all the rivers suffer from haumein, and all the worlds, and the underworlds are loaded with haumein. But the devotees of Waheguru who casts His kind sight everywhere, enjoy bliss with His Naam. 5.

---------- Roagi khut dershun bhaykhdhaari, naana hutthi anaykaan. Bayd, Kutayb kureh(i) keh bupuray, neh boojheh(i) Ikk Aika. 6. Mitth rus(u) khaayay su roag(i) bhureejaiy, kund mool sookh(u) naahi. Doobidha roag(u) su adhik vudayra, Maya ka moohtaaj bhuyya. 8. Gurmukh(i) Saacha Shabad(i) salaahaiy mun(i) Saacha, tis(u) roag(u) guyya. Nanak, Hur(i) jun undin(u) nirmul, jinh kuou kerm(i) neeshaan(u) puyya. 9.1.
Word Meaning: Khut Dershun Bhaykhdhaari = the ascetics of the six faiths. Naana = of different kinds. Hutthi = who unwillingly pursue something simply by the obstinacy of their mind. Kutayb = Bible, Quran, Torah etc. Bupuray = poor; helpless. Ikk Aika = Waheguru. 6. Mitth Rus = different delicious tastes. Bhurrjaiy = is loaded with. Kund Mool = vegetable that grow under the surface of the earth (carrots, reddishes; turnips etc.). Un Maarug(i) = on the other path (of Maya). Unt Kaal(u) = at the time of death. 7. Bhermaiy = wander at. Chhootus(i) = ends. Baad(u) = useless. Binaad(u) = discussions. Doobidha = in indecisiveness. Adhik Vudayra = even more serious. Moohtaaj = subservient. 8. Hur(i) Jun = Waheguru's devotee. Undin(u) = always. Nirmul(u) = pure. Kerm(u) = benevolence. Neeshaan(u) = identification. 9.
MEANING: All the followers of the six faiths, and the other countless individuals who unwillingly try to please Waheguru using many different ways based on the sheer obstinacy of their minds, suffer from haumein. What can the helpless Vedas and the Western holy books do when their readers do not understand the "One" Lord? 6.
Those who enjoy different delicious foods suffer from haumein, and those who live only on vegetables that grow under the surface of the earth do not enjoy any peace either (they too are sick of haumein). All those who follow other paths of life than Waheguru's Naam have to repent at the time of their death. 7.
The sickness of haumein does not go away by roaming on holy places, or by reading holy books if people read them just to take part in spiritually worthless discussions. Indecisiveness (the struggle of the mind to choose between Waheguru and Maya) is even more serious, as the individual becomes dependent solely on Maya. 8.
The disease of haumein for the Sikh of the Guru goes away when he sings Waheguru's praise, and enshrines His Naam in his heart. Those devotees who earn Waheguru's kindness as a sign of their identification in Waheguru's Court are always pure (pious), oh Nanak. 9.1.

Word Meaning: Chulut(u) = amazing feat (principle). Oopaaya = created. Unhud Bani= Divine Message Kaarun = lay foundation. 1. Huoun = I. Chhoadoun = quit. Pause. Putthaaya = sent. Paati = Putiya = wooden board to write on. Pandhay = teacher. Pay = to. Achaar = other ritualistic things. Gobind, Mooraar(i) = God. 2. Siyoun = to. Maayay = mother. Pervirt(i) = the customs (beliefs) of others. Nirbhuou = fearless. Daata = Lord. Kool(i) = to the clan (family). Gaal(i) = disgrace. 3. Chaatrray = students. Vigaaray = misled. Kaaruj Suvaaray = achieves purpose. Nugri = town. Bhugut(i) = God's worship. Drirraayi = firmed up. Doosht Subha = the evil company. Na Vusaayi = no control; helplessness. 4. Shund and Merk = teachers of Prehlad. Pookaar = complained loudly. Daiynt = evil people. Jhukh Maar(i) = tried hard unsuccessfully. Put(i) = dignity. Soyee = the same (God). Keetaiy = created. 5.

MEANING: Waheguru has established this amazing principle: He delivers His Divine Message through the Guru's Shabad. The followers of their mind (Maya-worshippers) stay misled, while the Sikhs of the Guru realize (internalize) the Message. The Creator has laid down (used) this Principle ever since. 1. (Prehlad made it clear) that "Guru's Shabad is rooted deeply in my mind, and I will never quit reciting God's Naam". Pause. Prahlad's father sent him to school to receive an education; Prahlad took his wooden board to the teacher and asked him to write God's names on it, because he would not learn any other ritualistic practices than God's Naam. 2.
Prahalad's mother advised him not to go against his father's wishes, who wanted everyone to praise him, and not to study the beliefs of any other power. But Prehlad (did not agree with his mother and told her) "The fearless Lord is always with me, and my clan (family) will be disgraced (in God's Court) if I quit reciting His Naam". 3.
(Prahalad's teachers had complained to his mother) that Prehlad had misled all the students and would not listen to them, and was pursuing his own objective. He had firmed up God's worship in the whole town, and the evil group (supporting Prahalad's father) was completely helpless. 4. (When Prehlad did not listen to his mother), His teachers, Shund and Merk, complained to the King (Prahalad's father); the whole evil group tried their best (including some fatal punishments) to stop Prehlad from worshipping God, but they failed miserably. Well, when God is the saviour of His devotees, what can the men, who are created by Him, do, or say to make His protection ineffective? 5.

Word Meaning: Kirt Sunjogeen = result of the deeds done. Daiynt = the devil (Hernaakhsh – Prehlad's father). Raj Chulaaya = established reign. Boojhaiy = understand; realize. Vaad Ruchaaya = created (started) dispute. Kaal(u) = death. 6. Koatthaiy = room. Baar(i) = on the door. Taala = lock. Shreeki Kuraiy = plays a rival. Unhoanda = undeserving. Naaoun = great name. Dhuraaya = gave himself. Dhoor(i) Likhiya = prewritten by God. Puhouta = Arrived. Jun = devotee (Prehlad). 7. Goorj = a mace-like huge weapon. Ootthaayi = held. Jugjeevun(u) Daata = God. MEANING: As a reward for his previous noble deeds, the evil Hernakhsh (Prahalad's father) was able to establish a kingdom. But he did not realize the power of God as he was misled by God Himself. He started an aggressive fight with his son, Prehlad. The blind of wisdom did not realize that his end was near. 6.

He locked Prehlad in a (dark) room, but the fearless child was not afraid at all, because he had the confidence that God dwelt in his heart. It was strange that the King, who was created by God, was trying to be His rival who had given him (the King) an undeserving high name (importance), but as prewritten by God in his fate, his end had arrived as he initiated an aggressive fight with a devotee of God. 7.
(When every approach failed) The father carried a big mace to kill his son, and roared to Prehlad, "Where is your God and the Lord of the earth?" Prehlad replied, "My Lord, and the soul of the earth, is present everywhere I look. He is my supporter till the end." 8.
God tore through the pillar and showed Himself, and humiliated the conceited, evil King by killing him. All God's devotees were overjoyed to see how God had honoured His devotee. 9. The Creator, God, has created birth, death, and worldly attachments as His written laws. God Himself appeared for the cause of Prehlad, and the words of His devotee were honoured. 10.

Word Meaning: Dayv Kooleen = the whole clan of gods. Lukhimi = Maya (wife of Vishnu). Jaikaar = sang praise. Nursingh = man with lion's head. Roop Nivaar = remove the new looks (restore to original). Bhuou Kuraiy = was afraid. Churnee = on the feet. 11. Maal(u) = wealth. Jhootthi = false; short-lived. Lobhi = greedy. Luptaayay = cling to. Sujaayay = punishment. 12. Kuray Kuraaya = do as made to do. Pervaan(u) = approved. Chit(i) Laaya = attached mind. Ungikaar(u) = favouritism. Roop = form (as most powerful). 13.
MEANING: (The Hindu Granths have used Vishnu's name for the Supreme Being, but Guru Amar Dass Ji has used Waheguru or God for the power in this mythical story, which killed the King). All the gods sang Lakshmi's (Vishnu's wife) praise, and requested her to remove the frightening new looks of Vishnu (man with lion's head) (and restore his original looks). But Lakshmi was very afraid and would not go to him. However, Prehlad approached Vishnu and dropped to his feet. 11.
Satguru has reiterated Waheguru's Naam, which is the treasure of everything, in the minds of humanity, emphasizing that the reign of a state or wealth is all a false (short-lived) attraction of Maya. The greedy man clings to them, but the man receives punishment in Waheguru's Court without His Naam. 12.
(The man has no independence in the nature of his deeds), Everybody pursues the kind of deeds which Waheguru has preprogrammed for them. But only those who get attached to Waheguru are approved. He shows His real character and always favours His devotees, oh Nanak(u). 13.1.2.

Word Meaning: Amrit = Waheguru's Naam(u). Ful(u) = reward. Trishan = fire of worldly desires. Boojhaayi = put out. HIrdaiy = in the heart. Munsa = desires of mind. Muneh(i) = in the mind. Smaayi = got absorbed; sank. 1. Deen = poor; helpless. Oodhaaray = is salvaged. Pause. Joh(i) = cast an evil eye. Rutee = minuscule. Unch = heat; uncomfortable situation. 2. Paiyj = dignity. Vudiyaayi = greatness. Kilvikh = sins. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Raayi = extremely small; negligible. 3. Moorr = Moogudh = foolish. Boojhaayi = understanding. 4.

MEANING: One acquires Waheguru's immortalizing Naam as the reward for serving the Guru, which puts out the fire of his worldly desires. Waheguru's Naam is embedded in his heart, and all his desires and wishes sink in his mind (they never arise again). 1.

I humbly beg the Dear Waheguru to enable me to sing His praise all the time with Guru's Shabad, which is the source of salvation. Pause.

The Angel of Death cannot cast an evil eye on Waheguru's saints, and cannot cause even an extremely small trouble for them. Not only does the devotee, who comes to Waheguru's shelter, attain salvation for himself, but also salvages all his associates. 2.

It is your greatness that You save the dignity of Your devotees, oh Waheguru. You eradicate the suffering of their sins of many lives, and they do not suffer even slightly from indecisiveness. 3. We are foolish, unwise, and unable to understand anything about spirituality; You are kind to give us the needed wisdom, oh Waheguru. Only that happens which You like, and nobody can go against that, oh Lord. 4.

Due to their ignoble thinking, the worshippers of wealth die in the darkness of spiritual ignorance and cannot think of anything noble. Without the advice of the Guru, they never swim across the world-sea, and drown in it with a heavy burden of sins on their mind. 6.

The devotees, who get imbued in Guru's eternal Shabad, become like Waheguru, and He, Himself, connects them with Him. They sing Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad, and stay connected with Waheguru by focusing on Guru's Shabad. 7.

God's Naam is crops and the vegetable garden for me (source of living). I am His slave, and worship Him. 1. God's Naam is my wealth and my capital. I do not acknowledge anybody other than God as worthy of worship. 2.

God's Naam is like my dear friends and my brothers who will be my true support at the end. 3. I am a slave of the devotee whom God keeps detached from the worldly attractions of Maya, oh Kabir. 4.1.

Naangay aavun, naagay jaana. Koyay na ruhheh(i) haiy raja, rana. 1.

(PAGE 1158): Ram(u) Raja nuounidh(i) mayraiy. Sumpaiy hayt(u), klut(u) dhun(u) Tayraiy. 1. Ruhaou. Aavun sung, na jaat sungaati. Kuhha bhuyyo, dur(i) baandhay haathi. 2. Lanka gudh(u) sonay ka bhuyya. Moorukh(u) Ravan kiyya lay guyya. 3. Keh Kabir, kichh(u) goon(u) beechaar(i). Chullaiy jooaari, doyay huth jhaar(i). 4.2.

Word Meaning: Naangay = empty-handed. Raja, Rana = king; ruler. 1. Nuounidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Sumpaiy Hayt(u) = love for luxuries. Klut(u) = wife. Pause. Sung = Sungaati = with. Kuhha Bhuyyo = so what? 2. Gudh(u) = fort. Ravun = the king of Lanaka (Ramayana). 3. Goon(u) = noble deeds. Jooaari = gamblers. Doyay Huth Jhaar(i) = empty-handed. 4.

MEANING: Man comes to the world empty-handed and leaves it empty-handed. Nobody, including kings, has ever lived forever in the world. 1.

While love for luxuries and for your wife is your wealth, the (Naam of) the God-Emperor is the nine treasures of the world for me, oh man. Pause.

So, what if someone owns many elephants; nothing goes with him after his death. 2.

The fort-like city of Lanka is believed to be all built of gold, but did the foolish Ravan take anything with him after his death? 3.

Like a loser gambler, the man leaves the world empty-handed. So, think of some noble deeds (which will accompany you at the end), oh Kabir. 4.2.

Maiyla Brahma, maiyla Ind(u). Ruv(i) maiyla, maiyla haiy chund(u). 1. Maiyla multa eh(u) sunsaar(u). Ikk(u) Hur(i) nirmul(u), Ja ka unt(i) na paar(u). 1. Ruhaou. Maiylay brahmundaayay kaiy ees. Smayt(i) = including. 5. Tay = those. Jun = devotees. Pervaan = approved. 6.

NOTE: Hindus have gods for all natural objects, such as the sun, the moon, air, fire, water, and mountains.

MEANING: The whole world is impure (unholy, which is disconnected from God); only God, which has no ends, is holy (and the source of holiness). Pause.

Even god Brahma, who is believed to be the creator of the world, is impure, as are Indra (who is believed to rule paradise and is the king of all gods), the sun and the moon (who are also believed to be gods). 1.

The rulers of galaxies (if there are any) are impure, and so are the night, the day, and the months (as they are created by the impure sun and the moon). 2.
The god, Kuber, of the jewels like the pearls and the diamonds, is impure, and impure are the gods of air, fire, and water. 3. Shiva, and his incarnations, Shankra, and Mahesh, are impure, and so are the accomplished yogis, the yogis, and the jungums with their tangled hair. The human body, along with the soul in it, is also impure. 4 & 5.
Only the devotees, who make a connection with God, are pure and are approved by him, oh Kabir. 6.3.

Word Meaning: Kibla = the wall of Kaaba. Boalunhaar = the one that talks in you (Allah). Perm Guru = the supreme Guru (Allah). Ehi = the same. 1. Baang = the call that the Muslims give to invite people to pray. Museet(i) = mosque. Pause.

MEANING: (The Muslim priest gives a loud call inviting the devotees to come to the mosque to pray), but Kabir Sahib has a different advice for the Muslims: Think of your body with the ten doors, the mosque, and offer prayer with full focus on Allah, oh moolah. Pause.
Think of your mind as the holy city of Mecca, and your body the outer wall of the holy Kaaba. Allah, which is present in your body and which enables you to say the prayer, is the Supreme Guru. 1. Kill (destroy) the darkness of rage, your misgivings, and the filth of your mind, and consume (kill) the five demons, and thus be completely content, oh moolah. 2.
There is the same Lord of the Hindus and the Muslims, and the Moolah and the Sheikh cannot do anything about that (change the identity of the Supreme Being). 3.
I have gone insane in (am overpowered by) my love for God, and my mind has slowly attained the high spiritual state, oh Kabir. 4.4.

ਗੰਗਾ ਕੈ ਸੰਗਿ ਸਲਿਤਾ ਬਿਗਰੀ॥ ਸੋ ਸਲਿਤਾ ਗੰਗਾ ਹੋਇ ਨਿਬਰੀ॥ 1॥ ਬਿਗਰਿਓ ਕਬੀਰਾ ਰਾਮ ਦੁਹਾਈ॥ ਸਾਚੁ ਭਇਓ ਅਨ ਕਤਹਿ ਨ ਜਾਈ॥1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਚੰਦਨ ਕੈ ਸੰਗਿ ਤਰਵਰੁ ਬਿਗਰਿਓ॥ ਸੋ ਤਰਵਰੁ ਚੰਦਨੁ ਹੋਇ ਨਿਬਰਿਓ॥ 2॥ ਪਾਰਸ ਕੈ ਸੰਗਿ ਤਾਬਾ ਬਿਗਰਿਓ॥ ਸੋ ਤਾਬਾ ਕੰਚਨੁ ਹੋਇ ਨਿਬਰਿਓ॥ 3॥ ਸੰਤਨ ਸੰਗਿ ਕਬੀਰਾ ਬਿਗਰਿਓ॥ ਸੋ ਕਬੀਰੁ ਰਾਮੈ ਹੋਇ ਨਿਬਰਿਓ॥ 4॥5॥
Ganga kaiy sung(i) sulita bigree. So sulita Ganga hoyay nibree. 1. Bigriyo Kabir Ram doohaayi. Saach(u) bhuyyo, un kuteh(i) na jaayi. 1. Ruhaou. Chundan kaiy sung(i) turvur(u) bigriyo. So turvur chundan hoyay nibriyo. 2. Paarun kaiy sung(i) taamba bugriyo. So taamba kunchun(u) hoyay bigriyo. 3. Suntun sung(i) Kabira bigriyo. So Kabir(u) Ramaiy hoyay nibriyo. 4.5.

MEANING: (People say that Kabir has changed for the worse), yes, I have changed (but not the way the people think) by calling God for help (reciting His Naam), and have become like Him (have acquired noble qualities like Him), and now, I do not go anywhere else (to worship some idol). Pause. Yes, I have changed like a stream that flows into the river Ganga and becomes pure like that. 1.

Yes, I have changed like a tree grown close to a sandal tree, which acquires the fragrance of the sandal tree, and gives off fragrance like that. 2. Yes, I have changed like a piece of copper which touches an elixir stone and changes into gold. 3.

Yes, I have changed in the company of the holy saints and have become like God (have acquired virtues like Him), oh Kabir. 4.5.

ਮਾਥੇ ਤਿਲਕੁ ਹਥਿ ਮਾਲਾ ਬਾਨਾ॥ ਲੋਗਨ ਰਾਮੁ ਖਿਲਉਨਾ ਜਾਨਾ॥ 1॥ ਜਉ ਹਉ ਬਉਰਾ ਤਉ ਰਾਮ ਤੋਰਾ॥ ਲੋਗੁ ਮਰਮੁ ਕਹ ਜਾਨੈ ਮੋਰਾ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਤੋਰਉ ਨ ਪਾਤੀ ਪੂਜਉ ਨ ਦੇਵਾ॥ ਰਾਮ ਭਗਤ ਬਿਨੁ ਨਿਹਫਲ ਸੇਵਾ॥ 2॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਪੂਜਉ ਸਦਾ ਸਦਾ ਮਨਾਵਉ॥ ਐਸੀ ਸੇਵ ਦਰਗਹ ਸੁਖੁ ਪਾਵਉ॥ 3॥ ਲੋਗੁ ਕਹੈ ਕਬੀਰੁ ਬਉਰਾਨਾ॥ ਕਬੀਰ ਕਾ ਮਰਮੁ ਰਾਮ ਪਹਿਚਾਨਾ॥ 4॥6॥

Maathay tilk(u) huth(i) maala baana. Logun Ram khilauna jaana. 1. Juou huoun baura, tuou Ram Tora. Loag(u) murm(u) keh jaanaiy mora. 1. Ruhaou. Toroun na paati, poojoun na dayva. Ram bhugut bin(u) nihful sayva. 2. Satgur poojoun sudaa, sudaa munaavoun. Aiysi sayv Durgeh sookh paavoun. 3. Loag(u) kuhhaiy Kabir bauraana. Kabir ka murm(u) Ram pehchaana. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Maathay = on the forehead. Tilk = anointment. Maala = rosary. Baana = cloak; religious garb. Khilauna = toy. Jaana = treat like. 1. Juou = when; if. Baura = crazy; insane. Tuou = then. Murm(u) = secret; yearning of heart. Pause. Paati = leaves; flowers. Dayva = idol. Nihful = fruitless. Sayva = service; worship. 2. Munaavoun = recognize; worship. Aiysi = such. 3. Pehchaana = recognized.

MEANING: People treat God like a toy, as if He can be pleased by anointing their forehead, holding a rosary in their hand, and wearing religious garb. 1.

People do not understand the yearning of my heart (my spiritual state). (They think I am insane), But if I am insane (not like them), I am Yours, oh Lord. Pause.

Unlike the people, I do not pick flowers to worship an idol. Because all service (worshipping) is fruitless without God. 2. I recognize only my Satguru, and worship Him all the time because of which, I will enjoy blissfulness in God's Court. 3.

People think that I am insane, but God knows the secrets of my heart, oh Kabir. 4.6.

Oolt(i) jaat(i) kool doyoo bisaari. Soonn, sehj meh(i) boonut humaari. 1. Humra jhugraa ruhha na koyoo.

Chhaad(i) chullay, hum kuchhoo na leeya. 3. Ridaiy ikhlaas(u) ridaiy nirkh lay Meera. Aap(u) khoaj(i) khoaj(i), milay Kabira. 4.7.

Word Meaning: Oolt(i) = reverse (the thinking of mind). Jaat(i) = caste. Kool = clan. Bisaari = forgot; ignored. Soonn Sehj = spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Boonut = weaving (focus of mind) (Kabir Sahib was a weaver by caste, so, he uses his routine business as a metaphor for the focus of mind). 1. Jhugraa = disagreement; nothing to do. Pause. Boon(i), Boon(ii) = by weaving. Pehraavoun = put on; wear. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. 2. Ridaiy = in the heart. Ikhlaas(u) = purity; piety. Nirkh Lay = see. Meera = the Lord. Aap(u) = self. Khoaj(i) = searching. 4.

MEANING: By reversing the thinking of my mind (from Maya to God), I have completely forgotten the significance of my (lower) caste and the clan (they are insignificant to me). I am focusing my mind on God in the high spiritual state (above the effects of Maya). 1.

Now, I have no fight about spirituality with anyone, and have nothing to do with the pundit or the moolah. Pause.

Now weaving the fabric of Waheguru's Naam, I am wearing it on my mind. I sing His praise where my selfishness and my ego do not exist (in the state of high spirituality). 2.

I have not taken any lessons from the writings (teachings) of the Pundit and the Moolah. 3.

God can be seen (realized) with the purity of mind. I got connected with Him by searching Him in my own mind, oh Kabir. 4.7.

ਨਿਰਧਨ ਆਦਰੁ ਕੋਈ ਨ ਦੇਇ॥ ਲਾਖ ਜਤਨ ਕਰੈ ਓਹੁ ਚਿਤਿ ਨ ਧਰੇਇ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਜਉ ਨਿਰਧਨੁ ਸਰਧਨ ਕੈ ਜਾਇ॥ ਆਗੇ ਬੈਠਾ ਪੀਠਿ ਫਿਰਾਇ॥ 1॥ ਜਉ ਸਰਧਨੁ ਨਿਰਧਨ ਕੈ ਜਾਇ॥ ਦੀਆ ਆਦਰੁ ਲੀਆ ਬੁਲਾਇ॥ 2॥ ਨਿਰਧਨੁ ਸਰਧਨੁ ਦੋਨਉ ਭਾਈ॥ ਪ੍ਰਭ ਕੀ ਕਲਾ ਨ ਮੇਟੀ ਜਾਈ॥ 3॥ ਕਹਿ ਕਬੀਰ ਨਿਰਧਨ ਹੈ ਸੋਈ॥ ਜਾ ਕੈ ਹਿਰਦੈ ਨਾਮੁ ਨ ਹੋਈ॥ 4॥8॥

Nirdhun, aadur(u) koyee na dayay. Laakh jutun kuraiy, oh(u) chit(i) na dhurayay. 1. Ruhaou. Juou nirdhun surdhun kaiy jaayay. Aagaiy baittha peetth(i) phiraayay. 1. Juou surdhun(u), nirdhun kaiy jaayay. Deeya aadur(u) leeya boolaayay. 2. Nirdhun(u), surdhun(u) dono bhaayi. Prubh kee kulaa na mayti jaayi. 3. Keh(i) Kabir, nirdhun haiy soyee. Ja kaiy hirdaiy Naam(u) na hoyee. 4.8.

Word Meaning: Nirdhun = poor; pauper. Aadur(u) = respect. Jutun = efforts. Chit(i) Na Dhuray = pays no attention. Pause. Juou = when. Surdhun = wealthy. Peetth(i) Phiraayay = shows his back (turns face away). 1. Kulaa = power; Will. 3.

MEANING: (The irony of the world is that) a wealthy person accords no respect to a poor; not only that, the rich pays no attention to the poor despite his (the poor's) countless efforts (to please him). Pause.

When a poor person goes to a wealthy person, the latter turns his back on the former. 1.

But when the wealthy visit a poor person, the poor person shows them full respect and speaks to them very politely. 2. Being the children of the same God, the poor and the wealthy are both brothers, but nobody can erase the Will of God. 3.

Kabir says that the individual who does not have God's Naam in his heart is truly poor. 4.8.

Gur sayva tay bhugut(i) kumaayi. Tub eh maanus dayhi paayi. Iss(u) dayhi kuou simereh(i) dayv. So dayhi bhuj(u) Hur(i) kee sayv. 1. Bhuj-hou Govind bhool(i) mut jaah(u). Maanus junum ka ehi laah(u). 1. Ruhaou. Jub lug(u) juraa roag(u) nuhhi aaya. Jub lug(u) kaal(u) grussi nuhhi kaaya. Jub lug(u) bikul bhuuyyi nuhhi baani. Bhuj(i) layh(i) ray mun Saaringpaani. 2. Ub na bhujus(i), bhujus(i) kub bhaayi. Aavaiy unt(u) na bhujiya jaayi. Jo kichh(u) kureh(i) soyee ub saar(u). Phir(i) puchhtaavoh(u) na paavhou paar(u). 3. So sayvuk, jo laaya sayv. Tinh hee paayay Nirunjun Dayv. Gur mil(i) ta kay khoolhay kupaat. Buhour(i) na aavaiy joani baat. 4. Ehee tayra aousur, eh tayri baar. Ghut bheetur(i) tu daykh(i) bichaar(i). Keht Kabir jeet(i) kaiy haar(i). Buhou bidh(i) kuhhiyo pookaar(i), pookaar(i). 5.1.9.

Word Meaning: Kumaayi = performs; renders. Tub = (only) then. Maanus = human. Dayhi = body; life. Simereh(i) = worship; respect; wish for. Dayv = gods. Bhuj(u) = recite (God's Naam). 1. Mut = do not. Laah(u) = benefit. Pause. Jub Lug(u) = as long as. Juraa = old age. Roag(u) = sickness. Kaal(i) = time; death. Grussi = tighten grip. Bikul = distorted; unintelligible. Bani = speech. Saaringpaani = God. Saar(u) = take care; use well. Puchhtaavoh(u) = repent; regret. Paavhou Paar(u) = swim across to the other end of the world-sea; find salvation. 3. Bheetur(i) = inside. Kaiy = or (as you like). Bidh(i) = ways. Pookaar(i) = loudly. 5.

MEANING: Acquiring human life is useful only if the man renders service to the Guru (follows His advice). Even the gods wish for human life (because most of them are not human) so that they could serve God by reciting His Naam (one can realize Waheguru only in human life). 1. So, do not forget to worship God because this is the only advantage of human life, oh man. Pause.

Worship God as long as you have not been hit by old age and by some serious disease, and death has not tightened its grip on you (is not evident yet), and as long as your speech has not slurred. 2. If you do not recite God's Naam now, when you will do that, because one cannot worship Him when the end is there. So, do whatever best you can do now so that you do not have to repent for not being able to swim across the world-sea. 3.

But only that individual can serve God (worship Him) and can unite with Him who (like Waheguru) is above the effects of Maya. The strong doors of his tenth door (to acquire Divine Knowledge) open in Guru's shelter, and he never takes the path to rebirths. 4.

This (human life) is your only opportunity and the time to worship Him; search for Him in your own mind by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. I have explained this fact loudly in many ways; now, it is up to you whether you want to win or lose, oh Kabir. 5.1.9

Oot = there; the next world. Sojhi Puraiy = get the wisdom (knowledge). Kaun Kerm = what kind of deeds? Muraiy = suffers (humiliation). 1. Nij Pud = personal (highest) spiritual state (connection with God). Braham Giyan = Divine Knowledge. Pause. Mool = the origin of the universe (God). Dooaaraiy = at His Door. Bundhiya Bundh(u) = erected wall to stop the attacks of Maya. Ruv(i) = the sun; brightness of Divine Knowledge. Chund(u) = (calmness of) the moon. Puchhum Dooaaraiy = the dark side (darkness of ignorance). Sooruj Tupaiy = brightness of Divinity. Mayr = a very tall mythical mountain of jewels and gold. Dund = the sceptre of kings (God which has the Royal sceptre of the size of the Mayr Mountain – the highest authority in the universe). Sir Oopur(i) = in the tenth door (to receive Divine Knowledge). Busaiy = resides. 2. Sil = rock-like strong door. Oarr = end. Khirrkee aour = another window (brain). Dusvaan Dooaar(u) = the tenth door. Unt(u) Na Paar(u) = no limit and no end (God). 3.

MEANING: Purest thoughts reside in the city of God, (His Naam is the source, and one can acquire them by reciting His Naam with a fully focused mind). So, get together and ponder on His Naam when you will learn which noble deeds you need to perform in this life to be approved in the next world (Waheguru's Court), and which deeds will cause your spiritual death, oh my friends. 1.

God's Naam is the Divine knowledge for me, and I have focused my mind on His Naam to attain the highest spiritual state to be "one" with Him. I have erected a wall of God's Naam around my mind (to protect it from the attacks of Maya), so that my mind has the sun-like brightness of Divine Knowledge and the moon-like coolness. Now, the Divine Knowledge is brightening the dark side of the mind, and God, who has a Mayr-Mountain-like sceptre (the most powerful ruler in the universe), is residing in my tenth door. 2.

There was a rock-like strong door around my tenth door, which blocked the brightness of Divine Knowledge before, but its end has now reached (it has been removed). There is another window above this rock (higher-thinking brain), and the tenth door is above the brain (higher than the brain in acquiring the Divine Knowledge of God), which has no end and no limit, oh Kabir. 3.2.10.

Word Meaning: So = he is. Luraiy = fights; struggles. Moolah = a Muslim priest. Kaal = (conditions causing spiritual) death. Jooraiy = fights. Kaal Purakh = the Angel of death. Murdaiy Maan(u) = crushes its pride. Slaam(u) = salute. 1. Hujoor(i) = close to you. Kut = where. Doondar = noise (of senses to enjoy worldly attractions) Baandhou = control. Soondar = the beautiful (source of all comforts) God. Pause. Qazi = a Muslim high priest who also acts as a judge. Kaay Beechaaraiy = searches his body (mind). Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Pujaaraiy = burns (destroys) completely. Bind Jhurna = enjoy lust. Juraa Na = not at all. Merna = the spiritual death. 2. Surtaan(u) = Sultaan = king. Dooyay Sur = both the arrows – of (mental) strength and of Divine Knowledge. Taanaiy = stretches. Bheetur Aanaiy = brings inwards. Guggun Mundul = in the sky; in the tenth door. Lushkur Kuray = gathers army of noble qualities. Chhutur Dhuray = wears crown. 3. Gorakh = the guru of the yogis. Ram Naam = Rama's naam. Oochraiy = recites. Aik Khudaayay = Muslims believe that the Supreme Being is theirs alone. 4.

MEANING: The true moolah is the one who, with the advice of the Guru, fights with his mind (evil thoughts), and against the conditions causing his spiritual death, and crushes the pride of the Angel of (spiritual) death. I always salute (have great respect for) such a moolah. 1. Allah is very close to all of us, but a moolah tells us that He is somewhere far away (in the seventh heaven). The truth is that one can acquire the beautiful (sources of all comforts) Allah when he controls his senses, which raise too much noise to enjoy sensual pleasures. Pause. A true Qazi is the one who searches his mind and burns (puts out) the fire of his mental desires with the brightness of Divine Knowledge. He does not enjoy lust with other women even in his dreams. Such a qazi never dies a spiritual death. 2.

The true king is the one who loads both the arrows of (mental) power and of Divine Knowledge to fight with his evil thoughts and brings his wandering mind under control. He gathers the army of noble qualities in his tenth door. Such a king wears the crown of Allah's approval on his head. 3. A yogi remembers his guru, Gorakh, while a Hindu utters the name of Rama in the idol. A Muslim believes that Allah is only theirs, but Kabir's Lord is the one who is present everywhere, and in everybody, oh Kabir. 4.3.11.

pookaar(i). Sumjh(i) daykh(u) saakut gavaar. Doojaiy bhaayay buhout ghur(i) gaalay. Ram bhugut haiy sudaa sookhaalay. 4.4.12.

Word Meaning: Paathur = idol. Dayv = God. Birtha = fruitless. Paayeen Paayay = drop on the feet (surrender completely). Ajaayeen Jaayay = goes completely waste. 1. Tthaakur(u) = Lord. Boalunta = talks. Pause. Dayo = God. Mohiya = captivated. Paavaiy Phundh(u) = creates more nets for self. Fokut Kerm = useless rituals. Nihful = fruitless. 2. Mirtuk = dead body. Chundun = sandalwood oil. Oos Tay = from that. Bishta = feces. Rulaayi = insults. Ghut(i) Jaayi = what does it lose? 3. Pookaar(i) = loudly. Saakut = worshipper of Maya. Gavaar = foolish. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Ghur Gaalay = ruined households. Sookhaalay = in comfort. 4.

NOTE: Even though Kabir Sahib's name appears at the end, it is clear from the heading that this holy Shabad has been written by Guru Arjun Dev Ji (Mehla 5).

MEANING: Those who call (believe in) the idol as God lose all the credit of their service. All the efforts of those who drop at the feet of the idol (surrender to that) go completely to waste (unrewarded). My Lord talks to (communicates with) the living beings all the time, and provides for (fulfils) all their needs. Pause.

God is present in his heart, but the blind (ignorant) person does not understand that, and is captivated by the attractions of Maya, creating more nets (chains) for him. The idol does not talk, and does not give him anything; so, all his ritualistic worship of the idol goes unrewarded. 2. Service to the idol is like massaging a dead body with sandalwood oil, as the massager gains nothing from the dead body for his service. Similarly, a dead body loses nothing (no harm can be done to it) if it is insulted by being put in filth. 3.

I am advising the foolish Maya-worshipper very loudly (clearly) that love for Maya has (spiritually) ruined many households, whereas worship of God always provides comforts (blissfulness), oh Kabir. 4.4.12.

Tub chhootay, jub Sadhu paaya. 5.5.13.

Word Meaning: Meen = fish. Baydhay = Chhaydat = pierced; strongly attached to Deepuk = lamp. Putung = moths. Kaam = lust. Koonchur = elephant. Biyaapaiy = puts pressure on. Bhooyungum = snakes. Bhring = wasps. Khaapay = suffer. 1. Aiysi = is such. Mohini = captivating. Dehkaayi = cheats; misleads. Pause. Punkhi = birds. Mirg = deer. Raatay = imbued in. . Shaakur = brown sugar. Maakhi = flies. Adhik = much. Suntaapaiy = tortures. Tooray = horses. Oosht = camels. Bhayla = strongly bonded (like in a bale). Sidh Chauraasih = the 84 well known Sidh yogis. Khayla = play at the hands of (slaves). 2. Chhay Jutee = the six well-known celibates. Bunda = slaves. Nuvaiy Nath = the nine popular elders of the yogis. Tupay = the devotees who torture themselves to please God. Rukheesur = the great sages. Soota = asleep; lost in. Kaal(u) = (spiritual) death. Punch Doota = the five senses. 3. Sooaan = dogs. Siyaal = jackals. Buntar = monkeys. Cheetay = cheetahs. Singhaata = lions. Majaar = cats. Gaadur = sheep. Loombra = foxes. Birkh = trees. Mool = (Kund Mool) = vegetables that grow under the surface of the earth. Puraa = absorbed in. 4. Bheenay = imbued. Dayv = gods. Saagur = oceans. Indra = (the king of) paradise; sky. Dhurtayv = earth. Oodur = stomach. Sadhu = Guru. 5.

MEANING: Maya is so captivating that it deceives all the living beings (misleads them), oh my brothers. Pause. The fish in water and the lamps and the moth are all pierced with (strongly engrossed in) Maya. The elephant is strongly pressured by Maya in the form of lust, and the snakes and the wasps suffer because of Maya (they sting, even if in self-protection). 1. The birds and the deer are imbued with Maya, while the brown sugar tortures the flies too much. The horses and the camels are strongly bonded to Maya, and the well-known 84 Sidhs played in the hands of Maya. 2.

The six Celibates (Laxman, Hanuman, Bhairon, Bheeshum Pitaama, Gorakh, and Dutta Traya), the nine Naths (heads) of the yogis, the sun, and the moon, were (are) all slaves of Maya. Intoxicated with Maya, the devotees, who torture themselves to please God, and the great sages, are all asleep (are unaware of its damaging impact). (Spiritual) Death due to the sensual enjoyments of the five senses is caused by Maya 3.

Dogs, jackals, monkeys, cheetahs, lions, cats, sheep, and foxes, all trees, and even the vegetables that grow under the surface of the earth, are all engrossed in Maya. 4.

The gods, the oceans, the sky, and the earth are all imbued in Maya. Kabir says that everyone who has a stomach attached to it is strongly affected by Maya; one attains emancipation only in the shelter of the Guru. 5.5.13.

Word Meaning: Jub lug(u) = as long as. Tub Lug(u) = till then. Kaaj(u) Suraiy = task is completed. Mit Jaayay = is eradicated; goes away. Suvaareh(i) = makes successful. 1. Kee Na = why not. Dookh-Bunjunaa = destroyer of troubles. Pause. Singh = lion (conceit). Bun(u) = forest-like body. Phoolaiy = blooms. Siyaar = jackal-like humiity. Khaayay = swallows; destroys. 2. Jeeto = conceited of his successes. Boodaiy = drowns in the world-sea. Haaro = who submits humbly. Tiraiy = swims; stays afloat. Paar(i) Ootraiy = reaches the other end. Liv Laayay = stay focused. 3.

MEANING: As long as the man puts claim on everything (shows selfishness), not even a single one of his tasks gets completed (given any credit by God). But when his selfishness is eradicated, God Himself completes all his tasks successfully. 1.

So, why don't you recite the Naam of God, which is the destroyer of all one's troubles? Focus your mind on such God, oh my mind. Pause. As long as the lion of ego resides in the forest of your mind, the forest (noble wisdom) does not bloom (flourish); but when the lion of ego is swallowed by the jackal of humility, the forest of one's wisdom blooms fully. 2.

The egoist, who thinks that all his possessions were the result of his own wisdom and his hard work, drowns in the sea of Maya, but the individual, who accepts everything humbly (as God's Will), stays afloat in the world sea and swims across to the other end with the grace of the Guru. Kabir, who is a slave of God, tries hard to advise people that they should meditate on God's Naam only (and stay connected with Him). 3.6.14.

NOTE: In this holy Shabad, Kabir Sahib advises that no matter what difficulties people tell you in the path to union with God, do not feel disheartened, just recite His Naam with pure heart, and He will connect you with Him.

Word Meaning: Suttar Saiyay Slaar = 70,00 angels that accompanied Gabriel to take the Quran from the Paradise to Mohammad Sahib. Sheikh = highly learned Muslims. Koat(i) Atthaasi = 880 million. Chhuppun Koat(i) = 560 million. Khayl Khaasi. = servants. 1. Goojraavaiy = take my request. Mujlus(i) = Court (of God). Mehl(u) = residence. Ko Paavaiy = who will acquire? Khayl Khaana = members of the family. Divaana = homeless. Nudr(i) Dikhaayi = cast an angry sight (of disapproval). Oon Bhee = he too (Adam). Bhisht(i) = Paradise. Ghunayri = the end of. 2. Khulhul = disturbed. Jerd = pale. Roo = mouth; face. Bani = skin colour. Shaitaani = Satan-like deeds. Doash(u) = blames (others). Roas(u) = displeasure. Loyee = world; masses. 3. Bhikhaari = beggars. Bujgaari = sin. Puneh Smaana = has come to Your shelter. Bhist(i) = paradise. Raakh(u) Nujeek(u) = keep close. Rehmaana = oh merciful. 4.

MEANING: I am told that there are countless angels, prophets, and close devotees in Allah's Court, including the seven thousand angels who accompanied Gabriel to take the Quran from Paradise to Mohammad Sahib, the 125,000 prophets, the 880 million highly educated scholars, and 560 million personal attendants. 1.

I am also told that Allah's Court is far, far away in the seventh heaven. So, under such conditions, I am disheartened about how I, who is nobody (is insignificant), will reach His Court, and who will take my request to Allah? Pause.
(I am also told) that the 330 million (gods) are members of His family, while 8.4 million (life forms) are homeless (without any permanent home (life form) which wander around (from one life form to another). When God cast an angry look (of disapproval) on Adam, he too found the end of Paradise, and had to leave (was thrown out). (If great people, like Adam, are thrown out of Paradise, how will I get a room there? 2.
Those who ignore the holy books and commit Satan-like deeds acquire disturbance in their mind, and the colour of their faces turns pale. Such people blame others for their troubles and get angry with the world. But, (blaming others does not help) because they reap the rewards of their own deeds. 3. You are the provider (Lord), and we all are always beggars at Your door; it will be a sin if I deny having received Your gifts, oh kind God. I, Kabir, am Your slave, and come to Your shelter. Please keep me close to You, which is real Paradise for me, oh merciful God. 4.7.15.

Word Meaning: Chulun = go to. Oohaan = there. Baiykoontth(u) = paradise. Pause. App = himself. Murm(u) = secret. Bukhaana = describes. 1. Churn = (God's) Feet. Nivaas = dwelling. 2. Khaayi = ditch. Koat(u) = fort. Purl = city. Pugaara = Palace. Kaah(i) = to whom. Aah(i) = is.
MEANING: Everybody talks about going there, but I have no idea where Paradise is. Pause. They do not know their own secrets (mind), but describe Paradise in their talks. 1.
As long as one has a wish for Paradise, he cannot have God's Feet (His Naam) to dwell in his heart. 2. I do not know the door to any fort-like city which has a ditch of water surrounding it, and where God dwells in a palace. 3.
Who should I explain to that the gathering of the holy saints is the real Paradise, oh Kabir. 4.8.16.

Word Meaning: Kiyoun = how? Leejaiy = acquire; control. Gudh(u) Bunka = the strong fort (of the mind in the body). Doaver = double wall (of indecisiveness between spirituality and Maya). Tayver Khaayi = triple ditch (the three effects of Maya). Pause. Panch = the five demons. Puchees = the twenty-five ingredients making up the body (according to the Shaankh Shastra). Moh = attachments. Mud = intoxication (of ego). Mutsur = jealousy. Aadi = bunkers (to protect the soldiers). Perbul = powerful. Joar(u) = force; ability. Raghuraaya = God. 1. Kaam(u) = lust. Kivaari = sentinel. Dervaani = guards. Kroadh(u) = rage. Perdhaan = leader. Doondar = fighter. Mavaasi = rebel. 2. Snaah(u) = armour. Toap(u) = hat. Kuboodh(i) = evil thinking. Kumaan = bow. Chudhaayi = ready to shoot. Trishna = worldly desires. Teer = arrows. 3. Puleeta = fuse. Huwaayi = flame (to fire a canon). Goala = cannon ball. Braham Ugun(i) = Divine Light. Sehjay = in high spiritual state. Purjaali = brightly. Choat = hit. Sijhaaya = achieved success to open the door. 4. Sut = high morality. Suntokh = contentment. Pukriyo = arrested. 5. Bhugvut Bheer(i) = assembly of God's devotees. Daas = slave of God. Abinaashi = eternal. 6.

MEANING: How can one conquer the strong, fort-like human body where the mind is ruling as a rebel (against the wisdom). This body of the mind has a double wall of indecision (between Maya and spirituality), and a triple ditch to protect it from the three effects of Maya. Pause. The five demons (lust, rage, etc.), the twenty-five basic ingredients of the body (according to the Shaankh Shastra), worldly attachments, the intoxication of ego, and jealousy, which are different forms of the powerful Maya, are acting as bunkers for the forces of the mind to protect its fort. I am helpless (have no power) to fight against these forces; what can I do, oh my Lord? 1. One's noble and ignoble deeds act as the door to the fort of the mind, for which lust is the doorman, and comforts and discomforts are the guards. Rage, which is the great fighter and vociferous, is the soldier protecting the fort where the mind is the rebel king. 2.

The mind king, who is wearing an armour of different tastes, a hat of worldly attachments, has stretched the bow of evil thinking, which is loaded with the arrows of worldly desires, and is ready to shoot. Under such conditions, the body fort cannot be conquered. 3.

But when I used my mind, focused on God's Naam, as the fuse to light the cannon loaded with the cannonball of Divine Knowledge in the high spiritual state, the powerful fire of the Divine Light broke down the fort's door with a single shot. 4.

When I began to fight the evil mind with high morality and contentment, both the door slabs broke, and with the support of the holy saints and the grace of the Guru, I was able to arrest the king of the fort (mind). 5.

With the support of Waheguru's devotees, and the power of the recitation of His Naam, I, a slave of God, cut the noose of the fear of death into pieces, controlled the body fort, and acquired the everlasting reign on my mind (merged into God), oh Kabir. 6.9.17.

Gung goosaayin(i) gehr gumbheer. Zunjeer bandh(i) kur(i) khuray Kabir. 1. Mun(u) na digaiy, tun kaahay duraayay. Churn Kumul chit(u) ruhhiyo smaayay. Ruhaou. Gung akee lehr mayri tootti zanjeer. Mirgchhaala pur baitthaiy Kabir. 2. Keh Kabir koyoo sung(i) na saath. Jul thul raakhun haiy Raghunath. 3.10.18.

Word Meaning: Gung = the River Ganga (Ganges). Goosaayin = the mother of the country. Gehr = deep. Gumbheer = calm. Zunjeer Baandh(i) = tied in chains. Khuray = taken to. 1. Digaiy = weaken. Kaahay Ko = what for? Churn Kumul = God with lotus-like Feet. Smaayay = absorbed. Pause. Lehr = (powerful) waves. Mirgchhaala = deer skin. 2. Raakhun = saviour. Raghunath = God. 3.

NOTE: Like most of Waheguru's devotees, Kabir Sahib also made enemies because people in positions of power do not want the masses to be enlightened, as it reduces their chances to cheat and fleece them. So, some people jealous of Kabir Sahib complained to the local Muslim ruler of Banaras, who ordered that Kabir Sahib be chained and thrown into the River Ganga, which the Hindus believe to be holy for them.

MEANING: The deep River Ganga, which the Hindus call their mother, was calm at the time when they (the government employees) took the chained Kabir Sahib there to be thrown into the River. 1. (But they did not realize that) when focused on the lotus-like Feet of God (His Naam), one's mind becomes very strong, so what's the use to threaten his body? Pause. Suddenly, high and powerful waves arose in the calm Ganga, which broke my (Kabir Sahib's) chains, and I felt as if I was floating on a deer skin. 2.

When there is no one to support you, God protects you (His devotees) on the land, and in the waters, oh Kabir. 3.10.18.

Word Meaning: Agumm = inaccessible. Doorgum = tough to reach. Ruchiyo = creates. Baas = dwelling. Ja Meh(i) = in whose (heart). Jot(i) Pergaas = enlightenment. Anund(u) = Bliss. Paurray = level; place; heart. 1. Jeeou = soul; man. Juraa = old age. Mern(u) = death. Chhootaiy = leaves; forgotten. Pause. Abern Bern = high or low caste (clan). Haumein Gaavun(i) = songs based on haumein. Unhud Shabad = Divine Music. Jhoonkaar = lovely music. 2. Khundul Mundul = parts of the universe (worlds, and galaxies). Munda = created. Triya Usthaan = the three worlds (the earth, the sky, and the underworld). Teen(i) = the three ailments (mental, physical, and arising out of disagreements). Triya = the three effects of Maya. Khunda = destroyer. Ubh = heart. Unt = Untar(i) = in. Dhurnidhur = support of the earth (God). Munt = secrets. 3. Kudlee = banana tree. Poohp = flowers. Dhoop = fragrance. Ruj Punkuj = pollen of the lotus flower. Nivaas = dwelling. Dooaadus Dul = flower with twelve petals (fully blossomed lotus flower. Ubh = heart. Munt = Mantra; God's Naam/ Kumla Kunt = husband of Maya (God). 4. Urdh(u) = low (earth). Oordh = up high = sky. Mookh Laago = is visible. Kaas(u) = light (of God). Soonn Mundul = in the spiritual state above Maya. Aad(i) = the origin (God). 5. Brahmund(i) = in the universe. Pind(i) = in the body. Jaan(u) = recognize God. Mansurovur = in the pool of His Naam. Sohung(i) So = I am Him, and He is me. Lipt = coating; effect of. 6. Abern Bern = low or high caste. Ghaam = heat (discomfort). Chhaam = shade; coolness (comfort). Shaam = shelter. Taari Na Turaiy = cannot be avoided even on trying. Smaayay = stays absorbed. 7. Mudhaiy = in. Aapaiy = by itself. Usthir = stable. 8.

MEANING: The heart, which is enlightened by God, becomes like a fort which is inaccessible and extremely difficult to reach for the five demons (to attack). It feels blissful by the lightening of the presence of the child-like (pure-minded) God in there. 1.

If the mind of a man gets attached to God's Naam, all his misgivings and his worldly fears run away, and his birth-death cycle is terminated. Pause.

Normally, an egoist man loves to distinguish between high and low castes (feels proud of his high caste), and sings songs which are rooted in ego. But the heart in which God appears is enlightened and feels as if very sweet Divine music is playing in it. 2.

The inaccessible and incomprehensible God, which has created countless worlds and galaxies, and which destroys the three layers of the universe, the three ailments (physical, mental, and those arising from disagreements), and the three effects of Maya, takes up dwelling in the devotee's heart. But nobody can find the limits of the secrets of the Lord of the earth, which supports it. 3.

God remains hidden in the human body, just as fragrance in the flowers of the banana tree, or as pollen in the lotus flower. But the heart of the devotee, where God appears, blooms like the twelve-petalled lotus flower (maximum blooming). 4.

With an enlightened mind, such a devotee sees Waheguru's light on the earth and in the sky and stays absorbed in the high spiritual state above the effects of Maya. In that high spiritual state, he sees God, which is the origin of the universe, and no sun or any moon can match

His brightness. 5. Such a devotee recognizes the same God inside him and outside, and takes a dip in His Naam-Amrit like the Hindus take a dip in the holy Mansarovar Lake. He recites God's Naam and attains a spiritual state in which he feels that God is inside him and that he is inside God. No thoughts of sins or noble deeds arise in his mind. 6.
No thought of high or low castes ever crosses his mind, and he does not feel any discomfort or comfort. No ideas about Maya come to his mind in the shelter of the Guru. He always stays absorbed in the high (blissful) state which nobody can deprive him of, and nobody can attain it on his own (can be attained only in the Guru's shelter. 7.
If one recognizes God's presence in his heart, everything that he talks about (wishes for) happens in a natural way (without any special effort on his part). The devotee who stabilizes (internalizes) God's Naam in his mind, swims across the world-sea (finds salvation), oh Kabir. 8.1.19.

My Lord is such that even millions of Cupids which attract (arouse) the desires of people, do not come even close to Him in beauty. Please, listen to the request of Kabir, and grant me the spiritual sate above all the worldly fears, which I beg for, oh Lord. 8. 2.18.20.

Those who discriminate between people (without any just cause) are just like animals. 2.
Just as a human face is not attractive without the nose, even if one has adorned herself with the 32 signs of beautification (No other quality is good enough without God's Naam), oh Namdayo. 3.2.

Word Meaning: Kutoraiy = in bowl. Gudvaiy = in a small round vessel. Kupil Gaayay = a brown or a white cow with black udder; Kamdhayn Cow = a cow, Kupila by name considered very holy by the Hindus, is believed to fulfil all one's wishes, lives in paradise. Dooh(i) Aani = milked and brought the milk to offer to God. Doodh of Kupil Cow = God's Naam which fulfils all desires. 1. Putiyaayay = be pleased. Naahi Ta = otherwise. Ghur Ko Baap = owner of the house (mind); soul. Risaayay = will be agonized. Soyin Kutori = bowl of gold (gold-like pure heart). Amrit = milk; God's immortalizing Naam. 2. Bhugut = devotee. Hirdaiy Busaiy = resides in my mind. Husaiy = fully pleased. 3. Ghur(i) Guyya = with peaceful mind. Dershun Bhuyya = had His holly sight. 4.

NOTE: In this holy Shabad, Namdev Ji describes an episode of serving milk to an idol that drank it. Since, according to Sri Guru Granth Sahib, Waheguru does not appear in any living form, and Nam Dev Ji Himself strongly disapproves of idol worship (see the Shabad below), the holy Shabad must have a deeper meaning than its literal meaning. We will discuss both meanings in this particular case.

- ਗੂਜਰੀ ਨਾਮਦੇਵ ਜੀ॥ (525) ----- ਸਤਿਗੁਰੁ ਮਿਲੈ ਤ ਸਹਸਾ ਜਾਈ॥ ਕਿਸ ਹਉ ਪੂਜਉ ਦੂਜਾ ਨਦਰਿ ਨ ਆਈ॥ ਏਕੈ ਪਾਥਰ ਕੀਜੈ ਭਾਉ॥ਦੂਜੈ ਪਾਥਰ ਧਰੀਐ ਪਾਉ॥ ਜੇ ਓਹੁ ਦੇਉ ਤ ਓਹੁ ਭੀ ਦੇਵਾ॥ ਕਹਿ ਨਾਮਦੇਉ ਹਮ ਹਰਿ ਕੀ ਸੇਵਾ॥4॥1॥

Meaning: (People worship idols), but if one takes Satguru's shelter (seeks his advice) then his doubt will be cleared that there is no one else to worship than the Supreme Being (God or Waheguru). People love one stone (worship a stone idol), but step on another. If the former is a god, then the latter should be a god as well. So, I serve (worship) only the Supreme Being, oh Nam Dayo.

It is perfectly clear from this Shabad that Nam Dev Ji did not worship any idol.

LITERAL MEANING (of the Shabad): Taking water in a small vessel to (wash the udder of the cow), Namdayo milked the cow. 1. He put the milk in a bowl, and offered it to the idol with the request that the idol accept it to please him (Namdev), otherwise his father will be badly displeased. Pause. Namdev Ji filled a gold bowl with the milk and placed it before the idol. 2. God was pleased to see Namdev (his affection for God), who drank the milk, saying that His devotees always reside in His mind. 3. After feeding milk to the idol (God) and after having had His holy sight, the devotee, Namdev Ji, went to his home. 4.3.

REAL MEANING: Just as a man takes water in a vessel to wash the udder of his cow and milks it, Nam Dev Ji washed (cleansed) his heart with noble qualities, which became pure like the milk of the mythical Kamdhen cow, to offer to the Lord for His approval 1.

He filled his gold-like pure heart with the milk of God-like noble qualities, and offered to God with the request that He accept (approve) it so as to please Namdev; otherwise, his soul would suffer in agony. Pause & 2. God was pleased to accept Namdev Ji's love and devotion, saying that His devotees always reside in His heart. 3.

After feeding God (gaining Waheguru's approval), Namdev Ji felt he had a holy sight of God and was absorbed in his high spiritual state (of full contentment). 4.3.

Srirung = husband of Maya (God). Bhaytul = met. 4.

MEANING: I am crazy about my God-Husband, and lost in His thoughts, I adorn myself with noble qualities for Him. 1. People may criticize me if they wish, but my body and my mind are in the service of my dear Lord. Pause.

I do not enter into any destructive debates with anyone, and enjoy only God's (Waheguru's) Naam, which is the source of all sweet tastes, with my tongue. 2.

Now, the situation of my mind and my life has developed to the point where I do not care what people may say about me, and I will connect with my Lord (worship Him) with the beating of a drum (openly, in full public view). 3. People may praise or criticize me; I have connected with my God, oh Nama (Nam Dev Ji). 4.4.

Word Meaning: Kubhoon = sometimes. Kheer(i) = rice pudding. Took = a piece of roti. Koorun(u) = rubbish. Chunay = gram; black chick peas. Binaavaiy = pick. 1. Jiyoun = as. Tiyoun = the same way. Ruhhiyaiy = live. Mehma = majesty; praise. Kuthun(u) = describe. Pause. Tooray = Toorung = horses. Nuchavaiy = makes to dance. Paayayn = on the feet. Punheeyo = shoes. 2. Khat(u) = bedstead. Soopaydi = white sheets. Bhoom(i) = on the floor. Paiyaar(u) = dry stalk of paddy; hay. 3. Bhunut(i) = says. Nistaaraiy = salvages. Paar(i) Ootaaraiy = ferries across. 4.

MEANING: God's majesty (power) can not be described, and we have to live our lives the way He wishes for us. Pause.

(Waheguru is present in everybody); but he does not enjoy delicious and rich food items like rice-pudding, sugar (sweets), or ghee in some bodies (they are so rich and always enjoy delicious items like these, that such things have no importance for them), while some are so poor that they have to beg even for a piece of roti at every door, while in some other cases, the individuals are forced to pick roasted grams in trash. 1.

By God's Will, some people are rich enough to ride dancing horses, while some people do not even have shoes to wear. 2. Some people have comfortable beds with white sheets on them, while others do not get even dry straws to spread on the floor to sleep. 3. (However, a devotee of Waheguru is happy in every situation by reciting Waheguru's Naam) which salvages one. But one acquires His Naam, which ferries him across the world-sea, from the Guru only, oh Nam Dayo. 4.5.

Dayhouray paachhaiy baiyttha jaayay. 2. Jiyoun, jiyoun Nama Hur(i) Goon oochraiy. Bhugut junaa kuou Dayhoura phiraiy. 3.6.
Word Meaning: Hust Khaylut = in a joyful mood (in good spirit). Dayhouray = temple. 1. Heenrri = very low. Jaadum Raaya = Krishana (God). Chheepay = washerman. Pause. Kumlee = a light blanket. Pultaayay = turning around. Paachhaiy = on the backside. 2. Jiyoun, Jiyoun = as. Kuou = for. Phiraiy = turned. 3.
NOTE: Once Namdev Ji, who belonged to a very low caste, went to a temple to worship God, where low-castes were not allowed, to worship. The high-caste Brahmans hit him and kicked him out of the Temple. Disappointed, Namdev Ji took his blanket and went to the back of the Temple, sat down there, and began to sing God's praise. As he was singing God's praise, and as the Brahmans were watching him outside the Temple, the Temple turned around facing Namdev Ji with its back towards the Brahmans. The event has been certified by Guru Ram Dass Ji, and Ravidass Ji.
MEANING: I went to Your temple in a very joyous spirit to worship You, oh God, but I was pulled up (by the Brahmans) to stand as I was singing Your praise (and was thrown out of the temple). 1. (I was kicked out of the Temple) simply because I belonged to a very low caste, oh my Lord. Why was I born as a low-caste washerman? Pause.
Namdev Ji took his blanket, turned around, and went to sit down on the back of the Temple. 2. As Namdev Ji sang God's praise, the Temple turned around facing God's devotee, Namdev Ji. 3.6.

Word Meaning: Bhookhay = hungry. Preet(i) = attraction. Anaaj = grains; food. Trikhavunt = thirsty. Sayti = with. Kaaj = dealing; interest. Moorr = foolish. Kootumb = family. Puraayin = support; dependence. 1. Sehj Soobhaayay = without any special effort. Baiyraagi = detached from the world. Pause. Pur = other. Poorkha = man. Rut = love. Lobhi = greedy. Hitkaari = lover. Kaami = lustful. Kaamini = woman. Mooraari. 2. Saayi = only that. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Kubhoon Na = never. Tootus(i) = breaks. Smaayay = absorbed. 3. Baarik = child. Ur(u) = and. Aiysa = like that. Raata = imbued. Prunvaiy = requests. 4.

MEANING: Namdev is attached to God (loves Him) like a hungry person is attracted to food, or like a thirsty person is interested in (badly needs) water, or like a foolish (a parasite-like) person is dependent on his family for living. 1. Namdev loves God so much that he has been detached from the world without any special effort on his part. Pause.

Namdev loves Waheguru (God) like a woman who is imbued with love for a man, or like a greedy person who loves wealth, or like a lustful person who loves a woman. 2.

But only that love is acceptable to God which He, Himself, plants in the mind of His devotees, and who have overcome their indecisiveness by the grace of the Guru. Such a bond of love never breaks, as devotees remain absorbed in God's love. Namdev's mind is attached to the Naam of the eternal God. 3.

My mind is as deeply attached to God as the love between a child and his mother. Nam Dayo humbly submits that God resides in his mind all the time. 4.1.7.

Keht Namdayo, eh(u) beechaar(u). Inn bidh(i) sunt-hou ooturhou paar(i). 4.2.8.

Word Meaning: Ghur Kee = own. Naar(i) = woman (wife). Tiyaagaiy = abandons. Pur = other. Ghaalaiy Dhundha = establishes affair. Simbul(u) = a tall tree which has attractive fruit, but rather than sweet juice or pulp, it has cottonwool-like interior which is useless for the birds. Sooaa = parrot. Bigsaana = feels overjoyed. Luptaana = attracted to. 1. Paapi = sinner. Ghur(u) = mind. Ugnay Maah(i) = fire of desires. Julut Ruhhaiy = keeps burning (suffering). Mitvaiy Naah(i) = is not put out. Pause. Daykhaiy Jaayay = joins (holy gathering). Maarug(u) = the path (of righteousness). Amaarug(i) = path of immorality. Moolhoun = from the root of the world (God). Bhoola = misled. Aavaiy Jaayay = takes births and dies. Daar(i) = dropping. Laad(i) = loading up. Bikh(u) = poison of sensual pleasures. 2. Baysuvaa = prostitute. Akhaara = dance show. Sheangaara = beautification. Pooray Taal = matches steps with the music. Nihaalay Saas(i) = watches every breath. Vaa Kay = of her. Phaas = noose. 3. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead; in fortune. Kerma = God's benevolence. Bhuj(i) = runs to. Pur(i) Haiy = seeks. Inn Bidh(i) = by such means. 4.

MEANING: The blind of (moral) wisdom abandons his own wife, and establishes a relationship with another woman, but, attracted to her, he dies a spiritual death at the end. His attraction for the other woman is as disappointing (bereft of satisfaction) as the fruit of a simbul tree for a parrot, which feels overjoyed to see it but gets nothing from it, as it is useless to him; in fact, it dies (by choking) on the cotton-like fruit. 1.

The mind of such a sinner is always on fire (of his immoral desires), in which he suffers a lot, but which is never put out. Pause.

Such a sinner never goes to a holy gathering where God is worshipped (His praise is sung), and, ignoring the path of righteousness, he chooses the path of immorality. Dropping (spilling) the Amrit of God's Naam, he carries a load of poisonous sensual desires, and misled from (disconnected with) the root of the universe, God, he keeps taking births and dying. 2.

He is like a prostitute's dancing show for which she beautifies herself, and matches her steps to the music. The Angel of death watches every breath of such an immoral person, and the noose of (spiritual) death is always around his neck. 3.

The individual, who has God's benevolence written on his forehead, runs to the shelter of the Guru. This is the way to find salvation for the holy men, Nam Dayo advises. 4.2.8.

Word Meaning: Sunda Merka = Shund and Amerk (teachers of Prehlad). Pookaaray = complained loudly. Puch(i) Haaray = exhausted trying hard. Ker = (with) hands. Taal = cymbal. Chatiya = students. Bigaaray = misled. 1. Jupibo Kuray = recites. Simrun(u) = remembering; reciting Naam. Pause. Busoodha = land. Bus(i) Keei = has controlled. Peet Peetambur = the wearer of yellow clothes (Vishnu). Tirbhuvun Dhunee = the Lord of the universe; God. Thumbh Maah(i) = from inside the pillar. Bhaakhaiy = talk; roar. 4. Nukheh Bidaariyo = tore apart with his paws. Soor = gods. Nur = men. Snaatha = became guardian. Nurhur(i) = God. Abhaiy Pud(u) = fearless spiritual state. 5.

NOTE: For more detail of this incident, read Guru Amar Dass Ji's (Mehla 3) Shabad number 20, in the same Raag on page 1133 of SGGS).

MEANING: Shund and Amerk, the teachers of Prehlad, complained strongly to his mother that, despite their having exhausted themselves in frustration in advising him, he would not listen to them. Rather than reciting the King's name, he was chanting God's Naam while playing on cymbals, and had even misguided all the other students. 1.

He was reciting God's Naam while remembering Him in his heart. Pause.

His mother pleaded with Prehlad that his father, the King, had controlled all his masses, who were now chanting his name, and they (the King and his courtiers) had made a firm decision (to punish Prehlad) if he did not chant the King's name (but Prehlad would not listen even to his mother). 2. The evil group (the King and his courtiers) made the final decision to cut short the life of Prehlad. They tried to kill him by pushing him down a mountain, hanging him from a tree, drowning him in a river, and burning him in a fire. But he survived every time as God changed the natural laws for him. 3. Finally, his father, Hernakhsh, afraid inside but visibly enraged, pulled out a sword to kill Prehlad and challenged him to show his saviour who would protect him now. At that time, he heard the roar of God (described as Vishnu wearing yellow clothes) from within the pillar. 4.

Worship the God who tore apart Hernakhsh with his paws, and who plays as the guardian of the gods and the humans, oh Nam Dayo. 5.3.9.

NOTE: As always, some people become enemies of Waheguru's devotees, and Namdev Ji was no exception. A cow of Muhammad Bin-Tughlaq (the Muslim ruler of the time), which was very dear to him, died, because of which the Sultan became very sad. Namdev's enemies thought that it was a golden opportunity for them to get Namdev Ji punished. They advised the Sultan that Namdev Ji had the power to revive his dead cow. Their sinister plan was that Namdev Ji would not be able to revive the cow and would be punished. So, the Sultan called in Namdev Ji and asked him to revive the dead cow. When Namdev Ji expressed his inability to do so, the Sultan believed Namdev Ji was defying his order and became enraged. First, the Sultan left an elephant loose to hurt Namdev Ji, but Namdev Ji was unhurt. Next, the Sultan put three conditions before him: revive the dead cow, if not, embrace Islam or get ready to die. He locked Namdev Ji up and gave him three hours to make up his mind. Read the Shabad what happened next.

Word Meaning: Sultan = Badshah = Muhammad Bin-Tughlaq (the ruler of Delhi from 1325 to1351). Poochhaiy = questions. Kaama = ability. 1. Baandhila = arrested; locked up. Beetthula = Lord. Pause. Bismil = dead. Naatur = otherwise. Gurdun Maaroun Tthaayayn = sever head; kill on the spot. 2. Kiyoun Hoyay = how is that possible? 3. Ahunkaar(i) = enraged. Guj = Gujind(u) = Hustee = a big elephant. Chumkaar(i) = provoked. 5. Roodun(u) = cried. Maayay = mother. Chhoad(i) = quitting. Bhujeh(i) = worship. Khudaayay = Allah. 6. Poongrra = small child. Pind(u) = body. Purraiy = collapses. Tuou = then; still. 7. Soond = trunk. Choat = hit. Oobraiy = was unhurt. Oat = support. Slaam = bow down. Inn(i) = this. Muliya Maan(u) = crushed pride. 9. Sur = equal. Bhur(i) = weight.

MEANING: The Sultan told Namdev Ji that he wanted to see the capabilities of his God. 1. He locked up Namdev Ji, and asked him to call his God, if He could help him. Pause. The Sultan told Namdev Ji to revive his dead cow, otherwise he would kill him (Namdev Ji) on the spot. 2. Expressing his inability, Namdev Ji told the Sultan how that could be possible; no one could revive a dead body. 3.

There is nothing I can do; only that which God does happens. 4.

Considering Namdev Ji's inability and his defiance of the Sultan's order, the Sultan became enraged and provoked a large, trained elephant to attack Namdev Ji. 5.

Watching that, Namdev Ji's mother began to cry, and pleaded with Namdev Ji Why does he not quit worshipping his God, and chant Allah's name. 6.

Namdev Ji did not like this suggestion and rather told his mother that he was not her little child and that she was not his mother. He will sing God's praise even if his body collapses. 7. The elephant hit Namdev Ji with his trunk, but, with God's support, Namdev Ji escaped unhurt.

8. The king felt that the Hindu Namdev Ji had crushed his pride, and the Qazi and the Moolah bowed to Namdev Ji. 9. The Hindu citizens of the city approached the King, and offered to pay him gold equal in weight to Namdev Ji's, if he would let Namdev Ji go. 10.

Word Meaning: Maal(u) = wealth; gold. Dojik = hell. Deen = faith. Dooniya = worldly wealth. Bhuroun = fill my treasure (accumulate). 11 Paavhoun = on the feet. Bayrri = shackles. Taal = lock; handcuffs. 12. Oolti Buhhaiy = flow in opposite directions. Tuou = still. 13. Saat Ghuree = a little less than three hours. Beeti = spent. Ajhoun = still. Tirbhuvun Dhunee = the Lord of the universe, God. 14. Paakhuntun Bujaayayla = the flapping of wings. Baaj = sound. Groorr = a huge bird believed to be ridden by Vishnu Ji. Gobind = Vishnu (God). 15. Pritpaal = protection. 16. Kuhheh(i) Ta = if you wish. Ikodi = tilt. Oopur Dhroun = turn upside down. 17. Putiyaayay = convinced.18.

MEANING: The Sultan said that if he accepted the offer, he would go to hell because he would be filling his treasure with worldly wealth and abandoning his faith. 11.

With shackles on his feet and handcuffs on his hands, Namdev Ji kept singing God's praise with the resolve that he would continue to do that even if the rivers Ganga and Yamuna began to flow in the opposite directions. 12 and 13.

Namdev Ji was alerted when he heard the time bell striking seven times (two hours and 36 minutes), and his God had still not appeared. 14. Suddenly, he heard the flapping of the huge wings of Groorr (Vishnu's ride), indicating that Vishnu (God) had arrived. 15.

God had come to protect His devotee. 16. God asked Namdev Ji what he wanted God to do. He could turn the earth on its side or turn it upside down. 17.

Or, He could revive the dead cow for everyone to see and be convinced (about your faith) (and He revived the dead cow). 18.

Word Meaning: Prunvaiy = requested the gathering. Saylum = to tie with a rope. Sayl = the hind legs. Doohaayi = milked. BUchhra = calf. Mayl(i) = connect with the cow. 19. Mutuki = vessel. 20. Aoughut Kee Ghut = difficult time. 21. Foormaayay = the order (request) of the Sultan. Bukhsheen = forgive me. Gaayay = (slave like) a cow. 22. Putiya = firm commitment 23. Pervaan = approval; condition. Saach(i) = justice. Seel(i) = politeness. 24. Smaayay = present (story heard all over). 25. Juou = if. Putiya = faith in him. 26. Keerut = praise. 27. Klaysh = irritation; disgrace. Ninduk = vilifiers; enemies. Khayd(u) = discomfort. Bhayd = difference. 28.

MEANING: (Seeing that the dead cow had come to life) Namdev Ji requested the people around (who had gathered to watch the amazing incident) to bring a rope to tie the hind legs of the revived cow, and He let the calf suck its mother's udder, and milked the cow. 19. When he filled the vessel provided, with the milk, he presented it before the Sultan (who was shocked to see this). 20. Faced with a very tough (an unbelievable situation), the Sultan left for his palace, and sent his Qazi and the Moolah to ask Namdev Ji for forgiveness (who promptly delivered the message) that the King was like Namdev Ji's cow (a slave). Namdev Ji accepted the King's apology, with a condition. 21 - 23.
The condition was that the King would deliver perfect justice and deal with his subjects politely. 24. Everybody in the city heard Namdev Ji's story, and all Hindus went to Namdev Ji. 25. They told Namdev Ji that he would have lost the faith of the people in him if he had not revived the dead cow. 26. Everybody acknowledged the greatness of Namdev Ji, who helped the other devotees in attaining salvation as well. 27.
But Namdev Ji's enemies suffered discomfort and disgrace, not realizing that there was no difference between God and Namdev Ji now. 28.1.10.

Word Meaning: Juou = when; if. Mooraar(i) = God. Ootraiy Paar(i) = lands on the other side of the world-sea; attains salvation. Baiykoontth = paradise. Turaiy = swims over to; reaches. 1. Sat(i) = eternal. Ann Subh = all other. Sayv = service; worshipping. Pause. Drirraavaiy = reinforces. Dehdis = in every direction. Punch = the five demons. Merbou = dies (spiritually). Jhoor(i) = regretting and repenting. 2. Amrit Bani = sweet at conversation. Akuth Kahani = praise of the indescribable God. Amrit Dayh = becomes immortal (merges with God). 3. Bhuvun Traiy = the three-layered universe. Soojhaiy = realizes. Ooch Pud = the high spiritual state. Boojhaiy = understands. Sees(u) = head (thinking). Akaash(i) = in the sky (high morality). Shabaash(i) = earns praise. 4. Baiyraagi = detached from the world. Per Ninda = vilification of others. Tiyaagi = quit; abandon. Boora Bhulaa = bad or good treatment from others. Aik = same. Lilaateh)i) Laykh = prewritten on the forehead. 5.

MEANING: Only the service to the Guru is everlasting, while service to any other god is false (goes unrewarded), oh man. Pause. When the Guru is kind to you, you get to the other side of the world-sea and get connected with God. When Guru is kind to you, you get emancipation while still living in the world, and reach paradise. 1. When the Guru is benevolent to you, He reinforces God's Naam in your mind, and your mind quits wandering in every direction (becomes stable or peaceful). One stays away from the five demons (is not overpowered by them), and one does not die (spiritually) regretting and repenting. 2. When the Guru is benevolent, one sings praise of the indescribable God, and becomes very sweet in conversations. He recites God's Naam and acquires immortality (by merging into Waheguru). 3. When the Guru is benevolent to you, your thoughts become very high (above the worldly attractions), you learn the secrets of the three-layered universe (how it functions), and you understand the importance of a high spiritual state (attain it), and win praise (from God and the whole world). 4. When the Guru is kind to you, you quit vilifying others and get detached from the world forever. You accept bad or good treatment from others in the same way, and you get good fortune written on your forehead.5.

---------- Juou Gurdayo, kundh(u) nuhhi hiraiy. Juou Gurdayo Dayhoura phiraiy. Juou Gurdayo ta chhaapur chhaayi. Juou Gurdayo, sehj niksaayi. 6. Juou Gurdayo ta utth-sutth(i) naahiya. Namdayo, Gur kee shernaayi. 9.1.2.11.

Word Meaning: Kundh = body (mind). Hiraiy = steals (noble qualities). Dayhoura Phiraiy = the temple rotates (See Shabad number 6 of Namdev Ji in this section). Chhaapur Chhaayi = built thatched hut. (Namdev Ji was a very poor man, and lived in an old thatched hut. Once his hut was demolished in a storm, he went away to arrange for it to be rebuilt. When he came back, he was surprised to see a very attractive and strong hut built there. Sehj Niksaayi = bed recovered from the river. (Once the local ruler gave a beautiful bed to Namdev Ji who found it too lavish for him, and threw that in the nearby river. When the ruler learned about the way Namdev Ji had treated his gift, he got very unhappy and demanded his gift of bed back. Namdev Ji asked the servants of the ruler to retrieve that from the river. They were amazed to see that the bed looked even more expensive and beautiful). 6. Utth-sutth(i) = the sixty-eight holy places. Chukkur Lugaaya = some devotees paint religious symbols of Ganesh and sone other deities to show their devotion. Dooaadus Sayva = there are 12 Shiva Lings that the devotees worship. Bikh = poisonous fruits. Mayva = sweet raisins. 7. Sunsa Tootaiy = all misgivings are eradicated. Bhuvjul Turaiy = swims across the world sea. 8. Utth-Dus = the 18 Puranas. Biyohaar =business; rituals. Atthaarah Bhaar = the whole vegetation. Jaayi = place. Shernaayi = shelter. 9.

MEANING: When the Guru is benevolent to you, no demon like lust, greed, etc., can steal your noble qualities, and when the Guru is kind to you, even a temple can rotate, an old thatched hut gets replaced by a very beautiful and strong hut, and a damaged bed can be retrieved in excellent shape from the river. (See the Word Meanings for details). 6.

When the Guru is kind to you, you get the reward of holy dips at the sixty-eight holy places (you do not need them), and you do not need to paint your body with holy symbols like those of Ganesh and Vishnu. When Guru is kind to you, you feel like having worshipped all the twelve Shiva Lings (you do not need them), and all the poisonous fruits change into sweet raisins for you (you feel as if you have enjoyed all the sensual pleasures). 7.
When the Guru is kind to you, all your misgivings are dispelled, and you do not have to deal with the Angel of (spiritual) death. When the Guru is kind to you, you swim across the sea of Maya (get salvaged), and you no longer take births or die. 8.
When the Guru is benevolent to you, you understand the business of the eighteen Puranas (that is, what they teach is like trading with God, like a businessman – you pay to earn comforts), and the whole vegetation serves as the flowers for God, which the devotees offer to the idols. There is no shelter other than that of the Guru, and Nam Dayo has come to His shelter. 9.1.2.11.

Keh(i) Ravidass, perm baiyraag. Ridaiy Ram(u) kee na jupus(i) abhaag. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Aasa = hope; wish; longing. Binaasa = destruction. Bern Seht = with full explanation (understanding and devotion). Kayvul = (Nih)kayvul = perfectly pure. Nihkaam(u) = with no worldly desire; fully detached. 1. Perchaiy = with attachment. Ruvaiy = recites (Naam). Paarus(u) = elixir-stone (Guru). Persaiy = with the touch. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Pause. So = that. Moon(i) = hermit; sage. Khaayay = swallows. Bin(u) Dooaaraiy = without seeking support of any god. Traiyyy Loak = (the Lord of) the three-layered universe. Smaayay = is absorbed. Soobhaaou = nature; character. Kerta Hoyay = becoming like God. Unbhaiy = fearless. 2. Kaarun = for the sake of. Phooli = blooms; flowers (v). Bunraayay = vegetation; forest. Bilaayay = goes away. Giyaanaiy = for Divine Knowledge. Kerm Abiyaas(u) = performing rituals. Bhuyya = happened; acquired. 3. Ghrit = butter oil; ghee. Dudh(i) = yogurt; curd. Muthaiy = churns. Suyyan = wise woman. Jeevun Mookt = emancipated while living in the family. Nirbaan = free from all wishes. Perm Baiyraag = the supreme detachment. Abhaag = unfortunate. 4.

MEANING: The problem with God's worship is that He is invisible, and one does not acquire the zest or the longing to serve some power unless he sees that. But, at the same time everything that is visible is perishable (so no use to worship that either). The yogi, who recites God's Naam with understanding and devotion, becomes perfectly pure and gets fully detached from the world. 1. If someone gets attached to God and recites His Naam, he becomes pure in the shelter of the Guru, like a base metal changes into gold when it touches the philosopher's stone, and overcomes his nature of indecisiveness. Pause.
The ascetic, who swallows (overcomes) his indecisiveness, is a true sage and gets absorbed into the Lord of the three-layered universe without seeking shelter of any god. Everybody follows their mind, but the devotee, who acquires the virtues of God, becomes fearless. 2.
The vegetation flowers to bear fruit, but when the fruit comes on, the flowers go away. People perform rituals to acquire Divine Knowledge, but once they acquire the Knowledge, the rituals become meaningless. 3.
Similarly, a wise woman churns yogurt to extract butter. The above examples elucidate that if one wishes to have emancipation, he needs to recite God's Naam when he is emancipated while living in the world, and will always be free from any worldly wishes or desires. Ravidass always recites the Naam of the Supreme Being to become fully detached from the world, and asks people why the unfortunate do not recite God's Naam in their hearts. 4.1.

MEANING: Come to my heart even if You are in the outfit of an Abdaal, oh, the Klundar-like God with lovely loose strands of hair. Pause. (If one were to describe the persona of the Supreme Being, then it can be said that): The Lord of the earth is such that the sky is his tall hat, all the underworlds are His wooden sandals, and all the living beings are his home. 1. The 560 million clouds are His cloak, and the 16000 worlds are His trousers. The whole vegetation is His baton, which the Muslim faqirs carry in their hands, and the whole world is His earthen platter in which He enjoys His food (being present in everybody, he enjoys all sorts of food). 2. I have made my body the mosque in which my mind is the moolah, which offers the Muslim prayer in a high spiritual state. Maya is married to You (is Your slave), oh, the formless Lord of the whole world. 3. It was You, who caused the upper-caste Brahmans to snatch away my cymbals when I was worshipping in the Hindu Temple, so whom can I complain to, oh, my Allah? My Lord is omniscient and is the one who has no particular home, but is present in the whole universe, oh Namdev. 4.1

NOTE: It is perfectly clear that Namdev Ji believed in the Supreme Being, which is neither for the Muslims exclusively, nor for the Hindus.
