ਗੂਜਰੀ ਕੀ ਵਾਰ ਮਹਲਾ 3॥ ਸਿਕੰਦਰ ਬਿਰਾਹਿਮ ਕੀ ਵਾਰ ਕੀ ਧੁਨੀ ਗਾਉਣੀ॥
ੴ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਪ੍ਰਸਾਦਿ॥ ਸਲੋਕ ਮਹਲਾ 3॥

Goojri Kee Vaar Mehla 3: Sikandar Ibrahim kee Vaar kee dhooni Gauni.
Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i): Sloak Mehla 3:

ਇਹੁ ਜਗਤੁ ਮਮਤਾ ਮੁਆ ਜੀਵਣ ਕੀ ਬਿਧਿ ਨਾਹਿ॥ ਗੁਰ ਕੈ ਭਾਣੈ ਜੋ ਚਲੈ ਤਾ ਜੀਵਣ ਪਦਵੀ ਪਾਹਿ॥ ਓਇ ਸਦਾ ਸਦਾ ਜਨ ਜੀਵਤੇ ਜੋ ਹਰਿ ਚਰਣੀ ਚਿਤੁ ਲਾਹਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਨਦਰੀ ਮਨਿ ਵਸੈ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਹਜਿ ਸਮਾਹਿ॥ 1॥

Eh(u) jugut(u) mumta mooaa, jeevun kee bidh(i) naah(i). Gur kaiy bhaanaiy jo chullaiy, ta jeevun pudvee paah(i). Oye suda suda jun jeevtay, jo Hur(i) Churnee chit(u) laah(i). Nanak nudri mun(i) vusaiy, Gurmukh(i) sehj(i) smaah(i). 1.

NOTE: Guru Arjun Sahib has advised that this Vaar be sung to the tune of the Vaars of Sikandar and Ibrahim.

Word Meaning: Mumta = worldly attachments. Bidh(i) = technique; sense. Bhaanaiy = as per the wish. Pudvee = rank; high spiritual state. Chit(u) = mind. Sehj(i) = the blissful state of mind (above the effects of Maya).

MEANING: Because of its worldly attachments, the world is facing spiritual death and has no sense of living. One can achieve a high spiritual state by living one's life according to the Will of the Guru. Those devotees who stay connected with Waheguru's Feet (Naam) live forever (as they become a part of the eternal Waheguru). But, Waheguru's Naam takes dwelling in a devotee's heart only with the kindness of Waheguru when he stays in the blissful state (above the effects of Maya) in Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਅੰਦਰਿ ਸਹਸਾ ਦੁਖੁ ਹੈ ਆਪੈ ਸਿਰਿ ਧੰਧੈ ਮਾਰ॥ ਦੂਜੈ ਭਾਇ ਸੁਤੇ ਕਬਹਿ ਨ ਜਾਗਹਿ ਮਾਇਆ ਮੋਹ ਪਿਆਰ॥ ਨਾਮੁ ਨ ਚੇਤਹਿ ਸਬਦੁ ਨ ਵੀਚਾਰਹਿ ਇਹੁ ਮਨਮੁਖ ਕਾ ਆਚਾਰ॥
(ਅੰਗ 509)॥ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮੁ ਨ ਪਾਇਆ ਜਨਮੁ ਬਿਰਥਾ ਗਵਾਇਆ ਨਾਨਕ ਜਮੁ ਮਾਰਿ ਕਰੇ ਖੁਆਰ॥ 2॥

M:3: Undar sehsa dookh(u) haiy, aapaiy sir(i) dhundhaiy maar. Doojaiy bhaayay sootay kubheh(i) na jaageh(i), Maya moh piyaar. Naam(u) na chaytehi), Shabad(u) na veechaareh(i), eh(u) munmukh ka aachaar.

(PAGE 509): Hur(i) Naam(u) na paaya, junum(u) birtha guvaaya, Nanak Jum(u) maar(i) kuray khooaar. 2.

Word Meaning: Sehsa = anxiety; worries. Dhundhaiy = worldly involvements; bonds of Maya. Sir(i) Maar = mental pressures. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for the other (Maya). Sootay = asleep; unaware. Jaageh = awake; stay alert. Chayteh(i) = remember. Achaar = character. Birtha = empty; useless. Khooaar = discomfit. 2.

MEANING: Because of his involvement in worldly affairs (without Waheguru's Naam at heart), the man has mental pressures and suffers from anxieties and worries. Those who are asleep (engrossed) in the love for Maya never wake up (realize the truth). They have the character of paying no heed to the Advice of the Guru; they do not recite Waheguru's Naam, and do not ponder on the Guru's Shabad. They do not acquire Waheguru's Naam at heart, and waste away their life. Spiritual death kills their good qualities, as a result of which they suffer discomfiture, oh Nanak. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਆਪਣਾ ਆਪੁ ਉਪਾਇਓਨੁ ਤਦਹੁ ਹੋਰੁ ਨ ਕੋਈ॥ ਮਤਾ ਮਸੂਰਤਿ ਆਪਿ ਕਰੇ ਜੋ ਕਰੇ ਸੁ ਹੋਈ॥ ਤਦਹੁ ਆਕਾਸੁ ਨ ਪਾਤਾਲੁ ਹੈ ਨਾ ਤ੍ਰੈ ਲੋਈ॥ ਤਦਹੁ ਆਪੇ ਆਪਿ ਨਿਰੰਕਾਰੁ ਹੈ ਨ ਓਪਤਿ ਹੋਈ॥ ਜਿਉ ਤਿਸੁ ਭਾਵੈ ਤਿਵੈ ਕਰੈ ਤਿਸੁ ਬਿਨੁ ਅਵਰੁ ਨ ਕੋਈ॥ 1॥

Paurri: Aapna aap(u) oopaayon(u) tudhoun hoar(u) na koyee. Mutaa musoorut(i) Aap(i) kuray, jo kuray su hoyee. Tudhoun aakaash na pataal(u) haiy, na traiy loyee. Tudhoun Aapay aap(i) Nirunkar(u) haiy, na oput(i) hoyee. Jiyoun Tis(u) bhaavaiy tivaiy kuraiy, Tis(u) bin(u) uver(u) na koyee. 1.

Word Meaning: Oopaayon(u) = He created. Tudhoun = then. Mutaa = resolution. Musoorut(i) = consultation. Traiy Loyee = the three layers of the universe. Oput(i) = production; creation. Bhaavaiy = likes. Uver(u) = other. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru self-created Himself; there was none other at that time. There was none other to assist Him in His resolutions; only that happens which He does by His Will. There was no sky, underworld, or the three-layered universe at that time. There was only the formless Waheguru at the time, and no creation had yet occurred. He does whatever He likes; there is none other (like Him). 1.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:3॥ ਸਾਹਿਬੁ ਮੇਰਾ ਸਦਾ ਹੈ ਦਿਸੈ ਸਬਦੁ ਕਮਾਇ॥ ਓਹੁ ਅਉਹਾਣੀ ਕਦੇ ਨਾਹਿ ਨਾ ਆਵੈ ਨਾ ਜਾਇ॥ ਸਦਾ ਸਦਾ ਸੋ ਸੇਵੀਐ ਜੋ ਸਭ ਮਹਿ ਰਹੈ ਸਮਾਇ॥ ਅਵਰੁ ਦੂਜਾ ਕਿਉ ਸੇਵੀਐ ਜੰਮੈ ਤੈ ਮਰਿ ਜਾਇ॥ ਨਿਹਫਲੁ ਤਿਨ ਕਾ ਜੀਵਿਆ ਜਿ ਖਸਮੁ ਨ ਜਾਣਹਿ ਆਪਣਾ ਅਵਰੀ ਕਉ ਚਿਤੁ ਲਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਏਵ ਨ ਜਾਪਈ ਕਰਤਾ ਕੇਤੀ ਦੇਇ ਸਜਾਇ॥ 1॥

Sloak M:3: Sahib(u) mayra sudaa haiy, disaiy Shabad(u) kmaayay. Oh(u) aouhaani kuday naah(i), na aavaiy, na jaayay. Nihful(u) tin ka jeeviya, j(i) Khusm(u) na jaaneh(i) aapna, uvreen kuou chit(u) laayay. Nanak ayv na jaapyee, Kerta kayti dayay sujaayay. 1.

Word Meaning: Disaiy = appears. Shabad Kmaayay = follow Guru's Advice. Aouhaani = perishable; disappear. Nihful(u) = worthless. Jaapyee = known. 1.

MEANING: The Lord is always there, but becomes visible only to Him who leads his life as per the Advice of the Guru. He never disappears, nor does He take birth or die. One should always serve Waheguru (recite His Naam), which is present in everybody. Why should one serve anybody else who takes births, and then dies (is perishable)? Worthless is the life of those who do not recognize their real Lord and get attached to others (Maya-related things or relatives). It is not known to us how much punishment the Creator inflicts on them, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਸਚਾ ਨਾਮੁ ਧਿਆਈਐ ਸਭੋ ਵਰਤੈ ਸਚੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਹੁਕਮੁ ਬੁਝਿ ਪਰਵਾਣੁ ਹੋਇ ਤਾ ਫਲ ਪਾਵੈ ਸਚੁ॥ ਕਥਨੀ ਬਦਨੀ ਕਰਤਾ ਫਿਰੈ ਹੁਕਮੈ ਮੂਲਿ ਨ ਬੁਝਈ ਅੰਧਾ ਕਚੁ ਨਿਕਚੁ॥ 2॥

M:3: Sacha Naam(u) dhiyaayiyaiy, subho vertaiy Sach(u). Nanak Huqam(u) boojh(i) pervaan(u) hoyay, ta ful paavaiy Sach(u). Kuthni budnee kerta phiraiy, Huqamaiy mool(i) na boojhyee, undha kuch(u) nikuch(u).

Word Meaning: Sacha = eternal. Vertaiy = operates. Boojh(i) = recognize; realize. Pervaan(u) = is approved. Kuthnee = discuss; talk about. Budni = with mouth; by words. Kuch Nikuch = unenlightened; perishable. 2.

MEANING: We should recite the Naam of the eternal Waheguru, which operates everywhere. But only those acquire the eternal Naam, and get connected with Him who recognize Waheguru's Huqam, and get His approval (by obeying Him), oh Nanak. Those who only talk about Waheguru, but do not realize His Huqam, are blind (of spirituality), and are perishable (are born again, and again. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਸੰਜੋਗੁ ਵਿਜੋਗੁ ਉਪਾਇਓਨੁ ਸ੍ਰਿਸਟੀ ਕਾ ਮੂਲੁ ਰਚਾਇਆ॥ ਹੁਕਮੀ ਸ੍ਰਿਸਟਿ ਸਾਜੀਅਨੁ ਜੋਤੀ ਜੋਤਿ ਮਿਲਾਇਆ॥ ਜੋਤੀ ਹੂੰ ਸਭੁ ਚਾਨਣਾ ਸਤਿਗੁਰਿ ਸਬਦੁ ਸੁਣਾਇਆ॥ ਬ੍ਰਹਮਾ ਬਿਸਨੁ ਮਹੇਸੁ ਤ੍ਰੈ ਗੁਣ ਸਿਰਿ ਧੰਧੈ ਲਾਇਆ॥ ਮਾਇਆ ਕਾ ਮੂਲੁ ਰਚਾਇਓਨੁ ਤੁਰੀਆ ਸੁਖੁ ਪਾਇਆ॥2॥

Paurri: Sunjoag(u), vijoag(u) oopaayon(u), srishti ka mool(u) ruchaaya. Huqami srisht(i) saajiun(u), joti Jot(i) milaaya. Joti hoon subh(u) chaanuna, Satgur(i) Shabad(u) soonaaya. Brahma, Bishun(u), Muhaysh(u) traiy goon sir(i) dhundhaiy laaya. Maya ka mool(u) ruchaayon(u) tooriya sookh(u) paaya. 2.

Word Meaning: Sunjoag(u) = union. Vijoag(u) = separation. Srishti = world. Mool(u) = basis. Ruchaaya = created. Saajiun(u) = is created. Joti = soul. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. Chaanuna = brightness. Traiy Goon = the three effects of Maya. Dhundhaiy Laaya = bonded with Maya. Tooriya = above the effects of Maya. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru created the world with union and separation (of body and soul; of relatives; with wealth, and with Waheguru) as its basis. He created the world with His Huqam (Laws), and injected His Light (Soul) into all living beings (He is present in all of them). He made it clear with Guru's Shabad that awareness in the living beings is due to the presence of His Light in them. Waheguru created Brahma (who is believed to be the creator of the universe), Vishnu (who is believed to be the provider for the whole world), and Shiva (who is believed to destroy the world), and subjected them to the effects of Maya (as anyone else). Waheguru made Maya the basis of the world, and got all living beings engrossed in it. An individual acquires the blissful state when he rises spiritually above the three effects of Maya. 2.

ਸਲੋਕੁ ਮ:3॥ ਸੋ ਜਪੁ ਸੋ ਤਪੁ ਜਿ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਭਾਵੈ॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਕੈ ਭਾਣੈ ਵਡਿਆਈ ਪਾਵੈ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਆਪੁ ਛੋਡਿ ਗੁਰ ਮਾਹਿ ਸਮਾਵੈ॥ 1॥

Sloak M:3: So jup, so tup(u), j(i) Satgur bhaavaiy. Satgur kaiy bhaanaiy vudiyaayee paavaiy. Nanak aap(u) chhoad(i) Gur maah(i) smaavaiy.

Word Meaning: Jup Tup = different ways of worship. J(i) = Jo = which. Bhaanaiy = as per the Will. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Smaavaiy = gets absorbed.

MEANING: Only that kind of worship of Waheguru is approved which the Satguru likes (approves). One earns respect by living by Satguru's Will (advice). Such a devotee overcomes his selfishness and ego, and stays absorbed in the thoughts of the Guru, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਗੁਰ ਕੀ ਸਿਖ ਕੋ ਵਿਰਲਾ ਲੇਵੈ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਜਿਸੁ ਆਪਿ ਵਡਿਆਈ ਦੇਵੈ॥ 2॥

M:3: Gur kee Sikh ko virlaa layvaiy. Nanak jis(u) Aap(i) vudiyaayee dayvaiy. 2.

Word Meaning: Sikh = advice. Virla = some rare. Vudiyaayee = honour. 2.

MEANING: It is a rare person who is given the honour by Waheguru to live by the Guru's Advice, oh Nanak. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਮਾਇਆ ਮੋਹੁ ਅਗਿਆਨੁ ਹੈ ਬਿਖਮੁ ਅਤਿ ਭਾਰੀ॥ ਪਥਰ ਪਾਪ ਬਹੁ ਲਦਿਆ ਕਿਉ ਤਰੀਐ ਤਾਰੀ॥ ਅਨਦਿਨੁ ਭਗਤੀ ਰਤਿਆ ਹਰਿ ਪਾਰਿ ਉਤਾਰੀ॥ ਗੁਰ ਸਬਦੀ ਮਨੁ ਨਿਰਮਲਾ ਹਉਮੈ ਛਡਿ ਵਿਕਾਰੀ॥ ਹਰਿ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮੁ ਧਿਆਈਐ ਹਰਿ ਹਰਿ ਨਿਸਤਾਰੀ॥ 3॥

Paurri: Maya moh(u) ugiyan(u) haiy bikhum(u) ut(i) bhaari. Puththur paap buhou luddiya, kiyoun turiyaiy taari. Undin bhugtee ruttiyaan, Hur(i) paar(i) ootaari. Gur Shabadi mun(u) nirmula, haumein chhudd(i) vikaari. Hur(i) Hur(i) Naam(u) dhiyaayiyaiy, Hur(i) Hur(i) nistaari. 3.

Word Meaning: Ugiyan(u) = lack of knowledge; ignorance. Bikhum(u) = difficult; tough; harmful. Ut(i) = extremely. Puththur = (heavy like a) stone (with burden of sins). Luddiya = loaded. Vikaari = sensual pleasures. Nistaari = salvages. 3.
MEANING: Love for Maya is a source of serious and harmful darkness (ignorance). How can a man swim across the sea of Maya when he is loaded with (carries) a heavy burden of sins? When one is imbued with the love for Waheguru's worship all the time, he is salvaged by Waheguru. One overcomes his selfishness and ego, and controls his sensual pleasures with the Guru's Shabad, because of which his mind is purified. If we recite Waheguru's Naam, He salvages us. 3.

ਸਲੋਕੁ॥ ਕਬੀਰ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਦੁਆਰਾ ਸੰਕੁੜਾ ਰਾਈ ਦਸਵੈ ਭਾਇ॥ ਮਨੁ ਤਉ ਮੈਗਲੁ ਹੋਇ ਰਹਾ ਨਿਕਸਿਆ ਕਿਉ ਕਰਿ ਜਾਇ॥ ਐਸਾ ਸਤਿਗੁਰੁ ਜੇ ਮਿਲੈ ਤੁਠਾ ਕਰੇ ਪਸਾਉ॥ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਦੁਆਰਾ ਮੋਕਲਾ ਸਹਜੇ ਆਵਉ ਜਾਉ॥ 1॥
Sloak(u): Kabir, mookut(i) dooaara sunkoorra, raayee dusvaiyn bhaayay. Mun(u) tuou maiygul hoyay ruhaa, niksiya kiyoun kur(i) jaayay. Aiysa Satgur(u) jay milaay, toottha kuray pusaaou. Mookut(i) dooaara moakla, sehjay aavou jaaou. 1.
Word Meaning: Mookut(i) Dooara = door to salvation. Sunkoorra = shrunken; very narrow. Raayee = grain. Maiygul = (conceited like) intoxicated elephant. Niksiya = pass through. Toottha = pleased to be kind. Pusaou = with benevolence. Moakla = wide. 1.
MEANING: The door to salvation is extremely narrow – one-tenth the size of a grain (just an example for our understanding. It means that the souls undergo a rigorous scrutiny by Waheguru before being salvaged. But the human mind (its ego) is huge like an intoxicated elephant; so how can the human soul go through the door of salvation? However, if one gets connected to Satguru who is pleased to be kind, the door of salvation becomes large (the soul is not subjected to tough scrutiny) through which the human soul can pass easily, oh Kabir. 1.
NOTE: The above Sloak has been written by Kabir Sahib, who compares the human mind to an intoxicated elephant, but does not explain the reason for the comparison. Guru Amar Dass Ji explains the comparison and the role of the Guru in the following Sloak.

3॥ (ਭਾਵ ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:3)॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਦੁਆਰਾ ਅਤਿ ਨੀਕਾ ਨਾਨ੍ਹਾ ਹੋਇ ਸੁ ਜਾਇ॥ ਹਉਮੈ ਮਨ ਅਸਥੂਲੁ ਹੈ ਕਿਉ ਕਰਿ ਵਿਚੁਦੇ ਜਾਇ॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਮਿਲਿਐ ਹਉਮੈ ਗਈ ਜੋਤਿ ਰਹੀ ਸਭੁ ਆਇ॥ (ਅੰਗ 510)॥ ਇਹੁ ਜੀਉ ਸਦਾ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਹੈ ਸਹਜੇ ਰਹਿਆ ਸਮਾਇ॥ 2॥
3: (Means Sloak M:3): Nanak mookut(i) dooaara ut(i) neeka, nahna hoyay su jaayay. Haumein mun usthool(u) haiy, kiyoun kur(i) vich(u) day jaayay. Satgur miliyain haumein guyyee, Jot(i) ruhee subh(u) aayay.
(PAGE 510): Ehu jeeo suda mookut(i) haiy, sehjay ruhhiya smaayay. 2.
NOTE: in the above Sloak, "Mehla" is missing before "3". But it is understood.
Word Meaning: Neeka = small; narrow. Nahna = small. Usthool = huge. Kiyoun Kur(i) = how? Jeeo = soul. Sehjay = in a blissful state. 2.
MEANING: (Kabir Sahib is right) when he says that the door of salvation is extremely narrow, and only a miniscule mind can pass through that. The reason for the mind to be huge is man's ego because of which it cannot go through the tiny door. When a man gets connected to Satguru, his ego and selfishness get eradicated, and Waheguru comes to dwell in his mind. Such a soul becomes pure for ever (above the effects of Maya), and stays absorbed in (connected with) Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਪ੍ਰਭਿ ਸੰਸਾਰੁ ਉਪਾਇਕੈ ਵਸਿ ਆਪਣੈ ਕੀਤਾ॥ ਗਣਤੈ ਪ੍ਰਭੂ ਨ ਪਾਈਐ ਦੂਜੈ ਭਰਮੀਤਾ॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਮਿਲਿਐ ਜੀਵਤੁ ਮਰੈ ਬੁਝਿ ਸਚਿ ਸਮੀਤਾ॥ ਸਬਦੇ ਹਉਮੈ ਖੋਈਐ ਹਰਿ ਮੇਲਿ ਮਿਲੀਤਾ॥ ਸਭ ਕਿਛੁ ਜਾਣੈ ਕਰੇ ਆਪਿ ਆਪੇ ਵਿਗਸੀਤਾ॥ 4॥

Paurri: Prubh(i) sunsaar(u) oopaayay kaiy, vus(i) Aapunaiy keeta. Guntaiy Prubhoo na paayiyaiy, doojaiy bhermeeta. Satgur miliyain jeevut(u) muraiy, boojh(i) Sach(i) smeeta. Shabaday haumein khoyiyaiy, Hur(i) mayl(i) mileeta. Subh kichh(u) jaanaiy, kuraiy, Aap(i) Aapay vigseeta. 4.

Word Meaning: Vus(i) = in control. Guntaiy = by calculations (according to Hindu Granths, certain deeds make you eligible to go to paradise). Doojaiy = in the other (Maya). Bhermeeta = misled by misgivings. Jeevut Muraiy = kill (overcome) one's ego and selfishness. Smeeta = gets absorbed. Mileeta = connected. Vigseeta = blissful. 4

MEANING: After creating the world, Waheguru put it under His control. People who make calculations (of their deeds and the resulting rewards) get misled by the attractions of Maya. However, one realizes the reality and is able to kill (overcome) his worldly desires and his selfishness when he gets connected with Satguru, and gets absorbed in Waheguru. He gets rid of his ego and selfishness with Guru's Shabad, and Waheguru connects him with Him through Satguru. Waheguru knows everything, and Himself does everything (is the cause of every action), and is always blissful. 4.

ਸਲੋਕੁ ਮ:3॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਸਿਉ ਚਿਤੁ ਨ ਲਾਇਓ ਨਾਮੁ ਨ ਵਸਿਓ ਮਨਿ ਆਇ॥ ਧ੍ਰਿਗੁ ਇਵੇਹਾ ਜੀਵਿਆ ਕਿਆ ਜੁਗ ਮਹਿ ਪਾਇਆ ਆਇ॥ ਮਾਇਆ ਖੋਟੀ ਰਾਸਿ ਹੈ ਏਕ ਚਸੇ ਮਹਿ ਪਾਜੁ ਲਹਿ ਜਾਏ॥ ਹਥਹੁ ਛੁੜਕੀ ਤਨੁ ਸਿਆਹੁ ਹੋਇ ਬਦਨੁ ਜਾਇ ਕੁਮਲਾਇ॥ ਜਿਨ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਸਿਉ ਚਿਤੁ ਲਾਇਆ ਤਿਨ ਸੁਖੁ ਵਸਿਆ ਮਨਿ ਆਇ॥ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮੁ ਧਿਆਵਹਿ ਰੰਗ ਸਿਉ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮਿ ਰਹੇ ਲਿਵ ਲਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਸੋ ਧਨੁ ਸਉਪਿਆ ਜਿ ਜੀਆ ਮਹਿ ਰਹਿਆ ਸਮਾਇ॥ ਰੰਗੁ ਤਿਸੈ ਕਉ ਅਗਲਾ ਵੰਨੀ ਚੜੈ ਚੜਾਇ॥ 1॥

Sloak M:3: Satgur siyoun chit(u) na laayo, Naam(u) na vussiyo mun(i) aayay. Dhrig(u) evayha jeeviya, kiya joog meh(i) paaya aayay. Maya khoati raas(i) haiy, aik chusay meh(i) paaj(u) leh(i) jaayay. Huthoun chhoorrkee, tun(u) siyaah(u) hoyay, budun(u) jaayay koomlaayay. Jin Satgur siyoun chit(u) laaya, tin sookh(u) vussiya mun(i) aayay. Hur(i) Naam(u) dhiyaaveh(i) rung siyoun, Hur(i) Naam(i) ruhay liv laayay. Nanak Satgur so dhun(u) saunpiya j(i) jeeaan meh(i) ruhhiya smaayay. Rung(u) tisaiy kuou ugla, vunni churraiy churraayay. 1.

Word Meaning: Chit(u) Na Laayo = did not bond with. Vussiyo = take residence. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Khoti = false; unworthy; short-lived. Raas(i) = wealth. Chusay = very short period of time. Paaj(u) = false gleam. Chhoorrkee = dropped; fell off; is lost. Siyaah = dark. Budun = face. Koomlaayay = withers; droops. Rung Siyoun = with love. Liv Laayay = focusing on. Ugla = much. Vunni = colour.

MEANING: The man, who does not apply his mind to Satguru (does not get connected with Him), and does not embed Waheguru's Naam in his mind, spends a condemnable life. What does he gain spiritually by coming to this world? Wealth is a false possession which loses its false gleam in a short time. When one loses it, his body becomes dark, and face droops (he feels depressed). On the other hand, those who connect with Satguru have Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their hearts and feel blissful. They recite Waheguru's Naam with affection (and reverence), and stay focused on His Naam. Satguru gives the wealth of Naam to humans which becomes their permanent possession. Because of this wealth, their love for Waheguru becomes very deep, and their body acquires beautiful shine (glow of spirituality), oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਮਾਇਆ ਹੋਈ ਨਾਗਨੀ ਜਗਤਿ ਰਹੀ ਲਪਟਾਇ॥ ਇਸ ਕੀ ਸੇਵਾ ਜੋ ਕਰੇ ਤਿਸ ਹੀ ਕਉ ਫਿਰਿ ਖਾਇ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਕੋਈ ਗਾਰੜੂ ਤਿਨਿ ਮਲਿ ਦਲਿ ਲਾਈ ਪਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸੇਈ ਉਬਰੇ ਜਿ ਸਚ ਰਹੇ ਲਿਵ ਲਾਇ॥ 2॥

M:3: Maya hoyee naagni, jugut(i) ruhhi luptaayay. Iss kee sayva jo kuray, tis hee kuou phir(i) khaayay. Gurmukh(i) koyee gaar-rroo, tin(i) mul(i) dul(i) laayee paayay. Nanak sayee oobray j(i) Sach ruhhay liv laayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Naagni = (female) snake. Luptaayay = wraps around. Gaar-rroo = a mythical mantra which can take the poison of the snake out (a Hindu belief). Mul(i) = rub. Dul = split into pieces. Paayay = feet. Mul(u) Dul(u) Laayee Paayay = enslaves it. Oobray = salvaged. 2.

MEANING: Maya is like a snake which wraps itself around the world. It consumes the (noble qualities of) the individuals who serve it. There is a rare true devotee of the Guru who acquires the real mantra (Waheguru's Naam) to enslave it, rubs it off, and splits it into pieces (destroys its effects completely. Only those are salvaged who stay connected with God, oh Nanak. 2.

Paurri: Dhaadhi kuray pookaar Prubhoo soonaayaysi. Undar(i) dheeruk hoyay, Poora paayaysi. Jo Dhoor(i) likhiya laykh(u), say kerm kmaayasi. Ja hovaiy Khusm(u) duyaal(u), ta Mehl(u) Ghur(u) Paayaysi. So Prubh mayra ut(i) vudda, Gurmukh(i) maylaayaysi. 5.

Word Meaning: Dhaadhi = bard = one who sings praise. Pookaar = pray. Dheeruk = faith; patience. Poora = Perfect (Waheguru). Dhoor(i) = from the source (Lord). Kerm = deeds. Kmaayaysi = performs. Mehl(u) = Ghur(u) = Waheguru's residence (union with Him). Ut(i) = extremely. 5.

MEANING: When a devotee, singing praise of Waheguru, prays before Him, Waheguru listens to that. With full faith in Him and with patience, the devotee acquires Waheguru's Naam in his heart. Actually, he performs only those deeds for which he is predestined by Waheguru. He reaches Waheguru's Residence when the Lord becomes kind to him. My Waheguru is extremely great, and connects the devotees with Him through the Guru. 5.

ਸਲੋਕੁ ਮ:3॥ ਸਭਨਾ ਕਾ ਸਹੁ ਏਕੁ ਹੈ ਸਦ ਹੀ ਰਹੈ ਹਜੂਰਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਹੁਕਮੁ ਨ ਮੰਨਈ ਤਾ ਘਰ ਹੀ ਅੰਦਰਿ ਦੂਰਿ॥ ਹੁਕਮੁ ਭੀ ਤਿਨ੍ਹਾ ਮਨਾਇਸੀ ਜਿਨ ਕਉ ਨਦਰਿ ਕਰੇਇ॥ ਹੁਕਮੁ ਮੰਨਿ ਸੁਖੁ ਪਾਇਆ ਪ੍ਰੇਮ ਸੁਹਾਗਣਿ ਹੋਇ॥ 1॥

Word Meaning: Shuhou = husband; Lord. Hujoor(i) = nearby. Ghur = heart. Munaayaysi = make them obey. Sohaagun(i) = bride. 1.

MEANING: Everybody has the same husband (Waheguru), who is always close to them. But, if someone does not obey His Will, he finds Him far, far away even though He is hidden in his heart. Waheguru makes only those obey His Huqam on whom He casts His kind sight. Those who obey His Will, acquire blissfulness, and become His beloved brides. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਰੈਣਿ ਸਬਾਈ ਜਲਿ ਮੁਈ ਕੰਤ ਨ ਲਾਇਓ ਭਾਉ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸੁਖਿ ਵਸਨਿ ਸੋਹਾਗਣੀ ਜਿਨ੍ਹ ਪਿਆਰਾ ਪੁਰਖੁ ਹਰਿ ਰਾਉ॥ 2॥

M:3: Raiyn subaayee jul(i) mooyee, kunt na laayo bhaaou. Nanak sookh(i) vussun(i) sohaagni, jinh piyaara Purakh(u) Hur(i) Raaou.

Word Meaning: Raiyn = night (of life). Subaayee = whole. Jul(i) = burning (of heart). Kunt = husband (God). Bhaaou = love. Purakh = omnipresent God. Raaou = king. 2.

MEANING: The human bride burns in the fire of worldly desires her whole life, and does not cultivate any affection in her mind for her husband (Waheguru). Those who love the Royal and the omnipresent Waheguru as their husband, spend their married life (union with Waheguru) blissfully, oh Nanak. 2.

Paurri: Subh jug(u) phir(i) mein daykhiya, Hur(i) ikko daata. Oopaayay kitaiy na paayiyay, Hur(i) Kerm Bidhaata. Gur Shabadi Hur(i) mun(i) vusaiy, Hur(i) sehjay jaata. Undarhoun trishna ugn(i) boojhi, Hur(i) Ammritsar(i) naata. Vuddi vudiyaayee Vudday kee, Gurmukh(i) bolaata. 6.

Word Meaning: Daata = Provider; Lord. Oopaayay = means; smartness. Kerm Bidhaata = carver of fortune. Sehjay = in the blissful state. Jaata = recognized; realized. Trishna = desires. Ugn(i) = fire. Amritsar(i) = in the pool of Naam-water. Vudiyaayee = greatness. Boalaata = cause to speak (recite Waheguru's Naam). 6.

MEANING: I have roamed all over the world, and found out that it is the same Lord everywhere. But the Carver of our fates cannot be realized by any common means. He can be embedded in the heart only by the Guru's Shabad in the blissful state (above the effects of Maya). (With the realization of Waheguru) one feels as if he has taken a bath in the pool of His Naam-Amrit whereby the fire of his worldly desires is put out. It is the greatness of Waheguru that He connects his devotees with the Guru in whose shelter they recite Waheguru's Naam. 6.

Word Meaning: Kaaya = body. Huns = soul. Puyyiaan Hee = when the body is lying (still there). Koorr(u) = lies; dishonest means. Undh = blind; has no awareness. Paunaiy = air; soul. Huoun = me, I. Mohiya = captivated by. J(i) = by which. Sach(i) = in Waheguru. 1.

MEANING: What kind of love is there between the body and the soul, which leaves the body when it is still there (not disposed of)? One feeds his body by dishonest means, but it does not accompany the soul on death. The body is just a pile of dirt and has no awareness without the soul in it. The soul (and not the body) is accountable for all its deeds in Waheguru's Court. If you ask the soul why it nourishes the body, which does not accompany it, the answer is: I am captivated by the attractions of Maya as a result of which I keep taking rebirths. I do not realize the Will of Waheguru, so I cannot remain absorbed in Him (connected with Him), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Nihchul = permanent; everlasting. Tuskar = thief. Joh(i) = cast evil eye. Ochuka = thief; cheat. Jeeaiy = soul. Sayti = with. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present; stays with. Pullaiy = in possession. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the only real wealth that is man's permanent possession; all other types of wealth come and go. No thief can cast an evil eye on, or a fraudster rob the Naam-wealth. The Naam-wealth stays with the soul (of the devotee), and accompanies him to Waheguru's Court. This wealth can be acquired from the Guru, whereas the Maya-lover cannot possess it. Those are praise-worthy businessmen who earn the Naam-wealth, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Gehr = deep; whose secrets cannot be known. Gumbheera = never changing; has no emotions. Cheera = Huqam; Laws. Dheera = not changing. Nihchul = permanent; eternal. Soora = gallant (who has full control over sensual desires). Goonvunteen = virtuous. Poora = perfect. 7.

MEANING: My Lord is extremely great, eternal, deep (unfathomable), and never changes. The whole world is under His control, and it is His Huqam that is working everywhere. The eternal wealth of His Naam can be realized with the grace of the Guru. With His kindness, the devotee gets connected with the gallant Guru, with whose kindness the devotee is able to embed Waheguru in his heart. The virtuous devotees sing praise of the everlasting, the never-changing, and the Perfect Waheguru. 7.

Word Meaning: Dhrig(u) = reprehensible. Purhur(i) = push away; give up. Tiyaagday = renounce; give up. Viyaapay = are impacted. Hult(i) = in this world. Pult(i) = the next world (after death). Poorub(i) Likhiya = predestined. 1.

MEANING: The life of the individual is reprehensible who pushes away and forsakes the bliss of Waheguru's Naam, and suffers because of his ignoble deeds, which he performs under his ego. The followers of their mind are ignorant and have no understanding of Waheguru because they are overcome by their attachment to Maya. They never enjoy comfort in this world or the next and leave this world with repentance. Some rare devotees enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their hearts, whereby they overcome their selfishness and ego. But only those come to Guru's shelter who are predestined by Waheguru to do so, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Oondha Kaul(u) = inverted bowl; has mind turned away from Waheguru. Naaoun = Waheguru's Naam. Shukti = Maya. Koorr(u) = falseness. Oopaaou = way of operation; lifestyle. Bhijyee = melts; moves. Pheeka = impolite. Aalaaou = talk. Dherm(i) = virtuous. Rulaayay = mix; become part of. Sooaaou = selfishness. 2.

MEANING: The follower of his mind has his heart (mind) turned away from Waheguru, and does not practise (worship or recite) the Naam. He performs all his deeds under the influence of Maya, and only deceit is his in put in life (deceiving others is his lifestyle) to achieve comfort. His heart never melts (at the misery of others) and he talks impolitely with others. Such individuals do not mix with virtuous people even if someone tries to do so because falseness and selfishness becomes their objective in life. The Creator has created the world in such a way that the followers of their mind drown in the world-sea because they always tell lies (are deceitful), while Guru's Sikhs swim across the sea of Maya by reciting Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Boojhay = realizing; making a connection with Waheguru. Phayr(u) = returning to the world; rebirths. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Trishna = desires. Salaahiyaiy = sing praise. 8.

MEANING: Without making a connection with Waheguru, the man experiences countless rebirths, and continues to take births, and to die. Without serving the Guru, he leaves the world repenting at the end. However, with Waheguru's kindness, he connects with the Guru, enabling him to overcome his selfishness and ego. He overcomes his thirst of desires and acquires bliss. So, we should sing Waheguru's praise with full devotion. 8.

Word Meaning: J(i) = Jo = which. Oopaav = effort; attempt. Praput(i) = acquirement. Seetul = peaceful. Shaant(i) = with peace. Amrit(u) = Naam. 1.

MEANING: Everybody worships (respects) the devotee who serves his Satguru. The best effort of all (to lead a blissful life) is the one by which one acquires (realizes) Waheguru's Naam. The mind of such a devotee is calm (peaceful), and peace dwells in his mind. His mind feels blissfulness when he recites Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru's Naam is his food (for mind) and his fancy clothes (to protect his honour), and he earns respect everywhere because of Waheguru's Naam. 1.

Word Meaning: Sikh = Advice. Gooni Nidhaan = treasure of virtues (Waheguru). Goomaan = ego. Undin(u) = every day; always.

MEANING: Listen to the advice of the Guru whereby you will realize Waheguru, which is the treasure of all virtues, oh my mind. With the source of bliss, Waheguru, residing in your heart, all your ego will be eradicated, oh my friend. If, one realizes Waheguru with His grace, his mind always stays focused on (connected with) Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sat(u) = high morality; service to mankind. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Sach(u) = Waheguru (His Naam). Puvitta = pure; pious. Kupt(u) = deceit. Vikaar = sensual pleasures; lust. Sehjay = easily. Jot(i) Pergaas(u) = enlightenment. Anand Rus(u) = enjoyment of blissfulness. Guvitta = lost; got rid of. Pergut(u) = make famous. Mitta = friend. 9.

MEANING: When a devotee acquires Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter, his mind becomes pious, and he automatically acquires high morality and contentment (without any special effort). His deceitfulness and his sensual desires are easily eradicated. Waheguru's Soul (Light) enlightens his mind eliminating his ignorance, and he enjoys the joy of blissfulness. He sings Waheguru's praise all the time, and becomes famous because of his virtues. Everybody has the same Lord, and the same friend – Waheguru. 9.

Nanak tis nu miliya, suda sookh(u) j(i) undin(u) Hur(i) Naam(u) dhiyaayay. 1.

Word Meaning: Braham = God. Binday = recognizes; gets connected with. Liv = focus on Naam. Poochhaiy = asks; seeks advice. Sach(u) = Waheguru's (Naam). Sunjum(u) = control on senses. Kmaavaiy = performs deeds. Sungrehaiy = acquires. Virla = rare. Mayt(i) = by eliminating. Braham Giyani = enlightened soul. Smaayay = gets absorbed (in Naam). 1.

MEANING: Only that individual deserves to be called a Brahman who recognizes (makes connection with) Waheguru, and stays focused on His Naam. He seeks Guru's Advice, and performs such (noble) deeds because of which he remembers Waheguru all the time, exercises control on his senses, and gets rid of the serious disease of his ego and selfishness. He sings Waheguru's praise, acquires virtues, and connects his soul (mind) with Waheguru. But there is some rare such knowledgeable Brahman who stays absorbed in Waheguru by overcoming his selfishness and ego. All others, who sing Waheguru's praise all the time in such a devotee's company, acquire eternal comfort too, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Munmukh = money-lover; follower of his mind. Kupt(u) = deceit. Ugiyaani = lacking spiritual knowledge; ignorant. Rusna = tongue. Hur(i) Purakh(u) = omnipresent Waheguru. Bheejaiy = melts; is pleased. Soobhaayay = as per His nature. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in love for Maya. Perboadhaiy = preaches; awakens. Bikh = poison (Maya). Sooaayay = self-interests. It(u) Kmaanaiy = (with) such deeds. Sehsa = anxiety; worries.

Vishta = filth of sensual pleasures; Maya. Puchaiy = suffers. Chhudaayay = frees (from the bonds of Maya).
MEANING: The follower of his mind lacks spiritual knowledge, has deceit in his mind, and tells lies. God does not get pleased by deceitful means; He sees and listens to everything that is in the minds of the people as His natural trait. The follower of his mind (like some Brahmans) pretends to awaken the world for his love of money and his self-interests. With such deeds, he always suffers and keeps taking births, and dying. His anxieties and his worries never leave him alone and he suffers because of his pursuit for sensual pleasures. However, when Waheguru is kind to His devotees, He makes them listen to Guru's advice. Such devotees recite Waheguru's Naam, and sing His praise which secures them freedom from the bonds of Maya. 2.

Word Meaning: Pooray = perfect. Chaakri = service. Oordhaar(i) = by acquiring in the heart.
MEANING: Those devotees are perfect whom Waheguru makes obey His Huqam. They serve their Lord by pondering on the Shabad of the Perfect Guru. One serves Waheguru by reciting Satguru's Shabad with love and reverence. Those reach the Residence of Waheguru (get connected with Him) who have killed their haumein. Guru's Sikhs stay connected with God by reciting His Naam, and enshrining it in their heart, oh Nanak. 10.

Jis nu kerm(u) hovaiy Dhoor(i) poora, tin(i) Gurmukh(i) Hur(i) Naam(u) dhiyaaya. 1.
Word Meaning: Dhiyan = concentration of mind. Sehj = blissful state. Dhoon(i) = music. Oopjaiy = is produced. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in love. Bhaaya = liked. Timmer = darkness. Ugiyan = lack of (spiritual) knowledge. Kerm(u) = kind favour. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning (from the source). 1.
MEANING: Those Sikhs of the Guru who focus their mind on Waheguru's Naam acquire greater concentration and feel as if the Divine music of blissfulness (above the effect of Maya) is playing in their mind. They love Waheguru's Naam and remain imbued in His Love at all times. Guru's Sikh "sees" Waheguru everywhere, sings His praise, and attains the high spiritual state with his love for Him. Guru's Sikh acquires Divine Knowledge (makes a connection with Waheguru), whereby the darkness of his ignorance disappears. The devotee, who receives a special favour from Waheguru, recites His Naam in the shelter of the Guru. 1.

Word Meaning: Sehjay = in a spiritual state above Maya. Kit(u) = what for. Vishta = filth of sensual desires. Khooaar = unnecessary suffering; humiliation. Koorraiy = false; short-lived. Laaluch = greed. Oorvaar = near side (of the sea of Maya). Paar(u) = the far side. Oobray = salvaged. 2.
MEANING: What for those people come to the world who do not foster love for Guru's Shabad, do not serve Him, and do not recite Waheguru's Naam in the high spiritual state above the effects of Maya (do not attain that state)? Such people suffer humiliation in the filth of sensual pleasures, and continue to be born again, and again. By engaging in false greed, they are on neither end of the sea of Maya (drowned in there). The Sikhs of the Guru whom Waheguru connects with Him are salvaged, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sohnday = look dignified. Kusaayay = strongly attracted. Rung(i) = in love. Raatay = imbued. Bil-landi = loud cries (for help). 11.
MEANING: The devotees of Waheguru who stay connected with Waheguru's Shabad (keep reciting His Naam), look exalted in His Court. They develop love for Waheguru and are strongly attached to him. They taste the sweetness of Waheguru (His Naam) with their tongue, and stay imbued in His love all the time. The birth (life) of those is successful who recognize Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, and embed His Naam in their heart. Without the Guru, the world suffers discomfiture in the love for Maya, and cries loudly for help. 11.

Word Meaning: Kuljoog = Kulyug =the present era which is considered to be the worst among all the four eras (eons); world. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Khuttiya = earned. Ootum Pud = high spiritual state. Greh(i) = in the family. Oodaasi = detached from the world. Dhunn(u) = great; praise-worthy. Junayndi = gives birth. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Vit-houn = from; for.

MEANING: (Contrary to the belief of most people, Kulyug is not a bad era) because the devotees earn the treasure of Waheguru's Naam with their devotion, and attain the high spiritual state (blissful state above the effects of Maya) in this Yug. They serve Satguru, and always recite Waheguru's Naam whereby they enshrine the Naam in their heart. With Guru's Shabad, they burn (overcome) their selfishness, ego, and worldly attachments, and stay detached from such attachments while living in the family. Not only such devotees attain salvation for themselves, they also get the whole world (in their association) salvaged. Their mothers are (acquired wisdom is) worthy of respect who give births to (produces) such devotees. However, only those devotees get connected with Satguru who have such fortune written on their foreheads by Waheguru. I am a sacrifice for my Guru who shows the path of righteousness to the misled world, oh Nanak. 1.

Jun Nanak kis nu aakh(i) soonaayiyaiy, ja kerdaiy subh(i) kraaya. 2.

Word Meaning: Traiy Goon Maya = Maya with three effects. Deepuk = lamp; flame. Ptung = moth. Puchaaya = burned. Kihou = what; how much. Aan(i) Churraaya = brought in offering. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love for Maya. Bikhiya = poison of Maya. Duyyay = Waheguru. Khooyaaya = misled. Jogi, Jungum, Sanyasi = different sects of ascetics. Bhoollay = misled. Gerb(u) = ego. Chhaadun = clothes. Sat Bhikhiya = alms given with respect. Mun Hutth(i) = sheer obstinacy of mind. Aiturriyaan = among many. Smudha = in deep meditation concentrating on Waheguru.

MEANING: (The pundits who preach solely for Maya), are misled by its attractions with results of three kinds (three stages – Rajo, Tumo, and Sato), and they suffer like the moths which are misguided for the flame and burn themselves. Forgetting their preaching, the pundits look stealthily for the money to find out how much is given to them in offering by the individuals in the audience. Hiding their own deep love for money, the hypocrites preach about (its negative effects); Waheguru has misled them so as not to recite His Naam. All the different sects of the ascetics are also misled as they have inflated ego (thinking that they are superior to the others as they have renounced Maya). They do not accept the alms given with respect, and waste away their precious life by the sheer obstinacy of their mind. Out of all these misled people, only that devotee is able to concentrate on Waheguru's Naam who recites it in Guru's shelter. But whom can we blame (we cannot blame them) because they do only what Waheguru makes them do, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Moh(u) = attachment. Prayt(u) = ghost (false impression); deceitful. Kaam(u) = lust. Kroadh(u) = rage. Jum = Angel of death. Sirkaar = under the governance (control). Dund(u) = punishment. Kraara = strong. Mug(i) = path. Dooja Bhaaou = love for Maya. Maariun(i) = punished. Pookaara = cries for help. Nistaara = salvation.

MEANING: Attachment with Maya is deceitful as it is a source of lust, rage, and ego. Such people are destined to be under the control of the Angel of Death and are subject to some harsh punishment. The followers of their mind love Maya and are set on the path that leads them to appear before the Angel of Justice (Waheguru Himself). They are punished in the court of the Angel, and nobody is there to listen to their cries for help. On the other hand, those whom Waheguru is kind to, get connected with the Guru. Such devotees find salvation in the shelter of the Guru. 12.

Word Meaning: Mumta = attachment. Mohini = captivating. Doojaiy = Maya. Viyaap(i) = affects strongly. Luptaayay = clings. Purjaaliyaiy = burn completely; destroy completely. Oojla = clean; pure. Vusaiy = dwells. Maarun(u) = destroyer.

MEANING: Maya is mind-captivating and becomes the source of attachment with worldly attractions and of selfishness and ego as well. Such attractions consume the followers' minds (rob them of their spiritual wealth, if they have any). Haumein and worldly attachments affect those who love Maya, and cling to them. The attraction for Maya can be completely destroyed by Guru's Shabad when it disappears from the minds of devotees. With the destruction of the attractions of Maya, the body and the mind of the devotee become pure (pious) and Waheguru's Naam takes dwelling in his mind. Waheguru's Naam is the only destroyer of Maya which can be acquired only in Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Kaytuuriyaan = many, many. Bhermiya = misled; went through many life forms. . Thir(u) = stable; merges into Waheguru. Perpunch = creation (of the world). Khayl(u) = drama. Oopaayay = created. Maaniya = convinced. 2.
MEANING: The human mind does not become stable (without connecting with Waheguru) and goes through many, many life forms over many eons. Waheguru has created the world as a drama, and it is His Will (Huqam) that the living beings go through many life forms. When He wishes, He becomes kind to some (His devotees) who are connected with the Guru, whereby the mind stays absorbed in Waheguru and becomes stable (no more births and deaths). When the mind gets convinced in itself by getting connected with the Guru, it merges with Waheguru, then nothing dies or goes away, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Koat(u) = fort. Apaar(u) = limitless; not easily accessible (available). Sunjogi = with (predestined) union. Aap(i) = God. Rus Boagi = enjoying the sweet tastes of life. Uteet(u) = above the bonds of Maya. Ulipt(u) = unattached; detached. Nirjoag = who has renounced the world. Jogi = connected with (Waheguru). Hoagi = shall happen. Vijoagi = (pain of) separation. 13.
MEANING: Human body (life) is like a fort which is not easily accessible (available); one gets it when he is predestined by the kindness of Waheguru. Waheguru resides in the human body (even though He is hidden), and being present there, He enjoys all the tastes. He, Himself, is fully detached from the worldly attractions, is above the effects of Maya, and is like a yogi who has renounced the world. He does whatever He feels like, and those things shall happen which He wishes. A devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, never suffers (the pain of) separation from Him. 13.

Word Meaning: Wah(u) = wonderful! Amazing (Waheguru); to sing praise of Waheguru. Akhaayaynda = cause to utter. Sach(u) Soyay = Waheguru Himself. Sift(i) Salaah = praise. Boojhaiy = understands. Bani = words of praise. Kerm(i) = with (Waheguru's) grace. Praaput = acquisition. 1.
MEANING: With Guru's Shabad, Waheguru Himself makes His devotees sing His praise in amazement at His feats. Some rare individual realizes in Guru's shelter that feeling wonder-struck at Waheguru's feats is actually praising Him. The utterance of mesmerizing words like "amazing" or "wonderful" is a form of praise for Waheguru and connects the devotee with Him. I have realized Waheguru by admiring Him (singing His praise), but one does so only with His grace, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Rusna = tongue. Soohaayee = is adorned, is holy. Perja= people. Poojun = to worship. Sobha = wins applause. 2.

MEANING: The tongue, which sings Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad, becomes holy. One connects with Waheguru through the Perfect Shabad of the Guru. Those devotees are highly fortunate whom Waheguru is kind to, and whom He makes sing His praise. Those devotees have beautiful minds who sing the praises of Waheguru. People come to worship them. But, the praise of Waheguru can be sung only by Waheguru's grace; and such devotees are honoured in His Court, oh Nanak. 2.

Gur Shabadi kholaayiun(i), Hur(i) Naam(u) jupaani. Hur(i) jeeo Amrit birkh(u) haiy, jin peeya tay triptaani. 14.

Word Meaning: Bujur = rock. Kupaat = doors. Gurrh = fort. Bheetur(i) = inside. Koorr(u) = lies = koosut(u). Bherm(i) Bhoolay = misled by misgivings. Oopaayay = different means. Lubhni = find; acquire. Bhaykh = religious garbs. Bhaykhvaani = those who wear such garbs. Kholaayiun(i) = are opened. Jupaani = recite (Naam). Birkh(u) = tree. Triptaani = feel contented.

MEANING: The followers of their mind are misled by their misgivings, and are liars, deceitful, and are full of ego. They have doors of rock (impenetrable to the truth) in their fort-like bodies (mind), due to which they do not allow Reality (Waheguru's Naam) to penetrate their brains; the ignorant stay blind to reality and cannot see (feel) the presence of Waheguru in them. They cannot find (realize) Waheguru by any means. Even the people who wear religious garbs with the belief that they can connect with Him get exhausted and fail to realize Him, even if they wear many different garbs. The mental doors of such ignorant people open only with Guru's Shabad as they recite Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru is like a tree of Amrit. Those who taste this Amrit get contented. 14.

Word Meaning: Raiyn(i) = night (of life). Vihaayay = spends. Anund(u) = blissfulness. Live Laayay = connecting with. Kermi = with benevolence. Bolaayay = makes others talk (recite Waheguru's Naam). Sobha = praise; applause. Sat Rujaayay = Waheguru's Will.
MEANING: Man's life is spent in comfort, and he feels blissful if he sings Waheguru's praise, oh my mother. He stays connected with God. Also, he earns praise when he sings Waheguru's praise. However, one sings Waheguru's praise and makes others do the same only with His grace. Also, one gladly accepts Waheguru's Will by singing Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = Waheguru (His manifestation). Gurmukh(i) = in Guru's shelter; Satguru (see note below). Bhaal(i) = by searching. Oochraiy = utters; sings. Hirdaiy Naal(i) = with reverence. Sehjay = in the blissful state. Gurmukh(i) = with faith in the Guru (Waheguru); Guru. Ridaiy Smaal(i) = embed in the heart carefully. 2.
MEANING: Waheguru's amazing praise is His manifestation (connects with Him), which the Guru discovered with careful search (by connecting with Waheguru). Waheguru's praise is sung with Guru's Shabad with reverence. Waheguru is realized by singing His praise in the shelter of the Guru in the blissful state of mind. Those, who keep Waheguru's Naam at heart with respect are highly fortunate, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Loabhiya = greedy. Raata = imbued; fully occupied. Munsa = wishes. Mohini = captivating. Dehdis(i) = in all ten directions. Phiraata = searches. Uggaiy = next world (Waheguru's Court). Naaoun = fame; status in society. Dookh Khaata = the mine of suffering. Chaakhiyo = tasted. Pheeka = rude; impolite. Triptaata = contented.
MEANING: You are always occupied in affairs involving greed, oh, my greedy mind. The attractions of Maya are highly captivating, and the man searches for them in every direction to have his wishes fulfilled. But he does not realize that his high caste, or his status in society (his fame), does not accompany him in Waheguru's Court (has no significance there), and the money-loving person suffers discomfort (pain). He does not taste the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam with his tongue (recites it), and is rude and impolite in his dealings with others. Word Meaning: Wah(u) Wah(u) = sing praise. Gehr = unfathomable. Gumbheer(u) = never changing. Goondaata = source of virtues. Mut Dheer(i) = very patient in nature. Rijuk = food and other necessities. Sabhaah(i) = to everybody. 1.

MEANING: The unfathomable Waheguru, which is the source of all virtues, which is highly patient in nature, and which never changes, should be praised. We should sing praise of Waheguru which is pervading everybody, and which provides food and other necessities of life to everybody. We should sing praise of the only Waheguru which Satguru has showed to us, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Muray = dies, spiritual death. Bikh(u) = poison of vices. Bhaavyee = like. Vihaayay = is spent. Liv Laayay = with full concentration. Tirbhuven = three-layered universe. Soajhee = understanding.

MEANING: The Sikhs of the Guru always sing Waheguru's praise, while the money-loving people suffer spiritual death because of their involvement in vices. They do not like Waheguru's praise, and their life is spent in suffering. The Sikhs of the Guru taste the Naam-Amrit while meditating on the Naam with full concentration. Those who sing Waheguru's praise, have pure heart, and acquire full understanding of the three-layered universe, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Bhaanaiy = as per (Waheguru's) Will. Buneejaiy = comes into being. Laaha = profit; reward. Tukhut(i) Buhaaliaiy = made to sit on the throne; is honoured. Ghur(i) = in the heart.

MEANING: Once a devotee gets connected to the Guru with Waheguru's Will, he begins to serve the Guru with Waheguru's worship as his daily routine, whereby Waheguru takes dwelling in the devotee's heart at His own sweet Will, and the devotee enjoys the sweet taste of Naam in the blissful state. With Waheguru's Will, the devotee earns (acquires) His Naam and lives blissfully. Waheguru puts the devotee on the throne (bestows honour on him) and makes the devotee's heart His dwelling forever. However, only those devotees who obey Waheguru's Will gladly and get connected with the Guru. 16.

Word Meaning: Aapay = Waheguru Himself. Mun Chindiya = as desired. Sohnay = have a beautiful mind. Oochraan = utter; recite.

MEANING: Only those devotees sing Waheguru's praise all the time who are given such understanding (wisdom) by Him. One gets rid of his haumein, and his mind becomes pure when he sings Waheguru's praise. Satguru's Sikh, who sings Waheguru's praise all the time, reaps the rewards of being liked by Him. The devotees, who sing Waheguru's praise, have beautiful minds, and Waheguru connects them with Him. I, too, utter Waheguru's praise from the core of my heart as well as with my tongue. I will gladly surrender my body and my mind (for service) to those who sing Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 1.

Nanak, wah(u), wah(u) jo mun(i) chit(i) kuray, tis(u) Jum kunkur(u) nayrr(i) na aavaiy. 2.

Word Meaning: Wah(u), wah(u) = praise-worthy (Waheguru). Ful(u) = reward. Bulihaaray = offer to sacrifice. Gooni – Nidhaan = source of all virtues. Bhurpoor = fully penetrating. Jum Kunkur = assistants of the Angel of Death.

MEANING: The praise-worthy Lord, whose Naam is Amrit (that makes the man immortal), is eternal. Those who serve Him reap the rewards, and I am a sacrifice to them. The praise-worthy Waheguru is a source of virtues, but only those whom Waheguru kindly bestows them upon acquire them. The praise-worthy Waheguru, which pervades the whole land and all the waters, can be realized in the shelter of the Guru. All the Sikhs of the Guru should sing Waheguru's praise all the time, as the Perfect Guru likes Waheguru's praise. The assistants of the Angel of Death do not even go near the devotees who sing Waheguru's praise with mind and soul, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = eternal Waheguru. Tay = from; in His shelter. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. Jaageh(i) = stay awake (alert). Suveh(i) = sleep (negligent). Poonn(u) = donors (of Waheguru's Naam). Praani = men. Puch(i) Mooyay = die (spiritually) in suffering. Ujaani = ignorant.

MEANING: Waheguru is eternal, and so is Gurbani. Waheguru can be recognized (realized) in the shelter of the Guru, where the devotee attains the high spiritual (blissful) state. Such a devotee stays awake (alert towards the attacks of Maya) and never sleeps (becomes unmindful); his life is spent in alertness. Such devotees relish the sweet taste of Waheguru's Naam with the Advice of the Guru, and become donors of the Naam (motivate others). Nobody can realize Waheguru without the shelter of the Guru; the ignorant (followers of their mind) die spiritual death in suffering. 17.

Word Meaning: Wah(u), Wah(u) = awe-inspiring. Nirunkar Haiy = is a manifestation (of Waheguru). Jayvud = as great. Uver(u) na = no other. Agumm = inaccessible. Athaah(u) = unfathomable. Vayperwah(u) = care-free; worry-free. Kermi = with (Waheguru's) grace.

MEANING: The awe-inspiring Gurbani in praise of Waheguru is a manifestation of Waheguru (that is why the Sikhs consider Guru Granth Sahib as the Guru); nothing else is as great as Gurbani is. The inaccessible and unfathomable Waheguru is praise-worthy (is awe-inspiring) and is everlasting. The awe-inspiring Waheguru is worry-free, and whatever He plans comes into being. Waheguru's Naam-Amrit is amazing (it connects with Him), but a rare devotee acquires it in the Guru's shelter. Waheguru's praise can be sung only when He bestows it on someone with His kindness. 1.

Nanak Gurmukh(i) oobraiy, Sachaiy Shabad(i) smaayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Shaanat(i) = peace of mind. Jaayay = place; source. Loachiyaiy = long for. Vikaar(u) = vices. Khooaayay = suffer humiliation. Chookyee = goes away; ends. Khaali = without; devoid of. Tulb = call for enquiry. Suhaayay = endure. Oobraiy = salvage.

MEANING: One cannot find peace of mind without Waheguru; there is no other source from which one can find peace. No matter how much one longs for it, the peace of mind cannot be had without Waheguru's grace. The birth-death-birth cycle of those who have greed and evil thoughts in their mind because of their love for Maya, never comes to end, and they suffer badly because of their ego. But those who come to Satguru's shelter are not kept devoid of peace (and blissfulness). The Angel of death never calls them (puts a demand on them) for any inquiry (explanation), and they never suffer for any reason. Those, who come to Guru's shelter stay absorbed in Waheguru's Shabad (praise), and are salvaged, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Dhaadhi = bard; who sings (Waheguru's) praise. Dur(i) Khurra = standing on the door (with full dedication). Dur(u) = (God's) Door. Ghur(u) = God's Palace. Oordhaar(i) = by acquiring in the heart. Ugla = huge; great; high. Chaakri = service. Nistaar(i) = is salvaged.

MEANING: The real bard is the one who (unconditionally) loves the Lord, and serves Him with full dedication by pondering on the Shabad of the Guru. Such a bard who keeps Waheguru in mind all the time, gets access to the Door and the Palace of the Lord (is connected with Him). With love for Waheguru's Naam, such a bard occupies the High Palace of Waheguru. The service of the bard to Waheguru is to recite His Naam all the time whereby Waheguru salvages him. 18.

Word Meaning: Goojri Jaat(i) = a nomad. Guvaar(i) = unrefined. Shuhou = husband (Waheguru). Bhuou = (respectful) fear. Koolvunti = of high clan. Naar(i) = woman. Kunt = husband. Koochujji = uncivilized; uncultured Koolukhni = ill-mannered; having bad qualities. Purhur(i) = pushing away. Bhutaar(i) = husband. Mul(u) = filth. Nirmul = pure. Ootum = superior. Guheer(u) = deep; stable (unwavering) mind. Baiysay = sits; lives. Kaar Kmaavaiy = performs deeds. Aithaiy = in this world. Moakh Dooaar = door to salvation. Nirbhuou = the fearless (Waheguru). Apaar = limitless. Bhulee = good; noble.
NOTE: To understand the meaning of this holy Sloak, we need to rearrange it slightly as follows: Goojri jaat(i) guvaar(i); oh(u) koochujji, koolukhni purhur(i) chhoadi bhutaar(i). ----------
MEANING: The follower of his mind is like a member of the nomad clan, which is considered to be unrefined (it has no awareness of Waheguru) and is ignored by Waheguru, just like an uncivilized and ill-mannered wife is ditched by her husband. But she transforms into a high-clan lady (becomes respectable) when she ponders on Guru's Shabad and recites Waheguru's Naam all the time. She connects with Waheguru when she develops a respectful fear for Him in Guru's shelter. That individual recognizes (gets connected with) her husband (Waheguru) to whom He is kind. With respectful fear for Waheguru, the filth of her mind is washed away, and her body (and mind) becomes pure. By worshipping Waheguru, one's mind is enlightened, she acquires superior wisdom (pure thoughts), becomes virtuous, and her mind quits wavering. Such an individual lives in respectful fear (of God), stays in His fear, and performs all routine deeds in His fear. (With fear for Waheguru), The individual enjoys comfort in this world and is taken to the door of salvation in Waheguru's Court (merges with Him). With His fear in mind, one gets connected with the fearless Waheguru, when the soul of the devotee becomes one with the Supreme Soul. Only that human bride is noble who is liked by Waheguru with His kindness, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Bul(i) Jaaoun = sacrifice. Aik = the One (Waheguru).
MEANING: One should sing praise of Waheguru all the time and offer his life to Him. The tongue, that sings praise of someone else, and ignores Waheguru, deserve to be burned, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Unsa Aoutaar(u) = gods with differing qualities. Bhaaou = love for. Bhirriya = fight. Ishar = Shiva. Luhhiya = acquired; found. Alukh(u) = invisible. Pergutiya = appeared; realized. Soag(u) = grief. Vijoag(u) = separation. Usthir = stable; immortal. Theeya = becomes.

MEANING: Waheguru created gods with differing qualities and instilled love for Maya in them. They fought like common rajahs, and suffered (in their loss) or enjoyed (their success). Gods like Shiva and Brahma served the Supreme Being, but never found His limits. The fearless Waheguru is invisible, but can be "seen" (realized) in the shelter of the Guru. The devotee, who gets connected with (realizes) Waheguru, suffers no grief or separation (from Him). (Being a part of Waheguru), he becomes immortal in the world. 19.

Word Meaning: Aavun Jaan(u) = coming and going; perishable. Aakaar(u) = visible world. Laykha Likhiya = framed the laws. Pervaan(u) = approved. Gunaayaynda = claims self to be important. Gavaar(u) = uncivilized.

MEANING: The whole visible world is perishable. (The individual, who realizes) that it is Waheguru who has created the Laws to make His creation perishable, is approved in His Court. However, the individual, who claims himself to be important (that he can create or destroy something), is foolish and uncivilized, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Koonchur(u) = elephant. Peeluk(u) = mahout; who controls the elephant. Koonda = ankus; the sharp tool to control the elephant. Hustee = elephant. Oojhurr(i) = wilderness.

MEANING: The human mind is like an uncontrolled elephant, while the Guru is like its mahout. Divine Knowledge (bonding with Waheguru) is like an ankus, which guides the mind-elephant. Like an elephant without an ankus, the human mind (without Guru's advice) wanders in the wilderness (where it can find no right path), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Oopaaya = created. Ful = rewards. Nihchlaaya = everlasting. 20

MEANING: One should pray only before Waheguru, who has created the universe. One realizes all the rewards by serving his Guru who makes the devotee recite Waheguru's Naam all the time which is the real Amrit. One gets his discomforts (troubles) eliminated in the company of the holy men. Such a devotee realizes the everlasting wealth of Waheguru's Naam, and becomes worry-free, oh Nanak. 20.

Word Meaning: Miyaalaan = embankments; ridges. Ghur(u) = heart. Oocha = high; pure. Suraiy = becomes successful; the objective is achieved. Sujjun = friend; (Waheguru). Paahuniyo = guest. Bers(u) = let it rain. Ghuna = immense. Buhourr(i) = after. Kaah(i) = what for?

MEANING: Just like a field with raised embankments retains the rain water, the devotee, who builds strong protective walls around his mind (to keep the virtues in, and the vices away), acquires Waheguru's Naam in his pure heart, and achieves the objective of his life when the guest-Waheguru comes to visit him in his heart. If you have to make the rain of Waheguru's Naam-water, do it now; what use will it be after I die, oh Guru Ji? I am a sacrifice to the Sikhs who acquire Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Jun = devotee. Saayeen = Lord. Rukhvaala = guard; saviour. Huoun = I; me. Jea Junt = all living beings. Smaayee = pervading. Ninda = vilification. Puchaayee = punishes. Uchint(u)= worry-free. Paayee = feet.

MEANING: You are the true (eternal) Lord, oh Waheguru. I pray only before You. You are my saviour everywhere, and I recite only Your Naam. You are omnipresent and are the Lord of all the living beings. You punish and destroy those who vilify Your devotees. I drop on Waheguru's feet (surrender my body and mind to Him) and stay worry-free as all my worries are dispelled, oh Nanak. 21.

Word Meaning: Poora = perfect. Thaat(u) = creation; planning. Shah(u) = Lord. Vunjaara = businessman. Haat(u) = shop; business centre. Bohitha = boat; ship. Khayvaat(u) = boatman. Ghaat(u) = launching place; path. Kilvikh = sins.
Shoodh(u) = verified.

MEANING: Waheguru Himself has created the world with full planning. He Himself is the Lord of the world's business centre (virtues and vices of living beings), Himself the businessman (being present in every living being), and Himself the business centre. He, Himself, is the world sea, Himself the boat, and Himself the boatman. He is the Guru and the disciple at the same time, and Himself guides the people to the right path. I simply recite His Naam whereby all my sins are obliterated, oh Nanak. 22. Verified.

Word Meaning: Oobaariun(u) = salvages. Kaaj = task. Suvaaiun(u) = complete successfully. Visaariun(u) = forget. Bhuvjul = the world sea. Saakut = money lovers. Ninduk = vilifiers; malicious critics. Doosht = savage. Khin meh(i) = in a moment. Bidaariun(u) = are destroyed. Tayk = shelter. Suglay = all.
MEANING: The saviour, Waheguru, protects and salvages His devotees. He puts them in the shelter of the Guru and successfully completes their task (the objective of uniting with Him). One should never forget the kind Waheguru. He ferries His devotees across the world-sea in the shelter of the holy saints. At the same time, He (spiritually) destroys the money-lovers (non-believers) and the malicious critics in a moment. I always take shelter of the Lord in my mind whose worship provides all the comforts, and eliminates all discomforts (troubles), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Akooll = having no clan. Nirunjun = (Waheguru which is) above the effects of Maya. Purakh(u) = living power; omnipresent (God). Agumm(u) = inaccessible. Apaariyaiy = limitless. Nihaariyaiy = is seen; visible. Koorr(u) = false. Dhaariyaiy = dependent on You; created by You. Dataar = the provider. Oopaariyaiy = created. Soot Proyay = threaded together. Sunjaariyaiy = injected. Bhuvjul = the world sea. Munjh(i) = in the middle. Muthaariyaiy = on the forehead. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Mit(i) = measurements; limits. Lukhee = comprehended.
MEANING: The living power, Waheguru, who has no clan and is above the effects of Maya, is omnipresent, inaccessible, and limitless. Waheguru is eternal and is visible everywhere (is omnipresent). Nothing seems to be unreal in Your creation. You are the provider for all Your creation, oh Waheguru. You have strung the whole universe with a single thread of Your Huqam, and You have injected Your Light in everybody (You reside hidden inside them). Some people drown in the world sea (are engrossed in Maya), while some others are ferried across (stay free from the bonds of Maya) with Your Huqam. Only those people who have good fortune on their foreheads worship You, oh Waheguru. Your transcendental spirituality and Your limits cannot be comprehended. I am a sacrifice for You. 1.

Word Meaning: Toodh(u) = you. Kutaybaan = religious books of the Western religions. Sun(u) = including. Khurray = standing; with reverence. Shunkar = Shiva. Bishan = Vishnu. Bhunaa = utter. Peer = a Muslim religious leader = Aouliyay. Shaykh = a highly learned Muslim. Musaayik = many shaykhs. Oat(i) Poat(i) = cross threads of a fabric; weft and woof. Maouliyay = is blooming. Vinaas(u) = destruction. Dhemay = with noble principles. Tuggiyaiy = lasts till the end. 2.

MEANING: All religious books, including the Vedas, the Bible, the Koran, and the like, worship You (sing Your praise) with reverence, oh Waheguru. Nobody knows the number of people who are lying at Your Door (and worship You). Many Brahmas (like him), and many Indras sitting on their thrones worship You, and gods like Shiva and Vishnu, sing Your praise with their tongue. Many Muslim religious leaders and highly learned Muslims also worship You, and You are blooming (mixed well) in every heart like the cross threads in the fabric. The dealers in falsehood (lovers of Maya) destroy their spirituality, and those who deal in high morals last till the end (become one with You). (However, nobody can be blamed for their bad behaviour) because they do exactly what You make them do, oh Waheguru. 2.

Word Meaning: Maangoun = beg. Daasa = slave = Goliyaan. Boaliya = talk; recite Waheguru's Naam. Nidh(i) = Nidhaan = treasures. Ghunaa = immense. Nihaal(u) = blessed. Servnee = with the ears. Kmaavaan Kaar = do service. Pees(i) = grind (flour). Bigsaan = blooming of heart. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Nihaaliyaiy = cast sight. Nirgoon = having no virtues. Dichaiy = give; grant. Sunt Dhermsaaliyaiy = gathering place of the holy men.

MEANING: The only thing that I beg of You, is to make me the slave of Your slaves (devotees), oh Waheguru. I survive only by singing Your praise (in their company), and feel as if I have become the rajah of the nine mythical treasures of the world. Waheguru's slaves (devotees) have a huge treasure of Waheguru's Amrit-Naam in their possession. When I listen to Waheguru's praise with my ears in their company, I feel blessed. I perform the same deeds as they do, and my body (and mind) become pure. My heart blooms when I serve them by fanning them, fetching water for them, grinding wheat (with quern, the manual grinding mill), and washing their feet (showing full respect). I cannot do all this on my own; I need Your kind sight to do so, oh Waheguru. Kindly grant me some room in the company of the holy saints. 3.

Word Meaning: Mookta = free from worldly bonds. J(i) = whom. Oopdayshiya = advised; enlightened. Bulaayay = source of trouble. Mitay = obliterated. Undaysiya = doubts; misgivings. Nihaal = blissful. Maiyl(u) = filth. Oathaiy = there (in the company of holy men). Suntokh = Dhraapna = contentment. Ghut(i) = heart. Bundhun = bonds. Virlaiy = rare. Khaatiyaiy = earn; acquire.

MEANING: The devotee, who has been advised by the Guru, becomes free from the worldly bonds. All his misgivings get cleared, and all the sources of his troubles get obliterated. The world gets blessed by his sight. One's filth of his sins is washed away, and he acquires blissfulness in the company of the holy saint. Waheguru's Amrit - Naam is recited in the holy congregation where one acquires contentment, and his appetite for worldly desires is fulfilled. The worldly bonds of the devotee, whose heart has become a dwelling for Waheguru, are severed. But some rare individual earns the wealth of Waheguru's Naam with the benevolence of the Guru. 5.

M:5: Drisht(i) dhaar(i) Prubh(i) raakhiya, mun(u) tun(u) rutta Mool(i). Nanak jo Prubh bhaaniyaan, murou vichaari sool(i). 2.

Word Meaning: Drishtt(i) Dhaar(i) = casting kind sight. Rutta = imbued. Mool(i) = in the origin (God). Bhaaniyaan = are liked; favourite. Sool(i) = in pain.

MEANING: Waheguru protects his favourite devotees (from immoral activities) by casting His kind sight on them, and they stay imbued (by body and mind) in His love. On the other hand, I am unlucky and suffering in the pain of separation, oh Nanak. 2.

So lugga Satgur sayv ja kuou kerm(u) Dhoor(i).

Word Meaning: Birtha = situation; condition. Urp(i) Dhur(i) = offer. Doornut(i) = evil thinking. Jur(i) = burn. Bikhum(u) = tough; frightening. Dayv = light-like; source of enlightenment. Uggaiy = next world; Waheguru's Court. Murhou = die; suffer. Khin Meh(i) = in a moment. Oonaiy = less than full. Soobhur Bhur(i) = fill to the brim. Suntokh = contentment. Kerm(u) = benevolence; endowment. Dhoor(i) = from the source (Waheguru).

MEANING: If you have some mental discomfort, pray to the Guru by giving up your cunning, and surrender your body and mind to Him, oh my friend. Worship the Feet of the Guru (act on His Advice) whereby your evil thinking will burn away, and you will be able to swim across the frightening sea of Maya, in His company. Serve the source of enlightenment, Satguru, and destroy the fear of facing Waheguru in His Court. Satguru blesses you in a short moment and completely fills the devotee with noble qualities that he lacks. One's mind becomes fully content when one recites Waheguru's Naam all the time. But only that individual begins to serve Satguru, whom Waheguru is benevolent to. 6.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:5॥ ਲਗੜੀ ਸੁਥਾਨਿ ਜੋੜਣਹਾਰੈ ਜੋੜੀਆ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਲਹਰੀ ਲਖ ਸੈ ਆਨ ਡੁਬਣ ਦੇਇ ਨ ਮਾ ਪਿਰੀ॥ 1

Sloak M:5: Luggrri soothaan(i) joarrunhaaraiy joarreeya. Nanak lehri lukh saiy aan, doobbun dayay na ma Piri. 1.

Word Meaning: Luggrri = connected with. Soothaan = beautiful (holy) place (Waheguru's Naam). Joarrunhaaraiy = the connector (Satguru). Lehri = waves. Ann = (of the) other (Maya), Lukh = hundred thousand (countless). Saiy = hundreds.

MEANING: I have been connected to the holy place (Waheguru's Feet) by the Perfect Connector (Satguru); now my Lord will not let me drown in the waves of the other (in the sea of Maya) even if hundreds of thousands of waves of sensual pleasures arise in there, oh Nanak. 1.

M:5: Bun(i) bheehaavlay hik(u) saathi ludhum dookh hurta, Hur(i) Naama. Bul(i) bul(i) jaayeen Sunt piyaaray, Nanak poorun kaama. 2.

Word Meaning: Bun(i) = (world) forest. Bheehaavlay = frightening. Ludhum = found. Herta = remover; destroyer. Kaama = task; objective.

MEANING: In this frightening forest of the world, I have found a real friend in the form of Waheguru's Naam, which removes all the discomforts. I wish to sacrifice my life for the dear Satguru, because of whom my life's objectives (including union with Waheguru) have been fulfilled. 2.

Hur(i) Hur(i), Hur(i) Hur(i) Naam(u) jeevaan soon(i) soonay. 7.

Word Meaning: Nidhaan = treasures. Ruttiyaan = imbued. Puchhotaaou = repenting. Tayk = support; shelter. Wah(u), Wah(u) = praise to; accolades. Chitaar(i) = think of. Peh(i) = in possession. Dhaayiyaiy = go (in womb).

MEANING: One realizes all the treasures when he gets imbued in Your Naam, oh Waheguru. There is no cause to repent when one recites Your Naam. No one can reach Your devotee (with evil thoughts) when he has Your protection. My Perfect Guru deserves countless accolades (unlimited praise) because of whom I can realize all my wished comforts. The Guru possesses the treasures of Waheguru's praise, but those can be realized only with His benevolence. A man does not take rebirths when he is blessed with the kind sight of Satguru. The kind Waheguru protects me by making me His slave (an obedient servant). I survive by listening to His Naam. 7.

Word Meaning: Ghunaa = tremendous. Duyyay = God. Vunjaiy = disappears. Roagaan Ghaan(i) = all diseases (discomforts or troubles). Tthaandh(i) = peace. Poorun hovaiy = is fulfilled. Bighun = hindrance; impediment. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Giyan Pudaaruth = Divine Knowledge (connection with God). Mut(i) = wisdom. Thoak = things. Chhaayiyaiy = shelter; protection. . 8.

MEANING: One acquires tremendous comfort by reciting the Naam of the compassionate Waheguru. Sources of all troubles disappear when one sings praise of God. One acquires peace of mind by thinking of Waheguru, and all his wishes are fulfilled by enshrining His Naam in the heart. One faces no impediment (in his union with Waheguru) when he overcomes his selfishness and ego. One acquires the wisdom to get connected with God from the Guru. But only those devotees receive all these valuable items (qualities) whom He gives them with His benevolence. You are the Lord of everybody, and everybody is in Your shelter, oh Waheguru. 8.

Word Meaning: Nudi = river (of life). Trundurri = swimming; treading. Khoaj(u) = foot. Khoombhaiy = is caught; dig deeper. Munjh(i) = in the middle. Maiynda = mine. Heeurra = heart; mind. Seetum(u) = is stitched. Toolha = raft; crude boat. 1.

MEANING: With Your love in my mind, my foot is not caught in the mud of the attractions of Maya when I swim through the world sea (tread the path of life), oh my Waheguru! With my (Nanak's) heart stitched with Your Feet (my mind focused on Your Naam), You serve as the boat (to ferry me across the sea of Maya), oh Lord. 1.

M:5: Jinha disundurriyaan doormut(i) vunjaiy, mittar asaadrray sayee. Huoun dhoondhayndi jug subaaya, jun Nanak virlay kayee. 2.
Word Meaning: Dissundurriyaan = on seeing. Doomut(i) = evil thinking. Vunjaiy = disappears (western Punjabi). Dhoonndhayndi = searching. Jun = Waheguru's devotee.
MEANING: I make friends only with those in whose company my evil thinking disappears. But such holy men are few and far between in the world, which I have searched well, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Ditthiyaan = on seeing; in the company of. Maiyl(u) = filth. Vootthiyaan = living with; being there. Jup(i) = recite. Bundhun = bonds (of Maya). Doot = enemies; demons. Chhup(i) = hide; disappear. Rung(u) = affection. Dhaariya = supported; created. Agumm = inaccessible. Apaariya = limitless. Raiyn(i) = night. Ker = hands. 9.
MEANING: You come to my mind when I am among Your devotees, oh Waheguru. The filth of my mind is washed away in the company of the Guru. One's fear of rebirths is eliminated when one recites the Guru's Shabad. The holy men loosen (sever) one's bonds with Maya while the demons (lust, rage, greed, etc.) disappear. The devotees stay in the love for Waheguru which is supporting the whole universe (has created it). But the transcendental state of the inaccessible and the limitless Creator is higher than the highest. One should recite his Naam with folded hands (with full reverence), and with every breath, day and night. One acquires the company of Waheguru's holy devotees when He is kind to him. 9.

Sloak(u) M:5: Baar(i) vidaanurraiy hoomus dhoomus, kookaan puyyiyaan raahi. Tuou Sheh sayti luggrri doari, anund sayti bun(u) gaahi. 1.
Word Meaning: Baar(i) Vidaanurraiy = stranger's door (this world which is foreign to the man). Hoomus Dhoomus = noise; hullabaloo. Kookaan = shrieks; screams. Raahi = travellers. Sheh = Lord. Luggrri Doari = connection of love. Anund = blissfulness. Sayti = with. Bun(u) = (the world) forest. Gaahi = tread out.
MEANING: There is a lot of hullabaloo of Maya in this world, which is strange to the man (his real world is union with Waheguru), and where the human travellers (visitors to the world) cry with pain of discomfort. But I am treading this world-forest blissfully because I am connected with the Lord with love, oh Nanak. 1.

M:5: Sachi baiysuk tinha sung(i) jin sung(i) jupiyaiy Naaoun. Tinh sung(i) sung(i) na keechyee, jinh aapna sooaou. 2.

Word Meaning: Sachi = permanent; everlasting. Baiysuk = company; association. Sung(i) = with. Sung(u) = company; association. Keechyee = have; make. Sooaou = selfishness; personal interest.
NOTE: Note the distinction between the meanings of Sung(i) and Sung(u).
MEANING: Only the association with those is true (everlasting) in whose company one recites Waheguru's Naam. One should never associate with those who have their personal interest to achieve, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Vayla = time; moment. Pervaan(u) = approved; auspicious. Bhaytiya = got connected with. Taytiya = reprimand; come close. Nihchul = stable; everlasting. Thaan(u) = spiritual state. Brahmatiya = universe. Tut(u) Giyan = Divine Knowledge. Dhiyan = concentration. Drisht(i) = kind sight. Smaytiya = absorbed in. Mookhoun Boalatiya = words of the mouth of the Guru (His Shabad). Nihaal(u) = blissful. Perkh(i) = by testing. Khoatiya = impure; deceitful.
MEANING: That moment is auspicious when one gets connected with Satguru. No (mental) discomfort ever comes even close to those who are in the company of the Guru. Such a devotee attains the everlasting, high spiritual state, in which he never takes rebirth. He sees only the "One" (Waheguru) throughout the universe. He concentrates on the source of Divine Knowledge (Waheguru), and stays absorbed in Him. Everybody should recite the Shabad of the Guru, which comes from His mouth (He utters). By recognizing Waheguru's Huqam, one becomes blissful and stays in the mental state of all comforts. A devotee, who has been tested by Waheguru and has been accepted for His treasure (union with Him), never becomes impure again. 10.

Word Meaning: Goachraiy = suite only; only You are capable. Vertaiy = happen. Dhooray = from the beginning. Bisum(u) Bhuyyay = became mesmerized. Bismaad = mesmerizing. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Bhaavaiy = liked. Sayay = that. Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. 11.
MEANING: Only You are capable of the tasks performed by You, oh Waheguru. Only that happens in the world which You have planned right from the beginning. One becomes mesmerized by watching Your nature. I have come to Your shelter as Your slave; please be kind and raise my spiritual level acceptable to You. You control the treasure of Your Naam, and grant it only to the people You like. Only that individual acquires Your Naam whom You are kind to. You are inaccessible, incomprehensible, and limitless; nobody can find Your limits. Only that devotee recites Your Naam whom You are kind to, oh God. 11.

Word Meaning: Kurrchhiyaan = ladles. Sooaou = taste. Soonjiyaan = empty (do not absorb anything). Disunn(i) = are visible; are radiant. Ruttay = imbued. Rus(i) = sweet taste.
MEANING: Ladles move around in the tasty dishes, but cannot enjoy their taste because they are unable to absorb anything. (Similarly, those individuals do not enjoy Waheguru's Naam who do not get imbued in His love). Only those devotees have radiant faces (feel blissful) who are imbued in His sweet love, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Khoajeen = investigators. Ludhum(u) = found out; identified.
Oojaar(i) = destroy. Vaarr(i) = fence; protection. Khayt(u) = field; human body. Chhijjyee = weakens; is damaged.

MEANING: The investigators (devotees) have identified the demons (lust, rage, etc.) which destroy the crop (of spirituality) in the field of their heart. But the crop of spirituality of those is not damaged whose (heart) field is protected by the (impenetrable) fence of Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Soyay = that (God). Doohaan Siriyaan = both ends (birth and death). Khin = moment. Raas(i) = makes successful; favourable. Tiyaag-hou = give up; abandon. Oopaav = efforts; plans. Oat = shelter. Guhou = hold; take. Luhou = acquire. Kerm Dherm = religious deeds (of high morality). Bighun(u) = hinderance. Vootthiya = takes residence. Tootthiyaan = pleased to be kind. 12.

MEANING: Worship the eternal Waheguru, which controls (possesses) everything. He is the Lord of both ends (birth and death) and can cause His devotees to achieve their objectives successfully in a moment. So, give up all your plans, and rush to take His shelter to acquire the best comforts, oh my friends. One acquires Divine Knowledge and high moral thinking (to perform noble deeds) in the company of the holy men. When one recites Waheguru's Amrit-Naam, he faces no hindrance (to connect with Waheguru). Waheguru makes the heart of that devotee His dwelling, whom He is kind to. One acquires all the treasures when God is pleased to be kind to him. 12.

Word Meaning: Wah(u) = wonderful; amazing. Tthaandh(i) = peace; contentment. Sumruth(i) = fully capable. Chookay = eliminated. Bil Bilaap = cries; complaints. Taap = Dookh = Roag = diseases; troubles. Pertaap = majesty; splendour. Rukh = protection. Greeb Nivaaj(i) = one who honours the lowly. Thaap(i) = by establishing; bestowing honour. Bundhun = bonds. Kaap(i) = sever. Tishun = fire of desires. Poonni = fulfilled. Suntokh = Dhraap = contentment. Layp(u) Na = No coating of any effect; unaffected, indifferent. Poonn(i) = accepted noble deeds.

MEANING: Great and amazing is the Creator, Waheguru, who has brought peace to my mind! He is kind to all the living beings, so one must recite His Naam all the time. With the benevolence of the fully capable Waheguru, all my crying and complaints have gone away. With the majesty of the Perfect Guru, all my troubles have run away (disappeared). Waheguru, which always honours the humble, established me (made me capable of fighting any evil), and provided His protection. He freed me from the bonds of Maya by severing them. The fire of my desires has been put out, and all my wishes have been fulfilled; now I am fully content. The Lord is greater than the greatest and is completely unaffected by any noble deeds or any sins. 13.

Word Meaning: Pervaan(u) = approved; honoured. Puvaiy Thaayayn = given respect. Tayk = support; shelter. Ruttay = imbued. Duyaal = compassionate. Mehr = kindness. Pohaiy = touch; affect. Adhaarr(u) = support; (mental) food. Ikko, Ikk(u) = one and only (Waheguru). Aghaayay = contented.

MEANING: The words of the devotees (which impart Divine Knowledge) are approved and honoured in Waheguru's Court. Your devotees have Your support and are imbued in Your eternal Naam, oh Waheguru. All troubles of the devotees, whom You are kind to, are eradicated. You instil kindness in Your devotees' hearts as a result of which they become highly compassionate. Attraction for Maya, which is a disease in itself and is the root of all discomforts and pains, does not go near Your devotees (affect them). The basis of comfort of the devotees is Your praise, which they sing all the time. They recite the Naam of the one and only Waheguru day and night. Drinking the Naam-Amrit, the devotees stay fully contented. 14.

Word Meaning: Soor =Beir = brave. Vuriyam = valiant. Hoarriyaiy = stop; prevent. Fauj = army. Sutaani = powerful. Haatth = obstinate; persistent. Punchaan = the five demons (lust, rage etc,). Joarriyaiy = assembled. Dus Naari = the ten senses – five senses and their five implementors. Aoudhoot = unaffected by Maya. Chumorriyaiy = stick together. Rulaayay = mix with; make friends with. Loarriyaiy = wish for. Traiy Goon = all living beings which are affected by the three taits of Maya. Vus(i) = in control (become slaves). Morriyaiy = stops; prevents; thwarts. Bherm(u) = misgivings. Koat(u) = fort. Khaayee = ditch (filled with water to prevent access to the fort). Kit(u) Bidh(i) = with what means? Bikhum Dul(u) = the tough army. Phorriyaiy = break into pieces. Ker = hands.

MEANING: The army, which the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachments, and ego) have assembled, is very powerful and persistent. The demons are very brave and valiant, and cannot be stopped (from attacking) by anyone. They stick to the ten senses, which are otherwise unattached to Maya, and bring them under their control. They conquer them (the senses), and make them their associates; this is exactly what they wish for. The living beings, which are easily affected by the three effects of Maya, become their slaves, and nobody can thwart their attack. They have built a strong fort of misgivings, which is surrounded by a deep ditch (which is filled with the attractions of Maya); so how can such a protected fort be broken into? (The only way) To break the fort of this tough army into pieces is to worship the Perfect Guru. With folded hands, I pray before the Guru, day and night (to protect me against their attacks). 15.

Alukh = invisible. Abhayv = unknowable.

MEANING: Great, and worthy of worship, is the Satguru who has demolished the fort of misgivings! Amazing is the Satguru who connects the devotees with Waheguru. Waheguru's Naam is an inexhaustible treasure which is bestowed by the Guru as the panacea for all diseases. He destroys the frightening, serious disease of selfishness and ego. I have acquired the great treasure of Waheguru's Naam. (By virtue of the Naam), I recognized myself (that I am a part of Waheguru), thereby winning over the (attractions of Maya) during my human life, which is not easily available. One cannot sing enough praise of the Guru who is fully capable (of everything), and is the source of enlightenment. The Guru is a manifestation of Waheguru, which has no ends, is invisible, and unknowable (enigmatic). 16.

Word Meaning: Aad(i) Joogaad(i) = which was present at the beginning, and before the eons. Pusaariya = spread; disseminate. Oona = less than full. Ghut(i) = in the heart. Saariya = looks after. Sumruth =fully capable. Ghaaliya = works hard (to recite His Naam). Voottha = takes residence. Ruchun(u) = creation. Paaliya = raises. Aapay Aap(i) = the only Lord. Tayk = shelter. Smaaliya = remembers.
MEANING: Waheguru has been protecting (looking after) us ever since the creation of the universe. Waheguru has disseminated His everlasting Naam(u) (Laws) everywhere (meaning He is omnipresent). He is never less than full anywhere and looks after everybody. (Being present in every heart), The compassionate and omnipotent Waheguru Himself does the hard labour of reciting His Naam (instills the zest of reciting His Naam in them). The devotee, whose heart becomes a dwelling for Waheguru, stays blissful forever. Waheguru creates the universe Himself and raises all the living beings. The limitless Waheguru, which has no ends, is the only Lord (has no rival). I remember Him (recite His Naam) in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 19.

Word Meaning: Aad(i) = beginning. Mudh(i) = in the middle. Chukhiya = tasted. Sung(u) = company. Ruvaiy = recites. Munoruth = objectives. Bhuvaiy = goes through. Kaarun(u) = creation. Dhoor(i) = dust of the feet (service to them).
MEANING: Waheguru protects our dignity (high morality) at the beginning, in the middle, and at the end of our life. The individual, who tastes the sweet Naam-Amrit gifted by Satguru, and sings the virtues of the limitless Waheguru all the time in the company of the holy men, realizes all his objectives, and never goes through any life form again. Waheguru, which is the creator of the universe, controls everything. I, beg for the dust of the feet of the holy men (wish to serve them), in whose company I will get salvation, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Oopaaya created. Pervaan(u) = approved. Boojh(i) = recognizing. Nihaal(u) = blissful. Foormaaya = said; advised. Bhermaaya = misled. Mit = friend (Waheguru). Bhoolaaya = misleads. Nit = all the time.
MEANING: Enshrine the Naam in your heart of Waheguru, which has created you, oh my friend. The devotees, who recite the Naam of the Lord, attain mental bliss. Their human life becomes successful, and they are approved by Waheguru; such individuals are the true

Sikhs of the Guru. They feel blissful to understand and to obey the Will of the Lord. Those are not misled (from the path of high morality) whom Waheguru is kind to. They accept the Will of Waheguru and enjoy comfort in whatever the Lord gives them. The devotee, to whom Waheguru is kind, recognizes the Huqam of his friend – Waheguru. But the individual, whom Waheguru misguides Himself, dies and takes birth all the time (repeatedly), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Ninduk = vilifiers; malicious critics. Tutkaa(i) = in a moment. Tikkun = stay; take rest. Khuv(i) = tolerate; endure. Jootay = put through. Puchhaarriun(u) = throw away violently; put to defeat. Jum Maarug(i) = on the path to the Angel of death. Mootay = left. Bil- laaniyaan = those who cry in pain. Ghor(i) = extreme; deep. Sootay =lie down; put in. Kuntth(i) = neck. Sutay = eternal.

MEANING: Waheguru (spiritually) destroys the vilifiers of His saints in a moment (right away), and does not let them enjoy peace even for a single moment. Waheguru cannot tolerate the trouble His devotees face and punishes the vilifiers in many lives. God throws them violently on the ground, holding them by the hair (punishes them), and puts them on the path leading to the Angel of death (reincarnation). They suffer in the extreme hellish conditions where they are put in. The eternal Waheguru protects His devotees by holding them to His neck (hugging them with affection), oh Nanak. 20.

Word Meaning: Vudbhaagihou = highly fortunate. Poorun = fully present; pervading. Bighun = impediment.

MEANING: You will be highly lucky to recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is pervading the waters and the land, oh my friends. One faces no obstacle (in the path of union with Waheguru) if he recites Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:5॥ ਕੋਟਿ ਬਿਘਨ ਤਿਸੁ ਲਾਗਤੇ ਜਿਸ ਨੋ ਵਿਸਰੈ ਨਾਉ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਅਨਦਿਨੁ ਬਿਲਪਤੇ ਜਿਉ ਸੁੰਞੈ ਘਰਿ ਕਾਉ॥ 2

M:5: Koat(i) bighun tis(u) laagtay jis nu vissraiy Naaoun. Nanak, undin(u) bilptay, jiyoun soonjaiy ghur(i) kaaoun. 2.

Word Meaning: Koat(i) = millions. Vissraiy = foget. Bilptay = cry in pain and for help. Soonjaiy = deserted. Kaaoun = crow.

MEANING: One faces millions of impediments in the journey of life if he forgets Waheguru's Naam. They cry in discomfort (and complain) like a crow in a deserted house (where he finds nothing to eat), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Simer(i) = reciting (Naam). Munoruth Pooriya = objective is achieved. Ichh Poonni = wish fulfilled. Visooriya = worries. Ghaalda = working hard. Sehj = peaceful state. Aanund = blissfulness. Vootthay = come to reside. Ikk(u) = One (Waheguru). Drishtaaya = appear. Smaaya = merged.

MEANING: All objectives are achieved successfully by reciting Waheguru's Naam. All one's wishes and his hopes are fulfilled, and all his worries disappear. One acquires the treasure of Naam, which he has been looking for. His soul merges with Waheguru's Soul for which he had been working so hard to achieve. Comfort, peace, and blissfulness come to stay in his heart, and his birth and death cycle come to an end. The Lord and the devotee become "one", and they appear to be one. Keht Kabir, Ram Naam bin(u) moond dhoonay puchhtuyyee haiy. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Sing = horns. Goong = mute. Thaynga = (hit with a) stick. Moond = head. 1. Baiyl = oxen. Biraanay = belonging to others; subservient. Naakun = nostrils. Kaandhun = shoulders; neck. Kodou = millet. Bhoos(u) = shreaded stubble. Pause.

Doalut = walk while staggering (weakly). Bun = jungle, meadow. Aj-houn = still. Aghuyee = full stomach. Keeoo Apno = the result of the deeds done. 2. Muhaa Bherm = big journey (of rebirths). Boodou = drown; lost. Bhermuyee = travel; go through. Aousar(u) = opportunity. Kut = when. 3.
Bhermut = wandering aimlessly. Tayluk = a machine to extract oils from seeds, which was run by oxen. Kup(i) = monkey (which has to dance as a slave of his master who catches him with a trap which has a bait of roasted chick peas. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Raiyn = night (of life). Moond Dhoonay = with drooped head. 4.
MEANING: (Without Waheguru's Naam, the man will be reborn as an animal, like an ox). As an ox, he will be a slave to others (his human masters) with his nostrils pierced for harness, and with his neck worn out because of the hard workload - for example, ploughing. And he will get only shredded millet stubble to eat. Pause. So, how will he sing Waheguru's praise when he will have four feet (as an animal), two horns, and be a mute (not able to speak)? Where will he hide his head when he is hit with a stick, whether he is standing or sitting? 1. He will be wandering with a stagger in the meadow all day, but his stomach will still not be full. Because he does not listen to the advice of the holy men, he will have to bear the fruit of his done deeds. 2. Enduring discomforts and some comforts in life, the man gets drowned in the sea of huge misgivings and suffers through countless life forms. He wastes away his priceless human life by ignoring the Lord, who knows when he will get this opportunity (human life) again (to worship God). 3.
He spends his whole life without any spiritual gain, like an ox of the oil-extracting machine (which runs in never-ending circles), or like a monkey who has to dance without any reward every day for his master who caught him using a bait of roasted chick peas. Without the Lord's Naam, he has to repent with his head drooped, oh Kabir. 4.1.

Humra, in ka, daata Aik(u) Rughuraayee. 4.2.
Word Meaning: Moos(i), Moos(i) Rovaiy = sobs; snivels Rughuraayee = God. 1. Tun-naa = weaving. Boon-na = knitting. Tujiyo = has given up. Pause.
Baahoun = put through. Bayhee = a wooden pipe used in weaving. Snayhee = dear.
Oachhi Mut(i) = poor (low) wisdom. Joolaaha = weaver. Luhhiyo Laaha = acquired benefit. 2 & 3.
NOTE: In this holy Shabad, Kabir Sahib describes his mother's concern about his living situation.
MEANING: (Expressing her concern about my financial situation), my mother sobs and complains to God about how her son, Kabir, will survive in his present lifestyle. 1. Kabir has quit his family business of weaving and knitting, and has written God's Naam on his body (just stays imbued in His Naam, and does nothing else). Pause. (Kabir Sahib responds): for as long as I put the thread through the wooden pipe (to weave), I forget my dear Ram (God) (which I do not want to). 2. I have low wisdom, and on top of that,

I have a low caste of weavers. But I have earned Waheguru's Naam as a benefit (as my asset). 3. Kabir says: My Lord is the provider for me and for my family, oh my mother.4.2

Doojaiy paathur dhuriyaiy paaoun. Jay oh(u) dayva, ta oh(u) bhee dayva. Keh(i) Namdeo, hum Hur(i) kee sayva. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Juou = if. Budaayee = honour; exaltation. 1. Pud(u) Nirbaan = spiritual state above the effecs of Maya. Aavun Jaan = birth and death; reincarnation. Pause. Taiyn = You (Waheguru). Bherm Bhoolaayee = misguided in doubts. Boojhaayee = wisdom. 2. Sehsa = worries. Huoun = I, me. 3. Paathur = stone; idol. Bhaaou = love; respect. Dayva = god. 4.

MEANING: It will be no exaltation for me if the Lord bestows the reign of a state on me; and by the same token, it will not be any degradation if He makes me beg for living. 1.
Recite the Naam of the Lord so as to achieve the spiritual state above the effects of Maya, as a result of which you will not be born again, and again, oh my mind. Pause.
The whole world, which has been created by You, is misled in misgivings; but those who understand the reality whom You enlighten, oh my Lord. 2. All doubts and worries of the man get cleared when he gets connected with Satguru, and I do not see any other power (than the Lord) whom I may worship. 3. People worship one rock (an idol), but step on the other. (By logic) if the first rock is a god, the other should also be the god! (So, why should the first be worshipped? However, I simply serve the Lord, oh Naamdayo. 4.1.

Jiyoun aakaashaiy ghurroolo mirg trishna bhuriya. Naamay chay Soami, Beetthlo, Jin(i) teenaiy juriya. 3.2.

Word Meaning: Mulaiy = filth (of vices). Laanchhaiy = stain; scar. Paarmulo = beyond any filth. Permleeyo = source of fragrances. Baittho = sitting; present. Baayee = sister; friend. Aavut = taking birth. Paykhio = see. 1.
Ramuyeeya = beautiful Waheguru. Aakool(u) = present everywhere. Pause. Punkhiulo = birds. Khoaj(u) = feet; foot steps; path of flight. Nirkhiyo Na = cannot be seen. Maajhaiy = in the middle. Maachhlo = fish. 2. Ghurroolo = a water container. Mirg Trishna = mirage. Beetthlo = God. Teenaiy = the three effects of Maya. Juriya = destroyed.
MEANING: The Lord has no stain of any filth as He is beyond any filth (of thoughts or of immoral actions), and He is present hidden like fragrance in the flowers. Nobody has ever seen Him taking birth, so how can anyone know what He is like? 1. Who can describe Him, and who can comprehend the Lord who is omnipresent, oh my friend? Pause.
Like the path of a bird flying in the sky, and that of a fish swimming in water, cannot be seen (as they leave no sign behind), the Lord is invisible in nature. 2.
Like a pitcher of water in the sky - a mirage - where water appears to be present in the sky to a deer which runs after it, but can never find it, (the gimmicks of Maya are captivating and are like a mirage; the man runs behind them to achieve happiness, but he never finds them because Maya (wealth) is treacherous and can leave one any time causing much grief). But my Lord is such that He has burned all the three effects of Maya (is above the gimmicks of Maya), oh Namay (Naam Dev). 3.2.

Word Meaning: Buchhraiy = calf. Thunou = from the udder. Bitaariyo = befouled (rendered unfit by sucking first). Bhunvur(u) = bumble bee. Meen = fish. Bigaariyo = ruined. Pooj = the ingredients for ritualistic worship. Churravoun = offer. Anoop = (Waheguru) with unparalled beauty. 1. Maiylagur = the agar (sandal) trees which grow on the Mullyay mountain (sandal wood is also an ingredient for idol worship). Bayhray = wrapped around. Bhooyunga = snakes. Bikh(u) = poison. Amrit = the mythical water which makes the consumers immortal; something delicious or pleasant in life (like sandal wood). (Thus, the amrit of sandal wood is laced with the poison of snakes). Ikk Sunga = together. 2. Dhoop = incense. Deep = lamp. Nuyeebayda = sweets offered to the idol. Baasa = stale. Daasa = slave. 3. Urpoun = offer. Nirunjun = God (which is above the effects of Maya). 4. Urcha = bowing to the idol or decorating it. Aah(i) Na = could not do. Toari = Yours. 5.

NOTE: Hindus worship their idols first, washing them with milk, and then offering them milk, flowers, sandalwood, incense, earthen lamps, and sweets. But Ravidass Ji maintains that none of these ingredients is pure for one reason or another, and as a result, such worship is not acceptable to the Lord.

MEANING: The milk to be offered to the idol is not pure, as it has already been befouled by the calf when he sucks it from the udder. Similarly, the bumblebee befouls the flowers, and the fish, the water. 1. Where should I get the pure ingredients to worship my Lord, oh my mother? I cannot find untouched flowers, so how can I please (realize) my Lord with unparalleled beauty? Pause. Similarly, the sandal trees growing on the Mullyay mountain are wrapped around by the snakes; thus, the pleasant amrit of the sandalwood and the poison of the snakes are present together; so how can I get pure sandalwood? 2. Also, the incense, the lamps and the sweets prepared for the idol are stale and not fresh. So, how can I, the slave of the Lord, worship Him? 3. (If His worship does require such pure ingredients as mentioned), my worship for Him cannot be accepted. (So, I feel highly dejected) thinking what my spiritual condition might be, oh Ravidass? 5.1.

Word Meaning: Untar(i) = inside. Mul(i) = filth. Nirmul = pure. Bhaykh = garb. Oodaasi = one who has renounced the world. = Sanyasi. Hirdaiy Kumul = lotus like heart = Ghut(i). Braham = God. Cheena = recognized; realized. 1.

Bhemaiy Bhooli = misled in misgivings. Jai Chanda = a common name used for the man. Permanunda = source of supreme bliss (God). Pause. Pind(u) = body; belly. Khintha = a small quilt that the yogis wear. Moonda = big glass earrings that the yogi wears. Bhoom(i) Musaan = the ground of graveyards. Bhusm = ash. Tut(u) = the reality; the origin; Lord. 2. Jup-hou = recitation of some mantra. Tup-hou = torture self (to please some god). Bulovhou = churn. Lukh Chaureeseeh = the 8.4 million life forms (a Hindu belief). Nirbaani = unaffected by Maya. 3. Kmundul = a small bucket to collect milk etc. Kaapurria = those who wear a quilt of rags (to show a false detachment from Maya). Utth-sutth(i) = the 68 holy places of the Hindus. Phirrahi = travel; pilgrimage. Budut(i) = says. Kun = the grain inside the husk of the cereal crops. Gaah(i) = a process to thresh cereal crops. 4.

MEANING: Some people claim to be Sanyasis, but they do not recognize the presence of the Lord in their lotus-like hearts. They do put on the garb of the Sanyasis to look holy, but do not purify (wash the filth of) their mind. 1. The man is completely misled in misgivings and never recognizes the Lord, who is the source of supreme bliss. Pause. He begs for and eats food from every household, and enlarges his body (belly). He wears the symbols - a small quilt, glass earrings, and a coating of ash from the graveyards - of his Yogi sect to look religious. But, in reality, they are just covers to hide his attachment to Maya. However, he cannot attain a high spiritual state without taking shelter of the Guru. 2. What do you achieve by reciting ritualistic mantras or by torturing yourself, oh man? All such efforts are like churning water (without any gain)? The real power to worship is the Lord who has created the whole universe, and who is totally detached from Maya. 3. What are you carrying a small bucket and wearing a quilt made of rags for? Also, why would you go on pilgrimage of the 68 holy places? ((They are all worthless for spirituality) because all these acts are akin to threshing a cereal crop which has no grain in its husk, oh Tirloachun. 4. 1.

Word Meaning: Unt(i) Kaal(i) = at the time of death. Lashmi = Maya; wealth. Simeraiy = remembers. Chinta = thoughts. Joan(i) = life form. Vul(i) Vul(i) = again, and again. 1. Uree Baayee = oh, sister. Beesraiy = forgotton. Pause.
Istree = woman; wife. Aoutraiy = is born. 2. Sookur = pig. 3. Mundar = mansion; house. Prayt = ghost. 4. Narrayin = God. Budut(i) = says. Nur = man. Mookta = free from the bonds of Maya. Peetumbar(u) = God (a name for Krishna). 5.

NOTE: Using Hindu beliefs (which are not supported by Guru Granth Sahib), Tirloachun Ji advises the man to remember God all the time to find salvation. It is not important for Trilochan Ji what lifeform the man takes after death. The only message Tirloachun Ji wants to deliver is that the man cannot break the cycle of rebirths without seeking the shelter of God.

MEANING: A man, who remembers (thinks of) Maya near the time of his death, and dies in those thoughts, is born as a snake again, and again. 1. One should never forget the Lord's Naam, oh my friend. Pause. A man who remembers and dies remembering his wife near the time of his death is born as a prostitute again and again. 2. Likewise, a man who dies remembering his sons is born as a pig again and again. 3.

A man who thinks of his house close to his death, and dies in those thoughts, is born as a ghost again, and again. 4. But a man who remembers the Lord near his death and dies in His thoughts becomes free from the bonds of Maya, and the Lord takes residence in his heart, oh Tirloachun. 5.2.

Word Meaning: Permaad(i) = Perm + Aad(i). Perm= highest. Aad(i) = the root of everything. Purakh = the Supreme Bing; omnipresent. Munopimun(g) = Mun+ Anopimun(g). Anopimun(g) = has no equal. Sat(i) = eternal. Aad(i) = and the like. Bhaav = traits; virtues. Rutun(g) = imbued; mixed well with; has. Permudbhootun(g) = Perun(g) + udbhootun(g). Perung(g) = beyond; too much. Udbhootun(g) = amazing; mind-blowing. Perkrit = Maya. Perun(g) = beyond. Judchint(i) = Jud+achint(i). Jud = which. Achint(i) = beyond imagination. Serb Gutun(g) = reaching everywhere; omnipresent. 1. Kayvul = only. Munorumun(g) = mind-captivating. Bud(i) = utter; recite. Tut = the root; God. Amrit Mayun(g) = full of Amrit. Dunoat(i) = to punish. Jusmernayn = Jus + simrayn. Jus = of whom. Simrayn = remembering. Juraadh(i) = Juraa + aadh(i). Juraa = old age. Adh(i) = mental disease. Bhuyun(g) = fear. Pause.

Ichhuss(i) = if you wish. Jumaad(i) = Jum + aad(i). Jum = angel of death. Aad(i) = and the like. Prabhuyun(g) = to defeat; to destroy. Suvust(i) = well-being; comforts. Sookirt = noble deeds. Kritun(g) = performing. Bhuv = present. Bhoot = past. Bhaav = future. Sumbiyun(u) = Su(n) + Abhiyun(g) . Su(n) = completely. Abhiyun(g) = non-perishable. Persunnmidun(g) = Pesunun(g) + idun(g). Persunun(g) = is happy; blissful. Idun(g) = this (God). 2. Per Grehun(g) = others' house or property. Judibidh(i) = Jud + abidh(i). Jud = which. Abidh(i) = against morality. Aachurnun(g) = character. Tuj(i) = give up. Sulul = all. Doohkrit = immoral deeds. Doormutee = evil thinking. Chukurdhur = wearing a hollow disk-like sharp weapon (to punish the evil); a name for God. Shenun(g) = shelter. 3. Nij = personal; dear. Nihkayvla = above the effects of Maya. Kermna = by deeds.

Buchsa = by words (of praise). Kin(g) = of what use? Jogayn = path of the yogis. Jugayn = of yugs (a ritual to please some deity whereby huvuns are performed, some animals are sacrificed and meals are served to the upper classes). Daanayn = donations to Brahmans. Tupsa = self-affliction (to please some deity). 4. Gobindayt(i) Jup(i) = (please) worship God like this. Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Pudung(u) = state (source). Tus = His. Sphootun(g) = visibly. Bhuv = present. Bhoot = past. Serb Gutun(g) = omnipresent. 5.

MEANING: The Supreme Being Lord is the highest (transcendent) of all in the universe, is the origin of everything, is present in all, has all the virtues in Him, and none else is like Him. The Lord is mind-captivating, far beyond Maya, incomprehensible, and omnipresent. 1. One should recite only the Naam of the most attractive Lord, who is the source of Amrit, has real existence, and by whose worship one is not punished in the birth-death cycle (the cycle is broken), and the fear of death, and no worries come even near the devotee. Pause. If you wish to defeat the Angel of death, and wish praise and comfort for you, then start performing noble deeds, and worship the Lord which was there in the past, is here now, will be there in the future, and which is supreme, is always blissful, and is completely indestructible. 2. In addition, quit all the vices like greed, keeping an evil eye on the belongings of others, and all other ignoble deeds because they are contradictory to the high moral character of a noble man. Overcome (get rid of) your evil thoughts, and come to the shelter of the Lord, which is capable of punishing the evil. 3. The dear devotees of the Lord are pure by their mind, deeds, and by their words. They have nothing to do with the path of the yogis, yugs, self-affliction, and with donations to the Brahmans, as they find them totally worthless in the path of spirituality. Their only deed is to worship the Lord. 4. Worship only the Lord, and recite His Naam only. He is the source of all supernatural powers and is present now and was present in the past. I have forsaken the support of all other gods or deities and have come to the shelter of the Lord, oh Jai Dev. 5.1.
