People churn yogurt to extract butter; once butter is fully extracted, the remaining liquid, called buttermilk, is of little use. The same thing goes for Maya; if it is churned (used) with God's Naam with every breath, it is useful like extracting butter, and that is what the holy saints do. The rest of the world churns (uses) it to enjoy sensual pleasures, so it is drinking the (spiritually) useless buttermilk (wasting away its precious human life), oh Kabir. 18.

MEANING: People are afraid of death, but I feel blissful at the thought of death because it is after death that one attains supreme bliss if he merges with God, oh Kabir. (Even though the supreme devotees are always spiritually connected with God when they are still alive, they are physically distinct, and have to see the suffering of the world; so, they do not enjoy complete bliss. See Kabir Sahib Sloak 181).

Even Kabir Sahib’s mother and his wife complained about his worship of Waheguru (See Bilawal Kabir Ji, Shabad 4, page 856 SGGS).

MEANING: Kabir Sahib compares low-caste people to turmeric, which has a yellow colour (which is considered to be less pure), and the high-caste people to quicklime (a chemical), which has a white colour (considered to be pure). Kabir Sahib says that a person who loves God can be "one" with Him only if he loses (rises above) both the colours, i.e., makes no distinction between the high and the low castes. 56.

ਕਬੀਰ ਹਰਦੀ ਪੀਰਤਨੁ ਹਰੈ ਚੂਨ ਚਿਹਨ ਨ ਰਹਾਇ॥ ਬਲਿਹਾਰੀ ਇਹ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਿ ਕਉ ਜਾਤਿ ਬਰਨੁ ਕੁਲੁ ਜਾਇ॥ 57॥

MEANING: The door of emancipation is so narrow that it is like one-tenth the size of a rye seed (has very stringent requirements for approval by Waheguru, and only a few people can go through that); but the man has an inflated ego because of which it feels like a huge elephant; so how can he go through that door, oh Kabir. 58.

ਕਬੀਰ ਐਸਾ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਜੇ ਮਿਲੈ ਤੁਠਾ ਕਰੇ ਪਸਾਉ॥ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਦੁਆਰਾ ਮੋਕਲਾ ਸਹਜੈ ਆਵਉ ਜਾਉ॥ 59॥

Kabir Sahib complains to God that some people suffer many personal hardships, like henna, to be approved by Him, but God does not even pay them any attention. 65.

NOTE: Guru Amar Dass Ji explains in a Sloak on page (947 of SGGS) that hard work (to acquire noble qualities) is certainly a good step in the direction to union with Waheguru, but hard work does not give them the right to unite with Him. It is with His benevolence that one merges into Him.

Word Meaning: Raat Jugaavun = stay awake at night (under the guidance of some unscrupulous guru). Some highly ignorant childless women go to the cremation ground, sit next to a burning pyre, and perform some witchery with two objectives in mind: all the children of the dead man would die, and she would have her own children. After reading some mantra given by the guru, she takes a nude bath, bakes roti, and eats that). Serpun = female snake. Aouturaiy = takes birth. Jaayay = offspring.

NOTE: As you can see from all these sloaks, disapproving of all other practices, Kabir Sahib puts emphasis only on God's Naam.

However, love for Waheguru is very difficult to maintain because there are so many attractions in the world that captivate one's mind. It is a risky game, like playing on a tall cross with no support once you fall from it. Once a devotee's mind becomes weak, and he falls for any sensual pleasure, all his previous hard labour to please Waheguru becomes null and void, and it will almost be impossible for him to earn God's trust again. 109.

there is no worry (about buying and cooking food), and the country is large, and so is your rule (because you can collect food from any house), oh Kabir. 168.

MEANING: The Guru is like the mother earth in terms of His patience, and is a source of all comforts for everybody. When some immoral person comes to his shelter with an honest mind, he leaves no negative impact of his bad character on the Guru, but only benefits in His company, oh Kabir. 210.

ਮਹਲਾ 5॥ ਕਬੀਰ ਚਾਵਲ ਕਾਰਨੇ ਤੁਖ ਕਉ ਮੁਹਲੀ ਲਾਇ॥ ਸੰਗਿ ਕੁਸੰਗੀ ਬੈਸਤੇ ਤਬ ਪੂਛੈ ਧਰਮਰਾਇ॥ 211॥

Word Meaning: Kaarnay = for (acquiring rice). Tookh = shells. Moohli = a dumbbell-shaped, big, and heavy wooden shaft, to beat shells containing rice. Koosungi = bad (harmful) company. Poochhaiy = questions.
MEANING: The company of the rice is very harmful for its shells because the shells are hit hard with a heavy wooden shaft to recover rice. Similarly, the company of the immoral is harmful to good people, and the Angel of justice questions them (punishes them) for the bad company, oh Kabir. 211.

ਨਾਮਾ ਮਾਇਆ ਮੋਹਿਆ ਕਹੈ ਤਿਲੋਚਨੁ ਮੀਤ॥ ਕਾਹੇ ਛੀਪਹੁ ਛਾਇਲੈ ਰਾਮ ਨ ਲਾਵਹੁ ਚੀਤੁ॥ 212॥
Naama Maya mohiya, kuhhaiy Trilochan(u) meet. Kaahay chheepou chhaayaylay, Ram na laavhou cheet(u). 212.

Trilochan Ji was expecting Namdev Ji to be meditating at some secluded place, but was highly astonished to see Namdev Ji stamping sheets for quilts. At this, Tirlochun Ji commented that Namdev Ji had been captivated by Maya, to which Namdev Ji responded in the following Sloak. Both Sloaks are written by Kabir Sahib to enlighten people.
MEANING: Namdev Ji has been captivated by Maya; otherwise, why would he stamp sheets, asks Trilochan. 212.

ਨਾਮਾ ਕਹੈ ਤਿਲੋਚਨਾ ਮੁਖ ਤੇ ਰਾਮੁ ਸੰਮ੍ਹਾਲਿ॥
(ਅੰਗ 1376)॥ ਹਾਥ ਪਾਉ ਕਰਿ ਕਾਮੁ ਸਭੁ ਚੀਤੁ ਨਿਰੰਜਨ ਨਾਲਿ॥ 213॥
Naama kuhhaiy Tilochuna, mookh tay Ram(u) smaahl(i).
(PAGE 1376): Haath, paaoun kur(i) kaam(u) subh, cheet(u) Nirunjun naal(i). 213.
MEANING: Namdev Ji explained to Trilochan Ji that one should keep God in mind at all times and recite His Naam with the tongue, but he must earn his living by working with his hands and feet while his mind is attached to God. 213.

ਮਹਲਾ 5॥ ਕਬੀਰਾ ਹਮਰਾ ਕੋ ਨਹੀ ਹਮ ਕਿਸ ਹੂ ਕੇ ਨਾਹਿ॥ ਜਿਨਿ ਇਹੁ ਰਚਨ ਰਚਾਇਆ ਤਿਸ ਹੀ ਮਾਹਿ ਸਮਾਹਿ॥214

Mehla 5: Kabira, humra ko nuhhi, hum kis hoo kay naah(i). Jinh(i) eh(u) ruchun ruchaaya, Tis hee maah(i) smaah(i). 214.
MEANING: Expanding on the above Sloaks of Kabir Sahib, Guru Arjun Dev Ji explains that man is all on his own – nobody belongs to him, and he belongs to nobody- everybody is responsible for his own deeds. So, one must help himself (earn his living honestly and recite Waheguru's Naam), but nobody should get deeply involved in Maya, as the man is perishable, and ultimately gets absorbed in God who created him, oh Kabir. 214.

ਕਬੀਰ ਕੀਚੜਿ ਆਟਾ ਗਿਰਿ ਪਰਿਆ ਕਿਛੂ ਨ ਆਇਓ ਹਾਥ॥ ਪੀਸਤ ਪੀਸਤ ਚਾਬਿਆ ਸੋਈ ਨਿਬਹਿਆ ਸਾਥ॥215॥

Word Meaning: Keechurr(i) = in mud. Aata = flour (extra wealth than needed). Aayo Haath = gain something. Peesut = while grinding. Chaabiya = chewed. Nibhiya = lasted.
MEANING: (Continuing with the idea in the above Sloaks, Kabir Sahib advises that) If one eats something (let us say almonds) during grinding, it is only that part of them which was his for sure; if the rest drops into mud, he cannot eat them, and they go to waste. Similarly, the only wealth that is useful to one is that which he uses over his lifetime; the rest goes to waste after his death as far as he is concerned. In other words, one should not be greedy and earn only that much wealth which he needs, oh Kabir. 215.

ਕਬੀਰ ਮਨ ਜਾਨੈ ਸਭ ਬਾਤ ਜਾਨਤ ਹੀ ਅਉਗਨੁ ਕਰੈ॥ ਕਾਹੇ ਕੀ ਕੁਸਲਾਤ ਹਾਥ ਦੀਪ ਕੂਏ ਪਰੈ॥ 216॥

ਕਬੀਰ ਲਾਗੀ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਿ ਸੁਜਾਨ ਸਿਉ ਬਰਜੈ ਲੋਗੁ ਅਜਾਨੁ॥ ਤਾ ਸਿਉ ਟੂਟੀ ਕਿਉ ਬਨੈ ਜਾ ਕੇ ਜੀਅ ਪਰਾਨ॥ 217॥

ਕਬੀਰ ਜੋ ਮੈ ਚਿਤਵਉ ਨ ਕਰੈ ਕਿਆ ਮੇਰੇ ਚਿਤਵੈ ਹੋਇ॥ ਅਪਨਾ ਚਿਤਵਿਆ ਹਰਿ ਕਰੈ ਜੋ ਮੇਰੇ ਚਿਤਿ ਨ ਹੋਇ॥219॥

Word Meaning: Chitvoun = think of.

MEANING: God does not do (respond to) whatever I think of, so what is the use of my thoughts (or imagination)? God does whatever He thinks of doing, and I could not have thought of that, oh Kabir. (God does not fulfil all your wishes, so it's no use having too many wishes). 219.

ਮ:3॥ ਚਿੰਤਾ ਭੀ ਆਪਿ ਕਰਾਇਸੀ ਅਚਿੰਤੁ ਭਿ ਆਪੇ ਦੇਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸੋ ਸਾਲਾਹੀ ਜਿ ਸਭਨਾ ਸਾਰ ਕਰੇਇ॥ 220॥

M:3: chinta bhee Aap(i) kuraayaysi, achint(u) bhee Aapay dayay. Nanak so salaaheen, jo subhna saar kuray. 220.

Word Meaning: Chinta = worries. Achint(u) = worry-free. Saar = looks after.

MEANING: (Continuing with the idea in the above Sloaks, the Third Master advises): It is Waheguru that causes worries in man's mind (so that the man may think of Waheguru, and recite His Naam), and bestows him with the worry-free high spiritual state (when he begins to recite His Naam). One should sing praise of Waheguru, who looks after the needs of everybody, oh Nanak. 220.

MEANING: The human body is like a jungle (which has many vices as its trees). The mind in the body is like an uncontrolled elephant intoxicated by its ego. The Divine Knowledge (God's Naam) is the weapon to control the uncontrolled mind-elephant, and a rare saint is the mahout (the man who holds the ankus while seated near his head) to guide the intoxicated elephant-mind. oh Kabir. (One needs some holy saint to guide him in life). 224.

Word Meaning: Kothri = wallet. Paarukh = judge; assessor. Gaahki = customer; devotee. Mehangay Moal(i) = with high price (offer of mind).
MEANING: God's Naam is like a priceless jewel, which must be preserved carefully in the wallet of one's mouth (tongue). One should open the wallet of his tongue only before a judge (who knows its worth). (Reciting God's Naam before a Maya-engrossed person is not appreciated by him). When a devotee, who knows the worth of God's Naam, comes to a holy saint, he offers his most valuable thing (his mind) to the saint to buy (acquire) the Naam, oh Kabir. 225.

ਕਬੀਰ ਰਾਮ ਨਾਮੁ ਜਾਨਿਓ ਨਹੀ ਪਾਲਿਓ ਕਟਕੁ ਕੁਟੰਬੁ॥ ਧੰਧੇ ਹੀ ਮਹਿ ਮਰਿ ਗਇਓ ਬਾਹਰਿ ਭਈ ਨ ਬੰਬ॥ 226॥

(In contrast, everybody feels sad when a devotee of God dies), oh Kabir. 226

MEANING: Like the twinkling of the eye, man's life is spent (goes away) by every moment. The Angel of Death announces his arrival aloud, but the man is still caught in the chains of his worldly affairs, oh Kabir. 227.

ਕਬੀਰ ਤਰਵਰ ਰੂਪੀ ਰਾਮੁ ਹੈ ਫਲ ਰੂਪੀ ਬੈਰਾਗੁ॥ ਛਾਇਆ ਰੂਪੀ ਸਾਧੁ ਹੈ ਜਿਨਿ ਤਜਿਆ ਬਾਦੁ ਬਿਬਾਦੁ॥ 228॥

Word Meaning: Praapti = acquirement. Likhiya Lilaat = forehead (fortune). Mookut(i) Pudaaruth = matter for emancipation; God's Naam. Uvghut Ghaat = very difficult path.

MEANING: God's Naam, which leads to emancipation, can be acquired only from the Guru, and because of the Naam, there is no impediment in the tough path of life to merge into God.

However, one connects with the Guru only if he has good fortune (by God) prewritten on his forehead, oh Kabir. 231.
