However, one acquires everything (comforts) if Waheguru visits her heart; otherwise, all adornments go to waste, oh Waheguru. 3.

Word Meaning: Bayunt(u) = limitless (God). Dootur = very difficult to swim through. Avvagaun = birth and death cycle. Poora = the Perfect (Waheguru).

MEANING: I have acquired the immortalizing Naam of the limitless Waheguru from Satguru and recite it constantly. With the grace of Satguru, I will be able to swim across the world sea, which is otherwise very difficult to swim through, and my cycle of rebirths will be terminated, oh Nanak. 6.

is full of happiness and blissfulness. With His jewellike Naam on my tongue, all my discomforts have run away. 7.

Those who recite Waheguru's Naam become pious, and they find salvation for all their associates. The devotees, who listen to Waheguru's Naam and ponder on it, also get purified. 8.

ਊਪਰਿ ਬਨੈ ਆਕਾਸੁ ਤਲੈ ਧਰ ਸੋਹਤੀ॥ ਦਹ ਦਿਸ ਚਮਕੈ ਬੀਜੁਲਿ ਮੁਖ ਕਉ ਜੋਹਤੀ॥ ਖੋਜਤ ਫਿਰਉ ਬਿਦੇਸਿ ਪੀਉ ਕਤ ਪਾਈਐ॥ ਹਰਿਹਾ ਜੇ ਮਸਤਕਿ ਹੋਵੈ ਭਾਗੁ ਤਾ ਦਰਸਿ ਸਮਾਈਐ॥ 9॥

Word Meaning: Bunaiy = decorated. Tulaiy = underneath. Sohti = looks beautiful. Deh Dis = in all directions. Chumkaiy Beejul(i) = the glimmer of lightning. Johti = sees; shines. Bidays(i) = far away from home. Peeyo = Dear (Waheguru). Kut = where? how?

MEANING: The beauty of nature is everywhere – the sky looks attractive with the moon and the stars, and the earth underneath looks highly attractive with its mountains, rivers, and lovely flowers and vegetation, while the glimmer of lightning shines on my face from every direction (Waheguru enlightens every mind), oh my friend. How attractive the nature of Waheguru is!! But, forgetting the presence of its Creator, Waheguru, I am a foolish person who is looking for Him, far away from my home (heart). I do not realize that if one is fortunate, he can get absorbed in His Sight (can unite with Him), anywhere, oh Lord. 9.

Sohiya = became spiritually attractive. Sughun = densely populated (with noble qualities). Apaar = endless. Anoop = with unparalleled beauty. Ramdaas Pur = the city (gathering) of the devotees of Waheguru. Kusmul = sins. Sur = surovar; pool of water of Waheguru's Naam (the gathering of holy saints).

NOTE: Generally, Sikhs believe this holy Shabad refers to Harmandir Sahib (the Golden Temple in Amritsar), but it applies to all places where Waheguru's praise is sung.

MEANING: I have seen all worldly places, but none is like you (the gathering of holy saints where Waheguru's praise is sung). You are so attractive spiritually because you have been put together by the Creator, Waheguru, Himself (with His blessings). The city of devotees of Waheguru is densely populated with noble qualities and is home to unparalleled spiritual beauty. All one's sins are washed away when he takes a dip in the pool of holy water of Waheguru's Naam recited in the holy gathering. 10.

MEANING: Like the rainbird which longs for the first drop of rain, one should love His Dear (Waheguru) with a pure mind, and long for Him as if one's life is dependent upon him. The rainbird does not care about the large amounts of water in the rivers, lakes, or pools; he searches tirelessly in forests for that first drop of rainwater. I am a sacrifice for the devotee who looks only for Waheguru with the dedication of the rainbird, oh Nanak. 11.

ਮਿਤ ਕਾ ਚਿਤੁ ਅਨੂਪੁ ਮਰੰਮੁ ਨ ਜਾਨੀਐ॥ ਗਾਹਕ ਗੁਨੀ ਅਪਾਰ ਸੁ ਤਤੁ ਪਛਾਨੀਐ॥ ਚਿਤਹਿ ਚਿਤੁ ਸਮਾਇ ਤ ਹੋਵੈ ਰੰਗੁ ਘਨਾ॥ ਹਰਿਹਾ ਚੰਚਲ ਚੋਰਹਿ ਮਾਰਿ ਤ ਪਾਵਹਿ ਸਚੁ ਧਨਾ॥ 12॥

MEANING: Waheguru has a beautiful mind, but the man cannot know His secrets; however, one can make a connection with Him through His devotees who deal in His limitless virtues. If one's mind gets absorbed in Waheguru, he gets deeply imbued in His love, and he acquires the eternal wealth of His Naam when he kills (controls) his capricious mind, which, like a thief, robs him of his virtues. 12.

Word Meaning: Naiyn = eyes. Bihalliya = miserable. Kern = ears. Naad(u) = Guru's Shabad. Moond(i) Ghaaliya = are plugged. Rusna = tongue. Til(u) Til(u) = in very small pieces (the size of the sesame seeds). Bisraiy = forgotten. Ghutiyaiy = lose strength.

MEANING: If I do not see the Guru, my eyes feel miserable, and my ears feel completely plugged without listening to the Guru's Shabad. I feel like cutting my tongue into small pieces if it does not recite Waheguru's Naam. I feel mentally weak every day when I forget You, oh my Waheguru. 14.

The man is just like the bumblebee, which gets trapped by the attractions of Maya and cannot free itself from its bonds. Is there anyone who can help me break my strong bond with Maya? Answer: There is only Waheguru who can break these bonds and connect the disconnected people with Him, oh Nanak. 15.

The Perfect Guru advises that one should attack these powerful enemies with the arrows of Waheguru's Naam to kill them. 16.

Waheguru gives the treasure of His Naam to the devotees whom He is overpleased with. The individuals who worship Waheguru never suffer spiritual death, oh Nanak. 17.

MEANING: People never serve (recite the Naam of) Waheguru, which purifies even the immoral. How far can one row the boat of his life while he is in love with the perishables which eventually become the source of his humiliation? How can one take comfort in something (Maya) which is unreal, like a castle in the sky, or is short-lived? I am a sacrifice for the devotees who are honoured in Waheguru's Court. 19.
