Sloak(u) M:3: Soohaiy vays(i) dohaaguni, pur pir(u) raavun jaayay. Pir(u) chhoadiya ghur(i) aapnaiy, mohi doojaiy bhaayay. Mittha kur(i) kaiy khaaya, buhou saad-houn vudhiya roag(u). Shoodh(u) Bhutaar(u) Hur(i) chhoadiya, phir(i) lugga jaayay vijoag(u). Gurmukh(i) hovaiy su pultiya, Hur(i) raati saaj(i) seegaar(i). Sehj(i), Sach(u) Pir(u) raaviya, Hur(i) Naama oordhaar(i). Aagiyakaari sudaa sohaagun(i), Aap(i) mayli Kartar(i). Nanak, Pir(u) paaya Hur(i) Saacha, sudaa Sohaagun(i) Naar(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Soohaiy Vays(i) = Maya-lover. Dohaagni = condemned by the husband; disconnected with him. Pur = which belongs to others. Pir(u) = husband; master. Raavun = enjoy union with. Ghur(i) Aapnaiy = which resides in one's heart. Mohi = captivated. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other. Saad-houn = tastes. Shoodh(u) Bhutaar = the pure (eternal) husband. Vijoag(u) = separation. Pultiya = turned around. Raati = imbued. Saaj(i) Sheegaar(i) = adorned (with noble qualities). Sehj(i) = in the peaceful state. Oordhaar(i) = by acquiring in heart. Aagiyakaari = obedient. Sohaagun(i) = married; loved by husband. Kartaar(i) = by the Lord. 1.

MEANING: A woman (man), who is in love with Maya (which is never hers forever, and thus is a stranger to her), and goes to enjoy it as her husband (master), is condemned (not loved) by the Waheguru-Husband. She is captivated by the love of the other (Maya), and ignores her real Husband (Waheguru), who resides in her heart. She treats the attractions of Maya as being sweet, but enjoying them too much leads to serious diseases (problems like haumein). She ignores the holy and perfect husband (Waheguru) and remains detached from Him (and eventually from the luxuries of Maya as well). But the woman who comes to the shelter of the Guru, is groomed with noble qualities by the Guru as a result of which her thinking makes a U-turn, and she gets imbued in Waheguru's love. She enshrines Waheguru's Naam in her heart and enjoys union with Waheguru in the blissful spiritual state. Because of her accepting Waheguru's Will all the time, He connects her with Him, and she stays married to (connected with) the Lord all the time. The woman, who gets connected with the eternal Waheguru, is always married to (lived by) Him, oh Nanak. 1.

M:3: Soohveeyay, nimaaniyay, So Shuhou sudaa smaal(i). Nanak, junum(u) suvaareh(i) aapna, kool(u) bhee chhootti naal(i). 2.

Word Meaning: Soohveeyay = imbued in (Waheguru's) love. Nimaaniyay = having no ego. Shuhou = husband. Smaal(i) = keep in mind. Chhooti = is salvaged. 2.

MEANING: If you keep Waheguru's Naam in mind all the time, not only will you make your own life successful, but will also get all your associates salvaged, oh, the humble devotee imbued in the love of Waheguru. 2.

Word Meaning: Tukht = throne. Putaala = the underworld. Sachi = eternal. Dhermshaala = the place to practise high morality, and religiosity (sing God's praise). Oopaayay = creates. Khupaayaynda = destroys. Rijk = necessities of life. Sumbaahinda = delivers. Niraala = amazing. Vertda = operates. Pritpaala = raises and nourishes. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru Himself created (the world) as His throne (to implement His Laws) and created the sky and the underworld. He created the earth as an eternal place to practise high morality and to sing Waheguru's praise. The eternal Waheguru, which is always kind to the humble, Himself creates and destroys the world. His Laws are unique (amazing) in that He delivers the necessities of life to all His living beings. He alone operates in the world, raising and nourishing His living beings. 1.

Word Meaning: Soohub = imbued in love. Munn(i) Laiyh(i) = embeds in mind. Munaayay Laiy = please. Roop = beauty. Ugla = much. Sheegaar(u) = beautification. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Chihun(u) = sign. Oojla = clean; reflective of piety. 1.

MEANING: A devotee is considered to be truly imbued in Waheguru's love only if she embeds His Naam in her heart. If she pleases her Satguru (by reciting Waheguru's Naam), the beauty of her mind is enhanced many times, and she has no place for anyone else (Maya) in her heart. Her mind becomes so beautifully adorned (with Waheguru's Naam) that it never gets filthy, and she is in love with God, day and night. If you ask what the signs of the devotee are who is married to Waheguru, the answer is: she has Waheguru in her heart, has a radiant (holy) face, and is always absorbed in Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Sooha = reflecting love for. Vays = garb. Shuhou = Waheguru. Sikh = Teaching. Tis(u) = Him (God). Theeyay = happens. Inn Bidh(i) = by such means. 2.

MEANING: I pretend to be in love with God by wearing a religious garb, but nobody has ever been connected with God only by wearing a religious garb. It is my personal experience as I am exhausted trying different garbs (without any success), oh folks. Only those who connect with Waheguru act on the Guru's advice, oh Nanak. The only way to get connected with the Waheguru-Husband is to believe in the fact that only that happens which Waheguru likes (one's efforts do not change anything). 2.

Word Meaning: Srishut(i) = world. Saajiun = created. Buhou Bhit(i) = in many different ways. Kayturra = how big (great)? Alukh = invisible. Apaara = beyond limits. Ikkna = to some. Tuj(i) = by giving up. Bikaara = immoral activities. Sachiyaara = like God. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru has created the world in many different ways through His Command (Laws). But nobody knows the greatness of the Laws of the invisible and the limitless Waheguru. He connects some with Him who ponder on (act on) the Guru's Shabad. They rid themselves of selfishness, ego, and immoral activities and are imbued with Waheguru's love. But only those get connected with You whom You connect Yourself, and they become like You, oh Waheguru. 2.

Nanak bulihaari, Gur aapnay jit(u) miiyaiy Hur(i) goon gaaoun. 1.

Word Meaning: Soohviyaiy = oh, imbued in the love (of Maya). Doormut(i) = distorted thinking. Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Khin = a short moment. Jhootth = falsehood. Binus(i) Jaayay = is destroyed. Tikaiy = stays. Birkh = tree. Mujeetth = madder. Sachrraaou = permanent. Oolti = turned around. Shukt(i) = Maya. Shivaiy = of God. Vussiya = took residence. 1.

MEANING: The world of Maya looks very attractive to those whose thinking is distorted by its attractions, oh, the lover of Maya. You do not realize that the false polish of attraction of the short-lived comforts of Maya comes off quickly, and does not stay for long like the shade of a tree (which changes direction with the sun). The love for Waheguru is everlasting, like the deep red colour of madder (which does not fade away); the Sikhs of the Guru are imbued in such love for Waheguru. They get Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their heart as a result of which, their love changes direction from Maya to Waheguru, and His Amrit-like Naam comes to reside in their heart. I am a sacrifice for my Guru in whose shelter I sing Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 1.

Shabad(i) Sachaiy rung(u) laal(u) kur(i) bhaiy bhaayay sheegaar(u) bunaayay. Nanak sudaa sohaagni, j(i) chullun(i) Satgur bhaayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Vikaar(u) = pertaining to sensual pleasures. Kunt = husband (Waheguru). Lehnday = coming of. Bilm = delay. Rund = widow; disconnected with Waheguru. Doojay Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Moondh = young woman (attracted to sensual pleasures). Iyaani = ignorant. Doomni = caught between two opposing choices. Lobhaayay = in greed of; attracted to. Bhaiy = (respectful) fear. Bhaayay = love. Bhaayay = as per the wish of. 2.

MEANING: Love for Maya leads to immoral thinking and immoral activities, and one cannot connect with Waheguru. It does not take long for the attractions of Maya to disappear, and the woman (man) in love with Maya feels like a widow (without any protection). The young woman is ignorant (of the comforts of Waheguru's Naam) and captivated by the attractions of Maya, and cannot make the right choice. The devotees, who are imbued with the love of Guru's Shabad, are adorned with the noble qualities of respectful fear and love for Waheguru, and their love never fades away. Those who spend their lives according to the Will of Waheguru always remain connected to Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Oopaayayun(u) = created. Keemut Paayee = knows its worth (needs). Unt(u) = limits. Jaapyee = can see (find). Goobaar(u) = darkness. Bhermaayee = misled. Tthaaur = peace. Theeyaiy = happens. Chulaiy Chulaayee = live as per His Huqam (Will). 3.

MEANING: Waheguru, Himself creates the world, and Himself evaluates it (knows its needs). With Guru's wisdom, one realizes that nobody can ever find Waheguru's limits. Love for Maya creates darkness in the mind of the individual who gets misled (from the path of righteousness). The lovers of Maya never find peace (never get connected with Waheguru) and keep taking births and dying. Only that happens which Waheguru likes; everybody has to live by His Huqam. 3.

Nanak, Gurmukh(i) sudaa sohaagni, jis(u) Avinaashi Purakh(u) bhurtaar(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Soohaiy Vays(i) = Maya-lover. Kaamn(i) = woman (human being). Koolukhnee = having ignoble qualities. Pur Purakh = man other than the husband. Seal(u) = politeness. Sunjum = control over senses. Kerm = deeds. Khooaar = causing humiliation. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. Bhutaar = husband; lord. Sooha Vays(u) = religious garb just for show off. Pehraiy = wears. Khima = forgiveness. Payiyaiy = this world. Saahorraiy = the next world. Sobha Paayay = earns respect. Pooj Kuray = worship; show reverence. Rulaayee Na Rulaiy = nobody can rival her. Raavay = enjoys union. Avinaashi Purakh = immortal Waheguru. Bhurtaar(u) = husband; master. 1.

MEANING: The Maya-loving woman (human) has ignoble qualities who loves someone else (Maya) other than her real Husband (Waheguru). She has no politeness, no patience, and no control over her senses; she always tells lies and is disconnected from Waheguru, performing deeds that lead to humiliation at the end. But those who have it prewritten (by Waheguru) in their fortune get connected with Satguru as their husband (guide and support), under whose shelter she gives up her love for Maya and wears the adornment of forgiveness (and humility). Such a devotee earns praise in this world, and the next, and the whole world respects her. The Creator, Waheguru, enjoys her love, and nobody can rival her. Such a Sikh of the Guru is always connected with the eternal Waheguru as his husband (Lord), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Sooha Rung(u) = love for the perishable. Nisi = at night. Taaga = thread. Haar(u) = necklace. Sacha Rung = love for Waheguru. Mujeetth = (fast like) madder. Muhaa Rusi = of many supreme tastes. Chhaar(u) = dust. 2.
MEANING: Love for the perishable (Maya) is short-lived like a night dream, or is like a necklace without the central thread (which cannot be worn). But love for Waheguru, which one acquires by pondering on His Naam in the shelter of the Guru, is permanent like the deep red colour of madder. Love for Waheguru is the source of many supreme tastes, whereas enjoyment of evils (sensual pleasures) turns into dust at the end, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Oopaayayon(u) = Waheguru created it. Choaj Vidaan = amazing dramas. Punch Dhaat = the five demons (lust, greed etc.) Goomaan = ego; conceit. Bhuvaayiayiy = cycled through. Ugiyaan(u) = ignorant. Ikknah = to some. Boojhaayayon = enlightens. Bukhshiyon(u) = bestows. Nidhaan(u) = treasure.
MEANING: The creation of the world by Waheguru is an amazing drama. He has put the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachments, and ego), including worldly attachments and false pride, in it. Those who love to enjoy these demons are ignorant and follow their mind, and are cycled through many, many different life forms. Waheguru enlightens some with His Divine Knowledge in the shelter of the Guru. He bestows the treasure of His Naam for them to worship (recite). 4.

Word Meaning: Pir = dear; husband. Dujh(i) Mooyee = died of suffering in the fire of desires. Gaavaar(i) = foolish. Goon Saar(i) = remember Waheguru's noble qualities (sing praise of Waheguru). Sohaagun(i) = married; connected with God. Bhaiy = respectful fear. Bhaayay = love. Kermi = by benevolence. Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Palace. Oordhaar(i) = enshrined in the heart. 1.
MEANING: Abandon the garb (thinking) of your love for Maya, only then can you foster love for the dear (Waheguru), oh, the worshipper of Maya. Nobody has ever realized God while still in love with Maya; the foolish follower of his mind dies a spiritual death, suffering in the fire of desires. But when an individual comes to the Guru's shelter (acts on His advice), his selfishness and his ego are eradicated, and so is his love for money. By singing His praise, his mind, body, and tongue get imbued with the deep love for Waheguru. The devotee adorns her body and mind with the respectful fear and love for Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad, and stays connected with Waheguru forever. With enshrining Waheguru's Naam in her heart, she reaches Waheguru's Mansion (get connected with Him) with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Moondh = young woman proud of her beauty. Purhurou = throw away; remove. Sheggar(u) = adornment. Veesraiy = is forgotten; is averted. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Sehj(i) = blissful state. Bhutaar = Husband (Lord). Raavay = enjoys union. 2.

MEANING: Get rid of your love for Maya, and adorn your body with the deep love for Waheguru, which never fades away, oh, the youthful (conceited and ignorant) woman. Your rebirths will be averted (will come to an end) if you ponder on Waheguru with Guru's Shabad. That young woman is attractive and beautiful, who has Waheguru enshrined in her heart as her husband. Waheguru enjoys the love of such a devotee, oh Nanak. 2.

Phir(i) vayla huth(i) na aavyee, Jum kaal(i) vuss(i) kitta. Jayha dhoor(i) likh(i) paayayon(u) say kerm kumitta. 5.

Word Meaning: Koorr(u) = false; short-lived. Kootumb(u) = family. Rutta = imbued. Soojhyee = realize. Bhermitta = misled. Vayla = time; opportunity. Kmitta = commits.5.

MEANING: The love for the family is short-lived, but the ignorant and the foolish man is imbued with its love. Such people die in their attachments to Maya and selfishness, but nothing accompanies them. They do not realize that the Angel of Death is hovering above their head, and they are misled by the love of the other (Maya). Under the control of the Angel of death, they will not get this opportunity again (human life) (to connect with Waheguru). But the humans are helpless; they are just doing the kind of deeds for which they are preprogrammed by Waheguru right from the beginning. 5.

Word Meaning: Sutiyaan = of high moral character; those women who burn on the pyre of their husband. Murriyaan = dead body. Birhay = pain of separation. Choat = hurt. 1.
MEANING: (Hindu widows were forced to burn on the pyre of their husbands; this custom was greatly denounced by the Sikh Gurus. Commenting on this inhumane custom, Guru Amar Dass Ji writes): Those are not called (considered) to have high character who burn themselves with the dead husband. Those are considered to have true high morality who die just due to the pain of separation, oh Nanak. 1.

M: 3: Bhee so sutiyaan jaaniun(i) seel suntokh(i) rehun(i). Sayvun Saayeen aapna, nit ootth(i) smaalhun(i). 2.
Word Meaning: Bhee = too. Seel = calm and pleasant disposition. Suntokh = contentment. Sayvun = serve. Saayeen = Lord. Smaalhun(i) = remember. 2.
MEANING: Those too are considered to be "satees" who lead their life with a peaceful mind and with a sweet disposition, and are fully contented. They remember their responsibility to meet their husband's needs with diligence every day. OR: Remember their True Husband (Waheguru) and serve Him. 2.

Kur(i) kirpa Naam(u) dayvsi, phir(i) laykh(u) na likhiya. Sayvuk bhaayay say jun milay, jin Hur(i) Jup(u) juppiya. 6.
Word Meaning: Laykh(u) = Law. Jayvud = as great. Daat(i) = gift. Rikhiya = physical features. Akhoor(u) = which does not erode (run out); eternal. Sayvuk Bhaayay with the love and spirit of a devotee. Jup(u) = Waheguru's praise.
MEANING: It is a written (unerasable) Law of Waheguru that comforts and discomforts are created (come) with man's birth. But, Waheguru's Naam (is the best cure for discomforts), and there is no other cure as perfect as the Naam of Waheguru, which has no visible form or physical features. His Naam is an inexhaustible treasure, but can be enshrined in the heart only in the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru gives His Naam with His benevolence, and then no account of the deeds of the devotee is kept. Those get connected with Waheguru who recite His Naam with love and with the spirit of devotion. 6.

Sloak M: 2: Jinhi chullun(u) jaaniya, say kiyoun kureh(i) vithaar. Chullun saar na jaan-ni, kaaj suvaarunhaar. 1.
Word Meaning: Chullun(u) = leave the world. Vithaar = expand holdings. Saar = worth; importance. Kaaj Suvaarunhaar = are interested only in worldly affairs. 1.

MEANING: Those who realize that death is inevitable, do not expand their holdings (and always keep Waheguru in mind), but those who do not realize this fact (forget Waheguru), keep busy in worldly affairs. 1.

ਮ: 2॥ ਰਾਤਿ ਕਾਰਣਿ ਧਨੁ ਸੰਚੀਐ ਭਲਕੇ ਚਲਣੁ ਹੋਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਨਾਲਿ ਨ ਚਲਈ ਫਿਰਿ ਪਛੁਤਾਵਾ ਹੋਇ॥ 2॥

Word Meaning: Raat(i) = the short span of life. Kaarun(i) = for the sake of. Sunchiyaiy = accumulate. Bhulkay = next day. Puchhutaava = repentance. 2.

MEANING: The man accumulates wealth just for the sake of a short lifespan despite the fact that he has to leave the next morning (when the night of life is over). He repents (to realize) when his (hard- earned) wealth does not accompany him, oh Nanak. 2.

ਮ: 2॥ ਬਧਾ ਚਟੀ ਜੋ ਭਰੇ ਨਾ ਗੁਣੁ ਨਾ ਉਪਕਾਰੁ॥ ਸੇਤੀ ਖੁਸੀ ਸਵਾਰੀਐ ਨਾਨਕ ਕਾਰਜ ਸਾਰੁ॥ 3॥

M: 2: Buddha chutti jo bhuray, na goon(u), na oopkaaar(u). Sayti khooshi suvaariyaiy, Nanak kaaruj saar(u). 3.

Word Meaning: Buddha = forced; obligated. Chutti Bhuray = pays (as a punishment). Sayti Khooshi = happily; zestfully. Saar(u) = supreme. 3.

MEANING: It is neither a noble deed nor a favour to someone when a person simply performs a forced obligation unhappily. Only that deed is the best which one performs happily (and honestly), oh Nanak. 3.

ਮ: 2॥ ਮਨ ਹਠਿ ਤਰਫ ਨ ਜਿਪਈ ਜੇ ਬਹੁਤਾ ਘਾਲੇ॥ ਤਰਫ ਜਿਣੈ ਸਤ ਭਾਉ ਦੇ ਜਨ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਬਦੁ ਵੀਚਾਰੇ॥ 4॥

M: 2: Mun hutth(i) terf na jipyee, jay buhouta ghaalay. Terf jinaiy sat bhaaou day, jun Nanak Shabad(u) veechaaray. 4.

Word Meaning: Mun Hutth(i) = by sheer obstinacy of mind without its willingness. Terf = favour. Jipyee = win. Ghaalay = works hard. Sat Bhaaou = honest love. 4.

MEANING: (If a man does not have a real love for or faith in Waheguru) but tries to win His favour (love) by the sheer obstinacy of his mind, he cannot do so even if he works very hard. One can win His love only through honest dedication, and when he ponders on Guru's Shabad (acts on it), oh Nanak. 4.

Word Meaning: Kaarun Keeya = created the universe. Srisht(i) = world. Phoon(i) = then; again. Goyee = destroys. Bhuv(i) Thukki = thought deeply. 7.
MEANING: Only Waheguru, which has created the universe, knows its worth (expanse; grandeur). He creates it, and then destroys it. Going carefully through the history of the world over the four eons, nobody is known to have found the limits of the universe. But, when Satguru "shows" us Waheguru, our body and mind feel great comfort (but still cannot know the limits of Waheguru). The only thing that we can do is, to sing His praise all the time in the shelter of the Guru; otherwise, only those things happen that Waheguru wishes to do. 7.

Word Meaning: Bhuou = (God's) fear. Bhuou = (worldly) fears. Mooch(u) = much; great. Nibhviaah = lasts till the end. Putuntra = decision; reality. Tit(u) = His (Waheguru's). Deebaan(i) = Court. 1.
MEANING: Those who have God's respectful fear in their mind have no worldly fears, but those who have no fear of Waheguru spend their entire life in big fears. But one realizes this reality only in Waheguru's Court (where his deeds are evaluated), oh Nanak.1.

Word Meaning: Toorday = walking. Oodtay = flying. Jeevtay = spiritually enlightened. Mooaa = spiritually dead. Kaarun Keeya = created the universe. 2.
MEANING: (Every living being likes to be in the company of its own kind). For example, the living beings which walk like to be in the company of others which also walk, and the birds which fly like to be in the company of other flying birds. Likewise, a spiritually enlightened person seeks the company of other enlightened persons, while a spiritually dead (Maya-lover) person enjoys the company of other Maya-lovers. So, for the man to be like Waheguru, he should sing praise of the Creator. 2.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = eternal (Waheguru). Sachay = pure; are full of virtues. Nirmula = pure. Ooridhaari = enshrine in heart. Kotthay = rooms. Mundup = decorated (houses).

Maarriyaan = mansions. Lug(i) Puyyay = get attached. Gaavaari = foolish. Goobaari = in darkness. 8.

MEANING: Those who worship Waheguru by pondering on Guru's Shabad get rid of their selfishness and ego and purify their mind to the extent that Waheguru's Naam is enshrined in their heart, and as a result, they become pure like Him. On the other hand, the foolish get attached to their homes, highly decorated houses and mansions. They are worshippers of Maya, are in complete darkness, and do not recognize the importance of the Creator. But the living beings are helpless (as they cannot do things on their own); only those get enlightened whom You enlighten, oh Waheguru. 8.

Word Meaning: Kaamun(i) = woman (man). Tuou = only then. Munaayay = please. Mut(u) = lest; perhaps. Birtha = waste. Pervaan(u) = acceptable. Tumboal = a wrap of betel leaves containing some spices including areca nut (a sign of richness). Rus(u) = sweetness. Saunpay = offers. Bhog(u) kurayay = enjoys union. 1.

NOTE: Guru Amar Dass Ji uses situations in worldly unions in this holy Sloak to advise the devotees of Waheguru to make sure that they please the Lord, Waheguru (by acting on Guru's Advice), before they adorn their bodies with religious symbols.

MEANING: Make sure to please your husband before you beautify yourself; he may not come to your bed, in which case your adornment will go to waste (and cause hurt for you), oh, the young bride. Your adornment will look pretty only if your husband is pleased, and it will be acceptable if he loves you. You need to adorn your body with a respectful fear for him, use sweetness in your behaviour, which will be like offering Him a *tumboa*l to enjoy, and offer your love as the meal for him. If you offer your body and your mind to serve him, only then will he enjoy union with you, oh Nanak. (The same things apply to the devotees of Waheguru. Adorning one's body with religious symbols does not help).1

Word Meaning: Kaakul = kohl; mascara. Dhun = young woman. Vikaar(u) = useless.

MEANING: The young bride wears mascara to beautify herself, offers her husband flowers and a tumboal to please him, but all such efforts go to waste if he does not go to her bed.2.

ਮ:3॥ ਧਨ ਪਿਰੁ ਏਹਿ ਨ ਆਖੀਅਨੁ ਬਹਨਿ ਇਕਠੇ ਹੋਇ॥ ਏਕ ਜੋਤਿ ਦੁਇ ਮੂਰਤੀ ਧਨ ਪਿਰੁ ਕਹੀਐ ਸੋਇ॥ 3॥

Word Meaning: Jot(i) = soul. Moorti = bodies. 3.

MEANING: A couple cannot be considered wife and husband simply because they sit (live) together. They make a real couple only if they have one soul in two bodies (and have deep respect for each other's feelings and needs). 3.

NOTE: The same situation applies to the devotees of Waheguru. Read the next Paurri.

Word Meaning: Bhaiy = Bhuou = (respectful) fear. Bhugut(i) = worship. Bhaayay = Bhaaou= Rung(u) = love. Suvaar(i) = adorning. Trishna = desires. Krishan Mooraar(i) = Waheguru.

Meaning: There is no worship of Waheguru if there is no (respectful) fear in the mind of the devotee for Him because one does not develop any love for His Naam without His fear. One fosters fear for Waheguru only in the shelter of the Guru, where the Guru adorns his body (mind) with fear and love for Waheguru, and where his selfishness, ego, and worldly desires are eradicated. His mind and body are purified and become attractive to Waheguru when He connects the devotee to Him. Waheguru is the source of all fear and love for Him, and He alone operates in the world. 9.

Aapaah(u) = unaffected; detached. Thaayayn Puvvaiy = is rewarded. Oonmun(i) = in high spirits; happily. Tut(u) = the origin; Waheguru. Muskut(i) = hard labour. Mujooriyaan = wages; compensation. Duraah(u) = from the door. Pur = filled. Oona = less than full. Vaypervaah = care-free (under no pressure).1.

MEANING: You are amazing! You are Great, who created the world and us, oh the wonderful Lord!! The oceans, the waves on them, the other large bodies of water, the vegetation, and the rain-causing clouds are all created and supported by You, and yet You are completely detached from Your creation. You reward the devotees for their hard work who ponder on Your Greatness in the shelter of the Guru. They beg at your Door for your Naam and for the fulfillment of their basic needs. Your Treasures are always full, and there is never a shortage of any kind in them, and yet You are care-free (have no pressure to replenish Your treasures), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Oojul = shiny. Moti = pearls-like (teeth). Ruttnaa = jewels-like (eyes). Jooruunn(i) = look pretty. Jur(u) = old age. Theeyay = becoming. 2.

MEANING: When the man is young, he feels very conceited of the beauty of his shining teeth, his jewel-like big eyes, and other beautiful features (and does not remember Waheguru who gave him those). But, when he becomes old, the same beautiful teeth (and other beautiful features) become his enemies (because he had committed many immoral acts based on their beauty, and is bound to be punished by Waheguru for such deeds when he dies). 2.

Word Meaning: Salaaheen = sing praise. Saunp(i) = offer; dedicate. Gehr = unfathomable. Gumbheer = never changing. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Heera Heer(u) = most precious diamond among diamonds. Pheer(u) = return (to take birth again). Gooni-Guheer(u) = loaded with (source of) virtues. 10.

MEANING: One ought to sing Waheguru's praise all the time, and dedicate his body and mind to His service. One can connect with the eternal, unfathomable, and never-changing Waheguru by pondering (acting) on the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru is the most precious diamond among all others (which must be acquired by everyone), and is present in every heart. When a devotee connects with Waheguru, his suffering from rebirths is eradicated, and he is never born again in the world. So, sing praise of Waheguru, which is the source of all virtues, oh Nanak. 10.

MEANING: Burn your body (evil thoughts), which is burning in the fire of desires, and which has forgotten Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. You are accumulating the burden of worthless deeds; such living is a slippery slope in which the man digs himself deeper in sins, and no effort will work later to save you from punishment for such sins, oh man. 1.

Word Meaning: Sacha = eternal. Amar(u) = reign. Foormaan = Huqam; Laws. Nihchul = permanent. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Soojaan = wise; omniscient. Neeshaan(u) = identification. Thaat = construct (to sing Waheguru's praise). Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Alukh = invisible. Jaan(u) = bond with.
MEANING: Waheguru has established His eternal reign of the universe with His eternal Huqam(u) (Laws). The omniscient Waheguru is eternally present everywhere. We can serve Him (obey His Huqam and sing His praise) with the Guru's eternal Shabad, which is our means of connecting with Waheguru. Waheguru has made this a perfect (never-failing) Law that we can connect with Him through the Guru and enjoy His love (union). Waheguru is inaccessible, incomprehensible, and invisible, but we can recognize (bond with) Him in the shelter of the Guru. 11.

Sloak M:1 : Nanak,budra maal ka, bheetur(i) dhuriya aan(i). Khoatay khuray perkhiun(i) Sahib kaiy Deebaan(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Budra = bag. Maal = money; deeds performed. Bheetur(i) = in (Waheguru's) court. Khoatay = impure; faulty. Khuray = pure. Perkhiun(i) = examined.
MEANING: One carries his baggage (the account of his deeds) to Waheguru's Court, where his deeds are examined carefully by Waheguru, whether to be pure (moral) or impure (immoral), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Teeruthaan = at the holy places. Bhaaou = part. Luthee = comes off. Dooyay = two. Churrius(u) = added on. Toombrri = a vegetable that looks a lot like a cantaloupe but is extremely bitter. Vis(u) = poison; bitterness. Nikoar = pure; undiluted. Sadh = saintly people. Un-naatiyaan = without a bath (dip). 2.
MEANING: People go to holy places to take dips (with the belief that their sins will be washed away), but they have deceit in their minds and commit theft with their bodies. They may get the filth of their bodies removed by the dip as a part of their venture, but they put on twice as much filth because of their false ego of taking a dip at the holy place, and having false assurance that their future sins will also be washed away by another dip. Their dips are like washing a toombrri from outside because it still has pure poison (bitterness) inside. The saintly people are better off without such dips, while a thief will be a thief no matter how many dips he takes. 2.

Word Meaning: Dhundhaiy = in the routine business (of Maya). Laayayun(u) = make them do. Dehdis = in all the ten (every) directions. Dhaanvda = runs around. Tthaak(i) Ruhaayaa = stopped; controlled. Loachdi = longs for. Mayt(i) = erase. 12.
MEANING: Waheguru, Himself enforces His Laws, and puts people in the business of Maya. But He connects some of them with the Guru to recite His Naam whereby they attain blissfulness. The Guru puts a stop to (stabilizes) their mind which wanders in every direction. Everybody longs for Waheguru's Naam which one enshrines in his heart by Guru's advice. But not everyone can come to Guru's shelter to acquire Waheguru's Naam because no body can erase (act against) whatever Waheguru has written in their fate. 12.

Word Meaning: Doyay Deevay = two lamps (the sun and the moon). Chaudah Hutnaalay = fourteen bazaars (business centres – worlds) (according to belief of some faiths there are 14 skies (worlds – 7 above our earth, and 7 below it). Chullunhaar = visitors only. Dherm(u) = the Angel of justice. Dulaal(u) = mediator. Neeshaan = stamp of approval (or disapproval). Laaha = earnings. Pervaan(u) = approved. Ghur(i) = Waheguru's Door. Vadhaayee = high spirits; blissful. Vudiyaayee = respect; reward. 1.

MEANING: The world (universe), which has the sun and the moon as the two lamps, and has fourteen skies, is like a bazaar (business centre) where every human being is a businessman (or a trader) who deals in good or bad qualities (performs good or bad deeds), and the world is open for business. Whoever comes into the world is here only as a visitor (for a short period of time). The Angel of justice, as the mediator, puts his stamp of approval (or disapproval) on the deeds of the individuals, where only the earnings of Waheguru's Naam are approved. Those who are approved to reach Waheguru's Door are rewarded for their recitation of Waheguru's Naam, and they feel blissful. 1.

Word Meaning: Soopaydaan = white objects (saintly people). Say Vunn = the same colour (black; indistinguishable). Dihoun = day. Bugga = bright. Ghunaa = immensely. Kaaliyaan = black objects (immoral people). Ukleen Baahray = without any wisdom. Undh-Giyaan(u) = blind of the Divine Knowledge. Kub-heh(i) Na = never. 2.

MEANING: Like a white object looks black (dark) in a dark night (a saintly person cannot be recognized when he is in a crowd of the immoral). On the other hand, a dark object looks dark (shows its true colour) in the immensely bright light of the day (an immoral person cannot hide himself in the company of the holy men because of his deceitful behaviour). Without any wisdom, the foolish are blind to Divine Knowledge and are completely ignorant. Without Waheguru's kind sight, such people never earn any respect, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Kaaya = body. Koat(u) = fort; building. Ruchaaya = created. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Khooyaayiun(u) = misled to suffer humiliation.

Viyaapay = are affected; overpowered. Doolumbh = rarely available. Suntaapay = suffer. Thaapay = blesses. Khayl(u) = drama. 13.

MEANING: The eternal Waheguru has created the fort-like body of humans for their souls. But Waheguru Himself misleads some into falling in love with Maya, where they are overpowered by their selfishness and ego, and suffer humiliation. (Without realizing) that human life is rare to acquire, such followers of their minds suffer greatly (due to their love for Maya). Only those who are blessed by the Guru with the Will of God acquire the wisdom to attain Divine Knowledge (connect with Waheguru). The world is a drama created by Waheguru, in which only He operates. 13.

Word Meaning: Yaar = immoral man. Rundiyaan = prostitutes. Kootniyaan = pimps. Deebaan(u) = company. Vaydeen = unprincipled. Khaan(u) = eating (enjoying) together. Saar = worth. Shaitaan = Satan. Chundun = with sandal oil. Khauliyaiy = massage. Saahoo = ashes; dust. Paan(u) = to put on. Koorra = falsehood. Kutiyaiyn = spinning. Tuniyaiy = spread the warp. Kuchhiyaiy = to measure. Maan(u) = pride.

MEANING: The thieves, the immoral, the prostitutes, and the pimps are all unprincipled people, and so are those who give them company, and share meals with them (are partners with them). Such people have no knowledge of the worth of Waheguru's praise, and act in life as if Satan is controlling their minds. They are like the donkey which has no liking for a massage of sandal oil, but loves to roll in dust. If we spin a fabric of falsehood, we will have the warp of falsehood too to spread, and if we measure a fabric incorrectly, we will have a false pride because we will wear an imperfect cloth, oh Nanak. (One act of deceit leads to many other acts of deceitfulness, and such immoral people will get no respect in Waheguru's Court). 1.

Word Meaning: Baang = loud call for the mosque. Boorgoo = clarinet. Singi = bugle. Klaan = sing praise. Daatay = donors. Vit-houn = for. 2.

MEANING: A Muslim earns his living by giving a loud call to the other Muslims to come to the mosque, a sage blows his clarinet, a yogi blows his bugle, and a bard sings praise of people at their doors – all to beg for alms from the people. There are countless donors and countless such religious beggars in the world, but it is only Your Naam that is approved in Your Court, oh Waheguru. I am a sacrifice for all those who listen to Waheguru's Naam and act on it, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Jhuggra = dispute. Chookayayon(u) = is cleared. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Aatum Ram(u) = God. Puchhaaniya = recognized. Bhuoujul = the world sea. Jot(i) = human soul. Jot(i) = the Supreme soul. Smuyya = present. 14.

MEANING: Love for Maya is all false (short-lived) and turns out to be so (because it does not accompany the man at his death). All fights (including religious fights) in the world are due to the selfishness and ego (which are just forms of Maya) of man, and the whole world suffers because of such meaningless disputes. But all such disputes are cleared (disappear) in the shelter of the Guru (who enlightens the devotees that one's haumein is the root of all evils and disputes, and that everybody is created by the same Supreme Being). (With that clarity in mind), The devotee sees Waheguru in everybody, and swims across the world-sea. His soul merges into Waheguru's Soul, and he stays absorbed in His Naam. 14.

Ehinis(i) nuvtun nirmulaa, maiyla kubhoon na hoyay. Nanak, eh bidh(i) choottiyaiy, nudr(i) Tayri sookh hoyay. 1.

Word Meaning: Bheekhiya = alms; donation. Sumruth(u) = omnipotent. Gerb = conceit. Nivaariyaiy = is destroyed. Purjaaliyaiy = burn (destroy) completely. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Nuvtun = (in) new (spirits). Nirmula = pure. In Bidh(i) = by such means. Chhoottiyaiy = emancipated. 1.

MEANING: You are omnipotent; kindly give me the alms (of Your Naam) so that I may get rid of my selfishness, ego, lust, rage and my conceit, oh Waheguru. With the support of Your Naam, my gluttony (greed to eat more), and my worldly attachments will be burnt (destroyed) completely. With Your Naam at heart, a devotee feels in new spirits all the time, and his mind is purified, which never gets filthy (with evil thoughts). This is how a devotee gets emancipated and feels blissful with Waheguru's kind sight, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Subaayiyaan = of all. Kuntaiy Ruttiyaan = imbued in the love of God. Poochheh(i) = ask; discuss. Baaturriah = stories of Waheguru. 2.

MEANING: All the devotees at the Door of Waheguru long for the same Husband – Waheguru. Imbued in His love, they always discuss (talk about) His virtues, oh Nanak. 2.

ਮ:1॥ ਸਭੇ ਕੰਤੈ ਰਤੀਆ ਮੈ ਦੋਹਾਗਣਿ ਕਿਤੁ॥ ਮੈ ਤਨਿ ਅਵਗਣ ਏਤੜੇ ਖਸਮੁ ਨ ਫੇਰੇ ਚਿਤੁ॥ 3॥

Word Meaning: Dohaagun(i) = disconnected with Waheguru. Mein Kit(u) = what is my standing? Uvgun = shortcomings. Phayray = turns around.

MEANING: All devotees are imbued in Waheguru's love; but, being disconnected with Him, I am nowhere on His list of devotees. Because of my so many shortcomings, the Lord does not turn His mind (sight) towards me. 3.

ਮ: 1॥ ਹਉ ਬਲਿਹਾਰੀ ਤਿਨ੍ਹ ਕਉ ਸਿਫਤਿ ਜਿਨ੍ਹਾ ਦੈ ਵਾਤਿ॥ ਸਭਿ ਰਾਤੀ ਸੋਹਾਗਣੀ ਇਕ ਮੈ ਦੋਹਾਗਣਿ ਰਾਤਿ॥ 4॥

Word Meaning: Sift(i) = praise (of God). Vaat(i) = in the mouth (on the tongue). Dohaagun(i) = separated (disconnected) with the husband.

MEANING: I am a sacrifice for all those who have Waheguru's praise on their tongue. They are all connected to (loved by) the Lord and enjoy His company in their lives, but I am the one who spends every night like a widow. 4.

Word Meaning: Dur(i) = (at God's) Door. Mungut(u) = beggar. Jaachaiy = begs. Unhud = Divine. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. Jai, Jai = sing praise. Sayti = with.

MEANING: I am a beggar at Your door; kindly give me the gift of Your Naam, oh Waheguru. Kindly connect me with You by putting me in the shelter of the Guru so that I may embed (enshrine) Your Naam in my heart. I wish the Divine Shabad to reverberate in my mind, so, kindly place Your soul into mine (enlighten my heart), oh Lord. I wish to sing Your praise in my heart with full devotion. I wish to have strong love for You so that I may see You operating (present) in the whole world. 15.

Sloak M: 1: Jinhi na paayo praym rus(u), Kunt na paayo saaou. Soonjay ghur ka paahoona, jiyoun aaya, tiyoun jaaou. 1.

Word Meaning: Praym Rus(u) = bliss of Waheguru's love. Saaou = taste. Soonjay = empty; deserted. Pahoona = guest. 1.

MEANING: Those who cannot enjoy the bliss of Waheguru's love, and develop no taste for His Naam, are like the visitor of a deserted house who leaves the way he came. 1.

Word Meaning: Olahmay = complaints. Suhuns = thousands. Kurungi Lugga = attached to the carcasses (unsuitable cheap tastes). Huns(u) = swan (which does not eat meat); a pure and noble man. Phit(u) = condemnable. Hayt(u) = love; attachment. 2.

MEANING: The man is born pure and noble like a swan; but abandoning Waheguru's praise, he begins to commit immoral deeds under the influence of Maya; it is like as if a swan has begun to eat carcasses. (Because of his immoral deeds) the man earns hundreds of complaints over the day, and thousands of them at night (he commits many more evil deeds in the darkness). Such a life is contemptible in which the man simply eats and enlarges his belly (and does not sing Waheguru's praise). Without Waheguru's Naam, all those things that the man loves become his enemies (because he gets severe punishment for them in Waheguru's Court), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Dhaadhi = a bard; who sings praise. Suvaariya = made successful. Oordhaariya = implanted in the heart. Suvaareh(i) = adorn. Sirjunhaariya = Creator. 16.

MEANING: A bard, who sings Waheguru's praise all the time, makes his life successful. By serving Waheguru with His praise in the shelter of the Guru, the devotee embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart. By reciting the Naam of the dear Waheguru, he reaches Waheguru's Door, His Palace, which becomes his permanent residence. I am a sacrifice for my Guru in whose shelter I enshrined Waheguru's Naam in my heart. It is Waheguru, who Himself adorns His devotees with noble qualities. 16.

Purrh(i), purrh(i) Pundit kureh(i) beechaar. Bin(u) boojhaiy subh hoyay khooaar. Nanak, Gurmukh(i) ootrus(i) paar(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Deeva = lamp. Bayd Paatth = study of Vedas and acting on their principles. Oogvaiy = with rising of. Mitunt(u) = disappearance. Kaar = business; routine. Bojhaiy = understanding; making connection with God. Ootrus(i) Paar(i) = salvaged. 1.
MEANING: Just like darkness disappears when a lamp lights up, and just like the (light of the) moon becomes invisible with the rising of the sun, the darkness of ignorance disappears where there is enlightenment of knowledge; similarly, the wisdom of (thinking about) sins is destroyed by the study of the Vedas. (The Vedas emphasize the importance of deeds only, which are sinful and lead to hell, and which are approved and lead to paradise, but do not discuss the importance of God's Naam). It is the routine of the world to recite the Vedas, and the pundits ponder on them. But without realizing the importance of (Waheguru's Naam), all suffer humiliation. Those who come to Guru's shelter (and recite Waheguru's Naam) are salvaged, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Fikka = impolite; lies. Khooaar(u) = suffer humiliation. Puyyiyaiy = prewritten in fortune. Kirt(i) = performing deeds. Maytunhaar(u) = ability to erase. 2.
MEANING: Those who do not find Guru's Shabad sweet-tasting, and foster no love for Waheguru's Naam, are also impolite (hurt the feelings of others) and are liars. As a result of all that, they suffer discomfiture. (But they are not fully to blame because) they are just pursuing the type of deeds for which they are preprogrammed (have prewritten in their fortune by Waheguru), and nobody can erase their fortune, oh Nanak. 2.

Paurri : J(i) Prubh(u) salaahay aapna, so sobha paayay. Haumein vichoun door(i) kur(i), Sach(u) munn(i) vusaayay. Sach(u) Bani goon oochraiy, sacha sookh(u) paayay. Mayl(u) bhuyya chireen vichhoonniyaan, Gur Purakh(i) milaayay. Mun(u) maiyla ivv shoodh haiy, Hur(I Naam(u) dhiyaayay. 17.
Word Meaning: J(i) = those. Sobha = praise, respect. Oochraiy = recites. Chireen Vichhoonniyaan = separated for a long time. Shoodh(u) = purified. 17.
MEANING: Those who sing praise of their Lord (Waheguru) earn respect everywhere. They get rid of their selfishness and ego (by singing Waheguru's praise), and enshrine His Naam in their heart. They enjoy eternal bliss by reciting the eternal Bani and the virtues of Waheguru. Satguru, a manifestation of Waheguru, connects such devotees with Waheguru, from whom they had been separated for a long time. They recite Waheguru's Naam, whereby their filthy minds get purified. 17.

Sloak M: 1: Kaaya koomul, phooll goon, Nanak, goopus(i) maal. Ehni phoolleen ruou kuray, uver k(i) chooniyeh daal? 1.
Word Meaning: Koomul = buds; blooming. Goon = virtues. Goopus(i) Maal = make garland. Ruou = focus of mind; work hard. Uver K(i) = what else. Daal = branch; tree.
MEANING: (People make garlands of flowers to offer to their deities, but Guru Nanak Sahib advises in this holy Shabad that) purify your body to be like a shrub so that Waheguru's Naam begins to bloom in there, and enshrine noble qualities in your mind which will serve as flowers for the garland to please Waheguru (deity), oh my friends. If you focus your mind (work hard) to acquire noble qualities and Waheguru's Naam in your body (mind), you do not need to pick flowers from other trees or shrubs, oh Nanak. 1.

Mehla 2 : Nanak, tinha busunt(u) haiy, jinh ghur(i) vussiya kunt(u) . Jinh kay kunt dishapuri, say ehinis(i) phireh(i) julunt. 2.
Word Meaning: Tinha = those. Busunt(u) = spring (season of new life or new spirit). Kunt(u) = God. Dishapuri = in foreign land (separated). Ehinis(i) = day and night. 2.
MEANING: It is spring (new spiritual life) for those who have Waheguru's Naam embedded in their heart. But those suffer in the fire of worldly desires day and night who are separated from Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਆਪੇ ਬਖਸੇ ਦਇਆ ਕਰਿ ਗੁਰ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਬਚਨੀ॥ ਅਨਦਿਨੁ ਸੇਵੀ ਗੁਣ ਰਵਾ ਮਨੁ ਸਚੈ ਰਚਨੀ॥ ਪ੍ਰਭੁ ਮੇਰਾ ਬੇਅੰਤੁ ਹੈ ਅੰਤੁ ਕਿਨੈ ਨ ਲਖਨੀ॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਚਰਣੀ ਲਗਿਆ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮੁ ਨਿਤ ਜਪਨੀ॥ ਜੋ ਇਛੈ ਸੋ ਫਲੁ ਪਾਇਸੀ ਸਭਿ ਘਰੈ ਵਿਚਿ ਜਚਨੀ॥ 18॥

Word Meaning: Bukhshay = forgives; bestows. Ruvaan = recite. Ruchnee = with full absorption (concentration). Lukhnee = find; comprehend. Jupnee = recite. Ichhaiy = wishes. Juchnee = begging.
MEANING: I wish to serve Waheguru by singing his praise with full concentration all the time, but it is possible only if Waheguru bestows His Naam by Satguru's Shabad (the devotee obeys Satguru's Will). My Waheguru is limitless, and nobody can find His limits. However, a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam all the time if he seeks Satguru's shelter. All the wishes of such a devotee are fulfilled, and his needs are met in his own heart (he feels contented, and does not need to go to any other door to beg). 18.

Sloak M:1: Pehil busuntaiy aagmun(i), pehilaan mauliyo Soyay. Jit(u) mauliyaiyn subh mauleeyaiy koyay.
Word Meaning: Pehil = before. Aagmun(i) = arrival. Mauliyo = bloomed; came to life.

MEANING: Waheguru had bloomed (He had been there) even before the arrival of any spring. The whole world blooms (comes to life) because of Him, but nobody can make Him bloom (create) Him. 1.

ਮ: 2॥ ਪਹਿਲ ਬਸੰਤੈ ਆਗਮਨਿ ਤਿਸ ਕਾ ਕਰਹੁ ਬੀਚਾਰੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸੋ ਸਾਲਾਹੀਐ ਜਿ ਸਭਸੈ ਦੇ ਆਧਾਰੁ॥ 2॥

M: 2: Pehil busuntaiy aagmun(i), Tis ka kurhou beechaar(u). Nanak, So salaahiyaiy j(i) subhsaiy day adhaar(u). 2.

MEANING: Think about Waheguru (ponder on His virtues) which was present before the arrival of any spring. One should sing His praise who supports everybody, oh Nanak.

ਮ: 2॥ ਮਿਲਿਐ ਮਿਲਿਆ ਨ ਮਿਲੈ ਮਿਲੈ ਮਿਲਿਆ ਜੇ ਹੋਇ॥ ਅੰਤਰ ਆਤਮੈ ਜੋ ਮਿਲੈ ਮਿਲਿਆ ਕਹੀਐ ਸੋਇ॥3॥

M: 2: Miliyain miliya na milaiy, milaiy miliya jay hoyay. Untar aatmaiy jo milaiy, miliya kuhhiyaiy soyay. 3.

Word Meaning: Miliyaiy = connected with. Untar Aatmay = by the soul.

MEANING: One does not become connected to Waheguru simply because he claims to be connected. Only that devotee is really connected with Him whose soul has become “one” with Waheguru. 3.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਹਰਿ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮੁ ਸਲਾਹੀਐ ਸਚੁ ਕਾਰ ਕਮਾਵੈ॥ ਦੂਜੀ ਕਾਰੈ ਲਗਿਆ ਫਿਰਿ ਜੋਨੀ ਪਾਵੈ॥ ਨਾਮਿ ਰਤਿਆ ਨਾਮੁ ਪਾਈਐ ਨਾਮੇ ਗੁਣ ਗਾਵੈ॥ ਗੁਰ ਕੈ ਸਬਦਿ ਸਲਾਹੀਐ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮਿ ਸਮਾਵੈ॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਸੇਵਾ ਸਫਲ ਹੈ ਸੇਵਿਐ ਫਲ ਪਾਵੈ॥ 19॥

Paurri: Hur(i), Hur(i) Naam(u) salaahiyaiy, Sach(u) kaar kmaavaiy. Dooji kaaraiy luggiyaan, phir(i) joani paavaiy. Naam(i) ruttiyaan Naam(u) paayiyaiy, Naamay goon gaavaiy. Gur kaiy Shabad(i) salaahiyaiy, Hur(i) Naam(i) smaavaiy. Satgur sayva suful haiy, sayviyaiyn ful paavaiy. 19.

Word Meaning: Kaar Kmaavaiy = performance of deeds. Suful = successful. 19.

MEANING: The devotee, who sings Waheguru’s praise by reciting His Naam, is performing the true noble) deeds. A person who performs deeds related to Maya is reborn in many different life forms. A devotee, who is imbued in Waheguru’s Naam, and sings His praise, acquires His Naam (enshrines in his heart). A devotee, who sings Waheguru’s praise with Guru’s Shabad, gets absorbed in His Naam. The service to the Guru is perfectly successful, and one reaps that reward by serving Him (by acting on His Will). 19.

Sloak M: 2: Kis hee koyee Koyay, munj nimaani Ikk(u) Tu.

Word Meaning: Munj = I, mine. Mureejaiy = die. Ja Lug = when. 1.

MEANING: Everybody has support of one or the other source, but I, a poor, have only Your support, oh Waheguru. So, why would I not cry to (spiritual) death when (if) I do not keep You in mind (who is my sole support), oh Lord? 1.

ਮ:2 ॥ ਜਾ ਸੁਖੁ ਤਾ ਸਹੁ ਰਾਵਿਓ ਦੁਖਿ ਭੀ ਸੰਮਾਲਿਓਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕੁ ਕਹੈ ਸਿਆਣੀਏ ਇਉ ਕੰਤ ਮਿਲਾਵਾ ਹੋਇ॥ 2॥

M: 2: Ja sookh(u) ta Shuou raaviyo, dookh(i) bhee sumaalioye. Nanak(u), kuhhaiy siyaaniyaiy, iyoun Kunt milaava hoyay. 2.

Word Meaning: Shuhou = (Waheguru) husband. Raaviyo = recite Naam. Sumaalioye = keep in mind. Kunt = husband (God).

MEANING: Recite the Naam of Waheguru when you are enjoying comforts, and keep Him in mind whenever you are in trouble too, oh wise devotee. And, this is how you can achieve union with the Waheguru husband, says Nanak. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ ॥ ਹਉ ਕਿਆ ਸਾਲਾਹੀ ਕਿਰਮ ਜੰਤੁ ਵਡੀ ਤੇਰੀ ਵਡਿਆਈ॥ ਤੂ ਅਗਮ ਦਇਆਲੁ ਅਗੰਮੁ ਹੈ ਆਪਿ ਲੈਹਿ ਮਿਲਾਈ॥ ਮੈ ਤੁਝ ਬਿਨੁ ਬੇਲੀ ਕੋ ਨਹੀ ਤੂ ਅੰਤਿ ਸਖਾਈ॥ ਜੋ ਤੇਰੀ ਸਰਣਾਗਤੀ ਤਿਨ੍ਹ ਲੈਹਿ ਛਡਾਈ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਵੇਪਰਵਾਹੁ ਹੈ ਤਿਸੁ ਤਿਲੁ ਨ ਤਮਾਈ॥ 20॥1॥

Paurri: Huoun kiyya salaaheen kirm junt(u), vuddi Tayri vudiyaayee. Tu agum, duyyal(u) agumm(u) haiyn, Aap(i) laiyeh(i) milaayee. Mein Toojh bin(u) bayli ko nuhee, Tu unt(i) sukhaayee. Jo Tayri shernaagti, tinh laiyeh(i) chhudaayee. Nanak, vaypervaah(u) haiy, Tis(u) til(u) na tumaayee. 20.1.

Word Meaning: Kiyya = how? in what words? Kirm Junt = insignificant like a worm. Vuddi = beyond description. Vidiyaayee = greatness; magnificence. Agumm(u) = inaccessible. Bayli = friend = Sukhaayee. Shernaagti = in the shelter. Chhudaayee = save from all sins. Til(u) = minuscule. Vaypervaah(u) = indifferent. Tumaayee = desire.

MEANING: Your magnificence is beyond description; so how can an insignificant worm-like person like me sing Your praise, oh Waheguru? You are inaccessible, but are very kind, and connect Your devotees with You on Your own. I have no friend other than You, and You are my reliable friend at the end. You save those from all sins who come to Your shelter. Waheguru is completely care-free (indifferent) and has no desire – not even the size of a sesame seed - oh Nanak. 20.1.

Word Meaning: Avtur(i) Aayay = having taken birth. Mur(i) Jaayaybay Kuou = for the time of death. Kootumb(u) = family. Jeevaayiya = kept alive; raised. Ikksur = alone. Kuntth Gehn = held by the neck. Aagay Tay = earlier; before. Sumhaara = remembered.
MEANING: You have never recited Waheguru's Naam; so, what good have you achieved since your birth, oh man? 1.
What has happened to your thinking that you do not recite Waheguru's Naam; what arrangements have you made to make your death easy, oh unfortunate person? Pause.
You suffered a lot, and had some comforts too to keep your family alive. But you will suffer alone at the time of death. Who will you pray to when the Angel of Death grabs you by the neck? So, why do you not remember Waheguru early in life, oh Kabir? 3.1.

Word Meaning: Thurhur Kumpaiy = trembles uncontrollably (afraid). Baala Jeeo = ignorant soul. Peeo = Husband (Waheguru). Raiyn(i) = night; young life (when the hair is black like night). Din(u) = old age (when the hair is white like daylight). Bhuvur = (black like) bumblebee. Bug = (white like) heron. Pause.
Kaachaiy Kurvaiy = in an unbaked earthen vessel. Huns(u) = soul. Koomlaani = wilts.2.
Kooaar Kunniya = unmarried girl. Ruliyaan Maanaiy = enjoy life. Bhutaara = husband.3.
Kaag Oodaavut = shooing away crows to send messages (to Waheguru). Bhooja Piraani = the arm is tired. Siraani = about to end. 4.
MEANING: My ignorant soul is trembling uncontrollably because I do not know how my dear Waheguru will treat me (because I haven't served Him) (recited His Naam). 1.
My young age, when I had black hair, has gone by, and I am worried lest my old age, when I have grey hair all over, may also go by (without Waheguru's Naam). Pause.
The human body is like an unbaked earthen vessel which cannot retain water (because it gets eroded); so, when the soul leaves the body, it wilts away (collapses). 2.
Life without making a connection with God (without reciting His Naam) is like the adornment of an unmarried woman who cannot enjoy the love of her husband. 3.
(It has been a belief that the crows deliver human messages) My arm has tired flying away crows to send messages to God, but He has not come to my heart yet, even though the story of my life is about to end. I can only pray to Him to please come and show me His holy sight, begs Kabir. 4.2.

Jaagut soya, junum guvaaya. Maal(u) dhun(u) joriya, bhuyya puraaya. Kuhou Kabir tayee nur bhoolay, Khusm(u) bisaar(i) maati sung(i) roolay.4.3

Word Meaning: Amul Siraano = the time to perform deeds is over. Laykha Dayna = give account of deeds. Kutthin = tough; very strict. Doot = assistants. Khuttiya = earned. Shitaab = quickly. Deebaan(i) = the ruler (Angel of justice). Durhaal = right away. 1.

Foormaan(u) = order. Durgah = God's Court. Pause.

Gaanv = villages (unfinished business). Nibayr(i) = finish. Khurch = journey expenses. Saaroun = make arrangement. Suraayay = inn (lodging for visitors). Nivaaj = prayer. Goojaaroun = offer. 2.

Dhun(u) = great; worthy of respect. Eet, Oot = in this world and the next. Soohaylay = in comfort. Junum Pudaaruth = objective of human life. Amolay = priceless. 3.

Maal Dhun(u) = wealth. Puraaya = property of others. Tayee Nur = those men. Bhoolay = misled. Bisaar(i) = forgetting. Roolay = suffer humiliation. 4.

MEANING: (The nights of a Maya-engrossed person are spent in discomfort as his mind is never at peace due to his immoral deals). (Even his dreams are nightmarish in which) he sees the tough agents of the Angel of death coming to him and asking him to go with them and telling him that the days of his deeds are over, and the Lord has called him in to appear before Him in His Court to find out what (virtues) he had acquired, and which ones he had lost. He has to leave immediately as the Lord has ordered them (the agents) to produce him quickly before Him. 1 and Pause.

(The Maya-engrossed person is shocked to see the agents in his dream, and thinking that he can bribe them just like most of the officers in authority in the world, he begins to make excuses to delay his departure) and begins to request that he has some unfinished business with some people in the village which he can finish tonight if they allow him to do so. To get concession, he tries to bribe the agents saying that by finishing his business in which he has to recover some debts, he would be able to raise some money for their journey expenses too, and that he will leave with them early in the morning (and to give them the false impression of his religiosity) he adds that he will offer his first prayer on their first stop at the inn. 2.

To spend nights in comfort, one needs to come to the shelter of the holy saints where one can sing God's praise and be imbued with His love. Such individuals are highly fortunate. They are in comfort in this world and the next. They become priceless (attain a high spiritual state) by winning (achieving) the objective of human life successfully. 3.

A man, who is asleep from the reality (purpose of human life) of life while his eyes are still open, wastes away his precious life. He accumulates wealth (with great hardships) which turns out to become the property of others. Such people are misled to forget God's Naam and suffer humiliation by becoming a part of dust after death, oh Kabir. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Lalit = a subcategory of Suhi Raag. Thaakay = exhausted. Naiyn = eyes. Servun = ears; hearing. Kaaya = body. Juraa = old age. Haak Dee = announced. 1.
Baavray = foolish. Taiyn = you. Birtha = empty. Guvaayay = wasted away. Pause.
Tub Lug = so long as. Tisaiy = Waheguru. Srayhou = serve (recite Naam). Ghut(u) = heart; body. Bhaaou = love. Churn = Feet (Naam). 2.
Chookay = ends. Piyaasa = thirst (for worldly affairs). Chaupurr(i) = a game of dice (which was very popular at that time). Mun Jin(i) = control over mind. Paasha = die. 3.
Abigut(i) = invisible (God). Naasa = destruction; damage. Dhaal = throw die. 4.

MEANING: As old age announces its arrival (approaches), all man's vital organs, including his eyes, hearing, his attractive body, and his wisdom (thinking ability) get exhausted (become very weak); but, its appetite for Maya (worldly attractions) does not become weak (is not lessened). 1.
You did not foster any attraction for Divine Knowledge (pondering on the Guru's Shabad), and have wasted away your precious human life, oh foolish man. Pause.
You should serve Waheguru (recite His Naam) till your last breath because with God's Feet (His Naam) enshrined in your heart, your love for Him will not disappear even after your body goes away (after your death), oh man. 2.
The devotee, in whose heart God implants His Naam, loses all his thirst for Maya. Such a devotee understands the Will of God, and like an expert player at the game of dice, throws the die skillfully (controls his mind and performs deeds which are acceptable to God). 3.
The devotee, who understands God's Will and makes a connection with the invisible God (recites His Naam), can suffer no (spiritual) damage, and they never lose the game of life who cast the die skillfully (perform deeds in accordance with God's Will), oh Kabir. 4.4.

Kuhou Kabir, mein so Gur paaya, ja ka naaoun Bibayko. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Koat(u) = fort (human body). Punch = five(demons). Sikdaara = rogues like leaders. Haala = tax (in terms of noble qualities). Jimee Nuhee Boyee = have not done any injustice to anyone. Dookhaala = painful. 1.
Dussaiy = stings; tortures. Patvaari = revenue officer of the lowest rank in the villages; the five demons (lust, rage, greed, attachments, and ego). Pookaariya = prayed to. Oobaari = emancipated. Pause. Nuoun = nine (body doors). Daadi = who measure land to meet needs; assessors. Dus = ten (five senses and five executers). Moonsuf = judges who decide whether the demons' needs are justified. Dhaaveh(i) = attack. Ruyyiut = subjects. Busn = let live. Dori = a unit of length. Bishtaala = filthy (immoral) tax .2.
Buhuttar Ghur = the human body with 72,000 veins and nerves. Ikk(u) Purakh = Waheguru. Duftur Sodhiya = cleared the account. Baaki = balance. Rijum = minuscule.3
Nind-hou = criticize maliciously. Bibayko = Divine Knowledge. 4.

NOTE: Kabir Sahib uses the village revenue officer (who is usually very corrupt) and his immoral ways to assess taxes as an example to illuminate the unfair demands of human senses and how to deal with them.

MEANING: The five demons always torture me (force me to commit immoral deeds), oh the holy saints. So, I raised my arm to call my Guru for help. He kindly emancipated me from them. Pause.
There is only one human body, but five rogue-like leaders in the form of demons, which demand tax (in the form of sensual pleasures) from it (they go way beyond limits in their demands). I have not caused them any injustice (I meet their just demands), so I find it painful to pay them unjust additional taxes (meet their unjust demands). 1.
There are nine assessors (in the form of 9 openings of the body) that determine the needs of the five demons, and there are ten judges (five senses and their five implementors) that decide whether the demands of the demons are just. They are all corrupt and rush to attack the human body, and do not let him live in peace. Their demands and assessments are not just, and they demand too much immoral tax in the form of filthy sensual pleasures. 2.
With His grace, the Guru implanted God’s Naam in the heart of my body which has 72 main arteries (the old religious books believed that there are 72000 veins and nerves in the human body of which 72 are the major ones); with God's Naam in my heart (no demon was able to rob me of my noble qualities), so when the office of the Angel of justice looked at my account, he found no balance at all of immoral deeds left in my account. 3.

(I attained the above spiritual state by the grace of the Guru), so, nobody should ever vilify God's saints because they are just like Him. I have realized the Guru in the form of Divine Knowledge, oh Kabir. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Sheh = husband. Saar = worth. Soohaagun(i) = married (connected with Waheguru-Husband). Tuj(i) = give up. Ruliyaan Maanaiy = enjoys luxuries. Untar(u) = gap; separation; secret. Abhaakhaiy = bad language. 1.
Kut = how? Peer = pain. Puraayee = of others. Durd = pain. Paayee = a very small amount (of money). Pause.
Doohaagun(i) = separated from husband. Doyay Pukh = both sides (this world and the next). Heeni = devoid of. Naah = Nath = Lord. Niruntar(i) = uniformly (with focussed mind). Purslaat = an Islamic belief that everybody has to walk on the bridge with a width of the size of hair built on the fire of hell. Punth = path. Doohayla = difficult. Guvun = journey. Ikayla = alone. 2.
Durdvund(u) = needing sympathy. Dur(i) = (God's) Door. Piyaas = deep desire. Jubaab = response. Shern = refuge. Gut(i) = high (spiritual) state; salvation. 3.

MEANING: Only the devotee married to (spiritually connected with) Waheguru knows the true worth (transcendence) of her Husband. She enjoys the luxuries (blissfulness) of the love for God (Waheguru). She offers her body and mind in His service and keeps no secret from Him. She does not copy others (Maya-engrossed people) and does not listen to their language (in favour of Maya and against God). 1.
How can a person realize the pain of (separation from God) of others who do not suffer from even a slight pain themselves (who are totally disconnected from Him)? Pause.
The individual, who does not worship God with a focused mind (loves Maya too), gets devoid of comforts in both worlds (he does not enjoy the comforts of Maya in this world, and does not get Allah's love in the next). The journey on Purslaat is extremely difficult, and he has to walk alone, with no friend or companion. 2.

Hearing about the many bad consequences of Maya, I feel deeply uncomfortable and need God's kindness. I went to His Door with my prayer with a deep desire to see Him, but did not get any response (because of my divided loyalties between Him and Maya). I pray to God that I have come to His shelter (with a pure mind now); kindly provide Your shelter, and grant me salvation in whatever way You deem fit, prays Ravidass. 3.1.

Word Meaning: Kooch = leave. Rehn(u) = stay. Thir = for ever. Sung = companions. Guvun = journey. Sir Oopur(i) = (looming) over the head. Merna = death. 1.
Iyaana = ignorant. Jug(i) = in the world. Sach(u) = eternal. Pause.
Rijk(u) = necessities of life. Umbraavaiy = delivers. Bheetur(i) = inside. Haat(u) = store of supplies. Chulaavaiy = runs. Mein Mayra = discrimination. Suvayra = early. 2.
Siraano = near the end. Suvaara = decorated; made easy (to unite with God). Saanjh = evening. Dehdis = every direction. Nidaan(i) = at the end. Phunkhaanay = perishable.
MEANING: Every new day that starts, goes by (your life is slipping away by the day); we cannot live in the world forever, and have to leave one day, oh my friend. (You may think that) The journey of life is long (you still have a long life ahead to worship God), but our companions are leaving, and we have to leave too, as death is looming over our heads. 1.
Why are you sleeping away your life with the false belief that you are going to live in this world forever? Wake up (to the reality of life), oh, the ignorant man, and worship God. Pause.
God, which has given you the life, also delivers the necessities of life. He runs His store of supplies in your heart (He knows your needs, as He is present there). Give up your selfishness and discrimination against others, and worship the Lord, and keep Him in your mind all the time, oh man. 2.
Your life is nearing its end, but you have not done anything to make the journey to the next world comfortable (to have union with God). It is the evening of your life, and there is darkness (of ignorance) all around you. I, Ravidass, have only one piece of advice to offer at the end: that this world is perishable and you must keep God in mind, oh foolish man. 3.2.

Hum tuou Aik Ram keh(i) chhootiya. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Mundar = mansions. Shaal Rusoyee = kitchen. Phoon(i) = again; at the time of death. 1.

Ghaas = graas; straw. Taati = mat. Rul(i) Guyyo = mixed well with. Maati = dust. Pause. Bundh = relatives. Suhayra = friends. Kaadh(u) = take out. Suvayra = early; quickly. 2.

Ooreh(i) Tun = chest. Bhoot(u) = ghost. Lootiya = robbed. Chhootiya = salvaged. 3-4.

MEANING: You have built tall mansions and a luxurious kitchen, but when death comes, you cannot stay there even for a short moment, oh man. 1.

The human body is like a mat of straws which burns quickly and mixes with dust. Pause.

Even all your brothers, relatives, family members, and friends (whom you love very much) start saying, “take the dead body out quickly.” 2.

Let alone everybody else, even the wife of the dead person, who always clung to his chest, runs away, calling him a ghost. 3.

The whole world is robbed of its spiritual wealth by its worldly attachments, but I have been salvaged by reciting God’s Naam, oh Ravidass. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Tup(i) = suffer in the burning of heart. Looh(i) = suffer in pain. Haath Muroroun = repent. Baavul(i) = crazy. Shuhou =Sheh = (Allah) husband. Loaroun = wish for. Roas(u) = displeasure. Uvgun = bad qualities. Doash(u) = blame. 1.
Saar = worth. Jobun = young age. Khoyay = lost; gone. Paachaiy = after. Pause.
Koyil = a black songbird. Kit Goon = for what reason? Birhay Jaali = burning (suffering) in the pain of separation. Bihoon = without. Kuteh(i) = where? Kirpaal(u) = kind. 2.
Vidhun = frightening. Khoohi = well (world). Moondh = ignorant young woman. Bayli = friend. Mayli = connected with. Allhou = Allah; God. 3.
Vaat = journey. Khuree = much. Oodeeni = sad; hopeless; worrying. Khunniyoun = dagger. Tikhi = sharp. Piyeeni = thin. Maarug(u) = path. Suvayra = early; always. 4.
MEANING: My heart is burning, and I am suffering from the pain of separation from my dear Allah, and repenting (at my stupid deeds due to my attraction to Maya). I am crazily wishing for my dear Lord. I know, my Lord is displeased with my behaviour. I cannot blame Him for that because it is I who has all the faults (bad qualities). 1.
I did not value the worth of my Lord; now I am repenting after my young age has slipped away. Pause.
When I asked the black songbird for what reasons she was black, she replied that she was black because her heart was burning due to her separation from her dear mate. Like the songbird, how can a devotee find comfort anywhere without the Lord? But when Allah is kind, He connects the devotees with Him. 2.
The world is like a frightening, dark well, and the ignorant young woman is all alone without any friends or support (without any spiritual guidance). With His grace, Allah put me in the shelter of the Guru. Now, I find Allah as my friend everywhere. 3.
But, the path to union with Allah is extremely difficult and worrisome at an advanced age because it is very narrow and sharp like a dagger (where you can get hurt if you make a wrong move) (if you again get attracted by the allurement of Maya). So, one must start worshipping Allah early in life (so that you overcome the attractions of Maya early in life), oh Sheikh Farid. 4.1.

Suhi Lulit : Bayrra bundh(i) na sukiyou, bundhun kee vayla. Bhur(i) survur(u) jub oochhlaiy, tub turn(u) doohayla. 1. Huth(u) na laayay kusoombhrraiy, jul(i) jaasi dhoala. 1. Ruhaou. Ikk aapinaiy putlee, Sheh kay ray Boala. Doodha thunee na aavyee, phir(i) hoyay na mayla. 2. Kuhhaiy Farid(u) suhaylio, Shuhou alaayaysi. Huns(u) chullsi doomna, eh(i) tun dhayri theesi. 3.2.

Word Meaning: Bayrra = boat (to swim across the world-sea). Bundh(i) = build. Vayla = time. Survur(u) = the pool of heart (mind). Jub = when. Oochhlaiy = overflows with sins. Tub = then. Turn = swimming. Doohayla = difficult. 1.
Kusoombhrraiy = a flower which looks very attractive, but is short-lived and wilts away upon touching. Maya is compared to this flower in its attraction and its short-lived comforts. Jul(i) Jaasi = will burn; will leave quickly. Dhoala = dear.

Aapinaiy = in themselves. Putlee = thin; weak in noble qualities. Ray Boala = words of insult. Doodha Thunee = union with (Allah) husband. 2. Alaayaysi = will say (order). Huns(u) = soul. Doomna = indecisive (caught between the attractions of Maya and the awaiting justice of Allah). Dhayri = pile of dirt. Theesi = become. 3.

MEANING: Do not touch Maya (do not fall in love with it), because you will suffer as it is like the Kusoombh flower, which looks very pretty but lives for a very short time and withers away on touch, oh my dear friend. (The comforts of Maya seem very pretty, but are short-lived, and could cause heart-burning for you), oh man. Pause.

One needs a boat of noble qualities to swim across the world-sea. (But, when the man is trapped in the attractions of Maya), The pool of his mind (which should have Naam-Amrit in it, or should be full of noble qualities) begins to overflow with sins (because one commits countless sins to accumulate wealth), and with such a heavy load of sins, he cannot swim across the world- sea. At that time, it became extremely difficult to swim across the world-sea without the boat of noble qualities which he could not build. 1.

Some of the people are weak in noble qualities and have to face the words of insult in Allah's Court. They cannot get connected with Him and enjoy His love. 2.

Farid says when the order of Allah comes for a man to leave this world, his soul leaves the world indecisively (caught between the attractions of Maya and love for Allah), while the body becomes a pile of dirt. 3.2.
