Word Meaning: Preetum = Dear (Waheguru). Daatay = provide; source of. Jun = devotee. Sung(i) = with. Raatay = mixed well; dyed in love. Dinus(u) = day. Nimukh = moment. Goon-Nidh(i) = treasure (source) of virtues. Jugdeeshuraiy = Waheguru. Moh(i) Leena = captivates. Maatay = intoxicated. Sud-hoon = always. Kinaiy = some rare. Koat(i) Mudhay = among millions. Jaatay = recognized; made connection with. 1. Gut(i) = transcendence. Agumm = inaccessible; incomprehensible. Apaaray = limitless. Putit = immoral. Putit-Paavun = purifier of the immoral. Bhugut(i) Vuchhul = lover of His worship (worshippers). Kirpa Sindh(u) = ocean of mercy. Bhuj(u) = recite Naam. Nisungay = without any fear of taunts. Ruoun = I recite (Naam). Untarjaami = omniscient. Bhermunt Joani = wander through life forms. Tay = those. Ders Piyaas = thirst (longing for) the holy Sight. Smaahray = look after. 2.

Leena = absorbed. Jul = water; ocean. Meena = fish. Bhinn = different. Aan = other. Geh(i) Bhooja = holding by the arm. Tuou Persadi = with Your grace. Maaniyaiy = earn respect. Bhud(u) = recite (Naam). Sadh Sungay = with the Guru. Aik Rungay = with love for the “One”. Anaath = spiritually orphan. Deen = poor; humble. Muyya = benevolence. Apuna Keenay = make Your own. 3. Aapus Kuou = Himself (devotees who have become like Him). Bherm-Bhunjun = destroyer of all misgivings. Aachurj = amazing. Goon-Nidh(i)

= source of all virtues. Piyaariya = Dear. Muhha Mungul = huge joys. Oopjaiy = sprouts. Saariya = took care of; embedded in heart. Sohaiy = look pretty. Mohay = got captivated. Poorub Likhiya = prewritten (by Waheguru). Paaya = reaped the reward. Binvunt = prays respectfully. Tinh Kee = of those. Jinhi = who. 4.

MEANING: Dear Waheguru is the source of His worship with love, and is "one" with His devotees (both are imbued in each other's love). They do not get separated from each other, even for a short moment. The treasure of all virtues, and the Lord of the earth, Waheguru, is always with His devotees. Their minds are captivated by the love for His Feet (Naam), and they always feel intoxicated by the sweetness of His Naam. Even though the dear Waheguru is always very kind, some rare individual among millions gets connected with Him, oh Nanak. 1.

Waheguru's transcendence is incomprehensible and limitless, and He salvages even the extremely immoral individuals. The Lord is the purifier of the immoral, loves His devotees, and is the ocean of kindness. Without worrying about the taunts by the people, one should recite the Naam of the omniscient Waheguru in the company (shelter) of the Guru. Those who have wandered through countless life forms are salvaged by the recitation of His Naam. I have a deep longing for the holy sight of the Lord, and pray to Him that He looks after me (shows me His Sight), oh Nanak. 2.

If Waheguru is an ocean, then His devotees are like the fish. The ocean Waheguru, and the devotee fish are "one" and should not be recognized (considered) as different. Please, hold me by the arm, and endow me with Your Naam, oh Waheguru. One gets respect with Your benevolence. Recite Waheguru's Naam in the company of the Guru with love only for Him. But one acquires the Naam only through the benevolence of Waheguru. I was a spiritual orphan and a humble devotee who came to Waheguru's shelter, and who, very kindly, made me His own. 3.

Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all misgivings, connects the devotees who have become like Him with Him. My dear omniscient Lord, who is amazing and is the treasure of all virtues, connected me with Him. By reciting the virtues of Waheguru (singing His praise), great happiness and comforts sprout in the devotee's mind. As a result of one's prewritten fate, he is captivated with the holy Sight of Waheguru, and looks very attractive (spiritually dignified) when He sings Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru. I, Nanak, submit humbly that I seek the shelter of those who recite Waheguru's Naam all the time. 4.1.

Sloak Mehla 3: Gur(i) miliyain mun(u) rehsiyaiy, jiyoun vootthaiy dhern(i) sheengaar(u). Subh disaiy huriyaaavli, sur bhuray soobhur taal. Undar(u) ruchaiy Sach rung(i), jiyoun mujeetthaiy laal(u). Kumul(u) vigsaiy Sach(u) mun(i), Gur kaiy Shabad nihaal(u).

(PAGE 1279): Munmukh dooji terf haiy, vaykhou nudr(i) nihaal(i). Phaahi phaathay mirg jiyoun sir(i) disaiy Jumkaal(u). Khoodhiya, trishna, ninda boorie, kaam(u), kroadh vikraal(u). Ehni ukkheen nudr(i) na aavyee, jichur(u) Shabad(i) na kuray beechaar(u). Toodh(u) bhaavaiy suntokhiyaan, chookaiy aal junjaal(u). Mool(u) ruhhaiy, Gur(u) sayviyain, Gur paurri, bohith(u). Nanak, luggi tut(u) laiy, Tu Sacha, mun(i) Sach(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Rehsiyaiy = feels blissful. Vootthaiy = on raining. Dhern(i) = earth. Sheengaar(u) = is adorned. Huriyaavli = green; full of life. Soobhur = full to the brim. Taal = pools; ponds. Ruchaiy = absorbed. Sach Rung(i) = love for Waheguru. Mujeetthaiy Laal(u) = red like madder dye. Kumul(u) = lotus; heart. Nihaal(u) = blessed.

Dooji Terf = on the other side (Maya). Phaahi Phaathaiy = ensnared. Mirg = deer. Jumkaal(u) = death. Khoodhiya = appetite (of worldly attractions). Trishna = fire of desires. Ninda = vilification of others. Boorie = bad. Vikraal = frightening. Suntokhiyaan = get contented. Chookaiy = end. Aal Junjaal = bonds of daily tasks. Mool(u) = the capital (wealth) of original spirituality. Paurri = ladder. Bohith = boat. Luggi = attached to Waheguru. Tut(u) = reality; the root (Waheguru) 1.

MEANING: Like the earth, which gets adorned (nature feels fresh) after it rains, and it looks green all around, and the pools are filled to the brim with water, one's mind is overjoyed (feels blissful) on meeting with the Guru. Love for Waheguru seeps into the minds of the devotee, and this love becomes so strong that it never fades like the deep red colour of madder.

With Waheguru's Naam and Guru's Shabad in mind, one's heart blooms, and one feels blissful. If one watches carefully, one will find that the individual who follows his mind has his mind turned in the opposite direction (from love for Waheguru to love for Maya). Like the ensnared deer, (spiritual) death seems to be hanging on his head. He suffers from the bad and frightening qualities of appetite for worldly attractions, fire of desires, vilification of others, lust, and rage. One cannot see Waheguru with these eyes unless one ponders on the Guru's Shabad. But, with Waheguru's Will, these eyes get contented when all the worldly bonds are broken.

The Guru is the ladder to reach the highly transcendent Waheguru, and is the boat to be ferried across the world-sea. So, one retains his original spirituality (unaffected by Maya) by serving the Guru. Such a devotee realizes the truth (Waheguru), and the eternal Waheguru takes dwelling in his heart, oh Nanak. 1.

M:1: Hayko paadhur(u), hayk(u) Dur(u), Gur paurri, nij thaan(u). Roorrou Tthaakur(u) Nanaka, subh sookh Saachou Naam(u). 2.

Word Meaning: Hayko = one and only. Paadhur(u) = the straight path (to union with God). Nij Thaan = one's permanent home (union with God). Roorrou = beautiful. 2.

MEANING: There is one and only straight path to union with Waheguru (one's permanent home) for which the Guru (His Shabad in Waheguru's praise) is the ladder (for the high transcendence of Waheguru). The Lord, Waheguru's Naam, is the most beautiful source of all comforts. 2.

Sooruj(u), chund(u) oopaayay, Jot(i) smaaniya. Keeyay raat(i), dinunt(u), choaj vidaaniya. Teeruth, dherm, veechaar, naavun poorbaaniya. Toodh(u) sur(i) uver(u) na koyay, k(i) aakh(i) vukhaaniya. Sachaiy Tukht(i) nivaas(u), hoar aavun, jaaniya. 1.
Word Meaning: Saaj(i) = having created. Puchhaaniya = revealed Himself in nature. Umber(u) = sky. Chundoa Taaniya = stretched the canopy. Thummha = pillars. Guggan = sky. Neeshaaniya = identification. Smaaniya = injected. Choaj = feats. Vidaaniya = amazing. Dherm = noble deeds. Poorbaaniya = on holy days. Sur(i) = equal. Vukhaaniya = describe. Aavun Jaaniya = take births and die. 1.
MEANING: After self-illuminating Himself, Waheguru reveals Himself through His nature (He created nature) for people to recognize Him. Separating the earth from the sky, he stretched the sky to serve as a canopy above the earth. He supports the sky without any pillars, and Guru's Shabad (His Naam) is His identity to unite with Him. He created the sun and the moon, infused them with His Light, and, through His amazing feats, also created nights and days. He put the idea of holy places in the minds of the people (Maya-lovers), and taking dips in them on holy days was to be considered a noble deed (albeit contrary to union with Waheguru). What can anyone say about You, oh Waheguru? There is only one thing that can be said about You, and that is, there is no one like You, oh Waheguru. Only Waheguru's Throne (His Huqam, Command, or Laws) is eternal, while everybody else comes and goes (is created and destroyed). 1.

Sloak M:1: Nanak, Saavun(i) jay vusaiy, chuhoun omaaha hoyay. Naagaan, mirgaan, muchhiyaan, rusiyaan ghur(i) dhun(u) hoyay. 1.
Word Meaning: Saavun(i) = the rainy month of July-Aug. Vusaiy = rains. Omaaha = zestfulness. Mirgaan = deer. Rusiyaan = those who enjoy the luxuries of life.
MEANING: Four kinds of living beings – snakes, deer (forest animals), fish, and the rich, who enjoy the luxuries of life – feel zestful when it rains in the summer months, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:1॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਾਵਣਿ ਜੇ ਵਸੈ ਚਹੁ ਵਿਛੋੜਾ ਹੋਇ॥ ਗਾਈ ਪੁਤਾ ਨਿਰਧਨਾ ਪੰਥੀ ਚਾਕਰੁ ਹੋਇ॥ 2॥
M:1: Nanak, Saavun(i) jay vusaiy, chuhou vichhorra hoyay. Gaayeen pootaan, nirdhunaa, punthi, chaakur(u) hoyay. 2.
Word Meaning: Vichhorra = separation; suffering. Gaayeen Pootaan = sons of cows; oxen. Punthi = travellers. Chaakur(u) = servants.
MEANING: (on the contrary) suffering is caused to four kinds of living beings – the oxen (they have to work in the fields after rain), the poor, the travellers, and the servants – when it rains in summer months, oh Nanak.
NOTE: It is strange that some species enjoy while others suffer under the same conditions. The beauty of these Sloaks is that, without saying it directly, Guru Nanak Sahib conveys the important hidden message that the devotees of Waheguru are always blissful, no matter the external conditions. So, one should always recite Waheguru's Naam.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਤੂ ਸਚਾ ਸਚਿਆਰੁ ਜਿਨਿ ਸਚੁ ਵਰਤਾਇਆ॥ ਬੈਠਾ ਤਾੜੀ ਲਾਇ ਕਵਲੁ ਛਪਾਇਆ॥ ਬ੍ਰਹਮੈ ਵਡਾ ਕਹਾਇ ਅੰਤੁ ਨ ਪਾਇਆ॥ ਨਾ ਤਿਸੁ ਬਾਪੁ ਨ ਮਾਇ ਕਿਨਿ ਤੂ ਜਾਇਆ॥ ਨਾ ਤਿਸੁ ਰੂਪੁ ਨ ਰੇਖ

Word Meaning: Sacha = eternal. Sachiyaar(u) = source of truth (noble qualities). Sach(u) = His Amrit Naam Vertaaya = disseminated. Taarri = meditation. Kuvul = Lotus (the birth source of Brahma, which is believed to be the creator of the universe, and who was born out of the lotus flower growing in the navel of Vishnu); the Creator (God Himself before the creation of the world). Roop(u) = form; body. Raykh = visible features. Vern = colours; forms. Subaaya = all bodies. Smoyay = placing in. Putiyaayay = getting pleased. Putiyaayay = having full faith; in complete unison. 2.

MEANING: You are the eternal source of all noble qualities, and have disseminated Your eternal Naam everywhere (it rains Amrit all the time: Sloak M:3, page 1281). He was in deep meditation before He created the world. Brahma is said to be great, but even he does not know the limits of Waheguru's capabilities. Waheguru has no father or mother who gave Him birth. He has no form (body) or physical features, yet he is present in every living being. He experiences no appetite or thirst and is always fully contented. Having placed Himself in the Guru, He reveals Himself through the Guru's Shabad, and being in complete unison with Waheguru, the Guru stays connected with Him. 2.

Sloak M:1: Vaiyd(u) boolaaya, vaiydungi, pukurr(i) dhundholay baanh. Bhola Vaiyd na jaanyee, kerk kulayjay maah(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Vaiyd = physician. Vaiydungi = for treatment. Dhundholay = searches; looks for. Baanh = arm; pulse. Bhola = ignorant. Kerk = pain.

MEANING: When a devotee feels spiritually down because of the pain of separation from Waheguru, his relatives call in the physician to examine him for his "sickness". The physician feels the "patient's" pulse by holding his arm. But the ignorant physician does not realize that it is a mental, and not a physical pain. 1.

ਮ:2॥ ਵੈਦਾ ਵੈਦੁ ਸੁਵੈਦੁ ਤੂ ਪਹਿਲਾ ਰੋਗੁ ਪਛਾਨੁ॥ ਐਸਾ ਦਾਰੂ ਲੋੜਿ ਲਹੁ ਜਿਤੁ ਵੰਞੈ ਰੋਗਾ ਘਾਣਿ॥ ਜਿਤੁ ਦਾਰੂ ਰੋਗ ਉਠਿਅਹਿ ਤਨਿ ਸੁਖੁ ਵਸੈ ਆਇ॥ ਰੋਗ ਗਵਾਇਹਿ ਆਪਣਾ ਤ ਨਾਨਕ ਵੈਦੁ ਸਦਾਇ॥ 2॥

Word Meaning: Vaiyd Soovaiyd = best physician. Daaroo = medication. Loarr Luhou = find. Vunjaiy = go away. Ghaan(i) = heap. Oottheh(i) = leave. Sudaayay = called.

MEANING: That physician is the best among others, who recognizes the source of ailment, and prescribes the medication which can eradicate the whole heap of ailments, and the patient feels all comforts. One deserves to be called a physician only if he treats his own ailment (separation from Waheguru) first, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Dayv = gods. Dus-avatari = in ten incarnations (Vishnu). Daiyntaan = demons. Dhaayay = attacks. Eesh Mahaysh = the 11 incarnations of Shiva. Sachi Keemut(i) = truthfulness as the basis. Tukhut = throne; empire. Dhundhaiy = worldly affairs. Dherm(u) = morality (one's prewritten destiny). Kuraayay Kem = makes people perform deeds. Dhoorhoun Foormaya = His eternal Command. 3.

MEANING: Waheguru created gods Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva. (It is believed that) Brahma was given the wisdom to write the four Vedas, and he evoked their worship among the people. Vishnu incarnated ten times, one of which was Raja Ram Chand, who killed many demons with his attacks, but all under the Huqam of Waheguru. The eleven incarnations of Shiva served Waheguru, but never found His limits. Making Truth (His Naam) as the basis of the world, Waheguru created His eternal Empire. Having put the world in the Maya-related tasks, Waheguru is present, hidden in the world. As per His eternal Command, people perform deeds according to their preordained destiny. 3.

Sloak M:2: Saavun aaya hey sukhi, Kuntaiy chit(i) kurayhou. Nanak, jhoor(i) mureh(i) dohaagni, jinh uvreen laaga nayhou. 1.

Word Meaning: Hey Sukhi = oh, friend. Kuntaiy = husband (Waheguru). Jhoor(i) = repenting on lost opportunity. Dohaagni = separated from the husband. Nayhou = love.

MEANING: Like the summer months, which are the season for rain, which is welcome, it is the time (human life) to receive the rain of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, so keep Him in mind, oh my friend. Those who are disconnected from Waheguru because of their love for the other (Maya) cry to death, repenting for the missed opportunity (human life), oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:2॥ ਸਾਵਣੁ ਆਇਆ ਹੇ ਸਖੀ ਜਲਹਰੁ ਬਰਸਨਹਾਰੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸੁਖਿ ਸਵਨੁ ਸੋਹਾਗਣੀ ਜਿਨ੍ਹ ਸਹ ਨਾਲਿ ਪਿਆਰੁ॥2॥

Word Meaning: Julhur(u) = clouds. Bersunhaar(u) = causing rain. Sohaagni = married; connected with God. Sheh = husband.

MEANING: Like the summer months when the clouds cause rain, the Guru-Cloud is here to cause the rain of Waheguru's Naam. Those human brides (devotees) sleep (spend the night of life) peacefully who love their Waheguru-Husband, oh Nanak. 2.

Vukhaaniyaiy = described. Salaah(i) = sing praise. Puchhaaniyaiy = make connection with. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru has created this world as the ring for wrestling matches (where humans fight against worldly attractions and sensual pleasures). The devotees of the Guru enter the ring all fired up and roar against the demons (lust, greed, ego, etc.). But the weak-minded and foolish Maya-lovers are badly defeated by the demons. Being present in everybody, it is Waheguru Himself who has created this ring, and who fights and kills the enemy (evil). One realizes only in the shelter of the Guru that Waheguru is the Lord of all. The future behaviour of everybody is prewritten in their fate by Waheguru without any pen or inkpot. The gathering of the holy saints is the place where Waheguru's virtues are discussed all the time. One connects with Waheguru by singing His praise through Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 4.

I am not sure how my love for Waheguru will be judged by the Guru (whether the Guru will give me His Naam or not). The love of the human brides who have respectful fear for Waheguru will be upheld by the Guru for sure (they will be given Waheguru's Naam). Koorriyaar = dealers in falsehood. Nihchou = for sure. Soor = valiant. Suvaariya = groomed (adorned) with noble qualities. Say = those. Vit-houn = for. 5.

MEANING: Even though Waheguru created (injected) love for Him and love for Maya in the minds of the people, He alone is operating in (controlling) the world. He also created the teachings of the Vedas (through His men) and infused the spirit of debate in the minds of the people. Getting involved in Maya-based worldly affairs, or staying detached from them (and connecting with Waheguru), are the two aspects created by Waheguru; and as Guru, He is also the mediator. The worshippers of Maya are weak-minded who deal in falsehood and lose in Waheguru's court for sure. But those who obey the Guru become valiant with His Shabad, who are able to kill their lust and rage. Adorned with noble qualities with Guru's Shabad, they are honoured as the truthful in Waheguru's Residence (Court). Those devotees who recite Waheguru's Naam with love are liked by Him. Laykha Nibrraiy = account cleared. Bukhshay = endows with. Sift(i) Bhundaar = treasures of His praise. Huth(u) Na Upprraiy = has no access. Kook, Pookaar = begging aloud. Bayli = friend. Kuddh(i) Luyyay = pulls out; rescues.
MEANING: We should always remember Waheguru who takes no time to create things. He can stretch the skies, and destroy things in a moment. He created the world, and the nature, and ponders on them (looks after them carefully). Those followers of their mind, who do not believe in Waheguru, are demanded the account of their deeds, and receive huge punishments. On the other hand, the accounts of Guru's devotees are cleared honourably because the Guru endows them with treasures of Waheguru's praise. The followers of their mind have no approach to anyone who can help them there, no matter how much they cry or supplicate. (Be patient), Waheguru will cause rain with His benevolence, whereby all the forests and the vegetation will be green (full of life). But some rare individuals realize that the rain of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit to infuse new life among the people can be received only in the shelter of the Guru. We should recite Waheguru's Naam all the time, whether we are sitting (resting) or getting up (working), as a result of which, one always enjoys comfort. Sumbhaah(i) = delivers. 2.

MEANING: When the world becomes anxious waiting for rain, and the people join to pray to Waheguru with full concentration of mind, the eternal lord listens attentively, and assures them of His support as per His natural response. He orders the clouds which cause continuous rain for a couple of days. As a result, grains (and wealth) grow in abundance; one cannot determine the worth of Waheguru. One should simply sing praise of Waheguru, who delivers food to all his living beings, oh Nanak. Actually, Waheguru's Naam is such food that it brings all comfort when one consumes it, and one never suffers from any discomfort again. 2.

Bunut Bunaayay = created such system. Say = those. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Unk(i) = lap. 7.

MEANING: You are the only truth (purity), and You connect the truthful (who become like You) with You, oh, the eternal Waheguru. Those who are disconnected from you are engrossed in Maya, and deal in the perishables (worldly things), and cannot connect with You. Attachment with worldly attractions causes grief and distance from Waheguru, but people are performing only those kinds of deeds for which they have a prewritten fate (nature). However, if You wish, You can connect even the disconnected with You, and show Your greatness (generosity), oh Waheguru. I am a sacrifice to all those who meditate on Your Feet (recite Your Naam). With the system that Waheguru has created (such holy saints stay detached from Maya), like the lotus flower that grows in water but stays above it. Those who kill their selfishness and ego are always blissful and look (spiritually) elegant. Those devotees who stay absorbed in Waheguru's lap (His Naam) never suffer from any grief or from separation from Waheguru. 7.

MEANING: We should sing praise of Waheguru, who has control over everything, and serve only Him as there is none other like Him, oh, dear folks. One always feels blissful when he enshrines Waheguru (His Naam) in his mind in the shelter of the Guru. Such a devotee never experiences any anxiety, and all his worries go away. Word Meaning: Atooll(u) = unweighable = whose worth cannot be found. Kiyoun = how? Toaliyaiy = weigh; determine worth. Goon = (the Source of) virtues. Sachi Boojh = the eternal truth. Moossaiy = is robbed. Loottiyaiy = is stolen. Na Chullsi = will not accompany. Jaagay = awakened; enlightened. Ghur(u) Rukhiya = protected their wealth. Dootaan = (lust and rage like) demons. Na Vusaayay = have no ability. 8.
MEANING: How can one weigh Waheguru, which is unweighable (His worth cannot be determined), but, at the same time, one cannot connect with Him unless He evaluates (knows) (and thus acquires) His virtues. (Waheguru's Virtues) can be known by pondering over Guru's Shabad when the devotee stays absorbed in Waheguru, which is the source of all virtues. Waheguru weighs the qualities of His devotees against His own - which only He knows - and connects the deserving devotee with Him. The worth of such a devotee cannot be measured, and nothing can be said about the level of his spirituality. I am a sacrifice to my Guru, who gives the true understanding. The world is being robbed of its noble qualities, and the spirituality of the man is stolen by the demons (lust, greed, etc.), but the followers of their own mind do not realize this. Nothing, other than Waheguru's Naam, accompanies one, and the Maya-worshippers leave this world after wasting away their precious human life. The Guru's Sikhs are enlightened and protect their home (mind) against the demons which become helpless. 8.

MEANING: Like the rainbird, which is always thirsty for the drop of rain, and cries for that, do not cry and torture your mind with your greed for worldly attractions, and accept Waheguru's Will, oh man. Aitay, jul(i) versdaiy, tikh mureh(i) bhaag tinha kay naah(i). Nanak, Gurmukh(i) tinh sojhi puyyi, jinh vussiya mun maah(i). 2.

Word Meaning: Babeeha = rainbird-like man. Jul = water; Naam-Amrit. Vaas(u) = dwelling. Saar = worth. Kookun Paah(i) = scream. Thul = land. Chuhoun Dis(i) = the four directions. Khaali = empty. Aitay = so much. Tikh = thirst. Bhaag = fortune. Sojhi = understanding.

MEANING: You reside (survive) in Waheguru's Naam-water (His Huqam), and roam around with His Huqam, oh man. You do not know the worth of His Huqam; that is why you scream (complain about everything). His Naam-Amrit rains on the waters, on the land, in all the four directions, and there is no place without His Naam. If someone dies of thirst (for worldly attractions) when the Naam-Amrit rains so heavily, he must be very unfortunate. The individual, who enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart with Guru's grace, realizes this fact, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Nath = the guru of the yogis. Jutee = the celibates. Peer = Muslim gurus. Kinaiy = any. Toojhay = in You (God). Smaaya = absorbed. Joog Chhuteeh = 36 eons. Goobaar(i) = in darkness. Bhaaya = liked. Neel = blemish. Aneel = unblemished; pure. (see Jup Ji Paurries (28-31). Surjeet(u) = alive; awake. Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Vaad = debates; controversies. Bhookh = appetite. Tihaaya = thirsty. Sir(i) = above the head. Dooja Bhaaya = liked the other (Maya). Raakhunhaar(u) = the saviour = Waheguru. 9.

MEANING: No guru of the yogis, no well-known celibate (Laxman, Bhisham, etc.), no Sidh yogi, nor a Muslim peer has ever found the limits of Waheguru. However, a devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, gets absorbed in (merges with) Him. It was the Will of Waheguru that there be complete darkness for 36 eons (an unlimited period). Then He created dreadful water. But the eternal and the perfectly pure Waheguru, which is inaccessible, is present everywhere, and is always alive (awake). (After creating the world), Waheguru also created the fire of worldly desires among the living beings, controversies, and hunger and thirst. He also created love for Maya among the living beings, and also the sword of death above everybody's head. But the Guru protects His devotees from worldly attractions with His Shabad. 9.

Word Meaning: Jul(u) = water = Naam-Amrit. Bhaayay = with love. Soobhaayay = by (Waheguru's) Will. Birkha = trees; humans. Huriyaavaly = green; full of life. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam-Amrit rains for everybody with affection, but it does so only by Waheguru's Will. Those Sikhs acquire new spiritual life in the shelter of the Guru, who stay absorbed in Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. With Waheguru's kind sight, the living beings enjoy comfort, and all their sufferings go away. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhinni Raiyn = moist night. Chumkiya = flashed. Voottha = rained. Chhehbur Laayay = continuously. Unn(u) = grains. Oopjaiy = is produced. Shuhou = husband; Waheguru. Rujaayay = Will. Jit(u) = which. Triptiyaiy = is contented. Joogut(i) Smaayay = learn the way to live (they survive). Kertay Ka Khayl = drama of Waheguru. Giyaaniyaan = having spiritual knowledge. Pullaiy Paayay = acquire. 2.

MEANING: With Waheguru's Will, the cloud flashes lightning on a moist night, and it rains continuously for a few days, as a result of which, an abundance of grains and wealth are produced. The living beings live with satisfaction and find contentment in consuming the food so produced. But this wealth is a drama of Waheguru, which comes and goes. For the spiritually knowledgeable, the real wealth is Waheguru's Naam, in which they remain constantly absorbed. But only those fortunate acquire this wealth on whom Waheguru casts kind sight, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Kaiy Siyoun = to whom. Pookaar = pray for help. Laykha = account of deeds. Mungsi = demands. Kaar = performance of deeds. Theeyaiy = happens. Huqam Kuray = takes credit. Gavaar(u) = foolish. Chhootiyaiy = gets emancipated. Bukhshunhaar(u) = forgiver. Adhaar(u) = food. Sir(i) Sir(i) = individually. Aap(u) Veechaariyaiy = analyze self. 10.
MEANING: It is Waheguru who does everything, and makes others do; so who else can I pray to get help? He makes people do the deeds (as per their prewritten fate), and also asks for the account of their deeds. Only that happens what He wishes, but the foolish take credit for their successes. One attains emancipation (from his ego and worldly bonds) only when Waheguru frees him from such bonds as He is generous in forgiving. Waheguru looks after everybody, listens to their prayers, and delivers food to everybody. It is only Waheguru which operates in everybody, and considers the needs of each individual separately. The Sikhs of the Guru analyze themselves, and love Waheguru for His gifts and His benevolence. Whom should one ask for help when Waheguru, Himself, is the provider, oh Nanak? 10.

Word Meaning: Jugut(u) = world. Mut = lest. Bherm(i) Bhoolaayay = misled by misgivings. Pushoo = animal; ignorant. Boojhun(u) = understanding; wisdom. Tikh = thirst (for worldly attractions). Buhhourr(i) = again.
Word Meaning: Let nobody be misled by any misgivings, the whole world is like the rainbird which is always thirsty for worldly desires. It is like animals which have no spiritual wisdom. The true Amrit is Waheguru's Naam; when one drinks it, the thirst of his worldly desires goes away. The devotees, who drink it in Guru's shelter, do not experience this thirst again, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: Mulhaar Raag brings peace to mind, and when one sings Waheguru's praise in this Raag, he attains peace of mind. With Waheguru's benevolence, the whole world is given (attains) peace. Just like the living beings gain new energy (feel rejuvenated), and the earth becomes very attractive when it rains, humans gain spiritual strength, and their minds become beautiful when they receive the rain of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. The basis of the whole world is Waheguru's Naam (Huqam), and everybody comes into being with His Huqam (Laws), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sacha = eternal. Vaypervaah(u) = carefree. Dhunee = Lord. Gunee = consider to be significant. Maanus = humans. Koorra Gerb = false pride (ego). Toodh = Yours. Munee = pride. Aavagaun = birth-death cycle. Ruchaayay = Oopaayay = create. Maydni = world. Gunut Gunee = worry about (accounts of deeds). Goobaar(i) = in darkness. Bhoolla = misled. Munjh(i) = in the middle. Vunee = forests. Asunkh = countless. Kunee = drop; very small amount. 11.

MEANING: You are the only true Lord who is immortal and carefree, oh Waheguru. You control everything. Who else can be considered to be significant in your comparison? The pride that the man takes is all about the perishables, but the pride that Your devotees have in You is everlasting. You have created the world so that it dies and is reborn from time to time. Only that individual is truly significant (worth in life) who serves His Guru. The devotee, who gets rid of his haumein, does not need to worry about any account of his deeds. But the follower of his mind is in complete spiritual darkness, as if he is lost in the thick of a forest. A single drop of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit (connection with Him, even if it is for a tiny moment) destroys countless sins. 11.

Word Meaning: Mehl(u) = Palace; Residence. Bhaanaiy = will; wish. Thaayayn Na Paayay = given no credit. Ichhaiy = as wished. Buppurra = poor. Tikh(u) = thirst.

MEANING: You have no knowledge of the Residence (His transcendence) of the Lord, oh, the rainbird-like, and always thirsty for worldly attractions, man. Recognize His Residence (how to connect with Him) before you pray to Him. Guided by your wishes, you talk too much (make too many requests), for which you are given no credit. The Lord is the greatest provider, and one can reap any wished reward by worshipping Him. Not just the poor single individual, the whole world gets contented. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhinni = wet; beautiful. Raiyn(i) = night. Sehjay Sach(u)) Soobhaay = with pure mind, and love. Jeeou = life. Jul = (Naam) water. App(i) Guvaayay = getting rid of selfishness and ego. Chusaa = moment.
MEANING: That night is beautiful on which the rainbird-like devotee, who is thirsty for Waheguru's Naam-water, prays to Waheguru for His Naam-water, saying that Waheguru's Naam is his life, and he cannot survive without His Naam. But, only the devotee, who gets rid of his selfishness and ego with Guru's Shabad, acquires His Naam. With His grace, Satguru has connected me with the Lord, without whom I could not live for even a single moment, oh Nanak. 2.

Sunch(i) = accumulating. Doojaiy = Maya. Sir(i) = above. Bajaariya = street performer. Bhaahaaul(i) = frightening. NIkhoottay = runs out 12.
MEANING: There are countless worlds and underworlds which cannot be counted. Waheguru is the creator of them, and He also destroys them. All the 8.4 million life forms have been created by Him. Many claim to be rajas and chiefs, and make (force) people call them the same. Some accumulate wealth and call themselves money lords but lose their dignity (in Waheguru's Court) for getting engrossed in Maya. There are some who are rajas, while there are many beggars, but Waheguru is the Lord above all of them. Without Waheguru's Naam, the world is acting like street performers (spiritual beggars) with a very frightening future (in Waheguru's Court). The luxuries of Maya are short-lived and run out. MEANING: The devotees with noble (Waheguru-like) qualities reach His Residence (get united with Him), while those who have ignoble qualities stay away from His Residence (stay disconnected with Him). Waheguru is present in everybody, but only Guru's Sikhs find Him close all the time. Waheguru does not get connected with any crying or imploring; one connects with Him only with His Naam, and the devotees feel blissful with His kind Sight. The devotees, who are imbued in His Naam, get easily connected with Him by pondering on hard, and obeying the Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Jea Daan(u) = gift of new life. Jul = Naam-water. Chhotuk Jaah(i) Praan = lose life. Naydhaan = treasure. Bukhsh(i) Luyyay = forgives. Bayli = friend. 2.

Word Meaning: The human-rainbird prays to Waheguru to kindly give him the gift of new spiritual life because his thirst for worldly attractions does not go away without Waheguru's Naam-water (Amrit), and he is on the brink of losing his life. He knows that Waheguru is the treasure of virtues, and the unlimited provider of all comforts. Waheguru forgives the Sikhs of the Guru, and is the true friend at the end, oh Nanak. 2

Tu Goondaata, nidhaan(u) heh(i), useen uvguniaar. Jis(u) bukhshay, so paayaysi, Gur Shabadi veechaar(u). 13.

Word Meaning: Aougun = ignoble qualities. Traiy-goon = Maya with three qualities. Junjaal(u) = worldly bonds. Chhoad(i) = ignoring. Khooaar(u) = suffer humiliation. Kit(u) = what for? Ehinis = day and night. Oor(i) Dhaariya = embedded in mind. Alukh Apaar = incomprehensible and limitless. Uvguniaar = ignobles. 13.

MEANING: After creating the world, Waheguru Himself evaluates the noble and the ignoble qualities of humans. Maya, with its three effects, bonds them strongly to itself as a result of which, the men do not develop love for Waheguru. Ignoring the noble qualities, they deal in the ignoble qualities and suffer humiliation in Waheguru's Court. They lose their precious human life in this gamble. Why do they even come to this world? On the other hand, the devotees, who embed the Naam of the eternal, the incomprehensible, and the limitless Waheguru in their hearts, kill their mind (worldly desires) with the Guru's eternal Shabad, and love Waheguru day and night. They believe that Waheguru is the treasure of all the noble qualities, whereas they are full of ignoble qualities. The devotee, to whom Waheguru endows His Naam, acquires it by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. 13.

MEANING: The foreheads of those devotees, who are liked by Waheguru, glow as if they are wearing jewels and peals on them. And they look exalted in His Court (are honoured there), oh Nanak. 2.

Kaaliya = in darkness. NIhaaliya = saw; realized. Nidhaan(u) = treasure.
MEANING: Finally, one's hard labour (service) to Satguru comes to the fore (bears fruit) and he enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his mind. With Waheguru as his saviour, the Angel of Death cannot even touch him. Satguru's Teaching (His Shabad) enlightens the mind of the devotee. But the Maya worshippers deal in perishables and go around like ghosts (out of step with Truth). Wrapped in human skin, they are actually like animals with darkness in their minds. Waheguru alone operates in the world, and can be realized only with the Guru's eternal Shabad. Waheguru's Naam is the treasure of everything, which only the Perfect Guru shows (bestows on the devotees, oh Nanak. 14.

Kook Pookaar = wailing and imploring. Reh(i) Guyyi = left behind. J(i) = which. Rijk Smaayay = delivers food and other necessities.
MEANING: The human rainbird recognizes Waheguru's Will with love for the Guru in his high spiritual state. In that state, he feels as if the Guru-cloud is causing heavy continuous rain of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. All his crying and imploring are left behind, and blissfulness fills his heart. We should sing praise of Waheguru, who provides food for everyone, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: You do not even know what your thirst (desire) is about, and what you need to drink to quench it, oh, the rainbird-like man. Misled by your love for Maya, you cannot acquire the ambrosial water of Waheguru's Naam. But when Waheguru is kind to a devotee, the devotee becomes connected to the Guru without any special effort. Such a devotee acquires the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam and stays absorbed in it in a high spiritual state, oh Nanak.2.

Bhusm = ash. Ung(i) = on the body. Maiyl = dirt. Jutaa Bicket = untidy matted hair. Bikraal = repugnant; hideous. Kool = clan. Khovhee = bring disgrace. Vigovhee = suffer humiliation. Chhaar(u) =dirt. Sayvhee = serve. 15.
MEANING: To please their deity, some people go and live in some part of a forest, and do not communicate with anyone. While some disregard cold and frost, others bathe in ice-cold water. Still, some others coat their bodies with ash and do not wash it off. Some others grow long hair, but do not keep it clean, and look repugnant with their untidy, matted hair, and bring disgrace to their family and the clan.

Misled by their misbeliefs, some roam around naked day and night, and do not get any sleep. Still, some others burn (torture) their bodies (by building fire around them on hot summer days), and only suffer humiliation. They waste away their human life performing spiritually worthless deeds. The human body is simply a pile of dust without Waheguru's Naam in it. So, how can they show their repentance now? Those who serve Satguru look elegant (honourable) in Waheguru's Court. 15.

MEANING: When a devotee-rainbird prays to God in the early hours of morning, his prayer is listened to in Waheguru's Court. With His benevolence, Waheguru then asks the Guru to cause the rain of His Naam. I am a sacrifice to all those devotees who have enshrined Waheguru (His Naam) in their hearts. MEANING: Your thirst (desire) for worldly attractions can never go away like this, even if you pray hundreds of times, oh, the rainbird-man. One connects with Satguru only through Waheguru's kind sight when love for Satguru takes root in his heart. With love for Satguru, Waheguru's Naam gets enshrined in the devotee's heart, and all his immoral thoughts get destroyed, oh Nanak. 2.

Put(i) = dignity. Jootthaiy = impure. Vayjaat(i) = honourless. Achaar(u) = high moral lifestyle. Oankaar(i) = in Waheguru. Sach(i) = with the Naam.

MEANING: Then there are Jains, who are misled on the wrong path of life right from the beginning. They do not have Waheguru's Naam on their tongue, and do not even do pilgrimage. Rather than shaving their heads with razors, they pull their hair out. They do not like Guru's Shabad, and stay filthy day and night. They have no status, no respect, and do not even perform the prevalent rituals, and waste away their precious human life. The (spiritually) low caste are filthy in mind, and eat filthy (impure) food. No one acquires (learns) the high moral path of life without the Guru's Shabad. The Sikhs of the Guru get absorbed in the eternal Waheguru with His eternal Naam. 16.

Word Meaning: Dujhaiy = burns up; suffers. Goon-Baahri = without virtues. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for the other (Maya). Saar = worth. Khooaar(u) = cause humiliation.2.

MEANING: (On the other hand), a person who has love for Maya has no noble qualities and suffers from heartburn even in the joyous rainy season. She does not know the worth of Waheguru, and all her adornments (religious symbols) humiliate her, oh Nanak.

Bheejyee = imbues; is moved. Pooreh(i) Taal = match steps with music. Bhugut(i) = worship. Unn(u) = food. Trishna = desires. Kivvaiyn Na = in no way. Dheejyee = get contented. Kerm = rituals. Kaiy Loe = of many worlds. Khup(i) = frustration. Laaha = (spiritual) benefit. Usnayh(i) = with love. Gheejyee = perform.

MEANING: The incomprehensible and the enigmatic Waheguru is not pleased with the worship which people perform unwillingly without love for Him. Some people try to please Him by singing ragas along with their subcategories, but fail to please Him. He is not pleased even when people dance with steps in perfect tune with the music because it is not His worship. Then, there are some who do not eat food to please God; what can be done about such fools? They have such a strong desire for worldly attractions that they cannot feel contented no matter what they do. They may perform rituals of all the worlds, but they feel humiliated in frustration. The only spiritual benefit (wealth) in the world is to drink the Amrit (of Waheguru's Naam). Guru's Sikhs worship Waheguru with deep love for Him. 17.

Word Meaning: Seetul(u) = peaceful. Aik(u) = the "One". Puchhaaniya = recognized; made a connection with. Soyay = fame. Sehjay Hee = without any special effort. Put(i) = dignity. Kulyug = the world. Ghor Undhaar(u) = pitch darkness. Raah(u) = escape route. Pergut(u) = becomes visible; appears in the mind. 1.

NOTE: Malhaar Raag is considered to bring peace to mind.

MEANING: A devotee of the Guru who sings His Shabads (in praise of God) in Malhar Raag, attains peace by body and mind. He recognizes (gets connected with) the one and only Waheguru, which is eternal. When Waheguru resides in a devotee's mind, he becomes pure by body and by mind, and he earns pure fame. With Waheguru in his mind, he earns respect without any special effort. There is deep spiritual darkness in the world, and the Maya-worshippers find no path to spirituality in such darkness. Those are highly fortunate whose hearts are graced in the Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ind(u) = cloud. Versaiy = rains. Chaaou = gusto; overjoyed. Smaahliyaiy = enshrine in heart. Ruttay = imbued. Nirmulay = pure. Sehjay = easily.

MEANING: Just like the people who feel overjoyed when it rains, Waheguru's devotees feel highly blissful when the Guru-cloud rains Waheguru's Naam-Amrit with His benevolence. I am always a sacrifice for the Guru with whose Huqam it rains. The devotees enshrine Guru's Shabad in their mind and sing Waheguru's praise. Word Meaning: Poora = perfect; God. Pooraiy Kerm(i) = with full benevolence. Dhiyaayay = recitation of Naam. Giyaa(i) = Divine Knowledge; Waheguru's Naam. Dhiyaan(i) = focus of mind. Chookaaya = cleared; washed away. Hur(i) Sur(i) Teeruth = Waheguru's holy pool (holy gathering). Munooa = mind. Mun(i) Maar(i) = kill mind (desires). Junayndi Maaya = birth-giving mother. Sachiyaar(u) = dealer in Waheguru's Naam; pure-minded with noble qualities. Sacha = God-like. Poochh(i) = to question. Ja = when. Bhaaya = is liked. Salaah(i) = sing praise. Likhiya Paaya = as prewritten in fate.

MEANING: A devotee, who serves the Perfect Satguru, gets connected with the Perfect Waheguru. He enshrines Satguru's Shabad in his mind by reciting it with His full benevolence. All his mental filth (immoral thinking and acts) is cleared when he meditates on Waheguru's Naam with full focus of mind. He bathes his mind in the pool of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit (in a holy gathering) which is the true holy place. The mother (wisdom) of such a devotee is great who gives birth to him who kills all his worldly desires with Guru's Shabad. Such a pure-minded devotee has easy access to Waheguru's Court (His Residence) where nobody can question his entrance as he is liked by (is favourite of) Waheguru. However, one sings Waheguru's praise only if it is prewritten in his fate by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 18.

Word Meaning: Koolha = a ceremonial hat given to a successor by a self-proclaimed Muslim peer. Baanvlay = insane; foolish. Nilujj = shameless. Chooha = mouse. Khudd = bill. Tickel(i) = on the back. Maavyee = contain; fit. Chhujj = a wide wicker flailing device. Dooaayeen = blessings. Say = those. Fusl(i) = harvesting. Ahaarri = the spring crops. Saavni = the fall crops. Mehdood = a letter of recognition. Dur = residences of self-proclaimed holy saints. 1.

MEANING: Those self-proclaimed peers, who ceremoniously appoint their successors by putting the ceremonial hat on their heads, are truly fools (because they do so to show off their fake spirituality), and those, who accept them are shameless. Such a ceremony is like a mouse trying to enter his bill with a large flailing device tied to his back (the peers and the successors are never successful of acquiring spirituality by such a ceremony). Such fake peers who bless their successors, die spiritual death, and so do the successors who receive them, and nobody knows where they end up going (after their death) with Waheguru's Huqam (they sure do not get connected with Allah), oh Nanak.

The spiritual crops that one harvests in spring or in the fall (throughout the year) are only Waheguru's Naam; and this (Waheguru's Naam) is the letter of Waheguru's approval that has been written for me, and which will take me to His Court. There are many fake holy places in the world, and countless beggars who beg for worldly things there (but they are no source of Waheguru's Naam). 1.

Mukkhi mitthaiy merna. Jinh Tu rukheh(i) tinh nayrr(i) na aavaiy, tinh bhuou saagur(u) terna. 2.

Word Meaning: Suou Mun(u) = huge amounts. Gheou Goorr(u) = butteroil and jaggery (luxurious foods). Daana = grains. Dukkaiy = belches. Phookaiy = heavy breathing. Khayh Oodaavaiy = splatters dust. Phook(i) = in conceit. Mitee = kill desires to be absorbed (in God). Bhaani = liked. Udh(u) Goolha = half a grain; very little. Chirri = sparrow. Choogun(u) = pick food. Gaiyn(i) = sky. Bil-laayay = makes sounds. Chungee = good; acceptable. Shukta = powerful. Sheenh(u) = lion. Saiy = hundred. Miriyaan = deer; animals. Pichhaiy = after. Sutaana = more energetic. Ghooray = den. Maavaiy = contain self. Book(i) = roar. Mool(i) Na = not at all. Ukk = milkweed. Tidda = grasshopper. Chaar(i) Dihaarray = a few days; short time. Gullaan Vaalaiy = those who only talk. Ghunayray = countless. Chhudd = quit. Mukkhi = house fly. Mitthaiy = sweet but soft jaggery. 2.

NOTE: An elephant consumes 150-175 kg of vegetation, and drinks about 200L of water every day. It also likes fruits, rice, and jaggery. About 80% of its time is spent eating.

MEANING: An elephant consumes large amounts of grains and other foods, like ghee and gaggery (if available); once full, it belches, breathes heavily in its ego, and splatters dust to show its strength. But repents when it dies (for its egoistic actions). The world, like the elephant, is spiritually blind and foolish, and dies in its ego. But Waheguru likes only those who kill their worldly desires and get absorbed in Him.

On the other hand, a sparrow picks up only a very small amount of food, and happily flies into the sky, and chirps (has no ego, which is like singing God's praise), which Waheguru likes. A powerful lion kills hundreds of forest animals, and many carnivores eat their flesh after the lion has had its fill. Getting fresh energy, the lion cannot contain itself in its den and begins to roar. Whom is he trying to show his strength? Waheguru does not like such ego at all. He also repents at his death. A milkweed-hopper loves the milkweed and sits on one of its branches to eat its food (shows no ego). Waheguru likes him when he sings His praise.

Life on this earth is only for a very short period of time. The more a person enjoys sensual pleasures, the more he suffers in the next world (in Waheguru's Court) (because of his committed sins), oh Nanak. Many people talk about worldly enjoyments as spiritually harmful, but nobody actually gives them up because Maya is very sweet to them; like a fly that gets trapped (and dies) on a sweet but soft jaggery, humans get trapped by Maya's attractions and suffer spiritual death. But Maya cannot even come near the devotees protected by Waheguru. They swim across the sea of Maya (to merge into Waheguru). 2.

Word Meaning: Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Dhunee = Lord. Alukh = invisible. Apaar(u) = endless. Daata = provider. Mungtay = beggars. Ikkna =for some. Aivaiyn Bhaanvda = like the way they are. Vin(u) Preeti = without love. Saynvday = worship. Dhaadhi = bard. Pookaar = prayer. Suntokhiyaa = causing contentment. Adhaar = support.

MEANING: You are eternal, are the Lord, are inaccessible, incomprehensible, invisible, and limitless, oh Waheguru. You are the only provider in this world, while all others are beggars at Your door. Those who serve You by pondering on the Advice of the Guru enjoy all the comforts. You want the humans to be attracted to Maya (this is Your law), oh Waheguru. (To stay detached from Maya), One needs to sing Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad and with love for Him. One cannot worship Waheguru without love for Him in his mind, and one cannot develop love for Waheguru without the grace of the Guru. You are the Lord, and everybody serves (worships) You. I am Your bard, and I pray to You (begging for Your worship). I beg for Your Naam, which is the source of contentment, and the basis of my life, oh Waheguru. 19.

Word Meaning: Kaal(u) = time; life span. Chhijjaiy = weakens. Kaaya = body. Praal(u) = like dry straws. Vertun Vertiya = the deeds done. Junjaal(u) = nets of Maya. Bhoolliya = forgotten. Chook(i) Guyya = ended. Tup Taal(u) = worship of God. Jhukh(i) Jhukh(i) = doing worthless things. Jhayr(i) = in a long cycle. Pichhaiy = after his death. Soojhaiy Naahi = cannot think of. Aivaiyn Bhhaavaiy = likes it this way. 1.
MEANING: Man's life span goes on decreasing by day and by night. His body weakens, and his skin becomes dry like straw. All his life, he dealt with worldly affairs that bound him more closely to Maya, and he forgot the worship of Waheguru. Doing the worthless things, the spiritually blind are caught in a long cycle (of rebirths). After his death, the relatives cry for his return, but without spiritual understanding, they cannot think right. They cry for the dead, but die themselves as well (when their turn comes). This is the way Waheguru likes (for the ignorant to suffer). But only those die spiritually who do not keep Waheguru in mind. 1.

Word Meaning: Mooaa = died; ended. Vaiyr(u) = enmity. Vaadi = the root of disputes. Vunn = skin colour. Roop = beauty. Vinsiya = distorted. Roolie = disgraced. Goyiyaan = talk about. Chaaou Rulie = enjoyed luxuries zestfully. Sir Khoor = from head to toe; complete. Put(i) Paati = lost dignity. 2.
MEANING: At the death of a man, all his love and affection also die, and so do the disputes which are the roots of enmity. His lovely skin colour goes away (turns pale), his beautiful looks get distorted, and his body is disgraced in suffering. His relatives think and talk about the kind of person he was, and what kind he was not, and that he enjoyed life zestfully. But nobody knows where he came from, and where he goes. The man loses all his dignity from top to toe without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sookh-Daata = source of all comforts. Sukhaayi = friend. Baajh = without. Buouraana = insane. Saar = worth. Pervaan(u) = approved. Joti = human souls. Jot(i) = the Supreme Soul. Tayha = the same; like. Bhaana = Will. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya. Kuday Naahi = never. Rujjaiy = contented. Vigoota = humiliated. Boojh = understanding. Rujaayi = the Lord of His Will (God). 20.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is immortalizing, is the source of all comforts, and is most friendly at the end. The world is insane without the Guru and does not know the worth of Waheguru's Naam. Those who serve Satguru are approved in Waheguru's Court, and their souls merge with the Supreme Soul. The devotee, who enshrines Waheguru's Will in his mind (always accepts it gladly), becomes like the Lord. The spiritually blind do ignorant things and do not realize that no one enjoys comfort when following their own will. Nobody is ever content with his wealth, as the appetite of the foolish for more and more wealth never goes away. Everybody suffers in the enjoyment of worldly attractions, and does not acquire spiritual understanding without Satguru. Those whom Waheguru is kind to serve Satguru and enjoy blissfulness. 20.

Word Meaning: Sherm(u) = respect. Dherm(u) = high morality; religiosity. Dhun(u) = wealth (of Waheguru's Naam). Pullaiy Paayay = acquire. Kaamdhiyaiy = is called. Choataan Khaayay = suffers punishment. Faqir = beggar. Gooni Guheer = sea (treasure) of virtues. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is one's true wealth because of which he earns respect and acquires high morality, oh Nanak. The worldly wealth cannot be considered one's friend (supporter) because it receives punishment in Waheguru's Court for its misuse. Those who possess worldly wealth are considered beggars in Waheguru's Court, but the ones who have Waheguru's Naam at heart are the real treasure of virtues. 1.

Word Meaning: Dooni = world; worldly comforts. Suhayrriyaiy = acquire. Luthee = comes off. Bhookh = appetite of desires. Roopeen = with beauties. Jaytay = as many. Rus = enjoyments. Taytay = the same. 2.

MEANING: One acquires worldly comforts after great suffering (with hard but dishonest labour), and he suffers again at their loss. Nobody can overcome his appetite for worldly attractions without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. Nobody gets contented with beauty – the more they see, the more they wish to enjoy. The more tastes one wishes to enjoy, the more he suffers. 2.

Word Meaning: Undheen Kummeen = deeds done with blind faith. Chikkurr(i) = mud. Theeyaiy = happens. Puthur Bundh(u) = a stone wall (around a reservoir). Toolha = a crude raft. Haath = depth. Saath = groups. 3.
MEANING: The rituals that one performs with blind faith, blind his mind too, and he performs ignorant deeds with his body as well. His approach is like trying to plug a breach in a stonewall of a huge reservoir with mud. With such a breach, he does not know the depth (the strength of the water current) and has no boat or raft to escape. Countless groups of people drown in the world-sea without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Lukh Mun = huge amounts. Soyina = Gold. Roopa = silver. Shahaan Sir(i) Shah = an emperor ruling on many rajahs. Lushkur = armies of soldiers. Vaajay = musical instruments; musicians. Nayjay = spears; weapons. Ghoreen = mounted on horses. Saayir = usgaah = sea. Ugun(i) = fire (of desires). Paani = water of sensual pleasures. Kundhi = shore. Dhaahi Kuhaah = wailing and cries. Othaiy = there (in Waheguru's Court). Jaaniyeh(i) = find out. 4.
MEANING: One may have countless tons of gold and silver, and may be an emperor of many rajahs; he may have an army of millions of soldiers, have millions of musicians to entertain him, and may have millions of weapons, and may have millions of mounted soldiers. But everybody has to cross the world-sea, which has the fire of worldly desires rather than water in it. The other shore of this sea is not visible, and the cries of people suffering in the sea can be heard. The world-sea is the real testing ground where a man's true identity is known, whether he is an emperor (or a beggar), oh Nanak. 4.

Word Meaning: Ikknah = some. Zunjeer = chains. Bund(i) = behind bars. Rubaaniyaiy = of God. Budheh Chhooteh = released from confinement; emancipated. Sach(i) = with Waheguru's Naam. Puchhaaniyaiy = make connection. Pullaiy Paayay = acquire; perform deeds. Sach(u) = truth. Nibayrr(u) = the final decision. Bhuoujul = the world-sea. Taarunhaar(u) = the ship; Waheguru. Yaar = immoral sexual friendship. Jooaar = gamblers (of wealth against spirituality). Peerraiy Ghaaniyaiy = are severely punished (like seeds in a crushing mill). Ninduk = vilifiers. La-itebaar = untrustworthy. Hurrvaaniyaiy = handcuffs. Jaaniyaiy = recognized. 21.

MEANING: Some have chains of Maya around their necks and feel as if they are in Waheguru's imprisonment. They can be emancipated only if they connect with Waheguru through His eternal Naam. The only truth is that everybody has to perform deeds as preordained by Waheguru. One realizes only in Waheguru's Court that the final judgment (on his performance) is delivered by Waheguru's Huqam (command). With Guru's Shabad, one makes a connection with Waheguru, the ship that ferries him across the world-sea. The thieves, the immoral, and the gamblers (who gamble their spirituality for Maya) are crushed like seeds in a mill. The vilifiers and the untrustworthy are handcuffed (put in prison of rebirths). The Sikh of the Guru, who gets absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, is recognized (honoured) in Waheguru's Court. 21.

Word Meaning: Faqiraiy = of beggars. Paarkhoo = appraiser, judge. Aivaiy = like this. Gooaaou = custom; norm. Illit(i) = mischievous; trouble-causing. Chaudhry = head; leader. Koorri = female hypocrite. Pooray Thaaoun = takes front seat. Niyaaoun = justice. 1.

MEANING: Beggars are called kings, and the foolish are called pundits in this world. Similarly, the ignorant is called the judge. This has become the norm in society. The troublemaker is called the leader, and the female hypocrite occupies the front seat. One realizes in Guru's shelter that this is the kind of justice in this eon (world), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Herna = of the deer. Baaj = hawks. Sikdaar = high official. Naaoun = are called. Phaandhi Luggi = trap; snare. Jaat(i) = their own kind. Phuhaayin = get them trapped. Beena = wise. Pehlon = first. Jurrh = root. Under Jummaiy = sprout inside. Chhaaoun = shade. Sheenh = lions. Mookudum = officials. Baitthaiy Soottay = at inconvenient times. Chaakur = servants. Nehnda = with paws. Paayin Ghaaou = cause wounds. Rut(u) Pit = blood and flesh. Saar = evaluation. Nukkeen Vuddheen = noses are cut; disgraced. La-itebaar = untrustworthy. 2.

NOTE: The Shabad of Guru Angad Sahib preceding this Shabad reinforces the ideas presented in this Shabad of Guru Nanak Sahib.

MEANING: The deer, the hawks, and the chiefs are known as educated (or trained in this world). However, these are the living beings that get their own kind trapped as prisoners; they do not get any room in Waheguru's Court (they are discarded). Only that individual is educated and wise who works hard to recite Waheguru's Naam with dedication. Just like a place which needs shade, it has to have a plant take root underneath it; the individual who wishes to have good treatment given to him must first sow the seeds of such virtues in his own mind. But the rajahs here are like lions which kill (suck the blood) of their subjects, and their revenue officials are like hounds who go and awaken (harass) the innocent at any inconvenient time. The dog-like assistants wound them with their paws, and all of them suck the blood and eat the flesh of the helpless people. What they do not realize is that where the individuals are evaluated for their deeds (in Waheguru's Court), the noses of such untrustworthy people are chopped (they are badly disgraced). 2.

Bhaiyjul = the world-sea. Nirbhuou = fearless (God). Paaravaar = ends. Saar = worth. Trishna = fire of desires. Jultay = burning in. Oordhaar(i) = enshrining in the heart. 22.

MEANING: Waheguru, Himself, creates the world, and Himself looks after it. However, man's misgivings are not cleared without (respectful) fear of God, and he does not develop love for Him. But, love for Waheguru sprouts in one's mind only in the shelter of the Guru (with His Advice), and he reaches the door of (attains) emancipation. One swims across the world-sea when he ponders on Guru's Shabad with fear for Waheguru in mind. One acquires the fearless and the endless Waheguru (enshrines His Naam in mind) with fear for Him. The Maya-worshippers do not realize the worth of fear for Waheguru; they only cry and pray while burning in the fire of desires. One acquires all comforts only when he enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his mind with Guru's Advice (His Shabad), oh Nanak. 22.

Word Meaning: Roopaiy = of beauty. Kaamaiy = of lust. Saadaiy = of tastes. Gundh(u) = strong bond. Lubbaiy = of greed. Maalaiy = of wealth. Ghool(i) Michel(i) = one with each other. Oonghaiy = overpowered by sleep. Saurr(i) narrow. Plungh(u) = a big bed. Bahunkaiy = barks. Koap(u) = rage; fury. Khooaar(u) Hoyay = suffers humiliation. Phukkur(u) = boastful. Pittaiy Undh(u) = talks about his blind (trivial) achievements. Gundh(u) = foul (language). 1.

MEANING: A lustful person is attracted to beauty, and a glutton is attracted to tasty foods. Greed and wealth are closely related, and a sleepy person is happy to get a bed, even if it is very small. Similarly, a furious person loves (cannot stay without) barking (using foul language to vent out his anger) and later suffers humiliation. The boastful talks about his trivial achievements. All other talk than Waheguru's Naam at heart, is about filthy things. So, in that case, staying quiet is the best, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Maal(u) = wealth. Jaat(i) = high caste (social status). Jobun(u) = youthfulness. Thuggeen = thugs. Lujj = dignity. Say = those. J(i) = which. Kerma = good fortune. Mootthay Jaah(i) = are robbed.

MEANING: The pride of being a ruler, of wealth, of one's beauty, high status in society, and of one's youthfulness is such a robber that it robs a person of his good qualities. These five things are thugs which rob the whole world, and nobody protects their (spiritual) dignity. However, even these five thugs can be robbed (made ineffective) by Guru's devotees who come to His shelter (surrender their thinking to the Guru). Many more, who are devoid of Guru's benevolence, are being robbed, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Laykhaydaar(u) = accountable. Mungiyaiy = is required. Koorriyaar(u) = dealers in the perishables. Aukha Tungiyaiy = suffers discomfort. Aoughut Raah = tough path. Roodhay = Roakiyaan = blocked. Suntokheeya = contented. Gehr = deep. Gumbheer = never changing. Athaah(u) = unfathomable. Haath = depth. Moohay mooh(i) = repeatedly. Choataan Khayay = receive punishment. Chhootsi = emancipates. Ghur(i) = the final destination (one with Waheguru). Vukhaaniyaiy = reciting. Huqami = Waheguru. Giraah = bite; food. Jaaniyaiy = recognize.

MEANING: No matter how educated a person is, he is still accountable to Waheguru for his deeds, and is asked for their account (of his deeds). Without Waheguru's Naam, one deals in perishables only and suffers discomfort. The journey of his spiritual life becomes very difficult for him, as he finds that all the paths and avenues of spirituality (union with Waheguru) are blocked to him. The eternal Waheguru is carefree, and only His Naam (Guru's Shabad) gives contentment to the man. Waheguru is very deep (to understand), never changes, unfathomable, and no one can find his depth (greatness). The individuals who are engrossed in Maya receive punishment repeatedly and cannot find emancipation without the Guru. The devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam, reaches Waheguru's Court (gets connected with Him) with dignity. One should recognize that Waheguru provides food with every breath (whether one believes in Him or not). 23.

Word Meaning: Jeeou = life. Peerr = pain. Ikk(i) = some. Dur(i) = Waheguru's Court. Vujeer = honourable positions. Aarja = life span. Juheer = in suffering. Nikhoottaiy = run out. Faqir = beggars. Dhaahay = demolish. Chusay = moment. Lukh = millions. Nuthaiy = puts nose-ring; controls. Verna = skin colours. Chihna = physical features. Baahra = without. Laykhay Baajh = without being seen. Alukh = incomprehensible. Kiyoun = how Kuthiyaiy = describe. Jaapaiy = is present. Kaar Subh = all tasks. Kutha = virtues; praise. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Boodh(i) = wisdom. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru created the human body by combining the basic elements (ingredients) of air, water, and fire (energy) with the soul. Since everybody has the same basic elements, why do some people enjoy happiness while others suffer in life? Some of them live on the earth (lead normal lives), while some live in the underworld (under sordid conditions), and some others live in the sky (lead lives in highly comfortable conditions). A few stay connected with Waheguru and are honoured in His Court. Some enjoy long life, while some others suffer and die early. Some have so much wealth that they use and give some to others, yet never run out of it, while others are permanent beggars. It all happens with Waheguru's Huqam, who creates and demolishes millions in a short moment. He controls the fate of everybody with His Huqam, which everybody has to obey. Only those find emancipation from worldly bonds whom He is benevolent to. Waheguru is without any colour (form), has no physical features, and the incomprehensible cannot be seen. Even though He is visible in nature (is present everywhere), how can we describe or talk about the incomprehensible? Everybody does, and talks (thinks) as per his prewritten fate, but Waheguru is indescribable. However, whoever sings or listens to His praise acquires Divine Knowledge and enjoys the comforts of all supernatural powers, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ajur = unendurable (spiritual state). Juraiy = endure. Nuoun Kool = the nine doors of human body (sensual pleasures). Praan = (with) life; from the bottom of heart.

Thir(u) = stable; immortal. Kundh(u) = body. Jaan(u) = has to go. Jeevut Mert = kill worldly desires while living in the family. Pervaan(u) = approved by God. Tut(u) = the root of everything (Waheguru). Puchhanaiy = recognizes; makes a connection. Persad(u) = benevolence. Huoun Da = of haumein. Phurriyug = trapped. Jooni Paan(u) = go into life forms. 2.

NOTE: When one sings Waheguru's praise with full concentration, he acquires some supernatural powers that not too many people can handle (control), and use them happily. This is what the Sidh yogis do. This is called the unendurable spiritual state. But such people can never connect with Waheguru. Only those who can control such temptations go on to become "one" with Waheguru.

MEANING: When one rises above the initial temptations of supernatural powers, he is able to control all his sensual pleasures and attains immortality when he worships Waheguru with his life (from the core of his heart). Then he neither takes births nor ever dies. He kills all his worldly desires (stays fully detached from worldly attractions) while living in the family, and is approved in Waheguru's Court. He recognizes Waheguru's will, and makes connection with the root of the universe (God) with the grace of the Guru. One is caught in the birth-death-birth cycle because of his haumein (selfishness, and ego) oh Nanak. I have no haumein, so I will not take any life form again. 2.

Nanak, Sachaiy mayl(u), Sachaiy ruttiya. 24.

Word Meaning: Salaah = God's praise. Boodhi = wisdoms; thoughts. Mithiya = false. Sachay Vapaar = dealings in Waheguru's Naam. Birthiya = wasteful. Paaravaar(u) = the endless (Waheguru). Gerb(i) Goobaar(i) = darkness of egoism. Bhaaya = liked. Visaar(i) = forgetting. Taavun Tuttiya = fry in hot oil. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Guttiya = added. Aaya Ootthi = birth and death. Khayl(u) = drama; cycle. Oovutiya = on a misleading path. Ruttiyaa = imbued. 24.

MEANING: There is only one thing to read (sing) - and that is Waheguru's Naam and His praise – all other thoughts are false (worthless). Without dealing in Waheguru's Naam, the human life goes to waste because no one can connect with the limitless Waheguru. The whole world is in the darkness of its ego, and people do not like Waheguru (His Naam). They leave the world while ignoring Waheguru's Naam, and are bound to suffer as if they will be fried in the hot oil. One's indecisiveness (between Waheguru and Maya) adds fuel to the fire as oil. He is caught in the birth-death cycle and roams around on the misleading path again. One connects with the eternal Waheguru only by being imbued with the love of His Naam, oh Nanak. 24.

NOTE: Some people preach vehemently against eating meat so much so that they do not even touch it. In this and the next Shabad, Guru Nanak Sahib explains the extreme weakness of such thinking because the man uses (abuses) the human flesh in many different ways, which cannot be avoided. Moreover, He explains that it is impossible to tell the difference between flesh and vegetation – both have life. And anyway, it is Waheguru who controls life and death. Enjoy His reasoning.

Word Meaning: Nimmiya = laid foundation. Vaas(u) = residing. Jeeyo = life. Hudd = bones. Chumm(u) = skin. Mumma = mother's breast. Giraas(u) = food. Jeebh = tongue. Raas(i) = successful (in achieving the objective of human life). Buchun(i) = (meaningless talk). Binaas(u) = destruction (of spirituality). 1.

MEANING: First, the foundation of man's birth is laid with flesh (sperm and egg), and the fetus stays in the womb of his mother (which is again flesh). When he is given life, he gets flesh (tongue to take in food) in his mouth, and his whole body is made of flesh, bones, skin, and body. When he comes out of the flesh of his mother's womb, he gets her breast (of flesh) in his mouth to get fed. His mouth and his tongue are made of flesh to eat, and he breathes inside (using) the flesh.

When he grows to be young, he marries a young woman (made of flesh), and brings her home to gratify his desires. His children are born from their flesh, and all relations are made of flesh (and one does not recognize Waheguru's Huqam).

One achieves success in his objective (union with Waheguru) only when he comes to the shelter of the Guru and his misconceptions are cleared. One cannot detach oneself from worldly bonds through one's own efforts. In fact, one destroys his spirituality with useless talk (thinking) (against the natural laws), oh Nanak. 1.

Kmaad(u) = Gunna = sugarcane. Kupaahaa = cotton. Tirbhuvun = the whole universe. Toa = water. Buhou Bidh(i) = in many ways. Huchha = good; usable. Bikaara = misuse for vices. Aiytay = all these. Rus = enjoyment of tastes; addictions. Sanyasi = detached. Vichaara = thought. 2.

MEANING: Only fools, who have no spiritual knowledge and have no such understanding, enter into aggressive discussions about eating or not eating meat. It is impossible to distinguish between what we call meat and what we call vegetation (since both contain life, and some plants are carnivorous, killing and absorbing insects). Even the gods had the rites of killing rhinos during huvuns and serving meals to the Brahmans and the sages. But those who show indignation by holding their noses against eating meat, suck the blood of the people at night (rob them of their hard-earned wealth). The Brahmans also fleece their followers by keeping them in the dark under the cover of religiosity. They show their disapproval of eating meat to the people only as a show of hypocrisy, as they have no spiritual knowledge and no such wisdom. What can a wise man tell such blind people as they do not understand any reasoning, oh Nanak? A true blind person is the one who performs rituals blindly; they have no eyes in their mind (the ability to see or understand). They come into being from the flesh and blood of their parents, but the ignorant refuse to eat fish or meat.

When the woman and the man have union at night, they perform the bad act with flesh (which results in the birth of humans). So, our foundation is laid down from the flesh, and we are born out of flesh, and we have bodies of flesh. The pundit, who has no spiritual knowledge and no spiritual wisdom, calls himself very wise. (Isn't it strange) That the outside meat is bad, but it is all right to abuse the flesh at home, oh, pundit? All living beings are born out of flesh and live in the body, which is made of flesh. Those who give up eating the food which is fit to eat, and eat the food which is unfit to eat (earned by dishonest means) are the followers of the guru who is spiritually blind. We have our foundation in flesh, are born out of flesh, and have bodies of flesh. The pundit, who has no spiritual knowledge and has no such wisdom (to worship Waheguru), calls himself wise. The use of meat is mentioned in the Puranas and the holy books of the Western religions, and has been in use in all four eons.
Meat has been used at all the happy and ceremonial occasions, including the yugs and the marriages. All females, males, the rajahs, and the Muslim rulers are born out of flesh. If you think that they go to hell (if they eat meat), then do not accept their donations (which you gladly accept), oh pundit. What an irony! Those who give donations are thought to go to hell, while those who accept them, are believed to go to the paradise!!
Another irony is that the pundit, who understands nothing but preaches to others, considers himself very wise!!
You do not even understand where the flesh (meat) comes from, oh pundit. Everything, including grains (staple foods), sugarcanes (for sweet tastes), and cotton (for clothes)– in fact, the whole universe - comes into being from water. Water says that it is wonderful (highly useful) for the people in many ways (sustains all life, used in cooking, in washing, in making food, juices, and many other tasty drinks, in medicines as a solvent, and for travel by boat, and in many more ways). But people also abuse it for immoral purposes, for example, making alcohol and other intoxicants, for drowning (killing) people, and for eliminating evidence for their crimes. So, I have an idea for the pundit to ponder: if he wishes to be a true sanyasi, he should quit not just eating meat, but all such addictions, including all the tasty products made from water, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Huoun = I. Unt(u) = limits; end. Smaaya = gets absorbed. Bhungwaan Vays = saffron outfit (of yogis). Bhermday = go around. Disuntar = distant lands. Aap(i) = self. Lookaaya = remain hidden. Ruttan(u) = jewellike (diamondlike) invaluable. Chaanun(u)

= enlightenment. Puchhaaniya. = recognizes. Aavagaun = birth-death cycle. Bajaariyaan = to the dramatists; impostors. Bajaar(u) = drama. Ruchaaya = created; perform. Thir(u) = stable (mind). 25.

MEANING: What (virtues of Yours) can I describe with only one tongue (as You have countless of them); nobody has ever found Your end (limits), oh Waheguru. The individual, who ponders on Guru's Shabad (to find Your limits), simply gets absorbed in You. Many individuals roam aimlessly in saffron outfits but cannot connect with You without the grace of the Guru. You are present, hidden in every heart, but the ignorant grow exhausted wandering in distant lands in Your search. Guru's Shabad is that shining diamond in the light of which You show (reveal) Yourself. With Guru's Advice, a devotee recognizes his own-self, and merges into Waheguru. But the dramatists (hypocrites) who dramatize Waheguru's worship as a show off (to make money), are trapped in the birth-death cycle. But those who like (love) Waheguru, sing praise of the everlasting Waheguru, with a focused mind (and merge into Him). 25.

Sloak M: 1: Nanak, Maya kerm birkh(u), ful Amrit, ful viss(u). Subh kaarun Kerta kuray, jis(u) khuvaalay tis(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Kerm = deeds. Birkh = tree. Ful = fruit; reward. Viss(u) = poison. Kaarun = causes; make arrangements.

MEANING: Maya is such a tree which bears two types of fruits – Waheguru's Naam, and the poisonous worldly attractions, oh Nanak. One reaps the kind of fruit (reward) which depends upon one's deeds. But it is the Creator (Waheguru) who creates the causes for individuals to receive the type of fruit He wishes for them. 1.

M: 2: Nanak, dooniyaan keeyaan vudiyaayiyaan uggeen sayti jaal(i). Ehni juleeyeen Naam(u) visaariya,ikk na chulliyaan naal(i).

Word Meaning: Vudiyaayiyaan = honours. Sayti = in. Juleeyeen = rotten; poisonous.

MEANING: Burn the honours conferred on you by the world in fire (I do not need them), oh Nanak. They are a sweet poison because one forgets Waheguru's Naam under their influence, and not even one of them accompanies you after death. 2.

Kerta kuray su hoag, koorr(u) nikhootsi. 26.

Word Meaning: Sir(i), Sir(i) = individually. Nibayrr(u) = final judgment. Bhaaya = liked. Kaal(u) = death. Chulaayay = takes away. Jur(u) = old age. Jervaana = merciless powerful. Kunnh(i) Churrhiya = riding on shoulders. Nuchsi = dances. Bohith = ship. Bayrr(u) = boat.

Rukhsi = protects. Bhukhaiy = burns. Bhurrhaarr(u) = frightening large flames. Undin(u) = everyday; always. Bhukhsi = eats; enjoys. Phaatha = trapped. Choag = bait. Koorr(u) = perishables. Nikhootsi = runs out; ends. 26.

MEANING: Waheguru has created a system in which He delivers the final judgment on every individual's future (after death) through His own Huqam. He delivers the final judgment as He pleases. When death comes and ties up the individual, nobody can protect him. The merciless and powerful old age dances on the shoulder of the individual (brings the cruel message of approaching death). Satguru is the eternal ship and boat which protects you from undesirable future (reincarnations). The fire of worldly desires burns with large flames (causes a bait of huge desires), and the man trapped in the net of Maya, picks up that bait all the time. He can find emancipation only with Waheguru's Huqam. Only that happens which Waheguru wishes for the individuals, and the perishable things end with his death (do not accompany him). 26.

Word Meaning: Ghur(u) = heart. Ghur(u) = Waheguru's Residence. Soojaan = know-all; spiritually knowledgeable. Punch Shabad = musical instruments of all five kinds (metal; wire, wind, drums, vessels). Dhoonikaar = sound of music. Teh = there. Neeshaan(u) = in recognition of. Deep = continents. Loe = worlds. Pataal = underworlds. Khund Mundul = galaxies. Haiyraan(u) = amazement. Taar(i) Ghor = very loud sound. Sultan = Emperor (Waheguru). Sookhmun Kaiy Ghur(i) = in the blissful state. Soonn(i) Mundul = spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Akuth Kutha = virtues of the indescribable Waheguru. Munsa = desires; wishes. Oolt(u) Kumul(u) = inverted heart (from Maya to Waheguru). Ajupa Jaap(u) = recitation of the Naam without moving the tongue. Aad(i) Joogaad(i) = Waheguru which has been there since the beginning, through all the eons. Sukheeyaan = all senses. Punch = the five virtues. Nij Ghur(i) = person home (in Waheguru). Vaas(u) = dwelling. Khoaj(i) = searching. Luhhaiy = acquires. Ta Ka = his. Daas(u) = servant. 1.

MEANING: The wise, and the spiritually knowledgeable (connected with Waheguru) Satguru, shows the Residence of Waheguru (Himself) in the heart of the devotee. The devotee, in that high spiritual state, feels as if he is listening to the loud sound of the sweet music of all five types of musical instruments which play in recognition of the Guru's Shabad. In that state, he "sees" with amazement the universe containing many continents, worlds, underworlds, and galaxies. Among the loud sounds of many types of music, he sees the Emperor (Waheguru) occupying His eternal throne. Listening to the sweet music in that state of union with Waheguru, his mind stays focused on Him, and above the effects of Maya. He ponders on the virtues of the indescribable Waheguru (sings His praise), and all his desires get buried in his mind (are restrained). Inverted (turned away) against the attractions of Maya, his lotus-like mind stays filled with Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, and does not wander anymore.

With his continuous recitation of Waheguru's Naam without moving his tongue, he never forgets Waheguru, and stays absorbed in Him who has been here ever since, and over all the eons. With Satguru's grace, all his senses and the five virtues (high morality, contentment, compassion, patience, and religiosity) join together, and the devotee dwells in his own home (Waheguru's shelter). One acquires this high spiritual state (access to Waheguru's Residence) by pondering over the Guru's Shabad; I am a slave of such devotees, oh Nanak(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Chilmil(i) = dazzling. Bisiyaar = very much. Phaani = perishable. Kaloob(i) Ukl = low wisdom; foolish. Goar = grave (death). Kumeen = mean. Kumtreen = meanest. Duriyaaou = river; broad-minded; forgiving. Khoodaaya = oh, Allah (Waheguru). Uver Cheej(u) = other things. Zehr = poison. Pooraab = full of water. Khaam Koojaiy = weak (destructible) water-kettle. Hikmut(i) = wisdom; power. Tooaana = powerful. Tu = You. Koodruti = power. Sug = dog. Deebaan = Court. Mustaana = in intoxication. Churrhay Suvaaya = may keep increasing. Aatush = fire. Khoonuk = cool. 2.

MEANING: The world dazzles with the attractions of Maya, but it is perishable. My foolish mind does not accept the reality of death. My mind is mean – very, very mean – but You are very broad-minded like a river (and will forgive me), oh Allah (God). I ask You for only one thing – Your Naam – I do not like anything else; they are all like poison to me. My body is like an unbaked earthen water-kettle full of water (and can erode at any time), but You have created it with Your amazing power. You are all-powerful, and I am weak. I have come to this world with your power. Like a dog, I am a loyal servant in Your Court, and I am intoxicated to serve You. I wish my intoxication increases every day. The world is a fire of desires, whereas Your Naam is the source of coolness, oh Waheguru. 2.

Nanak luyyay milaayay, khusmaiy bhaaniya. 27.

Word Meaning: Subho = all. Vertaiy = is happening. Chulut(u) = amazing drama. Vukhaaniya = can be called. Luthay = come off; go away. Vikaar = vices. Neeshaaniya = identification. Oodhaar(u) = salvation. Nikaaniya = no subservience to anyone. Simer(i) = reciting Naam. Dataar(u) = the Provider (God). Rung Maaniya = enjoyed all luxuries. Pergut Bhuyya = becomes famous. Chhaavaaniya = royal canopy. Bhaaniya = likes.
MEANING: Waheguru's amazing drama of the world is operating everywhere, and it is really enchanting. One can connect with Him in the shelter of the Guru. All one's vices go away with Guru's Shabad as his identification. One finds salvation in the company of the Guru, and does not owe anything to anybody (Angel of justice). One enjoys all the luxuries of life by reciting Waheguru's Naam. With Waheguru's benevolence, he becomes known all over the world, and a royal canopy is stretched over his head (he becomes a king in the spiritual world). I am always a sacrifice for Waheguru, who connects His devotees with Him with His benevolence. But He connects only those with Him, whom He likes, oh Nanak. 27.

Word Meaning: Dhunn(u) = great; worthy of worship. Su = that. Kaagud(u) = paper. Kulm = pen. Bhaanda = inkpot. Muss(u) = ink. Laykhaari = writer. 1.
MEANING: The paper on which Waheguru's Naam is written, the pen, the inkpot, the ink, and the writer are all great (worthy of worship), which take part in writing Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Putti = writing board. Laykh(u) = writing. Kaahay Koo = what for? 2.
MEANING: You are the wooden writing-board, the pen, and Yourself the writing on the board, oh, Waheguru. It is you who does everything through others (makes others do). So, all the credit goes to You, so why worship anybody else, oh Nanak? 2.

MEANING: You have created the system of the whole universe, and You alone operate everywhere, oh Waheguru. You are present everywhere, and there is none other like You. You alone know Your transcendence, and Your measurements, and You alone know Your worth (magnanimity). You are invisible, incomprehensible, and inaccessible; one can "see" You with the Guru's Advice. Because of his ignorance, the man suffers from misconceptions which are eradicated with the Guru's Divine Knowledge (His Shabad).

You connect those with You, whom You are kind to, and they recite Your Naam. You are inaccessible, the supreme power, the creator of the universe, and are present everywhere. Everybody pursues the kind of business to which You put them in; I, Nanak, just sing Your praise, oh Waheguru. 28. Verified.

Word Meaning: Savilay = serve. Akool = having no clan. Jaacheh(i) = beg for. Pause. Ja Chaiy = whose. Digdisaiy = all directions. Saraicha = (Royal) canopy with walls. Baiykoontth = paradise. Bhuvun = huge building; the whole universe. Chitarshaala = picture (art) gallery. Suput Loak = seven worlds (the universe). Samaan(i) Pooriyulay = uniformly present. Laxmi Koomaari = young Maya. Deevrray = small lamps. Kautuk(u) = puppet. Kaal(u) = death. Bupurra = poor; humble. Kotwal(u) = law-enforcer. Siri = Nurhurie = God. 1. Koolaal = potter. Giyaan(u) = knowledge. Bhaakheelay = uttered. Daangiya = guards. Chitar, Goopt(u) = these two are believed to keep written accounts of peoples' deeds. Dhemraayay = the Angel of justice. Purooli Prithaar(u) = causes apocalypse. 2. Gun = assistants of Shiva. Gundherb = musicians of the gods. Rikh(i) = sages. Dhaadhiya = bards. Buhouroopia = in many forms. Ungrooaa = small. MEANING: Serve (worship) the Royal Go, which supports the world, has no clan, and is above the effects of Maya, oh my mind. All the holy saints beg for His worship in donations. Pause.

My God is such that all the directions and the sky form His Royal canopy along with the walls. Like the kings who have their art galleries, the paradise is the art gallery of God. He is uniformly present in all seven worlds (a Muslim belief). (Unlike the worldly queens who lose their youthfulness and beauty in a few years), God has Laxmi (Maya) in His house, who stays young all the time. The moon and the sun are just small lamps in God's house, and the Angel of death, which God has created, and which implements His law of death (for everybody), is just a small puppet in His hands. 1.

The four-headed Brahma, which is believed to have created the world, is like a potter in Waheguru's house, who moulds pottery (of living beings). Shiva, who reminds the reality of death (as he is believed to be the destroyer of the world) to the people like a world guru, is a crazy person in Waheguru's house (because of his strange outfits and actions). Noble deeds and sins are like the guards at God's door, which keep people from committing sins for fear of punishment, and perform noble deeds to be rewarded. Chitar and Goopt(u) are the two accountants who keep the written records of people's deeds, and the Angel of justice causes the apocalypse. Such is the emperor God. 2. The assistants of Shiva, the musicians of the gods, and the sages, are the humble bards in God's house, who sing His praise. All Shastras of various kinds form a small ring in God's house, which describe man's struggle between the good and the bad deeds, and talk beautifully about the King of kings (God). The wind fans the royal whisk over God's head, and Maya, which has enslaved the whole world, is God's slave. The whole world is like a kiln in God's kitchen (where food is cooked) for all living beings. Such is the Lord of the whole universe. 3.

The Lord of the universe is such that He has the "Turtle," an incarnation of Vishnu, in His house, and the thousand-headed serpent (Shesh Naag) as His bed, with his heads serving as the laces. The entire vegetation offers flowers for His worship, and the 960 million cloud-chains serve Him as watercarriers. The River Ganga is like the sweat of His nails (feet), and all the seven seas serve as the stand to stack the water-containing vessels. All living beings are his serving dishes (obey Him like slaves). 4. God's well-known devotees like Arjun, Dhruv, Prehlad, Ambreek, Nard, Nayjaiy, the Sidh yogis, the Buddhas, assistants of Shiva, musicians of the gods, and the fifty-two valiant are only a drama of His. All the living beings are in His house, and He is present in everyone. All His devotees are His identity (He is revealed through them). I, Namdev, have come to His shelter to pray. 5.1.

MEANING: Do not abandon me, do not abandon me, oh my Lord. Pause.
All those Brahmans who are under the misbelief of their superior caste were all enraged at me. Calling me the low-caste untouchable, they beat me up, and kicked me out of the temple. What could I do to protect myself, oh my Father, oh, my Lord? 1.
I prayed to the Lord like this: "If You grant me salvation after my death, nobody will know about it." These Brahman priests call me low-caste; (so grant me emancipation now, otherwise) You will be hurting Your own dignity by delaying emancipation for me. 2.
You are known as kind and compassionate, and You are very powerful and limitless (so why do not You help me)? (My Lord listened to my request, and) rotated the Temple in such a way that it faced me, while its back faced the Brahmans. 3.2.

Word Meaning: Naagur Junaa = beautiful (wise) people. Jaat(i) = caste. Bikhiyaat = declared. Chumaarun(g) = cobbler; leather dealer. Ridaiy = in heart. Saarun(g) = take care; recite. Pause. Soosuri = River Ganga. Sulul = water. Kirt = created Barooni = liquor. Kert Paanun(g) = drink. Soora = alcohol. Upvittar = unholy. Nut = or even. Uver Jul = other (filthy) waters. Aanun(g) = different. 1. Ter = tree. Taar(i) = a tree of which the sap is used to prepare intoxicants. Kaagra = paper. Kert Beechaarun(g) = are thought of. Bhagaut(u) = of God. Poojiyaiy = worship. Numuskaarun(g) = bowing to. Koott Baadhla = beating and cutting (hides). Dhor = (dead) animals. Dhovunta = hauling. Niteh = everyday. Aas Paasa = around. Ub = now. Bipper = Brahmans. Perdhan = leaders; high-caste. Dundaut(u) = lie flat to show respect. Shernaayay = shelter. Daasa = slave. 3.

MEANING: I am a declared low-caste cobbler, oh, the wise men. But I have God in my mind, and sing His praise (recite His Naam). Pause.

The holy saints do not consume liquor even if it is made with the holy water of Ganga, but the unholy liquor and all other filthy waters become pure like the water of Ganga when they drop into it, and become indistinct. (Similarly, the high-caste people are not approved by God if they perform ignoble deeds, and the low-caste individuals merge into Him and become indistinct when they acquire noble qualities by reciting His Naam). 1.

The Taar(i) tree, along with its leaves, is considered unholy (because its sap is used to make intoxicants), but when God's praise is written on its leaves, people worship them and bow before them. 2. I belong to the low caste, whose people beat and cut hides, and haul dead animals around Banaras every day. But now the high-caste Brahmans bow to me, Ravidass, because I have taken Your shelter (surrendered to You), and recite Your Naam like the slave of Your slaves, oh God. 3.1.

Word Meaning: Tayoo Junaa = those are devotees. Pudum = Maya. Kuvlas = Maya. Put(i) = husband; Lord. Taas = Him. Sum = Tool = equal to. Aan Koyoo = anybody else. Anayk = countless. Bisthuriyo = spread out. Aan, Aan = in every heart. Bhurpoor Soyoo = is fully present. Pause. Bhagvut(u) = praise of God. Laykhiyaiy = is being written. Paykhiyaiy = is seen. Taas Kee = His. Aachhoap = untouchable. Chheepa = washerman. Paykhiyaiy = is seen. Naamna = greatness. Suput Deepa = on the seven continents. 1. Eid = a Muslim holy day. Bukreed(i) = the Eid at which cows are sacrificed. Bukur = cow. Kool = clan. Guou = cow. Budh(u) = killing. Maaniyaiy = worshipped. Sheikh = highly educated. Shaheed = matyrs. MEANING: Those are the true devotees who worship God, who is the husband (Lord) of Maya, and who has nobody else who can match Him in any way. It is He, and only He, who has spread out in many different forms and is present in every heart. Pause.

Bhagat Namdev Ji was a low-caste untouchable washerman (who has become world-famous) because it is only God's Naam which was written on his heart, and nothing else. The sages like Bias and Sunuk (a son of Brahma) have also written that it is only the praise of God (His Naam) that is acceptable to Him and that earns one respect and recognition all over the seven continents. 1. Unlike his ancestors, who embraced Islam under pressure, and now celebrate the Muslim holy days of Eid and Bukureed at which cows are killed as sacrifice, and show respect for the highly educated Muslims, its martyrs, and the spiritual guides, Kabir Sahib resisted such pressure to convert to Islam because of his mental strength due to his strong faith in God, and now he is well known in all the three worlds because he attained the high spiritual state by singing God's praise. 2.

Ravidass, a slave of God's slaves, and the son of a low-caste family the folks of which still haul dead animals around Banaras, has become so well known because of his singing God's praise, that now the ritualistic Brahmans bow to him while lying flat on the ground. 3.2.

Word Meaning: Praan Nath = Lord of life; God. Kuvun = of which? Perm Gutay = the highest spiritual state. Pause. Maiylay Kuppray = dirty clothes; filthy thinking and acts. Kuhaan Luou = till when; for how long. Neend = sleep of intoxication of worldly luxuries. Joyee Joyee = whatever. Joriyo = acquired. Soyee = the same. Phaatiyo = tore away. Jhootthaiy Bunuj(i) = the business of perishables. Ootth(i) Guyyee = left; ended. Haatiyo = shop. Laykho = account of deeds. 3.

MEANING: What is the kind of worship with which one can connect with the dear God, who is the Lord of my life? Answer: It is the gathering of holy saints where one can attain the highest spiritual state. Pause.

It was in the gathering of the holy saints where I realized, and questioned myself, how long would it take me to wash away the filth of my ignoble thinking and my ignoble deeds, and for how long could I sleep under the intoxication of the worldly attractions. 1.

(Then I began to sing God's praise) because of which all the accounts of my ignoble deeds that I had committed were torn away (cleared). In fact, the thinking of my dealings in the perishables, which I was engaged in, was completely destroyed (it ended). When I examined the accounts of my deeds in the light of God's Naam, everything that I had done became clear to me, oh Ravidass. 3. 3.
