He needs no food, bears no enmity with anyone (is perfectly just) and comforting; and nobody can ever evaluate Him. Countless devotees bow to Him every day (all the time) and recite His Naam in their hearts. The comfort, which you seek all the time, can be achieved in the company of the Guru (with love and respect). The praise for which you do all the noble deeds can be acquired by rushing to seek the shelter of Waheguru. There is no other means to have your ailment (of worldly attachments and selfishness) eradicated than to apply the medication of Waheguru's Naam, which cures every ailment. All the fears of the man vanish, all his wishes are fulfilled, and his mind gets enlightened with his love for Waheguru's worship. Such a devotee finds his eternal abode in Waheguru, and the noose of the Angel of death for him is severed (his rebirth cycle comes to an end), oh Nanak. 3.

The birth-death cycle is broken (eradicated) by serving Waheguru. (To do that) One needs to take shelter of the Guru and abandon one's selfishness. The jewel-like, valuable human life can be salvaged by reciting Waheguru's Naam, which is the basis of all life. No other measure, like pondering on the Vedas, the Srimad Bhagavatam, and the Shastras, can free a man from the bonds of Maya. Who can get you freedom from the false pleasures of ruling (some state), and of the network of Maya? Riding of horses, elephants and chariots, and other expansions of Maya, are all false (short-lived) show-offs. THITI GAURRI MEHLA 5

Thiti: Thitis are successive days corresponding to the changing phases of the moon between the new moon and the full moon, and between the full and the new moon. Hindus consider some of these days very auspicious and perform some special rituals as per their holy books. Guru Arjun Dev Ji discusses the insignificance of these days and offers His own advice on how to make each of them effective for spiritual advancement. You will note that His advice is the same – Recite Waheguru's Naam, and have good moral character – no matter what phase of the moon it is.

He spends his whole life in happiness, in sadness, in worries of the world, or in selfishness. He does not recognize (makes no connection with) Waheguru, who created him, and keeps thinking of countless other ways to live in comfort. Caused by his desire to enjoy the luxuries of life, his sufferings of life - mental, physical, or caused by worldly disputes - never end. He does not understand the magnificence of Waheguru, which is the perfect source of everything. He drowns in the deep sea of attachment and doubts, and lives in huge suffering. I, Nanak, am fully dependent upon You. Please protect me (from Maya's attacks), oh Waheguru. 3.

Waheguru's Naam eliminates the possibility of one's going to hell, eradicates all his suffering and countless troubles due to hostility. With Waheguru's praise at heart, his fear of death disappears, and the Angel of Death has no access to him (he becomes immortal). Word Meaning: Punchum(i) = fifth. Punch= devotees of Guru (Gurmukh). Perdhaan = leaders. Jaaniyo = know the reality. Perpunch = the expanse of the five elements (world). Koosum = a beautiful but short-lived flower. Baas = fragrance. Mithiya = false (short-lived). Bulbunch = deceit. Jaapaiy = evident. Rus = taste. Baydhiyo = engrossed. Ugiyaan(i) = ignorant. Ruchiyo = engrossed. Kerm = deeds; rituals. Ruchunhaar(u) = the Creator. Bibayk = knowledge of reality. Bhaaou = affectionately. Liput = coating; affect. Runch = extremely small. Birlay = rare.

MEANING: Those devotees of the Guru are the real (spiritual) leaders who have recognized the reality of the world (that it is short-lived). They realize that it is like a flower with a pleasant fragrance and beautiful colours, but it is deceitful because it is all false (temporary). This reality is not evident to the man, as he does not ponder it or try to understand it. The ignorant is indeed engrossed in the sweetness of attachment with worldly things, and in the enjoyment of different tastes (luxuries). He does perform countless ritualistic deeds which are worthless for spirituality, and as a result, he is caught in the birth-death cycle and goes through many different life forms. He does not recite the Naam of the Creator, and has no knowledge or thoughts about reality. There are rare individuals who are not deeply involved in worldly affairs and are not affected even slightly by Maya because of their affectionate worship of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 5.

Recite the Naam of the source of virtues – Waheguru - to fill your treasure (heart) with virtues, oh Nanak. 6.
