Ek Onkar Sat(i) Naam(u) Kerta Purakh(u) Gur Persad(i)
Raag(u) Gaurri Bhugtaan Kee bani
Gaurri Gooarayri Sri Kabir Jeeo kay Chaupuday 14

MEANING: There is only one Supreme being which has eternal existence, is a living power, and is the Creator. He can be realized only with the Guru's grace.
Raag(u) Gaurri,Gooarayri; compositions of the Bhagats. 14, four-verse Shabads of Kabir Ji.

ਅਬ ਮੋਹਿ ਜਲਤ ਰਾਮ ਜਲੁ ਪਾਇਆ॥ ਰਾਮ ਉਦਕਿ ਤਨੁ ਜਲਤ ਬੁਝਾਇਆ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਮਨ ਮਾਰਣ ਕਾਰਣਿ ਬਨ ਜਾਈਐ॥ ਸੋ ਜਲੁ ਬਿਨੁ ਭਗਵੰਤ ਨ ਪਾਈਐ॥ 1॥ਜਿਹ ਪਾਵਕ ਸੁਰਿ ਨਰ ਹੈ ਜਾਰੇ॥ ਰਾਮ ਉਦਕਿ ਜਨ ਜਲਤ ਉਬਾਰੇ॥ 2॥ ਭਵ ਸਾਗਰ ਸੁਖ ਸਾਗਰ ਮਾਹੀ॥ ਪੀਵਿ ਰਹੇ ਜਲ ਨਿਖੁਟਤ ਨਾਹੀ॥ 3॥ ਕਹਿ ਕਬੀਰ ਭਜੁ ਸਾਰਿੰਗਪਾਨੀ॥ ਰਾਮ ਉਦਕਿ ਮੇਰੀ ਤਿਖਾ ਬੁਝਾਨੀ॥4॥1॥

Ub moh(i) julut Ram Jul(u) Paaya. Ram ooduk(i) tun(u) julut boojhaaya. 1. Ruhaou. Mun maarun kaarun(i) bun jaayiyaiy. So jul(u) bin(u) Bhugvunt na aayiyaiy. 1. Jih paavuk soor(i) nur haiy jaaray. Ram ooduk(i) jun julut oobaaray. 2. Bhuv saagur sookh saagur maahi. Peev(i) ruhay jul nikhootut naahi. 3. Keh(i) Kabir bhuj(u) Saaringpaani. Ram ooduk(i) mayri tikha boojhaani. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Julut = burning (with the fire of desires). Ram Jul = Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. Ooduk(i) = holy water. Boojhaaya = put out (the fire). Pause.
Jul(u) = water. Bhugvunt = God. 1. Paavuk = fire (of desires). Soor = gods. Oobaaray = salvaged. 2. Bhuv Saagur = the world-sea (of Maya). Maahi = in (has become). Nikhootut = runs out. 3. Saaringpaani = Waheguru. Tikha = thirst (of desires). 4.

MEANING: I was burning with (suffering from) the fire of desires, but now I have sprayed my mind with the holy water of Waheguru's Naam, which has put out the fire and has saved me from the suffering. Pause. People go to the forests to kill their desires (control their mind), but the Naam-water (to put out the fire) cannot be had without Waheguru. 1.
The fire (of desires) which is burning the gods and the humans can be put out by Waheguru's Naam-water, which salvages them. 2. Waheguru's Naam-water never runs out, no matter how much you use it, and the sea of Maya becomes the sea of comforts (blissfulness). 3.
I am worshipping Waheguru whose Naam-Amrit has quenched all the thirst of my desires, oh Kabir. 4.1.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਮਾਧਉ ਜਲ ਕੀ ਪਿਆਸ ਨ ਜਾਇ॥ ਜਲ ਮਹਿ ਅਗਨਿ ਉਠੀ ਅਧਿਕਾਇ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਤੂੰ ਜਲਨਿਧਿ ਹਉ ਜਲ ਕਾ ਮੀਨੁ॥ ਜਲ ਮਹਿ ਰਹਉ ਜਲਹਿ ਬਿਨੁ ਖੀਨੁ॥ 1॥ ਤੂੰ ਪਿੰਜਰੁ ਹਉ ਸੂਆਟਾ ਤੋਰ॥ ਜਮੁ ਮੰਜਾਰੁ ਕਹਾ ਕਰੈ ਮੋਰ॥ 2॥ ਤੂ ਤਰਵਰੁ ਹਉ ਪੰਖੀ ਆਹਿ॥ ਮੰਦਭਾਗੀ ਤੇਰੋ ਦਰਸਨੁ ਨਾਹਿ॥ 3॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Madhou, jul kee piyaas na jaayay. Jul meh(i) ugun(i) ootthi adhikaayay. 1. Ruhaou. Toon julnidh(i) huoun jul ka meen(u). Jul meh(i) ruhoun juleh(i) bin(u) kheen(u). 1. Toon pinjur(u), huoun soouta Toar. Jum(u) munjaar(u) kuha kuraiy moar. 2. Tu turvur(u), huoun punkhi aah(i). Mundbhaagi, Tayro dershun(u) naah(i). 3.
(PAGE 324): Toon Satgur(u), huoun noutun(u) chayla. Keh(i) Kabir mil(u) unt kee bayla. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Madhou = oh, Waheguru. Jul = water; ocean (world-sea). Ugun(i) = fire (of desires). Adhikaayay = very much. Pause. Julnidh(i) = the ocean of Naam-Amrit. Kheen(u) = weak. 1. Pinjur(u) = cage. Soouta = parrot. Jum(u) = Angel of death. Munjaar(u) = cat. 2. Turvur(u) = tree. Aah(i) = is; am. Mundbhaagi = unfortunate. 3. Noutun(u) Chayla = new disciple. Unt Kee Bayla = time of death. 4.

MEANING: The thirst for the water of worldly desires does not go away; actually, it becomes more intense with time, oh my Lord. Pause. You are the ocean (source) of the Naam-water, and I am a fish in there. As long as I stay in Your Naam-water, I survive (am spiritually healthy), but I become weak (spiritually) without Your Naam-water. 1.
I am like a weak parrot, but You are my cage (where I am safe), so what harm can the cat of death cause me? (Birds are afraid of being prey to cats). 2.
I am like a bird, and You are like a tree (my safe home); but I am unfortunate not to have yet had a glimpse of Yours (not to connect with You). 3. You are the eternal Guru, and I am a new disciple (an inexperienced one who does not know how to please you). But, I, Kabir, pray to You to show me Your holy sight as the time of my death is near. 4.2.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਜਬ ਹਮ ਏਕੋ ਏਕੁ ਕਰਿ ਜਾਨਿਆ॥ ਤਬ ਲੋਗਹ ਕਾਹੇ ਦੁਖੁ ਮਾਨਿਆ॥ 1॥ ਹਮ ਅਪਤਹ ਅਪੁਨੀ ਪਤਿ ਖੋਈ॥ ਹਮਰੈ ਖੋਜਿ ਪਰਹੁ ਮਤਿ ਕੋਈ॥1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਹਮ ਮੰਦੇ ਮੰਦੇ ਮਨ ਮਾਹੀ॥ ਸਾਝ ਪਾਤਿ ਕਾਹੂ ਸਿਉ ਨਾਹੀ॥ 2॥ ਪਤਿ ਅਪਤਿ ਤਾ ਕੀ ਨਹੀ ਲਾਜ॥ ਤਬ ਜਾਨਹੁਗੇ ਜਬ ਉਘਰੈਗੋ ਪਾਜ॥ 3॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਪਤਿ ਹਰਿ ਪਰਵਾਨੁ॥ ਸਰਬ ਤਿਆਗਿ ਭਜੁ ਕੇਵਲ ਰਾਮੁ॥ 4॥3॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Jub hum Aiko, Aik(u) kur(i) jaaniya. Tub logeh kaahay dookh(u) maaniya. Hum uputeh, apuni put(i) khoyee. Humraiy khoaj(i) purhou mut(i) koyee. 1. Ruhaou. Hum munday, munday mun maahi. Saanjh paat(i) kaahoo siyoun naahi. 2. Put(i) uput(i), ta kee nuhee laaj. Tub jaanhougay, jub ooghuraiygo paaj. 3. Kuhou Kabir put(i) Hur(i) pervaan(u). Serb tiyaag(i) bhuj(u) kayvul Raam(u). 4.3.

Word Meaning: Put(i) = honour. Aputeh(i) = dishonoured. Khoaj = foot-prints; path. Mut(i) = do not do. Pause. Munday = bad; (with ill thoughts). Saanjh = Paat(i) = sharing of honour; competition. 2. Laaj = shame; worry. Ooghuraiygo = will become public. Paaj = shameful acts. 3. Tiyaag = relinquish. 4.

MEANING: When I recognized the one and the only Waheguru, what caused the people to feel hurt, oh Kabir? 1. If people think that I have lost my dignity (by worshipping God because it was contrary to the prevalent idol worship), then there is no need for anyone to follow my footsteps (path of worship). Pause. Maybe I am as bad as others see me, but if I am really bad, it is only in my mind, as I do not share my feelings with others. 2. I am not worried about my respect or disrespect; it will become clear to the public when people's shameful acts are uncovered. 3.
The only respect that counts is the one approved by God. So, I have relinquished everything else (all rituals) and recite God's Naam only, oh, Kabir. 4.3.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਨਗਨ ਫਿਰਤ ਜੌ ਪਾਈਐ ਜੋਗੁ॥ ਬਨ ਕਾ ਮਿਰਗੁ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਸਭੁ ਹੋਗੁ॥ 1॥ ਕਿਆ ਨਾਗੇ ਕਿਆ ਬਾਧੇ ਚਾਮ॥ ਜਬ ਨਹੀ ਚੀਨਸਿ ਆਤਮ ਰਾਮ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਮੂੰਡ ਮੁੰਡਾਏ ਜੌ ਸਿਧਿ ਪਾਈ॥ ਮੁਕਤੀ ਭੇਡ ਨ ਗਈਆ ਕਾਈ॥ 2॥ ਬਿੰਦੁ ਰਾਖਿ ਜੌ ਤਰੀਐ ਭਾਈ॥ ਖੁਸਰੈ ਕਿਉ ਨ ਪਰਮ ਗਤਿ ਪਾਈ॥ 3॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਸੁਨਹੁ ਨਰ ਭਾਈ॥ ਰਾਮ ਨਾਮ ਬਿਨੁ ਕਿਨਿ ਗਤਿ ਪਾਈ॥ 4॥4॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Nugun phirut jaou paayiyaiy joag(u). Bun ka mirg(u) mookut(i) subh(u) hoag(u). 1. Kiya naangay, kiya baandhay chaam. Jub nuhee cheenus(i) Aatum Ram. 1. Ruhaou. Moond moondaayay jo sidh(i) paayee. Mookti bhayd na guyyiya kaayee. 2. Bind(u) raakh(i) jaou turiyaiy bhaayee. Khoosraiy kiyoun na perm gut(i) paayee. 3. Kuhou Kabir soonhou nur bhaayee. Ram Naam bin(u) kin(i) gut(i) paayee. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Joag(u) = union with God. Mirg = deer. Mookut(i) = liberated. 1. Chaam = leather. Cheenus(i) = recognizes; makes a connection. Aatum Ram= Waheguru. Pause. Moond = head. Moondaayay = shave. Sidh(i) = success (union with Waehguru). Bhayd = sheep. Bind Raakh(i) = celibacy. Khoosray = eunuch. Perm Gut = highest spiritual state. 3. Nur = man (human). 4.

NOTE: Hindus had been using (and some of them still do) different approaches to please their gods, which included staying naked, covering their bodies with leather (animal hides), shaving their heads, practicing celibacy, etc. Kabir Sahib disapproves of all such practices and emphasizes the worship of God (Waheguru) only.

MEANING: If one could achieve union with God by staying naked, then all the deer (and other animals) would have been emancipated (from the bonds of Maya). 1.
What good does staying naked, or covering one's body with a hide, do if he does not recognize (make a connection with) God? Pause. If one could achieve his objective (of connecting with his deity) by shaving his head, why has no sheep been salvaged? 2. If one could swim across the sea of Maya by practising celibacy, then why does not a eunuch achieve the highest spiritual level? 3. The only message I want to deliver to my human brothers is that nobody can attain a high spiritual state without God's (Waheguru's) Naam, oh Kabir. 4.4.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਸੰਧਿਆ ਪ੍ਰਾਤ ਇਸਨਾਨੁ ਕਰਾਹੀ॥ ਜਿਉ ਭਏ ਦਾਦੁਰ ਪਾਨੀ ਮਾਹੀ॥ 1॥ ਜਉਪੈ ਰਾਮ ਰਾਮ ਰਤਿ ਨਾਹੀ॥ ਤੇ ਸਭਿ ਧਰਮ ਰਾਇ ਕੈ ਜਾਹੀ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਕਾਇਆ ਰਤਿ ਬਹੁ ਰੂਪ ਰਚਾਹੀ॥ ਤਿਨ ਕਉ ਦਇਆ ਸੁਪਨੈ ਭੀ ਨਾਹੀ॥ 2॥ ਚਾਰਿ ਚਰਨ ਕਹਹਿ ਬਹੁ ਆਗਰ॥ ਸਾਧੂ ਸੁਖੁ ਪਾਵਹਿ ਕਲਿ ਸਾਗਰ॥ 3॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਬਹੁ ਕਾਇ ਕਰੀਜੈ॥ ਸਰਬਸੁ ਛੋਡਿ ਮਹਾ ਰਸੁ ਪੀਜੈ॥ 4॥5॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Sundhiya praat ishnaan(u) kuraahi. Jiyoun bhuyay daadur paani maahi. 1. Juoupaiy Ram Ram rut(i) naahi. Tay subh(i) Dherm Raayay kaiy jaahi. 1. Ruhaou. Kaayaan rut(i) buhou roop ruchaahi. Tin kuou duyya soopnaiy bhee naahi. 2. Chaar(i) Churn kuheh(i) buhou Aagur. Sadhu sookh(u) paaveh(i) kul(i) saagur. 3. Kuhou Kabir buhou kaayay kureejaiy. Serbus(u) chhoad(i) muha rus(u) peejaiy. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Sandhiya = evening. Praat = morning. Daadur = frogs. 1. Juoupaiy = Until. Rut(i) = imbued in love. Pause. Roop = (beautiful) looks. Ruchahi = create; fashion. Duyya = compassion. 2. Chaar(i) Churn = the four Vedas. Aagur = leaders; learned people. Kul(i) Saagur = the era of Kalyug (in the world). Buhou = many things. Muha Rus(u) = the supreme taste (of Waheguru's Naam). 4.

MEANING: the Brahman bathes the stone-idol, and also bathes himself in the morning and in the evening. If taking a dip emancipates him from the bonds of Maya, all the frogs should be emancipated because they live in water all the time. 1. Until one is imbued in the love of Waheguru, he has to appear before the Angel of justice for punishment, no matter how many rituals he performs. Pause. Those who love their bodies and adorn them in many different ways to look attractive have no compassion for others, even in their dreams. 2. Some learned people recite the four Vedas (but enjoy no peace); only the holy men enjoy bliss in this world of disagreements. 3. Kabir (Ji) says (advises) that rather than performing many different rituals, just drink the supreme juice of God's Naam. 4.5.

ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ ਗਉੜੀ॥ ਕਿਆ ਜਪੁ ਕਿਆ ਤਪੁ ਕਿਆ ਬ੍ਰਤ ਪੂਜਾ॥ ਜਾ ਕੈ ਰਿਦੈ ਭਾਉ ਹੈ ਦੂਜਾ॥ 1॥ ਰੇ ਜਨ ਮਨੁ ਮਾਧਉ ਸਿਉ ਲਾਈਐ॥ ਚਤੁਰਾਈ ਨ ਚਤੁਰਭੁਜੁ ਪਾਈਐ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਪਰਹਰੁ ਲੋਭੁ ਅਰੁ ਲੋਕਾਚਾਰੁ॥ ਪਰਹਰੁ ਕਾਮੁ ਕ੍ਰੋਧੁ ਅਹੰਕਾਰੁ॥ 2॥ ਕਰਮ ਕਰਤ ਬਧੇ ਅਹੰਮੇਵ॥ ਮਿਲਿ ਪਾਥਰ ਕੀ ਕਰਹੀ ਸੇਵ॥ 3॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਭਗਤਿ ਕਰਿ ਪਾਇਆ॥ ਭੋਲੇ ਭਾਇ ਮਿਲੇ ਰਘੁਰਾਇਆ॥ 4॥6॥

Kabir Ji Gaurri: Kiya jup(u), kiya tup(u), kiya bert, pooja. Ja kaiy ridaiy bhaaou haiy dooja. 1. Ray jun, mun(u) Maadho siyoun laayiyaiy. Chuturaayi na Chaturbhooj(u) paayiyaiy. 1. Ruhaou. Perhur(u) loabh(u) ur(u) loakachaar(u). Perhur(u) kaam(u) kroadh(u) ahunkaar. 2. Kerm kert bundhay ahunmayv. Mil(i) paathur kee kurhee sayv. 3. Kuhou Kabir bhugut(i) kur(i) paaya. Bhoalay bhaayay milay Raghuraaya. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Jup(u) = recitation of some ritualistic mantras. Tup(u) = enduring personal hardships to please some god. Bert = fasting. Ridaiy = in the heart. Bhaaou = love. 1. Maadho = Chaturbhooj = Raghuraayiya = (different names for) Waheguru. Pause. Perhur(u) = push away; get rid of. Loakachaar = worrying about what people will say; caring about mass following. Kerm Kert = performing rituals. Budhay = increases. 3. Bhoalay Bhaaou = innocent affection (without expecting any return). 4.

MEANING: What good is the recitation of any mantra, self-affliction, fasting, or worshipping a deity, if there is love for the other (Maya) (than God) in mind? 1. Foster love for God in your mind; you cannot get connected with Him by any cleverness, oh my friend. Pause. Get rid of your greed, your lust, rage, and your ego, and don't pay any attention to the comments of people. 2. Performing rituals, like worshipping a stone idol by inviting a gathering, simply enhances one's ego. 3. I wish to tell people that you realize God only by worshipping Him in an innocent way (with a clean mind), oh Kabir. 4.6.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਗਰਭ ਵਾਸ ਮਹਿ ਕੁਲੁ ਨਹੀ ਜਾਤੀ॥ ਬ੍ਰਹਮ ਬਿੰਦੁ ਤੇ ਸਭ ਉਤਪਾਤੀ॥ 1॥ ਕਹੁ ਰੇ ਪੰਡਿਤ ਬਾਮਨ ਕਬ ਕੇ ਹੋਏ॥ ਬਾਮਨ ਕਹਿ ਕਹਿ ਜਨਮੁ ਮਤ ਖੋਏ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਜੌ ਤੂੰ ਬ੍ਰਾਹਮਣੁ ਬ੍ਰਹਮਣੀ ਜਾਇਆ॥ ਤਉ ਆਨ ਬਾਟ ਕਾਹੇ ਨਹੀ ਆਇਆ॥ 2॥ ਤੁਮ ਕਤ ਬ੍ਰਾਹਮਣ ਹਮ ਕਤ ਸੂਦ॥ ਹਮ ਕਤ ਲੋਹੂ ਤੁਮ ਕਤ ਦੂਧ॥ 3॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੋ ਬ੍ਰਹਮੁ ਬੀਚਾਰੇ॥ ਸੋ ਬ੍ਰਾਹਮਣੁ ਕਹੀਅਤ ਹੈ ਹਮਾਰੇ॥ 4॥7॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Gerbh vaas meh(i) kool(u) nuhee jaati. Braham bind(u) tay subh ootpaati. 1. Kuhou ray pundit, Bahman kub kay hoayay? Bahman keh(i) keh(i) junum(u) mut khoyay. 1. Ruhaou. Juou toon Brahman, Brahmani jaaya. Tuou aan baat kaahay nuhee aaya? 2. Toom kut Brahman, hum kut shood? Hum kut lohoo, toom kut doodh? 3. Kuhou Kabir jo Braham beechaaray. So Brahman(u) kuhiut haiy humaaray. 4.7.

Word Meaning: Gerbh Vaas = in the mother's womb. Braham Bind(u) = a part of God. Ootpaati = produced; came into being. 1. Bahman = Brahman = one who has knowledge of the Braham (Waheguru); a caste in India considered to be the supreme among all others. Pause. Jaaya = born of. Aan Baat = some other path. Kut = how? Shood = the lowest class in the Indian hierarchy; untouchables. 3.

MEANING: A fetus does not belong to any caste or clan in the mother's womb because every human being is born as a part of the same God. 1. Tell me, since when have you acquired knowledge of (connected with) God, oh Pundit? Do not waste away your human life in the conceit of being a Brahman. Pause. If you are really a Brahman, born of a Brahman mother, why did you not come into this world using some other path? 2. How is this, that you are a Brahman and I am an untouchable? And how is this, that I have blood in my veins and you have milk? 3. In our circle, we call a man a Brahman, who ponders on (the Naam of) God (gets connected with Him), oh Kabir. 4.7.

NOTE: Kabir Sahib belonged to a low-caste weaver community, which was treated with disdain by Brahmans. Using strong wording, Kabir Sahib questions the superiority of the Brahmans.

(ਅੰਗ 325)॥ ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਅੰਧਕਾਰ ਸੁਖਿ ਕਬਹਿ ਨ ਸੋਈ ਹੈ॥ ਰਾਜਾ ਰੰਕੁ ਦੋਊ ਮਿਲਿ ਰੋਈ ਹੈ॥ 1॥ ਜਉਪੈ ਰਸਨਾ ਰਾਮੁ ਨ ਕਹਿਬੋ॥ ਉਪਜਤ ਬਿਨਸਤ ਰੋਵਤ ਰਹਿਬੋ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਜਸ ਦੇਖੀਐ ਤਰਵਰ ਕੀ ਛਾਇਆ॥ ਪ੍ਰਾਨ ਗਏ ਕਹੁ ਕਾ ਕੀ ਮਾਇਆ॥ 2॥ ਜਸ ਜੰਤੀ ਮਹਿ ਜੀਉ ਸਮਾਨਾ॥ ਮੂਏ ਮਰਮੁ ਕੋ ਕਾ ਕਰ�ि ਜਾਨਾ॥ 3॥ ਹੰਸਾ ਸਰਵਰ ਕਾਲੁ ਸਰੀਰ॥ ਰਾਮ ਰਸਾਇਨ ਪੀਉ ਰੇ ਕਬੀਰ॥ 4॥8॥

(PAGE 325): Gaurri Kabir Ji: Undhkaar sookh(i) kubeh(i) na soyee haiy. Raja, runk, doyoo mil(i) rooyee haiy. 1. Juopaiy rusna Ram(u) na kehibo. Oopjut binsut rovut rehibo. 1. Ruahou. Jus daykhiyaiy turvur kee chhaaya. Praan guyay, kuhou ka kee Maya. 2. Jus juntee meh(i) jeeo smaana. Mooyay murm(u) ko ka kur(i) jaana. 3. Hunsaan survur, kaal(u) sreer. Ram rusaayin peeo ray Kabir. 4.8.

Word Meaning: Undhkaar = darkness of ignorance. Kubeh(i) Na = never. Runk(u) = pauper. 1. Juoupaiy = until. Oopjut = produced; born. Binsut = destroyed; die. Pause. Jus = as. Turvur = tree. Chhaaya = shade. 2. Junti = musical instrument. Jeeo = music. Smaana = gets absorbed. Murm(u) = secret. 3. Huns = swan. Survur = pool of water (lake). Kaal(u) = death. Rusaayin = source of all juices (tastes). 4.

MEANING: Nobody can sleep in peace with the darkness of ignorance. Both the king (rich) and the pauper cry together (suffer equally). 1. Until you recite God's Naam with the tongue, you will continue to be born and to die, oh my friends. Pause.
Just as you watch the shade of a tree disappear in darkness (it separates from the tree), the soul separates from the body (and the wealth) on death; so, what good is the wealth to the soul (which goes to the next world) after death? 2. Just as the music gets absorbed in the instrument (it comes to an end) when the instrument is not being played, the soul gets absorbed in the source which produced it (Waheguru) after death, and nobody knows where it went (nothing accompanies the soul). 3. Just as the swans stay close to water, death stays very close to the human body (no one knows when death will pounce on him); so, drink the essence of all sweet juices – Waheguru's Naam- (before it is too late), oh Kabir. 4.8.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਜੋਤਿ ਕੀ ਜਾਤ ਜਾਤ ਕੀ ਜੋਤੀ॥ ਤਿਤੁ ਲਾਗੇ ਕੰਚੁਆ ਫਲ ਮੋਤੀ॥ 1॥ ਕਵਨੁ ਸੁ ਘਰੁ ਜੋ ਨਿਰਭਉ ਕਹੀਐ॥ ਭਉ ਭਜਿ ਜਾਇ ਅਭੈ ਹੋਇ ਰਹੀਐ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਤਟਿ ਤੀਰਥਿ ਨਹੀ ਮਨੁ ਪਤੀਆਇ॥ ਚਾਰ ਅਚਾਰ ਰਹੇ ਉਰਝਾਇ॥ 2॥ ਪਾਪ ਪੁੰਨ ਦੁਇ ਏਕ ਸਮਾਨ॥ ਨਿਜ ਘਰਿ ਪਾਰਸੁ ਤਜਹੁ ਗੁਨ ਆਨ॥ 3॥ ਕਬੀਰ ਨਿਰਗੁਣ ਨਾਮ ਨ ਰੋਸੁ॥ ਇਸੁ ਪਰਚਾਇ ਪਰਚਿ ਰਹੁ ਏਸੁ॥ 4॥9॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Joat(i) kee jaat, jaat kee joati. Tit(u) laagay kunchooa ful moti. 1. Kuvun(u) su ghur(u) jo nirbhuou kuhiyaiy. Bhuou bhuj(i) jaayay, ubhaiy hoyay ruhiyaiy. 1. Ruhaou. Tut(i) teeruth(i) nuhee mun(u) putiyaayay. Chaar achaar ruhay oorjhaayay. 2. Paap poonn doyay aik smaan. Nij ghur(i) paarus(u), tujuou goon aan. 3. Kabir nirgoon Naam na roas(u). Iss(u) perchaayay, perch(i) ruhou ais(u). 4.9.

Word Meaning: Joat(i) = Waheguru's Light (Soul). Jaat = living beings. Joati = light; soul. Kunchooa = glass (cheap and easily breakable); poor qualities. Moti = pearls (expensive and very hard to break); noble qualities. 1. Ghur(u) = shelter. Nirbhuou = fearless. Bhuou = fear. Bhuj(i) Jaayay = run away; disappear. Abhaiy = fearless. Pause.
Tut(i) = bank of a river. Teeruth = holy place. Putiyaayay = like; bring faith. Chaar Achaar = noble deeds (as per the norms of the society). Oorjhaayay = entangled. 2.

Poonn = accepted noble deeds. Paarus(u) = elixir-stone (Waheguru). Tujhou = relinquish. Aan = others. 3. Nirgoon Ram = Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya. Perchaayay = get interested. 4.9.

MEANING: Human soul is a part of Waheguru's Soul; but some souls bear bad qualities, while others bear good qualities as fruit (get rewards as per their deeds). 1.

Which shelter can be considered to provide freedom from fear so that all worldly fears disappear, and the man becomes fearless? Pause. The mind does not get convinced to develop faith in Waheguru at spiritually accepted places like the banks of some rivers or holy places. It simply stays entangled in following the accepted noble deeds (living) as per society's norms. 2. Sins, and the accepted noble deeds are the same (produce the same results) (because even most of the accepted noble deeds are spiritually worthless, and rather enhance one's ego). (The best thing to do is to) Enshrine Waheguru's Naam in your heart, and quit efforts for all other qualities or deeds. 3.

Do not show any resentment towards Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya; rather, bring faith in Him, and stay interested in Him (recite His Naam), oh Kabir. 4.9.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਜੋ ਜਨ ਪਰਮਿਤਿ ਪਰਮਨੁ ਜਾਨਾ॥ ਬਾਤਨ ਹੀ ਬੈਕੁੰਠ ਸਮਾਨਾ॥ 1॥ ਨਾ ਜਾਨਾ ਬੈਕੁੰਠੁ ਕਹਾ ਹੀ॥ ਜਾਨੁ ਜਾਨੁ ਸਭਿ ਕਹਹਿ ਤਹਾ ਹੀ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਕਹਨ ਕਹਾਵਨ ਨਹ ਪਤੀਅਈ ਹੈ॥ ਤਉ ਮਨੁ ਮਾਨੈ ਜਾ ਤੇ ਹਉਮੈ ਜਈ ਹੈ॥ 2॥ ਜਬ ਲਗੁ ਮਨਿ ਬੈਕੁੰਠ ਕੀ ਆਸ॥ ਤਬ ਲਗੁ ਹੋਇ ਨਹੀ ਚਰਨ ਨਿਵਾਸੁ॥ 3॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਇਹ ਕਹੀਐ ਕਾਹਿ॥ ਸਾਧ ਸੰਗਤਿ ਬੈਕੁੰਠੈ ਆਹਿ॥ 4॥10॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Jo jun permit(i) permun(u) jaana. Baatun hee baiykoontth smaana. Na jaana, baiykoontth(u) kuhaa hee. Jaan(u), jaan(u) subh(i) kuheh(i) tuhaa hee. 1. Ruhaou. Kehn, kuhaavun neh putiyuyee haiy. Tuou mun(u) maanaiy, ja tay haumein juyee haiy. 2. Jub lug(u) mun(i) baiykoontth kee aas. Tub lug hoyay nuhee Churn nivaas(u). 3. Kuhou Kabir ih kuhiyaiy kaah(i). Sadh sungut(i) baiykoontthaiy aah(i). 4.10.

Word Meaning: Permit(i) = beyond measurements. Permun(u) = beyond the mind (incomprehensible). Baiykoontth = paradise. 1. Putiyuyee = gets convinced. Haumein = selfishness and ego. 2. Churn = (Waheguru's) feet; Waheguru. 3.

MEANING: Everybody says (wishes) to go to paradise, but I have no idea where such paradise is. Pause. Those who claim to have realized the immeasurable and the incomprehensible God only talk about paradise (without having any knowledge). 1.

The human mind does not get convinced simply by describing (God) or by hearing about (Him) from others. Only that mind gets convinced (about God) which has gotten rid of its haumein. 2. As long as the man has hope for paradise, Waheguru will not take dwelling in his mind. 3. It does not need to be said (emphasized) that Waheguru resides in the holy gathering, oh Kabir. 4.10

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਉਪਜੈ ਨਿਪਜੈ ਨਿਪਜਿ ਸਮਾਈ॥ ਨੈਨਹੁ ਦੇਖਤ ਇਹੁ ਜਗ ਜਾਈ॥ 1॥ ਲਾਜ ਨ ਮਰਹੁ ਕਹਹੁ ਘਰੁ ਮੇਰਾ॥ ਅੰਤ ਕੀ ਬਾਰ ਨਹੀ ਕਛੁ ਤੇਰਾ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਅਨਿਕ ਜਤਨ ਕਰਿ ਕਾਇਆ ਪਾਲੀ॥ ਮਰਤੀ ਬਾਰ ਅਗਨਿ ਸੰਗਿ ਜਾਲੀ॥ 2॥ ਚੋਆ ਚੰਦਨੁ ਮਰਦਨ ਅੰਗਾ॥ ਸੋ ਤਨੁ ਜਲੈ ਕਾਠ ਕੈ ਸੰਗਾ॥ 3॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਸੁਨਹੁ ਰੇ ਗੁਨੀਆ॥ ਬਿਨਸੈਗੋ ਰੂਪੁ ਦੇਖੈ ਸਭ ਦੁਨੀਆ॥ 4॥11॥

Kuhou Kabir soonhou ray goonia, Binsaiygo roop(u) daykhaiy subh dooniya. 4.11.

Word Meaning: Opjaiy = is produced; is born. Nipjaiy = grows; matures. Smaayee= is absorbed (into Waheguru). 1. Laaj = shame. 2. Kaaya = body. Paali = raised. 2. Choaa = essences of roses and other flowers; colognes. Chundun = sandal-oil. Merdun = massages. Unga = body parts. Kaatth = wood. 3. Gooniya = a man with good qualities; a wise man. Binsaiy = vanishes. 4.
MEANING: The man is born, he grows (is raised), and finally he dies. Everybody leaves this world in front of the eyes of the survivors. 1. So, should not the man feel ashamed when he claims this world to be his (permanent) home (when he is here only as a visitor)? At the end, nothing accompanies him. Pause. The man nourishes his body with great effort, but it is burned with wood after death. 2. He massages his body with different fragrances, which are put on a wooden fire at the end. 3. Listen, oh wise man, the whole world will see your beauty (beautiful body) vanish at your death, says Kabir. 4.11.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਅਵਰ ਮੂਏ ਕਿਆ ਸੋਗੁ ਕਰੀਜੈ॥ ਤਉ ਕੀਜੈ ਜਉ ਆਪਨ ਜੀਜੈ॥ 1॥ ਮੈ ਨ ਮਰਉ ਮਰਿਬੋ ਸੰਸਾਰਾ॥ ਅਬ ਮੋਹਿ ਮਿਲਿਓ ਹੈ ਜੀਆਵਨਹਾਰਾ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਇਆ ਦੇਹੀ ਪਰਮਲ ਮਹਕੰਦਾ॥ ਤਾ ਸੁਖ ਬਿਸਰੇ ਪਰਮਾਨੰਦਾ॥ 2॥ ਕੂਅਟਾ ਏਕੁ ਪੰਚ ਪਨਿਹਾਰੀ॥ ਟੂਟੀ ਲਾਜੁ ਭਰੈ ਮਤਿ ਹਾਰੀ॥ 3॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਇਕ ਬੁਧਿ ਬੀਚਾਰੀ॥ ਨਾ ਓਹੁ ਕੂਅਟਾ ਨਾ ਪਨਿਹਾਰੀ॥ 4॥12॥
Gaurri Kabir Ji: Uver mooyay, kiya soag(u) kureejaiy. Tuou keejaiy, juou aapun jeejaiy. 1. Main na muroun muribo sunsaara. Ub moh(i) miliyo haiy Jeeaavunhaara. 1. Ruhaou. Iya dayhi permul mehkunda. Ta sookh bisray Permanunda. 2. Koouta aik punch punihaari. Tootee laaj(u) bhuraiy mut(i) haari. Kuhou Kabir ikk boodh(i) beechaari. Na oh(u) koouta, na punihari. 4.12.
Word Meaning: Uver = others. Soag(u) = grief. Jeejaiy = live forever. 1. Jeeaavunhaara = life giver (God). Pause. Dayhi = body. Permul Mehkunda = fragrance of colognes. Permanunda = source of supreme bliss (Waheguru). 2. Koouta = well-like body which contains good qualities rather than water. Punch Punihaari = the five demons which draw the water of good qualities (rob the human body of good qualities) from the body-well. Laaj(u) = the rope tied to the bucket used to draw water. Mut(i) Haari = devoid of wisdom. 3. Boodh(i) = wisdom; bright idea. Beechaari = thought of.
MEANING: It is useless to grieve the death of others (some relative); it makes sense to grieve only if one is going to live forever. 1. But I have found a solution; I have connected with Waheguru, which is the source of life. Now, I will not die (because I will merge with the immortal Waheguru) while the rest of the world will have to die. Pause.
The man adorns his body with fragrances to feel happy, and while enjoying the comfort, he forgets Waheguru, which is the source of supreme bliss. 2. (When the man forgets Waheguru), Like a person who draws water from a well, the five demons – lust, rage, greed, attachment, and ego - rob the man of his good qualities, while he is enjoying sensual pleasures. The man, devoid of wisdom, allows the demons to continue robbing him of good qualities (the man enjoys sensual pleasures) even when the thread of his life is about to break (he is near death). 3. I have pondered on a wise idea, and (with God's grace) I have controlled my sensual pleasures, and sealed the body well to prevent the loss of noble qualities. So, there is no open well (which can be robbed), and no demons to rob, oh Kabir. 4.12.

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Usthaavur, jungum, keet, ptunga. Anik junum keeyay buhou runga.1

(PAGE 326): Aisay ghur hum buhout busaayay. Jub hum Ram gerbh hoyay aayay. 1. Ruhaou. Joagi, jutee, tupee, brahamchaari. Kubhoon raja chhutarput(i), kubhoon bhaykhaari. 2. Saakut mureh(i), sunt subh(i) jeeveh(i). Ram rusaayin(u) rusna peeveh(i). Kuhou Kabir Prubh kirpa keejaiy. Haar puray ub poora deejaiy. 4.13.

Word Meaning: Usthaavur = immovable life (trees, vegetation). Jungum = the animals that move around. Keet = ants (and other small life). Ptunga = moth and other insects. Buhou Runga = different life forms. 1. Ghur = hearts (bodies). Gerbh = in the womb. Pause. Jutee = celibate. Tupee = those who endure physical hardships to please some god. Brahamchaari = virgin. Chhutarput(i) = with royal canopy. 2. Saakut = lover of Maya. Rusaayin = source of all sweetness (Waheguru's Naam). 3. Haar Puray = having exhausted all options; finally. Poora Deejaiy = connect with the Perfect (God). 4.

MEANING: I had lived through many different life forms going through the mother's womb, oh Waheguru. Pause. I have lived as vegetation, as moving animals, as ants, and as insects, countless times, and taken many different body forms. 1. Sometimes, I lived as a yogi, a celibate, a "tupee", or as a virgin. Other times I lived as a king with a royal canopy over me, and also as a beggar. 2. All the Maya-lovers die, and take rebirths, whereas the holy saints recite God's Naam, which is the essence of all the sweet juices, with the tongue, and spend their whole life staying connected with Him. 3. I pray to Waheguru that He be kind to me and connect me with Him as I have finally come to His shelter, oh Kabir. 4.13.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ ਕੀ ਨਾਲਿ ਰਲਾਇ ਲਿਖਿਆ ਮਹਲਾ 5॥ ਐਸੋ ਅਚਰਜੁ ਦੇਖਿਓ ਕਬੀਰ॥ ਦਧਿ ਕੈ ਭੋਲੈ ਬਿਰੋਲੈ ਨੀਰੁ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਹਰੀ ਅੰਗੂਰੀ ਗਦਹਾ ਚਰੈ॥ ਨਿਤ ਉਠਿ ਹਾਸੈ ਹੀਗੈ ਮਰੈ॥ 1॥ ਮਾਤਾ ਭੈਸਾ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਹਾ ਜਾਇ॥ ਕੁਦਿ ਕੁਦਿ ਚਰੈ ਰਸਾਤਲਿ ਪਾਇ॥ 2॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਪਰਗਟੁ ਭਈ ਖੇਡ॥ ਲੇਲੇ ਕਉ ਚੂਘੈ ਨਿਤ ਭੇਡ॥ 3॥ ਰਾਮ ਰਮਤ ਮਤਿ ਪਰਗਟੀ ਆਈ॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਗੁਰਿ ਸੋਝੀ ਪਾਈ॥ 4॥1॥14॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji with an addition by Mehla 5: Aiso achurj(u) daykhiou Kabir. Dudh(i) kay bholay biroalaiy neer(u). 1. Ruhaou. Hurie angoori gudha churaiy. Nit ootth(i) haasay, heengaiy muraiy. 1. Maata bhaiynsa amoonha jaayay. Kood(i) kood(i) churaiy, rusaatul(i) paayay. 2. Kuhou Kabir, pergut bhuyee khayd. Laylay kuou choonghaiy nit bhayd. 3. Ram rumut mut(i) perguti aayee. Kuhou Kabir Gur(i) sojhi paayee. 4.1.14.

Word Meaning: Achurj = amazing thing. Dudh(i) = yogurt. Bholaiy = mistaking for. Biroalaiy = churns. Neer(u) = water. Pause. Hurie Angoori = fresh and green vegetation (attractive and lustful acts). Gudha = donkey (foolish). Churaiy = grazes; enjoys. Heengaiy = brays; flaunts. 1. Maata = intoxicated. Bhaiynsa = male buffalo. Amoonha = uncontrolled. Rusaatul(i) = hell. 2. Layla = lamb. Choonghaiy = sucks. 3. Rumut = remembering; reciting Naam. Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment.

MEANING: I have noticed an amazing thing: to obtain butter, the foolish man is churning water, mistaking it for yogurt (performing rituals that are worthless for spirituality). Pause. Like a donkey, which grazes on green and fresh vegetation, the foolish man enjoys attractive and lustful events. Like a donkey which brays in happiness, the idiot man flaunts his immoral achievements and dies a spiritual death. 1. Like an intoxicated male buffalo (which is known for its pig-headedness), the foolish man behaves with no control over his sensual pleasures. He enjoys his immoral acts and eventually goes to hell. 2.

The reality of this drama has become clear to me that the sheep (Maya) is sucking the lamb (the man) (The man, who is supposed to use Maya as his slave, is rather being enslaved by Maya), oh Kabir. 3. Because of my reciting Waheguru's Naam, the Guru has kindly enlightened my mind to grant me this understanding, oh Kabir. 4.1.14.
NOTE: As is clear from the heading of this Shabad, Guru Arjun Sahib has also contributed to it and added the last verse (italicized above) to clarify what made the drama clear to Kabir Sahib. Kabir Sahib had simply said that the drama had become clear to him, but not how. He had ended the Shabad with the third verse. In the last sentence, Guru Sahib explains how Kabir Sahib came to understand that. Note also the numbering at the end. It is different from the rest.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ ਪੰਚਪਦੇ॥ ਜਿਉ ਜਲ ਛੋਡਿ ਬਾਹਰਿ ਭਇਓ ਮੀਨਾ॥ ਪੂਰਬ ਜਨਮ ਹਉ ਤਪ ਕਾ ਹੀਨਾ॥ 1॥ ਅਬ ਕਹੁ ਰਾਮ ਕਵਨ ਗਤਿ ਮੋਰੀ॥ ਤਜੀਲੇ ਬਨਾਰਸਿ ਮਤਿ ਭਈ ਥੋਰੀ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਸਗਲ ਜਨਮੁ ਸਿਵਪੁਰੀ ਗਵਾਇਆ॥ ਮਰਤੀ ਬਾਰ ਮਗਹਰਿ ਉਠਿ ਆਇਆ॥ 2॥ ਬਹੁਤੁ ਬਰਸ ਤਪੁ ਕੀਆ ਕਾਸੀ॥ ਮਰਨੁ ਭਇਆ ਮਗਹਰ ਕੀ ਬਾਸੀ॥ 3॥ ਕਾਸੀ ਮਗਹਰ ਸਮ ਬੀਚਾਰੀ॥ ਓਛੀ ਭਗਤਿ ਕੈਸੇ ਉਤਰਸਿ ਪਾਰੀ॥ 4॥ ਕਹੁ ਗੁਰ ਗਜ ਸਿਵ ਸਭੁ ਕੋ ਜਾਨੈ॥ ਮੂਆ ਕਬੀਰੁ ਰਮਤ ਸ੍ਰੀ ਰਾਮੇ॥ 5॥ 15॥
Gaurri Kabir Ji punchpuday: Jiyoun jul chhoad(i) baahur(i) bhuyyo meena. Poorub junum huoun tup ka heena. 1. Ub kuhou Ram kuvun gut(i) moari. Tujilay Benaras(i) mut(i) bhuyee thoari. 1. Ruhaou. Sugul junum Shivpuri guvaaya. Merti baar Mug-hur(i) ootth(i) aaya. 2. Buhout bers tup keeya Kanshi. Mern(u) bhuyya, Mug-hur kee baasi. 3. Kaanshi, Mug-hur sum beechaari. Oachhi bhugut kaisay ootrus(i) paari. 4. Kuhou gur Guj Shiv subh(u) ko jaanaiy. Mooa Kabir(u) rumut Sri Raamay. 5.15.
Word Meaning: Bhuyyo = became. Meena = fish. Poorub Junum = previous life. Tup = worship. Heena = devoid of. 1. Gut(i) = situation; condition. Tujilay = quit; left. Pause. Guvvaya = wasted; spent. 2. Kaanshi = Banaras. Bhuyya = happened. Baasi = residence. 3. Oachhi = not real – just a show off; eriousness; without maming any connection with God. 4. Guj = elephant. Gur Guj = Ganesh, who had an elephant's head. Mooa = died (as far as desires are concerned).
NOTE: People believe that a person who dies in Banaras (Kaanshi) (now Varanasi) goes to paradise, as the city is known as the city of Shiva. Mug-hur is another town believed to be the city of Ganesh, but it is cursed, and whoever dies there is believed to go to hell. In this holy Shabad, Kabir Sahib debunks this myth satirically and emphasizes the importance of Waheguru's Naam alone.
MEANING: I lost my mind when I left Banaras (because, as per the belief of the people, I would go to hell). Now, You tell me, oh, my God, what my condition (future) will be (I am in Your shelter). Pause. My situation is like a fish out of water; maybe I was devoid of Waheguru's worship in my previous life. I wasted my entire life in the city of Shiva (Banaras) (according to the people, the entire life I spent in Kaanshi went to waste because I left it), and I moved to Mug-hur near the time of my death. 2. (According to the popular belief), Simply by living in Kaanshi, one gets credit for many years of worship (which I lost) because I chose Mug-hur for death. But, for me, there is no difference between Kaanshi and Mug-hur. (No matter where one lives), How can he find salvation by worshipping without understanding (whom to worship)? 4. Everybody knows (worships) Shiva and Ganesh, but I killed my desires by reciting Waheguru's Naam, oh Kabir. 5.15.

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Choaa, chundun, merdun unga. So tun julaiy kaatth kaiy sunga. 1. Iss(u) tun dhun kee kuvun budaayee. Dhern(i) puraiy oorvaar(i), na jaayee. 1. Ruhaou. Raat(i) j(i) soveh(i), din kureh(i) kaam. Ikk(u) khin(u) layh(i) na Hur(i) ko Naam(u). 2. Haath(i) ta doar, mookh(i) khaayo tamboar. Merti baar kus(i) baandhiyo choar. 3. Sat(i) Ram(u), jhoottha subh(u) dhundha. 6.16.

Word Meaning: Choaa = colognes. Chundun = sandalwood oil. Merdun = massages. Kaatth = wood. 1. Kuvun = what? Budaayee = greatness; importance. Oorvaar = on this side; in this world. Pause. Khin = moment. 2. Doar = string (to hold prestigious birds like hawks). Tamboar = a wrap of betel leaves filled with tobacco and other spices. 3. Rus(i) = enjoying the taste. Raamaiy Ram = only God. 4. Drirrayee = reinforce. Baas Soogundh = fragrance. 5. Chayt(i) = remember. 6.

MEANING: The body, which the man massages with colognes and other fragrant oils, is burned with wood on death. 1. What is the importance (usefulness) of the body and the wealth which stay behind on the earth in this world, and do not accompany the man after death? Pause. The man spends the night sleeping, and the day working, and does not remember God even for a moment. 2. (Ignoring God) the man enjoys the luxuries of life, like, owning the prestigious birds of prey (like hawks), and chewing tamboars. But the thief (who tries to hide his immoral acts) is tied tightly (by the agents of death) at the end. 3. On the other hand, a devotee, acts on the Advice of the Guru, and sings praise of God while enjoying it. He enjoys bliss by reciting Waheguru's Naam only. 4. By His grace, the Guru reinforces Waheguru's Naam in the devotee's heart, as a result of which his body is filled with the fragrance of the Naam. 5. Remember God, oh the blind (ignorant) man. Only Waheguru's Naam is immortal while all other tasks are mortal (the results of which will not accompany the soul), advises Kabir. 6.16.

Gaurri Kabir Ji Tipuday, Chaar Tookay: Jum tay oolut(i) bhuyay haiyn Ram. Dookh binsay, sookh keeyay bisram. Baiyri oolut(i) bhuyay haiyn meeta. Saakut oolut(i) soojun bhuyay cheeta. 1. Ub moh(i) serb kooshul kur(i) maaniya. Shaant(i) bhuyee, jub Gobind jaaniya. 1. Ruhaou.

Tub jaaniya, jub jeevut mooaa. Kuhou Kabir sookh(i) sehj(i) smmavoun. Aap(i) na duroun, na uver draavoun. 3.17.

Word Meaning: Tipuday = having three verses. Chaar Tookay = having four lines.

Jum = Angel of death; frightening enemies. Oolut = turned around. Ram = god-like friends. Binsay = vanished. Bisram = came to rest. Saakut = worshippers of Maya; disconnected from God. Soojun = noble; pious. Cheeta = in mind. 1. Kooshul = all well. Shaant(i) = peaceful; blissful. Pause. Oopaadh(i) = ills. Sehj Smaadh(i) = concentration of mind unaffected by Maya. Aapaiy Aap = Waheguru alone. Biyaapaiy = affects. Teeno Taap = three types of illnesses (sufferings: mental; physical, and aggression by others. 2. Snaatun = original (pure, as at birth). Jeevut Mooaa = kill desires while living in the family. 3.

MEANING: Ever since I have realized Waheguru, my mind has become blissful, and all is well for me. Pause. All my frightening enemies (the five demons which could lead me on the path of spiritual death) have turned around and have become very helpful (are under my control). All my troubles are over, and comforts have made my mind their resting place. My enemies have turned into my friends (I do not think anyone is my enemy). My Maya-loving intentions have changed into noble (pious) thoughts. 1. I had many immoral thoughts in my mind, which have changed now, and I am enjoying the bliss of a peaceful mind, unaffected by Maya. By connecting with God, I have recognized myself (in terms of my objective in life), and now I see Waheguru all around me, and none of the three sufferings can affect me. 2. Now, my mind has turned around to become pure like it was at the time of my birth. But I realized this fact only after I had killed all my desires while still living in the family. Now, I am fully absorbed in the state of spirituality where Maya has no effect; now I am totally fearless (of all worldly problems), and I do not intimidate other people either, oh Kabir. 3.17.

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Pind(i) mooyay, jeeou kih ghur(i) jaata. Shabad(i) Uteet(i) Unahud(i) raata. Jin(i) Ram(u) jaaniya, tinh(i) puchhaaniya. Jiyoun goongaiy shaakur mun(i) maaniya. 1. Aiysa Giyan kuraiy Bunvaari. Mun ray, puvun drirr sookhmun naari. 1. Pause. So Gur(u) kurhou, j(i) buhour(i) na kerna. So pud(u) ruvhou j(i) buhour na ruvna. So dhiyaan dhurou, j(i) buhour na dherna. Word Meaning: Pind(i) = (love for the) body. Jeeou = soul; mind. Ghur(i) = resting place. Uteet(i) = in the fully detached state. Anahud = uniform; which cannot be subdivided (Waheguru). Raata = imbued. Goongaiy = dumb; mute. Shaakur = raw sugar. Mun(i) Maaniya = mimd is convinced; enjoys. 1. Bunvaari = Waheguru; Guru. Puvun = air; breath. Drirr = reinforce; recite (the Naam) again, and again. Sookhmun Naari = a Yogic practice to breathe in through left nostril and hold the breath in the centre of the eyebrows, called the Sookhmun vein. Pause. Buhour = again. Pud(u) = (holy) verse. Ruvhou = recite. Dhiyaan Dhurou = meditate on. 2. Gunga, Jumuna = the two sacred rivers for Hindus. Sungum = confluence of rivers. The two Rivers meet at Allahabad with a third hidden river, Sersvutee, joining them. The Sungum is one of the holiest places of the Hindus where they bathe. Loacha = with the eyes. Sumsur(i) = equal treatment. Biyohaara = dealing. Tut(u) = the root (Waheguru). 3. Up(u) = water. Tayj = light; the sun. Baayay = air. Prithmi = earth. Akaasha = sky. (The noble qualities of all these Natural elements). Reht Ruhoun = living. Nirunjun = Waheguru (which is above Maya). Tit(u) = in that.

MEANING: Many people wonder what happens to the mind when one overcomes their love for the body. Kabir Sahib tells us that with Guru's Shabad, the mind remains imbued with the love of God, which is above the effects of Maya and is indivisible (imperishable). But only that individual who makes a connection with God knows this secret, yet cannot explain it, just like a mute who enjoys the taste of jaggery but is unable to describe it. 1. The Guru delivers the knowledge that, to enjoy blissfulness, one must recite Waheguru's Naam with every breath. When one does that, he does not need to practise the Yogic exercise where they breathe in through the left nostril, and hold the breath in the centre of the eyebrows, which is called the Sookhmun vein, with the belief to control the mind. Pause.

Rest your faith in the real Guru, so that you will not have the need to go to some other guru. Similarly, choose only that holy Shabad for recitation, so that you will not need to choose another. Meditate in such a way that you won't need to change it, and die in such a way (from worldly desires) so that you do not have to experience death again (you merge into Waheguru). 2. The Hindus consider it a very pious deed to take a dip at the confluence of Ganga and Jamuna in Allahabad, but I have turned my mind away from the worldly desires, and bathe my mind with Waheguru's Naam-water; this is the Sungum of Ganga and Jamuna for me. I look at everybody the same way without any discrimination; this is my way of dealing with the world. What else is left there to ponder on (worship), when you ponder on (recite the Naam) of the origin of everything – Waheguru? 3.

I adopt the good qualities of water, the sun, air, the earth, and the sky (to provide comfort to everybody without any discrimination), and that's how I stay close to God. I recite only Waheguru's Naam, as a result of which, I will go to the eternal Home (of Waheguru), and I will not come back (take rebirth) again, oh Kabir. 4. 18.

Gaurru Kabir Ji tipuday15: Kunchun siyoun paayiyaiy nuhee toal(i). Mun(u) day Ram(u) leeya haiy moal(i). 1. Ub moh(i) Ram(u) Apuna kur(i) jaaniya. Sehj soobhaayay mayra mun(u) maaniya. 1. Ruhaou. Word Meaning: Tipuday = Shabads of three verses. Kunchun = gold. Paayiyaiy = acquire. 1. Sehj Soobhaayay = With love and in the spiritual state above Maya. Pause. Kuth(i) = by describing. 2. Chunchul = fickle; capricious. Tiyaagi = gave up. Bhaagi = in destiny.

MEANING: You cannot acquire Waheguru, even by offering as much gold as your weight (He is priceless). I have bought Waheguru (His Naam) by surrendering my mind to Him. 1. Now I consider Waheguru to be mine, and my mind was won over by Him when I attained the spiritual state above Maya with my devotion for Him. Pause.

Brahma described Him again and again, but never found His end. But with His worship, God takes up dwelling in your heart on His own. 2. I have given up my ever-capricious thinking, and only Waheguru's worship is in my destiny now, oh Kabir. 3.19.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਜਿਹ ਮਰਨੈ ਸਭੁ ਜਗਤੁ ਤਰਾਸਿਆ॥ ਸੋ ਮਰਨਾ ਗੁਰ ਸਬਦਿ ਪ੍ਰਗਾਸਿਆ॥ 1॥ ਅਬ ਕੈਸੇ ਮਰਉ ਮਰਨਿ ਮਨੁ ਮਾਨਿਆ॥ ਮਰਿ ਮਰਿ ਜਾਤੇ ਜਿਨ ਰਾਮੁ ਨ ਜਾਨਿਆ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਮਰਨੋ ਮਰਨੁ ਕਹੈ ਸਭੁ ਕੋਈ॥ ਸਹਜ ਮਰੈ ਅਮਰੁ ਹੋਇ ਸੋਈ॥ 2॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਮਨਿ ਭਇਆ ਅਨੰਦਾ॥ ਗਇਆ ਭਰਮੁ ਰਹਿਆ ਪਰਮਾਨੰਦਾ॥ 3॥20॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Jih mernaiy subh(u) jugut(u) traasiya. So merna Gur Shabad(i) pergaasiya. 1. Ub kaiysay muroun, mern(i) mun(u) maaniya. Mur(i) mur(i) jaatay, jin Ram(u) na jaaniya. 1. Ruhaou. Merno, mern(u) kuhaiy subh(u) koyee. Sehj muraiy, amar(u) hoyay soyee. 2. Kuhou Kabir mun(i) bhuyya anunda. Guyya bherm(u), ruhiya Permanunda. 3.20.

Word Meaning: Traasiya = is afraid of. Pergaasiya = made clear. 1. Maaniya = come to like; accepted. Pause. Sehj = the spiritual state above Maya. Amar = immortal. 2. Anunda = blissful. Bherm = misgivings. Permanunda = source of supreme bliss (Waheguru). 3.

MEANING: The idea of death, of which the whole world is afraid, has been made clear by Guru's Shabad. 1. Those who have not made any connection with God die of the fear of death all the time. But, (now that I have made a connection with God), I have come to like death (it does not scare me anymore because I know I will merge with God after death), so how can I die? Pause. Everybody talks about death, but if one dies after attaining the spiritual state above Maya, he becomes immortal. 2. My mind has become blissful because all my misgivings have been dispelled, and only Waheguru is left in my mind, oh Kabir. 3.20.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਕਤ ਨਹੀ ਠਉਰ ਮੂਲੁ ਕਤ ਲਾਵਉ॥ ਖੋਜਤ ਤਨ ਮਹਿ ਠਉਰ ਨ ਪਾਵਉ॥ 1॥ ਲਾਗੀ ਹੋਇ ਸੁ ਜਾਨੈ ਪੀਰ॥ ਰਾਮ ਭਗਤਿ ਅਨੀਆਲੇ ਤੀਰ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਏਕ ਭਾਇ ਦੇਖਉ ਸਭ ਨਾਰੀ॥ ਕਿਆ ਜਾਨਉ ਸਹ ਕਉਨ ਪਿਆਰੀ॥ 2॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਜਾ ਕੈ ਮਸਤਕਿ ਭਾਗੁ॥ ਸਭ ਪਰਹਰਿ ਤਾ ਕਉ ਮਿਲੈ ਸੁਹਾਗੁ॥ 3॥21॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Kut nuhee tthaur, mool(u) kut laavoun. Khojut tun meh(i) tthaur na paavoun. 1. Laagi hoyay su jaanaiy peer. Ram bhugut(i) uniyaalay teer. 1. Ruhaou. Aik bhaayay daykhoun subh naari. Kiya jaanoun Sheh kaun piyaari. 2. Kuhou, Kabir ja kaiy mustuk(i) bhaag(u). Subh purhur(i) ta kuou milaiy soohaag(u). 3.21.

Word Meaning: Tthaur = comfort; relief. Mool(u) = medication. Khoajut = searching. 1. Uniyaalay = very sharp (pointed). Pause. Bhaayay = affection. Naari = human beings. Sheh = Husband; Waheguru. 2. Mustuk(i) = (on the) forehead. Purhur(i) = by removing; rejecting. Soohaag(u) = husband. 3.

MEANING: The arrows of the pain of separation from Waheguru are very sharp (affect you strongly and give you severe pain of separation); but only that individual knows this pain, who has suffered the piercing. Pause. I feel pain (of separation), but even on searching carefully, I cannot find where the pain is in my body; so, where should I apply the medication to have relief (this pain is not physical)? I cannot find comfort. 1. I find every woman (person) in love with the "One" (God). So, how do I know who is loved by the Husband (Waheguru)? 2. Rejecting all others, the Husband loves the one who has good fortune (based on her previous deeds) on her forehead, oh Kabir. 3.21.

(ਅੰਗ 328)॥ ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਜਾ ਕੈ ਹਰਿ ਸਾ ਠਾਕੁਰੁ ਭਾਈ॥ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਅਨੰਤ ਪੁਕਾਰਣਿ ਜਾਈ॥ 1॥ ਅਬ ਕਹੁ ਰਾਮ ਭਰੋਸਾ ਤੋਰਾ॥ ਤਬ ਕਾਹੂ ਕਾ ਕਵਨ ਨਿਹੋਰਾ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਤੀਨਿ ਲੋਕ ਜਾ ਕੈ ਹਹਿ

(PAGE 328): Gaurri Kabir Ji: Ja kaiy Hur(i) sa Tthaakur(u) bhaayee. Mookut(i) anunt pookaarun(i) jaayee. 1. Ub kuhou Ram bhuroasa Toara. Tub kaahoo ka kuvun nihora. 1. Ruhaou. Teen(i) loak ja kaiy heh(i) bhaar(u). So kaahay na kuraiy pritpaar? 2. Kuhou Kabir ikk boodh(i) beechaari. Kiya bus(u) juou bikh(u) day mehtaari? 3.22.

Word Meaning: Sa = like. Mookut(i) = emancipation. Anunt = countless times. 1. Bhurosa = faith; trust. Kuvun = which; what. Nihora = favour; complaint. Pause. Bhaar = dependent. Pritpaar = raise; look after. 2. Boodh(i) = wise thought. Bus(i) = ability. Bikh(u) = poison (of Maya). Mehtaari = mother; Waheguru. 3.

MEANING: Emancipation calls on the devotee countless times who has Waheguru as his Lord, oh brother. (The devotee does not care about emancipation when he is loved by Waheguru). 1. Now I have full faith in Waheguru (and nobody can claim any favour to me), and I make a claim that I am accountable only to him. Pause.
Why would not the God, on whom the living beings of the three layers of the universe (the worlds above the earth, the earth, and the underworld) are fully dependent, look after me? 2. However, there is one important thing to ponder on: what can a man do if God Himself gets him engrossed in Maya (if he cannot worship God), oh Kabir? 3.22.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਬਿਨ ਸਤ ਸਤੀ ਹੋਇ ਕੈਸੇ ਨਾਰਿ॥ ਪੰਡਿਤ ਦੇਖਹੁ ਰਿਦੈ ਬੀਚਾਰਿ॥ 1॥ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਿ ਬਿਨਾ ਕੈਸੇ ਬਧੈ ਸਨੇਹੁ॥ ਜਬ ਲਗੁ ਰਸੁ ਤਬ ਲਗੁ ਨਹੀ ਨੇਹੁ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਸਾਹਨਿ ਸਤੁ ਕਰੈ ਜੀਅ ਅਪਨੈ॥ ਸੋ ਰਮਏ ਕਉ ਮਿਲੈ ਨ ਸੁਪਨੈ॥ 2॥ ਤਨੁ ਮਨੁ ਧਨੁ ਗ੍ਰਿਹੁ ਸਉਪਿ ਸਰੀਰੁ॥ ਸੋਈ ਸੁਹਾਗਨਿ ਕਹੈ ਕਬੀਰੁ॥ 3॥23॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Bin sut sutee hoyay kaiysay naar(i)? Pundit daykhou ridaiy beechar(i). 1. Preet(i) bina kaiysay budhaiy snayhou? Jub lug rus(u) tub lug nuhee nayhou. 1. Ruhaou. Shaahun(i) sut(u) kuraiy jea apnaiy. So Rumuyiyaiy kuou milaiy na soopnaiy. 2. Tun(u), mun(u), dhun(u) grihou saunp(i) sreer(u). Soyee soohaagun(i) kuhaiy Kabir(u). 3.23.

Word Meaning: Sut = high moral character. Sutee = with high morals; a widow who is forced (or is persuaded) to immolate herself on the pyre of her dead husband. 1. Preet(i) = attachment. Budhay = increase; develop. Snayhou = love. Rus(u) = enjoyment; selfish interest. Pause. Shaahun(i) = wife of the Shaah (Waheguru) (Maya). Sat(u) = everlasting. Rumuyya = Waheguru. 2. Soohaagun(i) = loved by husband. 3.

MEANING: You force a widow to immolate herself on the pyre of her husband, and call her a "Sutee" meaning having a high moral character. But think about it, how can a woman be called a "sutee" if she is forced to die, oh pundit ji? What does high moral character have to do with that? 1. How can someone develop love for another if there is no attachment in the mind of the former to begin with? There is no love as long as there is some selfish interest involved. (So, if there was no love for the husband, how could the dying widow be called "Sutee"? (Man's real husband is Waheguru, and He is the one who should be loved). But if an individual believes that Maya is his eternal companion, he cannot connect with Waheguru, even in his dreams. 2. Only that woman (person) is really married (earns the love of her husband – Waheguru) who surrenders her body, mind, wealth, and households to Him, oh Kabir. 3.23.

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Bikhiya biyaapiya sugul sunsaar(u). Bikhiya laiy doobi pervaar(u). 1. Ray nur naav chaurr(i) kut boarri? Hur(i) siyoun toarr(i), bikhiya sung(i) joarri. 1. Ruhaou. Soor(i) nur daadhay laagi aag(i). Nickit(i) neer(u) pus(u) peevus(i) na jhaag(i). Chaytut, chaytut, niksiyo neer(u). So jul nirmul(u) kuthut Kabir(u). 3.24.

Word Meaning: Bikhiya Biyaapiya = trapped in Maya. Laiy Doobi = drowned. 1. Naav = boat. Chaurrr(i) = hard ground. Kut = how; why. Pause. Soor = gods. Daadhay = burned. Aag(i) = fire (of desires). Nickit(i) = close by. Pus(u) = animal. Jhaag(i) = enduring some inconvenience; put in some effort. 2. Chaytut, Chaytut = remembering (reciting Naam). Neer(u) = water; Amrit. Kuthut = says. 3.

MEANING: The whole world is in the grip of Maya, which has drowned the whole family (of humans) in its sea (has disconnected them from Waheguru). 1. You have broken away from Waheguru and made a strong bond with Maya, oh man. It is like sinking your boat on the hard land (hurting your own interests). Pause. There is the fire of desires all around, in which, not just the humans, but even the gods, are burning. The water (Naam-Amrit) is so close (in one's heart), but the animal-like man does not put in any effort to drink it (and put out the fire). 2. By remembering God (reciting His Naam), the water (Amrit) appears, which is pure and holy (to wash off all sins, and to put out the fire of all desires), says Kabir. 3.24.

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Jih kool(i) poot(u) na Giyaan beechaari. Bidhva kus na bhuyee mehtaari. 1. Jih nur Ram bhugut neh saadhi. Junmut kus na mooyo apraadhi. 1. Ruhaou. Mooch, mooch gerbh guyay keen buchiya? Boodbhooj roop jeevay jug mujhiya. 2. Kuhou Kabir jaisay soondar sroop. Naam bina jaiysay koobuj kuroop. 3.25.

Word Meaning: Kool(i) = clan (of disciples). Giyaan Beechaari = made connection with God. Bidhwa = widow (lost her leader). Mehtaari = mother (of thoughts); wisdom. 1. Saadhi = practised. Junmut = right from the birth. Kus = how? Apraadhi = guilty; sinner. Pause. Mooch, Mooch = many, many. Keen = how; why. Boodbhoojh = deformed. Mujhiya = in. Koobuj = hump-backed. Kuroop = ugly. 3.

MEANING: Why did the husband (the leader, or the guru of the clan of disciples) of the mother (wisdom) not die in which (the clan) no follower got connected with Waheguru? 1. Why did the person, who did not practise God's worship, not die right at birth? Pause. Countless people are miscarried; why has such a sinner survived? If such a sinner does survive, he lives the life of a (spiritually) deformed person in the world. 2.

Even if a man is handsome in looks, he is like an ugly hump-backed if he is without Waheguru's Naam, oh Kabir. 3.25.

NOTE: Almost all the scholars of Gurbani have interpreted this holy Shabad very literally. "Mother", as the meaning of "mehtaari" is highly inappropriate here. There are many mothers who have given birth to sons, some of whom were perfect saints or great people, while others were criminals and sinners. So, why blame mothers? Many factors contribute to an individual's personality, including genes, environment, and traits from previous lives. So, "mehtaari" cannot mean "mother" in this holy Shabad. It implies WISDOM in this, and in many other shabads. Kabir Sahib is condemning the self-proclaimed fake gurus who preach to others for the sake of earning money and fame.

Word Meaning: Khusum = Lord; Waheguru. Bulihaaraiy = offer to sacrifice. 1. Nirmul(u) = pure; piou. Bhaavaiy = is liked. Pause. Bhurpoor(i) = filling completely. Pug = feet. Punkuj = lotus. Dhoor(i) = dust. 2. Joolaaha = weaver. Dheer(u) = patient; blissful. Sehj(i) = in spiritual state above Maya. Rumaiy = recites. 3.

MEANING: I will be glad to offer my life (serve in any capacity) to the devotee who recites Waheguru's Naam. 1. That individual is pure (pious) who sings the virtues of the Pure Waheguru, and I like him like a brother. Pause. I will love to be the dust of the lotus-like feet of the devotee whose heart is filled with (love for) God. 2. Even though I come from a low-caste of weavers, I have blissfulness in my mind because I sing Waheguru's virtues in a state which is above Maya, oh Kabir. 3.26.

Sehj klaalun(i) juou mil(i) aayee. Aanund(i) maatay undin jaayee. 2. Cheenut cheet Nirunjun laaya. Kuhou Kabir tuou Unbhuou paaya. 3.27.

Word Meaning: Guggun(i) = Bhaatthi = the tenth door (the state of being one with Waheguru). Sunch(i) = accumulate. Muha Rus(u) = Naam-Amrit. Tun(u) = (love for) body. 1. Ooa = that. Sehj = the high spiritual state. Mutvaara = intoxicated. Pause. Klaalun(i) = the woman who serves liquor. Anund(i) Maatay = intoxicated with blissfulness. Undin Jaayee = day and night go; life is spent. 2. Cheenut = recognizing. Nirunjun = Waheguru. Unbhuou = the knowledge that comes naturally. 3.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam-Amrit is dripping in my tenth door (mind). Accumulating this great essence (Naam- Amrit), my love for my body is acting like fuel (I am burning away my love for the body). 1. The individual, who drinks the essence (Naam–Amrit) by pondering on God's Knowledge (Guru's Shabad), is the truly intoxicated individual in the spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Pause. Once the server of liquor (of Waheguru's Naam - Guru's Shabad) enters the mind of the devotee in the high spiritual state, his life is spent intoxicated in blissfulness. 2. Recognizing this truth, I have applied my mind to Waheguru, and that is how I have acquired the Divine Knowledge without any special effort, oh Kabir. 3.27.

ਗਉੜੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀ॥ ਮਨ ਕਾ ਸੁਭਾਉ ਮਨਹਿ ਬਿਆਪੀ॥

(ਅੰਗ 329)॥ ਮਨਹਿ ਮਾਰਿ ਕਵਨ ਸਿਧਿ ਥਾਪੀ॥ 1॥ ਕਵਨੁ ਸੁ ਮੁਨਿ ਜੋ ਮਨੁ ਮਾਰੈ॥ ਮਨ ਕਉ ਮਾਰਿ ਕਹਹੁ ਕਿਸੁ ਤਾਰੈ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਮਨ ਅੰਤਰਿ ਬੋਲੈ ਸਭਿ ਕੋਈ॥ ਮਨ ਮਾਰੇ ਬਿਨੁ ਭਗਤਿ ਨ ਹੋਈ॥ 2॥ ਕਹੁ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੋ ਜਾਨੈ ਭੇਉ॥ ਮਨੁ ਮਧੁਸੂਦਨ ਤ੍ਰਿਭਵਣ ਦੇਉ॥ 3॥28॥

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Mun ka soobhaaou muneh(i) biyaapi.

Word Meaning: Soobhaaou = nature; character. Biyaapi = affects; influences. Sidh(i) Thaapi = success achieved. 1. Moon(i) = a sage who stays quit for long periods with the intent to "quiten" his mind (they do not connect with God). Maar(i) = control; kill desires. Mudhsoodun = a name for Waheguru. Tribhuvun Dayou = Light in the three layers of the universe.

NOTE: There are two ways to control one's mind (stop the mind from wandering or from pursuing desires) – (1) with sheer stubbornness and (2) by one's love for God. Once one develops love for Waheguru, he acquires noble qualities, and his attachment with the world automatically comes to an end. Controlling one's mind with persistence does NOT change one's basic nature. His thoughts remain the same. For example, fasting for a few days does not change one's desire to enjoy different foods. But controlling one's mind through love for Waheguru brings about a fundamental change in one's nature, as one acquires noble qualities (thinking). Remember, only Waheguru is the source of noble virtues. In this holy Shabad, Kabir Sahib disapproves of controlling the mind with one's persistence because it does not change the basic nature of man.

MEANING: The basic nature of the man influences his mind. So, controlling one's mind with sheer stubbornness does not achieve anything because the basic nature of the man does not change. 1. Tell me, which moon(i) (sage) has ever controlled his mind in the real sense? Who does he salvage by controlling his mind with just his stubbornness? Pause. Everybody speaks (thinks and acts) according to their nature, but one cannot worship Waheguru without real control over their mind (worshipping Waheguru and control over the mind go together). 2. An individual who knows this secret becomes "one" with Waheguru, which is enlightening the whole universe, oh Kabir. 3.28.

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Oye ju deeseh(i) umbur(i) taaray. Kin(i) oye cheetay, cheetunhaaray. 1. Kuhou ray pundit, umbur(u) ka siyoun laaga. Boojhaiy boojhunhaar(u) subhaaga. 1. Ruhaou. Sooruj Chund(u) kureh(i) oojiyaara. Subh meh(i) pusriya Braham pusaara. 2. Kuhou Kabir jaanaiyga soyay. Hirdaiy Ram(u) mookh(i) Raamaiy hoyay. 3.29.

Word Meaning: Umbur(i) = (on the) sky. Cheetay = carved; created. 1. Boojhaiy = understands; finds out. Pause. Oojiyaara = light up. Pusriya = spread out. Pusaara = creation. 2.

MEANING: (You read and explain the Vedas to the people, but have no concept of the Supreme Being, oh pundit). Tell me, which creator created the stars which are visible in the sky? 1. Tell me, what support is there to hold the sky in place, oh pundit? Only a lucky person realizes this (by connecting with Waheguru). Pause. It is Waheguru which causes the sun and the moon to light up the world. It is all the creation of Waheguru. 2. Only that individual understands (internalizes) this secret who has Waheguru in his heart, and on his tongue, oh Kabir. 3.29.

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Bayd kee pootri Simrit(i) bhaayee. Saankul jayvuri laiy haiy aayee. 1. Aapun nugur(u) aap tay baandhiya. Moh kaiy phaadh(i) kaal sur(u) saadhiya. 1. Ruhaou. Kutty na kuttaiy, toot(i) neh jaayee. Sa saapun(i) hoyay jug kuou khaayee. 2. Hum daykhut jin(i) subh(u) jug(u) lootiya. Kuhou Kabir mein Ram keh(i) chhootiya. 3.30.

Word Meaning: Pootri = child; oof-shoot; based on. Saankal Jayvuri = chains and shackles. 1. Nugur(u) = the city (school) of its followers. Baandhiya = entrapped. Phaadh(i) = trapped. Kaal = death. Sur(u) = arrow. Saadhiya = aimed. Pause. Saapun(i) = female snake. 2.

MEANING: The Simritis, which are an offshoot of the Vedas (based on them), have brought chains and shackles (of rituals and misbeliefs) with them. They have entrapped their own followers with rituals and misbeliefs. As a result, the followers are more tightly bound to the attachment to the world (Maya), and (spiritual) death has aimed its arrow at them. Maya, which has deceived the whole world right under its (world's) eyes, could not affect me (I escaped its charm) because of my worshipping of Waheguru, oh Kabir. 3.30.

Gaurri Kabir Ji: Dayay moohaar, lugaam(u) pehraavoun. Suglut jean(u) guggun duouraavoun. 1. Apnaiy beechaar(i) usvaari keejaiy. Sehj kaiy paavurraiy pug(u) dhur leejaiy. 1. Ruhaou. Chul(u) ray baiykoontth toojheh(i) lay taaroon. Hicheh ta praym kay chaabuk maaroon. 2. Keht Kabir bhulay usvaara. Bayd Ktayb tay ruheh(i) niraara. 3.31.

Word Meaning: Moohaar = a part of harness which connects the lower jaw of the horse and the belt that goes around his waist (to control the mouth of the horse). Lugaam = bridle. Suglut = omnipresence (of Waheguru). Jean(u) = saddle. Guggun = sky (the tenth door of the body; brain). 1. Apnaiy Beechaar(i) = self analysis. Sehj = spiritual state above Maya. Paavurraiy = stirrup. Pug(u) = foot. Pause. Baiykoontth = paradise. Taaroon = fly; tour. Hicheh(i) = hesitate. Chaabuk = whip. 2. Bhulay = good; noble. Niraaray = unaffected; stay away.

MEANING: (In Shabad 29, Kabir Sahib discussed how to bring the mind under control; he continues to pursue a similar idea in this Shabad too). I have put moohaar on my mouth to stop it from undeserving praise, and unwarranted criticism of others; have put the bridle of affection for Waheguru on my mind-horse; have put the saddle of the omnipresence of God, and ride on it in the sky of my mind. 1. Self-analysis (what my origin is, and what my objective in life is) is my ride, and the spiritual state above the effects of Maya, is the stirrups to rest my foot on (a high spiritual state is the support for my mind). Pause.
With such arrangements, I invite my mind to enjoy the bliss of paradise. If my mind-horse hesitates, I whip him with my love for Waheguru (which will make him run). 2. Only those riders are noble who (stay absorbed in Waheguru's love), and stay away from discussions of the strengths and weaknesses of the Vedas and the Western Religious books, oh Kabir. 3.31.

The human body suffers in many different ways – some people burn it, while others bury it under the ground. 2. I request God to show me His holy Sight, after which, He may send the Angel of death for me by all means, oh Kabir. 3.32.

But even if the desires burn my body, my mind is still absorbed in God's Naam. Pause.

Why would anyone burn (in the fire of desires) and why would anyone suffer in it - it is just the drama of Waheguru, who is enjoying it like a dancer (actor). 2. (The solution to escape from this suffering is) that the man should recite only two words – Ram, Ram. If Waheguru becomes your guardian, he will save you from the fire of desires, oh Kabir. 3.33.

Even if I search the whole universe, I do not see anybody else like God, oh Kabir.2.34.

(If you do not) You will meet the same fate (death), oh my mind, says Kabir. 2.3. Thirty-five Shabads of Kabir Ji.

It was also used as the rope to churn the ocean in a joint operation by the gods and the demons. Mun(u) = mind; soul; Waheguru's light. Paykha = saw. 3. Khojhou = search. Chhootay = dies. 4. Jai Dev and Naam Dev Ji are two famous Bhuguts whose compositions have been enshrined in Guru Granth Sahib. 5. Aana Jaana = rebirths. Bherm(u) = doubt; misgiving. 6. How can Waheguru come to dwell in such a Maya-engrossed heart? Pause. Even gods like Shiva and Brahma stayed away from such comforts, yet humans have believed that worldly comforts are everlasting. 2. Famous personalities like the four sons of Brahma, Nard (another son of Brahma who was born out of his thigh), the sages who stay quiet for long times, and Shaysh Naag did not recognize Waheguru's light in them. 3. People should search their minds so as to find out where it (the soul) goes after the body dies. 4. Respectable Bhagats like Jai Dev and Naam Dev Ji recognized the secrets of the mind by loving God's worship with the grace of the Guru. 5. The soul (Waheguru's light) is immortal, but only those individuals realize this truth whose doubts and misbeliefs have been dispelled. 6. The mind (soul) has no physical features; it comes into being by Waheguru's Will and merges into Him by realizing His Will. 7. If someone unlocks the secrets of the mind, he becomes a part of Waheguru by getting absorbed in the mind (God, of which it is part). 8. The mind is the light of Waheguru, which is present in all the bodies. I, Kabir, am absorbed in my mind (Waheguru), and do not allow my mind to wander away. 9.36.

Many Sidh yogis, many under training, and all the sages (who stay quiet for long times) failed to connect with Waheguru; Waheguru's Naam is the real Kulp tree, which salvages everybody. 1. A devotee, who worships God only, cannot be the worshipper of some other deity because none is like Him. I have recognized God's Naam (made a connection with Him), oh Kabir. 2.37.

MEANING: Don't you have any shame, oh shameless man! How can you ignore Waheguru and take shelter of (worship) some other deity? Pause. It does not behoove an individual to go to some other person for help whose Lord is the highest (greatest) of all. 1. The Lord, God, is omnipresent; He is always with you, and not away from you. 2. Tell me, what can possibly be missing in His (God's) house whose Feet are sought as shelter even by Maya? (Maya, which runs the affairs of the universe, is His slave). 3. The Waheguru, which is the talk of everybody, is omnipotent and has no superior. 4. Only that devotee is perfect in this world who has nobody else, other than Waheguru, in his heart, oh Kabir. 5.38.

NOTE: The next few Shabads do not have headings.

Word Meaning: Kaun Ko = whose. Suntaapo = curse; severe grief. 1. Tthug = deceitful. Tthugauri = a plant which causes temporary unconsciousness; Maya (which intoxicates the world). Biyoag = pain of separation. Pause. Tut = reality. 2. Mun(u) Maaniya = come to like; to bring faith. 3.

MEANING: Whose son (is man), and father of whom; who dies and who causes severe grief? 1. (There is no reality in these relations. They are all short-lived. In fact, it is all a drama of the “deceitful” Waheguru, which has created Maya to intoxicate the world so that it stays engrossed in it. But, how can I survive in my separation from Waheguru, oh my mother? Pause. One needs to recognize that there is no permanent husband or permanent wife in this world. 2. My intoxication due to Maya is over, and I have recognized the “deceitful” Waheguru. Now I have come to like Him, oh Kabir. 3.39.

Poorub likhut(u) miliya mayray bhaayee. Jis(u) kirpa kuray tis(u) poorun saaj. Kabir kay Soami greeb nivaaj(u). 4.40.

Word Meaning: Ub = now. Raja Ram = King Waheguru. Suhaayee = supporting. Perm Gut(i) = the highest spiritual state. 1. Punch Doot = the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachment, and ego). MEANING: Now, the King, God, has become my support, as a result of which my rebirth cycle is over, and I have attained the highest spiritual state. Pause. Waheguru made me a part of Guru’s congregation, who has saved me from the five demons. I have become His unpaid slave, and I recite Waheguru’s Naam with my tongue. 1. Satguru did a huge favour to me and pulled me out of the world-sea (sea of Maya). I have developed a love for Waheguru’s lotus-like Feet (His Naam), and now He dwells in my mind all the time. 2. The red-hot coal of Maya, which was burning me, has died out. Waheguru’s Naam is my basis now, and I have contentment of mind. Now, I find the omniscient Lord to be there wherever I look. 3. He is filling the land and the waters. He has strengthened my worship. I am reaping the rewards of my previous deeds. The individual, whom Waheguru is kind to, has a perfect life (achieves his objective). My Lord bestows honour on the weak and the poor, oh Kabir. 4.40.

Jul(i) haiy sootuk(u), thul(i) haiy sootuk(u), sootuk(u) oaput(i) hoyee. Junmay sootuk(u), mooyay phoon(i) sootuk, sootuk perj bigoyee. 1. Kuhou ray pundiya, kaun puveeta. Word Meaning: Sootuk(u) = a Hindu belief that a household becomes impure (unholy) with the birth and the death of someone in the house. This impurity lasts for thirteen days, at which time the family Brahman purifies the house by reciting some mantras for which he is paid. Oaput(i) = (on) production. Perj = public. Bigoyee = misguided to suffer. 1. Puveeta = pure; holy. Pause. aiynhou = with the words. Servuni = with the ears. 2. Phaasun = getting trapped. Bidh(i) = ways. Chhootun = freedom from the bonds of Maya. Tinaiy = to those. 3.

MEANING: (If one were to believe the idea of "sootuk" as espoused by the Brahman, then, you can never avoid it) because sootuk will be everywhere in the water, and on the land (because living beings keep being born, and dying in the water and on the land), and with all production. The misbelief about "sootuk" has led the public to unnecessarily suffer. 1. Acquire the knowledge about the validity of sootuk, and question the Brahman as to what place is pure according to his definition of sootuk, oh friends. Pause. The real sootuk (impurity in life) is caused when the man casts an evil eye on the women or the property of others, or when he hurts the feelings of others with his words, or when he listens to filthy talk with his ears. That way, there is sootuk when you rise, or sit down with evil ideas in your mind. There is also a sootuk in the kitchen where you kill many living beings with firewood, and the cow dung is used as fuel. 2. Everybody knows the ways to get trapped in Maya due to such misbeliefs, but very few know how to get freedom from Maya. Those who remember Waheguru in their mind are not affected by any sootuk, oh Kabir. 3.41.

Ram(u) = god Rama (Ram has been used hundreds of times for Waheguru, but without the (u) at the end, except in a very few special cases. Note the spellings in the first sentence). Jaas(u) = who. Oodaas(u) = disappointed; confused. 3.

MEANING: Settle a confusion for me, if You have any interest in Your slave, oh Waheguru. Pause. Is the mind greater, or the Supreme Being, which it has come to like? Is god Rama greater or the devotee who has come to realize Waheguru? Is Brahma greater or his Creator (Waheguru)? Are the Vedas greater than their writers (with the inspiration provided by Waheguru)? Is the holy place more respectable or a slave (devotee) of Waheguru? I am confused (dissatisfied) in the absence of the answers to these questions, oh Kabir. 3.42

NOTE: The essence of this holy Shabad is that Waheguru, His Naam, and His supreme devotees are higher than any rituals, beliefs, gods, or religious books.

Raag(u) Gaurri Chayti: Daykhou bhaayee, Giyan kee aayee aandhi. Subhaiy oodaani bherm kee taati, ruhaiy na Maya baandhi. 1. Ruhaou. Doochitay kee dooyay thoon(i) giraani, moh(u) bulaynda toota. Tishna chhaan(i) purie dhur oopur(i) doormut(i) bhaanda phoota. 1.

Word Meaning: Aandhi = strong gusty wind. Bherm kee taati = a shelter (curtain) of bamboo, or a thatched hut (a weak curtain). Pause. Doochitay = indecisive; one in a dilemma. Thoon(i) = Bulaynda = pillars. Giraani = felled. Tishna = desires. Chhaan(i) = thatched hut. Doormut(i) = ill advice; evil thinking. Bhaanda = vessel. 1. Bheena = got wet; imbued. Pergaasa = enlightenment. Oodaiy Bhaan(u) = rising sun (Waheguru). Cheena = recognized.

MEANING: Watch the strong gusty wind of the Divine Knowledge, which has blown away the weak curtain of doubts which Maya could not save with its bonds, oh friends. Pause. The pillars of doubt and ignorance of the individual, caught in the middle of a choice between Waheguru and Maya, have been felled, and also the pillar of worldly attachments has been demolished. The thatched hut (a weak shelter of desires) has fallen to the ground, and the vessel of evil thinking has been shattered. 1. Like the rain that falls after the strong winds (and which washes away the dust from the vegetation), the Naam-Water after the wind of the Divine Knowledge has washed away the filth of evil thoughts from my mind. I am imbued in Your love, oh Waheguru. My mind has been enlightened by watching the rising sun (Waheguru's enlightening Naam), which I have realized, oh Kabir. 2.43.

Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i): Gaurri Chayti: Hur(i) jus(u) sooneh(i), na Hur(i) goon gaaveh(i). Baatun hee usmaan giraaveh(i). 1. Aiysay loagun siyoun kiya kuhiyaiy. Uvrun hust aap(i) heh(i) kaanay. Tin kuou daykh(i) Kabir lujaanay. 6.1.44.

Word Meaning: Jus(u) = praise. Baatun Hee = just in words. 1. Bahuj = devoid of. Draanay = away. Pause. Chooroo Bhur(i) = mouthful; a little. Nindeh(i) = criticises maliciously. Gunga Aani = provide the whole river. 2. Kootilta = deceit; treachery. Guyyay = gone; lost morality. Aurun = others. Ghaaleh(i) = ruin; mislead. 3. Koochurcha = destructive discussion. Aan = else. Jaaneh(i) = acknowledge. 4. Khoveh(i) = misguide from the right path. Mundar = palace; big house. 5. Kaanay = blind of one eye; imperfect; culprit; sinners. Lujaanay = feels ashamed. 6.

MEANING: There are some people who neither listen to the praise of God, nor do they sing His virtues, but talk big as if they would bring the sky down. 1. What kind of advice can one offer to such people who are devoid of Waheguru's worship? One must stay away from such people. Pause. They will not give even a mouthful of water to the thirsty, but will criticize maliciously the people who can provide the whole river. 2. They have treachery in mind, whether they are sitting or standing (all the time). They have gone far from morality and ruined others' characters as well. 3. They know nothing else other than the destructive discussions, and do not listen even to Brahma (who is believed to be very wise, and the author of the Vedas). 4. They are lost in life and misguide others from the path of righteousness. It is like sleeping comfortably in a luxurious house after setting it on fire. 5. They laugh at others (for their perceived mistakes) but are guilty (sinners) themselves. Watching their immoral deeds, I feel ashamed of them (as human beings), oh Kabir. 6.1.44.

Ek Onkar Sat(i) Gur Persad(i). Raag(u) Gaurri Baiyraagun(i) Kabir Ji.

Jeevut pitter na maanaiy koyoo, mooyay siraadh kuraahi. Pitur bhee bupuray kuhou kiyoun paaveh(i), kuooa, kooker khaahi. 1. Mein kuou kooshul(u) butaavhou koyee. Kooshul(u), kooshul(u) kertay jug(u) binsaiy, kooshul(u) bhee kaiysay hoyee. 1. Ruhaou. Maati kay kur(i) dayvi dayva, tis(u) aagaiy jeeo dayhi. Aisaiy pitur toomhaaray kuhhiyay aapun kuhhiya na layhi. 2. Surjeeo kaateh(i), nirjeeo poojeh(i), unt kaal kuou bhaari. Ram Naam kee gut(i) nuhee jaani, bhaiy doobay sunsaari. 3. Dayvi, dayva poojeh(i) doaleh(i), Parbrahm nuhee jaana. Keht Kabir Akool(u) nuhee chaytiya, bikhiya siyoun luptaana. 4.1.45.

Word Meaning: Pitter = dead ancestors. Maanaiy = take care; show consideration. Siraadh = a Hindu custom in which they serve food to the Brahmans in the month of Assu (Sep –Oct) on the day of the month (does not matter which month) their elders expired, with the belief that the food served to the Brahmans reaches the ancestors. They also make mud idols of the deities and ancestors, and offer food to them, which is basically consumed by birds and dogs. They also kill a goat, etc., as a sacrifice to the deities and the ancestors. Bupuray = helpless. Kuooa = crows. Kooker = dogs. 1. Kooshul(u) = well being; peace and happiness. Pause. Maati = mud. Jeeo Dayhi = offer sacrifice. Aapun Kuhhiya = as per their own wish. 2. Surjeeo = living animal. Nirjeeo = lifeless idols. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Bhaiy = afraid of societal customs. Sunsaari = people. 3. Doaleh = loss of control of the mind. Akool(u) = Waheguru, which has no clan. Chaytiya = remembered. Bikhiya = Maya. Luptaana = clinging to; engrossed in. 4.

MEANING: People pay no attention to (take no care of) their elderly parents when they are alive, but spend a lot of money on their siraadhs after they die. Even then, what do the helpless ancestors receive when the food is eaten by crows and dogs? (The survivors believe that there will be peace and happiness in the family after the siraadhs), But can someone explain to me how there can be peace and happiness in the family with a meaningless ritual like that, when the whole world is gripped in misbeliefs and is dying in search of happiness? Pause. People make idols of their deity with mud and offer a sacrificial animal before them. What kind of ancestors do you worship who cannot have what they want? 2. People kill living animals, and worship the lifeless deities and ancestors; such meaningless rituals cause a very tough time for them at the end. They do not realize the bliss of the high spiritual state they can attain by reciting Waheguru's Naam, but are drowning in the sea of Maya out of fear of meaningless societal pressures. 3. They worship the god or the goddess of their choice, but still suffer from doubts and do not get peace of mind. They do not make any connection with Waheguru, which is the source of all bliss. They do not remember God, and stay clinging to (engrossed in) Maya, oh Kabir. 4.1.45.

Word Meaning: Jeevut Muraiy = kill oneself as far as desires are concerned. Jeevaiy = live high spiritual life. Unjun = Maya. Nirunjun(i) = in Waheguru (which is above the effects of Maya). Bhuvjul(i) = the world sea; rebirths. 1. Kheer(u) = milk; yogurt. Biloyiyaiy = churn. Usthir(u) = stable; under control. Bidh(i) = ways. Amrit(u) = Naam-water. Pause. Baan(i) = arrow (of Shabad). Bujur Kul = the stone-like wall of ignorance. Chhaydi = pierced. Pud(i) = higher spiritual state. Pergaasa = light; enlightenment. Sukut(i) Undhayr = the darkness of Maya. Jayvurri = rope. Bherm = misgiving (which gives the false impression that a rope appears to be a snake in darkness). Chooka = removed. Nihchul = permanent. Shiv = Waheguru. 2. Dhunookh = bow. Baydhiya = pierced. Dehdis = in every direction. Boodi = kite (of routine thoughts). Jhoolaayay = flies. Doar(i) = the chain of deep thoughts. Liv = concentration. 3. Oonmun(i) = in higher mental state. Soonn(i) smaana = gets absorbed in the spiritual state where there is no effect of Maya. Doobhida = indecisiveness (to choose between God and Maya). Doormut(i) = evil thinking. Unbhuou = self-acquired Divine Knowledge. Daykhiya = experienced. 4.

MEANING: Yogurt is churned to get butter, which is considered one of the five "amrit foods", but the real Amrit is Waheguru's Naam, which is acquired by controlling one's mind (desires) with the advice of the Guru, (and by reciting Your Naam), oh my Waheguru. Pause. (With Guru's grace) If a devotee subdues his desires while living in the family, he acquires a new life of high moral values and remains absorbed in a high spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Such a devotee stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam while living in the family, and never takes rebirth. 1. With the arrow of Guru's Shabad, I have pierced (demolished) the stone-like wall of darkness (ignorance), and my mind has been enlightened to attain the high spiritual state. The darkness of Maya has disappeared, and like the illusion about a rope, which appears to be a snake in darkness, all my doubts are cleared in the light, and I have found a permanent dwelling in Waheguru's shelter. 2. Waheguru has pierced the whole world without shooting an arrow with the bow, with the result that even though the man pursues his daily routine with his superficial thoughts running in every possible direction, the thread of his deep thoughts stays focused on Him all the time. 3. All my indecisiveness, because of my immoral thoughts, has run away (has been destroyed), and my mind stays absorbed in the high spiritual state where Maya cannot influence my thoughts negatively. With the full concentration on Waheguru's Naam, I have experienced an amazing Divine Knowledge, oh Kabir. 4.2.46.

Gaurri Baiyraagun(i) Tipuday: Ooltut puvun chukur khut(u) bhayday, soorut(i) soonn anuraagi. Aavaiy na jaayay, muraiy na jeevaiy, Taas(u) khoaj baiyraagi. 1. Mayray mun, mun hee oolt(i) smaana. Gur Persaad(i) akul(i) bhuyee uvraiy, naatur thaa baygaana. 1. Ruhaou. Nivraiy door(i), door(i) phoon(i) nivraiy, jin(i) jaiysa kur(i) maaniya. Alauti ka jaiysay bhuyya burayda, jin(i) peeya tin(i) jaaniya. 2. Tayri nirgoon kutha kaayay siyoun kuhiyaiy, aiysa koyee bibayki. Kuhou Kabir jin(i) deeya puleeta, tin(i) taiysi jhul daykhi. 3.3.47.

Word Meaning: Ooltut = reversing the direction of thinking. Khut = six. Chukur = yogis believe that there are six circles in the body – one each at the two private parts, near the navel, in the heart, in the neck, and one in the tenth door (brain), which are connected by a spiral-like vein. The yogis pull the air from the rear circle through all the circles to the Tenth door and hold it there as long as they meditate. This hard exercise is believed to earn them supernatural powers. Bhayday = pierced. Soorut(i) = mind; attention. Soonn = where Maya has no effect. Anuraagi = lover. Taas(u) = Him. Baiyraagi = suffering from pangs of separation. 1. Smaana = absorbed. Akul(i) = wisdom. Uvraiy = different. Naatur = otherwise. Baygaana = without knowledge; ignorant. Pause. Nivraiy = close by. Phoon(i) = then. Maaniya = believed. Alauti = crystalized sugar. Burayda = sweet drink; sherbet. 2. Nirgoon Kutha = story of the Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya. Bibayki = knowledgeable. Puleeta = fuse. Jhul = shine; light. 3.

MEANING: By reversing his thinking from Maya towards Waheguru, the mind of the man who loves Him gets fully absorbed in the spiritual state above the effects of Maya, and all the six circles that the yogis believe in are pierced automatically (and contrary to the belief of the yogis, there is no need to endure so much hardship). Suffering from the pangs of His separation, search for Waheguru, which never comes or leaves, and which never takes birth or dies, oh my mind. 1. With Guru's grace, my thinking has changed; I would be completely in the dark; now my mind is fully absorbed in itself (worldly attractions do not affect me). Pause. God, whom I thought was somewhere far away, has come very near to me, and Maya, which seemed to be so near, has gone far away; it is one's thinking that changes the whole concept. Just like the taste of sherbet of crystallized sugar, which can be enjoyed, but not described, the taste of union with Waheguru cannot be described - only felt. 2. There is a rare devotee who has the knowledge about the virtues of Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, and with whom I can share it. The kind of Waheguru's light or shine that one sees depends upon the nature of his dedication and faith, oh, Kabir. 3. 3.47.

Kuhou Kabir bul(i) jaaoun Gur apunay, Sat sungut(i) mil(i) ruhiyaiy. 3.4.48.

Word Meaning: Paavus = rain; Indra is believed to be the god of rain, so the appropriate meaning of Paavus here is the kingdom of Indra, Indra Puri. Hindus believe that after his death, the man goes to the kingdom of the deity whom they worship. So, there are kingdoms associated with the names of all popular gods. Sindh(u) = ocean; Vishnu is believed to live in the ocean, so the appropriate meaning of Sindh(u) here is the kingdom of Vishnu. Dhoop = sunlight; i.e., the city of the Sun. Chhuhiya = shade; coolness of the Moon, so the meaning is the city of the Moon. Ootput(i) = production; birth. Brahma is believed to be the creator of all life, so here it means Braham Puri. Purluou = death. Shiva is believed to be the destroyer, so here it means Shiv Puri. Biyaapaiy = affect. Soonn Smaadh(i) = getting absorbed in the spiritual state in which no thought about Maya arises. 1. Sehj = the spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Niraari = unique, indescribable. Tool(i) = weighing scale. Mookaati = run out. Pause. Urdh = low (caste). Oordh = high (caste). Doyoo = discrimination. Raat(i) = sleep (of ignorance). Day = daily routine; enjoying the luxuries of Maya. Jul = the water (of vices). Puvun = air (the unstable mind like the air which keeps moving). Paavuk(u) = fire (of desires). 2. Agumm = physically inaccessible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Niruntar(i) = continuous. Luhiyaiy = acquire. 3.

MEANING: The state of high spirituality (above the effects of Maya) is beyond description. It cannot be weighed (evaluated), it never feels any loss, and does not feel light or heavy (is not affected by the emotions of the man). Pause. There is no desire for Indra Puri, Vishnu Puri, Sun Puri, Moon Puri, Braham Puri or Shiv Puri in that state (no such place can match the bliss of that state). Once the devotee attains that state, he has no desire to live longer or is afraid of death. In that state, where no thought of Maya arises, the devotee does not long for any comfort or is not afraid of any discomfort. 1. There is no consideration of high or low castes, nor is there any discrimination of any kind. In that state, the devotee does not have a sleep of unawareness (he stays alert about the attacks of Maya), or does not get trapped in the luxuries of life; he stays away from any vices, keeps the ever-wavering mind under control, and the fire of desires does not affect him. He just stays focused on Satguru. 2. With the grace of the Guru, he stays connected with the inaccessible and incomprehensible God all the time. I will love to lay down my life for my Satguru with whom one stays connected through the holy congregation, oh Kabir. 3.4.48.

NOTE: The meaning of this holy Shabad has been adopted from Prof Sahib Singh Ji's interpretation in Sri Guru Granth Sahib Darpan, with sincere thanks.

Keht Kabir soonhou ray Sunt-hou ub aiysi bun(i) aayee. Ghaati churrhut baiyl ikk(u) thaaka, chulo goan(i) chhitkaayee. 3.5.49.
Word Meaning: Baiyl = oxen (in olden days, oxen were used to carry merchandise for trading). Bisaahay = bought. Puvun = air; breaths. Poonji = capital. Pergaasiyo = appeared; came into the world. Trishna = desires. Goon(i) = the sack of merchandise. Taand = merchandise. 1. Naayik(u) = leader; Lord. Bunjaara = trader; businessman. Pause. Jugaati = tax collectors. Munt Trung = the waves (desires) of mind. Butvaara = robbers. Punch Tut = five elements (making up the human body) . Daan(u) = Largesse (of life or the breaths given by Waheguru). Nibayreh(i) = consume. Taanda = the sack (of desires). Ooturiyo Paara = ferried to the next world. 2. Ub Aisy Bun Aayee = the situation is such now. Ghaati Churrhut = climbing the difficult hill (of Waheguru's worship). Goan(i) = sack (of desires). Chhitkaayee = dropping; abandoning. 3.
MEANING: My Lord, Waheguru, is such that He has created all human beings as traders (of good or bad qualities) in the world. Pause. The human traders are sent into the world by Him, giving them the capital of breath. The traders buy two oxen each – one for the ignoble (sinful) deeds, and the other for noble deeds (as per the norms of the society), which carry the merchandise of daily routine. Each individual has a sack full of desires in his mind, which serves as the incentive to trade for one's deeds (good or bad). 1. Lust and rage act as the tax collectors, which consume (take away) some part of the capital of the breaths (a part of man's life is spent in managing his lust and rage). The rest of the human life is robbed (consumed) in fulfilling the desires of the body, and the human traders spend no time remembering Waheguru to overcome their desires. So, the merchandise of desires is ferried to the next world as such (without any control over them). 2. Listen, oh holy saints, now, that I am doing the hard labour of worshipping Waheguru, which is like climbing a tough hill, one of the oxen – carrying the load of sins - has run away abandoning its sack, (my sins have been eradicated), says Kabir. 3.5.49.

(PAGE 334): Ta sohaagun(i) jaaniyaiy, Gur Shabad(u) beechaaray. 3. Kirt kee baandhi subh phiraiy daykhou beechaari. Ais nu kiya aakhiyaiy, kiya kuray vichaari. 4. Bhuyee niraasi ootth(i) chulie, chit bundh(i) na dheera. Hur(i) kee churni laag(i) ruhou, bhuj(u) shern(i) Kabira. 5.6.50.

Word Meaning: Punchpuda = a Shabad with five stanzas. Payvkurraiy = parents' home; this world. Din Chaar(i) = a few days. Saahoorurraiy = in-laws (Waheguru's) house; the next world. 1. Duddiya = half dhoti (sari) (which the women wear while doing house chores). Paahoo = guests. Mooklaayoo = the groom and his relatives taking the bride (Angel of Death). Pause. Khoohurri = beautiful well (attractive world full of lusts). Kaun = which woman; every human being. Laaj(u) = the rope (of hope and efforts) to draw water (of lusts). Vuhaari = pushed down into the well. Ghurri = the vessel to draw water (of lusts). Punihaari = who draws water. 2. Kaaruj = task (of connecting with God Himself). Svaaray = completes successfully. Soaagun(i) = loved by husband. 3. Kirt Kee Baandhi = restricted by previous deeds. Vichaari = helpless. 4. Niraasi = with unfulfilled hopes. Ootth(i) Chulie = leaves the world. Dheera = restore courage. 5.

MEANING: The blind (ignorant) and the foolish man does not realize that the life here in this world is only for a short time, and eventually he has to go to the next world to the Waheguru-husband. 1. It is unexplainable that the agents of death are almost here, and the ignorant woman (human beings) are still occupied in worldly affairs (and have forgotten Waheguru completely where they have to go). Pause. The world is like a very attractive well, but it is full of attractions of Maya (rather than water), and everybody is using the rope of hope and efforts to draw the water of lust from the world-well. But when death comes, the rope of efforts gets broken, and the water-drawing man leaves the world. 2. However, if the Lord is kind to someone and embraces him as His own, He can complete the task (objective) of the devotee (of breaking his bonds with Maya and connecting him with Himself). Only that human bride is considered married (loved by her husband) who ponders on Guru's Shabad. 3. But the man is forced to pursue his interests based on his deeds of a previous life. So, how can we fully blame the poor (helpless) man for his bad deeds, as he is simply following his destiny? 4. The human bride leaves the world disappointed with her hopes unfulfilled, and she is unable to restore her courage (be peaceful). The best thing for the man to do to achieve blissfulness of mind is to rush to Waheguru's shelter, oh Kabir. 5.6.50

Gaurri: Yogi kuheh(i) yoga(u) bhul meettha, uver(u) na dooja bhaayee. Roondit, moondit, Aikaiy Shabadi, ehay kuheh(i) sidh(i) paayee. 1. Hur(i) bin(u) bherm(i) bhoolaanay undha. Ja peh(i) jaaoun aap(u) chhootkaavun(i), tay baandhay buhou phundha. 1. Ruhaou. Jeh tay oopji, tuhee smaani, ih(i) bidh(i) bisri tub hee. Pundit, gooni, soor, hum daatay, eh(i) kuheh(i) bud hum hee. 2. Jiseh(i) boojhaayay, soyee boojhaiy, bin(u) boojhaiy kiyoun ruhiyaiy. Kuhou Kabir goongaiy goorr(u) khaaya, poochhaiy tay kiya kuhiyaiy. 4.7.51.

Word Meaning: Bhul = Bhula = good; best. Roondit Moondit = completely hairless (shaved) heads. Aikaiy Shabadi = those who recite only one word “Alukh” which means incomprehensible. Sidh(i) Paayee = achieved the objective. 1. Chhootkaavun(i) = to seek freedom (from Maya). Buhou Phundha = many bonds. Pause. Jeh Tay oopji = where (Waheguru) it (haumein) originates. Bisri = forgets. Gooni = having good qualities. Soor = valiant (who has conquered his mind). 2. In bidh(i) = this way. Maanuk = ruby (invaluable Waheguru’s Naam). 3. Baavaiy Dahnay = left and right. Bikaara = vices. Pud(u) = high spiritual state. Drirr(u) = reinforce; hold tightly. Goongaiy = mute; dumb. Goorr(u) = jaggery; big nuggets of raw sugar. 4.

MEANING: (The followers of every faith claim that their faith is the best). The yogis claim that their path is sweet (providing peace) and the best, and that there is none other like theirs. Similarly, the Jains and the Sanyasi, who shave their heads, claim that they achieve their objective successfully. 1. But, without Waheguru’s Naam, everybody is blind and is lost in misbeliefs. I find that everybody, whoever I go to seek advice about how to break the bonds of Maya, is himself strongly bonded with Maya. Pause. The whole world is fully gripped in haumein (selfishness and ego), which originates when people forget Waheguru, and it is because of their haumein that the people forget Waheguru. People suffer from haumein because of their high caste, knowledge, good qualities, valour, and philanthropy, etc., and they claim that only they are great. 2. Only that individual understands the reality whom Waheguru enlightens Himself. What kind of life is that without such understanding? The darkness of ignorance is dispelled only when one gets connected with Satguru, and that is how you acquire the invaluable Naam of Waheguru. 3. One should get rid of the vices on the left and right (all of them), and reinforce Waheguru’s Naam to achieve a higher spiritual state (leading to union with Him). However, like a mute, who cannot describe the taste of jaggery, he ate, the bliss of the union with Waheguru cannot be described in words, oh Kabir. 4.7.51.

Word Meaning: Jeh = where. Uhaa = is; was. Irra – right nostril. Pingula = left nostril. Sookhmun = a vein in the middle of the eyebrows (yogic practices). Uvgun = bad (worthless) practices. Kut Jaahi = where do they go (disappear to one's surprise). 1. Taaga = thoughts of selfishness and ego. Guggun = sky; thoughts. Binus(i) Guyya = eradicated. Boalut = talk; thoughts. Sunsa = doubt; question. Pause. Burbhund = (love for the wealth of) the whole world. Pind = (love for own) body. Ruchunhaar = the creator (mind). Joarrunhaara = connector (Waheguru). Ateeta = totally disconnected from Maya. 2. Binaasi = (love for) perishables. 3. Liv = connection with concentration. Ooa = His (God's). Murm = secret. Abinaashi = immortal. 4.

MEANING: When the chain of thoughts of one's haumein (selfishness and ego) is broken (vanishes completely), nobody knows where all his talk about haumein also disappears. This (unexplained) nagging question (about how this change comes about) challenges me all the time, but nobody explains it to me to clear my doubt. Pause. Where the mind was full of haumein before, nothing is left there after the change (all the haumein disappears). Also, nobody knows where the worthless yogic practices of breathing also disappear (one does not feel any need for them). 1. Where there was a wish to acquire the wealth of the whole world, and love for my own body, no such desire is left there now; even the mind that thought about all that is not there anymore. There is no need to tell anybody now that Waheguru, which is always fully disconnected from Maya (above the effects of Maya), has connected the devotee with Him (the devotee does not wish to be praised). 2. As long as the man loves the perishables, he cannot connect with Waheguru, and cannot break his bonds with Maya with his own efforts. Under such conditions, there is no real Master of the man, and he is not the slave (devotee) of anyone in particular, so who does he go to for support (there is none)? 3. My concentration is fully on Waheguru day and night (I am fully absorbed in Him), oh Kabir. (But I still cannot know His secrets), Only He knows His own secrets, and He is always immortal. 4.1.52.

Word Meaning: Soorut(i) = Attentiveness; concentration. Simrit(i) = remember; keep in mind. Permit(i) = beyond measurements (Waheguru); explicable knowledge acquired by experience. Khintha = quilt. Soonn = the spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Goofa = cave. Kulp = imagination; unrealistic ideas. Biburjut = not allowed; forbidden. Puntha = faith. 1. Baiyraagi = disconnected from Maya (and in love with God). Soag = grief. Biyogi = separation. Pause. Khund Brehmund = the whole world. Sinngi = bugle. Butooa = small bag to hold ash. Bhusmadhaari = mixing with ash (perishable). Taarri Laagi = full concentration (on Waheguru). Tirpul(u) = Maya (with three effects). Pusaari = with all the developments (family man). 2. Puvun(u) = air; breaths. Saarud = lute. Toomba = the hollow dried melon spheres on which the lute is mounted. Thir(u) = stable; unwavering mind. Tuntee = instrument. Unhud = uniform. Kinguri = lute. 3. Mugun = fully absorbed; unaware of the surroundings. Poonrup(i) = again. Baiyraagi = totally dissociated from Maya. 4,

NOTE: Kabir Sahib addresses a yogi in this Shabad. Yogis wear big glass rings in their ears; cover their bodies with ash, which they store in a small bag; wear a quilt, blow on a bugle to show their presence; live in caves or small huts, and play music on lutes. All these are the symbols of their faith. Disapproving of their practices, Kabir Sahib teaches him the true path to have union with God.

MEANING: I am also wearing earrings in my ears like you, but unlike you, my earrings are a focus on Waheguru and a reminder of Him in my mind, oh yogi. The Knowledge of the immeasurable Waheguru, which I acquired, is the quilt I am wearing. Getting my mind fully absorbed in the spiritual state where thoughts about Maya do not originate is the cave where I am meditating; other than that, all imagination is forbidden in my faith. 1. I am a yogi who has broken all the bonds with Maya, oh my Lord, and I will not suffer from spiritual death, any grief, or any separation from worldly attachments (as I have broken all such bonds). Pause. Delivering the message of the omnipresent Waheguru is the bugle that I am blowing, and my mind is the bag in which I store the memory - ash of the fact that the whole world is perishable. Deep meditation on Waheguru's Naam has reversed the effects of Maya, and even as a family man, I am free from its bonds now. 2. I am using my mind, and my breaths (remembering Waheguru with every breath) as the two hollow dried melon spheres on which I have mounted my lute (to sing Waheguru's praise), which is valid (is true) in all the eons. Now the lute of my mind has become stable (my mind has quit wavering), and I am listening to the uniform Divine music. 3. While listening to this Divine music, I am fully absorbed in the Perfect Waheguru, and Maya cannot lure my mind in any way. A devotee in deep love with Waheguru, who plays this game (becomes unaffected by Maya), is never reborn, oh Kabir. 4.2.53.

Chhoad(i) pusaar(u), eehaan ruhou bupuri, kuhou Kabir sumjhaayee. 4.3.54.

Word Meaning: Nuv = the nine body doors. Dus = the ten senses (five by nature and five by action). Ikkees = twenty-one elements of the human body. The total of all = 40 (9+10+21). Pooriya = warp of hand-loom (40 yards in length). Tunaayee = weaved. Saatth Soot = sixty long veins. Nuv Khund = nine big joints of the body (4 in the arms, four in the legs, and one in the bust). Buhuttar = seventy-two thin veins. Paat = patches. 1. Boonaavun = fulfil. Maaho = lust. Ghur Chhodiyaiy = lost control on mind. Julaaho = weaver. Pause. Miniyaiy = measure. Tooliyaiy = weigh. Paachun(u) = temper to give strength to the raw threads during weaving; food for human body to give it strength. Adhaayee = two and a half. Sayr adhaayee = about a kilogram. Bayg(i) = right away, on time. 2. Baiytth = stay. Burkus(i) = rebellion. Koonday = earthen pots. Bheegaiy Pooriya = the wet cotton cylinders. Joolaaho = the weaver-like man. Reesaayee = frustrated. 3. Chhoachhi = hollow; empty. Nulie = cotton cylinder. Tunt = thread. Nutur = the threads of the stretched warp (woof). Orjhaayee = tangled. Pusaar(u) = the worldly attractions. Eehaan Ruhou = stay in yourself (quit pursuing the worldly attractions.

NOTE: Kabir Sahib was a weaver by profession, so he used weaving as a metaphor for human life, focusing on the pursuit of desires and attachment to the world. He has used weaving terms to express his ideas about human behaviour. A fully stretched warp is 40 yards in length. It is divided into 10 sections by 9 supports placed at equal intervals. The raw cotton is treated with a temper (flour paste) to strengthen it. The cotton cylinders are also kept wet in earthenware to have better control.

MEANING: Like a 40-yard warp of a handloom, the newborn baby (man) comes with a body consisting of 40 parts (9 body doors + 10 senses + 20 basic elements + mind). The sixty long veins, nine body joints (are like the warp), seventy-two short veins and many other patches (skin, hair, nails, etc.) complete it. 1. As the baby grows, he begins to love the world and gets possessed by human desires and lust. Ignoring God, the man loses control of his mind in pursuit of his lust and desires. Pause. Like the temper needed for the warp to give strength to the cotton, the human body also needs temper in the form of food, amounting to about 1 kg, to have strength. If the body does not get food on time, it creates a ruckus in the mind. 2. For a short life, the man becomes a rebel against Waheguru without realizing that he will not get the human life easily again (to become “one” with Him). When the earthenware of the weaver in which the cotton cylinders are kept wet, are broken, the weaver quits his job; similarly, when the human body breaks down, the weaver-like man leaves this world frustrated. 3. When the cylinder, on which the cotton is wrapped, runs empty, no thread comes out of it, and the woof and the weft of the warp become tangled, similarly, the loss of breaths leaves the human soul tangled (trapped) in rebirths, and the circle continues as long as the mind keeps pursuing his desires. So, Kabir teaches his mind to stay in itself and quit pursuing the lust of life. 4.3.54.

Gaurri: Aik Joat(i) aika milee, kimba hoyay muhoyay? Jit(u) ghut(i) Naam(u) na oopjaiy, phoot(i) muraiy jun soyay. 1. Saanvul, soondar Ramuyya, mayra mun laaga Toh(i). 1. Ruhaou. Sadh(u) milaiy, sidh(i) paayiyaiy, k(i) eh(u) yoag(u) k(i) bhoag(u). Dooho mil(i) kaaruj oopjaiy, Ram Naam sunjoag. 2. Loag(u) jaaaiy eh(u) geet(u) haiy, eh(u) tuou Braham beechaar. soonaiy, Hur(i) Naama chit(u) laayay. Kuhou Kabir sunsa nuhee, unt(i) Perm Gut(i) paayay. 4.1.4.55.

Word Meaning: Joat(i) = Waheguru's soul. Kimba = can there be a doubt (that they are separate)? Muhoyay = does not happen. Phoot(i) = (mind) explodes into pieces. 1. Saanvul = wheat coloured (which is thought to be very attractive in India). Ramuyya = omnipresent (Waheguru). Pause. Sadh(u) = Satguru. Sidh(i) = real success (union with God). Yoag(u) = the path of the yogis. Bhoag(u) = enjoying the worldly comforts. Dooho = the two (Satguru's Shabad and devotee's concentration). Kaaruj Oopjaiy = objective is achieved. Sunjoag = union (with God). 2. Braham Beechar = discussion of Waheguru's virtues. Kaanshi Oopdaysh = the sermon in Banaras. 3. Sunsa Nuhee = absolutely no doubt. Perm Gut(i) = the supreme spiritual state. 4.

MEANING: When the human soul merges into Waheguru's soul, can it still be thought of as being different? (The answer is: No). The individual, in whose heart Waheguru's Naam does not take root, dies a spiritual death because his heart explodes into pieces (mind wanders in many directions and never becomes peaceful). 1. My mind has been attracted to You, oh my wheat-coloured, handsome Waheguru. Pause. One achieves success (the objective of human life) when one gets connected with the Guru, the blissfulness of which is like the yoga of the Yogis, and like the enjoyment of the luxuries of the world for me (they do not even come close to the blissfulness of union with God). When Guru's Shabad and the respectful devotion of the devotee for Waheguru's Naam come together, union with God results. 2. People think of Guru's Shabad as a lyric only, but they do not realize that it is the discussion of Waheguru's virtues (His praise), and is like the sermon that is given to a dying man in Banaras, which is believed to emancipate him. If someone sings or listens to the praise of Waheguru (His Naam) with full devotion, there is no doubt at all that he achieves the highest spiritual state at the end, oh Kabir. 4.1.4.55.

Word Meaning: Jutun = efforts; rituals. Bhuv Saagur(u) = the world sea. Kerm Dherm = accepted religious rituals. Uhunboodh(i) = ego-driven thinking. 1. Graas = nibbles of food. Daato = provider. Bisaariyo = forgotten. Laal(u) = rubies. Amoal(u) = priceless. Kaudi = a cowrie shell (worthless). Pause. Trishna = desires. Bherm(i) = misbelief. Oonmut = intoxicated; conceited. Maan Hiriyo = deceived by ego. Dhaariyo = adopted. 2. Loobhut = greedy. Indri Rus = sensual pleasures. Prayriyo = motivated; incited. Mud = liquor; intoxicant. Bikaariyo = lustful acts. Sungaanay = with, in the company of. Kaasht = wood. Oodhaariyo = ferried across; salvaged. 3. Dhaavut = rushing; going through. Bherm(i) = wandering through. Muha Rus(u) = super great enjoyment; supreme bliss. Nistaariyo = salvaged. 4.

MEANING: All those who invest their efforts (performing religious rituals), drown in the world sea, and do not find salvation. They do follow the rituals and try to control their senses solely through willpower, but they suffer because of their ego-driven thinking. 1. Why do (how can) they forget the Lord who is the provider of life and food? Human life is priceless, like diamonds and rubies, but they waste it on worthless (short-lived) comforts. Pause. Man does not realize that he is gripped by a big appetite and thirst for the fulfillment of his desires arising out of his misgivings (illusions). Intoxicated with and deceived by his ego, he does not enshrine Guru's Shabad in his mind. 2. Incited by his lust and greedy for the delicacies, he enjoys all the vices. But with good luck, if he connects with the Guru, he is ferried across the sea of Maya like a piece of iron that floats, tied to a wooden log. 3. Having been rushed through different life forms, I have been exhausted from this suffering. But taking the shelter of the Guru, and worshipping God with deep devotion, I have been ferried across the sea of Maya, and now I am enjoying the supreme bliss, oh Kabir. 4.1.5.56.

Word Meaning: Kaalboot = skeleton; model. Hustuni = female elephant. Baura = foolish; crazy. Chulut(u) = amazing feat; drama. Jugdeesh = Lord of the world. Kaam Sooaayay = with the objective of lust. Guj = elephant. Bus(i) = in the control. Unkus(u) = Ankus (the sharp pointed weapon to control the elephant). 1. Bikhaiy Baach(u) = stay away from lust. Raach(u) = get interested in; get absorbed. Guhiyo = hold; board. Juhaaj(u) = ship. Pause. Murkut = monkey. Mooshti = fistful. Annaj = grains; roasted black chick peas. Chhootun kuou = to get free. Sehsa = worry. 2. Nalini = a device to catch parrots. Soouta = parrot. Biyohaar = business; results. Ksoombh = a beautiful flower that withers quickly at the touch. Pusriyo Pusaar(u) = the visible world. 3. Ghunay = many. Chootun = freedom from Maya. 4.

NOTE: To educate human beings, Kabir Sahib gives some highly relevant examples of greed and sensual enjoyment, which result in very serious consequences for living beings. These examples do beg for some explanations.
Elephant: The elephant is known to be very lustful. So, to trap an elephant, the hunters dig a deep, large pit, cover it with grass and leaves, and then place a life-size model of a female elephant on it and wait for the excited elephant to arrive. Blinded by his lust, the elephant comes running to the female and drops into the pit and cannot get out. The hunters put a net on him and made him a prisoner.
Monkey: Monkeys are very good dancers and entertainers. Many people used them as good entertainers and thus earned their livelihood. Monkeys also love roasted black chickpeas. So, to catch a monkey, the hunters would put some roasted chickpeas in a narrow-mouthed container and bury it in the ground with the neck exposed. Attracted by the smell, some monkeys would come and try to steal them. His hand would barely go through the neck, but he would not be able to pull it out with his fist full of chickpeas. His greed would not let him empty his fist, and he would be caught.
Parrot: Parrots are very popular pets. To catch them, the hunters use a device called Nalini, which has a turning wheel with spokes. They put some food inside the wheel and placed a shiny plate full of water underneath. Attracted by the food, some parrots would come and sit on a spoke of the wheel, which turns with the weight of the parrot. Afraid of falling into the water below, the parrot hangs on tightly to the spokes and is caught.
MEANING: It is a drama of Waheguru that the elephant goes crazy because of his lust for sex. Blinded by his desire, he cannot tell the model from the real female elephant, and becomes a slave to his captors, where he has to endure the pain of the ankus on his head. 1. So, be careful and stay away from vices (sensual pleasures), and get interested in Waheguru, oh my crazy mind. Why don't you worship Waheguru fearlessly, and board His ship (to swim across the sea of Maya), oh my crazy mind? Pause. (Learn from the greed of the monkey) who spreads his hand to have a fistful of the grains (roasted black chick peas); and even though he becomes worried to get free, yet he is caught for his greed, and has to dance from door to door, oh my crazy mind. 2. Just as the parrot holds on to the spokes of the "nalini" tightly (and gets caught, and loses his freedom), anybody who is attracted to Maya suffers similar consequences, oh my silly mind. The visible world is like the flower of Kasoombh, which is very pretty, but vanishes (withers away) quickly just on touch, oh my crazy mind. 3. There are countless holy places to take a dip and countless gods to worship, but none can salvage you, oh my silly mind. Only service to Waheguru can liberate you, oh Kabir. 4.1.6.57.

Sunkaadik = Sunuk at al = the four sons of Brahma. Oodaasi = detached from Maya. Mookund(u) = Naraayin(u) = Waheguru. Phaasi = noose; lasso. 2. Nij = personal. Taas(u) = His. Soomut(i) = noble advice. Julut = burning. Umbh = water. Thumbh(i) = pillar (support). Dhaavut = wandering fast. Bherm = doubts; misgivings. Bhuou = fear. 3. Mudun = lust. Maatay = intoxicated. Laakh Koat(i) = millions; many. Ashuv = horses. Husti = elephants. Mooraari = Waheguru. 4.

MEANING: Accumulate the wealth of Waheguru's Naam, which never leaves you, oh my friend. Unlike worldly things, the fire does not burn Waheguru's Naam, nor does the wind blow it away; and no thief even comes near it. 1. My wealth is Waheguru's Naam, which is said to be the supreme. The comfort (mental bliss) that you get by serving Waheguru (singing His praise) cannot be enjoyed even if you could rule a country. Pause. Even gods like Shiva and Sunuk (and his brothers) renounced Maya while searching for Waheguru's Naam-wealth. The devotee, who has Waheguru in his mind and His Naam on the tongue, is not caught in the noose of the Angel of death (he merges into Waheguru). 2. My Guru has kindly bestowed me with Waheguru's Knowledge, and His worship, which has become my personal wealth, and my mind has been imbued with His wise advice. Waheguru's Naam has been like water to put out the fire of the desires that were burning me, and has acted like a pillar to stop (bring peace to) my mind, which was rushing in every direction, and all my doubts, worldly bonds, and my fears have run away (have disappeared). 3. Just think in your mind, oh man; You are completely lost in lust, and may have millions of (countless) horses and elephants in your possession, but you do not have (the most valuable) Waheguru's Naam, which I possess, says Kabir. 4.1.7.58.

Mundar(u) = house. Tthaat(u) = set up; creation. Tthuyiyo = is built. Bhaiy Saagur = world sea. 4.

MEANING: Like the monkey, which has a handful of chick peas, and won't let it go due to his greed, even though he is sure to be caught (see Shabad 57), all those deeds that the man does due to his greed, come back to haunt him (he has to bear their consequences). 1. Without God's worship, man wastes away his precious human life. Without the Guru's company and without God's worship, there is no morality left in the world. Pause. Just like nobody enjoys the sweet fragrance of the flowers blooming in the wilderness, the man who is eliminated by death and wanders through many life forms again and again does not benefit anyone. 2. The wealth, youthfulness, sons (children), and the wife, which Waheguru gives to the man, are simply to facilitate and perpetuate life, but, instigated by his sensual enjoyment, the man has been caught and constrained in them. 3. Man's body is like a hut of dry grass and leaves, and the span of life is like fire, which is burning (consuming) the hut-like body. I see this set up in all four directions (in the whole world). So, I have taken shelter at the Guru's feet to swim across the sea of Maya (to be liberated from the bonds of Maya), oh Kabir. 4.1.8.59.

Gobind = oh, Waheguru. Pause. Puvun = air; breaths. Jhoottha = false; perishable. Perpunch(u) = visible world; deceit. 2. Paanch Laakh = half a million (an enormous amount those days). MEANING: From the sperm of the father and the egg of the mother, Waheguru has created the human body. 1. So, my body, the wealth, and all the worldly enjoyments are given by You, oh my Waheguru, and there is nothing that I can claim as mine. Pause. Air (breaths) runs this body of mud, and the whole world has been created as a false (perishable) drama. 2. Some people accumulate a wealth of half a million (an enormous amount in those days), but only an earthenware is broken in his name (an affirmation that the human body has been broken). 3. Waheguru has laid down a foundation (principle) that the egoist can be destroyed in a moment, oh Kabir. 4.1.9.60.

MEANING: I recite Waheguru's Naam (with the same devotion) as that of Dhuroo and Prehlad. 1. Having full faith in You, I have put the family of all my associates on Your Naam-Ship to carry us across the world sea. Pause. When God wishes, He makes His devotees obey His Huqam and takes them across the sea of Maya. With Guru's grace, I have acquired such holy wisdom that my comings and goings (rebirths) are over. Worship the Provider-Waheguru, which is on this side of the world- sea, as well as on the other (in both the worlds), oh Kabir. 4.2.20.61.

Jaat = while leaving. Na Jaani = is not known. 4.

MEANING: As soon as a child comes out of the womb (is born), he forgets God with his first breath. 1. Sing praise of Waheguru, oh my mind. (There is a Hindu belief that the fetus, which is upside down in the womb, recites Waheguru's Naam there, and that is how it survives in the high heat of the womb. 2. The man is given the human life after he has wandered through the 8.4 million life forms (another Hindu belief). If he loses the support of Waheguru (does not recite His Naam) again this time, he will have no shelter and no support. 3. Worship Waheguru, oh man, advises Kabir. The world knows when you take birth, but nobody knows where your soul will go after death. 4.1.11.62.

Gaurri Poorbi. Soorg baas(u) na banchhiyiyaiy, duriyaiy na nerk(i) nivaas(u). Hoana haiy so hoyie haiy, muneh(i) na keejaiy aas. Rumuyyiya goon gaayiyaiy. Ja tay paayiyaiy Perm Nidhaan(u). 1. Ruhaou. Jiyoun sumpaiy, tiyoun biput(i) haiy, Bidh(i) nay ruchiya so hoyay. 3. Keh(i) Kabir ub jaaniya, suntun ridaiy mujhaar(i). Sayvuk so sayva bhulay, jih ghut busaiy Mooraar(i). 4.1.12.63.

Word Meaning: Baanchhyiyaiy = wish for. 1. Rumuyyia = Waheguru. Perm Nidhaan = supreme treasure (supreme bliss; union with Waheguru). Pause. Tup(u) = enduring personal hardships to please some deity. Sunum = forced control on senses. Bert(u) = fasting. Joogut(i) = technique. Bhaaou = with love. 2. Sumpaiy = wealth. Herkhiyaiy = feel overjoyed. Biput(i) = trouble; hard time. Bidh(i) = fate. Ruchiya = created. 3. Mujhaar(i) = in (the company of). 4.

MEANING: One should sing only Waheguru's praise, by which one achieves the supreme spiritual state to unite with Him. Pause. One should not wish to dwell in paradise and not be afraid of going to hell. Whatever has to happen will take place; one should not have any hope of any kind. 1. Recitation of any mantras, self-affliction to please some deity, forced self-control (on sensual pleasures), fasting, or some other self-imposed restrictions, or dip at holy places, are insignificant unless one knows the technique of Waheguru's worship with love and devotion. 2. One should not be overjoyed to acquire wealth, or cry (feel depressed) in the face of some trouble (or loss). Comforts of wealth and trouble are similar (both are short-lived, i.e., they come and go); one receives only that which is in store for him as per his fate. 3. In the company of the holy men, I have realized that only those devotees are good (approved by Waheguru) who have His Naam at heart, and likewise, only that service is good (approved by Waheguru) which is performed in His devotion, oh Kabir. 4.1.12.63.

Keh(i) Kabir chit(i) chaytiya, Ram simer(i) baiyraag(i). 3.2.13.64.

Word Meaning: Khinch(i) = pull; carry. Jin(i) = lest. Bhaar(u) = burden (of sins). Birkh = tree. Busayro = dwelling. Punkh(i) = (of the) birds. 1. Rus(u) = essence (sweet juice) of the Naam. Bisur(i) = forgotten. Pause. Aur = others. Juou = when. Thir(i) = stable; non-perishable. Binus(i) = vanish; be destroyed. Bulaayay = unexpected trouble. Rovaiy Bulaayay = let my trouble cry; why should I cry? 2. Oopji = born of; created. Ruchi = absorbed in. Merdun = brave men; holy saints. Chaytiya = remembered. Baiyraag = detachment from Maya. 3.

MEANING: There is nobody who is really yours (forever). So, do not carry the burden of their sins, oh my mind. The world is a temporary shelter for us, just like a tree is for the birds. 1. I have tasted the juice of Waheguru's Naam, which is so sweet that I have forgotten the taste of all other juices (enjoyments in life). Pause. When we know that we are not going to live forever, why cry at the death of others? Whoever is born will vanish; so why should I cry in grief? Let the grief cry (that it was not recognized). 2. In the company of the holy saints, my soul (mind) has been absorbed in Waheguru, which created it. I remember Waheguru, recitation of whose Naam causes detachment from Maya, oh Kabir. 3.2.13.64.

Word Meaning: Punth(u) = path. Nihaaraiy = watches expectantly. Kaamni = woman (human being). Loachun = eyed. Osaasa = (with) sighs. Oor = heart. Bheejaiy = satisfied; tired. Pug(u) = foot; step. Khisaiy = lose strength. 1. Kaaray Kaaga = oh, black crow. Bayg(i) = quickly. Pause. Jeevun Pud = high spiritual state. Kaarun(i) = for. Aadhaar(u) = basis; support. Riveejaiy = recite. 2.

MEANING: Just like a married woman, who watches the path of her husband expectantly with teary eyes and while sighing, I am also watching the path of my Waheguru-husband with the hope of having a glimpse of His holy sight. My heart never gets tired, and my feet do not lose strength in His wait. 1. Please, fly away, and bring me the message of my Dear Waheguru that He will come to see me soon, oh black crow (there is a common belief that if a crow crows on the roof of a house, a guest is about to visit). Pause. Worship Waheguru to attain the spiritual state which unites the devotee with Waheguru, oh Kabir. Make Waheguru's Naam the basis of your life, and drink the juice of His Naam with the tongue, oh Kabir. 2.1.14.65.

manohur, Krishan chraavut gaaoo ray. Ja ka Tthaakur(u) Toohi Saaingdhur moh(i) Kabira naaoun ray. 2.2.15.66.

Word Meaning: Ghun = dense. Toorsi = basil. Birva = plant. Bunaa = forest. Gaaoo = play music. Ooa Ka = his. Sroop(u) = handsomeness. Mohi = got enchanted. Gooaarun(i) = cow girl. 1. Saaringdhur = Waheguru. Bud Bhaago = highly fortunate. Pause. Bindrabun = the forest by the bank of the Jamuna, where Krishna Ji is believed to have grazed cows. Mun Hern = mind enchanting. Tthaakur(u) = Master; Lord. 2.

MEANING: Just like the cowgirls, who were enchanted by the handsomeness of Krishna when he was playing sweet music on his flute in the forest, and was surrounded by the dense bushes of basil, I am mesmerized by Your Love, oh my Waheguru. My mind is fully absorbed at Your Feet (in Your Naam), but You connect only those with You who are very fortunate. Pause. The mind-enchanting Krishna used to graze his herd of cows in Bindrabun (where the cowgirls would be enchanted) (he was only in the meadow), but You are omnipresent, and I, Kabir, am Your slave, oh Waheguru. 2.2.15.66.

Gaurri Poorbi 12: Bipul bustar kaytay haiy pehray, kiya bun mudhay baasa. Kuhaa bhuyya nur dayvay dhoakhay, kiya jul boariyo giyata. 1. Jea ray, jaahaynga mein jaana. Abigut(u) sumujh(u) iyaana. Jut, jut daykhoun buhour(i) na paykhoun, sung(i) Maya luptaana. 1. Ruhaou. Giyani dhiyani buhou oopdayshi, eh(u) jug(u) suglo dhundha. Keh(i) Kabir ikk Ram Naam bin(u), iya jug(u) Maya undha. 2.1.16.67.

Word Meaning: Bipul Bustar = very loose clothes. Mudhay = in. Baasa = dwelling. Dhoakhay = offer fragrance of incense. Jul(i) Boariyo = throw (an idol) in water with the belief that it will reach its resting place. Giyaata = one who knows; knowingly. 1. Jaahayngaa = will leave (the world). Abigut(u) = incomprehensible (Waheguru).
Iyaana = ignorant. Jut Jut = wherever. Buhour(i) = again. Paykhoun = see. Pause.
Giyani = those who have spiritual knowledge. Dhiyani = meditators. Dhundha = business. 2.

MEANING: What does an individual achieve by wearing very loose clothes, or by living in a forest? What does one achieve by offering the fragrance of incense to deities, or by knowingly immersing an idol in water with the false belief that it will reach its resting place? 1. I (the man) understand(s) that he is perishable. Still, he is so engrossed in that Maya, which is never stable; no matter which direction I look in, it is never the same (keeps coming and going). Pause. Try to understand the importance (worth) of the incomprehensible (Waheguru) (worship Him), oh ignorant man (otherwise, you will also waste away your precious life). Some claim to be highly knowledgeable, and some are preaching religious knowledge; some others are promoting meditation, while some others are preachers - it is all about business (Maya). Without the Naam of the “One” Waheguru, the whole world is blinded by Maya, oh Kabir. 2.1.16.67.

Gaurri 12: Mun ray chhaad-hou bherm(u), pergut(u) hoyay naachou, iya Maya kay daanday. Soor(u) k(i) sunmookh run tay durpaiy, sutee k(i) saanchay bhaanday. 1. Dugmug chhaad(i) ray mun baura. Ub tuou juray muray sidh(i) paayiyaiy, leeno haath(i) sundhaura. 1. Ruhaou. Kaam, kroadh Maya kay leenay, iya jugut(u) bigoota. Keh(i) Kabir, Raja Ram na chhoadoun, sugul ooch tay oocha. 2.2.17.68.

World Meaning: Bherm(u) = misgivings; illusions. Pergut Hoyay = in the open. Naach-hou = dance (for Waheguru); worship Him. Daanday = punished. Soor(u) = valiant. K(i) = what kind. Run = battlefield. Sutee = self-immolation on the pyre of the husband. Saanchaiy = takes care of. Bhaanday = utensils; dishes. 1. Dugmug = wavering or doddering (indecisiveness) of mind. Baura = crazy. Juray Muray = die by burning. Sidh(i) = success; achieve objective. Sundhaura = vermillion-covered coconut (which a would-be sutee holds). Pause. Leenay = possessed by. Bigoota = suffers; destroyed. 2.

MEANING: (People are so much under societal pressure to follow the accepted rituals that they cannot get out of them, and cannot worship Waheguru openly. All such rituals are actually the punishment (pressure) of Maya (to earn more and more wealth). But, be brave, and worship Waheguru openly (publicly) in my mind. What kind of a valiant is he who gets afraid of his opponents on the battlefield, and what kind of would-be "sutee" is that who starts taking care of her kitchen before self-immolation? 1. Once she holds the vermillion-covered coconut in her hand, the would-be "sutee" has no other choice but to burn on the pyre of her hand (with the false belief) that she would be joined with her dead husband. (It is a custom for the would-be sutee to hold such a coconut before jumping onto the pyre). Like the would be "sutee", you too, quit your indecisiveness, oh my mind, (and start worshipping Waheguru). Pause. Possessed by lust and rage (different aspects of Maya), the world is suffering the destruction of their spiritual life. However, I will not quit worshipping the King-God, which is higher (greater) than the highest, oh Kabir. 2.2.17.68.

ਗਉੜੀ 13॥ ਫੁਰਮਾਨੁ ਤੇਰਾ ਸਿਰੈ ਊਪਰਿ ਫਿਰਿ ਨ ਕਰਤ ਬੀਚਾਰ॥ ਤੁਹੀ ਦਰੀਆ ਤੁਹੀ ਕਰੀਆ ਤੁਝੈ ਤੇ ਨਿਸਤਾਰ॥ 1॥ ਬੰਦੇ ਬੰਦਗੀ ਇਕਤੀਆਰ॥ ਸਾਹਿਬ ਰੋਸੁ ਧਰਉ ਕਿ ਪਿਆਰੁ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਨਾਮੁ ਤੇਰਾ ਆਧਾਰੁ ਮੇਰਾ ਜਿਉ ਫੂਲੁ ਜਈ ਹੈ ਨਾਰਿ॥ ਕਹਿ ਕਬੀਰ ਗੁਲਾਮੁ ਘਰ ਕਾ ਜੀਆਇ ਭਾਵੈ ਮਾਰਿ॥ 2॥18॥69॥

Gaurri 13: Foormaan Tayra siraiy oopur(i), phir(i) na kert beechaar. Toohi duriya, Toohi kuriya, Toojhaiy tay nistaar. 1. Bunday, bundgee iktiyaar. Sahib roas(u) dhurou k(i) piyaar(u). 1. Ruhaou. Naam(u) Tayra aadhaar(u) mayra, jiyoun phool(u) juyee haiy naar(i). Keh(i) Kabir goolaam(u) ghur ka, jea-ayay, bhaavaiy maar(i). 2.18.69.

Word Meaning: Foormaan = Huqam; Order; Will. Siraiy Oopur(i) = to obey without any reservation. Phir(i) = in opposition. Duriya = river (sea) of life. Kuriya = boatman. Nistaar = salvation. 1. Iktiyaar = adopt; accept. Roas(u) = resent; dislike. Dhurou = hold. Pause. Aadhaar = basis; support. Juyee = comes to life; thrives. Naar(i) = (in) water. Goolaam = slave. Jea-ayay = keep alive. 2.

MEANING: Your Will is the final order for me which I obey gladly without any reservation, and dare not think otherwise (anything to oppose it), oh my Lord. You are the world-sea (in which the attractive waves of Maya arise unchecked), and You are also the boatman to take us across the sea (and salvage us). 1. Start worshipping Waheguru regardless of the fact whether the Lord dislikes or loves you, oh man. Pause. Your Naam is the basis of my life, and my mind blooms like a lotus flower which thrives in water when I recite Your Naam. I, Kabir, am Your personal slave; I am happy either way, whether You keep me alive or kill me, oh Lord. 2.18.69.

Word Meaning: Lukh Chauraaseeh = the 8.4 million life forms. Bhermut = wandering through. Nund(u) = the godfather of Krishna. Hayt(i) = for; because of. Avtaar Leeyo = (Krishna) is born. Bupoora = poor; helpless. 1. Nundun(u) = son. Dhern(i) = earth. Duso Dis = the ten directions. Pause. Sunkut(i) = trouble. Joan(i) = in the womb; life forms. 2.
MEANING: You (the world) maintain that when Nund was exhausted of going through the 8.4 million life forms, he worshipped God with full devotion. Pleased with his worship, God took birth in his house as Krishna to reward him. You say God (Krishna) is the son of Nund, then, whose son was Nund? Where was this Nund when there was no earth, no sky, and any of the ten directions? Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, never gets into any trouble, and never takes any life form, oh, the ignorant man. My Lord is such that He has no mother and no father, oh Kabir. 2.19.70.
NOTE: Kabir Sahib strongly disapproves of the belief that Krishna was God. Actually, Krishna's father was Vasu Dev; Nund was his godfather.

Gaurri: Nindou, nindou, mo kuou loag(u) nindou. Ninda jun kuou khurie piyaari. Ninda baap(u), ninda mehtaari. 1. Ruhaou. Ninda hoyay ta baiykoontth(i) jaayiyaiy. Word Meaning: Nindou = criticize (maliciously). Jun = devotee. Khurie = much. Mehtaari = mother. Pause. Baiykoontth = paradise. Pudaaruth = (priceless) item. Soodh(u) = clean; pure. Kupray Dhoyay = wash the filth of my weaknesses. 1. Hoaraiy = stops; prevents. Loaraiy = wishes. 2. Oodhaar = salvation. Saar(u) = supreme. Dooba = drowned (in the world-sea). 3.

MEANING: Please criticize me (even if it is malicious), oh folks. I love my criticism very much, as it is like my father and my mother because it nurtures me. Pause. As a result of criticism, one improves one's morality and embeds Waheguru's Naam in one's heart, which is the real paradise. Criticism purifies the mind (of a wise person), while the critic (vilifier) washes the dirty clothes (filth of mind) of the individual under attack. 1. Actually, my critic is my friend, and he is always in my mind (because thinking about him keeps me on the right tack). Actually, the individual who prevents criticism is the real vilifier because the (bad) critic (vilifier) wishes good life for me even though it is intended to be otherwise (slanderous). 2. Criticism is my love and affection because it leads to my salvation. The slave, Kabir, considers his criticism as the supreme gift. The vilifier drowns in the world-sea while I have been salvaged, oh Kabir. 3.20. 71.

Word Meaning: Raja Ram = Waheguru King. Tern Taarun = ship to ferry. Pause. Hum = my ego. Bhuyay = became. Putiyaahi = mind convinced; pleased. Bul = power; ability. Khutaayee = blend with each other. Hur(i) = removed; took away. Sidh(i) = success.

MEANING: You are the Lord of the universe, are fearless (have no superior), and are the boat to ferry us across the sea of Maya, oh my King Waheguru. Pause.

The heart of the individual, who shows his existence (his ego), cannot be a home for You. But when you dwell in someone's mind, he is left with no ego. Now, my soul has merged with Yours, and we have become "one". Now, my mind is convinced that You alone are the Master of the universe, and there is no other power. 1. When we are conceited of our own wisdom, what kind of spiritual power can we possess (have no mental power because the two – ego and spirituality - do not go together). But, now that You have appeared in my mind, I have forfeited my own wisdom, and have acquired mental power. God has taken away my false (ignoble) wisdom, and I have achieved success in my objective (to be "one" with Him) with my changed wisdom, oh Kabir. 2.21.72.

Gaurri: Khut naym kur(i) koatthrri baandhi, bust(u) anoop beech paayee. Koonji koolf(u), praan kur(i) raakhay, kertay baar na laayee. 1. Ub mun jaagut ruhou ray bhaayee. Gaaful(u) hoyay kaiy junum(u) guvaayiyo, chor moosaiy ghur(u) jaayee. 1. Ruhaou. Punch pehrooa dur meh(i) rehtay, tinh ka nuhee putiyaara. Chayt(i) soochayt chit hoyay ruhou, tuou laiy pergaas(u) oojaara. 2. Nuoun ghur daykh(i) ju kaamun(i) bhooli, bust anoop na paayee. Keht(u) Kabir nuvaiy ghur moosay, dusvaiyn Tut(u) smaayee. 3.22.73.

Word Meaning: Khut Naym = the practitioner of the six Brahman or Hindu deeds; the body with six circles (as per the belief of the yogis); body with six ingredients (earth, water, air, energy, consciousness, and the mind). Only the last of the three possibilities is universal; the first two have limited believers. So, the third seems to be the most appropriate meaning in this Shabad. Anoop = which has no equal. Bust = article (Waheguru's Naam). Koolf = lock. Koatthrri = a small room; human body. Kertay = in doing so. Baar = time. 1. Jaagut = watchful; alert. Gaaful(u) = careless. Chor = the five thieves (demons). Moosaiy = rob. Pause. Punch Pehrooa = the five guards (senses). Dur = the doors of the body. Putiyaara = trust. Chayt(i) = remember. Soochayt = alert. Pergaas(u) = light. Oojaara = brightness. Nuoun Ghur = the enjoyment of the nine doors of body (sensual pleasures). Kaamun = woman (human being). Moosay = robbed. Tut = the root (Waheguru).
MEANING: Waheguru created the human body from the six ingredients – earth, water, air, energy, consciousness, and the mind – and placed a unique and invaluable substance (Waheguru's soul – His Naam) in it. He made the soul the lock and the key of the body (the soul runs the body), and it did not take Him any time to do so. 1. Now, stay alert (from the attractions of Maya), oh man. If you are careless, the five demons – lust, rage, greed, attachment, and ego – will rob all your wealth (noble qualities) in the house (body). Pause. The five senses control the nine doors of the body, but they cannot be trusted (rather than guarding the doors, i.e., warning the mind of any danger or wrongdoing, they could be friends with the demons). For example, the eyes show you the path, and help you, but they could cast an evil eye on the beauty and wealth of others, and so on. You need to be highly watchful and remember Waheguru with full concentration, and enlighten your mind, oh man. 2. When human beings begin to enjoy the evil side of the nine doors and forget Waheguru, they cannot acquire the unique product – Waheguru's Naam. The man's noble qualities can be robbed through all the nine openings of the body, but the root, Waheguru, dwells in the tenth door (brain – higher spiritual stage). (He can be realized only through the tenth door, oh Kabir. 3.22.73.

Word Meaning: Maayee = oh, mother. Uver(u) = other. Jaaniyo = recognize. Aanaana = anybody else. Sunukaad(i) = Sunuk etc., the four sons of Brahma. Jaas(u) = whose. Taas(u)

= His. Pranaana = life. Pause. Gur Gummit = the Guru which has access to Waheguru. Guggun Mundul = the tenth door. Bikhaiy = vices. Roag = ills. Bundhun = chains. Nij Ghur = in own mind. Janaana = found out. 1. Aikus = One Waheguru. Rut(i) = in love. Maan(i) = pride. Aanaana = bring. Baasun = lust. Tiyaag(i) = renouncing; giving up. Abhimanaana = conceit. 2. Jus(u) = praise. Taas(u) = his. Kerm Perdhaan = huge luck. Muthanaana = on the forehead. 3. Shukut(i) Shiv = Waheguru's Maya. Sehj(u) = spiritual state above Maya. Pergaasiyo = appeared. Smanaana = absorbed; merged into. Bhayt(i) = on connecting with. Bhermut Ruhay = wavering of mind stopped; became peaceful. 4.

MEANING: I do not recognize any other person (or power) than Waheguru, whose praise is being sung by Shiva and the sons of Brahma, oh my mother. My life is now residing in Him (I survive only by reciting His Naam). Pause. My mind has been enlightened by the Knowledge given to me by the Guru, who has access to Waheguru (is connected with Him), and my concentration is focused on the tenth door (at Waheguru's feet). All the chains of my vices, mental illnesses, and worries have been cut, and I have found comfort and peace in my own mind. 1. Recognizing only Waheguru, I am imbued in His love and thoughts, and He is my pride; I do not bring anybody else to mind. In His love, I have renounced (overcome) my lust, and my mind is full with the fragrance of sandal (Waheguru) now, and my ego has lessened (disappeared). 2. The heart of the individual, who sings praise of, and recites the Naam of the Lord, becomes Waheguru's dwelling. The individual whose heart becomes a dwelling for Waheguru is very lucky, and great fortune appears on his forehead. 3. Waheguru has severed all my bonds of Maya, and I have attained the high spiritual state above the effects of Maya, and merged into God to become "one" with Him, oh Kabir. 4.23.74.

ੴ ਸਤਿਨਾਮੁ ਕਰਤਾ ਪੁਰਖੁ ਗੁਰਪ੍ਰਸਾਦਿ॥

ਰਾਗੁ ਗਉੜੀ ਪੂਰਬੀ ਬਾਵਨ ਅਖਰੀ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀਉ ਕੀ॥

Ek Onkar Sat Naam(u) Kerta Purakh Gur Persad(i)

Raag(u) Gaurri Poorbi, Baavun Akkhuri, Kabir Jeeo Kee.

ਬਾਵਨ ਅਛਰ ਲੋਕ ਤ੍ਰੈ ਸਭੁ ਕਛੁ ਇਨ ਹੀ ਮਾਹਿ॥ ਏ ਅਖਰ ਖਿਰਿ ਜਾਹਿਗੇ ਓਇ ਅਖਰ ਇਨ ਮਹਿ ਨਾਹਿ॥ 1॥

Baavun achhur loak traiy, subh(u) kuchh(u) in hee maah((i). Eh akkhur khir(i) jaahengay, oye Akkhur in meh(i) naah(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Baavun Achhur = fifty-two letters (of Hindi Alphabet). Khir(i) = erase; fall short Oye = that (praise of Waheguru).

MEANING: The whole world can be described by the letters of the Alphabet, but these letters are perishable, and fall short of describing the virtues of Waheguru (His qualities cannot be described by these letters). 1.

NOTE: Kabir Sahib has used the letters of the Gurmukhi Alphabet to discuss many aspects of Waheguru. Even though the heading of this holy composition is "Baavun Akkhuri", the letters used by Kabir Sahib are all of Gurmukhi (Punjabi) script.

ਜਹ ਬੋਲ ਤਹ ਅਛਰ ਆਵਾ॥ ਜਹ ਅਬੋਲ ਤਹ ਮਨੁ ਨ ਰਹਾਵਾ॥ ਬੋਲ ਅਬੋਲ ਮਧਿ ਹੈ ਸੋਈ॥ ਜਸ ਓਹੁ ਹੈ ਤਸ ਲਖੈ ਨ ਕੋਈ॥ 2॥

Jeh boal the achhur aava. Jeh aboal the mun na ruhaava. Boal aboal mudh(i) haiy soyee. Jus Oh(u) haiy, tus lukhaiy na koyee. 2.
Word Meaning: Boal = language (the situation that can be described). Aboal = quietness (the situation which cannot be described). Ruhaava = does not exist. Jus = the way (Waheguru is). Lukhaiy = understand; comprehend.
MEANING: Words can be used for situations that can be described, but no words can be used for situations which cannot be described (for example, the blissfulness of union with Waheguru); in fact, in that spiritual situation, the mind loses its existence and gets absorbed in Waheguru. The description of God falls between the two situations (His attributes can be described, but not Him). Nobody can comprehend the way He is. 2.

ਅਲਹ ਲਹਉ ਤਉ ਕਿਆ ਕਹਉ ਕਹਉ ਤ ਕੋ ਉਪਕਾਰ॥ ਬਟਕ ਬੀਜ ਮਹਿ ਰਵਿ ਰਹਿਓ ਜਾ ਕੋ ਤੀਨਿ ਲੋਕ ਬਿਸਥਾਰ॥ 3॥
Allah luhoun tuou kiya kuhoun, kuhoun ta ko oopkaar. Butuk beej meh(i) ruv(i) ruhiyo, Ja ko teen(i) loak bisthaar. 3.
Word Meaning: Allah = incomprehensible. Luhoun = acquire. Oopkaar = favour. Butuk = banyan tree. Ruv(i) Ruhiyo = is present. Bisthaar = expanse.
MEANING: Even if I am able to realize the incomprehensible God, I am unable to say anything about the state of my blissfulness; even if I say something, it will not be a favour to anyone (because it will not be the exact description of the mental state). Waheguru, which is present in the three layers of the universe, is also present in the banyan tree's seed. 3.

ਅਲਹ ਲਹੰਤਾ ਭੇਦ ਛੈ ਕਛੁ ਕਛੁ ਪਾਇਓ ਭੇਦ॥ ਉਲਟਿ ਭੇਦ ਮਨੁ ਬੇਧਿਓ ਪਾਇਓ ਅਭੰਗ ਅਛੇਦ॥4
Allah luhunta bhayd chhaiy, kuchh(u), kuchh(u) paayo bhayd. Oolt(i) bhayd mun(u) baydhiyo, paayo Abhung Achhayd. 4.
Word Meaning: Luhunta = searching for. Bhayd = distance from God; ignorance about Him. Chhaiy = by destroying. Oolt(i) = reversing. Badhiyo = pierced. Abhung = indivisible. Achhayd = which cannot be pierced; unattackable.
MEANING: Searching for Waheguru, my ignorance about Him was eliminated to some degree, and I found some of His secrets. Reversing the direction of my mind (getting rid of my doubts), I have realized the indivisible and the unattackable Waheguru. 4.

ਤੁਰਕ ਤਰੀਕਤਿ ਜਾਨੀਐ ਹਿੰਦੂ ਬੇਦ ਪੁਰਾਨ॥ ਮਨ ਸਮਝਾਵਨ ਕਾਰਨੇ ਕਛੂਅ ਕੁ ਪੜੀਐ ਗਿਆਨ॥5
Turk Treekut(i) jaaniyaiy, Hindu Bayd Puran. Mun sumjhaavun kaarnay kuchhoo ku purriyaiy Giyan. 5.
Word Meaning: Turk = Muslims. Treekut(i) = the second of the four stages in the path to union with Allah that the Muslims believe in. This stage explains the ways to cleanse one's mind. Kuchhoo ku = some.
MEANING: The Turks read about Treekut(i), and the Hindus read the Vedas and the Puranas; one needs some knowledge to convince the mind. 5.

ਓਅੰਕਾਰ ਆਦਿ ਮੈ ਜਾਨਾ॥ ਲਿਖਿ ਅਰੁ ਮੇਟੈ ਤਾਹਿ ਨ ਮਾਨਾ॥ ਓਅੰਕਾਰ ਲਖੈ ਜਉ ਕੋਈ॥ ਸੋਈ ਲਖਿ ਮੇਟਣਾ ਨ ਹੋਈ॥ 6॥
Oankar Aad(i) mein jaana. Likh(i) ur(u) maytaiy, tah(i) na maana. Oankar lukhaiy juou koyee. Soyee lukh(i) maytna na hoyee. 6.
Word Meaning: Oankar = the guard of all, Waheguru. Likh(i) = write; create. Maytaiy = erase; decimate. Lukhaiy = comprehend.

MEANING: I recognize God alone as the origin (creator) of the universe, and do not acknowledge any other individual whom He creates and then destroys. If someone comprehends God (makes a connection with Him), his connection with Waheguru is never broken (it becomes permanent). 6.

ਕਕਾ ਕਿਰਣਿ ਕਮਲ ਮਹਿ ਪਾਵਾ॥ ਸਸਿ ਬਿਗਾਸ ਸੰਪਟ ਨਹੀ ਆਵਾ॥ ਅਰੁ ਜੇ ਤਹਾ ਕੁਸਮ ਰਸ ਪਾਵਾ॥ ਅਕਹ ਕਹਾ ਕਹਿ ਕਾ ਸਮਝਾਵਾ॥ 7॥

Kukka, kirn(i) kumul meh(i) paava. Sus(i) bigaas sumput nuhee aava. Ur(u) jay tuhaa koosum rus paavaan. Akeh kuha, keh(i) ka sumjhaavaan. 7.

Word Meaning: Kirn = ray of sun; enlightenment. Kumul = the lotus flower, which blooms in sunlight and folds at night; the human heart. Sus(i) = moon; Maya. Bigaas = light. Sumput = box; enclosed; fold. Ur(u) = and. Tuha = there; in that state. Koosum = flower. Rus = taste. Akeh = indescribable. Keh(i) = by saying. 7.

MEANING: If I am lucky to enlighten my lotus-like heart with God's Knowledge (make a connection with Him) so that it blooms, then unlike a lotus flower, which wilts away at night, it will not fold down (wilt), in the weak light of the moon-like Maya. And if I enjoy the taste of my bloomed heart in that blissful state, I will not be able to express that blissfulness because what can I say about that (it cannot be expressed in words). 7.

ਖਖਾ ਇਹੈ ਖੋੜਿ ਮਨੁ ਆਵਾ॥ ਖੋੜੇ ਛਾਡਿ ਨ ਦਹ ਦਿਸ ਧਾਵਾ॥ ਖਸਮਹਿ ਜਾਣਿ ਖਿਮਾ ਕਰਿ ਰਹੈ॥ ਤਉ ਹੋਇ ਨਿਖਿਅਉ ਅਖੈ ਪਦ ਲਹੈ॥ 8॥

Khukha, ihaiy khoarr(i) mun(u) aava. Khoarray chhaad(i) na deh dis dhaava. Khusmeh(i) jaan(i) khima kur(i) ruhaiy. Tiou hoyay nikhiou, akhaiy pud luhaiy. 8.

Word Meaning: Khoarr = a hole in the stem of some trees, which is used as shelter by birds; a cave; heart; Waheguru's shelter. Khima = forgiveness. Tuou = then. Nikhiyou = indestructible. Akhaiy = immortal. Pud = status. Luhaiy = acquires.

MEANING: If one seeks the shelter of God, his mind becomes stable (peaceful), and does not leave that shelter to wander in every possible direction. He recognizes (realizes) the Lord and becomes forgiving. In that state, he becomes indestructible (is not reborn) and acquires the immortal status. 8.

ਗਗਾ ਗੁਰ ਕੇ ਬਚਨ ਪਛਾਨਾ॥ ਦੂਜੀ ਬਾਤ ਨ ਧਰਈ ਕਾਨਾ॥ ਰਹੈ ਬਿਹੰਗਮ ਕਤਹਿ ਨ ਜਾਈ॥ ਅਗਹ ਗਹੈ ਗਹਿ ਗਗਨ ਰਹਾਈ॥ 9॥

Gugga Gur kay Buchan puchhaana. Dooji baat na dhuryee kaana. Ruhaiy bihungum kuteh(i) na jaayee. Ageh guhaiy, geh(i) guggun ruhaayee. 9.

Word Meaning: Buchan = Words. Puchhana = recognizes the importance. Dhuryee = pays attention. Kaana = ears. Bihungum = (unattached like a) bird. Kuteh(i) = nowhere. Ageh = which cannot be held; inaccessible (Waheguru). Guhaiy = holds; acquires. Guggun = sky; in a high spiritual state.

MEANING: A true devotee of Waheguru recognizes the importance of the Words of the Guru (acts on His Advice), and pays no attention to any other advice. Like a bird, he stays detached from Maya, and his mind does not wander (in Maya's thoughts); he acquires the Naam of the inaccessible Waheguru, and enjoys the blissfulness of the high spiritual state.9.

ਘਘਾ ਘਟਿ ਘਟਿ ਨਿਮਸੈ ਸੋਈ॥ ਘਟ ਫੂਟੇ ਘਟਿ ਕਬਹਿ ਨ ਹੋਈ॥ ਤਾ ਘਟ ਮਹਿ ਘਾਟ ਜਉ ਪਾਵਾ॥ ਸੋ ਘਟਿ ਛਾਡਿ ਅਵਘਟ ਕਤ ਧਾਵਾ॥ 10॥

Ghugha, ghut(i) ghut(i) nimsaiy Soyee. Ghut phootay, ghut(i) kubeh(i) na hoyee. Ta ghut meh(i) ghaat juou paava. So ghut(i) chhaad(i) uvghut kut dhaava. 10.
Word Meaning: Ghut(i) = in the heart. Nimsaiy = resides. Soyee = that (Waheguru). Phootay = breaks. Ghut = lessen. Ghaat = ford; launching place for a boat on a river; path to cross. Uvghut = difficult path.
MEANING: God resides in every heart, but if some heart is broken (dies), there is no loss in Waheguru's magnanimity. If I find the path to cross the sea of Maya (to unite with God) in my own heart, I will never quit that path to follow some other difficult and less effective path. 10.

ਙੰਙਾ ਨਿਗ੍ਰਹਿ ਸਨੇਹੁ ਕਰਿ ਨਿਰਵਾਰੋ ਸੰਦੇਹ॥ ਨਾਹੀ ਦੇਖਿ ਨ ਭਾਜੀਐ ਪਰਮ ਸਿਆਨਪ ਏਹ॥11॥
(Gn)un(gn)a nigreh(i) snayhou kur(i), nirvaaro sundayh. Naahi daykh(i) na bhaajiyaiy, perm siyaanup eh.
Word Meaning: Nigreh(i) = hold tightly; have complete control. Snayhou = love. Nirvaaro = remove. Sundayh = doubt; misgivings. Naahi Daykh(i) = invisible.
MEANING: Remove all your doubts and misgivings (about God) by having complete control over your sensual pleasures, and by developing love for Him, oh my friend. The supreme wisdom lies in the fact that one should not run away from pursuing his objective (of uniting with God) simply because He is not visible. 11.

ਚਚਾ ਰਚਿਤ ਚਿਤ੍ਰ ਹੈ ਭਾਰੀ॥ ਤਜਿ ਚਿਤ੍ਰੈ ਚੇਤਹੁ ਚਿਤਕਾਰੀ॥ ਚਿਤ੍ਰ ਬਚਿਤ੍ਰ ਇਹੈ ਅਵਝੇਰਾ॥ ਤਜਿ ਚਿਤ੍ਰੈ ਚਿਤੁ ਰਾਖਿ ਚਿਤੇਰਾ॥ 12॥
Chucha ruchit chittar haiy bhaari. Tuj(i) chitraiy chayt-hou Chitkaari. Chittar buchittar ihaiy uvjhayra. Tuj(i) chitraiy, chit(u) raakh(i) Chitayra. 12.
Word Meaning: Ruchit = created (universe). Chittar = painting; creation. Bhaari = humungous. Tuj(i) = forgetting. Chayt-hou = think of. Chitkaari = Chitayra = the painter; the Creator (Waheguru). Buchittar = of many colours; enchanting. Uvjhayra = struggle.
MEANING: The universe created (by God) is humungous (and amazing), oh my friend. But rather than paying attention to the creation, you should think of (remember) the Creator. Waheguru's creation is so colourful and enchanting that there is a struggle going on in the mind of the man all the time (whether to choose Waheguru or the attractive world – Maya. (But, the best thing to do is to) ignore the attractions of the world, and keep the Creator in mind. 12.

Chhuchha, ihaiy chhutarput(i) paasa. Chhuk(i) k(i) na ruhou, chaad(i) k(i) na aasa? Ray mun mein tuou chin(u) chhin(u) sumjhaava. Taah(i) chhaad(i) kut aap(u) bundhaavaan. 13.
Word Meaning: Chhutarput(i) = the one who has royal canopy on his head (Waheguru). Paasa = shelter. Chhuk(i) = with firm mind. Chhin(u) = moment. Taah(i) = Him. Bundhaavaan = get shackled.
MEANING: Waheguru's shelter (is the only way to perfect life); so why don't you give up all others hopes, and seek His shelter with firmness, oh my mind. I warn you every moment, that's why you get tied up in the shackles of Maya by ignoring Waheguru? 13.

ਜਜਾ ਜਉ ਤਨ ਜੀਵਤ ਜਰਾਵੈ॥ ਜੋਬਨ ਜਾਰਿ ਜੁਗਤਿ ਸੋ ਪਾਵੈ॥ ਅਸ ਜਰਿ ਪਰ ਜਰਿ ਜਰਿ ਜਬ ਰਹੈ॥ ਤਬ ਜਾਇ ਜੋਤਿ ਉਜਾਰਉ ਲਹੈ॥ 14॥

Jujja, juou tun jeevut juraavaiy. Jobun jaar(i) joogut(i) so paavaiy. Us jur(i), pur jur(i), jur(i) jub ruhaiy. Tub jaayay Joat(i) oojaarou luhaiy. 14.

Word Meaning: Juou = when. Tun = (sensual pleasure of the) body. Jeevut = living in the world. Juraavaiy = burn; kill. Jobun = youthfulness. Joogut(i) = technique (to unite with Waheguru). Us Pur = us (ours) and others; the feeling of prejudice. Jur(i) = tolerance. Joat(i) = (Waheguru's) light. Jaayay = attain that stage. Oojaarou = light.

MEANING: An individual, who burns away his sensual pleasures and the pride of his youthfulness while living in Maya (the world), acquires the technique (the path) to unite with God. When he burns away his prejudices (and treats everybody the same), he attains the spiritual state above the effects of Maya, and his mind is enlightened by Waheguru's Light. 14.

(ਅੰਗ 341)॥ ਝਝਾ ਉਰਝਿ ਸੁਰਝਿ ਨਹੀ ਜਾਨਾ॥ ਰਹਿਓ ਝਝਕਿ ਨਾਹੀ ਪਰਵਾਨਾ॥ ਕਤ ਝਖਿ ਝਖਿ ਅਉਰਨ ਸਮਝਾਵਾ॥ ਝਗਰੁ ਕੀਏ ਝਗਰਉ ਹੀ ਪਾਵਾ॥ 15॥

Word Meaning: Oorjh(i) = trapped in the web (of Maya). Soorjh(i) = untangle; get free. Jhujhuk(i) = hesitant. Pervaana = a moth which jumps into the flame without any hesitation. Jhukh(i) = frustrating explaining. Jhugur(u) = argumentation.

MEANING: The man gets easily trapped in the web of Maya but does not know how to free himself from its bonds. Unlike the moth, which jumps into the flame without any hesitation, the man is always hesitant to fall in love with Waheguru. How can I explain (the blissfulness of union with Waheguru) because it becomes very frustrating as people do not understand it. The explanation becomes an argument, which leads to more argumentation and nowhere. 15.

Word Meaning: Nicket(i) = close by. Ghut = heart. Tuj(i) = leave. Ja Kaarun(i) = the reason for which. Dhoondhiyo = searched. Nayrou = close by.

MEANING: Why leave home to go far away in search of Waheguru, which is so close to my heart? The Waheguru, for which I searched the whole world, I found Him close to my heart. 16.

ਠਠਾ ਇਹੈ ਦੂਰਿ ਠਗਨੀਰਾ॥ ਨੀਠਿ ਨੀਠਿ ਮਨੁ ਕੀਆ ਧੀਰਾ॥ ਜਿਨਿ ਠਗਿ ਠਗਿਆ ਸਗਲ ਜਗੁ ਖਾਵਾ॥ ਸੋ ਠਗੁ ਠਗਿਆ ਠਉਰ ਮਨੁ ਆਵਾ॥ 18॥

Word Meaning: Tthugneera = the deceiving water; mirage; sensual pleasures (Maya). Neetth(i) = observing very carefully. Dheera = made peaceful. Thug = the deceitful Maya. Tthugiya = cheated. Tthaur = peace.

MEANING: Like the deceitful water (mirage) which seems to be there in a desert on a hot day, but seems to get farther and farther away, the pleasures of Maya are also very deceitful, because the man never seems to get contentment, as they seem to run farther and farther away. However, when I carefully observed its effects, I discovered the truth, and my mind became peaceful (contented). (With careful observation and by reciting Waheguru's Naam), I was able to cheat the deceitful Maya, who has swallowed the whole world with its charm. Now my mind is at perfect peace. 18.

Word Meaning: Dur = fear of Waheguru. Dur(u) = worldly fears. Smaayee = gets soaked in. Duraiy = is afraid of (avoids) Nidur(u) = fearless.

MEANING: When Waheguru's (respectful) fear develops in one's mind, all his worldly fears run away, as they get soaked (absorbed) in the fear for Waheguru. If one avoids God's fear, he gets gripped by the worldly fears again. But all the worldly fears of the man who has become fearless by acquiring Waheguru's fear in mind run away. 19.

Word Meaning: Dhig = close by. Dhoondheh(i) = search. Kut Aana = where else. Dheh(i) = fell down; left the body. Praana = life; breaths. Sumayr = top of the mountain; the tenth door; the high spiritual state. Gurrh(u) = fort; human body. Gurriyo = constructed; created.

MEANING: Search for Waheguru close by (in your heart); where else are you looking for Him? Countless people have died searching for Him in the outside world. When I searched for Him in the high spiritual state, I found Him in my body (mind), which has been created by Him. 20

ਣਾਣਾ ਰਣਿ ਰੂਤਉ ਨਰ ਨੇਹੀ ਕਰੈ॥ ਨ ਨਿਵੈ ਨ ਫੁਨਿ ਸੰਚਰੈ॥ ਧੰਨਿ ਜਨਮੁ ਤਾਹੀ ਕੋ ਗਣੈ॥ ਮਾਰੈ ਏਕਹਿ ਤਜਿ ਜਾਇ ਘਣੈ॥ 21॥

Word Meaning: Run(i) = battlefield; mind (where the struggle is going on between lust and good qualities). Rootou = busy in fighting. Nayhi = firm control. Nivaiy = yield. Sunchuraiy = becomes friends with. Aikeh(i) = the one (mind and its desires). Tuj(i) = leave; run away. Ghunaiy = many.

MEANING: Fighting against vices, the man should exercise full control over his desires. He should not yield to them and make no friendship with them. The coming of that man into this world is considered praiseworthy who kills the desires of his mind, as a result of which many vices leave him (he becomes vice-free). 21.

Word Meaning: Utur = which cannot be swum across. Tirbhuvun = (the wealth of the) universe. Smaayee = absorbed. Tun = body; mind. Tutteh(i) Tut Miliya = man's soul (light) merges into Waheguru's Light. Sach(u = Waheguru.

MEANING: The world sea is impossible to swim across with one's own efforts because high waves of sensual pleasure arise in which the man can easily drown – especially when the man's mind is fully absorbed in the wealth (attractions) of the world. But, when the attractions of the world are absorbed in the mind (are fully in control of the mind), man's light (soul) merges into Waheguru's Light, and He acquires Waheguru (gets connected with Him). 22.

MEANING: Waheguru is unfathomable, and nobody can find His limits because one's mind does not become stable (to connect with Him). The man starts building big mansions in a small space (has high hopes to achieve too much in a short lifetime); it is like supporting a big mansion without any pillars. 23.

MEANING: What you see is all perishable, oh man. So, keep the invisible Waheguru in mind. (Man does not remember God; it is as if he has locked his mind to keep Him away). So, when he applies the key of Guru's Word to his mind to focus on (attain) the spiritual state above Maya, he can "see" the kind Waheguru (get connected with Him). 24.

MEANING: When the man with a low spiritual level begins to reside in God (concentrates on His Naam), his birth-death cycle comes to an end. When one gives up his low thoughts (his own wisdom) and takes Waheguru's shelter, he gets connected with Him and acquires blissfulness. 25.

MEANING: My day and night are spent in waiting for God, and while waiting for Him, my eyes get imbued in His love. After a long wait and devotion, when I connected with Him, my soul united with His Soul. 26.

MEANING: Waheguru is infinite, and nobody can find His limits; one can only work hard to make a connection with Him. (With Waheguru's kindness) When one completely controls his five senses, he transcends the concepts of noble or sinful deeds (they become irrelevant).27.

ਫਫਾ ਬਿਨੁ ਫੂਲਹ ਫਲੁ ਹੋਈ॥ ਤਾ ਫਲ ਫੰਕ ਲਖੈ ਜਉ ਕੋਈ॥ ਦੂਣਿ ਨ ਪਰਈ ਫੰਕ ਬਿਚਾਰੈ॥ ਤਾ ਫਲ ਫੰਕ ਸਭੈ ਤਨ ਫਾਰੈ॥ 28॥

MEANING: If one abandons his ego, he achieves the desired result (connection with God), and gets a short glimpse of Him. If one keeps the beauty of the short glimpse of Waheguru in mind, no separation is left between him and Waheguru (he gets connected with Him). Also, all his love for his own body gets destroyed. 28.

ਬਬਾ ਬਿੰਦਹਿ ਬਿੰਦ ਮਿਲਾਵਾ॥ ਬਿੰਦਹਿ ਬਿੰਦਿ ਨ ਬਿਛੁਰਨ ਪਾਵਾ॥ ਬੰਦਉ ਹੋਇ ਬੰਦਗੀ ਗਹੈ॥ (ਅੰਗ 342)॥ ਬੰਦਕ ਹੋਇ ਬੰਦ ਸੁਧਿ ਲਹੈ॥ 29॥
Bubba bindeh(i) bind milaavaan. Bindeh(i) bind(i) na bichhurun paavaan. Bunduou hoyay bundgee guhaiy.
(PAGE 342): Bunduk hoyay, bund soodh(i) luhaiy. 29.
Word Meaning: Bindeh(i) = (in) a drop of water. Bindeh(i) = for a short moment. Bind(i) = by recognizing. Bunduou = slave. Bundgee = worship. Guhaiy = holds tightly; does with devotion. Bunduk = bard. Bund = chains. Soodh(i) = understanding.
MEANING: If one recognizes Waheguru even for a short moment, he gets blended with (absorbed into) Him just like a drop of water blends into another drop, and he does not get separated from Him again. If one worships Waheguru with full devotion like a slave, he becomes His bard (sings His praise all the time), and gets a complete understanding of the chains of Maya. 29.

Word Meaning: Bhaydeh(i) = gap; separation (from Waheguru). Bhayd(i) = by piercing. Bhuou = fear. Bhaan(i) = break; remove. Bhurosou = faith. Bheetur(i) = inside (in the mind). Bhayd = secret. Bhooput(i) = king (Waheguru).
MEANING: If I pierce my mind (with Waheguru's love) and patch up the gap of separation from Him by getting rid of all the worldly fears, I can win His faith in me. I realized the King of the universe by recognizing the secret that God, which is present throughout the universe, is also present in my mind. 30

MEANING: When one's mind brings faith in Him, he is able to acquire (get connected with) Waheguru, which is the origin of everything. By becoming a part of Waheguru, he also learns the reality of the mind (that it is a part of God). No one should delay the union of the mind with Waheguru. The devotee, who focuses his full concentration on Waheguru, realizes Him. 31.
ਮੰਮਾ ਮਨ ਸਿਉ ਕਾਜੁ ਹੈ ਮਨ ਸਾਧੇ ਸਿਧਿ ਹੋਇ॥ ਮਨ ਹੀ ਮਨ ਸਿਉ ਕਹੈ ਕਬੀਰਾ ਮਨ ਸਾ ਮਿਲਿਆ ਨ ਕੋਇ॥ 32॥

Word Meaning: Kaaj(u) = objective to achieve; favour to get. Saadhay = bring under control. Kuhaiy = convinces.
MEANING: The man has direct business with the mind (to bring it under control) because only the controlled mind enables the man to achieve success in his objective (of achieving union with Waheguru). But only the mind can convince itself; there is no union of the man with Waheguru until the mind is convinced (no matter how many rituals and noble deeds one performs, and how many personal hardships he endures to please Waheguru with the belief that he has achieved union with Him). 32.

Word Meaning: Shuktee = (lover of) Maya. Seeou = Shiv = (worshipper of) Waheguru. Jeeo = living being. Lay = get (under control). Oonmun(i) = in high spiritual state (of Knowledge). Teen Loak = (the Lord of) the universe.
MEANING: The human mind resides in the body, which is made up of the five basic elements, and which has its needs and desires (manifestations of Maya). So, man is attracted to Maya. But at the same time, as part of Waheguru, the mind also has a natural inclination toward God. So, the man is torn between Maya and God regarding his attachment. An individual who is able to control his mind and who achieves the spiritual state above the effects of Maya talks only about (sings praise of) the Lord of the three-layered universe – Waheguru. 33.

MEANING: If you understand the reality (what the objective of human life is), then get rid of your evil thinking, and control your mind, oh my friend. Just like a valiant who stays fully engaged and does not flee the battlefield, you will also be a valiant if you do not yield to the five evil demons in your struggle to control them. 34.

Word Meaning: Rus(u) = taste of Maya. Nirus = tasteless. Su Rus(u) = the taste of Waheguru's Naam. Pehchaaniya = recognized. Bhaava = like.

MEANING: If a man realizes that the taste (enjoyments) of Maya is indeed tasteless in the realm of spirituality, he recognizes the true taste (of Waheguru's Naam). If one quits enjoying the tastes of Maya, he begins to enjoy the taste of Waheguru's Naam. Once he has a taste of Waheguru's Naam, he does not like the tastes of Maya. 35.

Word Meaning: Liv = deep concentration. Unut = somewhere else. Allah = the incomprehensible Waheguru. Luhaiy = acquires.

MEANING: If a devotee meditates on Waheguru's Naam in such a way that his mind does not wander for anything else, he realizes the Supreme Truth (Waheguru). And if he concentrates on Him in that state with deep love (devotion), he realizes the incomprehensible God, and stays absorbed at His Feet (in His Naam). 36.

MEANING: People have written many (religious) books using the fifty-two letters (or alphabets of other languages), but they have not been able to recognize the single most important word (Waheguru) in these letters. Kabir sings praise of the "ONE" (Waheguru) only. Only that person can be considered a pundit (a learned man) who stays in the realm of Divine Knowledge. But for the pundits, knowledge is business (they preach it to others for selfish reasons but do not follow their own advice). However, the really knowledgeable people ponder on the Truth (Waheguru). But people's understanding depends on how they think (or on their ability to think), oh Kabir. 45.

Ek Onkar Sat Gur Persad(i):
Raag(u) Gaurri Thintee Kabir Ji Kee:

Thintee: Are the days between the new and the full moon and back to the new moon, when it goes through different phases. But they have the same names for both phenomena. Hindus consider some of these days to be very auspicious – especially the first and the eleventh day after the new or the full moon – and perform special rituals on those days. Kabir Sahib delivers a special message through this holy composition that there is nothing sacred about any of those days. One should remember Waheguru every day regardless of its relation to the different phases of the moon. Guru Arjun Sahib has also discussed Thiti in the same Raag(u).

ਸਲੋਕੁ॥ ਪੰਦ੍ਰਹ ਥਿੰਤੀ ਸਾਤ ਵਾਰ॥ ਕਹਿ ਕਬੀਰ ਉਰਵਾਰ ਨ ਪਾਰ॥ ਸਾਧਿਕ ਸਿਧ ਲਖੈ ਜਉ ਭੇਉ॥ ਆਪੇ ਕਰਤਾ ਆਪੇ ਦੇਉ॥ 1॥

Sloak(u): Pundreh thintee, saat vaar. Keh(i) Kabir oorvaar na paar. Saadhik Sidh lukhaiy juou bhayou. Aapay Kerta, Aapay Dayou. 1'

Word Meaning: Oorvaar = the closer end. Paar = the farther end. Sadhik = those who purify their bodies by Yogic exercises. Sidh = an accomplished yogi. Lukhaiy = understands. Bhayou = secret. Kerta = creator. Dayou = light like; worthy of worship.

MEANING: (People believe in the auspiciousness of some of the days of the changing phases of the moon and the days of the week, but all these days become auspicious when one recites the Naam of the Waheguru, which has no ends (limits), on all the fifteen phases of the moon and the seven days of the week. If the Sidh yogis and the disciples of the Yogic path realize this secret (that Waheguru's Naam makes every day auspicious), they will learn that God is the creator of the universe and also the only power worthy of worship. 1.

Bin(u) Roop = ugly. Kus = how; why. Koobija = was a young humpback woman-slave of Kuns (the maternal uncle of Krishna, who had imprisoned Krishna's parents), but was hump-backed. She was a specialist in fragrant oils. Once, she gave Krishna some fragrant oil, which pleased him, and he removed her hump, turning her into a beautiful damsel. Biyaadh(i) = deeply indulged in vices. Ajamul = a Brahman who married a prostitute, for which he was condemned as being immoral!! A saint advised him to name his youngest son Narayan (a name for Waheguru). Calling his son by this name, he was considered Waheguru's devotee and was given salvation. Churn = feet. Budhik = hunter. The entire clan of Krishna was destroyed due to a curse by a sage who easily lost his temper. Krishna was lying, pondering the whole tragedy, in the shade of a tree, with one leg raised over the other. He did not realize when the dark fell. There was naturally a lotus-like shiny stone in his foot, which shone in the dark. This hunter mistook the shining stone for the eye of a deer and shot an arrow aimed at Krishna's foot, as a result of which Krishna died. But the dying Krishna not only forgave the hunter but also granted him salvation. Bidur(u) = was the son of a maid of the Paandav clan, fathered by the sage Vyas. He was the prime minister of King Dhritrashtra (of the Mahabharat). and a devotee of Krishna. Once, Krishna Ji visited Delhi, which was ruled by the Kaurvas, but rather than staying with Prince Duryodhana, he stayed with Bidur(u), thus honouring him. Soodaama = A poor Brahman, and a childhood friend of Krishna. He once visited Krishna with only a fistful of rice as a gift, but Krishna built him a huge house and gave him a lot of money. Oogursaiyn = the father of Kuns, and the maternal grandfather of Krishna. Krishna killed Kuns, and gave the reign of Mathura to Oogursaiyn. Heen = lacking; without. Tayoo = those. Turay = granted salvation.

MEANING: When you could float rocks on the surface of the sea which bore Your Naam, why won't a person, who recites Your Naam, find salvation, oh Waheguru! Pause. You granted salvation to Gunika, ugly Koobija, and the vices-gripped Ajamul. Even the hunter, who shot Krishna in the foot with an arrow, and many others, were liberated by You. I am a sacrifice to all those who recite Your Naam, oh Waheguru. 1. You honoured Bidur(u), the son of a maid, and poor Soodaama, and gave the reign of Mathura to Oogursaiyn. You gave salvation even to those who did not recite Your Naam; did not suffer any bodily hardship to please You, came from some very low clan, and did not perform any religious rituals; (so why will not I find salvation who is a staunch devotee of Yours), oh the Lord of Namdev, Waheguru?

MEANING: I admit that I keep the company of bad people (of immoral people); my deeds are deceitful, and I am born in a very low clan; all these shortcomings worry me day and night. 1. But, You are the basis of my life, and I am Your devotee, so do not ignore me, oh, the Lord of the world, Waheguru! Pause. Word Meaning: Baygum = without sadness; worry-free. Andoh(u) = worry. Tusvees = nervousness. Khiraaj = tax. Khauf(u) = fear. Khutaa = crime; fault. Ters(u) = pity; fear. Juvaal(u) = loss. 1. Khoob = much. Vutun = homeland. Geh = place; room. Khaiyr = wellbeing. Pause. Kaayim(u) = permanent. Daayim(u) = always. Doam = second-rate. Saym = third rate. Aabadaan(u) = well-populated city. Gunee = Maamoor = rich; wealthy (of noble qualities). 2. Saiyl = stroll. Mehrum = those who are familiar with all the secrets (well-connected with Waheguru). Utkaavaiy = stops; restricts. Khulaas = free from all restrictions. Hum Shehri = of the same city; having the same spiritual level. Meet(u) = friend. 3.
NOTE: People have their own concepts of paradise, where Waheguru resides and where His devotees go after death. Ravidass Ji compares the spiritual state in which a devotee is fully connected to Waheguru to such an imagined paradise.
MEANING: Union with Waheguru can be likened to living in a city named “The City of No Worries” (it is not just the name; the City is really free of all worries). There is no discomfort or any worry at that place. There is no nervousness there because there is no tax to pay (as you do not own any property). There is no fear of any fault (or crime) and no fear of any loss. 1. I have found a room in that city now, and I like it very much there, as there is all wellbeing there all the time. Pause. There is the eternal reign of Waheguru, where there is no second or third-class citizen – all are equal there. The City (union with God), which is well inhabited by the spiritually wealthy people, is well known. 2. The citizens walk around (enjoy the blissful state, and the flight of their minds) as they please, because there is nobody to restrain them, as they know Waheguru’s Residence well (are known to Waheguru). The cobbler Ravidass, who is free from all such worries and attractions of Maya, says that anybody who has attained that spiritual state is my friend. 3.2.

Word Meaning: Ghut = path. Uvghut = difficult. Ghuna = immense; much. Nirgoon = without good qualities; weak. Baiyl = ox; mind. (In olden days, merchants used oxen to carry their merchandise, or oxen were used to pull the carts carrying the merchandise. Rummuyiya = Waheguru. 1. Bunjaaro = merchant. Taanda = the caravan of oxen carrying the merchandise. Laadiya =loaded; transported. Sehj = the blissful spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Bikh(u) = poisonous Maya. 2.

Oorvaar Paar Kay Daaniya = the one who knows the deeds performed by individuals. (The two mythical characters -Chitar and Goopt - who keep written records of the deeds of individuals). Aal Putaal(u) = non-sense; gibberish. Dund = punishment. Tujilay = given up. Junjaal = spiritually harmful dealings. 3. Kusoombh = a flower that looks very pretty, but withers away by simple touch; a short-lived joy. Mujeetth = madder – a dye with very fast red colour. Chumaar = cobbler. 4.

MEANING: Like the journey uphill with a heavy load, the path (to union with God) is very difficult. On top of that, my mind-ox is weak (its faith in Waheguru is not very strong). So, I request You to protect my spiritual wealth so that I may reach (connect with) You, oh Waheguru. 1. I am a dealer in Waheguru's Naam, and I am looking for some company of such dealers (holy men) who want to connect with God so that the merchandise of my spiritual wealth is also hauled to Waheguru. Pause.

I am a dealer in Waheguru's Naam, and I deal for the state of mind which is above the effects of Maya. God's Naam is my merchandise, whereas the rest of the world is dealing in the poisonous Maya (worldly affairs). 2. Write whatever gibberish you want to write about me, oh Chitar and Goopt; the Angel of justice cannot punish me because I have relinquished all the spiritually harmful dealings in Maya. 3. I have realized that, like the kusoombh flower, the world may be attractive to enjoy, but such enjoyments are short-lived. On the contrary, the love for God is as permanent as the colour of madder (which does not come off), oh Ravidass, the cobbler. 4.1.

Sugul Bhuvun = the whole universe. Naayika = Leader; Lord. Chhin(u) = moment. Ders(u) = sight. Pause. Mulin = filthy. Mut(i) = wisdom. Maadhvaa = Waheguru. Gut(i) = higher spiritual state. Lukhi = understood. Bherm = misgivings. Chookyee = lift; remove. Soomut(i) = noble thinking. 2. Jogishur = the top yogis. Kuthun Apaar = beyond description. 3.

MEANING: Like a frog, which is constrained in a well along with many other frogs, has no knowledge of the outside world, my mind is so enchanted by Maya that I cannot think beyond it (anything about spirituality). 1. Show me a glimpse of Yours, oh, the Lord of the universe. Pause. My thinking has become so filthy that I cannot comprehend Your transcendental state. Please be kind to me, dispel all my misgivings, and advise me so that my thinking becomes noble, oh Waheguru. Your virtues are beyond description; even the accomplished yogis do not know them. Word Meaning: Joog = yugas. Hindu Granths have divided the time from the inception of the world till now into four eons: Satyug (1728000); Trayta (1296000); Dooaapur (864000); Kulyug (432000). The numbers in the brackets are the ages of the yugas in years.

Sat(u) = high morality; donations or other noble deeds (as per the granths). Jugee = having yugs. Poojachaar = the worship of gods. Dirraiy = follow with conviction. Naam Adhaar = the support of the Names of Rama and Krishna; bowing to their idols. 1. Paar(u) = the other side of the world-sea. Avaaguvun = rebirths. Bilaayay = avoided. Pause. Buhou Bidh(i) = in many ways. Niroopiyaiy = delineated (different duties assigned to different strata of the class system of Hinduism. Kerta deesaiy = is seen doing. Loyay = the world. Kerm = ritual. Chhootiyaiy = emancipation. Jid saadhay = by means of which. Sidh(i) = success. 2. Akerm = deeds which have been disapproved by the granths. Shunka = doubts. Sunsa = worries; fear. Hiraiy = remove. Abhimaan = ego. 3. Oodik(i) Pukhaariyaiy = wash with water. Bibidh(i) = of many kinds. Bikaar = vices. Soodh = pure. Koonchar = elephant (which covers his body with dust after taking bath). 4. Ruv(i) = sun. Rujni = night. Jutha = as. Gut(i) = leaves. Paarus = the elixir stone. Taambo = copper. Kunuk = gold. Baar = delay. 5. Perm Purs = the supreme elixir stone. Poorub Likhut(i) Lillat = pre-written on the forehead. Oonmun = the mind detached from Maya (and inclined towards Waheguru). Bujjur Kpaat = the stone-like gates on the Tenth Door of the body. 6. Joogut(i) = means. Mut(i) = thinking. Sat Kuree = made strong. Bus(i) = with a controlled mind. Rus(i) = with bliss. Goon = noble qualities. Nirgoon = without any qualities. Aik Beechar = treat the same.

7. Nigreh = efforts to control senses. Taari Na Turaiy = cannot be avoided (restrained). Phaas = shackles. Oodaas = disappointed; depressed. 8.1

NOTE: In perfect accordance with the Philosophy of Guru Granth Sahib, Ravidass Ji is also of the firm belief that one cannot be emancipated without the recitation of Waheguru's Naam (and hence without connecting with Him). As you will see, he disapproves of all other religious practices and rituals as means to find salvation.

: In Satyug, the people were believed to have high morality, gave donations to Brahmans, and were following the other religious practices (perform rituals), while in the Trayta Yug, yugs and huvuns were performed in which holy fires were built, free meals were served to the Brahmans, and some animals were sacrificed, which became the norm to achieve salvation. In Dooaapur, the worship of the deities of choice replaced the yugs as the means to please gods, and in the present age of Kulyug the names of Rama and Krishna have become the basis of worship. People worship their idols and recite some mantras. 1. (There is no advice to sing praise of Waheguru, which is a prerequisite to attain salvation), so can someone explain to me how you will swim across the sea of Maya? (And find salvation to avoid future rebirths). Pause. The whole world seems to follow the religious dictates for various strata of the Hindu caste system as delineated by the Granths. But which ritual must one follow to achieve the success of the human objective (union with God)? 2. As one listens to the Vedas and the Puranas, one gets more confused as to which religious deed is approved and which is disapproved by the religion. Doubts always arise in the mind as to how a particular deed can eradicate your ego. 3. People wash their bodies from outside at holy places (to cleanse their mind) while they have so many different ignoble ideas in their account of deeds performed. A dip in holy waters is just like the bathing of an elephant, which sprays its body with dust after the bath. So, how can one have a clean mind? 4. The whole world knows that the darkness of night is gone with the light of the sun. It happens quickly, just as copper turns into gold without any delay when it comes in contact with the elixir stone. 5. The Guru is the supreme elixir stone (who transforms the mind of a Maya-engrossed individual into that of a devotee of Waheguru), but it happens only when one has good fortune prewritten on his forehead. (With the grace of the Guru), The mind of the devotee becomes detached from Maya and becomes eager to "see" Waheguru. So, the stone-like gates of his Tenth Door (consciousness) open completely, and his mind (soul) merges with God. 6. The devotee controls his mind from the attacks of Maya (sensual pleasures) by means of his devotional worship of God, and attains freedom from the bonds of Maya. With his controlled mind, he enjoys the blissful union with Waheguru, and for him, noble qualities, or lack thereof, become the same (they become unimportant to him). 7. A person may try many different ways to control his senses, but he cannot restrain them with his own efforts; the shackles of misgivings cannot be avoided without taking shelter of Waheguru. (With other efforts to control one's sensual pleasures) The love for God's worship does not take root in one's mind; that's why Ravidass feels depressed. 8.
