Word Meaning: Moondh(u) = young, attractive woman (human being). Doohaylurria = troubled; in discomfort. Sa Dhun = that woman (human being). Doobliya = feeble; weak. Pir = husband; Waheguru. Haavaiy = pangs of separation. Theeyee = became. Kayv = How? Seegaar = adornment. Mitth rus = sweet tastes. Bhoag = enjoy. Jhootth(i) = false, temporary. Na Laykhay = do not contribute to good qualities; they are irrelevant. Maiy Mut(i) = impaired thinking, as if drunk. Jobun = beauty. Gerb = conceit. Gaali = rotten. Doodha Thunee = union with husband. 1. Nimaanurriya = weak; low self-esteem. Dhunee = Lord; Waheguru. Oordhaaray = implanting in the heart. Naah = Lord. Ghur Vaas(u) = mind staying in itself. Sukhi Suhayliyaan = close friends. Vuseh(i) Saach(i) = live in (connected with) Waheguru. Sohayliya = in comfort. Suntokh(i) = in contentment. Mayla = union. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. 2.

NOTE: “Dhunee” normally means a wealthy man. But in Punjabi, it also means the master (Lord), the expert, or the supreme. For example: dhunee of the sword, dhunee of wisdom, or dhunee of luck.

MEANING: There is only one Supreme Being, which is the creator, and is a living power. He can be realized only by the grace of the Guru.

A man (devotee of Waheguru), who suffers pangs of separation in Waheguru’s love, spends the night of life in discomfort and cannot enjoy sleep (a comfortable life). Such a devotee feels weak during separation because he does not know how to “see” Waheguru (get connected with Him). For such a devotee, all adornments, sweet tastes, and enjoying different foods are all false and irrelevant (they do not provide mental satisfaction). The human bride feels intoxicated by her beauty and is rotten with conceit. She cannot have union with Waheguru. She cannot enjoy sleep (comforts of life) without union with Waheguru; but only the Guru can connect her with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1. Without the Lord-Husband, the woman (human being) feels weak (lack of confidence); how can she feel comfortable without implanting Waheguru’s Naam in her heart? If you ask the devotee friends who have realized Waheguru, they will tell you that the mind does not stay in itself (does not find peace, and keeps wandering) until Waheguru comes to dwell in your heart. Without Waheguru’s

Naam in the heart, one cannot win Waheguru's affection. One enjoys comfort (bliss) only by connecting with Waheguru. With Guru's advice, a devotee comes to realize that one can enjoy union with Waheguru when he is fully content by having Waheguru's Naam at heart. Such a devotee never forgets Waheguru's Naam, and with the Naam at heart, he stays in the state of blissfulness, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Pir(u) Raavayha = let us recite Waheguru's Naam. Sunayha = message; wish. Saacha = Waheguru. Nikus(i) Jaatou = running around (wavering mind). Usthir = stable; peaceful. Jaam(i) = when. Nuoutun = Nuvaylou = new; fresh. Sehj(i) = with mind at rest (peace). 3. Ichh= wish. Poonni = fulfilled. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Saajun = friend (Waheguru). Vur(u) = husband (Waheguru). Naari = senses. Mungul(u) = song of happiness. Rehusi = joyful. Moondh = young, attractive woman (human being). Ommaho = zestful. Saajun = noble qualities. Doosht = evil qualities. Viyaapay = afflicted; felt depressed. Laaho = benefit. Ker Joarr(i) = folded hands. Sadhun = woman. Rus(i) bhinniya = soaking in sweetness. Kureh(i) Ruliyaan = enjoy. 4.

MEANING: Let us get together and sing Waheguru's praise, oh my devotee friends. With Guru's advice, Guru's Shabad, I will write the message expressing my wish (to get connected) to Waheguru. The devotee, who receives Guru's Shabad (implants it in the heart), "sees" Waheguru all around him. But the followers of their mind only repent. When a devotee recognizes Waheguru, his fast-wandering mind becomes peaceful. The wisdom granted to the devotee by Waheguru is always fresh, and his love for Waheguru is always new (never fades). With Waheguru's kindness, the devotee is always blissful, so let us join together and sing His praise, oh Nanak. 3.

(I am lucky) As my wish has been fulfilled, my friend Waheguru has come to dwell in my heart. Enjoying the company of the Husband, Waheguru, all the women (my senses) have rallied to sing the song of joy. Overjoyed with the union with Waheguru, the devotee feels zestful, and her mind sings the song of happiness. With union with Waheguru, all the good qualities flourish while the evil qualities wither away. By reciting Waheguru's Naam, the devotee earns the benefit (wealth) of Waheguru's love. Such a devotee always prays to Waheguru with folded hands (to express her gratitude), and her days and nights are soaked in the sweetness of Waheguru's presence. My wish has been fulfilled, and now I am enjoying my union with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.1

Word Meaning: Naah = Lord. Aikulrri = alone (without any guidance). Bun = forest-like (world). Kiyoun = how? Dheeraiygi = pick up courage; control weakening mind. Vaypervaahay = carefree; indifferent. Dhun = woman; devotee. Baajhoun = without. Bikhum = difficult; uncomfortable. Ghunayriya = immensely. Bhaavaiy = like. Saaray = enquires about. Koorlaayay = wails. 1.

Chhodiurri = divorced; ditched. Rus(i) = with sweetness. Soohaavaiy = becomes adorable. Put(i) = respect. Deepuk = lamp; Guru's Shabad. Dayh = body; mind. Oojaaro = enlightened. Soohayli = comfortable. Saaraiy = takes care; recites and keeps in mind. Raavi = enjoyed (the union). Bigsi = blooms. Bhaani = liked. 2.

MEANING: I am alone (without any support or guidance) in this wilderness-like world; listen to my request, oh Lord, Waheguru. How can such a devotee control his mind (find peace), especially when Waheguru is indifferent to her? The woman (devotee) cannot survive without the Lord, and the night of her life is very difficult (painful). Listen to me, oh Waheguru; I like You, and cannot go to sleep (rest) without You. There is nobody other than You that will enquire about my wellbeing; being alone (without any support), I am wailing (cry in repentance). A devotee can be connected to Waheguru only by the benevolence of the Guru; she suffers without dear Waheguru. 1.

Just like a woman who has been ditched by her husband, finds it difficult to be reunited, who can connect the disconnected devotee with Waheguru? (Answer): With the Shabad of the Guru, the devotee acquires noble qualities with which she becomes attractive to Waheguru, and gets connected with Him because of her sweetness and love for Him. When a devotee adorns herself with noble qualities, her mind is enlightened with the Guru's Shabad, and she gets respect in Waheguru's Court. Listen, oh my friends, a devotee who recites Waheguru's Naam and keeps His virtues in mind, spends her life in comfort. When Satguru connects a devotee with Waheguru, her heart blooms, and she always recites Waheguru's Amrit-Naam, and Waheguru enjoys her. A devotee enjoys Waheguru's company (with the grace of the Guru) only if Waheguru likes her, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Mohini = captivating. Nighuriya = homeless mind (which wanders away all the time and does not stay in itself). Koorr(i) = in false affairs. Mootthi = robbed (of good qualities). Gul Jayvurriya = rope around the neck; bonds of Maya (which result in future trouble). Ut(i) = extremely. Tis = that (Waheguru). Poonn = noble deeds (as per the Hindu beliefs). Daan = donations (to Brahmans). Naavun = dips in holy waters. Untar Mul(u) = filth of mind. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Hutth(i) = misdirected determination of mind. Nigreh(i) = control on senses. Baybaanaiy = wilderness. Sach Ghur(u) = Mehl(u) = Waheguru's residence. Sinjaapaiy = recognizes; reaches. Doobidha = indecisiveness of mind; unsure. 3. Sacha Vapaaro = the true business. Laaha = profit; added benefit. Vukkhur = merchandise. Soojhaiy = think of. Khin(u) Khino = every moment. Perkh(i) = by careful examination. Laykha = account. Kerm(i) = benevolence. Muha Rus = great tasting. 4.

MEANING: The captivating Maya causes the human mind to be weak, which wanders in all directions and does not stay in its home (in itself). Captivated by Maya, the human mind gets strongly bonded in the false affairs involving Maya, and is robbed of good qualities. The bond of Maya, which (unfortunately) is extremely dear to the man, is like a noose around the neck of the man, which cannot be cut without the Guru. Countless noble deeds (as per the Hindu belief), donations to Brahmans, and dips in holy waters cannot wash away the filth of the mind. But a man who ponders on the Shabad of the Guru and develops love for Waheguru becomes His devotee. Many people try to attain a high spiritual state by controlling their senses (sensual pleasures), going to the wilderness, and using their misdirected determination of mind, but nobody can attain such a state without Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru's Residence can be reached only by Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. How can a man, who is caught in indecisiveness (doubts and misgivings), find Waheguru's Residence? 3. Your Naam is everlasting, and so are the words of Your praise, oh Waheguru. A devotee merges into You by pondering on Your Shabad, and thus becomes immortal too. Your residence is everlasting, and trading in Your Naam makes the devotee immortal too. Trading (dealing) in Your Naam is very sweet, and the devotee gets the added benefit (wealth) of Your worship, oh Waheguru. I cannot think of any other merchandise than Your Naam, worth trading in. So, recite Waheguru's Naam every single moment, oh my friends. Waheguru examines one's account of his deeds kindly, and one merges into Him with His kindness. Waheguru's Naam is sweetest of all, and one realizes Waheguru with the grace of the Perfect Guru, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Sa Dhun = woman (devotee). Binou = request; beg. Saaray = keeps in mind; recites. Khin(u) Pul(u) = a short moment. Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Palace (connecting with Him). Tishna Ugun(i) = the fire of desires. Boojhaayiyaiy = put out. Uver(u) = other. Sayviyaiyn = by serving; obeying. 1.
Raiyn(i) = night (of life). Soohaylurriyay = comforting. Siyoun = with. Bhaaou = respectful affection. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Guvaayay = lose; get rid of. Undin(u) = everyday; always. Jee Kee Mayli = connected by soul. Samaaou = get absorbed (imbued). Saari = remember. Kunt = husband (Waheguru). Naah = Lord; husband. Haaro = necklace. 2.
MEANING: There is only one Supreme Being, who is the creator of the universe and is omnipresent. He can be realized only by the grace of the Guru. The devotee recollects Waheguru's virtues and begs (for His holy sight). She cannot survive even for a moment without dear Waheguru. She cannot survive without Him for a second, but cannot get connected with Him without the grace of the Guru. The devotee has to listen to and act on the Guru's advice to put out the fire of worldly desires. There is none other than Waheguru, worthy of worship; one cannot have any comfort without serving Waheguru. However, only that devotee is connected with Waheguru, whom He kindly connects with the Guru, who, in turn, connects the devotee with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.
The night of life of that devotee becomes comforting who applies her mind to Waheguru and serves the Guru (obeys Him) with affection and dedication to get rid of her selfishness and ego. Such a devotee gets rid of her haumein and sings Waheguru's praise all the time with deep affection. In the company of her friends who are connected with Waheguru from the depths of their hearts, she stays absorbed in Guru's Shabad. A devotee who cultivates love for Waheguru's Naam and keeps Waheguru's virtues in mind is loved by her husband (Waheguru). The devotee, who is dear to Waheguru, wears the necklace of Waheguru's Naam around her neck (recites His Naam with her tongue all the time), oh Nanak. 2.

Dootur = difficult (to swim across). Taaray = ferries across; salvage. Moh(i) = attachment. Khooaayee = Suffer due to misguidance = Vigooti. Koorr(i) = dealing in perishables. Mooti = rejected. Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Residence. Raati = imbued. Sehjay = in the blissful state. Maati = intoxicated. Smaayay = absorbed. Kaamun(i) = woman (human being). Rung(i) = in love. 3. Bherm(u) = doubts; misgivings. Chookaayay = remove; clear. Iyoun = like this. Ghor = dense. Undhaar = darkness. Mug(u) = (the right) path. Veechaaray = ponder on. Vur(u) = husband. Bhaayay = love. 4.

MEANING: The devotee feels lonely (without any support) without the dear Lord. Without Guru's potent Shabad, she is robbed (cheated out) of virtuous qualities because of her love for the other (Maya). Without the dear Guru's Shabad, the woman (human being) is misled by her love for Maya; and there is no one capable of ferrying her across the sea of Maya, because it is next to impossible to swim across it with one's own efforts. The woman, who is misled into believing she is attached to perishables, is rejected by her dear (Waheguru) and cannot access His residence (unable to connect with Him). But the devotee, who is imbued in the Guru's Shabad and is intoxicated in the state of blissfulness, is absorbed in Waheguru's love. Such a devotee is always imbued in Waheguru's love, and is connected by Waheguru with Him, oh Nanak. 3.

One connects with Waheguru only if He, Himself, connects her to Him; otherwise, no one is capable of doing so. Without her own dear Guru, who else can remove the doubts of the devotee? The only way to get connected with Waheguru is to get one's doubts removed by the Guru, and then the devotee enjoys blissfulness, oh my mother. Without the Guru, there is dense darkness (of ignorance), and the devotee cannot find the true path of life. The devotee, who ponders on the Guru's Shabad, gets imbued in the love of the Guru (Waheguru) and feels intoxicated in the spiritual state of blissfulness (above the effects of Maya). With Guru's love at heart, such a devotee is gifted with Waheguru as her husband, oh Nanak. 4.1.

MEANING: I feel very sad without my dear (Waheguru); how can I live without Him, oh my mother? I cannot sleep, and don't feel comfortable even in my (beautiful) clothes without my dear (Waheguru). The devotee feels good about her clothes (adornment) only when she applies her mind to Waheguru's Naam with the advice of the Guru; and she stays married, and is hugged (loved) by Waheguru when she serves the Guru. When a devotee is connected with Waheguru by the Guru's Shabad, Waheguru enjoys her love, and she has the added benefit (wealth) of His Naam. Waheguru loves that devotee who recollects His virtues, oh Nanak. 1.

The devotee, who ponders on Guru's Shabad, is imbued in His love day and night, and enjoys bliss in the company of her dear (Waheguru). The only way to get connected with Waheguru is to get rid of one's haumein with Guru's Shabad. That devotee is always imbued in the love of Waheguru's Naam, and stays married (is loved by Waheguru). When a devotee stays connected with the Guru, she is able to get rid of her misgivings, and keeps stitched to Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. Such a devotee wins Waheguru as her husband, and forgets all her discomforts, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: The individual, who forgets Waheguru because of her attachment with Maya, and being mortal herself, is busy with the perishables, is cheated of her good qualities. She can overcome (control) her attachment to the perishables with the Guru's advice, thereby not wasting away her precious human life in the gamble for Maya. If she listens to Guru's Shabad (acts on it), she will overcome her haumein and get absorbed in Waheguru. She implants Waheguru's Naam in her heart, which serves as the adornment for her soul. A devotee, who has Waheguru's Naam as her support for the soul, stays blessed in a high spiritual state. 3.

Come and reside in my heart (connect me with You), oh my dear (Waheguru); I feel sad and lack self-confidence without You. My eyes do not get any sleep, and I do not enjoy food or water (drinks). I am dying of the pain of Your separation, and do not enjoy food or drinks; how can I enjoy comfort without You, oh my dear (Waheguru)? I beg my Guru to kindly grant my request and connect me with Waheguru in whatever way he deems fit. (With Guru's grace), The source of all comfort, Waheguru, connected me with Him and came to reside in my heart. The husband, Waheguru, never dies and never parts with His devotees, so the human bride stays married all the time, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Raavay = enjoys. Doobidha = indecisiveness due to doubts. Sohaagun(i) = married. Hayt = love. Apaaray = unlimited. 2.

MEANING: The devotee, whose mind is stitched to the sweetness of Waheguru, enjoys blissfulness in the love of Waheguru. Captivated by Waheguru, all her doubts (and the resulting indecisiveness of mind) disappear, and she stays blessed in the high spiritual state. Her doubts get absorbed (removed) in the blissful state, and with Guru's advice, the devotee gets married (connected with) to Waheguru, and enjoys His love. (As long as the human being stays disconnected from Waheguru), His body (mind) is filthy with the love for perishables, and is full of lies (deceit), and he commits sins. With Guru's advice, and with the worship of Waheguru with deep concentration (dedication), one attains the high state of blissfulness; without Waheguru's worship, one cannot get rid of one's filth. The woman, who gets rid of her selfishness, is loved by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.

The woman (human devotee) realizes Waheguru-husband through her love for the dear Guru. By enshrining Waheguru's Naam in her heart, her night of life is spent in comfort (peace). By embedding Waheguru's Naam in the heart, the devotee is always connected to Waheguru and can get rid of all her discomforts (suffering). By pondering on Guru's Shabad, the devotee enjoys Waheguru's company in her heart. She drinks the Naam-Amrit day and night, and all her doubts are cleared. The devotee becomes married to (is united with) Waheguru through her unlimited love for the Guru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Duyya = merci. Preetum = dear husband. Ut(i) = extremely. Seegaaray = adorn herself. Kaarj Svaaray = achieve the objective. Joog(i), Joog = in every eon. Boojhaiy = understands; gets enlightened. Kaam(i) = lust. Viyaapi = afflicted by; overpowered by Suntaapi = suffering from. Thaaoun Na Paayay = not recognized. Ut(i) = extremely. 3. MEANING: The devotee, who has adorned her soul with Guru's eternal Shabad, prays to Waheguru saying, "Kindly come, and dwell in my heart, oh dear (Waheguru)." A devotee, who has adorned her soul in the shelter of the Guru (with His Shabad), gets rid of her haumein, and achieves the objective of her human life (union with Waheguru). With Guru's advice, the devotee realizes that there is only one Waheguru through all the eons (and one can attain the high spiritual state by worshipping Him). An individual who follows his own mind is overpowered by lust and suffers because of his attachment to the perishables. So, who can he pray to? Without the love for the extremely dear Guru, the follower of his mind is not acknowledged, let alone honoured, in the Court of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 3.

The young woman (devotee) is ignorant, innocent, and has no virtue (so, how can she connect with Waheguru)? However, the unreachable and infinite Waheguru is merciful and forgiving, and if He wishes, He Himself connects the devotee with the Guru, who, in turn, connects the devotee with Waheguru. Waheguru, who is dear to the woman (human) devotee, resides in every heart (so He knows the shortcomings of everybody), and is still forgiving. The Guru gives the devotees the wisdom that Waheguru can be realized only by singing His praise with love and dedication. (With Guru's advice), The devotee remains connected to Waheguru with his mind fully focused and enjoys blissfulness at all times. The devotee, who realizes Waheguru in the spiritual state above the effects of Maya, feels as if he has acquired all the nine mythical treasures, oh Nanak. 4. 3.

Word Meaning: Sur(u) = pool of water; sea. Subul(u) = forceful; with high waves. Vertaiy = operates; functions. Doottur(u) = almost impossible to swim across. Turiya = swim. Bohitha = boat. Khayvut = boatman. Lunghaayay = ferry across. In Bidh(i) = this way (method, means). Iyoun = like (this). Khin = moment. Kilvikh = sins. Bhuyay = became. Pvit = holy; pious. Nistaara = salvation. Kunchun = gold; pure-hearted full of virtues. Munoora = scrap iron; an evil man. 1. Kaam = lust. Viyaapay = affects. Soot = son. Khuray = very much. Gut(i) = higher spiritual state. Dhaat(u) = Maya. Oobray = salvaged. Vukhaanaiy = recites. Kool = clan; associates. Ghut(i) = in heart. Gurmut = Guru's advice.2

MEANING: Maya is like a sea in which high waves of worldly gimmicks are operating (affecting the people) in a big way. So, how can one swim across this difficult-to-swim sea (to be connected with God)? (However, there is one way to get ferried across this sea, and that is) If the man uses Waheguru's Naam as the boat, and Guru's Shabad as the boatman. If a devotee uses the Guru's Shabad as the boatman, Waheguru Himself ferries the devotee across the sea, and that is the way to swim across this sea. When a devotee takes the Guru's shelter, he acquires the gift of Waheguru's worship by which he can kill his desires for Maya (get detached from Maya) while still living with the family. With Waheguru's Naam, all the sins of a man are eradicated in a moment, and his body becomes a holy place (for Waheguru to dwell). With Waheguru's Naam, even an evil man becomes a highly virtuous man who finds salvation, oh Nanak. 1.

Both females and males are affected by lust and have no way to realize Waheguru's Naam. They are fully absorbed in the love of their mother, father, sons and brothers, and are drowning without water (in the sea of Maya). The world suffering from haumein and the love for Maya, has no idea of a high spiritual state, and is drowning in the sea of Maya. Everybody who comes into this world must leave it too; only those are salvaged who ponder on the Guru's Shabad. A devotee, who takes Guru's shelter, recites Waheguru's Naam, and finds salvation not just for himself, but for his associates as well. Even though Waheguru (His Naam) is present in every heart, one is united with the dear Waheguru only by the Guru's advice, oh Nanak. 2.

sayv kuraayay. Aapay Goondaata avgoon kaatay, hirdaiy Naam(u) vusaayay. Nanak sud bulihaari Sachay vit-houn, Aapay kuray kuraayay. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Thir = permanent. Baaji = drama. Drirr(u) = reinforce. Vapaara = business. Agumm = (physically) unreachable. Apaara = infinite. Dhun = wealth (of Wanheguru's Naam). Soort(i) = focus of mind. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Mut-heen = wisdomless. Moogdh = foolish. Undhay = blind; ignorant. Maarug(i) = path (of righteousness). Sohaavay = beautiful, comforting. 3.

Svaaray = adorns (devotee's soul). Joog = eon. Daana = dignified. Beena = know-all. Goondaata = source of all virtues. Avgoon = vices. Hirdaiy = in the heart. Vusaayay = implants. Bulihaari = offer to sacrifice. Vit-houn = for; from. 4.

MEANING: This world is just a drama (where the actors perform their roles and leave), where nobody stays permanently other than Waheguru's Naam. Reinforce the worship of Waheguru, and get into the business of Waheguru's Naam, oh my mind. The wealth of the unreachable and limitless Waheguru's Naam is everlasting, and can be realized only by the Guru's advice. Service to Waheguru and concentrating on His Naam with dedication are the everlasting wealth by means of which one can get rid of his selfishness and ego. We are without any wisdom (to recognize Waheguru), are foolish, and are blind (ignorant); Satguru shows us the path of righteousness. The devotees, who take Guru's shelter, lead noble lives, and sing Waheguru's praise all the time, oh Nanak. 3.

The man is unable to protect himself from Maya's attacks; it is Waheguru who motivates people to do whatever He wills and adorns their souls with Guru's Shabad. Waheguru, Himself, is Satguru (Satguru is a manifestation of Waheguru), and He Himself bestows the gift of Guru's Shabad on individuals (connecting them with Satguru). He loves His devotees throughout all the eons. Waheguru Himself inspires His devotees to worship Him and adorns their souls. Waheguru is highly dignified and knows everything about all of us, and motivates us to serve Him. The source of all virtues, Waheguru Himself, eradicates the weaknesses of the individuals and implants His Naam in their hearts. I wish to sacrifice my life for Waheguru, who does everything Himself and makes others do as He wishes, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Nanak Naam(u) Gurmuti paayiyaiy, Aapay luyay luvaayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Pira Jeeo = dear mind. Munjhoun = from me. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Sehjay = in the state of a peaceful mind. Sut(i) Soobhaayay = with true love for God. Khurie = much. Sookhaali = comforting. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. 1.
Ja = when. Chaakheh(i) = tastes. Rusna = tongue. Mooyay = (spiritually) dead. Un rus = other sweet tastes. Guvaayay = lose; get rid of. Bhaayay = liked by. Shabad(i) Soohaayay. = is adorned with Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's Naam). Liv Laayay = stay connected. Naamay = with the Naam. Luyay Luvaayay = motivates to recite Naam. 2.
MEANING: Serve the Guru (obey His Advice) and recite Waheguru's Naam, oh my dear mind. Do not go away (wander away) from me (stabilize yourself), and realize Waheguru in the peaceful state (without wavering). An individual who dedicates themselves to Waheguru's Naam with respectful love realizes Waheguru in a state of peacefulness. Service to the Guru is highly comforting, but one cannot do it on one's own; one can do it only with the kindness of Waheguru. Such a devotee sows the seeds of Naam in his heart; the Naam sprouts there and becomes embedded there. Waheguru's Naam earns one respect, but only that individual worships Waheguru's Naam who has it prewritten in his fate. 1.
If you taste it with dedication, you will find Waheguru's Naam to be very sweet, oh my mind. Oh, my spiritually dead mind, you will forget all other tastes once you taste the sweet Naam of Waheguru. If Waheguru likes some individual, his tongue is adorned with His Naam, and he enjoys the sweetness of Waheguru all the time. He recites Waheguru's Naam, stays connected with Him, and enjoys blissfulness all the time. With the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, the individual fosters love for Him, loses interest in all other tastes of life, and gets absorbed in Waheguru. However, no one can acquire Waheguru's Naam with his own efforts; the Naam is realized with the Advice of the Guru when Waheguru motivates the individual to do so, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Vidaani = for others. Chaakri = service. Dhun = woman (human bride). Perdays = foreign land. Sidhaayay = goes. Bikhiya = poison; Maya. Loobhaayay = captivated. Bherm(i) bhoolaayay = misled by doubts. Dookhaali = perturbing. Aap Vaych(i)

= by selling your conscience. Dherm = moral character. Tikaiy = find peace. Suntaayay = troubles. Tuday = only then. Chookay = ends. Chit(u) = mind. 3.
Moogdh = foolish. Gaavaar = unrefined. Vusaayay = embeds. Bhaayay = liked. Aap Gunaayay = shows off self-conceit. Soohaylay = enjoy comfort. Kirpa = kindness. Ruttan = valuable like a jewel. Laaha = profit; benefit. 4.
MEANING: Just like the separation from the family is painful when an individual leaves to go away from home to provide service to others, the human bride suffers when she looks for support from other sources than Waheguru-husband, oh my mind! Nobody enjoys any comfort in the love for others, particularly when he is misled by the captivating Maya. How can an individual enjoy comfort when he is misguided by his misgivings and by the greed for wealth? Service (undue respect) to others than Waheguru is highly painful (perturbing) because one sells his conscience and loses his moral character to please others. With the bonds of Maya, one's mind does not find peace, and discomfort torments one every moment. The discomfort due to Maya ends only when a man stitches his mind to the Shabad of the Guru, oh Nanak. 3.
The follower of his mind is foolish and unrefined, oh my dear friend; he does not implant Waheguru's Naam in his mind. The misgivings about Maya make the man blind (thoughtless), so how can he find the path to Waheguru? Without being liked by Satguru (without His guidance), the follower of his mind shows off his ego; so, how can he find the path to Waheguru? Those who serve Waheguru focus their mind on the Feet (Shabad) of the Guru, and always enjoy comfort. Those, to whom Waheguru is kind, always sing His praise. Waheguru Himself connects individuals to the Guru, who enlightens them that Waheguru's Naam, which is precious like a jewel, is the only profitable business in the world, oh Nanak. 4.5.

Sridhur = Waheguru. Oodiniyaan = depressed (sad) while waiting. Ker = hands. Sees(u) = head. Ders = sight. Nimaaniyaan = no ego at all. Visraiy = forget.

Pul, Ghurri, Moorut(u) = very small units of time. Saaring = the rainbird, which is believed to drink only the first drop of rain, that too only during the period of Swaanti planet. Piyaasay = thirsty. 1.
Binou = request. Kunt = husband; Waheguru. Moh(i) = captivated. Chult = amazing feats. Dheeray = pick up courage. Goonvunt = full of virtues. Naah = Lord. Duyyal = kind. Baala = child-like; pure-hearted. Bhurpooray = overflowing. Doash = blame. Booriyaaray = (because of) evil deeds. Binvunt = pray. Ghur(i) = in my heart. 2.
MEANING: I have a burning desire to "see" Waheguru, who is the provider, the carver of our fates, and is also my dear friend, but I do not know how to do that. There is only one Waheguru, who is omnipresent, the carver of our destinies, and the husband (controller) of Maya; I am desperately waiting to see Him, but I am helpless because I have no means to do so. I have no ego, and wish to see Him so that I may serve Him with my hands, and put my head on His feet (surrender myself completely). I do not wish to forget Waheguru for even a moment. I am as anxious to "see" Waheguru as a rainbird which is thirsty for the first drop of rain. How can I "see" my provider, Waheguru, oh Nanak? 1.
Kindly grant my request, oh my dear husband (Waheguru). My mind and body have been captivated by Your amazing feats, and I am very anxious to see you. Having been captivated by Your amazing feats, how can a sad devotee, like me, pick up courage (have peace of mind) (without seeing You)? (Please, show me Your holy Sight). My Lord is overflowing with virtues, is merciful, and is child-like (pure-hearted) (but I cannot connect with Him). At the same time, I cannot blame the source of all comforts, Waheguru, for my huge distance from Him; I am separated from Him because of my own bad qualities. Please, listen to my (Nanak's) request; be kind, and come to dwell in my heart, oh my dear Waheguru. 2.

Tikha Boojhaayee = thirst (to connect with Waheguru) was quenched. Gopaal(u) = Waheguru. Tthaakur(u) = Lord. Sukheen = friends (my senses). Mungul(u) = song of joy. Herkh(u) = happiness. Oopjiya = produced. Doot = the five demons. Thaaoun Guvaaya = destroyed from the root. Unhut Vaajay = the auto-playing Divine music which the yogis claim to hear. Ghur meh(i) = in the heart. Sayj Vichhaayee = made the bed (in the heart). Binvunt(i) = prays; expresses thankfulness. Sehj(i) Ruhaiy = stays in the state of blissfulness. 4.

MEANING: I will gladly offer my mind (wisdom), my body (to serve), my head (ego), and all my property, to the holy friend who will bring Waheguru's message (His Will) to me. When one offers his head (thinking) with pure heart to the Guru, He "shows" Waheguru around him (everywhere). The devotee realizes his wish, and all his discomforts (due to illusions or disbeliefs) are eliminated. All the doubts of the devotee are cleared, and she enjoys the company of Waheguru day and night. Nanak prays (expresses His thankfulness) that He realized the husband (Waheguru) who is exactly like the one He (Guru Nanak) wished for. 3. My mind is blissful, and happiness has sprung in my heart because my dear Waheguru has come to dwell in my heart, and my thirst to see Him has been satisfied. With my union with the dear Waheguru, who is the Lord of the whole universe and nourishes it, all my senses are overjoyed, and are singing the song of happiness; at the same time, all my five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachment and conceit) have been obliterated from the root. I have made my heart bed for Waheguru, and I feel as if I am listening to the auto-playing Divine music. (Guru) Nanak(u) expresses His thankfulness that He has been connected with the source of all comforts, Waheguru, and stays connected with Him in the higher spiritual state. 4.1.

Paiyj = honour. 2.

MEANING: Your palaces, Your mansions (Your Divine state), are high beyond limit (are unreachable to the man), oh mind-captivating Waheguru! However, Your supreme devotees look very dignified at Your door, in Your holy congregations. Your devotees sing Your praise in holy congregations, oh limitless and benevolent Lord-Waheguru. Where there is an assembly of holy devotees, Your Naam is recited. Please be merciful to the weak (poor and powerless), oh Lord. Thirsty of Your Sight, (Guru) Nanak begs for Your Sight because Your holy Sight is the source of the supreme comfort. 1.

Your Words (Huqam) are of unmatchable comfort, and your lifestyle (with which You look after Your creation) is unique, oh, the mind-captivating Lord. You are the only one who is recognized as the supreme power by all; all other gods, goddesses, and prophets are the dust of Your feet, oh Lord! You are the only one recognized as controlling all the power (to run the universe), oh Lord. Your devotees bind You in their love by the Words (Advice) of the Guru, oh the Lord, Waheguru. You are omnipresent and the origin of the universe. Being present in all living beings, it is actually You who dies when a living being dies, and You are the one who lives; it is Your power that operates in the universe. (Guru) Nanak also prays to Waheguru to shower His kindness on him (Guru Nanak) as well. 2.

Sloak: Nirunkaar, aakaar Aap(i), nirgoon surgoon Aik. Aikeh(i) aik bukhaan-no, Nanak Aik anayk. 1.

Word Meaning: Nirunkaar = formless (no physical features). Aakaar = visible universe. Nirgoon = the featureless state of Waheguru where He is above the effects of Maya (formless; not present in nature). Surgoon = the form of Waheguru in which He is present in the living beings which are affected by the effects of Maya (in the form of the universe). Bukhaan-no = is described. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru is formless, and visible in the form of the universe, at the same time. He is both – Nirgoon and Surgoon. One and the only Waheguru, is present in countless forms, and that is how He is described. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru has created the world to make men saints. Like the beads in a rosary, He has connected the whole universe with the thread of His Huqam. He has dispersed the three effects of Maya in different forms (all living beings are impacted by Maya). He is Nirgoon (invisible, formless and above the effects of Maya), and also visible as in all the objects in the universe). He created the world of all kinds all by Himself, and also created birth, death, and attachment (affection) in the minds of the living beings. But, He Himself, is unaffected by either of them – birth and death. There is no end to the greatness (size) and the generosity of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

No doubts or misgivings impact them (they do not suffer from them). They “see” Waheguru’s majesty everywhere. They are the real holy men who reach their destination (Union with Waheguru). I always wish to sacrifice my life for such devotees, oh Nanak. 3.

MEANING: Why do people look for money so intensely when they know it is perishable (not going to accompany them after death)? People who are devoid of Waheguru’s Naam will simply become dust after death (and even piles of money will not help them) (people with Naam in their heart, merge into Waheguru). 1.

They do not wish for any money and have no desire for any paradise. They stay absorbed in the love of their extremely dear Waheguru, and in the dust of the Feet of the Guru (His Divine Words). No worldly affairs worry those who do not leave the shelter of Waheguru to seek support elsewhere. Those are Perfect saints whom Waheguru kindly gives His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.

Word Meaning: Bhaykh = different faiths. Giyaan = debating religious matters. Dhiyaan = concentration. Mun Hutth(i) = obstinacy of mind without full faith. 1.
MEANING: No one has ever realized Waheguru by following the path of any of the countless faiths, by debating religious matters, or by the sheer obstinacy of their mind without full faith in Him. Only that individual is the real devotee and knowledgeable (connects with God) whom Waheguru is kind to, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ghiyaan = Divine Knowledge. Joogut(i) = arguments. Bhaatou = kinds. Ghiyaani = connected with Waheguru. Drirr(u) = firm (permanent) connection. Soyoo = that (Waheguru). Joag(u) = union. Reht = code of ethics (as advised by the Guru). Oosun = hotness. Seet = cold. Sumsur(i) = the same. Tut(u) = the origin (Waheguru). 5.
MEANING: There are many people who have no Knowledge about Waheguru, yet utter a lot by their mouth (engage in religious discussions) (with the belief that they will please Waheguru). They may use many different arguments from the Shastras, but they cannot have union with Waheguru simply by their utterances or by listening to hollow talk. Only that individual gets connected with Waheguru who has enshrined Waheguru's Naam firmly in his heart. Such a devotee follows the religious code of ethics strictly and obeys Waheguru's Will firmly. For him, hotness (discomfort) and coldness (comfort) are the same. The devotee, whom Waheguru is kind to, ponders on the virtues of Waheguru, who is the root (origin) of the universe, in the shelter of the Guru, oh, Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Srisht(i) = world. Boojhay = understanding; connecting with Waheguru. Pus(u) = Dhoar = animal. Bhaag Muthoar = fortune on the forehead.
MEANING: Those who come to this world as humans are only in name; without connecting with Waheguru, they are actually no better than animals. However, only those who have a good fortune written on their foreheads, oh, Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ya = this. Joog = world. Aikeh(i) Kuou = for the One (Waheguru). Junmut = right from birth. Mohiyo = got captivated. Mohini = captivating. Gerbh koont = womb. Oordh Tup = remembers (Waheguru) while upside down. Oorjh(i) puray = got entangled. Dayvunhaar = the provider (Waheguru). Bisraana = forgotten. Dhaarhou Kirpa = be kind. It oot = here and there (everywhere). 6.
MEANING: Humans come to this world only with one purpose – to connect with God. But they are captivated by the enchanting Maya as soon as they are born. They worship Waheguru's Naam for as long as they are in the womb upside down, and recite His Naam with every breath. (This Hindu belief may have some merit because Maya has no effect on them yet, but can the same be true for animals? (But after they are born), They get engaged in worldly things involving Maya (which they have to leave behind after death), and forget Waheguru from the mind, which is the provider of all those things. But the individual, to whom Waheguru is kind, does not forget Him anywhere, oh Nanak. 6.

Word Meaning: Gerbh = in the womb of many different life forms. Mugun = fully absorbed. Joan(i) = life forms. Phaasay = trapped. Traiy Goon = all those impacted by the three effects of Maya (all living beings). Ghutay ghut(i) = in every heart. Kuhou = say; suggest. Oopaayaa = solution; arrangement. Turou = swim across; remain unaffected. Nicket = near. Maayay = Maya.
MEANING: Fully absorbed in the sweetness of Maya, human beings are trapped in the birth-death cycle to go through many life forms; so, the man has been through many, many wombs (lives) of different life forms. Maya controls all the living beings by implanting attachment (love) for it in every heart. Suggest some solution to swim across the (difficult sea of) Maya, oh my devotee friend. Maya does not even come near the individuals connected to the holy congregation by the grace of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 7.

MEANING: Waheguru Himself has created noble and ignoble kinds of businesses for man to earn a living. The animal-like man flaunts his ego (that he does this or that), but what can he achieve without the Will of Waheguru? (Nothing). 1.

MEANING: There is only one Waheguru who does everything Himself, and makes others do whatever He wishes. He Himself has created and disseminated the ideas of sinful and pious deeds. The living beings in this world do only those things that God is making them to do (Waheguru gives them the nature or character which they follow). Nobody knows His limits; only that happens which He does (or makes the living beings do). Waheguru has created the whole expanse (universe) from Himself. He gives the final touches to everything to make them perfect, oh Nanak. 8.

Word Meaning: Raach(i) = attached; enjoy. Bunita = wife. Binoad = enthusiasm; display of love. Koosum = a pink flower which looks very beautiful, but wilts away quickly (Maya). Bikh = poison (Maya). Shoar = much noise. Tih = that (Waheguru). Binus(i) = vanish. Mein Moar = selfishness and ego. 1.
MEANING: The man is attached to, and enjoys with his wife enthusiastically, but all this is the noise (exhibition) of Maya, which is short - lived like the Koosum (flower). Take the shelter of Waheguru to have your ego and selfishness destroyed, oh Nanak.

Bikaar = worthless. Baandhay = tied. Jayvri = rope; noose; lasso. Bherm = misgivings. Boojheh(i) = realize. Laykhaiy, Gunut = accounts of deeds. Kaachi Bheet(i) = wall of mud. Soodh(i) = clean. Nirmul = clean; pure.

MEANING: All those tasks or businesses that the man gets busy in without keeping Waheguru in mind result in tight bonds of Maya, oh my mind. A money-lover man engages in all such businesses from where he cannot get freedom (from the bonds of Maya). Those who are intoxicated with (feel conceited about) the religious rituals are actually feeding their ego and carrying its unbearable burden. Such rituals are worthless if the man does not love Waheguru's Naam. They love money as being very sweet, as a result of which they are in the grip of the noose of the Angel of Death. Cheated by their misgivings, they do not realize that Waheguru is always with them. By simply keeping account of their so-called "noble" deeds, they cannot attain freedom from the bonds of Maya. (They cannot cleanse their mind with such deeds) just like a wall of mud which cannot be washed clean. Only such individuals have clean (pure) thoughts in the shelter of the Guru, who are given the understanding (enlightenment) by Waheguru Himself, oh Nanak. 9.

(By doing so), You will be given respect in Waheguru's Court, and no one will use disrespectful words toward you. Also, you will get to live with Waheguru in His Mansion, and the rebirth cycle will vanish for you. MEANING: Enjoying their sweet tastes, most people cling to immoral activities. Intoxicated with Maya, their thoughts are fully influenced by their ego. The bonds of Maya keep the man in the birth-dearth cycle. But they cannot be fully blamed; they are bound by Waheguru's Huqam and do only what Waheguru wishes them to do. Otherwise, no one is any less, and no one is complete (perfect). Likewise, nobody is wise or nobody is foolish (by choice). They take the direction in which Waheguru guides them. But, by the same token, they are reaping the rewards of their own past deeds; the Lord is fully detached from the world (has no biases) oh, Nanak. 11.

MEANING: Only that individual's birth (life) in this world is considered successful who recites (sings) Waheguru's praise with his tongue. blissfulness. Binsaiy = vanish. Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Trishna = fire of desires. Boojhaiy = is put out. Smaaou = get absorbed. 1.
MEANING: Get absorbed in Waheguru, the recitation of whose Naam causes blissfulness in the mind, and love for the other (Maya) to vanish, oh, my friend. The individual, who gets absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, never suffers from any discomfort or pain, and the fire of his desires is put out, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: Burn the evil thoughts which cause you to choose between the temporary comforts of captivating Maya, and the eternal bliss of union with Waheguru, oh my friend. By getting rid of such thoughts (and choosing Waheguru's Naam), one enjoys the comfort of blissfulness in mind. Seek the shelter of the Guru with whose support one swims across the sea of the world (captivating effects of Maya). Such an individual stitches his mind to Waheguru's Naam, and is never born again. With the support (benevolence) of the Perfect Guru, one does not fail to achieve the objective of human life (union with Waheguru). The individual, who has only Waheguru at his heart, enjoys the comfort of blissfulness, oh Nanak. 14.

Word Meaning: Eet Oot kay Meet = friend everywhere (Waheguru). 1.
MEANING: The Perfect Guru has taught us that we should always recite the Naam of the Waheguru, which is our friend everywhere (in this world and the next), and which is invisibly present in our body and mind, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: Remember the “One” (Waheguru) every day, who is our saviour at the end, oh my friend. The enjoyment of Maya is very short-lived, and everybody has to leave it behind. Whose mother, father, sons and daughters (are you talking about)? No one takes his wife or any household stuff with him. So, accumulate such wealth which does not vanish, and go to your own house (Waheguru’s Residence) with dignity, oh my friend. An individual who sings Waheguru’s praise in the company of the Guru in this world does not take rebirth, oh Nanak. 15.

MEANING: A man may be extremely handsome, may belong to a high caste, very clever at words, may be good at religious debates, and very wealthy; but he is like a dead person if he has no love for God. 1.

Word Meaning: Khut Shastar = the six Shatras of Hindus. Ghinyaata = well-versed Pooruk. Koombhuk, Raychuk = three Yogic exercises to cleanse the body. (Pooruk = breathe in to the maximum. Koombhuk = hold breath for a long time. Raychuk = breathe out. Ghiyaan = religious debating. Soam Paak = cook meals with one's own hands (not to eat cooked by others). Upers = avoid being touched by others. Oodiyaani = live in the wilderness. Hayta = love. Anayta = blind (ignorant). Ootum = superior. Gunou = consider. Chundaala = butcher. 16.

MEANING: A man may be well-versed in the six Hindu Shastras, or may practice the Yogic exercises to cleanse the body, or may be good at religious debates, or may be an expert in meditation, or may undertake pilgrimage; he may cook meals with his own hands, and may observe so much cleanliness that he does not allow being touched by others, or may live in wilderness – all with the false belief of connecting with Waheguru. But all such deeds are of a blind (ignorant) mind if he has no love for God. A butcher is much superior to him if the former has Waheguru’s Naam enshrined in his heart, oh Nanak. 16.

Word Meaning: Koont Chaar(i) = 4 major directions. Deh Dis(i) = ten sub directions (4 major + 4 corners + 2 vertical – up and down). Bhermay = wandered (to stay away from Maya). Kerm Kirt(i) = done deeds. Raykh = line on the forehead (fortune based on the deeds done previously). Mookut(i) = freedom from the bonds of Maya. Joan(i) = rebirth. 1.2.
NOTE: The number 2 at the end implies that this is the second sloak with this Paurri, which starts with the letter Kukka. The first sloak is with paurri, 8.
MEANING: With the fortune prewritten on his forehead based on his previous deeds, a man wanders in all directions on the earth (with the false belief of staying away from Maya). He also experiences comforts, discomforts, freedom from Maya, or rebirths as per his prewritten fortune (and nobody can erase that writing), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Kaarun = resources; means. Kerta = Creator. Soyoo = God. Doyoo Baara = second time (any other way). Bhoolunhaara = fallible. Punth(u) = path (of righteousness). Oodiyaan = wilderness. Puchhutaapaiy = repents. 17.
MEANING: Waheguru is the means behind all actions (including those of human beings). Nobody can erase what He has written (His Huqam), and everything will happen (the way He has designed). His writings cannot be changed so that things may happen some other way because the writer (Waheguru) is not fallible. He shows the right path to some, while some others are made to wander in the wilderness (where they achieve nothing worthwhile) and repent. He directs His own drama of life. The man has to accept whatever is given to him (by Waheguru), oh Nanak. 17.

Word Meaning: Bilchhut = enjoy blissfulness. Bhundaar = treasures. Naah(i) Shoomaar = no account (countless).
MEANING: Living beings eat, use, and blissfully enjoy the treasures of God, which never break down (run out). There is no limit to the people who worship Waheguru for that (His largess), oh Nanak. 1.

Daan(u) = punishment. 18.
MEANING: There is no shortage of any kind (in the treasures of) the omnipotent Waheguru. Whatever He has to give someone, will be given to him, no matter where he goes. But the wealth of the devotees is Waheguru's Naam, which is the treasure for their expenses. They practise forgiveness and humility, and enjoy blissfulness while singing praise of Waheguru, which is the treasure of all virtues. The devotees, to whom Waheguru is benevolent, enjoy life in blissfulness, and their minds bloom with mental happiness. With Waheguru's Naam in their heart, they always feel wealthy and are happy (content). Those who are liked by Waheguru achieve their objective of life (union with Him), and with the kind sight of Waheguru, they suffer no trouble, discomfort, or punishment, oh Nanak. 18.

Word Meaning: Gun(i) Min(i) = counting and measuring; analyze. Serpur = must; for sure. Chulno = have to leave the world (die). Aas = desires. Anit = countless. Aroag = healthy.
MEANING: If you analyze carefully, you will find that everybody must leave this world, oh my friend. (So, why have so much attachment to the world? One can get rid of his unlimited unhealthy (spiritually harmful) desires by taking Guru's shelter because Waheguru's Naam produces healthy thinking, oh Nanak. 1.

Priheh(i) Soohaag = Dear (Waheguru) as husband.
MEANING: Recite Waheguru's virtues with every breath of each day, oh my friend. Do not delay even for a moment because the human body is not dependable (can die at any time). Age is not a factor – be it a child, a youth, or an old man – nothing can restrain death. Nobody has any information about the time when the Angel of Death will put the noose around his neck. One may claim to be knowledgeable, meditative, or otherwise very clever, but you can see that nobody stays here forever. Everybody goes away from the world, leaving all Maya-related things (including family members) behind; so why does the foolish man cling to the perishables? Only those human brides are successful in life who acquire the dear Waheguru as their husband (unite with Him). But one needs to recite His Naam before he gets connected with Him; this happens only to those fortunate individuals who take Guru's shelter and recite His Naam, oh Nanak. 19.

The human mind softens (begins to love Waheguru) when it comes to Guru's shelter. Recitation of Waheguru's Naam only is the real deed for atonement of one's sins. Countless people who work hard, using traditional rituals to have their sins forgiven, have to repent at the end (because their wish is not fulfilled). They cannot find peace of mind without worshipping Waheguru. (However, one cannot even worship Waheguru with one's own efforts), Only those who drink the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam by shaking it well (enjoying the great taste), who are bestowed with it by the Guru, oh Nanak. 20.

No one can free himself from the bonds of Maya by keeping account of his rituals; the human body is like an unbaked earthen container that must break down (die). Only those are considered alive who worship the Living (Waheguru). Such holy devotees become well known in the world, even if they try to keep it a secret. 21.

Now my thoughts have become beautiful (pure and holy), and my attraction for Maya has completely vanished as my mind has been purified in the shelter (company) of the Guru. When an individual receives the kohl of Divine Knowledge in his mind's eye, he "sees" Waheguru everywhere, and all his worries disappear, oh Nanak. 22.

MEANING: The perishable human body is full of vices where force against the weak, thoughts of injustice, and oppression of others, flourish unchecked. The thoughts generated by one's ego, are strong shackles (because of which the man drowns in the world-sea); only Waheguru's Naam is capable of liberating us from these bonds, oh Nanak. 1.

Kuthni = explains the traits of Waheguru. Biyapaari = a hawker who sells goods door-to-door. Bsoodha = on earth. Mooraari = Waheguru. 24.

MEANING: When the man boasts that he has achieved something, he becomes like the parrot which is trapped in a nulini where he mistakes water placed in a dish as a death trap, and he does not leave nulini, considering it to be safe, and is caught by the trapper. (Similarly, the man erroneously feels safe in the body of ego and power). When a man believes that he is a worshipper and has deep knowledge about religion (so Waheguru will be very pleased with him), he is sadly mistaken because in the next world (after death), Waheguru does not give him any credit, not even the size of a sesame seed. If a man (Pundit) believes that he is explaining Waheguru's virtues to the masses (by taking part in debates, which further boost his ego), he is no better than a hawker who sells his goods door to door (the pundit also tries to sell his knowledge for money and for his ego). Only that individual gets connected with Waheguru who kills his haumein in the company of the Guru, oh Nanak. 24.

The money-minded individuals, who are disconnected from Waheguru and have love for the other (Maya), lament their entire lives (worrying about Maya) and die as such. If you listen to the life-sustaining praise of Waheguru in the company of the holy saints, all the sins of your mind drop off completely (are washed away). Whatever we see is perishable; so, with whom should we keep company? Realize this fact in mind that the attractions of Maya are false (short-lived). Only those know this fact, and they are the holy saints, whom Waheguru has made free from the deception of Maya. Waheguru pulls out the individuals from the dark well of Maya whom He is pleased with. Waheguru has all the capabilities and is the creator of the universe. Sing His praise who also creates the opportunity for union, oh Nanak. 26.

Word Meaning: Bundhun = bonds. Goon Nidh(i) = treasures of virtues (God). 1.

MEANING: Do not forget Waheguru any time, and sing His praise, which is the treasure of all virtues, oh Nanak. By serving the Guru (a manifestation of Waheguru), one attains the comfort of mind, and all his bonds with Maya, which lead to the rebirth cycle, are broken. 1.

But only that individual gets to serve Waheguru to whom the Guru is kind, and one gets the company of the Guru when Waheguru is kind to him. (You will connect with Waheguru in the company of the Guru), and will attain the state of blissfulness, will live in comfort, and will be blessed to have a glimpse of Waheguru. When the ego sprouts in one's mind, he keeps taking rebirths and dying, and suffers through many life forms. Rapt in the love for Maya and his own selfishness, the man is caught in the birth-death cycle. Slowly, I have fallen on the feet of (surrendered myself to) the holy devotees, where all my trouble-causing bonds have been severed, and I am absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 30.

Such a devotee breaks the bonds of Maya while living in the family and renounces his ego. He is considered to wear the outfit of a real valiant who controls his mind and connects with Waheguru. Such a devotee makes only Waheguru the basis of his life and considers nothing as his own. He remembers the unreachable Waheguru day and night. None of the wealth, household items, youthfulness, or your state accompanies you after death, oh my friend. Your only worthwhile duty is to remember Waheguru in the company of the Guru because He raises and nourishes us like our mother and father, oh Nanak. An individual who fights against the evils and decimates them is a real valiant. No evil can come even close to such a valiant. But a blind (ignorant) individual, who shackles himself with the bonds of selfishness and ego, blames others (the opposite party) for his vices (failures). Some people believe they can please God through their ability to argue and their wisdom, but only that individual is enlightened whom Waheguru Himself guides, oh Nanak. 39.

Even gods, goddesses, and god-like men, the acclaimed Sidh yogis, Brahma-like individuals, and the yoga-practising people, have all been misled (by the captivating Maya). Humans have been cheated by this misgiving; the sea of Maya is extremely difficult to swim across (to escape the bonds of Maya). Whenever he begs, he begs for money, which never gives happiness (or contentment). If you must beg something, beg only Waheguru's Naam, which will ferry you across the sea of Maya, oh Nanak. 41.

The salvation, which everybody wishes for, cannot be achieved without reciting Waheguru's Naam with dedication. Waheguru is the ship which is capable of ferrying people across the sea of Maya. So, I pray to Waheguru to kindly protect me, who has no virtue at all. The individual, who is enlightened by Waheguru by mind, words and deeds, acquires the wisdom to worship Him, oh Nanak. 43.

An individual who implants Waheguru's Naam in his heart quickly vanishes his hostility. Only the money-lovers and the ignorant people engage in religious debates, who look for ways to boost their ego and satisfy their sensual pleasures. Instead, he has stored the wealth of greed, lies, sensual desires, and worldly attachments in his mind. He spends his time in the company of the lustful, thieves, and big vilifiers. But if Waheguru wishes, He forgives the immoral in the company of the pure (pious).
