(PAGE 14). Moti ta mundar oosreh(i), ruttni ta hoh(i) jurraaou. Kustoor(i) koongoo agar(i) chundan(i) leep aavaiy chaou. Mut(i) daykh(i) bhoolaan veesraiy, Tayra chit(i) na aavaiy Naoun. 1. Hur(i) bin jeeou jul(i) bul(i) jaaou. Mein aapna Gur(u) pooch(i) daykhiya, uver(u) naahi thaoun. 1. Ruhaou. Dherti ta heeray laal jurrti, plungh(i) laal jurraou. Mohini, mookh(i) munie sohaiy, kuray rung(i) pusaou. Mut(u) daykh(i) bhoolaan veesraiy, Tayra chit(i) na aavaiy Naoun. 2. Sidh(u) hovaan, sidh(i) laayi, ridh(i) aakhaan aaou. Goopt(u), pergut(u) hoyay baiysaan, loak(u) raakhaiy bhaaou. Mut(i) daykh(i) bhoolaan veesraiy, Tayra chit(i) na aavaiy Naoun. 3. Sultan hovaan, mayl(i) lushkar, tukhut(i) raakhaan paaoun. Huqam haasul(u) kuree baiytthaan, Nanaka, subh vaaou. Mut(u) daykh(i) bhoolaan veesraiy, Tayra chit(i) na aavaiy Naoun. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Moti = pearls. Mundar = mansion. Ruttni = jewels. Jurraaou = inlaid. Kustoor = musk. Koongoo = saffron. Agar(i) = a tree with a very pleasant fragrance. Chundan = sandalwood. Leep = coating. Chaou = zest. Mut(u) = lest. Bhoolaan = Veesraiy = forget. 1. Jeeou = soul. Uver(u) = other. Thaaoun = place; shelter. Pause. Heeray = diamonds. Laal = rubies. Plungh(i) = bed. Mohini = attractive woman. Munie = a jewel that glows. Sohaiy = looks attractive. Rung(i) Pusaou = seductive behaviour. 2. Sidh(i) Laayi = in meditation. Ridh(i) = supernatural powers. Goopt(u) = hide; disappear. Pergut = appear. Bhaaou = love. 3. Sultan = rajah. Lushkur(i) = army. Tukhut(i) = on the throne. Haasul = acquire. Vaaou = worthless. 4.

MEANING: My mind burns (suffers badly) without remembering Waheguru. I have checked with my Guru; there is no other place (or situation) as comfortable (heavenly) as remembering Waheguru. Pause. If I could build a mansion of pearls with jewels inlaid in that and with a coating of agar, saffron, and sandalwood, and feel highly zestful to see all that, it will still be insignificant for me, because I am afraid that I may forget You, and Your Naam from my mind, oh Waheguru. 1.

If the whole ground under me, has a floor of diamonds and rubies, and my bed has pearls inlaid in it, and a mind-captivating beautiful damsel with her face glowing like a jewel, and with a seductive behaviour, is sitting on the bed, it is all worthless for me, because I am afraid that I may forget Waheguru to see all that (which I do not want to). 2. If I were an accomplished Sidh yogi in meditation, had the power to call all supernatural powers, and could appear or disappear as per my will, and the masses had love for me, even all that will be meaningless for me, because I am afraid that I may forget my dear Waheguru. 3.

If I were a king and had the command (authority) to raise a large army, sit on the throne, and issue orders to everybody, all of that would still be worthless for me, because I do not wish to forget my dear Waheguru under any circumstances, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Koat(i) = millions. Aarja = age. Peeun(u) = to drink. Apiyaaou = food. Goofaiy = in the cave. Bhee = still. 1. Nij Thaayayn = absorbed in self. Tumaayay = wish; longing. Pause. Kusaan = kill mercilessly. Kuttiaan = cut into pieces. Peesun(i) = in the grinding mill. Sayti = with. Bhusm = ash. Rul(i) = mix well. 2. Punkhi = bird. Saiy = hundreds. Asmaani = skies. 3.
Kaagud = paper. Munaa = 40 kg; 0.4 quintal. Keechaiy Bhaaou = show love. Mussoo = ink. Toat(i) = shortage. Laykhun(i) = pen. Chulaaoun = move; write. 4.
MEANING: The eternal and the formless Waheguru stays worry-free, absorbed in His own self. (Nobody knows the true worth of Waheguru). Listening to others, people describe Him in their own way, but only that individual acquires a longing for Him whom he exhorts. Pause. If I could live for multimillion years, and depended only on air as my drinks and my food (waste no time to prepare them), and locked myself in a cave so that I did not see the moon and the sun, and did not even dream about sleeping (and spent all that time to evaluate Waheguru), I still would not be able to find the greatness of Waheguru as to how large (powerful) His command (Huqam is). 1. (Some people torture themselves physically to please some deity with that belief in mind), If I kill myself mercilessly, cut myself into small pieces, grind myself in the grinding mill, or burn myself to ashes, I will still not be able to find the limit of the greatness of Waheguru as to how powerful His Huqam is. 2.

If I could become a bird, and fly to hundreds of skies, and be invisible to anyone, and did not have the need to eat or drink anything (and spend the whole time finding the limits of Waheguru), I would not be able to do so, no matter how hard I tried. 3.
If I had thousands of tons of paper to read about Waheguru, and foster love for Him, or if I had a similar amount of paper to write on, used air as my pen, and if there was no shortage of ink to write about the magnanimity of Waheguru, I would still not be able to describe His vastness and the power of His Command, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Siri Raag(u) Mehla 1: Laykhaiy boalun(u) boalna, laykhaiy khaana khaaoun. Laykhaiy vaat chulaayiya, laykhaiy soon(i) vaykhaaoun. Laykhaiy saah luvaayiyeh(i), purrhay k(i) poochhun jaaou. Baba, Maya ruchna dhoh(u). Undhaiy Naam(u) visaariya, na tis(u) eh(u) na Oh(u). 1. Ruhaou. Jeevun, merna jaayay kaiy, aithaiy khaajay kaal(i). Jithaiy beh(i) sumjhaayiyaiy, tithaiy koyay na chulliyo naal(i). Rovun vaalay jaytrray, subh(i) bunneh(i) pund praal(i). 2. Subh(u) ko aakhaiy buhout(u), buhout(u), ghutt(i) na aakhaiy koyay. Keemut(i) kinaiy na paayiya, kehn(i) na vudda hoyay. Saacha Sahib aik Tu, hoar(i) jeeyaan kaytay loe. 3. Neechaan undar(i), neech jaat(i), neechi hoon, ut(i) neech(u). Nanak(u), tinh kaiy sung(i) saath(i) vuddiyaan siyoun kiyya rees. Jithaiy neech smaaliun(i) tithaiy nedr(i) Tayri bukhsheesh. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Laykhaiy = in account; as per prewritten destiny. Vaat Chulayiya = journey of life; his way of life. Saah = breaths. K(i) = what. Baba = oh wise man. 1. Ruchna = creation. Dhoh = deceit; not forever. Eh(u) = Maya. Oh(u) = Waheguru. Pause.
Jeevun Merna = from birth to death. Jaayay Kaiy = after taking birth. Khaajay = about food. Kaal(i) = (all) the time. Jithaiy = where. Tithaiy = there. Pund Praal(i) = bay of paddy stalk; worthless. 2. Loe = worlds. 3. Neech = ignoble. Rees = comparison. Smaaiun = looked after. Bukhsheesh = kindness. 4.

MEANING: Blinded by the gimmicks of Maya, the man does not realize that its creation by Waheguru is deceitful (short-lived); He is so captivated by it that he forgets Waheguru's Naam, with the result that he neither enjoys the gimmicks of Maya forever, nor does he acquire Waheguru's Naam. Pause. (Man may be captivated by Maya, which is his natural inclination – but in reality, he has no independent control over his actions, which are predetermined by Waheguru for Him). So, all his talking, his eating, his lifestyle, his listening, his explanations, and the number of breaths he takes (his lifespan) are predetermined for him. There is no need to consult any learned person on these issues. (See Paurri 33 of Jap Ji). 1. From his birth to his death, the man eats (and enjoys life) all the time, but none of the luxuries accompany him where his deeds are explained to him (in Waheguru's Court). All the crying of his relatives at his death is useless to him. 2.
Everybody says that Waheguru's creation, the universe, is very large, and nobody says any less than the others; but nobody can determine the actual size of the universe (of Waheguru's largess), and simply by saying, it gets no bigger than its actual size. Only Waheguru is the eternal Master, while there are countless perishable worlds and the living beings. 3. Among the low-castes, I also belong to the low-caste – in fact, lower than the lowest, oh Nanak. I am from a lower caste and have no comparison with the higher castes. I know, You cast a kind sight where the low castes are looked after, oh Waheguru. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Lub(u) = gluttony. Koorru(u) = deceit; lies. Choohrra = ignoble. Moordaar(u) = usurping the rights of others. Per = of others. Ninda = vilification. Mul(u) = filth. Soodhi = entirely. Chundaal(u) = merciless; cruel. Rus Kus = enjoyable tastes. Aap(u) Salaahna = self-praise. Kerm = deeds. 1. Baba = Oh, wise man. Boaliyaiy = utter (words of praise for God). Put(i) = dignity. Ootum = superior. Say = those. Neech Kerm = with ignoble deeds. Pause. Rus(u) = habitually irresistible tastes. Rooppa = silver. Kaamun(i) = woman. Permul = fragrant. Vaas(u) = fragrance. Sayja = bed. Mundar = mansions. Ghut(i) = heart. Nivaas(u) = dwelling. 2.
Pervaan(u) = approved. Fikka = impolite; rooted in Maya. Vigoochna = suffer humiliation. Ajaan = ignorant. K(i) = what? Vukhaan = describe. 3.
Pullaiy = in possession. Smaayay = present. Sooaaliyo = beautiful. Nedri Baahray = devoid of Waheguru's kind sight. Raachay = absorbed; rapt. Daan = largess. 4.

MEANING: I possess only ignoble qualities and perform ignoble deeds, oh my Waheguru. I have dog-like gluttony, and deceitfulness is another ignoble quality of mine. I earn my living by cheating others and usurping their rights, which is like sucking their blood. Vilification of others is pure filth on my tongue, and merciless rage is the fire burning in my mind. Enjoying different tastes of food and self-praise are my contemptuous deeds, oh my Waheguru. 1. One should speak only those words which can earn him respect (in Waheguru's Court), oh wise man. Only those are superior who are considered so, in Waheguru's Court. The individuals with ignoble deeds have to cry there. Pause. Wearing of gold and silver, love for women, fragrance of flower-extracts, riding horses, enjoying the comfort of luxurious beds and big mansions, enjoying the tastes of sweets and meats, are all habitually irresistible habits of the man; so, with all such bad habits, where is the room for Waheguru's Naam in his heart? 2. Only those spoken words are approved in Waheguru's Court which earn one respect. One suffers humiliation in Waheguru's Court if his spoken words are impolite and cause hurt to others, oh my foolish and ignorant mind. Only those are noble people who are liked by Waheguru; what else needs to be said? 3.

Only those who have true wisdom, dignity, and wealth have Waheguru dwelling in their mind (are connected with Him). How much can you praise such devotees, and who else has a more beautiful mind than those? Those who are deprived of Waheguru's kind sight stay absorbed in Waheguru's largess rather than His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Uml = intoxicant. Guloala = nugget. Koorr = (attractions of) Maya. Dayvunhaar = the Donor; Waheguru. Mutee = in wisdom (thinking). Visaariya = forgot. Din Chaar(i) = four (a few) days. Sofiyaan = sane. 1. Sach(u) = eternal. Maan(u) = pride. Pause. Suraa = liquor. Goorr Baahra = without jaggery. Kheeva = intoxicated; in high spirits. Mehleen = in (Waheguru's) Palace. 2. Naaoun Neer = the Naam-Amrit. Sat(u) = high morality; service to mankind. Permul = fragrant. Vaas(u) = fragrance. Oojla = clean; pious. Ikk Daat = the single gift (Waheguru's Naam). Tiseh(i) Peh(i) = to Him (Waheguru). 3. Upvittar = unholy; immoral. Bhaavaiy = liked. Pervaan(u) = approved. 4.

MEANING: Attachment with the perishables (attractions of Maya) is such an intoxicant which Waheguru has given to all the living beings. For the enjoyment of a few days (a short time), the man forgets Waheguru in the middle of his love for the perishables. The lucid and the sane acquire Waheguru's eternal Naam in their mind, because of which they get connected with Him. 1. Believe in the eternity of Waheguru, worshipping whom one attains blissfulness, and arrives at Waheguru's Court with pride, oh Nanak. Pause.

Waheguru's Naam is such an eternal intoxicant which has no sugar as an ingredient. I am a sacrifice for all those who listen to it and describe it to (share with) others. Only that mind (human) is considered eternally intoxicated who gets room in Waheguru's Palace (gets connected with Him). 2. Waheguru's Naam is the best gift among millions, as the Naam-Amrit is that water with which one's face shines (his mind is purified), he acquires all noble qualities, high morality, and his body begins to give off sweet fragrance (of politeness and noble deeds). One should share his suffering only with Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts. 3. Why should one forget Waheguru, who has given us life and soul? All wearing and eating is unholy without His Naam. Only those individuals are approved in His Court who are liked by Him. Everything else is false (worthless). 4.5.

NOTE: The spelling difference for "Mehla" in this Shabad.

Word Meaning: Jaal(i) = burn; destroy. Moh(u) = worldly attachments. Ghus(i) Muss(u) = graze (grind) to make ink. Saar(u) = superior. Bhaaou = love (for God). Chit(u) = mind. Paravvaar = ends. 1. Neeshaan(u) = identification. Pause.
Chaou = zest; high spirits. Tikkay Nickleh(i) = foreheads anointed; honoured. Vaaou Doovaou = worthless talk. 2. Ikk(i) = many; countless. Salaar = chief; leader. Vakaar = worthless. 3. Bhaiy Tayraiy = being afraid of You; staying away from God. Ugla = much. Khup(i) = worthless efforts. Chhijjaiy = weakens. Khayh = dust. Ootthi Chulliya = leave the world. Koorraiy Nayh = short-lived love. 4.

MEANING: Write that account of deeds (perform those deeds) so that where such an account is required (examined), the identification of Waheguru's approval is with you, oh wise man. Pause. To do that, burn the worldly attachments, and grind them (destroy them completely) to make ink, and use your supreme (improved) wisdom (thinking) as the paper to write on. Use love for Waheguru as the pen, your deep mind as the writer, and write down the account of deeds to be performed as per the Teachings of the Guru. Write the Naam of Waheguru, His praise, and the fact that Waheguru's limits can never be known. 1.

Those who have Waheguru's Naam in their heart, attain the spiritual state in which they always feel blissful, zestful, and earn respect, and are honoured in Waheguru's Court. However, one acquires Waheguru's Naam only with His benevolence; otherwise, all talking about Him goes worthless. 2. Countless people are born, and many of them are known as chiefs, but all of them die (without attaining a high spiritual state). (With the Will of Waheguru), Some are born beggars, while some are born to have big courts (to rule). But the truth (whether one is a beggar or a ruler) is determined in Waheguru's Court. Everybody is worthless without Waheguru's Naam. 3.
Without making any connection with God, the man feels hugely afraid of worldly fears, and his bodily (and mental) strength weakens in worthless affairs. Even those known as Khans and Rajahs are seen to mix with the dust. All one's false (short-lived) attachments with the world come to an end when he leaves the world, oh Nanak. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Rus = enjoyable tastes. Saloanay = salty. Khut Toorsi = sour and tangy. Maarun = spices. Naad = Shabad (Waheguru's praise). Chhuteeh Amrit = the 36 accepted kinds of delicious foods. 1. Khooshi Khooaar(u) = destroying the enjoyment. Peerriyaiy = discomfort; suffering. Vikaar = vices; immoral thoughts. Pause. Rutta Pehnun = wearing red. Rutta = imbued. Soopaydi = white. Sat(u) = high morality. Neeli = blue. Siyaahi = ink = darkness (filth) of the mind. Kuda Kerni = finish; remove. Pehrun(u) = coak. Paiyr Dhiyaan = focus of mind with love. Kumebund = waste-band. Suntokh = contentment. Jobun = youthfulness; beauty. 2. Paakhur = saddles. Saakhut(i) = an adornment tied to the tail of a horse, which is connected to the saddle. Boojhun(u) = wisdom. Tayri Vaat = path leading to union with You (Waheguru). Terkush = quiver. Teer = arrows. Kmaan = bow. Saang = spear. Teghbund = scabbard. Goon Dhaat(u) = efforts to acquire virtues. Nayja = javelin. Put Siyoun Pergut(u) = appear (be approved) with honour. Kerm = benevolence. 3. Churrhna = riding. Pause. Mundar = mansion. Pervaar(u) = family. Bhaavsi = liked. Aakhun(u) = orders. Apaar(u) = beyond limits; useless. 4.

MEANING: (People work hard all their life to enjoy foods of different tastes), but a devotee, who listens to Waheguru's Naam, feels as if he has enjoyed all the salty tastes, and all the sweet tastes when he obeys the Teachings (Shabad) of the Guru (in Waheguru's praise). He enjoys the sour and the tangy tastes when he recites Waheguru's Naam with his tongue, and he enjoys all the spices when he sings His praise. He feels he has enjoyed all the 36 accepted varieties of food when he fosters love for the "One" (God) with His benevolence. 1. Eating anything else (without Waheguru's Naam), which causes discomfort in the body and generates immoral thoughts in the mind, kills one's joy and zest, oh, wise man. Pause. (People wear outfits of different colours either for religious reasons or otherwise, to please their minds), But a devotee, whose mind is imbued red with Waheguru's love, feels as if he is wearing a red outfit; and a devotee with high morality and with selfless service to humanity feels as if he is wearing a white (pure) outfit. If one kills the filth of the mind, he feels as if he is wearing a blue colour, and focusing one's mind on Waheguru's Feet (Naam) is like wearing a cloak. One's contentment is like wearing a waistband, and Waheguru's Naam is his wealth and youthfulness. 2. Wearing anything else (without Waheguru's Naam), which causes discomfort, and which generates evil ideas in the mind, kills one's joy and zest, oh, wise man. Pause. Comprehending the path leading to union with Waheguru is like riding horses with saddles and saddles of gold, and efforts to acquire virtues (by singing Waheguru's praise) are like wearing a quiver full of arrows, a bow, a spear, and a sword in a scabbard, for a devotee. Waheguru's benevolence toward me feels like the high-caste earning of respect in society and the playing of music with the throwing of javelins (like the salute of guns) in my honour. 3. Riding on anything else (without Waheguru's Naam), which causes discomfort in the body, and generates evil thoughts in the mind, kills the joy and zest, oh, wise man. Pause. Waheguru's Naam is the joy of home and mansions, and His kind sight is the family for a devotee. Only those of my commands that are approved by Waheguru are meaningful; any other order is beyond my limits. The True Lord does not consult anyone for His decisions, oh Nanak. 4. Sleeping (enjoying comfort) of any other type (without Waheguru's Naam), which causes discomfort, and generates evil ideas in the mind, kills the joy and zest, oh, wise man. Pause. 4.7.

Word Meaning: Koongoo = (pure like) saffron. Ruttna Kee = of virtues (Waheguru's Naam). Lalita = tongue. Agar(i) Vaas(u) = sweet fragrance (selfless service). Saas(u) = (politeness in the) beaths. Mookh(i) Tikka = (honour of) anointment on the forehead. Vigaas(u) = thrives. Oat(u) Mutee = with that thinking. Goontaas(u) = Waheguru. 1. Koorraiy = of the deceitful. Joar(i) = efforts. Pause.

Kmaayiyaiy = to earn. Peer = (Muslim) spiritual leader. Milaiy = come to visit. Naoun Sudaayay = famous. Shoomaar(u) = included. Laykhaiy Na Puvaiy = not accredited. 2. Thaapiya = established; exalted. Mayt = erase; dismantle. Pergut(u) = become famous. Akhund = eternal. 3.

Khayhoo = dust-like body. Jeeou = soul. Juliyaan = burned; destroyed. 4.

MEANING: The human body, which is pure like saffron (free from all vices), which recites Waheguru's Naam with its tongue, and which has sweet fragrance in its breaths (is very polite to others in its dealings), and has been anointed by the 68 holy places (has no filth of jealousy or deceit as if it has been washed away by the holy places) acquires the pure wisdom to sing praise of Waheguru, which is the source of all virtues. 1. Any other type of wisdom leads one's mind in many different directions (related to Maya). The efforts of a Maya-engrossed individual (to acquire Waheguru's Naam) are all hypocritical, even if he tries them hundreds of times. Pause. If an individual begins to worship Waheguru (or Allah), people may start calling him a "Peer", and the whole world may come to visit him (with their wishes to be fulfilled), and he may earn a good name to be included among the accomplished Sidh yogis, but, if his worship is not recognized in God's Court, all his efforts become worthless. 2. Nobody can undo the exaltation of the individuals who have been exalted by Satguru, because they have the treasure of Waheguru's Naam in their hearts, because of which they become famous. One becomes an eternal part of Waheguru by worshipping Him, and by obeying His Huqam. 3. One cannot guess what happens to his soul when the dust-like body of a Maya-engrossed individual becomes dust after death and mixes with the dust of the earth. All types of his wisdom get destroyed, and he cries hard when he leaves the world. One cannot imagine what happens to the individual in Waheguru's Court when he forgets Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.8.

Word Meaning: Veethraiy = spreads; preaches. Augunvuntee = with ignoble qualities. Jhoor(i) = cries in repentance. Loarreh(i) = wishes for. Vur = husband; Waheguru. Kaamni = woman. Koor(i) = fake ness; deceit. Toolhurra = crude raft. 1. Adoal = with firmness; carefree. Atoal = immeasurable. Pause. Maanuk Laal = pearls and rubies (noble qualities). Moti = pearls. Nirmula = pure. Kunchun Koat = fort of gold. Reesaal = source of all tastes. Paurri = ladder. Gurrh = fort. Kiyoun = how? Nihaal = blissful. Sur(u) = pool = sea = Saagur. Bohitho = ship. Jay = which; if. Oojli = clean; pure. Satsur(i) = gathering of holy saints. 3. Pooro = perfect. Soohavnay = attractive; dignified. Pooraiy = the perfect (omnipresent) Waheguru. Niraas = detached from worldly attractions. Taas = his.

MEANING: A virtuous woman (human) shares her virtues with (preaches them to) others, while the one lacking them simply cries in repentance. If she wishes to connect with Waheguru, she cannot do so through falsehood. The Maya-engrossed individual cannot have access to Waheguru, who resides far away on the other side of the sea of Maya (above its effects), and the individual has no boat or raft to swim across the sea to reach Waheguru. 1. My Lord (Waheguru) sits majestically (carefree) on His throne; a devotee, who has been made perfect (has acquired noble qualities like Waheguru) in the shelter of Satguru, acquires (gets connected with) the immeasurable Waheguru. Pause.

Waheguru's Palace is beautiful as if it is a fort built of gold, and which is full of priceless qualities of purity like pearls, rubies, and diamonds; and which is the source of all tastes. How can I reach the tall fort of Waheguru without the appropriate ladder? But one can be blissful (to get connected with Him) by focusing one's mind on the Guru, Waheguru. 2. The Guru, which is the source of Waheguru's Naam, is everything - the ladder, the boat, and the raft – He is also the ship in the sea of Maya. In addition, the Guru is also the holy river, a dip in which washes away all one's sins. If Waheguru wishes, He connects His devotees with a gathering of holy saints, which is like a holy pool, and a dip in which purifies the devotees. 3. Everybody says that Waheguru is perfect, and so is His throne where He resides. All places are holy with His presence, and with hope (faith) in Him, His devotees become detached from worldly attractions. If such devotees get connected with Waheguru, why would there be any loss in their noble qualities, oh Nanak? 4.9.

Word Meaning: Unk(i) Suhaylurriyaan = bosom (dear) friends. Sumruth = omnipotent. Kunt = husband (Waheguru). Augun = ignoble qualities. 1.
Joar(i) = under control. Shabad(u) = Naam. Pause. Sohaagni = married to (connected with) Waheguru. Raaviya = enjoyed the love of. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. Suntokh(i) = with contentment. Seegaariya = adorned with. Pir(u) = husband. Resaaloo = source of all tastes. 2. Koodruteen = powers. Daat(i) = largess. Sift(i) = praise. Ajaat(i) = low caste. 3. Sach(u) = Waheguru. Oopjaiy = appears. Soort(i) = awareness. Buchni = words. Bhuou Khaayay = kills his fears. 4.

MEANING: Everyone is under Your control, oh, the Creator (Waheguru). When we ponder on Your Shabad (in Your praise), we realize that there is no one else who has the ability to support us when You are there (to support us). Pause.
The True Lord possesses all virtues, and we possess only ignoble qualities. So, let all of us dear friends join with affection, and discuss the stories of the omnipotent Waheguru (sing His praise). 1. If we ask the devotees who are married to Waheguru (are connected with Him), with what qualities they have enjoyed union with the Lord, their response is that one must be adorned with the high spiritual state, contentment, and sweet language. Besides, one must listen to Guru's Shabad (and obey that) to get connected with the Dear Husband (Waheguru), which is the source of all enjoyable tastes in life. 2.
Nobody knows the countless powers, the unlimited gifts of Waheguru, and the countless living beings which sing His praise. Nobody has any idea about the countless forms and colours of the Lord, and His high and low castes. 3. Waheguru is present in every living being, and Waheguru appears in the heart of the devotee who gets connected with Him. If one acquires the awareness (becomes enlightened) with the Guru's Words (His Shabad), he is able to kill his worldly fears and earn respect in Waheguru's Court. The eternal Waheguru Himself connects His devotees with Him, oh Nanak. 4.10.

Word Meaning: Bhulee Suree = it was great. Oobri = salvaged. Ghuraah(u) = from home (the root). Doot = the five demons. Chaakri = in service as slaves. Vaysaah(u) = full faith in. Kulp = imaginary; not real (useful). Baad(i) = worthless. 1. Theeyaiy = become. Pause. Aakhun(u) = pleas to beg. Daata = provider. 2. Baaji = drama. Sunjogi = with predetermined union. Aiksay = one (family). Vijogi = separation. Bhaana = is liked by. 3. Vust(u) = thing (Waheguru's Naam). Vaysaahiyaiy = buy; deal in. Vukkhur = merchandise. Raas(i) = capital. Vunjiya = dealt in. Shabaash(i) = accolades. Puchhaansi = will recognize. Sauda = merchandise. 4.

MEANING: With full faith in Satguru, it was great for me that my haumein (selfishness and ego) was destroyed from my mind (from the root), and I was salvaged with His benevolence. Now, the five demons (lust, rage, worldly attachments, etc.) are serving me (are under my control). Realizing that religious debates carry no worth in Waheguru's Court, as He does not care about them, I have abandoned them as my imaginary (ill-conceived) beliefs. 1.

All one's worldly fears disappear when one gets connected with Waheguru. One cannot become fearless without being afraid for Waheguru in mind. The Guru's Sikhs stay absorbed in His Shabad in His shelter. Pause. There are countless people who beg for their needs, but there is only one Provider (Waheguru). It does not matter how many times people beg for their necessities, Waheguru fulfils the just needs of everybody, and there is never a shortage in His largess. However, one feels blissful (content) only when one enshrines Waheguru's Naam in one's heart, who has given us the body and the life. 2.

Like a dream, the world is a short-lived drama, in which the living beings are actors who complete their roles in a short time as per the Will of Waheguru. With the predestined union, they come together to become one family, while they leave the world with their predestined separation. Only what Waheguru likes happens, and there is nothing else anyone can do. 3. Guru's Sikhs deal in the eternal Naam of Waheguru, which becomes their eternal wealth. Those who deal in the eternal Naam earn accolades from the Guru, and Waheguru recognizes their true merchandise of His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.11.

Word Meaning: Dhaat(u) = metal. Phoon(i) = again. Sifti = worthy of praise; God. Gulaal = red like a rose. Gebura = dark; deep; never fading. Suntokhiyaan = the content. Aikaiy Bhaayay = love for the only "One." 1. Rayn(u) = dust of the feet. Mookt Pdaaruth = emancipator; Waheguru. Dhayn = Kamdhenu. Pause. Oochou Thaan = the high place (above the effects of Maya). Soohaavna = blissful. Mooraar(i) = Waheguru. Sach(u) Kerni = holy deeds. Aatum Ram = God. 2. Tribidh Kerm = deeds under the influence of the three effects of Maya. Undaysa = worries. Tirkooti = three effects of Maya. Chhootsi = get rid of. Sehj(i) = in a high spiritual state. Nedr(i) = kind sight. Mul(u) Dhoyay = wash filth of. 3. Vaas(u) = dwelling. Tiyaagaiy = abandon. Bulihaari Jaas(u) = offer to sacrifice. 4.

MEANING: Just like a metal which melts, and mixes uniformly with another metal having the same properties, a devotee, who sings praise of Waheguru, acquires the same qualities as Waheguru, and his mind is dyed with the deep red colour (which never fades) with Waheguru's love, and he merges with Him. With the recitation of the Naam of the "One" (Waheguru), the content devotees acquire Waheguru (His Naam) in their hearts. 1. Become humble like the dust of the feet of the holy men, oh my brother. The gathering of the holy saints is like the mythical cow, Kamdhenu, which is believed to grant all wishes, and one acquires the Guru (Waheguru's Naam) in the holy gathering and attains emancipation. Pause. The spiritual state above the effects of Maya is highly blissful, and so is the Palace of Waheguru; so, the devotee, with deeds of high morality and with love for Him, reaches the Door and the Palace of Waheguru (gets connected with Him) in that state. So, one needs to teach (purify) his mind in the shelter of the Guru by pondering over Waheguru (His Naam). 2. To fulfil his hopes, the man performs deeds under the influence of the three effects of Maya, but suffers from worries. So, how can one rise above the effects of Maya to attain a high spiritual state where he can enjoy real bliss by connecting with the Guru? One recognizes the dwelling (presence) of Waheguru in his own heart in that state when he washes away the filth of his mind with His kind sight. 3. One's filth of his evil thinking does not come off without the Guru, and he cannot implant Waheguru's Naam in his heart. So, abandoning all other hopes, one should ponder only on the Guru's Shabad. I am a sacrifice for the devotee who "sees" Waheguru, and "shows" Him to others, oh Nanak. 4.12.

Word Meaning: Dhrig =reprehensible. Dohaagni = ditched by husband; disconnected with Waheguru. Kullur Kayri = of saltpetre. Kundh = wall. Ehinis = day and night. Dheh = collapse. Theevaiy = happens. 1. Moondhay = oh, young woman. Sheengar = adornments. Dhoyee = shelter. Khooaar(u) = humiliation. Pause. Soojaan(u) = wise; know-all. Kirsan = farmer. Dherti = field (of heart). Saadh(i) = make suitable. Daan(u) = donation; seeding. Nuou Nidh(i) = the nine treasures. Neeshaan(u) = stamp of approval. 2. Jaan(i) = recognize. Chujj(u) Achaar(u) = manners; character. Undhulay = blind. Goobaar(u) = darkness. Chookyee = ends. 3. Chundun = sandalwood. Anaaya = brought. Maang = central part. Sundhoor(u) = vermillion. Choa = extract of flowers. Paan = betel-leaf wrap. Kupoor = camphor. Adummbur(u) = decorations for show off. Koorr(u) = false; worthless. 4. Rus = tastes. Bhogun = to enjoy. Baad(i) = useless = Vikaar. Bhaydiyaiy = pierced.

MEANING: The living of the woman (human) who is robbed of her good qualities due to her love for worldly attractions, and as a result of which she is disconnected from God, is reprehensible. She is like a wall of saltpetre, which can crumble at any time, day or night. There is no comfort without Guru's Shabad, and one's suffering does not go away without union with Waheguru-Husband. 1. What is the use of any adornment without the (Waheguru) husband, oh young woman? You cannot find shelter at Waheguru Door or at His court, where you will suffer humiliation due to your falseness. Pause. Waheguru is omniscient and is a great farmer who never forgets His responsibilities. First, He prepares the field of His devotee's heart with noble qualities to make it suitable (for His Naam to sprout), and then He seeds His Naam in there. When Waheguru's Naam, which is like the nine mythical treasures (source of all comforts), sprouts in the devotee's heart, he receives Waheguru's stamp of approval with His benevolence. 2. What kind of (pathetic) manners does a woman have who, knowing well that there is no comfort without Waheguru's Naam, still does not make any connection with Him? Engrossed in Maya, the man lives in complete darkness in the realm of spirituality, and the blind man forgets Waheguru. His cycle of births and deaths never gets broken, and he suffers humiliation due to his rebirths. 3. Such a man is like the bride who buys sandalwood extract, adorns herself immensely with the extract of sandalwood and flowers, with camphor and saffron, and puts vermilion in the central part of her hair, and chews wraps of betel leaves. But all the big show of her adornments goes to waste if her husband does not like her. 4. All one's enjoyments of different tastes in life, and all his adornments are worthless unless his mind is pierced with Guru's Shabad to look dignified in Waheguru's Court (to be honoured there). Those women are highly fortunate who love their Waheguru-Husband, oh Nanak. 5.13.

Word Meaning: Soonjeen = empty. Duraavni = scary; frightening. Jeeou = soul. Bhaayay Bulundi = burning fire (of life). Vijhvi = put out. Dhooun = smoke. Punchay = the five (demons). Roonnay = cried. Binsay = destroyed. Doojaiy Bhaayay = with love for sensual pleasures. 1. Moorray = oh, foolish. Saar(i) = by remembering. Mohni = captivating. Mootthi = robbed. Pause. Doobidha = in indecisiveness. Puch(i) Viroadh = opposition. Kerm(i) = with benevolence; fortune. Nirodh(u) = unattached. 3. Kaaraiy = deeds. Pullaiy = acquire. Nur = man. Paiyndha = robe of honour. 4.

MEANING: The dead body, after the soul leaves it, becomes frightening to everybody. The fire of life, which was alive in the body, is put out, and no smoke (sign of life) is visible. All five demons (lust, greed, rage, etc.), which enjoyed sensual pleasures, do cry in suffering as their enjoyments are destroyed. 1. You are being robbed of your noble qualities by the captivating Maya of selfishness, ego, worldly attractions, and your pride, oh, the foolish man. So, (to protect your noble qualities), recite Waheguru's Naam remembering His virtues. Pause. Those who forget Waheguru because of the fire of desires in their mind, and work hard to acquire worldly comforts, suffer in that fire. Only those who are protected by Satguru attain salvation; the others are robbed of their good qualities through their dealings in worldly affairs. 2. (At the time of death) All one's love and affection for the perishables, and his enmity and opposition against others, come to an end. His worldly affairs exhaust (end), and his attachment to Maya and the resulting rage become dead. It is with the benevolence of Waheguru that one comes to know the reality and gets fully detached from the world in the shelter of the Guru. 3. One acquires Waheguru's Naam by following the path of truthfulness (high morality with Waheguru's Naam at heart) with the advice of the Guru. Such a devotee neither dies nor takes rebirths (becomes immortal by merging into Waheguru). Such individuals become (spiritual) leaders and are honoured in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 4.14.

Word Meaning: Munoor = burned (brittle) iron. Augun = ignoble qualities. Laagoo Bhuyyay = on the attack. Vujaavaiy Toor = play loud music; make much noise; begin to prevail. Bhermaayiyaiy = misled in misbeliefs. Doobhida = indecisiveness (to choose between Waheguru and Maya). Poor = groups. 1. Turhou = swim across. Boojhiya = realized; made a connection with. Pause. Soocha = pure. Raati = imbued. Dayhoori = body. Sooaaou = taste. Nihaaliyaiy = see; cast. Taaou = heat of the womb. 2. Puvna = air; gases. Tirbhuvun = three-dimensional (solid); universe. Nirmul = clean; pure. Theeyaiy = becomes. Put(i) = dignity. 3. Saach(i) = with the Naam. Suntokhiya = contented. Punch Bhoot = the five demons. Bhaiy Ruttay = imbued in love-filled fear. Taah(i) = of those. 4.

MEANING: Without the Guru's Shabad, huge groups of people (countless people) are misled by the attractions of Maya and drown in its sea because of their indecisiveness. Man's body burns in the fire of desires (which are not always fulfilled) to become cheap like dirt, and his mind becomes like burnt (brittle) iron (he loses his morality and patience). His ignoble qualities attack him like an enemy, and the falsehood (lies and deceit) begin to prevail. 1. Swim across the sea of worldly attractions by focusing on Guru's Shabad, oh my mind. Those who do not realize Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru die and are reborn again, and again. Pause. The human body is considered pure, with Waheguru's eternal Naam enshrined within it. Such a body (man) is imbued in Waheguru's love-filled fear, and the tongue enjoys the taste of His Naam. Waheguru casts kind sight on such an individual, who never suffers the heat of the womb again (is never reborn). 2. Waheguru created gases from Himself, which were converted into water, and then into solids to create the universe. Waheguru's Jot(i) (Soul) is present in every heart. The minds of those who are imbued with the love of the Guru's Shabad get purified, never to gather filth (of immoral deeds) again, and they earn respect everywhere. 3. Such devotees find full contentment with Waheguru's Naam, who always casts a kind sight on them. With their minds enlightened with Waheguru, their five demons also get imbued with the fear of Waheguru (and stay within their limits). All their ignoble qualities disappear, and the Guru protects their dignity, oh Nanak. 4.15.

Word Meaning: Sach = Waheguru (His Naam). Poor = large groups; countless people. Mun Hutth Mutee = thinking with persistence of mind. Boodiyaiy = drown 1. Aagaiy = future; death. Duou Julaiy = burning of fire; heat of womb; rebirths. Angoor = new sprouting (births). Oopjaiy = comes into being. Binsay = is destroyed. Bherpoor = fully present. MIllavhi = connects. Hudoor(i) = near; present. 2. Summlaan = remember. Visaarayoun = forget. Dhunee = Lord. Nivaar(i) = removing. 3. Tirbhuvun = three-layered universe. Aakaar = size. Chaanun = enlightenment. Suntokhiya = made content. Jeeou = soul; life. Pind = body. Paas(i) = in; with. 5.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam, which is realized by acting on the Advice of the Guru (by pondering on His Shabad), is the ship to ferry across the sea of Maya, which one should recite to find (attain) salvation. But, because of their ego, countless people are born, and countless of them die. Those who use the persistence of their mind (have no love for God, but rely on rituals), drown in the sea of Maya, while those who realize Waheguru with the grace of the Guru, swim across. 1.
One cannot swim across the world-sea and attain blissfulness without the Guru. I pray to the Guru that He protect me (against the attacks of Maya) in whatever way He deems appropriate, as I have no one else to go to. Pause. When I look into the future, I see the heat of the womb (rebirths) for most, while the new births are following them. Waheguru is present in everybody, and it is He from whom everybody comes into being, and who destroys them. Waheguru is not far away; He is close to us (lives in every heart, which is His dwelling). He Himself connects people to Him through the Guru. 2.
I wish to remember You with every breath, and never forget You, oh Waheguru. In the shelter of the Guru, as the Lord appears more and more, in my mind, I drink the Amrit of His Naam. 3. Waheguru, who has created this world in the form of a three-layered universe, can be realized when the Guru enlightens one's mind, while it is all darkness of Maya for the Maya-engrossed foolish. Even though the Supreme Light (Waheguru's Soul) is present in every heart, one realizes it only with the advice of the Guru. 4. Those who make a connection with Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru must be praised. One's mind is enlightened with the noble qualities of Waheguru, because of which, he merges into Him. One's life and his body are controlled by Waheguru, and His Naam is the source of all contentment, oh Nanak. 5.16.

Word Meaning: Vayla = time; opportunity. Eh = this; human life. Jub Lug = as long as. Jobun = youthfulness. Tub Lug = till then. Dayh = body. Dheh(i) Dhayri = collapses into a pile. Khayh = dust. 1. Laiy Laaha = earn the benefit. Ghur(i) = Waheguru's Palace. Nivri = is removed. Haumein Bhaah(i) = fire of selfishness and ego. Pause. Gundhun Gundhiyaiy = try to build a bond (with Waheguru). Bhaar(u) = load of books. Trishna = appetite for (fire of) worldly attractions. Ehinis = day and night. Uglee = very much. Vikaar(u) = of vices. Oh(u) = God. Atoalvaan = immeasurable. Keemut(i) Saar(u) = find worth. 2. Lakh = hundred thousand. Siyaanup = smartness. Milaap = meeting with people. Dhuraapiya = find contentment. Suntaap = suffering. Chhoottiyaiy = get freedom from Maya; emancipation. Cheenaiy = analyze. Aap(u) = self. 3. Vaychiya = sold. Dhundholiya = searched. Khoaj(i) = search. Nihaal = blissful. 4.

MEANING: This (the human life) is your opportunity to meet (get connected) with Waheguru, oh my mind-friend. Your body (and mind to realize Waheguru) is with you only as long as you are young and have breath in it. Without acquiring virtues (by reciting Waheguru's Naam), your body will be worthless, as it will eventually collapse, and become dust, oh man. 1. Acquire the benefit (wealth of Waheguru's Naam), and go to your eternal home (merge into Waheguru), oh my mind. Sing praise of Waheguru's Naam (recite it with devotion) in the shelter of the Guru, whereby the fire of your haumein (selfishness and ego) will be put out. Pause. Many people try to comprehend and bond with Waheguru by listening to others and by reading and writing tons of books (without any love for Him). But they deeply suffer from their boosted ego, which is a serious disease, and have even greater desires for worldly attractions and immoral thoughts. Let alone bonding with Waheguru, by acquiring any bookish knowledge, such individuals cannot even comprehend the true worth of Waheguru, who is immeasurable, and who does not care about such knowledge. So, try to understand His true worth in the shelter of the Guru, oh my mind. 2.

If one uses millions of different kinds of smartness and is a part of a circle of millions of learned people, he cannot find contentment without the company (shelter) of the Guru, and suffers serious discomforts without Waheguru's Naam. One can attain emancipation only when one recites Waheguru's Naam and analyzes oneself (as to what one's real objective is and what type of qualities one has) in the shelter of the Guru. 3. I have sold my body and my mind, along with my head (wisdom), to the Guru (have lost claim on all my rights). I searched for Waheguru in the whole universe, but was blessed only to acquire Him when I searched for Him in Guru's shelter. My Satguru connected me with Waheguru, who is with me now (has appeared in my heart), oh Nanak. 4.17.

Word Meaning: Chinta = worry. Aas = wish. Pritpaalhi = nourish and raise. Laykhaiy = in account. Giraas = bite. NIrjaas(i) = test; decide. 1. Untar Laagi = fire of desires. Jul(i) Boojhi = burned to the end. Pause. Gut(i) = situation; condition. Shunk = doubts. Mur(u) = death. Unhud Shabad(i) = with the Divine Shabad = Waheguru's Naam. 2. Taas(u) = his; for him. Khurr(i) = take to. Pehnaayiyaiy = to honour. 3. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Shiv = Waheguru. Shakti = Maya. Trihu Goon = the three effects of Maya. Bundhi = bonded to. Dayhoori = body. Khayl(u) = plays; enjoys. Vijogi = separation; disconnection. Munmukh(i) = Maya-engrossed. Luhhaiy = acquires. 4. Bairaagi = with love (for Waheguru). Ghur(i) = in its own place; peaceful. Muhha Rus = supreme taste. Bhogvaiy = enjoy. Bhookh = appetite; desire. Bhee = again. 5.

MEANING: One's mind gets convinced (about the omnipresence of Waheguru) when he recites His Naam, oh my soul (mind). By acquiring the Divine Knowledge in the shelter of the Guru, one's internal fire (of worldly desires) is put out. Pause.

(Being connected with Waheguru), Such a devotee has no worries about death, and does not care if he lives any longer (to enjoy worldly attractions). He is confident that Waheguru nourishes all living beings and that everyone's number of breaths and their needs for food are in His account (He ensures all of that). When Waheguru dwells in one's heart with Guru's grace, one becomes confident that Waheguru makes His decisions as He chooses. 1. Divine Knowledge, which is highly blissful, is acquired by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. One realizes his internal situation (the presence of Waheguru within) when he surrenders to the Guru, clears all his doubts (with full faith), and kills the fear of death. 2. One's haumein is destroyed by acquiring the Divine Knowledge (Waheguru's Naam). Those who have Waheguru's Naam on their tongue are taken to Waheguru's Court, where they receive the robe of honour. I am always a sacrifice for those who serve the Satguru. 3.

I see the combination of Waheguru and Maya (worldly attractions) everywhere (Maya is the creation of Waheguru). The human body is bound to the three effects of Maya, so whoever comes to this world plays their part to enjoy the worldly attractions. (With the love for Maya), Those who are disconnected from Waheguru suffer from His separation and cannot unite with Him. 4. But, the mind, which is imbued with the love-filled fear of Waheguru, stays in itself (does not wander any more), and enjoys the great taste of the Divine Knowledge (union with Waheguru) and never experiences the appetite for worldly desires. When a devotee kills his mind (his desires), he merges into Waheguru, and never suffers again, oh Nanak. 5.18.

Word Meaning: Lobhiya = greedy. Lobhaan(u) = engrossed in greed. Bheejaiy = get imbued. Saaktaa = Maya-worshippers. Doomut(i) = immoral thinking. Aavun Jaan = coming and going; rebirths. Gooni-Nidhaan(u) = the source of all virtues; Waheguru. 1. Goomaan = pride. Servur(u) = pool (of Naam-Amrit). Pause. Kookur = dog; doglike. Koorr(u) = falsehood. Puchaiy Puchaa(u) = burns (suffer badly). Ghuno = immense. Khoolhaan = pulverize. Soobhaan = amazing. 3.
Aiythaiy = here; in this world. Dhundh Pitaayiyaiy = perform worldly affairs. Sach(u) Likhut(u) = Waheguru's written Huqam. Saunvda = serves. Kerni = performance of (noble) deeds. Perdhaan(u) = main. Neeshaan = identification; approval. 4.

MEANING: The minds of the Maya-engrossed people do not get imbued in the Guru's Shabad, and due to their immoral thinking, they continue to take births and die. (Like those people) you are also engrossed in Maya out of greed, oh, my foolish mind. But one can realize Waheguru, which is the source of all virtues, in Satguru's shelter. 1.

To earn respect in Waheguru's Court, get rid of your selfishness, ego, and your pride, and serve the Guru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru, and is a pool of all virtues, oh my mind. Pause. Recognize the wealth (great worth) of Waheguru in the shelter of Satguru, and recite His Naam day and night. Acquire (enshrine) Waheguru's Naam in your heart in the holy congregation of the saints (Satguru), and enjoy all the comforts and all the great tastes of life. Those who are given Waheguru's Naam by Satguru serve Waheguru (recite His Naam) day and night. 2.
The vilifiers of Satguru lie about Him, and are like dogs (which bark at everyone), as a result of which they suffer badly in the fire (of jealousy). Lost in their misbeliefs, they suffer immensely, and the Angel of justice pulverizes them (punishes them severely). The vilifiers of Satguru never enjoy peace, while Guru's Sikhs enjoy amazing bliss. 3.
The man performs Maya-related tasks here (in this world), but only they are approved by Waheguru, who obeys His Huqam (Will) (even while performing worldly affairs). Performing deeds as per the Teachings of the Guru is the main objective for the man, and such a devotee serves the Guru and Waheguru and becomes their friend. With the benevolence of Waheguru, the devotee who never forgets Waheguru's Naam receives the stamp of His approval, oh Nanak. 4.19.

Word Meaning: Til(u) = very short time. Kiyoun = how. Put(i) = respect. Ja = with which. Ugun = fire (of desires). 1. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Saar(i) = remember. Khin = Pul = very short moment. Tay Jun = those. Virlaiy = rare; very few. Pause. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. Soorti = the subject of focus (God). Soort(i) = focused mind. Sunjog(u) = union. Hinsa = cruelty. Gut(u) Guyyay = ran away. Sehsa = worries. Soag(u)

= grief. 2. Kaaya = body. Kaamun(i) = (loyal) wife. Bhogunhaar = one who enjoys (Waheguru). Nayh = love. Chullunhaar = perishable. Ruveh(i) = enjoys. Sohaagni = married; beloved. Sayj = bed. Bhutaar = husband. 3. Chaaray Ugun(i) = the four fires: cruelty; attachment; greed; and rage. Nivaar(i) = remove. Mur(u) = kill worldly desires. Pergasiya = blooms. Aghaayay = contentment. 4.

MEANING: I feel a deep affliction of the mind if I forget my Dear (Waheguru) for even a short moment. To earn respect in Waheguru's Court, one needs to enshrine His Naam in one's mind. One acquires noble qualities in the shelter of the Guru due to which the fire of his worldly desires is killed, and he enjoys blissfulness. 1.

So, remember Waheguru's Virtues (sing His praise) day and night, oh my mind. But there are very few such individuals who do not forget Waheguru for even a moment. Pause.

If a devotee focuses his mind on Waheguru (His Naam) with full devotion, he gets united with Waheguru, and his soul merges into the Supreme Soul; his cruelty and haumein vanish, and he never suffers from worries and any grief. Satguru unites (connects) the devotee with Waheguru, who gets Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his heart with the grace of Satguru. 2. One should not have love for the perishable to satisfy one's sensual pleasures. (So, rather than enjoying worldly pleasures), if I make my body an obedient wife of Waheguru, then Waheguru will enjoy union with me (His Naam will be enshrined in my heart). With Guru's grace, such a devotee becomes married to Waheguru (gets connected with him), and the Waheguru-Husband comes to the bed of the devotee's heart. 3. Make Satguru your friend, and with His grace, sprinkle the water of Naam-Amrit on the four fires (of cruelty, attachments, greed, and fury) smouldering in your mind, and kill your desires. Then you will notice that the lotus of your heart will bloom (your mind will be enlightened), you will be fully contented with the Naam Amrit, and will be united with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.20.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam and sing His praise with the Advice (Shabad) of the Guru, oh my dear friend. One's mind is tested on the scale, which assesses one's virtues against those required for union with Waheguru, and one is approved for the union only if one meets the required standard. Nobody can determine the spiritual worth (transcendence) of such a devotee who has met the requirement of pearl-like noble qualities for the union. 1. The diamond-like Waheguru's Naam is in the control of the Guru (only He can implant the Naam in the devotees' hearts). One can meet with the Guru in the gathering of the holy saints when he needs to sing Waheguru's praise day and night. Pause.
When a devotee's mind is enlightened by the Guru, he acquires the wealth of Waheguru's Naam, and the desire of his fires is put out like water puts out the common fires; also, the devotee becomes so humble as if he were the slave of Waheguru's slaves. The evil Angel of death cannot touch him, as he swims across the world-sea (to merge into Waheguru). 2. Imbued in the love of Waheguru, the Sikhs of the Guru do not like falsehood (hypocrisy and love for the perishables) while the Maya-engrossed hypocrites do not like Waheguru (His praise), because their thinking power is maligned by their hypocrisy. The devotees, who are imbued with Waheguru's love, get connected with Satguru and get absorbed in Waheguru with His Naam. 3. The unfathomable, and the never-changing Waheguru is present in every heart, and His Naam is the devotee's eternal wealth. With the Naam at heart, the devotee acquires all the noble qualities like those of pearls, rubies, jewels, and diamonds. When the diamond-like Waheguru becomes benevolent to someone, he acquires His Naam in his heart in the shelter of Satguru, oh Nanak. 4.21.

Word Meaning: Bhermaiy = by roaming around. Bhaayay = fire (of desires). Vijhvaiy = put out. Disuntar Days(u) = faraway lands. Dhrig(u) = reprehensible. Vays(u) = religious outfit. 1. Nivaar(i) = remove. Kuhhiya = Words; Shabad. Maar(i) = kill.
Pause. Nirmoal(u) = priceless. Put(i) = respect. Liv Laayay = meditate. Aap(u) = haumein (selfishness and ego). Sulul = water. 2. Chatiyo = remember. Su = that. Augun(i) = bad qualities. Bhaytiyo = meet with. Puchaiy Puchaayay = suffers badly. Kaudi = a worthless cowrie shell. Budlay = in exchange. 3. Rus(i) = with affection. Pooray = perfect. Soojaan = wise. Oojlay = shiny; unblemished. Dhoon(i) = sound (of Waheguru's praise). Neeshaan(u) = identification. 4.

MEANING: (Some people leave their homes and roam around with the belief that they will get detached from worldly attractions. But Guru Nanak Sahib has the firm belief that one's fire of desires is never put out, no matter how far away lands he roams around. Leading life with such misleading beliefs is reprehensible, and so is wearing such religious garbs. No other worship than the Teachings of Satguru is approved (by Waheguru). 1.
Put out the fire of your desires in the shelter of the Guru, oh my mind. One's haumein (selfishness and ego) are destroyed when Satguru's Shabad is cultivated in his mind.
Pause. The mind, which has Waheguru's Naam enshrined in it, becomes invaluable and pure like a pearl and earns respect everywhere. One acquires Waheguru's Naam in the holy gathering when he meditates on Guru's Shabad; (by doing so, he gets rid of his selfishness and ego, attains blissfulness and merges in Waheguru like water in one container mixes fully with water in another container. 2. Those who do not remember Waheguru cannot rid themselves of their ignoble qualities, and as a result, they continue to take rebirths. Likewise, those who do not seek Satguru's shelter suffer badly in the world-sea. The human life of such individuals, which is otherwise priceless, is wasted, as if traded for a worthless cowrie shell. 3. Those who seek the shelter of Satguru with love and respect are truly wise (acquire His wisdom). One swims across the sea of Maya in the shelter of Satguru and is respected in Waheguru's Court. The sound of Waheguru's praise arises in the mind of such devotees, which becomes their identification to be honoured in Waheguru's Court, where their faces radiate due to their purity of mind, oh Nanak. 4.22.

Word Meaning: Vunuj Kurhou = deal in. Vunjaariyo = businessmen. Vukkhur = merchandise (of Waheguru's Naam). Smaal(i) = keep safely; deal carefully. Vust = the valuable matter. Visaahiyaiy = purchase. Nibhaiy Naal(i) = lasts till the end. Shah(u) = the Master. Soojaan = know-all; 0mniscient. Laiysi = will. Smaal(i) = examine. 1. Chit Laayay = deep from the heart; with full devotion. Hur(i) Jus(u) = Waheguru's praise. Shuhou = Master. Putiyaayay = pleased. Pause. Sach(u) Raas(i) = wealth of Waheguru's Naam. Khota = impure; dishonest. Phaahi Phaathay = snared; trapped. Mirg = deer. Ghuno = immense. Nit = always. 2. Poataiy = into the treasure. Jaat(i) = high status. Seejhus(i) = successful. 3. Ruttiyaan = imbued. Bhaar(u) = burden (of immoral deeds). Bherm(u) = doubts. Laaha = benefit; wealth. Ugla = much. Nirbhuou = fearless. 4.

MEANING: (Everybody in this world is a businessman (a dealer) where Maya and Waheguru's Naam are the merchandizes to deal in; some people deal in Maya (worldly attractions, while a few in Waheguru's Naam. Guru Nanak Sahib advises that) one should be careful in dealing in the merchandize so that it lasts with him till the end (is carried over to the next world). The Master in the next world is omniscient and will examine it well. 1.

So, recite Waheguru's Naam with full devotion, and deal in His praise, which will accompany you to Waheguru's Court, and He will be pleased to see I, oh brothers. Pause.

How can those who do not have the wealth of Waheguru's Naam enjoy comforts? The mind and the body of those who engage in dishonest dealings also become dishonest, and like a snared (trapped) deer, they suffer immensely and cry always. 2.

The dishonest cannot have Waheguru's glimpse and cannot find room in His treasure (cannot merge into Him). Such people enjoy no status or respect and cannot succeed (find approval in Waheguru's Court). The dishonest deal in dishonesty, lose respect in Waheguru's Court, and stay in the birth-death cycle. 3.

One should teach (educate) their mind to sing Waheguru's praise with the Guru's Shabad. Those who get imbued in the love of Waheguru's Naam have no burden of immorality and no misbeliefs, oh Nanak. With the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, one earns the great wealth that the fearless Waheguru takes dwelling in his heart. 4.23.

Word Meaning: Jobun = youthfulness. Phoollrra = flowers. Natthiurray = visitors. Din Chaar(i) = for a few days. Pubbun = a brush by water with clover-like leaves, and which dies down quickly without water. Kayray = of. Put = leaves. Dhul(i) Dhool(i) = by wilting away. Joommunhaar(u) = perishable. 1. Rung(u) Maan(i) Laiy = enjoy the beauty. Nuohoola = fresh; at peak. Thukkay = exhausted; near the end. Chola = gown; body. Pause. Rungulay = colourful. Jeeraan(i) = graveyard. Humbhi = me too. Vunjaan = will go. Doomni = indecisive. Jheeni Baan(i) = softly. 2. Kee Na = why not? Goriyay = oh, the wise woman. Soyay = news. Lugi Aaveh(i) = will travel to. Sahooray = in-laws' home; next world. Nit = every day; always. Payiya = this world. 3. Sooti = unaware; negligent Virti Sunnh(i) = break-in during the day. Guntthrri = bale; bag. Chulli = leave with. Bunnh(i) = in possession. 4.

MEANING: Like the pubbun brush of which the leaves wither away quickly in absence of water, wealth, youthfulness, and flowers are like visitors for a short time. 1. (Forgetting Waheguru), One can enjoy the luxuries of life for a short time only, as long as one is not old. Human life is short, and as one ages, they have no energy left to enjoy life's luxuries. (So, why not remember Waheguru to achieve eternal bliss)? Pause. Some friends, who enjoyed the luxuries of life (and did not remember Waheguru), are now lying dead in the graveyard. Now, I am crying softly (to myself only) that if I do not remember Waheguru and stay indecisive (do not make a firm choice between Waheguru and Maya), I will also meet the same fate (stay disconnected from Waheguru and end up in the graveyard). 2. Why don't you listen with your own ears to the news (of the fate of the people who ignore Waheguru), oh, the "wise" young woman? You cannot live in your parental home (In this world) forever; you have to go to the next world one day (so, remember Waheguru). 3. The woman (human being) who is unaware (of the consequences of forgetting Waheguru) in this world is like the one being robbed in daylight. She loses the bag of her noble qualities, and leaves this world with her bag (soul) full of ignoble qualities, oh Nanak. 4.24.

Word Meaning: Rusiya = source of all sweet tastes. Rus(u) = sweet tastes. Raavunhaar = one who enjoys. Cholrra = outfit; woman. Sayj Bhutaar = husband on the bed. 1. Rung(i) Rutta = imbued in love. Sahib = Lord. Bherpoor(i) = omnipresent. Pause. Maachhi = fisherman. Munkurra = the heavy iron balls to keep the net underwater. Laal = the red piece of meat used as bait. 2. Buhou Bidh(i) = in many different ways. Sukhiyay = oh, my friend. Laal(u) = beloved. Nit = always. Sohaagni = married to (connected with); fortunate. Haal(u) = (pathetic) condition. 3. Pernvaiy = prays. Baynti = request. Servur = pool; lake. Hus(u) = swan. Kaul(u) = lotus. Kuvviya = water-lily, a small flower that blooms in moonlight. Vigus(u) = feel blissful. 4.

MEANING: (Being omnipresent) Waheguru Himself is the source of all sweet tastes, Himself, the sweet taste, and Himself enjoys all the tastes. Likewise, He Himself is the wife, and Himself the husband, on the bed of her heart. 1. Full of love, my Lord is present everywhere. Pause. Waheguru, Himself is the fisherman, Himself, the fish, and Himself the net in the water. He, Himself, is the heavy iron balls (to keep the net under water, and Himself the bait for the fish. 2. Sunjum(u) = control on senses. Raakhay = guards. Kumul Bigsaiy = heart blooms. Madh(u) = honey (like sweet Amrit). Aasermaayi = oozes. 2.

Bees = twenty (ghurees; 8 hours). Suptaahro = week. Baasro = days. Sungreh(i) = accumulate. Teen(i) Khorra = the three stages of life (childhood, youth, and old age).

Kaal(u) Saaray = keep death in mind. Thus = ten (the four Vedas and the six Shastras). Atthaarmaiy = 18 (Puranas). Uprumpro = Waheguru. Cheenaiy = look for. 3.
MEANING: Why are you conceited about your wealth, oh foolish man? All your relatives, including your father, sons, wife, and mother (for whom you earn this wealth by working very hard), will be of no help at the end, oh foolish man. Pause.
If you make your mind a farmer, think of your body as a field, and plant the seeds of your noble deeds in there, irrigating the body field with the water of Waheguru's Naam, then His Naam will sprout in your heart (will make your mind His dwelling), and you will attain the spiritual state which is above the effects of Maya (will be salvaged) oh my friend. 1.
(Your true friend is Waheguru), So, pull out the evil thoughts about sensual enjoyments from your mind, get rid of them and recite His Naam with full devotion. When hard labour to recite Waheguru's Naam (to obey His Will), and your control on senses becomes your guards (against the attacks of Maya), your lotus-like heart will bloom, and honey-like sweet Amrit of Waheguru's Naam will ooze out in your mind. 2. MEANING: Like a farmer, if you make your deeds (thinking; mind) the field, plant the seeds of Satguru's Shabad (your deeds should be according to the Guru's Teachings), in the mind filed, and irrigate the field with the splendour of Waheguru with full faith, His Naam will sprout in your mind field, and you will know what paradise and the hell (connection with, and separation from Waheguru) are, oh my friends. 1.

Never, ever believe that you can realize Waheguru just by talking (about Him). (With this misbelief), The man wastes away his precious human life in his conceit of Maya and the fame of his handsomeness. Pause.

The human body is full of the mud of vices, and the mind is like the frog in that mud, which does not understand the worth of the lotus growing in that mud (Waheguru, which is present in the same body). The bumblebee hovers around the lotus flower with the musical sound of its flapping wings, but the frog does not recognize the worth of the lotus flower (Satguru delivers His Teachings, but the frog-like mind does not listen to that). Actually, how can the Maya-engrossed human mind understand that until Waheguru exhorts him to do so? 2.

With his mind imbued in his love for Maya, Satguru's Shabad is simply words in the air for the man. But those who remember the "One" (Waheguru) with devotion, love simply a kind sight of Waheguru. 3. A Muslim observes the thirty Rozas, and offers prayers five times a day with the belief that his name will be dropped from Satan's list (he will be a good human in the eyes of Allah, and will be approved by Him); but all such holy deeds are spiritually worthless because) he is still imbued in Maya, and accumulates it. The only way to realize Waheguru (Allah) is to tread the path of righteousness, oh Nanak. 4.27.

Word Meaning: Maula = bloom; Lord. Mauliya = cause to bloom; energize. Aab(u) = water. Khaak = dust. Dhunn(u) = great; praiseworthy. 1. Kartaroun = from Waheguru. Pause. Bhuriyaiy Paayi = when the time is up. Paayi = an old device to measure time. A standard bowl with holes at the bottom was placed on the surface of water. Water would enter the bowl through the holes, and when the device was full, it would sink. The time for the bowl to sink was called a "Ghurri" which was equal to 24 minutes. 2. Aap(u) = one's selfishness and ego. Tujiya = abandoned. Adhaaro = made the basis. Sirjunhaaro = the Creator (Waheguru). 3. Goar = grave. 4.

MEANING: Everybody has to die one day; so, you must be afraid of Waheguru (Allah), oh Moolah (because only His Naam can destroy the fear of death). Pause.
The Lord (Waheguru), who has bonded water and dust together to create the world, which is the source of all life, and which causes the world to bloom and energizes it, is great. (So, sing His praise). 1. Only then you are a true Moolah or a Qazi, if you enshrine Allah's Naam in you heart. Word Meaning: Sooaan = dog (greed). Sooaani = female dog (hopes and desires). Bhulkay = everyday. Bhaunkeh(i) = bark; make loud demands. Buyyal(i) = early morning. Koorr(u) = falsehood; lies. Chhoora = big knife. Moottha = robbed. Moordaar(u) = belongings of others. Dhaanuk Roop = contemptuous lifestyle. 1.
Put(i) = Master. Pund(i) = advice. Kerni Kee Kaar = deeds worth performing. Biggraiy Roop = with twisted thinking. Bikraal = frightening. Adhaar(u) = support; basis. Pause. Ninda = vilification. Joheen = keep an evil eye. Neech Sunaat(i) = ignoble; of low caste. Chundaal(u) = ruthless. 2. Phaahi Soort(i) = (have) thinking to trap (people to deceive them). Malooki Yays = garb of holy people. MEANING: (Please be kind to me; I have to make the following confession, oh my Waheguru.) I lead a contemptuous lifestyle as I have doglike greed, and female-doglike hopes and desires in my mind, which make loud demands starting early in the morning, every day. I have the knife of deceits and lies in my hand (to defraud others), and am being robbed

(of my good qualities, if I am left with any) by my evil deeds of robbing others. 1. I do not listen to the advice of the Master (Satguru) and do not perform the noble deeds as per His Advice. I have become frighteningly twisted in my thinking. My only hope and my only basis are Your Naam, which salvages the whole world. Pause.
I am so ignoble and so low-caste that I maliciously criticize (vilify) others day and night, and keep an evil eye on the homes of others. (On top of those), Ruthless lust and fury keep occupying my mind. Such is my contemptuous lifestyle, oh my Waheguru. 2.
Even though I don an outfit of holy-looking men, trapping others in my net of deceit, is always on my mind. Indeed, my mind is a home of treachery, and I deceive the world. I consider myself very smart, but carry a heavy load of sins, oh my Waheguru. 3. I am hugely ungrateful to You as I do not acknowledge Your favours and benevolence for me. I am such an evil thief, that I cannot show you my ugly face. After deep thinking, I, Nanak, have realized that I am an ignoble, and such contemptuous is my lifestyle, oh Waheguru. 4.29.

Word Meaning: Soort(i) = awareness. Vihoona = without; devoid of. Raah(u) = lifestyle. Laykha Ikko = the same account (rules). 1. Kaahay = what for? Chuturaayi = play smart. Layvaiy = takes away. Dhill = delay. Pause. Roh(i) = anger. 2. Boal-Vigaarr = bad-mouthed. Boal = words. Toleh(i) Toal = weigh; evaluate. Kerni = (noble) deeds. Baajhoun = without. Prunvut(i) = suggests humbly. Aap(u) Puchhaanaiy = self-analysis. Boojhaiy = understands; unlocks (the secrets). 3.

MEANING: Waheguru has infused awareness in every living being – albeit to varying degrees and in different forms – and there is no one without awareness. However, everyone chooses their lifestyle based on the level of awareness they have. Waheguru keeps account of everybody's deeds using the same principles, as a result of which, they come to the world and leave (take birth, and die). 1. Why do you use your smartness to acquire worldly things, when Waheguru gives His gifts, and takes them away according to your deeds, and does not delay even for a short moment in doing so, oh man? Pause.

Everybody belongs to Waheguru, and Waheguru belongs to them, so how can the Lord be angry at them? Waheguru is forgiving, so if He does get angry at someone, it is for their benefit, because even he has been created by Him. 2. On the other hand, we (humans) are bad-mouthed, and we harm our interests by our foul language, whereas the munificent Waheguru evaluates us with His kind sight. An individual whose performs noble deeds (as per the Advice of the Guru), has perfect (noble) wisdom (to attain high spirituality); whereas, there is always a loss in spirituality) without noble deeds. 3.
Who is considered to be a giyani (enlightened devotee), asks Nanak humbly. (The answer is) That a giyani is a devotee who analyses the self (to determine his objective in life and his strengths and weaknesses) and connects with Waheguru. Such a giyani ponders on Guru's Shabad, and is approved in Waheguru's Court. 4.30.

Word Meaning: Daana = wise. Beena = know-all. Muchhuli = fish. Nikseen = come out. Phoot(i) Muraan = explode (squirm) to die. 1. Mayo = boatman; fisherman. Jaali = net. Smaali = remember. Pause. Bhepoor(i) = omnipresent. Hudoor(i) = in Your presence; under Your eye. Mookkur(i) = deny; disavow. Kumm(i) = deeds. 2. Biyya = other. Dur(u) = shelter; support. Pind(u) = body. Paas(i) = under control. 3. Munjh(i) Miyaano = in the middle. Koodrut(i) Kuray = with powers. Jahaano = world. 4.

MEANING: You are perfectly wise, omniscient, and are vast like an ocean (source of all life), whereas I am like a small fish in that ocean, so how can I find Your limits, oh Waheguru? (Like the water in the ocean), You are present everywhere I look, and I squirm to death if I get out of You (forget You), oh Waheguru. 1. I am not aware of any fisherman and his net; I simply remember You whenever I am in trouble, oh Waheguru. Pause.
I think of You as being somewhere far away, while You are omnipresent; so, whatever I do is known to You. You watch all my deeds, but (ignorant me), I deny all my evil deeds. I do not perform deeds according to Your expectations, and do not recite Your Naam. 2.
(But I know one thing for sure), I have no other shelter to go to. I consume only that which You give me. I humbly admit that my body and soul are controlled by You. 3.

You are close to some, while far away for some others, and also in-between for some. You have created the world with Your powers, and watch and listen to everything (that we do). I accept (obey) everything that happens according to Your Huqam (Will), oh Nanak. 4.31.

Word Meaning: Keeta = created. Kuhaa = where; how? Maan(u) = take pride (credit). Dayvunhaaray = the Provider. Daan(u) = gifts. Bhaavaiy = whether. 1.
Sach(u) = eternal; source of all virtues. Kucha = weak in qualities. Pause.
Rookh Birkh = trees; vegetation. Aaraaou = adornment. Dhaat(u) = basic nature. Bhaaou = affection; intent. Phul = result; reward. Likhiya = in fortune. 2.
Kundh = wall; body; human character. Raaj(u) = (the mind architect). Alooni = without salt (distasteful). Fikka Saad = tasteless. Aanay = (if He) brings (causes). Raas(i) = successful. Shabaash(i) = praise; approval. 3.

MEANING: The eternal Waheguru is the creator of the universe, and is the source of all virtues, and he likes virtues (purity of mind) only. The Maya-engrossed individual is blinded by its attractions and lacks virtues; as a result, he is totally unreliable. Pause.
So, how can the man created by Waheguru (and with many weaknesses) take credit for something? All gifts (natural resources) are controlled by Waheguru. What can the man, who was created by Waheguru, acquire by saying (wishing for that)? It is completely up to Waheguru to grant or not to grant him his wishes. 1. The Guru has adorned the world with trees and vegetation, and they are named according to their nature (sweet, sour, bitter, fragrant, distasteful, medicinal, or harmful, etc.). Like the trees, the man bears different kinds of flowers and fruit (good or bad nature) as per his predetermined intent (by Waheguru). One sows the seeds of his choice and reaps their resulting rewards. 2.
One's mind is the architect of his body house. If the mind (thinking) is impure, so will be his body (his deeds). With tasteless thinking, his deeds will also be tasteless (useless for others, and for himself too). One achieves spiritual success only if Waheguru is kind to him (he recites His Naam). One earns no praise in Waheguru's Court without His Naam, oh Nanak. 3.32.

Word Meaning: Achhull = undeceivable. Chhalaayi = try to deceive. Ghaaou = wound. Kataara = big knife. Lobhi = greedy. Jeeou = mind. Tulpulaiy = gets tempted. 1.
Tayl = oil (Waheguru's Naam). Deeva = lamp (to enlighten the mind). Pause.
Pothi = book of Teachings of the Guru. Kmaayiyaiy = lead life by. Bhuou = fear of God. Vutti = wick. Sach(u) Boojhun(u) = comprehending Waheguru (making a connection with Him). Aan(i)= by bringing. Julaayiyaiy = light up. 2. Baania = Guru's Shabad. 3. Baisun(u) = seat. Baanh Loodaayiyaiy = walk with confidence; feel blissful. 4.

MEANING: Maya is so undeceivable (its attractions are so strong) that no one can deceive it (resist the temptations of its attractions) even if he tries very hard to do so. No knife can cause any wound to it (weaken its effects). Actually, it is Waheguru's Will that man's greedy mind becomes weak in its temptations. So, we have to live by His will. 1.
Just like an oil lamp cannot be lighted without oil, one's mind cannot be enlightened without the oil of Waheguru's Naam. Pause. To light up the lamp of mind, one should lead his life according to the Teachings of the Guru, which should be his reading of the Puranas; and a love-filled fear of Waheguru in his mind should serve as the wick of the lamp. Comprehending Waheguru (making a connection with Him) enlightens the lamp-like mind of the devotee. 2. (Waheguru's Naam) Is the oil to light up the lamp of the mind? One connects with Waheguru when one's mind is illuminated by the lamp described above. Pause. Everybody comes and goes in this temporary world. One feels blissful only when one enshrines the Guru's Bani (His Shabad) in one's mind. 3.
One should serve humanity in the world, to earn a seat in Waheguru's Court (to be approved by Him) when he can walk with pride (feel blissful), oh Nanak. 4.33.

Word Meaning: Houn = I. Sayveen= serve (obey Him). Bhaayay = with affection (respect). Mun Kaamna = mind's wishes. Boojhayay = enlightens. Mun Chindya = as wished. Vur(u) = blessing. Sehj = stage of mental contentment. 1. Chaakh(u) = to taste. Tikh = thirst (of desires). Pause. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Ruv(i) ruhhiya = present. Chooka = ends. Hirdaiy Kumul(u) Purgaasiya = lotus of mind blooms (state of bliss). Nirmul(u) = clean. 2. Virlay = rare (only a few). Mumta = attachment with family. Oordhaar(i) = acquire (embed) in mind. Bulihaarnaiy = offer to sacrifice life. Ch-houn joogeen = in all the four eons (in all times). Ukhoot(u) = inexhaustible. Upaar(u) = limitless. 3.
Moh piyaas. = thirst of attachment. Oodaas(u) = detached. Nudri = kind sight. Goontaas(u) = source of all noble qualities (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: There is only one Supreme Being who can be realized with the Guru's grace.
Taste the sweet juice of Waheguru's Naam to quench your thirst of desires, oh my mind! Those who have tasted it by the grace of the Guru acquire the state of bliss where the mind wanders no more. Pause. I serve (obey) my Satguru with undivided attention, and with respectful love for Him. The one who has been enlightened by the Guru realizes that the Guru is the real holy place where all one's wishes are fulfilled, and one receives the blessings of one's choice. He can have any of his wishes and desires fulfilled. (However, when one has that kind of faith in the Guru), he requests begs) for Waheguru's Naam only; and recites the Naam, whereby he acquires mental contentment. 1.
Those who serve Satguru acquire the Naam-treasure. The sweet taste of Waheguru's Naam fills their mind, and their selfishness and ego are eradicated. The lotus of their mind blossoms, and they find contentment. Waheguru appears in their clean (pure) mind, and they are honoured in His Court. 2. There are only a few who serve Satguru in this world. They overcome their selfishness, ego, and affection for their family, and cleanse their hearts so that Waheguru may reside there. I am a sacrifice for those who keep Waheguru's Naam in their hearts (minds). Those, who make Waheguru's Naam - which is an inexhaustible and unlimited treasure - their sole support, find happiness and contentment in all the four eons (no matter what the eon is). 3.

Waheguru's Naam can be acquired only by the grace of the Guru, as a result of which one's thirst for worldly attachment is lost. When one's mind is imbued with Waheguru's Naam, he becomes detached from worldly attractions while still living in the family. I will gladly offer my life to those who keep Waheguru's Naam in their hearts. However, Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of all noble qualities, can be acquired only by Guru's grace, oh Nanak. 4.1.34.

Word Meaning: Bhaykh = religious garbs. Bhurmaayiyaiy = wander around (with the misbelief that one's mind gets rid of evil thoughts by running away from home). Kupt(u) = dishonesty. Mehl(u) = palace (residence). Vishta = crap (Maya). 1. Oodaas(u) = state of no desires. Sach(u) Sunjum(u) = control on desires. Pause. Jeetiya = won (controlled). Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Mut(i) = wisdom; thinking. Ghuraiy meh(i) = inside the house (mind). Mayl(i) = union. 2. Isturiyaan = women. Nuv Khund = the nine regions of earth (the whole earth). Phir(i) phir(i) = again and again. Joni paahay = takes different life forms. 3. Haar(u) = necklace. Kuntth(i) = (around the) neck; on the tongue. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Til(u) = (the size of) a sesame seed. Tmmayay = desire. 4. Bhaavaiy = likes. Theeyaiy = happens. Uver(u) = anything else. 5.

MEANING: If a man dons religious garbs and wanders around (to give the impression of an ascetic), but harbours dishonesty, and other evil thoughts in mind, never has access to Waheguru's residence (cannot be "one" with Him); to the contrary, he dies a spiritual death, and gets engaged again in the crap (Maya). 1. So, rather than leaving home, get detached from worldly attractions while living with the family, oh my mind! Such a person remembers Waheguru all the time, has control over his senses, and is enlightened by the Guru. Pause. He controls his mind by the Guru's Shabad and attains a high spiritual level and noble wisdom while still living with his family. If we remember Waheguru all the time, He Himself connects us with the Guru, who in turn connects us with Waheguru. 2. If an individual enjoys millions of women and rules the whole earth, he will not have real happiness without the Guru and will keep taking rebirths. 3. The individuals who wear Waheguru's Naam necklace around their neck (recite Waheguru's Naam all the time) by taking refuge in the Guru, have absolutely no worldly desire left in their mind, and they do not care for supernatural powers even though they beg them for acceptance. 4. Only those things take place in the world which Waheguru wishes, and nothing else can be done (to thwart them). (Guru) Nanak says that He is a staunch devotee of Waheguru and survives only by reciting His Naam. I beg Waheguru to kindly give me His Naam so that I may have mental contentment in His affection, oh Nanak. 5.2.35.

Word Meaning: Surkaar = governance. Kaar Kmaavni = do the deeds. Ghut(i) = in the house (heart). Purgut(u) = appears. Vusaiy = resides. Soyay = fame. Vichhurreh(i) = separated. Nij = own. Ghur(i) = house (heart). Vaasa = residence. 1. Ram (u) = a name for God. Uver(u) = other. Nirmula = clean. Milaava = united. Pause. Doojay = other (Maya). Bhaayay = in love. Aavaiy jaayay = comes and goes (reborn). Vertda = operates; serves. Smaayay = present (mixed uniformly). Duyaal = kind. 2. Jotki = fortune teller. Vaad = debate. Boodhi = wisdom. Bhuvee = turned around. Boojhyee = figure out. Lobh = greed. Vikaar(u) = evil thoughts. Lukh chauraasee = 8.4 million (Hindus believe that there are 8.4 million life forms in the world). Bhurmday = go through 8.4 M life forms. Khooaar(u) = suffer humiliation without any success. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten, predestined. Kmmavna = perform deeds. Maytunhaar(u) = eraser; remover. 3. Gakhrri = difficult. Aap(u) guvaayay = get rid of selfishness. Paarus(i) = with touchstone. Pursiyaiy = by touching. Jot(i) = Waheguru's light. 4. Bhookha = hungry. Mut = warn against doing something. Siri = created. Adhaar(u) = support (food). Nirbhou = fearless (Waheguru). Dyaal(u) = kind. Saar = looks after. Mokh = freedom from Maya. Dooaar(u) = door. 5.

MEANING: Everybody belongs to Waheguru, who governs the universe (nobody is outside His control). (So, the only thing to do is) to act on Guru's advice, as a result of which Waheguru appears in one's heart. The individuals who harbour Waheguru in their hearts become like Him (Sachay), and their fame becomes real (everlasting). Those who are connected to Waheguru never experience separation from Him because Waheguru makes their heart His dwelling. 1. I have no faith in anybody other than You, oh my Waheguru. A pure (pious) Satguru is a manifestation of Waheguru, who can be realized through His Shabad. Pause. Waheguru Himself connects the individuals with Him who use Guru's Shabad (sing Waheguru's praise) to connect with Him, and they always stay connected. There is no other way to realize Waheguru – people who use other means are never successful in attaining freedom from Maya and take rebirths again and again. God alone looks after everyone, and He alone is omnipresent. The individual, whom Waheguru is kind to, recites His Naam by taking refuge in the Guru, and becomes "one" with Him. 2. Pundits and fortune tellers read the holy books only to participate in discussions and debates. Their twisted wisdom and intelligence cannot find Truth because their minds are full of greed and evil thoughts. They go through the 8.4 million life forms and suffer in vain. However, they cannot be fully blamed because they are doing just what has been predestined for them, and which nobody can erase. 3. It is very difficult to serve Satguru because one has to get rid of his selfishness and his wisdom first, and offer his head (thinking) to Satguru. If one seeks shelter of Satguru and obeys His Shabad (Teachings), he realizes Waheguru, and all his service to the Guru becomes successful. By touching the touchstone (taking shelter of Satguru), one also gets transformed into a touchstone (becomes like Him), and his soul becomes "one" with the Light Source – Waheguru. But one connects with Satguru only if it is predestined for him. 4. Do not ever cry (complain) about your hunger, and do not ever pray for food; Waheguru, who has created 8.4 million life forms, provides food to each and every one (without asking). The fearless Waheguru is kind and looks after everyone. But one realizes this fact only after taking the Guru's refuge, when he also gets rid of the shackles of Maya, oh Nanak. 5.3.36.

Word Meaning: Munniya = obeyed. Nij Ghur(i) = in one's own mind. Vaas(u) = residence. Goontaas(u) = source of all good qualities (Waheguru). Ruttay = imbued. Nirmlay = pure minds. Bulihaaraiy = sacrifice life. Hirdaiy = in the heart. Ghut(i) = in the heart. 1. Dhoor(i) = from the source (Waheguru). Mustuk(i) = (on the) forehead. Liv = concentrating mind. Pause. Suntou = oh, holy men. Nudr(i) Kur(i) = look carefully. Nicket = nearby. Bhrpoor(i) = filling the entire space; omnipresent. Puchhaniya = recognized. Hudoor(i) = present close by. Augoonvuntiyaan = having bad qualities. Baahray = without.; devoid of. Bin(u) = without. Jhoor(i) = repent. 2. Koorra = not real; short-lived. Ksoombh = a pretty flower that withers quickly (used as a metaphor for Maya). Binus(i) = vanishes. Thir(u) = stable. 3. Junum Pdaruth = objective of life. Chaytaiy = remember. Liv laayay = with deep concentration. Pug(i) khisyaiy = slipping of foot (time). Tthaur = rest; peace. Vayla = time. Huth(i) na Aavyee = lost moments cannot be recalled. Oobraiy = salvaged. Saytee = with. 4. Daykha Daykhi = copying (following) others. Hirda soodh = clean heart. Puyee thaayay = recognized; rewarded. Bani = language; conversation. 5.

MEANING: The minds of those who listen to Waheguru's Naam and then obey it quit wandering and find contentment. Following Guru's advice, they sing Waheguru's praise and realize Waheguru, who is the source of all the noble qualities. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam have clean (pure) hearts. I will gladly offer my life for them. Those hearts are enlightened which bear Waheguru's Naam. 1. Recite Waheguru's Naam to have a clean (pure) heart, oh my mind! Those who are predestined remain fully connected to Waheguru by following the Guru's advice. Pause. If you search carefully, you will find omnipresent Waheguru very close to you, oh devotees of Waheguru! Acting on Guru's advice, those who realized Waheguru always find Him around them. Those who possess noble qualities find Waheguru always residing in their hearts, while those who are devoid of noble qualities find Him far, far away from them (find Him inaccessible). Those who follow their mind lack all the good qualities, die a spiritual death, and repent. 2.

Those who listen to the Guru's Shabad and obey it, worship Waheguru with a focused mind. Because they are imbued in Waheguru's Naam day and night, their mind and body become clean. Maya has its big attraction, but it vanishes quickly like the Ksoombh flower, causing grief and crying. On the other hand, a man whose heart is enlightened with Waheguru's Naam finds eternal peace of mind. 3. Human life is a priceless gift (opportunity to realize Waheguru because no other life form is able to do so); if a man does not recite Waheguru's Naam with focused mind now, he will waste this opportunity (of human form), because he has to die eventually, and he will not find any room in Waheguru's Court (he will suffer the consequences). He cannot recall the missed opportunity and leaves this world repenting. But, whom Waheguru is kind to, gets connected with Him (by singing His praise with a focused mind), and finds salvation. 4. People do copy others (to serve Waheguru), but the followers of their mind do not understand the Truth. The service of those who cleanse their mind by taking refuge in the Guru is successful, and they find salvation. Those who sing Waheguru's praise and recite His Naam every day become "one" with Waheguru. (Guru) Nanak says the daily conversation of those who are connected with God revolves only around Him. 5.4.37.

Word Meaning: Ikk Mun(i) = with full concentration. Oojlay = gleaming (are honoured). Tit(u) = His. 1. Put(i) = dignity. Mul(u) Haumein = the filth of selfishness and ego. Pause. Doojay Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Vishta = crap (metaphor for Maya). Keerray = germs. 2. Suful(u) = successful. Bhaayay = (what Satguru) likes. Kool(u) = clan; associates. odhaaray = salvage. Dhunn(u) = worthy of respect. Rujaayay = as per His Will. 3. Aap(u) guvaayay = killing self-identity (selfishness and ego). Sachay = pure. Sach(i) = in the Pure Waheguru. Purvaan(u) = acceptable. 4.

MEANING: The faces of those who ponder on Guru's Shabad, and recite Waheguru's Naam with full concentration, gleam (due to the purity of their mind and they are honoured) in Waheguru's Court. Having been connected with Waheguru by their dedication, they always enjoy Amrit - the life sustaining Naam-water. 1. Those who obey the Guru's advice are always honoured, oh my friend! If we remember Waheguru all the time, the filth of our selfishness and ego is washed away. Pause. The follower of his mind does not realize the worth of Waheguru's Naam and thereby loses his respect. Because of their attraction for Maya, such individuals do not enjoy the taste of Waheguru's Naam. They are worms of crap (sensual pleasures), and fall into its trap, and get completely engrossed in Maya. 2. But those who follow the Guru's wishes (Teachings) become successful in life (find salvation). They also find salvation for their clan (the people who come into contact with them). Their mothers are praiseworthy who bore them. But, remember, only those worship Waheguru, whom He is kind to as per His own wish. 3. Those who act on Guru's advice, overcome their desires, and worship Waheguru with a pure mind, are pure inside and out, and become "one" with the Pure Waheguru. Those who act on Guru's advice, recite Waheguru's Naam are acceptable to (approved by) Waheguru, oh Nanak! 4.5.38.

Word Meaning: Raas(i) = capital; wealth. Vaapaar(u) = trading. Vukkhur(u) = merchandize. Adhaar(u) = support. Drirryaaya = reinforced. Utoot(u) = inexhaustible.

Bhundaar(u) = treasure. 1. Aalus(u) = laziness; indolence. Dhiyayay = ponder on, and recite (with concentration). Pause. Pakhund(i) = by faking. Doobidha = difficulty in choosing between Maya and Waheguru. Khooaar(u) = suffer in vain; be discomfited. Bibayk = knowledge; ability to analyze. Beechaar(u) = thinking. 2. Sayvuk = devotee. Ooridhaar(i) = implant in mind. Sounpay = offer. Dhuray = place. Haumein = selfishness; ego. Dhun(u) = praise worthy. Purvaan(u) = acceptable. J(i) = if. Kuday na = never. 3. Kerm(i) = through kindness (as a favour). Vin(u) = without. Lukh Chauraasee = 8.4 million (life forms according to Hindu belief). Tursday = dying to have something. 4.

MEANING: For the devotees, Waheguru's Naam is their wealth and capital; they seek the advice of the Guru to trade in the business (of Waheguru's Naam). They always praise Waheguru, which is their merchandize, and His Naam is their support. The perfect Guru makes sure that the Sikhs recite Waheguru's Naam repeatedly, which is an inexhaustible treasure. 1. Question your mind as to why it is so indolent, oh my friends! It should be reciting Waheguru Naam as advised by the Guru. Pause. If you seek Guru's advice, you will learn that unconditional love for Waheguru is His real worship. One cannot worship Waheguru simply by faking (hypocrisy). Duality of mind (indecisiveness to choose between Waheguru and Maya) leads one to worthless suffering (humiliation). An individual who has the ability to think and analyze will never be part of the group that engages in Maya and will never put on a false show of love for Waheguru. 2. Only a person who always keeps Waheguru in mind can be called a real devotee. He kills his selfishness and ego, and offers his mind and body to Waheguru. Such a devotee of the Guru, who never loses battle against the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachment, and ego), is praiseworthy and is acceptable to Waheguru. 3. One cannot realize Waheguru's Naam with his own efforts, no matter how hard he tries; only that individual internalizes it, whom God is kind to. All the 8.4 million types of living beings kill themselves (try very hard) to acquire Waheguru's Naam, but only those connect to Him whom He connects, Himself. You realize Waheguru only by Guru's grace, but once connected, you become "one" with Him, oh Nanak! 4.6.39.

Word Meaning: Sookh Saagur(u) = the sea (source) of comforts. Undin(u) = day and night. Sehjay = in the state of a stable mind. Smaayay = is absorbed. Ruchaiyy = get absorbed. Siyoun = with. Rusna = tongue. 1. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in love with the other (Maya). Surnayee = refuge. Luhhay = get; acquire. Pause. Maiyl(u) = filth (of evil thoughts). Nirmul = clean. Puchhaaniyaiy = recognize. Giyan = Divine knowledge; connection with God. Purchund = bright light. Ugiyaan = ignorance. 2. Munmukh = followers of their own mind (who have turned away from the Guru). Trishna = desires. Vikaar(u) = evil deeds. Bin(u) = without. Dhaatur = running around for Maya. Baaji = game (not reality). Pulch(i) = entangled. Oorvaar(u) = this (the near) side of the bank or shore. Paar(u) = the other side of the bank or shore. 3. Jup = recitation of some mantra to please some god. Tup = self-suffering to please some god. Sunjmi = control over sensual pleasures. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is the sea (source) of all comforts, but can be realized only by the benevolence of the Guru. Remember Waheguru's Naam day and night and enjoy the bliss of being "one" with Him. One should be internally connected to Waheguru and sing His praise with the tongue. 1. The world is suffering because of its love for Maya, oh my friend! But, by taking the refuge of the Guru, and by reciting Waheguru's Naam day and night, one can acquire all comforts (real blissfulness). Pause. A mind which has become pure by reciting Waheguru's Naam never gets filthy again. By taking refuge in the Guru, one recognizes the importance of the Shabad and is soaked in the life-sustaining holy water (Amrit) of Waheguru's Naam. The Guru lights up the bright lamp of Divine Knowledge in the devotee's mind by which the darkness of ignorance is dispelled. 2.

The followers of their mind are filled with the filth of haumein, desires, and other evil thoughts. Such filth cannot be washed away without Waheguru's Shabad, and the individuals suffer even after death. They are entangled in the short-lived attractions of Maya, and are not happy either on this side of the sea of Maya (this world) or on the other (next world). 3.

A person who seeks the Guru's shelter to remember Waheguru with full devotion is fully content and does not need any jup, tup or any special effort to control his senses. A real devotee of the Guru recites the Naam of Waheguru alone all the time. (Guru) Nanak also recites Waheguru's Naam, which is the support (provider) for all the living beings. 4.7.40.

Nanak Shabad(i) ruttay Hur(i) Naam(i) rungaayay bin(u) bhaiy kayhee laag(i). 4.8.41.

Word Meaning: Munmukh(u) = follower of his mind. Viyapiya = under the influence. Bairaag(u) = smitten by love. Oodaasi = detached. Cheenaiy = recognize; evaluate. Khoyay = lose. Durgeh(i) = Court. Ruttay = imbued. 1.
Ehinis(i) = day and night. Purjulaiy = burned (killed) completely. Ghur = heart. Pause
Kerm = (noble) deeds. Bigsaiy = blooms. Anund(u) = bliss. Nichund(u) = worry-free. Vuddaiy Bhaag(i) = with great luck. Sehj(i) = stability (purity) of mind. 2.
Sadhu = devotee. Soyee = that (person). Taamus(u) = ignorance; fire of desires. Moolay = even a bit. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Aghaayay = fully satisfied. 3.
Jin(i) Kinaiy = whoever. Phireh(i) = with mind turned away (not having faith in Guru). Rungaayay = coloured their mind (imbued). Laag(i) = attachment; affection. 4.

MEANING: The follower of his mind is so much under the influence of Maya that he does not foster any love for Waheguru, and cannot detach himself from Maya. He does not ponder on Guru's Shabad, as a result of which, he always suffers and loses respect in Waheguru's Court. One can get rid of his haumein by taking Guru's shelter, and once he is imbued in Waheguru's Naam, he enjoys eternal bliss. 1. You are wishing for material things day and night, oh, my mind. You can kill (get rid of) your worldly attachments completely by serving the Guru (obeying Him), whereby you will be completely detached from Maya while still living in the family. Pause. When one performs deeds as per the Will of the Guru, his mind blooms, and he enjoys bliss in Waheguru's (God's) love. He worships Waheguru day and night, and becomes worry-free by killing his haumein (selfishness). With good luck, he joins the company of holy men and realizes God with a pure mind, and enjoys bliss. 2. One is the real devotee, and has real affection for Waheguru, who has made his heart a residence for God. An individual who has overcome his selfishness does not suffer even a bit from the fire of desires. The Guru shows him the treasure of Naam-Amrit, which he drinks with great taste to his complete satisfaction. 3. Whoever realizes Waheguru does so only in the company of the devotees, which he finds by his good fortune and with his deep affection for Waheguru. But, the follower of his mind does not recognize the Guru, and spends his life in ignorance with haumein in mind. But without some respectful fear of God, there is no affection for Him to colour one's mind with Guru's Shabad; and his mind cannot be imbued in the love of the Guru and Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4. 8.41.

Word Meaning: Ghur = house; heart. Sauda = merchandize (Naam). Vuth(u) = the real article (objective of human life - Waheguru's Naam). Khin(u) khin(u) = each moment. Smaaliyaiy = remember; recite. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Ukhoot(u) = inexhaustible. Praaput(i) = acquire, receive. 1. Tuj(i) = quit. Ninda = malicious criticism; vilification. Hur(i) Jeo = Waheguru. Pause. Oojlay = shiny (unblemished). Hult(i) = this world (present life). Pult(i) = next world (after death). Jup(i) = reciting (Naam). Ridaiy = in the heart. Mooraar(i) = a name for (god) Krishna (Waheguru). Mehl(u) = palace; residence (of Waheguru). 2. Muthay = forehead (face). Nit = always. Johay = watches. Jum = angel of death. Jaalay = net; noose. Chinta = worry. Purjaalay = burns completely (tortures). 3. Daata = provider. Bukhsh = rewards. Bhaavaiy = likes. Tis(u) = him. 4.

MEANING: The real merchandize (Waheguru's Naam) can be realized from within one's mind (because He is present in our hearts). We should remember Waheguru each moment, but there are only a few who do so in the shelter of the Guru. The treasure of Naam is inexhaustible, but can be acquired only by good fortune. 1. Get rid of malicious criticism (vilification) of others, your selfishness, and ego, oh my mind! Taking Guru's shelter (acting on His Advice), always worship Waheguru, who is pervading the whole universe uniformly. Pause. The faces of the true devotees of the Guru are shiny (unblemished and worthy of honour) because they ponder on the Guru's Shabad (and obey it). By remembering Waheguru at all times, they enjoy comfort in both this world and the next. They realize Waheguru in their heart by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. 2.

Those who turn their faces away from the Guru have black faces (suffer disgrace in Waheguru's Court). They earn discomfort only, and are constantly watched by the Angel of Death with a noose in his hand. Too much worry torments them, and they find no comfort even in their dreams. 3. The Provider for everyone (Waheguru) is benevolent and the same. He rewards everybody (provides for their needs) because of His own kindness (no one needs to ask for them). Our requests make no difference; He gives to whomever He likes. But we realize this fact only in Guru's shelter that Waheguru knows everybody's needs, oh Nanak. 4.9.42

Baajhoun Guru achayt(u) haiy, subh baadhi Jum kaal(i) Nanak Gurmut(i) oobray, Sucha Naam smaal(i). 4.10.43.

Word Meaning: Sucha Sahib(u) = the True Lord (Waheguru). Saviyaiy = serve. Vudiyaayee = honour. Dhaavut(u) = wandering. Aapay = (Waheguru) Himself. Nudr(i) = kind sight. 1. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Vusaiy = takes residence. Mehli = in Waheguru's Palace. Thaaoun = shelter; seat. Pause. Munmukh = follower of the mind. Tthaur = shelter. Bhaunda = wanders (in circles). Soonjaiy ghur(i) = in an unoccupied (deserted) house. Ghut(i) = in the heart. 2. Traiy Goon = the three effects of Maya (no significant degree of awareness, some awareness, and significant awareness). Bikhiya = poison (a metaphor for Maya). Gober = darkness. Un = other (Maya). Saynvday = serve; show regard. Pookaar = preach loudly. Puch(i) = suffer. Oorvaar(u) = this side (of the sea of Maya). Paar(u) = on the other side (of the sea of Maya). They cannot swim across the sea of Maya and drown in it. 3. Visariyaa = forgot. Pritpal(i) = one who looks after and raises (Waheguru). Achayt(u) = unaware. Jum Kaal(i) = (noose of) the angel of death. Oobray = salvaged. Smaal(i) = sing Waheguru's praise. 4.

MEANING: If we serve the True Lord, He confers the eternal honour on us. By Guru's benevolence, He destroys our haumein and makes our heart His residence. Our wandering mind finds peace only if He puts His kind sight on us. 1. Come to Guru's shelter to worship Waheguru, oh my friend. (As a result), you will acquire the Naam-treasure, and find room in Waheguru's Palace (will merge into Him). Pause. The mind and the body of the follower of his mind are completely dark; he has neither peace nor stability. He goes through countless life forms, and attains no peace (contentment like a crow in a deserted house (where it finds nothing to eat). With Guru's advice, one's heart is enlightened, and one acquires Waheguru's Naam by acting on Guru's Shabad. 2. Under the three effects of Maya, a man is blind, and attachment to Maya creates complete darkness in his mind. The greedy pundits serve Maya even when they are preaching the Vedas loudly. Engrossed in Maya, they die suffering and enjoy neither on this side of the sea of Maya (this world) nor the far end (in the next world). 3. In the greed of Maya, people forget Waheguru – the Father of the universe – who nourishes the whole world. Without the Guru, they are unaware and are prisoners of the Angel of Death. Those who follow Guru's advice are salvaged; so, you too recite Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak! 4.10.43.

Word Meaning: Traiy Goon Maya = the three effects of Maya (see the previous Shabad). Chautha Pud(u) = the fourth level above the effects of Maya (complete detachment from Maya). Kirpa = benevolence. Maylaayun(u) = are connected. Potaiy = treasure; repertoire; in possession. Poonn(u) = donations; noble deeds. 1. Saach(i) = (with) Waheguru. Saacho Saach(u) = pure Truth (Waheguru's Naam). Kmaavna = earn. Pause Puchhaniya = recognized. Vitoun = over; to. Bul(i) = gladly sacrifice (serve in every which way). Aap(u) chhod(i) = disregarding self. Bhaayay = (as they) like. Laaha = gain; benefit. Sehjay = easily (without much effort). Smaayay = be part of. 2. Mehl(u) = (Waheguru's) residence. Praaput(i) = get; acquire. Lorr(i) Luhou = seek. Jiddoon = from whom. Asoor = demons. Sunghaaraiy = kill. 3. Jayha = as. Tayho Jiha = like that. Sehsa = skepticism; doubts. Moolay Naahi = not at all. Bhaaou = affectionate respect. Jun = devotee. Jot(i) = light. Moorti = figures. Milaava = union. 4.

MEANING: Maya, with its three qualities, attracts all of us, but we can attain the pure spiritual state where Maya has no effect by taking the Guru's shelter. With His grace, the Guru connects one with Waheguru, and His Naam takes residence in one's heart. Those who have amassed noble qualities in their repertoire, the Guru connects them with Waheguru in the congregation of holy men. 1. Taking the Guru's advice, stay connected with Waheguru, oh, my friend. Following Guru's Shabad, if you perform only the deeds of truthfulness (obey Waheguru's Will), you will be "one" with Waheguru. Pause.

I am glad to sacrifice my life for those who recognize the worth of Waheguru's Naam. Disregarding my own self (selfishness and ego), I will touch their feet (be at their service), and do whatever they like me to do. In return, I will have the benefit of acquiring Waheguru's Naam without any special effort and of being "one" with Him. 2. But, without the Guru, we cannot reach Waheguru's residence and acquire His Naam. We should seek out the Guru who can guide us in connecting with Waheguru. (As a result), All five demons are destroyed (controlled), and our belief is affirmed that only that happens to us which Waheguru likes, and all comforts take root in our heart. 3. One acquires the kind of comfort (or discomfort) depending upon the way one perceives the Guru. If a person develops real love for the Guru, he is left with no doubts or suspicions. Acting on Guru's Shabad, one gets connected with Waheguru, and the two entities (the individual and Waheguru) may look distinct, but they will have the same internal light (the devotee's soul merges with God's Soul) 4.11.44

Word Meaning: Amrit = life-sustaining water (Waheguru's Naam). Doojay = the other (Maya). Vidaani = of a stranger (others). Dherm(u) = religion (principles, obligations). Boojhaiyy = realize. Undin(u) = day and night. Vihaani = passes by. Chayt-hee = remembers; cites (Naam). Doob(i) Mooyay = die by drowning. 1. Bhujou=worship Waheguru. Shernaayee = in the shelter. Vissar(i) = forgotten. Pause. Pootla = puppet. Dooshti = evil. Put(i) = honour. Joti = Waheguru's light in man. Jot(i) = the source of light (Waheguru). 2. Ut(i) = extreme. Sookhaali = comforting. Ichhaiy = wishes. Ful(u) = fruit (result). Jut(u) = control on lust. Sut(u) = high moral character. Tup = self-torture to please some god. Pvit(u) = pure. Anund(i) = in bliss. Preetum = dear (Waheguru). 3. Sheenaagtee = in the shelter of. Bul(i) = sacrificial. Dur(i) = door. Vudiyaayee = honour. Nudri = kind sight. 4.

MEANING: Those who forget Waheguru's Naam, and are engaged in Maya, are serving a stranger (from whom they will draw no spiritual benefit). They do not realize that they are losing their religiosity (spirituality or noble qualities). They spend their entire life in suffering. The follower of his mind is blind (ignorant) and drowns without water in the sea of Maya. 1.

Seek Waheguru's shelter and worship Him all the time, oh my mind. (As a result) Waheguru will take dwelling in your heart, and you will never forget Him. Pause.
The human body is a puppet of Maya and harbours evil, selfishness, and ego in the mind. (Consequently), He is caught in the birth-death cycle and loses his honour (in Waheguru's Court). Serving the Satguru provides the eternal comfort and connects man's light (soul) with the Super-Soul (Waheguru. 2. Service to the Satguru (obeying Him) is extremely comforting, and one is conferred with whatever one wishes. When Waheguru's Naam takes residence in one's heart, his mind and body are purified, and he does not need to torture himself or do ritualistic hard labour to control his sensual pleasures. Being one with God, one is always blissful and enjoys all comforts. 3.
I will gladly sacrifice my life for those who come to Waheguru's shelter. In the court of the True Lord, one receives real honour and becomes "one" with the dear Lord without any special effort. However, you get connected with Waheguru only through the Guru, and that too only when He casts His kind sight on you, oh Nanak. 4.12.45.

Word Meaning: Dohaagun(i) = condemned by the husband. Seegaar(u) = adornment. Sajaiy = on the bed. Kunt(u) = husband. Khooar(u) = suffer humiliation. Pir = husband. Mehl(u) = (God's) palace; residence (union with). 1. Ikk mun(i) = with a focused mind. Pause. Sohaagni = married and loved by her husband. Oor = heart. Dhaar(i) = acquired. Niv(i) = kneel down (humble). Ruvaiy = enjoys. Bhutaar(u) = husband. Sobhavuntee = praise worthy. Hayt(u) = affection. Apaar(u) = limitless. 2. Bhaag(i) = fortune. Oodou = lights up. Bherm(u) = skepticism. Bhaanaiy = as per the wish. Chulaiy = walks (leads life). 3. Amrit(u) = life-sustaining water. Sehjay = (in the high spiritual state above all desires). Praput(i) = acquired. 4.
MEANING: The deeds performed by the follower of his mind are (spiritually) as worthless as the body adornment of the woman who has been condemned by her husband, because of which, he will not come to her bed, and she will suffer humiliation every day. Similarly, the follower of his mind will never get close to Waheguru's residence or His door, let alone have union with Him. 1. Recite Waheguru's Naam with full dedication in the company of the true devotees, and acquire all the comforts, oh my friend. Pause.

Those who obey the Satguru acquire Waheguru's Naam in their heart, and stay always married (enjoy Waheguru's union). They always use sweet language and are humble. They enjoy union with Waheguru just as a woman enjoys it with her husband in bed. Those who have unlimited affection for the Guru earn praise and are always married to Waheguru (enjoy His union). 2. When a person's good fortune lights up (shows its arrival), he meets the Guru; all his doubts in mind disappear, his discomforts disappear, and he acquires all comforts. Those who lead their life as preached by the Guru suffer no discomfort. 3. Obeying the Guru leads to the acquisition of the immortalizing holy water (Waheguru's Naam-Amrit), which can be tasted only by those who have attained the highest spiritual level (above all the effects of Maya). Those who are able to taste it, have their haumein destroyed. To have union with Waheguru, we should recite Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 4.13.46.

Word Meaning: Ja = if. Uggaiy Dhuray = offer. Sohaagni = married. Kerm = deeds. Sayee = same. Sehjay = (in a high spiritual state). Vudaayee = honour. 1. Loachaiyy = wishes; longs. Pause. Lukh-Chauraasee = 8.4 million life forms (a Hindu belief). Fayr(u) = rebirth-cycle. Kaamun(i) = human bride. Doojaiy Bhaayay = affection for the other (Maya). Neend = sleep; peace of mind. Raiyn = night (of life). Pir(u) = husband (Waheguru). Birtha = useless (without any gain). 2. Houn = selfishness. Sumpaiy = amassed wealth. Undhi = blind (ignorant). Chatyee = keeps in mind (recite Naam). Baandhi = shackled. Jum Kaal(i) = angel of death. Dhun(u) = wealth (Waheguru's Naam). Ridaiy = in the heart. 3. Nirmulay = clean; pure. Sehj(i) = in a high spiritual level (with pure mind). Soobhayay = in affection. Raata = imbued. Rung = affection. Rusna = tongue. Rusn Rusaayay = enjoys the sweet taste. Dhoor(i) = from the source (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: If a man thinks Waheguru as his own (has full faith in Him), he offers his body and mind to Him, and performs the same deeds as the other married women do (accept His Will, and lead a life of high morality). With a pure mind, he can achieve union with the True Lord, who confers great honour on him. 1. No one can worship God without the Guru's grace, oh my friend. Even though everybody longs for it, one cannot attain spiritual transcendence without the Guru. Pause. If a human bride (a person) is engrossed in the love of the other (Maya), she goes through the cycle of 8.4 million life forms. Without the guidance of the Guru, she cannot sleep peacefully (cannot find peace of mind), and her life is spent in discomfort. Without Guru's Shabad, one cannot have union with the Husband (Waheguru), and his life goes to waste (without any spiritual gain). 2.
People spend their lives pursuing their selfish interests, but at the time of death, no wealth or property accompanies them. The ignorant do not remember Waheguru's Naam; they are all the prisoners of the Angel of death. But when someone connects with the Guru, he carefully saves (enshrines) Waheguru's Naam in his heart, which is his true wealth. 3.
In Pure (holy) Guru's love, those, who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam, become clean and pure. Their mind and body are imbued in Waheguru's Naam, and their tongue enjoys the sweetness of His Naam. The colour of their love for Waheguru, in which they were dyed right from the beginning, never fades, oh Nanak. 4.14.47.

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = through devotion of the Guru. Bhagat(i) = worship; devotion. Boojhaiyy = recognizes. Nirmul(u) = clean; pure. Sacha = eternal. 1.

Bhugut(i)-heen(u) = devoid of worship. Kaahay = for what? Birtha = useless. Pause. Jugjeevun = the source of life in the world (Waheguru). Sookhdaata = the source of all comforts (God). Bukhsh(i) = forgive; gift; kindness. Jea Junt = living beings. Vachhaaray = powerless. Vudiyaayee = honour. Sayv = service. 2. Kootumb(u) = family. Lobhaana = captivated. Chuldiyaan = at the time of leaving (death). Goon Nidhaan(u) = treasure of noble qualities (God). Keem = keemut = value. Sukha = Meet(u) = friend. Untaiy = in the end. Sukhayee = helpful. 3. Chit(i) = in the mind. Aap(u) = self (selfishness). Bhgut(i) Vuchhul(u) = lover of worship (devotion). Sobha = fame; praise. Soort(i) = understanding; wisdom. 4.

MEANING: When Waheguru is kind to someone, He connects him with the Guru, and the devotee begins to worship Waheguru (recite His Naam). No one can worship Waheguru without the Guru's grace. Waheguru connects the individual to Him who becomes pure, and then realizes Him. Waheguru is eternal, and so is His Bani (Shabad or Huqam); an individual gets connected with Him by obeying His Huqam (Command or Will). 1. What is the purpose of a person coming to this world if he is devoid of Waheguru's worship, oh my friend? Without serving the perfect Guru, he simply wastes away his precious human life. Pause. The source of life, Waheguru Himself, is the provider of all comforts, and He Himself connects people with Him by His kindness. What can the powerless living beings say to, or tell Him? (He provides without asking). God Himself honours some by connecting them with the Guru, and Himself makes them obey His Will. 2. Living in the family, one is captivated by the affection of the family members, but none of them accompany him when he leaves this world. One's real friend is Waheguru, who becomes his true saviour (helper) at the time, but the man does not recognize the worth of His friendship, and does not take Guru's shelter to realize Him, which is the source of all noble qualities. 3. A man may sing Waheguru's praise in his mind (in his own way) and may also make others do the same, but he cannot get rid of his selfishness without the Guru's advice. Waheguru loves His devotees, and He connects them with Him by His own kindness. God Himself confers the wisdom of praising Him (obeying His Will) on his devotees, and honours them through the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.15.48.

Word Meaning: Dhunn(u) = worthy of respect. Jun-nee = mother. Jaaya = gave birth. Purdhaan(u) = leader. Goomaan(u) = ego. Conceit. Dur(i) = at the door (always in service)). Gooni-Nidhaan(u) = treasure of noble qualities (God). 1. Gurmukh(i) = through the Guru (taking His shelter). Nirmul(u) = clean; pure. Pause. Ghur(i) = house; heart. Rungay = imbue. Sehj Soobhaayay = with pure mind and love. Such(i) = through God (His Naam or praise). Vichhurr(u) = separation. 2. Uver(u) = else. Chirreen = since long. Vichhoonnay = separated. Punnaiy = in His account; through Him. Kaar = (desired) deeds. 3. Rutta = imbued. Rung = love. Tuj(i) = by giving up. Vikaar = evil thoughts or deeds. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Ruv(i) = is present; appears. Nirbhou = fearless. Nirunkar = formless (Waheguru). Appar = beyond reach.

MEANING: Worthy of respect is the mother who gives birth to, and worthy of respect is the leading father of the devotee, who serves the Guru, and enjoys all the comforts (blissfulness) by getting rid of his ego and selfishness. Such devotees are always in the service of the Lord and acquire Him, which is the treasure of all noble qualities. 1. Worship Waheguru by taking shelter of the Guru, oh my mind! (As a result), your mind and body will become pure, and Guru's Shabad will take up dwelling in your heart, oh my mind. Pause.

He (Waheguru) kindly appears in the heart, and connects the devotees of His liking (those who deserve) with Him. This happens when one sings Waheguru's praise using Guru's Shabad, and is imbued in His Naam with his love for Him (Waheguru) in his purified mind. One becomes "one" with Waheguru by singing His praise, and once connected with Him, one never suffers from His separation. 2. Waheguru does what He wishes, and nothing can be done to thwart it (by anyone else). He connects the ones with Him who had been separated from Him for a long time through the Guru, and makes them do the deeds He likes, and nothing can be done (against His Will). 3. At that stage, one conquers his haumein and evil thoughts (and deeds), and his mind and body get completely imbued in Waheguru's Naam. The fearless and formless Waheguru's Naam appears in the mind of the devotee forever. Waheguru, who is beyond our reach, Himself connects the devotees with Him through the Shabad of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.16.49.

Word Meaning: Govind(u)= a name for God. Gooni Nidhaan(u) = treasure of noble qualities. Unt(u) = limits. Kuthni = by saying (describing). Budni = with mouth. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Bhaiy = (respectful) fear. Ruchaiyy = engaged. 1. Boojhaiyy = recognizes. Koyay = rare. Junum(u) Pudaruth = objective of human life. Pause. Chaakhiya = tasted. Saad(u) = taste; enjoy. Bherm(i) = in superstitions. Bhoolayay = lost. Peevut Hoo = right after drinking. Purvaan(u) = approved. Smaayay = becomes one with. 2. Daat(i) = gift. Gurudwaraiy = through the Guru. 3. Jut(u) = celibacy. Sut(u) = high morals; service to mankind. Sunjum(u) = control over desires. Vin(u) = without. Nirmul(u) = pure. Rung(i) = in love. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is the treasure of all noble qualities, but nobody can find His limits. He cannot be realized simply by describing, or by words of praise by mouth (without real love for Him), unless one gets rid of his haumein. However, when one connects with the Satguru and acts upon His advice gladly all the time, (his haumein is eradicated) and Waheguru Himself makes the devotee's heart His residence. 1. But, only some rare devotee of the Guru realizes this fact, oh my friend. A person who just performs the accepted rituals without any spiritual knowledge wastes his precious human life. Pause.

Waheguru's True (everlasting) Naam is the Amrit (immortalizing holy water); no words can describe its taste. Only those who have tasted it enjoy it; without tasting it, one is lost in doubts and superstitions. Those who taste it are approved (by Waheguru) as soon as they finish drinking it, and they become "one" with Him. 2. We can acquire Waheguru's Naam only if He bestows it on us; otherwise, no one acquires it on their own. This special gift is in the hands of the Provider – Waheguru only - and can be acquired only through the Guru. But one only reaps the rewards of what he sows (what type of deeds he performs). 3. Celibacy, high moral character, and control over desires are all subsumed (included) in Waheguru's Naam, without which the mind never becomes pure. But Naam takes up residence in one's heart only if one has good fortune, as a result of which one becomes connected with Waheguru. Only that individual acquires Waheguru's noble qualities who leads his life with a pure heart, and with love for Him, oh Nanak. 4.17.50

Word Meaning: Kaayan = body. Saadhaiy = cleanses. Oordh = upside down. Tup(u) = torture oneself to please some god. Adhiyatum = spiritual. Jeevut(u) Muraiy = overcome selfishness and Maya. 1. Bhuj = run quickly. Bikh(u) = poison (Maya). Bhuvjul(u) = sea of life (Maya). Pause. Traiy goon = three effects of Maya. Dhaat(u) = pursuit; efforts. Dooja Bhaao = love for the other (Maya). Vikaar(u) = evil thoughts (or deeds). Bundhun = bonds. Trikooti = the three effects of Maya. Chautha Pud(i) = the fourth spiritual stage (above the effects of Maya). Mookt(i) = freedom from Maya (union with God). 2. Maarug(u) = (true) path. Moh(u) = worldly attachments. Goobaar(u) = darkness; ignorance. Oodhraiy = is salvaged. 3. Munooa = mind. Ut(i) = extremely. Subl = strong; overwhelming. 4.

MEANING: Rush to take shelter of Satguru's feet, oh my mind. The only way to overcome your haumein and swim across the sea of Maya is to obey Satguru's Shabad with His benevolence. Pause. Some people cleanse their bodies (by taking a dip at holy places or by yogic techniques), and meditate by suspending themselves upside down (torture themselves to please some god), but cannot get rid of their haumein by any of such means. They may also perform some spiritual deeds simply as a show off to impress people, but they will never cultivate Waheguru's Naam in their mind. However, if they overcome their selfishness and love for Maya by obeying the Guru's Shabad, Waheguru will take up dwelling in their hearts. 1. Pursuit of Maya is a worthless effort, and one achieves no spiritual gain in its love. Pundit reads his religious books but is still bound to Maya and does not understand the real objective of life. But when one connects to Satguru, he conquers the three effects of Maya and attains the fourth level of spirituality, where he achieves union with God. 2. It is the Guru who guides one on the right path (to connect with God), whereby one's darkness caused by worldly attractions is dispelled. If he kills (overcomes) his selfishness by Guru's Shabad, he is able to swim across the sea of Maya, and attain freedom from it to be "one" with Waheguru. By Guru's benevolence, he stays connected with the True Naam of the Creator. 3. The desires of the mind are highly overwhelming, and the mind cannot control them on its own. As a result of his weak mind, the man receives punishment (from Waheguru) and suffers immensely because of his love for Maya. Only those individuals who overcome their haumein who recite Waheguru Naam by the Guru's Shabad. Such individuals are able to swim across the sea of Maya, oh Nanak. 4.18.51.

Word Meaning: Drirraayay = reinforces; emphasizes. Kinaiy na = nobody. Birtha = without achieving the objective. Guvaayay. Wastes. Munmookh = follower of the mind. 1. Dooja Bhaao = love for the other (Maya). Chookayay. = end. Pause. Bani = Guru's Word. Ja = if; when. Krodh(u) = rage. Nivaar(i) = overcoming; getting rid of. Nirmul = pure; holy. Mokh = freedom from (Maya). 2. Jug(u) = world. Binusda = vanishes; wastes life. Jaasun(i) = will leave. Put(i) = dignity. Naaoun = (Waheguru's) Naam. Smaayay = merged. 3. Munniyaiy = obeying. Aap(u) = self (selfishness). Liv = full concentration. Pdaruth = (valuable) article. Smaayay = merge (becomes one with)

MEANING: When Waheguru is kind, He connects you with the Guru who instills and reinforces Waheguru's Naam in your mind. Nobody ever connects with Waheguru without the Guru's mediation, and disconnected people waste away their lives. They perform deeds following their own mind, because of which, they are punished in Waheguru's Court. 1. Serve the Guru, and renounce your love for Maya to enjoy bliss, because then Waheguru (the source of bliss) makes your heart His abode, oh my mind. Pause.

When one fosters love for Waheguru in His mind, he realizes that Guru's Bani, Guru's Shabad, are eternal like Waheguru. Acting on Guru's Shabad, one overcomes his haumein and rage, and Waheguru takes residence in his mind. When one recites Waheguru's Naam with a pure mind, he breaks all the bonds of Maya and enters Waheguru's door (becomes "one" with Him). 2. The world vanishes because of haumein, and keeps taking rebirths. The follower of his mind does not realize the importance of the Guru's Shabad and leaves this world, losing his dignity. Waheguru's Naam can be realized only by serving the Guru, and one also stays connected with Waheguru. 3. One connects with the Guru when he obeys His Shabad and rids himself of his selfishness. Such an individual always keeps Waheguru in mind and recites His Naam with full concentration. The priceless Naam takes residence in his heart, and he attains the state of bliss through his union with God, oh Nanak. 4.19.52.

Word Meaning: Purakheen = men (people). Saviyo = serve (worship). Ghur(i) = in mind. Purakh = Waheguru. Mootthay = robbed. Phitkiyaaan = condemned. 1. Hudoor(i) = present close by. Purhuraiy = remove; dispel. Bhurpoor(i) = full to capacity; present everywhere. Pause. Slaahun(i) = sing praise. Adhaar = support. Kaar = work; service. Shahou = banker; (source of everything - Waheguru). Vertda = operates. fulfills His responsibility. Maytunhaar(u) = eraser; destroyer. Koorr(i) = short-lived worldly attractions. 2. Ghor = dense; deep. Vissariya = forgotten. Sookhdaata = source of all comforts (Waheguru). Oobreh(i) = safely swam across the sea of Maya; salvaged. Oordhaar(i) = acquired in the heart. 3. Nirmula = clean; pure. Tuj(i) = quit. Vikaar = evil thoughts or deeds. Dhunda = worldly business. Dhaavut = running around. Ruttay = imbued. Oojlay = shiny; clean (blame-free). Durbaar(i) = in the Court. 4. Munniyon = believed in; obeyed. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in love with the other (Maya). Khooaar(u) = suffering humiliation. Smaal(i) = take care of; foster. Hayt = love. 5.

MEANING: The people who do not serve the Guru (do not obey His Command) suffer in each eon (no matter which eon it is). They do not recognize the Waheguru residing in their heart, and are robbed (of their spiritual wealth) because of their ego and conceit. Condemned by the Guru, they exhaust themselves wandering around for their worldly needs, but do not obey the Will of the Guru, who can fulfil all their wishes and needs. 1. Feel Waheguru always around you, which is pervading the whole universe in the form of Shabad (His Command or Laws), and end your suffering of the birth-death-birth cycle, oh my mind. Pause. Those who sing praise of Waheguru and make His True Naam the basis of their life become "one" with Him. They love Waheguru, and all their deeds are based on honesty and truth. The True Lord controls the world (looks after His creation), and nobody can erase (or undo) His largesse. The followers of their mind do not have access to Waheguru's residence (cannot connect with Him), and the perishable are robbed (of their spiritual wealth) in their pursuit of the mundane. 2. Without the Guru, there is dense darkness, and the world is dying in selfishness and ego. In the love for Maya, the world has forgotten the Provider and the Source of all comforts (Waheguru). Those who serve the Satguru and foster Waheguru's Naam in their heart are salvaged. But one can acquire Waheguru only by pondering on the Guru's Shabad - and that too only because of His benevolence. 3. Serving the Satguru purifies one's mind, and he abandons his haumein and evil deeds. By pondering and acting on the Guru's Shabad, one kills his selfishness and his attachment with Maya (this is called dying alive). All his efforts to earn more wealth become a matter of the past, and he develops love only for Waheguru. Such individuals are imbued in Waheguru's Naam, and their faces shine (they are honoured) in Waheguru's Court. Those who do not recognize (obey the Will of) the Satguru, and develop no love for His Shabad, suffer humiliation in the love for Maya, no matter how much pilgrimage they undertake, and how much wealth they donate (to the Brahmans). However, if Waheguru is kind to them, they foster love for Waheguru's Naam in their heart. You too foster Waheguru's Naam with love, oh Nanak! 5.20.53.

Word Meaning: Houn = I; me. Jup(u) = recite. Bhaana = Will; Huqam. Aap(u) = selfishness. Chaakri = free service. Soohayay = pleasing; blissful. 1. Chayt = remember; meditate on. Khayti = crop; spiritual wealth. Koonj = a bird that feeds on grain; will rob spiritual wealth. Pause. Ichhaan = wishes; desires. Bhurpoor(i) = full to capacity. Bhaiy = respectful fear. Bhaayay = with love. Hudoor(i) = present close by. Raata = imbued. Bherm(u) = doubtfulness. Nirmul(u) = clean; pure. Guheer(u) = deep; unfathomable. 2. Oobray = salvaged. Moohaayay = robbed. Vihaayay = gone by. Soonjay = empty; deserted. Paahoona = guest; visitor. Birtha = empty (without any achievement). Daysi = show. 3. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Kehn = say; praise (Waheguru). Laagoun Paayay = touch feet (show deep respect). Suchiyaar = fosters Truth. 4.

MEANING: Stay alert, and worship Waheguru (remember Him) day and night, oh my mind, and thus save the crop of (your spirituality) in your mind-field, otherwise this crop will be attacked by the crop-destroying bird of Maya. Pause. (If you do not know) Whom to serve and whose name to recite and enshrine in mind, go and seek the Guru's advice, oh my mind. But you must overcome your selfishness, and obey Guru's Will. (Obeying the Guru) is the real service to Him; besides, Waheguru's Naam takes root in your heart. You will enjoy all the comforts by fostering Waheguru's Naam in your heart by obeying the blissful Shabad of the Guru. 1. By obeying the Guru's Shabad, one finds that Waheguru is pervading the whole universe and fulfils all your wishes. A man who worships Waheguru day and night with respectful fear and love finds Him close (everywhere). Such a man is always imbued with Waheguru's Naam, and all his doubts (and superstitions) are cleared. He internalizes the pure Waheguru, who is very deep (unknowable), and is the source of all noble qualities. 2. Those who stay alert (against the attacks of Maya), swim across the sea of Maya (to be "one" with God), but those who are unaware and careless are robbed (of their spirituality) by Maya. They do not recognize the Guru's True Shabad, and their life is spent like a dream (without achieving any objective), and like a person who visits a deserted house. The follower of his mind wastes away his life (without any spiritual gain); so, what kind of face will he show to Waheguru (he will not be able to face Waheguru)? 3.
Those who think only about themselves are victims of haumein (selfishness and ego) and cannot sing Waheguru's praise. But, when one ponders on Guru's Shabad, he recognizes the Truth, and is able to overcome his suffering from haumein. I touch their feet (respect them) who serve the Guru, oh Nanak. But, only the bearers of Truth become "one" with Waheguru; I wish to sacrifice my life for them, oh Nanak. 4.21.54.

Word Meaning: Vayla Vukht(u) = time. Kit(u) = what; how? Ruttiyaan = imbued. Soyay = fame. Til(u) = the size of a sesame seed (very small). Knayhee = what kind of? Seetul = cool (peaceful). Birtha = empty; useless. 1. Sehjay = with a controlled mind. Raahiyaiy = sow the seed. Ugli = very much; healthy. Munooa = mind. Rujja = satisfied. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = with a peaceful mind and love. Tikh(u) = thirst. Smaayay = merged; become one with. 2. Bani = Guru's Shabad. Vujji = is heard; paid attention to. Ch-houn = in all four. Joogeen = eons. Mayra = selfishness. Hudood(i) = present close by. Liv = deep concentration. 3. Nudri = kind sight. Vin(u) = without. Kerma = kindness; luck. Luhhaiy = acquires; gets. Bhaytaiy = meets; connects. Bikhiya = poison (Maya). Milaavrra = union. 4.

MEANING: If one believes that Waheguru can be worshipped only during particular times (a Hindu belief), then what time will one worship Him (there will be no appropriate time)? Those who are imbued in His Naam day and night are the Truth bearers (have pure minds, and are "one" with God), and true (everlasting) is their fame (reputation). What kind of worship is that in which the Dear (Waheguru) is forgotten even for a short moment? One's mind and body are blissful when they are connected with Waheguru with every breath. 1.

Recite Waheguru's Naam, and always remember Him, oh my mind! The worship is real only if Waheguru's Naam is embedded (enshrined) in your heart. Pause. (In order for Waheguru to reside in your heart), You need to sow the seed of truthfulness (Waheguru's Naam) in the ground of your mind, which needs to be at peace (and not wandering after the mundane). (As a result), a healthy crop (of Waheguru's Naam) sprouts, and your mind achieves contentment without any special effort. The real Amrit (immortalizing water) is the Guru's Shabad, which quenches your thirst (for worldly things). When the mind is imbued with Waheguru's Naam, it connects with Him and remains connected all the time, oh Nanak. 2. When one is merged with Waheguru, all his talk, his looking around, and his conversation are about Waheguru. Guru's Shabad is heard (is spread) over all the four eons as it disseminates nothing but the Truth. (When one obeys the Guru's Shabad), he overcomes his selfishness and feeling of possessiveness, and is connected with Waheguru. Those who meditate on Waheguru with full dedication have easy access to His Palace (get united with Him). 3. But one worships Him only when Waheguru casts His kind sight on him; without His benevolence, no one can worship Him. With good fortune, one finds the company of holy men where he is connected with the Guru. When one is imbued in Waheguru's Naam, his suffering caused by the poisonous Maya is dispelled. Remember, the union with Waheguru is achieved through the Guru's Shabad, and the individual stays connected with Waheguru's Naam all the time, oh Nanak. 4.22.55.

Word Meaning: Bhuou = fear; respect. Saar(i) = by remembering, by pondering on. Doobhida = duality; indecisiveness. Chookaayiun = cleared. Oordhaar(i) = fostered in mind. 1. Bhurnaal(i) = in the sea of Maya. Nirmul(u) = pure. Svaarunhaar(u) = one who grooms (Waheguru). Pause. Mohiya = captivated. Ruttiyaan = imbued. Joti Jot(i) Smaayay = merge your light (soul) in Waheguru (Joti). Jaapda = is discernible; visible. Poorub(i) = predestined. Bhaytiya = met; connected. 2. Vin(u) Naavaiy = without Waheguru's Naam. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in love with the other (Maya). Khooayay = suffer in worthless efforts. Vihayay = is spent. Bherm(i) bhoolaana = lost (misguided) in doubts.

Aavaiy Jaayay = takes rebirths. 3. Mooker(i) = refuse to admit; disavow. Pucheh(i) = suffers. Boojh = comprehend. 4.

MEANING: (Waheguru) instils respectful fear for Him in the minds of those who ponder on (act on) Guru's Shabad, and remember it. By keeping Guru's Shabad in mind, they stay connected with Waheguru in the company of the holy saints, and wash away the filth of duality (whether to pursue Waheguru or Maya). Acting on the True (everlasting) Shabad of the Guru, their minds are purified, and they cultivate love for the eternal (Waheguru). 1. The world sea is full of the filth of Maya, oh my mind. (To wash away this filth) Obey Guru's Shabad to acquire Waheguru in your heart, who is always pure, beautiful, and who fulfils all your needs and wishes. Pause. Waheguru connects all those with Him whose minds have been captivated by the Guru's Shabad. Imbued in Waheguru's Naam day and night, their soul (joti) merges with the Supreme Soul of Waheguru (Jot(i). God is discernible from His soul (in nature), but one cannot recognize that without the Guru's shelter. The Guru connects only those with Him who are predestined for it. 2. Everybody is caught in duality without the Guru and suffers because of their love for the other (Maya). I cannot survive without Waheguru even for a short moment, and the night of my life is spent in discomfort. (Without the Guru), the ignorant man is blind, and is lost in doubts and indecisiveness, and is trapped in reincarnation. But, when Waheguru is kind, He Himself connects individuals with Him. 3. The man hears and watches everything (about the generosity of Waheguru), so, how can he refuse to admit His benevolence and His largesse? (He still does not believe in Him)? The man continues to commit sins and suffers constantly because of them. The follower of his mind cannot discern and recognize Waheguru. Only that individual "sees" Him, to whom He shows "Himself" by the grace of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.23.56.

Word Meaning: Tootyee = breaks; disappears. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Peerr = pain. Smaayay = absorbed; merged. Bherm(i) = duality; doubtfulness 1.

Nij Ghur(i) = in one's own mind. Vaasa = take residence. Pause. Vertda = controls; operates. Uver(u) = else; other than. Sehjay = mental state where there is no effect of Maya. Nedri = kind sight. Bhaavaiy = likes. Taiy = to him. 2. Gunut = calculations; worries. Bikh(u) = poison (Maya). Kaar = job; service. Smaahay = absorbed. Tthaur(u) = stability; peace. Jumpoor(i) = in the city of the angel of death (in his prison). Suhaahay = endures. 3. Jeo Pind(u) = soul and body. Aadhaar(u) = support. Boojhiyaiy = recognize; comprehend. Mokh = freedom from the bonds of Maya; salvation. Paaravar = limits. 4.

MEANING: The disease of haumein, and the accompanying suffering, do not go away without the Guru. Because Waheguru takes residence in one's heart by the grace of the Guru, the individual stays connected with Waheguru with the Guru's grace (and this is the cure for the disease of haumein). One realizes Waheguru when he obeys Guru's Shabad; without Guru's Shabad, people are lost in doubts and superstitions. 1. Praise Waheguru so that His Naam is implanted in your heart, and your birth-death-birth cycle is broken, oh my mind. Pause. Waheguru is the only provider, and He alone controls the world – there is nobody else. He purifies the hearts of those who praise Him by obeying the Guru's Shabad in His shelter, and as a result, they enjoy bliss (with no effect of Maya). Even though He casts His kind sight on everyone, but Waheguru confers His Naam only on some chosen people. 2. The man performs some accepted rituals with the belief to please some god, and keeps account of his so-called noble deeds, but there is no peace of mind in such calculations (because Waheguru is not pleased with them). When one engages in tasks involving the poisonous Maya, he stays engrossed in that, and without Waheguru's Naam, he does not find peace and endures suffering at the hands of the Angel of death. 3. The human body and the soul belong to Waheguru, and He is our only support. The individual, who recognizes this fact by the grace of the Guru, is salvaged at Waheguru's door. Acting on Guru's Shabad, sing praise of Waheguru whose limits can never be determined, oh Nanak! 4.24.57.

Word Meaning: Anund = blissfulness. Aadhaar(u) = support. Sach(u) = Truth (God). Dit-on(u) = He has given. Bhundaar(u) = treasure. 1. Laal(u) = red colour (represents a deep relationship). Theeya = became. Sehj(i) = in the state of a stable mind. Mohiya = captivated. Jihva = tongue. Rus(i) = extract; essence; Amrit. Rujaayay = by His own Will. 2. Sunsa = doubts; duality. Vihaayay = spends. Kudh(i) = pull out. Vudayee = honour. Boojhaayay = given knowledge; enlightened. 3. Daata = provider. Bhulliyaan = misled; gone astray. Khooyaayiun = misled; cause to suffer. Doojay = (in) Maya. Laayay = attached to. Jot(i) = Source of enlightenment (Waheguru). Undin(u) = day and night. 4.

MEANING: Those who have made Waheguru's Naam their support are always blissful and enjoy all the comforts. Following on Guru's Shabad, they realize Waheguru, who is the destroyer of all discomforts. They love Waheguru's Naam, and sing His praise all the time. Waheguru, kindly confers upon them all the treasures of bhakti (devotion). 1.

Waheguru's praise is the source of all bliss, oh my mind. Waheguru is realized through reciting the Guru's Shabad, and one always remains connected to Him. Pause.

With true devotion, one's mind is coloured red (meaning the mind is imbued permanently in Waheguru's love) in the mental state above the effects of Maya. When one's mind gets captivated by the Guru's Shabad, he becomes speechless (has no words to describe his blissful state of mind). One's tongue is also imbued with the recitation of the eternal Shabad, and he enjoys the taste of Amrit when singing Waheguru's praise. The individual, to whom Waheguru is kind, has his mind coloured with His affection by the grace of the Guru. 2.

The world is caught in duality (doubt and superstition), and their lives slip away in sleep (unaware of the Truth). However, some are pulled out of their slumber (by Waheguru), and are connected with Him. Waheguru takes up residence in their mind, thereby ending their attraction to Maya. Having been enlightened by the Guru, they are honoured by Waheguru. 3. The provider for all is the same Waheguru; He guides the ones who are on the wrong path (of Maya). But also misguides some to the allurement of Maya. Waheguru can be realized only by taking the Guru's advice, as a result of which the soul (light) of the individual merges with the source of light (Joti) – Waheguru. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam all the time become "one" with Him, oh Nanak. 4. 25.58.

Word Meaning: Goonvunti = having noble qualities. Sach(u) = eternal truth (Waheguru). Trishna = worldly desires. Tuj(I) = by giving up (overcoming). Vikaar = immoral thoughts and deeds. Ootraiy = goes away. Jichur(u) = as long as; until. 1. Bhaanaiy = as per the Will (Command). Nij ghur(i) = in your own house (mind). Vuseh(i) = resides. Mehl(u) = woman (human being). Pause. Aougoonvunti = devoid of noble traits. Hudoor(i) = near Waheguru; in His presence. Puchhaaniya = recognized; made a connection. Baydhiya = pierced; deeply affected. 2. Rungun(i) = in (His) colour (love). Liv Laayay = full concentration. Koondaan = directions. Bhuv(i) = by travelling. Boojh = understand; enlightenment. 3. Ghunayray = very many. Khuttna = earn. Raas(i) = capital. Soyay = fame. 4.

MEANING: Individuals, possessing noble qualities, overcome their immoral thinking and deeds, and realize the source of all truth – Waheguru. By reciting Guru's Shabads with love and respect, their minds are imbued with Guru's Shabad. If one thinks deeply, one will realize that no one ever realizes Waheguru without taking shelter of the Guru. The filth (of immoral thinking) is not washed away from a person who follows his mind, until he ponders on the Guru's Shabad. 1. Lead your life as per the Will (Advice) of the Guru, oh my mind. When you do that, you will drink Amrit (of Guru's Shabad); your mind will quit wandering and will find peace. Pause. The individuals lacking noble qualities cannot enjoy union with Waheguru. The followers of their mind do not pay any attention to the Guru's Shabad, and thus lack good qualities; as a result, Waheguru is far away from them. Those who realize the Truth are imbued in Waheguru's Naam and find Waheguru everywhere. Their mind is pierced (is deeply affected) by Guru's Shabad, and Waheguru Himself connects them with Him. 2. Waheguru Himself imbues their minds with His love and connects with them through the Guru's Shabad. The colour of (love for) Waheguru's Naam is everlasting, and never wears off for those who are always connected with Him with full dedication. The follower of his mind runs in all four directions in pursuit of Maya; as a result, he never finds the Truth (never connects with the Guru or Waheguru). Only those are connected with Waheguru who take the Guru's shelter and stay focused on the Guru's Shabad. 3.

I made many friends with the hope that someone would eradicate my pain (of separation from Waheguru), but my pain was gone only when I got connected with Waheguru through Guru's Shabad. For the devotee, Waheguru's Naam is his true capital and true wealth; he also earns an everlasting praise. Those, who are connected to Waheguru in Guru's shelter, never suffer separation from Him, oh Nanak. 4.26.59

Tript(i) = satisfaction; contentment. Sungruhaan = assemble; acquire. Kuddhaan = pull out; kick out. Dhoyay = by washing or cleansing. Jidoon = from whom. 4.

MEANING: Obey Guru's Will (Teachings), oh my mind. As a result, Waheguru's Naam will take up dwelling in you, and your body and mind will be at peace. Pause.
Waheguru, the source of all basic materials, Himself plans and creates the world, and looks after it. He alone controls and provides for everybody, but the formless Waheguru is beyond comprehension. Waheguru is kind and enlightens the world Himself. He takes dwelling (appears) in people's hearts when they obey the Guru's advice and stay focused on His Naam. 1. Waheguru, which is the cause of support for the entire world, also looks after His creation. We realize His existence with His kindness, and by acting on the Guru's Shabad. Those who obey the Guru's Shabad stand out (are recognized) in Waheguru's Court. Such devotees are imbued with the Guru's Shabad, and Waheguru Himself connects them with Him. 2. Taking Guru's shelter, one should sing Waheguru's praise, which has no end to His limits. With His own sweet Will, he resides in everybody's heart and looks after the world. Taking Guru's shelter, if one sings praise of Waheguru, his selfishness and ego are eradicated. But those who lack noble qualities remain devoid of His Naam and suffer badly. 3. By singing Waheguru's praise, one gets connected with Him and attains contentment. I pondered on His noble traits, accumulated (acquired) noble qualities for myself, and washed away the filth of my ignoble qualities. As a result, Waheguru Himself connected me with Him, and I never experienced separation from Him. I sing praise of my Guru, who connected me with Waheguru, oh, Nanak. 4.27.60.

Thee Ruhhaan = become. 1. Kiyoun = why; how. Vihaayay = spends. Gerb(i) Uttiyaan = trapped in conceit. Trishna = desires. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in love with another (Maya). Ruttiyaan = imbued. Sohaagni = loved by husband. Raaveh(i) = enjoy. Tinha = theirs. 2. Vihooni = without. Mootiyaan = condemned. Pirm(u) = (union with) husband. Ugiyaanmuti = without knowledge. Undhayr(u) = darkness. Smaayay= merge. 3. Say = those. Suhiyaan = female friends (women). Khusm = master; husband (God)
Vur(u) = bridegroom. Sobhavunteeyaan = who earn praise (with their virtues). 4.

MEANING: Listen carefully, oh young woman gripped by lust! Why are you walking with your arms swinging (what are you so conceited about)? You do not recognize your own (real) husband (Waheguru); what kind of face will you show to Him? I touch the feet (show respect for) of those friends who recognize their husband (Waheguru). I, too, can be like them when I connect with Waheguru in the company of such devotees. 1. Those who deal in the mundane (are engrossed in Maya), are robbed (of their spirituality) by their false (short-lived) dealings in Maya, oh, young woman. The true and attractive husband is Waheguru, who can be realized by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. Pause. What kind of life do the followers of their mind (Maya-engrossed) have who do not recognize their real husband? They are gripped by conceit and are full of worldly desires; consequently, they suffer because of their love for Maya. But those who are imbued in Guru's Shabad are the true brides (loved by Waheguru-husband) as they have overcome their selfishness and ego. They always enjoy union with their Husband, and their lives are spent in full comfort (bliss). 2. The ignorant (without any spiritual awareness) are condemned by their Husband (Waheguru), and cannot enjoy His Company. The ignorant are in darkness; they cannot find contentment without seeing (realizing) the Husband. Please, let me join your company, oh my devotee friends, and connect me too with Waheguru. One gets connected with the Guru only because of his good fortune, and once the Guru connects the devotee with Waheguru, he attains complete union with Him. 3. Those, on whom Waheguru casts His kind sight, are the ones who are truly married (to Waheguru). They recognize their true Husband and offer their bodies and minds to Him. They overcome their selfishness and ego, and realize their Groom in their own heart. Such married women worship Waheguru day and night, and their fame spreads around in the world, oh Nanak. 4.28.61.

Word Meaning: Ikk(u) = many. Raaveh(i) = enjoy. Bhaaou = with love. Pir(u) = husband (Waheguru). Oopaayay = created. Sungay = with; in the company. 1. Moondhay = pretty young woman. Bhaayay = in love (as per His will). Sehjay = in the blissful spiritual state. Smaayay = merge; become one with. Pause. Ryttiyaan = imbued. Seegaar(i) = make up; adornment. Vur(u) = bridegroom. Ghur(i) = in the house (heart). Hayt(i) = love. Sayj = bed (heart). Rung(i) = in love. Ruvaiy = enjoys. Bhundaar = treasures. Preetum(u) = dear. Aadhaar = food. 2. Sud = always. Bulihaaray = be a sacrifice. Urpeen = offer. Dooja Bhaou = love for (Maya). Chookaayay = finished. Sach(i) = in Waheguru. Smaayay = merge with. 3.

MEANING: Lead your life as per the Will of the Guru, oh beautiful young woman (human being). If you do that, you will enjoy the love of your husband (Waheguru), and will be “one” with Him in the blissful state of mind. Pause. Which door should I go to (whom should I ask) to find out how some women (devotees) enjoy union with their husband (Waheguru). (Eventually, I find out) That if I serve the Guru with dedication, He will connect me with God. Waheguru Himself looks after everybody whom He has created, but for some, He is very close to, while for some others, He is far away. Whoever gets connected with Him, enjoys His union all the time. 1. Adorned by the Guru’s eternal Shabad, they are imbued in the Guru’s love, and are truly married to (loved by) God. With love and affection for the Guru, they realize Waheguru as the bridegroom in their own hearts. The treasures of worship are full for them, and imbued in Waheguru’s love, their heart-beds become very enjoyable when they enjoy Waheguru’s Love. Waheguru, who provides food to everybody, takes residence in their heart. 2. I would gladly sacrifice my life for those who sing the praises of their husband (Waheguru) and have recognized the only “One” by terminating their love for Maya. I will offer my body, my mind, and my head (will get rid of my wisdom to accept theirs), and touch their feet. (But remember), Waheguru can be recognized (realized) only by the grace of the Guru, when one becomes “one” with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 3.29.62.

Word Meaning: Sacha = eternal. Cheeraiy = in His Huqam (Command). Lukh Chauraasee = 8.4 million (according to Hindu belief, there are 8.4 million life forms). Tursday = long for; wish for badly. Bin(u) = without. Bhaytay = have a meeting with. Bukhshay = endows. Bukhsh(i) = forgive. Gehir = deep (unfathomable). Gumbheeraiy = never changing; unemotional. 1. Ruttay = imbued. Gurmuti = taking Guru's advice. Uver(u) = else. Pause. Dherm raayay = (mythical) angel of justice. Doosht(u) = sinner; merciless. Surkaar = subject. Adhiaatmi = devotees. Goontaas(u) = treasure of noble qualities. Mooraar(i) = another name for Waheguru (the killer of the demon Mooraar - Krishna). Dhunn(u) = worthy of respect. Svaarunhaar = one who embellishes; grooms (Waheguru). 2. Bikaar = ignoble deeds or thoughts. Tujaiy = quit. Chookaiy = ends. Moh(u) = attachment. Aatamraam(u) = God. Sehjay = blissful state of mind. Smaan(u) = merge with; union. Mookt(i) = freedom from the bonds of Maya. Divaan(u) = with lost mind; insane. Cheenaiy = recognize. Kuthni Budni = fruitless talk. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya. 3. Braham(u) = (about) Waheguru. Smaal(i) = take care; remember always. 4.

MEANING: One enjoys the real comfort (bliss) when his mind is imbued in the Naam of Waheguru, oh my mind. However, one can sing praise of the Naam (Waheguru) by taking refuge only in the Guru, and nobody else's. Pause. You are the only eternal Truth, and everybody is under Your Huqam (Command), oh my Waheguru. But nobody can realize You without taking the Guru's shelter, and for that reason, even though living beings of 8.4 million life forms are dying to see You, they are not successful. At the same time, when Waheguru forgives our shortcomings and grants us His sight (connects us with Him), we enjoy all the comforts. However, the unfathomable and never-changing God can be served (His Naam is enshrined in the heart) only by the grace of the Guru. 1.

Waheguru has ordered the Angel of justice to deliver pure justice (as per the Divine Principles). The lovers of Maya are sinners and are the Angel's subjects (punishable). (On the other hand), The devotees always keep Waheguru, which is the treasure of noble qualities, in mind, and worship Him alone. Waheguru, which embellishes his devotees with noble qualities, is great and worthy of worship; His embellished devotees are accorded respect by the Angel of justice. 2 When one gets rid of his desires, of his worldly attachments, and his conceit, he recognizes (realizes) Waheguru, and gets imbued in His Naam in the blissful state of mind. (On the other hand), The follower of his mind does not seek the Guru's refuge to achieve freedom from Maya, and spends his life like an insane person. He does not realize the importance of the Guru's Shabad, and engrossed in Maya, he engages in fruitless conversations. 3. God Himself controls everything and has no rival. We speak (and act) as He wishes us to do, and He Himself makes us sing His praise. The routine conversation of a devotee is about God and His praise. He connects us with Him by Guru's Shabad. So, foster Waheguru's Naam in your heart, because one achieves comfort (blissfulness) by serving Him alone, oh Nanak. 4.30.63.

Word Meaning: Jug(i) = world. Maiyl(u) = filth. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for the other (Maya). Mul(u) = Maiyl(u) = filth. Buhou Bidh(i) = in many various ways. Kerm = ritualistic religious deeds. 1. Gur shern(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. Nirmul(u) = clean; pure. Pause. Jaasun(i) = will leave. Put(i) = dignity. Mun(i) Vusaiy = (Waheguru) takes residence in the heart (of the devotee). Smaayay = merges; becomes one with. Jioun = just as. Tioun = like that. Ugiyaan = lack of knowledge. Tujaayay = quits. 2. Gavaar = unrefined; foolish. Oordhaar(i) = acquire in mind. 3. Bulihaaraiy = sacrifice life. Ruttiya = imbued. Nij = personal. Thaoun = place (at peace). Jihva = tongue. Smaaoun = merge in; get absorbed. 4.

MEANING: The only way to cleanse your mind is to take the Guru's protection, oh my mind. The followers of their mind exhaust themselves by uttering Waheguru's Naam, but only to give the false impression of their religiosity to the people. They cannot wash away the filth of their mind by simply pretending to be what they really are not. Pause.
The world is suffering from the filth of selfishness and from the love for Maya. The filth of haumein does not go away, no matter how many dips at holy places one takes. To wash away the filth, people perform various ritualistic religious deeds, but they do not realize that they actually add twice the filth they believe they washed away, because such deeds further boost their ego. The learned (enlightened) people will also tell you that this filth does not go away simply by reading religious books. 1. (It is important to cleanse your mind because) One cannot worship Waheguru with a filthy mind or realize Him. The followers of their mind are filthy; they lose their dignity, and they die filthy. (However), By Guru's grace, the filth of haumein can be washed away, and the person becomes "one" with Waheguru. Just as a lamp is lighted to dispel darkness, the wisdom of a devotee, who is connected to Waheguru, dispels the darkness of ignorance. 2. In his love for Maya, the ignorant forgets Waheguru's Naam, and the idiot boasts of his achievements and takes credit for everything. There is no other discomfort as big as worrying about Maya, because the lover of Maya exhausts himself while pursuing it around the world. The real comfort is attained when one enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart by taking shelter of the Guru. 3.
Only those individuals are connected with Waheguru whom He connects Himself to; I would gladly sacrifice my life for such lucky people. When the mind is imbued with Waheguru's Naam, the eternal Shabad of the Guru takes residence in the heart, which attains peace. By singing Waheguru's praise, one's mind and tongue get imbued with Waheguru's Naam. One should never forget Waheguru so as to stay connected with Him, oh Nanak! 4.33.31.64.
