MEANING: There is only one Supreme Living Being, who has eternal existence (His laws are eternal). He is the creator of the universe, is omnipresent (is living power), is fearless (is above the effects of Maya, and of the natural laws). He is without any enmity (His justice is perfect), and His persona is timeless. He never takes any life form and is self-illuminated. He can be realized only by the grace of the Guru (the Guru is His manifestation).

Assa Sri Kabir Jeeo: Gur churn laag(i) hum binvuta, poochhut keh jea oopaaya. Kuvun kaaj(i), jug(u) oopjaiy, binsaiy, kuhou moh(i) sumjhaaya. 1. Dayv, kurhou duyya, moh(i) maarug(i) laavhou, jit(u) bhaiy bubdhun tootaiy. Junum, mern, dookh, phayrr kerm sookh, jea junum tay chhootaiy. 1. Ruhaou. Maya phaas, bundh nuhee phaaraiy, ur(u) mun soonn(i) na lookay. Aapa pud, nirbaan(u) na cheeniya, in bidh(i) abhiou na chookaiy. 2. Kuheen na oopjaiy, oopji jaanaiy, bhaav, abhaav bihoona. Oodaiy, ust kee mun boodh(i) naasi, tuou suda sehj(i) liv leena. 3. Jiyoun prutibimb(u) bimb kuou mili haiy, ooduk koombh bigraana. Kuhou Kabir aiysa goon bherm(u) bhaaga, tuou mun(u) soonn(i) smaana. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Binvuta = request. Jea = living beings; humans. Oopaaya = created. Kaaj(i) = cause; purpose. Binsaiy = vanishes. 1. Dayv = oh, Guru. Maarug(i) = path (of righteousness). Bhaiy = fear. Bundhun = bonds. Phayrr Kerm = the deeds done. Junum Tay = right from birth. Pause. Phaas = chains; traps. Phaaraiy =break Soonn(i) = in thoughts above Maya. Lookay = hides; gets absorbed. Aapa Pud(u) = level of self; one's origin. Nirbaan(u) = detached from Maya. In Bidh(i) = this way. Abhiyo = non-imbuing; indifference. 2. Kuheen na oopjaiy = (Some people believe that nature is independent of God), but does not come into being independently. Bhaav, Abhaav = the ability to recognize between good and bad. Bihoona = devoid of. Oodaiy = rise; come into being; birth. Ust = set down; disappear; death. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Naasi = disappeared. Sehj(i) = spiritual state above Maya. Live leena= absorbed fully. 3.
Prutibimb(u) = reflection. Bimb = the reflecting source. Ooduk = water. Koombh = the earthen container. Bigraana = breaks. Goon = rope. Bherm = illusion. (People mistake a rope for a snake in the dark). Smaana = absorbed. 4.

MEANING: Falling on His feet (with utmost respect), I request the Guru to explain to me the purpose for which humans have been created, how the world comes into being and is destroyed. 1. Please, be kind, and guide me to the path of righteousness so that all my fears are gone; all my worldly bonds are broken (so as to achieve union with Waheguru); and the negative effects of the deeds done are uprooted right from the birth so that my birth-death cycle is terminated, oh, my dear Guru. Pause.

But I have not been able to overcome the attraction to Maya, which traps one in its captivating chains, and my mind does not remain in the spiritual state above the effects of Maya. I have not done self-analysis, and have not realized my origin (the pure soul, which, being a part of God, should be fully detached from worldly affairs). Under such circumstances, one's mind cannot get rid of its non-imbuing nature (which shows indifference toward God). 2.
Even though nothing comes into being on its own, some people believe that nature has an independent existence; this belief stems from their inability to recognize truth from falsehood. My mind is also devoid of such ability, and I cannot distinguish between good and bad. But, when, with Guru's grace, the wisdom (thoughts and deeds) which leads to one's reincarnation goes away, the mind gets fully absorbed in the blissful state. 3.
Just like the image formed in the water in an earthen container disappears when the container breaks, and just like the illusion in which a rope looks like a snake in the dark is cleared in the light, with Your grace, my illusion about the world has also been cleared, that it is not everlasting, oh Waheguru. Now my mind is fully absorbed in the spiritual state which is above the effects of Maya, oh Kabir. 1.

Jit(u) ko laaya, tit hee laaga, taiysay kerm kmaavaiy. Kuhou Kabir, jis(u) Satgur bhaytaiy, poonrup(i) junum(i) na aavaiy. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Guj = a yard (about a metre). Sadhay taiy = three and a half. Tihray = three-layered. Tug = thread; janeyoo. Jupmaaliyaan = rosaries. Loatay = kettle. Nibugb = shiny. Tthug = thug; cheats; robbers. 1. Bhaaveh(i) = liked. Daalaan = branches. Payda = tree. Gutkaaveh(i) = swallow. Pause. Baasun = vessels. Maanj(i) = cleaning. Kaatthi = wood. Julaaveh(i) = burn. Busoodha = ground. Khoad(i) = dig. Chooleh = hearths; earthen stoves. 2. Upraadhi = criminals. Apurse = who do not even touch Maya; fully detached. Abhimaani = conceited. Kootumb = family (of partners). Doobaaveh(i) = drown. 3. Kerm Kmaavaiy = performs the deeds. Bhaytaiy = meets with. Poonrup(i) = again. 4.

MEANING: The sage-looking individuals who wear all the religious symbols like three-metre-long dhotis, three janeyoos, rosaries around their necks, and who hold shiny kettles in their hands, are indeed deceitful thugs of Banaras, and are not holy saints. 1. I do not like such fake sages who swallow a whole tree along with its branches (they are extremely greedy and usurp everything where they possibly can). Pause. Such fake sages clean the cooking vessels to purify them before putting them on hearths (earthen stoves), wash the wood before using it as fuel, and dig fresh ground to prepare two hearths – to give the false impression of their holiness – but eat the whole human beings (suck their blood by robbing them of their wealth). 2. Those sinners call them fully detached from Maya, but they always roam around committing sins. They are always conceited (of their limited knowledge and respectable position) as a result of which they cause even their associates to drown in the world-sea along with them. 3. But they cannot be blamed entirely because they are committing the deeds for which they are predestined by Waheguru (based on their previous deeds). But those who get connected with Satguru are not born again, oh Kabir. 4.2.

NOTE: Kabir Ji was a resident of Banaras, a city believed to be holy in northern India.

Word Meaning: Baap = father; Waheguru. Dilaasa = console; comfort. Sayj = bed (of heart). Aagaiy = in the next world. Baaji = game of life. 1. Maayee = mother; thinking about Maya. Khuraa = much. Sookhaala = comfortable; blissful. Pehroun = wear. Duglee = a cotton-filled vest; (have warmth at heart). Paala = cold (cold treatment given by the people). Pause. Bul(i) = offer my life. Punchaan tay = from the five demons (lust, greed, etc.). Sung(u) = company. Chookaaya = cut off. Paavaan Tul(i) = under the feet; fully under control. Bheenay = gets imbued. 2. Gosaayeen = the Lord of the earth (Waheguru). Kiyoun Kur(i) = how? Jaayeen = go; reach; get connected. Maarug(i) = path (to union with Waheguru). 3. Aiykaiy Tthaur = the same place (human heart). Busayra = dwelling. Aiko = “One” Waheguru. Boojhiya = realized. Soojhiya = understanding. 4.

MEANING: My father (Waheguru) has consoled me (quenched my thirst for Maya) by giving His Naam-Amrit on my tongue, as a result of which the bed of my heart has become perfectly comfortable now (I feel blissful at heart). Why should I forget such a Father, connecting with whom I will not lose the game of life (my objective to achieve union with God)? 1.

My former wisdom (thinking), which always kept me thinking about Maya, is dead now, and I am feeling very blissful. Now I shall not need to wear any warm clothes (have warmth of accumulating wealth) because I will not feel cold (lack of wealth) as I have the warmth of the wealth of Waheguru's Naam now. Pause. I will gladly offer my life to my Father (God), who gave me the ability to cut off my association with the five demons (get rid of them). Now they are fully in my control. I recite Waheguru's Naam as a result of which my mind and my body are fully imbued in His love. 2. My Father is great, and is the Lord of the world, but I did not know how to reach Him. (I have come to learn that) When one connects with Satguru, He shows the path to Waheguru's Residence. (I did the same thing) And now I like the Father of the World. 3. Now I am Waheguru's son, and He is my father, and both are residing together (in my mind). By Guru's grace, I came to realize everything about connecting with God, and now I have realized the one and only (Waheguru), oh Kabir. 4.3.

Kuhou Kabir suntun kee baiyrun(i), teen(i) loak kee piyaari. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Puttar(i) = container. Oorkut = cooked. Koorkut = chicken. Punch Yogiya = the individuals who are fast friends with the five senses. Nkut = without nose; shameless. Day Raani = the goddess Maya. 1. Tthungun Baada Doon = (attractive) sound of music. Bibayki = having spiritual wisdom. Kaati Toon = severed (your effects), oh Maya. Pause. Vaasa = residence. Auhayri = watches (the effects) carefully. Behn(i) Bhaanji = (is loved like) a sister or a niece. Burie = married. Chayri = slave. 2. Bherta = husband; master. Maathaiy Kaayim(u) = guard on the head (controls). 3. Daari = threw away (gotten rid of). Baiyrun(i) = enemy. Teen Loak = universe. 4.

MEANING: (Maya affects humans in every field; some people live only to satisfy their sensual desires). For example, such people (who are friendly with the five senses) put cooked chicken in one pot, and water (liquor) in the other, place those in the middle, and sit next to each other to enjoy; (but they do not realize) that it is the shameless Maya-goddess who is at the centre of all that. 1.

The shameless (Maya) plays its attractive music aloud (affects everybody and dominates); some rare knowledgeable saint severs all connections with you, oh Maya. Pause.

The shameless Maya resides in everybody (controls their mind), kills their character, and watches its victims carefully (to ensure they are fully under its control). Everybody treats Maya with love as if she were a close relative, but she becomes the slave of those who marry her (holy men who overpower her). 2. Maya says that her husband is a great, knowledgeable person who is called a saint. He is the guard on me (controls me), and does not come even near me. 3. Maya, which is the beloved of the entire three-layered universe, is an enemy of the holy saints who throw her away after severing her nose and her ears (by completely insulting her), oh Kabir. 4.4.

Bayd, Puran, Simrit(i) subh khojay, kuhoon na ooberna. Kuhou Kabir, iyoun Raameh(i) jumpoun mayt(i) junum, merna. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Jutee = celibates. Tupee = self-torturers. Sanyasi = who have renounced the world. Buhou = many. Bhermna = roaming around. Loonjit = who pull out their hair with a tweezer (Jains). Moonjit = a sect of mystics who wear a thin rope made of crushed dry grass-like plants around their lower waist. Moan(i) = mystics who stay quiet for a very long time. Jutadhur = one who wears permanently matted hair. Unt(i) = at the end. 1.
Ta Tay = for that reason. Sayviulay = serve. Ramna = Waheguru. Rusna = tongue.
Hit(u) = love. Jumna = Jum = the angel of death. Pause. Aagum = Hindu Shastra. Nirgum = the Vedas. Joatik = astrology. Biyakerna = grammar. Tunt = magical skills. Aukhudh = medications. 2. Bhoag = luxuries. Chhutur = royal canopy. Singhaasun = throne. Rumna = beautiful women. Paan = betel-leaf wraps. Kupoor = camphor. Soobaasuk Chundun = sweet-smelling sandalwood extract. 3.
Bayd = the Vedas. Khojay = searched; studied carefully. Ooberna = salvation. Iyoun = like this. Jumpoun = (I) recite. Mayt(i) = erase; destroy. 4.

MEANING: (Different people try many different ways to escape the wrath of the Angel of death). However, all those yogis, celibates, self-torturers, renouncers of the world, Jains, the mystics who wear a thin rope of grass-like crushed plants, mystics who stay quiet for long times, and those who wear permanent matted hair, have to die at the end (and face the Angel of death). 1. (So, if the man has to face the Angel of death), then why not serve God? The Angel of Death has no power to question the devotee who recites Waheguru's Naam with love with his tongue. Pause. Even those who know the Shastras, the Vedas, astrology, and grammar well, and those who rely upon their magical skills, upon the mantras, and upon different medications to prolong life, have to die at the end. 2.
Also, all those who enjoy reigning over big states, have royal canopies on their heads, sit on thrones, and enjoy many beautiful women, have to die at the end. Similarly, those who enjoy chewing betel-leaf wraps and spray sweet-smelling, fragrant materials like camphor and sandalwood extract on them and on their beds have to die. 3.
I have studied the Vedas, the Puranas, and the Simritis in detail, but none of those can cut the bonds of Maya. So, worship Waheguru with such dedication that your birth-death cycle is terminated, oh Kabir. 4.5.

Kuchhooa kuhaiy ungaar bh(i) loaroun, lookee shabad(u) soonaaya. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Pheal(u) = elephant. Rubaabi = musician. Buld(u) = ox. Pukhaavuj = tabor. Kuooaa = crow. Taal = cymbal. Cholna = robe. Gudhaa = donkey. Bhaiynsa = male water buffalo. 1. Kukkri = the bitter fruit of a wild plant, Calotropis procera, which resembles a mango. Aambray = mangoes. Pukaayay = ripened. Boojhunhaaray = wise. Pause. Singh(u) = lion. Paan = a betel leaf wrap. Ghees = mole. Glauray = a paan containing tobacco. Moosri = mice. Mungul = a song of joy. Kuchhooaa = tortoise. Sunkh(u) Vujaayay = blows the conch (no longer needs to hide itself). 2.
Bunse = an infertile woman (Maya). Bunse Ko Poot(u) = the son of a bunse (Maya); Maya-engrossed mind. Maya is considered infertile because it is not known to have given birth in natural way. Mundup = adorned set-ups; decorated canopies; joyous occasion (enlightened mind). Roop Kunniya = virgin girl; purity of body and mind. Baydhi = pierced, married. Sussaiy = the rabbit. 3. Keenti = ant (humility). Perbut = mountain; ego. Ungaar = burning coal; warmth. Lookee = a mosquito-like pest which lives in dark, and bites. 4.

Some characteristics associated with animals: In this holy Shabad, Kabir Sahib compared some human characteristics with animals as follows.
Elephant = conceit. Ox = laziness. Crow = cleverness. Donkey = lust. Buffalo = obstinacy. Lion = cruelty. Mole = greed; discontentment. Mice = senses. Kuchhooa = avoidance; cowardice. Rabbit = scared; worried. Turtle = coldness of mind (because it lives in cold waters). Lookee = darkness of mind (because it lives in darkness). So, we will use the corresponding characteristics rather than the animals in our explanation.

MEANING: (Due to my singing of His praise), my Lord has converted the bitter fruit (the bitterness of my mind) into sweet mangoes (compassion and caring for others); however, only some rare knowledgeable devotee has experienced this change (by singing His praise). Pause. Because of this change, my conceited, indolent, and clever mind has become a musician (which sings Waheguru's praise), and feels as if it is playing musical instruments like tabor and cymbals. 1. My cruel and discontented mind has become fully contented and likes to serve others like a betel-leaves-wrap-selling lady serves its customers (but my service is free, selfless, and without any expectation of any return). Each of my senses is singing the song of joy (is happy and satisfied), and my mind, which was always worried because of its vices, has become fearless and no longer needs to shy away from others (hide its weaknesses). 2. My Maya-engrossed mind (which was married to Maya before), and was always worried (because of its weaknesses), is going to marry a new wisdom (thinking) now, which is pure and selfless, as a result of which my mind is fully enlightened now, and sings Waheguru's praise. 3. I want to share my experience with good people that my humility has swallowed my huge ego, and my cold mind has now acquired the warmth to serve others, and my ignorance has been replaced by Waheguru's praise, oh Kabir. 4.6.

NOTE: Prof Sahib Singh Ji's interpretation of this holy Shabad is thankfully acknowledged.

Assa: Butooa, aik buhuttar(i) aadhaari, aiko jiseh(i) dooaara. Nuvaiy khund kee prithmi maangaiy, so yogi jug(i) saara. 1. Aiysa yogi nuou nidh(i) paavaiy. Tul ka braham guggun(i) churaavaiy. 1. Ruhaou. Khintha Giyan, dhiyan kur(i) sooyee, Shabad(u) taaga muth(i) ghaalaiy. Punch tut(u) kee kur(i) mirgaani, Gur kaiy maarug(i) chaalaiy. 2. Duyya phahoori, kaaya kur(i) dhooyee, drisht(i) kee ugun(i) julaavaiy. Tis ka bhaaou luyay rid untar(i) chuhoun joog taarri laavaiy. 3. Subh joagtun Ram Naam(u) haiy, Jis ka pind praana. Kuhou Kabir, jay kirpa dhaaraiy, dayay sacha neeshaana. 4.7.
Word Meaning: Butooa = the bag in which the yogi stores ashes (to cover his body). Buhuttar(i) = seventy-two (human body, which is believed to have 72 long veins). Aadhaari = another bag used to collect dry ingredients for cooking. Nuvaiy Khund = (human body with) the nine openings. Prithmi = earth = human body. Saara = supreme. 1. Nuou Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Tul Ka Braham = the human soul which stays very low (engrossed in Maya). Guggun(i) = in the sky; above the effects of Maya. Pause. Khintha = quilt (which the yogis wear). Giyan = divine knowledge (connecting with God). Sooyee = needle. Taaga = thread. Muth(i) = spin. Ghaalaiy = puts through. Punch Tut(u) = human body made up of the five elements. Mirgaani = the deer-skin on which the yogi sits to meditate. Maarug = the path. 2. Duyya = compassion. Phahoori = a shovel-like tool to gather ashes. Dhooyee = the fire pit. Drisht(i) = vision (which sees everybody the same way). Ugun(i) = fire. Tis Ka = Waheguru's. Bhaaou = love for. Chuhoun Joog = in all the four eons; always. Taarri = stay focused; meditates. 3. Joagtun = the path of the yogis. Pind = body. Praana = life. Neeshaana = identification. 4.
MEANING: Use your body with the 72 large veins, which has only one door (called the Tenth door through which you get the light of Waheguru) as your bag to store ashes, and also to collect alms in the form of dry ingredients, oh yogi. Rather than begging for alms in the whole world, the real yogi begs Waheguru's Naam in his body only. Such a yogi, who raises his spirituality from the low level where he is engrossed in Maya to the highest level above the effects of Maya, is supreme and acquires the contentment of possessing all the nine mythical treasures. Pause. Rather than wearing a quilt which is just a show off, the real yogi builds his own quilt for which he uses his mind connected with Waheguru as the base, his focused mind as the needle to stitch it, and uses Waheguru's praise as the woven thread to put through the needle (focuses his mind on Waheguru's Shabad). And rather than using a deer skin as a rug to sit on for meditation, he crushes his love for his body and makes it the rug to sit on, and follows the Guru's advice as his path to union with Waheguru. 2. Rather than using ash which he collects with a shovel-like tool to cover his body, he uses compassion for fellow humans as the coating for the body, and rather than building a fire pit near him (which is more of a show off of his religiosity), he uses his body to serve others as his religion, and builds the fire of equality for all human beings (to get the needed warmth of satisfaction) in the cold weather. Also, such a yogi implants love for Waheguru in his heart, which serves as his permanent meditation. 3. Actually, Waheguru's Naam is the real path to all types of yogism as He is the Lord of our bodies and our minds. Waheguru gives His approved identity (a certificate of approval) to the individuals on whom He casts His kind sight, oh Kabir. 4.7.

Chhaad(i) Kutayb Ram bhuj(u) bauray, zoolum kert haiy bhaari. Kabiraiy pukri tayk Ram kee, Turk ruhay puchihaari. 4.8.

Word Meaning: Turk = Muslims. Raah = path; faith. Kuvaaday = one who gets into useless discussions. Bhist = paradise. Dojuk = hell. Kin(i) = who. 1.
Qaaji = Qazi = a Muslim priest who is also a judge. Kutayb = religious books, such as the Quran. Bukhaani = say; explain. Goonut = those who ponder on. Khubur(i) = news. Pause. Sukut(i) Snayh(u) = in the love of a woman. Soonut(i) = circumcision. Budoungaa = acknowledge. Juou = if; when. 2. Aurut(i) = Naar(i) = of woman. Urdh-sreeri = half the part of man's life. 3. Bhuj(u) = recite (the Naam). Bauray = foolish. Zoolum = cruelty. Bhaari = huge. Pukri Tayk = took shelter. Puchihaari = agonize self (in useless discussions). 4.

MEANING: What religious book are you giving the reference of (to condemn others for no good reason), oh Qazi? All those who read and ponder the way you do are killed (punished) in Waheguru's Court without anyone knowing what happens to them. Pause. Where did the Hindus and the Muslims come from, and who started these faiths? Just think in your mind who goes to paradise or to hell, oh, the participant in useless and damaging discussions. (These are all man-made divisions and philosophies, and not created by God, as you claim that Islam is the preferred religion of Allah. 1. (You claim that circumcision is a holy thing and is approved by Allah), I do not acknowledge this claim of yours. You perform circumcision only for the love of women. If it is approved by Allah and He wanted me to be a Muslim, it should have happened by itself. 2. If a man becomes a Muslim (which you claim is the preferred faith of Allah) by circumcision only, then what about the women? What is the use of the man converting to Islam if his wife, who is half of his body (half partner in life), cannot convert? 3. So, it is best to stay a Hindu. Quit reading your holy books because you use them as a tool to commit grave cruelty to others; just worship God only. I, for one, have taken shelter of Waheguru, whereas the Muslims are agonizing themselves in useless discussions, oh Kabir. 4.8.

Dotookay 9.

Word Meaning: Jub Lug(u) = as long as. Deeva = earthen lamp. Baati = wick. Soojhaiy = can see; visible. Tthehraani = stops working. Soona = empty (of light); dark. Mundar(u) = room; heart. 1. Bauray = foolish. Ghuree = a short time. Raakhaiy = keeps. Pause. Ka Kee = whose. Kuvun = which. Joyee = married to; wife. Ghut = heart. Phootay = breaks; is dead. Baat Na Poochhaiy = cares. Kaadhou = take him out (to the cremation ground). 2. Dayhoori = on the sill (of the door). Khutiya = coffin; dead body on a wooden plank. Lut Chhitkaayay = with unruly hair. Tiriya = wife. Hunse(u) = soul. Ikayla = alone. 3. Bhaiy Saagur = the sea of Maya, which keeps one in the birth-death cycle. Kaiy Taayee = concerning. Jum(u) = the Angel of death. Gosaayeen = Waheguru. 4.

MEANING: There is light in the room, and everything is visible as long as there is oil in the lamp and wick in its mouth; but when the oil runs out, the wick stops working, and the room becomes dark. 1. Just like the lamp which becomes useless without oil, the human body becomes lifeless (and useless) when the soul leaves the body, and nobody wants to keep you (the dead body) at home, oh, the foolish man. So, recite Waheguru's Naam. Pause. When the human heart stops functioning, all the relations come to an end – the dead body has no mother, no father, and no wife - everybody begins to say "take him out". 2. The mother cries at the doorsill while the brothers carry the dead body to the cremation ground. The wife wails with unruly hair, but the departed soul travels alone. 3.

As far as the world-sea is concerned (which keeps the man in the death-birth cycle), I want to share with the wise people that the man suffers without understanding the Will of God, and the Angel of death never leaves him alone (he is caught in the cycle of reincarnation), oh Kabir. 4. 9. Dotookay 9.

Ram Naam lug(i) ootraiy teera. 4.1.10.

Word Meaning: Chaupuday = Shabads with four stanzas. Ikk Tookay = verse with a single line (with one or two sentences).
Sunuk, Snund = sons of Brahma (there are two more: Snundun and Sunt Kumar). 1.
Bilovna = churning; analysis. Sehj(i) = with patience. Tut(u) = reality. Pause.
Mutkee = the container in which to churn. Biloyee = churner. Sunjoyee = add as culture. 2. Meera = the Lord. Ootray = get across (the sea of Maya). Teera = shore; the other side of the sea. 4.
MEANING: Even Sunuk and Snund, the sons of Brahma, never found the limits of Waheguru, and wasted away their lives studying the four Vedas written by Brahma. 1.
The only thing to churn (analyze carefully and ponder on) is the churning of Waheguru's Naam. But one must do it with patience (in the blissful state above the effects of Maya) so that you are not distracted from the root (Waheguru). Pause. People churn yogurt in a container to obtain butter; to obtain the butter of Waheguru's Naam, one should use his body as the container, add Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's praise) as the cultured yogurt, and use his mind as the churner. 2. Waheguru's Naam is churned by the focused mind when the devotee receives a thin stream of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit in his mind with Guru's grace. 3. With Waheguru's kind sight, one is ferried across the world-sea by reciting Waheguru's Naam, oh Kabir. 4.1.10.

Tinh tay naahi Perm Pud(u) dooray. 4.2.11.
Word Meaning: Baati = wick (of hopes and desires). Tayl = oil (of love for Maya). Nikhoota = ran out. Mundul = drum. Nut = acrobat (mind). 1. Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Nicksiyo = produced. Ruv(i) Ruhiya = is present. Pause. Tunt(u) = wire. Rubaab(u) = a guitar-like musical instrument. Bhool(i) = mistake. Bigaariyo = ruined. Kaaj(u) = objective. 2. Kuthni = describing. Budni = with the mouth. Bisriyo = lost from memory. 3.
Punch = the five demons. Chooray = crushes (brings under control). Perm Pud(u) = the highest spiritual level (leading to union with God). 4.
NOTE: The main idea of any shabad is squeezed in the sentence preceding "Ruhaou". So, it makes the meaning of the Shabad clearer if we start with that.
MEANING: When I realized that there is only One Supreme Being, who is omnipresent, and there is none other like Him in the universe, all the fire of my desires was put out so completely that even smoke was not left behind (there was no remaining sign). Pause. Now, the oil of the desires, which was serving as the fuel for the lamp (worldly desires), has run out, and the wick (of attachment with Maya) has dried up completely. My acrobatic mind, which was dancing at the music (signals) of Maya, has lain down to sleep (has become completely peaceful), and there is no drum (music) of Maya playing anymore. 1. My mistake of attachment with Maya, which was ruining my spiritual life, has been rectified because my wire (connection with Maya) has been broken; so, Maya is unable to lure me with its attractive music. 2. My mind, which was using my body to talk about Maya, was singing its praise to others, and was listening to its attractive features all the time, has erased the thoughts about Maya from its memory since it realized the reality (importance of Waheguru's Naam, and insignificance of Maya). 3. The highest spiritual level (which leads to union with Waheguru) is not far from those devotees who crush (control) the five demons (lust, rage, greed, worldly attachments, and ego, which are different manifestations of Maya), oh Kabir. 4. 2.11.

Sehj(i), sehj(i) goon ruvaiy Kabira. 4.3.12.

Word Meaning: Soot(u) = son. Apraadh = guilty activities; sins. Jaytay = as many. Jun-nee = mother (who gives birth). Cheet(i) = in mind. Taytay = all those. 1.
Ramuyyiya = omnipresent (Waheguru). Baarik(u) = child. Khundus(i) = cut into pieces; destroy. Uvgun = misdeeds; bad qualities. Pause.
Ut(i) = extreme. Kroap = rage. Dhaaya = ready to attack. Maaya = mother. 2.
Chint = worries. Bhuvun(i) = in the palace (kiln). Ootrus(i) Paara = find salvation. 3.
Bimul Mut(i) = mind-purifying advice. Sehj(i) = blissful state of mind; while feeling blissful. Ruvaiy = recite. Goon = (Waheguru's) virtues. 4.

MEANING: I am Your child, oh my omnipresent Waheguru. Why do You not kindly destroy my misdeeds (ignoble thinking)! Pause. Even the mother does not remember all those sins that her son commits (and You are much more than the mother). 1.
Not only that, but the mother also forgets even those moments when her son leaps to attack her in extreme rage. 2. At the same time, I also realize that no one can find salvation without Your Naam. So, I am suffering in the kiln of worries, oh Lord. 3.
Kindly impart the wisdom which will purify my mind, so that I, Kabir, may recite Your Naam all the time in a blissful state, oh Lord. 4.3.12.

Word Meaning: Hajj = pilgrimage to Mecca. Gomati Teer = the bank of Gomati (a holy river for Hindus). Buseh(u) = resides. Peetumbur = one who wears yellow clothes (Krishna, a name for God). Peer = a Muslim holy man; Allah. 1.
Wah(u) = wonderful! Khoob = very (good). Bhaavta = is liked. Pause.

Naarud = a son of Brahma. Saarud = goddess Shaarda. Khuvaasi = provide assistance; serve. Beebi Kuvla = Maya; goddess Lakshmi. Daasi = slave. 2.
Kaiyntthay = around the neck. Maala = rosary. Jihva = (on the) tongue. Sehuns = thousands. Slaam(u) = salute; show reverence. 3. Ram = the omnipresent. Turk = Muslims. Doyoo = both. 4.
MEANING: What a wonderful praise of Waheguru is my mind singing! I love Waheguru's Naam in my mind. Pause. My mind has become a holy place because Waheguru - which Hindus call Krishna and the Muslims Allah) - is residing here now. It has become holy like Mecca is for Muslims, and the bank of the River Gomati, which is holy for the Hindus. 1. Waheguru, whom Nard and Sharda Devi serve, and next to whom is sitting Lakshmi Devi (Maya) as His slave, is residing in my heart. 2. (People carry a rosary as a sign of their devotion), But Waheguru's Naam on my tongue is the rosary that I am wearing around my neck. I salute Him, and remember Him by thousands of different names (including Krishna and Allah). 3. I sing praise of only the Supreme Being, which is omnipresent, and explain to both the Hindus and the Muslims that there is only one God to worship, oh Kabir. 4.4.13.

Word Meaning: Paati = leaves (flowers). Toraiy = picks (to worship some idol). Maalini = (she) gardener. Jeao = life. Paahun = stone (idol). Nirjeao = lifeless. 1.
Bhooli = mistaken. Jaagta = full of life; living (so cannot be an idol). Pause.
Braham = Brahma (who was born out of the lotus flower growing in the navel of Vishnu. Bishun = Vishnu. Daari = twig; a shoot. Shankar Dayo = god Shiva who wears a flower in his hair. Pertukh(i) = clearly. Sayou = service; worship. 2.
Pakhaan = rock; stone. Guddh(i) Kay = by carving. Moorut(i) = shape (of the idol). Chhaati = chest. Saachi = real. Gurrhunhaaray = the carver. 3.
Bhaat(i) = rice. Pehit(i) = daal; a soup of beans of different kinds. Laapsi = a very soft wheat flour pudding. Kurkura Kaasaar(u) = a crunchy preparation of roasted wheat flour, nuts, resins and sugar. Bhogiya = enjoyed the products. Chhaar(u) = ash, dust. 4.
MEANING: The gardener (devotee) picks leaves and flowers from the garden to worship her idol-deity. But what she does not realize is that every leaf and every flower has life, while her idol, whom she plans to offer these to, is lifeless. 1. She is mistaken and does not realize that Satguru is a living power; so, the idol, which is lifeless, cannot be the real God. Pause.

Another thing which the gardener does not realize is that the leaves represent Brahma because he was born out of the lotus flower growing in the navel of Vishnu, and for the same reason, a shoot represents Vishnu; while the flowers represent Shiva, who is always shown with a flower in the knot of his hair. She has picked (and has clearly killed the three gods), so whom is she serving (worshipping)? 2. Moreover, the sculptor who sculpted the idol from a rock insults him because he places his foot on the rock (to prevent it from moving). So, if the idol is real, it should swallow (kill) the sculptor. 3. Also, the devotee offers delicious items like rice, bean soup, soft wheat pudding, and a crunchy sweet mixture to the idol for the idol to eat after the worship. However, the devotee devours and enjoys all of that herself (because the idol cannot eat any of those). So, what does the idol get in his mouth, ash? The gardener (devotee) is misled by her false beliefs, and so is the whole world. But I will not be misled because Waheguru has saved me from such misbeliefs by His kindness, oh Kabir. 4.1.14.

Word Meaning: Baalpun = childhood. Beetay = spent. Tup = hard labour of Waheguru's worship. Dayv Na Pooja = No worship (of Waheguru), not even in the form of a deity. Puchhutaana = repent. Birdh Bhuyyo = became old. 1. Mayri, Maryri = mine and mine; in selfishness. Saayir Bluyyio = sea of strength. Soakh(i) = absorbed; dried up. Bhoojun(g) = of arms. Pause. Survur(i) = pool of water. Paal(i) = wall. Bundhaavaiy = builds. Loonaiy Khayt(i) = the field which has already been harvested. Vaar(i) = fence. Choar(u) = thief (Angel of death). Toorunteh(i) = quickly. Moogudh(u) = foolish. 2. Churn = feet. Sees(u) = head. Ker = hands. Kumpun = uncontrolled shaking. unstable. Naiyni = from the eyes. Neer = water. Asaar = uncontrolled. Soodh(u) Buchun = clear (tangible) words. Dherm Kee Aas = hope to do noble deeds. 3.
Liv Laavaiy = focuses concentration. Laaha = benefit. Dhun(u) = wealth. Untay = at the end. Naal(i) Chulliyo = accompanies. 4. Un(u) = other. Dhun(u) = wealth. Tulb = call. Gopal Raayay = Waheguru. Mundar(u) = mansions. 5.

MEANING: The first 12 years of a man's life go by in childhood, (then he begins to pursue other interests in life), and he does not do any hard work to remember Waheguru for the following twenty years. For the next 30 years, he becomes deeply involved in his family affairs and does not worship Waheguru (or any other deity, for that matter). By that time, he gets old and then begins to repent (for not remembering Waheguru). 1. All his life is spent in selfishness, and when he gets old, the sea (pool) of his energy dries up, and he loses the strength of his arms. Pause. He tries to delay his old age, but his efforts are as meaningless as a man raising a wall around a dry pool to keep the water from escaping, or building a fence around a field that has already been harvested. The Angel of Death comes unannounced like a thief and takes him away while all his wealth, which he had saved carefully, is left behind. 2. In old age, his feet, his head, and his hands begin to shake, and water begins to run from his eyes uncontrollably. He cannot speak clearly with his tongue and still hopes to do some noble deeds. 3. However, if Waheguru is kind, the man focuses his concentration on His Naam, and reaps the benefit as the Naam begins to flourish in his heart. With Guru's grace, he acquires the wealth of the Naam, which accompanies him to the next world. 4. There is no other wealth that the man can take with him at the time of death, oh holy devotees. When Waheguru calls him, he has to leave all the wealth and his big mansions behind, oh Kabir. 5.2.15.

Word Meaning: Kahoo = to some. Paat = silk. Putumbur = silk clothes. Plungh Nivaara = bed of cotton (considered to be luxurious at the time). Gurie = worn out. Goadri = mattress. Khan = (in) houses. Praara = stubble of paddy. 1. Ehirukh = grumbling; complaining. Vaad(u) = argument. Sookirt = honest labour. Pause. Koomhaar = potter. Maati = mud. Goondhi = made a dough. Baani = decorations; kinds. Moti = pearls (virtues). Mooktaahul = necklaces of pearls (good qualities). Biyaadh(i) = diseases; vices. 2. Soomeh(i) = (to) a money-lover. Moogudh = foolish. Dund(u) = baton. Moond = head. Khin = a moment. Nibayra = gives a decision. 3. Ootum = superior. Bhaana = Will. 4. Chirgut = cage. Chutaara = sparrow. Turie Taagri = bowls (for food and water). 5.

MEANING: (Nobody knows the mysterious ways of Waheguru); He gives silk clothes to wear, and luxurious beds to sleep in to some people, while some others do not have even a worn-out mattress, or worse still, some people have only paddy stubble to sleep on, in their homes. 1. But, do not grumble or argue (with God), and earn money by honest hard labour to afford such comforts, oh my mind. Pause. Just as a potter makes dough of mud and prepares pottery of different designs and kinds, Waheguru creates humans of different kinds and adorns them with noble qualities or takes away their beauty by injecting vices into them. 2. If some money is given to a money-lover person just to hold in trust, the foolish refuses to return, claiming that it was his own property; but the Angel of death delivers his justice in a moment, and hits the cheat on the head with his baton (punishes him). (So, the person must be honest and God-fearing). 3. However, the true devotees of Waheguru are considered superior (much better) people because they accept the Will of God and feel blissful. Whatever Waheguru likes, they accept as the eternal truth and gladly accept His Will. 4. Calling worldly things as personal property is completely false (because they do not accompany the man after death), listen, oh devotees of Waheguru. Just like a cat that tears the cage and takes away the sparrow (or any other bird), shocking him while the food and water bowls are left behind; the sudden death shocks the individuals, leaving all their belongings behind, oh Kabir. 5.3.16.

Word Meaning: Muskeen = humble. Khudaayee Bunday = God-fearing (His devotees). Raajus(u) = of royalty. Bhaavaiy = are liked. Uvul(i) = number one; greatest. Joar(u) = oppression; unjust and cruel treatment. Phoormaavaiy = approves. 1. Boliya = just empty words. Bun(i) Nuhee Aavaiy = do not work. Pause. Roja = fasting during Ramazan (a Muslim ritual). Nivaaj = Muslim prayer. Kulma = the basic Mantra of the Muslims. Bhisht(i) = paradise. Suttar(i) = hidden. Kaba = the holy stone in Mecca, which the Muslims treat as a manifestation of Allah. Ghut(i) = heart. Bheetur(i) = inside. 2. Niyaayoun = justice; Allah's Huqam. Ukleh(i) = with (Guru's) wisdom. Jaanay = realizes Allah (makes a connection with Him). Paanchoun = the five (demons). Moos(i) = deceive (control). Moosulla = mat on which a Muslim sits to offer nivaaj. Deen(u) = (universal) religion of God. 3. Turse = take pity. Munie = ego. Pheeki = distasteful. Junaayay = explain (analyze). Sreeki = partner; a member. 4. Maati = mud; human body. Bhaykh = faiths. Braham = God. Dojuk = hell. 5.

MEANING: You love to spend your time with royal people, talk about them (and love to oppress the poor), but I am a God-fearing, humble person, oh Qazi. Allah, who is the greatest Lord of us all, does not approve of the oppression of the weak. 1. (Being a religious leader, you do talk to people about Allah), but empty words just do not work with Him, oh Qazi. Pause. You do perform the religious rituals like fasting in the month of Ramzan, offering the ritualistic nivaj, and reciting your basic Mantra, but you cannot go to paradise based on such rituals, which are more of a show-off. Actually, Kaaba (Allah) resides hidden in your own heart if one realizes this fact. 2. The true Nivaj is to recognize the Huqam of Allah, and the true Kulma is to make a connection with Him with the Guru's Advice. In addition, an individual, who controls his five demons (which are universal for each human being), and uses this control as the rug to sit on while offering nivaj (when the demons are under control, the mind does not wander around in worldly affairs, and is fully focused on God; so, the position of controlled mind is the perfect rug to sit on for deep meditation); only then the individual recognizes the real religion of God (which is the universal religion). 3. One should make a connection with Allah, have pity on (compassion for) the helpless, and kill one's ego, recognizing it as distasteful. Besides, the man should recognize himself, and learn about the problems of others; only then can he be a partner in paradise. 4. One recognizes Allah when one recognizes His presence in every human being. Even though they look very different from each other, yet they have the same basic ingredient – Allah - in their bodies. But rather than recognizing this fact, the Qazi (and his followers) consider them to belong to the best faith as a result of which, rather than going to paradise, they are seeding the seeds for hell, oh Kabir. 5.4.17.

NOTE: The Muslims believe that only they are the true believers of Allah, and all other people are infidels. So, they believe Islam to be the religion of God. In this holy Shabad, Kabir Sahib defines the true religion of God.

Word Meaning: Guggun Nugr(i) = the tenth door; enlightened mind. Ikk Boond Na = not even a drop. Naad(u) = music; noise of thoughts about Maya. Smaana = absorbed; disappeared. Parbrahm -------Perm Hunse = all are names for Waheguru. Lay Sidhaana = took away. 1. Baba = an experienced person. Boaltay Tay = those words (thoughts) about Maya. Dayhi = body. Sung(i) Rehtay = stayed with the body. Sooruti) Maah(i) = in thoughts (mind). Nirtay = dance. Kutha Baarta = conversation; talked about. Pause. Bujaavunhaaro = the musician (mind). Mundar(u) = music hall; palace (of dreams). Saakhi Shabad = stories about Maya. Khinch(i) = pulled out. Tayj = glamour. 2. Servnun = ears. Bikul Bhuyay = became restless. Indri = senses. Bul Thaaka = lost energy. Churn = feet. Ruhay = become non-functional. Ker = hands. Dherk(i) = loose-skinned. Nicksaiy = comes out. 3. Thaakay = exhausted. Tuskur = thieves (sensual pleasures which rob one of virtues). Aap Apnay = in their own areas. Bhermtay = functions. Koonchur = elephant. Oor = heart. Tayj(u) Soot(u) = with fast speed. Dhur(i) = on the earth. Rumtay = roam around; scan the earth. 4. Mirtuk Bhuyay = acting as if dead. Dusaiy = five senses and their five functionaries. Bund = bonds. Mittar Bhaayee = friends like hopes and desires. 5.

MEANING: Where have those words disappeared, which you used to talk about Maya, and which accompanied you all the time, which danced in your mind, and which always discussed Maya, oh my experienced friend? Pause. Where is all that noise which your thoughts created in your mind about Maya? It seems that not even a drop of the rain of that noise is dropping on your tenth door (mind) anymore. Answer: It is all kindness of the Great Waheguru, which we call by many names. He has taken all those thoughts away from me. 1. Where is the musician's mind which had created the music hall of its dreams about Maya? What happened to all those stories about Maya that always arose in your thoughts? It seems that all the glamour of your thoughts has been taken away. 2.
The experienced friend advises the questioner: You need to learn something from my experience. With old age, all faculties of the mind become weak. The ears become restless after hearing all the backbiting of others, or because of the filthy talk, and all senses lose their energy. The feet stop walking, the skin of the hands becomes loose, and no words come out clearly from the mouth. 3. The five demons and the sensual pleasures, which rob one of his good qualities, get exhausted of their functions in their respective areas. The mind, which is egoist like an elephant, and the heart (desires), which scans the whole earth in a moment, get exhausted too. 4. All the ten - five senses and their five functionaries - act as if they are dead, and their accomplices – hopes and desires - also quit their company. So, rather than abandoning the worldly attractions, it is much better for the man to worship Waheguru and break the bonds of Maya while he is still living in the family, oh Kabir. 5.5.18.

Word Meaning: Serpni = snake; Maya (has been called snake in Guru Granth Sahib). Buliya = force; power. Mahadeo = Shiva. Chhuliya = deceived. 1. Maar(u) Maar(u) = the noise-making and killer. Nirmul Jul(i) = pure water (purified heart). Paiytthi = entered; settled; becomes tame. Tirbhuvun(u) = the whole universe. Dusiulay = bit; stung. Deetthi = realized its nature. Pause. Saach(u) Puchhaniya = made a connection with Waheguru. 2. Chhoochha = without the effect. Uvra = other (than Waheguru's devotees). Jumra = Jum, the helpless Angel of death. 3. Ta Kee Keeti = created by Waheguru. Bul Ubul(u) = power, or lack of that. 4. Bustee = lives; can influence. Bust Sreera = the human body keeps taking rebirths. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. Turay = salvaged. 5.

MEANING: There is no power stronger than Maya, which deceived even the gods like Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva. 1. Maya, which is a killer of morality, and which makes much noise (is much talked about), becomes tame in a purified heart. The killer effects of Maya, which stings the whole universe, become ineffective with Guru's grace. Pause. Why are you afraid of Maya, oh folks? The devotee, who makes a connection with Waheguru, is able to consume Maya (bring it under control). 2. Other than the true devotees of Waheguru, there is none in the world who is not affected by Maya. What can the helpless Angel of Death do to the devotee who conquers Maya? 3. Maya has been created by Waheguru; it has no power of its own or has no ability to control anyone. 4.
But, as long as its influence exists, the individuals will keep taking births again and again. However, with Guru's grace, I have been able to swim across the sea of Maya in a blissful spiritual state (which is above Maya's effects), oh Kabir. 5.6.19.

Word Meaning: Kuhaa = where; why; of what use. Sooaan = dog. Simrit(i) = the Hindu granths. Saakut = Maya-engrossed; disconnected from God. 1. Rumay = which is omnipresent. Rum(i) = recite Naam. Pause. Kuooaa = crow. Kupoor = camphor. Churaayay = feed. Bisiur = snake. 2. Bibayk Boodh(i) = Divine Knowledge; the wisdom that enables a person to tell the good and the bad apart. Paarus(u) = elixir stone; touch stone. Purs(i) = touch. Kunchun = gold. Soyee = the same. 3.
Kuray Kuraaya = do as they are made to do. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning. 4.
Amrit = life-sustaining holy water. Ooa Ko = of him; his. Sehj(u) = blissfulness. 5.

MEANING: (A money-engrossed man, who is disconnected with Waheguru, cannot be convinced to love Him); Recite the Naam of the omnipresent Waheguru again, and again, but never preach a money-engrossed person even by mistake. Pause. Singing Waheguru's praise before a money-minded person is like reading Simritis to a dog (which will have no effect on him). 1. What is the use of feeding camphor (a sweet-smelling substance) to a crow, or feeding milk to a snake (because it will still have poison in its bite)? 2. Like a piece of iron becomes gold (and cannot be told apart from other gold pieces when touched with an elixir stone), a normal person will acquire Divine Knowledge in the company of the Guru (who is the elixir stone in the realm of spirituality). 3.
But we cannot blame a money-minded person for his behaviour, because everybody, be it a dog or a man, does exactly what he is predestined to do by Waheguru right from his birth. 4. The basic nature of the neem tree (which has very bitter leaves and fruit) does not change even if you irrigate it with the sweet ambrosial water, oh Kabir. 5.7.20.

Usthir(u) ruhhaiy, na kut-houn jaayee. 4. Keht Kabir soonhou ray loyee. Ram Naam bin mookut na hoyee. 5.8.21.

Word Meaning: Sa = like. Koat(u) = fort. Smoond = sea. Khaayee = a deep
A trench around a fort, which is filled with water. Ravan = the king of Sri Lanka, and the villain in the epic of Ramayana. Khubur = news. 1. Thir(u) = stable; everlasting. Naiyn = eyes. Pause. Lukh = hundred thousand. Naati = grandsons. Deeya Baati = lamp or light. 2. Chund Sooruj = from evening to morning, and back to evening; 24 hours. Tupt = hot; burn. Rusoyee = kitchen. Baiysuntar(u) = fire; furnaces to heat water. 3. Busaayee = embedded in mind. Usthir(u) = stable. Na Kut-houn = no where. 4. Loyee = oh, folks. Bin = without. Mookut = freedom from worldly bonds. 5.

MEANING: Because nothing is everlasting, what should I ask for from Waheguru? Everything is leaving the world right in front of my eyes. Pause. Even Ravan, the king of Sri Lanka, who had fortified his country like a fort for defence purposes, and had a huge defence ditch in the form of sea around it, could not escape death. Not only that, but nobody even has any news about his fort-like house. 1. Ravan is believed to have had a hundred thousand sons, and 1.25 lakh grandsons. His family was so large that cooking went on in his kitchen all the time, and furnaces worked day and night to heat water for washing their clothes. Despite such a large family, there is nobody left in his house even to light a lamp. 2 & 3. But, if one embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart with Guru's Advice, his mind becomes peaceful and quits wandering (as a result of which the devotee becomes immortal by merging into Waheguru). 4. Listen, oh the folks of the world, nobody can break the bonds of Maya (find salvation) without Waheguru's Naam at heart, says Kabir. 5.8.21.

Keht Kabir ju iss(u) pud boojhaiy. Ram rumut tis(u) subh(u) kichh(u) soojhaiy. 5.5.22. Baayees Chaupuday tutha Punchpuday.

Word Meaning: Pehlaan = to begin with; at the time of birth. Poot(u) = pure (soul). Pichhaiy = after; later. Maayee = (attractions of) Maya; desires. Gur(u) = soul. Chayla = disciple (mind full of desires). 1. Achumbhou = strange thing. Singh(u) = lion; king. Churaavut = serves; pleases. Gaayee = cow; senses. Pause. Jul Kee Muchhlee = fish which can survive only in water (soul, which can flourish in spirituality in Waheguru's Naam-water only). Turvur(i) = with the tree (world). Biyaayeee = got married; got busy in. Kootra = a small puppy (a representation of patience). Bilaayee = cat (represents the appetite of desires). 2. Baiynsaan = branches (worldly attractions). Oopur = above; pushed out. Soola = the root (Waheguru). Payd(i) = to such a tree. Ful, Phoola = off-springs. 3. Ghoraiy = on the horse (of mind). Bhaiyns = buffalo (represents docility). Churaavun = grazing (to enjoy sensual pleasures). Baiyl = ox (represents patience). Goan(i) = the load of ignoble deeds. Ghur(i) Aayee = occupied the mind. 4. Pud = (spiritual) state. Boojhaiy = understands. Ram Rumut = remembering God. 5.

MEANING: At the time of birth, being a part of Waheguru's Soul, the human soul is also pure, but soon after, Maya begins to influence him (and the body begins to enjoy Maya's attractions) as a result of which the soul-guru (mind) becomes a disciple of its own desires. 1. At that point, a strange thing happens; the soul, which was like a king before, (becomes slave to its senses), and begins to serve them. Pause.

Like a fish, which is not exposed to the world outside the water, the human soul, which was not exposed to the outside world at the time of birth, gets married to (gets busy in) the worldly affairs, and its patience is taken away by the discontented cat of desires. 2. The human soul climbs on the tree of worldly affairs (Maya) in such a way that its branches, in the form of attractions, become its objective, and it gets higher and higher (farther and farther away) from its basis – Waheguru. This tree of worldly attractions produces similar attractions in subsequent generations. 3. With time, the docile nature of the mind becomes aggressive with the appetite of desires; and overpowered by desires, the buffalo-like soul now rides (controls) the horse-like mind to satisfy its appetite, with the result that the ox of patience has been pushed out and the load of ignoble deeds has been left on the mind. 4. Kabir says that by reciting Waheguru's Naam, a devotee understands this sad spiritual state of the soul, and gets the wisdom (to purify it). 5.9.22.

(PAGE 482): Jeevnaiy kee aas kureh(i), Jum nihaaraiy saasa. Baajiguree sunsaar(u) Kabira, chayt(i) dhaal(i) paasa. 3.1.23.

Word Meaning: Tipuday = having three stanzas. Dotookay = verse with two sentences. Ikk tooka = verse with a single sentence. Bind(u) = zygote (a fertilized ovum). Ugun(i) Koond = womb which has a high temperature. Maas = months. Oodur(i) = belly; womb. Buhour(i) = after that (birth). 1. Praani = oh, man. Loabh(i) = greed. Ruttan Junum(u) = human life, which is precious like jewels. Poorub(i) Junum(i) = in a previous life. Kerm Bhoom = the field of deeds. Boya = sowed; seeded. Pause. Birdh(i) = old. Jhoat = hair. Tubeh(i) = then. 2. Nihaaraiy = watches carefully. Saasa = breaths. Baajiguri = the game of acrobatics. Chayt(i) = carefully. Dhaal Paasa = throw the dice; make your move. 3.

MEANING: Waheguru, who converts a zygote into full human shape, saves it in the heat of the mother's womb too. The fetus is kept in the womb for ten months, after which it is exposed to Maya at birth. 1. Why are you wasting away your jewel-like, precious human life in greed, oh man? It looks like you did not sow the seed of noble deeds (Waheguru's Naam) in the field of deeds (your mind) in your previous life. Pause. It is a natural process that a man passes into old age from his childhood (but he does not perform noble deeds and recite Waheguru's Naam), so why does he cry when the Angel of death grabs him by the hair? 2. When the Angel of Death watches his breath carefully (when death is near), the man still hopes to prolong his life. The world is a game of acrobatics (where there is a risk of losing it), so one should play it carefully, like the game of dice, oh Kabir. 3.1.23.

Word Meaning: Tun = body. Raiyni = vessel in which clothes are dyed. Poon = noble qualities. Rup(i) = to dye. Paanchoun Tut = the five noble qualities (service to mankind, contentment, compassion, faith in God; high morality). Braati = marriage party; supporters. Bhaavur(i) = marriage ceremony. Aatum = soul. Tih = His 1.

Doolhuni = bride (senses). Mungulchaara = songs of joy. Greh = house (heart). Bhutaara = husband. Pause. Naabh Kumul = Brahma (because he was born out of the lotus flower growing in the navel of Vishnu); Brahma is one of the many names used for Waheguru in Guru Granth Sahib. So, Naabh Kumul means Waheguru's memory. Baydi = a rite in Hindu marriages. Ruch Lay = set up. Oochaara = recited (the mantras). Doolhou = new husband. Us = such is. 2. Soor(i) Nur Moon(i) Jun = godly people. Kautuk = for the miracle-like ceremony. Koat(i) Taytees = the 330 million gods (a Hindu belief). Oojaana = flying machines (souls flying very high in spirituality). 3.

MEANING: Sing the songs of joy for the bride of my soul, oh my blessed senses; Waheguru has come to my heart as my husband. Pause. I have made my body the vessel to dye my mind with Waheguru's love. I have injected the five noble qualities – service to mankind, contentment, patience, compassion, and high morality - in my body-vessel to make the colour fast (deep). These noble qualities are also the members of the marriage party. Dyed in the colour of Waheguru's love, now I will go through the marriage ceremony. 1. Imbued in His love. And with His Naam in it, I have set up my heart as the stage for the ceremony of my marriage with Waheguru, wherein His Naam is being recited. I have such a great fortune that I have realized Waheguru as my husband. 2. All the 330 million gods and the holy saints with their souls flying very high in spirituality have come to watch this miracle-like marriage. The one and only omnipresent Waheguru has just married me, oh Kabir. 3.2.24.

Keht Kabir punch ko jhugra, jhugrut junum(u) guvaaya. Jhootthi Maya subh(u) jug(u) baandhiya, mein Ram rumut sookh(u) paaya. 3.3.25.

Word Meaning: Saas(u) = mother-in-law (Maya). Mothers-in-law are infamous in Indian culture for treating their daughters-in-law in a bad manner. Maya has similar effects on man; the deceptive behaviour of Maya. Sasoor = father-in-law (love for self). One serves his own body just the way a daughter-in-law serves her father-in-law. Jayth = elder; Jum (death). Sukhi Suhayli = my devotee friends. Dayvur = younger brother of the husband (women usually have affection for him because they normally support them; a spiritual supporter. Bireh(i) = in pain of separation. Juroun Ray = suffering. 1. Bauri = unwise; insane. Rehn(i) Ruhoun = spend my life. Pause. Baap(u) = body. Saavka = born together. Kuray Luraayee = quarrels. Mutvaari = intoxicated. Budda Bhaayee = holy congregation; worshippers of Waheguru. Sung(i) = with; in the company of. Naah = Lord; Waheguru. 2. Punch = five (the demons). Jhugra = fight. Jhootthi = false; temporary. 3.

MEANING: I am very unwise that I have forgotten Waheguru's Naam, oh my friends. Now, how can I spend the rest of my life without His Naam?

Even though I suffer from the deceptive behaviour of Maya, I love my body (and do not want to die). So, I am afraid even of the name of death. I am possessed by sensual pleasures, and do not attend any holy gatherings (this staying away strikes terror of death in my mind); so, now I am suffering from the pain of separation from my spiritual friends, as I have no spiritual support. 1. My body, which was born with me, quarrels with me for food, and the effects of Maya are always intoxicating; so, I enjoy food and other luxuries of Maya (as a result which God does not love me). I also know that whenever I am in the company of holy devotees where Waheguru's praise is sung, I am loved by Him (I feel blissful). 2.

The man wastes away his precious human life fighting with the five demons. The whole world is trapped in the short-lived comforts of Maya, but I feel blissful by reciting Waheguru's Naam, oh Kabir. 3.3.25.

Toomh tuou jaachay bhooput(i) raajay, Hur(i) siyoun moar dhiyaana. 3.4.26.
Word Meaning: Tuneh(i) Taana = stretch out the warp (to weave). Kuntth(i) = neck. Janeyoo = the ritualistic thread. Gaayitri = a three-sentence sacred Hindu mantra. 1.
Jihba = tongue. Naiyn = eyes. Buvray = foolish. Mookunda = God. Pause.
Goaroo = cows. Gooaar = care taker; guide. Gosaayeen = master. Paar(i) Ootaar(i) = ferry us across the sea of Maya. Churaayiu =carried (to the other end). Khusm = master. 2.
Kaaseek = of Kashi (Banaras). Joolha = weaver. Boojhou = understand. Giyana = knowledge; wisdom. Jaachay = beg; wish for. Bhooput(i) = owner of a huge piece of land; a ruler. Moar = mine. 3.
MEANING: You wear a cotton thread (janeyoo) around your neck, and feel very proud of that (and claim to be highly religious) - albeit very falsely. (I should be considered more religious because) I am a weaver, and we weave cotton in our house every day, oh Brahman. Also, you read the Vedas and the Gayathri mantra (just to impress people), but I have Waheguru in my heart. 1. Waheguru is on my tongue, in my eyes (I see Him everywhere), and I have Him residing in my heart. So, when the Angel of Death questions you about your deeds, what will Waheguru think about you? Pause.
We are like your cows (we depend upon you for our spirituality), and you are our care taker (guide), and claim to have been our protector (guard in religious matters), but you have never fed us any spirituality to ferry us across the sea of Maya. What kind of master are you? 2.
You claim to be a resident of (educated at) Banaras, and I am an illiterate weaver living in Banaras, but listen to a word of wisdom from me; despite all of your education, you still beg at the door of the rulers and the rajahs, but I keep only Waheguru in my mind, (I beg only from Him), oh conceited Brahman. 3.4.26.

Kur(i) bichaar(u) bikaar purhur(i), turn taarun Soyay. Keh(i) Kabir Jugjeevun aiysa, dootiya naahi koyay. 3.5.27.

Word Meaning: Jug(i) = in the world. Jeevun(u) = life. Smaanun(g) = like; similar. Saach(i) Kur(i) = thinking it to be true (everlasting). Gaantth Deeni = made a strong bond. Perm Nidhaanun(g) = the supreme treasure (Waheguru). 1. Moh = Hit(u) = deep love. Hir(i) = took away; stole. Pause. Putung(u) = moth. Oorjhaiy = gets trapped. Pus(u) = animal; foolish. Kaal Phaas = noose of death. Moogudh(u) = foolish. Chaytaiy = remembers. Kunik = gold; wealth. Kaamun(i) = woman; wife. Laag(i) = attached to. 2. Bikaar = vices. Purhur(i) = push away; get rid of. Turn = boat. Taarun = to ferry. Soyay = that (Waheguru). Jugjeevun = soul of the world (God). Dootiya = other. 3.

MEANING: Life in this world is just like a dream; life and dream are similar. But we believe the world to be true (everlasting), and make a strong bond with it, completely forgetting the real Supreme Treasure (of comforts) – Waheguru. 1. We get attached to Maya, which steals our jewel of Divine Knowledge (love for God), oh, wise man. Pause. Just like the moth, which is foolish not to see the fire, and gets trapped in it (and dies), the ignorant and foolish man does not remember the noose of death, and gets deeply attached to his wealth and his wife. 2. Getting rid of all your vices, come to realize that the real ship to ferry you across the sea of Maya is Waheguru, oh man. Serb bhoot aikay kur(i) jaaniya, chookay baad bibaada. Keh(i) Kabir, mein Poora paaya, bhuyay Ram persaada. 3.6.28.

Word Meaning: Juou = if. Roop = (different life) forms; reincarnations. Buhoutayray = many. Phoon(i) = again. Taaga = thread (of worldly attachments). Tunt(u) = wire. Saaj(u) = musical instrument; expensive developments and decorations. Thaaka = exhausted; lost complete interest. Bus(i) = in control. 1. Naachno = dance (to the tune of Maya). Mundariya = a small drum. Pause. Kaam = lust. Jaari = burned; got rid of. Trishna = appetite for desires. Gaagur(i) = a big vessel (used to fetch water). Phooti = broke. Cholna = the robe; the urge. Poorana = wore out. Bherm(u) = misgiving. Chhooti = became free. 2. Bhoot = living beings. Chookay = ended. Baad Bibaada = aggressive arguments and disagreements. Poora = the perfect (God). Persaada = kindness. 3.

MEANING: I have forgotten (quit) dancing to the tune of Maya now, and my mind does not beat the drum to glorify Maya anymore. Pause. I had gone through many different life forms (taken births many times before), but now, I will not take any birth again. The reason for this is that the thread and the wire of my attachment to the world have exhausted (become extremely weak; i.e., I have lost complete interest in worldly attractions). I have also stopped playing Maya's music (love for my expensive belongings and decorations), and now I am under the full control of Waheguru's Naam (I accept His Will completely). 1.
I have burned my lust, rage, and my love for Maya, and the vessel of my desires has broken. The urge of my lust has worn out, my misgivings have been cleared, and I have broken all connections with the worldly attractions. 2. I have realized that Waheguru is present uniformly in all human beings, as a result of which, all my aggressive arguments and disagreements have disappeared. With the benevolence of the Guru, I have realized the Perfect Waheguru, oh Kabir. 3.6.28.

Allhou gaiyb(u) sugul ghut bheetur(i) hirdaiy layhou beechaari. Hindu Turk doohoon meh(i) Aikaiy, kuhaiy Kabir pookaari. 3.7.29.

Word Meaning: Roaja = fasting during the month of Ramzan. Munaavaiy = pleases. Sooaadit(i) = for the taste. Sunghaaraiy = kills. Aapa = self. Daykh(i) = looks after. Uver = others. Daykhaiy = realize; recognize. Jhukh Maaray = useless and foolish acts. 1. Sahib(u) = Lord. Khubur(i) Na Kureh(i) = does not understand. Deen Kay Bauray = blinded by religious beliefs. Alaykhaiy = not recognized; worthless. Pause. Saach(u) = God. Kutayb = western religious books (Quran, Bible, Torah, etc.) Naar(i) = female. Purakh(u) = male. Gooneh = use; worth. Bauray = unwise. 2. Gaiyb(u) = hidden. Ghut = heart. Bheetur(i) = inside. Pookaari = says aloud. 3.

MEANING: You do not think and realize that there is only one Lord of the universe, who is present in you as well, oh qazi. Blinded by the faith in your own religion, you do not realize the fact that the same Allah is present (in non-Muslims too); because of this ignorance, your life is going to waste. Pause. You do undertake ritualistic fasting in the month of Ramzan, and kill an animal in the name of sacrifice to please Allah, but actually, you do it for your own taste (enjoyment). You look after your own interests but not those of others. So, all your acts are foolish and meaningless (in the eyes of Allah). Your religious books also praise Allah, which is the Lord of all men and women alike (but you discriminate against women). There is no use in just reading religious books if you do not understand them (or follow them diligently). 2. You must realize the fact clearly that Allah is present hidden in every heart – whether they are Hindus or Muslims – says Kabir aloud. 3.7.29.

Word Meaning: Shingaar(u) = adornments. Jugjeevun Gosaayeen = God. 1. Pir(u) = dear; husband. Huoun = I. Buhouriya = wife (devout devotee). Tunik = small. Luhouriya = (ignorant) girl. Pause. Dhun = wife. Busayra = dwelling. Sayj = bed. Paiy = but. Doohayra = difficult. 2. Dhunn(i) = fortunate. Soohaagun(i) = married. Pea = dear; husband. 3.

MEANING: People adorn themselves with religious symbols (like janeyoo, anointment on the forehead, and a rosary around the neck, etc.), but still cannot realize Waheguru (because He is not pleased with such hypocrisy). 1. (I serve Waheguru as a wife does for her husband); Waheguru is my husband, and I am His wife. Waheguru is great (perfectly wise) and unlimited in size, whereas I am ignorant and very small. Pause.

The wife (soul) and the husband (Waheguru) dwell at the same place (in the human heart). They share the same bed (human heart), but their union is extremely difficult. 2.

That human bride is considered to be really married and very fortunate who is liked (loved) by her husband (Waheguru). Such a bride is never reborn, oh Kabir. 3.8.30.

Goopta Heera pergut bhuyyo, jub Gur gum deeya dikhaayee. 2.1.31.

Word Meaning: Heeraiy = with the Diamond(u) (Waheguru). Heera = diamond (man with a pure mind). Baydh(i) = pierced (with love). Puvun Mun = wind-like mind. Sehjay = in the peaceful state. Smaayee = focused. Jot(i) = every living being. 1. Kutha = discussion; praise. Anaahud Bani = Divine Words. Hunse(u) = pure soul. Heera = Waheguru. Pause. Us = such. Smaayee = present. Goopta = hidden. Pergut Bhuyyo = became visible; appeared (in the heart). Gum = who has access to (Waheguru). 2.

MEANING: When the purified mind of a devotee is pierced with Waheguru's love, his wind-like (fickle) mind (which wanders constantly), becomes peaceful, and stays in the blissful state (above the effects of Maya). With Satguru's Advice, I have come to realize that Waheguru has pierced every living being (His light is present in everyone). 1.

Praise of Waheguru is the Divine Knowledge (imparted by Satguru) with which a man becomes a swan (a devotee with a purified mind), and he recognizes the Waheguru-Diamond (gets connected to Him). Pause. I have seen such a Diamond (Waheguru), which is hidden throughout the world. However, He becomes visible (appears in the heart) when the Guru, who has access to Waheguru, reveals Him, oh Kabir. 2.1.31.

Word Meaning: Pehli = the former (thinking; nature). Kroop(i) = ugly. Koojaat(i) = low caste (ignoble). Koolukhni = with bad qualities. Sauhraiy = in-laws' house; the next world. Payiyaiy = parents' house; present world. Ub Kee = the present one. Sroop(i) = beautiful. Soojaan(i) = wise. Soolukhni = noble; virtuous. Sehjay = in the blissful state. Oodur = heart. Dhuree = placed; stored; acquired. 1. Bhulee Surie = good, that it happened. Buree = wife (thinking). Joog, Joog Jeevhou = long live. Ub Kee Dhuie = acquired recently. Pause. Lauhouri = young woman (new thinking). Buddi = older; former. Soohaag = husband. Turiyo = avoided; lost. Jaytthee = the older; former. Aur = somewhere else. 2.

MEANING: It is great for me that the wife (thinking) whom I had married (acquired) before, has died (has left me). May my presently acquired noble wisdom live long. Pause. My former wife (original thinking or nature) was ugly (repulsive), of low caste (low thinking), full of ignoble qualities, and was bad for me in both the worlds - the present, and the next. But the one whom I have married (acquired in my heart) now is beautiful, wise, and is loaded with virtues. 1. With the arrival of my new thinking, the former has lost her husband (has left me). The new noble thinking is with me now, while the older has gone somewhere else, oh Kabir. 2.2.32.

Word Meaning: Bauhouriya = wife (thinking). Dhuniya = Maya-loving. Ram Juniya = slave of God. 1. Moondiun = holy men; devotee friends. Ghur(u) = heart. Dhoondhraava = muddled; made foggy. Bitveh(i) = son; mind. Ram Rumuooaa = in the worship of Waheuru. Pause. Jaat(i) = character; nature. Guvaayee = changed. 2.

MEANING: My original thinking was slave of money (money-loving), but now it has been given a new name (has become) - a slave (devotee) of Waheguru. 1.
My new devotee friends made my mind foggy (indecisive) for a while with their new thinking. (But now everything has become clear) And my mind is now worshiping Waheguru. Pause. Kabir says that these devotee-friends of mine have completely changed my nature, oh my mother. 2.3.33.

Hur(i) goon gaavut junum(u) buteetaiy. 4.1.34.

Word Meaning: Ruhou = stay; wait. Bauhouriya = new bride (devotee). Ghoonghut(u) = veil (cover face from Waheguru). Jin(i) = lest; watch out. Aadhaiy = a very small coin (price; reward). Pause. Aagaiy = before. Gaiyl(u) = company; effect. habit; to copy. 1. Budaayee = credit; recognition. Buhoo = wife; daughter-in-law. Bhulay = nice. 2. Saaachaiy = real. Koodeh(i) Ur(u) Naachaiy = (the mind may) jump and dance (zestfully in love for Waheguru). 3. Jeetaiy = wins (the battle of life). Buteetaiy = is spent. 4.

NOTE: Until 30-40 years ago, married women used to cover their faces with a veil in front of their older in-laws and strangers. This was considered a sign of respect for the elders and an act of grace (shyness) on the part of the women. In Sri Guru Granth Sahib, Waheguru is considered to be the real husband (Lord). In this holy Shabad, Kabir Sahib is advising the young people not to shy away from (avoid) Waheguru, who is their husband (not an elder in-law).

MEANING: Wait, wait, oh young marriageable girl lest you should use a veil (for Waheguru) (avoid Him). In that case, rather than earning the respect of the in-laws (Waheguru), you will have almost no spiritual worth at the time of death (in Waheguru's Court). Pause.

Most people used a veil (for Waheguru) before you; I do not want you to join their company and acquire their bad habit (copy them). 1. Yes, those brides who shun Waheguru (and get attached to Maya and serve their in-laws' family well) do get some praise for a few days, that the new bride is very worldly-wise. 2. But your veil will be real if, in addition to respecting and serving your in-laws, your mind also jumps and dances zestfully in love with God. 3. That bride wins the game of life who spends her life singing praise of Waheguru, oh Kabir. 4.1.34.

Ub toomri purteet na hoyee. 4.2.35.

Word Meaning: Kurvut(u) = a saw (there was a special saw in Banaras where some devotees, blind in their faith, used to get their bodies sawed to please their god. Even today, some people throw them in front of a chariot loaded with devotees of Krishna Ji to be trampled over. Kervut = turning face away; show indifference. 1. Vaari = sacrifice my life. Kahay Kuou = what for. Maaray = kill; punish. Pause. Cheereh(i) = slash. Moaroun = pull away. Pind(u) Puraiy = body collapses. 2. Beech(u) = in the middle. Kunt = husband. Naar(i) = woman; wife. 3. Loyee = oh world. Perteet = trust. 4.

MEANING: I would rather have my body sawed off than Your indifference towards me, oh Waheguru. Please listen to my request while hugging me. 1. I will sacrifice my life for You if You turn Your face towards me (love me), oh my Dear. Why are you killing (punishing) me by turning Your face away? Pause. If You slash my body, I will not pull it away, and I will not terminate my love for You even if my body collapses. 2. There is nothing between us separating You from me. You are my husband (Lord), and I am Your wife (a devout slave). 3. Now, I am left with no faith in glamorous worldly attractions (I will not be deceived by them), oh Kabir. 4.2.35.

Sootaiy, soot milaayay Kori. 4.3.36.

Word Meaning: Kori = a Hindu weaver. Merm(u) = secret. Aan(i) = by bringing in (by creating). Tunaayiou Taana = stretched the warp. Pause. Itnuk(u) = that much (a small size). Pusriyo = stretched. 1. Dhurn(i) = earth. Kurgeh = wooden stakes (and rods on the top) around which the warp is stretched. Saath = pipes through which the thread of the weft is passed to weave. 2. Paayee = the two pedals which are depressed in turn by feet to lower and raise the warp. Baat Ikk Keeni = created the drama of the world. Taanti = weaver. Mun Maana = got convinced. Ghur(i) = Ghut = mind. Cheena = analyzed. 3. Kargeh = working shop; the arrangement (the weaving mechanism). Sootaiy Soot Milaayay = merges threads with the Thread (absorbs the world in Him). 4.

MEANING: Nobody knows the secrets of a weaver (that is how he feels). By the time you folks listen to the Vedas and the Puranas, I stretch out this much (a small amount of warp) (an honest labour). People do not realize that Waheguru is also a kind of weaver who has created the whole world in the form of a stretched warp. 1 & Pause.

Ground, and some support above it, are needed for weaving. Waheguru uses the earth and the sky as the ground and the top support. Just as the weaver uses two tubes to move (pass) the weft thread, the moon and the sun move the thread of life (time). 2.

And just as the weaver uses the two foot-pedals to lower, or to raise the warp, the weaver Waheguru uses life and death to raise or to lower (cut) life. Noting this similarity, the mind of this weaver got convinced of the supremacy of Waheguru, and when I searched my own mind, I recognized (found) Him in my heart. 3. When Waheguru collapses this workshop, the whole world is absorbed in Him, oh Kabir. 4.3.36.

Word Meaning: Maiyl (filth of deception). Baiykoontth = paradise. Loak = world. Puteenaiy = please; convince. Ayaana = a child; ignorant. 1. Dayva = god; deity. Saacha = real; acceptable to Waheguru. Pause. Mujun = bathe. Gut(i) = high spiritual state; emancipation. Maynduk = frogs. Oye Nur = that man. 2. Munhoun Kutthoar(u) = stone-hearted; merciless. Banaras is believed to be the city of Shiva, and it is said that whoever dies there goes to Paradise. Nerk = hell. Baachiya = escape. Hurrumba = a city situated on badlands, and is believed to belong to Ganesh (Shiva's son). It is further believed that the city has been condemned, and whoever dies in Hurrumba, is reborn as a donkey. Kabir Sahib was born in Banaras and lived there for most of his life, but moved to Hurrumba in his last days. Suglee Saiyn = the whole army (of his associates). 3. Nirunkaara = formless Waheguru. Baavuriya = foolish; ignorant. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is the only deity to worship, and service to the Guru (obeying His Advice) is the real bath at holy places. Pause. A man who has the filth of deception will never go to Paradise, even if he takes dips in many holy places. One does not gain anything in terms of spirituality by impressing people by his cleverness because Waheguru is not a child (ignorant). 1. If salvation could be achieved by taking dips in water, then a frog should also get salvation because it bathes in water all the time. The dip of the deceptive person in holy waters is just like that of a frog, and he continues to be born again, and again. 2.

Totally contrary to the myth, if a stone-hearted person dies in Banaras, he cannot escape hell. On the other hand, if a true devotee of Waheguru dies in Hurrumba, not only the devotee but also all his associates are salvaged. 3.

The formless Waheguru resides where day and night have no effect at all, and He is above all the Vedas and the Puranas – they cannot reach Him. So, worship Him alone, oh the foolish people, advises Kabir. 4.4.37.

Word Meaning: Aik = One (Waheguru). Anayk = countless. Biyaapuk Pooruk = omnipresent. Jut = where. Tut = there. Soyee = the same (Waheguru). Chittat Buchittar = in different forms and colours. Bimohut(i) = captivates. Birla = rare. 1.
Gobind(u) = Waheguru. Soot = thread. Mun(i) = beads. Sut = hundreds. Sehuns = thousands. Oat(i) Poat(i) = the cross threads of a fabric; warp and weft. Pause.
Trung = wave. Ur(u) = and. Phayn = foam. Boodbooda = bubbles. Bhinn = different. Perpunch(u) = the visible world. Leela = drama. Bichrut = lives; roams around. Aan = other. Koyee = else. 2. Mithiya = false. Bherm(u) = misgiving. Soopun = dream. Munoruth = objective. Sat(i) = real; everlasting. Pdaaruth = matter; articles. Sookirt = noble deeds; honest earnings. Munsa = wishes and desires. Jaagut = awakening (enlightenment) of the mind. Mun(u) Maaniya = mind was won over (convinced). 3.
Ruchna = creation. Niruntar(i) = continuous. Mooraari = Waheguru. 4.

MEANING: The sole Supreme Being is present everywhere in countless forms; wherever I look, I see Him there, but some rare devotee understands (experiences) that. Otherwise, Maya (which is created by Him), is captivating the whole world in many different forms and colours. 1. It is Waheguru, and Waheguru alone, that is present in everybody, and there is nobody without (outside) Him. Just as a thread connects hundreds of thousands of beads, Waheguru binds everyone like the cross threads (warp and weft) in fabric. Pause. Just like a wave, or a bubble of water-foam on the surface of water, is not different from the water, this whole creation (visible world) is a drama of Waheguru alone, and there is nobody else between Him and the world (His creation is not different from Him). 2. The whole world, which is really false (short-lived), and is like achieving some objective in a dream, is believed to be real (everlasting) by the man. But it is only after the Guru reveals that the man's real wish should be to perform noble deeds and to earn honestly, so that his mind is enlightened. 3. If the man really thought deeply, he would realize that the whole world is Waheguru's creation, and only He is present in every heart and everywhere, oh Namdeo. 4.1.

Assa: Aaneelay koombh, bhuraayilay ooduk, Tthaakur kuou ishnaan kuroun. Buyaalees lukh jea jul meh(i) hoatay, Beetthul(u) bhaiyla kaayay kuroun. 1. Jutur jaaoun, tut Beetthul bhaiyla. Muha anund kuray sud kayla. 1. Ruhaou. Aaneelay phool proyilay maala, Tthaakur kee huoun pooj kuroun. Pehlay baas(u) luyee haiy bhuvreh, Beetthul bhaiyla kaayay kuroun. 2. Aaneelay doodh ridhaayaylay kheerun(g), Tthaakur kuou naiyvayd(u) kuroun. Pehlay

Word Meaning: Aaneelay = brought. Koombh = container. Ooduk = water. Buyaalees Lukh = 4.2 million. Beetthul = Lord; God. Bhaiyla = mixed; present. Kaayay Kuroun = what can you do. 1. Jutur = where. Anund = blissful. Kayla = detached. Pause. Proyilay = to thread. Maala = necklace. Pooj = (ritualistic) worship. Baas = smell. Bhuvreh = bumblebee. 2. Ridhaayaylay = cook; prepare. Kheerun(g) = rice pudding. Naiyvayd = offering of food items to the idol. Bitaariyo = made impure. Buchhraiy = the calf. 3. Eebhaiy = here. Oobhaiy = there. Sunsaar(u) = world. Thanuntar = in distant places. Pernvaiy = requests; submits. Serb = whole. Muhee = Earth; world. 4.

MEANING: (Waheguru is present everywhere and in everybody, so the ritualistic worship of any kind of idols is meaningless). No matter where I go, I find Waheguru (God) present everywhere. Detached from the world, He is enjoying blissfully. Pause. Most devotees take a vessel to bring water from some source (a river, a pool, or a well), to bathe the idol. But, 4.2 million kinds of living beings are believed to be present in water, and Waheguru is present in each of them. Being present in them, Waheguru is always bathing in waters. So, what favour do the devotees do to Him? 1. The devotees bring flowers, make a necklace, and perform ritualistic worship of the idol; but before the flowers are offered to the idol, the bumblebee, which has Waheguru present in it, has already smelt them. So, what new (pure) is offered to Waheguru (the idol)? 2. The devotees milk cows and use the milk to cook rice pudding to offer to the idol, but Waheguru had already drunk the milk through the calf (and made it impure). So, what is new offered to the idol? 3. Waheguru is present here and there, and nothing in the world is without Him. He is present even in the distant places, and fills the whole universe completely, oh Kabir. 4.2.

Naamay ka chit(u) Hur(i) siyoun laaga. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Guj = a yard; measuring tape. Jihva = tongue. Kaati = scissors. Mup(i), Mup(i) = by measuring. Jum Kee Phaasi = the noose of death. 1. Jaati = caste. Paati = clan. Pause. Raangun(i) = in the colour (love of). Seevun(i) = seam. Seevoun = I sew. 2. Aatth Pehr = twenty-four hours; all the time. Khusm(u) = Lord (Waheguru). 3. Soyinay Kee Sooyee = needle of gold = purified concentration. Roopay Ka Dhaaga = thread of silver = Waheguru's Naam. Chit(u) = mind. 4.

MEANING: My (low) caste or clan are no impediment to my worship of Waheguru. I recite His Naam day and night. Pause. My (pure) mind is serving as the measuring tape, and my tongue (which recites Waheguru's Naam) is serving as scissors to measure and cut the noose of (spiritual) death. 1. I am dyeing my mind in Waheguru's love, and stitching it to create a seam with Waheguru (connecting with Him). Now, I cannot live without His Naam even for a short moment. 2. I worship my Lord, recite His Naam, and sing His praise all twenty-four hours. 3. I am stitching my mind with Waheguru using my purified concentration as the needle, and His Naam as the thread, oh Naama (Naam Dev). 4.3.

Word Meaning: Saap = snake. Koonch = dried cast skin (slough). Bikh(u) = poison. Ooduk = water. Bug(u) = Buglaa = heron. Maanday = focus; with determination. 1. Jupunna = for recitation. Soodh(u) = clean; pure. Pause. Singhuch = forcibly snatched (like a lion); robbed. Jaanaiy = knows. Tthug Dayo = the god of the deceitful. Bukhaanaiy = is called. 2. Laahilay = removed; clarified. Jhugra = dispute; confusion. Rasaayin = the source of all juices (enjoyments). Dugra = stone-hearted. 3.
MEANING: The snake does shed its slough, but its poisonous nature does not change. Similarly, the looks of a heron are very deceptive when it is focusing its attention on water. He looks very innocent and like a pretty white bird, but his attention is focused on catching fish. 1. A man who has deceit in mind but meditates on God is very much like the snake or the heron. So, what does he achieve by such meditation? Pause. A man who knows only to earn his living by robbing or deceiving others is the god (leader) of all the deceitful. 2. My lord has cleared all my confusion (about Maya and about moral and immoral deeds). So, drink the Amrit of Lord's Naam, which is the source of all the juices (enjoyments), oh, the stone-hearted Naam Dev. 3.4.

Word Meaning: J(i) = whoever. Cheensi = recognizes; makes a connection with. Tay = that (man). Tay = him. Bhaavsi = like. Chaytilay = remember. Achint = free from all worries. 1. Chheepa = washerman. Daiyla = was given. Bhaiyla = happened; received. Bhaytula = got connected. 2.
MEANING: This world-sea is an attractive forest of poisonous Maya. The man forgets Waheguru on seeing the deceptive attractions of Maya (which are short-lived). So, how will you swim across this sea of Maya (the world-sea), oh man. Pause.
But a person who recognizes (makes a connection with) God does not like building hopes (he believes in the Will of Waheguru). So, remember worshipping Waheguru so as to be worry-free, oh man. 1. Even though I was born in a low-caste washerman's family,

I was fortunate to receive Guru's Advice. I got connected with Waheguru with the grace of the holy saints, oh Nama. 2.5.

Mirg, meen, bhring, putung, koonchar, aik doakh binaas. Punch doakh asaadh ja meh(i), ta kee kaytuk aas. 1. Madho, abidhiya hit keen. Bibayk deep muleen. 1. Ruhaou. Trigud joan(i) acahyt, sumbhuv poonn(u) paap asoach. Manookha avtar doolubh, tihee sungut(i) poach. 2. Jea, junt, juhaa, juhaa lug(u) kerm kay bus(i) jaayay. Kaal phaas abudh laagay, kuchh(u) na chullay oopaayay. 3. Ravidass, daas, odaas, tuj(u) bherm(u), tupun, tup(u) Gur Giyan. Bhugut jun bhaiy-hern, Permanund kurou nidaan. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Mirg = deer. Mean = fish. Bhring = bumbe bee. Putung = moth. Koonchar = elephant. Doakh = vice; bad habit. Punch = five. Asaadh = incurable. Kaytuk = how much. 1. Madho = Waheguru. Abidiya = lack of knowledge (ignorance); darkness of mind. Hit = love. Bibayk Deep = the lamp of Divine light. Muleen = dirty; Pause. Trigud Joan(i) = lower animals (like worms and creepers). Achayt = unmindful. Sumbhuv = possible. Asoach = cannot think. Doolub = rare; very difficult to achieve. Sungut(i) = company. Poach = ignoble. 2. Jea Junt = living beings. Bus(i) = in the control of. Jaayay = after taking birth. Kaal Phaas = noose of death. Abudh = indestructible. Oopaayay = cure; measure. 3. Oadaas = detached from Maya. Tuj = give up. Bherm(i) = misgivings. Tupun Tup = the best worship of all. Bhaiy-Hern = destroyer of all fears. Permanund = supreme bliss. Nidaan = at the end. 4.1.

MEANING: The deer (loves music), the fish (is greedy for the bait), the bumblebee (enjoys the sap of the flowers), the moth (loves light and fire), and the elephant (is overpowered by lust), each has only one vice (bad habit), and still suffers badly (including death) as a result. So, what can the man expect who has not just one, but five major incurable evils (lust, rage, worldly attachments, greed, and ego)? 1. The man loves ignorance as a result of which his lamp of Divine Knowledge has become foggy (he cannot tell the good from the bad), oh Waheguru. Pause. The lower animals are unmindful, and possibly cannot think about noble and ignoble deeds; but the sad thing is that the man in human life, who is intelligent and very difficult to receive, also keeps company with vices. 2.

After taking birth, all living beings, wherever they are, continue to perform the types of deeds which are predestined for them based on their previous lives. As a result, the noose of (spiritual) death becomes indestructible, and no measure can cut that. 3.

Abandon all your love for worldly attractions and all your misgivings, and take Guru's Advice, which is the best of all kinds of worship of Waheguru, oh Ravidass. Also, pray to God like this: Oh, the fear destroyer of the devotees, Waheguru, I have come to Your shelter; please be kind and grant me the supreme bliss (of Your Naam). 4.1.

Sunt Anunteh(i) untar(u) nuhee. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Toojhi = Yours. Tun(u) = body. Sungut(i) = holy company (gathering). Dayv Dayva = God of gods (Waheguru). 1. Chee = of. Kutha = story (of virtues and His grandeur). Rus(u) = juice; blissful enjoyment. Maajhaiy = at the centre; in. Pause. Aachrun = character; way of life. Maarug(u) = path. Ohlug Ohlugni = slave of slaves. 2. Chintamani(i) = a mythical jewel which is believed to fulfill all wishes (Waheguru). Junee = lest; never. Lukhaavhou = show; put in. Asunt = unholy man. Paapi = sinner. Sun(i) = including. 3. Bhunaiy = submits. Jaan(u) = wise man. Anunteh(i) = the limitless (God). 4.

MEANING: Your holy devotees are Your body, and the holy congregation is Your life, oh Waheguru. It is with Satguru's enlightenment that one comes to realize that Waheguru's holy devotees are His manifestation (Waheguru clearly resides in their heart). 1. Kindly, implant love for Your saints in my heart, and provide their company so that I may enjoy the blissfulness of Your virtues (Your praise) as narrated by them, oh Waheguru. Pause. I wish to serve the holy saints as a slave of their slaves, so as to develop a high character like theirs and follow their path (to unite with God). 2. I beg for Your worship, and one more thing, that I should never have to meet with unholy people, including the sinners, oh Waheguru. 3. I submit politely that the individual who realizes that there is no difference between the holy saints and the limitless Waheguru is truly wise, oh Ravidass. 4.2.

Raja Ram kee sayv na keeni, keh(i) Ravidass chumaara. 3.3.

Word Meaning: Irund = Arind = castor plant (it is very small in size). Baapuray = poor; small. Baasa = Nivaasa = dwelling. Neech = small. Gundh = smell. Soogundh = sweet fragrance. 1. Madho = oh Waheguru. Satsungut(i) = holy gathering. Shern(i) = in Your shelter. Aougun = bad qualities. Oopkaari = kind; doing favours to others. Pause.

Mukhtool = silk. Soopayd = white. Speeul = yellow. Jus = like. Keera = worm. Madhup = honey bees. Mukheera = honeycomb. 2. Jaati = caste. Oachha = low level. Paati = clan. Raja Ram = Waheguru. Chumaara = cobbler. 3. 3.

MEANING: I am full of ignoble qualities, and You are always kind and do favours to the needy, oh Waheguru. I have come to Your shelter with the request that I should always be in the company of the holy saints where Your praise is sung. Pause. You are like a huge sandal tree, whereas I am like a small (insignificant) plant. But I am lucky to be close to You, oh Waheguru. Because of Your closeness, I, too, have become a big tree from a small plant, and Your sweet fragrance has masked my bad smell (I have also acquired some noble qualities like You). 1. You are like white and yellow soft silk, whereas I am poor (humble) like a worm. Please keep me attracted to the company of holy saints, as honey bees are attracted to the honeycomb. 2.

I belong to a low caste and a low clan; in fact, I am low (with not-so-good deeds) in my life too, because I have not served the Royal Waheguru, oh Ravidass. 3.3.

Word Meaning: Kuhaa Bhuyyio = so what? Chhin(u) Chhin(u) = cut into small pieces. Tuou = only then. Derpaiy = is afraid (concerned). 1. Urbind = lotus flower. Bhuvun = palace; shelter. Paan Kert = while drinking (Naam-Amrit). Ramuyya = Omnipresent (Waheguru). Pause. Sumput(i) = wealth. Biput(i) = trouble; suffering. Putul = curtain; wall. Mugun = rapt; engrossed. Jun(u) = slave; devotee. 2. Javri = chain; bond. Chhootibo = get free. Goon = means. 3.4.

MEANING: So, what (I do not care) if my body is cut into small pieces; I am only afraid (concerned) lest I should lose my love for You, oh Waheguru. 1. Your lotus-like soft (holy) Feet are (Your Naam is) the home for my heart. While drinking Your Naam-Amrit, I have acquired You as my wealth, oh Waheguru. Pause. The Maya as wealth, is a wall between You and me, and a source of suffering. I, as Your slave, should not get engrossed in that wealth. 2. I am bonded with You with the chain of love; what means will You use now to free Yourself (from the bond of my love), asks Ravidass. (The bond of love between the devotee and Waheguru is the strongest and cannot be broken). 3.4.

Word Meaning: Simrut = remembering; reciting His Naam. Nistur(i) Turay = found complete salvation. Pause. Oojaagur = became well known. Kaagur = papers (of the account of one's deeds). 1. Nimut = for (that cause). Sunkut = trouble. 2.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is such that many devotees have found complete salvation by reciting it. Pause. It is because of Waheguru's Naam that Kabir became well known in the world, and all the papers of the accounts of his previous deeds were destroyed. 1. It was because of the offering of milk to Waheguru that Naam Dev found salvation and never suffered the pain of rebirth again. 2.
With Guru's grace, I am also a devotee of Waheguru, and am fully imbued in His love; and now, I will not go to hell (take birth again), oh Ravidass. 3.5.
NOTE: Please read the book "Guliyaiyn Chikkurr Door(i) Ghur" authored by Dr D.S. Sekhon to learn the kind of Milk that Naam Dev Ji offered to Waheguru, and how it was offered.

Word Meaning: Pootra = puppet. Nuchut Haiy = dances. Pause. Gerb(u) Kert Haiy = feels conceited. 1. Buch = Buchun = words. Kerm = deeds. Rus Kuseh(i) = enjoy tastes of different types. Binus(i) Guyya = got destroyed; died. Kuhoon Smaana = where disappeared. 2. Baaji = acrobatics; drama. Baajigur = acrobat (Waheguru). 3.
MEANING: It is amazing to see how the man, who is only a puppet of mud, dances at the hands of Maya. He sees, he listens, and keeps running around (to acquire more and more wealth). Pause. He gets conceited when he achieves something, but begins to cry when he loses wealth. 1. He is captivated by different tastes of Maya, and enjoys them in his mind, by his words (praising it), and by his deeds. But nobody knows where he disappears after death (no connection is left with this world, which he was enjoying). 2. The world is like a circus (where amazing acrobatic acts are performed). I have fallen in love with the acrobat - Waheguru, oh Ravidass. 3.6.

NOTE: Bhagat Dhanna Ji was born in Dhuan Kalan, Rajasthan, in 1415, to a Hindu Jatt Dhaliwal family. He was an idol worshipper, but hearing about his contemporary Bhagats, like Kabir Ji, and Ravidass Ji, he quit idol worship and went to Banaras to meet with the above well-known Bhagats. There, he met with Rama Nand Ji, who guided him to the Path of Waheguru worship. He must have met with Kabir Sahib and Ravidass Ji too. Soon, Dhanna Ji realized Waheguru with his childlike, pure mind, and with his love and dedication for Waheguru, with which he recited His Naam, began to be considered a great bhagat along with Kabir Sahib and Ravidass Ji. Even though Dhanna Ji had quit idol worship, the idol-worshipping Brahmans did not relish the fact that Dhanna Ji had realized Waheguru by reciting His Naam. They wanted Dhanna Ji to be popular for idol worship, and not for being a devotee of Waheguru, so they began to spread false stories about him, claiming that he realized God by idol worship. There are three Shabads of Dhanna Ji in Sri Guru Granth Sahib in which he contradicts the false stories about him and clearly explains that he realized Waheguru through the grace of holy saints like Rama Nand Ji and Kabir Sahib, not through idol worship.

Guru Arjun Dev Ji has also refuted the claim of the Brahmans that Dhanna Ji realized Waheguru by idol worship, and has supported Dhanna Ji's claim, and gave reasons for that in the next holy Shabad.

Word Meaning: Bhermut Phirt = going through (different life forms). Bilaanay = spent. Dheeray = find peace. Laaluch = greed. Bikh(u) = Maya. Kaam = lust. Loobudh = captivated by. Raata = imbued. Bisray = forgotten. Heeray = diamond-like. Pause.
Ful = fruit. Bauray = crazy. Chaar = beautiful; noble. Goon = virtues Tay = rather than. Un Bhaanti = Different kinds. Taaniya = weaves the web. 1.
Joogut(i) = technique (noble way). Nivaasi = embedded. Julut = burning in desires. Jum = Angel of death. Sunch(i) = by accumulating. Perm Purakh = God. 2.
Pervaysh(u) = entrance (In mind). Dhiyan = focus of mind. Maan(u) = with dedication. Muyyay = one form. Maani = accepted. Triput Aghaanaiy = complete contentment. Mookut(i) = salvation. 3. Joat = soul. Ja Kaiy = in that (Waheguru). Achhulee = indeceivable. Dhernidhur = the support of the world (Waheguru). 4.
MEANING: The man spends many lives in many different forms because he is not content with his body, his mind, or his wealth. Captivated by attractive Maya, he is imbued with greed, lust, and rage, and forgets diamond-like Waheguru. Pause. The insane man finds the fruit of sensual pleasures to be sweet, and does not think about noble deeds. Rather than having virtuous qualities (singing Waheguru's praise), he develops love for other worldly things, and weaves his own net for rebirths. 1. He does not give room to the path of righteousness in his mind, as a result of which he burns in the fire of desires, and the net of death is cast around him. He accumulates and fills his mind with the fruit of (sweet-tasting) vices in such a way that the Supreme Soul, Waheguru, is forgotten. 2.

The Guru gives the wealth of the Divine Knowledge for admission to Waheguru's Residence (connects with Him) as a result of which the devotee's focus of mind and his dedication (faith in Waheguru) cause him to be "one" with Waheguru. His worship of Waheguru with love is recognized; as a result, he gets fully contented, enjoys blissfulness, and is salvaged. 3.
He realizes the indeceivable Waheguru, and his soul merges into His. In the company of the holy saints (and NOT by idol worship), I have also realized the wealth of union with Waheguru, oh Dhanna. 4.1.

(PAGE 488): Eh bidh(i) soon kaiy jaatro, ootth(i) bhugti laaga. Milay pertukh(i) Gosaayiyaan, Dhunna vudbhaaga. 4.2.
Word Meaning: Sung(i) = with; in the company of. Leena = fully absorbed. Aadh Daam = a very small amount of money. Chheepro = washer man. Laakheena = worth hundreds of thousands. Pause. Boon-na Tun-na = weaving. Tiyaag Kaiy = by giving up. Neech-koola = low caste. Jolaahra = weaver. Gooni Guheera = treasures of virtues. 1. Dhovunta = hauled. Dhoar = (dead) cattle. Neet = every day. Pergut(u) = became famous. Dershun = glimpse. 2. Naayee = barbar. Bootkaariya = who does errands for others without any compensation. Guniya = considered; respected 3. Bidh(i) = these examples. Jaatro = humble Jatt (farmer). Ootth(i) = got motivated. Pertukh(i) = visibly. Gosaayiyaan = Waheguru. Vudbhaaga = lucky. 4.
MEANING: When Dhanna Ji heard the following stories about the well-known Bhagats, he began to worship Waheguru.
Because of his full absorption in Waheguru's Naam, bhagat Naamdeo, who was a washerman by profession, and was worth only a penny (in the eyes of the masses), became very famous (and worthy of hundreds of thousands of rupees). Pause.
When Kabir Sahib quit weaving and fell in love with the holy Feet (of Waheguru), the low-caste weaver became well-known all over as the treasure of virtues. 1.
When Ravidass Ji, who was a cobbler and used to haul the dead cattle (for their hides) every day, and had abandoned Maya, had a glimpse of Waheguru (got connected with Him) in the company of the holy saints, he became very famous in the world. 2.

Similarly, Saiyn Ji, who was a barber and used to perform errands for others without compensation, was spoken of in every household after he embedded Waheguru in his heart and was respected as a great devotee. 3.
Having heard all those stories, Dhanna Ji also got motivated and began to worship Waheguru. He was very fortunate to have realized Waheguru visibly (people noticed that from a great change in his behaviour). 4.

Word Meaning: Ray Chit = oh my mind. Chaytus(i) = remember (think of). Duyyal = kind. Damodar = a name for Waheguru. Bibeh(i) = other. Dhaaveh(i) = rushes. Brehmund Khund = a part of the universe; country-wide. Pause.
Jun-nee = who gives birth (mother). Oodur = womb. Ooduk = water (placenta). Pind(u) = body. Dus –Dooaara = having ten doors. Ahaar(u) = food. Ugun(i) = fire; heat. Raakhaiy = protects. Aiysa = such is. 1.
Koomi = turtle. Tun = offspring. Punkh = wings. Kheer = milk. Poorun = Perfect. Permanund = (source of) supreme bliss (Waheguru). Manohar = heart captivating (God). 2. Paakhun(i) = rock. Keet(u) = microbes. . Goopt(u) = hidden. Cho = from. Maarug = exit. Mut = do not. Draahi = be afraid; worry about. 3.
MEANING: Why do you not remember the kind Waheguru, oh my mind? You should not recognize any other power than Him. Even if someone rushes to different parts of the country (tries hard to earn wealth, or for some other purpose), only what the Creator wants happens. Pause. He creates the ten-doored human body in the placenta of the mother's womb, and delivers food to the fetus even there, and also protects him from the high heat in the womb. Such is my Lord! 1. (Take another example), the mother turtle lives in the sea while her offspring are out on the shore. Neither the newborn kids have wings to fly to their mother for food, nor does the mother have milk to feed them. Think about how they are fed. It is the heart-captivating Waheguru (who feeds them)! 2. Similarly, small microbes live hidden in rocks, with no exit to the outside world to find food. It is again the Perfect Lord which fulfills their needs. So, what should you be worried about, oh Dhanna? 3.3.

Word Meaning: Dilhoun = deep from the heart. Sachiya = real; true. Kaandhay = are called. Kuchiya = have faltering (deceitful) minds. 1. Ruttay = imbued. Ishuq = love. Khoodaayay = of God. Rung(i) = in love with. Deedaar = holy sight. Visriya = forgotten. Bhooyay = on the earth. Bhaar(u) = unnecessary burden. Theeyay = are; have become. Pause. Lurr laayay = adopted; provided shelter. Dervaysh = faqir; saint. Say = those. Dhunn(u) = great. Junayndi = gives birth. Sufl = successful. 2. Pervudgaar = who raises and nourishes; the provider (God). Appar = without limits. Agumm = inaccessible. Bayunt = unlimited. Puchhaata = recognized (got connected with). Moo = I. 3. Puneh(i) = shelter. Bukhshundgi = forgiving. Khaiyr(u) = alms; donation. 4.

MEANING: Only those are the true devotees who love (Waheguru) from the bottom of their heart. But those who have something different in their mind than what they say are said to have faltering (deceitful) minds. 1. The true devotees are imbued with their love for Waheguru and love (wish) to have His sight. But those who have forgotten Waheguru are only a burden (liability) on the earth. Pause. Those, whom Waheguru adopts Himself (provides His shelter), are the true holy saints at His Door. Their mothers are worthy of respect for giving birth to such devotees, and they are successful (in achieving the objective of their lives – union with God). 2. You are beyond limits, physically inaccessible, and limitless, oh, the Provider, Allah. I would love to kiss the feet of those devotees who have been connected with You. 3. You are very kind and forgiving, and I have come to Your shelter, oh Allah. Kindly give Sheikh Farid the alms (donation) of Your Warship. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Boalaiy = speaks; advises. Hoasi = will be. Khaak = dust. Nimaani = humble. Goar = grave. 1. Taakim = have control; prevent. Koonjurriyaan = desires; senses. Muchindurriyaan = instigate. Pause. Ghoomm(i) = return. Vunjaayiyaiy = cause suffering; suffer humiliation. 2.
Dherm(u) = moral obligation. Moorida = disciple. Vaat = path. Joaliyaiy = follow. 3.
Chhaiyl = brave and handsome; one who controls his desires. Lunghday Paar(i) = swim across (the sea of Maya). Gori = beautiful lady; weak-minded. Dheeriya = pick up courage. Kunchun Vunnay = shine of gold; attractive, wealthy products. Kulvut Cheeriya = are cut with a saw (punished severely). 4. Huyaati = in life (world). Thir(u) = permanently. Aasun = seat. Kaytay = many. 5. Kutik = the month from mid Oct to mid-November. Koonjaan = a bird of the goose family. Chayt = the month from mid-March to mid-April. Duou = forest fires. Saavun = the month from mid July to mid Aug. Seeyaalay = in the winter months. Sohundiyaan = look appropriate. Pir = husband. Baanhurriyaan = soft arms. 6. Chullunhaar = mortal. Vichaaraan = thoughts; wishes. Gundhaydiyaan = putting together. Maah = months. Toorrundiyaan = breaking apart; to cause death Hik Khino = single moment. 7. Jimee = earth. Khayvut = boat men; guides; experts. Kinn(i) = how many. Goaraan Naal(i) = in the graves. Olaahmay = complaints (questions) about ignoble deeds. Jea = soul. Suhay = endures. 8.

MEANING: Our (dead) body turns into dust in the grave, and suffers humiliation, oh Farid. So, start worshipping Allah, oh, my dear friends. 1. You can get connected with Allah even today if you control your senses, which are instigated by worldly desires (to commit immoral deeds). Pause. When we know that we do not return to this life after death, why should we indulge in the false worldly attractions and suffer humiliation (in Allah's Court)? 2. We should always speak the truth as our moral obligation, and never tell lies; and like a good disciple, follow the path of life as advised by the Guru. 3. When the strong-minded devotees, who have controlled their desires, swim across the world sea, the weak-minded are also encouraged to see them. On the other hand, those who are engrossed in wealth and other worldly enjoyments get their bodies sawed (are severely punished) in Waheguru's Court. 4. Nobody has lived permanently (forever) in this world, oh Shaikh Farid. Countless people have sat on the seat I am sitting on now (lived before, like me). 5. Just like the koonjes (geese), which look good in the month of Kutak (they come from the colder countries like Russia, and cannot cause much damage to the crops at that time because they are already harvested by then), and like small fires (to roast green chick peas) in the month of Chayt, and just like lightening which looks attractive in month of Saavun; and just like a wife enjoys hugging her husband in the winter months, (the devotees love to get connected with Allah). 6. The mortal man leaves this world, taking many unfulfilled desires with him. It takes six months for the fetus to mature, but only a moment for God to cause its death. 7. The earth asks the sky (they both know) how many (countless) guides (who advise people how to lead life) have left this world. The body rots in the grave while the soul is left to answer many questions about its deeds (and endure punishment), oh Farid. 8. 2.
