Word Meaning: Uvgun = ignoble qualities. Kiyoun Kur(i) = how? Kunt = husband (Waheguru). Milaava = union. 1.

Roop(u) = beauty. Bunkay = beautiful. Naiyna = eyes. Kool = clan. Dhung(u) = noble lifestyle. Meetthay Baiyna = sweet language. Pause. Sehj(i) = of high spiritual state. Sheengar = adornment. Kaamun(i) = human bride. Sohaagun = married; connected with. Kuntaiy = Husband; Waheguru. Bhaavaiy = is liked by. 2.

Tis(u) = His (of Waheguru). Raykhiya = physical features. Unt(i) = at the end. 3.

Soort(i) = high thinking. Mut(i) = wisdom. Chuturaayee = shrewdness. Paayeen = feet; (shelter). 4. Khuree = much. Siyaani = (over) clever. Bhaani = liked by. Laagi = attached to. Bherm(i) Bhoolaani = misguided in misbeliefs. 5.

Haumein = selfishness and ego. Smaayee = lost in (His thoughts). Nuv Nidh(i) = nine mythical treasures. 6.

Anik = countless. Bichhurut = stay disconnected. Ker(u) Geh(i) = hold hand. 7.

Bunut(i) = says. Shuhou = Husband; Waheguru. Hoasi = will be. Ravaysi = enjoy. 8.

MEANING: I have all ignoble qualities and none good ones. So, how can I connect with my Waheguru-Husband? 1.

I have no beauty, nor do I have beautiful eyes. I do not have a high clan, no noble lifestyle, and do not have sweetness in my language (conversation). Pause.

The only way for the human bride to connect with Waheguru is to adorn her body and mind with the high spiritual state - and that is possible only if she is liked by the Waheguru-Husband. 2. Waheguru has no physical beauty or features, so how can one worship Him at the time of her death? 3.

I have no high thinking, no wisdom, and no cleverness (to enable myself to be accepted by You), oh Waheguru. Kindly provide me with your shelter. 4.

Waheguru-Husband does not like those who show too much smartness (ego), as such individuals are misled by their misgivings in their attachment to Maya. 5.
Only that human bride who is absorbed in the thoughts of Waheguru gives up her selfishness and ego. In love with Waheguru, such a devotee feels as if she has acquired all the nine treasures of the world. 6.
I have suffered too much by staying detached from You for many lives, oh my dear and majestic Waheguru. Kindly hold my hand now (connect me with You). 7.
Waheguru has always been there, and will be there, oh Nanak. However, He enjoys union only with those whom He likes. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Kusoombh = a flower which has very attractive pink colour, but wilts away quickly. Din Chaar(i) = only a few days. Bherm(i) bhoolliyaan = misled by misgivings. Tthug(i) = by the thug (captivating Maya). Mootthi = robbed. Koorriyaar(i) = dealer in perishables. Sachay Sayti = with the immortal (God). Ruttiyaan = imbued. 1.
Rung(u) Laayay = fell in love. Uvguni = because of the ignoble qualities. Mootthi = robbed of (spirituality). Sayviayaiy = worship. Sachay = the immortal (God). Chit(u) = mind.

Pause. Chaaray Koondaan = the four directions. Bhuveh(i) = roam around. Bhaagaan = fortune. Dhun(u) = wealth of Naam. Budhik = trapped in. Thaayan Na Paayay = gets no recognition. Oobray = salvaged. Maan(i) = zest; enthusiasm. 2.
Chittay = white; clean. Chit Kutthoar = stone-hearted, merciless. Mookh Oopjaiy = comes on the tongue. Doojaiy = (because of love for) Maya. Viyaapay = attacks. Choar = thieves; the five demons. Mool(u) = origin; root. Boojheh(i) = recognize. Pushoo = Dhoar = animals. 3. Kerta = the Creator (God). Phir(i) Phir(i) = again and again. Kaiysi = what kind?4.
MEANING: (The enjoyment of Maya is like) the beauty of the kusoombh flower, which stays only for a very short time. Without Waheguru's Naam, the dealers in the perishable attractions of Maya are misled by their misgivings and are robbed of their noble qualities. But, if one gets imbued in the love for Waheguru, he is not born the second time (again). 1. Once, one's mind gets dyed (imbued) in the love for Waheguru, he (his mind) does not need to be dyed again (he stays imbued all the time). One should serve (sing praise) of the Dyer (the immortal Waheguru) with dedication. Pause.
If one wanders in all four directions in search of the Naam-wealth, he cannot acquire it without good fortune. Trapped in worldly attractions and thus robbed of good qualities, if one roams around (in search of the Naam-wealth), he does not get any recognition (by Waheguru). However, those whose minds are imbued with the Guru's Shabad are salvaged by the Guru. 2. Those who may have very clean clothes on them but have filth in their mind because of their love for Maya (sensual pleasures) and are merciless, do not recite Waheguru's Naam with their tongue, and are attacked by the five demons (lust, greed, etc.) (and are robbed of their noble qualities). They are like animals and beasts who do not recognize their root (Waheguru). 3.
The human mind wishes to enjoy the luxuries of life and comforts all the time. The man never remembers Waheguru and suffers again and again as a result. But the devotee, who has Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his heart in comfort as well as in suffering, has no appetite (desire) of any kind left in his mind. 4.

Nanak, Naam na veesraiy, nidhaaraan aadhaar(u) jeeou. 8.2.
Word Meaning: Baaki Vaala = those who owe (have debt of sins). Tulbiyaiy = are called in. Sir Maaray = hits on the head; punishes. Jundahay ar = the unkind Angel of justce. Laykha = account of deeds. Mungiyaiy = when demanded. Poochhaiy = ask an expert. Liv = focus on; connection with. 5. Un Kuou = someone else. Mittrra = friendship. Khaak Rulaiy = mixes with dust. Buhou Rung = many attractions of Maya. Bhoolaaya = misled. Aavaiy Jaayay = is born, and dies. 6.
Gaaful = unaware; ignorant. Vihooniya = devoid of. Khinchotaan = struggle to choose between Maya and Waheguru. Vigoochiyaiy = suffer humiliation. Booraa = bad. Bhulaa = noble. Bhaiy = fear (of Waheguru). Ruttiyaan = imbued. Johi = watched carefully. 7.

Kur(i) Kaarun = having created universe. Dhaariya = gave support. Aadhaar(u) = support; food. Visaariyaiy = forget. Dataar(u) = provider. Nidhaaraan = having no support. 8.
MEANING: Those who carry the debt of sins in their account are called in by the unkind Angel of justice and are punished. You can ask any holy man and discuss with him, and will find out that one has to pay for his sinful deeds. But one attains salvation by focusing one's mind on the Naam of the eternal Waheguru with reverence, as He forgives all one's sins. 5. If one befriends the other (Maya), he finds no room in Waheguru's Palace and mixes with dust after death. He is misled by the colourful attractions of Maya, and misled by them, he keeps taking births and dying. However, if Waheguru casts His kind gaze on someone, they become emancipated and connect with Waheguru through the Guru. 6.
Do not try to search for the Divine Knowledge without the Guru, oh, the unaware and the ignorant man. The man has both the noble and the ignoble qualities, but one suffers humiliation in his struggle to choose between the good (Waheguru) and the bad (Maya). Without the fear of Waheguru in mind, and without getting imbued in Guru's Shabad, one is watched very carefully by the Angel of spiritual death. 7.
Waheguru, which has created the universe and supports it, provides support (food) for all living beings. Why should He be forgotten from mind when He is the provider all the time? The man should never forget Waheguru's Naam, which is the support even for those who have no other support, oh Nanak. 8.1.2.

Word Meaning: Kaafi = a subcategory of Raag Suhi. Doolumbh(u) = highly valuable; not easily available. Gurmukh(i) = in Guru's shelter. Choolumbh(u) = deep red (reflective of deep love). Bhaaya = liked by. 1.
Suvaar(i) = making successful. Vukkhur(u) = merchandize. Put(i) = honour. Ruhaou.
Slaah(i) = praise. Laal(i) Rutta = imbued in deep love. Maaniya = convinced. 2.
Saar(i) = by remembering. Sehjay = in the spiritually blissful state. Rus(i) Rusaiy = enjoys sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. 3. Kayturra = how much. Rungatturra = dyed. 4. Smaal(i) = keep in mind. Suntaapna = causes suffering. 5.
Bherm(i) Bhoolaana = misled by misgivings. Rung(u) = love. Vidaana = stranger; unrelated. Bhung(i) = shortage of noble qualities. 6.
Kaar Kmaayay = perform deeds. Laaha = profit. Ghur(i) = heart. Nirbaan(u) = detached from worldly attractions. Puchhaaniya = recognized; realized the importance. 7.
Bhaavsi = is liked. Nivaas(u) = dwelling; acquirement. 8.
MEANING: Human life is not easily available, but it can be made successful in the shelter of the Guru. One's mind and body get dyed deep red (reflective of deep love for Satguru) if He (Satguru) likes. 1.
If one leaves this world with the merchandise (wealth) of Waheguru's Naam, his life becomes successful (his objective of union with Waheguru is achieved). With Satguru's Shabad, and with love-filled fear for Waheguru in mind, he is accorded respect in His Court. Pause. Waheguru likes the individual who praises Him in his mind and in his body (on the tongue). When one's mind is convinced of Waheguru, it becomes dyed deep red with His love, and he becomes connected to the Perfect Guru. 2.
You reside in my heart, and I survive (spiritually) by remembering Your noble qualities, whereby I attain the high spiritual state, and I enjoy the sweetness of Your Naam, oh my Waheguru. 3.
My foolish mind does not listen to me, no matter how much I advise it, that if it sings Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru, it will be dyed deeply in His love. 4.
One should keep the dear Waheguru in mind all the time because if he leaves this world with noble qualities (Waheguru's Naam), he will experience no suffering at all. 5.
The follower of his mind (Maya-engrossed) is lost in his misgivings and has no love for Waheguru. He will be a stranger to Waheguru when he dies, and will be detached from Him (Waheguru) by body and by mind. 6.
If one follows the Guru's advice, one reaps the benefit (of the Naam-wealth) in one's heart. When he recognizes the worth of Guru's Shabad, he feels detached from worldly attractions. 7. I have only one prayer to make, if You approve, oh Waheguru. Kindly enshrine Your Naam in my heart so that I may sing Your praise all the time, begs Nanak. 8.1.3.

Word Meaning: Aarun(i) = in the kiln. Bhunn(i) Gurraayiyaiy = reshape by softening. Saakut(u) = worshipper of wealth (detached from God). Joani = in womb; in different life forms. Buvvaiy = goes through. Buvaayiyaiy = is taken through. 1.

Boojhaiy = understanding. Kmaavna = earn; work towards. Aavaiy Jaayay = is born, and dies. Bherm bhoolaavna = misled by misgivings. Pause.

Gurmukh(i) = in Guru's shelter. Rukhunhaar(u) = protector; guard. Rujaayay = by Will. 2.

Thaap(i) = create. Oothaap(i) = destroy. Dur(i) = at the Door; as per Your wish. Beenaayiyaiy = far sighted (Waheguru). 3.

Dayhi = body. Hovug(i) = will become. Khaak(u) = dust. Puvun = air; breaths. Oodaayiyiay = blows away (leave the body). Aoutaak(u) = sitting room. 4.

Dihoun = day. Deeveen = lamp. Undh(u) Ghor(u) = deep dark. Ghubb = wealth. Moohaayiyaiy = is robbed. Gerb(i) = ego; conceit. Moossaiy = robs. Rooaayiyaiy = complain. 5. Jugaayiyaiy = is awakened. Nivaari = removed. Aag(i) = fire (of desires). Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light. Deepaayiyaiy = lights up. 6.

Laal(u) = rubies. Ruttan = precious stones. Soort(i) = wisdom. Boojhaayiyaiy = enlightenment. Nihkaam = without any desires. 7.

Dihaiy = day. Vusaayiyaiy = embed. Mayl(i) = connection with the Guru. Bhaayiyaiy = like.8.

MEANING: Just like iron is remoulded into different shapes by softening it in a kiln, the Maya-loving individual is made to go through many different life forms in the kiln-type wombs of the mothers. 1. Without understanding (the purpose of human life, and how to make it successful), the man suffers in life, and continues to follow the lifestyle which results in more suffering. Misled by his haumein (selfishness and ego), he continues to reincarnate. Pause. You protect your humans (from the attacks of Maya) by putting them in the shelter of the Guru, where they recite Your Naam, oh Lord. If the man follows Guru's Shabad to lead his life, You connect him with You with Your sweet Will, oh Waheguru. 2.

You look after Your own creation, and we receive what you provide us with. You are perfectly far-sighted, and create and destroy as You please, oh Waheguru. 3.

When the man takes his last breath, his body turns into dust. Then he cannot find his past and future palace and the sitting rooms. 4.

The man is in deep darkness (of ignorance) even in the bright light, and lets the wealth of his spirituality be robbed by his ego and the five thieves (demons) of his own body. Whom can he cry to now (complain to)? 5.
No such thief can rob a devotee who stays alert by reciting Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. The Guru lights up the lamp of Waheguru's Light in the heart of the devotee whose fire of worldly desires is put out by the Guru's Shabad. 6.
With the wisdom imparted by the Guru, the devotee comes to realize that Waheguru's Naam is the rubies and the precious stones for him, and he is left with no appetite for worldly desires. 7.
We must enshrine Waheguru's Naam in our heart day and night (permanently); Waheguru connects the devotees with Him through the Guru when He is pleased, oh Nanak. 8.2.4.

Goon gaavaiy Nanak Daas(u) Satgur(u) mut(i) dayay. 8.3.5.
Word Meaning: Vissar(i) = forget. Ehnis(i) = day and night. 1.
Lukooti = small wooden stick. Tohni = support (with which one can find the way). Mohaiy = captivate. Mohini = captivating (Maya). Pause.
Bhaayay = as per the wish. Nirunjna = (Waheguru, which is) beyond the effects of Maya. Rujaayay = Will. Bherm Bhuou Bhunjna = the destroyer of all misgivings and fears. 3.
Junmut Hee = right from birth. Pervaan = acceptable. 4.
Huoun = I; selfishness. Saajiya = created. Oothaap(i) = destroy. Nivaajiya = honoured.5.
Bhusm = dust. Roolaayay = humiliated. Na Jaapi = cannot know. Vismaad = mesmerize. 6. Hudoor(i) = near; in front. Untar(i) = in (the body). Bhee = too. 7.

Shaant(i) = peace; contentment. Mut(i) = advice. 8.

MEANING: Do not lose Waheguru's Naam from your memory; rather, recite it day and night, oh my mind. We should take comfort in whatever way He protects us with His benevolence. 1. I am (spiritually) blind, and Waheguru's Naam is the lovely stick which shows me the path (of spirituality), and the captivating Maya does not attract me in His shelter. Pause.

The Guru has "shown" me Waheguru, and now I always find Him with me wherever I look for Him. After searching for Him inside and outside, I have seen Him with Guru's Shabad. 2. I serve (recite) Waheguru's Naam as per my Guru's advice, and gladly accept Your Will, whatever You like, oh the destroyer of all fears and misgivings, Lord. 3.

The man begins to suffer from the fear of death right from his birth. But the devotee, who sings Waheguru's praise, accepts both birth and death the same way. 4.

It is You who has created me, (but I am gripped by my ego and selfishness); when I get rid of my haumein, You appear in my heart, oh Lord. You create and destroy humans (giving them a new life based on their deeds), but You honour those who follow Guru's Shabad. 5. (After death) man's body suffers humiliation when it turns into dust, but nobody (other than God) knows where the soul goes. But the amazing thing is that You are present everywhere, oh Waheguru. 6.

You are not far from us and know everything. One realizes in the shelter of the Guru that not only are You close to us, but You are inside our body, oh Lord. 7. I, Nanak, am Your slave, and pray that Satguru imparts the wisdom (thinking) with which I may sing Your praise so that Your Naam is enshrined in my heart for it to become peaceful. 8.3.5.

Word Meaning: Naamaiy = Waheguru's Huqam(u). Jaapaiy = realization. Muhaa = great. Rus(u) = sweet tasting. Meettha = sweet. Chaakhaiy =tasting. Kaudi = a worthless cowrie shell. Cheenus(i) = recognize; evaluate. Aapaiy = self. Suntaapaiy = causes suffering. 1. Bulihaari = sacrifice life. Vit-houn = for; from. Liv Laayee = focused mind on. Cheen(i) = by recognizing. Aatum = soul. Pergaasiya = enlightened. Sehjay = in the blissful state. Pause. Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. Jeeou = life. Pind(u) = body. Oopjaiy = comes into being. Kaaruj = tasks. Suvaaray = makes successful. Kumaavaiy = earns; engages in. Bikh(u) = poisonous Maya-related deeds. Khuttay = earns; gathers. Moh(i) = in love for. 2. Sayvuk = servant; devotee. Bhaayay = following (Guru's Will). Saacha = everlasting. Sift(i) = praise. Kerm(u) = benevolence; largess. 3. Ghaalay = works hard. Ulipt(u) = detached. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in the love of. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = without any special effort. Koorrou = false; lies. Jumkaal(i) = Angel of death. Baandha = tied up; in control. Trisna Daadha = burnt in the fire of desires. Kuvun(u) = who. 4.

MEANING: Everything has come into being by Waheguru's Naam (Huqam), but the Naam cannot be realized without Satguru. Guru's Shabad (in praise of Waheguru) is extremely sweet-tasting, but it cannot be described without tasting it (reciting it). The man does not examine himself (as to what the objective of human life is and what kind of deeds he is performing) and is wasting away his precious human life pursuing (spiritually) worthless things. If he comes to Guru's shelter, he overcomes his selfishness and ego, and does not suffer from them; moreover, he cognizes the fact that there is only one Supreme Being. 1.

I am a sacrifice for my Guru, who has enabled me to focus my mind on the eternal Waheguru. By recognizing (and following) His Shabad, my mind has been enlightened, and His Naam has been embedded (enshrined) in my mind, whereby I have attained the high spiritual state. Pause. A devotee, who comes to the Guru's shelter, ponders on His Shabad, recognizes its spiritual worth, and sings Waheguru's praise with it. It is Guru's shelter where the devotee realizes the purpose of the human body and mind for which they came into being, and it is Guru's shelter where the devotee makes his life successful. On the other hand, the follower of his mind is blind (of spirituality) and continues to pursue deeds which keep him deprived of spirituality, and earns him (the wealth of poisonous) Maya in the world. Without taking shelter of the dear Satguru, he always suffers because of his love for Maya. 2.

Only that individual is a true devotee who serves the Guru and follows His Will in his life. Guru's Shabad is evergreen, and so is the praise of Waheguru because of which Waheguru's Naam gets enshrined in one's heart. When a devotee recites the evergreen Bani of the Guru in His shelter, he gets rid of his haumein (selfishness and ego). Waheguru is our eternal provider, and His gifts are everlasting, and He puts us in Guru's shelter where we listen to His everlasting Shabad (Huqam). 3.

A devotee works very hard to sing Waheguru's praise in the Guru's shelter, where he earns Waheguru's approval, and he makes others recite Waheguru's Naam. Following Guru's advice and imbued in Waheguru's love, such a devotee stays detached from worldly attachments. On the other hand, a Maya-engrossed individual always tells lies, plants the seeds of Maya-related poisonous tasks, and reaps poisonous rewards. Who can free (salvage) such an individual who is imprisoned by the Angel of (spiritual) death, and is burned by (suffers in) the fire of worldly desires? 4. ----------

Word Meaning: Teeruth = holy place. Satsur(i) = in the eternal pool of holy gathering. Naavun = bathing; dip. Boojhaayay = gives the understanding. Utth-Sutth(i) = 68 (holy places). Mul(i) = filth of immoral acts. Nirmul(u) = pure. Salaah = Sift(i) = praise (of God). 5. Kayra = of. Doormut(i) = evil advice. Saakhi = advice; teaching Sehjay = in the blissful state. Chaakhi = tasted. Trishna Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Raata = imbued. Maata = intoxicated. 6.

Sut(i) = ever true. Vertaiy = operates. Virla Ko = rare someone. Bukhshay = grants. 7.

Bhaayay = is liked by. Ichhaiy = wishes. Aap = selfishness and ego. 8.1.
MEANING: The gathering of holy devotees in the shelter of the Guru is the true holy place where one takes a dip in Waheguru's Naam-Amrit and gains understanding about Waheguru from the Guru. Guru's Shabad (in praise of Waheguru) is the true holy place where one's filth of his evil deeds (thoughts) is washed away, and he "visits" all the 68 Hindu holy places in there (he does not need to visit them and take dips in them. Guru's Shabad is eternal, and purifies the mind, which becomes pure like the eternal Waheguru. A devotee who recites Guru Shabad never gets the filth of mind and never makes others filthy. Waheguru's praise is everlasting (accompanies the devotee everywhere), but one gets the Shabad of Waheguru's praise from the Perfect Guru. 5.
Once one surrenders his body and his mind to Waheguru, he will never utter even a single word of evilness. With Waheguru's Will, the devotee's mind becomes pure, and his selfishness and ego are eradicated. With Guru's Teachings, one's fire of desires is put out, and he tastes the blissfulness of a high spiritual state. Imbued in the sweetness of Guru's Shabad, and intoxicated in the state of bliss, the devotee stays in the high spiritual state. 6. Accepting Guru's Will is very sweet; the devotee believes firmly that Waheguru's Naam is eternal (which will always accompany him). He receives the Guru's eternal praise from Waheguru and begins to love His Naam. But it is a rare individual who realizes that it is Waheguru alone that operates in everybody (the Supreme Being Waheguru is not different across religions). Waheguru adorns His devotees with noble qualities by bestowing them with His everlasting worship and connecting them with Him. 7.
However, some rare devotee realizes in the shelter of the Guru that it is Waheguru alone that is operating everywhere. In the shelter of the Guru, the devotee recognizes his self (that he is a part of Waheguru and has to unite with Him) and realizes that birth and death happen by Waheguru's Huqam. If one recites Waheguru's Naam, he is loved by the Guru, and gets his wishes fulfilled. If one gets rid of his selfishness and ego, he feels as if the whole world belongs to him, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Iss(u) kaaya undar(i) Naam(u) nuou-nidh(i) paayiyay, Gur kaiy Shabad(i) veechaara. 4. ------

Word Meaning: Kaaya = body. Kaamun(i) = woman; wife; human being. Ut(i) = extremely. Sooaaliyo = pretty. Pir(u) = husband (Waheguru). Soohaagun(i) = married; connected with. Smaalay = remember. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in the love. Jaalay = burn; eradicate. 1. Wah(u) = how amazing! Pooray = Perfect. Bani = Shabad. Oopji = came into being. Smaani = causes to be absorbed. Pause.

Vussaiy = resides; have the comprehension. Khund = parts of the universe. Mundul = galaxies. Pataala = underworlds. Jugjeevun = the life of the world (God). Daata = provider. Pritpaala = raising and nourishing. Soohayli = in comfort. Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. 2. Ulukh(u) = invisible (God). Lukhiya = seen. Moogudh(u) = foolish. Boojhaiy Naahi = does not understand. Bhaalun(i) = to search. 3.

Ruttan Pdaaruth = precious jewels (noble qualities). Bhugut(i) = of Waheguru's worship. Bhundaara = treasures. Nuou-Khund Prithmi = the earth of 9 regions. Haat = shops. Puttan = cities. Nuou-Nidh(i) = the mythical nine treasures. 4.

MEANING: The body of that human bride is extremely pretty (pure), which has Waheguru's Naam embedded in it. She always keeps Guru's Shabad in mind, which is why she is loved by (stays connected with) Waheguru. Such a devotee burns (kills) his (her) selfishness and ego, and stays imbued in the worship of Waheguru. 1.

How amazing is the Bani (Shabad) of the Perfect Guru!! It is created by the Perfect Guru and causes the devotee to get absorbed in Waheguru. Pause.

Such a pure human body acquires the knowledge about all the parts of the universe (planets, etc.), the galaxies, and the underworlds. Waheguru, which is the basis of life of the whole world, and which raises and nourishes all living beings, appears in such a pure body. The human body is always in a comfortable (blissful) state, which recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. 2.

Waheguru Himself resides in the human body invisibly and cannot be seen. But the foolish follower of his mind does not realize this fact and goes out to search for Him. One always enjoys bliss when he serves Satguru, who "shows" him the invisible Waheguru. 3.

The human body is rich in jewels-like precious noble qualities, and is full of treasures of Waheguru's worship because of which he feels as if all the nine mythical treasures of the earth are present in his body, and there are shops, bazaars, and cities in the body where he can trade for noble qualities (he does not need to search for them outside). By acting on the advice of the Guru's Shabad, one can realize that he has Waheguru's Naam, which is like the nine treasures, residing in his body. 4. ----------

Word Meaning: Toal(i) = measurement. Toolaavaiy = weighs. Toalunhaara = the one who weighs (evaluates). Ruttan, Juvaahur, Maanuk = Waheguru's Naam, which is precious like jewels and pearls. Moal(u) = price. Afaara = immeasurable. Kit Hee = by any price. 5. Khoajaiy = searches. Bherm(i) Bhoolaayee = misled by misgivings. Chuturaayee = smartness. Bhuou = fear (of God). Bhaaou = love for. 6.
Bishan = Vishnu. Muhaysha = Shiva. Oput(i) = production. Sachaiy = God. Khayl(u) = drama of life. Aavagaun = birth and death. Pasaara = expanse; creation. Nistaara = salvation. 7. Sa = (only) that. Suvaari = adorned with noble qualities. Dhoyee = shelter. Khooaari = humiliate. Vudiyaayee = honour. 8.

MEANING: Waheguru is the evaluator (judge), and He evaluates the qualities in the body of the individual. The mind (devotee) which has Waheguru's Naam in it possesses noble qualities which are highly valuable like jewels, precious stones, and pearls. In fact, Waheguru's Naam is priceless, and no worldly wealth can buy it. Waheguru's Naam can be acquired only by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. 5.
But, only a devotee in the shelter of the Guru (with His advice) searches for Waheguru in his body; the rest of the world is lost in its misgivings. Only that individual acquires Waheguru's Naam whom He bestows to; what other smartness can one use? With Guru's grace, a devotee acquires (respectful) fear and love for Waheguru in his mind. 6.
The human body is a home to Waheguru, who has created Brahma, Vishnu, Shiva, and the whole universe. The eternal Waheguru has created the drama of the world with birth and death as its basic ingredients. The Perfect Satguru has clearly demonstrated that salvation (union with Waheguru) can be achieved only with His Naam. 7.
Only that human body is successful in achieving its objective which serves Satguru; such a body is adorned with noble qualities by the Lord Himself. There is no room in Waheguru's Palace (union with Him) without His Naam, and the Angel of justice humiliates (punishes) people who do not have Waheguru's Naam in them. That devotee earns the everlasting honour (union with Waheguru) whom He is benevolent to, oh Nanak. 8.2.

Word Meaning: Dooniya = world. Salaah(i) = praise; love. Vunjsee = will leave. Loaka = relatives and friends. Khaak(u) = dust. Theeyee = becomes. 1.
Wah(u) = how amazing! Vaypervaah(u) = carefree. Pause.
Kayri = with. Dujh = burn in the fire of worldly desires and jealousy. Buddhay = imprisoned. Maarieh(i) = are punished. Vayla = time; opportunity (to repent). Laahun(i) = get. 2.
Sukaartha = successful. Lugun(i) = get attached. Aatum Ram = God. Pergassiya = enlightened (appeared in mind). Sehjay = in a blissful state. 3.
Visaariya = forgotten. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Ruchun(i) = get engrossed in. Trishna = desires. Bhookh = appetite. Jult = suffer in the fire of desires. 4.
Dooshtaan = evil. Dosti = friendship. Doobbay = drowned; ruined life. Suglay = all. Kootumb = family. Siyoun = with. Kool = clan. 5.
Ninda = vilification; malicious criticism. Bhulee = good. Moogudh = foolish. Nindukaan = vilifiers. Ghor = extreme; dark. 6.
Tayhay = similar. Kerm Kmaayay = engages in such activities. Beejaiy = seeds. 7.
Muhaa Purkhaan = great souls. Perthaayay = in some context. Bhurpoor = overflowing. Til(u) = the size of a sesame seed (minuscule). Tumaayay = desire; appetite. 8.
Goonkaari = bearer of noble qualities. Sunghraiy = accumulates. Uvraan = others. Oopdayshayn = preach. Vudghaagi = highly fortunate. 9.
Rijk(u) = necessities of life. Sumbaah(i) = delivers. Maydni = world. Dhunee = provider. 10. Sach(u) = everlasting God. Nudr(i) Nihaal(i) = see clearly. Bukhshay = with benevolence. 11. Kiyoun Kur(i) = how. Julaayay = burn; kill. 12.

MEANING: Do not praise (fall in love with) the world (its attractions) because it is perishable (like you) and will leave you when you die; likewise, do not fall in love with relatives and friends because they too will become a part of dust after death, oh man. 1.
Amazing You are, as you are eternal, carefree, and (the permanent Provider), oh my Lord! He is the only one whose praise should be sung in the shelter of the Guru, oh my friend. Pause. The followers of their mind, who love the world, burn in the fires of worldly desires. Imprisoned, they are punished by the Angel of Justice and have no opportunity to show remorse. 2.
But those who come to the Guru's shelter get attached to singing Waheguru's praise and make their life successful. Waheguru's presence enlightens their mind, and they enjoy blissfulness in a high spiritual state. 3. On the other hand, those who get engrossed in Maya and forget Waheguru, never get satisfied with their worldly desires (which keep increasing), and they burn (suffer) day and night in that fire. 4.

They have a friendship with the evil and bear animosity towards the holy saints. They drown in the sea of worldly desires, and cause their associates to drown with them too. 5.
Vilification of anybody is no good, but the foolish followers of their minds do just that. The faces of such vilifiers are blackened (are humiliated), and thrown into dark hell. 6.
The human mind becomes just like the deity it serves (worships), and performs deeds which reinforce one's faith. He reaps the rewards of what he plants, and cannot blame anyone.7.
The words of great souls are in the context of some special situations (and not against any individual) as they are overflowing with Amrit (truthfulness and other noble virtues); and they have absolutely no desire for any worldly thing, not even the size of a sesame seed. 8.
The bearers of virtues accumulate more virtues and preach the same to others. Those who come in contact with them are highly fortunate and recite the Lord's Naam day and night. 9.
There is only one True Provider (God), and He delivers food to His whole creation. 10.
That Lord is always with you, and you can "see" Him clearly in the Guru's shelter. So, remember that Lord all the time who connects you with Him by His munificence. 11.
The human mind is filthy with selfishness and ego, so how can one connect with Waheguru, which is pure of any such filth? The man can connect with Waheguru when he burns away (gets rid of) his selfishness and ego with Guru's Shabad, when the Lord Himself connects one with Him. 12.

Bukhshunhaar(u) = forgiving. Sheengaar = adornment. 17.

Vujaaray = traders (who deal in Waheguru's Naam). Koorray = dealers in falsehood. Tikken(i) = stay. Bhaavyee = like. Puchun(i) = burn; suffer. 18.
Vaaro, Vaar = again and again. Puyyiya = as per destiny. Kirt Kmaavnaa = perform deeds. Maytunhaar(u) = who can erase (undo). 19. Sach(i) = with the eternal Lord. Salaaheen = sing praise. Sachiyaar(u) = bearers of truth. 20.
Ehinis(i) = day and night. Vudd Roag(u) = serious disease. Tthaak Ruhaayay = prevent. 21. Niv(i) Niv(i) = by bowing to. Paanyay = feet. Saupeen = offer. Aagaiy Dhureen = place in front. Aap(u) = selfishness an ego. Guvaayay = get rid of. 22.
Khinchoutaan(i) = in the struggle to choose between Maya and God. Vigoochiyaiy = suffer humiliation. Aikus Siyoun = with the "One". Liv Laayay = focus on. Chhudd = give up. 23. Bhaayayra = brothers. Luggunn(i) = get attached to. Dissunn(i) = stand out. 24.
MEANING: The life of the individual is condemnable if he forgets the True Lord. However, if one ponders on the advice of the Guru (makes that the basis of his life), then with the kind sight (benevolence) of the Lord, one does not forget Him. 13.
I can stay connected with Waheguru if He connects me with the Guru, because I will enshrine His Naam in my heart, sheltered by the Guru. Once connected, a devotee never gets disconnected from Waheguru because of his love for the Guru. 14
I can sing praise of my Dear (Lord) by pondering on Guru's Shabad (Guru's Shabad and Waheguru's praise are the same). Such a human bride (who sings the Lord's praise) gets connected with Him and enjoys blissfulness. 15.
Like a snake which may be fed with milk, but still has pure poison in its body, the mind of a Maya-worshipper is filthy and ruthless, and cannot be imbued with Waheguru's love. 16.
Waheguru is independent in His decisions, does whatever He deems right, and forgives (our mistakes) Himself; there is no one else we can go to. One can adorn (purify) his body by washing away his filth with the Guru's Shabad so that it is fit for union with God. 17.
Waheguru is the True (Just) Lord, and the dealers in His Naam are also honest (pure-minded); the dealers in falsehood have no place there. They do not like the truth, and suffer badly. 18.
The world has filth of ego, and is born again, and again. People perform deeds as per their fate (nature based on their deeds of previous lives), and nobody can erase their nature. 19.
They begin to love Truth (Waheguru) if they stay in the company of the holy saints. If they sing the Lord's praise with a pure mind, they are approved to be pure (full of virtues) in His Court. 20 The Perfect Guru delivers perfect wisdom (advice) to recite Waheguru's Naam day and night, as a result of which the gravely serious disease of one's haumein is eradicated. 21. I wish to sing praise of my Guru, and kneel before Him to drop on His feet. Getting rid of my selfishness and ego, I wish to offer my body and mind before Him. 22. One suffers humiliation if he struggles to choose between Waheguru and Maya; he should keep only the "One" Supreme Being in mind. You can get absorbed in the eternal Waheguru only if you get rid of your selfishness and possessive nature, oh my friend. 23. Those who get connected with Satguru are like brothers to Him who get attached to His eternal Shabad. They connect with the eternal Waheguru; never get disconnected from Him, and they stand out (are honoured) in His Court. 24. ----------

Virlay = rare. Lehunn(i) = acquire. 34.

MEANING: One should stay in the company of those who serve the eternal Lord because only they are his true brothers and friends. Such holy saints share their noble qualities, while one's ignoble qualities are dispelled like the light chaff is carried away by the wind. 25. The true worship of Waheguru is to share noble qualities with others, which are a source of blissfulness. With Guru's Shabad, the devotees deal in Waheguru's eternal Naam and acquire spiritual benefit (wealth). 26. The man accumulates gold and silver by sinful ways, which do not accompany him after death because the Angel of death robs him of all his wealth other than Waheguru's Naam. 27.
The food for the mind (and the journey expense for the next world) is Lord's Naam, which one should keep safely in their mind. For a Sikh of the Guru, this wealth (Waheguru' Naam) is inexhaustible and lasts till the end. 28.
The mind, which has been misled from its root (Waheguru), leaves this world with the loss of his honour. This world is influenced by its love for Maya, but it can recite Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Advice. 29. Nobody can evaluate Waheguru's Grandeur, and His praise cannot be written (described). But, if one dyes his mind and body with love for Guru's Shabad, he stays absorbed in Waheguru. 30.

My Waheguru-Husband is very colourful (appears in many forms), and dyes His devotees in His love when they attain the blissful spiritual state. But the human bride gets dyed in His love only when she gets connected with the Lord (by reciting His Naam). 31.
Those, who have been disconnected with Waheguru for a long time (for many lives), can be reconnected with Him if they serve Satguru. Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of the nine treasures, resides in their mind; they keep reciting (also called spending) the Naam in the high spiritual state, and they share it with others which never runs out. 32.
Such devotees are protected from Maya's attacks and enjoy bliss by keeping Waheguru in mind. (They become a part of Waheguru), So they never take birth and die again, and never have to suffer in life. 33.
Such devotees are true friends of Waheguru, and once connected, they never get disconnected from the Lord. However, such devotees are rare who attain union with the eternal Lord, oh Nanak. 34. 1.3.

Word Meaning: Sookhum = nano-size; invisible. Agumm(u) = inaccessible. Kit(u) Bidh(i) = by what means. Bherm(u) = misgiving. Achint(u) = in a natural way. 1.
Jupunn(i) = recite (Naam). Bulihaarnaiy = sacrifice. Ruvunn(i) = remember; recite. Pause.

Survur(u) = pool (of Amrit). Maan Surovar = “holy” lake from where River Gunga originates. Lehunn(i) = acquire; take dip in. Khoajiya = searched for. Hunsulay = swan (holy saints). 2. Rung Siyoun = with love. Lugunn(i) = get attached to. Dhoor(i) = right from the source. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. Bhaana = Will. 3.
Ghur(i) = heart. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Vaykhaaliya = described; illuminated. Aatum Ram = Waheguru. Puchhaan = recognize. 4.
Uver(u) = other. Tit(u) = that. Ghut(u) = heart. Pergut Hoyay = appears. 5.
Untarjaami = omniscient. Munda = bad. Vaykhou = see. 6.
Tichur = so long as. Jichur = as long as. Dooh(u) Maah(i) = caught between the two. Aikus Maah(i) = in the “One”. Smaayay = absorbed. 7. Bhaavsi = is liked by. Paavay Thaayayn = is recognized (given credit for). Chit(u) = mind. 8.

MEANING: Waheguru is invisible and inaccessible; so, what means should I use to get connected with Him? (The holy saints advised me) that the Lord comes to dwell in one’s mind without any special effort (on the part of the devotee) when his misgivings are dispelled by the Guru’s Shabad. 1.
Guru’s Sikhs recite Waheguru’s Naam; I shall be glad to offer my life in the service of the devotees who recite the Lord’s virtues in their minds all the time. Pause.
The Guru is a pool of the Amrit-like Waheguru’s Naam, or like the so-believed “holy” Maan-Sarovar lake, which is the source of the River Ganga, a holy River for the Hindus. The highly fortunate people take a dip in the Guru-Pool. The devotees of Waheguru search for Him in the shelter of the Guru, and become purified swans (holy) by acquiring Waheguru’s Naam. 2. If prewritten in their fortune, the followers of the Guru get imbued with the love for Waheguru, and begin to recite His Naam, and accept the Will of the Guru gladly. 3.
The fortunate search their own mind in the shelter of the Guru, and discover the treasure of Waheguru’s Naam in there. They recognize Waheguru as illuminated by the Guru. 4.
Everybody has the same Lord, and there is none other. But He appears in the devotee’s heart only with the grace of the Guru. 5.
Waheguru is omniscient and present everywhere and in everybody, so who can we call bad? You will find Him in everybody and everywhere when you focus on Guru’s Shabad. 6.
The man calls others good or bad only as long as he is caught in the struggle to choose between Waheguru and Maya. The follower of the Guru recognizes only the “One” Supreme Being and remains absorbed in the “One” (and does not discriminate between men). 7.
Only that service to Waheguru is recognized by Him which He approves. I have focused my mind on the Feet of the Guru (His Shabad) and worship Waheguru in His shelter, oh Nanak. 8.2.4.9.
NOTE: Guru Sahib is NOT certifying the holiness of the Lake Maan-Sarovar, or the River Ganga. He is simply praising the Guru and Waheguru’s Naam.

MEANING: I will sell myself for free (be his slave for the rest of my life) to the individual who will take me to the Guru, and connect me with Him. 1.

If Waheguru is kind to connect me with Satguru, I will recite Waheguru's Naam in His shelter to have a holy sight of the Lord. Pause. I will recite His Naam whether He keeps me in comfort or puts me through difficult times. 2.

I will be content if He keeps me hungry, and will celebrate in my troubles. 3.

I will be glad to offer my body piece by piece, or burn myself in fire if it pleases Him. 4.

I will feel lucky to fan Him and to haul water for Him, and will be happy to eat whatever He gives me. 5. I am a poor devotee of Yours, and have come to seek Your shelter, oh dear Lord. It will be an honour for me if You would connect me (Nanak) with You. 6.

I will take out my eyes (vision) out so that I do not see any attractions of the world, and put them under my feet (to have the ability to walk with the speed that the eyes can see with) and to take me all over the earth with the hope that perhaps I may find You (or the Guru) somewhere, oh Waheguru. 7. I will worship You regardless of whether You bestow me the honour of sitting close to You, or You kick me away. 8.

If people praise me (for being Your devotee), it will be Your praise, but if they condemn me for that, I will not leave You. 9.

If my mind stays towards (is attached to) You, I will not care what people say about me, but I will die a spiritual death if I forget You. 10. I will repeatedly sacrifice my life for the Guru, and will win His favour by dropping on His feet.11.

MEANING: I will gladly weather any storm or any rain (any worldly obstacles in my way) to see the Guru. 13.
The Sikh of the Guru will clear any obstacle even in the form of an intimidating sea, and will go to see the Guru (obey His Huqam). 14. Like a man who dies without water, the Sikh of the Guru experiences spiritual death without the Guru. 15.
Just like the earth looks pretty after a rainfall, the heart of a Sikh blooms to see the Guru. 16. I will act like a servant to the devotees of Waheguru and address them in a very polite way. 17. I pray to Waheguru that He connect me with the Guru so that I may enjoy the comfort of His shelter, oh Nanak. 18.
You Yourself are the Guru, and Yourself the disciple, and can be worshipped only through the Guru (Guru is the mediator), oh Waheguru. 19. Those who serve You become like You; You protect the dignity of Your devotees, oh Lord. 20.
The treasures of Your worship are always full (they never suffer any shortage, no matter how many people use them, i.e. worship You). But only those get to use them who You prompt; any cunning on the part of anybody else is never successful. 21 and 22.
I awaken (enlighten) my sleeping (unaware or ignorant) mind by remembering my Guru. 23.
I, the humble Nanak, beg only one donation from (favour of) You that make me the slave of Your slaves (devotees), oh Lord. 24. ---------

Poor(i) Ruhhiyo = is omnipresent. Jut, Kut,Tut = everywhere. Gosaayeen = provider of the earth (Waheguru). 32.

MEANING: I find it sweet when the Guru rebukes me, and it is His greatness when He forgives my mistakes. 25.
Waheguru honours the words of the Sikh of the Guru, but the words (even the prayer) of the Maya-engrossed individual get no credit. 26.

A Gur Sikh goes to see the Guru on a cold day, even in frosty, snowy weather (under highly unfavourable conditions). 27.
I also see my Guru day and night, and keep my eyes focused on His Feet (Shabad). 28.
I try many different approaches to please my Guru, but only that approach is successful which is liked by Him. 29. Please, be kind so that I may remember (keep in mind) the Shabad of the Guru, day and night, oh my Lord .30.
I owe my life and my body to the Guru (I have surrendered them to Him), and get contentment only when I see Him 31.

MEANING: I have dealt in the Amrit-like Naam of Waheguru, which is otherwise inaccessible and unfathomable. I have acquired this wealth from the Perfect Guru (with His grace). Pause. My Guru has instilled the everlasting love for Waheguru in my heart. My body and mind feel blissful at the sight of the Guru right in front of me. 1.
My heart blooms to see my Satguru, because of whom I have fallen in love with Waheguru's Naam. Satguru has connected me with Waheguru by His benevolence, and I have reached the door to emancipation (freedom from worldly attachments). 2.
Satguru loves Waheguru's Naam; I will offer my body and my mind if I could see Him (be accepted for His shelter). If I have it prewritten in my fate, I too will drink the Naam-Amrit in the blissful state in His shelter. 3. If I can find a Gur Sikh who sings praise of the Guru while asleep, and recites His Naam while awake, I will wash his feet (with the request that he instills love for the Guru in my heart). 4.
I need to find a friend who can connect me with the Dear (Waheguru). I connected with Waheguru without any special effort when I was admitted to the Guru's shelter. 5. I am highly enthusiastic to see Satguru, which is a sea (source) of Waheguru's Naam and of noble qualities. I cannot live without Him even for a moment, and I die spiritually without seeing Him. 6. Just as a fish cannot survive without water, no matter how many different means are used to keep it alive, the saints of Waheguru do not survive without Him, and die spiritually without His Naam. 7.

I have love for my Satguru, so how can I live without Him, oh my mother! Guru's Bani (Shabad) is the basis of my life, and I wish to stay connected with His Shabad. 8
Waheguru's Naam is the real jewel which the Guru gives to His Sikhs when He is pleased to be kind to them, oh my mother. Waheguru's eternal Naam is the basis of my life, and I want to stay focused on His Naam at all times. 9.
Waheguru's Naam is the valuable Divine Knowledge imparted by the Guru, which He reinforces among His Sikhs. But only that devotee acquires it who has it prewritten in his fate. Such a Sikh comes to drop at the Guru's feet (to seek His shelter). 10.
The story of love between a Sikh and Waheguru is indescribable. I wish a beloved devotee of Waheguru would narrate that to me. I will offer him my mind, and will kneel down to touch his feet. 11. You are my only friend, oh, the omnipresent creator and the perfectly wise, Waheguru. You have connected me with Satguru, oh my Lord. You are the permanent force behind me. 12. My Satguru is always there – neither He takes births, nor does He die. He is immortal and is present in everyone. 13.
Those who accumulate the wealth of Waheguru's Naam never experience any shortage of capital (the Naam-wealth), which always remains intact. Countless accolades to the Perfect Guru, because of whom such a devotee is honoured in Waheguru's Court. 14.1.2.11.

Word Meaning: Oorjh(i) Ruhhiyo = deeply involved. Bikhiya = poisonous (immoral) sensual pleasures. Sunga = with. Biaaput = are affecting. Anik = countless. Trungaan = waves. 1. Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Kut = how? Poorun = omnipresent. Pause.

Moh Mugun = absorbed in worldly attachments. Biyaapay = is affected by. Ut(i) = extreme. Trishna = appetite (desires) for worldly attractions. Dhraapaiy = is contented. 2.

Busay = is present. Kroadh(u) = rage. Chundaara = butcher. Ugiyaan(i) = lacking (spiritual knowledge). Soojhaiy = can think of. Goobaara = darkness. 3.

Bhermut = misguided in confusion. Juray Kivaara = doors fastened (closed-mind). 4.

Triptay = fully contented. Poora = Perfect; Omnipresent Waheguru. Second Pause. 1.

MEANING: The man is deeply involved in the poisonous attractions of Maya (sensual pleasures) and is being influenced (guided) by the countless waves of worldly desires. 1.

(One can control his desires by Waheguru's Naam), but the omnipresent Waheguru is inaccessible and incomprehensible, so how can I get connected with Him? Pause.

The man is strongly influenced by his worldly attachments and is fully absorbed in them. His insatiable desires never get satisfied. 2.

Butcher-like rage resides in the body of the man. Devoid of spiritual knowledge, the ignorant man fails to understand the true purpose of life and lives in deep darkness. 3.

His mind is completely shut, and he is misguided in confusion as a result of which he cannot reach Waheguru's Court (cannot unite with Him). 4. He is caught in the bonds of hopes and worries, and being a stranger to Waheguru, he spends his life in ignorance (about spirituality), and cannot reach Waheguru's Residence. 5. He is controlled by all sorts of vices, and wanders around discontented like a fish without water. 6.

I have no cleverness or any logical defence; You are my only hope, oh Lord. 7.

I make a request to the holy saints that they connect me with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.

With His munificence, Waheguru connected me with the Guru by whose grace I realized the Perfect (omnipresent) Waheguru, and am fully contented now. 1. Second Pause. 1.

MEANING: The attachment to the perishables is a sea of grief and worries which acts like a fire to burn the peacefulness of the man. It is my request to the attractive (sweet and kind) Waheguru to salvage us (protect us from such attractions. 1.
Waheguru is the Guard of the weak (humble), and support for His devotees. So, seek the shelter of the lotus-like Feet of Waheguru (His Naam), oh man. Pause.
Waheguru is the Lord of the orphans (who have no spiritual support), and is the destroyer of all fears of His devotees. Even the agents of the Angel of death do not come near the devotees in the shelter of the Guru (the devotees have no fear of death). 2.
Waheguru is like the life of His devotees, has unparalleled beauty, and is kind. We can cut the net of the Angel of death by reciting His Naam (become “one” with Him) and will never die. 3. The disease-like Maya has no influence on the devotee who recites Waheguru’s Naam with His tongue all the time. 4.
All the companions of the devotee who recites Waheguru’s Naam are also salvaged, and the five demons (lust, rage, etc.) cannot even come near him. 5.

NOTE: "Jeeo" is a word of respect for others; otherwise, it does not mean anything.

Word Meaning: Rehsiyaiy = blooming (of heart); feel blissful. Kiyoun = how? Sung(u) = company. Sujjun = Mun Mittar = close friends. Say = those. Rung(u) = affection. Bhung(u) = break; separation. 1.

Mohiya = captivated. Kaachi = perishable. Dayha = body. Vinsunee = has to perish. Koorr(u) Kmaaviay= deals in perishable materials. Dhundh(u) = Maya-related deeds. Jin(i) Chullay = win the battle of life. Sunbundh = connection; relation. 2.

Huqamay = with Will of God. Joog = world. Sunjoag(i) = right combination of factors; as per the fortune. Perpunch = the universe. Pusriya = came into being. Rus Bhog = enjoy worldly luxuries. Vichhorra = separation. Soag = grief. 3.

Bhaaniya = liked. Paiyndha Jaan(i) = is honoured. Aiythaiy = here (in this world). Oojla = radiant; respectable. Aadur = respect. Sat Bhaayay = with pure love. 4.

MEANING: Only those are real saints and close friends who foster love for Waheguru in your mind, and can connect you with Waheguru. How can I earn the friendship of such devotees in whose company the mind feels blissful? I wish my love for them never ceases and my relationship with them is never broken. 1.

Please be kind to me so that I may sing Your praise day and night, and connect me with Your devotees so that I may recite Your Naam in the company of such friends, oh my Waheguru. Pause. Captivated by Maya, the man becomes blind to Waheguru, even though he sees and hears everything about truthful living. Despite the fact that the perishable body will die someday, he still remains involved in Maya-related tasks. But those who recite Waheguru's Naam stay connected with the Perfect Guru and win the battle of life before their death. 2.

The man comes to the world by the Will of God, and leaves the world as per His Will. The universe came into being by the Huqam of Waheguru, and the man enjoys the luxuries of life with his Huqam as well. But the individual who forgets the Creator suffers the discomfort of His separation. 3.

Those who are liked by Waheguru are honoured in His Court. Because of the recitation of the Naam of Waheguru alone, they have radiant faces (are blissful) and enjoy comfort in this world. Those who serve the Guru with pure love are accorded respect by Waheguru. 4.

Word Meaning: Thaan Thununtar(i) = everywhere. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Pritpaal = to raise and nurture. Khujaana = treasure. Sunchiya = accumulated. Maal = wealth. 5.

Aavun Jaana = birth and death. Voottha = came to reside. Oocha = high (in transcendence). Agumm = inaccessible. Apaar = beyond limits. Lukh = hundred thousand (countless). 6.

Nayh(u) = love. Preetumaa = dears. Aap(i) = God. Goon Saanjhi = sharing of qualities. Aatth Pehr = twenty-four hours. Binsay = destroyed. Sugul Suntaap = all suffering. 7.

Kernhaar(u) = capable of doing everything; omnipotent. Tuhaiy = You are. Anayk = countless. Sumruth = capable. Serbmaiy = omnipresent. Boodh(i) Bibayk = wisdom to distinguish between good and bad. Tayk = support. 8.

MEANING: The Lord is present everywhere and raises and nourishes all the living beings. I have accumulated the everlasting treasure of Waheguru's Naam, which is my wealth and property. He is never forgotten when He is kind. 5.

When Waheguru comes to reside in a devotee's mind, his rebirths and deaths are left behind (he is never reborn). But the individual who forgets Waheguru takes countless births and dies. However, nobody can still find the limits of the Waheguru, which is highly transcendental, inaccessible, and beyond limits. 6.

The love of those for Waheguru is everlasting who are dear to Waheguru, and whose hearts become dwellings for Waheguru. They recite Waheguru's Naam all day and share Waheguru's Noble qualities among themselves. They are imbued with the love for Waheguru, and all their troubles and sufferings get destroyed. 7.

You are the creator, capable of doing anything and everything. You are the only Supreme Being, yet You appear in countless different forms, oh Waheguru. Waheguru's Naam is the support of life of His devotees; I, too, recite His Naam all the time, oh Nanak. 8.1.3.

Word Meaning: Bhoolli = forgotten. Chookki = mistaken. Bhee = still. Tehnji = Yours. Kaandhiyaan = am called. Doojaanaiy = with the other (Maya). Jhoor(i) = cry in repentance. Vaandhiyaan = separated; disconnected. 1.
Kunt = Husband; God. Paasra = closeness. Rungeela = colourful (appears in many forms). Laal(u) Piyaara = dear like a ruby (very dear). Mehnja = mine. Aasra = support. Pause. Saiyn(u) = close friend. Maaniya = pride. Nimaani = humble. 2.
Toottha = pleased to be kind. Kirpa-Nidhaan = source of benevolence. Moo = I; me. Daatrri = valuable gift. Smaal(i) = with great care. 3.
Julaayeen = go; walk. Pundh = path. Tuou = Yours. Ders(u) = sight. Servnee = with ears. Theevaiy = becomes. Kirpaal = kind. 4. Kitti = many. Roam = a pore in the skin (insignificant in size). Na Poojjun(i) = cannot match. Shaahi Hoon Shaah = King of kings. 5. Suyyeen = friends; devotees. Asunkh = countless. Munjhoun = (than) me. Vudhaaniyaan = better. Hikk = one. Bhori = (for a) very short (time). Nudr(i) Nihaal(u) = kind sight. Ders(i) = sight. Rung(u) Maaniyaan = enjoy (Your) love. 6.

Jaiy DItthaiy = seeing whom. Dheeriyaiy = becomes peaceful. Kilvikh = sins. Vunjun = go away. Dooray = far away. Maaoun = oh my mother. Bhurpooray = omnipresent. 7. Nimaani = humble. Dheh(i) Puyyee = dropped. Suhaayay = with the grace of the Guru.8.

MEANING: I will never leave the side (shelter) of my Waheguru-Husband. My dear Lord is always colourful (appearing in many attractive forms) and is my only support. Pause.
If I ever forget You or make mistakes, I am still Your humble devotee, oh my Waheguru. Those who love Maya are disconnected from Waheguru and die in repentance, crying. 1.
You are my friend, my close relative, and I take great pride in You, oh my Lord. When You reside in my heart, I enjoy the ultimate comfort, and You are the pride of this humble devotee. 2.
If You are pleased to be kind to me, please never make me vulnerable to the attractions of Maya. Your love is a valuable gift (possession) which I keep in my heart with great care all the time. 3.
Kindly give me the ability (faith) to walk on the path leading to union with You, and show Your holy sight to my eyes. With the grace of the Guru, I wish to listen to stories about You (Your praise) with my ears. 4.
There are millions of attractions in life, but none of them can match even a pore of Your body (a single virtue of Yours) in providing blissfulness. You are the King of kings; I have no ability to describe Your wonderful qualities. 5. You have countless friends (devotees), and they are all better than me. Kindly give me a brief glimpse of Yours so that I may enjoy Your Love, even for a short moment. 6.
Why should I forget the omnipresent Waheguru, seeing whom all the sins run far away (disappear), and the mind becomes peaceful, oh my mother? 7.
With the prewritten grace of the Guru, I, very humbly, dropped on the Feet of Waheguru (surrendered myself to Him), when He (the Guru) connected me with Him without any special effort on my part, oh Nanak. 8.1.4.

Goon gaavaan din(u) raat(i), Nanak chaaou eh(u). 8.2.5.16.

Word Meaning: Bayd = the Vedas. Simritis, Puraan = Hindu holy books. Pothiyaan = books. Pookaarun(i) = read aloud. Koorr(u) = (about perishables). Gaaleen = talks. Hoachhiyaan = weightless. 1. Baad(i) = aggressive debates. Surpur = for sure. Roonniya = cry; cause suffering. Na Mool(i) = not at all; never. Vichhoonniya = disconnected. 2. Mayri Mayri = selfishness. Dhaar(i) = focusing on; guided by. Bundhun(i) = in the bonds of. Avtaar = birth. Dhundhiya = deeds. 3.
Sodhut, Sodhut = by pondering on. Tutt(u) = the reality. Haariya = lost. 4.
Bin(u) Boojhay = without realizing. Vaad(i) = worthless. Bhermtay = go through. 5.
Bhuyya = happened; acquired. 6. Khojeh(i) = search. Koat(i) = millions. Asunkh = countless. Anunt = limitless God. Boojhaayay = gives understanding. Nayrra = close. 7. Dataar(u) = Provider; Lord. Chaaou = zest. 8.

MEANING: The Pundit reads religious books like the Vedas, the Simritis, and the Puranas aloud to the people, but all other talks other than Waheguru's Naam are very low in spirituality because they are all about the perishables. 1.
The treasure (source) of Naam (Waheguru) is beyond limits and resides in the hearts of the devotees. Their suffering of the birth-death cycle, and of worldly attachments, is dispelled (eradicated) in the Guru's shelter (with His Advice). Pause.
Those who stay disconnected from Waheguru's Naam never enjoy comfort because, due to their ego, they remain engrossed in worldly attachments and aggressive discussions, which are bound to make them cry (cause them suffering). 2.
Guided by their selfishness and ego, they stay engrossed in the deeds related to Maya, which create more traps for them in which they are caught, and as a result, they keep taking births in paradise-like or hell-like conditions. 3.
After pondering (on Guru's Shabad) deeply, I have realized that Waheguru is the provider for the whole world, and there is no comfort in life without His Naam. The man loses the game of life in the affairs of Maya. 4.
Countless people come and go in this world and die to take birth again and again. Without realizing the real purpose of human life, their life goes worthless. 5.
Those who Waheguru is benevolent to are connected with the Guru, and they recite the Amrit-like Naam of Waheguru in the Guru's shelter. 6.
Millions of people search for the limitless Waheguru, but only those find Him close to them who are enlightened by Him. 7. Kindly implant Your Naam in my mind so that I may never forget You, oh Waheguru. I, Nanak, have the only enthusiasm (craving) that I should sing Your praise day and night. 8.2.5.16.

Word Meaning: Koochujji = unskilled; inept; lacking good qualities. Umaavun = uncontainable. Doasrray = vices; blames; weaknesses. Shuhou = husband (Waheguru). Raavun(i) = enjoy union with Him. Ikk Doo Ikk Churrundiyaan = one better than the other. Umbee = mango tree; mother. Chhaavurriyeh(i) = shade; protection. Say = those. Munj(u) = I, me. Doash = blame. Dhurayoun = put; place. Vithraan = describe. Ghinna = hold; call; utter. Toal(i) = (gifted) valuable things. Umbrraan = reach; equalize. Koorbaaniy = sacrifice. Rooppa = silver. Rungula = colourful. Moati = pearls. Maanuk = rubies. Chit(u) = mind; get attached. Mundar = mansions. Mitti = earth. Sundrray = of. Raas(i) = wealth. Bhoollius = misled. Kunt = (Waheguru) husband.
Umbur(i) = sky; brain; mind. Koonjaan = a foreign bird which causes harm to crops; senses (sensual pleasures). Koorliyaan = to make noise (to provoke sensual desires). Bug = bugla (a heron which implies a hypocrite); grey hair (old age). Sa Dhun = that woman (human being). Sahooraiy = in-laws house (Waheguru's Court). Uggaiy = next world; Waheguru's Court. Sootti = asleep; unaware; ignorant. Jhaal(u) = morning light (end of life). Theeya = became. Vaatrri = the real path. Mootius = detached. Dhuriaas(u) = adopted. Dohaagun(i) = separated from husband. 1.

MEANING: I am so inept (at spirituality) that there is no room for more ignoble qualities (vices) in me. (With all such ignoble qualities), How can I enjoy union with Waheguru? There are many, many devotees of Waheguru, and one is better than the other; so, who will know me? Those who have enjoyed union with Waheguru feel blissful as if they are sitting in the shelter (lap) of their mother. (Unfortunately), I do not have those noble qualities; so, whom can I blame for my inability to enjoy union with the Lord?

(You have so many great qualities), So which ones can I describe, and which of Your names can I describe? My praise cannot attain the level worthy of even a single gift (I cannot sing enough praise of even a single gift) of Yours (all of which are invaluable); I can only sacrifice my life for You, oh Lord. My mind has been attached to Your gifts like gold, silver, colourful pearls, and rubies; and the mansions made of earth and stone have become my wealth. Lost from my real path, I have forgotten You in the enjoyment of Your rich gifts, and have never come close to You.
The man gets old as white hair appears on his head and face, but his sensual desires still make noise in his mind (provoke him). The human bride is about to leave this world, to be taken before Waheguru; what face will she show Him (how will she face Him with all her ignoble qualities)?
Misled from the path of spirituality, the night of her life is spent in ignorance, and suddenly it is the morning light (the time of her death approaches). Disconnected from Waheguru, she adapts to (endures) the resulting suffering. You are the source of all virtues, and I have nothing but ignoble qualities, because of which I am unfortunate and disconnected from You, oh Waheguru. All the devotees connected with You, enjoy Your union every night (all the time), may I, Nanak, make one request to You that allow me too to spend a night (a short moment) with You, oh Lord. 1.

Word Meaning: Soochujji = well-mannered; wise in making choices; all-rounder. Raas(i) = wealth. Shaabaash(i) = earn accolades (praise). Bhaanaiy = by His Will. Tukhut(i) = royal throne. Bheekh(i) = to beg. Oodaas(i) = detached from the world. Thul = land. Sir(i) = on. Sur(u) = pool of water. Vuhhaiy = flows. Phollaiy = bloomed. Akaash(i) = in the sky (on the top of a high mountain). Bhuvjul = the world-sea. Munjh(i) = in. Bhuriyaas(u) = loaded with sins. Rungula = colourful; dear. Goontaas(i) = treasure of virtues. Bheehaavla = frightening. Aavun(i) Jaan(i) = birth and death. Mooyiaas(i) = in death. Agumm = inaccessible. Utoalvaan = immeasurable; unfathomable. Dheh(i) Puyee-aas(u) = dropped (on the feet). 2.

MEANING: When You are in my heart, then I feel that You are my real wealth, and I have every comfort of the world. When You appear in my heart, I live in comfort and earn praise of the world too. I will gladly accept Your Will, whether You put me on the throne (make me a king), or if I have to leave the worldly comforts and beg for my living. It is Your Will that there may be lakes in barren land, and lotus flowers may bloom on tall mountains (lotus flowers bloom in muddy waters). It is by Your Will that some of us can swim across the world-sea while others become so heavy with the load of sins that they drown in the middle. You are a treasure (source) of virtues; It is by Your Will that You become very dear to some who get imbued in Your love. It is also by Your Will that You look frightening to some (they do not fall in love with You), and they stay caught in the birth-death cycle, and suffer spiritual death.
Realizing the fact that You are inaccessible and unfathomable, I have fallen on Your feet (to seek Your shelter), oh Lord. What should I beg for, and what praise of Yours can I sing or may I listen to? I am hungry and thirsty for your holy sight only. I realized the Lord by constantly singing His praise with Guru's Shabad, which was also my prayer for Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Goonvuni = loaded with virtues. Sikhrra = devoted Sikh. Niv(i) Niv(i) = kneel down. Birtha = situation. Oopdayshurra = advice. Anut Na Kaahoo = nowhere else. Daiysaan = will offer. Maarug = path. Doorhoun = from a long distance; having visited many holy men. Shernaayay = shelter.
Bhaayee-urray = brother-like Sikhs. Kaar Kmaayay = perform deeds (act on advice). Mutrree = ignoble thinking. Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Dersaavrra = holy sight. Tutti Vaaou = small discomfort. Aap-houn = myself. Huqamaaou = Waheguru's Will. Pusaaou = benevolence. Buhourr = again. Trishna Bhookhrri = appetite of desires. Rujja Triput(i) Aghaayay = fully contented. 3.

MEANING: Whenever I see a devoted Sikh of the Guru, I kneel down to touch his feet, and narrating the painful situation of my mind, I request him to connect me with the Guru who is a friend of all. I further ask him to advise me so that my mind does not feel attached to anyone (or anything) else. I assure him that I will offer my mind to him (I will follow his advice strictly) if he shows me the path to get connected with the Guru (by mind). I will explain to him that I have come from a long journey (visiting many holy men who did not win my heart) and that I have come to his shelter with great hope that he will remove all my suffering (caused by my disconnection from the Guru). At my request, he gave me this advice: "You must perform the deeds as advised by the Guru (follow His advice in life)." This is the path that our brother-like friends (Guru's devotees) tread (to connect with Him). It includes giving up your own ignoble thinking and breaking any bonds of love with Maya. This is how you will have a holy sight of Waheguru, and will not suffer even a small discomfort.

These are not my words (I do not even know how to offer any advice); I have shared only the Huqam of the Guru (Waheguru). It has been the benevolence of Guru Nanak who has bestowed the treasure of Waheguru's worship on me. Now I am fully contented and will not feel any appetite for worldly desire again. Whenever I see a devoted Sikh of the Guru, I kneel down to touch his feet. 3.
