Word Meaning: Nidh(I) = treasures. Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Nirmul = pure; sacred. Poorun = perfect (Waheguru). Bikh(u) = poison (of Maya). Maar(i) = by destroying. Tirkooti = the three effects of Maya (see the note below). Bimul = pure. Mujhaar(i) = in. Jeeyay = (of, for) soul. Kaar(i) = purposeful; useful. 1.

Rumut = reciting Maaniya= brought faith. Unjun = kohl (is believed to enhance eyesight in addition to beautification). Pause. Sehj(i) = state of blissfulness. Nirmul = pure; sacred. Laal Bhuyay = dyed in red colour, which is a fast colour and implies (deep love for Waheguru). Sooha = pink colour, which is very attractive to look at, but fades away quickly; it implies love for Maya, which is also short-lived. Tthaak Ruhaaya = restrained; prevented. 2. Oolt bhuyee = thinking turned around (from Maya to Waheguru). Jeevut Mur(i) = to kill all desires while living in family. Rus(u) = juice (Waheguru's Naam). Sungreh(i) = collect. Purhur(i) = by removing; pushing away. Busay = live. 3. Baadun(g) = fruitless discussions. Ahunkaara = ego. Raata = imbued. Appara = limitless. Jaat(i) = caste. Put(i)= dignity. Achaara = rituals. Aatum = soul. 4. Cheet(u) = mind; thinking. Oopdaysh(i) = teaching. 5. Raachoun = get absorbed. Deekhiya = special sermon when one joins a new faith. Bhaaou = affection. Sunjoagi = predestined. Nij Ghur = own house; union with Waheguru. 6. Gerb = conceit. Gtun(g) = goes away. Dhiyaana = focus. Jot(i) Bhuyee = enlightened. Likhut(u) = written; carved. Shabad(u) = Huqam. Neeshaana = identity. Kerta = the Creator. 7. Pundit(u) = educated. Bhoolo = misled. Bherm(i) = in doubt. Kuthoun = describe. Sehj(i) Smaana = absorbed in the spiritual state of peace of mind. 8.

MEANING: I found Guru's advice to be very effective and useful for the soul; the Guru advised that pondering on Waheguru's sacred Naam is the real treasure of all supernatural powers. (By reciting Waheguru's Naam with dedication) I have been able to kill my desires for Maya (overcome all its attractions), and I am above all its three effects. Now I find that the Perfect Waheguru is present everywhere. 1.

Reciting Waheguru's Naam like this, my mind has been convinced, and my faith in Waheguru has been solidified. With Guru's Shabad, I have been able to find the kohl (which enhances my vision) for Divine Knowledge (connecting with God). Pause.

The Guru's sacred Shabad has dispelled all my doubts, and I am enjoying the comfort of blissfulness by connecting with Waheguru. With His kind sight, Waheguru has restrained all attractions of Maya for me. I realized that Maya does look attractive, but is short-lived like the beautiful pink colour, and I am imbued in the deep red colour (which does not fade) of affection for Waheguru. 2.

My thinking has turned away from Maya, and now all my worldly desires are dead, even though I am living in the family. Reciting Guru's Shabad, my mind is now stitched with Waheguru. I am treasuring the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, and have given up my attraction for Maya by pushing it away. Living under Waheguru's love, my fear of the Angel of Death has gone away. 3. All bad tastes, fruitless discussions, and my conceit have become the things of the past; and so have become the pride of the caste and of the religious rituals. With the Will (kindness) of the limitless Waheguru, my mind has been imbued with Waheguru's love. With His kind sight, I am enjoying internal bliss. 4. Whom should I serve and surrender my mind to? To whom should I show respect and ask for advice? Whose advice should I seek to stay connected with You, oh Waheguru? (The answer to all these questions is) only You, oh Waheguru, (because I don't see any other power like You). 5.

I will serve the Guru (which is Waheguru's manifestation), and drop on His feet (surrender to Him). I will worship Waheguru and get fully absorbed in His Naam. Waheguru's Naam is the advice, sermon, and the spiritual food for me. With predestined union with Waheguru, my mind has settled in its personal dwelling (got connected with Waheguru). 6. With focus on Waheguru, my ego is gone, and I am enjoying mental peace. I have been enlightened, and now I am absorbed in (focused on) Waheguru's Light (Soul). Guru's Shabad, which is the identity for Waheguru, and is written on my mind, cannot be erased now. I have also realized that Waheguru is the creator of everything. 7.

I am neither highly knowledgeable nor clever or wise, but I am not misled or lost in doubt. I do not repeat (or believe in) what others have already said (to connect with God); I simply recognize Waheguru's Huqam. Acting on Guru's advice, I am enjoying the state of blissfulness, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Koonchur(u) = elephant. Kaaya = human body. Oodiyaanaiy = wilderness. Ankus = the weapon to control elephants. Neeshaanaiy = on the target. Sobh Maanaiy = enjoys praise; is honoured. 1. Chuturaayee = cleverness. Cheeniya = recognize; realize. Maaray = kill (control) the mind. Kiyoun = how? Keemut Paayay = evaluate; realize. (To evaluate something, one needs to know the substance well in terms of its qualities, for which one needs full access to the knowledge about that. Pause. Amrit(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Tuskur(u) = thief; uncontrolled mind; the five demons. Nunnakar(u) = say "no"; resist. Aap(i) = Waheguru. 2. Neel = blue (poison); Maya. Aneel = clean; pure (Waheguru)

(See Jap Ji Paurris 28-31). Ikk tthaayeen = together (in the human mind). Jul(i) = Guru's Shabad. Nivri = removed. Boojh = wisdom. Boojhaayee = put out. Rehus(i) = happily. 3. Goofa = cave. Saagur(i) = in the sea. Doogur(i) = in the mountains. 4. Mooyay = dead (of desires). Niduray = fearless (because of his connection with God). Teenay Bhaoun = the three-layered universe. 5. Vukhaaniya = just described. Boojhiya = understood (made a connection). Sehj(i) = in the state of a peaceful mind. Maaniya = convinced; persuaded. 6. Keerut(i) = (Waheguru's) praise. Soorut(i) = beauty. Mookut(i) = freedom. Naayee = (sing) praise. Nirunjun = Waheguru. Nij = own. Biyaap(i) = influences (causing bliss). 7. Oostut(i) = praise. Moon(i) = sages who stay quiet. Preet(i) = affectionately. 8.

MEANING: The uncontrolled Human mind is like an elephant which is wandering unrestricted in the wilderness of the body. Guru's eternal Shabad is the Ankus (to control the elephant-mind), which hits right on the target. An individual who has controlled his mind with Guru's Shabad is honoured in the courts of kings (and in Waheguru's Court too). 1. Waheguru cannot be realized by cleverness. How can one evaluate Him (have union with Him) without controlling his mind? (He cannot). Pause. There is Waheguru's Naam–Amrit in the human heart, which the uncontrolled mind-thief (the five demons – lust, rage, etc.) keeps stealing, and the man becomes so helpless that he cannot say "no" to the demons. However, some lucky individuals are protected from such attacks by Waheguru, which is a great honour for them (because they will not have to face the Angel of justice). 2. The fire of desires for the poisonous Maya, and the sacred Waheguru reside together (in the human heart). The wisdom imparted by the Guru works like water to put out the fire of Maya. One earns Guru's Wisdom by surrendering one's mind to the Guru, and by singing Waheguru's praise with love. 3. (Some people go to meditate in a cave), But Waheguru is the same in the house (family) and in the cave. In fact, the fearless (worry-free) Waheguru is present in the oceans and on the mountains. 4. Who can blemish (weaken) an individual's character by making some attractive offers who has already killed his worldly desires? What kind of fear can affect a person who has become fearless (with Waheguru's Naam at heart) and has realized Waheguru in the whole universe, by Guru's Shabad? 5. Some people just describe Waheguru's qualities, and that's about it (they do not gain any spirituality). But an individual who has the wisdom to understand Him realizes Him in the state of blissfulness (above the effects of Maya). My mind has also been convinced of Waheguru's magnanimity after examining and pondering (on Guru's Shabad). 6. God is present where His virtues are sung; one also earns praise, beauty (of heart) and freedom from Maya by singing His virtues. Such a heart becomes Waheguru's own dwelling, which in turn, becomes the source of bliss for the individual. 7. There are many sages who praise Waheguru in their own way, but those who keep Waheguru in mind all the time are pure (holy), both by body and by mind. Remember Waheguru's Naam at all times, oh Nanak. 8.2.

Mun(u) chunchul(u) dhaavut phoon(i) dhaavaiy. Saachay soochay maiyl(u) na, bhaavaiy. Nanak Gurmukh(i) Hur(i) goon gaavaiy. 8.3.

Word Meaning: Muraiy = come under control. Kaaruj(u) = task; objective (connecting with Waheguru). Vus(i) = under control. Dootaan = the five demons. Doormut(i) = ill advice. Doyay = conflicting thoughts. Maanaiy = is persuaded; is convinced. Ikk(u) hoyay = becomes one with Waheguru. 1. Nirgoon = formless. Goonaa = virtues (high moral values). Aap(u) = selfishness. Nivaar(i) = remove; eradicate. Pause. Bhoolo = misguided. Chitaiy = contemplates. Vikaar = vices; sensual pleasures. Bhaar(u) = burden (of sins). 2. Kaam(i) = in lust. Biroodhou = caught in; engrossed. Ruhaiy Na Thaayayn = loses self-control. Hur(i) Bhuj(u) = recite Waheguru. Rusaayay = tastefully. 3. Gaiyvur = superior elephants. Haiyuvur = superior horses. Kunchun = gold (wealth). Soot = sons. Naari = wife. Pirr = the fighting ground; battlefield. Jooyay = in gambling. Saari = pawns. 4. Sumpou = wealth. Sunchi = accumulated. Vikaar = vices; sensual pleasures. Hurkh = happiness. Soak = sadness. Oobhay = standing; waiting. Mooraar(I) = Waheguru. 5. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Sungreh(i) = accumulating. Aougun = vices. Pdaaruth = (valuable) substance. 6. Nivaas(u) = dwelling. Moorr = foolish. Dhoor(i) = from Waheguru. Kerm(i) = kindness. 7.
Chunchul = fickle; wavering. Dhaavut = moves quickly; shifts focus. Phoon(i) = again. Soochay = pure. Bhaavaiy = likes. 8.

MEANING: The human mind is under the control of the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachment, and ego), ill advice, and its conflicting thinking (indecisiveness). But without killing the mind's desires, one cannot connect with Waheguru. When the mind is convinced (tamed) by the Guru, it becomes “one” with God. 1.
The pleasure of the formless Waheguru is won over by high moral qualities. But only that individual ponders on such a thought (acquires this wisdom) who gets rid of his selfishness and ego. Pause. The misguided mind contemplates many vices, as a result of which, the individual carries a burden of evils. On the other hand, when the mind is convinced (by the Guru's advice that Waheguru is the only Supreme Being), he becomes "one" with Him. 2. The misguided mind indulges in the pleasures of Maya and gets possessed by lust; as a result, it loses self-control. (To ward off vices), One should recite Waheguru's Naam tastefully with the tongue. 3. In the enjoyment of superior elephants, superior horses, wealth, sons, and the wife, the man also suffers from worries, and loses the battle of life like a gambler who loses his pawns at a game of dice. 4. A man who accumulates a lot of wealth becomes a slave of vices; as a result, happy and sad occasions keep waiting at his door. One can attain the comfort of a blissful state of mind when one recites Waheguru's Naam with dedication. 5. When Waheguru casts His kind sight on a lucky person, He connects that person with the Guru, who then connects the individual with Waheguru. By acquiring virtues from the Guru's Shabad, such a devotee of the Guru gets rid of his vices and acquires the valuable Naam of Waheguru. 6. The mind of the individual who is disconnected from Waheguru is always set on Maya, and without Waheguru's Naam, all discomforts begin to grow in his heart (he begins to suffer). (On the other hand), Because of the prewritten benevolence of Waheguru, a supreme devotee of the Guru acquires Divine Knowledge (and merges into God). 7. The wavering mind keeps shifting its focus quickly from one thing to another. But the pure and eternal Waheguru does not approve of such a filthy mind of individuals (so such individuals never connect with Him). But a devotee of the Guru always sings Waheguru's virtues (and thus stays connected with Waheguru), oh Nanak. 8.3.

Word Meaning: Haumein = ego and selfishness. Munmut(i) = Man's own wisdom. Jhootthi = short-lived and imperfect. Soyay = that (Waheguru). Bigootay = suffer unnecessarily. Doyay = conflicting ideas (thinking). Kmaavaiy = performs such deeds. Dhoor(i) Likhiya = Waheguru's Huqam. 1. Jooaari = gambler. Bisaari = forgetting. Pause. Adisht(u) = invisible. Kuhhiya = describe. Birtha = useless. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = without any special effort; with a peaceful mind and affection. Soort(i) = attention. 2. Aagul = more. Vikaari = of vices. Haar(u) = necklace. Proyay = (to string the beads together) to make a necklace. Aik Bina = without the One (Waheguru). Jhootthay = false; impure (full of vices). 3. Trishna Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Dooja = Maya. Bherm(u) = doubt; misgiving. 4. Saacho = Waheguru. Bhaaou = affection. Nij = personal. Tthaaoun = place (part of Waheguru). Praym Praayin = supported by love; bonded with love. Boojhaiy = realizes (gets connected). 5. Junjaala = worldly bonds. Munmukh = follower of one's own mind; disconnected with Waheguru. Koocheel = having filthy (thoughts). Koochhit = untouchable; to be avoided. Bikraala = scary (having a bad future). Chookaiy = end; cut. 6. Liv = concentrate fully. Nij Ghur(i) = in one's own house (Waheguru's shelter). Tthaak(i) Ruhaayay = is prevented. 7. Kuthni = description. Kuthoun = I describe. Oar(u) = end. Dur(u) = door; shelter. Bhaanaiy = Rujaayay = as per (Waheguru's) Will. Neech(u) = low-caste (with bad deeds). Liv = deep concentration. 8.

MEANING: A selfish and egoistic man cannot enjoy comfort (peace of mind). Man's own wisdom is not only short-lived, but also imperfect; only Waheguru is perfect. Everybody suffers unnecessarily because of their conflicting thinking (between Waheguru and Maya). But the man cannot be entirely blamed for such behaviour because he does only those things (follows the path) which are prewritten in his fate by Waheguru's Huqam. 1. The world that we see is like a gambler's den, where the man bargains good qualities to enjoy sensual pleasures, which in turn, lead to the suffering of rebirths. It does not want to spend even a little time remembering Waheguru (which is the provider of everything). Pause. Waheguru is invisible; one can say nothing about Him unless He were visible. Saying anything without seeing Him is worthless. However, because of his love for Waheguru, a supreme devotee of the Guru "sees" Him in the state of blissfulness (above the effects of Maya). The Gurmukh concentrates his full attention on the "One" (Waheguru), and serves Him. 2. The man asks for comforts only, but does not realize that they are accompanied by even more discomfort, because when he enjoys them, he makes a necklace of vices (which tightens its grip around his neck). Without Waheguru's Naam, everybody is impure, so he cannot be free from the weaknesses (caused by Maya) (and cannot unite with Waheguru). The Creator (Waheguru) is making the world do various things, and is also watching it. 3.

The fire of desires (of Maya) is put out by the Guru's Shabad, which also dispels any doubts or misgivings about Maya. One embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart with the advice of the Guru, and sings Waheguru's praise with the Guru's Shabad. 4.
By taking Guru's shelter, one embeds (enshrines) Waheguru's Naam in his heart with love for Him. Without Waheguru's Naam, one does not have one's own permanent place (as a part of Waheguru). The dear and the Royal Waheguru are bonded only with love. However, an individual understands the importance of Waheguru's Naam (and gets connected with Him) only when Waheguru casts His kind sight on him. 5.
Attachment to Maya is the root of all worldly bonds. A money-minded person is disconnected from Waheguru, harbours filthy thoughts, and faces a frightening future. His company should be avoided. To cut the bonds of the world, we should serve the Guru. Waheguru's comforting Amrit-Naam always accompanies the devotee. 6.
A devotee acquires spiritual wisdom from the Perfect Guru and realizes that by focusing one's mind with full dedication, one makes a connection with Waheguru. He becomes "one" with Waheguru, which becomes his permanent personal dwelling, and his rebirth cycle is prevented (broken). 7. If I simply describe the virtues of Waheguru for the sake of description, there will be no end to them. The Guru has advised me that there is no other permanent shelter for the man than Waheguru. With full concentration on Waheguru, the low-caste Nanak(u) reveals that all comforts and discomforts happen with Waheguru's Will. 8.4.

Word Meaning: Dooji Maya = Some people believe that Maya has an independent existence of Waheguru, and think of it as the second power. Jugut = world. Vaas(u) = (the belief) dwells. Binaas(u) = destruction. 1.

Dooja = the other (power). Kaoun = who? Kuhaan = where? Nirunjun = One who is above the influence of Maya (Waheguru). Pause.
Doomut(i) = ill-advice. Aavaiy Jaayay = is born and dies. Mur(i) Dooja Hoyay = born with the same belief after death. 2. Dhurn(i) = on the earth. Guggun = sky. Doyay = both. Loyay = world. 3. Ruv(i) = the sun. Sus(i) = the moon. Oojiyaala = light. Niruntar(i) = continuous. Baala = child-like (pure-hearted; unbiased). 4. Chit Laaya = persuaded my mind (to have faith in the Guru). Aik = "One" (God). 5. Dooja Maar(i) = by killing the idea of some other power. Puchhata = recognized. 6. Huqam(u) = command, laws. Vertaiy = operates. Ooput(i) = creation. 7. Raah Dovaiyn = two paths of life (Waheguru's worship and engrossment in Maya). Khusm(u) = Master; Lord. 8.
Roop = forms. Vern = castes. Saalaheen = praise. 9.
MEANING: (Rather than Waheguru), the world worships Maya (has a belief about the independent existence of Maya) in its mind. (So, forgetting Waheguru) The world is engrossed in lust, rage, and ego (forms of Maya) and is undergoing moral destruction. 1. What is the other power, and where is it? There is none. Only Waheguru is present everywhere. Pause. It is only because of the bad thinking that people talk of two independent powers – God and Maya. Because of this misbelief, the people take birth and die, and are reborn with the same misbelief. 2. I do not see any second power on the earth, or in the sky, or in the women, or the men of the whole world. 3. I see the sun and the moon as lamps to provide light. The unbiased (perfectly just) Waheguru is present everywhere without any gap. 4.
The kind Waheguru convinced my mind to have faith in the Guru, who enlightened my mind that there is only one real power – Waheguru. 5.
In the shelter of the Guru, and with His Shabad, my misbelief about the second power (Maya) has been eradicated, and I have recognized the single power – Waheguru - which is above the influence of Maya. (Waheguru controls Maya). 6.
The same Huqam of Waheguru is operative in the whole world, and everything has been created by the "One" (Waheguru). 7. There are two ways to spend life – by being a devotee of Waheguru or being engrossed in Maya; however, there is only one Power - Waheguru. The aforesaid is the Huqam of Waheguru, which can be realized only by the Shabad of the Guru, oh Nanak. 8.
Waheguru is present in every shape (everybody), in all castes, and in every mind. I sing praise of only the "One" (Waheguru), oh Nanak. 9.5.

Word Meaning: Adhiaatum Kerm = deeds of spirituality. Saacha = true devotee. Kaacha = novice; non-devotee; Maya-engrossed. 1. Joogut(i) Beechaaray = thinks of ways to connect with Waheguru. Punch Maar(i) = by killing (overpowering) the five demons. Oordhaaraiy = embeds in the heart. Pause.
Vusaayaiy = implants. Joag Joogut(i) = the real approach to achieve union. Keemut(i) Paayay = appreciates; values. 2. Ruv(i) = the sun; heat (harsh treatment). Sus(i) = the moon; coolness (kind treatment) Greh(i) = in the family. Oodiyaanaiy = in wilderness (detached from the world). Kerni = routine. Keerut(i) = singing praise. Smaanaiy = normal 3. Aik = some (real yogi). Ikk = some; most. Jaagaiy = light up. 4. Ruch(i) = absorbed. Na Baahur(i) Jaayay = the mind does not wander. 5. Bherm = doubts; misgivings. Perm(u) Pud(u) = the highest spiritual state. 6. Kerni = deeds. Saar(u) = supreme. 7. Jup = ritualistic recitation of some mantra. Tup = self – affliction. Sunjum = efforts for self–control. Uprumpur = infinite (Waheguru). Maan(u) = believe in. 8.

MEANING: An individual, who performs deeds of spirituality, is the true devotee of Waheguru; the Maya-engrossed individual knows nothing about the secrets to achieve freedom from Maya. 1. Likewise, a true yogi is the individual who ponders on the ways to connect with (achieve union with) Waheguru, and embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart by killing (over powering) the five demons. Pause.
The individual whose heart Waheguru implants with His Naam values the true approach (reciting Waheguru's Naam) to connect with God. 2.
Such a yogi accepts harsh or kind treatment from others the same way (does not get offended by harsh treatment), and he leads a life of detachment from the world while living in the family. Singing praise of Waheguru is his normal routine. 3.
Most yogis go door to door to beg for food, but the real yogi begs for Guru's Shabad from Waheguru. Divine knowledge, deep concentration, and high moral living enlighten his mind. 4. The mind of such a yogi stays absorbed in the fear of (Waheguru), and quits wandering. Who can put any value on such a yogi who focuses his mind with full concentration on Waheguru? 5. Waheguru, Himself, connects such a yogi with Him and clears all his misgivings. Such a yogi attains the highest spiritual level with the Guru's grace. 6. Pondering on His Shabad is the real service to the Guru, and getting rid of haumein is the supreme of all the deeds. 7. An individual who believes firmly in the limitless Waheguru needs no ritualistic recitation of any mantra, self-affliction, the recitation of the Puranas, or any special effort to control sensual pleasures, oh Nanak. 8.6.

Word Meaning: Khima = forgiveness. Guhhi = adopts (becomes his nature). Bert = commitment to do or not to do something(s). Seel = to keep one's cool. Suntokhun(g) = contentment. Biyaapaiy = afflict. Dokhun(g) = blames. Raykhun(g) = physical features. 1. Rookh(i) = Birkh(i) = under the tree. Greh(i) = in the house. Baahur(i) = in the wilderness. Soyay = the same (God). Pause.
Nirbhuou = fearless (because he has no weakness anymore). Jaagaiy = stays awake (alert). Liv = focuses his mind. Bhaavaiy = I Like. 2.
Kaal(u) = death. Jaal(u) = net (of Maya). Braham Ugni = Waheguru's light; Divine Knowledge. Jaaray = burns; gets rid of. Jura = old age. Gut(u) = goes away. Gerb(u) = ego. Nivaaray = shake off (gets rid of). Pitreen = ancestors. 3.
Bhaiy = fear (of God). Ruch(i) = absorbed. Nirbhuou = fearless. 4.
Nihkayvul = above all desires. Anaathaah = orphans. Naath = having a guardian. Poonrup(i) = again. 5. Aap(u) Puchhanaiy = self-analysis (origin and objective of human life). Dur(i) = (Waheguru's) Door. Neeshaanaiy = is identified; finds recognition. 6. Nij Ghur(i) = in one's own (permanent) house; becomes "one" with Waheguru. Aavaiy Na Jaavaiy = neither is born again, nor dies. Kumul Pergaasa = heart is enlightened. 7. Deesaiy = visible. Niraasa = disappointment. Bikh(u) = poison (Maya). Birlay = some rare person. Oodaasa = turned off from worldly desires. 8.

MEANING: A real yogi "sees" Waheguru everywhere – under the trees (where the yogis normally meditate), inside the house (living in the family), and in the outside world. So, why should he be afraid of anything (when he has become like Waheguru)? Pause. Forgiveness becomes his nature, and coolness (not losing temper), and contentment become commitments of such a yogi (he practises them routinely). No illness (trouble) affects him, and the Angel of death cannot blame him for anything (he is not afraid of death). He breaks all the bonds of Maya, and becomes “one” with the formless and the featureless Waheguru. 1.

Such a yogi recites Waheguru’s Naam and becomes fearless. He is alert day and night (against the attacks of Maya), and focuses on Waheguru’s Naam with full dedication. I love such a yogi. 2. He burns the net of Maya (which causes spiritual death) with the fire of Divine Knowledge. His fear of old age and death disappears, and he sheds his ego. Not only does he swim across the sea of Maya, but he also brings salvation to his ancestors (associates). 3. An individual who serves Satguru is the real yogi who has Waheguru’s fear (respect for Him) in mind and stays absorbed in His Naam. He becomes just like Waheguru, whom he worships. 4.
By remembering Waheguru, who is fearless (perfect) and the guardian of all the support-less people, such a yogi becomes like Him. I will gladly sacrifice my life for such a yogi. There is no rebirth for such a yogi who sings Waheguru’s praise. 5.
Such a yogi believes that Waheguru is present everywhere, and he analyzes the self (as to its origin and the purpose of human life) with the Guru’s Shabad. With Guru’s Shabad in mind, he finds recognition (is honoured) in Waheguru’s Court. 6.
An individual who kills his worldly desires with the Guru’s Shabad finds his real home in Waheguru (becomes “one” with Him). His heart is enlightened with the Guru’s Shabad. He overcomes all his worldly desires, and his birth-death cycle is terminated 7. Every attractive visible thing invokes hopes (desires) in man, and he gets disappointed (when they are not fulfilled). A rare person who gets detached from worldly desires becomes connected with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.7.

Word Meaning: Aiyso = such. Daas(u) = devotee; holy man. Visraiy = forgotten. 1. Bhuyee = became. Mut(i) Poori = perfect wisdom (which enables to connect with God). Utt-sutth(i) = the 68 holy places of the Hindus. Mujun = dips. Churnah Dhoori = the dust of (Guru’s) feet (His Shabad). Pause. Naytur = eyes. Suntokhaiy = contented. Liv Taara = connecting with full concentration. Jihva = tongue. Soochi = pious. Saara = by having (tasting). 2. Kerni = deeds. Sach(u) = Waheguru. Ubh = heart. Triptaasiya = contented. Alukh = incomprehensible. Abhayva = unfathomable. 3. Boojhaiy = comprehending. Jhugrut = aggressive arguing. Kaacha = ignorant (absorbed in Maya). 4. Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. Virla = rare. 5. Rakhou = protect. Rukhvaalay = protector. Pusoo = cattle. Baytaalay = goblins; out of tune. 6. Uver(u) = other. Un = (of) someone else. Pooja = worship. 7. MEANING: If a man gets connected to some holy man (Guru), he is able to internalize Waheguru. He forgets all about his worldly comforts and enjoys blissfulness. 1. One attains perfect wisdom (which enables one to be "one" with God) with the sight of the Guru. The dust of Guru's Feet (His advice) is like having a dip in the 68 holy places of the Hindus. Pause. The eyes become contented (they have no more desire to see worldly beauty) when the mind focuses on Waheguru's Naam with full concentration, and the tongue becomes holy (never lies or vilifies others) with the taste of Waheguru's Naam. 2. Serving the Guru (acting on His advice) from the depth of one's heart is spiritually the true holy deed. One's mind becomes contented by reciting the Naam of the incomprehensible, and the unfathomable Waheguru. 3. Wherever I look, I find Waheguru present. The ignorant world does not understand this truth; that's why the people argue aggressively with one another. 4. The enlightenment of the mind comes only from the Guru, but only a rare few understand this. 5. Without realizing the reality, people are out of step in life and behave like animals. Please, Waheguru, save the world (guide it) as You are our saviour. 6. The Guru has explained that there is none other who rivals Waheguru; so, whom should I worship when I do not see anybody else like Waheguru? 7. Waheguru created the universe to make holy saints (from men); whoever analyzes his soul realizes the Truth (Waheguru). 8. I pray to be a slave of the individual who has Waheguru's Naam, and love for Him at heart, oh Nanak. 9.8.

Gaurri Mehla 5: Brahamaiy gerb(u) keeya, nuhee jaaniya. Bayd kee biput(i) purri, puchhutaaniya. Jeh Prubh simray, tuhee mun(u) maaniya. 1. Aiysa gerb(u) boora sunsaaraiy. Prubh(u) Naraayin(u) gerb perhaari. Prehlaad oodhaaray kirpa dhaari. 4. ---------

Word Meaning: Gerb Keeya = became conceited that he was not born out of a lotus flower, which was growing in the belly-button of Vishnu. He wanted to find the end of the flower's stem, but even after centuries of wandering in the dark, he could not find it and felt stupid. Bayd Kee Biput = the trouble of the Vedas. Brahma is thought to be the author of the Vedas, which were once stolen by the demons. He got them back only after he begged Waheguru for help. Mun Maaniya = got convinced; was persuaded. 1. Gerb(u) = conceit. Sunsaaraiy = in the world. Nivaaraiy = removes. Pause. Bul Rajah: A demon king who had won the pleasure of all the gods through their worship and with his tough self-affliction, and was highly conceited of his philanthropy. He planned to perform 101 yagnas, the successful completion of which would have forced Indra, the king of paradise, to relinquish his throne. Afraid of that, Indra rushed to Vishnu for help. Vishnu had known about Bul's philanthropic nature. He disguised himself as a midget Brahmin sage and went to Bul, asking for 2.5 steps of land to build a hut. Bul's guru, Shookkur, warned the King against the request, knowing that it was deceitful. But Bul was so conceited of his philanthropy that he accepted the request. Vishnu measured the entire earth in two steps and demanded the remaining half-step. Bul lay down on the ground and offered himself for measurement. Vishnu hit Bul with his knee and pushed him down into the underworld, thereby saving Indra's rule. Jugun = yagna. Bhaar Afaari = burden of ego. Puyyari = underworld. 2.

Hari Chand(u): A king of Patna, highly respected for his high morality and generous donations. Vashisht was his guru. Abhayvaiy = the unfathomable Waheguru, whose secrets cannot be known. Aap(i) = Waheguru Himself.

Once, when Vashisht was away, sage Vishva Mittar wanted to test Hari Chand. On a devious demand by Vishva Mittar, to which Hari Chand agreed, the King had to donate his entire kingdom to Vishva Mittar and sell himself, his wife, and his son at a slavery fair (market) in Banaras to fulfil his promise. Hari Chand was bought by a contractor of a graveyard. His wife, Tara, and their son were bought by a Brahman. Hari Chand was appointed as the tax collector at the graveyard. Hari Chand's son died of a snake bite. Tara took the dead body for cremation to the graveyard where Hari Chand demanded tax, which Tara could not pay. Hari Chand had to go through all this meaningless suffering because he had not consulted his guru. 3.

Doormut(i) = ill advice; haumein. Doorachaari = immoral; egoistic. Gerb Perhaari = the destroyer of conceit.

Henakhsh (Hernkushyup): a king of Multan (now in Pakistan) who was blessed by the gods not to die during the day or night, neither inside, nor outside, neither in the sky nor on the ground. With this blessing of immortality, he became very conceited and demanded that everyone worship him rather than any god. His five-year-old son, Prahalad, not only refused to do so but also encouraged his classmates to do the same, worshipping only Waheguru. Hernakhsh tried to persuade his son to worship him, but when the latter constantly refused, Hernakhsh tried to have him killed many times, but Prahalad survived every time. Finally, Hernakhsh pulled his own sword to behead his son, when Vishnu appeared as a man with the head of a lion. Vishnu tore apart the King with his lion-paws and saved his devotee. 4.
NOTE: All these stories are from Hindu Granths and have been used here to glorify Waheguru. Guru Granth Sahib does not certify the truth of these stories.
MEANING: Conceit (ego) is very bad in the world. Only that individual gets rid of his conceit who is connected to the Guru. Pause. Brahma (an eminent god) felt belittled at the source of his birth, but became conceited at the same time, and tried to find the end of the stem of the flower out of which he was born. But he could never find the end. He also had to repent when his ego was hurt as the demons stole the Vedas. When he recited Waheguru's Naam and recovered the Vedas, he was convinced that Waheguru is supreme. 1. Rajah Bul was very conceited of his wealth. He would perform yagnas, and carried a huge burden of ego. Without seeking his guru's advice, he tried to please Vishnu and was thrust into the underworld. 2.
Rajah Hari Chand made lots of donations and earned praise. But without the advice of the Guru, I could not find the secrets of the unfathomable Waheguru. Waheguru Himself misguides people, and Himself guides them. 3.
Because of the bad advice, Henakhsh became highly egoistic and ordered everybody in the kingdom to worship him. But Waheguru is the eradicator of conceit. He saved and salvaged Prahalad with His kindness. 4.

Word Meaning: Ravan: The king of Lanka, who kidnapped Sita, the wife of Rama, when he was under banishment for 14 years. Rama, who was the crown prince of Ayodhiya, attacked Lanka with an army of monkeys (apes) and killed Ravan.
Moogdh(u) = foolish. Achayt(i) = unaware (of the army power of Rama). Sees Smayt(i) = along with his head. Hayt(i) = for (because of). 5.

Sehsbaahoo: With a thousand arms. A king and brother-in-law of sage Jumduguni. Once, the sage served the King and his army with the help of the Kaamdhayn Cow (which had been retrieved from the ocean when the gods and the demons churned it in a joint operation). Sehbaahoo tried to capture the Cow; a battle ensued in which the sage was killed. Later, Pers Ram, the son of the sage, killed the King to avenge the death of his father. Madh(u) and Keet (Kaiytubh) were both demons created by Vishnu, who later killed them. Mehkhaasa: A demon, who had the head of a buffalo, and who fought with goddess Durga, who killed the demon. Nukhoun Bidhaasa = tore with the hand nails. 6.
Jurasundh(i): Father-in-law of Kuns, the king of Mathura and the maternal uncle of Krishna. Jurasundh was born of two mothers, each in two halves, complementary to each other. When the two halves were put together, Jurasunndh(i) became a full human child. He was killed by Bhim, with Krishna's help.
Kaaljumun: an associate of Jurasundh(i)
Ruckutbeej: A demon general of King Soombh Ksoombh, who fought against Goddess Durga. Ruckutbeej (blood-seeds) had the unique ability that every drop of his blood changed into a demon. So, Durga pulled a goddess, Kalka, out of her forehead, who would drink all the blood drops of Ruckutbeej before they fell on the ground. The demon was eventually killed by Durga.
Kaalnaym: An eminent valiant of King Bul; killed by Vishnu.
Bidaaray = torn apart. Sunghaar(i) = killed. Nistaaray = made successful. 7.
Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Aapay = Waheguru. 8.
MEANING: The foolish and ignorant Ravan made a huge mistake (of kidnapping Sita, wife of Rama) as a result of which he lost not just his country, Lanka, but also his head. In his ego, he refused to seek the Guru's advice and lost everything. 5.
Without the worship of Waheguru, demons like Sehsbaahoo, Madh(u) and Kaytubh were destroyed, and Hernakhsh was torn apart by Vishnu with his lion-paws. 6.
Waheguru protected His devotees, and destroyed the egoists like Jurasundh(i) and Kaaljumun, and demons like Ruckutbeej and Kaalnaym. 7.
In fact, Waheguru Himself guides and misguides people. As Satguru, He ponders on His own Shabad (reveals His Message). He gets demons to be rapt (engrossed) in Maya, as a result of which they become conceited and are killed by their own ego. With Waheguru's kindness, some individuals become His dedicated devotees in the shelter of the Guru and find salvation. 8.

---------- Booda Dooryodhun(u), put(i) khoyee. Ram(u) na jaaniya, Kerta soyee. Jun kuou dookh(i) puchaiy dookh(u) hoyee. 9. Junmayjaiy, gur shabad(u) na jaaniya. Word Meaning: Booda = drowned (in conceit); lost mental balance. Dookh(i) Puchaiy = cause trouble. Duryodhan: The villain of the Mahabharat, and son of the blind king, Dhritrashtra, of Hastinapur (Delhi). He defeated the Pandeva by a deceitful technique at a game of dice. The Pandavas also lost their wife, Draupadi, at the game.

Duryodhan tried to unclothe her in the court, but Krishna saved her honour. Eventually, he was killed by Bhim, one of the five Pandava brothers, at Kurukshetra. 9.
Junmayja: A famous king. His father, Prikshat, was killed by a snake bite. Janmeja killed most of the snakes in a yagna to avenge the death of his father. Once, he performed a horse yagna (in which horses were killed as sacrificial animals). At the conclusion of the yagna, his wife appeared in sheer clothes at the gathering where meals were being served to the Brahmans. Seeing the queen in see-through clothes, some Brahmans began to laugh; at that, the king ordered them killed. Because he killed Brahmans, which is considered to be a huge sin in Hinduism, Janmeja developed leprosy on his entire body. His guru, Viyas, advised him to listen to the Mahabharat. As the Rajah began to listen, his leprosy began to disappear; but when he doubted that the elephants, which Bhim had thrown in the sky, had not yet returned to the earth, leprosy stayed on his thumb.
Bherm(u) bhoolaaniya = misled by his doubt. Ikk(u) Til(u) = a very small amount. 10.
Kuns: Krishna's maternal uncle and king of Mathura. He had imprisoned Krishna's parents and had already killed Krishna's 6 siblings. He was killed by Krishna.
Kayse: A wrestler of Kuns; killed by Krishana. Chandoor: A valiant of Kuns; also killed by Krishna. Ram = Jugdeesh = Waheguru. Cheeniya = recognized. 11.
Gurmut(i) = Guru's advice. Dheeruj = patience. Dherm = morality. 12.
MEANING: Duryodhana lost his mind and failed to realize that Waheguru is the creator of the universe (and controls all that happens). (Duryodhana tried to unclothe Daraupadi) without realizing that when one causes trouble for a devotee of Waheguru, he has to suffer more in return (because of his ill deeds). 9.
Junmeja too did not pay any heed to his Guru's advice; so how could he enjoy comfort when he was badly misled by doubts (about Bhim's ability to launch elephants in the sky, which had not yet returned to the earth)? Because of a minor mistake (but ignoring Guru's advice) he had to repent deeply. 10.
Nobody fondly remembers any of the individuals like Kuns, Kayse and Chandoor, who did not recognize (realize) Waheguru, and lost their dignity as a result. Nobody can save somebody else's dignity without Waheguru. 11.
The ego cannot be killed without the Guru's advice. With Guru's advice, one recites Waheguru's Naam, whereby one acquires high morality and patience. One acquires Naam (gets connected with Waheguru) by singing His praise, oh Nanak. 12.9.

Word Meaning: Choaa = essence of flowers; perfume; cologne. Chundun = sandalwood. Unk(i) = on the body. Churaaaavoun = put on. Paat Ptumbur = silk clothes. Pehir(i) Hundaavoun = wear. Kuhaa = where? how? 1. Oadh(i) = wear. Jugdeesh = Waheguru. Pause. Koondul = big earrings. Moatiun = of pearls. Maala = necklace. Nihaali = mattress. Goolala = flowers. 2. Naiyn = eyes. Suloani = having beautiful eyes. Khoarr Seegar = (the recognized) sixteen types of beautifications. Ut(i) = extremely. Khooaari = meaningless suffering; humiliation. 3. Sayj = bed. Sookhaali = comforting. Bichhaavaiy = spreads. Su = that. Dayh = body. Dookhaali = source of discomfort. 4. Haiyvur = superior horses. Gaiyvur = superior elephants. Nayjay = spears. Vaajay = musical instruments; musicians. Lushkur = soldiers. Nayb = Khuvaasi = assistants. Paajay = Divaajay = show off. 5. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Taaj = crown. Kooleh(i) = a headdress for distinction. Chhuttar = royal canopy. Sach(u) = immortal. 6. Khan(u) = chief. Mulook = rajah. Ubhay Tubhay = reprimanding servants. Koorray = short-lived. Suvrus(i) = successful. Kaaja = objective of human life. 7. Mumta = worldly attachments. Visaari = forgotten. Mooraari = Waheguru. Prunvut(i) = begs. 8.

MEANING: (People use many ways to look attractive to others), but even if I use cologne or sandalwood extract on my body and wear silk clothes to draw people's (especially women's) attention. How can I enjoy (cannot enjoy) comfort (peace of mind) without Waheguru's Naam? 1. (What should I wear or show off?) It does not matter what I wear, and what I show off (flaunt); I cannot enjoy comfort without Waheguru's Naam. Pause. Even if I wear large earrings and a pearl necklace around my neck (to flaunt my distinct personality), and even if I have a bed covered with red flowers to sleep on, I cannot enjoy comfort without Waheguru's Naam. 2. If I had a beautiful wife with beautiful eyes who beautifies herself in sixteen popular ways, and I also love her extremely, I would still suffer (feel miserable) all the time without reciting Waheguru's Naam. 3. If I had a big mansion with big gates, and had a very comfortable bed on which the gardener spreads fresh flowers all the time, my body (and mind) would still suffer without Waheguru's Naam. 4. If I had superior quality horses and elephants (to enjoy rides), and a number of guards armed with spears in my attendance, and if there are many musicians to honour me, and even have an army of soldiers and other assistants, all these are false show-offs (are short-lived) without Waheguru's Naam. 5.

If I had control over supernatural powers, and people call me a Sidh yogi (are afraid of my powers), and I am able to wear a crown and a distinctive head dress, and have a royal canopy over my head, I cannot have any of such powers permanently without Waheguru's Naam. 6. If I became the chief of a clan, or even a rajah, and had the authority to reprimand subordinates, all these authoritative positions are still hollow (temporary), and one cannot achieve the objective of human life (union with Waheguru) without His Naam. 7. With Guru's advice, I have realized Waheguru in my heart, and have overcome my selfishness, ego, and my worldly attachments, with Guru's Shabad. I, Nanak, beg for Your shelter, oh Waheguru. 8.10.

Purjaaraiy = burns completely. Oobraiy = salvaged. 2. Bhring = a moth-like insect which sinks deep into the flowers to enjoy the essence, but, is caught so badly that it cannot get out, and dies there. Ptunga = moth; it is so attracted to the light and gets so close that it burns on the open light (fire). Koonchar = elephant. To trap an elephant, the hunters dig a deep pit, cover it with leaves and grass, and erect a cardboard look-alike of a female elephant. The male is attracted to the fake female and falls into the pit. Meena = fish, which gets caught by a sharp hook for its greed for the bait. Mirg = (musk) deer; it loves a special type of music played by hunters. Attracted by the music, it falls prey to their arrows. Seh(i) = endure. Trishna = desires. Raach(i) = absorbed in. Tut(u) = Truth (Waheguru). 3. Kaam(i) = in lust. Kaamun(i) = woman. Hitkaari = lover. Binaasaiy = destroys. Vikaari = lustful. 4. Pur Ghur(i) = others' house (women). Cheet(u) = mind. Dolaayay = loses control of the mind. Javuri = chain. Dhundaiy = worldly affairs. Luptaayay = clings. 5.

Bidhvaa= prostitute. Kaam(i) Daam(i) = receives money for sex. Pur Vus(i) = under the control of others. Triput(I) = satisfied; contented. 6.
Thaata = creation; material. Naata = dramatist. 7.
Chaatrik = rainbird; a bird that drinks only the first drop of rain, and that too during the time when the Swanti planet is visible. Piyaasa = thirsty. Oolaasa = feels joyful. 8.
MEANING: There is a rare devotee of Waheguru who washes away the filth of his mind by singing Waheguru's praise. Pause. Service to Waheguru is the only service that is honoured, and service to none other is recognized (in His Court). Give up the ills of the world as being bitter (harmful), oh man. Waheguru is realized only by the love for Him when one becomes just like Him. 1. Everybody in the world has turned their mind away from Waheguru (towards Maya), and the fire of ill- thinking has burned the world completely (everybody is suffering from the ills of Maya, and has no peace of mind). Only those are salvaged who ponder on Guru's Shabad (act on His advice). 2. Just like the moth-like insect (bumblebee), which dies inside the flowers, or the moth, which loses its life in the attraction of fire, or the elephant who gets trapped because of his lust, or the fish which is caught in the hook for its greed for the bait, or the musk-deer who dies for his love for the music, the man is slave to his worldly desires (fully absorbed in Maya), and suffers because he does not realize the Truth (Waheguru). 3. In his lust, a lover of women makes schemes to enjoy. Rage destroys (robs a person of good qualities) all the lustful people. They lose their peace of mind and their dignity by forgetting Waheguru. 4. The mind of an individual who is disconnected from Waheguru becomes weak due to his attraction to others' households (their women and wealth). He begins to make despicable plans to achieve his contemptuous goal, and builds a noose of ill deeds around his neck. But a faithful follower of the Guru attains freedom from Maya by singing the praises of Waheguru. 5. Just as a prostitute, who offers (sells) her body for money and sex to others, and is controlled by others, gets no satisfaction of mind without the husband; (similarly, a devotee of Waheguru gets no satisfaction without His Naam). 6. The pundit reads the Vedas, the Puranas, and the Simritis, and then listens to (ponders on) the creation (message in them). He may read them again and again, but never gets mental satisfaction. Without enjoying the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, it is all a drama. 7. Like a chaatrik (rainbird) that loves water, has thirst for water, and like a fish which feels joyful in water, I feel happy and contented by the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 8.11.

Word Meaning: Hutth(u) = stubbornness of mind. Na Laykhaiy = not rewarded. Vayse = clothing of different faiths. Bhusm = ashes. Bisaar(i) = forgetting. 1. Suheh(i) = endures. Jum Dookh = punishment of the angel of death. Pause. Choaa = extract of flowers. Agar = fragrance. Kupoor(i) = musk. Mugun = deeply absorbed; immersed. Perm Pud(u) = the highest spiritual state. Koor(i) = false; perishable. 2. Nayjay = (soldiers with) spears. Tukhut(i) = (on the) throne. Slaam = bowing. Adhkee = enhanced. Trishna = appetite for Maya. Viyaapaiy = affects. Kaam(u) = lust. Jaachay = wish for. 3. Vaad(i) = debating an issue for the sake of winning. Mayla = union. Soohayla = comforting. Doojay Bhaayay = in love with Maya. Agiyaan = ignorance. Doohayla = suffering. 4. Dum = money. Sauda = merchandise. Haat = shop. Bohith = boat. Vaat = travelling. Ghaatay Ghaat(i) = loss, and more loss. 5. Vaah(u) = praise worthy; accolades to. Mayl(i) Milaavaiy = connect self, and then others with Waheguru. 6. Jeeo = life. Muth(i) = by churning; analyzing in depth. Vudaayee = praise; respect. Toodh(u) Bhaanaiy = Your Will. 7. Kiyoun = how? Undin(u) = day and night. Juput = reciting. Shernaayay = shelter. Ruttay = imbued. Put(i) = honour. 8.

MEANING: An individual, who tortures himself (by standing on one leg, or by dangling upside down, etc., to please some god), or follows the path of some sect and covers his body with ash, receives no reward from Waheguru for such efforts. He has to repent a lot for ignoring Waheguru. 1. So, enshrine Waheguru's Naam in your heart, and enjoy the bliss, oh my mind. Forgetting Waheguru's Naam, one has to endure the punishment of the Angel of Death. Pause. One may wear different colognes (perfumes) to look attractive, but all this is Maya (false enjoyment); a man, who is engrossed in Maya, is far, far away from the high spiritual level (which results in merging with Waheguru). Everything is false (short-lived) if one forgets Waheguru. 2. A rajah may have many people bowing to him; may have many spear-bearing soldiers for security, and may have many musicians to entertain him with respect, but all such things only boost his ego and enhance his desires for more sensual pleasures (which result in loss of mental peace). Without wishing for (love for) Waheguru, there is no other real worshipping, and no real Naam (which are prerequisites for real comfort and peace of mind). 3. Religious debates (for the sole purpose of winning) lead to greater ego and cannot lead to union with Waheguru (because ego is the biggest hurdle to union with God). One acquires Naam only when one surrenders one's mind to the Guru, and Naam is the real source of bliss. Love for Maya causes darkness in the mind (ignorance), and the individual suffers discomfort. 4.

Just as you cannot buy any merchandise from a shop without money, and just as you cannot travel in the sea without a boat, there is no gain in spirituality without Waheguru's Naam; actually, there is loss and more loss in moral character. 5.
The Guru deserves our praise (respect) for showing us the right path and for His spiritual advice. He deserves our respect for connecting us with Waheguru. 6.
Waheguru deserves our respect because our life belongs to Him. (To enjoy bliss) One must ponder deeply on the Guru's Shabad and drink the Naam-Amrit. But the honour of acquiring Naam is completely due to His kindness. 7. How can I survive without Waheguru's Naam, oh my mother? I wish to recite His Naam day and night in His shelter. Only those get honoured in Waheguru's Court, who are imbued in His Naam, oh Nanak. 8.12.

Word Meaning: Bhaykheen = different faiths. Jaaniya = recognized; realized. 1. Huoun = I; me. Perm Pud = highest spiritual level (becoming "one" with Waheguru).

Pause. Dhaaveh(i) = move quickly; attack fiercely. Khupeh(i) = struggle without success. 2. Nivraiy = remove; eradicate. Chunchul = fickle; changing quickly. Tiyaagaiy = give up. Punch = the five demons. Sunghaaraiy = destroy. 3. Saach(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Sejh Ghur = the state of mental peace. Raajun = Waheguru. Perm Gut(i) = the highest spiritual state. 4. Kerni = routine tasks. Bherm(u) = doubt; misgiving. Nirbhuou = fearless; perfect (Waheguru). Taarri = get fully absorbed; meditate. 5. Kiya Paavaiy = what can be achieved? Bhaytay = get connected. Jhugur = disagreements; doubts. Chookaavaiy = clear up. 6. Jaytee Haiy = however much. Taytee = all that. Kihou Naahi = has no permanence. Giyaan Bhayt(i) = by acquiring Divine Knowledge. 7 Haumein Bundhun = selfishness and ego are bonds. Bhuvaavaiy = birth-death-birth cycle. 8.
MEANING: (Without Waheguru's Naam in mind), the dress code of any faith generates haumein among the faithful, so they cannot recognize (connect with) Waheguru. Some rare devotee of the Guru brings full faith in Waheguru (get connected with Him) by worshiping Him (reciting His Naam). 1. One cannot realize Waheguru with their ego and selfishness; one can attain the highest spiritual state only after abandoning their haumein. Pause. The rajahs attack others fiercely in their ego, and suffer in their haumein, as a result of which they are caught in a birth-death cycle. 2. One can get rid of his haumein by pondering on Guru's Shabad (acting on His Advice). A devotee is also able to get rid of his fickle thinking and destroy the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachment, and ego). 3.
He realizes (connects with) the Royal Waheguru and attains the highest spiritual state. With Waheguru in his heart, he attains a stable mind and enjoys bliss. 4.
The Guru dispels (clears) his doubts, and his daily tasks are based on truth (godliness). He focuses his mind with full concentration on the fearless (perfect) Waheguru. 5.
What does one gain in his selfishness and ego? (Nothing)! All his doubts are cleared when he gets connected with the Guru. 6. (Without Waheguru's Naam) The whole world which exists is worth nothing (spiritually). Only a supreme devotee of the Guru acquires the Divine Knowledge and sings praise of Waheguru. 7.
Haumein tightens the bonds of Maya, and puts the man in the rebirth cycle. Only a devotee of Waheguru enjoys comfort (eternal bliss), oh Nanak. 8.13.

Word Meaning: Pruthmay = first of all. Kaalaiy Ghur(i) = spiritual death. Braham Kumul(u) = The lotus flower out of which Brahma was born. Puyaal(i) = underworld. Bherm(i) Bhoolaaya = misled by his doubts. 1. Oopjaiy = comes into existence. Sunghaariya = killed. Pause. Mohay = captivated. Dayvi, Dayva = goddesses and gods. Kaal(u) = (spiritual) death. Oh(u) = Waheguru. Abinaashi = immortal. Alukh = incomprehensible. 2. Khan = chief. Dhur = support. 3. Mookaam = (permanent place to) stay. Shah = king; wealthy. Suncheh(i) = accumulate. Daam = money. Dhun(u) = wealth. 4. Ruyyiut = subjects; citizens. Mehr = specialists (leaders). Mookudumm = assistant of a collector of revenue; ahead of others (leader). Sikdaar = one, who has the right to start his own coins (a rajah); chief. Nihchul = for ever. Ufuriyo = uncontrolled. Kaal(u) = death. Koorr(u) = false; mortal. 5. Saaji = created. Goyee = absorbs in; causes to disappear. Jaapaiy = becomes “visible”. Put(i) = respect; honour. 6. Bhaykh Faqira = mystics of many faiths. Choadaiy = set free. Dheera = support. 7. Jaal(u) = net. Jihva = tongue. Bikh(u) = poison (related to Maya). Baiyni = talk. Mootthaiy = are robbed (of good qualities). Din Raiyni = day and night. 8. Hirdaiy = in the heart. Joh(i) = threaten. Smaayay = absorbed. 9.

MEANING: (Why to talk about others)? First of all, Brahma (who is believed to be the creator of the world in Hinduism) suffered spiritual death (when he did not believe he was born from the stem of the lotus growing from the navel of Vishnu and tried to find its end). He wandered in the dark for many years and was led to the underworld, yet could not find its end. He did not seek the Guru's advice and was misled by his doubt. 1. All those who come into this world suffer (spiritual) death (without Guru’s advice), but I was saved by Guru’s Shabad, which I pondered on (acted on His advice). Pause. All the goddesses and the gods were captivated by the charm of Maya (and experienced spiritual death). Spiritual death does not spare anyone until one serves the Guru (acts on His advice). Waheguru is immortal, incomprehensible and unfathomable (only the Guru can connect one with Him; that’s why Guru’s Shabad is so vital to realizing Waheguru). 2. (It does not matter what one’s status in society is), even the sultans, the chiefs, and the kings are all perishable. Those who forget Waheguru's Naam suffer at the hands of the Angel of death. I am at Your support (mercy); I have to obey Your Will no matter what situation You put me through, oh Waheguru. 3. Nobody is going to stay here forever, be it a chief or a rajah. The wealthy accumulate lots of wealth and cash, yet they die because money cannot save them. I beg only for Your Naam, which is the real wealth for me, oh, Waheguru. 4. Be it the subjects, the specialists, the revenue officers or the chiefs; none of them is seen to live in the world forever. The unbridled death hits all the mortals on the head. 5. Only the eternal Waheguru is everlasting. He is the one who creates the world and then takes it in (absorbs it into Himself). Taking Guru's shelter, when a devotee "sees" (connects with) Waheguru, he is honoured (in His Court). 6. The Qazi, the sheikhs, and the mystics of different faiths call them great and suffer from the pain of ego. Spiritual death does not spare anyone without the support (guidance) of the Guru. 7. (Spiritual) Death casts its net in many different ways; it is there when the tongue talks ill of other people, or when the eyes cast an evil look on the beauty or wealth of others, or when the ears enjoy listening to talks about sensual pleasures, and so on. Without the Guru's Shabad, people are being robbed of their good qualities, day and night. 8. (Spiritual) Death cannot even look at the individual who sings Waheguru's praise and embeds Him in his heart by reciting His Naam. A supreme devotee of the Guru stays absorbed in His Shabad, oh Nanak. 9.14.

Word Meaning: Mithiya = lies. Raayee = very small (the size of a mustard seed); very little. Chaleh(i) = follows the path. Rujaayee = (Waheguru's) Will. Ateet = disconnected from Maya. Shernaayee = in the shelter of. 1.
Baiysaiy = stays. Joheh(i) = keep watchful eye; threaten. Mohaiy = because of attachments. Pause. Apiyo = Amrit (Waheguru's Naam). Akuth(u) = indescribable. Nij Ghur(i) = in one's own mind. Sejh Ghur(u) = the state of mental peace. Luhiyaiy = acquire. Maatay = imbued. Kuhiyaiy = utter; recite. 2.
Chaal = lifestyle. Nihchul = immovable (condition of mind on which Maya has no effect). Dolaiy = becomes weak. Tut(u) = eternal Truth (Waheguru). Virolaiy = churns (examines carefully to acquire) Truth. 3. Deekhiya = advice. Urpiyo = offered. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Mit(i) = limit. Keeni = achieved. Aatum Cheeni = self-realization. 4. Nirunjun = (Waheguru), which is above the effects of Maya. Perm Huns = supreme swan; a Gur Sikh who is fully detached from Maya. Sach(u) = Apaar(u) = Waheguru. Jot(i) = Waheguru's light. Ekunkaar = Waheguru. 5. Niraalum = above the influence of Maya. Kerni = daily routine. Perm Pud(u) = highest spiritual state. Ahun = haumein. Bhermni = indecisiveness. 6.
In(i) Bidh(i) = in this way; by such means. Nistaariya = salvaged. Uver(u) = other. Bhaariya = Bhaaliya = looked for. 7. Saach Mehl(i) = in Waheguru's residence. Alukh = incomprehensible. Lukhaaya = "showed". Nihchul = permanent. Chhaya Maya = no shade (influence) of Maya. Suntoakhaiy = satisfied. Bherm(u) = misgiving; illusion. 8.
Sungut(i) = in the company. Mul(u) = filth of mind. Khoyee = lost; wahed away. 9.

MEANING: The devotees of Waheguru tell only the truth, and no lies, not even the size of a mustard seed. In the shelter of Waheguru, they stay detached from Maya (the worldly attachments). 1. When they stay connected with God, death is not fearful for them. However, the individual, who is disconnected from Waheguru (and loves Maya), suffers from his worldly attachments and remains in the birth-death cycle. Pause. The devotees, who are imbued with Waheguru's sweet Naam, enjoy the comfort (blissfulness) by discussing the virtues of the indescribable Waheguru while they drink the Naam-Amrit. They stay within their own mind (do not let their mind wander after worldly attractions), and attain the state of peacefulness. 2.
By following Guru's advice, their mind becomes stable (peaceful) and does not waver. With Guru's eternal advice, they recite Waheguru's Naam in the state of peacefulness. They ponder on Guru's Shabad, drink Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, and realize Him. 3. They visit (take shelter of) the Guru and seek His advice. By surrendering their mind and body, they attain the high internal state (and the ability to realize the self). Through self-realization, they come to know their limits (weaknesses) and achieve a high spiritual state by overcoming them. 4. With limitless Waheguru's light in their heart, they become “Perm Huns,” i.e., just like Waheguru. Waheguru’s Naam is their supreme spiritual food, and they “see” Waheguru in every direction they look. 5. They remain detached from Maya and make only Waheguru’s Naam a part of their daily routine. By serving at the Feet of the Guru (acting on His advice with complete diligence), they attain the highest spiritual state (become “one” with Waheguru). Their indecisiveness of mind due to ego is eradicated, and they are able to persuade (control) their mind to stay within its limits (to have full control over their mind). 6. Who is there who could not be salvaged by this way (of life) (i.e., by obeying the Guru, and controlling the mind)? All the holy saints and the devotees find salvation by singing the praise of Waheguru. After realizing Waheguru, I never looked for any other power for salvation. 7. The Guru “showed” me the incomprehensible Waheguru in His mansion (I realized Him). Waheguru’s Residence is eternal, and there is not even a shade of Maya there. With me comprehending Waheguru, all my illusions (misgivings) were cleared, and my mind was completely satisfied (blissful). 8. In the company of the supreme devotees who have Waheguru’s Naam embedded in their hearts, one develops full faith in the Guru. With Waheguru’s Naam, all the filth of the mind is washed away, oh Nanak. 9.15.

Word Meaning: Raapaiy = is dyed (imbued). Oopjump(i) = appropriate; fruitful. 1. Abhaag(u) = misfortune. Joog, Joog = in every eon. Daata = provider. Pause. Tit(u) = in that. Ghut = heart. Unhut = auto-playing Divine music. Toora = musical instruments. 2. Ders(u) = have a glimpse. Pers(i) = by touching (feet). 4. Ruvaiy = is present. Jooni Bhuvaiy = goes through different life forms. 5. Boojhaiy = understands; realizes. Paayay = gets connected with; realizes. 6. Urdh Oordh = lower and higher; this world and the next; human soul and Waheguru. Sundh(i) = union; connecting two bodies. Maanaiy = is overcome with attraction (for Waheguru). 7.

Nirgoon = having no good qualities. Jun = devotee. Turiyaiy = find salvation. 8.
MEANING: It is highly fruitful (spiritually) to have a glimpse of (get connected with) those whose minds are imbued with Waheguru's love. 1. Waheguru is the provider for all of us through all the eons. So, it is highly unfortunate for you if you do not recite Waheguru's Naam, oh man. Pause. A devotee becomes perfect when he recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. At that stage, he feels as if he is listening to the Divine music played by the auto-playing instruments. 2. An individual who worships Waheguru with love for Him in mind is protected (from all ills) by the grace of Waheguru. 3. One feels blissful by the sight of the holy devotees and by touching their feet, who have Waheguru in their hearts. 4. Even though Waheguru is present in every heart, the egoistic individual, who is disconnected from Waheguru, has to go through many life forms again and again. 5. Only that individual realizes this truth who has connected with the Guru. With His Shabad, he overcomes his haumein and gets connected with the Guru. 6. How can one understand (be sure about) the union of the human soul with the Supreme Soul (Waheguru)? (Answer): His mind is overcome by his attraction for Waheguru when he takes Guru's shelter. 7. I am devoid of all good qualities; please, be kind, and inculcate good qualities in me, oh Waheguru. One gets salvation when Waheguru is merciful, oh Nanak. 8. 16.

Word Meaning: Goyilee = herdsman; caretaker. Saara = looking after well. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Paaleh(i) = nourishes. Raakh(i) Layh(i) = protects. Aatum Sookh = mental comfort. Dhaara = supports; provides. 1. It Oot = here and there (everywhere). Deen = poor; powerless. Shernaagut = in shelter. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Nihaala = blessed. Pause. Jeh = wherever. Ruv Ruhay = is present. Teh = there. Daata = provider. Bhoogta = consumer. Praan Adhaara = support of life. 2. Kirt Puyya = result of the deeds done previously. Udh = urdh = low (in spirits). Oordhi = high (in spirits). Oopma = praise. Binsaiy = vanish. 3. Binsut = vanishing. Loabhay = in greed. Mookut(i) Dooaara = door of freedom. 4. Nij Ghur(i) = own home. Apaar = limitless. Uprumpur = away and away (above the effects of Maya). Thir = stable; immortal. Boojhaiy = by understanding. 5. Jum Jaala = net of death. Doal(u) = a small bucket. Jayvri = rope. Akaash = sky; very high. Putaala = underworld; very low. 6. Visraiy = forget. Sehjaiy = in the state of a peaceful mind. Untar = inside (in the mind). Nidhaan = treasure. Aap(u) = selfishness. Guvaayiyaiy = get rid of. 7. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Unk(i) = in the heart. Mayl(u) = union. Laaha = benefit; profit. 8.

MEANING: Just as a caretaker (herdsman) looks after his cows carefully and guards them in a meadow, Waheguru raises and nourishes all the living beings, and guards them day and night, providing them mental comfort. 1. We are in Your shelter, oh Waheguru. You are kind to the poor and the weak; please guard us everywhere, and cast Your kind sight so that we may feel blessed. Pause.

Wherever I look, You are present, oh our guard, Waheguru. Please protect us (against the fire of desires). You are the provider, but at the same time, You are also the consumer who is enjoying everything by being present in all of us. You are the support of our lives. 2. We are getting the rewards of our previous deeds (good or bad). Without pondering on the Knowledge (Guru's Shabad), sometimes the man feels very low-spirited, while at other times he is in high spirits. Without singing praise of Waheguru, the darkness of ignorance does not vanish. 3. I have noticed the world suffering because of people's greed and ego. By serving the Guru, I have realized Waheguru, which is the door to freedom from the bonds of Maya. 4.

The unreachable Waheguru resides in His own Mansion (and can be reached only with the Guru's Shabad). Nobody can become immortal (achieve union with Waheguru) without the Guru's Shabad. An individual who realizes this enjoys comfort. 5.

What does a man bring into this world when he is born, and what does he take with him when he dies? He is always caught in the net of the Angel of (spiritual) death (because of his attachment to the world). He is like a bucket tied to a rope, used to draw water from the well. Like the bucket when it is lowered, the mind of the man sinks in low spirits; and like the bucket when it is pulled up (higher to the surface), the human mind sometimes takes flight in the sky in high spirits. 6. Let us listen to Guru's advice, and not forget Waheguru, because we earn respect in Waheguru's Court only when we remember Him. (We are unaware that) The treasure of Waheguru's Naam is within us; let us connect with the Naam and rid ourselves of our selfishness. 7. When Waheguru casts His kind sight on someone, He implants noble qualities in the individual, as a result of which the individual merges into Waheguru. Once connected with Waheguru, this union is never broken, and the individual earns the additional benefit it of His Naam, oh Nanak. 8.1.17.

NOTE: This is the first Shabad of Guru Nanak Sahib in Gaurri Baiyraagun(i). The digit "1" in the final total - 8.1.17 - implies just that.

Word Meaning: Boojh(i) Lay = understand; realize. Nibayra = conclusion; come to realize. Tthaakur(u) = Lord; provider. 1. Chhootiyaiy = get freedom (from the bonds of Maya). Kerm Kmaayiyaiy = perform religious rituals. Undhiyaara = darkness (of mind). Pause. Baahray = without; devoid of. Punth = (the right) path. Soojhyee = think of. Kit(u) Bidh(i) = in what way? how? Nirbuhiyaiy = live with; deal with. 2. Khoata = impure (having unacceptable qualities). Khura = pure. Saar = value. Paakhoo = analyst; appraiser. Kulee Kaal = the period of Kulyug. Vidaanaiy = amazing. 3. Sootay = asleep; engrossed in Maya. Jaagut = awake; alert from the attacks of Maya. Jeevut = alive (spiritually). Mooyay = spiritually (dead). 4. Aavut = who comes to Guru's shelter. Jaata = gone from the world of Maya. Jaatay = who turns his face away from the Guru (spirituality). Pur Kee = belonging to others. Bhaaya = liked. 5. Meettha = Waheguru's Naam. Kurrooa = bitter. Raatay = who is imbued in Waheguru's love. Ninda = talk ill of. Deettha = seen. 6. Chayri = slave (Maya). Tthaakur = Master (Waheguru). Poakhur(u) = pond. Viroliyaiy = churn. Maakhun = butter. Reesaiy = ooze out; is produced. 7. Pud = level; stage. Urthaayay = understands; experiences. Cheenaiy = recognize.

Apur Apaara = beyond the effects of Maya (Waheguru). 8. Vertda = operates. Bhermaaya = misguides. Boojhiyaiy = get enlightened. Braham = Waheguru. Smaaya = present. 9.

MEANING: By Guru's grace, if one understands, then he will come to realize that Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, and which resides in every heart, also resides in his heart, and is the Lord (provider) of all. 1. If one ponders deeply, one will realize that one cannot get freedom from the bonds of Maya without the Guru's Shabad. Without the Guru, the darkness of ignorance does not go away, even if one performs millions of prevalent religious rituals. Pause. What can you teach the people who are devoid of intelligence, and are blind in the darkness (of ignorance)? Without the Guru, they cannot think of the path of righteousness; so how can you deal with them? 2. They call the impure (a Maya-minded person) "pure" and have no clue about the value of the truly pure (devotee of the Guru) person. The amazing thing about the era of Kalyug (the present era) is that a blind (ignorant) person is regarded as the appraiser of pearls (noble qualities). 3. The world considers a person, who is asleep (deeply engrossed in Maya and totally disconnected from Waheguru), "awake" (he makes good money), and the person, who is awake (who is alert against the attacks of Maya, and is a devotee of Waheguru), as being "asleep" (because he does not care about money). It considers a (spiritually) alive individual as dead, and does not cry (feel sorry) for the individual who is really (spiritually) dead. 4. The world labels the individual who comes to the shelter of the Guru as "gone" (from the world of Maya); and the one who goes away (turns his face away) from the Guru, as having "come" (to the world of Maya). The world shamelessly claims their perishable belongings as their own (how can they be theirs when they will not accompany them after death?), and don't like the Naam, which is really theirs. 5. Waheguru's Naam, which is really sweet, is considered "bitter", and Maya, which is really bitter (poisonous), is considered as being sweet. What we see in Kalyug is that the world unduly criticizes the devotees, who are imbued with Waheguru's Naam. 6. The world is blind to the Lord (Waheguru), and serves the slave (Maya). It is like churning the water of a pond which will not produce butter. 7.

An individual who analyzes themselves becomes like Waheguru, which is above all the effects of Maya. I will respect that individual like my guru, who recognizes the self and experiences the spiritual state in which he realizes that God is the only power to be worshiped for salvation. 8. Waheguru alone operates everywhere in the world, and He, Himself, misguides people (gives them the character based on their deeds). It is by Guru's grace that we come to realize that Waheguru is omnipresent, oh Nanak. 9.2.18.

Word Meaning: Sootuk(u) = impurity (a superstition created and spread by Brahmans among the masses to earn money. According to superstition, a home becomes impure when a birth or a death occurs in the family. This impurity stays in the house for 13 days, after which the family Brahman would recite mantras to “purify” the home and charge a handsome fee.

Guru Sahiban strongly opposed such a baseless belief and condemned the practice. They explained that there is nothing impure about either birth or death. People should always remember Waheguru in each and every situation. They discussed many situations which cause impurity of mind. Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Bhermay Bhoolay = misled by false beliefs. 1.

Kub-heh(i) Na = never. Jichur = as long as. Bheejaiy = persuaded. Pause.

Moh(u) = attachment. Aakaar = visible things. Vaaro Vaar = again and again. 2.

Bhoajun = food. Jayta Kichh(u) = all that. 3. Sootuk(i) Kerm = rituals related to sootuk. Ruttay = imbued. Nirmul = pure. 4. Soadh(i) = analyze; study deeply. Mookut(i) = free from the bonds of Maya. 6.

Joog Chaaray = in all the four eons. Ootum(u) = above all. Kul(i) = in Kulyug. 7. Saacha = Waheguru. Smaayay = present. 8.

MEANING: (There is no such thing as “sootuk” (impurity) as preached by Brahmans, and as believed by the people). However, many other things also cause impurity; for example, the mind becomes impure when an individual loves Maya rather than Waheguru. Misbeliefs also cause impurity of mind, and, misguided by misbeliefs, individuals are caught in the rebirth cycle. 1. The misbelief of “sootuk” for an individual, who is disconnected from God, never goes away as long as his mind is not persuaded, and does not get imbued in Waheguru’s Naam by Guru’s Shabad. Pause. Even the attachment with the visible things (including members of the family) causes impurity of mind (one gets disconnected with Waheguru), and the individuals take births, and die again and again. 2. (If we go by the Brahmanical definition of sootuk or impurity), then the fire, the air, and the water are all impure because small living beings keep taking births, and keep dying in the three. Similarly, all the food that we eat is impure because it is produced by heat, water and air (which are impure by the Brahmanical definition). 3. Any worship

(recitation of mantras by the Brahmans) related to “sootuk”, is unacceptable to Waheguru. The mind is purified only when one gets imbued in Waheguru’s Naam. 4. The misbelief of “sootuk” goes away by serving Satguru. (By serving Satguru), One merges into Waheguru as a result of which the individual is not reborn, and does not die. The death becomes meaningless for him. 5. If one studies the Hindu religious books carefully, he will find out that no one gets freedom from the bonds of Maya without Waheguru’s Naam. 6. No matter which eon it is, pondering on Guru’s Shabad to get connected with Waheguru’s Naam is above any other religious deed (including donations to charities). Even in Kalyug (which is considered to be the worst of all the four eons), the devotees of Waheguru swim across the sea of Maya (are salvaged). 7. Waheguru is immortal; He is neither born nor does He die, and is always there to protect us. Guru’s devotees are always connected with Him, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Praan = life. Adhaara = support. Oordhaara = embedded in the heart. Sobha = praise; respect. Saach Duaara = Waheguru’s Door. 1. Tujhou = give up; get rid of. Vikaara = vices. Bhuoujul(u) = the world-sea. Pause. Kerm = rituals. Dherm = high morality. Doyee = the indecision about choosing between Waheguru and Maya. 3. Perbodhou = enlighten. Boojhou = recognize. Soyee = that (Waheguru). 4. Dumf(u) = show off. Chuturaaee = cleverness; shrewdness. Thaayayn Na Paayee = is not recognized. Tthaur = shelter; peace. 5. Abhimaana = conceit. Bug = Buglaa = heron. Laayay Buhaiy Dhiyaana = focuses quietly on his prey. Jum = (angel of) death. 6. Jaat(i) = caste (status in the social hierarchy). Saayir = sea. Saayir Kee Pootri = the daughter of the sea (Maya). Maya, the manifestation of Luxmi, the wife of Vishnu, was retrieved from the ocean when it was churned by the gods and the demons. Luxmi is one of the fourteen "Ruttans" which were retrieved from the ocean. Bidaar(i) = by tearing apart. Guvaayee = lost; got rid of. Jhootthee = false. 8.

MEANING: (Rather than reading the religious books for the sole purpose of debating (and impressing people), recite Waheguru's Naam, and get rid of your vices, oh pundit ji! Swim across the world sea by taking shelter of the Guru. Pause.

Serve the Guru, and make Waheguru the support of your life, oh pundit. Keep Waheguru in mind all the time, and embed (enshrine) His Naam in your heart, as a result of which, you will earn respect at Waheguru's door. 1.

An individual, who comes to Guru's shelter, overcomes his selfishness and ego, and Waheguru's Naam gets implanted in his heart; and no filth of any vice comes near him. 2. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, a Guru's devotee does not need any religious rituals; his ego and attachment for Maya vanish completely. (Disregarding Maya) He gets imbued in Waheguru's Naam and enjoys bliss. 3.

(Without acquiring Divine Knowledge), You may preach to people, but your hollow preaching produces no effect on them, oh pundit. You need to enlighten your own mind first and recognize Waheguru (connect with Him). Take Guru's shelter to realize Waheguru, when you will enjoy eternal bliss. 4. With his cleverness, a money-minded individual, who is disconnected from Waheguru, performs many deeds of showmanship to fool the people into thinking he is religious. But his efforts are not recognized by Waheguru. He continues to take rebirths and never gets peace.

5. All the deeds of a money-minded person are full of ego, and are like that of a heron (which looks very innocent like a swan, which is vegetarian, but which, very quietly, waits for its prey to pounce on). The heron-like, money-minded person repents when he is caught by the Angel of Death. 6. Without serving Satguru, nobody can get freedom from the bonds of Maya with their own efforts. One connects with Waheguru only by the grace of the Guru; the Guru is the only donor (source) of Waheguru's Naam (the means of connecting with Waheguru), no matter what the eon is. 7. A devotee of the Guru overpowers (gets rid of) Maya by tearing apart its effects. He earns praise and respect in Waheguru's Court because of Waheguru's Naam in his heart, no matter what his social caste is (Waheguru's Naam raises his societal caste). Without Waheguru's Naam, all other show-offs of cleverness are false (worthless), and are not recognized by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.2.

Word Meaning: Joog = world. Dherm(u) = moral code. Purrhou = study; examine. Pooraiy = Perfect. Sojhee = understanding; enlightenment. Aithaiy = this world. Uggaiy = next world. Sukhaayee = friend; helpful. 1. Purrhou = recite. Maiyl(u) = filth. Ootaar(u) = wash out. Pause. Vaad(u) = meaningless debates. Virodh(i) = opposition; hostility. Pheeka = tasteless; discourteous. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for the other (Maya). 2. Bhaytay = getting connected. Khooaara = suffering; discomfiture. 3. Punch = the five demons. Sunghaaraiy = destroys. Suglaiy Kool = all the clans; all associates. Taaraiy = gets salvation. 4. Nut(i) = acrobat (Waheguru). Baaji = acts of an acrobat. Luptaayee = cling to. Alipt = detached. Liv Laayee = connected strongly. 5. Bhaykh = religious garb; impersonate. Bhaykhdhaari = one who wears a religious garb just to show off; impersonator. Tishna = huge appetite for Maya (worldly possessions). Aap(i) = self. Cheenaiy = recognizes; analyzes. 6. Kaapurr pehir(i) = by wearing some religious garb. Chuturaayee = cleverness. 7. Ruttay = imbued. Baiyraagi = detached from the world. Grihi = family man. 8.

MEANING: (According to the Hindu philosophy, there are different moral codes and different requirements (to please their deities) in each of the four eons. But the Perfect Guru has enlightened us that (there is only one way to realize Waheguru – recitation of His Naam with a pure heart - no matter what the eon is. Waheguru's Naam is your friend in this world as well as in the next. If you study carefully, you will find that Waheguru's Naam is also the requirement to realize God in this eon, too. 1. Recite Waheguru's Naam with the grace of the Guru and ponder on it with concentration to wash away the filth of the evil thoughts and deeds. Pause. One cannot realize Waheguru by engaging in debates or opposing others' ideas. Man's mind and body become discourteous (and even hostile) towards fellow humans in his love for Maya (selfishness and ego). But one can meditate with full dedication on Waheguru's Naam by the Guru's Shabad. 2. This world is suffering from the filth of haumein (selfishness and ego). The filth of ego does not go away even if people take dips in the holy waters every day. Without connecting with the Guru, the Angel of Death causes discomfiture. 3. Only that individual is the bearer of Truth (Waheguru's Naam) who destroys (gets rid of) his haumein and the five demons by the Guru's Shabad. Not only does such an individual find salvation for himself, but he also finds it for all his associates. 4. Like the feats of an acrobat which amaze people, Waheguru has created the world in which the gimmicks of Maya amaze people; the blind (ignorant) lovers of Maya cling to it (and forget Waheguru, who has created Maya). But the devotees of the Guru remain detached from Maya and connect with Waheguru with full dedication. 5. The people who wear religious garbs just to show off are impostors, and they change their garb as per their whims. In reality, they have a huge desire for Maya and spend time feeding their ego. They do not recognize themselves (do not engage in self-analysis) and lose the game of life (fail to achieve the real objective of life). 6. Wearing religious garb, they try to be very clever (to impress people), but, in an extreme love for Maya, they are completely misled by their misbelief (that they are truly religious). They suffer greatly without service to the Guru. 7. The devotees, imbued with Waheguru's Naam, are always detached from Maya, and even though they lead a family life, they remain connected to Waheguru with full dedication. Those who serve Satguru are very lucky, oh Nanak. 8.3.

Word Meaning: Mool(u) = base; founder. Vayd Abhiaasa = the path of the Vedas. Tis Tay = from him. Oopjaiy = came into being. Traiy Goon = the three effects of Maya (Tumo, Rujo, Suto). Bhermay = misled. Nij Ghur = own mind. Vaasa = stay. 1. Raakhay = protected (from the attacks of Maya). Drirryaaya = reinforced. Pause. Junjaal = net (bonds) of Maya. Vaad(u) Vukhaaneh(i) = debates. Jum Kaala = death. Tut = reality (objective of human life). Pund = sheaf. Praala = stubble of paddy crop; a worthless substance (cause). 2. Ugiyaan(i) = in ignorance (lack of knowledge). Koomaarug = wrong path. Bisaariya = forgotten. Kerm = rituals. Bhuvjul(i) = in the world sea. Doojaiy = Maya. 3. Moohtaaj = dependent on; worshipper. Pundit = highly educated. Bikhiya = poison; Maya. Javrra = rope; noose. Suntaavaiy = torments. 4. Jumkaal(u) = (spiritual) death. Dooja = love for Maya. Raatay = imbued. 5. Daasi = slave. Kaar Kmaaaiy = serves. Churnee Laagaiy = drop on the feet (surrender to Waheguru). Mehl(u) = Waheguru's abode. Nirmul(u) = pure (no effect of Maya). Sehj(i) = in the state of a peaceful mind. Smaavaiy = absorbed. 6. Dhunvunt = wealthy. Niveh(i) = bow to; listen to. Pooj Kuraahi = are worshipped. Ruveh(i) = recite. 7.
Chauthaiy = the fourth state above the three effects of Maya (pure mind). Braham = God. Milaaya = connected with. 8.

MEANING: The gods, who came into being because of Brahma, who is considered to be the founder of the path of the Vedas, were all engrossed in worldly attachments. They lived under the influence of the three effects of Maya, and their mind never stayed within themselves (at peace, and kept doddering. 1. By Waheguru's grace, I was lucky to be connected to Satguru, who protected me (from the attacks of Maya). Satguru reinforced Waheguru's Naam and His worship in me. Pause. Brahma's Bani (compositions) keep a man bound to Maya. Its readers simply get into debates to impress others (and do not gain any spirituality). They do not realize the reality (the objective of life) and simply gather sheaves of stubble (accumulate worthless assets) as a result of which, they are hit on the head (suffer) by spiritual death. 2. The followers of their own mind are ignorant, and are led on the totally wrong path; they perform worthless rituals, but forget Waheguru's Naam. They get drowned in the world sea because of their love for Maya. 3.
(The ironic thing is that) A worshipper of Maya calls himself a pundit (a highly educated person), but, imbued in the love of Maya, suffers deeply. The noose of spiritual death torments him all the time. 4. On the other hand, spiritual death does not even come near a devotee of the Guru. He destroys his haumein with Guru's Shabad, and imbued in Waheguru's Naam, he always sings His praise. 5.
Maya is a slave to the devotees and serves them (fulfilling their needs). Anyone who comes to the shelter of such devotees also gets connected with Waheguru. With a purified mind, they stay absorbed in the state of blissfulness. 6.

Those who listen to the praise of Waheguru (and embed His Naam in their heart) are the real wealthy individuals in the world. They recite the virtues of Waheguru with a pure mind and in a state where Maya has no effect. Everybody bows to them (shows respect); thus (in a way), they are worshipped day and night. 7.
Anyone who listens (and acts on) Satguru's Shabad (Advice) transcends the three effects of Maya and applies his mind to (attain) the fourth level of spiritual state (where one merges into Waheguru). He overcomes his haumein and becomes "one" with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.4.

Word Meaning: Vaad Vukhaanaiy = to engage in debating. Taamus = darkness because of haumein. Aap(u) = self. Puchhaanaiy = recognize. Ta = only if. 1. Khaadhay = swallowed (spiritually). Doojaiy = other. Bhaayay = in love. Pause. Apraadhi = guilty. Seedhay = purified; succeeded in their objective. Sehj(i) = state of peaceful mind. Reedhay = cooked (matured); realized the objective. 2. Bhaayay = liked. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = routinely; without any special effort. 3. Bherm(i) Bhoolaayay = misguided by misbelief. Bikh = poison; Maya. Dund = punishment. Suheh(i) = endure. 4. Jumooa = Jum = angel of death. Johaiy = watch; keep an eye on. Liv = connected with full concentration. 5. Puvita = pure; holy; pious. In Bidh(i) = this way. Kooshul = all well. 6.

Ful(u) Paayay = reap the reward. Aap(u) = selfishness. Unhud = uniform auto-playing music. 7. Seedho = purified. Vudiyaayee = praise; respect. 8.
MEANING: The pundit reads the Vedas written by Brahma and gets into debates (with the sole purpose of impressing people). But he does not recognize himself because his mind is dark with haumein. He can realize Waheguru only if he recites (acts on) the Guru's Shabad. 1. I serve the Guru (act on His Advice), as a result of which spiritual death cannot affect me. The followers of their minds are swallowed by spiritual death because of their love for Maya. Pause. Following Guru's advice, even the guilty (sinners) become successful (achieve the objective of human life). Acting on Guru's Shabad, they attain the state of mental bliss. Waheguru is successfully realized by Guru's Shabad. 2. When Waheguru likes (becomes kind), He connects His devotees to Satguru, as a result of which the devotees sing Waheguru's praise with love, and attain the state of blissfulness. 3.
Without the guidance of the Perfect Guru, the man is misled by doubts. The blind (ignorant) follower of his mind gets engrossed in Maya all the time, and always endures the (fear of) the punishment by the Angel of (spiritual) death. 4.
The Angel of death no longer watches the individual (for sins) who has come to Waheguru's shelter, because such an individual has gotten rid of his haumein, and is connected with Waheguru with full dedication. He is always fully absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. 5. Those who serve Satguru are pure and holy. Their mind stays in itself (does not waver, and is at peace), as a result of which they conquer the whole world (they have no worldly desire anymore). That is how it is with you (your mind is at peace), oh my friend. 6. Those who serve Satguru reap the rewards. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, they get rid of their selfishness. With Guru's Shabad at heart, they feel as if the music of the Divine Bani (holy compositions), is playing in their mind (and no evil can come near them). 7.
Who was not successful in attaining salvation under the Guru's shelter, oh my brother? (Everybody did). Having achieved their objective (of achieving union with Waheguru) successfully by worshipping Him, they are honoured in Waheguru's Court.
Everybody gets honoured with Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 8.5.

Word Meaning: Traiy Goon = the three effects of Maya. Vukhaanaiy = explains. Bherm(u) = doubt; misgiving. Bundhun = bonds. Mookut(i) = freedom from (bonds of the worldly attachments). Daata = provider; granter. 1. Praani = man. Dhoon(i) = deep meditation; absorption. Oopjaiy = is born. Pause. Kaalaiy = death. Sir(i) Kaara = work (burden) on the head. Chaytaiy = remembers. Oopaavunhaara = the Creator. Vaaro Vaara = again and again. 2. Undha = blind; ignorant. Tay = from. Mool(u) = root (Waheguru). Bhaayee = Bhaayay = love (for Maya). Bikh = poison; Maya. Maata = intoxicated. 3. Mool(u) = base. Juntar = living beings. Visriya = forgotten. Perm Gut(i) = highest spiritual state. 4. Saach(u) = Waheguru. Vertaayay = spreads; disseminates. Chhoopay = hides. Giyaani = seekers of Truth. Sehj Soobhaayay = without any special effort. 5. Soonaayay = reveals. Dhaavut = quickly wavering (mind). Tthaak(i) = control. Soojhi = understanding; enlightenment. 7. Srishut(i) = world. Sirj(i) = having created. Goyee = wrap up. Boojhaiy = understands. 8.

MEANING: Satguru is the only one in the world who can grant (get) us freedom from the bonds of Maya. The pundit discusses the three effects of Maya and their influences, but all such efforts do not clear his own doubts and misgivings. His bonds of Maya are not broken (actually, his ego gets a boost, and he gets more engrossed in Maya), and he does not get emancipation. 1. On the other hand, with Guru's grace, a true devotee of the Guru is able to have his misgivings removed, and with deep concentration on Waheguru's Naam, he enjoys the state of bliss (above the effects of Maya). Pause. Those who lead their lives under the influence of the three characters of Maya remain in fear of the Angel of (spiritual) death. They do not think about Waheguru, who creates the universe (and looks after it), so they keep rebirth after rebirth. 2. A blind (self-proclaimed and ignorant) Guru is unable to dispel the doubts and misgivings of people (about Maya and Waheguru). Forgetting Waheguru, which is the basis of the whole universe, such fake gurus are, in fact, engrossed in Maya (and so are their disciples). Intoxicated by their wealth, they stay fully absorbed in accumulating more and more of that. 3. (However, such Maya-engrossed people cannot be blamed fully for their love for Maya) As Waheguru has created the world, making Maya its basis so that living beings are captivated by it and thus misled (their attachment to Maya never fades). Only a few individuals, to whom Waheguru is kind, transcend the effects of Maya and attain the highest spiritual state. 4. They have Waheguru in their heart, and disseminate His Word to the outside world while dealing with the world at the same time. Waheguru's appearance in some lucky devotee's heart cannot stay hidden from the world, even if the devotee tries to hide it. The seekers of Truth (devotees who tread the path of spirituality) find Waheguru's secrets easily without any special effort (they become "one" with Him). 5. A devotee of the Guru remains connected to Waheguru through the concentration of his mind. He burns his haumein and his love for Maya with Guru's Shabad. The eternal Waheguru connects such a devotee with Him through the Guru. 6. The kind Satguru reveals His Shabad to such a devotee (guides him as to how to connect with God) as a result of which, the devotee controls his fast-wandering mind, and brings it under full control. The devotee gets enlightenment from the Perfect Guru. 7. Some rare individual realizes that Waheguru, who creates the world, also wraps it up, and there is no other power than Him in the world, oh Nanak. 8.6.

Word Meaning: Amoluk = priceless. Sayvay = obey Naam (Huqam). Sehj(i) Smaayay = absorbed in the state of blissfulness. Rusna = tongue. 1. Jupoun Jugdeesha = recite Waheguru's (Naam). Perm Pud Sookha = the comfort of the highest spiritual state. Bhuyya = took place; happened. Pergaas = light. Goontaas(u) = the treasure of virtues. Daasun Dass = slave of slaves. Greh Kootumb = family. Oodaas = detached from Maya. 2.

Jeevun Mookut(i) = dead (detached from worldly attachments) while living in family. Perm Pdaaruth = supreme substance (state of bliss). Maytay = obliterate. Nirmul = purified. Sehjay = in the spiritual state above the effects of Maya. 3.
Moh = Preet(i) = affection. Vusiya = dwelt. Soyee = Waheguru. Baydhiya = pierced. Usthir = stable (non-wavering). Puchhaanaiy = recognize. Boojhaiy = understands. Sach(u) Waheguru. 4.
MEANING: The priceless Naam of Waheguru can be realized only by taking shelter of the Guru. Such a devotee always obeys Waheguru's Huqam and enjoys the state of blissfulness by keeping Waheguru's Naam in mind all the time. His tongue recites Waheguru's Amrit Naam all the time. But only that individual enjoys the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam whom Waheguru is kind to. 1. I always recite Waheguru's Naam in my heart and stay absorbed in the highest spiritual state. Pause.
When the mind of a devotee is enlightened with Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, he sings praise of Waheguru, which is the source of all virtues, and feels blissful. Such a devotee is always humble, as if he is a slave of the Guru's slaves, and remains detached from worldly attachments while living in the family. 2.
Some rare devotee of the Guru attains the highest spiritual state and stay detached from the worldly attractions while living in the family. His mind gets purified, and he transcends the three effects of Maya. With Waheguru's Naam embedded in his mind, he attains the highest spiritual state and realizes Waheguru. 3.
A devotee, who has enshrined Waheguru's Naam in his heart, does not indulge in the love of family. Having been pierced with Guru's Shabad, his mind becomes stable (contented) and quits wandering. A devotee, who recognizes Waheguru's Huqam (obeys it gladly), realizes Waheguru (gets connected with Him). 4.

Word Meaning: Put(i) = dignity. Soyay = same. Ruttan = light radiating precious stone (diamond). Loyay = light. 5. Bigsaiy = blooms; overjoyed. Liv = deep concentration. Sehjaiy = in the state of bliss. Persaadi = kindness. 6.
Mumta = deep affection. Durmut(i) = evil wisdom (thoughts). Goontaas = treasure of virtues. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Pergutee = appeared. Jaas = praise. Ruviya = appeared. Churn = feet (of Waheguru); Waheguru's Naam. Nivaas = dwelling. 7. Aap(u) = selfishness. Guvaavay = lose; get rid of. Vusaayay = embed. 8.
MEANING: You are the creator of the world; I have no one else to depend upon, as You are my provider as well, oh Waheguru. I will serve only You, and my dignity lies in serving You. I wish to sing Your praise, but I can do that only with Your kindness. Your Naam is like a diamond, which sparkles and enlightens the world. 5.
In His shelter, a devotee finds Guru's Shabad to be sweet. His mind blooms when he has a continuous connection with the Guru. With His kindness, the devotee embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart without any special effort. One connects with Satguru only with great luck. 6. Waheguru is the source of all virtues; when one has Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his heart, his selfishness, his ego, his worldly attachment, and his evil thinking all get eradicated. With singing Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru, his mind gets purified, and Waheguru's Naam begins to dwell in his heart. 7. But only that individual gets Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his heart whom Waheguru gives to (with His kindness). Such an individual is connected to the Guru, in whose shelter he overcomes his selfishness and ego, and Waheguru's Naam becomes embedded in his heart. Such a devotee attains the state of higher spirituality by staying absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. 8.7.

Vusiya = came to live. Rujaayay = Will. 1. Govind(u) = Waheguru. Gooni Nidhaan = treasure of all virtues. Pause.

Baiyraagi = detached. Ja = when. Bhuou = fear. Khaayay = overcomes. Nirmula = pure. Smaayay = filling the space; present. 2. Daasun Ko Dass = slave of slaves (very humble). In Bidh(i) = this way. 3. Ruttan = jewel (Waheguru's Naam). Virla = rare. Alukh = invisible. Abhayvaiy = unfathomable. 8.

MEANING: By serving Satguru (obeying His Advice), a devotee gets rid of his ego, and realizes Waheguru, which is the treasure of all virtues, oh my friend. Pause.

Such a devotee purifies his mind with respectful fear for the Guru, and attains the state of bliss (above the three effects of Maya). He is imbued with Waheguru's love by meditating deeply (and acting) on the Guru's Shabad. His mind quits wandering and becomes peaceful with the Will (kindness) of Waheguru. 1.

When a devotee overcomes his worldly fears with the Guru's Shabad, he gets detached from the worldly attachments because he gets connected to the omnipresent Waheguru, which is perfectly pure (completely unattached to the world). The devotee connects with the Guru through Waheguru's benevolence, who, in turn, connects him with Waheguru. 2. The way to connect with Waheguru is through humility – when a devotee has no ego and acts like a slave of slaves. The devotee sings Waheguru's praise, reflecting on His kindness, and enjoys bliss. 3.

(Through yogic exercises, some people are able to live much longer), But a long life is condemnable if the individual does not develop any affection for Waheguru. Likewise, a comfortable bed with a pretty wife in it is also condemnable because it keeps the man in darkness (caused by worldly attachments, which keep him in ignorance of Waheguru). Only those devotees are successful in achieving the objective of human life (union with God) who make Waheguru's Naam the basis of their life. 4.

The love for household and the family is also condemnable if they don't give the opportunity for the man to cultivate love for God in his heart. Only that individual is my friend who sings Waheguru's praise. I do not care about anything else, other than Waheguru's Naam. 5. I acquired dignity and a higher spiritual state from the Guru. All my discomforts have vanished with the recitation of Waheguru's Naam. By meditating deeply on Waheguru's Naam, I have acquired the state of blissfulness (where Maya has no effect). 6. On connecting with the Guru, I evaluated the state (condition) of my body (mind) and realized that all my selfishness, ego, and the fire of desires had gone (become things of the past). My rage had vanished, and I had acquired forgiveness. 7. Only that lucky individual receives Waheguru's Naam, which He bestows by His benevolence. There is a rare individual who acquires the jewel-like Naam of Waheguru. I sing praise of the invisible and the unfathomable Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.8.

Word Meaning: Vaymookh(i) = Mooh(u) Phayray = turn face away (break connection). Booray = bad; repulsive. Buddhay = tied up; bonded to. Maariun(i) = are punished (spiritually). Vayla = time; opportunity. Lehun(i) = get back. 1. Hirdaiy = in the heart. Saar(i) = keep with care. Pause. Say = those. Bhaanvday = are liked. Bhaayay = in the love (fear of); according to the Will. Aap(u) = selfishness. Chhoad(i) = quit. Jeevut Mooyay = stay detached from Maya while living in the family. 2. Pind(u) = body. Praan = life. Sir(i) Kaar = service to; obey His Command. Dhaar(i) = keep; hold. 3. Put(i) = dignity. Kerm(i) = by benevolence. 4. Bhermday = misguided. Ticken(i) = find peace. Jhullyee = provide shelter; accept. Vishta = feces; Maya. Puchun(i) = burn; rot; suffer. 5. Bherm(i) Bhoolaaya = misguided in misbeliefs. Tthugauli = deceitful; treacherous. Bhaytiya = connected with. Bhittaiy = touch. 6. Sayvun = serve; keep in mind. Sohnay = handsome; pure. Maiyl(u) = filth. Ruttay = imbued. Nirmulay = pure; holy. Chulleh(i) = follow; spend life. 7. Daata = donor; provider. Bukhsh(i) = by forgiving. Shernaagti = in the shelter. Bhaavaiy = as (You) please. Chhudaayay = get freedom from Maya.8.

MEANING: Those who turn their face away from the Guru look fairly repulsive (are ill-natured). Bonded strongly to Maya, they always suffer spiritually (due to unfulfilled desires and some sad losses). They cannot get this opportunity (to connect with God) again. 1. Please, be merciful, and save me (from the attacks of Maya), oh

Waheguru. Please connect me with the company of the holy devotees so that I may always keep Your virtuous memory carefully in my mind. Pause.
Waheguru likes those devotees who lead their life in the love of the Guru (according to His Will or advice), serve Him selflessly, and stay fully detached from Maya while living in the family. 2. We have to obey the Command of the Waheguru who has given us the body and the life. How can we forget Him? We have to keep Him in mind at all times. 3. We earn dignity by implanting His Naam in the heart, and we enjoy bliss by obeying Him. One receives Waheguru's Naam with the grace of the Guru, and we connect with Waheguru through His benevolence. 4.
Those who turn their face away from the Guru (show disregard for Him) lead their life misguided and never find peace of mind. They find no shelter (spiritual support) on the earth or in the sky, and engrossed in Maya, they rot (suffer badly) (as they say: life is a bed of thorns). 5. (But the Maya – engrossed people do not deserve the full blame). Waheguru has Himself misled the world into misbelief by creating a love for the deceitful Maya in its mind. However, Maya cannot even go near the devotees of the Guru who have connected with Him. 6. Those who serve the Satguru wash away the filth of haumein and look attractive in the world (they have a sweet nature). Those who are imbued in the Guru's Shabad are pure (holy), and they lead their life in the love of the Guru (obey His Command). 7. There is only one Lord and provider in the world, oh Waheguru. I am in Your shelter; please protect me, Nanak(u), from the attacks of Maya in whatever way You please. 8.1.9.
NOTE: This was the first and the last Ashutpudi in Gaurri Baiyraagun of Mehla 3. The digit "1" in the final total represents this.

Ghur(u) jaayay paaveh(i) rung mehlee, Gur(u) maylay Hur(i) maylaayay. 5. ---------

Word Meaning: Kerhul = camel; a baby camel which runs around uncontrolled in every direction.

[In Gurbani, the human mind has been compared to the camel for two reasons. (1) The human mind wanders uncontrolled like a baby camel. (2) Camels were used as goods carriers in trading, and most of their time was spent in foreign countries and rarely at home. The human mind also takes flight in different directions and rarely stays at home (in itself). Perdaysiya = (like) a foreigner; traveller. 1. Veechaariya = (be) thoughtful. Laykha Mungiyaiy = demand the account (record of deeds). Chhudaayay = gets free. 2. Nirmula = pure. Mul(u) = filth. Pertukh(i) = clearly. Pir(u) = dear; husband. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Vichhurr(i) = separated. Choataan Khaayay = suffer. 3. Bhaal(i) = search for. Bhaalayay = have (get) searched. Oopaayay = effort; way Lubhyee = can find (get connected). Hirdaiy = in the heart. 4.
Liv Laayay = meditate with full concentration. Rung = joy; blissfulness. Mehli = the owner of the Divine Palace (Waheguru, which is the source of bliss). 5.

MEANING: Remember (keep in mind) Satguru, which is a manifestation of Waheguru, all the time, oh my camel-like mind. Pause. My mind is like a camel that travels to foreign countries and rarely stays at home (it keeps wandering like a camel and never stays in itself), so how can it connect with God, oh, my mother! However, if I am lucky to connect with the Perfect Guru, the dear Waheguru will arrive (in my mind), and will hug me tightly with Guru's grace. 1.
Be thoughtful, oh my camel-like mind, and recite Waheguru's Naam. Wherever the account of your deeds is demanded (examined), Waheguru will get you free. 2.
(Being a part of the Supreme Soul), The human mind should be extremely pure to begin with, but becomes filthy with haumein with time. Even though the dear Waheguru is always with him, the selfish, egoistic mind becomes detached from Him and suffers severely (spiritually). 3. Search for Waheguru, and have Him searched (with the help of the devotees of the Guru) in your heart, oh my camel-like mind. There is no other way to find (get connected with) Waheguru; only the Guru can "show" Him in the heart. 4. Oh, my dear, but camel-like mind, meditate on Waheguru with full concentration day and night. When one connects with the Guru, He connects one with Waheguru and allows one to enjoy the bliss of Waheguru's love in his own heart.5.

Word Meaning: Paakhund(u) = hypocrisy; show off; faking. Loabh(u) = greed. Tujaayay = give up; quit. Jum = angel of death. Dund(u) = punishment. 6.
Mayray Praan = my life; my dear. Bherm(u) = doubts; misbeliefs. Guvaayay = get rid of. Amritsar(u) = pool of Naam-Amit. Pooriya = filled to the brim. 7.
Sikh = advice. Soonaayay = listen to. Moh(u) = attachment. Pusriya = spread out. 8.
Khurch = pocket money. Put(i) = dignity. Hur(i) Durgeh = (in) Waheguru's Court. Paiynaaya = honoured. Gul(i) Laayay = hugged. 9. Munniya = by obeying. Gur Kee Kaar = as per Guru's advice. Joadurri = beg; implore. 10.
MEANING: Oh, my friend, but camel-like mind, quit your hypocrisy and greed. The hypocrites and the greedy are punished by the Angel of Death. 6.
Oh, my life, but camel-like mind, get rid of the filth of your hypocrisy and misgivings. A gathering of the holy devotees is like a pool of Naam- Amrit, which the Guru has filled to the brim; you can wash away the filth of hypocrisy and misbeliefs by taking a dip in the pool of the holy devotees (in their company), oh my mind. 7.
Oh, my dear, but camel-like mind, listen to the advice of the Guru that your attachment to your family and to your belongings around you is all short-lived because nothing goes with you after your death (so get rid of this attachment). 8.
Oh, my friend, but camel-like mind, the wealth of Waheguru's Naam, which His devotees accumulate over time, serves as their dignity (high morality) and as their journey expenses for the next world. Such devotees are honoured in Waheguru's Court, and Waheguru embraces them affectionately. 9. Oh, my camel-like mind, obey the Guru's Command, and spend your life as per the advice of the Guru. Also, beg the Guru to connect you with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 10.1.
NOTE: The two Ashutpudis of Mehla 4 are named Kerhulay for the obvious reason that Guru Ram Dass Ji addresses the human mind and compares it with a camel.

Word Meaning: Kerhula = camel-like. Veechaariya = (be) thoughtful. Veechaar(i) = think; ponder on. Smaal(i) = keep (in mind) carefully. Bun = forest. Thuckay = exhausted. Bunvaasiya = residents of the forest. Pir(u) = dear (Waheguru). Gurmut(i) = with Guru's advice. Nihaal(i) = "see". 1. Munmukh(i) = follower of his mind. Phaathiya = trapped. Muha Jaal(u) = the strong net (of Maya). Praani = man. Mookut(i) = free (from the net of Maya). 2. Bhaal(i) = search for. Lug = by joining. Chullaiy = accompanies. Naal(i) = with. 3. Vudbhaagiya = very lucky. Nudr(i) Nihaal(i) = blissful kind sight. Chhudaayay = gets free. Churn = holy feet (Shabad). 4. Dayhee = body (heart). Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light. Naoun Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Daat(i) = gifted kindly. 5.

MEANING: Oh, my camel-like mind, be thoughtful; think about (the importance of Waheguru's Naam) and carefully keep it in your heart. Watch the fate of the people who have left their homes to search for Waheguru in the forests; such forest dwellers have exhausted themselves (without success, because Waheguru cannot be found there). With the advice of the Guru, you will realize that the dear Waheguru resides in your heart, so "see" Him in there. 1. Keep Waheguru in your mind carefully, oh my camel-like mind. Pause. Be thoughtful, oh my camel-like mind, and watch how the follower of his mind is trapped in the strong net of Maya (due to his attachment with the family and his wealth). On the other hand, the devotee of the Guru is free from all such attachments because of Waheguru's Naam that he always keeps in mind. 2. Oh, my dear, but camel-like mind, search for Satguru in the gathering of holy devotees, and recite Waheguru's Naam in their company. Waheguru's Naam accompanies you everywhere. 3. Oh, my camel-like mind, if you join the holy gathering, you could be very lucky to have a kind sight of Waheguru on you. (One cannot get freedom from Maya with one's own efforts), But a blissful sight of Waheguru can get one freedom from Maya, so keep the Guru's advice in mind all the time. 4. Oh, my dear, but camel-like mind, save Waheguru's Light in your body (heart). With the benevolence of Waheguru, which is a lucky gift, the Guru can show You Waheguru's Naam in your heart, which is like having all the nine mythical treasures of the world. 5.

Hum punkhee mun kerhulay, Hur(i) turvur(u) Purakh(u) Akal(i). Vudbhaageen Gurmukh(i) paaya, jun Nanak Naam(u) smaal(i). 10.2.

Word Meaning: Chunchula = capricious; flighty. Chuturaayee = cunningness. Vikraal(i) = frightening; dangerous. Untkaal(i) = at the time of death. 6. Ruttan = (valuable like a precious) jewel. Khurg(u) = sword. Dhaariya = held. Jum = the angel of death. Jumkaal(i) = death. Maarriurra = killed; destroyed. 7. Nidhaan(u) = treasure (of Naam). Bherm(i) = in misbelief. Bhuveh(i) = wanders; looks for. Bhaytiya = met with (got connected with). Luddhrra = found. 8. Rung(i) Ruttrray = dyed; imbued (in the love of Waheguru). Ootraiy = fade. 9. Punkhee = birds. Turvur = tree (shelter). Purakh(u) Akal(i) = omnipresent and timeless. 10.

MEANING: Oh, my camel-like mind, you are highly capricious (undependable), quit your cunningness as it is very dangerous (can land you in big trouble). You should keep Waheguru's Naam in mind, which will get you freedom from the bonds of Maya (and you will go to Waheguru without any filth of Maya) after death. 6. Oh, my camel-like mind, you can be highly lucky if you accumulate highly valuable Divine Knowledge (Waheguru's Naam) in your mind. The Guru will give the sword of Divine Knowledge in your hand, with which you can kill the fear of the Angel of death. 7. The treasure of Waheguru's Naam is in your heart, oh my camel-like mind. Only the individuals with misbeliefs search for Him outside. When one gets connected with the Perfect Guru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru, one finds the friend-Waheguru within him (in his heart). 8. Oh, my camel-like mind, if you always preserve love for Waheguru in your heart, your heart will be dyed (imbued) with His love. If you serve the Guru and act on His Shabad (advice), the colour (love for) Waheguru will never fade from your heart. 9. We are like birds, while the omnipresent and time-less Waheguru is like a tree (shelter) for us, oh my camel-like mind. The lucky individuals acquire Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru; I pray that I, a humble devotee of Waheguru, am given the kind gift of Naam to always keep fresh in my mind, oh Nanak. 10.2.

Word Meaning: Eho = the man. Goomaana = conceit. Baavur(u) = foolish. Bigaana = Baygiyaana = ignorant; uninformed. Reena = dust (of the feet); humble. Rummuyiya = Waheguru. Ghut(i) = in the heart. Cheena = recognized. 1. Sehj = peaceful mind (detached from Maya). Soohayla = enjoying comfort. Muskeeni = humility. Pause. Jaanus(i) = considers. Munda = bad. Phunda = trap; snare. Mayr, Tayr = discrimination. Chookaayee = gave up. Baiyraayee = enmity; animosity. 2. Apuni Apni = mine, mine; selfishness. Mooshkul Bhaari = big trouble. Kernaiyhaar = the Creator (Waheguru). Puchhaata = recognized. Taata = jealousy. 3. Baandhiyo = bonded. Moha = affection; attachment. Jum(i) Joha = watched by the angel of death. Binsay = vanished. Bherma = misbeliefs. Bhayd = gap. 4. Inn(i) = the man. Bhayda = discrimination. Dund = punishment. Khayda = troubles. Aiko Alkee = One and only (Waheguru). Boojhiya = recognized. Soojhiya = understanding. 5. Dhaaya = rushes to. Urthee = for, relating to. Tiptaavaiy = contented. Tis = thirst (for Maya). Jaula = separated; detached. Kaula = Maya. 6. Deepuk = lamp. Juliyo = lighted up. Sojhee = understanding. Tuou = then. Ghur(i) = heart. Keemut(i) = value (of Waheguru's Naam present in the heart). 7. Kern Kraavun = the One who does, and makes others do (Waheguru). Boodh(i) = wisdom. Bibaykaiy = the ability to tell good from the bad. Nayraiy = close by. Sunga = with. Salaahun(u) = praise. Runga = with love. 8.
MEANING: As long as the man feels conceited (of his possessions), the foolish wanders around (spends time) in ignorance. But, when he becomes the dust of the others' feet (becomes humble by losing his ego), he recognizes Waheguru in everybody's heart (and treats everybody equally). 1. My Satguru has kindly bestowed humility on me, as a result of which I feel detached from Maya. Now, my mind is peaceful (does not wander, and has no bad feelings towards anyone), and I am enjoying myself in comfort. Pause. As long as the man considers others bad, he gets trapped in evil thoughts about them. But when he gets rid of discriminatory feelings toward others, then nobody has any animosity toward him. 2.

When a man acts selfishly, he gets into big trouble (because of his possible immoral or illegal acts). But when he realizes that everybody has been created by the same God, he gives up all his jealousy. 3. When the man ties him up (is strongly bonded) by the affection for his family, he keeps taking births and dying, and the Angel of death always keeps a watchful eye on him. But when all his misbeliefs vanish, there is no longer a gap between him and Waheguru (he gets connected with Waheguru). 4.
As long as the man discriminates between people, he suffers (moral) punishment and other troubles. But, when he realizes that there is only one (single) Waheguru (who is operating everywhere), he acquires all the understanding (clarity) (and gives up discrimination). 5. When he rushes to do tasks related to Maya (to acquire more of it), he does not get contented; and his thirst for Maya is never quenched. But when he gets detached from it (disregards it), Maya itself rushes to follow him. 6.
When the man gets connected with the Guru by the grace of Waheguru, his mind-temple is lighted up with the lamp of Divine Knowledge. At that point, he realizes the value of Waheguru's Naam (which is present in his heart). He also recognizes what to acquire (Waheguru's Naam, humility, service to others, honest living, etc., etc.), and what to lose (get rid of) (haumein, lust, discrimination, etc.) in life. 7.
Such a devotee also realizes that there is only one Supreme Being (Waheguru), who does everything and makes others do what He wishes. He, Himself, grants the wisdom, the thinking, and the ability to tell good from bad. He is not far away; He is very close to and is with everyone. I beg Him for His praise and for His love, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Mustuk(i)= forehead. Bhaaga = fortune. Ruvviya = present. Soyay = that (Waheguru). Seetul = cool; peaceful. Nihchul = stable; quits wandering. 1. Keertun = praise. Eehaan = here, in this world. Oohaan = there; next world. Pause. Jaas(u) = which (Waheguru). Juput = reciting (Naam). Bhuou = fear. Upda = troubles. Dhaavut = wandering quickly. Munooa = mind. Aavaiy tthaayay = becomes peaceful. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Bhaagaiy = gets rid of. 2.
Vus(i) = in control. Puncha = the five demons (lust, greed, etc.). Suncha = accumulates. Trishna = fire of desires for Maya. Boojhaiy = is put out. Hur(i) Durgeh = in Waheguru's Court. Sijhaiy = is successful. 3.
Koat(i) = millions. Upraadh = sins; evil deeds. Saadh = messenger. Seetul = calm; peaceful. Mul(i) = filth (of evil thoughts). Khovaiy = washes away. 4.

MEANING: Sing praise of the "One", which may (will) serve you in this world as well as in the next (after death), oh my mind. Pause. When one serves the Guru, he begins to recite Waheguru's Naam. (But one cannot connect with the Guru with one's own efforts) Only that individual gets to connect with the Guru who has good fortune on his forehead. Waheguru begins to dwell in his mind, bringing calm (peace) to his mind and body. Also, his mind becomes stable (wanders no more). 1.
Recitation of Waheguru's Naam dispels all fears and troubles, and the fast - wandering mind finds rest (becomes peaceful). By reciting Waheguru's Naam, one gets rid of his haumein, and no trouble befalls him again. 2. By reciting Waheguru's Naam, one accumulates the Naam-Amrit in his heart and is enabled to control the five demons (lust, greed, etc.). By reciting Waheguru's Naam, the devotee is able to put out the fire of his worldly desires (attains contentment), and is declared successful (is honoured) in Waheguru's Court. 3. Millions of sins are eradicated by the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, and the devotee attains the spiritual level to be a messenger of Waheguru. By reciting Waheguru's Naam, the devotee acquires calmness (peace of mind), and all the filth of his vices is washed away. 4.

Word Meaning: Ruttan = (Waheguru's) valuable (Naam). Buhour(i) = again. Hilaiy = mixes well; becomes part of (accompanies). Baiykoontth = paradises. Sehj(i) = peaceful mind. 5. Ugun(i) = fire (of desires). Pohut = touch. Kaal(u) = death. Johut = keeps a watchful eye. Nirmul = pure; holy. Maatha = forehead (thinking). 6. Mooshkul = difficult situation; trying times. Unhut = auto-playing. Dhoonaiy = .

musical notes (tunes). Soyay = news; praise. Kumul = lotus; heart. Seedha = right side up; facing Waheguru. 7. Shoobh = auspicious; kind. Drishut(i) = sight. Muntar = Mantra (Waheguru's Naam). Huree = God. Akhund = continuous. Keertun = singing praise. Choora = delicious sweet meal broken into very small pieces. 8.
MEANING: By reciting Waheguru's Naam, one gets connected with Him; once connected, Waheguru never leaves him alone, and Waheguru's Naam accompanies Him all the time. Reciting Waheguru's Naam, one stays in the peaceful state of mind (above the effects of Maya) and enjoys its bliss. 5. The fire of worldly desires does not even come near the individual who recites Waheguru's Naam, and the Angel of death does not keep an evil (watchful) eye on him. Recitation of Waheguru's Naam purifies the thinking of the devotee, and all his troubles go away. 6.
A devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam, faces no difficult situation, and he feels as if he is listening to the blissful auto-playing music. The devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam, gets his holy praise spread around. Such a devotee's heart is turned towards God (he listens to, and obeys His Command). 7.
Satguru casts His kind sight on everybody and implants Waheguru's Mantra (Naam) in their heart. For devotees of the Perfect Guru, singing Waheguru's continuous praise becomes the sweet and delicious food for their souls, oh Nanak. 8.2.

Word Meaning: Rid = heart. Dhaaraiy = implant. Punch Juna = the five demons. Nivaaraiy = get rid of; remove. Dus Indri = five senses and their five effects. Vaas(i) = under control. Aatmaiy = in the soul. Pergaas = enlightenment. 1.

Drirrta = firm determination; self-control. Duyya = kindness. Muyya = kind favour. Pause. Doosht = evil; enemy. Smaanaiy = equal; the same. Boalun = talking. Giyanaiy = about Divine Knowledge. Paykhun = seeing. Dhiyaan = attention; focus. 2. Sehjay = in the higher spiritual state where the mind is above the effects of Maya (blissful mind). Baiyraag = detachment from Maya (and love for God). Husna = feeling happy; enjoying life. Choop = silence; in sadness. Jupna = reciting Naam. 3. Bhojun = have a meal. Bhaaou = affection. Dooraaou = hiding deceitful acts. Nisung(u) = fully detached from Maya. 4.

MEANING: An individual who implants Waheguru's Naam in the heart gets rid of the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachment, and conceit) and keeps the ten senses under control and gets his soul (mind) enlightened. 1. But only that individual acquires such control over his senses to whom Waheguru kindly does this favour. Pause. Such an individual treats his friends and the enemy the same way. Whatever he talks about is about Divine Knowledge only, and he listens only to Waheguru's Naam (His praise). He sees (pays attention to) only those things that prompt his mind to think about Waheguru. 2. Whether he is awake or asleep, his mind is always in the higher spiritual state (blissful), and his mind stays calm (at peace) no matter what happens to him (He accepts the Will of Waheguru in happiness and in sadness). Whether he is fully detached from Maya or he is enjoying the pleasures of life, he is always in high spirits (connected with Waheguru). He stays connected with Waheguru whether he is quiet or reciting His Naam. 3.
With Waheguru's Naam at heart, he always displays affection (sweet behaviour) whether he is eating (even if the meal is not tasty), or dealing with people. Connected with Waheguru, he has eradicated any secretive behaviour (he does not engage in deceit). He easily (without any special effort) connects with the Guru and with the fully detached Waheguru. 4.

Word Meaning: Greh Meh(i) = in the family. Oodaasi = to leave one's family to avoid bonds. Doobidha = indecisiveness; wavering of mind. Anund(u) = blissfulness. Bhaytiyo = met with. Permanund = the source of supreme bliss (Waheguru). 5. Jea Ko = spiritual. Daan(u) = donation; gift. Rusiya = became sweet; bloomed. Abinaashi = immortal (Waheguru). Vusiya = lived. 6. Aasun(u) = seat to rest. Usthir = stable; eternal. Bhaaya = liked. Unhut Shabad(u) = the auto-playing Divine music (Shabad). Vujaaya = played. Roonjhoonkaar = slow and sweet. Soohaaya = producing a soothing effect. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Smaaya = got absorbed; appeared. 7. Puriyo Kerma = showered with kindness. Bhuyya = happened. Sach(u) = Truth. Dherma = morality. Koorbaaniy = offer oneself for sacrifice. 8.

MEANING: Being connected with Waheguru, one is fully detached from the world, even while living in the family. Being connected with Waheguru, he is never doubtful about what decisions to make (he knows right from wrong) and gets rid of the wavering of his mind (brings it under control). Because of his union with the source of supreme bliss, Waheguru, he is always blissful. 5. He drinks the Naam-Amrit, stays in the state of blissfulness, and gives the gift of Naam to others, which raises their spiritual level. His mind blooms when he talks about the immortal Waheguru, which has been embedded in his mind. 6. Because of his union with Waheguru, the seat (foundation) of his mind becomes immortal, and he feels as if the auto-playing Divine music of Shabad is playing in his mind. Waheguru appears in his heart, and he feels as if he is listening to very soothing, soft music, which produces bliss in his mind. 7. When Waheguru becomes kind to a devotee, he is connected with the Guru, who implants the Truth (Waheguru's Naam) and high morality in the devotee's heart, as a result of which, he attains the spiritual state of blissfulness. Such a state cannot be described in words; only the devotee enjoys it. The slave, Nanak, gladly offers His life to (to serve) such a devotee. 8. 3.

Hoti = performers of huvuns (a Hindu ritual in which fire is built while chanting some mantras and feeding the fire with special items). Dundout = prostration; lying down on the belly to express respect. Persaadun Bhoga = sweets offered to please the gods. Guvun Kuraiygo = will vanish. 4.
MEANING: What place is there which never goes away (does not perish)? What advice is there by which one can get rid of their evil thinking? Pause.
The man first escapes from (leaves) his mother's womb safely, and with time, gets attached to his sons, wife, and the rest of the family. He enjoys many different kinds of foods, and wears different (beautiful) clothes. (But he does not realize) that they are all helpless against time, and will all perish for sure (including himself). 1.
One must eventually die even in Inderpuri; he is not there permanently even in Brahampuri; and will die for sure even in Shivpuri (Hindus believe that after death, a devotee goes to the kingdom of the god of which he is the devotee). (Not realizing this reality), and misguided from the right path, the man still indulges in Maya, having three effects, and suffers spiritual death. 2. (The man does not realize that) The mountains, the forests, the earth, the sky, the stars, the sun, the moon, the air, fire, and waters (oceans) will all perish. The days, nights, rituals of different faiths, all the religious books, including the Shastras and the Vedas, will perish. 3.
People undertake pilgrimages, go to temples to worship gods, and read (or listen to) religious books, wear dhotis (a long piece of cloth which they wrap around their body), rosaries, anointments on foreheads, prepare meals in special ways to make them holy (a misplaced belief), perform huvuns, prostrate to show respect for the gods, and offer sweets to please gods; but no such deeds can save them - and all the people and all the places will perish. 4.

Nihchul thaan Sadh sung(i) turaiy. 8.4.
Word Meaning: Jaat Vern = the caste system (in India). Toork = Turk. Pus(u) = cattle; animals. Punkhi = birds. Anik Joani(i) = countless life forms. Jindu = living beings. Pasaara= expansion. Aakaara = bodies. 5. Sehj = state of blissfulness. Tut = root; Waheguru. Giyaana = Knowledge. Nihchul = permanent. Thaana = place. Tuhaa = there. Rusaiy = gets sweetened; feels blissful. Unbhuou = worry free. 6.

Bherma = misbelief. Soag = grief; sedness. Chinta = worry. Aavun Jaavun = birth and death. Mirt = death. Anund = blissfulness. Unhut = everlasting. Aakhaaray = performing grounds. Aadharay = supported by. 7.
Parbrahm = Waheguru. Paar = the other end. Turaiy = is salvaged. 8.
MEANING: People of all castes, including (even the top caste Brahmans), the Turks (Muslims), the Hindus, all animals, the birds, and other countless forms of living beings, and all the visible expanse, will perish. 5. The only place that is permanent is the holy gathering where Waheguru's praise is sung and His virtues discussed. The devotees enjoy the bliss of a high spiritual state (above the effects of Maya) there. The place is like a city where the residents have no worries. 6.
There is no misgiving, grief or worry in the high spiritual state; and there is no death and rebirth. The place is like a performing ground where the devotees sing Waheguru's praise and enjoy permanent bliss; Waheguru's praise is their food for life. 7.
Waheguru has no limits, so who can describe Him? The only thing that can be said about Waheguru is that the individual to whom He is kind is connected to the permanent gathering of the holy devotees, where he also finds salvation, and becomes a permanent constituent of that holy gathering. 8.4

Word Meaning: Soora = valiant (morally powerful). Poora = perfect. Vudiyaayee = honour; praise. 1. Aiysa = such. Doobidha = mental state of indecisiveness (due to doubts and misgivings). Guvaavaiy = get rid of. Raaj = family life. Joag = yog = detachment from the world. Kmaavaiy = lead life. Pause.

Bhuou = fear; worry. Smaah(i) = gets absorbed. Trishna = hunger for desires. Boojhaiy = is killed (feels contented). Sijhaiy = becomes successful. 2.

Dhunvunta = (spiritually) wealthy. Putvunta = respectable. Jutee = celibate. Gutee = higher spiritual state; salvation. 3. Gunee = credible. Nihchul = permanent. Dhunee = controller; master. Undin(u) = always. Jaaga = awake; is alert against the attacks of Maya. 4. Jeevun Mookta = free from the bonds of Maya while living in the family. Nirmul = pure. Joogta = way of life. Soogiyaani = is enlightened. Sehj Dhiyaani = is focused on the state of blissfulness (stays in that state). 5.

Thaayayn Na Puraiy = is not recognized. Koat(i) Kerm = millions of rituals. Mitaiy = erased; end. Jum = angel of death. 6. Giyaan(u) = enlightenment. Jootth(i) = impurity. Maiyla = filthy, immoral. Jaula = separated; disconnected. 7.

Kirpanidh(i) = the treasure of benevolence (Waheguru). Khulaasee = freedom (from Maya). Sidh(i) = success. Braham Beechaari = thoughtful of Waheguru. 8.

MEANING: Is there someone there who can kill (get rid of) his doobidha (state of indecisiveness due to some doubts or misgivings) of his mind? (Only a rare individual is able to do so). Such a lucky devotee leads a life of complete detachment from Maya while living in the family. Pause.

Only the individual who destroys his doobidha is a real gallant (morally powerful), and a perfect man. Such an individual earns respect everywhere and gets rid of all his discomforts. 1. Such an individual has no fear (worries) (because he knows right from wrong, and does nothing criminal or sinful). He stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. He becomes fully contented and is left with no desire for Maya as a result of which, he is declared successful in Waheguru's Court. 2.

An individual who kills his doobidha is wealthy in the real sense and earns respect. Such an individual is the real celibate and attains salvation. 3.

Such an individual is considered to be among the few credible people because he possesses the (Naam-wealth), which is permanently his (never leaves him). Such an individual is lucky, and he is always alert to Maya's attacks. 4.

Such an individual is free from the bonds of Maya even while living in the family, and his lifestyle (his dealings with people) is pure and honest. Such an individual has acquired the Divine Knowledge (is enlightened), and he always stays in the state of blissfulness (above the effects of Maya). 5. Without destroying his doobidha, a man's efforts to connect with Waheguru are not recognized (not given credit in Waheguru's Court), no matter how many countless rituals he performs, including recitation of some mantras, and acts of self-affliction (to please gods). Without destroying his doobidha, the angel of death does not spare him, and his cycle of rebirths is never broken. 6. Without killing his doobidha, a man does not get enlightenment, and the impurity of his mind never gets washed away. Without killing his doobidha, a man's thinking, and his deeds, are all filthy (immoral), and he stays disconnected with God. 7. However, when the source of benevolence, Waheguru, becomes kind to a devotee, he gets freedom from the bonds of Maya, and he is successful in every respect. An individual, whose doobidha has been destroyed by the Guru, begins to ponder on (sing praise of) the virtues of Waheguru. 8.5.

Word Meaning: Jooraiy = connect with. Subh Ko = everybody. Nihchul = unwavering. Cheet(u) = mind. Viyaapaiy = afflicts; troubles. Kaahrra = sufferering due to some pressure. Nistaara = freedom from all bonds; salvation. 1.
Kaaj(i) = helpful in achieving objective. Hoar(u) = anything else. Pause.

Dooniyadaar = family men. Gavaar = oh, foolish. Neech Kool(u) = of very low caste. Khin Meh(i) = in a moment. Oodhreh(i) = finds salvation. 2.
Koat(i) = millions. Mujun = dips in holy waters. Dhiyaan = in mind. Poonn = deeds of goodness as per the Hindu holy books. Bani = words of praise (for God). Gur Tay Bidh(i) = the way (to connect with God) as explained by the Guru. 3.
Chayt = remember. Binus = destroyed. Hayt(u) = attachment. Abinashi = immortal. Ruch = get absorbed; get imbued. Ram Kaiy Rung(u) = love for God. 4.
Kaam(i) = working for; serving. Bhookh = appetite (for Maya). Joheh(i) = watch deeply. Doot = agent (of death). Vud Gumur = respect; praise. Umur(u) = immortal. 5. Chaakur = servant; devotee. Daan = punishment. Baan = evil habit; vice. Duftur = office; God's Court. Laykha = accountability. Bisaykha = in a special way. 6. Oon = shortage. Anaykeh(i) Bhaant(i) = in many different ways. Drisht(i) = sight. Nihaal = feel blissful. Ghaal = serve diligently. 7. Chutur(u) = clever; wise. Moorra = foolish. Heen(u) = lacking; weak. Soora = powerful. Jit(u) = whatever. Bhaaga = fortune. 8.

MEANING: Because nothing else is of any help to you in achieving the objective of life (union with God), get connected with Waheguru, oh my mind. Pause.
When a man connects with Waheguru, he treats everyone like his friend (because he realizes that everyone has been created by the same Waheguru, so they are brothers), and his mind finds peace (quits doddering). When a man connects with Waheguru, his mind becomes so strong that no pressure (of grief) troubles him, and he attains salvation. 1. All those wealthy family men, who seem to have high status in society (and one acts as subservient to them with the expectation that they would help him in need), are of no use (in the spiritual world) to him, oh foolish man! On the other hand, if a devotee of Waheguru belongs to the so-called low caste, people listen to him and find salvation in a moment. 2. People perform a number of rituals to please gods (but achieve nothing spiritually). If one listens to Waheguru's Naam, he is better off than taking millions of dips in holy waters; and meditating on His Naam is better than millions of ritualistic worshipping. Similarly, listening to Waheguru's praise is better than performing millions of good deeds, as defined in the Hindu holy books. A man acquires the results of millions of such "holy" deeds when he follows the Guru's advice to connect with Waheguru. 3. Remember Waheguru again, and again in your mind, which eradicates all your attachments with Maya, oh my friend. The immortal Waheguru is always with you, so get absorbed (Imbued) in His love. 4.
Serving Waheguru (obeying His Command) kills all the devotee's appetite for Maya (he becomes contented), as a result of which the agent of death cannot keep an evil eye on him. One earns big respect by serving Waheguru and becomes immortal (by merging into Him). 5. A slave (devotee) of Waheguru has no evil habit (vice), and suffers no punishment on moral grounds. Nobody questions a devotee's account of deeds in Waheguru's Court. He is given special treatment. 6.
Waheguru has no shortage of anything, and He alone manifests in many different forms. Serve Waheguru whose kind sight makes one blissful, oh my mind. 7.
Nobody is wise or foolish, and nobody is weak or valiant (mentally powerful). One does exactly what he is made to do by Waheguru. Only some fortunate individual (whom Waheguru is kind to) serves him, oh Nanak. 8.6.

Word Meaning: Serp = snake. Aarjaari = long life span. Saakut = money-lover; disconnected from God. Bisaari = by forgetting. 1. Nimukh = moment. Laakh Koat(i) Dinus = millions of days; forever. Thir = unwavering. Theeya = becomes. Dhrig = despicable. Kerm Kraas = ritualistic deeds. Kaag = crow. Butan = mouth, beak. Bishta = feces. Vaas = dwelling. 2. Kookur Kaam = deeds of dogs. Baysooa = prostitute. Poot = son. Ninaam = without name (of the father). 3. Seeng = horns. Chhutaara = ram. Koor(u) = lies. Kaara = Kaala = black. 4. Gerdhubh = donkey. Niyaayee= like. Thaan Bhrisht = filthy (dark) mind. 5. Hurkaaya Kookur = mad dog. Loabhi = greedy. Bundh(u) = stoppage; control. 6. Aatumghaati = killer of own soul. Neech = immoral. Kool(u) = (high) clan. Bhuyya = became. Jugut = world. Traaya = salvaged. 8.

MEANING: The life of a man who does not remember Waheguru, is like that of a long-living snake. (Just as a snake has poison in his mouth, the follower of his mind, who ignores Waheguru, has poisonous talk in his mouth). 1.

A man, who spends even a small moment remembering Waheguru, feels as if he has spent millions of days in blissfulness as his mind becomes stable (quits wavering). Pause. Without keeping Waheguru in mind, all those rituals that a man performs are condemnable (not given any credit in Waheguru's Court). Like a crow which has feces (filth) in his beak, a money-lover person has filth (lies, deceit, and bitterness) in his mouth. 2

Without remembering Waheguru, the man gets involved in tasks that befit only a dog (becomes greedy, steals things, and attacks others). Like the son of a prostitute who does not have his father's name, the money-minded man is without a spiritual father (guru, and receives no honour anywhere). 3.

A man, who ignores Waheguru, is as worthless as the horns of a ram (who uses them only to fight). The lover of money tells lies, as a result of which his face is blackened (earns bad name). 4.

Like a donkey, which hauls heavy loads every day, and uses no brains, the man, who ignores Waheguru, carries the load of misdeeds and leads his life with dark mind. 5. Like a mad dog, which cannot control his madness, and turns others mad whom he bites, a money-minded individual, who ignores Waheguru, cannot control his greed (even if he has countless money), and makes others, who deal with him, greedy too. 6. Without remembering Waheguru, a money-minded man kills his soul (his soul is dead), and he is considered a low-caste (an immoral person) in Waheguru's court even if he belongs to a high caste in society. 7.
When Waheguru is kind to some of His devotees, he connects them to the company of holy men. The Guru salvages the whole world, oh Nanak. 8.7.

Word Meaning: Buchun(i) = Word; Advice. Moh(i) = I. Perm Gut(i) = supreme spiritual state. Pooraiy = Perfect. Paiyj = dignity; respect. Rukhaayee = saved. 1. Dhiyaayo = recited Waheguru's Naam. Thaaoun = recognition in Waheguru's Court. Pause. Rusun(i) Vukhaani = recited with tongue. Amrit Bani = Waheguru's praise in conversation. 2.
Mitiya = eradicated. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Pertaap = fame; respect. 3. Bherm = misgiving. Paykhiyo = "saw". Subh(u) Braham = God everywhere. 4. Raaj = enjoy in the family. Joag(u) = detachment from Maya. Turiya = salvaged. Subh Loag = the whole world. 5. Kaaruj Sidh(i) = achieved success in my objective. Nuoun Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures of god Kuber. 6.
Aasa = have faith in; took shelter. Phaasa = noose. 7.
Jaagiya Kerm = fortune came to life (to the fore). Bhaytiya = connected with. 8.

MEANING: I attained the supreme spiritual state (complete detachment with Maya) with Guru's advice which saved my honour (against the attacks of Maya) as well. 1. I recited (implanted in the heart) Waheguru's Naam with the advice of the Guru, and was recognized (honoured) in Waheguru's Court with the grace of the Guru. Pause.

With the advice of the Guru, I recited Waheguru's Naam with my tongue; and now I have Waheguru's sweet Amrit-Naam even in my routine conversation. 2.
With Guru's advice, I have gotten rid of my selfishness and ego, and with Guru's kindness, I am enjoying a great respect (as a devotee of the Guru). 3.
All my misgivings and doubts have been cleared with Guru's advice, and now I see (feel) Waheguru everywhere. 4.
With Guru's advice, I am completely detached from Maya while enjoying the family life. Actually, the whole world can be salvaged in the company of the Guru. 5.
I have achieved all my objectives successfully with Guru's advice, and feel as if I have acquired all the nine mythical treasures of Kuber. 6.
Whoever takes my Guru's shelter, gets the noose of the Angel of death around his neck completely cut (he is not reborn again, as he merges into Waheguru). 7.
With Guru's advice, my good fortune has come to life, and the Guru has kindly connected me with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.8.

Word Meaning: Simroun = I recite His Naam. Praan = life. Raas(i) = wealth. 1. Durshun(u) = glimpse; sight. Churn Dhoyay, Dhoyay Peevaan = to drink the wash of the feet (a popular expression of deep affection and reverence). Pause.
Raiyn(u) = dust of feet. Mujun = to bathe in the raiyn (an expression of deep reverence). Haumein Mul(u) = filth of selfishness and ego. Huroun = remove. 2.
Jhoolaavoun Paakha = serve with hand fan. Muha Ugun(i) = the big fire of desires for Maya; the otherwise unbearable hot temperature of the womb. 3.
Dhovoun Paani = haul water. Ukul = the indivisible (Waheguru). Gut(i) = the highest spiritual state. 4.
Peesoun = grind wheat to make flour. Neet(i) = everyday. Meet = friends. 5.

Jeeo = spiritual life. Daasra = slave. Mool(i) Leeo = bought. 6.
Laayo = instilled. Numuskaar = bow to Him. 7. Kul(i) Klaysh = disputes; troubles due to disagreements. Bhaiy = fear; worries. Bherm = misgivings. Laatha = removed; disappeared. Sumraatha = capable of doing anything; omnipotent. 8.
MEANING: I remember my reverend Guru with every breath. My Guru is my life, and my wealth. Pause. Guru's holy sight infuses new life into me. I drink the wash of Guru's Feet (listen to His Advice with deep reverence). 1.
I take a dip every day in the dust of the Feet of the Guru thereby washing away the filth of my selfishness and ego of many lives. 2.
I wish to manually fan air for the Guru who protects me from the huge fire of desires for Maya (or protects me from the otherwise unbearable hot temperature of mother's womb) with His kind hand. 3. I wish to haul water to the house of the Guru from whom I have come to realize the highest spiritual state. 4.
I wish to grind wheat with the quern (manual grind-mill) at the house of the Guru with whose grace all my enemies have turned out to be my friends (The Guru has changed my thinking). 5. The Guru, who gave me Waheguru's Naam (implanted in my heart), has bought me as His slave (I have completely surrendered to Him). 6.
I always bow to my Guru, who has kindly implanted His love in my heart. 7.
All the disputes, the disagreements, all my fears (worries), and all my misgivings have disappeared. My Guru is omnipotent, oh Nanak. 8. 9.
NOTE: In this holy Shabad, Guru Arjun Sahib has expressed his love and reverence for the Guru in terms of humble acts of service, like fanning air for others, hauling water from distant sources, and grinding wheat for flour in querns (manual grind mills). All such tasks had to be performed manually because at the time of Guru Sahib (about 450 years ago), there was no electricity and no running water.

Word Meaning: Gobind = Waheguru. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Usnayh(u) = love (with Maya). Pause.

Biyohaar(u) = routine business. Mirtuk = dead body. Mithiya = false (just a show off). Seegaar(u) = beautification; decorations. 2.
Bisaar(i) = forgetting; ignoring. Rus Bhoag = enjoy different tastes. Tun = body. 3.
Tiyaag(i) = giving up. Un = others. Kaaj = tasks. Binus(i) = vanish. Jhootthay = false; short-lived. Paaj = acts of show off. 4.
Koat(i) = millions. Kerm = rituals. Kerto = performing. Nerk = hell. 5.
Araadha = worshipped. Niyaayee = like. Jumpur(i) = in the city (court) of the Angel of death. Baadha = tied up; shackled; imprisoned. 6.
Adumbur = hollow show off; frippery. Bisthaara = Pasaara = spread of property; expansion. 7. Soyee = that. Jun(u) = devotee. 8.
MEANING: Kindly connect me with You, and implant Your Naam in my heart, oh Waheguru. Love for anything else, other than the Naam (Maya), is condemnable. Pause.
Anything, that the man wears and eats without keeping Waheguru's Naam in heart, is like the greed of the dog which sticks his mouth in the garbage and does not realize what is clean and what is dirty. (Similarly, such an individual does not realize what is moral and what is immoral. Only Waheguru's Naam teaches morality). 1.
Like the decorations on a dead body which are useless now for him to enjoy, none of the deeds that the man performs without Waheguru's Naam in mind, helps him in the spiritual world. 2. If a man enjoys different tastes (luxuries) in life without Waheguru's Naam, he does not get any real comfort (peace of mind) even in his dream; he rather suffers from discomforts (ailments) of the body. 3.
All those tasks (of show off) that a man performs (to earn a good name) without Waheguru's Naam in mind, are short-lived (they disappear with his death, and the people forget them too). 4.
If a man does not cultivate love for Waheguru's Naam, he will definitely go to hell even if he has performed millions of religious rituals. 5.
An individual, who has not worshipped Waheguru's Naam in life, is a prisoner in the court of the Angel of death, like a thief. 6.
A man may have a huge collection of decorated stages, facilities for worship, and may have given millions in donations to impress people, they do not help him in the spiritual world, because they are all hollow if he does not have Waheguru's Naam in mind. 7.
But nobody can have Waheguru's Naam in his heart with his own efforts. Only that individual recites Waheguru's Naam who has been given it kindly by Waheguru Himself, oh Nanak. 8.10.

Word Meaning: Aad(i) = beginning. Mudh(u) = middle. Unt(i) = end. Nibaahaiy = fulfils obligation; lasts for ever. Chaahaiy = wishes for. 1.

Sung(i) = with. Chaalaiy = goes; accompanies. Poorun Purakh = Perfect and omnipresent (Waheguru). Pritpaalaiy = looks after; nourishes. Pause.

Binsut = vanishes. Paykhaan = I see. Smaayay = absorbed; present. 2.

Sooghurr(u) = wise. Chutur(u) = intelligent. Daata = provider. 3.

Adhaar = support. Raas(i) = wealth. Ridaiy = heart. Nivaas(i) = dwelling. 4.

Silk = chain; bond. Nudr(i) = sight. Nihaal(i) = blissful; kind. 5.

Simer(i) = by reciting (Naam). Churn Dhiyaan = with concentration on (Waheguru's) feet; Waheguru's Naam. Bhoag = enjoy. 6.

Nuvtun = young. Baala = child-like (pure-minded). Rukhvaala = guard. 7.

Pud(u) = (spiritual) state. Cheen = recognize; realize. Serbus = all. 8.

MEANING: My mind longs for the friend (Waheguru) who has been with me from the beginning, in the middle, and at the end (always with me). 1.

Love of Waheguru always accompanies you. The omnipresent, the merciful, and the perfect Waheguru, nourishes and raises you. Pause.

Waheguru does not vanish, and never leaves you. He is present wherever I look for Him. 2.

The provider of life, Waheguru, is handsome, wise, and intelligent (has all the great traits). He (loves me) like my brother, my son, my father, and my mother. 3.

Waheguru is my life, my soul, my support, and my wealth. He has implanted His love in my heart by making it His dwelling. 4.

Waheguru has cut my bonds with Maya, and has adopted me as His own with His blissful sight. 5.

By reciting Waheguru's Naam, all my ailments have been eradicated. A man enjoys all comforts by concentrating his mind on Waheguru's Feet (His Naam). 6.

Waheguru is Perfect, omnipresent, always young (time has no effect on Him) and is pure-hearted like a child. He is inside and outside (everywhere), and is our guard. 7.

Waheguru gives His Naam to all his devotees. So, you too, get connected with God, and realize the highest spiritual level, oh Nanak. 8.11.

Word Meaning: Khojut Phiray = searching for. Unt(i) = end. Paariya = Payaa= found. Kirpaariya = became kind; gave the gift (of Naam). 1.

Vaariya = sacrifice life. Pause.

Punth = path; journey after death. Draaoun = I am fearful. Bhaiyhaariya = frightening. Tukki = sought. Oat = shelter. Obaariya = salvage. 2.

Mohun = mind captivating (God). Laal = jewel. Anoop = beyond praise. Serb Sadhaariya = support for all. Niv(i) = bowing. Paayay = feet. Dikhaariya = show. 3. Anayk = countless; many. Ikkus(u) = only one (Waheguru). Bulihaariya = sacrifice life. Poor = full. Bhundaariya = treasures. 4.

Chuhou dis(i) = in all the four directions. Svaariya = decorated; made comfortable; enjoys bliss. Oarr(i) = shelter. 5. Kaadhiyo = pulled out. Bhooja = arm. Pusaar(i) = extending. Koopaariya = deep well. Jeetiyo = won; achieved success. Apaar(u) = unlimited; difficult to get. Buhour(i) = again. 6.

Serb Nidhaan = all treasures. Akuth(u) = indescribable. Kuthaariya = discussed virtues; sang praise. Sobhavunt = honourable. Baanh = arm. Loodaariya = extended. Baanh Loodaariya = walk with arms swinging in a special way. (A Punjabi cliché meaning: to exude pride or confidence). 7.

Ruttan Amoal(u) = jewel having unlimited price (Waheguru's Naam). Apaariya = rare. Bhuoujul = the world sea. Pookaariya = announce loudly. 8.

MEANING: Countless people have searched for the limits of Waheguru, but none has been able to find His ends. However, some of those become His devotees with His grace (and merge into Him). 1.

I will gladly sacrifice my life (to get connected with Him). Pause.

I become more and more fearful to hear about the frightening journey to Waheguru's Court (where the account of my deeds will be analyzed). So, I sought the shelter of the holy devotees to guide me to the right path of life. 2.

The mind-captivating Waheguru is a like a priceless jewel which is beyond praise, and is the support for everybody. I bow to the Guru again, and again, and touch His feet requesting Him to show me (connect me with) Waheguru. 3.

I made many, many friends, but none of them had all the good qualities (to enlighten me and break my bonds with Maya). Finally, I realized that Waheguru is the only Supreme Being that has treasures full of virtues, and I came to His shelter. I will be glad to sacrifice my life for Him. 4.
Waheguru's Naam is being recited in every direction (Waheguru's Huqam is prevailing everywhere); whoever recites Your Naam, enjoys comfort (bliss); oh Waheguru. I have sought Your shelter and I wish to sacrifice my life for You. 5.
(Waheguru kindly connected me with the Guru) who extended His arm to pull me out of the deep well of Maya. (With Guru's grace) I have achieved success (the objective of human life) in life, which is very difficult to achieve, and will not lose it again (will not be reborn again). 6.
By singing praise of the indescribable Waheguru, I have acquired all the treasures in life (happiness; blissfulness). I was accorded respect in Waheguru's Court, and I walk with my arms swinging (with polite swagger). 7.
This slave, Nanak, has realized Waheguru's Naam which is like a rare priceless jewel. Now, I say it aloud, that one finds salvation only by serving the Guru (obeying His advice), oh Nanak. 8.12.

Word Meaning: Naraayin = Waheguru. Rung = affection. Rungo = dye (your mind). Jihva = tongue. Mungo = beg for; wish for. Pause.
Tuj(i) = giving up. Bhujo = recite. Dhoor(i) = the fortune prewritten by God. 1.
Deesaiy = visible. Saakut = Maya worshipper. Moorr(u) = foolish. Luggay = attached to. Puch(i) Mooyo = die (spiritually) suffering. 2.
Mohun = Waheguru. Ruv(i) Ruhiyo = is present. Mudhay = in. Luhiyo = realized. 3.
Numo = bow to (show respect). Nuoun Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Atool(u) Sookho = immeasurable comfort. 4.
Naiyn = eyes. Alovoun = see. Naam Nidho = the treasure of Naam. 5.
Kaam = lust. Kroadh(u) = rage. Tujo = give up. Ruhiyo = avoided. 6.

Ghur = home; heart. Undhayra = darkness; ignorance). Drirraayo = reinforced. 7. Paar(i) Puriyo = Jugut Turiyo = swims across the sea of Maya; is salvaged. 8.
MEANING: There is only one Supreme Being which can be realized with Guru's grace only. Dye your mind (get your heart imbued) with the love of God, oh my friend. Recite Waheguru's Naam with your tongue, and beg that only Waheguru's Naam gets implanted in your heart (with no love for Maya). Pause.
With the fortune prewritten by Waheguru, you will join the company of the holy men (and get connected with the Guru). Get rid of your selfishness and ego with Guru's Shabad (advice). 1.
Nothing, that is visible, accompanies one after death, but the foolish still get attached to them, experience spiritual death, and suffer badly. 2.
Captivating Waheguru's Naam is everywhere (one does not need to leave home to realize it), but only one in millions realizes it by taking Guru's shelter. 3.
Bow to (serve the) the holy saints, and you will realize Waheguru's Naam which is like having the comfort of the nine treasures of the world. 4.
Have sight of the holy saints with the eyes (focus your mind on them with dedication) and recite Waheguru's Naam which is a like a treasure of wealth in your heart. 5.
Give up (control) your lust, rage, greed and attachment with the world, and escape the cycle of birth and death, oh my friend. 6.
(When you recite Waheguru's Naam), the lamp of Guru's Divine Knowledge lights up in your heart, and the dark of ignorance disappears from your mind. 7.
Whosoever serves the Guru, finds salvation. In fact, the whole world finds salvation by taking shelter of the Guru, oh slave, Nanak. 8.13.

Nanak shern(i) Toohaari Tthaakur, sayvuk dooaaraiy aayo. 8.2.14.
Word Meaning: Bherm = doubts; misgivings. Guyay = cleared; vanished. Pause. Bulto = burning; suffering. Julto = water (of Naam). Taunkiya = sprinkled. Chundun = sandalwood (which produces a cooling effect). Seetlaayo = cooled off. 1.
Ugiyaan = ignorance. Mit(i) Guyya = disappeared. Deepaayo = lighted up lamp. 2. Paavuk = fire (of desires). Saagur = sea. Gehro = very deep. Naav = boat. Turraayiyo = ferried across. 3.

Kerm = prevalent rituals. Dherm Sooch = cleanliness according to the religious norms. Geh(i) = holding. Bhooja = arm. Apaayo = accepted as own. 4.
Bhuou = fear. Khundun = Bhunjuno = destroyer. Vuchhul = affectionate. 5.
Anaathaah = (of) orphans. Naath = guardian. Deen = powerless. Sumruth = omnipotent. Oataayo = shelter; support. 6.
Nirgooaaray = having no good quality (virtue-less). Ders = sight. Raayo = King. 7.
Shern(i) = in the shelter. Tthaakur = Lord. Sayvuk = slave; devotee. 8.
MEANING: By reciting Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, all my doubts and misgivings are gone, and I have realized all the comforts. Pause.
Guru's Shabad is that water, which when sprinkled on the fire of worldly desires, puts it out of the burning heart. Guru is calm (cool) like sandalwood, who calmed down my burning heart. 1.
The Guru lighted up the lamp of Knowledge in my mind which eradicated the darkness of my ignorance. 2. The sea of the fire of worldly desires is deep (and no one can swim across it with his own efforts). But the holy saints are like a boat, which ferry the devotees across the sea. 3.
I perform no religious rituals, nor do I observe the required Brahmanical religious cleanliness. But Waheguru held me by the arm (became kind to me) and accepted me as His own. 4.
Waheguru's Naam destroys all fears and all discomforts; and Waheguru loves His devotees. 5.
Waheguru is the Guardian (support) for all, and is merciful to the poor and the powerless. All holy saints seek His shelter. 6.
I have absolutely no good quality, oh my King Waheguru. I beg you, to kindly show me Your holy sight. 7.
I, Nanak, a slave of Yours, have come to Your door to seek Your shelter. 8.2.14

(PAGE 242): Gaurri Mehla 5: Rung sung(i) bikhiya kay bhoga, in sung(i) undh na jaani. 1. Huoun sunchoun, huoun khaat-ta, suglee uvdh bihaani. Ruhaou. Huoun soora, perdhaan huoun, ko naahi moojheh(i) smaani. 2. Jobunvunt, achaar, kooleena, mun meh(i) hoyay goomaani. 3. Jiyoun ooljhaayo baadh boodh(i) ka, mertiyaan nuhee bisraani. 4. Bhaayee, meet, bundhup, sukhay, paachhaiy tinhoon kuou sumpaani. 5. Jit(u) laago mun(u) baashna, unt(i) saayee pergtaani. 6. Uhunboodh(i), sooch(i) kerm kur(i) eh bundhun bundhaani. 7. Duyyal Purakh(u) kirpa kurhou, Nanak daas dasaani. 8.3.15.44. Joomla.
Word Meaning: Rung = entertainment. Sung(i) = with. Bikhiya = lustful acts. Bhoga = enjoyment. Undh = blind; ignorant. Jaani = realize. 1.

Huoun = I, me. Sunchoun = accumulate. Khaat-ta = earn. Uvdh = life. Bihaani = is spent. Pause.
Soora = valiant. Perdhaan(u) = leader; hero. Moojheh(i) = my. Smaani = equal. 2.
Jobunvunt = youthful. Achaar = well manners. Kooleena = of high clan. 3.
Ooljhaayo = entangled (in Maya). Badh = killed; dead; deprived of. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Mertiyaan = while dying. Bisraani = forget. 4.
Bundhup = relatives. Sukhay = friends. Pachhaiy = after. Sumpaani = give. 5.
Baashna = lust. Sayee = same. Pergtaani = appeared. 6.
Uhunboodh(i) = wisdom of conceit. Sooch(i) Kerm = the rituals of cleanliness as required by Hindu religion. Bundhaani = is shackled. 7.
Daas Dsaani = slave of slaves. 8.
MEANING: The blind (ignorant) man spends his entire life enjoying the lustful acts, and does not realize that he is accumulating the burden of vices (and has to eventually appear before Waheguru). 1.
His whole life is spent in his ego with the claim, "I accumulate, and I earn wealth). Pause. In his ego, he also claims, "I am the gallant (powerful), I am the leader, and no one can rival me." 2.
(This is not the end of that), he is full of conceit to claim, "I am youthful, I am well-mannered, and I belong to a high clan. 3.
Like his young days, the dead (deprived) of wisdom, he does not forget Maya even when he is near death. 4.
(He cannot take his wealth with him at the time of his death), so, all his wealth is left for his friends, and close relatives. 5.
The lust, in which the man spends his whole life, also appears (affects him) towards his end. 6. All the religious deeds of cleanliness that he performed boosted his ego, and he stays shackled in (bonded with) them. 7.
I, Nanak, am the slave of Your slaves, oh Waheguru. Kindly protect me from all vices, oh, the benevolent Lord. 8.3.15.44. Total.
The final total, 44, includes:

Ashtpudiaan Mehla 1=	18
Mehla 3 =	9
Mehla 4 =	2
Mehla 5 =	15
