ੴ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਪ੍ਰਸਾਦਿ॥

ਸਾਰੰਗ ਕੀ ਵਾਰ ਮਹਲਾ 4॥ ਰਾਇ ਮਹਮੇ ਹਸਨੇ ਕੀ ਧੁਨਿ

Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i)

Sarang Kee Vaar, Mehla 4: Rai Mehmay, Husnay Kee Dhoon(i)

ਸਲੋਕ ਮਹਲਾ 2॥ ਗੁਰੂ ਕੁੰਜੀ ਪਾਹੂ ਨਿਵਲੁ ਮਨੁ ਕੋਠਾ ਤਨੁ ਛਤਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰ ਬਿਨੁ ਮਨ ਕਾ ਤਾਕੁ ਨ ਉਘੜੈ ਅਵਰ ਨ ਕੁੰਜੀ ਹਥਿ॥ 1॥

Sloak Mehla 2: Guru koonji, paahoo nivul, mun(u) kottha, tun(u) chuut(i). Nanak, Gur bin(u), mun ka taak(u) na ooghrraiy, uver na koonji huth(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Koonji = key. Paahoo = the dye (of love for Maya). Nivul = lock. Kottha = room. Chuut(i) = roof. Taak(u) = door. Ooghrraiy = opens.

MEANING: The human mind is like a room with the body as its roof. Man's love for Maya is the lock to the room-like mind. Only the Guru has the key to unlock it (so that Divine Knowledge can enter the mind). Nobody else has such a key, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮਹਲਾ 1॥ ਨ ਭੀਜੈ ਰਾਗੀ ਨਾਦੀ ਬੇਦਿ॥ ਨ ਭੀਜੈ ਸੁਰਤੀ ਗਿਆਨੀ ਜੋਗਿ॥ ਨ ਭੀਜੈ ਸੋਗੀ ਕੀਤੈ ਰੋਜਿ॥ ਨ ਭੀਜੈ ਰੂਪੀ ਮਾਲੀ ਰੰਗਿ॥ ਨ ਭੀਜੈ ਤੀਰਥਿ ਭਵਿਐ ਨੰਗਿ॥ ਨ ਭੀਜੈ ਦਾਤੀ ਕੀਤੈ ਪੁੰਨਿ॥ ਨ ਭੀਜੈ ਬਾਹਰਿ ਬੈਠਿਆ ਸੁੰਨਿ॥ ਨ ਭੀਜੈ ਭੇੜਿ ਮਰਹਿ ਭਿੜਿ ਸੂਰ॥ ਨ ਭੀਜੈ ਕੇਤੇ ਹੋਵਹਿ ਧੂੜ॥ ਲੇਖਾ ਲਿਖੀਐ ਮਨ ਕੈ ਭਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਭੀਜੈ ਸਾਚੈ ਨਾਇ॥ 2॥

Mehla 1: Na bheejaiy raageen, naadeen Bayd(i). Na bheejaiy soorti, giyaanee joag(i). Na bheejaiy, soageen keetaiy roaj(i). Na bheejaiy roopeen, maaleen, rung(i). Na bheejaiy teeruth(i) bhuvviyain nung(i). Na bheejaiy daateen keetaiy poonn(i). Na bheejaiy baahur(i) baiytthiyaan soon(i). Na bheejaiy bhayrr(i) mureh(i) bhirr(i) soor. Na bheejaiy kaytay hoveh(i) dhoorr. Laykha likhiyaiy mun kaiy bhaayay. Nanak, bheejaiy Saachaiy Naayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Bheejaiy = drenches with love; pleases. Naadeen = with music. Soorteen = through meditations. Giyanee = with discussions about Waheguru. Joag(i) = by yogic path. Soageen = Roaj(i) = by feeling miserable (like the Jains). Roopeen = with beautification (with religious symbols). Maaleen Rung(i) = express love for Waheguru with donations. Bhuvviyaan Nung(i) = roaming naked. Daateen Poonn(i) = giving money or other articles in donations. Soonn(i) = quiet; in meditation. Bhayrr(i) mureh(i) Bhirr(i) = die in the battlefield while fighting like a valiant. Hoveh(i) Dhoorr = become dust of others' feet; show extreme humility. Laykha Likhiyaiy = account of meaningful deeds. 2.

MEANING: People try to please Waheguru in many different ways. Some people recite mantras, play music, or read the Vedas, while others meditate, engage in religious discussions, or follow Yogic techniques to please Him. Some people try to show their love for Waheguru by adorning themselves with religious symbols, or by offering Him money or other valuables, while others roam naked and visit holy places. Some people give gifts of various kinds (to Brahmans), thinking of it as a highly noble deed, while others go to secluded places and sit quietly in meditation. Some people lay down their lives fighting valiantly on the battlefield to please Waheguru, while others pretend to be very humble. However, Waheguru is not pleased by any of such efforts. The only thing that counts in Waheguru's Court to please Him is to recite His Naam with love and dedication, oh Nanak. 2.

ਮਹਲਾ 1॥ ਨਵ ਛਿਅ ਖਟ ਕਾ ਕਰੇ ਬੀਚਾਰੁ॥ ਨਿਸਿ ਦਿਨ ਉਚਰੈ ਭਾਰ ਅਠਾਰ॥ ਤਿਨਿ ਭੀ ਅੰਤੁ ਨ ਪਾਇਆ ਤੋਹਿ॥ ਨਾਮ ਬਿਹੂਣ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਕਿਉ ਹੋਇ॥ ਨਾਭਿ ਵਸਤ ਬ੍ਰਹਮੈ ਅੰਤੁ ਨ ਜਾਣਿਆ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਨਾਨਕ ਨਾਮੁ ਪਛਾਣਿਆ॥ 3॥

Mehla 1: Nuv, chhay, khut ka kuray beechaar(u). Nis(i) din oochraiy bhaar athaar. Tinh(i) bhee unt(u) na paaya Toh(i). Naam bihoon mookut(i) kiyoun hoyay? Naabh(i) vust Brahmaiy unt(u) na jaaniya. Gurmukh(i) Nanak, Naam(u) puchhaaniya. 3.
Word Meaning: Nuv = nine (grammars). Chhay = six (Shastras). Khut = six Vedaangs (books explaining the Vedas) Nis Din = night and day. Oochraiy = chants. Atthaar = eighteen (Puranas). Unt(u) = end. Toh(i) = Yours. Bihoon = without; devoid of. Naabh(i) = navel Vust = residing (Brahma was born out of the lotus flower growing in the navel of Vishnu). 3.
MEANING: The people who ponder on the nine books of Grammar, the six Shastras, the six Vedaangs, or read the 18 Puranas day and night, cannot find the limits of Waheguru (no matter how hard they try). How can one find emancipation without Waheguru's Naam? Even Brahma, who is believed to be the creator of all life, and who was born out of the lotus flower growing in the navel of Vishnu, could not find its end. The man cannot find Waheguru's limits, but can only connect with Him - that too only in the shelter of the Guru – oh, Nanak. 3.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਆਪੇ ਆਪਿ ਨਿਰੰਜਨਾ ਜਿਨਿ ਆਪੁ ਉਪਾਇਆ॥ ਆਪੇ ਖੇਲੁ ਰਚਾਇਓਨੁ ਸਭੁ ਜਗਤੁ ਸਬਾਇਆ॥ ਤ੍ਰੈ ਗੁਣ ਆਪਿ ਸਿਰਜਿਅਨੁ ਮਾਇਆ ਮੋਹੁ ਵਧਾਇਆ॥ ਗੁਰ ਪਰਸਾਦੀ ਊਬਰੇ ਜਿਨ ਭਾਣਾ ਭਾਇਆ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਚੁ ਵਰਤਦਾ ਸਭ ਸਚਿ ਸਮਾਇਆ॥ 1॥
Paurri: Aapay Aap(i) Nrunjunaa, Jinh(i) Aap(u) oopaaya. Aapay khayl(u) ruchaayoan(u) subh(u) jugut(u) subaaya. Traiy goon Aap(i) sirjiun(u), Maya moh(u) vudhaaya. Gur persaadi oobray, jin(h) Bhaana bhaaya. Nanak Sach(u) vertda, subh Sach(i) samaya. 1.
Word Meaning: Nirunjunaa = Waheguru. Oopaaya = created. Khayl(u) = drama (of the world). Subaaya = the whole. Traiy Goon = the Maya with three effects. Sirjiun = created. Moh(u) = attachment. Oobray = salvaged. Bhaana Bhaaya = liked the Will (of God). Vertda = operates. Smaaya = get absorbed.
MEANING: Waheguru created Himself and the whole world as His drama. He is above the effects of Maya, but has created it with its three effects. He has implanted love for Maya in the minds of the people who operate (spend life) under their influence. But those who like (and obey) Waheguru's Will get salvaged with the grace of the Guru. It is the eternal Waheguru (His Laws) which governs the whole Universe, and eventually everybody gets absorbed into Him, oh Nanak. 1.

(ਅੰਗ 1238)॥ ਸਲੋਕ ਮਹਲਾ 2॥ ਆਪਿ ਉਪਾਏ ਨਾਨਕਾ ਆਪੇ ਰਖੈ ਵੇਕ॥ ਮੰਦਾ ਕਿਸ ਨੋ ਆਖੀਐ ਜਾ ਸਭਨਾ ਸਾਹਿਬੁ ਏਕੁ॥ ਸਭਨਾ ਸਾਹਿਬੁ ਏਕੁ ਹੈ ਵੇਖੈ ਧੰਧੈ ਲਾਇ॥ ਕਿਸੈ ਥੋੜਾ ਕਿਸੈ ਅਗਲਾ ਖਾਲੀ ਕੋਈ ਨਾਹਿ॥ ਆਵਹਿ ਨੰਗੇ ਜਾਹਿ ਨੰਗੇ ਵਿਚੇ ਕਰਹਿ ਵਿਥਾਰ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਹੁਕਮੁ ਨ ਜਾਣੀਐ ਅਗੈ ਕਾਈ ਕਾਰ॥ 1॥
(PAGE 1238): Sloak Mehla 2: Aap(i) oopaayay Nanaka, Aapay rukhaiy vayk. Munda kis nu aakhiyaiy, ja subhnaa Sahib(u) Aik(u). Subhnaa Sahib(u) Aik(u) haiy, vaykhaiy, dhundhaiy laayay. Kisaiy thorra, kisaiy ugla, khaali koyee naah(i). Aaveh(i) nungay, jaah(i) nungay, vichay kuray vithaar. Nanak Huqam(u) na jaaniyaiy, uggaiy kaayi kaar. 1.
Word Meaning: Oopaayay = creates. Vayk = distinct. Munda = bad. Vaykhaiy = observes. Dhundhaiy = deeds related to Maya. Ugla = excessive. Khaali = empty; without. Vithaar = expansion. Uggaiy = Waheguru's Court. Kaar = kind of deeds. 1.
MEANING: Waheguru creates all human beings and yet keeps them distinct (in appearance and nature). Who can be called bad when everybody is created by the same Lord? It is the same Lord of everybody who puts them to perform worldly tasks and watches their performance. Some get a smaller share of wealth, while others get a much greater share, but nobody is completely empty of it. The man is born empty-handed and leaves the world empty-handed, yet he tries to accumulate more and more possessions throughout his life. Also, nobody knows what kind of tasks he will have to perform in his next life with Waheguru's Huqam (Will), oh Nanak. 1.

ਮਹਲਾ 1॥ ਜਿਨਸਿ ਥਾਪਿ ਜੀਆ ਕਉ ਭੇਜੈ ਜਿਨਸਿ ਥਾਪਿ ਲੈ ਜਾਵੈ॥ ਆਪੇ ਥਾਪਿ ਉਥਾਪੈ ਆਪੇ ਏਤੇ ਵੇਸ ਕਰਾਵੈ॥ ਜੇਤੇ ਜੀਅ ਫਿਰਹਿ ਅਉਧੂਤੀ ਆਪੇ ਭਿਖਿਆ ਪਾਵੈ॥ ਲੇਖੈ ਬੋਲਣੁ ਲੇਖੈ ਚਲਣੁ ਕਾਇਤੁ ਕੀਚਹਿ ਦਾਵੈ॥ ਮੂਲਿ ਮਤਿ ਪਰਵਾਣਾ ਏਹੋ ਨਾਨਕੁ ਆਖਿ ਸੁਣਾਏ॥ ਕਰਣੀ ਉਪਰਿ ਹੋਏ ਤਪਾਵਸੁ ਜੇ ਕੋ ਕਹੈ ਕਹਾਏ॥ 2॥

Mehla 1: Jinus(i) thaap(i) jeeyaan kuou bhayjaiy, jinus(i) thaap(i) laiy jaavaiy. Aapay, thaap(i), oothaapaiy, Aapay aitay vays kuraavaiy. Jaytay jea, phieh(i) aoudhooti, Aapay bhikyiya paavaiy. Laykhaiy boalun(u), laykhaiy chullun(u), kaayit(u) keecheh(i) daavaiy. Mool(i) mut(i) pervaana ehou, Nanak(u) aakh(i) soonaayay. Kerni oopur(i) hoyay tupaavus(u), jayko kuhhaiy kuhaayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Jinus(i) = of different kinds. Thaap(i) = creating. Bhayjiay = sends in the world. Oothaapaiy = dismantles; destroys. Vays = looks; forms. Aoudhooti = beggars. Bhikhiya Paavaiy = gives alms; fulfils their needs. Laykhaiy = in record. Kaayit(u) = what for? Keecheh(i) Daavaiy = make claims. Mool(i) Mut(i) = the basic wisdom (truth). Pervaana = accepted fact. Kerni = deeds performed. Tupaavus = final decision. Kuhhaiy Kuhaayay = says; claims. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru sends (creates) living beings of many different kinds in the world, and then takes them away. He creates them in many different forms and destroys them. All the living beings that wander on the earth are all beggars at Waheguru's Door, and He gives them alms (fulfils their needs). All men are talking, and their actions take place as per their prewritten nature (fate), so what claim can men lay on their achievements? The most fundamental truth is that the final decision on man's future fate rests on his deeds in his present life, oh Nanak. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਚਲਤੁ ਰਚਾਇਓਨੁ ਗੁਣ ਪਰਗਟੀ ਆਇਆ॥ ਗੁਰਬਾਣੀ ਸਦ ਉਚਰੈ ਹਰਿ ਮੰਨਿ ਵਸਾਇਆ॥ ਸਕਤਿ ਗਈ ਭ੍ਰਮੁ ਕਟਿਆ ਸਿਵ ਜੋਤਿ ਜਗਾਇਆ॥ ਜਿਨ ਕੈ ਪੋਤੈ ਪੁੰਨੁ ਹੈ ਗੁਰੁ ਪੁਰਖੁ ਮਿਲਾਇਆ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਹਜੇ ਮਿਲਿ ਰਹੇ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮਿ ਸਮਾਇਆ॥ 2॥

Paurri: Gurmukh(i) chulut(u) ruchaayoin(u), goon perguti aayaa. Gurbani sud oochraiy. Hur(i) munn(i) vusaaya. Shukut(i) guyyi, bherm(u) kuttiya, Shiv Joat(i) jugaaya. Jinh kaiy poataiy, poonn(u) haiy, Gur(u) Purakh(u) milaaya. Nanak sehjay mil(i) ruhhay, Hur(i) Naam(i) samaya. 2.

Word Meaning: Chulut(u) = amazing feat. Ruchaayoin = has created. Perguti Aaya = appears; acquires. Oochraiy = recites. Shukut(i) = (the effects of) Maya. Bherm(u) = illusions. Shiv Joat(i) = Waheguru's Light. Poataiy = in fate. Poonn(u) = noble qualities. Purakh = manifestation of Waheguru. Sehjay = in high spiritual state. Smaaya = absorbed.2.

MEANING: It is another amazing fact of Waheguru that He has created the spiritual world in such a way that noble qualities appear (begin to dominate) in man's mind only in the shelter of the Guru. Such a devotee always recites the Guru's Shabad and embeds (enshrines) Waheguru's Naam in his heart. The illusions of Maya are dispelled, and Waheguru's Light enlightens his mind. Those who have noble deeds preordained in their fate connect with the Guru, a manifestation of Waheguru. Such devotees stay connected with Waheguru in their high spiritual state, oh Nanak. 2.

ਸਾਰਗ ਮਹਲਾ 2॥ ਸਾਹ ਚਲੇ ਵਣਜਾਰਿਆ ਲਿਖਿਆ ਦੇਵੈ ਨਾਲਿ॥ ਲਿਖੇ ਉਪਰਿ ਹੁਕਮੁ ਹੋਇ ਲਈਐ ਵਸਤੁ ਸਮ੍ਹਾਲਿ॥ ਵਸਤੁ ਲਈ ਵਣਜਾਰਣੀ ਵਖਰੁ ਬਧਾ ਪਾਇ॥ ਕੇਈ ਲਾਹਾ ਲੈ ਚਲੇ ਇਕਿ ਚਲੇ ਮੂਲੁ ਗਵਾਇ॥ ਥੋੜਾ ਕਿਨੈ ਨ ਮੰਗਿਓ ਕਿਸੁ ਕਹੀਐ ਸਾਬਾਸਿ॥ ਨਦਰਿ ਤਿਨਾ ਕਉ ਨਾਨਕਾ ਜਿ ਸਾਬਤੁ ਲਾਏ ਰਾਸਿ॥ 1॥

Sarang Mehla 2: Shah chullay vunjaariya, likhiya dayvaiy naal(i). Likhay oopur(i) Huqam(u) hoyay, luyyiyaiy vust(u) smaahl(i). Vust luyyi vunjaaryeen, vukhur(u) buddha paayay. Kayee laaha laiy chullaiy, ikk(i) chullay mool(u) guvaayay. Thorra kinaiy na mungiyo, kis(u) kuhhiyaiy shaabaash(i). Nudr(i) tinha kuou Nanaka j(i) saabut(u) laayay raas(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Shah = the King (Waheguru). Vunjaariya = traders; dealers. Likhiya = the result of the previous deeds (fate). Huqam(u) Hoyay = the human beings act accordingly. Vust(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Smaahl(i) = take good care. Vukkhur(u) = the merchandize) of noble qualities. Laaha = benefit. Mool(u) = the original qualities. Mungiyo = ask for. Shaabaash(i) = accolades to. 1.

MEANING: The man is a trader (of noble or ignoble qualities) sent by Waheguru in this world. He brings his prewritten fate with him at his birth. The kind of man's deeds depend upon his nature, as coined by Waheguru's Huqam, but Waheguru's Light (noble qualities) is present in everybody, which he needs to take good care of. Every human trader uses his qualities and performs deeds accordingly; his deeds form the basis of Waheguru's decision for his next life. Some of the human traders use their noble qualities to earn spiritual benefit (wealth) (by reciting Waheguru's Naam) before they leave the world, while others get so engrossed in worldly enjoyment that they forget Waheguru completely, and leave the world by losing even the noble qualities they were born with. Each type of trader begs more and more merchandise of their interest, and nobody begs for less. Which of these two kinds of traders will earn accolades in Waheguru's Court? Only those individuals will earn Waheguru's kind sight (approval) who invest to acquire more noble qualities (His Naam), oh Nanak. 1.

ਮਹਲਾ 1॥ ਜੁੜਿ ਜੁੜਿ ਵਿਛੁੜੇ ਵਿਛੁੜਿ ਜੁੜੇ॥ ਜੀਵਿ ਜੀਵਿ ਮੁਏ ਮੁਏ ਜੀਵੇ॥ ਕੇਤਿਆ ਕੇ ਬਾਪ ਕੇਤਿਆ ਕੇ ਬੇਟੇ ਕੇਤੇ ਗੁਰ ਚੇਲੇ ਹੂਏ॥ ਆਗੈ ਪਾਛੈ ਗਣਤ ਨ ਆਵੈ ਕਿਆ ਜਾਤੀ ਕਿਆ ਹੁਣਿ ਹੂਏ॥ ਸਭੁ ਕਰਣਾ ਕਿਰਤੁ ਕਰਿ ਲਿਖੀਐ ਕਰਿ ਕਰਿ ਕਰਤਾ ਕਰੇ ਕਰੇ॥ ਮਨਮੁਖਿ ਮਰੀਐ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਤਰੀਐ ਨਾਨਕ ਨਦਰੀ ਨਦਰਿ ਕਰੇ॥ 2॥

Mehla 1: Joorr(i), joorr(i) vichhurray, vichhurr(i) joorray. Jeev(i), jeev(i) mooyay, mooyay jeevay. Kaytiyaan kay baap, kaytiyaan kay baytay, kaytay gur, chaylay hooyay. Aagaiy, paachhaiy gunut na aavaiy, kiyya jaati, kiyya hoon(i) hooyay. Subh(u) kerna kirt(u) kur(i) likhiyaiy, kur(i), kur(i) Kerta, kuray, kuray. Munmukh(i) muriyaiy, Gurmukh(i) turiyaiy, Nanak Nudri nudr(i) kuray. 2.

Word Meaning: Joorr(i) = put together. Vichhurray = separated. Jeev(i) = having lived. Mooyay = died. Chaylay = disciples. Aagaiy Paachhaiy = future and past. Jaati = know. Kerna = performance of deeds. Kirt(u) Kur(i) = result of deeds performed. Nudri = the merciful (Waheguru). Nudr(i) = kind sight. 2.

MEANING: The separation of body and soul, and their reunion, is an ongoing natural cycle. Man lives and dies; dies, and is born again. In this cycle, the man becomes father to many, and son to many others. In one life, he is a guru to many; in another, he becomes a disciple of someone else. Nobody can keep track of such lives in the past or the future, and nobody even knows what will happen next, even in this life. Waheguru keeps account of everybody's good and bad deeds, and makes a decision on them for their future lives. The followers of their mind (Maya-worshippers) die spiritual death, while the devotees of the Guru are salvaged with the kind sight of the merciful Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Dooja Bherm(u) = illusions of the other (Maya). Lobhaaya = engrossed in. Koorr(u) = falsehood. Kupt(u) = deceit. Allaaya = talk. Kluttar(u) = wife. Moh(u) = attachment. Hayt(u) = love. Subaaya = all. Jum Dur(i) = in the court of the Angel of death. Maariyeh(i) = are punished. Bhermeh(i) = go through (many lives). Bhaaya = is liked by. 3.
MEANING: The follower of his mind is influenced by the illusions of Maya and gets engrossed in that. Such individuals deal in falsehood, deceit, and lies. Their love and bonds of attachment for their wife and their sons cause suffering. Tied in the court of the Angel of Death, they get punishment and are taken through many different lives. The followers of their mind waste away their precious human life, and this is what Waheguru likes too (it is His Huqam), oh Nanak. 3.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮਹਲਾ 2॥ ਜਿਨ ਵਡਿਆਈ ਤੇਰੇ ਨਾਮ ਕੀ ਤੇ ਰਤੇ ਮਨ ਮਾਹਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਿਤੁ ਏਕੁ ਹੈ ਦੂਜਾ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਿਤੁ ਨਾਹਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਿਤੁ ਮਨੈ ਮਾਹਿ ਪਾਈਐ ਗੁਰ ਪਰਸਾਦਿ॥ ਤਿਨ੍ਹੀ ਪੀਤਾ ਰੰਗ ਸਿਉ ਜਿਨ ਕਉ ਲਿਖਿਆ ਆਦਿ॥ 1॥

Word Meaning: Vudiyaayi = greatness; importance. Tay = those. Ruttay = are imbued. Amrit(u) = immortalizing substance. Rung Siyoun = with love. Aad(i) = from the very beginning. 1.
MEANING: Those who recognize the greatness (importance) of Your Naam get imbued in Your love, oh Waheguru. There is only one immortalizing substance in the world (Waheguru's Naam, which connects one with Him), and none other. Waheguru's Naam, which is the real Amrit, is present hidden in every heart, but can be acquired (enshrined in the heart) only with the grace of the Guru. Only those drink it, who have it prewritten in their fate from the very beginning, oh Nanak. 1.

(ਅੰਗ 1239)॥ ਮਹਲਾ 2॥ ਕੀਤਾ ਕਿਆ ਸਾਲਾਹੀਐ ਕਰੇ ਸੋਇ ਸਾਲਾਹਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਏਕੀ ਬਾਹਰਾ ਦੂਜਾ ਦਾਤਾ ਨਾਹਿ॥ ਕਰਤਾ ਸੋ ਸਾਲਾਹੀਐ ਜਿਨਿ ਕੀਤਾ ਆਕਾਰੁ॥ ਦਾਤਾ ਸੋ ਸਾਲਾਹੀਐ ਜਿ ਸਭਸੈ ਦੇਇ ਆਧਾਰੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਆਪਿ ਸਦੀਵ ਹੈ ਪੂਰਾ ਜਿਸੁ ਭੰਡਾਰੁ॥ ਵਡਾ ਕਰਿ ਸਾਲਾਹੀਐ ਅੰਤੁ ਨ ਪਾਰਾਵਾਰੁ॥ 2॥

Word Meaning: Keeta = created. Salaahiyaiy = praise. Kuray = the Creator. Soyay = that. Aikee Baahra = other than the "One". Akaar(u) =visible world. Adhaar(u) = support; food. Sudeev = everlasting, Bhundaar = treasures. Paaravaar = ends. 2.
MEANING: There is no spiritual benefit to appreciating the creation in the world; one should sing praise of Waheguru, who has created this beautiful world; and there is no other provider than Waheguru, oh my friends. We should appreciate the Creator of the world and the Provider who sustains and nourishes all living beings. Waheguru is eternal, and His treasures are always full. We should sing praise of His greatness (splendour) which has no end, oh Nanak. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਹਰਿ ਕਾ ਨਾਮੁ ਨਿਧਾਨੁ ਹੈ ਸੇਵਿਐ ਸੁਖੁ ਪਾਈ॥ ਨਾਮੁ ਨਿਰੰਜਨ ਉਚਰਾ ਪਤਿ ਸਿਉ ਘਰਿ ਜਾਈ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਬਾਣੀ ਨਾਮੁ ਹੈ ਨਾਮੁ ਰਿਦੈ ਵਸਾਈ॥ ਮਤਿ ਪੰਖੇਰੂ ਵਸਿ ਹੋਇ ਸਤਿਗੁਰੂ ਧਿਆਈ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਆਪਿ ਦਇਆਲੁ ਹੋਇ ਨਾਮੇ ਲਿਵ ਲਾਈ॥ 4॥

Word Meaning: Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Nirunjun = above the effects of Maya (God). Oochraan = I recite. Put(i) Siyoun = with dignity. Ghur(i) = Waheguru's Residence. Bani = routine conversation. Mut(i) = wisdom; mind. Punkhayroo = bird. Vus Hoyay = under control. Dhiyaayi = worship; serve. Liv Laayi = meditate on. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is such a treasure that whoever serves Waheguru (recites His Naam) enjoys all comforts in life. By reciting the Naam of Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, I will reach Waheguru's Residence with honour. The routine conversation of a Sikh of the Guru revolves around Waheguru's Naam, which he embeds in his heart. By remembering Satguru, one can control one's mind, which takes flight like a bird. One deeply meditates on Waheguru's Naam when He becomes benevolent to him, oh Nanak. 4.

Ghullay aaveh(i) Nanaka, sudday ootthi jaah(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Boalna = tell one's problems. Jaan(u) = know-all; omniscient. Cheeri = Huqam; Will; Command. Phiraiy = change. Pervaan(u) = genuine; true. Meer = rajahs. Muluk = master. Slaar = chief of army. Bhulee = acceptable; best. Huth(i) Naah(i) = have no control. Kurlaiy Paah(i) = set on the journey (to His Court). Ghullay = sent. Sudday = called back. 1.

MEANING: What is the use of telling your problems to the omniscient Waheguru who already knows everything about you without you telling Him? Waheguru, whose Command cannot be altered, is the true Lord. All the rajahs, the masters (chiefs) and the army commanders have to obey His Command. So, only the performance of those deeds is the best which are approved by the Lord. Those who have to obey His Command have no control over anything. They leave the world and start on the journey leading to His Court when they are called upon. They have to follow His Command, whatever has been prewritten in their fate. Sent by Waheguru, they come to the world, and leave it when they are called in with His Huqam, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Sift(i) = (Waheguru's) praise. Bukhshiyaiy = given; endowed with. Poataydaar = treasurers. Koonji = key. Bhundaar = treasures. Pervaan(u) = approved. Nudr(i) = kind Sight. Neeshaan(u) =identity card. 2.

MEANING: Those acquire the treasures of Waheguru's Naam who are endowed with singing His praise. They get the treasures who are given the key of Waheguru's Naam. The devotees whose treasures are found to be full of noble qualities are approved in Waheguru's Court. Waheguru casts His kind sight on those who have Waheguru's Naam in their heart as their identification. 2.

Word Meaning: Nirmulaa = purifier. Boojhaiy = realizes. Koyee = rare. Visraiy = forgotten. Saacha = like Waheguru. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = appears. 5.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam purifies the mind, and whoever listens to it, enjoys all comforts in life. But some rare individual realizes this fact, and enshrines the Naam in his heart by listening to it. The individual, who does not forget Waheguru's Naam whether he is resting or standing (working), becomes like Waheguru with His Naam in his heart. Waheguru's Naam is the basis of the life of His devotees, who enjoy all the comforts in life because of the Naam. Waheguru appears in the body and the mind of the devotee who comes to the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 5.

Keh(i), keh(i) kehn(u), kuhaayin aap(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Tooliyeh(i) = weigh; pass the test. Toal = standard weight. Jeeou = soul; mind. Poojjeh(i) = reach; compare. Poora = perfect (like Waheguru). Aakhun(u) = description. Hauli = low; shallow. Mutee = wisdom; thinking. Boal = words. Paani = water; oceans. Kiyoun = how? Kunday Sooniyar(u) = scale used by goldsmiths. Toala = about 11 g. Maasa = about 1 g. Rutuak = about 0.125 g. Poochhiyaan = on being questioned. Poojaayay = justifies. Dhaat(u) = efforts. Kuhaayin(i) Aap(u) = show their importance. 1.

MEANING: One meets the requirements to be approved in Waheguru's Court only if he balances the scale of approval (meets requirements) by placing his soul in the other pan (surrenders his mind to Waheguru). No word can describe the spiritual state of the devotee once He becomes connected with Waheguru, becoming perfect (acquiring the same noble qualities as Waheguru by reciting His Naam and singing His praise). Singing Waheguru's praise is the best words one can say, and has the greatest weight to balance the scale. All other wisdoms and words (than Waheguru's Naam) are of very low quality and are like weighing the earth, the oceans, or the mountains in a goldsmith's scale by placing weights of grams and milligrams in the other pan (which is not possible). The efforts of the foolish and the ignorant are just like that. However, if questioned, the shameless try to justify their efforts. They try to show off by repeating the same thing over and over again, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Aakun(u) = to describe. Soonun(i) = listen to understand. Jaapi = becomes visible; comprehensible. Shabad(u) Bhaakheh(i) = reiterate the same words. Urdh = low. Oordh = high. Urdh(u) Oordh(u) = with great effort. Kihou = something tangible. Roop(u) = form. Jaat(i) = type. Kaarun = means. Ghut = hearts; bodies. Aoughut = in difficult places (like in rocks). Thaap(i) = create. 2.
MEANING: It is impossible to describe all Waheguru's virtues and His form, and to comprehend Him by listening to His description, because He cannot be described in words. But despite this hard fact, many people still try very hard, day and night, to describe Him with words. One could see Him only if He were tangible, but His form and nature cannot be known. Waheguru develops many different means to create all the bodies, some of which are made in hard-to-reach places (but since He is not made, He cannot be seen). It is almost impossible to describe Waheguru; He cannot be seen by merely describing Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Rehsiyaiy = feels blissful. Shaant(i) = peaceful. Triptiyaiy = feel contentment. Oopjaiy = takes root (in the heart). Vudiyaayi = respect. Jaat(i) = high caste. Put(i) = dignity. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Liv Laayi = meditate on. 6.
MEANING: One feels blissful and peaceful by listening to Waheguru's Naam. One feels fully contented by listening to Waheguru's Naam, and all his appetite for worldly attractions is eradicated (satisfied). Waheguru's Naam takes root in one's mind when he listens to it, and he also earns respect. Waheguru's Naam is the highest caste and the dignity for a devotee, and he attains a high spiritual state with the Naam. One should recite Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter when his mind gets fully focused on Waheguru (he gets connected with Him), oh Nanak. 6.

Word Meaning: Jootth(i) = impurity. Raageen = with singing. Bhaydeen = auspicious days due to different positions. Unnee = (not eating) food. Naaheen = taking dips at holy places. Meenh vurhiyain = with rain (which washes things from outside). Dherti = (roaming around on) earth. Paani = self torturing by standing in water for long time. Paunaiy = air; breathing exercises of the yogis. Maah(i) Smaani = by deep meditations.

Niguriyaan = those, who do not take Guru's shelter. Moonh Phayriyaan = turning face away from the Guru (refusing to listen to His Advice).

MEANING: People use many different ways to purify their minds, and hence to please God. For example, some people sing religious songs or study the Vedas, while others believe that certain days related to the sun and the moon are auspicious and observe them accordingly. Some people go without food for some time, or take dips at holy places, or worship god Indra (which is responsible for rain which washes away dust from the trees, vegetation and living beings); and some people roam the earth, and are always on the move, while some others stand in water for long periods to punish themselves to please God, yet some others use yogic breathing exercises. But Guru Nanak Sahib advises that no such means purifies the human mind, which has become impure by turning away from the Guru (by not believing in Him). Such people have no good quality to please God, oh Nanak. 1.

Rajay chooli niyaav kee, purrhiyaan Sach(u) dhiyan(u). Paani chit(u) na dhoopyee, mookh(i) peetaiy tikh jaayay. Paani pitaa haiy jugut ka, phir(i) paani hee subh(u) khaayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Chooliyaan = swooshing mouth with water; gargling. Soochiyaan = mind purifying. Bhur(i) Jaaniy = knows how to perform them. Soortay = the ability to focus mind on something. Giyan = Divine Knowledge. Jut(u) = control on lust. Suntokh = contentment. Girhee = family man. Sut(u) = high morality. Daan(u) = donations to the deserving; service to mankind. Niyaav = justice. Purrhiyaan = educated. Sach(u) Dhiyan = focus on Waheguru's Naam. Tikh Jaayay = thirst is killed. Subh Khaayay = destroys all in many ways.

MEANING: The Brahmans cleanse their mouth by swishing them with water before every meal. But Guru Nanak Sahib calls it merely a meaningless ritual with no spiritual worth. According to Guru Sahib, it is not the act of swooshing the mouth with water that has some spiritual value; one should swoosh (cleanse) their mind to have it enlightened by Waheguru. (It is not only the Brahmans who need to cleanse their mind), People in different situations (positions) can purify their minds by following the high principles in those situations. For example, the individual who can focus his mind should focus it on Divine Knowledge, and the yogis should control their lust. For a Brahman, who lives only on donations, should exercise contentment, and a family man should have high morality and should help the needy (serve mankind). A rajah should provide justice to his subjects, and the educated should focus their mind on Waheguru (God).

Water does not purify anybody's mind, but, yes, it does quench thirst when drunk. Water, which is the father of the world (as no life is possible without it), also causes spiritual death as it leads to sensual pleasures because of its presence in all juices, milk, yogurt, meat, alcohol, and other intoxicants. It can also cause destruction by rain, floods, and drowning. (See Sloak M:1, Malhaar Kee Vaar, Page 1289-90).

Word Meaning: Sidh(i) = success. Sidh(i) Ridh(i) = supernatural powers. Nuou Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Mun Chindiya = as wished. Suntokh = contentment. Kuvla = Maya. Churn Dhiyavaiy = worships feet. Sehj(u) = high spiritual state. Oopjaiy = comes into being; attains. Gurmut(i) = with Guru's Advice. 7.
MEANING: One achieves success in all his tasks, and the supernatural powers follow him (begging to be used) when he listens to Waheguru's Naam (and enshrines it in his mind). One acquires all nine mythical treasures, and all his wishes are fulfilled when he listens to Waheguru's Naam. One becomes fully content, and Maya washes his feet (becomes his slave); he attains the high spiritual state, and enjoys bliss with Waheguru's Naam. But one acquires Waheguru's Naam only in the shelter of the Guru, when he begins to sing Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 7.

Word Meaning: Jummun(u) = birth. Mern(u) = death. Vertun(u) = daily routine. Uggaiy = in front; faced with. Pundaan = bales; packages. Khoolliyaan = open up; unleashed. Chulliya = leaves the world. Uggeen = fires. Daaroo = medication.
MEANING: Without Waheguru's Naam, the man is born in suffering, dies in suffering, and all his dealings in the world are filled with suffering (he gets no peace of mind). Those who study religious books without Waheguru's Naam face suffering, and only suffering. It seems as if there are packages of suffering which get unleashed on the man, and there is no comfort for him. His soul suffers in troubles, and he leaves the world crying in suffering. Man suffers in the fire of discomfort, but his discomfort may be the medicine for comfort, as he is most likely to remember Waheguru in suffering. Singing Waheguru's praise while imbued in His love brings new blissful life for the sufferer, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhuss(u) = ash; dust. Rung(u) = love; enjoyments. Khayh = dirt (disgrace). Bhusso Bhuss(u) = ash and ash only. Kmaavni = earn; accumulate. Dayh = body. Jeeou = soul. Bhussoo Bhuriya = full of ash. Lakhaiy Mungiyain = on being demanded the account. Dusooni = ten times. 2.

MEANING: The enjoyments of the world are worth only as dust (disgrace), and only disgrace in the spiritual realm, oh Nanak. One earns more and more disgrace in such enjoyments, and his body accumulates only disgrace. When the soul leaves the body, it is laden with disgrace. When the account of its deeds is examined in Waheguru's Court, it earns ten times more disgrace, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sooch(i) = purity. Sunjumo = control on senses. Ghut(i) Chaan-na = enlightenment of heart. Aap(u) Boojhiyaiy = analyzes self. Laaha = added benefit. Nimul(u) = pure. Sach(u) = Waheguru (Naam). Oojlay = shiny (with internal purity). 8.

MEANING: People try many different tough ways to maintain the purity of their mind, and to exercise control on their senses, but they become effective automatically when one listens to, Waheguru's Naam (and enshrines it in his mind); and the Angel of death does not even go near him (as he merges into Waheguru). One's darkness of ignorance is dispelled, and his mind is enlightened with Waheguru's Naam. One analyzes himself, and Waheguru's Naam gets enshrined in his mind as the added befit (as spiritual wealth) when he listens to the Naam. All one's sins are washed away, and he becomes pure to get connected with Waheguru by listening to His Naam. One's face glows with purity (he earns respect everywhere including Waheguru's Court) with Waheguru's Naam; however, His Naam can be recited in Guru's shelter only, oh Nanak. 8.

Word Meaning: Naraayin = (idols of) Vishnu. Subha Naal(i) = with other idols. Navaal(i) = bathes. Koonggo = vermillion. Chunnun(u) = sandalwood. Churaayay = offers. Munaayay = tries to please. Maanooaan = from other men. Mung(i) = begging. Undhi Kummeen = deeds of ignorance. Undh = more ignorance. Sujaayay = punishment. Juggrra = misleading discussions. Suthaiy = gathering. 1.
MEANING: The Brahman has the idol of Vishnu in his house along with the idols of many other gods and goddesses. He bathes them and performs their ritualistic worship by offering vermillion, sandalwood, and flowers. He drops to their feet and supplicates them. He accepts donations from his donors to eat and to wear. The blind of spiritual knowledge perform deeds of ignorance and get the punishment of more ignorance. The idols cannot provide food for the hungry or save them from death. The ignorant take part in misleading discussions at gatherings of the ignorant.

Word Meaning: Subbhaiy = all. Soortee = meditating. Joag = yogic techniques. Bayd = the Vedas. Kernay = performances. Tup = self-afflictions. Soodh(i) = wisdom. Amar = reigns. Khaan = foods. Maanus = men. Dev = gods. Pooriyaan = kigdoms of gods. Khund = worlds. Kulaam = pen. Kermee Vuhhaiy = the pen writes the deeds. subhaa = assembly. Debaan(u) = Court; judgment; rule. 2.
MEANING: It is Waheguru's Will (Huqam) that prevails everywhere, no matter what the individuals do. Be it the meditators, the yogis, the readers of the Vedas and the Puranas; self-afflicters, or singers of songs of devotion; be it the wise people, people with noble thinking, pilgrims, kings, rulers, and all those who enjoy happiness and good food, they perform their respective duties by the Will of Waheguru. All humans, all gods, all yogis with deep meditations, all kingdoms of gods, all worlds, and all living beings in the universe are under His control, and He keeps account of the deeds of everyone. Word Meaning: Oopjaiy = comes into being. Put(i) Paayiyaiy = earn respect. Bhuvjul(u) Lunghiyaiy = swim across the world-sea. Bighun = impediment. Punth Pergta = the journey of life becomes clear. Loyee = light (to show the path). Soyee = God. 9.

MEANING: When one brings full faith in Waheguru's Naam and recites it with love and respect, his mind becomes a home of bliss, and he attains the high spiritual state. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, one earns respect everywhere and swims across the world-sea without any hurdle. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, the mind of the devotee is fully enlightened, and the journey of life becomes perfectly clear to him. But, one's faith in Waheguru's Naam is reinforced in his mind only in the shelter of the Guru when Waheguru becomes kind enough to grant His Naam to the devotee, oh Nanak. 9.

Word Meaning: Pooriyaan = kingdoms of gods. Kuhundaan = worlds. Sir(i) Kuray = controls mind (against the attractions of all kingdoms and the worlds. Paun(u) Maar(i) = holding breath for long time. Jup(u) = recitation of some mantra. Sir(u) Moondi Tulaiy = stand on head. Tik Tikaiy = base his efforts. Joar(u) = power. Gunay = shows off.

MEANING: If a man controls his mind against all the luxuries of the kingdoms of the gods. and all the worlds, and recites some mantras while standing on only one foot (a very hard labour); or holds his breath, stands on his head, and recites some mantras to please God, which of these techniques he bases his efforts on, and which of these he thinks is the source of his power? The foolish does not understand that God is not pleased by any of such efforts. Everybody does their own thing according to the Will of Waheguru, which keeps everyone under His control, but the foolish think it is they who control their actions. It cannot be said who Waheguru is pleased with, and who He gives His Naam, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: One's whole clan, and his whole family, are salvaged when he brings faith, and enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart. All his associates also find salvation who enshrine the Naam in their mind, and enjoy its sweetness by reciting it with their tongue. All the suffering of their appetite for worldly attractions goes away when they love the Naam deeply from their heart. However, only those who praise (sing) Waheguru's Naam are connected with the Guru (for advice) by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 10.

Word Meaning: Dih = days. Thiti = different phases of the sun and the moon. Vaar = auspicious days. Bhaar = (a measure of) all vegetation. Loe = world. Akaar = heaven bodies. Kaytraa = how large. Kaar = performs; works. Trin(u) = the size of a blade of grass. Bupurreen = poor; helpless. Guvaar = unrefined; ignorant.

MEANING: All nights, all days, all different phases of the sun and the moon, all auspicious days, all seasons, everything on the earth including all the vegetation, all waters, all gases, all fires, all the underworlds, all kingdoms of gods, all worlds, and all heavenly bodies obey Waheguru's Huqam (Will, Command), but nobody can describe how great His Huqam is, and how it works. The poor (humble) who pondered on the virtues of Waheguru, sang His praise; but those who got exhausted while describing Waheguru's Huqam, could get no information on it – not even the size of a dry grass blade, humbly submits ignorant Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ukkheen Pernaiy = with the (speed of) eyes; with the speed of light. Phiraan = roam around. Poochhaan = seek information. Dayvaan = gods. Maansa = humans. Jodh = valiant. Kureh(i) = created. Avatar = gods. Smaadhi = in deep meditation. Durbar(u) = Waheguru's Court. Saar(u) = supreme; the root. Kuchi Mutee = shallow advice (thinking). Kuch(u) Pich(u) = which cannot lead to success. Kemi = with His benevolence. Bundgi = worshipping. Nudr(i) = with kind Sight.

MEANING: If I had the power to travel at the speed of light, and see all the heavenly bodies, and seek information from the knowledgeable pundits about the Vedas; ask the gods, and the men who claim to be valiant and gods; listen to the Sidh yogis in meditation to find out how I can see Waheguru's Court (they are unable to enlighten me). The truth is that the only way to "see" the eternal Waheguru, which is fearless and is the root of the whole universe, is to recite His Naam. Worshipping Him with His benevolence is the only way to swim across the world-sea; all other advice is shallow and unsuccessful; the ideas of the ignorant are like groping for something in the dark, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Doormut(i) = ill advice (thinking). Perguti Aaya = appears. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Ooplaiy = comes into being; grows. Shaant(i) = peace. Ruttan(u) = jewel. 11.

MEANING: The evil thinking of the devotee goes away, and noble thinking is born in his mind if he fosters full faith in (love for) Waheguru's Naam. His selfishness, ego, and all other sufferings are eradicated; Waheguru's Naam takes root in his heart, and he enjoys the bliss of a high spiritual state when he enshrines the Naam there. Word Meaning: Sureek = rival. Toodh(u) = You. Soojaakha = with deep sight. Shaahi Shabadi = written words (of praise). Bhaakhiya = language. Bhaayay Soobhaayi = love and respect. Vudiyaayi = greatness; splendour. 1.

MEANING: It is meaningful for me to sing Your praise before someone else only if he is like You (Your rival), oh Waheguru. To sing Your praise before You is like believing a blind man to have perfect eyesight. All that can be said about You in writing or in words is to sing praise of Your splendour with love and dedication, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ja Na Siya = when (the man was) not there. Chaakri = service)to Waheguru). Kaar = performance; achievement. Kaarun = opportunities. Vaaro Vaaro = continuously. Choopaiy = silence (without asking). Mungtay = beggars. Dataar(u) = the Provider (God). Phir(i) Dakheh(i) = have travelled and seen. Akaar(u) = whole creation. Jeevaiy = long live. 2.

MEANING: When the man was not even there (not born) yet, how could he have served Waheguru; and what does he do after he is born? Waheguru creates all opportunities (for people to do their deeds) and continuously watches the actions of the individuals. Whether one asks or begs for His gifts, the Provider (Waheguru) delivers them anyway. I have seen the whole world and found out that Waheguru is the only provider for everybody. Word Meaning: Soort(i) = Divine wisdom. Goon Oochraiy = sings God's virtues (praise). Bherm(u) Kuttiyaiy = illusions are destroyed. Salaahiyaiy = sing praise. 12.

MEANING: Divine wisdom and noble thinking take birth in the mind of the devotee who recites Waheguru's Naam with full faith; He sings Waheguru's praise and enjoys all comforts. All illusions and misgivings of such a devotee are dispelled, and he never suffers again. His sinful thinking is washed away, and he sings Waheguru's praise. Word Meaning: Huoun = I; selfishness and ego. Shukta = all powerful. Soorta = wise. Shaktee = Maya. Puroveh(i) = strings to; attaches to. Bhayjay = sends. Sudday = calls back. Naayi = greatness. Sach(u) = Naam. Dhoor(i) = from the source; from the beginning. Laykhaiy = is given credit. 2.

MEANING: When I surrender myself to You, I feel that the whole world belongs to me, and I do not suffer from any selfishness or ego, and I find You present in my mind, oh Waheguru. I also realize that You are all-powerful and wise, and it is You who has created the attachment of the world with Maya. It is You who sends people into the world and calls them back too; You create everything and look after it. You are everlasting, and so is Your greatness; Waheguru has made this the permanent Law from the beginning that only His Naam is given credit in His Court, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Nirunjun = (Waheguru) above the effects of Maya. Alukh(u) = incomprehensible. Vertda = operates. Ruvviya = is present. Nudri = kind sight of Waheguru. Kerm(u) = benevolence. 13.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is always in our hearts, but how can we comprehend, and enshrine it in our heart because it is incomprehensible? The Source of Naam (Waheguru) is present everywhere and operates in the world. The Naam can be acquired only with the grace of the Perfect Guru, who shows it in our heart. Word Meaning: Kul(i) = Kulyug(i); the world. Kootaymoohi = dog-mouthed (greedy like dog). Khaaj(u) = favourite food. Moordaar(u) = immoral earnings. Bhaunkuna = barking; false justification. Chooka = ended. Dherm Beechaar(u) = moral thinking (and actions). Jeevundiyaan = while living. Mundi Soyay = disgraceful. Kerta = Creator. Su = that. 1.

MEANING: The world has become greedy like the dog, and immoral earnings (usurping others' rights) have become its favourite food. People justify their actions by barking (telling lies); all moral thinking and actions have become things of the past. Those who have no respect while living in society are disgraced even after their death. All that happens as per their prewritten fate, and only with the Will of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Runna = women. Bodhiyaan = advisers. Suyyaad = butchers. Seel(u) = sweet nature. Sunjum(u) = control on senses (desires). Sooch = purity of mind. Bhunni = ran away. Ahaaj = indigestible (earned with immoral ways). Sherm = shame; morality. Ghur(i) Appnay = far away. Put(i) = dignity. Ootth(i) Chulli Naal(i) = accompanies. Bhaal(i) = look for. 2.

MEANING: (Wonder, what has happened to the world), the men have become butchers (usurp others' wealth) while the women have become their advisors. Sweet nature, control of senses, and mental purity have run away, and usurping the wealth of others has become their favourite food. Shame (morality) has gone far away, and dignity (of labour) has accompanied the shame. Word Meaning: Baahur(i) = outwardly. Bhusm Laypun = coating of ash. Goobaari = darkness. Khinda = a quilt of rags. Jholi = a large bag to collect dry food. Bhaykh = symbols of Yogic faith. Doormut(i) = evil thinking; ill-advised. Ahunkaari = egoist. Sahib Shabad = words in praise of Lord. Pusaari = show off. Laaluch(u) = greed. Bherm(u) = illusions of Maya. Bhemay = wanders around misled. Gavaari = foolish. Chaytyee = remembers. Jooyaiy = in gambling. Baaji Haari = loses game of life. 14.

MEANING: A yogi coats his body with ash (to give the false impression of his spirituality), but has the darkness of ignorance inside. He wears the symbols of faith, including a quilt of rags and a long bag for collecting dry food, but the ill-advised yogi is highly egoistic on the inside. He says no word in praise of God, and all his symbols are only a show off, and he wears them only for his love for Maya. Jhukhnaa = do (or say) something unwise for which one may have to repent (enjoy luxuries). Jhuggrra Jhaakh(i) = a sustained habit of enjoying luxuries. Jaah(i) = leave the world. Tinh Paas(i) = attracted to them. 1.

MEANING: One may have millions of loving people, may live for millions of years, and may have millions of excitements and zest in life, but they all become painful when he is separated from them (by death), and they all quickly disappear in a moment. Even if a man enjoys comforts for hundreds of years, he must eventually taste the bitterness of separation. At that time (time of death), he does not remember any of those comforts when the bitter pain of death overwhelms him quickly. At the end, the sensual pleasures he had enjoyed unwisely cause humiliation for him; so the enjoyments and the painful death, both become sources of suffering at the end. But his immoral worldly enjoyments become a sustained part of his nature for his future life after death, and he is born again, and again because of his love for them. 1.

Word Meaning: Kaatth(u) = wooden (furniture). Raang(i) = coat with colours. Guch Keetay = coated with lime. Baagay Baag = shining white. Saad = taste. Sehj = comfort. Khaylaaya = entertained. Taiyn Shah = Your Lordship. Kehn(u) Kuhaaya = invites displeasure. Kaurra = (with) bitter (results). Roag(u) Jumaaya = caused ailment. Mittha = Waheguru's sweet Naam. Payrraiy Paayay = have in fate. Kaurrtun(u) = bitterness; discomfort. Chookus(i) = ends. Praaput(i) = have in fate. 2.

MEANING: (Without realizing the real purpose of human life), the ignorant man enjoys the luxuries of expensive clothes, paints his furniture with different colours, and whitewashes his house to give it a shiny look. He entertains his mind with the comfort of delicious tastes, but invites the displeasure of the Lord. Actually, all such enjoyments are like sugar-coated bitter pills (which cause pain later). The resulting bitterness becomes a permanent discomfort for him. However, if he is lucky to have Waheguru's Naam in his fate, then his discomforts go away. But only that individual acquires the Naam with the grace of the Guru, who has it prewritten in his fate, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Maiyl(u) = filth; impurity. Kupt(u) = deceit. Koorr(u) = dishonesty. Kumaavnday = practise. Perguti Aaya = shows; exposes them. Chhupaiy = stay hidden. Koorraiy = (of the) short-living. Laaluch(u) = greed. Jooni = in different life forms. Beejaiy = sows. Su = that. 15.

MEANING: Those who have filth and deceit in their mind, but look respectable outwardly, practise dishonesty and deceit in life, which eventually exposes their real nature, which cannot stay hidden forever, even if they try their best to hide it. Because of their greed for the perishable, they are reborn again and again. It is the Law of the Creator that one reaps the rewards of what he sows, oh Nanak. 15.

Nanak uggoun haumein tootaiy, ta ko likhiyaiy laykhaiy. 1.

Word Meaning: Kutha Kuhaani = stories. Aani = brought (to the people). Poonn(u) = (perceived) noble deeds. Avatar = births. Ootum = superior; higher. Mudhim = low. Jinseen = kinds. Bherm(i) Bhuvvaiy = misled by illusions. Tutt(u) = the root of the universe (Waheguru). Vukhaani = explains. Giyan = by pondering over the virtues. Dhiyan = focusing mimnd on. Gurmukh(i) = the Guru. Jaati = understood. Soorteen = meditators; wise. Kerm(i) = with benevolence. Saaj(i) = by creating. Uggoun = first; before. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Likhiyaiy Laykhaiy = is given credit. 1.

MEANING: The Vedas have brought stories about the perceived noble deeds and the sins to the world. They discuss the kinds of deeds that result in people going to hell or to paradise after their death, and explain that one receives the donations given in this life in their next incarnation and has to return what they received in this life. As a result of their teachings, the world is misled into believing that they need to perform certain deeds based on their higher or lower caste. (Thus, there is no room for praise of Waheguru, which is central to the teachings of Guru Sahiban). On the contrary, the Shabads of Guru Nanak are immortalizing as they are in praise of Waheguru, and explain His greatness. Guru Nanak Sahib revealed (wrote) the Bani when He was connected with Waheguru. He pondered on the Divine Knowledge, He realized its importance, shared it with the masses, and the wise people recited it with Waheguru's benevolence. In a nutshell, Guru's Bani teaches us that Waheguru creates the world with His Laws (Will), controls it with His Laws, and looks after it with His Laws too. And, only that devotee gets credit in His Court, who first controls his selfishness and his ego, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Pookaaray = says aloud. Beeyo = seed. Oogvaiy = grows. Jaanaiy = comes to know. Giyan(u) = Guru's Teachings. Raas(i) = capital; wealth; Waheguru's Naam. Pullaiy Hoyay = acquires; in fate. Baahra = without. Lud(i) = with (spiritual) profit. 2.

MEANING: The Vedas teach loudly that the perceived noble deeds and sins performed by an individual become the seed for his future life whether he will go to paradise or to hell after his death. So, one already knows that he will get the reward of whatever he will sow. Guru's Giyan (Teachings) emphasizes praising Waheguru as being the greatest because only He, and His Naam are eternal. When one sows the seeds of Waheguru's Naam (by reciting it), His Naam grows (appears) in his heart, and he is given an honourable place in Waheguru's Court. The Vedas talk about business (give and take), whereas Guru's Teachings (His Bani) are the true wealth which one acquires with Waheguru's benevolence. Nobody leaves the world with any spiritual benefit (wealth) without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Nimm(u) Birkh(u) = neem tree. Amrit(u) Rus(u) = sweet juices. Sunchiyaiy = irrigate. Bissiur(u) = snake. Visaahiyaiy = tame; under control. Abhinn(u) = which cannot absorb. Ful(u) = fruit; reward. Bikh(u) = poison. 16.

MEANING: Just like the neem tree which does not change its bitter nature even if it is irrigated with sweet juices, and like a snake, which does not change its poisonous nature even if it is tamed (brought under control) with a special mantra, and is fed lots of milk, the follower of his mind stays unmoved (and does not change his obstinacy). He is like a rock that does not absorb water, even after being washed many, many times. If a poisonous tree is irrigated with ambrosial water, its fruit will still be poisonous. However, the poisonous nature (obstinacy) of the person who follows his mind is eradicated if Waheguru puts him in the company of holy men, oh Nanak. 16.

dumaamiya, chhoottay bunk dooaar. Nanak, dhayri chhaar(u) kee, bhee phir(i) hoyee chhaar. 1.

Word Meaning: Mern(i) = death. Moorut(u) = auspicious (right) moment. Thit(i) = date. Vaar(u) = day of the week. Ikkni = some. Luddiya = loaded; acquired bad qualities. . Budhay Bhaar = are loading their minds with sins. Saakhti = readiness; being groomed to be pure. Saar = looked after (have been approved). Lushkur = armies. Dumaamiya = drums. Bunk Dooar = beautiful houses. Dhayri = pile Chhaar(u) = dust. Bhee = too.

MEANING: Death does not ask people for the right moment, the date, or the day of the week. Some people have loaded themselves (with bad qualities), some have already left loaded with sins, while some others are still loading their minds with sins. (On the other hand) Waheguru grooms some people to be pure, while others have already been well cared for (have been approved in Waheguru's Court). (In any case, everybody has to leave), all one's riches, including large armies, the kettledrums, and the beautiful houses, are left behind. Word Meaning: Ninda = vilification. Doosht = evil. Nuck-Vuddhay = disgraced. Kuroop = ugly. Kaalay Mooh = with blackened face; disgraceful. Bhulkay = in the morning. Pur Derb(u) = wealth of others. Hireh(i) = steal. Chooraaya = deprived of. Sungut(i) = company. Mut Kurhou = do not put in. Puyyaa Kirt = result of deeds done. 17.

MEANING: The people who have the evil nature of vilifying others, disgrace many others by their malicious criticism, but they get disgraced too at the end when they are exposed. They look very ugly (because of their filthy mind), are always miserable, and get their faces blackened (fall from grace), which is the nature of Maya. Devoid of Waheguru's Naam, they rise early in the morning and steal the wealth of others. Kindly protect me, and do not put me in the company of such people, oh Waheguru. Word Meaning: Khusm = Lord. Puchhanaiy = recognize; obey. Aap(u) = self. Sehla = successful; blissful.
MEANING: Everybody belongs to the Lord and is created by Him. One acquires Him (His Naam) in his heart if he recognizes (and obeys) His Huqam. In the shelter of the Guru, when one analyzes himself (that everybody is created by Waheguru, and the purpose of human life is to connect with Him), he finds that nobody is bad. The devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, finds his life to be successful (attains emancipation), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = Guru's Sikh. Shaant(i) = peace. Ooguv(i) = appeared. Jup = recitation of some mantra. Tup = endure hardships. Sunjum = control on senses. Bhaaya = liked. Shoodh(u) = pure. Soheh(i) = look noble (approved in Waheguru's Court). Turaaya = salvaged.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam appears in the heart of the Guru's Sikh, and he acquires peace in mind. All ritualistic deeds like recitation of mantras, enduring hardships, pilgrimage, and exercising control on senses, are subsumed in Waheguru's Naam when one is liked by Him (He does not need them). Such devotees look highly impressive (exalted) when they sing Waheguru's praise with a pure heart. Waheguru likes His devotees to be emancipated in the Guru's shelter. Word Meaning: Vijoag(i) = because of separation. Aarja = lifespan. Rutta = imbued; engrossed. Bhoag(i) = enjoyments. Jinaiy = wins; success. Phook(i) = air; ego. Thummhiyaiy = stops. Dheh(i) Puvvaiy = collapses. 2.

MEANING: The man is so engrossed in enjoying the luxuries of life that he does not realize that he is nearing his separation from such enjoyments as the span of his life goes on decreasing with every rising sun. Some people believe such a life is success for them, while a few believe that one loses the precious human life in pursuing such luxuries. Everybody is conceited to enjoy sensual pleasures, and does not put brakes on such enjoyments even when advised against them. MEANING: The gathering of holy saints is a treasure of Waheguru's Naam, where one acquires it. Like a piece of iron, which gets converted into gold when touched with an elixir sone, one's mind is enlightened with the grace of the Guru, and the darkness of his ignorance is dispelled when he takes His shelter. One acquires Waheguru's Naam with the grace of the Guru and recites it in His company. Those who have Waheguru's Sight prewritten in their fate get to see Him, oh Nanak. 19.

Waheguru's Court. Daad(i) = accolades; approval. Baad(i) = in useless debates. Daan(u) = spreading Waheguru's Naam. Raah(u) = true path. Shaitaan(u) = devilish.
MEANING: Their life is condemnable who sell Waheguru's Naam in the form of a mantra or a talisman. Such an individual is like the farmer whose crop has been destroyed, hoping to have a big stack (rick) of bales. One does not get any accolades in Waheguru's Court without honest hard labour (to recite and to act on Waheguru's Naam). There is no wisdom wasted in worthless religious debates. The true wisdom is to serve the Lord, and to earn respect with Waheguru's Naam. ਮ:2॥ ਜੈਸਾ ਕਰੈ ਕਹਾਵੈ ਤੈਸਾ ਐਸੀ ਬਨੀ ਜਰੂਰਤਿ॥ ਹੋਵਹਿ ਲਿੰਙ ਝਿੰਙ ਨ ਹੋਵਹਿ ਐਸੀ ਕਹੀਐ ਸੂਰਤਿ॥ ਜੋ ਓਸੁ ਇਛੇ ਸੋ ਫਲੁ ਪਾਏ ਤਾ ਨਾਨਕ ਕਹੀਐ ਮੂਰਤਿ॥ 2॥
M:2: Jaisa kuraiy, kuhaavaiy taiysa, aiysi bunee juroorut(i). Hoveh(i) ling, jhing na hoveh(i), aiysi kuhhiyaiy soorut(i). Jo Oas(u) ichhaiy, so ful(u) paayay, ta Nanak kuhhiyaiy moorut(i). 2.
Word Meaning: Juroorut(i) = need; norm. Ling = healthy body organs; perfect in one's profession. Jhing = missing or damaged parts of the body; lack of skills. Soorut(i) = exemplary; model. Oas = that (Waheguru). Ful(u) = gets the reward. Moorut(i) = image (of Waheguru). 2.
MENING: It has become a norm of society that a man is known by his deeds (or his profession). Based on this norm, a man is considered a model when he is perfect in his profession and lacks no skill in it. Similarly, a devotee of Waheguru is considered perfect and an image of Waheguru, when he has all virtues and no weaknesses. Such a devotee earns the reward of being connected to Waheguru when he yearns to see Him, oh Nanak. 2.
NOTE: If we base the meaning of this holy Shabad on body parts, then many people who are missing some minor body part, but are otherwise wonderful and great people, will be excluded from being human beings with no fault of their own. So, here ling does not mean body part, it implies skills.

Word Meaning: Birkh(u) = tree. Rus(i) Phuliya = fruit filled with sweet juice. Praaput(i) = has in fate. Luhhaiy = acquires. Miliya = connected with God. Bhaanaiy = Will. Sayti = with. Ruliya = mixes well; merges into. Jumkaal(u) = Angel of death. Joh(i) = keep an evil eye. Chaanun Buliya = enlightened. Bukhsh(i) = with benevolence. Gerbh Guliya = suffer in the womb. 20.
MEANING: Satguru is like a tree of Amrit whose fruits are full of the sweet juice of Waheguru's Naam. But only that individual acquires it with the Guru's Shabad, who has it prewritten in his fate. The individual, who obeys Satguru's Will (His Teachings), becomes a part of Waheguru. His mind is enlightened, and the Angel of Death cannot cast an evil sight on him. Such a devotee becomes connected to Waheguru through His benevolence, and he never suffers the pain of rebirths, oh Nanak. 20.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Vert(u) = commitments. Suntokh = contentment. Duyya = compassion. Khima = forgiveness. Jupmaali = rosary. Tay = that. Maanus = man. Perdhan = respectable everywhere. Joogut(i) = (noble) life style. Dhoti = the loose white fabric that the Brahman wears to show his purity. Soort(i) = spiritual wisdom. Chaunka = ritualistically purified kitchen. Tilk(u) = anointment. Kerni = noble deeds. Bhaaou = love for Waheguru. Virla = rare.

MEANING: Most people perform rituals such as idol worship, fasting, pilgrimage, giving donations to Brahmans, and wearing religious symbols, etc., which are spiritually worthless. Guru Nanak Sahib advises such people to have noble qualities and recite Waheguru's Naam. He advises that any commitment one makes should be only to recite Waheguru's Naam; contentment should be one's pilgrimage; and focusing on Waheguru and getting connected with Him should be the devotee's bathing. Compassion should be his idol, and forgiveness the rosary. Such people are respected everywhere (even in Waheguru's Court). Noble lifestyle should be the dhoti of the Brahman, spiritual wisdom (high awareness) should be his purified kitchen, and his noble performance should be the anointment on his forehead. However, there is a rare individual who follows such advice and makes love for Waheguru his mental food, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Naumi = on the ninth day after (new or full moon). Naym = as principle. Trishna = fire of desires. Oochuraiy = consumes; gets rid of. Dusmee = on the tenth day. Dusay Dooaar = the ten body doors; senses. Tthaakaiy = controls. Aikaadshi = on the eleventh day. Dooaadusi = on the twelfth day. Punch Vusgut(i) = control the five demons. Mun(u) Maanaiy = mind is contented. Sikh = advice. Paanday = pundit.

MEANING: People believe some phases of the moon to be highly auspicious and perform many rituals on those days. Guru Amar Dass Ji advises such people to acquire noble qualities and recite Waheguru's Naam on such days (every day) as follows. On the ninth day after the new or the full moon, one should make recitation of Waheguru's Naam to be his main principle, and he should consume (get rid of) his lust, rage, and the fire of his desires. On the tenth day, he should control all ten doors of his body (all his ten senses), and on the eleventh day, he should believe only in the "One" Waheguru. He should control all five demons on the twelfth day (and every day), whereby his mind will be pleased (will be fully contented), oh Nanak. Observe these commitments, what other advice can I offer you (do you need), oh pundit? 2.

Word Meaning: Bhooput = Rajay = kings. Raayay = wealthy. Rung = pauper. Suncheh(i) = accumulate. Bikh(u) Maya = poisonous wealth. Hayt(u) = love. Pur Derb(u) = wealth of others. Kluttar = wife. Viseheh(i) = trust. Dhooh Guyyi = deceives and leaves. Puchhtaaya = repent. Jum Dur(i) = in the court of the Angel of death. Budhay Maariyeh(i) = tied up receive punishment. 21.

MEANING: One may be a rajah, a wealthy person, or a pauper; everybody accumulates the poisonous wealth. Their love for wealth reaches a point where they steal wealth from others as well, and do not even trust their sons or their wives. But wealth deceives them too, and slips away from their hands while they watch helplessly, and repent. Tied in the court of the Angel of justice, such people receive severe punishment, which is the Will (Huqam) of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 21.

Ta kaiy mool(i) na luggiyaiy paayay. Ghaal khaayay kichh(u) huthoun dayay. Nanak raah(u) puchhaaneh(i) sayay.

Word Meaning: Giyan Vihoona = devoid of Divine Knowledge. Geet = religious songs. Museet(i) = mosque. Mukhuttoo = who does not want to work; a lazy bum. . Kunn Purraayay = becomes a faqir (a beggar in the garb of a yogi). Fuqqur(u) Kuray= becomes a faqir. Hoar(u) = and. Jaat(i) Guvaayay = degrades his clan by becoming a beggar. Sudaayay = calls himself. Mool(i) Na = absolutely not. Luggiyiyaiy Paayay = touch feet; show respect. Ghaal(i) Khaayay = earns food by honest means. Huthoun Dayay = gives in charity. Raah(u) = the true path of life. Puchhaaneh(i) Sayay = he recognizes. 1.

MEANING: Devoid of spiritual knowledge, some men sing religious songs only to earn their living. Likewise, the discontented moolah makes the mosque his home (using the offerings there to run his family affairs). A lazy bum gets his ears pierced and becomes a yogi. He goes begging and disgraces his family's name. He calls himself a guru or a peer, but begs from door to door. One should never show any respect for such a lazy bum. Only that individual recognizes the true path (of high morality) of life who earns his living by his own hard work, and still shares some with the needy, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Undhay Koop = deep dark well. Kuhhiyaan = even when explained Bird(u) = responsibility. Oondhaiy Kuvul(i) = inverted hearts. Khuray Kroop = very ugly (foolish). Ikk(i) = some. Sooghurr Sroop = wise and good looking (impressive). Naad = (Guru's) Shabad. Gea = music. Rus(u) = taste. Rus Kus = sweet (good) and sour (bad) tastes. Soodh(i) = wisdom. Boodh(i) = intelligence. Sur = saar = worth. Akkhur = word (of advice). Bhayo = meaning. Luhunt(i) = acquire; understand. Usul = truly. Khur = donkey. J(i) = those. Gerb(u) = conceit.

MEANING: Those with an unenlightened mind are like a deep, dark well (where no light reaches), and they do not realize their human responsibility even after being explained. Their minds are inverted (away from spirituality), and they look very foolish. To the contrary, there are some who know what to say and understand what is explained to them. They are truly wise, and look very impressive (noble). Then, there are some who have no taste for Guru's Shabad, for the Vedas, or for music. They do not know the difference between the good and the bad. Also, there are some who have no wisdom, no intelligence, do not know the worth of wisdom, and do not understand any word of wisdom. But the real donkeys are the people who have an inflated ego without any good quality, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = a Sikh of the Guru. Puvitt(u) = pure; holy; fair. Sumpaiy = wealth. Urth(i) = in the name of. Khurchday = spend. Toat(i) = shortage. Nudr(i) Aanvda = they see Waheguru everywhere. Soot(i) Paaya = spend without any hesitation. 22.

MEANING: All the money, properties, and wealth are pure (fair) for the Sikhs of the Guru, who spend it in the name of Waheguru. They feel blissful when they share it with the needy. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam (and spend money in the name of God), never experience any shortage of that. The Sikhs of the Guru see Waheguru everywhere, and have no hesitation in spending in His Name. Waheguru's devotees do not think of anyone other than Waheguru to be the Supreme, and stay absorbed in His Naam, oh Nanak. 22.

Word Meaning: Vudbhaagi = fortunate. Liv Laagi = meditate on. Gireh Kootumb = family. Sehj Smaadhi = meditate in a high spiritual state. Baiyraagi = renouncers. 1.

MEANING: Those who serve Satguru and stay absorbed in Waheguru with Guru's Shabad are highly fortunate. Even while leading a family life, their mind stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam in a high spiritual state. Imbued in the love of Waheguru's Naam, they are the true renouncers of the world, oh Nanak.

Word Meaning: Guntaiy = keeping account of one's noble deeds. Thaayan Na Paayay = given no credit. Saad(u) = taste; enjoyment. Sach(i) = Waheguru's Naam. Bhaaou = love. Mun Hutth = with the sheer obstinacy of mind. Vikha = step. Agaahaan = forward. Pichhaahaan = backward. Chaakri = service to. Bhaayay = Will. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Sehjaiy = in high spiritual state. 2.

MEANING: One is not serving Waheguru, and his hard labour is not recognized if he makes calculations of his noble deeds and feels conceited about them. He does not relish Guru's Shabad, and does not love Waheguru. He does not develop any love for Satguru, but, by the sheer obstinacy of his mind, he goes to see Him and returns. If he takes one step forward, he takes ten steps backwards (very reluctant to visit Him). One serves Satguru only if he leads his life according to His Will. He can connect with Satguru only if he first kills his selfishness and ego and stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam in a high spiritual state. Those who have been connected to Waheguru through His benevolence never forget His Naam, oh Nanak.2

Word Meaning: Khan = chief. Mulook = rajah. Gurrh = fort. Mundar = palace. Guch Geeriyaan = white washed. Soyin Saakhut(i) = saddles of gold. Paun Vayg = wind-like fast running horses. Dhrig(u) = condemnable; shameful. Chuturaayi = shrewdness. Chhutee Amrit = thirty-six kinds of delicious foods. Maiyl(u) = filth (of mind). Jaan-ni = recognize; be thankful. 23.

MEANING: Even those who call themselves chiefs and rajahs do not get to stay in this world forever. None of their fort-like and white-washed mansions accompanies them. Their wind-like fast running horses with saddles of gold, and their shrewdness, become shameful for them (because they earn them bad credit in Waheguru's Court). The thirty-six kinds of delicious foods that they enjoy simply add to their mental filth. Such worshippers of Maya suffer later because they are never thankful to Waheguru, who endows them with all such gifts, oh Nanak. 23.

Word Meaning: Moani = hermits. Thukkay = exhausted. Daysuntar(i) = in foreign lands. Bhaykhdhaari = members of different sects. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for the other (Maya). Ut(i) Bhaari = immensely. Traiy-Goon = (Maya with) the three effects. Biyohaari = dealers in. Kupt(u) = deceit. Oodur Bhern Kaiy Taayeen = to fill the stomach. Gavaari = foolish. Goon-na = to ponder on. Beechaari = thinker; thoughtful. 1.
MEANING: One can never acquire Waheguru's Naam as long as he loves Maya in some form; actually, they suffer immensely because of their inability to acquire the Naam. The pundits exhaust themselves by reading their holy books; the sages exhaust themselves by staying quiet for very long times, and the members of various sects exhaust themselves by roaming around in the foreign lands, but none of them has realized Waheguru's Naam. The foolish are ignorant, and serve (deal in) Maya with the three effects. They have deceit at heart, but read the holy books simply to earn their living. Only those who enjoy bliss serve Satguru and kill their selfishness and ego. Some rare individual realizes that there is only Waheguru's Naam to be read and pondered upon, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Kiyya Keejaiy = what can be done. Roas(u) = resentment. Kisaiy Siyoun = with whom. Sehjaiy = in high spiritual state. Ruveejaiy = recite. 2.
MEANING: It is Waheguru's Huqam (Will) that the man is to be born empty-handed, and leave the world empty-handed; so, what can one do? Life is given by Waheguru, and He takes it away, so whom can one show any resentment? The Sikh of the Guru obeys Waheguru's Will, and enjoys the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam in the high spiritual state. One should always sing praise of Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts, by reciting His Naam with the tongue, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: The wealthy person wears rich clothes of many different colours, and adorns his fort-like body in many different ways. He invites his friends to enjoy, who settle down on soft plush rugs. But, because of the inflated ego of the rich host, all such enjoyments of rich foods become the source of immense suffering for them to endure. Word Meaning: Sehjay Sookh(i) = the comfort of high spiritual state. Sooti = sleeps; spends night of life. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Chooki = ends. Sehj(i)) Soobhaayay = without any special effort. Kuntth Laayay = embrace; show love. Bhunn(i) Ghurraayay = lose previous character and acquire noble qualities. Dhoor(i) = from the very beginning.

MEANING: The night of life of the devotee who gets absorbed in the Guru's Shabad is spent in the comfort of a high spiritual state. Waheguru embraces her with love and connects her with Him. Waheguru's Naam takes dwelling in her mind, and her indecisiveness (wavering of mind) ends without any special effort on her part. Waheguru hugs those who renounce their present nature and acquire noble qualities. Those who were partially connected with Waheguru from the beginning (in their previous life, and were born as such) get fully connected in this life, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Kiyya Jup(u) Jaapeh(i) = recite what other naam? Bishta Keet = worm of feces. Mootthaiy = robbed. Dhundhaiy Choar(i) = thief of worldly affairs. Jhootthay = false; short-lived. 2.

MEANING: Those who have forgotten Waheguru's Naam, what other Naam do they recite (there is no other Naam which can come even close to Waheguru's Naam)? They are like worms of feces (who enjoy filthy sensual pleasures) and are robbed (of their good qualities) by the thief-like worldly affairs. One should not forget Waheguru's Naam in the greed of short-lived comforts of Maya, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Slaahun(i) = sing praise. Usthir(u) = with a firm mind (above worldly desires). Chitvaiy = think of. Roam = body pores. Oochraiy = chants. Khin(u) = moment.

Sukaartha = successful. Nirmul(u) = purity of mind. Mul(u) = filth. Jeenvda Purakh = eternal Waheguru. Amra Pud = immortal state.
MEANING: Those who sing praise of Waheguru, and obey His Huqam, attain firmness of mind (do not yield to the attractions of Maya) in the world. They think only of Waheguru in their minds, and none other. Every pore of their body chants Waheguru's Naam every moment. Those who take Guru's shelter, wash away the filth of their minds with His Shabad, and acquire purity of mind; their lives become successful (they become connected with Waheguru). They attain the immortal state by worshipping the living Waheguru, oh Nanak. 25.

Word Meaning: Bhaaou Kur(i) = with respectful love. Nij Mehleen = personal dwelling (Connected with Waheguru). Bahourr(i) = again. Joan(i) = in womb; take life forms. Binaasa = destruction; death. Sayti = with. Rung(i) = with love. Ruv(i) Ruhhay = keep reciting (Naam). Giraasa = with every nibble. Pergaasa = enlightenment. Paasa = close; nearby.26.
MEANING: Those who sing Waheguru's praise with respectful love get connected with Him. They do not face death again and do not take life forms anymore. Imbued in Waheguru's love, they keep reciting His Naam with every breath and every nibble of food. With their minds enlightened by the Guru, the colour of their love for Waheguru never fades. Connected with Waheguru with His benevolence, they stay close to Him, oh Nanak. 26.

Word Meaning: Jichur(u) = as long as. Lehri Vich = takes flights. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Saad(i) = enjoy taste. Thaayayn Na Puvyee = not given credit. Khup(i) = unsuccessful hard labour. Khooaar(u) = suffer humiliation. Sir(u) Dhuraiy Ootaar = surrenders his wisdom. Bhaana = Will. Oordhaar(i) = embed in heart. 1.

MEANING: As long as the human mind keeps taking flights (does not stabilize), it suffers from much selfishness, ego, and conceit. It does not enjoy the sweetness of Guru's Shabad and does not foster love for Waheguru's Naam. His hard work (if any) is not rewarded, and he suffers great humiliation for his unsuccessful efforts. Only that individual is considered to be Waheguru's servant (devotee) who surrenders his wisdom to Him, accepts Satguru's Will, and enshrines His Shabad in his heart, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Chaakri = selfless service. Bhaavaiy = is approved; liked. Aaput(u) = worldly attachment. Guvaavaiy = loses; gets rid of. Boojhsi = understands. 2.

MEANING: Only that recitation of some mantra, self-torture, and service to the Lord are accepted by Him, which He approves. With His benevolence, Waheguru connects such a devotee with Him and rids him of his worldly desires. Once connected, such a devotee never gets separated from Waheguru, as his soul merges with the Lord's. But only that devotee realizes this fact whom Waheguru enlightens with Guru's grace, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Laykhay Vich = in record; in His Huqam. Jumkaal(u) = Angel of death. Bikaar = immoral acts. Munoor = brittle iron. Ludday = loaded; accumulated. Maarug(u) = journey (to God's court); crossing the world-sea. Bikhum(u) = tough. Oobray = salvaged. Oodhaari = salvager. 27.

MEANING: The egoist individual, who does not respect the Guru, does not realize that Waheguru keeps account of everybody's deeds. Such a follower of his mind never thinks of Waheguru's Naam and is hit hard on the head by the Angel of death. He accumulates the heavy burden of his brittle-iron-like (spiritually) useless sins and immoral activities. He does not realize that he will have to endure the tough, frightening journey of swimming across the world sea. Only those are salvaged who are protected by the Guru with Waheguru's Naam, which is their salvager, oh Nanak. 27.

Word Meaning: Tthugauli = a vine which causes temporary hallucination. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love of the other (Maya). Vikaar = immoral acts. Ikk(i) = some. Oobray = salvaged. Numuskaar = bow to; show respect. Moakh Dooaar = door of emancipation.

MEANING: One cannot enjoy comfort (peace of mind) without serving Satguru, and takes births, and dies again, and again. He becomes delusional with his attachment to Maya and commits immoral acts. A few are salvaged by Guru's grace; people show respect for such holy devotees. Recite Waheguru's Naam every day (always) in your mind so as to reach the door of emancipation, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Laykha = for positive account. Laykh(u) = questionable account. Sud = always. Dhoyi = support. Jumkaal(u) = Angel of death. Milaiy = meets; welcomes. Bhayt = gifts. Nit = always. Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Residence (union with Him). Put(i) = honour. Pergut(u) Loyi = spreads in the world. Unhud Dhooni = Divine Music. 28.

MEANING: Nobody can ask for the account of one's deeds if he has Waheguru's Naam in his positive account; such a devotee always has the support of Waheguru in His Court. The Angel of Death welcomes him with gifts and becomes his permanent servant. One reaches Waheguru's Residence (gets connected with Him) with the grace of the Perfect Guru, and his fame spreads all over the world. He feels as if Divine Music is playing at his door (in his mind) when he gets connected with God, oh Nanak. 28.

Word Meaning: Mungut Jun(u) = devotee; beggar. Jaachaiy = begs. Soobhaayay = with love. Piyaas = thirst; longing. Triptaayay = is contented. Khin = Pul = Ghurri = a short moment. Naal(i) = with; close. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Sootiyaan = sleeping; unaware. Ootthaal(i) = awakes (cautions). Liv = deep meditation. 29.

MEANING: I am a beggar at Your Door, and beg for You Naam, oh Waheguru. Kindly grant me Your Naam with love. I have a deep longing for Your holy Sight, and will find contentment only when I get to see You. I cannot live without seeing Waheguru even for a short moment, and die spiritually without seeing Him, oh my mother. Satguru has shown the omnipresent Waheguru to be present in my mind too. Word Meaning: Mummukh = follower of his mind. Boal(i) = polit (appropriate) language. Thaaoun Kuthaaoun = appropriate and inappropriate situations. Chitveh(i) = think about. Bikaar = vices. Durgah = Waheguru's Court. Koorriyaar = deceitful (having bad qualities only). Oopaayiun(u) = creates. Vertaiy = operates. Sachiyaar = source of truth (noble qualities); Waheguru.
MEANING: The follower-of-his-mind is full of lust, rage, and ego, and does not know how to use polite language (or Waheguru's Naam). He cannot distinguish between appropriate and inappropriate situations and always thinks of immoral activities. When the account of his deeds is examined in Waheguru's Court, he is proven to be deceitful. Waheguru Himself creates the universe, and ponders upon the deeds of its living beings. Word Meaning: Aas Kuray = have wishes. Buhou Jeevun(u) = long life. Nit = always. Chit(u) = mind; wish. Gurrh Mundup = fort like mansions, and stages. Vulvunch = deceit. Oopaav = means. Hir(i) Aaniya = brings by stealing. Nihaalay = watches. Aav = life span. Baytaaliya = out of step with reality. Rukhvaaliya = saviour; guard. 30.
MEANING: Everybody has many wishes as if they are going to live for a very long time. With the hope that they will live forever, they beautify their fort-like mansions and stages. They steal others' wealth with many deceitful means. Out-of-step with reality, the egoists do not realize that death is watching their every breath, and the span of their life is decreasing with each breath. Word Meaning: Vaad(u) Vukhaanday = show off in discussions. Sooaayay = taste (enjoyment). Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for Maya. Sayvni = serve. Rijk = food and necessities of life. Smaayay = delivers. Phaaha = noose. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten fortune.

MEANING: For the love of money, the pundits read the holy books to take part in spiritually useless debates. They ignore Waheguru's Naam in the love for Maya, and the foolish are punished (in Waheguru's court). They do not serve the Lord who delivers food and other needy stuff to them. The noose of the Angel of death is not cut (removed) from their necks, and they keep taking births, and dying, again, and again. Satguru Himself connects those with Him who have it prewritten in their fate. One should recite Waheguru's Naam all the time so as to get absorbed in Him, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Vunjeh(i) = deal in. J(i) = those. Paiyreen Paah(i) = dropping on the Feet; surrendering completely. Bhaanaiy = Will. Sehjay = easily.

MEANING: Those who surrender to the Guru serve Waheguru and deal in His Naam. Those who obey the Guru's Will get easily absorbed in the high spiritual state without any special effort on their part, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Aasaan = wishes; attachment with Maya. Ghunaa = immense. Niraas = no wish; detachment with Maya. Perm = supreme. Greh = family. Odaas = Alipt = detached. Liv = deep meditation. Soag(u) = sadness. Vijoag(u) = (pain of) separation. Viyaapyee = affects. Bhaana = Will. Bhaaya = like. Ruv(i) Ruhhay = stay connected. 31.

MEANING: The more wishes or expectations (love for Maya) one has in life, the more he suffers, and the follower of his mind does just that. The Sikhs of the Guru do not have any such expectations and enjoy the supreme bliss. They stay completely detached from worldly affairs while living in the family. They accept Waheguru's Will and stay completely unaffected by any sad or happy occasions. They stay connected with Waheguru, which connects them with Him, oh Nanak. 31.

Word Meaning: Praayee = belonging to others. Amaan = things held in trust (faith). Thaiy = with. Tikaiy = stays. Horthaiy = somewhere else. Pergut(u) = stay; flourish. Vus(i) = in control. Maanuk(u) = pearl. Vaychun = to sell. Perkh = recognition. Udh(u) = half a cowrie shell (almost nothing). Pullaiy Paayay = offer. Parkhiyaan = evaluators. Thaavoun = from. Oas(u) = Waheguru. Chit(u) Laayay = develop love. Vuth(u) = (priceless) thing (Waheguru's Naam). Dhun(i) = the wealth (Waheguru's Naam). Nuou Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Sojhi = understanding. Seetul = cool; source of bliss. Tithaiy = there. Soag(u) = sadness. Vijoag(u) = (pain of) separation. Gerb = feel proud (conceited). Aap(u) Gynaayay = shows importance. 1.

NOTE: It seems that this Shabad was written by Guru Amar Dass Ji about His successor, Guru Ram Dass Ji, to clarify that Gurushiip is predetermined by Waheguru.

MEANING: Why should one keep holding on to something which has been given to him in trust by the owner? One has comfort only after returning it to the rightful owner. Guru's Shabad stays only with the Guru, and does not appear in somebody else's mind (does not enlighten that mind). Guru's Shabad is like that pearl, whose worth is known only to the experts. If a blind man acquires a pearl, he does not know its worth, and rather than taking it to the experts to sell, he takes it to every household, who, being equally ignorant, do not pay him more than half a cowrie shell (almost nothing). (Being ignorant, not everybody knows the worth of the Guru's Shabad).

If one does not know the worth of something, he should take it to the experts for its evaluation. Waheguru's Naam is such an invaluable thing that only a rare devotee knows its worth. The devotee, who gets attached to the Naam, acquires the invaluable Naam in his heart, and feels as if he has acquired all the nine treasures of the world. Without knowing the true worth of this wealth (Waheguru's Naam), the world starves to (spiritual) death, and does not get the required understanding without the Guru. The heart in which the source of blissfulness, Waheguru's Naam, takes dwelling, does not suffer from any sadness or the pain of separation from Maya. Only a foolish person feels proud of something which is not his and shows his own importance. Nobody acquires Waheguru's Naam without the required understanding, and keeps taking births again and again, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Anund(u) = bliss. Sersay = felt blissful. Dhoor(i) = predestined. Vichhurreh(i) = get separated. Na Kubhoon = never. J(i) = those. Kartaaray = Waheguru. Ruvviya = is present. Nivaaray = removed; eradicated. Oordhaaray = enshrined in heart. Bukheeli = vilification. Put(i) = dignity. Shernagut(i) = shelter seekers. Soohaylay = in comfort; blissful. Oojul = pure; radiant. 2.

MEANING: The beloved devotees of Waheguru - the holy saints - feel blissful and blooming of their hearts when they get connected with Waheguru. Those who are predestined (to connect with Waheguru) are connected to Him through His benevolence, and they never get separated. With Guru's Shabad (enshrined) in their hearts, they connect with the Guru, and all their troubles are eradicated. I always sing praise of Waheguru, who is the source of all comforts, and keep Him enshrined in my mind. By vilifying them, what harm can the Maya-worshippers cause to the devotees who have been adorned by Waheguru with Guru's Shabad? The dignity of those who take Guru's shelter (surrender to Him), is protected by the dear Waheguru Himself. Such Sikhs of the Guru feel blissful, and their faces shine with internal purity in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Istree = female. Purkahiy = of male. Kluttar(u) = wife. Vigsaiy = feels joyful. Days(i) = in the homeland. Perdays(i) = foreign land. Aan(i) = brings. Mooh(i) Paaya = feeds. Unt(i) = at the end. Vaiyr = enmity. Virodh(u) = opposition. Dhrig(u) = condemnable; shameful. Moh(u) = attachment. 32.

MEANING: The husband and wife deeply love each other, and the heart of the man blooms to see his sons and his wife and for his love with Maya. He steals money (earns dishonestly), whether he is in his own homeland or in a foreign land, and feeds his family. However, in the end, wealth breeds enmity among them, and no one can free them from the strong bonds of wealth. The attraction to anything other than Waheguru is reprehensible and leads to suffering at the end, oh Nanak. 32.

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = for Guru's Sikh. Amrit = the immortalizing liquid. Trishna = desire for worldly attractions. Mool(i) Na = not at all. J(i) = whatever. Tit(u) = with that. Dhaayay = quickly. Rus Kus = sweet-and-sour taste. 1.
MEANING: For a Sikh of the Guru, Waheguru's Naam-Amrit is the only (spiritual) food for him, which, when taken, eradicates all his worldly desires. A Sikh does not have any worldly desire at all as Waheguru's Naam takes dwelling in his heart. Desire for anything other than Waheguru's Naam causes mental ailments very quickly in one's mind. When praise of Waheguru with Guru's Shabad becomes the enjoyment of all tastes for a devotee, Waheguru Himself connects him with Him, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Jeeyaan Undar(i) = in the living beings. Jeeou = life sustaining. Sheh = husband (Waheguru). Anayhur = darkness. Pergut(u) = clear; light. Moani = hermits. Bhaykh = different religious sects. Tun Dhoyay = washing bodies (at holy places). Kerm(i) = with Waheguru's benevolence; with good fortune. Praaput(i) = acquired. 2.
MEANING: Guru's life-sustaining Shabad, which connects one with Waheguru, sustains the spiritual life of all humanity. It is complete darkness (of ignorance) in the world, Guru's Shabad, dispels that darkness, and brightens the world spiritually. The pundits, and the sages exhaust themselves reading the religious books, and the followers of different religious sects exhaust themselves by taking dips at holy places, but they leave the world frustrated because they cannot get connected with Waheguru without Guru's Shabad. One can get connected with Waheguru only with the benevolence of Waheguru if he has the prewritten union with Him in his fate, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Nayhou = love. Beh(i) = sitting (together). Mund(u) Pukaaya = decided to commit evil deeds. Disda = visible. Bhaaya = is His Will. Thir(u) = for ever. Kuddhou Oopaaya = find some solution. Chaakri = (selfless) service. Kundh = wall; body. Subaaya = all; for ever. Bukhsh(i) = with benevolence. 33.
MEANING: There is immense love between the wife and the husband, but they make only immoral plans when they are together, and do not realize that it is the Will of Waheguru that every visible thing is perishable (and will not stay with them all the time). They consult each other to find some ways whereby they can stay in the world for ever. They should know that it is only the selfless service to the Guru, which can make them immortal for ever. When one gets absorbed in Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, Waheguru connects him with Him with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 33.

Word Meaning: Moh(i) = in the love of. Bhuou = fear. Hayt(u) = love. Apaar(u) = the limitless Waheguru. Lehr(i) = wave; impulse. Shoodh(i) = pure. Guyyi = lost. Moakh Dooaar(u) = door of emancipation. Bukhshunhaar(u) = forgiving; munificent. 1.

MEANING: In his attachment for Maya, the man has lost fear of the Guru and the love for Waheguru. With waves of greed rising in his mind, he has lost his pure thinking and his ability to understand, and cannot develop love for Waheguru. But the Sikhs of the Guru, who have His Shabad (Waheguru's Naam) enshrined in their mind, reach Waheguru's Court, and are approved for emancipation. The munificent Waheguru Himself connects them with Him, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Visray = forgetting. Suraiy Na = cannot be successful (survive; function). Bind = moment. Roosiyaiy = show displeasure. Chind = worries. 2.

MEANING: Why should we be displeased even for a moment with Waheguru who worries about us, and without whom we cannot survive (spiritually), and cannot be successful (achieve anything), oh Nanak? 2.

Jinha Gurmukh(i) Naam(u) araadhiya, tinha dookh, bhookh leh(i) jaayay. Jun Nanak(u) triptaiy gaayay Goon, Dershun dayhou soobhaayay. 3.

Word Meaning: Saavun = the rainy month. Jhim Jhima = raining lightly, but uniformly for a few days at a stretch. Kaarra= uncomforting heat. Chookaaysi = removes. Voottha = rains. Chhebur Laayay = rains continuously. Unn(u) = grain crops. Jummiya = grows. Bohul Laayay = tall heaps of grains. Achint = unexpectedly. Paavaiy Thaayayn= rewards. Chhudaayay = frees from the bonds of Maya; emancipates. Keerut(i) = Waheguru's praise. Bhugut(i) = in worship. Anund = blissfulness. Araadhiya = remembered; worshipped. Leh Jaayay = comes off. Triptaiy = contented.

MEANING: For the devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, it is always the pleasant season of the rainy month of Saavun in which it rains continually for days as a result of which the suffering from food shortage and from the scorching heat, go away for the masses. It looks green all around, and the grain crops produce tall heaps of grain. With his benevolence, Waheguru calls such devotees unexpectedly to His Palace and rewards them richly. So, worship such Waheguru, which emancipates you at the end, oh, the holy saints. Singing Waheguru's praise and worshipping Him is always blissful, and the devotees acquire comfort (peacefulness) in their minds. All the suffering and the appetite (for worldly desires) of the devotees who recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru go away. As His slave (devotee), I feel fully contented to sing Waheguru's praise when He shows His holy Sight to me with love, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Daat(i) = largess; endowment. Nit = always. Churrhaiy Suvaayiya = multiplies. Toos(i) = pleased to be kind. Chhupaiy Na = cannot stay hidden. Kuvul = lotus-like. Pergaas(u) = enlightenment; blooming. Oonmun(i) = in high spiritual state. Liv = deep meditation. Rees = emulate. Sir(i) Chhaayi = ash on head; suffer humiliation. Uppurr(i) = rival. 34.

MEANING: (Waheguru's Naam) is a largess of the Perfect Guru for His devotees, which increases all the time (more and more people receive it). Waheguru, Himself, showers it on Guru's Sikhs with His benevolence, and the devotees do not stay hidden (unknown) even if they try to stay hidden. The lotus of their mind blooms (their minds are enlightened), and they meditate on His Naam in the high spiritual state. If someone tries to emulate them, he suffers humiliation. It is the greatness of the Perfect Satguru that no one can rival His Sikhs, oh Nanak. 34.

Word Meaning: Amar(u) = immortal; the Emperor (Waheguru) whose orders prevail everywhere. Vaypervaah(u) = carefree. Siyaanup = cleverness. Hoojut(i) = reasoning. Shernaayi Puvvaiy = surrender. Rujaayay = Will. Dund = punishment. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru, whose Orders (Will) prevail everywhere, is carefree, and no wisdom or reasoning works with Him. The devotee needs to give up his selfishness and ego, surrender to Him, and accept His Will gladly. The Sikh of the Guru gets rid of his selfishness and ego, and the Angel of Death cannot punish him. Only that individual is called Waheguru's slave who stays connected with Him in deep meditation, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Daat(i) = endowment. Jot(i) = soul; life. Soorut(i) = good looks. Kerm Kmaaveh(i) = performs rituals. Chookaiy = ends. Phayri = return to the world; rebirths. Chungayri = good for you. 2.

MEANING: My life, my good looks, and all the endowments are given by You, oh Waheguru. It is my ego that makes me think all my possessions are due to my wisdom. The individual who performs many rituals suffers from greed, worldly attachments, selfishness, and ego, and the cycle of his rebirths never ends. I firmly believe that whatever the man does, he does so according to the Will of Waheguru (based on his previous deeds), so the best thing for the man to do is to accept His Will as being good for him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Pehn-na = to wear. Davunhaar(u) = Provider. Bhaag(u) Poora = perfect fate. Jaagiya = comes to play. Tinh = of those. Sungut Luggiyaan = taking shelter of. Jaikaar(u) = sing praise (accolades). 35.

MEANING: When the good fortune of an individual comes to play, he begins to recite the Naam of the formless Waheguru. For him, Waheguru' Naam becomes his food, his clothes, and the basis of his life. He is connected with the Provider Waheguru by the grace of the Perfect Guru. One swims across the word-sea in the company (shelter) of the Guru. One should sing praise of, and hail Waheguru, oh Nanak. 35.

Word Meaning: Smaal(i) = look after. Mehr = benevolence. Unn(u) Paani = food and drinks. Mooch = much. Daalud(u) = poverty. Bhunn(i) = eradicate. Tur(u) = salvage. Dataar(i) = Provider. Sist(i) = world. Tthur(u) = calm; peaceful. Kuntth(i) Lugaayay = hold to the chest; hug. Upda = trouble; misery. Hur(u) = remove. Suful(u) = source of success. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru's Residence is (treasures are) a source of success for everything, so one should recite His Naam, oh Nanak. When the people jointly pray to Him with love, reverence, and with focused mind requesting Him to look after His living beings with His benevolence, and produce enough food and drinks so as to eradicate the suffering of their poverty, and to salvage them by hugging them with love, and remove all their misery, He listens to their prayers, and fulfills their wishes whereby the whole world feels contented, and becomes peaceful with His Naam, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Vootthay = rained. Soohaavnay = beautiful. Kartaar(i) = Waheguru. Rijk = food. Ugla = much; more than sufficient. Tthaandh(i) Paayi = made peaceful; happy. Huriya Hoya = came to life. Agumm = inaccessible. Apaar = endless. Lorreh(i) = wishes. Bulihaar = sacrifice. 2.

MEANING: One's body and mind come to life by remembering the inaccessible, and the endless Waheguru. Like the beautiful clouds, which begin to drop rain with the benevolence of the eternal, and the creator, Waheguru, as a result of which more than sufficient food is produced, and the whole world becomes peaceful (contented), the world also comes to new spiritual life when the Guru-Cloud showers Waheguru's Naam with His benevolence. I am always a sacrifice for Waheguru, doing what He likes, oh Nanak. 2.

Paurri: Vudda Aap(i) agumm(u) hauy, vuddi dudiyaayi. Gur Shabadi vaykh(i) vigsiya, untar(i) shaant(i) aayi. Subh(u) Aapay, Aap(i) vertda, Aapay haiy bhaayi. Aap(i) Nath, subh nuthiun(u), subh Huqam(i) chulaayi. Nanak, Hur(i) bhaavaiy, so kuraiy, subh chullaiy rujaayi. 36. 1. Shoodh(u).

Word Meaning: Vudda = Great (God). Vudiyaayi = greatness; splendour. Vigsiya = blooms. Shaant(i) = peace. Vertda = operates. Nath(u) = Lord; Master. Nuthiun(u) = stapled with; attached to. Bhaavaiy = likes. Rujaayi = Will. Shoodh(u) = verified. 36.

MEANING: Waheguru is inaccessible, and great is His splendour. My mind blooms and becomes peaceful to see Him with Guru's Shabad. He alone operates everywhere. He is the Lord, and He has connected everyone with Him (they are under His control), and He runs their lives with His Huqam. Waheguru does whatever He wishes to do, and the whole world has to accept His Will, oh Nanak. 36.1. Verified.

Divus chaar(i) kee kurhou sahibee, jaisay bun hur paat. 1. Na koyoo laiy aayo eh(u) dhun(u), na koyoo laiy jaat(u). Ravan hoon tay adhik chhuturput(i) khin meh(i) guyyay bilaat. 2.

(PAGE 1252): Hur(i) kay sunt sudaa thir(u), poojou, jo Hur(i) Naam(u) jupaat. Jinh kuou kirpa kert haiy Gobind(u), tay Sutsug(i) milaat. 3. Maat, pitaa, bunita, soot, sumput(i), unt(i) na chulut sungaat. Keht Kabir, Ram Bhuj(u) bauray, junum(u) akaaruth jaat. 4.1

Word Meaning: Kuhha = why? Gerbus(i) = conceited. Dus Mun = about four quintals. Naaj(u) = grains. Tukaa = a unit of money (rupee). Chaar(i) = four (significant). Gaantthi = in possession. Aindhou = so much. Taydhou = deceitful; with inflated ego. Pause. Pertaap = glory. Gaaoun = villages. Paayay = acquired. Doyay Lukh = two hundred thousand. Baraat = revenue. Divus Chaar(i) = a few days. Sahibee = reign. Bun = jungle. Hur Paat = green leaves. 1. Adhik Chhutarput(i) = greater kings. Khin Meh(i) = in a moment. Guyyay Bilaat = left the world. 2. Sudaa Thir(u) = immortal. Japaat = make others recite. Milaat = are connected with. 3. Bunita = wife. Soot = sons. Sumput(i) = wealth. Chulut Sungaat = goes with. Bauray = insane. Akaaruth = uselessly. 4.

MEANING: What are you so conceited about for such a small achievement, oh man? So, what if you have a few quintals of grains and a few rupees (dollars) in your possession; why are you showing off such an inflated ego about that? Pause.

Maybe you rule over a few hundred villages, enjoy some glory, and collect a couple of hundred thousand rupees in revenue, but like the greenery in the jungle, such a reign lasts only for a short period of time (maximum until your death). 1.

Nobody is born with any wealth, and nobody takes it with them. Even the kings, much greater than Ravan (the villain of Ramayana), left this world in a moment. 2.

Only the holy saints of Waheguru are immortal (as they never take birth again, and never die); so, worship them because they make you recite Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru connects the devotees whom He is kind to with such holy saints. 3. None of one's mother, father, wife, sons, or wealth accompanies him at the end. So, Kabir advises the insane man to recite Waheguru's Naam as his life is going to waste (spiritually). 4.1.

Kuhhou Kabir, Sadhu kay preetum, Tis(u) Moorut(i) bulihaari. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Rajashrum = having very high residence; highly transcendent (God). Mit(i) = measurements; transcendence. Chayri = disciple; devotee. Pause. Busto = inhabited. Oojur(u) = deserted. 1. Thul = land. Kooaan = well of water; lake. Koop = well. Mayr(u) = a very tall mountain. Akaash Chudhaavaiy = raises from the earth to the sky; from unknown to very famous. Giraavaiy = pushes down. 2. Bhaykhari = beggar. Khul Moorukh = unwise; foolish. Pundit = highly learned. Mooghdhaari = complete foolish. 3. Naari = female. Purakh = male. Preetum = beloved. Moorut(i) = beautiful personality. Bulihaari = sacrifice.

MEANING: I did not realize Your transcendence, oh, the highly transcendent God; however, I am a devotee of Your holy saints. Pause. It is Your amazing feat that a person who leaves home happy, may come back crying, and the one who left crying, may come back happy. Similarly, a town that is happily inhabited may become deserted, and a deserted place may become a vibrant town of happy people. 1. If You wish, You can create land in the middle of a large body of water, and create a lake on land, or convert a well (a lake) into a tall mountain (all such changes have taken place in nature). Likewise, You can change the fate of an insignificant man and elevate his fame to the sky, and conversely, those who fly in the sky (enjoy great glory), can fall to the ground (suffer humiliation) at Your Will. 2. You can make a beggar a rajah, and convert a rajah into a beggar (like emperor Shah Jahan). You can convert a completely foolish and ignorant person into a learned pundit, and a learned pundit into a complete fool. 3.
You can even change the gender of a person – from female to male, and a male to a female, if you so wish (transgender people are well known these days). I am a sacrifice to the beautiful Lord, who is the beloved of the holy saints, oh Kabir. 4.2.

Sadh sungut(i) kubhoon nuhhi kuraiy. Keht Namdayo ta chee aan(i). Nirbhaiy hoyay bhujiyaiy Bhugwan. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Bikhiya Bun = poisonous jungle (of sensual pleasures). Bhoolou = misled. Tthugmoori = mind captivating vine. Pause. Meen(u) = fish. Kaal Jaal = the net of death. Soodh(i) = wisdom; knowledge. Jihba = tongue. Leelut(i) = swallows. Loh = (hook of) iron. Kunik = gold; wealth. Kamini = woman; wife. 1. Mudh(u) Maakhi = honey bee. Sunchaiy = accumulates. Apaar = limitless; too much. Chhaar(u) = dirt; nothing. Baachh = calf. Kheer(u) = milk. Dooh(i) Layay = milks. Aheer(u) = milkman. 2. Kaarun = for the sake of. Sherm(u) = hard labour. Gaadaiy = buries. Dhuraiy = in the ground. Moorr = foolish. Dhoor(i) = dust. 3. Trishna = fire of desires. Juraiy = burns; suffers. Ta Chee = His (God's). Aan(i) = shelter. Nirbhaiy = fearless. 4.

MEANING: When you know that the mind-captivating attractions of Maya are misleading, why are you attracted to the poisonous jungle of sensual pleasures, oh my mind? Pause. Like the fish which live in water but are unaware of the net of death, and swallow the iron hook for the greed of the taste of their tongue, the man is trapped in his love for his wife and his wealth. 1. Man's love for worldly attractions is as deceiving as the love of the honeybees for the honey which they gather with great effort, but they get no reward for their hard work, as the honey is taken by the owner of the honeycombs. Similarly, the cow gathers milk (produces it in its udder) for her calf, but the milk is taken away by the milkman. (Man's love for the worldly attractions is just like that). 2.

The man works very hard to make money, and buries it in the ground. The foolish does not realize that his hard-earned money, which he accumulates, will be of no good to him as it will be left buried in the ground when his body becomes a part of the dust. 3.

He burns his heart (suffers badly) in the fire of his lust, his rage, and his worldly desires, and never attends the gathering of the holy people. The man should seek the shelter of God, and worship him without any fear of others, oh Namdev. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Budhou = acknowledge; accept. Hoad = bet. Khayl(u) Puriyou = drama between You and us. Dayo = god; idol. Dayhoora = temple. Trung = wave. Bujaavaiy Toora = plays music. Oora = less than perfect. Poora = Perfect.

MEANING: Why do You not enter into a bet with me (You have to accept the fact) that the drama of life is between You and Your devotees, and that the devotee is known only because of the Lord, and the Lord is made known (revealed) by His devotees, oh God. Pause. You are God, and the temple, and You make people worship You. The Lord and His devotees are like the water and the waves on its surface in the ocean, which look different and are described differently, but are the same. 1

(Some people worship God by singing, dancing, and playing music), In that case, it is the Lord who sings, dances, and plays music. You are Perfect, oh, my Lord, and I am Your devotee who is imperfect, humbly submits Nam Dayo. 2.2.

Word Meaning: Daas Aninn = dedicated devotee. Nij Roop = own image. Nimukh = for a moment. Taap Truyee = the three ailments (physical, mental, and due to aggression). Moachun = eradicator. Persut = touching (feet); show reverence. Greh Koop = the deep pit of family affairs. Pause. Baandhi = the knot of (attachment with) Maya. Chhudaavaiy = loosens. Geh(i) = holding. Baandhaiy = bonds of love. Tuou Phoon(i) = then. Jubaab(u) = refusal. 1. Goon Bundh = bonded because of the noble qualities of my devotees. Sugul Kee = of everybody. Aiysi = such. Taiyso = the same; similar. Pergaas = enlightenment. 2.

NOTE: This holy Shabad is Waheguru's response to Namdev Ji's questions/comments in the previous Shabad.

MEANING: My dedicated devotees are my own image (I am visibly present in them), and their holy sight, even if it is for a short moment, destroys the three human ailments. Surrendering to such devotees (showing full faith in them) emancipates one from the deep pit (strong worldly bonds) of family life. Pause. My devotees can loosen the strong bonds of Maya caused by me, but I cannot loosen the bond of their love for me. If they ever hold me tightly by the bond of their love, I cannot refuse their love for me. 1.

(God continues) I am bonded to them because of their noble qualities. I support the lives of everybody, but my devotees are the support of my life. One's degree of enlightenment depends upon the degree of his love for me, oh Namdev. 2.3.

Hinsa tuou mun tay nuhhi chhooti, jea duyya nuhhi paali. Perma Nund Sadh-sungut(i) mil(i) Kutha pooneet nuhhi chaali. 3.1.6.

Word Meaning: Nur = oh, man. Unpaavni = dedicated; loyal. Oopji = acquire; attain. Pause. Kaam(u) = lust. Bisriyo = forgotten; given up. Dayva = for God's sake. Pur Ninda = vilification of others. Nihful = unrewarded; wasted. 1. Baat Paar(i) = highway robbery. Moos(i) = defraud; dupe. Biraano = of others. Upraadhi = sinner; criminal. Purloak = next world; God's Court. Upkeerut(i) = disgrace. Abidiya = immoral learning. Saadhi = learned; practised. 2. Hinsa = aggression. Paali = nurtured; acquired. Kutha = praise of God. Pooneet = pious. Chaali = practised. 3.

MEANING: What have you learned by reading the Puranas, oh man? You have not developed a loyal worship of Waheguru in your mind, nor have you fed the hungry (helped the needy). Pause. You have not given up (controlled) your lust, your rage, and your greed, even for God's sake. You have not gotten rid of the vilification of others, so all your hard work of reading the Puranas has gone to waste. 1.

The sinner robs travellers and fills his belly by defrauding others. He has learnt and practises only that immoral learning which becomes the cause of his disgrace in the next world. 2.

You have not overcome your aggressive nature and have never shown compassion for people in misery. You have not attended any gathering of holy saints, and never sung praise of the Creator, oh Perma Nand. 3.1.6.

NOTE: Even though his name is not given in the heading of the Shabad as the author, it is clear at the end that Perma Nand Ji is the author of this Shabad.

Chhaad(i) mun Hur(i) bimookhun ko sung(u).

Word Meaning: Chhaad(i) = give up. Hur(i) Bimookhun = no faith in God.

MEANING: Quit your association with the people who have no faith in God, oh my mind.

NOTE: Even though there is no heading and no name of the holy saint whose composition this is, this single sentence is the composition of the well-known bhagat, Soor Dass Ji, who must have written many poems or lyrics in praise of his deity. But Guru Arjun Dev Ji must not have found his other compositions in line with the philosophy of Guru Nanak Dev Ji; so, He chose just this single sentence to enshrine in Guru Granth Sahib. It is clear from the Heading of the following holy Shabad that it is the composition of Guru Arjun Sahib, and it is addressed to Soor Daas Ji. It also clarifies that the above lone sentence is the composition of Soor Dass Ji.

Sarang Mehla 5, Soor Daas: Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i):

ਹਰਿ ਕੇ ਸੰਗ ਬਸੇ ਹਰਿ ਲੋਕ॥ ਤਨੁ ਮਨੁ ਅਰਪਿ ਸਰਬਸੁ ਸਭੁ ਅਰਪਿਓ ਅਨਦ ਸਹਜ ਧੁਨਿ ਝੋਕ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਦਰਸਨੁ ਪੇਖਿ ਭਏ ਨਿਰਬਿਖਈ ਪਾਏ ਹੈ ਸਗਲੇ ਥੋਕ॥ ਆਨ ਬਸਤੁ ਸਿਉ ਕਾਜੁ ਨ ਕਛੂਐ ਸੁੰਦਰ ਬਦਨ ਅਲੋਕ॥ 1॥ ਸਿਆਮ ਸੁੰਦਰ ਤਜਿ ਆਨ ਜੁ ਚਾਹਤ ਜਿਉ ਕੁਸਟੀ ਤਨਿ ਜੋਕ॥ ਸੂਰਦਾਸ ਮਨ ਪ੍ਰਭਿ ਹਥਿ ਲੀਨੋ ਦੀਨੋ ਇਹੁ ਪਰਲੋਕ॥ 2॥1॥8॥

Hur(i) kay sung busay Hur(i) loak. Tun(u), mun(u) urp(i) serbus(u) subh(u) urpiyo, anund sehj dhoon jhoak. 1. Ruhaou. Dershun(u) paykh(i) bhuyyay nirbikhuyyi, paayay haiyn suglay thoak. Aan bust siyoun kaaj(u) na kuchhooyaiy, soondar budn aloak. 1. Shiyam soondar tuj(i) aan ju chaahut, jiyoun kooshti tun(i) joak. Soordass, mun Prubh(i) huth(i) leeno, deeno eh(u) purloak. 2.1.8.

Word Meaning: Busay = live with; stay connected. Hur(i) Loak = devotees of Waheguru. Urp(i) = offer. Serbus(u) = everything. Anund Sehj = blissfulness. Dhoon Jhoak = feeling of ecstasy. Pause. Bhuyyay = become. Nirbikhuyyi = free from all sensual enjoyments; pure. Suglay Thoak = everything. Aan Bust = other things. Kaaj Na = no interest; have nothing to do with. Budn = face. Aloak = to see. 1. Shiyam Soondar = the adorable Waheguru. Tuj(i) = giving up. Aan = other things. Chaahut = wish for. Kooshti = leper. Joak = leech. Eh(u) = this world. Purloak = the next world.

MEANING: Waheguru's devotees stay connected with Him (keep Him in mind) all the time. They offer (surrender) their body, their mind (thinking), and all their wealth to Waheguru, and enjoy the ecstasy of blissfulness of a high spiritual state. Pause.
They become completely free from the sensual enjoyments to have the holy Sight of Waheguru, and acquire everything they wish for. After seeing Waheguru's adorable face, they are left with no desire for anything else. 1.
Ignoring the adorable Waheguru, those who wish for other things are like a leech sucking dirty blood from the body of a leper (they are money lovers who suck the blood of others by defrauding them). My mind has been acquired by Waheguru, and he has given me the luxuries of both the worlds – the present, and the future – to enjoy, oh Soor Dass. 2.18.

ੴ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਪ੍ਰਸਾਦਿ॥ ਸਾਰੰਗ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥
Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i): Sarang Kabir Ji

ਹਰਿ ਬਿਨੁ ਕਉਨੁ ਸਹਾਈ ਮਨ ਕਾ॥ ਮਾਤ ਪਿਤਾ ਭਾਈ ਸੁਤ ਬਨਿਤਾ ਹਿਤੁ ਲਾਗੋ ਸਭ ਫਨ ਕਾ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਆਗੇ ਕਉ ਕਿਛੁ ਤੁਲਹਾ ਬਾਧਹੁ ਕਿਆ ਭਰਵਾਸਾ ਧਨ ਕਾ॥ ਕਹਾ ਬਿਸਾਸਾ ਇਸ ਭਾਡੇ ਕਾ ਇਤਨਕੁ ਲਾਗੈ ਠਨਕਾ॥1॥ ਸਗਲ ਧਰਮ ਪੁੰਨ ਫਲ ਪਾਵਹੁ ਧੂਰਿ ਬਾਛਹੁ ਸਭ ਜਨ ਕਾ॥ ਕਹੈ ਕਬੀਰੁ ਸੁਨਹੁ ਰੇ ਸੰਤਹੁ ਇਹੁ ਮਨੁ ਉਡਨ ਪੰਖੇਰੂ ਬਨ ਕਾ॥ 2॥1॥9॥
Hur(i) bin(u) kaun(u) suhaayi mun ka? Maat, pitaa, bhaayi, soot, bunita, hit(u) laago subh phun ka. 1. Ruhaou. Aagay kuou kichh(u) toolha baandhou, kiyya bhervaasa dhun ka. Kuhha bisaasa iss bhaanday ka, itnuk(u) laagaiy tthunka. 1. Sugul dherm poonn ful paavou, dhoor(i) baanchhou sub jun ka. Kuhhaiy Kabir(u), soonhou ray suntou, eh(u) mun(u) oodden punkhayroo bun ka. 2.1.9.
Word Meaning: Suhaayi = support. Soot = sons. Bunita = wife. Hit(u) = love. Phun = deceiving. Pause. Aagaiy Kuou = for the next world. Toolha = a crude raft. Bhervaasa = Bisaasa = trust; dependence. Bhaanda = vessel; human body. Itnuk(u) = a small amount. Laagaiy = touches. Tthunka = rattles; shatters. 1. Poonn = noble deeds. Ful Paavou = get reward. Door(i) = dust of feet. Baanchhou = wish for. Oodden Punkhayroo = flying bird. Bun Ka = of the forest. 2.
MEANING: Who else, other than Waheguru, is the support for your mind (soul), oh man? The love for one's mother, father, brothers, sons, and wife is very deceiving. Pause.
Your wealth is not reliable (because it does not accompany you after death), so build a raft of noble qualities to swim across the world-sea, oh my friends. The body-vessel is not dependable either, as it can easily shatter (collapse) in a minor collision (accident). 1.
If one becomes humble like the dust of the feet of the holy devotees, he gets the rewards of all religious rituals and the accepted noble deeds. The human mind takes flight like a bird of the forest (and must be controlled), oh Kabir. 2.1.9.
