Nanak, root(i) soohaavi saayi, bin(u) Naavaiy root(i) kayhi. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Visser(i) = forgotten. Khooaari Keeni = suffer humiliation. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. 1. Put(i) = dignity. Ghur(i) = Waheguru's Residence. Pause. Ruhheh(i) Nuhhi = cannot stop. Jeeou = soul; life. 2. S(i) = those. Soochay = pure. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Maiylay = filthy-minded. Huchhay = healthy; pure. 3. Root(i) = season; Waheguru's Naam, or no faith in Him. Kaaya = body (mind). Tayho Jayhi = the same kind. Dayhi = body. Soohaavi = pleasant; comforting. Kayhi = of what use? 4.

MEANING: The man has forgotten his death, and eating, drinking, laughing (enjoyments), and sleeping have become his main objectives. He does not realize that he cannot stay in this world forever; shameful is the life in which the man forgets the Lord, and suffers humiliation at the end. 1.

Remember only Waheguru's Naam, and reach His Residence with dignity, oh man. Pause.

(It is in man's own interest that he recites Waheguru's Naam with full faith), But he recites His Naam only to beg for things which he wishes and cannot stop begging; and what does he give Waheguru in return (nothing)? Waheguru is the Provider for everybody, and His Soul is present in everybody, keeping them alive. 2. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter acquire the immortalizing Amrit, and only they are pure. Even the filthy-minded become purified when they recite Waheguru's Naam day and night, oh man. 3.

It is a known fact that, physically, the human body experiences comfort (or discomfort) depending on the season and adapts to it. Similarly, for mental comfort, the best season for the mind is when it recites Waheguru's Naam; what kind of comfort can he enjoy without the Naam (none), oh Nanak? 4.1.

Nanak, Ram Naam(u) jup(i) Gurmukh(i) dhun(u) sohaagun(i) Sach suhhi. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Binou = request. Preetum = dear. Vur(u) = husband; Lord. Ghunghor = thunder of clouds. Seetul(u) = cool; peaceful. Laal-Rutti = imbued in Waheguru's love. 1. Bers = cause rain. Bheena = imbued. Boond = drop. Soohaani = comforting. Heeuray = in the heart. Mohi = captivated. Leena = absorbed. Pause. Vur = husband; Waheguru. Buchni = Words; Shabad. Mun Maaniya = mind fully convinced. Sohaagun(i) = married; favourite. Sookhaaniya = in comfort. 2. Uvgun = ignoble qualities. Baiyraagun(i) = detached from the world. Usthir(u) = eternal. Hurie = God. Soag(u) = grief; sadness. Vijoag(u) = separation. Viyaapaiy = happens. 3. Aavun(u) Jaan(u) = birth and death. Nihchul = stable; unwavering. Oat = shelter. Guhhi = sought. Suhhi = in reality. 4.

MEANING: Just like the world feels joyful on hearing the thunder of the clouds in the hot rainy season, my mind feels zestful to worship Waheguru, and I request my dear Guru that He connect me with my husband-Waheguru so that imbued in His love, I may sing His praise.

1. Cause the rain of Waheguru's Naam so that I may acquire the comforting drop of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit in my heart, oh my kind Satguru. Captivated by the grace of my Guru, my mind is fully absorbed in enjoying the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. Pause.

The human soul, which is fully convinced of the Guru's Shabad, becomes dear to the Waheguru-Husband, and the devotee enjoys the comfort of the high spiritual state. Such a devotee becomes Waheguru-Husband's favourite, gets connected with Him, and enjoys the comfort (intoxication) of a high spiritual state by body and mind. 2.

Getting rid of all her ignoble qualities, she becomes fully detached from the world and acquires the eternal Waheguru as her husband (Lord). With Waheguru's benevolence, she never suffers from any sadness or separation (from Him). 3.

In the shelter of the Perfect Guru, her mind becomes stable (quits wavering), and she no longer takes rebirths. Such a devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, is great, is loved by Waheguru, and is a true devotee of His, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Saachi Soort(i) = pure thoughts. Triptaiy = gets contented. Guvaaya = wasted precious human life. Pur = of others. Rut = in love of. Ninda = malicious criticism of others. Bikh(u) = poison (murderer of conscience. Cheen(i) = recognizing. Kupt = deceitfulness. Chhootaiy = goes away. Ajgur(i) Bhaar = very heavy load. Ludday = loaded. Bhaari = heavy. 1. Bhaavaiy = like. Soohaava = comforting. Bherm(i) Bherm(i) = wandering through. Joan(i) Bhaykh = different life forms. Pause. Tayj(u) = rage. Nivaar(i) = by removing. Nahatay = bathe at holy places. Bhaaya = liked. Ruttan Pdartuh = jewel-like Waheguru's Naam. Purhur(i) = pushing away. Tiyaagiya = renounced. Jut Ko Tut = returned to where it started (in the birth-death cycle). Bishta Keet = like worms of feces (enjoying immoral sensual pleasures). Adhik = many. Sooaad = tastes; enjoyments. Roag = ailments; suffering. Sehj = blissfulness. 2. Sayva Soort(i) = with the spirit of serving. Rehus(i) = with full fervor. Khoajeen = by searching (pondering). Oopjaiy = (high spiritual state) is generated. Baadeen = in aggressive discussions. Binsaiy = is destroyed. Neech = ignoble. Heen-Mut(i) = low wisdom. Suvaarunhaara = beautifier; purifier of mind. Aatum Cheen(i) = self analyzing. Taarun = to salvage. 3. Soothaan(i) = at holy place (in Guru's shelter). Apaara = oh, limitless (Waheguru). Alukh(u) = incomprehensible. Agumm = inaccessible. Ajoni = which takes no life forms. Naathaan = the self-proclaimed spiritual leaders. Naathunhaara = controlling; enslaving. Jaachuk = beggars. Bhugut-Heen(u) = devoid of worship. Oor(i) Dhaara = enshrine in mind. 4.

MEANING: The man does not acquire contentment by reciting Waheguru's Naam with pure thinking (mind) (which he should do), and wastes away his precious human life in his selfishness and ego. Intoxicated in the greed of others' wealth, others' women, and the vilification of others, he tastes all such poisonous evils (which kill his character), and suffers. Such a follower-of-his-mind does not get rid of his worldly fears and his deceitful nature by pondering on the Guru's Shabad, but rather keeps only Maya in his mind. He does take birth as a human, but accumulates an extremely heavy burden of his immoral acts, and wastes away his precious human life. 1.

The human mind feels great comfort when it likes Guru's Shabad, but, misled by Maya's attractions, it wanders through many different life forms. Those protected by the Guru (who come to his shelter) become connected to Waheguru. Pause.

The man does not like Waheguru's Naam, and does not get rid of his rage by taking a dip in the holy pool of His Naam. He forsakes the invaluable Naam of Waheguru and returns to the birth-death cycle. Like the worms of feces, where they seem to be happy, the Maya-worshipper keeps enjoying the filth of immoral sensual pleasures. The more one enjoys such pleasures, the more he suffers, and cannot attain the high spiritual state without the Guru. 2.

On the other hand, a devotee of the Guru ponders on His Shabad (gets connected with Waheguru), and feels blissful by singing Waheguru's praise with the spirit of diligent service. One acquires blissfulness by searching for Waheguru's Naam (pondering on Guru's Shabad), and loses it when he takes part in aggressive discussions to show off his knowledge. I am always a sacrifice for my Waheguru-like Guru, who enlightens me about such things. I am ignoble and have low wisdom, but You adorn me with good qualities with Guru's Shabad, oh Waheguru. Waheguru is the ship to ferry us across the world-sea, and is there when one ponders on Guru's Shabad. 3.

I sing Your praise in the company of the holy saints, but You have countless virtues, so how many of those can the poor me sing, oh Waheguru? You are incomprehensible, and cannot be comprehended; You are inaccessible, and never take any life form; You enslave even those who proclaim themselves to be great gurus. I do not see anybody else whom I can compare You with; You are the only provider, while everybody else is a beggar at Your door. I am without Your worship, I, Nanak, beg for Your Naam to enshrine in my heart so that I may see Your Court (merge with You), oh Lord. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Dhun = woman; human soul. Pir = dearl; husband. Saad(u) = taste; blissfulness. Bilkh = anxious; nervous; uneasy. Budun = face. Koomlaani = in low spirits; dejected. Niraasi = dejected. Phaasi = trapped; restrained. Bherm(i) Bhoolaani = misled by misbeliefs. 1. Bers = cause rain. Ghunaa = oh, clouds. Bul(i) = sacrifice. Pause. Nuoutun = fresh. Tthaakur = Lord. Siyoun = with. Soohaavi = comforting. Mookut(i) Bhuyyay = became emancipated. Soobhaavi = praise-earning; comforting. 2. Tirbhuvun Jug(u) = the three-layered universe. Huoun = I. Buhour Na = not again. Bhuvjul(i) Phayra = return to the world (reincarnation). 3. Vigaasi = bloomed. Tuou = only then. Seegaaro = adorned. Akool = without any clan. Sach(i) = with Waheguru's Naam. Saachi = like Waheguru. Aadhaaro = basis. 4. Soort(i) = wisdom; focussed mind. Put(i) = honour. Rid Untar(i) = in heart. Milaayi = connected.5.

MEANING: The human bride, who has not enjoyed the bliss of union with Waheguru, feels uneasy, and her face shows her low spirits. Restrained by her fate shaped by her previous deeds, she feels dejected and is misled by her misbeliefs without the Guru. 1. Cause the rain of Waheguru Naam, oh my cloud-like Guru, so that my dear Waheguru may visit (appear) in my heart. I am a sacrifice for my dear Guru, who connects His devotees with Waheguru. Pause. My love for the Lord is always fresh (it never lessens), and His day-and-night worship is highly comforting. Waheguru's worship earns one praise no matter what the eon is, and one attains emancipation when he has His Sight with the grace of the Guru. 2. The whole universe belongs to Waheguru, and I am also His. I am Yours, and You are mine, oh Waheguru. One acquires Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya in the shelter of Satguru, and such a devotee never falls in the birth-death cycle. 3. The heart of the human bride, which is adorned (by the Guru) with noble qualities, blooms to "see" her beloved Waheguru. In the shelter of the Guru, clan-less Waheguru's Naam becomes the basis of her life, and by reciting His Naam, she becomes like Him, which is above the effects of Maya. 4. She attains emancipation when Satguru breaks her bonds with Maya, and she acquires profound spiritual wisdom and earns respect everywhere through the Guru's Shabad. With His Naam in her heart, she is connected with Waheguru by the grace of the Guru, oh Nanak. 5.4.

Word Meaning: Pur = of others. Daara = woman. Lobha = greed. Bikhaiy Bikaar = immoral sensual pleasures. Doosht Bhaaou = evil nature. Nind = vilification. Chundaar = wicked; merciless. Mehlaan = in palace-like hearts. Agumm = inaccessible. Apaar = endless (God). Bheetur(i) = inside. Shabad Ruttan = jewel-like Shabad. Achaar = life-style. Pause. Sum = equal; the same. Boora = bad (treatment). Bhulaa = good (treatment). Soodh(i) = awareness. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Soort(i) = focus of mind. 2. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Laaha = benefit. Puraaput(i) = acquirement. 3. Kaaya = body. Mehl = Mundar(u) = Ghur(u) = mansions. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light (Soul). 4.

MEANING: The inaccessible and the limitless Waheguru is present in your heart, but only that individual enjoys the Amrit of His Naam who has shaped his lifestyle according to the jewel-like Shabad of the Guru. Pause.

Keeping an evil eye on the women of others, harbouring greed for others' wealth in mind, and one's selfishness and ego, are all poisonous and evil thoughts. One has to give up all these evil habits along with his wicked spirit, vilification of others, lust, and merciless rage to enjoy the Naam-Amrit. 1. One has to accept comforts and discomforts the same way, as well as the good and the bad treatments from the world. One acquires high awareness, noble wisdom, and focus of mind with Waheguru's Naam, which one enshrines in his mind with love for the Guru, and in the company of the holy saints. 2.
Only that devotee acquires comfort (peace of mind) with Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru on whom Waheguru casts His kind sight. The Guru is the source of Waheguru's Naam, and one acquires it as a special benefit (wealth) when he recites it day and night in the Guru's shelter. 3. The human body is the mansion of the limitless Waheguru in which He places His Light. Waheguru calls in such a devotee of the Guru to His Palace as the Guru is one who connects the devotee with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.5.

Nanak, punniah pehraiy soyay. 4.1.6.
Word Meaning: Jaanaiy = realize. Jaat(i) = nature; root. Kaaya Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Nibhraant(i) = calm down; put out. Thaaoun = origin. Soorta = wise; learned. 1. Undeettha = invisible. Kiyya Kur(i) = how? Vukhaaniyaiy = explain. Pause.
Dur(i) = inside; below. Usmaan(i) = in the sky Puyyal(i) = in the underworlds. Dayh(u) Veechaar(i)= advise by thinking. Jihva = tongue. Hiyaayay = from the heart. Koyee = some rare. 2. Kuthni Budni = by saying and explaining (to show off). Nibhraant(i) = refrains from. Daat(u) = gift. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Liv Laayay = meditate deeply (stay connected). Purakh(u) = like Waheguru. J(i) = which. 3. Jaat(i) Kooleen = high caste. Kehna Kuhhou Na = cannot be praised enough. Sunaati = low caste. Punniah = shoes (of my skin). Pehraiy = wear. 4
MEANING: Only that individual deserves to be called a wise pundit who recognizes that Waheguru is the root of all the five elements, like water and air, and is also the source of the births of all life. At the same time, such a pundit must calm down the fire of his worldly desires.
1. As Waheguru is invisible, the man does not know all His noble qualities; so how can one say anything about Him, and describe His virtues, oh my mother? Pause.

He is present above, below, in the sky, and in the underworld, so advise me how to sing His praise. Answer: If you cannot sing His praise with your tongue (using the right words), love Him with your heart. The individual, who does so, enjoys the sweetness of His Naam. 2.
Only that individual realizes Waheguru who refrains from discussing His qualities simply to show off his knowledge, and whom He gives the gift of His Naam to. Only that individual becomes like Waheguru who stays absorbed in (connected with) Him day and night through deep meditation on His Naam. 3.
No words can be said in the full praise of a devotee who belongs to a high caste; but a low-caste devotee is worthy of wearing the shoes of my skin, oh Nanak. 4.1.6.

Word Meaning: Dookh = pain; suffering. Vichhorra = separation. Bhookh = hunger. Shukutvaar = powerful. Jumdoot = agents of the Angel of death. Roag(u) = ailment. Dhaayay = fast. Vaiyd = physician. Bholay = ignorant. Daaroo = medication. 1. Durd(u) = pain. Luggaiy Na = does not affect (cure). Beer = oh, brother. Pause. Khusm(u) = Lord. Visaar(i) = forgetting. Rus Bhoag = enjoyment of sensual pleasures. Ta = then. Ootth(i) Khuloyay = arise. Sujaayay = punishment. 2. Chundun = sandal tree. Ful(i) = gift; importance. Vaas(u) = fragrance. Maanus = human. Kaaya = body. Dhul(i) Paayay = collapses. Paachhaiy = after. 3. Kunchun = gold-like; pure. Nirmul = pure. Huns(u) = soul. Unsh(u) = a part of. Guvaayay = leaves behind; gets rid of. Chhootus(i) = attains emancipation. 4.

MEANING: There are many pain-causing factors in man's life, which include separation (from one's dear ones, and from God), hunger (of the stomach and of worldly attractions), and the powerful death. These are some causes of suffering which attack the body very fast (and there is no medication for such ailments). So, do not prescribe any medication for such ailments, oh, the ignorant physician. 1. There is no treatment for the (mental) ailments in which the pain is not relieved, and suffering stays in the body, oh my brother; so, do not prescribe any medication for such ailments, oh the ignorant physician. Pause.
When the man forgets the Creator, Waheguru, and enjoys worldly pleasures, such ailments take root in his body. The foolish mind receives the punishment for his evil thoughts and actions; so, do not recommend any medication, oh physician. 2.

The importance (use) of sandalwood lasts only as long as it retains its fragrance. Similarly, the human body is useful only as long as it has breath. Once he breathes his last, his body collapses, and he cannot enjoy any worldly attractions. 3.
A man who keeps his body as pure as gold, with Waheguru's Naam in his heart, has a pure soul in his body too. A man finds emancipation with Waheguru's Naam, and he leaves all his suffering and his ailments behind, oh Nanak. 4.2.7.

Jis kuou likhiya eh(u) nidhaan(u). Say dhunvunt, diseh(i) ghur(i) jaayay. Nanak, jun-nee dhunni maayay. 4.3.8.
Word Meaning: Mahoura = poison. Maarun = antidote. Silaa = mortar. Suntokh = contentment. Peesun = pestle. Daan(u) = donations. Nit, Nit = always. Cheejaiy = erodes; weakens mind with age. Maaraiy Tthayh = knocks down. 1. Guvaar = oh, foolish. Vikaar = immoral practices. Pause. Maal(u) = wealth. Jobun(u) = youthfulness. Chhaanv = shadow; darkness. Ruth Phirundaiy = with the rising sun (enlightenment); (it is believed that the sun rides a chariot which is pulled by the lame Arun). Deeseh(i) Thaanv = the reality becomes clear. Naaoun = reputation. Oathaiy = there; in Waheguru's Court. Dihoun = day; light. Aiythaiy = here; in this world. Raat(i) = night; darkness of illusions. 2. Saad = tastes; enjoyments. Smudhaa = wood (fuel) for the fire (of huvun). Trishna = worldly desires. Kaam(u) = lust. Hoam = huvun. Jugg = food for the Brahmans. Paatth Puraan = reading of the Purana. Tis(u) = Waheguru. Bhaavaiy = is pleased with. Pervaan = acceptable. 3. Tup(u) = self-affliction to please gods; hard labour of Waheguru's Naam. Kaagud = paper. Neeshaan = identification. Nidhaan = treasure. Dhunvunt = truly wealthy. Ghur(i) = Waheguru's Residence. Jun-nee = birth-giving. Dhunni = worthy of our respect. Maayay = mother.
MEANING: Human suffering is like a poison for which Waheguru's Naam is the antidote. Some people grind sandalwood to anoint their foreheads as a show of their religiosity. But Waheguru's devotees make contentment their mortar, and donations to the needy their pestle to grind noble qualities and digest them (make them a permanent part of their character). The devotee, who takes such a healthy diet daily for their mind, does not suffer mentally from aging, and knocks down the agents of death at the end (becomes one with Waheguru). 1. Take this medication, which will rid you of your immoral activities, oh, foolish. Pause. One's rule of some state, his wealth, and his youthfulness are all shadows which keep him in the dark, and which disappear with the rising sun (he sees the reality with the enlightenment of his mind). Then he realizes that none of his body, his reputation, or his high caste accompanies him to the next world. Man lives in the darkness of his ignorance in this world, but all his actions are well known in Waheguru's Court, where everything is clear like in the daylight. 2. So, one should make his worldly enjoyments the wood, his desires the ghee and the oil. and along with his lust and rage, use them as fuel for the fire of huvun (should burn them for the noble cause of purification of his mind). Only those huvuns, meals to the Brahmans, and the readings of the Purans are approved by Waheguru, which please Him. 3.

The paper of hard labour on which Waheguru's Naam is written serves as one's identification in Waheguru's court. Those who reach Waheguru's Residence are recognized as truly wealthy. Their mothers (wisdom) are worthy of our respect, oh Nanak. 4.3.8.

Sach(i) smaavaiy, eh(u) sureer(u). 4.4.9.

Word Meaning: Baago = white; shiny; clean. Kaapurr = clothes. Baiyn = (sweet) language. Kaalay Naiyn = black eyes. Kubhoon = ever? 1. Oodaan = flights of mind. Sumruth = omnipotent. Thul(i) = on the land. Doogur = mountains. Teer = banks of rivers. Thununtar(i) = distant places; everywhere. 2. Saaj(i) = created. Khumbh = wings (to fly by mind). Ut(i) = extreme. Trishna = appetite for worldly desires. Dunjh = strong desire. Bundhaan Dheer = control my mind. Vaykhaalay = shows. 3. Jaayayga = accompany. Sunbundh = union. Kerm(u) = benevolence.4.

MEANING: Have you ever seen (got connected with, or sung praise of) Waheguru, who has given you the ability to wear clean (and rich) clothes, and speak with sweet language, has given you a long nose, and beautiful eyes? (Of course not, as the man is engrossed in Maya). 1. If you gave me the ability to fly high in the sky, and to see all the waters, the whole land, the mountains, and all the (holy places) on the river banks, I will find You everywhere, oh, the all-powerful (omnipotent) Waheguru. 2.

Waheguru, who creates the bodies and gives the mind the ability to take flights, also generates a strong desire to take high flights about worldly attractions. I can control my mind from taking flights only if He casts a kind sight on me, and I can see the reality of the world as He shows me, oh, my brother. 3. The human body has been created by Waheguru with the union of air, water, and fire; so, one's body and his wings (desire to take mental flights) do not accompany him on his death. One can recite Waheguru's Naam only with His benevolence, and in the shelter of the Guru or Peer (in case of Muslims), as a result of which the human body (soul merges with the Supreme Being), oh Nanak. 4.4.9.

Word Meaning: Nirunkar(u) = the formless Waheguru. Aakaar(u) = the visible world. Bherm(i) Bhoolaayay = misleads in illusions. Jit(u) = in whatever business. Tit(u) = the same. Sayvuk = servant; devotee. Vudiyaayi = honour. 1. Bhaana = Will. Luhhiyaiy = acquire; understand. Shukut(i) = (attraction for) Maya. Shivaiy Ghur(i) = in Waheguru's Home (focus on). Jeenvundiyaan Mur(i) Ruhhiyaiy = kill worldly desires while living in the family. Pause. Vaad Vukhaanaiy = takes part in useless debates. Tirgoon Maya = Maya with three effects. Sehsa = worry. Undaysa = doubts; misgivings. 2. Deen = weak; helpess. Avichaari = low thinking. Chinta Kurhou = look after. Daasa Daasaan Ka = slave of slaves (devotees). Ehinis(i) = day and night. Vukhaanai = say; recite. 3. Boojhou = understand; realize. Phayn(u) = foam. Boodbooda = bubble. 4.

MEANING: The visible world is a manifestation of the formless Waheguru (He is present in His creation). By creating Maya, He Himself misleads the world with its mind-captivating attractions. The Creator looks after His living beings and puts them in the kind of business (worldly affairs) He deems they deserve. It is an honour for the devotee whom He makes obey His Huqam. 1. Waheguru knows His Will (what He wishes to do), and with the kindness of the Guru, one understands that Waheguru wishes his devotees to turn their mind away from Maya, and turn it towards His Naam so as to kill their worldly desires while living in the family. Pause. With faith in Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva, the pundit reads the Vedas just to take part in worthless debates to display his egoistic knowledge. Such behaviour of the pundit is a form of Maya with three effects: it misleads the world through its illusions and keeps the world in the worrisome cycle of births and deaths. 2.

I am helpless, foolish, and have low wisdom; but You are kind, and look after me, oh Waheguru. Kindly be benevolent and make me a slave of Your devotees so that I may serve You. Kindly grant me the treasure of Your Naam to recite it day and night. 3.
Some rare individual ponders on Guru's Shabad, and realizes with His benevolence that the world is as short-lived as the bubbles of foam on the surface of water. When the world is absorbed in the Creator, God, the whole expanse comes to an end, oh Nanak. 4.1

Word Meaning: Puchhaaniya = comprehend; follow. Maylay = connected. Sachi Bhugut(i) = selfless worship Liv Laayay = meditate deeply. Soobhaayay = with love. 1. Bhaana = Will. Bhaanvda = likes. Bukhshay = endows. Bighun(u) = impediment; obstacle. Pause. Traiy Goon = the three effects of Maya. Dhaat(u) = attractions of Maya. Bhaayay = love. Kerm = tasks. Theeyaiy = happens. Puyyiyaiy Kirt = the result of previous deeds. Phiraah(i) = wanders around. 2. Bhaytiyain = on meeting with. Chauthaiy = the fourth (spiritual) state above the three effects of Maya. Vaasa = dwelling (of mind). 3. Agumm(u) = inaccessible. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Kaar Kmaayay = leads life. Sobha = praise. 4.

MEANING: Those who comprehend (follow) Waheguru's Huqam get their selfishness and ego eradicated with Guru's Shabad and get connected with Waheguru. They worship Waheguru selflessly and stay connected with Him day and night through meditation. With love for Waheguru, they "see" Him all the time with Guru's Shabad, and in a high spiritual state. 1. Enjoy bliss by obeying Waheguru's Huqam, oh my mind. Waheguru likes that His devotees accept His Will, but only those do so whom He enables, and they do not experience any impediment in achieving their objective. Pause.
The three effects of Maya create only illusions, and one cannot love or worship Waheguru under their influence. Under their influence, the man performs only those deeds which boost his ego, and he can never attain emancipation. But they cannot be fully blamed because everything happens with Waheguru's Will, and they perform only those deeds for which they are predestined (based on their previous deeds). 2.

When a devotee comes to the Guru's shelter, his worldly desires are eradicated, and Waheguru's Naam(u) takes dwelling in his mind. No one can say anything about the spiritual transcendence of such a devotee, or know its worth. But, by reciting Waheguru's Naam with His benevolence, one does attain the fourth (highest) spiritual state above the three effects of Maya, and stays absorbed in the eternal Waheguru 3.
My Waheguru is inaccessible, incomprehensible, and no one can describe His high transcendence. One can only comprehend that (His transcendence) when he leads his life according to the Guru's Shabad. Sing Waheguru's praise (recite His Naam) to win praise (approval) in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = in Guru's shelter. Virla = rare. Daata = provider; source. Bukhshay = endows; Nudr(i) Kuray = with kind sight (benevolence). Shaant(i) = peace of mind. Oopjaiy = comes into being; one acquires. 1. Purakh = manifestation of Waheguru. Pause. Munmukh = Maya-engrossed. Vichhurray = separated. Naal(i) = with. Jumkaal = Angel of death. Smaahl(i) = remember. 2. Daykheh(i) Veechaar(i) = looks after carefully. Bhundaar = treasures. Pookaar = pray; disclose situation. 3. Oochraiy = recite. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. Soobhaayay = with love for. NIdhaan(u) = treasure. Chit Laayay = keep in mind. 4.

MEANING: With Waheguru's grace, and in the guidance of the Guru, a rare devotee understands that there is no other donor (source of Waheguru's Naam) than the Guru who grants Waheguru's Naam to a devotee (implants in his heart) with His kindness, and then he recites the Naam day and night and feels blissful. 1.
Recite Waheguru's Amrit-like Naam, oh my mind. But one acquires Waheguru's Naam (enshrines in his heart) only when he comes to the shelter of the Waheguru-like Satguru and stays absorbed in the Naam. Pause.
The Maya-engrossed individuals are always disconnected from Waheguru, and they wander around alone with no one (sincerely) with them. They suffer from the big ailment of selfishness and ego, and the Angel of justice hits them on the head (punishes them badly). But those who receive the Guru's Advice never get disconnected from the gathering of the holy saints and remember Waheguru's Naam day and night. 2.

Waheguru is the creator of everyone, and looks after them carefully. He connects those who take Guru's shelter with Him and endows them with the treasures of His worship. Who should one pray to for help when Waheguru knows everything about all of us (our needs)? 3.
Waheguru's Naam is immortalizing, but can be acquired only with His kind sight when one recites His Naam with Guru's Shabad day and night in a high spiritual state and with love for Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Salaaheen = to praise. Sookh-Daata = source of comforts. Narayin(u) = a name of God. Soyee = that (Guru). Perm Pud(u) = the highest spiritual state. Vudiyaayi = honour. Sach(i) = with the Naam(u). 1. Ridaiy = in the heart. Tuj(i) = getting rid of. Koorr(u) = love for the perishable. Kootumb = family. Bikh(u) = poisonous. Chullan = death. Pause. Daata = provider; source. Jea Daan(u) = the gift of (spiritual) life. Triptaasaiy = is contented. Smaahi = is absorbed. Undin(u) = everyday; always. Ruvviya = present. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. Smaadh(i) = deep meditation. 2. Bhaydiya = pierced; affected deeply. Saachi Bani = Guru's immortalizing Shabad (Waheguru's Naam). Alukh(u) = incomprehensible. Akuth Kuhaani = sing praise of the indescribable (God). Saaringpaani = a name for God. 3. Aavun =coming; birth. Jaana = going; death. Buhourr(i) = again. Soami = oh, Lord. Puteejaiy = is pleased. Aap(u) Guvaaya = eradicated selfishness and ego. 4. Uver(u) = other. Jug(i) = in the world. Nirmul(u) = clean; pure. Sach(u) = (like) Waheguru. Tay = from. Dhoor(i) = from the Source. 5.

MEANING: I always sing praise of my Guru, who is the source of all comforts, and a manifestation of Waheguru. It is a great honour for me that I have attained the highest spiritual state with the grace of the Guru. My Guru always sings praise of Waheguru and stays absorbed in Him with His Naam. 1.
Ponder on Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru (with His Shabad), oh, my mind. Get rid of your falsehood (love for the perishable and with the family), your selfishness and ego, and the poisonous worldly desires, and always remember death. Pause.
Only Satguru is the provider (source) of Waheguru's Naam; there is no other such source. He gives the gift of Waheguru's Naam with which the devotee attains contentment, and stays absorbed in Waheguru with the recitation of His Naam. He always feels the presence of Waheguru in his mind and remains connected to Him by meditating on His Naam in a high spiritual state. 2. My mind has been pierced with Satguru's Shabad, and I have Waheguru's Naam enshrined in my heart (mind). My Waheguru is otherwise incomprehensible, but can be comprehended by singing His praise with the Guru's Shabad. But one recites His Naam only when the source of all comforts, Waheguru, becomes benevolent to the devotee. 3.
When one recites Waheguru's Naam in the high spiritual state in the shelter of the Guru, he is not caught in the birth-death cycle ever again. His mind gets connected with the Lord, and stays in itself (quits wavering). Waheguru is pleased only when a devotee recites His Naam and becomes like Him by getting rid of his selfishness and ego. 4.
One, and the only Waheguru, dwells in the devotee's mind, and there is none other in his mind. Only Waheguru's sweet Naam is the true Amrit in the world, because of which a devotee becomes pure like Waheguru. But only that devotee acquires Waheguru's Naam in his heart who has it prewritten in his fate by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 5.4.

Word Meaning: Gun, Gundhurb = assistants of the gods. Oodhray = salvaged. Sud = always. Oor(i) = in the heart. Dhaar(i) = acquire; embed. Boojhaayay = gives the understanding. Bani = Waheguru's Naam. Liv Laayay = stay connected through meditation. 1. Khin, Khin = every moment. Smaahl(i) = keep in mind. Daat(u) = largess. Nibhaiy = lasts with (you) till the end. Pause. Paakhund = show off; hypocrisy. Chookaiy = ends. Bhaayay = in love. Visaar(i) = forgetting. Bikhiya = poisonous sensual enjoyments. Raatay = intoxicated. Birtha = uselessly. Guvaayay = waste away. Vayla = time; opportunity. Huth(i) Na Aavaiy = cannot be acquired (recalled). Puchhutaayay = repents. Vishta = filth (of sensual pleasures). Smaayay = stay in there. 2. Jeevun Mookut = emancipated when still alive (by killing worldly desires). Ootum = superior. Purakh = Lord. Jaata = acknowledge; have faith in. 3. Kuraayay = makes others do. Raata = imbued. Sayva = serving. Soort(i) = thinking. Abhayva = whose secrets are not known (God). Lukhaayay = reveals. Chulaayay = guides them in life. 4.

MEANING: Even the assistants of the gods attained salvation only after they got rid of their selfishness and ego by pondering on the Guru's Shabad, and embedded Waheguru's Naam in their hearts for good. But only that individual understands such deep likes and dislikes of Waheguru whom He connects with Him. Such a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad and stays connected with Him through deep meditation. 1.

Remember Waheguru every moment with Guru's Shabad, which is the source of all comforts, and is a special gift of the Guru, and which lasts with you till the end, oh my mind. Pause.

On the other hand, the hypocrisy of the Maya-worshipper never ends, and he suffers because of his love for Maya. Such individuals forget Waheguru's Naam, become intoxicated by sensual enjoyments, and leave the world by wasting their precious human life. They cannot recall this opportunity (human life) again, and repent all the time. They keep taking births and dying, and stay absorbed in the filth of sensual pleasures, and never realize the importance (of Waheguru's Naam). 2.

Guru's Sikhs stay imbued in the love for Waheguru's Naam, and attain salvation by pondering over Guru's Shabad. They recite Waheguru's Naam and enshrine it in their heart forever, because of which they attain emancipation while living in the world. With Guru's Shabad in mind, they are pure by body and mind, and have pure and superior thinking. They acknowledge only one Lord, and only one God, and none else. 3.

They know that it is Waheguru who does everything that needs to be done, makes others do it, and casts His kind gaze on those He likes (based on their deeds). Their mind and their body are imbued in Guru's Shabad, and they always think of serving Waheguru and all others. They have the incomprehensible Waheguru whose secrets can never be known by the common man, but they can learn about Him in the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru reveals such secrets to those whom He likes (enlightens) and guides them in life, oh, Nanak. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Ghur(u), Dur(u), Mehl(u), Soothaan = Waheguru's Residence, Door to His Palace, and the holy place. Chhokaiy = ends. Abhimaan(u) = conceit; ego. 1.
Lilaat(i) = (on the) forehead. Dhoor(i) = from the source (Waheguru). Undin(u) = always. Saachi Durgah = Waheguru's Court. Maan(u) = respect. Pause. Bidh(i) = means. Jaanaiy = understands. Siyoun = with. Ruttay = imbued in. Baiyraagi = detached from the world (and connected with God). 2. Khaylaiy = dances like a puppet. Huqam Ka Baandha = to the tune of Waheguru's Huqam. Dehdis(i) = in all the ten directions (of senses). Tutkaal = instantly. Vuss(i) Aavaiy = comes under control. Bhuv Saagur(u) = the world-sea; sea of Maya. Paar(i) = the other end. 4.6.

MEANING: One gets rid of his ego with Guru's Shabad, and gets access to the Residence of Waheguru, which is the most holy place in the world. 1.
Those fortunate people who have Waheguru's Naam prewritten on their forehead (in their fate) by Waheguru, recite the Naam all the time, and earn respect in Waheguru's Court. Pause. One learns the means (technique) to acquire Waheguru's Naam from Satguru when he learns to focus his mind on Waheguru's Naam all the time. Those who are imbued with the love of Guru's Shabad are always detached from worldly attachments and are honoured in Waheguru's Court. 2. As per Waheguru's Huqam (His Will), the uncontrolled human mind dances to the tune of Maya and takes flights in all ten directions in a moment. But when the eternal Waheguru casts His kind sight on a devotee, his mind comes under his control instantly (quits taking flights) in the Guru's shelter. 3.
By pondering the Guru's Shabad, a devotee attains a high spiritual state. (So, without worrying about anything else) Just recite Waheguru's Naam all the time, by which you will swim across the world-sea, oh Nanak. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Pind(u) = body. Praan = life. Uver(u) = other. Jaana = acknowledge. Boojhaayi = clarified. Liv Laayi = stay connected; meditate deeply. Adisht(u) = invisible. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Uprumpur = endless. Pause. Bheejaiy = imbues. Sehjay = in high spiritual state. Bherm(u) = illusions. 2. Buchni = Shabad; Teachings. MEANING: My Satguru has clarified to me that my soul, my body, and my life are all given by Waheguru, which is present in everybody; so, now, I do not acknowledge anybody else than the "One" Waheguru. 1.

Stay focused on Waheguru's Naam, oh my mind. Remember the invisible, incomprehensible, and the endless Creator with Guru's Shabad all the time. Pause.

One's mind and body get imbued in the love for Waheguru when he meditates on his Naam, and stays absorbed in Him in high spiritual state. All one's illusions and fears disappear with Guru's grace when he focuses his mind on Waheguru's Naam. 2.

One acquires noble thinking, and attains high spiritual state only when he moulds his life according to the Shabad (Advice) of the Guru. But Waheguru gives such wisdom only to very few people among millions who focus their mind on His Naam. With Guru's Advice, now I see only Waheguru everywhere. Getting rid of one's selfishness and ego, he should offer his mind, body, and life before Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.7.

Word Meaning: Saacha = eternal. Dookh-Nivaarun(u) = destroyer of suffering. Baiyraagi = fully detached from worldly affairs; and dedicated to Waheguru. Put(i) = respect. 1. Smaayi = absorbed. Sayti = with. Pause. Ut(i) = extremely. Sach(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Sunjum(u) = control on senses. Kerni = worthy deeds (performance). 2. Saakhi = Teachings. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Soul. Milaayi = merged. Kaachi = perishable. Paun(u) = air; breaths. Vujaayay = sustain. 3. Saajay = creates. Kaaraiy Laayay = puts in business (worldly affairs). Smaayi = present. Binaa = without. Vudaayi = respect. 4.

MEANING: My eternal Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all suffering, can be acquired (enshrined) in the mind with the Guru's Shabad. Those devotees, who are imbued in the love for Waheguru's worship, are always detached from the worldly attractions, and are honoured in His Court. 1. Stay in yourself (quit taking flights), oh my mind. Those who have an unwavering mind get imbued with Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and stay connected with Waheguru with their focused mind. Pause.

The Guru has clarified to me that Waheguru is inaccessible and incomprehensible. So, (to connect with Him) one needs to recite His Naam with love, control their senses, and sing Waheguru's praise with a focused mind. 2.
Those whose soul has become "one" with Waheguru realize that Waheguru Himself is Guru's Shabad, and Himself His (Guru's) Teachings. The perishable human body runs on breaths, but can be immortalized with the Naam-Amrit in the Guru's shelter. 3.
Waheguru Himself creates the world, puts everybody in worldly business, and is present everywhere. One is insignificant (has no importance) without Waheguru's Naam, and with which he earns respect everywhere, oh Nanak. 4.8.

Word Meaning: Bikh(u) = poison. Mohiya = captivated. Luddiya = loaded with Ujgur Bhaari = huge load. Groorr = mantra (antidote) for poison. Maari = killed. 1. Bhuvjul Jugut = the word-sea. Terna = swim. Taari = boat. Pause.
Traiygoon = the three effects of Maya. Pusaara = expanse. Vertaiy = operates; affects. Aakaari = bodies. Tooriya Goon(u) = the virtue which is above the effects of Maya. Nudri = with the kind Sight. Paar Ootaari = ferries across; salvages. 2. Soogundh = Behkaar(i) = fragrance. Baashna = (good) smell. Kerni = deeds. Ootum = superior. Bisthaar(i) = expanse; dissemination. 3. Oordhaari(i) = acquire in mind. Mooraar(i) = of Waheguru. 4.
MEANING: Man's selfishness and his ego captivate him, but they are poison (which destroy his good qualities), as a result of which, the man carries a heavy burden of immoral acts (sins). However, Guru's Shabad is the antidote for such poison, which destroys the poison of one's selfishness and ego when he recites Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad. 1.
One's worldly attachments and his haumein cause severe suffering for him, oh, my mind. One cannot swim across the world-sea with his haumein; he needs to take Guru's shelter (and to recite Waheguru's Naam), which acts as the ship to ferry him across. Pause.
Maya, with its three effects, is the source of one's worldly attachments and is spread all over, affecting everybody. One acquires the noble qualities to attain the spiritual state above the effects of Maya only in the company of the holy saints (the Guru), and is ferried across the world-sea by Waheguru's kind sight. 2. Just like sandalwood, which fragrances the whole environment with its sweet smell, a devotee of Waheguru performs a supreme (noble) act when he sings Waheguru's praise, which purifies the whole world as it spreads. 3. Please, be kind to me so that I may enshrine Your Naam in my heart, oh Waheguru. I am fortunate that I have been connected with the Perfect Guru, with whose grace, I am reciting Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.9.

Word Meaning: Girhi = attached to the worldly affairs. K(i) = or. Oodaasi = detached. Avern(u) = above the four traditional castes. Avinaashi = immortal. Chunchul = fickle; ever changing. Baiyraagi = detached and non-wavering. Mumta = worldly attachments. Kithoun = where from. 1. Uver(u) K(i) = what else. Ootthaaveeh(i) Bhaar(u) = carry harmful burden. Pause. Srisht(i) = the world. Boojhou = understand. Shernaayi = seek support (surrender yourself). 2. Pund = package; load. Vukhaanaiy = recites. Deekhiya = Advice. Sees(u) = head; wisdom. Dhuray = offers; surrenders. Alugg = separate; detached. Nirbaan(u) = without any desire. Pervaan = approved. 3. Ja = when. Jaanaiy = acknowledges. Bukhshay = endows. Maylay = connects. Aiythaiy Oathaiy = here and there; everywhere. 4. Keht = says. Bidh(i) = means. Mookut(i) = emancipated. Kook = loud preaching. 5.

MEANING: The most important thing for you to do is to analyze the nature of the human mind rather than reading about other things and carrying a burden (of useless discussions), oh pundit. Pause. Find out whether the mind is attached to the worldly affairs, or is it fully detached; is it above the discrimination of the traditional castes and therefore, always immortal (by merging into Waheguru)? Is the human mind constantly wavering, or does it achieve stability by becoming fully detached from worldly attractions? What caused the mind to get attached to worldly things in the first place? 1.

(Answer)With Guru's grace, you will find that the Creator Himself has caused the human mind to be attached to worldly things; in fact, He has created the universe, making worldly attachment the basic Law (basis) of the creation. So, (to stay unaffected by such attractions) seek Waheguru's shelter (surrender your wisdom to Him), oh man. 2.
The true pundit is the one who unloads the package of the three effects of Maya (stays unaffected by them), and recites Waheguru's Naam all the time. Such a pundit surrenders his wisdom to the Guru, listens to His Advice, and obeys it. He stays detached from worldly attachments and has no such desire. Such a pundit is approved in Waheguru's Court. 3.
Such a pundit says (believes) that it is the same Waheguru who is present in everybody; he sees only Him everywhere, and acknowledges only Him. Waheguru connects such a devotee with Him, whom He endows with such wisdom (thinking). Such a devotee enjoys comforts everywhere. 4. But only that individual attains emancipation whom Waheguru is benevolent to; others cannot attain it, no matter what means they use, oh Nanak. Such devotees sing Waheguru's praise all the time, and do not listen to the teachings of the Vedas and the Shastras, no matter how loudly someone preaches them. 5.1.10.

Haajur, hujoor(i) Hur(i) vaypervaaha.
(PAGE 1262): Nanak, Gurmukh(i) Naam(i) smaaha. 4.2.11.
Word Meaning: Munmukh = Maya-engrossed. Bherm(i) = lost in illusions. Bhermaayi = is taken through. Jumkaal(u) = Angel of death. Put(i) = dignity. Kaan(i) = any owing; subservience. Chookaayi = paid off; ended. Mehl(u) Ghur(u) = Waheguru's Residence (union with Him). 1. Praani = oh, man. Junum(u) Pdaaruth = human objective (Waheguru's Naam). Doobidha = indecisiveness. Khohiya = lost. Kaudi = a worthless cowrie shell. Budlaiy = in exchange for. Pause. Oordhaar(i) = embed in mind. Bhuvjul(u) = the world-sea. Lunghaavunhaar = ferries across. Disaiy = becomes clearly visible; shines. Sachiyaar(u) = pure (like Waheguru). 2. Buhhou = many. Kerm = rituals. Mumta = worldly attachments. Moh(u) = affection. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Munmukh = the follower of his mind. 3. Kerta = Creator. Athaaha = unfathomable. Laaha = benefit; acquirement. Haajur Hujoor(i) = omnipresent. Vaypervaaha = carefree. Smaaha = absorbed. 4.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh man. Because of your indecisiveness (to choose between Waheguru and Maya), you are wasting away your precious human life (opportunity to connect with Waheguru) by exchanging your noble qualities for the worldly attractions, which are as worthless as a cowrie shell. Pause.
Misled by his illusions, the Maya-engrossed man is taken through many different life forms. The Angel of (spiritual) death punishes him all the time, and he loses his respect. Service to Satguru pays off any subservience (owing to his misdeeds) to the Angel, and the devotee gets connected with Him (and with Waheguru). 1.
With Waheguru's benevolence, a devotee develops love for Him in the shelter of the Guru (with His Advice). He embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart and worships Him. Guru's Shabad ferries one across the world-sea, and the pure-hearted devotee (who is fully detached from worldly affairs) shines in Waheguru's Court (is honoured there). 2.
A Maya-engrossed individual performs many rituals but cannot connect with the Guru; without the Guru, one is misled by many illusions of Maya. He has too much attachment to the attractions of Maya, his selfishness, and his ego, and suffers greatly. 3.
Waheguru, who Himself is the creator, is inaccessible and unfathomable. One acquires His Naam (enshrines in his heart) when he recites it in the Guru's shelter, and sees the carefree Waheguru to be present wherever he looks. Such a devotee stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 4.2.11.

Word Meaning: Jeevut Mookut = emancipated (fully detached) while living in the family. Jaagaiy = stay alert (against attacks of Maya). Aap(u) Guvaayay = get rid of their selfishness and ego. Huoun = I. Laagoun Paanyay = drop on feet; show full respect. 1. Jeevaan = survive. Muhha Rus(u) = tremendously sweet. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Pause. Ugiyaan(u) = ignorance. Goobaar(u) = darkness. Mohay = captivated; robbed. Moogudh Guvaar = foolish and unrefined. Dhundha = Maya-based tasks. Vihaayay = (life) spends. Sujaayay = punishment. 2. Gurumukh(i) = Guru's Sikhs. Liv Laayi = meditate oh; stay connected with. Koorraiy Laaluch = greed for the perishables. Luptaayay = cling to; get strongly attached. Sehj Soobhaayay = in a natural way; without any special effort. Rusaayay = while enjoying. 3. Koat(i) Mudhay Kiseh(i) = one in millions. Boojhaayay = gives the understanding; reveals. Bukhshay = endows. Vudiyaayi = honour. Dhoor(i) = from the beginning (source). Vichhurr(i) = separate. 4.

MEANING: Those who follow the Guru's Advice become emancipated even while living with the family (fighting the attractions of Maya), and with the worship of Waheguru in mind, they stay awake all the time against the attacks of Maya. I will gladly drop at the feet of (surrender myself to) those who serve Satguru, and get rid of their selfishness and ego. 1.

I live by reciting Waheguru's Naam with the sweet Shabad of the Guru, which is rich in Waheguru's praise. One attains emancipation and a high spiritual state with Waheguru's Naam. Pause. Attachment to Maya is the source of ignorance and darkness of mind, and the foolish and the ignorant are captivated by the attractions of Maya. Every day of theirs is spent performing Maya-related tasks; they receive punishment for their performance, and keep taking births and dying. 2. But the Sikhs of the Guru remain connected to Waheguru through the Guru's Shabad and have no greed to become attached to the false (short-lived) attractions of Maya. Whatever good happens to the Sikh happens naturally, without any special effort on his part. He enjoys the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam with his tongue (recites the Naam while enjoying it). 3.

However, Waheguru bestows such wisdom only to a very few people among millions, and then honours them. The devotee who gets connected with Waheguru with His benevolence, never gets separated again, and stays absorbed in His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.3.12.

Word Meaning: Rusna = (by the) tongue. Luhhaiy = acquires. Bundhun = bonds (of Maya). Usthir(u) Ghur = eternal house (Waheguru's Naam). Buhhaiy = settles down; controls the mind. 1. Roas(u) = resentment. Laaha = profit; advantage. Ruveejaiy = (should) recite. Pause. Babeeha = the rain bird. Khin(u), Khin(u) = every moment (second). Bil-laayay = cries; yearns for. Vichhorra = separation. Suhhiya = tolerated. Soobhaayay = with love. 2. Naam-Heen = without the Naam. Binsaiy = dies (spiritually). Trishna Juliya = burned in the fire of worldly desires. Bhookh = appetite of desires. Bhaagaan = good fortune. Buhhou Bidh(i) = for many different approaches. Thaaka = exhausted. Kern Kmaayay = performimg rituals. 3. Traiygoon = the three effects of Maya. Bani = teachings. Bikhiya = poisonous. Maiyl(u) = filth. Vapaar(u) = business. Khooaar(u) = suffers in frustration. Tooriya =above the effects of Maya. Oordhaar(i) = enshrines in the heart. 4. Maanaiy = is recognized. Seetul(u) = calm; peaceful. Yug(i) = in all eons. Sobha = fame. Nirmul = pure. Virla = rare. 5.

MEANING: Everybody recites Waheguru's Naam with their tongue, but only that devotee enshrines it in their heart who serves (follows the Teachings of) the Guru. He breaks all his worldly bonds, attains peace of mind (which quits wavering), and stays absorbed in Guru's Shabad, which is the door to emancipation. 1.

Why do you show any resentment, oh my mind? Waheguru's Naam is the real profit (wealth) to acquire in the world. So, one should always recite the Naam deep from the heart in the shelter of the Guru. Pause. Like the rain-bird (which yearns for the first drop of rain water), my mind yearns for Waheguru's Sight every moment. I cannot enjoy sleep (have rest) without seeing Him, and cannot endure His separation. One can connect with Waheguru if he comes to the Guru's shelter with love. 2.

Those who are without Waheguru's Naam experience spiritual deprivation and suffer badly. Burnt in the fire of worldly desires, one's appetite for such desires never goes away. Such an individual gets exhausted by performing a variety of conventional rituals, but one cannot acquire Waheguru's Naam without good fortune. 3.

Pondering on the teachings of the Vedas keeps one severely involved in the three qualities of Maya, as a result of which, all his business is (deeds are) about the poisonous Maya, and he accumulates the filth of immoral acts. He continues to suffer humiliation through repeated births and deaths. But a Guru's Sikh enshrines noble qualities in his heart which are above the effects of Maya. 4.

A Sikh, who is honoured by the Guru, is honoured by everyone. His mind becomes calm (peaceful) with Guru's Shabad, and because of his pure (pious) mind, he earns praise (respect) in the world, no matter what the eon is. But there is a rare person who is such a Sikh of the Guru, oh Nanak. 5.4.13.9.22.

Word Meaning: Undin(u) = everyday; always. Visaari = forgotten; got rid of. Aasa = hopes; wishes. Munsa = desires. Bundhun = bonds. 1. Naiyni = eyes. Taari = deep meditation. Bigsiyo = blooms; overjoyed. Baytiyo = connected with. Bunvaari = a name for (Waheguru). Pause. Kool(i) = clan. Gaari = curse. Kool(i) = Persoot = cause birth. Bidhva = widow. Mehtaari = mother; wisdom; thinking. 2. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Oordhaari = enshrine in heart. Deetthaiy = to see. Baarik = child. 3. Dunn = human bride (soul). Pir = husband (Waheguru). Sung = together. Vaasa = dwelling. Bheet(i) = wall; curtain. Kuraari = strong. 4.

MEANING: My mind has bloomed to meet with my Satguru (coming to His shelter), who has kindly connected His slave (me) with Waheguru. Now my eyes are fully focused on His Sight (mind focused on His Naam). Pause. I recite Waheguru's Naam in my mind with Guru's Advice, and have forgotten all my suffering. With Waheguru's benevolence, all the bonds of my wishes and desires have been broken. 1.

The clan of those who ignore such Naam of great Waheguru gets cursed. May Waheguru never cause the birth of such wisdom (perpetuate such thinking) in that clan, and their such evil wisdom should be widowed (the guru, who preaches such thinking, should be dead). 2. Connect me with the Guru who has enshrined Your Naam in his heart day and night (forever), oh Waheguru. Like a child who feels overjoyed to see his mother, the heart of the Sikh blooms at the sight of the Guru. 3. Waheguru, and the human bride (soul) dwell at the same place (in the bride's body), but there is a strong curtain of human selfishness and ego between them. When the Perfect Guru demolishes that wall of human haumein, the devotee gets connected with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Gunga, Yamuna, Sursooti, Godavri = are four holy rivers for the Hindus. Tay = those. Oodum(u) = effort. Sadhu Kee Dhoor(i) = dust of the Guru's Feet. Kilvikh

Maiyl(u) = filth of people's sins. Guvaayi = removes. 1. Utth-sutth(i) Teeruth = the 68 holy places of the Hindus. Mujun Naayi = bathe; take dips. Satsungut(I) = the gathering of holy saints. Oodd(i) = flying. Pause. Jaahurnvi = the River,Ganga. Tupaiy = sage. Aani = brought (Hindus believe that the sage Bhageeruth(i) brought the Ganga from the paradise to the earth. Thaapiyo = established. Mehsaayeen = Shiva. Kaanshi = Banaras. Krishan Churaavut Gaaoou = where Krishna grazed cows (Brindabun). Sobha Paayi = earned praise. 2. Titnay = the same. Locheh(i) = long for. Taayeen = for. 3. Srisht(i) = world. Lilaat(i) = on the forehead (in fortune). Paar Lunghaayi = ferry across the world-sea. 4

MEANING: The four holy rivers of the Hindus – Ganga, Yamuna, Godavari, and Sursooti – make an effort to have (long for) the dust of the feet of the holy saints (Guru) with the firm belief that the dust of their feet removes the filth that they (the Rivers) have accumulated while washing the sins of the people. 1.
When the dust of the feet of the holy saints flies off (their holy Words are spread), and touches the eyes of the devotees (the Words are listened to by the devotees), all the filth of their evil thinking is removed as if they have taken dip in all the 68 holy places. Pause.
(According the Hindu holy books) the river Ganga was brought to the earth from the Paradise by the sage Bhagirath(u); the holy pace of Kedar (in the Himalayas), and the city of Banaras (now Varanasi) were established by Shiva; Brinda Bun (by the banks of Yamuna) is considered holy because Krishna grazed cows there; and these places earned holiness because of these devotees of Waheguru. 2. Like a true devotee, who puts the dust of Guru's Feet on his face (listens to His words with reverence, all those holy places which were established by gods long for the dust of Guru's Feet 3.
The whole creation of Waheguru longs for the dust of the Guru's Feet, but only those devotees have the good fortune to get the dust of His Feet to swim across the world-sea who have it prewritten on their forehead (in fortune) by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Bhookh = appetite (for worldly attractions). Ootraiy = comes off. Buchun = words (of praise). Oochraiy = recites. 1. Nisturaiy = finds salvation. Kern = by the ears. Bhuv-Saagur = world-ocean. Paar(i) Puray = swim to the other side. Pause.

Haat(i) Bikaanay = sold at his shop (of Waheguru's Naam); serve like a slave. Doormut(i) Maiyl(u) = filth of evil thinking. Huraiy = is removed. 2. Triptaiy = is contented. Bichraiy = ponders on. Meena = fish. Phoot Muray = explodes to death. 3. Kaiy = or. Mun(i) Dhuraiy = places in mind. Turaiy = passes by without affecting; is averted. 4.

MEANING: Only that devotee finds Waheguru (His Naam) sweet whom Waheguru is kind to. All his appetite for worldly attractions. And his suffering goes away when he sings Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad. 1. Recite Waheguru's Naam to find salvation, oh my mind. The devotee, who listens to the Guru's Shabad and recites it, swims across the world-sea. Pause. I am sold to the devotee (will serve him like a slave) whom Waheguru is benevolent to because one's evil thinking is destroyed, and he acquires blissfulness when he meets with (serves) a devotee of Waheguru (a holy saint). 2. Waheguru's devotee is always hungry for Waheguru's Naam, and he feels contented when he sings His praise. Waheguru's devotee is like a fish in Waheguru's Naam-water, and quickly dies spiritually, as the fish explodes to death when taken out of very deep water. 3. Only Waheguru, or the devotee who has enshrined the Naam in his heart, knows the degree of blissfulness of the devotee's love for Waheguru. I enjoy all bliss in meeting a devotee of Waheguru, because meeting him removes all my appetite for worldly attractions, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Jitnay = all those. Titnay = the same. Sir(i) = forehead (in fortune). Kaar Likhaavaiy = have deeds to be performed prewritten. Deen(u) = given. Vudaayi = respect. Kaaraiy Laavaiy = makes them perform noble deeds. puts in business. 1. Dri-rravaiy = reinforces. Pause. Bhaavaiy = is liked. 2. Bnerm(i) Bhoolay = misled by misgivings. Ugiyani = ignorant. Phool toraavaiy = picks flowers (for the idol). Nirjeeou = lifeless. Murrha = graves. Birthi = uselessly. Ghaal = hard labour. Guvaavaiy = wastes away. 3. Braham Binday = recognizes (makes connection with) Waheguru. Chhaadun = clothes. Bhojun = food. Paat Ptumbur = silk clothes. Buhou Bidh(i) = of many kinds. Sat Kur(i) = with full faith. Mookh)i) Sunchou = feed (in the mouth). Poonn(u) = noble deed. Toat(i) = shortage. 4. Dayo = God-like. Pertukh(i) = visibly; clearly. Moorut(i) = image; manifestation. Bhaag Bhulay = good fortune. Chit(u) = mind. 5.

MEANING: All the living beings that have been created by Waheguru have the results of their previous deeds written in their fate by Waheguru. Waheguru inspires people to respect His devotees and to perform noble deeds. 1.

Satguru reinforces Waheguru's Naam in individuals' minds. Recite Waheguru's Naam, which ferries you across the world-sea, oh, the Sikhs of the Guru - my brothers. Pause.

The devotee, who serves and worships the Guru, is liked by Waheguru. Worshipping the Guru is the true service to Waheguru, who ferries us across the world-sea with His benevolence. 2. The ignorant are misled by their illusions, and are blind (are in spiritual darkness) and pick flowers (to offer to the idol) because of their misbeliefs. They worship the lifeless idols and graves, as a result of which, all their hard work goes to waste. 3. Satguru is the one who recognizes (is always connected with) Waheguru alone, and sings His praise. One should offer many kinds of silk clothes with love and respect to such a Satguru, and feed Him good food. One never experiences a shortage of any kind for such noble deeds. 4.

The God-like Satguru is clearly a manifestation of Waheguru, delivering Amrit-like Words in His praise. Such a devotee is highly fortunate who attaches His mind to Waheguru's Feet (His Naam), oh Nanak. 5.4.

Dhun(u), dhunn(u) Guru Nanak(u) jun sumdersi, Jinh(i) ninda, oostut(i) turie, traant(i). 4.5.

Word Meaning: Heeuraiy = in heart. Tay = those. Sunt = holy saints. Bhulay = noble; good for others. Bhul Bhaant(i) = in every which way. Bigsaiy = blooms Bul Jaant(i) = I am a sacrifice. 1. Giyani = enlightened. Trishna = worldly desires. Rus(u) = sweetness. Khaant(i) = eat; enjoy. Pause. Daas = devotees. Sukha Jun = friendly; helpful. Leh(i) Jaayay = comes off. Bhuraant(i) = misbeliefs; wavering of mind. Doodh = milk. Bhinn, Bhinn= separately. Kaadhaiy = takes out. Choon(i) = selectively. Hunsula = swan. Taat(i) = jealousy. 2. Tay = those. Kuptee = deceitful; swindler. Nur = men. Kupt Kumaant(i) = practise deceit. Khaant(i) = eat; reap rewards. 3. Chihn(u) = (qualities for) identification. Rukhaat(i) = places. Sumdersi = non-discriminating. Ninda = vilification. Oostut(i) = undeserving praise. Turie = got over. Traant(i) = makes people get over. 4.

MEANING: The saints of Waheguru, who enshrine His Naam in their hearts, are highly noble and are good for others in each and every way. My mind blooms to see them, and I am always a sacrifice for them. 1.
The enlightened devotees recite Waheguru's Naam day and night. Such devotees, who enjoy the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam with the Advice of the Guru, get their appetite for worldly attractions fully satisfied (have no longer any worldly desire). Pause.
Waheguru's devotees are holy saints. and are always helpful to others. One's misgivings are dispelled to see them (in their company). Like the swan, which is believed to separate milk from water, the Guru selectively extracts one's selfishness, ego, and jealousy for others from his body. 2. The individuals who do not have any love for Waheguru in their minds are swindlers and practise deceit in their daily affairs. What advice can anyone give them or feed them; they reap the (humiliating) rewards of their own deeds. 3.
Waheguru places Himself (His qualities) in the heart of His devotees, so they have the same qualities as Waheguru, and become like Him. Guru Nanak is great, and worthy of our worship because He was non-discriminating, who was above vilification of, and undeserving praise for others, and who also made others get rid of such bad qualities. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Ootum = superior; supreme. Paar(i) Puyya = reached the other end (of the world-sea); salvaged. 1. Bhuyya = became. Bherm(u) = misgiving. Bhuou = fear. Pause. Muyya = kindness; merci. Sers(u) = sight. Roag(u) = ailment. 2. Suful = successful. Oye = they. Srisht(i) = world. Kool = clan; associates. Oopaaya = created. Vuss(i) Kur(i) = brought under control. Bikh(u) = in poisonous (world-sea of sensual pleasures). Doobda = drowning. Kaadh(i) Luyya = pulled out; saved.
MEANING: The Naam of the inaccessible, and the incomprehensible Waheguru is supreme, and one recites it only with His benevolence. One acquires shelter of the Guru with great fortune, and swims across the world-sea (by reciting Waheguru's Naam in His shelter. 1.

By reciting Waheguru's Naam with Guru's grace, my mind has become blissful, and all my fears and misgivings have been dispelled. Pause.
Please be kind to me, and put me in the company of those who sing Your praise, or listen to Your Naam, oh benevolent Waheguru. One achieves blissfulness to see them, and the ailment (suffering) of his ego goes away. 2. The life of those who always recite Waheguru's Naam becomes successful (they achieve the objective of human life). Not only do they find salvation for themselves, but they also get salvation for their clan, and for the whole world (for those who recite Waheguru's Naam in their company). 3.
Waheguru creates the whole world Himself, and brings it under His control (it has to obey His Laws). Waheguru was very kind to me, who pulled me out of the ocean of poisonous sensual enjoyments, oh Nanak. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Amrit(u) = immortalizing Waheguru's Naam. Trishna Bhookh = appetite of worldly desires. Moorrh = foolish. Julut Ahunkaari = burn in the fire of ego. Aavut Jaat = taking birth, and dying. Birtha = uselessly. Puchhutaayi = repents. Chayteh(i) = keep in mind. Dhrig(u) = shameful. Khaayi = eating. 1. Praani = oh, man. Smaayi = get absorbed. Pause. Lujaayi = ashamed. Sidh(i) = success. Boodh(i) = (noble) wisdom (thinking). Mudhim = low. Lobh Lehr = impulses of greed. Bihoon = without. Bil-laayi = wails; cries for help. 2. Sehj(i) Soobhaayi = without any special effort. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Liv Laayi = deep meditation. Pdaaruth(u) = the priceless article. Vudiyaayi = greatness. 3. Tay = from. Urp(i) = offer. Rukhoun Aagaiy = place before. Chit(u) = mind. Loh = (heavy like) iron. Naav = Bohitha = boat. Paar(i) Lunghaayi = ferries across; salvages. 4.

MEANING: The follower-of-his-mind does not drink (enjoy) the Amrit-like Naam of Waheguru with the grace of the Guru, as a result of which, his appetite for worldly enjoyments never goes away. The foolish burns in the fire of his ego and suffers because of his selfishness and conceit. He uselessly wastes away his precious human life, and suffers taking births, and dying again, and again, and then repents. His living and his eating are condemnable because he does not remember Waheguru, who created him. 1. Recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh man; but one gets connected with the Guru only with the benevolence of Waheguru, when he stays absorbed in His Naam. Pause.

The birth (life) of the follower of his mind (who is disconnected from Waheguru) as a human being goes to waste, and he is disgraced, trapped in the cycle of repeated births and deaths. The egoists stay absorbed in lust and in rage, and burn in the fire of their selfishness and their conceit. With low wisdom, they have no (spiritual) success and no intelligence, and suffer for their impulses of greed. Without the Guru, they suffer a great deal, and wail and cry for help when the Angel of death grabs them. 2.

One acquires the Naam of the incomprehensible Waheguru without any special effort (no self-torturing, etc.) in the shelter of the Guru. He enshrines the treasure of the Naam in his heart and sings Waheguru's praise with the tongue. With the focus of mind on Guru's Shabad (in Waheguru's praise), one enjoys blissfulness day and night. It is the greatness of the Guru that one acquires the Naam with ease, in His shelter. 3.

I am a sacrifice for my Satguru, with whose grace I have enshrined Waheguru's Naam in my heart. My mind is attached to (focused on) Satguru's Feet (His Shabad), and I will gladly offer my mind and my body in His service. We are heavy like iron (loaded with sins), and the Guru is the boat to ferry us across the world-sea. Please be kind to me, Nanak, and connect me with You with Your benevolence, oh my dear Satguru. 4.7.

Word Meaning: Chitveh(i) = plan. Oopaayay = measures. Pervaah = care about; worry. Kaahoo Kee = of what. Jih = whose. Suhaayay = supports. 1. Bersaiy = rains. Megh = clouds. Paahun = guest; husband (Waheguru). Ghur(i) = in the heart. Moh(i) = I. Deen = poor; insignificant. Kirpa Nidh(i) = treasure of mercy (compassion). Tthaakur = Lord. Nuvnidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Smaayay = get absorbed. Pause. Anik Perkaar = of many kinds. Bhojun = foods. Binjun Mishtaayay = delicious sweet dishes. Paalshaal = kitchen. Soach = clean; pure. Puvittra = holy. Hoon(i) = now. Laavhou Bhoag = taste to approve. Hur(i) Raayay = oh the Royal Waheguru. 2. Doosht = evils; the five demons. Bidaaray = destroyed. Saajun = friendly qualities. Rehsay = became blissful; began to bloom. Upnaayay = made own; became patron. Juou = when. Laal(u) = dear. Rungiyo = colourful. Tuou = then. 3. Oat = support. Dhoor(i) from the source. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead; in the fate. Rungeela = which appears in many different and colourful forms. Kunt(u) = Husband (God). 4

MEANING: The devotee, who has the support of Waheguru, does not care about anybody else and has no worries. So, what are you thinking about, what are you planning for, and what means are you considering (to be worry-free)? 1.

My Waheguru has come to dwell in my heart, and I feel as if His benevolence is raining on my mind to cool it off (make it peaceful), oh my friend. I am insignificant, whereas my Lord is the source of compassion. Getting absorbed in His Naam is like owning all the nine treasures of the world. Pause. I have cleansed (purified) the kitchen of my heart, and have prepared a variety of delicious foods and sweet dishes for my Waheguru (sing His praise in many ways with deep love and reverence), and pray to the Royal Waheguru to accept them. 2. Waheguru has made my body His own (home to live) as a result of which, all my evil demons (lust, greed, etc.) have been destroyed, and my friendly senses have become blissful, and good qualities have begun to flourish in my mind. I have acquired all happiness ever since my colourful Dear (Waheguru) has come to dwell in my heart. 3.

One gets the shelter of the Perfect Guru and the company of the holy saints only because of his preordained good fortune from Waheguru. Once one acquires the colourful Husband (Waheguru) in his mind, he never suffers from anything again, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Kheer = milk. Adhaar(i) = dependent upon. Baarik(u) = child. Saar(i) Smaahl(i) = note the situation, and look after that. Mookh(i) Neeraiy = breast feeds him. Triput Aghaayi = gets fully satisfied. 1. Daata = provider. Bhooleh(i) = make mistakes. Anik Lukh Buriya = countless times. Un Tthaaur = no other shelter. Pause.
Chunchul = fickle; everchanging. Mut(i) = nature. Bupuraiy = ignorant. Serp = snake. Ugun(i) = fire. Ker = hands. Maylaiy = touches. Kuntth Laayay = hold to the neck (chest). Anund Sehj(i) = blissfully and comfortably. Tub = then. 2. Soami = Lord. Kaiysi = of what kind? Mun Baanchhaiy = as desired. Laiysi = will have. Aagiya = order. Ders(u) = Sight. Churnaa = Feet (Naam). 4.

MEANING: As long as a child is dependent on his mother's milk, he cannot live without the milk, and when his mother notes his situation and takes care of him by breastfeeding him, he becomes fully satisfied. 1.
We are all children of Waheguru, Father, who is our provider. We, as His children, make countless mistakes, but we have no other support (shelter) to which we can turn. Pause.
A child is ignorant, finds snakes and fire attractive, and touches them (sometimes with tragic results); but when his parents hold him to their chest, the child feels fully protected and comfortable and enjoys it. (Similarly, the man finds snakelike Maya to be very attractive, and makes countless mistakes because of that, and suffers, but he feels blissful in the shelter of the Guru). 2. An individual who has the support of Waheguru-father has no appetite for any worldly luxuries. Waheguru has the treasures of His Naam (which is the eternal wealth), so the devotee can acquire anything he likes. 3.
Waheguru has this standing Order (Will) that His devotee can have anything he asks for. I, as His child, wish for His holy Sight only; besides, I also wish that His Feet (Naam) should be permanently enshrined in my heart, oh Nanak(u). 4.2.

Word Meaning: Sugul Bidhi = in all possible ways. Joor(i) = combined. Aahur Kuriya = made effort. Tujiyo = gave up; got rid of. Andaysa = worries. Kaaruj(u) = task; objective. Arumbhiyo = started. Ghur Kaa = of (beautifying) the mind. Bhaarosa = faith; support. 1. Baajaiy = playing of music. Baaj =(musical) sound. Soohaavi = blissful. Bhoar(u) Bhuyya = dawn; enlightenment. Paykhay = to see. Greh(i) Mungul = blissful heart. Soohlaavi = joyful. Pause. Munooaa Laayay = attaching the mind (in Waheguru's service). Thaana = heart; all senses. Poochhoun = ask; seek advice. Paahoon = Husband. Niv Paayayn = by dropping on the feet; surrendering self. 2. Greh(i) Aasun(i) = on the seat of my heart. Soohaylay = in comfort. 3. Suhayli = friends. Kaaruj = tasks; objectives. Pooray = completed successfully. Vur(u) = Husband. Dooray = away. 4.

MEANING: With full faith in Waheguru, all my senses have come together, and, ignoring all worries, I am making all possible efforts to adorn my mind and body with noble qualities so as to be approved by Waheguru. 1.

Like the light of dawn, my mind has been enlightened to "see" my dear Waheguru; it feels overjoyed and blissful, as if listening to the sweet sound of music. Pause.

I ask the holy saints how to adorn my senses with noble qualities by attaching my mind to Waheguru. Through repeated searching, I found my Husband (Waheguru) in my heart, and now I worship Him by bowing to Him (obeying His Will). 2.

When my Dear came to occupy the throne of my heart, my mind began to sing songs of joy; my friendly senses enjoyed comfort when Waheguru connected me with the Perfect Guru. 3. The Guru made all my tasks (objectives) successful, and all my senses and my mind became blissful. I have acquired my Waheguru-Husband, who is the source of all comforts and does not leave me unprotected, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Nanak, shern(i) Churn Kumlun kee, Toomh na daarhou Prubh Kertay. 3.4.

Word Meaning: Tay = from. Keet = worms; paupers; insignificant individuals. Soorput(i) = king of gods (Indra). Doakh = sins. Jutthur = womb (rebirths). Kirpa-Nidh(i) = treasure of compassion (God). Aan = others. Aarumghaati = murderers of soul (conscience). Hertay = thieves. 1. Bisrut Tay = on forgetting. Bhermeh(i) = wander through. Buhhou Joani = many life forms. Tayk = support. Na Dhertay = cannot get. Pause. Tiyaag(i) = forsaking. Chitvut = think about. Moorrh = Moogudh = Khul = foolish. Khur = donkey. Tay = they. Kaagur Naav = paper-boat. Kut = how. Saagur(u) = the world-sea. Birtha = uselessly. Kuthut = say; claim. Tertay = swim across; salvaged. 2. Birunch = Brahma. Assor = demons. Soor = gods. Jaytay = all those. Kaal Ugun(i) = fire of death. Jertay = burn. Kumlun = lotus-like. Daarhou = ditch; push away. Kertay = oh, Creator. 3.

MEANING: From rajahs to paupers, and from paupers to gods, all those who commit sins, take rebirths again, and again (there is no favour to anyone). Those who forsake the treasure of compassion (Waheguru) and worship someone else are thieves who kill their conscience. 1. They die in suffering (both spiritually and physically) when they forget Waheguru, and wander through countless life forms, and cannot get help from anyone. Pause.

Those who forsake Waheguru and think of someone else are truly foolish, like donkeys. Their thinking is like the person who falsely claims he crossed the ocean (with huge waves) on a paper boat. 2. Even the highly worshipped gods like Shiva and Brahma, or the demons, and the other gods burn in the fire of (spiritual) death. I have come to the Creator's (Waheguru's) shelter, who has lotus-like soft Feet, and pray to Him that He does not ditch me and lets me stay in His shelter, oh Nanak. 3.4.

Word Meaning: Oye = they (the holy saints). Baiyraagi = fully detached from the world. Tiyaagi = renouncer. Huoun = I. Ikk(u) Khin(u) = a short moment. Pause. Moh(i) = I, me. Jaagi = awake; enlightened. Oopdaysh(u) = Teachings. Nirmul = pure; pious. Rung(i) = with love. Raangi = dyed (in love). 1. Keeyay = made. Budbhaagi = highly fortunate. Bern(i) = describe. Rayn(u) Paagee = dust of feet. 2.

MEANING: The saints of Waheguru are fully detached from the worldly attractions which they have renounced, oh, my Waheguru. Because of their company, I have fostered such a deep love for Waheguru that I cannot live without Him for even a moment. Pause.
I think of Waheguru in their company, and my mind is enlightened by the grace of the Guru. Listening to His Teachings, my mind has been purified and imbued with Waheguru's love; now I sing His praise with love. 1. I was highly fortunate to make the Guru my friend by surrendering my mind (thinking) to Him. Now, He is very kind to me. I cannot describe the great bliss I am enjoying now that I have put the dust of the holy Feet of the Guru on my forehead (serve Him with love and reverence), oh Nanak. 2.1.5.

Word Meaning: Maayee = oh, mother. Sugul Suhayli = all friends. Sooti = resting; spending life. Laal = Dear Waheguru. Busaayi = is dwelling (present). Uvgun = having bad (ignoble) qualities. Nirgoon = lacking noble qualities. Chuturaayi = cleverness; shrewdness. Buraabur(i) = compare with. Priyay Sung(i) = with the Dear. Raati = imbued in His love. Dheetthaayi = shamelessness. 1. Nimaani = humble. Purakh = God-like. Taaki = sought. Raiyn Bihaayi = night (of life) spends. 2.

MEANING: With Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their minds, all my friends are enjoying a worry-free, peaceful life, oh my mother. I also wish to be connected with Waheguru. Pause. I have only ignoble qualities, and with no good qualities in me, what kind of wisdom do I need to connect with Him on my own? I can be connected with Him only with His benevolence, as He is always merciful. It is with my shameless ego that I compare myself to the devotees who are imbued with Waheguru's love. 1.
Now, I have humbly sought the shelter of Satguru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru and the source of comfort. He has eradicated all my suffering in a single moment, and now the night of my life is spent blissfully, oh Nanak. 2.2.6.

Word Meaning: Bers(u) = cause rain. Maygh Ji = oh, the cloud-like Guru. Til(u) = a very small amount. Bilm(u) = delay. Sudhaaray = support. Chaaou = zest. Pause. Dhur = support. Bisaaraiy = forget. Istree = woman. Chayri = disciple; devotee. Niyaayeen = like. Sobh Nuhhi = does not look good. Bhurtaaray = husband. 1. Binou = request. Bayg(i) Aayo = came rushing. Soohaago = got married. Put(i) = Husband. Bhulay Achaaray = good moral character. 2.

MEANING: Cause the rain of Your Naam-Amrit without even a slight delay, oh Waheguru. Cause the rain of Your Naam-Amrit, so that my mind may always be zesty and blissful, oh the support of my mind, Waheguru. Pause.
I am on Your support, so why do you forsake me, oh my Lord? A devotee is like a wife who does not look good (is incomplete) without her husband (so connect me with You, oh Lord). 1. When my Lord listened to my prayer, He was greatly benevolent and quickly appeared in my heart. Now, I am married to my Waheguru-Husband, have achieved high moral character, and enjoy respect, oh Nanak. 2.3.7.

Goon-Nidhaan(u) Nanak mun vussiya, baahourr(i) dookh na theeya. 2.4.8.

Word Meaning: Preetum = very dear. Dhiyaayay = recite. Derd = pain; suffering. Binsaiy = eradicated. Bhuv-Saaguru = the world-sea; attractions of Maya. Moorut(i) = image; Shabad.

Busaayay = embed; enshrine. 1. Ruhaou. Hutay = killed. Doakhi = vilifiers. Viyaapay = affected. Raakhunhaaraiy = the saviour. 1. Kilvikh = sins. Goon-Nidhaan(u) = treasure of virtues (God). Baahourr(i) = again. Theeya = happened. 2.

MEANING: When one enshrines Guru's Shabad in his heart, and recites dear Waheguru's Naam, all his suffering, his pain, and his worldly desires (which are the cause of rebirths), vanish. Pause. When one takes Waheguru's shelter, all his enemies (evil qualities) are destroyed, and his vilifiers and the people jealous of him are badly impacted. The Saviour, Waheguru, protects His devotee by extending His hand, and he acquires the invaluable Naam. 1. Waheguru gives His mind-purifying Naam to His devotee, and all the sins of the devotee are eradicated with His benevolence. When the Naam of Waheguru, which is the treasure of all virtues, is enshrined in a devotee's heart, he never experiences any suffering again, oh Nanak. 2.4.8.

Word Meaning: Praan Piyaaray = dear like own life. Ungreh(i) = kindness; favour. Pause. Toohaari = Yours. Aasa = faith of support. Peh(i) = with. Piyaaasa = thirst; longing. 1. Bichhurut = separation. Mern(u) = (spiritual) death. Jeevun(u) = survival. Miltay = company; union. Adhaar(u) = basis. Jeevun Dhun(u) = wealth of spiritual life. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru is as dear to me as my own life. When the benevolent Waheguru becomes kind to his devotee who worships Him with love, He gives His Naam to him. Pause. I recite the Naam of my dear Waheguru with full faith in His support. I have a deep longing for His holy sight, and I pray to the holy saints to help me with that. 1.
I feel spiritually dead when I am disconnected from Him, and survive (spiritually) when I am connected with Him; so, I request Him to show me His holy sight. Waheguru's Naam is the basis, and the wealth of my life; I pray to Him to be kind to me, oh Nanak. 2.5.9.

Word Meaning: Ub = now. Preetum = Dear. Siyoun = with. Bun Aayi = have love for each. Raja Ram = God. Rumut = remembering; reciting Naam. Bers(u) = cause rain. Maygh = cloud (of Naam). Pause. Pul(u) = moment. Bisrut = forgotten. Nuvaiy Nidh(i) = nine treasures. Oodaout = light of dawn; enlightenment. Bhaavi Ko = to happen in future; of fortune. Bhaytay = met; got connected. 1. Oopjay = comes into being. Binaasay = destroyed. Liv Laayi = meditate; connect with. Kutthin = tough; difficult. Bhaiy-Saagur(u) = world-sea. Churn = Shabad; Naam. 2.

MEANING: With the kind Guru causing the rain of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit on my mind, I have come to love my dear Waheguru (and He has begun to love me as well), and reciting the Naam, I am enjoying blissfulness. Pause.

By my good fortune, I met the Guru who enlightened my mind. With His grace, I have enshrined Waheguru's Naam in my heart, which is like acquiring all the nine treasures of the world. Now, I do not forget the ocean of comforts, Waheguru, even for a short moment. 1.

With meditation on Waheguru's Naam, all my suffering has disappeared, and blissfulness has replaced it. With the worship of Waheguru's Feet (with recitation of his Naam), I have been able to swim across the tough world-sea, oh Nanak. 2.6.10.

Dayv = gods. Daiynt = demons. Jukh and Kinners = assistants of gods. Nur = men. Bidaaray = destroyed. 1. Muhha Bikhiya Rus = big enjoyments of poisonous sensual pleasures. Bhuyyay = became. Niraaray = detached. Kroonamaiy = merciful. 2.
NOTE: Being a manifestation of Waheguru, the Guru has the power to salvage any living being (connect it with Waheguru); but Guru Granth Sahib professes unequivocally that one can realize Waheguru only in the human form. The salvation of non-humans mentioned in this holy Shabad is simply to emphasize the importance of Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and the examples of birds and animals used are taken from the Hindu Granths. Groorr was a bird who died fighting Ravna after he kidnapped Sita Ji, the wife of Rama. Vishnu incarnated as a fish to retrieve the Vedas when the demons hid them in the sea, and as a pig to retrieve the earth when the demons stole it and hid it in the ocean (I wonder where that ocean was). Similarly, an elephant, trapped in the tentacles of an octopus and being pulled down, prayed to Waheguru for help. Not only did Waheguru save the elephant, but also gave him salvation. They are quoted here simply to glorify Waheguru's worship.
MEANING: Singing Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru has salvaged many living beings, including birds, fish, deer, and boars. Pause.
The suffering of all those who sing Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru is eradicated, and they attain salvation. Such individuals may belong to the clans of gods or demons, or serve as the gods' assistants. 1.
They get totally detached (free) from their lust, rage, and the enjoyment of the sweet but poisonous sensual pleasures. I am always a sacrifice for those who recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is compassionate to the humble and is merciful, oh Nanak. 2.9.13.

Word Meaning: Aaj(u) = today; everyday (everyday is today). Baiysiyo = sat down to meditate on Waheguru's Naam. Haat = shop (to deal in the Naam). Raas(i) = wealth. Saanjhi = sharing. Jun Siyoun = with Waheguru's devotee (Guru). Ghaat = path. Ruhaou. Ungreh(u) = favour; kindness. Bherm = illusions. Kupaat = doors. Bayshoomaar = limitless. Shah(u) = Lord. Laaha = profit; benefit. Churn = Feet of God (His Naam). Khaat = by earning. 1. Guhhi = took. Achoot = Abinaasi = immortal. Kilvikh = sins. Chhaant(i) = selectively. Kul Kulaysh = disagreements; tensions. Mitay = eradicated. Buhour(i) = again. Maat = container. Joani Maat = container of birth (womb). 2.

MEANING: I sit in the Shop of Waheguru (to trade my ignoble qualities for His Naam) in the shelter of the Guru who shares Waheguru's Naam with me (bestows that to me). Now, I will not go on the path leading to the Angel of Death. Pause.

With His benevolence, Waheguru protected me by opening the doors of my mind (enlightening it), which was full of misbeliefs. I realized the limitless Waheguru by acquiring the treasure of His Naam. 1.

I took shelter in Waheguru, who pulled out all my sins one by one. All my stress due to disagreements with my mind has been eradicated by Waheguru. I am His slave, and now I will not have to get into my mother's womb ever again (take rebirth), oh Nanak. 2.10.14.

Word Meaning: Buhhou Bidh(i) = in many ways. Moh(i) = love for. Hiraano = robbed. Koat(i) Mudhay = one in millions. Birla = rare. Chiraano = since long; from the beginning. Pause. It Oot = here and there; everywhere. Doal(i) Doal(i) = with weak mind. Sherm(u) Paayo = exhausted. Biraano = of others; leave him. Dooraayay = secretly. Tthugiyaayi = deceitfulness. Hotaou sung(i) = what is with him. 1. Mirg = deer. Punkhi = birds. Meen = fishes. Deen = poor. Neech = ignoble. Sunkut = misfortune. Aano = comes. Paahun = rock (impervious). Maano = enjoy. 2.

MEANING: Attachment to Maya robs people (of their good qualities) in many different ways. There is a rare individual among millions who is a perfect devotee of Waheguru from early childhood (or from a previous life). Pause.

The man's mind is weak and is attracted to the glamorous Maya, and he works very hard, to the extent of exhaustion, to accumulate wealth, but in the end, his body and his wealth get separated from him. He secretly cheats people, but his earnings do not accompany him. 1. (Because of his evil deeds) misfortune befalls him again, and he takes births as deer (animals), birds, fish, and maybe as a helpless, ignoble person. I am like an impervious rock, and no good advice affects me; but I pray to Waheguru to put me in the shelter of the Guru, where I may enjoy blissful of His Naam, oh Nanak. 2.11.15.

Word Meaning: Doosht = evil demons (lust, greed etc.). Bikh(u) = poison. Maayee = oh, mother. Rukh Leenay = saved; protected. Pause. Untajaami = omniscient. Vertaiy = operates (is present). Sung(i) = with. Suhaayi = supporter. 1. Anaathaa = (spiritually) orphans. Nath(u) = Lord; guard. Deen-Dookh-Bhunjun = destroyer of suffering of the humble. Lurr(i) Laayay = provides shelter. Oat = shelter. 2.

MEANING: With His benevolence, Waheguru protects His created living beings (against the attacks of Maya), and the evil demons (lust, ego, etc.) are destroyed as if they died of poisoning, oh, my mother. Pause. Why would an individual be afraid of anything if he has faith that Waheguru is present in everybody? He is visible everywhere and is always with His devotees. He never leaves them alone to go away. 1.

Waheguru is the guardian of the spiritual orphans and the destroyer of all suffering of the humble whom He supports. Waheguru's devotees survive by taking His shelter, and I have also come to His shelter, oh Nanak. 2.12.16.

Word Meaning: Churn = Feet (Naam). Ruveejaiy = remember; recite. Ders Piyaas = longing for the Sight. Mun Mohiyo = mind captivated. Punkh = wings. Mileejaiy = meet with. Pause. Khojut = searching. Maarug(u) = (the right) path. Ungerh(u) = kindness. Muhha Rus(u) = great sweetness. 1. Traah(i) = requesting to protect. Jultou = burning; suffering. Ker(u) Geh(i) = holding by the hand. 2.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam, oh my mind. Waheguru has captivated my mind, and I have a strong yearning to see His face. I wish I had such wings by which I could fly to Him to have His sight. Pause. In my search for Waheguru, I have found that the Guru is the guide who shows me the path to union with Waheguru. So, one ought to serve the Guru. Please be kind to me so that I may enjoy the great sweetness of Your Naam, oh, my Lord. 1. I am burning in the fire of worldly desires, and have come to You crying for help; please be kind to me (and protect me), oh Waheguru. Please make me Your slave (devotee) by holding my hand, and embrace me as Your own, begs Nanak. 2.13.17.

Word Meaning: Bhagat(i) Vuchhul(u) = lover of His worship. Birdaayo = innate virtue. Ninduk = vilifiers. Maar(i) = crushes. Churn Tul = under the feet; force to surrender. Jus(u) = fame; praise. Vertaayo = spread. Pause. Jai, Jaikaar(u) = hailing; acclaim. Duyya = compassion. Jeeun = living beings; people. Kuntth(i) Laayay = embracing. Taati Vaaou = no suffering, not even of warm air. 1. Ungeekaar(u) = kindness; favouring. Bherm(u) = illusions. May(i) = eradicating. Bisvaas(u) = trust; faith.

MEANING: It is a great innate virtue of Waheguru that He loves His worship (and His worshippers). He crushes the vilifiers of His devotees and makes them drop at the feet of the devotees, because of which His praise spreads all over the world. Pause.

The whole world hails Him (sings His praise), and he generates compassion in the minds of the people. He protects His devotees by holding them to His neck (to His chest with affection), and does not let them suffer even by a touch of warm air. 1.

My Lord did me a great favour and provided me with great comfort by eradicating all my illusions and worldly fears. I, Nanak, advise the devotees of Waheguru to have full faith in Him and enjoy great bliss. 2.14.18.

Nanak, Gur(u) Parbrahm, ja kee keem na paayi. 4.1.19.

Word Meaning: Chaupuday = Shabad with four stanzas. Gurmukh(i) = in Guru's shelter. Braham Pusaar(u) = Waheguru's expanse. Traiy-Gooniya = (Maya) with three effects. Bisthaar(u) = expanse. Naad = music; shabad; stories of the Hindu holy books. Ghor Undhaar(u) = deep darkness. 1. Saas(i) Giraas(i) = with every breath and every bite of food. Pause. Vit-houn = for; from. Bul(i) Jaaoun = I sacrifice my life. Undin(u) = Nit = everyday, all the time. Dhoorr(i) = dust of Feet (His Shabad). 2. Bohith = boat; ship. Taarunhaar(u) = capable of ferrying across. Bhaytiyain = meeting with; in His shelter. Joan(i) Aoutaar = birth in life forms. Kerm(i) = good fortune. 3. Jeevun(i) = survival. Vertun(i) = daily dealing. Pervaar = family. Keem = worth. 4.

MEANING: Guru's Sikh realizes in His shelter that the whole universe is an expanse of Maya with three qualities (the world is fully engrossed in Maya). People do not understand the secrets of Waheguru, and they are in deep darkness without the Guru. For the Sikh of the Guru, listening to the Guru's Advice subsumes pondering on the holy Hindu books and the Vedas (he does not need them). 1.

One always enjoys complete comfort by reciting the Guru's Shabad, oh my mind. Waheguru's Naam gets enshrined in the devotee's mind when he listens to the Guru's Teachings. One should always recite the Lord's Naam with every breath, and with every bite. Pause.

I am always a sacrifice for Guru's Shabad, and I sing His praise all the time. I bathe my mind with the Amrit of Guru's Shabad because of which I will be honoured in Waheguru's Court. 2.

Guru is the ship to ferry us across the world-sea (to merge into Waheguru). One does not take rebirths when one comes to the Guru's shelter. But only that devotee gets to serve the Guru, who has it prewritten in his fate by Waheguru. 3.

Guru is my life, and is the basis of my existence. The Guru is my family, and my daily dealings revolve around His Shabad. Guru is my Lord, and I am in His shelter. The Guru is a manifestation of Waheguru whose worth cannot be known, oh Nanak. 4.1.19.

Word Meaning: Churn = Feet (Shabad). Hiraiy Vusaayay = embedded in heart. Luyyay Laayay = infuses love for the Naam. Keemut(i) = worth. 1. Poorun Sookh-Daatay = the perfect source of all comforts. Chit(I) = in mind. Aatth Pehr = 24 hours. Rung Raatay = imbued in love. Pause. Bhaana = Will; Huqam. Boojhaiy = uncovers. Saach(i) = in Waheguru. Smaana = gets absorbed. Jup(i) = reciting. 2. Rujaayay = Will. Sujaayay = punishment. Doohaan Siriyan = both ends – birth and death. Pertaap = majesty. 3. Toohaiyn = only You. Vukhaaneh(i) = explain; reveal. Bhaanay = are liked. Tinh Kay = for those. 4.

MEANING: The devotee, who enshrines Guru's Shabad in his mind, gets connected with Waheguru with His benevolence. Waheguru Himself infuses the love for His Naam in the devotee's mind. The worth of the spirituality of such a devotee cannot be described. 1. Please be kind to me so that imbued in Your love, I may remember (recite) Your Naam all the twenty-four hours, oh, the perfect source of all comforts (Waheguru). Pause.

It is with Your Will that a devotee listens to Your Naam and sings Your praise, oh Waheguru. The devotee, who uncovers (understands) Your Huqam (Will, Command), gets absorbed in You (Your Naam), oh Waheguru. Such a devotee survives by reciting Your Naam, and You are his only shelter, and there is none else. 2. The devotee accepts discomforts (troubles) or comforts as Waheguru's Will, and is glad in every situation, whether Waheguru puts him in comforts or punishes him. He also realizes that Waheguru controls both ends – birth and death. I am a sacrifice for Your majesty, oh Lord. 3.

Only You know Your worth; You listen to people's prayers, understand them, and explain Your Will through the Guru. Only those are Your true devotees, whom You like, oh Waheguru. I am a sacrifice for such devotees, oh Nanak, 4.2.20.

Word Meaning: Maygh = cloud (of Naam-Amrit). Triptaasay = contented. Kaaruj = tasks; objectives. Aayay Raasay = suited completely; achieved successfully. 1. Smaahl(i) = remember; recite. Aiythaiy Oathaiy = here and there (in both worlds). Nibhaiy Naal(i) = accompanies one all the time. Pause. Bhunna = ran away. Bhaiy-Bhunjunhaar = destroyer of all fears. Keeti Saar = looked after well. Raakhunhaar = protector; guard. 2.

Kaal(u) = (fear of) death. Jaap(i) = recite the Naam. Disht Dhaar(i) = casting kind sight. Junt = living beings. Bhugvunt = God. 3. Pertaap = magnanimity. Paiyj = dignity. 4.
MEANING: The cloudlike Guru rains the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam when Waheguru becomes benevolent, and all living beings get contented (have no longer the appetite for worldly attractions), and all their objectives are achieved. 1. Remember (recite) Waheguru's Naam all the time, which one acquires by serving the Guru, who stays with him in this world, and accompanies him to the next world, oh my mind. Pause.
The destroyer of all fears, Waheguru, looks after His living beings, whereby all their sufferings run away. The protector Waheguru is always kind, and I am always a sacrifice for Him. 2.
Always recite Waheguru's Naam, which destroys the fear of death, oh my mind. He protects all His living beings with His kind sight who sing His praise all the time. 3.
Waheguru's devotees recognize His magnanimity and realize that He alone is the creator of the universe. He always protects the dignity of those who recite His Naam. I state only those facts which Waheguru tells me to do, oh Nanak. 4.3.21.

Nanak kee Prubh Sach(u) ardaas(i). 4.4.22.
Word Meaning: Sugul Nidhaan = all treasures. Derd = pain; discomfort. 1. Salaah(i) = sing praise. Mun Chinday = desired. Pause. Jayvud(u) = as great. Soyay = the same; He. Buhhourr(i) = again. Chaakhaiy = tastes; enjoys. 2. Mehma = praise; greatness. Kuthun = describe. Saachaiy Naayay = (realized) with the Naam of eternal Waheguru. Sunjum(u) = control on sense. Kerni = performance; daily dealings. Saachi = pious; as per Waheguru's Will. Nirmul = pure. Raachi = mixed well (like the Guru). 3. Tiyaag(i) = gives up; gets rid of. Nivaas(i) = dwelling; connect with. Sach(u) = for ever. 4.
MEANING: One acquires all the treasures of the earth when he takes Guru's shelter (surrenders his mind and body to His service), and is honoured in Waheguru's Court. When he sings Waheguru's praise in the company of the Guru, all his illusions, fears, and sufferings are eradicated. 1. Sing praise of the Perfect Guru, and you will reap your desired rewards when you recite Waheguru' Naam day and night. His Naam is the treasure of all comforts, oh my mind. Pause. There is no one else as great as the Guru because He is a manifestation of Waheguru. One begins to dislike the enjoyment of the immoral pleasures of Maya in the shelter of the Guru, as He protects him against its poisonous attacks and also protects him from the suffering of rebirths. 2.

The greatness of the Waheguru-like Guru cannot be described, but He can be realized by (one gets connected with Him with) Waheguru's Naam. The efforts of the devotee to control his senses become successful, and he becomes like the Guru in terms of the qualities by reciting Waheguru's Naam. Also, his daily dealings become perfectly pious. The mind, which becomes like that of the Guru, is (of course) pure (holy). 3.
However, the Perfect Guru can be realized only with great fortune when the devotee gets rid of his lust, rage, and greed. It is my prayer forever to Waheguru that He kindly keeps me connected with His Feet (Naam), oh Nanak. 4.4.22.

Jun Nanak Priyo Preetum theeya. 2.1.23.

Word Meaning: Purrtaal = changing of music at regular intervals. Munaa = to please. R(i) = oh, my friend. Priyay = Dear; Waheguru. Duyyar = kind; merciful. Rung(u) Keeya = enjoyed His love (union with). Sheengaar = adornments (with noble qulaities). Tujiyo = gave up. Bikaar = immoral acts. Bhaavto = rushing mind. Usthir(u) Theeya = became stable (peaceful). Pause. Aap(u) Guvaayay Kaiy = getting rid of selfishness and ego. Sadhun = holy saints. Sung(u) = company. Baajay = musical instruments. Baajeh(i) = play music. Mirdung = drums. Anaahud = auto-playing Divine music. Kokul(i) = the black singing bird. Madhur = sweet. Baiyn = words. Ut(i) Soohiya = extremely beautiful (pleasing). 1. Aiysi = such is. Sobh = enchanting. Apaar = far reaching. Amoagh = not missing the target; successful. Sung(i) = with. Bunay = become (like You). Bhuv Ootaar = ferry across the world-sea. Naam Bhunay = by reciting the Naam. Maal = rosary. Sungiyaa = companion. Theeya = becomes. 2.

MEANING: With the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, I adorned my body and my mind with noble qualities, and pleased my Guru by giving up all my vices, and stabilizing my flight-taking mind, as a result of which I am now enjoying the love of union with Waheguru by the grace of the Guru, oh my friend. Pause.
When one acquires Waheguru in his mind by getting rid of his selfishness and ego in the company of the holy saints (the Guru), he feels as if Divine music with many different musical instruments, including drums, is playing in his mind, and as if the songbird is also reciting Waheguru's Naam in a very sweet and extremely pleasing voice. 1.
Such enchanting beauty of Your holy Sight has far-reaching effects, and its arrows hit the target of one's heart so successfully that your devotees become holy saints on seeing You, oh Waheguru. They recite Your Naam, which ferries one across the world-sea, and they rotate the beads of the rosary of Your Naam in their heart whereby Your Naam becomes their permanent companion, and Waheguru becomes very dear to them, oh Nanak. 2.1.23.

Word Meaning: Bhermay = wanders aimlessly. Ghunaiy Bunaiy = in the dense forest (of ignorance). Oomkut Rus(i) = in zest. Milbay Kee Chaah = longing to see God. Pause. Aayi = comes; attacks. Baydun = pain; suffering. Kaah(i) = whom. 1. Aan = others. Oopaav = efforts; approaches. Laah(i) = remove. 2.

MEANING: The human mind wanders aimlessly in every direction like a man who has lost his path in a dense forest. But when it wishes to “see” Waheguru, it becomes zestful and follows the path of union with Him. Pause.

Maya, with its three effects, comes to attack me (with its allurements) (and it becomes very difficult to resist its temptations). Whom should I share my pain of fighting with Maya? 1.

I have tried all different approaches, but none could eliminate the pain of my helplessness.

Solution: Rush, and take shelter of the Guru to sing Waheguru’s praise; that is the only solution to the problem, oh Nanak. 2.2.24.

Sadhu sung(i) Ramuyya rus paayo, Nanak ja kaiy bhaavni neeki. 2.3.25.

Word Meaning: Priyay = Dear. Sobh = praise. Soohaavni = source of comfort. Neeki = beautiful; good. Haha, Hoohoo = name of singers of gods. Gundhurb = musicians of gods. Upsuraa = fairies of paradise. Anund Mungul = blissful and joyful. Gaavni = singing. Pause. Dhoonit = tunes. Lulit = melodious. Goongeh = experts in good qualities. Bidh(i) = kinds. Roop = forms. 1. Gir(i) = mountains. Thul = land. Bhuvun = universe. Ghut(i) = heart. Laalun = beloved. Chhaavni = resting place. Ramuyya = God. Rus Paayo = enjoyed the sweetness. Bhaavni = intentions; reverence. 2.

MEANING: Praising Waheguru is a source of beautiful comfort, and one feels as if the singers, the musicians, the assistants of the gods, and the lovely fairies of paradise are producing sweet music in his ears. Pause.

The devotee feels as if the musicians are playing melodious tunes, and the experts with good qualities (talents) are showing their different skills in many forms. 1.

Dear Waheguru is present on the mountains, on the land, in the waters, and is making every heart beautiful by His stay in there. Those who have good intentions (reverence) for Waheguru, enjoy the sweetness of Waheguru’s union in the company of the Guru, oh Nanak. 2.3.25.

Word Meaning: Churn Kumul = lotus-like Feet (Waheguru's Naam). Rid = heart. Dhaaray = embedded. Pause. Sufliyo = rewarding. Ders(u) = (Waheguru's) Sight. Paykhiyo = saw. Kilbikh = sins. Oojiyaaray = in light; enlightened. 1. Bism = amazed. Bismaiy = amazing. Bhuyyi = became. Ugh = sins. Koat(i) = millions. Hertay = removed. Mustuk(u) Daar(i) = put the forehead. Tayk = support. 2.

MEANING: I love my Guru, and I have enshrined Waheguru's Naam in my heart with the grace of my Guru. Pause. Guru's Sight (obeying His Teaching) is always rewarding, and it is because of His Teachings that one gets to have Waheguru's Sight (connection with Him); the devotee gets enlightened, and all his sins go away. 1.

Such a devotee is simply enchanted to watch the amazing feats of Waheguru. Millions (countless) of sins are eradicated by reciting Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru's devotees always have Waheguru's support; they believe in the "One" and the only Waheguru, and drop their forehead on Guru's Feet (surrender to Him). I, too, am a devotee of Waheguru, and have come to His shelter, oh Nanak. 2.4.26.

Word Meaning: Bers(u) = cause rain. Sers(u) = blissfully. Aagiya = Command; Will. Sugul = all; highly. Bhaag = good fortune. Pause. Perfurray = blooms. Maygh = clouds. Dhur = earth. Soohaag = good fortune. 1. Ghunghor = thunder of clouds. Moar = peacock. Chaatrik = the rain bird. Boond = (the first) drop of rain. Oar = toward. Aiyso = such is. Moh = attachment; love. Tiyaag(i) = give up. Maya Dhoh = deception of Maya. Jaagiya = awakened; enlightened. 2.

MEANING: Please, cause the rain of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit blissfully with His Will, oh, my dear Guru. The devotees, who receive the rain of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, are very fortunate and feel highly blissful. Pause.

Just like the dry earth feels highly fortunate (feels happy) to receive rain, a man's mind blooms in the company of the Guru (because He showers the Naam-Amrit). 1.

Like the peacocks which love the thundering clouds, and like the rainbird which thinks about (looks forward to) the first drop of rain, foster love for Waheguru in your mind, oh man. Overcoming the attraction of the deceptive Maya, my mind has been enlightened in the company of the Guru, oh Nanak. 2.25.27.

Word Meaning: Dhaar(i) Cheet(i) = by acquiring in mind. Pause. Maan(u) = Goomaan(u) = ego. Tuj(i) = give up. Rung(i) = with love. Mit(i) Jaah(i) = are destroyed Doakh = blames (due to ignoble deeds). Meet = oh, friend. 1. Bikhaiy Junjaal = nets of poisonous sensual pleasures. Neet = everyday; always. 2.

MEANING: Enshrining Waheguru's Naam in the mind, I sing praise of Waheguru all the time, oh my mind. Pause. Give up your pride and get rid of your ego in the company of the holy saints. Remember the "One" Waheguru with deep love, when all your sins of ignoble deeds will be destroyed, oh my friend. 1.

Ever since I took shelter of the Guru, all the nets (shackles) of my poisonous sensual pleasures have been destroyed with the benevolence of Waheguru. Now, I always sing Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 2.6.28.

Word Meaning: Ghun(u) = cloud. Gurjut = thunders; enlightens. Chaiyn = peacefulness. Pause. Tern Saagur = to swim across the world-sea. Dhoon(i) = sound. Unhutaa = Divine music. Rus Baiyn = sweet words (in praise of Waheguru). 1. Puthik = traveller (on the spiritual path). Piyaas = thirst; longing. Sarovar = pool. Aatum Jul = Naam-Amrit. Laiyn = to acquire. Daiyn = gives. 2.

MEANING: The Waheguru-like Guru-Cloud thunders (enlightens the minds) of the people, who sing Waheguru's praise and enjoy peacefulness. Pause.

Such devotees come to the shelter of Waheguru, who ferries them across the world-sea, and they feel blissful as if they are listening to the sweet tunes of the Divine music in His praise. 1. The travellers on the spiritual path have a deep longing to see Waheguru, and have the source of the pool of the sweet Naam-Amrit, Guru, in their mind to acquire the Amrit. The devotees have love for the Sight of Waheguru, who shows Himself to them with His own benevolence, oh Nanak. 2.7.29.

Gur persad(i) ghur hee Pir(u) paaya, tuou Nanak tuput boojhaayi. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Chukvee = ruddy duck. Chaahai = wishes. Pir = her dear companion. Soor(u) Churrhaiy = sunrise. Niv(i), Niv(i) = bowing down. 1. Pir(u) = dear Waheguru. Bhaavaiy = like; love. Praym = love. Sukhaayi = friend. Piyaas = Tisaayi = thirst; longing.

Pause. Suvar(i) = in the pool; lake. Kirn = ray of the sun. Bigsaiy = blooms. Sehj(u) Soobhaayi = naturally; without any effort. Ubh(i) = in the heart. Aiysi = such. 2. Chaatrik = the rainbird. Tayraiy = chants. Bil-laayi = cries; supplicates. Ghunhur = cloud. Ghor Bersaiy = rains heavily. Dusou Dis(i) = in all the ten directions. 3. Meen = fish. Oopjaiy = sprouts. Poorb(i) Kumaayi = result of previous deeds. Khin(u), Til(u), Pul(u) = for a short moment. 4. Dhun = woman. Vaandhi = disconnected; away. Days Nivaasi = resides in homeland (heart). Shabad = message. Putthaayi = sends. Sungreh(i) = accumulating. Rutti = imbued. Herkhaayi = feels blissful. 5. Priyo = Dear. Subhaiy Jayti = all that (world). Nudri = with kind sight. Millayi = connects. 6. Jeeou = soul. Pergaasiya = appeared. Sehjay = easily. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. 7. Kaaj(u) = task. Suvaarhou = make successful; complete. Sookh-Daatay = source of all comforts. Gosaayeen = the lord of the earth (God). Ghur = in the heart. Tupt = burning (in fire of desires). 8.

MEANING: I love my dear Waheguru, who is my true friend. I have such a deep longing for Him that I cannot live without Him, even for a short moment, in this world. Pause.

Without Waheguru, my condition is like that of the ruddy duck, which is believed to separate from her companion at sunset and not see him again until the next sunrise. She does not wish to sleep in her eyes (without him), and she gets overjoyed to see him the next morning, and bows to him with affection. (I, too, am waiting for my dear Waheguru's Sight). 1.

My love for Waheguru is like that of the lotus flower, which grows in water but loves the sun, is pleased to see sunlight in the sky (from a distance), and blooms naturally. My love for my Waheguru has reached such a level that my soul has merged with His Soul. 2.

(Like the) Rainbird, which chants "dear" "dear" without the first drop of water and supplicates wailingly for that. The rainbird is not content without that first drop, even if it is raining heavily in every direction. (I also cry without Waheguru, and do not find contentment without Him. 3. Fish are born in water and live there, which is their home. They enjoy comfort or discomfort there, depending upon the result of their previous deeds. They cannot survive without water, which becomes a matter of life and death. (Similarly, I survive only when I live in Waheguru, i.e., when I am connected with Him). 4.

The human bride remains disconnected from Waheguru, even though He resides in her heart. But when she sends Him her message (request) through the Guru (with His Shabad), she finds Him residing in her heart, acquires good qualities, and, imbued with the love of His worship, she feels overjoyed. 5. The whole creation (world) chants "Dear" "Dear" (Waheguru), but only that individual acquires Him (gets connected with Him) who is liked by the Guru. Waheguru is always with the devotee who stays connected with Him by reciting His Naam, and He connects the devotee with Him with His kind sight. 6.

Everybody has Waheguru's Soul in them, and He is present in every heart. The devotee's mind is enlightened with the Guru's grace, and he easily gets absorbed in Waheguru's Naam in the high spiritual state. 7.

The source of all comforts, and the Lord of the world, Waheguru Himself, completes His task (of connecting His devotees with Him). When a devotee realizes Waheguru in his heart, his fire of all worldly desires is put out (he feels fully contented), oh Nanak. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Jaagut Ruhhaiy = stays awake (alert). Anik Jutun = countless efforts. Aanch = heat. Kaanch = glass. Dhur(i) Paahi = yields; softens. 1. Gerb = pride. Binsut = getting destroyed. Baar Na Laagaiy = takes no time. Buvray = oh, foolish. Khupaiy = suffers humiliation. Pause. Jai Jugdeesh = accolades to Waheguru. Rukhvaaray = protector. Perkhaiy = tests; evaluates. Soyee = the same (God). Jaity Hiay Tayti = all that has been created. Toojh Tay = from You (created by You). Sur(i) = equal. Uver(u) = other. 2. Joogut(i) = life style. Vuss Keeni = kept under control. Unjun(u) = kohl (to enlighten mind). Amar(u) = immortal. Anaath = orphan (self-illuminated). Sirmora = supreme. Kaal = death. Bikaal = birth. Khunjun(u) = destroyer. 3. Kaagud = paper. Koat(u) = fort. Bupro = poor; helpless. Rungun(i) = beutification. Chihn = looks. Chutraayee = wisdom. Naahni = miniscule. Boond = drop of water. Put(i) Khovaiy = shames; destroys. Khin= moment. 4. Nudee = river. Oopkuntth(i) = on the bank. Turver = tree. Sepun(i) = snake (Maya). Oolti Nudee = river changes direction (towards the house and the tree). Serpun Dusaiy = the snake-like Maya stings. Dooja = (love for) other (than Waheguru). 5. Gaaroorr = antidote to snake poison. Bikhiya = poisonous effects of Maya. Haynv = ice; cool; peaceful. Niraari = detaches one from the worldly affairs. 6. Jaachaiy = longs for. Gopala = oh, Waheguru. 7. Baandhi Dhundh = attached to Maya-based tasks. Soojhaiy = can think of. Budhik = bonded to. Kerm Kmaayay = performs tasks. Boojhus(i) = understands. 8. Nirgoon = having no noble qualities. Kaachi = weak; susceptible to death. Poochoun = seek advice. Soopna = like a dream; illusional. 9.

MEANING: Like glass which yields to heat (loses its strength, and softens when heated), the human mind also succumbs to the attractions of Maya, no matter how hard one tries to resist its temptations. I stay alert against Maya's attacks by serving the Guru (obeying His Advice), and I have none other than Waheguru as my support against Maya. 1.

Why do you take any pride in your (beautiful and strong) body, and your wealth, when they do not take any time to perish, oh, the foolish man? But the world is possessed by its selfishness and ego, and suffers humiliation because of them. Pause.
I am all praise for our protector (saviour), Waheguru, who evaluates and protects us. All that world which exists has been created by Waheguru, and there is no one like Him. 2.
Waheguru creates the (living beings of the) world, but keeps their lifestyles under His control. He Himself is the kohl of enlightenment for those who come to the Guru's shelter. Waheguru is immortal, has no parents (is self-illuminating), is supreme of all, and is the destroyer of births, deaths, misgivings, and all fears. 3. The world is like a weak fort of paper (easily destructible), which can be destroyed by a very small drop of water or a light wind, but which has been given attractive looks and beautified with many colours by Waheguru with His wisdom. It can be born (created) and be dead (destroyed) in a short moment. 4.
Like a house, or a tree on the bank of a river, which disappears quickly when the river changes its direction, and erodes the bank, the snake-like poisonous Maya, which affects every household (heart), stings the individuals and destroys their spirituality when they change the direction of their thinking from God, towards worldly attractions. 5.
However, Guru's Shabad, Guru's Knowledge, acts as the antidote to the poison of Maya and burns its poison (spiritually harmful attractions). Waheguru's worship detaches the devotee from the poisonous allure of the world, and his mind becomes peaceful when he enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart. 6.
The whole world, which has been created by Waheguru, wishes for Him who is kind to everybody. I am in Your shelter, kindly protect my honour (against the attacks of Maya) by giving Your Naam, oh the Lord of the earth. 7.
Attached strongly to Maya, the man is blind to wisdom and performs Maya-related tasks. But he acquires wisdom and understanding, and gets absorbed in Waheguru when he recites His Naam and acquires Knowledge about Him. 8.
Lacking noble qualities, the human mind is susceptible to spiritual death; I will seek the Guru's Advice (about acquiring noble qualities). The Waheguru-like Guru shows (reveals) Waheguru to His devotees, without whom the world is under delusion as if it is dreaming, oh Nanak. 9.2.

Word Meaning: Chaatrik = bubeeha. = the rainbird. Meen = fish. Saaring = deer. Shabad(i) = sound (of a particular music). Soohaavi = pleasing. 1. Ooltaiy = reverse; lessen. Na Kubhoon = never. Taiyn = You. Saayee = the same (affection). 2. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Thaaki = exhausted, became ineffective. 3. Rookheen = Birkheen = to the trees (aimlessly). Oodoun Bhookha = hungry for \maya mind taking flights. Soobhaayi = affectionately. 4. Loachun = eyes. Taar = fixed. Lulta = tongue. Bil-laati = supplicates crying. Rujaayi = The Lord of His Will. 5. Sheengaar(u) = adornments. Tayta – the same. Tun Taapaiy = body (mind) suffers. Ung(i) = on the body. Soohaayi = provides comfort. 6. Khin(u) = moment. 7. Nujeek(i) = near. Buppurri = poor (of wisdom); ignorant. 8. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. Trishna = fire of desires. Boojhaayi = put out. 9. Mun Maaniya = convinced; won over; contented. 10.3.

MEANING: (Longing for the first drop of rain), the rainbird made a pathetic cry last night (listening to whom), I also began to miss my Waheguru, oh my mother. Pause.

I also realized that the rainbird and the fish feel comfortable only in water, and that the deer finds it soothing to hear the special music. 1.

Like the rainbird, the fish, and the deer who never forget their respective attachments, I also pray to Waheguru that with His Will, my love for Him should never lessen. 2.

With love for Waheguru, my sleep (enjoyments of Maya) has disappeared, and my selfishness and ego have exhausted (become ineffective), and I have acquired the wisdom (thinking) of reciting Waheguru's Naam. 3. Hungry for Maya (worldly attractions), my mind was taking flights aimlessly, but now, I am drinking Waheguru's Naam-Amrit affectionately. 4.

I have such a strong longing for the Sight of Waheguru that my eyes are set (focused) at His path, and my tongue is crying and supplicating for His Sight. 5.

The more I adorn my body to look pretty to Him, the more it suffers, and even expensive clothes do not provide any comfort without my Dear (Waheguru). 6.

I cannot survive even for a short moment without my Dear, and can get no sleep. 7.

The poor (ignorant) human bride does not realize that Waheguru is very close to her, but the Guru shows Him in her heart. 8.

One can put out the fire of his worldly desires with the Guru's Shabad and enjoy the bliss of union with Waheguru in the high spiritual state. 9.

One's mind can find contentment (blissfulness) only by connecting with Waheguru, and then the worth of his spiritual state cannot be described, oh Nanak. 10.3.

MEANING: Just like the birds cranes and others, which fly very high in the sky, cannot get water which is much lower in the lakes on the earth; the people, whose mind takes mountain-like high flights in their ego, cannot acquire Waheguru's Naam-Amrit for which the source is the company of the holy saints who live down on the earth (who have no ego at all). Guru's Shabad is the ocean (source) of peacefulness, and by pondering on it, one is able to kill his selfishness and ego and walk on the path leading to emancipation. 1.

I am blind to spiritual wisdom, and Waheguru's Soul (Light) enlightens my mind as a result of which, I now walk on the path shown by the Guru. With His respectful fear in mind and the secrets He has taught me, I will now be able to connect with Waheguru (Merge with Him). Pause. One finds the true and straight path of life (leading to union with Waheguru) through the Guru's Shabad. With Guru's support, and with the ability given to him by Waheguru, the devotee recites His Naam with the beautiful Shabads of the Guru in Waheguru's praise. With Waheguru's Will, he finds Waheguru's residence (achieves union with Him). 2.

My mind, which always takes high flights, becomes peaceful when I focus my mind on Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, which is the basis of my life. In that spiritual state, there is no water of sensual enjoyments to attract one, no mountain of ego, and no tough mountainous journey where one has to fight with evil desires. One's mind settles in his true dwelling (Waheguru's Naam) – the path of life which does not lead to rebirths. 3.

Only You know the ways by which You take dwelling in a devotee's heart, and the devotee does not see any other residence (as his permanent home) than Yours, oh Waheguru. The whole world is under the pressure of Maya's attractions (is captivated by it) and does not understand the real objective of human life without Satguru. One may cry and try many different ways, but cannot recite Waheguru's Naam without the Guru. Waheguru's Naam can free him from all worldly bonds in a moment if he recognizes the importance of the Guru's Shabad. 4. There are many foolish and unwise people who are spiritually blind, but there are also some who have made the fear of (respect for) the Guru and Waheguru's Naam the basis of their life. Waheguru's Naam is sweet and immortalizing; whoever drinks its Amrit, reaches the door of emancipation (achieves union with Waheguru). 5.

As per the Advice of the Guru, the task worth doing in life is to enshrine Waheguru's Naam in the heart with the Guru's Shabad and with fear for Him. Just like the earth becomes attractive when it rains, the human mind becomes attractive (pious) when Waheguru's Light appears in the heart (which is present, hidden in every heart). A man who has no faith in the Guru is recognized by his foolish thinking, like the farmer who plants seeds in the land covered with saltpetre (where no crop can grow). It is complete darkness in the world without the Guru, and the situation can be compared to the man who drowns in a dry pool (with no water). 6.

Whatever the man does, he does so by Waheguru's Will and according to his prewritten fate, which cannot be erased. The man performs tasks bound by Waheguru's Will. If one gets attached to (loves) Guru's Shabad, he gets absorbed in Waheguru (his soul merges with that of Waheguru). 7.

Waheguru's Huqam (His Laws) operate in all the four directions (everywhere), and His Naam (He Himself) is present everywhere – even in the underworlds. Waheguru is present in the form of Guru's Shabad (His Naam), but the immortal Waheguru can be realized only with His benevolence. Because of one's appetite for the worldly attractions, and for his sleeping (unawareness) in the comfort of Maya, spiritual death hangs over his head all the time, and he continues taking births and dying. But one acquires Waheguru's Naam if he loves it with the eternal kind sight of Waheguru, which is the source of all sweetness, oh Nanak. 8.1.4.

Word Meaning: Mern Mookut(i) = emancipation from death. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Kuntthay Baiytthi = on the side lines; as a formality. 1. Kaiysay = how; why? Aarr(i) = a heron-like bird. Phaathi = trapped. Alukh(u) = the incomprehensible (God). Jaacheh(i) = wish for. Pause. Kaiy = many. Terti = floating. Boodi = drowns. 2. Prutpaani = frighten to death. Puchhutaani = repents. 3. Phaas(i) = noose. Ut(i) Bhaari = very strong. Punkh Pusaari = by spreading wings. 4. Rus choogeh(i) = enjoy the sweetness. Gavaar(i) = (female) unwise. 5. Jumkaal(u) = (spiritual) death. Smaahl(u) = keep in mind; enshrines. 6. Gurmut(i) = Guru's Advice. Saachi = everlasting. Saar(u) = supreme. Oor(i) Dhaar(i) = embed in the heart. Say = those. Aagaiy = in Waheguru's Court. Bhog Bilaasay= enjoy sensual pleasures. 8.

MEANING: Like the heron-like bird, aarr(i), which is caught in a hunter's net while hunting for other life in water, how have you been trapped in the net of Maya (which causes spiritual death), oh man? You do not wish to enshrine the (Naam of the) incomprehensible Waheguru in your mind. Pause. The human bride does not value the high spiritual state which emancipates her from death, but tries to understand its worth with the Guru's Shabad as a formality only. 1. Like the aarr(i), which kills many lives for its single life while floating on the surface of water, and drowns in it (when it is caught by another animal of prey), the man kills many other people (sucks their blood), and suffers spiritual death (is severely punished by God), and repents. 2.

The bird frightens all living beings in water to death, but repents when it gets caught. 3. When it gets a strong noose (of jaws of bigger flesh-eating animals in water), it cannot spread its wings to fly away. 4. Similarly, the foolish follower-of-his-mind enjoys the sweetness of sensual pleasures (and is punished). However, he can get freedom from such immoral pleasures by pondering over Guru's Shabad, which is full of noble qualities, and of Divine Knowledge. 5. One's net of spiritual death is broken when he enshrines Guru's eternal Shabad (Waheguru's Naam) in his heart. 6. Guru's Shabad and His Advice are eternal, so one should enshrine Waheguru's Naam in his heart. 7.

One has to suffer in the next world (in his next life) for all his enjoyments of sensual pleasures; and one cannot find salvation without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 8.2.5.

Word Meaning: Kerm(u) = benevolence of (God); good fortune. Kunchun(u) = (pure like) gold. Rujaayay = Will. 1. Chit(u) Laayay = attach mind. Saacha = the eternal (God). Siyoun = with; in. Pause. Oopjaiy = sprouts. Sunsa = doubts; worries. Boojhiyaiy = learn; realize. Gerbh Joani = birth in different life forms. 2. Jeevut Muray = kill desires while living in family. Kmaayay = lead life. Mookut(i) Dooaara = door of emancipation. Aap(u) Guvaayay = get rid of selfishness and ego. 3. Shiv Ghur(i) Jummay = acquire spiritual wisdom (to connect with Waheguru). Shakut(i) = effects of Maya. Achur(u) = very difficult to swallow (control one's senses). Churay = eat; swallow. Bibayk Boodh(i) = wisdom to distinguish between the good and the bad. Purkhaiy = human (soul). Purakh(u) = Waheguru (His Soul). 4. Dhaatur Baaji = game of Maya. Achayt(u) = unaware. Chullaiy = leaves the world. Mool(u) Guvaayay = losing even the basic (original) spiritual wealth. Laaha = benefit. Pullaiy Paayay = acquires. 5. Bhuvjul(u) Ootraiy Paar(i) = swims across the world-sea; is salvaged.

6. Tayk = support; shelter. Adhaar(u) = support; basis. 7. Mustuk(i) = Lilaat(i) = on the forehead. Maytna Na Jaayay = cannot be erased. Poorun = perfect. 8.
MEANING: One connects with Satguru only through Waheguru's benevolence, not without good fortune. With Waheguru's Will, one gets connected with Satguru (takes His shelter), where one's mind gets purified like gold. 1.
Get attached to, and stay absorbed in the Naam of the eternal Waheguru, which can be acquired only from Satguru, oh my mind. Pause.
One acquires the Divine Knowledge from Satguru, which clears all his doubts (and eradicates all his worries). One learns the virtues and the secrets of Waheguru from Satguru, as a result of which, he never takes any life form again. 2.
Only that individual attains emancipation who kills his selfishness, his ego, and his worldly desires while living in the family, and acquires a new life (is transformed into a completely new personality) by leading his life as per the Guru's Shabad. 3.
Such a devotee overcomes all the effects of Maya and takes birth in Waheguru's Home (leads his life strictly as per the Guru's Advice). He successfully completes the very difficult task of controlling his senses, acquires the wisdom to distinguish between good and bad, and merges his soul with that of Waheguru. 4.
The world is unaware that it is a game (drama) of Maya. Enjoying the attractions of Maya, the man leaves the world, having lost even his basic good qualities. One earns spiritual benefit (wealth) only in the company of the holy saints – that too only with good fortune. 5.
You can verify by thinking deeply that no one can ever acquire noble qualities without Satguru (and without the recitation of Waheguru's Naam). Only the highly fortunate individuals get connected with the Guru, and get ferried across the world-sea. 6.
Waheguru's Naam is the support for the devotee, and the basis of his life. Please, be kind to me, and connect me with the Guru so that too, may find emancipation, oh Waheguru. 7.
One's fortune, which is prewritten on his forehead by the Lord, cannot be erased by anyone; those individuals become perfect (like Waheguru) who like (gladly accept) Waheguru's Will, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Bayd Bani = Teachings of the Vedas. Vertda = follows. Traiy-Goon = the three effects of Maya. Dund = punishment. Suhhaiy = endures. Vaaro Vaar = again, and again. Bhaytay = on meeting with. 1. Smaayay = absorb in the Naam. Vuddaiy Bhaag(i) = with great fortune. Pause. Bhaanaiy = Will; Huqam; Command. Srisht(i) Oopaayi = created the world. Adhaar(u) = support; food. Siyoun = with. Suvvarnhaar = beautifier; causing success. 2. Vaah(u) Vaah(u) = wonderful; praise-worthy. Sat Haiy = evergreen; eternally true. Koyay = some rare. Jayvud(u) = as great. Bukhshay = endows. Kerm(i) = with benevolence; good fortune. Praaput(i) = acquire. 3. Maahro = expert; Perfect. Versaiy = rains. Suntokhiyaiy = is contented. Liv Laayay = focus mind. Huriyaavli = green; full of life. Sookaiy = dry up. Koomlaayay = wilt; droop. 4. Kinaiy Na = nobody. Putiyaayay = to be convinced. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = naturally; without any special effort. Bherm(i) Bhoolaayay = misled by illusions. 5. Dhaat(u) = attractions of Maya. Nuhhou = nor. Bundhun = bonds. 6. Moani = hermits; sages. Thuckay = exhausted. Abhiyaas(u) = practise. Nij Ghur(i) = in self; union with Waheguru. Jum Kaal(u) = the Angel of death. Untar(i) = in mind. Kupt = deceit. Vinaas(u) = (spiritual) destruction (death). 7. Subh(u) Ko = everybody. Pertaapda = longs for. Put(i) = respect. 8.

MEANING: The world follows the preachings of the Vedas, which discuss only Maya, which has three effects (and keep the people engrossed in it). But without Waheguru's Naam, the man has to endure (suffer) the punishment of the Angel of justice, and he keeps taking births, dying again, and again. One attains emancipation only when he meets with the Guru (comes to His shelter, and recites Waheguru's Naam). 1.

Serve the Guru (act upon His Advice) and get absorbed in His Shabad (in Waheguru's praise), oh my mind. But one gets connected with the Perfect Guru only if one is highly fortunate and recites Waheguru's Naam. Pause.

Waheguru creates the world with His own Will, and provides support (all necessities of life, including food). Waheguru purifies the mind of His devotees with His own Will, and infuses love for Him in their minds. One gets connected with the Guru by Waheguru's Will, who adorns the life of the devotees with noble qualities. 2.

Amazing! Amazing!! Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's praise) is ever true (connects one with Waheguru no matter where he is or what eon it is), but some rare devotee realizes this in the shelter of the Guru. No one else is as great as Waheguru is, and He should be praised by the Guru's amazing Shabad. With His benevolence, Waheguru connects His devotees with Him if they are fortunate enough. 3. The eternal Lord is perfect in everything, and Satguru reveals Him to the devotees. When one meditates on Waheguru, His Amrit-Naam rains on his brain as a result of which, his spiritual state flourishes, which never dries up or withers away, and he feels fully contented. 4.
One can see (verify) for himself that no one ever realizes Waheguru without the Guru. But at the same time, one connects with Satguru only with the benevolence of Waheguru, and without any special effort on his part. The follower-of-his-mind (a worshipper of Maya) is misled by the false illusions of Maya, and cannot acquire the wealth of Waheguru's Naam without his good fortune. 5. People read holy books and ponder on them, but they (the books) keep them attached to Maya with its three qualities. They can never get free from the bonds of Maya, and can never find emancipation. The bonds of Maya cannot be broken without Satguru, and one can never develop love for Waheguru's Naam. 6.
The pundits and the sages exhaust themselves by reading the Vedas and practising (following) their advice. They do not think about Waheguru's Naam and cannot control their mind so that it stays in itself (becomes stable) and connects with Waheguru. With deceit in their mind, their spirituality is destroyed, and they cannot overcome the fear of the Angel of Death hovering over their head. 7.
Everybody yearns for Waheguru's Naam, but one cannot acquire it without good fortune. However, with the benevolence of Waheguru, one connects with Satguru, and Waheguru's Naam becomes embedded in his mind. One earns respect only with Waheguru's Naam when he stays absorbed in it, oh Nanak. 8.2.

MEANING: Waheguru exhorts (makes) a devotee to follow the Advice of the Guru when He is benevolent to him. As a result, the devotee enshrines the Naam(u) in his heart and gets rid of his discomforts. With his attachment to (love for) Waheguru’s Naam, he attains the everlasting high spiritual state and narrates the Guru’s Shabad to others. 1.

Serve (worship) Waheguru all the time, which is the treasure of everything, oh my mind. But it is with the grace of the Guru that one acquires the wealth of Waheguru’s Naam and stays connected with Him in the high spiritual state. Pause. A woman who beautifies herself without a husband is called characterless and is always in disgrace. Similarly, wearing of religious symbols by a Maya-worshipper who, forgetting Waheguru’s Naam, performs a variety of rituals, is spiritually a worthless display of his religious behaviour. 2.

But, a Guru’s Sikh, who enshrines the Naam of his Dear (Waheguru) with the Guru’s Shabad in his heart, acquires natural beauty (of mind). Such a human bride is highly praiseworthy, who overcomes her selfishness and ego, and makes a connection with the “One” (God). 3.

Nobody can acquire Waheguru’s Naam without the Guru and with his geed; the follower of his mind is attracted to (engrossed in) Maya. But some rare knowledgeable devotee realizes the fact that no one can find emancipation without taking shelter of the Guru. 4.

Everybody chants God’s name in some form with their tongue, but no worship is accepted by Him unless one kills their mind (worldly desires). One’s mind is enlightened only with the spiritual thinking (with Guru’s Shabad), when Waheguru’s Naam takes dwelling in such a heart. 5. Everybody worships some power to boost their selfishness and ego, but neither their minds are imbued with such worship, nor do they achieve any comfort (peace of mind). Their worship is only for a display of their ego. They waste away their precious human life in such worthless worship. 6.

Only those are the true devotees who stay connected with Waheguru by meditating on His Naam, and are liked by the Guru. With Guru's Shabad, they see Waheguru close to them and fully present everywhere. 7.
Haumein (selfishness and ego) is a grave ailment in the world, which is eradicated with the Guru's grace. Waheguru endows His devotees with His love, and they merge into Him with His Naam (Guru's Shabad), oh Nanak. 8.1.3.5.8.
