Raag Assa Mehla 1, Putti Likhi

NOTE: The word "Putti" means the Alphabet of a language. To teach Putti to young children, appropriate pictures of common animals and birds, human beings in uniform, some natural objects, or the like are used to show the sound of the letter of the alphabet with which the name of the object in the picture starts. The beginners at school were made to write the alphabet on wooden boards to improve their handwriting. This holy composition uses each letter of the Gurmukhi alphabet (Punjabi language) to praise Waheguru.
There are only three holy compositions in Guru Granth Sahib that have special qualifiers like "Likhi" (written), as in this composition, and "Aakhi" (sang), as in the Vaar of Satta and Balwand. These qualifiers have special significance. In this composition, the qualifier "LIkhi" most likely implies that Guru Nanak Sahib wrote the Alphabet in praise of Waheguru when He was still in school.
The first word in each paurri (staza) is the letter of the Gurmukhi Alphabet.

Also, He is the only Perfect Pundit (fully knowledgeable). 9.

NOTE: The Vedas and the eons (in which only the Hindus believe) have been created by men, not by Waheguru. The Hindus believe that the Vedas were written by Brahma, who is also believed to be the creator of all living beings. Guru Sahib has simply replaced Brahma with the real creator - Waheguru.

Dholo = husband (Waheguru). Bhulee = good; lucky. Ruliyaan = enjoyment. Huoun = me; I. Pookaareen = call (pray) loudly. Kern Kaarun = source of all creation. Sumruth = capable; omnipotent. Sridhur = Maya's Husband (Waheguru). Ubh = heart. Sadhaaray = supports. 3.

MEANING: My Dear (Waheguru) is a trader (He takes away your bad qualities, and adorns you with virtues in the form of His Naam), oh my friends. Whoever deals in His Naam with sweetness (love), attains the high spiritual state which is priceless. With His approval, such a priceless heart becomes a permanent dwelling for Waheguru. But only that human-bride is good (lucky) who is liked by Waheguru. Some fortunate devotees enjoy the company of Waheguru; I also loudly pray at His door, begging that He connect me to Him. But, Waheguru, which is the source of all creation, is omnipotent, and is the husband of Maya; He, Himself makes the life of the devotee successful (connects her with Him). That woman is lucky whose heart is supported with Guru's Shabad (who has Guru's Shabad at heart) and thus gets married to Waheguru (gets connected with Him), oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Ghur = heart. Sohilurra = song of happiness. Raavay = enjoys; loves. Rung = love. Vur(u) = husband. Subhaagaiy = fortunate. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Paath = recitation of religious books. Chuturaayiyaiy = cleverness. Bhaayay = with love. Lokaanay = (devotee) of other people. 4.

MEANING: My friend, Waheguru, has come to reside in my mind, and I feel as if a song of happiness is playing there (my mind is dancing in happiness). I surrendered my mind to Waheguru, and received (enshrined) His Naam in my heart; now, imbued in His love, my heart is enjoying union with Him. By surrendering my mind, I won Waheguru as my husband, and He enjoys it (loves me) the way He pleases. With Guru's Shabad, I offered my mind and body in His service, and I am fortunate to enjoy His Naam-Amrit in my heart. One cannot realize Waheguru by any wisdom, recitation of religious books, or by one's sharp shrewdness. Waheguru can be realized only with love, and that too only with His Will. My Lord is my only friend, and I do not recognize anyone else as my Guru, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Unhud(u) = Divine music that the yogis claim to hear in their meditation. Vaajaiy = plays. Roonjhoonkaaray = the pleasing sound of bells and anklets. Raata = imbued. Laal = rubies; dear (informal). Baiyraagi = detached from the world, and in love wth God. Soonn = without any thoughts of Maya. Mundul(i) = in the state. Ghur(u) = heart. Aad(i) Purakh(u) = Waheguru, which is the origin of everything. Alukh = invisible. Lukhaaya = showed. Aasun = place to rest. Baisun(i) = place to sit. Thir(u) = immortal. Naraayin(u) = Waheguru. 1.

MEANING: My mind is imbued in the love of dear Waheguru, and I feel as if a lilting Divine music with the pleasing sound of bells of anklets is playing in my heart. My mind, which is detached from the world and madly in love with Waheguru (imbued in His love all the time), has attained the spiritual state above the effects of Maya. My Satguru has shown me the dear, invisible Waheguru, the origin of everything and without limits. Because of my pondering on Guru's Shabad, the immortal Waheguru has taken a seat in my mind, which is now imbued with His love. Those who are detached from Maya and love Waheguru get their minds imbued in His love and feel as if lilting Divine music is playing in their hearts, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Agumm = unreachable. Pur = city. Agummpura = Inaccessible Waheguru's city (Court). Bidh(i) = ways, means; how. Sunjumo = control on senses. Saar(i) = taking care; keeping in mind. Nij Ghur(i) = one's permanent home (union with Waheguru). Gooni Nidhana = treasure of virtues (Waheguru). Mool(u) = the origin; roots of the Waheguru-Tree. Shaakhaan = branches. Put(u) = leaves. Daali = shoots (the whole creation). Jup(u) = recitation of some mantras. Tup = self-affliction (to please some deity). Thaaki = exhausted. Hutth(i) = persistence; obstinacy. Nigreh(i) = efforts to control sensual desires. Sehj(i) = in the spiritual state above Maya. Jug Jeevun(u) = Waheguru. 2.

MEANING: When I asked my holy friends if they could guide me as to how to get to the inaccessible Court of Waheguru, they advised me that one can get there by reciting His Naam with love, exercising control on his senses, remembering His virtues, and by acting on the Guru's Shabad. By acting on the Guru's eternal Shabad, one achieves union with Waheguru which is the treasure of all virtues. By taking shelter of the tree-like Waheguru, one does not need the support of any of His branches (anyone, or anything created by Him) because He is Supreme. People have exhausted themselves by ritualistic activities like reciting some mantras, persistently torturing themselves, and with efforts to control their sensual pleasure, but without any success. Satguru has given me the understanding that Waheguru can be realized in the spiritual state above the effects of Maya, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Saagro = sea of. Ruttanagur(u) = mine of jewels. Ghunayray = very many. Mujuno = bathe. Suput Suray = the seven pools (five senses, mind, and wisdom). Bhaayay = likes. Punch = the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachments, and ego). Milay = come together. Veechaaray = become thoughtful; come under control. Kupt(u) = deceit. Bikhiya = (vices of) Maya. Loabh Lehur(i) = the wave of greed. 3.
MEANING: Satguru is the ocean, and the mine of jewels (virtuous qualities), and is full of them. If one takes a dip in the Guru-Ocean (in His Shabad), all his seven pools (five senses, mind, and wisdom) get purified. But only that devotee takes a dip in such holy water (of Satguru-Ocean) whom Waheguru likes and is kind to. All five demons (lust, rage, greed, worldly attachments, and ego) of such a devotee come together and become thoughtful (come under his control). By getting rid of his lust, rage, deceit, and other vices, the devotee acquires Waheguru's Naam in his heart. The waves of ego, greed, and huge appetite for tasty foods of the devotee get tired (become satisfied), and he acquires the Naam of Waheguru, who is kind to the helpless. There is no holy place like the Guru and Waheguru, oh Nanak. 3.

MEANING: I "see" Waheguru in every forest, in all vegetation and everywhere. He has created the three-layered universe and the whole world. Everything has been created by You, and only You are everlasting; there is nobody else like You, oh Waheguru. You are the only Provider, and everybody is a beggar at Your door. Who else is there whose praise I may sing? You bestow Your gifts on people without them asking for those, oh dear Waheguru. Joogaadi = before the beginning of joogs (time). Jhootha = false; perishable. Maano = believe. Saar = worth. Kerm = deeds of high morality. Dherm = the objective of human life. Soort(i) = wisdom. Mookut(i) = salvation. Ehinis(i) = day and night. 1.

MEANING: My mind is imbued with the love for Waheguru, who is the eternal Lord, the origin of everything, without limits, and who supports the whole universe. Waheguru is physically unreachable, incomprehensible, limitless, and Supreme. He was there from the beginning and before time, is here now, and will always be there; believe everything else to be perishable. The man does not know the worth of noble deeds and has no wisdom to understand the objective of human life, so how can he find salvation? He can understand all this by Guru's Shabad in His shelter, and by reciting Waheguru's Naam day and night, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Maaniya = has been convinced. Sukhaayee = friendly; benefactor. Mumta = parental love. Chuturaayee = shrewdness. Sumpaiy = wealth. Naar = wife. Sayir Kee Pootri = the daughter of the sea (Maya). Maya (Luxmi) is one of the fourteen jewels which were retrieved from the sea when the gods and the demons jointly churned that. Purhur(i) = by pushing away; getting rid of. Tiyaagi = renounced; disowned. Churn Tulaiy = under the feet. Chult(u) = amazing feat. Sehjay = blissful state of mind. 2.

MEANING: My mind has been convinced that Waheguru's Naam is my only friend. None of man's ego, his worldly attachments, or his wealth accompanies him at death. Likewise, none of the mother, father, brothers, sons, any shrewdness, wealth, or wife of the man goes with him. By pondering (on Guru's Shabad), I have realized that all worldly attractions are different forms of Maya (and are perishable), so I have given up my love for Maya and keep it under my feet (have full control over it). I have seen an amazing feat about Waheguru that He is present everywhere, no matter which direction I look. So, I will never quit worshipping Him, and will feel blissful no matter what happens naturally, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Nirmul(u) = pure. Smaalay = remember. Uvgun = ill qualities. Mayt(i) = eradicate. Sungum = union. Kerni = deeds. Saari = supreme. Sachiyaaro = the bearer of virtuous qualities. Tthaak(i) Ruhaayay = prevented. Tutt(u) = essence; Waheguru. Soojaan(u) = know-all. Sukha = friend. Pergaasiya = lighted up; enlightened. 3.

MEANING: I remember Waheguru (recite His Naam) with a pure mind, as a result of which all my evil qualities (vices) are being eradicated (disappearing), and the virtuous qualities are with me now. Getting rid of one's evil qualities is the supreme act to perform, and the bearer of virtuous qualities is recognized (honoured) in Waheguru's Court. By pondering on the virtues of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, one's rebirths are prevented (he does not take rebirths). Waheguru's eternal Naam is man's true friend, chum, and wise (know-all) well-wisher, and one earns respect (because of the Naam). I have acquired such advice from the Guru and my mind has been enlightened with the jewel-like Naam of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) Unjun(u) = kohl (of Waheguru's Naam). Saar(i) = putting (in the mind). Nirunjun(u) = Waheguru. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Sehj(i) = in the spiritual state above Maya. Sadh Subha = congregation of holy devotees. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Baiyraagi = detached from the world; having love for Waheguru. Chookay = ended. Moh = attachments. Pteenay = got convinced; fall in love with. Oodaasa = detached from the world. 4.

MEANING: By wearing the kohl of Waheguru's Naam, my mind is now imbued with love for God, which is the life (basis) of the world. Now, the provider for the whole world, Waheguru, is present in my mind and body. One gets connected with the life of the world, Waheguru, by the grace of the Guru. My mind is intoxicated in a spiritual state above the effects of Maya, with love for Waheguru. I was fortunate that in the company of the holy devotees, and with the grace of the Guru, Waheguru cast His kind sight on me, as a result of which I am enjoying bliss now. The lucky individuals, who are detached from the world and have a great desire to get connected with Waheguru, get imbued in His love, and their thirst for all worldly attachments goes away (is quenched). They act on Guru's Shabad diligently, and never lose the game of life (union with Waheguru). Spiritual death can never come near them. They remember Waheguru all the time, never lose the game of life, and spiritual death never goes near them. Those who take Waheguru's shelter (surrender their wisdom and serve Him) get their birth-death cycle terminated. Those who embed Waheguru's Naam in their heart with Guru's advice, enjoy the sweet taste and reward of union with Him. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam with full concentration enjoy blissfulness, but there are only a few of them in this world. 2.

Word Meaning: Oopaaya = created. Dhundhaiy Laaya = put in the business of Maya. Vit-houn Koorbaan = sacrifice for. Taa Kee = His (Waheguru's). Laaha = benefit. Hur(i) = (union with) Waheguru. Maan(u) = respect; honour. Nur(u) = man. Puchhaanaiy = recognize; make a connection. Nuv Nidh(i) = the mythical nine treasures. Vukhaanaiy = says; describes. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Ootum = superior. Perdhaan = Lord. 3.

MEANING: I will gladly lay down my life for the Waheguru who has created the world, and put it in the business of Maya. One should serve such a God because of whom he will be honoured in His Court, and acquire the benefit of union with Him. But only that individual gets honoured in Waheguru's Court who recognizes (makes connection with) Him. Such an individual worships Waheguru with the Guru's advice, sings His praise, and feels blissful as if he had acquired all the nine mythical treasures. The omnipresent Waheguru is the supreme Lord of everybody; one should recite His Naam day and night. I will gladly sacrifice my life for the Waheguru, which has created the world, and put it in the business of Maya. 3.

Word Meaning: Soheh(i) = looks dignified; impressive. Maaneh(i) Say = they are honoured. Jin(i) Jaah(i) = are the winners. Toat = shortage; suffer loss. Tis(u) Bhaavaiy = are liked by Waheguru. Joog = eon; world. Kaytay = however many; anywhere. Juraa = old age. Nerk(i) = in hell. Never Sookeh(i) = never dry at heart (do not lose the bloom of the heart). Peerr = mental agony. 4.

MEANING: Those who recite Waheguru's Naam reap the reward of blissfulness, look dignified (exalted) in Waheguru's Court, and are honoured there. They win the game of life (achieve the objective of union with Waheguru). Those who are liked by Waheguru suffer no loss in their reward, no matter where they go in the world. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam never suffer any loss in their reward (of blissfulness), no matter where they go in the world, and they attain such a high spiritual level that they do not suffer from old age, or go to hell after death (because they become immortal by merging into Waheguru). Those who recite Waheguru's Naam never get dry at heart (never lose the blissfulness of heart), and never suffer from any mental agony, oh Nanak. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam reap the reward of blissfulness, look exalted in Waheguru's Court, and are honoured there. Word Meaning: Kala Hern = black deer; a lustful and egoistic young man. Vaarriyaiy = (in) world-garden; world full of attractions of Maya. Raata = deeply engrossed. Bikh(u) = poisonous Maya. Ful(u) = result; enjoyment. Chaar(i) Din = for a short time. Taata = hot; uncomfortable. Pertaapay = suffers badly. Saayir = ocean. Lehri = waves. Bijul = lightening. Chumkuyay = shines. Raakha = guard; saviour. Bisaariya = forgotten. 1.

MEANING: Why are you so deeply engrossed in the world-garden (the world which has so many attractions like many different lovely flowers in the garden), oh, lustful and egoist young man? You should know that just like the waves on the surface of an ocean, or like the shining of lightning, the enjoyment of Maya is short-lived, and causes many discomforts later on (the man commits many evils under its influence, and there is also a fear of losing it). Without Waheguru's Naam, the man suffers deeply. There is no guard (saviour) other than Waheguru (which can save you from the evil results of Maya); and you have imprudently ignored Him. Remember Waheguru, otherwise you will die a spiritual death, oh the lustful and egoist young man, advises Nanak. 1.

Sach(u) kuhhaiy Nanak(u) chayt(I) ray mun, mureh(i) bhuvra kaaliya. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Bhuvra = bumble-bee. Bhuvuntiya = roaming from flower to flower. Saacha Beechaari = His everlasting Universal advice. Poochhiya = advised. Bayli = vines; flowers. Raatou = fully absorbed. Sooruj(u) = sun; end of night (of human life). Pind(u) = body. Purriya = collapse. Taavun(i) = in the wok. Mug(i) = on the way to. Choataan = beatings.

Baytaaliya = like a ghost. Chayt(i) = remember. Kala Bhuvra = self-assured (but ignorant) young man (see kala hern above). 2.
MEANING: Tasting different enjoyments of Maya, you will suffer badly like the bumblebee which roams from one flower to another (and eventually gets stuck in the sap), oh, negligent man. I asked the Guru for His universal advice on the fate of such a man. The Guru advised me that, like the bumblebee, which is lost (fully absorbed) in enjoying the sap of different flowers, the man who is deeply engrossed in Maya is punished when the night of his life is over, and his body collapses. He suffers the pain as if he is being fried in hot oil in a wok. Without Satguru's Shabad, he is like a ghost (with no spiritual enlightenment) and receives beatings while tied up on his way to the Angel of justice. Nanak offers universal advice to the lustful and egoistic young man that he should worship Waheguru, otherwise he will die a miserable death. 2.

Sach(u) kuhhaiy Nanak(u) chayt(i) ray mun, jeeurriya perdaysiya. 3. ----------
Word Meaning: Jeeurriya = mind; soul. Perdaysia = foreigner; fast-wandering Junjaalay = worldly attractions. Kee = why? Jum Jaalay = the net of the angel of death. Vichhoonni = separated. Roonni = wept. Budhik = fisherman. Moh(u) = attachment. Bherm(u) = misgiving. Chookaaya = cleared. Undaysiya = doubts. 3.
MEANING: Why do you get so deeply engrossed in the worldly attractions when you know that you are a foreigner on this earth (this is not your permanent dwelling), oh my ignorant mind! Why would you (you will not) get trapped in the net of spiritual death if you make your heart the dwelling for the eternal Waheguru to reside in. The man gets trapped in the greed of the worldly attractions just the way a fish gets trapped in the net of the fisherman in the greed of the bait, and then cries with tears in his eyes when he gets separated from his family. The man finds the worldly attractions to be sweet, but this misgiving (illusion) gets cleared at the end. So, by getting rid of all his doubts, one should worship Waheguru with full concentration and dedication. I, Nanak, advise my foreigner (fast-wavering) (and ignorant) mind to remember Waheguru. 3.

Word Meaning: Vaah = creeks; streams. Vichhooniya = separated. Sunjogi = by luck (chance). Joog Joog = in every eon. Vis(u) = poison; Maya. Joagi = connected with God. Sehj(i) = in blissful state (above Maya). Puchhaanaiy = recognizes (gets connected). Bherm(i) Bhoolay = misled by doubts. Pucheh(i) = suffer. Moogudh = foolish. Achaytiya = careless; neglectful. Dhaahi Rooniya = wail. 4.
MEANING: Like the streams which get separated from their mother river, and unite with that only by luck (by chance), the man who is disconnected with Waheguru gets connected with Him only by good fortune. The man finds Maya to be sweet (attractive) no matter what the eon is, but only some rare devotee, who is connected with Waheguru, realizes that its effects are highly poisonous (have bitter consequences). A rare devotee who recites Satguru's Shabad and attains the spiritual state above Maya recognizes Waheguru (gets connected with Him). Without Waheguru's Naam, the man is misled by his false beliefs, and the negligent suffer badly. Those who do not have Waheguru enlightening their heart, or recite His Naam, have to wail at the end. Those who have been disconnected from Waheguru for a long time (for many lives) can reconnect with Him through Satguru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 4.1.5.

Word Meaning: Ghuray = (in) the heart. Sohila = song of happiness. Soohaaya = made attractive; adorned. Dhun = human-bride. Pir = husband (Waheguru). Mayl(u) = union. Sach(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Kaamun(i) = woman; human-bride. Seegaari = adorned. Suvaari = groomed. Raavay – enjoys. Rung(i) = (in) love. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Vur(u) = husband. Rus(u) = essence; sweetness. Vusaaya = embedded. Sufliyo = became successful. Subaaya = whole. 1.

MEANING: By singing praise of the eternal Waheguru, my heart has been adorned with noble qualities, and is feeling blissful with the joyful song of Waheguru's praise. When Waheguru is kind, He connects the devotee-bride with Him. Waheguru Himself implants His Naam in the devotee's heart and connects her with Him, whereby the human-bride gets intoxicated (extremely blissful) in the spiritual state above Maya. Adorned with Guru's Shabad and nurtured by Waheguru with noble qualities, she enjoys His company at all times. But the human bride wins Waheguru as her husband only when she gets rid of her selfishness and ego and enshrines His sweet Naam in her heart. Adorned with Guru's Shabad, the life of the human-bride becomes successful, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Doojrray = (in the) other (Maya). Bherm(i) = misbelief. Bhooli = misled. Birtha = empty; without any achievement. Iyaani = ignorant. Augunvunti = having ignoble (bad) qualities. Jhooray = repents; regrets. Hudooray = in front; near. Vigsee = blooms at heart. Sersee = feels blissful. Soobhaayay = with love. 2.

MEANING: The human-bride is misled by her illusions about the comforts of Maya, and cannot have Waheguru as her husband (get connected with Him). She does not possess the noble qualities (to get connected with Waheguru) and wastes away her precious human life. The Maya-engrossed human bride is ignorant and later regrets it because of her ignoble qualities, which result in her wasting the precious human life. But a devotee, who serves her Guru (acts upon His Advice), feels always blissful, and finds Waheguru close to her. Her heart blooms, and she feels blissful on seeing her dear Waheguru when she sings His praise with Satguru's Shabad with love and respect. Without Waheguru's Naam, the human bride is misled by her misgivings and feels blissful upon connecting with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Jaaniya = realized. Tupt(i) = burning of heart; fire of desires. Boojhaayee = put out. Shaant(i) = calmness; peace. Rus(i) = sweetness. Chaakhiya = tasted. Rung(i) Maanay = enjoy in His love. Soobhaakhiya = sweet words. Moani = mystics who stay quiet for long times. Thaakay = got tired. Bhaykheen = (in) different sects. Mookut(i) = salvation. Buouraana = absurd. 3.

MEANING: With Guru's grace, the human-bride realizes that her dear Waheguru is with her as she gets connected with Him. With Guru's Shabad, she connects with Waheguru internally (soul to soul), and the fire of her worldly desires is extinguished as she attains the state of bliss above Maya; she also feels peace of mind and enjoys the sweet taste of union with Waheguru. With the recitation of the Shabads of praise of the eternal Waheguru, the human-bride enjoys the permanent bliss of His love. One cannot find salvation simply by wearing the robes of different sects; the pundits and the mystics who remain quiet for long periods have realized this, as they have exhausted themselves by following such paths. Without Waheguru's worship, the world is absurd; one can get connected with Him by singing His praise, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Dhun = woman; human-bride. Anund(u) = blissfulness. Sa = that. Rus(i) = in the sweetness. Rusi = full of sweetness. Apaaray = beyond limits. Saaray = remembers. Soohaavi = pleasant; comforting. Raavi = enjoyed. Preetum = dear Waheguru. Uvgun = vices; bad qualities. Ghur(i) = in the heat. Sohilurra = song of joy. Kaaruj Saaay = task is completed; objective is achieved. 4.
MEANING: The human-bride, whom Waheguru has connected with Him, feels blissful. With Guru's Shabad in praise of Waheguru, she is overwhelmed and gets filled with the sweetness of Waheguru's presence in her heart. With Guru's Shabad about the limitless Waheguru, she always remembers His virtues (sings His praise) and connects with Him (Waheguru dwells in her heart). Her heart-bed becomes very comforting when she enjoys union with Waheguru, and all her bad qualities run away. The heart, where Waheguru's Naam is recited all the time, is blissful in all the four eons (no matter what the eon is). MEANING: Worship the Lord (Waheguru), oh my dear friends. Always serve your Guru (act on His Advice) and acquire the valuable Naam of Waheguru. Worship Waheguru in such a way that it is approved by Him. He will not be pleased if you worship Him in your own way (not approved by Him; not as per the Guru's Advice). Word Meaning: Baiyraagiya = the one who is detached from Maya, and is in love with Waheguru only in the name. Sohila = joyfulness; blissfulness. Dikhaaveh(i) = impress.

Pakhund(u) = show off; hypocrisy. Shuhou = Lord. Muhhiul = sky. Ivv = like this. Liv Laavay = meditates. 2.

MEANING: Whom are you trying to impress with a hypocritical show of your detachment from Maya, and your fake love for Waheguru, oh my mind (because Waheguru knows everything)? They always feel blissful who sing praise of Waheguru. Quit your showing off, and be a true devotee of Waheguru; the Lord knows everything that goes through you, oh my mind. Waheguru is present in the waters, on the earth, and in the sky; the true devotee of the Guru recognizes this fact. Those who recognize Waheguru's Huqam enjoy comfort at all times. The true baiyraagi is the devotee who meditates on God's Naam with full concentration, oh Nanak(u). 2.

Word Meaning: Dhaanvda = rushes; wanders fast. Siyaanup = cleverness. Smaalay = remember. Shuhou = Husband (Waheguru). Perm Pud = highest spiritual level (union with Waheguru). Gundh(u) Laagaiy = establishing connection. 3.

MEANING: Waheguru is always with you, no matter where you rush to, oh my mind. Quit your cunning (craftiness), and remember Guru's Shabad, oh my mind. You will find Waheguru close to you if you recite His Naam even for a short moment. (By continuously reciting Waheguru's Naam), all your sins of previous lives will be eradicated, and you will attain the highest spiritual state at the end. If you keep Waheguru's Naam always fresh in your mind with the advice of the Guru, you will be connected with Him, oh Nanak(u), and you will find Waheguru always close by, no matter where your mind rushes to. 3.

Word Meaning: Dhaavut = rushing; uncontrolled (mind). Thummiya = came to rest. Nij Ghur(i) = in its own place. Vihaajhay = deal in. Dusvaan Dooaar = Tenth Door (the spiritual state in which Waheguru is realized). Tithaiy = there. Sehj dhoon(i) = the lilting music of the Divine Shabad. Sehj = the blissful spiritual state. Jugut Thummh Ruhaaya = the mind quits thinking Teh = there. Vaajay = musical instruments. 4.

MEANING: When a devotee gets connected with Satguru (takes His shelter), his rushing (ever-wandering) mind comes to rest in its own place (becomes peaceful). Then it deals only in Waheguru Naam (keeps Him in mind even when dealing with the world), recites the Naam, stays absorbed in the Naam, and his Tenth Door opens (his mind is enlightened, and he connects with Waheguru). In that stage, Waheguru's Naam becomes his mental food, and a blissful music of the Divine Shabad seems to play in his mind. It is Guru's Shabad by which the mind quits wandering for the worldly attractions. Countless musical instruments seem to play in the devotee's mind at that stage, the devotee feels blissful, and stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. Thus, the rushing mind comes to rest in its own place (becomes peaceful) when the devotee gets connected with the Guru, oh Nanak(u). 4.

Word Meaning: Jot(i) Sroop(u) = Waheguru's Light (the Supreme Soul). Mool(u) = origin; root. Puchhaan(u) = recognize. Gurmuti = with Guru's Advice. Rung(u) = (Waheguru's) Love. Maan(u) = enjoy. Sojhi = understanding. Bhhaou = love. Shaant(i) = peacefulness. Vudhaayee = joyfulness; jubilation. 5.

MEANING: Recognize your root, oh my mind, you are a part of Waheguru's Light (of the Supreme Soul). Waheguru is always with you; act on Guru's Advice to enjoy His love, oh my mind. You will realize Waheguru once you recognize your origin; you will also gain an understanding of the purpose of human life and death. Once the man realizes the one and the only Waheguru by the grace of the Guru, he will not have love (attraction) for anyone (or anything) else (Maya). When the human mind becomes peaceful, it begins to feel blissful and gets approved in Waheguru's Court. You are a part of Waheguru, oh my mind. You need to recognize your root, oh Nanak(u). 5.

MEANING: You are full of conceit, and will leave this world laden with conceit, oh my mind. You are captivated by the captivating Maya (and spend your life as such), as a result, you will be taken through many life forms again and again. All your deeds are based on ego, and you will leave the world repenting at the end, oh my foolish mind. Man's conceit and his thirst for worldly attractions are a serious illness, because of which he wastes away his precious human life. The Maya-engrossed foolish man does not remember Waheguru, and as a result, he has to repent in the next world (because of the punishment he gets for his ignoble deeds). (Guru) Nanak(u) warns the human mind that it is full of conceit, and will leave the world laden with conceit too. 6.

Word Meaning: Mut = lest; do not. Nimaana = humble; modest. Ugiyaan(u) = lack of knowledge; darkness. Huoun = ego. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Mul(u) = filth (of mind). Sach(i) Shabad = praise of Waheguru. Khoh = lose; remove. Lukhaavhay = expose. Kaar = routine work; noble deeds. Laag(i) Ruhou = continue to do (noble deeds). Aap(u) = selfishness. 7.

MEANING: Do not feel conceited that you know something about Waheguru; stay humble by taking shelter of the Guru, oh my mind. Your mind is dark (unenlightened), and you are guided by ego; wash away the filth of your mind by singing praise of Waheguru with Guru's Shabad, oh man. Be humble in front of the Guru lest you may expose your lack of knowledge. (Learn from the fact that) The world is burning in the fire of its own ego, and you do not lose your own good nature. Lead your life performing deeds as advised by the Guru, and continue performing the noble deeds, keeping always Waheguru in mind. Give up your own wisdom, and follow the advice of the Guru to enjoy blissfulness, and stay humble in His shelter, oh Nanak(u). 7.

Iyoun kuhhaiy Nanak(u) dhunn(u) su vayla, jit(u) mein Satgur(u) miliya, so Shuhou chit(i) aaya. 8.

Word Meaning: Dhunn(u) = praise worthy; lucky. Shuhou = Husband (Waheguru). Sehj(u) = blissfulness of mind. Uvgun = ill qualities; vices. Visaaray = forgot; got rid of. Pergut Hoyay = appeared. Suvaaray = groomed. Pervaan(u) = successful. Dirriya = reinforced. Dootiya Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Chookaaya = cleared; gave up. 8.

MEANING: Auspicious was the time for me when I got connected with Satguru by whose grace I remember Waheguru. (By reciting Waheguru's Naam), I attained the spiritual state above Maya, acquired blissfulness in my mind, and am enjoying all comfort in my mind and body. When I was able to embed Waheguru's Naam in my heart by remembering Him (singing His praise), all my bad qualities were eradicated. When Waheguru was kind to me (gave His approval), noble qualities sprang out in my mind with Satguru's benevolence (He adorned my mind with noble qualities). Those devotees become successful (get approved by Waheguru) who reinforce His Naam in their minds and rid themselves of their love for Maya. That time was very lucky for me when I got connected with Satguru by whose grace I remember Waheguru, oh Nanak(u). 8.

Word Meaning: Ikk(i) = many; countless. Junt = living beings; humans. Bherm(i) Bhoollay = misled by misbeliefs. Kerm Kmaayay = perform deeds. Sheh = Lord (Waheguru). Koomaarug = wrong (immoral) path. Vusaayee = control; no power. Gut(i) = good condition(situation). Uvigut = bad situation. Ruchun Ruchaayee = created the creation. Khura Bhaara = difficult to understand. 9.

MEANING: Countless men are misled on the path of life because of their misbeliefs; actually, they are misled by the Lord Himself (because of their previous bad deeds). In their love for Maya, they are leading their life guided by their ego and selfishness. Even though they have been misled by the illusions of Maya, they have no control on their deeds because they have been misled on the wrong path by Waheguru. Their good or bad conditions are known to Waheguru who has created this world in this way. It is very difficult to understand Waheguru's Huqam (His Will or Laws); He gives the understanding only to a few by making them take Guru's shelter. So, what can the helpless humans do when they have been misled from the path of righteousness by Waheguru, oh Nanak(u)? 9.

Word Meaning: Sachay Sahiba = True (eternal) Lord. Vudiyaayi = greatness; magnanimity. Parbraham = Supreme Being. Bayunt = having no limits. Koodrut(i) = nature.

Bhaaveh(i) = liked (by You). Chit(u) Laavhay = get connected. Smaayee = (stay) absorbed. 10.

MEANING: Your greatness is as everlasting as You are, oh my True (immortal) Lord. You are the Supreme Being, and the limitless Lord; the vastness of Your nature (creation) is indescribable. Your magnanimity is everlasting, and the devotee, who enshrines Your Naam in his heart, always sings Your praise. But only those sing Your praise, and get connected with You, whom You come to like. Word Meaning: Jeevun(u) Mein Meevun = Best (spiritual) life. Bhaayay = (with) love. Praan(i) = (in) soul. Vusaayay = made to dwell; implants. Sunsa = doubts; misgivings. Adisht(u) = invisible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Buchun(i) = Word; Shabad. Perm Pud(u) = highest spiritual state. Unhud Dhooni(i) = sweet sound of Divine music. Vaajeh(i) = plays. Nit = every day; always. Vaajay = musical instruments. Daat(i) = gift. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = the Supreme Soul. Smaani = merges with. 1.

MEANING: With love for Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, I have acquired the best (spiritual) life. The Guru gifts you Waheguru's Naam and implants it in your heart, oh my friends. He made my heart a dwelling for Waheguru's Naam, and eradicated all my discomfort caused by my misgivings (illusions about Maya). I recited the Naam of the invisible and the incomprehensible Waheguru with Guru's Shabad, and attained the highest holy spiritual state. While singing the Bani (Shabad) of Satguru, which is full of praise of Waheguru, I feel as if the sweet sound of Divine music is always playing in my mind. Waheguru kindly bestowed the gift of His Naam to me because of which my soul has become "one" with that of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Munmukh = follower of his own mind; Maya-engrossed. Khin(u) = moment. Doogundh = foul-smelling. Murraiy = (with) perishable body. Ksoombh = a pretty-looking flower which withers away quickly; Maya. Chhaayay = shade (of a tree). Chuck(u) Koomiaar = potter's wheel. Suncheh(i) = accumulates. Birdh(i) = age; life. Bikhum = very tough (to swim). Soohayla = with ease. 2.

MEANING: The followers of their mind are disconnected from Waheguru and die a spiritual death because of their pursuit of Maya. Wealth comes and goes in a moment, and the foolish man pursues the foul-smelling (because money is the root of all evil) wealth in his love for his perishable body. Because of his love for his perishable body, the ignorant man tries to accumulate Maya, which is short-lived just like the beauty of the ksoombh(u) flower, which lives only for a very short time. Wealth changes hands just like the shade of a tree which shifts from west to east with the changing position of the sun, or like the potter's wheel, which spins very fast. The ignorant man eats (lives for), accumulates, and enjoys other luxuries of Maya which cause problems in the long run, and the life (length) of his troubles is also prolonged because eventually he drowns in the sea of Maya (the world-sea). However, the sea of Maya, which is very difficult to swim across, can easily be swum across if a person takes Guru's shelter, oh Nanak.2

Word Meaning: Tthaakur(u) = Lord. Neeka = beautiful, kind, and caring. Agumm = unreachable. Athaaha = unfathomable. Poonji = wealth (Waheguru's Naam). Chaahi = wished for. Shaha = the Lord; the source of wealth (of the Naam). Bisaahi = purchased; acquired. Bhaavaiy = are liked. Perhur(i) = by pushing away; removing. Tiyaagi = gave up; abandoned. Soonnay = the spiritual state where Maya cannot influence. Smaavaiy = gets absorbed. Vunjaaray = traders. Ikk Bhaanti = of one kind (seeking the same merchandise). Laaha = benefit; in return. Urp(i) = offer. Praaput(i) = in destiny (predestined). 3.

MEANING: My Lord (Waheguru), which is physically unreachable and is unfathomable, is very kind and caring. I wish for the wealth of Waheguru's Naam which can be acquired from Satguru because He is the only Lord (Source) of His Naam. In my desire to have the wealth of Waheguru's Naam, I loved the virtues of Waheguru, and sang them (His praise); that is how I dealt in His Naam (purchased it). The devotee, who deals in Waheguru's Naam, does not enjoy eating or sleeping, and gives them up; he stays absorbed in the spiritual state where no Maya can affect him. The traders, who come (to the Guru) to deal only in Waheguru's Naam (and give up their ignoble qualities), acquire the Naam in return. Offer your mind and your body to the Guru (in His service) to acquire Waheguru's Naam, but only those lucky devotees get it who are predestined to do so, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Ruttana, Ruttna = countless jewels (noble qualities). Huth Churriya = acquired. Nirmoluk = priceless. Appara = limitless. Atoluk = which cannot be weighed = invaluable. Bhundaara = treasures. Smoond(u) Sreer(u) = ocean-like body. Viroal(i) = by churning. Vust = thing; amazing feat. Anoop = having no parallel. Govind(u) = Waheguru. Bhayd = difference. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is an ocean which is full of countless jewels (noble qualities); but only those devotees acquire these invaluable jewels of the limitless Waheguru, who act on Satguru's Shabad. They acquire the invaluable Naam of Waheguru, whose treasures of worship are always full (never run out, no matter how many devotees acquire it). When I churned my ocean-like body to search for Waheguru's presence there, I found an amazing thing: Waheguru and the Guru are one and the same, and there is no difference between them, oh Nanak. 4.1.8.

Word Meaning: Jhim(i) Jhimay = in small drops and with a sweet sound. Amritdhara = the stream of Naam-Amrit. Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. Nudri = becomes visible. Nistaara = salvation. Vudiyaayee = praise. Kuljoog(i) = the evil-filled world. Paar(i) Lunghaayee = ferries to the other end. Hult(i) = this world. Pult(i) = the next world. Soohaylay = blissful. Gurmukh(i) Kerni = noble deeds performed under the advice of the Guru. Saari = supreme. Daat(i) = gift. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru becomes visible (His presence can be felt in the mind) when one comes to the Guru's shelter, and he feels as if a slow and sweet stream of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit is raining on his mind. Waheguru's Naam should be dear to all of us because the man gets salvation only by His Naam, and one also earns respect in the world. Waheguru's Naam is the ship to ferry across this world-sea which is filled with evils and aggression; but this ship can be boarded only in the shelter of the Guru. Acting on Guru's Advice (performing noble deeds and keeping Waheguru in mind all the time) is the best way to lead one's life. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, one enjoys comfort (blissfulness) in both the worlds - in this life and the next. One finds salvation with Waheguru's Naam, but it is a gift from Waheguru and can be had only with His kindness, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: When one recites Waheguru's Naam, and only His Naam, the suffering due to his sins gets destroyed. With deep love for Guru's Shabad in mind, I recited Waheguru's Naam and enshrined it in my heart (mind). When I took Guru's shelter (surrendered my wisdom and acted on His Advice), I got Waheguru's Naam enshrined in my heart, and attained the highest spiritual state above Maya. When the Guru reinforced Waheguru's Naam in my heart, the boat of my life, which was sinking with greed and other vices, became afloat (and I got ferried to the other end). MEANING: When I listened to Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, all the pores in my body (my soul) began to recite Waheguru's Naam, and all my (noble) tasks were completed beautifully. On reciting the Naam of Waheguru, which has no physical features, my mind and body got purified. All my appetite for worldly desires was lost when Waheguru made my heart His dwelling. Anayk = countless. Kerm = rituals. Choraaya = steal. Bikhum = very tough. Jum Punth = the path to the Angel of Death. Doohayla = troublesome. Kaalookhut = darkness = undhiyaara. 4.

MEANING: Those who ignore Waheguru's Naam are foolish and unlucky. They have love for Maya every moment (all the time), oh Waheguru. Those who do not like Waheguru's Naam have the filth of Maya in their mind, and they are foolish and unlucky. Those egoists may perform countless religious rituals to give the (false) impression of being religious to the people (but gain no spiritual benefit); in fact, the conceit of such rituals steals the wealth of Waheguru's Naam from them. Because of worldly attachments, their minds are completely dark because of the absence of the light of Waheguru's Naam; thus, they set themselves up on the path to the Angel of death, which is extremely painful and troublesome. Ikutt(u) Ghur(i) = in the house of the One (Waheguru). Gut(i) = condition, feelings. Mit(i) = measurement (intensity). Rusaayay = sweetens (his tongue). Jun = devotee. Paiyj = dignity. Prehlad = the son of a mythical demon king (Hirnkushyup or simply Hernakush), who would not stop worshipping God despite the life-threatening punishments by the King who wanted everybody to worship him. Oodhaar(i) = by salvaging. Rumo Rum = handsome, and only handsome. Oocha = transcendent. Bheenay = imbued. Smaaya = fully absorbed. 5.

MEANING: One realizes Guru's Naam, Waheguru's Naam, in the shelter of the Guru when his mind, which wanders between very high to very low spirits (between ego and depression) becomes peaceful with full focus on Waheguru's Naam. When a devotee sweetens his tongue with Waheguru's Naam, his mind gets focused on Waheguru, who knows all about the devotee's feelings and their intensity. Just like God saved and salvaged His ardent devotee, Prehlad, Waheguru protects the dignity of His devotees (against the attractions of Maya). Some people describe the noble qualities of the transcendent and the handsome Waheguru, but they cannot find His limits just by describing His virtues. Word Meaning: Untray = inside (in the mind). Chinta = worries. Guvaaya = removed. Artha Subh(i) Dherm = all the four desired things – morality, wealth, fulfilment of desires, prosperity, and emancipation. Chindiya = desired. Ful = reward. Doormut(i) = evil thinking. Kboodh(i) = bad wisdom. Soodh(i) = understanding; purity of mind. Pergaasiya = enlightened. Nij Ghur(i) = own place. 6.

MEANING: All the worries of the devotees, who have Waheguru's Naam embedded in their mind, disappear, and they get the reward of all the four desired things – morality, wealth, fulfilment of desires (prosperity), and emancipation. When a devotee sings Waheguru's praise by reciting His Naam, he is rewarded with the fulfilment of his desires. By applying his mind to Waheguru's Naam (reciting His Naam), his evil thinking, and his bad wisdom go away, and his thinking becomes pure and pious. When a devotee loves Waheguru's Naam, he realizes the supreme bliss, and the Naam(u) is his best friend even at the time when he leaves this world. Deena Nath = Lord of the poor (helpless). Daata = provider. Oopdaysh = teaching. Munt(u) = mantra. Soobhaayay = love. 8.

NOTE: The Hindu Granths have divided the time from the beginning of the world into four yugs (yugas or eons) – Satyug, Trayta, Dooaapur, and Kalyug. They maintain that Satjoog (or Satyug) was the best joog (yuga) in which all the people were truthful, were fully contented and had high morals. They also believed that the earth was supported by an ox with all his four feet. But there are many stories that happened in Satyug which contradict their own beliefs. For example, some of the kings were highly egoistic and were cruel. There were demons everywhere, and even the gods were deceitful.

The next yuga, Trayta, was not quite as good as the Satyug. In Trayta, the people acquired mental strength by controlling their sensual desires. The ox supporting the earth lost one of its feet, and the people became short tempered with rage in them.
In the Dooaapur yuga, god Krishna and his Gopis were born. The people relied more in self-torturing and on juggs to please their deities. The ox lost two of its feet.
The present yug, the Kalyug is considered to be the worst of all. People are hostile, tell lies, and are immoral, and above all, the ox supporting the earth has lost three of its feet, and now the earth is not that stable because the ox has only one foot left.
In the following holy Shabad (Chhunt) Guru Ram Dass Ji gives His Divine Message about the mythical eons saying that Waheguru's Laws are always the same no matter what the eon is. Human nature has been the same all through the eons even though the practices and the beliefs of the people might have changed. The devotees of the Guru and Waheguru have noble qualities such as strong belief in Waheguru, contentment, honesty, compassion, and the like. Different eons have no effect on human nature.

With rage in their mind, the rajahs were like a poisonous tree which has beautiful flowers. They invaded each other and suffered in battles. With love for worldly things, they suffered from greater selfishness and ego which are serious diseases. But, even living in a world like the Trayta yug, the poison (of all evils) can be removed (eliminated) with the advice of the Guru when Waheguru is kind. People began to believe in self-torture, like building fires around them even on hot days. They also began performing juggs and countless other rituals to please their deities. Rituals were performed, and the ox lost two of its feet. The earth now had a support of only two feet of the ox. With singing Waheguru's praise, his mind becomes peaceful (quits wandering and thinking about evil things). Kalyug is the season to sing Waheguru's praise, and to raise the crop of Waheguru's Naam (which earns one respect) in the field of mind. An individual, who sows the seeds of other crops (Maya and its forms) without Waheguru's Naam, not only loses any spiritual benefit, but also loses the original spirituality he was born with (which lay hidden in his mind). I was lucky to have been connected with the Perfect Guru who carved (implanted) Waheguru's Naam on the board of my heart, oh Nanak. My mind and body are imbued with the deep red colour (which never fades and reflects deep dedication) of my love for Waheguru, in the shelter of the Guru (with His Advice). My body and mind have been fragranced with Waheguru's love, and I, a slave of Waheguru, am very lucky that my life has become a success, oh Nanak. 1.
My mind has been pierced by the sharp arrows of Your love, oh the Royal Waheguru. Only that devotee knows the pain of separation who has been stung by it. That devotee, who has killed his worldly desires while living in the world, is called living-emancipated. My heart begins to bloom when, with Guru's Shabad, I worship Waheguru, which is present in every human heart, and which knows all about the countless waves of thoughts that originate in the human heart. I realized Waheguru in the company of the holy congregation, where one gets connected with the Guru, oh Nanak. 3. Listen to my prayer, oh kind to the poor and the weak, and the Royal Waheguru. Waheguru is priceless, like rare diamonds and jewels, and my heart has been pierced with His love. I realized Him with my good fortune, which had been prewritten by Waheguru, and I have been connected with Him. Now, I am feeling very blissful. 1.

I am a young woman (human being) who is conceited of my youthfulness, and am ignorant about You, oh Waheguru. I am always waiting for the Guru to request Him to show me the path (to Your Door), oh Waheguru. I request the Guru to reinforce Your Naam in my heart so that I may follow the path of union with You. Your Naam has become the basis of my body and mind, and I have burned the poison of my selfishness and ego. Waheguru connected me with the Guru, who kindly connected me, Nanak, with You, oh Waheguru. I am foolish, but the Guru will put me to work (advise me to follow the path for union with You), which will be approved by You, oh Waheguru. 3.

Guru's holy body is full with Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, and He showers (sprinkles) it on the minds of the people. Those, who like (love) His Gurbani (Shabad), take in the Naam-Amrit and get fully contented. They realize it by the pleasure (kindness) of the Guru, and escape the worries of high and low mental states, which the Maya-engrossed individuals face when they miss the excellent opportunity (to sing Waheguru's praise). Bukhshiya = bestowed. 2.

MEANING: Satguru is the treasure (source) of Waheguru’s worship (gives His Naam), oh, the Royal Waheguru. Satguru is the True Lord (source of Waheguru’s Naam) and bestows this wealth to the Sikh. Satguru and the Sikhs are both dealers in Waheguru’s Naam, and both are worthy of respect, and so is the trade (of Waheguru’s Naam). Satguru is also worthy of applause (for implanting the Naam in the Sikh’s heart). But only that devotee gets connected with Satguru who has his destiny prewritten on his forehead, oh Nanak(u). 1. subservient. 3. Jiyoun Bhaavaiy = as You please. Bhool(i) Vigaarreh = ruin (our future) by making mistakes. Laaj = dignity = Paiyj. Kaandhiya = is called. 4.
MEANING: You are beyond limits, so how can I describe Your qualities in detail, oh, the Royal Waheguru? I can only recite Your Naam day and night, which is my wish, and is the basis of my life. I am foolish (ignorant) and know nothing about getting across the world sea. I, Nanak(u), am Your slave and the slave of Your slaves, oh Waheguru. 3.

Chaytiou = remembered. Kaayay = what for; why. Maanus = human. Doolumbh = difficult to have. Birtha = empty; without success. Vutaiy = optimum conditions. 2.
MEANING: Those who have union with Waheguru prewritten on their foreheads (are predestined) by the Emperor-Waheguru, get connected with Him. Their hearts (minds) are enlightened with Guru's Divine Knowledge, and the darkness of their ignorance disappears. They get the jewel-like invaluable Naam of Waheguru implanted in their minds, which never leaves them. I recite Waheguru's Naam as His slave, and realized Him with His worship, oh Nanak. 1.
Why do those people even come to this world who do not remember the invaluable Naam of Waheguru? The human life is difficult to get again, but it goes waste without worshiping Waheguru. Now (the human life) is the perfect time (has optimum conditions) to sow the seed of Waheguru's Naam in the field of their mind. If one does not sow Waheguru's Naam now, what will he eat as the spiritual food in the next world where he will be hungry (will need it to be approved in Waheguru's Court)? It is Waheguru's Will (Law) that the followers of their mind (disconnected with Waheguru) are to be born again, and again, oh Nanak. 2.

Naadeen = with music. Buhou Bhaant(i) = in many ways. Bheejaiy = is pleased. Kupt(u) = deceit. Vikaar(u) = vice. Sir(i) = head; thoughts. Roag = mental sickness of evilness. Huth(u) Deejaiy = hide. Shoodh(i) = pure. Leejaiy = acquire. 4.

MEANING: You are the Lord, and the whole world is Your creation, oh Royal Waheguru. Nobody has any control over anything; the humans perform deeds as programmed by You. Those, whom You like (approve) get connected with You. The fortunate devotees get connected with the Guru who bestows Waheguru's Naam to them which ferries them across the world-sea, oh Nanak. 3.

Some people worship Waheguru by singing songs (other than Guru's Shabad), some with music, and some using many other ways; but Waheguru is not pleased with any such means (if their heart is not pure). Those, who have the ignoble quality of deceit in their mind, cannot please Waheguru even by praying while crying. Nimaanay = weak, powerless. Deebaan(u) = support; basis. Taan(u) = strength. Sutaanay = full of strength. 1.

Jaayay Buhay = makes dwelling; enlightens. Thaan(u) = place; human heart. Sohaava = pleasant; worthy of respect; blissful. Bhaaliya = found out. Dhoorr(i) = dust of the feet. Ghaal = hard labour. Thaayayn Puyyee = recognized; became successful. Poojiya = worshiped; acted on His advice. 2.

Meaning: They are wise and (spiritually) intelligent people who have love for Waheguru in their heart, oh, the Emperor-Waheguru. Even if they say something incorrect outwardly (unpopular) by mistake, they are pure at heart, and are liked by Waheguru. Waheguru's devotees do not expect (believe in) any other support than Waheguru; they have full faith that Waheguru is the source of pride (and support) for the weak and the humble. Waheguru's Naam is my support (basis), and I feel mentally strong because of (the support of) His strength (omnipotence), oh Nanak. 1.

The heart, which is enlightened by Satguru, becomes blissful (and worthy of respect for all others); even the physical place where Satguru comes to rest for a short while becomes holy with His Word. The Gur Sikhs find out that holy heart (Gur Sikh) and put the dust of his feet on their forehead (show deep reverence for him). The hard labour of the Gur Sikhs, who recite Waheguru's Naam is recognized in Waheguru's Court (they are honoured). The worship of Satguru Nanak by the Sikhs is akin to the worship of Waheguru. 2.

NOTE: Look at the spellings of Nanak(u) in this verse in contrast with the spellings of Nanak in the other three verses in this Chhunt. They do not have 'u' at the end which signifies that the name Nanak(u) refers specifically to Satguru Nanak, and not "Nanak" as the author of the holy hymn.

Word Meaning: Saveh(i) = serve. Bhookh = appetite (for worldly attractions). Tinh Pichhaiy = because of them. Khaayay = takes in (spiritual diet). Poonn(u) = noble deed (Waheguru's Naam). Beejiya = sowed the seed. Toat(i) = shortage. 3.

Vadhaayiyaan = happiness; zest; high spiritedness. Paiynaayiyaiy = are honoured. Toottha = pleased to be kind. 4.

MEANING: The Gur Sikhs have love (and reverence) for Waheguru and for His Naam, oh, the Royal Waheguru. All my appetite for worldly attractions is removed (is satisfied) with the service to the Perfect Guru. (Not just me), All Gur Sikhs lose their appetite for worldly attractions, and many more people receive this spiritual diet because of them (the Gur Sikhs) (as they become the source of spirituality), and get contentment. Those devotees who sow the seed of Waheguru's Naam in their heart never suffer from its shortage (no matter how many people it is shared with), oh Nanak. 3.

The hearts of the Sikhs who have a glimpse of Satguru experience Divine happiness. If someone talks about the virtues of Waheguru to the Gur Sikhs, they find him very sweet (likable). Those Sikhs whom Satguru is pleased to be kind to, are honoured in Waheguru's Court. A devotee, whose heart becomes a dwelling for Waheguru, becomes just like Him, oh Nanak. 4.12.19.

Word Meaning: Bhaytiya = met with; got connected with. Drirraavaiy = reinforces. Trishna Bhookh = appetite for worldly desires. 1.
Bigjun(u) = impediment; obstacle. Purakh(u) = manifestation of Waheguru. Munaaya = celebrated; worshiped. Poojay = worships. 2
MEANING: The Perfect Satguru reiterates Waheguru's Naam to the Sikhs who get connected with Him. All their appetite for worldly desires goes away who recite Waheguru's Naam with dedication, and the Angel of death does not even go near them. I pray to Waheguru to be kind to me so that I may always recite His Naam, which ferries one across the sea of Maya, oh Nanak. 1.
Those devotees who recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru never experience any obstacle (in their way to union with Waheguru). Those are worshiped by everybody who worships Satguru, which is a manifestation of Waheguru, and they always enjoy blissfulness. Those who get connected with Satguru Nanak (His Philosophy) are connected with Waheguru. 2.

Word Meaning: Rukhunhaara = saviour; guard. Ninda = vilification; malicious criticis. Sayti = with. Maaniya = won over; pleased. Doosht = evil. Jhukh Maara = do or say something stupid without inflicting any harm. 3.

Joog, Joog Bhugut = bhagat of the eon. Paiyj = honour. Hernaakhsh = the evil king and the father of Prehlaad, who wanted everyone to worship him rather than the Supreme Being. When Prehlaad refused to do so, Henaakhsh tried several times to have him killed, but was unsuccessful. Was killed by Waheguru while protecting Prehlaad from Henaakhsh. Pitth Dayay = show back (Bhagat Naam Dev ji, who was a Hindu by birth, but belonged to a low caste of washermen. One day, he entered a Hindu temple to show his reverence for Waheguru, but, being a low-caste Hindu, he was kicked out of the temple by the upper-caste Brahmans. Naam Dev Ji went to the backside of the temple and began to sing Waheguru's praise while the Brahmans were watching his actions. To their huge surprise, the temple rotated and turned its face towards Naam Dev Ji, and its back to the Brahmans. Mookh(i) Laaya = showed face to Naam Dev Ji. Chhudaaya = protect (from the clutches of Maya). 4.

MEANING: Those who have love for Waheguru in their mind by the grace of the Guru, are protected by Waheguru (from the attacks of the five demons), oh the Royal Waheguru. Who can find any fault by vilifying those who have love for Waheguru's Naam? Those who have been won over by the love of Waheguru are unaffected by the malicious criticism of the evil people who say or do something stupid against them. I recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the saviour of all, oh Nanak. 3.

Waheguru creates bhagats in each eon and protects their honour. For example, He killed the evil Hernaakhsh and saved His bhagat, Prehlad. He turned His back on the egoist and the slanderer, high-caste Brahmans, and faced towards His Bhagat, Naam Dev Ji. I also serve (worship) Waheguru, who saves you at the end, oh Nanak. 4.13.20.

When the Guru is pleased to be kind, He connects the devotee with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.

I have not tasted the enjoyment of Your love yet, oh my dear Waheguru. My burning desire to see You has not been fulfilled yet, but I am hopeful every day. My young age is receding with every passing day, and the Angel of death is stealing (taking away) my breaths. Those human-brides (Your devotees), who have been adorned with the jewel of good fortune, and have embedded Your Naam in their heart, are fortunate to be loved by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

My eyes are imbued, and are ecstatic in You love like the ecstasy of the rainbird which receives his desired raindrop. By drinking the drop of Waheguru's Naam, my mind has become peaceful. Earlier, the pain of separation from Waheguru was making me restless, and kept me awake; I could not fall asleep no matter what I did, oh my dear Waheguru. But I found (got connected with) my best friend, Waheguru, by meditating on the Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 3.

I am sad at His separation, but I have full hope of seeing my dear Guru soon; both my eyes are fixed on His path. Like a mother who becomes ecstatic to see her son, my heart begins to bloom with joy to see my dear Guru Nanak. 4.
The Satguru narrated the stories of the virtues of the dear Waheguru. I am a sacrifice for my Guru, who connected me with Waheguru. Waheguru fulfilled all my wishes, and I realized my desired reward from Him. Waheguru was pleased to be kind to me - His slave - and I have been fully absorbed in His Naam, oh Nanak. 5.
I will not love anybody other than my dear Waheguru. How can I connect with the Guru by whose grace I can see my dear Waheguru? Please connect me with the Guru so that I may see (get connected with) You with His grace, oh dear Waheguru.
