Word Meaning: Chit(i) = in mind. Aaas = hope; faith. Munchinday = as wished. Anayk = countless. Ful = rewards. Vertaiy = takes place. Ghaaliya = hard work. Til(u) = insignificantly small. 1. Jugdeesh Gosaayeen = the Lord of the earth (God). Nihful = unrewarded. Birthi = empty; waste. Pause.

Kootumb(u) = family. Mut = lest; do not. Bupurray = poor; helpless. Vaahiya = efforts. Vusaayee = in control. Chhudaayee = emancipates. 2.

Uver = other. Pemitree = Maya. Kumm(i) Aayee = serves purpose. Khin Meh(i) = in a moment. Jhootth = short-lived. Binus(i) = gets destroyed. Thaayan Paayee = rewards.3. Boojh Boojhaayee = given the understanding; enlightenment. Triptaayee = contented. 4.

MEANING: There is only one Supreme Living Being; He has an immortal existence. His laws or Huqam always prevail) He is the creator of the universe and is omnipresent. He is fearless (because He has no equal, and is above all the natural laws; bears no enmity with anyone (is perfectly just); time has no bearing on Him (is always uniform); never takes a life form and is self-illuminating; can be realized only by the grace of the Guru. If you have faith only in Waheguru, you will get all your countless wishes fulfilled, oh my mind. Waheguru knows everything that goes through the mind of a person (his wishes), and He never lets the hard labour of a devotee go unrewarded, even by a small amount. Have faith only in the Lord, who is present in everybody, oh my mind. 1.
Have faith only in Waheguru; if one has faith in any other power or person than Waheguru, all his hard work goes to waste (unrewarded), oh my mind. Pause.
Do not depend upon any of the visible members of the family, or any other attraction of Maya and waste away your spiritual life, oh my mind. What can these helpless people do for you? They have no power or control over anything (to enhance your spirituality). So, seek dependence on your Dear (Waheguru), which will salvage not just you, but all the members of your family (your associates), oh my mind. 2.
If you ever think that dependence on anybody else or Maya (wealth or other possessions which you can donate to please some deity) will help you in the enhancement of your spirituality, be assured, they will be of no help (or of use) to you. The dependence on Maya is only a short-lived attachment which disappears in a moment. Have dependence (faith) only on the immortal Lord, who recognizes and rewards your hard work, oh man. 3.
However, even the different kinds of hopes and wishes originate in one's mind by the Will of Waheguru (depend upon the nature of the individual given to him by Waheguru); a person wishes only those things for which his mind has been reprogrammed by Waheguru. My Satguru has imparted this wisdom to me that one has no control even over his wishes, oh my Lord. I, Nanak, am your devotee, and you know my wish, which is only to have your holy sight, which gives contentment to me, oh my Waheguru. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Dhiyaayiyaiy = remember; recite Naam. Kilvikh = sins. Binaasa = destroys. Tiyaag(i) = give up; disregard. Nihful = goes unrewarded. Ghaal = hard work.Sookhdaata = source of all comforts. Bhookh = appetite. Luhaasa = comes off. 1Bhervaasa = faith. Paiyj = dignity. Jun Daasa = slaves; devotees. Pause.Birtha = condition. Aagaiy = the other party facing you. Kudhaasa = lets out. Tutkaal = right away. Kutaasa = removes. Chhoad(i) = leave aside; bypass. Laaj Muraasa = dies of shame (feels humiliated). 2. Sunsaaraiy Kay = worldly. Kootumb(u) = family. Sooyayaiy = for selfish reasons. Milaasa = see you. Sooaaou Hovay = objective fulfilled. Nayrraiy Dhookaasa = come near. Oopkuraiy = appear to help. Sookhaasa = in good times. 3. Untee Aousur = at the time of end. Rukh(i) Na Sukaasa = cannot save. Munt(u) = mantra; advice. Chitaasa = in mind. Chhootun Ka = of emancipation. Saacha = real; sure. Bhervaasa = faith; dependence. 4.

MEANING: We should serve and recite the Naam of Waheguru, which can destroy all the sins in a short moment, oh my mind. If disregarding Waheguru, one seeks dependence of someone else, all his hard labour goes unrewarded in Waheguru's Court. Serve Waheguru only, who is the source of all comforts, and serving whom all one's appetites for worldly things disappear (are satisfied). 1.

Have dependence on (faith in) Waheguru, oh my mind. He accompanies His devotees wherever they go to protect their dignity. Pause.

If you tell someone your problem to seek help, rather than listening to you and helping you, he tells you many, many of his own painful stories. So, tell your problems to Waheguru, who removes them in no time. If you tell your problems to someone other than Waheguru (rather than helping you), they shame you to death. 2.

All the worldly family members and friends, or even brothers, that you see, come to see you only for their selfish objectives. The day their objectives are achieved, they do not even come near you, oh my mind. Serve only your own Waheguru, which comes to help you in difficult and happy times, oh my mind. 3.

Why to have faith in someone who cannot protect you at the time of your end, oh my mind? With the advice (Shabad) of the Guru, recite Waheguru's Naam, which salvages the devotees who have love for Him, oh my mind. Nanak advises that one should recite Waheguru's Naam all the time, which is the guaranteed means of your emancipation, oh the holy saints. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Anund = blissfulness. Shaant(i) = calm; peaceful. Seetul = cool; unagitated. Shukut(i) = of Maya. Soor(u) = sun. Julta = hot. Sus(i) = (cool) moon. Tupna = hotness; suffering from Maya. 1.

Undin(u) = every day = always. Jupna = recite. Subh Tthaayeen = everywhere. Pause. Nidhaan = treasures. Khoaj(i) = search for. Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. Ruttna = jewel (like). Churn Mulhou = massage feet (serve). Dusna = (like a) slave. 2. Puchhaan(i) = recognizing; making a connection with. Bud Budna = greatest of all. 3. Ker Joorna = with folded hands. Buseh(i) = dwell. Huri Churna = God's Naam. 4.

MEANING: One feels blissful and contented, enjoys internal peace, and his mind becomes calm (quits wandering) when he remembers Waheguru. Like a burning caused by the hot sun, one burns (suffers) in the fire of desires for worldly attractions (of Maya); but the holy sight of the Guru serves like the moon to cool them down (to put out the fire of suffering). 1. Recite such Waheguru's Naam all the time, which protects you everywhere at all places, oh my mind. Pause.

Recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the source of all treasures, and search for the jewel-like precious Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru. Massage the feet of (serve them diligently like a slave) the devotees of Waheguru who have acquired Waheguru by reciting His Naam, oh my mind. 2. That holy saint is supreme who enjoys the sweetness of Waheguru by making a connection with Him with Guru's Shabad, and is greater than the greatest. Waheguru, Himself, exalts such devotees whose grandeur cannot be lowered by anyone, not even by a small amount like the size of a sesame seed. 3.

Remember Waheguru with folded hands, from whom you acquire all comforts, oh my mind. I beg for only one favour from Waheguru that He implants His feet (His Naam) in my heart, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Jun Nanak tis kay churn pukhaalaiy, jo Hur(i) jun(u) neech(u) jaat(i) sayvkaan(u). 4.4.

Word Meaning: Shah = rajahs. Paatishaah = emperors. Oomraav = wealthy. Sikdaar = leaders with authority; high officials. Chaudhry = leaders. Mithiya = Jhootth = short-lived. Bhaaou Dooja = love for Maya (which is also short-lived). Abinaashi = Suda Thir(u) = Nihchul = non-perishable; immortal. Pervaan(u) = acceptable. 1.
Deebaan(u) = judge-cum-ruler; support. Taan(u) = power; ability. Pause.
Dhunvunt = wealthy; Koolvunt = of high clan. Milkhvunt = landlords. Binus(i) = destruction. Koosumbh(u) = a pretty flower which wilts away quickly. Kuchaan(u) = temporary. Nirunjun = above the effects of Maya (God). Maan(u) = respect. 2.
Shood = the lowest caste in Indian system. Vaish = the second lowest caste. Vern = major castes. Chaar(i) Ashram = four stages of life: childhood (unmarried); family man; forest (leave home to worship gods); and sanyas (renunciation). Perdhaan(u) = supreme; approved by Waheguru. Hird = castor plant. Putit = immoral. 3.
Soocha = pure. Pukhaalaiy = washes. Neech Jaat(i) = of the lowest caste. 4.

MEANING: The love (or loyalty) for all (or any) of the rajahs, emperors, high officials, and leaders is just love for Maya (personal interests), is short-lived, and does nothing for one's spirituality. On the other hand, Waheguru is immortal and is always there to help you; so, recite His Naam to be approved in His Court, oh my mind. 1.
Recite Waheguru's Naam, which is your support forever. No one can match the power (spiritual height) of the devotee who connects with Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad. Pause. All those wealthy members of high clans and landlords that we see will eventually perish like the temporary beauty of the koosumbh flower (and will have no power left at all, so why should you respect them), oh my mind? Always serve (recite the Naam of) Waheguru, which is always calm (never gets offended), and is above the effects of Maya; one is honoured in His Court when he recites His Naam, oh my mind. 2.

There are four major castes (Brahman, Khatri, Vaish, and Shood), and the four stages of life (childhood, family life, leaving home to worship some deity, and renunciation) in the Indian system, but only that caste, or that stage, is supreme (approved by Waheguru) which one uses to recite His Naam. Like a castor plant (which is short and somewhat thorny) acquires sweet fragrance near a sandal tree, an immoral person gets purified in the company of holy saints, and gets approval in Waheguru's Court. 3.

That individual is the greatest and the most pious who embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart. I will be glad to wash the feet of (show full respect to) the devotee of Waheguru (even if) he belongs to the lowest caste in the Indian system, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Untarjaami = know-all; omniscient. Subhtaiy = everywhere. Vertaiy = operates. Subhdoon = from every thing (trouble). 1. Purruyyiyaiy = read about Him. Jeevaal(i) = keep alive. Kaayit(u) = what for? Why? Kurruyyiyaiy = suffer from anxiety. Pause.
Perpunch = creation of universe. Dikhuyyiyaiy = shows. 2.
Choryyiyaiy = hide. Nihkupt = without any deceit (hidden objective). Kayri = of. 3.

MEANING: The omniscient Waheguru operates (is present) everywhere; living beings do only what Waheguru makes them do. So, always serve Waheguru, which protects you from everything (trouble), oh my mind. 1. Always recite Waheguru's Naam and read about Him, oh my mind. No one can kill you or keep you alive without Waheguru, so why should you suffer from any anxiety, oh my mind? Pause.

Waheguru has created the universe and has placed His Light in it (is present everywhere). The Perfect Guru utters the Naam of the “One” Waheguru, and makes others recite only His Naam; He has shown the “One” Waheguru everywhere. 2.
Waheguru is always with you, inside and outside, so how can we hide anything from Him, oh my mind? One needs to serve Waheguru without any hidden objective to enjoy all comforts, oh my mind. 3.
One should always remember (recite the Naam of) Waheguru, which is the greatest (most powerful) of all, and which controls everything in the universe, oh my mind. Waheguru is always with you, and emancipates you; so always recite His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.5.

(Being present in every living being), He is the one who talks and understands everything. He is the one who comes into the world (take births) and the one to go (die). Word Meaning: Phaankiyo = trapped. Meen = fish. Kupik = monkey. Niyaayeen = like. Oorjh Ruhhiyo = entangled; deeply involved. Kosumbhaayaylay = Maya, the comforts of which are short-lived like the short-lived beauty of the koosumbh flower. Pug Dhaareh(i) =

Chhoad(i) = quit. Aavaayaylay = bad habits. Tthaur = shelter; permanent home. Kaahay = what for? why? Pur Kaiy = others' (house). Pause.
Maiygul = elephant. Inderi Rus = sensual enjoyment. Prayriyo = motivated; instigated.

Dookh-Bhunjun = destroyer of suffering. Juntaayaylay = living beings. 4.
MEANING: Realize the fact that this world is not a permanent home for you, oh man. So, give up all your bad habits, and quit keeping an evil eye on others' houses (their wealth and their women). Pause. Like the fish and the monkey, which get trapped because of their greed for the bait, you are entangled in the short-lived attractions of the world, oh man. Waheguru keeps account of every step and of every breath you take (to commit some deed); you will find salvation only if you sing Waheguru's praise. 1.
As the elephant, motivated by his lust, gets trapped, you are trapped in the love of your family, the union of which is short-lived, like the gathering of birds at a tree at night, which fly away in different directions the next morning. Only the gatherings of holy men are permanent (because only Waheguru's praise is sung there, regardless of who the members are, and how many there are), so sing Waheguru's praise there, oh man. 2.
Like the foolish fish which is deceived by the bait and loses its life in that greed, you love (enjoy) your sensual pleasures as a result of which you are under the full control of the five demons, which are your enemies, in fact. You can find freedom from them only by taking shelter in Waheguru, oh man. 3.
You are the destroyer of all troubles of the poor (humble), oh Waheguru; so, be kind to all the living beings as they are Your children (have been created by You). I beg only for Your holy sight, oh Waheguru. Kindly give me the company of your slaves (devotees), so that I may serve them as their slave, and thus see You, prays Nanak. 4.2.

Always worship Waheguru, who has created the universe in many different forms and colours, who can create or destroy anything in a moment, and whose transcendence and measurements cannot be described, oh my mind. 2. Waheguru created Maya, which gives birth to the five demons (they are different forms of Maya), which, by Waheguru’s Huqam, marry the world to reproduce the species (the living beings are born because of the demons – they are the root cause of reproduction of the species). They mix well with the three other effects of Maya (and become the source of) the enjoyment of sensual pleasures for the world. But Waheguru’s devotees rise above such pleasures and reside in a high spiritual state. 3.

Whoever seeks shelter of the Royal Waheguru, the Lord protects him by holding him to His chest (provides full loving protection). If someone shows too much conceit, he suffers a great humiliation, as if he were dirt. 3.
The eternal Waheguru is present now and will always be; I am always a sacrifice for Him. He protects His devotees with His benevolence. He is the basis of my life, oh Nanak. 4.18.20.

MEANING: The description of Waheguru's virtues is unique and amazing. The human soul is a form (part) of Waheguru's Supreme Soul. Pause.

The human soul is a part of Waheguru, which does not go through different phases of life. He is never a child nor an old person. He does not fall into any trap of Maya that leads to the Angel of Death, and he suffers no discomfort. He never dies, nor does He ever disappear. He has been here ever since and before the beginning of the eons. 2.

Waheguru feels neither hot nor cold and has neither enemies nor friends. He has no special occasions to be happy or to be sad. Everything belongs to Him, and He is omnipotent. He has no father or mother; He is limitless and has been here ever since. He is not affected by noble or bad deeds (they do not mean anything to Him). He is alive in every heart. 3.

Maya is His own reflection, which means He created Maya with the three effects. The kind Waheguru cannot be deceived, is impermeable (unattackable), and His secrets cannot be known, and He is always kind to the weak (humble). Nobody can find His transcendence, or His measurements (limits). I am always a sacrifice for Him, oh Nanak. 4.19.21.

Ruvoun = I remember. Sach(u) Vaapaar(u) = true (everlasting) deal. Munsa = wish. 4.

MEANING: I would like to lay down my life for the holy saints (serve them with deep reverence) who motivate you to sing Waheguru's praise in their company. All one's sins are eradicated by their grace. But only some lucky people come to their shelter. 1.

One faces no obstacle to worship God as he can "see" Him (in his heart) by the grace of the Guru. Pause. When Waheguru becomes benevolent, He transforms one into a humble devotee as if He were the dust of Guru's feet (serve Him like a slave). Lust and rage disappear from the body of such devotees, and Waheguru's jewel-like precious Naam gets embedded in their mind. 2.

The devotee experiences Waheguru as close to him, and his life becomes successful and approved by Waheguru. He begins to worship Waheguru with love, and his mind, which had suffered the darkness of ignorance for many lives, gets enlightened. 3.
Waheguru's lotus-like soft Feet (His Naam) have become the basis of my life, and I remember Him (recite His Naam) all the time, which is the everlasting deal. I pray to Waheguru that He fulfils the wishes of His devotees, so that they enjoy bliss by serving His holy saints, oh Nanak. 4.20.22.6.28.

Word Meaning: Ashtpudi = a Shabad with 8 stanzas. Dev = light-like (source of enlightenment). Suful = which causes success. Moorut(i) = persona (holy sight) Untarjaami = omniscient. Purakh = living power. Bidhaata = carver of our fates. Aatth Pehr = twenty-four hours. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in love. 1.

Paatshah = emperor. Shah = rajah. Oomraaou = wealthy. Putiyaayay = won over. Doosht = evil. Ahunkaari = conceited. Puchaayay = humiliated. Ninduk = vilifier.

Baypervaahay = worry-free. Bhaiy Mitay = all fears eradicated. Paayay Dhern = thrown on the ground; causes big humiliation. 4.

Jumooa = Jum = Angel of death. Nicket(i) = near. 5.

Nirvaiyr = harbours no enmity. Bhul(i) Maaneh(i) = wishes all well. Vaykaari = lustful. 6.

Sat Buchun = true command; pure justice. Verteh(i) = is the rule. Jurr = root; support.Surpur = for sure. 7. Needhuriyaan = with no support. Dhur = support. Kayri = of. Paiyj = honour; dignity. Suvaari = enhances. 8.

MEANING: The Guru is a manifestation of Waheguru and protects His devotees. Pause. Guru's persona (His holy sight) makes devotee's life successful (rewarding), and so does service to Him. So, kneel down to Him (show reverence for the Perfect Guru, which is a source of enlightenment), oh my friend. The Guru is always imbued with the love for Naam of Waheguru, which is omnipotent, living power (omnipresent), and the carver of our fates. 1. The Guru wins over the minds of the emperors, the rajahs, and the wealthy with His spiritual advice, while the evil and the conceited are defeated and humiliated. The vilifiers are rendered speechless so that they lose the ability to vilify Him anymore. The whole world sings praise of the Guru. 2. The holy saints recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the Great Guru, and always enjoy great blissfulness. Their faces radiate the purity (piousness) of their mind, whereas the vilifiers lose all their shelters (supports). 3.

The devotees sing Waheguru's praise with every breath, but the Lord is worry-free. All the fears pf the devotees disappear in Waheguru's shelter; but the slanderers are reduced to dust on the ground (are humiliated as all their pride is destroyed). 4.

No one should ever vilify a saint; whoever does that suffers at the end. The holy saints recite the Naam of Waheguru all the time because of which the Angel of (spiritual) death does not even go near them. 5.

The saints bear no enmity towards anyone, but the slanderers are highly conceited. The saints wish well-being for everyone, while the vilifiers are immoral (and always think to cause harm to good people). Guru's Sikhs remember Him (recite His Shabad) as a result of which they are salvaged, while the vilifiers are sent to hell. 6.

Listen to the everlasting fact that only perfect justice is delivered in Waheguru's Court, oh my dear friend. One reaps the rewards of his own deeds, and one thing is certain: the conceited get no support at all. 7

Satguru is the support of the weak (ego-free) who have no other support. Kindly protect the dignity of Your devotee, oh Satguru. I am a sacrifice to the Satguru who exalts the dignity of His devotees who recite His Shabad, oh Nanak. 8.1.29.

Word Meaning: Asunt = unholy man; Maya worshipper. Musht(i) = quietness. 1.

Oopkaari = beneficial for others. Jhukh Maari = a rubbish talk; frustrating experience. 2.
Budheh(i) = increase. Bikaara = immoral thoughts. Bichaara = sharing ideas. 3.
Chhoochha = empty. Ghut(u) = vessel. Doalaiy = loses patience. 4.

MEANING: When we talk, what should we talk about, oh noble man? Answer: When we talk, select a topic so that we are led only to recite God's Naam (sing His praise). Pause.
If we meet a holy person, we should listen to their wisdom and say something (seek clarification). But if we bump into some unholy person, it is best to keep quiet. 1.
Because when we converse with a holy man, it is for the betterment of others, but when we discuss something with a foolish person (a Maya-worshipper), it turns out to be a frustrating experience. 2. Too much talking leads to immoral thoughts, but some talking is essential because, without talking, what ideas can we share? 3.
But we must remember one thing that, as the saying goes, it is an empty vessel that makes noise; it is a shallow person who talks too much; an enlightened person does not lose patience (fall prey to excessive talking), oh Kabir. 4.1.

Kerm = deeds of previous lives. Gut(i) = situation; consequences. Pause.
Toola = raft; bale. Kays = hair. Poola = bundle. 2.
Tub = then. Jaagaiy = is awakened. Dund(u) = stick. Moond = head. 3.

MEANING: When a man dies, his dead body is of no use, but when a cattle dies, its body finds many uses (for example, its hide is used to make shoes and other leather goods; its bones are used in fertilizers, and so on).
What do I know about the results of my previous deeds, oh noble man? (whether I will be born a human being again, or an animal). Pause.
The man does not realize that (after death), his bones burn like a bundle of wood, and his hair like a bale of grass (so, even his body does not accompany him). 2.
He is awakened (realizes the reality) only after he is struck with the heavy stick of the Angel of Death (punished by him), oh Kabir. 3.2.

Word Meaning: Guggun(u) = awareness; soul; Supreme Soul. Pataal(i) = underworld. Ruhaayaylay = is present. Aanund Mool = source of bliss. Purakhotum(u) = God. 1. Biyraag(u) = detachment with worldly attractions and love for God. Jeeou = soul. Pause. Keen = created. Kerm Budh = bonded (restricted) by previous deeds. Kermeh = deeds.2. Niruntar(i) = without any gap. Soyay = God. Sehjay = in a natural way. 3.

MEANING: The Supreme Soul is present everywhere - in the sky, in the underworld, and in all the four directions. The Supreme Soul is a manifestation of the Supreme Being, God, which is the source of all bliss. When a body dies, it gets destroyed, but the Supreme Soul does not go anywhere. 1. To understand where the human soul comes from and where it goes after it dies, love for God has sprouted in my mind. Pause.
They say God created the human body by combining the five elements (basic ingredients), but I wonder who created those ingredients in the first place. Similarly, they say that the man is restrained from performing future deeds by the kinds of deeds of his previous life, but who made the man do such deeds? 2.
(After getting answers to all my questions by making a connection with God), I have come to know that man's body belongs to God, and God resides in man's heart and is uniformly present everywhere. So, I will never stop reciting His Naam, and will gladly accept things (His Will) as they come in a natural way, oh Kabir. 3.3.

NOTE: In this holy Shabad, Kabir Sahib narrates a true story from His life. It is very difficult for the elite to accept the teachings of holy saints because they expose the misdeeds and injustices committed by the elite against the common masses. Naturally, the local ruler of the day must have been offended by Kabir Sahib's teachings and ordered that Kabir Sahib be put to death by being trampled over by an elephant. Apparently, the Qazi supervised the execution of the order and ordered the mahout to move the elephant so it could trample Kabir Sahib. However, the elephant refused to do that three times before the Qazi got frustrated and let Kabir Sahib go.

Word Meaning: Bhooja = arms. Baandh(i) = tied up. Bhila Kur(i) = making a bundle Daariyo = threw. Hustee = Hust(i) = elephant. Kroap(i) = with rage. Moond = head. Cheesaan = cries of pain. Moorut(i) = beautiful image (holy person). 1.

Aah(i) = is. Joar(u) = power; support. Bukibo = yelling in anger. Pause.

Muhaavut = mahout; the elephant jockey. Daaroun Kaat(i) = cut you in pieces. Ghaalhou Saat(i) = hit him. Dhuraiy Dhiyaan(u) = focus mind on God. 2.

Upraaddh = crime. Baandh Poat = tie like a bundle. Koonchur = elephant. Numuskaaraiy = salute. Boojhi = understood; realized. Undhiyaaray = blind (of wisdom). 3.

Putiya = test. Mun Kutthoar = stone-like heart. Puteena = melted; convince. Chautahiy Pud = the highest spiritual level (above the three effects of Maya) – one with God. 4.

MEANING: My arms were tied around me to make an irregular bundle of me and they threw me on the ground in front of the elephant. The mahout hit the elephant hard on the head as if in fit of rage to move him. But the elephant ran to a side, crying as if in pain, saying that I am a sacrifice to this beautiful soul. 1.

The Qazi was yelling in anger at the mahout to move the elephant, but wow, it was Your power working behind the elephant, oh my Lord. Pause.

The Qazi yelled again at the mahout, asking him to hit the elephant hard to move him; otherwise, the Qazi would cut him (the mahout) down into pieces. But the elephant would not move as if God was living in his heart, and his mind was focused on Him. 2.

What crime had the saint (Kabir Sahib) committed so as to throw him like a bundle before the elephant? However, the elephant was saluting Kabir Sahib in the bundle (with his trunk) again, and again, but, blind to reality, the Qazi did not realize that. 3.
The Qazi tested it three times, but his stone-like mind did not melt (he remained unconvinced). My support was my God in whom my soul resides (whom I am always connected with), oh Kabir. 4.1.4.

Word Meaning: Maanus = human being. Dayo = god. Jutee = Celibates (a sect of yogis). Sayo = devotee of Shiva. Uvdhoota = one who has renounced the world; a sanyasi. Maayay = mother. 1.
Iyya Mundar = this mansion; human body. Busaayee = resides. Pause.
Girhee = family man. Oodaasi = turned away from the world. Raj = rajah. Bheekh Mungaasi = beggar. Pind(u) = body. Ruktoo = blood. Raati = miniscule amount. 2.
Tupaa = a self-inflictor who tortures himself to please some deity. Sheikh = an elite Muslim. Dugro = right path; destination. Uns(u) = offspring; part. Muns = ink. 3 & 4.

MEANING: Nobody has ever found the limits of the power that resides in our bodies and guides us. Pause.
This (invisible power) is neither a man nor a god. Neither is it a celibate nor a devotee of Shiva. Neither is it a yogi, nor is it a sanyasi (it is not different in different people; it is the same in everybody). It has no mother, and it is not a son of anybody. 1.
Neither is it a family man, nor is it detached from the world. Neither is it a rajah, nor is it a beggar. It has neither a body nor any blood, not even a drop. Neither is it a Brahman, nor is it a Khatri. 2. Neither is it called a self-inflictor devotee, nor an elite Muslim. It is seen neither to live nor to die. If someone cries to see it dying, he loses his dignity (because it is stupid to cry over the death of an invisible power). 3.
I have found the right path (to my destination) with the grace of the Guru, and my birth and death both have been eradicated. This hidden power is actually a part of God, and it cannot be separated from Him, just like ink is inseparable from the paper, oh Kabir. 4.2.5.

NOTE: Earlier, in Raag(u) Bilawal(u), Kabir Sahib wrote about the complaint by his mother about Kabir Sahib not paying the needed attention to his weaver's job, as a result of which, the family was suffering economic hardships. Now, it is His wife, Loyee, who also complains about Kabir Sahib spending too much time with and entertaining his holy friends, as a result of which the family does not have enough food to eat or beds to sleep. She also complains that Kabir Sahib is not spending enough time on weaving to earn enough money. (Kabir Sahib was a weaver by trade).

Word Meaning: Taagay = threads. Nikhooti = ran out. Paan(i) = starch that is applied to the cotton threads before weaving. Jhilkaaveh(i) = shine. Kaan = reeds. Kooch = brushes. Phooyay Phaal = fell apart. Moondiya = followers of Rama Nand; a sanyasi ascetic with shaved head. Sir(i) Chudhibo Kaal = death is looming over his head. 1.

Derb(u) = money. Aavut Jaavut = with coming and going (of visitors). Naak Sur = (life) has become miserable. Pause. Toori Naar(i) = tools of weaving. Chhoadi Baata = has forgotten completely. Vaa Ka = his. Raata = imbued. Lurikee = girl. Lurikun = boys. Khaibo Naah(i) = do not get to eat. Dhaapay Jaah(i) = eat to their fill. 2.

Mundar(i) = in the house. Baat = on the way. Saathur = bare floor. Khaat = bed. Moond Ploas(i) = massage head gently. Kumur Bundh(i) = waste band. Poathi = religious book. Chaabun(u) = roasted beans. Roti = full meal. 3.

Hooyay Aik = have same views. Boodut = drowning in the world sea. Tayk = support. Loyee = Kabir Sahib's wife. Baypeer(i) = without the Guru. Bhuj(i) = rush to. 4.

MEANING: Kabir Sahib's wife, Loyee, complains: The weaving threads have broken, the starch has run out, and reeds are shining on the door (of the handloom) (because the door is not being opened to weave). The brushes (large combs used to compress the warp threads) have fallen apart into individual teeth. (He has become so careless about his business) as if death were looming over his head. 1.

This sage (Kabir Sahib) is wasting away all his money. The coming and going (visiting) of his ascetic friends with their heads shaved has made my life miserable. Pause.

He has forgotten all about his weaving tools, and his mind is imbued with God's Naam. Our daughter and sons do not get to eat, whereas his (Kabir Sahib's) sage friends eat to their fill every day. 2.
One or two of them are already at our house daily, and one or two are on their way to come. We have to sleep on the floor, whereas they get beds. With the religious books on their waists, they arrive, gently massaging their shaven heads. They get cooked meals, whereas we get only roasted beans. 3.
Kabir Sahib responds: All of us, as devotees of God, have the same thinking, and they are the saviours of the people who are drowning in the sea of Maya. Listen to Kabir, oh you, blind of wisdom, Loyee, and rush to take the shelter of these holy men (to be emancipated). 4.2.6.

Word Meaning: Khusm(u) = husband; the owner. Naar(i) = wife (Maya or wealth). Rukhvaara = guard; owner. Aurou = other. Binaas = death. Aagaiy = next world. Eehaan = in this world. Bhog Bilaas = enjoyment of sensual pleasures. 1.
Soohaagun(i) = wife (Maya, which stays married all the time because there is always someone who is her husband who owns it). Pause.
Sohaiy Haar(u) = looks very attractive. Bikh = poison. Bigsaiy = blooms at heart; feels very happy. Sheengaar(u) = adornment. Pukhiyaari = prostitute (because it has many owners). Tthitthkee = frightened by. Bichaari = helpless. 2.
Paachhaiy Puraiy = chases them. Saakut = Maya-lover. Pind Purrayin = support of life. Drisht(i) = as I see. Trukh(i) = sharp; powerful. Daayin = witch. 3.
Bhayo = secret. Gurdayo = enlightening Guru. Unchul Luree = in the shelter.4.
MEANING: There is one woman (wealth) who is loved by the whole world, and who always stays married (because she always has a husband – some owner). Pause.
When Maya's husband dies, she does not cry because someone else becomes her guard (husband or owner). When the guard dies, he goes to hell in the next world because of his immoral deeds of sensual enjoyment with Maya in this world, which he had enjoyed. 1.

This ever-married woman (Maya) looks very attractive, and the minds of the world bloom to see her, but the holy saints think of her as being poisonous. She looks adorable, like a prostitute (which, too, like wealth, has many husbands), but the poor Maya feels frightened of the saints. 2.
She rushes to chase the saints as well, but is afraid of any punishment, as the saints are protected by the grace of the Guru. On the other hand, she is the life of the money-lovers. But the saints see her as a powerful witch. 3.
With God's benevolence, when I came into contact with the mind-enlightening Guru, I came to know her deep secrets (and discarded her). Now, away from me, she is in the shelter of the world, oh Kabir. 4.4.7.

Word Meaning: Greh(i) Sobha = adornment of the family (wealth). Puhhiya = (saintly) guests. Khoodhay = hungry. Vaa = their; them. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Sohaagun(i) = wealth. Doakh(u) = blame. 1. Puveet = pure; holy. Tupay = self-inflictors who endure hardships to please some deity. Doalaiy Cheet = show weakness of mind. Pause.
Kirpun = money-lover. Pooti = (loved like a) daughter. Tuj(i) = excepting. Sooti = is loved by. Tthaandhi = waiting. Nistaar(i) = salvage. 2.
Ut(i) Soondari = extremely beautiful. Pug Nayver = anklet on the feet. Chhunuk Chhunhuree = making musical sounds. Juou Lug(u) = as long as. Tuou Lug(u) = till then. Sungay = with. Bayg(i) = in a rush. Nungay = naked; empty. 3.
Bhuvun Traiy = all the three layers of the universe. Leeya = acquired; controlled. Rus = enjoy the luxuries. Baydhay = Chhayday = pierced; controlled. Bhooput = landlords. 4.

Oorvaar(i) = this world. Paar(i) = the next world. Punch Naarud = the five senses. Bidhvaar = mixed well. Mitvay = earthen wares; support. Phootay = broken. 5.

MEANING: (Despite many evil effects of money (Maya), it is essential for survival, and is an adornment in the family. Acknowledging the essentiality of money, Kabir Sahib says): From the household which does not have the adornment (benefit) of money, the visiting guests (holy men in particular) go away hungry. The family cannot be content without money, and it is blamed (for its inability to perform any noble deed). 1.
(If used in a responsible way) Money could be highly pious and worthy of praise (because one can use it for holy purposes). It is also pious in another sense that even the worshippers of gods become weak before it (and rather than bowing to the gods, they bow to Maya). Pause.
Maya is (loved like) a daughter by the money-lovers, and with the exception of the holy devotees, it is married to (is loved by) the whole world. It waits at the door of the Guru, requesting Him to emancipate her too (save her from being hated). 2.
Maya is extremely beautiful (attractive), like a beautiful woman who is wearing anklets, making musical sounds. However, it is with the owner only as long as he is alive; otherwise, it leaves him naked (without any wealth) in a rush. 3.
Maya has conquered all three levels of the universe. Even the eighteen Puranas and the holy places promote their attractions (people worship them to acquire Maya). Maya has pierced (captivated) the minds of even the gods like Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva, and has not spared even the big landlords and the rajahs. 4.
Maya fully cooperates (is very friendly) with the five senses of the man, and keeps him trapped by its attractions; however, it does not provide everlasting comfort in this world, and does not permit its lovers to swim across its sea (find salvation). But, with Guru's grace, all my five demons, as the perishable containers (of Maya), have broken, and I have been emancipated, oh Kabir. 5.5.8.

Word Meaning: Mundar = house. Bulhur = joist; beam. Tthaahraiy = stay. Paar Ootriay = swim across; find salvation. Koombh = vessel. Ubgut(u) = without emancipation. 1. Jaaroun = burn. Rumut Ruhaiy = enjoys sensual pleasures. Khaytaiy = in the field of body. Pause. Hulhur = tiller. Boyiyaiy = seeded. Soot = thread. Munee Proyiyaiy = string the beads. Ghoondi = twist. Guntth = knot. Churraayiyaiy = raise; make. Sadhu = Guru. 2. Baal = child. Bimb = water. Ghor = horse. Usvaar = rider. Durvaar = God's Court. 3. Phayri = dancing steps. Doohaagun(i) = widow; unfortunate; bad-tempered. Tuj(i) = disregard. Aouhayri = rejected; insulted. Kur(i) Kerna = task worth performing. 4.

MEANING: Like (the roof of) a house, which cannot stay without a beam, a man cannot find salvation without God's Naam. Just as water cannot remain (in control) without a vessel, the human mind cannot remain in control without the Guru, and the man leaves this world without being salvaged (burdened with bad deeds). 1.

I will burn the mind which simply enjoys sensual pleasure for the body, and does not remember God's Naam. Pause.

Like a field, which cannot be seeded without ploughing it, and beads cannot be strung without a thread; and just like a knot cannot be made without twisting the rope, one leaves the world unsalvaged (still attached to Maya) without the Guru. 2.

Just as a child cannot be produced without a mother and a father, and clothes cannot be washed without water, and just like there can be no rider without a horse, one cannot have access to God's Court without the Guru. 3.

Just as there is no dancing without music, and a woman cannot be married without a husband (there is no spirituality without the Guru). There is only one thing worth doing to acquire spirituality - and that is, to take shelter of the Guru whereby the devotee will not have to die again, oh Kabir. 4.6.9.

Tuskur = thief. Taat(i) = jealousy. Inderi Kaiy Jutun = with the efforts to control the senses. Lukhun = virtues. Ut(i) Roop = extremely handsome. Bichukhun = wise. 4.
MEANING: What a word means all depends upon the way you interpret it. For example, the world believes that the word "Kootun(u)" means a rogue. Pause.
But I believe a "Kootun(u)" is a person who beats up his mind (to stop it from immoral thinking). If one beats up his mind, he becomes free from the Angel of spiritual death. A person who beats up his mind and tests it again and again achieves complete freedom (emancipation). 1.
(Some people believe that they can please their deity by dancing as a ritualistic act), But I believe that a true dancer is the one who dances from the heart, because God cannot be pleased with falsehood. He can be pleased only with honest love. A real dancer is the devotee who plays the correct tune (to Guru's Shabad) so that his mind dances (blooms) with joy of union with God, who becomes the guard of the mind of such a dancer. 2.
Similarly, a true street entertainer is one who entertains and purifies his street-like body (a stage for performance) and his five impure senses. He recognizes the worship of God, who is the Lord of the earth with nine regions. I will acknowledge such an entertainer as Guru. 3. Likewise, a true thief is the one who steals (controls) his feeling of jealousy, and recites God's Naam with the effort to steal (control) his five senses. My mind-enlightening Guru is praise-worthy, extremely handsome, and wise, with whose grace I have acquired noble virtues, oh Kabir. 4.7.10.

Word Meaning: Gopal = God. Unaad(i) = grains. Kuvul = lotus-like (heart). Tehkayv = blooms. Milibo = get connected with. Saaringpaani = God. 1.
Aad(i) Purakh = the Supreme Being; God. Unn = food. Saad(i) = while enjoying. Pause.
Umbhaiy = water. Neeka = beautiful. Vunn(u) = colour. Teen(i) Bhuvun = universe. 2.

Paakhund = hypocrisy. Rund = without husband. Buktay = call (promote) themselves. Doodhadhaari = who live only on milk. Goopti = in hiding. Vutika = a delicious ball of cooked ingredients. 3.
Sookaal(u) = good times; no suffering due to shortage of food. Tujiyain = giving up. 4.
NOTE: Some people believe that one can realize God by not eating grain-based foods. Kabir Sahib strongly disapproves of this belief and calls such people hypocrites.
MEANING: God, as the Great Guru, deserves our respect as He has created food grains for us. Food grains also deserve respect because the heart of a hungry person blooms like a lotus when he eats food made of grains. Those holy saints are also great who recognize the importance of grain food and recognize God by thankfully worshipping Him. 1.
Food grains are created by the Supreme Being, and we should thankfully recite His Naam while enjoying the taste of different foods. Pause.
A man who lives without food grains loses respect in the entire world because he does not give up water, which gives attractive colours to food grains, so what is the justification to give up eating food grains, which cannot grow without water? In fact, we should be thankful to God for providing us with the food grains, which we must respect, and recite Waheguru's Naam for His kindness. 2. A man who gives up eating food grains is a hypocrite; he is like a woman who is neither married (loved by her husband) nor a widow. Such people promote themselves as consumers of milk products only, but in hiding, eat the whole ball of delicious cooked grains. 3.
We cannot have good times (live comfortably) without grain foods, and one cannot realize God by giving them up. I have fully realized in my mind that the Lord is Great and worthy of our worship, who has created food grains, which we must show respect for, oh Kabir. 4.8.11.

Simer(i), simer(i) Gobindun(g). Bhuj(u) Naama Turs(i) sindhun(g). 4.1.
NOTE: The ignorant masses had been so misled by the religious leaders that some of them were willing to do anything to please their deities, or to have some other wishes fulfilled. In asumaydh yugs, horses were sacrificed. Normally, the rajahs used to perform such yagnas. Some other rituals included donating gold equal in weight to the deity or taking dips at holy places, like Prayag (present Allahabad, which is at the confluence of the rivers Ganga and Yamuna), and the like. Nam Dev Ji strongly disapproves of such meaningless practices in this Shabad.

Word Meaning: Toola Purakh Daanay = donate gold equal to one's own weight. 1.
Tuou = those. Poojay = match. Keerut(i) = praise. Aalsiya = lazy. Pause.
Guyya = another holy place. Pind(u) Bherta = distribute small balls of barley or rice flour with the belief that they reach their ancestors. Us(i) = a river near Banaras (Varanasi). 2.
Uchhita = is; has; obeys. Drirrta = keeps under control. Khut Kerm = the six responsibilities of Brahmans = receive, and provide education; perform yagnas, and make others do it; give and receive donations. Sehit = with. 3.
Shiva Shukut(i) Sumbaadun(g) = narration of the whole Ramayana by Shiva to Parbati before its actual happening. Sugul = all. Bhaydun(g) = acts that cause separation from God. Turs(i) = to swim across. Sindhun(g) = sea (of Maya).

MEANING: People may perform yagna with the sacrifice of a horse, or may donate gold equal to their own weight, or may take dips at the holy city of Prayag (Allahabad), but none of such acts can match praising God, or reciting His Naam. Remember your true Lord, God, oh my lazy mind. 1 & Pause.
One may distribute balls made of barley or rice flour at the holy place of Guyya, or live on the bank of the holy river Us(i), which flows by Banaras, or may recite all four Vedas by heart (none of such acts connects him with God). 2.
One may observe all the religious rituals, or control his senses with the advice of his Guru, or may perform all six assigned responsibilities (none of which is approved by God). 3.
One may study the whole Ramayana, but all such acts create more distance between God and the man. So, quit all such rituals, and recite God's Naam by which you will be able to swim across the sea of Maya (and find salvation), oh my mind. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Naad = music. Bhermay = captivates. Mirgaayay = the musk deer. Tujaiy = gives up. Vaa Ko = of that. 1.
Hayroun = (I) see; view. Unut = some other side. Phayroun = turn. Pause.
Meena = fish. Pushooaara = fisherman. Gudhtay = designing. Soonaara = goldsmith. 2.
Bikhuyyi = lustful. Pur Naari = other women. Kaudaan = cowrie shells. Daarut = throwing. Jooaari = gambler. 3.

MEANING: Like a special music captivates the musk deer to the extent that he may lose his life, but does not take his mind away from the music, I see God the same way, and do not turn my mind to any other idea to forget God. 1 & Pause.

Like a fisherman who keeps a sharp eye on the fish; and a like a goldsmith who watches the gold ornament carefully when designing it; and like a lustful man who watches other women; and like a gambler who focuses his mind when casting the cowrie shells (like casting dice), I recite God's Feet (His Naam) with full concentration, and see Him in every direction in which I look, oh Naama (Nam Dev). 3 &4.2.

Word Meaning: Mo kuou = me. Taar(i) lay = salvage. Ajaan(u) = inexperienced. Turibay = swimming. Beetthula = oh, Lord. Baanh day = support with your arm. Pause. Soor = god. Jaat = transforms. Nimukh Meh(i) = in a moment. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Sikhlaayee = taught. Oopuj(i) = born as. Uvkhudh = medication. 1.
Dhoo = Dhroo = a devotee in the Satyug eon. Naarud(u) = a son of Brahma, and a devotee of God. Taykaiy = stabilized. Naiyk(u) = always. Avilumbh(i) = pillar; support.2.

MEANING: I am inexperienced and do not know how to swim. I am drowning in the sea of Maya, so save me, and extend Your arm to ferry me across the sea of Maya, oh God. Pause. With the Guru's advice, one can transform from a human to a god in no time. Born as a human, I have killed the desire to go to paradise with the medication that I have received from the Guru in the form of His advice. (Paradise in no match for the blissfulness that one attains from union with God). 1.
Kindly grant me forever that spiritual state where You have stabilized Dhuroo and Nard, oh Lord. It is my personal belief that many people have found salvation with God's Naam, which supports one's mind (protects it from weakening) like a pillar supports a building, oh Nama (Nam Dev). 2.3.

Word Meaning: Taalabayli = nervousness. Buchhray = calf. Gaayay = cow. Ukayli = alone; lonely. 1.
Tulphaiy = wriggles; suffers badly. Baapro = poor; weak; helpless. Pause.
Chhootla = gets free. Thun Chokhta = sucks the udder. Ghootla = takes sips. 2.
Naraayin = God. Alukh(u) = invisible; incomprehensible. Lukhaaya = showed. 3.
Bikhaiy Hayt = in the love for lust. Pur Naari = other women. Mooraari = God. 4.
Taaptay = burn; suffer. Nirmul Ghaama = pure (unobstructed, intense) heat. 5.
MEANING: like a cow which feels lonely without her Calf, and like a fish which wriggles (suffers) without water. I, Nam Dev, feel nervous without God's Naam. 1 & Pause.
Like a calf, which feels enjoyment while sucking the udder of his mother, and takes sips of butter (milk) when he is let loose; I feel blissful to get connected with the Lord when the Guru showed me the incomprehensible God, oh Nam Dev. 2 &3.
Like a lustful man, who looks for other women for the love of his gratification, I love God like that. And just like the unobstructed heat burns one's skin (causes discomfort), I feel wretched without God's Naam, oh Nama (Nam Dev). 4 &5. 4.

Word Meaning: Mitay = clearedd. Bherma = misgivings. Ootum = superior. Dherma = noble deeds. Kool = clanship. Huree = removed; becomes meaningless. Undhulay Kee Laakri = the guide stick of the blind; support. 1.
Numustay = Numeh = bow to; salute. Jumeh = of the Angel of death. Pause.
Henakhush = en evil king and the father of bhugut Prehlaad. Ajaiy Mul = A Brahman condemned as immoral because he married a prostitute!!! Baiykoontthay = in paradise. Sooaa = parrot. Gunika = a prostitute whom a sage gave a parrot to teach him to say God. While teaching the parrot, Gunika herself was reciting God's Name, so she was salvaged. Naiynou = of eyes. Pootri = lashes (apple of eye). 2.
Pootna = a witch who was hired by Kuns to kill the child Krishna; but Krishna forgave her. Baal Ghaatni = child-killer. Kupteh Bhuree = full of deceit. Droapud Soot = the daughter of king Droapud, and the wife of the five Pandvaas. Gautum Sutee = (the highly moral Ahilliya, the wife of sage Gautum, who was raped by god Indra with the moon as an Kaysi = a wrestler of Kuns who was the maternal uncle of Krishna and wanted to have Krishna killed. Muthun = destruction. Jea-Daan(u) = spared life. Kaali = a dangerous snake in River Yamuna which had struck terror among the people. Pernvaiy = submits respectfully. Jaas(u) = whom. Bhaiy = fears. Upda = trouble. Turee = avoided. 4.

MEANING: All my misgivings were cleared by reciting God's Naam. You, too, recite God's Naam, as this is the supreme deed, oh my friend. One's lower caste or clan become redundant (nobody pays any attention to them) when one recites God's Naam, which is the guiding stick for the blind (ignorant mind). 1.
When one bows to God with reverence, one does not have any fear of the Angel of Death. Pause. God took the life of evil Hernakhsh, and granted room to "the sinner" Ajaiy Mulin in Paradise (emancipated Him). Gunika also got emancipated when she taught a parrot to utter "God". Such God is the apple of my eye. 2.
The deceitful and the child-killer, Pootna, also found salvation by reciting God's Naam. Likewise, the daughter of King Droapud was also liberated when she recited God's Naam. And Ahilliya, the wife of sage Gautam, was emancipated for her faith in God. 3.
It was God who destroyed Kaysi, and Kuns, and spared the life of snake Kaali, which had struck terror among the people living near the River Yamuna. Nam Dev humbly submits that God is such that all one's fears and troubles disappear by reciting His Naam. 4.1.5.

Word Meaning: Bhairon = an incarnation of Shiva, and is an ugly and scary figure. His temples are found in Southern India. Bhoot = ghost; a frightening figure. Seetla = a goddess believed to cause smallpox. She rides a donkey. Bahn = ride; vehicle.
Chhaar(u) = dirt. Oodaavaiy = spreads; raises. Huoun = I. Rumuyyiya = God. Laiyhoun = opt for. Aan = other. Dayv = gods. Budlaavun(i) = in trade. Pause.
Dhiyaavaiy = remembers. Burd Chudhay = rides an ox. Duouroo = tambourine. Dhumkaavaiy = rattles. 2.
Muhaa Maayee = Parbati (wife of Shiva). Aouturaiy = is born. Aad(i) = primal.

NOTE: It is a common belief that a devotee becomes like the deity he worships. Bhairon, an incarnation of Shiva, has ghost-like looks. The goddess Seetla, is believed to be the root of smallpox and rides a donkey. Shiva rides an ox and rattles a tambourine.

MEANING: A person who worships Bhairon, will begin to look like an ugly ghost, and the devotee of goddess Seetla, will, at the most, ride a donkey and spread around dirt.1.
If I could, I would opt for God only and would trade all other gods for him. Pause.
An individual who worships Shiva by uttering "Shiva, Shiva", will, at the most, ride a bull and rattle a tambourine (a dumb-bell-shaped small drum). 2.
A person who worships Parbati (a goddess) will be born as a female in their next life. 3.
The goddess Durga is considered to be the primal power, but at the time of emancipation, she too goes in hiding somewhere (has no power to emancipate her devotees). 4.
So, it is my humble submission that hold on to (sing with full faith) God's praise (recite His Naam) with Guru's advice, oh Nam Dev. 5.2.6.

Word Meaning: Aaj = today; in this life. Beetthul(u) = God. Pause.
Paanday = oh Pundit. Gaayaytri = a three-line holy mantra of Hindus. She was cursed by a sage to become a Cow. Lodhay = of a farmer. Tthaynga = a heavy stick. Tungree = leg. Laangut = limping. 1. Mahadeo = Shiva. Modi = some devotee. Vaa Ka = His. 2. Surbur = battle. Joyay = wife. Guvaayee = lost. 3.
Turkoo = Muslim. Giyani = devotee of God. Dayhoora = temple. Museet(i) = mosque. 4.
MEANING: (You have too many gods to worship, but none of them is even close to God, oh, Pundit). I have seen (realized) the true God recently, and have found out that He is like none of your popular gods, which have so many weaknesses. Let me explain to you the weakness in your gods and goddesses, oh, the ignorant, Pundit. Pause.
Gayatri, whom you worship by reciting her Mantra, which you believe to be very holy, is actually a cursed goddess who was transformed into a cow by Brahma. Once, she was grazing in a farmer's field when she broke her leg with a stick, and she was seen limping.
1. I also saw (leant about) your Shiva riding a white bull. A devotee arranged a feast in his honour, but rather than being kind and thankful to him, Shiva killed his son in anger. 2.

I saw your god Ram Chand(u) too. He fought a battle against Ravun because he had lost his wife to him (Ravun). (Such are your gods!!). 3.
So, as far as Divinity is concerned, the Hindu is completely blind (ignorant), and the Muslim is blind of one eye (half ignorant because he does believe in one God, Allah, but believes He is to reside on the seventh sky, and in Mecca only. The Knowledgeable (connected with God is wiser than both. Hindu worships idols in the temple, while the Muslim worships Allah In the Mosque. But I worship the "One" which resides neither in the temple, nor in the Mosque only), oh Nam Dev. 4.3.7.

Word Meaning: Mookund = the liberator; God. Aouhaar = perishable. 1. Anunday = bliss. Pause. Praanun(g) = life. Neeshaanun(g) = stamp of approval. Baiyraagi = worldly detached. Doorbul = weak; poor. Dhun(u) = wealth. Laadhi = acquired. 2. Oopkaar = favour. Mayti = removed; is rendered irrelevant. Durbaar(i) = a resident of God's Court. Joag, Joog = in every eon. 3. Oopjiyo = came into being, appeared. Pergaas = enlightenment. Keet = worm. Daas = slave; devotee. Trishna = worldly desires. Chooki = ended. Taahoo Kee = His. 4.

MEANING: Recite the Naam of God; without reciting His Naam, the human body simply goes to waste, oh folks. God is our emancipator, and is our father and mother. 1.
A devotee, who recites God's Naam while living and at the time of death, is always blissful. Pause. God is (the source of) our life. When a devotee recites His Naam, he gets the stamp of God's approval on his forehead. Serving God makes one fully detached from worldly attractions. Also, His Naam is the wealth for the weak (humble). 2.
If God favours someone (one has His support), what harm can the world cause to him? His low caste becomes irrelevant (nobody cares about his caste), and he is given room in God's Court (becomes "one" with God). You are the emancipator in every eon, oh God. 3.
God became benevolent to this worm (me) and accepted me as his devotee. Now, my mind has been enlightened with the Divine Knowledge, and my worldly desires have ended.

Reciting His Naam is the best service to God, oh Ravidass. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Sadh = holy saint; Guru. Ninduk(u) = malicious critic; vilifier. Tyraiy = find salvation. Surpur = for sure. Pause.

Oh(u) = that; the vilifier. Utth-Sutth(i) = 8+60 = 68. Dooadus Silaa = the 12 Shiva-Lingums (his genitals) which are worshipped by the Hindus. Koop = wells. Tutaa = safe access to some river or lake for water. Nind = vilification. Birtha = unrewarded. 1. Grehn = eclipse. Koolkhayt(i) = Kurukshetra (a Hindu holy city where, according to Mahabharat, the war between the Kaurvas and the Paandvas is believed to have taken place. It is believed that a visit to Kurukshetra during the solar eclipse is a holy deed. Urpaiy = offer. Naar(i) = wife. Servnee = with ears. Nuhee Goonaiy = is of no use. 2. Persaad = food for the idols. Sobha = praise; respect. Mundup(i) = in the world. Bigaar(i) = suffer loss. Biraana Saandhaiy = helps others in solving their problems. Joani = lives.3. Pergut(i) = becomes infamous. Pahaara = shop (business) of meanness. Soadh(i) Saadh = after careful analysis. Nerk(i) Sidhaariya = goes to hell. Joarr(u) = total sum.

MEANING: How can a malicious critic (vilifier) of the Guru (or a holy saint) find salvation? Be assured that he will go to hell for sure. Pause.

Even if a vilifier takes dips at all sixty-eight holy places, or worships at all the twelve temples housing the lingams of Shiva, or if he digs wells or pools to provide water to the public, he wastes all that credit if he vilifies the Guru. 1.

If he visits Kurukshetra during solar eclipses and offers his wife (to the Brahmans) along with all her ornaments, or if he listens to all the Simritis with his ears, but vilifies the Guru, he gets no credit for any of such “virtuous” deeds. 2.

If he offers a variety of rich foods to the idols, donates land in charity, and earns praise in the world, or if he suffers personal loss to help others, he still goes through countless life forms (takes rebirths in many different life forms) if he slanders the Guru. 3.

Why do you vilify a holy saint, oh world! A vilifier becomes highly infamous in the world for his business of meanness. After careful analysis, it has been found out that a vilifier is that sinner which goes to hell for sure, oh Ravidass. 4.2.11.7.2.49.
