Sugul butriya. Birkh ikutriya. Buhou bundhun puriya. 3. Thir(u) Sadh sufriya. Jeh keertun(u) Huriya. Nanak shernuriya. 4.1

Word Meaning: Dootun = the five demons (lust, greed etc.). Sunguriya = company. Bhooyungun = snakes. Busriya = reside with. Oopuriya = destroyed. 1. Tuou = then. Sehjuriya = blissful state. Pause. Mithun = false. Mohuriya = attachments. Un Kuou = which belongs to others. Ghoomun Ghiriya = whirlpool. 2. Butriya = travellers; visitors. Birkh Ikutriya = gather on a tree. Bundhun = bonds; obligations. 3. Thir(u) = stable; immortal. Sufriya = journey of life. Huriya = Waheguru. 4.

MEANING: Those who enjoy the company (uses) of the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachments, and ego), are (spiritually and morally) risking themselves because it is like residing with snakes (which can bite them any time). Countless lives have been destroyed in such enjoyments. 1. Leaning about such frightening results, I began to recite Waheguru's Naam whereby I attained the comfort of the state of blissfulness. Pause. I realized that worldly attachments are false (temporary), and the man begins to claim ownership of things and relations which are not really his (they are either temporary or do not belong to him). With such false attachments, one gets into a whirlpool of thoughts where one cannot make the right choices, and cannot come out. 2. We do not realize that all of us are just visitors here in this world, where we are not going to stay forever; or we are like birds which get together on a tree only to spend the night and have no relationship to each other (they all go in different directions at daybreak). Knowing all this, the man still forms strong bonds with the world. 3. Journey of life in the shelter of the Guru, where Waheguru's praise is sung, is the only way to make a permanent connection with Waheguru (and become immortal). So, I have come to the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.

Word Meaning: Gut(i) = transcendental state. Jutee = celibates. Tupee = self-afflicters. Puch(i) Haaray = tired of their efforts; failed badly. Ur(u) = and. Pause.
Chhin = moment. Raaou = ruler. Runk = pauper. Daaray = can do. Reetay = partially empty. Sukhnaavaiy = completely empty. Ta Ko = His. 1.
Agunut = beyond any calculations. Apaar(u) = with no ends. Alukh = invisible. Nirunjun = above the effects of Maya. Bhermaayo = misled in the attractions of Maya. Tuj(i) = abandon. Taah(i) = His. Chit(u) = mind.

MEANING: Nobody can know the transcendental state of Waheguru; the Yogis, the celibate, the people who torture themselves to please their deity, and many otherwise wise people have exhausted in their efforts, but have failed badly in their mission. Pause.
Waheguru can turn a pauper into a ruler, and a ruler into a pauper in a moment. He can fill empty treasures and drain them completely to emptiness in a moment. 1.
He has disseminated His own Maya throughout the world, and looks after it (the world). He takes countless forms of diverse kinds but remains detached from the world and Maya. 2. Waheguru's qualities and His expanse are beyond any calculations; He is limitless, invisible, and above the effects of Maya, yet He has misled the whole world by creating gimmicks of Maya. Abandoning all such misgivings, get attached to the Feet of Waheguru (His Amrit-Naam), oh Nanak. 3.1.2.

NOTE: Ram is the most used name for Waheguru.

Word Meaning: Jindurriyay = oh my soul (mind). Amoalay = invaluable. Rus(i) = sweet taste. Beedha = pierced; stitched. Jhukoalay = churn; taking a dip again, and again. Tthehraayiyaiy = stabilize. Anut = somewhere else. Doaly = weakens; wavers. Chindurriya = as wished, Ful(u) = reward. Bani = words of praise. 1. Vootthrra = rained. Amrit Baiyn = life-sustaining words of praise. Alaayay = utters; sings. Liv Laayay = with full concentration. Chireen Vichhoonna = separated for a long time. Sehj Soobhaayay = with love and reverence. Anund(u) = blissfulness. Unhut Shabad = Divine voice; message; music. Vujaayay = play. 2.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's invaluable Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh my soul (mind). Waheguru is very dear to me, and my mind has been pierced with His sweet Naam. My mind is taking dips again, and again in the pool of His sweet Naam-Amrit. The wavering mind can be stabilized with the Guru's Advice when it quits wandering. By reciting sweet Shabads in Waheguru's praise, one receives the rewards of his wishes (choice), oh Nanak. 1. When a devotee sings praise of Waheguru with Guru's Amrit-like Shabads, Waheguru's Naam-Amrit begins to rain (drop) in his mind, oh my soul. The Shabads of the Bhagats (Waheguru's supreme devotees) in praise of Waheguru are like Amrit, and by pondering on them, the devotee gets his mind concentrated on Waheguru's Naam. With love and reverence for Waheguru, the long-separated devotee is connected with Him, who "hugs" him with love and kindness. My mind is feeling blissful, and I feel as if Divine Music is playing in it, oh Nanak. 2.

---------- Sukhee suhayli myriya, mayri jindurriyay, koyee Hur(i) Prubh(u) aan(i) milaavaiy Ram. Houn mun(u) dayvoun tis(u) aapna mayri jindurriyay, Hur(i) Prubh kee Hur(i) kuthaa soonaavaiy Ram. Word Meaning: Sukhee Suhayli = (female) friends of a woman (human bride). Aan(i) = come forward. Kutha = story; virtues. Araadh(i) = worship. Chindurriya = as wished. Shernaagti = in shelter. Vudbhaagi = highly fortunate. 3. Pergaasay = enlightened. Baajh(u) = without. Oodeeniyaan = sad; down in spirits. Oodaasay = depressed. Paasay = with. Bigaasay = blooms. 4.

MEANING: Is there some Gurmukh (devotee) friend who can connect me with Waheguru, oh my soul? I will surrender my mind to the individual who will narrate the story (virtues) of Waheguru to me. Worship Waheguru all the time in the shelter of the Guru, and you will reap the reward of your choice, oh my mind. Rush to the shelter of Waheguru, oh my mind; but some rare and highly fortunate person recites Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 3.
My mind has been enlightened by the Guru's Advice; so be kind and come to meet with me (connect me with You), oh kind Waheguru. I am as sad without my Waheguru as a lotus flower which feels depressed (withers) without water. The Perfect Guru has connected me with my Waheguru-friend, oh my soul. My Guru is great and worthy of worship, who has connected me with Waheguru; my heart blooms when I recite Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Bikh(u) = poison. Leh Jaayay = comes off; gets removed. Sooka = dried up (close to spiritual death). Huriya Hoya = became green; came back to life. LIkh(i) Paaya = written by Waheguru (as per His Will). 1. Sayti = with. Baydhiya = pierced. Kheera = milk. Shaant(i) = peace of mind. Chaatrik = rainbird, a bird which is believed to drink only the first drop of rain, and that too only when the Swanti planet is visible in the sky. Tayray = cries for it; calls for. Vaajay = play music. Ghunayray = very much; continuous.2.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the real Amrit which can be acquired only with Guru's Advice, oh my soul (mind). Attractions of Maya and haumein are like poison which comes off (is removed) by Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, oh my mind. When one recites Waheguru's Naam, his spiritually dead mind comes back to life. A devotee, who has good fortune prewritten for Him by Waheguru, acquires His Naam (embeds it in his mind) and merges into Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.

Like a child, which gets fully absorbed in the enjoyment of milk when he is given that, my mind has been pierced with love for Waheguru, which I am enjoying. Like the rainbird which does not get peace of mind (satisfaction) without the first rain drop and cries for it, my mind does not find peace without connecting with Waheguru. Take the shelter of the Guru who explains the virtues of Waheguru (sings His praise), oh my mind. The Guru has connected me with God, and I feel as if continuous Divine Music is playing in my mind, oh Nanak. 2.

Kur(i) kirpa soon(i) baynti Hur(i) Hur(i), jun Nanak Naam(u) dhiyaaya Ram. 4.2.
Word Meaning: Vichhurray = disconnected; separated. Baandhay = trapped in. Jaal = net. Punkhi = bird. Kupoat(i) = pigeon. Bunahiya = got trapped. Vus(i) = prisoners Kaalay = (spiritual) death. Moh = attachment. Moorr = foolish. Bitaalay = out of step in the music (pace) of life. Traah(i) = cries for help; save me; save me. Shernaagti = has sought shelter. Rukhvaalay = saviour. 3. Oobray = salvaged. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning. Poat(u) = ship; boat. Khayvut = boat man. Turaaya = ferried across. Meetth = sweet. 4.

MEANING: The followers of their mind (the money-loving people) are disconnected from Waheguru because of their ego and selfishness, which are forms of Maya, and which trap them in their net. Just as a pigeon allows itself to be trapped because of its greed for the bait, the followers of their minds are prisoners of spiritual death. Those, whose mind gets attached to Maya, are foolish and out of step with the rhythm of life (they do not follow the right path). Crying for help, Waheguru's devotees take Guru's shelter (surrender their mind to Him) while the Guru, Waheguru, protects them, oh Nanak. 3.
The devotees, who have good fortune prewritten for them from the beginning by Waheguru, get salvaged by meditating on Waheguru's Naam with devotion and by enshrining it in their heart, oh my soul. Waheguru's Naam (Guru's Shabad) is the ship, and the Guru is the boatman (captain) which ferries the devotees across the world sea. The omnipresent Waheguru is very kind, and the Guru, Satguru, makes Him feel very sweet (with His Shabad). I, Nanak, am Your slave, and am worshipping You (reciting Your Naam); please listen to my prayer (and connect me with You), oh Waheguru. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Sookrit(u) = pious (best) labour. Keerut(i) = praise of Waheguru. Dhaaray = acquire; implant. Puvit(u) = sacred; purifying. Kilvikh = sins. Vud Pooni = highly fortunate. Moogudh = foolish. Ootaaray = Nistaaray = salvages. 1 Punchay = the five (demons). Vusgut(i) = under control. Nuvnidh(i) = all the nine mythical treasures. Alukh(u) = invisible; incomprehensible. Lukhaayay = showed. Aasaan = hopes. Munsaan = wishes. Pooriyaan = fulfilled. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. 2.

MEANING: Singing Waheguru's praise is the best labour in the world; implant it (Waheguru's praise) in your mind, oh my soul. Waheguru's Naam is highly purifying, and one finds salvation with it, oh, my soul. All discomforts (problems) due to one's sins are eliminated, and he is ferried across the world sea (is salvaged). The highly fortunate people recite Waheguru's Naam, which salvages even the foolish and the stupid people like me, oh Nanak. 1. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam are able to control all five demons (lust, greed, etc.), oh my soul. With the treasure of Waheguru's Naam in the devotee's heart, the Guru, Satguru, shows him the invisible Waheguru. The Guru fulfils all the hopes and wishes of the devotee, and the latter becomes fully contented upon connecting with Waheguru. The devotee, who has the acquirement of Waheguru's Naam in his fortune prewritten on his forehead by Waheguru, sings His praise, oh Nanak. 2.

The Satgur destroys all the discomforts (problems) of those lucky people who take refuge in His shelter, oh Nanak. 3.
Waheguru's Naam is a highly mind-purifying recitation that eradicates all the sins, oh my soul. The Guru transforms the immoral into highly pious people who are recognized (and whose fame spreads) in all the four directions and in all the four eons. By taking a dip in the pool of Amrit-Naam of Waheguru (reciting His Naam with devotion), all the filth of selfishness and ego of the devotee is washed away. Even the criminals and the sinners are salvaged if they get imbued in Waheguru's Naam, even for a short moment, oh Nanak. 4.3.

So, we should serve such Waheguru all the time, which is the greatest of all, oh my soul. Those who serve the "One" God with full dedication do not owe anyone anything (are not subservient to anyone). By serving the Guru, one reaches Waheguru's Residence (which resides in every heart) regardless of the fact that some vilifiers and lustful people may complain against him (Waheguru does not listen to any complaint against His devotees). MEANING: All the living beings are Yours, and You operate in all of them; You know full well what the living beings have in their mind, oh Waheguru. Waheguru is always with us inside and outside; He watches us all the time, but we deny (ignore His presence in us) (and keep doing bad things). The money-lover individual thinks Waheguru to be somewhere far away, as a result of which, all his hard labour (to prove his false religiosity) goes to waste (finds no support in Waheguru's Court). Word Meaning: Achumbhuou = amazing feat. Laal Jeeo = dear Lord. Dherm Niyayay = moral and just. Rung(u) Akhaarra = theatre where the actors perform; the world. Aavun(u) Jaan = birth and death. Subaayay = all; everybody. Tinhay = Him. Maydun(i) = world. Sirjiya = created. Ikna = some. Bherm(i) Bhoolay misled in misgivings. Unt(u) = ends. Smaayay = mixed; present. 1. Suhayliou = friends. Dboorhoun = from the beginning (Source). Liv = meditate with full concentration. Mumta = parental love. Moh = attachment. Sadhay = Sadhu = Satguru. Mookut(i) = free from the bonds of Maya. 2.

MEANING: The one amazing thing about Waheguru is that whatever He does is always moral and just, oh my dear Lord. He has created the world like a theatre where all the actors (living beings) come and go (take birth, and die). The system of life and death has also been created by Waheguru who has created the world. He lets some people enter His Residence (merge with Him) by connecting them with Satguru, while the others are misled in their lives by misgivings. Only You know Your limits, and You are present in every heart, oh my Waheguru. Listen to the fact, oh holy saints, whatever God does is based on high morality and justice, oh Nanak. 1.

Come on, all my friends; let us get together and recite Waheguru's Naam. Let us fix (set it right) the path leading to spiritual death (purify our hearts) by serving the Perfect Satguru, oh my dear. The tough spiritual journey can be rectified (made easy) by taking shelter of the Guru, whereby we will also earn honour in Waheguru's Court. Those devotees who have it prewritten in their fate from the beginning by Waheguru stay focused on His Naam day and night. One's selfishness and ego, his worldly affection, and his worldly attachments are eradicated in the shelter of the Guru. One gets free from all worldly bonds when he recites Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Ker = hands. Jorrhou = fold. Ikuttar Hoyay = gathered together. Laal Jeeo = dear Lord. Abinaashi = immortal. Poojayha = we worship. Bidh(i) = different ways. Khojiya = searched for. Urpayha = offered. Kayra = of. Churraveh(i) = offer. Unk(i) = heart. Smaaveh(i) = gets absorbed. Bhaag(u) = good fortune. Mustak(i) = on the forehead. Sunayha = affection. 3. Dehdis = in all ten directions (everywhere). Khojut = searching for. Paayayrra = acquired; realized. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Mundar(u) = palace (human heart). Saajiya = created. Smaayay = present. Serbay = in everybody. Pergut(u) = appeared. Amioun = Amrit. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Choya = squeezed. 4.

MEANING: Let us get together and worship the immortal Waheguru with folded hands, oh holy men. The man searches for Waheguru by worshipping Him in many different ways prevalent in society (but cannot realize Him); the only way to realize Him is to offer your mind and body in His service. (But the man still cannot take any pride or credit for that) because even the human body and his mind belong to Waheguru (are given by Him). So, what should one offer to Waheguru in worship? Only that individual can merge into Waheguru to whom the Lord is kind. The individual, who has good fortune on his forehead, develops love for the Guru. It is only in the company of the Guru (holy congregation) that one can recite Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 3.

I searched for Waheguru in all ten directions (but could not find him), finally I found Him in my own heart, oh my dear Lord. Waheguru has created the human body as a dwelling for Him, where He lives in hiding. Although the Lord lives hidden in every heart, He is revealed only by the Guru's grace. When Waheguru appears in somebody's heart, the life-sustaining sweet-Amrit (Waheguru's Naam) is squeezed in his mouth (on his tongue); the darkness of his ignorance is dispelled, and all his problems disappear. Such a devotee finds Waheguru to be present everywhere no matter what direction he looks in. When one gets connected with Satguru, he finds Waheguru in his own heart, oh Nanak. 4.1.

MEANING: My extremely dear Waheguru is mind-captivating, is majestically present in every heart, and is the basis of life. My dear Waheguru is very handsome (attractive), is the provider for the whole earth, is beyond limits, and everybody sings His praise. Please, connect me - Your humble devotee - with You, oh the provider for the earth, kind, and dear Lord. My eyes yearn for Your holy sight, and my night is spent sleeplessly. My whole body is adorned with the kohl of Divine Knowledge and with Your Naam as my food, oh Waheguru. I drop at the feet of the holy saints and beg them to connect me with the Lord, oh Nanak. 1.

I get millions of complaints every day (for lack of virtues, and for my bad deeds) about myself, as long as I do not connect with Waheguru. I have tried many different ways to connect with the Lord, but nothing has worked. My capricious mind always hatches plans to earn more wealth, which do not even last, but at the same time, it finds no peace without my Waheguru. There is no life without my Waheguru-Husband, and all eating, drinking, and adornments are tasteless (useless) without Him. I am thirsty for a glimpse of my Lord, and wish day and night for union with Him; I cannot live without Him even for a short moment. I am a slave (devotee) of the saints, and would drop on their feet begging for their kindness to connect me with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru and I both share the bed of my heart (Waheguru is present there), but I cannot have His sight. How can I be invited inside His Palace when I have countless ignoble (immoral) qualities? I am without any virtue, enjoy no respect, and am an orphan (without any spiritual guide), but You are a treasure of mercy, oh Waheguru. I pray to You to connect me with You. One's wall of misgivings is demolished, he enjoys a blissful sleep (life), and feels as if he has acquired all the nine mythical treasures of the world when he is able to have even a very short glimpse of Waheguru's holy sight. When Waheguru appears in a devotee's heart, he gets united with Him and feels as if all his senses have joined to sing songs of joy. I take the shelter of the holy saints, and touch their feet, begging them to show me Waheguru's holy sight, oh Nanak. 3. I have realized Waheguru with the kind favour of the holy saints; my wish has been fulfilled, and my mind has become peaceful (blissful) as the fire of my desires, in which I was suffering, has been extinguished. You are omnipotent, indescribable, beyond limits, and omnipresent; my body, my mind, and my wealth are all given by You, oh God. I am unwise, foolish, without any support, have a capricious mind, am powerless, ignoble, and ignorant; I am in Your shelter and pray to You that save my (Nanak's) honour (protect from sensual attacks), oh Waheguru. 1.

Immoral people become pure and pious in the company of those holy men who have realized Waheguru. They are always imbued with Waheguru's Naam and infuse devotees' minds with spirituality, which multiplies every day. Those who conquer their mind by reciting Waheguru's Naam feel as if they have acquired supernatural powers and the nine treasures of the world. MEANING: Those who deal in Waheguru's Naam are the real wealthy people. Waheguru's Naam is their prized treasure, and they receive an additional benefit (the wealth of spirituality) by singing His praise. Those who are imbued with Waheguru's affection are not affected by lust, rage, or greed. Intoxicated in the love of God, they acknowledge only the "One" (Waheguru) and have faith in the "One" only. Those who take the shelter of the Guru and drop on His Feet (surrender their mind) to Him, feel zestful (and fully contented). I beg to say that those who have Waheguru's Naam in their possession are the real wealthy people, oh Nanak. 3.

One should worship Waheguru alone, which provides support to the whole world. One should take Guru's shelter so as not to forget Waheguru, the creator and the omnipresent. Discomforts, illnesses, and fear of any kind do not affect the devotees who recite Waheguru's Naam. As prewritten in their fate, they swim across the sea of Maya with the grace of the Guru. When the omnipresent and the limitless Waheguru appears in a devotee's mind, his mind becomes peaceful, and he feels great blissfulness at heart. I beg to say that my wishes have been fulfilled by remembering Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.3.

MEANING: I am in love with my Waheguru; I wish that the comforting time of my life (when connected with Waheguru) is lengthened, and the discomforting sleep (when I am sleeping, i.e., have forgotten Waheguru) is shortened so that I am always touching the Feet of Waheguru (remembering Him). I always long for and beg for the dust of the feet of the holy devotees so that I stay detached from worldly desires and enjoy the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. Imbued in Waheguru's love and intoxicated in the blissful state, I have gotten rid of my worst evil thoughts. With me being imbued in the love of the immortal Waheguru, He held me by the arm and guided me on the path of union with Him. I pray to Waheguru that He be kind to me, so that I may always remain connected to His Feet (Naam), oh Nanak. 1.
Let us all join together and drop on the feet of Waheguru (recite His Naam), oh my friends. With immense love for the dear Waheguru in mind, let us beg for His worship. Let us seek the shelter of the supreme devotees of Waheguru so that we may recite His Naam and acquire His worship in our mind. Let us offer (surrender) our body, mind and wealth in their service, and abandon (get rid of) our ego, worldly attachments, and vices of sensual pleasures. The Great Waheguru is omnipresent and is full of virtues, let us take His shelter to demolish the wall of our misgivings. I pray to my friends that they realize the only Mantra for uniting with Waheguru is to recite His Naam constantly, oh Nanak. 2.

Bird = innate virtue. Sunda = of. Kayl Krunda = performer of amazing acts; always carefree. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru's supreme devotees are loved by Him just like a husband loves his wife; but unlike a worldly wife who could become a widow, the devotees are never devoid of Waheguru's love as He becomes their Lord forever. Such devotees are highly fortunate because they recite Waheguru's Naam constantly and never suffer in any way (they acquire the ability to handle every situation with a strong mind); they are worthy of great respect. All their sins are eradicated, and they enjoy a blissful life, and while enjoying the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, and imbued in His love, they always stay alert (against the attacks of Maya). Waheguru's Naam is their ornament (for beautifying their mind), and they always accept Waheguru's Will to be sweet. I submit respectfully that on getting connected with the omnipresent and the eternal Lord, all my wishes have been fulfilled, oh Nanak. 3.

The heart and the body, in which the source of supreme bliss, Waheguru, appears, feel as if they are enjoying happiness, millions of amazing and entertaining feats of Waheguru, and blissfulness. Lord, Waheguru, who is limitless, benevolent, the husband of Maya, and is the provider for the whole world, is also the purifier of the immoral and salvages them. Waheguru is kind, and ferries the devotees across the world sea. It is an innate kindness of Waheguru that whoever comes to His shelter is loved and accepted. I respectfully submit that I have been connected to Waheguru, who is always carefree and performs countless amazing feats, oh Nanak. 4.1.4.

Dhaar(i) Kirpa = show kindness. 1. Teh = there. Anund = blissfulness. Binoad = amazing happenings. Unhud = Divine music. Jhoonkaaray = sweet sound. Jaikaaro = sing praise; accolades. Khusm = Lord. Bhaavay = is liked. Rus = sweetness. Rung(i) = in love. Bhinniya = imbued. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Chireen Vichhoonniya = separated for a long time. Bhooja = arm. MEANING: Waheguru's Feet are (His Naam is) the pool of the holy water; make it (the Naam-pool) your residence (take shelter there), oh my mind. Wash away all your sins by bathing in that pool, oh my mind. Waheguru is the (best) friend; take dips in His (Naam-pool) whereby all your troubles and the darkness of ignorance will be eradicated. The devotee (who takes a dip in Waheguru's Naam-pool) does not undergo any rebirths, and all the chains of the Angel of Death are severed. Imbue your mind with the love of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, where all your wishes will be fulfilled, oh my mind. I pray to Waheguru that He becomes kind to me so that my mind resides at His Feet (in the pool of His Naam-water), oh Nanak. 1. We should sing praise of Waheguru in the company of the holy men, where the mind feels to enjoy bliss and amazing events all the time, and where soft Divine music seems to play. Waheguru likes it when a devotee imbued in the sweetness of His love, sings His praise in the company of the Guru. Such devotees rid themselves of selfishness and ego and acquire the benefit (wealth) of union with long-separated Waheguru. There is only One Waheguru; He is inaccessible, beyond limits, and very kind; He holds His devotees by the arm with love, and He accepts them as His own. I submit respectfully that the mind of such a devotee is always pure (pious), and he feels as if he is enjoying a soft Divine music playing in his mind, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Amit Bani = life-infusing Shabad. Kerm(i) = in fortune. Likhi = prewritten (by Waheguru). Ridaiy = in the heart. Akuth = indescribable. Kuhaani = story; virtues. Amur = immortal. Theeya = became. Kul(i) Klaysha = disputes; aggressive arguments. Huray = removed. Tuj(i) = abandon. Bhaani = relish; like. 3.

Gultan = fully lost; absorbed. Oopjiurra = came into being. Leeya Smaayee = absorbed. Braham Joti = Waheguru's Light; Supreme Soul. Oat Poati = like weft and woof (cross threads in fabric). Ooduk(i) = in water. Muhhiul = sky. Ruvviya = present. Drishtaaya = shows; visible. Trin(i) = vegetation. Tirbhuvun = the three-layered universe. Poorun = filling completely. Keemut(i) = worth. Bunut = creation. 4.

MEANING: Listen to the Amrit-like Shabad (in praise of Waheguru), oh lucky man. It (the Shabad) gets implanted in the heart of the devotee who has it prewritten in his fate by Waheguru. Only those devotees understand (appreciate) the indescribable story of Waheguru (His virtues) whom He is kind to. All the troubles caused by the aggressive behaviour of others are eradicated (and stopped) for such a devotee, and he becomes immortal (by merging into God), and he never dies again. Waheguru never leaves His devotee unprotected when he comes to His shelter, and the devotee comes to cherish Waheguru's love with his body and mind. I submit respectfully that we should always recite the Amrit-like holy Bani (Guru's Shabad in praise of Waheguru), oh Nanak. 3.

When a devotee gets fully absorbed in the Naam of Waheguru, who creates him, he completely forgets his own body and mind, and cannot utter even a single word (about his amazing experience). By merging into the Supreme Soul, he becomes one with Waheguru, like threads in a fabric, or like water in a container that mixes uniformly with the water in another container, and cannot be separated. He sees only Waheguru present everywhere - on the land, in the water, in the sky - and he finds no one else is like Him. Waheguru is fully present in the forests, in vegetation, and in the whole universe, but no one can find His limits, or know His worth. Only Waheguru knows His worth who has created this universe, oh Nanak. 4.2.5.

Word Meaning: Khojut = searching. Praan Adhaaray = support (source) of life. Taan = energy. Tun = body; health. Kheen Bhuyya = became weak. Muyya = mercy; kindness = Duyya. Lurr(i) Laayay = provide shelter. Paykhay = to see. Jeejiyaiy = live; survive. Sumruth = fully capable; omnipotent. Poorun = omnipresent. Nihchul = immortal. Ooch = transcendent. Agumm = inaccessible. Apaaray = beyond limits. 1. Jup = recitation of some mantra. Tup = self-torture. Bert = make commitments (like to go without food). Paykhun kuou = to see. Tupt(i) = (suffering) from the fire of desires. Boojhaiy = extinguish. Bayri = handcuffs (bonds) of Maya. Anaath = orphan (without any spiritual guide). Aougun(u) = bad traits. Deen = powerless; poor. Kaarun Kerna = creator of the universe. Chaatrik = rainbird - a bird which is believed to drink only the first drop of rain. Boond = drop. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru is the support of all life, and holy men wander (spend their life) searching for Him. Their energy and health weaken without connecting with the dear Waheguru. Please, be kind and benevolent, and connect me with You, and provide Your shelter, oh Waheguru. Please, bestow me with Your Naam for me to recite it; I survive only by having Your holy sight, oh Lord. You are omnipotent, omnipresent, everlasting, transcendent, inaccessible, and beyond limits; Nanak begs You to be kind, and connect me with You, oh dearer than life, Waheguru. 1.

Many people perform prevalent religious rituals, such as reciting mantras, torturing themselves, and undertaking commitments like fasting for a time, to have a glimpse of Waheguru's Feet (to have union with Him). But the fire of their desires is never extinguished without coming to the shelter of the Lord. I have come to Your shelter, please sever my bonds with Maya, and ferry me across the world sea (salvage me), oh Waheguru. I am an orphan (have no spiritual guide), have no good qualities, and am ignorant (about You); please do not think of (look at) my bad qualities, oh, kind Waheguru. The omnipotent, dear, and kind to the humble Waheguru is the creator of the whole universe. Like the rainbird, which longs for the first drop of rain, I also long for a drop of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, and survive only by reciting His Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is a pool of Amrit, so drink the Amrit from that Pool, oh my friends. When one recites Waheguru's Naam in the company of the holy men, all his objectives are achieved successfully. Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all suffering and which enables you to complete all your tasks successfully, should not be forgotten even for a short moment. One is always blissful in the shelter of the eternal Waheguru, which is full of all virtues. The Lord is immeasurable, transcendent, beyond limits, and inaccessible. I respectfully submit that upon connecting with Waheguru, my wish has been fulfilled, oh Nanak. 3.

One reaps the rewards of countless jugs (yugs) when he listens to the praise of the praise-worthy Waheguru. By reciting Waheguru's Naam, not only does a devotee find salvation for himself, but he also gets all his associates emancipated. Singing Waheguru's praise, the devotees look very dignified; so, you must celebrate (appreciate) His praise all the time, oh my mind. Do not get away from my mind, oh my Lord; You are dearer to me than my own life, and I always think of (long for) Your holy sight. Waheguru is transcendent, inaccessible, and beyond limits; It is the most auspicious time for a devotee when the Lord holds him to His neck (loves him immensely). I submit respectfully that all one's tasks are completed successfully when he gets connected with the extremely dear Lord, oh Nanak. 4.3.6.

Word Meaning: Unkaayay = with others (Maya). Raturriya = engrossed in. Vaat = journey (of life). Doohayli = difficult; full of problems. Kmaavundiyaan = committing. Bayli = friend. Puchhotaaveh = repents. Kudhoun = when. Say Dih = such days; human life. Turvur = tree. Vichhoonnay = separated; fallen from. Paat = leaves. Joorrtay = attached. Gaun = going. Ikayli = alone. Doohayli = in suffering. 1. Vulvunch = defraud; cheat. Look(i) = by hiding. Jaani Jaan(u)= who knows everything. Laykha = account of deeds. Dherm = Angel of justice. Bhuyya = happens; taken to. Til = sesame seeds. Peerray = squeeze in oil mill. Ghaani = a single load. Kirt Kmaayay = deeds done. Suhou = endure. Anik = countless. Muhaa Mohini = greatly captivating (Maya). Raata = engrossed. Ruttan Junum(u) = precious human life. Ikus(i) = the One. Baajhoun = without. Ann Kaaj = in other tasks. Binvunt = prays; submits humbly. Loobhaani = attracted to. 2.

MEANING: Engrossed in the other (Maya), you do not realize that the journey of life is very difficult (full of problems), oh, the ignorant man. You do not have any real friends (who can save you in Waheguru's Court) when you commit sins, you will have to repent all the time. You do not sing praise of Waheguru with your tongue, so when will you get such lucky days (human life) again? Like the leaves that have fallen from the tree, never to be attached again (disconnected from Waheguru, you will have no chance to connect with Him again), you will be going alone on the path to the Angel of Death. I submit respectfully that the man spends his life in suffering without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 1.

You defraud people while hiding it from others, but you do not realize that the omniscient Waheguru knows everything you do, oh man. When the account of your deeds is taken to the Angel of justice for evaluation, he squeezes your blood just like the sesame seeds are squeezed in the oil mill to get oil (you will be punished severely). You will have to endure the suffering of your deeds when you are taken through countless life forms. Attracted by the gimmicks of the highly captivating Maya, you waste away your precious human life, oh, the ignorant man. Excepting just one important business of Waheguru's Naam, you are wise for everything else. I submit respectfully that according to his prewritten fortune, the man is misled by his misgivings to be fully engrossed in worldly attachments, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Beech Kuray = intervene. Akirtghun = thankless; disloyal. Vichhurr(i) = separate; disconnected. Khuray = standing; waiting. Kutthin = tough. Kunkur = assistants. Kmaaya = deeds done. Mohini = captivating (Maya). Raatiya = engrossed. Tupt = red hot. Thummh = pillar. Moottha = robbed by. Khoyay lose. Puchhutaapiya = repents. Sunjoag(i) = by predetermined union; fortune. 3.
Binaa = without. Raakhunhaara = saviour. Putit = immoral. Oodhaarunhaara = salvager. Bird = innate trait. Kirpa Nidh(i) = source of compassion. Undh Koop = dark well. Kertay = the Creator (Waheguru). Ghut = heart; living being. Pritpaala = provider. Bayrri = handcuff; bond. Adhaara = support; shelter. Ker = hands. Deen Duyaara = kind to the powerless. 4. Guniya = considered. Pergutiya = appeared. Praaya = went away. Sehj = peace of mind; blissfulness. Anund = uplift of mind; joy. Binoad = amazing events. Rungay = with love. Buhourr(i) = again. Dhaayiyaiy = rush to; go through. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = without any special effort. Aad(i) = the beginning; the initial. Unkur(u) = sprouting. 5.

MEANING: Nobody can intervene as the disloyal man becomes disconnected from Waheguru, and the tough assistants of the Angel of Death arrive to arrest him. As a result of deeds performed under the influence of the highly captivating Maya, the man is taken away by the assistants as a prisoner. He never sang praise of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, so he has to suffer the consequences as if he had to hug a red-hot pillar. Robbed of his spirituality and noble qualities by the demons like lust, rage, and ego, he has to repent. I submit respectfully that according to his prewritten fortune (based on the previous deeds he performed under the influence of the demons) the man is misled, and never sings Waheguru's praise with his tongue (and suffers the consequences), oh Nanak. 3.
There is none other than Waheguru as the saviour; salvaging even the immoral is Your innate virtue, oh Waheguru. In addition to being the salvager, Waheguru is also the source of mercy, is kind, and provides shelter to the seeker. You raise and nourish all living beings; please pull me out of the deep, dark well (of ignorance caused by the illusions of Maya), oh, the Creator. I have come to Your shelter; please cut my strong bonds with Maya, and give me Your Naam, which is the support for my life. Nanak prays with all humbleness that kindly protect me (from the attacks of sensual pleasures) by extending Your kind hand, oh the benevolent to the poor, Waheguru. 4.
That day (time) is considered successful (rewarding) on which one gets connected with Waheguru, as a result of which all the comforts appear (come to dwell in his heart), and the discomforts run away. With singing Waheguru's praise all the time, one experiences peace of mind, blissfulness, and the enjoyment of a variety of amazing events happening in one's mind. One connects with Waheguru with love for Him in the company of the Guru, and is never born again. With the seed of love of the previous life sprouting in the heart of the devotee of Waheguru, he is held tightly to the neck by Waheguru with affection and without any special effort on the part of the devotee. When Waheguru connects His devotee to Him, He never leaves him to go elsewhere, oh Nanak. 5.4.7.

Alipt = detached. Bundhun Reht = without any bonds. Anugreh(u) = benevolence. Putit = immoral. Paavun = pure; holy. Bhermtay = wandering through. Haari = exhausted. Praan Adhaari = supporting life. 2.

MEANING: Listen to my prayer, oh my Lord; even though I am guilty of committing millions of immoral acts, I am still Yours (Your slave; You created me). You are kind, the eradicator of all troubles, and the destroyer of all nagging disputes and aggressions, oh, the mind-captivating, Waheguru. Please, protect me (from the attacks of Maya), I have come to Your shelter, oh the omnipresent, and unaffected by Maya, Waheguru. You are with everyone, and You listen, and watch everything (they do); You are closer than anybody thinks, oh Waheguru. Listen to Nanak's request and protect me – Your slave – from the attractions of Maya, oh my Lord. 1.

You are always omnipotent, whereas we are poor beggars, oh Waheguru. We are engrossed in the attractions of Maya, please, pull us out (of this immoral situation). We are entrapped by greed, worldly attachments, and sensual pleasures, and we commit countless immoral acts. Waheguru is fully detached from (is free from the bonds of) Maya (so, He is fully just); so we reap the rewards of our deeds. We are exhausted from having gone through countless life forms; now be kind to us and salvage us, as You are the purifier of the immoral, oh, the benevolent Waheguru. I respectfully submit that Waheguru is the support (source) of our lives, and we are His slaves, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Paaleh(i) = raises. Akirtghunaa = thankless; disloyal. Drisht(i) = sight. Agaadh(i) = unfathomable. Bodh(i) = wisdom; understanding. Apaar = beyond limits. Neech(u) = of low caste (wisdom). Ruttan = invaluable jewel (Waheguru's Naam). Tiyaag(i) = abandoning. Sungrehn = accumulate. Kaudi = a worthless cowrie shell. Pusoo = animal. Iyaana = immature; ignorant. Muhaa Chunchul = highly capricious (short-lived Maya). Doakh = (using) immoral means. 3. Jaa Tay = from whom. Vichhurriya = separated; disconnected. Neekay = beautiful; full of praise. Kulyaanmaiy = source of well-being for all. Pergut Bhuyyay = appeared. Sayja = bed of heart. Soohaavi = comforting. Achint = worry-free. Buhourr(i) = again. Goon-Nidh(i) = treasure of virtues. 4.

MEANING: You are great and omnipotent, but I have only limited wisdom (to understand You), oh Waheguru. You raise even the thankless, and cast a kind sight on everybody. Being of low wisdom, I know nothing about You as You are unfathomable beyond my comprehension, and are beyond limits. I have low wisdom, and am ignorant like an animal, because of which I abandon the invaluable Waheguru's Naam, and accumulate worthless cowrie shells (perishable worldly things). Using many immoral means, one accumulates the highly capricious (short-lived) Maya which abandons him in no time. I, Nanak, am in Your shelter, please save my honour, oh the omnipotent Waheguru. 3.

When one sings Waheguru's praise in the company (shelter) of the Guru, Waheguru becomes kind to him, and connects the devotee with Him from whom he had been disconnected. When one sings praise and the virtues of Waheguru all the time – Waheguru, which is the source of wellbeing for all – appears in his heart. The heart-bed of the devotee becomes highly comforting when Waheguru makes him His own (loves him). All the worries of such a devotee are left behind, and he becomes worry-free, and suffers no more. I survive only by having a holy sight of the Lord, and sing His praise which is the source of all virtues, oh Nanak. 4.5.8.

Word Meaning: Soodhermeerriya = a religious man; a principled man. Moan(i) = muteness. Kut = what for; why. Dhaari = observing. Naytreen = with eyes. Biyohaari = business-like (involving gains and losses). Days = estates. Vays = expensive clothes. Soovern = gold. Roopa = silver. Oonaiy = insufficient; worthless Kaama = objective of life (union with God). Kluttar = wife. Hust = elephants. Ghoar = horses. Vikaari = worthless. Mithiya = false; short-lived. 1. Raajun = king (among living beings). Jhootth(u) = not real; not for ever. Roodun(u) = crying. Kaytay = very many. Bil-laahi = wail; cry for help. Mohun = captivated (by Maya). Sehs = thousands. Oopaav = plans; schemes. Thaakay = exhausted; failed. Bhaavut = liked (by God). Aad(i) = in the beginning. Mudh(i) = in the middle. Poorun = omnipresent. Serbtur = in all. Aahi = is. Sungum(u) = company; union. Put Sayti = with dignity. Ghur(i) = God's Court. 2.

MEANING: Why have you observed muteness? Utter something (sing praise of Waheguru), oh the good-principled man. You are leaving the world after having seen (observed) the business-like behaviour of Maya (which is never yours forever). Nothing else, other than Waheguru's Naam, accompanies you after death. The possessions of estates, expensive clothes, gold, and silver are worthless for achieving the objective of your life (union with Waheguru). Your sons, your wife, your fame, elephants, or your horses, are all for your sensual pleasures, but none of them accompanies you. I submit respectfully that everything, other than the company (shelter) of the Guru, is short-lived in this world, oh Nanak. 1.
Maya is short-lived in this world; countless people have been rendered poor and friendless by Maya, who wail and cry for help (and to warn others about her treacherous behaviour). So, why are you still sound asleep (unaware) and do not wake up (become alert about Maya), oh the king-among-animals, man? Captivated by Maya, countless people wail and cry; there is no comfort or peace of mind in the word without Waheguru's Naam. People have exhausted themselves trying thousands of clever plans and schemes to accumulate Maya, but they end up only in situations that are to the liking of Waheguru. Waheguru, which was present at the beginning, is there in the middle (at present), will be there at the end, and which is filling every part of the universe, is also present in every heart (but the man is unaware of His presence). I submit respectfully that the devotee, who is lucky to enjoy the shelter of the Guru, goes to Waheguru with his honour intact, oh Nanak. 2.

puchhutaanay. 3. Dhaar(i) anugreho, Aapna kur(i) leena Ram. Bhooja geh(i) kaadh(i) leeyo, Sadh(u) sung(u) deena Ram. Sadh sungum(i) Hur(i) araadhay, sugul kulmul dookh julay. Muhaa Dherm su daan kiriya, sung(i) tayraiy say chulay. Rusna araadhaiy Aik(u) Soami, Hur(i) Naam(i) mun(u), tun(u) bheena. Nanak jis nu Hur(i) milaayay, so serb goonaa perbeena. 4.6.9.

Word Meaning: Nurput(i) = rulers. Grehiyo = in the house (court). Surpur = for sure. Veechhurrna = to be separated. Mohay = engrossed in worldly attractions. Puchhutaanay = will repent. Hurchundauri = mirage; unreal; which does not exist in reality. Usthit(i) = permanent (wealth); (Waheguru's Naam). Aan = in other. Ruchna = get engrossed. Ehila = superior; invaluable. Huoun = I, me, mine; selfishness. Trishn = desires. Boojhaiy = satisfied. Kaam = task; objective (of human life). Giyanay = spirituality; making connection with God. Kaytiya = very many. 3.

Dhaar(i) = observe; show. Anugreho = benevolence. Bhooja = arm. Geh(i) = by holding. Kaadh(i) Leeyo = pulled out (of the gimmicks of Maya). Sungum(u) = in the company of. Kulmul = sins. Julay = burned away; eliminated. Muhaa Dherm = the great religious deed (Waheguru's Naam). Su Daan = superior donation (Waheguru's Naam). Kiriya = deed. Say = those. Rusna = tongue. Bheena = imbued. Perbeena = expert; bearer; possesses. 4.

MEANING: Having faith in the wisdom of their assistants in the court, the kings get fully absorbed in accumulating wealth without realizing that they have to get separated from that (leave that behind) one day. Such people, who are engrossed in false wealth, have to repent at the end. They get misled by the mirage of Maya, so how can they find the permanent wealth (Waheguru's Naam)? Without Waheguru's Naam, they get engrossed in the other (Maya) and waste away their superior human life. Their appetite for selfishness and for acquiring more and more wealth is never satisfied, and they can never achieve the objective of their lives: connecting with Waheguru. I make a humble submission that countless people repent without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 3.

By His benevolence, Waheguru accepted me as His own, holding me by the arm. He pulled me out of the grip of Maya and put me in the company of the Guru. All one's sins and troubles are burned away when he sings Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru. The greatest religious deed is to recite Waheguru's Naam, and its gift to others is the best donation of all; it is also your real wealth that accompanies you after death, oh man. When man recites Waheguru's Naam with his tongue, his body and mind get imbued in the love of His Naam. The devotee, whom Waheguru connects with Him, comes to possess all the noble qualities, oh Nanak. 4.6.9.

BIHAAGRRAY KEE VAAR MEHLA 4: Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i):

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:3॥ ਗੁਰ ਸੇਵਾ ਤੇ ਸੁਖੁ ਪਾਈਐ ਹੋਰਥੈ ਸੁਖੁ ਨ ਭਾਲਿ॥ ਗੁਰ ਕੈ ਸਬਦਿ ਮਨੁ ਭੇਦੀਐ ਸਦਾ ਵਸੈ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਲਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਨਾਮੁ ਤਿਨ ਕਉ ਮਿਲੈ ਜਿਨ ਵੇਖੈ ਨਦਰਿ ਨਿਹਾਲਿ॥ 1॥

Sloak M:3: Gur sayva tay sookh(u) paayiyaiy, hoarthaiy sookh(u) na bhaal(i). Gur kaiy Shabad mun(u) bhaydiyaiy, sudaa vusaiy Hur(i) naal(i). Nanak, Naam tin kuou milyaiy, jin vaikhaiy nudr(i) nihaal(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Hoarthaiy = somewhere else. Bhaydiyaiy = pierce.

MEANING: You get comfort (mental happiness) only by serving the Guru (obeying His Will) and not anywhere else. So, pierce (stitch) your mind with Guru's Shabad, which will always reside in your mind, oh my friends. However, only those devotees get to recite Waheguru's Naam on whom He casts a kind sight, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru's praise is a treasure which is an endowment by Waheguru; only those devotees receive (sing it) and share it with others, who are endowed with it. However, this treasure can be acquired only by taking shelter of the Guru; everyone has been exhausted by performing religious rituals without success. The world loves money and follows its mind as a result of which it is without any (spiritual) wealth (which is the food for the next world and is needed in Waheguru's Court). So, where will it get this food to satisfy its appetite in the next world, oh Nanak? 2.

Word Meaning: Vertda = operates. Thaayayn Paayayn = give credit for.

MEANING: Everybody is Yours, and You belong to them as You have created them all. You operate in everybody, and everybody worships You (obeys Your Laws), oh Waheguru. You give credit of Your worship to the individuals whom You like. Whatever Waheguru likes, shall take place, and everybody does only whatever He wants them to do. Sing praise of Waheguru, who is the greatest of all, and who has been protecting (protects) the honour of the holy men. 1.

Nanak, munmukhaan naalhoun tootiya bhulee, jinha Maya moh(i) piyaar(u). 1.
Word Meaning: Giyani = one connected with Waheguru; a true saint. Sidh(i) = successful. Sehjay = in a natural way; without any special effort. Achull(u) = unwavering mind. Chulaayay = influence. Ungikaar(u) = supports. Moolhoun = right from the beginning. Jhuggra = internal tussle (struggle). Hir(i) = taken away. Vikaar = (about) vices (sensual pleasures). 1.
MEANING: The devotees, who have Divine Knowledge (are connected with Waheguru), overcome the world (worldly attractions) while the attractions of the world have conquered everybody else. Such devotees achieve their objectives naturally. Guru's Sikhs have unwavering minds, and nobody can influence them (mislead them). Waheguru supports His devotees, and all their tasks become pleasant (are achieved without any glitch). On the other hand, the followers of their mind are misled from the beginning, lost in gluttony, greed, and ego. They spend all their time in internal struggle (whether to commit some immoral act or not), and never ponder on the Guru's Shabad. Their wisdom and good qualities are taken away by Waheguru, and they talk only of sensual pleasures. They are never content with whatever is given to them, as they have the darkness of ignorance and the fire of worldly desires in their mind. It is better to sever any connection with such people who love money, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Sunsa = doubts; worries. Perkhunhaar = evaluator.
MEANING: What harm can worldly fears and worries inflict on the devotee who has the protection of Satguru and Waheguru? Satguru protects the honour of His devotees right from the beginning, as Waheguru is their saviour. One acquires blissfulness when one gets connected with the dear Lord by pondering on the Guru's everlasting Shabad. I have worshipped Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts and is also the evaluator (of your deeds), oh Nanak. 2.

Subh(u) Tayra choaj(u) vertda, dookh(u), sookh(u), Toodh(u) paas(i). 2.
Word Meaning: Sreek = rival. Shaabaash = accolades. Choaj(u) = amazing feats.
MEANING: All the living beings are Yours, and You are the wealth (provider) for all of them, oh Waheguru. The fortunate individual receives everything that You give him; there is no rival of Yours (who can interfere with Your choices), oh Waheguru. You alone are the provider for everybody; I pray only to You. You grant the wishes of the devotee whom You like; such a devotee deserves all accolades. You know all our comforts and problems; Your amazing feats are operating everywhere, oh God. 2.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:3॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਚੇ ਭਾਵਦੇ ਦਰਿ ਸਚੈ ਸਚਿਆਰ॥ ਸਾਜਨ ਮਨਿ ਆਨੰਦ ਹੈ, ਗੁਰ ਕਾ ਸਬਦੁ ਵੀਚਾਰ॥ ਅੰਤਰਿ ਸਬਦੁ ਵਸਾਇਆ ਦੁਖੁ ਕਟਿਆ ਚਾਨਣੁ ਕੀਆ ਕਰਤਾਰਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਰਖਣਹਾਰਾ ਰਖਸੀ ਆਪਣੀ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਧਾਰਿ॥ 1॥

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = Guru's Sikhs (devotees). Sachiyaar = pure; unaffected by Maya. Saajun = Waheguru's friend (devotee). Vusaaya = enshrines; implants.

MEANING: Waheguru loves the devotees of the Guru, and they are approved as pure in Waheguru's Court. By pondering on Guru's Shabad, Waheguru's devotee is always blissful. Waheguru enlightens devotee's heart by implanting Guru's Shabad in there, and destroys all his troubles. The saviour, Waheguru, protects His devotees with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਗੁਰ ਕੀ ਸੇਵਾ ਚਾਕਰੀ ਭੈ ਭਾਇ ਰਚਿ ਕਾਰ ਕਮਾਇ॥ ਜੇਹਾ ਸੇਵੈ ਤੇਹੋ ਹੋਵੈ ਜੋ ਚਲੈ ਤਿਸੈ ਰਜਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਭੁ ਕਿਛੁ ਆਪਿ ਹੈ ਅਵਰੁ ਨਾ ਦੂਜੀ ਜਾਇ॥ 2॥

Word Meaning: Chaakri = service of love. Ruch(i) = with dedication. Rujaayay = Will. Jaayay = place.

MEANING: Service to the Guru is a service of love which the devotee performs with fear and love for the Guru, and with full dedication. If the devotee follows Guru's Will, he becomes just like Him whom he is serving. The Guru is a manifestation of Waheguru which is everything in the universe (is omnipresent), and there is no place without Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Rees = emulate; to rival. Bhunnun Ghurrun = destroy and create.

MEANING: Only You know Your magnificence; no one else is as great as You are, oh Waheguru. We can compare You only with some rival if he is as great as You are, but only You are as great as You are. A devotee, who serves You (obeys Your Huqam) acquires all the comforts; nobody else can rival him. You are fully capable of creating and destroying anything, and are the provider of the entire universe; everybody is waiting with folded hands to beg from You. I do not see any other provider as great as You are. You provide for everybody in all parts of the universe, galaxies, underworlds and the 14 worlds. 3.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:3॥ ਮਨਿ ਪਰਤੀਤਿ ਨ ਆਈਆ ਸਹਜਿ ਨ ਲਗੋ ਭਾਉ॥ ਸਬਦੈ ਸਾਦੁ ਨ ਪਾਇਓ ਮਨ ਹਠ ਕਿਆ ਗੁਣ ਗਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਆਇਆ ਸੋ ਪਰਵਾਨੁ ਹੈ ਜਿ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਚਿ ਸਮਾਇ॥ 1॥

Word Meaning: Purteet(i) = faith. Sehj(i) = in blissful state. Mun Hutth = obstinacy (unmotivated or forced persistence) of mind. Sach(i) = in God.

MEANING: If a man does not bring full faith in Waheguru, and does not love Him to achieve the spiritual state of blissfulness, and if he does not cherish Guru's Shabad, what kind of forced praise of Waheguru can he sing by the obstinacy of his mind? Only the birth of that devotee is welcome in this world who stays absorbed in Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 1.

Gur ka Shabad(u) smaal(i) toon moorray, gut(i) mut(i) Shabadaiy paayay. Nanak Satguru tud hee paayay, jaa vichoun aap(u) guvaayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Moorra = foolish. Dookhaayay = hurts feelings. Moondhaiy = from birth. Khuslut(i) = (bad) habit. Choataan Khaayay = gets punishment. Bhunn(i) Na Ghurriyo = demolish old thinking and adopt noble thinking. Unk(i) = in the heart (soul). Sehsa = worries. Subla = powerful. Ker = hands. Daykhut = to see (eyes). Jeevut Muraiy = kill desires, while living in the family. Moakhuntar = salvation. 2.

MEANING: The foolish man does not recognize himself (his good and bad qualities) and hurts others with his rude language. The blind of wisdom do not give up their bad habits from childhood, and being disconnected from Waheguru brings them punishment (suffering in life). He does not demolish (gets rid of) his original bad thinking with the fear (advice) of the Guru, and does not transform into a man with noble thoughts with which he could get absorbed into Waheguru's soul. Without Guru's Shabad, his worries never disappear and he endures suffering. He is overpowered by the powerful lust, rage, and greed, and his whole life is spent in the Maya-related tasks. When his feet, hands, eyes, and ears get exhausted (wear out) with time, his life span is almost over, and his death is near, but he still does not find Waheguru's everlasting Naam to be sweet with which he may acquire the Naam-treasure. He has to renounce his desires for worldly enjoyments and begin a new, noble life; only then can he hope to find salvation. You did not inherit any good fortune (Waheguru's benevolence) from the beginning (because of your previous misdeeds), and you cannot achieve anything without His benevolence, oh man. (It is still not too late) to recite Guru's Shabad, oh foolish man; one acquires noble wisdom and high spiritual state only with Guru's Shabad. But, one can connect with the Guru only if he gets rid of his selfishness and ego first, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Why should a man need to worry about anything when he has Waheguru enshrined in his heart? How can one afford to turn his face away, even for a short moment, from reciting the Naam of Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts? The devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam, has all wellbeing (good things) going for him all the time; one needs to join the company of the holy men with affection so as to recite Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru's devotee gets all his discomforts, poverty, and all his ailments eradicated; and Waheguru breaks all his bonds with Maya. Waheguru's devotees are created (raised) by His benevolence, and the whole world longs to see their faces (listen to their holy words) for their salvation. 4.

Gur persad(i) kuhhaiy jun(u) Nanak(u), Hur(i) Sachay kay goon gaayay. 5.

Word Meaning: Vigsaiy = blooms. Oojhurr(u) = wilderness; wrong path. Tupaavus = justice. Chult = amazing feats.

MEANING: Waheguru, Himself is the Lord, Himself the servant, and Himself the devotee; He does everything Himself, and makes others do (whatever He wishes). He watches everything, and His heart blooms (to watch His creation); He makes everyone perform the deeds He wants them to do. He puts some on the path of righteousness, and misleads others to the wilderness (path of worldly attractions, where they cannot find the true path). The Lord is perfectly just, and so is His justice; He watches his own feats of amazement. A devotee sings Waheguru's praise only with the grace of the Guru, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Durvaysh = holy man; beggar. Virla = rare. Hundhaiy = lives by; wanders. Dhig = condemnable. Undaysha = doubts. Bhikhiya = alms. 1.

MEANING: Some rare individuals understand what being a holy man really implies, and some rare people are true holy men. If he goes begging from door to do door (and believes that this is what being a holy man means), then condemnable is his way of life and condemnable is his holy garb. To be a true holy man implies that he should take Guru's shelter, and abandon his hopes and his misgivings, and beg for Waheguru's Naam which should serve as his alms. I will gladly wash his feet (show my reverence) and sacrifice my life for such a holy man, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: The world is like a tree which bears two kinds of fruits – Waheguru's Naam, and attractions of Maya – and the human beings are like the birds which live on this tree. These birds are not seen coming and going, nor do they have wings. Some human-birds love to enjoy the tastes of different varieties of Maya, while others love Waheguru's Naam and stay detached from Maya. The human-birds which are imbued in the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, bear the identification mark (stamp of approval) of Waheguru's benevolence, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Raahuk(u) = farmer. Jummayay = grows. Puroasaiy = serves. Chhinga = toothpick. Choolie = swishing of mouth. Vida = see off.

MEANING: Being omnipresent, Waheguru Himself is the land, Himself the farmer, Himself the grower of grains, and Himself the flour mill. He cooks, decorates the dishes, and serves (to the living beings); and being present in every living being, it is He who enjoys the meals too. He serves water and toothpicks and makes the humans swish their mouths. He Himself invites the congregation, seats them, and then sees them off (He meets the needs of all his living beings). But He makes only those individuals obey His Huqam whom He is kind to. 6.

Word Meaning: Bundhuna = traps of Maya. Sunbundh(u) = connection. Dundh(u) = tasks related to Maya. Jayvri = chains. Vertun(i) = behaviour; dealings. 1.

MEANING: All the religious rituals are related to (based on) sins and noble deeds, and serve as bonds with Maya. Attachments, and love for the sons and the wife, are a form of Maya, and bind one further with that (Maya). Everything is related to Maya, and it is all chains of Maya wherever I look. Word Meaning: Theeyaiy = happens. Rujaayay = with Waheguru's Will. Sach(i) = (with) Waheguru in mind. Laaj = honour.
MEANING: A blind (ignorant) man gets enlightenment only if he gets connected with the Guru by the grace of Waheguru, whereby he gets fully absorbed in Waheguru's Naam; his darkness of ignorance is dispelled, and all his worldly bonds get broken. He sees (realizes) that everything belongs to Waheguru, who has created his body (him). I have come to the shelter of Waheguru, where the Creator protects your honour, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Thaat(u) = the whole creation. Beh(i) = while sitting (in full calmness). Sayv Bunaayiun = the system of worship in the shelter of the Guru. Beeya = other. Theeya = happens.
MEANING: When Waheguru created the universe, He did that without any stress, and did not consult with anyone else for assistance. When there was nobody else in the world who would give or take anything (advice)? Then, the Creator created the whole world and provided everybody with the necessities of life. He Himself established the requirement of the Guru (His Naam) as being the spiritual guide (to connect with Him), and drank the Naam-Amrit Himself (became the first Guru). Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = The Sikhs of the Guru. Saacha = eternal (Waheguru). Urdh(i) Ooordh(i) = (Waheguru, which is present below and above).
MEANING: Guru's Sikhs always serve Waheguru (recite His Naam) with love, and attain the blissful state. They always sing praise of Waheguru which is present everywhere, and which supports the whole universe, and enjoy blissfulness. As prewritten in his fortune from the beginning, dear Waheguru's Naam gets enshrined in the devotee's heart. Word Meaning: Kuthiyaiyn = describing. Bhaunk(i) = bark; meaningless talk (preaching to others, but not following). Bil-laayay = cry for help. Bhijaiy = gets imbued.
MEANING: Waheguru cannot be realized just by narrating and describing His virtues to others; one needs to sing his praise (with love and reverence) all the time. Many people leave this world describing Waheguru's virtues to others (to impress them without themselves following His Will), while crying for help for themselves (yet hoping to realize Waheguru). But one cannot connect with Him without His benevolence. Waheguru comes to reside in the mind of the devotee who imbues his mind with love for the Guru's Shabad. One realizes Waheguru only with His benevolence when He Himself connects him (the devotee) with Him.

MEANING: (Everything happens in compliance with Waheguru's Laws or Will). Being present in everybody, Waheguru Himself is the writer of all the holy books of the Hindus, and He Himself describes them, and gets imbued in them. He Himself worships the deities with dedication, and Himself creates the worldly attractions (to thrust people into their love). He, Himself, gets involved in worldly affairs, and Himself stays detached; and Himself describes the virtues of the indescribable Lord. He, Himself, prods people to perform noble acts, but Himself stays detached. He, Himself, causes people to enjoy comforts and also causes suffering; and Himself shows benevolence. 8.

MEANING: Be fearful of Allah, and quit your craziness of using the power of your knowledge (or of your wealth) to abuse others (to force them to do things for you which are not to their liking)), oh Sheikh. Countless people have been salvaged because of Guru's fear in their mind; one realizes Waheguru only when he spends his life in His fear (obeys His Will). Pierce your heart of stone (which has no compassion or empathy for others) with Guru's Shabad, as a result of which your mind will become peaceful. An individual, who spends his life with peace at mind (treats everybody with love and care), is recognized in Waheguru's Court.

Nobody ever realizes Waheguru under the influence of lust and rage; you can check this with a devotee who is connected with God, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Koorr(u) = falsehood; Maya-related. Sungruhaiy = accumulates. Chhaar(u) = dust. Kerm Dherm = religious rituals. Sunjum = control over senses.

MEANING: The follower of his mind has a deep attachment with Maya, and does not foster any affection for Waheguru's Naam. He deals in false (short-lived) things, accumulates false wealth (by deceitful means), and falseness is the food for his soul. He dies saving the poisonous wealth and turns into dust at the end. He does perform the religious rituals and tries to control his sensual pleasures (to show off), but he is full of vices like greed, inside. Nothing that a money-minded individual does earns him respect in Waheguru's Court; he rather suffers discomfiture there, oh Nanak. 2.

Luhaayay = makes to acquire. Hurray = God. Bhoujul = the world-sea. Bohitha = ship; boat. Khayvut = boatman. Suraiy = equal. 9.

MEANING: (Being the creator of everything and being omnipresent), Waheguru Himself is the source of all reproduction, and Himself the creation. He Himself is the deep ocean, and Himself has placed jewels and gemstones like pearls and diamonds in it; (which also means that Waheguru is the ocean of spirituality which contains jewels-like precious (virtuous) qualities); and He, Himself, makes His devotees acquire the pearls-like qualities by putting them in the shelter of the Guru. He, Himself is the sea of Maya (Maya has been created by Him), and Himself, the boat and the boatman, and ferries the human beings across the sea of Maya. MEANING: Service to the Guru is highly rewarding, provided one does it with full diligence (with affection and reverence). One acquires Waheguru's invaluable Naam, which gets embedded in his heart without any special effort on his part. Because of Waheguru's Naam at heart, a devotee's worldly attachments, his selfishness and ego, and his suffering of rebirths are eradicated. Those who have taken the shelter of the Guru (act on His Advice), and have Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their heart, are ferried across the sea. MEANING: Like the touchstone which converts base metals into gold, Waheguru is such a source of virtues that He converts the Maya-engrossed humans into pure (pious) men. He, Himself, is the Lord, Himself the devotee, and Himself the destroyer of all sins. (Being present in every heart), He enjoys all the sweet tastes, and at the same time, He is Maya, and all its attractions, too. Waheguru, Himself is the Divine Knowledge, and Himself the narrator of His Virtues. He, Himself destroys the vices of His devotees by putting them in the shelter of the Guru. Word Meaning: Bundhuna = traps of (attachments with) Maya. Tthuvur = peace; freedom from rebirths. Jum Pur(i) = the city (court) of the Angel of death.

MEANING: All the deeds that the man performs without serving the Guru (without following His Advice) become traps for him in life. He does not find ongoing peace (freedom from rebirths) and keeps taking births and dying. Without serving Satguru, he uses impolite and rude language, and Waheguru's Naam never gets embedded in his heart. Word Meaning: Chaatshaal = school. Paandha = teacher. Chaatrray = students. Aanay = brings. Baaluk = children; ignorant. Ikuthaiy = at one place.

MEANING: (Since Waheguru does everything Himself, or gets others to do the same), He Himself is the school (of enlightenment), Himself the teacher, and Himself brings (motivates) students (people) to the School. He Himself is the father and the mother, and Himself educates (enlightens) His children (devotees). (Sitting in the heart of the individuals), He studies and understands everything at one place (in some situations), and leads some to ignorance at some other place (in some other situations). You invite some whom You like inside Your Residence (You connect them with You), oh Waheguru. The individuals, whom Waheguru wishes to recognize in His Court, are given the honour to be put in the shelter of the Guru. 11.

Sloak Merdana 1: Kul(i) kulvaali, kaam(u) mud(u), munooaa peevunhaar(u). Kroadh(u) kutori moh(i) bhuree, peelaava ahunkaar(u). Mujlus koorray lub kee, pee, pee hoyay khooaar(u). Kerni laahun(i), sat(u) goorr, Sach(u) suraa kur(i) saar(u). Goon munday kur(i), seel gheo, sherm(u) maas(u) aahaar(u). Gurmukh(i) paayiyaiy Nanaka, khaadhaiy jaah(i) bikaar. 1.

Word Meaning: Kul(i) = human character of disputes and aggressive arguments. Kulvaali = the woman who serves liquor. Mud(u) = liquor. Kutori = small bowl. Peelaava = which encourages one to drink. Mujlus = gathering of revellers (party goers). Lub = gluttony. Kerni = deeds. Laahun(i) = the fermented liquid containing the ingredients to make liquor. Sat(u) = High morality; service to others. Goorr = nuggets of raw sugar; jaggery Suraa = liquor. Saar(u) = supreme. Munday = a large but thin and flat bread. Seel = calmness; patience. Sherm = hard labour. Aahaar(u) = meal. Bikaar = vices; immoral acts.

MEANING: (Some people drink alcohol to feel high and have a good time, but according to Guru Nanak Sahib, alcohol is not the only intoxicant that people drink. For the world at large, the human nature of aggression is like a server of drinks which are made of lust (and other vices), which the mind drinks (and enjoys). The bowl (in which the liquor is served) is made of rage and is full of worldly attachments, while one's ego encourages him to drink. The gluttony and falsehood are the gathering at which the man keeps drinking the liquor of vices, and suffers humiliation.

On the other hand, if one uses the raw materials of noble deeds using high morality for the jaggery, and Waheguru's Naam as the intoxicant, the resulting distillate is the supreme liquor. If one takes this supreme liquor with the flat thin bread of virtues coated with the ghee of patience, and the meat of honest hard work to earn one's living, and if such meal is eaten in the shelter of the Guru, all his vices and sins get eradicated, oh Nanak. 1.

NOTE: Because the name "Merdana" appears in the heading of this holy Sloak, some people believe that the Sloak has been written by Bhai Merdana Ji, the life-long companion of Guru Nanak Sahib. But this inference is not correct for the following reasons. (1). Merdana Ji could not use the name "Nanak" at the end of the sloak as this honour is limited only to the Sikh Guru Sahiban. (2) In the heading, the number 1 with "Merdana" also appears. There were not more than 1 Bhai Merdana Jis which would have required clarification about which Bhai Merdana Ji wrote the Sloak.

In fact, the number "1" following "Merdana" applies to Mehla 1 (Guru Nanak Sahib) and the Sloak is addressed to Merdana Ji. Even though the title "Mehla" is also missing; but there is nothing unique about it. The title "Mehla is also missing" in Sloak #2, Paurri 4, of Goojri Kee Vaar on page 509-10 (of SGGS) Similarly, there are a few sloaks written by Guru Arjun Sahib, Mehla 5, under the heading of Sloak Kabir Ji, but they do contain the title "Nanak" in the sloaks. So, the holy Sloak is written by Mehla 1, and not by Bhai Merdana Ji.

bikaar. Giyan goorr(u), salaah munday, bhuou maas(u) aahaar(u). Nanak eh(u) bhojun Sach(u) haiy, Sach(u) Naam(u) aadhaar(u). 2.

Word Meaning: Aap(u) = ego and selfishness. Trishna Dhaat = pursuit for fulfilment of one's desires. Munsa = wishes. Khuttiyeh(i) = earn; acquire.

MEANING: In this world, the human body is like the vessel containing the raw materials to make liquor, which has one's selfishness and ego as the intoxicants. The pursuit of sensual pleasures serves as the company (the motivational force) where the man drinks this liquor. The bowl for the liquor is made of one's desires and is full of false hopes and ego, and the Angel of (spiritual death) motivates him to drink. The man drinking such liquor earns many vices (gets into the habit of many more vices).

On the other hand, if one uses Divine Knowledge (connection with Waheguru) as the raw material for the liquor, Waheguru's praise as the thin flat bread, and His respectful fear as the meat for food, then this combination serves as the eternal spiritual food, and Waheguru's Naam becomes the basis of one's life, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Kaayaan = (purified) human body. Aap(u) = free from selfishness and ego. Amrit = liquid of immortality (Waheguru's Naam). Liv = full focus on Waheguru (connection with Waheguru).

MEANING: If one purifies his body (and mind) with Waheguru's Naam, and uses it as the vessel to ferment the ingredients of selflessness and humility to prepare liquor, the liquor so prepared has the stream of Waheguru's Naam flowing out of it. If one is able to join the company of holy men and drink the Amrit from the bowl full of deep connection with Waheguru, all his vices are eradicated. 3.

Word Meaning: Soor(i) = of gods. Gun and Gundhurb = are the assistants and musicians of the gods. Khut Dershun = the six philosophies (Shastras) of Hindus. Bani = contents. Shiv, Shankar, and Mahesh = are names for Shiva. Bhogi = who enjoys the luxuries of life. Bibaani = in graveyards. Gosht(i) = meeting; exchange of ideas. Sooghurr = wise. Suroop(u) = beautiful. Choaj(u) = amazing feat. Jaani = know-all.

MEANING: Waheguru Himself is the gods, human beings, assistants and musicians of the gods, and Himself the contents of the six Shastras. He, Himself is the different forms of Shiva, and Himself the disciple of the Guru to describe the indescribable story of Waheguru. He, Himself is detached from the world, but enjoys all the tastes of life as well. He is also in the Sanyasis who roam the graveyards. He discusses the situations of the universe with Himself, preaches the Truth, and is wise, handsome, and noble. He watches His own amazing feats, and knows all about His creation. 12.

Word Meaning: Sundhiya = worship and recitation of some holy mantras. Doobidha = indecisiveness; the tough choice between God and Maya. Munooa = mind.

MEANING: That worship and recitation of some holy mantras are approved by Waheguru, which evoke His Naam in the mind of the devotee, generate love for Him, and burn (destroy) his love for Maya. The indecisiveness of the devotee is eradicated, and his mind becomes stable (quits wavering) by the Guru's grace, and pondering on the Guru's Shabad becomes his Sandhya. But, the Sandhya of a money-lover is not approved because his mind never becomes stable (it wanders around Maya), and he continues to take rebirths, and thus suffers humiliation, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Tunt(u) = tut(u) = human soul. Perm Tunt(u) or Tut(u) = the supreme Soul (Waheguru). Thus-Utth = ten plus eight (eighteen) = the entire vegetation. (Hindu Granths believe that if one leaf each of all kinds of vegetation is collected and weighed together, the total mass equals 18 weights; each weight equals about 90 kg). Vern = colour, variety; living beings of different varieties. Braham = Brahma = the Creator (Brahma is believed to be the creator of all life). Raj = control. Bukhshay = forgives. Tupaavus = judgment. Bherm = misgiving.

MEANING: Waheguru Himself is the human soul (is present in humans) and Himself the Supreme Soul. He, Himself, is the Lord, and Himself the slave (devotee). He created the entire vegetation and living beings of different varieties. Waheguru, Himself is the creator, and Himself the controller of the whole universe. He, Himself kills and Himself spares (frees) the living beings. Being benevolent, He forgives our sins too. He is infallible, and never makes any mistake. He delivers perfect justice based on truth only. Those who are given the wisdom in the shelter of the Guru get their misgivings about Maya cleared. 13.

MEANING: (Being omnipresent), Waheguru Himself is the 68 holy places of the Hindus, and Himself takes dips in them. He Himself controls human senses, and Himself makes people recite His Naam. The fear-destroying Waheguru is benevolent, and (being present in the pilgrims), He Himself gives donations at the holy places. Word Meaning: Taamus(i) = irritated and jealous. Ehinis(i) = day and night.
MEANING: Without taking Guru's shelter (following His Advice), the world is blind (in the dark), and performs (worthless) religious rituals blindly, oh Nanak. He does not apply his mind to (develop love for) the Guru's Shabad by which he can acquire blissfulness. MEANING: The Satguru advises that to have mental bliss, perform the deed (make it a routine) of reciting Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru is always close to you, but (you cannot see him because you have blinds of misgivings on your eyes); get rid of those misgivings, and implant Waheguru's Light (His Naam) in your heart. Use the medication of Waheguru's Naam, which is the real Amrit (which makes you mentally healthy). Keep Waheguru always in mind; true love for Him is the real treatment. Word Meaning: Bhaar utthaarah = the entire vegetation (see Paurri 13). Sinchaiy = irrigates. Bhoogta = the one who enjoys. Smaayay = present. Tumaayay = desire.
MEANING: Waheguru Himself is the entire vegetation, and Himself causes it to bear fruit. He is the gardener and irrigates every plant, and feeds it to the living beings. He is the creator and the one to enjoy different tastes. He provides for everybody Himself, and (in some cases) makes others providers too He, Himself is the Lord, Himself the guard, and is omnipresent. Word Meaning: Maanus = man. Bhuriya = full of vices. Aaniya = is brought; comes. Aayay = takes birth; comes in this world. Burl = attack of emotional tantrums. Praaya = stranger. Jhoottha Mud(u) = false intoxicant which impairs your thinking. Mool(i) Na = not at all. Paar(i) Vusaayay = as far as possible.

MEANING: The man comes to this world full of evil traits (which he had developed in his previous lives), and he adds on more in this world when he gets intoxicated with false intoxicants such as power, wealth, wisdom, beauty (handsomeness), certain personal abilities, drugs, and his children. One's wisdom is impaired by all or any of these intoxicants, and one gets fits of emotional tantrums. Under the influence of such false intoxicants, one does not recognize one's own from strangers (people kill close relatives for power, wealth, beauty, or fame), and gets thrown out of the Court of Waheguru. Under the influence of these intoxicants, people forget Waheguru and get punished in His Court. So, as far as possible, one should not consume any of the false intoxicants. A devotee, who gets connected with the Guru by Waheguru's kind sight, acquires His Naam, which has everlasting intoxication, oh Nanak. With this everlasting intoxication, the devotee is always imbued in Waheguru's love and is given a respectable place in His Court. 1.

NOTE: Contrary to popular beliefs, liquor or drugs are not the only intoxicants. Wealth, power, fame, beauty, and exceptional abilities are equally effective intoxicants.

Word Meaning: Jeevaiy Muraiy = to kill (overcome) worldly desires while living in the family. Soajhi = understanding. Soodh(i) =purified; recognizes self. Mern(u) = death.

MEANING: The (people of the) world will kill their worldly desires while still living in the family once they get enlightenment; otherwise, they stay asleep (unaware of reality, or in the darkness of ignorance) by Waheguru's Will, and gain wisdom (awareness) when awakened by Him. Waheguru connects the individuals whom He is benevolent to, with Satguru, with whose grace they kill their worldly desires, never to die again (as they merge into Waheguru).

MEANING: Waheguru, which creates and controls everything, is not concerned about (is not afraid of) anybody else. Everybody eats (lives on) whatever You provide with, and everybody is dependent on You, oh Waheguru. You are above the effects of Maya; an individual who sings Your praise and earns Your favour receives everything (he wishes for), oh Waheguru. That individual is really wealthy and a real businessman who deals in Your Naam. Praise Waheguru, which completely demolishes the roots (basis) of the love for Maya, oh, you all holy men. 16.

Sloak: Kabir, merta, merta jug(u) mooaa, mur(i) bh(i) na jaanaiy koyay. Aiysi merni jo muraiy, buhour(i) na merna hoyay. 1.

MEANING: Suffering spiritual death many times, the world eventually dies its natural death, but does not know how to die a real death, oh Kabir. A person who knows how to die a real death never dies again.

NOTE: Kabir Sahib does mention “real death”, but does not clarify it. Guru Amar Dass Ji clarifies “real death” in the following Sloak.

ਮ:3॥ ਕਿਆ ਜਾਣਾ ਕਿਵ ਮਰਹਗੇ ਕੈਸਾ ਮਰਣਾ ਹੋਇ॥ ਜੇ ਕਰਿ ਸਾਹਿਬੁ ਮਨਹੁ ਨ ਵੀਸਰੈ ਤਾ ਸਹਿਲਾ ਮਰਣਾ ਹੋਇ॥ ਮਰਣੈ ਤੇ ਜਗਤੁ ਡਰੈ ਜੀਵਿਆ ਲੋੜੈ ਸਭੁ ਕੋਇ॥ ਗੁਰ ਪਰਸਾਦੀ ਜੀਵਤੁ ਮਰੈ ਹੁਕਮੈ ਬੂਝੈ ਸੋਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਐਸੀ ਮਰਨੀ ਜੋ ਮਰੈ ਤਾ ਸਦ ਜੀਵਣੁ ਹੋਇ॥ 2॥

M:3: Kiyya jaana kiv merhehngay, kaiysa merna hoyay. Jay kur(i) Sahib(u) munhoun na veesray, ta sehila merna hoyay. Mernaiy tay jugut(u) duraiy, jeeviya loarraiy subh(u) koyay. Gur persad(i) jeevut muraiy, Huqamaiy boojhaiy soyay. Nanak aiysi merni jo muraiy, ta sud jeevun(u) hoyay. 2.

MEANING: No one knows how he will die or what kind of death he will meet. However, death becomes easy (non-threatening) for the individual who does not forget Waheguru. The whole world is afraid of death, and everybody wants to live (forever). However, a person who understands Waheguru’s Huqam by the grace of the Guru dies only as far as the worldly desires are concerned (kills them). A person who dies such a death lives forever (because he merges into Waheguru), oh Nanak. 2.

Jo Hur(i) ka piyaara, so subhna ka piyaara, hoar kayti jhukh, jhukh, aavaiy, jaavaiy. 17.

Word Meaning: Jhukh = blabbering about worthless things without any gain.

MEANING: When Waheguru is kind, He Himself makes His devotees recite His Naam. He loves His devotees and makes their life comfortable (blissful) by connecting them with the Guru. He protects the honour of His devotees and makes the world to drop on their feet (show respect for them). The Angel of justice is the creation of Waheguru, so he does not even go near His devotees. Everybody loves the devotee who is loved by Waheguru; countless other people come and go (are born and die), blabbering about meaningless things (are not liked by the Waheguru world). 17.

Sloak M:3: Ram(u), Ram(u) kerta subh(u) jug(u) phiraiy, Ram(u) na paaya jaayay. Agumm(u) Agoachur(u) ut(i) vudda, atooll(u) na tooliya jaayay. Keemut(i) kinaiy na paayiya, kitaiy na luyya jaayay. Word Meaning: Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Bhadiya = pierced; stitched. Amayou = immeasurable.

MEANING: The whole world talks about Waheguru and keeps searching for Him in isolated places, but He cannot be realized like that. The inaccessible and incomprehensible Waheguru is extremely large and immeasurable, and cannot be weighed (in terms of His magnanimity). Nobody can evaluate Him, and He cannot be bought or acquired anywhere. However, He does come to reside in the heart, which gets pierced (deeply affected) by Guru's Shabad. Waheguru is immeasurable, but with Guru's grace, one realizes that He is present everywhere, oh Nanak. Waheguru Himself connects His devotees with Him, and Himself comes to reside in the devotee's heart. Once He gets connected with His devotees, He stays connected and never leaves their hearts. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਏ ਮਨ ਇਹੁ ਧਨੁ ਨਾਮੁ ਹੈ ਜਿਤੁ ਸਦਾ ਸਦਾ ਸੁਖੁ ਹੋਇ॥ ਤੋਟਾ ਮੂਲਿ ਨ ਆਵਈ ਲਾਹਾ ਸਦ ਹੀ ਹੋਇ॥ ਖਾਧੈ ਖਰਚਿਐ ਤੋਟਿ ਨ ਆਵਈ ਸਦਾ ਸਦਾ ਓਹੁ ਦੇਇ॥ ਸਹਸਾ ਮੂਲਿ ਨ ਹੋਵਈ ਹਾਣਤ ਕਦੇ ਨ ਹੋਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਪਾਈਐ ਜਾ ਕਉ ਨਦਰਿ ਕਰੇਇ। 2॥

Word Meaning: Toata = shortage. Laaha = benefit. Sehsa = worry. Haanut = loss.

MEANING: It is the wealth of Waheguru's Naam which provides the real comfort all the time, oh my mind. There is never a shortage of comfort; it is rather always beneficial. There is never a shortage in this wealth (of Waheguru's Naam), no matter how much you consume or share with people; Waheguru always gives more and more. There is never a worry (to lose it), and one never suffers any loss. This wealth can be acquired only in the shelter of the Guru with the benevolence of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Jaahir = visible. Goobaar = darkness. Soonna = without any ideas invading the mind. Taarri Laayay = in deep meditation. Guouhur = unfathomable.

MEANING: Waheguru resides in every heart, but at the same time, He is also present outside (everywhere else). He operates hidden as well as visibly (in nature). He remained in deep meditation without any ideas coming to His mind for thirty-six eons (a Hindu belief) (an extremely long time) when it was complete darkness everywhere. There were no Vedas, Puranas or Shastras at that time, and He was the only King at the time. He was aloof in His deep meditation. Only He knows His wisdom; He is like an unfathomable ocean. 18

MEANING: The world suffers spiritual death because of its selfishness and ego, and continues to die in that mode. The man does not remember Waheguru as long as he lives; so, what will he do in (what virtues will he take with him to) the next world (in Waheguru's Court? The Giyani (spiritually enlightened person) stays alert (about the attacks of Maya), but the ignorant commits dark (related to Maya) acts. The man does not realize that not only does he reap the results of his deeds here in this world, but he also carries them with him to the next world, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Dhoor(i) = right from the source (Waheguru). Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Dum(i) = with every breath. Pudvee = rank; status = Mertba.

MEANING: It is the Huqam (Law) of the Lord Waheguru right from the beginning, that one cannot worship Him without taking shelter of Satguru. Waheguru, which has been there in the mind of the devotee in the dormant state, appears in his mind when he gets connected with the Guru, and meditates on Him all the time (stays connected with Him). Then the devotee remembers Waheguru with every breath and does not allow a single breath to pass without remembering Him. He is no longer afraid of death and attains a high spiritual state. But only that devotee receives this high spiritual rank whom Waheguru grants to with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Daana = noble. Beeniya = know-all, wise. Perdhaana = controller. Roop = different forms. Moani = mute; quiet. Bern(i) = narrate.

MEANING: Waheguru is noble, wise and the controller of the universe. He shows Himself in many forms and, at the same time, is present in a meditative state. He operates quietly and also delivers His Knowledge. Nobody finds Him unlikable; everybody likes Him. We cannot describe His virtues (sing enough praise); I am always a sacrifice for Him. 19.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:1॥ ਕਲੀ ਅੰਦਰਿ ਨਾਨਕਾ ਜਿੰਨਾ ਦਾ ਅਉਤਾਰ॥ ਪੁਤੁ ਜਿਨੂਰਾ ਧੀਅ ਜਿੰਨੂਰੀ ਜੋਰੂ ਜਿੰਨਾ ਦਾ ਸਿਕਦਾਰੁ॥

Sloak M:1: Kulee undar(i) Nanaka, jinna da autaar. Poot(u) jinoora, dhee jinoori, joaru jinna da sikdaar(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Kulee = Kalyug (the present eon). Autaar = birth.

MEANING: Kulyug (the present eon) is considered to be a bad eon, but it is real kulyug when the people behave like djinns (sub-human) and do not recite Waheguru's Naam; oh Nanak. Their offspring - sons and daughters - are djinns, and the women are the leaders of such djinns. 1.

ਮ:1॥ ਹਿੰਦੂ ਮੂਲੇ ਭੂਲੇ ਅਖੁਟੀ ਜਾਹੀ॥ ਨਾਰਦਿ ਕਹਿਆ ਸਿ ਪੂਜ ਕਰਾਹੀ॥ ਅੰਧੇ ਗੁੰਗੇ ਅੰਧ ਅੰਧਾਰੁ॥ ਪਾਥਰੁ ਲੇ ਪੂਜਹਿ ਮੁਗਧ ਗਵਾਰ॥ ਓਹਿ ਜਾ ਆਪਿ ਡੁਬੇ ਤੁਮ ਕਹਾ ਤਰਣਹਾਰੁ॥ 2॥

Word Meaning: Moolay = from the beginning; absolutely. Akhootee = misled. Nard(i) = as advised by Nard, who was a son of Brahma, born out of his thigh. He used to worship his deity by dancing and playing music. Goongay = mute; dumb. Undh Undhaar(u) = pitch dark.

MEANING: The Hindus are misled right from the beginning, and worship idols as practised by Nard. They are blind (about Waheguru), mute (because they do not recite Waheguru's Naam), and are in complete darkness. The foolish and the unrefined worship stone idols and do not realize that how can the stones ferry them across the sea (of Maya) when they themselves sink.

Word Meaning: Kihou = kichh(u) = thing. Vaysaah(u) = faith. Rujj(i) = to full satisfaction. Laah(u) = benefit. Agumm = inaccessible. Agaah(u) = unfathomable.
MEANING: You are the true Lord and control everything, oh Waheguru. The bhagats (supreme devotees) are imbued with the love of the "One" only, and have full faith in Him. Waheguru's Naam-Amrit is the food (for their soul) which they eat to their full satisfaction (always recite His Naam). The added benefit of the recitation of Waheguru's Naam is that they acquire everything they wish for. Waheguru, who is otherwise inaccessible and unfathomable, loves His bhagats. 20.

MEANING: Everything comes into being, and goes (is destroyed) with Waheguru's Huqam (Will). But if someone foolishly believes that things happen because of his wisdom and efforts, he is blind (of wisdom) and commits deeds in darkness (of ignorance). Some rare devotee, whom Waheguru is kind to with His own Will, realizes His Huqam in the shelter (guidance) of the Guru, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Jogi = yogi. Joogut(i) = technique (the path of union with God). Nugri = city; shelter. Vussaiy = come to seek advice. Bhaykheen = by the garb.
MEANING: Only that mystic is a real Yogi and has learned the technique to unite with God, who has acquired Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Everybody goes to him to seek his advice on union with God; a person does not become a real yogi simply by wearing the garb of his faith. There is a rare Yogi who gets Waheguru to appear in his heart, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Junt = living beings. Aadhaar = support; food; provider. Sookhum = minuscule; microbes. Pasaar(u) = expanse; unlimited. Ikaanti = alone. Raynaar(u) = the dust of the feet.
MEANING: Waheguru, Himself, creates all the living beings, and Himself provides food for them. He can be found (is present) in microbes as well as in the vast expanse (the whole universe). He lives alone (aloof and detached from the world) and at the same time has a huge family (of all living beings in the world). I beg for the dust of the feet of His holy saints (want to serve them with reverence), oh Nanak. I cannot think of any other donor (provider); Only God is the real provider. 21. Verified.
