Houn Gur shernaayee dheh(i) puvaan kur(i) duyya maylay Prubh(u) soyay. 2. Mun(i) hutth(i) kinaiy na paaya kur(i) opaav thukkay subh(u) koyay.

(PAGE 40): Sehs siyaanup kur(i) ruhay, mun(i) koraiy rung(u) na hoyay. Koorr(i) kupt(i) kinaiy na paayo, jo beejaiy, khaavaiy soyay. 3. Subhna Tayri aas Prubh(u) subh jea Tayray Tu raas(i). Prubh(u) toodhoun khaali ko nuhi dur(i) Gurmukhaan nu shaabash(i). Bikh bhoujul doobday kudh(i) laiy, jun Nanak kee ardaas(i). 4.1.65.

Word Meaning: Birhou = pain of separation. Ugla = very much. Kiyoun = how? Preetum(u) = dear (Waheguru). Ghur(i) = in the heart. Kit(u) = which. Bidh(i) = way; process. 1. Moogdh = fool; ignorant. Shernaagti = refugee; in Your shelter. Pause. Daata = source. Boojhiya = realized. Dheh(i) Puvaan = drop at the feet. 2. Hutth(i) = stubbornness; obstinacy. Opaav = means; arrangements. Thukkay = exhausted. Sehs = thousand. Koraiy = undyed; blank. Koorr(i) = deceits; dishonesty; show off. Kupt(i) = cheating; fraud. 3. Raas(i) = capital; source of everything. Shaabash(i) = accolades; receive praise. Bikh Bhoujul = sea of Maya. Jun = slave; devotee. 4.

MEANING: I do not have anybody else (as my support) without You, oh my Satguru! I am an ignorant fool, and have come to Your shelter. Please, be kind, and connect me with Waheguru. Pause. I am suffering mentally and physically from the pain of separation; how can I have my darling (Waheguru) come and stay in my heart? All my pain goes away when I see (spiritually) my dear Waheguru. I will approach my devotee friends and seek their advice on how to get connected with Waheguru. 1 Satguru is the source of Waheguru's Naam and can connect you with Waheguru. Satguru has realized Waheguru (is "one" with Him); no one else is as great as Satguru. I will (humbly) drop at the feet of the Satguru, and He will kindly connect me with Waheguru. 2.

Many people exhaust themselves with different approaches, but no one has ever realized Waheguru through their own stubborn efforts. Thousands have tried their wisdom, but a blank mind cannot be dyed in Waheguru's love (just as fabric requires a base before it can be dyed, the human mind also needs Guru's Shabad before it can be dyed in Waheguru's love). Also, nobody has ever realized Waheguru by deceitful methods and by cheating; they reap the rewards of their own sowings. 3.

Everybody has their hopes on You, as You are the source to fulfil all their needs, oh Waheguru. Nobody is without You (You are present in everybody), but only those who follow the Guru's teachings earn respect in Your Court. I, Nanak, a devotee of Yours, pray that we human beings, drowning in the sea of Maya, be kindly saved, oh Waheguru. 4.1.65.

Siri Raag(u) Mehla 4: Naam(u) milaiy mun(u) triptiyaiy, bin(u) Naamaiy dhrig(u) jeevaas(u). Koyee Gurmukh(i) sujjan(u) jay milaiy, mein dusaay Prubh(u) goontaas(u). Houn tis(u) vitoun chaukhunniyaiy mein Naam kuray purgaas(u). 1. Mayray Preetuma houn jeevaan Naam(u) dhiyaayay. Bin(u) Naavaiyn jeevun(u) na theeyay, mayray Satguru Naam(u) drirraayay. 1. Ruhaou. Naam(u) amoluk(u) ruttun(u) haiy, pooraiy Satgur paas(i). Satguru sayvaiy luggiyaan, kudh(i) ruttan(u) dayvaiy purgaas(i). Dhunn(u) vudbhaagi vudbhaagiyaan, jo aayay milay Gur paas(i). 2. Jinha Satgur(u) Purakh(u) na bhaytiyo, say bhaagheen vus(i) kaal. Oyay phir(i) phir(i) joan(i) bhuvaayeh(i), vich(i) vishta kur(i) vikraal. Ohna paas(i) dooaas(i) na bhitiyaiy, jin untar(i) krodh(u) chundaal. 3. Satgur(u) Purakh(u) Amritsar(u), vudbhaagi naaveh(i) aayay. Oon junum junum kee maiyl ootraiy, nirmul Naam(u) drirrayay. Jun Nanak ootum pud(u) paaya Satgur kee liv laayay. 4.2.66.

Word Meaning: Triptiyaiy = is contented. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Jeevaas(u) = life. Goontaas(u) = treasure of noble qualities (Waheguru). Chaukhunniyaiy = cut into pieces. 1. Preetuma = darling. Theeyaiy = happen; exist. Drirraayay = reinforce. Pause. Amoluk(u) = priceless. Ruttun(u) = precious stone. Purgaas(i) = enlighten. Dhunn(u) = worthy of respect. Vudbhaagi = very lucky. 2.
Bhaytiyo = met; connected with. Vus(i) Kaal = die spiritual death. Bhuvaayeh(i) = made to go through. Vishta = crap (Maya). Vikraal = scary; frightening. Paas(i) dooaas(i) = near; close. Bhitiyaiy = meet; go near. Chundaal = butcher; vicious. 3.
Amritsar(u) = pool of life-sustaining water (ambrosia). Ootum Pud(u) = highest spiritual state. Liv = meditate with full concentration. 4.

MEANING: I survive only if I recite (remember) Your Naam, oh my darling Waheguru. There is no life without Your Naam; my Satguru reiterates Your Naam. Pause.
My mind finds contentment when I acquire Waheguru's Naam; life is condemnable without Naam. I am looking for a devotee friend who can lead me to Waheguru, the treasure of all noble qualities. I will cut myself into pieces (be an unconditional slave) for him who enlightens me with Waheguru's Naam. 1. The perfect Satguru possesses (is the source of) Waheguru's Naam, which is priceless like a jewel. When one serves Satguru, He confers Naam-Rattan on him, and enlightens his mind. Those who get connected with Satguru are the luckiest of the lucky. 2. (On the other hand, those who do not get connected with Satguru), are prisoners of (spiritual) death. (Disconnected from the Guru), They are trapped in the crappy Maya and are made to suffer in the frightening cycle of reincarnation. One should never get even close to those who harbour the butcher-like rage. 3.

Satguru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru, is a pool of life-sustaining water (Naam-Amrit); the lucky ones take a dip in it. Their filth of many lives is washed away, and they recite Waheguru's Naam repeatedly with a clean mind. I, a devotee of the Satguru, have also attained the highest spiritual level by concentrating on the Naam, oh, Nanak. 4.2.66.

Word Meaning: Vithraan = explain with detail; preach. Goonkaariya = possessing noble qualities. Sujjan = (devotee) friends. Heeraiy = diamond (Satguru). Heera = human mind. Baydhiya = pierced (affected deeply). Chloolay = deep red shiny colour (red colour represents deep devotion for God). Naayay = with Waheguru's Naam. 1. Govinda = Waheguru. Triput(u) = content. Toos(i) = pleased to be kind. Pause. Toottha = pleased to be kind. Psaaou = blesses. Drirrayay = reinforces. Rung Siyoun = with love. Bul(i) = sacrifice self. Lukh Koti = millions. Kerm = religious rituals. Kmaaoun = perform. 2. Ghur(I) = in the heart. Nikt(i) = near; close by. Ugiyaan = ignorance. Bherm = doubts; wavering mind. Purrdah = curtain. Puyiaas = is drawn. Kunchan = (pure like) gold. Theeyaiy = becomes. Loh = (like) iron; stone-hearted. 3. Bohith(u) = ship. Naav = boat. Kit(u) bidh(i) = in what way; how. Bhaanaiy = as per His Will. Chullaiy = leads his life. 4.

MEANING: My mind finds contentment when I sing praise of Your noble qualities, oh my Waheguru! There is a thirst in my mind for Waheguru's Naam; the Guru kindly connects me with Him (thereby quenching my thirst). Pause. I sing Waheguru's noble qualities, explain them to others, and my routine conversation is also about His noble qualities, oh my mother! My friend is a devotee of the Satguru and possesses all the noble qualities; I sing Waheguru's qualities in his company. After connecting with the Guru, who is like a diamond, my mind has been pierced (deeply moved) and has also become like a diamond, imbued with the deep red, shiny colour (which never fades) of the Naam. 1. The Guru is very kind and pleased (to connect you with Waheguru). Be fortunate, and take Guru's shelter to be imbued in the deep red colour of His love, oh my friend! I am a sacrifice for the Guru who fosters and reinforces Waheguru's Naam with affection. Without taking Guru's shelter, no one can acquire Waheguru's Naam on their own, no matter how many ritualistic deeds they perform. 2. Even though Waheguru is always close to you, residing in your heart, without good fortune, you cannot realize Him. Normally, there is a curtain of ignorance and doubts drawn between the individual and Waheguru, as a result of which, his mind stays away from Waheguru. Without connecting to the Guru, the mind of the individual is hard like iron, and never becomes soft and pure) like gold; (with the mind being hard like iron, it does not melt in Waheguru's love), and the individual drowns (in the sea of Maya) even though the boat (Waheguru) is close by on the shore. 3. Satguru is the ship, and Waheguru's Naam is the boat, but one does not know how to get on to the Naam-boat (to be ferried across the sea of Maya). Those who lead their lives according to the Guru's Will get to ride on the boat and earn respect when connected with the Guru (and Waheguru), oh Nanak! 4.3.67.

Subh(u) Jugjeevun(u) jug(i) Aap(i) haiy, Nanak jul(u) juleh(i) smaayay. 4.4.68.

Word Meaning: Punth(u) = (spiritual) path. Dusaayeen = I enquire. Nit = every day; always. Raaviya = enjoyed (His union). Laag(i) = following. Jodrri = beg; request. Chaaou = zest: gusto; enthusiasm. 1. Bhaayee Juna = brothers and friends. Vitoun = for. Vaariya = sacrifice. Pause. Nimaana = without ego; humble; powerless. Dheh(i) = drop on feet. Maan(u) = confers honour. Shabaash(i) = applauds. Rujoun = satisfied; tired. 2. Loachda = strongly wishes for. Jayta = however much; all. Jugat(u) = world. Bhaagaan = luck. Theeyaiy = happens. Bhaana = Wish; liking. Dhoor(i) = from the source. Maytaiy = erases; stops. 3. Duyya = kindness; mercy. Peechaiy = behind; follow. Jugjeevun(u) = God. Jul = water. Juleh(i) = in water. Smaayay = merges. 4.

MEANING: Would one of you, please, connect me with Waheguru, oh my dear devotee friends! I am a sacrifice to my Satguru, whom I know shows (connects with) You, oh Waheguru. Pause. I am always waiting to ask for the path (to union with Waheguru); I will humbly approach the individual who can show it to me. I will follow those who have enjoyed union with the dear Waheguru. I am very zealous to connect with Waheguru, so I will request them, beg them, to connect me with Him. 1.

Shedding all my ego, I will drop at the feet of the Satguru (surrender myself). The Guru applauds and confers dignity on those who have no ego and are humble. I never get tired of singing the praises of my Guru, who connects me to Waheguru. 2.
Everybody in the world wishes (yearns) to connect with Satguru but cannot do so without good fortune. The unlucky simply laments over his helplessness. (But even such people should not be blamed) because only God's will prevails, and nobody can erase what has been predestined for them. (So, until Waheguru is kind, they cannot connect with Him with their own efforts). 3. Satguru is a manifestation of God, who Himself connects individuals with Him through Satguru. When Waheguru is kind, He connects the individuals with Satguru (for them to follow His Teachings). Waheguru is the life of everybody in the world, and He is blended with everyone indiscernibly just as a small body of water mixes with a large body, oh Nanak. 4.4.68.

Subh(u) tun(u) mun(u) huriya hoya, Nanak Hur(i) vussiya mun(i) soyay. 4.5.69.

Word Meaning: Rus(u) = a sweet extract to enjoy. Ut(i) Bhula = extremely beneficial. Kit(u) Bidh(i) = how; in what way. Sohaagni = married (connected with God). Vaypervaah = indifferent; do not care (about publicity). Mul(i) = rubbing well (affectionately). 1.
Sujjan(u) = (devotee) friend. Saar(i) = remember; sing. Purakh = manifestation of God. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Pause. Vuchun(u) = Shabad; Teaching. Ruttan(u) = precious stone. Bhaayay = in love. 2. Vun(i) Tin(i) = in forest and in vegetation. Bhaag-heen = unlucky. Pullaiy = to have (in possession). Bil-laayay = desperate to have. Niveh(u) = kneel down; surrender. Blaayay = demon; uninvited (trouble or problem). 3. Choayay = drips. Huriya = becomes green (blooms or feels blissful). 4.

MEANING: Sing praise of (remember) Waheguru's qualities in the company (shelter) of the friend - Satguru. Satguru is a manifestation of Waheguru who dispels one's discomfort by eradicating one's haumein. Pause. Waheguru's Naam is the real Amrit – an immortalizing sweet extract as a mental food to enjoy – and is highly beneficial. But, how to acquire it to enjoy (there is no simple way)? We need to ask the married human brides (who have been connected with Waheguru) how Waheguru came to reside in their hearts (how they got connected). But they do not tell you easily (because they do not want to make their relationship with Waheguru public to avoid any publicity or public praise). So, I will need to wash their feet by rubbing them well (gently and with affection), i.e. I need to overcome my ego and serve them to please them (to seek their guidance). 1.

The devotees of Satguru are the real brides (connected with Waheguru); they take pity on you (and advise you) that Satguru's Shabad is priceless like a jewel; whoever obeys it, enjoys the taste (of Waheguru's union). They are lucky who enjoy this extract (Waheguru's Naam-Amrit) by obeying the Will of Satguru. 2. This extract (Waheguru's Naam) is present in the forests, in the vegetation, and in the whole world, but the unfortunate cannot enjoy it. They cannot acquire it without Satguru, and the followers of their mind (engrossed in Maya) simply keep lamenting. They have the demon of rage (or ego) in them, and do not surrender to Satguru. 3. Waheguru's Naam is the real Amrit (immortalizing liquid), and He makes it available to the people through Satguru when He is kind. The body and mind of the recipient bloom when Waheguru takes residence in his heart, oh Nanak. 4.5.69.

Word Meaning: Aathvaiy = evening. Aav = span of life. Moosa = mouse (of time). Laaj(u) = a long rope tied to a bucket to draw water from a well; thread of life. Tookayay = chews off. Goorr(u) = large nuggets of raw sugar; jaggery. Pusriya = has spread (its fragrance). Maakhee = house fly. Puchaiy = suffers. 1. Klut(u) = wife. Moh(u) = attachments. Bikh(u) = poison (Maya). Bayli = friend. Pause. Liv = meditation with concentration. Oobray = salvaged. Ulipt(u) = detached. Shernaayay = in the shelter of. Chullun(u) = way of life. Nihaliya = watched carefully Khurch(u) = expenses for the journey. Put(i) = dignity. Munniyay = approved; recognized. 2. Purgta = lighted; clear. Tthaak = obstacle.

Unhud = uniformly (pleasant); play automatically. Dhooni = notes (of musical instruments). Sobha = praise; honour. 3. laahiya = sang the praise. Shabaash(i) = win praise. Sungat(i) = company. Jaachik = wisher; beggar. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is your only friend and pal, oh my brother. Attachment to your son and your wife is all poisonous Maya, as nobody helps in the end (at the time of death). Pause. We start our daily routine with sunrise (the time goes by), the sun sets, and the night is over. The man does not understand that his life shortens (with every moment) and the mouse of time keeps on chewing the thread of his life. Maya is like sweet jaggery, and the follower of his mind sticks to it like a housefly and suffers because it gets stuck to it (and cannot escape from its bonds). 1. (On the other hand), those who come to the Guru's shelter and follow His Wisdom (Teachings) are protected as they stay detached from Maya. They carefully tread on the path of righteousness and do the business of Waheguru's Naam, as a result of which they are honoured. The followers of the Guru are hugged by God Himself and are honoured in His Court. 2. The path of life is lighted up for the followers of the Guru, and there is no hurdle in their way to union with Waheguru. They always keep Waheguru's Naam in mind, praise Him, and stay connected. They are applauded in Waheguru's Court, and they feel as if Divine music is playing for them automatically. 3. Everybody praises those who sing Waheguru's praise in the Guru's shelter. I beg for their company, oh Waheguru; it is my beggar's prayer to You. Those devotees of Satguru, whose minds have been enlightened, are lucky, oh Nanak. 4.6.70

Word Meaning: Rutta = engrossed; mind fully occupied. Kluttar = wife. Seegaar = adornments. Rus = sweet taste; love. Bhogeh(i) = enjoys. Maaneh(i) = enjoy. Rung = colour; attractions. Apaar = limitless; many. Phoormayayshi = demands; orders. Afaar = full of ego. Kerta = Creator. Undh = blind; ignorant. Guvaar = unrefined. 1.
Sookhdaata = source of comforts (Waheguru). Kerm(i) = kindness. Praaput(i) = acquire. Pause. Luptaaya = clung to; engrossed. Roopa = silver. Khaak(u) = dust; of no value. Haiyvur = pricy horses. Gaiyvur = pricy elephants. Ruth = chariots. Athaak = never tiring. Bisriya = slipped out of mind. Saak = relatives. Napaak = unholy. 2.
Bud-dooaayay = curse. Ikut = accumulate. Putiyayaynda = please. Sun(u) = including. Anit = perishable. Viyaapiya = happens; performs; living life. 3.
Purakh(I) = with Waheguru. Ikko = the only one. Maanus = human being. Phayr = return; rebirth. Rung(i) = in the affection. Jug = world. 4.
MEANING: Hey, foolish, ignorant, and unrefined follower of your mind, for what have you completely forgotten the Creator (Waheguru), and are you fully engrossed in the attachment of relations like your sons, and your adorned wife? You also enjoy different foods and activities of many kinds; issue many orders (have too many demands), and deal with people with big egos in your mind (without realizing their dreadful consequences). 1. The only source of all comforts is Waheguru alone, oh my mind. However, He can be realized only by His kindness, and by the grace of the Guru. Pause. The man is gripped in his enjoyment of clothes, gold, silver, etc., but is unaware that all these things have no (spiritual) value and are like dust. The man enjoys riding expensive horses, elephants, and various kinds of chariots, and never gets tired of it. He does not care about anyone (ignores them) and even forgets his relatives. He forgets the Creator and is unholy without Waheguru's Naam. 2. You earn the curse of many people while you accumulate wealth (because you usurp their rights), without realizing that all those (your relatives), whom you try to please, are perishable just like you. The egoist follows his mind and deals with others guided by his ego. (But he is not completely to blame) because Waheguru Himself has misguided him; and his upper caste, and his respect in society, carry no worth in Waheguru's Court. 3. Satguru connects some individuals with Waheguru, who is their only real friend. He is the guard of His devotees, and nobody can cause them any harm. However, the egoist suffers because of his ego. Waheguru listens to His devotees and grants them what they wish, and they suffer no reincarnation. One who is imbued in Waheguru's Naam serves as a beacon of enlightenment for the whole world, oh Nanak. 4.1.71.

Girumbaari vud sahibi, subh(u) Nanak soopun(u) theeya. 4.2.72.

Word Meaning: Bilaas(u) = happiness; gusto. Rung(u) = colour; variety of comforts. Ghuna = deep; immense. Chhutardhaar = having canopies on their head (emperors). Sehsay = worries. 1. Bidhaataiy = the controller of your destiny (God). Mit(i) = removed. Pause. Jaytay = however many. Thaan Thnuntra = different places (of significance). Taytay = all those. Bhuv(i) = visited. Dhunpaati = wealthy. Vudbhoomiya = big landlord. 2. Nisung = shamelessly. Vertaiy = deals. Afuriya = in big ego. Vusgut(i) = in control. Kur (i) Luyayon = brought under (control). Khaak(u) = dust. 3. Kot(i) taytees = 330 million (Hindus have 330 million gods and goddesses). Sayvka = servants. Sidh = accomplished yogis. Sadhik = those who purify their bodies by yogic exercises. Dur(i) Khuriya = waiting on the door. Girumbaari = household (a large estate). Vud Sahibi = high-level control. Theeya = happened. 4.

MEANING: The real peace of mind is attained only in the company of the devotees of Waheguru, oh my friend. If Waheguru writes good fortune for an individual, he is connected with a holy gathering, and all his worries and discomforts are eradicated. Pause. (Forgetting Waheguru), If an individual happily enjoys different colours of life, and even if he becomes a ruler of some state with a royal canopy over his head, he will still be suffering from many worries (without Sadh sangat(i)). 1. If one is very wealthy, a big landlord, and has visited all the important places (to enjoy life), he will still be suffering from his ego (without Sadh sangat(i)). 2. Without Waheguru's Naam in mind, if a man conquers everybody and issues orders shamelessly (without fear), he will still be treated like a particle of dust (will be humiliated) in Waheguru's Court. 3.
If he owns a large estate and has control over many people, so much so that all the 330 million gods and high-level Sidh Yogis and body purifiers are attendants on his door, all those will be like a lost dream (without Waheguru's Naam), oh Nanak. 4.2.72.

Word Meaning: Pupoliyaiy = nourish. Moogdh = foolish. Ujaan(i) = ignorant. Baybaan(i) = deserted place (graveyard). Saytee = with. Rung = colour (colourful life); blissfulness. Maan(i) = enjoy. 1. Laaha = earn profit (achieve the objective of spirituality and be "one" with God). Koophukkrray = worthless (ignoble) deeds. Pause. Koodum(u) = jump around carelessly; have fun. Kaal(u) = death. Otay = the same. Phaatha = trapped.

Mooktay = free from the bonds of Maya. Bhaaliyeh(i) = search; are considered. Smaal(i) = take care of; remember. 2. Jay = Jo = which. Ghur = house; life. Vertna = have to deal with. 3. Koondaan = directions. Bhaal(i) = search. Shernayay = (Guru's) shelter. 4.

MEANING: You came to this earth to achieve an objective (of being "one" with Waheguru), oh man. But you are busy pursuing worthless deeds without realizing that the night of your life is slipping away. Pause. Without the realization (of what the real objective of life is), the foolish and the ignorant man is only nourishing his body, starting early in the morning. He never thinks of Waheguru (despite the fact that eventually), his dead body will be thrown in the graveyard. To enjoy eternal happiness (blissfulness), the man should focus his mind on Waheguru. 1. Just like animals and birds, which jump around (have fun) carefreely unaware of the impending death, the ignorant man also enjoys life trapped in the net of Maya. Only those are free from the bonds of Maya who are fostering Waheguru's Naam in their hearts. 2. The man has only the household's interests in mind, which he has to leave behind anyway, but shows no concern (completely unaware) about his future home, where he will go (after death). Trapped in the net of Maya, only those get free from it who take shelter at the Guru's feet. 3. Nobody else (other than the Guru) can guide (enlighten) us and save us from sins. So, after searching in all four directions (everywhere), I have come to the refuge of the Guru. The True King (Waheguru) has saved me from drowning in the sea of Maya (and connected me with Him), oh Nanak. 4.3.73.

Jis tay sojhee mun(i) puyee miliya Purakh(u) Soojaan(u). Nanak dittha naal(i) Hur(i), Untarjaami Jaan(u). 4.4.74

Word Meaning: Mohut = a very short period of time. Paahouna = guest. Svarunhaar = finish the task. Kaam(i) = in lust. Viyapiya = trapped; indulged. Gavaar(u) = unrefined (uninformed). Vus(i) = in the control. Jundaar = unkind. 1.

Kundhee Paayay = near the bank of a river (which can cave in at any time). Poorub(i) = predestined. Buchan = Word (Shabad). Kmaayay = deal in; act on. Pause.

Dudduri = half-ripe. Vudhanhaar = ready for cutting (harvesting). Daat = sickles; a curved and toothed blade with a wooden handle to cut crops. Laavaiy = farm helpers. Kirsaan = farmer (landlord). Loon(i) = cut; harvested. Khaytaar = field. 2.

Pehr = one quarter of (night or life). Dhundhaiy = routine work; daily affairs. Jhaakh Jhkhaaya = fruitless conversation; enjoying sensual pleasures. Bhor(u) = early morning; time of grey hair (old age). Kud Hee Na = never. Chit(i) = in mind or memory. Pind(u) = body. 3. Vaariya = offer life to sacrifice. Jeo = mind. Sojhee = enlightenment. Purakh = (Waheguru). Soojaan = Wise. Dittha = saw; realized. Untarjaami = omniscient. 4.

MEANING: (You do not realize that) your life is very short, like a tree near the bank of a river (which can cave in any time), oh, blind (ignorant) man! However, those who are predestined act on the Guru's advice (to make life worthwhile). Pause. (It is ridiculous) For a guest visiting for a short time, to start finishing the house he is visiting, as if he owned it. Gripped in lust, the uninformed man does not realize that he is here on the earth as a visitor only. Upon death, he repents his actions when he becomes a prisoner of the unkind (Angel of death). 1. (Human life is like a crop) which can be cut whenever the landlord wants, regardless of whether it is still green, half-ripe, or fully ripe. On his orders, his farm helpers arrive at the field with sickles in hand, cut the entire field, and measure it. 2. (After spending the day in his routine business of earning wealth), The man spends the first quarter of the night eating and chatting with the family, and enjoys deep sleep in the second quarter. He enjoys sensual pleasures in the third quarter, and then morning approaches in the fourth quarter (to start a new day). Thus, He gets no time to remember Waheguru, who has given him the soul and the body. 3. I would gladly offer my life to (in the service of) the Sadh-sangat (congregation of the holy devotees) where my mind was enlightened, and I became "one" with the Super-wise Waheguru. Now I find the omniscient Waheguru always with me, oh Nanak. 4.4.74.

in the next world. 1. Kertay = Creator (Waheguru). Siyaanup = wisdom. Pause. Viyapyee = affect; act upon. Chhijjiyaiy = weakens; feels stress. Uvgoon = bad qualities. 2. Sayvko = slaves; servants. Mushuktay = hard work (in Guru's service). Tootthaiy = at (Your) pleasure. Vusgut(i) = in control. Sahibaiy = the Lord. Krave = does. Bulihaarnaiy = glad to sacrifice myself. Munsa = wishes of the mind. 3.
Samugree = all materials. Reet(i) = tradition; rules. Siyoun = with. Maaniya = convinced; content. Nihchul Cheet(u) = stable mind. Tayk = support. 4.
MEANING: Sing praise of the Creator (God), oh my mind. Keeping all your wisdom (ego) aside, fall on the Guru's feet (obey Him with humbleness). Pause.
My Guru has enlightened me and explained to me the real objective of life – (by singing Waheguru's praise to be "one" with Him); so, forgetting everything about daily routine, I am reciting Waheguru's Naam. My only wish is that I may forget everything else, but not the One - (Waheguru's Naam). All other hopes (wishes) are unimportant; the only important wish that one needs to achieve is (Waheguru's Naam), and one should work hard for that. Those who serve the Guru get the eternal seat (union with Waheguru) in the next world. 1. The suffering of discomforts and of hunger (for Maya), does not impact an individual who keeps the source of all comfort – Waheguru – in mind. No job (worldly attraction) causes any stress on you if you have enshrined Waheguru's Naam in your heart. No one can kill you (or no worldly attraction can rob you of your spirituality), when Waheguru is protecting you and providing His coverage. We should serve Satguru, who is the source of all comfort; He washes away (the filth of your ignoble deeds), and roots out all your ill qualities. 2.
I beg to serve those who serve You, oh Waheguru. If you please, allow me to serve You in the company of Your devotees. Everything is under Your control; in fact, You do everything Yourself and get others to do as You please, oh Waheguru. I wish to sacrifice my life for Satguru, who fulfils all my needs (and wishes). 3.
I see only one true friend, one brother, and one pal (Waheguru). He owns the whole universe, and it is only His tradition (laws) that operate everywhere. My mind found contentment when it was convinced (that only Waheguru is the source of all comforts). Now, He is my support, and I remember Him while eating and wearing (all the time), oh Nanak. 4.5.75.

Word Meaning: Thoak = things. Praaptay = acquire. Ikk(u) = one (Waheguru). Junum(u) Pdaruth = (valuable) article for life; objective of life (union with Waheguru). Suful(u) = successful; is achieved. Kuth(i) = recite. Mehl(u) = God's abode. Likhiya hovaiy Muth(i) = written on the forehead (fortune); predestined. 1. Aikus = One (Waheguru). Dhundh(u) = Maya related. Mithiya = false. Pause. Nimkh = a moment. Seetal = calm; peaceful. Poorub(i) = predestined. 2. Moorut(u) = Ghurree= moment. Suntaap(u) = suffering. Adhaar = support. Ootriya Paar(i)= made to the far end of the sea of Maya (salvaged). 3. Soohaava = pleasing; comforting. Pvit(u) = holy. Sunt Subha = holy congregation. Dhoyee = shelter. Buddha Ghur(u) = built residence; controlled mid; attained the highest spiritual level. Mirt(u) = death. Juraa = old age. 4.

MEANING: Concentrate (meditate) only on Waheguru, oh my mind! Other than the One (Waheguru), everything else is just daily routine work involving Maya, and attachment with Maya is short-lived (and hence, of no spiritual value). Pause.

If one is able to acquire (Waheguru's Naam), he automatically acquires everything else he wishes for. The objective of life is achieved if one recites the True Shabad (of the Guru) (with dedication). If one is predestined, he will achieve union with Waheguru by the grace of the Guru. 1. If Satguru casts His kind sight on someone, he enjoys the bliss which is better than millions of happiness and kingdoms. My mind finds peace (feels blissful) if Satguru fosters Waheguru's Naam in my mind – even if only for a short moment. But one seeks the shelter of Satguru only if one is predestined to do so. 2. That moment, that time, is successful when you love the eternal Waheguru. The individual who makes Waheguru his support does not suffer from any discomfort or painful situations. (His mind becomes so strong that he does not feel any discomfort. Whoever is held by the arm by Waheguru (is supported by Him), swims across the sea of Maya. 3.

The place where a holy congregation is held becomes very comforting and pious. Only that individual finds shelter (attains relief from all sorts of miseries) who connects with the Guru. With Guru's kindness, I have built the place (attained the spiritual level) where there is no death, rebirth, or old age (have become "one" with Waheguru), oh Nanak. 4.6.76.

Word Meaning: Dhiyayiyaiy = remember; worship. Jeeurray = oh, mind. Sir(i) = above. Vaysaah(u) = trust; faith. Siyaanupaan = all wisdom. 1.

Sehj = stable or peaceful mind. Saytee = with. Aatth Pehr = 24 hours; day and night. (pehr is a unit of time and is equal to three hours). Gobind = a name for Waheguru. Nit = every day (all the time). Pause. Jayvud = as expansive. Uver(u) = else. Simrut = remembering. Ghuna = very much. Na Moolay = not at all. 2.

Sadh Sungat(i) = holy congregation (of the Guru or the devotees). Nirmula = clean; purefied. Jum Kee Phaas = noose of the angel of death. Bhaiy = fear. Bhunjno = the destroyer (Waheguru). Mehrvaan(u) = kind; munificent. Kaaruj = task. Raas(i) = suitable; successful (the objective is achieved). 3. Vkhaaniyaiy = say; explain. Ooho oocha = higher and higher (unreachable). Thaaon = place; residence. Verna = colours (of the skin). Chihna = physical features. Baahra = beyond. Muyya = kindness; mercy. 4.

MEANING: Remember (keep in mind) only (Waheguru) who is the King of all kings, and seek His shelter who has won the faith of everybody, oh my mind. Forgetting all your wisdom, drop on the feet of (surrender to) the Guru. 1. Recitation of Waheguru's Naam with a peaceful mind (above the effects of Maya) is the only source of comfort, oh my mind. So, recite His Naam 24 hours, and sing His praise all the time. Pause.

Take the refuge of only the "One" which has no equal (rival), oh, my friend. Worshipping Him provides great comfort, and one suffers no pain or discomfort. 2.

Mind is purified in the company of the Satguru, and the noose of the Angel of death is cut free. Pray before the source of all comforts and the destroyer of all fears (God), oh my mind. The objective (of being "one" with Waheguru) is achieved if the kind (Waheguru) shows His benevolence. 3. People say that Waheguru is more and more expansive, and He is higher and higher; but nobody can evaluate Him fully (describe Him) because He has no skin colour and no physical features. I only pray to Him that He kindly implants His Naam in my heart, oh Nanak. 4. 7. 77.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam all the time, oh my mind. Waheguru's Naam is always a great support that accompanies you into the next world and frees you from the clutches of the Angel of Justice. Pause. The person who always remembers Waheguru's Naam, enjoys comfort, and his face glows (with the purity of his mind), and is known (respected) all over the world. However, Waheguru's Naam can be acquired only from the Guru, as the eternal Waheguru resides in the Guru (and His devotees). 1.

The honours conferred by the world on a man are of no use in the spiritual world. The colour of (love for) different attractions of Maya is short-lived and wears off eventually, but a man who harbours Waheguru's Naam in his heart is respected everywhere. 2.

Overcome your ego and be humble as if you are the dust of the Guru's feet, and, quitting all your wisdom, take the shelter of the Guru, oh my mind. The individual, who has good fortune on his forehead, acquires Waheguru's Naam, which is invaluable like a precious stone. 3.

However, only that individual acquires His Naam whom Waheguru confers on with His own volition. And only that individual serves the Guru who has overcome the illness of ego. Luckily, I got connected with the Guru, and all my suffering has gone, oh Nanak. 4.8.78.

MEANING: Discarding all other efforts and approaches (all prevalent religious rituals), worship (recite the Naam with full dedication to) only the Perfect Guru (Waheguru) day and night, oh my mind! Pause. Waheguru is the only Supreme Being who knows your needs and wishes, and who is your saviour. Remember, He is the only support of mind and life (fulfills your spiritual and worldly needs). There are all comforts in Waheguru's (who is also the Creator) shelter, oh my mind. 1. Only He is your real brother, friend, mother and father. Only He, who has given us soul and body, is the real support of your mind (to fulfill its needs and wishes). The Waheguru, which controls everything, should never be forgotten, oh man. 2. Only He is present in one's heart, and everywhere outside in the whole world. Recite His Naam day and night, who has created all the living beings. When one is imbued in His Naam, he does not experience any grief or suffering (his mental level becomes so high spiritually that he does not feel any suffering). 3.
There is only one Supreme Being, and none other (He has no rival). Our body and mind belong to Him (are given by Him), and only those things happen in the world which He wishes. MEANING: Recite the Naam of the only “One” (Waheguru), as a result of which you will experience the supreme comfort, and will wear the robe of honour (be honoured) in the Court of Waheguru, oh my mind. Pause. Those whose minds are connected to Satguru are truly honourable. Divine Knowledge (enlightenment) sprouts in the minds of those whom Waheguru is kind to. But only those who acquire Waheguru’s Naam (get connected with Him) who have good fortune on their foreheads (are predestined for). 1.
Those who worship Waheguru with love (and dedication) lose the fear of birth and death. Their mind becomes pure in the company of the Guru, and Waheguru Himself nourishes and nurtures them (fosters noble qualities in them). One’s filth of sins of many lives is washed away, and he is blessed when he internalizes Satguru. 2. Waheguru is present everywhere, and He is the only provider for everybody - there is none other. One gets freedom from the bonds of Maya (is salvaged), and he acquires whatever he wishes for when he comes under the shelter of Waheguru. 3. Those are truly honourable who have made their hearts a residence for Waheguru. Their holy fame spreads all over the world. I am a sacrifice for those who recite Waheguru’s Naam, oh Nanak. 4.10.80.

Word Meaning: Vusiya = took residence. Jot(i) = Waheguru’s light (enlightenment). Purgasiya = lighted up. Liv = concentration; connection. Sadhu = Satguru. Oojla = gleam; shiny; pious. Poorub(i) Likhiya = predestined. Nit = every day. 1.
Chaakri = personal tending. Birtha = empty; without. Na Koyay = nobody. Pause.
Ichhaan = desires; wishes. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Untarjaami = omniscient. Sung = with. Kurnaiyhaar(u) = the Creator. Daan(u) = service to humanity; giving the gift of Waheguru’s Naam. Ishnaan = washing (the mind). Kaam(u) = lust. Lobh = greed. Binsiya = disappeared. Tujiya = quit. Abhimaan = ego. 2.

Laaha = Laabh(u) = profit. Poorun = complete. Kaam = task; objective. Aavun Jaana = birth-death-birth cycle. Reh(i) Guyya = left behind (came to an end). Mehl(u) = Ghur(u) = (Waheguru's) residence; union with Him. Puchhaan = recognizing. 3.
Hult(i) = this world. Pult(i) = the next world. Saar(i) = taking care of; remembering (the noble qualities of Waheguru). Aatth Pehr = 24 hours. Ruttay = imbued. Rung(i)
Apaar = limitless. Sookh Saagro = sea of comforts. Bulihaar = sacrifice. 4.
MEANING: You get the real comfort when you follow the Guru's Teachings, oh my mind. Nobody leaves empty (without Guru's blessings) when you serve the Guru as His personal attendant (obey His Will). Pause. When one is connected with Satguru, all his discomforts go away, and the source of all comfort – Waheguru- takes residence in his heart. Concentrating on Waheguru, one's mind is enlightened. When one gets connected with the Guru, his face begins to glow (his mind becomes pure); but only those get connected with the Guru who are predestined to do so. One's mind becomes pure by singing His praise and reciting Waheguru's Naam every day (all the time). 1.
All his wishes are fulfilled when one acquires the treasure of Waheguru's Naam. The omniscient Waheguru is always with you, but you need to recognize the Creator. One can do that (recognize Waheguru) when he recites His Naam by Guru's grace, and gives the gift of Waheguru's Naam to others (fosters the Naam in them). At that level of spirituality, his lust, rage, greed, and ego all disappear, and his mind becomes pure. 2. One's objective of life (union with Waheguru) is achieved as he internalizes Waheguru's Naam – this is the benefit (wealth) he earns. Waheguru becomes very kind and fosters His Naam in the heart of the devotee. With the kindness of Waheguru, the individual's birth-death-birth cycle is terminated. With Guru's Shabad, one's mind is enlightened, and one reaches Waheguru's Palace (merges into Him). 3.
As a result of the devotees' singing His praise, Waheguru protects them (from the attacks of Maya) by His kindness, and they are honoured in His Court. The devotees are imbued in Waheguru's Naam and sing His praise twenty-four hours. Waheguru is the sea (unlimited source) of all comforts; and (Guru) Nanak is always a sacrifice for Him. 4.11. 81.

Word Meaning: Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Jupiyaiy = recite (with dedication). Sehj = peaceful mind. 1. Athaah(u) = unfathomable. Visaah(u) = deal in; buy. Saagraiy = sea of. Sir(i) = above. Shaahaan = kings. Paatshah(u) = supreme King. 2.
Churn Kumul = lotus-like soft feet (of Waheguru). Tthaaon = place; refuge. Dhur = support. Parbrahm = Waheguru. Taan(i) = power. Nimaaniyaa = without any dignity; powerless. Maan(u) = honour; respect. Smaaoun = merge with. 3.
Aaraadhiyaiy = worship. Aatth Pehr = 24 hours. Govind(u) = Waheguru. Jea = soul. Praan = breath; life. Jind(u) = life. Suglay = all. Bukhshind(u) = forgiver. 4.
MEANING: Come to the shelter of Waheguru, oh my mind. Worship only the Naam of God, as there is nobody else (equal to Him). Pause. If one is able to connect with the Perfect Satguru, he acquires the treasure of the Shabad (fosters Waheguru's Naam in his heart). (I pray to Waheguru that) He is kind to me so that I may worship His Naam, which is the real Amrit (otherwise a mythical liquid which makes a person immortal). (When one worships Waheguru's Naam), his mind gets focused on the Naam (quits wandering), and the suffering of rebirth is eliminated. 1. Waheguru is a fathomless sea of noble qualities, and nobody can evaluate Him fully (cannot describe Him). One can only deal in the noble qualities (acquire them) in the company of the devotees. One needs to serve Waheguru (lead one's life according to the Guru's teachings), which is the source of all comforts and the Supreme King above all worldly kings. 2. There is no other support than Waheguru whose Feet are as soft as the lotus flower (an expression of devotee's love for God). You are my only support, oh Waheguru, and I survive on Your power (support). Waheguru confers honour on the weak, and I pray that I may be fully absorbed in Him by singing His praise. 3. One should always worship and remember Waheguru, who kindly supports our breathing, our bodies, our wealth, and our lives. Waheguru is kind and forgiving, and removes all our sins, oh Nanak. 4.12.82.

Word Meaning: Tis(u) Sach(u) = that eternal Truth (God). Vaychhorriyaan = separating. Deen = powerless; humble. Bhunjna = destroyer. Sut Bhaayay = honest intent (respectful love). Achurj = amazing. Nirunjno = of the One on which Maya has no effect (God). 1. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Pause. Daana = wise; know-all. Seelvunt(u) = calm (never gets agitated). Nirmul(u) = pure. Apaar(u) = whose ends are not known (limitless). Sukha = close friend. Nihchul(u) = eternal. Nidharaan = without support. Aadhaar(u) = support. 2. Paykhut = on seeing (connecting). Kilvikh = sins. Hireh(i) = destroyed. Shaant(u) = peaceful. Bhraant(i) = wandering of the mind. Nuvtun(i) = new; fresh (never tired). Daat(i) = largess. 3. Poorub(i) = right from the beginning (predestined). Urpeen = offer. Vaariyaiy = sacrifice. Hudoor(i) = present around. Ghut(i) = in the heart. Braham = Waheguru. Ruvind(u) = pervading; present. Akritghun = ungrateful; thankless. 4.

MEANING: Make Waheguru your friend, oh my brothers. Love for Maya is condemnable because no one seems happy in it (it does not last, and its loss causes grief). Pause.

I have developed a love for the eternal Waheguru because (unlike Maya) he never dies or leaves you. He is an integral part of everyone, and (once connected), He never separates from you, even if some people may try to do just that (to weaken your faith in Him). If a devotee has pure love for Waheguru, He eradicates all his troubles as He is kind to the humble (who overcome their ego to seek His shelter). He appears in many amazing forms, and the Guru has connected me with Him, oh my mother. 1. God knows everyone's needs and diligently looks after His creation. He is the provider, very calm, perfectly pure, and of limitless beauty (in His nature). He is one's real friend and helper, extremely expansive, and very high, beyond reach (by our senses). He is never-changing (he was never a child, young and will never be old), and has eternal Court (will never cease to be the Lord). He is the support for all those who are otherwise without support, and with His kindness, one acquires whatever one wishes. 2. The man needs to worship the "One" (Waheguru) with full dedication as He destroys all his sins as soon as he gets connected with Him; and He removes all one's doubts, as a result of which one's mind and body become pure, and find peace. The treasure of all noble qualities (God) is always fresh, and His largess is perfect. One should worship Him all the time and should never forget Him. 3. Waheguru is the friend of all those who are predestined (to have Him as their friend). One should offer Him all - one's body, mind (wisdom), and wealth, etc. - and should sacrifice one's life for Him. Waheguru pervades every heart; He is always close to us, and He sees and listens to everything. He always forgives us for our sins and nourishes even the ungrateful, oh Nanak. 4.13.83.

MEANING: There is nobody other than God (to protect you), oh my mind. No trouble or discomfort can even come near if one stays in His shelter all the time. Pause.
One should always worship and keep in mind Waheguru, who has given him mind, body, wealth, and has groomed him well (kept him in good shape) without any special effort. The creation of man, and placing His light in him, is a perfect art of God. 1.
The animal-like, unholy man does not recognize Waheguru, who has created him and given him everything. The animal-like (ignorant) man does not realize that all the wealth, including the precious stones, gold, and silver, is like dust (which has no value in Waheguru's Court), and all the relations like mother, father, and other relatives are false (temporary). 2.
(The ignorant man does not realize) that Waheguru is pervading inside and out (everywhere); he rather thinks Him to be somewhere far, far away. The man is full of ego and is absorbed in fulfilling his desires involving Maya, all of which are temporary. Without devotion to Waheguru, the load of passengers on the shore of the sea of Maya keeps coming and going (the world is caught in the cycle of reincarnation). 3. Please show kindness and save the world (from the suffering of Maya, and of reincarnation), oh, the Creator of the world (Waheguru). Without Waheguru, no one can save a man from the fear of the harsh agent of death. I pray to Waheguru to be kind so that I never forget His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.14.84.

MEANING: Worship Waheguru's Naam in the company (shelter) of the Guru, and focus on His Feet (His Shabad), oh my mind. Pause. (The ignorant) A man thinks that he owns his body, mind, wealth, the state, his good looks, and the whole country. He also believes that he owns his sons, his wife, and various kinds of clothes, and that he enjoys many kinds of pleasures. What he does not realize is that if he has not fostered Waheguru's Naam in his heart, all these things are worthless, and of no account (consideration) (in Waheguru's Court). 1. One should worship the treasure of Naam (God), so as to have good fortune on his forehead for his future, and one should seek the Guru's shelter to achieve his important objective (to be united with Waheguru). When one worships Waheguru, all his doubts and sufferings are gone, and he does not come and go in this world (is not reincarnated). 2. Come to the shelter of the Guru to enjoy His Company, and you will not need to take a dip in any of the sixty-eight Hindu holy places, oh my friend. (In Guru's company), your soul, mind, and body, will all be healthy (will be purified), which is the real objective of life. You will earn praise in this world and will be given a seat (will be honoured) in Waheguru's Court. 3. Waheguru controls everything; He does, and gets things done by others, without any assistance from anybody else. He is with us inside and outside, and it is He who gives and takes life. I seek the shelter of Waheguru, who is the master of all hearts, oh Nanak. 4.15.85.

MEANING: Service to the Guru (obeying His Teachings) is supreme, oh my mind. I pray to Waheguru that, with His kindness, I should not lose Him from my mind for even a single moment. Pause. With His kindness, I took shelter of the Guru, whose Teachings (my mind was enlightened), and all the bonds of Maya were broken. My mind got connected with Waheguru, and with His sweet and kind sight, I felt blessed. 1.
We should sing Waheguru's praise all the time, who destroys all our ill qualities. I have achieved many things with money, but I have found that there is no real comfort without Waheguru's Naam. One can easily swim across the sea of Maya when one's wandering mind finds peace and is imbued with Waheguru's praise. 2.
When one overcomes his ego to become humble like the dust of the Guru's feet (shows deep respect and obeys Him), one does not need any pilgrimage, undertakings of any hardships, or thousands of tough body controls. God is present everywhere, and is filling the whole space; so how can a man commit some misdeed when Waheguru is watching him all the time from close by? 3. Waheguru's Kingship is eternal, and so are His Huqam (Command, or Will), and His Throne. The nature He is supporting is also true (eternal), and the eternal Waheguru has created the whole universe. We should recite His Naam all the time, and I am always a sacrifice for Him, oh Nanak. 4.16.86.

Make an effort to recite Waheguru's Naam, and be fortunate to earn the wealth of His Naam. Recite Waheguru's Naam in the company of the Guru, and all the filth of your mind accumulated over many, many incarnations, will be washed away. 1.

With the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, the purpose for which man has been given the human life (to be "one" with Waheguru) is achieved, and you see Him (with the eyes of your mind) within you. (When you recite His Naam), Waheguru, which is present in water, on the land, and in the sky (meaning everywhere), casts His kind sight on you to "see" Him, and you feel blissful. 2. When one gets attached to the eternal Waheguru, one's mind and body get purified, and one does not need to recite some ritualistic mantras or suffer the hardships of forcibly controlling one's sensual pleasures - the hardships that some people endure to please some god. 3. Waheguru's Naam is the real wealth, including precious stones, pearls, and other valuables. There are all sorts of comforts like peace of mind, blissfulness, and enjoyment of different tastes, in His Naam. So, Waheguru's devotee, Nanak, affectionately recites His Naam. 4.17.87.

Sugul = all. Ghutaan = hearts. Aadhaar(u) = support. 4.

MEANING: Worship Waheguru with love, which is pervading every heart, is present everywhere, and is always with you to help you, oh my mind. Pause.

Only that book can be considered a Shastra or a Saoun by which one can sing Waheguru's praise. The Guru has kindly given me the wealth of the Naam of Waheguru, which has Feet soft like a lotus flower, as a result of which, a homeless (support-less) person like me has found a home in Waheguru's Palace (I am connected with Him). Singing Waheguru's praise all the time is the eternal wealth, and the control of your sensual pleasures (stability of mind). The Guru has kindly connected me with Waheguru, and now I will not suffer the pain of reincarnation. 1. When a person worships Waheguru, there is no limit to the comforts that he experiences. Only those people enjoy the bliss of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit who taste it and feel contented. The dear Waheguru is forgiving and takes residence in your heart when you are in the company of His devotees (to sing His praise). Those who serve Waheguru are the real rulers and kings. 2. Human life is an opportunity to sing praise of Waheguru; even millions of dips in holy places do not match the praise of Waheguru. And no ritualistic donation can match the fortunate tongue that sings the praise of Waheguru. The kind Waheguru takes residence in the body and the soul of His devotee with His kind sight. The life, the body, and the wealth belong to Waheguru (are given by Him), and I (Guru Nanak) am always a sacrifice for Him. 3. Once Waheguru has connected someone to Him, that person does not get separated from Him. The eternal Creator cuts the bonds of Maya for His devotees. After that, Waheguru does not consider the individual's good or bad qualities; instead, it sets him on the right (spiritual) path. I am in the shelter of Waheguru, who is the support for every heart, oh, Nanak. 4.18.88.

MEANING: Serve the eternal Waheguru (worship Him) as long as you breathe, oh my mind. Without Waheguru's Naam, everything else is short-lived and vanishes at the end (of your life). Pause. One should recite Waheguru's Naam with the tongue, as a result of which, his mind and body are both purified. There are many relatives in the world, including your mother and father, but nobody, other than Waheguru, can help you at the end. When God is kind to someone, he does not lose God from his mind for even a moment. 1.

My Lord is perfectly pure (just and impartial); I cannot survive without Him. I am very, very hungry for his sight, oh my mother; I pray to all if someone can connect me with Him. I searched everywhere in all four directions for peace of mind, but realized that there is no other place (for comfort) without my Lord, Waheguru. 2.

I pray before that individual who can connect me with the Creator (God). (I know) Satguru is the only provider of Waheguru's Naam whose treasure is full (there is never a shortage in His treasure, even if He distributes Waheguru's Naam to millions of people). We should always sing Satguru's praise, who is a manifestation of the limitless Waheguru. 3.

We should sing praise of the Creator and the Provider (Waheguru), who performs countless amazing feats. The only supreme wisdom is that by which we worship God all the time. However, only those find Waheguru sweet to their body and mind, who have the good fortune prewritten on their foreheads, oh Nanak. 4. 19.89.

MEANING: There is no one else as great as the Guru, oh my mind. I cannot think of any other place (person) than the Guru which can connect me with God. Pause.

Accumulate (enshrine) Waheguru's Naam in the company of Waheguru's devotees, and acquire the expenses for your soul's journey to Waheguru, oh my mind. The wealth of Waheguru's Naam is your companion here (in this world) and in the next. You acquire Waheguru's Naam by the grace of the Guru when Waheguru blesses you with His kind sight. But only those who acquire Waheguru's Naam are kind to Him. 1. Those who come to "see" the Guru (with the eyes of their mind) acquire all the needed things (have all their wishes fulfilled or become contented), oh my mother. They are highly fortunate who are imbued with the love for the Feet of the Guru (His Shabad or Teachings), because, being a manifestation of Waheguru, the Guru is the provider, omnipotent, and pervades everywhere, and He salvages people who are drowning in the sea of Maya. 2.

With what mouth (tongue) (how) can one praise the Guru, who is a manifestation of the omnipotent God, who is also the creator of the universe? Those foreheads (minds) stay stable (quit wandering) on which the Guru puts His hand (protects them). The Guru feeds you the Amrit of Naam, which prevents rebirths. If you serve the Guru, who is a manifestation of God and the destroyer of all suffering, all your fears run away. 3. The Satguru is unfathomable (His noble qualities cannot be measured), never- changing, a sea of all comforts, and the destroyer of all sins. Those who serve their Guru are not subjected to the punishment of the agent of death. Nobody can match the Satguru, even if you search the whole universe. The Satguru has given you the treasure of Naam, and now you can enjoy it in your heart. 4.20.90.

Word Meaning: Kaurra = bitter. Oopjiya = produced; resulted in. Soorid = endear. Bikhiya = poison (Maya). Baad(u) = fruitless debate. Bilm = delay. Bismaad(u) = amazement. 1. Vinsuna = vanish. Tiyaag(u) = abdicate; quit. Pause. Kookur(u) = dog. Hurkaaya = mad. Dhaavaiy = heads aggressively. Deh Dis = in every direction. Junt(u) = living being (man). Bhukh(u) = suitable for eating. Ubhukh(u) = unsuitable (immoral) for eating. Mud(i) = under intoxication. Biyaapiya = affected (by). Joni = different life forms. 2. Psariya = spread. Bheetar(i) = inside. Choag = bait. Trishna = desire (for Maya). Punkhi = bird. Phasiya = trapped. Tiseh(i)) = Him. 3.
Anik = countless. Mohiya = enchanted. Bidh(i) = different ways. Sumruth(u) = capable of doing anything; omnipotent. Purakh(u) = pervading everywhere (God). Hur(i) Jun = devotees of Waheguru. Liv = fully focused. Oodhray = salvaged. 4.

MEANING: Start serving the Satguru (by obeying and following his Teachings), oh my mind. Quit following yourself (and chasing Maya), oh my mind, because every visible thing has to vanish eventually. Pause. Maya tastes very sweet, but its use results in very bitter effects. (Under the influence of Maya) you endear your brothers and friends, but they start engaging in unpleasant, destructive discussions (quarrels over a share of the pie). Excepting Waheguru's Naam (everything else is perishable), one is amazed to see that it does not take long before all his wealth is gone. 1. Just like a mad dog that runs amok in every direction for food (and makes no distinction between good and bad), the greedy person does not realize and eats everything, morally or physically right or wrong. Under the intoxication of lust and rage, he is reborn repeatedly. 2. Maya has spread its net in which sensual pleasures are the bait. The desire to enjoy sensual pleasures has snared the human bird, which cannot get free, oh my mother. The ignorant man does not recognize (make a connection with) the Creator (God), as a result of which, he is reborn again and again. 3. The world has been enchanted (by Maya) in various ways; only those who are protected by the omnipotent and limitless Waheguru are saved. The devotees are salvaged because of their full devotion to Waheguru. I will gladly sacrifice myself for (offer my body and mind to serve) such devotees, oh Nanak. 4.21. 91.

Nanak Naam(u) smaal(i) tu so din(u) nayrra aayoyay. 4.22.92.

Word Meaning: Goyil(i) = a temporary visit (in Punjab, people used to take their cattle near the banks of rivers to graze when there was not enough grass in their homeland in hot seasons. Such meadows were called goyils). Goyili = a temporary visitor (the caretaker of the cattle in a goyil). Dumf(u) = a temporary show. Psaar(u) = sprawl; enlargement. Mohlut(i) = the given time. Pooni = finished; completed. Summul(u) = take care. 1. Thorrurri Baat = small affair; short life. Goomaan(u) = conceit; flaunting. Pause. Raiyn(i) = night. Prahounay = guests. Perbhaat(i) = early morning. Rutta = indulged. Grist = family. Bagaat(i) = gardens. 2. Lorr(i) = wish for; find out. Surpur = for sure; definitely. Otthi Chulna = have to leave. Lukh krorr(i) = millions. 3.
Lukh chaurasee = the believed 8.4 million life forms. Bhermtiya = having wandered through. Doolubh = precious; difficult to have. Smaal(i) = remember (Naam). 4.

MEANING: (Man does not realize that) this world is a temporary stay for him, like a cowherd who has taken his cattle to a meadow by a riverbank to graze for a short period of time and has to return to his home once the lack of greenery is over in his home village. So, why is he expanding his fake show, a temporary ownership? When your given life is over, you have to leave everything behind, but you are still worried about looking after your household, oh man. 1. Sing praise of God by serving Satguru with true affection, oh my mind. What are you conceited about for a short span of life? Pause. Like a guest for a night, who leaves early in the morning, you will leave this world at the end of the night of your life. So, why are you so indulged in the family, which is just like a flower garden (the flowers live for a very short period of time)? 2. Why are you claiming that everything is yours (when it is not yours forever)? You need to wish for Waheguru (get connected with Him), who has given you all these things. You have to leave this world for sure, and all your belongings will be left behind, even if they are worth millions. 3. You have been given this precious (so difficult to acquire) human life after you had wandered through the 8.4 million life forms; so, remember Waheguru, as it is your short opportunity (to be "one" with Him) because your death is approaching fast, oh Nanak. 4.22.92.

(PAGE 51): Nanak dhunn(u) sohaagni jin sheh naal(i) piyar(u). 4.23.93.

Word Meaning: Tichur(u) = till then. Soohaylurri = with comfort; while enjoying. Jichur(u) = as long. Saathi = companion (soul). Dhun = woman (human body). Khaakoo = dust. Raal(i) = mix with. 1. Bairaag(u) = lack of attachment with the mundane (and love for Waheguru). Bhuyya = taken place. Chaaou = zest; excitement. Dhunn(u) = worthy of respect. Tayra = yours (Waheguru's). Pause. Vusiya = resided. Kunt(u) = husband (soul). Kuhaat(i) = called (with love). Otthi chulsi = leave (this world). Poochhaiy Baat = care about. 2. Payiurray = in this world. (In Guru Granth Sahib, the present world is compared to the parental house, while the next world is compared to the in-laws' house). Shuhou = husband (Waheguru). Sahururray = in-laws' house (where God is the husband). Chujj Achaar(u) = desirable manners. Toodh(u) = you. 3.
Vunjunaa = (have) to go. Mooklaavunhaar = (waiting) to join the husband. (It was the custom in India to marry off girls at a very young age, but they were sent to their in-laws after a few years. (That sending off was called mooklaava). Sohaagni = truly married. 4.

MEANING: The human body enjoys comforts (and affection) only as long as its companion (soul) is with it. Once the soul leaves the body, it becomes a part of dust. 1 (Realizing this bitter fact), I have come to love Waheguru so much so that I have a great yearning to "see" Him now. Even the place where He resides has become worthy of worship for me. Pause. As long as the husband (soul) resides in the body, everybody shows respect and affection; but as soon as the soul leaves the body, nobody cares about the corpse. 2. If you serve your real husband (Waheguru) in your parental home (this world), you will enjoy all the comforts in your in-laws' house (the next world), where Waheguru is the husband, oh my friend. To do that, you need to seek the shelter of the Guru to learn the desired manners (values) for the next world, and you will never suffer any discomfort, oh my friend. 3. Everybody has to go to the in-laws' home (Waheguru's Court), and everybody is in line for the next world. (Some may not be able to enjoy the love of Waheguru because of their ill deeds); but those married human brides, who earn Waheguru's love, are truly "one" with Him, and are worthy of our respect, oh Nanak. 4.23. 93.

Word Meaning: Kern Kaarun = The Creator of the universe (God). Aakaar(u) = creation. Dhiyavou = worship (keep in mind). Aadhaar(u) = support; provider. 1.
Gur kay Churn = feet of the Guru (a metaphor for the Shabad or the Teachings of the Guru). Siyanpaan = wisdom. Liv = fully focused. Pause. Klaysh(u) = unnecessary disputes. Bhuou = fear. Biyaapaiy = affects. Muntar = Shabad; Teaching. Hirdaiy = in the heart. Kot(i) = millions. 2. Sadhaaraiy = finds blissful support. Bulihaarnaiy = sacrifice life. J(i) = who 3. Sadh Sungat(i) = in the company of the Guru. Bhaao = affection. 4.

MEANING: Only He (Waheguru) is the creator of the whole universe, oh my mind. Worship Him alone (remember and recite only His Naam all the time), as He alone is the support and the provider for all. 1. Worship Guru's Feet (act on His Teachings), oh my mind-friend. Surrendering all your wisdom to the Guru, focus on His Shabad with full dedication. Pause. When you internalize Guru's Shabad, no trouble (discomfort), unnecessary disputes, and fear of any kind can affect you (your spiritual level gets so high that you do not feel them). Millions of people have tried different ways, but nobody has ever been able to swim across the sea of Maya (cut the bonds of Maya) without the Guru's shelter. 2.
When one has a sight of the Guru (sees Him with mental eyes), he attains a blissful state, and all his sins are washed away. I wish to offer my life to those (serve them humbly) who take Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 3. The eternal Waheguru's Naam takes residence in one's heart in the company of the Guru (or His devotees). Word Meaning: Dookirt = immoral and unethical deeds. Sookirt = noble deeds. Mundhay = in the middle. Suglana = whole. Reht = without; free from. Bhagat(u) = devotee. Virla = rare. Jaana = recognized; considered. 1. Tthakur(u) = Lord; Master. Smaana = pervading; present. Soami = Master. Vud = great. Purakh(u) = Waheguru. Soojaana = wise; great. Pause. Abhimaan = disrespect. Mookta = free from. 3. Gut(i) = go. Uvgut(i) = come. Nudr(i) = in sight. Raiyn = dust (of the feet); serving the Guru and His devotees. Daan = donation. 4.

MEANING: The functioning of the whole world is being carried out under the influence of Maya, and it ranges between bad and noble deeds. There is a rare individual who is above these two kinds of deeds (above the influence of Maya); such an individual is recognized as the real devotee of Waheguru. 1. The Lord, Waheguru, is present everywhere. What can I say, or listen to, about Him? He is the wise Supreme Being. Pause.

Bhuyyay = became. Tthakur = Master; Lord. Aavun Jaana = coming and going (birth and death). Parbraham = God. Puchhana = recognized; realized. 4.
MEANING: It is easy to say, and to listen, to things about You, oh my Waheguru. But it is very difficult to do things to Your liking (to obey Your Huqam). Pause.
I have been playful because of my deep faith, and my deep love for You, oh my dear Waheguru. We are Your children who make many mistakes and get astray from the right path, but You are our father and our mother (and are forgiving). 1.
I consider You as my own, and take pride in You, and feel very strong because of my faith in You. You are present in everybody, yet you are out of our reach (because of our ignorance). You are not dependent upon anybody, oh my Sovereign Father (Waheguru). 2. I don't understand Your plans or means (by which You run the universe), oh Father. Waheguru Himself is above the bonds of Maya, and protects me from the worldly attachments, oh holy saints. 3. I have realized Waheguru by taking shelter of the Guru, and my Lord has very kindly terminated the cycle of my births and deaths, oh Nanak. 4.27.97.

Word Meaning: Kutiyurra = cut; finish off. Jumkaal(u) = Angel of death. Voottha = came to reside. Khusm(u) = husband; Master. Bhaytiya = met (took shelter). Binsiya = vanished. Junjaal(u) = undesired responsibilities. 1. Toodh(u) = you. Vitoun = on; for. Koorbaan(u) = Bulihaarnaiy = sacrifice life; be a slave. Toos(i) = pleasingly; kindly. Pause. Bhaao = respectful affection. Purakh = men. Soojaan = wise. Pichhaiy = behind; by following; because of. Chhootiyaiy = become free (from all bonds). Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Jayvud(u) = as great. Daata = donor; provider. Aatum = for soul. 2.
Purvaan(u) = approved; successful. Soobhaayay = (because of) affection and dedication. Ruttiyaan = imbued. Durgeh = (Waheguru's) Court. Jaayay = place; room. Kertay = Creator. Poorub(i) Likhiya = pre-written; predestined. 3.
Sach(u) = eternal. Kernhaar(u) = Creator. Vukhaaniyaiy = say; describe. Boodh(i) Bibayk = wisdom to make distinction (between good and bad). Niruntar(i) = without any gap; uniformly. Ruv(i) = (is) present. Aik = One (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: I feel zestful to sacrifice my life for You, oh my Satguru. I will gladly sacrifice my life to have a holy sight of Yours, as You have delightfully gifted me Waheguru's immortalizing (Amrit-like) Naam. Pause. My saintly brothers (devotee friends) have dispelled my fear of the Angel of death. The True Lord (Waheguru) has been kind to me and has made my heart His home. I have internalized the Perfect Guru, and all my undesired responsibilities have ended. 1. Those who serve You with respectful affection are the real wise people. Because of those individuals who harbour Waheguru's Naam in their hearts, many people find salvation in their company (because they follow their footsteps). Nobody else equals the Guru who gives the gift (of Waheguru's Naam) for our souls. 2.
Those who have realized the Guru by their respectful affection are respected in this world. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam find a respectful position in Waheguru's Court. However, such honour is in the hands of the Creator, and only those receive it who are predestined to do so. 3. True (eternal) is the Creator, True is the Lord, and True is His support. True (everlasting) is the description of the Lord, and so is the wisdom that can differentiate between the good and the bad. I survive on reciting the Naam of the "One" who is present everywhere without any exception, oh Nanak. 4.28.98

Word Meaning: Permayshur(u) = the Supreme Being. Daata = donor; provider. Adhaar(u) = support; food. Buchan = words (Shabad; Teachings). Kmaavnay = act on. Sacha = everlasting. Ruttiyaan = imbued. Chhaar(u) = (like) dust. 1.
Saajun = friend. Smaal(i) = take care; keep in mind. Ghaal(u) = hard work. Pause.
Sumruth(u) = capable of doing anything. Apaar(u) = limitless; incomprehensible. Agochur(u) = intangible; ethereal. Soyay = fame. Lorray = wishes. 2.
Paarjaat = a mythical tree that fulfills all your wishes. It is one of the five trees in the Paradise. The other four are: Kulp, Mundaar, Suntaan, and Hari-Chundan. Paarjaat was one of the 14 precious articles retrieved from the Kheer Sea when it was churned by the gods and the demons. Munsa = wish. Poorunhaar(u) = fulfiller. Oodhraiy = is salvaged. Nirunkaar(u) = formless. Agum = physically unreachable. Mehma = praise; greatness. Kuthunhaar(u) = describer. 3. Ful = results (wishes). Baanchhiyeh(i) = wish for. Titrray = all those. Poorub(i) Likhay = pre-written; predestined. Raas(i) = capital; wealth. Sherni = shelter. Bahoorr(i) = again. Binaas(u) = destruction (death; rebirth). Visrou = forgotten. Pind(u) = body. 4.

MEANING: Keep Waheguru's Naam in mind all the time, oh my friend. He comes to reside in your heart when you take shelter of the Guru, and all your hard labour is rewarded. Pause. Worship the Guru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru, with deep love from your mind and body, oh my friend. Satguru is the provider for the body and soul, and provides food to everybody. To act on the advice of the Guru is the True (everlasting path) to unite with Waheguru. Without getting imbued in the love of Satguru's Teachings, all Attachments with Maya are useless (in the spiritual realm) and are just like ash. 1.
The Guru (a manifestation of Waheguru) is fully capable of doing anything but is not comprehensible; only a few lucky people get to "see" Him (with mental eyes). The Guru is unreachable physically. He is pure, and nobody can equal Him. (Being a manifestation of Waheguru), He is the Creator, and also the source (provider) of everything. His devotees, who realize this, have everlasting fame. There is nothing beyond the control of the Guru, and whatever He wishes, happens (right away). 2.

The Guru Himself is the holy place, the Parijaat Tree, and the fulfiller of all the wishes. The Guru delivers Waheguru's Naam, because of which the whole world is salvaged. The Guru is omnipotent; He is formless, above Maya, intangible, and limitless (unreachable physically). The greatness of the Guru is beyond description, so what can a person say about Him? 3.
The Guru has all those rewards that a person wishes for. He gives Waheguru's Naam as the capital to His devotees, but the fulfillment of the wishes and connection with Him are predetermined by Waheguru. When a person comes to the Guru's shelter, he becomes immortal (is never born again). I beg the Guru that I should never forget Waheguru, who controls the life, the body, and our breath (life), oh Nanak. 4.29. 99.

Word Meaning: Chhootun = freedom (from the bonds of Maya); emancipation. Gur Kay Churn = feet of the Guru (His Shabad or Teachings). Srayvnay = serve (obey Guru's Teachings). Teeruth = holy places (pilgrimage). Durgeh = Waheguru's Court. Munniyeh(i) = acknowledged (honoured). Nithaavaiyn = homeless (no support). 1.
Toothaiy = pleased to be kind. Alukh = intangible. Abhayv = enigmatic. Pause.
Vitoun = on; for. Vaariya = be a sacrifice. Undin(u) = every day; all the time. Slaahna = Goon Gaaoun = sing praise. Pehnuna = wearing; dress up. 2.
Giraas(i) = (with every) nibble. Suful = successful. Moorut(i) = persona. Jayvud = as great. Uver(e) = else. Aatth Pehr = twenty-four hours. Jaap(i) = recite (His Naam). Goontaas(i) = treasure of noble qualities. 3. Permayshur(u) = Supreme Being. Smaayay = get completely absorbed in. Poorub(i) Likhiya = predestined. Dhiyayay = recite Naam. Shernangti = in the shelter. 4
MEANING: Hey, lovers of God, hey, my brothers, listen carefully: the bonds of Maya can be broken only by fostering Waheguru's Naam in your hearts. Rather than visiting holy places, keep Waheguru's Naam in your mind, because Naam is the real holy place; and rather than worshiping any god, worship the Feet of Satguru (obey His Word). By doing this, you will be recognized in Waheguru's Court, as a result of which, even a homeless (having no support) person finds a permanent home (becomes “one” with Waheguru). 1. Service to the Guru is only True service (the sweetness of) which lasts forever. When the Guru is pleased, he connects us with Waheguru, who is incomprehensible and enigmatic. Pause. I am a sacrifice to the Satguru who gifts us the Naam of the eternal God. Waheguru should be praised, and His noble qualities should be discussed all the time. The Naam of the eternal Waheguru is also eternal. So, His Naam should become our food and our dress (one should remember Him even while eating and dressing). 2. One should not forget Waheguru, which should be remembered with every breath and every bite, because Waheguru (in the form of Satguru) is capable of fulfilling all your wishes. Satguru should be remembered all twenty-four hours; there is no one else equal to Him. If Satguru casts a kind sight on someone, he cultivates the Naam of Waheguru, which is the Treasure of all noble qualities, in his heart. 3. Satguru and Waheguru are one and the same (Satguru is a manifestation of Waheguru), and both are present everywhere. But only those who recite His Naam are predestined to do so. I have come to the shelter of Waheguru/ Satguru, who is never born and never dies, oh Nanak. 4.30.100
