Ek Onkar Sat Naam(i) Kerta Purakh(u) Nirbhuou(u) Nirvair(u) Akal Moorut(i) Ajooni Saibhun(g) Gur Persaad(i).

Word Meaning: Chaupuday = Shabads with four stanzas. Doopuday = Shabads with two stanzas

There is only one Supreme Being (living power), which has eternal existence, is the creator, and is pervading the whole universe. (Because He has no rival and is above all the laws of nature and the effects of Maya), He is fearless and bears no enmity (is perfectly just). Time has no effect on Him, and he is self-illuminated. He can be realized only by the grace of the Guru (Guru is a manifestation of Waheguru).

Word Meaning: Bhuou = (respectful) fear (of Waheguru). Mooch(u) = huge. Toal(u) = weight; effect, power. Hauli = light, low quality. Boal(u) = talk (about self). Sir(i) Dhur(i) = put into the head. Suhiyaiy = endure. Nudri Kermi = (with) the kind sight. 1.

Lunghus(i) Paar(i) = swim to the other end. Bhaayay = love; affection. Svaar(i) adorned; enhanced. Ruhaou = Pause. Ugun(i) = fire; energy; enthusiasm. Bhukhaiy = gets heated up; energized. Ghurriyaiy = designed (beautifully). Ghaarrut = moulding; design. Kuch(u) Nikuch = weak; pliable. Sucha = mould. Sutt = beat (with hammer). 2. Boodhi = wisdom. Baaji = playful; unstable. Sehs = thousands. Taao = heat; enthusiasm. Vaao = air; worthless. Ukkhur = talk. Dooaao = prayer. 3.1.

MEANING:

Respectful fear of Waheguru in mind is huge and very heavy in weight (lends great strength to mind), but the wisdom of mind is very weak and thinks very low (does not realize the importance of Waheguru's fear). If one bears Waheguru's fear in mind and leads his life under the fear, he ponders on Guru's Shabad with the kind sight of Waheguru (makes a connection with the Guru). 1.

Nobody can swim across the sea of Maya without Waheguru's fear in mind, and Waheguru's fear is enhanced (strengthened) with the love for Him. Pause.

The fire (enthusiasm) in the mind heats up (gains strength) further with Waheguru's fear in mind. With Waheguru's fear and Guru's Shabad, one's mind is moulded beautifully (becomes strong with virtues). Without Waheguru's fear, the moulding of mind is weak (it changes quickly) because the mould is blind (has no strength or provides no clear direction), and so is the hammering (wisdom). 2.

(Without Waheguru's fear) man's wisdom is playful under the influence of his ego, and he thinks of sensual enjoyments only; even thousands of his crafty plans do not generate any enthusiasm or love (for Waheguru). All the talk of a Maya-engrossed man is worthless, oh Nanak. Even his prayer is worthless because his words are blind (ineffective due to Maya's influence). 3.1.

NOTE: The number 3.1. Implies that this holy Shabad has 3 stanzas, and this is the first Shabad of this set.

Jis ka koyay koyee, koyay, koyay. Subh(u) ko Tayra, Tu subhna ka soyay. Ja kay jea junt dhun(u) maal(u). Nanak aakhun(u) bikhum(u) beechaar(u). 4.2.

Word Meaning: Dur(i) = having fear (faith in God). Ghur(u) = home; heart. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Dur(u) = worldly fears; worries. Kayha = what kind? Jaayay = place; shelter. Vertaiy = operates; happens. Rujaayay = Will. 1. Keeya = Created. Kuraiy = looks after. Aagaiy Paachhaiy = everywhere. Smaayay = is working. 2. Huns(u) = cruelty; viciousness. Hayt(u) = attachment. Aasa = hopes. Asmaan(u) = ego. Bhookh = appetite (for desires). Naiy = river. Saan(u) = like. Aadhaar(u) = basis. Gvaar = uncivilized (lacking all spirituality). 3. Koyay, Koyay = rare; very few. Junt = living beings. Maal (u) = wealth. Bikhum(u) = very difficult. 4.2.

NOTE: How a change in the vowels changes the meaning of the same word.

MEANING: If a man's mind operates under Waheguru's fear, and has fear of Waheguru in mind, he overcomes all the worldly fears (worries). What kind of fear (of anybody other than Waheguru) is that by which one still suffers from worldly affairs? Such fear is useless. There is no place (where one can escape to) other than Waheguru, and everything is happening as per His Will. (So, if we have His fear in mind, things will seem to be very different, as all the worldly fears are gone). 1.
If one has other (worldly) fears in mind, he is bound to be afraid. However, the worldly fears are only the constructs of the mind. Pause.
The man has no control over whether he dies (spiritually), or whether he drowns in the sea of Maya or swims across it. The Waheguru, who has created the world, controls it. The man comes to this world by His Huqam, and leaves this world by His Huqam. His Huqam is working everywhere. 2. (Without Waheguru's fear), man has a strong appetite for burning desires (like a flood in a river), which result in cruelty, worldly attachments, hopes, and ego. Waheguru's fear can save the man from such undesirable qualities. So, just as we live on eating and drinking, if a man lives on Waheguru's fear as the basis of his life, he can enjoy blissfulness. Without experiencing Waheguru's fear, man experiences spiritual death, and is like a totally uncivilized man. 3. People have the support of very few friends and relatives in life, but Waheguru is the support for everybody and for all the living beings; all wealth and everything else belongs to Him (are given by Him). However, to describe Waheguru and His largesse is extremely difficult, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Gaurri Mehla 1: Maata mut(i) pita suntokh. Sat(u) bhaayee kur(i) eho visaykh(u). 1. Kehna haiy, kichh(u) kehn(u) na jaayay. Tuou koodrut(i) keemut(i) nuhi paayay. 1. Ruhaou.
(PAGE 152): Sherm(u) soorut(i) dooyay susoor bhuyay. Kerni kaamun(i) kur(i) mun luyay. 2. Saaha sunjog(u) viaahou vijoag. Sach(u) suntut(i) kuhou Nanak joag(u). 3.3.
Word Meaning: Mut(i) = (Guru's) wisdom. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Sat(u) = high morals; service to mankind. Visaykh(u) = special. 1. Sherm = control on sensual desires; hard work. Soort(i) = concentration of mind. Susoor = in-laws. Kerni = (noble) deeds. Kaamun(i) = woman; wife. 2.
Saaha = the date and time (for wedding). Sunjog(u) = union (with Waheguru). Vijoag(u) = separation; dissociation. Suntut(i) = offspring. Joag(u) = union. 3.3.
MEANING: I wish to say something about the magnanimity of Waheguru, but am unable to say anything because Waheguru's greatness and His largesse cannot be evaluated in any way. Pause. (However, we can connect with Him) If we make noble wisdom (of Satguru) as our mother (who guides us) and treat contentment as our father (just as we obey our father, we obey contentment, and never have any greed). We also need to make noble qualities like high moral character, our special brothers. 1. (According to societal expectations, women show respect and give special treatment to their in-laws) So, like the in-laws, if we pay special attention to hard work (strict self-discipline to obey Waheguru's Will), and a higher level of concentration (to ponder on Waheguru's multi-faceted kindness), and perform good deeds in life, we will connect with Waheguru. 2.
With these virtues, the time for union with Waheguru is fixed, which automatically disconnects us from worldly attractions, and an eternal relationship is born out of this union. 3.3.

na mooa, mayri mooyee blaayay. Oh(u) na mooa jo ruhiya smaayay. Kuhou Nanak Gur(i) Braham dikhaaya. Merta jaata nudr(i) na aaya. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Mayl(u) = combination. Chunchal(u) = fickle; unsettling. Chupal = cunning; crafty. Dusvaan Dooaar(u) = hidden tenth door (for spirituality). Boojh(u) = find out. 1. Kuthta = Bukta = explains; talks about. Aap(u) beechaaray = self-analysis. Pause. Paun = Guru's Shabad. Mooa = dead. Soorut(i) = awareness. Baad(u) = discussions to boost self-ego. Daykhunhaar(u) = the one who is watching. 2. Jaiy = for which. Tut(i) = banks of rivers. Ruttan Pdaruth = Waheguru's priceless Naam. Bheetur(i) = inside (the heart). Vust(u) = article (Naam). 3.
Houn = me; I. Blaayay = evil vices. Smaayay. = pervading. 4.4.

MEANING: A person who analyzes himself (as to what his origin is, and what the purpose of life is) becomes spiritually knowledgeable (Giyani). He then realizes that it is Waheguru, who is present in everybody, and it is He who talks, explains, and listens to (the prayers of the living beings). Pause. He also realizes that the human body comes into being by the combination of air, water, and fire (energy), in which the fickle and crafty wisdom plays its games. The body has nine visible doors and a hidden door called the "tenth door," which represents the spiritual state in which the mind becomes one with Waheguru. 1.
When an individual is connected with Satguru, all his desires, selfishness, and ego are eradicated, and only the (perishable) earthen-body is left with Guru's Shabad guiding it. The Giyani knows what has died in the body. He realizes that only the bad thinking and worthless debates, which further boost the ego of man, have died, but the Soul of Waheguru, present in the human body, has not died. 2. He further realizes that Waheguru's priceless Naam, for which people go to river banks and holy places, is actually present in the human heart. The pundits read the holy books and get into worthless debates (hoping to realize Waheguru), but they don't recognize that Waheguru is present in their own hearts (and that such debates are spiritually worthless). 3.
The Giyani also realizes that it is not the soul (a part of Waheguru that pervades everywhere) that dies; it is the evil vices that die. The Satguru "showed" me Waheguru, whom you never see dying, oh Nanak. 4.

Gaurri Mehla 1, Dukhni: Soon(i) soon(i) boojhaiy maanaiy Naoun. Taa kaiy sud bulihaaraiy jaaoun. Aap(i) bhoolaayay, tthaur(u) na tthaoun. Tu sumjhaaveh(i) mayl(i) milaaou. 1. Word Meaning: Dukhni = southerner (a subcategory of the Raag). Boojhaiy = comprehend. Sud = always. Bulihaaray = offer life (self). Tthaur(u) = shelter. Thaaoun = room. 1. Mein Naal(i) = accompanies me. Baandhi = in the grip of. Kaal(i) = death. Pause.

Khayti = farming. Vunuj = business. Oat = support. Paap(u) = sins. Poonn(u) = noble deeds. Beej Kee Poat = bag of seed. Jea = soul. Choat = hurt. Visaar(i) = forgetting. Khoat = treachery; dishonesty. 2.
Seekh = Advice. Seetul(u) = calm; peaceful. Preekh = evaluate; test. Jul Pooraayin = a clover-leaf-like plant which survives only in water. Eekh = sugarcane. 3.
Sunjogi = union (as per the Will of Waheguru). Gurrh(i) Dus Dooaar = fort with ten doors = human body; strong human mind. Punch = holy men. Jot(i) Apaar = Waheguru's light. Toolaiy = weighs; evaluates. Vunjaar = trader (in virtues). 4.
MEANING: I am glad to offer my life to those who listen to Waheguru's Naam and then comprehend it (get connected with Him). But those who are misled by Waheguru Himself find no shelter or room in the spiritual world. However, those who are guided by Waheguru are connected with the Guru, who in turn connects the devotees with Waheguru. 1.
Waheguru's Naam is one's real companion that accompanies him all the way to Waheguru. But all those without Waheguru's Naam are destined for spiritual death. Pause. It does not matter how one earns their living – by farming or doing some business – all are approved by Waheguru as long as they are done with honesty and with Waheguru's Naam in mind. But, ignoring Waheguru's Naam, the rituals people perform based on the belief that they are either noble or evil simply become a bag of seeds for their future life (which will also be full of lust and rage). Ignoring Waheguru's Naam, such people leave this world with a dishonest mind. 2. The True Guru imparts True advice. Those who evaluate and act on that have peace in their body and mind, and their minds bloom just like the way the jul-pooraayin and the lotus flower thrive in water. Those who are imbued in the Guru's Shabad are sweet like the juice of sugarcane. 3.
With Waheguru's Huqam of predestined union, the holy men (supreme devotees) are always connected with Waheguru, and live in the ten-door body, which they have fortified like a fort which cannot be attacked by any vile desire. Residing in the hearts of living beings, Waheguru Himself is the businessman and also the evaluator of their deeds. Waheguru's Naam adorns (purifies) the mind, oh Nanak! 4.5.

milaiy poorub sunjog. Sach(i) rehsay pooray Hur(i) loag. Mun(u) tun(u) day laiy sehj(i) soobhaayay. Nanak tin kaiy laagoun paayay. 5.6.

Word Meaning: Jaato Jaayay = (how to) find out. Baandhiyo = tied up; engrossed in desires (enjoyments). Abinaashi = immortal. Sehj = spiritual state above Maya. 1.

Nurhur = Waheguru. Nihkaam(u) = without any desires. Pause.

Sehjay = without any effort or warning. Oopjaiy = originates. Smaayay = get absorbed; disappears. Mookto = free from the bonds of desires. 2.

Turvur = tree. Punkhi = bird. Nis(i) = night. Vinaas(u) = destruction. Saanjh = evening. Bihaag = sunlight; morning. Dhaaveh(i) = fly away quickly. 3.

Naam Sunjogi = connected with Naam. Goyil(i) thaat = temporary setup. Phootaiy = breaks. Bikh(u) maat(u) = pot of poison. Vukkhur = merchandise. Soono = empty. Haat(u) = store. Bujur = rocky. Kupaat = doors. 4.

Sadh(u) = Guru. Poorub sunjog = predestined union. Rehsay = blissful. 5.

NOTE: A goyil is a grassy meadow along the river where people used to take their cattle for grazing when there was no food on their home farms due to drought or other factors. This was a short-term arrangement. Guru Sahib compares man's visit to the world to a goyil, which is a temporary shelter.

MEANING: An individual who has Waheguru's life-sustaining Naam in his heart and on his tongue becomes desireless like Waheguru. Pause.

How can we find where the desires (lust) come from, i.e., what their origin is, and where they get lost at the end? How man gets trapped by desires, and how he can attain and maintain the eternal spiritual state above the effects of Maya. 1.

(Answer): Lust originates naturally without any warning signs and goes away the same way. It originates in the mind and eventually disappears there (with spiritual advancement). The devotee of the Guru is free from such evil desires and does not become their prisoner. The devotee becomes free of desires when he recites Waheguru's Naam by pondering on the Guru's Shabad (and acting on it). 2.

Like the countless birds that take shelter in the trees at night and leave them for the sky in the morning (the man is also a short-time visitor in this world). Some of them enjoy comfort, while others face troubles. They suffer spiritual destruction (death) because of their attachment to Maya. As their luck (based on their deeds of previous life) dictates, they rush in every direction as time demands. 3.

Those who are connected with Waheguru's Naam think of their visit to the world as in a goyil. For them, the poisonous pot of lust and rage breaks into pieces. Without Waheguru's Naam, the heart is empty, like a store without any merchandise. But when they meet the Guru, He opens the rock-hard doors of their minds (enlightens their minds). 4. Individuals get connected with the Guru because they are predestined to do so based on their previous deeds. They are completely devoted to Waheguru, and being connected with Him, they are always blissful. They offer their bodies and minds to Waheguru and, in turn, attain a spiritual state above Maya through their love for Waheguru. (Guru) Nanak wishes to touch their feet. 5.6.

Word Meaning: Cheet(u) = mind. Vikaar = evil deeds (or thoughts). Jaagaiy = is awake; sharp. Hit = for. Poonji = wealth. Tur(u) = a crude boat. Taari = boat. Soocheet = purifier of mind 1. Vaah(u) = praiseworthy. Tayk = support. Houn = I; me. Nirmul(u) = pure. Pause. Ugun(i) = fire; hot. Paani = water; cool. Bhurrvaao = foul words. Indari = senses. Sooaao = taste; character. Disht(i) = vision. Vikaari = evil. Bhaao = love; affection. Aap(u) Maaray = kill self(ishness). 2.

Mern(u) = (spiritual) death. Poora = complete; perfect. Purpunch(i) = made up of the five basic ingredients (world). Viyaap(i) = busy in. Doyay = duality (indecisiveness) of mind. Thir(u) = stable; eternal. 3.

Bohith = ship (to cross the sea of Maya). Tthaakay = restrained; prevented. Durgeh = Waheguru's Court. Maar = punishment. Dhunn = worthy of respect. 4.

MEANING: My mind is always occupied by the thoughts of lust, rage and Maya; and is sharp in lies and evil thoughts, oh my Waheguru. I have accumulated the wealth of sins and greed. (How can I swim across the sea of Maya with all these ignoble traits)? However, if I get Your Naam in my heart with Your benevolence, I can swim across the sea because Your Naam, which purifies the mind, will serve as a boat for me. 1.

You are great! You are great, oh Waheguru! I am a sinner, while You are pure and the purifier of mind (of sinners like me). Pause. I get fired up sometimes and become cool at other times; as a result, I use foul language. My tongue and all my other senses are busy satisfying their individual tastes. My vision is evil, and I have no fear or love for You. But, You Naam can be realized only if I kill my selfishness. 2.

If a man kills his desires with Guru's Shabad, he will not have the fear of death anymore, but he will not be perfect without killing his desires. The mind, that is engrossed in worldly affairs, is always in doubt (has misbeliefs), and wanders around. It can become stable only with Waheguru's kindness. 3.

I can jump onto the Guru-ship to cross the ocean of Maya whenever it is my turn (when He is kind to me), but if I am prevented from getting on the ship, I will be punished in Waheguru's Court (because of my bad qualities). Guru's door (shelter) is supreme. It is only in Guru's shelter that I can worship Waheguru. You can connect with Waheguru only at Guru's door, oh Nanak. 4.7.

Word Meaning: Ooltiyo = turned upside down. Kumal(u) = lotus (heart). Dhaar = stream. Guggan(i) = sky; brain. Dus Dooaar(i) = tenth door (spiritual state of high awareness). Tirbhuvun(u) = three-layered universe. Bhaydhiya = pierced; stitched to. Moorar(i) = Waheguru. 1. Bherm(u) = misgivings. Maaniyaiy = acknowledge; have faith. Pause. Junum jeet(i) = Winning over life (having achieved the objective of human life. Aap(i) = self. Ghur(u) = home; heart. Jaaniya = recognized; realized. 2. Jut(u) = celibacy. Sat(u) = high morals. Mujun(u) = bathe (in holy waters). Adhik = more. Bithaar(u) = expansion. Kis(u) Kaam(i) = for what? Nur Narayan = Waheguru. Untarjaam(i) = omniscient. 3.
Aan = someone else. Jaachoun = wish for. Sehj(i) = spiritual state of bliss. 4.

MEANING: Do not have any misgivings (about Waheguru), oh my mind. When you have faith in Him, you will enjoy the taste of His life-sustaining Naam. Pause.
When I pondered on Waheguru (recited His Naam with full faith) my mind turned around (away from Maya and towards Waheguru), and a thin stream of Naam-Amrit began to drop onto my brain converting it into the Tenth door (the spiritual state of enlightenment and bliss), and I realized that the whole universe is stitched to Him i.e. Waheguru is omnipresent. 1.
(On attaining this spiritual state), I have achieved the objective of human life, and all the worldly desires (and selfishness) are dead from my mind now, and my mind has realized its real objective. With the kind sight of Waheguru, my heart has realized its real home (Waheguru). 2.
Waheguru's Naam is everything for me now, and as a result, all my senses are under my control. I have acquired noble qualities, and I do not need any pilgrimage; in fact, any show of such rituals is worthless now. Waheguru is omniscient, and He is not impressed with such a show of rituals. 3. If I bring faith to someone else, I am knocking at some stranger's door. There is no other place which I can wish for. I can attain the state of bliss with Guru's advice, oh Nanak. 4.8.

Nanak haumein maar(i) milaaya. 4.9.

Word Meaning: Mern(u) = death (from Maya). Rus(u) =essence; sweet taste. Bhaayay = is liked. Gerb(u) = ego. Guggan Pur = city in the sky (union with Waheguru). 1. Doobhidha = duality; misgivings. Kumul Bigaas(i) = blooming of the heart. 2. Sunjum(i) = control on senses. Soocha = clean (no evil attribute). Moocha= over; ended. 3. Unk(i) = heart. Smaaya = merged into. Mehl = Waheguru's residence. 4.
MEANING: Everybody has to die (this is the law of Waheguru), and nobody stays here forever. However, by reciting Waheguru's Naam, one can find eternal life (become immortal) in the Guru's shelter. Pause. If one can connect with Satguru, He "shows" the death of desires (attachments to Maya) (and makes one realize this death). One enjoys the bliss of life after such death. He overcomes his ego and becomes one with Waheguru. 1. When one is connected with Satguru, the duality of his mind is (all his misgivings are) dispelled, and his mind is attached with Waheguru, and the lotus of his heart blooms. Thus, even though he leads his normal life, his mind is dead as far as Maya is concerned, and he experiences the great bliss of such a life. 2. When one is connected with Satguru, he acquires Truth (realizes God), has control over his senses, and is clean (pious). With the ladder of Guru's Shabad, he rises higher and higher (in spirituality). But such a spiritual state can be attained only by the Guru's grace, and the fear of death for the individual ends. 3. On connecting with Him, the Guru eradicates the ego of the individual, and "shows" him Waheguru's Residence (connects him with Waheguru) and the individual becomes a part of Waheguru's body (merges into Him), oh Nanak. 4.9.

Word Meaning: Kirt(u) = past deeds. Maytaiy = erase; obliterate. Aagaiy = in future. Bhaana = liked. Uver(u) = other. 1. Kerm(u) = deeds. Kayvud = how big. Daat(i) = largesse. Dherm = expected good behaviour. Jaat(i) = production. Ruhaou. Toat(i) = shortage. Bhundaar = treasure. Gerb(u) = conceit. Raas(i) = suitable. 2. Bukhsh(i) = forgive. Bhaavi = as per (Your) liking. Daana Beena = donor and know-all. Sir(i) Mayraiy = I am under Your care. Bhrosaiy = faith. 3. Tun = body. Maiyl(u) = filth of evil thoughts. Raata = imbued. Puchhata = recognized; realized. Taan(u) = force; power. Vudiyaayee = greatness. 4.
MEANING: Nobody can obliterate the effects of the past deeds (with his own efforts). I have no idea what will happen in my future life. Only that will happen which Waheguru likes; no one else can influence the future. 1.

I am not proud of my past deeds, (but You are very kind, and disregarding our evil deeds, You bestow unlimited gifts on us), and I am nobody to evaluate Your blessings on me, oh my kind Waheguru! Your Naam is the origin (source) of all noble deeds and the expected moral behaviour. (But my objective is Your Naam, and not the noble deeds and morality). Pause. You are a great provider, and there is never a shortage of the gift of worship in Your treasures, oh Waheguru! Someone's ego (of his deeds, or of his religiosity) does not help him because you have the account of the soul and the body of everyone (their thoughts and deeds). 2.
You can forgive anyone, kill his worldly desires, give him a new life and then connect him with Yourself. You can make him recite Your Naam as You please. You are the provider, and You know everything about me; (I have no worries because) I am under Your great care, oh Waheguru. You guide me through the Guru, and I lead my life with full faith in You (I am dependent on You). 3.
Now, my mind is fully imbued in Your love, and my body has no filth (of ignoble deeds). I have realized the Truth (Waheguru) through the Guru's Word, the Guru's Shabad. You are the source of my energy, and Your Naam is my praise (source of my honour). I live in the shelter of Waheguru's worship, oh Nanak. 4.10.

Word Meaning: Akuth(u) = indescribable (Waheguru). Apiyo = which is not easily accessible for drinking (Naam-Amrit). Un = others. Visraiy = forgotten. Smaaya = got absorbed into. 1. Der(u) = worldly fears (worries). Dereh(i) = in the fear of Waheguru. Pause.
Raas(i) = wealth. Sehj Soobhaayay = in the blissful spiritual state. Shaabaash(i) = praise. Svaaraiy = svaalaiy = puts to sleep. Sanjh = evening. Biyaal = early morning. It oot = here and there (everywhere). Kaal = death. 3.
Ehinis(i) = day and night. Pooray = complete; perfect. Bherm = misgivings. 4.

MEANING: Once one realizes (gets connected with Waheguru) through the Perfect Guru's Shabad, he is not afraid of anything else because all the worldly fears (worries) are soaked (destroyed) by his faith in Waheguru. Pause. Whosoever recites Waheguru's Naam (drinks the Naam-Amrit) himself, and inspires others to do the same, is fully absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, and all his worldly fears (worries) are eradicated. 1. A man who has Waheguru's Naam in his heart and has made it his wealth attains the spiritual state of blissfulness and wins Waheguru's praise with his love for Him. 2. On the other hand, if Waheguru puts an individual into sleep day and night (makes him unaware of Waheguru because of his indulgence in Maya), he becomes a prisoner of (spiritual) death everywhere. 3.

Word Meaning: Traiy Goon = the accepted effects of Maya – state of low awareness (misgivings, confusion, low self-esteem); state of average awareness (less confusion, average self-esteem); and state of higher awareness (individual is more knowledgeable, has higher self-esteem). However, these states are not permanent for an individual; they keep changing with circumstances. Hitkaar = in love with. Aakaar(u) = characteristics. Avustha = situation. Vukhiyaan = explain. Toori Avustha = spiritual state above the three effects of Maya. It is also called the Fourth State. 1.

Ram = Waheguru. Turna = swim across the sea of Maya. Bahoorr(i) = again. Pause. Chaar Pdaruth = wealth; high morality; wishes (success); and salvation. Simrit Shast = Hindu granths. Urth(u) = meaning; objective. Mookut(i) Pdaruth = salvation. 2. Soyee = that (Waheguru). Praaput(i) = acquirement. Permanund = supreme bliss (union with Waheguru). 3.

Aasa = hopes; desires. Niraasa = above the worldly desires. Boojhaaya = explained; illustrated. Deena Nath(u) = Lord of the powerless (weak). Raata = imbued. 4.

MEANING: From birth to death, the man leads his life in love with (under the influence of) the three effects of Maya, the characteristics of which are explained by all four Vedas as they explain the three situations of influence of Maya. The Fourth State (above the effects of Maya) is explained by Satguru only, which is attained by connecting with God. 1. One swims across the sea of Maya by worshipping Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, after which one never gets into the birth-death-birth cycle. Pause. Everybody, including the Simritis, the Shastras and the pundits (learned persons), talks about the four special (desired) objects – wealth, high morality, wishes (success), and salvation – but, without the Guru, one does not understand the real meaning and the objective of life. (The Guru explains) that salvation can be achieved only by worshipping Waheguru. 2.

Waheguru's worship can be acquired only by taking shelter of the Guru when Waheguru starts to dwell in the heart of the devotee. Waheguru's worship frees the individual from the bonds of Maya, and the devotee experiences a state of bliss. With Guru's advice, one enjoys supreme bliss (union with Waheguru). 3.

The Guru, who is "one" with Waheguru and has "seen" Him, "shows" Waheguru to the devotees too and shows them how to lead a desire-free life in a world where everyone has many wishes (while living in a family). Waheguru is the Lord of all the humble and powerless, and is the source of all comfort. My mind is imbued with love for His feet (for His Naam), oh Nanak. 4.12.

NOTE: The number: 6.1.13. implies that this holy Shabad has 6 stanzas, it the first (1) Shabad of Raag Gaurri Chayti, and there are 13 Shabads of Mehla 1 so far.

Word Meaning: Amrit = immortal. Kaayaan = human body. Sookhaali = in comfort. Baaji = game; drama. Lub(u) = greed for eating. Mooch(u) = much; big. Koorr(i) = falsehood (lies; dishonesty etc). Bhaaro = weight (of evil deeds). Rooldi = degraded; disgraced. Chhaaro = dust. 1. Sikh = advice. Sookirt(u) = noble deeds. Rehsi = accompany you. Buhourr(i) = again. Aavaiy vaari = get opportunity. Pause. Ninda = malicious criticism; vilification. Chinda = think about. Puraayee = of others. Laitbaari = which causes loss of trust (back biting). Vayl(i) = vine; woman (just like vines which need some support to grow tall, women also need support of men to grow). Joheh(i) = watch; keep an evil eye on. Booriyaari = evil deeds. Huns(u) = soul. Chhootturr(i) = a woman condemned by (separated from) her husband. 2.

Soopnuntar(i) = in dreams (asleep); unaware. Kerm = deeds. Bhula Bhayaa = liked it. Hult(i) = this world (present life). Sobha = praise. Pult(i) = (in) next world.
Dhoyee = shelter. Ehila = valuable. Guvaaya = wasted. 3.
Khuri = very much. Doohayli = in discomfort. Baat = care about. Pause.
Taaji = horse. Toorki = from Iraq. Roopa = silver. Jhurr(i) = drop. Guvaara = oh, fool. Kooja = crystalized sugar. Mayva = fruit. Chaakhiya = tasted. 4.
Neev = foundation. Divaal = wall; mansion. Bhus = ash; rubble. Dhayri = pile. Sunchay = treasure. Sunch(i) = accumulate. Sumpaiy = wealth. 5.
Ajaana = child; ignorant. Hoag(u) = will happen. Bhaana = Will. Pause.
Shah(u) = king. Tthaakur(u) = Lord. Vunjaaray = traders. Jeeo = life. Pind(u) = body. Raas(i) = capital; ownership; property. 6.

MEANING: The man thinks that his body is going to live forever, so life should be lived in comfort. He does not realize that, like a drama, it has a short life span. To enjoy all comforts, it (human body) has a big greed to eat (gluttony), and greed of all other kinds, due to which it engages in lies and dishonesty, as a result of which it carries a big burden of evil deeds. But, oh my greedy body, I have seen many like you, who are disgraced to ashes on the earth (suffer humiliation). 1. Listen to the advice carefully, oh my body; only the noble deeds will stay with you, and you may not get this chance (human life) again (to elevate your spiritual state). Pause.
I am telling you, oh my body, to listen carefully to my advice. You are engaged in vilifying others, and because of such lies, you are losing your trustworthiness. You watch other women with evil thoughts in your mind, and commit thefts and other evil deeds. When the soul leaves you, you will be left alone, just like a woman who has been condemned by her husband. 2. My body (soul), you have been in dreams so far (asleep from reality) and do not realize what kind of (despicable) deeds you have committed. If I stole some stuff and brought it home, you liked it. Because of such evil deeds, you are not earning any praise in this world, and there will be no shelter for you in the next world; you are wasting your invaluable human life. 3.
I am suffering badly, and there is no one to enquire (worry) about me, oh Nanak. Pause.
You want Iraqi horses, gold and silver jewellery, and a lot of (beautiful clothes), but (you do not realize) that none of such things accompany you after death, and everything gets dropped (is left behind) here, oh my foolish body (soul). I have tasted the sweet crystallized sugar and different fruits, but the sweetest of all is Your Amrit-Naam, oh Waheguru. 4.
The man builds mansions on strong foundations, but they become a pile of ash (rubble) with time. He accumulates treasures of wealth, and the blind (ignorant) man thinks that all of that belongs to him (forever), so he does not share with anyone else. (He does not realize that even the powerful rulers like Ravan (of Lanka), who had his palaces of gold - and in fact, the whole country of gold - left empty-handed (and you are not special, oh my body). 5.
Listen to me, my foolish and ignorant mind, only the Will of Waheguru shall prevail. Pause.
The Lord is like an immensely rich money-lord (Who owns the treasures of Naam), and we are the traders (of His Naam). Our soul and body are His property; He can kill us and give new life again, oh Nanak. 6.1.13.

Kaamun(i) lorraiy soyina roopa, mittar loorrayn(i) say khadhata. Nanak paap kuray tin kaarun(i), jaasi Jumpur(i) baandhaata. 4.2.14.

Word Meaning: Uver(i) = others. Punch Juna = five demons. Kiyoun = how. Ghur Baar(u) = whole house; body and mind. Maareh(i) = punish. Looreh(i) = loot. 1

Jum Dul = army of the angel of death. Bikhum ghuna = very tough. Pause.

Oosaar(i) = build. Murroli = hut; human body. Bheetar(i) = inside. Sa Dhuna = woman; human soul. Kayl = enjoy lustful life. Kaamun(i) = woman (human). 2.

Dhaheh(i) = demolish. Dayhoora = body. Jum Dunda = the baton of the angel of death (unkind treatment). Sungal = chain. 3.

Lorraiy = wishes; asks for. Khadhaata = articles to eat. Tin Kaarun(i) = for them. 4.

MEANING: I am alone, and they are five demons (lust, rage, etc., to rob me of my noble qualities); how can I protect my body and soul from them, oh Waheguru? They punish me by robbing me of my noble qualities all the time. Whom should I beg for help? 1. The only way to protect yourself) is to recite Waheguru's Naam, oh my mind; otherwise, you will have to face the very tough army of the Angel of death. Pause. Waheguru creates the hut-like human body with nine doors in which the soul dwells. Thinking the body to be immortal, she (the soul) is enjoying a lustful life, allowing the five demons to rob her freely of noble qualities. 2.

When death comes, the body hut is demolished and robbed, and the soul is held all alone. The unkind Angel of death puts chains around the neck of the soul, and the five demons run away. 3. The wife wants gold and silver, while the friends want tasty things to eat. The man commits sins for them, as a result of which he is bound (arrested, handled roughly) and taken to the court of the Angel of death, oh Nanak. 4.2.14.

(PAGE 156): Aikus churnee jay chit(u) laaveh(i) lub(i) loabh(i) kee dhaavista. 3. Jupus(i) Nirunjun(u) ruchus(i) munaa. Kaahay boleh(i) jogi kupt ghuna. 1. Ruhaou. Kaayaan kumli, huns(u) iyaana, mayri, mayri kert bihaneeta. Prunvut(i) Nanak naangi daajhaiy phir(i) paachhaiy puchhutaneeta. 4.3.15.

NOTE: This holy Shabad has been addressed to some yogis who wear glass earrings, shave their heads - especially on the banks of the River Gunga – cover their bodies with ash, wear a quilt, hold a baton, and eat only vegetables that grow inside the ground, like radishes, carrots, turnips, etc.

Word Meaning: Moonduraan = earrings. Ghut = heart. Kaayaan = body (free from evil deeds). Khinthaata = quilt. Punch chaylay = the five senses. Vus(i) = control. Raawal = hey, yogi. Dundaata = baton. 1. Joogut(i) = technique; the way to do something. Paavista = acquire. Naasut(i) = is not (there). Kund Mool(i) = vegetables that grow inside the ground. Pause Moond = head. Moondaaiyn = shaving. Gungaata = Ganga. Tirbhuvun = universe. Taarunhaara = salvager. Chaytus(i) = remember. 2. Ptumb(u) = deceit; show off. Sunsa = misgiving; worries. Dhaavista = rushes to. 3. Jupus = recite Naam. Nirunjun = Waheguru which is above Maya. Ruchus(i) = get interested; entranced. Kaahay = for what? Kupt = deceitful. Ghuna = very much. Pause. Kumli = unwise. Huns(u) = soul. Iyaana = child-like; ignorant. Bihaneeta = spends life. Prunvut(i) = requests humbly. Naagi = naked; exposed. Daajhaiy = burns; suffers. Paachhaiy = afterwards. Puchhutaneeta = repents. 4.

MEANING: Rather than wearing the rings in your ears, wear them in your mind so that you are reminded of Waheguru; and rather than wearing a quilt to protect your body from cold, protect it from evil deeds, oh yogi. And use your mind as the baton, which you hold in the hand, to control your senses, oh yogi. 1. You have applied your mind (adapted to) eating vegetables grown under the surface of the ground with the belief that you live a simple life, and can please Waheguru (but that is a misbelief); there is no other way than to act on Guru's Shabad (to realize Him). Pause.

If one could realize Waheguru by shaving his head – especially by the bank of the river Ganga – (everyone could do that). For me, my Guru is the River Ganga. The blind man (with darkness in mind) does not remember Waheguru, who is the Lord of the whole universe and can salvage anyone. 2. You try to please yourself by deceitful talk and show off, but your doubts and worries do not leave you alone at all. If you apply your mind to the feet (Naam) of the One Supreme Being, you would not have to rush to satisfy your greed of all kinds. 3. Get your mind entranced in the worship of Waheguru, and you will not have to engage in highly deceitful talk, oh man. Pause. Man's body is unwise, and the soul is ignorant like a child; so, he spends all his life in selfishness. (Guru) Nanak humbly requests (pleads) that the man repents afterwards when his soul burns (in hell) exposed (of its ill-deeds). 4.3.15.

Gaurri Chayti Mehla 1: Aukhudh muntar mool(u) mun aikaiy, jay kur(i) drirr(u) chit(u) keejaiy ray. Junum junum kay paap kerm kay, Kaatunaara leejaiy ray. 1.

Mun aiko Sahib(u) bhaayee ray. Tayray teen(i) goona sunsaar(i) smaaveh(i), Alukh(u) na lukhna jaayee ray. 1. Ruhaou. Shukkar khund(u) maya tun(i) meetthi, hum tuou pund oochaayee ray. Tin kee punk hovaiy jay Nanak(u), tuou moorra kichh(u) payee ray. 4.4.16.

Word Meaning: Aukhudh = medication; cure. Mool(u) Muntar = (Waheguru's Naam). Drirr(u) = reinforce (with full faith). Kaatunhaara = the eradicator (Waheguru). 1.
Teen Goona = the three effects of Maya. Alukh(u) = incomprehensible. Pause.
Shukkar = raw sugar. Pund = bale; package. Soojhus(i) Naahi = cannot think of anything. Lujj = a long rope to which a bucket is tied to draw water from a well; rope of life. Moosa = mouse (time). 2. Munmukh(i) = the follower of one's own mind; engrossed in maya. Kureh = perform (deeds). Tayta = the same (in size). Vudayee = praise. Tin(i) = that (Waheguru). Kirt(u) = the effect of the past deeds. Maytiya = erased; obliterated. 3. Soobhur Bhuray = full to the brim. Oonaiy = partial empty. Raatay = imbued. Punk = dust. Moorra = foolish. Paayee = acquires. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the only panacea for all ills, provided one reinforces it in his mind with full faith. The destroyer (Waheguru) then takes away (removes) all the committed sins of many, many lives of the individual. 1.
Because the whole world is absorbed in (is operating within) the three qualities of Maya (created by Waheguru), it has no time to comprehend (recognize the virtues of) the incomprehensible Waheguru. But, realize that there is only one Lord (to support you everywhere), oh my mind! Pause. Maya, which is sweet like sugar, is liked by the man, as a result of which we all are carrying the bale of sins; being completely in the dark (of ignorance), we are unaware of the fact that the time-mouse is gnawing on the life-supporting rope. 2. The deeds done by a Maya-engrossed individual are mostly sinful, so as a result, he suffers in proportion to the sinful deeds done. On the other hand, a Gurmukh(i) (faithful devotee of the Guru) is praised (honoured) everywhere. However, we cannot entirely blame a munmukh(u) (follower of his own mind) because whatever happens takes place as per the Will of Waheguru (which is based on the previous deeds of the individual), and the effect of the past deeds cannot be erased by the individual with his own efforts. 3. But, the hearts of the devotees, who get imbued with Waheguru's affection, are always full of affection for Waheguru and never experience any loss in that. If a Maya-engrossed individual becomes the dust of the feet of such devotees (becomes very humble by overcoming his ego in their company), then the ignorant too can achieve some spirituality, oh Nanak. 4.4.16

Prunvut(i) Nanak(u) Huqam(u) puchhaanaiy, sookh(u) hovaiy din(u) raati. 6.5.17.

Word Meaning: Kut Kee = since when. Kayra = of. Kidoo = from where. Ugun(i) = warmth (of womb). Bimb = Jul = water (placenta). Nipjay = started; took root. Kaahay Kumm(i) = for what purpose. 1. Kaytay = how many? Rookh = Birkh = trees; vegetation. Cheenay = recognized (were born as). Pusoo = animals. Naag Kooleen = clans of snakes (reptiles). Punkh = wings (birds). Oodaayay = flew as. 2. Hut = shops. Puttan = cities. Bij Mundar = very strong mansions. Bhunnay = broke into. Ug-houn Pichhoun = front and back (every direction). Chhupaavaiy = hide. 3. Tut Teeruth = (Hindu) holy places. Nuv Khund = nine regions of the earth. Tukkrri = weighing scale. Toalun(i) = weigh. Ghut = heart. Vunjaara = trader; vendor. 4. Jayta = as much. Neer(i) = water. Taytay = those many. Augun = vices. Duyya = Mehr = kindness. Doobday = sinking. Puththur = (heavy like) a rock because of the load of sins. 5. Jeaurra = soul (heart). Braabur = like. Tupaiy = is hot. Kaati = knife. Prunvut = requests humbly. Puchhaanaiy = recognizes. 6.5.17.

MEANING: Your virtues are beyond description, and my vices cannot be counted, oh my Waheguru! Pause. Because of our vices, we are born again and again, and cannot know since when we had our mothers and our fathers, and where we have come from (what was our previous life form before we are born as humans). We started our life in the warm placenta of a mother's womb, but we do not know what we have been created for (what the purpose of our life is). 1. We do not know how many times we were born as different forms of vegetation, and as animals, or in the clans of snakes, or as birds. 2. Even in this life, we are committing sinful deeds; we break into shops, cities and very strong (fort-like) mansions, and return home after committing thefts. We watch in every direction to make sure no one is watching us, but how can we hide our evil deeds from you, oh Waheguru? 3.

To atone for our sins, we visit many holy places, roam all over the nine regions of the earth (as per the belief of some sects), begging at the shops and in the bazaars of the cities. Finally, some lucky individual begins to weigh his sins as a vendor in noble or ignoble qualities in the weighing scale of his heart, and realizes how many sins he has accumulated. 4. (I have found out) that I have as many sins as the unlimited amount of water in the ocean. I cannot wash away my sins on my own, so I beg You to be kind to me and ferry this drowning person (me), who has become very heavy with the load of sins, across the ocean of life, oh Waheguru. 5.

(Without Waheguru's Naam at heart) The man's heart is burning with the fire of desires, and he feels as if he has a knife in his mind (to cut the throats of others) (has no contentment and peace of mind). (Guru) Nanak humbly prays (suggests) that if the man recognizes Waheguru's Will, he will always enjoy comfort (bliss). 6.5.17

(PAGE 157): Kerma oopur(i) nibbrraiy. jay loachaiy subh(u) koyay. 3. Nanak kerna jin(i) keeya soyee saar kuray. Huqam(u) na jaapi Khusum ka kisaiy vudayee dayay. 4.1.18.

NOTE: The numbers at the end – 4.1.18. "4" implies that this holy Shabad has four stanzas. "1" signifies that this is the first Shabad of Gaurri "Baiyraagun" and there are 18 Shabads of Mehla 1 in Gaurri Raag so far.

Word Meaning: Raiyn(i) = night. Guvaayee = wasted. Heeray Jaisa = precious like a diamond. Kaudi = a small sea shell; cowry shell. Budlay = in exchange. 1.
Anunta = unlimited. Anunt = infinite (God). Chaahiya = wish for; motivation. 2.
Bhaagutth = lucky; wealthy. Nibbrraiy = is determined. Loachaiy = longs for. 3.
Kerna = creation. Saar = looks after. Jaapi = visible; evident. 4.

MEANING: The man wastes away his night sleeping, and his day in eating (and drinking); thus, he is trading his diamond–like valuable human life (which is an opportunity for the man to connect with God) for a worthless object like a sea-shell (Maya). 1. The foolish man does not realize the importance of Waheguru's Naam for which (not remembering Him) he will have to repent later. Pause.

When a man has unlimited wealth buried in the ground (for safety), he has no motivation to think of Waheguru. So those who leave home in search of wealth return with the loss of wealth of Waheguru's Naam. 2.

Also, if one could acquire wealth with one's own efforts, everybody would be wealthy. But even though everybody longs for (more and more) wealth, the outcome is determined by his fate (which depends upon his previous deeds). 3.

Waheguru, which has created the world, also looks after it. Nobody knows the Huqam (Will) of the Lord as to who will be honoured by Him. 4.1.18

NOTE: The number "1" in the middle implies that this is the 1st Shabad of Mehla 1 in Gaurri Baiyraagun.

Nanak suda sohaagni, jin joti Jot(i) smaayay. 4.2.19.

Word Meaning: Herni = female deer. Kund Mool = vegetables growing under the surface of earth, like carrots, reddisnes, turnips etc.; and grass, bushes, fruit etc. Shuhou = Dear; Husband (Waheguru). Vaar(i) Jaoun = offer life for sacrificing. 1.
Bunjaarun(i) = trader (dealer in). Vukkhur = merchandize. Vaapar = trading. Pause.
Kokul(i) = cuckoo (a bird). Sehj(i) = in the state of bliss. Soobhaayay= with affection.
Dershun(i) = have sight. Roop(i) Apaar(u) = unlimited beauty. 2.
Saar(i) = know the condition. Oorvaar(i) = the near shore. Paar(i) = the shore on the other side. Baanh(i) Pusaar(i) = with open arms. 3.
Naagun(i) = snake. Dhur = live on the earth (and not fly in the sky); ego-free. Bhuou = fear. Sohaagni = married. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. 4.
MEANING: I wish to trade in (deal in) Waheguru's Naam, and have His Naam as the merchandise for my business. Pause.
If I am able to earn Waheguru's affection by the grace of the Guru, I will sacrifice my life for Him many times. I could live in a forest like a deer, away from the distractions of the world, and be happy like her, who has no worries. Just like the deer, which feeds on the grass and the bushes in the forest, I, too, will be happy to live on a simple diet of vegetables and the fruit available in the forest. 1. If I could get a charming sight of Waheguru with unlimited beauty in the blissful spiritual state with my affection, I would feel happy the same way as a cuckoo does sitting on the branch of a mango tree for which it has a mythical attraction. 2. Just as a fish cannot survive without water, I want to have the same degree of love for Waheguru, like an ocean (in which everyone lives). The fish feels very happy to live in the ocean, where it swims freely everywhere to learn about the other living beings. I, too, wish to be free like a fish, to have access to Waheguru, who is omnipresent, and to meet Him with open arms. 3. Snakes live in simple burrows and are afraid of people who want to kill them. But I would not mind to be like a snake and live a humble life (just like a snake which lives in a humble burrow), and will not be afraid of the possibility of people not liking me (as long as I am able to earn Waheguru's love) because when Waheguru's Shabad takes root in the heart, all kinds of fears are dispelled. Those human brides are always married (loved by their husband – Waheguru) whose souls merge into the Supreme Soul (Waheguru), oh Nanak. 4.2.19

Ghur(i) ghur(i) ehou paahoocha, sudrray nit puvun(i). Suddunhaara simriyaiy, Nanak say dih aavun(i) . 4.1.20.
Word Meaning: Jaiy = which. Ghur(i) = home of holy congregation; holy book. Keerut = praise. Kertay = Creator (Waheguru). Tit(u) = in that. Sohila = lyric of joy; blissful praise of Waheguru. Siverhou = remember. Sirjunhaar = the Creator. 1.

Nirbhuou = fearless. Houn = I; me. Vaari Jaoun = offer for sacrificing. Pause.
Smaaliun(i) = are looked after. Daanaiy = largess. Shoomaar = limit. 2.
Sumbut = year; time. Saaha = the date of wedding (union with Waheguru). Paavhou Tayl(u) = perform a pre-wedding custom in which the family and friends of the bride and the groom gather (in their respective homes) and sing happy songs and bless the bride and groom for a happy union. Aseesurriyaan = blessings. 3.
Paahoocha = invitation of wedding. Sudrray = calls. Nit = every day (all the time). Puvun(i) = are made. Suddunhaara = the caller (Waheguru). Say Dih = that day. 4.
MEANING: There is only one Supreme Being, which is eternal and which can be realized only by the grace of the Guru.
Join the holy congregation where Waheguru's praise is sung, and His virtues are discussed, and recite the Naam (sing praise) of the Creator, which is the source of all bliss, oh my friend.
1. Sing the blissful praise of the fearless (Waheguru), oh my friend. I wish to sacrifice my life for the blissful praise of Waheguru, which is the source of all comfort. Pause.
The Provider (Waheguru) always looks after His creation. You cannot even evaluate the gifts of the Provider; how can you find His limits, oh my ignorant friend! 2.
Just like the date and time, which is fixed for the ceremony of worldly weddings, the date and time to appear before Waheguru (which may or may not result in union with Him) is also fixed for each of us, so perform the pre-wedding ceremony by giving your blessings to me by which I may achieve union with Him, oh my devotee friends. 3.
The messages of such a subject (appearing before Waheguru) are sent all the time to each heart (individual) by Waheguru, and such calls have to come for all of us; so, let us remember the Sender of such messages (Waheguru) (so as to have union with Him), oh Nanak. 4.1.20.

puchhanaiy koyay. Jeevaiy Daata dayvunhaar(u). Nanak Hur(i) Naamay lugaiy piyaar(u). 4.1.21.

Word Meaning: Hur(i) Mayla = union with Waheguru. Soyee = the same (Waheguru). Bidh(i) = all approaches; alternatives. Puchhaanaiy = recognize. 1.

Bhaiy = with (respectful) fear = Bhuou. Bherm(u) = misgivings. Raachaiy = get deeply involved; absorbed. Rung(i) = (with) affection. Pause. Vusaiy = dwells. Soobhaayay = with affection. Bhaara = heavy (loaded with virtues). Paaravaar(u) = limits. Bukhshay = forgives. 2. Boodh(i) = wisdom; awareness. Soyay = that (Waheguru). Saachi = pure; honest. Kaar = Kerni = tasks; daily routine; dealings. Ootum = superior. 3. Puchhaanaiy = recognizes. Koyay = some rare. Daata = donor; provider. 4.

MEANING: When one connects with the Guru, the latter connects him with Waheguru. In fact, Waheguru connects the individual (of His choosing) with the Guru, and then the Guru connects the individual with Waheguru. My Waheguru knows all the different approaches; He connects individuals with the Guru with His own Will (Huqam), and the individuals recognize Him (get connected with Him) by the Shabad of the Guru. 1.

With Guru's fear (respect) in mind, the individual gets rid of all his misgivings and fears. With the deep fear (respect) of the Guru in mind (respect for the Guru guides his behaviour), the individual gets imbued with love for God. Pause.

When an individual is connected with the Guru, Waheguru begins to dwell in his mind because of the individual's love for Him. However, one cannot fully value all His virtues, for Waheguru is loaded with them. The individual can only sing praise of the infinite Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad. My God is forgiving, and He forgives all the weaknesses of His devotees. 2.

When one connects with the Guru, he acquires pure wisdom (his mind is purified) and higher awareness. Waheguru takes residence in the pure heart. With Waheguru dwelling in his heart, all the routine tasks of the devotee become pure and honest. By pondering on the Guru's Shabad, one's dealings become superior (honest). 3. The Guru teaches how to serve Waheguru (obey His Will). But only a rare, lucky individual realizes Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. When an individual loves Waheguru's Naam, he becomes confident that the Provider (Waheguru) is always alive (is there to look after), oh Nanak. 4.1.21

Kirpa kuray Shabad(i) milaava hoyee. Mil(i) Preetum Saachay goon gaavaan. Nanak Sachay Saach(i) smaavaan. 4.2.22.

Word Meaning: Giyaan(u) = Divine Knowledge (enlightenment). Koyay = some rare. Boojhaiy=comprehends; internalizes (Waheguru's Naam). Seejhaiy = succeeds. Sehj(i) = spiritual state of blissfulness. Mookt(i) = freedom from Maya. 1.

Pooray Bhaag(i) = (with) complete luck. Saachaiy = eternal. Sehj(i) = the state of bliss (above the effects of Maya). Saach(i) = (in) Waheguru. Pause.

Trishna Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Shaant(i) = peace of mind. Vusaiy = dwells (attains). Puvit Paavun = pure (mind). Sooch = purity. Milaava = union (with Waheguru. 2.

Baajh(u) = without. Bherm(i) = misbeliefs. Bhoolaayee = misled; lost. 3.

Kuhiyaiy = complain. Saach(i) = in the eternal (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: If a person gets connected with the Guru with great luck, he attains the eternal spiritual state of bliss, which is above the three effects of Maya, and stays merged with Waheguru. Pause. But some rare individuals become enlightened by the Guru (and get connected with Waheguru). However, whosoever internalizes (Waheguru's Naam) succeeds (in his objective of life – union with Waheguru). He acquires the state of bliss, Truth (union with Waheguru), and pure thinking. He also finds the door of salvation in the shelter of the Guru. 1.

One's fire of desires is put out in the company of the Guru, and he attains peace of mind. He achieves purity of mind and body as well as the ritualistic purity observed by Brahmans in the shelter of the Guru. He also gets connected with Waheguru by Guru's Shabad. 2.

The whole world is lost (misled) in misgivings and suffers greatly without the Guru. But a Guru's devotee recites Waheguru's Naam (and is above all the misgivings and superstitions). With the holy "sight" of Waheguru (by internalizing Him), one receives eternal honour (in Waheguru's court). 3.

There is no one else to complain to; there is only one provider – Waheguru. With His grace, one gets connected with Him through the Guru's Shabad. I wish to sing praise of Waheguru in the company of my dear Guru, and stay absorbed in the eternal Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.2.22.

Nanak Sach(u) bhaanda jis(u) Shabad piyaas. 4.3.23.

Word Meaning: Su = that. Thaaoun = place (gathering). Nivaas(u) = residence. Joog Chaaray = all the four eons. Jaapaiy = seems; is True; has effect. 1.

Kerm(u) = kindness; benevolence. Satsung = holy congregation. Su thaayain = that place. Pause. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Chaakhaiy = taste. Feeka = tasteless. Alaayay = talks. Bhoojhaiy = comprehending. Chuliya = leave the world. 2. Rusna = tongue. Sehj(i) = in the spiritual state of blissfulness. Soobhaayay = (with) affection. Raati = imbued. Nirmul Dhaar = clean (pure) stream. 3. Bhaanda = vessel (heart with right side up); pure heart. Oondha Bhaanda = upside down vessel; heart turned away from the Guru and towards Maya. Tikaiy = stays. Nivaas(u) = dwelling. Piyaas = thirst (longing). 4.

MEANING: With good fortune, a man gets connected with the holy congregation by Waheguru's grace. The individual sings His virtues among the members in that holy place. Pause. That place (the holy congregation) is an eternal place (is always the source) where the mind is purified. Waheguru Himself resides in such an eternal place. The eternal Shabad of the Guru is valid (purifies the mind) in all the four eons (no matter what the eon is) because the eternal Waheguru pervades the whole world all the time. 1. May the tongue that affectionately sings praise of someone (or something) else (Maya or worldly tastes) burn away; the tongue that does not taste the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, talks tasteless (is unholy and deceitful). Without comprehending (Waheguru's virtues), the body and mind are tasteless (displeasing), and the individual who does not taste Waheguru's Naam leaves the world in suffering, and crying (repenting). 2.

The individual, whose tongue tastes the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam with love and in the state of bliss, merges into Waheguru with the benevolence of the Guru. By pondering on Guru's Shabad, the tongue of the devotee gets imbued in Waheguru's Naam, and he enjoys the bliss of the thin stream of pure Naam-Amrit in his brain. 3.

Only that heart merges with Waheguru, which is receptive to Waheguru's Naam (has been purified by the Naam), while nothing (spiritual) stays in the heart which is turned away from the Guru. Waheguru's Naam takes residence (is embedded) in the heart that follows Guru's Shabad. The heart which has thirst (longing) for Guru's Shabad becomes an eternal (part of Waheguru), oh Nanak. 4.3.23

Word Meaning: Ikk(i) = some. Saad = taste (of spirituality). Haumein = selfishness and ego. Gaavun(i) = the real song (Waheguru's praise). 1.

Bhaavaiy = is liked. Raata = imbued. Soohaavaiy = adorning; beautifying. Pause.

Bhugut(i) = ritualistic worship (simply for a show off). Usnayh = (real) love. Pir(u) = dear; husband. Oodhaar(i) = kept in heart (mind). 2.

Aap junaaveh(i) = brags; swaggers. Tupeh = jumps. Muraiy = dies (kills own desires). Jun(u) = devotee. Soyay = that. 3. Bhugut(i) Vuchhul = lover of worship (Waheguru). Aap(u) self (selfishness). Khoyay = loses; gets rid of. Bidh(i) = ways; alternatives. Bukhshay = gives the gift. 4.

NOTE: Devotees of some Hindu gods believe they can unite with their deities through singing and dancing.

MEANING: Some people do sing the ritualistic songs of worship just to show off, but enjoy no taste (of spirituality) in them. All their devotion goes to waste because they sing only to boost their ego. Only those who sing the real praise of Waheguru, who have an honest love for the Naam, ponder on the eternal Bani (Guru's Shabad). 1.

Only those songs are worthy which are liked by Satguru and which imbue the body and mind with the adorable Naam. Pause. Some people sing, and some others worship (some deity), but they cannot enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their hearts without love for Him. The real worship is the love for Guru's Shabad, and to have the Naam of the dear Guru (or Waheguru) in the heart all the time. 2.

Some people do worship, but only as a show-off, to boost their ego. The foolish dance and jump (and think it is devotion), but they only suffer (because they do not achieve anything). Dancing and jumping are not worship; only the worship of those is recognized who kill (overcome) their ego and selfishness by the Guru's Shabad. 3.

Waheguru, who loves His worship, Himself inspires His devotees to worship Him. True worship is when one gets rid of their selfishness. My Waheguru knows all the different ways of worship (so, cannot be pleased by fake means). An individual, to whom Waheguru gives His Naam as a gift, recognizes Him (connects with Him), oh Nanak. 4.4.24.

Word Meaning: Mun Maray = kill (overcome) the mind (desires). Dhaat(u) = attractions of Maya. Daaroo = medication. Boojhaiy = gets enlightened. 1.
Bukhshay = forgives. Vudiuyaayee = honour. Vusaiy = dwells. Pause.
Gurmukh(i) Kerni = to lead life as per the Guru's advice. Sojhi = understanding. Maiy = liquor. Mut(i) = intoxicated; inebriated. Maigul = elephant. Mikdaara = like. Ankush(u) = the weapon with a sharp hook to control an elephant; ankus. Jeevaalunhaara = life giver. 2. Asaadh(u) = incorrigible; incurable. Saadhaiy = fix; set right. Achur(u) = which cannot be eaten (consumed); almost impossible to control. Churaiy = eats; removes; overcomes. Tujay = quits; gets rid of. Vikaar = sensual pleasures. 3. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning. Raakhiun = protected by Him (Waheguru). Smaayay = absorbed in. Kula = power. 4.
MEANING: Without killing one's desires, Waheguru cannot be realized. And if one is able to control his desires, his attachment to Maya is automatically killed. But some rare person knows the secret to kill (overcome) his desires (that they can be overcome by Guru's Shabad). 1. The individual, to whom Waheguru is kind, gets the honour, and with Guru's grace, Waheguru comes to dwell in his heart. Pause.
The individual, who leads his life as per the advice of the Guru, comes to understand the secrets of the mind. (He realizes) The human mind is like an intoxicated elephant, whereas Guru's Shabad is the ankus for such an elephant, which kills the sensual desires of the mind, and gives a new life to the individual. 2.
The mind is incorrigible, and some rare devotee of the Guru can fix it (keep it under control). If one is able to eat the uneatable (overcome the desires which are almost impossible to control), his mind becomes pure. A devotee is able to kill his ego in the shelter of the Guru and get rid of his evil sensual pleasures, whereby his mind is purified. 3. Those who have been protected (from evil thinking) right from the beginning by Waheguru are connected with the Guru and then with Waheguru Himself. They stay absorbed in Guru's Shabad and never get separated from Waheguru. Waheguru alone knows His powers (unlimited abilities); a devotee recognizes His Naam (makes connection with Him) in the Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 4.5.25.

Nanak sayv(i) suda Hur(i) gooni guheer. 4.6.26.

Word Meaning: Haumein = selfishness and ego. Bauraana = crazy; insane. Bhaayay = (in) love. Bherm(i) = in misgivings. Bhoolaana = lost; misled.
Chinta Chitvaiy = worries; makes plans. Puchhana = recognize. Dhundha = routine chores. Vihaana = is spent. 1. Ram = Waheguru. Rumou = remember. Rusun = (with) the juice (sweetness). Rusaayee = sweeten. Pause.
Puchhata = realized; connected with. Jugjeevun = the life of the world (Waheguru). Jaata = is known; becomes famous. Kerm Bidhaata = the writer (designer) of the destiny (God). 2. Sachay = the bearers of Truth (having Divine qualities). Dhaavut = rushing (fast wandering). Verjay = disallowed. Tthaak(i) Ruhaayay = keep under control. Nuv Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures of Kuber. Vusaiy = takes residence. 3. Shaant(i) = peaceful; blissful. Jum Peer = the pain (suffering) of the angel of death. Sahib(u) = Lord. Vujeer = minister. Guheer = very deep; ocean. 4.
MEANING: The whole world is insane in its ego and selfishness. People are misled by their misgivings because of their love for Maya. The man has many worries in life and makes plans (to deal with them), but does not recognize himself (the source of worries and what his real objective in life is). His day and night are (all his time is) spent in routine chores (worldly affairs). 1. Remember Waheguru's Naam in heart, and sweeten your tongue with His sweet Naam, oh my brothers. Pause.
The devotee, who realizes Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, becomes famous (popular) in all the four eons by serving Waheguru, which is the life of the whole world. With the benevolence of Waheguru, which is the designer of his destiny, the devotee overcomes his selfishness and ego with the Guru's Shabad, and realizes Waheguru (makes a strong connection with Him). 2. Those devotees are the bearers of Truth (acquire Divine qualities) who are connected with God by the Guru's Shabad. They disallow their mind to pursue immoral activities, and keep the wandering mind well under control. The Guru bestows them with Waheguru's Naam, which is like having all the nine treasures of the world. God becomes very benevolent and comes to reside in their heart. 3. By reciting Waheguru's Naam, one acquires peace and comfort; and with Waheguru in his mind, he has no fear of any pain (suffering) from the Angel of death because Waheguru is the Lord and the minister (of everything). Serve Waheguru, which is the ocean (rich source) of all the virtues, all the time, oh Nanak. 4.6.26.

Word Meaning: Visraiy = forget; ignore. Praana = breath; life. Smaana = present; pervading. Sayvivaiyn = serving. Pervaana = approved. 1.
Vit-houn = from; for. Bul(i) = sacrifice life. Pause. Tin = those. Toodh = You. AGiyani = ignorant. Joani = in womb; rebirth. 2.
Ikk = One (Waheguru). Toottha = pleased to be kind. 3.
Poataiy = treasure; in account. Poonn(u) = noble deeds. Ruttay = imbued. 4.
MEANING: How can we forget Waheguru, which has given us life and the soul? How can we forget Waheguru, who is pervading everywhere, and serving whom one receives honour and approval in His Court? 1. I can sacrifice my life gladly for Waheguru's Naam; I will be dead (spiritually) if I forget Him. Pause.
Only those forget You who have been misled by You, and are engrossed in Maya. The ignorant followers of their minds undergo many rebirths. 2.
Those, to whom Waheguru is pleased to be kind, are guided to serve the Guru, and in the Guru's shelter, they embed Waheguru's Naam in their heart. 3.
Those who have credit of noble deeds in their treasure (repertoire), ponder on Waheguru's virtues, and kill their ego and selfishness. I will gladly sacrifice my life for those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.7.27.

Pooray Satgur siyoun luggaiy piyaar(u). Nanak Naam(i) ruttay kuou jaiykaar(u). 4.8.28.
Word Meaning: Akuth(u) = indescribable. Kuthiya = described. Maarun(u) Mun = killer of mind (sensual desires). Anayk = countless. 1.
Bani = Shabad. Smaani = causes to be absorbed. Kutha = story; facts of. Pause.
Jeh = where. Sehjay = (with) peaceful mind. 2.
Mehli = Waheguru's residence (union with Him). 3.
Daat(u) = gifts; largesse. Ruttay = imbued. Jaiykaar = hail (them). 4.
MEANING: You are indescribable; how can anyone describe You, oh Waheguru? You have countless virtues; no one can put any value on them. However, with Guru's Shabad, which kills the desires of the mind, one can embed (enshrine) Your Naam in the heart, oh Waheguru. 1. Recitation of the holy Bani causes the reciter to be absorbed in its Author (become one with Him). Your indescribable story can be narrated by Guru's Shabad, oh Waheguru. Pause.
A holy congregation comes into being wherever Satguru is present, and the virtues of Waheguru are sung there in the blissful state (with a peaceful mind), and the haumein of the devotees is burned away (eradicated) with Guru's Shabad there. 2.

In the shelter of the Guru, a devotee is able to embed Waheguru Naam in his heart, and is enabled to have access to Waheguru's Residence (become part of Him), and with worship of Waheguru, he is fully absorbed in His Naam. 3.
But love with the perfect Satguru is a gift of Waheguru Himself (nobody can develop it on their own). I hail those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.8.28.

Word Meaning: Aikus tay = from the One (Waheguru). Roop Runga = shapes and colours. Baiysintar(u) = fire. Sehlunga = mixed with; a collection of all. Bhinn Bhinn = different. 1. Achurj(u) = wondrous. Virla = rare. Pause.
Sehj(i) = without any special effort. Goopt(u) = hidden. Pergut(u) = visible. 2.
Kuthun = description. Smaavaiy = absorbed in. Boojhaiy = comprehends. 3.
Vuddi = big. Vudiyaayee = praise; appreciation. Ruttay = imbued. 4.
MEANING: All the basic elements (ingredients), like air, water, and fire, have been created by Waheguru alone, and the collection of all these basic elements is present in all the bodies of different shapes and colours. Waheguru looks after all these different amazing bodies. 1. There is one and only one wondrous (Waheguru), but some rare devotee realizes this in the shelter of the Guru. Pause.
Waheguru has created the universe in such a way that He roams everywhere (is omnipresent) without any special effort; He is hidden in some places while clearly visible in others. Also, He awakens the sleeping (enlightens the unaware). 2.
Everybody talks about the gifts of God to different degrees, but nobody can put real value on Waheguru's largesse; only the devotee who is fully absorbed in Guru's Shabad comprehends Waheguru (unites with Him). 3.
Waheguru listens to the needs of His creation, looks after it, and connects some of His creation to Him through the Guru's Shabad. Those who serve the Guru (obey His advice) receive great honour in Waheguru's Court. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam stay absorbed in the Naam, oh Nanak. 4.9.29.

Kuli ka junum(u) chundaal kaiy ghur(i) hoyee. Nanak Naam bina ko mookt(i) na hoyee. 4.10.30.

Word Meaning: Soota = asleep; engrossed. Jun = devotees. 1. Sehjay = in state of bliss. Boojhaiy = understands; is enlightened. Pause. Asunt(u) = unholy; lustful. Anaarri = without control over the mind. Kuthni = only talks. Loojhaiy = struggles. Ugiyani = unknowledgeable. Seejhaiy = succeeds. 2. Joog = eon. Nistaara = success; salvation. Kool = clan (associates). Oodhaara = enlightened; put on the right path. 3. Kerm Dherm = religious rituals. Kuli = Kulyug (eon of disputes); of evils. Chundaal = wicked; immoral person. Ghur = home; heart. 4.

MEANING: The follower of his mind is in deep slumber in the love and attachment for Maya (and is ungrateful to Waheguru for His gifts). But the devotee of the Guru is fully awake because of his pondering on the Guru's Shabad, which is rich in Waheguru's virtues. Those who are awake (appreciate Waheguru's kindness) have love for Waheguru's Naam. 1. The one who is in the state of bliss is always awake (alert against the attacks of Maya) and never goes to sleep (becomes careless). Pause. A lustful man, who has no control over his sensual desires, never realizes the truth (value of spirituality). He does talk about spirituality, but still struggles with Maya. Such a blind (from reality) and ignorant man never succeeds in the real objective of life. 2. Waheguru's Naam is the only means in this eon to swim across the sea of Maya, but some rare individual acquires Waheguru's Naam by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. Not only does such a devotee find salvation for himself, but he also enlightens the whole clan, which enables its members to find salvation as well. 3. (Contrary to the prevalent belief), no religious ritual can wash away the sins of an evil man in this world. Actually, the heart of a wicked man is the place where the unpopular Kulyug eon seems to have taken birth. Nobody can find salvation without Waheguru's Naam oh, Nanak. 4.10.30.

Munmukh(i) na chaytaiy, aavaiy jaayay. 2. Aap(i) bhoolla k(i) Prubh(i) Aap(i) bhoolaaya. Eho jeeo vidaani chaakri laaya. Muhaa dookh(u) khuttay, birtha junum(u) guvaaya. 3. Kirpa kuray Satguru milaayay. Aiko Naam chaytay vichoun bherm(u) chookaayay. Nanak Naam(u) jupay Naoun nau nidh(i) paayay. 4.11.31.

Word Meaning: Sacha = eternal. Amar(u) = immortal; Huqam. Raatay = imbued. Vaypervaah(u) = care-free; worry-free. Smaah(u) = get absorbed. 1.
Ram = Waheguru. Bhuvjul(u) = the sea of Maya, which keeps the living beings in the birth-death cycle. Ooturhou Paar(i) = swim across to the far end. Pause.
Bhermay = in misgivings. Doojaiy = the other (Maya). Bhaayay = love; attachment. Chaitaiy = remembers. Aavaiy Jaayay = comes and goes; is reborn. 2.
Vidaani = somebody else's. Chaakri = service; slavery. Khuttay = earns. Birtha = empty; without any gain. Guvaaya = wasted. 3.
Nuv Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru is the eternal Lord of the universe, and His Huqam is also eternal. Those whose minds are imbued with the love of Waheguru get connected with Him, stay fully absorbed in His Naam, and become part of the worry-free God. 1.
So, you too, listen to me, and ponder on Guru's Shabad, oh my mind. Recite Waheguru's Naam so as to swim across the sea of Maya (rise above the effects of Maya to be one with Waheguru). Pause. Those who are engrossed in Maya are born because of their misgivings, and they leave the world in misgivings. In fact, the world is reborn because of its love for Maya. The money-minded person does not remember Waheguru, as a result of which he continues in the cycle of birth and death. 2. Is the man misled because of his own volition, or is he misled by Waheguru, who has made him the slave of the other (Maya)? (And he is not working for his own good to achieve freedom from Maya). As a result (of his slavery to Maya), he is causing himself a lot of trouble and is wasting away his precious human life. 3.
If (with good luck) Waheguru is kind to him, he is connected with the Guru. He then recites only Waheguru's Naam and dispels his misgivings. By reciting His Naam, he embeds Waheguru in his heart, which is like having all the nine mythical treasures of the world, oh Nanak. 4.11.31.

Word Meaning: Dhiyayaa = recited (Waheguru's Naam). Putiyaayay = have faith in; is convinced. Say = those. Dhunvunt = wealthy. Kmaayay = earn; deal in. Sojhi = enlightenment. 1. Ghaal = hard work (worshipping Waheguru). Thaayayn paayay = is rewarded. Pause. Puchhaanaiy = recognize; self-evaluation. Jeevun Mookt(i) = breaking the bonds of Maya while living in the world. Ootum = superior. Sehjay = easily. Sehj(i) = in a peaceful state. 2.

Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of Maya. Muhaa Bikh(u) = big poison. Kootumb(i) = family. Greh(i) = household. Mohiya = captivated; bewitched. Maayay = Maya. 3.
Undin(u) = every day; always. Virla = rare. Boojhaiy = comprehend; understand. 4.
MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam again and again, oh my brothers. Your hard work (of worship of Waheguru) in the shelter of the Guru is appropriately rewarded (you become "one" with Waheguru). Pause. I also seek the advice of those devotees who recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, as your mind acquires faith for Waheguru by serving the Guru. Those are truly wealthy who acquire Waheguru's Naam. But enlightenment comes only from the Guru. 1.
When one recognizes the self (his origin and the purpose of life), his mind becomes pure, and such an individual achieves freedom from the bonds of Maya while still living in the world (family). As he sings Waheguru's virtues, his thinking becomes superior (pure), and he attains the spiritual state of bliss without any special effort. 2.
One cannot serve Waheguru as long as he is in love with Maya because love for Maya results in haumein, and both are big poisons against love for God. Such a person is captivated by his love for his sons, family, and household. The blind and the ignorant Maya-engrossed individual is caught in the cycle of rebirths. 3.
Waheguru gives His Naam to those who worship Him day and night with the Guru's Shabad. But some rare individuals recognize this truth with the Guru's advice. Such an individual stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.12.32.

(PAGE 162): Nanak Naam(i) ruttay nihkayvul nirbani. 4.13.33.
Word Meaning: Joog Chaaray = in all the four eons. Poora Jun = perfect devotee. Akhoot = inexhaustible; never-ending. Toat(i) = shortage. Dur(i) = Waheguru's Door (Court). Sobha = praise; applause. 1. Bherm(u) = misgivings; doubts. Amrit-Rus(u) = sweet immortalizing Naam. Pause. Say = those. Oodhray = are salvaged. Kool Sugal = the whole clan (all the associates and followers. Nistaaray = got salvaged. Oordhaaray = keep in the heart (mind). Ruttay = imbued. Bhuoujul = the world sea. 2. Daasa = humble servant. Kumul = lotus; heart. Pergaasa = blooms. Unhud(u) = auto-playing music that the yogis claim to hear during meditation; Divine music (Guru's Shabad). Nij Ghur = (in) own heart. Vaasa = residence (mind stays in itself). Ghur Maah(i) Oodaasa = detached from Maya while living in the family. 3. Sachi Bani = Guru's immortal Shabad. Bhugteen = bhuguts (devotees). Vukhaani = explained to people. Saarungpaani = Waheguru. Nihkayvul Nirbani = detached from Maya. 4.

MEANING: (Contrary to the popular belief in Hindu Granths that there are different ways to reach Waheguru for each eon), no matter what the eon is, service to the Guru is the only acceptable way to be "one" with God. But some rare perfect devotee follows this path even though Waheguru's Naam is an inexhaustible source of Naam-wealth, and there is never a shortage of this wealth (countless people can acquire Naam without any loss to the Naam-treasure). With Waheguru's Naam in mind, an individual enjoys bliss in this world (in present life) and earns praise in Waheguru's Court. 1.

So, do not be a victim of any misgiving, and enjoy the eternal sweetness of Waheguru's Naam by serving the Guru, oh my mind. Pause. Those who serve Satguru are respected as great souls worldwide. Not only do they find salvation for themselves, but they also enable their associates and followers to be saved. They always keep Waheguru's Naam at heart, and imbued in the Naam, they swim across the sea of Maya. 2. They serve Satguru, always considering themselves to be His slaves. They overcome their haumein, as a result of which the lotus of their mind blooms. Imbued in the Naam, their mind stays in its place (quits wandering), and they feel as if the auto-playing Divine music is playing in their mind. They stay detached from Maya while living in the family. 3. They serve Satguru by reciting His eternal Shabad, which is recited by all the devotees in every eon. They worship Waheguru day and night, and imbued in Naam, they are detached from Maya, oh Nanak. 4.13.33.

Word Meaning: Vudbhaag(i) = with great luck. Sunjoag = pre-destined union. Hur(i) Rus = (the taste of) essence of Waheguru's Naam. 1. Praani= man. Junum(i) jeet(i) = securing a win over life (Maya). Laaha = profit. Pause. Giyaan(u) = knowledge (for debates). Dhiyaan(u) = concentration (meditation). Chukh(i) Deettha = tasted. 2. Kerm Kaand = religious rituals. Achaar = character; civility. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Ahunkaar = conceit; ego. 3.

Bundhun(i) = bonds of Maya. Phaas = trapped. Pergas = enlightenment. 4.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, whereby you will secure victory over the desires of life, and acquire the wealth of the Naam, oh man. Pause. However, union with Satguru occurs through predestined great fortune. When that happens, the lucky individual has Waheguru's Naam at heart, and he always enjoys the sweetness of the Naam. 1. Such an individual finds Guru's Shabad to be very sweet; acquiring knowledge of Hindu Granths for debates and meditations becomes meaningless for him. However, a rare person tastes Guru's holy Shabad (the Naam) with His grace. 2. The Maya-engrossed individual performs many rituals and shows off his (fake) good character, which only boosts his ego. But, without Waheguru's Naam, all such rituals for personal ego are condemnable. 3.

Such an individual is tightly bonded to Maya; the freedom from such bonds is achieved only when he gets enlightened by the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.14.34.

NOTE: The Upanishads state that Maya is independent of God, so the man has full independence in performing his deeds. But, in this Shabad, Guru Amar Dass Sahib explains that there is absolutely nothing in this universe that is independent of God. Using the example of waters in the clouds and in the ground, which are the same, Guru Sahib espouses that the human soul and Waheguru are just different forms of the same power, and the man does only what he is made to do by God; he has no independence in the nature of the deeds he performs. Also, Maya is not independent of Waheguru.

Word Meaning: Oopur(i) mayghula = the clouds above. Bersut(u) = causes rain. Mudhay = inside. Pergaasiya = shows its presence. Bin(u) pugaan = without feet. 1.
Bherm(u) = misbeliefs; doubts. Chookaahee = get rid of. Kert(u) haiy = is made to do by Waheguru. Soyee = the same (Waheguru). Taiysay Jaayay Smaahi = leaves the world with the same nature. Pause. Naana = different. Roop = forms. 2. Bhool(i) puray = were misled. Ja Paaya = when (Waheguru) was realized. 3. Shabad(u) = Huqam. Tut(u) = the origin (Waheguru). Tut = human soul. Poonrup(i) = again. 4.

MEANING: (Guru Sahib advises): Get rid of all your misgivings, oh man. Whatever the man does is predetermined by Waheguru, and he leaves this world as such (carries the effect of his deeds to his next life). Pause.
Also, to explain the fact that the human soul is a part of Waheguru (they are the same), Guru Sahib uses the example of water in the clouds and in the ground: just as the clouds above the earth cause rainwater on the earth, there is similar water in the ground. (They may have different sources) But is the water in the ground any different from the water in the clouds? (Of course, not). Just like the water present in the ground (which moves around freely), the water in the clouds also moves around (without any feet). Just like the amount of rain shapes the nature of the earth below, the degree of benevolence of Waheguru, which resides hidden in every heart, shapes the characters of human beings. 1. So, what kind of deeds can the women and men perform (independent of Waheguru)? They are all different forms of Waheguru, and eventually get absorbed in Him. (So, they have no independence in performing their deeds). 2.

The man has been misled for many lives, but Waheguru is kind and knows everything about man's salvation. When He connects a man with Guru's Shabad by His grace, the man is no longer misled and becomes connected to God. 3.
Guru's (Waheguru's) Shabad, and Waheguru are one and the same, so with Guru's Shabad, when man's soul merges into the Supreme Soul (Waheguru), he becomes immortal, and is not born again. 4.1.15.35.

Jun Nanak kermi paayiun Hur(i) Naama bhugut(i) bhundaar. 4.2.16.36.

Word Meaning: Kaalaiy = of death. Vus(i) = in control. Baandha = tied up; bonded to. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). 1. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Durgeh = Waheguru's Court. Pause. Lukh Chauraasi = 8.4 believed life forms. Bhermday = misled. Munhutth(i) = with sheer obstinacy of mind. Cheeniyo = recognized. 2. Perteet = have faith. Tujaiy = quits; gets rid of. Vikaar = evil desires like lust. Kermi = by the benevolence. Bhundaar = treasures. 4.

MEANING: The whole world, which is bonded to Maya for its love, is subject to the justice of the Angel of death. The Maya-rapt people commit all deeds which boost their haumein, and are therefore punished. 1. So, focus on the feet (Shabad) of the Guru, oh my mind. A devotee of the Guru, who takes His shelter and acquires the treasure of Waheguru's Naam, is declared free from the bonds of Maya, (and is honoured) in the Court of Waheguru. Pause. The Maya-engrossed man does not recognize the importance of Guru's Shabad (and makes no connection with Waheguru), as a result of which he takes rebirths again and again. He performs spiritually worthless deeds (including the religious rituals, if any) by the sheer obstinacy of his mind, and takes rebirths to go through all the 8.4 million life forms. 2.
The devotee of the Guru (when connected with Him) recognizes (analyzes) the self. As a result of his day and night worship, Waheguru's Naam takes residence in his heart. He stays imbued in the love of Waheguru and enjoys the bliss of the Naam. 3. Pondering on Guru's Shabad, a devotee brings faith in Waheguru, and is able to kill (control) his sensual desires, and get rid of all his vices. But nobody can acquire Waheguru's Naam, which is a treasure of wealth, with his own efforts; it can be acquired only by Waheguru's benevolence, oh Nanak. 4.2.16.36.

Word Meaning: Payiurraiy = parents' home (this world). Din Chaar(i) = a short time. Sobhavunti = praiseworthy. Sahoor-rraiy = in-laws' house (next world). Vaas(u) = (dignified) stay. Sehj(i) = the state of spiritual bliss. Bhaaya = liked. 1.

Kit(u) bidh(i) = by what means. Nirunjun = above Maya (Waheguru). Alukh(u) = incomprehensible (Waheguru). Pause.

Dhiyayiyaiy = recite (Naam). Vudbhaageen = with great luck. Doobidha = duality; indecisiveness. Binus = destroy; end. Vertda = operates. Naayay = Naam(u). 2.

Gerb = conceit; ego. Ugiyaan = lacking knowledge; in the dark. Iaanay = ignorant (child-like). Gerbh = womb. Gul Jaanay = rot (suffer). Aivaiyn Bhaanvda = this is what He likes. Bhermaanay = continue to travel (through many life forms). 3.

Laykh Likhaaya = written fortune. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning (birth). Mustuk(i) = (on the) forehead. Bhaytiya = met; got connected. Soora = fearless. Bundhup = relative. Beera = brother. Keera = Keerra = worm. 4.

MEANING: It is a written law of Waheguru that the man lives in this world only for a short period of time. (So, we should not waste our short life, and worship Waheguru) That woman (human being) earns praise who sings Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru. A woman who remembers (recites) Waheguru's virtues in this world gets a warm welcome to the next world. The devotees of the Guru love Waheguru in their minds and stay blessed. 1. How should we acquire (connect with) the husband-Waheguru, who is present in both the worlds (this life and the next)? (Well, we do not need to worry), The incomprehensible Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, (knows everything), and He Himself arranges to connect the devotee with Him. Pause.

Waheguru Himself gives the advice to (prompts) the individual to recite His Naam. With great fortune, a connection is made by Satguru who gives the Naam-Amrit in the mouth (on the tongue) of the devotee to recite, as a result of which, one gets rid of his haumein and his indecisiveness, and acquires the bliss of the high spiritual state. Waheguru alone operates everywhere, and He makes the individuals recite His Naam. 2.
The Maya-rapt individual is ignorant and is in the dark; he cannot realize Waheguru because of his conceit. He does not serve Satguru and repents again and again (when he takes rebirths). He stays in the womb and rots there (takes births again and again). It is the Will of my Creator that the followers of their mind go through many life forms. 3.
Right from the beginning, my Waheguru has prewritten the full destiny of every individual on his forehead. However, when an individual gets connected with the fearless Guru, he begins reciting Waheguru's Naam. My Waheguru is everything for me, including my father, mother, close relatives, and my brother. Waheguru forgives even worms like me, and connects with Him, oh Nanak(u). 4.3.17.37.

Word Meaning: Tay = from. Tut(u) = the origin; the root (Waheguru). Muleen = filthy. Pergut Bhuyee = appeared; regained its shine. Mooraara = a name for Waheguru. Shiv(i) Shukt(i) = (the darkness) of Waheguru's Maya. Chooka = got lifted. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning (birth). Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. 1. Kit(u) Bidh(i) = by what means? Sunt Junhou = holy people. Chusa = the twinkling of the eye. Hur(i) Rus = the sweetness of the Naam. Pause. Gut(i) = higher spiritual state. Leeni = got absorbed. Sat Purakh = (the manifestation of) Waheguru. Keeni = accepted. 2.

Goondaata = the source of virtues. Uvguniaaray = having unholy qualities. Shernaaguti = shelter seekers. Moorr = incorrigible. Moogudh = complete idiots. Nistaaray = ferried across (the sea of Maya). 3. Anund(u) = bliss. Sujjan = friend. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Sohila = song of happiness. Duyya = kindness. Dhaar(i) = take; use. Baynti = request. Chaytaaya = made to remember. Dhoorr(i) = dust of feet (show deep respect). 4.

MEANING: How can I realize Waheguru whose sight gives me life, oh devotees of the Guru? I cannot survive even for a moment without Waheguru; please connect me to the Guru so that I may drink the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. Pause.

Divine Knowledge (connection with Waheguru) can be acquired through the Guru only when one also ponders on the origin of everything (Waheguru). By reciting the Naam of Waheguru, the filthy mind regains its shine (after the filth is removed) and the darkness due to the effects of Waheguru's Maya is dispelled. But only those who love Waheguru's Naam have it prewritten on their foreheads right from the beginning. 1. I wish to sing Waheguru's virtues, and listen to them because it is Waheguru's praise by which one attains a high spiritual state (above the effects of Maya). I have acquired the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam from the Guru, and now my body and mind are fully absorbed in the Naam. The Guru (who is a manifestation of Waheguru) is worthy of our respect, who has bestowed the worship of Waheguru on me. I have found the Guru who has connected me with Waheguru. 2. The King, Waheguru, is the provider (source) of all the virtues, whereas we are full of vices. We sinners, heavy like a rock with our sins, are saved from drowning in the sea of Maya by the Guru's advice. Waheguru, the source of virtues, is pure (without any vice), whereas we are sinners. We, the incorrigible idiots, are in Your shelter; please save (salvage) us, oh Waheguru. 3. When an individual recites Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter, he enjoys the bliss of the higher spiritual state; he realizes the Waheguru-friend, and feels as if the song of joy is playing in his heart. It is my prayer to Waheguru that He be kind and gift me His Naam, which I wish to recite all the time. The slave, Nanak(u), begs for the dust of the feet of those who have realized Waheguru. 4.4.18.38.

NOTE: The word “Chautha” following the digit 4 in the heading of the Shabad explains how to pronounce “4”. It is Not to be pronounced four, but “fourth”.

Word Meaning: Shast, Simrit = Hindu Granths. Gorukh(u) = the name of the founder of the Yoga sect. Moorukh = ignorant (in the eyes of the world). 1. Gut(i) = condition; situation. Bhuj(u) = recite the name. Bhuoujul(u) = the world-sea. Taari = boat. Pause. Bibhoot = ash. Dayh = body. Svaari = adorned; modified. Triya = woman. Tiyaag(u) = renouncing; staying away. Brahamchaari = celibacy. Aas = hope; dependence. 2. Khuttri = an upper caste warrior. Soortun(u) = chivalry. Shood(u) = the untouchable (the lowest caste in Hinduism). Vaiysh(u) = the second lowest class, including farmers and traders. Per Kirt(u) = service to others. 3. Srisht(i) = world. Smaayee = pervading. Tayk = support. Tikaayee = based. 4.

MEANING: (To please the gods of their choice), the Brahmans read their religious books like the Shastras and the Simritis, while the yogi recites the name of Gorakh – the founder of their sect. However, (in the eyes of the people, I am ignorant) because I recite Waheguru’s Naam only. 1. I do not know (do not care) what people think of my situation, oh Waheguru, but I will recite Your Naam in my mind, which is the boat for me to swim across the sea of Maya. Pause. The Sanyasi adorns (according to his own belief) his body by covering it with ash, and practises celibacy by staying away from other women. (People may think of me as an ignoramus), But I depend only on You, oh my Waheguru. 2. The warrior displays his chivalry and is honoured for that. The untouchables and the farmers serve others as their duty to the upper classes; (people may think that I am ignorant), but Waheguru’s Naam is my only support, which gets one freedom from all bonds in Waheguru’s Court. 3. The whole world is Yours, and You are pervading everywhere, oh Waheguru! The devotees of the Guru are honoured by Waheguru, oh Nanak. Waheguru’s Naam is the real support for me, the ignorant. 4.1.39.

Word Meaning: Nirgoon = formless; above the effects of Maya. Kutha = saga; narrative. Bhuj(u) = recite (the Naam). Bhuoujul(u) = sea of Maya. 1. Gobind = Waheguru. Rusna = tongue. Pause. Daasun(i) Dass = servant of slaves. Jun = supreme devotee. Ootum = superior. 2. Jun Pug Rayn(u) = dust of the feet of the devotee. Vudbhaagee = lucky. 3. Likhiya Dhoor(i) = prewritten right from the beginning. 4.

MEANING: Of all the sagas, the saga of the Waheguru, which is formless and above the effects of Maya, is supreme. Recite Waheguru’s Naam in the company of the Guru and His congregation, and swim across the sea of Maya by listening to the narrative of the indescribable Waheguru, oh my friend. 1. Connect me with the congregation of the holy devotees so that I may sing Your sweet praise with my tongue, oh Waheguru. Pause. Please make me the slave of slaves of those who recite Your Naam, oh Waheguru. Serving the devotees of Waheguru is the noblest deed. 2.

I like the narrator of the saga of Waheguru. But, only a highly fortunate individual gets to touch the dust of the feet of such a supreme devotee. 3. Only those lucky individuals who are predestined right from the beginning develop love for the supreme devotees of Waheguru. Such individuals stay absorbed in the Naam, oh Nanak. 4.2.40.

Jun Nanak preet(i) Sadh pug chaatay. 4.3.41.

Word Meaning: Preet(i) = affection; blissfulness; overjoyed. Meenay = fish. 1. Buchhray = young calf. Kaamun(i) = woman; wife. Ja = when. 2. Saaring = rainbird; a bird which is believed to drink only the first drop of rain, and that too only during a special period of time. Juldhaara = clouds. Nurput(i) = king. Pusaara = expansion. 3. Nur Praani = man. Khaatay = earn. Gulaatay = by the neck; hug tightly. Sadh pug = feet (Shabad) of the Guru. Chaatay = lick; kiss. 4.

MEANING: A mother feels overjoyed when her son is fed. The fish feels happy when she swims in water, but Satguru feels blissful when His Sikh is fed. 1.
Connect me with those dear devotees of Yours, meeting with whom, all my discomforts (and worries) go away, oh Waheguru. Pause. A cow feels happy to express her affection when she is connected with her calf; a wife feels overjoyed when her husband gets home. But a devotee feels blissful when he sings Waheguru's praise. 2. The rainbird feels happy when it rains, and a king feels happy to see the expansion of his wealth (or territory). But a Waheguru's devotee feels blissful when he recites the Naam of the Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya. 3.
A man feels happy when he earns wealth, and a Gur Sikh feels overjoyed when the Guru hugs him tightly. The slave, Nanak, feels blessed when he licks the dust of the feet of his Guru (humbly serves Him by obeying His Advice). 4.3.41

Jun Nanak preet(i) triput(i) Gur(u) Saacha. 4.4.42.

Word Meaning: Bheekhuk = beggar. Preet(i) = affection; satisfaction; happiness. Bheekh = alms. Unn(u) = food. Aghaayay = content. 1. Dershun(u) = respectful word for “seeing”; sight. Loach = longing. Pause. Chuckvee = ruddy duck; ੳ bird that is believed to call her mate all night, which gets separated at night, and meets her after sunrise. Tiyaagaiy = dispelled. Mookh(i) Laagaiy = see face- to-face 2. Buchhray = calf. Kheer(u) = milk. Hirdaiy = at heart. Bigsaiy = feels very happy. 3. Kaacha = weak; short=lived. Koorra = not real; short-lived. Kuch Paacha = half-cooked; temporary. Triput(i) = contentment. 4.

MEANING: A beggar feels very happy when his prayer to God is answered, and he gets alms; a starving man feels happy when he gets food to eat. But a Gur Sikh loves meeting the Guru and feels very happy when it happens. 1. Please fulfill my longing to see You, I am waiting with the hope that You will show me Your holy Sight, oh Waheguru! Pause. Separated from her mate, the ruddy duck stays awake all night in his love, and waits impatiently for the sun to rise so that she can connect with her dear, when all her pining would be gone. But a Gur Sikh loves to see his Guru face-to-face. 2.
A calf feels satisfied to have his mother’s milk in his mouth, while his mother’s heart blooms to see him. But a Gur Sikh wishes for the Sight of his Guru (and is pleased when he gets that). 3. Any affection other than for the Guru is weak (short-lived), and the fake and temporary attachment ends soon. But the affection for the Guru is eternal, and is the source of bliss, oh Nanak. 4.4.42.

Word Meaning: Suful = leading to success; rewarding. Dhuni = Lord; (source of everything to fulfill our needs); Waheguru. Chooti = freed from all bonds. Ghunee = very many. 1.

Vus(i) = under control. Dhaavut = rushing in different directions. Punch = the five (senses). Undin(u) = everyday; always. Nugree = town; heart. 2. Pug Dhoor(i) = dust of the feet (show respect by obeying). Koorr = not real; worthless activities. Tiyaagay = abandoned. Liv = connected with full concentration. Oojul Mookh = radiating faces exuding love for God. 3. Bhaavaiy = is liked. Bulbhudur(u) = Bulram (elder brother of Krishna).4.
MEANING: Recite Waheguru (His Naam) which dispels all the sins, oh my Gur Sikh brothers. Pause. Service to the Guru is always rewarding as one recites the Naam of Waheguru, which is the source of everything to fulfill our needs, in His (Guru's) Company. Whosoever worships Waheguru, enables a large number of other people to get freedom from the bonds of Maya, and find salvation. 1. I was able to control my mind after connecting with the Guru when all my five senses, which were rushing in different directions, quit wandering. My whole body and mind began to sing the virtues of Waheguru all the time. 2. Those, who put the dust of the feet of Satguru on their face (obey his advice) abandon the short-lived comforts of life, and stay connected with Waheguru. Their faces radiate in Waheguru's Court (they are honoured there). 3.
Waheguru likes service to the Guru. Krishan Ji, and his elder brother Balram, also worshipped (Waheguru) sitting at the feet of their Guru. Waheguru, Himself grants salvation to the devotees of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.5.43.

Hur(i) aapay Nanak paavaiy paara. 4.6.44.
Word Meaning: Dundadhaari = holding baton (of yogis) in hand. Ruv Ruhiya = pervading. Banvaari = a name for Waheguru). Tup(u) Taapaiy = meditator, and endurer of self-imposed hardships. Taari = taarri = deep meditation. 1. Bhurpoor(i) = filling completely. Nicket = close by. Pause. Soorut(i) = attention; awareness. Dhoon(i) = devotion. Vigsaiy = blooms. 2. Saaring = rainbird; a bird which is believed to drink only the first drop of rain, and that too which happens only during a special period of time; desirous of Naam-Amrit. Nistaara = deliverance (from bonds of Maya). 3.
Toolha = a crude flat boat; raft. Taara = ferry. Paavaiy Paara = ferries across. 4.
MEANING: My Waheguru is such that He is pervading everywhere; therefore, he is very close to everyone, and not far away. Pause. Being omnipresent, Waheguru is present in the yogis too; so He is also the one who holds the yogis' baton in His hand, endures physical hardships, and settles into deep meditation. 1.
Waheguru Himself is everything – the Shabad, devotion and awareness. He watches His creation and feels joyful. Waheguru Himself inspires people to recite His Naam, and being present in them, it is also He who recites His Naam. 2. Waheguru Himself is the rainbird, and Himself causes rain, which is like a stream of Amrit (life-sustaining liquid) for the rainbird. He also serves Naam-Amrit to the devotees. Sitting in the living beings, it is Waheguru who does everything; and He Himself salvages the people by emancipating them (from the bonds of Maya). 3. Waheguru Himself is the ferry, the raft, and the boat for the people to cross the sea of Maya by prompting them to take Guru's shelter. Waheguru Himself takes the people to the other end of the sea, oh Nanak. 4.6.44.

Jun Nanak Shah(u) Hur(i) sayviya, phir(i) laykha mool(i) na layee. 4.1.7.45.

Word Meaning: Shah(u) = money lender (source of virtues). Dhuni = Lord; rich in virtues. Raas(i) = capital (of virtues); character (nature). Vunjeh = do trading; deal in. Rung = affection. Siyoun = with. Duyaal(u) = kind. 1. Vunjaaray = dealers in. Vunuj(u) = trade. Pause. Laaha = profit; benefit. Khuttiya = earned. Bhaaya = liked. Vukkhur(u) = merchandise. Luddiya = loaded. Jum Jagaati = the taxman of the Angel of death. 2. Anunt = countless. Trungeen = waves; attractions of Maya. Ful(u) = result. 3. Laykha = account (of deeds). Mool(i) Na = not at all. 4.

MEANING: We are the traders of Waheguru's Naam. He gives us the character (qualities) as capital to do business in His Naam. Pause. You are our Lord, and the wealthy source of virtues, oh Waheguru. Whatever qualities You give us to shape our character, we inherit just those. We can deal in Your Naam with affection only if You instill that in us with Your kindness. 1. The eternal source of virtues, Waheguru, likes us dealing in His Naam, and we earn His worship as an added benefit (to swim across the sea of Maya). We have loaded the merchandise of His Naam to worship Him, as a result of which the taxman (demanding account of our vices, which we do not have any more) of the Angel of death cannot even come near us. 2. Other kinds of dealings involve Maya, which attracts humans in countless ways, and the dealers in such dealings suffer greatly. They reap the rewards of the dealings to which they have been put by Waheguru. 3.
Only those individuals deal in Waheguru's Naam who are (prompted by) Waheguru's benevolence to do so. Nobody checks the deeds of those who serve the eternal source of virtues – Waheguru – oh Nanak. 4.7.45.

Word Meaning: Jun-nee = mother. Gerbh(u) = pregnancy. Paalti = nourishes. Soot = son. Ker Bhog Bilaasa = to enjoy life. Raakhda = protects. Day Huthaasa = giving hand; by supporting. 1. Goosuyyiyaan = Lord of the world (Waheguru). Oopma = praise. Vuduyiya = praise; credit; greatness. Pause. Mundar(i) Ghur(i) = heart. Anund = bliss. Jus(u) = praise. Rus = juices; essences. Parvaar Sudhaar = refiner (saviour) of the clan. Ikkih Kooleen = twenty-one generations. (It is a Hindu belief that a devotee salvages his 21 generations). This number has been used in Guru Granth Sahib many times to underscore the importance of worshiping Waheguru, but generations do not mean ancestors or future generations. It means associates and the followers. 2.
Vertda = operates. Bhugut(i) Bhundaar = treasures of worship. Luhayaynda = provides (makes available/ Vertaayee = serves. 3. Laala = slave. Haat(i) Vihaajhiya = (as if) bought at a shop; paid for. Chuturaayee = cleverness. Ghaasi = one who makes his living by selling grass. Kudhaayee = is free from the possible punishment for bad deeds; receives salvation. 4.

MEANING: Just as a mother nourishes her pregnancy (fetus) with the hope that a son would be born who will provide her the necessities to enjoy life, Waheguru protects (sustains) the love of His devotee by providing support. 1. I am ignorant, protect (help) me (so that I may worship You), oh my Waheguru, oh the Lord of the earth. The praise of Your devotee is Your praise, oh Waheguru. Pause. The individual, who cherishes Waheguru's praise, enjoys bliss in his mind-home. He enjoys all tastes when he sings Waheguru's virtues with his tongue. The supreme devotee of Waheguru is a strong support to his family of associates and enables their many clans (associates) to attain freedom from the bonds of Maya. 2. If an individual performs noble deeds, the credit and praise go to Waheguru, because He is the one who does all that (inspires the individual to do so). Waheguru owns all human beings, and He operates in all of them; He makes them worship Him. He is the source of all the treasures of worship, and serves it (makes it available) (His worship) to everybody. 3.
I am a bought slave (like an item bought at a store of which the buyer is the master) of Waheguru (I have no claim on my life now), so what cleverness can I be proud of? If Waheguru puts me on a royal throne, I will still be His slave, and if He makes me a grass-seller (being His slave), His Naam will protect me from all attractions of Maya (I will be salvaged). It is Waheguru's greatness that I am His slave, oh Nanak. 4.8.46.

Word Meaning: Kirsaani = farming. Loachaiy = longs for; wishes. Jeeo Laayay = with full dedication. Hul(u) = (manual) tiller. Jotaiy = operates. Oodum(u) = effort. Unt(i) = in the end. Chhudaayay = gets freedom from Maya (provides salvation). 1.
Gut(i) = higher spiritual state. Kaam = deeds (of spirituality). Pause.
Tooray = horses. Saugari = for trading. Dhaavaiy = rushes. Khutaiy = earns. 2.
Bikh(u) = poison; Maya. Sunchaiy = accumulates. Hutvaania = shop-keeper. Jhootth = temporary. Pusaara = expanse. Luptaayay = clings to. 3.
Kootumb(u) = family. Bhaayay = in the love of. Phaas = snare; shackled. Turaiy = swims across. Daasun(i) Dass = slave of slaves. Pergaas = enlightenment. 4.

MEANING: A farmer works with full dedication and wishes for a good crop. He puts in a lot of effort and operates the tiller to provide food for his son and daughter (his family). Exactly the same way (with the same dedication), a devotee of Waheguru recites His Naam, which gets him salvation in the end. 1. I am highly ignorant, please raise my spiritual state (enlighten me), oh my Waheguru. Please, put me in the service of the Guru which is the real deed (objective) of human life. Pause. A trader rushes to trade his horses with the hope that he will make a big profit, which further enhances his attachment with Maya. Exactly the same way, the devotee of Waheguru recites His Naam and enjoys the bliss (of union with Him). 2. A shopkeeper accumulates wealth by running his shop, and even though his expansion of business and his love for money are false (short-lived), he still clings to the false things. Exactly the same way, the devotee of Waheguru accumulates the wealth of His Naam which serves as his journey expenses (to the next world where he will be honoured). 3. The attachment to the family and money is the love for the other (Maya), which serves as a snare for the individual (and keeps him disconnected from Waheguru). Only that individual finds salvation with Guru's advice who becomes very humble like a slave of slaves. I am a devotee of Waheguru, and have recited His Naam in the shelter of the Guru who has enlightened my mind, oh Nanak. 4.3.9.47.

Word Meaning: Laaluch(u) = greed; voracity. Bhermaiy = runs around aimlessly. Bhermaaya = misled. Vaygar = forced labour (with no compensation). Otthaaya = carries. Ghur Kaiy Kumm(i) = working for self interest (union with God). 1. Nur = Praani = man. Chaakri = service. Urth(i) = for (the sake of). Kaiy = either; or Daan(i) = tax; punishment. Dhunn(u) = worthy of worship (respect). Suful = rewarding. 2. Nit = everyday. Sauda sood(u) = trading; business. Buhou Bhaant(i) = of many diferent ways. Taayeen = for. Laaha = profit. Munay = feel. Toataiy = loss. Saanjhi = share; gets. Siyoun = from. Nit Nit = everyday; always. 3. Jitnee = as much. Un Rus Saad = taste of other sweet substances. Titnee = the same. Vaychay = sells. Triptiya = contented. 4.

MEANING: Please, free me from the bonds of Maya, and put me in the real business (objective) of life, which is to sing Your virtues and get fully absorbed in Naam, oh my Waheguru. Pause. Misled by his greed, the man runs around aimlessly day and night carrying a heavy load of misdeeds. (In the realm of spirituality), his deeds are like forced labour for which there is no reward. On the other hand, an individual, who serves the Guru, has been put to work for his self-interest (union with God) by Waheguru. 1.

A man may join the services of a king for money; but it is possible that the king may imprison him, or give some other punishment (if he gets mad for some reason), or the king may even die (leaving the man without any service benefits). (So, such service is risky). However, serving the Guru is always rewarding. The Guru gives His Sikh the gift of Naam, which he recites and enjoys its bliss. 2. For the sake of money, the man runs various businesses every day. When he makes a profit, he feels good, but when he loses, he feels like he has died. But the virtues, which he acquires from the Guru, are always comforting. 3. The more the appetite for the enjoyment of other tastes that one has, the more he longs for them, and he never gets contented. But, the individual, to whom Waheguru is kind, sells his head (mind; thinking) to the Guru (he takes Guru's advice) as a result of which the individual gets fully content with Waheguru's Naam-juice, and never feels hungry again, oh Nanak. 4.4.10. 48.

Word Meaning: Chit(i) = in memory (mind). Ders(s) = (holy) glimpse; sight. Koorbani = offer to sacrifice. Vichhurriya = separated. Sirjunhaara = Creator. 1. Shern(i) = (seek) shelter. Dooaar(i) = door. Mut(u) = may be; hopefully. Nirgoon = devoid of virtues. Kubhoon = sometime. Pause. Uvgoon = vices. Gunut(u) = counting. Goonvunta = rich in virtues. Duyyaal = kind. Bukhsh = forgive. Bhaaaiy = liking. Upraadhi = sinner, guilty. Oopdaysh = advice. Chhudaayay = gets free (from any sin and bonds of Maya). 2. Bisum = mesmerized; enthralled. Bundhup = close relative. Sukha = friend. 3. Bidh(i) = situation; condition. Sa = that. Rooltay Phirtay = degraded; insulted everywhere. Keeray = worms. Thaapay = gave dignity. Chookay = ended. Soag = grief. Suntaapay = sufferings. 4.

MEANING: I am a sinner, and have come to Your Door to seek Your shelter with the hope that maybe You will be kind sometime, and connect an unwise person like me, who is devoid of virtues, with You, oh my Waheguru. Pause. I wish it, but do not know how to have a holy glimpse of Yours, oh Waheguru. Waheguru, which has instilled this affection for Him in me, knows all about my desire that I love Him very much. I wish to sacrifice my life for my Guru, who has connected me to my Creator, from whom I had been disconnected. 1. I have so many vices that they cannot be counted even if I try again and again; but You are full of (source of) virtues, and are so kind that You forgive people like me at Your pleasure, oh Waheguru. Sinners like me are saved in the company of the Guru, who teaches us that Waheguru's Naam is the real saviour. 2. How can I describe Your virtues when I get mesmerized while describing them, oh my Satguru? Who else can save a guilty person (sinner) like me the way my Satguru has saved me by freeing me from the bonds of Maya? You are my father, my mother, my close relative, and my friend, oh my Satguru. 3. You know the (pathetic) condition I would have been in, oh my Satguru. I would have been degraded and insulted everywhere, and nobody would have even talked to me. But You have given dignity to me –to this worm – oh my Satguru. My Guru is worthy of my worship in whose company all my griefs and sufferings have vanished, oh Nanak. 4.5.11.49.

Word Meaning: Kunchun = gold. Jeeo = mind. Loobhut(u) = greedy of; engrossed; occupied. Mundar = mansion. Un Rus = other tastes. Chhootaan = get freedom from Maya. Hur(i) Raaya = Waheguru-King. 1. Neech Kerm = ignoble deeds. Goonvunta = rich in (source of) virtues. Bukhsh = forgive. Uvgun = ill=qualities; vices. Pause. Roop = beauty; good qualities. Jaat(i) = (higher) caste; status in society. Dhung = civility to deal with others. Kiya mooh(i) = with what face. Goon-bihoon = devoid of good qualities. Oobray = salvaged. Poonn(u) = kindness; noble deed. Kayra = of. 2. Jeeo = life. Pind(u) = body. Vertun Kuou = for use. Unn(u) = food. Painun(u) = clothes. Un(i) = other. Bhogaani = to enjoy. Pusoo = animal. Huoun = mine. 3. Vertda = operates. Untarjaami = omniscient. Junt = living beings; creatures. Vichaaray = helpless. Khayl(u) = drama. Soami = Lord. Haat(i) Vihaajhiya = bought from the market. Goolum Goolaami = slave of salves. 4.

MEANING: My mind is fully engrossed in the love for my wife and gold (wealth), and I find the attachment with Maya to be sweet, oh my Waheguru. I feel zestful to see my mansion and horses, and my mind is enjoying the tastes of many other sweet (attractive) things. You never come to my mind, so how will I find salvation, oh Your Majesty, my Waheguru? 1. Such are my ignoble deeds, oh my Waheguru. You are the source of all virtues, and are kind; please, forgive me for all my vices, oh my Waheguru. Pause.

I have no good looks, no high caste (status in society), no civility in my dealings with others, and no other good qualities. I have not even recited Your Naam, so with what face can I talk to You, oh my Waheguru? It is Satguru's kindness that a sinner like me has found salvation in His company. 2. (The kind) Waheguru has given us life, a body (and important organs like the mouth and nose), and water to use. He also gave us food to eat, clothes to wear, and many other tasty things for us to enjoy. But the thankless man never brings such kind Waheguru in mind, and the animal thinks that everything belongs to him. 3. Everything, that is operating (happening) in the universe, is Your creation, and You are omniscient, oh Waheguru. What can we helpless creatures do? It is all Your drama, oh God. I am a slave of Waheguru's slaves who has been bought in the market (I have no independent existence), oh Nanak. 4.6.12.50.

Word Meaning: Jun-nee = who gives birth (mother). Jun(i) = after giving birth. Soot = son. Paalti = raises. Mujhaar(i) = in. Giraas(u) = bite (nibble) of food. Khin(u) Khin(u) = every moment. Poachaar(i) = with deep affection. 1. Iyaanay = ignorant; child-like. Paandha = teacher. Oopdaysh(u) = advice. Pause. Gugun(i) = in the sky. Kupray (Kupprray) Baagay Waali = wearing white clothes = Koonj (a white bird which is believed to feed her chicks from a long distance by simply thinking of them while picking food). Cheet = thoughts. Bich(i) = in. Buchray = chicks. Hirdaiy = in the heart. Saar(i) Smaali = takes care. 2. Kaati = knife. Tees Butees = 30-32 (teeth). Rusna = tongue. Rutt(u) = blood. Kayri = of. Koyee Jaanjou = lest someone think. Vusgut(i) = in the control. Ninda = malicious criticism. Paiyj = dignity. 3. Jura = old age. Mura = death. Taap(u) = fever. Sirut(u) = headache. Saap(u) = curse. Untee Ausur = at the time of death. Chhudaaya = salvages.4.

MEANING: Just as a mother raises her son after giving him birth, and always keeping him in her sight and feeding him with affection inside and out all the time; the Satguru nurtures His Sikhs with the spiritual food of love and affection for Waheguru. 1.
We, the children of God are highly ignorant; but the Satguru-Teacher is great, is great, who has made us wise (enlightened us) by his advice, oh Waheguru. Pause.
Just like the white-coloured koonj which flies in the sky away from her chicks, but still feeds them by keeping them in mind while picking food, the Satguru always keeps His Sikhs in mind to deliver the love of Waheguru to them. 2. Think of the amazing thing how Waheguru protects the tongue, which is made of flesh and blood, from the sharp knife of the 30-32 teeth in the mouth. Someone may think that the tongue and the teeth have some control; no, not at all; it is all in the control of Waheguru. Just as Waheguru protects the tongue in the mouth, He protects the dignity of His supreme devotees from any harm from their malicious critics. 3. Let no one ever think that he has control over the happenings in everyday life, oh my brother. Humans do only what they are made to do by Waheguru. Even sufferings like old age, death, fever, headache, curses, etc., are under the control of Waheguru, and nobody else can cause them. So, recite Naam of such Waheguru with body and mind all the time which emancipates you in the end, oh slave, Nanak. 4.7.13.51.

Gaavaahi = makes to sing. 4.
MEANING: How can I connect with my dear Satguru? I wish to kneel before Him every moment; but I do not know how to connect with Him. Pause. Satguru is the one in whose company the mind feels blissful, and the indecisiveness of the mind due to any doubts vanishes; and one attains the highest spiritual state (where the mind becomes one with Waheguru). 1. Waheguru kindly connected me with my Perfect Satguru, as a result of which my wish was fulfilled, and I was able to get the dust of His feet (show my affectionate respect). 2. My Satguru reiterates and explains the importance of worshiping Waheguru, which never experiences any shortage. Actually, we earn the benefit (favour of Waheguru) by constantly remembering His worship in our minds. 3.

The Satguru, who has no love for Maya, and whose heart is always blooming (blissful), makes us sing Waheguru's praise, and we find salvation on meeting with Him. Oh Nanak. 4.8.14.52.

MEANING: Oh, my infinite, and the Lord of the world, Waheguru! You are the life of the world, and the author of the fate of living beings. We follow only the path You motivate us to follow. 1. My heart has been imbued in Your love, oh Waheguru. I have realized the sweetness of Your Naam in the company of the holy congregation of Your devotees, and I am fully absorbed in Your Naam. Pause. Waheguru’s eternal Naam is the panacea of all diseases in the world. All the sins and the vices of those who taste Waheguru’s sweet Naam by the advice of the Guru, are washed away (vanish). 2.
Those who have their destiny pre-written on their forehead right from the Source (are predestined to do so), take a dip in the pool of contentment of the Guru (they get contented). All the filth of the ill thoughts of all those who are imbued in Waheguru’s Naam is washed away. 3. You alone are the Lord of the world, and nobody is as great a provider as You are, oh Waheguru. I can survive only by worshipping Waheguru’s Naam, but only with His kindness, oh Nanak. 4.2.16.54.

Word Meaning: Jugjeevun = life of the world (Waheguru). Sayti = with. Raachay = mix well; get absorbed. Buchun = advice. Ut(i) = extreme. Nirmul(u) = clean; pure; pious. Maachay = fires up. 1. Ram = Waheguru. Baydh(i) = pierced. Kaal = death (spiritual). Grussiya = trapped in; in the grip of. Baachay = saved; protected. Pause.
Sakut = Maya-engrossed. Moorr = foolish. Nur = men. Kaachay = weak-minded. Bhaari = heavy, big. Vishta = feces (Maya). Paachay = rot; suffer. 2. Shern Pritpaaluk = protect those who seek shelter. Jaachay = wish for. Dass = slave. Nirt(i) = dance. Naachay = dance. 3. Shah = wealthy; lender (source) of virtues. Vunjaaray = traders Ta Chay = His. Raas(i) = investment. 4.

MEANING: My body and my mind have been pierced (impacted deeply) by You, oh my Waheguru. Whereas the whole world is in the grip of (spiritual) death, I have been saved by the advice of the Guru, my Satguru. Pause.
Please be kind, and inspire me so that my mind is fully absorbed in Your Naam, oh, the life of the world, and the provider for the whole world, Waheguru. Please connect me with Satguru so that my mind is fired up to recite Your Naam with His pure and holy advice. 1. Those men who are money-minded and have no affection for Waheguru are foolish and weak-minded. They love Maya, as a result of which they rot in the big suffering of reincarnation. 2. You are very kind and protect all those who seek Your shelter, oh Waheguru. Please give me the gift of Your love so that my mind may long for You. Please make me the slave of Your slaves so that my mind may dance in bliss with love for You. 3. You are the source of all virtues, and I am the trader for them. My (Guru Nanak's) body and mind are all Your property, and You are my eternal King, oh Waheguru. 4. 3.17.55.

Word Meaning: Dookh Bhunjun = the destroyer of suffering. Binou = request. Day Kaanay = lend a careful ear; pay attention. Jis Tay = from whom. Jaanay = recognized; realized. Praanay = life. 1. Maanay = acknowledge; consider; give respect. Moor = Moogdh = foolish. Ashoodh = impure. Buchun(i) = advice. Pause.
Rus Un Rus = all kinds of tastes (enjoyments). Feek feekaanay = absolutely distasteful. Chaakhiya = tasted. Meetth Rus Gaanay = sweet as sugarcane. 2.
Bhatiya = met with. Saakut = money-minded. Divaanay = crazy. Kermheen = unlucky. Deepak(u) = lamp. Moh(I) = attachment. Puchaanay = burn. 3. Sayv Lugaanay = put to service. Pergtay = appeared; became famous. Smaanay = absorbed. 4.

MEANING: I consider Satguru as Your manifestation, oh Waheguru. I am foolish and have impure (filthy) thinking, but with Satguru's advice, I have come to recognize (made a connection with) You, oh Waheguru. Pause. You are very kind, and the destroyer of all suffering, oh Waheguru. Please listen to my request with full attention. Kindly connect me with the Satguru, who is my life, and with whose advice I can recognize (connect with) You. 1. I have found out that all other kinds of enjoyments that I have tasted are completely distasteful. But when I tasted the Amrit-Naam, I found it as sweet as sugarcane juice. 2. Those money-minded people, who have not connected with Satguru, are foolish and insane. They are unlucky right from the beginning (created by Waheguru), which are senseless like a moth that is not aware of the burning heat of the lamp, and suffers. 3. Those, whom You kindly connect with You, begin to serve You, and with Guru's advice, they get fully absorbed in Your Naam. With the recital of Your Naam, such devotees become famous (in the world), oh Nanak. 4.4.18.56.

Jun Nanak Hur(i) Prubh(i) pooray keeyay, khin(u) maasa toal(u) na ghutiyaiy. 5.5.19.57

Word Meaning: Kuhou Kithaiy = say (tell) where. Bukhshay = forgive. Chhootiyaiy = freedom from the bonds of Maya. 1. Jupiyaiy = recite (Naam). Shernaayee Bhuj(i) Puou = run to the shelter of. Pause. Nij Ghur Vusiyaiy = mind stays in itself (quits wandering). Luhou = get. Ghus(i) = graze; abrade. Chundun = sandalwood. Hur(i) Jus(i) = Waheguru's praise. 2. Ootum(u) = superior. Lahaa = profit. Chukhiyaiy = to taste. 3. Bina = without; rather than. Doojaiy Laagaiy = get attached to the other (Maya). Ghootiyaiy = strangulate. Visaariya = dropped from mind. Bhitiyaiy = go close; touch. 4. Alukh = inconceivable. Nirunjun = above the effects of Maya (Waheguru). Nurhur(i) = Waheguru. Laykha = account (of deeds). Pooray Keeyay = made perfect. Khin = a small amount. Maasa and Toala = very small weighing units for gold. Ghutiyaiy = lose; become less.

MEANING: You must realize that Waheguru is always with us, oh my mind; so, where can we run away from Him (where can we hide our misdeeds)? Only the eternal Waheguru can forgive us for our ill deeds, and He is the only one who can save us from the bonds of Maya. 1. We must always remember Waheguru by reciting His Naam, and to do that, rush to take the refuge of Satguru because we can escape the bonds of Maya only by following His advice, oh my mind. Pause. Seek the refuge of Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts, and recite His Naam by means of which you will stay in your own home (attain peace and quit wandering), oh my mind. Just as sandalwood gives off fragrance when it is rubbed against a rock, to produce the fragrance of Waheguru's sweet Naam, rub yourself with Waheguru, oh my mind. 2. Singing Waheguru's praise, and only Waheguru's praise, is the best and the most profitable business as it produces bliss, oh my mind. But you cannot do it on your own; you can taste the Amrit-Juice only by the benevolence of God. 3. People who indulge in Maya rather than Waheguru's Naam are strangulated by the Angel of death. Those money-minded people who have dropped Waheguru's Naam from their hearts are thieves (who steal Waheguru's gifts because they do not even thank Him); you should not even get close to them, oh my mind. 4.
You should serve the incomprehensible Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya so that nobody asks any question about the account of your deeds, oh my mind. Waheguru makes His devotees perfect to the extent that they are not short (of the standards set by Waheguru for His approval) even by a very small amount, oh Nanak. 5.5.19.57.

Word Meaning: Vusgut(i) = control. Jeeo = life. Pind(u) = body. Durs(u) = (holy) sight. Loach = longing; wish. Ghunary = deep; very much. 1. Kayri = of. Kinchut(i) = a little. Pause. Chit(i) = in mind. Sa = that. Bidh(i) = condition. Undin(u) = every day. 2. Daatay = provider; benevolent. Punth = path (to connect with Waheguru). Anund = blissfulness. Bhuyya = happened. Pooji = fulfilled. 3. Jugun-Nath = Jugdeeshur = Lord of the world. Kertay = the creator. Paiyj = dignity. Jun = slave; devotee. 4.

MEANING: My life is in Your control, and my body and my mind are given by You, oh my Waheguru. Please, be kind, and let me have a glimpse of Yours; my body and my mind long for Your Sight, oh Waheguru. 1. My mind and my body have a strong yearning to connect with You, oh my Waheguru. The benevolent Guru was very kind to me as well, and He connected me with You, oh my Waheguru. Pause. Whatever is in my mind, You know all that, oh my Lord. I wish to recite Your Naam every day (all the time), and I enjoy bliss simply by hoping to connect with You. 2. The benevolent Satguru showed me the path (to connect with You), and I did connect with You. With great luck, my hope (wish) as a devotee has been fulfilled, and I am feeling blissful all the time. 3. Everything is under the control of Waheguru, the creator and Lord of the world. The slave (Guru) Nanak has come to Your shelter; kindly save my dignity (save me from the bonds of Maya), oh Waheguru. 6.20.58.

Word Meaning: Munooa = fickle mind. Khin(u) = a moment. Tikaiy = stabilize. Deh Dis(i) = ten directions (every direction). Haanday = wanders aimlessly. Muntar(u) = mantra. Tthaandhay = stops; stabilizes. 1. Laalay = slaves. Kaandhay = are called; are known as. Pause. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Daag(u) = scars. Dugaana = branded. Kurj = debt (of favours). Saandhay = accumulated. Peroopkaar(u) = selfless favours to others. Poonn(u) = noble deeds. Bhuou = Bhuvjul(u) = the world-sea. Dootur(u) = very difficult to cross. Taar(i) puraadhay = ferried across. 2.

Kooray = perishable; fake (show off). Gaandhun Gaandhay = bondings. Kaagud(u) = paper. Binus(i) = is destroyed (dissolves). Gerbh(i) = in the womb. Glaadhay = rot. 3.
Jaaniya = realized. Aagaiy = next world. Tthandhay = stay (accept His Will). Bhool Chook = mistakes and omissions. Kootray = puppies (pets); humble servants. Kaandhay = are called. 4.
MEANING: The fickle mind does not stabilize even for a single moment, and wanders in every possible direction seeking to enjoy different colourful attractions of the world. But, when a highly fortunate individual connects with the Perfect Guru, his mind finds stability with the advice of the Guru and by reciting Waheguru's Naam. 1. I am known as Your slave, oh my Waheguru. Pause. I have accumulated too many favours (kindnesses) of the Guru for which I am His slave, and have been branded on the forehead as such (it is a show of respect for the Guru). The Guru has done a huge favour to me, which is a highly noble deed on His part, that I have been ferried across the world sea, which is otherwise next to impossible to swim across (the Guru has freed me from all evils). 2.
Those who have no affection for Waheguru have made very weak (temporary) connections with the world. The money-minded people rot in the womb (going through many life forms, thereby losing their permanent identity) like paper dissolves in water (and loses its identity). 3. I have realized that the man does not know anything about his future and must accept Waheguru's Will. (Guru) Nanak says that we are like a puppy in training, which makes mistakes; please be kind to us, oh my Waheguru. 4.7.21.59.

Word Meaning: Kaam(i) = lust. Nugur(u) = human body; world. Khundal Khunda = cut into pieces; destroyed. Poorub(i) Likhut = pre-written; predestined. Liv = connected with full concentration. Mundal = halo of light. Munda = adorned; decorated. 1.
Anjuli = bow down with folded hands. Poonn(u) = noble deed. Dundout = lie down flatly on the belly as a mark of respect. Pause. Saakut = Maya-engrossed; disconnected from God. Saad(u) = taste. Kunda = thorn. Choobhay = pierce. Jumkaal = (fear of) death. Dunda = baton (punishment). 2. Smaanay = absorbed. Bhuv = birth and death. Khunda = destroyed. Abinaashi Purakh = immortal Waheguru. Sobh = praise.

Khund Brahmunda = a part of the universe (world). 3. Greeb = poor; weak. Muskeen = humble. Adhaar(u) Tayk = support. Munda = source; realized. 4.
MEANING: The human body is full of lust and rage, which can be destroyed only in the company of the Guru. However, one cannot connect with the Guru on one's own; it happens only when one is predestined to meet with the Guru. With Guru's advice, one focuses his mind with full concentration on Waheguru, as a result of which his mind is enlightened and is adorned with virtues. 1. We must bow to the Guru with folded hands and even lie flat at His feet (to respect and obey His Commands); this is a (spiritually) noble deed. Pause. A Maya-rapt individual does not have any idea of the sweet taste of Waheguru's Naam, and has a thorn of haumein in his mind which pierces him when his ego is hurt in his routine work. As a result of his ego and his separation from Waheguru, he endures the baton (punishment) of death (reincarnation). 2. On the other hand, the devotees of Waheguru are fully absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, and their suffering of reincarnation is terminated. They realize the immortal Waheguru and earn praise in the world. 3.
We are humble and poor servants of Yours, oh Waheguru. You are great, great, oh Waheguru. Please protect us from Maya's attacks. His slave, Nanak, has the support of Waheguru's Naam alone, and the Naam is the source of all comfort. 4.4.22.60.

Word Meaning: Gurrh = fort (human body). Saad(u) Paavaiy = enjoy taste. Dheettha = shameless. Deen Duyyal = kind to the powerless. Anugreh = kindness. Chukh(i) = taste. Deettha = saw; experienced. 1. Keertun = singing praise. Liv = connect with full concentration. Pause. Agumm = beyond reach. Agochar = inconceivable. Laag(i) = connected with. Buseettha = mediator. Buchun = Word (advice). Sookhaanay = comforting. Hearaiy = in heart. Aan(i) = brought. Preettha = served. 2.
Munmukh = money-engrossed. Heara = heart. Ut(i) = extremely. Kutthoar = stone - hearted which does not soften. Kaar Kreettha = very dark (with evil thoughts). Bissiur = snake. Bikh = poison. Phoal(i) Phooleettha = thorough search. 3.
Ghus(i) = by grazing. Groorr(u) = a mantra which is believed to remove (destroy the effect of) the poison of snakes (Hindu Granths). Leettha = took away; removed. Laalay goalay = slaves. Kurooa = bitter. Meettha = sweet. 4.
MEANING: Even though the King Waheguru dwells in the human body, the shameless (money-engrossed) individual does not taste His Naam. However, when Waheguru, who is munificent to the powerless (humble), shows some kindness, the lucky individual enjoys the taste (of His Naam) with Guru's Shabad. 1. Concentrating on Your Naam, and singing Your praise in the shelter of the Guru, is very sweet, oh Waheguru. Pause. Waheguru, which is otherwise unreachable and incomprehensible, can be realized (connected) with the benevolence of the Guru, who serves as the mediator. The Guru delivers Waheguru's Naam to those who find the Guru's Word to be highly comforting. 2. The hearts of the money-engrossed individuals are hard like stone, and are filled with the darkness (filth) of misdeeds. They are like the snakes found to have venom when searched, no matter how much milk is fed to them. 3.

Please connect us with the Guru whose Shabad is like the Groorr(u) Mantra, which can soak the venom (evil thinking) of the money-engrossed individuals, oh, Waheguru. I am a slave of the Guru in whose company the bitter (poisonous) nature of the money-engrossed individuals becomes sweet, oh Nanak. 4.9.23.61.

Word Meaning: Urth(i) = with the objective of. Daatay = provider; kind. Drirraaya = reinforced. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Bhaag Subhaagay = good luck. 1.
Ghut(i) Ghut(I) = in every heart. Rumuyiya = Waheguru = Ram Raayay. Rumut = is present. Liv = connection with full dedication. Bherm(u) = misbelief. Bhuou= fear; worries. Bhaagay = is dispelled. 2. Undhiyaaraiy = in the dark. Deepuk = lamp. Julaayay = lighted. Binus(i) Binaasiyo = destroyed completely. Vust = (the desired) invaluable thing (Waheguru's Naam). Luhee = acquired. Jaagay = awakens. 3. Budhik = hunter; prey (in the claws). Jum = angel of death. Johun = watches closely. Abhaagay = unlucky. 4. Binou = request. Shern = shelter. Luj Paat(i) = dignity. 5.

MEANING: With Guru's advice, one is enabled to concentrate fully on Your Naam, oh, Waheguru. Pause. So, with the objective of connecting with Waheguru, I have sold my whole body (as a slave on which I have no claim now) to the Perfect Guru. The kind Guru has reinforced Waheguru's Naam in me, as a result of which, my great fortune has appeared on my forehead. 1. The Emperor-Waheguru is present in every heart, and one gets connected with Him only with full dedication to the Guru's advice. I would love to cut my body and mind into pieces, and offer to the Guru (this is just an expression of love and respect) who has dispelled all my misbeliefs and worries with His Word. 2.

Guru's Divine Knowledge is a powerful lamp that enlightens the dark (ignorant) minds and connects them with Waheguru. The darkness of ignorance vanishes completely, and the mind is awakened as the desired, invaluable Waheguru's Naam is acquired in the heart. 3.
The individual, disconnected from Waheguru, loves money and is its prey (prisoner), as it acts like a hunter. The Angel of Death begins to keep a close eye on him. They do not sell their head (wisdom) to the Guru (do not listen to His advice); such individuals are unlucky who are caught in the birth-death cycle. 4. Please, Waheguru, my Lord, kindly listen to my request; I wish to seek Your shelter. My Guru is the saviour of my dignity; I am His slave and have sold my head to Him, oh Nanak. 5.10.24.62

Bhaaya = if (as) You please. 4.

MEANING: I realized You by the Word (Advice) of the Guru, oh Waheguru. Pause.
I was highly conceited, egoistic, and ignorant in my thinking, but was fortunately able to overcome my selfishness upon meeting the Guru. My Guru is Great, is Great (worthy of respect), because of whom I fully recovered from my illness of ego and selfishness, and felt blissful, oh my Royal Waheguru. 1. I had a deep affection for Waheguru in my heart (but did not know how to connect with Him); the Guru showed me the path (to connect with Him). I offer my body and mind to the service of the Guru who enabled me to hug my separated Waheguru tightly (made a strong connection). 2.
I had a great affection (yearning) to "see"' Waheguru; my Guru "showed" Him in my heart. Now, I am enjoying the bliss of the high spiritual state for which I am fully sold to my Guru (have no right on my mind). 3. I committed many crimes and sins, and on top of that, I committed the evilness of trying to hide them (from Waheguru) like a thief. Now, I am in Your shelter, kindly save my dignity (protect me from the attacks of Maya) in whatever way You please, oh Waheguru. 4.11.25.63.

Word Meaning: Shabad(u) Anahud(u) = the auto-playing Divine music which the yogis believe to hear in their meditation. Munooa = mind. Vudbhaageen = with great luck. Dhunn(u) = Great; worthy of praise. Liv = connection with full concentration. 1. Tthaakur(u) = Lord. Kaar = deeds. Mul(i) Mul(i) = by rubbing well. 2. Rusaayin(u) = source of all enjoyment. Rusuk(i) = enjoying the taste. Rus = the Amrit of the Naam. Aghaanay = contented. Bhookh = appetite; desire. 3. Oopaav = make plans to deal with something. Anayk = countless. Gurmut(i) advice of the Guru. Drirraavaiy = reinforce. 4.

MEANING: One can connect with Waheguru with full concentration on His Naam in the shelter of the Guru (by His guidance). Pause. With Guru's advice, my mind dances to sing praise of Waheguru, and I feel as if I am listening to the auto-playing Divine music. My Guru is Great, by whose grace I have been connected with Waheguru with my full dedication, and I have had a glimpse of Him. 1. The Perfect Satguru is a manifestation of the Lord, Waheguru, and my mind is performing the deeds as per His advice. The Guru tells me the story (deep secrets) of Waheguru, and I love to wash the feet of the Guru by gently rubbing them (an expression of love and respect). 2.

I have my Guru's advice at heart that inspires me to sing praise of Waheguru, which is the source of all enjoyment, and my tongue sings His praise. My mind is fully content by enjoying the Amrit of the Naam, and I will never feel the appetite (desire) of Maya again. 3.

No matter how many plans one thinks of to acquire Waheguru's Naam, he cannot do so without the benevolence (of the Guru). Waheguru has been very kind to this slave, Nanak, that I am repeating (reciting) Waheguru Naam (all the time) now. 4.12.26.64.

Word Meaning: Jindoo = soul; mind. Kerma = deeds. Mut(i) = wisdom. Jeeo = life. Suntokh = contentment. Ajunma = who never takes birth. 1.
Jogi = connected with God. Maani = enjoy. Rung(i) Rutrra = imbued with love (of God). Nirbaani = detached from Maya. Sooghurr Soojaani = wise and respectable. Bhinna = imbued. 2. Jupaaha = we recite (Naam). Laaha = profit. Mookh(i) Paaha = we put in the mouth. Dhoor(i) Kerma = prewritten luck. 3.
Saavun(i) = in the month of July (rainy season). Moar(u) = peacock. Koohokiurra = make happy sounds. Vootthrra = dropped. Ruttanaa = imbued. 4.
MEANING: Perform the noble (most profitable) deed of reciting Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh my soul. Let Guru's wisdom be your mother (to nourish you), and Waheguru's Naam on your tongue be the support of your life. Let contentment be your father (to build your character) and let the Guru, which is the manifestation of Waheguru, which never takes birth, be your guide. By doing so, you will have great luck and be connected to Waheguru. 1. I have connected with (come to the shelter of) the Guru who is always "one" with God, and am enjoying the love of Waheguru and feeling blissful. With great luck, I have connected with the wise and the respectable Guru who is always imbued with Waheguru's love and is fully detached from Maya. My body and mind are fully imbued with Waheguru's Love. 2. Come on, you holy devotees, let us join together to recite the holy Naam. You earn the (immortal) benefit (of spirituality) in the holy congregation. Let us feed ourselves the Naam-Amrit by serving the Guru. Because of the prewritten fortune right from the source (Waheguru), we can connect with God. 3. Just as rain (after the hot and dry season) in the month of July gives new life to all vegetation, Waheguru's immortal Naam gives new life to mankind. And just as the peacocks express their joy of rain by making loud dancing sounds, the human heart also begins to sing in blissfulness when it recites the Guru's Shabad. Dhool(i) Dhool(i) = with zest (gusto). 1. Dholay = darling; husband. Vaycholay = mediator. Vittarrhoun = for; from. Gholay = love to the extent of giving life. 2. Vus(u) = take dwelling. Govinda = Waheguru. Chindiurra = as wished. Ful(u) = reward. Vigus(u) = feel blissful. Laaha = earned profit. Hus(u)= feel blissful. 3. Sohaagni = married woman, loved by husband. Undin(u) = every day; always. Anund = Rehus = blissfulness. Oopaayay = creates. Vaykhaiy = looks after. Kaaraiy Laaya = put to work (of reciting Waheguru's Naam. Ikk(i) = many. Bukhsh = largess. Toat(i) = shortage. Phukka = a very small amount, just enough to fill the mouth once. Tukhut(i) = throne. Bhikh = begging for alms. Shabad = Huqam; Command; Law. Vertda = operates. Dhiyaaya = recites. 4.

MEANING: Let all of us friends join together, and acquire the captivating (noble) qualities to please the Satguru so as to enjoy the love and bliss of union with Waheguru in the company of the holy devotees. The lamp of the Divine Knowledge of the Guru enlightens our minds. If Waheguru is pleased, we can connect with Him with great zest. 1.

My body and my mind have fallen in Love with dear Waheguru. I pray to Him that He connects me with the mediator friend, Satguru. I will offer my mind (obey His will) if Satguru connects me with Waheguru. I will gladly sacrifice my life for Waheguru. 2.

Oh, my dear Waheguru, please be kind and come to dwell in my heart. I have realized the desired reward, and my heart is blooming at the sight of the Perfect Guru, oh my Waheguru. With great luck, I have realized Waheguru and have earned (acquired) blissfulness in my mind. 3. Waheguru Himself creates the world, Himself looks after it, and Himself puts everybody to daily business (according to their previous deeds). Some enjoy Your largess and never experience any shortage, while some others get only a mouthful to eat. Some rulers occupy the throne and live in comfort, while others beg for alms. The same Huqam is operating everywhere; the slave Nanak recites Your Naam only, oh Waheguru. 4.2.28.66.

Word Meaning: Maahi = dear; husband. Rung(i) = love. Lukhiyay = “see”; feel. Alukh(u) invisible; incomprehensible. Lukhaahi = “shows”. Pergaasiya = enlightened. Daalud = poverty. Leh(i) = removed; eradicated. Hur(i) Pud(u) = spiritual state where the mind is fully connected with Waheguru. Ootum = superior. Smaahi = fully absorbed. 1.
Naini = with eyes. Kinaiy = some rare (none). Ditthrra = saw. Baiyraagiya = pines in separation. Baajhoun = without. Dhun = woman. Koomlaiyni = wilted; feeling unwell (weak). Sujjan(u) Saiyni = close friend. Jugjeevun = life of the world. Vihaani = is spent. Raiyni = night; life. 2. Bhookh = appetite; strong desire. Preetum = dear. Birhoun = pain of separation. Jeevayiya = came to life. Pooriyaam = fulfilled. Vadhaayiyaan = zestful. 3. Glad to sacrifice life. Vittarroun = for; from. Pirum = dear. Poonji = capital (of noble qualities). Raakh(u) = protect. Vishut(u) = mediator. Raiybaari = guidance. Duyya = kindness. 4.

MEANING: My mind is imbued with the love of my dear Waheguru. Waheguru’s love (loving Waheguru) is always with us, but we do not “see” Him. However, the Perfect Guru “shows” us the otherwise invisible Waheguru. Waheguru’s Naam enlightens the heart by which all the suffering (even caused by poverty) is eradicated (one becomes fully contented). With great fortune, one can attain a higher spiritual state in which one becomes fully absorbed in Waheguru’s Naam, oh my Waheguru. 1. Nobody has ever seen Waheguru with these eyes, oh my Govinda (Waheguru). My mind and body were feeling the pain of separation, and this woman (myself) had wilted down without You, oh Waheguru. However, I have realized that my dear friend, Waheguru, is now in the company of the holy devotees. The life of the whole world, Waheguru, has come to meet me (I have been connected to Him), and now the night of my life is being spent in comfort. 2. My mind and body are feeling a big appetite for the sight of my dear friend, Waheguru. I beg the holy devotees to get me connected with Him because I am suffering badly due to His separation, and cannot live without Him. If the Guru will connect me with my dear friend, the King-Waheguru, my mind will come alive. Then all the wishes of my body and my mind will be fulfilled, and my mind will feel blissful on meeting (getting connected with) my Waheguru. 3.

I always wish to sacrifice my life for you, oh my Waheguru. My body and my mind have deep affection for my dear Waheguru, so please save the wealth of my love for you by absorbing me in You. Please connect me with the mediator Satguru, who will guide me to connect with You. This slave, Nanak, is in Your shelter, please be kind and grant me Your Naam, oh my Waheguru. 4.3.29.67.

(PAGE 175): Vudbhaageen mil(u) Sungteen mayray Govinda, jun Nanak naam(u) sidh(i) kaajaiy jeeo. 4.4.30.68.
Word Meaning: Choji = one who does some amazing things. Kahn = Krishna. Oopaayaynda = creates. Gopi = cow girls. Khoji = one who searches for. Ghut = hearts. Bhogda = enjoys. Rusiya = one who enjoys different tastes. Soojaan(u) = very wise. Jogi = detached from Maya (worldly attractions). 1. Jugut(u) = world. Khaylaiy = expresses Himself. Buhou Rungeen = in different colourful ways. Ikkna = some. Bhog = luxuries of life. Nugun Nung Nungi = completely naked. Daan = donations (for necessities of life). Mungi = ask for. Aadhaar = support. Kutha = description (of Waheguru's virtues). Chungi = good; to the liking. 2. Loach = longing; wish. Vertda = operates. Ruv Ruhiya = is pervading; is present. Bhurpoori = filling completely. Aatum Ram = Waheguru. Pusaariya = has expanded. Hudoori = in His own presence (from close). 3.

Vaaja = musical wind instrument. Tiyoun = like that. Nidhaan = treasure. Gaajay = roars (shows its presence). Puvaayaynda = makes them (do). Laajaiy = dignity (from the attacks of lust, etc.) Sungteen = a holy congregation. Sidh(i) Kaajaiy = achieve objective successfully. 4.

MEANING: My dear Waheguru does some amazing things! Waheguru Himself creates Krishnas, and Himself searches for the cowgirls (just like Krishna did). (Being present in everybody) Waheguru enjoys all the hearts and (therefore) enjoys all the enjoyable material things. (Despite the fact that He enjoys the world while sitting in the bodies of people), Waheguru is both very wise and infallible. He is the Satguru and is completely detached from the world. 1. Waheguru Himself creates the world, and expresses Himself in many different colourful ways. He makes some people enjoy material things, while making some others wander around naked, absolutely naked. Waheguru creates the world Himself (without any outside help) and provides for the needs of living beings as they ask for. However, His Naam is the support of life for His devotees who ask for the best thing – description of His virtues (sing His praise). 2. Waheguru fulfills the wish of His devotees who wish for His worship, and He bestows them with His worship. Waheguru is very close and not far away, as He is pervading the land and the waters. Waheguru is filling the whole space, and He is everywhere – inside and out. Waheguru is spread out, yet looks after His creation from close. 3. Human soul, which is a part of Waheguru, is like a wind musical instrument which is controlled by Him; the soul (humans) behaves the way Waheguru makes it to do. There is the treasure of Waheguru's Naam in the human body (but humans do not realize it). He appears in the hearts only by the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru protects the dignity of His devotees from the five demons by making them come to His refuge. The slave, Nanak, says that the lucky individuals join the congregation of the holy devotees and successfully achieve the real objective of life (union with God). 4.4.30.68.

Word Meaning: Birhoun = love; pain of separation. Mittar(u) = friend; supporter. Maayee = mother. Sukha = friend. 1. Kayray = of. Bhaag Vudayray = great luck. Praan = life. Buhourr(i) = again. Bhuvjul phayra = return to the world sea (rebirths). 2. Kiyoun = how? Chaao = excitement. Bhaao = fear; unsure. 3. Vuddrri = big. Aasa = hope; wish. Paasa = near; close. Pergaasa = enlightenment. Pooriurri = fulfilled.4.

MEANING: I am suffering from the pain of disconnection with Waheguru's Naam; I will feel comfortable only when I get connected with my dear friend – Waheguru. I can live only if I "see" my God, oh my mother. Waheguru's Naam is my friend, my brother. 1.

Sing the virtues of my Waheguru, oh His holy devotees. It is a great fortune to recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru's Naam is my life, and reciting it terminates the cycle of rebirth. 2. I have a great excitement in my body and mind to "see" Waheguru, but I do not know how to "see" Him. I am unsure (if I will be able to "see" him on my own), please connect me with Waheguru, oh, the holy devotees. (I am told) that I can connect with the dear King, Waheguru, through the Guru's Shabad. One recites Waheguru's Naam (Guru's Shabad) only with great luck. 3. I have a great wish in my mind and body to connect with Waheguru. Please connect me with Waheguru, which is supposedly very close, oh, the holy devotees. With Satguru's advice, the mind is always enlightened, as a result of which the wish of this slave, Nanak, is fulfilled. 4.5.31.69.

Word Meaning: Birhi = dear. Jeevaan = I live. Leevaan = receive; acquire. Rung(i) Ruttrra = imbued in love. 1. Baan(u) = arrow. Soojaan(u) = wise; know-all; omniscient. Sooghurr(u) = wise. Vit-houn = for; from. Koorbaan(u) = offering for self-sacrifice. 2. Dusaayeen = I ask for. Khoaj(i) = search. Tootthrra = pleased to be kind 3. Vaydun = pain; ache. Sherdha = respectful wish. Rus(u) = sweetness. 4.

MEANING: I survive only if I get my dear (Waheguru's) Naam, which is the real Amrit for the mind, and which can be acquired only with Guru's advice. Naam is the sweet Amrit, and I drink it, with which my mind gets imbued in Waheguru's love. I survive when I connect with Waheguru. 1. I have been pierced in body and mind with the arrow of Waheguru's love. My dear Waheguru, which is omnipresent and omniscient, is my (best) friend. I will gladly lay down my life for His Naam (Him). 2. I ask for Waheguru (how to connect with Him), who is my friend. Tell me (how to connect with Him), please search for Him for me, oh, the holy devotees of Waheguru. When my Satguru is pleased to be kind, He will guide me to connect with Waheguru when I am fully absorbed in Him by reciting His Naam. 3. My love for Waheguru has caused me to pine because of His separation. Please fulfill my wish to feed myself with the Naam-Amrit, oh my Satguru. Please, be kind so that I may recite Your Naam, oh Waheguru. The slave, Nanak, wishes to have the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. 4.6.20.18.32.70
