Word Meaning: Bhaanda = vessel; container. Dhoop(u) = incense. Kerm = deeds. Phoonn(i) = then. Soort(i) = concentration of mind. Smaayin(u) = culture. Niraas = detached from worldly affairs. Jummaavhou = make yogurt. 1.

Uver(i) = others. Niraaful = worthless; without any reward. Pause.

Eetee = small wooden handles at the ends of the rope used to rotate the agitator. Phoonn(i) = and. Rusna = tongue. Jup-hou = recite. Muthiyaiy = churn. Bidh(i) = ways; means. Amrit(u) = life sustaining Naam-water. 2.

Sumput = box. Satsur = the pool of Waheguru's Naam-water; in holy gathering. Bhaavun = intent; love and respect. Paati = leaves; flowers. Triput(i) = contentment; please. Pooja = worship. Praan = (with) life (full dedication). Ruvut(u) = worshipped; stays connected. 3.

Kehnday = those who describe. Sur = equal. Bhugut(i)heen(u) = devoid of worshipping. Jumpaiy = requests. Salaaheen = sing praise. Soyee = the same (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: The only way to connect with Waheguru (God) is to recite His Naam. All other rituals and approaches are worthless (are not rewarded). Pause.

When a woman needs to make yogurt from milk, she cleanses the vessel first, fragrances it with incense, adds the milk, and then adds the culture to make yogurt. Similarly, one needs to cleanse one's mind - the vessel in which to store Waheguru's Naam. Think of your (noble) deeds of reciting Waheguru's Naam as milk, and add the culture of dedication and full concentration of mind, which should be detached from worldly affairs, to convert it into the yogurt of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. 1.

We hold (control) the string of the agitator by the wooden handles to churn yogurt; similarly, one needs to hold (control) the mind to stop it from wandering, and recite Waheguru's Naam with his tongue, but do not drowse off when reciting the Naam. This is the way to churn Guru's Shabad and acquire Waheguru's Amrit-Naam. 2.

The Brahman puts the idol in a box and tries to please it with flowers. We should use our mind as a box to store Waheguru's Naam, and take a dip in the holy pool of the gathering of holy saints. Our good intentions of love and respect should be like flowers that please Waheguru. If one serves Waheguru selflessly with full dedication, he stays connected with Him. 3. Many people describe You in many different ways and leave this world, but You are indescribable as there is none like You to compare with, oh dear Waheguru. I am devoid of His worship, but I do make a humble submission that I sing praise of the eternal Waheguru, oh Nanak(u). 4.

Word Meaning: Untar(i) = inside (the heart). Amrit(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Bikh(u) = poisonous sensual desires. 1. Giyan = Divine Knowledge; Guru's Shabad. Chaakur = servants; devotees. Kayray = of. Pause.
Dhiyan(u) = concentration. Ruvaiy = says (claims) (only to impress others). Baandhun(i) Baandhiya = bonded to worldly attractions. Bhuvvaiy = roams about. 2. Chaakur = selfless service. Thul(i) = on the land. Muhhiul(i) = in the sky. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Soyay = Waheguru. 3.
Prunvut(i) = requests. Taaray = emancipates. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru resides inside your heart, oh man. Why do you go outside (in the forests) to search for Him and taste the poison of sensual desires, leaving the Naam-Amrit aside? 1. Serve the eternal Waheguru by reciting His Naam (Guru's Shabad), which is full of Divine Knowledge, oh my friends. Pause.
Everybody talks about Divine Knowledge and concentration of mind, customarily (to impress others). But the whole world goes around, strongly bonded with Maya. 2.
Waheguru is present in the waters, on the land, and in the sky. His real slave (devotee) is the one who serves Him selflessly, oh my friends. 3. There is none in this world who can be considered bad; it is I who is not good. I wish to make only one request (submission) that Waheguru is the only power who salvages us, oh Nanak(u). 4.1.2.

Word Meaning: Oojjul = clean; shiny. Kaihaan = bronze. Chilkuna = shiny. Ghoatim = on rubbing. Kaalrri = black. Muss(u) = ink; stains. Jootth(i) = impurity. 1.
Sujjun = friends. Sayee = those. Laykha = account (of deeds). Mungiyaiy = demended.
Khurray = stand by. Pause.
Koatthay = houses. Mundup = decorations. Maarriyaan = mansions. Chitveeyaan = painted with pictures. Dhutthiyaan = collapsed. Sukhniyaan = empty. 2.
Bugga = white (heron). Teeruth = holy place. Munjh(i) = in, at. Vussun(i) = live. Ghoot(i) Ghoot(i) = strangulate. Buggay = clean; pure. Kuhhiun(i) = said; called. 3.
Simmul = a very tall and huge tree with distasteful fruit and flowers. Maiyjun = parrots. Bhoollun(i) = are misled. Say = those. Goon = qualities. Tun(i) = in the body. 4.
Undhulay = the blind. Doogur = mountainous; difficult. Vaat = journey. Lorreen = needed. Luhhaan = acquire. Lunghaan = go to the other side. Kit(u) = how. 5.
Chaakuriyaan = undeserving services to (praise of) others. Chungiyayiyaan = noble deeds (for show off only). Uver Siyaanup = other wisdom. Smaal(i) = remember; keep in mind. Buddha = bonded to. Chhooteh(i) = liberated. 6.

NOTE: This holy Shabad is believed to have been sung by Guru Nanak Sahib to a robber and murderer named Sajjan, who had built an inn to provide free lodging and boarding to travellers. He had even built a mosque and a temple for the guests to worship. He enjoyed a great reputation as a philanthropist and a great host across a wide area. But, in reality, he was a robber and a murderer in the garb of a holy man. He would choose one or two guests every night who he thought were very rich. He would kill them and keep all their possessions. He would throw their dead bodies in a secret deep well on his premises. He was never caught for his heinous crimes because of the patronage of the police officials. Guru Nanak Sahib decided to reform him and stayed with him for a night. Guru Sahib refused to accept all his hospitable services and, at night, began to sing this holy Shabad, in which the criminal and sinful intentions of the holy-looking people are described. Sajjan saw his own mean nature in the Shabad as if it were sung just to expose his heinous crimes. He dropped on Guru Sahib's feet and begged to be forgiven. Guru Sahib told him to return the belongings to the rightful owners and distribute the rest among the needy. Sajjan was transformed into a real holy man. Now enjoy the Shabad.

MEANING: Bronze looks very shiny, but leaves black stains when rubbed hard. This impurity of bronze cannot be washed away even if it is washed hundreds of times. 1.

Only those are your real friends who accompany you (support you) everywhere, and stand by you (lend full support) wherever the account of your deeds is demanded (share responsibility), oh man. Pause.

Houses, decorations, and mansions may be very attractive when they are decorated with beautiful paintings on the outside, but they become worthless if they are empty inside. (A man is worthless if he has no-good qualities even if he is dressed richly). 2.

Herons have white bodies (look innocent like swans) and may be living at holy places (thus may look holy), but they cannot be considered white (holy) because they strangulate fish to eat them. (A seemingly holy man living at a holy place cannot be holy if he robs innocent people). 3. The Simmel tree is huge and tall and bears attractive fruit to which the parrots are mistakenly attracted, but the fruit is distasteful, so the parrots get disappointed because it is no good to them. My body is just like the Simmel tree which has no-good quality. 4. If a blind man carries a huge load and undertakes a difficult mountainous journey for which one needs eyes to see, which the blind man does not have, so, how can he cross the mountain to go to other side? (We are like the blind man who carries a heavy load of sins, but has no wisdom to understand its implications). 5.

Service, noble deeds, or any other types of wisdom are useless if they are used simply to please others for selfish reasons. The only worthwhile thing to do is to recite Waheguru's Naam, which frees one from the worldly bonds, oh Nanak. 6.1.3.

Hum Sheh kayriyaan daasiyaan, Saacha Khusm hamara. 5.2.4.

Word Meaning: Jup = recitation of some Waheguru's Naam. Tup = hard labour to attain high morality. Bundh(u) = build. Bayrrula = beautiful boat. Vuhayla = quickly; readily. Survur (u) = pool of desires. Oochhlaiy = overflows. Punth = path; means. Soohayla = easy; comforting. 1.

Munjeetthrra = deep red which never fades; love for Waheguru. Rutta = dyed red. Choala = robe (mind). Rung = love. Dhoala = husband (Waheguru). Pause.

Saajun = friends. Chullaiy = leave this world. Kiyoun = how. Mayla = union (with God). Guntthrriyaiy = in possession. Soyee = that (God). 2.

Miliya = connected with. Veechhurraiy = separated; disconnected. Aavagaun = birth and death. Nivaariya = eliminated. 3.

Haumein = selfishness and ego. Seeta = stitched; taylored. Buchnee = Words; Shabad. Sheh = husband (Waheguru). Amrit Boala = life-sustaining words. 4.
Shuhou = husband. Khura = much. Kayriyaan = of. Daasiyaan = slaves. 5.
MEANING: Your Naam is the only fast colour that dyes my body (mind) with Your love all the time, oh my dear Husband (Waheguru). Pause.
So, build a boat of Waheguru's Naam, and work hard to attain high morality by which you can get across the world-sea easily, oh my friend. When you do that, the high waves of worldly desires will not rise in the world-sea (your mind), and they will cause no obstacles in the journey of your life, which will become pleasant for you, oh my friends. 1.
My dear friends are leaving this world, but how can they connect with Waheguru? If they have noble qualities in their possession, Waheguru Himself will connect them with Him. 2.
Once connected with Waheguru, they never get disconnected again, because the eternal Waheguru terminates the cycle of rebirths for them. 3.
With Guru's Amrit-like Shabad, one's selfishness and ego are killed (eliminated), and he gets a new robe (for his mind) dyed with love for Waheguru. 4.
The Waheguru-Husband is very dear (loving), oh my friends. We are His slaves (devotees), and He is our Master, oh Nanak(u). 5.2.4.

Word Meaning: Bhaandaiy = in the heart. Bhaaou = love and respect. Svaarsi = will decorate (purify mind) with noble qualities. Pusaaou = expand; enhance. Visaarsi = cause to forget; eradicate. Sehsa = worry; doubt. Moolay Naahi = not at all. Surpur = certainly. Taarsi = will salvage. 1.
Leekhiya = in fate. Deekhiya = advice. Bhaayay = in love; according to the advice. Bhuveh(i) Na = roam around. Bheekhiya = alms (of spiritual advice). 2.
Mehl(u) = Waheguru's presence. Hujoor(i) = right in front; close by. Nivaiy = yields; subservience. Durvaani = of the gate keepers. Moolay Naahi = not at all. Poochh = questioning. Chhottay = let free. Ta Kaiy = of Waheguru. Boal(i) = words; Shabad. 3.
Ghullay = sends (in the world). Aanay = brings back. Muttaiy = advise. Dhaah(i) = demolishes; kills. Oosaaray = creates; gives birth. Saaj(i) Jaanaiy = knows how to create.

Bukhsheesh = gift. Nudri = with kind sight. Kerm(u) = benevolence.
MEANING: Waheguru purifies and decorates the mind of the individual with noble qualities whose heart is full of love for Him. Waheguru eradicates all his sufferings and enhances his comforts. There should be no doubt in the mind of the devotee that Waheguru will salvage him for sure. 1. The Guru gets connected with those who have the connection with Him pre-written in their fate. The Guru bestows Waheguru's Amrit-like Naam to such devotees in the form of His Teachings. The devotees, who follow the Teachings of the Guru with full faith, do not have to wander around (search for) any spiritual advice from somebody else.2.

Those, who find Waheguru close to them, do not have to bow to (act as subservient) to any body else, and no gate keeper at the Court of Waheguru can question them in any way. Those who Waheguru is kind to are spared all questioning because they have Waheguru's Naam on their tongue. 3.
Waheguru sends and calls back humans as He wishes, and there is no one who can advise Him. He demolishes (kills), and creates (gives life) as He pleases; He knows how to create things (he is omnipotent). His Naam is a gift to those whom he is kind to, oh Nanak. 4.3.5.

Word Meaning: Bhaanda = human heart. Huchha = good; pure. Tis(u) = Waheguru. Bhaavsi = is liked by. Ut(i) Muleen(u) = etremely dirty (filthy). Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. Veechaar(u) = decision. Vertaayaysi = deliver. Mut(u) = lest. Uggaiy = next world; Waheguru's Court. Kerm = deeds. Kmaayay = earns; performs. Put(i) Siyoun = with dignity. Junum(u) Svaar(i) = make life successful. Vaaja Vaayaysi = play music in honour. Maanus(u) = humans. Vaychaara = helpless. Tihou Loak = the three worlds. Nihaal(u) = blissful. Kool = associates. Taarsi = get salvation. 1.4.6.
MEANING: Only that human heart is pure, which is liked (approved) by Waheguru. The man, whose heart is extremely filthy (with sinful thinking), cannot be purified by washing his body (even at holy places). He gets this understanding (about filthy and pure) in the shelter of the Guru, and can be purified there. Then, he can decide (find out) whether his heart (mind) is pure or filthy. Let no one be under the false impression that he can know the difference between pure and filthy in Waheguru's Court (and purify it there). His character is shaped by the kind of deeds he performs. Waheguru's Naam is the real Amrit, which is delivered (given) by Him. A true devotee (who has Waheguru's Naam in his heart) makes his life successful, and leaves this world with honour, and he feels as if music is played in his honour. Waheguru spreads his fame (honour) not just among a few people, but also in all the three worlds (this world, the underworld, and the worlds above). Not only such a devotee leaves this world blissfully, but he also gets salvation for his associates too, oh Nanak. 1.4.6.

Word Meaning: Jogi = yogi. Jogvaiy = practises yogism. Bhogi = enjoying worldly comforts. Tupiya = self-torturer. Mul(i) Mul(i) = washing well. 1.
Sudrra = Message; Naam. Buhhaiy = with love and respect and with focussed mind. Alaayay = says; recites. Pause. Beejaiy = sows. Loonaiy = cuts; reaps. Khuttaiy = earns. Uggaiy = next world; Waheguru's Court. Poochh = questioning. Sun(u) = including. Neeshaanaiy = certificate of approval. 2.
Kaandhiyaiy = is called. Kaar Kmaayay = performs deeds. Dum(u) = breath. Birtha = empty; worthless. 3.
Baiy Kureen = give full rights. Vikaayay = sale; buy. Kumm(I) Na = of no use. 4.

MEANING: A yogi practises yogism, and a person who is used to enjoying worldly comforts continues to do so, while a self-torturer endures hardships to please his deity and takes dips at holy places where he cleanses his body well (but not his mind). 1.
But I want to listen only to Your Naam if someone can recite it with love and respect and with focussed mind. Pause.
One reaps the rewards of what he sows, and eats what he earns (reaps the results of his deeds). But nobody questions the devotee (asks for the account of his deeds) who has the certificate of Waheguru's approval (His Naam in heart) in Waheguru's Court. 2.
An individual is known by the kind of deeds he performs. The breath, during which one does not remember Waheguru, goes waste. 3. I will sell my body and give all its right to the individual if there is some, to buy it (and gives me Waheguru's Naam). The body, which does not have Waheguru's Naam in it, is of no use, oh Nanak. 4.5.7.

Unjun maah(i) Nirunjun(i) ruhhiyaiy, jog(u) joogut(i) tuou paayiyaiy. 4.1.8.

Word Meaning: Jog(u) = union with God. Khintha = a quilt of rags. Dunddaiy = with a baton. Moondi = earrings. Moond(i) = head. Moondaayaiyn = shaving. Singi vaayiyaiy = blow a bugle. Unjun = kohl; Maya. Nirunjun(i) = Waheguru (His Naam). Joogut(i)= technique. Ivv = like this. 1.

Gulleen = simply by talking. Drisht(i) = sight. Sumsur(i) = equal; the same. Pause. Murreen Musaaneen = in graveyards. Taarri = focus sight on something. Days(i) Disuntar(i) = in different countries (areas); far and near. Bhuvviyaan = roaming around. 2.

Bhaytaiy = on meeting with. Sehsa = worries; doubts. Dhaavut Vurj(i) = control the wandering mind. Nijhur(u) Jhuraiy = spring begins to flow. Sehj Dhoon(i) = concentration of mind in the blissful state. Purcha = make connection. 3.

Jeevtiyaan Mur(i) Ruhhiyaiy = kill (contro) worldly desires. Aiysa jog(u) = such yogism (union with God). Nirbhuou Pud(u) = the spiritual state of fearlessness. 4.

NOTE: The yogis wear many symbols of their faith, including large glass earrings, a quilt of rags, a baton, shaving their heads, covering their bodies with ash to make themselves unattractive to women, and blowing a trumpet. In this holy Shabad Guru Nanak Sahib explains that mere wearing of symbols of their faith does not lead to union with Waheguru. The yogis also live in graveyards or in the wilderness to avoid worldly affairs (but Maya still intrudes on their thoughts). Guru Sahib advises that one has to stay detached from the attractions of Maya while living in the family to realize God.

MEANING: Wearing a quilt of rags does not lead to union with Waheguru, nor does holding a Baton, oh, yogi. Nor does covering your body with ash, or shaving your head, or blowing a trumpet lead to union with God. You have to stay detached from worldly attractions while keeping Waheguru in mind all the time to achieve union with Him, oh yogi. 1.

One does not achieve union with Waheguru only by talking about Him. A real yogi is the one who sees everybody with the same eye (does not discriminate between people for any reason) and treats everybody the same way. Pause. One does not achieve union with Waheguru by living in graveyards or in wilderness, or by focussing mind on some object. One does not achieve union with God by roaming around far and near; nor does one achieve union with God by taking dips at holy places. One must remain detached from worldly attractions while keeping Waheguru in mind at all times to achieve union with Him. 2. One's doubts are cleared when he gets connected with the Guru whereby, he is able to control his ever-wandering mind. He is then able to connect with God by the mind (without leaving his home), and his mind becomes focused on Him in a high spiritual state when the spring of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit begins to flow in his mind (he becomes fully imbued in the Naam). The only way to realize God is to stay detached from worldly attractions while keeping Him in mind all the time. 3.

One has to kill their mind (control it) as far as worldly attractions are concerned while living in the family. This is the path to union with God, oh Nanak. When one feels that the Divine music is automatically playing in his mind without blowing the bugle, he can be assured that he has acquired the spiritual state of fearlessness. The real means to achieve union with Waheguru is to remain detached from Maya while keeping Waheguru in mind at all times. 4.1.8.

Word Meaning: Traaji = weighing scale. Toola = standard weight. Sraaf(u) = evaluator. Kaiy Peh(i) = from whom. Deekhiya = spiritual advice. Mooll(u) = worth. 1. Laal Jeo = oh, my dear. Unt(u) = ends; limits. Jul(i) = in the waters. Thul(i) = on the land. Mihhiul(i) = in the sky. Bhurpoor(i) Leena = fully absorbed; omnipresent = Serb Smaana. Pause.
Chit(u) = mind; in memory. Ghut = heart. Bheetur(i) = inside. Shuhou = husband; Lord. Toaleen = evaluate. Bidh(i) = means. Chit(u) Ruhaavaan = satisfy mind. 2. Kunda = the pointer. Boojhaiy = understands. Vunjaara = trader (in qualities). 3. Undhula = blind; in dark. Neech = ignoble. Perdaysi = wanderer. Khin(u) = Til(u) = a short moment. Sungut(i) = in the company. Moorra = foolish. Paavaiy = acquires.
MEANING: There is no way to find Your limits, oh my dear Lord. You are pervading the waters, the land, and the sky, and are fully absorbed in everybody (are omnipresent). Pause. (Waheguru's magnanimity cannot be measured in any way), so what kind of measuring scale, and what kind of standard weight can I use to measure His grandeur! Which evaluator should I call in, and which guru should I seek the advice of to evaluate You, oh my Waheguru? 1. I need to make up my mind on the scale, and the standard weight, and my service to You will serve as the evaluator. I need to weigh Your qualities in my own heart (make a connection with You); this is the only way to satisfy my mind (to satisfy my curiosity and make it peaceful) (one sees Waheguru's grandeur when he becomes "one" with Him). 2. Waheguru Himself is the pointer of the scale, the standard weight, the scale, and the evaluator. He looks after everybody, knows their needs, and (being present in everybody) is also the dealer in noble qualities. 3.

The human mind is ignorant (is in darkness), is ignoble (always thinks of sensual pleasures), wanders all the time like a traveller, and becomes stable for a short moment, and begins to wander the next moment. Living in the company of such a fickle and lustful mind, how can the foolish man achieve union with Waheguru, oh Nanak? 4.2.9.

Word Meaning: Aaraadhiya = worshipped. Ichhaan = wishes. Pooriyaan = fulfilled. Chooka = eliminated. Jum Kay = of the Angel of death. 1.
Toottha = pleased to be kind. Perbodhiya = enlightened. Gutkay = while enjoying. Pause. Ootum = supreme; best. Kayri = of. Pug = feet. Jun Kay = of the devotee (Guru). 2.
Rus = sweetness. Ruskay = while enjoying. Tiss = thirst; yearning. Tiskay = of that. 3. Paat(i) = clan. Vaychiyo = sold; surrendered. Laaj = honour. 4.

MEANING: I recited Waheguru's Naam with the Shabad of the Guru as a result of which all my wishes have been fulfilled, and all the fear of the Angel of death has been eradicated. 1.
Sing the virtues (praise) of Waheguru, and recite His Naam, oh my mind. The Guru has kindly awakened (enlightened) my mind, and I have enjoyed the taste of the Amrit-like sweet Naam of Waheguru. Pause.

The holy congregation (company) of the Guru is supreme in spirituality where Waheguru's virtues are (praise is) sung. Kindly connect me with the holy company of the Guru so that I may wash the feet of the Guru (serve Him with love and respect), oh Waheguru. 2.
Waheguru's Naam is supreme, but its sweet taste can be enjoyed with the Advice of the Guru only. On drinking the Amrit-like Naam of Waheguru (on reciting His Naam), all kinds of thirst of the devotee are quenched. 3.
For me, my Guru, my Satguru, is my high caste and my high clan (caste and clan have no significance in the shelter of the Guru). Word Meaning: Purakhotum = the Supreme Being = Waheguru. Binsay = destroyed. Daalud = poverty (of all kinds). Dulgha = army. Bhuou = fear. Usthir = eternal. Sookh(i) = in comforts. Sumgha = got absorbed. 1.
Bhuj(u) = recite. Ut(i) Pirgha = extremely dear. Urp(i) = offered. Mooll(i) Mehngha = at a high price. Pause.
Nurput(i) = kings. Rung Rus = luxuries and entertainments. Maaneh(I) = enjoy. Kulgha = Angel of death. Dherm Raayay = Angel of justice. Dund = punishment. Puchhutaanay = repent. Huth Phulgha = the reward of done deeds in hands (in store). 2. Kirm = worms (insignificant). Shernaagut(i) = in the shelter of. Pritpulgha = the one who raises and nourishes. Loach = longing. Toomgha = Yours. 3. Sumruth = omnipotent. Nimgha = for a short moment. Vit-houn = for; from. Ghoomgha = offer life. 4.

MEANING: On reciting the Naam of the Supreme Being (Waheguru), the whole army of different kinds of my poverty has been destroyed. The fear of birth and death has been eradicated on reciting Guru's Shabad, and I have been fully absorbed in the source of all comforts - the eternal Waheguru. 1.

Recite the Naam of the extremely dear Waheguru, oh my mind. I have offered my mind and body to the service of the Guru, and have sold my head (surrendered my wisdom) to Him for a very high price (in exchange for the priceless Naam of Waheguru). Pause.
The rajahs enjoy the luxuries of all entertainments of life, but, without Waheguru's Naam, they are all held prisoners by the Angel of death. The Angel of justice hands them severe punishment for their ignoble deeds, for which they have to repent. 2.
We are just worms for You, but You raise and nourish us. We have come to Your shelter, please protect us against the attacks of Maya, oh kind Waheguru. I am a slave of Yours; kindly fulfill my wish, and connect me with the Saint (Guru) so that I may enjoy bliss in His shelter, oh Waheguru. 3.
You are great and omnipotent, oh Lord. Kindly donate Your Naam to me, even if it is for a short moment. Your slave, Nanak, enjoys blissfulness when he recites Your Naam. I, Nanak, will gladly offer my life to acquire Your Naam, oh Waheguru. 4.2.

Oopdayshiya = advised. Bhaytiyo = connected with. Raaou = King (Waheguru). Nisung(u) = without any reservation. Pause.
Moodh = young and conceited woman (human). Iyaani = ignorant. Munmukhi = follower of own mind (Maya-engrossed). Ung(u) = with. Dooja Bhaaou = love with the other (Maya). Sehlung = companion. 2.
Doohchaariya = having ignoble qualities; full of vices. Ungee = saviour. Ung(u) = doing favour. Amritsar(i) = Pool of Amrit-like Naam. Kilvikh = sins. Pung(u) = mud. 3. Deen = helpless. Duyyal = kind; benevolent. Sung(u) = company. 4.
MEANING: Dye your mind with the love of Waheguru's Naam, oh my friend. The Guru was very kind to give this advice (to dye my mind with Waheguru's love), which connected me with the Waheguru-Emperor without any reservations. Pause.
Love for Waheguru is the same as the love for His Naam, and love for Waheguru is very strong, like the deep red colour of mujeetth (madder), which never fades away. With His advice, the benevolent Guru dyes the mind of the devotees with the love for Waheguru which never breaks (comes off) again. 1. The young human mind is deeply engrossed in Maya because of which it (the man) is highly conceited, and follows itself as a result of which the birth-death cycle always accompanies it (the man keeps taking rebirths). Because of his love for Maya, the man never thinks of Waheguru. 2.

We are full of filth (of bad deeds and bad thinking), but You are our saviour. Kindly save us from the sinful deeds which we commit under the influence of Maya (sensual pleasures), oh Waheguru. When the Guru is kind, He makes us take a dip in the holy pool of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit whereby the mud of all our sins is washed away. 3.
You are always kind to the helpless (humble); kindly put us in the company of the holy saints (Guru). Waheguru's slave (devotee), Nanak, wishes to say that the human mind and body are dyed with the love of Waheguru in the company of the holy saints (the Guru). 4.3.

Word Meaning: Nit = everyday. Kupt(u) = deceit. Kmaaveh(i) = practises. Shoodh(u) = pure. Undin(u) = everyday. 1.
Giyani = wise. Koraiy = brand new fabric. Loachaiy = wishes for. Pause.
Jup(u), Tup, Vert, Pooja = various rituals to please some deity. Munmukh = follower of own mind. Roag(u) = sickness. Muhaa Abhimaana = extreme ego. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in love with Maya. Khooaayee = suffers humiliation; discomfiture. 2.
Bhaykh = some religious symbols. Chuturaayee = cunningness; shrewdness. Munooaa = mind. Dehdis(i) in every direction. Dhaavaiy = rushes. Biyaapiya = affected; influenced. Cheenaiy = recognizes. Jooni = in different life forms. 3.
Boojhaiy = understand. Aikus(u) = the "One" (God). Smaayay = gets absorbed. 4.
MEANING: The mind of an individual who may say "Waheguru" (God) with his tongue, but performs deceitful acts all the time, can never be pure. Such a person may perform many religious rituals every day, but can never enjoy peace (comfort) even in his dreams. 1.
One cannot worship Waheguru without taking shelter of the Guru, oh wise man. Just as a brand-new fabric cannot take on permanent colour without a coating of primer first, the mind of a new devotee cannot be dyed with the love for Waheguru (without taking shelter of the Guru), even if he desperately longs for it. Pause.
The suffering of the individual who follows his own mind never goes away, even if he performs rituals such as reciting mantras, enduring self-inflicted hardships, trying to keep his senses under control, fasting, or worshipping idols. He suffers from a serious disease of ego and humiliation because of his love for Maya. 2.

He may wear religious symbols (for a show-off) and be highly shrewd, but he has no control over his mind, which wanders in every direction. Badly influenced by his selfishness and ego, he does not recognize (believe in) Guru's Shabad as a result of which he keeps taking births again and again. 3. But, the individual, on whom Waheguru casts a kind sight, comes to understand the importance of Guru's Shabad, and begins to recite Waheguru's Naam. With the Guru's benevolence, he understands that Waheguru is the only Supreme Being and becomes absorbed in Him, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Gurmut(i) = Guru's Advice. Nugree = town; human body. Khoj(i) = by searching. Pdaaruth = imortant item; the priceless Naam of Waheguru Shaant(i) = peace. Vusaayee = made to settle; created. Tishna Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Boojhi = put out. Khin = moment. Untar(i) = within. Pause.
Duyaal(i) = benevolent. Drirraayee = reinforced. 2.
Dhoondh = search for. Rus = sweet taste. 3.
Dhoor(i) = right from the source (Waheguru). Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Laykh = fortune. Maylaiy = connects with. Hur(i) Bhaayee = Waheguru's devotee brothers. 4.
MEANING: With the advice of the Guru, I searched my body, and realized the invaluable Naam of Waheguru. 1.
When I took shelter of the Guru (surrendered my wisdom to Him), the fire of all my desires was put out, and all my appetite for worldly attractions was fully satisfied. Waheguru caused complete peace in my mind. Pause.
Now I survive only by singing the virtues (praise) of Waheguru, oh my mother. The benevolent Guru reinforced Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of all noble qualities, in my mind. 2. I was searching for my dear Waheguru everywhere but found Him in the company of the Guru, where I realized the sweetness of Waheguru (His Naam). 3.

Word Meaning: Rung(i) = colour; love. Gurmukh(I) = in the shelter of the Guru. 1. Raata = imbued. Rung = happiness; blissfulnness. Maanay = enjoys. Anund(i) = in blissfulness. Smaanay = stay absorbed. Pause.
Loachaiy = longs for. Chuloola = deep; never fading away. 2.
Moogudh(u) = foolish. Nur(u) =man. Kora = empty; with no colour (of Waheguru's love). 3. Rus((i) = in sweetness. 4.

MEANING: The mind, which is imbued in Waheguru's love, enjoys comforts and blissfulness day and night. The devotee stays absorbed in the Shabad of the Perfect Guru. Pause.
With the munificence of Waheguru, the human mind gets dyed in Waheguru's love and gets absorbed in Him (His Naam) with the guidance of the Guru. 1.
Everybody longs for Waheguru's love, but only that devotee acquires the deep colour of Waheguru's love who obeys the Guru's advice. 2.
The individual, who follows his own mind, is foolish, and remains devoid of Waheguru's love, and fosters no love for Him even if he longs (tries) for that hundreds of times 3.
But he can be connected with the Guru with the kind sight of Waheguru whereby he can enjoy the sweetness of Waheguru's love, and gets absorbed in His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.2.6.

Word Meaning: Jihva = tongue. Aghaayay = fully contented. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state.1. Jun = devotee. Tuou = then. Kut = where. Anut Saad(i) = any other (sweet) taste. Lobhaayee = have greed for. Pause.
Oordhaar(i) = acquire in heart. Raatay = imbued. Mooraar(i) = in Waheguru (in His love). 2. Chaakhiya = to taste. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Sujaayay = punishment. 3. Nudr(i) Kuray = casts kind sight 4.

MEANING: If you are able to taste the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, you will not have any greed for any other taste (enjoyment) anywhere, oh my brother. Pause.
The tongue which drinks (tastes) the sweet Amrit of Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru becomes fully contented and stays absorbed in the high spiritual state. 1.
If one acquires Waheguru's sweet Naam in the shelter of the Guru, he gets imbued in the sweetness of Waheguru's love. 2.
The follower of his mind (Maya-engrossed individual) is unable to taste the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam and receives severe punishment because of his selfishness and ego. 3.
However, he can acquire the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam with His kind sight on him. I sing Waheguru's praise while enjoying the sweetness of His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.3.7.

Word Meaning: Neech Jaat(i) = of low caste. Ootum = supreme. Pudvee = rank; spiritual state. Bidder = a step brother of Pandvaas in Maha Bharat. Daasi Sootaiy = son of a maid. Kishan(u) = Krishna. Ootriya = stayed to visit. 1.
Akuth = indescribable. Kutha = story; description. Sehsa = worries; doubts. Leh(i) Jaayay = comes off; is removed. Ruhaou.
Chumaar(u) = cobbler. Oostut(I) = praise = Keerut(i). Nimukh = a short moment. Putit Jaat(i) = of ignobble caste. Ootum(u) = supreme. Bhuyya = became. Chaar(i) Vern = all the four accepted casts in India [(Brahmans, Khatris, Vaish (traders and farmers), and Shudras (the untouchables)]. Pug = feet. 2.
Nam Day = Namdev. Chheepa = a washerman. Sayti = with. Pitth(I) = back. Mookh laayay = faced towards. 3. Sayvka = slaves; devotees. Utth-sutth(i) = sixty-eight. Teeruth = Hindu holy places. Tilk(u) = anointment; show respect. Undin(u) = every day. Pursay = touch feet (accord respect). Raayay = royal; emperor. 4.

NOTE: In this holy Shabad, Guru Ram Daas Ji emphasizes that the caste system created and imposed by the uppermost class, the Brahmans, has no bearing on the so-called lower castes as far as union with Waheguru is concerned. There have been great bhagats (devotees) among the lower castes who became "one" with Waheguru. He names a few of them, including Ravidass, Bidder, and Nam Dev, to inspire the members of the lower castes to worship Waheguru.

MEANING: Listen to the indescribable story (description of the virtues) of Waheguru because of which all your worries, all your doubts, all suffering, and your appetite (dissatisfaction) of all kinds will disappear, oh my devotee brothers. Pause.
Ask Bidder who was the son of a low-caste maid, but who achieved the supreme spiritual state by worshipping Waheguru, and who was paid a visit by Sri Krishna. 1.
Ravidass was a low-caste cobbler, but when he sang praise of Waheguru even for a short moment, the low-caste cobbler achieved a high spiritual state because of which people of all four castes dropped on his feet (showed respect for him). 2.
Namdev, whom people called a washerman, developed a love for Waheguru to the extent that Waheguru rotated the temple for him, so that it faced Namdev, with its back to the upper-caste Brahmans and the Khatris*. 3.
Even the sixty-eight holy places anointed (showed respect for) the bhagats and the devotees of Waheguru. I am a slave (devotee) of Waheguru, and would touch the feet of the bhagats if Waheguru is kind to me (gives me the opportunity), oh Nanak. 4.1.8.
NOTE: The story goes that once Namdev Ji went to a temple owned by the higher-caste Brahmans and Khatris to worship Waheguru, but he was kicked out of the temple by them in contempt. Namdev went to the back of the temple and continued to worship Waheguru while the owners were watching him outside of the temple. Namdev also complained to God for the contemptuous treatment he received at the hands of the Brahmans. It is said that Waheguru rotated the temple so that it faced Namdev, with its back turned towards the Brahmans and the Khatris.

Ung(u) = favour; support. Kartara = Waheguru. 1. Dhiyaayay = recite Naam. Nivaarunhaara = remover; destroyer. Pause. Bukhshiya = given as gift. Bhundaara = treasure. Rees = compete against. Hult(i) = in this world. Pult(i) = in the next world (Waheguru's Court). Mooh Kaara = face blackened; suffer disgrace. 2.

Sayvka = (female) servant; devotee. Ninduk = vilifier. Chhaara = ash. 3.
Virti = happens. Beechaara = ponder on. Chuhoun Peerri = in four generations (of Gurus). Aad(i) = from the beginning of time. Joogaad(i) from the beginning of the four yugas. Sayvuk Bhaayay = with the spirit of a servant (devotee). Nistaara = salvation.4.
MEANING: Only those devotees worship Waheguru deep from the heart who have such fortune written on their forehead by Waheguru. Who can vilify the devotees who are supported by my Waheguru? 1. Waheguru is the destroyer of all the suffering of many, many lives; so, recite His Naam, oh my mind. Pause.
Waheguru has given the gift of the treasures of His Amrit-like worship to His devotees right from the beginning (it was in their fortune from their birth). Only a fool will compete with them, and when he does, he suffers disgrace in both worlds. 2.
Those are the true devotees, true servants (be they males or females) who have love for Waheguru's Naam. One connects with Waheguru by serving them, but their vilifiers get ash on their heads (are humiliated). 3.
Only those who have experienced these facts know them, or you can ask the World-Guru, Nanak (He will certify it) that Waheguru's devotees are "one" with Waheguru, and the vilifiers suffer humiliation.
This is my (Guru Ram Dass Ji's) personnel experience of the four generations of Guru Sahiban (Guru Ram Dass Ji was the fourth Guru in succession), and it has been a fact since the beginning of the world, from the beginning of the eons, that Waheguru can be realized only by serving Him (reciting His Naam and obeying His Will) with the spirit of a dedicated servant (devotee); and nobody has ever realized Him by vilification of others. 4.2.9.

Sunchiyaiy = accumulate. J(i) = Jo = which. Sukhaayee = friend; helper. Pause.
Khuttiyaiy = earn. Horthaiy = somewhere else. Horut Oopaayay = by other means.
Ruttanaiy = of jewels (which never lose their worth); noble qualities. Vapaariya = dealer. Ruttan Dhun = wealth of Waheguru's Naam. Vihaajhaiy = invest in. Kuchaiy Kay Vapaariyay = dealers in perishable things. Vaak(i) = simply by words. 2.
Juvayhur = precious stones. Maanuk(u) = pearls. Amrit Vayla = early morning. Vuttaiy = optimum conditions. Live Layee = meditate on. Beejiya = planted. Khurch = share wth others. Nikhoottaiy Naahi = does not run out. Vudiyaayee = honour. 3.

MEANING: Waheguru is present as your friend wherever you remember Him, oh man.
Waheguru makes your heart His dwelling with the benevolence of the Guru; He cannot be realized by any other means. 1.
Accumulate Waheguru's Naam-wealth, which supports you in this world and the next (Waheguru's Court), oh my friend. Pause.
But the wealth of Waheguru's Naam can be earned only in the company of the holy saints (Guru); there is no other way to acquire this Wealth. Those who deal in the jewel-like, precious, noble qualities (Waheguru's Naam) invest in such virtues. The individuals who may talk about Waheguru but deal in perishables cannot acquire Waheguru's Naam-wealth by their false talk. 2.
Waheguru's Naam-wealth is invaluable like jewels, precious stones, or pearls (which do not lose their worth). Because of the Naam-wealth (in their mind), Waheguru's devotees meditate on His Naam in the early hours of the morning, which is the most optimum time to accumulate this wealth. The devotees of Waheguru, who plant the seeds of Waheguru's Naam during the optimum time of the early hours of morning, never experience the shortage of this wealth when they enjoy it themselves or share with others. On top of that, they earn respect in this world and the next because of their Naam-wealth. 3.

Word Meaning: Nirbhuou = fearless. Usthir = Saacha = eternal. Ugnee = fire. Tuskur = thief. Jumdootaiy = by the agents of death. Guvaaya = lost. Oochukka = robber. Jagaati = the tax-man. Dund = punishment. 4.
Saakteen = worshippers of Maya; disconnected with. Bikhiya Dhun = the worldly wealth which is poisonous because it leads to immoral acts. Sunchiya = accumulated. Vikh = step. Hult(iI) = in this world. Doohaylay = suffer discomforts. Chhoorrk Guyya = slipped from hand; lose

(possession). Pult(I) = in next world (Waheguru's Court). Dhoyee = shelter. 5.
Shah(u) = Lord. Aap(i) = (Waheguru) Himself. Lud(i) Chulaayee = load up and leave. Toata = shortage. Sojhee = understanding. 6.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam-wealth is also eternal like Waheguru Himself. Fire, thieves, water, or the agents of death cannot cause it any harm. No thief or robber can even come near the Naam-wealth, and the Angel of justice can levy no tax on the devotee (cannot punish the devotee who has the Naam-wealth in his possession; normally wealth is taxed in every jurisdiction). 4. The money-worshippers accumulate the worldly wealth using sinful means which becomes poison for them (because on one hand they earn it by sinful means while on the other, they use it for lustful purposes); even so, it does not accompany them even for a single step after their death. Moreover, such money-worshippers suffer in this world when they lose it, and they find no shelter (support) in Waheguru's Court. 5.
Waheguru is the real Lord of the Naam-wealth, oh holy men; only those individuals can load up this Wealth to accompany them to the next world. The Guru has given me the understanding that one never experiences any shortage of this wealth, oh Nanak. 6.3.10.

Word Meaning: Soopersunn(u) = overly pleased. Ruvaiy = recites. Pervaan(u) = approved. Mehma = praise; greatness. Verniyaiy = describe. Vussiya = appeared. 1. Suful = rewarding. Perm Nidhaan = the supreme treasure (of Waheguru's Naam). Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Saakut = money-lovers. Kaamna Urth(i) = for the sake of their desires. Doorgundh = foul-smelling; immoral desires or activities. Srayvnday = worship; think about. Nihful = without any spiritual reward. Ugiyaan = devoid of spirituality. 2.
Perteet(i) = with love (full faith). Thaayayn Puvvaiy = recognized; given credit. Durgeh = Waheguru's Court. Maan(u) = respect. Kupti = deceitful. Koorri Koorri = dishonestly. Ukheen Meetday = (pretend to) shut eyes. Jhootth Gooman = false pride. 3.

Jeeyo Pind(u) = life and body. Untarjaami = omniscient. Vikhiyaan = explaining. 4.
MEANING: One should sing Waheguru's praise by fully focussing mind on Satguru's Shabad. Pause. The individual, whom Waheguru is overly pleased with, sings His praise; he is a true devotee and is approved (loved) by Waheguru. The praise (greatness) of the devotee in whose heart Waheguru appears cannot be described. 1.
That holy man is the true Guru from whom we can receive (acquire) the supreme treasure of Waheguru's Naam; service to such a Guru is highly rewarding. The money-lovers, who worship Maya in order to satisfy their sensual pleasures, are foolish and ignorant, and their acts go unrewarded in the realm of spirituality. 2.
The singing of Waheguru's praise by those who love Him is richly rewarded, and they are accorded respect in Waheguru's Court. But those who have deceit in their mind, and shut their eyes to pretend focusing on Waheguru's Naam, lose all their false pride (of being religious) and are not rewarded for their deceitful worship. 3.
The body and the life of the man are given by Waheguru, and He knows everything that goes through everybody's mind as He is the omniscient and omnipresent Lord. Nanak is the slave of Your slaves, and can explain only as much about You as You enable him to do, oh Lord. 4.4.11.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is my support (basis of life) everywhere. I have no other support than You, so kindly protect me in whichever way You please, oh Lord. Pause.

You are the treasure of all virtues (have countless noble qualities), so which of Your virtues should I focus on to sing Your praise, oh my Lord? I am unable to praise all Your magnanimity because You are so high in transcendence (which is beyond my reach), oh my Lord. 1.
You are my power and my support, and I can pray only before You. I have no other place (nobody else) to go to where I can pray, and all my comforts and discomforts are before You (You know them). 2. Look at the amazing feats of the Lord - there are islands surrounded by water (water does not sink them), and there is fire in the wood (yet it does not burn the wood) – it is as if a lion and a goat have been put together. So, recite Waheguru's Naam to dispel your doubts and worries, oh my mind. 3.
Just look at the greatness of the Lord: He gets respect for those in society who had never enjoyed any respect at all. Just as dust rises from under the feet, Waheguru causes His devotees to rise above all others and brings the whole world to drop at their feet (to acknowledge their superiority), oh Nanak. 4.1.12.

Dayhi = body. Ikkna = some. Dhundh(u) Pitaayee = routine affairs; dealing in Maya. 2. Sir(i) Laykh(u) = prewritten fortune. Bhaykh(u) = religious semblance; personality. 3. Vudiyaayee = praise; greatness. Dhiyaayay = remember. Thaayayn Paayay = given recognition. 4.
MEANING: You are the creator, and know everything about our thoughts and feelings, so what is the need to tell you? You know every good and bad deed on our part. One will reap the rewards of his deeds, oh Lord. 1. Being omniscient, You know the internal situation of all of us, oh my Lord. You know full well what good or bad thoughts run through everybody's mind, but You make them do things the way You please. Pause.
Waheguru has created the whole world (including humans) in such a way that it is engrossed in the love of Maya (including sensual pleasures and all worldly attachments), but only humans can worship Waheguru. Waheguru connects some of them with Satguru for them to enjoy blissfulness, while others are made lovers of Maya, who spend their life doing things related to it (Maya). 2.

Everybody belongs to You, and You belong to everybody, oh, the Creator. You have prewritten the destiny of everybody; everybody develops a personality (character) according to the sight You cast on them (the way you write their destiny). Nobody is without some character (beliefs). 3. Only You know Your magnanimity; people can simply recite Your Naam, oh Waheguru. Word Meaning: Vussiya = took dwelling; appeared. Roag = illnesses; troubles. Guvaayay = removed. Mookt Bhuyyay = emancipated. Puvittar = holy; pious. Perm Pud(u) = highest spiritual state; union with Waheguru. 1. Aroag = (spiritually) healthy; worry-free. Guri Buchni = Guru's Shabad. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Pause.
Traiy Goon Roagi = suffer from the three effects of Maya. Kaar Kmaayee = performed deeds. Chayteh(i) = remember; recite Naam. Buppurray = poor; ignorant. Sojhi = wisdom; understanding. 2.
Biyaapiya = is affecting. Bhaari = huge. Virla = rare. Chhootaiy = is emancipated. 3. Sisht(i) = world. Saaji = created. Roop = looks, beauty. Apaaro = beyond comprehension. Bigsaiy = blooms; feel ecstatic. 4.
MEANING: All the troubles of those who are lucky to have Waheguru take dwelling (appear) in their heart, disappear. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam get emancipated from all the worldly bonds and attain the holy and the highest spiritual state. 1.
The devotees of Waheguru become spiritually healthy and free from all worries. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad get their serious illness of selfishness and ego fully eradicated. Pause. Even the revered gods like Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva were affected by the three effects of Maya and performed deeds driven by selfishness and ego. The ignorant did not keep the Creator, Waheguru, in mind; one gets such wisdom (to remember Waheguru) only from the Guru. 2.

The serious disease of haumein (selfishness and ego) affects the whole world, because of which it suffers from the huge punishment of reincarnation. Only a rare individual realizes the fact that selfishness and ego are a serious illness, and gets rid of them; I am a sacrifice to such a great devotee. 3.

Baajigur(i) jaiysay baaji payee. Nana roop bhaykh dikhlaayee. Saang ootaar(i) thummiyo pasaara. Tub Aiko Ekunkaara. 1. Kuvun roop drishtiyo, binsaayo. Kuteh(i) guyyo, oh(u) kut tay aayo. 1. Ruhaou. Jul tay oottheh anik trungaan. Kunik bhookhun keenay buhou runga. Beej(u) beej(i) daykhiyo buhou perkaara. Ful paakay tay Ekunkaara. 2. Sehs ghutaan meh(i) aik aakaash(u). Ghut phootay tay ohi pergaas(u). Bherm, lobh, moh Maya vikaar. Bherm chhootay tay Ekunkaar. 3. Oh(u) abinaashi binsut naahi. Na ko aavaiy, na ko jaahi. Gur(i) Pooraiy haumein mul(u) dhoyee. Kuhou Nanak mayri Perm gut(i) hoyee. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Baajigur = acrobat; stuntman. Baaji = acrobatics; stunts. Nana = different. Roop = appearances. Bhaykh = outfits. Saang = make up. Thmmiyo = ended. Pasaara = paraphernalia. Ekunkaara = Waheguru. 1.
Drishtiyo = showed. Binsaayo = disappeared. Kuteh = where. Kut Tay = where from. Pause. Anik = very many. Trungaan = waves. Kunik = gold. Bhookhun = ornaments. Bhou Runga = of many colours (shapes). Beej(u) = seed (n). Beej(i) = seeding; plant. Perkaara = kinds. Ful Paakay Tay = when the fruits ripened. 2.
Sehs = thousands. Ghutaan = earthen (water containers). Aakaash = sky (sun). Phootay = broken. Pergaas(u) = light; sun. Bherm = misgivings. Lobh = greed. Vikaar = vices. 3. Abinaashi = immortal. Binsut = destroyed. Pooray = Perfect. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Mul(u) = filth. Perm Gut(i) = supreme spiritual state. 4.

MEANING: (Waheguru presents Himself in countless different forms and colours). We cannot know in what from He appears and in what form He disappears, or where He comes from, or where He goes to (He is always around). Pause.
Waheguru is like a stuntman who performs stunts in many different appearances and outfits. But when he stops his stunts and wraps up his paraphernalia, he is back to his original self.1.
We can also compare Waheguru to the ocean, where countless tall waves arise (but they are still water), or to gold ornaments of different shapes and sizes, which may look different but are still gold. Similarly, we may plant seeds of one fruit to grow many different trees, but once the fruit ripens, we get the same seeds back. 2.

Yet, another example, if we have thousands of water containers, we can see the image of the sun in each of them (which may lead some to believe that there are thousands of suns. However, when the containers break (and water spills), we see only one sun. (Similarly) Waheguru appears in countless forms, yet He is the only Supreme Being present in each form. Likewise, greed, worldly attractions, and other vices are misgivings (gimmicks), and are all different forms of Maya; but once the misgivings are cleared, we come to know that it was all a single Maya with different forms. 3. Waheguru may appear in one form and disappear in another, but He is immortal, and He never goes away nor comes back (He is always around in some form). The Perfect Guru has washed away the filth of my haumein, and now I am enjoying the supreme spiritual state, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Lorreh(i) = needs; wishes. Bin(u) = without. Poorun Kaaj = tasks completed. Laaj = dignity. 1. Poorun = Perfect; omnipresent. Duyyala = kind; munificent. Pritpaala = looking after. Pause.
Muhhiul(i) = in the sky. Bhurpoor(i) = fully pervading (present). Nicket(i) near. Putiyaaraiy = please; satisfy. Saach(i) Luggay = connect with God. 2.
Giyan Ruttan(u) = the jewel of Divine Knowledge (connection with God). Jaagaiy = enlightens; appears. Doormut(i) = evil (immoral) thinking. Perm Pud(u) = supreme state. 3. Ker = hand. Bhaavaiy = like (approve). Raas(i) = becomes suitable (successful). 4.
MEANING: Only that happens in this world which Waheguru wishes (or needs to do). There is none other (who makes decisions). The devotee who serves Waheguru gets his tasks completed successfully. Waheguru protects the dignity of His devotees. 1.
I am in Your shelter, oh my kind and omnipresent Waheguru; who else can look after me (my interests)! Pause.
Waheguru is fully present in the waters, on the land, and in the sky – He resides close to us and is not far away. (Some people show their religiosity) to please people; but they achieve no spirituality by doing so (actually, their ego gets a boost). One overcomes his ego only by connecting with Waheguru (by reciting His Naam with dedication). 2.
But only those begin worshipping Waheguru whom He prompts (motivates) when the jewel-like precious Naam of Waheguru enlightens their mind. By doing so, the evil (immoral) thinking of the devotee is destroyed. With the benevolence of the Guru, he begins to recite Waheguru's Naam and attains the highest spiritual state. 3.

I pray to You with folded hands, but it (my prayer) will be successful only if You like (approve) it, oh my Lord. I pray to You that You be kind to me, and make me worship You so that Your slave, Nanak, always recites Your Naam. 4.2.

Jun(u) Nanak(u) gaavaiy daykh(i) hudoor(i). 4.3.
Word Meaning: Sohaagun(i) = married to (connected with) God. Puchhaanaiy = recognize. Tujaiy = abandons. Abhimaanaiy = ego. Raati = imbued in love. Ruliyaan Maanaiy = enjoys life (union with God). 1. Sukhiyay = oh friend. Neeshaani = signs; recognition. Urp(i) = offer. Laaj = shame. Loakaani = of the people. Pause.
Unk(i) = in the heart. Smaavaiy = gets absorbed (connected with). 2.
Gerb Guhayli = possessed by (trapped in) ego. Mehl = Waheguru's Residence. Puchhutaavaiy = repents. Raiyn(i) = night (of life). Bihaavaiy = is over. Kermheen(i) = unlucky. Munmukh(i) = follower of own mind; Maya-worshipper. 3.
Binou = prayer. Abinaashi = immortal. Bhurpoor(i) =omnipresent. Hudoor(i) = near. 4.
MEANING: Fortunate and praise-worthy is the devotee who recognizes (makes connection with) Waheguru, obeys His Will, and abandons her ego; she is considered to be the real beloved of Waheguru. Imbued in His love, such a devotee enjoys her union with Him. 1.
When someone asks such a devotee about the signs of union with Waheguru (the ways to connect with Him), the response is: Disregarding the shaming (taunting) of the people, the devotee needs to offer their body and mind in Waheguru's service, oh my friend. Pause. The friend further advises that the devotee should do only those things which Waheguru wants Him to do (noble deeds, honest earnings, and reciting His Naam). Such a devotee gets absorbed in the love of Waheguru (merges with Him). 2.
On the other hand, an individual who is possessed by his ego never achieves union with Waheguru and repents when the night of his life is over. The follower of his mind (Maya-engrossed) is unfortunate and suffers in life. 3.
I will send Waheguru a message only if I think He lives far away, but the immortal Waheguru is present everywhere (so I do not need to send any message). I am His slave, and sing His praise with the belief that He is close to me, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Greh(u) = home; heart; mind. Vuss(i) = control. Naar(i) = mistress; owner. Dus = the ten senses. Daasi = slaves. Bhutaar(i) = husband (Waheguru). Sugul = all. Smuggri = the needed ingredients (noble qualities). Jorri = gathered; acquired. Aas Piyaasi = thirsty (desirous) in hope. Lorreen = wish for. 1.

Kuvun = which. Kunt = (of) the husband (Waheguru). Sooghurr = wise. Sroop = attractive appearance. Mooraaray = a name for God. Pause.

Sat(u) Seegaar = adornment of high character. Bhuou = fear (of God). Unjun(u) = kohl. Tumboal(u) = a betel leaf wrap containing areca nut. Kungun = bracelets. Bustar = (expensice) clothes. Gehnay = ornaments. Soohaavay = comforting. 2.

Goon Kaamun = the charming qualities. Reejhaaya = pleased; caused to like. Bherm(u) Chookaaya = removed misgivings. Mundar = mansion (spiritual state). Kaamun(i) = women (devotees). Tiyaagi = discarded; rejected. Preetum = dear (husband). 3.

Pergutiya = appeared. Soor(u) = sun; enlightenment. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light (Supreme soul). Oojiyaara = light. Sayj Vichhaayee = prepared bed of heart. Sherdh Appara = with unlimited reverence. Nuv Rung = in new spirits. Laal(u) = dear (Waheguru). Raavun = to enjoy. Dhun = woman; wife. 4.

MEANING: My Waheguru has given me control over my mind, and now I am its mistress (ruler). My husband (Waheguru) has made my ten senses my slaves. I have acquired all the needed noble qualities for union with God, and now I am waiting impatiently with a great hope. 1. My Waheguru-Husband has countless virtues, so which ones should I describe? He is wise and highly attractive. Pause.

I have adorned myself with high character and have put the kohl of His fear in the eyes of my mind. Some people find chewing a betel-leaf wrap with areca nut in it enjoyable, but I have put Waheguru's Naam in my mouth (tongue) to enjoy bliss. (Like a bride) who finds her bracelets, rich clothes, and her ornaments comforting only when her husband comes home (I am also waiting for my Waheguru-Husband). 2.

The Guru cleared all my misgivings about Maya as a result of which I have acquired the charming qualities (good moral character, obeying the Will of Waheguru, etc.) to please my Waheguru-Husband, because of which I have been able to control Him (He loves me and fulfills my needs). Now, my spiritual state is at its highest. Rejecting all other women (human brides), Waheguru alone is my husband now. 3. I have decorated my heart for my Waheguru with extreme reverence as the bed which has been enlightened by the bright light of Waheguru's Soul. My dear Waheguru comes to my heart-bed in a new spirit every time. The devotee and the Lord enjoy each other's company, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Oomkiyo = highly enthusiastic. Heeou = heart. Khojut Churiyo = set out in search of. Sundahshro = message; news. Greh(i) = in the heart. Bherm(i), Bherm(i) = wandering around. Nudr(i) = sight. 1.
Kin Bidh(i) = in what way. Heeuro = heart. Dheeraiy = peaceful; have patience. Nimaano = poor; humble. Koorbaano = sacrifice. Pause.
Sayj Vichhi = bed is set. Sooti =asleep; unaware of Waheguru's presence. Jaagunta = awake (to look after His creation). Mudro = liquor of worldly comforts. Mutvunta = intoxicated. Jaagaiy = awakes; becomes aware. Boalunta = calls. 2.
Niraasi = disappointed. Disuntar = foreign (unknown) territories. Jhaagay = endured difficulties. Khin = a moment. Pug Paagay = touching the feet (show respect in person). Subhaagay = lucky. 3.
Bhuyyo = became. Satsung(i) = company of holy saints (Guru). Boojhi = put out; quenched. Tupt = heat; fire (of desires). Ghureh(i) = in the heart. 4.
Kpaat = (mental) door. Tthehraayee = became restful (stable). Second Pause.
MEANING: When I heard the message (news) that Waheguru comes to reside in His devotee's heart, I made my heart bed for Him, and became highly enthusiastic to see Him. I set out to search for Him, but after wandering everywhere, I could not see Him. 1.
How can my humble heart gain patience (without seeing Him)? Kindly allow me to see You, oh my dear Lord; I will gladly sacrifice my life for You. Pause.

(Because Waheguru resides in every heart), The human heart is the bed for both – Waheguru and the human bride (soul). However, the bride is asleep (unaware of the presence of Waheguru in her heart), whereas Waheguru is always awake to look after his creation. The human bride is intoxicated with the liquor of worldly comforts, and awakens (to the reality of human life) only when Waheguru gives her a call (prompts her). 2.
I endured the difficulties of searching for Waheguru in unfamiliar territories, but I was deeply disappointed when I could not find him, even after a long search. Now, I cannot live without touching His Feet (showing my reverence face-to-face) even if for a short moment. He connects His lucky devotees with Him when He becomes kind to them. 3.
When Waheguru became kind to me, He connected me with the company of the holy saints, by whose grace I realized my dear Husband (Waheguru) in my own heart, thereby putting out the fire of my worldly desires. The Guru removed (cleared) all my misgivings, and now my adornments (of noble qualities) became very comforting to me, oh Nanak. 4.
The Guru opened the door of my mind to realize Waheguru, whereby my mind became peaceful. Now I find my dear Waheguru wherever I look. Second Pause. 5.

Word Meaning: Kiyya Goon = what qualities. Saar(i) = worth. Smaahleen = I remember. Nirgoon = devoid of any virtue. Daata = provider; Lord. Baiy-Khreed(u) = who has surrendered all rights. Chuturaayee = smartness. Pind(u) = body. Thaaray = Yours. 1. Laal = extremely dear. Rungeelay = colourful; carefree. Munmohan = mind-captivating. Pause. Deen = poor; humble. Bhaykhaari = beggar. Oopkaaray = doing selfless favours. Agumm = unreachable. Apaaray = limitless. 2. Sayv Kmaavoun = serve. Reejhaavoun = please; earn your favour. Bidh(i) Kit = by what means. Dersaaray = sight. Mit(i) = measurement. Unt(u) = end; limits. Luhhiyaiy = acquire. Tyrsaiy = yearns for. Churnaaray = (holy) feet. 3. Daan(u) = donation. Dheetth = shamelessly; persistently. Raynaaray = dust of the feet. Nistaaray = salvages.4.
MEANING: I have no virtue, but You have so many of them that I do not know which of those should I remember (recall) to sing Your worth (grandeur), oh my Lord, Waheguru. I have no right even on my body and my mind (wisdom) because even they are given by You, so what smartness can I use to sing Your praise, oh my Lord. 1.

I am all sacrifice for Your sight, oh, my dear, carefree, and mind-captivating, Lord. Pause. You are the provider of all our necessities, and do selfless favours to us all the time, while I am a poor beggar at Your Door; there is nothing that I am capable of doing, oh the inaccessible and the limitless Lord. 2. What kind of service can I render to please You so that I may have Your holy sight, oh Waheguru. We cannot find Your limits and Your end; I only yearn for Your holy Feet (sight, or the Naam), oh Lord. 3.
I shamelessly (persistently) beg for the dust of the Feet of the Guru (His Shabad) to put in my mouth (on my tongue to recite), oh my Waheguru. Waheguru salvages all those devotees who earn the favour of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Sayva = service (to others or to Waheguru). Maangun = demands. Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Residence (union with Him). Kehto = says; claims. Puhouta = reached. 1. Priyay = dear Waheguru. Maanay = recognized; honoured. Reesa = compete with. Koorraiy = false; fake. Haattheesa = shamelessness. Pause. Bhaykh = religious outlook. Sach(u) = religiosity; noble deeds. Mehlee = resident of Waheguru's Mansion. Nicket(i) = close. 2.
Ateet(u) = detached from Maya. Sudaayay = calls self. Maata = intoxicated. Raata = imbued. 3. Binou = prayer. Koochul(u) = immoral. Kutthor(i) = stone-hearted; ruthless. Kaami = lustful. Mookut(u) = emancipate. 4.
Vudiyaayee = honour. Sookhdaatay = source of comforts. Soobhaayee = loving. Pause II.
MEANING: (The foolish Maya-engrossed man) has too many demands in return for a very little service to Waheguru (recite His Naam or accept His Will). He has no access to Waheguru, yet tells people that he has reached the Residence of Waheguru (has connected with Him). 1. Such a shameless and foolish dealer in perishables emulates (competes with) the true devotees of Waheguru Pause.
Outwardly, he presents himself as a religious person, but does not perform any spiritual deed (does not recite Waheguru's Naam). He claims to be a resident of Waheguru's Palace (connected with Him), but is not anywhere near Him. 2.
Intoxicated with (fully engrossed in) his wealth, he calls himself a renouncer of the world; has no love for Waheguru, yet proclaims himself to be fully imbued in His love. 3.
I pray to Waheguru that even though the man is immoral, ruthless, and lustful, please, be kind, and emancipate him. 4. You are loving and a source of all comforts; kindly bestow us with the honour of Your holy sight, oh Waheguru. Pause II. 1.7.

Word Meaning: Booray Kaam = immoral deeds. Bayla = time. 1.
Aousur = opportunity. Boojhaiy = understands. Iyaana = ignorant. Rung(i) Luptaana = deeply attached in love. Pause.
Lobh Lehr(i) = wave of greed. Bigus(i) Phool(i) = becomes ecstatic. Deettha = saw. 2.
Ugiyaan = uninformed. Guvaara = foolish. Buhour = again. Junjaara = tasks that bond more with Maya. Pause. Bikhaiy Naad = filthy music (songs). Kurn = ears. Bheena = deeply enjoys. Hur(i) Jus(u) = Waheguru's praise. Aalus(u) = laziness. 3.
Drisht(I) Naahi = cannot see. Paykhut = have eyes to see. Jhootthay = false. Pause.
Bukhsh Kreejaiy = do favour. Sadh Sung(u) = the company of the Guru. 4.
Tuou = only then. Juou = when. Rayna = dust of the feet (ego-free). Pause.

MEANING: The ignorant man does not realize the importance of the opportunity of the human life given to him (by Waheguru to connect with Him); and for his love for Maya, he clings to it. Pause. He wakes up early to commit some evil deeds, but sleeps in at the time of recitation of the Naam. 1.
His becomes ecstatic with a wave of greed in his mind, but never goes (makes an effort) to have a sight of the holy saints (to listen to their advice). 2. The ignorant and the foolish man never realizes his real objective in life, and sticks to the Maya-rooted affairs again and again. 1. Pause. He gets imbued in (enjoys) listening to filthy songs and music, but shows indolence in listening to Waheguru's praise. 3.
Cannot you see that you leave all the worldly affairs behind when you die, oh, the blind man? Pause. I, Nanak, pray to Waheguru that He kindly puts me in the shelter of the Guru with His benevolence. 4. One acquires such a company of the Guru only if one gets rid of one's ego and acquires humbleness. Only that individual recites Waheguru's Naam whom He gives the wisdom to do so. Pause. 2.8.

Jul(i), thul(i), muhhiul(i) Poorun Bidhaata. 4.3.9.

Word Meaning: Ghur(i) Meh(i) = in the house (heart). Tthaakur(u) = Lord; Waheguru. Paahun(u) = stone idol. Lutkaavaiy = hangs (put around the neck). 1.
Bhermay Bhoola = lost in misgivings. Saakut = Maya-engrossed. Birolaiy = churns. Khup(i) Khup(i) Merta = suffers in worthless tasks. Pause.
Gunehgaar = guilty. Loon-Huraami = thankless; disloyal. Naav = boat. Paargiraami = reach the other end. 3. Jaata = recognized; made connection. Muhhiul = sky. Bidhaata = carver of our fates. 4.

MEANING: The Maya-engrossed individual does not recognize the omnipresent Waheguru in his heart and hangs the stone idol around his neck (as a show-off). 1.
Such a person is misled by his misbeliefs and gains no spirituality. His approach is as futile as churning water. Pause.
The stone, which he believes to be the Lord, causes him to drown in the sea of Maya. 2.
A Maya-engrossed person is ungrateful and disloyal to Waheguru (the provider of everything). One cannot be ferried to the other end (of a river or a sea) on a boat of stone. 3. I realized the Lord (Waheguru), who is the carver of our fates, in the shelter of the Guru, and now I see Him in the waters, on the land, and in the sky, oh Nanak. 4.3.9.

Juhaan putthaavhou, jaaoun tutee ree. 2. Jup, tup, sunjum, dayoun jute ree. Ikk nimukh milaavhou Praanputee ree. 3. Maan(u), taan(u), uhunboodh(i) hutee ree. Sa Nanak sohaagvutee ree. 4.4.10.

Word Meaning: Laalun(u) = extremely dear (Waheguru). Raaviya = enjoyed. Gutee = means. Mutee = wisdom; advice. 1.
Soohub = beautiful pink colour. Soohvi = looking pretty. Rung(i) = imbued in love. Pause. Paanv Mulovoun = massage feet (sign of reverence). Naiyn Bhuteeri = eye lashes. Putthaavou = send. Tutee = there; right away. 2.
Jup = recitation of some mantras. Tup = self-affliction. Sunjum = efforts to control senses. Jutee = celibacy. Nimukh = moment. Praan Putee = the Lord of life.
Maan(u) = pride. Taan(u) = power. Uhunboodh(i) = thoughts of ego. Hutee = killed; destroyed. Sa = that. Sohaagvutee = loved by husband. 4.

MEANING: Imbued with the love of your Dear (Waheguru), you look very pretty, like the beautiful pink colour (with a glow on your face), oh my friend. Pause.
Would you please tell me what means you have used to enjoy the company of the Lord? 1. I will massage your feet with my eyelashes (serve you with love and respect), and will go wherever you send me, right away. 2.

I will give up all the common rituals of recitation of mantras, endurance of hardships, trying to control my senses, and observing celibacy if you will connect me with the Lord of my life (Waheguru) - even if it is for a short moment, oh my friend. 3.
(My friend advised me) that only that human bride can get married to (enjoy union with) Waheguru, who gives up her pride, power, and kills her thinking of selfishness and ego, oh Nanak. 4.4.10.

ਸੂਹੀ ਮਹਲਾ 5॥ ਤੂੰ ਜੀਵਨੁ ਪ੍ਰਾਨ ਅਧਾਰਾ॥ ਤੁਝ ਹੀ ਪੇਖਿ ਪੇਖਿ ਮਨੁ ਸਾਧਾਰਾ॥ 1॥ ਤੂੰ ਸਾਜਨੁ ਤੂੰ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਮੁ ਮੇਰਾ॥ ਚਿਤਹਿ ਨ ਬਿਸਰਹਿ ਕਾਹੂ ਬੇਰਾ॥1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਬੈਖਰੀਦੁ ਹਉ ਦਾਸਰੋ ਤੇਰਾ॥ ਤੂੰ ਭਾਰੋ ਠਾਕੁਰ ਗੁਣੀ ਗਹੇਰਾ॥2॥ ਕੋਟਿ ਦਾਸ ਜਾ ਕੈ ਦਰਬਾਰੇ॥ ਨਿਮਖ ਨਿਮਖ ਵਸੈ ਤਿਨ੍ਹ ਨਾਲੇ॥ 3॥ ਹਉ ਕਿਛੁ ਨਾਹੀ ਸਭੁ ਕਿਛੁ ਤੇਰਾ॥ ਓਤਿ ਪੋਤਿ ਨਾਨਕ ਸੰਗਿ ਬਸੇਰਾ॥ 4॥5॥11॥

Oat(i), poat(i), Nanak sung(i) busayra. 4.5.11.
Word Meaning: Praan Adhaara = support (basis) of life. Paykh(i) = to see. 1.
Chiteh(i) = from the mind. Bisreh(i) = get forgotten. Kaahoo Bayra = any time. Pause. Baiykhureed(u) = who has surrendered all his rights. Bhaaro = great. Gooni Guhayra = deep (sea of virtues). 2. Nimukh, Nimukh = every moment. 3.
Oat(i) Poat(i) = fully mixed like the cross threads in fabric. Busayra = living. 4
MEANING: You are the support of my life, and my mind acquires strength (to fight against the attractions of Maya) to see You, oh my Waheguru. 1.
You are my friend and my dear (my love); I do not want to forget You any time, oh my Lord. Pause. You are a deep (sea) of all the virtues, and I am a slave of Yours, and have surrendered all my rights to You. 2. You have countless devotees in Your Court whom You reside with, every moment. 3.
I, Nanak, am a non-entity, as all that I have is given by You. I am mixed with You by mind like the cross threads in fabric, oh Waheguru. 4.5.11.

Suhi Mehla 5: Sookh mehl ja kay ooch dooaaray. Ta meh(i) vaaseh(i) bhagat piyaaray. 1. Sehj kutha Prubh kee ut(i) meetthi. Virlaiy kaahoo nayturoun deetthi. 1. Ruhaou. Teh geet naad akhaaray sunga. Oohaan bhagat kureh(i) Hur(i) runga. 2. Teh mern(u) na jeevun(u), soag(u) na herkha. Saach Naam kee Amrit verkha. 3. Goohj kutha eh Gur tay jaani. Nanak(u) boalaiy Hur(i), Hur(i) Bani. 4.6.12.
Word Meaning: Sehj = high spiritual state. Kutha = saga of Waheguru (His praise). Deetthi = saw; experienced. Pause. Teh = there (in high spiritual state). Naad = Shabad; music. Akhaaray = rinks. Sunga = with. Runga = enjoy (bliss). 2.
Soag(u) = grief. Herkha = happiness. 3. Goohj = covert; hidden. 4.
MEANING: There is all bliss in Waheguru's Palace, which is very high (way above the effects of Maya). His dear bhagats reside with Him in His Palace. 1.

Waheguru's praise is very sweet, which leads His devotees to a high spiritual state. However, some rare individual experiences that state. Pause.
Waheguru's devotees enjoy blissfulness in that state where they "see" rinks (stadiums) where songs in Waheguru's praise are sung, and music is played. 2.
There is no death or birth, and no grief or happiness in that state because it rains the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam all the time. 3. The Guru has revealed this covert story of the high spiritual state, and now I always recite Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.6.12.

Word Meaning: Ders(i) = sight. Koat(i) = millions. Ootaaray = removes. Bhaytut = on meeting with. Bhuvjul = world sea. 1. Chitaaray = make to recite. Pause.
Tehl = in service. Jumdoot = assistants of the Angel of death. Bidaaray = destroys. 2. Dheeruk = encouragement. Sadhaaray = support. Oojlaaray = clean; pious. 3. Suvaaray = adorns (with noble qualities). 4.
MEANING: My real friends and well-wishers are those who make me recite Waheguru's Naam. Pause.
Their holy sight destroys countless sins, and one swims across the world-sea in their company. 1. One acquires all comforts by listening to their Shabad (in Waheguru's praise), and the service to them destroys all the agents of the Angel of death. 2.
Their succour strengthens the mind, and one's face acquires a glow (of purity of mind). 3. Waheguru Himself, adorns His devotees; I seek their shelter and will gladly sacrifice my life for them, oh Nanak. 4.7.13.

Word Meaning: Soor(i) = gods-like. Dayva = gods. Ootth(I) Sidhaaray = leave the world. Sayva = service; play their roles. Jeevut = spiritually alive. Paykhay = saw. Pause.

Shah = wealthy. Vapaari = businessmen. Kaaleh(i) = death. Khurna = take away. 2. Koorraiy Moh(i) = attachment with perishables. Lupt(i) = cling to. Puchhutana = repent. 3. Kirpa-Nidhaan = treasure (source) of mercy. Daat(i) = gift. 4.
MEANING: Nobody, including the gods-like men, the human beings, and the gods, stays here forever, and even the sages leave the world after playing their role in the world. 1. However, devotees are seen to live forever as they merge into Waheguru by reciting His Naam (and thereby become immortal). They get to have the holy sight of Waheguru (connect with Him) in the shelter of the Guru. Pause.
Be it a king, a wealthy man or a businessman, each has to die (wealth or power cannot save anyone). Every visible living being is taken away by death. 2.
The man clings to the perishable worldly attractions, but repents when he has to leave them behind. 3. Nanak humbly begs for the gift of Your Naam to recite it day and night, oh, the treasure of mercy, Waheguru. 4.8.14.

Word Meaning: Ghut = heart. Sugul Smuggri = everything = the whole world. Soot(i) = in Huqam. 1. Bigsaaray = blooms; feels blissful. Pause.
Anik Joan(i) = in countless lives. Bherm(i) = wandering through. Haaray = exhausted. Oat = shelter. Sadh Sungaaray = with the Guru. 2. Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Alukh = invisible. Apaaray = with no end; limitless. Raiyn = night. 3.
MEANING: You reside in every heart, and the whole world is under Your Huqam (control), oh Waheguru. 1. You are my dearest and the basis of my life. My mind blooms to see You. Pause. Going through countless lives, I have exhausted, and now I have sought the shelter of the Guru. 2. I recite the Naam of the inaccessible, incomprehensible, invisible, and limitless Waheguru day and night, oh Nanak. 3.9.15.

Word Meaning: Kuvun Kaaj = of what use (purpose)? Vudiyaayi = praise; greatness. Binsut = vanishing. Baar Na Kaayi = takes no time. 1.
Sovut = sleeping. Achayt Bivustha = state of unawareness. Pause.

Gavaara = foolish. Ootth(i) Sidhaara = leaves the world. 2.
Junt = living beings. Binaah(i) = destroying. Oopaara = creates. 3.
MEANING: What is the greatness of wealth which takes no time to vanish? Intoxicated by his wealth, the man is asleep (is unaware) that the luxuries of Maya are like a dream (short-lived), and clings to them. 1 & Pause.
The foolish is captivated by its attractions and is robbed of his spirituality; he leaves the world while watching the attractions of the world (worldly possessions cannot save him from death). Waheguru's Court is higher than the highest, and He creates countless living beings like the man, and destroys them too. No one else has been like Him in the past, and no one ever will be like Him. So, recite His Naam (to enjoy the eternal bliss), on Nanak. 2-4.10.16.

Word Meaning: Simer(i) = remembering. Churn Kumul = lotus-like Feet. 1.
Untarjaami = omniscient. Pause. Paykh(i) = seeing. Leela = amazing feats. Anunda = blissful. Apaar = endless. Permanunda = supreme bliss. 3.
Bhuou = fear. Biyaapaiy = affects. 4.
MEANING: My Lord (Waheguru) is omniscient and is always close to His devotees. Pause.
I survive by reciting His Naam, and wish to drink the wash of His Feet, which I want to wash with love (obey His Huqam with full reverence). 1.
Having listened to others, I recite His Amrit-like (immortalizing) Naam, and sing His praise all the twenty-four hours. 2. Singing the virtues of the limitless Waheguru is a source of supreme bliss, and blissful are His amazing feats to watch. 3.
I always recite the Naam of Waheguru because of which no worldly fear comes near you, oh Nanak. 4.11.17.

Word Meaning: Buchan(i) = Words; Shabad. Ridaiy = in heart. Rusna = tongue. Bunvari = Waheguru. 1. Suful = causing success. Moorut(i) = persona. Adhaari = support. Pause. Sadh = Guru. Nivaari = removed; terminated. Kern = ears. 2. Tujaari = given up. Drirr = reinforce. Soochaari = pure. 3. Tut(u) = reality; gist. 4.

MEANING: I focus my mind on Guru's Shabad, and recite Waheguru's Naam. 1.
I am a sacrifice for Waheguru whose holy sight is the source of success (leads to union with Him), and His lotus-like Feet (His Naam) are the basis of my life. Pause.
One's birth-death cycle is terminated in the shelter of the Guru, and listening to Waheguru's immortalizing story (His praise) from the Guru is the support (basis) for my life. 2.
The Guru reinforces Waheguru's Naam in one's mind and advises to share it with others. Taking a dip in the Naam-Amrit (reciting the Naam with full devotion) purifies one's mind, and the demons of lust, fury, greed, and worldly attachments are destroyed. 3.
I have realized the truth, that Waheguru's Naam salvages everyone, oh Nanak. 4.12.18.

Word Meaning: Mugun = absorbed; rapt. Upraadhi = guilty; sinner. Kernhaar = Creator.1. Putit-Paavun = purifier of the immoral. Nirgooniaaray = having no virtues. Pause. Untarjami = omniscient. Kaach Dayh = perishable body. Abhimani = conceited. 2. Baad = worthless debates. Eerukh = jealousy. Mud Maya = intoxication of wealth. 3. Dookh-Bhunjun = destroyer of suffering. Jugjeevun = life of the world. Hur(i) Raaya = the emperor Waheguru. Tiyaag(i) = abandoning. 4.
MEANING: Rapt in his greed and worldly attachments, the sinner does not serve (sing praise of) the Creator. 1. I have no noble quality, but Your Naam purifies even the immoral, so kindly protect me (against the attacks of Maya), oh Waheguru. Pause.
You are the kind provider and omniscient, but the foolish and the egoist man does not realize Your benevolence and the fact that his stay here on earth is very short, oh Lord. 2.
Intoxicated in his wealth, the foolish man wastes away his precious human life in enjoying different tastes, worthless discussions, and jealousy. 3.
Realizing that the Royal Waheguru is the destroyer of all suffering and is the source of all life in the world, I have come to His shelter, oh Nanak. 4.13.19.

Word Meaning: Paykhut = seeing. Chaakhut = tasting; examining. Nicket(i) = near. Vust(u) = thing; (Waheguru). 1. Chhooteh(i) = emancipate. Praani = man. Pause. Ghor = horses. Mehl = mansion. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in the love. Sung(i) = with. 2. Pochaar(i) = with love. Maati = earth. Bhaanda = vessel; body. Ut(i) Koocheel = extremely filthy. Daanda = punishment. 3. Baandha = tightly attached. Muhha Gert = deep pit (of Maya). Nighurt = sinking. 4. Doobut Paahun = sinking rock. Leejaiy = save. 5.

MEANING: Perform those deeds, and recite Guru's immortalizing Bani (Waheguru's Naam) by which you will attain salvation, oh man. Pause.

But, rapt in Maya, the man is so blind that even though he sees and tastes (the damaging effects of Maya), yet, he does not listen to any advice. He thinks Waheguru is far away even though He is always so close to him (in his heart). With this false belief, the sinner commits sinful deeds. 1. Not realizing that nothing accompanies him after his death, he stays imbued in the love for his horses and for his big mansion. 2.

He loves and nourishes his body, which is as perishable as an earthenware, and he is punished by the Angel of justice for his extremely filthy mind. 3.

Tightly attached to lust, fury, greed, and worldly attachments, he keeps sliding uncontrolled into the deep pit of the attractions of Maya. 4.

I am heavy like a rock with the burden of my sins, and am drowning in the sea of Maya; kindly save me, oh Waheguru, prays Nanak. 5.14.20.

Word Meaning: Jeevut Muraiy= to kill one's desires while living in the family. Boojhaiy = realizes. Kerm(i) = with the benevolence of; with good fortune. Praaput(i) = acquire. 1. Dootur(u) = (world-sea) which is very difficult to swim across. Oochuriyaiy = recite. Pause. Aik Binaa = Without the "One". Jaanaiy = acknowledge. Ghut = heart. Puchhaanaiy = recognize. 2. Bhul Maanaiy = accept as favourable. Aad(i) Unt(i) = (Waheguru) which was present at the beginning, and will be there at the end. Keemut(i) = worth; importance. 3.

MEANING: An individual, who kills his desires while living in the world, acquires Waheguru's Naam with His benevolence, and realizes (merges into) Him. 1.

One should recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru; this is how you can swim across the world-sea (find salvation), oh my friend. Pause.

Such a devotee recognizes Waheguru in every heart and acknowledges no one else as Waheguru. 2. He believes that anything that Waheguru does is good for him and recognizes the worth of Waheguru, who was present at the beginning and will be present at the end. 3. I am a sacrifice for the devotee whose heart becomes a dwelling for Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.5.21.

Word Meaning: Permayshur(u) = Waheguru. Kernaiyhaar(u) = creator. Sugul Srishut(i) = the whole world. Adhaar(u) = support. 1. Bhuvjul(i) = the sea of Maya. Kaadhaiy = pulls out. Gaandhaiy = connects. 2. Shaant(i) = peace; contentment. Raiyn(u) = dust (of the Feet). Vudbhaagi = highly fortunate. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is the Guru of all, and is the creator of the universe. He provides food to the whole world. 1.

All his sufferings and discomforts run away when one remembers the lotus-like Feet of the Guru (recites His Shabad) in his heart (deep from the soul). Pause.

Satguru pulls a drowning devotee out of the sea of Maya and connects the long-disconnected with Him. 2.

One attains peace of mind and blissfulness by serving the Guru (obeying Him) day and night. 3. Only some highly fortunate individual gets the dust of the Guru's Feet (an opportunity to serve Him). I am always a sacrifice for the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.16.22.

Word Meaning: Aatth Pehr = twenty-four hours. Jus(u) = praise. 1. Sugul = all. Untarjaami = know-all; omniscient. Pause. Poorun = perfect. Reet(i) = custom. 2. Kilvikh = sins. Jaahi = go away; removed. 3. Ruvaala = dust (of the feet). 4.

MEANING: We should sacrifice our life (wealth, body, and mind) for Satguru, and sing Waheguru's praise day and night in His shelter. 1.

I recite the Naam of my omniscient Waheguru, who is aware of the situation of every heart (is present in every heart). Pause.

My mind has been attached to the lotus-like Feet of Waheguru (His Naam) with deep love for Him – the love which is perfectly pure (selfless) and everlasting. 2.
Love for Waheguru takes root in one's heart with the grace of the Guru as a result of which all his sins of many lives go away (are eradicated). 3.
I wish for the dust of the feet of the Guru (an opportunity to humbly serve Him), and pray to the kind Waheguru to fulfil my wish, begs Nanak. 4.17.23.

Word Meaning: Uver Na = none other. Thummay = supports. 1. Adhaar = support. Kern Kaarun = creator of the universe. Sumruth(u) = omnipotent. Apaar(u) = endless. Pause. Nuvva Nuroa = young and healthy. Rukha = guardian. 2.
MEANING: The eternal Waheguru provides support to everybody. There is none other like him. 1. Waheguru is the creator of the universe, is omnipotent, and limitless. His Naam is the basis of my life. Pause.
Waheguru destroys all one's ailments, and he always feels young and healthy (hale and hearty). Waheguru Himself protects me (against the attacks of Maya), oh Nanak. 2.33.39.

Word Meaning: Loachaiy = longs for. Praaput(i) = acquire. Pause. Shiyam Sundar = handsome (attractive Waheguru). Muhha Mohini = highly captivating (Maya). Dootaan = the five demons (senses). 1. Bichhoha = (pain of) separation. Kusaayi = butcher; attraction. Nirdaiy = merciless. Junt(u) = living being. Duyya = mercy. 2. Bhermaayi = wandering (going) through. Vaas(u) = dwelling. Dootur = difficult; tough. Maayi = Maya. 3. Doash(u) = blame. Kirt(u) = deeds done. Bhuvaayi = causes to wander. 4. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. 5.
MEANING: Everybody longs for Waheguru's holy sight (His Naam), but one acquires it only with great fortune. Pause.
How can one sleep (enjoy peace) without the Naam of the attractive Waheguru? (Without His Naam), The charming Maya attracts (activates) the five senses of the man.1. Separation from Waheguru causes pain like a butcher. The butcher of separation is so merciless that it shows no mercy to the helpless man. 2.
(Due to his separation from Waheguru), The charming Maya (which is very tough to overcome) does not allow one's mind to stay in its own home (let it be peaceful), as a result of which the man is taken through countless lives (he is born again, and again). 3.

But the man cannot blame others as he reaps the rewards of the deeds he had done previously which cause him to wander day and night (rob him of his mental peace). 4.
Listen you all, oh my saintly friends, the devotees of Waheguru, and my brothers, I have attained the high spiritual state in the shelter of the Guru, declares Nanak. 5.34.40.

Word Meaning: Bhulie = good; comfortable. Soohaavi = pleasant; comforting. Chhaapri = mud hut. Dhaulhur = white (splendid) mansions. Bisraayay = forgotten. Pause. Anund = bliss. Greebi = poverty; humbleness. Chit(i) = in mimd. Budpuna = high status in society. Luptaayay = clings to. 1. Peesun = load to be grinded. Pees(i) = grind (with quern). Oadh(i) Kaamri = wearing an inexpensive blanket. Na Kitaiy kaaj(i) = of no use. Suntokh aayay = contentment = Triptaayay. 2. Rung(i) = in love. Sobha = praise. Paat Ptumbar = silk clothes. Birthiya = useless. Ruch(i) = engrossed in. Lobhaayay = feels greedy. 3.
MEANING: A hut of mud is highly comforting in which Waheguru's praise is sung, and the splendid mansions are worthless if Waheguru is forgotten in them. Pause.
Even poverty is blissful for a devotee if he is in the company of the Guru where Waheguru is remembered (His praise is sung). Let the high status in the society burn away because of which one clings to Maya. 1.
The reigning of a state is of no use if one is not contented; but, on the other hand, grinding grains in a quern (hand grinding mill) while wearing only an inexpensive blanket is blissful if one feels contented. 2.
Silk clothes are worthless if one gets greedy (and immoral) by wearing them, whereas a thinly-clad devotee earns praise if he is imbued in Waheguru's love. 3.
But we cannot blame anyone because it is Waheguru who makes the individuals perform deeds which He wishes them to perform. I only wish the gift from Waheguru that I should remember Him with every breath, oh Nanak. 4.1.41

Word Meaning: Punihaara = water carrier (server); slave. Meet = friends. Sugul = all. Pause. Kays = hair. Beejna = fan. Chaur(u) = royal whisk (a sign of royalty). Dhoolaavoun = fan over the head. Sees(u) = head. Nihaaroun = lower down. 1. Misht Buchan = sweet language. Deen = poor; humble. Niyaayeen = like. Tuj(i) = giving up. Goon-Nidh(i) = treasure (source) of virtues. 2. Uvlokun = see. Pooneh = again. Dersaar = have a sight. Sinchoun = irrigate. Bundou = kneel down. 3. Chitvoun = think of. Sung(u) = company. Daas = slave; devotee. 4.

MEANING: I am a water server (a slave) of the saint of Waheguru (the Guru), and have dedicated my life and my wealth to Him. He is dearer to me than all my brothers, my friends, my sons, and my own life. Pause.

I would make my hair a whisk for Him, and fan over His head. I would lower my head, and put it under His feet, and put the dust of His feet on my face (all these are signs of deep affection and reverence for the Guru). 1.

Giving up all my ego, I would surrender to Him, and like a poor person, would request Him in sweet words to acquire the Naam of Waheguru, which is the treasure of all virtues. 2.

I would love to have His holy sight, and kneel down to Him again, and again. I would listen to His immortalizing Words and irrigate my mind with Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. 3.

I always think about the Guru, and wish to be in His company (shelter). I beg Waheguru that He becomes benevolent to me so that I could drop at the feet of the Guru (surrender myself to Him) with His grace, oh Nanak. 4.2.42.

Word Meaning: Mohay = enchanted. Brehmund = galaxies. Khund = parts; earths. Paaoun = find (myself). Bikhuyi Jeao = lustful man. Pause. Ja Tay = from whom. Paachhaiy Jaaoun = chase. Chhoad(i) Jaah(i) = which leaves. Sugul = all. Luptaaoun = cling to. 1. Kroonaputay = merciful. Smaaoun = get absorbed. 2.

MEANING: I am immoral, and find myself trapped in the same Maya which has captivated the living beings of all worlds and galaxies. Kindly protect me (from the attacks of Maya), and bestow me with Your Naam, oh Waheguru. Pause.

I still pursue wealth, which has not provided any permanent comfort to anyone, and cling to the same again and again, which leaves everybody at the end. 1.
Please be kind to me so that I may sing Your praise, oh, the merciful Waheguru. I pray to You to put me in the shelter of the Guru so that I may get absorbed in You in His shelter, begs Nanak. 2.3.43.

Word Meaning: Purrtaal = music in which instruments are changed at regular intervals. Guriya = topmost. Mohan = Waheguru. Laalna = very dear. Laykhaiy = worth considering. Laag(u) = get attached. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Kooriya = trail; path. Pause. Nirgoon = formless; above the effects of Maya. Sergoon = the visible world. Kotthuriya = small room (heart). Bhinn, Bhinn = all different. Koatvuriya = the master of the body-fort (mind). Nij = personal. Mindar(i) = in the house (heart). Piriya = beloved (Waheguru). Tuhha = there. Neh Muriya = no death. Juriya = old age. 1. Kirtun = creation; Maya. Jooriya = attached to. Buhhou Bidh(i) = in many ways. Per Kuou = others. Hiriya = robbed. Bikhna Ghiriya = besieged by vices. Ub = now. Puriya = fell on the feet. Khuriya = waiting there. Miriya = got connected with. Buhour Na = no more. Phiriya = returns; rebirths. 2.

MEANING: Love for the mind-captivating and the dear Waheguru is the topmost love of all. Take shelter of the Guru, quit the path of indecisiveness, and keep only Waheguru in mind (recite only His Naam) because worshipping anyone else carries no spiritual value, oh man. Pause. The formless Waheguru shows Himself in His nature. He has created countless bodies of many different kinds in which the mind is the lord of the fortlike body. The man, who makes his heart a dwelling for Waheguru, enjoys bliss all the time, and does not suffer from the fear of old age or death (as he merges into Waheguru). 1.
On the other hand, the individual, who gets engrossed in Maya (which is the creation of Waheguru) is besieged (overpowered) by immoral activities, roams around in many different ways to rob others. (With good fortune) I sought the shelter of the Guru who embraced me, and with whose grace I reached the Door of Waheguru, and had His holy sight. Buhhou Bidh(i) = in many different ways. Paykhaiy = watches. Haara = exhausted. Rus = tastes. Laiyt = taking; enjoying. Niraara = unattached. 1. Bern(u) = colour. Chihn = physical features. Masaara = moustache. Churnaara = of the feet. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru has created the world as the arena for the living beings to act out in the drama of the world. Pause.
He has created the world in countless forms and colours. He is now happily watching and enjoying the drama of the world, and does not get tired of it. He enjoys all the drama's flavours, but remains detached from it. 1. He has no body colour, no physical features, no face, and no moustache. The drama of the world cannot be described. Word Meaning: Tuou Sherni = in Your shelter. Bhuroasaiy = with full faith. Gureh Putthaaya = the Guru sent me. Pause. Dootur = very difficult. Puvun Jhoolaya = wind gusts. 1. Kur-ro = tough; strict. 2. Greh = home; the world. Undh Koopaya = dark well. Paavuk Sugraya = the whole world is fire (of desires). 3. Oat = shelter. Sadhaya = of the Guru.4.

MEANING: My Satguru has put me on the journey to Your Door, oh Waheguru. So, I have come to Your shelter with full faith and with Your benevolence. Kindly protect me (from the attacks of Maya) in whichever way You, please, oh Lord. Pause.
The attractions of Maya are very difficult to resist, and they whip (stir) my mind the way the wind gusts hit the objects. 1.
I am very afraid of the Angel of justice, whom I have heard to be very strict. 2.
The whole world is a deep sea of fire (of human desires for the attractions of Maya). 3.

MEANING: The eternal Waheguru, who is the creator of the universe, is the support for His devotees and His saints. Pause.
I, too, pray to the Satguru that He gives me Waheguru's Naam (implants in my mind) as the basis for my life. When the eternal Waheguru is pleased to be kind, the suffering of the whole world goes away (with His Naam). 1.
Waheguru's world is eternal, and so is His Court (from where He controls the world); His treasures are eternal, and so is His whole expanse. 2.
The beauty of Your visible world (the nature) is inaccessible (unparalleled), and so is Your holy sight. I am all sacrifice for Your devotees, who love Your Naam, oh Waheguru. 3.
All one's wishes are fulfilled when he connects with the inaccessible and endless Waheguru. I am very fortunate to have been connected with the Guru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru. I, Nanak, am a sacrifice for Your Feet (Your Naam), oh Waheguru. 4..47.

Word Meaning: Bhaana = Will; Huqam. Munaayeh(i) = make to accept. Bhaavaiy = is liked. Saayi = the same. Pritpala = nourish and nurture. 1.
Raayay = Royal. Pervaan(u) = acceptable. Adhaari = support. Pause. Munsa Poorunhaara = fulfiller of wishes. Prranput(i) = Lord of life. Preetum = beloved. 2.
Athaah(u) = unfathomable. Apaar(u) = endless. Bhaantay = like. Vissar = be forgotten. 3. Tootthaiy = pleased to be kind. 4.

MEANING: You enable the devotees whom You are kind to, to gladly obey Your Will (Huqam). You nourish and nurture all living beings, but only that individual becomes Your devotee whom You like, oh Waheguru. 1.
Your devotees depend upon Your support. You are the support of their body and mind, and they gladly accept what you wish, oh my Royal Waheguru. Pause.
You are highly benevolent, kind, a treasure (ocean) of kindness, and the fulfiller of all the wishes of your living beings. You love Your devotees who treat You as the dear Lord of their lives, and Your devotees love You. 2.
You are unfathomable, endless, and extremely high in transcendence; nobody else is like You. My only prayer to You is that I may never forget You, oh Waheguru. 3.
I wish to sing Your praise with every breath, day, and night, if You approve that. I, Nanak, beg for the comfort (bliss) of Your Naam, if You kindly grant it to me, oh Waheguru. 4.1.48.

Word Meaning: Na Kubhoon = never. Thaan = place; residence. Aatth Pehr = 24 hours. Nirmul = pure. Dayha = body (mind). 1. Huoun = I; me. Bhaalun = to search. Khojut = by searching. Bhuyya = happened; became. Pause. Brahmay = of Brahma. Haaray = exhausted; surrendered. Sadhik = yogis. Sidh = accomplished yogis. Bil-laatay = wailing; trying desperately. Mohay Maayi = captivated by Maya. 2. Dus Aoutaar = the ten incarnations of Vishnu. Muhadev = Shiva. Aoudhoota = detached from the world. Bibhoota = ash. 3. Sehj = high spiritual state (of blissfulness). Anund = bliss. Sunteen = holy saints. Mungul = song of happiness. Suful = causing success.4

MEANING: I was looking for the place where I would never forget You and recite Your Naam all the twenty-four hours whereby my mind would become pure, oh Waheguru. 1.
After searching for a long time, I found that such a place is the company of the Guru, and I took His shelter. Pause. I had found that pundits, who had exhausted themselves reading the Vedas of Brahma, had found absolutely nothing about Your majesty. Even the yogis and the Sidhis (the accomplished yogis), who were desperately trying to find Your limits (or connect with You), failed miserably because they were captivated by Maya (seeking supernatural powers). 2.
Even the ten incarnations (of Vishnu), who were recognized as holy bodies, and Shiva, who was believed to be detached from the world, and who coated his body with ash, could find no end to Your grandeur. 3.
The holy saints of Waheguru, who sing His praise in a high spiritual state, enjoy the real sweetness of His Naam, peace of mind, and blissfulness. I began to recite Waheguru's Naam by body and mind, after I had the holy sight of the Guru (took His shelter), because of which I was successful in connecting with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.2.49.

(PAGE 748): Gurmukh(i) Naam(u) jupaiy oodhray so Kul(i) meh(i), ghut(i), ghut(i) Nanak maajha. 4.3.50.
Word Meaning: Kerm Dherm = religious rituals. Paakhund = hypocrisy. Jagaati = taxmen. Nirban = above the effects of Maya. Nimukh = a moment. Chhootaiy = attain emancipation. 1. Buchan Kmaavaiy = acts on the Advice. Turiyaiy = is salvaged. Pause. Koat(i) = millions; countless. Mujun = Ishnaana = dips; baths. 2. Kutayb = religious books of the western religions (Quran, Bible, Torah etc.) Mookt(i) = emancipation. Ek Ukkhur = one word (Waheguru). Jaapaiy = recites. Soyee = fame. 3. Verna = the four major castes. Saanjha = common. Kul Meh(i) = in this era. Maajha = in the middle. 4.
MEANING: Any credit for all those religious rituals which people are seen performing is taken away by the taxmen of the Angle of justice (meaning they carry no spiritual worth in Waheguru's Court). So, sing praise of Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya and by which you will find emancipation in no time, oh man. 1.

The only way to swim across the sea of Maya is to lead your life according to the Advice of the Guru, with whose grace one attains emancipation, oh my holy friends. Pause.
One's mind gets filthy (with evil thinking) even by taking countless dips at holy places, but one gets his mind purified when he sings Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru. 2. One cannot find salvation just by reading religious books, maybe they are the Vedas, Quran, Bible, Torah, Simritis, or Shastras. But, a devotee, who recites the one word "Waheguru" (His Naam) in the shelter of the Guru, earns fame of purity (his mind becomes pure). 3. It is the same advice for all four major castes (Brahman, Khatri, Shood, and Vaish) that Waheguru resides in every heart, and a devotee, who recites His Naam in the shelter of the Guru, attains salvation in this world, oh Nanak. 4.3.50.

Word Meaning: Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in the love of. Sobha = praise. Churn Praatay = surrendered to; took shelter of. 1. Javud = as great as. Bun(i) Aayi = are in tune (in unison). Muhhiul(i) = in the sky. Pause. Upraadh(i) = sins; blunders. Oodhraiy = salvaged. Bichhurriya = separated. 2. Moh = attachment. Bherm = doubts; misbeliefs. Munoruth = objective; wish. Araadhaiy = remember; worship. Paavaiy = acquire. 3. Jun = devotee. Mehma = greatness. Kaytuk = how much. Bernoun = describe. Bhayiya = met with; took shelter of. Nikaanay = free from any obligation. 4.
MEANING: There is no one as great (holy) as the saints of Waheguru. His bhagats are spiritually in unison with Waheguru, and they see Him everywhere - in waters, on the land, and in the sky. Pause.
Waheguru's bhagats live in His shelter at all times and earn praise everywhere. They are always imbued in His love, and Waheguru approves everything they do. 1.
Countless sinners find salvation in their shelter, and the Angel of death does not even go near them (because they merge with God). They connect even those individuals with Waheguru, who had been separated from Him for many, many lives. 2.
All one's attachments with Maya, his misbeliefs, and his fears are eradicated if he seeks shelter of the holy saints. One gets any of his wishes that he has in mind fulfilled in the shelter of the Guru. 3. How much praise of the holy saints, who are liked by Waheguru, can I sing? Those who come to the shelter of the Guru with full faith become completely independent of others (they become free from any obligation to others, or owe nothing to anyone), oh Nanak. 4.4.51.

Word Meaning: Muhha Ugun(i) = the huge fire (of desires). Maan(u) = pride. Taan(u) = power. Rid Untar(i) = in the heart. 1. Oobray = saved. Bhervaasa = full faith. Oodhray = salvaged. Pause. Undh Koop = the dark well (deep sea of Maya). Saar(i) Smaal(i) = looking after; taking care. Pritpala = nourishing and nurturing. 2. Bundhun = worldly bonds. Bhagat(i) = worship. 3. Binaasay = eradicated. Mitiya = erased; destroyed. Visoora = worries. Poora = Perfect. 4.
MEANING: One is protected from the attractions of Maya when he has the Royal Waheguru in his mind. Such a devotee has full faith in Waheguru and attains salvation by reciting His Naam in His shelter. Pause.
You protect those who come to Your shelter from the huge fire of their desires for worldly attractions by extending Your hand, oh Waheguru. I, too, have forsaken all other hopes, and now You are my pride, and the power for my mind, oh Waheguru. 1.
With Your kindness, You pull out Your devotees from the deep and the dark well (sea) of Maya. Looking after Your living beings, You nourish and nurture them, and provide all comforts to them, oh Waheguru. 2.
With His kind sight, Waheguru emancipates His devotees by cutting all their bonds with Maya. Waheguru Himself makes His devotees serve and worship Him. 3.
With His benevolence, the source of all comforts Waheguru, connects His devotees with the Perfect Satguru as a result of which all their misgivings, their fears, and their worldly attractions are dispelled, oh Nanak. 4.5.52.

Duyya kurhou Nanak(u) goon gaavaiy, mittha luggaiy Tayra bhaana.

Word Meaning: Jub = when. Seeyo = was. Tub = then. Kerm = (noble) deeds. Aaya = born. Khayl(u) = drama. Ruchun Ruchaaya = created the universe. 1. Niruntar(i) = continuous (omnipresent). Soyi = the same (God). Pause. Guntee Gunee = keeping account; citing (good deeds). Kut-hoon = not at all. Kaachi = lacking noble qualities. Iyani = ignorant. Bukhsh = largess. Niraali = unique. 2. Dhiyaayiyaiy = worshipped. Gut(i) = transcendence. Mit(i) = measurements. Keem = worth. 3. Nirgoon = having no noble qualities. Moogudh = foolish. Ajaan = ignorant. Ugiyani = no spiritual knowledge. Kerm dherm = religious rituals. Bhaana = Will. 4.

MEANING: (Some religious sects believe that one is born in the human form due to his previous noble deeds. Questioning this assertion, Guru Sahib asks): when the man did not have any existence yet, what could he have done, and what deeds could he have performed to be born as a human? In fact, it is the drama of the world created by Waheguru, which He also watches (looks after). 1.

I am not capable of doing anything, oh my Royal Waheguru. Waheguru, which is omnipresent, is the creator, and He makes the living beings do what they do. Pause.

One can find absolutely no emancipation by simply citing his good deeds; he is ignorant about Waheguru (as to how He grants emancipation), and his body (and mind) are not perfect – he lacks noble qualities (so, what account can he boast about). Emancipation is a unique gift (favour) from Waheguru (not available to everybody). So, I pray to Him to be kind to me (and grant me emancipation). 2. Waheguru has created all the living beings, and He is worshipped (present) in every heart. Only He knows His high transcendence and the limits of His expanse. Nobody else can evaluate His grandeur. 3.

I have no good qualities, am foolish, ignorant, and lack spiritual knowledge completely; I do not even know of any religious rituals to perform. I simply beg Waheguru to be kind to me so that I may sing His praise, and accept His Will as being sweet to me, oh Nanak. 4.6.53.

Word Meaning: Bhagtturray = fortunate. Pervaan Gunee = approved. Sayee = those. 1. Chuvur(u) = whisk. Dhoolaavaan = fan (over the head). Pause.
Per-oopkaari = serving others selflessly. Jea-Daan = gift of new life. Laayin = attach. 2. Amar = reign. Patshahi = kingship. Raatay = imbued. Jaatay = honoured. 3. Paani Dhovaan = haul water. Pesun(u) Pees = grind wheat in quern. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru's holy saints are highly fortunate who have the wealth of His Naam in their hearts. They are successful spiritually (perfectly worthy), and they are the ones who are approved by Waheguru. 1. I am all sacrifice for the holy saints of Waheguru, and wish to fan over their heads with the whisk made of my hair. I also wish to put the dust of their feet on my face (serve them humbly in any capacity). Pause.
The holy saints are free from any death or birth; they are born simply to render selfless service to humanity. They infuse them with love for Waheguru, make them worship Him, and connect them to Him. 2.
Being always imbued with the love for Waheguru, they have full control over worldly attachments and enjoy eternal kingship in their mind. They are honoured by Waheguru, who created them, and they enjoy eternal bliss and everlasting respect. 3.
I wish to fan them (in hot weather), haul water for them, and grind wheat with a quern (hand grinding mill) (serve them humbly in every way). I pray to Waheguru that He grants me the holy sight of His saints, oh Nanak. 4.7.54.

MEANING: The endless Waheguru is the creator of the universe, and Himself is the Satguru. As a devotee, I am all sacrifice for Him and beg for the dust of His Feet (His Naam) and for His holy sight. 1. I will gladly spend my life the way You want me to lead, oh my Royal Waheguru. You make us recite Your Naam if You please, and we enjoy the comfort (bliss) as Your gift. Pause. Emancipation, enjoyment of delicious foods, and the noble way to lead our lives are all subsumed in Your service, which You make people perform if You please. It is paradise where Your praise is sung, but it is You who instils love for Your worship in the minds of the people. 2.
I survive spiritually by reciting Your Naam when my body and my mind feel blissful. You are my Satguru too, and I wish to wash Your lotus-like feet and drink the wash (a show of deep reverence), oh, the benevolent to the humble, Waheguru. 3.
I wish to sacrifice my life for the auspicious time (a highly fortunate time for me) when I came to Your shelter. Waheguru was richly benevolent to me when I came into contact with the Perfect Satguru, oh Nanak. 4.8.55.

Word Meaning: Chit Aayay = come to mind. Muhha Anunda = highly blissful. Visreh(i) = forgotten. 1. Nimaani = humble; having no pride. Bani = holy compositions. Pause. Oordhaareen = acquire in mind. Sung(u) = company; union. 2. Gut(i) = situation. Saari = revealed. Laayay Laiyh(i) = attach; prompt. 3.
Ker Joarr(i) = with forded (clasped) hands. Daana = gift; favour. Tootthaiy = pleased to be kind. Saas(i) Saas(i) = with every breath. Aatth Pehr = twenty-four hours. 4.
MEANING: It is a great bliss when You come to mind, and the individual who forgets You experiences spiritual death, oh Waheguru. The individual, whom You are kind to, always remembers You (keeps You in mind). 1.
You are the pride of this humble devotee, and I pray to the Lord that I should always listen to Your Bani (Guru's Shabad in Your praise) to survive, oh Waheguru. Pause.
I wish to be humble like the dust of the feet of Your devotee (Satguru), and wish to sacrifice my life for Your holy sight. I further wish that I should enshrine the immortalizing Words of the Guru in my mind, and achieve union with You, with Your benevolence. 2.

There is no one as great as You are, and I have revealed the state of my mind to You (You know it all). Only that individual begins to worship You whom You prompt to do so, and he becomes Your faithful devotee. 3.
With clasped hands, I, Nanak, beg a donation (favour) from You that I should recite Your Naam all the twenty-four hours, if You please, oh Waheguru. 4.9.56.

Word Meaning: Sir Oopur(i) = cover over the head (provide protection). Boal(i) Na Jaanaiy = does not sing praise. Mud Maata = intoxicated with the intoxicant of. 1. Bukhsh = largess. Maytaiy = erase; destroy. Dilaasa = assurance. 2. Ful = reward. Bhrvaasaiy = with faith. Saadheh(i) = fixed; controlled. 3. Saar = worth. Kul = power; respect; dignity.
MEANING: You are (the Lord of the saints), and the saints are Your favourites, oh my Royal Waheguru. Your devotees fear no one; even the Angel of death cannot go near them (as they are protected by Waheguru). Pause.
(Normally, the man is so engrossed in Maya) that intoxicated by it, he does not know how to sing Waheguru's praise. But, how could a man suffer in any way who has God's cover (shield) over his head (is protected by Him)? 1.
The suffering of death and birth of those who are imbued in Waheguru's love runs away (is eradicated); they have the assurance of Satguru, and nobody can erase (undo) the largess of Waheguru for them. 2.
They recite Waheguru's Naam all day and night, and enjoy blissfulness. With their faith in Waheguru, they overpower the five demons in His shelter. 3.
I have no spiritual knowledge, no concentration of mind, know of no religious ritual, and have no sense of Waheguru's grandeur, but fortunately, I was connected with the Greatest Guru Nanak, who protected my honour (against the attacks of Maya). 4.10.57.

Kur(i) kirpa Apna Naam(u) deejaiy, Nanak, Sadh ruvaala. 4.11.58.

Word Meaning: Sugul Tiyaag(i) = abandoning everything. Raakhunhaary = saviour. Vichaaray = helpless. 1. Untarjaami = omniscient. Gurdev = great Guru. Pause. Bhuou = Bhuoujul (the world-sea). Rayna = dust of feet. Meriyaiy = be dead from worldly desires (kill them). 2. Jug Bheetur(i) = in the world. Munoruth = objectives. 3.

Deen Duyyal = kind to the humble. Ruvaala = Dhoorr(i) = dust of feet (humbleness). 4.

MEANING: We, the human beings, are helpless as we have no ability of our own, and do only the kind of deeds You make us do, oh Waheguru. So, abandoning everything, I have come to Your shelter; now protect me (against the attacks of Maya), oh our Saviour, Waheguru. 1. You are omniscient, oh my Waheguru Ji. Please be kind to me, and enable me to sing Your praise, oh the benevolent, great Guru. Pause.

We should remember our Waheguru all the twenty-four hours so as to be able to swim across the world-sea with the grace of the Guru. Giving up our selfishness and ego, we should be humble like the dust of everybody's feet; that is how we kill our worldly desires while living in the family. 2.

The individual, who recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, makes his life successful in this world. All one's objectives are completed successfully when Waheguru is kind. 3.

Waheguru is kind and merciful to the humble. I have come to His shelter with the request that He implant His Naam in my heart so that I become humble like the dust of the feet of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.11.58.
