(PAGE 795): Tu Sultan, kuhhaan huoun Meeyaan, Tayri kuvun vudaayee. Jo Tu dayh(i) su kuhhaan Soami, mein moorukh kehn(u) na jaayee. 1. Tayray goon gaavaan, dayh(i) boojhaayee. Jaiysay Sach meh(i) ruhoun rujaayee. 1. Ruhaou. Jo kichh(u) hoa, subh(u) kichh(u) Toojh tay, Tayri subh usnaayee. Tayra unt(u) na jaana mayray Sahib, mein undhulay kiyya chuturaayee. 2. Kiyya huoun kutheen, kuthay kuth(i) daykhaan, mein Akuth(u) na kuthnaa jaayee. Jo Toodh bhaavaiy soyee aakhaan til(u) Tayri vudiyaayee. 3. Aitay kookur, huoun baygaana, bhaunkaan iss(u) tun(u) taayeen. Bhugut(i) heen(u) Nanak(u) jay hoyayga, ta Khusmaiy Naaoun na jaayee. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Chaupuday = Shabad with four stanzas. Sultan = king. Meeyaan = Mr. Sir. Vudaayee = praise. 1. Boojhaayee = wisdom; understanding. Sach Meh(i) = in Waheguru's (Naam). Rujaayee = Will. Pause.
Usnaayee = greatness; magnanimity. Chuturaayee = smartness. 2.
Kutheen = describe. Akuth(u) = indescribable. Bhaavaiy = liked by. Til(u) = the size of a sesame seed (extremely small amount). 3.
Aitay = so many. Kookur = dogs; worldly attractions. Baygaana = stranger. Bhaunkaan = bark; pray loudly (to defend myself). Bhugut(i) Heen(u) = devoid of Waheguru's worship. Naaoun = greatness. Na Jaayee = will not diminish. 4.

MEANING: (I am of low wisdom), and address You as Mr., whereas You are the Emperor of the universe, oh Lord. What kind of praise is this!! But, as I said, I am foolish and do not know more than this; I say use those words which my wisdom, given by You, allows me to say. 1. Please, give me the understanding so that I may appreciate Your magnanimity, sing Your praise, and stay absorbed in Your Naam with Your Will, oh Waheguru. Pause. Whatever has happened (the creation of the universe), has been caused by Your Majesty. I am blind of wisdom, and have no smartness to know anything about Your limits (capabilities), oh Waheguru. 2.
What Grandeur of Yours can I describe and see it (appreciate that) by simple description? Your Splendour is indescribable. If, I am able to sing any small fraction of Your praise to Your liking, even that is only because of Your benevolence. 3.
There are so many dogs in the form of worldly attractions which attack my good qualities, and I am a stranger to them here (because, unlike most people who fall prey to such dogs, I do not yield easily to their demands), and bark loudly (pray to You) to keep them away to protect myself. However, if I, Nanak, fail to resist their demands of sensual pleasures, and am unable to worship You, I am confident that Your Greatness (kindness to protect Your devotees) will not be any less, oh Waheguru. 4.1.

Bilawal(u) Mehla 1: Mun(u) mundar(u), tun(u) vays klundar(u), ghut hee teeruth(i) naavaan. Aik Shabad(u) mayraiy praan(i) bust(u) haiy, baahourr(i) junum(i) na aavaan. 1. Mun(u) baydhiya Duyyaal sayti mayri maayee. Kaun(u) jaaniay peer puraayee. Hum naahi chint puraayee. 1. Ruhaou. Agumm, Agoachur, Alukh, Apaara, chinta kurhou humaari. Jul(i), thul(i), muhhiyl(i), bhurpur(i) leena, ghut(i)l ghut(i) Jot(i) Toomhaari. 2. Sikh, mut(i) subh boodh(i) Toomhaari, mundir chhaavaa tayray. Toojh bin(u) uver(u) na jaana mayray Sahiba, goon gaavaan nit tayray. 3. Jea, junt subh(i) shern(i) Toomhaari, serb chint Toodh(u) paasay. Jo Toodh bhaavaiy soyee chunga, ikk Nanak kee ardaasay. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Mundar(u) = temple. Vays = garb. Klundar(u) = the highest-level saint in Islam; a roaming ascetic. Ghut Hee = in my own heart. Shabad(u) = Naam(u). Praan(i) = in my soul. Bust(u) = resides. Baahourr(i) = again. 1.

Baydhiya = pierced; stitched with. Duyyaal = kind (Waheguru). Sayti = with. Puraayee = of others. Chint = worry (that people will taunt me). Pause.

Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Alukh = invisible. Apaara = limitless. Chinta = look after. Muhhiul(i) = in the sky. Bhurpur(i) Leena = present everywhere. Ghut(i) = in heart. Jot(i) = light; Soul. 2.

Sikh = advice = Mut(i). Boodh(i) = wisdom. Mundar = human body. Chhaava = support.3. Paasay = with. Bhaavaiy = is liked. 4.

MEANING: (People wear garbs of holy saints, go to temples to worship their deities, and take dips at holy places), but my mind is the temple for me, my body itself is the garb of the roaming ascetics, and my heart is the holy place (where Waheguru's Naam resides) where I take dips in the Naam-Amrit. As Waheguru's Naam is enshrined in my mind, I will not take birth again in any form. 1.

My mind has been pierced (stitched) with Waheguru's Naam, and nobody knows the pain that my heart suffers in His separation (if I do not recite His Naam), oh my mother. (People taunt those who ignore the idols and worship the invisible Waheguru), But I do not care about such people. Pause.

The inaccessible, incomprehensible, invisible, and the limitless Waheguru looks after me. He is present everywhere - in the waters, on the land, and in the sky – and enlightens every heart. 2.

All the advice and the wisdom are given by Him, and He provides support to our bodies. I sing only His praise, and do not recognize anybody else as the supreme power. 3.

All the living beings are in Your shelter (You are their provider and the guard), and You worry about (look after) them, oh Waheguru. I, Nanak, pray only to You, and believe that whatever You do is for our good, oh Lord. 4.2.

Bilawal(u) Mehla 1: Aapay Shabad(u), Aapay neeshaan(u). Aapay soorta, Aapay jaan(u). Aapay kur(i), kur(i) vaykhaiy taan(u). Tu Daata, Naam(u) pervaan(u). 1.

(PAGE 796): Aiysa Naam(u) Nirunjun Dayo. Huoun jaachik, Tu Alukh, Abhayo. 1. Ruhaou. Maaya moh(u) dhurkutee naar(i). Bhoondi kaamun(i), kaamuniyaar. Raj(u), roop(u) jhoottha din chaar(i). Naam(u) milaiy, chaanun(u) undhiyaar(i). 2. Chukh(i) chhoadi, sehsa nuhee koyay. Baap(u) disaiy, vayjaat(i) na hoyay. Aikay kuou naahi bhuou koyay. Kerta kuray, kuraavaiy Soyay. 3. Shabad(i) mooyay, mun(u) mun tay maariya. Tthaak(i) ruhhay, mun(u) Saachaiy dhaariya. Uver(u) na soojhaiy, Gur kuou vaariya. Nanak, Naam(i) ruttay nistaariya. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Shabad = words of praise = Naam. Neeshaan(u) = identification (to be recognized in Waheguru's Court). Soorta = listener. Jaan(u) = know-all; omniscient. Taan(u) = power. Daata = provider; Lord. Pervaan(u) = approval. 1.
Nirunjun = above the effects of Maya (Waheguru). Dayo = enlightening. Jaachik = beggar. Alukh = invisible. Abhayo = whose secrets cannot be known. Pause.
Dhurkutee Naar(i) = immoral (unfaithful) woman. Bhoondi = filthy in character; immoral. Kaamuniyaar = one who practices witchcraft (bewitches). Jhoottha = short-lived. Din Chaar(i) = a few days. Chaanun(u) = light. Undhiyaar(i) = in darkness. 2.
Chukh(i) Chhoadi = have tasted (tested). Sehsa = doubt. Vayjaat = bastard. Aikay Kuou = who belongs to the "One" Waheguru. Bhuou = fear. Soyay = the same (God). 3.
Mooyay = dead towards (no connection with) Maya. Tthaak Ruhhay = stop; control mind. Dhaariya = supported by. Soojhaiy = can think of. Vaariya = sacrifice. Ruttay = imbued in love of. Nistaariya = salvaged. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru and His Naam are one and the same (His Naam is His manifestation), and His Naam is also the identification for recognition in His Court. He listens to the needs of His living beings and knows everything about them (He is omniscient). He creates things with His power and watches (enjoys) them. You are the Lord of the universe, and Your Naam is the only thing that is approved by You, oh God. 1. Even though Waheguru is invisible, and nobody can ever know His secrets, His Naam enlightens our minds. I am a beggar at His Door begging for His Naam. Pause.
Maya bewitches the man, but is like an immoral and unfaithful woman (who is never yours forever); so, love for Maya is deceitful too. Even the reign and the beauty are short-lived, but Waheguru's Naam is like a powerful light in darkness (which is man's friend forever). 2. It has been tested and seen that there is never a fear (doubt) about the legitimacy of a child if his father is visible (known to everybody). Similarly, a man has no worldly fear if he is a devotee of the one and only Waheguru (which is his father). Waheguru Himself guides him and inspires him to perform noble deeds. 3.

Those who kill their mind (its desires) by Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's Naam), keep their mind in control (it quits wandering) with Waheguru's support. They cannot think of any other power, and are always willing to sacrifice their lives for the Guru (act only on His advice). Imbued in Waheguru's Naam, they are salvaged by the Lord, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Bilawal(u) Mehla 1: Gur Buchnee mun(u) Sehj dhiyaanay. Hur(i) kaiy rung(i) rutta mun(u) maanay. Munmukh(i) bherm(i) bhoollay buouraanay. Hur(i) bin(u) kiyoun ruhhiyaiy, Gur Shabad puchhaanay. 1. Bin(u) dershun kaiysay jeevoun mayri maayee. Hur(i) bin(u) jeeura reh(i) na sukaiy khin(u), Satgur(i) boojh boojhaayee. 1. Ruhaou. Mayra Prubh(u) bisraiy, huoun muroun dookhaali. Saas(i), giraas(i) jupoun apunay Hur(i) bhaaleen. Sud baiyraagun(i), Hur(i) Naam(u) nihaaleen. Ub jaanay Gurmukh(i) Hur(i) naali. 2. Akuth Kutha kuhhiyaiy Gur bhaayay. Prubh(u) agumm, agoachur(u) dayay dhikhaayay. Bin(u) Gur kerni kiyaa kaar kmaayay. Haumein mayt(i) chullaiy, Gur Shabad(i) smaayay. 3. Munmukh(u) vichhurraiy, khoati raas(i). Gurmukh(i) Naam(i) milaiy shaabaash(i). Hur(i) kirpa dhaari, daasun(i) daas. Jun Nanak Hur(i) Naam dhun(u) raas(i). 4.4.

Word Meaning: Buchnee = words; advice. Sehj = spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Rung(i) = in love. Rutta = imbued. Maanay = is convinced. Bherm(i) Bhoollay = misled by misgivings. Buouraana = crazy. Bin(u) = without. Puchhaanay = recognize.1 Dershun = sight. Jeeurra = soul. Khin(u) = short moment. Boojh = understanding. Pause. Bisraiy = forgotten. Dookhaali = in pain. Giraas(i) = bite. Bhaaleen = I search for. Baiyraagun(i) = detached from worldly attractions. Nihaleen = I see. Naali = with. 2. Akuth = indescribable. Kutha = description. Bhaayay = with love. Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Gur Kerni = do as advised by the Guru.
Kaar Kmaayay = perform deeds. Mayt(i) = by eliminating. Chullaiy = follow the path. 3. Munmukh(u) = follower of mind; Maya-engrossed; not follower of the Guru. Vichhurraiy = detached; disconnected. Khoati = impure; adulterated. Raas(i) = capital; wealth of ignoble qualities). Shaabaash(i) = earns accolades. Daasun(i) Daas = slave of slaves. 4.

MEANING: With Guru's Shabad, a devotee's mind stays focused on Waheguru's Naam, and he attains the high spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Imbued in Waheguru's love, his mind is fully convinced about Waheguru as the only Supreme Being. On the other hand, the followers of their mind are insane, who are misled in life by their misgivings. How can one survive spiritually without Waheguru's Naam? We can recognize (connect with) Him with Guru's Shabad. 1.

How can I survive without having Waheguru's sight, oh my mother? Satguru has given me the wisdom to worship Waheguru, so now my soul (mind) cannot be peaceful even for a short moment without Waheguru (His Naam). Pause.

I suffer miserably when I forget my Waheguru. Searching for my Waheguru, I recite His Naam with every breath and every bite. In His love, I am fully detached from Maya, and "see" Him through His Naam. In the shelter of the Guru, now I see Him always with me. 2.

We can describe some virtues (sing praise) of the indescribable Waheguru with love for the Guru (as per His advice) who has "shown" me the inaccessible and the incomprehensible Waheguru. What kind of useful deeds can one perform other than those advised by the Guru? One should rid oneself of selfishness and ego to remain absorbed in the Guru's Shabad. 3. The followers of their mind are disconnected from Waheguru, and they have impure (unholy) wealth of ignoble qualities to take to Waheguru's Court. But the followers of the Guru earn accolades there because of Waheguru's Naam in their hearts. With Waheguru's grace, they are humble like the slaves of His slaves. I am also a slave of Waheguru, and possess His Naam as my wealth for His Court, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Dhrig(u) = reprehensible; shameful. Ung(i) = body. Kootumb = family. Sehit = including. Siyoun = with. Paurri = ladder. Chhootki = dropped; disconnected. Ehila = highly valuable. Guvaaya = wasted away. 1.
Liv Laagun(i) = focus mind on; meditate. Churn = Feet = Naam. Jug-Jeevun = soul of the world (God). Daata = provider; Lord. Jun = devotees. Nivaaray = removed. Pause.
Duyya-Put(i) = Lord (source) of compassion. Junt = living beings. Vichaaray = poor; helpless. Mookt = freedom from worldly bonds. Bundh = worldly attachments. Vukhaanay = (holy saints) describe (advise) us. 2.
Aik = the "One" (God). Gehn Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Suvaaray = decorated (with noble qualities); purified. Bherm(i) Bhoolaanay = misled by misgivings. Oorvaar(i) = on this side of the world sea (worldly attachments). Paaray = on the other side of the sea.3.
Nudr(i) = kind sight. Smaahlay = remember. Nistaaray = salvaged. Bhaag(u) = fortune. Mutuk(i) = on the forehead. Kaaleh(i) = (fear of) death. Bidaaray = destroys. 4.
MEANING: Reprehensible is the eating, the sleeping. and the wearing of clothes, and shameful is the body and the family of the individual who does not make a connection with Waheguru in this human life. Such people waste away their precious human life, and like the person who cannot get back on the ladder he missed, they cannot get human life again. 1. Love for Maya, which causes the man to forget Waheguru's Naam in the first place, does not let him meditate on that (the Naam) again. Waheguru, which is the life (soul) of the world, and which is the Lord (provider for all living beings), eradicates all the troubles of His devotees. Pause.
You are compassionate, a source of mercy, and the provider for us all; the living beings are helpless and are at Your mercy, oh Waheguru. The holy saints are known to advise that it is entirely up to You who You emancipate from the bonds of Maya, and who You get trapped in worldly bonds, oh Lord. Those who come to Guru's shelter get salvaged, while the followers of their mind are helpless and get engrossed in Maya. 2.
Those devotees who stay connected with Waheguru and consider Him always close to them are emancipated. Waheguru Himself adorns them with noble qualities (purifies their mind), and no one can describe their high spiritual state. But, those, who are misled by their misgivings, follow their own mind, and they are successful neither on this side of the world-sea (cannot enjoy life here for ever), nor they reach the other side of the world-sea (swim across it to merge into Waheguru); they simply drown in the world-sea (stay trapped in the birth-death cycle). 3. Only that devotee recites Waheguru's Shabad (and acts on His advice) on whom Waheguru casts His kind sight. Waheguru's devotees are salvaged even when they spend their life in a family where they have to deal with Maya. Those who have good fortune prewritten on their foreheads destroy the fear of death, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Atooll(u) = which cannot be weighed. Toaliya = to weigh. Dooja = some other (to compare). Sojhi = understanding; gain information. Kikkoon = how? 1.
Jaanaiy = understand; make connection. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Pause.
Sraaf(u) = goldsmith; assessor. Kusvutti = touch stone; testing device. Purkhay = tests. Chulaayay = approves. Aiko Soyay = the “One” God. 2.
Roop(u) = forms. Nirmul = pure. Laayay = motivates; puts to work. Sach(u) = eternal. 3.
Liv = concentration of mind. Dhaat(u) = (attraction for) Maya. Boojhaayay = gives understanding. Jaapay = recites Naam. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru cannot be weighed (His worth can never be known) (because there is none other like Him against which He can be compared), so, how can we weigh Him? Because there is none other like Him, how can we assess His worth? 1.
One can only enshrine Waheguru (His Naam) in one's heart by the grace of the Guru. Whoever makes a connection with Waheguru gets rid of his indecisiveness (struggle to choose between Him and Maya) and affirms his faith in Waheguru. Pause.
Waheguru, Himself, is the goldsmith (assessor of qualities) for the living beings, and tests them on His testing device. He Himself tests them (assesses their qualities) and approves (some of them) who turn out to be perfect. But only He knows who is perfect. 2.
All different forms of Maya have been created by Waheguru (to attract people to run the affairs of the world). (Most people are captivated by the attractions of Maya and accumulate the filth of immoral acts under its influence. But a few stay pure who are connected to Waheguru. But only those get attached to Waheguru (recite His Naam) whom He puts in the shelter of the Guru, who “shows” them the eternal Waheguru, as a result of which, they get absorbed in Him. 3. Waheguru Himself causes some people to meditate on Him, and some to pursue the gimmicks of Maya. He Himself gives the understanding about Him (enlightens their minds) and appears in their hearts. He Himself is the Shabad (His Naam) and Himself the Satgur. He disseminates His Message Himself (through Satguru, which is His manifestation), oh Nanak. 4.2.

Ikkna ghur meh(i) day vudiyaayee, ikk(i) bherm(i) bhuveh(i) abhimaana. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Sahib = Master. Sayvuk = servant; devotee. Buhaana = excuse; rationale. Khayl(u) = drama of the world. Aik Sumaana = uniform. 1.

Perchaiy = teachings. Kerm(u) = munificence. Undin(u) = everyday; always. Sehj = high spiritual state. Dhiyaana = focus of mind. Pause.

Abhimaana = pride; conceit. Jot(i) = Light; Soul. Khincheh(i) = pull out. Vukhiyaana = explanation. 2.

Chayla = disciple. Gooni-Nidhaana = treasure of virtues. Chulaayay = make perform deeds. Bhaavaiy = is liked. Bhugwaana = God. Kaama = tasks; plans. 4.

MEANING: An individual is recognized as a master only if he has a servant, and vice versa; this fact cannot be denied by any excuse. Similarly, Waheguru has created the drama of the world in which this principle applies everywhere uniformly – He is the Lord, and the masses are His slaves (dependent upon Him for their survival). 1.

A devotee becomes absorbed in Waheguru's Naam through the teachings of the Satguru and remains focused on His Naam at all times, in a high spiritual state. But only those devotees come to Satguru's shelter who have the benevolence of Waheguru. Pause.

But nobody can serve You, or feel conceited (of their abilities) on their own (they cannot function independently; You make the individuals do whatever You want them to do). Let them show (if they may) what they can do or describe when You pull Your light (their soul) out of them, oh Waheguru. 2.

(Being present in everybody), Waheguru Himself is the Guru, and Himself the disciple, and He Himself is the treasure of all noble qualities. Individuals perform only those kinds of things (deeds) which Waheguru likes, and which He wants them to perform. 3.

Waheguru is the eternal Lord, and no one knows what he has in store. He brings praise to some and misguides others by feeding them misgivings and ego, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Poora = perfect. Thaat(u) = construct; system. Perpunch = world. 1. Jeeoun = from the depth of heart; with full faith. Ruvaiy = is present. Pause.
Joogaan = of the (four) eons. Nibayrra = final decision; settle the issue. Aik Nidhaana = one source (Waheguru's Naam). Jut(u) = control over lust. Sunjum = control on sensual pleasures. Teeruth = pilgrimage. Dherm(u) = principle. Soadh(i) = study deeply. Bayd = Vedas. Gurmukh(i) = in Guru's shelter (guidance). Pooay = perfect. Pervaana = approved. 3. Chookay = is removed (eradicated). Abhimaana = conceit; ego. Maanut = those who obey (the Guru). Nidhaana = treasure (of Waheguru's Naam). 4.

MEANING: The perfect Waheguru has created a perfect system in the whole universe uniformly, so that only His praise (in the shelter of Satguru) is recognized (as the only way to connect with Him); so, let no one be proud of any other effort. 1.
Whoever acquires Satguru's wisdom (follows His advice from the depth of his heart), and recites His Bani (Shabad in Waheguru's praise), embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart, and gets absorbed in Satguru (His Shabad). Pause.
Now (this eon - Kulyug) is the time to settle this issue (Waheguru's system as discussed above) for all four eons, no matter what the eon is. The first three yugas – Satyug, Treta and Duaapur – used the principles of control on lust, control on sensual pleasures, and pilgrimage as their way to connect with their deities (or God), but this is the eon in which (in fact in all eons) Waheguru's praise (recitation of His Naam) is the only approved means to connect with Him. 2.
You can study the Vedas and the Puranas carefully to find that each eon believed in, and used its own principle to connect with God, but the fact is, only those who recited His Naam in the shelter of the Guru were approved to be perfect by Waheguru. 3.
An individual who attaches his mind to the eternal Waheguru gets rid of his ego, oh Nanak. All those who recite or listen to Waheguru's Naam enjoy comfort, but only that individual gets connected with the treasure of all virtues (Waheguru), who obeys His Huqam, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Jo Sach(i) raatay, tinh buhourr(i) na phayra. Nanak, Naam(u) drirrayay, Poora Gur(u) mayra. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Bilawal(u) = ecstasy; bliss. Soohaavay = attractive. Mungul = song of happiness. Naari = senses. Preetum = Dear (Waheguru). 1.

Tin = those. Bulihaaray = sacrifice life. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = with love in the high spiritual state; in natural way (without any special effort). Pause.

Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in the love. Chaayay = zestfulness. Sobha = praise; honour.2.

Rungaayay = dye heart. Chuloolay = deep red (never-fading). Bhaayay = in love. 3.

Ugiyaan(u) = ignorance. Buhourr(i) = again. Phayra = rebirths. Drirraayay = reinforces. 4.

MEANING: The heart of the devotee, in which Waheguru implants His love through the Guru, feels blissful, and it becomes attractive (is purified) by the Guru's Shabad. Even the senses of the devotee begin to sing the song of happiness (they become ecstatic). Connected with Waheguru, the devotee enjoys blissfulness at all times. 1.

I would love to sacrifice my life for the devotees who embed (enshrine) Waheguru's Naam in their hearts. You also feel blissful in the company of such devotees, and you automatically begin to sing Waheguru's praise without any special effort on your part. Pause.

Such devotees are always imbued with Waheguru's love with zest for Him in their mind, and Waheguru comes to reside in their heart on His own. He puts them in the shelter of the Guru to connect them with Him, and bestows honour on them. 2.

Their hearts are dyed with Waheguru's love by Guru's Shabad; imbued with Waheguru's love, they sing His praise, whereby their mind stays in itself (quits wandering). With the sweetness of Waheguru's love in their mind, they acquire a deep red colour of Waheguru's love which never fades away, and they stay absorbed in His Naam. 3.

With Guru's Shabad in their mind, the darkness of ignorance is dispelled from their mind. With their minds enlightened by Satguru's Divine Knowledge, they connect with dear Waheguru. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's love are never born again. My Satguru reinforces Waheguru's Naam in us, oh Nanak. 4.5.

Nanak, trishun boojhee, mun(i), tun(i) sookh(u) paaya. 5.6.4.6.10.

Word Meaning: Tay = from. Vudiyaayee = praise; respect. Achint = without any effort.1.
Uver(u) = any other. Na Kaaja = nothing to do. Nivaaja = source of bliss. Pause.
Purteet(i) = trust; faith. Boojhaayee = got understanding. Sumsur(i) = the same; equal Paykhaiy = will face. 2.
Koat = millions. Nidhaan = treasures. Abhimaan = conceit. Sehj(i) = in blissful state. 3.
Joog = eon. Ruhhiyya Smaayee = is present. 4.
Ut(i) = extreme. Trishun = fire of desires. Boojhee = put out. 5.

MEANING: I earned respect at Waheguru's Door because of my Guru when I burned (got rid of) my selfishness, ego, and my love for Maya with His Shabad, and when Waheguru's Naam got enshrined in my heart without any effort on my part (with Guru's grace). 1.
I serve only Waheguru, and have nothing to do with any other (deity). I beg for Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of bliss, in the shelter of the Guru, so that I may enjoy blissfulness all the time (by reciting that). Pause.
When my mind was enlightened by Guru's Shabad, I won my mind's trust from within (that it would never waver again). Now my mind considers life and death the same way (because I am always connected with Waheguru, at which stage life or death do not matter). Now, I will not experience spiritual death and will not have to face the Angel of Death. 2.
My Guru has shown me millions of worldly treasures in my mind, and it feels as if I have acquired all of them, whereby all my pride (to own them) has been eradicated. Now my mind sings only Waheguru's Naam, and stays focused in the blissful state all the time. 3.
By reciting Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, I have earned respect in this world, and now I see Waheguru everywhere, which is always the source of all comforts; but I am still unable to fully appreciate His largess. 4.
I realized (got connected with) my Guru with great fortune, who showed me the treasure of Waheguru's Naam in my own heart. With Waheguru's grace, I found Guru's Shabad to be extremely sweet as a result of which, all the fire of my worldly desires has been put out, and I feel blissfulness in my mind and my body, oh Nanak. 5.6.4.6.10.

Hur(i) daasun, daas, daas hum kuriyo, jun Nanak daas dasunna. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Oodum = initiative; effort. Untarjaami = omniscient. Prayray = motivates; prompts. Nutooaa = actor; musician. Tuntee = guitar; lute. Tunt = wire. Vaajeh(i) = produce music. Junt = musical instruments. Junaa = devotees. 1.

Mustuk(i) = (fortune) on the forehead. Busna = resides. Pause.

Girust(i) = engrossed. Bhemut(u) = is misled. Grussiyo = controlled tightly. 2.

Gut(i), Mit(i) = level of spirituality. Putit = immoral. Puvunna = purified. Dhovaiy = haul. Dhor = (dead) cattle. Chum(u) = hides. Chumray = of the hauler (a low-caste person). 3.

Deen-Duyyaal = kind to the poor (humble). Bhuv-Taarun = ship to ferry across. Puppna = from sins. Daas Daasun= slave of slaves. 4.

MEANING: Like a musician who controls his musical instrument, which produces the kind of music that he wishes, the man is controlled (in the choice of his deeds) by Waheguru. The man acquires his initiative and wisdom (to recite Waheguru's Naam) from the omniscient Waheguru, and does only those things for which he is prompted by Him. 1.

Recite Waheguru's Naam with the tongue, oh my mind. One connects with the Guru as per his prewritten fortune (by Waheguru) on his forehead, as a result of which Waheguru takes residence in his heart (appears there). Pause.

On the other hand, the Maya-engrossed individual spends his life misled (by his misgivings), while the devotee is protected by Waheguru (from Maya's attacks). Waheguru protects the devotees in His refuge like He protected Prehlad from the clutches of his father, Hernaakhsh (See the full story in the "Introduction"). 2.

We cannot even count the number of individuals who were immoral to begin with, but were purified by Waheguru. We cannot describe their level of high spirituality. (Take the example of the low-caste Ravidass Ji) who used to do the menial job of hauling the dead cattle, but was salvaged when he came to Waheguru's shelter (surrendered to Him). 3.

Waheguru is always benevolent to the poor (with no ego), and is the ship to ferry His devotees across the world-sea (salvages them); we are sinners, and I beg Him to protect us from sins. I also beg Him to make me a slave of His slaves, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Moogudh = foolish. Mutee = by wisdom. Shernaagut(i) = seeking refuge. Ajunma = which never takes births. Heen = lacking (noble qualities). Akerma = unfortunate.

1. Rus(u) = sweet tastes. Tiyaag-hou = abandon; give up. Nihful = worthless. Kaama = deeds; rituals. Pause.

Taaray = salvaged. Nirgoon = having to good qualities. Oopma = greatness. 2.

Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Sehumma = worries. Bhuvaayiyeh(i) = taken through. Mund-bhaagi = unfortunate. Moorr = foolish. 3.

Adhaar(u) = basis; support. Poorub(i) Likhay = prewritten. Dhoor(i) = right from the source (Waheguru). Drirraaya = reinforced. Suful(u) = successful. 4.

MEANING: I am foolish, unwise, and have wisdom which is devoid of any Divine Knowledge; but have come to the shelter of Waheguru, which never takes births, and beg the Lord to protect me (against the attacks of Maya) with His benevolence as I am an unfortunate stone-hearted sinner who lacks noble qualities. 1.

Give up all the (spiritually) worthless tasks, and recite Waheguru's Naam all the time, oh my mind. But one can enjoy the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam only with Guru's advice. Pause.

I have no good quality, but I am Your devotee and Your slave; it will be Your greatness if You would kindly protect me, oh Lord. I have no one other than You as my Lord, but I can worship You only with the great fortune (written for me by You), oh Waheguru. 2.

The life of those who do not recite Your Naam is condemnable, and they suffer from deep worries. Such unfortunate people are foolish, and are taken through many, many lives again, and again. 3.

Your Naam is the basis of Your devotees, and they stay connected with You because of their good fortune prewritten by You. Satguru reinforces Waheguru's Naam in the minds of the devotees who come to His shelter, because of which they make their life successful, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Chit(u) = mind. Loobhut = is greedy for. Bikhiya = (poisonous) Maya (sensual pleasures). Doormut(i) = evil thinking. Maiyl(u) = filth. Moogudh = foolish. 1.
Nurhur = God. Jun = devotee. Paar(i) Puraa = salvaged. Pause.
Jus Kuraan = sing praise. Sung(i) Lugay = attached to. Kaasht = wood. Loh = iron. 2.
Saakut Nur = Maya-engrossed man. Hochhi Mut(i) = low-level thinking. Mudhim = low quality. Bhaag-heen = unfortunate. Doohchaari = immoral. Phir(i) = again. 3.
Suntokh Suraa = pool of contentment. Paar(i) Puraa = swam across the world-sea. 4.

MEANING: My mind is guided by evil thinking, and is filthy with greed for the love of sensual enjoyments as a result of which I cannot serve you (recite Your Naam), oh Waheguru; so, how can the foolish me swim across the world-sea (get salvaged)? 1.
Recite the Naam of Waheguru, oh my mind, so that you may be connected with Satguru with Waheguru's benevolence, and swim across the world sea. Pause.
You are our father, oh Lord; please grant us the wisdom so that we may sing Your praise. Those who get attached to (get connected with) You are ferried across the world-sea like a piece of iron which floats on water when attached to a log of wood. 2.
A Maya-engrossed individual has very low (spiritual) wisdom and does not serve Waheguru (recite His Naam). Such people are highly unfortunate and immoral. They take birth, and die again, and again. 3.
Those whom You connect with the Guru, take dips in the pool of contentment in His shelter (they become fully contented by reciting Your Naam), oh Waheguru. The filth of their immoral thinking is washed away by the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, and they swim across the world sea, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Kutha Kurhou = narrate virtues (sing praise). Bohith = ship; boat. Khayvut = boatman. Turhou = swim across. 1.

Oochurhou = chant; recite. Paar(i) Purhou = swim to the other end (be salvaged). Pause. Kaaya = body. Rus(u) = sweet-tasting. Ootum = supreme. Kiyoun Paayiyaiy = how to acquire. Oopdaysh(u) = advise. Suful = causing success. 2.

Chaakh Dikhou = see the taste. Bisray = forgotten. Bikh Rusou = tastes of poisonous sensual pleasures. 3.

Rusaayin(u) = source of all sweet tastes. Chaar(i) Pudaaruth = four desired things – religiosity (high principles), wealth, fulfilment of desires, and emancipation. 4.

MEANING: Let all of us join together to sing Waheguru's praise, oh, the holy devotees. Waheguru's Naam is like a ship in this eon of Kulyug (in the world), and the Guru is its captain; so, let us board this ship (recite Lord's Naam) to swim across the world sea. 1.

Discuss the virtues of Waheguru (recite His Naam) in the company of the holy devotees to swim across the world sea, oh my mind. But His praise can be sung only if you have such a fortune prewritten (by Waheguru) on your forehead. Pause.

The human body contains the supreme, sweet-tasting Waheguru's Naam (but it is hidden). When I asked the advice of the holy devotees as to how to extract (taste) the Naam, they advised that serve Satguru (act on His advice and sing Waheguru's praise in the company of the holy devotees) to drink the sweet Amrit of His Naam which will lead to Waheguru's holy sight (connect with Him) to make our life successful. 2.

Waheguru's Amrit-Naam is very sweet; taste it to feel (enjoy) its taste, oh, the holy devotees. With Guru's advice, one finds Waheguru's Naam to be so sweet that they forget all other tastes in life. 3.

Waheguru's Naam is the treasure (source) of all tastes, so serve Him (recite His Naam), oh, the holy devotees. There are four important things - religiosity (high principles), wealth, fulfilment of desires, and emancipation - that everybody wants in life; one acquires all four of them by reciting Waheguru's Naam with the advice of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Brahman = the literati (uppermost caste). Khuttri = the warriors (the second topmost caste). Vaiysh = the businessmen and the farmers (the third topmost class). Shood = the Shoodras = the untouchables (those who perform the lowest type of tasks); the lowest class on the Indian system of castes. Jaapaiy = recite. Mutar(u) = the mantra (Waheguru's Naam). Jumpaiyni = worthy of recitation. Raiyni = night. 1.
Jo Ichhou = desired. Baini = words; Shabad. Pause.
Anik = countless. Oopaav = measures. Chitviyeh(i) = we plan. Hovaini = whatever has to happen. Bhulaa = wellbeing. Baanchhaiy = wishes. Chiyaiyni = in memory. 2.
Tiyaag-hou = abandon; give up. Kutthaiuni = difficult. 3.
Soomut(i) = noble wisdom (thinking). Vuss(i) = in control. Junt = instrument. Juntaiyni = musician. Boolaiyni = I utter. 4.

MEANING: Satguru is a manifestation of Waheguru; see Him with your own eyes (come to His shelter), and worship Him day and night, oh, the holy devotees. His Shabad is the mantra to control Waheguru (connect with Him); it does not matter whether one belongs to the high castes of the Khatris and the Brahmans, or to the lower castes of the Vaish or the Shudras – all get salvaged. So, recite Satguru's Shabad, and you will have any or all of your wishes fulfilled. 1 & the Pause.
A man may think of countless plans to achieve something, but only that which has to happen (by the Will of God) happens. Everybody wishes for their own well-being, but Waheguru does things that one might never have thought of. 2.
Even though it is very difficult, get rid of your own wisdom (do not follow your mind). Accept the advice of Satguru, and recite Waheguru's Naam all the time. 3.
Our noble or evil thinking is in Your control; it is as if we are the musical instruments, and You operate them, oh, the Supreme Lord. The Creator Waheguru is my Lord, and I utter only those words which He makes me say (I am His slave), oh Nanak. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Anund-Mool = blissful; the source of bliss (Waheguru). Purakhotum(u) = the Supreme Being. Undin(u) = everyday; always. Dhermraayay = the (mythical) Angel of justice. Kaan(i) = owing; debt. Chookaayee = paid off. Jum = Angel of death. Chhunday = (false) praise to please. 1.

Vudbhaageen = fortunate. Permanunday = source of supreme bliss (Waheguru). Pause.

Saakut = Maya-worshipper. Moorr = foolish. Budhik = tied to (slave). Trishna = fire of desires. Kirt Kay Baandhay = programmed by the deeds of previous life. Tayli = who crushes seeds to get oils. Buld = oxen. Bhuvunday = go in circles to run the crusher. 2.

Phunday = nets; bonds of. 3.

Vertaiy = operates. Jiyoun Raakhaiy = whatever situation He put in. 4.

MEANING: When one recites the Naam of the source of bliss, the Supreme Lord, he enjoys only blissfulness in his mind, and all the debts of (any immoral deeds) in the accounts kept by the Angel of justice are cleared. Also, one does not yield to the demands of the five demons to please them for their unjust demands, which leads to the harsh and cruel treatment by the Angel of Death. 1.

Recite the Naam of Waheguru, oh my mind. However, only the fortunate get connected with Satguru (come to His shelter) where they sing Waheguru's praise. Pause.

The worshippers of Maya are foolish, strongly bound to Maya, and go around (spend life) with that mindset. They burn in the fire of desires because of their unchangeable nature formed by the deeds of their previous lives, and they go through the cycle of births and deaths like the oxen which go in circles driving the seed-crushing mill to extract oil. 2.

Those who serve Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru get salvaged; however, only the fortunate serve Waheguru. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam reap the rewards (get connected with Him), and all their bonds with Maya get severed. 3.

Waheguru Himself is the Lord, and Himself the devotee – He is everything Himself. Waheguru alone operates in the world, and the people have to live the way He keeps them, oh Nanak. 4.6.

Mookt(i)-Daata = emancipator. Jaata = journey of life. 1.
Aasa = hope; faith. Bhaaou Dooja = love for the other (Mayay). Binis(u) Binaasa = is destroyed completely. Aasa = hope (which sustains worldly affairs). Niraasi = detached. Paasi = with. Pug(i) Laavno = drop on the feet; seek shelter. 2.
MEANING: Recite the Naam of Waheguru which purifies the immoral, and salvages the holy devotees. Waheguru, in the form of His Naam (Huqam), is pervading the whole universe – on the land and in the waters. We should sing praise of Waheguru which destroys all our troubles. Pause.
If we recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all suffering, we achieve success in our life (we get connected with Him). The Guru connects us with Waheguru which is our emancipator and which makes the journey of our life successful. We should sing His praise in the company of the holy saints. 1.
Have faith in Waheguru's Naam which eradicates our love for Maya, and because of which one stays detached from Maya while living in the family. Such an individual gets connected with Waheguru. But some rare individual gets to sing Waheguru's praise. I would like to drop on the feet of such individual (serve him like a slave), oh Nanak. 2.1.7.4.6.17.

Word Meaning: Chaupuday = Shabad with four stanzas. Abinaashi = immortal. Maarug(i) = path (of righteousness). Unchul(i) = in the shelter. 1.

Bikhiya Sunsaar(u) = the world trapped in the poisonous Maya. Bohith = boat. Pause.

Jhoolaaray Dayay = cause mood swings; intoxicates. Thir(u) = stable; unaffected. Herkh = happiness. Soag = sadness. Niraara = unaffected. Sir Oopur(i) = to provide support.2.

Vayrr(u) = wraps around; engulfs Bhooyunga = snake; poisonous. Puchay = burn; suffer. Putunga = moth. Sheegaar = beautification. 3.

Chaakhiya = tasted. Saad(u) = taste. Googa = mute; dumb. Bismaad = mesmerized. Anund Roop = source of bliss (God). Subh(u) = everywhere. Sumaaya = merged in. 5.

MEANING: The man falls in love with the things that he can see; (but You are invisible), so how can the man get connected with You, oh the immortal Waheguru? Please, show me the path of righteousness by providing shelter of the Guru (or His holy devotees). 1.

How can we swim across the poisonous sea of Maya (full of sensual attractions)? The answer is: Satguru is the ship which can ferry us across the world-sea. Pause.

Maya intoxicates (pollutes) the mind of the man (which wavers very fast), but the minds of the devotees of Waheguru stay stable (are unaffected by the captivating nature of Maya). Waheguru always stands guard for them, so they remain unaffected in moments of happiness or sadness. 2.

Maya is like a snake which wraps itself around the whole world (controls it). Like a moth that burns itself on the flame of a lamp, the worshipper of Maya suffers badly in the fire of selfishness and ego. Such a person can never get connected with Waheguru no matter how he may adorn himself (with visible religious symbols). However, with His benevolence, Waheguru may connect him with the Guru. 3.

I, too, was feeling very depressed, looking unsuccessfully for the jewel-like Waheguru, and sought the advice of the Guru, who told me that the priceless Waheguru cannot be acquired through any outward symbolism. Human body is the dwelling of the diamond-like Waheguru, and one should search for Him in his body. When the Guru removed the curtain of Maya between the Lord and me, I found Him within me and felt deeply blissful. 4.

Whoever tastes the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam enjoys that but cannot describe its taste like a mute who is only mesmerized to taste something delicious. I am a slave of Waheguru, and find Him everywhere by singing His praise, and get absorbed into Him, oh Nanak. 5.1.

Word Meaning: Kulyaan = wellbeing. Bighun(u) = impediment. Alukh = invisible (Waheguru). Abhayv = whose secrets cannot be known (God). 1.
Dhert(i) = land (of heart). Pooneet = pure (purified). Doort = sins. Pause.
Aad(i) = right from the beginning. Joogaad(i) = from the beginning of the eons. Pertaap(u) = majesty. Suntaap = suffering. 2.
Churn = Feet = Shabad. Nirbighun = without any hinderance (gap). Vootthay = resides. Tootthay = pleased to be kind. 3.
Rukhvaalay = guard. Khusm(i) = Lord. Pritpaalay = nourishes and nurtures. 4.

MEANING: The ground of my heart has been purified by singing Waheguru's praise, and my sins have been washed away by reciting His Naam. Pause.
My revered Guru put me in His service (make me recite the Naam of the invisible Waheguru whose secrets can never be known) because of which all is wonderful for me. There will be no obstacle now in my path to connect with Waheguru. 1.
Now, I have realized that Waheguru, whose Majesty has been acknowledged right from the beginning, and from the beginning of the eons, is present everywhere. There is no suffering of any kind with the grace of the Guru. 2.
I have found Guru's Shabad (Naam of Waheguru), which resides (is present) everywhere without any hindrance (gap), to be very sweet. When Satguru is pleased to be kind, one acquires all the comforts. 3. Waheguru has become my guard, and I find Him with me everywhere. Word Meaning: Sookh-Nidhaan = treasure (source) of comfort. Ugunut = countless. Anaath = orphan (without spiritual guide). Shernaayee = shelter. 1.
Nirgoon = lacking virtues. Lurr(i) Laayay = make Your own; provide shelter. Pause.
Bheerr(u) = difficult situation; calamity. Peerr = suffering. Simrut = remembering. 2.
Aadhaar(u) = support. Bisrut = on forgetting. Chhaar(u) = dust. Kaaj = tasks; objectives.
Moohtaaj = debtor; dependent. 3.
Churn Kumul = lotus-like Feet (Shabad). Doormat(i) = evil thinking. Reet(i) = custom. Munt = mantra (Naam). Anund = blissfulness. 4.

MEANING: My dear Waheguru is the treasure (source) of all comforts, and the Lord has countless virtues (merciful qualities). I am an orphan (have no spiritual guide), and am in Your shelter. Please, be kind to me so that I may recite Your Naam. 1.
I have no good quality, kindly accept me as Your own (provide me Your shelter), and come to reside (appear) in my heart, oh compassionate Waheguru. Pause.
No calamity can befall the devotee of Waheguru who keeps Him in mind, and he experiences no suffering at the hands of the Angel of death (he cannot frighten the devotee). All sufferings disappear when a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam as Waheguru begins to reside in his heart all the time. 2.
Waheguru's Naam is the basis of a devotee's body and mind; his body feels like a pile of dirt (lifeless) when he forgets Waheguru's Naam. All his objectives are achieved when he keeps Waheguru in mind, but he becomes subservient to others (dependent on others' support) when he forgets the Lord. 3.
The devotees of Waheguru have deep love for Waheguru's Naam, whereby their customs (routine tasks) based on ignoble thinking become a thing of the past. They have Lord's Naam in their body and mind, and enjoy blissfulness all the time, oh Nanak. 4..3.

Nihaala = blissful. Suful = causing success. Moorut(i) = Persona. Serb-Kulaa = omnipotent. Bhurpooray = omnipresent. Hujooray = present in front of you. 1.

Soyay = praise. Jaata = recognized; made connection with. Araadheh(i) = worship. Vukhaaneh(i) = recite. Raata = imbued. Pooraiy Kerm(i) = with complete benevolence.2.

Kaandhiyeh(i) = are called. Vaaso = dwelling; company. Pergaaso = enlightenment. Kaanay = owing; debt. Bhaanay = are liked. 3.

Ooch = transcendent. Apaar = beyond limits. Bayunt = unlimited. Oodhreh(i) = salvaged= Taaray. Binseh(i) = destroyed. Ghunayray = immense. Prayt = ghost-like. Moogudh = foolish. Paahun = stone-like; ruthless. Bulihaaraiy = wish to sacrifice. 4.

MEANING: You are the support of my body and my life, oh dear Waheguru. All other wisdoms (thoughts) are hollow (worthless), and You are my only protector (shield) against the attacks of Maya, oh Lord. Pause.

A devotee, who gets connected with the Perfect Satguru, is always blissful. However, only that devotee can serve the Guru whom Waheguru is benevolent toward. The Lord, Waheguru, is the great Guru, and the persona (source) of success. The omnipotent Waheguru is present everywhere. The Guru is a manifestation of the Supreme Being (Waheguru), and is always close to His devotees, oh Nanak. 1.

I survive (spiritually) by listening to the praise of the holy saints who have recognized Waheguru (acquired Him in their heart). They worship and recite His Naam, and their mind is imbued in His love. I am a slave of Waheguru, and wish to serve His devotees, which I can do only with the munificence of the Lord. I pray to the Lord that He gives me an opportunity to have their holy sight, oh Nanak. 2.

Those devotees are considered truly fortunate who live in the company of the holy saints. With their minds enlightened, they recite Waheguru's Naam with dedication. Their suffering from the birth-death cycle is eradicated, and any debt for their ignoble deeds in the records of the Angel of Death is fully cleared (the Angel can cause them to be hurt as they merge with Waheguru). But only those get to have the holy sight of Waheguru (get connected with Him) who are liked by Him, oh Nanak. 3.

Waheguru is highly transcendent, beyond limits and is limitless, so who can know all His virtues? But His devotees find salvation by singing or listening to His praise as their immense sins are destroyed. Waheguru's Naam emancipates the cattle-like (highly selfish), the ghost-like (who cling to Maya like a ghost), the foolish, and the stone-like (ruthless) people. I have sought Waheguru's shelter, and am always a sacrifice for Him, oh Nanak. 4.1.4.

Word Meaning: Bikhaiy Bun(u) = the poisonous world (of Maya). Pheeka = distasteful. Tiyaag(i) = abandon; give up. Muhaa Rus(u) = great taste. Bin(u)) = without. Chaakhay = to taste. Bood(i) = drowned. Suglee = the whole world. Maan(u) Meht(u) = respect and honour. Shukut(i) = power. Theeou = become. Sobhavuntee = praise worthy. 1.
Hurchundauri = an imaginary castle in the sky (mirage) = Mirg Trishna. Chit Bherm(u) = the mind is captivated. Droom Chhaaya = the shade of tree. Chunchul(i) = changing constantly. Unt(i) = in the end. Tuj(i) = gives up; abandons. Bhogun = to enjoy. Ut(i) = extreme. Roop = beauty. Maatay = intoxicated. Dhunn(i) = great; praise worthy. 2.

Bus-hou = live with. Vudbhaagni = very fortunate. Sukhiyay = oh, my friend. Smaayiyaiy = get absorbed (in Waheguru). Teh = there. Biyaapaiy = affect. Liv = meditate. Nihchul(u) = stable for ever. Praym Bichhoh(u) = the pangs of love. 3.
Drisht(i) Dhaar(i) = by casting a kind sight. Baydhiya = pierced. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = with love in the blissful state. Sahj = the bed (of heart). Soohaavi = comforting. Anund Mungul = blissfulness and happiness. Sukhee Suhayli = friends. Rung(i) Raati = imbued in the love. Ichh = wishes. Poojaayay = fulfills. Achurj(u) = one who attains amazingly high (spiritual state). Achurj = the amazing (awe-inspiring) Lord. 4.
MEANING: The world is like a forest where the human mind is lost in the attractions of poisonous Maya, which are in abundance. They do look attractive, but spiritually they are distasteful. So, abandon them, and drink the great and sweet-tasting Naam of Waheguru, oh my friend. Without tasting Waheguru's Naam, the whole world is drowning in the sea of Maya, and cannot enjoy the blissfulness of the mind. No worldly respect, pride, or power can provide spiritual comfort, so become a slave of the holy saints (serve them with the spirit of a slave). Those who Waheguru has accepted as His own (connected with Him), earn praise (honour) in His Court, oh Nanak. 1.
The attractions of Maya are like an imaginary castle in the sky, are like a mirage, or are like the shifting shade of a tree because wealth changes hands constantly, and deserts the man as it does not accompany him at the time of his death. One does not get any mental comfort in the enjoyment of different tastes of life, or of beauty, or in getting intoxicated by them. Those holy saints are worthy of praise (worship) who recite Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2. Be fortunate, and run to join the company of the holy saints, where you will get absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, and where no discomfort, appetite for Maya, or any disease affects you when you meditate on Waheguru's Naam. By taking shelter of the eternal Waheguru, one's birth and death cycle comes to an end, and the devotee is never born again. There is no suffering because of any separation from Waheguru, or due to any worldly attachments, when one recites the Naam only of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 3.
The devotee's mind is pierced with Waheguru's love when He casts a kind sight on him, and he gets imbued in His love to attain the high spiritual state. The bed of the devotee's heart becomes highly comforting because of his union with Waheguru, and he feels ecstatic and blissful by singing His praise. Even the friends of the devotee who stay imbued in the love of the Lord get all their wishes fulfilled. Such devotees, who attain the amazingly high spiritual state, merge into the amazing Waheguru to become "one" with Him, but their spiritual states cannot be described, oh Nanak. 4.

Musht(i) = quiet. Boolna = talks. Achull(u) = which cannot be deceived. 2.
Goopt = hidden. Pergutna = appears; visible. Alipna = detached. 3.
Avigut(u) = invisible. Aap Sung(i) = with self. Ruchna = mixed with. Juchna = amazing feats. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru, Himself creates the world, and Himself supports it. He makes people do things, but takes no blame (for any things that go bad because people commit deeds as per their natures based on their deeds of previous lives). 1.
He issues orders, and (being present in living beings), Waheguru Himself carries them out. Also, He enjoys His own grandeur with full control (without becoming conceited about it). Pause.

Sometimes He is quiet (issues no fresh orders and lets His laws run the universe), and sometimes He speaks (brings about changes). He is non-deceivable and cannot be cheated. 2. He is hidden, but does show His existence in many ways. He resides in every heart, yet He is fully detached from worldly bonds. 3.
He is invisible, yet mixed with (present hidden in) everything. All these are the amazing feats of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.2.7.

Word Meaning: Bhoolay Maarug(i) = misled on the wrong path. Butaaya = guided. 1. Chitaaray = call to memory. Gur Churn = Guru's Feet (Shabad). Pause.
Kaam(i) = in lust. Leena = absorbed; focussed. Bundhun = bonds. Mookt(i) = free. 2. Phoon(i) = again. Churn Kumul = lotus-like Feet (of Waheguru). Aashrum = shelter. 3. Ugun Saagur = the sea of fire (of desires). Boodut = drowning. Nistaara = salvaed. 4.
MEANING: Only highly fortunate individuals get connected with (come to the shelter of) the Guru who shows the right path to them when they were misled to follow the wrong spiritual path. 1. Recite and remember Waheguru's Naam with the Shabad of the dear Guru, which is residing in your heart, oh my mind. Pause.
Man's mind is fully absorbed in (intoxicated with) lust, rage, greed, and worldly attachments. The Guru severs all such bonds and frees the devotees. 2.
The man takes birth, and then dies experiencing comforts and discomforts. The Guru provides the shelter of His Shabad to all men (to unite them with Waheguru). 3.
The world drowns in the fire of worldly desires, but the Guru salvages everybody in His shelter by holding their arm (hand), oh Nanak. 4.3.8.

Word Meaning: Urpoun = I offer. Soomut(i) = noble advice. 1.
Maangun(i) = beg. Paykhut = on seeing. Sobha = respect; adornment. Aangun(i) = the yard of my heart. Pause.
Anik = many. Joogt = approaches. Muneh(i) = mind. Oodhaaroun = emancipation. 2.
Soort(i) = concentration of mind. Chuturaayee = shrewdness. 3.
Suntokhay = became contented. Suful(u) = successful. 4.

MEANING: I will offer my body, mind, wealth, and all that I have to acquire the noble wisdom to recite Waheguru's Naam. 1.
I have come with the great hope to beg (and to receive) for such wisdom, oh Waheguru. The yard of my heart is adorned (becomes holy) to see You. Pause.
I have tried many different approaches and pondered them (to recite Waheguru's Naam), and learned that I can (recite His Naam) and emancipate my mind (from worldly bonds) only in the company of the Guru. 2. I have no noble thinking, wisdom, the required concentration, or intelligence to recite Waheguru's Naam to connect with Him. One can connect with Him only when He, Himself, connects the devotee with Him. 3.
The eyes of the devotee become fully contented (have no desire left to see the worldly attractions any more) when he gets the holy sight of Waheguru. The birth (life) of such a devotee in this world is truly successful, oh Nanak. 4.4.9.

Word Meaning: Soot = sons. Mitaaya = eradicated. 1.
Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Rusna = tongue. Viyaapay = affect; cause (harm). Pause.
Tikha = thirst. Tupt(i) = heat; fire; suffering. Seetul = calm; peace of mind. 2.
Koat(i) = millions. Jutun = efforts. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Triptaana = contented. 3.
Bhugut(i) = worship. Untarjaani = omnipotent. 4.

MEANING: None of the mother, the father, the sons, or even the wealth accompanies the man on his death. But all sufferings are destroyed in the shelter of the Guru (where he recites Waheguru's Naam). 1. Waheguru is present in everybody; no trouble can befall him when a devotee recites His Naam with his tongue. Pause.
Thirst and appetite for worldly desires cause great suffering for the man, but his mind becomes peaceful (no longer has any desire for worldly attractions) when he recites Waheguru's sweet Naam. 2. The man cannot find contentment in worldly comforts no matter how many millions of different ways he tries. But one's mind gets fully contented when he sings Waheguru's praise. 3.

I pray to the omniscient Lord to grant me the gift of his worship, oh Nanak. 4.5.10.

Word Meaning: Poora = Perfect. Vudbhaageen = great fortune. Sadhu = Guru. 1.
Kilbikh = sins. Bhuj(u) = recite. Churna = Shabad. Pause.
Uver(i) = other. Kerm = rituals. Loakachaar = societal norm. 2.
Bayd = the Vedas. Paar(i) Ootaaray = ferry to the other end of the sea of Maya. 3.
Sadhu Dhoor(i) = dust of the feet (service to the Guru). Nisturiyaiy = find salvation. 4.

MEANING: One acquires the Perfect Guru's shelter with great fortune only where he recites Waheguru's Naam. 1.
One's sins are eradicated by the recitation of the Guru's holy Shabad, and he acquires Waheguru's shelter (gets connected with Him). Pause.
All rituals (other than Waheguru's Naam) are simply the norm of the society (which do not lead to salvation); one gets salvation only in the shelter of the Guru. 2.
People ponder religious texts such as the Vedas, the Shrimad Bhagavat Gita, and the Shastras, but one finds salvation only in Waheguru's Naam. 3.
As His slave, I pray to Waheguru to provide me with the opportunity to serve the Guru (sing Lord's praise with Guru's Shabad) with which one finds salvation, oh Nanak. 4.6.11.

Word Meaning: Ridaiy Meh(i) = in the heart. Cheena = recognized (enshrined). Sugul = all. Munoruth = objectives. Poorun = completed. Aaseena = wishes. 1
Sunt Junaa = holy saints. Oojul = radiant (pure); honourable. Pause.
Undh Koop = the dark well (of Maya). Ker(u) = hand. Geh(i) = by holding. Jai Jaikaar = sing praise. Jugut = world. Pergteena = made to appear (famous). 2.

Neechaan Tay = from the low. Ooch = of high class. Oon = incomplete. Pooreena = completed. Muhaa Rus = great essence of the Naam. Leena = get absorbed. 3. Nirmul = pure. Paap = sins. Jul(i) = the water (Naam-Amrit). Kheena = (made) weak; removed. Perseena = pleased. 4.

MEANING: When one enshrines the Guru's Shabad in his mind, all his objectives and his wishes are fulfilled. 1.

With His benevolence, Waheguru implants His Naam (in the hearts of) His holy saints who recite it with their tongue, whereby their faces radiate with the purity of their mind. Pause.

Waheguru pulls His devotees from the deep, dark well of Maya (where their minds can see no spiritual light) by holding their hands. Waheguru makes them famous worldwide, and people sing their praise. 2.

He transforms the low-castes (with no respect) to the high-castes (where they earn respect) and completes the incompletes (with noble qualities) because of which they get absorbed in the great-tasting Amrit-like Naam of Waheguru. 3.

With the water of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit, all their sins are weakened (washed away), and their mind and body are purified, which pleases Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.7.12.

Word Meaning: Munoruth = objectives. Meeta = oh, friend. Churn Kumul = lotus-like Feet (Waheguru's Naam). Cheeta = mind. 1.

Diyaavut = recite Naam. Julun(i) = burning of mind (in the fire of desires). Boojhaiy = put out. Goon Gaavut = by singing Waheguru's praise. Pause.

Vudbhaageen = with great fortune. Rameh(i) = with Waheguru. Liv = concentration. 2.

Put(i) = respect. Sehj Anunda = bliss of the high spiritual state. Nimukh = a short moment. Visserhou = be forgotten. Permanunda = source of supreme bliss (God). 3.

Piyaas = thirst; longing. Ghunayri = immense. Bhunut(i) = says. Shern(i) = shelter. 4.

MEANING: If you attach your mind to the lotus-like holy Feet of Waheguru (His Naam), all your objectives will be achieved, oh, my friend. 1.

I am all sacrifice for those who recite Waheguru's Naam because the fire of one's worldly desires is put out by singing His praise. Pause.

Such people are highly fortunate, and they make their lives successful (achieve the objective of life) when they meditate on Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. 2.

They do not forget the source of all comfort, Waheguru, even for a short moment, and acquire noble wisdom, earn respect, and the wealth of bliss of a high spiritual state. 3.

I have an immense thirst (longing) for a holy sight of Waheguru, and have come to His shelter, oh Nanak. 4.8.13.

Word Meaning: Nirgoon = Gooneh Bihoona = with any noble quality. 1.
Gopal(i) = Waheguru. Soohaaya = adorned. Ghur Meh(i) = in my heart. Pause.
Bhugut(i) Vuchhul = lover of His worship. Bhaiy Kaatunhaara = destroyer of fear. 2.
Putit Paavun = purifier of the immoral. Bird(u) = innate virtue. Bayd(i) = in the Vedas. 3.
Pergtay = appeared. Narrayin = Waheguru. Pulaayin = disappear. 4.

MEANING: I was without any noble quality - in fact, had none of them - but Waheguru became benevolent to me and made me His own (connected me with Him). 1.
My mind and my body have been adorned (with noble qualities) (have been purified) by Waheguru's munificence, and He has come to reside in my heart. Pause.
Waheguru loves His worship (His devotees), and is the destroyer of all fears. I have now been able to swim across the sea of Maya with His benevolence. 2.
I have seen that Waheguru with my own (mental) eyes, about whom it is written even in the Vedas that He purifies the immoral. 3.
Waheguru's slave, Nanak, submits politely that He appears in the company (shelter) of the Guru, and all one's troubles disappear. 4.9.14.

Word Meaning: Sayva = service; worshipping (recitation of Naam). Avinaashi = eternal. Alukh = invisible; incomprehensible. Abhayva = whose secrets cannot be known. 1.
Bayunt = countless. Gehir = unfathomable. Gumbheeray = never changing. Uprumpur = beyond limits. Tthakur(u) = Master. Pause.

Aikus = the “One”. Pooja = worship. 2.
Aap-houn = by oneself. Bhaaya = liked by. Goon-Nidhaan = treasure of virtues. 3 & 4.
MEANING: The eternal Waheguru is invisible, so very few people know how to serve Him (sing His praise). 1. Waheguru is limitless and unfathomable, and He never changes (is unaffected by any change). You are beyond limits, oh my Lord. Pause.
There is none other than the “One Supreme Being”; only He knows (and teaches us) how to worship Him. 2. No one can do anything on their own; only devotees get to recite His Naam, whom Waheguru enables to do so. 3.

Word Meaning: Gerbh = womb. Raakhiya = protected. Rus(u) = sweet essence (Waheguru’s Naam). Bikhiya Ful(u) = poisonous Maya. 1. Junjaal = bonds (of worldly attractions). Sunghaaraiy = destroys; gives severe punishment. Moorray = foolish. Binus(i) Jaayay = is destroyed. Bayhaal(u) = in very bad condition. Pause.
Thaapiya = establishes; nurtures. Kernhaar = the Creator. Nimukh = short moment. 2.
Muhaa = huge. Undh Koop = deep dark well of Maya (without any light of spirituality). Putul(i) = behind the curtain. Bissriya = forgotten. Keeertun = praise. 3 & 4.
MEANING: Waheguru protects the fetus in the mother’s womb with His own hands (by providing protection); but when the fetus comes into the world, he gives up the sweetness of Waheguru’s protection and begins to taste the poisonous enjoyments of Maya. 1.
(Because of the enjoyment of sensual pleasures), The man has to face the punishment of the Angel of Death, which destroys the body while the soul suffers badly. Pause.
The man nurtures his body and mind, and loves his wealth as if they are going to be his own forever, and does not recite the Naam of the creator, God, even for a moment. 2.
He falls into the dark, deep well of worldly attachments and forgets Waheguru behind the curtain of Maya. 3.
But, a fortunate individual, who sings Waheguru’s praise in the shelter of the Guru, realizes Waheguru (gets connected with Him), oh Nanak. 4.11.16.

Word Meaning: Soot = sons. Bundhup = relatives. Suhaayee = supporter. 1.
Sehj = peace of mind. Aanund = blissfulness. Ghunay = immense. Anik = many. Pause.
Srunjaam = arrangements. Munoruth = objectives (achieved). Jaapay = worship. 2.
Urth = wealth. Dherm = religiosity; principles. Kaam = fulfilment of wishes. Moakh = emancipation. Daata = provider; Lord. Poori Bhuyyee = objectives achieved. Bidhaata = the carver of our fates (Waheguru). 3.
Rung(i) Maaniya = enjoyed love. Aaniya = brought. 4.

MEANING: (if one sings Waheguru's praise), He (Waheguru) supports him as his mother, father, sons, or other close relatives do, oh Nanak. 1.
If one serves the Guru, which is Perfect Himself, (is the manifestation of Waheguru) and whose Bani (Shabad) is also Perfect, and who has countless virtues, he (the devotee) enjoys immense comfort and bliss of the high spiritual state. Pause.
All the objectives of a devotee are achieved when he recites Waheguru's Naam. (And the great thing is) that Waheguru Himself makes all such arrangements for the devotee. 2.
Waheguru is the Lord of wealth and religiosity (one's principles) and is the fulfiller of all wishes, and is the emancipator (i.e. He is the Lord of all the four most desired things), which can be achieved by reciting the Naam of the Waheguru, which is the carver of our fates. 3.
The devotee enjoys love of Waheguru in the shelter of the Perfect Guru, who brings (implants) His Naam in the devotee's heart, oh Nanak. 4.12.17.

Word Meaning: Serb Nidhaan = all treasures. Poorun = Perfect. Pause.
Nur = man. Jeevay = lives for ever. Khoaar(u) = suffer humiliation. Saakut = worshipper of Maya. Theevay = becomes. 1. Rukhvaara = guardian. Jhukh Maarou = talk nonsense; futile effort to vilify some one. Vaychaara = wretched. 2.
Ninda = vilification. Puchay = suffer; hurt themselves. Ghunayray = many. Mirtuk = dead. Phaas = noose. Nicket(i) = near. Jaam = Angel of death. 3 & 4.

MEANING: The Perfect and the Great Guru (God) is the treasure of everything. Pause.

By reciting Waheguru's Naam, a devotee lives forever (becomes part of the eternal Waheguru) while the Maya-worshipper suffers humiliation on his death. 1.
Waheguru's Naam is always the guard of the devotees and protects them even if a wretched Maya-worshipper tries (in futility) to vilify them. 2.
Many people burn (suffer) in the fire of the vilification of others; they die a spiritual death with the noose around their neck and from head to toe. 3.
The Angel of (spiritual) death does not even go near the devotees who recite Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.3.18.

Word Meaning: Shaant(i) = peace of mind. Pooray = Perfect. Unhud = auto-playing Divine music. Tooray = musical instruments. Pause.

Taap = heat; fire of desires. Suntaap = suffering. Binaasay = destroyed. Kilbikh = sins.1.

Anund Kurhou = enjoy bliss. Soondar = beautiful; who have beautified their minds with noble qualities (connected with Waheguru). Naari = women (devotees). Paiyj = dignity.2.

MEANING: The Perfect Guru brings peace to the mind of the devotee (his mind quits wandering and becomes fully content); he acquires all comforts and feels as if many musical instruments begin to play Divine music in his mind. Pause.

His fire of worldly desires, his sins, and his suffering, all get destroyed when he recites Waheguru's Naam. 1.

He feels blissful (when he recites Waheguru's Naam) in the company of the holy saints who have purified their minds (by getting connected with God). Guru Nanak has beautified (purified) my mind as a result of which I will find dignity (in Waheguru's court). 2.3.21.

Word Meaning: Mumta = Moh = worldly attachments. Dhuroh = deceit. Mud = liquor; intoxicant. Maata = intoxicated. Bundhun(i) = in bonds. Baandhiya = trapped. Ut(i) = extremely. Bikraal = frightening. Chhijut = weakens. Bikaar = immoral activities. Aoudh = life. Phaahi Phaatha = trapped in. Jum = Angel of (spiritual) death.1.

Deen Duyyaala = kind to the poor (humble). Muhaa Bikhum = very tough. Saagur(u) = the world sea. Oodhrou = kindly salvage. Ruvaala = (humble like the) dust of Guru's feet. Pause. Sookh-Daatay = the source of all comforts. Sumruth =fully capable. Soami = Lord. Jeeo = soul; life. Pind(u) = body. Maal = property. Bherm Kay Bundhun = the bonds (net) of misgivings. Permayshur = Waheguru. Kirpal = munificent. 2.

MEANING: Intoxicated with the liquor of love for worldly attachments and deceit, the man is trapped in the worldly bonds and looks extremely frightening (in spirituality). Committing immortal deeds, his morality is weakening, and his life is shortening with the passing of each day, and caught in the net of the Angel of death, the noose of (spiritual death) is getting tighter and tighter around his neck. 1.

The sea of Maya is extremely difficult to swim across, so I have come to Your shelter, oh kind to the poor (humble), Waheguru. Kindly salvage this humble, dust-like devotee of Yours by providing the shelter of the Guru (begs Nanak). Pause.
You are the Lord of all comforts, and are omnipotent, oh Lord; my life and my body are Your property (given by You). You are always very kind, please sever the bonds of my misgivings, oh Waheguru, begs Nanak. 2.4.22.

Word Meaning: Sugul = all. Bird(u) = innate nature (to love His devotees). Sumaariya = take charge; discharges responsibility. Bigsay = bloomed; became ecstatic. 1.
Kaaruj(u) = task; objective. Suvaariya = finished successfully. Aarja = life (span). Hargobind = the only son of Guru Arjun Dev Ji who suffered a severe attack of small-pox in his infant years. Mungul = happiness. Kuliyaan = wellbeing. Pause.
Vun = forests. Trin = leaves; vegetation. Tirbhuvun = of the three-layered universe. Huriya Hoyay = got a new life. Sadhaariya = supported. Mun Ichhay = as desired. Poorun Ichh = all wishes. Poojaariya = delivered; fulfilled. 2.
NOTE: Many villages to the west of Amritsar suffered a severe attack of smallpox around 1596-97. Guru Arjun Dev Ji (Mehla 5) left Amritsar to help the affected villages. He had to take His only son (and the only child), Hargobind, with Him whose life was in danger at the hands of Guru Sahib's elder brother, Pirthi Chand, who wanted to have Hargobind Ji killed, and had tried many times to take his life, but had been unsuccessful so far. Hargobind Ji was only about 1-2 years old at the time. The infant child was also infected by the fatal disease. In those days (and even now), most people believed that smallpox was caused by a goddess – Seetla Devi – who must be appeased by worshipping her to avoid her wrath. So, many people approached Guru Arjun Dev Ji and advised Him to worship the goddess, but Guru Sahib never believed in such myths; He believed only in Waheguru. He explained to the people that no disease is caused by any god or goddess, that they should not believe in such myths, and that they should believe only in Waheguru and recite His Naam. Despite the persistent suggestions of the people, Guru Sahib refused to worship any goddess and kept advising them to have faith in Waheguru. In a few weeks, the infant Hargobind recovered fully. Guru Sahib has written many Shabads – mostly in Raag Bilawal(u), and a few in Raag Soritth – to thank Waheguru, and to instil and reaffirm faith in Waheguru in the hearts of the people. This holy Shabad is just one of the many.

MEANING: Waheguru discharges the responsibility of His innate nature of loving His devotees as a result of which there is blissfulness (in the hearts of His devotees). The holy saints show kindness to the devotees, whereby all their families and their senses become very joyful. Satguru completes this holy task (of connecting the devotees with Waheguru and bringing joy in their families) with His own efforts. Similarly, keeping the comfort, joyfulness, and well-being for His devotee in His Mind, Satguru completely cured the sick child Hargobind and lengthened his lifespan. Pause.
Satguru (and Waheguru) provides support to all life, and with His benevolence, even the forests, vegetation, and the whole universe receive new life. The devotees get all their desires and wishes fulfilled with the munificence of Satguru, oh Nanak. 2.5.23.

Word Meaning: Duyyaal(u) = kind. So = that (devotee). Kaal(u) = death. Pause.
Gopal(u) = God. Jaal(u) = net. 1.
Pritpaal = raiser and nourisher. Jaachaiy = begs; wishes. Ruvaal = dust of Guru's Feet.2.
MEANING: The devotee, whom Waheguru becomes benevolent to, recites His Naam, and gets his noose of (spiritual death) severed. Pause.
We should recite Waheguru's Naam in the company of the Guru. The net of the Angel of (spiritual) death is cut off when we sing Waheguru's praise. 1.
Waheguru, Himself is Satguru (He resides in Him), and He Himself raises and nurtures all the living beings. I beg for the dust of the Feet of the Guru (an opportunity to serve Him for His Shabad), oh Nanak(u). 2.6.24.

Word Meaning: Roag(u) = immoral habits. Guvaaya = removed. Sehj = bliss. Pause. Rujj(i) = to full satisfaction. Bhojun(u) = (spiritual) food. Paiyj = honour. 1 & 2.

MEANING: Remember (recite) Waheguru's Amrit-like Naam in your heart as the spiritual food for you, and consume it to your fill (to the satisfaction of your mind), oh my friends. 1. When you do that, all your vices (sensual pleasures and attractions for Maya) are eradicated by Waheguru Himself, and you enjoy peaceful sleep and the comfort of the high spiritual state of your mind, oh my friends. Word Meaning: Usthir = stabilize; fortify. Ghur = hearts (minds). Baar = doors (of human body); senses. Ninda = vilification. Grehin = human houses (bodies). Aagaiy Hee = even before; earlier. Kartar = the Creator. 1.

Shabad = Huqam(u). Akhund = unbreakable. Apaar = beyond limits (comprehension).2.

MEANING: Satguru fortifies the minds and the senses of His devotees (they come under their full control), oh my friends. Pause.

Whosoever maliciously criticize (vilifies) such purified hearts (devotees), have already been (spiritually) killed by Waheguru (only some spiritually dead person will vilify such saintly people). 1.

Word Meaning: Taap = heat; fire (of worldly desires). Suntaap = suffering. Binsay = destroyed. Tay = all those. Roag = (mental) diseases. Bukhshiya = bestowed.
Suntun = saints. Rus Bhoag = enjoy the (spiritual) tastes. Pause.
Mundlee = company. Aaroag = healthy. Avkhud = medication. Joag = effective. 1.
Ghur Days = land of heart. Bhulay = suitable. Sunjoag = opportunity of union with God. Supesunn = overly pleased. Leh(i) Guyyay = removed. Biyoag = pain of separation. 2.
MEANING: Waheguru has kindly bestowed you with His Naam; now you should enjoy its spiritual taste (blissfulness) like the holy saints, oh, the lucky man. When you do that, all your worldly desires, all sufferings, and all your mental sickness will be eliminated. Pause. You will have a healthy body and mind, and you will be friends only with those who enjoy the comfort of Waheguru's Naam. Sing praise of Waheguru all the time; this is the most effective medication for all your mental worries. 1. Control your mind so that it stays in its own home (does not wander around) which will generate the most suitable opportunity to be "one" with Waheguru. Word Meaning: Kaahoo Na = (with) no one. Junjaal = Annoying worldly tasks. Ootth(i) Sidhaaray = leave the world. Chutturput(i) = those, who have royal canopies over their heads (rulers). Khiyaal = knowledge; are aware. Pause.
Uhunboodh(i) = egoism. Binsunaa = get destroyed. Dhoor(i) = right from the beginning. Dhaal = custom; practice. Bikhiya = Maya; immoral deeds. Bikraal = frightening. 1.
Sat(i) Buchun = evergreen words. Sadhu = Guru. Gopal = God. Turay = got salvaged. Rung Laal = dyed (imbued) in deep love. 2.
MEANING: The wealth accompanies no one after death, and the worldly tasks related to Maya become simply annoying. The holy saints are fully aware that even the rulers have to leave this world (empty-handed). Pause.
This has been the practice of the world right from its inception that egoism never lasts forever and must be destroyed. Maya (which is the basis of all immoral acts) is very frightening because it leads to repeated births and deaths for the man. 1.
The Guru's Words, which He always advises us to follow, are evergreen; one must recite Waheguru's Naam (to control the spiritually fatal effects of Maya). Those who are imbued in the deep love of Waheguru, recite His Naam, find salvation, oh Nanak. 2.11.29.

Word Meaning: Smaadh(i) = meditative state. Anund = blissfulness. Suhaayee = supporter. Amrit Goon = immortal virtues. Cheen = by recognizing (pondering on). Pause. Jai Jaikaar = praise; acclamation. Loacheh(i) = long for (their sight). Bighun(u) = hurdle. Theeya = comes up. 1.
Ung(u) = favour. Daas = slaves; admirers. Vudiyaayiyaan = praises. 2.

MEANING: When a devotee ponders on the Amrit-like virtues of Waheguru (sings His praise with Guru's Shabad), He finds Waheguru to be always with him and highly supportive of him. The Perfect Guru becomes the source of all comforts, joyfulness, and causes the devotee to attain a high spiritual state by meditating on His Naam, in which he finds bliss and peace. Pause.
Satguru and Waheguru become overly pleased with the devotee so much so that the devotee faces no obstacle in his spiritual life, earns praise in the world, and everybody longs for his sight (to meet with him). 1.
Everybody acts like a slave (shows great respect) to the devotee who is favoured by the kind Waheguru. A devotee, who comes to the shelter of the Guru, earns great respect of the people all the time, oh Nanak. 2.12.30.

Word Meaning: Mirt Mundul = encircled by (subject to) death. Baaloo = sand. Baar = very short time. Kaagud = paper. Boondaar = rain drops. 1.

Munsa = wish (idea of mind). Sat(i) = truth. Saadhik = those who purify their bodies. making. Girhee = family men. Tuj Guyyay = renounced. Ghur Baar = all belongings. Pause. Raiyn(i) Ka = (dream) at night. Drishtmaan = every visible thing. Guvaar = foolish. 2. Su = those. Meet = friends. Pusaar(i) = by opening wide; carefully. Ikk(i) = many. Chaalay = left already. Chaalseh(i) = will leave. Vaar = turn. 3.
Sayviya = obeyed. Usthir = immortal. Paiyj = dignity. Mooraar(i) = oh, God. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru has created the world so that it is subject to death (destruction) (everything is perishable), like a house of sand that collapses in the rain. 1. Listen to this idea, and note and ponder on this eternal truth that be it an accomplished Sidh, (who could prolong their lives by holding their breath for long times), a yogi, a family man, or some other ascetic, they all had to leave their house holds (and the world) sooner or later, oh my friend. Pause.
This world is like a dream at night (in sleep), which is short-lived and not a reality. Every visible thing is perishable; so, what are you attached to, oh, the foolish man? 2.
Open your eyes wide, and see carefully where all your brothers and friends are. Many have already left this world, and others will leave too, as per their turn. 3.
Those who serve the Perfect Guru (obey His Teachings) become immortal at Waheguru's Door (in His Court). I am a slave of Waheguru, and request Him that He save my dignity (protect me from the attacks of sensual pleasures), oh Nanak. 4.1.31.

Kuhou Nanak, tin(i) paaya, tun(u), mun(u) seetlaagou. 4.2.32.
Word Meaning: Loakun = people. Vudiyaayiyaan = praise. Baiysuntar(i) = in the fire. Paagoun = I will put into. Tay = those. Boal = words. Kraagoun = will say. 1.
Juou = when. Tuou = then. Lupt(i) = cling to; attracted to. Baashna = lust. Pause.
Ut(i) Ghunee = very much; sincere. Jeeou = (desires of) mind. Homaagoun = burn in fire; sacrifice. Urth = wealth. Aan(i) = by bringing. Vaariya = sacrifice; offer. Sohaagou = union with Waheguru. 2.
Punch = five (demons). Doakh = jealousy. Raagou = love. Pergaas = enlightenment. Pergut = appear. Nis(i) = night. Baasur = day. Jaagoun = stay awake; stay alert. 3.
Sohaagun(i) = of the married (connected with God). Bhaagou = good fortune. Tin(i) = those. Seetlaagou = peaceful; blissful. 4.

MEANING: Earning praise of the people by saying words which they like is worth nothing to me; I will gladly burn that in the fire. I want to say only those words that can connect me to my Dear (Waheguru). 1.
But I can start worshipping Him only when Waheguru is benevolent to me. Right now, my mind is attached to lust (sensual pleasures); but I will be able to abandon my lust in the shelter of the Guru (when Waheguru becomes benevolent to me). Pause.
I will make a sincere request to the Guru (to connect me with Waheguru), and will sacrifice my life for Him. I will take all my wealth too to sacrifice for the Guru if He would connect me with Waheguru, even for only a short moment. 2.
One can control his five demons (senses) and get rid of his jealousy and his love for others in the shelter of the Guru when his heart is enlightened (Waheguru appears in there), and he stays alert day and night against the attacks of Maya. 3.
The devotee, who has good fortune on his forehead, seeks the shelter of the holy saints who are already connected with Waheguru. Such devotees realize Waheguru, and their body and their mind become blissful, oh Nanak. 4.2.32.

(PAGE 809): Paavoun dhoor(i) Tayray daas kee,Nanak koorbaani. 4.3.33.
Word Meaning: Laal Rung = deep red colour (reflective of deep love for Waheguru). Maiyla = dirty; unclean. Daaga = stains. 1.
Sookhdaayiya = source of comforts. Bhaayay = with love. Sehj Smaana = staying absorbed in the high spiritual state. Bheetray = inside. Pause.
Juraa = old age. Muraa = death. Viyaapyee = influences. Aghaaniya = contented. 2.
Chaakhiya = tasted. Amoala = priceless. 3.
Suful = causing success. Ders(u) = sight. Goon-Nidh(i) = source of virtues. 4.
MEANING: Only that devotee's mind gets dyed deep red (gets deeply imbued in Waheguru's love) who is highly fortunate. Such a dark red colour (deep love for Waheguru) never gets dirty (fades away) or gets stained (is always pure; there is never any selfishness). 1. A devotee, who gets connected with the source of all comforts, Waheguru, stays blissful in His love. He cannot forget Him, and stays in a high, blissful spiritual state. Pause.
Old age and fear of death have no effect on him, and he never suffers mental anguish again. The Guru makes such a devotee immortal when he drinks Waheguru's Naam-Amrit and gets spiritually fully contented. 2.

Waheguru's Naam is priceless (it cannot be bought for any price), and only he who tastes it knows its worth. Nobody can put a price on it (it can be bought only by singing His praise), but I do not know what words of praise to use for Him. 3.
Your holy sight makes life successful, and the words in Your praise are a source of great virtues. I am a sacrifice for You and long for the dust of the feet of Your devotees (an opportunity to serve them), oh Nanak. 4.3.33.

Word Meaning: Kirpa Dhaaray = be benevolent. Sayva = serving (obeying Will). Neech(u) = ignoble. Moorkhaaray = foolish. 1.
Maan(u) = pride. Upraadhi = guilty. Bukhshunhaaray = forgiving. Pause.
Uvgun Kureh = commit mistakes. Asunkh = countless. Nirgoon = having no good quality. Daataaray = provder; Lord. Daasi = slave (Maya). Sungut(i) = company; friendship. 2.
Akirtghunaaray = ungrateful. Laag(i) Puray = got attached to. Daan = largesse. 3.
Bhuv Kaatunhaaray = eradicator of rebirths. Moogdh = foolish. Oodhaaray = salvage. 4.

MEANING: Please, be kind to me, and keep me in Your shelter, oh Waheguru. I am foolish, and do not know how to serve You. 1.
I do take great pride in being Your devotee (have great faith in You), oh, my dear Waheguru. I am guilty of making mistakes all the time, but You always forgive me. Pause.
I have no good quality and do make countless mistakes every day, but You are my kind, Lord. I have a friendship with Maya, and I ignore you; such are my ignoble deeds!! 2.
You are very kind to provide everything we need, but we are deeply ungrateful not to be thankful to You. We, humans, get attached to Your largesse and do not keep the Lord in our minds. 3.
There is nothing in this world which is not Yours, oh, the eradicator of our rebirths, Waheguru. I am in the shelter of the kind Guru, and beg Him to salvage the foolish me, oh Nanak. 4.4.34.

Word Meaning: Doash = blame. Kaahoo = someone else. Ghunaa = immense. 1.
Kaayay = whom. Binaa = without. Uvgun = ignoble qualities; faults. Pause.
Chaara = option. Needhuriyaan = without any support. Adhaara = support. 2.
Bhulaa = for our good. Mookta = free from all worries. Smuggri = all matter that we use. Joogta = planning; schemes. 3.
Pukhaaroun = wash. Bhaavaiy = liked by. Kirpaal = Duyyaal = kind; merciful. 4.

MEANING: I should not blame someone else for my faults (and for things which do not go my way), and should recite the Naam of Waheguru, oh my mind. I should sing praise of Waheguru, reciting whose Naam, one gets immense comfort. 1.
Whom should we pray to without You, oh my dear Lord? You are compassionate, and I have all the shortcomings. Pause.
I wish to live by Your Will (in whichever situation You put me through) because there is no other option. You support those who have no other support, and Your Naam is their biggest support. 2.
I have full faith that whatever You do is for our good, and whoever accepts Your Will becomes free from all worries. Everything that we need is provided by You, and even the planning about their delivery to us is Yours, oh Waheguru. 3.
I wish to wash Your Feet (serve You; recite Your Naam) if You like (approve) that. Please be kind, oh, merciful Lord, so that I may sing Your praise, begs Nanak. 4.5.35.

Kuhou Nanak, bundhun chhootay, Satgur kee sherna. 4.6.36.

Word Meaning: Mirt(u) = death. Hussaiy = smiles (at the fate of). Pusooaa = animal. Boojhaiy = understand. Baad = disputes. Saad = tastes. Soojhaiy = think of. 1.
Abhaagaiy = unfortunate. Kusoombha = a flower which looks pretty, but has a very short life (Maya). Rungula = colourful; attractive. Bhool Laagay = misled. Pause.
Derb(u) = wealth. Vertun = for use. Maati = human body. Naanga = empty-handed. 2.
Sherm(u) = hard work. Baiyr Birodhi = enemies; opponents. Kroadhi = mad in anger. 3.
Rayn(u) = (humble like) dust of feet. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Kerma = good fortune. Bundhun Chhootay = worldly bonds broken. 4.
MEANING: The man acts like an animal and gets deeply involved in disputes in the enjoyment of different tastes of life and due to his ego, and does not realize or think of death, which smiles over his head (can kill him any time) to watch his foolish behaviour. 1.
You are just running around in the worthless pursuit of Maya, oh, the unfortunate man. You are being misled by Maya's short-lived attractions. Why don't you serve your Satguru (follow His advice to lead a noble life)? Pause.
You accumulate wealth for your use by sinful means, but when you die, your body will be reduced to dirt, will mix with the earth, and you will leave the world empty-handed. 2.
The wealth for which you work so hard to earn becomes your opponent and your enemy at the end (because you will be punished for your sins in Waheguru's Court). It will not accompany you, so why are you suffering in a fit of rage to accumulate it? 3.
But only that individual acquires humility to serve the holy saints who have good fortune prewritten on their forehead. All his worldly bonds get broken when one comes to Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 4.6.36.

Word Meaning: Pingul = (spiritually cripple). Perbut = mountain (of ego). Khul = foolish. Chutur = clever; deft. Bukeeta = a speaker. Undhulay = spiritually blind. Tirbhuvun = the three-layered universe. Soojhiya = understands. Pooneeta = pure. 1.
Mehima = greatness. Maiyl(u) = filth of immorality. Koat(i) = countless. Ugh = sins. Huray = removed. Cheeta = mind. Pause.
Keet(i) = ant (a symbol of humility). Hustee = elephant (a symbol of conceit). Abhaiy = state of fearlessness. 2. Singh(u) = lion (a symbol of tyranny). Bilaayee = cat (a symbol of humbleness). Trin = a dry leaf or straw. Mayr(u) = a very tall mountain. Sherm = hard work; toiling. Dum Aadh = insignificant amount of money. Tay = those. Gunee = are considered. Dhuneeta = wealthy .3.

Bayunt-Gooneeta = Lord of countless virtues. Sreeta = slave. 4.
MEANING: Listen to the greatness of the company (shelter) of the Guru, oh my friend. One's countless sins are eradicated; the filth of his evil thinking is washed away, and his mind is completely purified. Pause.
A spiritually cripple can climb the mountain of his ego (becomes humble), and a foolish person becomes a deft speaker (in the shelter of the Guru). The mind of a spiritually blind person is purified (spiritually enlightened) upon meeting the Guru, and he acquires an understanding of the functioning of the universe. Pause.
The worship of Waheguru is such that the devotee becomes humble and overcomes his ego. Waheguru gives the gift of fearlessness to all those whom He makes His own. 2.
A lion-like tyrant is tamed to be like a loving cat, and a powerless man, who is like a dry leaf, acquires so much mental strength that he becomes invincible like a tall mountain. Similarly, those who toil hard to earn even an insignificant amount of money are considered wealthy (because they enjoy much more peace of mind than the rich). 3.
What praise of the Guru can I sing because He has countless noble qualities! I am a slave at Satguru's door, and pray to Him to grant me Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.7.37

Kupt(i) = in deceit. Greh(i) = in house-hold. Baydhiya = attached to; engrossed in. Mithiya = short-lived. Bikhiyaad = sensual pleasures etc. 1.
Paykhi = saw. Naytur Meh(i) = with eyes. Milkh = estates. Jobna = youthfulness. Bin(u) = without. Baad(i) = worthless. Pause.
Roop = beauty. Dhoop = incense. Sogundhta = fragrances. Bhogaad(i) = enjoyments. Milt = on touching. Paapisht = gravely sinful. Doorgaad(i) = foul smell. 2.
Phirt, Phirt = having gone through many different life forms. Khin Bhungun = destructible in a moment. Dayhaad(i) = body. Aousar = opportunity. Chookiya = missed. Bhermaad(i) = goes through. 3.

Bismaad = mesmerizing. Ta Kaiy = in his mind. Naad = music. 4.
MEANING: With the grace of the Perfect Guru, I have seen with my own eyes (realized) that the reign of a state, ownership of big estates, wealth, and youthfulness are all worthless without Waheguru's Naam. Pause. However, (ignoring the Naam), the man spends his life with thoughts of selfishness and ego on his mind, vilifying others, in greed, and enjoying different tastes with his tongue every day. He is deeply attached to his family and uses deceitful means to enjoy the short-lived sensual pleasures. 1.
He uses incense, different fragrances, and wears expensive clothes to look attractive so as to satisfy his sensual desires, but as soon as they touch the gravely sinful body, they become foul-smelling (repulsive, because he commits sins with his body). 2.
Having gone through many different life forms, the man gets (is given) a human body which can perish in a moment. If he loses this opportunity (to perform noble deeds to connect with God), he will have to go through many, many lives (before he becomes a man again). 3.
With Waheguru's benevolence, one is connected to the Guru, who connects him to the mesmerizing Waheguru. Such a devotee enjoys comforts, blissfulness of the high spiritual state, and feels as if Divine music is playing in his mind. 4.8.38.

Hayt(u) = love. Chayt = remember. Pause.
Aagaiy Bhugay = ran away; disappeared. Sungayt = company. Poonji = the wealth of spirituality. Saabut(u) = fully preserved. Ghuno Laabh(u) = great profit. Greh(i) = house; Waheguru's Court. Sobha Sayt = with respect. 2.
Nihchul = eternal. Aasun = seat; spiritual stage. Dolayt = weakening of mind. Bherm(u) Bhoolaava = misguided by misgivings. Paykhut = on seeing. 3.
Gumbheer = deep (sea). Naayika = Lord. Kayt = how many? Amrayt = Amrit. 4.
MEANING: Whether you are standing, sitting, or sleeping, you should remember Waheguru, Waheguru, and only Waheguru with love, oh my friend. Pause.
Guru's holy Feet (His Shabad to sing Waheguru's praise) is the ship to swim across the world sea. Satguru guides His devotees on the path to connect with Waheguru in this world, which is like a wilderness full of distractions. 1.

The five demons (lust, rage, etc.) run away (disappear) quickly in the shelter of the Guru. In Guru's shelter, not only does the (spiritual) wealth of the devotee stay intact, he earns a lot of (spiritual) profit on top of that (enhances his noble qualities significantly), and goes to Waheguru's Court with respect. 2.
All his worries are eradicated; he attains an eternal spiritual state (is enabled to merge with Waheguru), and his mind never weakens. On seeing (getting connected with) Waheguru, he no longer gets misled by any misgivings (which are completely eradicated). 3.
The Guru is a deep ocean and the Lord of virtues, which are so many that they all cannot be described. I have sought the shelter of the Guru, where Waheguru's Amrit-like Naam is recited constantly, oh Nanak. 4.9.39.

Word Meaning: Birthaari = empty; is wasted. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. 1.
Ja = which. Ooa = that. Jeeura = life. Vaari = sacrifice. Pause.
Ait = this. Drirrtaari = firmness. Updhaari = attachment. 2.
Nind = vilification. Chind = worry. Pur-Dookhna = expose faults of others. Jaari = burnt; destroyed. Muyya = compassion. Paykh(u) = see. Dooraari = distance. 3.
Seetul = peaceful. Mooktay = free. Sunsaari = from the world. Heet = love. Dersaari = with holy sight of the Guru. 4.

MEANING: All that life which is spent without taking shelter of the Guru goes to waste. But when I met the Guru (took His shelter), all my misgivings disappeared, and I achieved a high spiritual state. 1.
I am a sacrifice for the day (that day was lucky for me) on which I came to the Guru's shelter. I wish to sacrifice (offer for service) my body, mind, and life for the Guru again and again. Pause. The Guru made my mind so firm (strong) that all my bonds of worldly attachments are broken, and my mind has become very humble. 2.
In a moment, I have burnt (gotten rid of) all my worries, vilification of others, and the habit of exposing faults of others. I have acquired kindness and compassion for others, and I see Waheguru close to me all the time; there is no distance between Him and me. 3.
I am free from all worldly bonds, and my body and mind have become peaceful. Waheguru's holy sight is my love, my mind, my life, and my wealth, oh Nanak. 4.10.40.

Kroonaputay = the Lord of mercy. Pritpaal = the raiser and nourisher. Saal = supreme.4.

MEANING: Kindly connect me with You because my (spiritually dead) mind comes to life on meeting with You, oh kind Waheguru. I feel blissful day and night when I think of the kind Waheguru. Pause. I wish to serve Your devotees, and dust off their feet with my hair (expression of deep reverence), oh Waheguru. I wish to offer my forehead (my wisdom), and listen to Your noble qualities (praise) from them. 1.
I wish to seek the shelter of the holy saints who come to the earth to salvage the world. Kindly give me the gift of the dust of the feet of the holy saints (opportunity to serve them). 2. I have no logic (to make a plea), no wisdom, and have done no hard work (to please You); please be kind, and protect me from misbeliefs, worldly fears, and worldly attachments, and cut the net of the Angel of death (reincarnations), oh Waheguru. 3.
I have only one request to make to the Lord of mercy, Waheguru, who raises and nurtures us like a father, that He give me the shelter of the Guru where I may sing His praise, which is the supreme comfort, oh Nanak. 4.11.41

Word Meaning: Lorreh(i) = needs to do. Pertaap(u) = majesty. 1.
Chhootiyaiy = emancipate. Binsaiy = is destroyed. Uhunmayv = ego. Kula = powers. Sumruth = capable; omnipotent. Pause.
Khojut, Khojut = with deep search. Koorr(u) = false. Munsa Poor = fulfiller of wishes. 2.
Jit = where. Laavhou = put to. Jaali = burned; got rid of. Bherpoor = omnipresent. 3.

MEANING: Waheguru does whatever He needs to do; nothing happens outside His wish (plans). Even the agents of the Angel of death run away to see His majesty. 1.
The Perfect great Guru (Waheguru) is capable of all powers, and it is with His grace that one overcomes one's ego and is emancipated. Pause.
After a deep search, I have realized that everything is false (short-lived) without Waheguru's Naam. One acquires a high spiritual state, and all comforts in the shelter of the Guru, and Waheguru is the fulfiller of all one's wishes. 2.
The man pursues only those things in which You create his interest. I, too, accept Your Will, and have burned away (gotten rid of) my own wisdom. You are omnipresent and always kind to the humble (the weak), oh my Waheguru. 3.
The man begs everything from You, but only some lucky devotee begs for Your Naam. It is my prayer to Waheguru that I should live only to sing His praise, oh Nanak. 4.12.42.

Word Meaning: Baasbaiy = residing with. Kulmul = sins. Sayti = with. Rung(i) Raatiya = imbued in love. Ta Tay = from that. Grussna = grabbed; captured. 1.
Soochi = pure. Rusna = tongue. Jup(u) Jupna = recite His Shabad. Pause.
Rus(u) = sweetness. Dhraapiya = contented. Husna = feel joyfulness. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Pergaas Pergut Bhuyyee = enlightened. Oolt(i) = reverses direction. Kumul(u) = lotus-like heart. Bigsuna = blooms. 2.
Seetul Shaant(i) = peaceful. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Trishna = fire of desires. Boojhi = put out. Dhaavut = running fast. Thaan = spiritual state. 3.
Bhusna (Bhusma) = ash. Saad = taste. Paykh(i) = to see. Dershna = holy sight. 4.

MEANING: All his sins run away (are removed) when a devotee lives in the company (shelter) of the Guru. One is never captured to go into the womb again (takes rebirth) when he is imbued with the love for Waheguru. 1.
The tongue that recites Waheguru's Naam is purified (becomes holy), and the body and the mind of the individual get purified when he recites Guru's Shabad. Pause.
One gets fully contented and acquires mental joy (bliss) when he tastes the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. His wisdom (mind) is enlightened with Waheguru's Light, and it reverses its direction (from attachment with Maya to attachment with Waheguru), and the lotus of his heart blooms. 2.
The fire of the worldly desires of the devotee is put out, and his mind gets fully contented, becomes peaceful, quits wandering around in every direction, and takes residence in the holy spiritual state of high morality. 3.
The saviour Waheguru protects him from Maya's attacks, and all his misgivings about Maya turn to ash (are destroyed). He acquires the treasure of Waheguru's Naam and feels blissful to see the holy sight of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.13.43.

Word Meaning: Pees(u) = milling wheat. Daas = devotee. Nihaal(u) = blissful. Milkh = estates. Sikdaariyaan = positions of power. Jaal(u) = burn. 1.
Chhohra = servant. Mayadhaari = wealthy. Chhutur-put(i) = rulers. Pause.
Daana = grain; roti. Rookha = without any vegetable dish or spices. Nidhaan = treasure. Saakut = worshipper of wealth; a nonbeliever. Chhuttee Perkaar = foods of 36 kinds. Bikhoo = poison. 2.
Loogra = a worn-out blanket. Oadh(i) = wearing. Nugun = naked; ashamed. Sirpaaou = robe of honour. Rayshmi = silky. Put(i) Khoyee = lose respect. 3.
Mookh(i) Joriyaiyn = befriend. Udh Veechoun = in the middle. It Ooteh(i) = both worlds.4.
Bunut Bunaayee = created the system. Bhaytut = on meeting with. 5.

MEANING: I will burn away (give them up as worthless) the reign of a state, ownership of large estates, and positions of power in favour of serving the devotees of Waheguru by fetching water for them, fanning them in high temperatures, and milling grains for them, which makes me feel blissful. 1.

I will drop on the feet (take shelter) of the devotee of the holy saints (for spiritual advice) while giving up serving the wealthy and the rulers. Pause.
The uncoated (without butter) roti of the holy saints, even if it is without any vegetable dish, is like all the nine treasures for me, whereas the 36 kinds of delicious foods at the house of a money-worshipper are like poison for me. 2.
If I have only a worn-out blanket donated to me by a devotee of Waheguru to wear, I will never feel naked (ashamed); but I will lose all my dignity if I have to wear a silky robe of honour given to me by a worshipper of wealth (who does not believe in Waheguru). 3.
Friendship with a money-lover never lasts till the end, and is broken up in the middle. But a man who serves a holy saint of Waheguru is emancipated in this and the next world. 4.
(But the man is helpless for whatever he does) because it is You who make him do things that You want, and such is the way by which You have created the system of the world, oh Waheguru. I sing Your praise to see the Guru (acquire His shelter), oh Nanak. 5.14. 44.

MEANING: I wish to listen to Waheguru's praise with my ears, sing that with the tongue, and recite His Naam by touching the feet of the Guru, and putting my head on them (the feet of the Guru) (surrender myself completely). 1.
Please be kind to me, oh, my Waheguru, so that I may put the dust of the feet of Your holy saints on my forehead (follow their advice), which will be like having all the nine treasures of the world, and the 18 supernatural powers for me. Pause.

I want to be humbler than the humblest and address the holy saints with the utmost politeness. I wish to get rid of my selfishness and ego, and to massage the feet of the Guru (serve Him) so that I may get absorbed in Your thoughts with His grace, oh Waheguru. 2.
My mind should not chase other thoughts, and should recite Your Naam with every breath. Guru's holy sight makes my life a success, whereby all my worldly attachments and my pride (ego) are eradicated. 3.
I wish that high moral character, contentment, compassion, and human obligations should be my adornments. I wish my Waheguru liked me so that I have a successful union with Him, oh Nanak. 4.15.45.

Word Meaning: Uttull = eternally true. Buchun = words. Pergtaaya = made clear. 1.
Perteet(i) = firm faith. Anik = countless. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Pause.
Raakhta = protects dignity. Sehsaaya = doubt. Kerm Bhoom = ground of deeds (heart). Boyay = sow the seed. Aousur = opportunity. Doolbhaaya = not easily available. 2.
Untarjaami = omniscient. Putit = immoral. Pooneet = purified. Birdaaya = innate virtue.3.
Bhemaaya = captivating. Pehraaya = given the robe of honour. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru has made it clear to everybody that the words of the holy saints are universally and eternally true (time and place have no effect on them). A devotee, who takes the shelter of the Guru (follows His advice), gets connected with the Royal Lord. 1.
This is a firm faith among the devotees that whoever recites Waheguru's Naam enjoys blissfulness. Everybody talks a lot about different ways to connect with Waheguru, but the Guru implants Waheguru's Naam in the heart of the devotee. Pause.
There should be no doubt that Waheguru protects the dignity (against the attacks of Maya) of the devotee who comes to the shelter of the Guru. Human life is a rare opportunity for a man to seed Waheguru's Naam in his heart (mind), which is the ground of deeds (where deeds are planned). 2. Waheguru is omniscient, and everything is done by Him (He makes individuals do things of His choice). It is an innate virtue of the Lord to purify even the immoral (who come to His shelter). 3.
Do not forget that man is captivated by the attractions of Maya, but Waheguru protects the dignity of His devotees against the attacks of Maya, who are honoured by Him, oh Nanak. 4.16.46.

Daas, daas ko daasra, Nanak kur(i) layh. 4.17.47.

Word Meaning: Saajiya = created. Chhider = holes; faults. Dhukkay = covered. Nirmul = clean; pure. Drishteh = looks. 1.
Bisseraiy = forgotten. Tuj(i) = give up. Ruchay = gets involved (attached to). Aan = other (Maya). Khayh = dust. Pause.
Bilm = delay. Perpunch = the world creation. Koorray = false. Nayh(u) = love. 2.
Anik = countless. Buhou = many. Rung = colourful forms (shapes). Hoasi = will be. 3.
Vudda = the Great (Lord). Bernayh = is described. Daas = slave. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru creates the rarely available human body from earth, and covers our countless faults so that we look very clean (pure) outwardly. 1.
How can we forget Waheguru, which has such noble virtues? An individual who forgets Waheguru and gets attached to Maya mixes with dust (after death) and gets no recognition in Waheguru's Court. Pause.
Remember Waheguru with every breath, and do not delay, oh my friends. Giving up your short-lived attachments with the world, get attached to Waheguru. 2.
The lone Waheguru, who shows Himself in countless colours and forms, is now here and will always be here. Follow the advice of the Guru, and serve the Lord. 3.
The great Lord is higher than the highest, and is described as being present in everybody. Kindly make me a slave of Your slaves, oh, Waheguru, begs Nanak. 4.17.47.

Word Meaning: Tayk = support; shelter. Tiyaagi = rejected. Un Aas = hope of others. Sumruth = perfectly capable. Poorun = full of. Goontaas = the treasure of virtues. 1.
Adhaar(u) = basis. Sherni Paah(i) = take shelter of. Pause.
Daysi = will provide. Pritpaaraiy = raises and nourishes. Kirpa-Nidhay = the treasure (source) of compassion. Smaarhay = remember. 2.
Kernhaar = the Creator. Vudiyaayee = greatness; praise. Rujaayee = Will. 3.
Chint = worry. Undaysha = doubts. Gunut = account of good and bad deeds. Tuj(i) = giving up. Puchhaata = recognized. Binsaiy = destroyed. Raata = imbued (in love). 4.

MEANING: I have rejected all other sources of hope and have taken shelter of Waheguru only, because the treasure of all virtues, Waheguru, is fully capable of doing everything, and is above everybody else. 1.
Waheguru's Naam is the basis of the (spiritual) life of His devotees, and they take His shelter. The holy saints have faith in Waheguru's support in their minds. Pause.
Waheguru protects His devotees, provides for all their needs, and raises and nurtures them. Waheguru, which is kind to the helpless (humble), and is the source of compassion, looks after His devotees with their every breath. 2.
The Perfect Guru advises that obeying the Will of the Lord is the source of all comforts; so, the devotees praise the Creator, Waheguru, for everything He does. 3.
The devotee disregards his worries, any doubts, and the calculations about his good or bad deeds, and recognizes (accepts) the Huqam(u) of the Lord gladly. I am imbued in the love of Waheguru, which never dies, and which never leaves you, oh Nanak. 4.18.48.

Word Meaning: Muhaa Tupt(i) = the severe heart burning (mental torture due to the fire of desires). Shaant(i) = peacefulness; blissfulness. Persut = by touching (feet); taking shelter. Undh Koop = the dark well (of Maya). Gult = fully absorbed. 1.
Oye = those (holy saints). Saajna = friends, benefactors. Rayn = dust of feet. Pause.
Puraa Poorubla = of previous lives. Bust Sung(i) = live with. Aasaayay = wishes. 2.
Binsay = disappeared. Tihou Loak = the three-layered universe. Thaan = state. 3.

Tayk = Aadhaar = support, shelter. Kern Kaarun = the creator of the universe. Agumm = inaccessible. Apaar = beyond limits. 4.

MEANING: The holy saints of Waheguru are my benefactors, and I am the dust of their feet (a humble slave). They give the gift of life (inject a new spiritual life in you with Waheguru's Naam), and you feel blissful on meeting with them. Pause.

You come to their (the devotees') shelter when it is time for them to reap the rewards of their prewritten fortune based on their deeds of previous lives. All your wishes are fulfilled when you live in the shelter of the Guru (and recite Waheguru's Naam there). 2.

All one's fears of the world are eradicated, and he attains the blissful spiritual state. With the Grace of the fully capable Guru, Waheguru's Naam is enshrined in his heart. 3.

Even though You are inaccessible and beyond limits, yet You are the support and the shelter of Nanak, oh the Creator, Waheguru. 4.9.49.

Hur(i) dinus(u) raiyn(i) Nanak(u) jupaiy, sud, sud bul(i) jaayee. 4.20.50.

Word Meaning: Muleen = filthy at mind. Deen(u) = poor. Heen(u) = lacking all qualities. Bisraana = forget. Gunaiy = thinks of highly. Bigaana = without knowledge, ignorant. 1.

Tuday = then. Veesraiy = forgotten. Aanund = blissfulness. Pause.

Neech = low-caste (with no respect). Khin Meh(i) = in a moment. Thaapaiy = makes respectful. Keemut(i) = worth. Pertaapaiy = majesty. 2.

Leela = colourful dramas. Chulnaiy Din(u) = day of death. Kumaaya = deeds done. 3.

Kern Kaarun = creator of the universe. Bul(i) Jaayee = sacrifice life. 4.

MEANING: Only that individual is filthy by mind, is poor, and hollow (lacks all qualities) who forgets Waheguru. The ignorant (foolish) does not understand the majesty of the Creator and thinks highly of himself. 1.

One suffers only when he forgets Waheguru, but feels blissful when he remembers Him. The holy saints sing Waheguru's praise all the time, and that is the source of their blissfulness. Pause.

Waheguru can transform a highly placed individual in society into an unknown, ignoble person, and can turn an ignoble person into a highly respectable person in a moment. The worth (level) of Waheguru's majesty cannot be known. 2.

The day of death of the individual arrives in the middle of his enjoyment of colourful dramas and of beautiful things which are like a dream (short-lived); but his deeds accompany him to the next world. 3.
I have come to the shelter of the Creator and the omnipotent Waheguru. I am always a sacrifice for You, and wish to recite Your Naam all the time, begs Nanak. 4.20.50.

Word Meaning: Dhovoun = I haul. Ker = hands. Pug = feet. Pukhlaavoun = I wash. Lukh Bayriyaan = millions of times. Ders(u) = sight. Paykh(i) = to see. 1.
Munoruth = objective. Tay = from. Soohni = broom (sweep floor). Beejun = fan. Dholaavoun = to fan. Pause.
Amrit Goon = life-sustaining virtues (of Waheguru). Ooa = that. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Shaant(i) = peace. Triput(i) = contentment. Bikhaiy = sensual pleasures. Julun = fire. 2.
Mundlee = gathering. Numuskaar = show respect. Dhoor(i) = dust of feet. 3.
Kerm Kmaavoun = perform deeds daily. Smaavoun = get absorbed. 4.

MEANING: I wish to serve the Guru by hauling water for Him on my head, and washing His feet with my hands (show full reverence). I wish to sacrifice my life for Him countless times, as I survive spiritually through His holy sight. 1.
I pray to my Waheguru to fulfil my wish to give me an opportunity to serve the Guru by sweeping His floors, and fanning Him with a hand fan (on a hot day). Pause.
I wish to listen to the Amrit-like words of the Guru (in praise of Waheguru), and feed my soul with them. Because the sweetness of Guru's Words leads to the peacefulness of mind and contentment, the fire of sensual pleasures is put out by itself. 2.
I wish to sing praise of Waheguru in the company of the holy saints when they worship Waheguru (chant His Naam). I wish to bow to the holy saints and put the dust of their feet on my face (an expression of deep reverence). 3.
I wish to make it a daily practice to recite Waheguru's Naam, whether I am standing or sitting (all the time). It is my prayer to Waheguru that I should be absorbed in the recitation of His Naam in His shelter, oh Nanak. 4.21.51.

Word Meaning: Eh(u) Saagur(u) = the world sea; sea of Maya. Turaiy = swims across. Sung(i) = with; in the company. Vudbhaagi = highly fortunate. 1.
Jeevaiy = lives spiritually. Pergut = appears; enlightens. Loe = world. Ruhaou.
Ugun(i) Saagur = the sea of fire (worldly desires). Julun = burning. Sunchiya = irrigate. 2
Thaan = state. Silk = chain. Bherm = misgiving. Moh = attachment. Bhaaya = liked.3.
Mut = lest you may think. Uver = other. Haath(i) = in control. 4.22.52.

MEANING: Only that individual can swim across the sea of Maya who sings Waheguru's praise in the company of the Guru (or of a holy gathering); but Guru's company can be joined (acquired) only with great fortune. 1.
Your devotees survive (spiritually) by listening to the words that the Guru sings in Your praise, oh Waheguru. The Words of the Guru enlighten the whole world and protect the dignity of the devotees (against the attacks of Maya) when they follow them. Pause.
With Guru's grace, the devotees irrigate their mind with His Amrit-like Words, and God pulls them out of the fire of worldly desires, which is put out (desires are killed). 2.
Such a devotee is loved by Waheguru, who breaks the chains of his misgivings and of his worldly attachments, and the suffering of the devotee due to rebirths is destroyed, and he attains the state of blissfulness (merges with Waheguru). 3.
Nobody should ever be under the wrong impression that there is some other power; it is only Waheguru which controls everything, oh my friend. I have realized all comforts by singing Waheguru's praise in the company of the holy saints, oh Nanak. 4.22.52.

Muhaa Muntar(u) Nanak(u) kuthaiy, Hur(i) kay Goon gaayee. 4.23.53.

Word Meaning: Bundhun = chains. Ta Kee Nudr(i) = with His Sight. Nihaal = blissful. 1.
Roag(u) = suffering. Seetul = cool; peaceful. Joag(u) = worthy of. Pause.
Aukhudh(u) = medication. Viyaapaiy = affects. Hitaiy = in love. Jaapaiy = feels. 2.
Liv Laayee = full focus; meditation. Kilvikh = sins. Shoodh(u) = purified. 3.
Jus(u) = praise. Bulaayee = troubles. Muhaa Muntar = the supreme Mantra. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is always kind to the weak (ego-free), and one becomes blissful with His kind sight. Very kindly, He severs all the worldly chains of His devotees. 1.
The Perfect Guru eradicates the suffering of the devotees by connecting them with Waheguru, which is worthy of worship. The devotee acquires blissfulness by his body and mind by singing Waheguru's praise. Pause.
Waheguru's Naam is the panacea because of which no disease (suffering) can be caused to the devotee. One fosters love for Waheguru by body and mind in the company of the Guru because of which he feels no suffering. 2.
When one recites Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru with full concentration, his mind is purified, and all his sins disappear. 3.
All the troubles of the devotee, who recites and listens to Waheguru's Naam (His praise), are eradicated. The supreme mantra to please Waheguru is to sing His praise (recite His Naam) oh, Nanak. 4.23.53.

Word Meaning: Trishna = fire (appetite) of sensual desires. Boojhi = quenched. Mumta = parental love; attachment. Bhaiy = fears. Bherma = misgivings. Thit(i) = stability (peace) of mind; state of bliss. Dhema = noble deed. 1.
Araadhiya = worshipped. Binsee = got destroyed. Peer = Peerr = suffering. Pause.
Bismaad = Mesmerizing Waheguru. Triptaasiya = got contented. Achurj = amazing. 2.
Sungee = companions. Kool = clan. Kootumb =family. Oodhaaray = gets salvaged. 3.
Anaath = (spiritually) orphan. Ajaan(u) = ignorant. Goon-heen = without virtues. 4.
MEANING: The Guru has performed His noble deed and has eradicated my worldly attachments, and put out the fire of my sensual desires. Also, all my worldly fears and misgivings have disappeared, and I have attained the state of blissfulness. 1.
All my suffering has disappeared ever since I worshipped the Perfect Guru (followed His advice), oh my brother. My mind and body have become peaceful (my mind no longer wanders aimlessly), and I have realized comfort (blissfulness). Pause.
A devotee who recites Waheguru's Naam while asleep. and wakes up to see the mesmerizing nature of Waheguru, becomes fully contented (free from all worldly desires). He drinks the Naam-Amrit (with his tongue), which has an amazing taste. 2.

He fully emancipates himself and rescues his companions, his clan, and his family. The service to the Guru leads to a successful life, and the devotee is approved in Waheguru's Court as pure and holy. 3.
I am ignoble, spiritually orphan, ignorant, and have no virtue, but Waheguru was very kind to me, and He made me His own (connected me with Him), oh Nanak. 4.25.55.

Ninduk = vilifiers. Ninda = vilification. Puchay = burn; suffer. Grussiyaiy = captured; in the claws of. Pause. Aik(u) = the "One" God. Ruvviya = is present. 2.
Kutha Pooraatun = the old (ever true) story (truth). Doosht = evil. Khund, Khund = cut into pieces; destroy. Maani = acknowledges; honours. 3.
Pergut = appear; apply. Bhuou = worldly fear. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru alone is the support of His devotees; they do not have (believe in) any other support. Waheguru's Naam is the power, the reign of a state, the family, and the wealth for them. 1.
Waheguru protects His devotees with His benevolence; their vilifiers burn in the fire of jealousy while vilifying them (without any effect on the devotees), and are captured in the claws of the Angel of (spiritual) death. Pause.
The holy saints keep only Waheguru in mind and none other, and pray only to Him, who is present everywhere. 2.
We listen to the Words of devotees about the ever-true story of Waheguru: that He always destroys the enemies (the five demons) of His devotees and honours them. 3.
I share with you the ever-true words of the Guru, which apply to everyone who is a devotee of Waheguru and seeks only His shelter and has no worldly fear, oh Nanak. 4.16.56.

Word Meaning: Bundhun = worldly attachments. Kul = power. Uver Kerm = other deeds (rituals). Chhootiyaiy = emancipation. Naath = Lord. 1.
Shenaagut(i) = in shelter. Maadhvay = Gopal = Lord. Poorun = perfect. Pause.
Aasa = hopes. Bherm = misgivings. Bikaar = sensul pleasures. Lobhaana = engrossed.
Jhootth = false. Smuggri = worldly things (attractions of Maya). 2.
Perm Jot(i) = Supreme Light (Soul). Poorun Purakh = omnipresent God. Agumm = inaccessible. Apaaray = beyond limits. 3.
Kern Kaarun = creator of the universe. Sumruth = fully capable. 4.

MEANING: Only Waheguru has the power to sever the worldly bonds of His devotees; no other religious ritual can emancipate one. So, I pray only to the Lord to protect me. 1.
I have come to the shelter of the perfectly benevolent Waheguru (the Husband of Maya), because only He can free one from the chains of the world. Pause.
The man has the attraction of Maya ingrained in his mind and is engrossed in worldly hopes, misbeliefs, sensual pleasures, and attachments, and makes no connection with God. 2.
The omnipresent Waheguru is the Supreme Soul, and all the living beings are His (so, whatever He does is good for all of us). I pray to the inaccessible and limitless Waheguru that I should be happy in whatever situation He keeps me in. 3.
Waheguru is the creator of the universe and is omnipotent; I pray to Him to implant His Naam in my heart because one finds salvation when he recites His Naam (sings Waheguru's praise) in the company of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.27.57.

Word Meaning: Putriya = deceived; disgraced. Perteet(i) = trust. Muhaa Mohini = highly bewitching (Maya). Mohiya = captivated. Reet(i) = practice; path to. 1.
Khoot-hur = impure; unreliable. Bisaas(u) = trust. Oodmaada = lose mind in intoxication; uncontrolled. Khur = donkey. Paiykhur = a rope tied to the legs to control an animal. Laada = loaded. Pause. Jup = recitation of matras. Tup = torturing self to please some deity. Sunjum = efforts to control one's senses. Khunday = break. Daand = punishment. Joan(i) = different life forms. Nirlujjay = shameless. Bhaand = a jester. 2.
Bhayd = difference; separation. Beedha = pierced (engrossed in). Punch Butvaayeen = the five robbers (demons). Oopjiyo = produced; caused. Khayd = suffering. 3.
Shernaagti = in the shelter of. Serbus(u) = all. Deena = gave. 4.
MEANING: You are so much beyond control that you cannot be trusted, oh, the unreliable mind. You are like the donkey whose rope, tying his legs to restrict his movements, is removed only after he has been fully loaded. Pause.
Countless people have been disgraced because they put their trust in you, oh human mind. You are bewitched by the captivating Maya, and your path leads to hell. 1.
You have destroyed all the efforts of people to worship their deities, including recitation of mantras, self-torturing, and the efforts to control senses, as a result of which they have to suffer the punishment by the Angel of justice. You are such a shameless jester that you do not remember Waheguru, and you suffer the pain of many lives. 2.
You are separated (disconnected) from Waheguru, who is always with you to support you; you are rather engrossed in the enjoyment of sensual pleasures enjoyed by the five demons (lust, greed, etc.), as a result of which you have to suffer a great deal. 3.
I have taken the shelter of those holy saints who have Waheguru embedded in their hearts, oh Nanak. I have offered my body and all wealth to the devotees of Waheguru. 4.28.58.

Word Meaning: Oodum(u) = initiative; effort. Saar(u) = supreme. Beechaar(u) = thought. 1.
Churn Kumul = Guru's lotus-like feet (His Shabad). Aaraadhtay = worshipping. Pause.

Junt = living beings. Loach = longing. Per-oopkaar = favour to others. Chitvutay = think of. Poach = show off. 2.
Dhunn(u) = wordy of praise; great. Thaan = place. Busunt = residents. Kutha = story of Waheguru's virtues. Keertun = sing praise. Ut(i) Ghunaa = extremely high. Sehj = blissfulness. Bisraam(u) = peaceful mind. 3.
Anaath = (spiritually) orphan. Naath = Lord. 4.
MEANING: When a man takes initiative (to recite Waheguru's Naam), he begins to feel blissful and enjoys supreme bliss when he actually recites the Naam. By reciting Waheguru's Naam continuously, one's objective to embed His memory in the mind is fully achieved. 1.
I survive spiritually by reciting Guru's Shabad and by drinking Waheguru's Naam-Amrit by reciting His Naam. Pause.
All the living beings that have a longing for Waheguru's Naam enjoy bliss and comfort by reciting His Naam. They always keep the interests of others in mind, and there is never a selfish motive in their actions to do favours to others. 2. The people and the place are worthy of praise where Waheguru's Naam is recited. There is immense comfort, blissfulness and peace where Waheguru's virtues are discussed and His praise is sung. 3. Waheguru, which is the Lord of the (spiritually) orphans, should never be forgotten.
I have come to the shelter of Waheguru, which controls everything, oh Nanak. 4.29.59.

Word Meaning: Bundh Kur(i) = incarcerated in the womb. Chhoadiya = released in the world. Phoon(i) = then. Churnaarbind = (Churn + arbind) = lotus like soft feet. Seetul = calm; peaceful. Hotaaya = become. 1.
Uthva = or. Ruchun = creation; world. Rung(u) Laavaiy = fall in love. Koyoo = rare. Pause. Oosn = heat (suffering). Seet = cold (comforts). Ghaam = heat; fire (of worldly desires). Keeri = ant. Tay = from. Hustee = elephant. Toota = disconnected. Gaandhaiy = connects. 2.
Unduj ----Ootbhooj = the four sources of reproduction. Kirt(i) = creation. Kirt Kmaavun = performing deeds approved (predetermined) by Waheguru. Nirut(i) = without love for the creation. 3.
Mugun = absorbed in love. Koop Undh = the dark well (of Maya). Kaadh = pull out. 4.

MEANING: You should always remember Waheguru, who has lotus-like soft feet, and who released you from the incarceration of your mother's womb and set you free in the world (caused your birth), and provided all the necessities of life. Also, you will feel blissful when you recite His Naam, oh man.
The man stays attached to wealth, which serves no one (brings no peace of mind) forever, while living or after death. Some rare individuals foster love for Waheguru, who has created the universe. Pause.
It is Waheguru which causes suffering, or provides comforts, and pulls us out of the fire of worldly desires, oh man. It is He who transforms an ant-like weak man into a powerful individual like an elephant, and who connects the disconnected with Him. 2.
The four sources of reproduction (live births, from eggs, vegetation, and from the air) have been created by Waheguru. One gets fully rewarded when he performs deeds, staying fully detached from His creation. So, one should love Him without any worldly bonds. 3.
I am unable to do anything on my own; so, I have come to the shelter of the Guru, and pray to Him to pull me out of the dark well of Maya in which I have fallen due to my love for worldly attachment, oh Nanak. 4.30.60.

Word Meaning: Khojut = searching. Achhll(u) = which cannot be deceived. Acchayd = which cannot be pierced (unattackable). Abhayd = whose secrets cannot be known. 1.
Aatum kaiy rung(i) = with love deep from the soul (heart). Bhulaa = better. Pause.
Bern = the four major categories of castes. Ashrum = the four stages in life (virgin, family, going to forests, and renouncing the world). Shastar = Hindu religious books. Piyaas = thirst; longing. Raykh = physical features. Abinaash = immortal. 2.
Oh(u) Sroop = the same looks (no looks). Virlay = rare. Jogishur = the top yogis. Dhun(i) = highly fortunate. Eesur = great souls. 3.
Binsay = destroyed. Bhaiy = fears. Poorun Kema = full benevolence. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru is unattackable, is non-deceivable, and His secrets can never be known. (But rather than searching Him inside their heart where He resides), The foolish search for Him in forests and other places. 1.

When will I see my Waheguru with love for Him from the core of my heart? It is better to see Him in a dream and enjoy His company than to stay awake and not see Him (because of countless distractions). Pause.
I listen to the Shastras, which explain the obligations of different castes, and of different stages of life of the society, but my thirst to see Waheguru, which has no form, no physical feature, and is not made of the five basic elements, and is immortal, is not satisfied. 2.
The holy saints and some rare top yogis also describe Waheguru the same way (as having no form or physical features). But those are highly fortunate great souls whom Waheguru connects with Him. 3. With His benevolence, Waheguru connects His devotees with Him when they see Him inside and out, and because of which all their fears and misbeliefs are eradicated, oh Nanak. 4.31.61.
