(PAGE 489): Tayra Naam(u) kureen chun-naatthiya, jay mun(u) oorsa hoyay. Kernee koongoo jay rulaiy, ghut untar(i) pooja hoyay. 1. Pooja keechaiy, Naam(u) dhiyaayiyaiy, bin Naavaiy pooj na hoyee. 1. Ruhaou. Baahur(i) dayv pukhaaliyeh(i) jay mun(u dhovaiy koyay. Jootth(i) luhaiy jeeo maanjiyaiy, moakh puyaana hoyay. 2. Pusoo mileh(i) chungiyaayiyaan, khurr(u) khaaveh(i) amrit(u) dayh(i). Naam vihoonay aadmi, dhrig(u) jeevun kerm kureh(i). 3. Nayrra haiy, door(i) na jaaniyou, nit saar smaalay. Jo dayvaiy so khaavna, kuhou Nanak Saacha hay. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Chun-naatthiya = sandal wood. Oorsa = the rock on which the sandalwood is grazed. Kernee = (noble) deeds. Koongoo = saffron; (sandalwood and saffron are used in ritualistic aarti). Ghut Untar(i) = in the heart. 1.
Bahur(i) = outwardly; to show off, Dayv = idol. Pukhaaliyaiy = bathe. Jootth(i) = filth (of thoughts). Maanjiyaiy = cleanse. Moakh Puyaana = the path to emancipation. 2. Pusoo = (milk) cattle. Chungiyaayiyaan = good qualities; praise. Khurr(u) = grass. Amrit(u) = ambrosial water; milk. Vihoonay = without. Dhrig = condemnable. 3. Saar Smaalay = looks after. 4.

MEANING: People worship idols by offering grazed sandalwood and saffron, etc., to the idol. But Your real worship is done in one's mind if he makes Your Naam as the sandalwood, grazes it on the rock of his mind, and mixes it well with the saffron of noble deeds, oh Waheguru. 1. The real worship is to recite Waheguru's Naam (sing His praise); there is no real worship without Waheguru's Naam. Pause.
It is useless to bathe an idol if one does not cleanse one's own mind. The filth of ignoble deeds and of thinking comes off only by cleansing the mind, which leads to the path of salvation. 2. More praise-worthy than humans are the milk-cattle which feed only on grass (and do not ask for a whole variety of rich meals), and provide ambrosia-like milk. Without Waheguru's Naam, the man performs condemnable (immoral) deeds. 3.
Do not think of Waheguru as being far away from you; He indeed is very close to us and looks after us all the time. Sing praise of Waheguru, and be thankful to Him for whatever He provides us to eat, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Goojri Mehla 1: Naabh(i) kumul tay Brahma oopjay, Bayd purreh(i) mookh(i) svaar(i). Ta ko unt(u) na jaayee lukhna, aavut, jaat ruhaiy goobaar(i). 1. Preetum kiyoun bisreh(i), mayray praan adhaar. Ja kee bhugut(i) kureh(i) jun pooray, Moon(i) jun sayveh(i) Gur veechaar(i). 1. Ruhaou. Ruv(i) Sus(i) deepuk Ja kay, tirbhuvn(i) Aika Jot(i) Mooraar(i). Gurmukh(i) hoyay su ehinis(i) nirmul(u), munmukh(i) raiyn(i) undhaar(i). 2. Sidh smaadh(i) kureh(i) nit jhugra, dooh(u) loachun kiyya hairaiy. Untar Jot(i) Shabad(u) dhoon(i) jaagaiy, Satgur jhugur(u) nibayraiy. 3. Soor(i) nur Nath bayunt ajoani, Saachaiy Mehl(i) Apaara. Nanak sehj(i) milay Jug Jeevun, nudr(i) kurhou nistaara. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Naabh(u) = navel. Kumul = lotus. Brahma Oopjay = Brahma was born out of the lotus flower growing out of the navel of Vishnu. Svaar(i) = by beautifying (with a sweet voice). Ta Ko = of Waheguru. Lukhna = understand; see. Aavut Jaavut = taking birth and dying. Goobaar(i) = darkness; unenlightened. 1. Preetum = dear (Waheguru). Bisreh(i) = forgotten. Praan = life. Adhaar = basis. Jun Pooray = perfect devotees. Moon(i) = hermits. Sayveh(i) = worship. Pause. Ruv(i) = the sun. Sus(i) = the moon. Tirbhuvun = universe. Mooraar(i) = God. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Nirmul(u) = pure. Munmukh = Maya-engrossed; follower of his own mind. Raiyn(i) = the night (of life). Undhaar(i) = in dark; ignorance. 2. Smaadh(i) = in meditation. Jhugra = struggle. Dooh(u) Loachun = (with) two eyes (double-mindedness). Hairaiy = see; achieve. Jot(i) = enlightenment. Dhoon(i) = voice. Jaagaiy = is awakened. Nibayraiy = ends; is settled. 3. Soor = gods. Nur = men. Nath = the guru of the yogis; Lord (Waheguru). Bayunt = limitless. Ajoani = which never takes birth. Appara = beyond limits. Sehj(i) = in spiritual state above Maya. Jug Jeevun = life (soul) of the world. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Nistaara = salvation. 4.

MEANING: The Brahman reads the Vedas created by Brahma aloud with a sweet voice; but they (the Vedas) cannot find the end of Waheguru just like Brahma, who could not find the end of the stem of the lotus flower growing in the navel of Vishnu out of which Brahma was born. It is believed that Brahma set out to find the end of the flower's stem, but even after spending thousands of years, he struggled in the dark and could not find its end. Similarly, the man keeps taking births again and again, and yet remains ignorant (about Waheguru). 1. Why should I forget my dear Waheguru, who is the basis of my life, and who is worshipped by the perfect devotees and the hermits with the guidance of the Guru? Pause. Like the sun and the moon, which are the two lamps to provide light everywhere on the earth, Waheguru's Light (Soul) is present everywhere in the three-layered universe to enlighten it. However, only the individual who comes to Guru's shelter (and recites Waheguru's Naam) gets the enlightenment, while the Maya-engrossed individuals spend their life in darkness (ignorance). 2. The Sidh yogis do meditate, but the struggle about Waheguru and Maya continues in their mind; so, what can they achieve with their double-mindedness? However, if they take Satguru's shelter, their mind gets awakened (is enlightened) with His Shabad, and the struggle of the yogi's mind is settled. 3. Waheguru, which is limitless and which never takes birth, is the Lord of all humans and gods, and has eternal residence, but is beyond limits. With His kind sight, one connects with the Soul of the world (Waheguru) in a spiritual state above the effects of Maya and is protected, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Bin(u) bhaagaan aiysa Satgur(u) na paayiyaiy, jay loachaiy subh koyay. Koorraiy kee paal(i) vichoun niklaiy, ta suda sookh(u) hoyay. 3. Nanak aiysay Satgur kee kiya oh(u) sayvuk(u) sayva kuray, Gur aagaiy jeeo dhuray. Satgur ka bhaana chit(i) kuray, Satgur aapay kirpa kuray. 4.1.3.

Word Meaning: Dhrig = reprehensible. Ivayha = such. Kumm(i) = tasks; lifestyle. Visraiy = is forgotten. Doojaiy = the other (Maya). 1. Aiysa = such a. Govind = Waheguru. Uver = others. Saytee = with. Geh(i) = hold on to; connected. Juraa = old age. Jeevun Pudvi = high spiritual level. Pause. Siyoun = with; from. Sehj(i) = spiritual state above Maya. Oopjiya = comes into being. Vaykh(u) = watch. Saytee = with. Aap(u) Khaaya = consumed (eradicated) selfishness and ego. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. Smuyyee = merged into. 2. Bhaagaan = good fortune. Loachaiy = wish for. Koorraiy = falsehood; attractions of Maya. Paal(i) = wall; curtain. Niklaiy = is removed. 3. Sayvuk(u) = devotee. Jeao = soul; mind. Bhaana = Will. Chit(i) = in mind. 4.

MEANING: The life, in which one does not foster love for Waheguru and performs tasks (leads his life) while rapt in Maya, and forgets Waheguru, is reprehensible. 1.
Serve the Satguru, who implants love for Waheguru in your mind, and because of which your love for all other attractions is eradicated, and your mind stays stitched to Waheguru; and because of which no fear of old age is left (you are not afraid of death), and you attain the spiritual state above Maya, oh my mind. Pause. You will realize all that because of your love for Waheguru, and because your worship of Him will be such that it will result in the spiritual state above the effects of Maya. When one eradicates his selfishness and ego from his mind, he will see that he becomes pure, and his soul merges into the Supreme Soul (of God). 2. However, even though everybody wishes to get connected with such a Satguru, one cannot do so without good fortune. One attains permanent bliss only after the curtain of his falsehood (love for the mundane) has been removed (in the Guru's shelter). 3. The most befitting service to such a Satguru is to offer one's mind to Him. When the devotee accepts Satguru's Will gladly, He becomes kind to him without any request from the devotee (and connects him with Waheguru), oh Nanak. 4.1.

Goojri Mehla 3: Hur(i) kee toom sayva kurhou, dooji sayva kurhou na koyay ji. Hur(i) kee sayva tay munhou chindiya ful(u) paayiyaiy, dooji sayva junum(u) birtha jaayay ji. 1. Hur(i) mayri preet(i), reet(i) haiy, Hur(i) mayri, Hur(i) mayri kutha kuhaani ji. Gur persad(i) mayra mun(u) bheejaiy, eha sayva bunee jeeo. 1. Ruhaou. Hur(i) mayra Simrit(i), Hur(i) mayra Shastar, Hur(i) mayra bundhup, Hur(i) mayra bhaayee. Hur(i) kee mein bhookh laagaiy, Hur(i) Naam(i) mayra mun(i) triptaiy, Hur(i) mayra saak(u) unt(i) hoyay sukhaayee. 2. Hur(i) bin(u) hoar raas(i) koorri haiy, chuldiyaan naal(i) na jaayee. Hur(i) mayra dhun(u) mayraiy saath(i) chaalaiy, juhaa huoun jaayeen teh jaayee. 3. So jhoottha, jo jhootthay laagaiy, jhootthay kerm kmaayee. Kuhaiy Nanak(u) Hur(i) ka bhaana hoa, kehna kuchhoo na jaayee. 4.2.4.

Word Meaning: Dooji = any other. Munhou Chindiya = as wished in mind. Ful(u) = reward. Birtha = empty; useless. 1. Reet = custom; daily routine. Kutha Kuhaani = stories (praise) of Waheguru. Bheejaiy = gets imbued. Eha Sayva = this service. Bunee = appropriate. Pause. Simrit(i) Shastar = Hindu religious books. Bundhup = friend. Triptaiy = is contented. Saak(u) = relative. Sukhaayee = helper; benefactor. 2. Raas(i) = wealth. Koorri = perishable. Chuldiyaan = when leaving (the world). 3. Jhoottha = fake; not approved by Waheguru. Jhootthaiy = fake; perishable. Kerm = deeds. 4.

MEANING: One should serve (worship) Waheguru only and nobody else because one gets all his wishes fulfilled by serving Waheguru, whereas the precious human life goes to waste without serving Waheguru. 1. My life revolves around Waheguru and love for Him, and discussing stories of His virtues (singing His praise) is my daily routine. For me, the most appropriate service to Waheguru is that my mind gets imbued with His love by the grace of the Guru. Pause. People read the Simritis and the Shastras as a noble endeavour, but for me, worshipping Waheguru is the study of all religious books. In fact, Waheguru is my friend and my brother; I have an appetite for His worship, and my mind is fully satisfied with it. Waheguru is my close relative and my benefactor at the time of death. 2.

Any other type of wealth is false because it does not accompany you at the time of leaving the world. On the other hand, the wealth of Waheguru's Naam accompanies me wherever I go. 3. The individual, who is engaged in falsehood (perishable things) and performs tasks to acquire perishable things, is not approved in Waheguru's Court. But it is not strictly the fault of the individual, because everybody lives their life according to the Will of Waheguru, and nobody can do anything about it (change it), oh Nanak. 4.2.4.

Goojri Mehla 3: Joog meh(i) Naam(u) doolumbh(u) haiy, Gurmukh(i) paaya jaayay. Bin(u) Naavaiy mookut(i) na hovyee, vaykhou ko viyopaayay. 1.Bulihaari Gur aapnay, sud bulihaaraiy jaaoun. Satgur miliyaiyn Hur(i) mun vusaiy, sehjay ruhaiy smaayay. 1. Ruhaou. Ja bhuou paayay aapna, baiyraag(u) oopjay mun(i) aayay. Baiyraagaiy tay Hur(i) paayiyaiy, Hur(i) siyoun ruhaiy smaayay. 2. Sayee mookut j(i) mun(u) jineh(i) phir(i) dhaat(u) na laagaiy aayay. Dusvaiyn dooaar(i) reht kuray, tirbhuvun soajhi paayay. 3. Nanak Gur tay Gur hoya, vaykhou Tis kee rujaayay.

Word Meaning: Joog = eon; world. Doolumbh = rare (not easily available). Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. Mookut(i) = emancipation. Viyopaayay = investment; experiment; test. 1. Bulihaari = offer life (serving like a slave). Sud = always. Vusaiy = gets embedded. Sehjay = in a spiritual state above Maya. Smaayay = absorbed. Pause. Bhuou = (respectful) fear. Baiyraag(i) = detachment from Maya (and love for Waheguru). Oopjay = is produced. Siyoun = with. 2. Jineh(i) = wins over; controls. Dhaat(u) = effects of Maya. Dusvaiyn Dooaar(i) = the tenth door (through which one connects with Waheguru; focus on Waheguru). Reht = live; stay. Tirbhuvun = three-layered universe. Soajhi = understanding. 3. Rujaayay = Will. Kaarun(u) = the creation; set up. Kerta = the creator. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is rare (very difficult to acquire) in this world, and can be acquired only in the shelter of the Guru. Also, one cannot attain emancipation (salvation) without Waheguru's Naam – one may verify this fact through personal experience if one does not believe in this assertion. 1. I am a sacrifice for my Guru all the time because one embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart and stays absorbed in the spiritual state above Maya only in the shelter of the Guru. Pause. When Waheguru instills His (respectful) fear in the devotee's mind, the devotee begins to feel the pain of separation from Him and begins to feel detached from the world. The pain of separation leads the devotee to connect with Waheguru and remain absorbed in Him. 2. Only those get emancipated who win control on their mind; at that stage Maya affects him no more. He stays focused on Waheguru and develops an understanding of the universe's functioning. 3.
It is amazing to see how with the Will of God, the Guru enlightens His disciple to transform him into the new Guru to succeed Him. Waheguru is the creator of this amazing arrangement whereby the Soul of the Guru stays fully merged into Waheguru's Soul, oh Nanak. 4.3.5.

ਗੂਜਰੀ ਮਹਲਾ 3॥ ਰਾਮ ਰਾਮ ਸਭੁ ਕੋ ਕਹੈ ਕਹਿਐ ਰਾਮੁ ਨ ਹੋਇ॥ ਗੁਰ ਪਰਸਾਦੀ ਰਾਮੁ ਮਨਿ ਵਸੈ ਤਾ ਫਲੁ ਪਾਵੈ ਕੋਇ॥ 1॥ ਅੰਤਰਿ ਗੋਵਿੰਦ ਜਿਸੁ ਲਾਗੈ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਿ॥ ਹਰਿ ਤਿਸੁ ਕਦੇ ਨ ਵੀਸਰੈ ਹਰਿ ਹਰਿ ਕਰਹਿ ਸਦਾ ਮਨਿ ਚੀਤਿ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਹਿਰਦੈ ਜਿਨ੍ਹ ਕੈ ਕਪਟੁ ਵਸੈ ਬਾਹਰਹੁ ਸੰਤ ਕਹਾਹਿ॥ ਤ੍ਰਿਸਨਾ ਮੂਲਿ ਨ ਚੁਕਈ ਅੰਤਿ ਗਏ ਪਛੁਤਾਹਿ॥2॥ ਅਨੇਕ ਤੀਰਥ ਜੇ ਜਤਨ ਕਰੈ ਤਾ ਅੰਤਰਿ ਕੀ ਹਉਮੈ ਕਦੇ ਨ ਜਾਇ॥ ਜਿਸੁ ਨਰ ਕੀ ਦੁਬਿਧਾ ਨ ਜਾਇ ਧਰਮਰਾਇ ਤਿਸੁ ਦੇਇ ਸਜਾਇ॥ 3॥ ਕਰਮੁ ਹੋਵੇ ਸੋ ਜਨੁ ਪਾਏ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਬੂਝੈ ਕੋਈ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਵਿਚਹੁ ਹਉਮੈ ਮਾਰੇ ਤਾ ਹਰਿ ਭੇਟੈ ਸੋਈ॥ 4.4.6.

Goojri Mehla 3: Ram, Ram subh(u) ko kuhaiy, kuhiyaiyn Ram(u) na hoyay. Gur persadi Ram(u) mun(i) vusaiy, ta ful(u) paavaiy koyay. 1. Untar(i) Govind jis(u) laagaiy preet(i). Hur(i) tis(u) kuday na veesraiy, Hur(i) Hur(i) kureh(i) suda mun(i) cheet(i). 1. Ruhaou. Hirdaiy jinh kaiy kupt(u) vusaiy, bahuroun sunt kuhaayay. Trishna mool(i) na chookyee, unt(i) guyyay puchhutaahay. 2. Anayk teeruth jay jutun kuraiy, ta untar(i) kee haumein kuday na jaayay.

Jis nur kee doobidha na jaayay, Dherm Raayay tis(u) dayay sujaayay. 3. Kerm(u) hovay, so jun(u) paayay, Gurmukh(i) boojhaiy kooyee. Nanak vichoun haumein maaray, ta Hur(i) bhaytaiy soyee. 4.4.6.

Word Meaning: Kuhiyaiyn = (simply by) saying. Ful(u) = reward. 1. Untar(i) = inside (the mind). Govind = God. Veesray = forgotten. Pause. Kupt(u) = deceit. Bahuroun = outwardly. Trishna = appetite of desires. Mool(i) Na = not at all. Chookyee = is removed; get rid of. 2. Anayk = countless. Jutun = efforts. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Nur = man. Doobidha = indecisiveness; dilemma. Dherm Raayay = the Angel of justice. 3. Kerm(u) = benevolence. Bhaytaiy = get connected with. 4.

MEANING: Everybody says God (or Waheguru) with their tongue, but Waheguru does not come to reside in the heart by simply uttering His Naam in a ritualistic way. One reaps the reward (gets credit) only if, with the grace of the Guru, Waheguru takes dwelling in the devotee's heart. 1. A devotee, who fosters love for Waheguru in his mind, never forgets Him, and recites His Naam with his tongue and with his mind all the time. Pause. But those who call themselves (pretend to be) saints but harbour deceit in mind, never get rid of their worldly desires, and leave the world repenting at the end. 2.

No matter how many holy places they visit, and how many different ways they try, such deceitful people never get rid of their haumein. The individual, who cannot overcome his indecisiveness (about his love for Waheguru or for Maya), is punished by the Angel of Justice (Waheguru). 3. Some rare person realizes this truth in the shelter of the Guru, and is able to kill his haumein (selfishness and ego) by Waheguru's benevolence, and gets connected with Him, oh Nanak. 4.4.6.

Word Meaning: Shaant(i) = peace; blissfulness. Nihchul = stability of mind; unwavering mind. Guvaayay = loses; eradicates. Nirmul(u) = pure-minded. Boojhaiy = understands. 1. Chayt = remember. Acahyt = unaware. Ichheh(i) = as wished. Hur(i) Rus(u) = sweet tasting (Waheguru's Naam). Pause.

Paarus(u) = elixir stone which converts base metals into gold; Guru, which like elixir stone converts a Maya-engrossed person into a holy saint. Deekhiya = advice. 2.

Vin(u) = without. Perchay = acquisition of Knowledge. Uvrah = others. Ugiyani = lacking knowledge. Maarug(i) = path (of righteousness). 3.

Nudri = kind sight. Shabad = Huqam; Laws. Vertaayay = governs. 4.
MEANING: The individual, whose ego is eradicated by Waheguru's kindness, acquires a stable mind (which does not waver), and enjoys blissfulness. Such an individual realizes truth in the shelter of the Guru, acquires purity of mind, and stitches his mind with Waheguru's Naam. 1. Remember Waheguru, oh my unaware mind; you will reap the reward of having all your wishes fulfilled. With Guru's grace, you will enjoy Waheguru's sweet-tasting Naam and will enjoy permanent bliss by continuously tasting it. Pause. If a devotee gets connected with the Guru, he becomes like the Guru. (An elixir stone converts other metals into gold, but does not convert them into another elixir stone; but the Guru has the power to convert a Sikh into a Guru). When the Sikh becomes like the Guru, people begin to worship him too. The devotee, who worships the Guru-like Sikh, also reaps the reward, and becomes competent to preach Truth, and advise others. 2. If someone begins to preach to others without having any Divine Knowledge, he cannot be like the Guru, and nobody worships him (with devotion). He may be a self-proclaimed guru, but whom can such an ignorant and blind guru teach the path of righteousness? 3.
No one can achieve any spirituality without Waheguru's benevolence, which can be earned only with His kindness. Waheguru honours His devotees through the Guru, and governs the universe with His Huqam, oh Nanak. 4.5.7.

Jo Toodh bhaavaiy subh(u) Sach(u) haiy, Sachay ruhaiy smaayay. 5.6.8.
Word Meaning: Kaanshi = Banaras (Now Varanasi) was believed to be the centre of the Hindu religious studies, and an educated person from Kaashi was considered to be very wise. Oopjaiy = is produced. Soajhi = understanding; enlightenment. 1.
Kutha = story; praise. Thir(u) = stable; unwavering. Bherm(u) = misgiving. Pause.
Hur(i) Churn = God's feet (His Naam). Kilvikh = sins. Punch Bhoo = the five elements – earth, water, fire, air and sky (awareness). Aatma = soul; mind. 2.
Munmukh(i) = who is disconnected from God and follows his own mind. Moogudh = foolish. Soajhi = understanding. Puchhutaaya = repenting. 3.
Utth-sutth(i) = 68 (Hindu holy places). Sung(i) = with. Hirdaiy = in the heart. 4.
Boojhiya = understood. Aik = "One" God. Sach(u) = eternal. 5.

MEANING: (Contrary to the popular belief) one neither gains any (spiritual) wisdom by being in Varanasi, nor does he lose his wisdom for being there (or away from that). One acquires spiritual wisdom only by connecting with the Satguru when he gets enlightened. 1. Listen to the praise of Waheguru, and enshrine His Naam in your heart, oh my mind. When you achieve stable wisdom (your mind quits wavering), only then do you get rid of your misbeliefs, oh man. Pause. Embed Waheguru's Feet (His Naam) in your heart so as to eradicate all your sins. When you control your mind, which resides in the body made of the five elements, then your mind becomes a holy place itself, and stays there. 2. The mind of the Maya-engrossed person is foolish and has no understanding (enlightenment). It does not realize the importance of Waheguru's Naam, and the man leaves the world repenting. 3. Satgur has clarified that the human mind becomes a holy place, or the source of religious books (knowledge), when it connects with God. The sixty-eight holy places reside in his mind when he enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart. 4. I realized Waheguru's Huqam, and God came to reside in my heart after I got connected with Satguru, oh Nanak. When one stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, he comes to realize that whatever is liked by Him (His Will) is the truth (is eternal). 5.3.8.

Word Meaning: Nidhaan = treasure. Sikh(u) = advice. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Goonut = pondering. 1. Rusna = tongue. Chaakh(u) = to taste. Nirmul(u) = pure. Pause. Suntokhiyaiy = is contented. Trishna = desires. Bhookh = appetite. Pur Ghur(i) = the house (the belongings) of others. Kuthni Budni = debating. Boojh = realization. Ghut(i) = in the heart. 3. Shastar = Hindu religious books. Phireh (i) Baaro Baar = goes from door to door to acquire spiritual enlightenment. Aap(i) = self. Puchhaanyee = realize. Dhuray = places; develops. 4. Sachaiy = the eternal Waheguru. Dehkaaya = misguided. Bhaavay = as He pleases. Rujaayay = Will. 5.

MEANING: You will realize that Waheguru's Naam is the only real treasure (of all happiness) if you listen to the true advice, oh pundit. Anything else, that you read or ponder on, is all about Maya, and you always suffer from mental dissatisfaction. 1. You will get enlightenment with Guru's Shabad in the shelter of Waheguru. When you enjoy the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam with your tongue (recite His Naam), your mind will be purified. Pause. When one connects with Satguru, he becomes fully contented and loses all desire for worldly enjoyments. When one acquires the Naam-treasure, he never even looks at the belongings (wealth or women) of others. 2.

The follower of his mind does not realize the importance of Waheguru's Naam; he is simply interested in worthless debates to feed his ego. But an individual who follows the Guru's advice gets enlightenment and acquires Waheguru's Naam in his heart. 3.
He does not study of his religious books to learn anything (spiritual) from them, nor does he visit any other self-proclaimed guru for spiritual enlightenment. An individual who does not realize the self and does not foster love for Waheguru is a real fool. 4. But even such people cannot be fully blamed for their thinking because Waheguru Himself has misguided the world (by creating attraction for Maya), and nobody can say (or do) anything about that. Waheguru does whatever He likes, or whatever His Will is, oh Nanak. 5.7.9.

Word Meaning: Jun = devotee (dear to Waheguru). Sat Purkha = Waheguru-like. Binou = request. Keeray Kirm = worms (of feces of Maya). Duyya = kindness. Pergaas(i) = enlighten 1. Meet = friend. Praan Sukhaayee = friend, dear like life. Keerut = praise. Rehraas(i) = daily practice. Pause. Vudbhaag = great fortune. Sherdha = deep respect; faith. Piyaas = thirst; love. Triptaaseh(i) = contented. Goon = noble qualities; virtues. 2. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Bhaag-heen = unlucky. Jum = Angel of death. Shern(i) = shelter. Sungut(i) = (holy) company. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Jeevaas(i) = hopes; wishes (of the man). 3. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Likhaas(i) = writing; future performances. Dhunn(u) = worthy of respect.4.

MEANING: Oh, dear to Waheguru, oh just like Waheguru (His image), oh, Satguru, I am like a worm (in feces of Maya; low-quality engrossed in Maya), and have come to Your shelter. I beg You to kindly enlighten my mind. 1. Oh, my friend-like Satguru, kindly enlighten my mind with Waheguru's Naam. Please advise me so that I may love Waheguru's Naam like a friend, like my own life, and Waheguru's praise may become my daily routine. Pause. Those devotees are highly fortunate who have deep faith in Waheguru and a thirst for His love. They feel contented only with Waheguru's Naam and enlighten their mind by singing His praise in holy congregations. 2. Those who do not enjoy the sweet taste of Waheguru's Naam are unfortunate and are presented before the Angel of justice (for reincarnation as punishment). Reprehensible are those, and reprehensible are their hopes (of accumulating wealth), who do not seek the shelter of Satguru to enjoy His company. 3. Those who come to the shelter of Satguru to enjoy His company have it prewritten on their forehead right from the beginning. Word Meaning: Govind(u) = Waheguru. Preetum = very dear. Mohaiy = captivates. Dhiyayiyaiy = recite (Naam). Daan(u) = donation; gift. Ohaiy = that. 1.

Bhaayee Junaa = devotee brothers. Sohaiy = looks adorned. Pause.
Sookh Saagur = sea of comforts. Kaula = Maya. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Pug(i) = at the feet. Aadhaara = support; basis. Sohaiy = honoured. 2.
Doormut(i) = ill-advised. Bhaag-heen = unlucky. Pheekay = distasteful; ignoble. Rohaiy = anger. Kuooaa = Kaag = crow (an immoral person). Triptaiy = gets contented. Vishta = feces. Gohay = cattle dung. 3. Amrit Sur(u) = pool of ambrosia (life-sustaining water). Satvaadi = truthful; unbiased; perfectly just. Huns = swan (a pure and holy person). Ridaiy Mul(u) = filth of heart (mind). 4.
MEANING: Waheguru is very dear to my mind. His Shabad (praise) captivates my mind in the Guru's company. We all should remember Him (recite His Naam) because He is the one who provides for everybody. 1. Waheguru captivates my mind, oh my devotee brothers. I sing His praise in the company of the Guru, where one's mind gets adorned with noble qualities. Pause. Waheguru's worship is the sea of all comforts. When one acquires the Guru's wisdom (acts on His advice), Maya and all supernatural powers drop at his feet (become his slaves). Waheguru's Naam becomes the support of the devotee's life, and he is honoured everywhere in the world, and in Waheguru's Court. 2.

The individuals who are ill-advised are unfortunate. They have distasteful (immoral) thinking, and get angry (if they are advised) to listen to Waheguru's Naam. They are like a crow which does not like the amrit-like sweet things, and is satisfied only with feces or cattle-dung in its mouth. 3. Satguru, which is perfectly just, is a pool of Naam-Amrit (liquid of immortality) where a crow-like immoral person takes a dip to become swan-like pure and saintly person. Those individuals are highly lucky who wash away the filth of their ignoble thinking with Waheguru's Naam-Amrit with Guru's Advice, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Ootum = superior; great; kind. Bani = language; kind words. Pur-oopkaaray = for the benefit of others. Sherdha Bhugut(i) = (with) faith and respect. Saytee = with. Nistaaray = salvages. 1. Preetum Praan = dear, like one's own life. Poora = perfect. Paapi = sinners. Pause. Vudbhaagi = very lucky. Adhaaray = support; basis. Amrit Rus(u) = life-sustaining sweet juice. Bhundaaray = treasures. 2.
Sat Purakh = Waheguru-like. Bhaag-heen = unlucky. Maaray = punished. Kookur = dogs. Sookur = pigs. Gerdhubh = donkey. Gerbh Joani = life in the womb. Duyyay = Waheguru. Muhaa = big. Hutiyaaray = killers; ruthless sinners. 3.
Deen = poor; helpless. Oobaaray = salvage. Bhaavaiy = (as He) likes. 4.

MEANING: The supreme devotees of Waheguru are very kind, and sweet is their routine language (conversation); whatever they talk is for the benefit of others. Those who listen to their advice with respect and love are salvaged by the kind Waheguru. 1. Please connect me with the dear supreme devotees of Yours, oh Waheguru. The perfect Satguru is very dear to me, like my own life, whereas I am a sinner. The kind Satguru salvages all sinners like me. Pause. Those are highly fortunate who come to the shelter of Satguru, where Waheguru's Naam becomes the basis of their lives. With the advice of the Guru, they taste the sweet Naam-Amrit of Waheguru and acquire the treasure of His worship. 2. Those who do not have a glimpse of the Waheguru-like Satguru are unlucky and are punished by the Angel of justice. They are big sinners and are reborn as dogs, swine, and donkeys, etc., as a punishment awarded to them by Waheguru. 3.

Please be kind to your devotee, and salvage me with Your benevolence, oh kind to the helpless, Waheguru. I, Nanak, a slave of Waheguru, have come to His shelter; (and I am sure that) He will salvage me as per His Will. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Duyaal = kind. Mun laavhou = motivate (connect) my mind. Huoun = I. Undin(u) = every day; always. Dhiyaayeen = remember; recite Naam. Nidhaan = treasures. Jupiyain = by reciting. Leh(i) Jayee = is removed. 1. Sukhaa = friend. Jus = praise. Bayli = friend. Chhudaayee = gets free. Pause. Daata = donor; provider. Untarjaami = omniscient. Loach = desire; yearning. Laayee = infused. Saytee = with. Shernaayee = shelter. 2. Maanus = human. Poonn(i) = noble deeds. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Birtha = empty; waste. Rus Kus = enjoyment of many kinds. Pheeka = no spirituality. Thook Thook Mookh(i) Paayee = is spit on the face. 3. Vudiyaayee = respect. Dhunn(u) = great. Shaabaash(i) = earns accolades. 4.

MEANING: Please be kind, and connect my mind with You so that I may always recite Your Naam, oh Waheguru. God is the treasure of all comforts and all virtues; remembering Him eradicates all the discomforts and all appetite for Maya. 1. Waheguru's Naam is my best friend and my brother, oh my mind. With the advice of the Guru, I wish to sing Waheguru's praise all the time, which will be my friend at the time of death, and will set me free (from all sins) in His Court. Pause. Waheguru is omniscient and the provider for all; (knowing my wish), He was kind to instill the desire for His love in my mind. I had a yearning in my body and mind to connect with Him. He kindly fulfilled my desire by providing me with the Guru's shelter. 2. One receives human life for some noble deeds done by him, but it is condemnable (shameful) that the man wastes away his life without Waheguru's Naam. Without Waheguru's Naam, he enjoys different tastes of Maya and spends his life without acquiring any spirituality, as a result of which he is spat on the face (gets disrespect everywhere). 3. (On the other hand), Those who seek Waheguru's shelter (obey His Huqam) are honoured in His Court. They are called great by Waheguru and receive His accolades. Waheguru hugs them and connects them with Him, oh Nanak. 4. 4.

MEANING: Oh, my devotee friends, please, grant me the gift of Waheguru's Naam, which is the basis of my life. I want to be a slave (servant) of the Gur Sikhs who worship the omnipresent Waheguru (recite His Naam) all the time. 1. I feel pangs of love in my body and my mind for the feet of the Gur Sikhs. Please, advise me so that Waheguru connects me with Him by first connecting me with the Guru, oh, my devotee Gur Sikh brothers - dearer to me than my life. Pause. When Waheguru likes, He connects you with Gur Sikhs who like Guru's, Satguru's Advice (obey Him). Those dear Gur Sikhs are highly fortunate who attain the blissful spiritual state (above the effects of Maya) by worshipping Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya. 2. Waheguru loves the holy congregation of the Guru, where the devotees find Waheguru's Naam to be very sweet in their minds. Those who do not enjoy the holy congregation of the Guru are highly unfortunate and are punished by the Angel of Death. 3.

When the kind Waheguru becomes benevolent, He connects you with Him by first connecting you with the Gur Sikhs, who are already connected internally with the Guru. I sing the virtues of Waheguru by Guru's Bani, and get fully absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.5.

MEANING: Those Gur Sikhs, who are connected with Waheguru-like Satguru and with Waheguru, preach to me in such a way that I have started to find Waheguru to be very sweet in my mind. I am highly fortunate to recite Waheguru's Naam as a result of which my dead mind has come back to life, and my body and my mind have become very peaceful. 1.
I wish I could meet with a Gur Sikh who could reinforce Waheguru's Naam in my mind. I will offer my life, my body, and my mind (in his service) to the dear Gur Sikh who narrates the story of Waheguru (sings His praise) to me. Pause. A devotee, who applies his mind to Waheguru (His Naam) all the time, acquires patience, high morality, and union with Waheguru, with Satguru's Advice. Satguru's Bani is the real Amrit (which leads to immortality by connecting the devotee with Waheguru), and whoever sings that, receives Amrit (Waheguru's Naam) in his mouth (on his tongue). 2. Waheguru's Naam is so purifying that the devotee, who recites it with full dedication with the Advice of the Guru, never gets any filth of immorality. The individual who does not embed Waheguru's invaluable Naam in his heart is highly unlucky. Such individuals do not die just once; they keep taking births and dying repeatedly. 3. The life (soul) of the world, Waheguru, is the source of blissfulness; everybody should enjoy bliss by reciting His Naam. All living beings belong to Waheguru, who provides for everyone. When He becomes kind, He connects His devotees with the Guru who connects them with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Chitveh(i) Oodum = think about putting in effort; worry about. Aahur(i) = (has the) responsibility. Saiyl = Puththur = rocks. Junt = living beings. Rijuk(u) = food and other necessities of life. Aagaiy = before. Dhuriya = placed; arranged. 1.
Madho = God. S(i) = that. Turiya = salvaged. Perm Pud(u) = spiritual state above Maya. Sookay Kaasht = dry wood; spiritually dead mind. Huriya = (becomes) green; came to life. Pause. Junun(i) = mother. Loak = people; daughters (because they leave their parents' home and become members of others' families). Soot = sons. Bunita = wife. Dhuriya = support; protection. Sir(i) Sir(i) = everybody. Sumbaahay = delivers. Rijuk = food; necessities of life. Kaahay = why. Bhuou = afraid of. 2. Oodaiy = (Koonj) flies. Saiy = hundreds. Koas = a unit of length (1 koas = 2.2 km). Pachhaiy Chhuriya = leaves behind. Buchray = young ones. Choogaavaiy = pick food. Simrun = remember. 3. Nidhaan = treasures. Dus Usht = ten and eight = 18. Siddhaan = supernatural powers. Ker = hands. Tul = palms. Bul(i) = sacrifice life. Paaravuriya = beyond limits. 4.
NOTE: Koonj is a white bird which visits India from Russia in the winter months and returns in the summer. It flies for several hundred km, leaving her young ones behind, with no one to feed them. It is believed that when she picks food, she keeps her young ones in mind; and that is how they are fed by nature.
MEANING: Why should you worry about your food (and other necessities of life) when Waheguru has that worry as His innate responsibility, oh man? He has created life even in the rocks (where there is no exit or entrance), but has arranged for food even before the life starts there. 1. (The more important thing for the man is to get detached from Maya, and unite with Waheguru). Waheguru salvages the individual who attends the holy congregation of Satguru (and acts on His Advice). There, the devotee attains the spiritual level above the effects of Maya by the grace of the Guru, and his spiritually dead mind comes to life. Pause. Why should you be afraid of anything (worry about food, etc.) when Waheguru provides food (and other necessities of life to everybody? (You commit many immoral acts to earn wealth for your relatives, but nobody will be able to protect you from punishment for your immoral deeds in Waheguru's Court) be it your mother, father, daughter, son, or wife, oh man. 2.
Look, the koonj travels several hundred km and leaves her young ones behind, who have nobody to feed them. But, when the koonj picks food, she keeps her young ones in mind. (This is a wonder of Waheguru that the food that the koonj picks, is fed to the young ones)! 3. Word Meaning: Kiriyachaar = prevalent religious rituals. Khut(u) = six. Kerma = expected obligations. (For Brahmans = studying Vedas and teaching them; giving and accepting donations; and performing yugs and getting them performed. Other Hindus: bathing; reading the Vedas; reciting mantras; huvun, evening prayer; and idol worship. Raatay = imbued; daily routine. Sunsaari = the worldly people. Maiyl(u) = filth. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Baaji = the game of life. Haari = lost. 1. Tthaakur = Lord; Master. Koat(i) Mudhay = among millions. Virla = rare. Sayvuk(u) = dedicated devotee. Biyohaari = business-like. Pause. Shast, Bayd, Simrit(i) = Hindu religious books. Soadhay = examined carefully. Pookaari = say clearly. Mookut(i) = salvation. Beechaari = ponder on. 2. Utth-sutth(i) = the sixty-eight Hindu holy places. Mujun = dip; bathe. Bherm(i) = roam. Dhur = the earth. Anik = countless. Soach = measures to stay clean. 3. Dhaavut = rushing. Dhaavut Dhaavut = going from one place to the other. Dhaayo = roamed. Hur(i) Dooaari = God's Door. Doormut(i) = ill advice; evil thinking. Boodh = wisdom. Pergaasi = enlightened. Taari = salvaged. 4.

MEANING: There is a rare person, maybe one in a million, who is a true devotee of the Lord (Waheguru); the others worship him as a business only. Please, protect me from such false worship, oh my Lord. Pause. Most of the family folks simply perform the required six rituals (see the "Introduction") as part of their daily routine. They never wash the filth of their haumein and thus lose the game of life. 1. I have examined all the religious books carefully; all of them say the same thing clearly – that nobody can find salvation without the Guru. Ponder on this, and you can find it for yourself. 2. One can visit all the 68 holy places and bathe in them, and even roam all over the earth, but he will find that without the Guru, there is complete filth in their mind, even if they perform countless acts day and night to maintain cleanliness. 3. Having roamed over the whole world, going from place to place, I have finally come to Waheguru's door, where my evil thinking has been destroyed, and my mind has been enlightened. The Guru has salvaged me (connected me with God), oh Nanak. 4.1.2.

Word Meaning: Jaap = recitations of some mantras. Taap = self-torture, like sitting close to a fire on a hot summer day. Nimkh = a moment (blinking of the eye). Bisurou = be forgotten. Sadh Sungut(i) = Guru's holy company. 1. Maayee = oh, mother. Khaat(i) = earn profit. Pause. Ishnaan(u) = dip at holy places. Giyan = knowledge of religious books. Toolha = a crude platform of wooden logs used as a boat; a raft. Taar(i) = by ferrying. Praana = the other end of the world-sea. 2. Chint = worry. Visaari = forgotten. Laahiya = removed. Dhoakha = misgiving. Nuv Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Haath Churhiyo = acquired. Thoaka = (the valuable) article (Waheguru's Naam). 3. Khurchou = spend; invest. Toat(i) = shortage. Hult = this world. Pult = the next world. Sungaiy = with. Laad(i) = loading. Khujaana = treasure. 4.

MEANING: (Normally, mothers send their sons away to earn wealth), I have also returned home after earning wealth, but it is not the kind of wealth you expected, oh my mother. I have earned the wealth of Waheguru's Naam, and I keep earning it whether I am moving, sitting down, awake, or sleeping. Pause. Waheguru's Naam-wealth is the recitation of all mantras, self-torture (which many people do to please some deity), and even (spiritual) food for me (I do not need the first two). I have realized the Naam in the company (shelter) of the Guru, and I wish I do not forget it for even a moment. 1. Waheguru's Naam-wealth is the dips at holy places and the knowledge of the religious books for me; I meditate on Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru's Naam-wealth is the raft (or the ship) for me to get across the world-sea to the other end (Waheguru's Palace). 2. The Naam-wealth has taken all my worries away and removed all my misgivings. With the Naam-wealth, I feel as if I have acquired the nine mythical treasures and the invaluable Waheguru's Naam. 3. You can consume it as mental food for you, and spend it liberally (share it with others) as much as you can, and you will never have a shortage, oh my friends. It also accompanies you in this world as well as in the next. Satguru has given me the full treasure of Waheguru's Naam, and my mind is dyed with the colour of His love now, oh Nanak. 4.2.3.

Word Meaning: Kilvikh = sins. Naaseh(i) = run away; get eradicated. Pitreen = of ancestors. Oodhaaro = salvation. Unt(u) Na Paaro = beyond limits; without end. 1.

Aasees = blessing. Nimkh = moment. Bisurou = be forgotten. Jugdeesh = Waheguru. Pause. Duyaala = kind. Sunt = Guru. Kaapurr(u) = clothes. Put(i) = honour. Bhojun = food. Keertun(u) = praise. Neet(i) = every day. 2. Suda Chir(u) = all the time. Anund = blissfulness. Aunta = infinite. Rung Tmaasha = enjoyments of life. Biyaapaiy = happens; affects. Chinta = worry. 3. Bhuvur = bumblebee. Kaula = lotus flower. Luptaayo = clung; strongly attached. Boondeh = the first raindrop. Chaatrik = rainbird which drinks only the first drop of rain, that too which falls during the Swanti planet only. Maula = blooms. 4.

MEANING: May you never forget Waheguru's Naam - not even for a moment - and may you always recite His Naam, oh my son. This is the blessing of your mother for you. Pause. Recite the Naam of the limitless Waheguru with which all the sins are eradicated, and even the ancestors get salvaged (a Hindu belief). 1. May Waheguru always be kind to you, and may you have respectful love for the holy congregation of the Guru. May Waheguru's Naam be the clothes for you to protect your honour, and Waheguru's praise be your mental food every day. 2. Drink Waheguru's Naam-Amrit and live forever (in union with Waheguru). Recitation of Waheguru's Naam is the source of infinite bliss, and all your wishes get fulfilled, and you never suffer from any worry. Worldly enjoyments are no match for the blissfulness that one enjoys with Waheguru's Naam, oh my son. 3.
May your mind be like the bumblebee while Waheguru's holy Feet are (His Naam is) the lotus flower. I am a slave of Waheguru, and like the rainbird blooms when he gets the first drop of rain, my heart blooms when I cling to His Feet, oh Nanak. 4.3.4.

Word Meaning: Mutaa = resolution. Puchhum = west. Kaiy Taayeen = for. Poorub = east. Khin Meh(i) = in a second. Thaap – create. Oothaaounhaara = destroyer. Mutaant = resolution; decision. 1. Kaam Na Aat = becomes ineffective. Anooroopiyo = envisioned; planned. Pause. Days = country; land. Kmaavun = to own land. Munsa = desire. Lushkur = army. Nayb = assistants. Khuwaas = attendants. Tiyaagay = gives up; leaves behind. Jumpur(i) = the city (land) of the Angel of death. Ootth(i) Sidhaas = leaves for. 2. Anunn(i) = devotion to a single power. Munhutth = obstinacy. Drirrta = firmness. Janaat = shows off; displays ego. Anind = non-condemnable; unwarranted vilification. Nind(u) = condemned. Chhodiyo = dropped; quit. 3. Sehj Soobhaayay = with love and kindness. Kaati Phaas = cut the bond of worldly attachments. Bhaytiya = connected with. Pervaan = acceptable. Girust = family life. Oodaas = detached from worldly affairs. 4.

MEANING: Only that happens that Waheguru has planned for you, and your own wisdom becomes ineffective, oh man. Pause. For example, if a man resolves to go to the west, Waheguru may take him to the east. Waheguru, which can create and destroy in a second, keeps the final decision to Himself. One breathes his last, leaving behind his unfulfilled desires to own more land and to earn more wealth. Leaving behind all his army, assistants, and attendants, he unexpectedly leaves the world and is taken to the land of the Angel of Death. 2. With the sheer obstinacy of his mind, he may become a devotee of some power (deity), but cannot help but display his ego. (What an irony) that the yogis, who condemn (disapprove) family life, go to the doors of the family people to beg for food! 3. Waheguru cuts the bonds of worldly attachments of those to whom He becomes kind and affectionate. Those who get connected with the Perfect Guru are approved in Waheguru's Court, whether they lead a family life or have renounced the world to become a yogi, oh Nanak. 4.4.5.

(PAGE 497): Kul(i) klaysh mitay khin bheetur(i) Nanak sehj(i) smaaya. 4.5.6.

Word Meaning: Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Bikh(u) = poisonous Maya; (immoral thoughts). Mumtaa = parental love. Biyaadh(i) = diseases; evil traits. 1. Jus(u) = praise. Sookha Sookh = comfort and more comfort. Pause. Bhul Maanaiy = accept as good for you. Kmaani = earn; practise. Jog Joogut(i) = the means to have union with God. Neeshaani = mark of recognition. 2. Poorun = perfect; omnipresent. Poor(i) Ruhiyo = filling the whole space. Aan = any other. Na Kut-hoon = no where else. Jaata = recognized; identified. Niruntar(i) = continuous without any gap. Rung(i) Ruviyo = present in self-absorption; carefree. Raata = imbued in love. 3. Bhuyyay = became. Kirpaal = Duyaal = kind. Nirbhaiy = fearless; worry-free. Ghur(i) Aaya = attained the state. Kul(i) Klaysh = disputes; tensions; irritants. Khin Bheetar(u) = within a second. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. 4.

MEANING: The devotees, who recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the real treasure, get all their worldly bonds severed, and they are able to get rid of the evils of lust, rage, Maya, immoral thoughts, and of worldly attachments. 1. The devotee, who sings Waheguru's praise in the company of the Guru (or His holy congregation), is able to purify his mind with the Guru's grace, and enjoys all the comforts. Pause. Such a devotee worships Waheguru in such a way that he accepts His Will as always good for him. His means (approach) to have union with God is recognized from the fact that he treats his friends and enemies the same way. 2. Such a devotee sees the perfect Waheguru pervading the whole universe, and sees no other such power anywhere. He sees the carefree Waheguru present in every heart (without exception) and remains imbued in His love.

3. When Waheguru becomes kind to such a devotee, he attains the state where he does not have any worldly fear (worries). All his tensions and irritants disappear in a moment, and he stays in the spiritual state above Maya, oh Nanak. 4.5.6.

Word Meaning: Araadhiya = worshipped. Bhuou Saagur = the world-sea. 1. Birtha = pain; suffering. Dookh(u) = discomforts; troubles. Tuj(i) = give up; ignore. Uver = other. Maan(u) Meht = respect. Jus(u) = fame. Pause. Kay Sunbundh = in connection with. Saiyn Saak = friends and relatives. Daas(u) = slave; devotee. Neech Kool(u) = of very low clan. Mun Baancchut = as desired. 2. Bikhiya = Maya. Binjun = delicious foods. Trishan = fire of desires. Boojhi = put out; find satisfaction. Koat(i) = millions. Oojiyaara = light; brightness. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Bust = article (Waheguru's Naam). Soojhi = realizes. 3. Bhaiy Bhunjun = destroyer of all worldly fears (worries). Churn Dhoor(i) = dust of feet (respectful expression for Advice). Jun = devotee. Baanchhaiy = longs for. 4.

MEANING: Every person to whom I tell my troubles is already full of his own troubles (and cannot help me in any way). But whoever worships Waheguru gets his troubles eradicated (solved) and swims across the world-sea (which is full of troubles and challenges). 1. Without Waheguru or the Guru, nobody can rid you of your suffering or troubles. And if, someone serves some other power (deity) than Waheguru, he loses his respect and fame. Pause. All those relatives who are friends with you only for worldly reasons are of no use to you (spiritually). But a devotee of Waheguru, even if he belongs to a very low clan, is spiritually high and can have his desires (needs) fulfilled. 2. A man may enjoy millions of delicious foods, but he never gets the appetite of his mind satisfied. (On the other hand), By reciting Waheguru's Naam, one's mind is enlightened, like having millions of lamps providing light, and they realize the incomprehensible Waheguru. 3.

Having tried all other sources, I have finally come to Your door, oh the destroyer of all fears, Royal Waheguru. I, Nanak, long only for the dust of the Feet of the Guru (His kind Advice), which is the real comfort (bliss) for me, oh Waheguru. 4.6.7.

Naam(u) sumput(i) Gur(i) Nanak kuou deeyee, oh muraiy, na aavay jaayee. 5.1.8.

Word Meaning: Pruthmay = first of all. Gerbh = womb. Vaasa = dwelling; start life. Oohaan = there. Dhurn(i) = earth; world. Chitursha‌al = painted-on walls. Soondur = beautiful. Baag = flower gardens. Mundur = mansions. Sung(i) = with. 1. Uver = others. Mithiya = false; short-lived. Loabh = greed. Lubby = greedy. Vust(u) = (valuable) thing. Phuby = perfectly suitable. Pause. Isht = deity; dear Bundhup = relatives. Soot = sons. Bunita = wife. Ruch(i) = surrounded by (the love of). Hussiya = felt happy. Untee Ausur(u) = the last time. Paykhut Hee = while (they are) watching. Kaal(i) = death. Grussiya = grabs; captures. 2. Unerth = injustice with force; criminally. Bihaajhi = accumulated. Sumpaiy = wealth. Roopa = silver. Daama = cash. Bhaarra = fare. Bhaarri = who works for fare; labourer. Biraana = of others. 3.
Haiyvur = top quality horses. Gaiyvur = top quality elephants. Ruth = chariots. Sumbaahay = gathered; raised. Guhou Kur(i) = carefully. Jub Tay = since. Laami Dhaayee = long journey (after death). Paiyray = step. 4.
Sookh Raja = luxuries of kingship; the prime comfort. Kootumb = family. Suhaayee = supporter. Sumput = wealth. 5.

MEANING: First of all, the man starts his life in the womb of his mother, and then leaves that place and comes to the world. (During his life period, he forgets Waheguru) and becomes conceited, owning big mansions with beautifully painted walls, beautiful orchards, and flower gardens, without realizing that none of those will accompany him after death. 1. He becomes very greedy, but all his greed for the other (Maya) is short-lived. The most appropriate thing for the man to acquire is Waheguru's Naam, which can be acquired from the perfect Guru. Pause. Surrounded by his beloved friends, relatives, sons, brothers, and his wife, the man feels very happy, but when he reaches his end, death grabs him while the relatives are still watching. 2. He accumulates wealth in the form of gold, silver, and cash, using sinful and criminal methods, but his wealth is like the fare received by a labourer (which he uses for his everyday needs), while the rest goes to others (is left behind after his death). 3. Over his lifetime, the man carefully buys the best-quality horses, elephants, and chariots, but they do not accompany him even for a step, since he sets out on the long journey after death. 4. But, Waheguru's Naam is such a wealth which never leaves the man and never dies, and provides the prime comfort (not even enjoyed by a ruler), and is also the real family that supports the devotee everywhere. My Guru has kindly given me that wealth of Naam, oh Nanak. 5.1.8.

Hur(i) jup(i) Maya bundhun tootay. Bhuyyay kirpaal, duyaal Prubh mayray, Sadh sungut(i) mil(i) chhootay. 1. Ruhaou.

(PAGE 498): Aatth pehr Hur(i) kay goon gaavaiy, bhagat(i) praym rus(i) maata. Hurkh soag dooh maah(i) niraala, Kernayhaar(u) puchhaata. 2. Jis ka sa, Tin hee rukh(i) leeya, sugul joogut(i) bun(i) aayee. Kuhou Nanak, Prubh Purakh duyaala, keemut(i) kehn(u) na jaayee. 3.1.9.

Word Meaning: Binsay = ended. Nivaasa = taken residence. Trishna Julun = fire (burning) caused by desires. Drirraaya = reinforced. Binus(i) = destroyed. 1. Bundhun = bonds. Chhootay = gets freedom. Pause. Aatth Pehr = twenty-four hours; always. Maata = intoxicated. Hurkh = happiness. Soag = sadness. Niraala = unaffected. Kernayhaar(u) = the Creator. 2. Sugul Joogut(i) = all means. Bun(i) Aayee = became successful. Purakh = (omnipresent) Waheguru. Keemut(i) = worth; value. 3.

MEANING: Because of the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, all my bonds with Maya have been broken. And because of the benevolence of the kind Waheguru, I have found salvation in the company (shelter) of the Guru. Pause. The fire of my desires has been put out; all my suffering has ended now, and comforts have taken their place in my body and mind. My Satguru has reinforced the treasure of Waheguru's Naam in my mind, which never comes and goes (dies), or never gets destroyed. 1. Intoxicated with the sweetness of Waheguru's worship with love, my mind sings His praise all the time. My mind has realized the Creator, God, and now is unaffected by happiness or sadness (has become stoic). 2. All my efforts to connect with Him have been successful, as Waheguru, to whom I belong, has protected me (from the attacks of Maya). The omnipresent Waheguru is very kind, and nobody can describe His worth (virtues), oh Nanak. 3.1.9.

Word Meaning: Putit = immoral. Puvittar(u) = pure; holy. Numskaaro = bow before; show respect. Bern(u) Jaat(i) = caste and trade. Baanchheh(i) = wish for. Churn Ruvaaro = dust of the feet. 1. Aiyso = such is. Srisht(i) = world. Kuheejaiy = is called. Dhunee = wealthy; lord. Ung = favour. Niraaro = unique; special. Pause. Boodh(i) = ability to understand. Aadhaaro = basis. Chumiyaaro = cobbler (Ravidass Ji; he was a cobbler). 2.1.10.

MEANING: Waheguru purifies even the immoral by making them His own (connecting them with Him). Everybody bows to them (shows respect); nobody even cares to know the caste or the trade of such devotees, and everybody longs for the dust of the feet of such devotees. 1. Such is Your Naam, oh my Lord! You have done such a special favour to Your devotee that he is respected as the (spiritually) wealthiest person in the world. Pause. I have acquired such wisdom in the shelter of the Guru that praising You has become the basis of my life. By singing Your praise, all the so-considered low caste bhagats like Namdev Ji, Trilochan Ji, Kabir Ji, and the cobbler Ravidass Ji, have found salvation, oh Nanak. 2.1.10.

Word Meaning: Boojhunhaaro = who can unravel; solve; understand. Bhutaa = Bhaant = kind; type; secrets. Birunch(i) = Brahma. Moan(i) = sages who stay quiet for long times. Geh Na Skaah(i) = unable to grasp. Gutaa = splendour. 1. Agumm = beyond reach; inaccessible. Aggadh(i) = unfathomable. Uver = different. Bidh(i) = way. Boojhiyaiy = comprehend. Bukun = utter; narrate. Kuthun = describe. Rehta = beyond. Pause. Bhugta = devotee. Rutaa = imbued; absorbed. Paykhiyo = is seen. Jutur Kutaa = here and there; everywhere. 2.

MEANING: There is no one with the ability to unravel the secrets of Waheguru. Even the popular gods like Shiva and Brahma, and the hermits who stay quiet for long times, are unable to grasp His splendour. 1. Waheguru's story is (His secrets are) beyond our reach (comprehension), and He is unfathomable. We hear about His secrets one way and comprehend them in another. He is beyond narration and description. Pause. (Being present in everybody) Waheguru Himself is the devotee, and Himself the Lord; He is absorbed in Himself. My Waheguru is pervading the whole universe, and I see Him everywhere, oh Nanak. 2.2.11.

Shern(i) puriyo Nanak Tthaakur kee, abhaiy daan(u) sookh(u) paayo. 2.3.12.

Word Meaning: Mutaa = resolution. Musoorut(i) = offer or take advice. Uver = other. Siyaanup = cleverness. Ausur(u) = opportunity; need. 1. Bhagat(i) Vuchhul(u) = lover of His worshippers. Birdaayo = Bird = innate trait. Pritpaal = to look after (raise and nurture). Niyaayeen = just like. Baarik = child. Laad Ludaayo = shower with love. Pause. Jup = recitation of some mantras. Tup = self-torture to please some deity. Sunjum = control on sensual pleasures. Kerm Dherm = religious rituals. Keertun = praise. Shern(i) = shelter; surrendering self. Abhaiy = fearlessness. 2.

MEANING: I am such a devotee of Waheguru that I have not learned to make any prior resolution, take any advice, or use any cleverness (to deal with some difficult situation). Wherever such an opportunity arose, I simply remembered Him. 1. Loving His devotees is a kind and innate nature of Waheguru. He raises and nurtures His devotees like a child, showering them with love. Pause. For Waheguru's devotees, singing His praise incorporates all rituals, such as reciting mantras, self-torture, efforts to control sensual pleasures, and other religious practices. I have taken the shelter of Waheguru (surrendered my wisdom), and have acquired the comfort of freedom from all worldly fears (worries), oh Nanak. 2.3.12.

Milbay kee mehma bern(i) na saakoun, Nanak puraiy pureela. 2.4.13.

Word Meaning: Araadhou = worship (recite Naam). Nimukh = moment. Dheela = indolence. Bhaavni = love and faith. Maan(u) = ego. Haattheela = obstinate. 1. Mohun(u) = mind captivating (Waheguru). Praan = life. Maan = honour. Rangeela = colourful. Baas(i) ruhiyo = resides. Heeraiy = in heart. Paykh(i) = see; watch. Mohiyo = captivated. Leela = amazing feats. Pause. Anunda = blissfulness. Jungeela = rust; filth of mind. Milbay Kee = of meeting with. Mehma = praise; greatness. Bern(u) = describe. Puraiy Pureela = further and further; limitless. 2.4.13.

MEANING: Do not show any laziness, and worship Waheguru (recite His Naam) day and night, oh my dear friends. We should give up our obstinate (persistent) ego, and serve the Guru with love and faith. 1. The colourful Waheguru (which shows colourful feats) is present in many different forms, and is the basis of my life and honour. My mind has been captivated by His amazing feats, and now He resides in my heart. Pause. One attains bliss, and the filth of his mind is removed when he remembers God. I cannot describe the great feeling one enjoys upon connecting with the limitless Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.4.13.

Word Meaning: Moon(i) = hemits who stay quiet for long times. Shasterig = those, who have knowledge of the Shastras. Bus(i) = in control. Apnuhee = own. Teen(i) Dayv = the three gods – Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva. Koat(i) = ten million. Tayteesa = 33. Haiyrut = amazement. 1. Bulvunt(i) = powerful (Maya). Biyaap(i) Ruhee = is affecting (captivating). Muhee = earth; world. Uver(u) Na = none else. Merma = secrets. Luhee = removed. Pause. Jeet(i) Jeet(i) = win over (control) one-by-one. Bhuvun = universe. Luptuhee = clings; grips tightly. Chayri = slave. 2.
MEANING: The powerful Maya is influencing the whole world. Nobody, other than the Guru, knows its secrets (how to mitigate its effects or make it ineffective); it can be removed (made ineffective) only by the grace of the Guru. Pause. Those who call themselves (claim to be) hermits, yogis, or knowledgeable of the Shastras, are all controlled by Maya. Even the three popular gods and the other 330 million gods are taken aback by the effects of Maya (they cannot escape it). 1. Controlling one by one, Maya has controlled the whole universe and takes everybody in its grip. Maya stays away only from the Guru (or other true holy men), and drops on His feet (serves Him like a slave), oh Nanak. 2.5.14.

Bhuyee kulyaan, anund roop hooyee haiy, oobray baal, Gopal. 1. Ruhaou. Mil(i) Vur naari mungul gaaya, Tthaakur ka jaiykaar(u). Kuhou Nanak, tis(u) Gur bulihaari, jin(i) subh ka keeya oodhaar(u). 2.6.15.
Word Meaning: Ker = hands. Joarr(i) = fold; clasp. Baynti = request. Raakhay = protects. Doort(u) = sins. Mitaaya = eradicated. 1. Kulyaan = well-being; peace and comfort. Anund Roop = blissfulness. Oobray = salvaged. Baal = children. Gopal = God. Pause. Vur = husband (mind). Naari = devotees; senses. Mungul = song of happiness. Jaiykaar = praise the Lord. Oodhaar(u) = salvation. 2.
MEANING: When I prayed to Waheguru with folded hands (with respect and full concentration), Waheguru protected me and eradicated all my sins. 1. The Lord became very kind as a result of which, there is peace, comfort, and blissfulness everywhere. The kind Waheguru salvages everybody like His children. Pause. My mind and my senses joined together to sing the song of happiness in praise of the Lord. I offer to sacrifice my life (serve Him) for the Guru who has salvaged all of us, oh Nanak. 2.6.15.

Sadh sung(i) Nanak durs(u) paayo, binsiyo sugul nihora. 2.7.16.

Word Meaning: Soot = sons. Bundhup = friends; relatives. Bul(u) = force; support. Thohra = small; short-lived. Anik = countless. Rung = colours; attractions. Paykhay = saw. Bhora = minuscule. 1. Aah(i) = is. Moh(i) = I. Anaath = (spiritually) orphan. Nirgoon = without any virtue. Aahiyo = wish for. Dhora = support; shelter. Pause. Eehaan = here (in this world). Oohaan = there (next world). Jora = power; rule. Durs = sight. Binsiyo = ended. Nihora = complaints. 2.

MEANING: The support of the relatives, like the mother, the father, the brothers, the sons, and other friends, is very limited (they do not have the ability to save you from death). Their love is just one of the many attractive forms of the colourful Maya, of which not even a minuscule part accompanies the man after death. 1. There is no real relative of mine other than You, oh my Lord. I have no virtue, and I am an orphan in the spiritual world (have no guide); I wish for Your support only. Pause. I wish to sacrifice my life for Your holy Feet (for Your Naam); it is Your reign in this world, and the next. I had Your holy sight (made a connection with You) in the company (shelter) of the Guru, and all my complaints have ended, oh Nanak. 2.7.16.

Mil(i) Sadhu Hur(i) jus(u) gaavaiy Nanak, bhuvjul paar(i) puraayee. 2.8.17.

Word Meaning: Aal Jaal = worldly bonds. Bherm = misgivings. Tujaiy = (makes one) overcome. Sayti = with. Rung(i) = gets to love. Oopdaysh = advice. Drirraavaiy = reinforces. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. 1. Suhaayee = helpful. Bhaytay = on meeting (getting connected with). Bundh = bonds. Bisur(i) = forget. Na Kub-hoon = never. Pause. Kert Kert = performing (rituals). Buhou Bhaanti = of many different kinds. Neeki = good; worthy. Tthehraayee = made a decision. Bhuvjul = the world-sea. 2.

MEANING: The Guru is so helpful and is such a friend that all one's worldly bonds get broken on meeting with Him (acting on His Advice). One should never forget such a Guru, oh my friends. Pause. The Guru rids one of his worldly bonds, misgivings, and worldly attachments, and instills love for Waheguru in his mind. He reiterates such advice in one's mind that he begins to sing Waheguru's praise, and attains a blissful state. 1. Having performed countless religious rituals, I finally made the worthy decision to sing Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru so as to swim across the world-sea, oh Nanak. 2.8.17.

Achayt iyaanay baarik Nanak hum, Toom raakhou dhaar(i) kerie. 2.9.18.

Word Meaning: Khin = moment. Thaap(i) = after creating. Oothaapunhaara = destroyer. Keemut(i) = worth; magnificence. Runk(u) = pauper. Neech = low caste; immoral person. Jot(i) Dhuree = enlightens the mind. 1. Hurie = God. Soach = Undaysha = worry. Aik Ghuree = short-lived. Pause. Tayk = support. Achayt = unaware. Iyaanay = ignorant. Kerie = hand. 2.

MEANING: We should always remember our eternal God (recite His Naam). Why should we worry about things which are short-lived? Pause. Waheguru can create and destroy anything in a moment; nobody can find (determine) His magnificence (capabilities). He can convert a king into a pauper, or enlighten the mind of a low-caste (having no respect in society) in a second. 1. I have only Your support, oh my Perfect Satguru; I have come to Your shelter with the determination of my mind (with full faith). We are unaware and ignorant children of Yours; kindly protect us (from the attacks of Maya) by extending Your kind hand, begs Nanak. 2.9.18.

Word Meaning: Daata = provider. Bus-hou = reside. The = there. Bherm = misgiving. 1. Ja = where. Taahi = there. Pritpaaluk = raiser and nourisher. Pause. Smaarhoun = remember. Aahi = wish. Bidaani = of others. Laahi = ignored. 2.

MEANING: You are the provider for all the living beings; kindly come to reside in my mind, oh Waheguru. When the lotus-like soft Feet of Yours (Your love or Naam) dwell in some devotee's heart, no misgiving or darkness of ignorance is left there. 1. You are present there wherever I remember You, oh Lord. Please be kind so that I may sing Your praise, oh, the raiser and the nourisher of all, Waheguru. Pause. May I remember You with every breath; and wish only for You (Your worship), oh Waheguru. I have come to the shelter of the Creator, and have given up dependence on any other power, asserts Nanak. 2.10.19.

Word Meaning: Durs = sight; glimpse. Jus(u) = praise. Nis(i) = night. Bhoar = early morning; day. Pug = feet. Jhaaroun = dust off. Munoruth = objective. 1.
Tthaakur = Lord. Beeya = Hoar = other. Chit(i) = in mind. Chitvoun = think of. Rusn = (with the) tongue. Nirkhoun = look. Toomri Oar = in your direction. Pause.
Purakh = omnipresent God. Binou Kuroun = pray. Ker Joar(i) = with folded hands. Oodhrus(i) = is salvaged. Aakhi Foar = in the blink of an eye. 2.

MEANING: I sing Your praise day and night; kindly show me Your holy sight, oh dear Waheguru. My only objective is to dust off the feet of Your devotees (serve them with love and respect). 1.
There is nobody else like You, oh my Lord. I wish to think about You only in my mind, recite Your Naam with my tongue, and look only towards You (seek Your support only). Pause. With folded hands, I pray to the omnipresent Waheguru, who is kind to all, that He accepts me as His slave and enables me to recite His Naam all the time. Whoever does that gets salvaged in the blink of an eye, oh Nanak. 2.11.20.

Jun Nanak ung(u) keeya Prubh(i) kertaiy, ja kee koat(i) aiysi daasaayay. 2.12.21.

Word Meaning: Braham Loak = kingdom of Brahma. Roodur Loak = kingdom of Shiva. Dhaayay = attacks. Joh(i) = cast evil eye. Mul(i) = washing well. 1. Moh(i) = I. Goohuj = hidden. Paavko = fire (of desires). Purjaaray = burned completely. Pause.
Sadhik = those who purify their bodies by Yogic exercises. Jukh and Kinnur = assistants of the gods in different capacities. Kuntth(i) = (clinging) to the neck. Oorjhaayay = confounding; puzzling. Ung(u) = favour. Koat(i) = millions. Dasaayay = slaves.

NOTE: Hindus believe that their gods have their own territories (kingdoms).

MEANING: Maya has attacked the kingdoms of Brahma, Shiva, and Indra, but cannot cast an evil eye (to affect) the holy congregation of the Guru. In fact, it serves and washes the feet well of the holy congregation (in other words, Maya is a slave of the holy congregation). 1. The Guru has explained to me that Maya, in the form of a hidden fire of desires, has burned too many people badly (caused a great deal of harm to them). So, I have come to His shelter now (surrendered myself completely). Pause. Maya clings strongly to, and confounds the achieved Sidh yogis, the practising yogis, men, and different kinds of assistants to the gods. But the Creator Waheguru, who has millions of such slaves, has done a favour to me (and protected me from the attacks of Maya), oh Nanak. 2.12.21.

Word Meaning: Upjus(u) = bad reputation. Keerut(i) = praise. Durgeh = Waheguru's Court. Jum = angel of death. Traas = fear; dread. Khin = moment. Anund = blissfulness. Ghur(i) = mind. 1. Ghaal = hard labour. Birthi = empty; without reward. Aatth Pehr = 24 hours. Pause. Deen = powerless. Dookh Bhunjun = destroyer of suffering. Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in love. Daaseh = devotees. Paiyj = dignity. 2.

MEANING: One should always recite Waheguru's Naam with body and mind so that his hard labour as a devotee does not go unrewarded. Pause. With the recitation of His Naam, the bad reputation of the devotee is erased; the world begins to praise him, and he gets an honourable place in Waheguru's Court. The fear of the Angel of Death is destroyed instantly, and one attains blissfulness of mind. 1. I have taken the shelter of Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all sufferings; one receives only what You grant him, oh God. Waheguru protects the dignity of his devotees; I am imbued in the love of His lotus-like Feet, oh Nanak. 2. 13.22.

Word Meaning: Bisvumbhur = Daata = the provider for the whole world (Waheguru). Niful = without reward. Khin = moment. Oodhaar = salvation. 1. Churn Kumul = lotus-like feet (Waheguru's Naam). Raach(u) = get absorbed. Taahoo = Him. Jaach(u) = wish (beg) for. Pause. Kertay = the Creator. Praan Adhaar = basis of life. Suhaayee = helpful; benefactor. Kuhaa Kuray = what harm can be caused? 2.

MEANING: Get absorbed in the love of the lotus-like Feet of Waheguru, oh my mind. You, too, beg for (the union with) Him, who is worshipped by all human beings. Pause.

Waheguru is the provider for all living beings, and the treasures of His worship are always full (there is no shortage in His love, no matter how many people worship Him). Service to Him never goes unrewarded, and He can salvage one in a moment. 1.
You are the basis of my life; I have come to Your shelter, oh the Creator, oh God. What harm can the world cause to the devotee, whom You protect by Your benevolence, oh Waheguru, submits Nanak? 2.14.23.

Word Meaning: Jun = devotee. Paiyj = dignity. Suvaari = enhanced; protected. Uvkhudh(u) = medication; treatment. Taap(u) = fever (caused by smallpox). Pause. Hargobind (u) = the infant son of Guru Arjun Sahib who survived a severe attack of smallpox. Mitee = eradicated. Biyaadh(i) = suffering. 1. Ungikaar(u) = favour; support. Vudiyaayee = greatness. Abichul = eternal. Neev = foundation. Churraiy Suvaayee = increases in multiples. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru, Himself, enhances the dignity of His devotees. The Guru implants Waheguru's Naam in the devotee's heart as the medication by which all kinds of illnesses are cured. Waheguru saved the infant Hargobind from the severe attack of smallpox by His kindness. All sicknesses are eradicated, and it is all comfort when a devotee ponders on the virtues of Waheguru (sings His praise). 1. It was due to the greatness of the Guru that my Creator, Waheguru, did me a great favour. Guru Nanak has laid the eternal foundation of Waheguru's worship, which is multiplying (growing by leaps and bounds) every day. 2.15.24.

Word Meaning: Kubhoon Na = never. Cheet(u) = in mind. Dhundha = worldly affairs. Bihaani = spends. Aoudheh(i) = life. Goon Nidh(i) = source of virtues (God). Pause. Kaudi = extremely small amount of money. Jorut = accumulating. Kuptay = deceitful. Anik Joogut(i) = countless approaches. Dhaayo = moved quickly. Bisrut = forgetting. Muhaa Mohini = highly captivating (Maya). 1. Anugreh(u) = kindness. Gunhou = consider. Moh(i) Kmaayo = deeds done by me. Duyaal = Kirpaal = kind. Sookh Saagur = sea of comforts. 2.

MEANING: The man never applies his mind to (show his love for) Waheguru. His whole life is spent in worldly affairs, and he never sings praise of the source of all virtues - Waheguru. Pause. The deceitful accumulate wealth, but become pennywise (very stingy) and use countless approaches to save it quickly. He suffers countless troubles for forgetting Waheguru as captivating Maya swallows him (he forgets his own wellness in the desire to earn more and more of that). 1. Please be kind to me and forgive the evil deeds I have committed, oh my Lord. Waheguru is kind, compassionate, and the sea (source) of all comforts; I have come to His shelter, oh Nanak. 2.16.25

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam with your tongue, and quit all other dealings of Maya as they are spiritually unrewarding, oh my friend. Always recite Waheguru's Naam (remember God). Pause. Waheguru's Naam is the only support of His devotees in both worlds (this and the next). Waheguru Himself has kindly given His devotees Guru's spiritual Knowledge and the wisdom to differentiate between the good and the bad. 1.
I have come to the shelter of the omnipotent Waheguru, who is the source of all basic materials (is the creator of the universe). MEANING: With Guru's grace, I worshipped Waheguru and got all my doubts cleared. All my troubles, darkness of ignorance, and all my worldly fears have been removed, and all my sins have been washed away. 1. My mind is full of love for Waheguru's Naam. My daily dealings have become highly pure by worshipping Waheguru with the Words of the Guru in His shelter. Pause. All ritualistic recitation of some mantras, physical sufferings (to please some god), and countless other such rituals result in no gain in spirituality. Recitation of Waheguru's Naam is the only successful way (to find union with God). Waheguru, Himself, kindly protects His devotees (from the unholy effects of Maya), and all their objectives are achieved successfully. 2. Waheguru is omnipotent and should never be forgotten. He should rather be remembered with every breath. He has so many virtues that a single tongue cannot describe them all. The limitless Waheguru is always indescribable. 3. The kind Waheguru destroys all the troubles of the helpless (humble), and salvages them with His kindness. The recitation of Waheguru's Naam enables one to attain the everlasting high spiritual state (union with Waheguru). So, I have come to the shelter of the all-powerful Lord, oh Nanak. 4.3.29.

Word Meaning: Ahunboodh(i) = egoistic thoughts. Buhou Sughun = very intense; serious. Deerugh = long-lasting. Aukhudh(u) = medication. Kern Kaarun = Creator of the universe. Joag(u) = capable. 1. Baanchhiyaiy = wish for. Jun = a holy saint. Dhoor(i) = dust of the feet (his Words). Koat(i) = millions. Luheh(i) = are removed. Paatik = sins. Loacha = wish. Pause. Aad(i) Untay = in the beginning and at the end. Mudh(i) = in the middle. Kookri Bikraal = frightening dog. Rumnung = recitation. Jum Jaal = the net of death. 2. Moothaiy = robbed. Aavaguvun = rebirths. Mitut = eradicated. Joani Bhuvunt = going through different life forms; rebirths. 3. Kluttar = wife. Soor-rid = close friends. Teen Taap (caused by Maya) = the three accepted sufferings – physical, mental, and due to aggression. Julunt = burn; suffer. Nivaaray = removes. Hur(i) Jun = supreme devotee of God. 4. Bidh(i) = in different religious garbs. Bhermtay = wander around (aimlessly). Chhoat(i) = freedom from worldly bonds. Apaar = limitless. Drirr(u) = with firmness. 5.

MEANING: The effects of Maya are very intense and lead to the long-lasting disease of ego. The medication for this disease is only the Naam of the omnipotent creator of the universe - Waheguru - which can be given only by the Guru. 1. One should long for the dust of the Feet of the Guru (His Word) with full dedication of body and mind. Waheguru fulfills all the wishes of His devotees, and one's sins of many lives are washed away with Waheguru's Naam. Pause. The man lives with many hopes and expectations throughout his life – from the beginning, in the middle, and till the end. Such hopes are like a frightening, greedy dog (which causes the man to commit some heinous sins and crimes). But singing Waheguru's praise (reciting His Naam) with Guru's Knowledge (His Words), severs the noose of the Angel of death. 2. The individuals who are robbed of their good qualities by lust, rage, greed, and worldly attachments suffer rebirths in various life forms again and again. But worshipping Waheguru with devotion and reciting His Naam with love terminate rebirths. 3. (Attachment with) Friends, wife, sons, and near relatives cause the man to experience the three types of suffering. But, when the man recites Waheguru's Naam in the company of the Guru, or some holy men, all his sufferings are eradicated. 4. One cannot get rid of their suffering from worldly bonds by roaming the earth and crying for help (which many people do). However, taking shelter of the holy Feet (Naam) of the limitless Waheguru (leads to salvation), so I have held His Feet (His Naam) firmly, oh Nanak. 5.4.30.

Word Meaning: Doopuday = Shabad with two stanzas. Sridhur = husband of Maya = Waheguru. Suful = fully rewarding. Moorut(i) = persona. Kern Kaarun = source of all basic materials; creator of the universe. Joag(u) = capable. Rumun = recitation. Servun = listen. Apaar Mehma = unlimited glory. Biyoag(u) = (pain of) separation. 1. Churnaarbind = the lotus like Feet of (Waheguru). Oopaas = worship. Kul(i) = disputes. Kul(i)= this eon; world. Klaysh = suffering. Mitunt = are eradicated. Phaas = noose. Pause.
Shutar(u) = enemies (the five demons). Dehn = burn away; run away. Oopaaou = solution. Anugreh(u) = kindness; favour. Sooaaou = objective; self-interest. 2.

MEANING: Worship Waheguru which is the creator of the universe, and the holy sight of whom is fully rewarding. By singing His praise, and listening to His unlimited glory, one never suffers the pain of His separation. 1. Worship the lotus like Feet of Waheguru as a result of which all your sufferings will be eradicated, and the noose of the Angel of death will be severed (you will not be reborn again), oh my mind. Pause. By reciting Waheguru's Naam, all your enemies (the five demons) get burned away (become ineffective); there is no other solution (to find freedom from the bonds of Maya). Show kindness to me, oh my Lord, and grant me Your Naam, which is the objective of my life, oh Nanak. 2.31.

Word Meaning: Sumruth = capable; omnipotent. Daata = provider. Dookh-bhunjun = destroyer of troubles. Sookh Raayay = source of comforts. Klaysh = troubles. Bhaiy = worldly fears. Bherma = misgivings. 1. Tthaaoun = shelter. Parbraham = Waheguru; God. Pause. Vudaiy Bhaag = great fortune. Liv = focus on; be in tune with. Kuvul = heart. Pergaas = light; enlightened. Doormut(i) = immoral thoughts. 2. Deen = helpless. Daiyaala = kind; compassionate. Turaiy = find salvation. Oodhray = salvaged. Binsay = eradicated. Sugul Junjaala = all worldly bonds. 3. Adhaar(u) = support. Oat(i) Poat(i) = like the cross threads in a fabric; weft and woof. Saath(i) = with. 4.

MEANING: You are all capable (omnipotent), provider of shelter, the destroyer of all troubles, and the source of all comforts, oh, dear Waheguru. By singing Your praise, all the troubles and fears are eradicated, the mind becomes pure, and all the misgivings are cleared. 1. There is no place without You, oh Waheguru. Be kind to me so that I may recite Your Naam, oh, Lord Waheguru. Pause. One can come to Waheguru's feet (shelter) by serving the Guru. With good fortune, one can be in tune with Waheguru (focus on His Naam). One's heart begins to bloom in the shelter of the Guru, and he is able to get rid of his evil thoughts. 2. A devotee, who sings Waheguru's praise all the twenty-four hours, and recites the Naam of the Lord, which is always kind to the humble, finds salvation not just for himself, but also for his companions; and all their worldly bonds get severed. 3. Your Feet are (Your Naam is) the support of my life, oh my Lord. You are my permanent companion, and are mingled with me like the cross threads of fabric. I have come to Your shelter. Muhaa gumbheer, puttar pataala, Nanak serb jooaya. Oopdaysh Guru mum pooneh(i) na gerbhun(g), bikh tuj, Amrit peeyaya. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Nugri = human body. Punch Choar = the five demons (lust, rage, etc.). Busiulay = reside. Burjut = forbidding. Dhaavaiy = attack. Trih = the three effects of Maya. Dus = the ten senses – five natural senses and their five implementers. Maal = possessions. Moakh Mookut = freedom from Maya. 1. Chaytou = remember, Baasdayo = Waheguru. Bunvaali (the basis of all) vegetation. Jupmaali = rosary. Pause. Oordh = high above.

Mool = the basis (Waheguru). Shaakh = branches; the whole world. Tulaaha = downwards; under (the effect of Maya). Bayd = Vedas. Laagay = occupied; describe. Sehj Bhaayay = easily; without any special effort. Live = focus on Waheguru (connection with Him). Jaagay = awake; alert. 2. Parjaat = a mythical tree believed to fulfil all wishes. Aangun = yard (heart). Poohp = flowers. Puttar = leaves. Tut(u) = the basis of the universe – Waheguru. Daala = branches. Jot(i) = Waheguru's light. Nirunjun = unaffected by Maya (God). Sumbhoo = self-illuminated. Junjaala = bonds of Maya. 3. Sikhvuntay = fresh devotee. Binvaiy = requests. Poonrup(i) = again. Aik = the one and only Waheguru. Kaala = death. 4. Kuthiulay = is called. Vaiyd = physician. Roagi = patient. Tis(u) = that (Waheguru). Kaarun(i) = because of (the recitation of His Naam). Dhunda = bonds of Maya. Girhi = family man. Joagi = yogi = detached from Maya. 5.
Giyan = Divine Knowledge; connection with God. Tujiulay = give up. Tis = thirst; desire. Avigut = invisible (Waheguru). 6. Daat(i) = gift; largess. Sayt Bern = (of) white colour; nervous. Doota = the demons. Braham Kumul = (of the) lotus flower of Waheguru's Naam. Mudh(u) = honey. Taas(u) = of that (Kumul). Rusaadun(g) = tastes. Jaagut = awake; alert. 7. Gumbheer = unemotional; never changing. Puttar = leaves; expanse. Pataala = the world. Jooaya = connected with. Mum = me; mine. Pooneh(i) = again. Gerbhun(g) = in the womb; rebirths. Bikh(u) = poisonous Maya. 8.

MEANING: There are five robbers (lust, rage, greed, attachment, and ego) residing in the sole human body. They attack stealthily to rob the human body of its virtues despite the fact that they are constantly forbidden by the human mind to do so. But an individual, who (by keeping Waheguru in mind), is able to protect his virtues from being robbed by the three effects of Maya and the ten senses and their implementers, and to attain salvation. 1. So (to protect your virtues) you should always keep Waheguru in mind; and His Naam in your heart should serve as the rosary (you do not need any ritualistic rosary), oh man. Pause. Maya, whose basis, Waheguru, is above its effects while the rest of the world is under its effects, is discussed by all four Vedas. Its effects can be easily rendered ineffective when one stays alert to its attacks by connecting with Waheguru (reciting His Naam with full dedication). 2. Many people believe that the Parjaat tree fulfills all one's wishes. (But, disregarding the importance of the Parjaat tree), I have connected with Waheguru, the creator of the whole universe, including the mythical Parjaat tree, along with its flowers, leaves, and branches, and I feel as if the Parjaat has grown in the yard of my heart. Now all my bonds with Maya have been broken. You, too, should make your heart a dwelling for Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, is self-illuminating, and whose light is lighting the whole world. As a result, you will be able to attain freedom from Maya (emancipation), oh, my friends. 3. Listen to my request, oh, the young devotee, and do not get trapped in the attractive nets of Maya. If you think deeply and connect with Waheguru, you will never suffer from birth and death again. 4. A man who makes a connection with Waheguru and has His Naam enshrined in his heart does not get too deeply involved in worldly affairs. Only he is the real Guru, the real Sikh, and the real physician who understands others' mental state. Such an individual is a real yogi (who has renounced Maya) while living in the family. 5. With Guru's grace, a devotee, who recites the Naam of the invisible Waheguru, which is the basis of the whole universe, and acquires Him in his heart, gets rid of his lust, rage, ego, greed, worldly attachments, and his desire for Maya. 6. Getting connected with God and concentrating on His Naam are the gifts of Waheguru, as a result of which all the demons become nervous. The devotee feels as if the honey of Waheguru's Naam-flower is dripping in his mind, and he is enjoying it. He stays awake (alert) against Maya's attacks. 7. The never-changing Waheguru, which is the Lord of the whole world, is connected with everybody (is omnipresent). With Guru's Advice, I am drinking Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, and have severed all the bonds with the poisonous Maya. Now, I will never enter the womb (be reborn) again, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Kuvun Kuvun = who and who? How many? countless. Jaacheh(i) = beg. Na Pureh(i) Shoomaar = cannot find the limit. Ubh = heart, mind. Sumruth = fully capable. Sach(u) = everlasting. Dayvunhaar = provider. 1. Aiy Ji = oh dear. Jup(u) = ritualistic recitation of mantras. Tup(u) = self-torture. Sunjum = control over senses. Adhaar = basis. Bhundaar = treasures. Pause. Soon Smaadh(i) = state of meditation where no thoughts come to mind. Aika Aiki = Waheguru and Waheguru alone. Shabad(u) = Huqam (Command). Thul(u) = land. Gugun = sky. 2. Tud(i) = at that time. Mugun = absorbed in. Chhaaya = effects (of Maya). Apaar = limitless. Drishit = sight. Loachun = eyes. Ubh = heart. Tirbhuvun = universe. 3. Koat(i) Taytees = the 330 million gods (as per Hindu belief). Jaachik = beggars. Nayak = leader. Toat(i) = shortage. Bhundaar = treasures. Oondhay = upside down (turned away). Bhaanday = heart. Nihaar = see; watch. 5. Smaadhi = meditation. Jaacheh(i) = wish for. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Jaikaar = acclaim; applaud. Parkaar = kind. 6. Buday Bhaag = great fortune. Bhayd = difference. Mooraar = Waheguru. Johaiy = watches closely; gives a warning. Boojheh(i) = realizes; makes a connection. 7. Ub Tub = now and then; always. Uver(u) = other. Nirunjun = Waheguru. Chaatrik = rainbird = a mythical bird which drinks the first drop of rain (wishes for rain). 8.

MEANING: There is no limit to the number of people who beg at the door of Waheguru. You are capable of fulfilling the wish of everybody, whatever they may have in mind, oh Waheguru. 1. You are the basis of all jup(u), tup(u), and sunjum(u) (they are all useless), oh dear Waheguru. Your Naam is the source of all comfort, and Your treasures are full of Your worship (You love all Your devotees). Kindly gift me Your Naam. Pause.

Before Waheguru created the universe, He was in a state of meditation, in which no thoughts came to mind, and He alone was thinking of (planning) His future Command. At that time, there was no water, land, earth, or sky. Waheguru created everything Himself. 2.

At that time, there was no Maya, and no one was influenced by its effects. There was no sun, no moon, or the light of the limitless Waheguru in anyone. Your eye (mind), which could see the whole universe, was in Your own heart (thoughts). Only You had the sight which could plan to look after the whole universe, oh Lord. 3. Waheguru created air, water, and fire (energy), and also Brahma, Vishnu, and Mahesh (Shiva), and other bodies. Everybody is the beggar at Your door, and You are the provider, and fulfill the needs of everybody as You deem fit, oh Lord. 4. Even the 330 million gods are beggars at Your door; You are their leader (provider) and give them lavishly, yet there is no shortage of anything in Your treasures. Just like an upside-down vessel does, which does not get any rainwater (only the vessel which is right side up receives it), a human heart, which is turned away from Waheguru, does not receive His Naam. But the human heart, which is in tune with Him, receives the Naam-Amrit, and you can watch (recognize) it, oh my friends. 5.

The Sidh yogis beg for supernatural powers during meditation and applaud Waheguru when they receive them. Waheguru bestows the kind of water (gift) that the individual has thirst for. 6. There is no difference between the Guru and Waheguru; an individual with good fortune serves the Guru (and hence Waheguru). The devotee, who makes a connection with Waheguru by pondering on the Shabad of the Guru, has neither the fear of death nor any warning from the Angel of death. 7. I never ask for anything other than Waheguru's Naam with love. I am like a rainbird which always longs for the first drop of rain water; I beg for the Naam-Amrit. Please be kind and give me (Nanak) Your praise to sing, oh Waheguru. 8.2.

Word Meaning: Aiy Ji = oh, the respected (Waheguru). Phoonn(i) = again. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Raatay = imbued. Put(i) = dignity. 1. Chit(i) = mind. Jaachay = wish for. Budaayee = respect; greatness. Pause. Bhaykh = donning different religious garbs. Bhikhiya = alms. Oodur(u) = stomach. Kaiy Taayee = for. Gerb = conceit; ego. 2. Kaal(u) = death. Tthaadhay = hangs; looms. Baiyraayee = enemy. Ruttay = imbued. Baachay = escaped. Boojh Boojhaayee = imparted wisdom. 3. Joh = watch aggressively. Doot = Angel of death. Suntaayee = cause suffering. Avigut(i) = invisible (Waheguru). Nath = Lord. Nirbhuou = fearless. 4. Dirrhou = recite again and again. Liv = connect with mentally. Tayk = support. Tikaayee = stay in the shelter. Tis(u) = Him (Waheguru). Bhaavaiy = likes. Kirt(u) = deeds done in the past. 5. Uver = other. Ub Tub = now and then; always. Aad(i) Joogaad(i) = from the beginning of everything (always). Sukhaayee = friend. 6. Paiyj = dignity. Siyoun = with. Bun(i) Aayee = liking for. Ders(u) = sight. 7. Aaya Jaayee = comes and goes; perishable. Pdaaruth(u) = desired valuable thing (Naam). Kuntth(i) = in the throat; on the tongue. 8.

MEANING: The Sikhs of the Guru get imbued in Waheguru's Naam, attain a high spiritual state, and win respect because of the recitation of the Naam. On the other hand, the individuals who turn their faces away from the Guru (do not act on His Advice) keep taking births and dying. 1. So, apply your mind to Waheguru's Naam, oh my friends. It is the greatness of the Naam that the Sikhs long for the grace of the Guru to have a glimpse of Waheguru (get connected with Him). Pause. The man uses a variety of religious garbs to beg alms to feed himself, but he cannot enjoy mental peace, nor can he overcome his ego without Waheguru's worship. 2. The fear of death always looms over his head, which is one's enemy in everyday life. But those who take Guru's Advice, stay imbued in His eternal Shabad, and escape the fear of death (the fear of death does not trouble them). 3. The Angel of Death is no longer frightening to those who take the Guru's shelter, and the agents of death cannot trouble them. They get connected with the invisible Lord, which is above the effects of Maya, and stay imbued in His Naam. 4. Stay in the Guru's shelter, and recite Waheguru's Naam again, and again to connect with Him, oh my dear friends. However, the consequences of your previous deeds cannot be erased, and Waheguru does whatever He deems right. 5. I have rushed to take Your shelter as I do not like any other shelter, oh Waheguru. I always seek the help of the "one and the only" Waheguru (recite only His Naam), which is my friend from the beginning (in every eon). 6. I can be friends only with You; please preserve the dignity of Your Naam (accept me as Your devotee), oh Waheguru. Please be kind and connect me with the Guru so that I may burn away my ego with His Shabad. 7.

There is nothing in this world worth asking for, because everything visible in this world is perishable – everything comes and goes. Nanak begs only for Your Naam, which I want to harbour in my mind and on my tongue, oh Waheguru. 8.3.

Word Meaning: Ootum = superior. Neech = of low caste; inferior. Mudhim = middle class. Shernaagut(i) = in the shelter of. Ruttay = imbued. Baiyraagi = detached from Maya. Soag = grief. Biyoag = (pain of) separation. Bisurjut = given up; free from. Roag = disease; suffering. 1. Tthaakur = Lord; Waheguru. Vaak(i) = Word; Advice. Kaan(i) = debt; owe. Baaki = balance. Pause. Rusn = tongue. Ruveh(i) = recite. Sungay = with; is around Tis(u) = Him. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. Birtha = empty; worthless. Nihphul = without any reward; fruitless. Mayk = single. Ghuree = a short period of time. 2. Khoatay = impure; dishonest. Tthaur = shelter. Ninduk = malicious critic; vilifier. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Roas(u) = complain; resent. Bukhsh = largess; donation. Maytay = erase; withdraw. Bhaayee = like. 4. Bilm = delay. Adhooa Raayee = half the size of a grain; extremely small. Anund Mool = blissful. Nath = Lord. 5. Duyyal = kind. Ruvviya = is present. Bhermun(i) = fickleness (vagary) of mind.

Paarus = touch (elixir) stone. Bhayt = meet; touch. Kunchun = gold. Sat Sungut = gathering of holy men. Vudiyaayee = greatness. 6. Hur(i) Jun = God's man; a perfect devotee. Nirmul = pure. Mujun = bath; dip. Poonrup(i) Junum = rebirth. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. 7. Vud Purakh = Supreme Being. Agumm = inaccessible. Trovar = tree. Punkhi = birds. Mahi = guard; one who looks after. Nirunjun = above the effects of Maya (Waheguru). Slaahi = sing praise. 8.

MEANING: I belong neither to a high class, nor to a low class, nor to a middle class of society. I am God's man, and live in His shelter. I am imbued in His Naam, and am detached from Maya. Therefore, I do not suffer from any grief or pain of separation. I am free from all such sufferings. 1. With Guru's grace, I am a worshipper of the Lord, Waheguru. My heart is pure now as I have Waheguru's Naam in it with the Shabad of the Guru. Now, I do not owe anything to the Angel of death, and there is no balance of any ignoble deeds against me. Pause. Waheguru's devotees sing Waheguru's praise and always think of Him around them. They gladly accept everything that Waheguru does and feel blissful. Life in the world is worthless without Waheguru's Naam, and every moment without Him is fruitless. 2. The dishonest people (disrespectful of Waheguru) find no shelter (peace) inside and outside in the world. Such vilifiers never attain a high spiritual state. They always complain and never appreciate the gifts of God, but Waheguru never withholds any of His gifts for them; in fact, His gifts keep increasing all the time. 3. Nobody can erase (prevent) the gift of the Guru (Waheguru's Naam) because the Lord Himself makes the Guru give the gift. The vilifiers do not enjoy Guru's gift, and have always vilification on their tongue (and in mind) as a result of which their faces are blackened (are disgraced). 4. When a devotee comes to Waheguru's shelter, He does not take even a short moment to connect him with Self (Waheguru). God, which is the Lord of all lords, and which is the source of all bliss, connects the devotee with the Guru, who connects the devotee with Waheguru. (Only the Guru can connect with Him). 5. Guru's Word removes all the misgivings of the people who realize that Waheguru, which is always kind, is present everywhere. Like the elixir stone, which converts the base metals into gold with its touch, a common man gets transformed into a holy man in the company (shelter) of the Guru. 6. The devotees of Waheguru bathe their minds in Waheguru's Naam, as a result of which their minds become pure. Satguru likes only such bathing (purification of mind). In the company of the holy men (Guru), the soul of the devotee merges into the Supreme Soul, and he never takes birth again. 7. You are the Supreme being, oh the inaccessible Waheguru. You are like a tree, while we are like the birds on it (we survive spiritually in Your shelter). You are above the effects of Maya, oh Waheguru; kindly grant me Your Naam, which I may recite through the eons (all the time) with Satguru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 8.4.

Word Meaning: Araadhitun(g) = worship. Piyaas = thirst; longing. Perm = supreme. Hitun(g) = affection. Bil-laap Bilul = implore; pray. Binuntiya = request. Bhaayay = (with) love. 1. Sherni = in the shelter of. Taarun = one, which ferries across. Rum = recite. Kerni = lifestyle; performing deeds. Pause. Mirt = death (detachment from Maya). Shoobh Chintun(g) = well-wishing. Rumnun(g) = recite (Naam). Giyan = Divine Knowledge; connection with God. Kulyaan = wellbeing. Nidhaanun(g) = treasure. 2. Chul Chit = fickleness of mind. Vit = wealth. Bherma = in doubt. Bhermun(g) = wanders everywhere. Moh Mugun = absorbed in worldly attachments. Hitun(g) = in love. Thir(u) = everlasting. Drirr = firm up. Mutee = wisdom. Vaak(i) = Words; Advice. Rutun(g) = imbued. 3. Bherm = misgivings. Chookyee = goes away; removed. Biyaadh(i) = disease; suffering. Khupun(g) = suffer without any achievement. Usthaan(u) = shelter. Nihkayvulin(g) = detached from Maya. Sat(i) Mutee = wisdom that connects with Waheguru; pure mind. Tupun(g) = worship. 4. Hayt = for. Biyaaptun(g) = is affected (influenced). Adhik = much. Oobreh(i) = salvaged. Rid = in the heart. Rumnun(g) = recite Naam. 5. Nihchul = never changing. Mun(i) = in mind. Munun(g). accept; convinced. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. Nirmul(u) = pure. Giyan = Divine Knowledge; connection with God. Ruttan Saarun(g) = supreme; valuable item. 6. Bhaiy = (God's) fear. Bhaayay = with affection. Tur(u) = swim across. Bhuvjul = the world sea; sea of Maya. Chit Laayay = apply mind. Puvittar(u) Paavun(u) = pure; pious. Tuou = Yours. 7. Lehir = wave; emotions. Nivaarnun(g) = remove; take off. Raas(i) = wealth. Munun(g) = accept; get convinced. 8.

MEANING: Those who worship (recite Naam of) Waheguru with affection and respect, feel a strong thirst (attraction) for Him. They pray only at His door and enjoy the blissfulness of His love in their heart. 1. Recite Waheguru's Naam in His shelter, oh my mind. Make the recitation of Waheguru's Naam your lifestyle; Waheguru's Naam is the ship to ferry you across the sea of Maya, oh my mind. Pause. Remember Waheguru with Guru's Shabad, and kill your desires for Maya with that. Killing desires for Maya leads to bliss. Those who keep Waheguru in mind acquire the wisdom (thinking) by which they connect with God and enjoy wellbeing (comforts). 2. The world is lost in its love for worldly attachments, and its fickle mind always wanders after wealth (which does not stay with them forever). Only Waheguru's worship is everlasting; so, one should reinforce it in his mind by reciting the Guru's Shabad with love and get imbued in it. 3. (Some people roam the earth to get away from worldly attractions), But one cannot get rid of his misgivings by roaming the earth. The people actually suffer because of this disease (of misgivings) after taking birth in the world. Only Waheguru's shelter enables the man to get detached from Maya. Reciting Waheguru's Naam with a pure mind is the real worship. 4.

Under the influence of its love for worldly attachments, the world suffers much and stays in the birth-death cycle for a long, long time. But, without wasting any time, one can attain salvation by taking the Guru's shelter and by reciting Waheguru's Naam. 5.
When a man obeys the Guru's Advice with full dedication, his mind becomes stable (quits wandering), and his thoughts stay in the blissful state (where Maya has no effect). By getting connected with Waheguru, such a mind becomes perfectly pure in which the jewel-like Waheguru's supreme Naam comes to reside. 6. Apply your mind to Waheguru's Naam, and swim across the sea of Maya by worshipping Waheguru with respectful fear and with love, oh man. When a man takes Waheguru's shelter and surrenders his body (and mind) to Him, his heart becomes pure with Waheguru's Naam in there. 7.
With Waheguru's Naam in mind as his wealth, one is able to get rid of the waves of his greed for tasty foods and greed in general. Only Waheguru can enable a man to control his mind; I am in the shelter of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.1.5.

Khund Brahmund traiy goon naachay jin laagi Hur(i) live Toomaari. Jea junt subhay hee naachay, naacheh(i) khaani chaari. 5. ----------

Word Meaning: Nirt(i) = dance = Nuchaayee. Aap(u) = selfishness; ego. Guvaayee = lose; get rid of. Chit = mind. Thir(u) = unwavering. Ichhee = wishes. 1. Bhaanaiy = as per His liking. Untay = at the end. Bhuou = fear. Pause. Aap(i) = (Waheguru) Himself. Maarug(i) Paayay = show the right path. 2. Undin(u) = every day; always. Shukut(i) = (effects of) Maya. Nivaaraiy = eliminates. Shiv = source of bliss, Waheguru. Neend = sleep; negligence. Taapaiy = jumps. Uvro = other (Maya). 3. Soor(i) Nur = gods-like men. Virt(i) Pukh = detached from Maya. Kermee = by deeds. Moon(i) jun = sages who stay quiet for long times; hermits. Sadhik = practising to become a Sidh yogi. Live Laagi = in meditation. 4. Khund = a part of the universe. Brahmund = universe. Traiy Goon = humans under the influence of the three effects of Maya. Liv = make a bond with God. Khaani Chaaray = living beings of all the four sources of reproduction. 5.

MEANING: (Some people believe that they can please their deity by dancing before the idol, but Guru Sahiban strongly disapproves of such thinking.) Guru Amar Dass Ji advises that to please Waheguru, rather than dancing with his body before the Guru, one needs to make his heart dance in joy (by making that a dwelling for Waheguru). If one dances as per the wishes of the Guru, he acquires all the comforts of mind (blissfulness) and faces no fear of the Angel of death at the end. Pause. When one's heart dances in a blissful state, one can kill one's selfishness and ego with the Guru's grace. A man who controls his mind from wavering is able to break all his bonds with Maya and reap the rewards as per his wishes. 1. A man is considered Waheguru's devotee if Waheguru Himself makes his heart dance, and if Waheguru Himself implants His love in the devotee's heart. When that happens, it is Waheguru which dances and sings in the devotee's heart, and shows the right path to enlighten the blind mind. 2. The man, who comes to Waheguru's shelter, never sleeps (never becomes unaware against the attacks of Maya), and overcomes the effects of Maya. His mind dances in a blissful state all the time. On the other hand, a Maya-loving person is asleep (unaware of Maya's attacks) all the time, and he physically dances and jumps while enjoying Maya's gimmicks. Such a person has his face turned away from the Guru, and can never worship Waheguru. 3. The minds of the godly people who are detached from Maya, dance by their deeds (and not by their body). The hermits dance when they ponder on Divine Knowledge. The Sidhs and the practising yogis on the spiritual path dance when they acquire the thoughtful wisdom of the Guru. 4.
The humans of the earth and of the universe, which are normally under the influence of the three traits of Maya, dance when they meditate on You. However, most living beings of all the four sources of reproduction, dance at the hands of Maya. 5.

Word Meaning: Tut(u) = the basis of all – God. Huqam = Command; Will. 6.
Sachay Siyoun = with Waheguru. Jeevut Muraiy = break all bonds with Maya. 7.

Urth(i) = for the sake of. Virla = some rare. 8. Ikk(u) Dum(u) = a single moment. Veesraiy = forgotten. Vayla = time. Birtha = useless. Smaaliyaiy = remember. Rujaayay = will. 9. Bhaaveh(i) = like. Sehj = the state of bliss. Nudr(i) = kind sight. 10.

MEANING: Only those devotees dance to Your tune whom You like, and who make a bond with You with Guru's Shabad, oh Waheguru. Those are the real devotees, and are knowledgeable about (have made connection with) Waheguru (which is the basis of all life), and whom He makes obey His Command (Will). 6. The real worship of Waheguru is the one where a devotee concentrates on Waheguru's Naam (bonds with Him); however, there is no worship without the service to the Guru. But there is a rare devotee who realizes Waheguru by pondering on the Guru's Shabad, and thereby killing his desires for Maya while living in the family. 7. Many people dance at the hands of others for the purpose of Maya, but there are only some rare devotees who ponder on the reality (Waheguru, which is the basis of the whole universe). Only that devotee realizes Waheguru, to whom He is kind, by the grace of the Guru. 8. Every moment of life goes to waste when Waheguru is forgotten. One should remember Him with every breath, but that happens only when He bestows His Naam with His Will. 9. Only they dance to Your tune, whom You like because they ponder on Guru's Shabad in His shelter, oh Waheguru. Those whom Waheguru is kind, enjoy the comfort of the blissful state, oh Nanak. 10.1.6.

Word Meaning: Jeeura = soul; mind. Kheer = milk. Adhaari = dependent on. Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Bulihaari = sacrifice. 1. Keerut(i) = by praising. Tur(u) = swim across (the sea of Maya). Taari = swimming. Pause. Sunuk, Snundun, Naarud = sons of Brahma. Moon(i) = sages who stay quiet for very long times. Undin(u) = every day. Bunvaari = a name for Waheguru. Shernaagut = in shelter. Prehlad = a devotee of Waheguru in Satyug. Paiyj = dignity. Suvaari = enhanced. 2. Alukh = incomprehensible. Vertaiy = operates. Mooraari = a name for Waheguru. Jaachik = beggars. Daata = provider. Pusaari = by spreading. 3. Ootum = superior; polite. Bani = language; spoken words. Akuth Kuthaa = indescribable stories (virtues) of (Waheguru). Niyaari = unique. Bhuyya = became. Kayra = of. Turay = swam across the sea of Maya. Kool = associates. 4. Doobidha = caught between different choices; indecisiveness. Doormut(i) = evil mind. Biyaapay = are affected. Goobaari = darkness. Bhaavaiy = like. Doobay = drown in the sea of Maya. Sun = including. Pervaari = family; associates. 5. Ninduk = malicious critics; vilifiers. Mul(u) = filth of deeds. Mul Bhukh = eaters of filth; usurpers of others' wealth. Mayadhaari = lovers of Maya. Oorvaari = the near end of the sea of Maya (this world). Paari = the far end (next world). 6. Perpunch = the world. Kul = power. Dhaari = acquire; keep. Soot(u) = thread (of Waheguru's Huqam). Khinchaiy = pulls out. Ekunkaari = only Him. 7. Rusn(i) Rusn(i) = with the tongue. Rus(i) = while enjoying. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Maangoun = beg for. 8.

MEANING: Like a child, which is dependent upon milk for food (and cannot live without it), my mind cannot live without Waheguru. I wish to sacrifice my life for my Satguru because the inaccessible and the incomprehensible Waheguru can be realized only in His shelter. 1. The sea of Maya can be swum across only by singing Waheguru's praise, oh, my mind. Waheguru's Naam is the real Amrit, which can be acquired in the shelter of the Guru, that too with the benevolence of Waheguru. Pause. Sunuk, Snundun, Nard, and the hermits serve Waheguru all the time and recite His Naam. Waheguru protects His devotees like Prehlad, who come to His shelter in every way, and enhances their dignity. 2. The incomprehensible Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, operates all by Himself, and it is only His light that is present in everybody. Waheguru is the only provider, while everybody else is a beggar at His Door, begging with his hands spread out. 3. Waheguru's devotees use a sweet language with which they sing the unique virtues of the indescribable Waheguru every day. Their life becomes successful (as they achieve the objective of life of getting connected with Waheguru). Not only do they find (attain) salvation for themselves, they also get their associates salvaged. 4. But those who do not believe in Satguru have an evil mind and suffer from indecisiveness. Because of their worldly attachments, they have spiritual darkness in their mind. They do not like the stories of holy saints, as a result of which they drown in the sea of Maya along with their family of associates. 5. The vilifiers actually wash away the filth of the misdeeds of others by vilifying them. They are money lovers who usurp others' rights. The vilification of the holy men has its negative impact on them, and they are neither on this side of the sea of Maya (are not detached from Maya in this world), nor do they reach the other side of the sea (to reach Waheguru's Court). (They die attached to Maya), so they drown in the middle of the sea (stay engrossed in Maya) (and keep taking rebirths). 6. But the living beings are helpless in controlling their behaviour to a great degree because Waheguru has created the whole world like a drama (in which we are just actors with defined roles). He keeps the world in control with His powers. Waheguru's Laws are the thread that keeps the whole universe together. When He pulls the thread, the universe collapses, and only He remains. 7.

The devotees of Waheguru sing Waheguru's praise all the time and enjoy the sweet taste of His Naam. I do not beg anything other than Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. The sweet taste of Waheguru's love is very dear to me. 8.1.7.

Word Meaning: Rajun Meh = among the rajahs. Kuhiyeh(i) = is considered; is believed. Bhoomun = landlords. Tthaakur = lord. Komun = clan. 1. Pitaa = father; God. Buddo = grea; supreme. Dhunee = wealthy; provider; Lord. Agumma = beyond reach. Oostut = praise. Kertay = oh, the Creator. Paykh = to see. Bisma = wonder-struck. Pause. Sookhiun = enjoying comforts. Daatun = donors. Tayjun = Tayjvunsi = glorious; majestic. Rusiun = enjoying tastes of life. Raata = mixed well. 2. Soorun = valiant. Bhogun = enjoying the luxuries of life. Gristun = family men. Buddo = great; top. Jogun = yogis. 3. Kertun = creators; inventors. Aachaarun = performer of religious rituals. Shaahun = money lenders; wealthy. Vapaarun = businessmen; traders. 4. Durbaar = courts. Shern Paalun = providing shelter. Teeka = prince; leader. Lukhimi = Maya = wealth.

Kaytuk = how much. Seeka = coins. 5. Naamun = famous; respected. Giyanun = knowledgeable. Joogtun = having great techniques; lifestyle. Ishnaanun = bathe; purity of mind. 6. Siddha = power. Kermun = noble deeds. Aagiya = Huqam = command; will. 7. Jiyoun = as (You wish). Tiyoun = the same way. Koodrut(i) = nature; ability. Jus(u) = (Waheguru's) praise. Ut(i) = extremely. 8.

MEANING: (Because Waheguru is present in every living being, it is His power and abilities which are operating in everybody. He is also the supreme power, so He is the greatest, and greater than anybody else). My father (Waheguru) is the supreme Lord and is inaccessible. Who can sing His full praise? Everybody is wonderstruck to see His beautiful and diverse creations in nature. Pause. (Because of Your omnipresence) You are the supreme King among kings, and the biggest land-Lord among landlords, oh my majestic Waheguru. MEANING: The Lord, Waheguru, is a friend of the weak (powerless), purifier of the immoral, destroyer of fears, kind, and treasure (source) of all virtues. Service to Him makes devotees' lives successful (they are salvaged). 1. Waheguru is the Guru and the provider for the whole world. I have come to Your shelter, oh kind Waheguru. Kindly ferry me across the world sea. Pause. When a devotee loves Waheguru like a bumblebee loves the sap of flowers, He (God) destroys the lust and the rage of the devotee, and burns his worldly attachments with which he is intoxicated. Kindly eliminate the suffering of rebirths and protect my dignity (I am humiliated by my sensual desires), oh, the supporter of the world, and the source of supreme bliss, Waheguru. 2. I am burning (suffering) from the countless waves of Maya (which arouse my sensual desires); however, they can be controlled by having the mantra of Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Advice at heart. Kindly destroy my ego, thereby eliminating my worries, oh, the compassionate, limitless, and omnipresent Waheguru. 3. Recite the Naam of the omnipotent Waheguru every second and every moment, which causes you to focus on Him to attain the state of blissfulness, oh my friends. The kind Waheguru, which is the friend of the humble, is Perfect and always happy (has no worries). I long for the dust of the Feet of the Guru (His Advice) (which connects one with Waheguru).

4. Worldly attachments are false (short-lived); man's hopes and expectations about lust and immoral deeds (sensual pleasures) lead to a bad end (the individuals are punished in Waheguru's Court). Kindly dispel my misgivings, protect my high morality, and rescue me, oh (formless) Waheguru. 5. Those poor people who did not have any clothes on their bodies become wealthier with full treasures than the wealthy when they acquire Waheguru's Naam. Those who were stupid, foolish, and unwise become full of virtues and of patience with a kind sight of Waheguru. 6. When a devotee recites the Naam of the Lord of the world (Waheguru) with full faith and reverence, he becomes "living-emancipated". He realizes that Waheguru is omnipresent, and leads a lifestyle of a supreme Gurmukh, and becomes kind and compassionate to all living beings. 7.
Waheguru Himself grants His sight, His praise to the ears, and His Naam on the tongue of His devotees. He is always around, and His touch salvages even the immoral, oh Nanak. 8.1.2.5.1.1.2. 57.
