Doobidha na purroun, Hur(i) bin(u) hoar(u) na poojoun, murraiy, musaan(i) na jaayee. Trishna raach(i) na pur ghur(u) jaavaan, trishna Naam(i) boojhaayee. Ghur bheetur(i) ghur(u) Guru dikhaaya, sehj(i) ruttay mun bhaayee. Tu Aaapay daana, Aapay beena, Tu dayveh(i) mut(i) Saayeen. 1. Mun(u) baiyraag(i) rutou, baiyraagi, Shabad(i) mun(u) baydhiya mayri maayee. Untar(i) Jot(i) niruntur(i) Bani, Saachay Sahib siyoun liv laayee. Ruhaou. Asunkh baiyraagi, kuheh(i) baiyraag, so bairaagi j(i) khusmaiy bhaavaiy. Hirdaiy Shabad(i) sudaa bhaiy ruchiya, Gur kee kaar kmaavaiy. Aiko chaytay, munooa na doalay, dhaavut verj(I) ruhaavaiy. Sehjay maata, sudaa rung(i) raata, Saachay kay goon gaavaiy. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Doobidha = indecisiveness. Purroun = get into. Murraiy Musaan(i) = graves and graveyards. Trishna = desires. Raach(i) = absorbing. Pur Ghur = house (shelter) of others. Boojhaayee = killed. Ghur = heart. Ghur(u) = (Waheguru's) dwelling. Sehj(i) Ruttay = imbued in Waheguru's love in the high spiritual state. Daana Beena = noble and know-all. Saayeen = oh, Lord. 1. Baiyraag(i) = in deep love. Rutou = coloured, imbued. Baiyraagi = detached from worldly affairs. Baydhiya = pierced. Jot(i) = Waheguru's light (enlightenment). Niruntar(i) = continuous. Bani = Guru's Shabad. Liv = spiritual connection. Pause. Asunkh = countless. J(i) = which. Bhaavaiy = is liked by. Bhaiy = (Waheguru's) fear. Kaar Kmaavaiy = follows Guru's Advice. Munooa = mind. Doalay = waver. Dhaavut = rushing. Verj(i) = put a stop. Maata =intoxicated. 2.

MEANING: I shall not be indecisive (will have a clear mind), and shall not worship anybody other than Waheguru; (and unlike most people) will not bow to any grave or a monument.

Absorbed in worldly desires, I shall not visit any other power (a deity or the like) to have my desires fulfilled; I will rather put out the fire of my desires with Waheguru's Naam. My Guru has shown me the dwelling of Waheguru in my own heart, which I enjoy, imbued with His love in the high spiritual state. You are perfectly wise and know everything about Your creation, and Yourself guide us, oh my Lord. 1. Pierced by Satguru's Shabad, my mind is fully imbued in the love of Waheguru, and I am now fully detached from the world, oh my mother. With the continuous presence of Satguru's Shabad, my mind has been enlightened (I realize Waheguru's presence in my mind), and I am spiritually connected with Him. Pause. Countless people leave home and go to forests in search of Waheguru and call themselves "*Baiyraag*i" (renouncers of the world), but only the individual who is liked by Waheguru is a real baiyraagi. Such a baiyraagi enshrines Satguru's Shabad in his heart, and follows His advice in his life, and keeps Waheguru's fear in mind all the time. He worships only the "one" Waheguru and keeps his mind under full control so that it does not waver (become shaky) in his faith in Waheguru. Imbued in Waheguru's love, he sings His praise and stays intoxicated in the high spiritual state. 2.

---------- Munooa paun(u) bind(u) sookhvaasi, Naam(i) vussaiy sookh bhaayee. Jihba, naytur, soatur, Sach(i) raatay, jul(i) boojhee, Toojheh(i) boojhaayee. Aas niraas ruhaiy baiyraagi, nij ghur(i) taarri laayee. Bhikhiya Naam(i), rujjay suntokhi, Amrit(u) sehj(i) piyaayee. 3. Doobidha vich(i) baiyraag(u) na hoavee, jub lug doojee raayee. Subh(u) jug(u) Tayra, Tu aiko Daata, uver(u) na dooja bhaayee. Munmukh(i) junt dookh(i) sudaa nivaasi, Gurmukh(i) day vudiyaayee. Appur apaar, agumm agoachar, kehnaiy keem na paayee. 4.

Word Meaning: Munooa = mind. Paun(u) = unstable (fickle) like wind. Bind(u) = moment. Sookhvaasi = peaceful. Naytur = eyes. Soatur = senses. Jul(i) = burning. Aas Niraas = having no hopes; without any wish. Nij Ghur(i) = in own heart. Taarri Laayee = fully focused. Bhikhiya = alms. Rujjay = fully satisfied. Suntokhi = content. Amrit = Waheguru's Naam. Sehj(i) = in blissful state. 3. Jub Lug = as long as. Doojee = Maya. Raayee = even a small amount. Daata = provider. Munmukh(i) = follower of his mind. Junt = man. Nivaasi = dwells in; suffers in. Vudiyaayee = honour. Appur Apaar = beyond limits. Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachar = incomprehensible. Keem = worth; magnanimity. 4.

MEANING: If the wind-like fickle mind (which wanders in every direction) becomes stable even for a short moment (to focus on Waheguru's Naam), Waheguru comes to dwell in the individual's mind, and he acquires blissfulness. Then his tongue, his eyes, and his senses get imbued in Waheguru's Naam, and the burning (fire) of his heart (caused by his worldly desires) is put out by Waheguru. Such a devotee overcomes all his wishes and desires, remains detached from the world, and keeps his mind fully focused on (spiritually connected to) Waheguru. (The Yogis go from door to door to get alms) But, such a real baiyraagi seeks alms of Waheguru's Amrit-Naam, and feels full contentment in the high spiritual state.

3. With an indecisive mind, and as long as one has even a small amount of attraction for Maya, he cannot be a lover (baiyraagi) of Waheguru. You are the Lord of, and the only provider for the entire world, and there is none other like You, oh Waheguru. The follower of his mind always lives in discomfort, while Waheguru honours the devotees of the Guru. Waheguru is far beyond limits, inaccessible, and incomprehensible, so His magnanimity cannot be expressed in words. 4. --------

----------Soonn smaadh(i) muhaa permaaruth(u), teen(i) bhuvun Put(i) Naamung. Mustuk(i) laykh(u) jeeyaan jug(i) joani, sir(i), sir(i) laykh(u) suhaamung. Kerm, sookerm kuraayay Aapay, Aapay bhugut(i) dir-rramung. Mun, mookh(i) jooth(i) luhaiy bhaiy maanung, Aapay Giyan agaamung. 5.

Gur(u) Daata maylay ta mut(i) hovaiy, nigooray mut(i) na kaayee. Jiyoun chulaayay, tiyoun chaaleh(i) bhaayee, hoar kiyya ko kuray chuturaayee. 6. ----------

Word Meaning: Soonn = spiritual state above the effects of Maya; Waheguru. (Smaadh(i) = deep meditation. Muhaa = great. Permaaruth = the supreme wealth. Teen Bhuvun = the three-layered universe. Put(i) = of the Lord. Naamung = Naam(u). Joan(i) = in different life forms. Suhaamung = endure. Kerm = deeds. Sookerm = noble deeds. Dir-rraamung = reinforces. Mookh(i) = of mouth (tongue). Jootth(i) = filth. Bhaiy = God's fear. Agaamung = inaccessible Waheguru. 5. Chaakhiya = tasted. Saad(u) = taste. Goongay = of the mute. Akuthaiy = indescribable. Chaaloun = tread the path of. Rujaayee = God's Will. Nigooray = having no Guru. Chulaayay = makes us do. Chuturaayee = cleverness. 6.

MEANING: Enshrining Waheguru's Naam, which prevails the whole universe, in his heart, is the supreme wealth (prime objective) of the man. So, he must meditate on His Naam. However, the living beings, which are born in the world, have their fortune (nature or character) prewritten on their foreheads, and each must live with that (perform accordingly). Waheguru Himself makes some people perform bad or good deeds while reinforcing His worship among others. His devotees wash away the filth of their mind, and of their tongue (foul language) by living in His fear. Waheguru imparts His Knowledge to them (enlightens their minds). 5.

Just like a dumb (mute) person cannot describe the taste of his sweet, a devotee of Waheguru, who has tasted His sweet Naam, enjoys it, but cannot describe it. How can I describe the magnanimity of the indescribable Waheguru? I just live by His Will. But one acquires the wisdom to know Him only in the shelter of the Guru when the Provider Waheguru connects one with Him (the Guru); otherwise, no one can acquire this wisdom (holy thinking) without the Guru. One has to live one's life as predestined for them; there is no cleverness (alternative) that they can use against that. 6.

---------- Ikk(i) bherm bhoolaayay, ikk(i) bhugtee raatay, Tayra khayl(u) apaara. Jit(u) Toodh(u) laayay, tayha ful(u) paaya, Tu Huqam(i) chulaavunhaara. Poora baiyraagi, sehj(i) soobhaagi, Sach Nanak mun(u) maanung. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Bherm Bhoolaayay = misled by misgivings. Khayl = drama. Apaara = amazing; beyond understanding. Jit(u) = whichever. Tayha = corresponding. Jeeou = life. Pind(u) = body. Adhaara = support; basis. 7. Gugnuntar(i) = in the sky (in a high spiritual state). Pergaasiya = appeared. Giyan = Divine Knowledge (connection with God). Dhiyaanung = concentration of mind. Bhaavaiy = likes. Kuhaavaiy = makes others recite. Tutto Tutt = Truth and only Truth (Waheguru). Vukhaanung = describes. Peera = spiritual guide. Gehr = unfathomable. Gumbheera = unaffected by conditions. Bauraanung = crazy. Sehj(i) Soobhaagi = without any special effort. Maanung = convinced. 8.

MEANING: It is Your amazing drama (style of running the universe) that You mislead some by creating misgivings for them, while You guide some others so that they get imbued in Your worship, oh Waheguru. They reap the rewards of the deeds that You make them do with Your Huqam (Laws). I can serve You with (offer You) something only if I own it, but I own nothing; even my life and my body are given to me by You (which I need to serve You with), oh my Waheguru. It was Your great kindness that You connected me with Satguru, who kindly bestowed Your Naam to me, which is the basis of my life. 7.

When Waheguru took dwelling in my mind in a high spiritual state, my virtues appeared in me, and I was able to focus my mind on His Naam to acquire Divine Knowledge (make a spiritual connection with God). When one begins to love Waheguru's Naam, he recites it with love and makes others do the same, and then he describes (sings praise) of Waheguru, and Waheguru alone. Guru's Shabad is a manifestation of the Guru (the spiritual guide), and of Waheguru, which is unfathomable and which never changes. The world is crazy (rudderless) without Guru's Shabad. When one is fully convinced of Waheguru's Naam, he becomes a real baiyraagi (fully detached from the world) without any special effort, oh Nanak. 8.1

Word Meaning: Titooki = A Shabad with each stanza having three sentences. Aasa Munsa = hopes and wishes. Bundhuni = traps. Kerm Dherm = religious rituals. Poonn(i) = noble deeds. Jaaya = gave birth. Binsaiy = is destroyed; dies. Mohini = captivating. Vakaari = (lead to) vices. 1. Kermakaari = performer of rituals. Aatum = soul; mind. Tutt = Truth; God. Pause. Bukaiy = reads aloud. Sunsaari = worldly. Paakhun(i) = show off; hypocrisy. Chookuyee = removed. Inn Bidh(i) = this way. Maakurri = spider.

Doobi = dies. Oodi = upside down. 2. Ghunee = too many (people). Vigooti = misled. Doojay = (in) Maya. Bhaayay = love for. Khooyaayee = suffers discomfiture (humiliation). Ruhaayee = is stopped. 3. Saach(u) = Waheguru (His Naam). Sehj(i) = in a high spiritual state. Oopjaiy = comes into being. Boojhaiy = realizes. Mug(u) = the path (to union with Waheguru). K(i) = (of) what (use). Koorr(u) = lies. Bikh(u) = poison. 4.

MEANING: Man's hopes, wishes, and his religious rituals are all traps for him to keep him attached to Maya. The man takes rebirths because of the mixture of his good deeds and his sins, and dies a spiritual death when he forgets Waheguru, oh my brothers. The whole world is captivated by Maya, and all one's resulting deeds lead to vices. 1.

(You preach the performance of rituals to achieve union with God), Oh, pundit, but the only ritual that leads to mental blissfulness (union with God) is the one by which the man ponders on Waheguru (His Naam) in mind. Pause. The Brahman reads the religious books, such as the Shastras and the Vedas, loudly to the people (preaches them), but himself is engaged in worldly affairs (of Maya). The filth of one's evil deeds and thoughts is not washed away by hypocrisy. Just like a spider dies upside down in its own web, the man also weaves a web of evil deeds around him from which he cannot escape. 2. Countless people are misled by their ill advice (evil thinking) and suffer humiliation in their love for Maya. One's misgivings do not go away without Waheguru's Naam, and the Naam cannot get implanted in the heart without taking shelter of Satguru. One acquires comfort (blissfulness) only by serving Satguru (following His Advice), whereby one's cycle of rebirths is broken. 3.

The Guru is the source of Waheguru's Naam and of the high spiritual state (they can be acquired only from Him) in whose shelter one's mind is purified, and he gets fully absorbed in Waheguru. One learns to follow the path of righteousness only in the shelter of the Guru, without which one cannot have this knowledge. Of what good are the rituals for the man who has greed in his heart, and takes in the poison of lies (earns his living by deceitful means which turn into poison for his spiritual life? 4.

---------- Pundit, duheen viloyiyaiy bhaayee, vichoun nicklaiy tuth(u). Jul(u) muthiyaiy, jul(u) daykhiyaiy bhaayee, eh(u) jug(u) eha vuth(u). Gur miliyain bhuou mun(i) vussaiy bhaayee, merna sach(u) laykh(u). Mujun(u), daan, chugiyaayiyaan bhaayee, Durgeh Naam(u) visaykh(u).

Eh(u) vukkhur(u) vapaari so drirraiy bhaayee, Gur Shabad(i) kuray veechaar(u). Dhun(u) vapaari Nanaka bhaayee, mayl(i) kuray vapaar(u). 8.2.

Word Meaning: Dhueen = yogurt. Viloyiyiay = churn. Tuth(u) = real thing (butter). Muthiyaiy = churn. Vuth(u) = thing; reality. Vigoochiyaiy = misled. Dayo Alukh(u) = invisible Waheguru. 5. Taago Soot = thread of cotton. Dehdis(i) = in every direction. Maayay = Maya. Gaantth = knot; strong connection. Chhootyee = breaks. Thaakay = exhausted. Bherm(i) Bhoolaaya = misled by misgivings. 6. Bhuou = (God's) fear. Such(u) = eternal. Laykh(u) = written order. Mujun(u) = dip (at holy places). Daan = donations (to Brahmans). Visaykh(u) = special (value). Ankus = the weapon to keep an elephant (conceited mind) under control. Drirraaya = reinforced. Chooka = removed; disappeared. Bhaykh = religious symbols. 7. Haat(u) = shop. Sraaf = jeweller; trader. Vukkhur(u) = merchandize. Apaar(u) = beyond limits (Waheguru). Vapaari = trader. Drirraiy = reinforce. Maiyl Kuray = (Waheguru) connects with the Guru. 8.

MEANING: If we churn yogurt, we get our desired result (butter), oh, Pundit Ji, but we do not see anything else but water if we churn just water (it is worthless to churn it). The world is also just churning water (pursuing the worldly attractions which have no spiritual worth). Waheguru is present in every heart invisibly, but we do nothing to "see" Him (make any connection with Him). 5. The world is like a thread of cotton which is tied strongly with Maya in every direction (just like the beads are tied with knots with the thread in a necklace). The knots of Maya in the human mind are very strong and cannot be untied without the Guru, even if one becomes exhausted from performing countless rituals to free oneself. The world is misled by many misgivings, and nothing can be done about it with self-efforts. 6. Death is an eternal written law of Waheguru, but one loses this fear when he enshrines Waheguru's fear in the mind in the shelter of the Guru. Dips at holy places and donations to Brahmans may be considered good deeds in society, but only Waheguru's Naam is given a special place (is honoured) in His Court. Guru's Shabad is like the ankus which keeps the elephant-like conceited mind in check; if one reinforces it so as to enshrine it in his mind, his religious symbols - which he wears just for a show-off - lose their significance for him. 7. The human body is a trader's shop where man's ill qualities can be traded for Waheguru's Naam. But the merchandize of Waheguru's Naam is bought only by the human trader who ponders on Guru's Shabad. Those traders are worthy of praise whom Waheguru connects with the Guru to carry out this business, oh Nanak. 8.2.

Word Meaning: Turay = find salvation. Tthaak = hinderance. Rusn = (on the tongue). Huray = Waheguru. Piyaray = oh dears. Booday = drowned (in the world sea). Bhaayay = in love (with Maya). Bhaiy = fear (of God). 1. Bhee = repeatedly. Salaahna = sing praise. Bohith = ship (Guru). Bhaiy = fear; (world-sea). Kundhi = on the shore. Kuhaah = loud cries. Pause. Salaahi = worthy of praise. Bhulay = noble; loved by Waheguru. Ruttay = imbued. Rung(u) = love (for Waheguru). Rus(u) Laiy = enjoying the sweetness (of Naam). Tut(u) = truth; Waheguru. Viloyay = churn; pondering. 2. Put(i) = of the Lord, Waheguru. Pervaana = (letter of) approval. Neeshaan(u) = identification. Aaya = came; whoever is born. Likh(i) laiy jaavna = written account of deeds. Huqami = the ruler (Waheguru). Puchhaan(u) = recognize. Boojhaiy = understand. Saacha = eternal. Taan(u) = power. 3. Nimmiya = started life as a zygote (a fertilized egg). Oodur mujhaar(i) = in the womb. Oodhou = upside down. Jaaniyaiy = recognized; honoured. Kaaruj Saar(i) = successfully completing the objective. 4.

MEANING: We, too, can be salvaged in the company of the holy saints who serve Satguru, oh my dear friends. With Waheguru's Naam on their tongue, the devotees face no hindrance (on their way to union with Waheguru). Those who have no fear of Waheguru, drown in the world sea for their love (for Maya); but those, on whom Waheguru casts a kind sight, swim across the world sea safely. 1. Waheguru's praise must be sung again, and again. Waheguru is the ship that ferries us across the world sea, without which we drown; the loud cries of the people can be heard on the shore of the world sea (because of their suffering due to their ignoble deeds done under the influence of Maya). Pause. Only Waheguru is praise-worthy, and none other; His praise must be sung repeatedly. Those who sing the praise of Waheguru are treated as noble individuals (honoured in Waheguru's Court); imbued with Guru's Shabad, they are in love with God. If one is lucky to enjoy their company, he ponders on the root of the whole universe – Waheguru - while enjoying the sweetness of His Naam. 2. Waheguru's Naam is the true identification for the devotee, which earns him the written letter of approval of the Lord. Everybody is born with their fortune written by Waheguru, which they have to live with; one should recognize the Huqam (Will) of the Lord. But one cannot recognize Waheguru's Huqam without the Guru. However, Waheguru's Huqam cannot be changed by anyone, as His Huqam is eternal. 3. One starts his life as a zygote (in the mother's womb) by Waheguru's Huqam, and he is born upside down by His Huqam. The followers of the Guru recognize Waheguru's Huqam, live by that, and achieve the objective of life successfully (union with Waheguru), and are honoured in His Court. 4. ---------

Word Meaning: Aaya = born. Bunnh(i) Chulaayiyaiy = taken as prisoner. Luhaiy = receives. Sujaayay = punishment. Paiyndha = is given the robe of honour. 5.

Gunut Gunaayiyaiy = account of deeds explained. Doyay = discrimination. Bhuvaaiyaiy = is taken through (many rebirths). Uvgun(i) = bad qualities. Mootthi = robbed by. Sinyaapay = recognize. Shah = the King (Waheguru). 6. Aakhun = recite (Naam). Kiyoun = how? Suntokhiyaan = contented. 7. Kaaya = body. Musvaani = inkpot. Dhaar(i) = by implanting (Naam). Lulta = tongue. Laykhun(I) = pen. Oor(i) = heart. 8.

MEANING: One comes to this world by Waheguru's Huqam, spends his life, and leaves the world with His Huqam. The followers of their mind are taken to Waheguru's court as prisoners, where they receive their punishment. On the other hand, those who recognize Waheguru's Huqam with Guru's Shabad are honoured in His Court. 5. It is with Waheguru's Huqam that one feels conceited of his good deeds and keeps their account (to boost his ego); and it is also with Waheguru's Huqam that a man is conceited and discriminates against others. It is with Waheguru's Huqam that the man is robbed of good qualities by his ill deeds, and is taken through many, many lives. But the devotee, who recognizes Waheguru's Huqam, gets connected with Him and is accorded respect. 6. It is a very tough job to recite Waheguru's Naam (to act on it if you do not have love for Him). So, how can one listen to, or recite His Naam? (For that reason), I am all sacrifice for those who sing Waheguru's praise. One becomes fully content when he is able to embed Waheguru's Naam in his heart; I pray to You to cast Your kind sight on me and connect me with the Guru who will connect me with You, oh my dear Waheguru. 7.

If a devotee uses his body as the paper, his heart as the inkpot, and his tongue (Waheguru's praise) as the pen to write His Naam on his mind, he writes Waheguru's virtues (praise) by pondering on Guru's Shabad (enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart). Those writers are worthy of my respect who write Waheguru's Naam on their heart (embed the Naam in their heart), oh Nanak. 8.3.

Word Meaning: Goon Daatau = source of virtues. Nirmulou = pure; holy. Upraadhi = guilty; having bad qualities. Nirgoonay = with no virtues. Tay = from. 1.
Pakhundiya = hypocrite. Visaykh = special; approved by God. Pause.
Chuturaayee = over-cleverness. Put(i) = respect. Smoyay = stay absorbed. 2.
Roorrau = beautiful (Waheguru). Laal Chulool = deep red colour (deep bonding with Waheguru. Bairaagiyaiy = feels deep love. Abhool(u) = infallible. 3.
MEANING: You are the source of all noble qualities, and are perfectly pure, but our minds are not pure, oh my dear Waheguru. We are guilty of having bad qualities, and have no good qualities; all noble qualities come from You. 1. You are the creator, and You watch (look after) Your creation, oh my dear Waheguru. I am a sinner and a hypocrite, but Your Naam in body and mind makes one very special. Pause. Man's mind is captivated by Maya and by immoral activities, and he loses all respect if he tries to be over clever. But, if a devotee gets absorbed in the Guru's Shabad, Waheguru comes to reside in his mind (enlightens him). 2. If one recites the Naam of the beautiful (kind and the provider) Waheguru, his mind gets deeply imbued in His love. If one feels deep love for Him, he sees the infallible Waheguru in every heart and every place. 3. ---------

Word Meaning: Pataaleen = in the underworlds. Giyan = Divine Knowledge. Chooka = eradicated. Goomaan(u) = conceit. 4. Kaayaan = body. Maanjiyaiy = clean by rubbing well. Bhee = again. Rus(i) = enjoying the sweetness. Nirmul = clean; pure; pious. 5. Devi Deva = idols (of gods and goddesses). Paahun(u) = stone. Neer(i) = in water. Pukhaaliyaiy = give bath. Booday = sinks. Tayh(i) = those. 6. Alukh = invisible (God). Lukhiyaiy = see. Jug(u) = world. Put(i) = respect. Vudaayiyaan = honours. Bhaavaiy = likes. 7.
MEANING: You are present in the underworlds, in the sky, and in every heart in the form of noble qualities and as Divine Knowledge (Your Naam). When one connects with the Guru, he feels blissful, realizing Waheguru in his heart, and his conceit and ego disappear. 4. People wash and cleanse their bodies by rubbing them well in water, but they get dirty again; but if a man takes a dip in the greatly sweet taste of Waheguru's Naam, his mind and body both become pure (he does noble deeds with both). 5. What can I ask for, and what can an idol (of a god or goddess) give me if I worship one? If we wash a stone in water, it still sinks in there (so how can a stone idol salvage one? 6.
(Because of such misgivings), The world is drowning in the world-sea and losing its respect; we cannot see (comprehend) the invisible Waheguru without the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru controls all honours and accords respect to those whom He likes. 7.

Word Meaning: Buyyiur = woman; humans. Meethulee = sweetly; with affection. Saach Kuhaiy = recites Waheguru's (Naam). Pir = husband; Lord. Bhaayay = is liked by. Birhaiy Baydhi = pierced with the pain of separation. Vussi = stays absorbed. Adhik = much. Naayay = Naam(u). 8. Soojaan(u) = know-all; omniscient Waheguru. Beedhaiy = pierced at heart. Oobray = salvaged. Neeshaan = identification (for Waheguru's Court). 9. Eendhun(u) = firewood. Adhik = much; large amount. Sukayliyaiy = gather. Paavuk = fire. Runchuk = very small amount. Khin(u) Pul(u) = a short moment. Milun = union. Soobhaayay = without any special effort. 10.

MEANING: If a human being talks sweetly (politely and affectionately), and recites Waheguru's Naam, he is liked by Him. If a man, who is deeply in love with Waheguru's Naam, feels acute pain of His separation, he stays fully absorbed in His Naam (becomes "one" with Him). 8. Everybody calls (claims) Waheguru to be his, but one can comprehend the omniscient Waheguru (make a connection with Him) only in the shelter of the Guru. Those whose hearts are pierced with the love for Waheguru get salvaged, as Guru's Shabad becomes their eternal identification. 9. If we gather huge heaps of firewood, they can all be burned down by a very small amount of fire; similarly, all one's sins can be destroyed by Waheguru's Naam, even if it appears for a very short time in his heart, and he gets united with Him without any special effort on his part, oh Nanak. 10.4.

Word Meaning: Bhugtaan Dee = (the honour) of the devotees. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning; ever since. Henaakhush = a demon king. Prehlad = his son, who was a staunch devotee of Waheguru, and whom his father tried to kill. Puchaaya = destroyed. Purteet(i) = full faith. Bherm Bhoolaaya = misguided in misgivings. 1. Vudiyaayee = greatness. Paiyj = dignity. Pause. Joh(i) = keep a watch. Kaal(u) = (spiritual) death. Kayvul = only. Mookt(i) = emancipation. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Churni Laageen = live at the feet; are slaves. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = love and blessings. 2.
Sooaaou = objective; interest. Bhaydiyo = pierced. Bhaaou = love. Koorr(u) = lies; falsehood. Kupt = deceitfulness. Paaj(u) = covering; mask. Leh(i) Jaasi = comes off. Pheeka Alaou = talk impolitely; vilify saintly people. 3.

MEANING: You have been protecting the dignity of Your devotees ever since, oh Waheguru. You protected Your devotees like Prehlad while killing and destroying the evil, like Hernakhsh, his father. Guru's Sikhs have full faith in You, while the money-engrossed individuals are misled by their own misgivings. 1. It is Your greatness that You protect the dignity of Your devotees who stay in Your shelter, oh Lord. Pause.
The Angel of (spiritual) death dare not keep an evil eye on Your devotees, and (spiritual) death cannot even go near them (has no effect on them). They have only Waheguru's Naam (enshrined) in their heart because of which they achieve emancipation. With love for the Guru in their heart, and with His blessings, supernatural powers are naturally the slaves of Your devotees, oh Waheguru. 2. The money-engrossed people have greed as their main interest in mind, so they do not foster any faith in You. Unlike the Sikhs of the Guru, their minds are not pierced with His Shabad, and they develop no love for Waheguru's Naam. The cover of their falsehood and deceit comes off when they talk impolitely, or vilify the saintly people. 3.

Achint = without any effort. Kaaj = tasks; objectives. Suvaarunhaara = fulfiller of objectives. Rees = copy; compete against. Vigoochaiy = suffer humiliation. 5.
Bhaunk = meaningless talk; speak scathingly. Mooyay = die (spiritual death). Bil-laayay = wailing. Tthaur = peace; stability. Amrit = Waheguru's Naam. Sehjay = easily. 6.

MEANING: You are visibly present in the hearts of Your devotees, and You complete all their tasks successfully, oh my Waheguru; also, You are revealed through them. The whole world is engrossed in (attached to) Maya, You (alone are above the effects of Maya) and are the carver of our fortunes. Your devotees kill their selfishness and ego, and their desires are mentally satisfied; they recognize (make a connection with) You through the Guru's Shabad. 4. Waheguru successfully completes all the tasks of His devotees who love His Naam without any special effort on their part. With the grace of the Guru, Waheguru resides in their hearts forever and completes all their tasks successfully. Waheguru protects them in every way, and whoever tries to compete against them faces humiliation. 5.

Nobody can realize Waheguru without the shelter of Satguru; the Maya-engrossed individuals talk meaninglessly and scathingly of the holy saints, but die spiritual death due to their wailing (unsuccessful complaining and vilification of others). They keep taking births and dying, and never find peace (never merge with Waheguru). They keep suffering in discomfort. (On the other hand) The Sikhs of the Guru recite the Amrit-Naam of Waheguru with love, and easily merge into Waheguru. 6.

Word Meaning: Sayvay = serving; following advice. Junum(u) = rebirths. Anayk = countless. Kerm = rituals. Adhikaayee = very much. Vaad Vukhaaneh(i) = useless discussions. Put(i) = respect. Bhuj(i) = by running; quickly. Chhooteh(i) = freedom from worldly bonds. Shernaayee = shelter. 7. Sachiyaara = pure-minded; bearer of Truth (Waheguru's Naam). Sobha = praise. Joog(i) Joog(i) = in every eon. Maytunhaara = eraser; eradicator. Oor(i) Dhaara = embedded in the heart. 8.
MEANING: One cannot get out of the circle of rebirths and deaths without serving the Guru, no matter how many rituals he performs. The Brahman studies the Vedas only to participate in useless discussions and loses his dignity (morality) without Waheguru's (Naam). Satguru is a manifestation of Waheguru, and His Shabad is eternal, so one should rush to take His shelter for salvation. 7. Those holy saints, who get Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their hearts, are approved in Waheguru's Court as being pure (who have conquered their minds). Their praise is sung in every eon, which nobody can erase (destroy). I am always a sacrifice to those who have embedded Waheguru's Naam in their heart, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Vaari = Bulihaari = offer self as sacrifice. Nidhaan = treasure. Sehj(i) = spiritual state above the effects of Maya. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru forgives the individuals with no virtues, and puts them in the service of the Guru, oh my brothers. The service to the Guru is most rewarding, leading the individual to focus on Waheguru's Naam with love. 1. Waheguru forgives, and Himself connects the individual with the Guru. We are virtue-less and are guilty of many sins, but the Perfect Guru kindly connects us with Waheguru. Pause. Waheguru forgives countless culprits (sinners) and makes them ponder on Guru's Shabad. Satguru is the ship which ferries people across the sea of Maya; Waheguru puts His devotees on this Ship to salvage them. 2. Just as the elixir stone is believed to convert base iron into gold, Satguru is an elixir stone that converts the guilty and the immoral into holy saints and connects them with Waheguru. Such holy devotees get rid of their selfishness and ego when Waheguru's Naam takes dwelling in their heart, and their souls merge with Waheguru. 3. I am always a sacrifice to my Satguru, who bestowed the treasure of Waheguru's Naam on me, with which I easily attained the spiritual state above Maya, oh Nanak. 4.

Praym Pdaaruth = the beloved (valuable) item. Aadhaar = basis. 6. Suvaareen = adorn; make successful. Kool(u) = clan; associates. 7. Bani = Guru's Shabad. Bighun(u) = hindrances. 8.

MEANING: You may ask any holy saint, and he will tell you that you cannot attain the spiritual state above Maya without taking shelter of the Guru. So, always serve the Guru to get rid of your selfishness and ego, oh my brothers. 5. One develops Waheguru's fear in mind with the Advice of the Guru; all deeds done under the fear of God are most rewarding, and one acquires his beloved Waheguru's Naam, which is the basis of life. 6.
I will drop on the feet of (serve) the holy saints who serve their Satguru as a result of which I can make my life successful (achieve union with Waheguru), and get His forgiveness for my associates as well (get them connected with Him). 7. Satguru's Shabad, His Bani, are eternal (a manifestation of Waheguru) but one can recite them only with the benevolence of the Guru. (With the recitation of Guru's Shabad), Waheguru takes dwelling in one's heart, and there is no obstacle in the way to have union with Him, oh Nanak. 8.2.

Liv = meditation. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is revealed by Guru's Shabad, but one is connected with the Shabad (embeds in the heart) only with great luck, oh my brothers. The human-bride, which enshrines Guru's Shabad in her heart, gets imbued in Waheguru's love, and is always married (connected with Him), and enjoys comfort and bliss day and night. 1. You, Yourself, dye the hearts of Your devotees with Your love, oh Waheguru. Imbued in His love, sing praise of Waheguru who dyes your hearts with His Love, oh my friends. Pause.

One should follow the Shabad (Advice) of the Guru in all daily tasks, and, by getting rid of his selfishness and ego, should focus his mind on the Shabad. By doing so, Waheguru makes the heart of His devotee a dwelling for Him, and the devotee enjoys blissfulness all the time and never suffers any discomfort. 2. The human-bride, who does not recognize (acts on) Waheguru's Will, has bad qualities, and is a very evil wife who disobeys her Husband's (Waheguru's) Will. She is guided by the desires of her mind, and without Waheguru's Naam in her mind, she is engrossed in the falsehood of Maya. 3.

MEANING: Serve the Waheguru day and night, who kills the worldly desires of all (His devotees), and gives them a new (spiritual) life, oh my brothers. Why should we forget Waheguru, who bestows us with unlimited gifts? 5. The Maya-engrossed individual has impure thinking and is indecisive (has a highly wavering mind), who gets no room (recognition) in Waheguru's Court. But a Sikh of the Guru always recites the virtues of Waheguru (sings His praise), and merges in the dear Waheguru (becomes "one" with Him). 6. What face will the individual, who does not remember Waheguru in this life, take to Waheguru's Court? Disregarding the warning cries (signals) of the religious leaders, he gets robbed of his good qualities as he gets attracted to sensual pleasures. 7.
Remember Waheguru all the time which is a great source of blissfulness, and because of which you always enjoy comfort and peace. You, too, remember Naam of Waheguru which is beyond limits and is the ocean of virtues, oh Nanak. 8.3.

MEANING: Waheguru is present in every heart (so, all of us are equal) and (being omnipresent), He sees, and listens to everything, so we should have good qualities and be very humble (polite and helpful), and get rid of any discrimination against each other, oh my brothers. The day we forget Him, we cry in repentance (die spiritual death). Waheguru is full of all powers and is omnipotent; He does things Himself, and makes others do as He wishes. 4. Love for Waheguru earns us His Naam which is the most valuable thing whereas greed for Maya leads to spiritual destruction. But, if He likes, He connects individuals with Him, and His Naam takes dwelling in their heart. The heart of the devotees of the Guru gets enlightened, and blooms like a lotus flower. Waheguru's grandeur brightens one's mind whereby the ground of his heart, and the sky of his mind bloom with inner joy. 5. The Perfect Guru bestows contentment to His devotee who stays imbued in His love day and night. The devotee recites Waheguru's Naam with the tongue the taste of which never dies. He lives by listening to Waheguru's Naam with the ears, and attains the immortal status (merges with Waheguru). The soul, which does not bring faith on Waheguru, burns in the fire of desires. 6.

MEANING: My Lord has countless noble qualities, and I am always a sacrifice for Him. He raises even the ones who have no good quality at all, and provides shelter to the shelter-less. He delivers food and other necessities of life to all with their every breath (always) and His Naam immortalizes them. Perfectly lucky is the individual who gets connected with the Guru. 7. I cannot live even for a short moment without Waheguru which has full control on all powers. Do not forget Him even for the time it takes to breathe, or to take a bite; always feel Him around you, oh man. One can connect with Him in the company of the Guru (or holy saints) when you find Him present everywhere. Those, who do not foster any love for Him, cry in repentance (die spiritual death) all the time. 8. The world is a sea of discomforts (rooted in the unfulfilled desires), but Waheguru ferries people across the sea by providing them the shelter (of the Guru). He blesses people with His kind sight, and does them limitless favours. With Waheguru's Naam as the food for the soul, one's mind and body attain peace (contentment), oh brothers. Word Meaning: Gerbh = womb. Bikh(u) = attractions of Maya. Pusreeya = began to affect. Kerm(u) = munificence. Aaraadhay = worships. 1. Tayk = support. Uver(u) = other. Kernhaar(u) = creator. Untarjaami = omnipotent. Pause.

Putisutiya = stayed. Soag(u) = grief; sadness. Bhog Bhoonchaayay = by feeding. Bhoolaayayun(u) = misguided. Vijoag(u) = (pain of) separation. Oodhaariya = salvaged. Dhooray = right from the source (Waheguru). Sunjoag(u) = union. 3.

MEANING: Mother's womb is a kind of sea of discomforts (the fetus is caged in a small place at an unbearable temperature), but Waheguru keeps him safe thereby making him recite His Naam. But, as soon as the baby comes out of the womb, he is surrounded by the attractions of Maya, and begins to love them. But Waheguru connects the individual whom He is kind to with the Guru (to protect him from the evil effects of Maya). That individual focuses his mind on Waheguru, and recites His Naam with every breath. 1. My mind and my body survive with Your support, oh dear Waheguru. You are omniscient, and the only Creator and there is none other, oh Waheguru. Pause. I have travelled, and suffered through countless lives. One receives huge punishments when he forgets the True Lord. But those, who get connected with the Perfect Satguru start to recite Waheguru's Naam. Many others also find salvation because of them (motivated by them) by seeking shelter of Waheguru. 2. People find sensual pleasures to be temporarily sweet (enjoyable), but their results are bitter, and stay with them for ever because of which, not only they get sick physically, but also suffer mental ailments causing them grief. By feeding (providing) them such harmful luxuries, Waheguru misleads them because of which they are unable to remove (end) their separation from Waheguru. But those, who have union with Waheguru prewritten in their fate right from the beginning, are connected with the Guru, and are salvaged. 3.

Hoandi Vust(u) = the thing which is present (Waheguru, which is always with them). Jaatiya = recognized. Koorr(u) = falsehood; worldly possessions. Smaal(i) = remember. 6.
MEANING: Engrossed in the greed of Maya, the man does not remember Waheguru at all. Those, who forget the Lord, Waheguru, become spiritually worthless like dust. They cry a lot for help, but their suffering does not go away. But, those, who are adorned with noble qualities in the shelter of Satguru save their original (basic) purity (from the birth). 4.
As far as possible, one should avoid the company of the Maya-engrossed people. Those, in whose company one forgets Waheguru, leave this world with their faces blackened (disgraced because of their sins and crimes). The followers of their mind get no shelter (support from any one) in Waheguru's Court, and receive punishment. But those, who are adorned with noble qualities by Satguru, are approved as completely successful in Waheguru's Court. 5. None of the efforts to control one's senses (with the obstinacy of mind), and none of the thousands of shrewd-nesses accompany the man after death. Those, who turn their faces away from Waheguru (are non-believers in Him) bring discredit to their clan (sect of faith). They do not recognize Waheguru which resides in their heart all the time, but miss the worldly belongings none of which accompanies them. But, those, who get connected with Satguru, keep Waheguru's Naam in their mind (which accompanies them to the next world. 6.

MEANING: One acquires high moral character, contentment, connection with Waheguru, and the ability of deep concentration when Waheguru casts His kind sight on him. He recites Waheguru's Naam, and sings His praise day and night; his mind-pool is always imbued with Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. They swim across the world sea, which is the source of all discomfort (due to our unfulfilled desires), to go to the other side. Waheguru connects those with Him whom He likes, and they are always pure and pious everywhere. 7.

The kind Waheguru is omnipotent, omnipresent, and the source of enlightenment; His devotees take pride in Him and draw their strength from Him. Drop on the Feet (take their shelter) of the omniscient Waheguru, who knows everything, oh my dear. Such devotees make this world and the next successful for them as they have the identity certification on their forehead (granted by Waheguru). Such Waheguru should never be forgotten; I am always a sacrifice for Him, oh Nanak. 8.2.

Word Meaning: Nivul Bhooyungum = different exercises of yoga. Saadhay = performed. Punch Junaa = the five demons. Sung(u) = company. Adhik = more. Ahunboodh(i) = the wisdom (thinking) enhancing ego. Baandhay = trapped in. 1. Inn Bidh(i) = by these means. Kerm = rituals. Haar(i) = having exhausted all options. Boodh(i) Bibayka = the wisdom to distinguish. Pause. Moan = stayed mute. Kerpaati = make food with one's own hands. Tut = banks of holy rivers. Dherni Bhermiyo = roamed around on land. Doobidha = doubts. 2. Kaamna = wish. Gaiyvur = best elephants. Dataara = donor. Unn = food. Bhoom(i) = land. Urpay = offered. 4.
MEANING: Some people read religious books and ponder on the Vedas, while some others perform different Yogic exercises with the belief to cleanse their bodies internally, but they cannot get rid of the five demons; rather, they get more strongly bonded to Maya because all these rituals enhance their ego. 1. I have also performed countless such rituals (just to test), but found out that one cannot get connected with Waheguru by any of such means, oh my dear friends. Having exhausted all such means to connect with God, I finally took the shelter of the Lord, requesting Him to grant me the wisdom to distinguish between the good and the bad. Pause. Many people remain mute for long periods, cook their own food, and wander around naked in the forests. They stay on the banks of holy rivers, visit holy places, and roam around on the land, but cannot get rid of their doubts or indecisiveness. 2. They have a wish to settle down at some holy place, or have their head severed by the special saw in Banaras (now Varanasi), but they cannot get rid of the filth of their mind by any such means, even if they perform millions of such efforts. 3. Some people give away gold, their wives, best horses, best elephants, or many other pricy things in donations, including food items, clothes, and land, with the expectation to achieve union with Waheguru, but they cannot find the door to His Residence. 4.

Word Meaning: Pooja = worshipping a deity. Urcha = offering flowers, etc. Bundun = pray with folded hands and by bowing. Dundaut = lie down flat and pray. Khut(u) Kerma = the six designated duties for Brahmans (perform yugs and make others do the same; receive education and teach others, give and receive donations). Huoun, huoun = me and mine; ego. Joogta = technique; means. 5. Aasun Chauraaeeh = the 84 sitting positions for meditation. Aarja = span of life. 6. Leela = different ways of entertainment. Ruchna = royal show off. Afaara = which no one can refuse to obey. Sayj = bed. Chundun = sandalwood. Choaa = essence of flowers; colognes. Ghor = frightening. 7. Sir(i) KermunKay Kerma = the supreme among all the deeds. Bhuyyo Praaput(i) = acquires. Poorb Likhay = prewritten. 8.
Maata = intoxicated. Dookh-Bhunjun = destroyer of all suffering. Keertun(i) = in praise (of Waheguru). Raata = imbued. Second Pause

MEANING: Many people worship their deities, offer flowers, incense, etc. to them, bow before them, and even lie flat, and pray before them with folded hands, and perform the six accepted deeds. (But, never get rid of their haumein by any such means), and spend their life in selfishness and ego, which bind them even more tightly with Maya. They cannot connect with God by any of such means. 5. Many others grow tired of practising the 84 Yoga positions for meditation without any spiritual gain. They may be able to prolong their life spans by such means, but keep taking births again and again; they cannot achieve union with God. 6. The rulers (rajahs) use many different sources for entertainment, display their luxurious ways of enjoying royal life, and issue orders which no one can disobey; they have beautiful and comfortable beds, and spray the essences of sandalwood and of many flowers on their bodies, but all these luxuries become the source of frightening hell in future. 7. The supreme of all deeds is to sing praise of Waheguru in the company of the Guru (or holy saints); but only those get to do this holy deed who have it prewritten in their fortune by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8. Your devotee is intoxicated in the love of

Your Naam, oh kind to the humble, Waheguru. With the benevolence of the destroyer of all suffering, Waheguru, the devotee is always imbued with the love of His praise.

Jay Pir bhaavaiy Nanaka, kerm munee subh(u) Sach(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Soohavni = comforting; source of bliss. Dundeen = on the teeth (to backbite). Maiyl(u) Na = no filth (of eating food earned by unfair means). Kut(u) Mun(i) = knife in mind (plans to suck the blood of others). Jeebhaiy = on the tongue. Sasooraiy = the home of the in-laws; husband's home (Waheguru's Residence); the next world. Payiyaiy = parents' house; this world. Bhaiy = God's fear. Nisung = without any shame in society. Purhur(i) = by removing. Kuppurr(u) = garb; hypocrisy. Raavaiy = enjoy. Sung(u) = company. Sheengaari = adorned (with noble qualities). Putung(u) = minuscule. Dayvur Jaytth = demons like lust. Sussoo = mother-in-law (Maya). Kerm Munee = the honour because of good fortune. 1.

MEANING: The lyrics in Soritth Raag are always a source of bliss, provided Waheguru is at the heart of the writer and of the singer, and they do not have the filth of backbiting others, have no plans to suck the blood of others (rob them of their hard-earned money), and they have Waheguru's Naam on their tongue. Such devotees make their lives in this and the next world pleasant by serving Satguru without feeling any shame in society (where everyone was expected to worship idols and perform the accepted rituals). If a devotee connects with Waheguru by giving up show-off and hypocrisy, she enjoys union with Waheguru-husband. She is always embellished with Waheguru's Naam at her heart, and never gets even a speck of any filth of immorality. All the five demons get destroyed (become ineffective) for such devotees, and they lose all fear of the attacks of Maya. With Waheguru's approval, such devotees become highly fortunate, and are honoured by Him. They also see Waheguru everywhere. 1.

Word Meaning: Taam(i) = only then. Ja = when. Dhundholay = searches for; includes. Munaavaiy = celebrate; show reverence. Praym(i) Kusaayee = attracted by love. Rutti = imbued. Choalay = dress; body. Toalay = search for. Drirraaya = reinforced. Anut na Kaahoo = nowhere else. Doalay = weakening or wavering of the mind. Gol Goalay = slave of slaves.
MEANING: Lyrics in Soritth Raag(u) (which is a very popular raag) are comforting (blissful) only if they include Waheguru's praise in them, and only if the singer shows reverence for the Guru and sings Waheguru's praise with His advice. Attracted by Waheguru's love, such a human-bride stays imbued in His love day and night, and dyes her body and mind with His love. I have searched everywhere, but there is no one like Waheguru in the entire world. My Guru, my Satguru, has reiterated Waheguru's Naam in my heart, and now my mind does not weaken (waver) for anything else. I am a strong devotee of Waheguru, and am a slave of slaves of my Satguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sist(i) = world. Kerta = Sirjunhaar(u) = creator (God). Khayl(u) = drama (of life). Suvaariya = beautified. Bhogunhaara = one who enjoys the gifts. Shabad = Huqam; Will; Commandment. Oopaavunhaar = creator. 1.
MEANING: You are the creator of the whole world, oh Waheguru. Having created the drama of the world, You have beautified it (made it attractive and provided all the right conditions for living beings), oh Waheguru. You, Yourself, are the creator, and also the one to enjoy it (by being present in all living beings). It is all Your Huqam (Laws) that govern the world. I always sing Your praise in the shelter of the Guru for whom I am always a sacrifice. 1.

Word Meaning: Haumein = selfishness and ego. Jultay = burn; suffer. Bherm(i) aayay = misguided. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Punnaiy Paayay = providing shelter. Soobhaayay = with love. Ruttay = imbued. Seetul = calm; peaceful. Kmaayay = perform deeds.
MEANING: Those who are misguided by their love for Maya suffer in their selfishness and ego, and experience spiritual death. However, the Perfect Guru salvages them by providing His shelter. One can see the suffering of the world (because of their unfulfilled worldly desires) by pondering on the Guru's Shabad with love and respect for Him. Those who are imbued with the love for the Guru's Shabad attain peace of mind and perform only those deeds based on honesty and leading to union with Waheguru. 1.

Word Meaning: Sufliyo = granting success; fulfiller of all wishes. Dhunn(u) = praiseworthy. Pervaan(u) = approved. Soojaan(u) = wise. Oodhaaray = gets salvation for. 2.

MEANING: Those who serve Satguru, which is capable of fulfilling all one's wishes, are praiseworthy and are approved by Waheguru. Those who never forget Waheguru, whether living in the world or even after their death, are the real wise people. Such a devotee is approved by Waheguru and grants salvation to his associates (by exhorting them to enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their hearts). Satguru's Sikhs are always approved by Waheguru - when they live in the world, and even after their death (because they merge with Waheguru after death) – whereas the Maya-engrossed individuals keep taking births and dying. The Gur Sikhs, who stay absorbed in the Guru's Shabad, are not called dead even after their death (because connected with Waheguru, they are always alive). 2.

Word Meaning: Nirunjun(u) = above the effects of Maya (God). Smaayiyaiy = get absorbed. Vuddi Kaar = most worthy deed. Golla = Laala = slave. Foormaayiyaiy = a respectful way to say "tell;" issue order. Kmaavaan = perform. 2.

MEANING: The man should serve Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, and recite His Naam in the company of the Guru (or the holy saints) so as to get absorbed in His Naam. Reciting Your Naam is the most worthy deed to perform, oh Waheguru. I am a big fool (highly ignorant), so kindly guide me (give me the ability) to recite Your Naam. I am Your slave, so command me to do anything in Your service. I wish to perform only those deeds which the Guru wishes me to do, oh Waheguru. 2.

oobhay saas. Munmukhaan nu ko na viss-hee, chook(i) guyya vaysaas(u). Nanak, Gurmukhaan nu sookh(u) ugla, jinha untar(i) Naam nivaas(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten (by Waheguru). Kmaavna = perform deeds. Tthugauli = a plant which causes temporary unconsciousness when smelt. Robbers use this plant to rob people. Goontaas(u) = treasures of virtues (God). Mut(u) Jaanhou = do not think. Ghunaa = immense. Klutt(u) = wife. Mooh Kaala = insult; disgraced. Oobhay Saas = to sob. Viss-hee = to trust. Chook(i) Guyya = lost. Vaysaas(u) = trust. Ugla = very much. 1.

MEANING: We have to follow the line of actions (thinking) which Waheguru has prewritten in our fates. He has created deceitful Maya, which captivates us and overpowers our minds, thereby deteriorating our judgment, like the plant which causes temporary unconsciousness, as a result of which we forget the source of all virtues, Waheguru. So, do not think that the world is (spiritually) alive; it is dead in its love for Maya. Those who do not recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru cannot get to sit near Waheguru (get connected with Him). None of the sons or the wife accompanies anyone after death, and they suffer alone immensely. They get disgraced among the people, and sob (bear the pain inwardly). Nobody trusts them, as they have lost their trust. On the other hand, the followers of the Guru enjoy blissfulness because they have Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their hearts, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Saiyn = Sujjun = friends. J(i) = if. Gurmukh(i) = Sikhs of the Guru. Soobhaayay = with affection. Bhaana = Will; Command. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for Maya. Vaykaar = immoral acts. Sooaarthi = selfish. Kaaruj(u) Suvaar(i) = achieve objective. Maytuhnaar(u) = obliterator. 2.

MEANING: Only those are your friends (well-wishers) who get connected with you in the company of the Guru with affection for Him, oh man. They obey the Will of the Guru, day and night, and stay absorbed in Waheguru. Those who love Maya are conceited and think of sensual pleasures. They cannot be considered your real friends. The Maya-engrossed people are always selfish and cannot achieve the real objective of life (union with Waheguru). But nobody can be fully blamed because one has to perform the deeds of the nature which has been prewritten by Waheguru for him, and no one can obliterate that, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Khayl(u) = the world drama. Traiy Goon = the three effects of Maya (see the Introduction). Laykha = account (of deeds). Aavaiy Jaaya = is born and dies. Ghoomaaya = offer to be sacrificed. 3.
MEANING: Having created the world, You have also created the drama of life, oh Waheguru. You created the three effects of Maya, and instilled love for it in the minds of the living beings. But You also demand the account of the deeds performed by living beings under their selfishness and ego as a result of which they keep taking births and dying. Those, whom You are kind to, are advised by the Guru (to recite Your Naam), oh Waheguru. I am always ready to make a sacrifice for my Guru. 3.

Word Meaning: Mumta = deep attachment. Mohini = captivating. Duntaan = teeth. Khaadhay = consumed (robbed of spirituality). Oobray = floated; survived; salvaged. Kumla = senseless; confused. Dhundha = routine business. Nihful = unsuccessful. Sookhdaata = the source of all comforts (God). Dhoor(i) = by God.
MEANING: Maya is highly captivating, and attachment to it is like a demon that eats the world without teeth (robs the world of its spirituality). The Maya- engrossed people are consumed (controlled) by it, while the followers of the Guru, who keep Waheguru's Naam in mind, are salvaged. Without Waheguru's Naam, the world wanders (does its business) in confusion (they cannot distinguish between good and bad), while the followers of the Guru can see the reality clearly. The Maya-engrossed people do not embed the source of all bliss, Waheguru, in their mind, and waste away their precious human life in worldly affairs. Only those lucky people get to implant Waheguru's Naam in their minds who have this gift written in their fortune by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ghur = heart. Amrit(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Bhurpoor = overflowing. Saad(u) = taste. Kustoori Mirg = musk deer Bhermda = wanders in search of musk. Bherm(i) = in doubt. Bhoolaaya = misguided. Tuj(u) = abandoning. Bikh(u) = sensual pleasures. Sungruhaiy = amasses. Khooaaya = misled. Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. Braham = Waheguru. Seetul = peaceful. Bauraana = crazy. Birtha = without any gain; worthlessly. 2.

MEANING: Even though the Amrit (Waheguru's Naam) is filling everybody's heart, yet the Maya-engrossed individuals do not enjoy its taste; they are like the male musk deer whose glands produce musk without him realizing it, and misled by its doubts (unsure of the source of the pleasant smell), he wanders around in search of the smell. Abandoning the priceless Naam-Amrit, such an individual amasses the burden of temporary enjoyment of sensual pleasures. But we cannot blame them, as Waheguru Himself has misguided them. Some rare individuals get enlightened in the shelter of the Guru, and they are shown Waheguru in their hearts. Their body and mind become peaceful, and they enjoy the sweet taste of Waheguru's Naam with their tongue. Waheguru's Naam sprouts in one's heart through Guru's Shabad, and it is through the Shabad that one connects with Waheguru. Without Guru's Shabad, the whole world is insane, and wastes away the precious human life worthlessly. Satguru's Shabad is the only Amrit, which one realizes in Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Agumm(u) = inaccessible; beyond reach. Bidh(i) = means. Roop(i) Na Raykh = no physical features. Adrisht(u) = invisible. Nirunkar = formless. Nirunjun = above the effects of Maya. Boojhaayay = gives the understanding. Maag(i) = on the path (to unite with Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is inaccessible, so what means can one use to reach Him (connect with Him)? He has no physical features and is invisible, so how can one remember (or worship) Him? Waheguru is formless, is above the effects of Maya, and is inaccessible, so what words should one use to sing His praise? He shows the path to connect with Him to those whom He gives the understanding (enlightens them). The Perfect Guru shows that path, and one can realize God by serving the Guru. 4.

Word Meaning: Kohloo = oil-seeds crushing mill. Peerriyaiy = crush. Rutt(u) = blood. Bhori = very small amount; a droplet. Jeeou = life; body. Vunjaiy = go; become. Chaukhunniyaiy = cut into four pieces. Sundrraiy = with. Nayh(u) = love. Mayl(u) = union. Chookyee = removed; interrupted. Dayh = day. 1.

MEANING: Like the oil-seeds, which when crushed in the crushing mill to the extent that even the las droplet of oil is squeezed out, a supreme devotee of Waheguru is willing gladly to cut his body into small pieces so that not even a drop of blood is left in there in the love of his Waheguru (he dedicates his body to the service of Waheguru so much so that not a Word Meaning: Sujjun = friend (Waheguru). Rungula = dyer. Majeetthaiy = with deep red colour. Bhee = still. Paheh(i) = primer. Biya = other. Kayh = any. 2.

MEANING: When a fabric is to be dyed with the deep red colour, it has to suffer because it has to be primed by boiling it in water containing alum (or something similar) before it is dyed. Similarly, my friend Waheguru is a dyer who dyes his devotees' minds with His love in return when they surrender their minds to Him (lose all their ego and selfishness, which may seem like a punishment at first). Such a deep colour of love for Waheguru never fades away, nor does it take on some other colour (does not fall in love with Maya), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Hur(i) = Waheguru. Vertaiy = operates. Bolaayaynda = makes the living beings talk (recite His Naam). Suvaar(i) = make attractive (with Maya). Dhundhaiy = puts them in business. Ikkna = some. Khooaayaynda = misleads. Maarug(i) Paayay = guides on the path of righteousness. Oojhurr(i) = wilderness; confusion. 5.

MEANING: Waheguru operates everywhere, and Himself makes some humans recite His Naam. By creating Maya, He makes the world attractive, putting people in its routine business. He makes some to worship Him, and misguides others (by leading them to love Maya). He puts some on the path of righteousness, while misguides many others to confusion. I sing praise of Waheguru, and recite His Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak(u). 5.

Word Meaning: Suful(u) = successful; rewarding. Chindiya = desired. Bundhun = strong bonds of Maya. Mookt(u) = free; liberated. Alubh(u) = rare; not easily available. Bulihaaraiy = offer to sacrifice self. 1.

MEANING: The service to Satguru is highly rewarding, provided one does it selflessly from the depths of his heart. He overcomes his ego and has all his wishes fulfilled (unites with Waheguru). He is able to break all the bonds of Maya; thus liberated, he remains absorbed in Waheguru. Waheguru's Naam is extremely difficult to acquire in this world, but one can enshrine it in their mind by taking the Guru's shelter. I am always a sacrifice to the devotees who serve their Guru, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ajit(u) = unwinnable; beyond control. Doojaiy = Maya. Vihaayay = (life) is spent. Thukkay = exhausted. Vuss(i) = under control. Kerm Kmaayay = performing rituals. Bhaykhdhaari = wearing religious garbs. Utth-sutth(i) Teeruth = the 68 Hindu holy places. Saar = situation; stage. Bherm(i) = in misgivings. Bhuou = fear (of Waheguru). Vudbhaag(i) = with great luck. Ruttay = imbued. Nirmulay = pure; pious. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = the Supreme Soul. 2.

MEANING: The mind of a Maya-engrossed individual is beyond his control, which gets attached to Maya. Such a person lacks peace of mind, even in his dreams, and spends his life in suffering. The Brahmans get exhausted by reading the Vedas in many houses, and the Sidh Yogis get tired of sitting in meditation (but both fail to control their wandering minds). Many more get exhausted by performing religious deeds, but still cannot control their mind. The followers of many other ascetic sects get exhausted by showing off their different religious garbs, and the pilgrims get tired of taking dips in the 68 holy places, yet they still fail to know the state of their minds and are lost in their misbeliefs.

With Guru's grace, His devotees develop (respectful) fear of Waheguru, and Waheguru's Naam gets embedded in their hearts with great luck. With the fear of God, their mind comes under their control, and they are able to burn away their selfishness and ego with the Guru's Shabad. Those who are imbued with the love of Waheguru are pure and are able to merge their soul with the Supreme Soul. One acquires Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and stays blessed all the time, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Bhooput(i) = Raanay = rajahs. Rung = enjoyment of luxuries. Char(i) Din = only for four days (for a short time). Kusoombh = a beautiful flower which withers away quickly. Khin = moment. Sir(i) = on the head; in account. Kaal(i) = death. Khuraa = very much. Draavna = looks frightened. Vayla = time. Huth(i) Na Aavaiy = cannot be had (called back). Puchhutaavna = repent. 6.
MEANING: The luxuries that the rajahs enjoy are very short-lived. The attractions of Maya are short-lived, like the beautiful colour of the Kusoombh flower, which fades away very quickly. The luxuries of Maya do not accompany the man at the time of his death, but the sins that the man commits to acquire such luxuries are recorded in his account. When (the Angel of) death arrests, and takes one away, he looks very frightened. He cannot recall that time back, and then repents (for his sins). 6.

Word Meaning: Mooh Phiray = turn face away. Buddhay = bonded (with Maya). Suhaah(i) = endure. Milun(u) = meet (connect with Waheguru). Sehsa = doubts; worries. Nudri = (kind) sight.
MEANING: Bonded with Maya, those who turn their faces away from Satguru endure huge suffering. They take births, and die again, and again, but never get united with Waheguru. They never get free from their misbeliefs and worldly worries, and suffer continuously in discomfort. But, with His kind sight, Waheguru connects them with Him by implanting Guru's Shabad in their mind. 1.

Word Meaning: Tthaur = peace. Tthaoun = shelter. Chhootturr(i) = condemned (divorced) wife. Doohchaarun(i) = immoral. Budnaoun = bad name; infamous. Bukhshiyeh(i) = with the kindness of. 2.
MEANING: The Maya-engrossed man who turns his face away from Satguru does not find any peace or (spiritual) shelter. Like a divorced woman who becomes immoral, and goes from door to door in her lust, yet never gets satisfaction, and earns a bad name, a Maya-engrossed man goes from one business to another, but never gets satisfaction. But those who take Guru's shelter are connected to Waheguru through Guru's grace (and become fully contented). 2.

MEANING: The devotee, who serves the eternal Waheguru (obeys His Will), swims across the sea of Maya safely. The Angel of (spiritual) death leaves the devotees alone who recite Waheguru's Naam; actually, such devotees are given the robe of honour in Waheguru's Court. But only those men serve Waheguru whom He is kind to. They sing His praise all the time, and get rid of their misgivings and worldly fears in the shelter of the Guru. 7.

Nanak, jis(u) boojhaayay su boojhsi, Hur(i) paaya Gurmukh(i) ghaal(i). 1.
Word Meaning: Thaalaiy = Gurbani as a platter (to serve spiritual food). Taiy Vustoo = three (invaluable) things. Bhojun = food. Saar(u) = supreme. Triptiyaiy = is contented. Moakh Dooaar(u) = the door of salvation. Alubh(u) = rare; extremely difficult to acquire. Moondaavni = (the thought of the) riddle. Oor(i) Dhaar(i) = enshrine in the heart. Luddhi = found out; solved. Bhaal(i) = by searching. Boojhaayay = enlightens. Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. Ghaal(i) = with hard labour. 1.
NOTE: Moondaavni means a riddle in Potthohaari (a dialect of Punjabi spoken in north-western Punjab (now in Pakistan) (Bhai Veer Singh Ji). Satguru Amar Dass Ji does mention three valuable foods in this holy Shabad, but He does not name them, and asks His Sikhs to identify those products with Guru's advice. For this reason, the holy Shabad is a riddle. The Fifth Guru, Guru Arjun Sahib, solves this riddle for the Sikhs in the form of a holy Shabad titled "Moondaavni," which is enshrined at the end of Guru Granth Sahib. Now enjoy the holy Shabad.
MEANING: The platter of Gurbani contains three highly valuable things which serve as the supreme Amrit-like spiritual food to the devotees to connect them with Waheguru. When one consumes this food, they are spiritually fully content and reach the door of emancipation. This food is extremely difficult to obtain and can only be had with the Guru's advice, oh holy saints. We should not forget the essence of this riddle, and must keep its thought in mind all the time. This riddle has been put to the Sikhs, who will find its solution by searching for it (in the Gurbani). The devotee, who is enlightened by the Guru, will find the solution, and will get connected with Waheguru with hard labour, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Dhoor(i) = by Waheguru. Chit(u) Laayay = with dedication. Khooaayay = misguided. Kerma = luck. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. 2.
MEANING: Only those who are predestined to stay connected with Waheguru do so; Waheguru enables them to apply their mind to the Shabad of Satguru. Likewise, those stay disconnected with Him whom Waheguru keeps away from Him; they are misguided in the love for Maya. One cannot acquire anything spiritual without good fortune; everybody performs exactly the way he is preprogrammed for, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: the devotee friends, who have been enabled by Waheguru (to sing His praise), get together and sing His praise. They recite Waheguru's Naam day and night, and will gladly offer their life for Waheguru (make any sacrifice). I am a sacrifice for all those who listen to Waheguru's Naam and act on it. Word Meaning: Bhermday = lost in misgivings. Toata = shortage; loss in spirituality. Undh(u) = blind; blinding. Goobaar(u) = darkness. 1.
MEANING: Without Waheguru's Naam, everybody is lost (confused) in their misgivings, and suffers loss in spirituality all the time in the world. They perform deeds rooted in Maya, and spend their lives in the deep darkness of selfishness and ego. But the followers of the Guru drink (take in) the Naam-Amrit by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. 1.

MEANING: The followers of the Guru sing praise of Waheguru day and night, as a result of which they stay blissful whether they are awake or asleep. On the other hand, the followers of their mind (Maya-engrossed) are lost in their misgivings; they have worries of many kinds, and cannot sleep well. The enlightened devotees enjoy bliss in Waheguru's love whether they are awake or asleep. I am a sacrifice for those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam. 2.

Word Meaning: Ruttiya = imbued. Satya = eternal. Ootputiya = came into being; illuminated. Sut(i) Ghuttiya = thrown away; got rid of. 9.

MEANING: Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam recite His Naam. They worship only the Supreme Being (Waheguru), the only eternal power. Waheguru alone operates everywhere, and He is the only one who is self-illuminated. Those who recite His Naam become fearless. Waheguru Himself guides them to worship Him in the shelter of the Guru.9.

Word Meaning: Giyan(u) = Divine Knowledge; awareness. Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. Dittha = seeing. Puchhaaniyaiy = understand; act on. 1.

MEANING: The man does not acquire any Divine Knowledge (does not connect with the Guru) by which he may get enlightenment. Because Waheguru is invisible, the blind man follows blind faith (and worships idols). But, if he realizes Guru's Shabad (and acts on it), Waheguru's Naam will be implanted in his heart, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Sacha = everlasting; which accompanies. Sauda = merchandize. Hutt(u) = shop. Ruttani = jewel-like, highly valuable, Wahweguru's Naam. Bhundaar = warehouses (treasures). Dayvunhaar(u) = the Provider (God). Laabh = profit. Khuttiya = earned. Appar(u) = unlimited; invaluable. Vikh(u) = poison; Maya. Amrit(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Kerm(i) = with good luck. Dhunn(u) = great; praiseworthy. Suvaarunhaar(u) = which causes success. 2.

MEANING: Because there is only one Supreme Being, there is only one way to acquire Him, and that is to ponder on the Guru's Shabad and sing His praise using Gurbani (the Guru's holy compositions). Gurbani is the eternal store (source) which carries the eternal merchandize (of Waheguru's Naam) and the treasures of which are full of jewel-like, extremely valuable Shabads in Waheguru's praise. Such merchandize (Waheguru's Naam) can be acquired only by the grace of the Guru if Waheguru is kind to the individuals. This merchandize is always profitable (spiritually) and lasts forever when one earns (acquires) the Naam of Waheguru, which is beyond limits. One drinks Waheguru's life-sustaining Amrit-Naam only with great luck when Waheguru appears in the heart of the devotee, even when he is living in the world of poisonous Maya. One must sing praise of the Great Waheguru, which causes all success for His devotees (enables them to achieve their objective), oh Nanak. 2.

If someone tells them the truth, they get burned up (with hatred for them). Like the crow, which gets satisfied by eating filth, the dealers in falsehood feel contentment only with the filth of falsehood. But, those, whom Waheguru is kind to, recite His Naam. The dealers in falsehood should also recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru by which all the filth of their falsehood and sins will be washed away. 10.

Word Meaning: Sheikha = oh, learned Muslim friend. Chuouchookiya = incited by others. Chuouvaayay = the one who has no wisdom and who talks the language of others. Ikutt(u) Ghur(u) Aan(i) = control your mind to focus on one thing (keep it from wandering). Ehurr Tehurr = mine and yours; discrimination. Puchhan(u) = contemplate. Dheh(i) Puou = drop before; surrender. Jaan(u) = know-all. Aasa Munsa = hopes and desires. Mehmaan(u) = visitor. Bhaanaiy = by (His) will. Bhee = also. J(i) = those. Chaytni = remember. MEANING: You are incited by others, and speak their language, oh my learned Muslim friend. Control your mind and bring it to focus on one thing only (Allah's Naam). Quit discriminating between people as your friends or foes, and contemplate on the Guru's Shabad. Surrender to the Guru; being the know-all, He knows everything about you. Consider yourself only a visitor on the earth, and burn away your hopes and desires (get rid of them). Also, if you spend your life according to the Will of the Satguru, you will be honoured in Waheguru's Court. Wearing rich clothes and enjoying the delicious foods of those who do not remember Waheguru is reprehensible, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Toat(i) = shortage. Ruveh(i) = recite.

MEANING: Nobody can assess the worth of Waheguru's virtues, and there is never a shortage of them, no matter how many people acquire them. The followers of the Guru keep Waheguru's virtues in mind and remain absorbed in them (never forget them), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Choali = apparel; attire. Suvaari = beautify. Kuddh(i) = embroidered. Paiyndhi = wear. Paat(u) = patches of embroidery. Adhikaayee = very much. Bidh(i) = designs. Bhaant(i) = kinds. Boojhunhaara = one who comprehends. Bibayk(u) = wisdom to differentiate. Kur(i) = by acquiring. 11.

MEANING: The human body created by Waheguru is the attire for the soul. People adorn it for wearing by embroidering it with Waheguru's worship. But people of different faiths have many different ways to beautify their attire (body) as they have many different ways of worshipping their deities. (For example, some wear symbols of their faiths, while others worship idols or undertake pilgrimages, torture them, or recite some mantras to control their deities and so on). So, human body attire has many different patches of embroidery depending on everybody's way of worship. But some rare devotees learn which attire pleases Waheguru by acquiring the wisdom to distinguish right from wrong. However, only that individual acquires this wisdom whom Waheguru enlightens Himself. But, Waheguru's slave, Nanak, simply recites the Naam of the eternal Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru. (So, according to the Gurbani, recitation of Waheguru's Naam is the only acceptable path to unite with Waheguru). 11.

Word Meaning: Purthaayay = in reference to; in connection with. Sakhi = teaching. Saanjhi = common to all. Bhuou = fear (of Waheguru). Aap(u) Puchhaanaiy = recognize self. Jeevut(u) Muraiy = kill desires. Mun Maanaiy = becomes peaceful. Purteet(i) = trust; dependence. Giyaanaiy = spiritual knowledge. 1.

MEANING: The Great Holy Souls say things in relation to (in order to deliver) some important message common to the whole world. The followers of the Guru show fear (respect) for the Message and engage in self-analysis based on it. They kill their worldly desires while living in the family and achieve peace of mind. What spiritual knowledge can those talk about who have no faith in (control over) their mind, oh Nanak?

Pullaiy Paayay = acquire; in possession. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Julut = mental agony. Vihaayay = is spent. Kook Pookaar = loud cries for help. Sunsa = doubts, worries. Vihooniya = without; devoid of. Mooh(i) Kaalaiy = disgraced. 2.
MEANING: The individuals who do not think of Waheguru in their mind in the shelter of the Guru are hit by suffering at last. They are blind inside and outside (in understanding and observation), and have no awareness of Waheguru (because they do idol worship and perform worthless rituals). But the whole world gets spiritual food because of a few of those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam, sing His praise by Guru's Shabad, and who stay absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, oh Pundit.
There is no enhancement in spirituality for the people who are engrossed in Maya, and they do not acquire any spiritual wealth (by performing rituals only), oh Pundit. They get exhausted reading the religious books to people, but get no mental contentment; their life is spent in mental agony day and night. They cannot get rid of their doubts and worries, and their cries for help never go away. Devoid of Waheguru's Naam, they leave the world in disgrace, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Connect me with the devotee friends so that I may ask them for guidance to put me on the path to union with You, oh Waheguru. I will sacrifice my life (serve him in any capacity) for the friend who will enlighten me about Waheguru. I will acquire virtuous qualities from him and recite Waheguru's Naam. I will serve the dear Waheguru all the time and attain blissfulness. I am a sacrifice to the Guru who has given me the wisdom (guidance) to connect with Waheguru. 12.

Word Meaning: Vayd = Vedas. Traiy-Goon-Maya = Maya with three effects. Mool(u) = basis. Visaar(i) = forget. Bhoollay = misled. Trishna = fire (appetite) of desires. Guvaar = foolish. Rujjay = satisfied. Oor(i) Dhaar(i) = embedded in the heart.

MEANING: You cannot wash away the filth of your mind even if you read the Vedas for all the four eons, oh Pundit. (Because) The Maya with three effects is the basis of your reading the Vedas, which rather enhances your ego; you forget Waheguru's Naam. Their love for wealth misguides the Pundits, and they make (reading and preaching of) the Vedas their business. They have a big appetite for money which is never satisfied, and the foolish die hungry (unsatisfied).

One acquires blissfulness (contentment) by serving Satguru by contemplating on His eternal Shabad. With love for Waheguru's Naam, the appetite for worldly desires in their mind is eliminated. Those, who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam, and have embedded the Naam in their heart, get naturally fully contented, oh Nanak. 1

Word Meaning: Soodh(i) = enlightenmen. Kaayee = any. Mun Hutth(i) = obstinacy of mind. Sehj(i) = in blissful state. Beejiyo = implanted. 2.

MEANING: The Maya-engrossed man does not recite Waheguru's Naam as a result of which, he suffers a lot. He has no enlightenment at all because his mind is completely darkened by ignorance. The Maya-loving people follow their mind, and do not implant the seed of blissfulness (Waheguru's Naam leading to blissfulness) in their mind; so, what spiritual food will such men hungry of Waheguru's Naam, get to eat in the next world (Waheguru's Court)? In the business of earning wealth, they forget Waheguru's Naam. But those devotees, whom Waheguru connects with the Guru (recite His Naam there), and are Word Meaning: Hustee = elephant. Ehrun(i) = an iron block on which hot iron is beaten to the desired shape. Oobhi Sayv = ever-ready to serve. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Nivaariyaiy = get rid of. Srisht(i) = world. 1.

MEANING: Like the elephant which offers its head under the ankus (to be controlled), and like a piece of hot iron which gets beaten under the hammer on a block to be moulded into a desired shape, a devotee should offer his mind and his body to the Guru, and be ever-ready to serve Him (to acquire spiritual qualities), and to get rid of his selfishness and ego. Their horses and the accessories are all holy, which are used by the Sikhs of the Guru or other holy saints for riding. All the deeds and religious tasks of those who recite the Naam of the eternal Waheguru are holy and pious. All their rituals, like recitation of some mantras, self-torturing (to please their deities), and their efforts to control their senses, are stolen (made valueless) as they are robbed of their virtues because of their love for others (Maya). Tied up at the door of the Angel of death, they are beaten up and receive huge punishments, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: Those who bear enmity with holy saints and have love for the evil people get no comfort (peace of mind) in this world or the next, and keep taking births and dying again and again. The fire of their desires is never put out, and they suffer humiliation because of their ambivalence. Such vilifiers are disgraced in the Court of Waheguru. MEANING: Those who recite Waheguru's Naam stay imbued in His love. Those who worship only the "One" Waheguru with their body and mind do not bring faith to anyone else. But only those individuals serve Waheguru who have it prewritten on their forehead. They sing Waheguru's praise all the time, and comprehend the source of virtues, Waheguru (get connected with Him). MEANING: Service to the Guru is a very tough job to do; one has to get rid of his selfishness and ego, and surrender his wisdom (mind) to the Guru. If one kills his mind (desires) by acting on the Guru's Shabad, his hard labour is recognized by God, and he never dies again spiritually (because he merges with Waheguru). The Guru is like the elixir stone, but better; the elixir stone turns a base metal into gold, but not into another elixir stone; the Guru turns His Sikhs into just like Him. So, when a Sikh enters the shelter of the Guru, he becomes pure, just like the Guru, and remains connected to Waheguru. A Sikh, who has good fortune preordained for him, connects with the Guru and Waheguru. A devotee, who serves the Guru and yet keeps account of his good deeds, and the expected rewards, never gets to connect with the Guru and the Waheguru; only that devotee gets recognition (is rewarded) to whom He is kind to, oh Nanak. 1.

Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. Aapnaiy Ghur(i) = uses His own Will. Poori Puyyee = every objective achieved. Rujaayay = Will. 2.
MEANING: In his selfishness, the foolish man does not recognize the appropriate and the inappropriate situations. He can access Waheguru's dwelling (get connected with Him) if he ponders on Guru's Shabad, and is able to merge his soul with that of Waheguru. He gets all enlightened when he implants respectful fear for Waheguru in his mind. Satguru exercises His own Will, and connects the devotee with Him when He deems right. Those holy saints are also highly fortunate who sing the praise of Waheguru and acquire the noble qualities like Him. Great are the Sikhs of the Guru who conquer their minds with His Advice. All nine mythical treasures and all 18 supernatural powers become slaves of the devotee who gets Waheguru's Naam embedded (enshrined) in his heart. One may verify it by pondering well (on Guru's Shabad) that no one can acquire Waheguru's Naam without the benevolence of Satguru. One gets connected with Satguru with great luck only, and this fact is true in any if the four eons, oh Nanak. 1.

But a Sikh of the Guru who overcomes his selfishness and ego is always blissful. He is fully content internally and never feels the appetite for worldly desires. Anything that a Sikh of the Guru, who always stays focused on Waheguru's Naam, does is always approved by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

(Sidh yogis meditate to acquire supernatural powers), But all such powers are condemnable, and all rich clothes and rich foods are worthless without Waheguru's Naam. Only that success and supernatural powers are worthy which are granted by Waheguru without any special effort on the part of the devotee. But, if they search (for Waheguru) inside them, they will acquire (realize) the basis of all life, Waheguru, and reach the door of salvation. They can realize the treasure of all virtues, Waheguru, by pondering on (Guru's Shabad) in the peaceful state of mind (with a focused mind). Great are the dealers in Waheguru's Naam who, in the shelter of the Guru, make Waheguru's Naam the basis of their life, oh Nanak. 1

MEANING: One may verify it by meditation that no one can achieve any spiritual success without first killing his desires (controlling his mind). Members of many sects have tried to control their minds by visiting numerous holy places, only to exhaust themselves without success. But a follower of the Guru, who stays connected with Waheguru in His shelter, kills his desires while living in the family. Burn away your selfishness and your ego with Guru's Shabad; this is how you wash away the filth of your mind, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Get together, and recite Waheguru's Naam repeatedly, even if it is only for a short moment, oh, the holy saints of Waheguru. Adorn your soul with Waheguru's Naam, and beautify your body by wearing clothes of forgiveness for others. My Waheguru likes such adornment of body and mind with which you win His love. Recite Waheguru's Naam day and night, whereby all your sins will be eradicated in a moment. The follower of the Guru, to whom Waheguru is kind, wins the battle against sensual desires by reciting His Naam. 21.

MEANING: The human mind accumulates filth of immorality over many, many lives as a result of which it turns dark black. It becomes like a rag drenched in grease, and it cannot be washed sparkling-clean, even if you put it in the wash hundreds of times. However, one's flipped (impure) thinking can be reverted to noble thinking if he kills his desires (controls his mind) with the munificence of the Guru. Then, one does not acquire any filth of mind and no longer goes through any life form (does not take rebirths), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Kul(i) = Kulyug (the present era). Kaali = dark age. Kaandhi = is considered. Ootum Pudvee = superior rank. Oochreh(i) = recite; chant.
MEANING: Among all the four eras – Satyug, Treta, Doaapar, and Kalyug - the last one is considered to be the dark age (worst) in terms of morality; but it still ranks superior in one thing – one gets fully rewarded for singing praise of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru if it is prewritten in his fortune by Waheguru. With the grace of the Guru, such a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam and stays absorbed in His worship day and night, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Kindly connect me with the holy saints so that I may recite Gurbani - the source of bliss - in their company, oh Waheguru. With the Advice of the Guru, I wish to sing Waheguru's praise and recite His Naam all the time so as to enjoy His love. Worship of Waheguru is a panacea that eradicates a host of illnesses. Those who do not forget Waheguru even while breathing or eating are the perfect devotees. Those Sikhs of the Guru, who worship Waheguru, achieve freedom from any Indebtedness to the world or the Angel of death (they are not accountable to any). 22.

Word Meaning: Oothaara = a disease in which the patient feels some kind of weight (pressure) on his chest; worldly pressures. Dubbbiyo = covered by; unaware. Oopjiyo = sprouted. Chaaou = zest; enthusiasm. Julou = burns. Baahra = without. Julunda = burning (in the fire of desires). Ditth(u) = saw. 1.

MEANING: Under the pressure on the mind to enjoy worldly pleasures, you have spent away your life in ignorance (towards Waheguru), oh man. Your mind did not wake up (get enlightened) on listening to Satguru's Shabad, and no enthusiasm sprouted in your mind. The body, which does not follow the Guru's Advice, burns (suffers) in the fire of worldly desires. I have seen the world burning in this fire because of their love for Maya, which is the root of selfishness and ego. Those, who have Waheguru at heart, and recite Guru's Shabad in His shelter, get salvaged, oh Nanak.

MEANING: The woman (human) who is imbued with her love for Guru's Shabad gets rid of her selfishness and ego and becomes praiseworthy. She spends her life according to the Will of Waheguru-husband, which serves as adornment for her (to please Him). Such a bride acquires Waheguru as her husband and always enjoys His company, so that the bed of her heart becomes highly blissful. Because of her love and respect for the Guru, Waheguru connects such a devotee with Him, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: The men who vilify their Guru are mean in their deeds. Please, do not give me any opportunity to have a sight of such big sinners and assassins (of good characters) of noble people, oh Waheguru. They go from door to door with an evil mind (to deceive people) and earn a bad name like an immoral woman. Word Meaning: Kaalaiy = death. Na Busaayay = without any power; helpless. Sayti = with. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = connected with. Bhaayay = as per the Will. 1.

MEANING: All comforts come into being in the heart of the devotee who serves the Guru; such a devotee never suffers any discomfort again. Births and deaths end for such a devotee, and the Angel of death becomes helpless before him. His mind remains connected to Waheguru, and he remains absorbed in Him. MEANING: One’s mind cannot be purified without the Guru’s Shabad, no matter how many religious symbols she wears to adorn her body (to please her deity). In their love for Maya, such people have no idea of the Lord's transcendence. Such devotees have an impure (deceitful) mind, have ignoble qualities, and are inhuman in the body of humans, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru loves His devotees, and He is their friend. His devotees control Him just like a musician controls his instrument. Waheguru's devotees sing His praise with deep love and pray that He kindly ask the Guru to cause the rain of His Shabad (to disseminate it) all over the world. Praise of the devotees is the praise of Waheguru. Waheguru enjoys His praise (through His devotees), so He creates conditions so that the world roars in acclamation for His devotees. The devotees, who recite Waheguru's Naam, become just like Him. I am also His slave, and pray to Him to kindly protect my dignity (from the attacks of Maya), oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: Because of our ignorance, we have low wisdom, and do not have faith in Waheguru. We harbour deceit in our minds and believe that others are deceitful as well. For that reason, the deceitful become frustrated by their efforts to achieve their sinister objectives, which fail to yield any success. We run around in our selfish interests, and never think of Satguru's Will. But, if Waheguru is kind, we get absorbed in Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: The Maya-engrossed individual is heavily influenced by his attachment to Maya, because of which he never achieves the stability (peace) of mind. They keep burning (suffering) in the fire of desires day and night, and get frustrated because they work very hard but achieve no success. Because of the deep darkness of greed in them, nobody even goes near them (deals with them). They suffer all the time and never enjoy comfort. MEANING: The devotee, who is liked by Waheguru, is approved as His saint or His devotee. Those people are wise who recite Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of Amrit, is the food for their soul. I wish to put the dust of their feet on my forehead (serve them). One gets purified by taking a dip in the holy pool of Waheguru's Naam (recited by the holy men), oh Nanak. 26.

MEANING: The followers of the Guru enjoy peace of mind and stay absorbed in Waheguru's Naam by body and by mind. They think only about Waheguru's Naam, read only the Naam, and meditate only on the Naam. They acquire the valuable Naam, whereby all their worries disappear. Waheguru's Naam takes root in the heart of the devotee, and all his appetite for desires is gone. When one gets imbued in the Naam, he acquires it (the Naam) in his heart permanently, oh Nanak. 1.

Url(u) Burl(u) = nonsensical talk; gibberish. Jhuggoo sootda = foamy-mouth; showing frustration. Kirt(u) = character; line of thoughts; fortune. Koorr(u) = lies. Na Bhaavaiy = liked by none. Uggoun Day = beforehand. 2.

MEANING: The Maya-engrossed individual, who has been condemned by Satguru, loses control of his mind as he is misled by his misgivings. His infamy spreads widely throughout the world, and he is disgraced in the next world. He talks gibberish and dies a spiritual death in frustration. But nobody can do anything to help him because his fortune has been prewritten (based on his performance in previous lives). Wherever he goes, the liar tells lies as a result of which nobody likes him. Look at the Greatness of Your Lord, oh the holy saints of Waheguru, one reaps the rewards of his deeds in Waheguru's Court! This is the type of justice in Waheguru's Court; Nanak, a slave of Waheguru, forewarns you, oh folks. 2.

MEANING: The Perfect Guru has built a shelter in the form of a holy congregation to protect His Sikhs from the attacks of Maya, and has also given guards in the form of Satguru's Shabads. When the Sikhs get imbued in the Guru's Shabad, their wishes are fulfilled. With the Guru's unlimited kindness, all their ignoble qualities are eradicated. With His benevolence, the Guru becomes their Guardian. I am always a sacrifice for the Guru who has so many noble qualities, oh Nanak. 27.

Word Meaning: Ta Kee Rujaayay = Waheguru's Will. Laykhiya Paayay = prewritten fortune. Paanday = oh, Pundit. Haasul(u) = acquire; result. Tuday = that's why. Hoyay Nibburriya = final decision. Hundheh(i) = go around. 1.

MEANING: Based on the result of your deeds in the previous lives, your fortune has already been written by Waheguru's Will, and there is nothing you can do about it now, oh pundit. One's prewritten fortune is the final decision (result) of Waheguru's Huqam (and cannot be changed); the living beings just go around performing deeds in consonance with the Huqam of the Lord. 1.

Word Meaning: Nuth = ring in the nose of cattle to control them. Kirt(u) = prewritten fortune. Dhukkay Day = pushes. Daanay = grains; food; earn a living. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru controls people's performance like an owner controls his cattle with a ring in their nose, while his prewritten fortune pushes (nudges) them. One has to earn his living at his predestined place and by predestined means; and that is the truth, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru Himself makes all the arrangements to create the universe. He creates the universe and destroys it Himself. He, Himself, creates the living beings, and raises and nourishes them. He loves and protects His devotees by holding them tightly to His neck (with love) and blesses them. The devotees burn away their love for Maya, and always stay blissful, oh Nanak. 28.

Word Meaning: Bukhsh(i) = bestows (gift); becomes benevolent. Saar = looking after. Nij = own. Ghur(i) = heart. 2.

MEANING: With His munificence, Waheguru puts His devotees to His service (makes them recite His Naam). He is the mother and the father of all, and looks after everybody. Hur(i) kay Naam(u) bin(u) kin(i) gut(i) paayee, keh(i) oopdaysh(u), Kabira. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Boott = idols. Pooj(i), Pooj(i) = worship; idolatry. Turk = the Muslims. Sir(u) Naayee = bowing the head. Oye = the Hindus. Jaaray = cremate. Gaaday = bury. Gut(i) = transcendence. Doohoon = both. 1. Undh(u) Guhaya = deep darkness. Pusriyo = spread out. Jayvra = chains. Pause. Kubit = poems. Kubita = poets. Mooyay = died spiritually. Kuppurr = a religious Sect the members of which wear quilts made of rags. Kaydaara = Kedara - a holy place of Shiva in the high mountains in Uttra Khund. Jutaa Dhaar(i) = wearing tangles. 2.
Durb(u) = wealth. Sunch(i) = accumulating. Gudd Lay = bury. Kunchun = gold. 3.
Bigootaiy = misled; suffer humiliation. Nirkh(i) = examine carefully. 4.
MEANING: The Hindus suffer spiritual death by idol worship, and the Muslims by bowing again and again towards Mecca while offering nivaj. With their misbeliefs about how to dispose of the bodies of their dead – the Hindus cremate them while the Muslims bury them – each believes that their custom is the best (is approved by God), and none of the two religions understands Your Transcendence, oh Waheguru. 1. The whole world is in deep darkness (of ignorance), and the chain (trap) of the Angel of spiritual death is set up in all the four directions (everywhere), oh my mind. Pause. (Everybody is conceited of their achievements or of their beliefs and spiritual death because of their resulting haumein). For example, the poets suffer spiritual death due to the resulting haumein when they read their poems to the public and win applause; the members of the sect, who wear quilts of rags, suffer spiritual death because of their inflated ego due to their ability to visit the Temple of Kedar Nath, which is at a height of 11753 ft. The yogis who wear tangled (matted) hair also suffer spiritual death for their ego, but none of them has realized Your transcendence, oh God. 2. Even though the rajahs accumulate tons of wealth and bury heaps of gold in the ground, they die discontented; the pundits leave this world full of ego because of their knowledge of the Vedas, which they read to the public. The celibates suffer spiritual death for their evil lust to enjoy the beauty of other women. 3. One can verify it by self-analysis that everybody suffers humiliation without God's Naam. Kabir advises that nobody can attain a high spiritual state without God's Naam. 4

Word Meaning: Juriyaiy = burned. Bhusm = ash. Kirm Dul = army of germs. Kaachi Gaagur=unbaked earthen container. Neer(u) = water. Vudaayee = durability. Phooliya = elated. Oordh Mookh = upside down (in the womb). Pause. Mudh(u) Maakhi = honey bee. Satthoar(i) = the foolish. Rus = sweet taste. Joar(i) = accumulating. Layhou = take out. Bhoot(u) = the dead body. 2. Dayhoori = the main gate. Luou = up to. Burie Naar(i) = wife. Sung(i) = with. Sujjun Soohayla = friends and dears. Murghut = cremation ground. Kootumb(u) = family. Huns(u) = soul. Akayla = alone. 3. Praani = oh, man. Puray = drops in. Kaal-gruss = in the jaws of death. Kooaan = well. Bundhaaya = got trapped. Nulini = a mechanism to catch Sooaa (parrots). 4.

MEANING: The human body is only as strong as an unbaked earthen pot, which cannot hold water for long. When a dead body is burned, it turns into ash, and an army of germs consumes it. 1. So, what are you elated about, oh my friend? How can you forget those ten difficult months which you spent upside down (in your mother's womb)? Pause. Like the fate of a honey bee, which collects nectar from flowers to make honey but cannot use it because it is stolen by humans, the foolish man enjoys the taste of accumulating wealth, which is of no use to him (and is used by others after his death). Soon after his death, the relatives began to say aloud, "Take him out, take him out. Why is the ghost left in the house?" 2. The wife accompanies the dead body up to the main gate, and the friends and other dear ones accompany him next. Everybody accompanies him to the cremation ground, and the soul is left alone after that. 3. Just like a parrot which is tapped in "nulini" under the false fear that it is safe for him, the man gets trapped by the false attractions of Maya as a result of which he falls into the deep well (jaws) of spiritual death, says Kabir. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Mut = advice. Kerm = rituals. Kaal-grust = in the jaws of death. Paiy = drop (in the trap). Niraasa = disappointed. 1. Surriyo = achieved. Bhujiyo = worshipped. Rughuput Raja = Waheguru. Pause. Khund = a part. Yog Tup = the tough exercises of the yogis. Kund Mool = the vegetables that grow inside the earth. Naadi = yogi. Baydi = believers in rituals. Shabadi = a sect of yogis who chant only one word, "Alukh". Moani = hermits. Jum kay Putaiy = in the Angel of Death's account book. 2. Bhagat Nardi = Nard's way of worship (to believe in the omnipresence of God by dancing). Kaachh(u) Koochh(i) Tun(u) = decorate body by painting religious symbols, and by shaving head. Dimbh = hypocrisy. 3. Maah(i) Likhay = included in. Bherm Giyani = "wise" people misled by misgivings. Khalsay = pure; free from worldly bonds; emancipated. 4.
MEANING: After listening to the teachings of the Vedas and the Puranas, the followers build (false) hopes that all they need for their salvation is only rituals. But, all such "wise" men and the pundits (who have faith in rituals) are in the jaws of spiritual death; they drop into that trap and leave the world disappointed. 1. They do not achieve the important objective of life – they fail to recite God's Naam – oh, my mind. Pause. The yogis settle down in some part of the forest, perform rigorous exercises, and eat only vegetables like carrots and radishes. Yogis, the believers in rituals, members of the sect who chant only one word, "Alukh," and the hermits all get their deeds recorded in the account book of the Angel of Death. 2. They do not like the type of worship preached by *Nard' (to believe in the omnipresence of God), and rather decorate their bodies by painting religious symbols on them, and by shaving their heads. They hypocrites sit down to sing and play music (just as a show off), which has nothing to do with God. 3. Spiritual death is hanging over everybody's head, including the "wise" people who are victims of their misgivings. But those devotees who worship God with love become pure (free from worldly bonds), oh Kabir. 4.3.

Keh(i) Kabir rung(i) raata. Miliyo Jugjeevun Daata. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Loachun = eyes = Naiyn. Paykhaan = I see. Huoun = I. Rung(u) = blissfulness; joyfulness. Ub = now. Bay = two; other. Gull = talk. 1. Baajigur = acrobat. Dunk = drum. Khulk = people. Tmaasha = show. Suvaang = Paraphernalia. Skayla = dismantled. Rung(u) = happiness. Ruvaiy = enjoys. 2. Kuthni = words. Bherm(u) = misgivings. Lookaayee = world. 3. Kinchut = a little. Leeni = merged into. Rung(I) Raata = imbued in love (of God). 4.

MEANING: I see God with both my eyes (everywhere), and do not see anything else. My eyes feel blissful to see Him, and I cannot talk about anything other than God. 1.
Ever since my mind got attached to God, all my misgivings and worldly fears have disappeared. Pause. Like the show of an acrobat, the world too is a drama. When the acrobat beats the drum to announce his arrival, the whole world comes to watch his show, which lasts only for a short while. Similarly, the drama of the world lasts only briefly for individuals. When the acrobat dismantles his paraphernalia, the visitors leave, and he enjoys (his performance and the income) alone. Similarly, when the individuals leave the world, the drama of life is over for them, but the acrobat (the creator of this world drama, God) is always blissful. 2. One's misgivings do not go away simply by talking about God; the whole world talks customarily about Him (without any gain in their spirituality). However, those devotees who are enlightened by God through the Guru get Him (God) embedded in their hearts. 3. With a slight munificence (kindness) of the Guru, one's body and mind get absorbed in God. By getting imbued in His love, I realized God, which is the Soul, and the provider for the whole world, oh Kabir. 4.4.

Mayro Gur persad(i) mun(u) maaniya. 4.5.

Word Meaning: *Nigum = rivers (Teachings of the Guru). Doodh = (Naam) Amrit. Tthaata = creation. *Smoonth(u) = sea of noble qualities (Satguru). Bilovun = to churn. Maytaiygo = eliminate; stop. Chhaachh(i) = butter milk (mental bliss). 1. Chayri = disciple; devotee. Bhataara = husband. Adhaara = basis. Pause. Tauk(u) = a big iron ring around the neck of a criminal. Pug = foot. Bayri = chain. Ghur(i). Ghur(i) = through many life forms. Rumuyyiya = omnipresent God. Ajhou = Still. Chaytus(I) = remember. Bupoori = poor; helpless. Hayri = watched carefully. 2. Kern Kraavunhaari = the doer, and make others do. Laayee = given responsibility. 3. Soomut(i) = noble thinking. Leek = line (on the forehead). Rus(u) = sweet taste. 4.

NOTE: Guru Nanak Sahib has used metaphors of Smoond(u) for the Guru, and River for His Teachings. Read the second half of the following holy Shabad carefully.

ਸਲੋਕੁ ਮ: 1 ਵਾਰ ਮਾਝ(149)॥ ਸਿਰੁ ਖੋਹਾਇ ਪੀਵਹਿ ਮਲਵਾਣੀ ਜੂਠਾ ਮੰਗਿ ਮੰਗਿ ਖਾਹੀ॥ ----
ਗੁਰੁ ਸਮੁੰਦੁ ਨਦੀ ਸਭਿ ਸਿਖੀ ਨਾਤੈ ਜਿਤੁ ਵਡਿਆਈ॥ -----

Meaning: -------The Guru is like an ocean, while all His Teachings are like rivers. Anyone who takes a dip in the rivers earns respect (in Waheguru's Court). --------

MEANING: You do not try to be the spouse (extreme devotee) of God, which is the life (soul) of the world, oh, the human-bride. Pause. Be the contemplator of God, who has created rivers of Guru's Teachings and of His Amit-like Naam, and the ocean-like Guru in whose shelter you can churn (ponder on) His Naam, oh the human-bride. Even if you are unable to merge with Him, your blissfulness shall not be stopped. 1. There is a strong iron ring around your neck and chains (of attractions of Maya) around your feet, and you have been taken through countless life forms by God, but you still do not remember Him, oh man. Helpless as you are, you are being closely watched by the Angel of Death. 2. But the man is not to be entirely blamed because he has no control over his fate; it is God who is the doer of everything and who makes the human do whatever He likes. The man spends many lives unaware of His importance in life, and gets some awareness when God wishes, and then starts spending his life as preplanned for him. 3. To answer the question, "how does the man acquire the noble wisdom whereby his line of misgivings on his forehead is erased," Kabir Sahib says that He acquired the blissful taste of God's Naam by the grace of the Guru when his mind was fully convinced (to recite God's Naam). 4.5.

Word Meaning: Jih Baajh(u) = without which (God's Naam). Ghaal Aghaayee = hard labour; bears fruit. Sud Jeevun = living for ever. Kuhaahi = is said. 1. Kuthiyaiy = narrate; need to know. Nij Nirkhut = personally watching. Gut = level. Biyohaara = Dealings. Pause. Ghus(i) = by grazing; by hard labour. Koonkum = saffron (purified mind). Chundun = sandalwood (sweet fragrant Waheguru). Gaariya = mixed the mind with God. Poot(i) = mind. Pita = (God's Naam). Jaaya = generates; implants in mind. Tthaahur = support. Nugur Busaaya = populated the mind with noble qualities. 2. Jaachuk = beggar. Chhodiya Jaayy Na = which cannot be left alone. Mooka = runs out. Aurun = others. Chooka = came to an end. 3. Jeevun Murna = live after killing desires. Punch = noble. Saiyl = rock; huge like a mountain. Maanaiy = enjoys. Bhaytut = on meeting. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. 4.

MEANING: When one acquires (God's Naam) in the heart, without which he cannot have a spiritual life, his hard labour bears fruit (becomes successful). Immortality is said to be great by most, but such a life cannot be achieved without killing one's desires and worldly bonds, while living in the family. 1. No deep knowledge is needed to learn the level (quality) of dealings of the people when you can watch the results (of such dealings) with your own eyes. Pause. When one purifies his mind with hard labour (of reciting God's Naam), and merges with the sweet fragrant God, he becomes "one" with Him and can see the whole world without his physical eyes. Put in another way, the mind-son generates the Naam of the father-God in his heart, and populates the city of his heart with noble qualities without any external support. 2. I am a slave of God and His beggar; I have realized God, who is an inexhaustible source of everything. He has given me such a wealthy food (of His Naam) which is not for eating by mouth. But it cannot be left unused, nor does it run out. Moreover, I no longer need to go to anyone for help. 3. An individual who knows how to kill his desires and break worldly bonds becomes a holy saint and enjoys blissfulness the size of a mountain (immense blissfulness). I have acquired that wealth (God's Naam) with which all my desires have been satisfied, and my selfishness and ego have been eradicated, oh Kabir. 4.6

Word Meaning: Kiya = what? What is the use? Gooniyaiy = contemplate. Sehj = blissful state above the effects of Maya. Soyee = that (God). 1. Guvaara = foolish. Baarum Baara = again and again. Pause. Deepuk(u) = lamp; enlightenment. Chuhhiyaiy = is needed. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Luhhiyaiy = can be acquired. Smaayee = stays on. 2. Maaniya = is satisfied; is convinced = Puteejaiy. Tuou = then. 3.

MEANING: You do not recite God's Naam, oh foolish man. What else are you thinking about again, and again? Pause. What is the use of reading, pondering on, and listening to the Vedas and the Puranas if you cannot acquire God's Naam in the blissful state of mind? 1. Just as a lamp is needed in darkness, one needs the valuable thing (Naam of the inaccessible God) to enlighten the mind. Once God's Naam is acquired, that light stays there forever. 2. Now that I have acquired God's Naam, my mind is fully convinced of His omnipresence and His omnipotence (I cannot stay away from Him). However, it is sad that, despite my being fully convinced, the world is not convinced (I cannot convince it) of Him (Waheguru), oh Kabir. But what can anyone do about that? (Only those people bring faith in Him whom He is kind to), oh Kabir. 3.7.

Word Meaning: Kupt(u) = deceit. Jhootthay = oh liar; oh deceitful. Giyani = a man who preaches spirituality. Bilovus(i) = churn. 1. Kaanyaan = body. Maanjus(i) = rub well to clean. Kaun(u) Goona = what is the use. Ghut = heart. Mulna = filth (of immorality). Pause. Lauki = an extremely bitter squash. Utth-sutth(i) = the 68 holy places of Hindus Kaurapun = bitterness. Tuou = still. 2. Bhuv - Saagur(u) = the sea of Maya. Taar(i) = ferry across. Mooraari = God. 3.8

MEANING: A man who preaches spirituality to others but has deceit at heart is a liar (dishonest) and acquires only as much spirituality as a man gets butter by churning water. 1. What is the use of washing the body well when the man has filth of immorality (sensual pleasures) in his mind? Pause. (Washing the body with filth in mind) is just like taking a bitter squash to the 68 holy places and giving it dips because its bitterness never lessens by dips. 2. Kabir has only one idea to present: that only God can ferry us across the sea of Maya (worldly attractions), so pray to Him. 3.8.

Hirdaiy Ram(u) kee na jupeh(i) suvaya. 3.9.

Word Meaning: Perpunch = world (Maya); deceitfulness; dishonest means. Pur = of others. Soot = sons. Daara = wife. Aan(i) = bring. 1. Bhoolay = even by mistake. Kupt(u) = deceitfulness. Nibayra = final decision; consequences. Jea = soul. Peh(i) Leejaiy = will be taken (received). Pause. Chhin(u) = a second. Chheejaiy = weakens. Juraa = old age. Junaavaiy. = shows. Oak = hands curved to make a cup. 2. Suvayra = early morning (right away; without delay). 3.

MEANING: Do not deceive people even by mistake because the consequences of your deeds will have to be borne by your soul, oh my mind. Pause. The man brings in the wealth of others by many deceitful means, which he spends lavishly on his sons and on his wife. 1. The old age shows itself, and your body weakens by the second so much so that you will not be able to look after yourself; at that point, nobody will serve you even a fistful of water, oh man. There is nobody (other than God) which is truly yours oh man. So, why do you not remember God in your heart without any delay, oh Kabir? 3.9.

Koombh = vessel. Kumul = lotus-like (heart). Jul(i) = water of vices (immorality).
Matiya = erased; expelled. Oobha = upside down (turned towards God). 2.

MEANING: Mu Guru showed me my weaknesses because of which the animal of my sensual pleasures used to attack me. Now, with Guru's grace, I have been able to overcome my weaknesses so that no such animal can attack me now. In fact, rather than the uneasiness I used to feel because of the aggressive nature of sensual pleasures, my mind has become so peaceful that I feel as if the Divine music is playing in my mind now. 1. My wind-like (wavering) mind has become peaceful, and I feel blissful, oh, the holy saints. My mind is now eligible to acquire something highly valuable (God's Naam). Pause. The water of immorality, which had filled the vessel of my lotus-like heart, has been expelled when I turned my heart upside down (away from Maya, and towards God) (and now, my mind is perfectly pure). As a slave of God, my mind has been connected with Him, and it is fully convinced now (is in complete unison with Him), oh Kabir. 2.10.

Word Meaning: Bhookhaiy = hungry; lack of basic necessities of life. Maala = rosary; worship of God. Suntun Rayna = dust of the feet of holy men (opportunity to serve them). Dayna = owing to others. 1. Madho = God. Kaiysay Bunaiy = how can it last? Sungay = shyness. Pause. Sayr = about a kilogram. Choona = flour. Paaou = one quarter kg. Loona = Suloona = vegetable dishes. Daalay = beans. Jivaalay = keep me alive; feed me. 2. Khaat = Chaupaayee = cot; simple bed. Sirhaana = pillow. Tolaayee = mattress. Kheendha = comforter; quilt. Theendha = imbued in love. 3. Lubbo = greed. Phubbo = suits; adorns me. 4.

MEANING: How can my worshipping You last any longer if I stay shy of You, oh God? If You do not provide on Your own, I have the right to ask for my necessities. Pause. I cannot continue Your worship when I have to worry about my basic necessities of life. So, accept Your rosary back (relieve me of Your worship). I beg for an opportunity to serve the holy saints so that I do not owe anything to anyone (nobody has any favour unreturned by me). 1. I need only about two kg of flour, one-quarter kg of ghee and vegetable dishes, half a kg of beans (pulses) so that my family gets to eat twice a day. 2.
Yes, I also need a cot, a pillow, a mattress, and a quilt (blanket) to cover myself so that I can worship You with full love and respect, and without any worries. 3.
I do not think that I have shown any greed. Moreover, I need Your Naam which adorns my mind with noble qualities. With these needs fulfilled, I, Kabir, will be fully satisfied and will be “one” with You, oh God (Waheguru). 4.11.

Unhud Shabad(u) = Divine music of Guru's Shabad. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = the Supreme Soul. 2. Ruttan = the jewel-like (invaluable) Divine qualities. Chumkaar = glitter. Beejul = lightning. Nij Aatmmaiy = in my own mind. Bhurpoor(i) = filling completely. 3. Unhut = indestructible. Soor = sun. Oojaara = light. Julaiy = lights up. Chhunchhaara = weak. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. 4.

MEANING: When I see God everywhere with the eyes of my mind, I begin to sing His praise, and my mind becomes very strong (quits wavering). 1. My mind has been fully absorbed in Satguru's Shabad. Pause. Whereas Maya's attractions dazzled my mind before, now I feel as if the Divine music of Guru's Shabad is playing there. With Guru's grace, I have realized that my soul has become "one" with the Supreme Soul. 2.

There were jewels (Divine qualities) in my heart (but were hidden), now they are glittering with the lightning-like, powerful light of God's Naam. Now, I find God to be very close to me, and not far away, and He is filling my heart completely. 3. Whereas there was a very weak lamp lighting up my heart, now I feel as if an indestructible light of a strong sun is enlightening my mind. With Guru's grace, I have made a connection with God, and now, I, a slave of God, have been fully absorbed in the blissful state of mind above the effects of Maya, oh Naam Dev. 4.1.

Naamay kay Soami Sea buhori, Lunk Bhubheekhun aapiyo ho. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Paarr Purrosun(i) = next door neighbour. Chhaan(i) = a hut of bamboo and turf. Chhuvaayee = got built. Mujoori = labour cost. Baydhi = carpenter. Butaayee = give information. 1. Ree Baayee = oh sister, lady. Smaayee = present everywhere.

Praan Adharaa = basis of life. Pause. Preet(i) = love. Loag = people. Kootumb = family; relatives. Toaraiy = breaks the connection (bonds). Aapun = on His own. 2. Bern Na = cannot explain. Goongaiy = mute person. Chaakhiya = tasted. 3. Goon = qualities. Juleh Bundh(i) = controlled water; built a bridge over the sea. Dhuroo = a devotee of God. Thaapiyo = established; immortalized. Sea = Seeta (Lord Rama's wife). Buhori = brought back. Lunk = Sri Lanka. Bhubheekhun = Ravana's brother, but Rama's devotee. Aapiyo = offered; handed over. 4.

NOTE: Nam Dev Ji used to live in a bamboo-and-turf hut. One time, when he was away from his home, his hut was blown away by a high wind. On his return, he was pleasantly surprised to see a hut beautifully built, which seemed to be much stronger and more attractive than the one he had left. Nobody knows who rebuilt his hut. His next-door neighbour, a woman, asked Nam Dev Ji to tell her where the carpenter who had built his new hut was. In this holy Shabad, Nam Dev Ji sings the praises of God, whom he believed had somehow built it. Enjoy the Shabad.

MEANING: The next-door neighbour asked Nam Dev Ji for the carpenter's identity who had built his new hut. She was so impressed with the quality of the work that she offered to pay twice as much for labour as Nam Dev Ji had paid. 1. "This Carpenter could not be called in as He is not at any single place; He is present everywhere, oh lady, and He is the basis of our lives," replied Nam Dev Ji. Pause. Continuing the description of the Carpenter, Nam Dev Ji said: This Carpenter asks only for the love (devotion) of the person who wants to have his/her hut built as His labour cost. If the needy person breaks all the worldly bonds with his family and friends, the Carpenter appears on His own. 2. Such a carpenter cannot be described; He is present in everybody and everywhere. Describing Him is as difficult as for a mute to describe the taste of something super-delicious which he tasted. 3. If you must insist, then listen to the great qualities of this Carpenter. He is the one who built the bridge on the sea to Lanka (now Sri Lanka), brought back Seeta, and gave the rule of Sri Lanka to Bhubheekhun, the younger brother of Ravan, and who immortalized His devotee, Dhuroo. Such is the Lord of Naam Dev. 4.2.

NOTE: It must be made clear here that Nam Dev Ji is not referring to god Rama. In this Shabad. Bhagat Dhuroo had lived in the Satyug eon whereas god Rama was born in Treta – several hundred thousand years later.

Soritth Ghur(u) 3: Unmurrhiya mundul(u) baajaiy. Bin(u) saavun ghunhur(u) gaajaiy. Baadul bin(u) burkha hoyee. Juou Tutt(u) bichaaraiy koyee. 1. Mo kuou miliyo Ram(u) sunayhee. Word Meaning: Unmurrhiya = without leather sides (without the jarring noise). Mundul(u) = drum. Saavun = month of July-August (the rainy season) Ghunhur = clouds (Guru's Shabad). Gaajaiy = thunders. Burkha = rain (of God's Naam). Tutt(u) = the Truth (God). 1. Ram(u) = God. Sunayhee = loving. Dayh = body. Soodayhee = became beautiful; is purified (with God's Naam in it). Pause. Paarus = elixir stone (Guru). Kunchun(u) = gold (purified mind). Munsa = as desired. Ruttan = jewel-like (words of God's praise). Nij = own. Bhaaou = love. Bherm(u) = doubts; misgivings. Putiyaaga = got satisfied. 2. Jul = liquid (of immortality); Naam-Amrit. Koombh(u) = vessel-like heart. Chaylay = (of the) the disciple. 3.

MEANING: I have been connected with the loving God, because of which my body has been purified and looks beautiful. Pause. Because of the presence of God's Naam in my heart, I feel as if a sweet drum (without the jarring noise) is playing in my mind, and Guru's Shabad is thundering like a cloud, and causing rain of Waheguru's Naam in my mind even though it is not the rainy season. It all happens to anyone who contemplates God's virtues. 1. I was like a scrap of iron (full of poor qualities), but have been changed into gold (my heart has become pure like gold) by coming in contact with the Elixir Stone-like Guru. Pause. Now, the greatly desired Naam of God is always on my tongue. With my love for God, all my misgivings have been dispelled, and with Guru's advice, my mind is fully convinced about the magnificence of God. 2. The water of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit has been absorbed in my vessel-like heart, as a result of which, now I see God in all His creation. My mind, as a disciple of God, is fully satisfied with (absorbed in) Him. I have recognized the Lord, oh Nama. 3.3.

Word Meaning: Hum = we; our selfishness and ego. Anul = wind. Agumm = extremely high. Lehrmaiy = in high waves. Oadidh(i) = in the ocean. 1.

Maadhvay = oh Lord. Bherm(u) = misgiving; confusing issue. Pause. Nurput(i) = rajah. Singhasun(i) = (on the) throne. Bhikhaari = beggar. Achhut Raj = (despite the fact he had) a state to rule. Bichhrut = separation. Gut = situation. 2.

Raj = rujjoo = rope. Bhooyiung = snake. Persung = tale. Merm = secret. Anik = countless. Kutuk = bracelets (of gold). Kehtay = describe. 3.

Ghut = hearts. Bhoagvaiy = enjoys. Haath Paiy = hand and feet. Nayraiy = nearby. Sehjay = without any special effort; in the high spiritual state. 4.1.

MEANING: (Man's selfishness and ego are a big wall between him and Waheguru). So, when I am being selfish and egoistic, You are absent from my heart; but, now that You are present in my heart, my selfishness and ego have disappeared, oh Lord. So, the man and the Lord are one and the same, but we are under the illusion that they are different. This illusion is like the one about the very high waves in the ocean caused by very strong winds; one may get the false impression that the water in the waves is different from that in the ocean, even though it is the same. 1. How can we describe such an illusion between You and the man, oh Lord? The reality is different than what we feel. Pause. (Consider another example) Suppose a king falls asleep on his throne and has a dream in which he sees himself as a beggar. Despite the fact that he was still the king, he suffered a great deal thinking he had lost his kingship. Our situation is the same; we have our Lord inside us, yet we think He is somewhere far, far away. 2. But, now, with Your kindness, I have realized some of Your secrets. Like the illusion of a rope which appears to be a snake in the dark, but the doubt is cleared in daylight, my mind has been enlightened, and I know the reality about You, oh Lord. Yet another example: if we see many bracelets of different shapes and sizes and may falsely believe that they contain different kinds of gold (even though the gold is the same), I have realized that man and God are the same; but it still cannot be explained to the people. 3. So, it is the same Lord who is present in countless hearts where He enjoys them. He is closer than our hands and feet, but only a few recognize this fact in the high spiritual state, oh Ravidass. 4.1.

Juou hum baandhay moh phaas, hum praym bundhun(i) Toom baandhay. Apnay chhootun ko jutun kurhou, hum chhootay Toom aaraadhay. 1. Maadhvay, jaanut huou jaiysi taiysi. Ub kuhaa kurhougay aiysi. 1. Ruhaou. Meen pukkur(i) phaankiyour(u) kaatiyo, raandh(i) keeyo buhou baani. Khund, khund kur(i) bhojun(u) keeno, tuoou na bisriyo paani. 2. Aapun baapaiy naahi kisi ko, bhaavun ko Hur(i) Raja. Moh putul subh(u) jugut biyaapiyo, bhugut nuhee suntaapa. 3. Keh(i) Ravidass, bhugut ikk baadhi, ub eh ka siyoun kuhhiyaiy. Ja kaarun(i) hum Toom aaraadhay, so dookh(u) ujhoon suhhiyaiy. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Baandhay = bonded. Moh Phaas = the trap of attachments (affection). Chhootun Ko = to get free. Jutun = try. 1. Jaiysi Taiysi = the way things are. Kuhaa = how? Pause. Meen = fish. Phaankiyo Ur(u) Kaatiyo = caught and cut into pieces. Raandh(i) = cooked. Buhuou Baani = in many ways. Khund = small piece. Bisriyo = forgot. 2. Aapun Baapaiy = father's (property). Bhaavun Ko = intent; love. Moh Putul = the curtain of attachment. Biyaapiyo = is affecting. Suntaapa = causes trouble. 3. Baadhi = enhanced. Ka Siyoun = to whom. Ja Kaarun = for the reason. Ujhoon = still. Suhhiyaiy = endure. 4.

MEANING: if we are bonded to the world by the strong bonds of attachment, You are bonded strongly to me with my love for you, oh God. However, I can break these bonds (of worldly attachments) with Your worship, but try to break the bonds of my love for You (You cannot break), oh Lord. 1. You know the technique (how to break the bonds), but whom will You worship to get free from the bonds of my love for You, oh Lord? Pause.

Your love for Your devotees is like the love of a fish for water. A man catches a fish, cuts it into pieces, cooks it in many different ways, and eats it by further cutting it into small bites. Even after all these steps, the fish still cannot forget water (it causes thirst in the man who eats it, and forces him to drink water). You too cannot forget Your devotees, oh God. 2.
The Lord is not the property of anybody's father; He is sovereign, and can be won only by one's intent (of love for Him). The wall of worldly attachment affects everybody, but causes no trouble for God's devotees. 3. With Lord's presence in my heart, all my suffering caused by my worldly bonds has been eradicated by my worship of the Lord with deep love. So, there is no need left for me to complain to anyone that I am still suffering from that pain for the removal of which I was worshipping the Lord, oh Ravidass. 4. 2.

Doolubh junum(u) poonn ful paayo, birtha jaat ubibaykaiy. Rajay Indar sumsur(i) greh aasun, bin(u) Hur(i) bhugat(i) kuhou kih laykhaiy. 1. Na beechaariyo Raja Ram ko rus(u). Jih un rus beesur(i) jaahi. 1. Ruhoau. Jaan(i) ajaan bhuayay hum baavur, soach, usoach, divus jaahi. Indri subul nibul bibayk boodh(i), permaaruth pervaysh nuhee. 2. Kuhhiut aan, achuriut un kuchh(u), sumujh na puraiy apur Maya. Keh(i) Ravidass, oodaas mut(i), purhur(i) koap(u), kurhou jea duyya. 3.3.

Word Meaning: Doolubh = priceless. Poonn = noble deeds; good fortune. Ful = reward. Birtha = without (any spirituality). Ubibaykaiy = without spiritual knowledge. Sumsur(i) = equal. Greh, Aasun = mansions and thrones. Laykhaiy = worth. 1. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Un = other. Beesur(i) = forgotten. Pause. Ajaan = unaware. Baavur = crazy; foolish. Soach, Usoach = good and bad thinking. Divus = days. Jaahi = are going (spent). Indri = sensual desires. Subul = powerful. Nibul = weak. Bibayk Boodh(i) = the wisdom to make a distinction. Permaaruth = the prime objective. Pervaysh = entry; thinking. 2. Kuhhiut = say. Aan= else. Achuriut = perform. Apur = beyond control; powerful. Oodaas Mut(i) = wisdom to break bonds. Purhur Koap = by controlling rage. 3.

MEANING: Without acquiring Divine knowledge (without making a connection with God), the man is spending his priceless life in the human form worthlessly, which he was given because of his good fortune. Without God's worship, the life, even of those who have mansions and thrones like god Indra, is of no value (is worthless) (in God's Court). 1. The man does not ponder on (to enjoy) the sweetness of God's Naam so as to forget all other sweet tastes. Pause. Knowing everything, we stay ignorant about the Lord; the foolish, us, spend the days of our life in good and evil thinking. We have allowed our sensual pleasures to be very powerful (they control us), while our wisdom to distinguish between the good and the bad has become very weak. We allow no thought to enter our minds about the prime objective (union with God) of our life. 2.
We say something different, and do something completely different; the powerful Maya distorts our vision, and we cannot think right. So, Ravidass prays: That rather than being mad at Your men, please be kind to them and give them the ability to break their bonds of attachment with the world, oh Lord. 3.3.

Sehj smaadh(i), oopaadh(i) reht phoon(i), buddaiy bhaag(i) liv laagi. Keh(i) Ravidass, pergaas(u) ridaiy dhur(i), junum murn tay bhaagi. 3.4.

Word Meaning: Sookh Saagur = ocean of comforts. Soor Tur = trees in paradise, which are believed to grant any wish. Chintamun(i) = a mythical stone (jewel) which is believed to fulfil all wishes; God. Kaam-Dhayn = a cow which was retrieved from the ocean when it was churned jointly by the gods and the demons. It is believed to grant every wish. Chaar Pdaaruth = the four valuable things: religiosity, wealth, success, and emancipation. Asht Dusa = the 18. Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Nuv Nidh(i) = the 9 treasures. Ker = hands. Tul = Palms. Ta Kay = His (God's). 1. Tiyaag(i) = by abandoning. Buchun Ruchna = popular sayings and writings. Pause. Na Na = different. Khiyaan = explanations. Bayd Bidh(i) = techniques of the Vedas. Chautees Akkhur Maahi = expressed with the alphabet (only beautiful creation of words). Biyaas = a sage who is believed to have given the order to the Vedas. Pemaaruth = the most important objective (union with God). Sur(i) = equal. 2. Sehj Smaadh(i) = meditating in a blissful state. Oopaadh Reht = free from all vices. Phoon(i) = also. Liv Laagi = got connected with God. Pergaas(u) = enlightenment. 3.

MEANING: Leaving aside (abandoning) the popular sayings and writings, why do you not recite God's Naam, oh man? Pause. God is the ocean of comforts, and controls the trees of the Paradise, and the cow, Kamdhenu, which is believed to grant all one's wishes. He also has all four popular and valuable things – religiosity, wealth, prosperity, and emancipation – on the palms of His hand. (So, why do the people worship other powers? 1. The different explanations in the Puranas, and the techniques of the Vedas (to please gods) are just the creation of beautiful words. After careful consideration of the prime objective of human life, the sage Biyaas concluded that nothing equals God's Naam. 2. It is with great fortune that by meditating on God, Ravidass was able to attain the high spiritual state beyond any sin in which he stays connected with Him, and feels blissful. With an enlightened mind, Ravidass has attained a state beyond the birth-death cycle. 3.4.

Word Meaning: Juou = if. Girivur = (cloud-covered) beautiful mountain. Mora = peacock. Bhuyyay = happen; become. Chukora = Greek partride (which is believed to be in deep love with the moon). 1. Toarou = break. Siyoun = with. Kuvun = who else? Joareh(i) = connect with. Pause. Deevra = a beautiful lamp. Baati = wick. Teeruth = holy place. Jaati = pilgrim. 2. Jeh, Jeh = wherever. Sayva = worship. Tthaakur(u) = Master. Dayva = oh, Lord. 4. Bhujun = worship. Phaasa = chains. Hayt(i) = for. 5.

MEANING: If You do not break the bond of love between You and me, I will never break it. Who else is good enough to make a bond of love with, if You break the one between us? Pause. If You are a mountain covered with beautiful clouds, then I am a peacock (which is known for its attraction for clouds); and if You are the moon, then I am the Greek partridge (which is also famous for its love with the moon). 1. If You are a beautiful oil lamp, then I am your wick (the lamp does not give light without the wick); and if You are a holy place, then I am Your pilgrim. 2. I have a bond of true love with You, and I have broken all my bonds with others. 3. Wherever I go, I find people worshipping You. There is no other Master like You, oh Lord. 4. The chains of the Angel of death are broken with Your worship. Ravidass sings Your praise with love to worship You, oh Lord. 5.5.

Shernaagut(i) = in shelter. Ram Chund = oh, handsome God. Chumaara = cobbler. 5.

MEANING: The house-like human body has been created by God, which has walls of water, pillars of air, and the cement of blood. This skeleton of bones, flesh, and veins is the dwelling for the poor human soul (which cannot make independent decisions as it has been preprogrammed by Waheguru to act in certain ways). 1. Like the birds, which settle on trees to spend the night only, and which are not their permanent homes, the humans, too, come to the earth as short-time visitors. So, there is nothing permanent which is mine or yours, oh man. (So, why do we fight over things which will never be ours forever?)

Pause. The man lays down strong foundations and builds walls (of big mansions) when, in the end, he will get less than two metres of space only. 2. The body, which you adorn with beautiful hair and a nice turban turned to a side (as a sign of your conceit), will eventually become a pile of dirt. 3. You may be enjoying your life in tall mansions, and may have a beautiful wife, but you will lose the game of life (without God's Naam). 4. I know that I belong to a socially low caste (a cobbler) and a low clan, and my birth was also low key (no pomp or show at my birth, whereas rich people celebrate the birth of boys with great pomp and show), but, (I, Ravidass, realize my objective of life), and have come to Your shelter, oh, my handsome King, God. 5.6.

MEANING: (Being a low caste, people expect me to be greedy), but (fortunately) I have no greed to mend my shoe-like body. Most people mend their shoes (pamper their bodies by overeating). Pause. I have no awl to stitch my shoe (no sharp appetite to eat), and have no razor to cut leather to put patches on the torn places (no knife to cut pockets of others to fulfill the unholy needs of my body). 1. People suffer much humiliation because of looking after their bodies too much. But I have reached my goal (uniting with God) without mending my shoe-like body. 2 Ignoring any interest in my body, I recite God's Naam, and have nothing to do with the Angel of death (I do not owe him anything), oh Ravidass. 3.7.

(Without remembering God), When old age hits the man, his eyes water, his body grows weak, and his hair turns white like milk. With his throat clogged (with phlegm), he cannot even talk. In that stage, what can the helpless man do? 1. (Without God's Naam) the man experiences pain in his mind, his body gets the sensation of burning, and his heart begins to ache. Such sharp discomforts grow in the body which have no medication. 2. God's Naam is the Amrit which purifies the mind, and is the panacea for all ailments in the world. With Guru's grace, one reaches the door of salvation, oh Bheekhun. 3.1.

MEANING: God's Naam is such a jewel which is invaluable, and which the man acquires with great luck (based on his noble deeds). The devotee may try very hard to keep it hidden in his heart, but Waheguru's Naam is such a glittering jewel that, despite the best efforts of the devotee, it cannot stay hidden because of its sparkling nature. 1.

Just like a mute person cannot describe the taste of his sweet, God's Naam cannot be described. Pause. One feels great bliss when he recites God's Naam with his tongue, listens to it with his ears, and remembers Him. Now, I see God everywhere because of which my eyes are fully contented (I do not want to see anything else), oh Bheekhun. 2.
