Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i)

Gaurri Sukhmani Mehla 5

NOTE: Sukhmani Sahib is a very popular holy composition in Guru Granth Sahib, authored by Guru Arjun Dev Ji, the Fifth Master. It is mostly in praise of Waheguru and Satguru in very simple language. Some groups organize group recitations of the holy Bani.

There is also a story about the holy composition: Guru Arjun Sahib had planned 24 Ashtpudies for the Bani, but after the 16th Ashtpudi, He could not continue and approached Baba Sri Chand, the elder son of Guru Nanak Dev Ji, for guidance. Baba Sri Chand advised to start the 17th Ashtpudi with the Sloak: Aad(i) Sach(u) Joogaad(i) Sach(u). Haiy Bh(i) Sach(u), Nanak Hosi Bh(i) Sach(u).

When Guru Arjun Dev Ji did that, He was able to complete the next 8 Ashtpudies.

The story does not seem true for several reasons. The most compelling reason is that Guru Arjun Dev Ji was a spiritual incarnation of Guru Nanak Dev Ji; so, why would "Guru Nanak Dev Ji" go to Baba Sri Chand, His son, for guidance -especially when Sri Chand Ji had a different philosophy than Guru Nanak Sahib? So, the story is certainly not true. Guru Arjun Sahib did not need to seek any external advice to create the holy Gurbani.

I sing praise only of (Waheguru), which is the provider for the whole universe. (But I am not the only one), countless people recite His Naam. If there is a holy word in the Vedas, the Puranas, and the Simritis, it is because of the one word – Waheguru's Naam. Even if a small amount of Waheguru's Naam begins to dwell in a devotee's heart, he becomes praise-worthy beyond measurement. I, Nanak, have only one desire – to have a glimpse of Yours, oh Waheguru. Kindly salvage me along with Your holy devotees. 1.
Waheguru's Naam is the real elixir or ambrosia (the liquid of immortality), and is the source of all comforts. It produces bliss in the minds of the devotees. Pause.

There is no hindrance (by the sensual desires) in the life of a devotee because he is alert against their attacks, day and night. No fear can impact a devotee who recites Waheguru's Naam, and no worry tortures him (he becomes worry-free). When a person recites Waheguru's Naam with affection and dedication, he feels as if he has acquired all the nine mythical treasures, oh Nanak. 2.

When a person recites Waheguru's Naam, he does not need any ritual, such as reciting mantras, self-affliction, or the worship of a deity, and his love for Maya vanishes. Such a devotee does not need any pilgrimage. He is honoured in Waheguru's Court. Anything that happens to the individual who recites Waheguru's Naam is for his good, and he gets all his wishes rewarded (fulfilled). However, only those people recite Waheguru's Naam whom He wants to do so. I wish to drop at the feet of such lucky people (serve them diligently), oh Nanak. 3.

MEANING: Remembering Waheguru (keeping him in mind) is the highest spiritual worship, and countless people have found salvation by reciting Waheguru's Naam. Man's fire of his desires is put out by the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, and he achieves the ability to find a solution to all his problems (how to break the bonds of Maya). The Angel of Death can strike no fear in the mind of the devotee, and all his wishes are fulfilled. Recitation of Waheguru's Naam washes away the filth of one's mind, and the Naam-Amrit takes root in the devotee's heart. Waheguru dwells on the tongue of the Guru (Guru's tongue always recites His Naam), and I am the slave of Waheguru's slaves (devotees), oh Nanak. 4.

They are not dependent on anyone; on the contrary, others treat them like a king (they earn respect in society). The individuals who recite Waheguru's Naam are always blissful and become immortal. However, only those recite Waheguru's Naam who are kindly motivated to do so. I beg for the dust of their feet (wish to serve them), oh Nanak. 5.

With the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, the devotee feels as if he is listening to the soft auto-playing Divine Music which the yogis are believed to hear in their meditation, and there is no limit to the comfort provided by the recitation of the Naam. Only those recite Waheguru's Naam whom He is kind to. I wish to drop at the feet of such devotees (seek their shelter), oh Nanak. 7.

The Vedas were written by their authors when prompted to do so, while remembering Waheguru (everything is controlled by Waheguru, who makes individuals do good or bad deeds based on their previous deeds). Individuals become Sidhs, celibates, and altruists when prompted by Waheguru when they recite His Naam. It was because of their recitation of Waheguru's Naam that the individuals belonging to low castes came to be well known in the world. It is by recitation of Waheguru's Naam that the devotee realizes that the earth is being supported by Waheguru (and not by some ox or Hercules); also, the devotee realizes that it is Waheguru who is the creator of the universe, and of all the universal bodies. Waheguru is present where His Naam is being recited. But only that individual recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, who is given the wisdom (is motivated) by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.1.

MEANING: Where there is no one like your mother, father, son, friend, or brother to help you, Waheguru's Naam is always there to help you, oh man. Where there is a terrifying army of the Angel of Death, Waheguru's Naam is again there to protect you. When you are in big trouble, Waheguru's Naam gets you out of that trouble in a moment. Countless rituals of penitence cannot wash away the sins of an individual, but, Waheguru's Naam eradicates millions of sins. Recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and enjoy all sorts of comforts, oh my mind. 1.

Word Meaning: Srisht(i) = world. Laakh Krorie = millions. Bundh(u) = contain; put a stop. Nisturaiy = is salvaged. Tikh = thirst for Maya. Aghaavaiy = is contented. Soohayla = comforting. Perm gut(i) = highest spiritual level.

MEANING: Even the emperor of the whole world suffers from many worries, but a devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam, is always blissful. Millions of rupees (countless money) do not put a stop to the further desires of a man (and he is further shackled by the bonds of Maya); but a devotee gets freedom from the bonds of Maya by worshipping Waheguru. Countless pleasures of Maya do not quench the thirst of the man for Maya, but he is fully contented by reciting Waheguru's Naam. The man has to go alone on the journey to the Angel of death, but a devotee is not alone as Waheguru's comforting Naam is with him. Recite such Naam of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, which enables you to achieve the highest spiritual state, oh my (Nanak's) mind. 2.

Word Meaning: Baahi = arms (army). Paar(i) Puraahi = is ferried across. Bighun = obstacles; hindrances. Sunghaaraiy = killed; is incapacitated. Tutkaal = right away. Bisraam = rest; peace. Huoun = selfishness and ego. Rung(i) = with love.

MEANING: The man does not get freedom from the bonds of Maya even if he has command of an army of millions. However, by reciting Waheguru's Naam, he easily finds salvation (swims across the sea of Maya). When a man is incapacitated by countless hindrances, he is pulled out of trouble right away by Waheguru's Naam. Normally, the man takes birth in countless different life forms and dies, but he finds rest (his rebirth cycle is broken) if he recites Waheguru's Naam. The man is filthy with haumein, and he never cleanses his filth (continues to live with haumein in different lives), but Waheguru's Naam washes away the filth of millions of sins. So, recite such a useful Naam of Waheguru with love, oh my mind. Waheguru's Naam is acquired in the company (shelter of the Guru), oh Nanak. 3.

Waheguru's devotees are imbued with the sweetness of Waheguru and are interwoven with Him like the cross threads of a fabric. During their meditation, the devotees are so intoxicated with the sweet Naam that Maya cannot impact them in any way. Waheguru's devotee recites His Naam all the time, and becomes well known in the world even if he tries hard to stay unknown. Service to God cuts the bonds of MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the Parijat tree, and singing His praise is the Kamdhenu for a devotee (he does not need their support). Describing Waheguru's virtues (singing His praise) is the supreme (best) way (to connect with) God. Listening to Waheguru's Naam shakes off all the pain and misery. The holy saints harbour the invaluable Naam of Waheguru in their hearts, and with the magnificence of the Guru, all their sins disappear. However, it is only by great luck that one gets to be in the company of the Guru. Recitation of Waheguru's Naam is the service to the Guru. There is nothing to rival Waheguru's Naam, but some rare person gets to acquire Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 8.2.

They may offer their body in small pieces to the huvun fire, and may make many commitments, and put some restrictions to discipline their body and mind; but there is nothing that compares with Waheguru's Naam, even if it is recited (with full faith) only once in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 1.

Saadhun = ways; means. Nimukh = small piece. Sumsur(i) = equal. Gut(i) = highest spiritual state. 2.

Nothing is comparable to Waheguru's Naam for cleansing your mind of haumein (and for having union with Waheguru). An individual who recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru attains the highest spiritual state (union with God), oh Nanak. 2.

They observe all sorts of ritualistic cleansing of the body, but the filth of their mind is not washed away. The man tries many different ways to purify his body, but the appetite of his mind for Maya never goes away. He does wash his short-lived body with water (at some holy place), but like a wall of mud, how can his mind be purified with water? The splendour (holiness) of Waheguru's Naam is very high, oh my mind. Countless immorals have been salvaged by His Naam, oh Nanak.3.

Oobh = sky; paradise. Puyaal(i) = underworld; hell. Uver = others. Kertoot(i) = deeds; rituals. Daanaiy = punishes. Til(u) = sesame seed; a very small amount. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = with love and a peaceful mind. 4

MEANING: If a person thinks he is very wise and tries very hard to achieve all his objectives, he is never content because all his desires are never fulfilled. Rather, he fears the Angel of Death more for his ill deeds. The fire of his desires is never put out no matter how many different religious faiths he follows. And, despite his countless approaches, he never succeeds in Waheguru's Court. He cannot escape the consequences of his deeds, and continues to be in the cycle of paradise and hell (rebirths with comforts or suffering), and the net of attachment for Maya keeps tightening on him. Countless religious rituals fail to gain the approval of the Angel of Justice, except for Waheguru's worship. The suffering caused by the attachment of Maya (and therefore of rebirths) is eliminated only by Waheguru's Naam. So, recite Waheguru's Naam with affection and with a peaceful mind, oh Nanak. 4.

MEANING: If a person wishes for the four most popular desired products, he should serve the holy saints. If a person wishes to get rid of his troubles, he should recite Waheguru's Naam from the depths of his heart. If a person wishes to be praised, he should give up his haumein in the company of the holy saints. If someone is afraid of rebirths, he should seek the shelter of the holy devotees. However, I will gladly sacrifice my life for the individual who wishes to have a sight of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 5.

A person who is humble and respectful to others sees Waheguru in every heart. Noble deeds, or sins, have no effect on the devotee who gets rid of all his vices, treats everybody as his friend, and accepts comforts and discomforts the same way (is a stoic), oh Nanak. 6.

Untarjaami = know-all, omniscient. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Mit(i) = capability. Raatay = imbued; mingled with. Oostut(i) = praise; magnificence. 7.

MEANING: Your Naam is the wealth for the poor, and is the shelter for the shelterless, oh Waheguru. You are the pride of a man with no recognition in society, oh Waheguru. And You are the provider for all living beings. You are the source of everything. You cause others to do whatever You wish them to do, and You are the know-all (omniscient) of all the hearts, oh Lord. Only You know Your high spiritual state (Your capabilities), and Your measurements. Being present in every heart, You are mingled with everybody (and with Yourself). Only You know Your magnificence - nobody else does – oh, Nanak. 7.

MEANING: Recitation of Waheguru's Naam is the holiest deed, and is the best among all the faiths. To wash away the filth of ill thinking (and of deeds) in the shelter of the Guru is the supreme of all the acts (deeds). The best initiative of all is to recite Waheguru's Naam all the time, oh my mind. Listening to Waheguru's praise, and to recite that with the tongue, is the Amrit - best among all the conversations. The heart, which remembers Waheguru at all times, is the best of all places. 8.3.

MEANING: Remember Waheguru all the time, oh ignorant and virtue-less man. Keep your Creator in mind, and He will support you all the way, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Rumuyiya = pervading everywhere (Waheguru). Chayt(i) = remember. Praani = man. Kuvun = which. Mool = base; origin. Drishtaani. = is seen; looks like. Saaj(i) = create. Suvaar(i) = polished. Seegaariya = adorned; gave the final finish. Gerbh Ugun(i) = the heat of the womb. Bivustha = age. Piyaaraiy = feeds. Bhur(i) Jobun = prime of youth. Soodh = understanding. Birdh = old. Saak Saiyn = relatives and friends. Apiyayo = food. Nirgoon = without any quality (virtue); ungrateful. Seejhaiy = succeeds. 1.

MEANING: Remember (recall) the virtues (kindness) of Waheguru, oh man. Remember what your origin was (sperm and egg), and what your final form looks like now! Remember the Waheguru who created, polished, and adorned you to the final finish, and who protected you from the otherwise unbearable heat of your mother's womb. He arranges for milk in your childhood; provides you with the foods you relish, provides all comforts, and the ability to think (make decisions) in the prime of your youth. When you get old, there are relatives and friends to look after you and feed you (when you cannot take care of yourself). But the ungrateful man does not acknowledge any of these favours by the Lord; he can succeed (find salvation) only if Waheguru forgives him, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Persaad(i) = kindness. Dhur = earth. Buseh(i) = prevails. Soot = sons. Bunita = wife. Seetul = cool. Paavuk(u) = fire. Amoola = priceless. Rusa = tastes. Smuggri = needed materials. Hust = hands. Kern = ears. Uver = the other (Maya). Ruchna = get involved. Doakh = vices. Biyaapay = impact. 2.

MEANING: (The man does not remember the kind Waheguru) because of whose benevolence, he has a comfortable life on the earth, and enjoys happiness among his sons, brothers, friends, and his wife. It is because of Waheguru's kindness that the man enjoys cool water, comforting air, and priceless fire. It is because of Waheguru's kindness that the man enjoys a variety of tastes and has all the necessities for living. Waheguru has given the man hands, feet, ears, eyes, and the tongue (to enjoy life), but, ignoring Waheguru completely, the ungrateful man gets engrossed in Maya. (Ignoring Waheguru), Many vices overpower the ignorant and the foolish man. Only Waheguru can pull him out of such immoralities, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Aad(i) = the beginning. Gvaar(u) = foolish. Nuv Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Moorra = foolish. Hujooray = present; around. Tehl = service to. Moogudh(u) = imprudent. Ajaan(u) = ignorant. Bhoolunhaar = fallible; likely to make mistakes. 3.

MEANING: The foolish man does not love Waheguru, who protects him from the beginning to the end. The foolish man does not show any interest in Waheguru, serving whom, he can enjoy the comforts of the nine mythical treasures of the world. The blind (ignorant) man does not realize that the Lord is always very close to him; he rather thinks of Him as being far, far away. The imprudent and the ignorant man forgets Waheguru, serving whom he earns respect in His Court. The man makes mistakes all the time, while the limitless Waheguru forgives him, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Ruttan(u) = (precious like a) jewel (Waheguru's Naam). Kaudi = (a worthless object like) a cowrie shell (Maya). Ruchaiy = gets involved; seeks comfort. Muchaiy = heats up; gets excited. Asthir = permanent; everlasting. Praanaiy = recognizes; thinks. Sherm(u) = work hard. Purhuraiy = stays away from. Chundun Layp = a coating of sandalwood pulp. Gerdhub = donkey. Bhusum = dust; ash. Undh Koop = a dark well (of Maya). Putit = immoral. Bikraal = frightening. 4.

MEANING: (The ignorant) man ignores Waheguru's precious Naam and seeks comfort in worthless Maya (which is short-lived). He ignores his eternal companion - Waheguru's Naam - and gets excited about the short-lived Maya. The man treats Maya (whom he has to leave behind) as his eternal possession, and thinks of Waheguru (and death), which are always close to him, as being far, far away. He works hard to earn wealth, which he has to leave behind, and stays away from Waheguru, which is always with him to guard him. Like a donkey, which loves dust, and will wash away a coating of the sandalwood pulp (which gives off sweet fragrance, and keeps the body cool in hot weather), the ignorant man ignores Waheguru (sandalwood) and embraces dust (Maya). The fate of the immoral man, who is stuck in the dark well of Maya, is frightening. Please, pull the ignorant out of this dark well, oh kind Waheguru, prays Nanak. 4.

Word Meaning: Kertoot(i) = deeds. Pusoo = animal. Maanus = human. Loak Puchaara = (show-off) to impress people. Bhaykh(i) = (saintly) garb. Mul(u) = filth. Giyaan = (preaches) knowledge. Dhiyaan = meditates. Sooaan(u) = dog. Ugun(i) = fire (of desires); anger. Paathur = rock. Athaah = unfathomable (sea of Maya). Sehj(i) = state of blissfulness. Smaat(i) = gets absorbed; becomes oblivious. 5.

MEANING: The man has only the looks of a human; his deeds are like those of an animal. All his deeds are simply a show-off to impress people. He wears a religious garb (to fool people), but his mind is filthy with the desire for Maya. But he cannot hide the reality even if he tries hard. Outwardly, he gives the impression of a religious person by preaching morals, by meditating for long times, and by taking pilgrimages; but the dog of greed is always biting him inside (prompting him). He coats his body with ashes to give the impression that he has renounced Maya, but the fire of desires is alive in his mind. With the rock (the load of his sins) around his neck, how can he swim across the unfathomable sea of Maya? Those individuals who have Waheguru enshrined in their mind become fully detached from Maya in the blissful state, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Ker(u) = hand. Geh(i) = hold. Oarr(i) Nibhaavaiy = fulfil obligation; can reach destination. Boojhaarut(i) = riddle. Dora = deaf. Nis(i) = night. Bhora = morning; day. Bishun Pud = devotional song. Goong = mute. Soor = voice. Bhung = breaks down. Pingul = lame. Bhuvun = travel. Guvun = go; reach. Kroonamaiy = source of compassion. Deen(u) = helpless. Turaiy = find salvation. 6.

MEANING: A blind person cannot follow their path just by listening (to the instructions). But he will reach his destination if held by the hand. A deaf person cannot understand a riddle; if he is told it is nighttime, he thinks it is daytime. A mute cannot sing a devotional song (or another song for that matter); his voice will break down (split) even if he tries very hard. A lame person cannot walk to climb a mountain because they cannot even get there. (Similarly), How can a man, who is spiritually blind, deaf, lame and mute in the love for Maya, swim across the deep sea of Maya?) The humble Nanak prays that if the source of compassion, Waheguru, is kind, the helpless man can swim across the world sea (find salvation). 6.

Word Meaning: Suhaayee = helper; supporter. Cheet(i) = in mind. Bairaayee = enemy; vices Bulooa = sand. Greh(i) = house. Anund Kayl = entertainment. Rusaiy = enjoys the tastes. Drirr(u) = full faith. Perteet(i) = trust; dependence. Kaal(u) = death. Baiyr = animosity. Birodh = opposition. Dhroh = deceit. Joogut(i) = lifestyle. Bihaanay = spent. Kerm = benevolence. 7.

MEANING: The man does not remember Waheguru, who is always with him to support him, but loves Maya, who is really his enemy (because it gives birth to vices and to rebirths). The support of Maya is just like a house of sand (which can collapse at any time) in which the man is enjoying the temporary bliss and comforts of different tastes of Maya. He has full faith in his everlasting dependence on Maya and never thinks of death. He spends many, many lives based on enmity, animosity, lust, rage, attachment, lies, immorality, greed, and big deceit. I, Nanak, pray to Waheguru to protect (salvage) such an immoral man. 7.

Word Meaning: Tthaakur(u) = Lord. Ardaas(i) = prayer. Raas(i) = investment; ownership. Ghunayray = immense. Smuggri = all ingredients; everything. Sootur(i) = Huqam; laws. Dhaari = supported; bound by. Aagiyakaari = obedient. Gut(i) = high spiritual state, grandeur. Mit(i) = measurements. 8.

MEANING: You are the Lord, and I pray to You that we owe our life and body to You, oh Waheguru. You are our mother, and our father, and we are Your children, oh Waheguru. Your shelter is a source of immense comfort for us. Nobody has ever found Your limits because You are higher and higher. All bodies are bound by Your laws, and whatever You have created, obeys You (Your Huqam). Only You know Your grandeur, and Your measurements. Word Meaning: Daynhaar(u) = the provider. Aan sooaayay = other tastes. Seejhuyee = succeeds. Put(i) = honour; dignity. Jaayay = goes away; loses.

MEANING: Ignoring the provider Waheguru, the man is enjoying the different tastes of Maya. (Because of such tastes), he will never succeed (achieve his real objective – unity with God), and is losing his dignity (is being robbed of his virtues by the five demons) without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Paachhaiy Paavaiy = carries on the back; takes possession. Bikhoat(i) = purity; trust. Hir(i) = steal; take back. Moorra = foolish. Chaara = cannot compete against; are helpless before Him. Voottha = dwells; are acquired. Thoak = products. 1.

MEANING: Provided by Waheguru, the man takes possession of ten (many) items (of his need), but if he is unable to get only one more, (he protests against that), as a result of which he loses his trust (because of his greed) just for one item. What will the foolish do if Waheguru does not give him the desired one item and takes back the ten He had already given him? One should always bow to the Lord (be thankful to Him) before whom one is helpless. An individual who finds Waheguru sweet in his mind acquires all the comforts in his mind. Word Meaning: Ugunt = beyond measurements. Shah(u) = money Lord; king; provider of everything. Raas(i) = capital; the articles needed for life. Anund Oolaas(i) = happiness and gusto (enthusiasm). Amaan = placed in trust. Buhour(i) = (takes) back. Roas(i) = complains; protests. Perteet(i) = trust; impression. Bisvaas(u) = trust. Chaugun = four times. Nihaal(u) = blesses. 2.

MEANING: The King-Waheguru provides the needed articles beyond measurements to the living beings, who eat, drink, and use them with gusto to their satisfaction. If Waheguru takes back some of the articles given (which are like a trust fund), the ignorant man protests against it in his mind. Thus, he loses his own trust and is no longer trusted by Waheguru. If he obeys Waheguru's Will, and happily offers some of Waheguru's gifts back to Him (gives to the needy or the meaningful charities), Waheguru blesses him four (many) times more, as He is always kind, oh Nanak. 2.

Ta kay haath(i) na aavaiy kayh. Mun Hur(i) kay Naam kee preet(i) sookhdaayee. Kur(i) kirpa Nanak aap(i) luyay laayee. 3.

Word Meaning: Hayt = for; love. Surpur = for sure. Anayt = perishable. Rung(u) = love. Binsaiy = vanishes. Chaalunhaar = perishable. Undhaar(u) = darkness (ignorant). Butaaoo = visitor. Nayh = love. Sookhdaayee = comforting. 3.

MEANING: The man loves (enjoys) countless different forms of Maya, but he must realize for sure that they are not going to last forever. They are like the shade of a tree which vanishes (changes) with the sun, and the man who depends on it has to repent. Every visible thing is perishable, and the ignorant and the blind man is clinging to them. A person who falls in love with a visitor accomplishes nothing. Only the love for Waheguru's Naam is comforting (source of bliss), but only that individual receives it who Waheguru Himself gives it kindly, oh Nanak. 3.

Nanak jup(i) jup(i) jeevaiy Hur(i) kay Churn. 4.

Word Meaning: Mithiya = false; short-lived. Kootumb(u) = family. Mumta = worldly attachments. Jobun = youthfulness. Bikraal = frightening. Ruth = chariots. Hustee = elephants. Ashuv = horses. Paykh(i) = on seeing; enjoying. Dhroh = deceit; guile; fraud. Asthir(u) = permanent; eternal. 4.

MEANING: Man's body, his wealth, and his family are all false (short-lived), and so are one's ego, selfishness, and his attachment to Maya. The estate, youthfulness, wealth, and other belongings are equally false, and so are lust and frightening rage. None of the chariots, elephants, horses, and expensive clothes will last forever; and short-lived are the enjoyments of Maya, enjoying which, the man feels happy. Short-lived are deceitfulness, worldly attachments, conceit, and one's self-pride. Only the worship of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru is everlasting. I survive by worshipping Waheguru's Feet (His Naam), oh Nanak. 4.

Mithiya servun per ninda sooneh(i). Mithiya hust per derb kuou hireh(i).

Mithiya tun, nuhee peroopkaara. Mithiya baas(u) layt bikaara. Bin(u) boojhay mithiya subh bhuyay. Suful dayh, Nanak Hur(i) Hur(i) Naam luyyay. 5.

Word Meaning: Mithiya = false; unsuccessful; condemnable. Servun = ears. Per = of others. Ninda = malicious criticism; vilification. Hust = hands. Derb = wealth. Hireh(i) = steal. Triya = women. Roopaad(i) = beauty and the like. Un = others. Bikaar = evils. Dhaaveh(i) = rush to. Loobhaaveh(i) = is attracted; is captivated. Peroopkaara = to help the needy. Baas(u) = nose; smell. Bin Boojhay = without realization. Suful = successful. Dayh = body.
MEANING: The ears, which enjoy listening to the vilification of others, are false (filthy, and not going to live forever), nor are the hands going to live forever that steal the wealth of others. Reprehensible are the eyes that enjoy the beauty, etc., of other women, and so is the tongue that enjoys the tastes of other foods (than Waheguru's Naam). Condemnable (unsuccessful) are the feet which rush to commit evil against others, and condemnable is the mind that is captivated by the greed for others' belongings. Condemnable is the human body, which does not do any favour to the needy, and so is the nose that smells vices (vice-provoking fragrances). All parts of the body are false (filthy) without the realization of (Waheguru's Naam); only that body is successful (in achieving union with Waheguru) which recites Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Birthi = empty; worthless. Saakut = money-lover; disconnected from God. Aarja = life. Soocha = pure. Undh = blind; dark. Doorgundh = foul smell (of malice). Bihaayay = is spent. Maygh = clouds (rain). Khayti = crop. Kirpun = money-lover. Niraaruth = without any meaning; useless. Daam = money. Dhunn(i) = praise-worthy; lucky. Bul(i) = sacrifice life. 6.
MEANING: Worthless is the life of the man who is disconnected from Waheguru (even if he performs countless rituals to cleanse the body) because the human mind cannot be purified without Waheguru's Naam. Without Waheguru's Naam, the human body is dark (ignorant) and useless. The mouth (the tongue which does not recite Waheguru's Naam) smells foul (because of malicious criticism of others). Just like a crop dies without rain, the day and night of the man pass by uselessly without Waheguru's Naam. Just like the money of a money-lover goes to waste (because he does not spend it), all other deeds of a man go to waste (are useless) without the worship of Waheguru. Those individuals are praiseworthy who have Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their hearts. I will gladly sacrifice my life for them, oh Nanak. 6.

Word Meaning: Rehut = physical outlook; lifestyle. Uver = other; different. Kmaavut = performance (of deeds). Gundh = establish connection. Jaanunhaar = omniscient. Perbeen = very wise. Bhaykh = garb; attire. Bheen = moved; is pleased. Oopdayshaiy = preaches. Nirunkaar(u) = formless Waheguru. Seekh = advice. Bhaanay = liked. Praata = touches. 7.

MEANING: Man's outlook (outward lifestyle) often belies his deeds. He has no love for Waheguru, but tries to connect with Him through words alone. However, the omniscient Waheguru is perfectly wise and is not moved by a person's outward appearance. The man preaches to others, but does not follow his own advice. Because of his ignoble deeds, he comes and goes, takes birth and dies. The world finds salvation by the advice of the devotee who has Waheguru's Naam embedded in his heart. But only those devotees make a connection with You (enshrine Your Naam in their heart) whom You like, oh Waheguru. I wish to touch the feet of such devotees, oh Nanak. 7.

Word Meaning: Jaanaiy = knows. Maanaiy = accepts; approves. Nibayra = decision. Oopaav = techniques. Siyaanup = wisdom. Rehut = unaffected; does not recognize. Rehut = have in mind. Lurr(i) Laayay = connects with Him. Thaan Thununtar(i) = everywhere. Smaayay = present. Nimukh = moment. 8.

MEANING: Waheguru already knows the request I am about to make. Being present in every heart, He makes people do things He likes and approves of. He alone makes His own decisions; to some, He gives the impression that He is far away, while to some others, He enlightens them that He is very close. Waheguru is unaffected by the techniques people use to impress Him, or by their wisdom. He knows everything that people have on their minds. Waheguru is present everywhere, and He connects the individuals with Him whom He likes. Only that individual serves Him whom He is kind to. Recite His Naam every moment, oh Nanak. 8.5.

Respect or disrespect by others does not matter to him, and he treats a king and a pauper the same way. Whatever situation he is given (put into) by Waheguru, becomes his lifestyle (he adapts to that). Such a devotee is called the "person alive," who is free from the bonds of Maya, oh Nanak. 7.

Millions enjoy the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam and become immortal, living forever (they merge into Waheguru). Millions recite Waheguru's Naam and sing His praise and enjoy the bliss of a peaceful mind. Waheguru looks after His devotees with their every breath; they are the beloved of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.10.

NOTE: (I) It is amazing to note that Guru Sahib is describing the infiniteness of the creation of Waheguru, professing that there are millions of moons, suns, gases, liquids, and sources of warmth and light, and galaxies. Actually, Guru Nanak Sahib wrote that more than 500 years ago, when the world believed in only one sun and one moon.
(II) Guru Arjun Sahib writes that there are countless ghosts, etc. Guru Sahib is NOT certifying the existence of ghosts here. He is simply writing what the Hindu Granths believe in. To support this assertion, please pay attention to that part of the Ashtpudi where He writes that there are countless Jukhs, Kinners and Pisaaches. Gurbani does not believe in any of these, as they are all mythical. He also writes that there are millions of gods, including millions of Indras, who rule the paradise in which Gurbani has no belief. Also, according to this line, either there are millions of Indras (and not just one) which rule the paradise, or there are millions of paradises. So, clearly, Guru Sahib is NOT certifying the existence of any such things.

Word Meaning: Kernaiy Joag(u) = capable of doing everything; omnipotent. Hoag(u) = will happen. Thaap(i) = creating. Oothaapunhaara = destroyer. Paaravaara = limits; abilities. Huqamay Dhaar(i) = with His Huqam. Adhur = above laws. Oopjay = comes into being. Smaavaiy = are absorbed; vanish. Biyohaar = dealing. Rung = colours; enjoyments. Perkaar = kinds. Smaayee = present. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru is omnipotent Himself, and can make others do whatever He wishes them to do. At the end, only what He wishes happens. He can create and destroy anything in a moment. There is no end to His capabilities. He creates things with His Huqam (His laws), but He Himself is above all laws. Things come into being and vanish with His Huqam. Word Meaning: Bhaavaiy = likes. Gut(i) = salvation. Paathur = rock; stone-hearted. Bhaakhaiy = recites; utters. Putit = immoral. Odhaaraiy = salvages. Bigsaiy = blooms; is blissful. Untarjaami = omniscient. Kaar = task. 2.

MEANING: If Waheguru wishes, an individual finds salvation; He can cause a rock to float (a man with a heavy burden of sins may find salvation) if He wishes. If Waheguru wishes, He can keep an individual alive even without him breathing. If Waheguru wishes, a man recites His virtues, and an immoral person can be salvaged. Waheguru does things which are based on His own thoughts. He is the Lord of both ends – life and death – and the omniscient Waheguru plays His games, and feels blissful about them. He makes others do whatever He wishes. There is none other like Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Hoyay Aavaiy = capable of doing. Unjaanut = ignorant. Bikhiya = Maya; sensual pleasures. Ruchaiy = gets comfort. Bhermay Bhoola = misled in misgivings. Dis(i) = directions. Dhaavaiy = rushes to. Nimukh = moment. Chaar(i) Koont = the four directions. 3.

MEANING: Think, what a man is capable of doing? (Nothing)! It is Waheguru who makes him do whatever He wishes. If the man had any control, he would grab everything, but he does not have that freedom; he does only those things which are permitted by Waheguru. The ignorant man gets comfort in sensual pleasures. Had he known better, he would have avoided such short-lived "comfort". Misled by doubts and misgivings, his mind rushes in all the possible directions and covers all four directions in a moment. But the individual, whom Waheguru gives His worship (inspires him to do so), acquires His Naam (gets connected with Waheguru), oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Neech Keet = low-lying worm (poor and the helpless). Nivaaj = bestow honour. Drisht(i) = visibility. Tutkaal = right at the moment. Bukhsheesh = kindness. Laykha = account of deeds. Jugdeesh = Waheguru. Jeeo = life. Pind(u) = body. Raas(i) = wealth; gift. Poorun = perfect. Pergaas = light. Bunut = creation; the universe. Budaayee = greatness. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru bestows honour on the poor and the helpless, and can make a pauper a king in a moment. A thing, no part of which is visible, appears in every direction in a moment with the Huqam of Waheguru. Waheguru does not look at the account of the deeds of the individual whom He is kind to. The soul and the body are the gifts of God, and every heart is being lighted (given awareness) by the presence of Waheguru in there. Waheguru has created the whole universe, and I survive by watching His magnificence, oh Nanak. 4.

Kubhoon, nind, chind, biyohaar. Kubhoon oobh akaash puyaal. Kubhoon, bayta Braham beechaar. Nanak Aap(i) milaavunhaar. 5.

Word Meaning: Bul(u) = force; natural capability. Naath = Lord. Aagiyakaari = obeys the Command. Bupura = helpless. Jeeo = living being; man. Phoon(i) = at the end. Theeyo = happens. Kubhoon = sometimes. Soag = sadness. Hurkh = happiness. Rung(i) = spirit. Nind = malicious criticism. Chind = thinking. Biyohaar = treatment. Oobh = high. Bayta = knowledgeable. Milavunhaar = connector. 5.
MEANING: The man does not acquire his natural capabilities with his own efforts; they are bestowed by Waheguru, who is the Lord of all, and who controls everything and makes others do whatever He wants them to do. The helpless man simply obeys His Commands. At the end, only those things take place that are liked (approved) by Waheguru. (With the Will of Waheguru) The man is in high spirits one moment and very low-spirited the next. Sometimes the man is grieving (sad), and sometimes he enjoys himself. Sometimes, the man ponders criticizing others maliciously, while other times his mind dodders between very high and depressed spirits. Sometimes, the man ponders on the splendour of Waheguru, and acquires Divine Knowledge (gets connected with Him). Waheguru Himself connects his devotees with Him, oh Nanak.5.

Word Meaning: Nirt(i) = dance; runs around (for Maya). Soyay Ruhaiy = unaware; indifferent. Bhaant(i) = types. Krodh = rage. Bikraal = scary; frightening. Ruvaal = dust. Upkeerut = unwarranted criticism of others. 6.
MEANING: Sometimes the man does a lot of running around of many different kinds for Maya, while other times, he stays indifferent to it for days. Sometimes he is so enraged that he looks frightening, while at other times he becomes very humble, like the dust of others' feet. Sometimes he acts like a powerful king, while at other times he acts like a lowly beggar. Sometimes he unleashes unwarranted criticism of others, while at other times he is treated like a noble person. His behaviour is controlled by Waheguru (in every situation). So, sometimes he recites Waheguru's Naam by the grace of the Guru, oh Nanak. 6.

Word Meaning: Pundit = learned person. Bukhiyaan = explains. Moandhaari = one who stays quiet for very long times (becomes mute). Laavaiy Dhiyaan = meditates. Tut = river bank. Sadhik = training to be a Sidh. Keet = ant. Hust = elephant. Ptung = moth. Bhermiya = misled. Nana Roop = different forms. Suvaangi = play-actor. 7.
MEANING: Sometimes a man (some men) becomes a pundit (a learned man) and explains things to others, while sometimes (some men) he goes mute for a long time and meditates. Sometimes, he worships by the bank of a river or takes dips at holy places. Sometimes, he becomes an accomplished Sidh yogi, or a wandering yogi, and utters (delivers) knowledge to the people. Sometimes, the misguided man takes on forms like ants, elephants, or moths, and goes through a number of different life forms. Just like a stage actor who wears a variety of different make-ups, the man dances (acts) the way Waheguru makes him do. Whatever Waheguru wishes, happens at the end, and there is none like Him, oh Nanak. 7.

Word Meaning: Usthaan = place; stage. Giyaan = Divine Knowledge. Binaas(u) = destruction. Khutaana = mixes; blends. Jot(i) = Waheguru's light. Joti = human light (soul). Smaana = merges into. Guvun = birth and death. Bisraam = rest; peace. 8.11.
MEANING: (At the prompting of Waheguru), sometimes the man attends a holy congregation, but never goes there again. But a holy congregation is an eternal place, and the man gets enlightenment there. There, the devotees are imbued in the love of Waheguru's Naam – both by body and by mind - and are always in the company (shelter) of Waheguru. Just like one body of water blends with another body of water, the light (soul) of the devotees mixes with the Supreme Light of Waheguru (to become one entity), as a result of which the cycle of birth and death of the devotees comes to an end. I am always a sacrifice to Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.11.

Sloak(u): Sookhi busaiy muskeeniya, aap(u) nivaar(i) tulay. Buday, buday uhunkaaria Nanak gerb gulay. 1.
Word Meaning: Muskeeniya = humble; ego-free. Aap(u) = selfishness. Nivaar(i) = by getting rid of. Gerb(i) = in ego. Gulay = rot; perish. 1.

MEANING: A man who gets rid of his selfishness and becomes ego-free leads a low, but blissful life. The individuals with huge egos perish in their conceit, oh Nanak. 1.

Nanak eehaan mookut(u) aagaiy sookh(u) paavaiy. 1.

Word Meaning: Abhimaan(u) = conceit. Nerk-paati = deserving hell. Sooaan = dog. Jobunvunt = youthful; handsome. Bishta = feces; vices. Junt(u) = living being. Kermvunt = follower of religious rituals. Greebi = humility. Busaavaiy = implants. 1.

MEANING: A ruler, who is conceited of his reign (power) (and attacks people like a mad dog) will deserve to live in hell as a dog. An individual who considers himself youthful (handsome) becomes a worm of feces (has a filthy mind which always thinks of sensual pleasures). An individual who is called ritualistic takes rebirths in many different forms after death. An individual who is conceited of his wealth and land is foolish and is in the darkness of ignorance. But, an individual, in whose heart Waheguru kindly implants His Naam, becomes free from the bonds of Maya in this world, and enjoys bliss in the next world, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Dhunvunta = wealthy. Gerbaavaiy = shows off conceit. Trin = a straw; a sliver. Samaan(i) = equal to. Lushkur = army. Pul = a moment. Bheetur(i) = within. Bulvunt(u) = powerful. Bhusmunt(u) = ash. Budaiy = acknowledge. Khooaari = suffering; discomfiture. 2.

MEANING: If a man is conceited of his wealth, (he is mistaken) because not even a small amount - equal to the size of a sliver - accompanies him (after death). If a man depends upon a large army of men, he can still be destroyed within a moment. If a man considers himself to be the most powerful among all, he can be reduced to ashes in a moment. If a man is so conceited that he does not acknowledge anybody else, the Angel of Justice causes him great humiliation. But an individual who overcomes his ego by the grace of the Guru is honoured in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Kerm = rituals. Huoun = ego. Dhaaray = wears; behaves. Sherm = hard work. Birthaaray = useless. Tpusiya = worship; hard labour with dedication. Avtar = reincarnation. Jutun = efforts. Aatum = soul; mind. Druvaiy = melts; softens. Guvaiy = go; reach. Nicket(i) = nearby. Rayn = dust; (implying) humbleness. Nirmul = pure; noble. Soyay = fame; reputation.

MEANING: If a man performs millions of accepted rituals, but is conceited about them, all his hard work becomes worthless. If a man performs countless types of worship, but is conceited about that, he gets into the birth-death cycle and goes through paradise-like and hell-like lives (depending upon his deeds) again and again. If his countless efforts do not soften his heart, how can he reach Waheguru's Court (connect with Waheguru)? A man, who calls himself a noble person, does not have any nobleness come even close to him. (On the other hand), A man who is so humble and is happy to serve others has a very noble reputation, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Jub Lug(u) = as long as. Kichh(u) Kerta = doing some favours to others. Jaanaiy = is conceited about. Gerbh Joan = life forms in the womb. Dhaaraiy = thinks of; treats. Nihchul = stable; peaceful. Cheet(u) = mind. Mugun = absorbed; focused. Maayay = Maya. Bundhun = bonds. Huoun = ego. 4.

MEANING: As long as a man thinks that he is capable of doing something big, he enjoys no comfort (suffers hardships to accomplish his goal, and still may not succeed). As long as a man is conceited that he is doing some favours to others (people depend upon him), he travels through many life forms in the womb. As long as a man treats others as his friends or enemies (discriminates between people), he never attains peace of mind. As long as a man is absorbed in the love of Maya, he suffers punishment at the hands of the Angel of justice. When he takes Guru's shelter and is able to overcome his haumein, his bonds of Maya are broken by Waheguru's grace (he is salvaged), oh Nanak. 4.

Word Meaning: Sehs = thousand. Lukh = hundred thousand. Dhaavaiy = rushes to. Triput(i) = contentment. Paachhaiy Paavaiy = chases. Bikhiya = Maya; sensual pleasures. Khup(i) Khup(i) = hard labour without much reward. Suntoakh = patience; contentment. Raajaiy = satisfied. Soopun = dream. Munoruth = objective. Kaajaiy = tasks; efforts. Budbhaagi = fortunate. 5.
MEANING: The man is never content with the amount of money he has, and always keeps chasing it; when he has earned one thousand rupees (a huge amount in those days), he rushes to earn a hundred thousand. He enjoys money in countless ways to please his senses, but is still not satisfied, and kills (exhausts) himself in (spiritually) useless hard labour. Nobody‘s appetite for more wealth goes away until he is contented (which he never does), and all his efforts to achieve the objective go down the drain like a dream. However, all comforts are achieved when one loves Waheguru’s Naam; but only a rare, lucky person gets to embed His Naam in his heart. It is Waheguru, who does everything Himself, and gets others to do whatever He wishes. Recite His Naam all the time, oh Nanak. 5.

MEANING: If one thinks deeply, he will realize that the man has no control over anything; it is Waheguru that does everything and gets people to do whatever He wishes. An individual behaves exactly the way the kind of sight Waheguru casts on him (in whatever way Waheguru wants him to behave) because it is Waheguru that operates everywhere. He is close to everybody, yet detached from them, and He does everything in His own way. He watches, understands, and distinguishes between the good and the bad. He is the only power in the universe (but being omnipresent), and He manifests Himself in countless ways. He is eternal – never takes birth nor dies. He is always present, oh Nanak. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru is omniscient, and (being present in the Guru), He also is the preacher, and has mingled with everybody. He is omnipotent, did His own expansion, and everything belongs to Him. Nothing is independent of Him; He is present everywhere and in everything. He is behind all amazing feats and performs them in countless, colourful ways. He is present in every heart, and His thoughts are in all His creation. No one can evaluate Him (find His limits), oh Nanak. 7.

Roop = looks; personality. Apaar = endless. Anoop = unparalleled. Baani = His Naam. Bukhaani = described; explained. Puvittar = Pooneet = holy; pious. 8.12.

MEANING: The fact that the Lord, Waheguru, is eternal, is explained (internalized) by some rare individual by the grace of the Guru. Everything that He has created is for real (some Hindu mystics professed that the world creation is an illusion), but only one in millions has recognized this fact. Waheguru's personality is very pleasant; He is extremely handsome, and His beauty is unparalleled (beyond any comparison). His Sloak(u): Sunt shern(i) jo jun(u) puraiy, so jun(u) oodhrunhaar. Sunt kee ninda Nanaka, buhour(i) buhour(i) avtar. 1.

Word Meaning: Jun(u) = devotee. Oodhrunhaar = salvageable. Ninda = malicious criticism; vilification. Avtar = rebirths. 1.

MEANING: A devotee, who takes the Guru's shelter, attains salvation. Vilification of the Guru causes the person to be born again and again, oh Nanak. 1.

Nanak Sunt sung(i) ninduk(u) bhee turaiy. 1.

Word Meaning: Dookhun(i) = causing trouble (out of jealousy). Aarja = life span. Jum = angel of death. Muleen = filthy. Heen = without; devoid of. Hutay = killed; condemned. Rukhaiy = protect; help. Thaan = heart; environment. Bhrusht(u) = polluted. Ninduk(u) = malicious critic; character assassin. Turaiy = is salvaged. 1.

MEANING: The life span of a man who causes trouble for the Guru out of jealousy is lowered, and the Angel of death does not let him go free. Jealousy against the Guru takes away all the comforts of the aggressor, and his life becomes hellish. His thinking becomes ignoble, and he becomes devoid of any fame. Jealousy against the Guru not only pollutes the individual's heart but also the environment around him, and nobody can help the person who has been condemned by the Guru. However, if the kind Guru shows kindness to His vilifier, even he finds salvation, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Dookhun(i) = jealousy. Mookh(u) Bhuvaiy = face turned away. Kaag = crow. Luvaiy = crows; talks gibberish. Trigud Joan(i) = animals that crawl. Trishna = burning desire for Maya. Chhulaiy = deceives; cheats. Tayj(u) = splendour. Thaaoun = shelter (in Waheguru's Court). Gut(i) = higher spiritual state; salvation. 2.

MEANING: Jealousy with the Guru turns the face of the jealous away from the Guru (he becomes a non-believer and he cannot do any noble deed either), and he always talks gibberish. Causing any trouble for the Guru results in the jealous person being born as a snake and as other creatures which crawl on the ground (he stoops so low in morality that he becomes vicious like a snake, and acts so low that he cannot fly high in spirits like the crawling creatures). The individual, jealous of the Guru, suffers in the fire of desires and tries to cheat everybody. He loses all his splendour (if he had any) and becomes the lowest of the lowly. There is no shelter for the jealous (in Waheguru's Court); however, if the Guru wishes, he too is salvaged, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Ut-taayee = extremist; trouble maker. Ticken(u) = peaceful Hutiyaara = killer; sinner. Maara = condemned. Raj = control over senses. Heen = devoid of. Deen(u) = helpless. Bijoag = separation; isolation. Doakh = blame; sin. 3.

MEANING: The character-assassin of the Guru is a big trouble-maker and does not rest peacefully, even for a small moment. Such an individual is a big sinner, and is condemned by Waheguru. The slanderer of the Guru has no control over his senses and suffers in discomfort and becomes helpless. The vilifier of the Guru suffers from all ailments, and also from isolation (no moral person wants to be friends with him). Vilifying the Guru is the greatest sin; however, even such an individual can find salvation if the Guru wishes, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Doakhi = opponent; jealous. Upvit = unholy; impious. Daan(u) = punishment. Tiyaagaiy = abandon. Bikaari = lustful; immoral. Turaiy = is passed by. Tthaaoun = shelter. 4.

MEANING: The jealousy of the Guru is always impious, and in fact, is nobody's friend. Such an individual is punished in many ways, and everybody abandons him. The malicious critic of the Guru is highly conceited and is always lustful. All comforts pass by the individual who vilifies the Guru, and he is caught in the rebirth cycle. There is no place (shelter) for such an individual in Waheguru's Court (he is not allowed in there); however, if the Guru wishes, He can connect even such a mean and jealous person with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.

Nanak Sunt bhaavaiy ta luyay oobaar(i). 5.

Word Meaning: Udh Beech = in the middle. Tootaiy = cut down. Kaaj(i) = task; efforts (to malign the Guru). Puhoochaiy = gets completed. Oodiyaan Bhermaayiyaiy = Oojhurr(i) Paayiyaiy = is misled from the real objective like a man in the wilderness. . Thoatha = hollow. Loatha = corpse. Jurrh = root; base; support. Uver(u) = other; else. Oobaar(i) = salvage. 5.

MEANING: The jealousy of the Guru does not succeed in any of his efforts to malign the Guru, as all of his mean efforts are cut down in the middle. The maligner of the Guru is misguided, like an individual lost in the wilderness without a guide. He is hollow inside (no sound or firm mind) like a corpse which has no breath. The maligner of the Guru has no support; he reaps what he has sown. But if the Guru wishes, He can also salvage his maligner. But nobody else can help him in any way, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Bil-laayay = wails; suffers. Bihoon = without. Turrphurrayay = wriggles; struggles (to escape). Paavuk = fire. Eedhun(i) = fuel. Dhraapaiy = satisfied. Ikayla = alone. Booaarr(u) Til = a sesame plant with ash in its pods. Doohayla = in discomfort. Dherm = moral principles. Reht = without; empty. Mithiya = lies. Kirt(u) = character; behaviour. Dhoor(i) = right from the source (Waheguru). Thiya = happens. 6.

MEANING: The maligner of the Guru wails (cries for help) like a fish which wriggles for survival without water. Like fire, which is never tired of consuming fuel, the maligner of the guru never feels satisfied with his big hunger (desires) for worldly things. Like a sesame plant that feels unhappy when left alone in the field because its pods are filled with ash rather than seeds, the maligner of the Guru also suffers the pain of being left alone (no friends to help him). Such an individual has no moral principles and lies all the time. The character of the maligner had been designed by Waheguru, and only that happens whatever He (God) wishes, oh Nanak. 6.

MEANING: The personality (thinking) of the malicious critic of the Guru undergoes deformation (gets twisted), and he is punished in Waheguru's Court. The maligner of the Guru has a very uneasy life, and he is like a half-dead man. His desires go unfulfilled, and he leaves the world disappointed. Nobody ever gets contentment by maligning the Guru. An individual inherits the character given to him by Waheguru, and no one can ever erase it through their own efforts. Only Waheguru knows this secret, oh Nanak. 7.

MEANING: Waheguru is the creator of everything, and all the hearts are His (He is present in each of them); I bow to Him all the time. Sing Waheguru's praise day and night, and remember Him with every breath and with every nibble of food, oh my friend. Everything that is happening is His creation (He controls it), and an individual inherits the behaviour He gives. Waheguru Himself is the creator of the drama of the world, and no one can even think about His drama (plans). Waheguru gives His Naam to embed in the heart of those whom He is kind to. Such individuals are highly fortunate, oh Nanak. 8.13.

Word Meaning: Tujhou = give up. Siyaanup = cleverness. Soorjunhou = god-like noble folks. Aas = dependence. Bherm(u) = misgivings. Bhuou = fears. 1.
MEANING: Give up (get rid of) your own cleverness (shrewdness), and recite Waheguru's Naam, oh noble folks. Rest your hope (dependence) only on Waheguru, and get rid of your discomforts, misgivings, and all fears thereby, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Tayk = support; dependence. Birthi = hollow; unsound. Aghaayay = contented. Trishana = desire for worldly possessions. Boojh(i) = understanding; obeying. Kuntth(i) = (with the) neck. Proayay = stitched. Bighun(u) = obstacle; hindrance. 1.
MEANING: Realize the fact that dependence on anybody (other than Waheguru) is hollow (unreliable), oh my friends; Waheguru is the only Provider. One is content with His largesse, and he has no further desires. Waheguru alone protects you and causes death; the man has no control over anything. The man lives in comfort by obeying His Huqam; so, stitch His Naam to your neck (recite His Naam with the tongue). By remembering Waheguru, one experiences no hindrances on the path to union with God, oh Nanak. 1.

Kutha = story (of virtues). Oojul = shiny; unblemished. Mutha = forehead; face. 2.

MEANING: Praise Waheguru in your mind; this is the real (everlasting) deal, oh my mind. With a pure mind, drink the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam with your tongue, and make your life blissful forever. Enjoy the beauty of nature as created by Waheguru with your eyes, but take the shelter of the Guru in whose company all your worldly attachments will vanish. Walk with your feet on the path which leads to union with Waheguru. All sins are washed away when we recite His Naam (with a pure mind), even if for a moment. When a devotee serves Waheguru (His people) with hands, and listens to His virtues with his ears, he goes to Waheguru's Court with a shiny (unblemished) face, oh Nanak. 2.

Those who recognize (make a connection with) Waheguru acquire the knowledge of this world and the next (what to do here, and what happens there). An individual who recites Waheguru's Naam day and night is the devotee who is really detached from Maya while living in the family. An individual who rests his hopes only on the "One" gets the noose of the Angel of death cut for him. An individual who has an appetite for Waheguru's Naam in his mind never suffers from any discomfort, oh Nanak. 4.

A devotee, whom Waheguru makes His own, is not afraid of anyone. The devotee of Waheguru should look like Him, and Waheguru does adorn him to look like that (for example, fearless, kind, indiscriminating, etc.); and Waheguru achieves His objective (of adorning His devotees) Himself (without any assistance from anyone). Pondering deeply on the amazing feats of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, I found out the reality that no matter where I look, it is Waheguru at the root of all happenings – He Himself is in the microscopic and Himself in the macroscopic forms, oh Nanak. 5.

Birth, death, visible, and invisible in the world have been created by the Huqam of Waheguru. Waheguru is present in all of His creation, and creates and destroys it in many different ways. Waheguru is immortal (eternal) and omnipresent, and does not exist in intervals or in certain places only (as some people believe). He has created and is supporting the whole universe. He is incomprehensible, indeterminable, and omnipresent with great magnificence. Only that person recites His Naam whom He prompts Himself, oh Nanak. 6.

The devotees of Waheguru (do not discriminate between people) and work for the salvation of everybody. They are the destroyers of all discomfort. They feel blissful by reciting the Guru's Shabad, and Waheguru Himself connects them with Him. Only those highly fortunate individuals who are kind to Waheguru get to serve them. They find rest (get free from the cycle of rebirths) by reciting Waheguru's Naam. Such individuals are acknowledged as being highly superior (holy – connected with God), oh Nanak. 7.

MEANING: Whatever a devotee does, he does that in the love for God, and Waheguru is always with him. He accepts things as they happen naturally without putting in any special effort. Such a devotee recognizes (has a close connection with) Waheguru. Whatever happens, the devotee accepts that gladly as the sweet Will of Waheguru, and there is no show off on the part of the devotee for that achievement; what he seems outwardly, he is really that inwardly too (his words and actions are the same). Such devotees get fully absorbed in Waheguru, who created them. Only the true devotees deserve such blissfulness. Waheguru's devotees are "one" with Him, so when Waheguru honours His devotees, He is, in a way, bestowing that honour on Himself, oh Nanak. 8.14.

Abinaashi = immortal. Loachaiy = longs for; wishes. Tis(u) = that (Waheguru). Gut(i) = high spiritual state; salvation. 1.
MEANING: Waheguru is capable of reconnecting people who have been disconnected from Him. He nourishes all living beings. He looks after everybody, and nobody is devoid of His kindness. The eternal Waheguru operates everywhere all by Himself; so, always recite His Naam, oh my mind. The man is not capable of doing anything on his own, no matter how much he longs (tries hard) to do that. Nothing else is any good for you than Waheguru, oh man. MEANING: The good looks of an individual do not charm Waheguru; (He likes everybody equally) as His pleasing Light is present in every heart. How can a man be conceited of his wealth when it is all given by Waheguru? A person cannot rush to attack his target without the power bestowed on him by Waheguru - no matter how great a valiant he thinks himself to be. Waheguru considers the individual an idiot who claims to be a big philanthropist. An individual who overcomes the ailment of his ego and selfishness in the shelter of the Guru becomes free from all such ailments for good, oh Nanak. 2.

Just as a stone gets across a body of water in a boat, a man gets across the world-sea by taking shelter at the Guru's feet (surrendering himself to the Guru). Just as a lamp produces light in darkness, a devotee's heart is enlightened (blooms) by the holy sight of the Guru. Just like a man lost in a vast wilderness, somehow finds his way out, man's path to union with Waheguru is enlightened in the shelter of the Guru. I, Nanak, wish for the dust of the feet of such devotees (wish to serve them); kindly fulfil my longing, oh Waheguru. 3.

MEANING: Why are you crying and complaining loudly, oh my foolish mind? You are only reaping the rewards of your prewritten destiny (based on your previous deeds). Comforts and discomforts are given by Waheguru; so, you remember Him and forget everything else. Take comfort in whatever He does (whatever happens to you); where are you lost in misgivings, oh, ignorant? What things accompanied you at your birth!! Now you are clinging to Maya in greed like a bumblebee, which is trapped in the flowers while trying to suck their sap. Give up your ego, and surrender your mind to them to buy Waheguru's Naam to acquire it in your mind. Abandon all activities that bind you with Maya, and tread the path of the Guru to load up Waheguru's Naam. Everybody will praise you, and you will have a shiny (unblemished) face (will be honoured) in Waheguru's Court. But some rare individual engages in such business (dealing in Waheguru's Naam). MEANING: Give up the love for the men (relatives), and keep the immortal Waheguru in your mind, oh my friend. There is nothing beyond the control of Waheguru, and He is continuously (without any gaps) present in everybody. He knows everybody's needs and provides for their necessities. He is very deep (unfathomable), has no emotions, and is the treasure of everything. He is bigger than the universe, is the supreme Lord, and the nourisher of the world. He is the treasure of kindness, benevolence, and forgiveness. Kindly provide me the shelter of the Guru, oh Waheguru; that's the longing in my mind, oh Nanak. 1.

He can take away things or replenish them in the twinkling of an eye, and nobody knows what he has in mind. There is always bliss and joy in His House (Kingdom), and He is heard to have everything in His treasures. (Being present in everybody), He is the King among kings and a yogi among the yogis. (Being present in everybody), He endures all the tough hardships inflicted by the worshippers on those who try to please their deities by self-affliction, and He enjoys all the gifts of nature (enjoyed by the family men). His devotees enjoy bliss by reciting His Naam, but nobody has ever found His limits, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: There is no limit to His amazing feats; all gods have exhausted searching for His limits, but they failed badly. How can a son have the knowledge of the birth of his father? Everything is stitched to (controlled by) the thread of Waheguru's laws. The devotees, who are given noble advice, Divine Knowledge, and the ability to concentrate, recite His Naam. On the other hand, those who are misled to be captivated by the three effects of Maya keep taking births and dying. They keep shifting between low and high mental states, and are recognized exactly the way they are projected (designed to be) by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 3.

He has expanded the universe in many different ways, but Himself is immortal and uniform (never changing). He can perform amazing feats in a moment, and the Perfect Waheguru fills the whole space. He created the world in many different ways, and only He knows His worth (majesty). He dwells in every heart and every nook and corner. I survive by reciting His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.

MEANING: All living beings survive by Waheguru's support, and so do all the land masses and the universe. All the Vedas, the Simritis, and the Puranas were created according to the Laws of Waheguru. All listening, knowledge, and ability to concentrate happen according to the Laws of Waheguru. The sky and the underworld are in place by the Laws of Waheguru. All bodies obey Waheguru's Laws, and so do the kingdoms of the gods, and the galaxies. Many individuals have found salvation by listening to Waheguru's Naam with their ears. The individuals who are made to recite Waheguru's Naam by His benevolence attain salvation by attaining the spiritual level above the three effects of Maya, oh Nanak. 5.

NOTE: When Guru Sahib writes that the Vedas are written according to the laws of Waheguru, He does not mean that these books contain Divine Knowledge. He simply implies that there are people who are given the character (nature) to do things like that. As discussed, people are predestined to do certain things. For example, some individuals even vilify the Guru by Natural law.

The eternal Waheguru is present in everybody. His creation and His benevolence (for His creation) are eternal. The root of everything (Waheguru), and the creation are eternal. His deeds are the purest of the pure and eternal; and His revelation is blissful to the individuals. Waheguru's eternal Naam is very comforting, but the firm faith in the Naam can be acquired only through Satguru, oh Nanak. 6.

If a devotee understands the real meaning of dancing (his mind dances in bliss with Waheguru's Naam), he finds salvation by reciting Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru is eternal Himself, and so is His creation. He alone knows His capabilities and His spiritual heights (transcendence). The universe belongs to its Creator, and whatever He wishes, happens in the world. (Only He knows His secrets), and nobody else can know them by pondering on His creation. His created (man) does not have the ability to know Him, oh Nanak. 7.

Waheguru's devotees are people's benefactors, and remove their troubles; people find salvation in their company. One connects with God in their company, and those who serve them are highly fortunate. A devotee, who recites Waheguru's virtues and sings His praise, reaps the sweet rewards by Guru's grace, oh Nanak. 8.16.
