(ਅੰਗ 1410)॥ ਉਤੰਗੀ ਪੈਓਹਰੀ ਗਹਿਰੀ ਗੰਭੀਰੀ॥ ਸਸੁੜਿ ਸੁਹੀਆ ਕਿਵ ਕਰੀ ਨਿਵਣੁ ਨ ਜਾਇ ਥਣੀ॥ ਗਚੁ ਜਿ ਲਗਾ ਗਿੜਵੜੀ ਸਖੀਏ ਧਉਲਹਰੀ॥ ਸੇ ਵੀ ਢਹਿਦੇ ਡਿਠੁ ਮੈ ਮੁੰਧ ਨ ਗਰਬੁ ਥਣੀ॥ 1॥

Word Meaning: Otungee = tall and beautiful young girl. Paiyohri = of marriageable age. Gehri = thoughtful. Gumbheeri = serious; earnest; demure. Sussoorr(i) = to mother-in-law. Soohiya = bow down; prostrate. Thunee = with breasts. Guch(u) = cement. Girrvurri = mountain-like. Dhaulhureen = fortlike houses. Dhehnday = collapse. Ditth = seen.

MEANING: Human life is very short in this world; let alone the man, I have seen even the mountain-like and the fort-like plastered houses collapse. So, what should a man feel proud of? You are very conceited of your height, and of your masculine beauty like a young and pretty girl who is very conceited of her large breasts so much so that she tells her mother-in-law that due to her large breasts, she cannot kneel down to her to show respect for her (which was highly expected, and its violation could not be forgiven in those days), oh man. So, overcome your conceit, and become thoughtful and earnest (and recite Waheguru's Naam), oh my friend. 1.

Word Meaning: Moondhay = oh, young woman. Hernaakhiyay = with deer-like (large and beautiful) eyes. Goohrra Vaiyn = a deep (valuable) advice. Apaar(u) = huge; highly meaningful. Siyaan(i) Kay = examining well. Dohi Deechaiy = make pleas (to Waheguru). Doorjunaa = evil people (or qualities). Mitraan Koo = for the friendly (saintly people) or noble qualities. Hussun = happiness; satisfaction. Saar(u) = supreme. Nayhou = attachment. Chullunhaar = mortal. Ivv Kur(i) = like this. Vitoun = for.

MEANING: Listen to highly valuable advice, oh, the beautiful young lady with deer-like eyes. Examine the substance thoroughly before you deal in that (choice of friends and/or qualities). Plea to Waheguru to keep the evil people (or qualities) away from you, and to acclaim the noble (saintly) friends (and noble qualities). Think about the pleas you want to make to Waheguru to have noble friends. To attain supreme satisfaction, offer your body and your mind in the service of the holy saints, and do not get attached to short-lived things. I am a sacrifice for those who realize the importance of having friendship with holy saints and noble qualities, oh Nanak. 2.

Jay tu taaroo paan(i), taaho pooch(u) tirrun kul. Taahoo khuray soojaan, vunjaan ehni kuppreen. 3.

Word Meaning: Taaroo = swimmer. Paan(i) = water (of the worldly attractions); world-sea. Taahoo = those. Tirrun = of swimming. Kul = art. Khuray = much. Soojaan = expert; know-all. Vunjaan = go; set sail. Kuppreen = storms. 3.

MEANING: If you wish to learn swimming (across the unformidable word-sea), ask those who are experts in the field. I will jump into the world sea even if the waves of worldly attractions are rising very high when I have an expert (holy saint) to guide me. 3.

Jhurr, jhukkhurr, ohaarr, lehreen vehn(i) lukhaysri. Satgur siyoun aalaayay, bayrray doobbun(i), naahi bhuou. 4.

Word Meaning: Jhurr = cloudiness; unfavourable weather. Jhukkurr = storms. Ohaarr = floods. Lehreen = waves. Vehn(i) = blow; rise. Lukhaysri = countless. Aalaayay = pray to.

MEANING: There may be unfavourable weather conditions, storms, flooding (poor health and family conditions), or very high waves (great temptations) in the world sea; the boat of your life will not sink if you pray to Satguru. 4.

Nanak dooniya kaiysi hoyee. Saaluk(u), mitt(u) na ruhhiyo koyee. Bhayeen bundheen hayt(u) chookaaya. Dooniya kaarun(i) deen(u) guvaaya. 5.

Word Meaning: Saaluk Mitt(u) = saint friends. Bhayeen Bundheen = brothers and relatives. Hayt(i) = affection (for Waheguru). Dooniya = worldly attractions. Chookaaya = vanished. Deen(u) = devotion to Waheguru.

MEANING: What has happened to the world, oh Nanak? It does not make friends with holy saints, and its love for God has vanished due to its strong bonds with family and friends. People have lost their spirituality and devotion to Waheguru due to their attachment to worldly relations and attractions, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Haiy = Haayay = cry in agony. Gullhaan = cheeks. Pittan(i) = beat. Sir(u) Khohayn = pull hair. Smaayay = submit to (obey) the Will. Bulihaaraiy = sacrifice.

MEANING: Rather than realizing the fact that death is a natural law, and it has to come to everybody, people wail in pain, beat their cheeks, and pull their hair at the death of a relative. I am a sacrifice for those who recite Waheguru's Naam and accept His Will at the death of a relative, oh Nanak.

ਰੇ ਮਨ ਡੀਗਿ ਨ ਡੋਲੀਐ ਸੀਧੈ ਮਾਰਗਿ ਧਾਉ॥ ਪਾਛੈ ਬਾਘੁ ਡਰਾਵਣੋ ਆਗੈ ਅਗਨਿ ਤਲਾਉ॥ ਸਹਸੈ ਜੀਅਰਾ ਪਰਿ ਰਹਿਓ ਮਾ ਕਉ ਅਵਰੁ ਨ ਢੰਗੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਛੁਟੀਐ ਹਰਿ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਮ ਸਿਉ ਸੰਗੁ॥ 7॥

Re mun deeng(i) na doliyaiy, seedhaiy maarug(i) dhaaou. Pachhaiy baagh duraavno, aagaiy uggun(i) tulaaou. Sehsaiy jeeura pur(i) ruhhiyo, ma kuou uver(u) na dhung(u). Nanak, Gurmukh(i) chhoottiyaiy, Hur(i) Preetum siyoun sung(u). 7.

Word Meaning: Deeng(i) = on the wrong (immoral) path. Doliyaiy = weakening of mind. surrender to worldly attractions. Baagh(u) = wolf (of Maya). Uggun(i) Tulaaou = heat of the womb-pool; rebirths. Sehsaiy = in worries. Uver Na Dhung(u) = no other means. Chhoottiyaiy = get freedom (emancipation).

MEANING: Do not allow your mind to fall for worldly attractions and to follow the path of immorality in the journey of life. Keep following the path of righteousness, oh Nanak. (Without Waheguru's Naam), The journey backwards (returning to the old style of life) is frightening because the wolf of worldly attractions devours one's spirituality, and the journey forward (continuing following the same path of worldly affairs) leads to rebirths. Because of this, my mind is caught in worries, but I have no other choice (either follow the path of righteousness or be caught in the rebirth cycle). One can find emancipation only by getting attached to Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 7.

(ਅੰਗ 1411)॥ ਕੀਚੜਿ ਹਾਥੁ ਨ ਬੂਡਈ ਏਕਾ ਨਦਰਿ ਨਿਹਾਲਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਉਬਰੇ ਗੁਰੁ ਸਰਵਰੁ ਸਚੀ ਪਾਲਿ॥ 8॥

Baagh muraiy, mun(u) maariyaiy, jis(u) Satgur deekhiya hoyay. Aap(i) puchhaanaiy, Hur(i) milaiy, buhourr(i) na merna hoyay.

(PAGE 1411): Keechurr(i) haath(u) na boodyee, Aika nudr(i) nihaal(i). Nanak, Gurmukh(i) oobray, Gur(u) survur(u), sachi paal(i). 8.

Word Meaning: Baagh = the wolf of Maya. Mun Maariyaiy = kill worldly desires. Deekhiya = Advice. Aap(i) Puchhaanaiy = self-realization. Buhhourr(i) = again. Keechurr(i) = mud (of Maya). Oobray = salvaged. Paal(i) = shelter.

MEANING: The individual who receives Satguru's advice can kill the wolf of Maya by overcoming his worldly desires. He realizes his self (what the objective of human life is and what he needs to do), connects with Waheguru, and never dies again (as he merges with Waheguru). With the kind sight of Waheguru, he becomes blessed and does not put his hand in the mud of Maya again. The devotees of the Guru attain salvation because the pool of Guru's Advice (Naam-Amrit) is the real shelter (against the attacks of Maya), oh Nanak. 8.

Word Meaning: Ugun(i) = fire (of desires). Loarr(i) Luhhou = is needed. Vin(u) = without. Nidh(i) Jul(u) = ocean (source of the Naam-water). Bhermaayiyaiy = is taken through. Kerm = rituals. Jagaat(i) = the tax collector (who audits your account of deeds). Bhaayay = as per His wishes. Nirmul(u) Amar Pud(u) = highest spiritual state.

MEANING: Just as water is needed to put out fire, one needs the water of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit to kill the fire of desires; and the Guru is the ocean of the Naam. No other deed among millions is capable of quenching the thirst of worldly desires, and the individual is taken through the birth and death cycle again and again. But if one follows the Will of the Guru, no auditor, in the form of the Angel of justice, examines your accounts. The Guru connects His devotees with Waheguru when they attain the pure and the highest spiritual state, oh Nanak.9.

Word Meaning: Kullur Kary Chhupprri = pond of saltpeter (muddy) water; bad company. Kuouaa = crow = an immoral person. Maiyla = filthy. Uvgooni = with bad qualities. Chinj(u) Bhuree = fill the beak; acquires more bad qualities. Gundh Aayay = smells foul. Survur(u) = pool of clean water; holy gathering. Huns(i) = noble man. Kaag = crow. Koopunkhi = bad bird. Sung(i) = in the company. Saakut = Maya-engrossed person. Rung(i) = in love (with God). Sunt Subha = holy gathering. Jaiykaar(u) = acclaiming. Naavun(u) = bathing. Teeruth = holy place.

MEANING: Like a crow which takes dips in a muddy pond to clean its body, a Maya-engrossed person takes advice from other muddy (filthy or immoral) people as a result of which, his mind and body both become filthy with bad qualities, and his mouth (talk) smells awful (he badmouths the good people). The devotee, who loves Waheguru, realizes that the company of a Maya-engrossed (disconnected with Waheguru) person is like a swan (a devotee) in the company of crows and the birds not of its class (immoral people) who fail to recognize the clean pool of water (the Guru). One should acclaim (sing praise of) the gathering of holy saints, and perform noble deeds as per the Advice of the Guru. The Guru is the eternal holy place and the river to take a bath in, which cleanses one's mind, oh Nanak.10.

Word Meaning: Junumay Ka Ful(u) = the reward of taking birth. Bhaaou = love. Paiyndha = wearing. Baad(i) = useless. Dooja Bhaaou = love for others (Maya). Jhootth = ideas about mortal things. Alaaou = saying. Slaah(i) = sing praise.

MEANING: What can be the possible reward of taking birth as a human if there is no worship or love for Waheguru? All one's wearing (of expensive clothes) and eating of (rich foods) is worthless if he has love for the other (Maya). (Without Waheguru's Naam), All one's watching, listening, and talking is about things that are short-lived. One should recite only Waheguru's Naam and sing His praise; everything else is about one's selfishness and ego, which lead to rebirths, oh Nanak. 11.

Haiyn virlay, naahi ghunay, faiyl phukkurr(u) sunsaar(u). 12.
Word Meaning: Virlay = rare. Ghunay = dense; too many. Faiyl Phukkurr(u) = false show off.
MEANING: But such people (who sing Waheguru's praise) are rare, and not too many. The rest of the world is just a show of lies and falseness. 12.

Word Meaning: Toor(i) = instantly. Muraiy = becomes lifeless towards worldly attractions. Choataiy Sayti = with the strike of (Guru's Shabad). Pervaan(u) = approved. Pirm Paiykaam = arrow of love. Soojaan(i) = the know-all (Waheguru).
MEANING: The arrow of love shot by Waheguru is so sweet and painless that the victim dies instantly as far as worldly desires are concerned, and he is left with no zeal for worldly attractions. Such a victim is approved by Waheguru (as His true devotee). But only that individual is hit with such an arrow who is shot at by Waheguru, and is approved by Him. Such an arrow of love and devotion stays there forever, oh Nanak (one's love and devotion for Waheguru never ceases). 13.

Bhaanda dhovaiy kaun(u), j(i) kucha saajiya. Dhaatu punj(i) rulaayay, koorra paajiya. Bhaanda aanug(u) raas(i) jaan Tis(u) bhaavsi. Perm Jot(i) jugaayay, vaaja vaavsi. 14.
Word Meaning: Bhaanda = vessel; heart. Kucha Saajiya = unbaked earthenware; clay pot. Dhaatu Punj(i) = the five natural elements (earth, water, air, fire, and awareness). Koorra Paajiya = short-lived puppet. Aanug(u) Raas(i) = is successful; is approved. Jaan = when; if. Tis(u) = Waheguru. Perm Jot(i) = the supreme light (Soul). Vaaja Vaavsi = music of bliss (union with God).
MEANING: By putting together the five natural elements, Waheguru has created the puppet-like and short-living human body, which becomes filthy with evil thinking and with evil deeds. Just as an unbaked clay pot cannot be washed, a mind that has become filthy with evil thinking cannot be cleansed. The human mind, which is liked by Waheguru, becomes successful (is approved) by Him. Such a mind is enlightened, and the music of bliss begins to play in that (the devotee achieves union with God). 14.

Nanak, tay nur usl khur, j(i) bin(u) goon gerb(u) krunt(i). 15.

Word Meaning: Undhay Ghoop = dark blind. Kuhhiyaan = even when told. Bird(u) = obligations. Oondhay Kuvul(i) = inverted hearts (facing away from spirituality). Khuray Kroop = very ugly. Sooghurr = wise. Sroop = beautiful (mind). Naad(i) = music. Bayd(u) = knowledge. Gee = poetry. Rus(u) = interest. Rus(u) Kus(u) = good and bad tastes. Sidh(i) = success. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Ukul(i) Sur = sense of appreciation. Bhayo = secret. Lahunt(i) = obtain; acquire. Khur = donkeys; stupid. Gerb(u) Krunt(i) = feel conceited.
MEANING: Those who have complete darkness in their mind do not recognize their human obligations even when they are told. With blind minds and inverted hearts (facing away from Waheguru), they look very unattractive. There are also some people who know what to say (in praise of Waheguru), and they understand what is said to them; such people are wise and have a beautiful mind. Then, there are some who have no interest in music, knowledge, or poetry, and do not know what is good or bad. There are also some who have no wisdom to achieve success, and no sense of appreciation for the words of wisdom said to them. The people who feel conceited for no good quality in them are the real donkeys (idiots), oh Nanak. 15.

Word Meaning: Bindaiy = recognizes; makes a connection. Braham = God. Jup(u) Tup(u) = worship of God. Sunujum(u) = control on senses. Kerm(u) = deeds. Seel = sweet nature. Bundhun = worldly bonds. Poojun Joogt(u) = worthy of respect.
MEANING: Only that individual deserves to be called a Brahman who realizes Waheguru by putting in big efforts to worship Him, performs noble deeds, and maintains a sweet nature and contentment as his religious duties, and breaks all worldly bonds. Such a Brahman is worthy of our worship. 16.

Word Meaning: Khatri = warrior. Soor(u) = valiant; hero. Poonn(u) = noble deeds. Khayt(u) = the field of heart. Puchhaanaiy = examines; recognizes. Daan(u) = helping the needy. Lub(u) = gluttony; voraciousness. Loabh(u) = greed. Koorr(u) = bad deeds.
MEANING: Likewise, a warrior is the one who is valiant (great) at doing noble deeds, and helps the needy with his body and resources. He recognizes (does self-analysis) of the field of his heart, and seeds it with compassion, and with Waheguru's Naam. Such a warrior is approved by Waheguru. On the other hand, the individual who pursues spiritually undesirable and perishable things, such as gluttony and greed, reaps the rewards of his own deeds (gets bad results). 17.

Word Meaning: Tupaayay = self-torturing. Tunoor = baking hearth. Baalun(u) = fuel wood. Hudd = bones. Phayrriya = bad deeds; crime. Piree = Dear (God).
MEANING: Why torture your body like a baking hearth by building fire around you on hot summer days and burn your bones like firewood, oh God-seeking man? What crime have your head and feet committed for you to punish them? (God is not pleased by torturing your body). He is inside you, remember Him (sing His praise) searching Him in there. 18.

Word Meaning: Ghuteen = hearts. Shuhou = Husband (Waheguru). Sohaagni = loved; fortunate. Pergut(u) = appears (in heart).
MEANING: Waheguru is present in every heart, and no heart is there without Him. But only those are loved by Him in whose hearts He appears in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nank. 19.

Word Meaning: Praym Khalun = act of affection (for the Guru or Waheguru). Sir(u) = head; wisdom; ego. Gully = street; path. Kaan(i) = weakness; hesitation.
MEANING: If you wish to play the game of love with me (as the Guru), then come with a pure heart, and surrender all your wisdom and ego. If you set foot on this path, then you have to offer your wisdom and ego without any hesitation. 20.

ਨਾਲਿ ਕਿਰਾੜਾ ਦੋਸਤੀ ਕੂੜੈ ਕੂੜੀ ਪਾਇ॥ ਮਰਣੁ ਨ ਜਾਪੈ ਮੂਲਿਆ ਆਵੈ ਕਿਤੈ ਥਾਇ॥ 21॥
Naal(i) Kirarraan dosti, koorraiy koori paayayn. Mern(u) na jaapaiy Mooliya, aavaiy kitaiy thaayayn.
Word Meaning: Kiraarr = a strictly business-minded (selfish) person. Koorraiy = undependable. Paayayn = durability; strength. Moola = a kiraarr of Sialkot city, who died while hiding from Guru Sahib (Janam – Sakhi).
MEANING: The friendship with a money-minded and selfish person is not dependable. (Like Mool Chand of Sialkot, who was hiding from Guru Nanak Sahib, fearing that he would suffer loss in his business during the time he would have to spend with Guru Sahib, but who died when a snake bit him at the spot where he was hiding), nobody knows when death will take him away. (So, one must spend some time in holy gatherings). 21.

Word Meaning: Heenun(g) = devoid of. Vertaava = dealings. Bhaaou Dooja = selfish reasons.
MEANING: Worship without knowledge is worship of ignorance (and provides no spiritual benefit because it is done for some selfish benefit). Therefore, even the dealings there are discriminatory and of a selfish nature, and hence are of no spiritual benefit. 22.

ਗੁਰ ਬਿਨੁ ਗਿਆਨੁ ਧਰਮ ਬਿਨੁ ਧਿਆਨੁ॥ ਸਚ ਬਿਨੁ ਸਾਖੀ ਮੂਲੋ ਨ ਬਾਕੀ॥ 23॥

Gur bin(u) Giyan(u), dherm bin(u) dhiyan. Sach bin(u) saakhi, mooloan na baaki. 23.
Word Meaning: Sakhi = witness. Mooloan Na Baaki = lead to no benefit at all; are harmful.
MEANING: Spiritual knowledge without the Guru, meditating on something without high morality in mind, and providing evidence without truth, are actually all harmful. (So, we must seek advice from the true Guru, and meditate with noble intentions). 23.

Maanu ghullay, ootthi chullay. Saad naahi ivayheen gullay. 24.
Word Meaning: Maanu = man. Ghullay = sent (in the world). Saad Naahi = not impressive; disappointing. Ivaheen Gullaiy = with such behaviour.
MEANING: Waheguru sends the man in this world with the objective for him that he will perform noble deeds and sing His praise to be "one with Him". But it becomes very disappointing if he leaves the world like he came, without working towards this objective. 24.

ਰਾਮੁ ਝੁਰੈ ਦਲ ਮੇਲਵੈ ਅੰਤਰਿ ਬਲੁ ਅਧਿਕਾਰ॥ ਬੰਤਰ ਕੀ ਸੈਨਾ ਸੇਵੀਐ ਮਨਿ ਤਨਿ ਜੁਝੁ ਅਪਾਰੁ॥ ਸੀਤਾ ਲੈ ਗਇਆ ਦਹਸਿਰੋ ਲਛਮਣ ਮੂਓ ਸਰਾਪਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਕਰਤਾ ਕਰਣਹਾਰੁ ਕਰਿ ਵੇਖੈ ਥਾਪਿ ਉਥਾਪਿ॥ 25॥
Ram jhooraiy dul maylvaiy, untar bul(u) adhikaar. Buntar kee saiyna sayviyaiy, mun(i), tun(i) joojh(u) apaar(u). Sita laiy guyyo Dehsiro, Luchhman mooyo sraap)i). Nanak, Kerta kernhaar(u), kur(i) vaykhaiy thaap(i) oothaap(i). 25.
Word Meaning: Ram = lord Rama. Jhooraiy = feels sad. Dul Maylvaiy = raising army. Buntar kee Saiyna = army of monkeys (led by Hanuman). Joojh(u) = fight valiantly. Dehsiro = Ravna (the ten-headed demon king of Lanka). Sraap(i) = curse. Thaap(i) = to create. Oothaap(i) = destroy.
MEANING: Only the Creator Waheguru is omnipotent, who watches His creation as He creates and destroys it. He never cries or feels sad. And only He deserves to be worshipped, and nobody else. People worship lord Rama as a manifestation of God, but he cried when Ravana kidnapped Sita, and when his brother Lakshman died (became unconscious when wounded in the battlefield) because of some curse. Rama had raised an army of monkeys for which he had the right to do, and the soldiers had the will to fight for him with their bodies and minds. Yet Rama had to cry and feel sad (so he cannot be compared to Waheguru). 25.

Mun meh(i) jhooraiy Ram Chand(u) Sita Luchhman joag(u). Hunvuntar araadhiya, aaya kur(i) sunjog(u). Bhoola Daiynt(u) na sumujhyee, Tin(i) Prubh keeyay kaam. Nanak vaypervaah(u) So, kirt(u) na mityee Ram. 26.
Word Meaning: Joag(i) = for. Hunvuntar(u) = Hanuman. Araadhiya = remembered. Sunjoag = good fortune. Bhoola Daiynt = the misled demon (Ravna). Kirt(u) = deeds done in the previous lives. Na Mityee = cannot be erased.
MEANING: Waheguru is perfectly carefree (and never feels sad or depressed), and nobody can erase the record of an individual's deeds in his previous lives, oh Nanak. Sri Rama cannot match Waheguru because he cried for Sita and Lakshman. He had called Hanuman, who came to Ram Ji's help as per the predestined union (by God) between them. But the misled demon (Ravana) too, did not realize the amazing feats of Waheguru (and was killed). 26.

ਲਾਹੌਰ ਸਹਰੁ ਜਹਰੁ ਕਹਰੁ ਸਵਾ ਪਹਰੁ॥ 27॥
Lahore shehr(u) jehr(u) kehr(u), suvaa pehr(u). 27.

Word Meaning: Jehr Kehr = poisonous immoral activities. Suvaa Pehr(u) = 4 hours.
NOTE: The city of Lahore was the capital city of Punjab at the time of Guru Nanak Sahib, and the high officials of the government resided there. Being the capital city, high officials from Delhi and foreign dignitaries visited there. It had become the culture of the city to entertain the locals and the guests with immoral activities, like serving liquor, dances by thinly clad women, and even prostitution.
When Guru Nanak Sahib observed all such nefarious activities and found no holy gatherings, He was pained, and He wrote the above Shabad.
MEANING: The city of Lahore has become the centre for spiritually poisonous, immoral activities, which are carried out there for about four hours of the night. 27.

ਮਹਲਾ 3॥ ਲਾਹੌਰ ਸਹਰੁ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਿਤਸਰੁ ਸਿਫਤੀ ਦਾ ਘਰੁ॥ 28॥
Mehla 3: Lahore shehr(u) Amritsar(u), sifti da ghur(u). 28.
Word Meaning: Amritsar(u) = pool of Amrit (source of immortalizing Waheguru's Naam). Sifti Da Ghur = the home of praise for Waheguru.
NOTE 1: When Guru Nanak Sahib visited Lahore, He transformed many individuals of the city into saintly people, which included Bhai Mansukh, Bhai Duni Chand, and Bhai Sahlo and Saiyn, among others, who began to have holy gatherings where Waheguru's praise was sung, and noble qualities preached. So, there was a noticeable change in the city's culture. As you can see, the above holy hymn has been written by the Third Guru, Amar Dass Ji. He praises the efforts of Guru Nanak Sahib to transform the city, and showing His respect for Guru Nanak, He writes:
NOTE 2: The city of Amritsar did not exist at the time of Guru Amar Dass Ji.
MEANING: (Lahore is no longer a city of immorality), (with Your efforts and grace) it has now become the source of the immortalizing Naam of Waheguru, where His praise is sung, oh Guru Nanak Sahib Ji. 28.

ਮਹਲਾ 1॥ ਉਦੋਸਾਹੈ ਕਿਆ ਨੀਸਾਨੀ ਤੋਟਿ ਨ ਆਵੈ ਅੰਨੀ॥ ਉਦੋਸੀਅ ਘਰੇ ਹੀ ਵੁਠੀ ਕੂੜਿਈ ਰੰਨੀ ਧੰਮੀ॥ ਸਤੀ ਰੰਨੀ ਘਰੇ ਸਿਆਪਾ ਰੋਵਨਿ ਕੂੜੀ ਕੰਮੀ॥ ਜੋ ਲੇਵੈ ਸੋ ਦੇਵੈ ਨਾਹੀ ਖਟੇ ਦੰਮ ਸਹੰਮੀ॥ 29॥
Mehla 1: Oodosaahaiy kiyya neeshaani, toat(i) na aavaiy unni. Oodosee ghuray he vootthi, koorryeen runni dhummi. Suteen runni ghuray siyaapa, rovun(i) koorreen kummi. Jo laivay, so dayvaiy naahi, khuttay dumm sehummi. 29.
Word Meaning: Oodosaahaiy = zeal (to accumulate wealth). Neehsaani = signs. Toat(i) = shortage. Unni = food. Ghuray = in the heart. Vootthi = settles; arises. Koorryeen = false; for short-lived enjoyments. Runni = (by the female) senses. Dhummi = wild noise. Suteen Runni = the seven females (five senses + fickleness of the mind + discontentment) (Punjabi grammar). Siyaapa = uninvited trouble; agitation. Khuttay Dumm = earned (acquired) money. Sehummi = worried.
MEANING: (Most people are very enthusiastic about earning more and more money, and not for singing Waheguru's praise). Such people are recognized by the fact that there is never a shortage of food in their homes. (Nobody teaches them such zeal about wealth), It arises naturally in their own heart when their senses raise a big fuss for more and more luxuries of life, which are only short-lived. The seven females (the five senses, the fickleness of mind, and discontentment) cause uninvited trouble, demanding luxuries. However, the man does not share his wealth with others, which causes umbrage. (So, he still does not enjoy peace of mind). 29.

ਪਬਰ ਤੂ ਹਰੀਆਵਲਾ ਕਵਲਾ ਕੰਚਨ ਵੰਨਿ॥ ਕੈ ਦੋਖੜੈ ਸੜਿਓਹਿ ਕਾਲੀ ਹੋਈਆ ਦੇਹੁਰੀ ਨਾਨਕ ਮੈ ਤਨਿ ਭੰਗ॥ ਜਾਣਾ ਪਾਣੀ ਨ ਲਹਾ ਜੈ ਸੇਤੀ ਮੇਰਾ ਸੰਗੁ॥ ਜਿਤੁ ਡਿਠੈ ਤਨੁ ਪਰਫੁੜੈ ਚੜੈ ਚਵਗਣਿ ਵੰਨੁ॥ 30॥

Pubbar tu huriyaavla, kuvlaan kunchun vunn(i). Kaiy doakhrraiy surriyoneh, kaali hoyiya dayhouri; Nanak, mein tun(i) bhung. Jaana paani na luhaan, jaiy sayti mayra sung(u). Jit(u) ditthaiy tun(u) perphoorraiy, churrhaiy chuvgun(i) vunn(u). 30.

Word Meaning: Pubbar = mine (garden) of lotus flowers. Kunchun Vunn(i) = gold-like shine. Kaiy Doakhrraiy = by what suffering? Dayhouri = body. Bhung = breakage; separation. Luhhaan = acquire. Sayti = with. Sung(u) = company. Ditthaiy = on seeing; meeting with. Perphoorraiy = flourishes. Chuvgun(i) = four times.

MEANING: Question: You were lush green all around, and the flowers had the gold-like shine, oh, the garden of lotus flowers. What kind of suffering has caused this damage to you? You seem to have been charred, and your body has become dark.

Answer: I realize that I am experiencing separation from water (not getting it), in whose company I survive and flourish, and that my shine enhances four times, oh Guru Nanak.

(Similarly, a gathering of people, which is disconnected from Waheguru, which is the root of all life and bliss, withers away spiritually). 30.

Rujj(i) na koyi jeeviya, puhounch(i) na chulliya koyay. Giyani jeevaiy sudaa, sudaa, soorti hee put(i) hoyay. Serfaiy, serfaiy sudaa, sudaa aivaiyn guyyi vihaayay. Nanak, kis nu aakhiyaiy, vin(u) poochhiyaan hee laiy jaayay. 31.

Word Meaning: Rujj(i) = fully satisfied. Puhounch(i) = reach the destination; achieve goals. Giyani = spiritually enlightened (connected with God). Soorti = with the mind connected with Waheguru. Put(i) = respect; honour. Serfaiy = spending every day counting. Vihaayay = spent. Aakhiyaiy = plead with.

MEANING: Nobody has ever lived to his full satisfaction, and nobody achieves all his goals. However, the spiritually enlightened devotee lives forever (by connecting with Waheguru), and only those who stay connected with Waheguru earn respect in His Court (and everywhere else). The life of a common man is spent keeping account of everyday life (under the fear of death). But Waheguru takes life away without telling anyone, oh Nanak. 31.

ਦੋਸੁ ਨ ਦੇਅਉ ਰਾਇ ਨੋ ਮਤਿ ਚਲੈ ਜਾ ਬੁਢਾ ਹੋਵੈ॥ ਗਲਾ ਕਰੇ ਘਣੇਰੀਆ ਤਾ ਅੰਨ੍ਹੇ ਪਵਣਾ ਖਾਤੀ ਟੋਵੈ॥ 32॥

Doash na dayvou raayay nu, mut(i) chullaiy jaan boodha hovaiy. Gullaan kuray ghunayriyaan, ta unneh puvna khaateen tovaiy. 32.

Word Meaning: Doash = blame. Raayay = wealthy. Mut(i) Chullaiy = loses wisdom. Jaan = when. Ghunayriyaan = too many. Puvna = falls. Khaateen Tovaiy = in pits; ditches.

MEANING: Do not blame a wealthy person (who spent his whole life earning wealth) in his old age when he keeps talking about wealth (and enjoys no peace of mind), because a spiritually ignorant person is caught in petty affairs about wealth like a blind man who falls into pits and ditches. (Such a wealthy person dies in discontentment and is caught in an endless cycle of reincarnations. 32.

ਪੂਰੇ ਕਾ ਕੀਆ ਸਭ ਕਿਛੁ ਪੂਰਾ ਘਟਿ ਵਧਿ ਕਿਛੁ ਨਾਹੀ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਐਸਾ ਜਾਣੈ ਪੂਰੇ ਮਾਹਿ ਸਮਾਹੀ॥ 33॥

Pooray ka keeya subh kichh(u) poora, ghut(i) vudh(i) kichh(u) naahu. Nanak, Gurmukh(i) aiysa jaanaiy, Pooray maah(i) smaahi. 33.

Word Meaning: Poora = Perfect (Waheguru). Smaahi = gets absorbed.

MEANING: Everything that the Perfect Waheguru has created is also perfect – nothing less, nothing more. A Guru's Sikh is aware of that, and gets absorbed in Him, oh Nanak. 33.

(PAGE 1413): Abhiyaagut eh na aakhiyeh(i) jinh kaiy mun meh(i) bherm(u). Tinh kay dittay Nanaka, tayho jiha dherm(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Abhiyaagut = guests; people in religious garbs who beg for meals. Bherm(u) = doubts; uncertainty (about the existence of Waheguru, or their own objective).

MEANING: Visitors in religious garb who come to your door, begging for meals, are not holy men if they have doubts about the path of righteousness or even about their own objective of union with Waheguru. Serving them makes even the host share their shaky faith, oh Nanak.1.

Word Meaning: Abhaiy = fearless. Nirunjun = (Waheguru), which is above the effects of Maya. Bheekhuk(u) = beggar. Virla = rare.

MEANING: The true devotee begs for the meal of the supreme spiritual state to unite with the fearless Waheguru. But some rare individual gets the meal he begs for, oh, Nanak. 2.

Hovaan pundit(u) jotki, Ved purrhaan mukh(i) chaar(i). Nuvaan khundaan vich(i) jaaniyaan apnay chujj veechaar. 3.

Word Meaning: Pundit(u) = highly learned person. Jotki = fortune teller. Nuvaan Khundaan = (the Lord of the earth) with nine regions. Chujj Veechaar = character and thinking. 3.

MEANING: I may be a highly learned person who can tell the fortune of others, and may recite all four Vedas from memory (and befool some people), but the Lord of the world, Waheguru, would judge me only by my character and my thinking, no matter where I go in the whole world. 3.

Word Meaning: Kaiyli = cow. Ghaat(u) = killing. Kunjkaan = very young innocent girls. Unchaari = unprincipled. Dhaan(u) = donation. Phituk = condemnable. Koarr(u) = millions. Budiyaan = vices. Abhimaan(u) = conceit of all times. Paah(i) = beating with shoes. Tut(u) Giyan(u) = knowledge about Waheguru (His praise).
MEANING: Killing of a Brahman (a highly learned man), a cow, a young girl (for her gender), donations from an unprincipled man, and conceit of all time are all considered grave vices for which one receives countless condemnations from people. But one gets more punishment than the combined condemnations for all the above vices in Waheguru's Court when he forgets His Naam. All other wisdoms are burned (ignored) in His Court, only His Naam is rewarded. 4.

Maathaiy jo Dhoor(i) likhiya, su mayt(i) na sukaiy koyay. Nanak, jo likhiyaso vertda, so boojhaiy jis nu nudr(i) hoyay. 5.
Word Meaning: Maathaiy = on the forehead. Dhoor(i) = from the source (Waheguru). Mayt(i) = erase; obliterate. Vertda = happens. Boojhaiy = understands.
MEANING: Nobody can obliterate the fortune written on one's forehead by Waheguru and whatever happens, happens according to that; but only that lucky devotee understands it who has the kind Sight of Waheguru on him. 5.

Munmukh bunnh(i) chulaayiyeh(i) na milhee vugg(i), sugg(i). Aap(i) bhoolaayay, bhoolliyaiy, Aapay mayl(i) milaayay. Nanak, Gurmukh(i) chhoottiyaiy, jay chullaiy Satgur bhaayay. 6.
Word Meaning: Koorra Laaluch = greed about the false (short-lived) things. Dhundha = business. Mohini = mind captivating. Tishna Ugg(i) = fire of desires. Vayl(i) = vines. Toombrri = fruit. Tthug(i) = cheats; swindlers. Vugg(i) = herd of cattle. Sug(i) = dog.
MEANING: The people who forget Waheguru because of their greed for the short-lived attractions of the world are captivated by Maya and have a burning desire to have it. So, they work hard to accumulate it, but such cheats are cheated (of their good qualities) by Maya itself, and are like that vine which bears no fruit. Just like a dog which cannot mix with a herd of cattle, such Maya-engrossed people are pulled apart and taken away, tied in chains. However, they are misled by Waheguru Himself (as a result of their deeds) and are drawn back to Him when He wishes. One attains emancipation only when he leads his life according to the Advice of the Satguru, oh Nanak. 6.

Salaaheen salaahna, bhee Sacha salaah(i). Nanak, Sacha Aik Dur(u), beebha purhur(i) aah(i). 7.
Word Meaning: Salaaheen = one who praises (devotee). Bhee = again, and again. Sacha = everlasting (Waheguru). Beebha = others. Purhur(i) Aah(i) = push away; reject.
MEANING: The devotees of Waheguru sing His praise again and again. By rejecting all other doors (spiritual shelters), they stay in the shelter of Waheguru alone, oh Nanak. 7.

ਨਾਨਕ ਜਹ ਜਹ ਮੈ ਫਿਰਉ ਤਹ ਤਹ ਸਾਚਾ ਸੋਇ॥ ਜਹ ਦੇਖਾ ਤਹ ਏਕੁ ਹੈ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਪਰਗਟੁ ਹੋਇ॥8॥
Nanak, jeh jeh mein phiroun, teh, teh Saacha Soyay. Jeh daykhaan teh Aik(u) haiy, Gurmukh(i) pergut(u) hoyay. 8.
Word Meaning: Jeh Jeh = wherever. Teh = there. Pergut(u) = appears.
MEANING: Wherever I go, I find Waheguru there. I see only Him in every direction, but He appears in the heart of only those who listen to the Advice of the Guru. 8.

ਦੂਖ ਵਿਸਾਰਣ ਸਬਦੁ ਹੈ ਜੇ ਮੰਨਿ ਵਸਾਏ ਕੋਇ॥ ਗੁਰ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਤੇ ਮਨਿ ਵਸੈ ਕਰਮ ਪਰਾਪਤਿ ਹੋਇ॥9॥
Dookh visaarun Shabad(u) haiy, jay munn(i) vusaayay koyay. Gur kirpa tay mun(i) vussaiy, kerm praaput(i) hoyay. 9.
Word Meaning: Dookh Visaarun = destroyer of suffering. Kerm = with His benevolence.
MEANING: Satguru's Shabad (Waheguru's Naam) is the destroyer of all suffering; so, one ought to enshrine it in his mind. However, one can enshrine it in his mind only with the grace of the Guru, which stays there with the benevolence of Waheguru. 9.

ਨਾਨਕ ਹਉ ਹਉ ਕਰਤੇ ਖਪਿ ਮੁਏ ਖੂਹਣਿ ਲਖ ਅਸੰਖ॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਮਿਲੇ ਸੁ ਉਬਰੇ ਸਾਚੈ ਸਬਦਿ ਅਲੰਖ॥10
Nanak, huoun, huoun kertay khup(i) mooyay, khoohun(i) lakh asunkh. Satgur milay say oobray, Saachaiy Shabad(i) alunkh. 10.
Word Meaning: Huoun = selfishness and ego. Khup(i) Mooyay = died in frustration. Khoohun = countless. Oobray = are salvaged. Alunkh = the incomprehensible (God).
MEANING: Countless people die in frustration when their selfishness and their ego are not fed. But they can attain salvation with the Shabad (eternal Waheguru's Naam) in the shelter of Satguru. 10.

ਜਿਨ੍ਹਾ ਸਤਿਗੁਰੁ ਇਕ ਮਨਿ ਸੇਵਿਆ ਤਿਨ ਜਨ ਲਾਗਉ ਪਾਇ॥ ਗੁਰ ਸਬਦੀ ਹਰਿ ਮਨਿ ਵਸੈ ਮਾਇਆ ਕੀ ਭੁਖ ਜਾਇ॥ ਸੇ ਜਨ ਨਿਰਮਲ ਊਜਲੇ ਜਿ ਗੁਰਮਖਿ ਨਾਮਿ ਸਮਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਹੋਰਿ ਪਾਤਸਾਹੀਆ ਕੂੜੀਆ ਨਾਮਿ ਰਤੇ ਪਾਤਸਾਹ॥ 11॥
Jinha Satgur ikk mun(i) sayviya, tinh jun laagoun paayayn. Gur Shabadi Hur(i) mun(i) vussaiy, Maya kee bhookh jaayay. Say jun nirmul oojlay, j(i) Gurmukh(i) Naam(i) smaayay. Nanak, hoar(i) patshaahiyaan koorriyaan, Naam(i) ruttay patshah. 11.
Word Meaning: Ikk Mun(i) = with full dedication. Laagoun Paayay = touch feet; show respect. Niirmul Oojlay = pure at heart. Paatshaahi = kingship; reign. Ruttay = imbued.
MEANING: I touch the feet (show utmost respect for) of those who serve Satguru with full dedication. Waheguru (His Naam) gets embedded in the heart with Guru's Shabad, and all one's appetite for Maya goes away. Those devotees have pure mind who get absorbed in Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. All other kingships are false, but they are true kings who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam. 11.

(PAGE 1414): Hur(i) Prubh vaypervah haiy, kit(u) khaadhaiy tiptaayay. Satgur kaiy bhaanaiy jo chullaiy, tiptaasaiy Hur(i) goon gaayay. Dhun(u), dhun(u) Kulyug(i) Nanaka, j(i) chullaiy Satgur bhaayay. 12.

Word Meaning: Bhugati Naar(i) = devoted wife. Loachaiy = wishes. Bhugati Bhaayay = devotional love. Rus Saalnay = tasty dishes. Suvaardi = prepares with love. Khut = tangy. Meetthay = sweet. Tiyoun = like that. Sir(u) Vaychiya = surrender all wisdom. Loachaan Poor(i) = fulfilling wishes. Vaypervaah(u) = carefree. Tiptaayay = is pleased.
Bhaayay = according to the wishes (advice).

MEANING: Like a devoted wife who serves her husband with full devotion and prepares many tasty, sweet, and salty dishes for him, the devotees of Waheguru sing His praise with full concentration with the Bani (Guru's Shabad). They offer their mind, body, and wealth to the Guru, and sell their head (wisdom) to Him (to acquire His Wisdom). The devotees long for the (respectful) fear and worship of Waheguru, which fulfills all their wishes and connects them with Him. Waheguru is perfectly carefree, so what should one eat (take in) to please Him? (Answer): Waheguru is pleased when the devotee leads his life according to the wishes (advice) of the Guru and sings His praise. (Even though the present eon, Kalyug, is considered to be the worst eon of the four), It is great for the person who obeys the Satguru, oh Nanak. 12.

Satguru na sayviyo, Shabad(u) na rukhiyo oordhaar(i). Dhig(u) tinha ka jeeviya, kit(u) aayay sunsaar(i). Gurmuteen bhuou mun(i) puvvaiy ta Hur(i) rus(i) luggaiy piyaar(i). Naaoun milaiy Dhoor(i) likhiya, jun Nanak paar(i) ootaar(i). 13.

Word Meaning: Oor Dhaar(i) = enshrined in the heart. Dhig(u) = reprehensible. Kit(u) = for what? Rus(i) = sweetness. Dhoor(i) = by Waheguru.

MEANING: The life of those who do not serve Satguru (obey His Advice) and do not enshrine His Shabad (Waheguru's Naam) in their heart is reprehensible. For what did they come into the world? One begins to enjoy love for Waheguru when he fosters (respectful) fear for Him with Guru's Advice. However, Waheguru's Naam, which ferries one across the world-sea (results in emancipation), can be acquired only if it is written in one's fortune by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 13.

Naam ruttan(u) pergaasiya, mun(u), tun(u) nirmul hoyay. Naamheen nuckutay phireh(i), bin(u) Naavaiyn beh(i) royay. Nanak, jo Dhoor(i) Kertay likhiya, su mayt(i) na sukaiy koyay.

Word Meaning: Bhermiya = misled. Ghur(u) = heart; spiritual wealth. Moossaiy = robbed. Hir(i) Luyya = stole. Loyay = world. Khurrug = sword. Punch Doot = the five demons.

Sunghaaray = killed. Jaagaiy = became aware. Soyay = slept. Pergaasiya = lighted up; appeared. Heen = without. Nuckutay = without nose; insulted.
MEANING: The world is so misled by its attachment to Maya, and is so unaware of the fact that its spiritual wealth is being robbed. Lust and rage steal the mind of the Maya-engrossed person (depriving him of his wisdom), and he becomes spiritually blind in the world. But a devotee is awakened (enlightened) by the advice of the Guru, and kills the five demons with the sword of Divine Knowledge. With the jewel-like Waheguru's Naam enlightening his mind, his mind and body become pure (holy). Those, without Waheguru's Naam, suffer humiliation and cry (repent for their behaviour). However, it is their fate, because whatever Waheguru has written in their fate cannot be erased, oh Nanak. 14.

Word Meaning: Atoott = never running out. Bhundaar = treasures. Oochreh(i) = recite. Kaarun = means; creations. Sirjunhaar(u) = Creator (Waheguru).
MEANING: The Sikhs of the Guru earn the wealth of Waheguru's Naam by pondering over His Shabad. To acquire the invaluable Waheguru's Naam, and their treasures of the Naam never run out (when they share it with others). They recite Guru's Bani (Waheguru's Nam), which is the source of limitless noble qualities. But it is the Creator, Waheguru, who generates all the means for the recitation of His Naam, and then watches the results, oh Nanak. 15.

Word Meaning: Sehj(u) = complete bliss. Dusvaiyn Akaash(i) = the tenth body door (through which one gets enlightenment). Oongh = snoozing; dozing off (being unaware). Vaas(u) = dwelling. Viyaaput Nuhhi = does not happen. Aatum Ram = God.
MEANING: The Sikhs of the Guru have bliss in their mind, which is enlightened by Waheguru's Naam. They enjoy the bliss of Waheguru's Naam, which dwells in their mind, and they never lose their awareness or feel any appetite for worldly comforts. There is no feeling of comfort or suffering in the heart which has been enlightened by Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 16.

Word Meaning: Choalrra = cloak; garb; body covering. Ikk(i) = many. Oopjeh(i) = come into being. Binus(i) Jaah(i) = disappear; die. Na Chookyee = does not end. Bundhun Bundh(i) = chained by worldly bonds; attached to Maya. Bhuvaayiun(u) = are taken through.
MEANING: Everybody's mind is wearing a covering of lust and rage. Many are born (at any given time), while many are destroyed (die); they come and go with Waheguru's Will. As long as a man loves the other (Maya), his birth and death cycle never ends. Bonded by the chains of worldly attractions, they are taken through many lives, and nothing can be said (known) about that. 17.

Word Meaning: Oolti Bhuyyi = reversal of thinking (from Maya to God). Mer(i) Jeeviya = live after killing worldly desires. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = without any special effort.
MEANING: Those, whom Waheguru is kind to, get connected with Satguru. Their thinking gets reversed (from attachment with Maya to attachment with Waheguru), as a result of which, their worldly desires get killed without any special effort on their part, and they lead life of high spirituality. With their minds imbued with the worship of Waheguru, they get absorbed in His Naam, oh Nanak. 18.

Word Meaning: Chunchul Mut(i) = fickle mind. Chuturaayi = cunningness. Keeta Kertiya = all deeds. Birtha Guyya = goes waste. Ikk(u) Til(u) Thaaya Na Paayi = does not get credit – not even the size of a sesame seed. Poonn Daan(u) = donations to undeserving (Brahmans). Dhermraayay = Angel of justice. Jumkaal(u) = Angel of death. Khooaayee = puts to humiliation. Jobun = youth. Jur(u) = old age. Klut(u) = wife. Hayt(u) = love. Bayli = Sukhaayi = friend. Smaayi = get absorbed.
MEANING: The people who are disconnected from Waheguru (and engrossed in Maya) have fickle minds, even though they think that they are very clever. Whatever religious rituals they perform (as a show off for others), go completely unrewarded. Those, who give donations to undeserving Brahmans or perform other "noble" deeds with the expectations that they are sowing these seeds for huge returns in future, are presented before the Angel of justice (and receive huge punishments because such deeds are not approved by Waheguru). Without taking shelter of Satguru, the Angel of justice does not spare them, and humiliates them for their attachment with Maya.

One does not realize how his youth is slipping away, and when old age hits him, and he dies. The man loves his sons, and his wife, but nobody is there to help him at the time of his death. The individual, who serves Satguru, gets Waheguru's Naam embedded in his heart, and enjoys bliss. Those are highly fortunate who stay absorbed in Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 19.

Word Meaning: Chaytni = remember. Aatma Ram(u) = Waheguru.
MEANING: The Maya-engrossed man does not remember Waheguru's Naam, and cries in suffering. How can he enjoy comfort when he does not worship Waheguru? His mind is filthy with his selfishness and ego which he does not wash away with Guru's Shabad. Without Waheguru's Naam, such people die with filthy minds, and miss the invaluable objective of human life, oh Nanak. 20.

Word Meaning: Boalay = deaf. Ugni = fire (of desires). Soort(i) = by applying the mind. Soodh(i) = understanding; self-realization. Visaas(u) = have faith. Giyani = the enlightened. Nit = always. Vigaas(u) = blissful. Taas(u) = Him (God). Daas(u) = slave.
MEANING: The Maya-engrossed people have the fire of worldly desires in their minds and are deaf and blind (towards spirituality). They do not apply their mind to understand the Guru's Shabad to enlighten their mind. They have no self-realization and have no faith in the Guru's Shabad. The enlightened have Guru's Shabad enshrined in their mind, and are always blissful. I am all sacrifice for Waheguru, which protects the enlightened. I am a slave of all those who serve Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru (with His Shabad). 21.

Gurmukhaan kay mookh oojlay, Durgeh sobha paayay. Jun Nanak(u) sudaa koorbaan(u) tinh, jo chaaleh(i) Satgur bhaayay. 22.

Word Meaning: Bhooyungum = serp(u) = snake. Ghariya = surrounded; under control. Bikh(u) = poison. Maarun(u) = killer. Groorr = a mantra believed to be an antidote for a snake's poison. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten in their fate. Bilaayay = is destroyed. Oojlay = shine with purity of mind. Sobha Paayay = are honoured.

MEANING: Maya is like a snake which has surrounded (besieged) the whole world with its (spiritually) poisonous nature. The antidote to this poison is Waheguru's Naam, which acts like the Groorr mantra to undo the effect of a snake bite. So, one needs to recite the Guru's Shabad and embed it in their mind. He gets purified in the shelter of Satguru, and the poison of his haumein is destroyed. However, only those who have it prewritten in their fate by Waheguru get to meet with (come to the shelter of) Satguru. Guru's Sikhs with purified minds have shiny faces and are honoured in Waheguru's Court. I am always a sacrifice for the Sikhs who lead their lives according to Satguru's Advice, oh Nanak. 22.

Hur(i) Gurmukh(i) kirpa dhaariun(u), jun vichhurray aap(i) milaayay. Jun Nanak(u) tis(u) bulihaarnaiy, jo Satgur laagay paayay. 23.

Word Meaning: Nirvaiyr = bears no enmity. Nit = always. Liv Laayay = stays connected. Ruchaayaynda = engages. Looki = flame. Bhaunkday = bark; make useless noise. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love with the other (Maya). Bhermday = wander around. Put(i) Guvaayay = lose respect. Vichhurray = separated; disconnected.

MEANING: Satguru bears no enmity toward anyone and remains always connected to Waheguru. Those who engage in enmity against the just Satguru apply the flame to their own hearts. They light up the fire of rage and ego in their heart, and burn in that fire and suffer all the time. In their love for poisonous Maya, they tell lies loudly (openly) and talk nonsense about other things. They wander around to acquire the poisonous Maya, and lose respect in every house when and if they go begging. Like the son of a prostitute (who gets no respect for not having his father, they too lose respect without the Waheguru-father. Misled by Waheguru, they do not recite His Naam. However, Waheguru becomes kind to the Sikhs of the Guru and connects the disconnected with Him. I am a sacrifice for those who drop at the feet of (surrender to) Satguru, oh Nanak. 23.

MEANING: The individuals with Waheguru's Naam find salvation, while the ones without the Naam are taken to the court of the Angel of justice. There is no comfort (peace) without Waheguru's Naam; such people take birth, die, and repent as they continue in the birth-death cycle, oh Nanak. 24.

Word Meaning: Chinta Dhaavut = running around in worries. Reh(i) Guyyay = left behind; are over. Sa Dhun = that human being. Nichind(u) = worry-free. Permanund = (source of) eternal bliss (Waheguru).

MEANING: One feels blissful when his running around for Maya is over. Such a person realizes this fact (and attains blissfulness) with the grace of the Guru, and he becomes worry-free. Those who have prewritten their fate are connected to Guru Govind(u) (Waheguru). They get connected without any special effort on their part, and realize the source of supreme bliss (Waheguru), oh Nanak. 25.

Word Meaning: Bhaana = Will. Oor Dhaar(i) = enshrine in heart. Aithaiy = here; in this world. Othaiy = there; in the next world. Munniun(i) = are recognized. Vapaar(i) = business. Sinjaapday = recognized. Sacha = Waheguru's Naam. Pirm = Dear. Bukhshay = blessed. Ruttay = imbued. Dhunvunt = wealthy. Nirdhun = poor; pauper.

MEANING: Those who deal in Waheguru's Naam serve their Satguru by pondering on His Shabad (and leading their life based on that). They gladly obey the Will of Satguru and enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their heart. They find respect in this world and the next. They are recognized (honoured) in the Court of Waheguru because of Satguru's Shabad in their mind. With love for the Dear (Waheguru), they deal in the eternal Naam of Waheguru, and spend it (share it with others). Because they are blessed by Waheguru, they become immortal, and the Angel of Death does not even go near them. Only the ones who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam are wealthy; the rest of the world is (spiritually) poor, oh Nanak. 26.

Word Meaning: Tayk = support. Tthuvur = shelter. Tthaaoun = room; support. Sehjay = easily. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. Smaaoun = stay absorbed. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Dhoorr(i) = dust of the feet.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the support for His devotees; without Waheguru's Naam, there is no shelter and no support (in the realm of spirituality). Waheguru's Naam takes dwelling in the devotee's heart with the Advice of the Guru, and he easily gets absorbed in the high blissful (spiritual) state. The highly fortunate recite Waheguru's Naam and are in love with Him day and night. I long for the dust of the feet of such devotees, and am always a sacrifice for them. 27.

Vudbhaageen Satgur(u) paaya, boojhiya Brahmam bichaar(u). Tishna ugun(i) subh boojh(i) guyyi, jun Nanak Hur(i) oordhaar(i). 28.

Word Meaning: lakh Chauraaseh = 8.4 million. Maydni = world. Tishna Julti = burning in the fire of worldly desires. Pusriya = spread out. Shaant(i) = peace of mind.

MEANING: All the 8.4 million life forms in the world suffer in the fire of desires (wishes), and pray for their fulfilment. The love for Maya has spread everywhere (to everybody), but no worldly thing accompanies the individuals after death. One gets peace only in the shelter of Waheguru; who else is there to pray to? The highly fortunate realize the importance of the Guru by reflecting on Waheguru (by reciting His Naam with the Guru's Shabad) and by connecting with the Guru (who connects them with Waheguru). All the fire of worldly desires is put out when one acquires Waheguru's Naam in his heart, oh Nanak. 28.

Jinha hur(i), Hur(i) Naam(u) dhiyaaya, jun Nanak, tinhjaiykaar(u). 29.

Word Meaning: Khutay Kmaavnday = make mistakes; blunders. Paaravaar = endless. Goonehgaar(u) = guilty; sinner. Laykhay = account of deeds. Tootthaiy = pleased to be kind. Kilvikh = sins. Vikaar = vices. Jaiykaar(u) = acclaim; sing praise.

MEANING: I am a big sinner and a culprit as I commit countless blunders. Kindly forgive me with Your benevolence, oh Waheguru. Based on my account of my deeds, I have no chance to connect with You, but You are kind and forgive sinners (to connect with You), oh Lord. With His kindness, the pleased Guru destroys all the sins and the vices of the devotees, and connects them with Waheguru. I am their slave and sing praise of all those who recite Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 29.

Vichhurr(i), vichhurr(i) jo milay, Satgur kaiy bhaiy bhaayay. Junum, mern nihchul bhuyyay, Gurmukh(i) Naam(u) dhiyaayay. Gur Sadhu sungut(i) milaiy, heeray ruttan lubhun(i). Nanak, Laal(u) amoalka, Gurmukh(i) khoaj(i) lehun(i). 30.

Word Meaning: Vichhurr(i) = separating; disconnecting. Bhaiy Baayay = love-filled fear. Nihchul = stabilize; come to end. Heeray Ruttan = diamond-and- jewels-like good qualities. Amoalka = priceless. Khoaj(i) = by searching. Lehun(i) = acquire.

MEANING: Even if they were earlier disconnected from Waheguru, the birth-and-death cycle of those who get connected with Him (Waheguru) for their love and fear for Satguru, and when they recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, is terminated. One acquires the noble qualities in the company of the Guru, which are like finding diamonds and jewels. Waheguru's Naam is that ruby which is priceless, and which the devotees acquire by searching for it in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 30.

Satgur savun(i) aapna, huoun sud bulihaari taas(u). Nanak, tinh mukh oojlay, jinh untar(i) Naam(u) pergaas(u). 31.

Word Meaning: Chaytiyo = remembered; recited. Dhig(u) = reprehensible. Vaas(u) = dwelling. Goontaas(u) = treasure of noble qualities (Waheguru). Bhaydiyo = pierced; hit mentally. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Dohaagni = condemned by the Husband (God). Mooyiaas(u) = dies. Munie = the shine of good fortune. Kumul Pergaas(u) = enlightened heart. Taas(u) = (for) them.

MEANING: The life and the living of the followers of their minds (Maya-engrossed individuals) are reprehensible as they never recite Waheguru's Naam, and are disconnected from Him. They do not embed Waheguru in their minds, which is the treasure of all noble qualities and is the provider of all food and clothes. Their minds are never pierced with Guru's Shabad; so how can they enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their hearts? The individuals, disconnected with Waheguru, are like a woman who has been condemned by her husband (and never enjoys His love). After death, they keep taking births and dying. For the devotees of the Guru, Waheguru's Naam is their husband (Lord), and their good fortune is written on their foreheads. They enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their heart, and the lotus of their enlightened hearts stays bloomed. I am a sacrifice for those who serve their Satguru. The faces of those shine (with inner beauty) who have their hearts enlightened with the Naam, oh Nanak. 31.

Word Meaning: muraiy = mind dies towards worldly attractions. Sijhaiy = succedds. Kerm = rituals. Vigootay = suffer humiliation. Perj = public. Loachaiy = yearns for.

MEANING: The individual, who has killed his worldly desires with the Guru's Shabad, achieves success in emancipation. No one can be salvaged without the Guru's Shabad. For their love of Maya, the people wear various religious outfits and perform many rituals, but they suffer humiliation (in Waheguru's Court). No one can acquire Waheguru's Naam without Satguru, even if he longs for it greatly, oh Nanak. 32.

Word Meaning: Oochi Hoon Oocha = higher than the highest. Uppurr(i) = have access. Sunjum = control on senses. Bhaykh = religious garb. Paurri = ladder. Kerm(i) = grace. Praaput(i) = acquirement. Soyay = praise; reputation.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is extremely high (in transcendence), and is higher than the highest where no one has access to, even if they yearn for it a hundred times. One's mind cannot be purified by simply saying (preaching) the words of self-control, even if everybody roams around in religious garbs. One can reach Waheguru using the Guru as the ladder, which can be acquired only by the grace of Waheguru (Waheguru Himself connects one with the Guru). One enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart by pondering over the Guru's Shabad. One's mind is convinced only when he kills his worldly desires with Guru's Shabad (which never fails him because). Singing Waheguru's praise with dedication is sure to connect one with the Guru, oh Nanak. 33.

Jo Dhoor(i) likhiya su kmaavna, kerna kuchhoo na jaayay. Gurmutee Giyan(u) ruttan mun(i) vussaiy, subh daykhiya Braham soobhaayay. Nanak, Satgur bohithaiy, vudbhaagi churraiy, tay bhuoujul(i) paar(i) lunghaayay. 34.

Word Meaning: Bikh Dootur = the sea of poisonous Maya, which is impossible to cross. Puch(i) = burn (in the fire of desires). Vihaavay = life is spent. Oorvaar(u) = the near side. Paar(u) = the far side. Udh vich(i) = in the middle. Soobhaayay = with love. Bohithaiy = on the ship. Bhuoujul(i) = the world sea.

MEANING: Love for wealth is an ocean (huge source) of troubles because the poisonous sea of Maya is very, very difficult to swim across (to find emancipation). Man's life is spent in selfishness and ego when he tries to have control over everything. The Maya-engrossed people neither stay on the near side of the sea of Maya (not fully engrossed in Maya) nor reach the other end (find emancipation); they stay suspended in the middle. But one cannot do anything to change his behaviour (love for Maya) because one pursues only those things for which he is predestined to do. However, the jewel of Divine Knowledge (Waheguru's Naam) takes dwelling in one's heart only with the Advice of the Guru; and with his love for Waheguru, he sees Him everywhere. Satguru is the ship that ferries devotees across the world-sea, but only the fortunate get to board it, oh Nanak. 34.

Word Meaning: Daata = donor; provider. Adhaar(u) = support. Tishna = (fire of) desires. Tipt(i) = contented.

MEANING: There is none other than Satguru who can impart Waheguru Naam in a devotee's heart as his spiritual support. With the grace of the Guru, Waheguru's Naam takes dwelling in the devotee's heart, and stays there forever. With the recitation of Waheguru's Naam with love and devotion, one's fire of worldly desires is quenched. With Waheguru's grace, one acquires His Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 35.

Word Meaning: Burliya = insane. Oobray = salvaged. Bunut Bunaayay = creation.

MEANING: The world becomes insane without Guru's Shabad, and there is nothing that can be said (done) about it. Those who meditate on Waheguru's Naam are protected by Waheguru (against the attacks of Maya) and get salvaged. But Waheguru, who has created the whole world, knows its workings. 36.

Word Meaning: Hoam = huvun (burning fire in a ritualistic way). Jug = free food to the Brahmans with some rituals. Puraan = Puranas. Bikh(u) = poison. Mityee = erased. Aavun Jaan(u) = rebirths. Purakh(u) Soojaan(u) = the omniscient Waheguru.

MEANING: The Brahmans have exhausted performing all rituals of huvuns and yugs, and reading the Puranas to the people, but all such deeds cannot rid the people of their attachment with the poisonous Maya, and they keep taking births, and dying due to their haumein (selfishness and ego). But when people recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, the filth of their haumein is washed away. I am a sacrifice for those who serve Waheguru (obey His Will and recite His Naam). 37.

Word Meaning: Moh(u) = attachment. Chitvday = think about; make plans. Aasa = hopes; wishes. Vikaar = vices. Usthir = stabilize. Binus(i) Jaayay = are destroyed. Khin Vaar = every moment. Tujaiy = give up; get rid of.

MEANING: Due to their attachment to Maya, most people make plans and build hopes of accumulating it, but their greed leads them into vices. The minds of the Maya-engrossed people do not become stable (are not contented), and they suffer spiritual death frequently. The fortunate get connected with Satguru (take His shelter) and get rid of their vices of selfishness and ego. They enjoy bliss by reciting Waheguru's Naam and by pondering on Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 38.

Bin(u) Sartgur bhugut(i) na hovyee, Naam(i) na luggaiy piyaar(u). Jun Nanak Naam(u) araadhiya, Gur kaiy hayt(i) piyaar(i). 39.

MEANING: One cannot love Waheguru and worship Him without Satguru. A devotee recites Waheguru's Naam with affection for the Guru, oh Nanak. 39.

Word Meaning: Vaysaah(u) = trust. Paar Vusaayay = as far as possible. Dhoohaiy = deceives. Huth(u) Na Paayay = finds no support. Sayti = with. Sung(u) = company. Daag(u) = stain. Mul(u) = filth.

MEANING: Do not trust a greedy person as far as possible because, in the end, he deceives you, leaving you no support to escape. If one becomes friends with a Maya-engrossed person, he is bound to get dark stains (of disgrace) on his face. The greedy have dark faces (of disrepute) and leave the world, wasting their precious human lives. One should pray to Waheguru to put him in the company of the holy saints only to enshrine His Naam(u) in his heart. One's filth of many lives is washed away by singing Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 40.

Word Meaning: Dhoor(i) = right from the source. Jeeou = soul. Pind(u) = body. Pritpaal(I) = to raise and nurture. Choogal = backbiter; tattler Ninduk = vilifier. Paakhund = hypocrisy. Rool(i) Mooyay = are humiliated to death. Kerm = rituals. Kupt = deceit. Khuloa =stands out; appears.

MEANING: One's soul and his body belong to Waheguru (they are given by Him), and the Royal Waheguru raises and nourishes him, and whatever has Waheguru written in the fate of the individual, cannot be erased by him by any means. The tattles and the vilifiers are humiliated to death for their appetite for worldly comforts, and they find no support to feel contented. The hypocrites perform all outward rituals (to show off their religiosity), but plan deceit at heart. Whatever seeds they sow in the field of their mind, they show (grow) at the end. It is my supplication to Waheguru that He willingly (with His grace) connects me with Him, oh Nanak. 41.

Word Meaning: Aavun Jaan(u) = taking birth and dying. Soojhyee = understanding. Pulaytiya = coated with. Ugiyaan = ignorance. Goobaar(u) = darkness. Tub = then. Dund(u) Lugga = hit with a cane (is punished). Keraan Oopur(i) = on fingers; from memory. Chaytiya = remembered. Kootumb = Pervaar = family; associates.

MEANING: The man does not reflect on the cause of his repeated births and deaths, nor does he realize the Court (justice system) of Waheguru. With his mind coated in attachment to Maya, he is completely enveloped in the darkness of ignorance. He wakes from his slumber when he is severely punished (for his evil deeds). The devotees of the Guru have Waheguru's Naam on their fingertips, and they reach the door of emancipation (attain it). Not only do they find salvation for themselves, but they also free their associates, oh Nanak. 42.

Word Meaning: Jaapaiy = seems. Rus(i) = sweet tasting. Dhuraapaiy = is contented. Sinjaapaiy = is recognized. Kerta = Creator (Waheguru).
MEANING: Those devotees who kill their worldly desires with the Guru's Shabad visibly look dead in terms of worldly affairs (show no interest in them). With the grace of the Guru, they get fully contented with the sweetness of the Shabad (Waheguru's Naam), and are recognized in Waheguru's Court because of the Naam in their heart. Everybody is spiritually dead without the Guru's Shabad. The Maya-engrossed individual dies spiritually and wastes away his precious human life. He does not recite Waheguru's Naam, and has to cry (repent) at the end. But only that happens that the Creator, Waheguru, does (wishes), oh Nanak. 43.

Word Meaning: Kuday Naahi = never. Soort(i) Giyan(u) = wisdom and enlightenment. Ruvveh(i) = recite. Sehj = blissfulness. Bibayk = spiritual wisdom to make a distinction. Smaan(i) = equal; the same. Aatum Ram(u) = Waheguru. Puchhaan(u) = recognition.
MEANING: The Sikhs of the Guru, who have spiritual wisdom and enlightened minds, never become old in spirituality. They always sing praise of Waheguru's qualities (recite His Naam) with a focused mind, and stay blissful. With spiritual wisdom to make a distinction between good and bad, they accept the comforts and discomforts the same way, and always stay blissful. They see only Waheguru everywhere and recognize Him in everything. 44.

Word Meaning: Birdh(i) = elderly. Soort(i) = awareness. Huchhay Nirmulay = noble and holy. Soobhaayay = with love. Putung(u) Na = not even a little. Jootth(i) = impurity. Mayliun(u) = connect. Unk(i) = in the heart (Shabad).
MEANING: The Maya-engrossed individuals are ignorant whether they are young or old, and have no spiritual awareness. All their deeds are rooted in their selfishness and their ego, and all of them are presented before the Angel of justice (to be punished). With love for the Guru's Shabad, the Sikhs are noble and holy. Those who lead their life according to the Advice of the Guru attract no filth of vices at all. (On the other hand) The impurity of the minds of the Maya-engrossed individual never comes off, even if they wash their bodies thousands of times. Absorbed in the Guru's Shabad, the Sikhs of the Guru connect with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 45.

Word Meaning: Boora Kuray = evil deeds. Sijhaiy = successful. Roh(i) = in the anger. Dujhaiy = burns; suffers. Kumla = unwise. Rugrraiy = fights. Loojhaiy = squabbles; altercates. Soojhaiy = understands.

MEANING: What kind of success is that when a man does evil deeds? Actually, he burns in the fire of his own rage. A Maya-engrossed person is unwise who fights and argues for the sake of wealth only. (On the other hand), A Sikh of the Guru understands everything, and he struggles only with his mind (to control its demands), oh Nanak. 46.

Word Meaning: Purakh(u) = manifestation of Waheguru. Maanus Joon(i) = human form. Pushoo = cattle. Dhor = animals. Gavaar = unrefined; foolish. Siyoun = with. Vikaar Meh(i) = in worthless affairs. Jugjeevun = soul of the world (Waheguru). Oor Dhaar(i) = enshrine in the heart. Sohnay = dignified. Tit(u) = that.

MEANING: Those who do not serve Satguru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru, and do not ponder on His Shabad, do not deserve to be called humans; they are foolish, and are more like cattle and animals. They have no love for Waheguru, and do not focus on His Naam, and have no enlightenment. The Maya-engrossed individuals die spiritually in worthless affairs; they die, and take rebirths again, and again. Those who join the company of the spiritually alive (enlightened) people also get enlightened as they enshrine Waheguru (His Naam) in their hearts. Guru's Sikhs look dignified (are honoured) in the Court of the eternal Waheguru, oh Nanak. 47.

Word Meaning: Harmandir = dwelling of Waheguru (human heart and/or holy gathering). Saajiya = created. Vussaiy = resides. Perjaal(i) = by burning completely. Vust(u) Anayk = countless (invaluable) things; noble qualities. Nuvnidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures Dhun(u) = great. Bhugvuntee = fortunate. Ludha = found out; realized. Bhaal(i) = by searching. Gurrh = fort.

MEANING: The human body, which Waheguru makes His dwelling, becomes a temple where He is worshipped. But only that devotee who embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart and follows the Guru's Teachings and completely burns away his attachment with Maya. There are countless noble qualities (Waheguru's Naam, which is like the nine treasures) in such a human temple where His Naam is preserved respectfully. Those are great and highly fortunate who realize Waheguru in their heart in the shelter of the Guru. Those people are fortunate who search for Waheguru in the fort of their body and realize Him. 48.

Word Meaning: Deh Dis(i) = in all the ten directions. Tishna = fire of desires. Vikaar = vices; immoral desires. Chookyee = ends. Vaaro Vaar = again, and again. Ut(i) = extreme. Tuj(i) = by giving up.
MEANING: The Maya-engrossed people (followers of their mind) have no limit to their greed and immoral desires, and roam around in all the ten directions to satisfy their desires. Their attachment to Maya does not go away, and they die, and take births again, and again. One attains comfort and bliss when he gives up his big desires for wealth and other vices by serving Satguru (following His Advice, and enshrining His Shabad in their heart). The suffering of their rebirths vanishes when they ponder the Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 49.

Word Meaning: Paaveh(i) Maan(u) = earn respect. Kilvikh = sins. Goomaan = ego. Kumul = lotus (of heart). Vigsiya = blooms. Aatum Braham = God.
MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam to be honoured in Waheguru's Court, oh my mind. All one's sins and his ego are eradicated by reciting Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and the devotee recognizes Waheguru everywhere, and the lotus of his heart stays bloomed. Please, be benevolent so that Your devotee, Nanak, may recite Your Naam, oh Waheguru. 50.

Tinh vitoun vaariya bhaayi, tinh kuou sud bulihaaraiy jaaoun. 51.

Word Meaning: Dhanaasary = a Raag. Dhunvuntee = wealthy; great. Kaar Kmaayay = perform deeds; leads life. Saunpay = surrenders. Huqam(i) Phiraaou = change of mind with the Huqam(u). Baiysaaveh(i) = orders to sit. Bhayjeh(i) = sends. Aivud = as great. Sung(i) = with; in the company. Pehnun(u) = dress; clothes. Put(i) = respect. Saad(u) = taste. Kerm(i) = with the benevolence. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love for Maya. Dhoyee = shelter. Dhooray = with God's grace. Vitoun = for.

MEANING: Raag Dhanasari is great if a devotee performs deeds as per the Advice of the Guru (sings Waheguru's praise with the Guru's Shabad written in this Raag). With Satguru's grace, he experiences a change in his mind (which turns from attraction with Maya to love for Waheguru), and such a devotee offers his body, mind, and soul to the Guru, and obeys His Huqam gladly. Such a devotee sits where the Guru tells him to sit, and goes where the Guru sends him. There is no other wealth as great as Waheguru's Naam. I, too, sing praise of Waheguru all the time, and stay connected with Him, oh my brothers.

Acquiring noble qualities is the clothes (covering which protects his honour) for the devotee, and he enjoys the sweet taste of his honour that he receives (in Waheguru's Court). I cannot praise such a devotee enough; I am simply a sacrifice for him to have his sight. Satguru has great qualities which one can acquire with His grace. Yet, there are some who do not know how to obey Satguru's Huqam, and roam around (spend their life) in the love for Maya. Such people find no support or shelter in the gathering of holy saints (they do not enjoy themselves there). Only those individuals who obey Satguru's Huqam have acquired Waheguru's Naam with His benevolence. I am always a sacrifice for such devotees, oh my brothers. 51.

Word Meaning: Daahrriyaan = beards. Sachiyaan = respectable. Anund(i) = in a blissful state. Say = those. Sachaiy Dur(i) = God's court. Disun(i) = are distinguished.

NOTE: People used to grow full beards to look religious and noble.

MEANING: Only those people with full beards are respectable who drop on Guru's feet (act on His Advice). Such devotees always serve their Guru (obey His Huqam) and remain blessed at all times. Such people have a beautiful mind and are recognized in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 52.

Word Meaning: Kmaah(i) = use in dealings. Vussiya = embedded. Maah(i) = in. Raaseen = capital (of honest dealings). Ootum Pudvee = high spiritual state.

MEANING: Such devotees and their beards are respectable who are always truthful. They recite the Naam of the eternal Waheguru, tell the truth, and have honest dealings. With the Guru's eternal Shabad embedded in their mind, they stay absorbed in Satguru (His Shabad). With honest dealings, they earn the wealth of Waheguru's eternal Naam and attain the supreme spiritual state. They listen only to Waheguru's praise, have firm faith in Him, and engage in honest dealings. They remain absorbed in the eternal Waheguru and are given room (honoured) in His court. One cannot connect with Waheguru without the shelter of Satguru; the Maya-engrossed individuals spend their lives misled, oh Nanak. 53.

Word Meaning: Babeeha = therainbird; a devotee who longs for the Naam-Amrit. Julnidh(i) = source of water; ocean; source of Naam-Amrit (Satguru). Seetul Jul = source of cool (peace-causing) water (Naam-Amrit). Nivaarunhaar(u) = remover; destroyer. Tis = fire of desires. Chookaiy = ends. Sehj(u) = blissfulness. Oopjaiy = comes into being. Kook Pookaar = loud cries for help. Shaant(i) = peaceful; contented. Oor(i) Dhaar(i) = enshrine in heart.

MEANING: A devotee of Waheguru remembers the source of Waheguru's Naam (Satguru), and gives Him calls with love and affection like a rainbird which longs for the first drop of rain. He acquires the Naam-Amrit, which makes him peaceful (blessed) when he meets with the Guru, who is the destroyer of all suffering. (On meeting with the Guru) The fire of all the worldly desires of the devotee is put out; he attains the high spiritual state, and all his cries for help go away. The Sikh of the Guru feels blessed when he acquires Waheguru's Naam in his heart, oh Nanak. 54.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Chuou = Alaayay = say; recite. Liv Laayay = with deep concentration. Thaayayn Puvaiy = well recognized. Gurmukh(i) Hoyay = taking Guru's shelter. Cheen(i) = by recognizing; acting on. Tikh = thirst (for worldly attractions). Rujaayay = Will; Huqam. Chaaray Koondaan = all the four directions. Jhoak(i) = by coming down (close by). Versda = rains. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = with love and in the high spiritual state.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam by fully focusing your mind on Him, oh the rainbird-like devotee. Your recitation of the Naam in the shelter of the Guru (with His Shabad) is fully rewarded (by Waheguru). All your thirst for worldly attractions will go away when you recognize Guru's Shabad (act on it) and when you obey His Will. Like a cloud which causes rain by coming close to the earth, the Guru is causing rain of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit in every direction, but only those who love Him in their peaceful state of mind receive the drop of the Naam-Amrit. Like water is the root of all life, and one's thirst does not go away without water, (Waheguru's Naam Amrit) is the root of all spirituality; those who take the Naam-Amrit, never experience thirst (appetite) for the worldly attractions, oh Nanak. 56.

Word Meaning: Aap(u) Puchhaaneh(i) = self-realization. Preetum(u) = the Dear one (Waheguru). Voottha = rains (Amrit). Chhehbur Laayay = continuous light rain for a few days. Jhim(i) Jhim(i) = slowly. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Soul. Sohaagni = married to (have union with) Waheguru. Smaayay = by getting absorbed. 56.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam with Guru's eternal Shabad with love and in the peaceful state of mind, oh, the waterbird-like devotee. Satguru has shown you that you can acquire anything you want (with Waheguru's Naam). When a person recognizes himself (who he is and the purpose of his life), he connects with his Dear (Guru or Waheguru) when Satguru continuously rains the Naam-Amrit on his mind. The Naam-Amrit rains softly as a result of which all appetite for one's worldly desires goes away. All his cries for help come to an end, and his soul merges with the Supreme Soul. Such devotees, who enjoy union with Waheguru, spend their life in bliss and stay absorbed in the eternal Naam, oh Nanak. 56.

Word Meaning: Dhurhoun = from the source itself. Khusm(i) = Lord; Waheguru. Inder = rain. Versaiy = drops (v). Goohrri = dense; long. Tut(u) = the real thing (Waheguru's Naam-Amrit). Boond = drop. Sobha Paayay = earns praise (for its beauty in nature). Undin(u) = everyday; always. Bukhsh(i) = forgives. Rujaayay = His Will. Kaamni = oh, women (human brides). Sheengaar(u) = adornment. Chhuudaayay = emancipates.

MEANING: Just like clouds which cause rain for a long time with Waheguru's Huqam resulting in high production of grains and wealth, and by which the earth is adorned with the lush green vegetation washed clean with the rainwater, Waheguru also sends the Guru in the world to cause rain of His Naam-Amrit. The rainbird-like devotees enjoy the comfort of body and mind when they take in the drops of Naam-Amrit.

The devotees worship Waheguru continuously while remaining absorbed in the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru, Himself, forgives all their sins with His benevolence and with His Will. The man should sing Waheguru's praise by staying absorbed in the eternal Shabad of the Guru. Rather than adorning one's body with expensive clothes and ornaments, he should adorn his mind with fear for Waheguru in the peaceful mind, (and stay connected with Him with Guru's Shabad). When one enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart, he is emancipated in His Court, oh Nanak. 57.

Word Meaning: Ood(i) Churreh(i) = fly to reach. Jul(u) = water (Naam-Amrit). Chookaiy = ends. Piyaas = thirst (of desires). Jeeou = soul; life. Pind(u) = body. Paas(i) = with; in possession. Vin(u) = without. Vertda = operates. Pergaas = enlightenment.

MEANING: (Your thirst for worldly attractions will not go away) even if you wander over the whole earth and (have very high hopes to) reach the sky; one gets the Naam-Amrit only in the shelter of the Guru when all one's thirst and appetite for worldly attractions go away, oh, the waterbird-like man. The human soul and his body belong to Waheguru (are given by Him), and He is the Lord of everything. He knows your needs without you telling Him, so who should one pray to? Waheguru alone operates in every heart, and enlightens it with Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 58.

Word Meaning: Basunt(u) = spring; blooming of heart. Voottha = take dwelling. Pephurraiy = blooms. Huriyaavul(u) = greenery; coming to life; becomes very attractive.
MEANING: Their hearts enjoy bloom (are blissful) who serve Satguru and stay absorbed in His Shabad, oh Nanak. Waheguru takes dwelling in their heart, and their minds and bodies bloom with blissfulness; it is always the spring season for them, and the whole world seems very attractive to them. 59.

Word Meaning: Veesraiy = forget. Siriya = created.
MEANING: Like the vegetation in spring comes back to life, the devotee always feels blissful with Satguru's Shabad in mind, and his body and mind bloom (are energized). They do not forget Waheguru's Naam, which has created everybody, oh Nanak. 60.

ਨਾਨਕ ਤਿਨਾ ਬਸੰਤੁ ਹੈ ਜਿਨਾ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਵਸਿਆ ਮਨਿ ਸੋਇ॥ ਹਰਿ ਵੁਠੈ ਮਨੁ ਤਨੁ ਪਰਫੜੈ ਸਭੁ ਜਗੁ ਹਰਿਆ ਹੋਇ॥61॥

Vudrraiy jhaal(i), jhuloombhlay, naavrra luyiyaiy kis(u). Naaoun luyiyaiy Permayshuraiy, bhunnun ghurrun sumruth(u). 62.
Word Meaning: Vudrraiy Jhall(i) Jhuloomblay = very early in the morning. Naavrra = holy naam. Bhunnun = break; destroy. Ghurrun = create. Sumruth(u) = capable.
MEANING: Whose naam should one recite in the early hours of the morning (before even dawn)? Answer: One should only recite the Naam of Waheguru which is fully capable of destroying and creating everything. 62.

(PAGE 1421): Nudr(i) kureh(i) jay Aapni, ta Aapay laiyh(i) suvaar(i). Nanak, Gurmukh(i) jinhi dhiyaaya, aayay say pervaan(u). 63.

Word Meaning: Herhut = irrigation well powered by oxen (domesticated animals); Artisan well. Toon = You (God). Bhulee = good; soothing. Baan(i) = Bani; Guru's Shabad. Hudoor(i) = nearby. Oopayay = by creating. Rung(u) = drama. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Sacha = ever true. Fikka = impolite; hurt-causing. Kaar = objective (of life). Vun(u) = forest. Trin(u) = vegetation. Tirbhuvun = the three-layered universe. Vihaan = is spent. Thuckay = exhausted. Suvaar(i) = adorn (with noble qualities).
MEANING: To a devotee of Waheguru, even the chain carrying the water-vessels of the irrigation well makes noise which sounds like "You", "You" (Waheguru), and it feels as if it is reciting the soothing Shabad of the Guru. But it does not realize that the Lord is always very close by, and it does not need to make a loud noise for Him to hear. I am a sacrifice for Waheguru, who has created the drama of the world. The evergreen truth is that to get connected with Waheguru, one needs to give up one's selfishness and ego. But because of my selfishness and ego, I am impolite to others, hurt their feelings, and cannot realize the objective of my life. Even the forest, the vegetation, and the whole universe remembers Waheguru, but I spend my everyday without remembering Him. People have exhausted thinking about means to have union with God, but no one can merge into Him without the grace of the Guru. Waheguru Himself, adorns the devotee (with noble qualities) (and connects him with Him) on whom He casts His kind Sight. The devotees, who remember Waheguru (recite His Naam) in the shelter of the Guru, are approved in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 63.

Word Meaning: Joag(u) = union with God. Bhungveen Kupprreen = colour (saffron) brown) of the outfit of yogis. Maiylay Vays(i) = dirty (unattractive) garb or looks (yogis coat their bodies with ash to look unattractive to women. Oopdaysh(i) = teachings.
MEANING: One cannot achieve union with Waheguru simply by wearing saffron clothes, nor can one achieve union by coating his body with ash. One achieves union with Him in one's own heart only with the Teachings of Satguru, oh Nanak. 64.

Word Meaning: Chaaray Koondaan = all the four directions. Bhuveh(i) = roam around. Saacha = the eternal (Waheguru). Bhaytaiy = connect with. Moakh = emancipation.
MEANING: (One cannot attain emancipation) by wandering all over the earth, or by reading the Vedas for all the four eons. One reaches the door of (attains) emancipation only when he enshrines Waheguru Naam in his heart in the shelter of Satguru, oh Nanak. 65.

ਨਾਨਕ ਹੁਕਮੁ ਵਰਤੈ ਖਸਮ ਕਾ ਮਤਿ ਭਵੀ ਫਿਰਹਿ ਚਲਚਿਤ॥ ਮਨਮੁਖ ਸਉ ਕਰਿ ਦੋਸਤੀ ਸੁਖ ਕਿ ਪੁਛਹਿ ਮਿਤ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਉ ਕਰਿ ਦੋਸਤੀ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਸਉ ਲਾਇ ਚਿਤੁ॥ ਜੰਮਣ ਮਰਣ ਕਾ ਮੂਲ ਕਟੀਐ ਤਾ ਸੁਖੁ ਹੋਵੀ ਮਿਤ॥ 66॥

Nanak, Huqam(u) vertaiy Khusm ka, mut(i) bhuvvi, phireh(i) chulchit. Munmukh suou kur(i) dosti, sookh k(i) poochheh(i) mit. Gurmukh(i) suou kur(i) dosti, Satgur suou laayay chit(u). Jummun mern ka mool kuttiyaiy ta sookh(u) hovee mit. 66.

Word Meaning: Khusm = Lord (Waheguru). Mut(i) Bhuvvi = thinking away from God (towards Maya). Chulchit = fickle mind. Suou = with. Sookh = wellbeing. K(i) = what (kind of). Mit = friend. Mool = root; basis.

MEANING: When one befriends a Maya-engrossed person, what kind of wellbeing does he expect from his friend? When a man makes friends with a devotee of the Guru, he, too, gets attached to the Guru. However, it is with the Huqam of Waheguru that an individual's thinking turns away (from Waheguru) and towards Maya, and he wanders about with his fickle mind. One attains peace of mind only when he kills his desires for worldly attractions, which are the root of one's rebirths, oh Nanak. 66.

Bhoolliyaan Aap(i) sumjhaayaysi, ja kuou nudr(i) kureh(i). Nanak, nudreen baahri, kern pulaav kuray. 67.

Word Meaning: Bhoolliyaan = misled. Aap(i) = Himself (Waheguru). Baahri = devoid of. Kern Pulaav = cries for help.

MEANING: Waheguru Himself enlightens the misled people with His benevolence. Those who are devoid of His kind Sight only cry much for help, oh Nanak. 67.

Word Meaning: Wah(u) = great! amazing! Purakh(u) = manifestation of Waheguru. Jaata = realized; got connected with. Tikh = thirst (of worldly attractions). Sumut(u) = equal; same = Tool(i). Nirvaiyr = bears no enmity. Ninda = vilification; slander. Oostut(i) = praise; extolling. Soojaan(u) = noble; know-all. Paaravaar(u) = limits. Dirrayay = reinforces. Praaput(i) = acquirement.

MEANING: A manifestation of Waheguru; the Satguru is great and amazing, having realized (always connected with) Waheguru. All one's desire for worldly things goes away, and his body and mind become peaceful on meeting with the Guru (coming to His shelter). The Satguru is great for whom everybody is equal; He bears no enmity with anyone, and He is indifferent to His vilification and His praise. The great Satguru is a noble man who is enlightened with the Divine Knowledge. The Satguru is great as He is a manifestation of the formless and the endless Waheguru. The Satguru is great because He reinforces Waheguru's Naam among His devotees. Satguru is great, it is amazing because one acquires Waheguru's Naam from Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sohila = song of bliss. Slaahna = to praise. Poorun = complete; perfect. Permanund = supreme bliss; Waheguru. Bhung(u) = separation; breakage.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is an eternal source of bliss, and one enjoys blissfulness when he sings Waheguru's praise and recites His Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Those are fortunate who acquire Waheguru in their heart, which is the perfect source of bliss. I, as a devotee of Waheguru, sing His praise because of which I will not suffer any physical and mental separation from Him, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Moon(i) = me. Piriya = beloved; Waheguru. Sujjun = noble friend. Dhoondhayndi = looking for. Suvaariya = groomed; adorned with noble qualities. Maiynda = my; mine. Vaariya = sacrifice; offer. Sirjunhaariya = the Creator. Bhaaleen = search for.

MEANING: I love my dear Waheguru, but do not know how to get connected with Him. I am looking for those devotees who have been adorned with noble qualities by my friend, Waheguru (and who are connected to Him). Satguru is my friend (God-like, who can connect me with Waheguru); I will surrender my mind to Him if I meet Him. He will guide me on how to connect with my dear Waheguru, the creator of the universe. The Satguru has shown me my dear Waheguru, whom I was looking for in my own heart, oh Nanak. 4.

Word Meaning: Khurri = standing; very attentively. Nihaaleen = watch. Pundh(u) = path. Mut(u) = maybe; perhaps. Moon(u) = mine. Ujj(u) = today; in this life. Pir(u) = beloved. Chuoukhunniyaiy = cut into four (many) pieces.

MEANING: I am watching the path of my Dear (Waheguru) very carefully, hoping that He might come. I am very eager to see Him; can someone connect me (with the Guru) so that He may connect me with Waheguru. I will cut my body into many pieces (an expression of respect) for the holy person who will connect me with my Dear. When Waheguru is kind to me, He will connect me with the Guru, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Joar(u) = strength; conceit. Koorreen = deeds rooted in Maya and selfishness. Aavaiy Jaayay = takes birth and dies. Foormaaya = Huqam; Advice. Dootur = which (the world sea) which is impossible to swim across. Bhaayay = by the Will. Suful(u) = causing success. Ichhaiy = wishes for.

MEANING: The Maya-engrossed man has conceit of his wealth in mind and performs deeds with his might, which are rooted in his selfishness and ego; because of his selfish deeds, he keeps taking births and dying. He does not follow the Advice of the Guru, and cannot swim across the non-swimmable sea of Maya on his own. Those who are fortunate to have Waheguru's kind Sight on them follow Satguru's Advice. The Sight of Satguru (surrendering to Him) makes one's life (spiritually) successful, and he gets any (and all) of his desires fulfilled. I touch the feet of (show deep reverence for) the individuals who follow the Advice of Satguru. I am a slave of those who remain focused on Waheguru's Naam at all times, oh Nanak. 6.

MEANING: The faces of those always shine in Waheguru's Court (due to the purity of their mind, and they are honoured there) who have entrenched the treasure of Waheguru's Naam in their heart by pondering over Gurbani. Those who have been blessed by Waheguru Himself never forget His Naam, whether they are standing (working) or sitting (relaxing). The Sikhs of the Guru, who have been connected to Waheguru through His benevolence, never become disconnected from Him again, oh Nanak. 15.

Mun chindiya ful(u) paayaysi, untar(i) bibayk beechaar(u). Nanak, Satgur miliyain Prubh paayiyaiy, subh(u) dookh nivaarunhaar(u). 16.

Word Meaning: Chaakri = service to; following their advice. Ker-rri = difficult. Saar(u) = supreme. Hayt = love. Bhuoujul = the world sea. Chindiya = wished. Bibayk Beechaar(u) = the wisdom to differentiate. Nivaarunhaar(u) = remover; destroyer.

MEANING: It is extremely difficult to serve (follow the advice of) the Guru or the spiritual leaders, but such service is the source of supreme bliss. But only those who love to serve the Guru whom Waheguru is benevolent to. One swims across the world-sea by serving Satguru. With the ability to distinguish between the good and the bad – which comes with the service to the Guru – one reaps his wished rewards. One connects with Waheguru, the destroyer of all suffering, in the shelter of Satguru, oh Nanak. 16.

Word Meaning: Munmukh = follower of his own mind; Maya-engrossed. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in love with the other (Maya). Chit(u) = mind. Klut(u) = wife. Kootumb(u) = family. Dookhdaayi = causing suffering. Vichhurr(i) = go away.
MEANING: The ritualistic idol-worship by a Maya-engrossed individual is in the interest of his son, his wife, and his family, which further strengthens his attachment to Maya. But none of his relatives can free him from the punishment he is bound to receive in Waheguru's Court when the account of his deeds is examined. It is all suffering without Waheguru's Naam, and the love for Maya is a source of suffering. But when the Sikhs of the Guru "see" Waheguru (are enlightened), they overcome their attachment for Maya, oh Nanak. 17.

Word Meaning: Sheh Kayra = of the Lord. Araadhay = worship. Sumaiy Smaayay = gets absorbed. Vert(u) = commitment (like fasting). Naym(u) = principle. Sooch = outward cleanliness. Sunjum(u) = control on senses. Sohaagun(i) = enjoys union with Waheguru. Liv Laayay = with full concentration.
MEANING: The Sikh of the Guru obeys Waheguru's Huqam and enjoys bliss. He serves only the Huqam (he obeys Waheguru's Will), remembers Him, and stays absorbed in the Huqam (Waheguru). For him, Waheguru's Huqam encompasses all his commitments, his principles, his external cleanliness, and the control over his senses (he does not need any of those); he also reaps his desired rewards. The human bride, who understands Waheguru's Huqam and serves Satguru with full devotion, always enjoys union with God. With His Huqam, Waheguru connects those with Him whom He is benevolent to, oh Nanak. 18.

Nanak, perpunch(u) keeya Dhoor(i) Kertaiy, poorub(i) likhiya kmaayay. 19.
Word Meaning: Boojhay = understand. Buppurri = poor; unwise. Paakhund(i) = hypocrisy. Bherm(u) = misgiving. Koosoodh = impure. Baydhay = pierced; attached deeply. Hustee = elephant. Chhaar(u) = dust. Oodaayay = splatters. Oopaayay = created. Perpunch(u) = creation. Poorub(i) Likhiya = result of deeds of previous life.
MEANING: The unwise Maya-engrossed human-bride does not understand Waheguru's Huqam (Will) and performs rituals which are rooted in her selfishness and ego. All her rituals, like religious commitments, principles, external cleanliness, control of senses, and idol worship, are all hypocritical, and she cannot get rid of her misgivings. Deeply engrossed in Maya, such people are internally impure, and all their "holy" deeds are like the bath of an elephant, which spatters dust after the bath. They do not remember the Creator, so how can they enjoy blissfulness without remembering Him? But (they cannot be blamed entirely) because right from the beginning, the Creator has created the world in such a way that everybody performs deeds which are based on their prewritten fate (which is based on their deeds of previous lives), oh Nanak. 19.

Word Meaning: Perteet = faith; trust. Mun Maniya = fully convinced. Perm Beechaari = who has the supreme spiritual knowledge (fully enlightened). Tishna = fire of desires.

MEANING: The mind of the Sikh of the Guru is convinced (by His Advice), and he brings full faith in the Guru, and stays absorbed in serving Him (following His Advice). All the Sikhs of Satguru worship Him in their mind and go to Him to have His Sight. Everybody should revere (venerate) Satguru, who is fully enlightened, and in whose shelter all one's worldly desires and his appetite for Maya go away. I am always a sacrifice for my Guru, who connects one with Waheguru. Those who drop at the feet of the Guru (seek His shelter) acquire Waheguru (get connected with Him with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 20.

Word Meaning: Ikk Mun(i) = Ikk Chit(i) = with full dedication. Nirdoakh(u) = fault-free. Suvvaiy Smaayay = stay absorbed. Sehj(i) = in a peaceful state of mind.

MEANING: All the suffering, the appetite for worldly attractions, and the serious disease of selfishness and ego of those who remember Satguru with a fully focused mind and with devotion, disappear, and they become completely fault-free. They sing Waheguru's praise for His noble qualities, and stay absorbed in them (acquire His noble qualities). One acquires Waheguru in his high spiritual state in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 22.

Word Meaning: Koorr(u) = falsehood; short-lived. Sunghraiy = accumulates. Aahaar(u) = meal. Bikh(u) = poison. Chhaar(u) = dust. Kerm Dherm = religious rituals. Vikaar = vices. Thaayayn Na Puvvaiy = is given no credit. Khooaar(u) = suffers humiliation.

MEANING: The individual who is disconnected from Waheguru becomes attached to Maya and does not love Waheguru's Naam. He earns wealth which is short-lived, accumulates it, and it is his food too (has an appetite for more wealth. He dies while accumulating the poisonous wealth, all of which becomes dust for him at his death. He may perform many religious rituals, maintain cleanliness, and try to control his senses, but he harbours greed and other immoral thoughts. Whatever rituals a Maya-engrossed man performs, they earn him no credit in Waheguru's Court, and he suffers humiliation there, oh Nanak. 23.

Word Meaning: Bhulaa = good; enables to succeed. Naad = music; lyrics. Sach(u) = eternal (Waheguru). Baahra = beyond; outside of. Inhi = (with) these. Raas(i) = suitable; successful. Rujaayay = Will.

MEANING: (There is no particular raag for singing Waheguru's praise) the best of all the raags is the one with which Waheguru takes dwelling in the devotee's heart. Waheguru's praise is the best raag and shabad, and it is priceless. Waheguru's praise is beyond any raag or shabad, which do not enable one to realize Waheguru's Huqam. One realizes Waheguru's Huqam in the shelter of Satguru and achieves success in getting connected with Him. Everything comes into being with Waheguru's Will, oh Nanak. 24.

Word Meaning: Kuhaayay = make others say (recite). Nirmul = pure; holy. Tut(u) = the root; Waheguru. Kumul = lotus flower. Pergaasiya = enlightened; blooms.

MEANING: Satguru is the source of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, which He recites Himself, and makes others recite it. One's mind is purified with the Advice of the Guru, and he recites the Naam with a pure mind. Satguru's immortalizing Bani is (in praise) of Waheguru, and it gets enshrined in the devotee's mind in the shelter of the Guru. (With the Gurbani) The devotee's heart-lotus blooms, and his soul merges into the Supreme Soul. Waheguru connects only those devotees with Satguru who have good fortune written on their foreheads by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 25.

Word Meaning: Luptaayay = clings to. Chintwaiy = in worries. Chookyee = ends.

MEANING: The Maya-engrossed individual has the fire of worldly desires in him, and his appetite for Maya never goes away. Love for the family is short-lived, and he keeps clinging to the short-lived things. He is always worried about such things and gripped in worries; he leaves the world. All his deeds are rooted in his haumein, as a result of which his birth-death cycle never breaks. One is emancipated and salvaged in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak.26

Word Meaning: Bhaayay = in the love (of Satguru). Saynvday = serve. Bhuoujul(u) = the world sea. Bohith = ship; boat. Bhaana = Will. Dhoorr(i) = feet of dust (holy words). Gut(i) Paah(i) = attain high spiritual state. Kunkur = assistants. Bidaariun(u) = (the Guru) destroyed. Shaabaash = acclamation. Toottha = pleased to be kind.

MEANING: A manifestation of Waheguru, Satguru, recites Waheguru's Naam in the holy gathering, which loves Satguru. The devotees serve Satguru in the holy gathering, whom Waheguru connects with Satguru. This world is a sea of Maya in which Satguru is the ship to ferry the devotees across (get them emancipated). The Sikhs of the Guru obey His Huqam, and the Perfect Guru ferries them across the world-sea. I beg for the dust of such Sikhs (opportunity to serve them) from Waheguru so that even sinners like me may find salvation, oh Nanak.

With the fate prewritten on my forehead by Waheguru, the Guru has connected me with Him, oh Nanak. Satguru has destroyed (all my evil qualities, and therefore) all the assistants of the Angel of death as well. Satguru has emancipated me in Waheguru's Court. My accolades to the Sikhs of the Guru by whose grace Waheguru becomes pleased to be kind, and connects His devotees with Him. 27.

Word Meaning: Drirraaya = reinforced. Keerut(i) = praise. Mug(u) = (true) path. Aik = the "One" (Waheguru). Joh(i) = cast an evil eye. Vertaiy = operates. Khin = moment.

MEANING: The Perfect Guru has reinforced Waheguru's Naam in my mind because of which all my misgivings have vanished. The Guru recites Waheguru's Naam and sings His praise to enlighten our minds and to show us the true path of life. With Guru's Advice, my selfishness and ego have been destroyed; my mind is fully focused on Waheguru, and His Naam has been enshrined in my heart (mind). With Guru's Advice, I am fully absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, and now the Angel of Death cannot cast an evil eye on me. It is Waheguru, which operates everywhere, and it is He who prompts the individuals of His liking to recite His Naam. I survive only by reciting His Naam, and I experience instant spiritual death without the Naam, oh Nanak. 28.

Word Meaning: Kusaayi = attracted. Rutti = imbued. Cholay = enjoys (bliss). Toalay = searched. Doalay = weakens; wavers. Anut Na Kaahoo = for anything else. Gool Goalay = slave of slaves.

MEANING: Waheguru's devotees recite His Naam with the Advice of the Guru. Attracted by their love for Waheguru, they are imbued with His love and enjoy bliss. I have searched the whole world and have not found anyone like Waheguru. My Satguru has reinforced Waheguru's Naam in my mind, and now it shows no weakness (attraction) toward anything else. I am a slave of Waheguru, and a slave of slaves of Satguru, oh Nanak. 30

Word Meaning: Jhurr(i) Jhurr(i) = crumble (like a sandcastle). Kutchay = immature; weak. Birhee = lover. Kaar(i) = prove useful.

MEANING: Only those are truly imbued in Waheguru's Naam who get connected with Waheguru, and do not turn their faces away from Him (do not refuse to accept His Will). Those are weak-minded lovers (devotees) of Waheguru whom this approach does not suit; they crumble like a sand castle in their resolve. 1.

ਧਣੀ ਵਿਹੂਣਾ ਪਾਟ ਪਟੰਬਰ ਭਾਹੀ ਸੇਤੀ ਜਾਲੇ॥ ਧੂੜੀ ਵਿਚਿ ਲੁਡੰਦੜੀ ਸੋਹਾ ਨਾਨਕ ਤੈ ਸਹ ਨਾਲੇ॥ 2॥

Dhunee-vihoona paat putumbur bhaahi sayti jaalay. Dhoorri vich(i) loodundrri sohaan Nanak Taiyn Sheh naalay. 2.

Word Meaning: Dhunee = Lord; Waheguru. Vihoona = devoid of. Paat = clothes. Putumbur = silky clothes. Bhaahi = fire. Sayti = with. Loodundrri = roll while lying down (with joy). Sohaan = look attractive; feel blissful.

MEANING: I shall burn the silky clothes because of which I may forget my Lord. I will feel blissful when I am connected with my Waheguru, even if I have to lie down and roll in dust, oh Nanak. 2.

ਗੁਰ ਕੈ ਸਬਦਿ ਅਰਾਧੀਐ ਨਾਮਿ ਰੰਗਿ ਬੈਰਾਗੁ॥ ਜੀਤੇ ਪੰਚ ਬੈਰਾਈਆ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਫਲ ਮਾਰੂ ਇਹੁ ਰਾਗੁ॥3॥

Gur kaiy Shabad(i) araadhiyaiy, Naam(i) rung(i) baiyraag(u). Jeetay punch baiyraayiyaan, Nanak, suful maaroo eh(u) raag(u). 3.

Word Meaning: Rung(i) = imued in love. Baiyraag(u) = detachment with Maya. Punch Baiyraayiyaan = the five vices (demons). Suful = resulting in success. Maaru = killer.

MEANING: Imbued in His love, one should recite Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad as a result of which, one gets fully detached from worldly attractions. This Raag (recitation of Waheguru's Naam) is the most effective medication which kills all one's vices, and by which one conquers the five demons, oh Nanak. 3.

ਜਾ ਮੂੰ ਇਕੁ ਤ ਲਖ ਤਉ ਜਿਤੀ ਪਿਨਣੇ ਦਰਿ ਕਿਤੜੇ॥ ਬਾਮਣੁ ਬਿਰਥਾ ਗਇਓ ਜਨੰਮੁ ਜਿਨਿ ਕੀਤੇ ਸੋ ਵਿਸਰੇ॥ 4॥

Ja moon Ikk(u), ta lakh tuou jiti pinn-nay Dur(i) kitrray. Brahman, birtha guyyo junum(u), Jinh(i) keetay so visray. 4.

Word Meaning: Ja = when. Lakh = millions. Pinn-nay = beggars. Birtha = useless.

MEANING: When You are with me, I feel as if I have millions of friends, oh Waheguru. All the countless people whom You have created are beggars at Your door. You have wasted away your precious human life by forgetting Waheguru, who has created you, oh Brahman (conceited of your high caste). 4.
