Word Meaning: Naayay Tayraiy = because of the recitation of Your Naam. Terna = swim across the world-sea. Put(i) = Lord;Waheguru. Pooj = worship. Gehna = ornament; (spiritual) adornment. Muksood(u) = objective. Munnaiy = accord respect. Kubhoon Na = never. 1. Paaj = show off; hypocrisy. Bukhshaiy = endows. Poora Kaaj(u) = objectives achieved. Pause. Taan(u) = power (behind). Deebaan(u) = support. Lushkur = army. Sultan(u) = ruler. Maan(u) = Meht = respect. Pervaan(u) = approved (by Waheguru). 2. Sehj = high spiritual state. Salaah = praise. Bikh(u) = poisonous attractions of Maya. Ootth(i) Jaayay = goes away; is destroyed. Baandhi = chained. Jumpur(i) = the court of the Angel of death. 3. Naari = wife. Bayri = bonds; chains. Dur = door. Days = country; estate. Vays = wear expensive clothes. Suday = calls in. Dhill = delay. Koorr(u) = love for the perishable. Koorro = dirt; worthless. 4.

MEANING: Recitation of Your Naam with love and respect is Your true worship, and Your Naam is the ship to ferry us across the world-sea, oh Waheguru. Your Naam is the adornment for my soul, and is the objective of human life. One earns the respect of everyone with Your Naam; and one never earns any respect anywhere without Your Naam, oh Waheguru. 1.
All the noble objectives of the devotee are achieved whom You bestow Your Naam to. All other wisdoms (to show one's religiosity) are just a show off. Pause.
Waheguru's Naam is my power, and my support; it is also the armies, and the reign of some state for me. Waheguru's Naam is an honour for me, and one gets approved in His Court. One gets identification for Your approval with Your benevolence, oh Lord. 2.
One sings Waheguru's praise with His Naam and attains the high spiritual state. Waheguru's Naam is the real Amrit, which destroys the poisonous effects of Maya. One acquires all comforts with Waheguru's Naam, but those who are without His Naam are chained and taken to the court of the Angel of death. 3.

One's wife, his household, his door (where people get help), his estate, and his expensive clothes, because of which he enjoys all the luxuries, are all chains and shackles for him. But he cannot delay his death when the call comes from Waheguru, and all the perishable things he has enjoyed become worthless to him, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Perbhati Mehla 1: Tayra Naam(u) ruttan, kerm(u) chaanun(u), soort(i) tithaiy loyay. Undhayr(u), undhi vaapraiy, sugul leejaiy khoyay. 1. Eh(u) sunsaar(u) sugul bikaar(u). Word Meaning: Ruttan = noble qualities. Kerm(u) = benevolence. Soort(i) = wisdom; focus of mind. Tithaiy = there. Loyay = enlightenment. Undhi = blindness (ignorance). Vaapraiy = happens; affects. Sugul = all (noble qualities). Khoyay = robbed. 1. Bikaar(u) = immorality. Daaroo = medication. Naasut(i) = is not. Kernhaar(u) = the Creator. Apaar(u) = endless. Pause. Pataal = underworlds. Pooriyaan = cities; worlds. Crorr(i) = ten million. Ta = only then. Siraiy = in the other pan of the weighing scale. Hoar(i) = other (Waheguru's Naam; noble qualities). 2. Oojeh(i) = come into being. Bhookh = appetite (for worldly luxuries). 3. Bhulaa = wise. 4.

MEANING: With Waheguru's benevolence, the mind, which has His jewel-like (which glows) Naam in it, and the wisdom to grasp its essence, is the enlightened one. Otherwise, the whole world is in the darkness of its ignorance, and all their noble qualities are taken away (people lose them to their unholy thinking and deeds). 1.
This world is full of the evil of sensual pleasures. There is no other cure than the Naam of the limitless Creator (God) for this grave disease of haumein (selfishness and ego). Pause.
No worldly wealth, even if it were a million times the wealth of all the underworlds and the worlds, can match the worth of Waheguru if weighed against Waheguru's Naam (it cannot be bought for any amount of worldly wealth). It can be acquired only by singing Waheguru's praise and acquiring noble qualities. 2.
One acquires mental comfort by the hard labour (of reciting Waheguru's Naam and by acquiring noble qualities); likewise, one suffers spiritually if he enjoys worldly luxuries. What kind of appetite (for worldly comforts) will one have who has Waheguru's praise (Naam) in his mouth (on his tongue)? (He will have no appetite) 3.
It is only I who is foolish, the rest of the world is noble, oh Nanak. The human body, which does not have Waheguru's Naam sprouting in it, suffers humiliation (in Waheguru's Court), oh Nanak. 4.2.

Perbhati Mehla 1: Jaiy kaarun(i) Bayd Brahmaiy oochray, Shankar(i) chhoadi Maya. Jaiy kaarun(i) Sidh bhuyyay oodaasi, Dayveen merm(u) na paaya. 1. Aitay Goon, aitiyaan chugiyaayiaan, dayay, na puchhotaavaiy. 3. Toodh(u) salaahun(i), tinh Dhun(u) pullaiy, Nanak ka Dhun(u) soyee. Jay ko jeeou kuhhaiy Ohna kuou, Jum kee tulb na hoyee. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Jaiy Kaarun(i) = for the reason. Oochray = spoke. Shankar(i) = Shiva. Oodaasi = detached. Dayveen = goddesses. Merm(u) = secrets. 1. Baba = oh wiseman. Teriyaiy = swim across the world sea. Saacha = pure; like Waheguru. Dooshmun = enemy; the five demons. Koyee = some rare. Pause. Ugun(i) = fire; energy. Bimb = water. Puvnaiy = of air. Bani = creation. Teen(i) = the three effects (qualities) of Maya. Daasa = slaves. Tuskur = thief; sinner. Koat = fort; cave. Punchaasa = of lion. 2. Chungiyaayi = noble performance. Chit(i) = in mind. Bufaavaiy = flaunts; shows off conceit. Aitay = so many. Na Puchhotaavaiy = repents; regrets. 3. Dhun(u) = (true) wealth. Pullaiy = in possession. Jeeou = man. Kuhhaiy = recite; think about. Ohna Kuou = those noble qualities (Waheguru's Naam). Tulb = calling in; questioning. 4.

MEANING: The reason (to know the secrets of God) for which Brahma uttered the Vedas, Shiva renounced the worldly attractions, the Sidh yogis became detached from the world, and the goddesses (who are worshipped), did not result in success for any of them, as none of them ever came to know the secrets of Waheguru. 1.

Only that individual is like Waheguru (knows His secrets) who has Waheguru in his mind, and recites His Naam with his tongue; he also swims across the sea of Maya, oh wise man. But there is a rare individual who acquires the wisdom (thinking) to enshrine Waheguru in his mind; no evil demon or thought even goes near him. Pause.

The human body, which is made up of the five basic elements like energy, water, and air, is prevailed upon by the three effects of Maya (and suffers spiritually); but Maya is a slave of Waheguru's Naam (so one can overcome the effects of Maya with the Naam). The individual, who does not recite Waheguru's Naam, is a sinner and lives in the cave of the lionlike five demons (lust, greed, etc.), where he is easily attacked by them. 2.

If one does just one good thing, he flaunts it to the extreme; Waheguru has countless noble qualities and countless favours He does to the living beings, yet He never stops His favours, and never regrets (even though we are rarely thankful to Him). 3.

Those who are truly wealthy sing Waheguru's praise; that is my wealth too, oh Nanak. If a devotee praises Waheguru and is thankful to Him, the Angel of death never questions him. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Roop(u) = beauty. Jaat(i) = high caste; status in society. Mookh(u) Maasa = good physique. Nirunjun(u) = unaffected by Maya (Waheguru). Nivaasa = dwelling. 1. Aoudhoo = renouncer of worldly attractions. Sehjay = in high spiritual state. Tut(u) = the essence (root) of the universe (God). Ja Tay = because of which. Pause. Kerm(u) = rituals. Dhem(u) = religiosity. Sooch(i) Maala = rosary to show off one's piety. Shiv Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light. Kunnhou = from. Boodh(i) = wisdom; enlightenment. Rukhvaala = guard. 2. Chint = worry. Foormaayi = Words; Advice. 3. Aas = worldly hopes. Niraas = disappointments to renounce the world. Soort(i) = wisdom = Sumjhaayi. Tunt = human soul. Perm Tunt(u) = Waheguru's Soul. Boodh(i) = wisdom.

MEANING: If an individual, who has no physical beauty, no high caste, and no good physique, acquires Waheguru's Naam in his mind in the shelter of the Guru, (it becomes his beauty, high caste, and his strength); and he stays connected with Him. 1.

Ponder over the root of the whole universe, Waheguru, to attain a high spiritual state as a result of which, you will not have to take rebirths, oh, the renouncer of the worldly attractions. Pause. The individual, who does not have (is not allowed) any ritual to perform, has no claim on any religion, and does not have (is not allowed to wear) any rosary to show his religiosity, gets enlightened with Waheguru's Light in the shelter of the Guru (he does not need any of those). 2. The individual who has no self-imposed restrictions, no religious principles to observe, or no meaningless discussions to participate in becomes free of all worries and of a high or low state of societal respect with Satguru's Advice. 3.

The individual, who has no undeserved hopes or disappointments to renounce the world, but has Waheguru always in his mind, acquires the high spiritual wisdom (thinking) whereby his soul merges with the Supreme Soul, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Kuthni, budni, Nanak jul(i) jaayay. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Ta Ka = His Dur(i) Pervaan(u) = approved in Waheguru's Court. Bikh(u) = poison (discomforts). Amrit(u) = good things (comforts). Sum = equal. 1.

Serbay = everywhere. Rujaayay = Will. Pause. Pergut = appears. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light. Chooka = ends. 2. Jaan(u) = think as. 3. Kehna = recite; narrate. Akuth = the indescribable Waheguru. Kuthni Budni = hollow words of mouth.
MEANING: Whatever is happening in the world happens by Waheguru's Will. So, what can a man say contrary to the Will of the omnipresent Waheguru (he has no power to contradict His Will)? Pause. However, the words of the devotee, who treats (accepts) comforts and discomforts the same way, are approved in Waheguru's Court. 1.
Satguru implants Waheguru's Naam in the heart of such a devotee as a result of which, His Light appears in his heart (his mind is enlightened), and his ego is eradicated. 2.
Only the individual who is honoured in Waheguru's Court is considered to be the true devotee, and only his coming to the world is welcome (successful). 3. The individual, who sings and listens to the praise of the indescribable Waheguru, reaches His home (gets connected with Him), while those who just say His Naam for selfish reasons with no love and respect for Him, burn in the fire of jealousy and worldly desires, oh Nanak. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Neer(u) = water. Giyan = Divine Knowledge (Waheguru's Naam). Munun = bathing. Utth-sutth(i) Teeruth = the 68 holy places of Hindus. Sung(i) Guhhay = accompany; are subsumed. Jawaahur, Maanuk = jewels and pearls (noble qualities). Savay = serves. Khoaj(i) Luhhaiy = acquires by searching. 1. Smaan(i) = equal to. Sur(u) = pool. Suntokh = contentment. Taas(u) = that. Pause. Duriyaaou = river. Doormut(i) = evil wisdom (thinking). Huraiy = is removed. Poora Naavun(u) = perfect bath. Pushoo = animals. Praytoun = from the ghostlike mind. Dayv = gods. 2. Rutta = imbued. Tul Heaul = from bottom to top. Permul(u) = source of fragrance (of noble qualities). Vaas(u) = fragrance. Bunaasput(i) = vegetation. Sauraiy = is adorned. 3. Jea Praan = new spiritual life. Oopjeh(i) = comes into being. Shiv = Waheguru. Nij Pud(u) = the state of oneness (with Waheguru). 4.
MEANING: There is no holy place (on earth) like the Guru, which is the pool of contentment (rather than water as the holy places do). Pause. Guru's Advice (His Shabad) is the pool of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit as its water in which the human mind takes a dip to cleanse it. All the 68 holy places are subsumed in this holy pool of Guru's Shabad, which is full of jewels-and-pearls-like noble qualities; a Sikh, who searches for them with Guru's Advice, acquires them. 1.

The Guru is such a river whose water (Waheguru's Naam) is always pure. All one's filth of evil thinking is washed away on meeting with the Guru (by seeking His advice). Connecting with the Guru (coming to His shelter) is the complete bath for the devotee, transforming the animal-like and ghost-like into godlike individuals. 2.
The Guru, which is imbued with the eternal Naam of Waheguru from toe to top, is the flower-like source which gives its fragrance to everybody. One should focus their mind on the Feet (Shabad) of the Guru who, like the flowers which adorn the rest of the vegetation with their fragrance, disseminates the fragrance of Waheguru's Naam to adorn the lives of people with noble qualities. 3. Guru's Sikh acquires a new spiritual life and goes to the Home of Waheguru (merges into Him). Guru's Sikh attains the spiritual state of oneness with Waheguru, and gets absorbed into Him, oh Nanak. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Vidiya = knowledge. Aapa = self. Mudhay = inside. Pergaasiya = enlightened. 1. Jujmaan(u) = donor; provider. Dukhnaa = donation. Pause. Punch Tuskur = the five thieves (demons). Dhaavut = rushing (attacking) uncontrolled. Chooka = ends. Abhimaan(u) = ego. Disht(i) Bikaari = the Sight seeking vices. Doormut(i) = evil thinking. 2. Jut = control on senses. Sut = high morality. Chaavul = rice. Duyya = mercy. Kunuk = wheat. Praaput(i) Paati = eligibility to connect with God. Dhaan(u) = wealth. Kerm(u) = (noble) deeds. Suntokh = contentment. 3. Khima = forgiveness. Dheeruj = patience. Guoou Luvayri = milking cow. Sehjay = with a peaceful mind. Buchhraa = calf (like mind). Kheer(u) = milk. Sift(i) = praise. Sherm = hard labour; initiative. Ruvut Ruhhay = keep reciting. 4.

MEANING: A devotee, who ponders on the Divine Knowledge implanted in his mind in the form of the Amrit-like Waheguru's Naam by the grace of the Guru, earns respect everywhere, as his mind is enlightened within. 1.
You are my provider (donor), and I beg You for Your Naam in donation. Pause.
Waheguru's Divine Knowledge is such that the devotee is able to control his five demons (lust, greed, etc.), which attack him from every direction; in addition, his ego is also eradicated. Besides, his vision, which seeks immoral sensual pleasures, and his evil thinking also run away with the Naam. 2. (The Brahman receives donations from his farmer donors in the form of grains, milk, ghee, clothes and occasionally a milk cow as well), But I beg of Waheguru as my provider (donor), to grant me the ability to control my senses, high morality, mercy for others, and the eligibility to connect with Him, which will serve as the rice and the wheat for me. I also beg for the ability to perform noble deeds and for contentment.

They will be the milk and the ghee for me. 3. I also beg for forgiveness for others, and for patience, which will serve as the milk cow for me, of which my calf-like mind will drink the milk of (forgiveness and patience) in the high spiritual state. I beg for the clothes of Waheguru's praise and of hard work (long hours) to recite His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.7.

Jis tay hoa, Soyee kur(i) maaniya, Nanak, girhi, oodaasi, so pervaan(u). 4.8.

Word Meaning: Aavut = taking birth. Raakhiya = stopped. Soyee = the same (Waheguru). Jis Tay = from whom (Waheguru). 1. Smaayay = goes back. Vaah(u) = admirable; splendour. Rujaayay = Will. Pur(u) = but; for sure. Pause. Herhut = water well with mechanism to draw water for irrigation. Maala = chain. Tind = a small container to draw water. Sukhnee = empty. Bhert Haiy = is filled. Taiysay Hee = just like that. Khayl(u) = drama. Vudiyaayi = greatness; Will. 2. Soorti = (focus of) mind with spiritual wisdom. Soorti Kaiy Maarug = the path of focusing one's mind on Waheguru. Oolti = reversed; inverted (from attractions of Maya). Pergaasi = enlightened. Girhi = family man. Oodaasi = detached from Maya. 3. Aasa = hopes on (worldly attachments)/ Saunp(i) Kaiy = offer back. Nirbaan = no desires of worldly enjoyments. Pervaan(u) = approved.

MEANING: It is amazing! It is splendid that it is only You, and Your Will, which are prevailing everywhere, oh Waheguru! Only what happens is what you do, and nobody else can do anything about that. Pause. When no one can stop the birth of a man, how can anyone stop him from dying? Only Waheguru, who creates the man, knows about his birth and the time when he is absorbed in Him (his death). 1.

Like the water-drawing (artesian) well, in which a water-container on the continuously revolving chain empties, and another is filled, it is the splendour of Waheguru that He has created the drama of the world, similar to such a well (where one living being dies, and another is born). 2. When a man follows the path of union with Waheguru, his vision (thinking) is reversed (from attractions of Maya to love for Waheguru), and his mind is enlightened. Think, who is a true family man, and who is the renouncer of the world, oh, the self-proclaimed renouncer and the claimer of having Divine Knowledge. 3.

The true renouncer is the man who surrenders all his hopes of Maya, which he had, back to Maya (i.e. he no longer is attracted to Maya). Be it a family man or a renouncer of the world, only that individual is approved in Waheguru's Court who has full faith in Waheguru, who created him, oh Nanak. 4.8.

Word Meaning: Disht(i) Bikaari = vision (eyes) seeking sensual pleasures. Bundhun Baandhaiy = ties in chains (controls). Huoun = I. Poonn(i) = accepted noble deeds. Saar = worth; concept. Ajaayeen = worthlessly. 1. Phoonn(i) = Buhourr(i) = again. Vaar = turn. Pause. Oochaan = from high (noble) class. Neech(u) = low-caste. Sultan = a ruler. Jaan(u) = the know-all (omniscient) (Waheguru). Soojaaniya = made strong connection. Jug(i) = in the world. Pervaan = approved. 2. Boojhaiy = realizes. Koyee = some rare. 3. Perbhaataiy = before sunrise. Doonee = of the world. Pruvut(i) = prays humbly. Tinh(i) = those (devotees). 4.

MEANING: I am a sacrifice (all praise) for the devotee, who controls his vision (mind), which looks for the enjoyment of sensual pleasures. On the other hand, the individual who has no clear concept of sin and noble deeds is misled and wastes his life in vain. 1.

One should say (recite) the Naam of the eternal Waheguru as a result of which, he will not come back to this world (will not be reborn). Pause.

Waheguru can elevate an individual from a high status in society to a low-caste person, and can elevate a low-caste person to a rajah. But only those are approved honourably in Waheguru's Court who make a strong bond with Him in the world. 2.

One can guide a person only if he is misled; but who can advise the infallible Creator (Waheguru), who Himself creates the drama of the whole world. However, some rare individual realizes this fact. 3.

Getting rid of the love for worldly attractions, we should recite Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad before sunrise (if possible, at all, because it is the best time to focus one's mind). I am a slave of Waheguru's devotees, and wish to humbly submit that such devotees conquer the worldly attractions, while the rest of the world loses to them, oh Nanak. 4.9.

Sa jaat(i), sa put(i) haiy, jayhay kerm kmaayay. Junum, mern dookh(u) kaatiyaiy, Nanak chhootus(i) Naayayn. 4.10.

Word Meaning: Dhaaya = rushes. Punkhi = bird. Akaash(i) = in the sky. Tuskur = thief (flights of mind under the influence of the five demons). Nivaariya = got rid of. Nugur(u) = human body. Voottha = populated (with noble qualities). Shabaash(i) = accolades; kudos. Saabut(u) = preserved. Raas(i) = wealth (of noble qualities). 1. Nidh(i) = treasure. Pug(i) = feet. Pause. Bhogiya = enjoys luxuries. Gavaar(u) = unrefined. Mungtaa = beggar. Sir(i) = above. Punch = the five demons. Maar(i) = by destroying. Braham(u) = God. Vukhaaniyaiy = is said. Khoto = impure; dishonest. Poottho = upside down (in mother's womb). Raaliyaiy = is humiliated. Put(i) = dignity. Rujaayay = Will. 3. Junum = birth; ancestry. Butaayay = ask for; acquire. Sa = that. Kerm Kmaayay = the kind of deeds performed. Chhootus(i) = is emancipated. 4.

MEANING: Human mind is always engrossed in Maya, and rushes (takes high flights) in every direction like a bird in the sky. Accolades to Guru's Shabad with which the rushing mind, which is overpowered by the five demons, is controlled, and the human body (including the mind) is populated with noble qualities. The devotee, whom Waheguru wants to protect (from the attacks of Maya), gets protected, and the wealth of his noble qualities is preserved. 1. I pray to Waheguru by dropping at His Feet (with full humbleness and sincerity) that He imparts Guru's Advice in my mind so that His jewel-like Naam becomes my treasure. Pause. The human mind is very fickle; sometimes it is like a yogi (detached from worldly attractions), while at other times, it enjoys all worldly luxuries. The mind is foolish and unrefined. Sometimes the mind becomes a big donor, while at other times, it begs for worldly comforts; it can be controlled only by Waheguru and the Guru. One acquires blissfulness by killing (controlling) the five demons by pondering over the Divine Knowledge (Guru's Shabad or Waheguru's Naam). (So, one must recite it). 2.

Even though Waheguru is known to be present in every heart, He cannot be described or seen. One thing is for sure: without Waheguru's Naam, one is always impure in the mind; he loses all his dignity and is humiliated when he is taken through countless cycles of rebirths. But I can make a strong bond with Waheguru when He connects me with Him at His Will. 3.

Nobody asks for his caste or his ancestry when one seeks for (acquires) Waheguru's Naam in the heart. One's caste and his dignity are determined by the kind of deeds he performs (and not by his birth). One attains emancipation only with Waheguru's Naam when all his suffering of rebirths is eradicated, oh Nanak. 4.10.

Word Meaning: Jaagut(u) = aware; smart. Bigsaiy = feels happy. Moottho = is robbed. Undha = blind; unaware. Phaahi = chains (of worldly worries). Dhundha = worldly affairs. Aaavaiy = comes; is born. Munsa = mental thoughts; hopes. Jaayay = leaves; dies. Oojhi Taani = badly tangled warp of loom. Busaayay = control. Jeevun = the life of the world (God). Jaagunhaara = always awake (Waheguru). Pause. Bhoandi Kaar = bad (immoral) business. Kermi = with His benevolence. Vudaayi = respect. 2. Din(u), Din(u) = with every day. Til(u), Til(u) = in small amounts. Cheejaiy = weakens; lessens. Ghutaayi = in the heart. Boodo = drowns (in the world sea). Tthaur = sheler. Jub Lug = as long as. Dooji = (love for) the other (Maya). Raayi = even a small amount. 3. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Poorb(i) Kmaayi = deeds performed in previous lives. Kermheen (u) = unfortunate. Sach = Waheguru (His Naam). Bheekhiya = alms. 4.

MEANING: Making efforts to accumulate wealth to enjoy worldly comforts, the man thinks that he is very smart, and is very happy, but blinded by this desire (to acquire worldly comforts), he is being robbed of his spiritual wealth. The Maya-related worldly affairs become shackles around his neck, and they hit him hard on the head (his spiritual wisdom). The man is born with many hopes, but because of the tangled warp of the loom of his life (his confusion about what is good and what is bad for him), he leaves the world, disappointed (because of his many unfulfilled hopes), as he has no control over his death. 1.

Waheguru, which is the soul of the world, and which is the ocean (source) of all comforts, and a treasure of Amrit (immortalizing liquid, i.e., Waheguru's Naam), is always awake (and knows everything about us). Pause. The man does not understand Guru's Advice, and pursues (spiritually) worthless deeds. (But he cannot be entirely blamed because) Waheguru Himself instills His love in the human mind, and one earns respect because of His benevolence only. 2. Man's span of life slips away slowly with every day, but his love for Maya stays in his mind. As long as one has love for Maya, he drowns in its sea, and has no shelter without the Guru. 3. Waheguru looks after His living beings day and night, but their comforts and sufferings are the result of their previous deeds. But even an unfortunate person who begs Waheguru for His Naam is honoured in His Court, oh Nanak. 4.11.

Word Meaning: Musht(i) = quiet. Adhik = more. Liv = focus on. Bhool Chook = errors (mistakes) and omissions. Aachaar = character; life style. 1. Aiysay = such. Jhootth = fakeness; hypocrisy. Mootthaiy = is robbed. Ninduk(u) = vilifier. Pause. Bidh(i) = ways; means. Neeshaanaiy = identification. Kaarun = the root (creator) of the world; Waheguru. Untargut(i) = inside the soul. Nudr(i) = kind Sight. 2. Maiylau = (mind) filthy (with immoral thoughts). Oojul = clean; pure. Ootum = superior. Oocha = great. Khoohl(i) = openly. Raachaiy = engages in; is imbued in. 3. Undhau = blind. Bolau = deaf. Moogudh = foolish. Heanau = lacking (noble qualities). Neech(u) = ignoble. Boorau Booriyaar(u) = worse among the bad. Nidhun = poor. Dhun(u) = wealth. Saar(u) = supreme. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya. Chhaar(u) = dust; rubbish. 4. Oostut(i) = praise. Ninda = vilification. Jaiykaar = hailing; acclamation. Kuhaavaiy = makes others say (recite). 5.
MEANING: If I stay quiet, the world calls (considers) me a fool, and if I talk too much, then I lose the focus of my mind on You, oh Waheguru. But You have the account of all my mistakes and my omissions. At the same time, what kind of lifestyle is that which is without Your Naam? (I do not like it), oh Waheguru? 1. The world is being robbed (of its spirituality) because of its hypocrisy. But I love even my vilifiers (because they provide me with an opportunity to improve myself). Pause.
The devotee, who is vilified (does not care because he) knows that Guru's Shabad is his identification for approval in Waheguru's Court. With the Naam of Waheguru, which is the creator of the universe, he analyses himself (for his good or bad deeds). But only that individual realizes this (gets the enlightenment) on whom Waheguru casts His kind Sight. 2.
I have a filthy mind (thinking); only Waheguru is clean (pure). One cannot be high (in morality) by simply calling oneself superior. A Maya-engrossed person openly (shamelessly) enjoys sensual pleasures, but a Guru's Sikh engages (is imbued) in Waheguru's Naam. 3.
A Maya-engrossed person is foolish and unwise as he is blind and deaf (towards Waheguru's Naam). He lacks noble qualities and is worse among the bad. Love for Waheguru's Naam is the wealth of the poor. Waheguru's Naam is the supreme wealth, whereas all other forms of wealth are just poison, and are like rubbish. 4.
But we cannot blame any individual because it is Waheguru who enables one to sing His praise or bad-mouth Him. It is Waheguru, which enables one to ponder on Guru's Shabad, and we should always hail Him (sing His praise). The caste of the individual becomes high, and he earns respect who Waheguru endows with noble qualities to sing His praise. One sings His praise only if He makes him do so, oh Nanak. 5.12.

Tay nur virlay jaaniyeh(i) jinh untar(i) Giyan(u) Mooraar(i). 4. Ajur(u) juraiy, neejhur(u) jhuraiy, Amar, Anund-sroop. Nanak(u) jul kau, meen(u) saiy, bhaavaiy raakhou preet(i). 5.13.

Word Meaning: Maiyl(u) = filth of vices. Paiyndhaiy = wearing of rich clothes. Haan(i) = loss; disgrace. Buk(i) = meaningless talking. Baad(u) = useless debates. Bikh(u) = poison. Jaan(u) = realize. 1. Bikhum Jaal(u) = strong net (trap). Mun Vaasiya = mind is trapped. Bibul(u) = flood waters which have foam on them (obstacles of Maya). Jhaag(i) = enduring; fighting. Sehj(i) = in the high spiritual state. Pergaasiya = enlightened. Pause. Kaar Kmaayay = labours for; performs deeds. Jumdur(i) = the door of the Angel of death. Baandha = chained; imprisoned. Chhootus(I) = is emancipated. 2. Jiv = the way. Keeya = deeds performed. Mool(u) = the original capital (of spirituality). 3. Khotau = impure; dishonest. Nirmulau = pure. Tay Nur = those men. Virlay = rare. Mooraar(i) = of Waheguru. 4. Ajur = irresistible attractions of Maya. Juraiy = can resist (control). Neejhur Jhuraiy = (the spring of Naam-Amrit) trickles down. Anund-Saroop = in the blissful state. Meen(u) = fish. Saiy = like. Bhaavaiy = as You like. 5.

MEANING: Overeating by man simply adds to his mental filth, and wearing expensive clothes adds to the loss of his spirituality. Without Waheguru's Naam, talking too much just for the sake of discussion is poison for one's spirituality. 1. The human mind is badly trapped in a very strong net of vices (overeating, wearing expensive clothes, and showing off one's knowledge, etc.). One's mind can be enlightened to attain the high spiritual state if one fights against the flood of such vices (sensual enjoyments), oh, wise man. Pause.

The acts of overeating, meaningless talking, and wearing fancy clothes, which one performs in life, become poison for their spirituality. Imprisoned at the door of the Angel of death, such people are punished; one can attain emancipation (from the bonds of Maya) only with Waheguru's Naam. 2. The man leaves the world the same way as he came (empty-handed), but takes the written account of his deeds with him. The follower of his mind loses his original wealth of spirituality and receives punishment in Waheguru's Court. 3.

The world is dishonest, but the truth (Waheguru) is pure; one's mind is purified when one ponders on the Guru's Shabad. There are very few individuals whose minds have been enlightened by Waheguru. 4.

The spring of Naam-Amrit of the eternal Waheguru, which is the source of all bliss, begins to trickle down in the mind of the devotee who can resist the irresistible attractions of Maya. Like fish, which loves more and more water, Your slave, Nanak, longs for Your love. Kindly keep Your love sustained in my mind, if You please. 5.13.

Word Meaning: Naad = music. Herkh = joys. Chuturaayi = cunning; craftiness. Rehus = zestfulness. Rung = worldly enjoyments. Foormaayish(i) = commands. Kaayi = any such thing. Cheet(i) = in mind. 1. Sookhaayi = provides comfort. Pause.
Binod = entertainments; amazing feats. Suvaad = tastes. Aanunda = blissfulness; delight. Sut Bhaayay = with love and respect. Keerut(i) = praise of God. Kerm Kaar = routine performance. Nij Sunda = of mine. Ruvto = is present. Raaj = enlightenment. Ruvunda = is providing. 2. Priyo = of the Dear. Oordhaari = enshrined in heart. Deena Nath = the Lord of the poor. Bunvaari = a name for God. Bertkaari = obeying the principle. Triput = contented. Trung = impulses (about Maya). Tutt(u) = the root of the universe (God). 3. Akuthau = indescribable. Kuthoun = describe. Joar(u) = power; ability. Moar = mine. Mein More = I, mine (selfishness). 4. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Deettha = saw; realized. Poor Pud = the highest spiritual state. Dhuraapiyo = contented.

MEANING: The devotee, who enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his mind, acquires the eternal bliss of a high spiritual state, and does not like any of the songs, music, zestfulness of worldly enjoyments, craftiness, reign of some state, or even eating (of delicious foods), and wearing of (expensive) clothes. 1. I do not know what Waheguru does or makes others do, but nothing gives my body any comfort other than the Naam. Pause.
With the feeling of His presence in my mind, Waheguru is enlightening my mind, and singing His praise with love and reverence has become my daily routine, and I am enjoying the perceived tastes of the amazing feats (supernatural powers) of the yogis, and blissfulness. 2. Dear Waheguru is the Lord of the humble, and I have enshrined love for Waheguru in my heart. Recitation of His Naam, and sharing it with others (motivating them) has become my daily principle (routine). All my impulses (fast wavering mind) are fully satisfied to ponder on Waheguru, which is the root of the whole universe. 3.
What power (ability) do I have to describe the virtues (sing praise) of the indescribable Waheguru? I can worship Him only if He makes me do so. When Waheguru takes up dwelling in someone's heart, all his selfishness disappears. Because there is none other like Him, who else should I worship? 4. Guru's Shabad is full of great sweetness with which I have realized the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam in my mind. Whoever secures (preserves) Guru's Shabad in his heart, attains the highest spiritual state. My mind has been fully contented, and I am enjoying bliss (with Guru's Shabad), oh Nanak. 5.14.

Word Meaning: Untar(i) = inside. Mun(u) Maaniya = mind was convinced. Raangunhaara = dyer (of mind with His love). Jeeyaan = living beings. Smaalay = looks after. Serkaara = rule; control. 1. Raang(i) = affectionate. Ghunau = deep; immensely. Roorrau = beautiful. Munmohun(u) = mind-captivating. Ut(i) = extreme. Rus = source of sweetness. Laal Sugoorrau = of deep red colour (of never fading love). Pause. Oopur Gugun = high in the brain-sky (the tenth door). Koop = well (of Naam-Amrit). Punihaari = who draws water (Naam-Amrit) from the well; devotee. Ruchna = cration. Bidh(i) = means; ways. Gurmukh(i) = Guru's Sikh. Veechaara = ponders on. 2. Kaal(u) = (fear of) death. Bidhoons(i) = by destroying. 3. Chuloolay = in the deep colour. Raati = imbued. Rusaayay = filled with the sweetness.

MEANING: When I saw (realized) Waheguru in my mind with Guru's Shabad, I was convinced that there is no one like Waheguru which can dye one's mind with such love for Him. He loves His living beings so much that He looks after them day and night, and it is His Command that prevails everywhere. 1. My Waheguru is highly affectionate, and is very beautiful. He is very kind to the weak (humble) which captivates the mind of everybody. He dyes the minds of His devotees with deep red colour of His love (which never fades). Pause. There is the well (pool) of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit in one's mind-sky (tenth door), which a devotee can access to drink. Only the Creator knows how a person can drink the Naam-Amrit, but a devotee simply ponders on the Divine Knowledge in Guru's shelter (with His Shabad). 2. Like a lotus flower, which blooms with joy with the spread of the light rays, a devotee's mind blooms when his peaceful mind is enlightened with the sun of Guru's Shabad. His fear of death is eradicated, and all his worldly desires are killed as he realizes Waheguru (gets connected with Him) with the grace of the Guru. 3.
No other colour can dye the mind of the devotees whose minds are dyed with the deep colour of Waheguru's love. The devotees, whose tongues are imbued with the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, see Him everywhere, oh Nanak. 4.15.

Nanak, Satgur milaiy milaaya, dookh puraachhut kaal nussay. 4.16.

Word Meaning: Baarh = (the) twelve (sects of yogis). Raavul = a sect of yogis which has both, the Hindus, and the Muslim as its members. Khup(i) Jaaveh(i) = meet frustration. Chuoun Chhay = four and six = ten (sects of sanyasis). Kaapuurriya = those who wear a robe of rags to cover from top to toe. Sirkhoothay = (the Jains) who pull out their hair. Phaasi = noose of (spiritual death). 1. Baiyraagi = full renouncers. Aouhutth(i) = in the heart. Hust = resting in. Bheekhiya = alms; donation. Jaachi = beg. Bhaay = with love for. Liv Laagi = mind focused on (connected with). Pause. Vaad(u) = debates; arguments. Kur(i) Kirya = from rituals. Kerni = performance; daily routine. Soojhaiy = cannot think of. 2. Soochachaari = of high morality. Maanay = recognized; honoured. Smaanay = are absorbed. 3. Kerm Dherm = religious deeds. Sooch(i) = outward purity. Sunjum = efforts to control senses. Milaaya = connected with the grace of Waheguru. Puraachhut = sins. Kaal = (fear of) death. 4.

MEANING: The twelve sects of the Yogis, and the ten sects of the Sanyasis get frustrated in their respective beliefs (practices) (because they cannot realize God). Without Guru's Shabad, the yogis, the members of the faith who cover their bodies from top to toe with the robes of rags, and the Jains, all get the noose of spiritual death around their necks. 1.

The true renouncers are the devotees who are imbued with the love of Divine Knowledge as contained in the Guru's Shabad. Unlike the yogis, who go begging door to door, the devotees of Waheguru beg for the alms only of His Naam in their own hearts with their minds focused on the Guru's Shabad. Pause.

The Brahmans read the religious books as a ritual to take part in worthless discussions, and performing rituals is their daily routine. They are the followers of their own mind (and are engrossed in Maya). They cannot think of spirituality without realizing (Divine Knowledge), and disconnected from Waheguru, they suffer in life. 2.

(Contrary to the outside purity which the Brahmas try to maintain), Those who get connected with Waheguru with Guru's Shabad are truly pure (have high morals) and are honoured in Waheguru's Court. No matter what the eon is, those who stay connected with Waheguru (focus their mind on His jewel-like Naam), finally merge with Him. 3.

All the religious rituals, external purity, efforts to control the senses, recitation of mantras, self-torturing, and pilgrimage are subsumed in the Guru's Shabad. However, one connects with the Guru only with the grace of Waheguru, when all his discomforts, his sins, and his fear of death run away, oh Nanak. 4.16.

Word Meaning: Rayn(u) = dust of the feet (to serve with love). Tur(u) Taari = swim across (the world-sea). Kuhha = what? Bupura = poor; helpless. Derpaiy = is afraid. Mooraari = Waheguru. 1. Jul(i) Jaaou = suffers badly. Jup(i) Jaap(u) = always recite (Naam). Jupmaali = rosary. Saad(u) = taste; blissfulness. Pause. Saach(u) = eternal. Oopma = praise; greatness. Pudaaruth = (invaluable) things. Khojut = by searching. Luhhiyaiy = acquire. 2. Cheenay = recognizes. Liv (Taarri) Laavaiy = focuses mind; connects with. Niralumbh = without any support. Nirhaar(u) = without food. Nihkayvul (u) = above all worldly attractions. 3. Saayir = seas (pools). Supt = seven (five senses, mind, and wisdom). Oolti = in the opposite direction (to Maya). Naav = boat. Turaavaiy = ferries across (the world sea). Tthaak Ruhaavaiy = controls. 4. Girhi = family man. Oodaasi = detached. Aap(i) = self (realization). Maaniya = convinced. 5.

MEANING: Serve the holy saints with full love and respect, and sing Waheguru's praise in their company; this is how you will be ferried across the world-sea, oh my friends. The helpless Angel of death is afraid of those who, with the grace of the Guru, have Waheguru's Naam in their heart. 1. Without Waheguru's Naam, human life is like a burning kiln (of suffering). I have made Waheguru's Naam my rosary, and recite His Naam all the time, and enjoy the sweetness of the Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Pause.

How can one praise the greatness of the devotee who enjoys the eternal bliss (of Waheguru's Naam) with the Advice of the Guru? One acquires the jewel and pearls like an invaluable thing (God-like qualities) by searching for that in the shelter of the Guru. 2.

When one focuses his mind on the Guru's Shabad in praise of Waheguru, and ponders on the fearless Waheguru, which needs no support, no food, and is above all the worldly desires, he recognizes (gets connected with) Waheguru, and acquires the eternal wealth of His Divine Knowledge. 3. All his seven pools (five senses, mind, and wisdom) are filled with the pure and holy water of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, and he peddles his boat of life in the direction opposite to the attractions of Maya. He controls his mind, which takes flights in every direction, and gets absorbed in the high spiritual state in the shelter of the Guru. 4.

The devotee, who recognizes himself (knows his good and bad qualities, and that union with Waheguru is the objective of his life) in the shelter of the Guru, is the true family man who is fully detached from the worldly attractions. With the eternal Shabad of the Guru, my mind has been convinced that there is no other power in the world than Waheguru, oh Nanak. 5.17.

Sheengaar = adornment; beauty. Akhoott = inexhaustible. Bhundaar = treasures. Kuday Na = never. Toat(i) = shortage. 3.

MEANING: With Guru's Shabad and in His shelter, a rare devotee realizes that Waheguru is present everywhere. Those who are imbued in the love of Waheguru's Naam stay always connected with Him and enjoy blissfulness. 1.

Recite Waheguru's Naam all the time, oh my devotee brothers. (When you do that) your mind will become stable (will quit doddering) with Guru's grace, and you will always feel contented with the sweetness of the Naam. Pause.

The advantage of being born in the world (as a human being) is that one should worship Waheguru (recite His Naam) day and night everyday. When a man applies his mind to Waheguru's Naam, his thinking becomes pure, and it never gets filthy with evil ideas. 2. The Guru has shown the magnanimity of Waheguru's Naam (that it connects one with Waheguru), and that it is the source of bliss; besides, one also earns great respect with it. The treasures of Waheguru's Naam are always full and never experience any shortage, so one should always recite His Naam and share it with others. 3. Waheguru comes to dwell (appears) in the heart of the devotee whom He gives His Naam. Satguru has shown the importance of Waheguru's Naam; you should recite it all the time, oh Nanak. 4.1

MEANING: I am a sacrifice for Waheguru's Naam, the Amrit of which I drank with Guru's Shabad while enjoying its sweetness. When an individual sings Waheguru's praise with Guru's Advice (Shabad) and enjoys its sweetness, he becomes attached to Waheguru's Naam and attains a high spiritual state. 1.

The Guru gave me the mantra of Waheguru's Naam in my ears (injected the Naam in my mind) as a result of which, I have come to love the supreme Naam of Waheguru, which is the soul of the world, and He has become my life too (I live only by His Naam). Pause.

Let us join together and recite Waheguru's Naam, oh my saintly brothers. Kindly advise me on how and by what means I can connect with Waheguru; that will be your best donation to me. 2. (They advised me) That Waheguru resides in the gathering of the holy saints, and I should attend such holy gatherings to understand (realize) Waheguru. I was very fortunate to touch the Feet of the Waheguru-like Satguru (get His shelter) to be a part of His gathering. 3. I was astounded to learn the virtues of Waheguru when I sang praise of the inaccessible Lord in Satguru's shelter. I am a slave of Satguru, who was very kind to give me Waheguru's Naam (implant in my mind) in a short moment, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Bikh(u) = poison of. Bhuoujul = the world-sea. Doobday = drowning. 4.

MEANING: The Sikhs of the Guru (Waheguru's devotees) recite His Naam in the early hours of the morning and remember Him throughout the night. Waheguru has kindly kindled the spark of longing for Him in my heart, too, and now I am searching for Him. 1.

I wish to dust off the feet of the Guru with the brush of my hair (serve Him in the humblest way) who has reinforced the sweet Naam of Waheguru in my mind. Now, my mind has become so humble that I like to put the dust of the Guru's feet on my forehead. Pause.

The worshippers of Maya are trapped in the net of Maya (their love for worldly attractions), and because of that, their nights and days are dark in their ignorance. They do not enshrine Waheguru (His Naam) in their heart even for a short moment, as a result of which, their every body-hair (from top to toe) is trapped in many different ways in the snare of debt (of their bad deeds for which they will be severely punished). 2. But, when one joins the gatherings of holy saints, he acquires the (spiritual) wisdom because of which the nets of his selfishness, his ego, and his worldly attractions are broken (he gets emancipated). Blessed by the Shabad of the Guru, he finds Waheguru's Naam to be very sweet. 3.

We are children (ignorant), but the inaccessible Guru (Waheguru) is the Lord of the world, and He looks after all of us with kindness. I, Nanak, pray to You to pull me out of the poisonous world-sea with Your kindness, oh Waheguru. 4.2.

MEANING: With even a moment's benevolence of Waheguru, a devotee sings His praise while enjoying its sweetness. Both the parties – those who sing Waheguru's praise, and those who listen to that – get emancipated if they drink the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam with full faith, even for a moment, in Guru's shelter. 1.

Enjoy the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam peacefully (with a stable mind), oh my mind. Waheguru's Naam is the source of peacefulness which one acquires from the Guru, and the devotee should drink its sweet essence in a single stretch (without any break). Pause.

The foreheads of those devotees who get deeply attached to Waheguru are anointed with internal purity (are honoured in Waheguru's Court). Such devotees enjoy a distinct shine recognition) like the single moon among countless stars. 2.

The individuals whose hearts are devoid of Waheguru's Naam are like people without noses (ugly and disgraced). All the religious rituals which they perform are (spiritually) worthless, and are like adorning a body which has no nose. 3.

Beautiful Waheguru is present in every heart and solely operates everywhere. Waheguru has been very kind to me, giving me Guru's Shabad in a moment, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Recite the Naam of the omnipresent Waheguru, oh my mind. With the Advice of the Guru, when one sings praise of Waheguru, who is always merciful to the weak (humble), and is the destroyer of all ills, he acquires His invaluable Naam. Pause.

When one recognizes Waheguru (makes a connection with Him) with the Advice of the Guru, Waheguru takes dwelling (appears) in his heart. Waheguru's Naam appears in (enlightens the pool of) the devotee's heart, and he acquires Him in his heart. 2.

The men, who are misled by their misbeliefs, are like in a wilderness where they cannot find the path of righteousness. Such worshippers of Maya are cheated of their spiritual wealth. They are like the musk deer, which does not realize that the fragrance of musk comes from its own navel, and it searches for it in the bushes. 3. You are great, inaccessible, and beyond our comprehension, oh Waheguru; kindly advise us so that we may acquire You in our hearts. Recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is worthy of worship, oh my mind. (Some self-proclaimed gurus give a mantra in the ear of their devotees so that nobody else would know that) But any such mantra, or any other way of worship (other than the recitation of Waheguru's Naam) cannot enable one anywhere to get connected with Waheguru. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for the other (Maya). Kupt = dishonesty; deceit. Sojhi = understanding. 4.

MEANING: One's mind goes insane because of his mind-weakening indecisiveness, and he wastes away his precious human life due to his greed for perishable things. Worldly attractions cling to him (captivate him), and he makes no efforts to stop (control) them. Only Satguru can protect one from such attacks of Maya when He reinforces Waheguru's Naam in his mind. 1. (Without Satguru), one cannot kill (control) his mind and the attractions of Maya. Only Waheguru, who has created Maya, knows about it (how to control it). A devotee controls it by pondering over the Guru's Shabad, and he swims across the world-sea. Pause. The rajahs become conceited by accumulating wealth, but Maya, which is dear to them, does not accompany them (after death). Maya attracts people in many different ways, but nobody, other than Waheguru, is one's true companion. 2.

One views others through the lens of one's own mind, and the nature of one's actions is determined by one's thinking. The focus of one's mind is determined by his deeds; he can attain a high spiritual state by seeking the Guru's advice. 3.
(Some people worship their deities by singing with music), But such singing and music lead to love for Maya, and such devotees suffer greatly because of deceitful thoughts. But they get an understanding of reality (enlightenment) when they come to the Guru's shelter, and stay focused on Waheguru's Naam. 4. ---------

Word Meaning: Kumaavaiy = performs deeds. Nij Ghur(i) = in own mind (focus on Waheguru). Amar Pud(u) = immortal state. Vaas(u) = dwelling; stay. Sobha = praise. 5. Jutun = efforts. Mayra = mine; selfishness. Khoyee = lose; get rid of. Nirmul = pure, holy. Soyee = the same (Waheguru). 6. Kerni = performance. Saar(u) = supreme. Goobaar = darkness (of ignorance). Oordhaar(i) = embed in heart. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Mut(i) = wisdom; thinking. Moakh = emancipation. 7. Daykhunhaaro = who looks after. Anoop(u) = of unparalleled beauty. Apaaro = endless. Ootum = superior. Khoaj(i) Luhhaiy = acquires by searching. Koyee = rare. 8.
MEANING: With Guru's eternal Bani (Shabad), one sings Waheguru's praise, and leads a truthful life (performs noble deeds). As a result, his mind stays focused on Waheguru, and he attains the state of immortality and earns honour in Waheguru's Court. 5.
There is no worship (acceptable to Waheguru) without serving the Guru, even if one makes countless other efforts. One gets rid of his ego and selfishness only with Guru's Shabad, as a consequence, Waheguru's holy Naam takes dwelling in his heart. 6.
The supreme performance in life in this world is to enshrine Guru's Shabad in the mind; all other attachments than Guru's Shabad lead to darkness in the mind. With Guru's Shabad, one enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart, acquires noble wisdom (thinking), attains a high spiritual state, and reaches the door of emancipation. 7.
There is none (other than Waheguru) who creates and looks after the whole world. It is only the limitless Waheguru, with unparalleled beauty, who does so (creates and looks after His creation). One attains the high spiritual state with Waheguru's Naam, which one acquires when he searches in (ponders on) Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Moh(i) = love; attachment. Sugul Jug(u) = the whole world. Chhaaya. = overpowers; overwhelms; affects strongly. Kaamun(i) = women. Kaam(i) = lustful. Loabhaaya = becomes greedy; is attracted. Soot = sons. Kunchun = gold; wealth. Hayt(u) = attachment. Puraaya = stranger. 1. Jupmaali = (like) rosary. Perhur(i) = by pushing away; removing Niraali = fully detached from the world. Pause. Goon-Nidhaan = the source of all virtues. Samaya = get absorbed. Aavagaun = cycle of births and deaths. 2. Nurhur(i) = Waheguru. Nirbaani = who has no worldly desires. Surovar = pools; bodies. Smaani = is present. Aanund-Roop = source of bliss. Vitoun = for. 3. Bhaaou Bhagat(i) = worship with love. Dhaavut = rushing (mind). Tthaak(i) Ruhaayay = controls. Munn(i) Vusaayay = embeds in mind. 4.

MEANING: Like a lustful man who feels greedy (is tempted) to see a woman, the whole world is deeply impacted by its love for Maya. He fosters an ever-growing love for his sons and his wealth. He loves everything he owns but Waheguru, which is stranger to him. 1.

Like the rosary, which has no end, recite Waheguru's Naam continuously so that you forget all your comforts and discomforts, and feel fully detached from the world, oh man. Pause.

Nobody ever finds an end to Your limits, oh the source of all virtues, Waheguru. Your devotees simply merge into You with the Guru's eternal Shabad. You Yourself have created the cycle of birth and death, and only that individual is Your true devotee whose mind is attached to Your Naam (who becomes free from this cycle). 2.

Without taking Guru's shelter, nobody can realize that the desireless Waheguru is the source of all spiritual knowledge, and of the strength to focus one's mind. His Light is present in all bodies; I am a sacrifice for Waheguru, who is the source of all bliss. 3. One acquires Waheguru's worship with love and reverence and the advice of the Guru; his selfishness and his ego are destroyed with the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru's eternal Naam takes dwelling in his heart when he controls his ever-rushing mind (with Guru's Shabad). 4.

Word Meaning: Bism = amazement. Binoad = colourful enjoyments. Ruhhay = left behind; no longer effective. Permaadi = which makes one crazy; intoxicated. Daykh(i) = to see (Waheguru in his mind). Jul = Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. Nivaariya = removed. Aagi = fire (of desires). Boojhaiy = understands; realizes (the Naam). 5. Bherm = misbeliefs. Sookh-Daata = source of all comforts (God). Kaara = business; deeds. Muhha Rus(u) = the great sweetness. Chaakhiya = tasted. 8.

MEANING: When a devotee's mind is convinced in Guru's shelter, he comes to love Waheguru and stays focused on His Naam. He no longer has any interest in the world's amazing, intoxicating, colourful pleasures. He puts out his fire of desires to see Waheguru in his heart by taking a dip in the holy water of Waheguru's Naam. But only a highly fortunate individual realizes Waheguru's Naam. 5. All his misbeliefs are cleared when one serves the Guru; he stays alert (about the attacks of Maya), and stays connected with Waheguru. He believes only in Waheguru and acknowledges no other power. His mind is purified when he serves Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts. 6.

He kills (gets rid of) his haumein (selfishness and ego) by pondering on the Guru's Shabad, and acquires noble wisdom to serve humanity. He needs no recitation of ritualistic mantras, self-torturing, or any special effort to control his senses. He recites Guru's Shabad for others too (donates Waheguru's Naam), attains everlasting bliss through a pure lifestyle, and attains emancipation while living in the family. 7.

He has full faith in Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts and the destroyer of all suffering, and does not think of any other ritualistic noble deed. When one offers his body, his mind, and his wealth in Waheguru's service, he enjoys the great sweetness of union with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.2.

Word Meaning: Nivlee Kerm = a yogic exercise in which the yogis rotate their stomach veins in a circular motion. Booyungum = a snake-like. spiral-shaped vein which the yogis believe in. It starts at the bottom of the spine and stays dormant. It awakes with yogic exercises and reaches the bottom of the Sukhmana vein which starts at the bottom of the nose and leads to the tenth door in the brain. As it rises, the yogis feel blissful. Bhaatthi = furnace; the tenth door. Raychuk = exhaling. Pooruk = inhaling. Koombh = retain (hold) breath in the Sukhmana vein. Sojhi = understanding. Bood Murraiy = drowns in the world-sea. Bhuriya = full of mental filth. Untar Kee = internal. Mul(u) = filth. Phokut = worthless. Kerma = deeds; rituals. Baajigur(u) = acroabts. Bherm(i) bhoollaiy = misled by misbeliefs. Khut Kerma: the six expected responsibilities of Brahmans and Khatris. Goon_Saagur = sea (source) of virtues Uvgoon = ignoble qualities. Pause. Maya Dhundha = Maya-related tasks. Dhaavni = rush for. Doormut(i) Kaar = labour of evil thinking. Bikaar = useless; of vices. Gunaayaynda = shows himself off. Kaar = the true duty (spirituality). Munsa = impulses of mind. Mohini = mind-captivating. Boal Khooaar = suffers humiliations due to his spoken words. Mujun = bathing at holy places. Jhoottha = fake; hypocritical. Chundaal = wicked. Phokut = worthless. Chaar = beautiful. Sheengaar = adornments. 2. Kerni = performance of deeds. Baad(i) = worthless. Bibaad(u) = of debates. Ahunkern = ego. Khusm = Lord. Saad(u) = taste. Phikka = tasteless. Dooshti Subha = company of the evil. Vigoochiyaiy = suffer humiliation. Bikh(u) = poison. Vaati = in the mouth. 3.

MEANING: The yogi churns (rotates) his stomach to keep it clean, raises his kundalini to the tenth door (their belief) to feel blissful, inhales through his left nostril, exhales through the right nostril, and holds breath in the Sukhmana vein as part of his spiritual exercises. But, without the Guru, he does not realize that such exercises have nothing to do with spirituality. Misled by his misbeliefs, he drowns in the world sea. Full of mental filth, the (spiritually) blind yogi repeatedly cleanses his body, but can never get rid of his internal filth. Like the people who are fooled by the acrobatics of an acrobat as if he has some supernatural powers, the yogi makes a fool of himself by believing that his spiritually worthless rituals will bring him supernatural powers. He does not realize that without Waheguru's Naam, all such rituals are worthless. 1.

Waheguru's Naam subsumes all such rituals, including the six ritualistic deeds which the Brahmans and the Khatris must perform as their prime religious responsibility. You are the ocean of all virtues, while I am full of ignoble qualities, oh Waheguru. Pause.

(Ignoring Waheguru's Naam), People rush to complete their Maya-related tasks, which are spiritually worthless and a display of ignoble thinking. The fool does not recognize his real objective in life and shows himself off. Worldly attractions are mind-captivating, and give rise to impulses of the mind; the follower of his mind becomes their victim, and suffers humiliation because of his boastful words. Such a man is truly a wicked person, and all his religious rituals, like bathing at holy places or adorning his body with religious symbols, are hypocritical 2. His thinking revolves around the perishables only, and his deeds of taking part in debates are (spiritually) worthless. Such hypocrisy is used by him to cover his ego, which the Lord does not like. Any other deeds than Waheguru's Naam are (spiritually) tasteless. One suffers humiliation when he keeps the company of evil people, where they have poison in their mouths (vilifying everyone), and waste away their lives. 3.

Do not suffer spiritual death by getting lost in your misbeliefs, oh folks. You will always enjoy bliss in the shelter of the Guru, and nobody has ever attained emancipation without the Guru. People who do not seek the Guru's shelter keep taking births and dying. 4.

Word Meaning: Traiy-goon Dhaat(u) = Maya with three effects. Viyaapay = happens. Soag = sadness. Suntaap(u) = suffering. Chhkaiy = is removed; ends. Tishna = worldly desires. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. 5. Jeh, Jeh = wherever. Teh, Teh = there. Soyee = the same (God). Bhaytay = to meet with. Mookut(i) = emancipation. Kerni = performance of deeds (duty). Saar(u) = supreme. Pakhund(u) = phoniness; hypocrisy. Pooj = worship. Khooaar(u) = humiliation. 6. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Maathaiy = on the forehead. Chhaar(u) = ash. 7. Keerut(i) = sing praise. Nudri = who casts kind Sight (Waheguru). Nudr(i) = kind Sight. Puchhaan(u) = recognizes; makes connection with. 8.
MEANING: The human body is born with its attachment to Maya, which has three effects: because of its attachment to Maya, it is bound to experience sadness and suffering. So, serve Waheguru, who has no mother and no father (has no worldly bonds), as a result of which, you will become like him, and your worldly desires, selfishness, and ego will come to an end. 5. One cannot attain emancipation without meeting with (taking shelter of) the Guru. One's supreme duty is to enshrine Waheguru's Naam in his heart. Any other form of worship is nothing but hypocrisy and a cause for humiliation. 6.
One's indecisiveness goes away only when one makes a connection with the Guru's Shabad (obeys it). Then he realizes that it is only Waheguru which is present in his mind, and in the outside world. The only advice for everyone is that Guru's Shabad is supreme, and because of his indecisiveness, one gets ash on his forehead (earns disgrace). 7.
Singing Waheguru's praise with the Guru's Advice is the prime objective of the man. One should ponder on Waheguru's virtues and acquire the knowledge about Him in the company of the holy saints. The devotee who kills his mind (worldly desires) while living in the family, makes connection with Waheguru with His kind Sight, oh Nanak. 8.3.

Because of his honesty and generosity, he was deceived by a sage to the extent that he, along with his wife and son, was sold at a public auction. Prithmi-Put(i) = lord of land (a small kingdom). Kaagud(i) = on paper; in writing. Keem = the worth of his virtues. Aougun = bad quality. Poonn = a virtuous deed. Naykhaas(i) = in open market (public auction). 2. Kuroun = two steps. Adhaayee = two and half (double steps). Baavun-roop = as a midget. Buhaanaiy = misleading cause (to build a hut). Puyyaal(i) = in the underworld (under the sea). Chhuliyaiy = got deceived. Bul(i) = a very generous rajah. He performed 100 yuga, and after completing one last yuga, he would have won the rule of paradise, replacing the god Indra, who rules the paradise. Indra got scared and rushed to Vishnu for help. Vishnu transformed himself into a midget Brahman and went to Rajah Bul, asking for five steps of land to build a hut for himself. Bul's guru warned him that the demand was a complete hoax, and he should not accept it. But, in his pride at being a big philanthropist, Bul asked the midget to go ahead. and measure five steps of land. Vishnu, in the guise of a midget, measured the whole earth in four steps and asked for the remaining step. Bul lied down and asked the midget to measure him. Vishnu, pushed the rajah into the underworld with his knee. Roop = looks. 3. Janmeja = another rajah who was performing a yuga and had invited Brahmans to the feast to atone for a mistake. His guru, Bias, advised him that his wife, who was very fashionable, should wear decent clothes for the performance. Janmeja paid no attention to the advice, and his wife appeared in sheers. Some Brahman guests chuckled at the sight of her. The Rajah was enraged, and he killed 18 of them. Kirt = the result of one's deeds of previous lives. Chullaiy Chulaaya = cannot be avoided even on trying. 4.

MEANING: Indra (god), who was attracted to (and raped) Ahilya, the wife of the sage Gautam (by impersonating Gautam), had to repent when he got thousands of female genitals on his body due to the curse by Gautam. 1.
Nobody makes mistakes on purpose except for those who are misled by Waheguru Himself, and those who get the understanding (noble wisdom) are enlightened by Him. Pause.
Rajah Hari Chand was so famous for his philanthropy that it could not be described in writing. But, had he known the clear distinction between the noble deeds (and sins), he would not have been auctioned publicly (along with his wife and his son). 2.
Had Rajah Bul recognized Vishnu in his midget form, he would not have been deceived and would not have been pushed down into the underworld by Vishnu when the latter asked for only five steps of land from the Rajah. 3. When Rajah Junmeja performed a yuga, he had invited Brahmans for the feast. His guru, Bias, had advised him (to restrain his wife from wearing unsuitable clothes), but the Rajah did not listen to him; he rather killed 18 Brahmans when they could not contain their laughter to see the queen in sheers (transparent clothes). But the effect of his previous deeds cannot be removed (undone). 4.

Word Meaning: Gunut Na Gunee = I keep no account of my good or bad times. . Bhaayay Soobhaayay = with love and respect. Vertaiy = happens. Toodhaiy = You (God). Salaaheen = sing praise. Vudiyaayi = greatness. 5. Aliput(u) = fully detached from worldly attractions. Layp(u) = coating; effect. Shernaayi = in Guru's shelter. Moogudh = foolish. Aagaiy = before hand. Chaytay = remember. 6. Ruchna Ruchiyaiy = has created the world. Abhimaan(u) = conceit. Jeeoun = deep from the heart. Puchiyaiy = suffer. 7. Bhoollun Vich(i) = to make mistakes. Nistaara = salvation. Aghoollaiy = finds emancipation. 8.
MEANING: I do not keep account of my good and bad times, and simply recognize (obey) Waheguru's Huqam, and recite His Naam with love and respect. I praise Waheguru for whatever He causes to happen, and for His greatness. 5.
A Sikh of the Guru always stays in His shelter (obeys His Teachings), and stays fully detached from worldly affairs. The foolish follower of his mind does not remember Waheguru beforehand, and repents when he suffers. 6.
The Creator, who has created the world, does things Himself and makes others do whatever He wishes. Some people cannot overcome the ego, deeply rooted in their minds; then, with Waheguru's Will, they suffer greatly because of it. 7.
Waheguru has created the world so that everyone makes mistakes; only He is perfect and infallible. One is salvaged only with Waheguru's Naam, but there are only a few who find salvation with Guru's grace, oh Nanak. 8.4.

Bin Gur sojhi kisaiy na hoyay. Aapay kuray kuraavaiy soyay. 4. --------

Word Meaning: Adhaar(u) = support; basis. Dhundha = worldly affairs. Chhootuk(i) Guyya = ended. Vaykaar = useless. Jiyoun = like. Doojaiy = other; Maya. Put(i) = respect. Khoyee = loses. Naavaiyn = Naam. Uver(u) = other. 1. Guvaar = unrefined; foolish. Aavut Jaat = (in) coming and going; taking birth, and dying. Boodaiy = drowns (in the world-sea). Baaro, Baar = again, and again. Pause. Binaas(u) = destruction. Dhoor(i) = from Waheguru. Kaas(u) = to whom. Virla Koyee= some rare. Cheenaiy = recognizes; realizes. Bihoona = without; devoid of. Mookut(i) = emancipated. 2. Bherm(i) = misled. Doalaiy = mind wavers. Lukh-Chauraaseh = the 8.4 million life forms. Jum = Angel of death. Phaansi = noose; trap. Khin(u), Khin(u) = every moment. Oobh(i) = (in) high (spirits). Puyyaal(i) = (in) low (spirits). 3. Sudday = calls in. Dhill Na Paayay = cannot delay. Sehla = easily; comfortably. Sojhi = understanding. Soyay = the same (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: Watching the Maya-worshippers losing their respect everywhere, I have taken Waheguru's shelter, and now, I do not have faith in any other power than Waheguru's Naam. Thinking them to be (spiritually) totally worthless, I have given up all my concerns about worldly affairs now, and reciting and listening to Waheguru's Naam has become the basis (purpose) of my life. 1. Listen to the fact carefully that without the Guru's advice, the man drowns in the sea of Maya, again and again (and continues to stay in the birth-death cycle). So, do not you feel ashamed of taking births and dying repeatedly, oh my foolish and blind mind? Pause.

The human mind (thinking) is destroyed (loses its power) due to its attachment to Maya. But, since it is the Law of God (that all living beings have the natural inclination to be attracted to Maya), to whom can we blame? Some rare devotee realizes this fact with Guru's grace that the man cannot attain emancipation without Waheguru's Naam. 2.

Without taking Guru's shelter, the man fails to realize the importance of Waheguru's Naam and is misled by Maya's illusions. Sometimes, the human mind is in high spirits, and sometimes in very low spirits. As a result, he is caught in the trap of the Angel of death, takes births, and dies again, and again, and is taken through the 8.4 million life forms. The man finds emancipation only in the shelter of the Guru by reciting Waheguru's Naam. 3.

When Waheguru calls a man in, he cannot delay His decision. But the devotee, who kills his worldly desires with the Guru's Shabad while living in the family, enjoys his life blissfully, (and is not afraid of death). No one is enlightened without the Guru, but Waheguru controls everything – even union with the Guru. 4.

Word Meaning: Jhugurr(u) = (internal) conflicts. Sehj(i) Smaayay = gets absorbed in the high spiritual state Doalut = wavering; Tuou = only then. Tthehraayay = stabilizes; becomes peaceful. Kerni = worth performing; duty (as per the advice of the Guru) Kaar Kmaavaiy = performs deeds; leads life 5. Joottha = impure. Sooch(i) = pure. Dhovaiy = washes away. Tthaak Ruhaavaiy = puts stop to; ends. 6. Bhuou = fear (of God). Saar(u) = supreme. Paavaiy Paar(u) = swims across; is salvaged. Sach(u) Boalaiy = recites Waheguru's Naam. 7. Kerm = rituals. Put(i) = honour. Bhoonja = burns. Bheeja = is imbued. Prunvut(i) = says respectfully. 8.

MEANING: The wavering human mind becomes peaceful (comes under control) when the man leads his life as per the eternal advice of the Guru. Such a devotee always sings the praises of Waheguru and overcomes his internal conflicts. With the grace of the Perfect Guru, he gets absorbed in (attains) the high spiritual state. 5.

How can the man, who is internally impure, acquire purity (by maintaining external purity)? Some rare devotees lead a life of purity, and wash their internal filth (impurity of mind) with the Guru's Shabad. The rebirths and deaths of such devotees come to an end. 6.

The devotee who leads his life in Waheguru's fear, even while eating and drinking, enjoys supreme bliss, and he swims across the world-sea in the company of the holy saints (the Guru). He recites Waheguru's Naam with love and makes others do the same. Recitation of Guru's Shabad (the Naam) is the supreme performance for the man. 7.

Singing Waheguru's praise subsumes all religious rituals of traditional worship, and all one's lust and rage are destroyed as if they have been burned in fire, and the devotee earns honour in Waheguru's Court. One's mind gets imbued in Waheguru's love when he relishes the sweetness of His Naam with his tongue. I make a humble request that there is no other power like Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.5.

Word Meaning: Veechaar(i) = ponder; contemplate. 1. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Pooj Churrhaayeen = worship. Pause. Jeeurra = life. Paas(i) = with (You). Bhaavaiy = as (You) like. 2. Jihva = Rusn = tongue. Rusaayee = full of sweetness. Chhootus(i) = is emancipated. Shernaayi = in the shelter. Kerm Dherm = religious rituals. Vudaayi = greatness. Sir(i) Kerma = above (higher than) the rituals. 4. Chaar(i) Pudaaruth = the four coveted things (religiosity, wealth, fulfilment of wishes, and emancipation). Teen Smaayay = the first three are absorbed; no desire remains for them. Aik = the (fourth) one. Kirtaaruth = is successfully achieved. 5. Pud(u) = (high spiritual) state. Cheen(i) = recognize; achieve. Bhuyyay = become. Perdhaana = approved in Waheguru's Court. 6. Seetul(u) = peaceful. Boojh Boojhaayi = gave the understanding; enlightened. Nivaajay = bestows honour. Kinh(i) = who; nobody. 7. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Kinaiy Na = nobody. 8.

MEANING: When one recites Waheguru's Naam with his tongue by pondering on Guru's Shabad, and not on anything else, he, in fact, is worshipping Him in his mind. 1.
Waheguru alone is present everywhere, and I do not see anyone else like Him whom I may worship. Pause. I have already offered my mind, my body, and my life to Waheguru, and now I pray to Him that He protect me in whatever way He deems appropriate. 2.
My tongue is full of sweetness with Waheguru's eternal Naam. One attains emancipation in Waheguru's shelter with Guru's Advice. 3.
Waheguru has created the religious rituals (the man performs them with Waheguru's Will). However, He has placed the supremacy of the Guru's Shabad above all the deeds. 4.
All four coveted things (religiosity, wealth, fulfilment of wishes, and emancipation) are in the control of Satguru. The devotee, who comes to Satguru's shelter, is left with no desire for the first three (he feels fully contented), and achieves success in the fourth (emancipation). 5.
Satgur enables the devotee to focus on the source of emancipation (Waheguru), thereby attaining a high spiritual state and being honoured in Waheguru's Court. 6.
With Guru's imparted wisdom, one's mind and body become peaceful, and he is honoured by Waheguru. Who can tell the worth (transcendence) of such a devotee? 7.
The Guru gives the understanding that no one can attain a high spiritual state without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 8.6.

Word Meaning: Dhoor(i) = from the source (Waheguru). Bukhsh Luyyay = forgiven. Bunut = system. Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in love. Saacha = eternal. Bisray = forgotten. Put(i) = honour. 1. Jhootthi = perishable. Doormut(i) = ignoble thinking. Chuturaayi = shrewdness; craftiness. Binsut = to get destroyed. Baar = a short moment. Kaayee = any. Pause. Derd = pain; suffering. Viyaapus(i) = happens; affects. Jaata = recognized; made connection with. 2. Ubh = deep from the heart. Na Hovus(i) = cannot do. Pucheh(i) = suffer. Divaanay = crazy. Munooa = mind. Oobh(i) = in the sky (in high spirits). Puyyaali= in the underworld (in low spirits). Jub Lug(i) = as long as. 3. Bhookh = hunger (for worldly desires). Piyaasa = thirsty. Tipit(i) = contentment. Sehjaiy, Sehj(u) = high spiritual state with peaceful mind. Paiyndha Jaayay = is given the robe of honour. 4. Daana = wise. Beena = know-all. Ikk(u) Appay = Waheguru alone. Nirmul = pure; purifying. Soorta = listener. Veechaarus(i) = ponders on. Boojhaiy = determines. Pud Nirbani = the spiritual state with no desires. 5. Jul(u) Trung = water waves; water. Phoon(i) = then. Bul(u) Chhul(u) = unlimited hidden power. Tthaak(i) Ruhaaya = kept under control. 6. Aiysay = such (knowledgeable). Perkh(i) = with careful examination. Khujaanaiy Paaya = puts them in His treasure (absorbs them in Him). Jaat(i) = subcaste. Vern = the four major castes. Ateeta = detached. Mumta = worldly attachments. Loabh = greed. Chookaaya = ends. 7. Teeruth Say Nirmul = pure like a holy place. Churn Pukhaalaiy = washes their feet (shows full respect). Bhaaya = like; love. 8.

MEANING: Waheguru has created an eternal system in which He forgives some people (of His choice) through the Perfect Guru. Those devotees, who are imbued in Waheguru's love, are always in love with Him (their love for Him never fades); they forget all their sufferings (which disappear), and they earn respect in Waheguru's Court. 1.

One's ignoble wisdom (thinking) keeps him attached to the perishables, which do not take any time to separate (go away). Pause. The individual, who follows his mind (and does not listen to the Guru's Advice), suffers from troubles and discomforts which never go away. One realizes the source of comforts and discomforts, Waheguru, only in the shelter of the Guru who connects him with Waheguru. 2.

The followers of their mind cannot worship Waheguru diligently (with full dedication), and the foolish burn in the fire of their ego. As long as an individual does not recognize (ponder on) the Guru's Shabad, his mind fluctuates between high and low spirits. 3.

The world is hungry and thirsty for worldly desires, and does not find contentment without the Guru. But when one gets connected with the Guru (and Waheguru) with a fully focused mind, he attains the high spiritual state, enjoys blissfulness, and is honoured in Waheguru's Court. 4. Guru's Bani purifies one's mind when he realizes that there is only one wise and know-all Supreme Being (Waheguru) who listens to one's prayers, and ponders on them. He is the one who decides who deserves the high spiritual state, which is above all worldly desires. 5. Waheguru has created the world by combining basic ingredients such as water, fire (energy), and air, and has endowed these elements with unlimited hidden powers. However, He has the final control over them through His laws to prevent them from causing extreme destruction. 6. There are very few people in the world who are above the petty thinking of superiority or inferiority of their main castes and subcastes, and who have gotten rid of their greed and of worldly attractions. Waheguru tests such individuals and places them in His treasure (rewards them by merging them into Him). 7.
The devotees, who are imbued with the love for Waheguru's Naam, are pure like a holy place where others can take dips (serve them with love and respect) to wash away the filth of their selfishness and ego. I would wash the feet of such devotees (serve them) who come to love Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 8.7.

Gur Persadi vaykh(u) tu, Hur(i) Mundir(u) tayraiy naal(i). Hur(i) Mundir(u) Shabaday khojiyaiy, Hur(i) Naamo layhou smaahl(i). 1. Mun mayray, Shabad(i) ruppaiy, rung(u) hoyay. Sachi bhugti, Sacha Hur(i) Mundir(u), perguty saachi soyay. 1. Ruhaou. Hur(i) Mundir(i) eh(u) sreer(u) haiy, Giyan(i) ruttan(i) pergut(u) hoyay. Munmukh, mool(u) na jaan-ni, maanus(i) Hur(i) Mundir(u) na hoyay. 2. Hur(i) Mundir(i), Hur(i) jeeou saajiya, rukhiya Huqam(i) suvaar(i). Dhoor(i) laykh(u) likhiya su kmaavna, koyay na maytunhaar(u). 3. Shabad(u) cheenh(i), sookh(u) paaya, Sachaiy Naayay piyaar. Hur(i) Mundir(u) Shabaday sohna, kunchun koat(u) apaar. 4. Hur(i) Mundir(u) eh(u) jugut(u) haiy, Gur bin(u) ghor undhaar. Dooja bhaaou kur(i) poojday, munmukh undh guvaar. 5.

Word Meaning: Mundir(u) = house; temple. Naal(i) = within Khojiyaiy = search. Smaahl(i) = enshrine in your heart. 1. Ruppaiy = dyed with. Rung(u) = (deep colour) of love. Perguty = appears; is spread. Saachi = eternal. Soyay = fame; praise. Pause. Giyan(i) Ruttan(i) = jewel-like Divine knowledge; Waheguru's Naam. Mool(u) Na = not at all. Maanus(i) = of man. 2. Saajiya = created. Rukhiya = protected; maintained. Suvaar(i) = adorned (with noble qualities). Laykh(u) Likhiya = prewritten fortune. Kmaavna = must perform the deeds. Maytunhaar(u) = eliminator. 3. Cheen(i) = recognize; make connection. Naayay = the Naam. Sohna = (spiritually) beautiful. Kunchun = (pure like) gold. Koat(u) = fort. Apaar = unparalleled. 4. Ghor Undhaar = pitch darkness. Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Poojday = worship. Undh = blind. Guvaar = foolish. 5.

MEANING: With Guru's grace, if you look carefully, you will find that the temple of worship of Waheguru is within your body, oh man. You can search for Waheguru's temple with Guru's Shabad, and enshrine His Naam in your heart. 1.

Those whose minds are dyed (imbued) with Guru's Shabad, develop deep love for Waheguru, oh my mind. With true worship of the eternal Waheguru, which is present in every heart, the devotee's eternal fame spreads all over. Pause. The human body is the temple of Waheguru in which the jewel-like Naam of Waheguru appears (is implanted). But the followers of their own mind do not realize at all that the human body indeed is the temple of God. 2. With His Laws, Waheguru has created the human body as His temple, and protects it from the attacks of Maya by adorning it with noble qualities. But not everybody adorns his mind temple with noble qualities, as everybody must perform the kind of deeds which have been prewritten by Waheguru in their fate, and which nobody has the power to erase. 3. When one recognizes the importance of Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, he comes to love the Naam. With Guru's Shabad inside it, the human mind, which is the temple of Waheguru, becomes like a fort of pure gold with unparalleled beauty. 4. The whole world is the temple of Waheguru, but it (the world) is in deep darkness without the Guru. The foolish followers of their minds are spiritually blind as they worship Maya, rather than Waheguru, with love. 5.

--------- Jithaiy laykha mungiyaiy, tithaiy dayh, jaat(i) na jaayay. Saach(i) ruttay say oobray, dookhiyaiy doojaiy bhaayay. 6. Hur(i) Mundir(u) meh(i) Naam(u) nidhaan(u) haiy, na boojheh(i) moogudh guvaar. Gur persadi cheeniya, Hur(i) raakhiya oordhaar(i). 7. Gur kee Bani, Gur tay jaati, j(i) Shabad ruttay rung(u) laayay. Puvit(u) paavun say jun nirmul, Hur(i) kaiy Naam(i) smaayay. 8. Hur(i) Mundir(u), Hur(i) ka haat(u) haiy, rukkhiya Shabad(i) suvaar(i). Tis(u) vich(i) sauda, Aik Naam(u), Gurmukh(i) laiyn(i) suvaar(i). 9. Hur(i) mundir meh(i) mun(u) lohut(u) haiy, mohiya doojaiy bhaayay. Paarus(i) bhaytiyain kunchun(u) bhuyya, keemut(i) kuhhi na jaayay. 10. Hur(i) Mundir meh(i) Hur(i) vussaiy, serb niruntar soyay. Nanak, Gurmukh(i) vunjiyaiy, Sacha sauda hoyay. 11.1.

Word Meaning: Jithaiy = where (God's Court). Laykha = account of deeds. Mungiyaiy = demanded. Dayh = body. Ruttay = imbued. Oobray = are salvaged. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). 6. Boojheh(i) = understand. Moogudh = Guvaar = foolish. Oordhaar(i) = embedded in heart. 7. Jaati = understands; enshrines. J(i) = if. Puvit Paavun = pure; pious = Nirmul. Smaayay = get absorbed in. 8. Haat(i) = store. Sauda = merchandize. Suvaar(i) = adornment. 9. Lohut(u) = (hard and unclean like) iron. Paarus(i) = elixir stone; touchstone. Bhaytiyain = meeting with; touching. Kunchun = gold. 10. Serb = everywhere. Nituntar = continuously; without any gap. Vunjiyaiy = deal in. Sacha = eternal. 11.

MEANING: Man's body and his caste do not accompany him (his soul) to Waheguru's Court, where the account of his deeds is demanded. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam are salvaged (merge into Waheguru), while those who love Maya suffer badly. 6.
The foolish and the unwise man does not understand that the treasure of Waheguru's Naam is present in his body. But those who realize this fact through the Guru's Shabad enshrine the Naam in their hearts. 7. If a devotee gets imbued in the love of Guru's Shabad, he enshrines His Bani (Waheguru's Naam) in his heart with His grace. The devotees, who stay absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, are pure and pious. 8.
The human body is the store of Waheguru's Naam, which one adorns with Guru's Shabad. His Naam is the only merchandise in the human body which becomes His temple if the individual adorns it with Guru's Shabad in His shelter. 9. However, the human mind is hard and unclean like iron in Waheguru's temple (his body) because it is captivated by the attractions of Maya, which he loves. But when the human mind comes in contact with the touchstone-like Guru, it becomes pure like gold, the worth of which cannot be described. 10. Like everywhere else, Waheguru resides hidden in the human heart. When a devotee deals in His Naam in the Guru's shelter, his dealings make him eternal, oh Nanak. 11.1.

Aiythaiy, oathaiy, sookh(u) ghunaa, jup(i) Hur(i), Hur(i) ootray paar(i). 3. ---------

Word Meaning: Bhaiy Baayay = with love and fear. Jaagay = stay awake (alert). Jaagrun(u) Kueh(i) = stay awake all night (sometimes, the Hindus stay awake all night and sing praise of their goddess. They call this "Jaagrun(u)". Maiyl(u) = filth. Ootaar(i) = get rid of; wash away. Ghur(u) = mind. Raakheh(i) = protect. Punch Tuskur = the five demons (lust, greed etc.). Kaadheh(i) Maar(i) = beat them away. 1. Sayee = the same. Kem Kmaayay = perform deeds. Pause. Sehj Dhoon = the music of the Shabad leading to the high spiritual state. Oopjaiy = is produced. Sehjay = without any special effort. 2. Mookh Sohnay = glowing face due to the purity of mind. Oordhaar(i) = embedded in heart. Aiythaiy Oathaiy = here and there; everywhere. Ghunaa = immense. Ootraiy Paar(i) = land on the other side of (swim across) the sea of Maya. 3.

MEANING: (Some Hindus stay awake all night and sing praise of their goddess, but that is not approved by Waheguru as His worship). Only those devotees are considered truly awake who stay awake in the love of Waheguru, and wash away the filth of their selfishness and ego. They always stay alert and protect their mind against the attacks of the five demons (lust, greed, etc.) and beat them away. 1.
Recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh my mind. But the human mind performs the same kind of deeds which Waheguru has preprogrammed for them. Pause.
The music of the Guru's Shabad leading to the high spiritual state is produced in the minds of the Sikhs of the Guru, by which the suffering caused by their selfishness and ego disappears. Waheguru's Naam is enshrined in their minds, and they sing Waheguru's praise without any special effort. 2. With Guru's Advice, they embed Waheguru's Naam in their heart, and their faces glow because of the purity of their mind. They enjoy immense bliss everywhere and swim across the world sea by reciting Waheguru's Naam. 3.

Word Meaning: Na puvyee Thaayayn = is not rewarded. Dhoyee = shelter. Luhheh(i) = acquire. 4. Dhrig(u) = condemnable; disgraceful. Bishta = feces; filth of Maya. Keerray = worms. Raatay = imbued in; intoxicated with. Khooaar(u) = suffer humiliation. 5. Vitoun = for. Bul(i) Jaaoun = offer to sacrifice. Sach(i) = with the eternal Naam. Smaaoun = merge with. 6. Pooraaiy Bhhag(i) = with perfect fortune. Oopaayay Kitaiy = by any other means. Sehj = peaceful state. 7. Bhuj(u) = rush to the shelter. Kernaiy Joag(u) = fully capable; omnipotent. Veesraiy = forget. Hoag(u) = will happen.
MEANING: Staying awake ritualistically all night to sing songs to please some deity is not worth anything for anyone because it is done for one's ego. Waheguru does not recognize such worship, and they do not get any reward for that. Such people are Maya-worshippers, as they perform deeds only for their love of Maya and do not receive any support in Waheguru's Court. 4. The eating and wearing of expensive clothes of those who love Maya is reprehensible. They are the worms of filth (of Maya), are imbued in the love of such filth, and suffer humiliation because of their repeated births and deaths. 5.
I am a sacrifice for those who worship Waheguru by reciting His Naam. 6.
However, one can connect with the Guru only with his great fortune; there is absolutely no other way to connect with Him. When one connects with Satguru, his selfishness and ego are eradicated by Satguru's Shabad, and he attains a high spiritual state. 7.
Rush to the shelter of Waheguru, which is capable of doing anything (is omnipotent), oh my mind. Only that which Waheguru wishes to do happens. So, (accept His Will), and make sure that you do not forget His Naam, oh Nanak. 8.2.7.2.9.

Word Meaning: Soot(u) = son. Bunita = wife. Choogeh(i) Choag = pick the bait (of Maya) (enjoy luxuries of life). Joogta = with technique; systematically. Oorjh(i) = gets entangled; engrossed. Meetth Mohaara = in the sweet worldly attachments. Goon Gaahuk = the customers (dealers in) Waheguru's virtues (His Naam). 1. Untarjaami = omniscient. Dhur = Tik = support. Vud Purakh = the Great Waheguru. Pause. Chhul = deceitful. Naagin = snake (Maya). Tootun Hoyee = break up. Jhootthi = short-lived. Dhohi = deceptive. Kauraayay = bitter. Aghaayay = fully contented. 2. Loabh = greed. Vikhoat(i) = trust. Chhoat(i) = freedom from. Tthugvaari = deceitful. Gaalay = destroyed. Kirpaalay = kind; merciful. 3. Tthaat(u) = partnership; friendship. Kaani = with ears (carefully). Chundaal = savage. 4.

MEANING: Along with his parents, brothers, sons, and wife, the man enjoys the luxuries of life in a systematic way (in which he gets trapped). He gets entangled in his worldly attachments, which he finds sweet. But the dealers in Waheguru's Naam are the basis of my life. 1. I have faith only in the support of Waheguru, who is omniscient and the great King of kings. Pause. The Guru explained to me that the attractions of Maya are deceitful and are short-lived; they taste sweet, but are bitter when taken (have harmful consequences). So, I have broken all connections with Maya, and my mind is fully contented with the Amrit-like Naam of Waheguru. 2

The kind Satguru has freed me from the bonds of greed and worldly attachments, and I have lost trust in them (they no longer appeal to me). The deceptive Maya has ruined countless homes, but the Guru protected me from its attacks. 3. I listened carefully to the Guru's advice; as a result, I have no friendship with lust or rage either. I find the savage Maya everywhere I look, but my Waheguru-like Guru protected me. 4.

--------- Dus naari mein kuree doohaagun(i). Gur(i) kuhhiya eh ruseh(i) bikhaagun. Inn sunbundhi rusaatul(i) jaayay. Hum Gur(i) raakhay, Hur liv laayay. 5. Ahunmayv siyoun

Tu tthaakur, eh(u) greh(u) subh(u) tayra. Kuhhou Nanak, Gur(i) keeya nibayra. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Dus Naari = the ten senses. Doohaagun(i) = window; broke complete connection. Ruseh(i) = sweetness; enjoyments. Bikhaagun = bikh + aagun = poison + fire = fiery poison. Sunbundhi = connection with. Rusaatul(i) = underworld; lowest spiritual level. 5. Ahunmayv = conceit. Muslut(i) = consultation; company. Hoadi = obstinate. Neeghur(u) = homeless; causes the mind to waver, and does not allow it to be peaceful. Liv Laayay = with deep meditation on the Naam. 6. Inn Loagun = these vices. Baiyraayi = enemy. Khutaayo = mix; stay together. Unchur(i) Laag(i) = with the support (of the Guru). Tupaavus(u) = judgment. Serbaag(i) = know-all. 7. Niaayay = justice. Sugul Doot = all senses and the five demons. Tthaakur = lord. Nibayra = final judgement. 8.

MEANING: My Satguru explained to me that the enjoyments of the senses are a fiery (spiritually fatal) poison. So, I have widowed all my ten senses (broke all connections with them). Those who make a connection with them (enjoy them) are reduced to the lowest spiritual level. But my Guru protected me by enabling me to focus on Waheguru's Naam. 5.
My Guru explained to me that one's ego is highly obstinate (persistent) and makes one foolish; it causes the mind to be unstable (to waver continuously) and prevents it from being peaceful. So, I have quit the company of (broken connection with) my ego by focusing my mind on Waheguru's Naam with the grace of the Guru. 6.
I have become enemies with such vices because virtues and vices cannot stay together in one's mind. With the support (blessings) of the Guru, I came to the shelter of the omniscient Waheguru, requesting Him to deliver His judgment (on my changed character). 7.
Waheguru said smilingly that He has delivered His justice, and has put all my senses in my service so that I am the lord (in complete control) of my house (mind). This was the final judgment of the Guru, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Upda ka maariya, greh(i) tay nusta. Days(u) chhoad(i), perdayseh(i) dhaaya. Punch chundaal naalay laiy aaya. 4. -------

Word Meaning: Muhha = huge. Ahunkaara = ego. Bisthaara = sprawl; show off. Chukur = religious symbols. Kub Hee Na = never. 1. It(u) Sunjum(i) = by such means. Bhugauti = of devotion. Moodra = symbols. Mohiya = captivated. Pause. Punchaan = the five demons. Buss(i) = possessed by. Nishunk = without any fear of any reprisal. Jumpur(i) = in the city (court) of the Angel of death. Kaalunk = disgraced (due to his sins). 2. Ghoonghur = small bells. Bujaaveh(i) Taala = dances to the tune. Kupt(u) = deceit. Baytaala = out of step with life-style of high morality. Vermi = the burrow of a snake. Saap = snake. 3. Poon-ur Taap = to build fire (especially on hot days to torture self). Gary Kay Bustra = saffron clothes (of yogis). Upda = tough times. Greh(i) Tay = from home. Perdayseh(i) = foreign lands, Punch Chundaal = the five demons. 4.

MEANING: Many people worship their deities with a big show-off, but they have rage and a big ego in their hearts. They wash their bodies and paint religious symbols on them. But the filth of their minds never goes away. 1.

They do wear all the symbols of a devotee, but their mind is captivated by Maya (worldly attractions); nobody can realize Waheguru by such means. Pause.

Possessed by the five demons, the man commits many sins, but is under the misbelief that they are all washed away by taking a dip at a holy place. With no fear of any reprisal under this severe misbelief, he commits more and more sins, as a result of which he is disgraced and is taken to the court of the Angel of death (justice). 2.

He wears anklets with bells on his feet and dances to the music as his way of idol-worship. But, because of the deceit in his mind, he goes around completely unsynchronized with the life of high morality. It is like destroying a snake's burrow without killing it. He does not realize that Waheguru, who created him, knows everything about him. 3.

Many people wear saffron clothes and build fires around them on hot days to mislead people into thinking they are devoted. But, in reality, beaten by the suffering of some hard times, they run away from their homes as an escape. They leave their homes to go away to distant places, but they take the five demons with them. 4.

Word Meaning: Kaan = ears. Phuraayay = pierced. Hiraayay = looks for. Tooka = roti; food. Triptaavun Tay = from contentment. Chooka = misses; cannot have. Bud Nudr(i) = evil Sight. Pur Naari = other women. Vays(i) = the garb of some sect. Dookhiyaari = sufferer. 5. Moani = mute. Kulp = imaginations. Joani = in different life forms. Unn = food. Tay Rehta = goes without. Sehta = endures. Viyaapiya = overpowered by. Mumta = worldly attachments. 6. Perm Gutay = the highest spiritual state. Simrutay = Simritis. Ajaayeen = useless. Baaloo Ghur = a house of sand. Tthaur Na Tthaayeen = shelter and the like. 7. Baandhiyo Paala = remember always. Koat(i) Mudhay = among millions. Sung(i) = in the company. 8. Bhaag = good fortune. Ta = then. Kootumb(u) = family; associates. Pause 2.

MEANING: They get their ears pierced because of their faith, but look for food for which they go begging from door to door, but never get contentment. They leave their wives behind, but cast evil eyes on other women. One cannot realize Waheguru by wearing religious garb; in fact, he suffers greatly. 5. A hermit decides not to talk for long periods and stays quiet. But his mind never rests, and has countless thoughts; as a result, he is taken through many, many different life forms. He does not eat food, and endures the suffering on his body (by staying hungry). Overpowered by worldly attachments, he does not understand Waheguru's Huqam (Will). 6. You can ask (read in) the Vedas or the Simritis if you will, and you will find that nobody has ever attained a high spiritual state without a Satguru. Like building a house of sand, where one can find no shelter or protection, the Maya-worshipper performs deeds that are (spiritually) useless. 7.

The devotee, whom Waheguru become kind to, enshrines Guru's Words (Shabad) in his heart and remembers them. But only one such holy saint can be seen in millions, in whose company one can swim across the sea of Maya, oh Nanak. 8.

It is only with a great fortune that one has the holy sight of such a saint who swims across the world-sea himself, and ferries all his associates to the other end of the world-sea. Pause 2

Apunaiy Tthaakur(i) nudr(i) nihaaliya. 4. ---------

Word Meaning: Simrut = by reciting. KIlbikh = sins. Kaatay = destroyed. Kaagur = papers (records of accounts). Phaatay = torn. Rid Maah(i) = in the heart. 1. Rumut = remembering (reciting Naam). Pause. Chooka = ended. Gaun = births and deaths. Mookut(i) Dooaara = the door to emancipation. Sud = always. Raata = imbued. Junaaya = explained. Tub Hee = only then. Jaata = understood; made a connection with. Ruvviya = is present. Soyay = the same (Waheguru). Beejo = other. Baiyr = enmity. Biroadh = opposition. Chhayday = pierced; destroyed. Bhaiy = fears. Bherma = misgivings. Poonn(i) Aatmaiy = for purification of the soul. Keenay Dherma = did the noble deed. 3. Muhha Trung = the huge (difficult to swim in) world-sea. Kaandhaiy Laaya = brought to the shore. Toota = disconnected. Gaandha = reconnected. Jup, Tup, Sunjum = the ritualistic deeds. Nihaaliya = saw. 4.

MEANING: All one's sins are eradicated, and the records of the accounts of his deeds maintained by the Angel of justice get shredded when he recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru's Naam gets enshrined in his heart, and he enjoys its sweet taste (feels blissful). 1. The devotees, who get absorbed in Waheguru's Naam by reciting it, attain blissfulness. Pause. The darkness of ignorance disappears, and the cycle of rebirths ends for such devotees, and they reach the door of emancipation with the grace of the Guru. The devotees recognize Waheguru (get connected with Him) only when the Guru explains it to them (through His Shabad), and their body and mind become imbued with the love for His worship. 2.

Waheguru is present in every heart, and there is none other than Him. All the enmities and disputes of the devotees come to an end, and all their worldly fears and misbeliefs disappear. Waheguru does this noble deed to purify the souls of His devotees. 3.

When the Lord casts a kind Sight on His devotees, they recite His Naam, which subsumes all types of ritualistic worship. They swim across the vast and difficult world-sea and connect with Waheguru, whom they had been disconnected from for many lives. 4.

Word Meaning: Mungul = happiness. Kulyaan = wellbeing. Tithaayeen = there. Jeh = where. Sayvuk = devotee. Soopersunn = overly pleased. Bitaal = (spiritually) unproductive deeds. 5. Hoam = huvuns. Oordh Tup = worship some deity by suspending self upside down. Churn Kumul = the lotus-like Feet of God (Waheguru's Naam). Nimukh = for a moment. Dhaaray = acquire; enshrine. Kaaruj Saaray = objectives achieved. 6. Sehj(i) Dhiyaan = focus mind in the peaceful state. Baanchhoun = long for. Dhoor(i) = dust of feet. Serb-kulaa = all powerful; omnipotent. Bhurpoor(i) = omnipresent. 7. Nayra = close by. Bhervaasa = faith. Ker(u) = hands. Geh(i) = by holding. Laanay = made. Goontaas = treasure of virtues (God). 8.

MEANING: There is happiness, comforts, and wellbeing where Waheguru's devotees are present (sing His praise). Waheguru gets so pleased with them that their spiritually unproductive deeds come to an end. 5. When the devotees enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their heart - even if it is for a short moment - all their objectives are successfully achieved, and they get the rewards of all huvuns, yugas, worshipping some deity while suspending self upside down, and taking dips at countless holy places. 6.

When a devotee meditates deeply on Waheguru's Naam, he realizes that Waheguru's residence (His transcendence) is higher than the highest. I long for the dust of the feet of (show reverence for) the slaves of the devotees who see the omnipotent Waheguru fully present everywhere. 7.

Dear Waheguru is very close to me, and I have more faith in Him than in my mother, father, friends, and relatives. He made me His own by holding me by the hand, and now I survive only by reciting the Naam the Waheguru, which is the treasure of all virtues, oh Nanak. 8.3.

Word Meaning: Shunka = doubt; fear. Aapun Rung(i) = lost in own thoughts. Sehj = the high spiritual state. Pergaasi = enlightened; attained. 1. Jot(i) = enlightenment. Ruttan(u) = jewel (like). Pause. Anund = bliss. Door(i) Puyyaana = runs away. Maanuk(u) = pearl-like. Tutt(u) = the origin of everything (God). Lookaana = hides; acquires. 2. Bhaana = Will. Ivv = like this. 3. Kilbikh = sins. Word Meaning: Allah(u) = God. Museet(i) = mosque. Bust(u) Haiy = resides. Kis(u) Kayra = whose. Naam = God. Nivaasi = dweller. Tutt(u) = reality (God). Hayra = saw. 1. Mihraamut(i) = mercy. Pause. Dukkhun Days = south India (Jagan Naath, Puri). Hurie = God. Baasa = dwelling. Puchhum(i) = in the west (Qaba in Mecca). Mookaama = residence. Tthaur = shelter; home. 2. Giyaas = the eleventh day after new and full moon. Chaubees = 24 (2 giyaases each month). Meh Rumjaana = the month of Ramadan. Giyaarah = eleven. Paas Kaiy Raakhaiy = leaves aside. Nidhaan = treasure (God). 3. Oodisay = Jugan Nath Puri temple in the state of Oodisa. Kuhhan = so what? What is the use? Mujun(u) = take dip. Sir Naayay = bow down. Kupt(u) = deceit. Nivaaj Goojaaray = offer prayer. 4. Aitay = so many. Roop = forms. Poongra = a small child. 5. Nur = men. Nurvaiy = women. Sherna = shelter. Praani = oh, man. Nihchaiy = for sure. 6.

MEANING: (According to the Muslim belief), if Allah resides only in the Great Mosque in Mecca, then to whom does the rest of the country (world) belong? Similarly, the Hindus believe that God resides in the idol; so, neither of the two has seen (comprehended) the reality (of God). 1. Please, be kind to me so that Your Naam becomes the basis (objective) of my life, oh Lord - Ram, and Allah. Pause.

The Hindus believe that their God resides in southern India (in the Temple of Jagannath in Odisha), while the Muslims believe that their Allah resides in the West (of India) (in the Kaaba in Mecca). Search Him only in your heart, and that is where He resides, oh man. 2.

The Brahman (Hindus) believes that the eleventh day after the new and the full moon is holy (two days a month), so he considers only 24 days as the holy days. On the other hand, the Qazi (Muslims) believes that only the month of Ramadan is holy (and one can realize the treasure, Allah, only in that month); in that case, what about the other eleven months, which he leaves aside. 3. What is the use of taking dips in Odisha, and what is the use of bowing down in a mosque, and what is the use of offering a nivaaj, or going on Hajj in Qaba (Mecca) if one has deceit in his mind? 4.

God has created countless men and women, all of whom are His different forms (as He resides in all of them); I am a small child of Ram and Allah, and all the religious teachers of both religions (if approved by God) are my gurus, oh Kabir. 5.

Kabir suggests to all the men and the women that they take shelter of the “One” and recite His Naam only. That is how you will surely swim across the sea of Maya. 6.2.

MEANING: First of all, Allah created Light (the Supreme Soul) from which the whole world came into being. Since all humans are created from the same Supreme Soul, how can we say that some are good and some are bad? 1.

Do not be misled by your misbeliefs, oh my friends. God is present in His people, and the people are present in the Creator, which is present everywhere. Pause.

Like a potter who makes many different kinds of pots from the same mud (clay), God has created many kinds of human-pots from the same earth (basic ingredients). Although all human pots are different, there is no fault in the pots or in the potter (God). 2.

It is the same eternal God in all of us, as everything has been created by Him. The individual who recognizes Him in everybody is His true devotee. 3.

Allah is incomprehensible, but the Guru has given His sweet Naam by which we can see Him everywhere, oh Kabir. 4.

Perbhati: Bayd, Kutayb kuhhou mut jhootthay, jhoottha jo na bichaaraiy. Juou subh meh(i) Aik Khoodaayay keht huou, tuou kiyoun moorgi maaraiy? 1. Moolah, kuhhou niyaaoun Khoodaayi. Tu naapaak, Paak(u) nuhhi soojhiya, Tis ka merm(u) na jaaniya. Keh(i) Kabir, bhisht(i) tay chooka, dojuk siyoun mun maaniya. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Bayd = Vedas. Kutayb = the holy books of the western religions (Quran, Bible, Torah etc.). Mut = do not. Jhootthay = untrue; false. Juou = when. Khoodaayay = God. Moorgi Maaraiy = kill a chicken. Jeaou = the fowl. Aaniya = brought. Binaasi = destroyed; killed. Bismil = in the name of Allah. Jot(i) Sroop = Light-like God. Anaahut = immortal (God). Hulaal = worthy of offering to God. 2. Ooj(u) = washing of hands and feet before offering nivaaj (prayer). Paak(u) = holy; purify. Sir(u) Laaya = put head on the floor. Kupt(u) = deceit. Hujj = the pilgrimage of Qaba. 3. Naapaak = unholy. Paak(u) = holy (God). Soojhiya = think of. Merm(u) = secrets. Bhist(i) = paradise. Chooka = missed. Dojuk = hell. Maaniya = satisfied. 4.3.

MEANING: Do not call the Vedas and the Western holy books to contain lies; the liar (dishonest) is the person who does not ponder on them without any bias. However, why do you kill a chicken as a sacrifice for Allah if, at the same time, you believe that Allah is present in everybody? (Believing that Allah loves sacrifices, Muslims sacrifice an animal in the name of Allah on the last day of Ramadan). You teach justice of Allah to others, but you cannot get rid of your own misbeliefs, oh Moolah. Pause.

You catch the fowl and bring it for sacrifice. You kill its body, which is now lifeless, in the name of Allah; when its soul goes to God, it was already a part of His, so, what is that you have made worthy of offering to Allah? (The body was lifeless, and the soul of the dead fowl was already a part of Allah), So you are simply cheating yourself, oh Moolah. What do you purify by washing your hands, feet, and face when you have deceit in your mind? In that case, what is the use of even putting your head on the floor in the mosque, and of going on Hajj in Qaba (Mecca)? 3. You are unholy, and cannot think of the Holy (Allah), and do not know His secrets (that is what He wishes His devotees to do). You have missed your opportunity to go to paradise, and now you must satisfy yourself to go to hell, oh Kabir. 4.4.

Aarti = the ritualistic idol-worship by offering flowers, incense, etc. Tthaanda = standing (waiting with the hope of). Nigum = the Vedas. Alukh(u) = the incomprehensible God. Lukhiya = comprehend. Pause. Tutt(u) = (knowledge about) Waheguru. Tayl = oil. Baati = wick. Deepuk = lamp. Day Oojiyaara = enlightenment of heart. Jot(i) = Light. Jugdeesh = (of) the Lord of the world (God). Boojhunhaara = the enlightened individual. 2. Punchya Shabad = the five kinds of musical instruments. Anahud = divine. Baajay = play. Sungay = with. Saaringpaani = God. Daas = slave. Nirbaani = above all desires. 3.

MEANING: Getting absorbed in You (Your Naam) in a high spiritual state (in which no thoughts about Maya arise), is Your true worship three times daily, oh the mine (source) of enlightenment, and the origin of the universe, Lord. The Sidh yogis could not find Your limits even in their deep meditations on You. 1.

Waiting with the hope to see God, Brahma ponders on his Vedas with full focus, but even he cannot comprehend the incomprehensible God. Worshipping Satguru is the only true performance of aarti of God, oh my brothers. Pause.
Using the Divine Knowledge as the oil, and focusing on God's Naam as the wick, I have lit the lamp to enlighten my mind. But some rare enlightened devotee understands this secret to connect with God. 2. This is the aarti I offer to God, who is above the effects of Maya, and all worldly desires. With God in my mind, I am so blissful that I feel as if all five types of musical instruments are playing Divine Music in my mind, oh Kabir. 3.5.

MEANING: My God is present everywhere, and my mind has been stitched to the Lord of the world (I am connected with Him). Only one's mind knows its pain, or he should share it only with God, who already knows our condition. So why should I be afraid of (worry about) anything when I remember the omnipresent God? 1.
My mind has been pierced with my love for God, and I see Him everywhere. Pause.
God resides in Your bazaar-like mind, where He has the store (of His Naam). God, which appears in many forms, is present in everybody's heart, but the Maya-engrossed man is misled by his misbeliefs (and does not understand Him). 2.

My mind is imbued with Guru's Shabad, as a result of which, my indecisiveness has disappeared in my high spiritual state. Realizing that it is His Huqam (Will) which is a manifestation of Him, operates everywhere, and pondering on that, I have become fully unbiased, and view everybody the same way. 3.

MEANING: God is described only as being continuously present everywhere, but, from the beginning of the universe, and from the beginning of the eons, nobody has ever been able to find His limits. 1. When a devotee moulds his life according to the Guru's Shabad, God appears in his heart with a roar (clearly showing His presence). From my experience, I can only say that my God is always blissful (a source of bliss). Pause.
Just like all the neighbouring trees in a forest enjoy the fragrance of a sandal tree, and become like that, a devotee, who worships God, which is the source of all sweet fragrances, becomes like Him. 2. You are like the elixir stone, and I am like iron; I have become pure like gold in Your shelter, oh God. MEANING: God, which has no clan, but is present hidden in every heart, has shown an amazing feat in creating the drama of the world. 1.

Nobody among the people knows the Light (Soul) of the hidden God, but He knows everything that you and I do. Pause.

Just like an earthen vessel is created by the potter from earth, the man is also created from earth and a few other elements. But it is God who is the creator. 2.

Man's deeds affect his character and become a trap for him. But the man cannot be blamed entirely, because it is God who is behind his acts (deeds). (He makes the man do the kinds of deeds which are prewritten in his fate by Waheguru). 3.

A devotee, who stays absorbed in God (His Naam), can have any of his wishes fulfilled, and also becomes immortal, submits Namdev humbly. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Tun(i) = on the body. Chundun = ground sandalwood. Paati = leaves. Rid Untar(i) = in mind. Ker Tul = palms of hands. Tthug = deceit. Disht(i) = in eyes. Bugga = (like a) heron (a deceptive bird). Liv Laaga = with the Sight focused. Baishno = a devotee of Vishnu. Praan = breaths. Bhaaga = ran away. Kul(i) = in Kulyug(i); in this world. Bund = (eyes) closed. Chiramun(g) = for a long time. Kuroor Disht(i) = glance with a squinted eye. Nis = night (and day). Baadun(g) = worthless discussions. Pause. Chhoori = knife. Sundhiyaani = aimed. Pur Derb = wealth of others. Hirn = to steal. Baani = habit.

2. Sil = idol. Chukur = symbols. Jaagus = stays up. Pervashin(g) = entering; to perform. Pug Naachis = feet dance. Ukermun(g) = evil deeds (thoughts). Lumput = lusty; lewd. Adhermun(g) = nonreligious. 3. Mirg = Deer (skin). Aasun(u) = seat. Toolsi Maala = rosary of basil. Ker Oojul = clean hands. Tilk(u) = anointment. Kupaala = on the forehead. Koorr(u) = falseness. Kuntth(i) = around the neck. Roodraakhun(u) = (necklace) of the beads of the Roodar tree. Krishan(u) = God. Abhaakhun(u) = not say. 4. Aatum Tuut(u) = the root of the soul (God). Cheeniya = recognized; got connected with. Phokut = useless. Abeeniya = of the blind. Baat = the true path. 5.

MEANING: To show his fake religiosity, the hypocrite Brahman makes religious symbols on his body, and anoints his forehead with the paste of sandalwood leaves; but has a knife in the palm of his mind (to wound people and suck their blood, i.e., to rob them). He has deceit in his eyes, but fakes to be meditating like a heron, which focuses its sight only on one spot (to catch fish). He has the looks of a devotee of Vishnu, and pretends to be so absorbed in his worship as if he were taking his last breath. 1.

He closes his eyes for a long time before the idol to worship him, but has evil sight (thinking), and is lost in the thoughts of useless religious debates. Pause.

He washes his body every day, maintains two dhotis, performs all rituals, and pretends to live on milk only (and not eat any solid food). But it is his routine to rob people, for which he keeps the knife of his thoughts aimed at his prey. 2. He paints the symbols of Ganesh on his body and worships the stone idol. To perform his hypocritical worship, he sometimes stays awake through the night; even though his feet dance in worship, his mind is always plotting evil deeds. Such a dance by the lewd Brahman is not an act of religiosity. 3.

He sits on a deer skin, wears a necklace of basil, and puts a tilak (anointment) on his forehead (all religious symbols). He also wears a necklace of Rudra Tree seeds. But the lustful does not recite the Naam of God. 4. All such deeds of the blind individual, who does not recognize (make a connection with God, which is the basis of all souls, are worthless. One should recite the Naam of God in the Guru's shelter because one cannot follow the path leading to union with God without the Guru, oh, Baiyni. 5.1.
