Word Meaning: Jeeou = soul; mind. Dookh-Visaarun(i) = eliminator of troubles (Waheguru). Dataar(u) = Provider. 1. Pause. Neet = every day; always. Nuvaan = fully re-energized; in different forms. Undin(u) = every day; all the time. Kaamni = soul. Paar(i) Ootaara = salvation. 2. Serbun(g) = omnipresent. Nudr(i) = kind sight. 3. Vudiyaayee = (words of) praise. Pause.
Jaachoun = wish for. Bind, Bind = every moment. Chookh, Chookh = pieces. 4.

MEANING: My Lord is always (permanent and fully reliable) provider, and is full of fresh energy and zest, and appears in different forms. Pause. I was afraid of (future uncertainties in life), and did not know whom to pray to; but now I know (whom to pray to), and I serve the Lord (Waheguru), who is the destroyer of all troubles (and uncertainties), and is a fully dependable and reliable provider. 1. We should serve the Lord all the time (keep Him in mind and recite His Naam), which emancipates us at the end (time of death). Listen to His Naam because of which we will be ferried across the world-sea, oh my soul. 2. I am always a sacrifice for the kind Waheguru, with whose Naam one can swim across the sea of Maya. Pause. There is only one omnipresent Waheguru, and none else is (like Him). But only that individual serves Him on whom He casts a kind sight. 3. How can I survive without You, oh my dear Waheguru? Kindly gift me the words of praise for You by which I may keep reciting Your Naam (singing Your praise); there is no one else like You whom I can pray to, oh dear Waheguru. Pause.
I wish to serve only my Lord (Waheguru), and do not wish for any other deity. I am His slave, and can cut myself into pieces every moment for Him, oh Nanak. 4. I can offer my body in Your service, and will gladly cut myself into pieces to “buy” Your Naam, oh Waheguru.

Pause. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Ikk dumee = with single breath. Moohlut(i) = span of life. Moohut(i) = time (of death). Binvaiy = prays humbly. Srayvhou = recite (Naam). Jea Praana = soul, and breath. 1. Jeevna = live. Kaytay kay Dinaa = (for) how many days. Pause. Jeeou = life. Maas(u) = flesh (body). Khurraa = very much. Shaayir(u) = poet. Aiv = only this. Pervudgaara = raiser and nourisher (God). 2. Kuddhay Gehna = to pawn, to pledge; collateral. Poorb(i) Likhay = prewritten by God. Lehna = to receive. 3. Kupteen = the deceitful. Kupt(u) = deceit; defraud. Pukkur Chulaaya = arrested. 4. Sooniyaiy = listen (noble ideas like Waheguru's praise). Kuhhiyaiy = say (words of praise of Waheguru). Bhaal(i) = search. Mur(i) Ruhhiyaiy = kill desires and ego. 5.

MEANING: We, as human beings, live from breath to breath; we do not know how long we will live in the world, and when death will come to us. So, serve the Lord who has given us soul (body) and life, submits Nanak humbly. 1. Think deeply, how long you are going to live, oh, blind man! Pause. It is the humble submission of poet Nanak that my breaths, my body, and my mind, all belong to You (are given by You); You raise and nourish us all, and You are very dear to me, oh my True (Eternal Lord). 2. If you do not give Your Naam to someone, he has nothing to pawn as collateral by which he can have your Naam in exchange. I submit respectfully that one receives (acquires) only the comforts (including Waheguru's Naam), or the discomforts, which are prewritten in his destiny by Waheguru. 3. The deceitful do not remember Waheguru, and always defraud people, but they leave the world repenting when they are handcuffed and presented before the Angel of death. 4. As long as we live in this world, we should listen to Waheguru's Naam and sing His praise. I have searched well, but nobody is known to have lived in this world forever; so, we should live in the world by killing (controlling) our desires and ego (so as not to continue taking births), oh, Nanak. 5.2.

Kiya mooh(u) daysaan goon nuhee naal(i). Jaiysi nedr(i) kuray, taiysa hoyay. Vin(u) nedreen, Nanak nuheen koyay. 4.1.3.

Word Meaning: Kiyoun = how? Simreen = I recite Naam. Tupaiy = is burning; is restless. Hiyaaou = heart. Jeaurra = soul; mind. Billaayay = wails. Sirj = creates. Suvaaray = adorns (with noble qualities); makes our life successful. 1.
Hikmut(i) = cleverness. Huqam = forcibly. Pause. Vukkhur = merchandize. Chaakhaiy = tastes. Pteenaiy = please; convince; impress (by faking). 2.
Smaayay = present. Jaayay = place. Kuray = does. Bukhshay = bestows. 3.
Hoon(i) = now; immediately. Moohut(i) K(i) Taal(i) = in a short time. Kiya Mooh(u) = what face; how will I face? 4.

MEANING: (Due to problems in life) My mind is upset and restless, and I have a burning feeling in my heart (due to problems in life), and I am crying for help; so how can I recite Waheguru's Naam! Waheguru creates us, and adorns us with noble qualities; so, what good can we expect to happen to us by forgetting Him? 1. Waheguru cannot be realized by cleverness or by force; so, how can I get connected with Him, oh my mother? Pause. (When people go to buy some merchandize, they first test that), But the merchandize of Waheguru's Naam is such that it cannot be tasted or taken orally, before one deals in it. Some people try to impress and convince others (with their preaching and impressive way of talking) to earn respect, but that kind of respect is not real – it is short-lived. One earns real respect only when Waheguru approves of his deeds and his devotion to Him. 2.
You are present wherever I look, and there is no place without You. If someone claims to have done something, it carries no weight in the eyes of Waheguru because even he is created by Him. Only that individual's noble deeds are credited by Waheguru, who performs them with His benevolence (to His liking). 3. We do not know when we will leave this world – maybe immediately, or in a few moments. How am I going to face my Waheguru because I have no noble qualities? But, possessing the kind of qualities is not in our control; individuals possess qualities depending upon the kind of sight Waheguru casts on them, kind or not so kind. But everybody is under His sight, and nobody is without that, oh Nanak. 4.1.3.

Dhanasari Mehla 1: Nedr(i) kuray ta simriya jaayay. Aatma druvaiy, ruhhaiy liv laayay. Aatma, peraatma aiko kuray. Untar kee doobidha untar(i) muraiy. 1. Gur Persadi paaya jaayay. Saachi Baani siyoun dhuray piyaar(u). Ta ko paavaiy moakh dooaar(u). Jup, tup(u), eh(u) Shabad haiy saar(u). 5.2.4.

Word Meaning: Nedr(i) = kind sight. Druvaiy = melt (in love). Liv Laayay = focus mind; connect with Waheguru. Peraatma = soul of others. Aiko Kuray = treat equally; see Waheguru in everybody. Doobidha = indecisiveness of mind; internal struggle. 1. Pergaas(u) = enlightenment. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya. Oodaas(u) = detached. Vudiyaayee = greatness. Kluttar = wife. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. 2. Aiysi = such. Dhuraiy = offers. Bhaavaiy = likes (God's Will). Pervaan = approved. 3. Moorut(i) = persona; Words. Ichhaiy = wishes. Kaiysa = what kind? 4. Bhunut(i) = says; submits humbly. Moakh = emancipation. Saar(u) = essence. 5.

MEANING: One can recite Waheguru's Naam with devotion only when He casts a kind sight on him. But, when one treats others the same way as he does for self, and sees Waheguru present in everybody, his indecisiveness (discrimination against others) gets eradicated (and He stays connected with Waheguru). 1. One acquires Waheguru's Naam in his heart with the grace of the Guru, and his mind stays connected with Him; and the fear of death never scares him. Pause. One's mind gets enlightened by the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, whereby one stays detached from the poisonous Maya. It is the greatness of the Guru that His Sikhs attain a high spiritual state even while living with his sons, and his wife (who are normally at the centre of his love). 2. Guru's devotee serves Waheguru in such a way that he offers his mind (soul) to Waheguru, who gave him that in the first place. He accepts Waheguru's Will gladly. Such a devotee is honoured in Waheguru's Court. 3. He enshrines Satguru's Word in his mind, and reaps the rewards of his choice. What kind of fear of the Angel of death concerns him when the True Lord is kind to him? 4. Nanak espouses the idea that an individual who loves the eternal Shabad of the Guru finds the door to salvation. Guru's Word (in praise of Waheguru) is the essence of all ritualistic recitation of mantras, self-affliction to please some deity, or exercising control on senses (With Guru's Shabad in mind, he does not need any of those), oh Nanak. 5.2.4.

Word Meaning: Jeeou = soul; mind. Tupt(u) = burning (of heart); suffering. Baaro Baar = continually. Khupaiy = suffers in frustration. Baykaar = vices; immorality.
Bani = words in praise of Waheguru. Pukka Roagi = patient of leprosy. 1.
Jhukhun(u) = senseless (meaningless) talk. Soyay = that (Waheguru). Pause.
Taat(u) = quickly. Ugnee = fire; energy. Vaajaiy = with loudness. Puvun(u) = air; breaths. Aakhaiy = speaks; shows existence. Subh Jaayay = everywhere. 2. Moh(u) = worldly attachments. Sooaad = tastes. Kaalukh = darkness. Daago Daag = stains of filth (of mind). Doash = blame; accusation. 3. Kerm(i) = (with) benevolence. Turna = swim (across the sea of Maya). Saar = looking after. Dataar = kind Provider (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: I am suffering continually from the unrest (struggle) in my mind due to my immorality, and from my frustration at not being able to control it. Such becomes the situation of the mind which forgets Waheguru, and wails in pain like a leper. 1.
Too much talking (complaining) becomes senseless (annoying) because Waheguru knows everything about us, even without us complaining. Pause. Waheguru, who has given us ears, eyes, nose, and the tongue which talks quickly, and who has given us the soul keeping us alive by putting energy in the body; and the breaths which show our existence clearly wherever we go, is aware of everything that we do. 2. (But rather than being thankful to Waheguru for these ultra-important gifts), We use them to get attached to worldly things, to love family, and to enjoy the tastes of life lustfully, which leads to the darkness of the mind and results in stains of filth (immoral behaviour) on the mind. We leave the world with the blame of such immoral behaviour on our face, because of which we are given no room in Waheguru's Court (and are sent before the Angel of justice to face the charges). 3. With Your kindness, I recite Your Naam with which I can swim across the sea of Maya; there is no other shelter than Your benevolence, oh God. But Waheguru is always kind, and if someone keeps drowning in the sea of Maya (immoralities) again, and again, He looks after him eventually, oh Nanak. 4.3.5.

1. Soon(i) mun undhay, koottay, koorriyaar. Bin(u) boalaiy boojhiyaiy sachiyaar. 1. Ruhaou. Choar(u) sooaaliyou, choar(u) siyaana. Khoatay ka mooll(u) aik doogaana. Nanak jaanaiy, jaan(u) soojaan(u). 4.4.6.

Word Meaning: Choar = a thief; a dishonest man. Na Bheejaiy = not convinced; does not feel right. Budee = vilifies; badmouths. Tusoo = very small amount. Cheejaiy = weakens; worry about. Haama = support; vouch for. Chunga = good. 1. Koottay = greedy like a dog. Koorriyaar = dishonest; deceitful. Boojhiyaiy = find out; recognized. Sachiyaar = pure-hearted. Pause. Sooaaliyou = handsome; attractive. Siyaana = wise. Khoatay = impure. Mooll(u) = price; worth. Doogaana = 8 small cowrie sea-shells (almost worthless). Rulaayay = mix with. Perkhiyaiy = on testing. 2. Beej(i) = to sow; to plant. Vudiyaayiyaan Khaayay = praises (self). Soort(i) = thinking; awareness. Raah(i) Jaayay = follows the path (in life). 3. Koorr(u) Kubaarr(u) = ignoble deeds. Bhaavaiyn = even if. Aakhou = says; does. Bhaavaiy = like. Udhee = of low (wisdom). Pervaan(u) = acceptable. Jaan(u) = know-all (omniscient). Soojaan(u) = wise; noble. 4.

MEANING: If a dishonest person praises you, you do not necessarily get convinced by his praise (because you are always doubtful about his sincerity, whether he is honest about his praise, or if there is some selfish motive behind that). Likewise, if he criticizes you maliciously (vilifies you), you are least worried about that (because you know people won't believe him). Nobody vouches for the dishonest person as they do not expect such a person to perform a noble deed. 1. Listen to me, oh, my blind of wisdom, greedy, and deceitful mind; a pure-hearted person can be recognized without even a word spoken by him in his support. Pause. A dishonest person can be very handsome and wise, but he is worth only 8 small cowrie shells (almost worthless) in terms of honesty and reliability. If he mingles with honest people to look like them, he will still be found out to be dishonest when tested. 2. A person reaps the rewards based on his deeds. Self-praise does him no good, because he will still follow the path in life guided by his (evil) thinking. 3. If a dishonest person sings his false praise a thousand times and may even be able to convince the whole world with his wisdom, he cannot deceive Waheguru because dishonesty will stay dishonest before Him, as the wise (omniscient) Waheguru knows everything. On the other hand, if Waheguru likes an honest person who may have low wisdom, he is approved in His Court, oh Nanak. 4.4.6.

Word Meaning: Kaaya = body. Pervaana = Laykh = written order (prewritten destiny). Iyaana = child; ignorant. Ghurriyeh(i) = are designed; coined. Teenay Laykh = designed according to the three effects of Maya (see the Introduction at the beginning). Khoata = impure. Kaam Na Aavaiy = do not favour; of no use. 1. Roopa = silver (used to make pure coins); noble qualities. Khuraa = pure; honourable. Pause. Qadi = Qazi = a Muslim priest with some magisterial powers. Mul(u) = filth (of dishonesty); bribery. Jeeaan Ghaayay = kills human beings (robs them; takes unjust donations by unfair means). Joogut(i) = the path to unity with God. Oajaarray Ka Bundh = foundation of the wilderness of the mind. 2. Joogut(i) = means (to connect with God). Aiko = Waheguru alone. Oolti Kuray = reverses his thinking (from worldly attractions to Allah). Muraiy = kills his desires. Braham = Waheguru. Kool = clans; associates. 3. Daanushbund(u) = wise; knowledgeable. Mul(u) = filth of evil thinking. Neeshaan(u) = stamp of approval. 4.
MEANING: If we imagine the human mind to be the prewritten order as dictated by Waheguru (his destiny), then man's body is the paper on which his destiny is written (the mind is moulded by his destiny, and he performs the deeds with his body as guided by his mind). However, the ignorant man does not read his destiny (does not know what is in store for him in the future). Man's destiny is coined in Waheguru's Court based on his previous deeds performed under the three believed effects of Maya. But remember, the deceitful deeds do not work in his favour, oh my friends. 1. Just like a coin which is made of pure silver, and which is honoured everywhere, a man with noble qualities is also honoured everywhere, oh Nanak. Pause. (The religious leaders are immoral), The Qazi tells lies (does injustices) and takes in the filth of bribery. The Brahman does take dips in holy water, but murders his helpless clients by forcing them to pay totally unjust donations even at very sad occasions. The Yogi is blind to spirituality and is unaware of the real path of unity with Waheguru. All three religious leaders are the foundation of the wilderness of the mind, where followers cannot find the right path in life. 2. A real Yogi is the one who recognizes the true path to union with Waheguru, and recognizes (makes connection with) the only Supreme Power - Waheguru – with Guru's grace. A real Qazi is the one who reverses his thinking from Maya towards Allah, and kills his sensual desires with the grace of the Guru while still living in the family. Likewise, a real Brahman is the one who ponders on Waheguru (makes a connection with Him), thereby finding salvation not just for himself, but also for his followers. 3. The individual who washes his mind to purify it is the wise man in real terms, and the real Muslim is the one who gets rid of the filth of misdeeds. The individual who recognizes Waheguru (makes a connection with Him) as per his destiny, as approved by the Court of Waheguru, is considered a truly educated person. 4.5.7.

NOTE: Some scholars believe that this holy Shabad was sung and later written by Guru Nanak Sahib near the Temple of god Krishna (in Odisha) on the beach during the same visit when He visited the Temple and sang the Shabad of Arti there as described in the next holy Shabad. Guru Sahib saw a Brahman sitting on the beach who would pretend to have visited popular Hindu gods like Shiva, Brahma, and Vishnu during his meditation, and then share his experiences with a large gathering. He would put a bowl near him at the front for donations. This had become his daily routine. He would shut his eyes and hold his nose to give the false impression that he did not want to be distracted by any unholy sight and smell while meditating. When Guru Ji saw the Brahman's deceitful act of defrauding innocent people, He decided to enlighten them.

When the Brahman was pretending to meditate with his eyes shut, Guru Sahib reached his bowl with some money in it, and stealthily placed it behind his back and began to wait for the Brahman’s reaction. When the Brahman opened his eyes to share his experiences of his visits with the gods, he panicked not to see the bowl of money in front of him, and forgot to share his experiences. Guru Ji took the bowl from behind his back and placed it in front of him. The Brahman heaved a sigh of relief, but also felt ashamed. Guru Sahib seized the opportunity, and sang this Shabad for everybody there. With this background, you should be ready to enjoy the holy Shabad.

Word Meaning: Kaal(u) = (proper) time; human life. Joag(u) = union with God. Sat = high morality. Dhub(u) = means; ways. Thaansut = places of worship; religious leaders. Bhurisht = polluted; become impure. Doobta = drowns in the sea of Maya (in immoral activities). Iv = like this; by such means. 1. Kul Meh(i) = in the world of aggressiveness (disputes and injustice). Saar(u) = supreme. Meeteh(i) = closes (eyes). Tthuggun Kuou = to defraud. Pause. Aant Sayti = with three fingers. Soojhtay = get the needed information. Tin(i) Loe = the three layers of the universe: earth, underworlds, and the worlds above. Mugr Paachhaiy = on the back side. Pudum (aasun) = a sitting position in which the right foot is placed on the left thigh and the left foot on the right thigh. Yogis use this position to meditate. Aloe = which has not been seen; strange! 2. Khuttri = a warrior. Dherm = high morality; responsibility. Mulaysh = of low caste (Muslims). Bhaakhiya = language; customs. Guhee = adopted. Srisht(i) = world. Ikk Vern = of a single caste (all immoral). Gut(i) = high-level spirituality. Ruhee = left behind; not anymore. 3. Asht Saaj = of eight chapters (books on grammar). Saaj(i) = by creating. Sodheh(i) = ponder on. Bayd = the Vedas. Abhiyaas = practise. Mookut = salvation. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru’s Naam is supreme in this age of disputes and injustice (Kalyug). But rather than reciting Waheguru’s Naam, our preachers shut their eyes and hold their noses to mislead and to defraud the ignorant world. Pause. Human life is not meant for deceitful acts like this, which do not lead to union with God, nor do they raise the morality of the people. The minds of our religious leaders are polluted. With their impure minds, how can their teachings be pure! With such misleading teachings, the world is drowning in the sea of Maya (immoral activities). 1. Such deceitful leaders hold their nose with three fingers to pretend deep meditation, and claim that they have access to the three worlds (have information about them), but have no idea about what happens behind their back (remember the bowl incident). What a strange kind of yoga (Pudum) position they brag about! 2. The Khatris, who are known for their chivalry, have abandoned their responsibility and have adopted the culture of the Muslims, whom they call of low caste. The whole world has been reduced to a single caste (of low morality), where the high level of morality has been left behind (has become the thing of the past). 3.

The Hindu scholars have written eight-chaptered books of grammar which they apply to ponder on (study) the Puranas, and practise the Vedas. But there is no salvation without Waheguru's Naam, espouses Nanak, the slave of Waheguru. 4.1.6.8.

Kirpa jul(u) dayh(i) Nanak saaring kuou, hoyay ja tay Tayray Naam(i) vaasa. 4.1.7.9.
Word Meaning: Aarti = a type of idol worship in which a platter containing some lamps, flowers, incense, a coconut, and in some cases pearls too, is rotated in a vertical circle in front of the deity. On His visit to Jagan Nath Puri in Odisha - a south-eastern state in India - Guru Nanak Sahib visited the famous temple of Lord Krishna in the evening, when Aarti is performed. While the ritualistic Aarti, which has no spiritual value, was being performed, Guru Sahib sang this holy Shabad in His sweet voice to the gathering, including the chief priest, to educate them and teach them how to really worship the real Lord – Waheguru. Listening to the real Aarti, the whole gathering touched Guru Sahib's feet. Enjoy the holy Shabad.
Thaal(u) = platter. Guggunmaiy Thaal(u) = platter-like sky. Ruv(i) = the sun. Chund(u) = the moon. Deepuk = lamps. Taarika Mundul = the galaxy of stars. Junuk = imagine; suppose. Moti = pearls. Dhoop(u) = incense. Mulyanlo = coming from the Mullaya Moutain which is the home to sandal trees. Puvun = wind; air. Chuvro Kuray = fans to show respect. Bunraayay = vegetation. Phoolunt = is offering flowers. Joti = light-like Waheguru. 1. Kaiysi = how wonderful! Bhuvkhundna = destroyer of the birth-death cycle. Unhuta Shabad = Guru's eternal Shabad. Vaajunt = makes music. Bhayri = drum. Pause.

Sehs = thousands; countless. Tuv = Tohee = yours. Moorut(i) = forms. Pud = feet. Bimal = clean; worthy of worship. Gundh = smell; nose. Iv Chulut = such amazing feats. 2. Chaanun(i) = with the light. Chaanun(u) = light. Gur Sakhi = with Guru's Teachings. Pergut(u) = appears; becomes visible. Bhaavaiy = liked by. 3.
Mukrund = the sweet essence of flowers. Lobhit Muno = greedy at mind (heart). Undino = all the time. Aahi Piyaasa = just this thirst. Saaring = rainbird, which waits to drink the first drop of rainwater only. Ja Tay = by which. Vaasa = stay. 4.
MEANING: (Why perform a worthless ritualistic aarti for deities when a real Aarti is taking place in nature for Waheguru all the time?) Like the ritualistic aarti, the sky is the platter in which the sun and the moon are two lamps, and the stars in the galaxy are like pearls. The fragrance of sandal trees on the nearby Mallya Mountain is serving as incense, the wind is fanning respectfully, and the whole vegetation is providing the flowers for the Aarti of the light-like Waheguru. 1. What wonderful Aarti is being performed for You, oh the destroyer of the cycle of birth and death!! The eternal Shabad of the Guru (Waheguru's praise) is serving as the huge drum used to produce the sound of the conch-shell, which the priests blow into for people to assemble for aarti. Pause. (The gods being worshipped during the ritualistic aarti have two eyes, one nose, and two feet each; so naturally, the question arises, what did Guru Sahib's Lord look like in terms of His physical features. Guru Sahib's answer is: (Waheguru is formless, yet present in every human being). He has countless eyes, and yet no eyes at the same time. He has countless forms, yet no form; He has countless clean (worthy of worship) feet, yet not even a single foot; without any nose, yet He has countless noses. I am captivated by His amazing feats. 2.
His Light (Soul) is present in everybody and is lighting them up. However, His light appears (reveals itself) in somebody's heart only through the Guru's Teachings. And only that Aarti is worthwhile which He likes. 3. My mind is always greedy for the sweet essence of Waheguru's lotus-like Feet (to worship them, i.e., to worship Waheguru Himself) and I have a great thirst (desire) for them. I am like the rainbird, but long only for Your Naam-Amrit. Kindly bestow me with the Naam- Amrit with which I may stay connected with You, begs Nanak. 4.1.7.9.

Word Meaning: Chaupuday = Shabads with four stanzas. Dhun(u) = wealth (Waheguru's Naam). Akhoot(u) = inexhaustible. Nikhootaiy = runs out. Jaayay = disappears. 1. Dhunvunt = (really) wealthy. Liv Laayay = focus on; get connected. Pergaasiya = made comprehensible; revealed. Pause. Uvgoon = ignoble qualities. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = without any special effort. Sehj(i) Smaani = leads to a blissful state. 2. Achurj(u) = amazing event. Doobhida = internal struggle to choose. Amoaluk = priceless. 3. Pergut(u) = appears. Sehjay = in a blissful state. Jaan(i) Puchhaaniya = made a connection. Mun Maaniya = mind got convinced. 4.

MEANING: The Perfect Satguru has revealed that the wealth of Waheguru's Naam is inexhaustible; it never runs out, and never disappears. I am all sacrifice for my Satguru, with whose grace one is enabled to embed Waheguru's Naam in his heart. 1.

Those who concentrate on Waheguru's Naam with full devotion (make a connection with Him) are truly wealthy. The Perfect Satguru has made Waheguru's Naam comprehensible, which gets enshrined in the heart, with Waheguru's grace. Pause. With the benevolence of the Perfect Guru, the ignoble qualities are eradicated, and noble qualities are implanted in the devotee's heart without any special effort. The mind-purifying Shabad of the Perfect Guru leads to the blissful state of spirituality, in which the devotee feels eternal comfort. 2. Just watch the amazing feat of Satguru, whereby the indecisiveness of the devotee's mind gets eradicated, and Waheguru's Naam is implanted in his heart. Waheguru's Naam is priceless and cannot be realized by any means, but it gets enshrined in the devotee's mind with the grace of Satguru. 3. Waheguru is the only supreme power that is present in everybody, and which appears in the devotee's heart with the Guru's Teachings. Word Meaning: Nirmul Ut(i) Apaara = extremely (perfectly) pure. Bhundaara = treasures. Bikh(u) = poison. Jaan(u) = treat like. Abhimaan = conceit; ego. 1. Chaakhaiy = tastes. Koyay = rare. Anund(u) = blissfulness. Praput(i) = have; acquired. Pause. Vertaiy = operates. Tihou Loyay = in the three worlds (earth, worlds below, and above). Haumein = selfishness and ego. Mul(u) = filth. 2. Hurkh = happiness; blissfulness. Soag(u) = grief. Mookt(u) = free from the bonds of Maya. Uvraan = others. 3. Mooyay = (spiritually) dead. Billaayay = wails. Daajheh(i) = burn (in the fire of desires). Shaant(i) = peace; contentment. Trishun = appetite for desires. 4.

MEANING: Unlike the worldly wealth which one accumulates by unfair and dishonest means, the wealth of Waheguru's Naam is extremely pure as it is acquired by honest hard work. The treasures of Waheguru's Naam-Wealth are full of the Guru's Shabad. Other than the wealth of Waheguru's Naam, treat all other types of wealth as poisonous because the man burns in the fire of his ego in love for Maya, oh my friends. 1. Some rare individuals taste the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru and enjoy blissfulness day and night; however, Waheguru's Naam can be acquired only with great fortune. Pause. Satguru's Shabad is the beacon of enlightenment in the three worlds; whoever experiences it gets purified and washes away the filth of his selfishness and ego with Waheguru's Naam. By worshipping Waheguru with full devotion, one enjoys bliss all the time. 2. The devotee, who tastes the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, becomes His favourite. He is always blissful and never experiences grief (because of his high spiritual state). He becomes free from all worldly bonds and gets emancipation for others, too. He recites Waheguru's Naam and becomes blissful. 3. Without Satguru, everybody is spiritually dead and wails for help. They burn in the fire of their worldly desires and find no peace. However, Satguru puts out the fire of their desires when they seek His shelter; they also find peace and comfort with Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Rung(u) = (the colour) of love for. Goorra = deep; strong. Dhun = woman (human being). Shaant(i) = providing peace. Seegaar(u) = adornment. Raavay = enjoys. Joog(i), Joog(i) = in every eon. Maylaava = union. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru raises and nurtures all the living beings; a devotee who recites Waheguru's Naam accumulates the wealth of His Naam in her heart forever. Imbued in the Naam, those devotees who meditate on the Naam, enshrine it in their hearts, and attain salvation. 1. One acquires the wealth of Waheguru's Naam by serving the Guru (living as per His Advice); his mind becomes enlightened through the recitation of the Naam. Pause. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, the bond of love between the devotee and Waheguru becomes very strong. The devotee enjoys Waheguru's love when blissfulness adorns her mind. Nobody gets connected with Waheguru with selfishness and ego in their mind; they are misled from the beginning, and waste away their precious human life. 2. In His shelter, and with Guru's Shabad, one acquires peace, a high spiritual state, and blissfulness. Such service to the Guru is eternal, with which one gets fully absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. With Guru's Shabad, one gets connected with the dear Lord, recites His Naam all the time, and receives honour in Waheguru's Court. 3. It is Waheguru, which is the creator of the universe, and which operates alone in every eon. One gets connected with Him only by His kind sight when he embeds the Guru's Shabad in his heart. Waheguru, Himself, connects the devotees who are imbued in His love with Him, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Teeja = third. Maiyla = filthy; immoral. Doojaiy = in Maya. Lobhaayay = in greed of. Bhaayay = love; attraction. Purj = public. Vigoyee = suffers due to misguidance. Choataan Khaayay = gets a beating; suffers. 1. Put(i) = dignity. Ootum = superior; pure; enhanced. Pause. Oobray = salvaged. Dri-rraayee = reinforce. Saach(i) = in Waheguru (His Naam). 2. Gaahuk(u) = customer; seeker. Virla = rare. Aap(u) Puchhaan(u) = analyzes self. Saachi = pure. Raas(i) = investment. Vapaar(u) = business. Purakh = man. 3. Ikk(i) = the One God. Kaar = service. Suvaarunhaar = causing success. 4.

MEANING: The world is filthy (because of its immorality) and gets even filthier because of its greed for Maya, as a result of which it continues to be born, and to die. The whole world suffers humiliation because of its love for Maya; the Maya-engrossed man loses his respect in Waheguru's Court and suffers punishment. 1. One's mind gets purified with service to the Guru. With Waheguru's Naam embedded in his heart, he enhances his dignity. Pause. Guru's devotees are protected in the shelter of Waheguru as they reinforce His worship in their heart, and get imbued in His Naam. Through the worship of Waheguru, devotees earn respect, and, imbued with Waheguru's love, they enjoy bliss by staying absorbed in His Naam. 2. However, there is a rare individual who seeks to be a dealer in Waheguru's Naam by analyzing the self with the Guru's Shabad. The investment (in the business of Waheguru's Naam) of such a devotee is pure (his dedication is selfless) and so is his business (hard labour to acquire only the Naam). Such a devotee is worthy of praise who has love for Waheguru's Naam. 3. Waheguru, Himself causes such devotees to recite His Naam (by putting them in the shelter of the Guru), where they listen to His (Guru's) Shabad and His supreme (transcending) holy compositions. The service to Waheguru is also eternal like Him (never fails to connect with Waheguru in any eon). Waheguru's Naam makes the devotee successful (be approved) in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Nanak Saachay, saacha bhaavaan. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Bul(i) Jaaoun = I offer to sacrifice (serve). Saacho, Saach(u) = Waheguru alone. Smaalihou = remember Him. 1. Sehjay = in blissful state; without any special effort. Pause. Koorr(u) = falsehood. Koosut(u) = lies. Trishna = worldly desires. Shaant(i) = calmness; peace. Bhaanaiy = by (Guru's) Will. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. 2. Boojhaiy = understand; comprehend. Vihaani = (life) is spent. Bhaytay = get connected with. Tthaak Ruhaayay = keeps control on. 3. Saachay = to Waheguru. Saacha = with pure mind. Bhaavaan = liked. 4.5.

MEANING: I wish to serve those who serve Waheguru. They have Waheguru at heart, and His Naam on their tongue. We should all remember God so as to get rid of our problems. But He gets enshrined in our hearts with Guru's Shabad only. 1.

The devotee washes the filth of his mind (his unholy thoughts) by listening to the Guru's Shabad when Waheguru's Naam gets embedded in his mind in the high spiritual state, above the effects of Maya. Pause. He gets rid of his falsehood (dishonesty) and his lies with Guru's Shabad, and also puts out the fire of his desires with it. Guru's Shabad brings peace to his mind, and he attains bliss in a high spiritual state. If he follows Guru's Will, his selfishness and ego are eradicated. He sings Waheguru's praise and reaches His Dwelling (merges with Him). 2. The Maya-engrossed man does not understand (the worth of) Guru's Shabad, nor does he comprehend the Bani (holy compositions); his life is spent in troubles. But he enjoys bliss when he connects with the Guru, as he becomes able to control his selfishness and ego. 3. But whom should we preach to (we have no ability to do so); it is Waheguru alone (Who has the ability) to connect the individuals with Him through the Guru's Shabad. I also wish to sing Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Dear (Guru) whereby I can acquire noble qualities of Waheguru to become pure like Him, and be liked (loved by Him), oh Nanak. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Dhaat(u) = (desire for) Maya. Daaroo = treatment. 1. Bukhshay = is kind. Vudiyaayi = honour. Pause Gurmukh(i) Kurnee = to act on the advice of the Guru. Soajhi = understanding. Maiy Mut = intoxicated mind. Maiygul Mikdaara = like an elephant. Ankus(u) = weapon to control elephants. Jeevaalunhaara = giver of (spiritual) life. 2. Asaadh = non-fixable; uncontrollable. Saadhaiy = brings under control. Achur(u) Churaiy = do something undoable (control one's sensual pleasures). Suvaar(i) = purifies; acquires noble qualities. Tujaiy = abandons. Vikaar = vices. 3. Dhoor(i) = right from the source (by Waheguru). Vichhurreh(i) = disconnected. Smaayay = stays absorbed. Kulaa = powers. Puchhaaniy = recognizes; acquires.

MEANING: How can one connect with God (he cannot) without killing his mind (his selfishness and ego, which are rooted in Maya)? (The answer is) When one kills (controls) his mind, his desire to earn more wealth gets killed automatically (comes under control). But some rare person knows the treatment to kill his mind; such a person knows that the mind (desires) can be killed only with the Guru's Shabad. 1. Those, whom Waheguru is kind to, are given the honour that His Naam gets implanted in their hearts with Guru's grace. Pause. The individual, who acts on the Advice of the Guru, understands the functioning of the human mind. (Without Guru's Shabad, the human mind thinks like an intoxicated person (who cannot tell the bad from the good) and is conceited like an elephant. Just as an elephant is controlled by an ankus, the human mind is controlled by the Guru's Shabad, which gives a person renewed spiritual life. 2. The human mind is extremely difficult to control, and a rare person is able to control it. The mind can be purified only by killing one's sensual pleasures, which are equally difficult to kill (they can be controlled only by the Guru's Shabad – another very difficult thing to achieve). A Sikh of the Guru adorns his mind (purifies it) by getting rid of his haumein and vices. 3. Those who are predestined from the beginning to (get connected with Waheguru) do get connected with Him through the Guru. They stay absorbed in Guru's Shabad and never get disconnected. Waheguru alone knows His powers, and can be realized in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Kaacha Dhun(u) = wealth which never lasts forever. Suncheh(i) = accumulates. Gavaar = foolish. Bhoolay = misled. Bikhiya = earned by dishonesty. Praaput(i) = in possession. 1. Saacha Dhun(u) = everlasting wealth (Waheguru's Naam). Phoon(i) = also. Pause. Bhuvjul(i) Doobay = drown in the world-sea. Oorvaar = nearer shore. Paar = the far shore. Bhaytay = meet with. Baiyraag(i) = detached from Maya. 2. Chuhoun Joog = in all the four eons. Amit = immortalizing. Saadhik = those who purify their bodies by yogic exercises. Turseh(i) = yearn for. Loyay = world. Praaput(i) = acquired. 3.
Saacha = everlasting. Ootum Braham = transcendent Waheguru. Puchhaanaiy = realizes. Koyay = some rare. Drirraayay = reinforces. Laayay = connects with. 7.
MEANING: Only the foolish and the ignorant accumulate wealth which does not stay with them forever. The Maya-engrossed individuals are foolish and blind, who are misled in life. The wealth earned by dishonest means always causes trouble because it neither accompanies the dead nor does it stay with him forever. 1. The real (permanent) wealth (of Waheguru's Naam) can be acquired with the Advice of the Guru, whereas the worldly wealth comes and goes. Pause. The Maya- engrossed individuals are misled, and the foolish suffer spiritual death. They drown in the world sea, and neither can they stay in this world (forever), nor can they swim across to the other side (to be one with Waheguru). However, if they are highly fortunate, they get connected with the Guru and remain detached from the world, staying imbued in Waheguru's love day and night. 2. Guru's Shabad is the True Amrit (that immortalizes the highly fortunate devotees by connecting them with Waheguru) in any of the four eons; as a result, the devotee stays absorbed in His Naam. All over the world, the Sidh yogis and those who purify their bodies by yogic means yearn for Waheguru's Naam, but it can be acquired only with perfect fortune. 3. Waheguru is eternal, and so is His creation, but only a rare individual recognizes the Supreme Being. The eternal Waheguru Himself reinforces His eternal Naam in the hearts of His devotees. He watches everything Himself (without any help) and Himself exhorts His devotees to recite His eternal Naam, oh Nanak. 4.7.

Word Meaning: Keemut(i) = worth. Mit(i) = size; magnanimity Liv Laayay = meditate with full focus of mind. Veechaar(u) = pondering. Bukhshay = bestows. Veechaar(u) = wisdom; understanding. 1. Achurj(u) = amazing. Kulee Kaal = Kulyug; in the present times. Pause. Kaar Kmaayay = do routine business. 2. Bikhiya Ka Dhun = the worldly wealth. Abhimaan(u) = ego. Maan(u) = respect. 3. Saajay = creates. Aagaiy = next world. 4.

MEANING: The worth and the magnanimity (transcendence) of Waheguru's Naam cannot be described. Those devotees are great who meditate only on the Naam with full concentration of mind. Guru's Wisdom, and pondering on His Shabad, are eternal (never fail to connect with Waheguru in every eon). But one acquires them only when Waheguru bestows them on the devotees. 1. Waheguru's Naam is amazing because He Himself bestows it, and can be acquired only through the Guru. Pause. The man is foolish, and carries out all his dealings in the world under the influence of his haumein (selfishness and ego). However, he can get rid of his haumein with the grace of the Guru, who forgives him and connects him with Waheguru. 2. The worldly wealth causes huge conceit in the man, as a result of which, he receives no respect in Waheguru's Court, and drowns in the world-sea. To acquire permanent bliss, one needs to get rid of one's selfishness and ego by singing Waheguru's praise with the Guru's advice. 3. There is none other than Waheguru, who creates everything; only that person begins to recite His Naam whom He exhorts to do so. Waheguru's Naam is the source of all comforts in this world and the next, oh Nanak. 4.8.

Kindly protect the dignity of Your devotee (against the attacks of Maya), and instill Your Naam in my heart so that I may recite it, oh Waheguru. I simply ask for Your worship alone. Pause. Waheguru's devotees, who recite Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, are dear to Him. All those records of my deeds which Chitar Goopt had kept have been erased, and there is no balance owing to the Angel of death. 2. Waheguru's devotees recite His Naam in the shelter of the Guru (or holy saints) when the sun-like hot fire of desires is put out by the moon-like coolness of Waheguru, which appears in the heart of the devotees. 3. Word Meaning: Praan = life. Tujay = gives up. Meena = fish. Hayt(u) = love. Budhaayo = developed too much. Binsiyo = ends life. Bhuvraa = bumble bee. Nickus = get out; escape. 1. Aikus Siyoun = only with "One" (God). Sungaiy = with Cheena = recognized; realized. Pause. Kaam Hayt = for the love of lust. Koonchur = elephant. Phaankiyo = cut into pieces; trapped. Pur Vuss(i) = in control of others. Naad = sound; music. Sir(u) Daariyo = surrenders his head. Koorunka = deer. Bidaara = gets destroyed. 2. Kootumb = family. Mohiyo = in love with. Liptaana = clings to. Ut(i) = extremely. Ruchiyo = rapt in. Suraapur = for sure. 3. Nayha = love. Doohayla = unhappy. Boojhaayo = explained. Kayla = blissful. 4.

NOTE: Trappers of elephants dig a deep pit in the forest and cover it with leaves. They put a model of a female elephant to attract the males. When a male sees the model, he rushes to it, falls into the pit, and gets trapped.

Body parts of some kinds of deer, especially those of the musk deer, are in great demand. The poachers produce a special music which lures the deer, and they get trapped.

MEANING: (Love for any worldly thing other than Waheguru leads to trouble). The fish, which have developed an excessive love of water, die quickly when out of water. The bumblebee ends its life in its love for the lotus flower when it gets trapped inside the flower and cannot escape. 1. But my mind has fallen in love with the only "One" (God), who is always with me. He never dies and never leaves you. I realized (got connected with) Him by Satguru's Shabad. Pause. The elephant gets trapped by his lust and becomes a prisoner of others (hunters). Likewise, a deer surrenders its head (life) to the poachers because of its love for music and gets destroyed. 2. Similarly, upon seeing his family, the man becomes captivated by his love for them and becomes greedy (to earn more wealth to provide comforts for his family), as a result of which he clings to Maya. He gets so rapt in his love for his family and Maya that he thinks everything belongs to him forever; he does not realize they will eventually leave him. 3. Believe it fully that a person who gets in love with anyone (or anything) else is always unhappy (suffers). The Guru has given me the deep understanding that a man should love only Waheguru, which keeps him blissful at all times, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Bundhun = bonds of attachment. Chhootkaayay = frees from. Bisriyo = forgotten. Dhundha = worldly business. Churnee Laayay = taking shelter of the Guru. 1. Chint = worrying. Biraani = about others. Ahunboodh(i) = egoistic thinking. Baasun = lust. Gud-haa = deep pit. Gaadi = buried. Pause. Baiyraayee = enmity. Pusaar(u) = the spread; creation. Bheetur(i) = inside. 2. Door Puraayo = got rid of. Birha = pain of separation. Mayl(u) = union. 3. Dheettha = the persistent unwillingness of the mind to break worldly bonds. Voottha = rained; got embedded. Rumuyyiya = God. Deettha = saw. 4.

MEANING: In the company (shelter) of the Guru, I have given up worrying about others (friends and foes alike), and have buried my egoistic thinking, bonds of attachment, and lust of mind, in a deep pit (eradicated them completely). Pause. The Guru has very kindly given me Waheguru's Naam (implanted in my heart) and has severed all my worldly bonds. By surrendering to the Guru, I have forgotten all my unnecessary worldly tasks (greed for wealth). 1. I do not think anyone is my enemy anymore, and I have no enmity left for anyone. With the deep understanding given to me by the Guru, I see Waheguru inside me and in all His creation. 2. I have made friends with everybody, and everybody treats me as their friend. Once I got rid of (mental) separation from the Lord (by abandoning my love for Maya), the Royal Waheguru connected me with Him. 3. I found Guru's Shabad to be very sweet, as a result of which, the persistent resistance of my mind against breaking the worldly bonds got eradicated, and the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam rained on my mind (it got enshrined in my mind). Consequently, I saw the Lord to be omnipresent everywhere - in the waters, on the land, and in the sky - oh Nanak. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Jub Tay = ever since Dershun = holy sight. Bhaytay = met with. Sadhu = Guru. Anund(u) = blissfulness. Purakh Bidhaata = Carver of our fates. 1.
Ram Juso = praise of God. Pergaas = enlightenment. Poora = perfect. Pause.
Goon-Nidhaan = the treasure of virtues (God). Rid = heart. Bheetur(i) = inside. Praaput(i) = acquired. Vust(u) Agoachur = the inaccessible item (Waheguru's Naam). Rung(u) = love; affection. 2. Chinta = worries. Achinta = baseless worries. Asoacha = filthy thoughts. Soag(u) = grief. Thaaka = tired; left behind. Roag = ailments. Bibaaka = fearless. 3. Tehl = Sayva = meeting the routine needs and obeying. Aagiya = Will. Bhaani = liked. Kaadhay = freed from. Koorbaani = sacrifice life. 4.

MEANING: Ever since I met with the Guru and had His holy sight, good days (favourable times) have descended on me. By singing praise of Waheguru, which is the carver of our fates, I have acquired Him in my mind and have felt extremely blissful since then. 1. Now, I sing His praise in my mind. By taking shelter of the Perfect Guru, my mind has been enlightened, and now I enjoy blissfulness all the time. Pause. With the source of virtues, Waheguru, embedded in my mind, all my troubles, misgivings, and fears have disappeared. I have acquired the inaccessible, valuable thing (Waheguru's Naam|) in my heart, and my mind is imbued with His love. 2. All my reasonable and baseless worries, good and evil thoughts, griefs, greed, and worldly attachments have been left behind. With Guru's grace, my biggest ailment of ego has been eradicated, and now I have no fear of the Angel of death (because my soul has become "one" with Waheguru. 3. Now, I love to serve, and fulfill the physical needs of the Guru, and obey His Will. I shall gladly sacrifice my life for the Guru who has freed me from the claws of the Angel of spiritual death, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Buhoutayray = too many. Til(u) = the size of a sesame seed; minuscule. Pause. Nirmoluk = priceless. Heera = diamond. Muntaai = mantra. Diggaiy Na Doalaiy = does not weaken (waver). Drirr(u) = firm. Triptaani = contented. 2. Beech Kuchh(u) Hoatay = obstacles in the centre (wall of the five demons). Bilaani = is over. Alunkaar = ornaments. Thaiyli = bag; one piece. Kunik = gold. 3. Pergutiyo = appeared. Jot(i) = God's Light. Sehj Sookh = comfort of the high spiritual state. Unhut = divine. Baajay = plays (the music). Bani = words in praise of God. Nihchul = unwavering. Ghur(u) = heart. Bundhaani = built. 4.5.

MEANING: Waheguru, to whom our body, mind, and wealth belong, is also the one who is wise, know-all (omniscient) and respectable. He is the one who listens to our comforts and discomforts, and when He listens to our prayers, He kindly connects us to Him, and our lives become beautiful. 1. Only Waheguru listens to our prayers; prayer before any other deity or any other power goes totally unrewarded (because no one else is capable of fulfilling our wishes). Pause. My Guru has bestowed the Mantra of Waheguru's Amrit-Naam on me, which is priceless like a diamond, and because of which my mind has become so firm (strong) that it does not weaken or waver anymore. It has given me full contentment. 2.

The five demons, which had served as a wall between Waheguru and me, keeping us disconnected, have become a thing of the past. Now I, and Waheguru, have become "one," like many different ornaments of gold (which look distinct), becoming a single nugget of gold when they are melted and cannot be told apart. 3.
Now that Waheguru has appeared in my mind, I have attained the blissfulness of the high spiritual state, have earned praise from the people, and I feel as if the Divine music of Guru's holy Shabad is playing in my mind. With my Guru laying the foundation of the Waheguru's Naam in my mind, my mind has become an eternal dwelling for Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.5.

Bikhiya = Maya; sensual pleasures. Triput(i) = contentment. Paavuk(u) = fire. Eendhun = fuel. Dhraapaiy = satisfied = Aghaayee. Pause. Binjun = delicious foods. Oodum(u) = efforts. Sooaan = (greedy) dog. Koontaan = directions. Ghokha = examines; searches for. 2. Kaamvunt = lustful = Kaami. Pur Greh = house (women) of others. Joh = evil sight. Chookaiy = ends. Puchhtaapaiy = repents. Soag = sad moments. Sookaiy = weakens. 3. Apaar = not easily achievable. Amoala = invaluable. Nidhaana = treasure. Sehj = Aanund = blissfulness. 4.

MEANING: The fire of desires, even of rajahs and landlords, is not put out (they never get contented), no matter how big their kingdoms or holdings are. Intoxicated in their wealth, they are always rapt in it and cannot think of anything else, even when they see other things (problems of others) with their eyes. 1. Like fire, which is never satisfied no matter how much fuel it consumes, nobody has ever found contentment in sensual pleasures. One gets contentment only with Waheguru's Naam. Pause. The man eats delicious foods day after day, but his appetite never goes away. Like a greedy dog, he still works hard and looks for more and more in every direction. 2. A lustful man may have many wives, but he does not quit casting an evil eye on other women. He does that every day, and his morality dries up (mind weakens more and more). He repents for his greed (if he is successful) and suffers in sadness (if he fails to achieve his objective). 3. Waheguru's Naam is inaccessible, invaluable, and is the source of Amrit (which makes one immortal by connecting him with Waheguru). The Guru has explained to me that one gets the mental joy and blissfulness of the high spiritual state in the company of the holy saints, oh Nanak. 4.6.

Mauliyo = blooms. Boond = drop. Bern(i) = describe. Oostut(i) = praise. 2.
Ghaal = (misdirected) hard work. Sayv = (misdirected) service. Achinta = without any special effort. Duyya = munificence. Munta = Mantra (Shabad). 3.
Oat(i) Poat(i) = the cross threads of fabric; warp and weft. Ruvviya = present. 4.

MEANING: There is nothing in this world for which the man rushes to acquire that can be compared (does not come even close) to (Waheguru's Naam). But it befits only the devotee (only he understands this fact) to whom the Guru gives Waheguru's Amrit-Naam with His kindness. 1. The individual, who comes to like the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, is left with absolutely no appetite for anything else to eat, drink, or to enjoy otherwise. No other taste provides satisfaction to his mind. Pause. The mind and the body of the individual, who gets even a drop of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, bloom and come to life. I cannot praise such an individual enough, nor can I describe the value of his spiritual state. 2. Waheguru cannot be realized by misdirected hard labour, or misdirected service to Him (for example, idol worship, self-torture, etc.). He gets enshrined in the heart of those who spend their lives following the Guru's Advice with His kindness, and they do not have to put in any other effort to get connected with Him. 3. Waheguru, which is kind to the helpless (humble), is always benevolent and raises all living beings, just as a mother raises her child. Even though the man does not realize it, yet Waheguru is as closely mingled with everybody as the cross threads (warp and weft) are knit in the fabric, oh Nanak. 4.7.

MEANING: I wish to sacrifice my life for my Guru who reinforces Waheguru's Naam in the hearts of people, and who shows the path of righteousness in the darkness and the wilderness (of ignorance and confusion) in which the people are spending their lives. 1. Waheguru is the basis of my life, who has the worry (responsibility) to meet my needs everywhere (in this world as well as the next). Pause. All the devotees wish for the dust of the Feet of Waheguru (wish to serve Him like a slave) by reciting His Naam by which one acquires all the treasures, pride, respect, and full dignity, and by which countless sins vanish. 2. If someone wishes to achieve all his objectives, he should serve only the "One" (Waheguru). By remembering the Lord, which is above the effects of Maya, and which is beyond any limits, one gets across the sea of Maya (is salvaged). 3. In the company of the Guru, one attains peacefulness and calmness of mind (which quits wavering) and acquires great blissfulness. Hurchundauri, bun Hur paat haiy, ehaiy toohaaro beet. Ruhaou. Chundun layp hoat dayh kuou, sookh(u) gerdhubh bhusm sungeet(i). Amrit sung(i) naah(i) rooch aavut, bikhaiy tthagauri preet(i). 2. Sadh sung(i), inn dookh tay niksiyo, Nanak Aik preet(i). 4.9.

Word Meaning: Sherminda = ashamed. Kmaani = behave; perform. Reet(i) = routine; deeds. Saakut = wealth. Bipreet(i) = opposing behaviour. 1. Uveraiy = others.

Heet = love. Hurchundauri = mirage; imaginary fort in the sky. Bun= forest. Hur = green. Paat = leaves; vegetation. Beet = ability; limit. Pause. Chundun = sandalwood (oil). Layp = coating. Gerdhubh = donkey. Bhusm = dust. Sungeet(i) = with. Rooch = interest. Bikhaiy = vices. Thugauri = deceitfulness. 2. Ootum = superior. Bhulay Sunjogi = favourable times. Puvit = Puneet = holy; purifier. Akaaruth = worthlessly. Junum Pudaaruth = the valuable human life. Kaach = worthless glass (short-lived happiness). Baadraiy = in exchange. Jeet = is being won over. 3.
Kilvikh = sins. Unjun = kohl (as medication). Naytur = eyes. Niksiyo = escaped. 4.
MEANING: The man makes it a routine to commit deeds for which he has to be ashamed. He reinforces the behaviour which is counter to the noble behaviour, and vilifies (maliciously criticizes) the holy saints, but worships wealth. 1. With deep attachment for Maya, he forgets to love other good things (like honesty, love for humanity, and love for Waheguru's Naam, etc.). Like an imaginary fort in the sky, and the green leaves in the forest (which never live forever), a man's life is also short and limited. Pause. If you coat the body of a donkey with highly valuable sandalwood oil (unlike the man, he does not like it), and he goes to lie and roll in dust, which he finds comforting. Similarly, the man shows no interest in the invaluable Waheguru's Amrit, such as Naam, and loves to indulge in sensual pleasures and deceit. 2. With favourable times (good fortune), one gets the company of the holy saints (union with them), which purifies the immoral in this world, but man's immoral behaviour is winning over (and he is losing) the invaluable human life in exchange for the worthless short-lived happiness. 3. Like a medication, which gives better vision to the eyes, the Divine Knowledge that the Guru imparts to His Sikhs, enlightens their mind, because of which countless sins are destroyed. I have escaped from the suffering of such sins when I learned to love the only Supreme Being (God) in the company of the saints, oh Nanak. 4.9.

Jaayee = I go. 2. Kirpa-Nidh(i) = source of kindness. Putit Paavun = purifier of the immoral. Gosaayeen = the Lord of the world (God).

NOTE: At the time of Guru Sahiban, when there were no machines to do most of the daily tasks, like fetching water from distant wells, fanning the guests, grinding wheat to make flour, etc., were big chores and had to be done manually.

MEANING: When I fetch water for my Guru, fan Him, grind flour for Him, sing Waheguru's praise in His shelter, and recite Waheguru's Naam with every breath, I enjoy the blissfulness of mind. 1. Please, be kind to me, and give me such wisdom that I may always remember You, oh my Lord. Pause. It is with Your benevolence that I can get rid of my conceit, my worldly attachments, and my misgivings. The ever-blissful Waheguru is present in everybody, and everywhere, no matter where I go. 2. You are very kind, a source of compassion, and purifier of the immoral, oh Lord. If I recite Your Naam even for a short moment, it feels as if I have acquired the comforts of countless kingdoms. 3. Only that recitation (of any mantra), self-torturing, or worship of some kind, is worthy, which is liked by Waheguru. All the fire of my desires has been put out, and I am fully contented by the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.10.

MEANING: What resistance can the poor man offer to the powerful Maya, who controls all the living beings of the four-directional world, and who has ruined all the holy places (by its captivating immoral effects) where people perform yagnas, take holy dips, and torture themselves (to please some deities)? 1. One can get freedom from the bonds of Maya only if one takes the shelter of Waheguru. The ailments of sensual pleasures get terminated only when one sings Waheguru's praise by the grace of the Guru. Pause.
One cannot hear Maya talking or see her deceiving people. It captivates and misleads people in such a way that everybody finds it sweet (attractive) in their mind. 2.
The Maya (wealth) is loved so much by the mother, the father, the sons, and the brothers in the family that it has created doubts in the minds of everybody about the other members in each family. Everybody in the family doubts that others have more wealth than they do, so they all die (become deadly enemies) fighting over it. 3. I shall gladly sacrifice my life for my Guru, who has demonstrated the amazing thing that Maya, which is a hidden fire in which the whole world burns, has no effect on the devotees of Waheguru. 4. With the grace of the Guru, all my worldly bonds have been severed, and I am enjoying great blissfulness now. I have earned the wealth of Waheguru's Naam in my heart, oh Nanak. 5.11.

We are Your children, and dependent upon You, and You nourish us every moment. 1. You are unlimited and unfathomable; nobody can find Your limits, oh Lord. You have countless virtues, and we have only one tongue, so we cannot describe even a single virtue of Yours. Pause.
We are ignorant, insignificant, and have low wisdom, as a result of which we commit countless misdeeds; but You have the innate noble virtue of forgiveness, because of which You forgive us for our faults, and teach us in many different ways, oh Lord. 2.

You are our comforting and sincere friend; we are in Your shelter, and all our hopes lie in You. Nanak is a slave of Yours, kindly protect me (from the attacks of Maya), oh the kind Guard, Waheguru. 3.12.

People try many different ways to search for God, but He is very difficult to realize. The only way to attain peace of mind (to please Him) is to recite His Naam. Pause.

Waheguru is not convinced by the recitation of mantras, self-torture, roaming the earth, dangling upside down, holding the breath in the brain, or by using other techniques of yoga or Jainism. 2. Waheguru's Naam, and His praise are the priceless Amrit (which immortalizes one by connecting him with Waheguru), but only that individual recites the Naam or sings His praise, whom He is kind to. I will offer all my wealth, my life, my heart, and my mind to such a friend. Pause. I wish that I had no attraction for (interest in) the wealth of others, in other women, or in vilifying others. I wish to be in the company of the holy saints to converse with them, and that my mind stays awake in singing praise of Waheguru. 2. MEANING: Waheguru salvages (protects) His saints. Waheguru protects His devotees (in every situation), and their malicious critics lose and run away. All the living beings in the sky, on the earth, in the underworld, and on other planets are in the control of Maya. But Waheguru's Naam emancipates (frees from the bonds of Maya) not just the devotee, but also his associates. 2. Imbued in the love of the limitless Waheguru, the holy saints sing praise of Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya. Pause. Their extreme humility is the cause of the fame (praise) of the holy saints, and recognizing the worth of Waheguru's praise is the source of their greatness. Because of the worship of Waheguru, the holy saints always enjoy bliss in their minds. All their worries get eradicated, and they enjoy all comforts. 2. Waheguru's praise is sung in the form of Shabads and poems where the holy saints get together. There is peace and blissfulness in the assembly of the holy saints. But, only that individual gets to join the company of the holy saints who has good fortune carved on his forehead. 3.

With folded hands, I pray before the holy saints and sing Waheguru's praise while washing their holy feet (showing reverence). The devotees have Satguru (Waheguru), whose persona is rewarding, and whose service purifies them, protecting them like mother and father. A devotee, who has the wealth of Waheguru's Naam, gets his mind enlightened in the shelter of the Guru. 1. The Provider for all living beings is present everywhere; countless acts of selfishness are eradicated by His Naam. All one's suffering due to repeated births and deaths gets eradicated when one gets Waheguru's Naam embedded in his heart and body in the shelter of the Guru. 2. An individual who is provided shelter by Waheguru is recognized (honoured) in His Court. But only that individual is the real devotee who is liked by Waheguru. Such a devotee owes nothing to the Angel of death (has no sins recorded against him). 3.

The Lord is eternal, and so is His Court. Who can think of, and put a value on, the Lord's worth? God is present in every heart and is the basis of their lives. I beg for the dust of the feet of holy saints (an opportunity to serve them), oh Nanak. 4.3.24.

Nobody has access to the devotees (to cause any harm to them) who have the support (protection) of the Lord. I recite the Naam of Waheguru which eradicates the fear of the Angel of death, oh Nanak. 2.2.33.

A rajah feels that he owns everything (he feels protected) within his state boundaries. Just like them, a devotee is proud of the Lord and feels fully protected in His shelter. 1. But, unlike the wealthy, the landlords, and the rajahs, a devotee of Waheguru does not feel conceited in the shelter of Waheguru and is wise enough to remember (realize) his limits, and uses them wisely so that he does not suffer any loss. Pause. Forgetting (giving up) all other supports, the devotees of Waheguru pray for and seek only His shelter. With the benevolence of the Guru, one's mind becomes pure by singing Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 2.3.34.

MEANING: The individual, who gets imbued in Waheguru's love, is the real valiant in this world. With the support of the Perfect Guru, he is able to control his mind, which earns him control over everything (no worldly attraction weakens his mind). 1. We should sing Waheguru's praise with deep love and reverence (with a fully focused mind) while staying in His shelter, whereby one gets fully absorbed in Him, and attains the blissful spiritual state. Pause. I pray to Waheguru to grant me the dust of the feet of His devotees (an opportunity to serve them) whereby their holy feet (their advice) will get implanted in my heart, and even my body will become pure (will perform noble deeds only) in their company, which is the biggest comfort for me, oh Nanak. 2.4.35.

Bherma = doubts; misgivings. Mookut(i) = free from the worldly bonds. 2.

MEANING: The man tries to deceive people by hiding behind some religious make-up (like wearing the garb of an ascetic who has renounced the world); commits sins and yet denies them without realizing that the omnipresent and omniscient Waheguru knows everything. 1. He believes that Waheguru does not watch him because He lives somewhere far away, but He is actually very close to him. The greedy casts an evil eye on one thing, then on another, and yet on something else, and such cycles of greed continue. Pause.
As long as his misgivings are not eradicated, the man will never achieve emancipation. Only that individual is a saint, a devotee, or a slave of Waheguru, who recites the Naam of the kind Lord, oh Nanak. 2.5.36.

He gives them all comforts and tasty foods to enjoy, and they reside in their minds. 1. The source of enlightenment, Waheguru, is our leader (hero) with all possible virtues, and is our friend. All other prevalent religious rituals, which the people perform, are tasteless (worthless) without remembering Waheguru. All fears of rebirths are eradicated in the shelter of the Guru when all one's griefs are also destroyed, oh Nanak. 2.19.50.

When one sings Waheguru's praise day and night, he feels as if he has worn countless types of rich clothes (feels fully contented). 2. When he ponders the path to union with Waheguru, he feels as if he has ridden elephants, chariots, and top-class horses. 3. When one remembers Him with pure mind and body as His slave (with humility), he realizes Waheguru, which is the treasure (source) of all comforts, oh Nanak. 4.2.56.

Some people's minds get fully dyed in the prevalent rituals (they are fully satisfied with them), while some others feel contented in taking dips at holy places; but Waheguru's slaves (devotees) recite only His Naam(u). 1. The Lord is the destroyer of all worldly bonds; so, I, a slave of Him, remember only the omniscient Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.3.57.

ਧਨਾਸਰੀ ਮਹਲਾ 5॥ ਕਿਤੈ ਪ੍ਰਕਾਰਿ ਨ ਟੂਟਉ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਿ॥ ਦਾਸ ਤੇਰੇ ਕੀ ਨਿਰਮਲ ਰੀਤਿ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਜੀਅ ਪ੍ਰਾਨ ਮਨ ਧਨ ਤੇ ਪਿਆਰਾ॥ ਹਉਮੈ ਬੰਧੁ ਹਰਿ ਦੇਵਣਹਾਰਾ॥ 1॥ ਚਰਨ ਕਮਲ ਸਿਉ ਲਾਗਉ ਨੇਹੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਕੀ ਬੇਨੰਤੀ ਏਹ॥ 2॥4॥58॥

MEANING: So that the bond of their love for You does not break under any circumstances, Your devotees have a pious life style (of high moral values), oh Waheguru. Pause.
The provider, Waheguru, puts a stoppage to the selfishness and the ego of His devotees, and becomes dearer to them than their soul, life, mind, and their wealth. 1.
My prayer to the Lord is that He implants the love for His lotus-like Feet (His Naam) in my heart, oh Nanak. 2.4.58.

ੴ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਪ੍ਰਸਾਦਿ॥ ਧਨਾਸਰੀ ਮਹਲਾ 9॥

Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i): Dhanasari Mehla 9:

ਕਾਹੇ ਰੇ ਬਨ ਖੋਜਨ ਜਾਈ॥ ਸਰਬ ਨਿਵਾਸੀ ਸਦਾ ਅਲੇਪਾ ਤੋਹੀ ਸੰਗਿ ਸਮਾਈ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਪੁਹਪ ਮਧਿ ਜਿਉ ਬਾਸੁ ਬਸਤੁ ਹੈ ਮੁਕਰ ਮਹਿ ਜੈਸੇ ਛਾਈ॥ ਤੈਸੇ ਹੀ ਹਰਿ ਬਸੇ ਨਿਰੰਤਰਿ ਘਟ ਹੀ ਖੋਜਹੁ ਭਾਈ॥ 1॥ ਬਾਹਰਿ ਭੀਤਰਿ ਏਕੋ ਜਾਨਹੁ ਇਹੁ ਗੁਰ ਗਿਆਨੁ ਬਤਾਈ॥ ਜਨ ਨਾਨਕ ਬਿਨੁ ਆਪਾ ਚੀਨ੍ਹੈ ਮਿਟੈ ਨ ਭ੍ਰਮ ਕੀ ਕਾਈ॥ 2॥1॥

Kaahay ray bun khojun jaayee? Serb nivaasi, sudaa alaypa, tohee sung(i) smaayee. 1. Ruhaou. Poohp mudh(i) jiyoun baas(u) bust(u) haiy, mookur meh(i) jaiysay chhaayee. Taiysay hee Hur(i) busay niruntur, ghut hee khojhou bhaayee. 1. Baahur(i), bheetur(i) Aiko jaanhou, eh(u) Gur Giyan butaayee. Jun Nanak bin(u) aapa cheenaiy, mitaiy na bherm kee kaayee. 2.1.

Bheetur(i) = inside. Aapa Cheenaiy = self analysis. Kaayee = deposit of impurities. 2.

MEANING: Why should one leave his home and go to the forests to search for Waheguru, when the omnipresent and fully detached Lord is always with him (in his heart), oh man? Pause. Just like fragrance resides hidden in flowers, and your reflection can be seen in a mirror (only as long as you are there), Waheguru is present hidden everywhere; so, search for Him in your own heart, oh my brothers. 1.

The Guru tells us that it is the same Waheguru which is present outside, and inside your heart; but the coating of the filth of misgivings cannot be removed until the man analyzes self (looks for Waheguru inside him), oh Nanak. 2.1.

ਧਨਾਸਰੀ ਮਹਲਾ 5॥ ਸਾਧੋ ਇਹੁ ਜਗੁ ਭਰਮਿ ਭੁਲਾਨਾ॥ ਰਾਮ ਨਾਮ ਕਾ ਸਿਮਰਨੁ ਛੋਡਿਆ ਮਾਇਆ ਹਾਥਿ ਬਿਕਾਨਾ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਮਾਤ ਪਿਤਾ ਭਾਈ ਸੁਤ ਬਨਿਤਾ ਤਾ ਕੈ ਰਸਿ ਲਪਟਾਨਾ॥

The man is fully lost in the sweetness of his love for his mother, father, brothers, sons, and his wife (depending upon the stage of his life); and intoxicated with his youthfulness, wealth, and his power, he stays insane day and night. 1.
He shows no interest in (the Naam of) Waheguru which is kind to the weak, and is the destroyer of all suffering. But who can we blame? There is a rare individual in millions who realizes Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 2.2.

ਧਨਾਸਰੀ ਮਹਲਾ 9॥ ਤਿਹ ਜੋਗੀ ਕਉ ਜੁਗਤਿ ਨ ਜਾਨਉ॥ ਲੋਭ ਮੋਹ ਮਾਇਆ ਮਮਤਾ ਫੁਨਿ ਜਿਹ ਘਟ ਮਾਹਿ ਪਛਾਨਉ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਪਰ ਨਿੰਦਾ ਉਸਤਤਿ ਨਹ ਜਾ ਕੈ ਕੰਚਨ ਲੋਹੁ ਸਮਾਨੋ॥ ਹਰਖ ਸੋਗ ਤੇ ਰਹੈ ਅਤੀਤਾ ਜੋਗੀ ਤਾਹਿ ਬਖਾਨੋ॥ 1॥ ਚੰਚਲ ਮਨੁ ਦਹਿਦਿਸਿ ਕਉ ਧਾਵਤ ਅਚਲੁ ਜਾਹਿ ਠਹਰਾਨੋ॥ ਕਹੁ ਨਾਨਕ ਇਹ ਬਿਧਿ ਕੋ ਜੋ ਨਰੁ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਤਾਹਿ ਤੁਮ ਮਾਨੋ॥ 2॥3॥

Only that individual deserves to be called a true yogi who does not criticize or praise anyone without a reasonable cause; treats gold and iron the same way; and stays unaffected by happy or sad moments. 1.
Man's ever-wandering mind rushes in every direction; the individual, who is able to control his fickle mind to stabilize it, can be considered to be free from all worldly bonds, oh Nanak. 2.3.

ਧਨਾਸਰੀ ਮਹਲਾ 9॥ ਅਬ ਮੈ ਕਉਨੁ ਉਪਾਉ ਕਰਉ॥ ਜਿਹ ਬਿਧਿ ਮਨ ਕੋ ਸੰਸਾ ਚੂਕੈ ਭਉ ਨਿਧਿ ਪਾਰਿ ਪਰਉ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਜਨਮੁ ਪਾਇ ਕਛੁ ਭਲੋ ਨ ਕੀਨੋ ਤਾ ਤੇ ਅਧਿਕ ਡਰਉ॥ ਮਨਿ ਬਚਿ ਕ੍ਰਮਿ ਹਰਿ ਗੁਨ ਨਹੀ ਗਾਏ ਯਹ ਜੀਅ ਸੋਚ ਧਰਉ॥ 1॥ ਗੁਰਮਤਿ ਸੁਨਿ ਕਛੁ ਗਿਆਨੁ ਨ ਉਪਜਿਓ ਪਸੁ ਜਿਉ ਉਦਰੁ ਭਰਉ॥ ਕਹੁ ਨਾਨਕ ਪ੍ਰਭ ਬਿਰਦੁ ਪਛਾਨਹੁ ਤਬ ਹਉ ਪਤਿਤ ਤਰਉ॥ 2॥4॥9॥9॥13॥58॥4॥93॥

MEANING: I do not understand what means I should use by which all my misgivings may be removed, and I may be able to swim across the world sea. Pause.
I am very much afraid that I have not done anything noble after taking birth; I am worried that I have not sung the praise of Waheguru with my mind, my words, or my deeds. 1.
I did not acquire any Divine Knowledge (made no connection with Waheguru) even after listening to the Guru's advice, and, like an animal, I just filled my stomach. I pray to Waheguru that He recognizes (uses) His innate virtue of kindness for me; only then, an immoral like me can find salvation, oh Nanak. 2.4.9.9.13.58.4.93.
