MEANING: If people listen to Waheguru (His praise) then everybody is salvaged. However, when fully engrossed in worldly attachments, the man becomes immoral and forgets Waheguru. Pause.
The man considers worldly enjoyments to be essential, and accumulates the poisonous wealth of sensual pleasures, and drops (forgets) Waheguru's Naam from his mind. He gets imbued in the enjoyment of lust, rage, greed, and vilification of others, whereby his high moral character and his mental contentment are ruined. 1.

I am spiritually a pauper (have no good quality at all) and have finally come to Waheguru's shelter with the request that He pulls me out of the pool of vices, which I am tired of now, and salvages me in the shelter of the Guru, begs Nanak. 2.3.83.

When that happens, Waheguru becomes very kind to His devotees, makes them His own, and grants the gift of His Naam to them with His benevolence. One's lust and his rage, etc., disappear when He sings Waheguru's praise day and night. 1.
The devotee takes the meal of the sweetness of the Amrit-like Naam of Waheguru for his soul, and gets fully contented to see His holy sight (in his mind). I am in the shelter of Your holy Feet (Naam), oh Waheguru, kindly connect me with the Guru, prays Nanak. 2.4.84.

Churn Guyyay = hold Feet; take shelter. Saagur = the world sea. Bherm = misbeliefs. 2.

Sing praise and the songs of the precious (highly Divine) qualities of Waheguru with your tongue, oh, all the devotees. As a result of that, your soul will be fully satisfied with His Naam, which is the source of all comforts, and your appetite for worldly attractions of many, many lives will disappear. 1.
I have held the Feet (come to the shelter) of the source of all comforts, Waheguru, and I recite His Naam with Guru's Shabad. It is the majesty of the Lord that one swims across the sea of Maya and all his worldly fears and his misgivings are eradicated with Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.5.85.

Word Meaning: Oojaaro Deepa = the lamp to enlighten. Binsiyo = disappears. Teh Mundar(i) = in that heart. Ruttan = Guru's precious Words (Waheguru's Naam). Koattri = a small room (treasure). Anoopa = of unparalleled worth; precious. Pause.

Bismun Bism = fully mesmerized. Mugun = absorbed. Maatay = intoxicated. Oat(i) Poat(i) = like the cross threads in fabrics. Luptayee = inter-mingled. 1.

Aal Jaal = family (worldly) bonds. Junjaara = annoying chains. Uhunboodh(i) = thoughts of ego. Bhora = negligible amount. Kheecha = stretched (curtain). 2.

Ekunkaar = the only Supreme Being Pasaara = Bistheerun (u) = spread; extension; creation. Apur = with no end. Apaara = limitless. Sumpoorun(u) = omnipresent. Praan Adhaara = support of life. 3.

Nirmul = Soocha = pure; pious. Unt = end. Bayunta = unlimited. 4.

MEANING: Satguru's Shabad is that lamp which enlightens the heart. The darkness of ignorance disappears from the heart which is enlightened by Satguru's Shabad, and the door to the treasure of Guru's precious Words in praise of God opens wide. Pause.

When the devotee "sees" those precious gems (Waheguru's Naam) in his heart, he just becomes mesmerized and is unable to describe their magnanimity. He simply gets intoxicated by those Words and is absorbed in their thought, like the cross threads of a fabric that cannot be told apart. 1.

He forgets the world around him, and there are no family bonds or annoying chains of worldly attractions to influence him. Not even a slight thought of ego is left in his mind, and he sees only the most transcendent Waheguru around him with no curtain between the two, and he becomes "one" with Waheguru. 2.

He sees only one Supreme Being, which has no end, and is limitless, while the rest of the universe is simply His own extension. He alone is the support of all life, and He fully pervades His entire creation. 3.

Waheguru is purer than the purest, and more pious than the most pious. He is limitless, and there is no end to His creation. He is the most highly transcendent, oh Nanak. 4.1.87.

Word Meaning: Kaam Na = of no use. Raach(i) Maach(i) = fully mixed; friendly. Mohini = mind-captivating. Mohaavut = is captivating. Pause.

Kunik = gold (wealth). Kaamini = woman, wife. Sayj = bed. Khinaiy = in a moment. Oorjh(i) = tangled up; deeply involved. Indri Rus = sensual pleasures. Prayriyo = motivated; prompted. Bikhaiy = sensual pleasures. Tthugauri = deceitful. 1.

Trin = dry grass. Mundar = house. Suvaariyo = decorated. Paavuk = fire. Gurrh = fort. Aiytth(i) = with ego. Huttheelo = obstinate; mule-headed. Phool(i) = swelled-headed. 2.

Punch Doot = the five demons. Moond = head. Tthaandhay = standing; controlling. Phayraavut = misleads. Mud Maavut = intoxicated (with liquor of sensual pleasures). 3.

Choag = bait. Phaahaavut = trapped. Budhun = chains of attachments. 4.

MEANING: Nothing, other than Waheguru (His Naam) is worth anything for you (in Waheguru's Court), oh man. The captivating Maya you are fully engrossed in is simply deceiving you. Pause.

Wealth, your wife, and the beautiful and comfortable bed are left behind in a short moment. Prompted by the enjoyments of sensual pleasures, you are deeply involved in their pursuit, and are feeding on the poison of the deceitful Maya. 1.

God has created the human body like a dwelling of dry grass, which is adorned to look attractive, but beneath which he has kindled a fire of worldly desires. So, what does the mule-headed man achieve while living in such a short-lived dwelling (which he considers to be a fort), enjoying life with an inflated ego and swelled head? 2.

The blind and the ignorant man does not see (realize) that his head (thinking) is being controlled by the five demons (lust, greed, etc.) which hold him by the hair (have full control over him) and make him run around in the pursuit of sensual pleasures, and he is asleep (unaware) under their intoxication. 3.

Just like a bird-hunter spreads his net and puts some bait to trap birds, the demons have trapped the man in their net with the bait of sensual pleasures. (However, the man cannot get freedom from the worldly bonds with his own efforts), So, I have worshipped my Satguru, the omnipresent Waheguru, to sever my worldly bonds, oh Nanak. 4.2.88.

Word Meaning: Apaar = without end. Amoali = priceless; which cannot be bought. Chitvoun = think of. Paan Tumboali = seller of a wrap of areca nuts. Pause.

Sehj(i) = in blissful state. Choali = robe. Mookh(i) Laago = have a sight. Juou = when. Soohaag(u) = husband. Doali = waver; go away. 1.
Roop = beautiful (gifts to offer). Dhoop = incense. Gundh = fragrances. Deepa = lamp. Oat(i) Poat(i) = cross threads in a fabric (warp and weft). Ung Sung(i) = fully absorbed. Mauli = blooming (of heart). Ruvvi = enjoyed union. Soohaagun(i) = loved by husband. Neeki = beautiful. Khutoali = a small cot (bed of heart). 2.
MEANING: The Naam of the limitless Waheguru is priceless and cannot be bought with any valuable product. He is dear to me like my own life, and I keep Him in mind just like a person who never forgets wraps of areca nuts in betel leaves which he chews and enjoys after meals. Pause.
As per the advice of the Guru, I keep Waheguru in my mind as a result of which my body (mind) is imbued in His love, and I stay in the spiritual state of blissfulness. I was able to "see" (get connected with) my dear (Waheguru) when my good fortune matured; now I am happily married to Him, and He will never leave me. 2.
People try to please their deities by offering them beautiful gifts, incense, fragrances, and lamps in a platter; I have none of such things – not even physical beauty –, but I am fully absorbed in His love like the cross threads in a fabric, and cannot be told apart from Him; and my heart has bloomed. I am now "married," and my Waheguru is enjoying my union with Him, and the bed of my heart has become beautiful (blissful), oh Nanak. 2.3.89.

What should I say about Waheguru's magnanimity? Even though I see Him everywhere I look, I am unable to say even a single word. Pause.

If a man gets a favour from some other man, then the latter reminds the former about that favour again, and again, (but Waheguru never reminds us of any of His countless favours). MEANING: A malicious critic loses his morality easily even on non-issues, and is recognized by the fact that his morality crashes (drops) like a wall of saltpetre. Pause.
A vilifier feels gusty (zesty) when he notes even a minor weakness in someone, but is disappointed (feels jealous) to note something good in others. He keeps planning to attack others, but cannot achieve his objective and dies while still planning. 1.
Actually, the vilifiers are misled by Waheguru (based on their previous misdeeds), and they initiate disputes with devotees of Waheguru and invite their spiritual death, which gets closer and closer. Ignoring gold-like (valuable) Waheguru's Naam, the man deals in short-lived comforts; he loves (is attached to) vices which become his enemies, and breaks connection with noble qualities which are his true friends in the long run. He finds immortal Waheguru's Naam to be bitter, but finds the temporary comforts of perishable Maya to be sweet. He gets engrossed in the poisonous sensual pleasures and suffers in mental agony. 1.

The man falls into the deep and dark well of Maya and becomes trapped in the chains of misgivings, the darkness of ignorance, and worldly attachments. But when Waheguru becomes kind to someone, He connects him with the Guru who pulls the man out of the dark well by holding him by the arm, oh Nanak. 2.10.96.

All my evil demons (lust, greed, etc.), which were my real enemies, have been eradicated on reciting the Shabad of the Perfect Guru (Waheguru's Naam). All my enemies have been rendered helpless by the majesty of my Waheguru, and they can cause no harm to me now. 1. One should recite Waheguru's Naam without any worldly fear; but the invaluable thing (Waheguru's Naam) can be acquired only with great fortune. NOTE: Ever since Sri Arjun Dev Ji, who was the youngest son of Guru Ram Dass Ji, was given the Guruship by Him, His eldest son, Pirthi Chand, who expected Guruship for him as his right, became highly jealous and a big enemy of Guru Arjun Dev Ji. He tried every way – legal and illegal – to take away Guruship from Guru Arjun Dev Ji. He tried many times to have the infant son of Guru Arjun Dec Ji, Sri Hargobind Ji, killed, but was unsuccessful. He was friends with the army general of Lahore forces, Soolhi Khan, and approached him to attack Guru Arjun Sahib either to kill Him, or to put Him in jail so that Pirthi Chand could become the Guru. However, Soolhi needed some solid excuse to attack Guru Sahib. Pirthi Chand suggested that Guru Sahib was building Harmandir Sahib at Amritsar for which He was baking bricks, and the brick-kiln was located on the road between Amritsar and Lahore, and that Soolhi should approach (Guru) Arjun (Sahib) and ask for all the bricks meant for the construction of Harmandir Sahib, for the construction of a mosque in Lahore. (Guru) Arjun (Sahib) would refuse to give the bricks to Soolhi, who could use Guru Sahib's refusal as a valid excuse to attack Him. Soolhi agreed and planned an attack on Guru Sahib.

When the Sikhs heard about the impending attack, they panicked and advised negotiating with Soolhi to find some way out, but Guru Sahib had full faith in Waheguru and told the Sikhs not to worry, as Waheguru would protect him, and Soolhi would not be able to cause Him any harm.
Soolhi took some soldiers with him and left Lahore to attack Guru Sahib. When he reached near the brick-kiln, he decided to check it out. As he rode his horse on the wall of the brick-kiln, a big flame from the kiln seemed to approach the horse, which got frightened, and jumped into the fire, whereby both the horse and Soolhi Khan were killed right away, and turned into ash. Thinking it was the Guru's wrath, the soldiers ran back to Amritsar. Guru Sahib wrote this Shabad to express His gratitude to Waheguru for protecting Him from the wrath of Soolhi Khan, and also to reinforce faith in Waheguru among His Sikhs when they have no recourse left to solve some problems. There is one more holy Shabad by Guru Arjun Sahib in Raag Assa on this incident.
MEANING: I prayed to, and had full faith in Waheguru that He would protect me from the wrath of Soolhi Khan, who would not reach me to cause any harm. (Waheguru listened to my prayer) And Soolhi died an unholy death by being burned. (Death by burning is considered very unholy in Islam). Pause.
The Lord cut his head with the axe (of fire), and Soolhi turned into ash in no time. He had evil plans in his mind, and suffered unholy death; the Lord, who created him, pushed him (into the fire). 1. He was left with nothing, and left everybody – his sons, friends, brothers, all relatives and his wealth – behind. I am a sacrifice to my Waheguru, who upheld my words (and prayer) (to protect me from the wrath of Soolhi), oh Nanak. 2.18.104.

MEANING: How can one swim across the sea of Maya (find emancipation) without Waheguru's fear and His worship? You are the emancipator even of the immoral, so be merciful and protect me (from attacks of Maya) by providing Your support, oh Lord. Pause.

The man does not recite Waheguru's Naam; he goes around intoxicated with the liquor of Maya like a dog, and is imbued (engrossed) in sensual pleasures. As his life goes by, he gets more and more captivated (robbed) by the poison of sensual pleasures, and, committing sins, gets drowned in the sea of Maya. 1.

You are omnipresent, above the effects of Maya, and the destroyer of all suffering, oh Waheguru. Please be kind to me too, and provide me the shelter of the Guru by whatever means You may so that I may recite Your Naam. Waheguru has beautiful hair, is the destroyer of all unrest and of all sins. I was captivated by the wave of blissfulness (of Waheguru's Naam) whereby my mind gained strength and became peaceful (quit wavering), and all my suffering disappeared. My heart became zestful, and now I cannot live without my dear Lord even for a moment. 1.
Waheguru has salvaged his countless bhagats and devotees, and countless sages recite His Naam. Having realized Waheguru with countless virtues, I feel blissful as if a blind man has regained his eyesight, or as if a pauper has received a huge sum of wealth, oh Nanak. 2.2.127.

MEANING: Like a young bride whose husband is away, and who expresses her feelings in such words: I am sighing in Your separation, and cannot go to sleep, oh my dear. I have beautified myself with a necklace, mascara, beautiful clothes, and ornaments, and I am feeling sad while waiting for your arrival. When will you come home? (A devotee-bride feels exactly the same way about her Waheguru-Husband). Pause.
The devotee says to herself: I will go to the shelter of the devotees who are married to Waheguru (connected with Him; the Guru), put my head on their feet (surrender all my ego to them) and beg them to connect me too with Waheguru. When will He visit my heart? 1.
The devotees advise me to listen to their advice to get connected with Waheguru, that I must get rid of my haumein completely when Waheguru comes to dwell in my heart on His own. Sing His praise to achieve sweet bliss, and recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the source of all bliss. I have come to the shelter of (the Guru) and have realized my dear Waheguru by obeying His advice, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Doopuday = Shabad with two stanzas. Dookh-Herta = remover (eradicator) of suffering. Puchhaano = recognize; make connection. Ajamul, Gunika and Guj (elephant) = stories in the Purans used as parables in Guru Granth Sahib to glorify Waheguru (see “Introduction” at the beginning). Jea Jaano = accept (make a connection) with full faith. Pause.

Traas = fear. Chhin = short moment. Bukhaano = said; remembered. Nard = a sage- son of Brahama – who was born out of a thigh of Brahma. Dhuroo = a devotee of Waheguru. Luptaano = cling to. embraced. 1.
Achull = Amar = immortal. Nirbhaiy = fearless. Pud(u) = stage. Haiyraano = surprised; amazed. Bhugut Ruchhuk = lover (protector) of devotees. Nicket(i) = near. 2.1.
MEANING: Get connected with the Naam of Waheguru, the eradicator of all suffering. Believe it with full faith that sinners like Ajamul and Gunika found salvation by remembering the Lord (Reciting Waheguru’s Naam). Pause.
Similarly, the fear of the elephant (which was trapped in the tentacles of a huge octopus and was about to drown) disappeared the moment he remembered God. When the child Dhuroo listened to Nard's advice, he embraced (fell in love with) God. 1.
(By worshipping God) Dhuroo attained the immortal, fearless spiritual state, which surprised the world. Waheguru is very close to you, and He protects His devotees, oh Nanak. 2.1.

Maan = pride. Moh = worldly attachments. Purhur(i) = remove; get rid of. Bidh(i) = means; life-style. Jeevun Mookt(i) = emancipated while living in the family. 2.
MEANING: The Guru reveals the deep spiritual secret that man’s worries and his misgivings never go away, and he suffers without Waheguru’s Naam. Pause.
So, what does he gain spiritually if he undertakes pilgrimages to holy places and makes some commitments (like fasting, etc.) if he does not seek the shelter of Waheguru? His yogic practices are worthless if he forgets (ignores) to sing Waheguru’s praise. 1.
The man who renounces his pride (conceit) and worldly attachments, sings Waheguru’s praise, and spends his life that way is considered to be emancipated while still living in the family, oh Nanak. 2.2.

MEANING: Keep this in mind that the man who does not worship Waheguru wastes away his human life worthlessly, oh my friends. Pause.
Believe it as an eternal truth that a man who visits holy places and makes some commitments, but has no control over his mind, has all his religious rituals go to waste. 1.
A man who is devoid of Waheguru's worship is like a stone which cannot be penetrated by water if it is kept in there 2. The Guru reveals the spiritual secret that one achieves emancipation only by Waheguru's Naam. Only that man is loaded with good qualities and has a strong mind (which does not waver) who sings Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 3.3.

Word Meaning: Nicket(i) = near. Vussaiy = dwells. Soyee = that (God). Virla = rare. Boojhaiy = understands; unlocks. Ruttay = imbued in. 1.

Giyan = Waheguru's Knowledge (Naam). Pdaaruth = valuable (sweet) thing. Rus(i) = reciting while enjoying (the sweetness). Maan(u) = respect; recognition. Pause.

Kuthaiy = says. Baad(u) Kuray = gets into useless discussions. Raatay = imbued. 2.

Dhiyan(u) = concentration of mind. Reht = living style. Saacha = pure; pious. Kuthnee = utterings. Thaaoun = shelter; peace. 3.

Bundhiyo = bonded strongly. Sur = arrows (of worldly attractions). Jaal(i) = net. Ghut(i) = heart. Biyaap(i) = is affected. Bikh(u) = poisonous vices. Annjaiy = is brought (to the world). Deekaiy Kaa(i) = given (subject) to death. Seedho = successful. 4.

MEANING: Some rare individual realizes that Waheguru dwells very close to us, and watches everything. But no one can worship Waheguru without His (respectful) fear in mind. Those who are imbued in Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's praise), enjoy bliss. 1.

Waheguru's Naam is such a sweet thing that the devotee earns respect while enjoying its recitation in the shelter of the Guru. Pause. Everybody talks about Divine knowledge, but only to engage in worthless discussions and to earn suffering. Still, nobody goes without saying or talking about divine knowledge. But nobody can obtain emancipation without getting imbued in the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. 2.

Only Satguru is the source of Divine Knowledge and of techniques of concentration on Waheguru's Naam. Only Guru's lifestyle and His mind are pure. The follower of his mind (disconnected with Waheguru) may talk a lot about divine knowledge, but does not have a pure lifestyle. Those who forget Waheguru find no support anywhere. 3.

The human mind is pierced with the arrows of the attractions of Maya, which has stretched (cast) its net on everybody. Every heart is affected by the poison of sensual pleasures (which never last forever), and whoever comes into the world (is born) is subject to death. Only that individual achieves his objective who keeps Waheguru's Naam in his heart. 4.

---------- So Giyani, jin(i) Shabad(i) liv laayee. Munmukh(i) haumein put(i) guvaayee. Aapay Kertaiy bhugut(i) kuraayee. Gurmukh(i) Aapay day vudiyaayee. 5. Raiyn(i) undhaari, nirmul Jot(i). Word Meaning: Giyani = having divine knowledge. Liv Laayee = focused mind on. Put = dignity. Vudiyaayee = respect. 5.

Raiyn(i) = night (life). Nirmul = pure; bright. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light (Soul). Jhootthay = impure. Koochul = ignoble life style. Kuchhoat(i) = undeserving of socialization. Bayd(u) = Giyani. Sroat(i) = preach. Maanaiy = obeys. 6.

Shastar, Simrit(i) = Hindu holy books. Drirraamun(g) = reinforce; emphasize. Shaant(i) = peaceful. Ootum Kraamun(u) = noble deeds. Joani = of different life forms. Suhaamun(g) = endure. Vusaamun(g) = enshrine. 7.
Put(i) = husband; Lord. Soyay = the same (Lord). 8.
MEANING: Only that devotee is the bearer of Divine Knowledge who meditates on the Guru's Shabad with full dedication. The follower of his mind loses respect because of his selfishness and ego. However, Waheguru Himself makes some individuals worship Him and bestows honour on the devotees of the Guru. (So, we cannot entirely blame the followers-of-their-mind for not worshipping Waheguru because that is the way their character has been designed by Waheguru). 5.
The night (of life) of the man is dark, which is lighted up by the bright light of Waheguru (His Naam). Without Waheguru's Naam, the humans are impure, have an ignoble lifestyle, and are undeserving of socialization (because they could be a bad influence on others). The Giyanis preach loudly to worship Waheguru. Those who listen to their advice and act on that are able to see Waheguru's Light (become one with Him). 6.
Even the Hindu holy books emphasize (Waheguru's) Naam. The devotees of the Guru are always peaceful and perform noble deeds, whereas the followers of their mind endure the suffering of repeated births in many life forms. The bonds of worldly attachments are broken only by enshrining Waheguru's Naam in the mind. 7.
The true worship of the Lord is to believe in His Naam (act on it). There is none other like Him to see. Waheguru is the only Living Power that pleases my mind, and I can say (sing) only His praise. There is no one like Him, oh Nanak. 8.1

Klut(u) = wife. Abhimaana = conceited. Sung(i) = with. Pause.

Dooray = detached from God. Dooji = the other (Maya). Doormut(i) = evil thinking. Durd = pain; suffering. Chhootaiy = is emancipated. Daaroo = medication. 3.
Oojul = clean. Tilk = anointment. Maala = rosary. Naatshaala = school of acting. 4.

MEANING: According to the religious books, the human mind thinks about deeds which are the basis of sins or of nobility, and makes the body perform the same deeds. The individuals intoxicated with the liquor of wealth never find contentment. They get freedom from contentment (or discontentment) when they love Waheguru by mind. 1.
They become conceited to see the beauty of their body, their wealth, and their wife, but do not realize that nothing other than Waheguru's Naam accompanies them after death. Pause. They follow their minds to enjoy different tastes of life without realizing that, eventually, their bodies will become a pile of dust, and their wealth will become the property of others. All their belongings, which they raised by filthy (dishonest) means, leave them with filth on their mind, which cannot be removed without the Guru's Shabad. 2.
The man enjoys countless songs, different kinds of music and dances, but all such entertainments are false (short-lived). Under the influence of the three effects of Maya, the man keeps taking births and dying, and stays away (detached) from Waheguru. Because of his attachment to Maya, his thinking becomes evil, and his suffering does not go away. Waheguru's praise is the medication to break the bonds of Maya (get emancipation), which one should sing in the Guru's shelter. 3.
The Brahman, who is the religious leader of the masses, wears a clean dhoti, an anointment on his forehead, and a rosary around his neck (to show off his religiosity) and reads religious books aloud to the masses, but harbours rage inside. So, all his seemingly religious deeds are like acts which one learns in a school of acting. Forgetting Waheguru's Naam, he stays intoxicated with the liquor of Maya, but he cannot have peace and comfort without Waheguru's worship in the shelter of the Guru. 4.

Luhhaiy = acquires. Pdaaruth = the valuable thing (Waheguru's Naam). Kirtaaruth(u) = successful. Poochh = questioning. Seejhaiy = is successful. Soyay = that. 6.
Tis = Waheguru. Rujaayee = Will; Huqam. Vaas(u) = dwelling. Kaal = death. Bikaal = anti-kaal (birth). Naas(u) = destruction. 7.
Ateet(u) = detached from (Maya). Urpaiy = offer. Aavaiy = comes; is born. Saachay = truthful; purified. Saach(i) = in the eternal Waehguru. 8.
MEANING: A person who turns his face away from the Guru (does not follow His advice) is taken through many different life forms like the pig, the dog, the donkey, the cat, the cattle, or is born to perform filthy, low-caste or butcher-like jobs. Because of his strong bond with Maya, he keeps being born and dying. 5. One acquires the invaluable Waheguru's Naam by serving the Guru in his heart, as a result of which he achieves the objective of life (union with God) successfully, and is not questioned in Waheguru's Court. The devotees who obey Waheguru's Huqam (His Will) become successful in Waheguru's Court. 6.
One makes a connection with Waheguru only when he comes to the Guru's shelter, where he learns to recognize Waheguru's Huqam and live by His Will. When one recognizes Waheguru's Huqam (lives by His Will), he finds room to live in Waheguru's Court (merges with Him), and his birth-death cycle is terminated. 7.
The individual, who believes that everything that he owns actually belongs to Waheguru (is given by Him), stays detached from the worldly attractions, and offers everything to Him (Waheguru), who is not born, or dies again. He becomes pure like Waheguru, and merges into Him, oh Nanak. 8.2.

Untarjaami = know-all. Ghut, ghut = every heart. Pehnaami = deceit. 4.
MEANING: The world is like a crow (which makes a lot of noise without making any sense), which has knowledge on its tongue (not in mind, i.e. its mind is not enlightened), only to take part in worthless discussions. and not to apply to self. Inside, it is full of greed, lies and conceit. But eventually, its mask does come off. 1.
The man can embed Waheguru's Naam in his mind and memory when he gets connected with the Guru (comes to His shelter). The Guru makes him recite Waheguru's Naam. Love for anything other than for Waheguru's Naam is false (short-lived). Pause.
Perform only those deeds which are advised by the Guru. Make a connection with Guru's Shabad (enshrine it in your mind), attain the spiritual state of blissfulness (above the effects of Maya), and earn respect with Waheguru's eternal Naam, oh my friends. 2.
The Brahman tries to enlighten the people, but himself does not understand a thing about divinity. The blind of Waheguru's Knowledge, he performs deeds of ignorance; so how can he reach Waheguru's Residence (get connected with Him) and attain peace? 3.
We should serve the omniscient Waheguru whose Light (Soul) is present in every heart. How can anyone cheat Him? 4.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is recognized (enshrined in mind) by the Guru's eternal Shabad. When the devotee recites Waheguru's Naam all the time in the shelter of the Guru, his ego is eradicated, and his purified soul becomes like that of Waheguru and merges into itself (with Waheguru, as Waheguru also resides in his body). 5.
Man's evil thinking, due to its attachment with Maya, goes away when he serves Satguru. His ignoble qualities and his sinful thinking are killed, and his Gold-like purified soul merges into the Supreme Soul. 6.

One earns huge praise on connecting with Satguru, and all his sufferings are eradicated when he embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam always enjoy comforts (blissfulness). 7.
One's performance of his deeds becomes pure (honest) when he follows the Guru's advice, and he reaches the door of emancipation. The follower of Guru's advice gets salvation for his family (associates) too, oh Nanak. 8.1.3.

Word Meaning: Aap(u) = selfishness and ego = Huoun. Maytaiy = eradicates.
Rus = sweetness. Guvuyyiya = sings. Perchaiy = with the advice. Kunchun Kaaya = gold-like pure body (soul). Nirbhuou = fearless. Jot(i) = the Supreme Soul. 1.
Adhaar(u) = support; basis. Rumuyyiya = omnipresent (God). Paatth = advice. Pause.
Greh(u) = house (human body). Ehinis(i) = day and night. Punch Tuskur = the five robbers (demons). Dherm Urth = wealth of noble qualities. Hir(i) = steal away. 2.
Kunchun Koat(u) = treasure of gold. Maanik = pearls (noble qualities). Jaagay = stays alert. Tut(i) = the root (Waheguru). Liv = focus of mind. Hayroo = robbers; the demons. Lookaanay = stay hidden. Bundh = arrest. 3.
Poat = Bohitha = ship. Khayvut = boatman; captain. Jagaati = taxman. 4.

MEANING: With the advice of the Guru, when a devotee sings Waheguru's praise with the sweetness of mind all the time, his selfishness and ego are killed, his soul becomes pure like gold, and he merges into the Soul of the fearless Waheguru. 1.
With Guru's advice, Waheguru's Naam has become the basis of my life, and now I cannot live without His Naam even for a short moment. Pause.
The human body, which has ten doors, is attacked by the five demons as thieves who keep stealing away the wealth of its noble qualities, day and night, but the ignorant and the blind followers of its mind have no such awareness. 2.
The human mind is like a treasure of gold, which is full of pearls of noble qualities of which the man is not aware, and the five demons stay hidden in there. However, he comes to realize (awakens to) their (the noble qualities) and the demons when he focuses his mind on the root of the universe – Waheguru (His Naam) – and stays alert. With the Shabad of the Guru, he arrests and ties up the five demons (controls them). 3.
Waheguru's Naam is the boat, the ship, while Guru's Shabad is the boatman (the captain) who ferries us across the sea of Maya. No taxman in the form of an angel of death can come near the devotees, and no robber can rob them of their noble qualities. 4.

Word Meaning: Unt(u) = end; limit. Luhhiya = found. Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. Munooa = mind. Ikutt(u) Ghur(u) = the same residence (with God). Neeshaan Bujuyyiya = beating of the drum; publically (without any shame). 5.
Triptaiy = is contented. Servun = with ears. Aatumdev = Waheguru (His Naam). Bheenay = melts; is moved. Russ(i) = while enjoying. Ruvuyyiya = recites. 6.
Traiy Goon = the three effects of Maya (see the "INTRODUCTION") at the beginning. Moh(i) = attachments. Viyaapaiy = affect. Tooriya Goon = above the effects of Maya. Luhhiya = acquired. Drisht(i) = sight. Sum = equal. Pusruyyiya = expanse; universe. 7.
Subaayee = everywhere. Alukh(u) = incomprehensible (Lord). Lukhuyyiya = saw. Bhuyyay = became. Bhaayay = with the spirit of. Smuyyiya = got absorbed. 8.
MEANING: My mind sings Waheguru's praise day and night, but I cannot find the limits of His greatness. With Guru's grace, when my mind becomes "one" with Waheguru, I will meet with Him with the beating of a drum (announce my union to the public without any shame of being ridiculed). (In those days, Waheguru's devotees, who did not perform idol worship, were ridiculed). 5. Now, I listen to the Shabad of the Guru with my ears, and find contentment to see Him with my eyes. My mind is moved to listen to the praise of Ram, Gopal (names of Waheguru), and I recite His Naam while enjoying its sweetness. 6.
Normally, the man performs all his tasks under the influence of the three qualities of Maya and his worldly attachments, but a devotee attains the spiritual state above the effects of Maya in the shelter of the Guru. He sees that the whole universe is the creation of the omnipresent Waheguru, so he treats everyone the same. 7.

In the shelter of the Guru, the devotee realizes that Waheguru's Naam (His laws) are the same throughout the world and His Light is present everywhere, in which he sees the invisible Waheguru. Waheguru, which is kind to the humble, has become kind to me as well, and I have been absorbed into Him with His love-filled worship, oh Nanak. 8.1.4.

Word Meaning: Seetul = cool; which causes calmness. Chundun = sandal tree. Vaas(u) = fragrance= Soogundh. Gundhuyyiya = imparts fragrance. Perm Pud(u) = the supreme spiritual state. Hird = castor plant which is short and has ugly smell. Plaas = a tall tree which is of not much use other than its shade. Boohhiya = gets fragranced. 1.
Jugun Nath = Jugdeesh = Goosaayeen = are all names for God. Sayee = those. Oobray = salvaged. Prehlaad = a supreme devotee of God. (See "Introduction"). Pause.
Bhaar Atthaarah = all vegetation; an old belief that if one leaf from each kind of vegetation is weighed the total weight of all leaves amounts to 18 weights (about 1310 kg). Ootum = superior. Hooyyiya = become. Saakut = worshipper of Maya (disconnected with God) Oobhsook = trees that die while still standing. Vichhurr(i) = separated from. 2.
Gut(i) = transcendence. Mit(i) = measurements. Bidh(i) = ways; means. Dhoor(i) = right from the source (from birth). Mitaiy = erase. 3.

Ruttan Pdaaruth = valuable thing (Waheguru's Naam). Saagur = sea. Bhundaar = treasure. Khoohhuyyiya = opened. Sherdha = reverence; faith. Oopji = was cultivated. Triput(i) = tiredness. Bhuyyiya = happen; become. 4.

MEANING: Recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is like cool water (which quenches one's thirst for worldly desires and causes calmness or peace in the mind), and is like the sandal tree, which imparts sweet fragrance in one's mind, oh my friend. I was like a castor plant (which has an offensive smell) or like a useless plass tree (which has no smell), but was imparted a lovely fragrance (of Waheguru's Naam) when I got connected with Waheguru, and attained the highest spiritual state in the shelter of the Guru. 1.

Recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the Lord of the whole world; those devotees who come to His shelter are salvaged like Prahalad, who was salvaged and who got absorbed into Waheguru (became one with Him). Pause.

The sandal tree is considered to be the most superior in all vegetation because all trees that grow near a sandal tree begin to smell like that. The Maya-worshippers are like those fake trees that dry up when left standing on the ground. They are full of ego and are detached from Waheguru; they go far away from Him. 2.

But only Waheguru knows His transcendence and measurements, and He creates means to connect some individuals with Him, and to push others away from Him. Nobody's fortune, which Waheguru has written for Him right from his birth, can be erased, and the individuals whom He connects with Satguru become pure like gold. 3.

One acquires the jewel-like, valuable Naam of Waheguru only with the Guru's advice when He opens the ocean-like treasure of Waheguru's worship for the devotees. A deep reverence for Waheguru was cultivated in my mind in the shelter of the Guru, so that I never get tired of singing His praise. 4.

Word Meaning: Baiyraag(u) = pangs of love. Bhaavni = feelings of mind. Khin(u) = moment = Pul. Paar = the other end. Purhaiy Pruyyiya = further and further. 5.

Khut Kerm = the six duties of Brahmans: to study and teach Vedas; to perform and to help in the performance of yugs (to feed Brahmans in the area); to receive and give donations. Drirruyyiya = reinforce. Paakhund = to show off; hypocrisy. Vigootay = misled. Lehr(i) = wave. Naav = boat (of life). Booduyyiya = sinks. 6.

Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Perchaiy = with the guidance of. 7.

Jug(u) = world. Vern = colours. Roop = forms. Say Kerm = thise deeds. Junt = musical instrument. Bhaavaiy = likes. Raah(i) = path (of life). Chuluyyiya = follow. 8.

MEANING: A devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam all the time gets so much attached to Him that he begins to feel the unbearable pangs of love for Him. I express my deep feelings of love for Waheguru when I sing His praise. We should sing Waheguru's praise every moment, but we cannot find His limits; He is further and further with no end. 5.

The Hindu holy books, such as the Shastras, Vedas, and Puranas, simply emphasize performing religious rituals and the six duties of the Brahmans. Such deeds become mere rituals of show-off, and people are misled by their misgivings. They are overcome by the powerful waves of greed and become Maya-worshippers as a result of which the boat of their life sinks in the sea of Maya with the load (burden) of their misdeeds. 6.
One must recite Waheguru's Naam to attain a high spiritual state. Even the Simritis and the Shastras emphasize the recitation of Naam. One attains the highest spiritual state when one gets rid of one's haumein in the Guru's shelter. 7.
This world of different colours and forms is Waheguru's (He has created it), and the living beings perform only those deeds which they are made to perform. The living beings are like musical instruments which produce only those tunes which the musician (Waheguru) plays on them, and they tread the path of life which they are put on, oh Nanak. 8.2.5.

Waheguru's Naam has become the basis of my life now, and I am following the path of life supported by Satguru, which has led me to the Residence of Waheguru. Pause.
The human body is the ground to sow the seeds of deeds, and just like butter is obtained by churning yogurt, the devotee achieves union with Waheguru by churning his deeds (analyzing them well, saving the good, and rejecting the bad). Waheguru's Naam, which is precious like rubies and jewels, enlightens the heart which is full of love for Him. 2.
One should serve the devotees of Waheguru like a slave of His slaves (with full faith and dedication). I wish to offer my mind and wisdom before the Guru, with whose grace I am singing praise of the indescribable Waheguru. 3.
The follower of his mind is impacted (influenced) by worldly attachments, and his mind burns (suffers) in the fire of worldly desires for which he has a big thirst. But when an individual pours the water of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit with Guru's Shabad on the fire, it is put out. 4.

He should sing Waheguru's praise while keeping His Naam in mind, which serves for dancing steps. 5.
Imbued in Waheguru's love, one should sing Guru's sweet Shabad while enjoying its taste when the extremely pure stream of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit trickles in his mind. Those who taste this sweet Naam-Amrit acquire blissfulness. 6.

The conceited man (has no real love for Waheguru); all the rituals that he performs are simply due to the persistence of his mind, the result of which is like the house of sand that a child builds on the shore of a sea, which collapses into many different pieces when a wave hits it. 7. Waheguru Himself is the pool of life and Himself the sea; the whole world is like a drama to play. Like a wave of water which gets absorbed back in the water of the sea, a devotee realizes that Waheguru Himself is all in all in the universe when he gets absorbed into Him, oh Nanak. 8.3.6.

Word Meaning: Perchaiy = (convinced) with the advice. Moondra = earrings. Bhusm = ash. Drirruyyiya = reinforce. Amar = immortal. Pind = bodies (humans). Mit(i) = finished. 1. Mudhsoodun = Maadho = (names for) Waheguru. Pukhuyyiya = wash (mind). Pause. Tujaiy = renounces. Grist = family. Bunvaasi = resident of jungle. Tikay Na = does not focus. Dhaavut Dhaayay = keeps running around. Tuday = only then. Ghur(i) Aavaiy = stays in itself (becomes peaceful). 2.
Sanyasi = who has renounced the world. Boojhaiy = understands. Niraas = free from hopes and desires; detached from the world. Luhhiya = acquires. 3.
Oopji = arose. Terk = reasoning; belief. Digumbur = clothe-less; naked. Dehdis = in all directions. Guvun Kuruyyiya = roaming around. Perbhuvun = journey to other parts of the world. Duyya Ghur(u) = the house (source) of mercy (God). 4.

MEANING: (The yogis wear big glass earrings and cover their bodies with ash (to look unattractive to women) with the belief that they will get connected with God by such means), disapproving such approaches, Guru Ram Dass ji writes that acting on Satguru's advice is the earrings which I wear not on my ears, but in my mind, and reinforcing Guru's Shabad in my mind is the ash that I coat my mind with (to keep the evil thoughts away), and not my body. The devotees, who practise these principles in the shelter of the Guru, become immortal (by merging into Waheguru), and their births and deaths both get eradicated. 1.
Stay in the company of the Guru, oh, my mind, and pray to Waheguru to be kind to you so that I may keep washing the filth of my mind every moment in His shelter. Pause.
Some people renounce their family and live in the forest, but despite their best efforts, their minds do not find peace, even for a short moment. The fast-wandering mind comes under control only when Waheguru puts it in the shelter of the Guru. 2.
Even though they leave their children behind to become a sanyasi, they do not understand the real approach to connecting with Waheguru and building hope after hope in life. They achieve detachment from the world in a real sense only when they come to the shelter of the Guru and attain the state of blissfulness. 3.
Some others acquire the belief (are convinced) that real renunciation means that they should not even wear clothes, and go naked, but they too do not achieve the peace of mind, and keep roaming on the earth (in search of God). They may roam all over the world, but the fire of their desires is not put out. They realize Waheguru, which is the source of mercy, only in the shelter of the Guru. 4.

Word Meaning: Aasun Sidh = meditative postures of yogis. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Chaytuk = amazing feats. Suntokh = contentment. Shaant(i) = peace. Sidh(i) = success. Puyyiya = achieves. 5. Uuduj = from eggs. Jayruj = live births. Saytuj = from air. Ootbhooj = from vegetation (the four sources of reproduction). Vern = colours. Roop = forms. Oopuyyiya = created. Shood(u) = the lowliest. Vaish = the third-level castes (farmers, businessmen). Chundaal = merciless; butchers; savage. 6.
Aoujaat(i) = lower caste. Chumiyaar = cobbler. Duyyiya = kind; merciful. 7.
Paiyj = dignity. Bhugut(i) Vuchhul(u) = lover of His devotees. Ungikaar = favour. 8.
MEANING: The Sidh yogis learn many postures of meditation, but ask Waheguru (not for His Naam but) for supernatural powers to use them to perform amazing feats (to impress people, and earn accolades). They, too, get no mental contentment and peace. They achieve success in contentment and peace of mind only with Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. 5. All living beings of different colours and forms are created by Waheguru through the four major sources of reproduction. All human beings have been created by Waheguru (as equals), even though some cunning people divided the Indians into four major castes – Brahmans, Khatris, Vaish (which, among others, include farmers and the businessmen), and the Shood (the untouchables, including the ignoble butchers and savages) – in the descending order of status in the society. But regardless of the caste, only those get salvation who come to the shelter of the Guru. 6.

Among Waheguru's top devotees are Naama (Nam Dev) (a low-caste washerman), Jai Deo (a Brahman), Kambir (Kabir Ji) (a weaver), Tirlochan (a Vaish), Ravidass (a low-caste cobbler), Dhanna (a farmer), and Sain (a barber). All of them are worthy of our respect, but they realized the merciful Waheguru only in the shelter of the Guru. 7.
Waheguru loves His devotees, and He saves their dignity with His favours (kindness). I have come to the shelter of the Lord of the World, Waheguru, and pray to Him that He protects me too, with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 8.4.7.

Word Meaning: Untar(i) = in (the mind). Piyaas = thirst; longing. Ootthi = arose. Kayri = of; for. Buchun = Word; Shabad. Teer = arrow. Birtha = situation. Uver = other. K(i) = what. Ko = someone else. Puruyyiya = of the other. 1.
Moh(i) = captivated. Aakul Bikul = losing mind. Loat Poat = overexcited. Pause.

Nirkhut = look for. Days Disuntar(u) = far and near. Chuyyiya = zestfulness. Maarug(u) Punth(u) = path to union with Waheguru. Dikhuyyiya = showed. 2.
Sundaysha = message. Kayra = off. Mustuk = forehead; wisdom. Tul(u) = under. 3.

MEANING: Guru's Shabad pierced my mind like an arrow, and a strong longing arose in my mind to see the Guru. I cannot describe the situation (feelings) of my mind because only the mind knows its condition; who else can feel the pain of others? 1.
The mind-captivating Guru has captivated me, oh Waheguru. I am so overexcited to see my Guru that I am losing my mind. Pause.
With Guru's grace, I feel so zestful to "see" Waheguru, whom I was looking for far and near. (Now, that I see Him everywhere), I wish to offer every part of my body and mind to the Guru who has shown me the path to unite with Waheguru. 2.
Waheguru has become so sweet to my body and mind that I always wait to receive His message from someone (discuss His virtues with someone). I will cut off my forehead (wisdom) for the Gur Sikh who is connected with Waheguru, and connects me with Him. 3.
Let us acquire the virtues required to win over (please) Waheguru, and let our minds be filled with love for Him, oh my friend. Waheguru is known to be the lover of His worship (worshippers), so I have come to His shelter. 4.

Word Meaning: Khima = forgiveness. Sheegaar = adornment. Khooshiya = happy; please. Buluyyiya = light up. Rus(i) = with sweetness. 5.
Haar(u) = necklace. Kuntth(i) = neck. Motichoor = an ornamental headpiece (a sign of high status). Vud Gehn = a great ornament. Gehnuyyiya = to wear ornament. Sherdha = reverence. Sayj Vichhaayee = made bed. Bhuyyiya = is liked. 6.
Uver(u) = other; different. Baad(i) = useless. Phokut = tasteless. Thook = spittle. 7.
Chayri = disciple; slave. Agumm = inaccessible. Goosaayeen = Lord of the world. 8.
MEANING: When a devotee adorns her mind with the ornament of forgiveness, and lights up her mind with the lamp of Guru's Knowledge (Shabad), Waheguru is so pleased that He enjoys the union with the devotee with great sweetness. I will gladly cut my mind (thinking) in pieces, and offer to Him (surrender my wisdom completely). 5.
Waheguru's Naam has become the necklace of my throat (tongue) (I recite His Naam all the time), and exercising control on my mind is the great ornament for my head (high spiritual wisdom). I like Waheguru so much that I have spread the bed of my heart with great reverence for Him so that He may never leave my heart. 6.
But if an individual does things contrary to the Will of Waheguru, all her adornments to please Waheguru become worthless and tasteless. Waheguru goes to the bed of the devotees who are connected with Him, while the follower of her mind gets spit (shame or insult) on her face. 7. I am a slave of the Lord of the world (Waheguru), and am completely under His control (cannot disobey Him). Please be kind to the poor Nanak, and keep me in the shelter of the Guru all the time, oh Waheguru. 8.5.8.

Word Meaning: Ugumm = inaccessible. Sherdha = wish; reverence. Ootthuyyiya = sprouts. Chaatrik = rainbird, a bird which is believed to drink only the first drop of rain. Priyo Priyo = beloved; badly needed. Boond = drop. 1.
Roam = body pours. Baydun = pain (of separation). Baiydik = physicians. Naatik = pulse. Bhoolaanay = misdiagnosed. Hirdaiy = at heart. 2.
Umlaiy = addiction drug. Umlee = addict. Kayri = of. Dooyiya = some other. 3.
Huoun = I, me. Tis(u) = him/her. Vit-houn = for. Bul(i) = Ghoomm(i) = sacrifice life. Sat Sat = eternal (a manifestation of Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: I have so much love for the inaccessible Lord by my body and my mind that deep reverence for Him sprouts in my mind every moment. Like the rainbird, which feels contentment only when it gets its beloved first drop of rain, my wish is met in full when I see my Guru. 1. Let us listen to the praise of Waheguru together with the hope that Satguru will be very kind to us, and connect us with Waheguru, oh my friends. I will cut my head (wisdom) into pieces, and offer it to my Guru for His such benevolence. Pause.

There is pain of separation in every pore (part) of my body, and I cannot go to sleep without seeing my Guru. When the physicians check my pulse to find my ailment, they misdiagnose me, not realizing that the pain is not due to some pathological reason; it is the pain of love for my Guru. 2. Like an addict who cannot survive without the addictive drug, I cannot survive without my dear Waheguru even for a moment. Those who have thirst (yearning) for the Guru, do not like anything other than Him. 3.
I will lay down my life for the individual who can connect me with Waheguru. The Satguru, which is a manifestation of Waheguru, can connect individuals who have been separated from Him for many, many lives if they come to His shelter. 4.

Word Meaning: Sayj = bed. Mehl(u) = God's Residence. Bhemuyyiya = misled. Khin = a moment. Dheel = delay. 5.
Kiriyachaar = rituals. Paakhund Kerm = rituals for show-off (of hypocrisy). Kupt = deceit. Lobuyyiya = loves; engrossed in. Baysooaa = prostitute. Suduyyiya = called. 6.
Poorub Junum = previous lives. Smuyyiya = got absorbed. 7.
Mehandi = henna. Peesaayee = grinded. Ghoal(i) = mix well. Ung Luyyiya = applied to the body (applying henna to hands and feet is a sign of a newlywed bride). 8.
MEANING: Even though the Lord resides in the bed of every heart, the Maya - worshipping individual is misled in life, and cannot reach Waheguru's Residence (cannot get connected with Him). However, if he comes to the shelter of the Guru with full faith, Waheguru appears in his mind without the delay of a single moment. 5.
Such a man (Maya-worshipper) performs more and more rituals, but embraces hypocrisy and deceit. A person who worships more than one power is like the son of a prostitute who is not sure who his father is. 6.
Those, who had served Waheguru in their previous incarnation (but not enough to merge with Him), and are reborn as humans in this life, are provided Guru's shelter (by Him) who (the Guru) transforms their life into that of the supreme devotees of Waheguru. They merge into Waheguru by worshipping Him and reciting His Naam. 7.
The brides-to-be graze henna, and apply it on their hands and feet themselves, but for the would-be brides of Waheguru, He Himself grazes henna of His love for them, and Himself lovingly applies it on their minds. Waheguru pulls His devotees, whom He is kind to, out of the sea of Maya by holding them by the arm, oh Nanak. 8.6.2.1.6.9.

MEANING: Waheguru has so many virtues that nobody can sing His praise in full. So, giving up all other hopes, I have come to Him and have sought His shelter. Pause.

I am always willing to sacrifice my life for the lotus-like soft Feet (His Naam) of the limitless Waheguru. My mind has been attached to Him with love. I will never leave Him to seek some other support. 1. Waheguru's devotees recite His Naam with their tongue, whereby all the filth of their sins gets burned down completely. They are ferried across the sea of Maya by the Guru, who serves as the boat. 2.

The saints have this holy custom (routine of reciting Waheguru Naam), which serves as the strong string (bond) by which they are attached to Waheguru. Their sins, due to any immoral acts (or thoughts), run away and merge with the formless Waheguru. 3.

By tasting the blissful and sweet Naam of Waheguru, one can see the mesmerizing Waheguru as a result of which the devotee's mind never weakens for any attraction of Maya, and Waheguru comes to reside in his mind forever. 4.

MEANING: Those who recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the source of all virtues, are captivated by Him and feel as if they are listening to the auto-playing Divine Music. They never go to hell and do not see the Angel of death with their eyes (because their soul merges into the Supreme Soul). 5.

Waheguru is so deeply bonded to His devotees that He is under their control. And, the devotees always stay in the shelter of the omnipotent Waheguru, whose secrets are not known even to the Vedas, and Whom the hermits and the bhagats serve all the time. 6.

Waheguru eradicates the suffering of the poor and the humble, serving whom is otherwise extremely difficult. Nobody knows the limits of Waheguru, which is present in the waters, on the land, and in the sky. 7. Finally, I have come to the shelter of Waheguru, and kneel before Him millions of times, praying that He fulfils my wish to make me as humble as the dust of the feet of the Guru (grants me the opportunity to humbly serve Him), oh Nanak. 8.1.

MEANING: By holding Guru's feet (taking His shelter), I have finally come to Your shelter, oh Waheguru. Please be kind to me so that I may find Your Naam very sweet; also, eradicate my suffering from rebirths. Please be kind, and accept me in Your shelter, oh Waheguru. I wish to recite Your Naam, oh Lord. 1. Please be kind to the poor and the humble, oh my Lord. I wish to have an opportunity to serve the Guru. Pause.

The world is a deep well of vices (attractions of Maya), and because of the deep darkness of ignorance, the man is captivated by them. Please pull me out of this deep, dark well by holding me by the arm, and implant Your Naam in my heart, oh Waheguru. I, Nanak, have no shelter other than Yours, and am a sacrifice for You, oh Lord. 2.

The human body is deeply gripped by greed and worldly attachments, and it becomes worthless like dust without Waheguru's worship. Chit and Goopt (Waheguru Himself) know your deeds and the frightening agents of death are waiting for you, oh man. Days and nights will also be witnesses to your immoral and sinful deeds. So, take Waheguru's shelter, oh Nanak. 3. I have countless faults (vices), and there is no place other than Waheguru's shelter where they can be forgiven. So, I have come to the shelter of Waheguru, which is the eradicator of all fears, begging Him to salvage the immoral me, with His kindness. After deep thought, I have come to Waheguru's shelter, and beg Him to protect me by extending His hand, oh Nanak. 4.

Waheguru is the treasure (source) of all virtues who raises and nourishes all the living beings. My mind has a deep longing for the holy sight of Waheguru, which fulfills the wishes of His devotees. I cannot live without His sight even for a short moment. But one gets connected with Him only with great fortune, oh Nanak. 5.

Taroon = young bride. Bhert = husband. Praan = life. Lobjiyaiy = to the greedy. Daan = donation. Sunjoag(u) = union. Khoodhiyaaruth = hungry. Bhoag(u) = food. Hayt(u) = love. Nayt = everyday; all the time. 7.

Putun = drops. Ptung = mooth. Hirt = steals. Nisung = without shame. Maiygleh(i) = elephant. Kaamaiy = lust. Bundh(u) = trap. Grust = gripped in. Bikhuyee = lustful. Dhundh(u) = net of vices. Jooaar = gambler. Bishun = habit; addiction. 8.

Koorunk = (musk) deer. Naadaiy = (a special) music. Chaatrik = rainbird. Mahyh(u) = rain. Jun = devotees. Rusna = tongue. 9.

Smooh = collection. Bohith = boat. Paiyj = dignity. Mooraar(i) = Waheguru. 10.

MEANING: I have no one else whom I love as much as I love You; my mind is always thirsty for seeing Your holy Feet, oh Waheguru. My love for You is like the love of the Greek partridge for the moon; or like the love of fishes for water; or like the love of bumblebee for the lotus flower in which it becomes indistinguishable (by getting trapped in it); or like the impatience of the ruddy duck which cannot wait to see the sunrise when it can meet with its partner which gets separated from her at night, oh Nanak. 6.

My love for You is like the love of a young bride for her husband who is her life, oh Waheguru; or my love for You is like the man greedy of money who loves (becomes overjoyed) to have money donated to him; or like the union of milk and water; or like the way an extremely hungry man loves to have food; or like the love of a mother for her son. I wish to recite Your Naam with the same passion, oh Waheguru, says Nanak. 7.

My love for Waheguru is like the love of the moth for the light which it drops on; or like the urge of a thief who steals without any shame; or like the craziness of the elephant which gets trapped because of its lust; or like a lustful person who is gripped by his immoral acts. I am attached to my Waheguru, just as a gambler cannot give up his habit, oh Nanak. 8.

My love for Waheguru is like the love of the musk deer for a special type of music under the attraction of which it gets killed; or like the way the rainbird is believed to love the first drop of rain; or like the way the company of the holy saints becomes the life of a devotee, where he worships Waheguru with love. I wish to recite Waheguru's Naam with my tongue and pray for His holy sight, oh Nanak. 9.

A devotee, who sings Waheguru's praise, listens to it, or writes it to share with others, reaps all the rewards. Not only does he cross the world sea himself, but he also rescues all his associates. Waheguru's Feet (His Naam) becomes the ship (to ferry one across the world sea) for the devotee who sings His praise in the company of the holy saints. I, too, have come to the shelter of the Waheguru with the request that He protect my dignity as well, oh Nanak. 10.2.

Bilawal(u) Mehla 1, Thiti, Ghur(u) 10, Jut(u): Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i):

NOTE: The Brahmans created the misconception that times (days and moments) are auspicious or inauspicious, and misguide the innocent and the ignorant to make money. Every day and every moment were either auspicious or inauspicious according to them, and they had suggested ways (in most cases donations to them) to avoid the effects of such inauspicious days. They labelled every first day of the Hindu month, the day of the new moon, the day of the full moon and some days after the new and the full moon as being auspicious. Guru Sahiban never approved of such division of days into two categories, and preached to the masses that every moment or day when they remembered Waheguru (God) was auspicious, and inauspicious when they ignored Him. There are many holy compositions in Guru Granth Sahib to negate the importance of such categorization. The lunar months are divided into two halves – one starting with the new moon and the days following it until the full moon, but not including that. The other half starts with the full moon and the 14 days following it. The days are numbered and are called thities – the day of the new moon and that of the full moon are called day one, and they go up to 14 after the new and the full moon. In this holy composition on Thities, Guru Nanak Sahib stresses the importance of Waheguru's Naam on each day, negating the effects of any particular day.

Word Meaning: Jut(i) = a special way to play the tabors.

Ekum = the first day (new or full moon). Ekunkaar(u) = Waheguru. Niraala = detached. Ajoani = never takes a life form. Jaala = net of bonds (of attachment). Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Roop(u) = form. Raykhiya = physical features. Perm Pud(u) = the highest spiritual state. 1.

MEANING: Remember the "One and Only" Supreme Being (Waheguru), which is fully detached from the world. He is immortal, takes no life, has no caste, and has no worldly bonds. He is inaccessible, incomprehensible, and has no physical features. When one searches for Him, he finds Him in every heart. I will offer my life to the individual who can show Him to me. One attains the highest spiritual state with the grace of the Guru.

Word Meaning: Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for the other (Maya). Jum Kaal(u) = Angel of death. S(i) = those. Chhootus(i) = is emancipated. Paakhund(i) = hypocrisy. 2.

MEANING: Those who love Maya repent at the end. Tied at the door of the Angel of death, they continue to take births and deaths. With the Angel of Death watching them closely, they receive punishments. What is a man born with, and what can he take with him at the time of death? One cannot get emancipated by the acts of hypocrisy. Emancipation can be achieved only by the Guru's Shabad. 2.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = the eternal Lord. Kur(i) Joarr(i) = put together (with extreme care). Unduj = the egg-shaped universe. Phoarr(i) = by breaking up; by destroying. Joarr(i) = putting together. Vichhoarr(i) = separates; destroys. Bhuou = fear. Bhaaou = love. 3.

MEANING: Waheguru, Himself, put together (created) the universe with extreme care. He breaks up (destroys) the egg-shaped universe, puts it back together, and then separates it (breaks it up) again. He created the earth and the sky as dwellings for Him and for the living beings. He created nights and days, as well as fear and affection among the living beings. Waheguru, who created the universe, also looks after it. There is none other who can create the universe. 3.

Word Meaning: Triteeya = the third day. Vaysa = appearance; different kinds. Joti Jaati = categories of gods and goddesses.

MEANING: It is Waheguru who created Brahma, Vishnu, Shiva and the gods and goddesses of many kinds. There is no limit to the categories of gods and goddesses which are believed to enlighten the world. Only Waheguru, who created them, knows their worth (number). He is present everywhere, so how can I say that He is close to some and far away from others? 4.

Word Meaning: Chauth(i) = the fourth day. Khaani = the sources of reproduction. Baani Bhayda = different ways to communicate. Usht Dusa = eight and ten (the eighteen Puranas). Khut = (the) six (Shastras). Teen(i) = (the) three (effects of Maya). 5.

MEANING: Waheguru also prompted some people to write the Vedas and created the four sources of reproduction and the languages (means of communication) of many different kinds. Similarly, (at His prompt, some sages) created the eighteen Puranas, and the three effects of Maya. But only that individual comes to understand such secrets who He gives the understanding. I will be a slave of the holy person who rises above the three effects of Maya to attain the fourth state above them, oh Nanak. 5.

ਪੰਚਮੀ ਪੰਚ ਭੂਤ ਬੇਤਾਲਾ॥ ਆਪਿ ਅਗੋਚਰੁ ਪੁਰਖੁ ਨਿਰਾਲਾ॥ ਇਕਿ ਭ੍ਰਮਿ ਭੂਖੇ ਮੋਹ ਪਿਆਸੇ॥ ਇਕਿ ਰਸੁ ਚਾਖਿ ਸਬਦਿ ਤ੍ਰਿਪਤਾਸੇ॥ ਇਕਿ ਰੰਗਿ ਰਾਤੇ ਇਕਿ ਮਰਿ ਧੂਰਿ॥ ਇਕਿ ਦਰਿ ਘਰਿ ਸਾਚੈ ਦੇਖਿ ਹਦੂਰਿ॥ 6॥

Punchmi, punch bhoot bataala. Aap(i) agoachur(u) Purakh(u) niraala. Ikk(i) bherm(i) bhookahiay, moh piyaasay. Ikk(i) rus(u) chaakh(i), Shabad(i) triptaasay. Ikk(i) rung(i) raatay, ikk mur(i) dhoor(i). Ikk(i) Dur(i), Ghur(i) Saachaiy daykh(i) hudoor(i). 6.

Word Meaning: Punchmi = the fifth day. Punch Bhoot = the five demons. Baytaala = out of step; chaotic. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Purakh(u) = the omnipresent Lord. Ikk(i) = many. Bherm(i) = under misgivings. Moh = attachment. Triptaasay = contented. Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in love. Dhoor(i) = dust. Hudoor(i) = close by. 6.

MEANING: The five demons cause the man to be out of step with spiritual life. But they cannot affect the incomprehensible Waheguru, which is impenetrable by them. Because of their misgivings about the effects of Maya, many people are hungry and thirsty (discontented) because of their love for worldly attractions, while many others feel fully contented to taste the sweetness of the Guru's Shabad. Some are imbued in Waheguru's love, while many others die and become part of dust (without love for Him). Many "see" Waheguru close to them, and reach His Residence. 6.

ਝੂਠੇ ਕਉ ਨਾਹੀ ਪਤਿ ਨਾਉ॥ ਕਬਹੂ ਨ ਸੂਚਾ ਕਾਲਾ ਕਾਉ॥ ਪਿੰਜਰਿ ਪੰਖੀ ਬੰਧਿਆ ਕੋਇ॥ ਛੇਰੀ ਭਰਮੈ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਨ ਹੋਇ॥ ਤਉ ਛੂਟੈ ਜਾ ਖਸਮ ਛਡਾਏ॥ ਗੁਰਮਤਿ ਮੇਲੇ ਭਗਤਿ ਦ੍ਰਿੜਾਏ॥ 7॥

Word Meaning: Jhoottha = liar; dishonest; impure. Soocha = pure; honest. Kaala Kaaoun = (an immoral person who loves filth like a) black crow. Pinjur(i) = caged. Chhayreen = through the holes. Bhemaiy = going around; flying around. Mookut(i) = free. Drirraayay = reinforces. 7.

MEANING: The dishonest are never pure at heart like a black crow (which always falls for filth), and cannot enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their heart and earn respect. They are caught in a net of worldly bonds and cannot attain freedom like a caged bird that cannot fly out through the holes in the cage (it can be freed only by its master). Like the bird, the money-loving person gets freedom (from the bonds of Maya) only when the Lord sets him free. (With His benevolence) Waheguru connects some money-loving persons with the Guru who advises them and reinforces the Lord's worship in them. 7.

Word Meaning: Khushtee = the sixth day. Khut(u) Dershun = the six philosophies of the yogis, sanyasis, Budhism, Jainism, Baiyraagis, and the Jungums. Saajay = created; written. Unhud Shabad = Guru's Divine Shabad in Waheguru's praise. Niraala = separate; detached. Bhayday = get pierced. Put(i) = husband; Lord. Vays = religious garb. Khupeh(i) = irritated with self. Jul(i) Jaaveh(i) = burns; suffers. Saachaiy = in the eternal (Lord). Saachay = God-like. Saach(i) = by reciting Waheguru's Naam. 8.

MEANING: (Prompted by Waheguru), some sages created the philosophies of the six different main faiths of Hindus, but Guru's Divine Shabad (which connects the man with Waheguru) is different from them. The followers of the six faiths get irritated with themselves in different religious garbs and suffer because of their unsuccessful efforts (to connect with God). However, when a devotee's mind gets pierced with Guru's Shabad, He is liked by Waheguru, and He calls the devotee to His Residence (connects with Him) by His own Will, and accords respect to him. One merges into Waheguru when He recites His Naam to acquire noble qualities like Him. 8.

ਸਪਤਮੀ ਸਤੁ ਸੰਤੋਖੁ ਸਰੀਰਿ॥ ਸਾਤ ਸਮੁੰਦ ਭਰੇ ਨਿਰਮਲ ਨੀਰਿ॥ ਮਜਨੁ ਸੀਲੁ ਸਚੁ ਰਿਦੈ ਵੀਚਾਰਿ॥ ਗੁਰ ਕੈ ਸਬਦਿ ਪਾਵੈ ਸਭਿ ਪਾਰਿ॥ ਮਨਿ ਸਾਚਾ ਮੁਖਿ ਸਾਚਉ ਭਾਇ॥ ਸਚੁ ਨੀਸਾਣੈ ਠਾਕ ਨ ਪਾਇ॥9॥

Suptumi, sat(u), suntokh(u) sreer(i). Saat smoond bhuray, nirmul neer(i). Mujun(u) seel(u), Sach(u) ridaiy veechaar(i). Gur kaiy Shabad(i) paavaiy subh(i) paar(i). Mun(i) Saacha, mookh(i) Saachau bhaayay. Sach(u) neeshaanaiy, tthaak na paayay. 9.

Word Meaning: Suptumi = the seventh day. Sat(u) = service to mankind. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Saat Smoond = seven seas (five senses, mind, and wisdom). Nirmul Neer(i) = Naam-water. Mujun = dip; purify mind. Seel(u) = calmness; great patience. Bhaayay = with love. Neeshaanaiy = identification. Tthaak = impediment. 9.

Meaning: When a devotee acquires the virtues of serving humanity and of contentment by reciting Guru's Shabad, his five senses, his mind, and his wisdom get filled with the holy water of Waheguru's Naam; his mind is purified, and he attains peace of mind by pondering on Guru's Shabad. He swims across the world sea along with all his associates. He has Waheguru at heart, and His Naam on his tongue with love. With the identification of Waheguru's Naam, he faces no impediment to his union with God. 9.

ਅਸਟਮੀ ਅਸਟ ਸਿਧਿ ਬੁਧਿ ਸਾਧੈ॥ ਸਚੁ ਨਿਹਕੇਵਲੁ ਕਰਮਿ ਅਰਾਧੈ॥ ਪਉਣ ਪਾਣੀ ਅਗਨੀ ਬਿਸਰਾਉ॥ ਤਹੀ ਨਿਰੰਜਨੁ ਸਾਚੋ ਨਾਉ॥ ਤਿਸੁ ਮਹਿ ਮਨੂਆ ਰਹਿਆ ਲਿਵ ਲਾਇ॥ ਪ੍ਰਣਵਤਿ ਨਾਨਕੁ ਕਾਲੁ ਨ ਖਾਇ॥ 10॥

Ushtumi, usht sidh(i) boodh(i) saadhaiy. Sach(u) nihkayvul(u), kerm(i) araadhaiy. Paun, paani, ugnee bisraaou. Tuhhi Nirunjun(u) Saacho Naaoun. Tis(u) meh(i) munooaa ruhhiya liv laayay. Prunvut(i) Nanak(u), kaal(u) na khaayay. 10.

Word Meaning: Ushtumi = the eighth day. Usht Sidh(i) = the 8 supernatural powers. Boodh(i) = thinking. Saadhaiy = rectifies. Nihkayvul(u) = detached from worldly attractions. Kerm(i) = with the benevolence. Paun, Paani, Ugnee = these three elements represent the three effects of Maya. Bisraaou = unaffected. Naaoun = existence. 10.

Meaning: If a devotee controls his desires to acquire the eight supernatural powers that the yogis seek, and sings praise of the fully detached Waheguru with His benevolence, he attains the spiritual state above the three effects of Maya, where Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, and which has eternal existence, resides. The fear of death cannot come near the devotee whose mind stays focused on such Waheguru (who stays connected with Him), oh Nanak. 10.

ਨਾਉ ਨਉਮੀ ਨਵੇ ਨਾਥ ਨਵ ਖੰਡਾ॥ ਘਟਿ ਘਟਿ ਨਾਥੁ ਮਹਾ ਬਲਵੰਡਾ॥ (ਅੰਗ 940)॥ ਆਈ ਪੂਤਾ ਇਹੁ ਜਗੁ ਸਾਰਾ॥ ਪ੍ਰਭ ਆਦੇਸੁ ਆਦਿ ਰਖਵਾਰਾ॥ ਆਦਿ ਜੁਗਾਦੀ ਹੈ ਭੀ ਹੋਗੁ॥ ਓਹੁ ਅਪਰੰਪਰੁ ਕਰਣੈ ਜੋਗੁ॥ 11॥

Naaoun naumi, nuvay nath, nuv khunda. Ghut(i), ghut(i) Nath(u) muhaa Bulvunda.

(PAGE 940): Aayee poota eh(u) jug(u) saara. Prubh aadays(u), aad(i) Rukhvaara. Aad(i), joogadi haiy bhee hoag(u). Oh(u) uprumpur(u), kernaiy-joag(u). 11.

Word Meaning: Naumi = the ninth day. Nath = master. Nuvay Nath = the 9 leading Naths (lords) of the Sidh yogis. Nuv Khunda = the 9 regions of the earth. Nath(u) = the True Lord (Waheguru). Muhaa Bulvunda = the great and powerful. Aayee = Maya. Poota = son; worshipper. Aadays(u) = bowing to. Aad(i) = from the beginning. Rukhvaara = protector; guard. Uprumpur(u) = further and further. Kernaiy Joag(u) = fully capable. 11.

MEANING: Waheguru is the most powerful Lord who is present in every heart, and whose Naam is recited by all the nine top leaders of the yogis and all over the nine regions of the earth. This world is a worshipper of Maya, but one needs to bow to (worship) Waheguru, which is our protector (benefactor) from the very beginning. He has been here ever since the beginning of the world, and the beginning of the eons; is here now; and will be here in the future. The endless Lord is fully capable of doing everything. 11.

ਦਸਮੀ ਨਾਮੁ ਦਾਨੁ ਇਸਨਾਨੁ॥ ਅਨਦਿਨੁ ਮਜਨੁ ਸਚਾ ਗੁਣ ਗਿਆਨੁ॥ ਸਚਿ ਮੈਲੁ ਨ ਲਾਗੈ ਕ੍ਰਮੁ ਭਉ ਭਾਗੈ॥ ਬਿਲਮੁ ਨ ਤੂਟਸਿ ਕਾਚੈ ਤਾਗੈ॥ ਜਿਉ ਤਾਗਾ ਜਗੁ ਏਵੈ ਜਾਣਹੁ॥ ਅਸਥਿਰੁ ਚੀਤੁ ਸਾਚਿ ਰੰਗੁ ਮਾਣਹੁ॥ 12॥

Dusmi, Naam(u), daan(u), ishnaan(u). Undin(u) mujun(u), Sacha Goon Giyaan(u). Sach(i) maiyl(u) na laagaiy, bherm(u), bhuou bhaagaiy. Bilm(u) na tootus(i) kaachaiy taagaiy. Jiyoun taaga, jug aivaiy jaanhou. Usthir cheet(u), Saach(i) rung(u) maanhou. 12.

Word Meaning: Dusmi = the tenth day. Daan(u) = service to others. Ishnaan(u) = dip in the Naam-water. Goon Giyan = knowledge of Waheguru's virtues. Bilum(u) = delay. Kaachaiy Taagaiy = the unspun thread. Usthir = stable (which does not wander). 12.

MEANING: Recitation of Waheguru's Naam is the true donation and the holy dip that the Hindus do on this day. Singing praise of the virtues of Waheguru is the real holy dip that the devotee takes all the time. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, one gathers no filth of immorality on his mind, and all his worldly fears and misgivings run away. Life in the world is short like an unspun thread, which does not take long to break. So, enjoy the love for God by reciting His Naam with a stable (focused) mind. 12.

ਏਕਾਦਸੀ ਇਕੁ ਰਿਦੈ ਵਸਾਵੈ॥ ਹਿੰਸਾ ਮਮਤਾ ਮੋਹੁ ਚੁਕਾਵੈ॥ ਫਲੁ ਪਾਵੈ ਬ੍ਰਤੁ ਆਤਮ ਚੀਨੈ॥ ਪਾਖੰਡਿ ਰਾਚਿ ਤਤੁ ਨਹੀ ਬੀਨੈ॥ ਨਿਰਮਲੁ ਨਿਰਾਹਾਰੁ ਨਿਹਕੇਵਲੁ॥ ਸੂਚੈ ਸਾਚੇ ਨਾ ਲਾਗੈ ਮਲੁ॥ 13॥

Ekaadshi, Ikk(u) ridaiy vusaavaiy. Hinsa, mumta, moh(u) chookaavaiy. Ful paavaiy bert(u), aatum cheenaiy. Paakhund(i) raach(i) Tut(u) nuhee beenaiy. Nirmul(u), nirahaar(u),nihkayvul(u). Soochaiy, Saachaiy na laagaiy mul(u). 13.

Word Meaning: Ekaadshi = the eleventh day (considered holy). Ikk(u) = the One Lord. Hinsa = violence; rage. Mumta = attachments. Bert(u) = commitments. Aatum Cheenaiy = self realization. Raach(i) = getting absorbed (lost). Tut(u) = reality. Beenaiy = recognize. Nirmul(u) = pure. Nirahaar(u) = without food. Nihkayvul = detached. 13.

NOTE: Hindus consider the eleventh day very pious and observe many rituals, such as fasting and donating to Brahmins.

MEANING: The man should embed Waheguru's Naam in his heart and get rid of his rage, parental love, and worldly attachments, and analyze himself. These should be his commitments for which he reaps the reward of contentment and blissfulness. Other rituals like fasting, taking dips at holy places, or donating to Brahmans are simply acts of show-off, and the individual does not recognize the reality. Those who purify their minds by reciting Waheguru's Naam remain detached from the worldly attractions and are better than those who do not eat on this day. They are pure, honest, and collect no filth. 13.

ਜਹ ਦੇਖਉ ਤਹ ਏਕੋ ਏਕਾ॥ ਹੋਰਿ ਜੀਅ ਉਪਾਏ ਵੇਕੋ ਵੇਕਾ॥ ਫਲੋਹਾਰ ਕੀਏ ਫਲੁ ਜਾਇ॥ ਰਸ ਕਸ ਖਾਏ ਸਾਦੁ ਗਵਾਇ॥ ਕੂੜੈ ਲਾਲਚਿ ਲਪਟੈ ਲਪਟਾਇ॥ ਛੂਟੈ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਾਚੁ ਕਮਾਇ॥ 14॥

Jeh daykhoun, teh Aiko, Aika. Hoar(i) jea oopaayay vayko, vayka. Fulohaar keeyay ful(u) jaayay. Rus(u) kus khaayay, saad(u) guvaayay. Koorraiy laaluch(i) luptaiy, luptaayay. Chhootaiy Gurmukh(i) Saach(u) kmaayay. 14.

Word Meaning: Jeh = where. Teh = there. Aiko Aika = only Waheguru. Vayko Vayka = of different kinds. Fulohaar = meal of fruits only. Ful(u) = reward. Rus Kus = many tasty foods. Luptaiy Luptaayay = keeps attached to. Chhootaiy = breaks bonds. 14.

MEANING: I see only the "One" Lord wherever I look, but He has created humans of many different kinds and beliefs, some of whom are misled by their misgivings. By eating only fruits, they lose the expected reward of fasting and the taste of eating many different kinds of food. They are greedy for the expected false rewards and remain absorbed in rituals because of their greed. But a Sikh of the Guru finds salvation by leading his life with honesty while reciting Waheguru's Naam. 14.

ਦੁਆਦਸਿ ਮੁਦ੍ਰਾ ਮਨੁ ਅਉਧੂਤਾ॥ ਅਹਿਨਿਸਿ ਜਾਗਹਿ ਕਬਹਿ ਨ ਸੂਤਾ॥ ਜਾਗਤੁ ਜਾਗਿ ਰਹੈ ਲਿਵ ਲਾਇ॥ ਗੁਰ ਪਰਚੈ ਤਿਸੁ ਕਾਲੁ ਨ ਖਾਇ॥ ਅਤੀਤ ਭਏ ਮਾਰੇ ਬੈਰਾਈ॥ ਪ੍ਰਣਵਤਿ ਨਾਨਕ ਤਹ ਲਿਵ ਲਾਈ॥ 15॥

Dooaadus(i) moodra, mun(u) aoudhoota. Ehinis(i) jaageh(i), kubheh(i) na soota. Jaagut(u) jaag(u) ruhhaiy liv laayay. Gur perchaiy, tis(u) kaal(u) na khaayay. Ateet bhuyyay, maaray baiyraayee. Prunvut(i) Nanak, teh liv laayee. 15.

Word Meaning: Dooaadus(i) = the twelfth day; the twelve religious symbols of different faiths. Moodra = religious sign. Aoudhoota = renouncer. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Jaageh(i) = stays awake (alert). Liv Laayay = meditate. Perchaiy = attachment with (Guru's advice). Kaal(u) = (spiritual) death. Ateet = detached. Bairaayee = enemies (the five demons). Prunvut(i) = says respectfully. Teh = that. 15.

MEANING: A devotee, who is a renouncer of worldly attractions by heart, needs none of the 12 religious symbols. He stays awake (alert) against Maya's attacks by focusing his mind on Waheguru, and never sleeps (becomes negligent). A devotee who follows the Guru's advice never dies spiritually. He stays detached from worldly attractions, and destroys (controls) his enemies – the five demons. He is the one who is really connected with Waheguru. 15.

ਦੁਆਦਸੀ ਦਇਆ ਦਾਨੁ ਕਰਿ ਜਾਣੈ॥ ਬਾਹਰਿ ਜਾਤੋ ਭੀਤਰਿ ਆਣੈ॥ ਬਰਤੀ ਬਰਤ ਰਹੈ ਨਿਹਕਾਮ॥ ਅਜਪਾ ਜਾਪੁ ਜਪੈ ਮੁਖਿ ਨਾਮ॥ ਤੀਨਿ ਭਵਣ ਮਹਿ ਏਕੋ ਜਾਣੈ॥ ਸਭਿ ਸੁਚਿ ਸੰਜਮ ਸਾਚੁ ਪਛਾਣੈ॥ 16॥

Dooadusi, duyya daan(u) kur(i) jaanaiy. Baahur(i) jaato, bheetur(i) aanaiy. Berti, bert ruhhaiy nihkaam. Ajupa, jaap(u) jupaiy mookh(i) Naam. Teen(i) bhuvun meh(i) Aiko jaanaiy. Subh(i) sooch(i) sunjum, Saach(u) puchhaanaiy. 16.

Word Meaning: Baahur(i) Jaato = wandering around (mind). Bheetur(i) Aanaiy = brings inside (controls it). Berti = the one who undertakes fasting. Nihkaam = control on sensual desires. Ajupa Jaap(u) = remembering without reciting. Sooch(i) = purity. Sunjum = control on senses. Saach(u) Puchhaanaiy = makes connection with God. 16.

MEANING: A devotee, who is compassionate and is able to control his wandering mind, is the one who knows what true donations are. The fast of such a devotee is to stay desireless, and to recite Waheguru's Naam with his tongue without any special effort (so that it becomes automatic). He recognizes only the "One" Waheguru in all three layers of the universe. All acts of keeping everything clean and practising control on senses are subsumed in making a connection with Waheguru. 16.

Word Meaning: Tayrus(i) = the thirteenth day. Turvur = tree. Amrit = the Naam. Mool(u) = the origin. Sikhur(i) = at the top (Waheguru's Residence). Liv = focus of mind. Dur = Waheguru's fear. Boodaiy = drown in the world sea. Nidur(u) = fearless (of Waheguru). Ghur(u) = mind. Tukhut(i) Nivaas(u) = on the throne of mind. 17.

MEANING: (People perform rituals of many different kinds to please some deity), but Waheguru is pleased when a devotee truly believes that human life is as short as that of a tree which is on the shore of a sea (river) where waves can uproot it at any time. Such a devotee considers Waheguru's Naam to be the root (basis) of his spiritual life and takes his mind to the top (transcendental Waheguru) by concentrating on His Naam. If a devotee dies with Waheguru's fear in mind, he does not drown in the world sea (he merges into Him), but if a person dies with no fear for Waheguru in mind, he drowns in the world sea and loses his dignity (takes countless rebirths). When a devotee lives in Waheguru's fear, has his fear at mind, and loves Waheguru, he is put on the high spiritual throne to live forever. 17.

Word Meaning: Chaudus(i) = the fourteenth day. Chauthay Thaanveh(i) = the spiritual state above the three effects of Maya. Leh(i) Paavaiy = attains. Raajus, Taamus, Sut = the three effects of Maya. Kaal Smaavaiy = die down; become ineffective. Sussiur = moon (coolness or peace of mind). Soor(u) = sun (the brightness of Divine Knowledge). Joag Joogut(i) = means to get connected (with God). Keemut(i) Paavaiy = understand the worth. 18. Chaudus(i) Bhuvun = fourteen layers of the universe.

MEANING: While reciting Waheguru's Naam, a devotee overcomes the three effects of Maya and attains the fourth level of spiritual state, the three effects of Maya die down, and Divine Knowledge brightens his peaceful mind. He realizes the value of the path to union with Waheguru and stays connected to Waheguru, which is present in all the fourteen worlds (a Muslim belief), in galaxies, and everywhere else. 18.

Word Meaning: Ammvussiya = the day of the new moon. Gooput(i) = hidden; invisible. Gaiynnar(i) = in the sky. Sussiur(u) = moon. 19.

MEANING: Just like the moon, which becomes invisible in the sky on the night of the new moon, Waheguru is invisible in the world, but the Light of the Waheguru-Moon brightens the whole universe. However, only a spiritually enlightened person discovers this fact by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. He also realizes that it is Waheguru that creates the world and looks after it. The individual who receives this divine knowledge from the Guru remains absorbed in Waheguru, but a follower of his mind is misled and keeps taking births and dying. 19.

Word Meaning: Ghur(u) Dur(u) = Waheguru's Door. Thaap(i) = establishes; makes. Thir(u) Thaan(i) = the eternal place. Sohhavaiy = comforting. Aasa = hopes; wishes. Binus(i) = eradication. Binaasa = without hopes. Phootaiy = shatters. Khuppur(u) = vessel. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Munsa = thoughts of mind. Oodaasa = shows no interest. Daasa = slave. 20.1.

MEANING: When a devotee comes to the Guru's shelter, he recognizes self (what his real objective in life is, and what qualities he has), and burns down all his wishes and desires, and makes Waheguru's shelter his permanent dwelling (stays connected with Him), which he finds to be highly blissful. The vessel of his mind, which was home to indecisiveness and worldly wishes, shatters completely, and he becomes fully detached from the net of worldly attractions. I submit humbly that I am a slave of such a holy man, oh Nanak. 20.1.

Word Meaning: Vaar sut = the seven days of the week. Adit Vaar(i) = Sunday. Aad(i) Purakh = Waheguru, who is the beginning of everything. Vertaiy = operates. Oat Poat = like warp and weft. Puroyee = stitched. Virla = rare. 1.

MEANING: Some rare individual in the shelter of the Guru realizes that (regardless of what day of the week it is) Waheguru is the origin of everything, and He alone operates in the world. He is as closely stitched to (mingled with) the world as the cross-threads (warp and weft) of the fabric. He is the creator of the universe, and only that which He wishes to do happens. Word Meaning: Juppni = rosary. Goon-Taasa = the treasure of virtues (God). Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Pug(i) Lug(i) = at the Feet. Pause.

MEANING: (People hold some form of rosaries in their hands to worship their deities), but singing praise of the treasure of virtues, Waheguru, is my rosary, which I hold in my heart. Waheguru is inaccessible, incomprehensible and limitless, so I recite His Naam by dropping on the feet of (serving) His devotees as their slave. Pause.

Word Meaning: Soamvaar(i) = Monday. Sach(i) = in the eternal (Waheguru). Pullaiy = in the bag (in mind). Lukhiya = seen; comprehend. Smaayay = present. 2.

MEANING: Nobody can describe the transcendental state of the devotee who stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. Many people claim to recite Waheguru's Naam and meditate on it, but only that individual, whom Waheguru bestows, gets to enshrine it in his heart. Waheguru is inaccessible and incomprehensible, and cannot be seen. It is only with the Guru's Shabad that one realizes that Waheguru is present everywhere. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru, Himself, has created attachment to Maya among living beings, and has Himself made people perform tasks centred on Maya. Only that individual receives enlightenment about His residence and His door (how to connect with Him), whom He gives understanding through the Guru's Shabad. Such an individual burns his selfishness, ego, and worldly attachments (gets rid of them) by the Guru's Shabad, and worships Waheguru with full focus of mind. 3.

selfishness and ego by singing His praise. They always get respect in Waheguru's Court, and imbued in His Naam, they look magnificent (exalted). 4.

Word Meaning: Laaha = benefit; wealth. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Jaikaar(u) = sing praise.

We should sacrifice our lives for the Lord who implants His Naam in our hearts when we get rid of our selfishness and ego by the grace of the Guru. We should sing praise of Waheguru and secure His Naam in our hearts, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Veervaar(i) = Thursday. Veer = valiant; the fifty-two Veers (braves) including Hanuman and Nandi etc. as listed by Bhai Kahan Singh Ji Nabha. Prayt = Bhoot = ghosts. Doojaiy = in Maya. Vayka = different. Tayka = support; dependence. 6.

MEANING: Even the fifty-two valiant, including Hanuman, are misled by Maya because of their misgivings. All those who are misled by Maya are like ghosts or phantoms. God creates the living beings with many different characteristics, and looks after them. All those depend upon Waheguru for survival, and are in His shelter. But only those are connected with Him who are connected by His benevolence. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru is present everywhere. He creates the universe and knows its worth (needs). A Sikh of the Guru realizes that the most important thing is to exercise control over his senses and stay connected to Waheguru. These are his daily commitments, principles, and his worship of Waheguru. Without realizing this, everything else (performance of any rituals) is simply love for Maya. 7.

Word Meaning: Chhunichhur Vaar(i) = Saturday. Saun Shast = the book which describes auspicious and inauspicious moments. Mayra = mine. 8.

MEANING: Those who just ponder on the book of auspicious and inauspicious days (book of horoscope), are simply lost in selfishness, ego and discrimination. The follower of his mind is blind to spirituality and is lost in the love for Maya. Tied at the door of the Angel of Death, he is given severe punishment. On the contrary, a devotee in the shelter of the Guru is always blissful because he leads a life of truthfulness and stays connected with God. 8.

ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਸੇਵਹਿ ਸੇ ਵਡਭਾਗੀ॥ ਹਉਮੈ ਮਾਰਿ ਸਚਿ ਲਿਵ ਲਾਗੀ॥ ਤੇਰੈ ਰੰਗਿ ਰਾਤੇ ਸਹਜਿ ਸੁਭਾਇ॥ (ਅੰਗ 842)॥ ਤੂ ਸੁਖਦਾਤਾ ਲੈਹਿ ਮਿਲਾਇ॥ ਏਕਸ ਤੇ ਦੂਜਾ ਨਾਹੀ ਕੋਇ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਬੂਝੈ ਸੋਝੀ ਹੋਇ॥ 9॥

Satgur sayveh(i) say vudbhaagi. Haumein maar(i), Sach(i) liv laagi. Tayraiy rung(i) raatay sehj soobhaayay.

(PAGE 842): Tu Sookh Daata laiyeh(i) milaayay. Aikus tay dooja naahi koyay. Gurmukh(i) boojhaiy, soajhi hoyay. 9.

Word Meaning: Rung Raatay = imbued in love. Sehj Soobhaaayay = in a natural way; without any special deefort. Sookh-Daata = source of comforts (Waheguru).

MEANING: Those who serve Satguru are highly fortunate. They kill their selfishness and ego, and stay focused on Waheguru's Naam. They are imbued in Your love, and You connect them with You with Your benevolence, oh, the source of bliss, Waheguru. There is none other than Waheguru (which is the Lord of the universe), but only a Sikh of the Guru realizes this truth. 9.

Word Meaning: Pundreh = fifteen. Thitis = the changing phases of the moon. Vaar Vaar = again and again. Aava Gaaun(u) = birth and death. Kartar(i) = God. Nihchul(u) = never changing; immortal. Kul Dhaar(i) = supporting with power. 10.

MEANING: The fifteen thities (the changing phases of the moon), the seven days of the week, months, and the seasons come (and go) in cycles. The world is like the days and the nights (which come and go). Waheguru has created the world in such a way that the living beings continue to take births and to die. Only Waheguru is immortal, who keeps the world in order by His power. But some rare individual understands this by pondering on Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 10.1.

MEANING: Waheguru, Himself, creates the universe and gets the living beings to be attracted to Maya. So, because of their love for Maya, the living beings become engrossed in worldly affairs. As a result, the unfortunate keep taking births and dying. But they get the spiritual enlightenment in the shelter of Satguru, whereby they win over the attraction of Maya, and get absorbed in Waheguru. 1.

Word Meaning: Mustuk (i) = on the forehead (in fortune). Laykh(u) = decision. Pause.

MEANING: Those who have good fortune written on their forehead, embed the Lord's Naam in their hearts. Pause.

Word Meaning: Oopaayay = having created. Laykhaiy = written judgment. 2.

MEANING: After creating the world, Waheguru looks after it, and nobody can erase His judgment written for them (His Huqam). Those who call themselves Sidh yogis, or practise yogism, are misled in their misgivings and keep taking births and dying. But those who serve Satguru realize the true objective of human life and get enlightened about Waheguru's Door (union with Him) by killing their selfishness and ego. 2.

Word Meaning: Dooja = Maya. Beeya = other. Neeshaanaiy = identification. Tthaak(i) Ruhaayay = keeps at bay; prevents attacks. 3.

MEANING: Waheguru created Maya Himself; He is the sole operator (Lord) of the universe, and there is none other like Him. While living in the world of Maya, if one recognizes Waheguru (makes a connection with Him), he receives the mark of identification (approval) for Waheguru's Door. If one gets connected with Satguru, he realizes the "One" God, and prevents Maya from attacking (captivating) him. 3.

Word Meaning: Daadha = powerful. Bukhshay = forgives; grants. 4.

MEANING: Nobody can kill (cause any harm) to the individual who has a powerful master. If, a servant (a devotee) lives in the shelter (obeys orders strictly) of his Master (Waheguru), the Master (Waheguru) accords him honour. There is no power above Waheguru, so who will the devotee be afraid of, or whose fear will he have? 4.

Word Meaning: Shaant(i) = peace. Cheen(i) = recognize; make connection. Peer = pain; suffering. Sehj(i) = in blissful state. Hudoor(i) = near. 5.

MEANING: One's body and mind become peaceful (blissful) with the Guru's advice. He no longer suffers from any mental agony when he ponders on Guru's Shabad. He does not undergo rebirths again because, imbued with Waheguru's Naam, he remains absorbed in the high spiritual state (merges into Waheguru). In Guru's shelter, he "sees" Waheguru close to him because my Lord is omnipresent, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Ikk(i) =some. Bherm(i) Bhoolaayay = misled in misgivings. Roas(u) = resentment. Keni = performance; deeds. Saari = supreme. Veechaari = thoughtful. 6.

MEANING: While some serve Waheguru (obey His Huqam), many are misled by their misgivings. But we cannot blame them, because it is Waheguru who does everything and makes others do what He wishes. He is the only Lord in the universe, and there is none other. You can resent (things that go against your wishes) only if there is someone else to complain to (but there is none), oh my mind. So, only serving Satguru is the supreme performance of an individual. Those who ponder on the virtues of the Lord reach the Court of Waheguru. 6.

Word Meaning: Soohaayay = attractive; comforting. Nihchul(u) = everlasting. Raatay = imbued in. Kaachay = unprepared; lacking noble qualities. 7.

MEANING: Changing phases of the moon and the days of the week are all pleasant to those who recite the Guru's Shabad. A devotee who serves Satguru reaps the rewards of pleasantness on all days. Phases of the moon and the days of the week keep changing and repeat periodically, but Guru's Shabad is eternal (true in every eon) and leads to the union of the devotee with Waheguru. All such days are pleasant for those who are imbued with Waheguru's love. Without Waheguru's Naam, individuals are unprepared (for union with the Lord) and keep taking rebirths. 7.

Word Meaning: Bigutti = without spirituality. Lobhaayay = attracted to. Achayt = unaware. Pindi = bodily; mentally. Paayay Paar = swim across the world sea. 8.

MEANING: The followers of their mind are attracted to Maya, and do not remember Waheguru, and leave the world without any spirituality after death. They are unaware (ignorant) of spirituality and are in complete darkness. How can they swim across the sea of Maya without Guru's Shabad? Waheguru Himself has created such individuals, and has made pondering on the Guru's Shabad a requirement for salvation. 8.

Word Meaning: Bhaykh = religious garb. Bhaykhdhaari = an actor; imposter. Kaachi = unqualified. Saari = (like a) pawn at the game of dice. Khoyay = loses opportunity. Chookaayay = get rid of. 9.

MEANING: A person who changes his religious symbols too often is an imposter, and like a pawn at the game of dice, which continues to go in circles, never making it to the goal, continues to go through birth and death cycles. He never attains comfort in this world or the next. The follower of his mind wastes away his human life and dies. But he can acquire the eternal Lord in his heart if he gets rid of his misgivings by serving Satguru. 9.

Word Meaning: Poora = perfect (God). Doyay = basis of discrimination. Goobaar = darkness. Moogudh = foolish. Guvaar = ignorant. 10.

MEANING: Belief in the changing phases of the moon and the days of the week as being auspicious or inauspicious is the result of the attractions of Maya, which lead to discrimination. Only the foolish and the ignorant serve (believe in) these special days. It is complete darkness of ignorance without Satguru. A devotee understands these facts in the shelter of the Guru, gets enlightenment, and stays absorbed in the Naam, oh Nanak. 10.2.
