Sloak M:4: Satgur(u) Purakh(u) duyaal(u) haiy, jis nu soomut(u) subh(u) koyay. Aik drisht kur(i) daykhda, mun bhaavni tay sidh(i) hoyay. Satgur vich(i) Amrit haiy, Hur(i) ootum(u) Hur(i) pud soyay. MEANING: Satguru is kind and knows everything that goes through our minds. He casts the same kind of sight on everybody (treats everybody the same), but one's success (achievement of objective) depends upon his intentions. Satguru is the source of (Naam) Amrit; whosoever acquires this Amrit from Satguru attains a superior spiritual level, where he connects with Waheguru. But some rare person recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 1.

But the individuals who ponder on Guru's Shabad in His shelter earn the wealth of Waheguru's Naam. They enshrine Waheguru's Naam-Amrit in their heart, whereby the filth of their haumein is washed away. With Guru's kindness, they achieve all their objectives (mainly union with Waheguru). Those who are predestined to have union with God are connected with Him by the grace of Satguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Bherm Bhoolay = misled by misbeliefs (conceptions). Doorjuna = evil people. Guvaayay = lose; get rid of. Sadhu Sujjna = holy people. 1.

MEANING: Misled by misconceptions and their haumein, the money-minded people are disconnected from God and become evil as a result. The ailment of haumein can be eradicated in the shelter of the friendly Satguru, or the holy saints, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:4॥ ਮਨੁ ਤਨੁ ਰਤਾ ਰੰਗ ਸਿਉ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਹਰਿ ਗੁਣਤਾਸੁ॥ ਜਨ ਨਾਨਕ ਹਰਿ ਸਰਣਾਗਤੀ ਹਰਿ ਮੇਲੇ ਗੁਰ ਸਾਬਾਸਿ॥ 2॥

We can describe someone only if he is like You, but You are the only one known to be like You. You are operating in every heart, but are revealed only by the Satguru. You are the Eternal Lord of all, and are greater than everybody else. Why should we suffer from any worry or anxiety when we know that whatever You wish, will happen for sure, oh the Eternal Lord? 3.

You are capable (omnipotent) as the creator of the whole universe, and there is none other (who can do so). You are the kind Lord, and everybody worships You, oh the unreachable Waheguru. All the living beings are Yours, and You are theirs; You emancipate them from the bonds of Maya, and salvage them.

An individual reaps the reward based on their feelings towards the Satguru. The Creator knows everything, and nothing is hidden from Him, oh Nanak. (So, the good people are rewarded while the evil are punished). 2.

Waheguru is eternal, and the individual who is enlightened by Satguru also gets absorbed in the eternal God, oh Nanak. 5.

But the malicious critics (vilifiers) of the Satguru are condemned by the whole world. Waheguru Himself operates in Satguru and protects Him in every way. The Guru is great and deserves our respect for singing Waheguru's praise. I salute Him all the time. I am a sacrifice to all those who worship the Creator, oh Nanak. 1.

On the contrary, the lovers of Maya, who have lies and deceit in mind, are thrown at the back (are rejected) and suffer deeply. The deceitful are identified as fraudulent, and their faces are blackened (they are disgraced).6.

Word Meaning: Dherti = land; field. Amrit = Waheguru's Naam. Hult = this world (life). Pult(i) = life after death. Paiynaayay = given robe of honour. Khoat(u) = deceit; dishonesty. Kmaaveh(i) = deal in. Sraaf = jeweller (judge). Soaavgeer = selfish.

Ooghurr(i) = become clear; clearly visible. Chitveh(i) = think; plan. Duyyay = Waheguru. Vujaayay = make public. Doohi Sireen = at both ends (this world and the next). Khusm(u) = Lord. Chult = amazing feats.

MEANING: Satguru is like a field (which multiplies the seeds) in which people sow the seeds of their noble or ignoble deeds; one reaps the result of the deeds he sows (his performance). Gur Sikhs sow the seed of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, and they reap its reward (Waheguru's Naam flourishes in their hearts). They have shiny faces (because of high morality) in both worlds, and they are given the robe of honour in Waheguru's Court. But some are dishonest and have deceit in their hearts; they deal in dishonesty every day. They reap the rewards of their deeds. When the judge Satguru examines them carefully, the selfish (dishonest) people become clearly visible. They reap the rewards of whatever they think of, or plan about, every day (all the time). Waheguru, who is the Lord of both worlds and operates everywhere, exposes their real low character to the world and watches His own amazing feats delightfully, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Vertda = operates; focuses. Thaayay Paayay = achieves success. Ghunayriyaan = too much. Vuth(u) = the desired product. Soajhi = enlightenment. Ahunkaar = conceit; ego. Bhookh = appetite; discontentment. Huth(u) tudeh(i) = extends open hand to beg. Koorr(u) = deceit. Thuggi = fraud. Goojjhi = hidden. Paaj(u) = falseness. Moolumma = coating. Poorub Likhiya = predestined. Paarus(i) = (with) elixir-stone. Soovern(u) = gold. Dhunee = master; Lord. Bhaavaiy = wish. Chulaayay = run the (universe). 2.

MEANING: There is only one mind, and it can focus only on one issue at any given time; with full focus, it achieves success in that issue. But a simple (hollow) talk about an issue does not lead to success; for example, a person can eat only what he has, no matter how much he talks about other delicious foods. Similarly, spirituality cannot be acquired simply by talking. One cannot overcome his haumein, and cannot get enlightenment without taking shelter of the Guru. The problem with the money-minded people is that they have a strong appetite for money (they never find contentment), and like a hungry pauper who begs for food, the money-lovers may have to lose their dignity to get more, even if they have to use false politeness to cheat others. But the coating of such falseness does not stay hidden for long, and eventually comes off (as a result of which they suffer humiliation). Similarly, those who are predestined get connected with the Guru and Waheguru. Like a piece of iron, which turns into gold in contact with the elixir-stone, the lucky individuals (even among the money-lovers) turn into gold (Gurmukhs) when they meet with the holy congregations. Waheguru is the ultimate Lord who runs the universe as He pleases, oh Nanak. 2.

Bulihaari Gur aapnay, jin(i) augun mayt(i), goon pergutiaayay. Vuddi vudiyaayee vudday kee, Gurmukh(i) aalaayay. 7.

Word Meaning: Saviya = served (worshipped). Saanjh = sharing. Uvgoon = bad qualities; vices. Julaayay = burn; eradicate. Pullreen = thrashed dried stubble. Bulihaari = offer life to sacrifice. Mayt(i) = eradicate. Pergutiaayay = made visible; makes dominant. Vudiyayee = greatness. Aalaayay = says.

MEANING: Waheguru connects the devotees with Him who worship Him in their mind. Waheguru burns all their vices with Guru's Shabad (which they recite and act on), and imparts noble qualities in them. The devotees get rid of their bad qualities easily, just like people get rid of the useless, dried stubble of crops, and they acquire noble qualities if God is kind to them. I wish to sacrifice my life for my Satguru, who eradicates the bad qualities and makes noble qualities the dominant. The Great Waheguru has great magnificence, which the devotees sing in the Guru's shelter. 7.

Word Meaning: Vudiyaayee = greatness. Undin(u) = every day (always). Rumut = reciting. Sooch = ritualistic cleanliness. Sunjum(u) = control on sensual pleasures. Triptaavaiy = is contented. Taan = force; power. Deebaan(u) = reign; rule. Rukh = protection. Chit(u) Laayay = with full concentration and devotion. Moorut(i) = persona. Ichhay = wished; desired. Ninda = malicious criticism; slandering. Huth(i) Na Aavaiy = cannot avail. Ghoar(i) Nerk = dark hell. Khurriya = taken. Tuskur = thief. Oobraiy = is salvaged. 1.

MEANING: It is a huge greatness of the Guru that He recites Waheguru's Naam all the time. Recitation of Waheguru's Naam subsumes the ritualistic cleanliness and the control of sensual pleasures, and results in complete contentment of the mind. For Satguru (or the devotees who have full faith in Waheguru), Waheguru's Naam is the force that supports all their undertakings, gives them a sense of monarchy, and protects the devotee (from the attacks of Maya) in his daily life. Whoever worships the Guru's persona with full concentration and dedication has all his wishes fulfilled. (On the other hand) Waheguru punishes the slanderer of the Perfect Satguru and causes his spiritual death. Then he cannot recall the missed opportunity and reaps the (horrifying) rewards of his ignoble deeds. The face of such a slanderer is blackened (he is disgraced), and shackled like a thief around the neck, and is taken to the deep (frightening) hell. But he can still be salvaged if he takes Guru's shelter and recites Waheguru's Naam. I am simply narrating the facts about Waheguru that this is what He likes (His Laws are), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ugiyaan(u) = lack of knowledge. Mootha = deceived; robbed. Koorr(u) = deception. Boojhaiy = understands. Unhoanda Jhuggrra = unnecessary disputes. Duyyay = God. Gull Froashi = sells his talk; lives only on hollow talk. Hundaiy = roams around. Runn Dohaagun = a wife condemned by the husband. Lucchun = (the same (bad) qualities. Alipto = detached. Paas(u) = closeness; company. Goapay = vilifies. Punch = respectable men. Laaha = (spiritual) profit; benefit. Mool(u) = the original capital (spirituality at birth). Pehla Aagum Nigum = The Vedas and the Shastras; the first (fundamental) Principle. Buchun = Word. Oopur(i) Aaya = came on the top; excels. 2.

MEANING: The follower of his mind is robbed of the spiritual knowledge by his love for Maya, and he does not obey the Command of the Guru. He has deception in his mind, and he understands (deals in) deception only. (Actually) Waheguru Himself pushes such a person into unnecessary disputes (caused by his love for Maya). He lives on hollow talk (he talks a lot to impress people), but nobody likes his meaningless talk. Just as a wife who has been condemned by her husband and who kills her time visiting others, the money-lover also goes door to door (to sell his plans), where he is not welcome. Anyone who listens to his talk (and associates with him) acquires the same bad qualities. But the devotee of the Guru lives a life detached from Maya; he does not spend any time in the company of the money-lover; he goes to the Guru to enjoy His company.

An individual who vilifies his Guru is not a good person because he loses all his spirituality (morality), oh, the respectable folks. The fundamental principle in life is that the Word of the Guru comes on top (excels everything else). The Sikhs love the praise of the Guru, while the money-lovers cannot avail of the lost opportunity, oh Nanak. 2.

Oye boalay kisaiy na bhaavni, mooh kaalay, Satgur tay chookkay. 8.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = the Eternal Waheguru. Sacha = His Naam(u). Tikkay = chooses. Ikkay = the same. Punjay Doot = the five demons (lust, rage, etc.).
Chhikkay = tightly. Gunaayaynday = show them off. Mooh Fikkay = impolite talk. Phit(u) = condemnable. Chookay = far removed from; disconnected.

MEANING: Waheguru, and His Naam are the highest of all, but only that lucky individual acquires the Naam whom Satguru chooses (is kind to). Satguru is the one who recites Waheguru's Naam constantly; Waheguru and Satguru are one and the same. Satguru is the one who has tightly controlled all His sensual pleasures. Individuals who do not serve Satguru but show off to appear important harbour deception in their minds, and they speak impolitely. Everybody condemns them. Nobody likes their talk (lecture); they are disconnected from Satguru, and have black faces (are disgraced). 8.

Word Meaning: Khayt = field. Kirsaani = farming. Bukhsh(i) = with the benevolence. Jumaayiun = sprouted. Mool(u) = the capital (spirituality at birth). Amrit = Waheguru's Naam. Jum = Angel of death. Kirs = crop. Koorkuda = nibbles at. Bhaaou = respectful affection. Bohul = the pile of grain. Kaarra = worries. Undaysha = doubts. Laahion(u) = removed. Turiya = swam across the sea of Maya.

MEANING: Every heart is a field of Waheguru in which the individuals sow the seeds of their deeds. Waheguru Himself puts the human beings into this business. With the benevolence of Waheguru, the Naam-crop of the Gur Sikhs sprouts well, whereas the followers of their heart (money-lovers) lose even the spirituality they were born with. Everybody sows the seeds for their own good, but the seeds sprout only (Waheguru's Naam flourishes) in that heart-field that is to Waheguru's liking. Gur Sikhs sow the seed of Waheguru's Naam, and they reap the fruit of the Naam-Amrit. Just like a mouse which nibbles at the crops, the Angel of Death nibbles at the thread of life, but Waheguru kills the fear of death among His devotees. As a result, the crop of Waheguru's Naam flourishes in the hearts which love Waheguru, and with His benevolence, the Naam-crop of the devotees results in a rich yield. All the worries and doubts of the Sikhs are eradicated who worship Satguru. The devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam, swims across the sea of Maya (finds salvation) - not just himself, but he causes the entire world (his associates) to be salvaged, oh Nanak. 1.

Joaraan purakh subh(i) Aap(i) oopaayiun(u) Hur(i) khayl subh(i) khila. Subh Tayri bunut bunaavni, Nanak bhul bhulaa. 2.

Word Meaning: Uttiya = tangled in. Munmukh = follower of his mind; disconnected from Waheguru. Horay Gullan = other matters. Oonghaiy Dubbiya = overpowered by sleep. Nuvay Soat = all the nine doors of the body (senses). Dhilla = loose (no control). Joaraan = wives. Amar(u) = command. Bhulaa = good stuff. Upvit = impious; impure. Amaydh = unwise; foolish. Kaam(i) = lust. Viyaapay = affects; prompts. Koosoodh = impure; unholy. Bhul Bhulaa = better among the good. Khayl = drama. Khila = play. Bunut = creation. 2.

MEANING: The money-minded person is tangled in other (Maya-related) affairs (than reciting Waheguru's Naam) the whole day, and is overpowered by sleep at night when he loses control on all his senses. Such individuals obey the command of their wives (are like their slaves), and provide them with good stuff (food, clothes, etc.) every day. Those who always obey their wives are unholy, unwise, and foolish (because they may have to engage in immoral activities to meet their wives' demands, and they also get away from Satguru). Those who are overpowered by lust (have no self-control) are immoral, and they become slaves to their wives. On the other hand, those who obey the Guru are highly moral individuals, and are better among the good. However, it is the drama of Waheguru that He has created both the men and the women - everybody is playing their role in this drama. It is all the creation of Waheguru, and it has to be all good, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Vaypervaah(u) = worry-free. Athaah(u) = unfathomable. Atooll(u) = which cannot be weighed (immeasurable). Kiyoun = how? Tooliyaiy = weigh; measure. Sat(i) Sroop = immortalizing. Reesaiy = copying. Kuch(u) Pich(u) = meaningless. Koorriaar = deceitful. Koorray = perishable. Jhurr(i) Purriyaiy = drop down quickly. Jhukh(i) Murday Kurriyaiy = suffer in making sense of their senseless talk.

MEANING: You are worry-free, unfathomable, and immeasurable, oh Waheguru; how can we measure Your qualities? Those who connect with Satguru and recite Your Naam under His shelter are highly fortunate. Satguru's Word (Gurbani) is immortalizing (full of noble qualities and of Waheguru's praise), and those who recite it also become immortal (merge into Waheguru) by acquiring noble qualities as preached in Gurbani. Some others copy Satguru and begin to talk (lecture) nonsense. They are deceitful, and are perishable (short-lived), and they drop down quickly (die a spiritual death). Their sweet talk is different from their actual evil thoughts. They talk nonsense only for money, but suffer greatly trying to explain it. 9.

Word Meaning: Nirmuli = purifies the mind. Ghaalay = serves (with devotion). Kupt(u) = deceipt. Vikaar = vices. Jujmaalay = lepers (suffering from lust). Sachiyaar = bearers of truth; having noble qualities. Koorriaar = deceitful; lovers of Maya. Bhaalay = search. Sookhaavaiy Naahi = do not find suitable. Bhulayray = unholy. Gaalay = rotten; condemned. Kayri = for. Kichruk(u) = for how long. Vayraayiun = stop from crying; make happy. Baytaalay = like a ghost; misled; unprincipled. Mun(u) Thaayay Rukhaiy = controlled mind. Vuth(u) = thing; values. Tthugvaalay = deceitful.

MEANING: Service to the Satguru (obeying Him) purifies the mind, but only those who serve Satguru have purity of mind (no selfishness or deceit). Those who have deceit in mind are lustful and liars, and they are pulled out as lepers (suffering from vices) to separate them from the devotees by Waheguru. The Sikhs with high morality stay with Satguru to serve Him (to act on His Teachings), but the money-lovers stay away from Satguru and cannot be found there, even after a deep search. Those who do not find Satguru's advice suitable (feel uncomfortable) have been condemned by Waheguru, and they roam around with unholy faces. Those who follow their mind and have no affection for Waheguru are unprincipled and are misled from the spiritual path like a ghost; how long can they be kept interested in Satguru's love? Those who take Satguru's shelter can control their minds, and no evil thoughts can mislead them (they preserve their values). Waheguru connects some with Satguru, who then enjoy bliss, while He pulls out the deceitful separate, oh Nanak. 1.

Koyee ninduk vudiyaayee daykh(i) na sukaiy, so Kertaiy aap(i) puchaaya. Jun(u) Nanak goon boalaiy Kertay kay, bhugtaan nu suda rukhda aaya. 2.

Word Meaning: Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Kaaj = tasks; objectives. Aanday Raas(i) = made successful. Chooki = ended; cleared. Moohtaaji = dependence. Ung(u) = unstinted support. Shaabaash(i) = praise; acclaim. Rehraas(i) = bow to; show respect. Atooll(u) = immeasurable. Nihchul(u) = Eternal. Bukhshay = gives the gift. Churraiy Svaaya = multiplies. Ninduk = malicious critic; vilifier. Puchaaya = made to suffer. 2.

MEANING: The benevolent Waheguru successfully completes all the tasks of His devotees who have the Naam-treasure in their hearts. With the unstinted support of Waheguru, the devotees' dependence on others comes to an end. When a devotee has Waheguru's backing, everybody supports him (respects his advice), and they praise the devotee when they get to have his sight. Even the rulers and the kings, who have been created (and given those high positions) by Waheguru, come to him to have his sight, and bow to the devotee (show respect for him). It is an abundant greatness of the Perfect Guru in whose shelter a devotee serves Waheguru, and acquires an immeasurable bliss. The Perfect Guru gives the gift of Waheguru's eternal Naam to the devotees, which increases in multiples. Some vilifiers cannot tolerate the magnificence of Satguru; such individuals are punished by Waheguru to suffer. His devotee, Nanak, sings the virtues of the Creator, Waheguru, who always protects His devotees. 2.

Nanak Sach(u) dhiyaayay tu, bin(u) Sachay, puch(i) puch(i) mooyay ajaana. 10.

Word Meaning: Agumm(u) = beyond reach. Daata = provider. Daana = wise; know-all. Jayvud(u) = as great. Sooghurr(u) = wise. Kootumb(u) = family. Chullunhaara = perishable. Aavun Jaana = borns and dies. Koorriaar = love perishables. Koorra = false; short-lived. Puch(i) = suffer. Ajaana = ignorant.

MEANING: You are beyond our reach, benevolent, great provider, and know everything, oh Waheguru. I cannot see (find) anybody else as great as You are; You are perfectly wise, and I like (love) You. The attachment to the family we see is perishable (temporary) because nobody lives in this world forever; people are born, and they die. So, those who are attached to other things (including family members) than Waheguru, love perishables, and the pride of their possessions is also short-lived. The man should worship Waheguru only, oh Nanak. Without love for the eternal Waheguru, the ignorant die in suffering. 10.

Suda anund(i) ruhaiy din(u) raati, jun Nanak undin(u) Hur(i) goon gaavaiy. 1.

Word Meaning: Uggoan Day = before; first. Sut Bhaaou = honest affection. Dichaiy = give. Pichhoan = afterwards. Udh Vich(i) = undecided. Vaychaara = helpless. Koorri = attached to perishables. Apiou = which is not easily available to drink, Amrit. Kayra = of. Kaarra = worries; suffering. Undaysha = doubts. Bherm = misgivings. Chookaavaiy = removes; gets rid of. Anund(i) = in bliss. Undin(u) = every day; always. 1.

MEANING: If an individual does not show any respect and love (for Guru's advice) first (at the beginning), any of his thankfulness does not carry any weight after he achieves his objective (based on Guru's advice). But, the money-minded person is helpless because he is always undecided (caught in the middle between Satguru and Maya); how can he find comfort only by talking (about Satguru without obeying Him). An individual who has no love for Satguru is born with love for the perishables and dies in their love. However, if Waheguru is kind to him, he can "see" (connect) with Satguru, a manifestation of Waheguru. He then drinks the Amrit of Satguru's Shabad, whereby he gets all his worries, doubts, and misgivings cleared. By constantly singing the praise of Waheguru, he remains in a blissful state day and night, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhulkay = in the morning. Oodum(u) = effort; take initiative. Amritsar(i) Ishnaan(u) = dip in the pool of Naam-Amrit. Oopdaysh(i) = Teaching. Kilvikh = sins. Doakh = allegations; accusations. Giraas(i) = nibble of food.

Dhoorr(i) = dust of the feet (an expression of reverence).

MEANING: A devotee, who calls himself a Sikh of Satguru, rises early in the morning and recites Waheguru's Naam. He makes an effort every morning and takes a dip in the holy pool of Naam-Amrit. He recites Waheguru's Naam with the Advice (Shabad) of the Guru, whereby all his sins and accusations (against him) are washed away. After the sunrise (when he gets busy in his daily routine), he recites Waheguru's Naam by singing Gurbani, whether he is standing or sitting (whenever he gets time). A Gur Sikh, who remembers Waheguru with every breath and with every nibble of food, is liked (loved) by the Guru. Satguru delivers His Advice to the Gur Sikh to whom Waheguru is kind. I am a slave of, and wish for the dust of the feet of the Gur Sikh who recites Waheguru's Naam himself, and encourages others to do the same, oh Nanak. 2.

Oye haajur(u) mittha boalday, baahur(i) vis(u) kuddeh(i) mookh(i) ghoalay. Mun(i) khoatay Duyyay vichhoarray. 11.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = Eternal (Waheguru). Virlay = rare. Ikk(u) = the One (Waheguru). Berkut(i) = kindness; support. Khaah(i) = eat; reap the benefit.
Asunkh Kroarray = billions; countless. Thaayayn Puyyay = recognized; became successful. Loarray = needs; likes. Kohrray = lepers; full of vices. Haajur(u) = in the presence. Vis(u) Ghoalay = venomous talk. Khoatay = dishonest. Duyyay = Waheguru. Vichhoarray = separated.

MEANING: There are only a few rare devotees who worship You, oh the eternal Waheguru. Countless people benefit from such devotees who worship the “One” Waheguru with full concentration and dedication. Everybody worships Waheguru, but only those whom Waheguru likes are recognized. Those who eat and wear (enjoy life) without serving Waheguru, simply take birth, and die out full of vices. They talk sweetly when they are present, but talk venomously when they are away from Satguru. Because of their dishonesty (impurity), Waheguru keeps them separated (away from Him). 11.

Word Meaning: Mul(u) Jooyeen Bhuriya = full of filth and lice. Khidhoalurra = quilt.

Vaymukh = slanderer of the Guru. Jugut = world. Goonh = feces; with huge insult. Puraayee Ninda Choogli = malicious criticism and backbiting of others. Turr = right away. Sunay Nuphraiy = along with the servant. Pauli Paundi = beating of shoes; huge insult. Phaava = insulted; shameful. Koorrmi = relatives. Rulna = mixing with. Hult(u) Pult(u) = this world and the next. Puchaaya = caused to suffer.

NOTE: This holy Shabad describes the complaint lodged by Goanda Mal Khatri of Goindwal Sahib against Guru Amar Dass Ji to Emperor Akbar, who was visiting Lahore. Along with many other reformative policies of Guru Amar Dass Ji, Goanda Mal did not like the elimination of the caste system by Guru Sahib, who was treating even the untouchables the same way as the Brahmans and the Khatris, without any discrimination. It was customary in those days for a complainant to wear a filthy quilt to register his complaint. Gonda Mal took his servant to Akbar, who was not convinced by his complaint. Actually, Akbar reprimanded Goanda Mal severely for the baseless complaint.

MEANING: Gonda Mal, the slanderer of Guru (Amar Dass Ji), made his servant wear a highly filthy black quilt full of lice, to go to Lahore and lodge a complaint with the Emperor, Akbar, against Guru Sahib; but the slanderer suffered a huge insult in the Court, and had to return unsuccessfully. Nobody allowed them to come near, and the news that both the complainants, who had gone to the Court to slander the other party (Guru Sahib), and criticize Him maliciously, had their faces blackened (insulted hugely) and the Khatri, along with his servant, returned home shamefully after having been beaten with shoes (suffering huge insult), spread in the whole world quickly.

On reaching home, the Sikh congregation and the relatives of the complainant did not allow him to mix with them; his wife and his nephews took him home. He lost his dignity in this world and the next, and he cried (lamented) every day hungry and thirsty (in suffering). The Creator, Waheguru, is great, who delivered justice Himself (influenced Akbar to deliver the right judgment). Whoever vilifies the Perfect Guru is punished severely by Waheguru. This is the Huqam of God, who has created the world. 1.

Word Meaning: Sahib(u) = master. Nunga Bhookha = without clothes and food; pauper. Nufur(u) = servant. J(i) = Jo = whatever. Vuth(u) = needed article. Unhoandi = unavailable. Laykha = account of deeds. Aukhi = tough; troublesome; fruitless. Suful = resulting in success.

MEANING: If somebody's master is a pauper, where can his servant get to eat to his fill? The servant can have access only to those items which the master has in his home (can supply); how can the servant get something which is unavailable? [A fake or a self-proclaimed guru cannot fulfil the spiritual needs (emancipate) his followers]. Serving such a master is troublesome (fruitless) where the account of one's deeds is demanded (in Waheguru's Court). Serve only the Guru whose sight (connection with Him) makes one successful (in achieving his objective of union with Waheguru), and where nobody asks for any account of his deeds, oh Nanak. 2.

Paiyd(u) moondhaahoon kuttiya, tis(u) daal sookunday.

Word Meaning: Veechaareh(i) = ponder on; come to the conclsion. Vuchun Hovunday = Words prevail; become reality. Pergut = visible; famous. Puhaara = shop; world. Moogudh = foolish. Khehunday = show jealousy; oppose. Loachun = long for. Surranday = suffer in jealousy. Dhoor(i) = right from the source (beginning). Sunday = of. Puchunday = burn (in jelousy); suffer. Sraapiya = cursed. Moondhaahoon = from the base.

MEANING: The holy saints have concluded, and even the four Vedas say the same thing, that whatever words the holy saints utter (preach) become reality. They (the saints) become famous in the whole world, and the people listen to them. But the foolish, who oppose the holy saints because of sheer jealousy, never live in comfort. They long for the same qualities as the saints (want the same respect), and burn (suffer) in their ego (because they cannot have the same qualities). But what can those helpless do when they have bad fortune right from the beginning? Those who have been condemned by Waheguru belong to no one (are not sincere to anyone). They exhibit enmity with the Guru, who bears no enmity at all with anyone; as a result, they are punished by the Angel of justice. All those who have been cursed by the holy saints do not find peace and roam about restlessly. (They are like the tree) which has been cut from the base, and its branches dry up as a result. 2.

nind kureh(i), tiyoun, tiyoun nit nit churraiy svaayee. Jun Nanak Hur(i) aaraadhiya, Tin(i) paiyreen aan(i) subh paayee. 1.

Word Meaning: Toos(i) = overly pleased to be kind. Til(u) = (the size of) a sesame seed; a slight amount. Jhukh(i) = grumbling; fruitless talk expressing displeasure; complain without success. Ninduk = vilifiers. Chrraiy Svaayee = increase in multiples.

MEANING: The Guru worships Waheguru in His mind because of which He enjoys a great respect. The Perfect Satguru (Waheguru) kindly bestows such an honour on the Guru that no one, no matter how hard he tries, can reduce it even slightly. When the eternal Lord is supporting the Satguru, who can cause any harm to Him, even if the whole world grumbles and complains (it is all useless). Waheguru enhances the dignity of the Satguru Himself, and He blackens the faces of the vilifiers (humiliates them). The more the vilifiers slander the Guru, the more His respect multiplies. Waheguru brings the whole world at the feet of His devotees who recite His Naam with love and dedication, oh Nanak. 1.

Jun Nanak undin(u) Naam(u) dhiyaaya, Hur(i) simrut kilvikh Paap guyya. 2.

Word Meaning: Sayti = with; against. J(i) = whoever. Gunut = account of actions; jealousy. Hult(u) = this world. Pult = the next world. Guyya = lost; ruined. Jhuyeeyaan = snarl. Jhuggoo Sootay = to foam in the mouth while talking in anger; snarl; show contempt. Jhukhna = grumbling; helpless talk. Jhurr(i) Puyya = lost all stream. Oopaav = make plans. Sehsa = worries. Vaiyr(u) Ruchaayay = initiates enmity. Uggaiy Pichhaiy = front and back; this world and the next; anywhere. Dhoyee = shelter. Umb(u) = mango; sweet taste. Khayhoo = dust. Augun = misdeeds. Kilvikh = sins.

MEANING: A person who bears jealousy against the Satguru ruins both his worlds – the present and the next, after death. He snarls at the Satguru every day, and his mouth foams when he talks ill of the Guru. (However, he cannot do anything about it), And he loses all his steam by talking too much in anger, without any success. He makes fresh plans every day to earn more money, but he loses even his original wealth. What can he earn and eat when his mind is overtaken by worries? An individual who bears enmity against the great person (like the Guru), who bears no enmity at all for anyone, carries the burden of all the sins of the whole world. An individual who enjoys vilifying others as being sweet, finds no shelter anywhere. If he touches gold, it turns into dust (he fails in all his projects, which he had thought would be profitable). However, all his sins and misdeeds are still forgiven if he comes to the Guru's shelter. All sins of a devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam, are washed away if he recites Waheguru's Naam all the time, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sacha = Eternal (Waheguru). Deebaan(u) = ruler. Maan(u) = pride; dependence. Oojlay = shiny; unblemished; honourable. Taan(u) = strength. Neeahaan(u) = identity. Vaari = Koorbaan = offer to sacrifice.

MEANING: You are eternal, and Your rule over everybody is also eternal, oh Waheguru. Those who recite Your Naam serve the eternal Waheguru and take pride in You (in being Your devotee). They have Truth (Your Naam) in their heart; have shiny faces (are pure); always tell the truth, and depend upon You for their strength. Those are the real bhagats (devotees) who recite Your Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and Guru's eternal Shabad is their identity. Those who serve the eternal Waheguru also become eternal; I always wish to sacrifice my life for them. 13.

So paayay Poora Satguru jis(u) likhiya likhut(u) lilaaray. Jun(u) Nanak(u) maangaiy dhoorr(i) tin jo Gur Sikh mit piyaaray. 1.

Word Meaning: Dhoor(i) = right from the Source. Pooraiy Satguru = Waheguru. Maaray = condemned; denounced. Kertaaray = with Waheguru. Dhoyee = shelter.

Veechaary = discussed. Jundaar = unkin; killer. Gur(i) Baabaiy = Guru Nanak Sahib. Phitkay = condemned. Koorriaaray = dishonest; deceitful. Teeji Peerri = third generation (third in succession). Tikiya = designated. Dusht = evil; cruel. Kaaruj = tasks. Svaaray = made successful. Lukhmi = Maya (wealth). Oordhaaray = embed in heart. Lilaaray = (on the) forehead.

MEANING: Those who were condemned right from the Source (Waheguru) have been condemned by Satguru now. Even if they desperately want to get connected (without any noble qualities) with Waheguru, they are not allowed to do so. Their character is discussed by Satguru in the holy congregation, and they find no shelter (support) in there. If someone socializes with them now, the unkind Angel of Death punishes them severely. Those who were condemned by Guru Nanak Sahib were found to be deceitful by Guru Angad Dev Ji as well. The Third Guru in succession, Guru Amar Dass Ji, decided that such immoral people had no control over their behaviour (because their thinking is moulded by Waheguru Himself, so they should be given a chance to improve and be forgiven). With the assistance of Sri Ram Dass Ji, who was later designated the Fourth Guru in succession, Guru Amar Dass Ji vanquished all evil and cruel people. If a son, or a Sikh, serves the Satguru (obeys Him), the Satguru completes all his tasks successfully. As if he were the son of the Satguru, the devotee gets all his wishes fulfilled, including the desired amount of money and wealth, and the Satguru also connects him with Waheguru for salvation. Waheguru dwells in Satguru's heart, so Satguru is the treasure of everything. However, only that individual is connected to Waheguru, whose good fortune is prewritten on his forehead. I am a slave of the Gur Sikhs who are dear to Satguru, and I wish for the dust of their feet, oh Nanak. 1.

NOTE: The above holy Shabad may raise some questions in the minds of some people: when Guru Nanak Sahib and Guru Angad Dev Ji denounced the vilifiers of the Guru, weren't they forgiven by Guru Amar Dass Ji, contrary to the philosophy of the first two Guru Sahiban? Also, could not Guru Nanak Sahib, who was known to be extremely kind and forgiving, and who forgave big sinners and criminals like Sujjan, Babar, and Kauda, forgive such vilifiers? Why did He choose to denounce and shun them? The answer lies in the mysterious ways in which Waheguru acts. Guru Nanak Sahib was always "one" with Waheguru, and so were the other nine Gurus. Guru Sahiban did exactly what Waheguru wanted them to do. Just as the saying "wolves may lose their teeth, but not their nature" suggests, vilifiers do not change. Remember the Sloak in which Guru Ram Dass Ji describes the ill deed of Goanda Mal who complained against Guru Amar Dass Ji; also read the next sloak in which Guru Ram Dass Ji writes, "Waheguru protects His devotees, and blackens the faces of the evil and the cruel", and there are many, many holy Shabads in Guru Granth Sahib in which it has been mentioned time, and again that the evil do not quit their evil nature. So, what Guru Nanak and Guru Angad Sahib did at their times was perfect, but what Guru Amar Dass Ji did was equally good, because it was the Will of Waheguru who wanted Guru Amar Dass Ji to forgive the vilifiers at that time. Waheguru does that at times. Some Shabads can be quoted here to prove the point, but that will make the explanation unnecessarily lengthy. The fundamental philosophy of Sikhism is to obey the Will of Waheguru. According to the Sikh faith, it was Guru Nanak Sahib's Light that operated in Guru Amar Dass Ji. So, basically, it was Guru Nanak Sahib Himself who forgave the slanderers (the evil people), and there was no opposition by Guru Amar Ji to Guru Nanak Sahib's philosophy.

However, the vilifiers of the Guru never refrain from vilifying (or opposing) the Guru. The martyrdoms of Guru Sahiban, the younger Princes of Guru Gobind Singh Ji, and hundreds of Sikhs were the result of the complaints against them by such evil people. You will note that in a holy Sloak in this very Vaar, Guru Amar Dass Ji says that the vilifiers can never be cured. Guru Arjun Sahib also professes that there is a cure for every disease in nature, but none for the vilifiers.

Word Meaning: Vudiyaayee = praise; honour. Aap(i) = Waheguru. Aan(i) = brings. Kula = power; abilities. Vudhaayay = exercises; displays. Akaarra = rink; playground. Nivaayay = brought to their knees. Rukh = protection. Dooshut = evil; ruthless. Churraiy svaayee = in leaps and bounds. Ghur = heart. Ghureen Vusaayay = enables them to embed Satguru in their hearts. Oojlay = shiny; dignified. Jaiykaar = acclamation; ovation. Paiyj = honour.

MEANING: If Waheguru bestows honour on some of his devotees, He brings the whole world to drop on his feet (to show respect for him). Such a devotee may be afraid of such resect for him (lest people may label him as hungry for his fame), but he should not be, because it is not he who does something to earn respect; it, in fact, is the Creator (Waheguru) who is displaying His own powers (through the devotee). Please realize that it is the playground of the eternal Waheguru, who brings everyone to their knees with His power. The Lord, Waheguru, protects His own devotees, but blackens the faces of the slanderers and the evil (punishes them). Waheguru makes the Satguru sing His praise, and recite His Naam, as a result of which the praise of the Satguru increases in leaps and bounds. Recite Waheguru's Naam all the time, oh my Gur Sikh brothers; Waheguru enables you to embed Satguru in your hearts. Have faith in Satguru's Bani as the eternal Word because the Creator Himself talks using the tongue of Satguru. The dear Waheguru makes the faces of the Gur Sikhs shiny (honours them), and gets the whole world to acclaim the Satguru. I am a slave of God who protects the honour (from the attacks of Maya) of His slaves, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Shah = Lord; Provider. Poonji = captal. Drirraayay = reinforces. Vunjaaray = traders. Thaaray = Yours. Vunuj(i) = trade. Kutheh(i) = discuss. Niraaray = unique. Bhaayay = devotion. Svaaray = made perfect. Alukh(u) = incomprehensible. Lukhaaray = comprehended.

MEANING: You are the eternal Lord, and our Provider, oh Waheguru. We are here to trade in Your Naam; reinforcing Your Naam in our minds is our capital for trading. We serve the eternal Waheguru, deal in His eternal Naam, and discuss His unique qualities. Satguru makes those devotees perfect with His Shabad who approach Him with the devotion of a slave. Word Meaning: Taat(i) = jealousy. Puraayee = (for) others. Ojaarreen = wilderness. Pookaaray = cries for help. Choogli = (the habit) of backbiting (slandering) others. Vujjaiy = is called; becomes known as. Unhoandi = unjust. Mooh(u) Kudhna = show face. Kulyoog = this world. Tpaavus = judgment; decision.

Vis(u) = poison. Tutkaal = right away. Sojhi = understanding.

MEANING: An individual who has jealousy for others in his heart never enjoys peace. Nobody listens to him, and he feels as if he is talking to the wilderness. One who has the habit of backbiting (slandering) others is known as a slanderer, and he loses all (the respect, trust, etc.) he had earned before. He always slanders others unjustly, as a result of which he gets his face blackened (earns disgrace) and cannot show it in public. The human body is like a field in this world, where people sow their deeds. The man reaps the rewards of what he had sown. The final judgment is not based on hollow talk; if a man consumes poison, he dies right away (a slanderer suffers humiliation soon, no matter how polite he tries to be in his conversations). Watch the judgment of the eternal Waheguru, hey folks; the man gets the results of his deeds. I have been given the understanding of the functioning in Waheguru's Court, which is why I am narrating these facts, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning*:* Pertukh = clearly visible. Dur(i) = Waheguru's Court. Dhoyee = shelter. Ninduk = vilifier. Mooh Phikkay = pale faces (disgraced). Phitkay = denounced. Bhumbul Bhoosay = confused. Goapiya = slandered. Dhuhaan = cry aloud; wail (suffer in disgrace or mental anguish). Haulay Haul(u) = sinking of heart due to some possible dreadful outcome. Uggaiy Pichhaiy = anywhere. Thaaoun = support. Rehndi Khoohndi = whatever little is left. Put(i) = respect. Kooshti = leper; disliked by others. Ootthaahi = acquire. Doojay Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Chaara = recourse; choice.

MEANING: Individuals who do not connect with the Guru (seek His shelter) when He is even physically there (is available), find no shelter in Waheguru's Court. If someone befriends such "disconnected" vilifiers, he too is disgraced by others who also spit on his face (denounce him). Those who are denounced by Satguru are denounced by the whole world, and they wander confused all the time. Those who slander their Guru wail in mental anguish. They are never content and always complain about the lack of some things. Nobody pays any attention to their complaining, and they suffer from the constant fear of some dreadful happening. They cannot bear (accept) the praise of Satguru, but find no support anywhere. They go and join the company of other such sick people who have already been denounced by the Satguru as slanderers and lose any respect if they had been left with any. Having been denounced by Satguru, they are already like a leper (who are shunned by others); but if someone becomes friends with them, they also become sick with the same disease (slanderers of Satguru) (and are disliked by people). For God's sake, do not even have a glimpse of those who love Maya (and not Satguru). Waheguru has predestined the behaviour of such people, and no one has any choice against Waheguru's will. Recite Waheguru's Naam to which nobody has any access (to cause any harm to the devotee), oh Nanak. The transcendence of Waheguru's Naam is very high, and it increases in multiples every day. 2.

Khund = part of the universe = the earth (world). Brahmund = Universe. Numuskaar = bow to. Mustuk(i) = (on the) forehead. Paiyj = honour.

MEANING: The individual, whom the living Guru designates (to succeed Him) after careful consideration, enjoys a great respect. The whole world bows to him and touches his feet; his praise spreads in the whole world. The earth and the whole universe bow before the devotee on whose forehead the Perfect Guru places His kind hand, and makes him perfect too. The greatness of the Guru is unmatched, and it increases by leaps and bounds. Waheguru Himself designates the Guru, and protects His honour, oh Nanak. 3.

wilderness. Bherm(i) = in doubts. Bhuvaayiyeh(i) = made to wander. Mirg = musk deer. Bhaalay = searches for. Jhaarr(i) = in bushes.

MEANING: Human body is such a vast fort that it contains bazaars to trade (Waheguru's Naam). Those, who trade in Guru's shelter, deal in Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru's Naam is like a treasure of diamonds and rubies. Those, who search for the Naam wealth outside the body, are foolish, and are like a ghost because they are not in rhythm in life. Because of their doubts, they are made to wander in the wilderness (are misled in life) like a musk deer who does not realize that musk is within him, and searches for it in the bushes. 15.

Laaha = profit, benefit. Mool(u) = principal. Tayli = oilman. Sunda = of. Buld = ox. Joya = put to work (in olden days, oil mills were driven by oxen). Goojjha = hidden. Loonaiy = harvests; reaps. Poorb(i) = earlier. Boya = sowed. Pichhaiy = because of. Kaatth(i) = wood. Sungoya = along with.

MEANING: An individual who vilifies the Perfect Satguru suffers in the world. The frightening hell is a deep well of suffering, that's where he is hauled to. There is nobody to listen to his screams and prayers; he just keeps crying in uneasiness. He ruins both his worlds – the present and the next – and he loses not just the profit, but also the principal (of spirituality that he was born with). Waheguru treats him like the ox of the oilman, which goes in circles to drive the oil mill (the individual is put through the cycle of rebirths). Waheguru sees and listens to everything, and nothing is hidden from Him. Everybody reaps the rewards of what he had sown earlier. An individual, to whom Waheguru is kind, washes the feet of the Satguru (obeys His Teachings respectfully). Lie a piece of iron attached to sufficient wood, floats on the surface of water, a devotee of Satguru swims across the sea of Maya (is salvaged) in the shelter of the Guru. Recite Waheguru's Naam, worshipping whom, all the comforts can be realized, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Vudbhaagiyaan = highly fortunate. Sohaagni = loved by the husband. Hur(i) Raayay = Waheguru-King. Jot(i) = God's light. Pergaasiya = lighted up. Smaaya = gets absorbed in.

MEANING: Those human brides are highly fortunate, and are loved by the Waheguru-Husband, who gets connected with the Waheguru-King in the shelter of the Guru. Their hearts are enlightened, and they get fully absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sreer(u) = human body. Dherm = high morals. Sachay = God's. Guhj = hidden (whose importance is hard to find). Look(i) = hiding. Khoat(i) = graze from the roots; dig deep. Subh(u) = in everything. Aatum Ram(u) = Waheguru. Puchhaaniya = recognized. Servun = ears. Sroat(i) = hear.

MEANING: The human body is the home of high morals where the Light of the eternal Waheguru is shining on them. Virtues, which are like precious stones and which are difficult to understand in terms of their deep importance, are lying hidden in the body, and only a rare devotee in the shelter of the Guru can uncover them by digging deep. A devotee, who uncovers such noble qualities, recognizes (gets connected with) Waheguru, and finds Him in everybody and everywhere. He finds that Waheguru alone is omnipresent and is mixed well with His creation, like the cross threads in fabric. He "sees" only the "One", and believes only in the "One", and listens only to the "One" Waheguru with his ears. Sing praise of Waheguru's Naam, which is the real service to the eternal Waheguru, oh Nanak. 16.

Word Meaning: Rus = essences; sweet tastes; enjoyments. Ridaiy = heart. Vusiya = dwells. Oojlay = shiny; dignified. Ootum(u) = superior. Srayviya = listened to; obeyed His Huqam; worshipped. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning (source). Aah(i) = is. Paiynayiyeh(i) = are robed (honoured). Voottha = dwelt. Kootumb = family.
MEANING: Those individuals whose hearts have become dwellings for Waheguru feel as if they have enjoyed all the tastes of life. They are honoured in Waheguru's Court, and everybody goes (has the wish) to see them. Those who recite the Naam of the fearless Waheguru also become fearless. But only those individuals who worship Waheguru have the good luck prewritten from the Source (Waheguru). Those who have Waheguru's Naam embedded in their hearts are given the robe of honour in Waheguru's Court. They are salvaged along with their families (associates); we survive by having their sight (idolizing them). 1.

MEANING: The environment, where my Satguru stops to rest, comes to life. All those living beings who go to have a glimpse of the Guru also become (spiritually) alive. The father, the clan, and the mother of the Satguru who bore Him are all worthy of our respect. The Guru is worthy of respect (is great) who recites Waheguru's Naam, because of which, not only He swims across the sea of Maya Himself, but also salvages all those who come to His shelter. It is my request to Waheguru that He connects me with the Guru, and that I wash His feet (serve Him with devotion), oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Satguru is a manifestation of Waheguru, and has His (Waheguru's) Naam enshrined in His heart. With Waheguru in His heart, and (like Waheguru), He is eternal and immortal. The eternal Satguru is perfect because He has destroyed the poison of lust and rage. When I saw (realized) the perfect Satguru, I found internal peace (bliss). I wish to offer my life to my Guru again and again. Vusaayaysi = enables control of mind. Jhukh(u) Jhukh(i) = grumble; complain; niggle. Hult(u) Pult(u) = this world and the next. Chhodaayaysi = frees from the bonds of Maya; emancipates.

MEANING: A devotee, whom Waheguru kindly connects with Satguru, recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. He does only those things which are approved by the Guru (always obeys Him), as a result of which, Satguru enables the devotee to have full control over his mind (the mind does not wander and stays in itself). The devotees, who have the treasure of Naam in their hearts, lose all fears by the grace of the Guru. The vilifiers can cause no harm to the devotees, no matter how much they grumble (or complain), because the devotees are protected by Waheguru Himself. MEANING: Guru's Sikhs like the praise of their Satguru. Waheguru protects the honour of the Satguru, which increases in leaps and bounds every day. Satguru harbours Waheguru in His mind, which protects the Satguru from the attacks of Maya. Waheguru is the power and the kingdom behind (backing) the Satguru; Waheguru forces everybody to come and bow to the Guru. Those who view the Satguru with affection and respect have all their sins eradicated by Him. Such devotees have shiny faces (clear of any sin) in Waheguru's Court, and they win great praise there. I wish for the dust of the feet of the Sikhs of the Guru, who, (for that reason), are my brothers, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: I utter the eternal praise of the praiseworthy eternal Waheguru. Even though Waheguru's praise is everlasting (accompanies you everywhere), nobody can evaluate Him simply by singing His praise. Those who taste the sweetness of Waheguru's praise become fully contented. But, like a mute person who cannot describe the taste in words of some sweet he had eaten, the devotees, who enjoy the bliss of singing Waheguru's praise, cannot describe it. Moliya = sold; surrendered; lost all claims.

MEANING: Like a person having a tumour, who knows how severe the pain is, only the devotee knows the pain of separation from Waheguru. I am always ready to make a sacrifice for such devotees. I pray to Waheguru that He connects me with my dear, kind, and great soul (Satguru) so that I may put my humble head at His feet like a slave (for Him to use in whatever way He chooses to). Word Meaning: Augun = ignoble qualities; vices. Nirmul(u) = clean; pure. Goon = noble qualities. Vihaajhiyeh(i) = trade in. Mul(u) = filth. Sach(u) = (Naam of) Waheguru. Toata = shortage; loss. Laaha = profit; advantage. Dhoor(i) Likhiya = prewritten from the beginning. Praput(i) Hoyay = acquires, works.

MEANING: The human body is full of vices; how can it be purified, oh, holy saints? Answer: Trade for noble qualities in the shelter of the Guru, and wash off the filth of haumein. If one trades in the eternal Waheguru's Naam with love (devotion), he acquires His Naam as his merchandise (wealth). There is never a loss (in such trading), but the advantage is that such a trader is liked by Waheguru. But only those individuals trade in Waheguru's Naam who have it prewritten in their fate right from the beginning (birth), and that such luck works for them, oh, Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Salaahi = those who sing praise (devotees). Sach(u) = Waheguru. Sacha = Eternal. Niraalay = pure; completely detached. Vusaiy = dwells. Rukhvaalay = protector; guard. Araadhiya = worshipped. Rulay = mix well; become indistinguishable. Munmukh(u) = followers of their mind; Maya-lovers. Moorr = foolish. Baytaalay = ghost; led astray; losers. Aal(u) Pataal(u) = incoherent talking. unrelated; meaningless. Mud(i) = liquor. Mutvaalay = intoxicated.

MEANING: The devotees sing praise of the praiseworthy and of the eternal Waheguru, which is fully detached from Maya. By serving (worshipping) the eternal Waheguru, He comes to dwell in your mind and becomes your guard. Those who worship the eternal Waheguru merge with Him, becoming indistinguishable. But those who do not serve the eternal Waheguru are like ghosts who have been led astray and are losers in life. They talk incoherently (make no sense) as if they have consumed liquor and are intoxicated. 19.

Word Meaning: Soolukhni = full of virtues. Khusmaiy = Lord. Chit(i) Kuray = keep in mind. Bhaanaiy = as per the advice. Seegaar(u) = adornment. Bhutaar(u) = husband; Lord. Raaveh(i) = recite. Mujeetthaiy = of madder (the colour of madder is very fast and dark, and does not fade). Gehguha = deep; dark. Chloolaiy = deeply dyed. Rutti = imbued. Nayhou = love. Koorr(u) = deceit. Thuuggi = fraud. Goojjhi = hidden. Mooluma = coating. Playt(i) = wrapped in. Dhurayhou = display.

MEANING: Gaurri Raag(u) is virtuous if one can acquire noble qualities by singing Waheguru's praise in it, and keeps Him in mind all the time, and makes Guru's advice his adornment to lead his life. Actually, Guru's eternal Shabad is the Lord (Guru's Shabad is a manifestation of the Lord), and should always be recited. Like a fabric boiled in madder acquires a fast and deep colour, one should dye his mind deeply in the love of Waheguru by surrendering his mind to Him. The individual who has deep affection (devotion) for Waheguru is imbued with His deep colour of love. The deceit and fraud of individuals cannot remain hidden, even when they are masked by a false coating of love and honesty. Their praise (of the Guru) is false because, in reality, they are in love with the perishables. Only Waheguru is eternal, and only He casts His kind sight on individuals to sing His praise with dedication, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Satsungut(i) = holy congregation. Oostut(i) = praise. Praani = men. Dhunn(i) = worthy of respect. Peroopkaaria = for the benefit of others. Drirraaveh(i) = reinforce. Nistaariya = salvaged. Loachaiy = longs. Nuvkhund = the nine regions of the earth. Svaariya = made perfect. Sirjunhaariya = oh, the Creator. Jum(u) = the angel of death. Dhoyee = shelter, support. Oobray = salvaged. Smaariya = remembered.

MEANING: Waheguru's praise is sung in the holy congregation, and one realizes the Dear (Waheguru) in the company (shelter) of the Guru. Those individuals are worthy of our respect who preach (Guru's Message) for the benefit of others. They sing Waheguru's Naam to the people and reinforce it in their minds. It is Waheguru's Naam that salvages the world. Everybody longs to have a holy sight of the Guru, and all the nine regions of the earth bow to the Guru. You have placed Yourself in the Satguru (You operate in Him), and have made Him perfect, oh Waheguru. You, Yourself, worship the Satguru and make the people worship Him, oh, the Creator of the universe. If someone still stays dissociated from Satguru, the Angel of Death punishes him and blackens his face. Gur Sikhs discuss his fate, and he finds no support anywhere. Only those individuals find salvation who come to the Guru's shelter and remember Waheguru in their hearts. Recite Waheguru's Naam because only He salvages you, oh the Sikhs, the sons of Guru Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Bhoolaaya = misled. Doomut(i) = ill advice. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya. Bikaar = vices. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Undhiyaar = darkness.

MEANING: The world has been misled by ill advice because of which it is suffering from selfishness, ego, and from all sorts of vices of poisonous Maya. The follower of his mind is in complete darkness (in terms of spirituality). Only Satguru can salvage him with His kind sight. Waheguru connects individuals with Him by infusing in their minds a love for Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = everlasting; Waheguru. Sift Slaah = praise. Bhijjaiy = imbues. Ikk(u) = the only (Waheguru). Kandh(u) = body; mental health. Chhijjaiy = weakens. Shabaash(i) = bravo; commendation. Bhaanvda = is liked. Lijaiy = taken. Sachiyaariaan = bearers of truth. Oojul = shiny; honourable.

MEANING: Praise of the eternal Waheguru is everlasting (accompanies you even in the next world); but only those sing it whose minds are imbued with His love. The mental health of those who worship Waheguru with full concentration of mind never weakens. That individual is commendable who drinks the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam with his tongue. Those who like the eternal Waheguru in mind are taken to the Court of Waheguru (for recognition). Praiseworthy is the coming of the bearers of truth (noble qualities) in this world; they are honoured by Waheguru. 20.

Word Meaning: Shaakut = worshipper of Maya. Niveh(i) = bows to. Khoatay = impure; dishonest. Koorr(i) = deceit. Ootthou = be alert. Ghoosur(i) = sneak in. Bugulaaray = imposters (like a heron). Vertaiy = operates. Ludhovaaray = vagabonds; drifters. Chhupaayin = hide. Na Rulni = do not blend. Bhukh = food. Bhaydaaray = rams.

MEANING: The worshipper of Maya may go to visit the Guru, and may bow before him, but that all is a show-off, and a farce, because he is dishonest and deceitful, and has deceit in mind. When the Guru asks His congregation to rise (to be alert and to focus their mind), the impostors (like a heron) sneak into the congregation. However, Satguru operates in the hearts of the Sikhs (whereas the Maya-worshippers have no spirituality), so such drifters can be easily isolated. They try to hide behind other Sikhs, but the dishonest cannot blend with the congregation. They do not have their mental food in the holy congregation; such rams go to places where they can engage in deceitfulness. If some kind Sikh wishes to feed them spirituality, they spew poison from their mouth (retort in a taunting way). I pray to Waheguru that I should not have any association with the money-lovers (dissociated from Waheguru); they have been condemned by Waheguru. The Creator, who has created the drama of the world, looks after it (in His own ways); you just remember His Naam, oh Nanak.

Kaal Kuntuk(u) = thorn (fear) of death. Vidaariya = tossed away. Oobaariya = salvaged. Munda Chitvaiy = thinks ill of. Oopaavunhaaraiy = the Creator. Agum(u) = (knowledge about) the future.

MEANING: Because of Waheguru's continuous presence in Satguru's heart, He (Satguru) is inaccessible to anyone who wants to cause Him any harm because He has the backing of the Creator. Satguru's sword and armour are the worship of Waheguru because of which He has destroyed and tossed away the thorn (fear) of death. Waheguru Himself is the guard of Satguru, and everybody is salvaged because of Him. Whoever thinks ill of the Perfect Satguru is (spiritually) killed by the Creator. MEANING: There are only a rare few who recite Waheguru's Naam before they go to sleep, and start reciting it as soon as they wake up (they are connected with Waheguru even in their sleep). They recite the Naam in the shelter of the Guru. I am a sacrifice to those who always recite Waheguru's Naam (stay connected with Him). MEANING: Those Gur Sikhs, who do not forget Waheguru (remember Him) with every breath and with every nibble of food, are the (spiritual) leaders (respectable). Such Gur Sikhs are approved (recognized) by Waheguru, whether asleep or awake (because they keep Waheguru in mind all the time). MEANING: One acquires (realizes) the Naam of the limitless Waheguru by serving the Satguru (obeying Him). The source of everything, Waheguru, pulls out (saves) the people drowning in the sea of Maya; this is His kind gift to them. Those individuals are truly wealthy who deal in Waheguru's Naam; they are worthy of our respect. Word Meaning: Munmukh(u) = disconnected with Waheguru. Moogudh = foolish. Heen = lacking, devoid of. Bhermaayay = misled. Munooa = mind. Tikaiy = rests; becomes peaceful. Jooni = different life forms. 1.

MEANING: The individual, who is devoid of Waheguru's Naam (disconnected with Waheguru), is foolish and is misled in the path of life. Without the Guru's guidance, his mind never finds peace, and he continues to take different life forms again and again. But if Waheguru becomes kind to him, he is connected with Satguru. You sing praise of Waheguru (recite His Naam) so as to circumvent the suffering of birth and death, oh Nanak.

Word Meaning: Buhou Bidh(i) = in many different ways. Rung(i) Soobhaayay = with love and respect. Saytee = with. Rutta = imbued. Bunut Bunaayay = beautiful creation; under control. Jihva = tongue. Rujyee = satisfied; tired. Triptay = contented. Hur(i) Rus(u) = Waheguru's Amrit-Naam

MEANING: I praise my Satguru with love and respect in many different ways. My mind now has a beautiful build and is imbued with Waheguru's love. My mind is focused on Waheguru, and my tongue is not tired of praising the dear Waheguru. My mind is hungry for Waheguru's Naam, and feels contented only when I take in Waheguru's Naam Amrit, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sacha = eternal. Salaahi = praiseworthy (God). Haajur(u) = present. Bhookhaan = desires for worldly things.

MEANING: The eternal Waheguru, which created days and nights, is recognized (visible) in nature. The greatness (magnificence) of Waheguru is everlasting; such Waheguru should be praised all the time. The praiseworthy Waheguru is eternal, and so is His praise, but nobody can evaluate His great, noble qualities. However, when one gets connected with Satguru, those noble qualities become "visible". All the worldly desires of those who sing praise of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru (in His guidance) are eradicated. 23.

Word Meaning: Khoaj(i) Khoajayndiyaan = searching for. Ludha = found; realized. Loarr(i) = which was needed. Visht(u) = the mediator.

MEANING: Searching for the needed Waheguru (which I was looking for) in my mind and body, I found (realized) Him from within. But this happened only when I got connected to the mediator Guru, who connected me to Waheguru. 1.

Word Meaning: Mayadhaari = wealthy; one who worships money. Roal(u) Ghuchoala = too much unclear noise in the mind (making and breaking plans). Jaapaiy = recites Waheguru's Naam. Liv Laayay = with full concentration. Vujda = produces music. Junt(u) = musical instrument. 2.

MEANING: The wealthy person is blind and deaf (he does not see the magnanimity of Waheguru and does not listen to Guru's advice). But a Sikh of the Guru recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru with full concentration. He obeys Waheguru's Will on listening to His Naam, and stays absorbed in the Naam. Waheguru does, and makes others do, whatever he wishes. I am just like a musical instrument in the hands of Waheguru, which produces music. However, the musician, Waheguru, plays it, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Kerta = creator. Agunut = beyond limits. Gunutaiy = within limits. Vertda = happens. Buntaiy = creation. Ghut(i) = heart. Ikk(u) = alone. Chultaiy = amazing feats. Pertaiy = turning back.

MEANING: You are the Creator of the universe, and You know everything that goes through the minds of the people, oh Waheguru. You are limitless, whereas the whole world has its limits. You control everything that happens in the world, and it is all Your creation. These are all the amazing feats that You alone operate in every heart, oh, the eternal Lord. Whoever gets connected with Satguru gets connected with Waheguru too; nobody is turned back (in the traps) of Maya. 24.

Word Meaning: Munooa = mind. Drirr Kur(i) = strictly (under control). Giraas(i) = bite. Visaariyaiy = forget. Jeeurra = mind. Vus(i) = under control; surrendered to.

MEANING: We should keep our mind strictly under control, and concentrate (on Waheguru's Naam) in the shelter of the Guru. We should not forget Waheguru at any time, not even when we are breathing, eating, sitting, or standing. Once you have surrendered your mind to Waheguru, there is no worry left about living or dying. Please be kind to Your slave, Nanak, and keep me in whatever situation You please, oh Waheguru. 1.

Word Meaning: Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Residence. Khin(u) = moment. Seejhaiy = be successful. Virla = rare. Kur(i) Joarr(i) = fold hands (ready to obey). Buhoarr(i) = turn around; recover.

MEANING: The follower of his mind is always conceited and does not know the importance of Waheguru's Residence (His omnipresence). He moves forward (to connect with Him) for a moment, but then recedes. If some devotee invites him all the time to come to Waheguru's Residence (holy congregation), he never goes there; so how can he succeed (be approved) in Waheguru's Court? Some rare individuals recognize the importance of Waheguru's Residence (His Naam) and are always ready to obey His Command. If Waheguru is kind, He can turn the mind of even a money-lover around (towards Him and away from Maya), oh Nanak. 2.

Jin Satgur ka bhaana munniya, tin churri chuvgun(i) vunnay. Eh chaal niraali Gurmukheen, Gur Deekhiya soon(i) mun(u) bhinnay. 25.

Word Meaning: Suful = successful; bears fruit. Kusmul = sins. Bhunnay = ran away; disappear. Oopdaysh(i) = advice; preaching. Kunnay = with ears; intently. Bhaana = Will. Chuvgun = four-times. Vunnay = beautiful colour (beauty). Chaal = lifestyle. Niraali = unique. Deekhiya = advice. Bhinnay = imbues.

MEANING: Only that service to the Guru is successful which pleases Him. When Satguru is pleased, all the sins of the devotee run away. The Sikhs listen very carefully to the Preaching of Satguru. Those who obey Satguru's Will acquire four times more beauty (of mind, or love for Satguru). This is a unique aspect of the Sikh lifestyle: their minds are imbued with love for the Guru upon listening to His advice. 2.

Word Meaning: Gopiya = spread malice; malign. Tthaur = support. Tthaoun = shelter. Hult(u) = this world. Pult(u) = the next world. Guyyay = lost. Vayla = opportunity. Huth(i) Na Aavuyee = cannot be recalled. Guntaiy = keeping account; rivalling. Ghoosiyaiy = lose opportunity. Vihaayay = is spent.

MEANING: Those who malign their Guru find no support and no shelter anywhere. They lose in both worlds and find no room in Waheguru's Court (are thrown out). They cannot recall the opportunity (get a second chance) to drop at the feet of the Satguru (to seek His shelter). One loses the opportunity (to acquire some spirituality) by rivalling Satguru, and his life is spent in deep suffering. Satguru bears no enmity with anyone; He Himself kindly implants Waheguru's worship in the mind of the individual whom he chooses (based on his nature). Whoever gets to have the sight of Satguru (comes to His shelter), is emancipated in God's Court, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ugiyaan(u) = ignorant. Doormut(i) = evil wisdom (mind). Ahunkaari = egoist. Jooyay Mut(i) = the thinking of a gambler. Haari = loses. Koorr(u) = deceit. Koosut(u) = lies. Khooyay = misled; lost. Oojjhurr(i) = wilderness. Bhaytay = meeting. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten (fate). Kmaayay = earns; acquires.

MEANING: The follower of his mind is ignorant (about spirituality), has an evil mind, and is an egoist. He is possessed by rage and loses the game of life with the mind of a gambler. Because of his conceit and lies, he accumulates the burden of sins. What (morality) can he listen to, and what (morality) can he teach people, when he is blind and deaf (towards spirituality), and he himself is lost in the wilderness of life? The follower of his mind is spiritually blind and keeps taking births and dying. He can find no shelter (in Waheguru's Court) without meeting Satguru (who comes to his shelter). (But he is helpless) and is simply following the dictates of what has been prewritten in his fate, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Chit Kutthoar = stone-hearted; without compassion. Oodaas(i) = feel uncomfortable. Vul(u) Chhul(u) = dishonestly; non-seriously; somehow. Jhut(i) Kuddhday = bide time. Koorriyaar = deceitful. Gudyee = mixes; blends. Nirjaas(i) = decide.

MEANING: The people who have no compassion for others do not enjoy the company of Satguru, because only high moral values are followed there, which makes them uncomfortable. They somehow bide their time (still thinking of defrauding people), and then leave to join the company of the deceitful. You can see (decide) for yourself that the dishonest do not mix with the honest. The deceitful go and mix with the deceitful, whereas the pure-hearted Sikhs sit by the Satguru (enjoy His company). 26.

Sunnhi = make a hole in the wall to gain entrance (break and enter). Vikhum = difficult; risky. Mud = liquor; intoxicant. Maani = to enjoy. Kermi = deeds. Puchhutaani = repent. Israel Phrishta = angel of justice. Peerray Ghaani = grinds like sesame seeds.

MEANING: Criminal minds set out with tools to rob people at night, not realizing that Waheguru is watching them. They decide firmly to secretly watch other women. (Conceited of their ignoble abilities), They break down walls in risky places because they find it a sweet act to enjoy. Everybody does the deeds of their choice and repents, too. MEANING: Whatever God has written (made the law) from the beginning, cannot be erased (changed). And the Law is that the true wealth for the man to earn is Waheguru's Naam. So, one must recite the Naam all the time, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: The Perfect Satguru has bestowed the wealth of Waheguru's Naam on me, which never runs out. All my misgivings have disappeared, and I have no fear of the Angel of Death anymore. All vices, like lust and rage, have been eradicated in the company of the Guru. Those who worship any other power than Waheguru die with their non-functioning vital organs (wisdom and spirituality). Satguru has been very kind to me and has fully connected me with Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 29.

Word Meaning: Tupaa = a devotee of some deity who tortures himself in different ways to please his god. Loabhi = greedy. Jujmaaliya = leper; lustful; sick-minded. Uggoan Day Sudiya = invited before. Sataiy Dee Bhikhiya = offering with respect. Puchhutaayay Kaiy = realizing the mistake. Punch = leaders. Gaaliya = made unfit; ruined. Bhitaiy = goes near. Haariya = lost. Bugula = heron (imposter); phony. Sat Purakh = honest holy man (Satguru). Sunsaaraiy Kee = of the world. Oostut(i) = undeserving praise (for selfish gains). Duyyay = Waheguru. J(i) = Jo = that. Ful = result. Ghaaliya = hard work. Ooggha = Clear. Dhermraayay = angel of Justice. Kunkur = assistants. Khurr(i) = take. Hutiyaariya = murderers; sinners. Mooh(i) Na Lughou = do not see him. Phitkaariya = denounced. Vertiya = happened. Boojhaiy = understands; realizes. Svarriya = made successful.

NOTE: This holy Shabad, written by Guru Ram Dass Ji, the Fourth Guru, describes an incident about a “tupaa” who lived in Goindvaal at the time of Guru Amar Dass Ji. He was very greedy, egoistic, and a constant vilifier of the holy saints - especially Guru Amar Dass Ji. Once, Guru Amar Dass Ji invited all the holy men in the area for dinner, where some cash was also to be given. It was a custom in those days (and even today) that when a holy man was served meals, he was also given some cash for his “kindness” to pay a visit. The Tupaa declined the invitation because he had another invitation that he expected to pay more for. But he soon learnt that Guru Sahib was giving away much more cash than he had expected. So, he rushed back to his home and took his son to partake of Guru Sahib’s dinner.

MEANING: A “tupa” should not be as greedy as to be looking for money all the time. He did not accept the invitation extended to him by Guru Sahib, but after realizing his mistake (of missing the opportunity to donate), he took his son to attend Guru Sahib’s dinner. On seeing this act of greed of the “Tupaa”, the leaders of the town began to laugh (make fun of him) and commented that the Tupaa had been ruined (had lost his morality) by his greed. He would not even go near the place with less money, but he lost his moral compass when he found out that more money was involved there. The leaders concluded that he is no real tupaa, but rather an imposter (a phony tupaa). He vilifies the truly holy saints (like Guru Sahib) and showers undeserved praise (for selfish reasons) on others. For this huge weakness, Waheguru punished him.

He lost all the reward of his hard labour (self-affliction) of many years for slandering the holy saints. He publicly calls him a “tupaa” among the leaders, but commits sins in private. But Waheguru clearly exposed his inner sin before the leaders.

The Angel of Justice ordered his assistants to take him to the punishment centre where the great sinners are taken, and do not allow anyone to visit him because he has been denounced by Satguru. I am simply describing what takes place in Waheguru’s Court, oh Nanak. But only those who have been made perfect (eligible) by Waheguru realize this fact.

Word Meaning: Araadhiya = worshipped; recited (Naam). Sookhdaayee = source of comfort. Bukhshiun(u) = given kindly; gifted. Thir(u) Ghureen = Peace of mind. Paiyj = dignity; faith Laykha = accounts of deeds. Mungsi = will demand. Sujaayee = punishment. Jeeyay = in life. Surpur = for sure. Ooghrraiy = becomes clear. Vigsiya = blooming of the mind. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru's devotees worship Him and sing His praise. The devotees always sing Waheguru's praise; Waheguru's Naam is a source of great comfort for them. Waheguru kindly imparts the magnanimity of the Naam in the minds of His devotees, which multiplies every day. Waheguru grants stability (peace) to His devotees' minds (so their minds no longer waver and become peaceful), thereby enhancing their faith in Him. He demands the accounts of their deeds from the vilifiers and punishes them severely. The malicious critics reap the rewards of their deeds, which they had performed over their lifetime. The outcome of one's deeds becomes perfectly clear for sure, no matter where he performs the deeds – even somewhere deep in the earth, hiding from others. Nanak is a slave of Waheguru, and his heart blossoms at the sight of His grandeur. 2.

Word Meaning: Goomaan = conceit. Moorr = foolish. Goomaania = egoist. Vis(u) = poison. Aayay Lugaiy= very close. Dih = days. Thoarr-rray = a few. Looniyiaiy = cut; harvest. Bhuniyaiy = are called. Dhuniyaiy = Lord.

MEANING: Waheguru Himself is the guard of His devotees; so, what harm can the sinners (enemies) cause to them? The foolish and the egoist (vilifier) suffer from their conceit, which is like a poison which slowly kills the person. Just like a field which is ready for harvesting, it is cut in a few days; death is approaching humans fast and is only a few days away. A man is called by (given) the name, which is reflective of the deeds he commits. My Lord, who is also the Lord of everybody else, is the greatest of all, oh Nanak. 30

Nanak munmukhaan naaloan tootti bhulee jin Maya moh(u) piyaar. 1. Word Meaning: Moolhoun = completely; from the base (beginning). Lub(u) = greed; gluttony. Loabh = greed. Jhuggraa = internal struggle. Undin(u) = every day. Soodh(i) Mut(i) = noble thinking. Hir(i) = taken away. Vikaar = vices; unholy thoughts. Suntokhieh(i) = contentment. Tishna = fire of desires. Ugiyaan(u) = ignorance. Undhiyaar(u) = darkness. Bhulee = better.

MEANING: The follower of his mind (disconnected with Waheguru) is completely misled because of his greed and his conceit. He does not ponder on the Guru's Shabad and spends every day of his life in internal strife (whether to commit an immoral act or not). His noble thinking has been snatched (taken away) by the Creator, and all his talking is about immoral actions. Nothing given by God makes him content; there is a big fire of desires, and a deep darkness of ignorance in his mind. It is better to sever all relations with such followers of their mind who have deep love and affection for Maya, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Bhuvaayiyaiy = taken through. Koorr(u) = deceit; lies; perishable. Binsaiy = vanishes. Dhaat(u) = (attachment) with Maya. Livaiy = meditating on Waheguru. Joaar(u) = connection; compatibility. Loachaiy = wishes for. Poataiy = in treasure; in destiny. Poonn(u) = noble deeds.

MEANING: Those who have love for Maya in their mind have no love for the Sikhs of the Guru. They are taken through many different life forms, so they keep taking births and dying, and do not have any comfort even in their dreams. They tell lies and deal in deceitful tasks. A dealer in deceitful acts becomes deceitful too. Love for Maya causes suffering; a Maya-lover vanishes (dies) in suffering, and cries in its suffering (when it is lost). Even if everyone wishes for it, there is no compatibility between love for Maya and meditating on (love for) Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. Those who have noble deeds in their treasure (have accumulated them), enjoy blissfulness in the Guru's Shabad. 2.

Word Meaning: Veechaareh(i) = profess. Sunt = holy saints. Moon(i) Jun = ascetics who stay quiet for long periods of time; hermits. Vuchun = words. Hovunday = materialize. Pergut = become famous (well known). Pahaaraiy = shops; in the world. Jaapday = seem. Moogudh Nur = foolish people. Khehunday = provoke; display aggressive behaviour. Loachun(i) = long for. Bhaag = fortune. Dhoor(i) = right from the source (from the beginning). Sunday = of; belong to; loyal to. Dherm = angel of Justice. Puchunday = burn; suffer. Sraapiya = cursed. Bhuvunday = go through many births. Payd(u) = tree. Moondhaahoon = from the base.

MEANING: The holy saints and the hermits profess, and all the four Vedas say the same thing, that whatever words are spoken by the holy devotees of Waheguru, materialize into (become) reality. Such devotees become famous (well-known) worldwide, and people listen to them. But the foolish, who display aggressive behaviour towards the holy saints, never enjoy comfort (peace of mind). They long for the noble qualities of the saints (same respect) (but cannot acquire them), so they burn (suffer) because of their hurt ego (jealousy). But they are helpless because they have ill fortune right from the beginning. Those who have been punished by Waheguru are not friends with (loyal to) anyone. They show animosity towards the holy men who have no enmity with anyone, so they suffer gravely at the hands of the Angel of justice. Anyone who has been cursed by the holy saints goes through many life cycles. They are like a tree which has been cut from its base, as a result of which its branches dry up.

Word Meaning: Dri-rraaya = reinforced. Ghurrun = create; make. Bhunnun = break; destroy. Sumruth = capable; omnipotent. Luth(u) = remove.

MEANING: The Guru reinforces the Naam of Waheguru, which is capable of creating and destroying everything, oh Nanak. So, always remember Waheguru's Naam to have all your suffering removed, oh my friend. 1.

Word Meaning: Khoodhiyavunt = a hungry man. Jaanyee = pays no attention. Laaj = respect. Koolaaj = disrespect. Kooboal = insulting language. Sunjoag(u) = union.

MEANING: Like a hungry man who pays no attention to respect, disrespect, or insulting words to get food, I (also do not care what people say about me), and beg Waheguru to kindly give me His Naam so that I may have union with Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Jayvayhay = the kind of. Kmaanvda = deals in; performs. Tayvayhay = the same kind. Chubbay = chew. Saar(u) = iron. Pultaiy = causes burns. Ghut(i) Gulaavaan = tie up. Doot = assistants. Umul = acting on (the orders); deeds. Poonniya = successful; fulfilled. Mul(u) = filth; belongings of others. Hirtay = steal. Akirtghun(u) = ungrateful; disloyal. Dhiraan = sides; supports; shelters. Nikhootius = run out. Hir(i) Luyeeus(u) = taken away. Dhertay = Dher tay = from the earth. Vijjhun = die down. Kula = disputes; conflicts. Luyya = removed. Ahunmayo = conceit; ego.

MEANING: One reaps the kind of results based on the kind of deeds he performs. For example, if one tries to chew on hot iron, they will burn their throat. None of the wishes of such an individual is fulfilled who steals the belongings of others. Acting on the orders (of the Angel of justice), his assistants tie him up and take him away. Such ungrateful people do not realize Waheguru's kindness; therefore, they are taken through many life forms. All their supports run out (nobody can save them), and they are removed from the earth. When such an individual does not let conflicts die down, the Creator removes him. All those who act under conceit drop down to the ground (mix with dust). 32.

Word Meaning: Bibayk Boodh(i) = wisdom to recognize good and bad. Haar proayay = string necklace with the beads of Naam in the thread of the heart. Pvit(u) = Paavun(u) = holy and pure. Paar(i) Ootaari = is salvaged. Baashna = fragrance. Sobha = praise. Ootum = superior. Bani = conversation. J(i) = whoever. Nihaal = blissful. Maal(u) = wealth.

MEANING: A devotee acquires Divine Knowledge and the wisdom to recognize the good and the bad, in the shelter of the Guru. He sings the virtues of Waheguru, and strings them on the thread of his heart (remembers them all the time) just like beads are strung in a necklace. He becomes pure and holy at heart, and ponders on the Guru's Shabad very conscientiously. If someone joins his company, he too finds salvation. Waheguru's Naam fills his mind with the sweet fragrance of noble thoughts. He earns praise in Waheguru's Court, and his conversations with people are very sweet and full of high moral principles. Whoever listens to his words becomes blissful. One acquires the wealth of Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of Satguru, oh Nanak. 1.

someone wants some tasks done by the Sikhs without the approval of Satguru, he is subjected to severe suffering. 2.

Bireh Vichhorra = pain of separation. Dhunee = master; the origin (the plant). Sehsay = thousands. Guntth(i) = very tiny flakes.

MEANING: The pods look very pretty as long as they are connected to the plant, but when they get detached from the plant, they break into thousands of tiny flakes (as if in the pain of separation from their base). [The same thing applies to human beings when they get disconnected from their base (Waheguru), oh Nanak]. 1.

Word Meaning: Oathaiy = there (in holy congregation). Amrit = liquid of immortality (Waheguru's Naam). Punth(i) = on the path of. Jernaiy = endure; control one's ego. Amiyo = Amrit. Jhernaiy = falls; springs. Paykh(i) = to see.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam-Amrit is provided in the holy congregation, as a result of which Waheguru makes one's life very comfortable (blissful), and he does not tread the path leading to death (as there is no real death because one merges into Waheguru and becomes immortal). When one begins to enjoy the love of Waheguru, he is also able to control his mind, which otherwise could suffer from conceit. The Bani (in praise of Waheguru) that the holy saints sing is the source of the springs of Amrit. Agumm = inaccessible. Agudha = unfathomable.

MEANING: How can the glory of those connected to Waheguru be described? Whoever takes shelter at the Guru's feet is liberated from the bonds of Maya. A person who sings praise of the immortal Waheguru does not go through the suffering of the womb (of many life forms). An individual who receives spiritual knowledge and understanding of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru becomes connected with Him. Goomphou = string virtues in mind like beads in a necklace. Maal = necklace. Mul(i) = filth. Purhuriyaiy = remove; wash away. Nurhuriyaiy = Waheguru. 11.

MEANING: A holy saint is recognized by the fact that one finds salvation in his company. The assistant of the Angel of death does not even come near (in the company of the holy saint) you, and you do not experience spiritual death again. The world is a sea of poison (of Maya), and we swim across that in the shelter of the holy saint (Guru). If we string the virtues of Waheguru on the rosary of our mind, He removes all our filth. MEANING: The man is misled in life by his greed and his attachments with the world, but he cannot deceive (hide his acts from) Waheguru. In deep slumber under the intoxication of Maya, he performs immoral deeds as a result of which he is robbed of good qualities and is set on the path leading to the Angel of death, and is taken through different life forms again and again. He reaps the rewards of his own deeds and suffers badly. It is all bad times when one ignores Waheguru, oh Nanak. 12.

Waheguru takes dwelling in the heart of the individual for whom it has been prewritten by Him. Waheguru is omnipresent, but the man is being robbed of his noble qualities in the love for Maya (and does not benefit from Waheguru's Naam). The Guru has explained the path to unite with Waheguru; so, one must recite the Guru's Mantra (Gurbani) to achieve union with Waheguru. The after-effects of Maya are all tasteless and provide no comfort in the long run; Waheguru is the one to be liked in the mind (for ultimate bliss). MEANING: When Waheguru wishes, rain comes down in a natural way, as a result of which there is a huge production of grains and wealth, and the earth (its people) gets fully contented. By reciting the virtues of such a kind Waheguru, all the suffering of poverty (of mind) gets eradicated. But, only that individual sings praise of Waheguru, who is predestined to do so by His Will. MEANING: It is only by worshipping (reciting the Naam of) the "One" Waheguru that one attains the spiritual state above the effects of Maya to become immortal (merge into Waheguru). There is no other shelter like Him; so how can the man find mental strength (without Him)? I have searched the whole world, but there is no peace without the Naam. Some rare devotees internalize the fact that their bodies and their wealth will be reduced to dust. So, what will the man do with the gimmicks, the beauty, and the enjoyments of life (Maya) when they are all worthless (at the end)? The individual, who has been misled by Waheguru Himself, cannot acquire the skill to worship Waheguru. But those who are imbued in Waheguru's love, sing His praise. I, Nanak, am in Your shelter if You allow it, oh Waheguru. 2.

MEANING: They do not take rebirths (and do not die) who come to the shelter of Waheguru. Those who stay awake (are alert) in praise of Waheguru are approved (given the highest spiritual state) in this life. They are highly fortunate who realize Waheguru in the company of the Guru. But their life is condemnable who forget Waheguru, and they are spiritually so weak that they break (yield to the attractions of Maya) like a raw thread. MEANING: To achieve the desired result of all comforts, I lead my life of high morals, and remember Waheguru. I visualize Waheguru as close to me and recite His Naam. I lead a very humble life to be "one" with Waheguru. I do not hurt any living being, as a result of which, I will go to Waheguru's Court with dignity (without any sins).
