NOTE: (1) As per Guru Granth Sahib, human life is an opportunity given to man to unite with Waheguru, but the enchantment of Maya is a big hurdle in the path to uniting with God. Humans struggle to overcome the allure of Maya, but in most cases, they lose the battle to its deceit. Guru Sahib compares the role of man in the world to a trader who trades his merchandise for money; a man mostly trades his virtuous qualities for the gimmicks of Maya.
(2) Pehr is a unit of time and equals three hours. Man's life is compared to the night, which he spends in darkness (of ignorance). On average, one per hour is a quarter of a night (or a quarter of a life).
(3) It is a Hindu belief that the fetus does tup(u) (recites God's Naam) in the womb.

Word Meaning: Raiyn(i) = night (life). Vunjaara = trader. Gerbhaas(i) = (in the) womb. Oordh = upside down. Khusm = Lord. Saytee = for. Vukhaanaiy = says. Liv Laaga = fully focused (on God's Naam). Na Merjaad = uncustomary (naked). Kul(i) = (world of) of darkness (ignorance). Bahourr(i) = again. Kulm = pen. Voorri = moved (wrote). Mustuk(i) = forehead. Praani = man. 1.

MEANING: There is only one Supreme Being, which can be realized only by the benevolence of Satguru.
Humans, who are here in this world as traders in Waheguru's Naam, do not realize that the first quarter of their life starts in their mother's womb as per the Huqam (Law) of Waheguru. (As per the Hindu belief) They recite Waheguru's Naam (they are connected with Him) while they are hanging upside down in the womb, and pray to the Lord. Upside down, they are connected with God and pray to Him (to get them out of the unfavourable situation). They come naked in the world (without any wealth), and will leave naked again. The individual inherits the disposition according to what has been inscribed on his forehead by Waheguru's pen. The first quarter of one's life starts with conception in the mother's womb as per Waheguru's Laws, oh Nanak. 1.

(PAGE 75): ---------- Doojaiy pehraiy raiyn(i) kaiy vunjaariya mittra vissar(i) guyya dhiyaan(u). Hutho huth(i) nuchaayiyaiy vunjaariya mittra, jioun Jashoodha ghur(i) Kahn(u). Kuhou Nanak doojaiy pehraiy, vissar(i) guyya dhiyaan(u). 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Vissar(i) = lost (from mind). Dhiyaan(u) = focus. Nuchaayiyaiy = toss around. Jasoodha = the godmother of Krishna, who raised him in Gokul. Kahn(u) = Krishna. Praani = oh, man. Soot(u) = son. Chayt(i) = remember. Achayt = unaware. Moorr = foolish. Bheetar(i) = inside. Giyaan(u) = (Divine) Knowledge. 2.

MEANING: In the second quarter of life, the trader of Waheguru's Naam loses the focus on Waheguru's Naam, which he was having in his mother's womb. His focus shifts to the love and attention he receives when he is tossed affectionately from one of his relatives to another, just as (Sri) Krishna was being raised by his godmother, Yashoda, in her house. As the infant is quickly taken from one relative to another, the mother claims that he is her son (everyone makes the same claim as a sign of affection). Remember (Waheguru), oh, my ignorant and foolish mind, because (despite all the love you receive now), nobody will be there (to help you) when your end comes. The man does not make any connection with his Creator (Waheguru), which he must maintain. In the second quarter of life, man loses his focus on Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Kuhou Nanak teejaiy pehraiy praani, dhun jobun sioun chitt(u). 3. ----------

Word Meaning: Jobun = youthfulness; beauty. Chit(u) = mind. Chayt-hee = remember. Budha = shackled (in the chains of Maya). Jit(u) = with which. Bikul(u) = crazy; insane. Rutta = imbued. Mutta = intoxicated. Ehila = precious. Dherm saytee = of high moral values. Kerm = (noble) deeds. Mitt(u) = friend. 3.

MEANING: In the third quarter of his life, the trader in Waheguru's Naam gets attached to wealth and beauty. He does not recite Waheguru's Naam, which can cut him free from the bonds of Maya. The man does not recite Waheguru's Naam as he goes crazy after Maya. Imbued in, and under the intoxication of wealth and beauty, the man wastes away his precious human life (the opportunity to unite with God). He did not trade in the high moral values, and made no friendship with noble deeds (did not perform them). In the third quarter, the man is attached to wealth and beauty, oh Nanak.

---------- Chauthaiy pehraiy raiyn kaiy vunjaariya mittra, laavi aaya khayt(u). Ja Jum pukarr(i) chulaaya vunjaariya mitttra, kisaiy na miliya bhayt(u). Bhayt(u) chayt(u) Hur(i) kisaiy na miliyo, ja jum(i) pukarr(i) chulaaya. Jhoottha roodun(u) hoa doaalaiy khin meh(i) bhuyya praaya. Saayee vust(u) praput(i) hoyee jis(u) sioun laaya hayt(u). Kuhou Nanak praani chauthaiy pehraiy, lava looniya khayt(u). 4.1. ----------

Word Meaning: Laavi = harvester (Angel of death). Khayt(u) = field (human body). Jum = Angel of death. Chayt(u) = mind; knowledge; information. Roodan(u) = crying; wailing.

Khin = moment. Bhuyya = became. Praaya = stranger; disconnected. Hayt(u) = attachment. Looniya = harvested (finished off). 4.

MEANING: In the fourth quarter of life, the Angel of death appears (to be) close. When the Angel of Death takes control of the individual and takes him away, nobody knows the secret (where the soul of the individual is taken). Nobody gets any information about the secret place where the human trader is taken by the Angel of Death. The fake crying and wailing (which does not produce any results) takes place around the dead body, which becomes stranger in a moment. One reaps the results of his deeds, performed during his lifetime, to achieve what he loves. The Angel of Death harvests the field of the human body in the fourth quarter of life, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Baaluk = child. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Achayt(u) = unaware. Kheer(u) = milk. Soot = son. Nayhou = affection. Ghunayra = deep. Moh(u) = attachment. Subaayee = all; the whole world. Sunjogi = by destiny. Kirt(u) = the result of the deeds (done in the previous lives). Kerni Kaar = deeds. Mookt(i) = emancipation. Boodi = drowned. Doojaiy Hayt(i) = in the love of Maya. Chhootehinga = will get freedom from the bonds of Maya. 1.

MEANING: In the first quarter of life, the wisdom of a child is not developed yet, and he is unaware of the real objective of life. He is fed milk, and his parents play with him affectionately. The mother and father love their son deeply, as everyone loves Maya (including family). Man comes into this world as per his destiny based upon the deeds of his previous lives, and continues to perform similar deeds in this life as well. But he does not realize that emancipation is not possible without Waheguru's Naam, and the whole world is drowning in the sea of Maya. (Guru) Nanak advises that the man must remember Waheguru in the first quarter of his life to cut the bonds of Maya. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhur(i) Jobun(i) = in prime youth. Maiy Mut(i) = inebriated state. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Kaam(i) = in lust. Viyapiya = under the influence. Undhulay = blind. Chit(i) = in memory. Ghut = heart. Kus = sour. Sunjum(u) = control on sensual desires. Jhootthay = which is not true (everlasting; perishable. Vert = vows (to do or not to do certain things). Sooch(i) = purity (of mind). Dherm Kerm = deeds of high morality. Pooja = worship. Bhaayay = affection. Nistaara = salvation. Doobidha = doubts (caught between love for Maya and God). Viyaapaiy = influences. Dooja = Maya. 2.

MEANING: In the second quarter of life, the man is in the prime of his youth, and is in the inebriated state of mind under the influence of Maya. The trader in Waheguru's Naam is possessed by lust day and night, and the blind of wisdom does not remember God. Waheguru's Naam is not in his mind while he enjoys all other sweet and sour tastes. He makes no connection with Waheguru, and does not ponder on His Naam; he makes no effort to control his sensual desires, and as a result of all these, the perishable man is caught in the rebirth cycle. (Even though they are worthless), But, he does not even perform Hindu religious rituals like pilgrimage, commitments to do or not to do certain things, purity, control of sensual desires, idol worship or other religious deeds. However, the only way to find salvation is to remember Waheguru; otherwise, Maya exerts its powerful influence, and the man spends his life in misgivings. 2.

Word Meaning: Huns = swan (white hair). Ooluthrray = landed. Jobun(u) = youth. Jurooa = old age. Jinaiy = wins; takes over. Aav = span of life. Unt(i) Kaal(i) = at the end. Jum(i) = the Angel of death. Khin = in a moment. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Visurji = went away. Uvgun = evil deeds. Puchhtaayay= repents. Chaytou = remember. Liv Laayay = with full dedication.

MEANING: White hair grows on the head (the man becomes old) in the third quarter of life, oh the trader of Waheguru's Naam. Youth begins to recede, and old age takes over; and the life becomes shorter with every day gone by. At the end of life, the blind man repents (because he did not remember Waheguru) when the Angel of death controls him, and takes him away. He had thought that everything belonged to him, but all those become strangers to him in a moment. His wisdom leaves him, and all his shrewdness is lost (rendering him helpless in front of the Angel). He repents for the evil deeds he had done. (Guru) Nanak advises that the man should worship Waheguru with full dedication in the third quarter of his life. 3.

Word Meaning: Birdh(i) Bhuyya = becomes old. Kheen(u) = weak. Vaiyn = wails loudly. Ruhhay = left behind. Praakou Taana = force; energy. Khurr(u) = the dried stem of crops like wheat. Koorr(i) = crunch. Bhujaiy Binsaiy = broken and destroyed. Maan(u) = pride. Shabad(u) Puchhaan(u) = Recognize Guru's Shabad. 4.

MEANING: In the fourth quarter of life, man gets old, and his body becomes weak. He is almost blind and cannot see with his eyes, and cannot hear with his ears, so he cries loudly (for help). He is almost blind and cannot enjoy tastes with his tongue. He is left with no energy. How can he have comfort when he has no good quality (virtue) in him? The follower of his mind is caught in the birth-death-birth cycle. Like the stem of a wheat crop, which is ready for harvesting, and which is brittle and loses its crunch to be easily destroyed, the bones of an old man become brittle, which can break easily. So, what can he take pride in? One should recognize Guru's Shabad (make connection with Him) in the fourth quarter of life, oh man, advises (Guru) Nanak. 4.

Word Meaning: Orruk(u) = end. Sahiyaan = breaths. Jur(u) = old age. Jervaana= powerful (and cruel). Kunn(i) = on the shoulder; close. Rutti = miniscule. Smaaniya = absorbed; acquired. Uvgun = bad qualities; vices. Khurrsun(i) = will take away. Bunnh(i) = tied up. Choat = punishment. Joh(i) = watch. Bhaiy = Bhuv = the world sea. Put(i) = dignity. Sehj(i) = highest spiritual state where Maya has no effect. Suglay = all. 5.

MEANING: The end of life (last moment) finally arrives in the form of powerful (and cruel) old age. The man did not acquire even a minuscule of virtuous qualities during his lifetime. Tied up, his evil qualities take him away (accompany him to the next world). If a man leaves this world with control over his sensual desires, he will not be punished and will never be reborn. The net of Maya, the fear of death, or the Angel of death cannot even come close to him. Having attained the highest spiritual level, such an individual is freed from all suffering and enters the next world with dignity. Man can break the bonds of Maya only by taking shelter of the Guru, and is honoured by Waheguru, oh Nanak! 5.2.

Sursay = felt joyed. Theeviya = became. Vust(u) = article. Chaytou = remember. Praani = oh man. Hirdaiy = in the heart. 1.

MEANING: The first quarter of life begins with Waheguru implanting the seed of life in the mother's womb, oh, the trader of Waheguru's Naam. (According to the Hindu belief) The fetus survives and matures by remembering and reciting Waheguru's Naam in the womb. The fetus endures the high temperature of the womb and survives by reciting Waheguru's Naam and worshiping Him. When the baby is born, the parents are overjoyed to see him. (However, they ignore Waheguru, who gave them the baby), But one must keep Waheguru in mind (who gave them the baby), and taking Guru's shelter, remember Him. (Guru) Nanak says that in the first quarter of life, the man should recite Waheguru's Naam with His kindness. 1.

---------- Doojaiy pehraiy raiyn(i) kaiy vunjaariya mittra, mun(u) laaga doojaiy bhaayay. Mayra, mayra kur(i) paaliyaiy vunjaariya mittra lay maat pita gul(i) laayay. Word Meaning: Doojaiy = the other (Maya). Bhaayay = (in) love. Paaliyaiy = raise. Saytee = with. Khut(i) = earn. Moorra = foolish; ignorant. Luptaayay = clings. Liv Laayay = wh full concentration. Kaal(u) = (spiritual) death. 2.

MEANING: In the second quarter of life, man's mind is attracted to Maya (family, wealth, etc.), oh, the trader of Waheguru's Naam! The parents hug their child and raise him, thinking that he is theirs, and with the expectation that he will earn and feed them (when they get old). The ignorant man does not remember the Provider but clings to the gifts given by Him. Some rare individual thinks about this reality, and taking the Guru's shelter, recite Waheguru's Naam with full concentration. Such a devotee never suffers spiritual death, oh, Nanak.

---------- Teejaiy pehraiy raiyn(i) kaiy vunjaariya mittra, mun(u) lugga aal(i) junjaal(i). Dhun(u) chitvaiy, dhun(u) sunchvaiy vunjaariya mittra, Hur(i) Naama Hur(i) na smaal(i). Hur(i) Naama, Hur(i) Hur(i) kuday na smaalaiy, j(i) hovaiy unt(i) sukhaayee.

Word Meaning: Aal(i) junjaal(i) = routine family matters (which bind him more with Maya). Chitvaiy = thinks about. Sunchvaiy = accumulates. J(i) = jo =which. Sukhaayee = friend (helpful). Sumpaiy = wealth; property. Jhootthi = does not last for ever. Puchutaayee = repenting. 3.

MEANING: In the third quarter of life, man's mind gets busy in worldly affairs (which do not support spirituality), oh trader in Waheguru's Naam. Man's mind thinks about wealth, and about accumulating it, and does not remember Waheguru's Naam. He never remembers Waheguru and His Naam, which is of great help at the end. The wealth and property are not real (do not last forever), and the man leaves them behind repenting. Waheguru connects that individual with the Guru whom He is kind to, and the individual then recites Waheguru's Naam. Such individuals merge into Waheguru, says (Guru) Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Cullun Vayla = time to leave. Aandi = brings. Vihaandi = running out. Khin(u) Khin(u) = every moment. Dhill = delay. Mool Na = not at all. Asthir(u) = immortal. Saytee = with. Maanhou Ruliyaan = enjoy (happiness of union with Him). Khovhou = get rid. Soaami = Lord (God). Bhayd(u) = distinction. Sufli ou = successful. 4.

MEANING: In the fourth quarter of the life of the human trader, who comes to this world to trade in Waheguru's Naam, the time to leave this world arrives by Waheguru's Huqam. So (before death), the man should serve the Perfect Guru (without any delay) because life runs out quickly. Serve Waheguru every moment without any delay at all, to be immortal through the eons. Enjoy union with Waheguru all the time, and get rid of the suffering of the rebirth cycle. Do not make any distinction between the Lord (God) and the Satguru, in whose company Waheguru's worship becomes attractive (successful). (By doing so), The life of the devotees becomes blissful, oh Nanak. 4.1.3.

Kuhou Nanak praani pehlaiy pehraiy, dhur(i) paayayta oodraiy maah(i). 1. ----------

Word Meaning: Oodraiy Maah(i) = in the womb. Maanus(u) = human. Moohlut(i) = time limit. Kerm = deeds. Dhoor(i) = from the beginning. Soot = son (children). Bunita = wife (spouse). Sunjoya = mixed; bonded. Sookerm = noble deeds. Juntaiy = living being. Vus(i) = in control. 1.

MEANING: The first quarter of the life of the trader of Waheguru's Naam starts with the conception in the mother's womb as per the Will of Waheguru. In ten months, the fetus is born a human, given a time limit to perform deeds. Within that time limit, the man performs deeds as per his predetermined nature (character) based on the deeds of his previous lives. As per his predetermined destiny, Waheguru bonds the child among his parents, children, and spouse. Waheguru Himself makes the individual perform good or bad deeds; human beings have no control on the nature of deeds they perform. The first quarter of a man's life starts with conception in the mother's womb, oh Nanak. 1.

Kuhou Nanak doojaiy pehraiy praani, bhur(i) jobun(u) lehreen dayay 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Bhur(i) Jooaani = in the prime of youth. Lehreen = waves of desires. Puchhaanyee = recognize. Mutta = intoxicated. Ahumay = ego. Punth = journey. Kraara = tough; difficult. Kubhoon na = never. Tthandhay = standing; watching. Jundaara = unkind. Dhermroy = justice of deeds. Buvray = ignorant. 2.

MEANING: In the second quarter of life, one is in the prime of his youth, and the waves of sensual desires rise strongly in his mind. Intoxicated with ego, the man does not make any distinction between good and evil. One performs deeds indiscriminately, unaware that the journey to the next world is very difficult. One never worships the Perfect Guru and does not realize that the unkind Angel of death is looming over his head (watching him closely). How will the ignorant respond when the Justice of deeds questions him (about his evil deeds)? (Guru) Nanak says that in the second quarter of one's life, the waves of sensual desires arise strongly. 2.

Kuhou Nanak teejaiy pehraiy praani, bikh(u) sunchay undh(u) ugiyaan(u). 3. ----------

Word Meaning: Bikh(u) = poisonous (Maya). Sunchaiy = accumulates. Ugiyaan(u) = ignorant. Klutar(i) = wife (spouse). Luptiya = clung to. Lehr(i) = wave. Lobhaan(u) = greed. Chit(i) = in mind. Sadhsungat = holy congregation. Sung(u) = company. Joani = life forms. Sirjunhaar(u) = the Creator. Visariya = dropped from memory. Soaami = Lord. Nimukh = moment. Dhiyaan(u) = mind. 3.

MEANING: In the third quarter of life, the blind and the ignorant trader of Waheguru's Naam, accumulates poisonous Maya. With the waves of worldly attachment in his mind, the greedy clings to his children and the spouse. With waves of desires in mind, Waheguru does not come in his thoughts. He does not join any holy congregation, as a result of which, he suffers through many life forms. The Creator and the Lord (Waheguru) has been forgotten, and he does not focus his mind on Him even for a short moment. In the third quarter, the blind and ignorant accumulates (only) wealth, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Din = the day (of death). Bayli = friend. Sukhayee = friend (supporter). Moh(u) = attachment. Sung(i) = with. Sugli = whole. Channun(u) = light (enlightenment).

MEANING: In the fourth quarter of the life of man, the day of death approaches near. So, you should recite Waheguru's Naam by taking shelter of the Guru, which will be your supporter and your friend in Waheguru's Court, oh, the trader of Waheguru's Naam. Love for Maya will not accompany you, which is purely temporary. The whole night of your life is spent in darkness (ignorance); serve the Satguru to enlighten your mind. (Guru) Nanak says that the day of death approaches near in the fourth quarter of life, oh man. 4.

Kuhou Nanak bhugut sohay Durvaaray munmukh suda bhuvaat(i). 5.

Word Meaning: Govind = (a name for) Waheguru. Kmaana = deeds done. Rutti = a very small unit of weight or time. Bilum = delay. Doohaylay = suffer in discomfort. Soohaylay = blissful. Bovaiy = sows. Khaat(i) = eats; reaps. Bhuvaat(i) = taken through (various life forms).

MEANING: When Waheguru's written Huqam (about a man's death) is implemented, a man's deeds done during his life accompany him (to the next world). The agents of the Justice of deeds grab the man with powerful hands and give him no time at all before taking him away. As per the written orders of Waheguru, the agents grab the man and take him away; the followers of their mind always suffer discomfort. On the other hand, the devotees, who serve the Perfect Guru, are blissful in Waheguru's Court. The human body is the ground for man to plant deeds in this world; the man reaps the results of what he sows (the kinds of deeds he performs). The devotees look dignified (are honoured) in Waheguru's Court, while the followers of their mind are cycled through various life forms, oh Nanak. 5.1.4.

NOTE: There are no documents written by Waheguru. His Will is everything. Such language is used for our understanding only.
NOTE: CHHUNT: Chhunt or Chhund is a form of lyric which follows a specific metre. Even though there may be exceptions, a typical chhunt has four verses, each with six sentences. The above four Pehrays are also chhunts. They are given a special name, Pehray, simply because they describe the four quarters (Pehray) of life.

Moondh iyaani payiurraiy, Gurmukh(i) Hur(i) dershun(u) dikhaiy. 1. ----------
Word Meaning: Moondh(u) = young woman (human). Iyaani = ignorant. Payiurraiy = (in) parental house (this world). Pikhaiy = see; have sight of. Saahur-rraiy Kumm = responsibilities of in-laws' house (of next world; Waheguru's home). Suhiyaan = (devotee) friends. Soohayli = enjoying comfort. Baanh loodayay = walk with arms swinging (with pride). Laykha Baaki = account balance. Kirkhaiy = pulls out.
NOTE: Even though the holy Shabad is written in the first person, it applies to the whole world; therefore, the meaning will be explained in the third person.

MEANING: Like a young girl, who is ignorant about her future responsibilities, and her behaviour in her in-laws' house while she is still at her parents' house; living in this world, human beings are ignorant about their responsibilities about Waheguru as to how to achieve union with Him who will be their future husband; so how can they have a glance of Waheguru in this life? However, if Waheguru is kind to some devotee, he is connected to the Guru, and under His shelter, the devotee can learn the behaviour with which he can unite with Waheguru. Such an individual (human bride) learns that reciting Waheguru's Naam all the time is the way to get connected with Him. She exudes confidence and enjoys comfort (blissfulness) among her devotee-friends and feels proud (is honoured) in Waheguru's Court. If there is any balance of bad deeds in her account with the Justice of deeds, she pulls it out (pays it off) by reciting Waheguru's Naam. By doing so (reciting Waheguru's Naam) in the Guru's shelter, the ignorant young woman can have a glance of Waheguru even in this world. 1.

Akaal moorut(i) vur(u) paaya abinaashi, na kuday muraiy na jaaya. Veaah(u) hoa mayray babola, Gurnmukhay Hur(i) paaya. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Gurmukhay = in the shelter of the Guru. Perchund(u) = very bright. Blaaya = lighted. Binsiya = disappeared. Rattan Pdaruth = highly valuable matter (Waheguru's Naam). Laadha = found; acquired. Laatha = removed; receded. Aap(u) = self (selfishness). Abinaashi = immortal. 2.

MEANING: The ceremony of marriage (union) with Waheguru is completed with the guidance of Satguru, oh my father. The darkness of ignorance is dispelled by the blaze of Divine Knowledge lighted by the Guru. In the bright light of Guru's Knowledge, the darkness of ignorance is cleared, and the precious Naam of Waheguru is realized. Along with the discomfort caused by it, the disease of haumein is gone, and one eats away (kills) his selfishness by the Guru's advice. The immortal and omnipresent Waheguru-husband is realized, who never dies or goes away. The marriage ceremony with Waheguru is completed by the Guru's kindness, oh my father. 2.

Word Meaning: Sat(i) Satay = eternal. Babola = father. Hur(i) Jun = one who is connected with God (Guru). Junj = marriage party. Sohundi = looks pretty (dignified). Soohayli = successful. Khuri = very much. Pasha Dhaaliya = threw the dice; perform noble deeds. Kaaruj = (noble) task. Vur(u) = husband. Purakh(u) Anundi = source of bliss and omnipresent (Waheguru). 3.

MEANING: The marriage party of the immortal Waheguru-husband becomes very impressive (highly noble) with His supreme devotees joining Him, oh my father. The human bride, who worships Waheguru, is successful in her mission in this world, and by virtue of her reciting Waheguru's Naam, she looks very pretty (dignified) in the next world. All those who are able to control their mind and perform noble deeds by taking refuge in the Guru make their life successful, just like a player at the game of dice who throws the dice with full concentration and achieves victory. In the company of holy men, such devotees have their noble goal achieved, and acquire the source of bliss and omnipresent Waheguru as their husband (achieve union with Him). The husband, Waheguru, is immortal, and His marriage party becomes very dignified with His supreme devotees joining Him, oh my father. 3.

Hur(i) Prubh(u) mayray babola Hur(i) dayvhou daan(u) mein daajo. 4.
Word Meaning: Daajo = dowry. Sunvraiy = adorned; end successfully. Kaajo = task (of union with Waheguru). Soohayla = successful. Khund = earth. Vurbhund = universe. Na Rulaiy Rulaaya = unmatchable. Koorr(u) = fake. Paajo = show off. 4.
MEANING: The human bride requests her father, Satguru, to give her Waheguru's Naam in the dowry in her marriage with Waheguru as the husband. She requests that her father give her Waheguru's praise as clothes (to save her dignity), which will lead her to success (in marriage with Waheguru). The dowry of Worship of Waheguru makes the task of (union with Waheguru) successful; however, this donation can be received only by the Guru's kindness. Nothing else can match this dowry (Waheguru's praise), and such a dowry is appreciated in this world and the whole universe. Any other kind of dowry - like the religious symbols and garb - which the Maya-engrossed gurus give to their disciples publicly, is not only worthless, it is simply a display of ego and show off. Please give me the dowry of Waheguru's Naam in my marriage with Waheguru, oh my father, Satguru. 4.
NOTE: While discussing the dowry given by the parents, Guru Sahib is not talking about the dowry in worldly marriages, which people also display; here, Guru Sahib is discussing the dowry only in the marriage with Waheguru. So, He is talking only about the dowry that can be given in such a holy marriage with Waheguru. Here, a Sloak of Guru Nanak Sahib will be very appropriate.
ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:1 (1286)॥ ਕੁਲਹਾ ਦੇਦੇ ਬਾਵਲੇ ਲੈਦੇ ਵਡੇ ਨਿਲਜ॥ ਚੂਹਾ ਖੁਡ ਨ ਮਾਵਈ ਤਿਕਲਿ ਬੰਨ੍ਹੈ ਛਜ॥

Meaning: The gurus who pass on their guruship to their disciples by putting a special cap on their heads are insane, and the receivers are big-time shameless. Such an act swells the heads of both parties; it is like the situation where a mouse with a huge item tied to his back cannot enter his small hole. -----

Nanak sunt, sunt Hur(i) aiko, jup(i) Hur(i) Hur(i) Naam(u) sohundi. Hur(i) Ram Ram mayray babola Pir mil(i) dhun vayl vudhundi. 5.1.
Word Meaning: Dhun = woman. Vaiyl = vine; clans; future generations). Vdhundi = expands; grows. Joogeh Joogo = through the eons. Peehrri = lineage. Binsaiy = perish. Svaaya = multiple times. Sohundi = looks pretty.
MEANING: The union between the human bride and Waheguru-husband results in growth, producing more and more devotees, oh my father. Such a clan of Waheguru continues through the eons when the devotees recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. The omnipresent Waheguru neither perishes nor goes away; He always bestows the gift of His Naam, which multiplies continuously. By reciting His Naam, the devotees are adorned (with noble qualities), and as holy men, they become "one" with Waheguru, and are not distinguishable from Him. The union between the human bride and the Waheguru-husband results in the growth, producing more and more devotees, oh my father. 5.1.

Nanak sikh dayay mun preetum sadhsung(i) bherm(u) jaalay. 1. ----------

Word Meaning: Gobind = a name for Krishna = Waheguru. Smaalay = remember. Nibhaiy = accompanies; supports all the way. Suhaayee Sung(i) = supports and accompanies. Birtha = without; empty. Chinday = desired. Ful = (reap) consequences. Churn Kumal = lotus-like soft feet (of Waheguru). Chit(u) = mind. Thul = land. Bunvaari = another name for Krishna = Waheguru. Ghut = heart. Nihaalay = nihaaray = sees. Sikh = advice. Bherm = doubts; skepticism. 1.

MEANING: Remember Waheguru's Naam, oh my dear friend, my mind. It is Waheguru's Naam that accompanies you (supports you) all the way. Nobody goes without support if he recites Waheguru's Naam, which always supports him. Whosoever focuses his mind on the Naam of Waheguru, which has Feet as soft as a lotus flower, has all his wishes fulfilled. Waheguru, which is present in waters and on the land, casts his kind sight on every heart (body). My advice to you, oh my dear mind, is to seek the company of the Guru (or his devotees) to clear (dispel) your doubts, says (Guru) Nanak. 1.

---------- Mun piyariya jee mittra, Hur(i) bin(u) jhootth(u) pusaaray. Mun piyariya jeeo mittra, bikh(u) saagur(u) sunsaaray. Churn kumal kur(i) bohith(u) Kertay, sehsa dookh(u) na biyapaiy. Gur Poora bhaytaiy vudbhaageen, aatth pehr Prubh(u) jaapaiy. Aad(i) joogadi sayvuk soaami, bhugtaan Naam(u) adharay. Nanak(u) sikh dayay mun preetum bin(u) Hur(i) jhootth pusaaray. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Jhootthay = not real; perishable. Pusaaray = expansions; developments. Bikh = poison. Sunsaaray = world. Bohith = ship. Sehsa = worry due to unknown outcome. Biyapaiy = happen; affects. Bhaytaiy = meets. Vudbhageen = with great luck. Aad(i) Joogadi = from the beginning of time. Sayvuk = personal attendant; devotee. Adharay = support. 2.

MEANING: Without Waheguru's Naam, all expansions (extensions) involving Maya are perishable (therefore are useless in the spiritual world), oh my dear mind. The world is a sea of poisonous (Maya); and Waheguru, which is the Creator, and has lotus-like Feet, is that ship which ferries you across the sea of Maya, oh my friend. if you board the Waheguru-ship, no discomfort and worry will haunt you. When one connects with the Perfect Guru, with great fortune, he worships Waheguru for all twenty-four hours. Waheguru's Naam is the spiritual food for all His devotees in each eon (and the Lord loves His devotees). (Guru) Nanak advises the man that without Waheguru Naam in mind, all expansions involving Maya are meaningless as they are perishable. 2.

---------- Mun piyariya jeeo mittra, Hur(i) ludday khayp suvulli. Mun piyariya jeeo mittra, Hur(i) dur(u) nihchul mulli. Hur(i) dur(u) sayvay Alukh Abhayvay, nihchul(u) aasun(u) paaya. Word Meaning: Ludday = load up. Khayp = merchandise. Svulli = resulting in success. Nihchul = everlasting. Alukh = incomprehensible. Abhayvay = unknowable. Aasun = resting place. Sunsa = doubts. Chitter Goopt = according to Hidu Granths, these are two invisible bodies which record the deeds of each individual. Kaagud = the paper on which the account is kept. Jumdoot = the agents of the angel of death. Kuchoo Na Chulli = cannot do anything.

MEANING: Load up your mind with the merchandise of Waheguru's Naam to be successful (in achieving union with God), oh my dear mind. (By doing so) You will be able to occupy an eternal spot at Waheguru's Door (achieve eternal union with Him). Whoever worships the incomprehensible and unknowable Waheguru at His Door (focusing fully on His Naam), acquires an eternal seat (becomes a permanent part of Waheguru). Such an individual gets rid of his doubts and discomforts, as well as his birth-death cycle. For him, all accounts of his deeds kept by the invisible agents - Chitter and Goopt - are erased, and the agents of the Angel of death are left with no power to hurt him in any way. (Guru) Nanak advises the dear mind that it should load up the merchandise of Waheguru's Naam to achieve success. 3.

Word Meaning: Sung(i) = with. Nivaaso = live with; keep company. Simer = recite (Waheguru's Naam). Sookheh Gaami = provider of comforts. Ichh = wishes. Sugli = all. Pooniyaan = fulfilled. Poorbay Kmaayay = earned in previous lives. Sri = Maya Siri Rung = (Maya's husband) Waheguru. Chireen = for along time. Vichhooniyaan = separated. Ryviya = present. Oopjiya = sprouted; develops. Bisuaaso = faith. 4.

MEANING: Stay in the company of the holy devotees (of Waheguru), oh my dear friend, my mind. Mind is enlightened by recitation of Waheguru's Naam. By remembering the Lord, who is the source of all comforts, all your wishes are fulfilled. Because of the (noble) deeds performed in the previous lives, one realizes Waheguru, from whom he had been separated for a very long time. At that spiritual stage, one realizes that Waheguru is present within (the heart) and without (the universe), and one develops full faith in Him. (Guru) Nanak advises that one should keep company with holy devotees. 4.

---------- Mun piyariya jeeo mittra, Hur(i) praym bhagat(i) mun(u) leena. Mun piyariya jeeo mittra, Hur(i,) jul mil(i) jeevay meena. Hur(i) pee aaghanay, Amrit baanay, serb sookha mun(i) vootthay. Nanak sikh sunt sumjhaayee, Hur(i) praym bhugut(i) mun(u) leena. 5.1.2.

Word Meaning: Praym bhagat(i) = love-filled devotion. Leena = fully absorbed. Meena = fish. Aaghanay = satisfied; contented. Baanay = Bani; Shabad. Vootthay = settled; took residence. Sridhar = support (creator) of Maya (Waheguru). Mungul = songs of happiness. Ichh = wish. Pooni = fulfilled. Tootthay = pleased to be kind. Lurr(i) leenay = taking refuge (of Satguru). Naoun Nidh(i) = the nine treasures (Hindu Ggranths believe that there are nine different treasures of god, Kuber). Serbus(u) = of all. Tthakur = Lord. 5.

MEANING: My dear friend's mind is fully absorbed in the affectionate worship of Waheguru (and like the fish, which cannot live without water, my mind cannot live without Him). Whoever drinks the Shabad-Amrit of Waheguru's Naam gets fully content, and all comforts come to stay in his mind. When Satguru is pleased, all one's wishes are fulfilled with His kindness, and one feels blissful as if the music of happiness is playing in one's heart. If one seeks Satguru's shelter, the Lord of all (Waheguru) is pleased and gives His Naam to him, which is the source of all happiness, and one feels as if he has acquired all the nine mythical treasures of Kuber. (Guru) Nanak says that Waheguru's saints advise that Waheguru takes residence in one's heart by worshiping Him with affection and devotion. 5. 1.2.

Mil(u) mayray praan adhaaray, goon Sadhsung(i) mil(i) gaavay. Nanak kay Soami dhaar(i) anugreh(u), mun(i) tun(i) unk(i) smaavay. 1.

Word Meeting: Dukknna = Southern (dialect). Hutth = heart. Mujhaahoo = inside. Piri = Husband (Waheguru). Pusay Deedar = to have Sight. Lubhnay = find. Praan Adhaar = basis of life (God).

MEANING: Sloak in southern dialect: My dear husband (Waheguru) resides in my heart invisibly; so, how I can have his sight (see him). (The only way) to "see" the basis of my life (Waheguru), is to take refuge of the holy devotees (or Satguru).

Chhunt: Word Meaning: Chhunt = a type of lyric (see the beginning note). Churn Kumal = lotus-like Feet. Reet(i) = (noble) custom; lifestyle. Dootiya Bhaao = Love for the other (Maya). Bipreet(i) = against custom. Dasaan = slaves (humble devotees). Bhaavay = to the liking. Desaavay = sight; visitation. Khin(u) = moment. Dheeruj = patience; peace. Bihoona = without. Heena = weak. Anugreh(u) = kindness. Unk(i) = heart. 1.

MEANING: As their natural custom (routine), the devotees have love in their mind for Waheguru, who has Feet which are soft like a lotus flower. Love for anyone else (Maya) is against their customary routine and is not to their liking. Without the holy sight of Waheguru, they do not like anything else, and cannot have peace (comfort) even for a moment. Like a fish, which does not survive without water, the body and mind of the devotees become weak (lifeless) without Waheguru's Naam. They sing praise of Waheguru's kind virtues and request that they be connected with Him. (Guru) Nanak also requests Waheguru to be kind to Him so that He becomes a part of His mind and body. 1.

(Sloak) Dukkna: Sohundrro hubh ttaayay, koyay na disaiy doojrro. Khoollhurray kpaat Nanak Satgur bhayt-tay.
Word Meaning: Sohundrro = looks very pretty (majestic). Hubh = subh = all. Tthaayay = places. Kpaat = doors (of mind). Bhayt-tay = (upon) meeting.
MEANING: Connecting with Satguru, the doors of my mind have opened (my mind is enlightened). Now I find You looking very majestic everywhere, and I do not see anybody without You (You are present in everybody), oh Waheguru.
Chhunt: Tayray Buchan anoop apaar, suntan aadhar, Bani beechaariyaiy jeeo. Simrut saas giraas, poorun bisooaas, kiyoun munhoun bisaariyaiy jeeo. Word Meaning: Anoop = unparalleled. Apaar = without limits. Giraas = (with every) nibble. Bisooaas = faith. Bisaariyaiy = drop from mind (memory). Nimukh = moment. Taariyaiy = put off; delay. Goonvunt = source of virtues. Baanchhut = desired. Birtha = condition. Saaray = looks after. Anaath = orphan. Naathay = Master. Jooyaiy = in gamble. Bhuvjul = world sea (sea of Maya). Taariyaiy = take across (have different pronunciation).
MEANING: Guru's words in Your praise are of unparalleled beauty, oh the limitless, and the basis (support) of the spiritual life of Your devotees, Waheguru. One must ponder on Guru's Shabad (to worship) Waheguru. Waheguru should never be forgotten from one's mind; He should rather be remembered with every breath and with every bite with full faith. The treasure of virtues (God) is the support of our life, and one cannot afford to forget Him even for a moment; remembering Him should not be delayed. Waheguru fulfills all wishes and desires and looks after everybody according to their needs and according to their mind. He is the Lord of the spiritually orphans (who have no guru to guide them), and one should recite His Naam for spiritual life; and should not waste this (precious human) life in gambling (mental struggle between Maya and God). (Guru) Nanak requests the Lord that He should kindly carry Him (Guru Nanak) across the sea of Maya. 2.

(Sloak) Dukkhna: Dhoorri mujun(u) Sadh khay, Saayeen theeyay kirpal. Luddhay hubhay thoakrro, Nanak Hur(i) dhun(u) maal. 1.

Word Meaning: Dhoorri = dust (of the feet). Mujun = bath. Khay = of. Saayeen = Lord. Theeyay = became. Kirpal = kind. Luddhay = found; acquired. Hubbay = all. Thoakrro = articles (of use). Maal = wealth.

MEANING: God becomes very kind when one takes a bath in the dust of Satguru's Feet (obeys His advice). As a result, one acquires everything useful to him because the real wealth is Waheguru's Naam. 1.

Chhunt(u): Soondar Soami dhaam, bhugtah bisraam, aasa lug(i) jeevtay jeeo. Mun(i) tunay gultaan, simrut Prubh Naam, Hur(i) Amrit(u) peevtay jeeo.

(PAGE 81): Amrit Hur(i) peevtay suda thir(u) theevtay bikhaiy bun(u) feeka jaaniya. Bhuyay kirpal, Gopal Prubh mayray, Sadh sungat(i) nidh(i) maaniya. Serbso sookh aanund ghun piyaray, Hur(i) ruttan(u) mun untar(i) seevtay. Ikk(u) til(u) nuhee visraiy praan aadhara jup(i) jup(i) Nanak jeevtay.

Word Meaning: Soami = God. Dhaam = residence. Bisraam = peace. Aasa = hope; faith. Gultaan = inebriated. Suda Thir(u) = never changing; immortal. Theevtay = became. Bikhaiy = of poison (Maya). Bun(u) = forest; world. Feeka = tasteless. Gopal = God. Nidh(i) = Treasure (God). Serbso = all. Ghun = very much. Til(u) = (the size of a) sesame seed (tiny amount of time). 3.

MEANING: The devotees find peace of mind while reciting Waheguru's Naam, and live with the faith that they will be "one" with Him who has a beautiful Residence. Remembering Waheguru's Naam, they drink the life-sustaining Amrit and feel inebriated in mind and body. By drinking Amrit of Waheguru's Naam, they find the world of Maya to be tasteless, and as a result, they attain emancipation and become immortal. With the grace of the kind Waheguru, one connects with Satguru and realizes Waheguru, the treasure of everything. Such individuals, stich precious Waheguru's Naam in their minds, thereby acquiring great comfort and bliss. They do not forget Waheguru even for a tiny moment of time, and live by reciting the Naam of Waheguru which is the basis of their life, oh Nanak. 3.

(Sloak) Dukkhna: Jo Tuou keenay aapnay, tinha koon miliohay. Aapay hee Aap(i) mohiyo, jus(u) Nanak Aap(i) sooniohay. 1.

Word Meaning: Koon = to; with. Mohiohay = captivated. Jus(u) = praise. 1.

MEANING: God connects with them whom he has made His own. (Being present in everyone) He captivates Himself (other living beings) and listens to His own praise.

Chhunt(u): Praym ttugaouri paayay reejhaayay, Gobind mun(u) mohiya jeeo. Suntun kaiy persaad(i), aghaad(i), kuntthay lug(i) sohiya jeeo. Hur(i) kuntth(i) lug(i) sohiya, doakh subh(i) johiya, bhagat lukhan kur(i) vus(i) bhuyay. Mun(i) serb sookh vootthay, Govind tootthay, junum merna subh(i) mit(i) guyya. Sukheen mungalo gaaya, ichh poojaaya, bahoorr(i) na Maya hoya. Ker(u) geh(i) leenay, Nanak Prubh piyaray, sunsaar saagar nuhee pohiya. 4.
Word Meaning: Tthugaouri = charm. Reejhaayay = charms. Mohiya = enchanted. Aghaadh(i) = beyond reach. Kuntth = neck. Sohiya = looks pretty. Doakh = opposing (the five demons). Johiya = warned. Lukhan = qualities. Vus(i) = controlled. Vootthay = take residence. Govind = Krishna = Waheguru. Tootthay = pleased to be kind. Sukheen = female friends (senses). Mungalo = song of happiness. Ichh = wish. Bahoorr(i) = again. Kur(u) = hand. Geh(i) = by holding. Na Pohiya = do not even come close.
MEANING: Waheguru enchants our mind by captivating us with the charm of His Love. By the kindness of His beloved devotees, the otherwise unreachable Waheguru hugs His devotees to the neck, and they look very pretty (exalted) (because of their virtues). When a devotee is adorned (honoured) by being hugged by Waheguru, all his opposing demons (evil qualities) are warned (to stay away) – actually, they come under control because of one's newly acquired noble qualities. With Waheguru pleased, His kindness causes all comforts to settle in the devotee's heart, and his birth-death cycle comes to an end. All the wishes of the devotee are fulfilled, and he feels as if all his senses are singing a song of happiness; and he is not deceived by Maya again. Dear Waheguru holds the devotee by the hand, and the sea of Maya does not affect him at all. 4.

(Sloak) Dukkhna: Saayeen Naam amoal(u), keem na koyee jaando. Jinnah bhaag muthahay, say Nanak Hur(i) rung(u) maando. 1.
Word Meaning: Saayeen = Lord. Amoal = invaluable. Keem = value. Bhaag = luck. Muthahay = on the forehead. Rung(u) = love. Maando = enjoy. 1.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is invaluable, and nobody knows its true worth. The individuals who have good fortune on their forehead enjoy His love (but even they do not know the worth of His Naam).
Chhunt(u) : Kehtay puvittar soontay subh(i), dhunn(u) likhteen kool(u) taariya jeeo. Jin kuou Sadhu sung(u), Naam Hur(i) rung(u), tinhi Braham beechaariya jeeo. Satguru duyaal kirpal bhaytut Huray, kaam(u) krodh(u) loabh(u) maariya. Kuthun na jaayay Akuth(u) Soami, sudkaiy jaayay Nanak(u) vaariya.
Word Meaning: Puvittar = pious. Dhunn(u) = worthy of respect. Likhteen = writers. Kool(u) = clan (devotees around). Sadhu Sung(i) = company of the Guru. Braham = Waheguru. Svaariya = made successful. Poorun = full. Kur(u) = hand. Geh(i) = by holding. Juso = praise. Joan(i) = rebirth. Bhaytut = meeting; connection. Kaam(u) = lust. Kuthna = describe. Akuth = indescribable = Waheguru. 5.
MEANING: The devotees who recite, and all those who listen to Waheguru's Naam, are pious (holy); and those who write His praise are worthy of respect. Not only do they find salvation, but they salvage their whole clan (those who come in contact with them) too. Those who stay in the company (shelter) of the Guru enjoy Waheguru's love and ponder on Waheguru Naam (make a connection with Him). Because of their connection with Waheguru and His kindness, they make their lives a success. Waheguru holds their hand, and gifts His praise (Naam) to them, as a result of which they (become "one" with Waheguru), and never suffer death again, and do not have to take birth again. The kind and the munificent connect the devotees with God, and their lust, rage, and greed are eradicated. Nothing can be said about the indescribable Waheguru (no one can say anything); I am a sacrifice to Waheguru, oh Nanak. 5.1.3.

Hur(i) Hur(i) ootum(u) Naam(u) haiy, jin(i) siriya subh(u) koyay jeeo. Hur(i) jea subhay pritpaalda, ghut(i) ghut(i) Rumuyiya soyay. So Hur(i) suda dhiyayiyaiy, Tis(u) bin(u) uver(u) na koyay. Jo moh(i) Maya chit(u) laayaynday, say chhoad(i) chulay, dookh(u) royay. Jun

Word Meaning: Vunjaara = trader (in Waheguru's Naam). Ootum = supreme. Siriya = created. Pritpaalda = raises and nourishes. Ghut = heart. Rumuyiya = one who is present everywhere (God). Uver(u) = other; else. Sukhayee = friendly. Praput(i) = acquire.

MEANING: The Naam of Waheguru, who has created everybody, is supreme, oh my friends. Waheguru, who is present in every heart, raises and nourishes every living being. Such Waheguru should always be remembered; there is nobody else who can rival Him. Those who keep Maya in mind leave this world without any wealth and cry as they leave it behind. I remember Waheguru's Naam, which helps at the end, oh Nanak. 1. I have nobody else to worship. However, Waheguru can be realized only by taking the Guru's shelter if one is lucky, oh, the trader of Waheguru's Naam. Pause.

(PAGE 82): ---------- Sunt junaa vin(u) bhaayiyaan, Hur(i) kinaiy na paaya Naoun. Vich(i) haumein kerm kmaanvday, jiyoun vaysooa poot(u) ninaoun. Mun Hur(i) Hur(i) luhaan chaaou. Gur(i) Pooray Naam(u) Drirryaya, Hur(i) miliya Hur(i) Prubh Naoun. 1. Ruhaou. ----------

Word Meaning: Vin(u) = without. Kerm Kmaanvday = perform tasks. Vaysooa = prostitute; whore. Ninaoun = without (family) name. Jaat(i) = name of clan. Toottha = pleased to be kind. Pusaao = kindness. Ehinis = day and night (always). Bhaaou = affection. Keerut(i) = praise. 2. Luhaan = acquire. Chaaou = gusto. Drirryaya = reinforced. Pause.

MEANING: Nobody has ever realized Waheguru's Naam without being in the shelter of the Guru, or his devotees (who are already connected with Waheguru). Most people perform all tasks under the influence of haumein, and like the son of a prostitute, who has no identity (the clan-name), are without the father (Waheguru). One can acquire identity with Waheguru only if the Guru is pleased, and becomes kind so as to connect him with Waheguru. With good fortune, one connects with Waheguru when he fosters an affection for Him day and night. By performing the deeds of praise for Waheguru (like reciting His Naam with devotion, and obeying Him), I have realized Him, oh Nanak. 2. I realize Waheguru with zest, oh my mind. The perfect Guru reiterated Waheguru's Naam; as a result, I became connected to Waheguru and realized His Naam, oh Nanak. 1. Pause.

Vudbhaageen Gur(u) paaya, Gur Shabadi paar(i) lunghaayay. 1. Ruhaou. ----------

Word Meaning: Jobun(i) = youthfulness (has enough energy). Untay = in the end. Bulihaari = sacrifice. Voottha = made residence. Chaytiyo = remember. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. 3.

MEANING: As long as man breathes and has energy, he should recite Waheguru's Naam. At the time of leaving this world, Waheguru's Naam accompanies one to His Court and gets him salvation. I am a sacrifice for those who have made their hearts home for Waheguru. Those who do not remember Waheguru leave this world repenting (because they had ignored Waheguru). Those who are predestined to worship Waheguru do recite His Naam.

3. Love Waheguru (obey His Commandment), oh my mind. The lucky people get connected with Waheguru, and swim across the ocean of Maya (find salvation) by the Guru's Shabad. Pause.

Huri(i) Gur shernaayee bhuj(i) puou, jidoon subh kilvikh dookh purhuray. 1. Pause. ----------

Word Meaning: Bherm(i) = in doubts. Bhoolayaynds = misguides. Pergaas(u) = light. Virlay = rare. Kumal(u) = (mind) lotus. Vootthrra = made residence. 4. Jupan(u) = recitation of Naam(u). Jidoon = from whom. Kilvikh = sins. Purhuray = dispelled. Pause.

MEANING: Waheguru Himself is the creator, and Himself gives and takes away life. He Himself misleads people, and breeds doubts in their minds (about His existence), and Himself enlightens some of them. The devotees of the Guru acquire enlightenment in their minds, but there are only a few of them. I am a sacrifice for those who realize Waheguru by acting on the advice of the Guru. My lotus-like mind has been enlightened, and Waheguru has made my heart His residence, oh Nanak. I am a slave of Waheguru. 4. Man should recite Waheguru's Naam with a focused mind, and should rush to take shelter of the Guru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru, and who dispels all the sins and suffering. Pause.

---------- Ghut(i) ghut(i) Rumuyiya mun(i) vusaiy, kiyoun payiyaiy kit(u) bhut(i). Gur(u) Poora Satgur(u) bhaytiyaiy, Hur(i) aayay vusaiy mun(i) chit(i). Pause. ----------

Word Meaning: Rumuyiya = who is omnipresent (God). Kiyoun = how. Kit(u) = which. Bhut (i) = kind; type; strategy. Bhatiyaiy = meet with. Dhur = adhaar(u) = basis; support. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Visahou = investment. Jut(i) = caste. Put(i) = honour; dignity. Rung = love. Rutrra = imbued. 5. Sat(i) = the eternal Truth; everlasting. Ootput(i) = production.

MEANING: Even though Waheguru resides in every heart imperceptibly, but what strategy one should use to realize Him. (The answer lies in the fact that) if someone can get connected with the Perfect Guru, Waheguru automatically takes residence in his mind and heart. Waheguru's Naam is the basis for my wisdom (to guide me), and for my high spiritual state. Waheguru's Naam is my business (investment); His Naam is high caste and dignity for me. Nanak, the devotee of Waheguru, is imbued in His Naam(u), and recites His Naam all the time. 5. Recite the Naam of the eternal Waheguru, oh my friends. One realizes Waheguru through the Guru's Shabad and also comes to realize that the whole universe is Waheguru's creation. Pause.

Word Meaning: Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. Bhaayay = (with) affection. Vunjaariya = hey trader (in Waheguru's Naam). Pergaas(i) = enlightenment. Dhunn = worthy of respect. Vunuj = trade. Vukkhur(u) = merchandize. Ludiurra = loaded. Raas(i) = capital; investment. Oojlay = shiny. Toottha = pleased to be kind. Goontaas(i) = treasure of virtues (Waheguru). 6. Saas(i) Giraas(i) = with every breath and every bite. Rehraas(i) = routine. Pause.

MEANING: Those, who are predestined, get connected with the Guru. Their minds are enlightened with Waheguru's Naam because of their love and devotion for Him, oh the trader of Waheguru's Naam. The business of the traders, who load up the merchandize of Waheguru's Naam, and invest in it, is worthy of respect. The devotees of the Guru become "one" with Waheguru, and their faces shine in His Court (they are honoured). 6. Waheguru should be remembered with every breath and every bite. Those devotees of the Guru, who recite Waheguru's Naam as their daily routine, develop love for Him. Pause.

Siri Raag kee Vaar Mehla 4, Sloakaan Naal(i)

VAAR: Vaar is a type of lyric (Ballad) used to describe battles. They aroused valour among people. Vaars were very popular in Punjab at the time of Guru Sahiban. Since the human mind is also engaged in a battle between the good and the evil (between the worship of God and the attractions of Maya), Guru Nanak Sahib used vaars in the spiritual realm for the first time to stir feelings of Waheguru's worship. A typical vaar in Guru Granth Sahib has between 20 and 30 verses called paurris, and about twice as many sloaks. The vaars were written in paurris only to begin with, but later appropriate sloaks were also added.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:3॥ ਰਾਗਾ ਵਿਚਿ ਸ੍ਰੀ ਰਾਗੁ ਹੈ ਜੇ ਸਚਿ ਧਰੇ ਪਿਆਰੁ॥ ਸਦਾ ਹਰਿ ਸਚੁ ਮਨਿ ਵਸੈ ਨਿਹਚਲ ਮਤਿ ਅਪਾਰੁ॥ ਰਤਨੁ ਅਮੋਲਕੁ ਪਾਇਆ ਗੁਰ ਕਾ ਸਬਦੁ ਬੀਚਾਰੁ॥ ਜਿਹਵਾ ਸਚੀ ਮਨੁ ਸਚਾ ਸਚਾ ਸਰੀਰ ਅਕਾਰੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਚੈ ਸੇਵਿਐ ਸਦਾ ਸਚੁ ਵਾਪਾਰੁ॥ 1॥

ਨੋਟ: ਮ:3 ਦਾ ਭਾਵ ਹੈ ਮਹਲਾ 3, ਅਤੇ ਇਹ ਭਾਵ ਇਸਤਰ੍ਹਾਂ ਹੀ ਚੱਲੇਗਾ॥

Sloak M:3: Raagaan vich(i) Siri Raag(u) haiy, jay Sach(i) dhuray piyaar. Suda Hur(i) Sach(u) mun(i) vusaiy, nihchul mut(i) apaar(u). Ruttan(u) amoluk paaya, Gur ka Shabad(u) beechaar(u). Jihva sachi mun(u) sacha, sacha sreer akaar(u). Nanak Sachaiy sayviyaiy , suda Sach(u) vaapaar(u). 1.

NOTE: M:3 means Mehla 3, and this will continue throughout the rest of SGGS.

Word Meaning: Sach(i) = for the ternal (Waheguru). Nihchul = stable; unwavering. Mut(i) = wisdom; thinking. Ruttan = precious like jewels (Waheguru's Naam). Vapaar(u)= business. 1.

MEANING: (Even though Siri Raag is an important Raag), it is meaningful only if it arouses love for Waheguru in the devotee's mind (when he recites His Naam with Guru's Shabad); if Waheguru takes permanent residence in the heart of the devotee, and he acquires a stable thinking (to stay connected with Waheguru). But, Waheguru's precious Naam can be realized only by pondering on Guru's Shabad, as a result of which, Waheguru's Naam is not only on the tongue of the devotee, but also in his mind, as well as in his whole body (with which he performs noble deeds acceptable to Him). Serving Waheguru is the True business of the man, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਹੋਰਿ ਬਿਰਹਾ ਸਭ ਧਾਤੁ ਹੈ ਜਬ ਲਗੁ ਸਾਹਿਬ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਿ ਨ ਹੋਇ॥ ਇਹੁ ਮਨੁ ਮਾਇਆ ਮੋਹਿਆ ਵੇਖਣੁ ਸੁਨਣੁ ਨ ਹੋਇ॥ ਸਹ ਦੇਖੇ ਬਿਨੁ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਿ ਨ ਊਪਜੈ ਅੰਧਾ ਕਿਆ ਕਰੇਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਜਿਨਿ ਅਖੀ ਲੀਤਿਆ ਸੋਈ ਸਚਾ ਦੇਇ॥ 2॥

M:3: Hoar(i) birha subh dhaat(u) haiy, jub lug(u) Sahib preet(i) na hoyay. Ehou mun(u) Maya mohiya, vaykhun(u) soonan(u) na hoyay. Sheh daykhay bin(u) preet(i) na oopjaiy, undha kiya kuray. Nanak Jin(i) ukheen leetiyaan, soyee Sacha dayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Birha = pain of separation; pangs of love. Dhaat(u) = attraction for Maya. Mohiya = captivated. Sheh = Shah = king = Waheguru. Oopjaiy = arises. 2.

MEANING: Love for anything else is not more than running around for Maya unless there is love for Waheguru. Captivated by Maya, the human mind does not see or listen to (anything about Waheguru). (Because Waheguru is formless, and one cannot see him), man is blind to His existence; so how can he love Him because love for Waheguru's Naam does not take root in his mind unless he sees Him. However, the same Waheguru gives the "eyes" to the devotee (enlightens their mind), who had taken them away in the first place, by instilling love for Maya in their mind, oh Nanak. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਹਰਿ ਇਕੋ ਕਰਤਾ ਇਕੁ ਇਕੋ ਦੀਬਾਨੁ ਹਰਿ॥ ਹਰਿ ਇਕਸੈ ਦਾ ਹੈ ਅਮਰੁ ਇਕੋ ਹਰਿ ਚਿਤਿ ਧਰਿ॥ ਹਰਿ ਤਿਸੁ ਬਿਨੁ ਕੋਈ ਨਾਹਿ ਡਰੁ ਭ੍ਰਮੁ ਭਉ ਦੂਰਿ ਕਰਿ॥ ਹਰਿ ਤਿਸੈ ਨੋ ਸਾਲਾਹਿ ਜਿ ਤੁਧੁ ਰਖੈ ਬਾਹਰਿ ਘਰਿ॥ ਹਰਿ ਜਿਸ ਨੋ ਹੋਇ ਦਇਆਲੁ ਸੋ ਹਰਿ ਜਪਿ ਭਉ ਬਿਖਮੁ ਤਰਿ॥1॥

Paurri: Hur(i) ikko kerta Ikk(u), ikko deebaan(u) Hur(i). Hur(i) ikksaiy da haiy amar(u), ikko Hur(I) chit(i) dhur(i). Hur(i) tis(u) bin(u) koyee nahay, dur(u) bherm(u) bhaou door(i) kur(i). Word Meaning: Kerta = creator. Deebaan(u) = court; judge. Amar(u) = Huqam = command. Chit(i) = in mind. Bherm(u) = doubts. Bikhum(u) = difficult (to swim the world-sea).

MEANING: Waheguru is the only creator (of the universe), and He is the only judge. Waheguru is the only King who is commanding everywhere; so, keep only Him in mind, oh man. There is none other than Waheguru (that has powers like Him), so, clear all your fears and doubts about Him, oh man. Praise only Waheguru, who protects you outside (in the world) and inside (in your mind). Those who are kind to Waheguru swim across the difficult (sea of Maya) and are salvaged. 1.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:1॥ ਦਾਤੀ ਸਾਹਿਬ ਸੰਦੀਆ ਕਿਆ ਚਲੈ ਤਿਸੁ ਨਾਲਿ॥ ਇਕ ਜਾਗੰਦੇ ਨਾ ਲਹੰਨਿ ਇਕਨਾ ਸੁਤਿਆ ਦੇਇ ਉਠਾਲਿ॥ 1॥

Sloak M:1: Daateen Sahib sundiyaan kiya chulaiy Tis(u) naal(i). Ikk jaagunday na lehun(i), ikkna sootiyaan dayay ootthaal(i) . 1.

Word Meaning: Daateen = gifts; largesse. Sundiyaan = of. Kiya Chulaiy = what power (one has). Lehun(i) = receive; acquire.

MEANING: All the gifts (especially His Naam) are in the control of Waheguru (provided by Waheguru); man has no power to argue with Him (about receiving the gifts). Some are awake (visibly) yet (mentally asleep), so they do not receive them (His Naam); while He awakens (enlightens) some sleeping (unaware of His gifts) individuals, and gives (the gift of His Naam) to them. 1.

ਮ:1 ॥ ਸਿਦਕੁ ਸਬੂਰੀ ਸਾਦਿਕਾ ਸਬਰੁ ਤੋਸਾ ਮਲਾਇਕਾ॥ ਦੀਦਾਰੁ ਪੂਰੇ ਪਾਇ ਸਾ ਥਾਉ ਨਾਹੀ ਖਾਇਕਾ॥2॥

M:1: Siduk(u) suboori saadikaan, subur(u) toasa mlaayaykaan. Deedaar(u) Pooray payay sa, thaoun naahi khaayaykaan. 2.
Word Meaning: Siduk(u) = faith. Suboori = contentment. Saadikaan = having faith. Subur(u) = patience. Toasa = food and money for journey. Mlaayaykaan = devotees; holy men. Sa = they. Khaayaykaan = those who just talk big.
MEANING: Faith, contentment, and patience are the food and money for the journey (to union with Waheguru) for the faithful devotees; they get the sight of the Perfect (Waheguru) (achieve union with Him), whereas those who only talk big find no room in Waheguru's Palace. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ ॥ ਸਭ ਆਪੇ ਤੁਧੁ ਉਪਾਇਕੈ ਆਪਿ ਕਾਰੈ ਲਾਈ॥ ਤੂੰ ਆਪੇ ਵੇਖਿ ਵਿਗਸਦਾ ਆਪਣੀ ਵਡਿਆਈ॥ ਹਰਿ ਤੁਧਹੁ ਬਾਹਰਿ ਕਿਛੁ ਨਾਹੀ ਤੂੰ ਸਚਾ ਸਾਈ॥ ਤੂੰ ਆਪੇ ਆਪਿ ਵਰਤਦਾ ਸਭਨੀ ਹੀ ਥਾਈ॥ ਹਰਿ ਤਿਸੈ ਧਿਆਵਹੁ ਸੰਤ ਜਨਹੁ ਜੋ ਲਏ ਛਡਾਈ॥ 2॥

Paurri: Subh aapay Toodh(u) oopayaykaiy, Aap(i) kaaraiy laayee. Toon aapay vaykh(i) vigsuda,, aapni vudiyayee. Hur(i) toodhoun baahur(i) kichh(u) naahi Toon Sacha Saayee. Toon aapay hee aap(i) vertda, subhnee hee thaayeen. Hur(i) Tisaiy dhiaavhou sunt junhou jo luyay chhudayee. 2.
Word Meaning: Oopayaykaiy = having created. Kaaraiy = in (worldly) business. Vigsuda = feels elated. Vertda = operates. Luyay Chhudayee = frees from the bonds of Maya; salvages.
MEANING: Having created the world, You put everybody in worldly business (involving Maya), oh Waheguru. You feel elated to watch the world, which is your wonderful creation! There is nothing beyond Your control; You are the eternal Lord, oh Waheguru. You alone are operating everywhere. Recite the Naam of Waheguru, who protects you from the bonds of Maya, (salvages you), oh holy men. 2.

Word Meaning: Phukkurr(u) = joke; baseless. Naaoun = status in society. Chhaoun = protection; support. Put(i) = dignity.
MEANING: The pride of caste, or of the status in society, is a joke (is baseless) because all human beings have the support (protection) of the same God. Self - proclamation of being kind or respectable, is again a joke, because one is respectable only if he is recognized as such (in Waheguru's Court), oh Nanak. 1.

M:2: Jis(u) piyaray siyoun nayhou, tis(u) aagaiy mur(i) chulliyaiy. Dhrig(u) jeevun(u) sunsaar(i), ta kaiy paachhaiy jeevna. 2.
Word Meaning: Siyoun = with. Nayhou = Love. Dhrig(u) = condemnable.
MEANING: The true test of love for someone is to offer everything, including one's life, to the beloved. It is condemnable for the person claiming love to live in the world without caring for the beloved.
NOTE: It appears that Guru Angad Dev Ji is referring to Guru Nanak Sahib.

Word Meaning: Saajiyaiy = has created. Dus-chaar(i) = ten plus four = 14 (layers of the universe – a Muslim belief). Hut = shops; business centres (worlds). Kureevaiy = to do (business). Theevaiy = became. Jumkaal = Angel of death. Viyaapyee = affects. Pervaar = family (devotees in contact). Siyoun = with. 3.

MEANING: You alone created the Earth, the moon and the sun, as two lamps, oh Waheguru. You created fourteen worlds as business centres (for humans) to do business in Waheguru's Naam. Those whom You guide to take the Guru's shelter earn the benefit (wealth of Your Naam). Those who drink the Amrit of Your Naam are not tormented by the Angel of death. They find salvation along with their families (devotees who sing Waheguru's praise in their company). In fact, the whole world can benefit from them to find salvation. 3.

Word Meaning: Vusiya = is present. Vukht(u) = time; opportunity. Veechaaray = makes good use of. Bunda = servant (devotee). Shureh Shreeut(i) = Muslim way of life. Bin(u) Boojhaiy = without understanding (enlightenment). Siduk(u) = faith. Sijda = bowing. Mukhsood(u) = aim. Dhir(i) = direction. Moujood(u) = present.

MEANING: Having created the universe, God makes it His home (is present everywhere). The man, who realizes that human life is an opportunity to be "one" with Waheguru (and recites His Naam), is the real devotee (successful in his objective). Nature is certainly there, but we do not value (fully appreciate) it. Even if someone values it, they cannot describe it. A Muslim who simply follows the rituals of the Religion (does not gain anything spiritually); so, how can he swim across the sea of Maya? Rather than simply bowing to Him in a ritualistic way, the real Muslim is the one who has full faith in Allah, and who also is able to control his mind - the aim of his life. At that point, he will find Allah in every direction wherever he looks. 1.

M:3: Gur subha ayve na paayiyaiy, na nayrraiy, na door(i). Nanak Satgur ta milaiy jay mun(u) ruhay hudoor(i).

Word Meaning: Gur Subha = Guru's company (shelter). Hudoor(i) = close to.

MEANING: One does not realize Guru's shelter (connection with Him) by simply being physically close to Him (physical nearness or separation makes no difference). One realizes the Guru only by being mentally close to Him (focusing the mind on Him).

Word Meaning: Supt = seven. Nuv Khund = the nine regions of the earth. Dus-asht = ten and eight = 18. Vertda = operates. Bhaana = is liked. Saarungpaana = who holds a bow in his hands (a name for Waheguru). Choaj Vidaana = amazing feats.

MEANING: You are operating in all the seven continents, the seven oceans, the nine regions of the earth, in the four Vedas, and the eighteen Puranas; and are liked by everyone, oh Waheguru. All the living beings worship You. I am a sacrifice to all those who worship You under the guidance of the Guru. It is an amazing feat of Yours that You operate imperceptibly everywhere. 4.

Word Meaning: Kulou = pen. Musaajni = inkpot. Sudayiyaiy = call for.

MEANING: Do not call for a pen and an inkpot; write (Waheguru's Naam) on your heart, oh man. Love for Waheguru never fades if one leads their life imbued in His love. Pen and inkpot are perishable, and so is the writing on it; but love for Waheguru is never lost that He has written on someone's mind right from the beginning, oh Nanak.

Word Meaning: Viopaayay = verify. Drirraya = reiterate. Pullaiy Paayay = receives.

MEANING: You can confirm by testing that nothing visible accompanies you (when you leave the world). (To be accepted in Waheguru's Court), One should focus one's mind on Waheguru's Naam as reiterated by Satguru. Sach(u) (Waheguru) can be realized by the Guru's Shabad, which one receives (implants in mind) by His kindness. 2.

Word Meaning: Bhayt(u) = secrets. Vigsayt(u) = blissful. Sacha = just. Niyayoun = judgment. Kayt(u) = why; what for. Sach(i) = in the True (Waheguru). Rulayt(u) = mix completely; become one with.
MEANING: You are present outside (in the world), and inside the minds of people; so. You know all the secrets of their minds, oh Waheguru. Whatever a man does (even thinks of doing) is known to Waheguru, so recite His Naam, oh my mind. The sinner has to be fearful of Waheguru; a devotee on the righteous path is blissful. When Waheguru is just and delivers justice, why should one be afraid? Those who recognize the Just Waheguru (connect with Him) become "one" with Him, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Sun(u) = including; along with. Dooja Bhao = love for the other (Maya). Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. Uver(u) = other; else.
MEANING: The pen, the inkpot, and the paper should all burn down, including the writer who writes love for anything else (Maya) (other than Waheguru). (But no one can be blamed for his bad deeds) because he does only what he is predestined to do, oh Nanak. 1.
NOTE: A man's thinking (mind-set) is predetermined based on his deeds of previous lives. One cannot change that on his own. Only the Guru can change that.

Word Meaning: Koorr(u) = worthless (for spirituality). Vin(u) = without; except. Thir = stable; immortal. Khooaar(u) = suffer without any achievement.
MEANING: Whatever one reads or talks about is useless if it involves love for Maya. Nothing lives forever except Waheguru's Naam. Reading about anything else causes only humiliation for the reader (in Waheguru's Court), oh Nanak. 2.

Hur(i) kee vudiyayee vudi haiy, ja na soonyee kuhiya choogal ka. Hur(i) kee vudyaayee vudi haiy, apoochhiya daan(u) dayvka. 6.
Word Meaning: Vudiyaayee = adulation; magnanimity. Dherm Ka = based on noble principles (righteousness). Jea Ka Ful(u) = result of one's deeds (or thoughts). Choogul = slanderer. Apoochhiya = unasked.

MEANING: Adulating Waheguru and singing His praise are supreme. Waheguru's magnanimity is supreme because His justice is based on noble principles. Waheguru's magnanimity is supreme because He rewards one based on his deeds or thoughts (and there is no injustice). Waheguru's magnanimity is supreme because He does not listen to a slanderer. Waheguru's magnanimity is supreme, because He provides (fulfils the needs of everybody) even without asking. 6.

Word Meaning: Houn, Houn = I and only I (selfishness). Sumpou = wealth. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for the other (Maya). Johi = warned. Jumkaal(i) = Angel of death.
MEANING: The whole world is dying in selfishness, yet wealth accompanies nobody. The world suffers because of its love for the other (Maya), and is being warned (being watched closely) by the Angel of Death. The devotees are saved because of their worship of Waheguru's Naam in the Guru's shelter. 1.

Word Meaning: Aachaareen = character wise. Kusoodha Kaaliyaan = impure; black; evil-minded. Chitviyaan = polished; noble-looking. Reesaan = emulate. Tinaarriyaan = of those. Dur(u) khurriyaan = waiting at the door (with dedication). Ruttiyaan = imbued. Nitaaniyaan = powerless. Nimaananiyaan = without ego. Skaartha = successful. 2.
MEANING: We are good at conversation, but are bad character-wise. We look noble from the outside, but are evil at heart. We try to emulate those devotees who serve (Waheguru) with dedication. Imbued in the love of the Lord, the devotees enjoy the comfort of being with Him. The devotees have all the power, but act as if they are powerless, and stay humble (have no ego). Word Meaning: Meena = fish. Vutaayaynda = cast; throw. Saybaal(u) = green algae (bait for the fish). Ulipt = unaffected. Saiy Huthaan = in hundred and fifty feet (in deep waters); among countless attractions of Maya. Goolaal(u) = beautiful flower. Mookt(i) = free (from the bonds of Maya). Nimukh= ghurree = a moment. Nihaal(u) = blissful.

MEANING: (Being present in each and every thing) You are the water, the fish, and the net, oh Waheguru. You cast the net Yourself, and Yourself are the green algae (bait for the fish), oh Waheguru. Like the lotus flower, which stays unaffected by many other living things in deep water, You stay majestically unaffected by countless attractions of Maya. You Yourself cut the bonds of Maya for those who think of You even for a moment, oh Waheguru. There is nothing beyond Your control. Word Meaning: Huqam = Will; Command; Laws. Dhokha = dhookh dhookha = unrest. Dhun = human bride. Rujaayee= according to the Will. Dur(i) = Ghur(i) = Mehl = Waheguru's residence. Kermeen = kindness; blessing.
MEANING: Those who do not recognize the Will of Waheguru suffer a lot. There is unrest in their mind, and they cannot sleep well. If the human bride leads her life by the Will of God, she is invited to Waheguru's residence (gets connected with Him), and is praised (loved) by Him. But one acquires such wisdom (to obey Waheguru) only by His benediction. With the Guru's blessings, the individual becomes "one" with Waheguru. 1.

Word Meaning: Manmukh = follower of mind; Maya-engrossed. Vihooniya = devoid of. Kusoombha = an attractive, colourful flower which dies out quickly (it is used as a metaphor for Maya, which is also attractive but short-lived). Chhoccha = of no value. Puch(i) = suffering. Bishta = crap. Keet = tiny worms. Vaaro Vaar = again and again. Rungulay = pretty; lovable. Sehj(i) = high spiritual state. Soobhayay = in love.
MEANING: Do not make the mistake of falling in love with the attractive kusoombha flower (Maya), oh, the follower of your mind, and devoid of Waheguru's Naam, man. Its beauty lasts only for a short while, and it has no value (other utility). (Maya is just like the ksoombha flower, which lasts for a short time) So, those who indulge in Maya are foolish, ignorant, unrefined, and suffer again and again like the tiny worms in crap. Those who are imbued in the Naam are truly pretty people (in the mind); in the love of the Guru, they enjoy the bliss of a high spiritual state (above the effects of Maya). Their love of devotion never dies, and they always stay in a high spiritual state. 2.

Word Meaning: Sist(i) = world. Rijk(u) = daily needs. Sumbhaaya = delivers. Vul(u) Chul(u) = by deceitful methods; by hook or by crook. Koosutt(u) = lies. Dhaaya = controlled; made their business. Bhaavaiy = as per (His) wish. Ootaiy = the same. Atoot Bhundaar = inexhaustible resources. Chayt(i) = remember. Achayta = do not remember. Tudaaya = spread hands to beg.

MEANING: You have created the world all by Yourself, and You deliver the necessities to fulfil the daily needs of Your creation, oh Waheguru. Many people acquire wealth by deceitful means and by telling lies, which has become their routine business. However, they do only those things for which they are predestined by Your Will (based on the deeds of their previous lives). Those who have been enlightened (by the Guru) enjoy unlimited resources (they reach a state of contentment where they feel the bliss of every comfort). Word Meaning: Vukhaneh(i) = explain. Sooayay = for the purpose of. Doojaiy bhaayay = in love for the other (Maya). Visariya = dropped from mind. Pind(u) = body. Kubhoon Na = never. Phaha = noose. Aavaiy Jaayay = comes and goes (is born and dies). Soojhaiy = realize. Poorub(i) Likhiya = predestined. Vihaayay = is spent.

MEANING: The pundit studies and explains the Vedas for the sole purpose of acquiring money. He drops Waheguru's Naam from his mind in his love for Maya, as a result of which, the foolish follower of his mind is punished. He never remembers Waheguru, who has given him life and body, and who provides him with food and other necessities. The noose of the Angel of Death is never cut from around his neck, and he is reborn again and again. The mentally blind follower of his mind does not understand reality and keeps following the predestined path of life. However, with good fortune, one is connected with Satguru, who is the source of all comfort, and with whose grace, Waheguru's Naam takes residence in his heart. Then he enjoys all the comforts in every situation, so much so that he feels comfortable even in wearing low-quality clothes, and his whole life is spent in such comfort. I pray that I should never forget Waheguru's Naam, which earns respect in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 1.

Gurmatee Naoun paayiyaiy, munmukh moh(i) vinaas(u). Jiyoun bhaaviy tiyoun raakh(u) Tu, Nanak Tayra daas(u). 2.

Word Meaning: Goontaas(u) = treasure of all virtues (God). Puchhaniya = recognized; realized. Pergaas(u) = enlightenment. Vuday = the Supreme (Waheguru) Jeeo = life. Pind(u) = body. Sift(i) = praise. Nivaas(u) = residence. Sunjum(u) = control on desires. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Vinaas(u) = destruction. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru's eternal Naam is the treasure of all virtues, and can be acquired by serving (obeying) Satguru. One recognizes oneself by following the advice of the Guru when his mind is enlightened with Waheguru's Naam. Man's duty is to lead an honest life, keeping Waheguru in mind all the time; however, the recognition of one's deeds is in the hands of the supreme Waheguru. Waheguru has given life and body to us; our main objective should be just to sing His praise, which can be sung by Satguru's Shabad only, and because of which the individual's life is spent in comfort. Such an individual needs no ritualistic rendering of any mantras, self-torture, or need to put in any special effort to control his desires, as the devotee is already exercising them in his mind (they are subsumed in Waheguru's Naam). Life is condemnable without Waheguru's Naam, which can be realized by following the advice of the Guru, but the spirituality of the follower of his mind is crushed in worldly attachments. Kindly protect me from worldly attachments as You please, oh Waheguru, prays Your slave, (Guru) Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Raas(i) = capital; wealth. Baajhoun = without. Nirjaas(u) = verify.

MEANING: Everybody is Yours, and You belong to everybody, and Your Naam is the capital for investment (to acquire noble qualities), oh Waheguru. Everybody prays to You all the time for the fulfillment of their needs. You are close to some and far away from others; the individual whom You choose to give to receives everything. There is no place other than You from where one can ask for (the fulfilment of their needs); if someone does not believe it, he can verify it himself. Everybody praises You, but only the true devotees are enlightened at Your Door (in Your shelter), oh Waheguru. 9.

Word Meaning: Kookda = reads in very loud voice. Cheenyee = recognizes. Gaavaar = unrefined. Perbodh-da = preaches. Birtha = empty; useless.

MEANING: In the love for money, the pundit reads the Vedas to the people in a very loud voice. The foolish and the unrefined do not recognize Waheguru inside them. In the love for Maya, he preaches the world, but does not realize the reality (Truth) himself. He wastes away his precious human life and is reborn again and again. 1.

Word Meaning: Boojhou = find out. Shaant(i) = peaceful. Chookaiy = ends. Kook Pookaar = beg loudly for help. Ruttay = imbued. Mookt(u) = emancipation. Hayt(i) = for.

MEANING: Careful searching reveals that only those who realize Waheguru's Naam serve Satguru. They are always at peace and are blissful in mind; all their loud prayers and begging are over. By pondering (and acting) on the Guru's Shabad, one is able to kill his selfishness when his mind becomes pure. Those who are imbued with Guru's Shabad and have love for Waheguru attain freedom from the bonds of Maya (attain emancipation), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Suful = bears fruit; results in success. Paavaiy Thaayayn = is recognized (rewarded). Mun Hutth(i) = obstinacy of mind; stubbornness.

MEANING: Service to Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru bears fruit and is rewarded. Those who love Waheguru are connected to the Guru and recite Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru is realized by acting on Guru's Shabad, who (Waheguru) ferries them across the sea of Maya. Nobody has ever realized Waheguru with the stubbornness of his mind (with his own efforts), even the Vedas testify to this fact. Only those serve Waheguru who are prompted by Him to do so, oh Nanak. 10.

Nanak bin(u) Naavaiy subh(u) dookh(u), sookh(u) visariya. 1.

Word Meaning: Soora = Vuriyam(u) = valiant; gallant. Doosht(u) = evil. Ahunkern(u) = conceit; ego. Suvaariya = made virtuous. Kool(u) = clan; accompanying devotees. Nistaariya = salvaged. Sohun(i) = look attractive; look dignified. Khusm(u) = Lord (Waheguru). Visaariya = forgotten.

MEANING: The real valiant is the one who eradicates (overcomes) his evil ego, oh Nanak. The devotee of the Guru makes his life beautiful by praising Waheguru's Naam. Not only does he become free from the bonds of Maya, but he also salvages all those devotees who join his company. In love with Waheguru's Naam, they are highly exalted in Waheguru's Court (honoured there). The followers of their mind die in conceit, thereby defiling (ruining) their death too (because they will be punished). But such individuals cannot be solely blamed for their acts because they are helpless against Waheguru's Huqam which is prevailing everywhere (they are predestined to follow the path of love for Maya). They indulge in Maya, and forget Waheguru completely. It is all discomfort without Waheguru's Naam; the comfort forgets (by-passes) them, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Drirraaya = reinforced. Bherm(u) = doubt; uncertainty. Chookaaya = removed. Keerut(i) = praise; adoration. Mug(u) = path. Liv = connection; concentration on. Joh(i) = watch (critically). Khin(u) = quickly.

MEANING: The Perfect Guru reinforces Waheguru's Naam among the devotees, whereby all their doubts are cleared. The Guru lightens up the path (for union with Waheguru) by singing praise of Waheguru's Naam. He kills selfishness and ego from the minds of His Sikhs, as a result of which, they get connected with Waheguru, and the Naam takes residence in their hearts. Following the advice of the Guru, the devotees get absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, and the Angel of Death cannot keep a watchful eye on them. The Creator, Waheguru, is everywhere, and He makes His favourites recite His Naam. I live (spiritually) only as long as I recite Waheguru's Naam; the moment I am without His Naam, I experience (spiritual) death, oh Nanak. 2

Word Meaning: Deebaan(u) = court; ruler. Siyoun = with. Miliya = honoured. Soorkhroo = clear; cannot be questioned for anything. Pervuriya = transformed. Kilvikh = sins. Hiriya = removed. usthir = immortal

MEANING: The individual, who is honoured in Waheguru's Court, is honoured in all other courts. Nobody questions him, no matter where he goes, and the sinners are salvaged by his holy sight (they are so enchanted by his preaching that they start to recite Waheguru's Naam). He is completely transformed into a holy man because of the treasure of Waheguru's Naam inside him. We, too, should worship Waheguru's Naam and obey Him so as to get rid of all our sins. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam with full concentration become immortal in the world. 11.

Nanak maiyla oojul(u) ta theeyay, ja Satgur maah(i) smaayay. 1.

Word Meaning: Aatma Dayo = light of soul (Waheguru). Sehj (i) = blissfulness state of mind; high spiritual state. Soobhayay = with love. Perteet(i) = full faith. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Percha = gets attracted to. Udoal = unwavering. Utth-sutth(i) = sixty-eight (Hindu hoy places). Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love for the other (Maya). Oojul(u) = clean.

MEANING: One should worship God with an unwavering mind and with love for the Guru. When one acquires full faith in the Supreme Soul (Waheguru), he gets attracted to (and makes a connection with) Waheguru in his own mind. With love for the Guru, one's soul (mind) becomes blissful, and one's mind does not waver. One's filth of greed does not go away without the Guru, and his mind does not acquire peace. If Waheguru's Naam is implanted in one's mind even for a short moment, he does not need to take dip in any of the sixty-eight Hindu holy places. The human mind becomes filthy only when it has love for Maya; a devotee who is "one" with Waheguru never has the filth of greed on his mind. And the filth of the mind can never be washed by pilgrimage, even if one takes a dip in all the holy places. The follower of his mind performs deeds under the influence of the ego, thereby earning discomfort all the way. A filthy mind can be cleansed only if one surrenders to the Guru, oh Nanak. 1.

Gur Persaadi mun(u) jinaiy, Hur(i) sayti liv laayay. Nanak Gurmukh(i) Sach(u) kmaavaiy, munmukh(i) aavaiy jaayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Kud-houn = when? (never). Rulaiy = mingle with. Puyya Kirt(i) = character based on previous deeds. Liv = focus (on Waheguru's Naam); Dhaat(u) = love for Maya. Kusvutti = touchstone. Jhuggrra = struggle. Suth company; co-operation. Munjh = in. Luhaiy = acquires. Soobhaayay = with good intentions. Bhoonchiyaiy = enjoy. Loojhna = fight. Hutth(i) = stubbornness. Koorr(u) Koosut(i) = lies; mundane stuff. Jinaiy = win over. Sayti = with.

MEANING: If a follower of his mind is given advice (to do noble deeds), he will never accept the advice. Even if you try hard, such a man will not mingle with Waheguru's devotees and will keep following the predestined path of life. There are two ways to live – connecting with Waheguru and running around for Maya. Everybody follows the path as per the Will of God for them. A devotee controls his mind by following the Guru's Shabad, which serves as a touchstone for his mind. A devotee struggles with his mind, seeks its co-operation, and gets absorbed in it (i.e., conquers it.) Following on Guru's Shabad with a clean mind, a man can acquire anything he wishes for. If a man spends his life as per the Guru's advice, he always enjoys the taste of immortalizing Waheguru's Naam. An individual who fights over mundane things rather than using his mind wastes away his precious life. The followers of their mind lose because of their stubbornness, and deal only in lies and mundane stuff. The only way to win over the mind (control it) is to concentrate on Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. A devotee deals in Truth (and becomes "one" with Waheguru), while the follower of his mind is reborn again, and again, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sunt = saint; holy people. Saakhi = advice. Dhoor(i) Bhaag(u) = predestined fortune. Mustik(i) = forehead. Amrit = immortalizing. Srayshut = Ootum = supreme. Sehjay = with a peaceful mind. Chaakhi = tasted. Kiraakhi = pulls out. Udisht(u) = invisible. Agochar(u) = unreachable. Alukh(u) = incomprehensible. Nirunjun = beyond the effects of Maya.

MEANING: Listen to the advice of the Guru, oh holy men - the devotees of Waheguru. Those who have fortune prewritten on their forehead keep the advice of the Guru safely in their mind. The immortalizing story of Waheguru (His praise) is supreme, and one can taste it with a peaceful mind (above the effects of Maya) in the form of Guru's Shabad. The darkness of such a mind is pulled out (dispelled) by enlightenment just as the sun pulls out the darkness of night. A true devotee can "see" the otherwise invisible, unreachable, and incomprehensible Waheguru, which is beyond the effects of Maya. 12.

Word Meaning: Laykhaiy Laayay = considered worthy. Rehn(i) = stay. Sach(i) = (with) Waheguru. Liv Laayay = focused mind. Birtha = empty; waste.

MEANING: Only the mind that serves Satguru is considered worthy. Such individuals overcome selfishness and stay connected with Waheguru with a focused mind. Those who do not serve Satguru waste away their human life. But they cannot be blamed completely, because they do only what the Will of Waheguru dictates, and nobody can do anything about that (change it), oh Nanak.

Jup(u) tup(u) sunjum(u) bhaana Satguru ka, kermi pullaiy paayay. Nanak sayva soort(i) kumaavni, jo Hur(i) bhaavaiy so thaayayn paayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Vakaareen = in immoral affairs. Vayhrriya = gripped by. Ugiyani = ignorant. Aatum Dayo = Waheguru. Boojh = understanding. Jup(u) = ritualistic recitation of some Mantra to please some god. Tup(u) = self-torture to please some god. Sunjum(u) = stubborn effort to control desires. Pullaiy Paayay = receive; acquire. Thaayayn Paayay = is credited with; is rewarded.

MEANING: Man's mind is gripped by immoral deeds. The ignorant worships (some deity) for the love of Maya, and is consequently punished in Waheguru's Court. The only power to worship is Waheguru, but we do not get this realization without Satguru. There is no need for any jup(u), tup(u) or sunjum(u) if one obeys Waheguru's Huqam; but that happens only by the benevolence of Satguru. One's duty is to recite Waheguru's Naam with full dedication, but only those are rewarded who are liked by Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Simrut = recitation (of Naam). Kikvikh = Paap = sins. Luhaati = removed. Daalud = poverty. Bhookh = appetite; desires.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam, which produces comfort day and night, oh my mind. Recite Waheguru's Naam, which removes all the sins, all poverty, all discomforts, and all desires, oh my mind. Recite Waheguru's Naam by the tongue in Satguru's shelter, which will produce love for Waheguru, oh my mind. Only those who recite Waheguru's Naam with the tongue for whom Waheguru has prewritten fortune (to recite His Naam). 13.

Word Meaning: Lukh Chaurasee = the 8.4 million life forms (a Hindu belief). Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Kerm(i) = by the benevolence of the Guru. Soyay = God.

MEANING: Those who do not serve Satguru (obey His advice), and do not ponder on His Shabad, are ignorant, and are (spiritually) dead in the world. They suffer after death and go through the 8.4 million life forms. However, only those who serve Satguru are prompted to do so by Him. Satguru is the treasure of Waheguru's Naam, but only those who are kind to Waheguru have access to it. Those who are imbued with the Guru's eternal Shabad are truly connected with Waheguru. Those who are connected to Him by the grace of God remain in a high spiritual state (above the effects of Maya), and they never get separated from Him. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhugouti = devotee. Bhugvantaiy = God. Dhaavut(u) = fast running - around mind. Ikutt(u) Ghur(i) = stable mind. Jeevut(u) muraiy = dead (for worldly desires). Vukhaanaiy = explains; recites. Ootum(u) = supreme.
MEANING: A true devotee is the one who realizes Waheguru and recognizes the self by the benevolence of the Guru. He recites Waheguru's Naam and controls his wavering mind so strongly that it seems to be dead from worldly desires. Such a devotee is supreme, and becomes "one" with God, oh Nanak. 2.

Hur(i) Naam(u) na chaytaiy, buhou kerm kmaayay. Poorub(i) likhiya, su maytna na jaayay. Nanak bin(u) Satgur sayvay moakh(u) na paayay. 3.
Word Meaning: Untar(i) = inside. Kupt(u) = deceit; guile. Pakhund(i) = by faking; by hypocrisy. Ninda = unwarranted malicious criticism. Mul(u) = filth. Jootth(i) = slop; filth; treachery. Baad(u) = destructive discussion. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for the other (Maya). Ruchaayay = deal in. kerm = rituals. Moakh(u) = salvation. 3.
MEANING: There are some who call themselves devotees, but have deceit in their minds. They cannot realize Waheguru by such hypocrisy. They acquire filth in their minds by maliciously criticizing others. They can't wash off their bodily filth by taking a dip in water or otherwise, but the filth of their mind cannot be washed away by water (even if it's holy water). Their dealings are for the love of Maya, so they engage in destructive discussions with the holy congregation and suffer day and night. They perform many rituals (to show off) but never remember Waheguru. However, the prewritten nature of individuals cannot be erased; without serving Satguru, one cannot get salvation, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Dhiyaya = worship; recited (the Naam); obeyed. Kurrh(i) = grumble; get irritated; complain in dissatisfaction. Na Svaahi = Na Subaahi = not in early morning; never. Triput(i) Aghaayee = contented. Kirpal(u) = kind. Aithaiy = here (in this world). Oathaiy = there (next world). Paindhay = are robed (honoured).
MEANING: Those who worship Satguru do not grumble (get irritated) in the early mornings of the day (any time). Those who worship Waheguru are content and have no fear of the Angel of Death. Those who take shelter of Satguru are kind to Waheguru. Their faces shine

(with piety of mind) in this world and the next. They are honoured in the next world (Waheguru's Court) upon arrival. 14.

Word Meaning: Saayeen = Lord (Waheguru). Nivaiy = bow; kneel down. Daar(i) = cut and throw. Pinjur = skeleton; body. Birha = pain of separation. Jaar(i) = burn.

MEANING: The head that does not bow to the Lord deserves to be cut and thrown away. The human body, that has no pain of separation (from Waheguru), deserves to be burned down, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:5॥ ਮੁੰਢਹੁ ਭੁਲੀ ਨਾਨਕਾ ਫਿਰਿ ਫਿਰਿ ਜਨਮਿ ਮੁਈਆ ਸੁ॥ ਕਸਤੂਰੀ ਕੇ ਭੋਲੜੈ ਗੰਦੇ ਡੁੰਮਿ ਪਈਆ ਸੁ॥ 2॥

M:5: Moondhoun bhooli Nanaka, phir(i) phir(i) junum(i) mooya su. Kustoori kay bholrray gunday doom(i) puyaa su. 2.

Word Meaning: Moondhoun = from the very start. Bhooli = misled. Su = that. Kustoori = musk. Bholrray = mistakenly. Gunday = dirty. Doom(i) = deep water pit.

MEANING: A man, who is misled right from the start (birth) (loves Maya rather than Waheguru), is like the one who jumps into a pit of dirty water, mistaking it for musk, and takes birth, and dies, again and again. 2.

Nanak Naam(u) araadh(i) subhna tay vudda ,subh(i) Naavay uggaiy aan(i) nivayay. 15.

Word Meaning: Aisa = such; that. Dhiyayiyaiy = recite; worship. Untee= last; at the end. Ausur(i) = time. Chhudayay = gets free. Trishna = desires; appetite to acquire more and more. Ninduk = malicious critics. Doosht = evil people. Aaradh(i) = worship.

MEANING: Worship the Naam(u) of such Waheguru who rules over everybody, oh my mind. Worship the Naam (sing praise) of that Waheguru which gets you free (from the bonds of Maya) at the end, and which kills your appetite for the worldly desires (discontentment), oh my mind. The highly lucky individuals worship the Naam of such Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, which forces all the malicious critics and the evil to drop on their (devotees') feet. Worship the Naam of the Waheguru, which is the greatest of all, and which forces everybody to bow to the Naam, oh Nanak. 15.

Word Meaning: Vays Kuraiy = dons different religious garbs. Kuroop(i) = ugly. Kulukhni = having evil qualities. Khotaiy = deceitful; devious. Koorriaar(i) = liars; dishonest. Bhaanaiy = Will. Nivaarunhaar(i) = remover; dissipater. Mayt(i) = erase; remove. Dhoor(i) = from the beginning. Sounpaiy = offer. Ridaiy = in heart (mind). Sooaliyo = pretty. Kunt = husband (Waheguru). Sulukhni = virtuous. Raavi = enjoyed union; became connected. Sirjunhaar(i) = the Creator (Waheguru).

MEANING: The individuals who have deceit in their mind, but don a religious garb (to fool) people, are in fact ugly (unattractive), have evil qualities, and are liars and dishonest. They do not lead their lives according to the Will of Waheguru, and the unrefined order leads others to follow their own minds. But everybody's actions are controlled by their predestined fate as written by Waheguru; nobody can erase His Will. Those who follow the Guru's advice have all their troubles eradicated. They offer their mind and body to the husband, Waheguru, and develop love for the Guru's Shabad. Anyone who ponders deeply can realize that no one can connect with Waheguru without reciting His Naam. Only that human being is pretty and virtuous, whose dedication is enjoyed by (is connected to) Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Moh(u) = attachment. Goobaar(u) = darkness. Oorvaar(u) = the closer side. Paar(u) = the farther side. Ugiyani = ignorant; without knowledge. Maha = big. Visaar(i) = by forgetting. Bhulkay = early morning (everyday). Kerm = rituals. Kmaaveh(i) = perform. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love for the other (Maya). Bhoujul(u) = the world sea. Sach(i) = in the eternal. Smaaveh(i) = get absorbed; merge into. Oordhaar(i) = by acquiring in mind.

MEANING: The attachment with Maya is such darkness that neither its closer side, nor its far side, is visible (has no end to it). By forgetting Waheguru (His Naam), the ignorant followers of their mind suffer a great deal, and drown in the world sea. Starting early in the morning, they perform a number of rituals, but all in the name of Maya (which pushes them even farther from God). But those who serve their Satguru get ferried across (the sea of Maya). The Gurmukhs acquire Waheguru's Naam in their mind, and become "one" with Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Muhiul(i) = sky. Bhurpoor(i) = filling completely. Koorriaar = lover of Maya; dishonest; deceitful. Kudhoyay = took out. Sachiyaar = pure-hearted; followers of the Guru. Niyaoun = justice. Dherm = based on high morals. Oostut(i) = praise. Anaath = orphans. Jaikaar = hail to. Dund(u) = punishment.
MEANING: Waheguru is filling all the oceans, the earth, and the sky with His presence (He is omnipresent), and there is none other like Him. Waheguru Himself does justice, and all dishonest people are killed spiritually and pulled out. (On the other hand), The honest people (Waheguru's devotees) are praised (honoured) because this is His justice based on the high moral principles. Everybody should sing Waheguru's praise, which protects the powerless and the orphans (who have no support). The virtuous are hailed, and the sinners are punished. 16.

Word Meaning: Mailee = filthy. Kaamni = woman. Kulukhni = having evil qualities. Koonaar(i) = bad (unfaithful) wife. Pir(u) = husband; Lord. Pur = other. Poorkhaiy = male; master. Trishna = appetite for desires. Juldi = burning; suffering. Kuroop(i) = Kusohni = ugly; unattractive; not worthy of love or liking. Bhataar(i) = husband.
NOTE: All human beings (male or female) are considered females, with Waheguru being the only male (Master or Lord) to express human love for God, or vice versa.
MEANING: A follower of his mind is like an unfaithful wife who is filthy with evil qualities, and who has left her own husband in love with some other male. Her desires are never fulfilled, as a result of which, she has a burning heart and raises hue and cry in suffering. Without Waheguru's Naam, she is unattractive and unworthy of Waheguru's love, and is like a wife who has been condemned by her husband. 1.

MEANING: An individual, who is imbued in Satguru's Shabad with deep love for Him, is the one who is truly married to Waheguru (connected with Him). Such an individual always enjoys the union with Him because of his true love for Waheguru. Such an individual is extremely beautiful and a praiseworthy wife. With Waheguru's Naam in the heart, she is connected with Waheguru with His grace, and is always loved by Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Oostut(i) = praise. Phaathay = caught in the net (of Maya). Kaadhiya = took out; cut free. Nimaaniya = prideless; powerless. Daadhi = tough; strict. Dadhiyaan = oppressors; tyrants. Moorr = foolish. Sadhiya = set straight; fixed. Anaathiya = orphans.

MEANING: Everybody sings Your praise because You cut the bonds of Maya, and free the devotees, oh Waheguru. Everybody bows to You because You protect the devotees from committing sins. Waheguru bestows dignity on the powerless, but is tough with the tyrants. Waheguru forces the conceited to bow, and fixes the foolish followers of their mind. God bestows honour on the poor and the supportless. 17.

Word Meaning: Bhaanaiy = as per His Will. Vudiyayee = respect; praise. Ootum(u) = supreme. Mayt(i) = erase; remove. Kerm(i) = benevolence. Kaarun(u) = resources. Vus(i) = (in His) control.

MEANING: The individual, who leads his life as per the Will of the Guru, earns great respect because Waheguru's supreme Naam(u) takes residence (is implanted) in his heart, and nobody can remove that respect for him. But only those individuals earn such respect who are blessed by Waheguru with His benevolence. Only a rare devotee realizes that Waheguru is the controller of all resources, oh Nanak. 1.

Subh(i) aougun gooni mitaaya, Gur(u) aapay bukhshunhaar(u). 2.

Word Meaning: Aaradhiya = worshiped. Liv Taar = (with full) concentration. Bundi = slave. Khusm = master; Waheguru. Kmaavaiy Kaar = obeys command. Pooraiy = perfect (Waheguru). Svaarunhaar = perfectionist (Waheguru). Boojhiya = realized. Mokh = freedom from Maya. Jum Jundaar(u) = unkind angel of death. Bhoujul(u) = the world sea. Aougun = ill qualities. Bukhshunhaar = forgiving. 2.

MEANING: Those who worship Waheguru's Naam day and night with full concentration, enslave Maya, which obeys their command, oh Nanak. With His Command, the Perfect Waheguru makes such devotees perfect too. Those who realize this fact in the shelter of the Guru get freedom from the bonds of Maya. The followers of their mind do not recognize Waheguru's Will, and are punished by the unkind Angel of death. Those who worship Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru swim across the world-sea. All their bad qualities are replaced by noble qualities by the benevolence of the forgiving Waheguru. 2.

Word Meaning: Purteet(i) = faith. Jaan(u) = knowledgeable; know-all. Dherm(u) = justice. Andaysha = doubt. Kaarra = causing heart burn. Udherm(i) = injustice. Sacha = Perfect. Niyaoun = judgment. Slaahou = sing praise. Kur = hands. Jorr(i) = folded.
MEANING: The devotees have full faith that Waheguru is omniscient. Nobody is as great as Waheguru is; He always delivers justice. Why should anyone have heartburn due to any doubt, because Waheguru delivers no injustice. The perfect Lord delivers perfect judgment, and the sinners lose (are punished). Sing praise of Waheguru with folded hands, oh devotees; He always salvages His devotees. 18.

Word Meaning: Preetum = beloved. Oordhaar(i) = hold in heart. Hayt(i) = for. Soohaagun = married; beloved.
MEANING: I wish to be connected with my beloved (Waheguru) and hold Him in my heart. I wish to sing His praise constantly, with deep love for the Guru. However, Waheguru connects only those individuals whom He is kind to; and such an individual is a beloved of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Nudr(i) = kind sight. Maanus = humans. Huray = Hur(i) = Waheguru. Sehj(i) = spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Smaayayun = become one with.

MEANING: Those, on whom Waheguru casts His kind sight, serve the Guru and become "one" with Waheguru. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam(u) are transformed from humans to gods (Godlike). By following Guru's Shabad, their selfishness and ego are destroyed, and they swim across the sea of Maya, thereby becoming "one" with Waheguru. Because of Waheguru's benevolence, they attain a spiritual state above the effects of Maya, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Vaykhaaliun = shows. Purteet(i) = faith. Sayv Ghaaliun = performs tough service. Anund(u) = blissfulness. Thir(u) = stable. Ghureen = in hearts. Ghor(i) Nerk = torturous Hell. Ung(u) = favour. Nistaariun = salvages.
MEANING: Waheguru reveals His grandeur when He motivates people to worship Him. Being present in everybody, it is in fact Waheguru Himself, who shows faith in Him, and performs tough service (of worshiping Waheguru). He enables His devotees to control their minds, whereby they enjoy blissfulness. He does not provide the sinners the opportunity to stabilize their minds, as a result of which they are taken to a torturous Hell. Waheguru favours His devotees with love and salvages them. 19.

Word Meaning: Kooboodh(i) = evil thinking. Doomni = low caste. Kooduyya = ruthlessness; cruelty. Kusaayan(i) = butcher. Ninda = malicious criticism; to vilify. Ghut = heart. Choohrri = lowest caste. Mootthi = deceived; robbed. Krodh(i) = rage. Chundaal(i) = butcher; savage. Kaari = lines drawn. Sunjum = effort to control sensual pleasures. Naavun(u) = dip in holy waters. Ootum = superior. Pund(i) = advice.
NOTE: Brahmans, who considered themselves to be the elite (highest) class in society, observed some meaningless rituals to impress people with their cleanliness. Such rituals included pilgrimage, cleaning some area for their own cooking, drawing boundary lines for the area where nobody was allowed to enter, and so on. Guru Nanak Sahib ridiculed such hollow beliefs and advised them about what was really meaningful.
MEANING: Evil thinking is the true low caste, and cruelty is like being a butcher. Likewise, unwarranted, malicious criticism (vilification) of others is the lowest class in society, while rage is like a butcher who robs one of good qualities. So, what is the significance of rituals like taking a dip in holy places, and drawing boundary lines around the kitchen area when all four (above-mentioned) evil qualities accompany you, oh Brahman? (Guru Sahib advises that) Living a life of high morality is the real effort to control your sensual pleasures; noble deeds should serve as the boundary lines, and recitation of Waheguru's Naam is the true holy dip. Only that individual is considered superior (holy) in Waheguru's Court, who, unlike Brahmans, does not give evil advice to people, oh Nanak. 1.

M:1: Kiyya huns(u), kiyya bugula, ja kuou nudr(i) kuray. Jay Tis(u) bhaavaiy Nanaka, kaag-houn huns(u) kuray. 2.

Word Meaning: Huns = swan (an individual who follows the Guru's advice). Bugula = a heron (an imposter) because a heron looks like a swan from a distance. Kaag = a crow (a munmukh, who only follows his mind like a crow that makes no distinction between filth and good food).

MEANING: It does not make any difference whether it is a Gurmukh (a swan) or an imposter (a heron); if Waheguru wishes, He can transform even a crow (a manmukh) into a swan (a Gurmukh), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Lorriyaiy = wish. Aakhiyaiy = say to; pray to. Kaaruj = task. Svaar(i) = complete to perfection. Sakhiyaiy = advice. Bhaiy Bhunjun = destroyer of fears (God). Mehrvaan = kind (Waheguru). Ulukh(u) = incomprehensible.

MEANING: If you wish to have a task successfully completed, pray to Waheguru for it. Satguru's perfect advice leads to a perfect completion of the task. Taste Waheguru's Naam, which is the treasure of Amrit, in the company of the holy men, and pray to Waheguru as follows: protect your slave (from the evil bonds of Maya), oh the destroyer of all fears, Waheguru. One can realize the incomprehensible Waheguru by singing His virtuous qualities, oh Nanak. 20.

Word Meaning: Jeeo = life. Pind(u) = body. Adhaar(u) = food; support. Dataar(u) = provider. Bulihari = sacrifice. Nirunkaar(u) = formless. Oojlaiy = shiny.

MEANING: The life (soul) and the body are all His (Waheguru's) gifts; He provides food to all living beings. So, we must serve (worship and obey) the eternal provider Waheguru, in the shelter (guidance) of the Guru, oh Nanak. I wish to sacrifice my life for those who worship the formless Waheguru. Their faces are always shiny (they are unblemished) and the whole world bows to them. 1.

Word Meaning: Oolti bhuyee = (mind) is turned around. Nuv Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures of Kuber (a mythical Hindu god). Attharah Sidhi = the 18 believed supernatural powers. Nij Ghur(i) = in one's own mind. Unhud Dhooni = spiritual state in which a special type of uniform music is believed to be heard. Oonmun(i) = high spiritual state. Liv = complete focus. Dhoor(i) = from the beginning.

MEANING: When one is connected with Satguru, his mind is turned around (from Maya to Waheguru), as a result of which, all the nine (mythical) treasures of Kuber become available to the Sikh for spending and eating. All eighteen supernatural powers follow him (become his slaves), but he does not care for them as his mind stays within itself (quits wandering after worldly luxuries). In the high spiritual state, he can “listen” to the auto-playing divine music when fully connected with Waheguru. However, only those who are predestined to do so acquire Waheguru’s Naam in their hearts, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Dhaadhi = bard. Khusm = Master; Lord. Pookaar = loud request. Mookh(i) Laaya = allowed to “see”. Urth(i) = purpose. Pehnaaya = robed; honoured.

MEANING: I am a bard (singer of praise) of the Lord, Waheguru, and came to His Door (to beg). Waheguru heard my loud request inside and granted me the “see” of Him. He called me in and asked me the purpose of my visit. I begged, “Please, give the gift of Your Naam so that I may recite it all the time, oh kind God.” The kind Waheguru honoured me by giving me His Naam to recite, oh Nanak. 21. Verified.

Jun-ni = mother. Soot(u) = son. Avdh = age (life). Moar = mine. Paykhut = on seeing. Jumraou = the powerful Angel of death. 1. Bherm(i) = doubts; misbelief. Mohiya = enchanted; deceived. Bikhiya = poison; Maya. Pause.

Nihchou = for sure. Rummuyiya = pervading the universe (Waheguru). Anunt Jeevun = immortal. Bidh(i) = way. Bhuv Saagur = the world sea (attractions of Maya which cause the man to be born again, and again). 2. Bhoolaava = misleading. Sehj(u) = spiritual state where the mind does not wander. Liv = full concentration. 3.

MEANING: The mother thinks that her son is growing big, but she does not realize that his life span is actually getting shorter by the day. She loves him a lot by saying, "he is mine", but, watching all this, the Angel of death smiles (sarcastically). 1.

This is how You have led the world to misbelieve the reality, oh God! But how can the world realize the fact when it is under the spell of Maya? Pause.

Quit enjoying the tastes of poisonous Maya, because you will experience spiritual death for sure in their company (while enjoying them), oh man, says Kabir. Worship Waheguru, which is pervading the whole universe, for immortal life, because this is the way to swim across the sea of Maya, and being "one" with Him, oh man. 2.

However, man's love for God is possible only when He wishes it. (With love for Waheguru) A man clears his doubts and misbeliefs. His wisdom (mind) regarding Divine Knowledge is enlightened, and he attains a high spiritual state in which Maya has no effect. By Guru's grace, he connects with God with full concentration. 3.

Following this path, one does not experience spiritual death as one recognizes Waheguru's Will and becomes "one" with Him. Second pause. 4.1.

Jumeh(i) tuna = sons of the Angel of death (his agents). Aaglurraiy = before; in front of. Koyee, Koyee = someone rare. Beetthula = God. Baanhrri Vulaayay = with arms spread. Rummuyiya = pervading the universe (God). Pause.

Anik = countless. Bhog = enjoyments. Bisray = forgotten. Amar = immortal. Moottha = deceived; cheated. Chaytus(i) = remember. Aalsiya = lazy. 2.

Ghor Bikhum = very difficult; tough. Punth(i) = path. Ruv(i) = sun. Sus(i) = moon. Pervayshun(g) = enter. Tujilay = quit. 3. Pergut(u) = appeared. Bhuyya = happened. Paykhiulay = saw. Dul = crush. Mahabuli = great warrior. 4.

Moon = to me. Oopdaysh = advice. Vun = forest. Trin = vegetation. . Ruttrra = imbued; saturated with. Narayana = God. Budut(i) = says. 5.

MEANING: The man has so much love for Maya, and is so engrossed in it, that he has lost all fear of old age and death. He is overjoyed, and his mind blooms like a lotus flower to see his family. And the deceitful man keeps an evil eye on the houses of others. 1. Some rare devotee realizes that the agents of death are coming running towards him and he prays, “I am helpless before them, come and protect me from them, oh my God. I am waiting for you with my arms spread.” Pause.

Among the countless enjoyments of Maya, the man forgets Waheguru and acts as if he is immortal in this world. Captivated by Maya, he forgets Waheguru, and the lazy man wastes away his precious human life. 2. The journey to Waheguru’s Court is very difficult, and you will not even have the necessities of daily life - like the sun (warmth and light) and the moon (for comfort). And when you leave the world, your love for Maya will be gone too (Maya will not be with you). 3.

I have realized now that when you are face-to-face with the Angel of death, you cannot survive before him, as he is so powerful that he can crush you with his hands in a moment. 4. When some holy man (like the Guru) enlightens me, I can see that You are present everywhere – even in the forest and the creeping grass – oh Waheguru. You are omniscient, oh omnipresent Waheguru, says Tirlochan. 5.2.

Word Meaning: Achurj = strange; amazing. Soor(i) = gods. Gun = assistants of gods. Gundherb = musicians of the gods (there are more definitions). Mohay = bewitched. Tirbhuvan = three-layered universe. Maykhuli = string (tied with string) = made prisoner (slaves). 1. Kinguree = a single-wire musical instrument. Naad = Shabad. Liv = focus. Pause. Bhaatthi = kiln; still (to distil). Gugun(u) = sky; brain (higher level of awareness). Singiya and choongiya = the two pipes for distilling - one to collect the distillate, and the other to reject the excess water (to collect virtues and to reject bad qualities). Kunuk = gold. Kulus = container for the distillate (heart). Kunuk Kulus = heart of gold (pure heart). Chooyay = dropping (collecting). Nirmul = pure. Rus = extract. 2. Anoop = beautiful; incomparable. Puvun Piyala = cup of air (made the breath the cup to drink). Yogi = connected (with God). Raja = greater. 3. Poorkhotum = sureme human (Waheguru). Dooni = world. Bherm(i) bhoolaani = lost in misbeliefs. Rusayin = source of all the extracts (God). Maata = intoxicated. 4.

MEANING: With full concentration on Him, a devotee gets connected with Waheguru, with His kind sight, as a result of which, a uniform and sweet melody of His Naam begins to play automatically in his mind, oh pundit. Pause.

The amazing thing about Waheguru, which has made the whole universe (living beings) slaves of Maya (they have been bewitched by it), is that nothing can be said about Him. (He is indescribable). 1.

(The only thing I can say about Him) is that I have made my brain (my higher spiritual state, and concentration on His Naam) the still, to get the essence of His Naam (like in a distillation process to get the extract of some herb, or even to make alcohol, in which two pipes are used – one to receive the essence and the other to reject water), I am getting rid of my bad qualities on one hand, and collecting the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam, on the other hand, is in my pure heart. A thin stream of the best among all the essences is now dripping in my mind. 2 Another beautiful thing that has happened is that my every breath has become the cup to drink the Naam Amrit, and now I see Waheguru everywhere in the three-layered universe, and it is not difficult to say that Waheguru is the greatest. 3. Imbued in His Naam, Kabir can only say that such Divine Knowledge has sprouted in my mind with which I have realized that the whole world is misguided in doubts, but I am intoxicated with the Naam-Amrit of Waheguru, which is the source of all essences. 4.

Word Meaning: Pehriya Kaiy Ghur(i) Gaavna = to sing with the same tune as the Pehray in the same Raag starting on page 74.

Gerbh Koondul = in the mother's womb. Aachhut = (you) were. Oordh = upside down. Mirtuk Pind(i) = half-alive body. Pud = existence. Mud = intoxication; conceit. Naanga = without any bad quality. Summul(u) = remember. Maha Kusht = big discomfort. Pusaariya = expansion. Mirt Mundul = mortal world. Nurhur(i) = Waheguru. 1.

Moorriya = oh foolish. Koomut(i) = bad thinking. Chayt(i) = remember. Jumpur = home of the angel of death. Bichraiy = live in the world. Unraadha = uncontrolled. Pause. Binoad = (children's) games. Chind = worry; attention. Khin(u) Khin(u) = every small moment. Mis(u) = excuse. Maydhu = pious; alcohol (which is a more appropriate use in the present context). Bikh = poison. Punch = the five (demons – lust, rage, etc.). Pergut = clearly. Suntaapiy = begin to bother (cause trouble). Sookirt = noble deeds. Oochhliya Kaam(u) = the lust sprouted. Kaal Mut(i) = wisdom that blackens one's face (earns him disgrace). Shakut(i) = woman. 2.
Troon = youth; beauty. Tayj(u) = forceful impression; glamour. Triya = woman. Johay = keeps an evil sight. Sur(u) Upsur(u) = appropriate and inappropriate time. Oomut Kaam(i) = under the influence of lust. Maha Bikh(u) = great poison (Maya). Soot = sons. Sumput(i) = wealth. Gerbiya = conceited. Uver mert = at the death of others. Bhug Mookh(i) = with good fortune. Vigoya = wasted away. 3.
Poondar Kays = white hair like a lotus flower. Koosum = flower. Dhaulay = grey hair. Supt Pataal = (as if coming from) the seventh underworld. Loachun = eyes. Sermeh(i) = watery. Kaam Madhaani = mind churner (inciting for lust). Paavus(i) = rain. Koomlana = wilted. Uvgut(i) = invisible; incomprehensible. Baan(i) = Shabad (of Waheguru's praise). Mirt Mundul(i) = mortal world. Paachhaiy = after; later. 4.
Nikooti dayh = small body (children). Dhoon(i) = attention; affection. Maan Kert = feeling proud. Jeevun Pud Kaarun = existence for (longer) life. Tayj(u) = energy. Aangun(i) = in the yard. Na Sookhayee = becomes uncomfortable. 5.
MEANING: Remember the day (time) when you were in a big (troublesome) uncomfortable position in the womb of your mother where you were suspended upside down, had no conceit of the existence of your half-alive body, and were fully connected with the "One", God, day and night, and had no awareness or evil quality, oh man! Now that you are out of your mother's womb and are in the mortal world, you have forgotten Waheguru completely and have plans for big expansions. 1.
Under what ill-advice are you leading a life full of doubts and misbeliefs, oh foolish man? Remember Waheguru's Naam, you will repent later because, as a result of your bad deeds under the influence of your uncontrolled mind, you will be taken to the court of the Angel of death. Pause. As a child, the man is drawn to the joy of games and grows increasingly attached to the world with every moment. As life goes on, he begins to use Maya as if it were amrit, and abuses the poisonous Maya to enjoy other tastes of life, including alcohol, when all the five demons (lust, rage, greed, etc.) begin to visibly trouble (overpower) him. He does not practise even the ritualistic recitation of mantras, and self-torture to have control over sensual pleasures; and totally forgetting the wisdom of noble deeds, he does not remember Waheguru's Naam. When lust sprouts in his mind, and his poor thinking begins to prompt him to evil deeds, he brings in a woman to hug her tightly. 2.
Under the forceful impact of youth, the man begins to keep a close eye on other women as well, with total disregard for the appropriateness of the time. Under compete intoxication of lust, and completely misguided by poisonous Maya, the man cannot tell sin or crime from noble deeds. Seeing his sons and the wealth, the man feels conceited and forgets Waheguru's Naam completely. At the death of a relative, he begins to guess how much wealth he will inherit, and (because of such greed and lack of empathy), he wastes the human life he was given by his good fortune. 3.

Even when the hair of the man turns white like a lotus flower, and his voice becomes so soft (weak) as if it is coming from the seventh underworld, and even when his eyes are watery all the time, and his energy and his conniving wisdom have left him, lust still churns his mind i.e., he is still lustful. The lotus-like body has wilted away, but evil ideas are still dropping in his mind like rain. Quit thinking about the mortal world, and recite the Naam of Waheguru; otherwise, you will repent later, oh man! 4.

Seeing the little grandchildren, his heart fills with affection. And he still does not realize the reality (of the imminent death). He has the greed to live longer, even though he can hardly see with his eyes. When his energy is exhausted, and his soul leaves his body, his dead body causes discomfort in the house and in the yard (among the family members). Listen, hey devotees, who gets salvation after death (nobody does), says Bayni. 5.

NOTE: The heading of this holy Shabad does not reveal the author's name, but the last line makes it clear that Sri Ravidass Ji is the author.

Word Meaning: Tohi = you. Mohi = me. Untar(u) = difference. Kunuk = gold. Kutick = bracelet. Trung = wave. 1. Ununta = limitless (Waheguru). Putit = degraded. Paavun = purifier. Pause. Nayak = leader; guide. Aachhou = (you) are. Untarjaami = all-knowing; omniscient. Jun = servant (devotee). Jaanijaiy = is known. Soami = Master; Lord. 2. Aaradhaiy = recite (Naam). Sum Dul = equal everywhere (omnipresent). 3.

MEANING: Now, (that I am connected with You), the difference between You and me is just like the difference between gold and a bracelet made from gold, or between water in the ocean and a wave on its surface (i.e., there is no difference), oh Lord! 1.

If we (human beings) had not committed any sin, how would You have been called the Purifier? Pause. You are omniscient, and our guide (to show us the path of righteousness). Also, a devotee is known by God, and God is recognized by his devotees. (God and His devotees are important to each other). 2.

Please, enlighten me so that my body may recite Your Naam. I wish someone could educate (enlighten) me that You are omnipresent, begs Ravidass. 3.
