Word Meaning: Moondh = young woman (devotee). Nuvaylurriya = detached from the world. Goyil(i) = a temporary stay. Mutukee = the vessel of Maya-related affairs. Daar(i) Dhuree = broke and throw away. Liv = focus of mind. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state of mind. Shaagaariya = beautified. Ker Joarr(i) = with folded hands. Bhaayay = with the spirit of. Nivaariya = got rid of. 1.

Jobun(i) = in youth. Baali = child-like; innocent. Naah = Lord. Daasi = slave; devotee. Agaadh(i) Bodh(i) = unfathomable beyond comprehension. Akuth(u) = the indescribable (Waheguru). Kuthiyaiy = discuss; sing praise. Rusaal = source of all enjoyments = Rusiya. Ruvaiy = enjoys union. Veechaariya = thoughtful.

MEANING: If a young devotee who is detached from the attractions of Maya (has not gathered filth of any vices yet) realizes that her visit in the world is temporary, meditates on Waheguru's Naam, gets rid of her worldly attractions, and beautifies her mind with Guru's Shabad, attains the spiritual state of blissfulness (above the effects of Maya). She keeps praying to the Guru with folded hands that He connect her to Him so that she may be connected to Waheguru through His benevolence. With her love for Waheguru and with the spirit of worship, she gets to "see" her Dear (Waheguru), and gets rid of her lust and rage. Such a young devotee, detached from worldly affairs, has a beautiful mind that becomes even stronger (purer) when she sees her Dear, oh Nanak. 1. (You are lucky and innocent like a child if you are detached from the attractions of Maya, oh, the young devotee. Make sure that you stay in the shelter of the Lord like a slave, and do not seek any other source of support, and pray to Him that You should keep enjoying worshipping Him. We should discuss the virtues of the unfathomable (beyond our wisdom to comprehend) Waheguru, and sing His praise in the peaceful state (with focussed mind). Waheguru, which is the source of all enjoyments, enjoys the union of those whom He loves. Those who the Guru gives the gift of His Shabad, which is full of praise of Waheguru, become highly thoughtful, oh Nanak. 2.

---------- Sridhur mohiurri, Pir sung(i) sooti Ram. Gur kaiy bhaayay chulo, Saach(i) sungooti Ram. Dhun Saach(i) sungooti, Hur(i) sung sooti, sung(i) sukhee suhayliyaan. Ikk bhaayay, Ikk mun(i) Naam(u) vussiya, Satguru hum mayliya. Din(u) raiyn(i) na chusa vissraiy, saas(i), saas(i) Nirunjuno. Shabad Jot(i) jugaayay deepuk(u), Nanaka bhuou bhunjuno. 3. Jot(i) subaayayrriyay tirbhuvun saaray Ram. Ghut(i), ghut(i) ruv(i) ruhhiya, Alukh Apaaray Ram. Alukh apaar, Apaar(u) Saacha, aap(i) maar(i) milaayiyaiy. Haumein, mumta, loabh(u) jaalhou, Shabad(i) maiyl(u) chookaayiyaiy. Dur(i) jaayay dershun(u) kureen Bhaanaiy, taar(i) Taarunhaariya. Hur(i) Naam(u) Amrit(u) chaakh(i) triputee, Nanaka, oordhaariya. 4.

Word Meaning: Sridhur = creator of Maya (Waheguru). Mohiurri = captivated by. Sungooti = Sung(i) Sooti = connected with. Bhaayay = as per the Wish. Sukhee Suhayliyaan = holy companions. Bhaayay = affection. Vussiya = embedded. Chusaa = moment. Nirunjuno = unaffected by Maya (Waheguru). Bhuou Bhunjuno = the destroyer of all fears (God). 3.

Subaayayrriyay = everywhere. Tirbhuvun = the three-layered universe. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Alukh = incomprehensible. Apaaray = limitless. Aap(i) Maar(i) = by killing one's selfishness and ego. Mumta = attachments. Loabh(u) = greed. Jaalhou = burn; destroy. Bhaanaiy = Will. Taar(i) = salvage. Chaakh(i) = by tasting. Triputee = contented. Oordhaariya = enshrined in heart. 4.

MENING: The devotee who is captivated by Waheguru gets connected with Him and spends her life according to His Will (obeys Guru's Teachings). Such a devotee connects with Waheguru in the company of her holy friends, in the shelter of Satguru, who implants love for Waheguru and His Naam in her mind. Satguru enlightens their mind with the lamp of His Shabad to connect them with Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all fears, oh Nanak. 3.

Waheguru's Light shines everywhere, and the invisible and the limitless Waheguru is present in every heart. One can connect with the limitless Waheguru by killing (getting rid of) his selfishness, ego, worldly attachments, and greed, the filth of which can be burned (washed away) with the Guru's Shabad. But one can reach His Door only when He wishes, and when the emancipator Waheguru ferries him across the world sea. I got fully contented when I tasted His Amrit-like Naam and enshrined it in my heart, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Ker joarr(i) Nanak Saach(u) maangaiy, nudr(i) kur(i) Toodh bhaaniya. 2. ----------

Word Meaning: Chaaou = excitement. Ghunaa = immense. Vigaasi = blooming of heart. Mohi = captivated. Abinaashi = immortal. Aviguto = invisible. Naath = Lord. Theeyaiy = happens. Daata = provider. Jeayaiy = life. Uver(u) = other. Bhaykh(u) = religious symbols. Bhuvnee = pilgrimage. Hutth(u) = unmotivated persistence. 1. Bhinnrri Raiyn(i) =night imbued in the sweetness of Naam(u). Soohaavay = attractive. Nij Ghur(i) = in own mind (thoughts). Pirm(u) = Dear. Jugaayay = awakens. Nuv Haan(i) = of young age (free from any vices). Nuv Dhun = fresh devotee. Bhaaniya = is liked by. Tuj(i) = by giving up. Koorr(u) = falsehood; show off. Kupt = deceit. Soobhaaou = love for Maya. Chaakri = subservience. Lokaaniya = of people. Haar(u) = necklace. Kuntthay = around the neck (on the tongue). Neeshaaniya = identity. Bhaaniya = liked by. 2.

MEANING: My heart has bloomed to get connected with Waheguru, and my mind is full of immense excitement. I am captivated by the immortal Waheguru and have a deep love for Him. The Lord of lords, Waheguru, is invisible, but only that happens which He likes. He is the source of life in all living beings and is always kind and compassionate. Waheguru's Naam is embedded in my heart, and I do not know of any other power to worship or to focus my mind on. I do not believe in any religious garb or symbols, in any pilgrimage, or in any unmotivated persistence of mind to worship Waheguru. I simply have Waheguru as my support. 1.

Lost in your own world, the dear Waheguru awakens you spiritually so that your night is drenched with love for Waheguru's Naam, and your days become pleasant, oh, the young devotee. The new (inexperienced) devotee who is still pure at body and mind, is awakened by Guru's Shabad, and is liked (loved) by her Dear (Waheguru). Abandoning my falsehood, deceitfulness, love for Maya, and subservience to others, Waheguru's Naam has become the necklace (ornament to beautify) of my tongue (I recite His Naam). Guru's eternal Shabad has become my identification (to have access to Waheguru's Court). I pray to Waheguru with folded hands to give His Naam to me with His kind sight, oh Nanak. 2.

Saach(i), soocha sudaa Nanak, Gur Shabad(i) jhuggur(u) nibayriyo. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Sulonurriyay = having beautiful eyes. Munniurri = obeyed. Akuth Kuhaani = the story (of virtues) of the indescribable Lord. Pud(u) Nirnaani = spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Soajhi = understanding (connects with God). Soojhaiy = realizes. Uteet(u) = detached. Uprumpur(i) Raata = imbued in Waheguru's love. Saariya = remembers. Oh(u) = that (Lord). Poor(i) Ruhhiya = filling (present) everywhere. 3. Bolaayayrriyay = called in; connected with. Bhugut(i) Sunayhi = lover of His worship. Rehsi = joyful. Seejhus(i) = succeeds. Dayhi = body. Reejhaiy = attains bliss. Traiy Loak Naath = the Lord of the three-layered universe. Puchhaanaiy = makes connection. Deeng = on the immoral path. Doal(i) = by wavering. Na Kut-hee = nowhere. Aadhaar(u) = support. Khusm(u) = Master. Taan(u) = force behind. Tukiya = support. Jhuggur(u) Nibayriyo = ends the dispute; gives the final decision. 4.

MEANING: That young devotee has beautiful eyes who wakes up from her deep sleep of ignorance, recites Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, listens to the indescribable virtues of Waheguru, and obeys His Command (Will). But some rare devotee understands, in Guru's shelter, that an unshakable belief in the indescribable story of Waheguru enables her to attain a high spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Such a devotee gets rid of her selfishness and ego, becomes absorbed in Guru's Shabad, and connects with Waheguru, the Lord of the three-layered universe. Imbued in the love of the Lord, she stays fully detached from the attractions of the world and recounts the virtues of Waheguru in her mind. I, too, have acquired the Naam of the omnipresent Waheguru in my mind, oh Nanak. 3.

Waheguru, which loves His worshippers, calls them into His Palace (connects them with Him). Their minds blossom with Guru's advice (Shabad), and they make their human lives successful. She (the devotee) enjoys bliss by killing her desires, achieves spiritual success with the Guru's Shabad, and makes a connection with the Lord of the three worlds. Her mind does not waver for anything to follow an immoral path, and she realizes her Dear Lord. You are my Lord, and I have Your support, and You are the force behind me, oh Waheguru. Guru's Shabad delivers the final decision that a devotee, who is connected with God, is always pure like Him, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Tootthaiy = pleased to be kind. Rung(i) Ruliyaan = blissfulness of love (union). Sohaagni = married (connected with God). Mustuk (i) = on the forehead. Maana = (shining) pearl (fortune). Mun Bhaana = favourite; beloved. 1.

Nimaaniyaan = humble; no self-pride. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Bhaavaiy = liked. Raapaiy = is dyed. Rus(i) = sweetness. Dhuraapaiy = is contented. 2.

Maanus Junum (i) = in human form. Raavun Vayra = time (opportunity) to worship. Ghunayra = immense. Bhaag(u) Mundayra = bad luck. 3.

Agumm(u) = inaccessible. Drirraaya = reinforced. Bheena = imbued. Bhugut(i) Vuchhul = lover of His worship. Leena =absorbed. Meena = fish. Keena = did; connected. 4.

MEANING: My Waheguru has come to the bed of my heart because of which my mind is feeling blissful. I am enjoying the bliss of union with Waheguru by the grace of my Guru. The fortunate devotees, whose fortune shines on their foreheads, get connected with their husband, their beloved Waheguru, oh Nanak. 1.
Waheguru is the pride of the humble devotees who have no self-pride. They overcome their selfishness and ego with the Guru's advice and recite Waheguru's Naam all the time. But it is Waheguru which does everything; nothing happens without His approval. It is with His benevolence that the mind of some devotees is dyed with His love. Waheguru connects those devotees with Him who have attained a high spiritual state; they get fully contented with the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.
Human life is the opportunity for man to realize Waheguru. The devotees become immensely imbued with Waheguru's love and get married to (connected with Him in Guru's shelter). Those who do not get connected with Waheguru in human life are highly unfortunate. I am in Your shelter, kindly protect me (from the attacks of Maya), oh Waheguru, begs Nanak. 3.
The Guru reinforces the Naam of the inaccessible Waheguru in the mind of the devotee, because of which his body and his mind get imbued in Waheguru's love. Lover of His worship is the name of Waheguru (He is known for that), and the devotee gets absorbed in His Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Like the fish which cannot survive without water, the devotees of Waheguru survive only with Waheguru's Naam. Those who realize Waheguru make their life successful by His benevolence, oh Nanak. 4.1.3.

Word Meaning: Sloak: Loarr(i) Luhou = acquire; foster love for. Liv = focus of mind.
Chhunt: Raavun = enjoy the bliss of union. Bikh(u) = poisonous vices. Jhaagaiy = enduring. Kumul(u) = heart. Pergaasiya = bloomed. Jaagay = became alert. 1.
Bhaaya = liked by. Vudhaayee = mental happiness. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light (presence). Pergutyaayi = appeared. Adhaar = basis. Smaayee = absorbed. 2.
Raaviya = enjoyed the union. Ja = when. Kusaayiyaan = attracted; intoxicated with joy. Bilk = cat. Musaayee = mouse. Rus(i) = in sweet taste. Aghaayee = contented. 3.
Moogudh = foolish. Dhun(u), Dhunn(u) = great; worthy of worship. Shabaash(i) = deserves acclamation. Oordhaari = embedded in heart. Sulaah(i) = sing praise. 4.
MEANING: Sloak: Wish for (foster love for) Waheguru, who is your real friend, oh my friends. However, He (His Naam) is implanted in the heart only with great fortune when one fully focuses his mind on His Naam and when the Guru enlightens it. 1.
Chhunt: Those devotees enjoy the bliss of union with God who come to His shelter by enduring the difficulty (by struggling) to overcome their selfishness, ego, and the poisonous, immoral activities. They do so by the advice of the Guru, and by meditating on Waheguru's Naam. With the Divine knowledge imparted by the Guru, the devotees become watchful against the attacks of Maya, and their minds bloom in bliss. I realized Waheguru by meditating on His Naam, oh Nanak. 1.
Waheguru is loved by His devotees, and they are praised for it. One realizes Waheguru in the shelter of the Perfect Guru when he meditates on Waheguru's Naam, whereby the darkness of his ignorance is dispelled, and Waheguru brightens his mind. Waheguru's Naam is the basis of my life, and I stay absorbed in His Naam, oh Nanak. 2.
Waheguru enjoys the union of a devotee when He loves her. The eyes of the devotee are filled with joy and love for Waheguru in the same way as the eyes of a cat feel (react) to see a mouse. When the Perfect Guru connects the devotee with Waheguru, she gets fully contented with the sweetness of her union with Him. Her mind blooms with Waheguru's Naam, and she stays absorbed in His Naam, oh Nanak. 3.
With His benevolence, Waheguru connects even a foolish and an unwise person like me with Him. The Guru is worthy of worship and deserves acclaim who eradicates the selfishness and ego of the devotees. Those devotees are highly fortunate who embed Waheguru's Naam in their hearts. I am a sacrifice for Waheguru's Naam, and I sing Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 4.2.4.

Word Meaning: Mungul = blissfulness. Saaj(u) = musical instruments; environment. Abinaashi = immortal. Vur(u) = husband (Waheguru). Chaaya = zest; excitement. Putay = husband; Lord. Sehjay = in blissful state. Mutay = advice. Tthaandhi = standing; with dedication. Joogti = technique; means. Lurr(i) Laaya = take under wings. 1. Smaahrra = zest; blissfulness. Rattan = jewel-like; precious. Visaaha = bought; acquired. Khoajeen = the searchers. Ludha = found; acquired. Paaha = from. Akuth = indescribable. Chit(i) = mind. Kur = hands. Binunti = prayer. Laaha = benefit. 2.

MEANING: It becomes an environment of blissfulness in the heart of the devotee when she sings her Waheguru's praise, and her mind is filled with excitement when she listens to the praise of her immortal Waheguru-Husband. She fosters a love for Waheguru with great fortune and becomes impatient to see Him. Sharing her impatience with her "married" (already connected with Waheguru) friend, and asking for her advice about the technique to realize the Lord, the fresh devotee gets the advice, "serve Him (obey His Will) day and night with full dedication to attain the state of high spiritual state above the effects of Maya, when Waheguru will appear in your heart on His own". I, too, pray to my Waheguru that He takes me under His wings with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 1.

My mind became blissful when I acquired the jewel-like, precious Naam of Waheguru in my heart. The devotees, who search for Waheguru, find that His Naam can be acquired only from the holy saints (the Guru). But one can connect with the Guru only with the benevolence of Waheguru when he ponders on the virtues (sings praise) of the indescribable Waheguru. The Guru implants love for the Dear (Lord) when the devotee recites only Waheguru's Naam with full concentration of his mind. I, too, pray to the inaccessible and unfathomable Waheguru with folded hands that I am His slave, and that He gives me the strength and the motivation to sing His praise by which I may gain spiritual benefit (enlightenment), oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Saaha = the date of marriage. Atull(u) = unchangeable. Poorun sunjogo = union with Perfect Waheguru. Vijogo = separation; disconnection. Uchurj = amazing. Jaanjiyaan = marriage party. Ikuttar = get together. Dhoyay = arrived. Oopji = appeared. Maanjiyaan = family of the bride (mind, wisdom, and senses of the bride). Jot(i) = Waheguru's Soul. Joti = human soul. Oat(i), Poati = like warp and weft of fabric. Rus Bhogo = enjoy all sweetness. Binvunt(i) = prays. Kern Kaarun = creator of the universe. Jogo = fully capable. 3.

Bhuvun = heart. Dhert(i) = body. Aayayrra = arrived; appeared. Jaagi = awoke; became watchful. Ichhaan = wishes. Poonniyaan = fulfilled. Dhoorri = dust of feet. Kunt = husband (God). Vichhoonniyaan = separated. Aanund = blissfulness. Undin(u) = everyday; always. Vujeh(i) = played. Vaajeh(i) = musical instruments. Uhun Mut(i) = ego-filled thinking. Tiyaagi = abandoned. Binvunt(i) = prays. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru fixes the unchangeable time and the moment to connect His devotees with Him for complete union, whereby the separation between the devotee and the Lord is eliminated, and the devotee enjoys the whole bunch of comforts. The amazing marriage party includes holy saints who chant Waheguru's Naam, and together they arrive at the bride's house (the purified heart of the devotee in the blissful spiritual state). The whole family of the bride (her mind, wisdom, and the five senses) becomes full of love for the Groom (Waheguru). With the union of the devotee with Waheguru, they become "one" like the warp and weft of fabric, and the devotee enjoys the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. Nanak submits respectfully that the union of the devotee with Waheguru, which is fully capable of all creation, is brought about by the Guru. 3.

When I dropped at the feet of the Guru (recited His Shabad with full reverence), Waheguru appeared in my heart too, as a result of which my body has become highly blissful, and my heart has become very fortunate (to think of noble things). Since taking Guru's shelter, I have attained a high spiritual state, am now always alert to Maya's attacks, and all my wishes have been fulfilled. With the dust of the feet of the Guru (by serving Him), my wish to get connected with my long- separated Waheguru-husband has been fulfilled. Now, I have gotten rid of my ego-filled thinking, and I feel blissful all the time, as if auto-playing Divine music is playing in my mind. I humbly submit that I have acquired the shelter of Waheguru (got connected with Him) in the company of the Guru, and now am fully absorbed in God, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Bhaag Sulakhana = good fortune. Kunt = husband; master. Bajitra = (plays music). Dhoon(i) = Shabad; divine music. Vaajay = musical instruments. Oomaaha = zest; excitement. Teh = there = Taaha. Roag = illness (physical or mental). Soag = grief. Biyaapaiy = influences. Ridh(i) = supernatural powers. Soodha = amrit; all comforts. Vunjaan = go. Bulihaar(i) Vunjaan = ever ready to sacrifice. 1.
Mungul(u) = song of blissfulness. Gaaveh = let us sing together. Raaveh = let us recite (His Naam). Bhaaveh = we be liked. Pulk = twinkling of eye. Tiyaagiyaiy = forget. Kuntth(i) Laayiyaiy = embrace. Lujaayiyaiy = feel hesitant. Ruj = powder; dust. Paagiyaiy = apply. Tthagauri = a plant (mechanism) to hypnotize. Moheh = let us captivate. Unut = somewhere else. Dhaaveh = rush to. Amar = immortal. 2.

MEANING: It is my great fortune that Waheguru, at whose Court Divine music plays all the time, has become my husband (I have been connected to Him). Divine music plays there, and blissfulness and zest are there all the time. No illness (physical or mental), and no grief can have any influence there, and there is no birth and death in that spiritual state. All supernatural powers, and the sweetness of Amrit (all conceivable comforts) are there, and the treasures of Amrit (Waheguru's Naam) are full there. Waheguru is the basis of my life, and I am always a sacrifice for Him, oh Nanak. 1.

Let us all join together and sing Waheguru's praise, which brings blissfulness to the mind, oh, my friends. Let us recite His Naam with our body and mind full of love for Him. Waheguru loves the devotees who recite His Naam with love and do not forget Him even for a short moment. Disregarding any worldly shame, let us embrace our Lord (show full affection), and apply the dust of His Feet to our mind (embed His Naam in our heart). Let us captivate Him by the hypnotizing power of our reverence for Him, and not wander around for some other power (deity), and attain the immortal spiritual state by connecting with Him, begs Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Bismun = amazement. Abinaashi = the immortal Lord. Ker(u) = hand. Geh(i) = by holding. Bhooja = arm. Guhhee = held. Phaasi = noose. Unkoor(i) = sprouting (of previous noble deeds). Oodoat(u) = enlightenment. Junaaya = recognized. Muln = filth (of evil thoughts). Bikaar = immoral activities. Naatthay = ran away. Divus = day; time. Drisht(i) = (kind) sight. Muhaa = extreme. Doormut(i) = evil thinking. 3. Kirn(i) = ray. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. Sumpoorun = complete. Theeya = became. Braham(u) = God. Vukhaaniyaiy = describe. Aatum Pusaara = expanse of Waheguru. Kernhaara = Creator. Jaaniyaiy = recognize. Bhoogta = who enjoys. 4.2.

MEANING: Waheguru held me by the arm and made me His own (connected me with Him), thereby severing the noose of the Angel of death. I was completely mesmerized by the great virtues of Waheguru. Recognizing (giving credit to) my previous noble deeds, Waheguru held me by the arm and made me His slave (devotee) as a result of which the seed of His Naam, which had been previously planted in my heart, sprouted to become a full plant of His Naam, and my mind was enlightened. All the filth of my immoral activities and of worldly attractions was completely gone, and it was time for my life to be pure from then on. Waheguru loved me and cast a kind gaze on me, so my extremely evil thoughts ran away. With my mind fully purified, I got connected with the immortal Waheguru, oh Nanak. 3.

My union with Waheguru was like the union of a ray of light with the sun, or like the mixing of water in two different containers (which cannot be distinguished from each other). My soul merged into the Supreme Soul, and I also became perfect like Waheguru. Now, I see Waheguru and listen to His Shabad everywhere, and find Him discussed (talked about) everywhere. In that state, the devotee realizes that the whole universe is His expanse, and He alone is the creator, and recognizes no other power. He realizes that being present everywhere, Waheguru Himself is the creator of the universe, and He is the one to enjoy everything in His creation. But only that individual realizes all these facts who has tasted the sweet Naam-Amrit of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Tohni = blind man's stick. Oh(u) = Maya. Johaiy = tries to influence. Mohini = mind captivating. Bachitar(i) = strange. Chunchul(i) = fickle; unfaithful. Bhaav = seductive (attractive) forms. Dheetth = shameless. Buneh(i) = in forests. Teeray = river banks. Bert = commitments like fasting. Baat = on the way. Ghaataiy = boat launch; shallow place by a river where people have access to the water. 2.
Anaath = orphan. Naath = Master; Lord. Chuturaayi = shrewdness. Raajhaahoun = to please. Sooghurr = Soojaan = wise. Bayti = knowledgeable. Dhoop = fragrances. Bunkay = beautiful. Jaiyumpaiy = sing praise. Kroonaput(i) = Lord (source) of compassion. Gut(i) = transcendence. Lukhoun = see; comprehend. 3.

MEANING: Come all my friends with control on your mind, and let us all join together to sing praise of Waheguru, which brings joy to our mind, and learn to live by His Will. Let us get rid of our false pride, and maybe our Dear Waheguru will like us then. Give up all your false pride, worldly attractions, and the immorality rooted in Maya, and serve the only Lord who is above the effects of Maya. Come to the shelter of (surrender to) the compassionate Waheguru, and drop at the feet of the Lord who destroys all sins. Overcome your displeasure (detachment) with Waheguru, and serve Him like a slave of His slaves, and do not let your mind wander beyond control. But, one can sing Waheguru's praise only with His benevolence, submits Nanak respectfully. 1.
Dear Waheguru's Naam is the liquid of immortality (makes the devotee immortal as he merges into Waheguru), and is like the blind man's stick for me. Maya is highly attractive and captivates people in many different ways. Maya influences people in many strange ways, is fickle (never yours forever), and seduces people in many ways. It is very persistent, and people find its effects to be so sweet that they forget to recite Waheguru's Naam. It influences people in their homes, in forests, at the banks of rivers, while they are fasting or worshipping, on the way, or at some river ford. I respectfully pray to Waheguru to be kind to me as His Naam is the stick for the blind, me, oh Nanak. 2.
I am an orphan spiritually (have no guide), and my Dear (Waheguru) is the Master. I pray to him to protect me in whatever way He can. I have no shrewdness, so I may please Him with my words. I am not clever, wise, or knowledgeable; in fact, I have no good quality at all. I am not pretty, do not use fragrances, nor do I have beautiful eyes; please keep me in whatever situation You like, oh Waheguru. How can I comprehend the level of transcendence of the compassionate Lord whose praise is sung by everybody? I am a slave of His slaves and beg Him respectfully to protect me (against worldly attractions) in whatever way He can, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Muchhuli = fish. Neer = water; ocean. Suraiy = succeed; survive. Chaatrik = rainbird; a bird which is believed to drink only the first drop of rain. Triptoun = be contented. Huraiy = remove. Piyaas = thirst. Jea = soul. Heeya = heart. Praanputay = Lord of life. Laadilay = dear. Laad = affectionate acts. Gutay = high spiritual state. Chitvoun = think of; wish for. Mit(u) = dispel. Chukvee = (ruddy duck), a bird which is believed to stay awake all night calling her mate which gets separated at night and reunites at sunrise. 4. Dhun(i) Bhaag = great fortune. Sohay = became attractive. Bunk Dooaar = beautiful doors (the nine body doors). Bun(u) = forest. Hura = came to life. Hur Huraa = always green (life giver). Sookhehgaami = provider of all comforts. Ghunaa = immense. Nuvul, Nuvtun = always fresh. Naah = Lord. Baala = child-like; clear-hearted. Sayj = bed; heart. Sohi = became attractive. Mohi = captivated. Sehsa = doubts; worries. Huraa = removed. 5.

MEANING: I am like a fish, whereas you are like the ocean. How can I survive without you, oh my Lord? I am like the rainbird, and You are (Your Naam is) like the first rain drop for me; I will be contented only if I get to recite Your Naam with my tongue, which will quench my thirst to see You, oh Waheguru. You are the Lord of my soul, my heart, and my life. You are dear to everyone, and You are pleasing everybody with Your love-filled acts. Please connect me with You so that I may attain a high spiritual state. Like the ruddy duck, which waits for the sun to rise so that she can be united with her mate, I always wish (and wait) for Your appearance in my heart so that the darkness of my mind is dispelled. I humbly pray that my dear Waheguru connects me with Him, and I never forget Him, like the fish that never forgets (goes away from) water, oh Nanak. 4.
I am highly fortunate that my Waheguru has appeared in my heart, and all the nine doors of my body (senses) have become beautiful (with noble thinking), and the deserted forest of my mind has come to life again. My Waheguru is always green (injector of new life), who injects new spiritual life in His devotees and provides all kinds of comforts because of which His devotees enjoy the sweetness of immense blissfulness. He is always young, fresh, and unbiased like a child; how can I sing praise of all his virtues with my tongue? I am captivated by His sight, and the bed of my heart has become highly attractive. All my doubts and worries have been dispelled. I humbly submit that my wish has been fulfilled by connecting with the limitless Waheguru, oh Nanak. 5.1.3.

Word Meaning: Shaant(i) = peaceful; blissful. Nidh(i) = treasure. Peeou = Husband.
MEANING: My Dear Husband (God) is very pretty, always blissful, compassionate, and a source of all comforts. When one connects with such an ocean (source) of comforts, Waheguru, his soul (life) becomes highly blissful, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Maanun(i) = full of pride; highly proud. Vunjaayiyaiy = get rid of. Chaaturi = shrewdness. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Tiyaago = abandon. Ram Raayay = the Royal God. Thir(u) = permanent. Suhaago = husband. 1.
Tuj(i) = disconnecting with. Kut = where? Laaj = shame. Ugiyaan Mutee = who is lacking spiritual knowledge. Doorjun = evil men. Birmaayiyaiy = find comfort. Putit-Paavun = who purifies even the immoral. Tthehraayiyaiy = find peace. Bhaaou = with love. Jeevun Pud(u) = high spiritual state. 2.
Oochreh(i) = recite. Doohchaarun(i) = immoral. Bherm Mohi = robbed by misgivings. Koat(i) Joani = in million life forms. Bishta Kirm = worm of feces. Bhusma = ash. 3.

Birhoun = attachment. Bhugwunt = Waheguru. Baiyraagun(i) = detached from the world. Chundun = (fragrance of) of sandalwood. Cheer = clothes. Rusaa = delicious foods. Bikh(u) = poison. Eat, Oot Na = neither here, nor there; nowhere. Doliyaiy = weakening of mind. Jaagun(i) = stay alert. Atull = forever. 4.

MEANING: Only a highly fortunate devotee gets connected with the ocean of blissfulness - Waheguru. Get rid of your false pride, and drop on the feet of Waheguru (come to His shelter), oh, the highly proud young woman. Give up your wisdom, cunning, and evil thinking, and come to the shelter of Waheguru and get an everlasting connection with Him, oh Nanak. 1.

Where else can you get shelter like that of Waheguru, without whom you become spiritually dead? Do not you feel ashamed of your behaviour when you find comfort in the company of evil people, oh, the young woman (human being) whose thinking is devoid of any Divine Knowledge? Where else can your mind find peace if you abandon (ignore) Waheguru, which purifies even the immoral? Worship the compassionate Waheguru with full reverence to attain the high spiritual state, oh Nanak. 2.

The tongue, which does not chant Waheguru's Naam, burns (earns disgrace) by singing immoral songs or maliciously criticizing others. Robbed of good qualities by his misgivings, the man does not realize the suffering he has to endure by going through countless life forms. The man who likes some power other than Waheguru is like a worm of feces that loves ash (filth), oh Nanak. 3.

Feeling fully detached from worldly attractions, one should cultivate love for Waheguru in one's heart. Those who love Waheguru give up their selfishness, ego, and the poisonous luxuries of fancy clothes, various fragrances, and delicious foods. They stay alert to Maya's attacks and do not allow their minds to show any weakness. Those who realize their Waheguru get connected with Him forever, oh Nanak. 3.1.4.

Amrit rus(u) Hur(i) paaya, bikhiya rus pheekay Ram. Nanak, jul(u) juleh(i) samaya, joti, Jot(i) meekay, Ram. 4.2.5.9.

Word Meaning: Khoaj-hou = search for. Vudbhaagihou = highly fortunate. Rungay = in love with. Shernaagti = in shelter. Anut-Trungay = causing countless waves. 1.
Ikk(u) Til(u) Na = not even for a moment. Maylaavrra = union. Cheena = recognized; made connection. Tum Tay = from darkness. Seetul = peaceful. Seena = heart. 2.
Untarjaami = omniscient. Naraayinaiy = God. Pargraami = eligible for salvation. Poojaami = fulfilled. Oodhray = salvaged. Subh-hoon Ka = of all. 3.
Rus Bhinniurray = imbued in the sweetness (of Waheguru's love). Loyin = eyes. Neekay = pretty. Paykhut = on seeing. Poonniyaan = fulfilled. Bikhiya Rus = sweetness of Maya. Pheekay = tasteless. Jul(u) = water. Meekay = equalize; mix to become one entity. 4.

MEANING: Search for Waheguru in the company of the Guru, oh, the fortunate friends. Imbued in Waheguru's love, we should always sing His praise. We should serve God at all times to have our wishes fulfilled. I have sought His shelter to recite the Naam of Waheguru, which causes countless waves of amazement in the minds of the devotees. 1.
We should not forget Waheguru, even for a short moment, who has given us everything. Some highly fortunate people recognize Waheguru and get connected with Him in the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru pulls His devotees from the darkness of ignorance by holding them by the arm and makes them His own (connects them with Him). I survive spiritually by reciting Waheguru's Naam when my heart and my mind acquire blissfulness, oh Nanak. 2.
What virtues of Waheguru can I count on? (I am unable to do that.) But being omniscient, He knows my feelings. One becomes eligible for salvation by reciting Waheguru's Naam, and all one's wishes are fulfilled when he sings His praise. Even though Waheguru is the Lord of everybody, only those who worship Him find salvation, oh Nanak. 3.
Only those eyes are beautiful that are imbued with the sweetness of the company of Waheguru (only see Him everywhere). All one's wishes are fulfilled when she sees her dear Waheguru near her. When a devotee tastes the Amrit-like sweet Naam of Waheguru, he finds all other attractions of Maya to be tasteless. At that point, the devotee's soul mixes with the Supreme Soul to become "one," just like one body of water mixes with another to become inseparable, oh Nanak. 4.2.5.9.

Word Meaning: Ootum(u) = supreme. Naad(u) = Shabad. Oopdaysh = teachings. Dhoor(i) = right from birth. Oor(i) = heart. Huriya = green; came to life. Chirag = lamp.

MEANING: Those who have good fortune prewritten on their forehead listen to and obey the Guru's Teachings. They sing praise of the Supreme Waheguru with Guru's Shabad in Raag(u) Bilawal(u) (which produces blissfulness). They recite Waheguru's virtues day and night with full concentration of mind because of which they acquire a new spiritual life, and their mind blooms like a flower garden. The darkness of their ignorance is dispelled by the lamp of the Guru's Divine Knowledge. Waheguru's devotees survive by His sight even if they get it for a short moment, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Bilawal(u) = blissfulness; mental peace. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state.

MEANING: One can enjoy blissfulness only if he has Waheguru's Naam on his tongue. (Some people sing and play music to please their deity), But singing and playing music is attractive (to Waheguru) only if one sings His praise with Guru's Shabad with a peaceful mind. One is honoured in Waheguru's Court only if he serves Him, disregarding the ritualistic singing and playing of music. One ought to ponder on God's virtues in the shelter of the Guru to get rid of one's ego, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Agumm(u) = inaccessible. Vertda = operate. Taarri Laayiyaiy = state of infinite meditation. Unt(i) = at the end.
MEANING: You are (physically) inaccessible, and You have created the whole world, oh Waheguru. You alone operate in the whole world. (Being present in everybody) It is You who goes in the infinite meditative state, and it is You who sings Your own praise. It is Waheguru which emancipates you at the end; so, sing His praise day and night, oh the devotees of the Lord. The devotee, who serves Waheguru, stays absorbed in His Naam and enjoys all comforts. 1.

Word Meaning: Thaayayn Na Paayay = unwelcome; earns disrespect. Pakhund(i) = with hypocrisy. Hutth(i) = forced persistence. Aap(u) = self. 1.
MEANING: One cannot acquire bliss while in love with the attractions of Maya; the wealth-worshipper earns disrespect (in Waheguru's Court). One cannot worship Waheguru by hypocrisy, and cannot realize Him. Performing forced ritualistic deeds (against one's own wishes) earns one no respect. The true ritual to perform is to analyze oneself in the shelter of the Guru, whereby one can get rid of one's selfishness and ego, oh Nanak. By doing so, Waheguru, which is present everywhere, appears in the devotee's heart when his soul merges into the Supreme soul of Waheguru, and his birth-death cycle is eradicated. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhaayay = by His Will. Beh(i) = sitting down (with focussed mind). 2.
MEANING: Enjoy blissfulness by fully focussing you mind on Waheguru's Naam, oh dear friends; you will stay absorbed in the eternal Waheguru, and your suffering of rebirths will be terminated. One feels always blissful if he leads his life according to the Guru's

Teachings, and sings Waheguru's praise with love and a focused mind in the company of a holy gathering. Those devotees have a beautiful spiritual life who connect with Waheguru in Guru's shelter and stay absorbed in His Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Mit(u) = friend. Vuss(i) = in control. Mayli = friend. Serbut = everywhere. Nisul Tung Dhur(i) = worry-free. Uppurr(i) = reach; cause. Jhukh(i) = talk rubbish. Puvaiy Jhurr(i) = fail badly. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru, which is present in every living being, is the real friend of His devotees. The devotees feel blissful because they know Waheguru controls everybody. Waheguru is the friend (supporter) of everybody everywhere, so the devotees enjoy worry-free sleep. The devotees always keep in mind that Waheguru is the Lord of everybody, and nobody can cause any harm to His devotees, no matter how much rubbish their vilifiers talk against them; they fail badly at the end. 2.

Word Meaning: Braham = God. Bindeh(i) = recognize; make connection. Tay = those. Brahmana = spiritually enlightened. Ruveh(i) = recite. Sungreheh(i) = acquire. 1.

MEANING: (There are so many people who call them Brahman), but the real Brahman (spiritually enlightened) is the individual who recognizes Waheguru (gets connected with Him), and follows the Teachings of Satguru in life. Such Brahmans enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their hearts and rid themselves of selfishness and ego. They recite Waheguru's virtues and acquire such virtues themselves so as to unite their soul with the Supreme Soul. But such Brahmans are rare in this world who make a connection with Waheguru with a focused mind. Only those devotees stay connected with Waheguru who the eternal Lord is kind to, oh Nanak. 1.

Gurmukh(i) junum(u) suful haiy, jis nu Aapay luyyay milaayay. Nanak, nudri nudr(i) kuray ta Naam dhun(u) pullaiy paayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Deerugh(u) = serious. Sooaaou = likeable. Mun Hutth(i) = sheer persistence of mind against wishes. Nudri = having kind sight (Waheguru).

MEANING: Those who do not serve Waheguru, and do not have love for Guru's Shabad, attract (are gripped by) the serious disease of selfishness and ego, which may be highly tasteful (attractive) in the beginning. They may perform the prevalent religious rituals under pressure (but against their deep desires), which become the basis of their rebirths again and again. But a devotee's life in Gur's shelter is successful when Waheguru connects with Him. If the kind Waheguru casts His kind sight on a devotee, he acquires the wealth of His Naam in his heart, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Vudiyaayiyaan = praises; compliments. Saayee = the same. Goohj Gull = secret talk.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam, which earns one all praise, should be recited in the Guru's shelter. If one focuses his mind on Waheguru's Naam with full faith, he acquires anything he wishes for. If one discloses his secrets to the Guru (wishes or problems), he acquires all comforts (his wishes are fulfilled, or his problems are solved). One gets fully contented (his desires are fulfilled) with the Guru's Teachings. But one sings Waheguru's praise only if it is prewritten in his fortune. 3.

Word Meaning: Tay = from. Khaali = empty; without. Suful = causing success. Jayha = whichever. Ichhaiy = wishes. Tayha = the same. Trishna = fire of desires. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Amra Pud(u) = the highest spiritual state. Unhud Shabad = uniform Divine music. Sacho = God. Pusriya = spread. Chhupeh(i) = (stay) hidden. 1.

MEANING: Nobody is without Satguru's kindness, but one gets connected with Him only by Waheguru's grace. The sight of Satguru (spiritual connection with Him) is always successful for His Sikhs, who get the desired reward. Guru's Shabad is the Amrit which satisfies all one's desires. One gets fully contented by taking in the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam when He comes to reside in the devotee's mind. One attains the highest spiritual state by reciting Waheguru's Naam when he feels as if a uniform Divine music is playing in his mind. With love for the Guru in his blissful spiritual state, he sees that it is Waheguru who has spread Himself (is present) everywhere. Those who have embedded Waheguru's Naam in their hearts never remain hidden (unknown), even if they try very hard, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Maanus = human. Soochay = purified.

MEANING: When Waheguru casts His kind sight on a devotee, he gets connected with Him by serving the Guru (obeying His Will). The individual whom Waheguru makes to worship Him without any expected reward is transformed from a human being into a god (holy man). Waheguru destroys his selfishness and ego with Guru's mind-purifying Shabad before connecting him with Himself. Waheguru gives the honour of His Naam to the devotee who stays connected with Him in the peaceful state of mind, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Vudhaayee = enhanced. Bhaayee = liked. Doosht = evil. Puraaya = of others. Bhulaa = wellbeing; benefit. Na Sookhaayee = does not suit; irritates. 4.
MEANING: Satguru has the honour of granting Waheguru's Naam to the devotee, and the Creator Waheguru Himself has enhanced (given) this honour to Satguru. The devotee Sikhs like this honour of the Guru, and take pride in noting this special capability of the Satguru. But the vilifiers and the evil cannot accept such honour of Satguru, as praise of others irritates them. But what bad can happen to Satguru when vilifiers talk rubbish about Satguru, who is a friend (manifestation) of Waheguru? Anything that Waheguru likes enhances its worth many-fold; the whole world may try unsuccessfully to vilify Waheguru's devotees. 4.

Word Meaning: Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Aasa = dependence. Dooja Bhaav = love for Maya. Pullhur(i) = worthless husk of grains. Tiyaagiya = discarded. Sidh(i) = successful.
MEANING: Such hope or dependence on any other source (than Waheguru) is condemnable, which attaches one with Maya. An individual who discards the comforts provided by Waheguru, like the worthless husk of grains, suffers badly by forgetting Waheguru's Naam. The Maya-lovers are ignorant and spiritually blind; they keep taking births and dying again and again. They do not achieve success (in realizing Waheguru) and leave this world repenting. Those who are fortunate get connected with the Guru and recite Waheguru's Naam in His shelter. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's love are always blissful; I am always a sacrifice for such devotees, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Aasa Munsa = hopes and wishes; worldly attractions. Mohini = captivating. Cheeray = control. Aakaar(u) = creation. Niraas(u) = detached. 2.

MEANING: The attractions of Maya are captivating, and they have captivated the whole world. (But man's all wishes may not be fulfilled in his lifetime, and nothing accompanies him after his death; and the) The whole visible world is under the control (is the subject) of the Angel of death. However, the Angel is a slave of Waheguru and destroys only those whom Waheguru allows, but those whom Waheguru is kind to find salvation. However, the mind (man) finds salvation only if he gets rid of his selfishness and ego by the grace of the Guru and abandons all his hopes and wishes (attractions of the world) and gets detached from the world by pondering on the Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Saayeen = the Lord. Uggaiy = in the next world. Koorriyaar = liars and deceitful. Phitkiyeh(i) = are condemned. Chhaayee = ash.

MEANING: Wherever you go in this world, you will find the same Waheguru there as the Lord. He rules even in the next world and delivers perfect justice. The liars and the deceitful are condemned, but the worshippers of Waheguru earn praise. The Lord is Perfect and so is His justice; the vilifiers get ash in their head (are disgraced). I have worshipped Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, and am enjoying bliss, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Bukhsh = grace. Oopaav = measures. Seetul Shaant(i) = peaceful.

MEANING: If one has good fortune, he gets connected with Satguru by Waheguru's grace. Connection with Satguru is the best means of all to enshrine Waheguru's Naam in the heart, whereby one acquires internal peace and feels blissful all the time. Waheguru's Naam becomes His spiritual food and his wearing of fancy clothes; one earns respect and praise with Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Gooni-Nidhaan(u) = the treasure of virtues (God).
MEANING: Listen to (and obey) Guru's advice so as to acquire the Naam of Waheguru, which is the treasure of all virtues, oh my mind. That way, you will get rid of your ego, and the source of all comforts, Waheguru, will appear in your heart, oh my friend. Word Meaning: Jitnay = all those. Paatshah = maharajahs. Khan = wealthy = Oomraav. Sikdaar = leader; officer. Erthiyay = subservient. Vull(i) = on side; supporter. Vern = the four categories of castes. Khaani = the four sources of reproduction. Goalay = slaves. Kaaya Nugree = human body. Dooshmun Doot = the five demons. 6.
MEANING: All the maharajahs, the sultans, the rajahs, the wealthy, and the officers are created by Waheguru. They do only what Waheguru wants them to do – they are all His subservient. Such Waheguru, who controls everyone, is a huge support behind Satguru, and He has made all the people from all the four major castes, all living beings of all the four sources of reproduction, and the whole universe, slaves of Satguru to serve Him. Watch the great reward of serving Waheguru, oh, His holy saints. The Lord destroys and throws away all five evil demons, which are enemies of man, from his body. Waheguru is always kind to His devotees and protects them (from the attacks of sensual pleasures) with His grace. 6.

Word Morning: Kupt = deceit. Kaar Kmaavni = perform deeds (routine tasks). Kermi = with good fortune. Bherm(u) = misgiving. Bhuou = worldly fears.

MEANING: The worshippers of Maya always have deceit in their minds and suffer because of that; they cannot focus on Waheguru's Naam. All their deeds become a source of suffering in their present life, and they also suffer in the next world. If, by good fortune, they connect with Satguru, they can focus on Waheguru's Naam with dedication. They attain the peaceful spiritual state because of which all their misgivings and their worldly fears are dispelled, and they enjoy blissfulness, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Rung(u) = love. Bhaaya = liked. Pergaasiya = enlightened. Tmmer = darkness. Ugiyaan(u) = ignorance. Chookaayay = removed; cleared.
MEANING: A Guru's Sikh is always imbued in his love for Waheguru and loves His Naam. He sees Waheguru everywhere, talks about Him, and enjoys blissfulness by reciting His Naam. His mind is enlightened with the Guru's Divine Knowledge whereby the darkness of his ignorance is cleared, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Maiylay = filthy-minded. Guvaar = foolish. Bhunut(i) = says. Sunsa = doubts; worries. Viyaapay = prevails. Dhundha = attractions of Maya. Chayteh(i) = remembers; recites. Beechaar = thinking. Khooaar = suffer humiliation.
MEANING: The foolish followers of their mind die with a filthy mind. On the other hand, the Sikhs of the Guru purify their mind by embedding Waheguru's Naam in their heart. Nanak humbly suggests that you serve Satguru to wash away the filth of your selfishness and ego, oh my devotee friends. Normally, the man suffers because of his misgivings and doubts, which reign in his mind, and the possible punishment of his deeds rooted in Maya looms over his head all the time. The man is in deep slumber because of his deep love for Maya, and never wakes up (never realizes his wrong choice). The thinking of the follower of his mind is such that he does not remember Waheguru's Naam, and does not ponder on Guru's Shabad. He does not like Waheguru's Naam, and wastes away his precious human life because of which he suffers humiliation at the hands of the Angel, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Sacha = true. Shah(u) = wealthy. Moohtaaji = subservience. Hutt(i) = in shop. Vuth(u) = the thing (Waheguru's Naam). Vaysaah(u) = business. Sunmukh(i) = obeys them; becomes faithful. Raas(i) = wealth. Bhus(u) = ash; dirt. Jagaati = tax man. Luddiya = carried; accumulated.

MEANING: That devotee is truly wealthy to whom Waheguru bestows His worship. People serve him to acquire Waheguru's Naam, which otherwise is not available at any shop or business. Only that individual acquires the wealth of Waheguru's Naam who seeks the shelter of His devotees; the worshippers of money get only dirt (spiritually worthless things). Waheguru's devotees are the only dealers in His Naam; the taxmen of the Angel of death do not even go near them (to check accounts of their deeds). I have accumulated the wealth of Waheguru's Naam, so I am always worry-free, oh Nanak. 7.

Word Meaning: Joog = world. Khuttia = earned. Bikhiya = sensual enjoyments. Oodaas = detached. Kool = clan (associates). Traiy-goon = the three effects of Maya (see "Introduction"). Jungum = a sect of yogis. Tutt(u) = reality (God). Birtha = empty; without any spiritual gain. Smudhay = in deep meditation; connected with God.
MEANING: Only the devotees of Waheguru earn the wealth of Waheguru's Naam in this world, while the rest of the world is misled by its misbeliefs. The devotees enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their hearts by the Guru's grace, and recite it all the time. They kill their selfishness and ego with Guru's Shabad, and stay detached from worldly attractions while living in the family. Their mothers are worthy of respect who give birth to such noble souls who swim across the sea of Maya themselves, and ferry their associates too, across the world-sea. By staying connected with Waheguru, they always enjoy blissfulness.

Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva are considered the gods who rule the whole world, but they, too, are misled by the three effects of Maya, as a result of which their love for Maya and their selfishness and ego grew (flourished) in their minds. The pundits, who do read their religious books, and the ascetics who stay quiet for long times are also misled by their love for Maya, which they keep in mind all the time. Similarly, the Yogis, Jungums (a sect of Yogis), and the Sanyasis are also misled and cannot realize Waheguru without the Guru. The followers of their minds are always unhappy because of their misbeliefs and waste away their precious human lives. Only the devotees who are imbued with Waheguru's love get connected with Him with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Dayvaaliyay = (spiritually) bankrupt. Joog = world. Oye = those. Thook = (not even) spittle (only disgrace). Bukheeli = vilification; jealousy. Perteet(i) = trust. Khovun(i) = lose. Sugwaan = on the other hand. Lukhaah(i) = exposed.
MEANING: Those who do not earn the wealth of Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru are spiritually bankrupt. They search and beg for peace (Naam wealth) all over the world, and get nothing but disgrace. They lose their trust by vilifying others. On the other hand, they expose their own evil nature. They cannot acquire the wealth (of Naam and peace) by vilifying others, no matter where they go. The wealth of Waheguru's Naam can be acquired only by serving the Guru with the spirit of a loyal servant. The unfortunate (Maya-lovers) cannot acquire the Naam-wealth from the Guru who is its only source, and it is (the Naam-wealth) not available anywhere else in the world. 8.

Word Meaning: Sunsa = doubt; illusion; worry. Mool Na = not at all. Sehjay = in a natural way. J(i) = those. Punnaiy Paayay = are given shelter.
MEANING: A Guru's Sikh does not suffer from any illusion, and all his worries disappear. Everything happens naturally to them, and they have no complaints about it. Waheguru, Himself listens to the devotees whom He has provided shelter as to what they have to say, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Kaal(u) = (fear of) death. Munsa = wishes. Amrit(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Nij Ghur(i) Vaasa = mind stays in itself (quits wandering). Sohnday = look noble.
MEANING: Waheguru's devotees have His holy Naam in their heart; they overcome the fear of death, and keep their wishes in their mind (under control). They always stay awake (alert) and never become unaware of the attractions of Maya. They drink the Naam-Amit of Waheguru in their high spiritual state. They always talk sweetly and sing Waheguru's praise with the immortalizing Shabad of the Guru. They have full control of their minds (which no longer wander), and they always look noble; one feels blissful in their company, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Ruttan Juvayhri = jewels and rubies. Ukaiy = or. Vundaaya = shared. Sherdha = faith; love. Huth(i) Aavaiy = acquires. Sureek(u) = partner. Khut(u) = written (legal) right. Seev Bunnaiy = boundary. Roal = dispute. Bukheeli = jealousy; resentment. Chuhoun Koondaan = all directions. Kaala Kuraaya = to disgrace. Suvaaya = multiplies.

MEANING: Waheguru respects the wishes of the Guru and bestows the wealth of His Naam, which is precious like jewels and rubies, to the Sikhs whom the Guru recommends kindly. The Naam wealth is not visible, so nobody can borrow it because only visible things can be borrowed from others or can be given to them. Nobody can even force to get a share of this wealth. Only that individual can receive this wealth who has it prewritten in his fortune by Waheguru when He instils reverence for the Guru in the mind of the individual. Nobody is a partner to this wealth; has any legal right, or (unlike the farmers) has a shared boundary to dispute. If someone maliciously criticizes a devotee for His Naam-wealth, Waheguru blackens his face (disgraces him) in all the four directions (all over). No force or vilification works to get a share of the Naam-wealth which Waheguru has bestowed on His devotees - actually, it increases every day in multiples. 9.

Word Meaning: Julunda = burning in the fire of desires and jealousy. Dooaaraiy = shelter; faith. Titaiy = the same. Soojhyee = can think of.

MEANING: The world is burning in the fire of desires and jealousy; please save it with Your kindness, regardless of the faith of the individuals, oh benevolent Lord. Satguru has shown us the way to real comfort (blissfulness) – which is to ponder on (act on) His Shabad (and sing Waheguru's praise). I cannot think of any power other than Waheguru that can forgive our sins, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Mohini = mind-captivating. Perjaaliyaiy = burn fully. Maarun = antidote.

MEANING: Man's haumein (selfishness and ego, which are kinds of Maya), captivates his mind, due to which he gets engrossed in Mayas. Haumein cannot be killed (destroyed) or sold at a shop. One can get rid of it only by burning it well with Guru's Shabad when one's mind gets purified, and Waheguru's Naam gets implanted in there. The antidote for haumein is only Guru's Shabad, which can be acquired only in His shelter, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Neeshaan(i) = document of identification. Bhateeyeen = nephews. Sukeen = relatives. Ug-houn Pichh-houn = other possible candidates. Toal(i) Dittha = searched. Abhimaan(u) = false pride. Bukhshiyos(u) = gave the control (to the Guru). J(i) = Jo = whoever. Sijhaiy = succeeds. Bhrisht = impurifies; makes unholy. Vull(i) Hoa = takes side with; gives full support. Bhit(i) = (spiritual food). Laahiyoun = removed.

MEANING: The honour of Guruship was given to Guru Amar Dass Ji by Guru Angad Dev Ji as if a written document to that effect had been issued by Waheguru to Guru Angad Dev Ji. But before giving the Guruship to Guru Amar Dass Ji, Guru Angad Dev Ji searched for and tested all possible candidates, including his sons, nephews, sons-in-law, relatives, and other potential claimants, and cleared their false pride. Waheguru brings the whole world under the spiritual control of Satguru, and His presence can be felt everywhere.

Whoever comes to the shelter of the Guru and obeys His Teachings succeeds spiritually in this world, and the next, but the follower of his mind (money-worshipper) makes the place unholy on which he walks (pollutes the environment with his evil thoughts). The omnipresent, friendly, and wise Waheguru fully backs the Satguru. Waheguru removes the false pride of the world when people note that Satguru is the provider (source) of spiritual food, and all the desirous people drop on His feet (come to His shelter) to receive Waheguru's Naam. 10.

Word Meaning: Vaahaiy = plows; cultivates. Loonaiy = cuts. Khulhaan(i) = threshes; harvests. Nidaan(i) = at the end.

MEANING: Highlighting the system created by Waheguru to feed people, Guru Nanak Sahib writes: It is one person who prepares the land for cultivation and seeds it; someone else cuts the crop, and still a different party harvests it. But nobody knows who consumes it at the end.

Word Meaning: Bikraal(u) = frightening: Doot = the five demons. Kuntth(i) = throat. Tongue. Oodhaariya = enshrined in the mind. Suvaariya = made successful.

MEANING: The kind Waheguru ferries people across the world-sea (salvages them) while the benevolent Guru frees the people from their misgivings and from worldly fears, as a result of which all the frightening demons (lust, rage, greed, etc.) are defeated. The devotees embed Waheguru's immortalizing Naam-treasure in their mind by reciting it with their tongue. They make their birth and death (life) successful in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 11.

Word Meaning: Koorraiy = of short-lived worldly things. Kehn = words; talks. Kehunh(i) = talk about. Moohunh(i) = rob. Sunnh(i) = dig a hole to enter. Saakut = money-lovers. Doormutee = evil thinking. Bherm(i) = in misgivings. Lootaaya = lost to. Rucheh(i) Rehunh(i) = stay engrossed. Dooshtaan Sayti = with the evil. Pirhurri = love. Vaad(u) = oral fight (aggression). Puyyaiy Kirt = prewritten type of deeds. 1.

MEANING: Those who forget Waheguru's Naam always think and talk about the false (short-lived) worldly comforts. The five demons (lust, rage, etc.) rob them of their good qualities, and selfishness and ego break into their mind. The Maya-worshippers get robbed because of their evil (ignoble) thinking, and they are not aware of the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. Those who have lost the Amrit-like sweetness of Waheguru's Naam because of their misbeliefs stay engrossed in poisonous sensual pleasures. They love the company of the evil and show aggressive behaviour towards the holy devotees of God. Tied up by the Angel of death, such money-lovers suffer severe punishments in hell, oh Nanak. But they cannot be fully blamed because (based on their previous behaviour) they do just what they are programmed to do by Waheguru. 1.

Jinh kuou poorub(i) likhiya, rus(u) sunt junaa siyoun tis(u). 2.

Word Meaning: Taan = force; power. Nimaanay = powerless. Tis(u) = that. Giraas(i) = with every bite. Joh(i) = watch with evil eye. Kuvlaa = Maya. Perm Pudaruth = the supreme Naam.

MEANING: Satguru becomes the force behind the powerless devotees who serve Him. They remember Him (keep in mind) with every breath and every bite, because of which the Angel of death cannot watch them with an evil eye. They always have the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam in their heart, and Maya serves them like a slave. The devotee, who serves Waheguru like a slave of His slaves, acquires His Supreme Naam. I am always a sacrifice for the devotee who has Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his mind and his body, oh Nanak. Those who have it prewritten in their fortune enjoy the sweetness of the company of the holy saints. 2.

Word Meaning: Poora = Perfect. Vertiya = happens. Bhuniya = is recited. Muniyaan = jewel (Shabad). Suvaaray = grroms. Jiyoun = like. 12.

MEANING: Waheguru pays full attention to every word that the Guru speaks, and the same Words become effective in the world, and everyone recites them. Waheguru has so many virtues that they cannot be counted. Satguru's Word is the real jewel, and He is the source of Waheguru's Naam, peace, and spiritual bliss. Waheguru grooms the holy saints who become just like Him, oh Nanak. 12.

MEANING: The Maya-engrossed individual does not analyze self (that he is a part of Waheguru and is disconnected from Him) and considers that Waheguru is somewhere far, far away. How can his mind focus on Waheguru when he has ignored service to the Guru (following His advice)? He wastes away his precious human life in the greed of the short-lived worldly comforts. But with His benevolence, Waheguru can connect him with Him if he follows Satguru's Shabad, and always thinks Him to be close to him, oh Nanak.1.

M:3: Hur(i) Prubh(u) Sacha sohila, Gurmukh(i) Naam(u) Govind(u). Undin(u) Naam(u) sulaahna, Hur(i) juppiyaan mun(i) aanund. Vudbhaageen Hur(i) paaya, Poorun Permanund(u). Jun Nanak Naam(u) sulaahiya, buhourr(i) na mun(i), tun(i) bhun(u). 2.

Word Meaning: Sacha = eternal. Sohila = source of bliss. Permanund = source of ultimate bliss. Bhung(u) = separation.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the eternal source of bliss if one recites it in the Guru's shelter. One should recite the Naam (sing Waheguru's praise) all the time because one attains complete bliss by reciting the Naam. But only the fortunate realize Waheguru, which is the source of complete bliss. The true devotees recite Waheguru's Naam with full dedication and never get separated from Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Nanak, eh(u) achurj daykhou mayray Hur(i) Sachay Shah ka j(i) Satguru nu munnaiy, su subhnaa bhaavaiy. 13.1. Shoodh(u).

Word Meaning: Pichhlay = previous. Guneh = misdeeds; sins. Naaliyaan = of creeks. Tobhiyaan = small lakes. Soorsuri = the River Ganga (Ganges). Puvittar(u) = pure; holy. Shaant(i) = peace; bliss. Turr = right away. Achurj = strangeness. Bhaavaiy = is liked.

MEANING: Like the filthy rain water of streets, creeks, and of small lakes which flows into River, Ganga, and becomes pure (after mixing with the water of the River (a Hindu belief), if a former vilifier of Satguru comes to His shelter, Satguru forgives him for his previous sins and accepts him as a member of the holy congregation (he becomes pure too). Such is the greatness of the impartial Satguru which bears no ill-feelings toward anyone; all one's appetite for worldly desires is satisfied, and he feels blissfulness and peace of mind right away. This is an amazing feature of the True Lord, Waheguru, that an individual, who obeys Satguru, is liked by everyone, oh Nanak. 13.1. Verified.

Word Meaning: Aiyso = like that. Paykhna = view. Soodhay = straight; right. Rayg(i) = path. Nutur = otherwise. Koodhukka = bad (violent) push. Pause.

Baaray = children. Turunay = young. Moosa = mouse. Meech(u) = death. Biluyya = cat. Khuyyee = eats up. 1.

Munyee= man. Kaani = indebtedness; favour. Sum = equal. Budaani = powerful. 2.

Bhaayay = are liked. Niraari = unique; different. Sungaari = with (them). 3.

Kluttar = wife. Luchhimi = Laxmi = Maaya = Maya. Ihaiy = these. Tuj-hou = give up. Jea Jaani = love like own life. Saaringpaani = a name for God. 4.

MEANING: View this world in such a way that nobody is going to live here forever, oh my friends. Follow the straight path (of righteousness) of life, otherwise you will get a violent push (will be punished). Pause.

The helpless man is like a mouse being eaten by the cat of death. Be it children, young or old, all of them are taken away by the Angel of death. 1.

Death is so powerful that it does not favour anyone - they may be wealthy, poor, rulers, or common masses – they are all equal before death. 2.

On the other hand, the treatment given to the devotees who are liked by Waheguru is completely different. With Waheguru always with them (they become part of Waheguru), they do not die and never take rebirths. 3.

You can also unite with Waheguru if you give up (break) your strong attachment to your sons, your wife, and your wealth, which you treat as the love of your life, oh Kabir. 4.1.

Aap(u) puchhaanaiy, ta Aikaiy jaanaiy. 4. Ub-heh(i) na maata, su kubhoon na maata. Keh(i) Kabir, Ramaiy rung(i) raata. 5.2.

Word Meaning: Baad(u) = discussions. Kuthut = describing. Buouraano = eccentric. 1.

Khulk = masses. Bigriyo = spoiled; eccentric. Aura = others. Pause.

Jaar(i) Guyyo = eradicated. Bherm(u) = misgivings. 2.

Puchhaanaiy = recognize; analyze. Maata = intoxicated. Raata = imbued. 4 & 5.

MEANING: (Pundits read religious books to acquire knowledge to take part in discussions to win them), but I do not value such knowledge and do not take part in such discussions. I have become eccentric (in love of God) to describe and to listen to His virtues. 1.
(People think that I am eccentric), Yes, I am eccentric, and the rest of the world is wise. If I am eccentric, please make sure that no one else becomes eccentric. Pause.
But I did not become eccentric on my own; God made me eccentric as Satguru destroyed all my misgivings. 2. I am eccentric because I abandoned my own wisdom (which loved Maya), and have acquired Satguru's wisdom. But, please do not be misled by my steps (if you do not like them), oh folks. 3.
However, I must clarify that only the individual who does not recognize (analyze) himself is eccentric. If one recognizes oneself, he will start believing in only "one" God. 4.
If one does not get intoxicated with God's love now (in human life), he will never be intoxicated (will get no other opportunity). But I am imbued in God's love, oh Kabir. 5.2.

Word Meaning: Tuj(i) = abandon. Bun Khund = some part of the forest. Kunda = vegetables that grow under the soil (carrots, radishes etc.) Ujhoun = still. Bikaar = immoral acts (or thinking). Munda = bad. 1.
Chhootoun = break worldly bonds. Turoun = find salvation. Bhuvjul Nidh(i) = the world sea. Bhaari = huge; unfathomable. Beetthula = God. Pause.
Bikhaiy Kee Baashna = attractions of sensual pleasures. Luptaayay = clings. 2.
Juraa = old age. Jobun = youth years. Neeka = noble. Jeeura = Life. Nirmolko = priceless. Kaudi = worthless cowrie shells. Meeka = equal. 3.
Maadhwa = Husband of Maya (Lord). Serb Biyaapi = omnipresent. Sumsur(i) = equal. 4.
MEANING: Some people renounce the world to settle down in some part of a forest, and live only on the vegetables that grow under the soil with the belief that they do not waste any time even to cook their meals (save time to worship God); but they cannot stop their sinful mind from thinking about evil and immoral acts. 1.

How can I emancipate myself to be able to swim across the world sea, which otherwise is extremely difficult to swim across? So, I have come to the shelter of God, asking that He protect me against the attacks of Maya (only He is capable of providing such protection). Pause. Maya captivates us in many different ways, which we find very difficult to resist. No matter how hard one tries to resist such attractions, he clings to them again and again. 2.
Man's prime life goes away without doing anything noble, and he becomes old; he lowers the great worth of human life to the level of worthless cowrie seashells. 3.
There is no one else who is as compassionate as the omnipresent God, and there is no other sinner like me, oh Kabir. 4.3.

NOTE: In this holy Shabad, Kabir Sahib expresses his mother's displeasure when he began worshipping God and devoted less time to his family's handloom weaving business, which led to a drop in family income. Her complaining is highly typical of all Indian mothers. The interesting thing is that she expresses her displeasure in terms of the prevalent Hindu practices of worshipping deities, which Kabir Sahib did not even follow. Enjoy the Shabad.

Word Meaning: Kori = brand new; weaver. Gaagur = a vessel to store water to bathe the Idol, and to mop floors. Jeo Guyyo = gets exhausted. Taana Baana = weaving. 1.
Kool = clan; family. Maala = rosary. Nipootay = childless. Pause.
Jitthaani Diraani = wives of husband's brothers. Achurj(u) = strange thing. Saat Soot = cotton threads and other things (related to weaving). Moodiya = young man. 2.
Prehlad = a devout devotee of God. Hernaakhsh = His evil father who did not approve Prehlad's devotion to God, and tried many times to have him killed. Paiyj = dignity. Nukh = paws. Bidaariyo = destroyed. 3.
Dayv = gods. Pittar = ancestors. Khundun(u) = destroyer. Oodhriyo = salvaged. 4.

MEANING: Who (nobody) ever recited God's Naam in our family. But, ever since my weaver, childless son (may he never have any child – curses Kabir Sahib) took rosary in his hand (began to worship God), we have not experienced any comfort. Pause.
Every day, he rises early in the morning, fetches a vessel of water to bathe the idol and gets exhausted mopping the floors (to purify the room for worshipping) (which Kabir Sahib did not believe in). He does not think of weaving, and enjoys the (sweet) taste of worshipping his God. 1.
This young son of mine has lost all interest in the weaving business, but why is he not dead yet! Listen to this strange thing, oh, my sisters-in-law. 2.
(Kabir Sahib reacts) The Guru has given me the Naam of God, which is the source of all comforts. This is the same God who protected the dignity of Prehlad and tore apart the evil king, Hernakhsh, with His paws. 3.
(My mother complains that I have given up the worship of our ancestors and of our family guru, and have begun to recite Guru's Shabad, about which she is right), But I recite the Naam of God in the company of the holy saints, which is the destroyer of all sins, and I have been emancipated, oh Kabir. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Smaan(i) = equal. Bhooput = rajahs. Divus Chhar(i) = a short time. Jhootthay = false; short-lived. Divaajay = show offs. Pause.
Doalaiy = weakening of mind. Chhaaja = decorated; respected. Haath(u) Pusaar (i) = lay hand; hurt. Undaaja = disrespectful language; malign. 1.
Chayt(i) = think of; remember. Uchayt = unaware; ignorant. Moorr = foolish. Unhud Baja = auto-playing Divine music. Sunsa Bherm = doubts and worries. Dhuroo = another devotee of God. 2.

MEANING: There is no King like God. These worldly kings are rulers for a few days, and all their acts of showmanship are short-lived. Pause.
Your devotees enjoy respect in the whole world, and do not allow their minds to show any weakness (show no fear) before the people. Nobody can lay any hand on (hurt) them, or use disrespectful language for them (or malign them). 1.
Keep His Naam in mind, oh my ignorant and foolish mind, and you will feel as if auto-playing Divine music is playing in your mind. All my misgivings and worries have disappeared by worshipping God, who bestowed honour on Dhuroo and Prehlad, oh Kabir. 2.5.

Keh(i) Kabir, eh bintee sooniyo, mut ghaalhou Jum kee khubree. 2.6.

Word Meaning: Bigree = ruined; mistakes. Seel(u) = calm disposition. Jup(u) = recitation of the Naam. Abhimaan = conceit. Tedh Pugree = wear turban to one side (a sign of conceit or arrogance). Pause.

Amar Jaan(i) = thinking to be immortal. Sunchee = nurtured. Kaaya = body. Mithiya = false; short-lived. Kaachi Guggri = (destructible like an) unbaked earthenware. Nivaaj(i) = bestowed honour (kindness). Saaj = create. Uver = other. Lugree = got attached to.1. Sundhik = thief; guilty. Pugree = feet; shelter. Mut Ghaalhou = do not send. Jum = Angel of death. Khubree = news. 2.

MEANING: Please forgive me for my mistakes, oh kind Lord. I could not maintain a calm disposition, did not do any things pious (noble deeds), nor did I perform Your worship; to the contrary, I have been highly conceited and wore my turban to the side, which is another display of false machismo, oh Lord. Pause.

I nurtured my body as if I were going to live forever, never realizing it was short-lived and as perishable as an unbaked earthenware. I forgot You, who created us and bestowed honour on us, and became attached to the other (Maya). 1.

I am your thief (sinner), and cannot call myself a saint, but have come to Your shelter, oh Lord. Please, listen to my request, and do not send me any news about the Angel of death (about my reincarnations), begs Kabir. 2.6.

Word Meaning: Dermaanday = beggars. Tthaandhay = standing; waiting. Soort(i) = thought; care. Ko = who. Khohl(i) Kivaar = by opening the doors (of my mind). Pause.

Oodaar = kind. Tiyaagi = renouncer; donor. Servun = ears. Soojus(u) = sweet praise. Kaah(i) = whom from. Runk = pauper. Nistaar = emancipator. Jaideo = a supreme devotee of Waheguru. His two Shabads are enshrined in Guru Granth Sahib. Naama = Nam Dev Ji = a well-known devotee of Waheguru. His 62 Shabads are enshrined in Guru Granth Sahib. Bip Soodaama = a Brahman friend of Krishna. Apaar = limitless. Sumruth = capable; omnipotent. Chaar(i) Pdaaruth = religiosity (high morality), wealth, fulfilment of wishes, and emancipation. Na Baar = no time (delay).

MEANING: I am a beggar waiting at Your door, oh Lord. Who else cares about me other than You, oh my Lord!! Kindly show me Your holy sight by opening the doors of my dark mind. Pause.

I have heard Your great praise with my ears that You are the Master of real wealth (of Your Naam), are compassionate, and a great donor, oh God. Whom else can I beg for Your Naam, because they are all paupers in this respect, but You are my emancipator. 1.

You have shown limitless kindness to Jai Dev, Nam Dev, and the Brahman, Sudama. You are omnipotent in kindness, and take no time to give all the four important things – high morality, wealth, fulfilment of wishes, and emancipation – which are the most sought-after things, acknowledges Kabir. 2.7.

Word Meaning: Dunda = a stick; baton. Moondraan = earrings. Khindha = a quilt of rags. Aadhaari = a fabric bag to collect alms (These are the religious symbols of the yogis). Bherm = misgivings. Bhaayay = in love for. Bhaykhdhaari = religious garb. 1. Aasun(u) = special posture. Puvun = air; breaths (the yogis hold and release breath to perform many exercises in the name of God). Buvray = foolish. Kupt = deceit. Pause. Jih = which. Jaacheh(i) = wish for. Tirbhuvun = universe. Bhogi = enjoy. Kaysou = God.

MEANING: A yogi carries a stick (to keep the devil away), wears big glass earrings, a quilt of rags (to show his poor lifestyle), and a fabric bag to collect alms as symbols of his faith. Misguided by his love for his faith, he roams around in that garb. 1.

Quit the deceitful (spiritually worthless) acts of your meditating postures, and your exercises of holding and releasing breaths, and worship God all the time, oh foolish yogi. Pause.

Your ultimate misplaced goal is to collect wealth by impressing people of your supernatural powers, but people all over the world enjoy wealth anyway. (So, what do you gain?) The real thing to beg for is God's Naam, oh yogi. 2.8.

Kiyya khayti, kiyya layva dayee, perpunch jhootth(u) goomaana. Keh(i) Kabir tay unt(i) bigootay, aaya kaal(u) nidaana.2.9

Word Meaning: Goosaayeen = God. Kinchut = not even small amount. Jun = devotee; humans. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Phunny = attached to. Drirr(u) = under control. Buchni = Words; Huqam. Layva Dayee = trading. Perpunch = the world. Bigootay = suffered humiliation. Kaal(u) = death. Nidaana = at the end.

MEANING: This Maya has caused the people to forget Your Naam, oh Lord. They are so helpless before Maya that they cannot cultivate any love for You in their mind even if they wish to. So, what can the poor humans do? Pause.

Condemnable are the wealth, the human body, the Maya, and the wisdom (mind) which are attracted to Maya. Please tie up (control) this Maya with Your Words (Huqam). 1.

Be it farming, trading, or any other business – the pride of all such show-offs in the world is false because death comes to everybody at the end, and such people suffer humiliation (in God's Court), oh Kabir. 2.9.

Keh Kabir sayva kurhou, mun munjh(i) Mooraar(i). 3.10.

Word Meaning: Surovar = pool of heart. Bheetray = inside. Aachhaiy = is (present). Kumul = lotus (like feet of God) (His Naam). Anoop = unparalleled in beauty. Perm Jot(i) = Supreme Light (Soul). Purkhotmo = of God. Raykh Roop = physical features. 1.

Bherm Tuj-hou = get rid of misgivings. Jugjeevun = the life of the world (God). Pause.

Binsaiy = is destroyed. Poorivun = a creeping vine which wilts away quickly when out of water. Paat = leaves. 2.

Mithiya = false. Sehj(i) = with peaceful mind. Munjh = inside. Mooraar(i) = God. 3.

MEANING: The Light of the Supreme God, which has unparalleled beauty (noble qualities) but no visible physical features, is always present in man's mind in the form of His Naam. 1.

Get rid of your misgivings by worshipping God - the life of the universe - oh man. Pause. God's Light is not visible when it appears in, or disappears from, a heart; like the leaves of the Poorivun vine, which come to life in water and wilt away when away from it, God's Light appears from Him and gets absorbed in Him. 2. A devotee who ponders on God's Naam with a peaceful mind realizes that the attractions of Maya are short-lived and abandons them. Serve God with dedication in your own mind, oh Kabir. 3.10.

Aap(u), aap tay jaaniya, tayj, tayj(u) smaana. Khuou Kabir ub jaaniya, Gobind mun maana. 3.11.

Word Meaning: Liv = deep focus of mind. Soonn(i) = in God. Smaaniya = fully absorbed. Saakhi = advice. Jaagi = woke up; enlightened. Pause.
Kaansi = bronze. Dhoon(i) = sound. Phooti = broke into pieces. 1.
Tirkooti = the three effects of Maya. Sundh(i) = by breaking into. Ghut-Hoon Ghut = in every heart. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Smaachuree = sprouts. Tiyaagi = renouncer. 2.
Tayj = light (soul). Tayj(u) = God's Light (the Supreme Soul). Maana = become one. 3.

MEANING: When a devotee meditates on (God's Naam) with a fully focused mind, his misgivings about birth and death are fully dispelled. His mind is illuminated by the Guru's advice, and he remains absorbed in God. Pause.
(The pundits mislead the people with the fears about hell, or the comforts of heaven after death, to fleece them) Such fears of hell and comforts of heaven arise in the mind of people for as long as their misgivings are kept alive, but they go away when one's mind is enlightened with the Guru's Advice. Like a sound that arises when a bronze object is rattled and is absorbed when rattling stops or when the bronze object is shattered, the human soul originates from God and is absorbed in Him at death. (Only God knows what happens to the souls after death, and nobody else), oh pundit. 1.
With the advice of the Guru, I have seen the truth by breaking through the three effects of Maya (rising above them), and now I see God's Light in every heart. Also, I have acquired such wisdom that I have renounced all attractions of Maya. 2.
With Guru's advice, one analyzes and recognizes oneself (that one's soul is a part of the Supreme Soul) and merges into the Supreme Soul. I have also realized that, and my mind has become "one" with God, oh Kabir. 3.11.

Jeh oh jaayay, tuhee sookh paavaiy, Maya taas(u) na jhoalaiy Dayv. Keh Kabir mayra mun(u) maaniya, Ram preet(i) keeyo laiy Dayv. 2.12.

Word Meaning: Ridaiy = in heart. Buseh(i) = dwell; are embedded. Doalaiy = weakness (wavering) of mind. Nuou Nidh(i) = nine treasures of the world. Dayv = hey God. Pause. Paykhaiy = see. Kootil Gaantth = the bag of deceit. Utkaiy = is obstructed (attracted) by. Nerja = scale. 1. Taas(u) = him. Jhoalaiy = captivates. Dayv = God's Naam. 2.

MEANING: Why would the mind of a devotee who has God's Naam embedded in his heart, become weak (begin to waver) before the attractions of Maya, oh Lord? The devotee, who sings Waheguru's praise with a peaceful (fully focused) mind, feels as if he has acquired the comforts of all the nine treasures of the world. Pause.

But one acquires such wisdom (thinking) when he sees God's Light in everybody, and loosens the bag of his deceitfulness (let it disappear), oh God. Maya captivates his mind again, and again, but he always weighs the strength of his mind (strengthens it). 1.

He is happy (contented) wherever he goes, and Maya cannot weaken his mind (captivate him) anymore. My mind has been fully convinced by God's supremacy, and I have developed love for Him, oh Kabir. 2.12.

Word Meaning: Suful = successful. Keena = made. Leena = acquired. 1.

Giyan Unjun = kohl of Divine Knowledge (to enlighten). Heena = without; empty. Pause.

MEANING: My Guru has made my life successful such that I have forgotten all my sufferings, and I feel blissfulness inside me. 1.
My Guru gave me the kohl of Divine Knowledge (to improve the vision of my mind), because of which I have realized that my mind and my life are empty without God's Naam. Pause.

Word Meaning: Daarid Dushaa = the pathetic situation due to poverty. Asht Dusaa = eight plus ten = 18. Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Ker(i) Tulaiy = palm of hand. 1.
Bhuvkhundun = destroyer of rebirths. Poorun Kaam = fulfiller of wishes. Pause.
Bhaar(u) = burden (of sins). Aaluj(u) = Aalya = home (net) of worldly bonds. 2.
Akuth Kutha = the indescribable story (of virtues of God). Oopma = comparison. 3.
MEANING: My monetary situation was so pathetic that everybody was laughing at it (making fun of it). But, with Your benevolence, it has changed so much that all the 18 supernatural powers are in the palm of my hand (fully at my command). 1.
You know that I am a non-entity, oh, the destroyer of the birth-death cycle, God. All living beings are in Your shelter (at Your mercy), and You fulfil their wishes. Pause.
Those who come to Your shelter carry no burden of sins. The world is a net of strong worldly bonds, but You salvage the high and the low. 2.
There is no need for any other ritual, just sing praise of God, which has indescribable virtues, oh Ravidass. There is none like You against whom You can be compared, oh God. 3.1.

Jaiysay pooraiyn paat ruhhay jul smeep, bhun(i) Ravidass, junmay jug(i) oye. 3.2.

Word Meaning: Sadh(u) = holy man. Baishno = devotee of God. Bern = high caste. Abern = lower caste. Runk = pauper. Eesur(u) = wealthy. Bimul Baas = pure fragrance; sweet praise. Soyay = his. Pause.

Baiysh = second lowest cast (farmers, traders, employees etc.). Shood = lowest caste. Khatri = warriors. Doam = lower caste bards. Chundaar = butchers; savages. Mulaysh = ignoble. Soyay = the same (God). Puneet = purified. Kool = clans. 1.

Dhunn(i) = deserving respect. Kootumb = family. Subh Loyay = all over the world. Sar Rus(u) = the supreme taste (God's Naam). Tujay = abandons. Daaray Khoyay = kills. 2.

Pundit = well-educated. Soor = valiant. Chhutarput(i) Rajah = an emperor. Pooraiyn Paat = the leaves of a vine which thrives in (or near) water. Smeep = near. Bhun(i) = says. 3.

MEANING: A devotee of God, or a holy man, enjoys sweet praise (respect) all over the world, regardless of his high or low clan, or whether he is wealthy or a pauper. Pause.

Be it a Brahman, a Baiysh (Vaish), a low-caste untouchable, a warrior, a low-caste bard, a butcher, or an ignoble person, God is present in all of them. One purifies his mind by worshipping God, and not only does he find salvation for himself, but he also emancipates both his clans (paternal and maternal) (a Hindu belief). 1.

The village, the place, and the clan all enjoy respect all over the world where a devotee of God is born. Enjoying the supreme sweet taste of God's Naam, the devotees stay intoxicated and abandon all other tastes of poisonous Maya. 2.

No well-educated pundit, valiant, or an emperor can match the transcendental height of a devotee of God. Only the birth of God's devotees is welcome in this world; like the leaves of the vine which stay fresh in or near water, they survive by staying connected with God, oh Ravidass. 3.2.

NOTE: According to a popular story, the beautiful daughter of a king vowed to marry Shri Vishnu. The son of a carpenter heard about it, donned himself like Vishnu, and married the beautiful girl, and began to live in the King's palace to hide his identity as a poor carpenter. After some time, a neighbourly king attacked the King. The King asked his son-in-law to lead his forces, but the coward and inexperienced carpenter stayed behind the army lines and did not fight. However, the local King won the battle, and the dignity of the fake god was saved.

Word Meaning: Nrip = rajah. Kunniya = a girl (daughter). Bhaykhdhaari = an imposter. Kaamaarthi = lustful. Sooaarthi = selfish. Vaa Kee = his. Paiyj = dignity. 1.

Tuv = Yours. Goon = benefit. Kerm = the consequences of the previous deeds. Singh = lion. Jumbook(u) = jackal. Graasaiy = eat up. Pause.

Chaatrik = a bird which is believed to drink only the first drop of rain. Phoon(i) = then. 2.

Thir(u) = stable. Birmaavoun = pick up courage. Nauka = boat. 3.

Huoun = pride. Aah(i) = is. Aousar Lujja = time to save my honour. Jun = slave. 4.

MEANING: Even though a lustful and selfish man married the beautiful daughter of a king as an imposter of Shri Vishnu, You still saved his honour, oh God (so protect me too against the attacks of Maya before it is too late). What is the use of singing Your praise if the consequences of my previous bad deeds are not erased? What is the use of taking shelter of a lion if even a jackal eats you up? Pause.

The rainbird (chaatrik) suffers for a single drop of water; of what use will that be for him if he receives the whole ocean of water after he is dead? 2.

How can I pick up courage (be contented) when my life has exhausted, and my mind is no longer strong enough to fight against immoral acts of sensual pleasures if You do not protect me now? Whom will I put in the boat of your kindness if I drown in the world sea now? You know that I am insignificant, have no self-pride, and own nothing at all, but I, Sadhna, am Your slave. Please protect me against the attacks of Maya, which are happening now, oh my dear God. 4.1.
