Word Meaning: Alaahniyaan = songs at the death of a relative. When someone dies, women get together and cry while singing and beating their chests and thighs in rhythm while singing some songs. The crying is usually associated with monetary loss and loss of other services caused by the death of the person. Guru Nanak Sahib has written five Chhunts on the subject and named them “Alaahniyaan”. He has discussed the futility of such crying, and has advised to obey the Will of God and to sing His praise in these holy Shabads.

Word Meaning: Sirunda = creator. Dhundhaiy Laaya = became interested in Maya's affairs. Moohlut = allocated time. Poonni = completed. Paayee Bhuree = water clock (a bowl, called paayee, with a small hole at the bottom, is placed on the surface of water. The water enters the bowl from the bottom, and fills the paayee which sinks to the bottom. It takes one ghurree (24 minutes) to fill the bowl. Jaaniurra = human soul. Ghut(i) = is a verb used in many different ways (by tying up). Roonnay = cried. Subaayay = all. Kaaya = body. Huns = soul. Theeya = became. Vaychhorra = separation. Maayay = mother. Poorb(i) Kmaaya = deeds done before death. 1. Puyyaana = journey. Chaar(i) Dihaan = four days; a short lifetime. Surpur = for sure. Mehmaana = visitor. Kaahay = for what. Gaarub(u) = conceit. Na Moolaiy = not at all. Sir(i), Sir(i) = individually. Vihaana = happens. 2. Theeyaiy = happens; takes place. Sumruth(u) = omnipotent (Waheguru). Heelrra = make effort. Muhiul(i) = (in the) sky. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Alukh = incomprehensible. Apaaro = beyond limits. Aaya = taking birth. Suful = successful. Dhaahay = demolishes. Oosaaray = constructs. Suvaarunhaaro = makes it attractive (successful). 3. Roonna = cry. Baba = respectable person. Jaaniyaiy = is considered to be valid. Vaalayvay = for material things. Kaarun(i) = for the sake of. Bikaaro = wasteful; useless. Gaaful(u) = unaware. Aivaiy = meaninglessly. Khovaiy = loses (opportunity to be one with God). Aiythaiy = here; in this world. Koorr(i) = of worthless things. 4.

MEANING: The creator, Waheguru, is great, who has put the world to business involving worldly attractions which the man enjoys (while enjoying the worldly attractions, the man forgets that he has to die, and he fails to remember Waheguru). But when the time allocated to a man’s life ends, and his time in this world is completed, the agents of the Angel of Death tie him up and take the soul, which is dear to him, away. The agents take him away on the written orders of Waheguru, and all his brothers (relatives) begin to cry. When man’s time is over in this world, the soul is separated from the body, oh my mother. The man receives the kind of treatment as per the written judgment for him, based on his deeds throughout his life. The creator, Waheguru, is great, which puts the people into worldly business. 1.

Remember the Lord, oh my friends; all of us are destined to undertake the same journey (must die). The false business centred around Maya in this world is short-lived; everybody has to go to the next world for sure. Because man’s stay in the world is temporary, like a visitor who must leave, what should the man be conceited about? We should recite the Naam of Waheguru by which we will receive comfort (honour) in His Court. No one can issue any order at all in Waheguru’s Court about what happens to the individuals there. So, recite Waheguru’s Naam because all of us have to meet the same fate. 2.

The eternal Creator is present in the waters, on the land, and in the sky, and knows everything that the living beings do (He controls everywhere); so, only that happens in this world which the fully capable Lord wishes; one can only put in efforts to achieve certain things. The eternal Creator (Waheguru) is incomprehensible and is beyond limits; nobody can find His limits. The life of only those individuals is successful (get connected with Waheguru) who recite His Naam with full devotion. He demolishes His own creation and recreates it (at His Will) and makes it attractive with His Laws. Only that happens in the world which the eternal Creator likes; humans can only put in their efforts (try) to achieve certain things. 3.

Only that crying can be considered meaningful which is carried on in the pure love for someone (love with relatives is rooted in Maya; only love for Waheguru is pure); but people cry not for the loss of the individual, they rather cry for the loss of amenities (economic, and services) that they lose with the death of the relative. Crying for the loss of worldly comforts is all useless (is not rewarded). The world is unaware (ignorant), which cries at the loss of worldly comforts because crying does not pay (change anything) at all. The man cannot distinguish between good and bad, and wastes away his precious human life for nothing. Whosoever comes into this world has to leave, so his ego is totally false. Only that crying can be considered meaningful which is carried out in pure love - preferably for Waheguru – oh, Nanak. 4.1.

NOTE: Pure love involves no worldly attachment or personal loss of any kind - it is love just for the soul, which implies holy saints and God. Remember, Guru Nanak Sahib cried at heart when Babar killed so many innocent people at Eminabad in 1521.

Mehli jaayay paavhou, Khusmaiy bhaavhou, rung siyoun ruliyaan maanaiy. Mern(u) na miunda loaka aakhiyaiy, jay koyee mer(i) jaanaiy. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Birha = pain of separation. Sumaalhay = remember; sing praise. Punth(i) = path; journey. Nihaaleh(i) = we watch. Bhaana = Will. Aagaiy Aaya = for one to face. 1. Mern(u) = death. Munda = bad. Mer(i) Jaanaiy = knows how to die (honourable death). Soohayla = easy; comfortable. Aagaiy = in the next world (Waheguru's Court). Bhaytaiy = offering (of Waheguru's Naam). Put(i) = honour. Laykhaiy Paayiyaiy = is given credit. Rung Siyoun = with love. Ruliyaan Maanaiy = enjoys blissfulness. 2.

MEANING: Come, join together to recite Waheguru's ever true Naam, oh my friends. Let us share the pain of separation from the Lord, Waheguru, and remember Him so as to remove the separation (barriers to union with Him). Let us remember the Lord, and also the path to the next world (keep in mind that all of us have to die), as we too have to go there. The death of a person occurs according to Waheguru's Will; He simply takes back the person He had created. We reap the reward only of that which He has put in our destiny; we cannot order (have no right to make) any change in it. Let us join together and sing Waheguru's praise, oh my friends. 1.

Do not call death bad, oh folks. It can be a great experience, provided one knows how to have a blissful death. (To have blissful death) One needs to serve the omnipotent Lord (Waheguru), as a result of which one's journey of death becomes comfortable (and pleasant). You get rewarded and honoured in Waheguru's Court when you follow the right path (as described above). If you take the offerings of Waheguru's Naam and of noble qualities (control on sensual desires, and freedom from all worldly bonds), you will be honoured in Waheguru's Court, and will merge into Him. With these offerings, you will reach Waheguru's Palace, will be liked (loved) by Him, and enjoy the bliss of His love. So, do not call death bad, oh folks. The only thing one needs to know is how to die a respectful death. 2.

---------- Mern(u) moonsaan, sooriyaan huq(u) haiy, jay hoyay mern(i) pervaano.

(PAGE 580): Sooray sayee aagaiy aakhiyeh(i) Durgeh paaveh(i) Saachi maano. Durgeh maan(u) paaveh(i), put(i) siyoun jaaveh(i), aagaiy dookh(u) na laagaiy. Kur(i) Aik(u) dhiyaaveh(i), ta ful paaveh(i), jit(u) sayviyaiy bhuou bhaagaiy. Oocha nuhee kehna, mun meh rehna, Aapay jaanaiy Jaano. Mern(u) moonsaan, sooriyaan huq(u) haiy, jay hoyay mureh(i) pervaano. 3. Nanak kis nu baba royiyaiy, baaji haiy eh(u) sunsaaro. Keeeta vaikhaiy Sahib aapna, koodrut(i) kureh(i) beechaaro. Koodrut(i) beechaaray, dhaarun dhaaray, Jin(i) keeya so jaanaiy. Aapay vaykhaiy, Aapay boojhaiy, Aapay Huqam(u) puchhaanaiy. Jin(i) kichh(u) keeya, Soyee jaanaiy, Ta ka roop apaaro. Nanak, kis nu baba royiyaiy, baaji haiy eh(u) sunsaaro. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Moonsaan = braves. Sooriyaan = valiant. Huq(u) = right; honour. Pervaano = approved; for a noble cause. Maano = get honoured. Kur(i) Aik(u) = believing only in "One" (Waheguru). Bhuou = fears. Oocha = publicize. Jaano = who knows everything (Waheguru). 3. Baaji = drama; mortal (not living forever). Dhaarun Dhaaray = provides support. Boojhaiy = understands. Huqam(u) Puchhaanaiy = applies His Laws appropriately. Roop Apaaro = extreme beauty; countless forms. 4.

MEANING: It is the right of (honour for) the brave and the valiant to die, provided the death is approved (it is for some noble cause). But only those individuals are considered valiant who are honoured in the Court of the eternal Waheguru (because of their sacrifice for some noble cause, which was done without any expectation of any kind). Such Valiants go to Waheguru's Court with dignity, are honoured there, and experience no suffering of any kind in the next world. They get rewarded if they worship the only "One" Waheguru, serving whom all their fears are eradicated. But one should not publicize his spiritual achievements; they should be kept to himself, because the omniscient Waheguru knows everything. It is the right of (honour for) the brave and the valiant to die, provided such death is for a noble cause. 3.

Whom should we cry before (complain to about the death of a relative), oh Nanak? The world is a drama (it has been created so that it is not our permanent residence, and everyone must leave it one day, like actors on a stage who just perform their roles and then leave the stage) (so crying over the death of someone is useless). The Lord watches His creation and makes His final judgment on the individuals based on their deeds as per His Laws. Waheguru, who has created the world, provides support to His creation according to His Laws; He looks after His creation, understands it, and applies His Laws appropriately. Only He knows about the world that He has created in many, many different forms. Whom should we complain to, oh Nanak? This world is a drama, and not everlasting. 4.2.

Vudhuns(u) Mehla 1, Dukkhni: Sach(u) Sirunda Sacha jaaniyaiy, Sachrra Pervudgaaro. Jin(i) Aapinay, Aap(u) saajiya, Sachrra Alukh Apaaro. Doyay poorr jorr(i) vichhorriun(u), Gur bin(u) ghor(u) undhaaro. Sooruj, chund(u), sirjiun(u) ehnis(i) chult(u) veechaaro. 1. Sachrra Sahib(u), Sach(u) Tu, Sachrra dayh(i) piyaaro. Ruhaou. Toodh(u) sirji maydni, dookh(u), sookh(u), dayvunhaaro. Naari, purakh sirjiyaiy bikh(u) Maya moh(u) piyaaro. Khaani, bani Tayriyaa, dayh(i) jeeaan aadhaaro. Koodrut(i) tukhut(u) ruchaaya, Sach(i) nibayrrunhaaro. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Dukkhni = southern (it is a type of Raag Vudhuns, which is popular in southern India). Sirunda = creator. Jaaniyaiy = believe; make a connection. Sachrra = eternal. Pervudgaaro = which raises and nourishes. Poorr = the two stones (grinders of a flour mill). Doyay Poorr = the earth and the sky. Jorr(i) = by connecting. Vichhorriun(u) = separated; disconnected. Chult(u) = the amazing drama of the world. 1. Maydni = world. Naari = female. Purakh = male. Khaani = the sources of reproduction. Bani = languages (ways of communication). Adhaaro = support; food. Tukhut(u) = throne. Sach(i) = by full justice. Nibayrrunhaaro = which delivers the final decision (judge). 2.

MEANING: We must believe in (and connect with) the eternal Waheguru, who created Himself, is incomprehensible and beyond limits. He is the creator of the universe, and is the raiser and the nourisher of all living beings. He created the universe by combining the earth and the sky (when they were together as one – i.e., there was nothing, and it was complete emptiness everywhere). In other words, He created the universe from emptiness and detached Himself completely from it (He is unaffected by the effects of Maya). (Because He is completely detached from the world, it is impossible to comprehend Him and get connected with Him). It is the Guru who enlightens the masses about Him; there is complete darkness of ignorance in the world about Him. Waheguru created the sun, the moon, and days and nights, but believes it to be only an amazing drama of the Lord. 1.

(The world may be a drama) (mortal), but Waheguru Himself is eternal, and the source of truthfulness. He grants His everlasting love to the man. Pause.
You created the world with females and males, and infused love for the poisonous Maya in them, which becomes the source of comforts and sufferings, oh Lord. The sources of reproduction, and the different ways of communication among the living beings, are Yours (You created them), and You provide food to them. You have created nature as Your throne to rule the universe, and You make the final decision on the consequences of the deeds done by the living beings with full justice (with no bias). 2.
---------- Aavaguvun(u) sirjiya, Tu thir(u) Kernayhaaro. Jummun(u) merna, aayay guyya, budhik(u) jeeou bikaaro. Bhoondrray Naam(u) visaariya, boodrraiy kiya tis(u) chaaro. Goon chhoad(i) bikh(u) luddiya, uvgun ka vunjaaro. 3. Sudrray aayay tinha jaaniya, Huqam(i) Sachay Kartaaro. Naari purakh vichhoonniya, vichhurriya Maylunhaaro. Roop(u) na jaanaiy sohuniyaiy, Huqam(i) budhi sir(i) kaaro. Baaluk birdh(i) na jaan-ni torrun hayt(u) piyaaro. 4.
Word Meaning: Aavaguvun(u) = birth and death, and rebirth. Thir(u) = everlasting; eternal. Budhik(u) = trapped. Bikaaro = vices; immoral activities. Bhoondrra = a bumblebee that sucks the sap of various flowers; a lustful man. Boodrraiy = drowned. Chaaro = recourse; option; ability (to oppose). Luddiya = loaded. Uvgun = bad (immoral) qualities. Vunjaaro = businessman. 3. Tinha = those. Jaaniya = souls. Naari = body. Purakh = soul. Vichhoonniya = separated = Vichhurriyaan. Maylunhaaro = the one who can connect. Roop(u) = beauty. Budhi = bound by. Sir(i) Kaaro = obeys as ordered. Birdh = old. Hayt(u) = for. 4.
MEANING: You are the creator of the universe, and You created the birth-death-birth cycle (meaning everything is mortal), but You are immortal, oh Waheguru. The living beings are prisoners (strongly attached) of sensual desires, and as a result, continue to take births and to die. The lustful man ignores Waheguru's Naam as a result of which, he drowns in the world-sea (worldly attachments and sensual pleasures), and has no recourse to escape. He is a dealer in immoral qualities (acts), and, avoiding noble qualities, he is loaded with poisonous qualities. 3.
Ignoring Waheguru which had connected the soul with the body, the man enjoyed the luxuries of life which finally come to end. Finally, the humans get called in by the orders (Will) of the eternal Creator, and the soul is disconnected with the body. The Angel of death simply acts on the orders of Waheguru and does not care about the beauty or youthfulness of the individual, and makes no distinction between a child or an old man as far as breaking the love between the body and its soul is concerned. 4.

---------- Nuou dur tthaakay Huqam(i) Sachaiy, huns(u) guyya gaiynaaray. Sa dhun chhootti, mootthi, jhootth(i) vidhniyaa, mirtkurra ungnurray baaray. Soort(i) mooyee, mur(i) maayiyaiy, mehl roonni Durbaaray. Rovhou kunt muhaylihou Sachay kay goon saaray. 5. Jul(i) mul(i) jaani navaaliya, kuppurr(i) putt(i) umbaaray. Vaajay vujjay Sachi Baniyaan, punch mooyay mun(u) maaray. Jaani vichhoonnrray, mayra mern(u) bhuyya, dhrig(u) jeevun(u) sunsaaray. Jeevut muraiy su jaaniyaiy, Pir Sachrray hayt(i) piyaaray. 6.
Word Meaning: Nuou Dur = the nine doors of the body (two eyes, two ears, two nostrils, one mouth, two private parts). Tthaakay = stopped; closed. Huns(u) = soul. Gaiynaaray = in the sky. Sa Dhun = that woman (dead body). Chootti = left behind. Mootthi Jhootthi = robbed (of good qualities) by falsehood. Vidhniyaa = widowed. Mirtkurra = dead body. Ungunrray = in the courtyard. Baaray = at the door. Soort(i) Mooyee = wisdom is dead; soul has left. Durbaaray = in Waheguru's Court. Kunt Muhayliou = brides of (Waheguru). Goon Saaray = remembering noble qualities. 5.

Jaani = dead body. Kuppurr(i) = Umbaaray = clothes of. Putt(i) = of silk. Sachi Baniyaan = praise of God. Punch Mooyay = the five demons. Mun(u) Maaray = with the death (separation of) the soul. Dhrig(u) = worthless. Hayt(u) = love. 6.
MEANING: All nine doors of the human body stop working, and the soul flies away to the sky. Robbed of good qualities by the falseness of Maya, the widowed body lies in the door of the courtyard. After it leaves the body, the soul loses all its wisdom (cleverness), and is presented before Waheguru where it cries (suffers) because of its past deeds. (Guru Sahib advises all those men and women who arrive at the house of the deceased to express sympathy, and to all others) that the dead body should remind them of their own death, and they should cry on their immoral deeds (quit them) and remember Waheguru. 5. The relatives wash the dead body well with water, and wrap it in a silk cloth. Music is played and the people chant Lord's praise whereas the soul cries that all its five demon friends (sensual pleasures have left it), so its life has become worthless in the world. But, those, who kill their worldly desires for the love of Waheguru while still living in the family, are honoured (everywhere). 6.

Buyyiur(i) Naam(i) sohaagni, Sach(u) svaarunhaaro. Gaavhou geet, na birhurra, Nanak Braham beechaaro. 8.3.
Word Meaning: Rovhou = cry; suffer. Sunsaaray = in the world. Dhundhaiy Dhaavuniyaan = running around for Maya. Pir(i) = Waheguru. Vidhunkaaray = in the business, which leads a woman to become a widow (rejected by the husband). Muhayliyaan = women; human beings. Rehsiurri = blissful; heart blooms. Bhutaaray = Husband (Waheguru). 7. Vays(u) = out looks; nature. Pultiya = changed completely. Sach(u) =Waheguru-like. Seegaaro = adornment. Buyyiur(i) = woman; human being. Sohaagni = loved by husband. Suvaarunhaaro = which adorns. Birhurra = pain of separation. 8.
MEANING: (Addressing the public in general, and the women who cry at the death of a relative in particular - which, in most cases is simply fake and ritualistic), Guru Sahib advises that all their acts (including crying in sympathy) are Maya-oriented, and the mourners are being robbed (of noble qualities by the falseness of Maya) as a result of which they will continue to suffer, and will be left widowed (deprived of His love) by the Lord. Everybody wishes to be the wife of Waheguru (wishes to connect with Him) which is present in every heart, but only those are recognized (given credit) who cry in (get overwhelmed by) the love of Waheguru. I love to sing praise of dear Waheguru-Husband, and my heart blooms when I recite His Naam. 7.
The human bride, who adorns her mind with Waheguru-like qualities in the shelter of the Guru, undergoes a complete change in her nature (thinking). So, let us get together and remember (sing praise of) the Creator. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, the woman is adorned with noble qualities by Waheguru, and she gets deep love from Him. If you sing Waheguru's praise and ponder on His countless virtues (with Guru's Shabad), you will never experience the pain of His separation, oh, Nanak. 8.3.

Word Meaning: Sirj(i) = having created. Smaaya = is present. Koodrut(i) = in nature. Jaanova = can be seen; recognized; comprehended. Bhaaliyaiy = search for. Shabad(u) = Waheguru's Huqam (Naam). Puchhanova = recognized. Ruchna = creation. Raachi = created. Pirr = battle ground (to fight against the five demons). Kaachi = weak; incapable. Thaapi = created. Bidh(i) = technique; means. Vukhaanaiy = say, discuss. Vutaaya = spread. Jaalo = the net of Maya. Pervaano = approved; great; is Supreme. 1. Aaya Haiy = whoever is born. Ootth(i) Chullna = has to die. Udpundhaiy = in the middle of the journey. Poorb(i) = deeds done previously. Veechaarova = believe it. Nibhaiy = goes along. Dooji Kaar = other kind of deeds. Bhaalay = look for; perform. Niraalum = fully detached. Dhundhaiy Baandhi = trapped in the Maya-related tasks. Chhudaavubhaaro = that who frees from the bonds of Maya. Kaal(u) Viyaapaiy = time influences (goes by). Bhaayay = love.2.

MEANING: The Lord, who has created the world and who is present in it, can be seen (is visible) in His nature. The eternal Waheguru is present in every heart in the form of His Huqam (Naam), and should not be looked for outside. Recognize His Huqam, and do not think the creator of the universe to be living somewhere far, far away. Those who recite His Naam enjoy comfort (blissfulness). Without Waheguru's Naam, the man cannot fight the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachment, and ego). Only the Lord knows the ways by which He created the universe; no one else can say anything about that. The Lord, who has created the universe and has spread the net of Maya, is Supreme. 1.

Whosoever is born has to leave this world; the world is only the middle journey of the living beings. Waheguru has written the destiny of everyone based on their deeds in previous lives, and because of which one enjoys comforts or suffers discomfort. Waheguru gives comforts and discomforts based on an individual's deeds, and those comforts and discomforts remain with the individual throughout his journey of life. One performs deeds for which he is programmed by Waheguru, and cannot do anything different. Waheguru Himself is completely detached from the world (above the effects of Maya), yet He has caused the world to be engrossed in Maya; but He can salvage some (break their bonds with Maya) with His Huqam. In general, the man enjoys sensual pleasures, and his life is spent postponing worshiping of Waheguru every day (thinking that he will start it the next day). 2.

Word Meaning: Maarug = Punth(u) = path; journey. Oojhurr = wilderness. Undh Goobaarova = blinding darkness. Layf = quilt; comforter. Toolaayiyaan = comforter-like mattress. Bhojun Perkaarova = variety of meals. Bhaaou = love. Seegaaro = to beautify. Sungul(u) = chain. Oobhau = standing. Ib Kay Raahay = sown presently. Jummun(i) = sprouting. Sir(i) Bhaaro = burden of bad deeds. 3.

Roveh(i) = crying; repenting. Ruveh(i) = recite (Waheguru's Naam). Jaaniyeh(i) = recognized; is honest. Saarayva = takes care of; remembers. Dhundhrra = business related to Maya. Rovaiy = cries; suffers. Soopnuntar(u) = in dreams. Baajigur = acrobat; a stage actor. Bhermaiy Bhoolay = misled in misbelief. Ahunkaaro = ego. Kerm Kmaayay = performs deeds. Ruttay = imbued. Sehj Soobhaayay = without any special effort. 4.

MEANING: On the way to the court of the Angel of Justice, it is all complete darkness around, and the departed soul finds itself in a complete wilderness where it cannot think of any means to escape. It finds no water to drink, nor the comfort of a nice bed, nor a variety of delicious meals. There is no food offered with love, no cold water, nor any clothes or items to beautify oneself. A chain around its neck, the soul is beaten on the head by the standing (forceful) Angel of death, and it finds no familiar house or door where it can escape to. There is no noble deed it can perform now which could provide helpful results, so it repents because of the burden of its ignoble deeds. The conclusion is that there is no friend at that time without Waheguru. 3.

Only that repenting is considered to be honest, whereby an individual remembers the noble qualities of Waheguru in the company of holy saints, and cries in His love. But the man cries over (works hard for) Maya-related business, which robs him of noble qualities, and the loss of wealth makes him cry. The man spends his life in dreams, cries over Maya-related matters, and does not wash away the filth of his ignoble deeds. Like a stage actor who forgets that he is only performing a role (for example, that of a king) and becomes conceited about it, beginning to act like a real king, the man is cheated by the falsehood of Maya. But the man cannot be fully blamed, for he performs deeds according to his destiny carved by Waheguru; likewise, it is Waheguru who puts the man on the right path. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam by the grace of the Perfect Guru enjoy blissfulness in the love of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Baba = a noble man. Pusaarova = expanse; creation. Sacha Ghur(u) = eternal residence. Sachrra = the eternal Waheguru. Khura = pure. Sachiyaarova = having noble qualities; God-like. Koorr(i) = in falsehood (of Maya). Thaayay na Paasi = will not be recognized. Luhhaiy = acquires. Aaou Na Baiysou = no welcome. Soonjaiy Ghur(i) = in a deserted house. Binsaiy = vanishes; suffers. Lub(i) = in greed. Khurra = waiting. 1. Aaseesa = blessings. Ikk(i) = many. Thayhoun Thaaoun = from the root (base). Khaylo = enjoy; feel blissful. Vaysay = in that garb; with the (noble) qualities. Saiyn = (holy) friends. Sunjogi = with the prewritten union (destiny). Phaasay = bonds; traps (of Maya). 2.

MEANING: This world is an expanse of falsehood (not real) because everybody who is born here, must leave this world someday, oh noble men. Only that individual finds a permanent residence (in Waheguru's Palace) who purifies his mind by worshipping the eternal Waheguru and becoming like Him (by acquiring virtues like Him). On the other hand, the man, who spends his life dealing in falsehood and greed (engrossed in Maya), finds no respect in Waheguru's Palace, and is given no room there. Like a crow, which gets no food when it visits a deserted house, a Maya-engrossed man gets no welcome in Waheguru's Palace. Without love for Waheguru, a man suffers a long separation from Him as he is caught in the birth-death cycle. The whole world suffers in that situation. The whole world is misled by its greed for wealth and by other Maya-related business, and the waiting (approaching) death causes him to cry (because of the fear of ensuing misery). 1.

Let us join together and lovingly give blessings to (say prayers for) all misguided humanity that they worship Waheguru. Give the blessings that the union of the devotees with Waheguru is never disrupted. We cannot do anything more for the lucky individuals who have already been connected with Waheguru. Many people have been misled (by the attractions of Maya) and have become disconnected from their root, Waheguru; let us pray for them that they may enjoy bliss by connecting with Waheguru through the Guru's Shabad. No matter what eon it is, the only way to avoid the journey to the Angel of death (and to merge with Waheguru) is to acquire His noble qualities. But only those of my friends who come to the shelter of the Guru because of their prewritten destiny get their bonds with Maya untied (severed) in His shelter. 2.

Word Meaning: Nangrra = empty-handed. Laykh(u) = account. Saaha = the date and time of marriage (with death). Tulaiy = avoided. Poorb(i) = of previous life. Beh(i) = while sitting; carefully; unbiased. Amrit = Waheguru's Naam; noble deeds. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya. Kaamunaari = deceitful (Maya). Kaamun = magical attractions. Buhourungi = of many different colours (attractions). Taaga = rope; noose. Hochhi = low-quality. Bhuyya = became. Goorr(u) = jaggery; nuggets of raw sugar. Sa = like. Nammujaad(u) = against the norms (naked). Kul(i) = in the world. 3. Janiurra = beloved soul. Putthaya = sent; taken away. Laykh(u) = written order. Maiytiyaiy = erase. Dur(i) = at the door. Hakaar-rra = messenger (of death). Tis(u) = Him (Waheguru). Bhaaya = liked. Roonnay = cried. Bhateejay = nephews. Preetum = dear. Bhaiy = fear (of future life). Saar(i) = by remembering. Jaan = wise. S(i) = those. Jaana Roveh = know how to cry (cry in the love of Waheguru). Smaalay = remember. 4.

MEANING: The man comes empty-handed in this world to start a new life, but he does bring with him a list of comforts and troubles prewritten in his destiny, which are based on the deeds of his previous life. Just like the date and the time are fixed for worldly weddings, man's connection with his comforts and discomforts is fixed and cannot be avoided. Everybody's destiny is prewritten by Waheguru without any bias, and has only two aspects or paths for the man to follow – Amrit (noble deeds and obeying Waheguru's Will), and Poison (engrossment in Maya) – everybody chooses the path predestined for him. The deceitful Maya attracts the man with its many captivating gimmicks, which result in a noose (of spiritual death) around his neck. With low-quality wisdom (advice), the man acquires a low-thinking mind and gets trapped in the attractions of Maya like a fly attracted to a nugget of raw sugar, gets stuck in its thick, sticky juice, and dies there. The man comes naked (empty-handed) into this world, and leaves empty-handed when the agents of the Angel of death tie him up and take him away. 3.

Waheguru's written order about the death of a person cannot be erased, and His messenger comes to the door of the person to be taken away. If someone wants to cry at his death, he may do that, but no crying will stop the person from being tied. and taken away, oh wise men.

The messenger of death comes to the door when Waheguru wills it (at His Will), and normally, the grieving relatives, who must cry, do so. The sons, brothers, and nephews cry for the dearly beloved relative. They recall his affectionate and helpful acts and cry, fearing their bleak future, but nobody dies with the dead. The system of death and birth is a law of nature for eons; so, those who know how to cry (what to cry for), and cry out of love for Waheguru, are wise, and recite His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Mehla Teeja = Mehla Third (the word “Teeja “after Mehla simply reiterates that the number “3” should be pronounced as “Third”. Kaaruj = tasks. Kernaiy Joag = fully capable. Sa Dhun = that human bride. Rund = widow. Baiysuyee = sits; becomes. Soag(u) = grief. Rus(u) Bhoag = enjoy the sweetness. Mehl = (God’s) Palace; Waheguru. Kerm Bidhaata = carver of our fates. Amrit Bani = praise of God. Saareh(i) = Smaaleh(i) = remember. Vijogo = separation. 1.

Puchhaaniyaiy = recognize; honour; sing His praise. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Kaamun(i) = of the woman. Bhinni = got imbued. Jobun Maati = intoxicated in youthfulness. Unk(i) = in the heart. 2.

MEANING: One should sing praise of the eternal Waheguru, which is fully capable of successfully completing any and all tasks, oh my friends. A human-bride, who sings Waheguru's praise all the time, never becomes a widow, and never suffers any grief related to her Waheguru-Husband. Such a human bride stays absorbed in Waheguru, always enjoys the sweetness of His Naam, and never suffers any grief. The individual, who recognizes (gets connected with) Waheguru, who is the carver of our fates, sings His praise all the time. Such a virtuous bride recalls the virtues of Waheguru, remembers her Waheguru-Husband (recites His Naam), and never experiences separation from Him. So, we should sing praise of the dear and the eternal Lord, who is capable of doing everything in the world. 1.

If one sings Waheguru's praise all the time, Waheguru Himself connects the individual with Him. Such a devotee always kills (overcomes) her selfishness and ego, and stays imbued in the love of her Darling (Waheguru). She overcomes her selfishness and ego, and recognizes the single Supreme Being (Waheguru) in the shelter of the Guru, and never experiences spiritual death. Such a devotee has her wish fulfilled as she gets connected with Waheguru, which is the life (soul) of the world, and gets internally imbued with His love. Even though a young bride is intoxicated with her beauty and youthfulness, she gets fully absorbed in Waheguru (merges into Him) when she gets imbued with Guru's Shabad (in Waheguru's praise). When one recognizes Waheguru (sings His praise with full devotion with Guru's Shabad), Waheguru Himself connects the devotee with Him. 2.

Pir(u) nirmaayil(u) suda sookh-Daata, Nanak Shabad(i) milaayay. Pirhoun vichhoonniyaan bhee mileh, jay Satgur laageh Saacahy Paayayn. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = without any special effort. Kmaayay = adopt in life. Raati = imbued. Smaadhi = in meditative state. Bhurpooray = everywhere. Hudooray = with (the devotee); close by. 3. Pirhoun Vichhoonniyaan = separated from the Dear (Waheguru). Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Sach(i) = via Waheguru's Naam. Bhuraanti = misgivings; instability of mind. Nirmaayil = pure; without any blemish. 4.

MEANING: When I approached the holy saints and asked them about the way with which they realized Waheguru, I was advised that I should get rid of my selfishness and ego, and serve the eternal dear Waheguru. When I do that, He will connect me with Him without any special effort or formality on my part. When a devotee makes Waheguru's Naam the basis of her life, and gets imbued in the praise of Waheguru by Guru's Shabad, He comes to connect her with Him. Then the devotee never becomes a widow (loses Waheguru's love), stays married (enjoys His love) all the time, and she stays in the meditative state singing His praise. She always sees Waheguru to be omnipresent and close to her. She enjoys His love in the blissful state and is always full of love for Him. I will approach the holy saints to inquire how they realized Waheguru (so I may follow their path). 3.

Those who are separated (disconnected) from Waheguru can also connect with Him if they drop at the feet of the Perfect Satguru (take His shelter). Satguru is always benevolent and will burn (destroy) their ignoble qualities with His Shabad in praise of God. Not only does the Satguru destroy their ignoble qualities with His Shabad, but He also puts an end to their love for Maya, and the devotees are imbued with love for Waheguru by singing His praise. With Satguru's eternal Shabad (in praise of Waheguru), the devotees always enjoy comfort (blissfulness), and their selfishness, ego, their misgivings, and their instability of mind all disappear. Waheguru, which is always pure and is the source of all comforts, can be acquired with the Guru's Shabad. Those who are disconnected from Waheguru can also connect with Him if they take the shelter of the Perfect Satguru, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Subh(u) jug(u) Aap(i) oopaayayon(u), aavun(u), jaan(u) sunsaaray. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Muhayliou = women (brides-in-waiting). Kunt = Husband (Waheguru). Mootthi = deceived. Visaar(i) = by forgetting. Smaal(i) = Saar(i) = recall; recite Naam. Smaayay = get fully absorbed. Koorriyaaray = dealer in perishable things and pursuing sensual pleasures. 1. Oopaayayon(u) = created. Khooyayun(u) = misguided. Vaaro Vaar = again, and again. Vihooni = without. Jhootthi = who pursues mundane things. Jugjeevun = life of the world, God. 2.

MEANING: Serve the Lord, Waheguru, by pondering on the Shabad of the Guru, oh, the hopeful brides of Waheguru-Husband. The brides, who lack the virtuous qualities, make no connection with the Dear (Waheguru), and are deceived by Maya; they cry (suffer) for forgetting the Waheguru-Husband. But if they cry in the pain of separation from Waheguru, recite His Naam, and recall His virtues at all times, they can also win Him as their husband, who never dies or goes away. Those who recognize Waheguru by reciting Guru's Shabad (sing Waheguru's praise), and make a connection with Him in the shelter of the Guru (by His grace), get fully absorbed in His love. Those who do not recognize (make connection with) their Husband (Waheguru), who is the carver of the fate of us all, are deceived by the attraction of false (short-lived) gimmicks of Maya, and they are dealers in the perishable things, and pursue sensual pleasures. Serve your Husband (Waheguru) by pondering on the Shabad of the Guru, oh, the hopeful brides of Waheguru. 1.

Waheguru has created the whole world Himself, in which living beings take birth and die. Waheguru has misguided them by engrossing them in Maya as a result of which, they keep taking births and dying again and again. Without Waheguru's Knowledge (enlightenment), they get deceived by the gimmicks of Maya, and get deeper and deeper into the sea of sensual pleasures; as a result, they keep taking births and dying. Without Guru's Shabad, they cannot realize Waheguru and waste away their precious human life; with ignoble qualities, and being engrossed in short-lived pleasures, the human bride cries (suffers). Her spiritual husband, Waheguru, is the life (soul) of the whole world, so what is she crying about? The only reason for her suffering is that she has forgotten her Husband. God has created the whole world in such a way that the living beings keep taking births and dying. 2.

Word Meaning: Sacha = everlasting; eternal. Iyaaniya = immature; ignorant. Rund Baiytthi = becomes a widow. Aav = life. Cheejaiy = weakens. Soojhaiy = comes to mind. Loojhaiy = fights for; struggles for. 3. Ikk = many. Vichhooniyaan = separated. Smaalay = remembers. Roolaiy = becomes worthless; without anyone caring for. 4.
MEANING: The eternal Husband (Waheguru) is always there; He neither dies nor goes away. The ignorant human bride is misled and becomes a widow (loses her Waheguru-Husband) because of her love for the other (Maya). The widowed bride suffers because of her attachment to Maya, but she does not realize that her life is shortening, and her body is getting weaker (she will have neither enough time nor energy to worship Waheguru). Knowing full well that every living being that comes into this world must go away (die), the humans still invite suffering because of their love for Maya (and their ignoring of Waheguru). With love for gluttony and greed in their mind, they do not think of the Angel of Death, and they fight with others over Maya. The eternal Waheguru is always around, as He neither dies nor goes away. 3.
Blind (of wisdom), many human brides think of Waheguru as being far, far away, and cry to believe that they have been disconnected from Him. They do not realize that He is always with us. With Guru's grace, one gets connected with Waheguru when the human bride always remembers Him in her mind (sings His praise). Waheguru is always with us, and we should always keep Him in mind, but the Maya-loving individual always thinks of Him as being far away. The body of the human bride, who does not think that Waheguru is close to her, becomes worthless because of her thinking and her deeds. But the bride who always remembers Waheguru in her mind becomes connected to Him as He Himself connects her. Blind (of wisdom), many brides think of Waheguru as being far, far away, and cry to believe that they have been disconnected from Him, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Vudhuns(u) Mehla 3: Ikk(i) roveh(i) Pireh(i) vichhoonniyaan, mein Pir(u) Sachrra suda naalay. Jinhi chullun(u) suhee jaaniya, Satgur(u) sayveh(i), Naam(u) smaalay. Suda Naam(u) smaalay, Satgur(u) haiy naalay, Satgur(u) sayv(i) sookh(u) paaya. Shabaday kaal(u) maar(i) Sach(u) ooridhaar(i), phir(i) aavun jaan(u) na hoya. Sacha Sahib(u) Sachi Naayee, vaykhaiy nudr(i) nihaalay. Roveh(i) Pirhoun vichhoonniyaan, mein Pir(u) Sachrra haiy suda naalay. 1. Prubh(u) mayra subhdoon oocha haiy, kiv milaan Preetum Piyaray. Satgur(i) mayli ta sehj(i) milee, Pir(u) raakhiya oordhaaray. Suda oordhaaray, nayh(u) naal(i) Piyaray Satgur tay Pir(u) disaiy. Maya moh ka kucha chola, tit(u) paiydhaiy pug(u) khisaiy. Pir rung(i) raata, so sacha chola, tit(u) paiydhaiy tikha nivaaray. Prubh(u) mayra Sahib(u) subhdoon oocha haiy, kiyoun milaan Preetum Piyaray. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Pireh(i) = from the Dear (Husband). Chullun(u) = the way to live. Suhee = the right way. Kaal(u) = (the fear of) death. Ooridhaar(i) = by enshrining in the heart. Naayee = Name; praise; grandeur. Nihaalay = kind sight. 1.
Kiv = how? Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. Nayh(u) = love. Kucha = weak; non-durable. Chola = robe. Paiydhaiy = by wearing. Pug Khisaiy = unstable support; weakness of character. Tikha = thirst for Maya. Nivaaray = is removed. 2.

MEANING: Many people cry, thinking they are separated from Waheguru (that Waheguru is far, far away); but my eternal Lord is always with me. Those who know the right path to live in the world serve Satguru and recite Waheguru's Naam. They have full faith that Satguru is always with them, recite Waheguru's Naam, and enjoy comfort. They enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their heart, eradicate the fear of death with Guru's Shabad, and are never born, nor ever die again. The Lord is eternal and so is His grandeur, and He looks at everybody with a kind sight. Those who believe that Waheguru is somewhere far away cry, but my Lord is always with me. 1. My Waheguru is the highest of all (in transcendence), so how can I connect with my dear Lord? But, when my Satguru connected me with Him, I acquired my Dear in my heart, and attained the state of blissfulness. When one embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart with deep love for the Dear, he can "see" Waheguru with the grace of the Guru. However, the robe of attachment to Maya (lifestyle) is false, and one's morality weakens by wearing it (attachment to Maya does not provide real happiness, as it leads to immoral activities). On the contrary, the robe (lifestyle) of the devotee who is imbued in Waheguru's love is the real one (improves moral character and spirituality), and one's thirst (desire) for Maya is eradicated (he is fully satisfied) on wearing that robe (love for Waheguru kills one's desires for Maya and its attractions). My Lord is highest of all, how can I reach there and meet my Dear? 2.

---------- Mein Prubh(u) Sach(u) puchhaaniya, hoar bhooli uvguniaaray. Mein suda raavay Pir(u) aapna, Sachrraiy Shabad(i) veechaaray. Dhun(u) jug meh(i) aaya, aap(u) guvaaya, Dur(i) Saachaiy Sachiyaaro. Giyan(i) ruttan(i) ghut(i) chaanun(u) hoa, Nanak Naam piyaro. Sachrraiy Aap(i) jugut oopaaya, Gur bin(u) ghor undhaaro. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = (the only) Truth. Uvguniaaray = with bad qualities. Raavay = worship; recite Naam. Rung(i) Raati = imbued in love. Maati = intoxicated. Bheejaiy = gets imbued. Trishna = desire for sensual pleasures. Nivaaray = eradicates. 3 Ghor(u) = immense. Vapaaro = business. Sachiyaaro = having noble qualities. Ruttan = jewel; priceless. Chanun(u) = light; enlightened. 4.

MEANING: I have recognized (made a connection with) my Waheguru, which is the only Truth in this universe; all others are misled because of their ignoble qualities. I always recite the Naam of my Dear by pondering on the eternal Shabad of the Guru (in praise of Waheguru). The devotee, who ponders on Satguru's eternal Shabad, gets imbued in Waheguru's love and realizes Him in the shelter of the Guru. The devotee, who is imbued with Waheguru's love and feels intoxicated in the blissful spiritual state, gets all her enemy-like troubles eradicated. If one offers his body and mind in the service of the Guru, his mind gets imbued (with Waheguru's love), and his appetite for worldly desires is destroyed (he becomes fully contented). I have made a connection with my Dear (Waheguru), whereas others are misled because of their ignoble qualities. 3.

The eternal Waheguru has created the world, but it is in complete darkness (ignorance of Him) without the Guru. Waheguru Himself connects people with the Guru so they can be connected to Him, and Himself instills His love in them. Waheguru adorns the life of the individuals with His love in the shelter of the Guru, whereby they begin to deal in (recite) His Naam in the blissful spiritual state (above the effects of Maya). The coming of such a devotee in the world, who overcomes his selfishness and ego, is praiseworthy; he is honoured in Waheguru's Court as the bearer of noble qualities (like Waheguru). With Waheguru's love in the heart, the mind of such a devotee is enlightened by the jewel-like (priceless) Divine Knowledge. Waheguru Himself has created the world, but there is complete darkness without the Guru in the world. 4. 3.

Kaaya kunchun ta theeyaiy, ja Satgur(u) luyyay milaayay. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Jujree = prone to old age. Jur(u) = old age. Oobray = salvaged. Puchhutaayay = repenting. Kumaavaiy = perform deeds. Jum-Pur(i) = in the city (court) of the Angel of death. Goobaar(u) = darkness. Tithaiy = there. 1.
Kaaya = body. Kunchun = (pure like) gold. Theeyaiy = becomes. Purkheen = (good) men; people. Huoun = I; me. Chit(u) Laaya = fall in love. 2

MEANING: The human body is prone to old age (is designed to get old and weak); old age does hit the man in due time, and finally, death takes the soul away. Most people continue to take birth and die; only those individuals escape this cycle who are protected (salvaged) by the Guru. Without the shelter of the Guru, the people leave the world repenting, and they never achieve comfort (peace of mind) without Waheguru's Naam. When Waheguru decides on their future, they reap the rewards of their deeds in the world (Waheguru bases His decision on their deeds), as a result of which the followers of their mind lose their dignity (are punished). They find pitch dark (no light of hope) around them in the Court of the Angel of Death, and there is no brother or sister to help them. The human body is prone to aging, which eventually hits everyone. 1.

Man's body becomes pure and worthy like gold when he comes to the Guru's shelter, where his misgivings about Maya are cleared, and he gets absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. When the man sings Waheguru's praise, he gets absorbed in His Naam and gets connected with Him, and enjoys blissfulness in his Dear's company. His selfishness and his ego are eradicated, and he enjoys blissfulness day and night. I will drop at the feet of those who fall in love with Waheguru's Naam. Man's body becomes pure and worthy like gold when He comes to Guru's shelter. 2.

Jinhi Sachrra Sach(u) dhiyaaya, huoun tinh kaiy laagoun paayay. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Sacha = virtuous; Waheguru-like. Daysun(i) = show. Chuloola = deep; fast colour (which does not fade away). Unk(i) = heart; lap; body. Boojhaayay = gives the understanding. 3. Sachrra = everlasting. Nirmulay = clean. Mul(u) = filth (of immoral thinking and of immoral deeds). Sur(i) = pool. Nirunjun(u) = above the effects of Maya (Waheguru). Agumm = beyond reach. Agoachur = incomprehensible. 4.

MEANING: With the wisdom bestowed by Satguru, if a devotee sings Waheguru's praise, he becomes like Him. Without Satguru's guidance, the people are misled by their misgivings (and do not remember Waheguru), so what face will they show (how will they face Waheguru) in Waheguru's Court? (Without Waheguru's Naam), And because of their ignoble qualities, they are engaged in tasks which result in trouble and more troubles for them, for which they have to repent as they realize that they cannot face Waheguru. But those who are imbued in the deep colour of love for Waheguru, which does not fade away, get absorbed in Waheguru's body (soul). But, the individuals without Waheguru's Naam cannot think of anyone else before whom they can complain to because there is none as Great as He is. Only that devotee becomes like Waheguru who recites His Naam with the wisdom bestowed by Satguru. 3.

I wish to drop at the feet of those devotees who sing praise of the eternal Waheguru because those holy people are truthful and pure-hearted, and one's filth of ignoble deeds is washed away in their company. Those holy men are like a pool of noble qualities, and the filth of ignoble deeds of those who take a dip in such a holy pool with a peaceful mind, and with love for Waheguru is washed away. The Naam of Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, is inaccessible and incomprehensible. It has been explained by Satguru to the world (He connects the people with Waheguru's Naam). Those, who worship Waheguru day and night by reciting His Naam, and are imbued in His love, get fully absorbed in Him. I wish to drop on the feet of those devotees who worship the eternal Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.4.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:3॥ ਸਬਦਿ ਰਤੇ ਵਡਹੰਸ ਹੈ ਸਚੁ ਨਾਮੁ ਉਰਿਧਾਰਿ॥ ਸਚੁ ਸੰਗ੍ਰਹਹਿ ਸਦ ਸਚਿ ਰਹਹਿ ਸਚੈ ਨਾਮਿ ਪਿਆਰਿ॥ ਸਦਾ ਨਿਰਮਲ ਮੈਲੁ ਨ ਲਗਈ ਨਦਰਿ ਕੀਤੀ ਕਰਤਾਰਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਹਉ ਤਿਨ੍ਹ ਕੈ ਬਲਿਹਾਰਣੈ ਜੋ ਅਨਦਿਨੁ ਜਪਹਿ ਮੁਰਾਰਿ॥ 1॥

Sloak M: 3: Shabad(i) ruttay vudhuns haiyn Sach(u) Naam(u) ooridhaar(i). Sach(u) sungreh(i) sud Sach(i) ruheh(i), Sachaiy Naam(i) piyaar(i). Suda nirmul, maiyl(u) na lugyee. Nudr(i) keeti Kartar(i). Nanak huoun tinh kaiy bulihaarnaiy jo undin(u) jupeh(i) Mooraar(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Lulla Behleema = Lullaan and Behleema were two neighbouring rajahs in the hills. Lullaan's territory was mostly dry, whereas that of Behleema was lush and green. There was less rain one year, so Lullaan asked Behleema to share his river water with Lullaan, for which he agreed to pay one-sixth of his revenue in return. But after the crops were harvested, Lullaan did not keep his word to pay the agreed-upon revenue. Behleema attacked Lullaan, and killed him. The poets wrote a vaar on this event, which became very popular. Guru Arjun Sahib has advised to sing the Vaar of Vudhuns on that tune.

Vudhuns = Waheguru's devotees who have controlled all their desires (are above the effects of Maya); have highest spiritual level. Ooridhaar(i) = by enshrining Waheguru's Naam in the heart. Sungreh(i) = accumulate; practise. Nirmul = pure. Mooraar(i) = a name for Waheguru. 1.

MEANING: Those devotees of Waheguru achieve the highest spiritual level who are imbued in Satguru's Shabad, and who have embedded Waheguru's Naam in their heart. They always practise truth in life, love Waheguru's Naam, and stay absorbed in in it. They are always pure at heart, and gather no filth of immorality with the kind sight of the Creator. I am a sacrifice for those who recite Waheguru's Naam day and night, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਮੈ ਜਾਨਿਆ ਵਡਹੰਸੁ ਹੈ ਤਾ ਮੈ ਕੀਆ ਸੰਗੁ॥ ਜੇ ਜਾਣਾ ਬਗੁ ਬਪੁੜਾ ਤ ਜਨਮਿ ਨਾ ਦੇਦੀ ਅੰਗੁ॥ 2॥

M:3: Mein jaaniya vudhuns(u) haiy, ta mein keeya sung(u). Jay jaana bug(u) bupurra, ta junum(i) na dayndi ung(u). 2.

Word Meaning: Sung(u) = company. Bug(u) = heron; an imposter. Bupurra = poor; low level. Junum(i) = right from birth. Dayndi Ung(u) = come close. 2.

MEANING: I thought he was a devotee of Waheguru with the highest spiritual level; that is why I joined his company. Had I known that he was only a low-level imposter like a heron (a Maya-engrossed person), I would not have gone even near him right from my birth (from the beginning). 2.

ਮ:3॥ ਹੰਸਾ ਵੇਖਿ ਤਰੰਦਿਆ ਬਗਾ ਭੀ ਆਯਾ ਚਾਉ॥ ਡੁਬਿ ਮੁਏ ਬਗ ਬਪੁੜੇ ਸਿਰੁ ਤਲਿ ਉਪਰਿ ਪਾਉ॥3॥

M:3: Hunsaan vaykh(i) terndiyaan, bugga bhee aaya chaaou. Doob(i) mooyay bug buppurray, sir(u) tul(i) oopur(i) paaoun. 3.

Word Meaning: Terndiyaan = swimming. Chaaou = zestful; get encouraged. 3.

MEANING: Watching the swans swimming, even the herons feel encouraged (herons do not swim; they only dive down to catch fish), but the poor heron gets drowned with his head down, and his feet upwards. (When a Maya-engrossed individual notices the respect being accorded to the holy saints by the masses, he too wants to act like a holy man; but when the people find out the reality, they throw insults at him). 3.

Word Meaning: Kaarun Keeya = created the universe. Nirunkaar(u) = formless. Beeya = other. Kern Kaarun = the source of all creation. Sumruth(u) = fully capable. Theeya = happens. Unmungiya = without asking. Wah(u) = great! stupendous! 1.
MEANING: You alone created the universe all by Yourself without any assistance from anyone. You are the only Supreme Being, and there is none like You, oh formless Waheguru. You are the source of all creation and fully capable of creating anything; and only that happens, whatever You do, or plan. You give gifts of necessary things to all living beings, even without them asking for them. Applaud the Satguru as being great for His donating Waheguru's Naam on the tongue of the humans. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhaiy = fear. Aakaar(u) = creation. Tithaiy = there; in that state. Poh(i) = touch; affect. Bhaavaiy = is liked. Put(i) = honour. Kaaruj Suvaaray = completes the task perfectly. 1.
MEANING: The whole world is in fear of God (strictly obeys His Laws); only Waheguru alone is fearless (above all the laws). Waheguru comes to dwell (appear) in the heart of the devotee who serves Satguru, and no fear of any kind is left there (in the devotee's mind because of the presence of Waheguru there). No trouble – which is like an enemy – can befall such a devotee or even go near him. A Sikh guru realizes that whatever Waheguru wishes must happen (so why be afraid of anything). Guru's Sikh has the faith that Waheguru will protect his dignity, and will complete the task (of connecting the devotee) with Him, oh Nanak.

Word Meaning: Sujjun = friends; human beings. Chullay = about to leave. Phoon(i) = also. 2.
MEANING: Some people are about to leave this world, while many have already left; the remaining will also leave eventually. Those who do not serve Satguru, come and go (take birth, and die), repenting. But, those, who are imbued in the love of Waheguru, never get separated from Him, and merge into Him by serving Satguru. 2.

Gur(i) Pooray Hur(i) oppdayshiya, Gur viturrihoun huoun sud vaari. 2.

Word Meaning: Miliyaiy = get connected; take shelter of. Sujjnaiy = friendly; benefactor. Goonkaari = full of virtues. Preetumaiy = very dear. Srisht(i) = world. Suvaari = adorned with noble qualities; salvaged. Nit = always. Bhuoujul = the world sea. Bikh(u) = poison. Taaari = ferried across; salvaged. Viturrihoun = for. 2.

MEANING: Take the shelter of the friendly Satguru who has Waheguru, which is the source of all virtues, residing in His heart, oh my friends. Take the shelter of the dear Satguru, who destroys all your selfishness and ego. The Perfect Satguru who adorns the whole world (gets it salvaged) with His Teachings, is worthy of worship. Recite Waheguru's Naam all the time so as to swim across the poisonous (Maya) sea, oh, holy men. I am always a sacrifice for the Perfect Guru who spreads the Message of Waheguru around. 2.

Word Meaning: Chaakri = service of love. Saar = supreme. Moakh Dooaar = (is shown) the door to salvation. Adhaar(u) = food. Naayay = with. Herkh(u) = happiness. Sachiyaar(u) = having noble qualities; virtuous. Kartar(u) = Waheguru. 1.

MEANING: A selfless service to the Guru is the source of supreme comfort, oh my friends. One earns praise in this world and is taken to the door of salvation in the Court of Waheguru. Using Waheguru's Naam as your clothes to wear (whereby your dignity is protected), and His Naam as the food (for your soul, which satisfies all your appetite for worldly desires), is the real business to undertake. One cultivates a love for Waheguru in his heart and connects with Him in the company of the holy saints. Guru's Shabad in praise of Waheguru is the source of ongoing bliss, and the devotee is approved as a virtuous man in Waheguru's Court. But only that individual serves the Satguru on whom Waheguru casts a kind sight, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Vidaani = of others. Dhrig(u) = condemnable; shameful. Vaas(u) = living. Amrit = Waheguru's immortalizing Naam. Bikh(u) = poisonous (Maya). Khuttna = earning. Raas(i) = capital. Giraas = bites of food. Aithaiy = here, in this world. Vinaas(u) = destruction. Mun Hutth(i) = sheer obstinacy of mind. Raas(i) = successful (in spirituality). Jumpur(i) = in the court of the Angel of death.

MEANING: The life and the living of a man who ignores Waheguru and serves someone else (for worldly pleasures) is shameful. Those who ignore Waheguru's Naam, which is the real Amrit, and get engrossed in Maya, which is like a poison, earn poison and hoard poison as their capital. They eat poison, wear poison, and take bites of poison in the mouth (meaning the results of earning wealth by immoral means are very bitter and harmful). They earn (acquire) only troubles (loss of mental peace) in this world, and are given a place in hell in the next world. The Maya-engrossed individuals have filth in their mouths (tell lies and are impolite), know nothing about Guru's Shabad, and get destroyed by their lust and rage. They have no fear of Satguru (show no respect for Him), and achieve no peace of mind (because of a lack of high morality). They do perform some rituals, but only by the sheer obstinacy of their mind (have no real love for Waheguru). Tied up, they are punished in the court of the Angel of justice, and there is no one to listen to their pleas. But they cannot be fully blamed because they simply act as per their prewritten destiny; by the same token, the followers of the Guru, stay absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

So Satgur(u) kuhou subh(i) dhunn(u), dhunn(u) Jin(i) Hur(i) bhugut(i) bhundaar luhaaya. 3.

Word Meaning: Sadh Jun = holy saints. Dri-rraya = reinforced. Jugunath = Jugdeesh = Lord of the world = Waheguru. Nimukh, Nimukh = every moment. Punth(u) = path. Pugeen Puvhou = drop at the feet. Chookaaya = removes; dispels. Bhundaar = treasures. Luhaaya = made available. 3.

MEANING: Serve the holy and the great devotee of Waheguru – Satguru - who reiterates Waheguru's Naam, oh my friends. Serve the Satguru day and night who makes you worship the Lord of the world, Waheguru. Have a holy sight every moment of the Satguru (keep Him in mind) who shows you the path to union with Waheguru. Drop on the feet of (surrender your mind to) the Satguru who dispels the darkness of worldly attachments. Sing praise, and hail the Satguru who makes the treasures of Waheguru's worship available to you, oh my friends. 3.

Sloak(u) M:3: Satgur(i) miliyaiyn bhookh guyee, bhaykheen bhookh(u) na jaayay.

(PAGE 587): Dookh(i) luggaiy, ghur(i), ghur(i) phiraiy, uggaiy dooni milaiy sujaayay. Undar(i) sehj(u) na aayo, sehjay hee laiy khaayay. Mun hutth(i) jis tay mungna, laiyna dookh(u) munaayay. Nanak jo Tis(u) bhaaveh(i) say bhulay jinh kee put(i) paaveh(i) thaayayn. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhookh = appetite (for Maya). Bhaykheen = with religious symbols. Sehj(u) = peace of mind; contentment. Sehjay = with thanks for (whatever is available). Mun Hutth(i) = obstinacy of mind. Greho = family life. Versaayay = gain something. Ruttay = imbued. Soajhi = understanding. Puyyiayiy Kirt(i) = to bear the fruit of previous deeds. Bhulay = noble; approved. Paaveh(i) Thaayayn = given due credit. 1.

MEANING: One's appetite for worldly desires is completely satisfied on getting connected with Satguru; such appetite does not go away just by wearing religious symbols (following the path of different sects). One suffers humiliation as a mystic when he goes begging from door to door, and he is punished twice as much in Waheguru's Court. He never feels blissful inside (enjoys peace of mind) so that he may enjoy a meal of whatever kind becomes available. One may beg from others simply by the obstinacy of his mind, but the donor is not pleased to donate (gives it unhappily). Living in the family is much better than this kind of path to realize Waheguru, because only a family man donates, not the so-called holy man who begs (rather than donating). Those who get imbued in Satguru's Shabad realize this fact, while others are misled by their misgivings about Maya. But we cannot fully blame anyone because everybody is following the path of life predestined for them by Waheguru, and nobody can say (do) anything to the contrary. Only those are approved by Waheguru whom He likes, and they are given credit (are honoured) in His Court, oh Nanak. 1.

Paakhund(i) Jumkaal(u) na chhodyee, laiy jaasi put(i) guvaayay. Nanak, Naam(i) ruttay say oobray, Sachay siyoun liv laayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Achint(u) = in a natural way; without any special effort. Teeruth(u) = holy place. Giyan(u) = Divine Knowledge (enlightenment). Amritsar(i) = pool of Amrit (Waheguru's Naam). Sujjun = friends; holy men. Soobhaayay = with love. Percha = made a connection. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. Pakhund(i) = by hypocrisy; by pretending. Jumkaal(u) = Angel of death. Put(i) = dignity. 2.

MEANING: It is always blissful to serve the Satguru (act on His Teachings), and one's worst suffering due to his repeated births and deaths is terminated. He is left with no worries, and with Satguru's Divine Knowledge, Waheguru takes up dwelling in his heart without any special effort on his part, and his heart becomes a holy place in itself. By taking a dip in the pool of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, all the filth of his mind is washed away, and his heart becomes perfectly pure. With the love for Satguru's Shabad, he gets into the company of holy saints like him. He connects at the heart with Waheguru when his soul merges with the Supreme Soul. The Angel of death does not spare those who simply pretend to be Waheguru's worshippers, and takes them away where they lose all their dignity (suffer humiliation). But those who are imbued with Waheguru Naam are salvaged because they are fully connected with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Tis(u) Gur kuou subh(i) numuskaar kurhou, jin(i) Hur(i) kee Hur(i) gaal gloyiyaiy. 4.

Word Meaning: Tit(u) = that. Satsungtee = gathering of holy saints. Biloyiyaiy = is churned; pondered on. Sehjay = with a peaceful mind. Tutt(u) = the essence (Waheguru). Dhoyiyaiy = get shelter. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning (by Waheguru). Mustuk(i) = Lilaat(i) = on the forehead. Gaal Gloyiyaiy = discusses. 4.

MEANING: Go, and join the company of the holy saints where Waheguru's Naam is pondered on, oh my friend. Recite Waheguru Naam with a peaceful (fully focused) mind so as not to lose the real essence (love for Waheguru) (one cannot connect with Waheguru with his mind wandering everywhere). Recite Waheguru's Naam (remember Him) day and night every day, because of which you will get shelter (be honoured) in Waheguru's Court. But only those lucky individuals get connected with the Perfect Satguru who have this connection prewritten on their forehead (in destiny) by Waheguru right from their birth. Bow all of you before the Satguru (show respect for Him) who talks only about Waheguru (sings His praise), oh Nanak. 4.

Naam(i) na kureh(i) piyaar(u). Nanak, tinh siyoun kiya keechaiy dosti, j(i) Aap(i) bholaayay Kartar(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Preetum = dear; husband. Maaniya = get convinced. Apaar(i) = beyond limits (Waheguru). Vichhurreh(i) = disconnected. Perteet(i) = faith; trust. Doojaiy Bhaayay = with the other (Maya). Sayti = with. Din Chaar(i) = for a short time. Vilm(u) = delay. Vikaar = vices; immoral activities. Keechaiy = do; have. 1.

MEANING: The holy (saintly) friends get together with other holy saints who love Satguru. Together, they sing praise of the dear Waheguru with deep affection and reverence. With Guru's Shabad in praise of Waheguru, the holy saints are convinced in their minds that Waheguru is the only Supreme Being. Such holy men, who are connected with Waheguru by His benevolence, never get separated from Him again. But many others do not have any faith in Waheguru, so they do not ponder on Guru's Shabad and never think of having a holy sight of Waheguru. How much more can those be disconnected from Waheguru, who are already disconnected from Him because of their love for Maya? The friendship with a Maya-engrossed individual does not last long and is only brief. It does not take long for such a friendship to break down because it is based on selfishness and leads to immorality. Those who have no fear of Waheguru do not love His Naam. One should not have any friendship with those who are misled by Waheguru Himself, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ikuttay = with the "One" . Rung(i) = in love. Urpeen = I offer. Niv, Niv = by bowing. Suntokhiyaiy = is contented. Trishna = desires. Liv = full focus.

MEANING: I am a sacrifice to those holy saints who always stay in love for the "One" Waheguru. I wish to touch their feet by kneeling before them and offer my body, my mind, and my wealth in their service. One's appetite for all worldly attractions goes away, and he feels fully contented in their company. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's love and keep their mind focused on His Naam are always blissful, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Kutha = story; description of qualities. Bunut = foundation; basis. Jithaiy Kithaiy = wherever; everywhere. Chhudayee = gets free. Shabaash(i) = accolades. Sojhi = understanding. Vit-houn = for. Pooraayee = fulfilled. 5.

MEANING: I will gladly sacrifice my life for the Guru who enlightens us with the virtues of Waheguru and the way He manages the whole universe. I am always a sacrifice for the Guru who has clarified that service to Waheguru is the basis for union with Him. That Satguru is always with me, and he sets me free from worldly bonds everywhere. The Satguru, who enlightens our minds about Waheguru, deserves accolades (is worthy of praise). I am a sacrifice to my Satguru, who has implanted Waheguru's Naam in my heart (mind) and thus fulfilled my wish, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Trishna = desires. Daadhi = which causes burning. Jul(i) Mooyee = burned to death. Seetul = (source of) coolness (peacefulness). Nirbhuou = fearless; pure; worry-free. l. Jichur(u) Na = until. 1.

MEANING: (With Satguru's grace) the worldly desires that cause suffering to the man, have been burned to death, and are now begging while crying (to be effective again). However, if one connects with Satguru, the source of calmness and peace, they will not need to be burned again (because they will never be able to mislead the devotee). Nobody can become fearless or worry-free until they sing Waheguru's praise by pondering on Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 1.

Chinta mool(i) na hovyee, Hur(i) Naam(u) rujja aghaayay. Nanak, Naam bina neh chhootiyaiy, haumein pucheh(i) puchaayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Bhaykheen = with religious symbols. Chinta = worries. Vermi = the burrow of the snake. Niguray = without Guru's guidance. Kerm = deeds. Seetul(u) = Shaant(i) = peaceful. Sir(i) = the topmost. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Oodaasi = detachment from Maya. Mool(i) Na = not at all. Rujja Aghaayay = fully satisfied. Pucheh = suffers; Puchaaheh(i) = cause suffering. 2.

MEANING: The fire of worldly desires cannot be put out by simply wearing religious symbols because the wearers still carry many worries at mind. The deeds of those who have no Guru to guide them are worthless, and are like destroying only the burrow of a snake (because the snake is still alive). But, if we serve Satguru, who is the source of Waheguru's Naam, His Shabad (Waheguru's Naam) takes root in the devotee's heart as a result of which his body and mind become peaceful, and the fire of his desires is put out. He attains the highest comfort (bliss) when he gets rid of his selfishness and ego. The Sikh of the Guru practises worldly detachment when he stays focused on Waheguru's Naam as result of which he is left with no worries at all, and he feels fully contented. Without Waheguru's Naam, one cannot find salvation; one suffers from selfishness and ego and causes suffering for others, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Payayrray = realize. Visur(i) = forgotten; eradicated. Bhulay = virtuous. Chint Puraayee = (do not) feel ashamed; indifferent (to what people may say about them). Chookha = negligibly small. Amrit Ful = Waheguru's praise.

MEANING: Those who recite Waheguru's Naam acquire all comforts. Those who have a successful life (get connected with Waheguru) have the appetite for Waheguru's Naam in their mind. Those who sing Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad get all their discomforts forgotten (removed). Those Gur Sikhs are holy saints who do not care, even a little, about what negative things others say about them. The Satguru is worthy of worship for those who recite the Amrit-like Naam of Waheguru with their tongue. 6.

Word Meaning: Kul(i) Meh(i) = in the world. Jundaar(u) = mean; killer. Oobray = salvaged. Furoo = one who can arrest or prevent. 1.

MEANING: The Angel of Death is the dreadful killer in the world, but he simply obeys the orders of Waheguru. The devotees, who are protected by the Guru (come to His shelter), are salvaged, whereas the followers of their mind are punished. The world is the prisoner of the Angel of Death, and nobody can stop him. (The only way to avoid the Angel) is to serve Waheguru (sing His praise) in the shelter of the Guru, and one will not suffer at all. Actually, the Angel of death serves the Sikhs of the Guru who have realized Waheguru in their heart, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Kaaya = body. Nirmul(u) = pure. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = naturally.

MEANING: The human body is full of the disease of haumein (selfishness and ego), which cannot be cured without the Guru's Shabad. The body becomes pure (free from haumein) when one enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart in the shelter of Satguru. When one recites the Naam of Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts, his suffering disappears naturally (without any special effort), oh Nanak. 2.

(PAGE 589): So Satgur(u) tinh kuou bhaytiya, jinh kaiy mookh(i) mustuk(i) bhaag(u) likh(i) paaya. 7.
Word Meaning: Jugjeevun(u) = Waheguru. Oopdayshiya = preach. Ghoomaaya = sacrifice. Khunniyaiy = cut into pieces. Mudhusoodun = a name for God. Vaarnaiy = sacrifice. Poonn(u) = act of kindness. Gooni = the source of virtues (God). Bhaytiya = met; got connected. 7.
MEANING: I am always a sacrifice for the Guru who preaches (disseminates) the Message of Waheguru, which is the source of life for the world. I will cut myself into pieces, and offer to the Guru (serve Him selflessly with full devotion) who recites Waheguru's Naam to the world. I will gladly sacrifice my life for the Guru who eradicates the suffering caused by selfishness and ego, and due to the poisonous Maya. Word Meaning: Mer(i) Jeevrray = those who kill their desires, and survive in the love of God. Bukhshiya = bestowed. Mayt(i) = erase; prevent. Goon Nidhaan(u) = source of virtues (Waheguru). Vichhorra = separation. 1.
MEANING: The worship of Waheguru by those who kill (overcome) their worldly desires while living in the family and who survive to recite Waheguru's Naam with full devotion in Guru's shelter, is real (approved by Waheguru) and is accepted at any time (no matter what the eon is). They have been bestowed the treasure of worship by Waheguru from birth, and no one can prevent this gift. They acquire the source of all virtues (Waheguru) in their mind, and have faith only in Him. Once connected with Waheguru by the grace of the Guru, they never get separated from Him again, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Saar = value; worth. Gavaar(u) = unrefined; unaware. Kerm Kmaavaiy = performs rituals. Unhoanda = undeserving. Gunaayaynday = claim importance. Khooaar(u) = discomfiture; humiliation. 2.

MEANING: What can an individual think (know) about Waheguru who has not served Satguru? They do not know the worth of Satguru's Shabad, and the unrefined (ignorant) man is misled by the gimmicks of Maya (sensual pleasures). Engrossed in Maya, such an ignorant and blind (of wisdom) performs many religious rituals. He undeservingly promotes himself for recognition, but the Angel of Death kills him spiritually, causing humiliation for him. Who else can we request to (against the punishment) when Waheguru Himself is the one (who punishes) and forgives, oh Nanak? 2.

Word Meaning: Junt = living beings; human beings. Vichaaray = poor; helpless. Kern Kaarun = creation. Sumruth(u) = fully capable; omnipotent. Veechaaray = ponder on. Alukh(u) = incomprehensible (God). Lukhaaray = shows; reveals. 8.

MEANING: You are the creator, and all living beings are Yours (Your creation), and You know all about them, oh Waheguru. They are helpless. You connect with the ones whom You like. You are the eternal Creator and are fully capable of creating anything. You connect the devotees of Your choice with You who ponder on Guru's Shabad in His shelter, oh dear Waheguru. I am a sacrifice for my Satguru who shows (reveals) the incomprehensible (invisible) Waheguru. 8.

Kirpa kuray jay Aapni, ta Hur(i) rukhaan oordhaar(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Ruttan = jewels (priceless item). Paarukh(u) = appraiser; judge. Saar = worth. Boojhunhaar = one who comprehends. Aap Gunaayaynday = self praise to gain importance. Khooaar(u) = suffer humiliation. Luhaiy = acquires. Oochraiy = recites. Nit Biyohaar(u) = daily routine. 1.

MEANING: Only the judge of the jewels knows their real worth and can discuss them. But the ignorant are blind and in complete darkness about the worth of the jewels. The real jewel is Guru's Shabad, and only that devotee knows its worth who has the ability to comprehend it. The foolish praise themselves for recognition, but suffer humiliation as they die, and take birth again, and again. Only that devotee realizes the jewel-like Waheguru's Naam who fosters love for Him in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. Such a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam all the time which becomes his daily routine. If Waheguru is kind to me, I will retain His Naam in my heart all the time. 1.

Word Meaning: Mut Jaanhou = don't you think. Oye = those.
MEANING: Do not think of them as being alive who do not serve Satguru, and do not develop any love for Waheguru's Naam. They have been killed (spiritually) by Waheguru Himself. Selfishness and ego are a serious illness in which the individual performs deeds in the love for Maya. The followers of their mind are (spiritually) dead even though they seem to be alive; they suffer for forgetting God, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Shoodh(u) = pure. Numuskaari = bow to; show respect. Boodh(i) Bibayk(u) = wisdom to distinguish. Aatum Ram = Waheguru. Pusaariya = present.
MEANING: Everybody shows respect for the devotee of Waheguru who has purity of heart. I am a sacrifice for the devotee who has the treasure of Waheguru's Naam and the wisdom to distinguish between the good and the bad. Satguru is a friend of everybody and He loves us all. With the wisdom preached by Satguru, one learns that Waheguru is present in all His creation. 9.

(PAGE 590): Nanak, bin(u) Satgur sayvay Jumpur(i) buddhay maariun(i), mooh(i) kaalaiy ootth(i) jaah(i). 1.
Word Meaning: Bundhna = chains. Tthaur = shelter; Waheguru's support (approval). Phikka = rude; impolite. Mooh Kaalay = with disgrace. 1.
MEANING: Without serving Satguru, the man performs all his deeds under the influence of his selfishness and ego, as a result of which they all become chains for him, which tie him strongly with Maya. Without serving Satguru, he never finds Waheguru's approval, and continues to take births and to die. Without serving Satguru, he uses impolite language (to defend his dishonest dealings and immoral acts), and Waheguru's Naam never sprouts in his heart. Without serving Waheguru, he leaves the world with his face blackened (disgraced), and tied in the court of the Angel of death, he suffers severe punishment, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Reet(i) = custom; rituals. Bhulee = good; worthwhile. Sayti = with.
MEANING: I will burn away (do away with) the custom (religious rituals) by which I may forget my Dear (Waheguru). Only that love is worthwhile by which your dignity is maintained in Waheguru's Court (where you are honoured), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Mungiyaiy = wish for. Mun Chindiya = as wished. Laaj = shame.
MEANING: We should serve only the single Supreme Being, and wish only for Him to reap the rewards that we wish. I will die of shame if I have to beg from some other power. Whoever serves the "only" Lord reaps the rewards, and all his appetite for worldly luxuries is eliminated (he feels fully content). I will gladly sacrifice my life for the devotees who recite Waheguru's Naam day and night, oh Nanak(u). 10.

Word Meaning: Toottha = pleased to be kind. Laayay = connect with. Paatshahi = kingship; reign. Chhut(u) = canopy. Kaar Kmaayay = perform deeds; spend life. Bhirr(i)

Mureh(i) = fight to the death. Nuckeen Vuddhi = with severed noses (in disgrace). Sobha = praise. 1.

MEANING: My dear Waheguru is pleased to be kind to His supreme devotees and connects them with Him on His own. Connecting them with Him is a great kingship that Waheguru bestows on His devotees; He also raises a royal canopy on them to show their sovereignty (on their mind and on Maya). They are always pure at heart, and enjoy blissfulness while they lead their life as per the Advice of Satguru. Those are not considered kings by Waheguru who fight among themselves for greater control and are killed in the battlefield for their greed, as a result of which they are born again, and again in different life forms. Without Waheguru's Naam, they roam around (spend their life) in disgrace, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Saad(u) = taste; enjoyment; blissfulness. Shabad = Teaching. Bherm(u) = misgiving.

MEANING: One does not enjoy spirituality simply by listening to the Teachings of Satguru until he begins to spend his life as per the Teachings. By serving Satguru (obeying His Advice), Waheguru's Naam gets implanted in the devotee's heart, whereby all his misgivings and fears run away (are eliminated). If he tries to become like Satguru (acquire the same virtues as Satguru), only then is he able to focus his mind on Waheguru's Naam with devotion. One earns respect with Waheguru's Naam at heart, and looks dignified (is honoured) in Waheguru's Court too, oh Nanak. 2.

Tinha Gur Sikhaan kuou huoun vaariya, jo behndiyaan, ootthdiyaan Hur(i) Naam(u) dhiyaaveh(i). 11.

Word Meaning: Vunjeh(i) = deal in. Rung Siyoun = with love. Laaha = additional benefit. Oojlay = shiny; radiant (with no filth of any misdeed). Bhaaveh(i) = are liked. Bohul = a tall heap of grain; a treasure. Saanjh = sharing. 11.

MEANING: The Sikhs of the Guru have love for Waheguru in their heart, and they come to worship the Guru (to obey His Advice in worldly affairs). They deal in Waheguru's Naam with deep affection (base their daily routine on the Naam), and get His Naam enshrined in their heart as additional gain (spiritual wealth). They have radiant (dignified) faces (due to their purity of heart) in Waheguru's, and are liked there. The Guru, Satguru, is the treasure of all qualities and of Waheguru's Naam; the lucky Sikhs get a share of those noble qualities.

I will gladly sacrifice my life for the Gur Sikhs who recite Waheguru's Naam sitting or standing (all the time). 11.

Word Meaning: Vuth(u) = (valuable) thing (Waheguru's Naam). Bhaunk = bark; talking worthlessly. Bil-laayay = complain while crying in suffering. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is an invaluable treasure which can be acquired only in the Guru's shelter. The followers of their mind do not recognize this invaluable treasure; the ignorant leave this world, spending their life in worthless discussions about Maya, and in suffering, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਕੰਚਨ ਕਾਇਆ ਨਿਰਮਲੀ ਜੋ ਸਚਿ ਨਾਮਿ ਸਚਿ ਲਾਗੀ॥ ਨਿਰਮਲੁ ਜੋਤਿ ਨਿਰੰਜਨੁ ਪਾਇਆ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਭ੍ਰਮੁ ਭਉ ਭਾਗੀ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਦਾ ਸੁਖੁ ਪਾਵਹਿ ਅਨਦਿਨੁ ਹਰਿ ਬੈਰਾਗੀ॥ 2॥

Word Meaning: Kunchun = gold; gold-like. Sachi(i) = with Guru's eternal Shabad. Jot(i) = Waheguru's light (soul). Nirunjun(u) = Waheguru. Hur(i) Baiyraagi = in Waheguru's love. 2.

MEANING: That human body (person) which is engaged in Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, is pure and shiny (without any blemish) like gold. Such a devotee acquires the Light of Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya; with the enlightened mind, he gets all his misgivings and his doubts cleared in the shelter of the Guru. Such a devotee always enjoys blissfulness in the love of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Oopdaysh(u) = Teaching. Kunni = with the ears (with full devotion) Dri-rraaya = reinforced. Doobidha = indecisiveness of mind. Bhunni = breaks; clears; removes. Hur(i) Junni = devotees of God. Suntoosht(u) = are satisfied; are convinced; have full faith. Chaugun(i) = four times. Vunni = colour; shine. 12.

MEANING: Those Sikhs of the Guru are great and praiseworthy who listen to the Guru's Teachings with full devotion. With the reinforcement of Waheguru's Naam in their mind, Satguru removes their indecisiveness (internal struggle between Maya and Waheguru) due to their selfishness and ego. By pondering on Guru's Shabad, the devotees realize that there is no real friend other than Waheguru in this world. By listening to the Advice of Satguru, the Gur Sikhs become fully convinced that Waheguru is the sole power that controls the whole universe. The Gur Sikhs, who recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, get four times the shine on their faces (they exude more radiance) because of their high moral character and faith in Waheguru. 12.

Word Meaning: Kaayir = coward. Kroop(u) = ugly. Nuck(u) = nose; respect. Dhundaiy Viyaapiya = engrossed in Maya. Suhaaheh(i) = endure. 1.

MEANING: The follower of his mind is a coward (he is always afraid of losing wealth or of attack on his immoral activities) and ugly because he is without his nose (has no respect in Waheguru's Court). He is always engrossed in Maya-related activities and finds no comfort even in his dreams (because his dreams are about Maya as well). He can be salvaged if he comes to Guru's shelter, otherwise trapped in Maya-related activities, he continues to endure suffering, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Sohnay = attractive; adorned. Shaant(i) = peaceful. Sehjay = in a blissful state. Sach(i) Smaaah(i) = absorbed in Waheguru's Naam.

MEANING: Guru's Sikhs look adorned in Waheguru's Court any time because they spend their life according to Guru's Shabad (Teachings). They have peace at mind, are blissful all the time, and are honoured in Waheguru's Court. The devotee acquires Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru and gets readily absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = in Guru's shelter. Prahalad = the son of a demon king, Hernaakush, and a devout worshipper of God. Hernaakush tried unsuccessfully many times to get Prahalad killed. Janak = a king and father-in-law of Rama. Bashisht = a sage and guru of Rama. Luhaayee = made available. 13.

MEANING: Prahalad attained the high spiritual state by taking the Guru's shelter; likewise, Junak was able to meditate on Waheguru's Naam with full devotion only after he came to his Guru's shelter. Similarly, Bushisht listened to Waheguru's Teachings (His praise) only in the shelter of his Guru. Nobody has ever realized Waheguru's Naam without taking shelter of the Guru, oh my brothers. (It is Waheguru's fundamental Principle) that He has made about His worship, that one can do so only in the shelter of the Guru.

Word Meaning: Perteet(i) = faith. Bhaaou = love. Oopjaiy = is produced; comes into being. Gayrra = cycle (of birth and death). Liv = full focus.

MEANING: A person who does not bring faith in Satguru and fosters no love for His Shabad never enjoys comfort even if he takes hundreds of births. But a devotee, who comes to the Guru's shelter and focuses his mind on Waheguru's Naam with full devotion to attain the highest spiritual state, gets connected with Him, oh Nanak. 1.

Nanak, pooraiy kerm(i) Satgur milaiy, Hur(i) Jeaou kirpa kuray Rujaayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Aiysa = such. Khoaj = search; find. Sehsa = worry. Mool Na = not at all. Paal(i) = wall; curtain. Sunjum(i) = control on senses. Kerm(i) = fortune; kindness. Rujaayay = with His Will. 2.

MEANING: Find the Satguru serving whom you will get rid of the suffering of rebirths, oh my mind. You will be able to burn away (destroy) your selfishness and ego with His Shabad, leaving you with no worry. You will be able to demolish the wall of falsehood (which separates you from Waheguru), and He will take up dwelling in your mind, oh my friends. You will have peace and comfort of mind and lead your life of high morality with control on your sensual pleasures. However, one gets connected with Satguru only with great fortune, and that too, only when Waheguru becomes benevolent to Him on His own Will, oh Nanak. 2.

Hur(i) Naavaiy kee vudiyaayi kerm(i) praaput hovaiy, Gurmukh(i) virlaiy kinaiy dhiyaaya. 14.

Word Meaning: Deebaan(u) = judge; king; Lord. Mootthi = fist. Mootthi Vich(i) = under full control. Tulkee = dependence; indebtedness. Paiyreen Paaya = makes them to show respect. Maansa = humans. Rehnday Khoohnday = all the remaining Khulvaayay = make to stand (to serve). Kerm(i) = with benevolence. 14.

MEANING: A devotee, who has Waheguru-Judge residing in his heart, gets to control the (luxuries) of the whole world. He is indebted to no one; Waheguru rather makes (forces) everybody to show respect for him. One may somehow be able to escape from the courts of human judges, but where can one escape from the court of Waheguru-Judge (because He rules the entire universe and the minds of all of us)? The devotees of Waheguru have such a King residing in their hearts who forces all the remaining humans to stand before them (to serve them). However, one acquires the grandeur of the Naam only with the benevolence of Waheguru, and some rare individual recites the Naam in the shelter of the Guru. 14.

Word Meaning: Birtha = empty; without any gain. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love for Maya. Vishta = feces; sensual pleasures; immoral activities. Vaas(u) = dwelling. 1.

MEANING: Without serving Satguru, the world dies a spiritual death and wastes away its precious human life. It experiences huge suffering because of its love for the other (Maya), and continues to take births and to die. It spends its life pursuing sensual pleasures, as a result of which it takes births again and again. The Angel of death kills (punishes) them, and they leave the world repenting, oh Nanak. 1.

Undin(u) sayvuk(u) sayva kuray, Hur(i) Sachay kay goon gaayee. Nanak(u) vaykh(i) vigsiya, Hur(i) Sachay kee vudiyaayee. 2.

Word Meaning: Purakh = male; husband. Naar(i) = woman; wife. Bhogvaiy = enjoying. Ulipt(u) = fully detached (with Maya). Alukh(u) = incomprehensible (God). Lukhna = to comprehend. Sojhi = understanding. Sreek(u) = rival. Kuntuk(i) = thorn of. Vaiyraayee = enmity. Nihchul = everlasting. Raj(u) = reign; control (on sensual pleasures). Undin(u) = every day; always. Vigsiya = blooming of the mind. Vudiyaayee = greatness; magnificence. 2.

MEANING: There is only one real male (husband) (Waheguru) in this world; everybody else (male or female) is His wife. Being present in every heart, Waheguru enjoys all the delicious things, yet He is fully detached from the world. He is invisible (incomprehensible), and cannot be seen (comprehended). However, the Perfect Guru gives us the wisdom by which we can "see" Him. Those who serve the omnipresent Waheguru by burning away (getting rid of) their selfishness and ego, become like Him (acquire the same qualities). Waheguru has no rival or no thorn of enmity. His Kingship (Reign) is everlasting, and He does not take birth or die. His devotees serve Him all the time by singing His praise. My heart blooms to see the grandeur of the eternal Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Muslut(i) = consultation. Saara = looking after. Kool(u) = clan. Hult(i) = in this world. Pult(i) = in the next world. Nistaara = salvation. 15.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam protects the devotees (from the attacks of Maya) who have the Naam embedded in their hearts. For me, Waheguru's Naam is my father, my mother, my friend, and my supporter. The devotee discusses all his business with Waheguru, and seeks His advice in everything; Waheguru's Naam looks after us all the time. For me, Waheguru's Naam is my extremely dear company (support), my clan, and my family. The Guru has kindly endowed Waheguru's Naam to me, which always salvages (protects) me in this world and the next, oh Nanak. 15.

Word Meaning: Bhaytiya = met; made a connection with. Keerut(i) = singing praise. Achint(u) = without any special effort. Vussiya = got embedded. Suntoosht(u) = satisfying; source of contentment. Kool = clan; associates. Oodhaareh(i) = find salvation. Moakh Pudvee = the state of salvation. Laaj = dignity. 1.

MEANING: Those devotees who get to meet with Satguru (came to His shelter) always sing Waheguru's praise. They stay absorbed in Guru's Shabad (in praise of Waheguru) by virtue of which Waheguru's Naam gets embedded in their heart without any special effort. They attain the level of salvation, and find salvation for their associates. Those devotees who take the Guru's shelter are fully convinced about Waheguru as the only Supreme Being. I am a slave of Waheguru, and pray to Him to protect my dignity, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Khurruk(u) = irritation; lack of peace. Vihaayay = is spent. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten destiny. Oobray = salvaged. 2.
MEANING: The selfishness and ego of the man act like a thorn in his mind because his ego gets easily hurt, as a result of which he is always irritated, and his whole life is spent in irritation (never finds peace of mind). However, because of their prewritten destiny, some lucky people get connected with Satguru (and then) with Waheguru. With His grace, they are able to burn away their selfishness and ego with the Guru's Shabad, and are salvaged, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Abigut(u) = invisible; incomprehensible. Agoachur(u) = (physically) inaccessible. Abinaashi = immortal. Bidhaata = carver of our fates. Srayveh = serve; Poojeh = worship. Soojhaiy = think of. Per-oopkaari = benevolent. 16.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam (His praise) is my invisible, inaccessible, immortal and the carver of my fate (Waheguru, and His Naam are synonymous). Therefore, I serve and worship (recite with reverence) Waheguru's Naam, and my mind is imbued in the Naam. I cannot think of anything else that is as great as Waheguru's Naam, which sets one free from all worldly bonds at the end. The parents of the Guru, who is benevolent to bestow Waheguru's Naam to the devotees, are worthy of worship. I always bow to my Satguru by whose benevolence I realized Waheguru's Naam. 16.

Word Meaning: Saad(u) = taste. Chaytyee = remember. Lunghay Paar = salvaged.
MEANING: Those who do not enjoy the heavenly taste of Guru's Shabad, and do not foster affection (or respect) for Waheguru, and do not recite His Naam, keep taking births, and dying again, and again. If the blind, and the follower of his mind, does not remember Waheguru; what did he take birth in the world for? Word Meaning: Goontaas(i) = treasure of virtues (God). Binaas(i) = destroyed. 2.

MEANING: Only Satguru is awake (is aware of the attacks of Maya all the time) while the rest of the world is sound asleep (unaware) in the thirst (desire or love) for Maya. Those who serve Waheguru and are imbued in His love also stay awake. The blind (in complete darkness of ignorance) and the followers of their mind, who do not remember Waheguru (do not keep him in mind), get destroyed (suffer badly) in taking births and dying. Word Meaning: Chhuteeh Perkaar = of 36 different kinds. Tritup(i) = contentment. Sherdh = desire. Nungay Na Hoveh = become naked; lose morality and respect. Vunuj = business; dealing. Kaar-koonee = assigning responsibility. Laykha Likhiya = write the importance on heart. Uglee = ealier. Kaan(i) = indebtedness. Virlay = rare. Kerm(i) = in fortune. Praaput(i) = acquirement; in fortune 17.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the delicious meals of 36 kinds for me eating which I feel fully contented. Waheguru's Naam is the (most expensive) clothing for me because of which I will never lose my dignity (which will cover all my weaknesses); and because of which, I have lost all my desire to wear (any other expensive clothes). Waheguru's Naam is my business and my dealings; Satguru has assigned me the responsibility to (share) Waheguru's Naam (with others). I have written Waheguru's Naam on my heart (so as never to forget it), because of which the debts of all my earlier bad deeds owing to the Angel of death have been cleared. Word Meaning: Ugiyaani = ignorant. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Dhaayay = attack quickly. Ja = if. Kerm = deeds. 1.
MEANING: The world is ignorant and blind, and performs deeds (its daily business) in the love for Maya; but all those deeds done in the love of Maya bring it trouble very quickly. However, all comforts appear (spring out) when, with the grace of the Guru, one performs deeds according to His Teachings, and recites Waheguru's Naam all the time. But only that devotee adopts such a lifestyle whom Waheguru Himself motivates; and nobody can say anything about it (interfere in it), oh Nanak. 1.

M:3: Hum ghur(i) Naam(u) khujaana suda haiy, bhugut(i) bhuray bhundaara. Satgur(u) Daata jea ka, sud jeevaiy Dayvunhaara. Undin(u) keertun(u) suda kureh(i) Gur kaiy Shabad(i) Apaara. Nanak jis nu nudr(i) kuray so paayay, hovaiy Dur(i) sachiyaara. 2.
Word Meaning: Bhundaara = treasures. Daata = provider; source. Jea = soul; spirituality. Apaara = beyond limits (Waheguru). Oochreh(i) = recite. Vertaavunhaara = distributor. Munooa = mind. Sehjay = in a blissful state. Mookut(i) = free from all bonds. Sachiyaara = bearer of Truth (Naam). 2.
MEANING: Satguru is the provider (source) of spiritual life (Waheguru's Naam), and it is because of His benevolence that I have treasures full of His worship in my heart all the time; my Satguru lives forever. All such devout devotees sing Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad (in praise of God) all the time. They always recite Guru's Shabad, which is true in every eon. With the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, the mind is always blissful, and deals in Waheguru Naam in a peaceful state of mind. The devotees have the jewel-like Waheguru's Naam which they acquire with Guru's Knowledge (wisdom), and which leads to their salvation. But only that devotee realizes Waheguru's Naam on whom He casts a kind sight; such a devotee is approved to be the bearer of Truth (has conquered all the demons) in God's Court, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Dhunn(u) = great; worthy of worship. Anund = blissfulness. 18.

MEANING: The Gur Sikh, who comes to Satguru's shelter, is considered great and worthy of praise. The Gur Sikh, who recites Waheguru's Naam with his tongue, is considered great, and so is the Gur Sikh who feels blissful on listening to Waheguru's Naam. That Gur Sikh is considered to be great who realizes Waheguru's Naam by serving Satguru. I will always bow to the Gur Sikh who follows the path of the Guru's Teachings. 18.

Naam(u) ruttan(u) ghur(i) pergut(u) hoa, Nanak sehj(i) smaayay. 1.

Word Meaning: Mun Hutth(i) = persistence of mind. Kerm = rituals. Bhaykh = religious symbols. Bhermday = roam around. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers.
Ruttan = jewel. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Pergut(u) = appears; shines. 1.

MEANING: Many people have exhausted themselves by performing religious rituals to please God, but nobody has ever realized Him simply by the persistence of their mind. Some others roam around in search of Waheguru, again wearing religious symbols of different faiths, because of the obstinacy of their minds, but they too suffer and do not achieve anything. Some people may acquire supernatural powers by concentrating their minds, but such powers only boost individuals' egos and lead to greater attraction to worldly comforts; Waheguru's Naam does not take root in their hearts. However, one's mind gets purified by serving the Guru (obeying His Teachings) when the darkness of his ignorance disappears (his mind is enlightened), the jewel of Waheguru's Naam shines in his mind, and he gets fully immersed in the blissful state of mind, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: Some people do not relish Satguru's Shabad and do not cultivate any love for Waheguru's Naam in their hearts. Such people talk only about tasteless things related to Maya, and suffer humiliation all the time. But they are pursuing only those things for which they are predestined by Waheguru to follow; nobody can erase (change) their nature, oh Nanak. 2.

kuou subh sum drisht(i) dikhaayee. Dhun(u), dhun(u) Satguru mittar humaara, jin(i) Hur(i) Naam siyoun humaari preet(i) bunaayee.
Word Meaning: Sat Purakh = a manifestation of Waheguru. Shaant(i) = peace; calmness. Liv Laayee = fully focused mind. Giyani = source of Divine Knowledge. Sum = equal; same. Drisht(i) = vision; eye. 19.
MEANING: My Satguru, which is a manifestation of Waheguru, is worthy of worship because one achieves peace of mind on meeting with Him (in His shelter). My Satguru is great because I have acquired Waheguru's worship in His shelter, and by serving Him, I have been able to meditate on Waheguru's Naam with full devotion. My Satguru, who is the source of Divine Knowledge, is also great, and has taught me how to see friends and enemies with the same eye (treat them equally). My friend Satguru is worthy of worship because He has instilled in my heart a love for Waheguru's Naam. 19.

Sloak(u) M:1: Ghur hee moondh(i) vidays(i) Pir(u), nit jhoor sumaalay. Mildiyaan dhill na hovyee jay neeut(i) raas(i) kuray. 1.
Word Meaning: Moondh(i) = a young (immature) woman (human being). Vidays(i) = in foreign land. Jhoor = repent; feel guilty; yearns. Sumaalay = remembers. Dhill = delay. Neeut(i) = thinking; intentions. Raas(i) = suitable; pure. 1.
MEANING: The young (immature) woman (a person who does not know much about Waheguru) does not realize that Waheguru resides in her heart, and thinks of Him as being in some foreign land (far, far away). She remembers Him and yearns to see Him. But the fact is, she can meet (connect) with Him without any delay if she sets her intentions right (purifies her mind by breaking bonds of worldly attachments). 1.

ਮ:1॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗਾਲੀ ਕੂੜੀਆ ਬਾਝੁ ਪਰੀਤਿ ਕਰੇਇ॥ ਤਿਚਰੁ ਜਾਣੈ ਭਲਾ ਕਰਿ ਜਿਚਰੁ ਲੇਵੈ ਦੇਇ॥
M:1: Nanak, gaaleen koorriyaan, baajh(u) preet(i) kuray. Tichur(u) jaanaiy bhulaa kur(i) jichur(u) layvaiy dayay. 2.
Word Meaning: Gaaleen = talks; acts. Koorriyaan = false; meaningless. Baajh(u) Preet(i) = without love (for Waheguru). Tichur(u) = only that long. Bhulaa = good; noble. Jichur(u) = as long as. Layvaiy = takes (suffering) away. 2.
MEANING: If a man talks about Waheguru without any love for Him, all his talk is false (meaningless and only a show-off), oh Nanak. Because such a person thinks of Waheguru as good to him only for the time during which He takes his troubles away, and gives him comforts. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਜਿਨਿ ਉਪਾਏ ਜੀਅ ਤਿਨਿ ਹਰਿ ਰਾਖਿਆ॥ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਿਤੁ ਸਚਾ ਨਾਉ ਭੋਜਨੁ ਚਾਖਿਆ॥ ਤ੍ਰਿਪਤਿ ਰਹੇ ਅਘਾਇ ਮਿਟੀ ਭਭਾਖਿਆ॥ ਸਭ ਅੰਦਰਿ ਇਕੁ ਵਰਤੈ ਕਿਨੈ ਵਿਰਲੈ ਲਾਖਿਆ॥ ਜਨ ਨਾਨਕ ਭਏ ਨਿਹਾਲੁ ਪ੍ਰਭ ਕੀ ਪਾਖਿਆ॥ 20॥
Paurri: Jin(i) oopaayay jea, Tin(i) Hur(i) raakhiya. Amrit(u), Sacha Naaoun, bhojun(u) chaakhiya. Triput(i) ruhay aghaayay, mitee bhubhaakhiya. Subh undar(i) Ikk(u) vertaiy, kinaiy virlaiy laakhiya. Jun Nanak bhuyay nihaal(u) Prubh kee paakhiya. 20.
Word Meaning: Jea = living beings. Chaakhiya = tasted; ate. Triput(i) = Aghaayay = fully contented. Bhubhaakhiya = big appetite. Vertaiy = operates. Laakhiya = realized. Nihaal(u) = blissful. Paakhiya = by the favour. 20.

MEANING: Waheguru, which creates the living beings, also protects them. He serves the Amrit-like food of His Naam, which, if taken by a man, makes him fully content, and all his big appetite for worldly attractions is eliminated. But only a rare person realizes that it is the "One" Supreme Being (Waheguru) that operates in everybody. I am His slave, and feel blissful with His favour (kindness), oh Nanak. 20.

Word Meaning: Ditthaiy = by seeing. Jichur(u) Na = until. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Tuj(i) = abandon; get rid of. Vikaar = sensual pleasures. Mer(i) = kill (control) mind of desires. Hayt(i) = for. 1.

MEANING: The whole world (Including those who oppose Him) may see Satguru with their eyes; but one does not find salvation (break his worldly bonds) just by seeing Him. One needs to ponder on His Shabad (follows His Advice in daily life) because one's filth of his selfishness and ego is not washed away, and he does not develop any love for Waheguru's Naam until he ponders on Satguru's Shabad. Waheguru connects some individuals to Him through His kindness, enabling them to overcome their indecisiveness (the struggle between Waheguru's Naam and love for Maya) and control their sensual pleasures. Some lucky individuals develop a love for Satguru just by His sight, and merge into Him by killing (controlling) their minds towards worldly desires, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Guvaar(i) = uncivilized; ignorant. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Kaarun(i) = because of; for. Oopkuray = came forward (for help).

MEANING: The foolish and the uncivilized (ignorant) do not serve Satguru. They suffer deeply in their love for Maya, and, burning with desire, they cry for help. But all those friends who were bonded with him through a common attraction for Maya never appeared for help at the time of his death. The man enjoys blissfulness with Guru's Advice, and the kind Waheguru showers him with His kindness, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Uvero = other. Ruv(i) = present. Nichind(u) = worry-free. Nissul(u) = in comfort. Luhhiyaiy = acquire; realize. Soodh(u) = verified.

MEANING: You are the sole creator of everything in this universe, oh Waheguru. We can talk about some other person (or power) only if there is someone like you (but there is none). It is Waheguru Himself who speaks through living beings and makes them speak. He is present in the waters, on the land, and in the sky. He, Himself kills, and Himself let some others go free. Let us just stay connected with His Feet (His Naam) and take His shelter (surrender our wisdom to Him), oh my mind. Nobody else can kill, or keep someone alive, without Waheguru; so, let us stay worry-free and feel comfortable, oh my mind. I am a slave of Waheguru and request others that they can acquire Waheguru's Naam only in the shelter of the Guru, and one should recite His Naam while standing, sitting, or sleeping (all the time), oh Nanak. 21. 1. Verified.
