Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i)
Ramkali Mehla 1, Dukkhni
ONKAR(U)

NOTE: During His first odyssey in south-western India, Guru Nanak Sahib visited a temple "Omkareshwar or Onkar" in Madhya Pradesh on the bank of the river Narbada, where people were worshipping an idol of god Shiva, believing it to be "Onkar" (the Supreme Being). Even the Pundits were teaching their students to worship this idol as the Onkar. Guru Nanak Sahib enlightened the ignorant pundits and the people about the real "Onkar," which is the creator of the whole universe, including god Brahma, who is believed to be the creator of the whole world. Guru Nanak Sahib wrote the following holy composition for humanity, explaining who the real Supreme Being is. Guru Sahib used the letters of the Gurmukhi alphabet to start each paurri (stanza).

ਓਅੰਕਾਰਿ ਬ੍ਰਹਮਾ ਉਤਪਤਿ॥ ਓਅੰਕਾਰੁ ਕੀਆ ਜਿਨਿ ਚਿਤਿ॥ ਓਅੰਕਾਰਿ ਸੈਲ ਜੁਗ ਭਏ॥ ਓਅੰਕਾਰਿ ਬੇਦ ਨਿਰਮਏ॥
(ਅੰਗ 930)॥ ਓਅੰਕਾਰਿ ਸਬਦਿ ਉਧਰੇ॥ ਓਅੰਕਾਰਿ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਤਰੇ॥ ਓਨਮ ਅਖਰ ਸੁਣਹੁ ਬੀਚਾਰੁ॥ ਓਨਮ ਅਖਰੁ ਤ੍ਰਿਭਵਣ ਸਾਰੁ ॥1॥
Onkar(i) Brahma ootput(i). Onkar(u) keeya jin(i) chit(i). Onkar(i) saiyl joog bhuyyay. Onkar(i) Bayd nirmuyyay.
(PAGE 930): Onkar(i) Shabad(i) oodhray. Onkar(i) Gurmukh(i) turay. Onum Akkhur soonhou beechaar(u). Onum Akkhur(u) tirbhuvun saar(u). 1.
Word Meaning: Onkar(u) = the Supreme Being, which is uniformly present everywhere. Ootput(i) = creation; created. Chit(i) = in mind. Saiyl = (countless) rocks (mountains); the world. Joog = eons. Bayd = religious texts such as the Vedas. Nirmuyyay = came into being. Oodhray = Turay = salvaged. Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. Akkhur = word. Tirbhuvun = the whole universe. Saar(u) = supreme. 1.
MEANING: (You believe this idol of Shiva to be the Onkar (the Supreme Being), oh pundit). But, let me tell you about the real "Onkar". He is the one who created even Brahma, whom you think to be the creator of the world, and whom Brahma keeps in mind. "Onkar" is the creator of the universe, and the Vedas came into being because of the wisdom given to their authors by Onkar. People find salvation by reciting the Guru's Shabad (Naam of Onkar). Listen to, and ponder on the idea of the word "Onum". This Word is the supreme in the three worlds. 1.
ਸੁਣਿ ਪਾਡੇ ਕਿਆ ਲਿਖਹੁ ਜੰਜਾਲਾ॥ ਲਿਖੁ ਰਾਮ ਨਾਮ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਗੋਪਾਲਾ॥ 1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥
Soon(i) paanday kiyya likhou junjaala. Likh(u) Ram Naam Gurmukh(i) Gopala. Ruhaou.
Word Meaning: Paanday = oh, pundit. Junjaala = traps of Maya (affairs of the world).
MEANING: What (useless) things are you writing (teaching your students) which will simply become traps of Maya for them, oh pundit? The only thing to teach them is Waheguru's Naam. Pause.

ਸਸੈ ਸਭੁ ਜਗੁ ਸਹਜਿ ਉਪਾਇਆ ਤੀਨਿ ਭਵਨ ਇਕ ਜੋਤੀ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਵਸਤ ਪਰਾਪਤਿ ਹੋਵੈ ਚੁਣਿ ਲੈ ਮਾਣਕ ਮੋਤੀ॥ ਸਮਝੈ ਸੂਝੈ ਪੜਿ ਪੜਿ ਬੂਝੈ ਅੰਤਿ ਨਿਰੰਤਰਿ ਸਾਚਾ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਦੇਖੈ ਸਾਚੁ ਸਮਾਲੇ ਬਿਨੁ ਸਾਚੇ ਜਗੁ ਕਾਚਾ॥ 2॥

Sussaiy subh(u) jug(u) sehj(i) oopaaya, teen(i) bhuvun Ikk Joti. Gurmukh(i) vust praaput(i) hovaiy, choon(i) laiy maanuk moti. Sumjhaiy, soojhaiy, purr(i), purr(i) boojhaiy, unt(i) niruntur(i) Saacha. Gurmukh(i) daykhaiy Saach(u) smaalay, bin(u) Saachay jug(u) kaacha. 2.

Word Meaning: Sussaiy = the letter "S" of Gurmukhi (Punjabi). Sehj(i) = without any special effort. Joti = Waheguru's Light (Soul). Vust = the invaluable thing (Waheguru's Naam). Maanuk Moti = pearls (wealth of the Naam). Soojhaiy = ponders on. Boojhaiy = acquires the understanding. Unt(i) = at the end. Niruntar(i) = continuous. Saacha = the eternal Waheguru (God). Smaalay = remembers. Kaacha = loves perishables. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru created the whole world without any special effort. His Light (Soul) is sustaining all living beings in all three worlds – the earth, the sky, and the underworld. His pearls-like invaluable Naam can be acquired from the Guru; so, seek the Guru's shelter to pick up the noble qualities just like a swan (a clean bird) picks up pearls (a belief of Hindu Granths). When a devotee ponders on the Guru's Shabad, he comes to realize at the end that it is only the uniform Waheguru which is eternal. A devotee, who comes to the Guru's shelter, realizes that without Waheguru's Naam, the world loves the perishables; so, he always keeps Him in mind. 2.

ਧਧੈ ਧਰਮੁ ਧਰੇ ਧਰਮਾਪੁਰਿ ਗੁਣਕਾਰੀ ਮਨੁ ਧੀਰਾ॥ ਧਧੈ ਧੂਲਿ ਪੜੈ ਮੁਖਿ ਮਸਤਕਿ ਕੰਚਨ ਭਏ ਮਨੂਰਾ॥ ਧਨੁ ਧਰਣੀਧਰੁ ਆਪਿ ਅਜੋਨੀ ਤੋਲਿ ਬੋਲਿ ਸਚੁ ਪੂਰਾ॥ ਕਰਤੇ ਕੀ ਮਿਤਿ ਕਰਤਾ ਜਾਣੈ, ਕੈ ਜਾਣੈ ਗੁਰੁ ਸੂਰਾ॥ 3॥

Dhudhaiy dherm(u) dhuray Dhemapur(i),goonkaari mun(u) dheera. Dhudhaiy, dhool(i) purraiy much(i) mustuk(i), kunchun bhuyyay munoora. Dhun(u) Dhernidhur, Aap(i) ajoani, toal(i), boal(i) Sach(u) Poora. Kertaiy kee mit(i) Kerta jaanaiy, kaiy jaanaiy Gur(u) soora. 3.

Word Meaning: Dhudhaiy = the Gurmukhi letter "Dh". Dherm = divinity and high morality. Dhermapur(i) = in holy gatherings. Dheera = becomes contented. Dhool(i) = the dust of Guru's Feet (Shabad). Mookh(i) = in the mouth. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead (mind). Kunchun = gold. Munoora = burnt (scrap) iron. Dhun(u) = great; worthy of worship. Dhrndhur(u) = the support of the earth (Waheguru). Ajoani = never takes a life form. Toal(i) = in spirituality. Boal(i) = in words. Sach(u) = eternal God. Mit(i) = transcendence. Kaiy = or. Soora = valiant (who has defeated the demons); Perfect. 3.

MEANING: The Perfect Guru preaches divinity and high morality in holy gatherings, which are full of virtues, and are a source of contentment. When an individual, who has a heart like useless scrap iron, recites the Guru's Shabad and ponders on it, becomes pure like gold, at heart. The Guru, which is a manifestation of Waheguru, which never takes a life form, is perfect in His spirituality and in His words. Only Waheguru, or the Perfect Guru, knows Waheguru's transcendence. 3.

ਙਿਆਨੁ ਗਵਾਇਆ ਦੂਜਾ ਭਾਇਆ ਗਰਬਿ ਗਲੇ ਬਿਖੁ ਖਾਇਆ॥ ਗੁਰ ਰਸੁ ਗੀਤ ਬਾਦ ਨਹੀ ਭਾਵੈ ਸੁਣੀਐ ਗਹਿਰ ਗੰਭੀਰੁ ਗਵਾਇਆ॥ ਗੁਰਿ ਸਚੁ ਕਹਿਆ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਿਤ ਲਹਿਆ ਮਨਿ ਤਨਿ ਸਾਚੁ ਸੁਖਾਇਆ॥ ਆਪੇ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਆਪੇ ਦੇਵੈ ਆਪੇ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਿਤ ਪੀਆਇਆ॥ 4॥

Gniyaan(u) guvaaya, dooja bhaaya, gerb(i) gulay, bikh(u) khaaya. Gur rus(u), geet, baad, nuhee bhaavaiy sooniyaiy, Gehr, Gumbheer guvaaya. Gur(i) Sach(u) kuhhiya, Amrit luhhiya, mun(i), tun(i) Saach(u) sookhaaya. Aapay Gurmukh(i), Aapay dayvaiy, Aapay Amrit peeyaaya. 4.

Gniyaan(u) = Divine Knowledge; Guru's Shabad. Guvaaya = lost; did not follow. Dooja = Maya's attractions. Bhaaya = liked. Gerb(i) Gulay = rot in conceit. Bikh(u) Khaaya = enjoyed the poisonous luxuries of Maya. Rus(u) = sweetness; blissfulness. Baad = words. Gehr = unfathomable Waheguru. Gumbheer = never-changing God. Sach(u) = eternal Waheguru. Luhhiya = acquired. Sookhaaya = finds comforting. 4.

MEANING: The individual, who does not follow the Guru's Shabad and loves (enjoys) the poisonous attractions of Maya, loses Divine Knowledge (spirituality), and rots in his ego. He does not like to listen to Guru's Words (Shabad), and does not enjoy their sweetness (blissfulness), and loses connection with the unfathomable and never-changing Waheguru. But, a devotee, who believes in the Words of the Guru in praise of Waheguru, acquires the Amrit-like (immortalizing) Naam of Waheguru in his heart, and finds it comforting to his body and mind. Waheguru Himself puts His devotees in Guru's shelter and gives His Amrit-like Naam to them. 4.

ਏਕੋ ਏਕੁ ਕਹੈ ਸਭੁ ਕੋਈ ਹਉਮੈ ਗਰਬੁ ਵਿਆਪੈ॥ ਅੰਤਰਿ ਬਾਹਰਿ ਏਕੁ ਪਛਾਣੈ ਇਉ ਘਰੁ ਮਹਲੁ ਸਿਞਾਪੈ॥ ਪ੍ਰਭੁ ਨੇੜੈ ਹਰਿ ਦੂਰਿ ਨ ਜਾਣਹੁ ਏਕੋ ਸ੍ਰਿਸਟਿ ਸਬਾਈ॥ ਏਕੰਕਾਰੁ ਅਵਰੁ ਨਹੀ ਦੂਜਾ ਨਾਨਕ ਏਕੁ ਸਮਾਈ॥ 5॥

Aiko, Aik(u) kuhhaiy subh(u) koyee, haumein gerb(u) viyaapaiy. Untar(i), baahur(i), Aik(u) puchhaanaiy, iyoun Ghur(u), Mehl(u) sinyaapaiy. Prubh(u) nayrraiy, Hur(i) door(i) na jaanhou, Aiko srisht(i) subaayee. Ekunkar(u), uver(u) nuhee dooja, Nanak Aik(u) smaayee. 5.

Word Meaning: Haumein = selfishness and ego. Gerb(u) = conceit. Viyaapaiy = happens; affects. Ghur(u) = Mehl = Waheguru's Residence. Sinyaapaiy = recognizes. Subaayee = the whole. Ekunkar(u) = Waheguru. Uver(u) = other. Smaayee = present.

MEANING: As far as chanting is concerned, everybody says that there is only one Supreme Being, but internally, they are highly selfish and egoistic. But, a devotee, who recognizes the "one" Supreme Being in his heart and also in the outside world with full faith, recognizes Waheguru's Residence (gets connected with Him). Do not think Waheguru (God) to be far away from you, oh pundit; in fact, He is very close to you, and He alone is present in the whole universe. There is no one else, but only Ek Onkar (Waheguru), which is omnipresent, oh Nanak. 5.

ਇਸੁ ਕਰਤੇ ਕਉ ਕਿਉ ਗਹਿ ਰਾਖਉ ਅਫਰਿਓ ਤੁਲਿਓ ਨ ਜਾਈ॥ ਮਾਇਆ ਕੇ ਦੇਵਾਨੇ ਪ੍ਰਾਣੀ ਝੂਠਿ ਠਗਉਰੀ ਪਾਈ॥ ਲਬਿ ਲੋਭਿ ਮੁਹਤਾਜਿ ਵਿਗੂਤੇ ਇਬ ਤਬ ਫਿਰਿ ਪਛੁਤਾਈ॥ ਏਕੁ ਸਰੇਵੈ ਤਾ ਗਤਿ ਮਿਤਿ ਪਾਵੈ, ਆਵਣੁ ਜਾਣੁ ਰਹਾਈ॥6

Iss(u) Kertaiy kuou kiyoun geh(i) raakhoun afuriyo, tooliyo na jaayee. Maya kay dayvaanay praani, jhootth(i) tthugauri paayee. Lub(i), lobh(i), moohtaaj(i) vigootay, ibb, tub, phir(i) puchhutaayee. Aik(u) surayvaiy, ta gut(i), mit(u) paavaiy, aavun(u), jaan(u) ruhaayee. 6.

Word Meaning: Geh(i) Raakhoun = keep holding (in mind). Afuriyo = which cannot be held (caught). Tooliyo = be weighed (evaluated). Dayvaanay = crazy; insane. Jhootth(i) = of the perishable. Tthugauri = a vine that produces temporary mesmerisation. Lub(i) = in gluttony. Moohtaaj(i) = subservient. Vigootay = suffer humiliation. Ibb, Tub, Phir(i) = now, then, and again; always. Puchhutaayee = repent. Gut(i) Mit(u) = high spiritual state. Aavun(u) Jaan(u) = rebirths. Ruhaayee = ends.

MEANING: The Creator is uncatchable (is inaccessible) and His qualities and measurements can never be known; so how can one catch (enshrine) Him in his heart? The man is insane about the attractions of Maya and is mesmerized by it. Subservient (slave) to gluttony and greed, he suffers humiliation and repents all the time. However, he can attain a high spiritual state by serving the “One” Waheguru, and have his birth-death cycle terminated, oh, pundit ji. 6.

ਏਕੁ ਅਚਾਰੁ ਰੰਗੁ ਇਕੁ ਰੂਪੁ॥ ਪਉਣ ਪਾਣੀ ਅਗਨੀ ਅਸਰੂਪੁ॥ ਏਕੋ ਭਵਰੁ ਭਵੈ ਤਿਹੁ ਲੋਇ॥ ਏਕੋ ਬੂਝੈ ਸੂਝੈ ਪਤਿ ਹੋਇ॥ ਗਿਆਨੁ ਧਿਆਨੁ ਲੇ ਸਮਸਰਿ ਰਹੈ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਏਕੁ ਵਿਰਲਾ ਕੋ ਲਹੈ॥ ਜਿਸ ਨੋ ਦੇਇ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਤੇ ਸੁਖੁ ਪਾਏ॥ ਗੁਰੂ ਦੁਆਰੈ ਆਖਿ ਸੁਣਾਏ॥ 7॥

Aik(u) achaar(u), rung, Ikk(u) roop(u). Paun, paani, ugnee asroop(u). Aiko bhuvur(u) bhuvvaiy tihou loyay. Aiko boojhaiy, soojhaiy, put(i) hoyay. Giyan(u), dhiyan(u) lay sumsur(i) ruhhaiy. Gurmukh(i) Aik(u), virla ko luhhaiy. Jis nu dayay, kirpa tay sookh(u) paayay. Guru Dooaaraiy aakh(i), soonaayay. 7.

Word Meaning: Achaar(u) = character; moral behaviour; source of all virtues. Rung Roop = looks. Asroop = manifestation. Bhuvur(u) = (Supreme) Soul. Bhuvvaiy = travels; is present. Tihou Loyay = in the three worlds – earth, underworld, and the sky. Boojhaiy = understands (makes connection). Soojhaiy = ponders on. Put(i) = dignity. Sumsur(i) = balanced. Virla = rare. Luhhaiy = acquires (Waheguru’s Naam). 7.

MEANING: Waheguru alone is the source of all virtues, and the whole world is His own colour and features (visible form). Air, water, and fire are his own manifestations; (so, worship Him, rather than any idol), oh Pundit. Only His Soul is travelling through (is present) in the three worlds. A person who ponders on His Naam and connects with Him earns respect. With focus on His Naam, and with the Divine Knowledge, such a devotee leads a fully balanced life (sadness and happiness do not affect him). However, there is a rare individual who connects with Waheguru. The individual, who Waheguru gives His Naam with His munificence through the Guru’s advice, enjoys blissfulness. 7.

ਊਰਮ ਧੂਰਮ ਜੋਤਿ ਉਜਾਲਾ॥ ਤੀਨਿ ਭਵਣ ਮਹਿ ਗੁਰ ਗੋਪਾਲਾ॥ ਊਗਵਿਆ ਅਸਰੂਪੁ ਦਿਖਾਵੈ॥ ਕਰਿ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਅਪੁਨੈ ਘਰਿ ਆਵੈ॥ ਊਨਵਿ ਬਰਸੈ ਨੀਝਰ ਧਾਰਾ॥ ਊਤਮ ਸਬਦਿ ਸਵਾਰਣਹਾਰਾ॥ ਇਸੁ ਏਕੇ ਕਾ ਜਾਣੈ ਭੇਉ॥ ਆਪੇ ਕਰਤਾ ਆਪੇ ਦੇਉ॥ 8॥

Oorum, dhoorum Jot(i) oojaala. Teen(i) bhuvun meh(i) Gur Gopala. Oogviya asroop(u) dikhaavaiy. Kur(i) kirpa, apunaiy ghur(i) aavaiy. Oonuv(i) bersaiy neejhur dhaara. Ootum Shabad(i) suvaarunhaara. Iss(u) Aikay ka jaanaiy bhayo. Aapay Kerta, Aapay Dayou. 8.

Word Meaning: Oorum = ocean (water). Dhoorum = earth. Oojaala = light; enlightening. Oogviyaa = by being visible. Asroop = self. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Oonuv(i) = coming down. Bersaiy = showers. Neejhur Dhaara = continuous rain. Suvaarunhaara = causing success. Bhayo = secret. Dayou = source of light. 8.

MEANING: Waheguru’s Soul enlightens (removes darkness) of the living beings in water and on the land. Waheguru, as Guru, is present in all three worlds. He shows Himself by being visible in the form of His creation. With His benevolence, He takes up dwelling in some human hearts. Waheguru causes rain of His Naam-Amrit continuously and from close in such hearts (in which He takes dwelling) through Guru’s Supreme Shabad, which makes their life successful. Such devotees learn the secret that Waheguru Himself is the creator, and Himself, the source of enlightenment, oh pundit. 8.

Oogvaiy soor(u), asoor sunghaaraiy. Oochou daykh(i), Shabad(i) beechaaraiy. Oopur(i), aad(i), unt(i) tihou loyay. Aapay kuraiy, kuthaiy, soonaiy, Soyay.

(PAGE 931): Oh(u) Bidhaata, mun(u), tun(u) dayay. Oh(u) Bidhaata, mun(i), mookh(i) Soyay. Prubh Jugjeevun(u), uver(u) na koyay. Nanak, Naam(i) ruttay, put(i) hoyay. 9.
Word Meaning: Oogvaiy = rises. Soor(u) = sun; enlightenment. Asoor = demons (lust, greed etc.) Sunghaaraiy = destroys. Oochou = high (in transcendence). Aad(i) Unt(i) = from the beginning to the end. Tihou Loyay = the three worlds. Kuthaiy = describes. Soyay = that (Waheguru). Bidhaata = carver of our fates. Jugjeevun = the life of the world. 9.
MEANING: When a devotee's mind gets enlightened with Guru's sun-like Shabad, he destroys the effectiveness of the demons (lust, greed, etc.) and "sees" the highly transcendent Waheguru. By pondering on Guru's Shabad, such a devotee realizes that it is Waheguru in all the three worlds, which is over the heads of all of us (to raise, nourish, and protect us) from the beginning to the end. And, (being present in the living beings), it is He who does everything, talks, and listens. He is the carver of our fates, and gives us bodies and mind. Also, he is the one who is in our minds, and on our tongues (knows all about our thoughts and our words). He is the life of the whole world, and there is none like Him. Those who are imbued in His Naam earn respect, oh Nanak. 9.

ਰਾਜਨ ਰਾਮ ਰਵੈ ਹਿਤਕਾਰਿ॥ ਰਣ ਮਹਿ ਲੂਝੈ ਮਨੂਆ ਮਾਰਿ॥ ਰਾਤਿ ਦਿਨੰਤਿ ਰਹੈ ਰੰਗਿ ਰਾਤਾ॥ ਤੀਨਿ ਭਵਨ ਜੁਗ ਚਾਰੇ ਜਾਤਾ॥ ਜਿਨਿ ਜਾਤਾ ਸੋ ਤਿਸ ਹੀ ਜੇਹਾ॥ ਅਤਿ ਨਿਰਮਾਇਲੁ ਸੀਝਸਿ ਦੇਹਾ॥ ਰਹਸੀ ਰਾਮੁ ਰਿਦੈ ਇਕ ਭਾਇ॥ ਅੰਤਰਿ ਸਬਦੁ ਸਾਚਿ ਲਿਵ ਲਾਇ॥ 10॥
Raajun, Ram ruvaiy hitkaar(i). Run meh(i) loojhaiy munooa maar(i). Raat(i) dinunt(i) ruhhaiy rung(i) raata. Teen(i) bhuvun joog chaaray jaata. Jin(i) jaata, so Tis hee jayha. Ut(i) nirmaayil(u), seejhus(i) dayha. Rehsi Ram(u) ridaiy Ikk bhaayay. Untar(i) Shabad(u) Saach(i) liv laayay. 10.
Word Meaning: Raajun = the Royal (Waheguru). Ruvaiy = recites (Naam); remembers. Hitkaar(i) = with affection. Run = battlefield. Loojhaiy = fights. Munooa Maar(i) = by controlling mind. Dinunt(i) = day. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in love. Tis Hee Jayha = like Him. Nirmaayil(u) = clean; pure. Seejhus(i) = becomes successful. Rehsi = source of bliss. Ikk Bhaayay = uniform; never changing. 10.
MEANING: A devotee, who recites Waheguru's (God's) Naam with love and reverence, is able to control his mind and successfully fight against vices (the five demons). He stays imbued in the love of God day and night, and recognizes only the one Supreme Being in all the three worlds, and in all the four eons. Such a devotee, who recognizes Waheguru (makes a connection with God), becomes like Him. His body and mind become extremely pure, and he achieves success (his objective) in life. The never-changing, and the source of bliss, Waheguru, makes the devotee's heart His permanent residence. With Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's Naam) in his heart, the devotee stays focused on Waheguru (connected with Him) all the time, oh pundit. 10.

Roas na keejaiy, Amrit(u) peejaiy, rehn(u) nuhee sunsaaray. Raajay, raayay, runk nuhhi rehna, aayay, jaayay, joog chaaray. Rehn, kehn tay ruhhaiy na koyee, kis(u) peh(i) kuroun binuntee. Aik(u) Shabad(u), Ram Naam nirodhur(u), Guru dayvaiy put(i) mutee.
Word Meaning: Roas(u) = resentment; complain. Amrit(u) Peejiay = recite Waheguru's immortalizing Naam. Raayay = wealthy. Runk = pauper. Rehn = to live (longer). Kehn = by saying (wishing). Binunti = request; pray. Nirodhur(u) = protector (from vices). Put(i) Mutee = the advice to earn respect. 11.

MEANING: Nobody is going to live in the world forever, oh pundit; so, do not complain if things do not go your way. Nothing lives forever, so even your troubles will be over, too. So, recite Waheguru's immortalizing Naam. Be it a rajah, a wealthy person, or a pauper, everyone born will have to go, no matter what the eon is. Nobody stays any longer (than his predetermined age) simply by wishing, no matter whom he prays to. The Guru advises that only Waheguru's Naam protects one against the attacks of Maya and earns him respect in His Court. 11.

Laaj muruntee mue(i) guyyee, ghoonghut khohl(i) chulee. Saas(u) divaani, baavri, sir tay, shunk tulee. Praym(i) boolayee, rulee siyoun, mun meh(i) Shabad(u) anund(u). Laal(i) rutti, laali bhuyyee, Gurmukh(i) bhuyyee nichind(u). 12.
Word Meaning: Laaj Muruntee = (the fear of (unwarranted) public criticism. Mur(i) Guyyee = disappeared. Ghoonghut Khohl(i) = publicly; in open. Chulee = followed the lifestyle. Saas(u) = mother-in-law (Maya). Divaani Baavri = crazy. Shunk = worry; unnecessary pressure. Tulee = avoided; disappear. Rulee Siyoun = with excitement. Laal(i) = in Dear (Waheguru). Laali Bhuyyee = enhanced self-esteem. Nichind(u) = worry-free. 12.
MEANING: The devotee, who overcomes the fear of the possible unwarranted criticism by the people (people made cruel fun of the devotees who worshipped any other power than the accepted idols in those days), and disregarding it, begins to worship Waheguru publicly, considers the attractions of Maya to be a craze, and all her mental worries disappear. Called in by Waheguru with affection, she feels very excited and feels blissful with Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's Naam) in her mind. Imbued with the love of the Dear (Waheguru), she develops a strong sense of self-esteem and becomes worry-free. 12.

ਲਾਹਾ ਨਾਮੁ ਰਤਨੁ ਜਪਿ ਸਾਰੁ॥ ਲਬੁ ਲੋਭੁ ਬੁਰਾ ਅਹੰਕਾਰੁ॥ ਲਾੜੀ ਚਾੜੀ ਲਾਇਤਬਾਰੁ॥ ਮਨਮੁਖ ਅੰਧਾ ਮੁਗਧੁ ਗਵਾਰੁ॥ ਲਾਹੇ ਕਾਰਣਿ ਆਇਆ ਜਗਿ॥ ਹੋਇ ਮਜੂਰੁ ਗਇਆ ਠਗਾਇ ਠਗਿ॥ ਲਾਹਾ ਨਾਮੁ ਪੂੰਜੀ ਵੇਸਾਹੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਚੀ ਪਤਿ ਸਚਾ ਪਾਤਿਸਾਹੁ॥ 13॥
Laaha Naam(u) ruttan(u) jup(i) saar(u). Lub(u), lobh(u) boora, ahunkaar(u). Laarri, chaarri, la-itbaar. Munmukh undha, moogudh(u) guvaar(u). Laahay kaarun(i) aaya jug(i). Hoyay mujoor(u), guyya tthugaayay, tthug(i). Laaha Naam(u), poonji vaysaah(u). Nanak sachi put(i), sacha Paat(i) Shaah(u). 13.
Word Meaning: Laaha = benefit; gain (in spirituality). Saar(u) = supreme. Laarri Chaarri = unwarranted criticism and praise. La-itbaar = untrustworthy. Moogudh(u) = foolish. Guvaar = unrefined. Kaarun(i) = for the sake of. Mujoor(u) = slave. Tthugaayay = cheated. Tthug(i) = by the deceitful Maya. Poonji = wealth. Vaysaah(u) = trust. 13.
MEANING: Whereas gluttony, greed and conceit are highly detrimental to spirituality, one gains (enhances his) spirituality by reciting the jewel-like precious Naam of Waheguru, which is the supreme; oh pundit. Undeserving criticism or praise from others makes one untrustworthy. The Maya-engrossed person is (spiritually) blind, foolish, and unrefined. He comes to the world to gain spirituality, but becomes a slave of Maya, and leaves the world robbed (of spirituality) by the deceitful Maya. Waheguru's Naam is the real wealth by which one gains spirituality, and wins trust, and the eternal Waheguru bestows him with eternal respect, oh Nanak. 13.

ਆਇ ਵਿਗੁਤਾ ਜਗੁ ਜਮ ਪੰਥੁ॥ ਆਈ ਨ ਮੇਟਣ ਕੋ ਸਮਰਥੁ॥ ਆਥਿ ਸੈਲ ਨੀਚ ਘਰਿ ਹੋਇ॥ ਆਥਿ ਦੇਖਿ ਨਿਵੈ ਜਿਸੁ ਦੋਇ॥ ਆਥਿ ਹੋਇ ਤਾ ਮੁਗਧੁ ਸਿਆਨਾ॥ ਭਗਤਿ ਬਿਹੂਨਾ ਜਗੁ ਬਉਰਾਨਾ॥ ਸਭ ਮਹਿ ਵਰਤੈ ਏਕੋ ਸੋਇ॥ ਜਿਸ ਨੋ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਕਰੇ ਤਿਸੁ ਪਰਗਟੁ ਹੋਇ॥ 14॥

Aayay vigoota, jug(u) Jum(u) punth(u). Aayee na maytun ko sumruth(u). Aath(i) saiyl neech ghur(i) hoyay. Aath(i) daykh(i) nivaiy jis(u) doyay. Aath(i) hoyay ta moogudh(u) siyaana. Bhugut(i) vihoona, jug(u) buouraana. Subh meh(i) vertaiy Aiko Soyay. Jis nu kirpa kuray, tis(u) pergut(u) hoyay. 14.

Word Meaning: Aayay = after birth. Vigoota = misled; suffers humiliation. Jum Punth = on the path to the Angel of death. Aayee = Aath(i) = wealth. Maytun Ko = to eliminate. Sumruth = capable. Aath(i) Saiyl = mountain of wealth. Neech = ignoble; immoral. Nivaiy = bow to; acknowledge. Doyay = both – the rich and the poor. Moogudh = foolish. Vihoona = without; devoid of. Buouraana = crazy. Vertaiy = operates. 14.

MEANING: The man believes that wealth is everything in the world. For that reason, even a wealthy idiot is treated like a wise man, and both – the rich and the poor – bow to him (accord him respect) even if he had earned that money by immoral means. So, the man makes every effort to accumulate wealth, be it by fair or unfair means. Without Waheguru's worship, the world is crazy after wealth, and uses means which put him on the path leading to moral death, and he suffers humiliation. Moreover, wealth cannot save him from spiritual death. It is the same Waheguru that operates in everybody, but appears only in that heart to which He is kind, oh pundit. 14.

Joog(i), joog(i), thaap(i), sudaa nirvaiyr(u). Junum(i), mern(i), nuhee dhundha dhaiyr(u). Jo deesaiy, so Aapay, Aap(i). Aap(i) oopaayay, Aapay ghut thaap(i). Aap(i) agoachur(u), dhundhaiy loyee. Joag, joogut(i), Jugjeevun(u) Soyee. Kur(i) aachaar(u), such(u) sookh(u) hoyee. Naam vihoona, mookt(i) kiv hoyee. 15.

Word Meaning: Thaap(i) = set up; create. Nirvaiyr(u) = bears no enmity. Dhundha = bonds of Maya. Dhaiyr(u) = misgivings; illusions. Ghut = hearts. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible; above the effects of Maya. Loyee = world. Joag Joogut(i) = the means to have union with Him. Sach(u) Achaar(u) = to follow the high moral principles (as per Guru's advice). Vihoona = without.

MEANING: Waheguru creates life in every eon (always), and bears no enmity with anyone (evaluates everybody's deeds with impartiality). He does not take births and does not die. He is not involved in any worldly affair, and does not suffer from any illusions. He puts the world to work based on the attractions of Maya, but Himself is beyond comprehension (is above the effects of Maya). He also guides people on how to connect with Him, oh pundit. Nobody can be emancipated without His Naam, so, you too, should develop high moral character (by reciting His Naam) so as to enjoy eternal bliss, oh pundit. 15.

Laaha milaiy ja dayay boojhayay. Vunuj(u), vapaar(u) vunjaiy vapaari. Vin(u) Naavaiy, kaiysi put(i) saari? 16.

Word Meaning: Vayrodh(u) = opposition; conflict. Kaateh(i) = eradicate. Vaat = journey. Vataaoo = travellers. Pullaiy Paayay = acquire. Toata = loss. Laaha = benefit. Boojhaayay = gives understanding. Vunuj(u) Vapaar(u) = trading; business. Put(i) = respect. Saari = good; true. 16.

MEANING: Man's senses are in conflict with his rational thinking (are not in his control) without Waheguru's Naam. So, why shouldn't the man make a connection with Waheguru (His Naam) to terminate his mental anguish? The man is a traveller on the journey of life, and keeps taking births and dying. What wealth is he born with, and what wealth does he take with him (after his death)? Without Waheguru's Naam, there is loss (of spirituality and morality) everywhere, but one makes gains (in spirituality) when Waheguru gives him the understanding. The man is a trader in this world, and he normally does business in Maya-related things (for which he may earn some respect in society), but there is no true respect without Waheguru's Naam, oh pundit ji. 16.

Goon veechaaraiy, Giyani soyay. Goon meh(i) Giyaan(u) praaput(i) hoyay. Goon-daata virla sunsaar(i). Saachi kerni, Gur veechaar(i). Agumm, agoachur(u), keemut(i) nuhhi paayay.

(PAGE 932): Ta miliyaiy, ja luyyay milaayay. Goonvunti, goon saaray neet. Nanak Gurmut(i), miliyaiy meet. 17.

Word Meaning: Soyay = that. Giyan(u) = Divine Knowledge; connection with God. Praaput(i) = acquirement. Goon-daata = virtuous (who has made connection with Waheguru). Virla = rare. Kerni = performance; service. Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Saaray = takes good care; maintains. Neet = always. 17.

MEANING: (Traditional education does not make a man knowledgeable in divinity, oh pundit ji). Only that individual acquires Divine Knowledge who ponders on the virtues of Waheguru (makes a connection with Him), and acquires those virtues. But such virtuous people are rare in the world. Pondering on Guru's Shabad is true service to Waheguru. Waheguru is inaccessible and incomprehensible, and nobody can ever measure His true worth. However, one can certainly connect with Him with His benevolence (when He Himself connects the individuals). A virtuous devotee remembers the virtues of Waheguru and can unite with the friendly God with Guru's advice, oh pundit. 17.

Word Meaning: Kaam(u) = lust. Kroadh(u) = rage. Gaalaiy = weakens. Kunchun = gold. Sohaaga = borax. Dhaalaiy = softens. Kusvutti = the touchstone. Suhhaiy = endures. Su = that gold. Taaou = heat. Sraaf = goldsmith. Vunees = of beautiful colour (lustre). Churraaou = approved. Jugut(u) = world. Pushoo = animal. Ahun = ego. Kaal(u) = death. Kusaayee = butcher; ruthless. Kur(i) = in the hand; hands over to. Kerni = performance. Kur(i) Paayee = writes in their fate. 18.

MEANING: Just like borax softens (weakens) gold in a cupel (without Waheguru's Naam), the human body and mind rot (weaken) because of his lust and rage, oh pundit. Just like gold, which has to endure heat before it becomes pure and acquires beautiful shine, and before the goldsmith tests it on the touchstone and approves it, the man has to suffer many hardships to discipline his body before he is approved by Waheguru. Normally, the world is undisciplined like an animal, and its ego is like a butcher who brings about its spiritual death. The Creator has created this world so that one reaps the rewards of one's own deeds, but Waheguru has set very high standards for union with Him. Only the Creator knows His standards; man cannot argue against them. 18.

Khin meh(i) mooyay ja Shabad(u) puchhaaniya. Usthir(u) cheet(u), mern(i) mun(u) maaniya. Gur kirpa tay Naam(u) puchhaaniya. 19.

Word Meaning: Khojut, Khojut = searching continuously. Khima = forgiveness. Guhhee = acquires. Khuraa = pure; noble. Ruttan(u) = invaluable (pure) like jewel. Mooyay = spiritually dead. Nuhhi Jaaniya = do not make connection with Waheguru. Khin Meh(i) = in a moment. Mooyay = dead from worldly attractions. Shabad Puchhaniya = made a connection with the Guru's Shabad. Usthir(u) Cheet(u) = stable mind (never wavers). Mern(i) = in killing selfishness and ego. 19.

MEANING: After searching for a long time, I realized the Naam-Amrit of Waheguru when I surrendered my body and my mind to Satguru, and made forgiveness a part of my personality. Everybody calls such a devotee pure with high morality. Such a devotee is pure like a jewel, no matter what the eon is. The man suffers spiritual death when he simply enjoys eating and drinking without making any connection with Waheguru, which provides him with everything. However, he is able to kill (control) his worldly enjoyments the moment he makes a connection with the Guru's Shabad. At that point, his mind becomes stable (quits wavering), and he gladly accepts death from (shows disinterest in) the worldly attractions, oh Pundit Ji. He acquires Waheguru's Naam through the grace of the Guru. 19.

Word Meaning: Guggun = sky; high in transcendence (Waheguru). Gumbheer = never-changing. Vaas(u) = Nivaas(u) = living; constant connection. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. Liv Laayay = mentally connected with God. Agumm(u) = inaccessible. Anaath = which has no parents (is self-illuminated). Ajoani = which never takes any life form. Usthir(u) = stable.

Smaadh(i) = deep meditative state. Sugoani = full of virtues. Chayt(i) = remember. Saar(u) = supreme.
MEANING: A devotee, whose mind always stays connected with the Lord, who is very high in transcendence and who never changes, sings His praise and enjoys comfort in a high spiritual state all the time. Once he leaves the world, he never takes birth again, and if he is born, he never suffers death (as he becomes "one" with Waheguru), and stays connected with Him with Guru's grace. His mind becomes stable (never wavers), and he stays in the meditative state, which is full of virtues and becomes a part of Waheguru, which is inaccessible, is self-illuminated, and which never takes a life form. With Waheguru's Naam in his mind, the devotee also never takes births again. Guru's advice is supreme, and all other advice (including worldly education) is spiritually worthless as they are without Waheguru's Naam, oh pundit ji. 20.

Word Meaning: Ghur Dur = houses and doors; life forms. Thaaki = exhausted. Jaat(i) = different life forms. Asunkh = countless. Soot = sons. Chaylay = disciples. Phoon(i) = that too. Kaachay Gur = the Maya-engrossed guru. Naar(i) = women; human beings. Vur(u) = husband; Lord. Smaal(i) = looks after. Gurmukh(i) = Guru's Sikh. Mern(u) Jeevun(u) = (death and life (basis of life). Dehdis = in all the ten directions (everywhere). Dhoondh(i) = searching. Ghuraiy Meh(i) = in the heart. Mayl(u) = union.
MEANING: (Without Waheguru's Naam), the man keeps taking births and dying, and gets exhausted of such countless repeated births and deaths in many different life forms of which no one can have any account, oh pundit ji. The man does not know how many times he has been a mother, a father, a son, or a daughter; or how many times was he a guru and a devotee. He cannot find emancipation from worldly bonds (which are the basis of his rebirths) through a guru who is a slave of Maya, himself. There are countless such women (human beings), but only one Husband (Lord) – Waheguru – which looks after everybody. Waheguru is the basis of life for Guru's Sikhs. The man searches for Waheguru in every direction, but when he comes to Satguru's shelter, he finds Him in his own heart with Satguru's grace. 21.

Gurmukh(i) mujun, chujj(u) achaar(u). Gurmukh(i) Shabad(u) Amrit(u) haiy saar(u). Nanak, Gurmukh(i) paavaiy paar(u). 22.
Word Meaning: Toal(i) = evaluates. Tolaavaiy = makes others do. Nisung(u) = free from worldly bonds. Purhur(i) = getting rid of. Klunk = blemishes of vices. Mujun = bathing (at holy places). Chujj(u) Achaar(u) = high living. Saar(u) = supreme.
MEANING: Guru's Sikh sings praise of Waheguru and recites His Naam. He evaluates (ponders on) Guru's Shabad, and makes others do the same. Guru's Sikh comes to this world free from all worldly bonds, and leaves the world free from them (He comes only to spread Waheguru's Message). He had already washed away the filth of his mind, and had burnt away (erased) any blemishes of vices with Waheguru's Naam before he takes such births (if any). For a Sikh of the Guru, pondering on the Guru's Shabad is the ritualistic music and reading of the Vedas (he does not need them); and for him, high moral living is the ritualistic dips at the holy places. Waheguru's Naam is the supreme Amrit for Guru's Sikh, which (and no idol) ferries him across the sea of Maya, oh, Nanak. 22

Word Meaning: Chunchul Cheet(u) = the capricious (ever-wavering) mind. Tthaayayn = in control; stable. Mirg(u) = deer (like mind). Angoori = fresh new leaves; different enjoyments. Oordhaaray = enshrine; acquire. Chir(u) Jeevun = eternal life. Chaytun(u) = alert. Chintut = worried. Chayteh(i) = keep in mind. Vusaiy = present. Raachaiy = gets absorbed. Mookut(i) Bhuyya = emancipated. Ghur(i) = God's Palace.

MEANING: (Without Waheguru's Naam), the human mind is so capricious that it is uncontrollable, and loves to enjoy different luxuries of life while hiding them from the world (and Waheguru), oh pundit ji. But, if he embeds Waheguru's lotus-like Feet (His Naam) in his heart, he always stays alert against the attractions of Maya, and attains eternal life (by merging into Waheguru). (Because of the attractions and the pressures of Maya), Everybody seems to be worried, but one can be blissful if one remembers Waheguru. With Waheguru's Naam in his mind, he gets absorbed in Him, whereby he becomes completely emancipated, and goes to Waheguru's Court with dignity. 23.

Word Meaning: Chheejaiy Dayh = the body weakens to near death. Gundh(i) = knot (of life). Chhay-ya = destruction. Hundh(i) = by roaming around. Dhoop Chhaanv = sun and shade (comforts and discomforts). Sum = the same. Bundhun = shackles (of Maya). Chhaaya = Maya. Chhoochhi = hollow; temporary. Bhoolaana = misled. Kirt(u) = the deeds to do (attractions of Maya). Dhooray = from the source (Waheguru). Pervaana = letter. Jobun(u) = youth. Jurooaa = old age. Sir(i) Kaal(u) = death looms over the head. Kaaya = body. Sibaal(u) = skin loosens like algae on the surface of water.

MEANING: (While enjoying the luxuries of life), the human body eventually weakens to the extent of its destruction, and one's knot of life gets broken (life is over). If you travel around, you will see such destruction in the world all the time. The world is misled by the illusions of Maya, which are hollow inside (are temporary). But it is the Will of Waheguru that the world be attracted to Maya. One's youth is spent enjoying the attractions of Maya, and death, in the form of old age, begins to loom over one's head. However, if (with Waheguru's Naam), one treats comforts and discomforts the same way, he breaks all his worldly bonds, and thus emancipated, he reaches Waheguru's Court. 24.

Word Meaning: Jaapaiy = visible. Uver(u) = other. Bhaavaiy = like. Jus(u) = praise. Jaachoun = wish for. Put(i) = respect. Saakh(u) = trust. Jaag(i) = awake; alert. Bhaavaan = be liked. Smaavaan = get absorbed. Jaiy Jaiykaar(u) = accolades to; sing praise. Jugdeesh = Waheguru. Bees = for sure. Ikkees = One God. 25.

MEANING: Waheguru is visible in His nature in the whole universe, and He is the lone provider in every eon, oh pundit ji; so, I pray to Him like this, "Keep me under whatever circumstances You like, and give me the strength to accept Your Will, oh Waheguru. I beg that I sing Your praise because it grants me respect and trust (in Your Court). I should stay alert against the attacks of Maya so that You like me, and I will be absorbed in Your Naam if You kindly connect me with You". I always sing praise of His greatness. If one follows the Guru's advice, he is sure to get connected with the "One" Lord, oh pundit. 25.

Word Meaning: Jhukh(i) = meaningless talk; garbage. Vaad(u) = useless discussions. Jhoor(i) Muraiy = regrets and suffers. Permaad(u) = intoxication; insanity. Aas Niraasa = disappointment due to unfulfilled hopes. Jhukh(i) = suffer humiliation. Chaanpay = pushes around. Nuv Nidh(i) = the nine treasures. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = without any special effort.

MEANING: Intoxicated in Maya, and to boost his ego, the man enters into meaningless and spiritually destructive debates, which is all garbage, and for which he has to repent at the end, oh pundit. Such people are spiritually dead from birth, and there is no hope of their spiritual revival. They build many hopes (desires) after they are born, but leave the world without the fulfillment of their desires (as wealth does not accompany them). They repent, regret, and suffer humiliation, and become a part of dust. But the individual, who sings Waheguru's praise, is not pushed around by the fear of death. When one recites Waheguru's Naam with devotion, he feels as if he has acquired all the nine treasures of the world. But one does not acquire His Naam as his right; Waheguru grants His Naam to His devotees without any special effort on their part. 26.

Word Meaning: Giyaano Boalaiy = (Waheguru) delivers His Knowledge. Aapay = as Guru. Soojhaiy = The Guru ponders on. Gur Ka Kuhhiya = Guru's Shabad. Unk(i) Smaavaiy = embeds in heart. Nirmul Soochay = pure and of high morality. Saacho = Waheguru. Bhaavaiy = like. Ruttani = of noble qualities. Toat = shortage. Laal Pudaaruth = jewels; virtues. Saach(u) = Waheguru-like. Akhoat = inexhaustible. Kerni = advice about high living. Kaahay Dhaavou = will not run after (Maya). Saach(i) = in Waheguru. 27.

MEANING: Waheguru delivers His Knowledge to the Guru who understands it and ponders on it. An individual who enshrines the Guru's advice in his heart becomes pure and highly moral and begins to love Waheguru. The Guru is an ocean of jewels (noble qualities) that never runs short. The Guru is a manifestation of Waheguru and is an inexhaustible source of noble qualities. If a person leads his life with high morality as per the Guru's advice, he never rushes to acquire the short-lived worldly comforts, oh, pundit. With Guru's advice, he gets absorbed in Waheguru, oh Nanak. 27.

Tootaiy nayhou ki boaleh(i) suhhi. Tootaiy baanh, doohoo dis guhhi. Toot(i) preet(i) guyyee boor boal(i). Doomut(i) purhur(i) chhaadi dhoal(i). Tootaiy guntth(i) purray veechaar(i). Gur Shabadi ghur(i) kaaruj(u) saar(i). Laaha Saach(u), na aavaiy tota. Tirbhuvun Tthaakur(u) Preeum mota.

Word Meaning: Nayhou = love. Suhhi = truth. Doohoo Dis = in the two (opposite) directions. Boor Boal(i) = toxic words. Doormut(i) = ill-natured. Purhur(i) = push away; ditch. Dhoal(i) = husband. Guntth(i) = difficult problem. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Kaaruj(u) = task; objective. Saar(i) = meet the need. Laaha = benefit. Saach(u) = Waheguru (His Naam). Toata = gap. Tirbhuvun = universe. Mota = great. 28.

MEANING: It is a fact of life that one's love for a friend is broken if he tells the truth (about the latter's weaknesses), and an arm gets broken when pulled in the opposite direction. Similarly, the use of toxic words breaks love between two people, and an ill-natured wife is ditched by her husband. A difficult problem is broken down (is solved) when an idea lights up one's mind. Similarly, all problems are solved (objectives achieved) when one enshrines the Guru's Shabad in his heart. An added benefit of enshrining Guru's Shabad in the heart is that he gets connected with Waheguru with no gap (break). The Great Lord is present in the whole universe, oh pundit ji. 28.

Mehl(i) boolaayee, tthaak na paayee. Shabad(i) suvaari, Saach(i) piyaari. Saayee sohaagun(i) Tthaakur dhaari. 29.

Word Meaning: Tthaak-hou = control. Tthaayan = in its place; stable. Tthehk Mooyee = dies spiritual death while competing. Uvgoon(i) = ill-qualities. Pucchutaayay = repents. Tthaakur(u) = master; Lord. Subbayee = the whole world. Naar(i) = wives. Vays = external outlook; semblance. Koorriyar(i) = deceitful; imposter; Maya-engrossed. Pur Ghur = support of some other. Tthhak = obstacle. Suvaari = groomed. Sohaagun(i) = married; fortunate. Dhaari = supported by; approved by.

MEANING: Those are, in fact, impostors engrossed in Maya who have many religious semblances. The whole world is suffering from jealousy and from competing with one another, which are grave qualities, and for which one has to repent. The important thing is to control your mind from weakening to the attractions of Maya and from jealousy. All humans are wives of the "One" Lord. He stops (restrains) His devotees from being attracted to the other (Maya), and when He calls His devotees to His Palace, no one can erect any obstacle in their path to reach Him. The devotee, who is groomed by Satguru's Shabad, is dear to Waheguru, and she is the lucky one who gets His support and gets married to (connected with) Him, oh pundit ji. 29.

Dayh(i), dayh(i) aakhaiy subh(u) koyee, jaiy bhaavaiy taiyn dayay. Guru Dooaaraiy dayvsi, tikha nivaaraiy soyay. 30.

Word Meaning: Dolut Dolut = weakening of mind due to attractions of Maya. Cheer Sheengaar = religious adornments (symbols). Daahpun(i) = in jealousy; in fire of desires. Der = fear (of God). Bintthi = got destroyed. Daar = large groups. Mooyee = killed worldly desires. Deetthee = observed. Kunt(i) = husband (Waheguru). Soojaan(i) = know-all. Nirbhuou Naam(u) = Naam of the fearless (God). Vukhaan(i) = by chanting (reciting). Doogur(i) = on the mountain (huge ego). Vaas(u) = stay. Tikha = thirst (for Maya). Ghunee = immense. Nivaari = removed. Bhurpoor(i) = to satisfaction. Soyay = the same (God).

MEANING: Without Waheguru's fear in mind, the religious symbols of those who do wear them but have weak minds which yield to the attractions of Maya, get torn (lose their shine. With the fire of desires (and of jealousy) burning in their mind, and with no fear of God, large groups of such people get destroyed (spiritually). But, the devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter (with His Shabad), and has fear for Waheguru in his mind, kills his worldly desires, and is looked kindly upon by the know-all (omniscient) Waheguru–husband. The mountain-sized ego and the huge thirst for worldly desires of the devotee, who had not yet connected with Waheguru by Guru's Shabad, get fully destroyed by Guru's Shabad, and he sees Waheguru very close to him, and drinks Waheguru's Naam-Amrit to his fill. Everybody begs for Waheguru's Naam, but He grants it only to those whom He likes. Also,

He grants His Naam through the Guru, who quenches his thirst for worldly things, oh pundit. 30.

Word Meaning: Dhundholut = searching. Dheh(i) = collapse; buried drown. Kuraar(i) = confidence; shore. Bhaaray = heavy (with sins). Dheh(i) Puyyay = collapsed; drown in the world sea. Haulay = light (with no burden of sins). Ajaachi = who has no demand; fully contented. Milay = connected with. Dhoorr(i) = dust of the feet; an opportunity to serve them. Aghooliyaiy = emancipate. Sayvsaan = I will serve. Oosaaray = creates. Dhaahsi = will destroy. Tis(u) = Him (God). Summhlaan = remember.
MEANING: Searching around for a long time, I found out that (without Waheguru's Naam), the people commit so many sins that they get buried down under their weight on the near-shore of the world-sea. But those who are light (with no burden of sins) get across to the other shore of the world-sea (on the boat of Waheguru's Naam). I will sacrifice my life for those (holy saints) who have no worldly desires and have become eternal by connecting with Waheguru. One gains emancipation by serving them with dedication, becoming connected with Waheguru in their company. When one surrenders his mind to Satguru, he acquires the mind-purifying (Waheguru's) Naam. I will gladly serve the (Guru) who gave Waheguru's Naam to me (implanted in my mind). Waheguru, who creates the world, also demolishes it; there is none other like Him. If one remembers Him (recites his Naam) with the Guru's grace, he never suffers any trouble. (So, you too, recite His Naam, oh pundit). 31.

Tooti tunt(u) rubaab kee vaajaiy nuhee vijoag(i). Vichhurriyaan maylaiy Prubhoo, Nanak kur(i) sunjoag. 32.
Word meaning: Guheen = seek shelter of. Hoag(i) = will not be. Vigoochiyaiy = suffer humiliation. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Roag(u) = sickness. Vihoonay = devoid of. Kullur Kundh = wall of saltpetre (which erodes very fast). Girunt = fall down; lose morality. Rusaatul(i) = lowest level; in hell. Gunut Gunaavaiy = describes by counting. Ugunt = beyond numbers. Ugiyaani = ignorant. Mut(i) Heen(i) = lacks wisdom. Tunt = wire. Rubaab = a small guitar-like instrument; lute. Vijoag(i) = disconnected. Vichhurriyaan = disconnected. Sunjoag = suitable conditions for union.

MEANING: There is no one (other than Waheguru) in this world whom I (or anybody else) can depend upon for support forever; there has never been anyone like that, and there will never be even in future. Man's indecisiveness (to choose between Maya and Waheguru) is a serious sickness which he suffers from, and because of which he suffers humiliation when he has to take rebirths. The man, without Waheguru's Naam in his mind, erodes in morality like a wall of saltpetre. He cannot find emancipation without Waheguru's Naam, and eventually drops into hell, oh pundit. Such people (pretend to be religious), and define Waheguru by a few qualities of His, but the eternal Lord is unlimited in qualities. The ignorant man has no (spiritual) wisdom, which can be acquired only from the Guru. Just like a veena (lute), which has its wire broken, cannot produce any music in its absence, the man, who is disconnected from Waheguru, cannot sing His praise. However, Waheguru connects the disconnected people to Him by creating conditions favourable for union, oh Nanak. 32.

Gur Persaadi chhootiyaiy, kirpa Aap(i) kuray. Apnaiy haath(i) vudaayiyaan, jaiy bhaavaiy taiy dayay. 33.
Word Meaning: Turvur(u) = tree. Kaaya = body. Punkhi = bird. Punch = the five (senses). Tutt(u) = the root (Waheguru). Choogeh(i) = pick; eat. Aiksay = the "One". Phaas = trapping. Na Runch = not even a little. Oodeh(i) = fly; roam around. Baygul = in a rush. Taakeh(i) = looking for. Choag = food (of many kinds). Ghunee = many. Punkh = feathers. Phaahi Purri = get trapped. Uvgoon(i) = bad qualities. Bheerr Bunee = big trouble. Kerm(i) = by benevolence. Munee = fortune on the forehead. Dhunee = Lord. Vudaayiyaan = honours. Jaiy Bhaavaiy = whom (He) likes.
MEANING: The human body is like a tree in which the mind is like a bird with five senses as its offspring. If all of them unite together and feed on the Root of the universe (Waheguru's Naam), they are absolutely in no danger of being caught in the net (of worldly bonds). But if they fly quickly (rush) to find and enjoy a variety of delicious foods (enjoy worldly attractions), they get their feathers broken (are unable to fly or get free), and cannot get free from the net of Maya in which they are trapped, and get into a big trouble because of their bad qualities (sensual pleasures). One cannot find emancipation (from worldly attractions) without Waheguru's Naam, which one acquires only if he has good fortune prewritten on his forehead by the benevolence of Waheguru, oh pundit. Waheguru is the greatest Lord who controls all the honours and bestows only on those whom He chooses. One gets emancipated only by His benevolence, and by the grace of the Guru, oh pundit. 33.

Thaan thununtar(i) ruv(i) ruhhiya, Gur Shabadi veechaar(i). Unmungiya daan(u) dayvsi, vudda Agumm, Apaar(u). 34.

Word Meaning: Thurthur Kumpaiy = trembles like a leaf. Jeeurra = soul. Thaan = shelter (of Waheguru). Vihoona = without. Maan(u) = pride. Kaaj = task. Pheetay = suffer damage. Thir = stable; eternal. Soor(i) = of gods. Naathah = of the gurus of the yogis. Nath = Master. Nidhaaraan = support less. Thaan Thununturi = everywhere. Daata = provider. Paaravaar(u) = limitless. Ruv Ruhhiya = is present. Unmungiya = without asking for. Dayvsi = will give. Agumm = inaccessible. Apaar(u) = beyond limits.

MEANING: When one loses the shelter of Waheguru, his soul (mind) becomes weak and begins to tremble like a leaf (loses moral strength). One's permanent shelter and pride are granted only by Waheguru, with whose support one's tasks (objectives) never suffer any damage (are completed successfully). Only Waheguru, the Guru, and His Shabad are eternal (while everything else is perishable), oh pundit. Waheguru is the Lord of the gods, of men, and even of the gurus of the yogis. (So, remember Him, and recite His Naam, oh pundit ji). Waheguru is the provider of everything and is present everywhere; no matter where I look, there is no end to His limits. One can see His presence everywhere by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. He is the greatest, is inaccessible, beyond limits, and gives His gifts even without being asked, oh pundit. 34.

Word Meaning: Duyya = mercy; merciful. Daan(u) = donate; donor. Daykhunhaar(u) = looking after happily. Khin = moment. Dhaah(i) = demolish. Daana = noble; wise. Beena = know-all; wise. Kaiy Sir(i) = above all; supreme. Daalud-Bhunjun = destroyer of poverty. Dulun = grinder; destroyer.

MEANING: You are very kind, look after all Your living beings, give Your donations benevolently to the whole world, and take pleasure in that, oh Waheguru. You can create and destroy in a moment, and can connect humans with You with Your benevolence. You are very wise, know-all (omniscient), and wiser than the wisest. Waheguru is the destroyer of poverty and of misery, and delivers His Divine Knowledge, and the ability to concentrate on His Naam through the Guru, oh pundit ji. 35.

Word Meaning: Jhooriyaiy = feels traumatized. Guvaar = foolish. Virleen = rare. Sunchiya = accumulate. Piyaar(i) = with love. Raacheh(i) = absorbed; imbued. Rung(i) = in love. Saunpiyaiy = offer. Bhee = still. Tayk = support. Dhundha Dhaavut = rush for worldly affairs. Anund = bliss. Doorjun = evil; enemies. Saajun = friends. Bust(u) = (the valuable) article (Naam). Nivaar(i) = remove; eradicate.

MEANING: The man feels traumatized at the loss of his wealth, but they are fools who always have wealth on their mind. The real and pure wealth is Waheguru's Naam, which only a few people accumulate with love. If one is imbued with Waheguru's love, one pays no attention to the loss of wealth. He surrenders his mind and his head (wisdom) to the Guru, and has full faith in His support. The worldly business no longer interests him as he feels blissful with the Guru's Shabad in mind. When one comes to the Guru's shelter, all his senses, which were acting as his enemies in the realm of spirituality, become his friends (come under his control). Such a devotee realizes that the real thing (Waheguru), which he had been looking for in the forests, was actually present in his heart. Connected with Waheguru by the grace of the Guru, the devotee stays connected with Him, and his suffering of rebirths is terminated, oh pundit ji. 36.

Word Meaning: Na Na = various (rituals). Chhootiyaiy = emancipate. Jumpur(i) = the city (court) of the Angel of death. Tis(u) = (for) him. Eh(u) = this world. Oh(u) = the next world. Uvgoon(i) = for bad qualities. Puchhutaah(i) = repents. Dherm = religiosity; morality. Nirbhuou = fearless. Kuhaan = where; no way. Abhimaan(u) = ego. Thaak Ruhhi = stopped (prevented) (by Waheguru). Kiv Upprraan = how to reach (to the other shore). Haath = depth; limit. Paar(u) = other shore. Saajun Rungulay = friends who enjoyed luxuries with him. Priyo = Dear (Waheguru). Malunhaar(u) = who has the ability to connect (Waheguru). Vichhorri = separated. Hayt(i) Apaar(u) = unlimited love.

MEANING: One cannot achieve emancipation by performing various religious rituals. Without acquiring noble qualities (which come only with Waheguru's Naam), one is taken to the court of the Angel of Death. Such a person does not enjoy mental bliss in this world or the next, and repents for his ill qualities, oh pundit. He has neither the Divine Knowledge nor the ability to meditate, nor does he have high moral character. Possessed by his ego, what Divine Knowledge can one acquire, and how can he become fearless without Waheguru's Naam? How can one reach Waheguru's Door on the far shore of the world-sea, when he is already exhausted working hard for wealth; also, he does not have any idea of the depth of the sea and of the far shore. Whom can he call for help? Even his colourful friends, who enjoyed life on his money, are nowhere near him now. However, if he calls the Guru, who is the mediator, with deep love, Waheguru, which had disconnected the individual from Him, reconnects him to Him again because of the Guru's unlimited love for the Guru, oh Nanak. 37.

Paap(u) boora, paapi kuou piyaara. Paap(i) ludday, paapay pasaara. Purhur(i) paap(u), puchhaanaiy aap(u). Na tis(u) soag(u), vijoag(u), suntaap(u). Nerk(i) purruntuou kiyoun ruhhaiy, kiyoun bunchay Jumkaal(u). Kiyoun aavun jaana veesraiy, jhootth(u) boora, khaiy kaal(u). Mun(u) junjaaleen vayhrriya, bhee junjaalaan maah(i). Vin(u) Naavaiy kiyoun chootiyaiy, paapay pucheh(i) puchaah(i). 38.

Word Meaning: Ludday = loaded. Pasaara = expand. Purhur(i) = remove; give up. Puchhaanaiy Aap(u) = analyzes self to identify strengths and weaknesses. Soag = grief. Vijoag(u) = separation (from Waheguru). Suntaap(u) = suffering. Pirruntuou = fall into. Bunchay = deceive; avoid. Veesraiy = forget; get rid of. Khaiy Kaal(u) = destroying spiritual) death. Junjaaleen = in worldly nets. Vayhrriya = wrapped (engrossed) in. Bhee = again; still. Pucheh(i) Puchaah(i) = suffer again, and again.

MEANING: Committing sins is very bad, but the sinner loves them. Loaded with sins, he expands them further. But if, by giving up his sins, the sinner analyzes himself (in terms of his good and bad qualities, and what the purpose of human life is), he will experience no grief, no separation from God, and no suffering of any kind, oh pundit. How can one save him from going to hell, and how can he avoid the Agent of death, and how can one get rid of his rebirths when lies and deceit are ruining his spiritual life? Man’s mind is badly wrapped (trapped) in worldly affairs, and continues to do so. One cannot find emancipation without Waheguru’s Naam, and he continues to suffer because of his sins. 38.

Word Meaning: Fir(i) Fir(i) = again, and again. Phaahi Phaasaiy = gets trapped. Kuooaa = crow-like (man with bad habits). Ub = now. Phaatha = trapped. Choag = bait. Aakhee = Words (of the Guru). Jumjaal(i) = in the net of the Angel of death. Bhaal(i) = look for. Rung(i) Ruchaiy = absorbed (imbued) in love. Liv Laayay = stay focused (connected). Ivv = like this.

MEANING: The man is like the crow; just as the crow is attracted to filth, the man is also attracted to filthy activities which please his senses, and gets trapped in the net of the captivating Maya again and again. He does not realize what he does now, so what does he gain when he repents later? Trapped in sensual pleasures, he keeps feeding on the bait of such attractions and does not realize their sad consequences. However, if he is lucky enough to come to Satguru’s shelter, he understands the consequences of His Words (Advice). Just like a fish caught in a death-like net cannot get free by itself, a man cannot seek freedom from worldly bonds without the kind help of the Guru. (Without the support of the Guru), The man keeps taking births, and dying again, and again, oh, pundit. But, imbued with Waheguru's love, a few individuals remain absorbed in Him (and are emancipated). Those who get emancipation never get trapped in worldly attractions, oh, Pundit Ji. 39.

Bani birlou beechaarsi, jay ko Gurmukh(i) hoyay. Eh Bani Muhaa Purakh kee, nij ghur(i) vaasa hoyay. 40.

Word Meaning: Beera Beera = (the human body) calls her soul, addressing that as brother. Bireh(i) = in separation. Jul(i) Jaayay = gets destroyed. Baali Baalay = with dolls; worldly attractions. Nayh(i) = in love. Vur(u) = husband. Kaamni = woman. Tayh(i) = with love. Birlo = rare. Boojhnuou = understands. Saach(i) = with the grace of God. Bani = Guru's Shabad. Muhaa Purakh Kee = of the Guru about Waheguru. Nij Ghur = own heart. Vaasa = stay.

MEANING: The human body (sister) never wants to get separated from its soul (brother). When the man dies, and the soul leaves the body, the body implores the soul to come back, but the soul must depart to go to its real home (Waheguru's Court). Separated from the soul, the body gets destroyed too. In her parents' home (this world), the man (human being) has love for worldly attractions (which must come to an end). If the human bride wishes to attain eternal life, she must find (connect with) her permanent husband (Waheguru), which she can realize by serving the Guru with deep reverence. But very few people realize that they can be connected with the Guru only by the benevolence of Waheguru.

All honours (noble qualities) are controlled by the Lord, and He gives only to those whom He likes. Only a rare individual ponders on the Guru's Shabad with full faith in Him. Guru's Shabad is the praise of Waheguru, which connects the devotee with Him in his own heart (Waheguru takes residence in his heart). 40.

Bhubhaiy bhuoujul maarug(u) vikkhrra, aas niraasa turiyaiy. Gur persadi aapo cheenaiy, jeevtiyaan ivv muriyaiy. 41.

Word Meaning: Bhunn(i) = break; destroy. Ghurriyaiy = build; construct. Dhaah(i) = demolishes. Oosaaray = construct. Sur = bodies of water. Soakhaiy = absorbs; dries up.

Bhur(i) Poakhaiy = fills to the brim. Sumruth = perfectly capable. Vaypurvaahaiy = worries-free. Bherm(i) = misled in misgivings. Divaanay = crazy. Doari = string; control. Jin = whom. Khinchaiy = pulls. Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in love. Bhaaleh(i) = search for. Boojhaiy = understands. Nij Ghur(i) = in own heart. Vaasa = dwelling. Bhuojul = the world sea. Maarug(u) = journey. Vikkhrra = difficult. Niraasa = detached. Aapo = self. Cheenaiy = recognize; analyze. Ivv = like this.

MEANING: The world is destroyed and reconstructed, and is destroyed after being constructed. Waheguru builds the demolished, and demolishes the built. He dries up the world-pool, and fills it again to the brim. He is capable of doing everything; yet He is worry-free. Those who do not have faith in Waheguru, and are misled by their misgivings, are insane; (but it may not be entirely their fault, because) one can achieve nothing without his good fortune. The string of the Divine Knowledge, which He delivers through the Guru, is held by Waheguru in His hand; those who are pulled with this string towards Him get attracted to Him, oh pundit. Those who are attracted to Waheguru sing His praise and are always imbued in His love, as a result of which they never have the need to repent (because they do not commit any sins). They always search to connect with Him, and when they follow the path as advised by the Guru, they acquire Waheguru in their own heart. The journey through the sea of the world is very tough, and one swims across it only when he gets detached from the worldly hopes (he gets rid of them). When one recognizes himself by the grace of the Guru, he overcomes his worldly desires; this is how one is called living-dead, oh pundit ji. 41.

Word Meaning: Maya --- Kur(i) = crying for Maya. Huns(u) = soul. Doomno = in indecisiveness. Aath(i) = Maya. Jhoottha = attached to the perishable. Johiya = is punished. Uvgoon = bad qualities. Oolto = reversed. Muraiy = feels detached. Bhaal(i) = look for. Gurrh = fort. Mundar = mansions. Mehla = palaces. Baaji Deebaan(u) = stage of an acrobat or a stage actor. Chutur Suroop(u) = with wise persona. Jaan(u Soojaan(u) = wise and know-all. 42.

MEANING: Countless people die crying for wealth, which does not accompany anyone. When the soul leaves in indecision (choosing between wealth and Waheguru), wealth is forgotten (becomes a thing of the past, as it does not go with the departed soul). The Maya-engrossed man takes his ill qualities with him and is watched and punished by the Angel of justice. But the devotee of Waheguru, who had the thinking of his mind reversed from Maya, and had killed his worldly desires, takes the noble qualities with him to Waheguru's Court, oh pundit ji.

Those who leave this world without Waheguru's Naam and with the claim that everything was theirs are bound to find trouble. Like the temporary performing stage of a stage actor, their fort-like mansions and palaces are left behind without Waheguru's Naam. The life of such a person is wasted (he gains no spirituality). But the man is ignorant on his own. Only Waheguru is smart, wise, and know-all, and only He can give understanding to the ignorant man (to follow Guru's advice). 42.

Goon kee maari, huoun mooyee, Shabad(i) rutti, mun(i) choat. 43.

Word Meaning: Aaveh(i) = come (into the world). Phoon(i) = also. Lukh Chauraaseeh = 8.4 million life forms. Maydni = world. Ootaah(i) = upwards. Oobray = salvaged. Bhaaya = like. Dhundha = affairs of the world. Vigooti = suffers humiliation. Chaalsi = will leave the world (is perishable). Sumpoun = I will offer. Aagaiy = before. Usthir(u) = immortal. Dhunee = Lord. Oat = shelter; support. Maari = killed by. Huoun = selfishness and ego. Rutti = imbued. Choat = hurt to realize.

MEANING: The man, who comes into this world, has also to leave, and (without Waheguru's Naam) repents for his repeated births and deaths. The number of 8.4 million life forms he has to go through does not decrease or increase. For those who worship Waheguru, the worldly affairs (running around for wealth) become dead (become insignificant), and Maya suffers humiliation (feels insulted at being ignored), and they find salvation. Whom can I make my permanent friend when everything that is visible is perishable? Only the Creator, Waheguru, is immortal. So, I will offer my soul, my body, and my mind before Him. Only He is my support. I realized my hurt due to my ego when I pondered on Guru's Shabad, and my selfishness and my ego were destroyed when I acquired noble qualities with the Shabad, oh pundit. 43.

Word Meaning: Raana Raaou = rajah. Rung(u) = Runk(u) = pauper. Faqeer = an ascetic. Bundhaiy Dheer = give assurance. Raah(i) = journey. Boora = dangerous. Bheehaavla = frightening. Sur = ocean. Doogur = mountain. Usgaah = unfathomable. Piyaar(i) = dears. Thee Ruhhaan = wish to become. Mooraar(i) = God. Bhurpoor = overflowing. Vuseh(i) = live. Jaapni = visible; appear. Jichur(u) = as long as.

MEANING: Nobody lives in this world forever; one may have been a rajah, a pauper, a wealthy person, or an ascetic, oh pundit ji (he has to leave). Everybody leaves when his turn comes, and nobody is there to console him (to give assurance of a longer life). The journey of life is very dangerous and frightening, like an unfathomable sea or a high mountain (there is always a risk of falling into bad habits). I am repenting to death because of my ignoble qualities; how can I reach my real home (Waheguru's Residence) without noble qualities? The virtuous people have connected with Waheguru because of their noble qualities. How can I get connected with such dear people? I wish to become like them by reciting Waheguru's Naam. The man is full of ignoble qualities, but he also has some good qualities. However, his noble qualities do not appear until he ponders on Guru's Shabad in His shelter, oh pundit ji. 44.

Preetum huth(i) vudiyaayiyaan, jaiy bhaavaiy taiyn dayay. Aap(i) kuray kis(u) aakhiyaiy, uver(i) na koyay kuray. 45.

Word Meaning: Lushkuriyaan = the soldiers (who fight against sensual desires). Ghur Summhlay = take positions. Vuj-hou = the deeds to perform. Kaar Kmaaveh(i) Sir(i) Dhunee = perform deeds under Waheguru's supervision (as per His instructions). Laaha = benefit. Pullaiy Paayay = earn; acquire. Chhoaday = give up. Visaar(i) = drop them from mind. Gurrh(i) = in the fort of heart. Dohee = praise. Chaakur(u) = servant. Shuhouayay = to the Lord. Oottar Dayay = refuses to accept. Vuj-hou = wages. Tukhut(i) = on the throne. Sayay = that. 45.

MEANING: The devotee-soldiers take positions to fight against the vices as prewritten in their fate by Waheguru to perform noble deeds. They perform noble deeds under the supervision of Waheguru (as per His orders) and earn the benefit (of high spirituality). They give up all the vices of gluttony, greed, and the like, and drop them (the vices) completely from their mind, oh pundit. By singing Waheguru's praise in their bodies, they never face defeat in their fight against vices. On the other hand, an individual who calls him a servant (devotee) of God, but refuses to listen to His advice, loses his wage (in spirituality) and never gets to sit on the throne of his heart (control his senses) (and thus never gets to connect with God). Waheguru controls all honours and bestows only on those whom He likes. He is the only one who is the Lord, and nobody else can do things like Him. So, who can we complain to, oh pundit ji? 45.

Ruchna, raach(i) jin(i) ruchee, jin(i) siriya akaar(u). Gurmukh(i) bayunt dhiyaayiyaiy, unt(u) na paaravaar(u). 46.

Word Meaning: Beejou = other. Soojhaiy = think of. Dooleecha Paayay = seat of judge. Nivaarun(u) = preventor. Nureh-Nur(u) = king of men. Saachaiy Naayay = by Waheguru's Naam. Vun(u) Trin(u) = forests and jungles. Dhoondhut = searching for. Laal Ruttan, Maanki = jewels-like noble qualities. Bhundaar(u) = treasure. Ootum = pure; loaded with good qualities. Aikaiy Bhaayay = with love for the "One". Rus(i) = enjoying (His) sweetness. Laaha = benefit. Purthaayay = for the (next) world. Ruchna = creation. Siriya = created. Aakaar(u) = visible world. Bayunt = limitless. 46.

MEANING: Waheguru, which is the King of all human beings and the protector (saviour) for the people who could be sent to Hell, is the only eternal judge who decides the outcomes of the deeds of the people, and who can be realized only by the recitation of His Naam, oh pundit. I cannot think of anybody else who can be an eternal judge like Waheguru. I had been looking for Waheguru in forests and jungles, but when I pondered on Satguru's Shabad, I realized that He controls the treasure of all the noble (divine) qualities. If I purify my mind by acquiring the noble qualities and reciting Waheguru's Naam with a focused mind and with reverence, I can connect with Him. The dear Waheguru can be realized only by enjoying the sweetness of His Naam; in addition, one earns the benefit (wealth of high spirituality) for the next world, oh Nanak. (To realize Him) One should recite the Naam of the limitless Waheguru who has no end, and who has created the whole universe (in the shelter of the Guru), oh pundit ji. 46.

(PAGE 937): Aap(u) guyya, dookh(u) kuttiya, Hur(i) vur(u) paaya naar(i). 47.

Word Meaning: Rraarra = the last letter of the Gurmukhi alphabet. Roorra = beautiful; supreme. Gaaroorr = a mantra which is believed to be an antidote to snake's poison (Guru's Shabad which makes Maya's attractions ineffective). Mut(u) = lest; let no one. Shaah(u) Saacha = truly wealthy. Poora = perfect. Shaabaash(i) = deserves acclamations. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Vur(u) = husband. Naar(i) = the human bride.

MEANING: Waheguru is supreme; there is no other King (like Him) in the universe. If you listen to Guru's Shabad, which makes all the captivating effects of Maya ineffective, Waheguru will appear in your heart, oh pundit ji. Let no one be misled by any misgiving. Waheguru can be realized only by the Guru's grace. That individual is truly wealthy who has Waheguru's Naam-wealth in his mind. Such a devotee deserves much acclaim who becomes perfect in the shelter of the Guru. One realizes Waheguru by the supreme Bani (Word of the Guru) by pondering on His Shabad. When the human bride renounces her selfishness and ego, all her suffering is eradicated, and she wins Waheguru as her husband. 47.

Maya mumta mohini, Jin(i) keeti, So jaan(u). Bikhiya, Amrit aik haiy, boojhaiy purakh(u) soojaan(u). 48.

Word Meaning: Soyina = gold. Roopa = silver. Sunchiyaiy = accumulate. Kaacha = perishable. Bikh(u) = poisonous. Chhaar(u) = dust. Sadaayay = calls himself. Doobidha = in indecisiveness. Khooaar(u) = suffer humiliation. Sachiyaareen = devotees with purified mind. Amoal(u) = invaluable. Oojlo = purifying. Put(i) = dignity. Saachi = eternal. Boal(u) = Guru's Word; Waheguru's Naam. Survur = pool (of Amrit). Huns(u) = swan (a devout faithful of Waheguru). Tthaakur(u) = Lord. Mumta = attraction for. Mohini = mind-captivating. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya. Boojhaiy = understands. Soojaan(u) = wise.

MEANING: The gold and silver, which the man accumulates, are short-lived wealth, which is like dust (worthless) and is actually poisonous (for spirituality). Such a man may call him wealthy, but he suffers humiliation (in Waheguru's Court) because of his indecisiveness. But, the devotees of Waheguru who have their minds purified, accumulate His Naam, which is priceless and the real wealth (no collection of gold and silver can match it). Waheguru's Naam is eternal wealth (never loses its worth), which purifies one's mind and earns him everlasting respect. You are the real friend and the buddy, are wise, are the pool of Amrit, and are the swan (holy Satguru which drinks the Naam-Amrit), oh Waheguru. I am a sacrifice for the devotee who embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart. (Rather than loving Maya), recognize (make connection with) Waheguru, who has created the captivating Maya, oh pundit. The wise people understand that Waheguru's Amrit-Naam is the real Maya (wealth) for them. 48.

Haumein khupaiy khupaayaysi, beejou vuth(u) vikaar(u). Junt oopaayay vich(i) paayayun(u), Kerta alug(u) apaar(u). 49.

Word Meaning: Khima = forgiveness. Vihoonay = devoid of. Khup(i) Guyyay = died suffering. Khoohun, Lukh, Asunkh, Bisunkh = countless. Khup(i) Mooyay = died with unsuccessful efforts. Khoolaiy = free of bonds. Bundh(u) = restrictions. Mehleen = in Waheguru's Court. Khuraa = pure; qualified. Sookh Bhaayay = easily. Khurch(u) = daily needs of living beings. Dheer = satisfaction; contentment. Beejou Vuth(u) = the other thing (Maya). Vikaar = vices. Kerta = Creator; God. Alug = detached.

MEANING: Without the ability to forgive, countless people have died suffering in their unsuccessful efforts (to connect with Waheguru). The number of such people cannot be counted, and what is the use of counting them anyway? However, if they recognize the Lord (and recite His Naam), they get free from worldly bonds, and there is no obstacle in their path to unite with Waheguru. With Guru's Shabad and with Waheguru's Naam in mind, such a devotee acquires the quality of forgiveness and is easily declared to be pure (qualified for union with Waheguru). He also realizes that Waheguru is the provider of the daily needs of the living beings, of the wealth of purity and concentration, and Himself takes dwelling in the devotee's heart with His kindness. With recitation of Waheguru's Naam by body, mind and by the tongue, and with noble qualities inside, the devotee feels fully contented. But the Maya-worshippers indulge in vices (sensual pleasures) and suffer in their selfishness and ego, oh, Pundit Ji. The Creator, Waheguru, implants haumein (selfishness and ego) in all living beings, but He Himself remains detached from Maya. 49.

Sumpaiy saath(i) na chaalaiy hoar. Bin(u) Saachay nuhhi Durgah maan(u). Hur(i) rus(u) peevaiy, chhootaiy nidaan(i). 50.

Word Meaning: Srishta = the Creator; God. Bhayou = secrets. Nihchuou = for sure. Sumpaiy = wealth. Kuou = for. Eeshur(u) = God. Poorub(i) Likhay = prewritten by Waehguru. Kaarun = for the sake of. Chaakur = servant. Hoar = beyond life. Saachay = Waheguru's Naam. Rus(u) = sweet Naam-Amrit. Nidaan(i) = at the end.

MEANING: (Getting connected with Waheguru) does not mean that one can know the secrets of the Creator, Waheguru; nobody can ever know His secrets. Whatever the Creator wishes to do will happen for sure. Most people worship the Lord (or their deities) solely for wealth, but they do not realize that they will acquire the wealth preordained by their fate (so one should not worship Waheguru just for the sake of wealth). People become servants of others or even thieves to acquire wealth, but wealth does not accompany them anymore (after their death). One does not earn any respect in Waheguru's Court without His Naam, oh pundit. Only those who find emancipation at the end drink Waheguru's Naam-Amrit with reverence. 50.

Word Meaning: Hayrut = by watching; over time. Sukhee = hey friend. Mein = selfishness and ego. Haar = necklaces. Doar = wide but thin bracelets. Kunkun = narrow, but thick bracelets. Thaaki = got tired. Sheengaar(u) = adornments. Gurmukh(i) = in the shelter of the Guru. Adhaar(u) = support; basis.

Word Meaning: It was a big surprise for me to note how my selfishness and my ego died (were eradicated) over time when my mind was enlightened with the recitation of the Guru's Shabad (in praise of Waheguru), oh my friend. Just like a young bride who beautifies herself by wearing different necklaces and wide and thick bracelets to win her dear's love, I adorned my body with religious symbols to please my deity, but got tired of all adornment (because I did not achieve any peace). I realized the real bliss when I connected with the dear Lord, wearing the necklace of noble qualities around my neck (His Naam on my tongue). However, love and affection for Waheguru is realized only in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. By pondering on Guru's Shabad in mind, you will learn that nobody can enjoy any comfort without Waheguru. So, one should study, understand, and have love for Waheguru. We should recite Waheguru's Naam and worship Him because His Naam is the basis of our life, oh pundit ji.51.

J(i) Purakh nudr(i) na aavuyyee, Tis ka kiyya kur(i) kuhhiya jaayay. Bulihaari Gur aapnay, jin(i) hirdaiy ditta dikhaayay. 52.

Word Meaning: Laykh(u) = writing. Mityee = erase. Kaarun(u) Keeya = created the needed ingredients for the universe. Pug(u) Dhaar(i) = with firm footing (laws). Huth(i) = in control. Phayr(i) = reverse; change. Saar(i) = look after. Puch(i) = in suffering. J(i) = Jo = which. Purakh = living power.

MEANING: The writing, which Waheguru has inscribed in one's fate, cannot be erased by his own efforts because Waheguru, who has created the universe with His benevolence, has firm (strict) laws, oh my friends. You can learn from Guru's Words that the Creator has control over all honours. We cannot change His inscription, so we should pray to Him that He take care of us in whatever way He pleases. One can enjoy blissfulness with His kind sight and by reflecting on Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. The followers of their mind are misled, and suffer spiritual death; but those who ponder on the Guru's Shabad get salvaged, oh pundit. What can anyone say about the living Supreme Being, which is not visible? (No one can describe Him). I am a sacrifice for my Guru who has shown me Waheguru in my heart. 52.

Word Meaning: Paandha = teacher. Bidiya = Guru's Teachings. Bichraiy = leads life. Sehj(i) Soobhaayay = without any special effort; make it a normal routine (part of his character). Sodhaiy = purifies mind. Tutt(u) = reality; Waheguru (His Naam). Luhhaiy = acquires. Liv Laayay = with full meditation. Bikurda = sells. Bikh(u) = poisonous money. Cheenyee = recognize. Soojh Boojh = wisdom and understanding.

MEANING: Only that teacher deserves to be called educated who spends his life according to the Teachings of the Guru, and makes them a part of his character. Such a teacher purifies his mind through the education received from the Guru and acquires Waheguru's Naam with a focused mind. But the worshipper of Maya sells his education, earns poisonous money, and spends poisonous money. The foolish does not recognize (makes connection with) Guru's Shabad, and has no spiritual wisdom, or understanding, oh pundit ji. 53.

Word Meaning: Chaatrriyaan = students. Smaalhou = remember. Sungruhou = accumulate Naam; recite it. Laaha = benefit. Putti = the wooden writing board. Saar(u) = supreme. Beena = wise. Gul(i) = neck; tongue.

MEANING: The teacher who passes on the Guru's Teachings to his students is the true devotee of the Guru. He advises his students to remember Waheguru and recite His Naam to earn spiritual benefit (wealth) in the world. To enshrine Waheguru's Naam in the heart is the true board to write on, and Guru's Shabad is the supreme word to read, oh pundit ji. Only that individual is a true Pundit(u), is truly educated, and wise, who has the necklace of Waheguru's Naam around his neck (Naam on the tongue), oh Nanak. 54.1.

ਰਾਮਕਲੀ ਮਹਲਾ 1 ਸਿਧ ਗੋਸਟਿ

ੴ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਪ੍ਰਸਾਦਿ॥

Ramkali Mehla 1, Sidh Gosht(i)

Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i)

NOTE: Even though the name Sidh has been used for accomplished yogis, it has also been used for the Almighty. Gosht(i) means 'conversation'; it has also been used for 'union'. So, Sidh Gosht(i) has two meanings: conversation (discussion) with Yogis and union with Waheguru (God). At the time of Guru Nanak Sahib, the Yogic faith was very influential in northern India. The main objective of the yogis was to purify their bodies and acquire some supernatural powers by focusing their mind on their deity – Shiva, on their gurus, or on some supreme power - so that they could impress people, and force them to give them huge donations. People were more afraid of their powers than they had any reverence for them. The yogis were devotees of god Shiva and were recognized by their resemblance to many symbols of their faith. Their main symbols included ash on their bodies, big glass earrings, a quilt of rags, a bugle to blow into, a stick (baton), a large bag to collect dry food, and a shallow dish to receive alms. They would go from door to door to collect alms. Most of them stayed unmarried throughout their life, but a few were also married. Normally, they lived in large groups in communal housing.

To acquire powers, they would meditate for long hours to build concentration of mind, which they used to display their powers.

Guru Nanak Sahib had many meetings with the Yogis, during which they tried to impress Guru Sahib with their supernatural powers and, sometimes, even with their logic, but they failed every time. Guru Sahib advised them at every meeting to change their objective and work for the betterment of humanity. They could do this only by acquiring noble qualities by focusing their minds on Waheguru's Naam. Guru Sahib told them that the display of powers simply boosts their ego, which is an enemy of spirituality. Most of those meetings took place in isolated places where there were very few people, if any, to listen to the discussions. However, some of the yogis were won over by Guru Sahib even though they did not admit it publicly.

The last meeting between the Yogis and Guru Nanak Sahib took place at the Village of Achchul, near Batala, in Feb-March 1539. The Yogis used to visit the temple of god Shiva in that village every year on the same days. Guru Nanak Sahib made a special effort to be there at the same time to educate the yogis. A large number of people had gathered there to see the yogis. The Yogis were trying to impress the people with their tricks.

Guru Nanak Sahib had become a well-known Divine Messenger by then and had earned tremendous respect from the people. When they heard that Guru Nanak Sahib had also arrived in Achchul, they flocked around Him. This made the yogis very jealous and angry. They unleashed all their powers to impress the people and win them back, but they failed miserably. Then they went to Guru Sahib and began a discussion to show their spiritual supremacy. But they failed again miserably, which really broke their back, and their influence in Punjab was almost wiped out.

Guru Sahib recorded the proceedings of this decisive and important meeting later under the title "Sidh Gosht(i)" which Guru Arjun Dev Ji enshrined in Guru Granth Sahib for our spiritual guidance. It is not just a record of the Meeting: it is a rich treasure of Divine information for all of us. All the questions by the Yogis, and the answers by Guru Sahib, are given next as recorded by Guru Sahib. There were many Yogis present there, but Churput, Loharipa, and Bhungar Nath were the main leaders. Enjoy the holy Word Meaning: Sidh = Waheguru. Subha = gathering. Kur(i) Aasun(i) = with full faith. Sunt = Guru; holy saints. Jaikaaro = hail. Rehraas(i) = prayer; bowing to. Saacha = eternal Waheguru. Appur Apaaro = limitless. Sehj Bhaayay = with peaceful mind and respect. Jus(u) Layoun = sing praise. 1.

Bhuvviyaiy = roam on earth. Soocha = pure. Mookut(i) = emancipation. Pause.

MEANING: I hail the gathering of the holy saints who sit down to remember Waheguru (recite His Naam) with full faith. I bow to them who are connected with the limitless Waheguru. The Guru connects the devotee with Waheguru, oh Nanak. So, I would love to sever my head and offer it to my Guru along with my body and mind, and sing Waheguru's praise with love and in a blissful state of mind. 1.

Roaming around in the world does nothing for spirituality; the mind is purified only by Waheguru's (Naam). One cannot find emancipation without the Guru's Shabad. Pause.

Word Meaning: Maarug(u) = religious path (beliefs). Sooaou = objective. Saach = Waheguru's Naam. Baisou = acquire peace of mind. Ruhhiyaiy = state of mind. Keh Aavou, Jaaou = what is the purpose of your birth, and when do you leave the world? Baiyraagi = detached from worldly attractions. Raaho = path to become detached.

MEANING: Question by yogis: Who are you, and what's your name? What is the objective of your faith, and what path do you follow to achieve that?

Guru Sahib's Answer: I recite Waheguru's Naam and pray to Him. I am always prepared to sacrifice my life for Waheguru's devotees.

Q: How do you achieve peace of mind, and in what state does your mind stay? What brings you into the world, and at what point do you leave the world, oh, detached from the world, Nanak? What is your path to becoming detached from the world? 2.

Word Meaning: Ghut(i) Ghut(i) = (God which is present) in every heart. Baiys(i) = with full faith (dedication). Niruntar(i) = in the omnipresent (Waheguru). Bhaayay = Rujaayay = Will. Sehjay = Without any effort (by the Will of God). Sidhaayay = leave. Aasun(i) = seat; throne. Sach(i) = with the eternal Naam.

MEANING: A: I stay connected with Waheguru, who is continuously (uniformly) present in every heart, and follow the Guru's Advice in life. I came to the world with the Will of God, and will leave when He calls me back. I always accept Waheguru's Will to be sweet. The Guru teaches us that only Waheguru is eternal in the world, and only He has a permanent throne. A Sikh of the Guru (devotee) recognizes self in the shelter of the Guru, and merges into Waheguru by reciting His Naam. 3.

Word Meaning: Dootur(u) = very tough (to swim across). Paaro = other shore. Aoudhoo = detached from the world. Sacha Beechaaro = honest thought. Paargraami = swimmer to the other end. Baiysun(u) = debate.

MEANING: Q: The world sea is said to be very tough to swim across, so how do we do that? Yogi Churput(u) asked (Guru) Nanak for His honest opinion on that.

A: What kind of response can I offer to a person who asks a question for which he already knows the answer? So, I do not want to get into a discussion with you on this question, oh Churput. However, the answer to your question is that one should recite Waheguru's Naam to cross the world-sea.

Jaisay jul meh(i) kumul(u) niraalum, moorgaayi naiy, saanay. Soort(i) Shabad(i) bhuv saagur(u) turiyaiy, Nanak Naam(u) vukhaanay, Ruheh(i) ikaant(i), Aiko mun(i) vussiya, aasa maah(i) niraaso. Agumm(u), Agoachur(u) daykh(i) dikhaayay, Nanak ta ka daaso.

Word Meaning: Niraalum = detached. Moogaayi = a waterfowl; a teal. Naiy = river. Saanay = like. Soort(i) = focus of mind. Bhuv Saagur(u) = the world sea (of Maya). Vukhaanaiy = chants; recites. Ikaant(i) = aloof. Aasa Mah(i) Niraasa = unmindful of hopes (desires). Daykh(i) = "sees"; is connected with. Daaso = slave.

MEANING: Guru Sahib's answer continues: Just like the lotus flower, which while growing in water, stays above its surface, or just like the teal which swims on the surface of water, yet does not let its wings become wet, the man, while living in the world of Maya, should stay unaffected by it. With one's mind focused on Guru's Shabad, he should recite Waheguru's Naam to swim across the world-sea. With Waheguru's Naam enshrined in the heart, he should stay aloof so as to have no worldly desires. I will be the slave of the holy saint who is connected with the inaccessible and the incomprehensible Waheguru, and connects others with Him, oh Nanak(u). 5.

Word Meaning: Roas(u) = be offended. Chultou = wavering. Adhaaro = basis.

MEANING: Q: Do not be offended if I humbly ask your honest thought on how to get to Guru's Door, oh Lord, Nanak.

A: When one makes Waheguru's Naam the basis of his life, his capricious mind becomes stable (quits wavering) and rests in its permanent home (Waheguru's Naam). With His Naam in the heart, one begins to love Waheguru, which connects the devotee with Him through the Guru. 6.

Haati, baati, ruheh(i) niraalay, rookh(i) birkh(i) oodiyaanay. Kund mool(u) ahaaro khaayiyaiy, aoudhoo boalaiy giyaanay.

(PAGE 939): Teeruth naahiyaiy, sookh(u) ful(u) paayiyaiy, maiyl(u) na laagaiy kaayee. Gorukh-poot, Loharipa boalaiy, joag joogut(i) bidh(i) saayee. 7.

Word Meaning: Haati = worldly business (affairs). Baati = small garden of attractive flowers and fruit trees (worldly attractions). Niraalay = detached. Rookh(i), Birkh(i) = (in the shelter of) trees. Oodiyaanaiy = in wilderness. Kund Mool = vegetables that grow under the soil, like carrots, radishes, turnips, onions, etc. Ahaaro = food. Gorakh-Poot = disciple of Gorakh Nath. Joogut Bidh(i) = technique; means. Saayee = that.

MEANING: (Yogi Loharipa): We stay aloof from the worldly affairs and their attractions under the shelter of some tree in the wilderness (do not need big mansions); and live on a simple diet of vegetables that grow under the soil (which require no cooking, thus avoiding temptations for delicious foods). We take dips at holy places, whereby we do not acquire any filth on our minds, and stay blessed. This is the successful path to yogism, explained yogi Loharipa - a disciple of Gorakh Nath. 7.

Haat, baati neend na aavaiy, pur ghur(i) chit(u) na dolaayee. Bin(u) Naavaiy mun(u) tayk na tikyee, Nanak bhookh na jaayee. Haat, puttun(u) ghur(u) Guru dikhaaya, sehjay Sach(u) vapaaro. Khundit nindra, ulp ahaarun(g), Nanak Tutt(u) beechaaro. 8.

Word Meaning: Neend Na Aavaiy = not be lost; become oblivious. Pur Ghur(i) = belonging of others. Dolaayee = weakening (wavering) of mind. Tayk Na Tikyee = does not stabilize. Bhookh = appetite (for worldly desires). Haat(u) Puttun(u) = shops and city (to do business in Waheguru's Naam). Sehjay = in blissful state. Khundit = reduced. Ulp = small. Ahaarun(g) = diet. Tutt(u) = the essence (Waheguru).

MEANING: A: (One does not need to leave home for forests to unite with Waheguru), but he should not get so deeply engrossed in Maya that he becomes oblivious of Waheguru; and he should not allow his mind to show weakness so as to have an evil eye for others' belongings (women and wealth). However, one's mind does not stabilize, and one's appetite for worldly attractions does not go away without Waheguru's Naam. The Guru shows the business centre in one's mind, where he can trade for true wealth (Waheguru's Naam) in a peaceful state of mind, without going to the forests. When one ponders the root of the universe, Waheguru, his sleep is reduced, and he also eats less. 8.

Word Meaning: Dershun = philosophies. Bhaykh = semblance. Jogindera = superior Yogism. Moonderaan = glass earrings. Jholi = a large bag hung on the shoulder to collect dry food. Khintha = quilt of rags. Barh Untar = out of the twelve. Aik = the "Aayi Punth). Surayvhou = serve; adopt. Khut Dershun = the six major faiths of the ascetics: Yogi, Jungum, Sanyasi, Baiyraagi, Baiyshno, and Jains. Ikk Puntha = our sect – Aayi Punth. Inn Bidh(i) = by such means. Baahourr(i) = again. Choat = hurt; suffer.

MEANING: (A Yogi advises Guru Sahib to adopt their faith): There are six major philosophies (faiths) of ascetics, including Yogism. There are twelve sects of Yogis, but ours, "Aayi Punth", is the best; I invite you to adopt our sect, which is the superior most, and to wear our symbols – glass earrings, and a quilt of rags, etc. This is how we teach our mind and never suffer in life; this is the path to union, oh, Nanak. 9.

Untar(i) Shabad niruntar(i) moonderaan, haumein mumta door(i) kuree. Kaam(u), kroadh(u) ahunkaar(u) nivaaraiy, Gur kaiy Shabad(i) su sumujh puree. Khintha, jholi Bhurpur(i) ruhhiya, Nanak taaraiy, Aik(u) Huree. Saacha Sahib(u), Saachi Naayee, purkhaiy Gur kee baat khuree. 10.

Word Meaning: Niruntar(i) = continuous. Mumta = worldly attachments. Door(i) Kuree = Nivaaraiy = get rid of; overcome. Bhurpur(i) = filling everywhere completely. Taaraiy = salvages. Huree = Waheguru. Naayee = greatness; splendour. Purkhaiy = affirms. Baat Khuree = true Word; Guru's Shabad.

MEANING: Guru Ji's response: To enshrine Guru's Shabad in the mind are the earrings that we wear in the mind all the time, by which we overcome our selfishness, ego, and worldly attachments. We gain this understanding from the Guru's Shabad and rid ourselves of lust, rage, and ego. "Seeing" the omnipresent Waheguru everywhere is, for us, the large bag and the quilt of rags. Only Waheguru can grant emancipation, oh yogi. One can affirm with Guru's eternal Shabad that Waheguru and His splendour are eternal. 10.

Word Meaning: Oondhou = inverted. Khuppur = the shallow dish (heart). Punchbhoo = the noble qualities of the five elements: patience of the earth; coolness of water; indiscrimination of air, burning (of mental filth) nature of fire; and detachment of the sky. Topi = cap. Kurraasun(u) = mat of straw (on which the yogis sit to meditate). Jagoti = loin-cloth. Sat(u) = high morality. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Sunjum = control on senses. Gurmukh(i) = in shelter of the Guru (with His Advice). Smaahl(i) = remember.

MEANING: Guru Sahib continues His response: Inverting our heart (mind) from worldly attractions to sing Waheguru's praise is our dish to beg for spirituality, and the noble qualities of the five basic elements serve as the cap you wear. You sit on a mat of straw to stay alert and wear a tight loincloth to control your lust. We control our body and mind (by Waheguru's Naam) with the advice of the Guru, which also enables us to acquire high morality, contentment, and control over our senses, oh Nanak. 11.

Word Meaning: Kuvun = who. Goopta = hidden. Mookta = emancipated. Untar(i) Baahur(i) = inside and outsie (by mind and by body). Joogta = connected (with the deity). Aavaiy = is born. Jaayay = dies. Tirbhuvun = in the three worlds (universe). Smaayay = is present.

MEANING: Q: Who is hidden, and who is emancipated (detached from the world). Who is connected (with God) by body and by mind? Who takes births, and who dies all the time (repeatedly)? Who is present in the three-layered universe? (Being devotees of Shiva, the Yogis had no concept of Waheguru and His Naam, or even the Guru). 12.

Word Meaning: Ghut(i) = in the heart. Binsaiy = perishes.

MEANING: A: Waheguru, which is present in every heart, is hidden, and the follower of the Guru is emancipated. The devotee, who follows Guru's Shabad all the time, is connected with Waheguru by body and by mind. It is the Maya-worshipper who perishes, takes births, and dies again and again. Guru's Sikh is always absorbed in Waheguru which is present in all the three worlds. 13.

Word Meaning: Kiyoun Kur(i) = how is it? Baandha = trapped. Surpun = snake (poisonous Maya). Khaadha = enslaved. Khohiya = loses (wealth of spirituality). Laadha = finds; acquires. Undhiyaara = darkness of ignorance. Tutt(u) = reality.

MEANING: Q: How is it that the man is enslaved by the poisonous Maya, and trapped in its net? How do some people lose their high spirituality while others gain it even more? How can man purify his mind and get rid of the darkness of his ignorance? I will consider the individual my guru (give him the respect of a guru) who can give his accurate thoughts on this fact. 14.

Word Meaning: Doormut(i) = ill-advice; evil thinking. Mayt(i) = eradicating.

MEANING: A: The poisonous Maya enslaves and traps the individual in its bonds who has evil thinking. The follower of Maya loses his spirituality, and the follower of the Guru gains it. The darkness of ignorance is killed in the shelter of the Guru, and one becomes absorbed in Waheguru by overcoming one's selfishness and ego. 15.

Word Meaning: Soonn = above the effects of Maya (Waheguru). Niruntar(i) = uniformly present. Bundh(u) = wall. Oodaiy Na = does not wander. Hunsa = soul; mind. Purraiy = erodes; weakens. Kundh(u) = body. Goofa = cave. Bhaavaiy = is liked.

MEANING: Guru Ji continues His response: If a man builds a wall of the uniformly present Waheguru's Naam around his mind, his mind quits taking flights (wandering), and his body does not erode in strength. If he recognizes Waheguru in the cave of his peaceful mind (makes a connection with Him), he becomes pure like Waheguru, and is liked by Him, oh Nanak. 16.

Word Meaning: Greh(u) = home. Tujiyo = abandoned; left. Oodaasi = detached from the world. Bhaykh(u) = semblance; outfit. Nivaasi = of the common man. Vukkhur = merchandize. Vunjaaray = trader. Saath(u) = associates. Lunghaavhou Paaro = ferry across. 17.

MEANING: Q: For what reason did you leave home to become detached from the world? For what reason now, you are wearing the outfit of a common man? What merchandise do you trade in, and how do you get salvation for your associates? 17.

ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਖੋਜਤ ਭਏ ਉਦਾਸੀ॥ ਦਰਸਨ ਕੈ ਤਾਈ ਭੇਖ ਨਿਵਾਸੀ॥ ਸਾਚ ਵਖਰ ਕੇ ਹਮ ਵਣਜਾਰੇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਉਤਰਸਿ ਪਾਰੇ॥ 18॥

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = those who obey Guru's Shabad (sing Waheguru's praise). Dershun = philosophy; belief. Kaiy Taayeen = for the sake of. 18.

A: I wore the outfit of a detached person to search for the individuals who obey the Guru and sing Waheguru's praise, but our basic philosophy is to lead the life of a common man while living in the family (so the outfit of a family man). I deal in Waheguru's Naam, and my associates swim across the world sea by following the Guru's advice. 18.

Word Meaning: Kit(u) Bidh(u) = by what means. Junum(u) Vutaaya = transformed life. Mun(u) Laaya = what interests you Munsa Khaayee = killed desires. Jot(i) = (Waheguru's) Light (Soul). Niruntur(i) = of the uniformly present (Waheguru). Duntaan = teeth. Saar(u) = (hard like) iron (attractions of Maya). Saacha = honest.

MEANING: Q: How did you transform your life, and what are your interests (what do you attach your mind to), oh man? How did you kill your hopes and desires? How did you realize (make a connection with) God's Light? How can one chew on (kill) the attractions of Maya, which are very hard to chew, and which are like chewing iron without teeth? Give me your honest thought on this, oh Nanak. 19.

Word Meaning: Junmay = (spiritual birth). Guvun = birth-death cycle. Unhut(i) = Unaahit(i) = in non-perishable (eternal Waheguru). Raatay = imbued. Traiy goon = the three effects of Maya (See INTRODUCTION). Taarunhaar(u) = the one who has the ability to ferry across (Waheguru).
MEANING: A: I killed my birth-death cycle by taking spiritual birth in Satguru's shelter (surrendering my own wisdom and adopting His Advice). Imbued in the love of the non-perishable (immortal) Waheguru, my mind has been attached to Him. I burned away my hopes and desires with Guru's Shabad, and acquired Waheguru's Light in the shelter of the Guru. If you make the three effects of Maya ineffective (with Guru's Shabad), you have already chewed on the iron-like tough Maya (gotten rid of its attractions). The captain of the ship, God, ferries you across the world-sea even without being asked. 20.

Word Meaning: Aad(i) = the origin (of the universe). Kuthiulay = is said; described. Soonn = complete emptiness; the state where no thoughts come to mind (Waheguru). Vaaso = dwelling. Moodra = beliefs; means. Kaal = death. Ttheenga = attack causing hurt. Nirbhuou = fearless (Waheguru). Sehj = blissful state. Suntokh = contentment. Assun = seat; state. Chhayday = destroy. Bairaayiyaiy = enemy (haumein). Bikh(u) = poison. Ruchiya = created.
MEANING: Q: What are your thoughts on the origin of the world? Where did the Supreme Being reside at that time? What are the means to acquire Divine Knowledge (to connect with God)? Who resides in every heart? How can you avert the attack of death, and how can one reach the residence of the fearless God (connect with Him)? How can one recognize that he has acquired the state of blissfulness and contentment? How can one kill his haumein?
A: When a devotee gets rid of his main enemy, haumein (because it destroys one's spirituality) with the Guru's Shabad, his mind stays in its own home (is stabilized and does not wander anymore). He connects with the Creator through the Guru's Shabad. I am a slave of such a saint. 21.
NOTE: Guru Sahib answers the full question in Paurri (stanza) 23.

Word Meaning: Smaayee = absorbed (in thoughts or actions). Urthaavaiy = interprets. Til(u) Na Rumaayee = has absolutely no desire. Tuttaiy = of the root. Uvguttaiy = the invisible (the incomprehensible Waheguru). Soorta = listener. Kerta = creator. Gut(i) = transcendence. Mit(i) = measurements.
MEANING: Q: Where does the man come from, where does he go to, and how does he stay absorbed in activities that attract him? How can he be loved by the Supreme Being under the guidance of the Guru and get connected with the incomprehensible God, which is the origin of everything? How do you explain that He is the creator and the listener at the same time? I will be convinced that the individual who can explain all this is the true Guru (connected with God) and has absolutely no greed.
A: The man comes to this world, leaves the world, and stays absorbed in the activities of his interest, with the Will of Waheguru. If he spends his life according to the Teachings of the Guru and recites Waheguru's Naam with the Guru's Shabad, he attains high transcendence and learns that Waheguru's transcendence and His universe are limitless. 22.

Word Meaning: Bismaad(u) = amazement. Nituntur = continuous. Ukulput = not imaginary; real. Moodra = means; path. Uvigut(i) = in the invisible (Waheguru). Nirunjun(u) = Waheguru. Sehj(i) = in the high spiritual state. Luhhaiy = acquire. Dooji Kaar = service to others. Khoj(i) = by searching. Jea Joogut(i) = the right path. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Maayt(i) = eradicate. Niraalum = detached. Saach(u) = Waheguru (His Naam).
MEANING: A: (to paurri 21): The origin of the universe is simply amazing (cannot be explained); only Waheguru was present everywhere at that time. The Divine Knowledge acquired from the Guru (His Shabad) is the true (the most effective) path to connect with Waheguru. It is Waheguru that is present in every heart. One gets absorbed into (merges with) the invisible Waheguru through the Guru's Shabad when he acquires Waheguru, the origin of everything, which is above the effects of Maya. The Sikh, who serves the Guru (obeys His Teachings) and recognizes no other power (such as Maya), can search for and realize Waheguru. Waheguru's Huqam is amazing, but the individual who recognizes it knows how to connect with the eternal Waheguru. The real yogi is the one who gets rid of his selfishness and ego, becomes detached from the world, and has Waheguru enshrined in his heart. 23.
NOTE: From Paurri 24 to Paurri 42, there are no questions from the Yogis. Guru Sahib continues to explain the beliefs of His Path and about Waheguru. Fresh questions start from Paurri 43.

Nanak ta kuou milaiy vudaayee, aap(u) puchhaanaiy serb jeayaan. 24.

Word Meaning: Uvigutoan = from the invisible. Nirmaayil(u) = pure, perfect. Oopjay = comes into being. Nirgoon = fromless. Sugoon(u) = the visible form (nature). Theeya = became. Perchaiy = get connected; being won over. Perm Pud(u) = the highest spiritual state. Smaayay Leeya = absorbed (by Waheguru). Dooja = the other (Maya). Pergaas(u) = bloomed. Soojhaiy = think of. Vudaayee = respect. 24.

MEANING: (After creating the world), the Pure (Perfect) Waheguru appears from His invisible state to His visible state in the form of His nature (creation). One attains a high spiritual state by connecting with the Guru (by following His Teachings) and merging into Waheguru through the Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's Naam). Such a devotee believes only in the "One" Supreme Being and gets rid of his selfishness, ego, and love for Maya (through the Guru's Shabad). That individual is the real Yogi who recognizes (obeys) Guru's Shabad as a result of which the lotus of his heart blooms with blissfulness (his mind is enlightened). He understands everything (about spirituality) when he kills his desires while living in the family and shows compassion for everybody. The devotee, who recognizes self (that he is a part of Waheguru and recognizes his weaknesses and his strengths), and also recognizes the fact that Waheguru is present in every heart, is given respect in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 24.

Word Meaning: Saachoun = from the eternal (Waheguru). Soochay = purified; like Waheguru. Aik Muyya = one entity. Jhootthay = Maya-engrossed. Tthuvur = shelter; peace. Doojaiy = because of the other (Maya). Aavagaun(u) = birth and death cycle. Bhuyya = happens; are trapped. Perkhaiy = tests. Baydun = suffering. Rusaayin(u) = source of bliss. Purhuriya = removed; gets rid of. 25.

MEANING: Those who are spiritually reborn with Waheguru's Naam (Guru's Shabad) become pure like Waheguru and get absorbed into Him to become "one" entity. On the other hand, those who are engrossed in Maya find no shelter in Waheguru's Court and get trapped in the birth-death cycle. The birth-death cycle is terminated with Guru's Shabad and with Waheguru's benevolence when He tests and approves His devotees. The lovers of Maya forget the source of bliss, Waheguru, and suffer from the pain of separation from Him because of their haumein. Only those who are given such understanding by Waheguru, with His benevolence, understand these facts; they are emancipated by the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru eradicates the selfishness, ego, and the attachments with Maya of His devotees; and as Captain of the Ship, ferries them across the world-sea, oh Nanak. 25.

Word Meaning: Bhoolay = misled. Kaan(i) = subservience. Johaiy = watches with evil eye. Haanay Haan(i) = loss, and more loss. Bherm(i) = in misgivings. Bhuvvaiy = roam about. Baybaan(i) = wilderness. Vaymaarug(i) = on the wrong path. Moosaiy = robbed. Muntar(i) Musaan(i) = with the mantra (recipe) that leads to (spiritual) death. Cheenaiy = understand. Luvvaiy = makes useless noise like a crow. Koobaan(i) = bad words. Saach(i) Ruttay = imbued in the love of Waheguru. Jaan(i) = consider. 26.

MEANING: The followers of their mind are misled by their misbeliefs, and eventually become subservient to the Angel of death (are at his mercy). They suffer more and more loss in spirituality when they cast an evil eye on the belongings of others (including their women). Being on the wrong path, as if they are roaming around lost in the wilderness, they are robbed of their spirituality, which becomes a recipe for their spiritual death. They do not make a connection with Guru's Shabad, and with the choice of bad words, they make useless noise like a crow. Only those are considered blissful who are imbued in Waheguru's love, oh Nanak. 26.

Word Meaning: Bhuou = fear. Aghurr(u) = unrefined (uncontrolled) mind. Ghurraavaiy = refines. Puvittar = pure; holy. Roam(i) = with every pore of body. 27.

MEANING: A Sikh of the Guru has Waheguru's (respectful) fear in his mind at all times. Guru's Sikh refines his unrefined mind with Guru's Bani (Shabad). Guru's Sikh purifies his mind by singing the praises of Waheguru and attains the holy, supreme spiritual state. Guru's Sikh remembers Waheguru through every pore of his body (wholeheartedly), and merges into Waheguru with His Naam, oh Nanak. 27.

Word Meaning: Perchaiy = acquiring knowledge; listening to (Guru's Advice). Untar(i) Bidh(i) = the internal situation. Alukh = incomprehensible. Apaar(u) = with no end. Mookut(i) = emancipation

MEANING: Acquiring Divine Knowledge from the Guru, is to ponder on the Vedas for His Sikhs (they do not need to study them), and they swim across the sea of Maya. A devotee, who gets connected with Waheguru, acquires Divine Knowledge with Guru's Shabad, and realizes his internal situation (the state of his spirituality and of morality). Guru's Sikh realizes (gets connected with) the incomprehensible and limitless Waheguru, and reaches the door of (attains) emancipation, oh Nanak. 28.

Word Meaning: Akuth(u) = indescribable. Kuthaiy = says (sings praise). Nibh-haiy = reaches destination. Spervaar(i) = with the family. Achaar(i) = with high morality. Bhayd(i) = prying open the deep meaning. Jaanaayee = which is explained (Guru's Teachings).

MEANING: Guru's Sikh ponders on His Shabad, sings praise of the indescribable Waheguru, and attains salvation for the whole family of his associates. Guru's Sikh recites Waheguru's Naam with deep love, and gets connected with Waheguru by acquiring high morality with Guru's Shabad. He understands Guru's Teachings by prying open the deep meanings of His Shabad, and merges into Waheguru by eradicating his haumein (with the Shabad), oh Nanak. 29.

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) = for (to make) Sikhs of the Guru. Ooput(i) = produce; growth. Khuput(i) = consumption; vanish. Baaji = drama. Ruppaiy = dyed; imbued. Rung(u) Laayay = enjoy bliss. Put(i) Siyoun = with dignity. Ghur(i) = Waheguru's Court.

Meaning: Waheguru has created the world to raise Guru's Sikhs (people of high spirituality and of high morality). Whatever else grows in the world, and whatever vanishes, is all a drama (is short-lived). Those who are imbued in Guru's Shabad enjoy blissfulness, and dyed in Waheguru's love, they arrive in His Court with dignity. No one earns respect without singing Waheguru's praise; so, how can one merge into Waheguru without His Naam, oh Nanak? 30.

Word Meaning: Asht Sidhi = the eight supernatural powers that the yogis strive to acquire (See INTRODUCTION). Sudhi = pure thinking. Sur Upsur Bidh(i) = appropriate and inappropriate times. Pervirt = adopt; acquire. Nervirt(i) = give up; to let go; stay away from.

MEANING: The high and moral thinking of the Guru's Sikh is like him having the eight supernatural powers that the yogis strive to acquire. Guru's Sikhs are able to swim across the sea of Maya because of their pure and holy wisdom (as imparted by the Guru). A Sikh of the Guru recognizes the appropriateness and inappropriateness of different occasions, knows what (good things) to adopt, and what bad things to stay away from. The Sikh of the Guru attains salvation for himself as well as for others with the Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 31.

Word Meaning: Joag Joogut(i) = means to make connection. Tirbhuvun = universe. Sojhi = understanding.

MEANING: Haumein of those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam is eradicated, and they stay absorbed in the Naam. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam are the ones who know the real path to union with Waheguru, and they reach the door of emancipation (acquire it). They come to know the secrets of the universe (that Waheguru runs the whole affair), and they are always blissful, oh Nanak. 32.

Word Meaning: Sidh Gosht(i) = union with Waheguru. Tup(u) = the hardships that the yogis endure to achieve their objective. Kerni = performance of deeds; life style. Saar(u) = supreme. Vaykaar = meaningless; leads to immorality. Jaiykaar(u) = accolades; sing praise; salute.

MEANING: Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam achieve union with Waheguru, and their hard work is recognized without any physical torture on their part. They have a supreme (exemplary) way of life and always ponder the virtues of Waheguru. People who discuss things other than Waheguru have no spiritual worth and are normally led to immorality. I salute the devotees who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 33.

Word Meaning: Baarh = twelve (sects of yogis). Chhay-Chaar(i) = ten (sects of Sanyasis). Mur(i) Jeevaiy = life after killing one's worldly desires. Doojay Laagay = engrossed in Maya. Oordhaar(i) = embedded in heart.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam can be acquired (enshrined in the heart) only from the Guru, and the path to union with Waheguru is to stay absorbed in His Naam. The Yogis are misled (achieve no spirituality) in their twelve sects, and the Sanyasis are misled in their ten sects. But the individual who leads his life in the family after renouncing his worldly desires (becoming fully detached from Maya) attains emancipation. If you think carefully, you will find that without the Guru's Shabad (the Naam), the people are attached to Maya. But those are the highly fortunate who enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their heart, oh Nanak. 34.

Word Meaning: Ruttan(u) = Waheguru's jewel-like precious Naam. Luhhaiy = acquire. Liv Laayay = by the focus of mind. Perkhaiy = tests; understands worth. Soobhaayay = with love; dedication. Saachi Kaar = acts of high morality. Putiyaayay = is convinced; stays absorbed in. Lukhaayay = shows (explains) to others. Choat = hurt; attack (by vices).

MEANING: A Sikh of the Guru acquires priceless Naam of Waheguru by fully focusing his mind on the Guru's Shabad with love and with full faith, and comes to realize its limitless worth. A Sikh of the Guru leads a life of high morality (no dishonest dealings, no discrimination, and no vices, etc.) and stays attached to Waheguru's Naam. Guru's Sikh explains Waheguru's virtues to others and is loved by Waheguru. Guru's Sikh never suffers from any vices, oh Nanak. 35.

Word Meaning: Daan(u) = donations; helping the needy. Ishnaan(u) = purity of mind; staying away from all vices. Sehj(i) = in the high spiritual state. Bhuou-Bhunjun = the destroyer of all fears (Waheguru). Perdhaan = leader to motivate others. Kerni Kaar = noble deeds worth performing (high morality, compassion, etc.)

MEANING: Acting on Guru's Teachings, His Sikhs recite Waheguru's Naam all the time, help the needy and keep their minds clean (free from all bad things) as their daily routine. They focus their mind on Waheguru (stay connected with Him) in the peaceful state of mind, and they are accorded honour in Waheguru's Court. Guru's Sikhs motivate others to remember Waheguru, the destroyer of all fears, and lead honest lives of high morality and compassion. Guru's Sikh connects others with Guru (or His Teachings) to be connected with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 36.

Word Meaning: Ghut Ghut(i) = Waheguru, which is present in every heart. Bhayd(u) = secrets. Vaiyr Virodh = enmity and animosity. Suglee Gunut = business-like calculations; account of good and bad deeds. Puchhaata = recognizes; makes connection.

MEANING: Acting on Guru's Teachings is like studying the Vedas, the Shastras, and the Simritis for the Sikh (he does not need to study them). (By connecting with Him) A Sikh of the Guru learns the secrets of Waheguru, which is present in every heart, and gets rid of any enmity and any animosity towards others. (Contrary to the teachings of the Hindu Granths), The Sikh does not believe in keeping account of his noble and bad deeds. Guru's Sikh makes a connection with the Lord and remains imbued with the love of His Naam, oh, Nanak. 37.

Bin(u) Gur bhermaiy aavaiy jaayay. Bin(u) Gur ghaal na puvyee thaayayn. Bin(u) Gur munooaa ut(i) dolaayay. Bin(u) Gur tripit(i) nuhee, bikh(u) khaayay. Bin(u) Gur bissiur(u) dussaiy mur(i) vaat. Nanak, Gur bin(u) ghaatay ghaat. 38.

Word Meaning: Bermaiy = is misled. Aavaiy Jaayay = is born, and dies. Ghaal = tough efforts. Puvyee Thaayayn = is not recognized (rewarded). Munooaa = mind. Dolaayay = weakens; wavers. Triput(i) = contentment. Bikh(u) = poisonous sensual pleasures. Bissiur(u) Dussay = snake bites; poisonous Maya attacks. Vaat = on the path of life. Ghaatay Ghaat = loss, and more loss.

MEANING: Without following the Teachings of the Guru, the man is misled by his misbeliefs, and continues to take births and to die. Without the Guru's guidance, man's mind keeps wavering (does not focus), and all his hard work (to gain any spirituality) goes unrecognized (unrewarded). Without the Guru's guidance, the man does not attain contentment and continues to commit immoral acts, which are poisonous to spirituality. Without Guru's guidance, the snake of Maya stings the man on the journey of his life and causes his spiritual death as he suffers more and more spiritual loss, oh Nanak. 38.

Jis Gur(u) milaiy, tis(u) paar(i) ootaaraiy. Uvgoon maytaiy, goon(i) nistaaraiy. Mookut(i), muhaa sookh, Gur Shabad(u) beechaar(i). Gurmukh(i) kuday na aavaiy haar(i). Tun(u) huttrree, eh(u) mun(u) vunjaara. Nanak, sehjay Sach(u) vupaara. 39.

Word Meaning: Uvgoon = ignoble qualities. Nistaaraiy = salvages. Haar(i) = defeat; loss. Huttrree = lovey trading centre. Vunjaara = trader; dealer MEANING: The Guru eradicates (clears) all the ignoble qualities, and implants noble qualities for emancipation in the mind of anyone who comes to His shelter, and salvages him. By pondering on the Guru's Shabad, the devotee acquires great bliss and becomes emancipated. Guru's Sikhs never lose to Maya's attacks. The human body is a lovely trading centre, where the mind trades its ignoble qualities for Waheguru's Naam in its peaceful state, oh, Nanak.

Word Meaning: Baandhiyo = built. Sayt(u) = bridge. Bidhaataiy = Waheguru. Daiynt = demons; evil people. Suntaapaiy = caused suffering; punished. Eh(i) = snake; mind. Bubheekhun = a brother of Ravan (the king of Lanka) who told all the secrets about Raavun to Ram Chand Ji. Perchaayin = Teachings. Saayir = sea (of Maya). Koat(i) Tayees = countless.
MEANING: Just like Ram Chand Ji built a bridge over the sea, plundered (destroyed) Lanka (now Sri Lanka), and punished the evil people (and freed Seeta Ji), Waheguru has built the Guru as the bridge over the sea of Maya to free the human soul from the claws of the five demons, and to ferry the soul across the sea of Maya. Ram Ji killed Ravan, the Guru smashes the head of the snake-like Maya. Just as Bubheekhun gave the secrets of Ravan to Ram Ji to kill Raavan, the teachings of the Guru are the secret behind killing the five demons (lust, greed, etc.). Ram Ji is said to have floated rocks over the sea surface to build the bridge. The Guru ferries the (stone-hearted) people, who are loaded with the burden of sins, across the sea of Maya (salvages them). The Guru has salvaged countless people, oh Nanak. 40.

Word Meaning: Chookaiy = is terminated; ends. Aavun Jaan(u) = birth-death cycle. Khoatay = impure. Khuray = pure. Sift(i) = by the praise of Waheguru. Bundh(u) = obstacles; impediments. 41.
MEANING: The birth-death cycle of Guru's Sikh is terminated, and he is honoured in Waheguru's Court. He can distinguish between the pure (real devotee), and the impure (a hypocrite). Guru's Sikh stays focused on Waheguru's Naam in the high spiritual state, and stays absorbed in (admitted to) Waheguru's Court by singing His praise. Guru's Sikh does not face any hurdles in the path of union with God, oh Nanak. 41.

Word Meaning: Ootum = superior. Bhuvun = universe. Sojhi = understanding.
MEANING: Guru's Sikh enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart, and burns away his haumein with Guru's Shabad. He always sings Waheguru's praise and stays absorbed in His Naam. Guru's Sikh earns high respect with Waheguru's Naam, and acquires knowledge about the universe (how it is controlled by Waheguru), oh Nanak. 42.

ਕਵਣ ਮੂਲੁ ਕਵਣ ਮਤਿ ਵੇਲਾ॥ ਤੇਰਾ ਕਵਣੁ ਗੁਰੂ ਜਿਸ ਕਾ ਤੂ ਚੇਲਾ॥ ਕਵਣ ਕਥਾ ਲੇ ਰਹਹੁ ਨਿਰਾਲੇ॥ ਬੋਲੈ ਨਾਨਕੁ ਸੁਣਹੁ ਤੁਮ ਬਾਲੇ॥ ਏਸੁ ਕਥਾ ਕਾ ਦੇਹਿ ਬੀਚਾਰੁ॥ ਭਵਜਲੁ ਸਬਦਿ ਲੰਘਾਵਣਹਾਰੁ॥ 43॥

Word Meaning: Mool(u) = root; origin (of the universe). Mut(i) = advice. Vayla = time. Chayla = Baalay = disciple. Kutha = sermon; advice. Niraalay = detached.
NOTE: From here on, questions by Yogis and answers by Guru Sahib are discussed.
MEANING: Q: What is the origin (of the universe), and what kind of advice does one need at this time (in human life)? Who is your guru, whose disciple you are? What advice have you received as a disciple to stay detached from the world? Tell us, oh, Nanak? Also, give us your thoughts on the belief that one can swim across the world sea with the Guru's Shabad. 43.

Word Meaning: Puvun = gases; Shabad; Huqam. Arumbh = beginning; root. Soort(i) = focused mind. Dhoon(i) = persistence; dedication. Akuth = (of the) indescribable (Waheguru). Ugun(i) = fire (deep desire). Nivaari = removed; gotten rid of.
MEANING: The universe started with gases with Waheguru's Huqam, oh yogis. Human life is the time to receive Satguru's Advice. Guru's Shabad is my Guru, and my focused mind and my dedication are the disciple. I stay aloof (detached from the world) by singing praise of the indescribable Waheguru, which is the Guru through all the eons. The devotee, who ponders on (sings) Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad, kills the fire of his selfishness and ego (and swims across the sea of Maya). 44.

Word Meaning: Maiyn = wax. Dunt = teeth. Saar(u) = (hard like) iron. Gerb(u) = ego. Ahaar(u) = food. Hivaiy = ice. Piraahun = cloak which covers one from top to toe. Avaahun = does not take flight; stable. It = here. Oot = there. Jaan(i) = recognize; have faith in. Kuvun Dhiyaan(u) = who to focus mind on.
MEANING: How can one overcome the temptations of highly attractive Maya, which is as difficult to resist as chewing on iron with the teeth of wax? What (spiritual) food can one take which kills one's ego? If a house of ice (peaceful mind) is covered all over by a layer of fire (of worldly desires), what kind of cave (mental conditions) can it find where it will not take flight (stay stable without wavering, i.e. not succumb to worldly desires)? What power does it recognize here and there (everywhere) to stay absorbed in that? What kind of focus does the mind require (on whom to focus it) so as to stay in itself? 45.

Word Meaning: Huoun Mein = haumein (selfishness and ego). Dooja = the other (Maya). Maytaiy = erase; get rid of. Ker-rra = tough; unkind. Gavaar(u) = foolish. Saar(u) = iron (like hard Maya). Ugun(i) = fire (of worldly desires and of jealousy).
MEANING: A: The man should get rid of his selfishness, his ego, and his love for Maya to be "one" with Waheguru. Life in the world is very tough (because of the attractions of Maya and the fire of jealousy), and the worshipper of Maya is foolish (who falls for its attractions). Iron-like hard Maya can be chewed on by following the Guru's Shabad. If the man recognizes Waheguru inside and outside (everywhere), his fire of desires and of jealousy is put out by the Will (Huqam) of Waheguru, oh Nanak. 46.

Word Meaning: Gerb(u) = conceit; ego. Nivaaraiy = gets rid of. Jaata = recognizes. Heeya = heart. Seetul(u) = calm; peaceful. Rung(i) = in love. Nudri = with kind sight (Waheguru).
MEANING: The answer continues: The individual, who is imbued in the fear (and love) of Waheguru, overcomes his ego, and recognizes the only Lord by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. With Guru's Shabad, Waheguru takes dwelling in his heart; and dyed in His love, the body and the mind of the devotee become calm and peaceful. The fire of his lust and his rage is put out, and his appetite for the poisonous enjoyments of Maya is quenched with the kind sight of the dear Waheguru, oh Nanak. 47.

Word Meaning: Mukh(i) = (word of) mouth; shabad. Hivvaiy Ghur(u) = house (source of) ice (coolness). Chund(u) = moon. Chhaaya = overcast. Sooruj(u) = sun of knowledge. Tupaiy = enlighten. Kaal(u) = death. Johut = cast a watchful eye. Nit = everyday; always. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Put(i) = dignity. Jodh = valiant. Sunghaaraiy = destroys. Bani Beechaaraiy = the word of thought.
MEANING: Q: Which is the shabad with which the moon-like coolness, and the sun-like bright light of Divine Knowledge (enlightenment) stays in one's mind? What is the shabad with which one can escape the constant watchful eye of (spiritual) death? And, what is the Guru's Shabad with which the devotee can maintain his dignity? Who is that valiant (hero) who can destroy the threat of (spiritual) death? Give us your thoughts on these issues, oh Nanak. 48.

Word Meaning: Bhaakhut(u) = reciting. Sus(i) = moon. Jot(i) = light. Apaara = endless (great).

Sum = equal. Paar(i) Ootaarunhaara = ferries across. Perchaiy = Teaching; Advice. Prunvut(i) = makes humble submission.

MEANING: A: The moon-like coolness comes to stay in the mind of the devotee when he recites Guru's Shabad (in praise of the endless Waheguru); and the sun of Knowledge brightens the peaceful mind of the devotee, which dispels the darkness of ignorance. With the support of Waheguru's Naam, such a devotee treats the comforts and discomforts the same way (becomes stoic), and Waheguru Himself ferries him across the world-sea (salvages him). With Guru's Teachings, death does not swallow him, for he merges with Waheguru; submits Nanak humbly. 49.

Naam Tutt(u) subh hee sir(i) jaapaiy. Bin(u) Naavaiy, dookh(u) kaal(u) suntaapaiy. Tutto, tutt(u) milaiy mun(u) maanaiy. Dooja jaayay, Ikutt(u) ghur(i) aanaaiy. Boalaiy puvna, guggun gurjaiy. Nanak nihchul milun(u) sehjay. 50.

Word Meaning: Tutt(u) = the true essence. Sir(i) = on top of; supreme. Jaapaiy = mantras. Suntaapaiy = tortures. Tutto = with Waheguru's Soul. Tutt(u) = human soul. Jaayay = goes away; disappears. Puvna = Shabad. Guggun = sky; the tenth door or mind (to connect with Waheguru). Gurjaiy = roars; appears in mind with a bang. Nihchul(u) = for sure. Sehjay = easily.

MEANING: The answer continues: Waheguru's Naam is over and above all other mantras in its essence; and the fear of (spiritual) death tortures the individuals without Waheguru's Naam. When one's mind is convinced with Waheguru's Naam, the illusions of Maya are erased from his mind, and it becomes stable with the result that his soul merges with the Supreme Soul. When the devotee recites the Guru's Shabad with every breath, Waheguru appears in his mind with a bang (loud and clear), and the devotee's union becomes certain with great ease, oh Nanak. 50.

Word Meaning: Soonnun = complete emptiness; a spiritual state which is completely free of any thoughts (Waheguru). Musoonnun = completely thought-free. Chautha Pud = the state above the effects of Maya. Poonn = noble deeds. Bhayo = secrets. Dayo = source of light.

MEANING: Guru Sahib's answer still continues: Waheguru is fully present inside, outside, and in the whole universe. Sins and noble deeds have no impact on the devotee who attains the fourth spiritual state above the effects of Maya. Such a devotee learns all the secrets of the Waheguru, which is the origin of everything, is above the effects of Maya, and is the source of enlightenment, and he becomes “one” with Him. The devotee, who is imbued in Waheguru’s Naam, becomes like (merges into) the Carver of our fates, oh Nanak. 51.

Word Meaning: Unhut = imperishable; everlasting. Kuhaa Tay Hoyee = how does one attain that state (connect with the Spureme Being). Oopjay = created.

MEANING: Q: Everybody talks about the Supreme Being, but how does one connect with the imperishable God? What are the individuals like who are imbued with His love?

A: They are just like the “One” who created them. They are not born again, and they do not come (into), and go away (from) this world. They convince (control) their mind with the advice of the Guru, oh Nanak. 52.

Word Meaning: Nuou Sur = the nine pools (the nine body doors by which the body enjoys various comforts). Soobhur = completely full (contented). Dusvaiyn = the tenth door through which one connects with Waheguru. Vujaaveh(i) Tooray = plays drums (shows clear presence). Raachay = become very close. Hujooraiy = close by. Goopti Bani = Guru’s hidden Shabad. Pergut(u) Hoyay = enlightens mind. Perkh(i) = test.

MEANING: The answer continues: When one gets fully contented about all his sensual desires (becomes disinterested in worldly attractions), the Guru’s hidden Shabad (Waheguru’s Naam, which is always present in the human mind) enlightens His mind, and the imperishable Waheguru tests him, and then appears in his mind very clearly. “Seeing” the Lord so close to him, the devotee gets closely involved with Him (merges into Him), oh Nanak. 53

Word Meaning: Sehj Bhaayay = without any special effort. Uprumpur(i) = in the limitless Waheguru. Dhaaraiy = supports; keeps connected. Mookt(u) = emancipated. Nistaaraiy = salvages. Deekhiya = Teaching. Milun = union. Bhuraantay = misguided.

MEANING: Answer continues: One achieves complete blissfulness when he gets connected with Waheguru with his love and dedication, and without any special effort on his part. Guru’s Sikh does not become unaware and stays alert against the attacks of Maya.

Guru's Shabad in praise of Waheguru keeps him connected with Him. Those who recite the Guru's Shabad are saved by it. Those who obey the Guru's Teachings get imbued with Waheguru's love. Those who rid themselves of selfishness and ego are not misled by their misgivings and merge into Waheguru, oh Nanak. 54.

Word Meaning: Kooboodh(i) = ignoble thinking. Chuvaavaiy = get rid of. Tutt(u) = the origin of all (Waheguru). Choataan Khaayay = gets punishment. Put(i) = dignity. Saakhaiy = trust. Boojhaiy = understand. Paavaiy Paar(i) = get salvation.

MEANING: Q: Where can one get rid of his ignoble thinking? Why does the man not understand the origin of the universe (Waheguru) (makes a connection with Him) and gets punishment from the Angel of justice, where no one can free him from confinement?

A: No one gets any respect and wins no trust of others without the Guru's Shabad. The worshipper of Maya (follower of his own mind) is foolish and does not understand this reality. So, how can he swim across the sea of Maya, oh Nanak? 55.

Word Meaning: Mitaiy = eradicated; ended. Bhaytaiy = on meeting; with His advice. Cheenaiy = recognizes. Jul Jaayay = burns in the fire of desires. Doormut(i) = ill advice. Vichhurr(i) = separated (from Waheguru). Maan(u) = respect.

MEANING: The answer continues: One gets rid of his ignoble thoughts by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. When he comes to Guru's shelter, he arrives at the door of emancipation (attains it). The worshipper, who does not make a connection with the Lord, burns in the fire of worldly desires and of jealousy. With his ignoble thinking, he stays disconnected from Waheguru and suffers punishment at the hands of the Angel of justice. One acquires all the noble qualities and the Divine Knowledge when he obeys Waheguru's Huqam, and is honoured in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 56.

Word Meaning: Saach(u) = Waheguru. Vukkhur(u) = merchandise. Pullaiy Hoyay = in possession. Smaayay = present. Sach Bhaayay = dedicated love.

MEANING: Answer continues: The devotee, who has the merchandise of Waheguru's Naam as the wealth in his possession, finds salvation for himself and for others. Imbued in Waheguru's Naam, he recognizes Him (makes connection with Him) and is honoured.

However, no one can tell the true worth of Waheguru, which is present wherever I look. One finds salvation with honest love for Waheguru, oh Nanak. 57.

Gurmukh(i) Shabday Sach(i) liv laagaiy, kur(i) nudri, mayl(i) milaayay. Aapay daana, Aapay beena, pooray bhaag(i) smaayay. 58.

Word Meaning: Shabad = Waheguru's Naam. Vaas(u) = dwelling. Kuthiualy = be said. Bhuvjul Sunsaaro = the world-sea; the sea of Maya. Traiy-Sut = three plus seven = ten. Ungool = (thickness of ten) fingers (side by side). According to Yogism, the yogis lift their breath from their left nostril through a coiled vein to their brain (or the Tenth Door) – a total distance of ten fingers - where they hold the breath for a long time with the belief to achieve their objective. Vaayee = air Adhaaro = basis. Khaylaiy = enjoys worry-free. Usthir(u) = stable. Alukh(u) = incomprehensible Waheguru. Lukhaayay = comprehend. Pernvaiy = submits humbly. Nudri = with kind sight. Daana = Beena = wise and know-all. Bhaag(i) = luck. 58.

MEANING: Q: Where does the Shabad reside by which one swims across the world-sea? What is the basis of the support of the breath (what purpose do you think we achieve) when we lift it from the left nostril, and which travels for a distance of ten fingers to reach the Tenth Door? How can the human soul, which talks and enjoys worry-free in the body, find stability (does not reincarnate), and how can it comprehend the incomprehensible Waheguru?

A: To understand all that, one must convince one's mind, oh Yogi. When one meditates deeply on Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad, the Lord connects the devotee with Him with His kind sight. Waheguru, which is perfectly wise and knows everything, connects the highly fortunate devotee with Him, submits Nanak humbly. 58.

Chihn(u), vern(u), nuhhi chhaaya Maya, Nanak, Shabad(u) puchhanaiy. 59.

Word Meaning: Niruntar(i) = continuous. Puvun(u) = air; Shabad. Akul Kula = the power which cannot be cut into pieces; omnipresent (Waheguru). Bherm(u) = misgivings. Nirmul(u) = pure. It, Oot = here and there; everywhere. Chihn(u) = physical features. Vern = skin colour. Chhaaya Maya = effects of Maya.

MEANING: Guru Sahib's answer continues: The Shabad (Waheguru's Naam by which one swims across) resides in the incomprehensible Waheguru, who is omnipresent, and whom I see everywhere. Just as air fills any vacuum, the Shabad is present in the omnipresent Waheguru, which supports the whole universe. When Waheguru casts a kind sight on a devotee, His Naam takes dwelling in his heart, and all his misgivings disappear. His body and his mind become pure, and he enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart with Guru's holy Shabad. One swims across the world-sea with Guru's Shabad, and recognizes Waheguru everywhere. He recognizes (gets connected with) Waheguru, which has no physical features, no body colour, and is not affected by Maya, oh Nanak. 59.

Word Meaning: Aoudhoo = detached from the world. Viroalaiy = churns; ponders on deeply. Traiy Goon = the three effects of Maya. Sookhmuna = the central vein where the yogis hold their breath. Irra = the left nostril, Yogis inhale through this. It is also called the moon vein. Pingula = the right nostril, the Yogis exhale through this. Boojhaiy = realizes (that Yogic exercises are irrelevant to spirituality). Tihou = the three veins.

MEANING: Waheguru, which is unaffected by Maya (like in most other situations), prompts you to undertake the yogic exercises in which the breath travels ten-finger distance as claimed by you, oh yogi. Guru's Sikh ponders on Waheguru through Guru's Shabad and recognizes (makes a connection with) the incomprehensible and limitless Waheguru. When one enshrines the Guru's Shabad in his mind, his ego is eradicated, and he rises above the three effects of Maya. When he recognizes Waheguru inside and outside, he comes to love His Naam. When Waheguru gives him the understanding, he realizes that the yogic breathing exercises are irrelevant to His Naam. Waheguru is above the three effects of Maya, and the devotee merges into Him with Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 60.

Word Meaning: Jeeou = life; basis. Puvun = breaths; Shabad. Kuthiulay = is said. Rus(u) Khaayee = takes food. Moodra = means. Kumaayee = achievement. Rus(u) = spiritual bliss. Aghaayee = contented. Usthir(u) = stable; contented. Triptaasaiy = satisfied. Graasaiy = grasps.

MEANING: Q: If, as you say, the Shabad is the soul (basis) of the mind, what is the food (basis) of the Shabad? What are the means to acquire the Divine Knowledge, and what do you think is the achievement of a yogi?
A: The mind does not enjoy spiritual blissfulness without the Shabad, and the thirst of haumein does not go away. Those who are imbued in the bliss of the Amrit-like Shabad stay contented with Waheguru's Shabad (Naam).
Q: What advice stabilizes the mind, and what spiritual food satisfies its appetite (so that it does not wander for worldly attractions)?
A: When a devotee recites Satguru's Shabad and accepts comforts and discomforts the same way, spiritual death does not grasp him. 61.

Word Meaning: Rung(i) = in love (of Waheguru). Maata = intoxicated. Jul(i) Bul(i) Taata = (mind) burns and suffers. Bind(u) = control on lust. Bhaakhiya = recited. Puvun(u) = Yogic exercises of breaths. Saadhiya = controlled. Akuth Kutha = praise of the indescribable Waheguru. Sum = the same; unaffected by circumstances. Aatum Ram = Waheguru. Luhhaiy = acquires.
MEANING: Guru Sahib's answer continues: (As far as the achievement of the Yogis is concerned), the individual (a Yogi), who does not get imbued in Waheguru's love, and who does not feel intoxicated with (excited about) the bliss of Guru's Shabad, burns and suffers in the fire of his desires. It is no use to control lust by self-torture if one does not recite the Guru's Shabad with dedication. Breathing exercises of the yogis do not lead to any spiritual achievement unless they worship Waheguru. One acquires Waheguru only if he keeps his mind balanced (unchanged by circumstances) by singing Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 62.

Word Meaning: Ugun(i) NIvaari = put out the fire of desires. Apiyo = which is unavailable to drink (Amrit). Aatum Sookh(u) = spiritual blissfulness. Araadhiya = remember; keep in mind.
MEANING: The answer continues: One gets imbued in Waheguru's love with the grace of the Guru. He drinks the Naam-Amrit and stays intoxicated with Waheguru's Naam. He puts out the fire of his desires by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. He acquires mental bliss with Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. He swims across the world-sea by worshipping Waheguru with Guru's Shabad. But some rare person realizes it by pondering on Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 63.

Word Meaning: Maiygul = (intoxicated) elephant. Puvna = Shabad. Chookaiy = ends. Bhuvna = wandering of mind. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Nij Ghur(i) = in own mind. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Dhaavut = wandering fast. Verj Ruhaayay = controls. Mool(u) = the origin (Waheguru). Aatum = soul. Sus(i) = in moon (peaceful mind). Soor(u) = Sooruj = sun = brightness of knowledge. Khovaiy = loses.

MEANING: Q: Where does this mind, which is like a drunk elephant, reside, and where does the wind-like (formless) Shabad reside by which the meaningless wandering of the mind comes to cease, oh worldly-detached, Nanak?

A: When Waheguru connects a devotee with the Guru with His kind sight, the mind comes to rest in itself. When a devotee gets rid of his selfishness and ego, his mind is purified, and his rushing mind comes under his control.

Q: How can one recognize the origin of life (Waheguru), and how can his peaceful mind be brightened (enlightened) with Divine Knowledge?

A: When a man overcomes his selfishness and ego in the shelter of the Guru (with His Advice), he gets absorbed in (attains) the high spiritual state, oh Nanak. 64.

Word Meaning: Nihchul = stable. Naabh(i) = navel (the diaphragm that sustains breathing lies behind the navel; diaphragm breathing is very useful for good health, and helps in meditation. The Yogis believe that one of the six circles in the body is behind the navel. All circles connect to the brain or mind). Aasun(i) = seat. Tutt(u) = Waheguru. Aachhaiy = is. Tirbhuvun Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light in the universe. Triptaas(i) = contented. Unhud = Divine. Birlo = rare. Bhaakhaiy = recites.

MEANING: The answer continues: When a devotee makes a connection with the origin (root) of the universe – Waheguru - with the Advice of the Guru, his mind becomes stable (peaceful) and resides in the heart (its own home). The Shabad resides peacefully in the mind, which is connected to the lotus-like circle behind the navel. The devotee, who searches his mind in the shelter of the Guru, acquires (internalizes) it (the Shabad) which, otherwise, resides in Waheguru whose Light enlightens the whole universe, and which is the real home of the Shabad. Such a devotee overcomes all his suffering and has appetite only for the eternal Waheguru, which is satisfied with the Shabad. The devotee understands (internalizes) the Divine Bani (Guru's Shabad) in His shelter, but some rare individual understands the real depth of the Shabad (internalizes it). The devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam (with Guru's Shabad), gets imbued in His love, and his love for Waheguru never fades, oh Nanak. 65.

Word Meaning: Ja = when. Hirda = heart. Kaintthaiy = where. Naab(i) Kumul = the lotus-like circle behind the navel. Usthumbh(u) = pillars. Sehta = endures; takes shelter. Liv Laayee = absorbed. Rukut(u) = blood; mother's egg. Bind(u) = the male sperm. Murri = house (body). Mit(i) = measurements. Keemut(i) = worth. Usroop = Roop = physical features. Jaapee = seem. Jaapus(i) = recite (His Naam). Baiyraagi = lovelorn. Ibb Tub = now and then. Saacho Saacha = only and only Waheguru.

MEANING: Q: When the human body and the heart were not there (not created yet), where did the mind (soul) reside? When there were no lotus-like circle-pillars to support the body, where did the Shabad take shelter? When there was no physical universe with its present form and physical features (when Waheguru was in its formless state), where was the Shabad absorbed? When there was no human body created out of the mother's egg and the father's sperm yet, who would have sung praise of Waheguru, whose measurements and worth (transcendence) cannot be known? How can Waheguru, whose colour, shape and physical features are not known, be worshipped?

A: Those who are detached from worldly attractions are imbued with His love. Then, and now, Waheguru, and only Waheguru, was present, oh Nanak. 66.

Word Meaning: Aoudhoo = ascetic. Soonn(i) = in Waheguru. Nij Ghur(i) = own home (in Waheguru). Puvun = air-like fickle mind. Unraagi = in deep love. Jaat(i) = existence. Akuleen(i) = clan-less. Saar(u) = supreme. Gaun = world. Guggun(u) = sky. Vidaani = amazing.

MEANING: The answer continues: When there was no human body and heart, the detached mind lived in Waheguru. When the body circles were not there as pillars for the body, then the fickle mind lived in its own home (in Waheguru) with deep love for Him. When the formless and the featureless Waheguru had no visible existence (as in nature), the Supreme Shabad also dwelt in the clan-less Waheguru. When there was no world, and no sky, it was the Light of the formless Waheguru everywhere. At that time, there was only one colour, one look, and one form of the amazing and formless Waheguru, and of the Shabad. The only thing that I know about the indescribable Waheguru is that no one can be pure without His Naam, oh Nanak. 67.

Naam(i) ruhhaiy baiyraagi, Saach(u) rukhiya oor(i) dhaaray. Nanak, bin(u) Naavaiy joag(u) kuday na hovaiy, daykhou ridaiy beechaaray. 68.

Word Meaning: Kit(u) Bidh(i) = under what conditions? Oopjaiy = comes into being. Purakha = oh, gentleman. Binus(u) = is destroyed. Baiyraagi = worldly detached and attached only to Waheguru. Joag(u) = union with Waheguru.

MEANING: Q: Under what conditions does the world come into being (the man is reborn); and how does the man get destroyed in suffering, oh gentleman (Nanak)?

A: The ego of the man causes his rebirths, and he suffers when he forgets Waheguru. The Sikh of the Guru ponders on the knowledge about Waheguru (Guru's Shabad) and gets rid of his selfishness and ego with Guru's Shabad, and he becomes pure by body and by mind; and he stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam with Guru's holy Bani. Such a beloved of Waheguru enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart, and stays absorbed in His Naam, and only in His Naam, all the time. Keep in mind that one can never connect with Waheguru without His Naam, oh Nanak.

NOTE: There are no more questions from the Yogis. Guru Sahib further explains the qualities of the Guru's Sikhs in the next four pauris (stanzas) and offers His reverence to Waheguru in the last pauri.

ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਾਚੁ ਸਬਦੁ ਬੀਚਾਰੈ ਕੋਇ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਚੁ ਬਾਣੀ ਪਰਗਟੁ ਹੋਇ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਮਨੁ ਭੀਜੈ ਵਿਰਲਾ ਬੂਝੈ ਕੋਇ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਨਿਜ ਘਰਿ ਵਾਸਾ ਹੋਇ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਜੋਗੀ ਜੁਗਤਿ ਪਛਾਣੈ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਨਾਨਕ ਏਕੋ ਜਾਣੈ॥ 69॥

Gurmukh(i) Saach(u) Shabad(u) beechaaraiy koyay. Gurmukh(i) Sach(u) Bani pergut(u) hoyay. Gurmukh(i) mun(u) bheejaiy, virla boojhaiy koyay. Gurmukh(i) nij ghur(i) vaasa hoyay. Gurmukh(i) yogi joogut(i) puchhaanaiy. Gurmukh(i) Nanak Aiko jaanaiy. 69.

Word Meaning: Koyay = some rare. Pergut(u) Hoyay = enlightens the mind. Bheejaiy = imbues. Virla = rare. Nij Ghur(i) = in its own home. Joogut(i) = technique; means.

MEANING: Some rare devotee ponders on Guru's Shabad (in praise of Waheguru) when He appears in his mind with Guru's Bani. Some rare devotee's mind gets imbued in Waheguru's love when he gets the spiritual understanding (internalizes Waheguru). The mind of the Sikh stays in its own home (quits wandering), and he is the true yogi who recognizes the means to merge with Waheguru. Guru's Sikh recognizes only the "One" Lord, oh Nanak. 69.

ਬਿਨੁ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਸੇਵੇ ਜੋਗੁ ਨ ਹੋਈ॥ ਬਿਨੁ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਭੇਟੇ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਨ ਕੋਈ॥ ਬਿਨੁ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਭੇਟੇ ਮਹਾ ਦੁਖੁ ਪਾਇ॥ ਬਿਨੁ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਭੇਟੇ ਮਹਾ ਗਰਬਿ ਗੁਬਾਰਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਬਿਨੁ ਗੁਰ ਮੁਆ ਜਨਮੁ ਹਾਰਿ॥ 70॥

Bin(u) Satgur sayvay joag(u) na hoyee. Bin(u) Satgur bhatay, mookut(i) na koyee. Bin(u) Satgur bhaytay, muhaa dookh(i) paayay. Bin(u) Satgur bhaytay, muhaa gerb(i) goobaar(i). Nanak, bin(u) Gur mooa junum(u) haar(i). 70.

Word Meaning: Gerb(i) = in ego. Muhaa Goobaar(i) = in pitch (complete) darkness. Haar(i) = loses; wastes away MEANING: One cannot achieve union with Waheguru without serving Satguru (without following His Advice), and one cannot attain emancipation without coming to Satguru's shelter. In fact, one suffers a great deal without the shelter of Satguru as he stays in complete spiritual darkness. One leaves this world losing the battle of life (wasting away the precious human life) without the Guru, oh Nanak. 70.

ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਮਨੁ ਜੀਤਾ ਹਉਮੈ ਮਾਰਿ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਾਚੁ ਰਖਿਆ ਉਰਧਾਰਿ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਜਗੁ ਜੀਤਾ ਜਮਕਾਲੁ ਮਾਰਿ ਬਿਦਾਰਿ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਦਰਗਹ ਨ ਆਵੈ ਹਾਰਿ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਮੇਲਿ ਮਿਲਾਏ ਸੁ ਜਾਣੈ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਬਦਿ ਪਛਾਣੈ॥71

Gurmukh(i) mun(u) jeeta haumein maar(i). Gurmukh(i), Saach(u) rukhiya oordhaar(i). Gurmukh(i) jug(u) jeeta Jumkaal(u) maar(i) bidaar(i). Gurmukh(i) Durgeh na aavaiy haar(i). Gurmukh(i) mayl(u) milaayay Su jaanaiy. Nanak, Gurmukh(i) Shabad(i) puchhaanaiy. 71.

Word Meaning: Oordhaar(i) = enshrined in heart. Jumkaal(u) = death. Bidaar(i) = by destroying. Su = that (Waheguru). Mayl(u) MIlaayay = which connects with Him through the Guru. Jaanaiy = realizes. Puchhaanaiy = recognizes; makes a connection.

MEANING: Guru's Sikh gets rid of his haumein, and controls his mind; he enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart, and wins over the worldly desires by completely destroying the fear of death. Guru's Sikh does not lose the spiritual battle to go to Waheguru's Court. Waheguru recognizes the Sikh of the Guru, and connects him with Him by first connecting the devotee with the Guru. The Sikh of the Guru recognizes Waheguru (makes a connection with Him) with the Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 71.

ਸਬਦੈ ਕਾ ਨਿਬੇੜਾ ਸੁਣ ਤੂ ਅਉਧੂ ਬਿਨੁ ਨਾਵੈ ਜੋਗੁ ਨ ਹੋਈ॥ ਨਾਮੇ ਰਾਤੇ ਅਨਦਿਨੁ ਮਾਤੇ ਨਾਮੈ ਤੇ ਸੁਖੁ ਹੋਈ॥ ਨਾਮੈ ਹੀ ਤੇ ਸਭੁ ਪਰਗਟੁ ਹੋਵੈ ਨਾਮੈ ਸੋਝੀ ਪਾਈ॥ ਬਿਨੁ ਨਾਵੈ ਭੇਖ ਕਰਹਿ ਬਹੁਤੇਰੇ ਸਚੈ ਆਪਿ ਖੁਆਈ॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਤੇ ਨਾਮੁ ਪਾਈਐ ਅਉਧੂ ਜੋਗ ਜੁਗਤਿ ਤਾ ਹੋਈ॥ ਕਰਿ ਬੀਚਾਰੁ ਮਨਿ ਦੇਖਹੁ ਨਾਨਕ ਬਿਨੁ ਨਾਵੈ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਨ ਹੋਈ॥ 72॥

Shabadaiy ka nibayrra soon tu aoudhoo, bin(u) Naavaiy joag(u) na hoyee. Naamay raatay, undin(u) maatay, Naamaiy tay sookh(u) hoyee. Naamaiy hee tay subh(u) pergut(u) hovaiy, Naamaiy sojhi paayee. Bin(u) Naavaiy bhaykh kureh(i) buhoutayray, Sachaiy Aap(i) khooaayee. Satgur tay Naam(u) paayiyaiy aoudhoo, joag joogut(i) ta hoyee. Kur(i) beechaar(u) mun(i) daykhou Naank, bin(u) Naavaiy mookt(i) na hoyee. 72

Word Meaning: Nibayrra = final decision; gist. Undin(u) = always. Maatay = intoxicated; in high spirits. Pergut(u) = appears; comes into being; becomes clear. Sojhi = understanding. Bhaykh = religious outfits. Khooaayee = misguided.

MEANING: The end result of the "Shabad" (Waheguru's Naam) is that no one can have union with Waheguru without His Naam, oh yogi. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam are always intoxicated (are in high spirits), and enjoy blissfulness. It is with Waheguru's Naam that one gets a high understanding, and everything becomes clear about spirituality. There are many who don many religious garbs (without any gain in spirituality); such people are misguided by Waheguru Himself. Waheguru's Naam is acquired from Satguru, which is the means (path) to union with Waheguru, oh yogi. Keep in mind that one cannot attain emancipation without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 72.

ਤੇਰੀ ਗਤਿ ਮਿਤਿ ਤੂ ਹੈ ਜਾਣਹਿ ਕਿਆ ਕੋ ਆਖਿ ਵਖਾਣੈ॥ ਤੂ ਆਪੇ ਗੁਪਤਾ ਆਪੇ ਪਰਗਟੁ ਆਪੇ ਸਭਿ ਰੰਗ ਮਾਣੈ॥ ਸਾਧਿਕ ਸਿਧ ਗੁਰੂ ਬਹੁ ਚੇਲੇ ਖੋਜਤ ਫਿਰਹਿ ਫੁਰਮਾਣੈ॥ ਮਾਗਹਿ ਨਾਮੁ ਪਾਇ ਇਹ ਭਿਖਿਆ ਤੇਰੇ ਦਰਸਨ ਕਉ ਕੁਰਬਾਣੈ॥ ਅਬਿਨਾਸੀ ਪ੍ਰਭਿ ਖੇਲੁ ਰਚਾਇਆ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸੋਝੀ ਹੋਈ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਭਿ ਜੁਗ ਆਪੇ ਵਰਤੈ ਦੂਜਾ ਅਵਰੁ ਨ ਕੋਈ॥ 73॥1॥

Tayri gut(i) mit(i) Tu haiy jaaneh(i), kiyya ko aakh(i) vukhaanaiy. Tu Aapay goopta, Aapay pergut(u), Aapay subh(i) rung maanaiy. Saadhik, Sidh, guru buhou chaylay, khojut phireh(i) Foormaanaiy. Maangeh(i) Naam(u) paayay eh bhikhiya, Tayray dershun kuou koorbaanaiy. Abinaashi Prubh(i) khayl(u) ruchaaya, Gurmukh(i) sojhi hoyee. Nanak, subh(i) joog Aapay vertaiy, dooja uver(u) na koyee. 73.1.

Word Meaning: Gut(i) = high transcendence. Mit(i) = measurements. Vukhaanaiy = say; describe. Goopta = hidden. Pergut(u) = visible. Rung(i) = different appearances. Maanaiy = enjoy. Saadhik = on their way to become Sidhs. Chaylay =disciples. Foormaanaiy = as per Your Huqam (Wish). Abinaashi = immortal. Khayl(u) Ruchaaya = has created drama. Vertaiy = operates.

MEANING: Only You know Your high transcendence and Your measurements, oh Waheguru. Who else can say anything about You!! You, Yourself, are hidden and Yourself visible, and You enjoy all Your forms. There are many Sidh (accomplished) yogis, many gurus, and many of their disciples who are searching for You with Your Will. They beg for Your Naam, and are willing to sacrifice them for Your holy sight; kindly give them these alms (fulfil their wishes), oh Lord. One gets this realization in Guru's shelter that the whole world is a drama (where the actors come and go) created by the immortal Waheguru. Waheguru is the only one who governs the universe in all eons, and there is no other power like Him, oh Nanak. 73.1.
