(PAGE 696): Mayraiy heeuray Ruttan(u) Naam(u) Hur(i) bussiya, Gur(i) haath(u) dhuriyo mayraiy maatha. Junum, junum kay kilvikh dookh ootray, Gur(i) Naam(u) deeyo, rin(u) laatha. 1. Mayray mun, bhuj(u) Ram Naam(u) subh(i) urtha. Gur(i) Pooraiy Hur(i) Naam(u) drirraaya, bin(u) Naavaiy jeevun(u) birtha. Ruhaou. Bin(u) Gur moorr bhuyyay haiy munmukh, tay moh Maaya nit phaatha. Mo kuou keejaiy daas(u), daas daasun kuou, Hur(i) duyya dhaar(i) Jugunaatha. 3. Hum undhulay Giyanheen ugiyani, kiyoun chaaleh maarug(i) puntha. Hum undhulay kuou Gur unchul deejaiy, jun Nanak chuleh miluntha. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Heeuray = in the heart. Ruttan = (invaluable like a) jewel. Kilvikh = sins. Rin(u) = debt (of sins). Haath Dhuriyo = protected. Laatha = paid off. 1. Bhuj(u) = recite. Urtha = objectives. Birtha = empty; meaningless. Pause. Moorr = foolish. Bhuyyay = become. Phaatha = grasped. Akaatha = unsuccessful. 2. Pug = feet. Sufliyo = Sunaatha = successful. Jugunaatha = Lord of the world. 3. Giyanheen = devoid of knowledge. Maarug(i) = Puntha = on the path of (morality). Unchul = robe; protection; shelter. Miluntha = in unison; together. 4.

MEANING: The Guru placed His kind hand on my head (became benevolent to me) as a result of which the jewel-like invaluable Naam of Waheguru got implanted in my heart, and all my sins of many lives were eradicated, and their debt (any possible punishment because of them) was cleared. 1. Recite Waheguru's Naam, which fulfils all your objectives, oh my mind. The Perfect Guru reinforced the Naam in my mind; otherwise, human life is meaningless without Waheguru's Naam. Pause. The Maya-engrossed people are foolish who do not take the Guru's shelter, and are always trapped in their love of Maya. They never worship the Guru's Feet (obey His Huqam), because of which their lives go in vain. 2. But those who serve Guru's Feet (obey His Will) make their life successful. Please be kind to me and make me a slave of Your devotees, oh, the Lord of the world. 3. I lack spiritual knowledge and am blind (in the dark of ignorance), so how can I follow the Guru's path? Kindly provide me shelter at the feet of the Guru so that I may follow the path shown by Him, requests Nanak. 4.1.

Jaitsari Mehla 4: Heera laal(u) amoluk(u) haiy bhaari, bin(u) gaahuk meeka kaakha. Ruttan, gaahuk(u) Gur(u) Sadhu daykhiyo, tub Ruttan(u) bikaano laakha. 1. Mayraiy mun(i), goopt Heer(u), Hur(i) raakha. Deen-Duyaal(i) milaayo Gur(u) Sadhu, Gur(i) miliyaiyn Heer(u) puraakha. Ruhaou. Munmukh koatthi ugiyan(u) undhayra, tin ghur(i) Ruttan(u) na laakha. Tay oojhurr(i), bherm(i) mooyay gavaari, Maya bhooung bikh(u) chaakha. 2. Hur(i), Hur(i) Sadh maylhou, jun neekay, Hur(i) Sadhu shern(i) hum raakha. Jun Nanak Hur(i) kirpa dhaari, paakhaan(u) doobut Hur(i) raakha. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Heera = diamond. Laal(u) = ruby. Amoluk(u) = invaluable. Bhaari = heavy; hugely. Gaahuk = buyer. Meeka = equal to. Kaakha = a straw. 1.
Goopt = hidden. Puraakha = tested; evaluated. Pause. Koatthi = heart; mind. Laakha = realized; felt. Oojhurr(i) = (lost) in wilderness. Bherm(i) = in misgivings. Mooyay = died (spiritually). Gavaari = stupid. Bhooyung = snake; poison. Chaakha = tasted. 2. Neekay = great; noble (connected with Waheguru). Ungikaar(u) = kindness. Bhaag(i) = by running; hurriedly. Paakha = shelter. 3. Vukhaaneh = express; describe. Vud = great. Agumm = (physically) inaccessible. Purkha = (omnipresent) God. Paakhaan(u) = stone; loaded with sins. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is invaluable like a diamond or a ruby, but without the proper buyer (who knows its value), it becomes valueless like a blade of dry grass. But when it is evaluated by the Guru, the Naam becomes worthy of millions. 1.
Waheguru has kept His Naam hidden in man's heart (mind), oh my mind. But when the munificent (generous) Waheguru connects one with the Guru, He shows the true worthiness of the diamond (Waheguru's Naam). Pause. The minds of the Maya-engrossed individuals are dark because of the absence of spiritual knowledge; they do not realize the diamond-like Naam in their hearts. They are misled by their misgivings as if they are in a wilderness where they cannot find the path (of righteousness). They keep enjoying the poisonous taste of Maya, and the foolish suffer spiritual death. 2.
Kindly, connect me with the Guru, the spiritual great saint, and keep me in His shelter, oh Waheguru. I have come running to Your shelter, please, be kind to me. 3.
You are so great (transcendent) that You are inaccessible, oh the omnipresent Waheguru. The Lord became so kind that He salvaged even a great sinner like me, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Baarik = children; immature; lacking knowledge. Gut(i) = transcendence. Mit(i) = measurements. Moogudh = foolish. Iyaana = ignorant. Mut(i) = wisdom. Ootum = superior. Siyaana = wise. 1. Aalsiya = lazy. Ooghlaana = drowsy; dreamy. Kupt = door (of mind). Pause. Khin, Khin = every moment. Heeuray = in the heart. Praana = (of) life. Umlee = an addict. Loobhaana = captivated by; cannot live without. 2. Kayri = of; for. Dhoor(i) = right from the Source. Bhaag = fortune. Pooraana = since long (for their previous deeds). Tin = of those. Surayveh = serve; obey them. 3. Bichhuriya = separated. Chireen = for long. Drirraaya = reinforced. 4.

MEANING: We are your ignorant, foolish, and unwise children, and know nothing about Your transcendence and Your limits, oh Waheguru. Please, be kind, and grant us the higher wisdom to transform us from foolish to wise, oh Lord. 1. My mind was lazy and drowsy, but when Waheguru connected me with the Guru, the doors of my mind flung open by His Word. Pause. I pray to the Guru that He instills love for Waheguru in my mind every moment because the Naam of my dear Waheguru is the basis of my life. Like an addict who is deeply in love with the intoxicant (and dies without it), I experience spiritual death without the Naam of the Lord. 2. Those who foster love for God are predestined to do so because of their previous noble deeds. I would love to serve those who, with dedication, find Waheguru sweet in their minds. 3.
Waheguru was very kind to me, who connected this devotee (me) with Him, who had been separated from Him (God) for a long time. My Satguru is great (worthy of worship) who reinforced Waheguru's Naam in my mind. I am a sacrifice for Him, oh Nanak. 4.3 union. Laagiba = begins (to enjoy). Bhooyung = snake; poisonous. Grussiyo = grasped. Bis(u) = poison. Kaadhiba = pulled out; removed. 1. Rus(i) = sweetness. Putit = immoral. Puvittar = pure. Chaakhiba = tasted. Pause. Liv = concentration. Oonmun(i) = high spiritual state. Trishna Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Shaant(i) = peace. Nirmul = pure. 2. Kheen = weak; poor. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Gerbh Joani = lives in the womb. Birtha = empty; worthlessly. 3. Bimul = clean; pure. Pug = feet. Rayn Pug = dust of feet. Divaayayba = gives. 4.

Word Meaning: Saajun(u) = friend; supporter. Rusk(i) = enjoying the taste. Ful = reward;

MEANING: My Satguru, who is my best friend, connected me with the omnipresent and magnanimous Waheguru when I began to enjoy the sweetness of my union with Him. The man is gripped by the snake-like (poisonous) Maya, but the Words of the Guru take the poison out (break the bonds with Maya). 1. My mind is attached to the sweet Naam of Waheguru. Waheguru transforms the immoral into pure-minded devotees by putting them in the shelter of the Guru when the devotees begin to taste the sweetness of His Naam. Pause. It is with great fortune that one connects with the Guru; it is by the Guru's kindness that one begins to enjoy a high spiritual state by fully focusing one's mind on Waheguru. When a devotee sings praise of the great virtues of Waheguru, all the fire of his desires is put out, and he attains peace of mind. 2. Those who do not get the sight of the Guru (do not get connected with Him) have prewritten poor fortune. Because of their love for Maya, they go through a number of life forms and waste away their precious human life. 3. I pray to Waheguru to grant me the pure (superior) wisdom so that I may find Waheguru's Naam to be sweet, and serve the Feet of the Guru (obey His Command). So, I beg the benevolent Waheguru to grant me the dust of the Feet of the Guru (an opportunity to serve Him), oh Nanak. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Maat = mother; wisdom*. Baanjha = infertile; non-spreadable. Soonjee = empty; unguarded. Dayh = body. Oye = those. Khup(i), Khup(i) = suffer frustration (humiliation). Kuraanjha = in irritation; in exasperation. 1. Maajha = in; inside. Dhaari = adopted. Sumjha = enlightened. Pause. Keerut(i) = (to sing) praise. Pud = (spiritual) state. Ootum(u) = superior. Huoun = I (am). Bulihaari = offer to sacrifice. Goopt = hidden. Purgaajha = illuminated. 2. Kilvikh = sins. Guvaajha = lost; destroyed.

Daana = wise. Saanjha = share. 3. Jug Jeevun = the soul of the world (God). Oodhaariyo = acquired in mind. Dherm Raayay = the Angel of justice. Dur(i) = at the door (of God). Kaagud = paper; the written account. Phaarray = tore into pieces. Sumjha = settled. 4.5.

MEANING: Make the wisdom (thinking) of the people who do not enshrine Your Naam in their heart unavailable (ineffective) to others (so that such ignoble thinking does not affect them), oh Waheguru. Without Waheguru's Naam in their mind, such people wander around lifeless (without spiritual life) and die a spiritual death, suffering humiliation. 1. Recite Waheguru's Naam, which resides in you, oh my mind. With His benevolence, the kind Waheguru connected me with the Guru who enlightened my mind with Divine Knowledge. Pause. Waheguru's praise in this world leads to a high spiritual state in which one realizes Him in one's heart, sheltered by the Guru. I am a sacrifice to my Guru, who illuminated Waheguru's hidden Naam in my mind. 2.

It is with great luck that one gets to have a holy sight of (get connected with) the Guru, whereby all his sins are eradicated. Satguru shares (explains) many, many virtues of the wise (great) Waheguru, as a result of which His devotees realize Him (Waheguru, by singing His praise). 3. Those, whom Waheguru is kind to, embed His Naam in their heart. The Angel of justice tears all the papers of the account of their deeds in Waheguru's Court (Waheguru Himself is the Justice) whereby their accounts get settled, oh Nanak. 4.5.

NOTE: Even though Maat (or Maata) means mother in most cases, it has also been used to mean wisdom or thinking in some situations. In the present case, it can only mean wisdom because most of the people love Maya more than Waheguru, and are the followers of their mind. So, Guru Ram Dass would not have condemned the mothers of all such people, particularly when there are many examples of highly respectable mothers who gave birth to sons, some of whom were great devotees of Waheguru, while some others (born to the same mother) were lovers of Maya. Moreover, why only to blame the mother, and not the father. So, Maat cannot mean mother here. A couple of Shabads are given below, in which the word Maat, or Maata, is used as a synonym for wisdom.

- ਗਉੜੀ ਮ:1 (151-2)॥ ਮਾਤਾ ਮਤਿ ਪਿਤਾ ਸੰਤੋਖੁ॥ ਸਤੁ ਭਾਈ ਕਰਿ ਏਹੁ ਵਿਸੇਖੁ॥ 1॥ ----

Meaning: (If you want union with Waheguru, you need) to have higher wisdom as your mother (to nourish you with good qualities), and contentment as your father (to keep control on evil thoughts). You also need high morality and a commitment to serving the public as your special friends, oh my friend. ----------

- ਮਾਰੂ ਮ:1 (991)॥ ਮੁਲ ਖਰੀਦੀ ਲਾਲਾ ਗੋਲਾ ਮੇਰਾ ਨਾਉ ਸਭਾਗਾ॥ ----1॥ ਮਾ ਲਾਲੀ ਪਿਉ ਲਾਲਾ ਮੇਰਾ ਹਉ ਲਾਲੇ ਕਾ ਜਾਇਆ॥ -----

Meaning: I am highly fortunate that the Guru has accepted me as His slave, as if He had bought me. ------- Now, the wisdom imparted to me by the Guru is acting as my mother (to nourish me with noble qualities), and contentment has become my father. I owe these virtues to the Guru. -------

- ਆਸਾ ਕਬੀਰ ਜੀਉ (476)॥ ----- ਮੁਈ ਮੇਰੀ ਮਾਈ ਹਉ ਖਰਾ ਸੁਖਾਲਾ॥ ਪਹਿਰਉ ਨਹੀ ਦਗਲੀ ਲਗੈ ਨਹੀ ਪਾਲਾ॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥

Meaning: (Thank God that) my former mother (wisdom; the thinking about worldly desires) is dead now, and I feel blissful. Now, no discomfort comes near me, and I do not need any other support. ----------

It is perfectly clear that the term "mother" implies wisdom in all these holy Shabads, and there are many more like these.

Word Meaning: Chultau = fickle; wandering. Aroorra = beautiful; stable; peaceful. Unhut Dhoon(i) = auto-playing Divine music. Dhaar(i) = stream. Leerra = satisfied. 1. Roorra = beautiful; source of comfort. Jhupeerra = hug tightly. Pause. Saakut = Maya worshipper. Bundh = bonds. Bikh = Maya. Suncheh(i) = amasses. Jukeerra = with zeal. Urth(i) = in the name of. Suheh(i) = endures. 2. Sherdha = great reverence. Dhoorra = dust of feet (Guru's Shabad or Will). Hult(i) = this world. Pult(i) = the next world. Goorra = deep. 3. Keerra = worm; devout slave. Pug = feet. Pakhaan(u) = stone - (hearted). Huriyo = green; came to (spiritual) life. Moorra = foolish. 4.

MEANING: One's wandering mind becomes peaceful in the shelter of the Guru, which one gets with great fortune. He feels as if the auto-playing Divine music is playing in his mind, and he becomes fully satisfied when he tastes the blissful, sweet stream of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. 1. Recite Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of all comforts, oh my mind. Satguru implanted love for Waheguru in my mind, and now my mind and my body are full of love for Him, and He connected me with Him who hugged me very tightly. Pause. The Maya-worshippers are strongly bonded with the poisonous wealth which they amass with great zeal. They cannot spend that in the name of Waheguru and endure the wrath of the Angel of death. 2. Those who serve Waheguru and the Guru with great reverence with their body (and mind), and obey Their Will, get imbued in Their deep love, and earn praise in this world and the next. 3. Kindly connect me with the Guru, oh Waheguru. I am a worm (a humble devotee) of the holy saints. I have developed a deep affection for Guru's Feet (His Shabad); my stone-like, hard, and foolish mind has come to life in his shelter, oh Nanak. 4.6.

So, I cannot forget the fear of the looming death; this worry has given me heartache. 1.

I tried many different ways for emancipation, and rushed to the forest in Waheguru's search, but did not realize the secret that He was always dwelling in my heart. 2.

Chhunt(u): I am Yours (in Your shelter); please protect me in whatever way You deem right, oh Waheguru. I have countless ignoble qualities; how many of them can I count? I always make mistakes day after day, and have been through countless lives as a result. When one remembers Waheguru constantly, all his wishes are fulfilled. So, he should get rid of his pride, worldly attachments, and other vices, and meditate only on the "One" (God). Word Meaning: Padhaanoo = traveller; visitor. Gaarub(i) = in conceit. Uttiya = loaded with, engrossed. Ruttiay = imbued. Abhimaan(i) = ego. Booday = drowned. Biyohaar = routine business. Bunita = wife. Bihaavayay = is spent. Pooj(i) Aayay = reached the end. Divus = days. Dherm Dooteh = agents of the Angel of justice (death). Ditthiyaan = on seeing. Kirt Kerm = the deeds performed. Khuttiya = earned. 1.
MEANING: This world is a place for visitors only; but the man goes around (spends his life) loaded with conceit (as if he is going to live here forever), and imbued with love for Maya, he commits countless sins. The idea of death never crosses his mind, and due to his greed, worldly attachments, and his ego, he drowns in the world-sea (of attractions of Maya). He spends his life which revolves around his sons, friends, daily business, and his wife. As prewritten in his fortune, the days of his life reach the end, and his suffering begins to see the agents of death. The results of the deeds done by him cannot be erased, and he did nothing to earn the wealth of Waheguru's Naam to avoid such suffering, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Oodum = efforts. Anayk = Asunkh = countless. Bhermeh = wander through. Joan(i) = life forms. Pushoo = animals. Punkhi = birds. Saiyl = rocks; mountains. Turvur = trees. Beej(u) Bovus(i) = plant seeds. Bhoag Bhogeh = reap the rewards. Haarunt = the losers. Jooyaiy = in gambling. Khin(u) = moment. Ticken(u) = stay peaceful. 2.

MEANING: The man puts in countless efforts (to enjoy the luxuries of life), but does not recite Waheguru's Naam. He keeps taking births, and dying, and wanders through countless life forms which include animals, birds, life in rocks, and vegetation. He reaps the rewards of what he sows. He loses the precious human life in the gamble (to win short-lived comforts at the cost of long-term spiritual gain), and does not like to sing the praises of Waheguru. Misled by his misgivings, man's mind wanders around continuously, and never stays peaceful, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: (Eventually), the man passes his young age, and the old age takes its (young age's) place; he loses his eye sight, and he leaves this world of Maya without Waheguru's Naam. He does not listen to Guru's advice, and suffers humiliation because of attractions for Maya which cause him heart ache. He does not enshrine the love of the Perfect and the limitless Waheguru in his mind even for a short moment. The man does not realize that he is short-lived in this world, and perishes away in a moment like a limitless weight of paper (burns away in a moment), oh Nanak. 3.

MEANING: I have come to the shelter of Waheguru which has lotus-like soft Feet (just an expression of reverence), oh Nanak. (Due to my ignoble deeds) I was drowning in the world-sea, but Waheguru ferried me across it, which is otherwise very difficult to swim across. I sang praise of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, which emancipated me with His grace. Waheguru accepted me as His devotee and, despite my ignoble qualities, honoured me by bestowing His Naam. I realized my desired Lord, who is limitless, and is the treasure of all virtues. When one takes the mental food of Waheguru's Naam, he feels eternal contentment, oh Nanak. 4.2.3.

MEANING: Waheguru initiates life and places the fertilized egg in the mother's womb, where the temperature is so high (37 °C) that it is unbearable. But, by reciting Lord's Naam, the fetus is not destroyed even at that high temperature, oh Nanak. 1. Upside down, the fetus lives in the mother's womb, which is a very uncomfortable position (for 9 months). So, why should we forget the Lord with whose Naam we find salvation, oh Nanak? 2.

MEANING: With the union of the mother's egg and the father's sperm, Waheguru initiates life in the high heat of the mother's womb, where the fetus is upside down, dirty, has scary looks (because of incomplete development), and is in a hell-like place where it is in deep darkness. By enshrining Waheguru's Naam in the body and mind, and remembering Him all the time, you do not get roasted there as a fetus, oh man. So, do not forget Him even for a single moment Who protects you in such a tough (uncomfortable) place. One's mind blooms when he remembers Waheguru, and all the discomforts due to the deprivation of luxuries for him are eradicated. MEANING: (Without Waheguru's Naam), a place is like a frightening wilderness; but the foolish man thinks of that as a bustling town, just like he believes the short-lived materials of comfort to be lasting forever. Among all the comforts, the man is overpowered by lust, rage, and ego, and lives like an insane. But he repents when he is punished by the Angel of (spiritual) death. MEANING: Rule of a state, physical beauty, wealth, and the pride of a higher caste are all deceitful (because they are all short-lived). The man accumulates wealth through many immoral means, including blaming others, but nothing other than Waheguru's Naam accompanies him after death, oh Nanak. 1. The man mistakenly gets attracted to toomma because, even though it is beautiful to look at, it is very bitter. Similarly, Maya is very attractive, but its effects are very bitter (harmful) because not only does it not accompany the man after death, but it is also the root of many evils, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Why should the man accumulate wealth which does not accompany him after death, and why should he make any effort to earn it when he gets deprived of it at the end? How can a man find contentment by forgetting Waheguru when his mind is not pleased (feel blissful) without His Naam? Those who forget Waheguru, get involved in Maya, and are thrown into hell. MEANING: There is no blissfulness in the comfort of ruling some state, and there is no blissfulness in enjoying the luxuries of life or in the comforts of Maya. For the devotees, there is blissfulness in the company of the Guru and in having the holy sight of Waheguru (getting connected with Him), oh Nanak. 1. MEANING: The devotees of Waheguru do not find anything sweet (blissful) other than Waheguru. In comparison with Waheguru's Naam, the devotees decide (find out) that all other comforts of life are distasteful. With Guru's mediation (advice), all their discomforts due to ignorance and misgivings are eradicated. Their mind is pierced with the lotus-like feet (of Waheguru), and they are so deeply imbued in His love that like the deep red colour, it never fades.
