Soyee chund(u) churreh(i), say taaray, soyee diniur(u) tupt ruhhaiy. Sa dherti, so paun(u) jhoolaaray, joog- jea khaylay thaanv kaisay. 1. Jeevun tulb nivaar(i). Hovaiy pervaana kureh(i) dhingaana, Kul(i) lukkhun veechaar(i). 1. Ruhaou. Kitaiy days(i) na aaya sooniyaiy, teeruth paas(i) na baiyttha. Daata daan(u) kuraiy, teh naahi, mehl oosaar na baiyttha. 2. Jay ko sut(u) kuraiy so chheejaiy, tup ghur(i) tup na hoyee. Jay ko Naaoun luyyay budnaaveen, Kul(i) kay lukkhun ehee. 3. Jis(u) sikdaari, tiseh(i) khooaari, chaakur kaahay derna. Ja sikdaariay puvvaiy junjeeri, ta chaakur huthoun merna. 4.

NOTE: Since the advent of humanity on Earth, Hindu Granths have divided time into four eras – Satyug, Treta (Trayta), Duapar (Dooaapur), and Kaliyug (Kalyug). Kalyug, the present eon, is considered to be the worst of the four in terms of religiosity and morality. They also believe that, like Satan, the demon-like Kaliyug can take a human form and influence the minds of the people to force them to perform immoral deeds. Guru Nanak Sahib does not believe in this type of categorization of time; He, rather, believes that it is the behaviour of the people that defines any time period.

Word Meaning: Soyee = Say = Sa= the same. Diniur(u) = sun. Tupt = shines hot. Paun Jhoolaaray = wind blows. Joog Jea = the human form of Kalyug. Khaylay = plays tricks. 1. Tulb = demands; wishes. Nivaar(i) = get rid of. Pervaana = accepted. Dhingaana = aggression. Lukkhun = qualities; symptoms. Pause.

Teeruth = holy places. Daata = donors. Daan(u) = donations. Oosaar = construct. 2. Sut(u) = high morality; service to people. Chheejaiy = loses (respect); is demoralized. Tup = enduring hardships. Tup Na = not real; only show off. Naaoun = Waheguru's Naam. Budnaaveen = earn bad name. 3.

Sikdaari = position of authority. Khooaari = humiliation. Chaakur = servant (Waheguru's devotee). Kaahay = what for? Junjeeri = chain (of justice). Huthoun = at the hands of. Merna = given punishment.

MEANING: (You claim that Kulyug - In the form of a human - has arrived in the world, that's why the people are becoming less religious and more immoral, oh pundit. But I do not see him anywhere. Like in any eon, it is the same moon and the same stars that rise in the sky, and the same sun that shines hot. It is the same earth, the same wind that blows; so, where is Kalyug playing his tricks on the minds of the people? 1.

It is the real Kalyug when the people in power cause aggression against the weaker, and such aggression is accepted (as justified). These are the symptoms of the arrival of Kalyug. You need to get rid of your unjust demands (and you will not see any Kalyug), oh pundit. Pause.

I have not heard him come to any part of the country or sit by any holy place. Nobody has seen him near the donors where they are making donations (to stop them), nor has he been seen building some palace to live in. 2.

It is the real Kalyug when a person, who serves humanity, is demoralized by others; and when a person seemingly endures self-afflicted hardships (to please his deity), but only to impress people (when he is not honest about his pursuit); or when a devotee recites Waheguru's Naam, but is given a bad name (is ridiculed). 3.

(There is no Kalyug as you believe, oh Pundit. Waheguru's laws are always the same, no matter what the era is, even if the aggressors or the corrupt justify their immoral practices. If a person in power is corrupt, he will suffer humiliation (be punished in Waheguru's Court) while Waheguru's servants (devotees) are not afraid of anything (and why should they be?). When the corrupt official is tried in Waheguru's Court, Waheguru's devotees do not testify in his favour (even though his actions were approved in the world) as a result of which the corrupt official is given punishment (we can say that he suffered at the hands of the devotees). In other words, only the guilty are punished, not the innocent, no matter what the crime and the era is. 4.

NOTE: The word "Chaakur" used after Sikdaari in stanza four seems to mean the servants of the Sikdaar. But it does not fit the intent of the sentence because most likely the assistants of a corrupt official are also corrupt, and they should also be afraid of the possible consequences of their corrupt practices. Read the following Shabad carefully.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮਹਲਾ 1, ਮਲਾਰ ਕੀ ਵਾਰ (1288)॥ ------- ਰਾਜੇ ਸੀਹ ਮੁਕਦਮ ਕੁਤੇ॥ ਜਾਇ ਜਗਾਇਨਿ ਬੈਠੇ ਸੁਤੇ॥ ਚਾਕਰ ਨਹਦਾ ਪਾਇਨ੍ਹਿ ਘਾਉ॥ ਰਤੁ ਪਿਤੁ ਕੁਤਿਹੋ ਚਟੁ ਜਾਉ॥ ----

Meaning: The rajahs have become (are acting like) lions, and their tax collectors have become dogs (to suck the blood of the public, i.e., to rob them forcibly of their wealth), and they arrive at any inconvenient time to torture them. Their servants (assistants) wound the public like dogs and suck their remaining blood and eat flesh.

It is clear from the above holy Sloak that if a high official is corrupt, their assistants will also be corrupt. So, it is highly unlikely that the assistants of a corrupt "sikdaar" will be honest. So, "chaakur" means a servant (a devotee) of Waheguru in this Shabad; only a devotee of Waheguru can be fearless.

(PAGE 903): ---------- Aakh(u) Goonaa Kul(i) aayiyaiy. Tihoun joog kayra ruhhiya tupaavus(u), jay goon dayh(i), ta paayiyaiy. 1. Ruhaou. Kul(i) kulvaali, Shurah nibaayrri, qazi Krishna hoa. Bani Brahma, Bayd(u) Atherbun(u), kerni keerut(i) luhhiya. 5. Put(i) vin(u) pooja, sut vin(u) sunjum, jut vin(u) kaahay junayoo? Naavhou, dhovhou, tilk churravhou, sooch vin(u), soach na hoyee. 6. Kul(i) pervaan(u) Kutayb, Koran(u). Pothi, Pundit ruhhay Puraan. Nanak naaoun bhuyya Rehman(u). Kur(i) Kerta tu Aiko jaan(u). 7. Nanak, Naam(u) milaiy vudiyaayee, aidoon oopur(i) kerm(u) nuhee. Jay ghur(i) hoanday mungun jaayiyaiy, phir(i) olaahma milaiy tuhee. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Aakh Goonaa = sing Waheguru's praise. Kul(i) = Kulyug. Tihoun = the three. Kayra = of. Tupaavus(u) = decision. Pause.

Kulvaali = source of disputes. Shurah = the Muslim law. Nibayrri = the judge. Qazi = religious leader and judge. Krishna = black (Krishna was of dark colour); immoral; corrupt. Bayd(u) Atherbun(u) = the Veda of Kulyug. It contains mantras on magic and witch-craft. Kerni = noble deeds. Keerut(i) = singing praise of Waheguru. Luhhiya = come off. 5.

Put(i) = husband; Lord; Waheguru. Vin(u) = without. Sut = high morality. Sunjum = effort to control on senses. Jut = control on lust. Tilk = anointment. Sooch = mental purity. Soach = external cleanliness. 6.
Pervaan(u) = approved. Kutayb = Bible, Torah etc. Pothi = Hindu Granths. Ruhhay = lowered in status. Kur(i) Kerta = the doer and the creator. Jaan(u) = recognize. 7.
Vudiyaayee = respect. Aidoon = than this. Kerm(u) = deed. Hoanday = having in possession. Olaahma = blame; shame. Tuhee = there. 8.

MEANING: No matter how the people in the other three eons worshipped their deities, the final decision is that only Waheguru's praise emancipates people. So, now that Kalyug is here, it is time to sing Waheguru's virtues (recite His Naam), oh Pundit. However, we can do that only if Waheguru kindly gives His Naam to us (implants in our hearts). Pause.
Now, under the rule of the Muslims, the judgments are delivered under the Islamic Laws (which promote disputes), and the Qazis, who are also the judges, have become corrupt. The Vedas of Brahma, including the Atherban(u) Veda (which promotes magic and witchcraft), have become popular (among the Hindus) while the high moral character and Waheguru's praise have been brushed aside. 5.
What kind of worship is it without Waheguru (as the deity), and what kind of control on senses is it without high moral character? And what is the use of wearing janayoo if one has no control over his lust? The pundit bathes and washes his body every day, and anoints his forehead, but what kind of purity is that if the mind is not pure? 6.
It is Kalyug(i) when the books of the West, like the Koran and the Bible, become the official religious books of the land, and the importance of the Hindu Granths, the Pundit, and the Puranas has been reduced. Now God is known as Rehman. However, one must remember that there is only one doer and the creator (Waheguru). 7.
One earns respect only with Waheguru's Naam, and there is no deed higher than this. If one goes begging for things he has at home, he faces shame (If we worship Allah under coercion when we believe in our Perfect Waheguru, it is certainly a matter of shame for us), oh Nanak. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Perbodheh(i) = preaches. Murri = body; belly. Budhaaveh(i) = nourishes well. Aasun(u) = seat; Waheguru's support (Naam). Tiyaag(i) = by relinquishing. Sach(u) = Waheguru. Mumta Moh(u) = affection for worldly things. Kaamun(i) = woman; wife. Hitkaari = loves. Aoudhooti = detached from the world. Sunsaari = family man. 1.

Baiys Ruhou = stay with focused mind. Doobidha = indecisiveness (Maya or God?). Bhaagaiy = goes away. Maangut = beg. Laaj = shame. Pause.

Geet = songs. Cheeneh(i) = recognize; analyze. Aap(u) = self. Niveraiy = be removed. Pertaap(u) = heat; fire of desires. Ruchaiy = get absorbed. Bhaayay = like. Bhikhiya = Bheekh = alms. Sehj(i) Veechaari = pondering on the high spiritual state. 2.

Bhusm churraayay = coats body with ash. Paakhund(u) = show off. Dund(u) = punishment. Phootaiy = broken. Khaapur = a dish to collect alms; heart. Bhaayay = love for God. Bundhun Baandhiya = tied in worldly bonds. Aavaiy Jaayay = takes birth and dies. 3.

Bind = semen; lust. Jutee = celibate. Maayee = wealth. Traiy = the three effects of Maya. Lobhaaveh(i) = is engrossed. Nirduyya = merciless. Jot(i) Oojaala = brightness of God's Light (enlightenment). Boodut Boday = drowns slowly. Serb Junjaala = all worldly nets. 4.

MEANING: Don't you feel ashamed of begging from door to door, oh yogi? Stay in Waheguru's shelter with a focused mind, and your indecisiveness (wavering of mind to choose between Waheguru and Maya) will go away. Pause.

The yogi preaches to the world, but nourishes his body well, because of which his belly grows big. How can he get connected with God when he relinquishes His support (does not sing His praise)? He is strongly bonded to his family and other worldly attractions, and loves his wife. That way, he is neither detached from the world nor a family man in the true sense. 1.

He does sing religious songs (to preach to the people), but does not recognize himself (his own weaknesses). How can the fire of his worldly desires, from which he is suffering, be put out by singing songs only as a show off? He can connect with Waheguru (and kill his desires) only if he likes Guru's Shabad, and gets absorbed in that; and rather than begging from door to door, he begs for (ponders on) Guru's Shabad to attain the high spiritual state. 2.

He hypocritically coats his body with ash (to look unattractive to women), but has to endure the punishment of the Angel of justice for his love for Maya. Just as alms cannot be held in a broken dish, Waheguru's Naam does not stay in a heart that is divided into many pieces of thoughts; and bonded with worldly attractions, he continues to take births, and to die. 3.

He does not control his lust, but calls himself a celibate, and engrossed in Maya, he keeps begging for that. Unenlightened about spirituality, he is merciless and caught in many nets of Maya; he drowns slowly in the world sea. 4. ----------

---------- Bhaykh kureh(i), khintha, buhou thutooa. Jhoottho khayl(u) khaylaiy buhou nutooa. Untar(i) ugun(i) chinta buhou jaaray. Vin(u) kerma kaisay ootrus(i) paaray. 5. Moondraan phutuk bunaayee kaan(i). Mookt(i) nuhee bidiya bigiyaan. Jihva inderi saad(i) loobhaana. Pushoo bhuyay, nuhee mitaiy nishaana. 6. Tribidh(i) loga, tribidh(i) yoga. kuray su hoag(u). Jut(u), sut(u) sunjum(u), Sach(u) su cheet(i). Nanak yogi tirbhuvun meet(u). 8.2.

Word Meaning: Bhaykh = religious symbols. Khintha = a quilt of rags that the yogis wear. Thutooa = things for show off. Jhoottho = false. Khayl(u) = dramas. Nutooa = acrobat. Ugun(i) = fire (of worldly attractions). Chinta = worry. Jaaray = burns; causes discomfort. Kerma = Waheguru's benevolence; noble deeds. Ootrus(i) Paaray = find salvation. 5.

Moondraan Phutuk = glass earrings. Bidiya = divine knowledge. Bigiyaan = without knowledge. Jihva = tongue. Inderi = senses. Loobhaana = engrossed. Pushoo Bhuyyay = have animal-like behaviour. Nishaana = signs. 6.

Tribidh(i) = of three qualities (Maya). Loga = people. Chookus = is removed. Soga = sadness; worries. Oojul = pure. Saach(u) = the eternal God. Joogt(i) = technique. 7.

Nuou Nidh(i) = the nine treasures. Kernaiy Joag(u) = fully capable. Thaap(i) = create. Oothaapay = destroys. Hoag(u) = happens. Jut(i) = control on senses. Sut = high morality. Sunjum = efforts to control senses. Cheet(i) = in mind. Tirbhuvun = in the three worlds. 8.

MEANING: He wears a quilt of rags and other religious symbols just to show off. Like an acrobat, he performs many false (dishonest) acts (to please God), but his worries burn him inside (cause huge pain). How can he find salvation without noble deeds (or Waheguru's benevolence)? 5.

He wears glass earrings to show his faith in Shiva, but he is uneducated due to his lack of Divine Knowledge and remains bound to the world. His tongue and his other senses are engrossed in different tastes; his animal-like signs cannot be erased (are always visible). 6.

Just like the rest of the world, the yogi is also possessed by the attractions of Maya with three qualities. He can overcome his sadness (grief) of his inability to acquire it by pondering over the Guru's Shabad (when he will realize that Maya has no importance). Only Waheguru is pure, with whom he can become "one" with the Guru's Shabad. The true yogi is the one who ponders on this approach (of reciting the Guru's Shabad). 7.

You are capable of doing everything (are omnipotent), and You have control over the nine treasures, oh Waheguru. Waheguru creates and destroys at His Will, and only that which He wishes happens. The yogi, who has Waheguru in his mind at all times, controls his senses without any special effort and is the true celibate with high moral character. Such a yogi is the friend of everybody in the three worlds, oh Nanak. 8.2.

Undin(u) jaag(i) ruhhay liv laayee. Jeevun mookt(i) gut(i) untar(i) paayee. 4.
Word Meaning: Khut(u) = six; six-circled human body (yogis believe that there are six circles in the body through which the breath travels to the Tenth Door). Mut(u) = the communal place of the yogis. Baiyraagi = detached from the world. Soort(i) = thoughts. Dhoon(i) = focus of mind. Jaagi = awakened; enlightened. Unhud = auto-playing divine music. Leena = fully absorbed. Puteena = won over; convinced. 1.
Praani = oh, man. Gurmukh(i) = with Guru's advice. Smaayiyaiy = be absorbed. Pause.
Bivurj(i) = by stopping (controlling). Bhaytaiy = connects with. Ruttan = jewel-like precious. Nirmoluk = priceless (which cannot be bought). Heera = diamond. Tit(u) = (with) that. Raata = imbued. Dheera = contented. 2.
Mumta = parental love. Jum = death. Jundaar = killer. Moh(i) = me. Soh(i) = adorns. 3.
Nirunkaari = merges into Waheguru. Jaagay = appears. Doormut(i) = evil thoughts. Purhaari = kicked out. Jaag(i) Ruhhay= stay alert. Live Laayee = with fully focused mind. Jeevun-Mookt(i) = free from worldly bonds. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Untar(i) = inside. 4.
MEANING: One enjoys blissfulness by worshipping Waheguru, oh man. One finds Waheguru's Naam to be very sweet, and he gets fully absorbed in the Naam. Pause
For me, my body is like the communal place of the yogis, and my mind is fully detached from worldly attractions. Guru's Shabad is always in my thoughts, and my mind stays focused on it, by which it has been enlightened. My mind is absorbed in Guru's Shabad, and I feel as if Divine music is playing in my mind. My mind has been completely won over by Waheguru's Naam, which I recite with Guru's Shabad. 1.
One gets absorbed in Waheguru's Naam by keeping one's attachments with Maya at bay (controlling them). Waheguru connects His devotees with the Guru, who connects them with Waheguru (It is the Law of Waheguru that one can realize Him only by the grace of the Guru). Waheguru's Naam is a priceless diamond which cannot be bought for any price. Imbued in that, my mind is fully contented now. 2.
When a devotee worships Waheguru, his fear of death disappears, and he does not suffer from selfishness, ego, and worldly attractions, which are the root of mental sickness. With my mind adorned with the mind-purifying Waheguru's Naam, the killer Angel of (spiritual) death will not even come near me. 3.
When a devotee ponders on Guru's Shabad, his mind is enlightened with Guru's advice, his evil thinking is kicked out, and he becomes "one" with Waheguru. With his mind focused on Waheguru's Naam, he stays alert (against the attacks of Maya), and he attains the spiritual state where he is completely free from worldly bonds. 4.

Word Meaning: Alipt = Niraaray = fully detached. Goofa = cave, heart. Tuskur Punch = the five robbers (demons). Sunghaaray = destroyed. Pur Ghur = cast an evil eye on others' belongings. Dolaayay = allow weakening of mind. Sehj = high spiritual state. Niruntar(i) = omnipresent Waheguru (His Naam); continuous; always. 5.

Aoudhoota = detached from the worldly affairs = Baiyraagi. Tut(u) = the root of the universe (God). Proata = mind stitched with. Soota = asleep (in the love of worldly attachments). Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. 6.

Uvgut = incomprehensible God. Gut(i) = transcendence. Jaati = realized. Tuou = only then. Puchhaani = recognized. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Nibaani = fully detached, God. 7.

Soonn Smaadh(i) = meditative state where no ideas come to mind. Raata = imbued. Tuj(i) = by giving up. Huoun = selfishness and ego. Lobha = greed. Jaata = realized; made connection with. Gur Chaylay = disciple of the Guru; a Sikh. Dooja = love for the other (Maya). Mayt(i) = eradicating. Smaaniya = got absorbed. 8.

MEANING: The devotee kills (controls) his five demons (lust, greed, etc.) with the Guru's Shabad, and stays fully detached from worldly attractions while living in the family (he does not need to go to some cave to be detached). He does not allow his mind to be weak, keeping an evil eye on others' belongings, and, absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, he stays in a high spiritual state. 5. With his mind stitched with Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru (with His Shabad), the devotee always stays detached from worldly attractions. Asleep (engrossed) in worldly affairs, the world gets no spiritual enlightenment without the Guru's Shabad, and keeps taking births and dying. 6.

One understands the transcendence of the incomprehensible Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru with His Shabad, and realizes that it is the fully-detached Waheguru alone, which is present everywhere. He also begins to feel as if Divine music plays in his mind. 7.

Imbued in Waheguru's Naam, such a devotee overcomes his selfishness, ego, and greed, and stays in the meditative state above the effects of Maya. The mind of the disciple of the Guru is convinced with His Shabad, and free from the attractions of Maya, he gets absorbed in Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.3.

Word Meaning: Saaha = auspicious time for some ceremony. Guneh = calculate; consider. Beechaar(u) = worry. Bidh(i) = ways (Will). Huqam(u) = (Waheguru's) laws, Will. 1.
Paanday = oh, pundit. Ghur(u) = Waheguru's Residence. Luhhiyaiy = acquire. Pause.
Jotuk = fortune telling; astrology. Kaandi = the document of fortune; horoscope. Tutt(u) = the reality. Kuthni = whatever is said. Budoun Na = do not acknowledge. Chhaar = dirt; worthless. 2. Saila = rock, idol. Raatay = imbued. Maiylo Maiyla = only dirty; unholy. Gerb = ego. Nivaar(i) = getting rid of. Saaruth(i) = charioteer (of life). Praan = man. Kirtaaruth(i) = causing success. 3.
Vaachaiy = studies. Vaad(u) = aggressive discussions. Pitraan = ancestors. Cheenaiy = recognizes. Koyay = rare. Soajhi = enlightenment. 4.
Gunut Guniyaiy = going by astrology. Sehsa = worries. Jeeyaiy = mind. Theeyaaiy = happens. Upraadh = crime; sin. Bhaytay = connected with. Poorb(i) Kmaaya = based on previous deeds. 5.
Braham = Waheguru. Bherm(i) Bholaayiyaiy = misled by doubts. Dur = door. Baadhou = tied up. Bikaar(u) = worthlessly. Ridaiy = at heart. Achaar(u) = moral character. 6.
Ikk(i) = some. Doobidha = in indecisiveness. Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Residence. Adhaar(u) = support; basis. Mudhay = among. Ko = rare. Apaar(u) = great. 7.
Boora = bad. Bhulaa = good; noble. Sach(u) = Waheguru. Boojh(u) = get understanding. Taykaiy = in the shelter. Virleen = rare. Mayt(i) = eliminating. Smaaniya = get absorbed. 8. Serb-Gooni = having all qualities (Waheguru). Bhaanaiy = as per His Will. Saach(i) = by Waheguru's Naam. 9.

MEANING: A Guru's Sikh recognizes Waheguru's Huqam (His Will), and unlike most people, does not pay any attention to auspicious (or inauspicious) times because He knows that Waheguru's Will is above all such man-predicted good or bad times. But only that Sikh understands Waheguru's Huqam who comes to the Guru's shelter. 1.
(The Pundit misguides people by stressing on the importance of auspicious and inauspicious times for ceremonies, to fleece them; so, Guru Sahib advises him): Do not lie to people, and tell them the truth (that there are no good or bad times per se), oh pundit. You should rather overcome your ego so as to have access to Waheguru's Palace (to get connected with Him). You make a few calculations to construct a horoscope for people, and you do read your holy books to educate the masses, but you do not realize the reality of Waheguru. Pondering on Guru's Shabad is the supreme of all deeds of worship; I do not acknowledge anything else that is said by people like you, as it is all dirt (meaningless) for me, oh pundit. 2.

The pundit takes his bath, washes himself to cleanse his body and clothes, and worships idols. But without getting imbued in Waheguru's Naam, his mind stays filthy. When he gets rid of his ego, he can connect with Waheguru, the charioteer (controller) of our lives. By reciting Waheguru's Naam, the man can successfully achieve emancipation. 3.
The pundit studies the Vedas solely for discussion and does not ponder them for spiritual purposes. How can he ferry his ancestors across the world sea when he himself is drowning in it? A rare person attains enlightenment in the shelter of the Guru, recognizing the presence of Waheguru in every heart. 4. If one believes in astrology and makes calculations about auspicious times, he suffers from worries (about losing the "auspicious" time or being hit by the "inauspicious" time) in his mind. But, by taking Guru's shelter, he achieves comfort (blissfulness). After committing many sins, I have come to the Guru's shelter, and, based on my deeds in a previous life, the Guru connected me with Waheguru. 5.
We cannot get connected with Waheguru if we do not take the Guru's shelter (His advice). Misled by our misgivings, we keep taking births and dying. The individual, who does not have Guru's Shabad or Waheguru's Naam at heart, and does not have good character, suffers punishment tied at the door of the Angel of death, and dies worthlessly (without any achievement in spirituality). 6. Many Brahmans call themselves astrologers, learned pundits, or family gurus, but trapped in indecisiveness, they cannot have access to Waheguru's Residence (cannot connect with Him). There is rarely one devotee in millions who, by the grace of the Guru, makes Waheguru's Naam the basis of his life. 7.
If one wishes to acquire Divine knowledge, he needs to take the Guru's shelter to recognize that, be it a bad or a good person in his judgment, Waheguru is present in all of them. Some rare individual recognizes this fact in the shelter of the Guru: that there is Waheguru alone, present everywhere. The birth-death cycle of such a devotee is terminated, and he gets absorbed in Waheguru. 8.
The devotee, who has only the treasure of all virtues - Waheguru - at his heart, has pure thinking, and performs all deeds according to the Will of the Guru (approved by Him), and merges into Waheguru by reciting His Naam, oh Nanak. 9.4.

Word Meaning: Hutth = persistence of mind without natural inclination. Nigreh(u) = efforts to control senses. Kaayaan = body; mind. Chheejaiy = weakens. Vert(u) = commitments. Tupun(u) = self-affliction. Bheejaiy = gets imbued. Sur(i) = equal. Poojaiy = matches. 1.
Hur(i) Jun = Waheguru's devotees. Sung(u) = company. Jum(u) Jundaar(u) = killer (wicked) Angel of death. Joh(i) = keep an evil eye. Surpun(i) = snake (poisonous Maya). Duss(i) = sting. Rus(u) = sweet taste (of Naam). Pause.
Vaad(u) = discussions. Raageen = in entertainments. Jug(u) = world. Bheejaiy = enjoys. Traiy-Goon = with three effects. Bikhiya = Maya. Suheejaiy = endures; suffers. 2.
Chaarrus(i) Puvun(i) = breath exercises of yogis (Guru Sahiban do not give them any credit towards spirituality). Singhasun(u) = his seat. Bheejaiy = drenched in sweat. Niyouli Kerm = exercises to keep the stomach clean (the yogis swirl their stomach veins). Khut Kerm = six yogic exercises to keep the stomach and the body (internally) clean. Birtha = worthless. 3.
Punch Ugun(i) = the fire of the five demons. Choar = robber; worries. Saad(u) = comfort. Luheejaiy = acquire; enjoy. Kaaya Gurrh = the fort of body. Leejaiy = have control. 4.
Teeruth Bhermeejaiy = misled, goes to holy places. Soach = cleanliness. Kirt(u) Puyya = result of the deeds done. Doas(u) = blame. Ka Kuou = whom. 5.
Unn(u) = food. Dayhi = body. Triput(i) = contentment. Theejaiy. Happens; takes place. 6.
Pooch(i) = seeking advice. Raachaiy = to get absorbed. Kerm(u) = rituals. 7.
Oodur = mouse. Doondur = noise. Paas(i) Dhureejaiy = put aside; disregard. Dhoor Kee = from the Source – Waheguru. Ruveejaiy = recite. 8.

MEANING: The body (and spirit) of the people who try to control their senses by the sheer obstinacy (persistence) of their mind actually suffer weakening of their mind (due to their inability to control). And the mind of those who make forced commitments and suffer self-inflicted torture does not get imbued with love for Waheguru. Nothing comes even close to Waheguru's Naam. 1.
Serve the Guru, and stay in the company of Waheguru's devotees to drink Waheguru's Naam-Amrit; oh, my mind. Also, the wicked Angel of death will not keep an evil eye on you, and the poisonous snake of Maya will not sting you. Pause.
The pundit studies the Vedas only for discussion and enjoys worldly entertainments, the source of which is Maya with its three effects; as a result, he keeps taking births and dying. He suffers discomfort without Waheguru's Naam. 2.

The yogi gets drenched in sweat in his seat while performing breathing exercises, and performs the six tough yogic tasks to keep his stomach and body clean and healthy (for which Guru Sahiban give no credit in the realm of spirituality). All his breaths go to waste without Waheguru's Naam. 3. How can he find peace when the fire of the five demons (lust, greed, etc.) is burning inside him? How can he enjoy the taste of Waheguru's Naam when the worldly attractions are stealing his peace? But a devotee can control his fort-like body (senses and mind) in the Guru's shelter. 4.
The Brahman goes to holy places to take dips to cleanse his body, but has filth in mind. What purpose will his outside cleanliness serve when his mind is not clean? But whom can he blame, when he is reaping the reward of his own previous deeds? 5.
He does not eat food and causes suffering to his body, but without the Guru's Knowledge (Advice), he does not find contentment. Disconnected with Waheguru, he keeps taking births and dying. What other ritual can he perform (to please God) than reciting His Naam? 6.
Seeking the advice of the Guru, the man should stay in the company of the holy saints so that his mind gets absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, and he does not suffer from rebirths. What better spiritual deeds can one perform than reciting Waheguru's Naam? 7.
One should disregard the distracting noise raised by the mouse-like senses and recite Waheguru's Naam, which is the service assigned to him from Waheguru. I pray to Waheguru that He kindly grants me His Naam, oh, Nanak. 8.5.

Saadhik = on way to become Sidh yogi. Moon(i) = hermits. Dayva = gods. Nigreh(i) = efforts to control senses. Triptaaveh(i) = contends. Bhayva = separation. Guheh(i) = acquire. Abhimaan Abhayva = unaffected by ego. 6.

Kerm(i) = with benevolence. Shernaagut(i) = in shelter. Su = that. Bhaaou = affection. Oopjiyo = sprouts. Jup(i) = recitation. Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. 7.

Gerb = ego. Bheenaiy = imbues. Paavus(i) = acquire; realize. Paakhund(i) = hypocrisy. Ghur(u) Baar(u) = Waheguru's Residence (shelter). Tutt(u) = the root (Waheguru). 8.

MEANING: There is no other power than Waheguru in the entire creation (universe). Everything that we talk about has been created by Waheguru. It is the same eternal Lord controlling the universe throughout all the eons. There is no one else who creates and destroys. 1. Such unfathomable and never-changing is my Waheguru. Whoever recites His Naam enjoys blissfulness, and the arrow of the Angel of Death does not hit him (he is not afraid of death). Pause.

Waheguru's Naam is a jewel, a priceless diamond (which cannot be bought for any price). The eternal Lord is immeasurable. When one recites Waheguru's Naam, his tongue gets purified. He gets access to Waheguru's Door - His Residence - beyond any doubt. 2.

Some people live in forests or on high mountains to worship God, but they ignore His Naam, and burn (suffer) in their conceit (of having renounced the world). What is the use of any knowledge or any medication without Waheguru's Naam? A devotee of the Guru earns respect in Waheguru's Court. 3.

The pundit reads holy books aloud to preach to people, and undertakes pilgrimages, but the disease of his selfishness and ego does not go away. One cannot realize Waheguru if he is suffering from his ego, or if he is simply persisting in his mind without love for Him. How can he enjoy comfort (peace of mind) without Waheguru's Naam? 4.

He cannot control his lust, no matter how hard he tries. His mind weakens (without Waheguru's Naam), and he goes to hell. Tied up in the court of the Angel of Death, he receives punishment. His mind burns (suffers badly) without Waheguru's Naam. 5.

Countless Sidhs, yogis, hermits, and gods try to control their senses by the persistence of their mind so as to get connected with Waheguru, but they do not get the satisfaction to eliminate the distance between them and Waheguru (they fail to do so). But, when they ponder on the Guru's Shabad, they start serving the Guru when their body and mind get purified, and they get rid of their ego. 6.

With good fortune, they come to Waheguru's shelter, where, by His benevolence, love for His worship sprouts in their mind, and His Naam is enshrined in their heart. I, too, pray to Waheguru that he becomes kind to me so that I may recite His Naam in Guru's shelter. 7.
One does not realize Waheguru by falsehood and by hypocrisy. One's mind gets imbued in Waheguru's love only when one gets rid of one's selfishness and ego. Without Guru's Shabad, one cannot have access to Waheguru's Door - His Residence (cannot connect with Him). So, one needs to ponder on Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 8.6.

Meaning: You leave the world (die) as *loaded with vices as you were when you came into this world (were born), oh, the foolish man. You will suffer as much as the luxuries you enjoyed, and will be put in the sea of rebirths if you ignore Waheguru's Naam. 1.
You get conceited to see your youthful body and your wealth. Your attachment to your wealth and your wife keeps increasing (with time). Why are you being misled by forgetting Waheguru's Naam? Pause. You did retain (look after) your high character, high morality, control of your senses, and your calmness (pleasant demeanour) with the result that there is a dry, wood-like stone heart in your unholy body. You did not do any noble deed, help the needy, cleanse your mind, and had no control over your sensual desires. Without the company of the holy saints, your life as a human being has been wasted. 2.
You ignored Waheguru's Naam in your greed for worldly comforts, and you wasted your life, with the result that you will have to stay in the birth-death cycle. When the Angel of Death rushes to take you away, he will hold you roughly by the hair, and you will lose your consciousness and be swallowed by death. 3.
You have no compassion at heart, are jealous of others, and criticize them maliciously day and night. Without the Guru's Shabad, you cannot attain a high spiritual state, and can earn no respect. Without Waheguru's Naam, you are sent to hell, oh man. 4.
Like an actor who changes his costumes frequently to suit his role, deeply absorbed in worldly attachments and greed, you change your personality in a moment to suit your objective (to earn more wealth). Deeply engrossed in the love of wealth, you continue to expand your holdings everywhere. 5. ----------

NOTE: Based on their deeds of previous lives, some humans are born loaded with vices. Pay attention to the following holy Sloak of Guru Amar Dass Ji MEANING: Without putting his mind to Guru's Shabad, the man is caught in many misgivings, and commits many immoral acts in order to expand his holdings of wealth. (Without Guru's Shabad) He suffers from the serious disease of selfishness and ego, which, however, goes away when he seeks the Guru's Advice. 6. When the Maya-loving man sees wealth coming, he feels very happy and becomes conceited, but also worries that he may lose it the same way, because Waheguru, who gave him life and the wealth, could take it back. 7.

Whatever we see in the world (wealth and relatives) is given by the grace of Waheguru, but nothing goes with the man at the time of his death. But the devotee, who has the root of the universe, the limitless Waheguru, at his heart, swims across the world sea. 8.

(Without Guru's Shabad, one does not understand the Will of Waheguru) and cries at the death of a relative; but who is he crying before (because Waheguru already knows it), and there is nobody else to help him); so, as a result of such attachments, he is drowning in the frightening world-sea. On seeing his family, household, and wealth, the Maya-loving man is caught in the worthless, unwanted nets of worldly attractions. 9.

When Waheguru sends us in the world, we take birth, and we leave the world when He calls us back. He is forgiving and forgives the deserving. He does whatever He has to do. 10.

Seek the company of those who have tasted the Naam of Waheguru, which is the source of all sweetness (bliss), oh man. Satguru is the source of the emancipating Naam of Waheguru, and one acquires supernatural powers, spiritual wisdom, and knowledge from the Guru. 11.

Guru's Sikh treats comforts and discomforts the same way (is stoic) and is fully detached from happiness and sadness. He acquires Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru by getting rid of his selfishness and ego, and gets absorbed in the high spiritual state, oh Nanak. 12.7.

MEANING: Rather than wearing glass earrings, wear the rings of high morality in your mind, and make compassion the quilt of rags that you wear, oh yogi. And rather than coating your body with ash, always keep the birth-death cycle in mind (that your ignoble deeds will keep you in this cycle). If you practise these things, you will have overcome the desire to enjoy the luxuries of the whole universe. 1.
You play on the veena (lute) to focus your mind on your deity (without any spiritual gain), but if you meditate on Waheguru's Naam with full focus, you will enjoy the auto-playing Divine music in your mind, oh yogi. Pause. Make high moral character and contentment the dish and the bag in which you collect and store alms, and you will receive the food of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit as the alms. If you use the focus of your mind as your baton to keep the vices away, the lute of Waheguru's Naam will play in your mind. 2.

If you settle down for meditation (on Waheguru's Naam) with the full focus of your mind, all your mental constructs will disappear; and rather than begging from door to door, if you beg (search) for Waheguru in your own body (mind), you will acquire His Naam, oh yogi. 3.
You cannot meditate, and you cannot acquire Waheguru (His Naam) by playing on this veena, and you cannot acquire peace of mind, and you cannot get rid of your ego with this veena. 4.
Build your own veena by using fear of God and love for Him as the two round supports for the veena, with your body as the major wire, oh yogi. This wire will automatically play (Guru's Shabad) in His shelter, whereby the fire of your desires will be put out. 5.
The true yogi is the one who focuses his mind on the "One" (Waheguru), and obeys His Huqam (Will) as a result of which all his doubts and worries will disappear, and his mind will be purified. This is the technique (path) to union with Waheguru, oh yogi. 6.
Every visible thing in the world is perishable, so attach your mind to Waheguru. But one acquires this understanding only when one serves Waheguru with love and reverence. 7.

Vin(u) = without. Kinguree = Veena. Mookut(i) = free from worldly bonds. 12.
MEANING: One does not achieve union with (or acquire love for) God if he renounces his family and roams around in the world. There is Waheguru's Naam in your body, and you can realize that by the grace of the Guru. 8. This world (the man) is a body of earth (mud) which suffers from the serious sickness of worldly desires. No matter how many efforts one may make or wear symbols of many faiths, this sickness does not go away, oh yogi. 9.
Waheguru's Naam is the only medication for this sickness, provided it is embedded in the mind. But only that individual understands and follows such means to union with Waheguru, who takes the Guru's shelter, oh yogi. 10.
The path to union with Waheguru is very tough, oh yogi. Only that individual follows it on whom Waheguru casts His kind sight. Such a devotee overcomes all his doubts (illusions), and sees only Waheguru inside and out. 11.
You too play on that veena which plays (Waheguru's Naam) without being plucked (by itself), oh yogi. Such a yogi becomes free from all worldly bonds and stays absorbed in Waheguru, oh Nanak. 12.1.

All one's worldly attachments get eradicated with the Guru's Shabad, and he begins to meditate on Waheguru's Naam by getting rid of his selfishness and ego. 3.

Waheguru, which creates us, also takes us away, and His Naam is one's friend at the end .4.

Always believe that Waheguru, which has created the world, is near you and not away from you, and you will realize that Waheguru in the form of the Shabad (Naam) is present in your heart, and you will begin to meditate on the eternal Waheguru. 5 & 6.

MEANING: One cannot achieve union with Waheguru by hypocrisy. Having lost the real path to union with God, you are roaming around purposelessly in the world, oh yogi. 10.
One can achieve union (with Waheguru) only by meditating on Waheguru's Naam with the Guru's Shabad. 11. Running around for Maya can be stopped by Guru's Shabad when Waheguru's Naam gets enshrined in the devotee's mind. 12.
Your body is a pool of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit; so, take a dip in the pool by focusing on His Naam, oh holy saints. 13. A devotee, who takes a dip in the pool of Waheguru's Naam, gets his mind purified, and the filth of his mind is removed by Guru's Shabad. 14.
Engrossed in the three effects of Maya, the man is unaware of Waheguru (ignores Him), and does not recite His Naam; without Waheguru's Naam, he dies without any spirituality. 15.
Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva are believed to be the three manifestations of the superpower, but they, too, are misled by Maya's attractions. 16.
With Guru's grace, a devotee rises above the three effects of Maya and recites Waheguru's Naam with a focused mind in the fourth state (above Maya). 17.
The pundit studies the Vedas only to win discussions, and does not understand the real purpose of human life. 18.

The words in praise of Waheguru written by the holy saints are supreme, and have been equally effective (in cleansing one's mind and connecting him with God) in every eon. 20.

Those devotees who are attached to the Bani attain a high spiritual state and stay absorbed in Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad. 21.

The devotee, who analyzes his body (self) with Guru's Shabad (advice), acquires (enshrines) Waheguru's Naam, which includes all the nine treasures. 22.

Such a devotee kills all his worldly desires in his mind (they do not affect him), and becomes absorbed in the peaceful state, and sings Waheguru's praise with his mind, and not with the tongue only (the Naam gets enshrined in his mind). 23.

His eyes are mesmerized by the beauty of nature, and his mind is focused on the invisible God. His soul merges into the invisible Waheguru, which is always detached from the world. 24 & 25. I always sing praise of my Guru, who imparted the real (eternal) wisdom about Waheguru. 26.

I want to make a humble suggestion: one attains a high spiritual state and earns respect in both worlds through Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 27.2.

MEANING: Worship of Waheguru is not easily available (not everybody can do it because of the powerful attractions of Maya); nothing can be explained about it in words. It can be performed only by Waheguru's Naam, which connects one with the omnipresent Waheguru, and which can be acquired only by the grace of the Guru, oh the holy men. 1.& Pause.
Everything is filthy (has the poisonous effects of Maya on it) without Waheguru's Naam; so, what can I offer (in the traditional way which most people use to offer to their deities) to Waheguru? 2. Only that worship is approved by Waheguru, which He likes, and when the devotees accept His Will by their mind (with reverence). 3.
Everybody worships some power in some way, but Waheguru gives no credit to Maya-lovers (who are disconnected from Him). 4. Only the worship by which the devotee kills his worldly desires and by which his mind is cleansed is given credit by Waheguru. 5.
Those devotees who meditate only on Guru's Shabad (in praise of Waheguru) become pure and pious, and eventually become eternal (by merging with Waheguru). 6.
No other worship is accepted by Waheguru without His Naam; the whole world is misled by their misgivings (about Maya). 7.
The Sikhs of the Guru recognize themselves (as to who they are and what the objective of human life is) by meditating on Waheguru's Naam, oh, the holy men. 8.
Waheguru, Himself, makes His devotees worship Him by the Guru's Shabad, and gives them credit for that. 9. The Maya-lovers do worship, but do not know how to worship Waheguru. They worship (love) Maya, whereby they get more filth on their mind. 10.

They acquire all the comforts by accepting Waheguru's Huqam as He is their real friend at the end, oh holy men. 12. If an individual recognizes himself in the shelter of the Guru, he realizes that he has been praising (valuing) only the perishables. 13.
He further realizes that the Angel of Death does not spare him for his hypocritical worship and takes him away, disgracing him. 14.
Those who recognize themselves in Guru's Shabad become connected to Waheguru and come to know that His high transcendence and His limits cannot be found. 15.

MEANING: We follow the path of immorality, are filthy in mind, and we are egoists. But we can wash away the filth of our immoral thinking by Guru's Shabad in His shelter. 1.
Waheguru's Naam emancipates one in the shelter of the Guru, oh, the holy saints. His Naam gets implanted in our heart when we recite it, and Waheguru Himself completes this task. Pause. With Waheguru's benevolence, the devotee connects with the elixir-stone-like Guru, and, like an elixir stone, the Guru converts a base metal into gold; the devotee becomes a holy saint, like the Guru. 2. Many don religious symbols and roam around full of ego (that they are saints); but such people lose their precious human life in the gamble (they trade their noble qualities or spirituality for the short-lived attractions of Maya). 3.
But the devotees acquire Waheguru's Naam in their heart and worship Him day and night. 4. Intoxicated in the high spiritual state, they are imbued in Waheguru's love, and kill their selfishness and ego with Waheguru's Naam. 5.
Waheguru can never be worshipped without love and (respectful) fear for Him, but He Himself adorns His worship (purifies to be acceptable). 6.
Attachment for Maya can be burned with Guru's Shabad, and Divine Knowledge is acquired (connection is made with Waheguru) when one ponders over the essence of the universe (Waheguru) (by the Guru's Shabad). 7. Waheguru Himself makes individuals worship Him, and Himself bestows the treasures of worship on them. 8.

Nobody can find the end to His virtues; I simply sing His praise by pondering over the Guru's Shabad. 9. I recite Waheguru's Naam and sing His praise, whereby I have eradicated my selfishness and ego. 10.

Amrit(i) = in Waheguru's Naam. Bhurpooray = full to the brim. Khojeh(i) = searches for. Phoot(i) Mooyay = died (spiritually) because of the scattered (wavering) mind. Ahunkaari = egoist. 20.

MEANING: Waheguru's treasures are always full; I have acquired the invaluable Naam from the Guru. 11. Overly pleased with His devotees, Waheguru becomes very kind to them and gives them the power (ability) to worship Him. 12. Waheguru's devotees are always hungry for His Naam, and sing His praise by pondering over the Guru's Shabad. 13.

Life and body are both given by Him. It is very difficult to describe all His largesse. 14.

The individuals, who are attached to Guru's Shabad (ponder on that), are ferried across the world-sea and are salvaged. 15. Only some thoughtful people realize that nobody can cross the world's oceans without Waheguru's Naam. 16.

One receives only those comforts (or discomforts) which have been prewritten in his fate right from the Source (by Waheguru), but his life becomes a success when he gets connected with Waheguru by the Guru's Shabad. 17. The human body, which is imbued in Dear Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, becomes pure like gold. 18.

The human body, which has Waheguru's Naam-Amrit enshrined in it, stays full with it all the time (recites Waheguru's Naam all the time), but Waheguru's Naam is acquired only by pondering over the Guru's Shabad. 19.

Only those individuals get connected with God who search for Him in their own bodies. Others, who pursue the attractions of Maya, drown in the world-sea because of their ego and their scattered (ever-wandering) mind (which never focuses on God). 20.

MEANING: The devotees of the Guru serve Waheguru for the love of the Guru; but the egoist pundits lose their spirituality in worthless discussions. 21.
The real yogi (connected with Waheguru) is the one who kills his selfishness, ego, and the fire of his worldly desires by pondering over the root (basis) of the Divine Knowledge - Waheguru's Naam. 22. Only that individual makes a connection with Satguru, who is the source of Waheguru's Naam, whom You are kind to, oh Waheguru. 23.
But those who are engrossed in Maya are egoists, and they drown in the sea of Maya.24.
One should serve Waheguru (recite His Naam) for as long as his last breath so as to get connected with Him. 25.
He should be alert day and night in the love of his dear Waheguru. 26.
I will gladly sacrifice my body and my mind for my Satguru. 27.
When a devotee ponders on the Guru's Shabad, his attachment with Maya is destroyed, and he gets salvaged. 28. Only that individual stays alert who is awakened by Waheguru to ponder on the Guru's Shabad. 29.
Waheguru's devotees survive by pondering on Guru's Shabad, but those who do not remember Waheguru (recite His Naam) experience spiritual death, oh Nanak. 30.4.13.

I have full faith only in You, and do not believe in any other faith so as to wear its symbols. Pause. Some people renounce their family life and settle in some part of a forest (to achieve emancipation), while others call themselves hermits to show their detachment from the world. Some claim that they are devotees of only one deity, but I, as a poor man with no such resources to brag about, have taken shelter of Waheguru alone. 2.

Some roam about on the whole earth, but poor me, I have taken shelter only at Waheguru's Door. 3. Some brag about the high class of their clan, while others claim that they are powerful as they have the support of many brothers. (Remember Waheguru) who purifies your impure mind, and who has placed you above all other life forms (made you the supreme among all living beings). Now, it is up to you whether you want to be successful (to get connected with Waheguru) or not. You need to recite Waheguru's Naam to connect with Him, oh man. 6.
It is the same Waheguru here (in this world) and there (in the next world); He is present everywhere where you look. (It is pitiful that) The human mind shows laziness in worshiping Waheguru, without whom it cannot function even for a short moment. 7.
We are guilty (of not remembering Waheguru), and are without any noble quality. I have neither served Waheguru nor His living beings, nor performed any noble deeds. Fortunately,

(The answer is): Waheguru can be realized by offering one's body, mind, and wealth in Guru's service, and by obeying His Command (Will; Huqam). Obey the Huqam of the Guru, and sing Waheguru's praise (to connect with Him). (Guru) Nanak(u) advises the devotees to discuss the virtues and the favours of the indescribable Waheguru. 9.

Word Meaning: Chunchulaa = fickle; wavering all the time. Chuturaayee = shrewdness; cunning. Mohini = mind captivating. Ait(u) = this. Tinaiy = Him (God). Tthagauli = a vine that produces a temporary confusion in one's mind on smelling. 10.
MEANING: listen to me, oh my friends: With the fickle (ever wavering and restless) mind, nobody can get connected with Waheguru with his cunning thinking. Maya is highly captivating, which has misled people through its illusions. But it is Waheguru who has given such mind-captivating ability to Maya, which, like the thornapple, has the effect of enchantment on the people. So, rather than loving Maya, I am always a sacrifice for Waheguru which has made the attachment with Maya to be so sweet. Nobody can realize Waheguru with his shrewdness, oh Nanak(u). 10.

MEANING: Remember the eternal Waheguru (which will always be with you) all the time, oh my mind. The family that you see will not accompany you after your death. So, why get attached to something that will not accompany you? One should never do anything for which one has to repent. Listen to (and act on) the advice of Satguru, which will always be with you. Remember Waheguru at all times, oh Nanak(u). 11.

Word Meaning: Agumm = inaccessible. Agochura = oh, the incomprehensible. Khayl = drama. Aakjh(i) = in words. Vukhaanay = explain. 12.

MEANING: Nobody has ever found your limits, oh, the inaccessible and the incomprehensible Waheguru. Only You know Your greatness. You have created all the living beings as a drama (they play their roles and disappear), what can anyone say about this (they have no ability to describe this drama? (Being present in everybody), It is You who says and sees everything about the world You created. You are always inaccessible, and nobody has ever found Your limits, submits Nanak(u). 12.

The Guru, with His grace, implants the real Amrit (Waheguru's Naam) in the heart of the devotee. Realizing that all the living beings are created by You, many people come to (Guru's Shelter) to have Your holy sight, oh Waheguru. They like the Guru, whom they find loving and compassionate, and they rid themselves of their gluttony, greed, and ego in His shelter. Only those acquire Amrit (Waheguru's Naam) from the Guru whom Waheguru is kind to, oh Nanak(u). 13.

The path they walk on is so difficult that it is sharp like a dagger and thin as a hair (there is a great risk of going astray because of the captivating attractions of Maya). However, the thoughts of sensual pleasures of those who get rid of their selfishness and ego with the grace of the Guru, are absorbed in Waheguru's Naam (they stay suppressed). The lifestyle of the bhagats is unique (is the same) no matter what the eon is, oh Nanak 14.

Those who are put in the Guru's shelter to listen to the story of Your splendour enjoy blissfulness. The eternal Lord runs the world the way He likes, oh Nanak(u). 15.

Some people talk a lot about Waheguru (without having much faith in Him), but nobody has ever realized Him (made a connection with Him) by just talking about Him. Only Satguru recites (preaches) the soothing Shabad (Waheguru's Naam), which is the source of bliss, oh Nanak(u). 16.

MEANING: One cannot attain the high spiritual state by performing the prevalent religious rituals, and one's misgivings and worries are not eradicated without attaining the high spiritual state, no matter how many efforts one puts in and how many rituals one performs. One's mind is filthy because of his misgivings (illusions about Maya); what means can one use to cleanse his mind? (The answer is) that one can wash away the filth of his mind by the Guru's Shabad to keep Waheguru in mind all the time. One attains the high spiritual state by the grace of the Guru, whereby his worries and his misgivings go away, oh Nanak(u). 18.

Those who make their precious human life successful (achieve the objective of connecting with Waheguru) are the noble businessmen (acceptable to God). Those who have pure minds stay in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak(u). 20.

Getting rid of his selfishness and ego, he spends his life in the shelter of the Guru (obeys His advice rather than follow his own wisdom), and does not recognize (worship) any other power. Such a Sikh is a true devotee of the Guru, oh, the holy men. 21.

Word Meaning: Baymukh(i) = non-devotee; disobey (the Guru). Mookt(i) = salvation. Hoarthaiy = some other place. Bibaykiyaan = spiritually knowledgeable. Jooni = life forms. Bherm(i) = go through. Phir(i) = then. Laag(i) Churnee = taking shelter.

MEANING: On the other hand, if a person disobeys the Guru (does not recognize Him as the spiritual guide, and follows his own mind), he never finds emancipation anywhere else. The holy saints, having Divine Knowledge, will attest to this fact. He will go through many life forms, but will not find salvation without the Guru. He will find salvation only when He takes the Guru's shelter and listens to His Shabad (acts on that). If you think carefully and do your research, you will find that no one can find salvation without the Guru, oh Nanak(u). 22.

Word Meaning: Sachi Bani = Guru's eternal Shabad (Waheguru's Naam). Sir(i) = topmost; supreme. Nudr(i) = God's kind sight. Smaani = gets implanted. Amrit = Waheguru's Naam. Rung(i) = in love. Saaringpaani = a name for God.

MEANING: Let all of you, the beloved of the Satguru, get together and sing Guru's eternal Shabad (Waheguru's Naam), which is the supreme among all other shabads (songs). Those who have Waheguru's kind sight on them can embed it in their hearts. Waheguru's Naam is the real Amrit one drinks when he recites it, and it stays imbued with His love. MEANING: All shabads, other than those of Satguru, are about the perishable (Maya and ego); those who recite them, or listen to them, get even more attached to the perishables because they are spoken and explained by Maya-lovers. They may chant "god" in their tongue all the time, but know nothing about what they chant. Those whose minds (wisdom) have been robbed (captivated) by Maya, utter “god” only by the tongue. All shabads, other than those of the Guru, are about the perishable, oh Nanak(u). 24.

ਗੁਰ ਕਾ ਸਬਦੁ ਰਤੰਨ ਹੈ ਹੀਰੇ ਜਿਤੁ ਜੜਾਉ॥ ਸਬਦੁ ਰਤਨੁ ਜਿਤੁ ਮੰਨੁ ਲਾਗਾ ਏਹੁ ਹੋਆ ਸਮਾਉ॥ ਸਬਦ ਸੇਤੀ ਮਨੁ ਮਿਲਿਆ ਸਚੈ ਲਾਇਆ ਭਾਉ॥ ਆਪੇ ਹੀਰਾ ਰਤਨੁ ਆਪੇ ਜਿਸ ਨੋ ਦੇਇ ਬੁਝਾਏ॥ ਕਹੈ ਨਾਨਕੁ ਸਬਦੁ ਰਤਨੁ ਹੈ ਹੀਰਾ ਜਿਤੁ ਜੜਾਉ॥ 25॥

Gur ka Shabad ruttan haiy, heeray jit(u) jurraaou. Shabad(u) ruttan(u), jit(u) munn(u) laaga, eh(u) hoaa smaaou. Shabad sayti mun(u) miliya, Sachaiy laaya bhaaou, Aapay Heera, ruttan(u) Aapay, jis nu dayay boojhaayay. Kuhhaiy Nanak(u), Shabad(u) Ruttan haiy, heera jit(u) jurraaou. 25.

Word Meaning: Ruttan = jewel-like precious. Jurraaou = inlaid. Smaaou = absorption (in the Naam). Sayti = with. Sachaiy = with Waheguru. Bhaaou = love.

MEANING: Guru’s Shabad is highly valuable like a jewel (in terms of its spiritual wealth), which has diamonds (noble qualities) inlaid in it. Love for Waheguru is generated in the mind of a devotee who gets attached to the jewel-like Guru’s Shabad, and he stays absorbed in Waheguru. The devotee, who gets the understanding from the Guru, realizes that Waheguru Himself is the diamonds and the jewels. Guru’s Shabad is such a jewel that has diamonds (noble qualities) inlaid in it, oh Nanak(u). 25.

Gurmukh(i) jis nu Aap(i) kuray, su hovaiy, Aikus siyoun liv laayay. Kuhhaiy Nanak(u), Aap(i) Kerta, Aapay Huqam(u) boojhaayay. 26.

Word Meaning: Shiv Shukut(i) = God and Maya; peace (contentment), and fire of desires. Kerta = Creator. Vertaayay= operates. Kisaiy = rare. Boojhaayay = gives understanding. Bundhun = bonds. Mookt(i) = free from bonds; emancipation. Vusaayay = enshrine. Aikus Siyoun = only with “One” God. Live Laayay = focus mind on.

MEANING: Waheguru creates Himself and Maya, and reigns the universe with His Huqam (Laws), and looks after it. But He gives this understanding (knowledge) only to some rare individuals through the Guru. Such devotees enshrine the Guru’s Shabad in their mind, whereby all their worldly bonds are broken. But only those individuals come to Guru’s shelter who are prompted to do so by Waheguru; they meditate only on the Naam of the “One” Supreme Being (Waheguru). The Creator, Himself, gives the understanding of His Huqam, oh Nanak(u). 26.

Word Meaning: Simrit(i) Shastar = Hindu holy books. Tuttaiy = of reality; of the Root (Waheguru). Saar = information; worth. Tiheen Goonee = the three effects of Maya (see INFORMATION). Bherm(i) = illusions of Maya. Soota = asleep; ignorant. Rain(i) = night of life. Vihaani = is spent. Jaagay = got enlightened. Undin = always.
MEANING: The Hindu holy books discuss only the noble and the sinful deeds, but have no understanding of the Root of the universe (God). Nobody, other than the Guru, knows the worth (high transcendence) of Waheguru. The world is asleep under the influence of the three effects of Maya, and their life spends in such ignorance. However, some people get enlightened by the grace of the Guru, and recite His Amrit-like Shabad whereby Waheguru's Naam is enshrined in their hearts. Those devotees acquire the Root of the universe (Waheguru) in their mind (get connected with Waheguru), and meditate on His Naam all the time, and stay awake against the attacks of Maya throughout their life, oh Nanak(u). 27.

(PAGE 921): Aapni liv Aapay laayay, Gurmukh(i) sudaa smaaliyaiy. Kuhhaiy Nanak(u) aivud Daata, so kiyoun munhou visaariyaiy. 28.
Word Meaning: Oodur = womb. Pritpal = raises and nourishes. Visaariyaiy = forget. Aivud = so great. Daata = Lord. Ugun(i) = fire (in the womb). Aahaar(u) = food. Poochaavay = delivers. Poh(i) = touch; affect. Liv = focus of mind.
MEANING: Why should we forget the Great Lord which protects, and raises us in the womb of the mother, and which delivers food for us even in there. No trouble can touch (come near) the individual whom He makes to meditate on His Naam. Waheguru Himself, implants His love in His devotees' hearts; we should always remember Him in Guru's shelter (by reciting His Shabad). Why should we forget such great Lord, oh Nanak(u)? 28.

Word Meaning: Ugun(i) = fire (heat). Oodur = womb. Khayl(u) = drama. Ruchaaya = created. Bhaana = liked. Bhulaa = loved. Liv Chhorrki = the connection broke. Trishna = fire of desires. Amar(u) = control. Vertaaya = exercised.
MEANING: The effect of the heat in the mother's womb is the same as that of Maya in the outside world (they both are necessary for survival, and provide comfort in their own ways, and are loved; but both keep one in the dark and in ignorance). It is a drama of the Creator that they are both similar. When the fetus becomes a full child as per the Will of Waheguru

(as per His Laws) and takes birth, the family loves the newborn. But the focus of the mind on Waheguru that the fetus had in the womb is broken after his birth, when Maya begins to reign over his thinking, and worldly attractions begin to captivate him. It is Maya, because of which Waheguru is forgotten, and the man begins to love other things in life. But those who get attached to Waheguru by the grace of the Guru, find emancipation even in the midst of the attractions of Maya, oh Nanak(u). 29.

Word Meaning: Amooluk(u) = priceless. Vit-houn = by. Vil-laayay = (work hard to the extent of) crying and wailing. Sir(u) = head; wisdom. Saunpiyaiy = surrender. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Jeeou = life; soul. Tis(u) = Him. Pullaiy Paayay = acquires.

MEANING: Waheguru is priceless, and nobody can assess His worth; many people try in vain to the extent of crying (for their failure) to find Waheguru's worth, but fail. (A devotee's objective is not to find the worth of Waheguru), He should simply surrender his wisdom to such a Satguru by whose grace he can get rid of his selfishness and ego (to connect with God). When the devotee makes a connection with Waheguru (focuses his mind on Him), His Naam gets enshrined in the devotee's heart. Waheguru is priceless; those are highly fortunate who acquire Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak(u). 30.

Word Meaning: Raas(i) = capital; wealth. Vunjaara = trader. Jaani = realized. Jeehou = deep from the soul. Laaha = benefit. Khutihou = earn. Dihaarri = everyday. Dhun(u) = wealth. Bhaana = liked.

MEANING: My mind is a trader (which trades its ignoble qualities for spirituality), and Waheguru's Naam is my capital, which I acquired from Satguru. You, too, recite Waheguru's Naam to earn spiritual benefit (wealth) every day, oh my friends. But only those lucky devotees acquire this wealth of Waheguru's Naam whom He likes. Waheguru's Naam is my capital, and my mind is the trader, oh Nanak(u). 31.

Word Meaning: Rusna = tongue. Un = other. Rus(i) = sweet tastes; blissfulness; enjoyments. Raach(i) = engrossed. Piyaas = thirst; appetite. Hoarut Kitaiy = somewhere else. Jichur = unless. Pullaiy Paayay = acquire. Buhourr(i) = again. Trishna = fire of desires. Kermee = with good fortune. Veesray = forgotten.
MEANING: You are engrossed in enjoying many other tastes (than Waheguru's Naam), yet your appetite for them is never satisfied, oh my tongue. Such appetite is never satisfied unless one acquires the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. When one acquires the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam and enjoys it, he never experiences the appetite for other tastes again. However, one acquires Waheguru's sweet Naam only with great fortune when one comes to the shelter of the Guru. One forgets all other tastes when Waheguru's Naam is embedded in his heart, oh Nanak(u). 32.

Word Meaning: Jot(i) = Waheguru's Soul. Jeeou = living beings. Oopaayay = by creating. Chult(u) = amazing feat; drama. Mool(u) = foundation. Ruchiya = laid down.
MEANING: You came into the world (were born) when Waheguru placed His Light (a part of His Soul) inside you, oh my body. Waheguru, which creates the man and shows him (exposes him to) the world (His creation to appreciate), is our mother, and our father. By Guru's grace, one realizes that the whole world is a drama created by Waheguru. The man is born when Waheguru places His Light in his body after having laid the foundation of the universe, oh Nanak(u). 33.

Word Meaning: Chaaou = excitement; zest. Aagum(u) = arrival. Mungul = song of joy. Sukhee = friends; senses. Greh(i) = house; heart. Mundar(u) = place of worship. Nit = always. Viyaapay = happen; affect. Subhaagay = lucky; fortunate. Jaapay = becomes visible; discernible. Jaani = acquires. Unhut = nonperishable; eternal. Bhogo = enjoy.
MEANING: My mind became highly excited when I heard (realized) that Waheguru had appeared in my mind. Sing the song of joy (blissfulness) as my body has been transformed into a place of worship, oh my senses. Sing the song of blissfulness (Waheguru's praise) all the time, whereby no grief or discomfort will affect you, oh my friends. It is a highly auspicious day when one “sees” (gets connected with) the Lord in the shelter of the Guru. One acquires the eternal Bani (Guru’s Shabad in praise of Waheguru). With Guru’s Shabad in his mind, he enjoys the sweetness of Waheguru’s Naam. Waheguru, who is omnipotent to create anything in the universe, Himself, appears in the heart of the devotee, oh Nanak(u). 34.

Word Meaning: Jug = world. Kerm Kmaaya = deeds performed. K(i) = what? Ruchun(u) Ruchiya = created body. Vusaaya = embedded. Poorub(i) LIkhiya = previously written (based on deeds of previous lives). Pervaan = approved.

MEANING: What noble deeds have you performed since you came into the world, oh my body? You have not enshrined the Naam of Waheguru, which created you. But, Waheguru’s Naam is implanted in one’s mind with Guru’s grace as a result of his prewritten fate (based on his deeds of previous lives). The human body, which attaches its mind to Satguru (obeys His Shabad), gets approved (by Waheguru), oh Nanak(u). 35.

Word Meaning: Naturou = eyes. Jot(i) = Waheguru’s soul. Nudri = with kind sight. Nihaaliya = see deeply. Viss(u) = Vishuv = world = Sunsaar(u). Roop(u) = form. Dib = of gods.

MEANING: Waheguru has placed His Light in you, so do not see (recognize) any other power than Waheguru, oh my eyes. You are given to “see” only Waheguru in everything. (My Guru explains that) The whole world, that I see, is a form (manifestation) of Waheguru; when I saw it carefully with Guru’s grace, I realized that it is Waheguru alone who is present everywhere, and there is none other like Him. My eyes were blind (to this reality), but I acquired the god-like vision (to see Waheguru) when I came to the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak(u). 36.

Word Meaning: Servunhou = ears. Saachaiy = (for) Waheguru. Putthaayay = sent. Sat(i) Bani = Guru's eternal Shabad. Huriya Hoa = came to life; bloomed. Smaani = got absorbed. Alukh(u) = incomprehensible God. Vidaani = amazing. Gut(i) = transcendental state. Puvattar = pure; holy.
MEANING: You have been sent into the world only to listen to the praise of Waheguru, oh my ears. So, listen to the eternal Shabad of the Guru (in Waheguru's praise) because that is why you have been attached to the body, oh my ears. By listening to Waheguru's praise, one's mind and body acquire a new spiritual life, and the tongue gets absorbed in the sweetness of His Naam. The high transcendence of Waheguru, which is incomprehensible and amazing, cannot be described. So, simply listen to the Amrit-like Naam of Waheguru, which purifies the mind; that's why you have been sent into the world, oh Nanak(u). 37.

Word Meaning: Jeeou = life. Goofa = cave; body. Vaaja Puvun(u) = the music of air (breaths). Vujaaya = played. Nuoun Dooaaray = the nine body doors. Pergut(u) = visible. Goopt(u) = hidden. Baavni = love; reverence. Ikkna = to some. Dusvaan = the tenth door (through which Waheguru enters). Teh = there. Anayk = countless. Roop = forms. Naaoun = Naam. Nuv Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures.
MEANING: Waheguru injects life into the cave-like human body, and the air causes the body to breathe. Nine openings of the body are visible, but the tenth door (to connect with Waheguru) is kept hidden. But some devotees are able to see (realize) the tenth door when Waheguru injects love for Him in the devotee's mind in the shelter of the Guru. In that high spiritual state, the devotee sees countless forms of Waheguru and acquires His Naam, the source of the nine mythical treasures, yet finds no end to His limits. The Dear Waheguru infuses life into the cave-like human body, and the air makes the body breathe, oh Nanak. 38.

Word Meaning: Saachaiy Ghur(i) = where Waheguru's praise is sung (gathering of holy saints). Khusm(u) = Lord. Bukhshay = gifts; bestows.
MEANING: Sing this song of eternal blissfulness in the company of the holy saints, where Waheguru's praise is sung all the time. But only those devotees sing Waheguru's praise who are liked by Him, and who are given the spiritual understanding (wisdom) by the Guru. Waheguru is the Lord of everybody, but only those devotees acquire His Naam who are gifted it by Waheguru. The devotees sing the song of eternal bliss in the company of holy men, oh Nanak(u). 39.

Word Meaning: Anund(u) = (source of) blissfulness; Waheguru. Munoruth = objectives. Pooray = achieved successfully. Ootray = came off; got removed. Visooray = worries; misconceptions. Suntaap = suffering. Sersay = blissful. Jaani = realized. Puneet = Puvit = pure; pious. Bherpooray = omnipresent. Binvunt = submits respectfully. Gur Churn = Guru's shelter (His Shabad). Unhud = Divine. Tooray = musical instruments (Guru's Shabad).
MEANING: Listen to the eternal Naam of Waheguru when all your objectives will be realized, oh, the fortunate folks. (By doing so, Waheguru will take dwelling in your heart, and all your worries (and illusions) will disappear. All one's discomforts, illnesses, and sufferings are eradicated by listening to the Guru's eternal Shabad. The holy saints and other noble people feel blissful when they get the understanding of Waheguru's greatness from the Guru (by His Shabad). They realize that all those who listen to the Guru's Shabad, and those who recite it, get their minds purified, and they find that the Guru, and Waheguru, are present everywhere (they appear wherever one remembers them). (Guru) Nanak(u) makes this humble submission that all those who come to the shelter of the Guru begin to feel as if the Divine Shabad of the Guru is playing in their mind. 40.1.

NOTE: Sud(u) means a call in Punjabi. Here, Sud(u) means call of Waheguru for Guru Amar Dass Ji. Before the advent of Guru Nanak Sahib, all ceremonies (religious and cultural) were performed by Brahmans according to their Granths (which have also been written by Brahmans). Guru Nanak Sahib preached against such practices where gods were worshipped and meaningless rituals were performed. When it was time for Guru Amar Dass Ji (the Third Master) to leave this mortal world, He called a meeting of His family members and prominent Sikhs and instructed them strictly against following any Hindu rituals, which was the standard practice at the time of a person's death. Guru Sahib left clear instructions to follow at His physical death that nobody will cry, and only the Sikh practices will be observed in which holy Sikhs should perform kirtan (sing Gurus' Shabads in praise of God).

At the death of a Hindu person, his dead body is laid down on the floor, and a lamp, made of wheat flour, is placed on his hand with the belief that it will show him light in the darkness on his journey to his ancestors, which takes a full year. If the dead person is an old man, his bier is decorated with silky cloth and with balloons, and some nuts and dry sweets are given away. This is called "baybaan". Before subjecting the dead body to fire, the family places some balls made of wheat or barley flower on large leaves near the body with the belief that they will serve as food for the dead on their journey. The Brahman recites some mantras at this time. This is called the process of the "pinds (the balls) and the puttals (leaves)". After the cremation, the ashes and the small bones left unburnt are disposed of in the River Ganga with the belief that the dead person does not get emancipation unless his remnants are disposed of in the Ganga. In the meantime, the Brahman reads the "Guroorr Purana" for a few days at the family house.

Guru Sahib did use the same names as were prevalent at the time for different practices, but changed their meanings to imply Sikh practices.

Sundar Ji, a great-grandson of Guru Amar Dass Ji, documented Guru Sahib's instructions for the Sikhs to follow in future, and Guru Arjun Dev Ji (the Fifth Master), who compiled the holy Granth Sahib, enshrined this historical document in Guru Granth Sahib.

It is noteworthy that Guru Sahib did not use the word "Brahman" in His instructions; He, rather, used the word "Pundit" which means a learned (having some Divine knowledge), implying Guru's Sikhs. The word "Pundit" has been used for Gur Sikhs in other Shabads as well, for example, in Suhi Chhunt M:4.

There is another event of historical importance highlighted in this holy Document (Shabad) that Guru Amar Dass Ji passed the Guruship to Shri Ram Dass Ji (named Bhai Jettha from childhood), who was His son-in-law, bypassing His own sons.

Word Meaning: Jug(i) = in the world. Daata = provider; Lord. Soyay = the same. Bhugut(i) Vuchhul(u) = lover of His worship. Tihou Loyay = the three layers of the universe. Smaavay = stays absorbed. Uvro = uver(u) = other. Persad(i) = with the grace of. Perm Pudvee = the highest spiritual state. Hukaara = call. Chullunvaara = to leave. Amar(u) = immortal. Atull(u) = never changing. Atoal(u) = immeasurable. 1.

MEANING: Guru Amar Dass Ji stayed absorbed in Guru's Shabad, and did not recognize any other power than Waheguru which is the only Lord in the world, and who loves His worship (and His devotees) everywhere in the universe. Guru Amar Dass Ji did not recognize any other power than Guru's Shabad (praise of Waheguru), and used to recite only Waheguru's Naam. With the grace of Guru Nanak and Guru Angad, Guru Amar Dass attained the highest spiritual state. The Guru, who was fully absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, and who had acquired (enshrined it in His heart) the immortal, the never-changing, and the immeasurable Waheguru, received the call from Waheguru to leave this mortal world. 1.

Hur(i) dhaar(i) kirpa Satgur(u) milaaya, dhun(u), dhun(u) kuhhaiy shabaash(i) jeeou. 2. -------

Word Meaning: Bhaana = Will. Bhaaya = liked. Peh(i) = to; with. Paiyj = dignity. Kayri = of. Nirunjuno = of the Nirunjun (Waheguru) which is above the effects of Maya. Bayli = friend; supporter. Jumdoot = Angel of death. Nikhunjno = destroyer. Dhun(u) = great. Shabaash(i) = blessing in appreciation. 2.

MEANING: Guru Amar Dass Ji gladly accepted the Will of Waheguru to go to Him (merge with Him). The Guru prayed to Waheguru to protect the dignity of His devotee (Guru Amar Dass Ji) (by allowing merger with Him), and to grant His Naam which will be Guru Sahib's friend at the time of His physical death, and which destroys the Angel of death (makes him ineffective). Waheguru listened to the prayer of the Guru, showered Him with praise that He is great, and accepted Guru Sahib's merger with Him. 2.

---------- Mayray Sikh soonhou poott, bhaayiho, mayraiy Hur(i) bhaana, aaou mein paas(i) jeeou. Hur(i) Bhaana Gur bhaaya, mayra Hur(i) Prubh(u) kuray shabaash(i) jeeou. Word Meaning: Bhaana = Will. Bhaaya = liked. Satgur(u) Purakh(u) = Guru as a manifestation of Waheguru. Aanund = blissfulness. Unhud = Divine. Vaajay = musical instruments. Gul(i) Maylaavay = hug; embrace. Pervaar(u) = family. Nirjaas(i) = decide; verify. Dhoor(i) = from the source (Waheguru). Pervaana = letter; order. Phiraiy Naahi = cannot be changed. 3.

MEANING: Guru Sahib called His Sikhs, who were like sons and brothers to Him, and told them to listen to the Will of Waheguru. "I like the Will of my Lord, which is all His praise for me. He is the real devotee of Waheguru or Satgur(u) who likes (honours) the Will of Waheguru. When one does that, Waheguru hugs him with love, and the devotee feels blissful, as if Divine music is playing in his mind. All of you Sikhs, who are my sons, my brothers, and my family, can decide for yourselves that the order written by Waheguru cannot be changed; so, I have to go to Him". 3.

Word Meaning: Bhaanaiy = with own will. Mut = lest; do not. Mein Pichhaiy = after I am gone. Mool(i) Na = not at all. Paijhaiy = honoured. Bigsaiy = feels overjoyed. Paiyj = respect. Paiynaavay = honours. Pertukh(i) = visible; alive. Raj = spiritual kingdom. Tikaaya = established. Bundhup = relatives. Paiyreen Paaya = make touch feet. 4.

MEANING: Satguru called His family and the Sikhs to Him by His own will, and told them that nobody would cry after He was gone because He did not like any crying at all. If a person is honoured, his friends (and well-wishers) should feel overjoyed if they like the honour being accorded to their friend. Now, I am being honoured by Waheguru, so you decide for yourselves (whether you should cry or be happy). Satguru, while still alive, decided and appointed His successor in the spiritual kingdom, and made all the Sikhs, relatives, sons, and brothers to drop at the feet of (Guru) Ram Dass Ji. 4.

Hur(i) bhaaya Satguru(u) boliya, Hur(i) miliya Purakh soojaan(u) jeeou. Ram Dass Sodhi Tilk deeya, Gur Shabad, Sach(u) neeshaan(u) jeeou. 5. ----------

Word Meaning: Untay = at the end. Nirbaan(u) = emancipating. Kaysho, Gopal = (the Sikhs of) Waheguru. Pundit = (spiritually) educated (enlightened). Sudihou = call in. Puraan = Puranas. Baybaan(u) = decorated bier. Rung(u) = love. Bhaavyay = likes. Pind Putta(i) Kirya = placing balls of wheat or barley flour on leaves (see the note above). Deeva = lamp (of wheat flour). Phooll = ashes. Hur(i) Sur(i) = Waheguru's Holy Pool (Holy gathering where His praise is sung). Purakh(u) = living power. Soojaan = perfectly wise. Tilk Deeya = appointed the Guru. Neeshaan(u) = identification. 5.

MEANING: At the end, Satguru told the gathering to sing only Waheguru's praise, which emancipates us. He advised calling the learned Sikhs to explain the virtues of Waheguru, which will be the reading of the Groorr Purana for us (we do not need to read the Purana). Rather than decorating my bier, sing and listen to the story of Waheguru's countless virtues; love for Waheguru is the decoration of the bier, which I like. I prefer the holy gathering of Guru's Sikhs, where Waheguru's praise is sung, to the useless rituals of the wheat balls placed on leaves, the lamp of wheat flower to be placed on my hand, and disposing of my ashes after the cremation in the River Ganga. Loved by Waheguru, the Satguru said that He had realized the perfectly wise living power of Waheguru. He anointed (appointed) Ram Dass Sodhi Ji His successor, and implanted Guru's Shabad in His (Ram Dass Ji's) heart as the eternal sign of identification (as the Guru). 5.

Word Meaning: J(i) = which. Rujaayay = Will. Sunmukh(u) = came forwarf. Kayri = of. Jithaiy = where. Aap(u) = self; own Soul. Bukheeli = jealousy. Nivaiy = bow to. Aan(i) = brought. Dhoor(i) = from the source; by Waheguru. Laykh(u) = writing. Rujaayay = Will.
MEANING: The Gur Sikhs gladly obeyed whatever Satguru had said, and first of all, His son, Mohri, came forward to touch the feet of Ram Dass Ji. After that, everybody dropped at the feet of Ram Dass Ji, in whom the Satguru had placed His soul (Waheguru's Naam). If, for reasons of jealousy, some people did not touch Ram Dass Ji's feet (accept Him as the new Guru), Guru Amar Dass Ji forced them to do so. As per Waheguru's prewritten Will, Guru Amar Dass Ji honoured Waheguru's Will and accorded the respect of Guruship to Shri Ram Dass Ji. Sundar (Ji) tells all the holy Sikhs that the whole world came to drop at the feet of Ram Dass Ji. 6.1.

Word Meaning: Saajunrra = dear friend. Nicket(i) = near by. Khuloyayrra = stands by (in support). Jaaniurra = dear like life. Naiyn = (with) eyes. Aloyayrra = saw. Soya = is resting. Ut(i) = extreme. Amrit = sweet; life giving. Priyay = Dear. Goorra = reliable. Naal(i) Hovunda = being with. Leh(i) = acquire. Skunda = can. Sooaaou = taste; blissfulness. Moorra = foolish. Mud(i) = liquor. Maata = intoxicated. Hoacchi Baata = low-quality thinking. Bherm = illusions. Dhurra = too many. Soojhaiy = have knowledge. 1. Praan Adhaara = life-supporting. Kirpaala = kind; merciful. Dataara = Provider. Upper Apaara = with no ends. Sohniya = adorning. Daasi = slave (Maya). Dhaari = supported; created. Subul = very powerful. Pusaari = influencing everywhere. Mohniya = captivating. Sach(u) Bhaakhaiy = recites Waheguru's Naam. Beechaara = ponders on. Bhaana = liked. 2.
MEANING: My Waheguru is my closest friend, always with me, providing support. He is dear to me like my own life, and I have "seen" Him with my own eyes. I have seen with my own eyes that He is resting (present) in every heart; He is my extremely reliable friend who injects new spiritual life to immortalize His devotees. Even though Waheguru resides in every heart, the foolish (and egoist) man does not realize that, and cannot enjoy the blissfulness of union with Him. Intoxicated with the liquor of Maya, he enjoys the low-quality life (of immoral activities and of ignoble thinking). Misled by too many illusions of Maya, he cannot have union with God. Even though the Lord is close to everybody, a man cannot have any knowledge about Him without the Guru. 1.
Waheguru is the basis of my life. He is very merciful and the provider who fulfils all our needs. The provider Waheguru is endless and adorns every heart. He has also created a slave of His (fully under His control), which (Maya) is very powerful, present everywhere, and captivating everybody (everyone is trapped in its net). However, the devotee, who ponders on Guru's Shabad and recites Waheguru's Naam, is protected by Waheguru from the attractions of Maya. But only those devotees love Waheguru who are liked by Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Waheguru connects those devotees with Him whom He likes, and keeps some away (disconnected) (as they are engrossed in Maya). I am in the shelter of Waheguru who has great majesty. 2.

With their love for Maya, they are estranged from Waheguru and squirm in the pain of separation, like a fish wriggling in pain without water. Because of his sins, the man stays frightened to death due to the possible punishment by the Angel of death and due to the fear of rebirths in many different life forms. I, Nanak, have come to Your shelter, oh, the fulfiller of all wishes, Waheguru; please keep me in Your shelter. 3.
