Nanak mein vur(u) Saacha bhaavaiy, joog(i), joog(i) Preetum taiysay. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Bhur(i) Jobun(i) = in the prime of youth. Maiy Mut = intoxicated (with the liquor of Maya). Payeeurray = parents's home (this world). Paahooni = visitor. Maily = filthy. Uvgun(i) = with ignoble qualities. Chit(i) = in mind. Smaavni = absorb; acquire. Saar = worth. Bherm Bhoolaani = misled in misgivings. Baad(i) = worthlessly. Vur(u) = husband (Waheguru). Sehj(u) = nature. Bhaaya = liked. Baaltun(i) = in childhood. Raandaypa = being a widow; detached from husband (God). Koomlaani = wilts. 1 Baba = a wise (holy) man. Vur(u) = blessing. Vur(u) = husband. Tis Kee.= I am His. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Joog Chaar(i) = in all the four eons; eternal. Tirbhuvun = the three-layered universe. Bani = Shabad; Huqam. Kunt = husband (Waheguru). Sohaagun(i) = married to; connected with (God). Uvgunvunti = bearer of ignoble qualities.

Aasa = expectation. Munsa = (fulfilment of) wishes. Bherpooray = omnipresent. Naar(i) = wife (connected with). Raand = widow; disconnected. Maiylay Vaysay = filthy dress (filthy mind). Taiysay = the same; never changing. 2.

MEANING: In the prime of her youth, the human bride (the man) is intoxicated with the liquor of (Maya) (worldly luxuries), and does not realize that she is only a visitor in this world. (Even though she should serve Waheguru by reciting His Naam because that is what the objective of human life is), She is filthy in her mind (because of her immoral thinking) (and cannot worship Waheguru until she acquires noble qualities). But she cannot acquire noble qualities without taking shelter of the Guru. She does not know the (spiritual) worth of noble qualities, and, misled by her misgivings, she wastes away her youth. She does not know the importance of Waheguru-Husband, of His Mansion (union with Him), or of His holy sight. She does not like Waheguru's nature (because she is unaware of His qualities). She does not seek the Guru's advice to follow the path leading to union with Waheguru, and spends her life in the sleep of ignorance. She remains disconnected from the Waheguru-Husband and spends her life as a widow, even in her childhood, and wilts away like a flower (loses the charm of life) without the Waheguru-Husband, oh Nanak. 1.

Bless me, so that I may love my Waheguru-Husband, sacrifice my life for Him, and may become His bride (He accepts me), oh, the holy man (Guru Ji). (The Guru advises) He is present in all four eons (He is eternal), and His Huqam is prevailing in the whole universe. Waheguru, which controls the whole universe, enjoys union with that human bride (connects her with Him) who has all the noble qualities in her, while He stays away from those who have ignoble qualities. The omnipresent Waheguru fulfils the desires of each human bride according to her wishes. The bride, who is connected with Waheguru, stays always married to Him, and never accumulates any filth of vices to become a widow again (detached from Him). I wish that I loved the eternal Waheguru, who remains the same in every eon as if He were my husband, oh Nanak. 2. ----------

Nanak vichhurr(i) na dookh(u) paayay, Gurmut(i) Unk(i) smaayay. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Lugun = auspicious time (for union with God). Gunaayay = calculate; determine. Humbhi = I too. Vunjaan = go. Sahooraiy = husband's house. Saaha = day and time for wedding (union). Huqam Rujaayay = Will of Waheguru. Na Tulaiy = cannot be avoided (changed). Kirt(u) Puyya = the result of the deeds done previously. Kertaiy = the Creator. Mayt(i) = erase; obliterate. Jaanji = the groom (Waheguru). Nureh = Nihkayvul = detached from Maya. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Tihou Loyee = in the three layers of the universe. Maayay = Maya. Niraasi = dejected; sad. Vichhoonni = separated; detached. Baali = human bride. Baalaiy = Husband (Waheguru). Haytay = love. Mehleen = Waheguru's Palace. Churni = Shabad. Chaytay = remember. 3.

Baabul(i) = father; Guru. Payiyaiy = parents' home; this world. Rehsi = mind blooms. Hudoor(i) = close by; in front. Raavi = enjoyed. Sohiyaiy = looks attractive. Lorri = desired; liked. Jorri = connected. Poori = perfect. Perdhaanay = leader. Sunjoageen = the appropriate time. Mayla = union. Thaan(i) = place; heart. Soohayla = pleasant; pure. Goovuntee = bearer of noble qualities. Sut(u) = high morality. Suntoakh(u) = contentment. Pullaiy = in possession. Unk(i) smaayay = merges in God's lap. 4.

MEANING: Kindly, determine the auspicious time (for my wedding with God) so that I may also go to my Husband's house, oh holy man (Guru Ji). I love Him so much that I want to offer my life to Him. (The Guru tells me) that the exact date and time of a devotee's wedding (union) with Waheguru is fixed by the Huqam (Will) of Waheguru, and cannot be avoided (changed), and it depends upon the deeds done by the devotee and is preprogrammed in her fortune, and nobody can erase it. The Husband, Waheguru, is fully detached from the worldly affairs (and cannot be bribed to change the time of union), and His Naam (Huqam) is prevailing in the whole universe. When a devotee loves Waheguru (and not Maya), the latter (Maya) becomes very sad because of the devotee's detachment from her and his love for Waheguru. But the devotee enjoys the real bliss in Waheguru's Palace (and not in worldly luxuries of Maya) when she gets connected with Him by remembering Waheguru by reciting Guru's eternal Shabad, oh Nanak. 3.
The Guru imparts all the noble qualities in the devotee, which take her far away from Maya (to Waheguru's Palace), from where she cannot come back to the world of Maya. Her heart blooms at the sight of Waheguru before her, and she likes the Residence of Waheguru, where Waheguru enjoys union with her. Waheguru connects the devotee with Him whom He chooses (likes), and she becomes a leader (guide for others) with perfect wisdom. With a pure heart and with the Divine Knowledge imparted by the Guru, the devotee acquires all the noble qualities and gets united with Waheguru at the appropriate time (as per her fortune). She acquires high moral character, contentment, and Waheguru's Naam (enshrined in her heart), and is liked by the Husband when she recites His Naam. With Guru's wisdom, she is absorbed into Waheguru's lap and never suffers the pain of separation from Him, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Ghur(i) = heart. Saajun = friend (Waheguru). Saachaiy = the eternal (Waheguru). Mayl(i) = by connecting with the Guru first. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. Bhaayay = liked. Punch = the five senses. Milay = came together. Sayee Vust = that (valuable) thing (Waheguru's Naam). Praaput(i) = acquired. Sayti = with. Undin(u) = always. Mun Maaniya = mind got convinced. Ghur Mundar = heart. Sohaayay = became pleasant. Punch Shabad = the five musical instruments. Dhoon(i) = music. Unhud = uniform; never changing. 1.

Mungul = song of joy. Naaray = women. Ta = only then. Sohilurra = blissfulness. Thaan = heart. Kaaruj = (the desired) objective. Muha Rus(u) = the supreme bliss. Naytreen = in the eyes. Unjun(u) = kohl (medication to improve spiritual vision). Tirbhuvun = universe. Roop = beauty. Sukhee = friends; senses. Rus(i) = while enjoying. 2.

MEANING: My friend, Waheguru, has appeared in my heart; the eternal Waheguru connected me with Him by first connecting me with the Guru. Waheguru connected me with Him when I began to love Him, attained the spiritual state above the effects of Maya, and when all my senses came together (when my mind quit wandering in every direction), and I began to enjoy full comfort. I acquired the same valuable thing (union with Waheguru) with which my mind was attached. My mind was fully overcome by Waheguru's love, and I achieved union with Him forever, after which my heart and body became very beautiful (pure). When Waheguru appeared in my mind, I began to feel as if a uniform music of five kinds (produced by instruments operating on wire, metal, air, leather, and empty vessels) began to play. 1.

Come, all my senses, and join together to sing the song in praise of Waheguru that produces blissfulness in the mind. If you sing such a song in praise of Waheguru, which produces blissfulness in every eon, you will be liked by Waheguru. With the arrival of Waheguru in my heart, it has become an attractive (holy) place, and all my objectives have been achieved successfully with Guru's Shabad. Guru's Shabad has injected the kohl of Divine Knowledge into my mind's eyes, giving it a special vision to see Waheguru's beauty everywhere in the universe, which produces supreme bliss in my mind. Come, sing the song of Waheguru's praise, oh my senses. My Waheguru friend has appeared in my heart. 2.

Word Meaning: Amrit Bhinna = imbued in Waheguru's Naam. Ruttanna = jewel (Waheguru's Naam). Pdaaruth = valuable thing (Waheguru's Naam). Perm Tutt = supreme root (Waheguru). Junt = living beings. Bhaykh = beggars. Sufliyo = successful; never failing. Sir(i), sir(i) = individually (as per their needs). Jaan(u) = know-all. Giyaani = knowledgeable. Untarjaami = omniscient. Kaarun Keena = created the universe. Mohun(i) = captivating (Waheguru). 3.

Aatum Ram = Lord of life (Waheguru). Sunsaara = the world. Khayl(u) = drama. Agumm = inaccessible. Apaara = limitless. Boojhaayay = gives the understanding. Saadhik = followers of (Yogism). Siyaanay = wise. Kuhaayay = make to recite. Kaal(u) = death. Bikaal(u) = birth. Dayvaanay = crazy. Thaayayn = in its (peaceful) state (no wavering). Uvgun = ignoble qualities. Sungum = union; collection; accumulation. 4.

MEANING: Now, my mind is imbued in the Amrit-Naam of Waheguru as the jewel-like precious love of Waheguru has been enshrined in my mind. By pondering over the Supreme root of all (Waheguru), His precious Naam has been preserved in my mind. All the living beings are beggars at Your Door while You are the never-failing Provider for all of them, and You fulfil the needs of every individual, oh Waheguru. You know everything about Your creation, You are the source of all knowledge, and are omnipotent. You have created the universe all by Yourself. My mind has been captivated by the mind-captivating Waheguru, and my body and mind are imbued in Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, oh, my friends. 3.

Waheguru is the basis of life of the whole world, and the drama of the world which He has created, is everlasting. Waheguru is inaccessible and beyond limits. Nobody other than Him can give the wisdom to understand His drama of the world. There are too many people who are called the Sidh yogis, the followers of Yogism, and are considered wise, but none of them can make people sing Your virtues, oh Lord. Because of the instability of the human mind (which does not focus on Waheguru's Naam), births and deaths have gone crazy (countless people are taking birth and dying), but only the Guru can give stability to the human mind (with His Shabad). One gets his ignoble qualities burnt (destroyed) by Guru's Shabad, and realizes Waheguru (get connected with Him) by accumulating (acquiring) noble qualities, oh Nanak. 4.1.2

Word Meaning: Sujjna = oh, dear friend (Waheguru). Ghur(i) = in my heart. Chaaou = zest; enthusiasm. Ghunayra = very much. Bhervaasa = faith. Nihkayvul = detached from worldly attractions. Naasa = ran away; dispelled. Jot(i) = God's Light (soul). Jaata = recognized. Bhaayay Soobhaayay = love and devotion. Saach(i) = eternal God. 1. Dhun = human bride. Khuree = very much. Sursi = blooming of heart. Mohiurri = captivated. Rehunsi = blessed. Raavi = enjoyed (union). Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in love. Gooni = the bearer (source) of virtues (God). Chhaaya = took control. Purakh Bidhaataiy = the omnipresent and the carver of our fates, Waheguru. Tuskur = robbers (the five demons). Vussi = made dwelling. Punchaayin = Waheguru. Udul = justice. Veechaaray = by careful consideration. Nistaara = salvation. Piyaaray = dear God. 2.

MEANING: Come to enlighten my heart so that I may enjoy Your holy sight, oh my dear Waheguru. I am waiting for Your arrival in my heart with great zest. Listen to my prayer, and come to my heart; I have great enthusiasm and full faith in You, oh my Lord. A devotee, who gets to have Your sight (becomes fully contented) and gets detached from the worldly attractions. Besides, the suffering of his rebirths is also eradicated. Your Light is present in everybody, and You are known to be here, but one can connect with You only with love and devotion. One should offer his life to such a great friend (Waheguru) who comes to reside in his heart. 1.

When Waheguru-friend comes to enlighten the heart of a devotee, she feels highly blissful. Captivated by Waheguru with the everlasting Shabad of the Guru, she feels highly blessed to see the Lord. Loaded with noble qualities, the devotee feels highly blessed and blissful when imbued with her love. Waheguru enjoys union with her. The Perfect and the omnipresent carver of our fates, Waheguru, eradicates all the ignoble qualities of the devotee and injects noble qualities in her (before connecting her with Him). Before taking dwelling in a devotee's heart, Waheguru, which delivers his full justice after considering all aspects, destroys all the demons which rob the devotee of her good qualities. Waheguru's Naam is the only ship which ferries a devotee across the world-sea, but the dear Waheguru can be realized only with Guru's advice, oh Nanak. 2.

Naam bina khoatay nuhee tthaahur, Naam(u) ruttan(u) pervaano. Put(i), mut(i) poori, poora pervaana, na aavaiy, na jaasi. Nanak, Gurmukh(i) aap(u) puchhaanaiy Prubh jaiysay abinaashi. 4.1.3.
Word Meaning: Vur(u) = husband. Paayaurra = acquired. Baalurriyay = young (pure-hearted) bride. Aasa Munsa = wishes and desires. Poori = fulfilled. Raaviurri = enjoyed the union. Rulee = became part of. Ruv Ruhhiya = is present. Ghut(i) = heart. Soyee = the same (God). Naar = women = wives. Rusiya = source of bliss. Raavay = enjoys. Vudiyaayee = greatness; wish. Amar = immortal. Udoal(u) = never changing mind. Umoal(u) = priceless. Apaara = limitless. Sach(u) = eternal (God). Joag Sunjoagi = creator of union. Liv Laayay = deep focus of mind. 3.
Oocbrrirraiy = in very tall. Maarrirriayaiy = mansion. Tihou Loaan = the three worlds. Sirtaaja = emperor; Lord. Bism Bhuyyee = mesmerized. Unhud Shabad = uniform music (Huqam). Agaaja = roars. Veechaari = ponder on. Saari = look after. Neeshaano = identification. Khoatay = impure. Tthaahur = shelter. Pervaano = approved. Put(i) = dignity. Pervaana = written approval. Aap(u) Puchhaanaiy = self-analysis. Jaiysay = like. Abinaashi = immortal. 4.

MEANING: A devotee acquires Waheguru as Husband with child-like purity of mind, when all her wishes and desires are completely fulfilled. When connected with Waheguru by Guru's Shabad, the Lord enjoys union with her; she finds Him to be present everywhere, and all distances between them disappear. Everybody is Waheguru's wife (He is the Master), so He is present in every heart and is not far away from anyone. He is the source of all bliss, and he enjoys His creation as He wishes. He is immortal, stable-minded (never changes his mind on anything), priceless, and limitless, and can be realized only through the Perfect Guru. He Himself creates the right opportunity for the union of devotees with Him, and one can meditate on His Naam with full concentration only with His kind sight. 3.

Waheguru's Residence is highly transcendental, and He is the Emperor of the three worlds (our earth, and the worlds above and below it). I became mesmerized by His high qualities and felt as if a uniform music was playing in my mind. It was after pondering Guru's Shabad that I realized that Waheguru looks after the whole universe, and that His Naam is the true identity for reaching His Palace. Without Waheguru's Naam, the man is impure and finds no shelter in Waheguru's Palace; only His Naam is the jewel that qualifies him to enter. Waheguru's Naam is the perfect identity card, and a devotee with Waheguru's Naam earns respect in Waheguru's Court and acquires perfect wisdom (thinking); such a devotee never takes a birth or dies again. When a devotee analyses himself (in terms of the objective of human life, and his good and bad qualities) in the shelter of the Guru, he becomes just like Him, oh Nanak. 4.1.3.

Word Meaning: Keeya = created. Daykhiya = looked after. Dhundhrraiy = tasks involving Maya. Daan(i) = with the gifts. Ghut(i) = in the heart. Chaanuna = light; enlightenment. Chund(u) = moon; peace; calmness of mind. Undhayra =darkness. Ootth(i) Guyya = ran away; dispelled. Junj = marriage party. Sohaiy = looks impressive. Purkh(i) = tested. Mohiniyaiy = mind captivating (Waheguru). Sobh Sayti = with praise-worthy performance. Punch-Shabadi = the five kinds of music. 1.
Saajun = Meet = friends. Uvreeta = the enlightened people. Jin Siyoun = with whom. Gaadiya = mixed well. Leeurra Deeta = exchanged. Maan(u) = pride; respect. Dis(i) Aayaan = on seeing. Ruliyaan = blissfulness. Jea Sayti = with soul; like one's own life. Geh(i) Ruheh(i) = keep holding; do not get separated. Neeta Neeta = always. 2.
MEANING: Waheguru, which has created the whole world, looks after it as well and engages people in Maya-related daily tasks. You enlighten some hearts with the priceless gift of Your Naam, and make their bodies (hearts) peaceful like the cool light of the moon. The suffering of darkness (ignorance) of those devotees whose hearts have been enlightened with moon-like cool light of Your Naam, is dispelled. Just as a marriage party looks attractive (authentic) with the groom, the noble qualities of a devotee attract the mind-captivating Waheguru, which tests and approves such qualities to wed the devotee (appears in her heart). Such a wedding earns praise all around, and the bride feels as if a uniform music of all five kinds plays in her mind. Waheguru, which has created the world, looks after it and puts it in the business of Maya-oriented tasks. 1.
I am a sacrifice for those devotee-friends whose minds have been enlightened, and with whom my mind has been attached to (and they like me). Those devotee-friends, who become your pride and whose sight becomes the source of blissfulness for you, should never be forgotten, and you should stay connected with them with the love of your life. I am a sacrifice to such devotee-friends who always have noble qualities, and have no ignoble quality at all. 2.

Word Meaning: Vaas(u) = fragrance. Vaansula = a container for fragrant. Saanjh = share. Kayri = of. Ptumbur = silky clothes (reflecting politeness and sweet behaviour) Adumbur = decorations (with noble qualities). Pirr(u) = games rink; to fight against and win over the evils. Bhulaa Kuhhiyaiy = say good things; appreciate and encourage others. Jhoal(i) = stirring well (mixing with noble qualities). Amrit = Waheguru's Naam-water. 3. Kis(u) Aakhiyaiy = whom to complain. Bhoollrra = misled. Unmunggiya = unasked. Bidhaata = carver of our fates. Sach(u) = everlasting. 4.

MEANING: If a person has a container of some perfume of noble qualities, he should open the box and enjoy the sweet fragrance. Similarly, if your friends have noble qualities, you should seek to share such qualities and get rid of your ignoble qualities in life. (Life is a battlefield where the man has to fight evil and win over it). To win over your enemies in the form of evil, you should adopt politeness and sweet behaviour towards others, adorn your bodies with noble qualities like humility, compassion, and service to humanity, and control the battlefield. In addition, praise the good qualities of others, and encourage them wherever you go, and drink Waheguru's Naam-Amrit mixed with such good qualities. If you have a container of a perfume of noble qualities, you should open it to enjoy the fragrance. 3.

There is nobody else who can do things as God does; so, who can we go to for help, or say something to (advise) someone who is misled or makes mistakes (there is none like Waheguru for any help). But the Creator is infallible and never makes mistakes. Waheguru listens to everybody, sees everything, and gives gifts without us asking Him for them. He is the only eternal Supreme Being which is the carver of our fates in the world, and the provider of all gifts, oh Nanak. There is none other like Waheguru who can do things like Him, so, who can we go to for help? 4.1.4.

Word Meaning: Raata = imbued. Ruvaiy = recites. Soyee = the same (God). Paurri = ladder (steps towards union with God). Saach(u) = Waheguru. Saacha = eternal. Sehj(i) = in the peaceful state. Bhaavaiy = is liked. Tulaiy = avoided. Soogiyan = knowledge about goodness. Mujun(u) = dip at holy places. Achhuliyo = which cannot be fooled (robbed). Perpunch = worldly attractions. Moh = attachment. Bikaar = vices. Thaakay = exhausted. Koorr(u) = lies. Kupt(u) = deceit. Doyee = discrimination. 1. Sahib(u) = Lord. Kaarun Keeya = created the world. Maiyl(u) = filth. Kinaiy = some rare. Muth(i) = by churning well; by mixing with noble qualities. Moal(u) = worth. Puchhaata = recognized; made connection with. Praaya = stranger; disconnected. 2. Kee Na Aayo = what is left behind? Aavaiy Jaata = comes and goes (is born and dies). Maaniya = feel comfortable; mind is won over. Sayti = with. Baata = stories. Bimb = drop of liquid (semen). Koat(u) = fort; human body. Oosaariya = constructed. Punch Bhoo = the five basic elements (ingredients) to construct the universe. Naayiko = leader; Lord. Sirunda = creator. Pind(u) = body. Suvaariya = decorates with a beautiful finish. Uvgunaaray = full of ignoble qualities. Aavun Jaana = birth and death. 3.

MEANING: Guru's Teaching is a ladder to connect with the transcendental Waheguru, and is a source of eternal bliss. Now, I like (love) Waheguru, and imbued in His love, my mind sings praise of His virtues. When a devotee loves Waheguru, he acquires the blissfulness of a high spiritual state, and the wisdom imparted by the Guru to connect with the eternal Waheguru cannot be avoided (it becomes an unerasable part of the devotee). Waheguru cannot be deceived (no one can win His approval) by any ritualistic cleansing, undeserving donations to Brahmans, any wisdom, or by taking dips at holy places. My love for worldly attractions, vices, lies, deceitful acts, and discrimination towards other humans has all exhausted (I am fed up with them). Now, I love Waheguru only, and imbued in His Love, I sing His praise. 1.

We should sing praise of the Lord who has created the universe. But, without Waheguru at heart, the man has a filthy mind, and his body becomes filthy too (he commits immoral acts with his body). It is rare for an individual to drink the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam. When I asked my Guru about the price to acquire Waheguru's Naam, He told me that I need to surrender my mind to Waheguru and acquire noble qualities to drink the Amrit of His Naam. I realized my Waheguru in the high spiritual state when I applied my mind to (recite the Naam of) the eternal Waheguru. I can sing His praise in my mind only if He likes me. Once connected, a devotee does not become a stranger to Him again (does not get disconnected). We should sing praise of the Lord who created the world. 2.

Once Waheguru appears in a devotee's mind, what is left behind to acquire? (He is left with no desire for anything else, and becomes fully contented), And he will not have to go through the birth-death cycle again. His mind is completely won over by the Dear Lord, and he gets imbued in Waheguru's love. On listening to the stories (praise of His virtues) about Waheguru, the devotee's mind gets imbued in His love, who creates the fort-like human body from a drop of liquid (the union of an egg with a sperm). The Lord of the five basic ingredients (earth, water, fire, air, and sky/enlightenment), who creates the human body, also adorns it with a beautiful finish. We are devoid of any noble qualities, but You still listen to fulfil our needs, oh Waheguru. The lucky devotees, whom You like, also become like You. They acquire the everlasting wisdom (thinking) to stay connected with You and their birth-death cycle comes to end. 3.

Word Meaning: Unjun(u) = kohl (usually used to beautify eyes). Janaavaiy = gives the understanding. Munooaa = mind. Kerm = deeds. Sookerm = noble deeds. Keemut(i)

= worth. Abhayvay = whose secrets cannot be known. Tunt(u) = incantation; magical spell. Munt(u) = mantra. Paakhund(u) = hypocritical acts. Maaniya = pleased. 4. Pur Ghur = other's shelter. Sungay = with. Ruliyaan = enjoyment. Kerm Dherm = religious rituals. Utth-sutth(i) Teeruth = 68 Hindu holy places. Poonn =charitable deeds. Bhaaya = liked. Thaap(i) = establish. Bhaana = Will. Rungeelurray = dyed in. 5. Aagoo = leader. Theeyay = becomes. Paadhur = the straight path. Moosaiy = deceived. Hochhiyaiy = vey low. Puchhaanaiy = recognize. Mehl(u) = (God's) Residence. Undhulee = blind. Soojhaiy = comes to mind. Boodou = drowns (fail to achieve objective). Chaaou = zest. Oopjaiy = arises. Ker Joarr(i) = with folded hands. 6.

MEANING: (Like a bride, who wears the kohl in her eyes which her husband likes), a devotee should perform the kind of worship which the Lord approves. But the understanding is that worship comes to the devotee only when the Lord Himself imparts it in his mind. Waheguru Himself bestows understanding, puts the devotee on the right path, and motivates his mind to enjoy worshipping Him. He Himself makes the devotee do the normal and the noble deeds, but who can find the worth of the Lord whose secrets can never be known? I know none of any incantation, any mantra, or any hypocritical act to charm the Lord; my mind just got pleased with Him. The real kohl to please the Lord is his Naam, which I came to realize from the Guru's Shabad. 4.

If a devotee has the Lord as his friend, why would he go to some other source to seek spirituality (or for any other help)? Such devotees stay imbued in the love of the Lord and enjoy the bliss of union with Him in their own mind. They do not need any religious rituals (to attain union with Waheguru). The love for Waheguru's Naam is like taking dips at the 68 holy places, performing charitable deeds, and worshipping some idol (such things mean nothing to them). Dyed in the love of the Lord, they acquire the deep red colour which reflects their everlasting love for Waheguru. 5.

If one's guide (guru) happens to be (spiritually) blind, how can the devotee find the straight and the right path for union with Waheguru? Because of his low wisdom, he loses his noble qualities and cannot find the right path. The wisdom of a spiritually blind man is also blinded, so how can he find the right path and reach the Residence of Waheguru? He cannot think of the right path without Waheguru's Naam, and drowns in the sea of Maya (in the Maya-oriented affairs). (On the other hand), If a devotee has the Guru's Shabad enshrined in his mind, his mind becomes highly enthusiastic to get connected with Waheguru, and his path is brightened by the Guru's Shabad. You should also pray to the Guru with folded hands when He shows you the path to union with Waheguru, oh my mind. 6. --------

Word Meaning: Perdaysi = wandering; stranger to Waheguru (disconnected with Him). Puraaya = strange. Khohloon Guntthrri = open bale (purse); share grief. Bidh(i) = situation. Khuray = much. Draavnay = scary; frightening. Toat(i) = shortage. Phariya = returns (to the world); birth-death cycle. Vihoonay = devoid of. Oonay = incomplete. Jhoonay = dejected; gloomy. Soonaaya = Sooniya = listened to. 7.
Bhurpoor(i) Leena = (in Waheguru) which is present everywhere. Sayvuk(u) = servant; devotee. Puteena = gets convinced (contented). Unk(u) = heart. Bheejay = imbued. Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Residence. Mehlaan Untray = in (devotees') heart. Niruntray = continuously (without exception). Mayla = union. Soohayla = comfortable; blissful. Baajunt = plays (music). Unhud = uniform. Beena = guitar. 8.
Keeta = whatever has been created. Vaykhaiy = looks after. Soyee = the same (God). Loachaiy = longs; wishes. Abhooll(u) = infallible. Jaiykaar(u) = sing praise. Amoollaiy = priceless. Heenou = lacking qualities. Neech(u) = low-caste; ignoble. 9.

MEANING: If a man loses control of his mind (it keeps wavering), he cannot connect with Waheguru, and the whole world seems to be stranger to him (because he cannot get rid of his nature of discriminating between people), and he suffers because of that. I am also disconnected with Waheguru, and am suffering, but who can he share my grief with (because there is no real friend of mine)? Disconnected with Waheguru, the whole world is suffering, so nobody has the time or patience to listen to my sad story. All those who are disconnected from Waheguru keep taking births and dying, and there is no shortage of their rebirths. Without Waheguru's Naam, everybody is incomplete (lacks noble qualities) and feels gloomy because they do not listen to the Guru's Shabad. If one is disconnected from Waheguru, the whole world seems stranger to him. 7.
The Guru resides in Waheguru (He is "one" with Waheguru), which is pervading the whole world; but He makes the devotee's heart His dwelling (appears in a devotee's heart) when the devotee is convinced with the Guru's Shabad; his mind gets imbued in it, and he serves Waheguru (recites His Naam). Waheguru is the creator, does everything, and is present in everybody without any exception. When a devotee gets connected with the Guru's Shabad, his mind becomes blissful, and he feels as if a uniform music of a guitar is playing in his mind. The Guru resides in Waheguru (they are one and the same), and Waheguru pervades the whole universe. 8.
We should sing praise of the Creator (worship Him) and not His creation because He is the one who looks after it. Nobody can determine the worth of Waheguru's creation even if he longs to do that. Waheguru is infallible and never makes any mistake; only that devotee can find the worth of His creation whom He gives the needed wisdom. Those who sing Waheguru's praise with the priceless Shabad of the Guru are loved by Him. I lack noble qualities, and am an ignoble person, but I pray to Waheguru that I should never quit worshipping Him. Only Waheguru gives such wisdom who has created us, and looks after us, oh Nanak. 9.2.5.

Word Meaning: Sohilurra = song of bliss. Ful(u) = reward. Nivaaray = takes away; removes. Vit-houn = for. Kaaruj = tasks. Suvaaray = made successful. 1. Bheenay = imbued. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = with love and peaceful state of mind. Dhoor(i) = by Waheguru. Doormut(i) = evil thinking. Dooji = the other (related to Maya and discrimination). Live Laaga = focus mind with full dedication. 2.

MEANING: Sing the song of praise of Waheguru (recite His Naam) in the shelter of the Guru, which is the source of blissfulness, and reap the reward of everlasting comfort. All one's sufferings of many lives are eradicated when he sings Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru. I am a sacrifice for my Guru, who makes all my objectives successful.

When Waheguru becomes kind to His devotees, they recite His Naam and reap the reward of blissfulness. I urge all the devotees to listen to my request and recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the source of all bliss, oh Nanak. 1.
Those (lucky people), who listen to the noble qualities of Waheguru, recite His Naam with the wisdom (enlightenment) imparted by the Guru, get imbued in His love, and attain the high spiritual state. However, only those lucky devotees who have the union prewritten in their fate by Waheguru are connected with Waheguru, and their fear of reincarnation is eradicated. They get the ignoble thoughts of Maya's attractions and discrimination against others eradicated from their minds, and they become concentrated on Waheguru's Naam with full dedication. Those who are kind to Waheguru listen to His noble qualities and sing His praise day and night, every day, whereby their minds get imbued with His love, and they enjoy the spiritual state of blissfulness. 2.

Word Meaning: Joog Meh(i) = in the world. Nistaara = emancipation. Oopjay = is generated. Kilvikh = sins. Huoun = I am. 3.
Saajun = (Waheguru) friend. Vootthay = took dwelling. Ghur Maaheen = in my heart. Triput(i) Aghaayee = fully contented. Dehdis = in every direction. Pooj = worship; respect. Joaar(i) Vichhoarray = puts together and separates. Bin(u) = without. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the emancipator in the world, but the thought of Waheguru's worship is generated by the Guru's Shabad. Again, that lucky devotee gets to ponder on Guru's Shabad, and begins to love Waheguru, who is kind to him. He sings Waheguru's praise with a peaceful mind day and night, when all his sins get eradicated. Everybody is Yours, and You belong to everybody; I am also Yours, and You are mine, oh Waheguru. His Naam is the emancipator in this world. 3.
My dear friend, Waheguru, has taken dwelling in my heart (has appeared in there), and I have become fully contented by singing His praise. When one gets fully contented by singing His praise, he never feels any appetite for worldly attractions ever again. Waheguru's devotees, who recite His Naam, are worshipped (earn respect) in every direction (in the whole world). It is Waheguru, who connects or disconnects people with Him; there is none other who can do that. My Waheguru-friend has taken dwelling in my heart, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Raakhaiy = protects (dignity). Haumein = selfishness and ego. Bhaayaa = is liked. Saachi = everlasting. Aakh(i) Vukhaani = describes by speaking. Chaal = way of life. Ut(i) = extremely. Nirmul = pure; pious. Kmaaya = practised. 1. Put(i) = dignity. Smaanay = stay absorbed. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Uvgun = Aougun = ignoble qualities. Puchhaanaiy = recognized. Bhaiy = (respectful) fear. Baiyraagi = detached from the worldly bonds. Raatay = imbued. Smaalay = remember.2.

NOTE: Ram means Waheguru. It has been used in the next six chhunts to address Him.

MEANING: Waheguru protects the dignity of His devotees and has been doing so over the eons. (If someone asks what the devotees are like, the answer is): A devotee is the individual who burns away (gets rid of) his selfishness and ego in Guru's shelter with His Shabad. The devotee, who burns away his haumein with Guru's Shabad (in Waheguru's praise), which is true (relevant) over all eons, is liked by Waheguru. Such a devotee recites Guru's Bani day and night in His shelter; that is the real worship of Waheguru. The lifestyle of the devotees is extremely pure and pious, and they love Waheguru's everlasting Naam. Such devotees, who spend their life reciting Waheguru's Naam and performing highly moral deeds, look elegant (exalted) in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 1. For the devotees, Waheguru is their caste and their dignity, and they are always absorbed in His Naam. The devotees recognize their good and bad qualities and rid themselves of selfishness and ego by worshipping Waheguru. By reciting Waheguru's Naam, they identify their noble and ignoble qualities, and with respectful fear, they find Waheguru's worship to be sweet. They worship Waheguru (keep Him in mind) day and night, and stay detached from worldly attractions while living in the family. Absorbed in Waheguru's worship, they have a pure and pious mind, and always see Waheguru close to them. They remember Waheguru day and night, and are approved like Waheguru (they become like Him by acquiring noble qualities), in His Court, oh Nanak. 2. --------

Word Meaning: Munmukh(i) = follower of his own mind; Maya-engrossed. Bin(u) = Vin(u) = without. Viyaapay = impacts; causes suffering. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of Maya. Perj = public. Vigoyee = misled. Tutt(u) = real purpose of life. Jaaniya = made connection. Vihoona = devoid of. Bhermiya = lost in misgivings. Unt(i) = at the end. Koat(i) Mudhay = among millions. Vudiyaayee = respect. Put(i) = dignity. 3. Kaaruj(u) = task; objective. Khujaana = Nidhaan = treasure. Aapay = God Himself. Kaal(u) Kuntuk(u) = thorn of the fear of death. Maar(i) = getting rid of. Bhaanay = liked. Akhoott(u) = inexhaustible. Nikhoottaiy = depletes. Oochay = high in morality. Sohaaya = adorned; exalted. Bukhsh(i) = by forgiving; with benevolence. Sobha = praise.
MEANING: The followers of their mind (disconnected with Waheguru) do worship some deity (other than Waheguru), and of course, without taking the advice of the Guru; but no worship without the Guru is approved by Waheguru. They suffer from the disease of haumein due to their attraction for Maya, and consequently go through the suffering of rebirths. The masses are misled by the false attractions of Maya, and suffer rebirths; they do not understand the reality (real purpose) of life (union with Waheguru). Without the worship of Waheguru, the whole world is misled by their misgivings, and they leave the world repenting. One in a million recognizes the fact that Waheguru and His Naam are the only everlasting, valuable things. One earns respect only with Waheguru's Naam, and loses his dignity because of his love for someone (or something) else, oh Nanak. 3.

The devotees focus on the worship of Waheguru as their primary task, and they always sing His praise. Waheguru Himself gives them the treasure of His worship, and they stay absorbed in Him as they get rid of the fear of the thorny death. Waheguru likes His devotees and bestows the treasure of His everlasting Naam to them, whereby they kill the fear of the thorn-like death. The treasure of Waheguru's Naam is inexhaustible and never depletes; the devotees receive it in their high spiritual state. Waheguru's devotees are always very high in morality, and they look exalted as they are adorned with the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru connects them with His own benevolence, and they are respected over the eons, oh Nanak. 4.1.2.

Word Meaning: Sacahiy = Such(u) = Sachay = everlasting. Sohila = blissfulness. Kilvikh = sins. Ooridhaaray = acquired (stored) in mind (has become a dwelling for God). Dootur = (the world-sea) which is very difficult to swim across. Bhuvjul = the world sea

(which leads to rebirths). Vikhaaliya = showed; illuminated. Naayee = praise; splendour. Nistaara = salvation. 1.
Boojhaaya = explained; gave understanding. Put(i) = dignity. Bhojun(u) = food; meal. Bhaaou = love. Gerbh(i) = womb. Jooni = different life forms. Vaasa = living. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Soul. Smaayee = got absorbed. Pergaasa = enlightenment. Jaata = realized. Sachay Hoyay = became like Waheguru. Dhiyaayin(i) = recite. Hirdaiy = in the heart. Vussiya = resides. Veechhurr = separate. 2.
MEANING: The heart (or the holy congregation) where Waheguru is remembered (His Naam is recited) with the eternal Shabad of the Guru (in praise of Waheguru) enjoys blissfulness. All the sins and the haumein (selfishness and ego) of the heart, which have become Waheguru's dwelling, are eradicated. The individual with such a pure heart swims across the sea of Maya, and he does not have to swim that again (he does not take any rebirths). The Guru is eternal like Waheguru, and so is His Bani (Shabad) by which He reveals Waheguru to His devotees (connects them with Waheguru). Such a devotee sings the virtues of Waheguru, sees Waheguru everywhere, and stays absorbed in Him. Waheguru is eternal, and so is His praise, which leads to the salvation of the devotees, oh Nanak. 1. The devotee acquires understanding about Waheguru (gets enlightened), and gets connected with Him in the shelter of the Guru, and Waheguru protects his dignity. With pure love for Waheguru in his mind, Waheguru's Naam becomes the everlasting food for the devotee's mind, as a result of which, he enjoys true comfort, and he never enters a mother's womb to be born again. The Guru enlightens the mind of the devotee with Waheguru's eternal Naam, and the soul of the devotee merges with the Soul of the Lord. Those who recognize Waheguru (get connected with Him), recite His Naam day and night, and become pure like Waheguru. Those who enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their heart never suffer the pain of separation from Him, oh Nanak.2

Word Meaning: Tit(u) Ghur(i) = in that heart. Vertaiy = operates. Pusriya = spread over; present. Uver(u) = other. Oopjaiy = comes into being; takes new spiritual life. Smaavaiy = is absorbed. Dooja Hoyee = who worship the other (Maya). Kerta = God. 3. Bhagat = true devotees. Soheh(i) = look impressive (majestic). Durvaaray = in Waheguru's Court. Vukhaanay = utter; recite. Ghut Untray = in the heart. Puchhaanay = identified; connected with (Him). Jaaneh(i) = realize; get connected. Sojhi = enlightenment. Sobha = praise; fame. Ruttay = imbued. Ikk Rungee = in love with "One". Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Praaput(i) = acquirement. 4.

MEANING: The heart which sings Waheguru's praise with Guru's eternal Shabad enjoys blissfulness. By singing praise of the pure and eternal Waheguru, the devotee's body and mind also become pure, and the eternal Waheguru begins to reside in them. Such a devotee performs the deeds in accordance with the Will of God, which operates in him (guides him), and the devotee tells only the truth. He sees only Waheguru present everywhere, and no one else. The devotee takes a new spiritual life from Waheguru and merges with Him, but the money-worshipper keeps taking births and dying. The Creator Waheguru is in control of everything and makes others do whatever He wishes, oh Nanak. 3. The true devotees look majestic in the Court of Waheguru, and recite only Waheguru's Naam. Guru's eternal Shabad is enshrined in their mind with which they analyze themselves, and get fully enlightened about Waheguru with whom they make a deep connection. With Guru's evergreen Shabad, they earn everlasting praise and enjoy bliss with Waheguru enshrined in their heart. The true devotees are imbued in the love of only "One" Waheguru, and do not love anyone (or anything) else. But only those acquire Waheguru's Naam in their hearts who have it prewritten on their foreheads, oh Nanak. 4.2.3.

Word Meaning: Joog Chaaray = all the four eons. Dhun = human bride. Bhuvay = goes through. Bin(u) = without. Sohaag(u) = marriage; union (with God). Nihchul = everlasting. Raj(u) = reign; Huqam(u). Kayra = of. Pir = husband (God). Maylaava = union. Mun Maaniya = bring faith in; is convinced. Mookt(i) = emancipation. Kaamun(i) = human bride. Kuntaiy = husband (Waheguru). Raavaiy = enjoys (the union). 1. Sayv(i) = serve. Baalurriyay = child; ignorant. Vur(u) = husband. Sohaagni = married (enjoys love of God). Maiyla Vays = dirty clothes (a sign of the widows). Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. Puchhaaniya = recognized. Kerni Kaar = performing the worthy deeds. Untar(i) = in the mind. Raavay = enjoys union with. Sobha = praise. Kaamun(i) = woman; human bride. Ruv Ruhhiya = is present. 2.

MEANING: No matter what the eon is, a devotee cannot get married to (get connected with) Waheguru even if she goes through all four eons in different life forms. Waheguru's Huqam (Laws) are eternal (do not change with time), and there is no one else who can change them. A devotee realizes in the shelter of the Guru that there is only one Supreme Being, and there is none else like Him. With the wisdom imparted by the Guru, the human bride (devotee) is fully convinced about the supremacy of Waheguru, and gets connected with Waheguru as the Husband. One realizes Waheguru only in the shelter of the Guru, and there is no emancipation without Waheguru's Naam. With her mind convinced about Waheguru, the human bride enjoys the blissfulness of the union with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1. Serve the Satguru; only then can you acquire Waheguru as your Husband, oh ignorant woman (human). Once connected, she always remains married (connected) to Waheguru and never becomes a widow again (never gets separated from Him). But some rare devotee realizes Waheguru only after she has killed (gotten rid of) her haumein in the shelter of the Guru. Such a devotee recognizes only the "One" Waheguru, performs only deeds approved by the Guru, and remains absorbed in His Shabad. With the grace of the Guru, she enjoys union with God day and night, and earns everlasting praise. Such a devotee enjoys union with Waheguru, who is omnipresent, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Rung(i) Rutti = imbued in the love. Vertaiy = operates. Seegaar(u) = adornment. Sookh-Daata = the source of all comforts (God). Kuntth(i) Laayay = held to the neck. Mehli = the Lord of the Palace. Mehl(u) = (Waheguru's) Palace. 3.
Dhoor(i) = by the source (Waheguru). Ghut(i) = in the heart (mind). Chaanun = enlightenment. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. Sayj = bed. Sookhaali = comforting. Bhaanee = liked. Nirmul = pure; pious. Mul(u) = filth. Khoyee = removed. Nuvaiy Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures of the world. 4.

MEANING: The Guru connects even an ignorant devotee who adopts the lifestyle as per the Guru's Advice (performs deeds approved by the Guru) with the Waheguru-Husband. The devotee gets imbued in Waheguru's love, enjoys the blissfulness of the union with Waheguru, and stays absorbed in the omnipresent Waheguru, which operates everywhere. (Like a bride, who adorns herself with ornaments to be attractive to her husband), a devotee adorns herself with everlasting noble qualities to be attractive to Waheguru, and stays absorbed in Him. When Waheguru embraces a devotee who has tightly enshrined the Guru's Shabad in her mind at His neck, she realizes that Waheguru is the source of all comforts and the Lord of the universe, and, with the Guru's advice, she connects with Him, oh Nanak. 3.
But only that childlike devotee gets connected with the Guru who has union with Waheguru prewritten in her fortune. Her heart is enlightened by the wisdom imparted by the Guru when she "sees" Waheguru to be present everywhere. As prewritten in her fortune, she enshrines the omnipresent Waheguru's Naam in her heart. She adorns herself with noble qualities with Waheguru's Naam, and is liked (loved) by Waheguru, because of which the bed of her heart becomes highly comforting due to her union with Waheguru. With Guru's advice, the devotee washes away the filth of her haumein (selfishness and ego) when her mind is purified, and she gets absorbed in Waheguru. Waheguru Himself connects such a devotee with Him, and she feels as if she has acquired all the nine treasures of the world, oh Nanak. 4.3.4.

Word Meaning: Gurmukhay = with the advice of the Guru. Ruvhou = recite. Unhud = auto playing and uniform. Shabad = Divine music. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Naari = woman; human bride. Undin(u) = everyday; always. Sa = that. Dhun = woman (devotee). Kunt = husband (Waheguru). Ghut(i) = in the heart. Soohaavay = adorned; look (spiritually) attractive. Sohila = blissfulness. 1.

Anund = blissfulness. Bhuyya = happened. Liv Laayay = mind focussed on. Amrit Bani = life-sustaining Shabad. Nistray = salvaged. Smaani = is present. 2.

MEANING: Sing Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru to realize Waheguru, oh my friends. The devotee, who sings Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad, feels as if uniform Divine music plays in his mind. This Divine music plays in the mind of the devotee whose heart has been enlightened, and Waheguru has appeared in there when he sings His praise. The human bride (devotee) which worships Waheguru all the time in the shelter of the Guru, is loved by the Waheguru-Husband. The devotee, who gets Guru's Shabad enshrined in her heart, is adorned (with noble qualities) with the Shabad of the Guru. The heart which becomes a dwelling for Waheguru by His benevolence, becomes blissful for ever, oh Nanak. 1.

The devotees, whose minds stay focused on Waheguru's Naam, feel blissful. Their mind is purified in the shelter of the Guru, and they sing Waheguru's praise with a pure mind. When a devotee sings Waheguru's praise with the Amrit-like (immortalizing) Guru's Shabad in Waheguru's praise with a pure mind, Waheguru makes his heart His dwelling (appears in that heart). Waheguru's Shabad is present in every heart, but only those devotees find salvation (union with God) whose hearts become dwellings for Him. 2.

Word Meaning: Sunt Sungut(i) = company of the Guru (or holy saints). Mayl(u) = meeting; to join. Smaayay = absorbed. Jeevun Mookt = breaking worldly bonds. Chit(u) = mind. Munooa = mind. Rutta = imbued. Sookh Daata = the provider (source) of all comforts. Moh(u) = worldly attachments. Chookaaya = removed; got rid of. Sehjay = in the blissful spiritual state. Maata = intoxicated. J(i) = those. 3.
Jug(u) = world. Bherm Bhoolaaya = misled in misgivings. Mehl(u) = (Lord's) palace. Ikk(i) = many. Guvaaya = removed. Ja = when. Bhaaya = liked. Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in love. Nirmul = pure. Jaatay = are known. Jaapeh(i) = are honoured. Dur(i) = (at Waheguru's) Door. Sacha = God. Sacha = everlasting. 4.

MEANING: When a devotee gets to join the company of the Guru (or some holy saints), he gets absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. With Guru's Shabad, he stays focused on Waheguru's Naam and breaks all the worldly bonds while living in the family. When a devotee focuses his mind on Waheguru's Naam, He (Waheguru) connects the devotee first with the Guru before the devotee gets connected with Waheguru (this is Waheguru's Law), and his mind gets imbued in Waheguru's love. When a devotee keeps Waheguru's Naam in mind all the time, his bonds of worldly attachments are broken, and he becomes "one" with Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts. Imbued with the love for Guru's Shabad, the devotee enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his mind and attains the spiritual state of blissfulness in which he always feels intoxicated. The devotees, who serve the Satguru (act on His Advice), and stay absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, always feel blissfulness, oh Nanak. 3.
The world is misled by its misgivings, and the people cannot reach Waheguru's Palace (cannot get united with Him). Some devotees do connect with Him in the Guru's shelter, where all their troubles are eradicated. Their troubles disappear when they like Waheguru, and, imbued in His love, they sing His praise all the time. With the worship of Waheguru, the devotees become perfectly pure and are honoured in Waheguru's Court no matter what the eon is. With the true (honest) worship of Waheguru, such devotees are recognized at Waheguru's Door (in His Court), and the eternal Waheguru takes dwelling in their heart. With the eternal Shabad of the Guru, the devotee acquires everlasting blissfulness and true happiness, oh Nanak. 4.4.5.

Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. 2.

MEANING: If you wish to have Waheguru as your husband (connect with the Lord), then seek shelter at Guru's feet, oh, the young devotee. Because Waheguru never dies or leaves you, you will always remain married (connected with Him). The devotee, who takes the Guru's shelter with love and devotion, is loved by Waheguru, who never dies or leaves her, and she enjoys a state of bliss. Adorned with Guru's Shabad, her mind is purified, and she always exercises control over her senses and stays absorbed in Waheguru (His Naam). My Waheguru, who has created Himself, is always eternal. The devotee, who applies her mind to Guru's Feet (His Shabad), enjoys her union with Waheguru all the time, oh Nanak. 1.

The child-like devotee, who gets connected with Waheguru with Guru's advice, stays intoxicated in Waheguru's love and enjoys the spiritual state of blissfulness all the time. Such a devotee gets no filth of sensual pleasures at all. She is imbued with the love of Waheguru, who Himself connects her with Him through the Guru; such a devotee never gets any filth of sensual pleasures. She gets rid of her selfishness and ego and enjoys her union with Waheguru at all times. With the Guru's advice, when a devotee connects with Waheguru in a high spiritual state, she is imbued with the love of her Dear (Waheguru). A devotee is praised because of Waheguru's Naam in her heart, and imbued in His love, she enjoys union with Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Pir(u) Raavay = enjoys union with (Waheguru) husband. Mehl(u) = residence (Waheguru). Shuhou = husband; Lord. Ut(i) = extremely. Daata = Provider. Bhaaya = liked = Bhaani. Akuth = indescribable. Vertaiy = operates. Rung(i) = with love. Ruvaiy = enjoys (the union). 3.
Oordhaaray = enshrine in heart. Kaaruj = task; objective. Suvaaray = achieves successfully. Jaata = recognized; made strong bond. Moh(i) Luyya = captivated. Kerm Bidhaata = the carver of our fates (Waheguru). Mooraaray = a name for God. 4.
MEANING: The devotee, who gets rid of her selfishness and ego, gets connected with the Waheguru-Husband, who is perfectly pure, and is the Provider for us all. Such a devotee reaches the Palace of Waheguru (gets connected with Him), and, imbued in His love, she enjoys her union with Him. When she loves Waheguru, her bonds of worldly attachment get severed, and she is liked by Waheguru. She sings the praises of the eternal Waheguru and discusses His countless virtues, which can never be fully described. It is the same Waheguru which operates (rules the universe) in each of the four eons, but which cannot be realized without the Guru. However, the devotee who connects her mind to Waheguru enjoys His love and remains imbued in it, oh Nanak. 3.
When a devotee acquires her dear friend Waheguru in her mind, she enjoys blissfulness. Her mind is purified with Guru's advice, and she enshrines Waheguru's Naam in her heart. She recognizes Waheguru (gets connected with Him) with the advice of the Guru and achieves the objective of her life by enshrining Waheguru's Naam in her heart. Such a devotee says that my dear Waheguru has captivated my mind, and I have realized the Waheguru, who is the carver of our fates. The devotee enjoys blissfulness by serving the Guru (acting on His advice), and Waheguru comes to reside in her heart. Adorned by Guru's Shabad, such a devotee is connected with Waheguru by the grace of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.5.6.

Word Meaning: Sohilurra = (song of) happiness (blissfulness). Bheejaiy = get imbued. Kool = clan; associates. Oodhaaray = salvage. Aavun Jaan = birth and death. Ruhhay = left behind; end. Unhud = uniformly present (Waheguru). Soort(i) = thoughts. Smaani = absorbed. 1.

Neeveen = low (in qualities). Ut(i) Oocha = extremely high (transcendent). Kiyoun Kur(i) = how? Buhou = much. Soobhaayay = in love with. Aap(u) Guvaayay = lose (get rid of) selfishness and ego. Rung Siyoun = with love. Ruliyaan Maanay = enjoy blissfulness. Sayj = bed (heart). Sookhaali = comforting. Bhaaya = liked; loved. Sohaagun(i) = married (connected with Waheguru). Sa = that. Vudbhaagi = highly fortunate. Bhaayay = in love; as per the Will. 2.

MEANING: When a devotee ponders on Waheguru's Naam by reciting Guru's Shabad, he feels blissful at heart. The devotee feels deep love for Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, and gets drenched (imbued) by mind and by body in Waheguru's love. He loves the Naam of dear Waheguru, and recites it with his tongue and (makes his associate do the same) whereby all of them get salvaged. They stay fully absorbed in the thoughts of dear Waheguru, which is uniformly present everywhere. They do not suffer from births and deaths (which become the things of the past) and enjoy all comforts. When a devotee ponders on Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, Waheguru becomes kind to him, and he realizes "the only" Waheguru, and his mind feels blissfulness, oh Nanak. 1.

I am very low in noble qualities, whereas Waheguru is very high in them (is highly transcendent), so how can I reach Him? When a devotee begins to love Waheguru by pondering on the Guru's Shabad, the Guru becomes munificent to the devotee and connects him with Waheguru. With love for Guru's Shabad, the devotee overcomes his selfishness and ego and enjoys his union with Waheguru. When the devotee loves Waheguru and gets absorbed in His Naam, the bed of his heart becomes very enjoyable. The devotee who follows the advice of Satguru with devotion is highly fortunate and is always married to (stays connected with) Waheguru, oh Nanak. I am very low in noble qualities whereas Waheguru is highly transcendent, so how can I reach Him? 2.

Word Meaning: Ghut(i) Ghutay = in every heart. Bhutaaro = husband; Lord. Ikkna = some. Aadhaaro = support; basis. Sirjunhaaro = the Creator. Alukh(u) = invisible. Lukhaaya = showed. Sehjay = easily; without any special effort. Maaniya = convinced; bring faith in. Braham = God. 3.
Sayvun(i) = serve. Dhoorr(i) = dust (of the feet); opportunity to serve. Mookt(u) = freedom from worldly bonds; emancipation. Bibayk Boodhi = wisdom to differentiate between good and bad. Raiyn(i) = night (life). Vihaani = is spent. Pegaasa = enlightenment. Anund = blissfulness. Bhuyya = became; happened. Meetth = sweet. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru alone is present in every heart as the husband (Lord). For some, Waheguru resides somewhere far away, while for others, He is the basis of life. Those for whom Waheguru is the basis of their lives are highly fortunate, and they connect with the Guru. Even though Waheguru is present in every heart, only those who see the invisible Waheguru in Guru's shelter believe Him to be the basis of their life. When a devotee ponders on Waheguru's Naam so that his mind is convinced about His presence, he achieves the blissfulness of the high spiritual state. Waheguru alone is present in every heart as the husband (Lord), oh Waheguru. 3.

Those who serve Satguru, the source of Waheguru's Naam, get absorbed in the Naam. Kindly grant me the dust of the Feet of the Perfect Guru (an opportunity to serve Him) so that sinners like me may also get salvation, oh Waheguru. Service to the Guru enables a devotee (even if he has been a sinner before) to get rid of his selfishness and ego, and his mind comes to stay in itself (does not wander anymore), and he attains salvation. With Guru's advice, the devotee's mind is enlightened, and he acquires the wisdom by which he can distinguish between the good and the bad, as a result of which his life is spent in comfort. He finds Waheguru to be sweet, and he feels always blissful with Waheguru's Naam at heart, oh Nanak. Those who serve Satguru, which is the source of Waheguru's Naam, get absorbed in His Naam. 4.6.7.5.7.12.

Word Meaning: Purakh(u) = Great soul. Uvgun = ignoble qualities. Vikkna = by selling (gettin rid of). Ruvaan = remember. Bul(i) = sacrifice (offer) life. Vikaar = vices. Roag(u) = disease; ailment. Sehjay Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. Kaaya Sayj = bed of body (heart). Sookhaali = comforting. Giyan = Divine knowledge. Tut(i) = root; source. (God). Bhogo = enjoy. Undin(u) = everyday; always. Ruliyaan = enjoyment of life (union with Waheguru). Sunjoago = union. Dhoor(i) = from the source (God). 1.

Sat(u) = high morality; service to mankind. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Bhaaou = love. Koorrum = in-law; the mediator (Guru). Koorrmaayee = to perform the marriage ceremony (union with Waheguru). Perm Gut(i) = supreme spiritual state. Punch = the five senses. Milay = came together (under control). Sohaaya = became attractive (pure). Kroadh(u) = rage. Mumta = love for worldly things. Pakhund(u) = hypocrisy. Bherm(u) = misgiving. Aaroagut = disease free; healthy. Sreera = body (mind). Puchhaata = recognized; made connection. Gooni = bearer of virtues. Guheera = whose mind does not waver. 2.

MEANING: Please, connect me with the Guru in whose shelter I may recite Your Naam and the Gurbani all the time, get rid of my ignoble qualities, and acquire noble qualities. Oh my dear Waheguru, I am a sacrifice for You. The devotee, who finds Gurbani to be sweet all the time, gets his sins and his vices (immoralities) eradicated. The disease of his haumein and all his worldly fears are eradicated, and Waheguru connects him in the high spiritual state with Him. With Guru's Shabad, his body becomes a comforting bed for enjoying union with the source of Divine Knowledge, Waheguru. With the union with Waheguru prewritten in his fortune, the devotee enjoys blissfulness all the time, oh Nanak. 1.

The devotee, whom the mediator, Satguru, takes under His shelter to connect him with Waheguru, imparts virtues like service to mankind, contentment, and universal love in him, and puts him in the company of the holy saints where he sings Gurbani, oh dear Waheguru; I am a sacrifice for You. With the recitation of Gurbani, the devotee is able to control all his five senses, whereby his mind and body become spiritually very attractive (pure), and he attains the high spiritual state. All his rage and his worldly attachments disappear, and all his hypocrisies and misgivings are dispelled. His suffering from his haumein is cured, and his body (mind) becomes perfectly healthy, and he enjoys blissfulness. With Guru's grace, he recognizes Waheguru (gets connected with Him) and becomes a bearer of noble qualities and wins control of his mind. 2.

Word Meaning: Vichhurri = disconnected. Mehl(u) = (Waheguru's) Residence. Bul(i) = burned at heart; suffering in the fire of desires. Bul(i) = sacrifice life. Mumta = worldly attachments. Koor(i) = in falsehood (perishables). Koorr(u) = short-lived. Vihaajhay = deals in. Luyyee = possessed (controlled) by. Kupt = deceit. Kumaavaiy = earns; deals in. Mug(u) = path (of righteousness). Oojhurr = wilderness (leading away from success). Bhermaiy = wanders aimlessly. Gaavaari = foolish. Khin(u) = short moment. Dhukkay Khaayay = gets kicked; suffers humiliation. Duyya = compassion. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = without any special effort. 3.

Lugun = auspicious moment. Gunaayay = calculations by fortune tellers. Dhun = woman (human bride). Omaahiya = zestful. Paandha = family Brahman. Putti = the book of astrology. Beh(i) = sitting (carefully). Vachaayiya = studied. Vujji Vudhaayee = heart reverberates with happiness; high spirits. Saajun = the friend (Waheguru). Gooni = having noble qualities. Giyani = having Divine knowledge (connected with God). Mutaa = resolution. Pukaaya = firmed. Pharay = circumambulating around one's deity (fire in case of Hindus, and Guru Granth Sahib in case of Sikhs) to perform marriage ceremony. Tut(u) = right away. Vur(u) = husband. Agumm(u) = inaccessible. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Nuvtun = always in new spirits; with fresh love. Baal Sukhaayee = friend from childhood. 4.

MEANING: The Maya-worshipper individual burns in the fire of desires, cannot realize Waheguru, and stays disconnected with Him, oh my dear Waheguru; I am a sacrifice for You. The Maya-lover individual is attracted to perishables, deals in them, and his mind is controlled by this attraction. He performs deeds based on deceit and falsehood, and suffers hugely as a result. He cannot find the path of righteousness without the Guru. The foolish treads the path of wilderness where he wanders aimlessly (cannot reach his destination) and suffers humiliation every moment (all the time). But after he has gone through many, many lives disconnected from Waheguru, He (Waheguru) finally becomes kind to him and connects him with Satguru, in whose shelter he attains a high spiritual state and merges with Waheguru through his love for Him, oh Nanak. 3.

(Just as the family Brahman finds the auspicious moment by studying his book of astrology for the marriage of a young girl in a customary way), Satguru finds the right moment to connect the devotee with Waheguru, and appears in the devotee's heart, which sends a wave of zest in her heart. Her mind begins to dance with joy when she realizes that Satguru has appeared in her heart. At that moment, the holy saints connected with Waheguru (Satguru) decide to perform the devotee's marriage ceremony with Waheguru (connect her with the Lord) right away. The devotee-bride acquires Waheguru as the husband, who is inaccessible, incomprehensible, always in new spirits, and a friend right from childhood. With His grace, Satguru connects the devotee with Waheguru from whom the devotee never gets separated, oh Waheguru. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Laav = Lugaaou = attachment; union. Pervirti = focus of mind on some new task (for example, marriage). Kerm = deeds to perform. At the time of marriage, the religious leader explains the responsibilities of marriage (some do's and some don'ts to the new couple – particularly the bride. (In case of union of a human bride with Waheguru, the most important deed to perform is to recite Waheguru's Naam which is the pervirti kerm for a Sikh). Drirraaya = reinforced. Vayd(u) = the Vedas. Dherm = responsibility – the first and the foremost duty. Tujaaya = given up; eradicated. Simrit(i) = Hindu holy books. Kilvikh = sins = Paap. Guvaaya = cleared; eradicated. Sehj Anund = blissfulness of the high spiritual state. Vudbhaageen = highly fortunate. Aarumbh = the beginning. Kaaj = the task (of union with the Lord). Ruchaaya = created; started. 1. Purakh(u) = Great Soul. Nirbhuou = fearless. Bhaiy = fear (of Waheguru). Haumein = selfishness and ego. Nirmul(u) = pure (without any pressure). Hudooray = close by. Aatum Ram = Waheguru. Pusaariya = spread out. Bherpooray = filling completely.

Mumgul = song of joy. Unhud Shabad = auto-playing Divine music. Vujaayay = reverberated. 2.

MEANING: I am a sacrifice for You for initiating the task of connecting the devotees with You, oh my dear Waheguru. When a devotee's dedication reaches the stage where he can be connected with Waheguru, Satguru arrives in his heart (spiritually or in person) and reiterates the importance of recitation of His Bani in praise of Waheguru, and makes the devotee recite it. It is the first stage in the path of the devotee to union with Waheguru, in which the Satguru advises the devotee that recitation of Gurbani is his first and foremost duty to perform. For a Sikh, Guru's Bani is the study of the Vedas of Brahma (a Sikh does not need to study the Vedas), and it is the religious duty of the Sikh to recite Guru's Bani by which all his sins are eradicated. Recitation of Waheguru's Naam is the religious duty of the Sikhs; even the Simritis emphasize the recitation of Waheguru's Naam. One must remember the Perfect Satguru (which is a manifestation of Waheguru), whereby all the sins of the devotee are destroyed. When a highly fortunate devotee recites Waheguru's Naam, he begins to find Waheguru sweet in his mind, and acquires the blissfulness of the high spiritual state. This is the first stage (of spiritual development) in the holy task of a devotee's union with God, oh Nanak. 1.

I am a sacrifice to You for initiating the task of connecting the devotees with You, oh my dear Waheguru. In the second stage, Waheguru connects the devotee with Satguru, who is a Great Soul (a manifestation of Waheguru), in whose shelter the devotee becomes fearless of all worldly problems. He fosters a pure fear for Waheguru (without any obligation or wish), and the filth of his selfishness and his ego is washed away, oh my dear God. By singing Waheguru's praise, the devotee develops a pure and respectful fear for God, and "sees" Waheguru very close to him. He also realizes that Waheguru has spread Himself everywhere in the universe. He sings the song of happiness in Waheguru's praise, and realizes that it is the same Waheguru inside him and outside. In the second stage (of spiritual development) initiated by Satguru, the devotee feels as if he is listening to the auto-playing Divine Music, oh Nanak. 2.

Jun(u) Nanak(u) boalay chauthi laavaiy, Hur(i) paaya Prubh(u) avinaashi. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Chaaou = zest; gusto. Bairaagi = an individual who renounces the world in the love of (Waheguru). Nirmul(u) = pure; perfect. Kuthiyaiy = describe. Akuth = indescribable. Kuhaani = story (virtues of Waheguru). Dhoon(i) Oopji = musical notes reverberate. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Bhaag(u) = fortune. 3.

Soobhaayay = with love. Bhaaya = liked; loved. Liv = focus mind on. Chindiya = as wished. Vujji Vadhaayee = became high-spirited. Tthaakur(i) = Lord. Dhun = woman-devotee. Vigaasi = blooming of heart. Avinaashi = immortal. 4.

MEANING: I wish to sacrifice my life for You, oh my dear Lord. In the third stage of the path of union with Waheguru, the devotee feels detached from worldly attractions and eager to be close to Waheguru. Such a devotee is highly fortunate, and he is connected with holy saints of Waheguru to be connected with Waheguru. In this stage, the devotees sing Waheguru's praise and recite Satguru's Bani in the company of the holy men when their mind gets fully purified to acquire Waheguru. With great fortune, the devotee gets into the company of the holy saints, where they discuss the virtues of Waheguru, which can never be described in full. With good fortune on their forehead, the devotees recite Waheguru's Naam, and musical notes of Waheguru's Naam reverberate in their hearts. The devotees feel detached from the worldly attractions (and acquire deep love for Waheguru) in the third stage, oh Nanak. 3.

The devotee's mind becomes completely peaceful (no thoughts of any worldly affairs arise in his mind), and he gets united with Waheguru in the fourth stage of his spiritual development, oh my dear Waheguru. With his love for Waheguru, and in Guru's shelter, the devotee becomes "one" with Waheguru, and finds Him to be sweet in his body and mind. Waheguru loves the devotee's dedication, and the devotee keeps his mind focused on Waheguru's Naam all the time. The devotee reaps his desired reward (union with Waheguru), and his mind dances in high spirits. The Lord Himself initiates the task of connecting the devotee with Him, and the devotee's heart blooms with Waheguru's Naam in it. The devotee realizes the immortal Waheguru in the fourth stage of his spiritual development, oh Nanak. 4.2.

NOTE (1): Even though Guru Ram Dass Ji has written his holy Shabad detailing the four spiritual stages of the devotee on his way to get married (connected) with Waheguru, this holy Shabad is sung to perform the marriage ceremony of would-be Sikh couples. The bride and the groom sit in front of Sri Guru Granth Sahib. A Sikh reads the first stanza of the holy Chhunt (Shabad) from Guru Granth Sahib. At the conclusion of the stanza, the would-be couple bows to Guru Granth Sahib and circumambulates Guru Granth Sahib (go around it) in the clockwise direction, led by the groom. After completing the circle, the couple bows to Guru Granth Sahib again and sits down. In the meantime, the musicians sing the same holy stanza until the couple has sat down. The attendant Sikh reads the second stanza, and the same steps are followed. The process is repeated four times to recite all four stanzas, and the marriage ceremony is completed after the prayer.

NOTE (2): In Jup(u) Ji Sahib, the first Bani of Guru Granth Sahib, Guru Nanak Sahib has described five Khunds (stages) for the union of human beings with Waheguru. The four stages detailed in the holy Chhunt by Guru Ram Dass Ji, under discussion, are basically the same as the five Khunds described by Guru Nanak Sahib, with one difference. The Second Khund (Giyaan Khund) or the stage of knowledge about the universe, is not discussed by Guru Ram Dass Ji.

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = in Guru's shelter. Rusn = tongue. Rusaayay = while enjoying. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. Soobhaayay = with love. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = without any special effort. Bhog Bhogay = enjoys the gifts of Waheguru. Liv Laayay = focus mind on. Undin(u) = everyday; all the time. Jugjeevun(u) = (the source of) life of the world. Soonn(i) = in the spiritual state where no thoughts arise. 1.
Hur(i) Sur(i) = pool of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. Naayay = takes dip. Puvitt(u) = pure; pious. Doomut(i) Maiyl(u) = filth of ignoble (evil) thinking. Bherm(u) = misgiving. Bintthi = destroyed. Peerra = pain; suffering. Nij Ghur(i) Vaasa = mind quits wandering and stays in own heart (gets focused on Waheguru's Naam). Pergaasa = brightens. 2.

MEANING: A devotee, who sings Waheguru's praise in the shelter of the Guru with his tongue while enjoying it, also enjoys its sweet taste in the heart. When a devotee sings Waheguru's praise with taste (love), he is liked by Waheguru, which connects the devotee with Him without any special effort on the part of the devotee. The devotee stays focused on Guru's Shabad, and feels as if he is enjoying all the wonderful gifts of Waheguru, and enjoys his sleep (life) in comfort. However, one gets the company of the Perfect Guru only with great fortune when he recites Waheguru's Naam constantly. He connects with the life of the world, Waheguru, in a high spiritual state where no worldly thoughts arise in his mind, and he stays in that state, oh Nanak. 1.

Waheguru connects His devotees to the company of the holy saints (the Guru), where the devotee takes a dip in the holy pool of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit and gets purified. By taking a dip in the holy pool of Waheguru's Naam, the devotee washes away the filth of his unholy thoughts, whereby his body (and mind) are purified. The filth of his evil wisdom (thoughts) is washed away, his misgivings are cleared, and the suffering of his haumein is destroyed. With the kind sight of Waheguru, the devotee gets connected with the company of the holy saints (the Guru) whereby his mind becomes peaceful (quits wandering and becomes focused on Waheguru's Naam). His mind is enlightened with Waheguru's Naam, and his tongue enjoys the sweet taste of the songs of Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Rattan(u) = the jewel-like invaluable noble qualities; Waheguru's Naam. Nistaaray = salvages. Ugiyaan = ignorance. Undhayr(u) = darkness. Perchund = bright. Buliya = lighted up. Ghut(i) = in the heart. Chaanun = light; brightness. Sohaaya = became attractive. Urp(i) = to offer. Seegaar = beautification. Pur = certainly. Unk(i) = in the heart. 3.

Sa Dhun = that human bride. Kunt = husband (Waheguru). Mungul = song of happiness (Waheguru's praise which is the source of eternal happiness). Suvaari = groomed (with noble qualities). Soor(i) = gods. Nur = humans. Gun Gundherb = assistants of gods. Upoorub = unmatched; unique. Junj = marriage party. 4.

MEANING: The devotees of the dear Waheguru explore the invaluable Naam of Waheguru and His virtues, which are always present in their mind – albeit unrecognized – in the shelter of the Guru. Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's Naam) dispels the darkness of ignorance of the devotees and salvages them (severs their worldly bonds). Guru's Shabad brightly enlightens their mind because of which their minds and bodies become highly attractive (pure). They adorn themselves by offering their body and mind to Waheguru, and are loved by Him. They do just that which is approved by Waheguru, and as a result, they merge into Him, oh Nanak. 3.

Waheguru initiates the holy task of marrying the devotee (connecting him) with Him through the Guru. The human bride (the devotee), who is liked (loved) by Waheguru, is connected with Him by the grace of the Guru. Waheguru Himself adorns such a devotee who sings His praise in the company of the holy saints (with noble qualities). Gods, humans, and the assistants of gods all come to watch the holy union. Such a marriage party is unique and unmatched. I also realized the eternal Waheguru, which never dies or leaves you, oh Nanak. 4.1.3.

Word Meaning: Govind Kayray = of Waheguru. Ghunayray = very many. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Salaaheen = sing praise. Liv = meditate on. Undin(u) = everyday; all the time. Sehj(i) = in peaceful mind. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in love. Rid = in the heart. Pooja = worship. Puchhaanaiy = recognizes. Uver(u) = other. 1.

Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Untarjaami = omniscient. Ruvaiy = recites. Soami = Lord. Ghut(i) = in the heart. Soyee = that (Lord). Tis(u) = that. Bhaavaan = liked. Jaapay = is comprehended; can be connected with. 2.

MEANING: Let us join together and sing His praise, oh, the holy devotees of Waheguru. Let us stay together in the shelter of the Guru (to sing Waheguru's praise) whereby you will feel as if many, many notes of Divine music are playing in your heart (mind). We should sing many songs of Waheguru's praise, who is the creator of the universe, and who is present everywhere. I wish to recite His Naam and sing His praise day and night with full concentration of my mind. When a devotee worships Waheguru (recites His Naam) imbued in His love, he enjoys the blissfulness all the time. Also, in the shelter of the Guru, he recognizes (acknowledges) only "one" God, and no other deity, oh Nanak.1.

The omniscient Waheguru is present in everybody (invisibly). But when a devotee recites the Guru's Shabad, he "sees" the Lord, Waheguru, to be present everywhere. My omniscient Waheguru is present in every heart. The devotee realizes (connects with) Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, does not recognize any other power, and becomes absorbed in the peaceful spiritual state. If Waheguru likes (with His benevolence), I also wish to sing His praise in the peaceful spiritual state, whereby He will connect me with Him. However, Waheguru can be comprehended (can be enshrined in the heart) only when one recites His Naam day and night, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Jugo = world (sea). Dootur(u) = very difficult to swim across. Paar(i) = the far end. Untray = inside. Mumta = love for worldly things (especially children). Kaam(u) = lust. Kroadh = rage. Chuturaayee = shrewdness; over cleverness. Thaayayn Na Paayee = gets no recognition; is rejected. Birtha = without any success; waste away. Jum Mug = the path leading to the Angel of death. Choataan Khaavaiy = gets punishment. Puchhutaaya = repenting. Bayli = friend; support. Kootumb = family. Soot(u) = Poot(u) = son. Bhaayee = brother. Moh = attachment. Pusaara = spread; network. Aagaiy = next world. 3.

Daata = provider; Lord. Kin Bidh = by what means; how. Bhaayay Chulhou = follow Guru's advice. Jeevutiyaan Muriyaiy = becomes detached from worldly attraction while living in the family. Bhuoujul = the world sea. Pergaas(u) Bhuyee = became enlightened. Maaniya = got convinced; got pleased. Vudiyaayee = praise; respect. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. 4.

MEANING: The world-sea is next to impossible to swim across, and the Maya-worshipper cannot get to the far end because he has selfishness and ego, love for worldly things, lust, rage, and over-cleverness in his mind. With over cleverness (deceit) in mind, he cannot find any room in Waheguru's Court (is rejected there, i.e. his efforts are not recognized), and he wastes away his precious human life. Headed on the path leading to the Angel of Death, he suffers, gets punished, and leaves the world repenting. Without Waheguru's Naam, there is no one to support him, including his sons, his family, or his brothers. The world is simply a network of Maya and its attachments, none of which accompany him to the next world, oh Nanak. 3.

If I ask my Satguru, my Lord, about the means I can use to swim across the world sea, the answer is: Follow the advice of Satguru by which you will be detached from the worldly attractions while still living in the family; and when you stay absorbed in Waheguru's Naam following the advice of the Guru, you will be able to swim across the world-sea. However, one gets to enjoy the shelter of the Guru only with great fortune, which enables the devotee to meditate on Waheguru's Naam with full dedication. The devotee's wisdom (mind) is enlightened in Satguru's shelter, and he is convinced about the importance of Waheguru's Naam, which earns him praise (respect). The devotee connects with Waheguru through Satguru's Shabad when his soul merges with the Supreme Soul, oh Nanak. 4.1.4.

Word Meaning: Sunt Junhou = holy devotees. Trishna = appetite of desires. Boojh(i) Guyee = has been satisfied. Goon Taasay = source of virtues. Dhun(u), Dhunn(i) = great; worthy of worship. Vud Purakh = a real great soul. Shabaashay = accolades to (Him). Vigaasay = heart blooms. 1.

Sujjun(u) = friendly. Maarug = Punth(u) = path. Dusaahaan = I ask. Ghur(i) = in my heart. Chireen Vichhooniyaan = separated for a long time. Naaha = Lord. Baajhoun = without. Khuree = much. Oodeeniyaan = sad; in low spirits. Jul = water. Meen = fish. 2.

MEANING: (Luckily), I have acquired the shelter of my dear Satguru, and the appetite of all my worldly desires has been satisfied, oh, the holy devotees of the Guru. I will gladly offer my body and my mind to the service of Satguru because He is the one who connects the devotees with Waheguru, which is the source of all noble qualities. The Guru is a Great Soul, worthy of worship, and deserving of all accolades because He enlightens one's mind to connect with Waheguru. The fortunate people connect with Waheguru, and their minds bloom with blissfulness, oh Nanak. 1.

My dear and friendly Guru has appeared in my mind; I will ask Him about the path to follow to realize Waheguru. The long-separated Lord, Waheguru, comes to your heart (appears in there) when you recite Guru's Shabad with dedication. I am in very low spirits and feel like a fish out of water without You, oh Lord. 2.

Word Meaning: Dehidis(i) = in every direction. Bhermiya = wandered aimlessly. Bherm Bhoolaaya = misled by misgivings. Nit = everyday; all the time. Aasa Chitvaiy = builds hopes. Anuta = unlimited. Dhur(i) = in the ground. Dubbiya = buried. Bikh(u) = poisonous (wealth). Bhaalun = in search of. Puch(i) Puch(i) = in suffering. 3.
Soondar = handsome. Mohun(u) = mind-captivating. Baani = (with) arrows. Mun Maariya = killed desires of the mind. Soodh(i) = consciousness. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Visser(i) Guyyee = forgotten; lost track of. Assa = hopes. Chint = worries. Vaydun = pain. Daykhut = on seeing. Sadhaariya = got support. Khin(u) Khin(u) = every moment.4.
MEANING: The follower of his mind (worshipper of Maya) is misled by his misgivings, and his mind wanders aimlessly (without any spiritual gain) in every direction. His mind is always hungry for worldly attractions, and he builds new hopes every day. He may have unlimited wealth buried in the ground, but still goes in search of more wealth, which is actually a poison (for spirituality). Without Waheguru's Naam, one suffers mentally and dies spiritual death; so, you sing Waheguru's praise (recite His Naam), oh Nanak. 3. When a devotee gets (spiritually) connected with the handsome and mind-captivating Guru, his mind is pierced with the arrows of the Guru's Shabad in the love for Waheguru. When that happened to me, I lost my consciousness and my wisdom, and all my hopes and worries were forgotten. I was suffering from the pain of love for Waheguru, but my mind found great relief as soon as I saw my Guru. Waheguru appears in the mind of the highly fortunate devotees; I am a sacrifice for such Great Waheguru, every moment, oh, Nanak. 4.1.5.

Word Meaning: Maar(i) Su = kill; destroy. Vay = oh, hey. Haumein Bikhiya = poisonous selfishness and ego. Dayh = body. Kunchun = (valuable like) gold. Vigootiya = humiliated; discomfit. Moh(u) = attachment. Kaalkhaa = source of insult. Inn(i) = with it. Moorr(i) = foolish. Sujootiya = strongly connected (attracted). Oobray = salvaged. 1. Vuss(i) Aanihou = bring under control. Baasha = a bird of prey which rarely rests. Bhaundiyaan = roaming around. Raiyn(i) = night (life span). Vihaaniyaan = is spent. Nit everyday; all the time. Chaundiyaan = reciting (Waheguru's Naam). Sookh(i) Suoundiyaan = (wishing to) sleep in comfort. 2.

MEANING: Kill (get rid of) your selfishness and ego, which is a poison in the path to union with Waheguru, and does not allow you to get connected with Him, oh, my friends. The human body, which is beautiful (works perfectly) and is precious like gold, suffers humiliation because of one's haumein. The attachment to Maya is a source of disgrace (in the Court of Waheguru), but the foolish follower of his mind is strongly attached to Maya. The devotees of the Guru get salvaged with His Shabad because their haumein is eradicated with it, oh Nanak. 1.

Bring your mind under control, which takes flight like a basha, which keeps flying all the time aimlessly in search of its food. The life of the individual who has no control over his mind is spent in discomfort because he always builds new hopes (which are not always fulfilled). When one gets connected with the Guru, all his wishes are fulfilled by reciting Waheguru's Naam. I pray to God that He gives me the wisdom to let go of all my wishes so I can enjoy a good night's sleep (comfort). 2. ----------

Sa Dhun = that woman (devotee). Chit(i) = in mind. Ram Rajiya = Lord Waheguru (used just to keep the balance of the Raag). Sayjurriyaiy = on the beautiful bed. Agumm = inaccessible. Duyyaal(u) = kind. Loacha = longing. Gurmukhay = Guru's shelter. Sherdha = reverence; veneration. Vichhaayee = made. Bhaaniya = liked. 3.
Ikutt(u) = one; the same. Baiyraag(u) = deep affection. Ghoal(i) Ghoomaaya = wish to sacrifice life. Toottha = pleased to be kind. 4.
MEANING: The devotee, who wishes diligently with focussed mind for Waheguru to come to the bed of her heart, gets her wish fulfilled because the inaccessible Lord is kind and He connects the devotee with His benevolence. I have a strong longing to take shelter at the feet of the Guru (to connect me with Waheguru), and have made my heart the bed of reverence for Waheguru, oh my Royal Lord. Waheguru liked my dedication and kindly connected me with Him without any special effort on my part, oh Nanak. 3. The Guru explains to me that the devotee and Waheguru share the bed of the devotee's heart (Waheguru appears in the devotee's heart) when the Guru connects the devotee with Waheguru with His grace. My mind and my body are overwhelmed with the love-filled hope of uniting with Waheguru (and eagerly waiting) for the Guru to connect me with Him through His benevolence. I am always a sacrifice for my Guru, and have offered my heart to Him. The Guru has been pleased to be kind to me, and has connected me with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.2.6.5.7.6.18.

Word Meaning: Baavray = crazy; daft; foolish. Bhoolana = misled. Nayh(u) = love. Koorra = short-lived. Koosumbh = a pretty flower which wilts away very quickly. Udh(u) = a worthless sea (cowrie) shell. Rungaana = in love with. Mujeettha = a deep red colour that never fades. Theeveh(i) = becomes. Goolaala = a deep red flower. Cheenh(i) = by recognizing. Mithiya = false; perishable. Moh(i) = in the love of. Mugun = fully absorbed. Luptaana = cling; deeply attached. Deen = poor; powerless. Kirpa Nidh(i) = source of compassion (God). Laaj = dignity. Bhugtaana = of the devotees. 1.

Nath(u) = Lord. Praana = of life. Nihchul = permanent; for sure. Hubh(i) = all. Vaiysi = will go. Perdaysi = foreigner; visitor (the man is a visitor in the world). Bhaageen = with luck. Baiyraagi = who has renounced the world in search of God. Churn = feet (shelter). Geh(i) = hold. Shunk = doubt; hesitation. Tuj(i) = give up. Maana = ego. Bhuv Taarun = the ship to ferry across the world sea (Waheguru). Vukhaana = describe. 2.

MEANING: Why are you misled (do not see the reality) by the false attractions of the world, oh foolish man? You are attracted to, and are deeply in love with, the worldly attractions which are as short-lived as a koosumbh flower. You have forgotten Waheguru in love for the perishables, which are as worthless as a cowrie shell in Waheguru's Court. Waheguru's Naam dyes your heart with never-fading colour like that of madder; you will acquire this colour of deep love for Waheguru when you find Him sweet with Guru's Shabad. But you are fully absorbed in the love of the false worldly attractions and are deeply attached to them. I am poor (powerless), and have taken the shelter of Waheguru, which is the source of compassion, and protects the dignity of His devotees, oh Nanak. 1. Serve Waheguru, who is the Lord of our lives, and only who is immortal; everything else which comes into being is sure to die (will be destroyed), oh foolish man. For that reason, we should stay in the company of holy saints (to recite Waheguru's Naam) because everything else is sure to die, including you, who is only a visitor in this world. But Waheguru can be realized only with great luck when we stay in His shelter, oh, the ignorant man in search of Waheguru. You need to get rid of your huge ego, which you can do only in the Guru's shelter; so, surrender your mind to Him without any hesitation. What praise of Yours can a poor (having no virtue) like me, sing, oh Waheguru! You, kindly, salvage Your devotees, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Keechaiy = do. Maano = pride. Gerb(u) Goomaano = ego; pride. Mithiya = false. Daasa = slave. Jeevut Muriyaiy = kill desires while living in the family. Theevaiy = become; is there. Kerm(i) Likhiyaasa = written in fortune. Sayveejaiy = serve. Amrit Peejaiy = enjoy the taste of Naam-Amri. Sehj(i) = in the peaceful state of mind. Dhiyaano = focus of mind. Bul(i) = Koorbaano = sacrifice life. 3.

Mut(u) Jaaneh(i) = do not be under the wrong impression. Theeou = become. Rayn(u) = dust of the feet (humble). Dershun = holy sight (of the Lord). Nimaana = humble. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Soodha = pure; good. Luddha = found; made connection. Vaychaaya = sold; gave up all rights. Upnaaya = Yours. 4.

MEANING: What are you conceited about, oh the foolish man? All those things which you are conceited about are perishable (and nothing will accompany you after death), and all your pride will be shattered. Everything that you think is permanent will get destroyed, so all your pride is short-lived; therefore, one should be a slave (devotee) of Waheguru and His holy saints. If one has good fortune prewritten for him (by Waheguru), he kills his worldly desires while living in the family, and swims across the world-sea. The devotee, whom Waheguru puts in the service of the Guru, drinks the Amrit of His Naam, and attains the spiritual state above the effects of Maya. I have sought the shelter of Waheguru, and am always a sacrifice for Him, oh Nanak. 3.

Do not ever think that you have realized Waheguru, oh, foolish man. (If you wish to realize God), be humble like the dust of the feet of the devotees who have worshipped Waheguru oh foolish man. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam stay blissful; only the fortunate people get to have their holy sight (come to their shelter). One should kill his selfishness and ego to be humble, and should always be ready to offer his life (in the service of the holy saints). Those who get connected with Waheguru are highly fortunate; I am completely sold to them (have given up all my rights to them). I am poor (have no virtue), and have come to the shelter of the source of all comforts (Waheguru), who protects the dignity of His devotees (saves them from the attacks of Maya), oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Churn Kumul = lotus-like feet (words of reverence). Tayk = shelter. Toos(i) = pleased to be kind. Bhundaar = treasures. Tis = His. Baabul(u) = father (God). Sumrutha = capable; omnipotent. Kern Kaarun-Haara = creator of everything. Bhuoujul(u) = the world-sea. Paar(i) Ootaara = ferries across. Aad(i) = from the very beginning. Joogaad(i) = beginning of the eons. Raakha = protector; guard. Oostut(i) = praise. Jeevaan = stay alive. 1.
Vichhorra = separation. Theevyee = happen; take place. Tay = from. Sirjunhaara = the Creator. Khaali = without. Mungul = song of happiness (source of blissfulness). Suful(u) = rewarding. Ders(u) = holy sight. Bhaytiya = got connected. 2.
MEANING: My Satguru was pleased to be kind to me, and provided me the shelter of Waheguru, who has feet soft like a lotus flower (just an expression of love and reverence). There is everything in the treasures of Waheguru, which are full of His Naam-Amrit; I am always a sacrifice for Him. My father (Waheguru) is fully capable of doing everything (is omnipotent) and is capable of creating the universe. One does not suffer from anything by reciting His Naam, and is salvaged. I live (spiritually) by singing His praise, which has been the guard (protector) of His devotees ever since the beginning, and from the beginning of the eons. Waheguru's Naam is highly tasteful (sweet), and I drink this Amrit with my body and my mind all the time, oh Nanak. 1.

I am a sacrifice to Waheguru, which connects His devotees with Him on His own, and once connected, the devotees do not suffer separation from Him. The devotee, who has Your support, lives forever (becomes immortal by merging with You), oh Waheguru. One gets Your support (shelter) by Your grace, oh the eternal Creator, Waheguru. My God is such that no one is without Him (He is present in everyone). Your holy saints have faith in Your support and sing Your praise day and night, which is the source of bliss for them, oh Lord. I am always a sacrifice for my Perfect Guru whose holy sight is richly rewarding (as it connects one with Waheguru), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sumliya = remembered; acquired. Such(u) Thaan(u) = immortal state. Maan Meht = respect. Sach(u) = everlasting. Duyyal(u) = benevolent; munificent. Goon = source of all virtues. Abinaashi = immortal. Praan Preetum = dearer than life. Soamiya = Lord. Shoobh Divus = auspicious (lucky) days. Geh(i) = by holding. Kuntth Laayay = embraced to the neck. Untarjaamiya = omniscient (God). Sat(u) = service to mankind; high moral character. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Vaajay = musical instruments. Unhuda = the auto-playing Divine music. Jhoonkaaray = in sweet low notes. Bhaiy = worldly fears. Binaasay = got destroyed. Kernaiyhaaray = the Creator. 3. Oopjiya = came into being. Tut(u) Giyaan = knowledge of the origin (Waheguru). Saahooray = in-law's home (the next world). Payiyaiy = parental home (this world). Brahmaiy = human soul. Braham = the Supreme Soul. Bhinn Kur(i) = separate. Bism = mesmerizing (Waheguru). Paykhaiy = sees. Sooniyaiy = listens. Bismaad(u) = mind-captivating Waheguru. Muhhiul(i) = in the sky. Poorun = filling completely. Ghut(i), Ghut(i) = in every heart. Smaaya = present. Chulut = mind-captivating dramas. Lukhnay = see; comprehend; describe.

MEANING: I am a sacrifice for my Lord, reciting whose Naam, I acquired the everlasting high spiritual state, which earned me respect. I was connected with the benevolent Satguru, in whose shelter I sang the praises of the immortal Waheguru. I sing praise of Waheguru, who is dear to me like my own life, as a result of which, my lucky days arrived, and I got connected with my omniscient Waheguru, who held me to His neck to hug me. I began to feel as if a soft, sweet Divine music of contentment and service to mankind was playing in my mind. Listening to this Music, all my worldly fears were eradicated with the grace of the Creator, Waheguru, oh Nanak. 3.

I am a sacrifice for my Waheguru by whose grace Divine Knowledge enlightened my mind, and I realized that the same Waheguru was present in this and the next world. My soul (or any devotee's soul for that matter) merged into the Supreme Soul, and nobody can tell the two apart. I saw the mesmerizing Waheguru, heard Him, and felt Him to be present in everybody on the land, in the waters, and in the sky. The devotee merges into the same Waheguru which had created him, and nobody can tell the worth (transcendence) of such a devotee. I sing praise of Waheguru, whose amazing dramas cannot be comprehended, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Rung(i) = in love. Bherm = misbeliefs. Kaaj = deeds; objectives. Suvaariya = completed successfully. Servun = ears. Sehj(i) = peaceful state. Smaani = leads to absorption. Bivunt(i) = requests. Jeeo = life; mind; soul. Pind(u) = body. 1. Unhut Shabad = auto-playing Divine Music. Soohaava = comforting. Mungul(u) = song of joy (praise of Waheguru). Rehus(u) = blooming of heart. Oopjaiy = is produced. Ghunna = immense. Bhunaa = utter; chant. Rayn = dust of feet (humbleness). Araadhoo = worship; recite (Naam). Bhaavaan = be liked. Duyya Dhaarou = be kind. 2.

MEANING: Those lucky devotees who get connected with the Guru (surrender their mind to the Guru), begin to sing Waheguru's praise, and stay alert (against the attacks of sensual desires) day and night in Waheguru's love, as a result of which all their sins run away. By taking shelter of the Guru, all their misgivings are removed while their objectives are achieved successfully. The fortunate devotees recite Waheguru's Naam, and listen to Guru's Bani (Shabad) as a result of which they get absorbed in Waheguru (His Naam) in the peaceful state of mind (high spiritual state). I pray respectfully to Waheguru that He provides His shelter to me, and I offer my mind and body to Him, oh Nanak. 1. When a devotee sings Waheguru's praise, he feels as if he is listening to the comforting auto-playing Divine Music in his mind. His heart blooms immensely, and all his sufferings are destroyed. When a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam with his tongue, his body and mind get purified, and he is able to have a holy sight of the Lord. But all this happens when one becomes humble and serves the Guru by reciting Waheguru's Naam so that he is loved by the Lord. I humbly request that Waheguru be kind to me so that I may sing His praise at all times, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Saagur(u) = the sea of Maya. Turiya = swam across = salvaged = nisturiya. Hur(i) Churn = Waheguru's Naam. Mitay = is eradicated. Aavun Jaana = birth and death. Bhaayay = love. Soobhaayay = with love; with the spirit of (dedication). Alukh = invisible. Apaar = limitless. Poorun = perfect; omnipresent. Tis(u) = Him. Khoya = eradicated. Jut = where. Tut = there. 3.

Putit = immoral; filthy. Paavun = pure; holy. Poorun = successful. Kaama = objectives. Ichhaan = wishes. Poonniyaan = fulfilled. Huoun = haumein = selfishness and ego. Taap = diseases; suffering. Binsay = destroyed. Sursay = blissful. Chireen Vichhoonniyaan = separated for a long time. Shaant(i) = peace. Vujji Vudhaayee = in high spirits. Veesray = dropped; forgotten. Drirraaya = reinforced. Bhuj(u) = recite Naam. Jugdeeshraiy = Lord of the world (Waheguru).

MEANING: When a devotee is connected with the Guru, and recites Waheguru's Naam in His shelter, he swims across the world-sea, and is salvaged. By reciting Waheguru's Naam, the devotee reaps all the desired rewards, and the cycle of his rebirths and deaths is terminated. I also wish to recite Waheguru's Naam with love and dedication so that He may love me. One should worship only Waheguru, which is invisible, limitless, and omnipresent, and because there is none other like Him. I respectfully submit that my Guru has cleared all my misgivings, and now I find Waheguru wherever I look, oh Nanak. 3. Waheguru's Naam purifies even the immoral, and all the tasks that the Guru undertakes are perfect. When a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, all his wishes are fulfilled. His disease (suffering from) haumein is eradicated, he always feels healthy and blissful, and gets connected with the long-separated Waheguru.

His mind becomes peaceful, he feels in high spirits, and never forgets Waheguru. I submit humbly that Satguru reiterates that the man should recite the Lord's Naam all the time, oh Nanak. 4.1.3.

Maana = enjoy. Daaseh Daasi = slave of slaves. Maulaiy = blooms. Huriya = comes to life; rejuvenates. Bhaavun = wish; liking. 2.

MEANING: You are the Lord of the baiyraagis, and You have countless disciples like me, oh Waheguru. You are the ocean of countless jewel-like, invaluable, noble qualities; I have no knowledge of Your worth. I cannot measure Your worth; You are a great Provider, please be kind to me. Kindly give me the wisdom with which I may recite Your Naam all twenty-four hours. (Upon my request, I am given the advice): Quit your ego, and be humble like the dust of the feet of holy saints; only then will you attain the high spiritual level. My Lord is the highest (in transcendence) above all, and there are countless disciples of His like me, oh Nanak. 1.

You are like that pearl, extremely valuable, unfathomable, and never changing (staying uniform), oh Waheguru. You are the husband (Lord), whereas I am your wife (slave/devotee). (Being the Lord of the universe), You are huge in size and higher and higher (in transcendence), whereas I am very tiny and low (in virtues). I am a non-entity, and You are the only Supreme Being, and You are perfectly wise and know-all, oh Waheguru. I survive (spiritually) with a short glimpse of Yours because of which I enjoy the taste of all the luxuries of life. I am in Your shelter, and my mind blooms, and my body acquires fresh life (rejuvenates) when I serve Your slaves (devotees). Waheguru is omnipresent, and He does as He pleases, oh Nanak. 2.

Suful = successful. Pervaana = approved. Amoali = priceless. Bhaara Toali = high in spirituality. Mookt = emancipation. Joogt(i) = techniques; path. Khohla = opened. Nirbhuou = fearless. 4.

MEANING: You are my pride, and You are the force behind me. I have no wisdom of my own; my ability to concentrate (on Your Naam), my wisdom, and my intelligence are all given by You (You are the source of all these), and I realize them when You enlighten me. Only that devotee understands and recognizes those on whom the Creator (Waheguru) casts His kind sight. The mind of the Maya-engrossed individual is scattered in many directions as a result of which, he is completely misled and is trapped in the net of Maya. The devotee, who is liked by the Lord, is the one who is truly full of virtues and who is enabled to enjoy all the luxuries of life. Waheguru is my support and my pride, oh Nanak. 3.

You are my huge shelter like a mountain; I wish to sacrifice my life for You, oh Waheguru. I want to sacrifice my life millions of times for my Lord, who has removed the curtain of my misbeliefs. My mind has been convinced (pleased) with Waheguru's affection, all the darkness of my ignorance has been removed, and I have given up all my immoral acts. Loved by Waheguru, I have become completely free of all obligations (I do not owe anybody anything). My deeds have been approved by Waheguru, making my life successful. My life has become priceless; I have become rich in noble qualities, and the door to the path of emancipation has been opened for me. Word Meaning: Saajun = friendly. Purakh Poora = a manifestation of the omnipresent Waheguru. Soot = sons. Bundhup = relatives. Mun Bhaana = favourite. Jeeo = life; soul. Pind(u) = body. Bhurpooray = overflowing. Untarjaami = omniscient. Kuliyaana = wellbeing. Bulihaaraiy = Koorbaana = wish to sacrifice. 1.

Jaapaiy = is recognized; appears (in mind). Kilvikh = sins. Ootreh(i) = come off; removed. Sunt Dhoorri = dust of the feet of the Guru (His Shabad). Naapaiy = take dip in. Bahoorr(i) = again. Joan = in life forms. Bherm = misgivings. Bhuou = fears. Mun Chindiya = desired. Soag(u) = grief. Suntaapaiy = tortures. Pertaapaiy = grandeur, majesty. 2.

MEANING: My Satgur is very friendly, and is a manifestation of the omnipresent Waheguru; I do not recognize anybody other than Him. He is my favourite, and is dear to me like my mother, father, brothers, sons, close relatives, and my own life. My life and my body are given by Him, and He is overflowing with noble qualities. My God is omnipresent and omniscient. One gets all the comforts in His shelter and enjoys all well-being. I am always a sacrifice for my Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.

With great fortune, one gets connected with the Guru in whose shelter (with whose guidance) one achieves union with Waheguru. When a devotee takes a dip in the dust of the Feet of the Guru (serves Him with full devotion by following His advice), all his sins of many, many lives are washed away. When a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, all his misgivings and his fears run away; all his wishes are fulfilled, and he is never born again in any life form. The devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam and sings His praise, is never tortured by any grief. Waheguru is the Lord of our life and His Majesty is Perfect, oh Nanak. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Goon-Nidhay = treasure of virtues. Vuss(i) = in control. Tinhi = those. Perm Pud(u) = supreme spiritual state (union with God). Aap(u) Mitaaya = eradicate one's selfishness and ego. Poorun = perfect; omnipresent. Suful(u) = successful. Bhaytiya = got connected with. Mooraari = a name for God. Mail(u) Leeya = connected with. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. Nirunjun = unaffected by Maya. 3. Mungulo = song of joy (Waheguru's praise). Junhou = devotees. Poonni = fulfilled. Ichh = wishes. Subaayee = all. Rung(i) Ruttay = imbued in love. Sayti = with. Abinaashi = immortal. Munoruth = objectives. Shaant(i) = peaceful = Sehj. Aanund = blissfulness. Ghunayray = immense. Thaan Thanuntur(i) = everywhere. Saayee = the same. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru, which is the ocean of all virtues, comes under the control of His devotees (He listens to them, and fulfils all their wishes). Those who come to the shelter of the Guru and serve Him attain the supreme spiritual state. With the benevolence of the Perfect Waheguru, the devotee gets rid of his selfishness and ego and attains the supreme spiritual state. All fears of such a devotee run away (are removed), and he achieves his objective of life successfully when he gets connected with the sole Supreme Being, Waheguru. Such a devotee gets connected to, and by Waheguru, to whom he belonged, and his soul merges with the Supreme Soul. We should recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, in the shelter of the Guru, and we will enjoy all the comforts, oh Nanak. 3.
Imbued in His love, sing praise all the time of the Lord, who is the source of all joy (bliss), and who never dies or leaves you, oh the devotees of Waheguru, as all your wishes have been fulfilled (by union with Him). When a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam, he acquires the immortal Waheguru in his mind, and all his objectives are achieved successfully. When a devotee focuses his mind on the Feet (Shabad) of the Guru, he attains the high spiritual state, peace of mind, and extreme blissfulness. The immortal Waheguru is present in every heart and everywhere. When a devotee focuses his mind on the Guru's Shabad, all his objectives are achieved successfully, oh Nanak. 4.2.5.

Word Meaning: Naytur = eyes. Ders(u) = holy sight. Laakh = millions. Jihva = tongues. Jum Punth = path leading to the Angel of death. Saadhay = fix; to correct. Viyaapaiy = affect; torture. Muhhiul(i) = (in the) sky. Soyee = the same. Bikaar = immoral urges and acts. Naatthay = ran away. Nayra = close by. 1.

Koat(i) = ten million; countless. Kern = ears. Abinaashi = immortal. Nirml(u) = pure; pious. Kaal = death. Phaansi = noose; lasso. Soogiyaana = Divine Knowledge. Sehj(i) = in the high spiritual state. Kulmul = sins. Jaaray = burned; destroyed. Chitaaray = thinking about. Doormut(i) = evil thinking. 2.

MEANING: Please, be kind to me so that I may "see" You with my eyes, oh my dear Waheguru, and give me millions of tongues so that I may recite Your Naam with them. When one worships Waheguru, he is able to fix (correct) his wrong path leading to the Angel of death, as a result of which, no suffering ever affects him. Also, all his misgivings, fears, and his immoral thoughts (or acts) disappear, and he begins to see Waheguru present everywhere he looks - on the land, in the waters, and in the sky – and he finds that Waheguru is much closer than he had ever imagined. Please, be kind to me, Nanak, so that I may see You with my eyes, oh dear Waheguru. 1.

Give me millions of ears so that I may listen to Your praise, oh my dear and immortal God, so that my mind is purified, and the noose of the Angel of death is severed. The noose of one's death is severed, he feels blissful, and acquires Divine Knowledge when he recites the Naam of the immortal Waheguru. We should recite Waheguru's Naam day and night with a fully focused mind. When one keeps Waheguru in mind, the suffering caused by his sins is destroyed, and his evil thoughts are eradicated. I pray that Waheguru becomes kind to me so that I may listen to His virtues (praise), oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: I wish I had millions of hands to serve you, and wish that my feet walked on the path which connects with You, oh my Waheguru. Service to Waheguru is the boat, on which one is ferried across the world sea. One swims across the sea of Maya by reciting Waheguru's Naam and achieves all his objectives successfully. His highly immoral thoughts (and acts) get destroyed, and comforts appear there to replace them; and one feels as if a uniform Divine Music is playing in his mind. All his desires are fulfilled, but no one can find the worth of Waheguru's secrets. I pray to Waheguru that He becomes so kind to me that my feet tread the path which leads to union with Him, oh Nanak. 3.
(The ability to walk on the path leading to union with Waheguru) is the true blessing, great respect, and the real wealth for a devotee who has great luck. Attachment with Waheguru's Feet (Shabad in His praise), and focus on that, is the real enjoyment of all luxuries of life for a devotee. Waheguru is the creator of all the basic materials in the creation of the universe, and I have sought His shelter, as a result of which, my mind has been attached to His Feet (Naam). Everything has been created by You, and You are very kind to the poor, and You are mine too, oh my Lord. My mind has been enlightened by the benevolence of the Guru, whereby I have realized that I have no noble quality whereas Waheguru is the ocean of all comforts. Sehj Kutha = the story (description of virtues) of Waheguru which leads to the high spiritual state. Ut(i) = extreme. Kuthi = described. Akuth = indescribable. Sunjog = auspicious time (of union). Moorut(u) = Pul = moment. Abichul = everylasting. Neev = foundation. Bhuyyay = became. Kulaa = powers; art. 1.

Anunda = blissfulness. Vujeh(i) = play. Vaajay = musical instruments. Voottha = came to dwell; appeared. Gurmukhay = as per the advice of the Guru. Kurni = deeds. Saari = supreme. Binsay = destroyed. Bherm = misgivings. Bhaiy = fears. Jhoottha = falsehood. Unhud Bani = Divine Shabad. Huriya = comes to life; rejuvenates. Bun Aayay = became possible; are completed. Nuvnidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures of the world. Rung(u) = love; affection. Vissraiy = forgotten. Poorun = perfect. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru has created the human body as a temple for His worship. The holy saints and the devotees sing Waheguru's praise in human bodies. They get rid of their sins by reciting Waheguru's Naam repeatedly. They attain the supreme spiritual state by singing Waheguru's praise with His superior Bani (Satguru's words of praise for Waheguru). When they describe the story of the noble qualities of Waheguru and His splendour, which cannot be fully described, they find it to be very sweet (blissful). That time, that moment, is highly auspicious when they lay the foundation for a permanent union with Waheguru (attain the high spiritual state leading to that union). When Waheguru becomes kind, all the arts (techniques) to achieve union with Him work in unison (together). 1.

When Waheguru is embedded in a devotee's heart, he feels as if blissful divine music is always playing in his heart (ears). All his deeds of noble performance, according to the advice of the Guru to worship Waheguru, are approved as being supreme, and all his misgivings and his fears are eradicated as being false. He listens to the Divine Shabad of the Guru in His shelter, because of which, he attains new spiritual life. But only those devotees enjoy such comforts (blissfulness), whom Waheguru makes His own (approves as His beloveds). With his mind imbued in the love of Waheguru, the devotee feels as if he owns all the nine worldly treasures. Those who never forget Waheguru are highly fortunate, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: When the Emperor Waheguru provides His shelter to a devotee, all the fire (suffering) of his desires is destroyed. The root of his suffering due to his sins is destroyed, and his objectives are achieved successfully. With Waheguru's orders (Huqam), his trouble is eradicated, and truthfulness, morality, and noble deeds flourish in the mind of the devotee. We should remember our Lord (keep Him in mind) at all times, whether we are standing, sitting, or even sleeping. The source of all virtues, and the ocean of all comforts, Waheguru, is present everywhere – in the waters, on the land, and in the sky. I have come to His shelter as there is none other than Him in this world, oh Nanak. 3. After touching the holy feet of the Royal Waheguru (having surrendered to Him) my body has become the forest (disconnected with Maya, I do not need to go to some forest to search for Waheguru), and my heart has become the pool (source) of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit (I do not need to go to some holy place for a dip). By singing praise of Waheguru, my mind has been adorned with noble qualities, and all my senses feel blissful (they are fully content now). By singing Waheguru's praise and reciting His Naam, all my wishes have been fulfilled. My mind has become alert (has been enlightened) against the attacks of Maya for good, and I feel in high spirits (enjoy blissfulness). My Lord, who delivers all comforts, cast a kind sight on me, and made this and the next world successful for me. I submit humbly that we should always recite the Naam of the Lord, which supports our life and body, oh Nanak. 4.4.7.

Word Meaning: Bhaiy Saagro = the world sea. Bohithrra = a pretty ship. Churn = Feet (Naam). Paar(i) Lunghaayay = ferried across. Buhoourr(i) = again. Chookay = ended. Bhul = for my good. Roag(u) = disease. Sookh Saagur = the ocean of comforts (Waheguru). Rung(i) Raata = imbued in love. Chint = worries. Mitaayay = eradicate. 1. Muntar(u) = Shabad (Naam). Drirraaya = reinforced. Vusgut(i) Keenay = controlled over. Serbus(u) = everything. Daasi = slave. Oodaasi = sadness; misery. Mundar(i) = (in the) Palace. Thit(i) = stability; peace. Anund = blissfulness. Binod = entertainment; cheerfulness; exuberance. Kubhoon Na = never. Sohaagun(i) = married; connected with Waheguru. Cheenay = recognized. Ruveh(i) = recite Naam. Bheenay = imbued. 2.

MEANING: One swims across the frightening world sea by reciting Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru's Feet (His Naam) are the ship to ferry across the world-sea; whoever recites the Naam in Satguru's shelter is ferried across. One swims across the world sea with Guru's Shabad when his birth-death cycle gets terminated, and he never dies again. When I gladly accept whatever Waheguru does, my mind attains a high spiritual state. When one takes the shelter of (surrenders his mind to) Waheguru, which is the ocean (source) of all comforts, no trouble, no appetite (for the worldly attractions), or no ailment can affect him. Imbued in His love, when a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam, all his worries are eradicated, oh Nanak. 1.

The holy saints reinforce (recite it again and again) Waheguru's Naam in their mind, as a result of which, they are able to control Waheguru as their friend (get any and all their wishes fulfilled). When they offer their pure mind to Waheguru, He gifts everything to them. When Waheguru accepts an individual as His slave (devotee), all his misery is eradicated, and his mind becomes peaceful (quits wandering aimlessly) in Waheguru's Palace (he gets connected with the Lord). When one remembers the eternal Waheguru, he enjoys bliss and cheerfulness (all the luxuries of life), and Waheguru never leaves him (disconnects from him). The human bride, who recognizes the importance of the virtues of Waheguru (sings His praise all the time), is highly fortunate and stays married to the Lord (connected with Him) forever. Imbued in the love and the sweet taste of His Naam, such devotees recite Waheguru's Naam all the time, oh Nanak. 2.

(PAGE 783): Paykh(i) Dershun(u) Nanak bigsay, Aap(i) luyyay milaayay. 4.5.8.

Word Meaning: Bhuyyay = happened; became. Sukhiyay = oh, my friend. Mungul = joy. Apunrraiy = my (our) own. Sheengaari = adorned (with noble qualities). Sobhavunti = praiseworthy; respected. Naaray = oh human bride. Sehj Soobhaayay = without any expectation. Uvgun = demerits. Kuntth(i) = with the neck. Jun = devotees. Oor(i) Dhaariya = embedded in mind. Mud = intoxication. Sugul = all. Biyaapi = affecting. Nivaaray = remove; eradicate. Bhaiy Saagur = the world sea. Poorun Kaaj = getting deeds to be successful. 3. Munoruth = objectives. Anayk Ruvviya = present in countless forms. Mundul = galaxies. Chhaaya = is pervading; providing support. Brahamo = only Braham (Waheguru). Pusaara = spread; extension. Poor(i) = is filling. Poorun = Perfect; omnipresent. Jaayay = place. 4.

MEANING: The devotee, whom Waheguru grooms Himself with noble qualities, earns praise, and enjoys blissfulness and happiness, and stays in high spirits, oh my friends. Without any expectation on the part of such a devotee, Waheguru becomes munificent to him and disregards his merits and demerits. The devotee enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart, and Waheguru embraces him tightly, making him His own (he becomes "one" with Waheguru). The intoxication of any pride and worldly attachments, which had been impacting the devotee, is destroyed by Waheguru. With Waheguru's benevolence, I, too, have swum across the world sea, and all my objectives have been achieved, oh Nanak. 3. Sing praise of Waheguru all the time, whereby all your objectives will be achieved, oh, my friend. One's life becomes successful (he achieves union with God) when he recites Ekunkar (Waheguru's Naam) in the shelter of the Guru. Recite the Naam of the Waheguru, which is present in countless forms, and which is providing His support to the whole universe. When you do that, you will see that it is Waheguru present everywhere, and the whole universe is His own extension. He is fully pervading the waters, the land, and the sky, and there is no place without Him. My heart blooms to have a glimpse of Him, and He Himself connects His devotees with Him, oh Nanak. 4.5.8.

Word Meaning: Abichul = never moving; eternal. Nugur(u) = city; dwelling; gathering of holy saints. Ichhay = wished. Kertaiy = the Creator (God). Vusaaya = laid foundation. Poot = sons. Bhaayee = brothers. Bigaasay = their hearts blossomed (felt blissful).

Kaaruj = objective. Aaaya Raasay = achieved successfully. Rukha = guardian. Maaya = mother. Thaan(u) = heart. Sohaaya = made attractive (purified). 1.
Mundar = mansions. Hutnaalay = bazaars; cities. Sohay = get purified. Abinaashi = immortal. Smugree = needed materials (noble qualities). Maaneh(i) Ruliyaan = enjoy luxuries; spiritual blissfulness. Durd = pain; suffering. Bherm = misgivings. Naasi = ran away; were removed. Suvaaray = adorned (with noble qualities). 2.
MEANING: The gathering of holy saints (where Waheguru resides, and which is the true mint where the minds of the Sikhs are moulded in spirituality) is eternal, and one enjoys all comforts by reciting Waheguru's Naam there. Waheguru Himself has laid the foundation for such a gathering, and one gets all his wishes fulfilled there. One achieves all comforts in such a gathering, and all the Sikhs, who are like the sons and the brothers of the holy saints, have their hearts bloom in the high spiritual state. They sing praise of Waheguru in there, and their objective in life (union with God) is achieved. Waheguru, Himself is the Lord, the Guardian, the father, and the mother of his devotees; I am a sacrifice for my Satguru who adorns (blesses) such gatherings, oh Nanak. 1.
All the houses, the palaces, and the bazaars (all parts) of the city of the holy gatherings are purified (only honesty prevails there and Waheguru's Naam is recited) in which Waheguru resides. The holy saints and the devotees recite the Naam of the eternal Waheguru there, whereby the noose of death is cut off for them. All the needed virtues to cut away the noose are acquired by the saints and the devotees, and they reap their desired rewards. They enjoy all the spiritual luxuries, and all their sufferings, discomforts, and misgivings are removed. I am always a sacrifice for my Perfect Satguru who adorns them (purifies their minds) with His Shabad, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Daat(i) = largess (of Naam). Khusm = Lord. Churraiy Suvaayee = increases in multiples. Khusmaana Keeya = played the role of the Lord. Vudiyaayee = greatness; grandeur. Aad(i) = from the very beginning. Joogaad(i) = from the beginning of the eons. Bhuyya = became. Jea Junt = all living beings. Sookhi Vusaayay = made life comfortable. Pritpaala = raising and nurturing. Deh Dis = in all the ten directions. Jus(u) = praise. Abichul = eternal. Neev Rukhaayee = laid foundation. 3.
Dhiyaan = concentration. Kutha = story; description of virtues. Unhud = divine. Choaj = amazing dramas. Bhuv-Bhunjun = destroyer of the birth-death cycle. Dhooniyaiy = musical notes. Jhoonkaaray = soft and sweet musical notes. Tut(u) = the root; God.

Gosht(i) = discussions. Mail(u) = filth. Kilvikh = sins. Khovaiy = lose; get rid of. Aavun Jaana = taking birth, and dying. Buhourr(i) = again. Jooniyaiy = life forms. 4.
MEANING: The gift of the Lord (His Naam) gets completed (when Waheguru takes dwelling in a devotee's heart), and this gift increases in multiples (when shared with others). Waheguru, whose greatness is unparalleled, fulfills His responsibility as the Lord (by taking residence in a devotee's heart). Waheguru, who is the guardian of His devotees ever since the beginning of the universe and of the eons, becomes kind and raises and nourishes His living beings, because of which all of them live happily. The praise of Waheguru is sung in each of the ten directions (everywhere), which cannot be measured for its worth. I am a sacrifice for my Satguru (Waheguru), who laid the foundation of his immortal worship in holy gatherings. 3.
One should listen to the stories of the omnipresent Waheguru's virtues (the description of His amazing dramas and His compassion) every day to acquire Divine Knowledge (make a connection with Him) by focusing the mind on His Naam. When one focuses one's mind on the Naam of Waheguru, which is the destroyer of the birth-death cycle of His devotees, and which performs countless Divine dramas, one feels as if one is listening to a uniform and sweet Divine music. When one contemplates Waheguru's Naam and has discussions with holy saints (to get his misgivings clarified), he feels like listening to soft and sweet Divine music. Recitation of Waheguru's Naam removes all one's filth of ignoble thoughts, and all his sins are washed away. His birth-and-death cycle is terminated, and he never takes birth in any life form again. I have realized the Guru, which is a manifestation of God, and all my wishes have been fulfilled, oh Nanak. 4.6.9.

Word Meaning: Kaaruj = task; objective. Khloyaa = provided support. Dhert = body. Taal = heart. Chhaaya = became dominant. Saaj = preparation. Munoruth = objectives. Jai Jaikaar = accolades. Laathay = came off; removed. Visooray = worries. Poorun Purakh = Perfect (omnipresent) Waheguru. Achoot = Abinaashi = immortal. Vayd = the Vedas. Pooraani = the Puranas. Bird(u) = the innate noble quality (of love for His devotees). 1. Nuv Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Sidh(i) Ridh(i) = the supernatural powers. Toat(i) = shortage. Kaayee = any; none. Khaat = using. Khurchut = sharing. Bilchhit = enjoying. Suvaayee = increasing in multiples. Nikhoot(u) = run out. Untarjaami = omniscient. Koat(i) = millions. Bighun = obstacles. Ootth(i) Naatthay = run away. Shaant(i) = peacefulness. Sehj = stability (non-wavering) of mind. Anund = blissfulness. Ghunayray = immense. Binsee = is destroyed. Subaayee = all. Achurj = amazing. 2.
MEANING: Waheguru, Himself, appears to provide support and complete the tasks of His holy saints. He adorns the ground of the body of His holy saints with noble qualities and purifies it, and fills their adorned (purified) pool of heart with the Amrit of His Naam when all the preparations on the part of the holy saints (to purify their hearts by reciting Waheguru's Naam) result in the achievement of all their objectives. All their worries disappear, and the whole world praises them. The eternal Waheguru, which is Perfect in every way, and whose praise is sung by the Vedas and the Puranas, exhibits His innate virtue of loving His devotees (to connect them with Him). I, too, recite His Naam, oh Nanak. 1.
The Creator grants all nine treasures and the supernatural powers to His devotees, who never experience any shortage of them. Actually, they (the treasures) increase in multiples when the holy saints use them, share them with others, and enjoy them. (Any devotee, in whose heart the holy saints implant Waheguru's Naam, also acquires these gifts). When a devotee gets connected with the omniscient Waheguru by reciting His Naam, the gifts increase many times, and they never run out. Millions of impediments (like the attractions of Maya in their path to connect with Waheguru) are eradicated, and no trouble even comes near them. They attain the peaceful state of spirituality, and enjoy immense blissfulness, and all their appetite for worldly attractions is destroyed. I sing praise of the Lord which has amazing splendour, oh Nanak. 2.

Binvunt(i) Nanak ichh poonni, paaykh(i) dershun(u) jeejaiy. 4.7.10.

Word Meaning: Maanus = man. Vaychaara = poor; helpless. Sohun(i) = look exalted; majestic. Sung Bunee = make bond with holy saints. Oodum(u) = take initiative. Taal Kayra = (to implant Waheguru's Naam in the) pool (of heart). Oopma = praise. Chaara = efforts. Putit Paavun(u) = to purify the immoral. Adhaara = basis; support. 3. Goon-Nidhaan = ocean of virtues. Oostut(i) = full praise. Muhaa Rus(u) = great tasting. Bissur(u) = forget. Khino = moment. Oochur(u) = chant; recite. Rusna = tongue. Undino = everyday; all the time. Sayti = with. Bheejaiy = drench with; get imbued with. Ichh Poonni = wish fulfilled. 4.

MEANING: Only Waheguru is capable (of connecting His devotees with Him) while the poor man has no such ability, and it is Waheguru which completes this task for his devotees. The devotees look exalted because of their singing Waheguru's praise, and they always hail Waheguru. They acquire blissfulness by singing Waheguru's praise, and they make a strong bond with the gathering of holy saints. Who can sing praise of the devotees who take the initiative to have a pool of their heart filled with Waheguru's Naam-Amrit? Their efforts (high morality and recitation of Waheguru's Naam) are much purer than all the prevalent noble deeds and the dip of the sixty-eight holy places. It is the innate kindness of God to purify even the immoral; Guru's Shabad is the basis of my life, oh Nanak. 3.

My Creator God is the treasure of all virtues; who can sing His praise in full? His saints request Him for the gift of His great-tasting Naam. They pray that He give His Naam as a gift to them, and that He should not be forgotten for even a short moment. We should recite Waheguru's virtues all the time, and sing His praise with our tongue. The devotee, who fosters love for Waheguru's Naam, gets imbued in its Amrit by body and by mind. I submit humbly that my wish has been fulfilled (of embedding Waheguru's Naam in my heart), and His holy sight has become the basis of my life, oh Nanak. 4.7.10.

Raag(u) Suhi Mehla 5, Chhunt: Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i). Mitthboalrra Ji, Hur(i) sujjun(u) Soami mora. Huoun summul(i) thukki Ji, oh(u) kuday na boalay kaura. Kaurra boal(i) na jaanaiy, Poorun Bugvaanaiy, aougun ko na chitaaray. Putit paavun(u) Hur(i) bird(u) sudaayay, ikk(u) til(u) nuhee bhunnaiy ghaalay. Ghut, ghut vaasi, serb nivaasi, nayraiy hee tay nayra. Nanak daas sudaa shernaagut(i), Hur(i) Amrit sujjun(u) mayra. 1. Huoun bism(u) bhuyyee Ji, Hur(i) dershun(u) daykh(i) Apaara. Mayra soondar(u) Soami Ji, huoun Churn Kumul pug chhaara. Prubh(u) paykhut jeevaan, tthundhi theevaan, Tis(u) jayvud uver(u) na koyee. Aad(i), unt(i), mudh(i) Prubh ruvviya, jul(i), thul(i), muhhiul(i) Soyee. Churn Kumul jup(i) Saagur(u) turiya, bhuvjul ootray paara. Nanak shern(i) Poorun(u) Permayshur, Tayra unt(u) na paaravaara. 2. -------

Word Meaning: Mitthboalrra = sweet-talking; polite. Mora = mine. Summul(i) = recall. Thukki = to exhaustion. Kaurra = bitter; impolite. Aougun = ignoble qualities; demerits. Chitaaray = keep in mind; consider. Putit Paavun(u) = purifier of the immoral. Bird(u) = innate quality. Til(u) Na = not even the size of a sesame seed. Bhunnaiy = not reward. Ghaalay = hard labour. Vaasi = resident = Nivaasi. Nayra = close by. 1.
Bism(u) = mesmerized. Apaara = (of the) limitless. Pug = feet. Chhaara = dust. Paykhut = to see. Tthundi = calm; peaceful. Theevaan = I become. Jayvud = as great. Aad(i) = the beginning. Unt(i) = at the end. Mudh(i) = in the middle. Ruvviya = is present. Bhuvjul = the world sea. Ootray Paara = reached the other end. 2.

MEANING: My Lord is highly friendly, and is very sweet at talking (is very polite); I have tried very hard to recall if He had ever been impolite, but the answer is no. The Perfect Waheguru does not know how to be impolite, and He does not keep our demerits in mind. He is known to have the innate virtue of purifying even the immoral, and does not ignore one's hard work (to recite His Naam) even for a short moment. He resides in every heart, is present everywhere, and is much closer than we think. My Waheguru friend is Amrit (sustains our lives, and is very sweet); I am His slave, and am always in His shelter, oh Nanak. 1.
I get mesmerized by having a holy sight of the limitless Waheguru. My Lord is highly attractive, and I am like the dust of His Feet. I survive to see Him (to connect with Him spiritually), and my mind achieves complete peace; there is no one else as great as He is. Waheguru was present at the beginning, is present now, and will be present at the end, and He is present in the waters, on the land, and in the sky. One swims across the world- see by reciting the Naam of Waheguru, which has lotus-like soft feet. I am in the shelter of the omnipresent Waheguru, which is beyond limits, oh Nanak. 2.

-------- Huoun Nimukh Na chhoadaan Ji, Hur(i) Preetum praan adhaaro. Gur(i), Satgur kuhhiya Ji, Saacha Agumm beechaaro. Mil(i) Sadhu deena, ta Naam(u) leena, junum mern dookh naatthay. Sehj sookh aanund ghunayray, haumein bintthi gaantthay.

(PAGE 785): Subh kaiy mudh(i), subh hoon tay baahur(i), raag doakh tay niyaaro. Nanak daas Gobind shernaayee, Hur(i) preetum(u) muneh(i) sadhaaro. 3. Mein khojut, khojut Ji, Hur(i) nihchul(u) su ghur(u) paaya. Subh(i) adhooruv ditthay Jeeo, ta Churn Kumul chit(u) laaya. Prubhoo abinaashi, huoun Tis kee daasi, muraiy na aavaiy jaayay. Dherm, urth, kaam subh(i) poorun, mun(i) chindi ichh poojaayay. Sroot(i), Simrit(i) goon gaaveh(i) Kertay, Sidh, Sadhik, moon(i), jun dhiyaaya. Nanak shern(i) Kirpa-Nidh(i) Soami, vudbhageen Hur(i), Hur(i) gaaya. 4.1.11.

Word Meaning: Nimukh = a short moment. Chhoadaan = leave alone. Adhaaro = support. Agumm = unreachable. Beechaaro = contemplate. Sehj = peaceful state. Aanund = blissfulness. Ghunayray = immense. Bintthi = destroyed. Gaantthay = knot; strong connection. Raag = love; attachment. Doakh = dislike; jealousy. Niyaaro = detached; aloof. Sudhaaro = dependable support. 3.

Khojut = searching. Nihchul = eternal. Ghur(u) = spiritual state. Adhooruv = non-dependable; short-living. Ditthay = saw; found out. Churn Kumul = lotus-like feet (of Waheguru); His Naam. Chit(u) = mind. Abinaashi = immortal. Huoun = I am. Daasi = slave; devotee. Dherm = high morality; religiosity. Urth = wealth. Kaam = wishes. Poorun = are fulfilled. Chindi = desired. Ichh = wish. Sroot(i) = the Vedas. Sadhik = on the way to become a Sidh yogi. Moon(i) = hermits. Jun = devotees. Kirpa-Nidh(i) = source of kindness. Udbhaageen = the lucky. 4.

MEANING: I do not quit reciting Waheguru's Naam even for a short moment as He is the basis of my (spiritual) life. My Satguru advised me to ponder on the Naam of the eternal and the inaccessible Waheguru. I received Waheguru's Naam from my Guru (He implanted it in my heart), and now I stay absorbed in it, as a result of which my suffering of births and deaths has run away (been eradicated). My strong bond with selfishness and ego has been shattered, and now I am enjoying the immense bliss of a high spiritual state. Even though Waheguru is present in every heart invisibly, He is far away from all (people do not make a connection with Him), and He is fully detached from worldly affairs (He does not interfere in worldly affairs). I am His slave, and am in His shelter; He is my Dear, and is the support of my mind (life), oh Nanak. 3.

By searching extensively for a permanent support in life, I found out that none of the worldly supports was dependable (they were all short-lived), and only Waheguru's Naam is the eternal support in man's life. Waheguru is eternal, which never dies, or comes and goes; and I am His slave. All one's objectives relating to high morality (religiosity), wealth, and wishes are fully achieved when one recites Waheguru's Naam, and his other wishes (if any) are also fulfilled. The Vedas and the Simritis sing praise of the Creator, and the Sidhs, the yogis, and the hermits, all recite Waheguru's Naam. But only the fortunate people recite Waheguru's Naam; I have sought the shelter of the Lord, which is the treasure of benevolence, oh Nanak. 4.1.11.
