(ਅੰਗ 947)॥ ਸਲੋਕ ਮਹਲਾ 3॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਸਹਜੈ ਦਾ ਖੇਤੁ ਹੈ ਜਿਸ ਨੋ ਲਾਏ ਭਾਉ॥ ਨਾਉ ਬੀਜੈ ਨਾਉ ਉਗਵੈ ਨਾਮੇ ਰਹੇ ਸਮਾਇ॥ ਹਉਮੈ ਏਹੋ ਬੀਜੁ ਹੈ ਸਹਸਾ ਗਇਆ ਵਿਲਾਇ॥ ਨਾ ਕਿਛੁ ਬੀਜੈ ਨ ਉਗਵੈ ਜੋ ਬਖਸੇ ਸੋ ਖਾਇ॥ ਅੰਭੈ ਸੇਤੀ ਅੰਭੁ ਰਲਿਆ ਬਹੁੜਿ ਨ ਨਿਕਸਿਆ ਜਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਚਲਤੁ ਹੈ ਵੇਖਹੁ ਲੋਕਾ ਆਇ॥ ਲੋਕੁ ਕਿ ਵੇਖੈ ਬਪੁੜਾ ਜਿਸ ਨੋ ਸੋਝੀ ਨਾਹਿ॥ ਜਿਸੁ ਵੇਖਾਲੇ ਸੋ ਵੇਖੈ ਜਿਸੁ ਵਸਿਆ ਮਨ ਮਾਹਿ॥ 1॥

(PAGE 947): Sloak Mehla 3: Satgur sehjay da khayt(u) haiy jis nu laayay bhaaou. Naaoun beejaiy, Naaoun oogvaiy, Naamay ruhhay smaayay. Haumein eho beej(u) haiy, sehsa guyya vilaayay. Na kichh(u) beejaiy, na oogvaiy, jo Bukhshay so khaayay. Umbhaiy sayti umbh(u) ruliya, buhourr(i) na niksiya jaayay. Nanak, gurmukh(i) chulut haiy, vaykhou loaka aayay. Loak(u) k(i) vaykhaiy buppurra, jis nu sojhi naah(i). Jis(u) vaykhaalay soyee vaykhaiy, jis(u) vussiya mun maah(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Khayt(u) = field. Sehjaiy = of high spirituality and peace. Bhaaou = love; affection. Oogvaiy = grows. Sehsa = worries. Vilaayay = is eradicated. Umbh = water. Buhourr(i) = again; then. Chulut(u) = amazing feat. Buppurra = poor (of wisdom); ignorant. Sojhi = wisdom. 1.

MEANING: A farmer harvests the kind of crop that he sows in a field; similarly, love and faith for Satguru produce high spirituality and blissfulness in the mind-field of the devotee if Waheguru connects him with Satguru. Following the advice of the Guru, His Sikh sows the seed of Waheguru's Naam in his heart, which grows (flourishes) in there, and he stays absorbed in the Naam. His doubts and worries, for which his haumein is the root cause, are eradicated. The Sikh does not plant anything else in his heart, as a result of which nothing else (other than the Naam) grows in his heart; he gladly and readily accepts to consume whatever Waheguru bestows on him. Just as water in one container, when mixed with the water in another container, cannot be separated again, he merges into Waheguru and cannot be told apart. This is an amazing feat of Waheguru that people see when they come to Satguru's shelter. But what can the ignorant people see who have no spiritual knowledge? Only that individual sees this fact who Waheguru shows, and who has His Naam enshrined in his heart. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਮਨਮੁਖ ਦੁਖ ਕਾ ਖੇਤੁ ਹੈ ਦੁਖੁ ਬੀਜੇ ਦੁਖੁ ਖਾਇ॥ ਦੁਖ ਵਿਚਿ ਜੰਮੈ ਦੁਖਿ ਮਰੈ ਹਉਮੈ ਕਰਤ ਵਿਹਾਇ॥ ਆਵਣੁ ਜਾਣੁ ਨ ਸੁਝਈ ਅੰਧਾ ਅੰਧੁ ਕਮਾਇ॥ ਜੋ ਦੇਵੈ ਤਿਸੈ ਨ ਜਾਣਈ ਦਿਤੇ ਕਉ ਲਪਟਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਪੂਰਬਿ ਲਿਖਿਆ ਕਮਾਵਣਾ ਅਵਰੁ ਨ ਕਰਣਾ ਜਾਇ॥ 2॥

M:3: Munmukh(u) dookh ka khayt(u) haiy, dookh(u) beejay, dookh(u) khaayay. Dookh vich(i) jummaiy, dookh(i) muraiy, haimein kert vihaahay. Aavun(u) jaan(u) na soojhyee, undha, undh(u) kmaayay. Jo dayvaiy Tisaiy na jaanyee, dittay kuou luptaayay. Nanak, poorub(i) likhiya kumaavna, uver(u) na kerna jaayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Munmukh(u) = follower of mind; worshipper of Maya. Khaayay = harvests. Vihaayay = (life) is spent. Jaanyee = acknowledges. Luptaayay = clings to; gets attached. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten (by Waheguru). Kumaavna = earns. 2.
MEANING: On the other hand, the heart of the individual who follows his mind is a field of discomfort because he sows the seeds of suffering (haumein) in there, and harvests suffering (selfishness and ego thrives in his mind). He is born because of his haumein, spends his life in haumein, and dies in haumein. The blind of wisdom do foolish things, and do not think about their rebirths as a result. He does not acknowledge the Provider (be thankful to Waheguru), but gets attached to His largesse. But he cannot be blamed entirely, because he is simply doing the kind of deeds he is preprogrammed for (by Waheguru) and cannot do anything else. 2.

ਮ:3॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰਿ ਮਿਲਿਐ ਸਦਾ ਸੁਖੁ ਜਿਸ ਨੋ ਆਪੇ ਮੇਲੇ ਸੋਇ॥ ਸੁਖੈ ਏਹੁ ਬਿਬੇਕੁ ਹੈ ਅੰਤਰੁ ਨਿਰਮਲੁ ਹੋਇ॥ ਅਗਿਆਨ ਕਾ ਭ੍ਰਮੁ ਕਟੀਐ ਗਿਆਨੁ ਪਰਾਪਤਿ ਹੋਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਏਕੋ ਨਦਰੀ ਆਇਆ ਜਹ ਦੇਖਾ ਤਹ ਸੋਇ॥ 3॥
M:3: Satgur(i) miliyain sudaa sookh(u), jis nu Aapay maylay Soyay. Sookhaiy eh(u) bibayk(u) haiy, untar(u) nirmul(u) hoyay. Ugiyan ka bherm(u) kuttiyaiy, Giyan(u) praaput(i) hoyay. Nanak Aiko nudree aaya, jeh daykhaan, teh Soyay. 3.
Word Meaning: Soyay = that (Waheguru). Bibayk(u) = (Divine) Knowledge. Bherm(u) = illusion; misgiving. Praaput(i) = is acquired; mind is enlightened. Nudree Aaya = becomes visible. 3.
MEANING: One always enjoys bliss when he gets connected with Satguru (follows His Advice); but it is Waheguru who connects people with Satguru. The root of blissfulness is the Divine Knowledge, which purifies the mind, dispels the darkness of ignorance, and enlightens the mind. Now, I see only Waheguru wherever I look, oh Nanak. 3.

Wah(u), wah(u) Sachay Paatshaah Tu, Sachi Naayee. Ruhaou.
Word Meaning: Sachaiy = the eternal Waheguru. Tukhut(u) = throne. Jaayee = place. Koodrut(i) = nature. Saajiun(u) = has created. Mehl Sraayeen = palaces and mansions. Chaanunay = lights. Poori Bunut = perfect creation. 1.
Wah(u), Wah(u) = amazing, amazing. Naayee = justice. Pause.
MEANING: Waheguru has created the world as His throne upon which to sit. The Guru's Shabad reveals that it is Waheguru who does everything by Himself. He has created nature as palaces and mansions for Him to reside. His creation is perfect, in which the sun and the moon are the two lights (lamps). He can be worshipped with the Guru's Shabad, which He watches and listens to. 1.
You are amazing, and Your justice is eternal (always the same), oh the immortal Waheguru. Pause.

ਸਲੋਕ॥ ਕਬੀਰ ਮਹਿਦੀ ਕਰਿ ਕੈ ਘਾਲਿਆ ਆਪੁ ਪੀਸਾਇ ਪੀਸਾਇ॥ ਤੈ ਸਹ ਬਾਤ ਨ ਪੁਛੀਆ ਕਬਹੂ ਨਾ ਲਾਈ ਪਾਇ॥ 1॥

Sloak: Kabir, mehndi kur(i) kaiy ghaaliya, aap(u) peesaayay, peesaayay. Taiyn Sheh baat na poochhyee, kubhoon na laayee paayay.

Word Meaning: Mehndi = henna (women paint their hands and feet with henna to beautify them). Ghaaliya = moulded. Peesaayay = grinded. Sheh = the lord. Baat Na poochhiya = did not pay any attention. Paayay = on the feet.

MEANING: I suffered many hardships (like henna, which is grazed and mixed with water before it is applied to hands and feet) and moulded myself to overcome my selfishness and ego and to become very humble to please Waheguru; but the Lord did not pay any attention to me, and never allowed me to touch His feet, oh Kabir. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਮਹਿਦੀ ਕਰਿ ਕੈ ਰਖਿਆ ਸੋ ਸਹੁ ਨਦਰਿ ਕਰੇਇ॥ ਆਪੇ ਪੀਸੈ ਆਪੇ ਘਸੈ ਆਪੇ ਹੀ ਲਾਇ ਲਏਇ॥ ਇਹੁ ਪਿਰਮ ਪਿਆਲਾ ਖਸਮ ਕਾ ਜੈ ਭਾਵੈ ਤੈ ਦੇਇ॥ 2॥

M:3: Nanak, mehndi kur(i) kaiy rukhiya, So Shuhou nudr(i) kuray. Aapay peesaiy, Aapay ghusaiy, Aapay hee laayay luyay. Eh(u) pirm piyaala Khusm ka, jaiy bhaavaiy taiyn dayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Nudr(i) Kuray = cast kind sight. Ghusaiy = grazes; grinds. Pirm Piyaala = love-filled cup. Jaiy = whom. Bhaavaiy = likes. Taiyn = him.

MEANING: A true devotee has to work vey hard and suffer like henna for Waheguru to cast a kind sight on him, (but this hard work does not earn him the right to merge into Waheguru). It is a cup of love that He gives to the devotee of His choice. If Waheguru likes someone, He Himself, grazes and grinds the henna-like devotee (He makes the devotee work hard to control his sensual pleasures and get rid of his haumein) and embraces him, oh Nanak. 2.

NOTE: There is a very important message in the second Sloak by Guru Amar Dass Ji. He clarifies that controlling one's senses and killing one's haumein are essential to please Waheguru and earn His approval, yet they do not confer the right to be "one" with Him. It is still the benevolence of Waheguru that is needed for the union.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਵੇਕੀ ਸ੍ਰਿਸਟਿ ਉਪਾਈਅਨੁ ਸਭ ਹੁਕਮਿ ਆਵੈ ਜਾਇ ਸਮਾਹੀ॥ ਆਪੇ ਵੇਖਿ ਵਿਗਸਦਾ ਦੂਜਾ ਕੋ ਨਾਹੀ॥ ਜਿਉ ਭਾਵੈ ਤਿਉ ਰਖੁ ਤੂ ਗੁਰ ਸਬਦਿ ਬੁਝਾਹੀ॥ ਸਭਨਾ ਤੇਰਾ ਜੋਰੁ ਹੈ ਜਿਉ ਭਾਵੈ ਤਿਵੈ ਚਲਾਹੀ॥ ਤੁਧੁ ਜੇਵਡ ਮੈ ਨਾਹਿ ਕੋ ਕਿਸੁ ਆਖਿ ਸੁਣਾਈ॥ 2॥

Paurri: Vaykee srisht(i) oopaayiun(u), subh Huqam(i) aavaiy jaayay smaahi. Aapay vaykh(i) vigusda, dooja ko naahi. Jiyoun bhaavaiy, tiyoun rukh tu, Gur Shabad(i) boojhaahi. Subhna Tayra joar(u) haiy, jiyoun bhaavaiy, tivaiy chulaahi. Toodh jayvud mein naah(i) ko, kis(u) aakh(i) soonaayee. 2.

Word Meaning: Vaykee = of many different kinds. Smaahi = gets absorbed. Vigusda = blooms at heart. Boojhaahi = gives understanding. Joar(u) = power; control. Chulaahi = guide them in life. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru has created the universe with many different kinds of life forms; all of them are born and die, and some are absorbed into Him through His Huqam (Laws of nature). He is very pleased to see His creation; there is none other like Him. He keeps everybody in situations He likes and reveals Himself through the Guru's Shabad. You exercise Your control on all of them, and they lead their lives as per Your Will, oh Waheguru. I do not know of anybody else whom I can describe as Great as you are. 2.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:3॥ ਭਰਮਿ ਭੁਲਾਈ ਸਭੁ ਜਗੁ ਫਿਰੀ ਫਾਵੀ ਹੋਈ ਭਾਲਿ॥

(ਅੰਗ 948)॥ ਸੋ ਸਹੁ ਸਾਤਿ ਨ ਦੇਵਈ ਕਿਆ ਚਲੈ ਤਿਸੁ ਨਾਲਿ॥ ਗੁਰ ਪਰਸਾਦੀ ਹਰਿ ਧਿਆਈਐ ਅੰਤਰਿ ਰਖੀਐ ਉਰਧਾਰਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਘਰਿ ਬੈਠਿਆ ਸਹੁ ਪਾਇਆ ਜਾ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਕੀਤੀ ਕਰਤਾਰਿ॥ 1॥

Sloak M:3: Bherm bhoolaayee subh(u) jug(u) phiree, faavi hoyee bhaal(i).

(PAGE 948): So Shuhou shaant(i) na dayvyee, kiyya chullaiy Tis(u) naal(i). Gur persadi Hur(i) dhiyaayaiy, untar(i) rukhiyaiy oordhaar(i). Nanak, ghur(i) baiytthiyaan Shuhou paaya, ja kirpa keeti Kartar(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Bherm Bhoolaayee = misled by misgivings. Faavi = insane. Bhaal(i) = while searching. Shaant(i) = comfort; encouragement. Kiyya Chullaiy = what can be done? Oordhaar(i) = embed in heart. Kartar(i) = Waheguru. Ghur Baiytthiyaan = while living in the family; without any special effort. 1.

MEANING: The whole world is misled by its misgivings about Waheguru, and has gone insane in His search. What can we do with the Lord if he does not give us any encouragement or provide any comfort? We can only worship Him with the grace of the Guru and enshrine Him (His Naam) in the heart. When He shows His benevolence to some lucky devotee, he acquires Him in his heart without any special effort, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਧੰਧਾ ਧਾਵਤ ਦਿਨੁ ਗਇਆ ਰੈਣਿ ਗਵਾਈ ਸੋਇ॥ ਕੂੜੁ ਬੋਲਿ ਬਿਖੁ ਖਾਇਆ ਮਨਮੁਖਿ ਚਲਿਆ ਰੋਇ॥ ਸਿਰੈ ਉਪਰਿ ਜਮ ਡੰਡੁ ਹੈ ਦੂਜੈ ਭਾਇ ਪਤਿ ਖੋਇ॥ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮੁ ਕਦੇ ਨ ਚੇਤਿਓ ਫਿਰਿ ਆਵਣ ਜਾਣਾ ਹੋਇ॥ ਗੁਰ ਪਰਸਾਦੀ ਹਰਿ ਮਨਿ ਵਸੈ ਜਮ ਡੰਡੁ ਨ ਲਾਗੈ ਕੋਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਹਜੇ ਮਿਲਿ ਰਹੈ ਕਰਮਿ ਪਰਾਪਤਿ ਹੋਇ॥ 2॥

M:3: Dhundha dhaavut din(u) guyya, raiyn(i) guvaayi soyay. Koorr(u) boal(i) bikh(u) khaaya, mumnukh(i) chulliya royay. Siraiy oopur Jum dund(u) haiy, doojaiy bhaayay put(i) khoyay. Hur(i) Naam(u) kuday na chaytiyo, phir(i) aavun, jaana hoyay. Gur persadi Hur(i) mun(i) vussaiy, Jum dund(u) na laagaiy koyay. Nanak sehjay mil(i) ruhhaiy, kerm(i) praaput(i) hoyay. 2.

Word Meaning: Dhundha = worldly affairs. Dhaavut = rushing to. Koorr(u) = lies. Bikh(u) = poison. Siraiy Oopur(i) = looming over head. Dund(u) = baton; punishment. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for Maya. Put(i) = dignity. Chaytiyo = remembered. Sehjay = in the blissful state. Kerm(i) = benevolence; good fortune. Praaput(i) = acquirement. 2.

MEANING: Man's day is spent in worldly affairs, and his night is spent in sleeping (this is how his whole life is spent). The follower of his mind tells lies all the time (deceives others), which is a poison to his spirituality, and he leaves the world crying (in repentance). The punishment by the Angel of justice looms over his head, and he loses dignity because of his love for Maya. He never recites Waheguru's Naam, for which he stays in the birth-death cycle. The devotee, who enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart, gets no punishment from the Angel of justice. With Waheguru's benevolence, He acquires His Naam and becomes connected with Him in a high spiritual state, oh Nanak. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਇਕਿ ਆਪਣੀ ਸਿਫਤੀ ਲਾਇਅਨੁ ਦੇ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਮਤੀ॥ ਇਕਨਾ ਨੋ ਨਾਉ ਬਖਸਿਓਨੁ ਅਸਥਿਰੁ ਹਰਿ ਸਤੀ॥ ਪਉਣੁ ਪਾਣੀ ਬੈਸੰਤਰੋ ਹੁਕਮਿ ਕਰਹਿ ਭਗਤੀ॥ ਏਨਾ ਨੋ ਭਉ ਅਗਲਾ ਪੂਰੀ ਬਣਤ ਬਣਤੀ॥ ਸਭੁ ਇਕੋ ਹੁਕਮੁ ਵਰਤਦਾ ਮੰਨਿਐ ਸੁਖੁ ਪਾਈ॥ 3॥

Paurri: Ikk(i) aapni siftee laayiun(u) day Satgur mutee. Iknaa nu Naaoun bukhshiyon(u) usthir(u) Hur(i) Sutee. Paun(u), paani, baiysuntro, Huqam(i) kureh(i) bhugtee. Ehna nu bhuou ugla, poori bunut buntee. Subh(u) Ikko Huqam(u) vertda, munniyaiyn sookh(u) paayee. 3.

Word Meaning: Ikk(i) = some. Siftee = praise. Mutee = wisdom; advice. Bukhshiyon = gives kindly. Usthir(u) = stable; immortal. Sati = eternal. Baiysuntro = fire. Bhuou = respectful fear. Ugla = vey much. Bunut = creation. Vertda = operates.

Paurri: Waheguru connects some people with the Guru, by whose advice they begin singing His (Waheguru's) praise. The eternal Waheguru implants His immortal Naam in the hearts of some people. Even the natural forces like air, water, and fire worship Him by obeying His Huqam (Laws). Waheguru has created the universe so perfectly that the natural forces fear Him greatly (they obey His Command perfectly). It is Waheguru's Huqam that is working everywhere. Whoever obeys His Huqam lives in comfort (does not suffer). 3.

ਸਲੋਕੁ॥ ਕਬੀਰ ਕਸਉਟੀ ਰਾਮ ਕੀ ਝੂਠਾ ਟਿਕੈ ਨ ਕੋਇ॥ ਰਾਮ ਕਸਉਟੀ ਸੋ ਸਹੈ ਜੋ ਮਰਜੀਵਾ ਹੋਇ॥ 1॥

Sloak(u): Kabir kasauti Ram kee, jhoottha tikaiy na koyay. Ram kasauti so suhhaiy jo murjeeva hoyay. 1.

Word Meaning: Kasauti = touchstone; norm. Jhoottha = liar; impure; fake. Tikaiy = stays. Suhhaiy = endures; passes the test. Murjeeva = who has killed his desires while living in the family.

MEANING: The testing norms (for union with Waheguru) are so tough that no impure person can stay before them (pass those). Only that pure person passes those tests who has killed his worldly desires while living in the family, oh Kabir. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਕਿਉਕਰਿ ਇਹੁ ਮਨੁ ਮਾਰੀਐ ਕਿਉਕਰਿ ਮਿਰਤਕੁ ਹੋਇ॥ ਕਹਿਆ ਸਬਦੁ ਨ ਮਾਨਈ ਹਉਮੈ ਛਡੈ ਨ ਕੋਇ॥ ਗੁਰ ਪਰਸਾਦੀ ਹਉਮੈ ਛੁਟੈ ਜੀਵਨੁ ਮੁਕਤੁ ਸੋ ਹੋਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਜਿਸ ਨੋ ਬਖਸੇ ਤਿਸੁ ਮਿਲੈ ਤਿਸੁ ਬਿਘਨੁ ਨ ਲਾਗੈ ਕੋਇ॥2

Word Meaning: Kiyoun Kur(i) = how? Mirtuk(u) = dead towards worldly attractions. Cchuddaiy = gives up. Mookut(u) = emancipation. Bukhshay = gives kindly. Bighun(u) = impediments; obstacles. 2.

MEANING: Almost nobody obeys Guru's Shabad, and does not quit his haumein. So, how can one kill his mind (desires) so that it is dead towards worldly attractions? One can get rid of his haumein (selfishness and ego) with Guru's grace, thereby attaining emancipation while still alive. But only those people attain emancipation whom Waheguru gives with His benevolence; such devotees do not face any obstacles in life to have union with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

ਮ:3॥ ਜੀਵਤ ਮਰਣਾ ਸਭੁ ਕੋ ਕਹੈ ਜੀਵਨ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਕਿਉ ਹੋਇ॥ ਭੈ ਕਾ ਸੰਜਮੁ ਜੇ ਕਰੇ ਦਾਰੂ ਭਾਉ ਲਾਏਇ॥ ਅਨਦਿਨੁ ਗੁਣ ਗਾਵੈ ਸੁਖ ਸਹਜੇ ਬਿਖੁ ਭਵਜਲੁ ਨਾਮਿ ਤਰੇਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਪਾਈਐ ਜਾ ਕਉ ਨਦਰਿ ਕਰੇਇ॥ 3॥

M:3: Jeevut merna subh(u) ko kuhhaiy, jeevun mookut(i) kiyoun hoyay. Bhaiy ka sunjum(u) jay kuray, daaroo bhaaou laayay. Undin(u) goon gaavaiy, sookh sehjay bikh(u) bhuvjul(u) Naam(i) turay. Nanak, Gurmukh(i) paayiyaiy, ja kuou nudr(i) kuray. 3.

Word Meaning: Sunjum(u) = keep control on (senses). Daaroo = medication. Bhaaou = affection. Undin(u) = everyday; always. Bikh(u) Bhuvjul = sea of poisonous Maya. 3.

MEANING: Everybody talks about killing worldly desires while living in the family, but how can one achieve emancipation from worldly bonds? To achieve that, one has to be fearful of Waheguru and have love for Him, which serves as the best medicine and the best protection for human senses against the captivating Maya. When one sings Waheguru's praise all the time, he attains the blissful state of mind, and swims across the sea of the poisonous Maya with Waheguru's Naam. But only that devotee acquires Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru whom Waheguru is kind to, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Ruchaayayon = created. Trai-Goon = the three effects of Maya (see "Introduction"). Kmaavun(i) Kaara = perform deeds. Jotkee = astrology. Khayl(u) = drama. Sirjunhaara = the Creator. Bukhsh(i) = forgive. Smaayee = get merged.

MEANING: Waheguru has created love for Maya in the minds of the living beings, such that the three effects of Maya influence everybody. He created gods like Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva, who perform deeds (lead life) under His Command. The pundits study astrology to predict others' fates but do not understand the real objective of life. It is all Your drama, oh, the eternal Creator. You forgive those whom You like, and they merge into You with the eternal Shabad of the Guru (Your Naam), oh Lord. 4.

Word Meaning: Kmaavaiy = deals in. Tupaa = an ascetic (a seeker of the Lord) who tortures himself to please his deity. Bhermay Bhoola = misguided by his misbeliefs. Guhhaiy = travels through thoroughly. Perm Gut(i) = highest spiritual state. Moakhuntar(u) = salvation. 1.

MEANING: An ascetic who runs after Maya but calls himself a seeker of the Lord is actually a deceitful person at heart, and practices deceitful acts in life. Misguided by his misbeliefs, he travels all over the holy places very thoroughly (to give the false impression of being a holy person). How can such a (deceitful) ascetic attain the highest spiritual state? But an ascetic who practices Truth (recites Waheguru's Naam) with Guru's grace, achieves emancipation, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਸੋ ਤਪਾ ਜਿ ਇਹੁ ਤਪੁ ਘਾਲੇ॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਨੋ ਮਿਲੈ ਸਬਦੁ ਸਮਾਲੇ॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਕੀ ਸੇਵਾ ਇਹੁ ਤਪੁ ਪਰਵਾਣੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸੋ ਤਪਾ ਦਰਗਹਿ ਪਾਵੈ ਮਾਣੁ॥ 2॥

Word Meaning: Tup Ghaalay = endures such hardships. Pervaan = approved.

MEANING: Only that individual deserves to be called a real ascetic who endures the hardship (does the hard work) of coming to the shelter of the Guru, and obeying His Shabad. Waheguru approves the hardship of serving the Guru (obeying the Guru's Huqam is a very tough job); such an ascetic is honoured in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Vertun(i) = to run the business. Ghut(i) = in heart. Chanuna = enlightenment. Anhayr(u) = darkness. Binaasun(i) = destruction. Ruvviya = is present. Vun(i) = in forests. Trin(i) = in vegetation. Bhun(i) = recite; sing. Sojhi = understanding.
MEANING: Waheguru created days and nights to run the business of the world. Guru's Advice enlightens the minds of the people, whereby the darkness of ignorance is dispelled. He has created everything with His Huqam (Laws), and is present in the forests and in all vegetation. He is all-in-all in the universe, and one needs to recite His Naam in the shelter of the Guru (with His Shabad). One gains understanding of everything related to spirituality through the Guru's Shabad, which Waheguru Himself gives. 5.

Word Meaning: Abhiyaagut = guest; ascetics who eat food by begging. Bherm(u) = misbeliefs. Dherm(u) = beliefs. Abhaiy = fearless. Nirunjun(u) = (Waheguru which is) above the effects of Maya. Perm Pud(u) = highest spiritual state. Tis Ka = of that. 1
MEANING: Those are not called ascetics who have doubts and misbeliefs (about Waheguru). Donations to such ascetics foster similar misbeliefs in donors' minds. The real ascetic is the one who has an appetite for the highest spiritual state that connects him with the fearless Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya. But some rare individual receives that mental food (attains a high spiritual state), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Oodraiy Kaarun(i) = for the sake of belly (stomach). Behlay = many. Bhaykh Kurayn(i) = don different garbs. Gaun(u) = travel. Bhaal(i) Lehn(i) = acquire by searching. Shuhou = husband; Lord. Nij Ghur(i) = in own house. Rehn(u) = stay.
MEANING: Those are not ascetics who travel (roam) the earth just to eat food at others' houses (beg for food). They wear many religious garbs just to fill their stomachs. The real ascetics are those who take their soul on a journey through the spiritual world in search of the Lord-husband, find Him in their own heart, and stay focused on Him (His Naam, oh Nanak).2.

Word Meaning: Umbur(u) = sky. Vichhorriun(u) = separated. Sacha = eternal. (Waheguru). Asraaou = support. Sach(u) = pure; holy. Tukhut(u) = Throne; Huqam. Niyaaoun = justice. Vertda = operates. Alukh(u) = incomprehensible. Lukhaayee = revealed. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru created the world, separating the sky and the earth, and providing His eternal support between the two. All houses and doors (places) are pure (holy) where eternal Waheguru's Naam is recited (His praise is sung). It is Waheguru's eternal Huqam that runs the universe. One gets absorbed in Waheguru by the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru is immortal, and so is His Throne at (Huqam by) which He delivers His true justice. It is Waheguru, and Waheguru alone, that runs the universe; the incomprehensible Waheguru is revealed by Guru's Shabad. 6.

Word Meaning: Raiynaayir = ocean (world). Aunut(u) = limitless (God). Kooree = who deal in the perishable. Bhaanaiy = will; mind. Luhhaiy = acquire. Kermi = with good luck. Pullaiy Paayay = acquire. Nau-nidh(i) = the nine treasures. Rujaayay = Will. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru is present everywhere in the world (so He knows everything about everybody); the individuals who deal in the perishable attractions of Maya keep taking births and dying. They follow their own mind as a result of which they are severely punished. There is everything in the world (including good qualities, Waheguru's Naam, Satguru's Teachings, etc.), but only people with good fortune acquire those. One acquires all nine mythical treasures (complete contentment and blissfulness) if he follows Waheguru's Will, oh Nanak.1.

Word Meaning: Sehjay = with peaceful mind. Junum(i) = after taking birth. Binaas(u) = ruin. Chkhiyo = taste. Kumul(u) = lotus of heart. Pergaas(u) = enlightenment. Bikh(u) = poisonous (Maya). Moh(i) = in love for. Vinaas(u) = destruction. Vin(u) = without. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Vaas(u) = living. Daasun(i) Daas = slave of slaves. Kubeh(i) Na = never. Paas(u) = nearness; company. Alipto = detached. Vertaiy = lives. Greh = household. Oodaas(u) = detached. Goontaas(u) = source of noble qualities. 2.

MEANING: After being born as humans, those who do not serve Satguru with a peaceful mind and contentment ruin their precious human life. They do not taste the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam with their tongue because of which their lotus-like heart does not bloom (their mind is not enlightened). The follower of his mind dies, enjoying the poisonous attractions of life, while his love for Maya destroys his spirituality. Without Waheguru's Naam, the life and the living style of the individual are condemnable.

However, when Waheguru casts His kind gaze on him, he becomes so humble and contented that he begins to serve Waheguru as a slave among His slaves. He serves Satguru all the time and never leaves His shelter. Like the lotus flower, which stays above the surface of water, such an individual stays detached from worldly attractions while living in the family. Waheguru, which is the source of all noble qualities, makes the individuals do whatever He wishes them to do, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Chhuteeh = thirty-six. Joog = eons. Gunut Keeni = kept account. Boojhaayay = gives understanding. Puteeni = minds won over; are convinced. 7.

MEANING: There was complete darkness for thirty-six eons in the universe, of which Waheguru Himself kept the account (was all by Himself) (it is an old Hindu idea; Guru Sahib does not certify it). He created the universe at His own Will, and Himself gave the knowledge (through the Guru). The Simritis and the Shastras, in which the consequences of sins and noble deeds are described, were written with the ability given by Him to their authors. Only those people understand these facts who are given the ability by Waheguru and who are convinced by the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru Himself operates everywhere (manages the universe), and connects some with Him by His benevolence. 7.

Word Meaning: Tun(u) = human body. Rutt(u) = blood. Sheh = husband; Lord. Ruttay = imbued. Lobh = greed. Bhaiy = fear. Kheen = weak. Baiysubtar(i) = in fire. Dhaat(u) = metal; gold. Shoodh(u) = pure. Doormut(i) = ignoble thinking. Rung(u) = love. 1.
NOTE: This Shabad clarifies a Sloak of Farid Sahib in which he had said- albeit not to mean- that there is no blood in the body of Waheguru's devotees.
MEANING: The whole human body is made of blood; there can be no body without blood. However, those who are imbued with Waheguru's love have no blood of greed in them. With Waheguru's fear in their mind, the body becomes weak (in terms of attraction for greed), and they lose the blood of greed (greed in their blood) from their bodies. The fear of Waheguru eradicates the filth of the ignoble wisdom (thinking), and purifies the mind, just like fire purifies a metal (gold). The individuals imbued with the love of Waheguru appear very dignified (exalted), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Ram(u) = Waheguru. Sheengaar(u) = adornment. Bigsiya = blooms. Saunpiya = offered. Bhundaar(u) = treasure. Bherm(u) = misgiving; illusion. Chooka = lifted; ended. Roop = beauty. Ut(i) Ugla = extreme; very much. Ruvvaiy = recites (Naam). Sobhavunti = praiseworthy. Jaasun(i) = will go. Nit = again, and again. Khooaar(u) = suffer humiliation. Doohoon Vich(i) = (to choose) between Waheguru and Maya. Chungaiy = on noble deeds (path). Mundaiy = on immoral deeds (path). Kartar(u) = God. 2.
MEANING: The Raag Ramkali is great if the body of the devotee is adorned with noble qualities when he recites and enshrines Guru's Shabad (in Waheguru's praise) written in this Raag. When the devotee's mind blooms (feels blissful) with Guru's Shabad, Waheguru bestows the treasures of worship on him (he never gets tired of worshipping Waheguru). All his misgivings are dispelled, he becomes enlightened, and the darkness of his ignorance disappears. The devotee who loves Waheguru becomes extremely beautiful spiritually. Such a devotee always recites Waheguru's Naam and becomes a praiseworthy bride of Waheguru as the husband.
On the contrary, the followers of their mind do not know the importance of spiritual adornment, and leave the world, losing the battle of life. Those who decorate their bodies with religious symbols without the worship of Waheguru are born again and again and suffer humiliation. They earn no praise in this world, and only Waheguru knows what awaits them in the next. Waheguru is the only Supreme Power in the world, yet the world is caught between the attractions of Maya and love for Him. Waheguru Himself makes people do noble or ignoble deeds, and they do just what Waheguru makes them do, oh Nanak. 2.

Nanak, Gurmukh(i) oobray Sachaiy Shabad(i) smaah(i). 3.

Word Meaning: Shaant(i) = mental peace; contentment. Jaayay = shelter. Lochiyaiy = long for. Kerma = good fortune. Vikaar(u) = vice. Doojaiy Bhaayay = in the love for the other (Maya). Khooaayay = suffers humiliation. Chookyee = ends. Khaali = empty; without. Tulub = call. Suhaayay = endure. Oobraiy = salvaged. 3.

MEANING: One cannot achieve blissfulness and contentment without serving Satguru, and there is no other shelter to escape to. Even if one longs for such blissfulness, one cannot acquire it without good fortune. Man harbours the vice of greed and suffers humiliation due to his attachment to Maya. The birth-death cycle for such people never ends, and they suffer because of their selfishness and ego. None of those who are attached to Satguru is without blissfulness and contentment. They are not called in by the Angel of death, nor do they suffer in any way. The Sikhs of the Guru achieve emancipation and stay absorbed in Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Aliput(u) = detached. Dhundhaiy = worldly affairs. Dhaaveh(i) = rush to. Nihchul(u) Achull(u) = eternal and immortal. Nij Ghur(i) Vaasa = mind stays in its own home (becomes stable) and does not wander. Smaaveh(i) = gets absorbed. Gehr = unfathomable. Gumbheer(u) = never changes with circumstances. 8.

MEANING: Waheguru always stays detached from the world, whereas the rest of the world rushes into worldly affairs. He is eternal and immortal, whereas everybody else comes and goes (takes birth and dies). We should always worship Him in the Guru's shelter (with His Advice) to enjoy blissfulness. (When we worship Waheguru) our mind becomes stable in itself (quits wandering), and we get absorbed in Him by singing His praise. With Guru's Shabad, we understand that Waheguru is unfathomable and never changes (feels pressured or joyful) with circumstances. 8.

Word Meaning: Vertaiy = operates. Sach(u) = immortal God. Kuthni Budni = says with the tongue. Bhaana = Will; Huqam. Kuch(u) Nikuch(u) = fully attached to the perishables; ignorant of spirituality. 1.

MEANING: If you recite Waheguru's eternal Naam, you will realize that it is He who operates everywhere, oh man. The devotee, who understands (obeys) Waheguru's Huqam, acquires Him in mind, oh Nanak. Many people talk about Him but do not obey Waheguru's Huqam (u). The true devotee of Waheguru is the one who accepts His Will; without accepting His Will, the individual is ignorant of spirituality and is fully attached to the perishable worldly attractions, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Boal(i) Na Jaan-ni = do not know what to say (in Waheguru's praise). Thaaoun Koothaaoun = right and wrong places (situations). Lobh(u) Vikaar(u) = vice of greed. Aapnay Sooaayay = of self interest. Jum Jundaar(u) = fatal Jum. Laykhaiy Munggiyaiyn = question for accountability. Koorriyaar = deceitful; dealers in the perishables. Mul(u) = filth. Ootraiy = taken off. Kiyoun = how? Dirraayay = reinforce. Kilvikh = sins. Numuskaar(u) = bow to; show respect.

MEANING: The Maya-engrossed person does not know how to sing Waheguru's praise because he is loaded inside with lust, rage, and conceit. Because of their vices like greed, they do not realize the appropriate and the inappropriate situations, and join gatherings of people to talk about their own selfish interests; they are punished by the killer Angel of death. When such deceitful people are presented before Waheguru to give the account of their deeds, they are punished to humiliation. Can someone think of the ways by which one may get rid of the filth of such deceitful acts? (The answer is) That if one gets connected with Satguru (comes to His shelter), Satguru reinforces Waheguru's Naam in him, which is the eradicator of all sins. Everybody bows to the devotee who worships Waheguru and recites His Naam. 2.

Word Meaning: Jayvud(u) = as great. Daata = provider; Lord. Jithoun =from where. Rus Kus = sweet and sour tastes. Bukhshay = bestows on. Ghut Untar = in the heart. Amrit = Waheguru's Naam. Kisaiy = some rare people.
MEANING: There is no such individual who can be described as a great provider (of everything, including the Amrit-like Naam) as You are, oh Waheguru. Waheguru's Naam can be acquired with the grace of the Guru, whereby one gets rid of his haumein. Waheguru is above all kinds of tastes (has no interest in them), and His magnanimity is eternal. Only that devotee acquires His Naam whom He bestows to; and Waheguru, Himself, connects him with Him. Waheguru has placed His Amri-Naam in everybody's heart, but some rare individual drinks it (acquires the Naam) whom He feeds (bestows) Himself. 9.

Word Meaning: Babaaniyaan = of the elders (virtuous people). Spoot = good (noble) sons. J(i) = Jo = whatever. Bhaavaiy = is liked. Kerm = deeds. Beas, Sook, Naarud = names of popular sages. Buchun = word (of wisdom). Srisht(i) = world. Sachaiy = Waheguru. Smaalayn(i) = remember. Pervaan = approved. Kool = associates.
MEANING: The stories of the great virtuous people transform the youngsters into good (noble) sons. They obey Satguru's Teachings, and perform the deeds as per His wishes (Teachings). You can verify this by reading the holy books and the teachings of the sages like Beas, Sook, and Nard, which are meant for the whole world. Those devotees, who are prompted by Waheguru, get attached to His Naam, and remember (recite) it all the time. The coming to the world of those devotees is approved (welcome) who salvage all their associates, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Undhula = (spiritually) blind. Sikhs = followers. Koorr(u) = perishable. Koosut(u) = lies; deceits. Ninda = vilification. Doobay = drown (in the world sea); do not achieve the objective of life. Pur Nindka = vilifying others. Buppurray = helpless.
MEANING: The disciples of the guru, who is spiritually blind, also perform deeds resulting in spiritual blindness. They follow their own mind and tell lies all the time. They always practise lies and deceit, and maliciously criticize others. By vilifying others, they drown in the world-sea (never get emancipation), and take all their associates with them. But they cannot be entirely blamed for their ignoble acts, because they are helpless as they are doing just that for which they are preprogrammed by God, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Nudri Undar(i) = in sight. Srisht(i) = world. Koorr(i) Koosut(i) = in perishable and immoral activities. Vigooti = misguided suffer humiliation. Poataiy = in possession; in their credit account. Poonn(i) = noble deeds. Vaat(i) = in mouth (on the tongue). Speeti = of praise (for Waheguru). Sunaayee = praise.

MEANING: Waheguru keeps all His creations under His eyes. He misguides some to practise lies and perform immoral acts; such people are followers of their minds and are misguided by Waheguru; they suffer humiliation. On the other hand, the Guru's Sikhs always recite Waheguru's Naam with love for Him. Those who have noble deeds to their credit sing Waheguru's praise with their tongue. Waheguru's greatness is eternal, so we should recite His Naam(u), oh Nanak. 10.

Word Meaning: Sutee = highly moral; virtuous. Sut(u) = high morality. Kmaah(i) = practises. Deekhiya = advice; sermon. Khuttiyaiyn = earn money. Bhaaou = love. Bhaavaiy = whether. Tusbee = rosary. Vuddhi = bribe. Huq(u) = right. Guvaayay = robs. Turk = Muslim. Ridaiy = in the heart. Moohaaveh(i) = get others cheated. Chaarri = bribe; undeserving praise. Chaunka = outdoor cooking. Soocha = clean; pure. Grehi = family man. Jutaan = permanently tangled hair. Bibhoot = ash. Joogut(i) = technique; path of Yogism. Kit(u) Kararun(i) = to achieve what? Chhaayee = ash. Kul(i) = Kulyug (the present era). Pervaan = approval. Aapay Aakhun(u) –Jaan(u) = make own rules.

MEANING: (People blame the present era – Kalyug – for their unfavourable conditions; but Guru Sahib tells people that there is no such time which is good or bad by itself. It is the character and actions of people that make conditions good or bad. For example, a visibly virtuous person commits sins, and (contrary to the norms), the guru goes to the house of his followers to advise them. The wife loves her husband only if he earns wealth, regardless of whether he works at home or goes away. Nobody is following the advice of the holy books; they are performing their own worship. The Qazi sits in the chair of the judge to deliver justice, and moves the beads of the rosary and chants "Allah" with his tongue to give the impression of his false religiosity, but he takes bribes to rob others of their rights. If someone questions his judgment, he quotes some words from the law book to justify his decision.

Similarly, a Hindu listens to the Muslim mantra (holy words) and enshrines that in his heart to please the Muslim rulers. He undeservingly praises his Muslim rulers lavishly and earns prizes (bribes) to get the innocent people cheated by them (suffer injustice at their hands). Look at the Hindus (Brahmans) who draw lines with cow dung around their outdoor cooking facility, and claim it to be a sign of their purity!!
The yogis, with their permanently tangled hair and ash on their bodies, claim to have renounced the world, yet they have families with them, their children crying around them (to have their needs fulfilled). They cannot achieve their objective, and on top of that, they lose (are misled from) their accepted path of Yogism; so, what did they achieve by putting ash on their head (body)? This is what Kulyug is all about, and it has become the approved behaviour in society that people make their own rules and justify them, oh Nanak. 1.

Nanak, uggaiy pooch na hoyay. 2.
Word Meaning: Janayoo = the holy thread that the upper-castes wear around their neck. Booriyaayi = immoral acts. Naata = taking dips at holy places. Dhota = washed. Thaayaiyn Na Paayee = gets no recognition. Rah(u) = path to spirituality. Dusaayay = to ask. Kerni = noble deeds. Baajhoun = without. Bhist(i) = paradise. Tit(u) Kaarun(i) = for that reason. Jithaiy Kithay = everywhere. Vataaou = travelers; visitors. Cheeri = letter (Huqam of Waheguru). Dhill = delay. Jaanaiy = recognize (make connection with God). Sinjaanaiy = recognized; honoured. Phukkurr(u) = fake; joke; false. 2.
MEANING: A Hindu (Brahman) visits another Hindu's house and puts a junayoo (the holy cotton thread) around his neck after reciting some mantras. (What is the use of the thread) when he still commits immoral deeds? He gets no recognition (in Waheguru's Court) even if he takes dips at the holy places and keeps himself physically clean.

The Muslim sings praise of “Allah”, but without following the advice of their Peer (spiritual leader0, he gets no recognition either. If someone wants to know about the religious path to paradise, the answer is that nobody can go there without noble deeds.
(The yogis perform many breathing exercises to prolong their lives). If someone goes to them asking for their objective, for which they wear big earrings and roam around, they may say that they are searching for the Supreme Being. But He is present everywhere, so why roam around? As far as prolonging life span is concerned, every living being is a traveller (visitor) here, and no delay is allowed when Waheguru’s Huqam comes for one to leave. Those who make a connection with Waheguru in this life are recognized (are honoured) in Waheguru’s Court. All others – whether they are Hindus or Muslims – are fake in their religiosity. Everybody’s deeds are examined in Waheguru’s Court, and nobody gets salvation without noble deeds. If someone recites only Waheguru’s Naam (with full dedication) and no one else’s, he is not questioned in His Court, oh Nanak. 2.

Munmukh Aap(i) khooaayayun(u), Maya moh nit kurrh(u). Subhnaa, Sahib Aik(u) haiy, pooraiy bhaag(i) paaya jaayee. 11.
Word Meaning: Kaaya = human body. Kot(u) = Gurrh = fort. Laal, Juvayhri = rubies and jewels like noble qualities. Dirr(u) = reinforce. Khooaayayun(u) = misguided. Kurrh(u) = suffer frustration.
MEANING: The fort-like human body is Waheguru’s temple which contains rubies- and jewels - like noble qualities which are revealed by reciting Waheguru’s Naam in the shelter of the Guru (with His Shabad). That human-body temple of Waheguru is extremely beautiful where His Naam is reinforced. The followers of their mind are misguided by Waheguru Himself, and they always suffer frustration for their attachment for Maya. Everybody has the same Lord, but He can be realized only with great fortune. 11.

Word Meaning: Naasut(i) = is not there. Dookhiya = self-affliction. Sookhiya = enjoying comforts. Moond Moondaaeen = shaving heads. Tuchhaaveh(i) = getting cut, hewed, or carved. Hustee = elephant. Sidh(i) = success; mental bliss; emancipation. Soyee = God. Vudaayee = respect; praise. Ruvvaiy = is recited. Khooyaayeen = misguide. Kuhhaiy = say; advise. Vaatrri = right path. Pundh Sir(i) = right from the beginning. 1.

MEANING: One cannot achieve mental bliss by torturing oneself by standing in cold or hot waters for long times because if that were the case, all life in water would be blissful (which is not the case). Mental bliss cannot be achieved even by enjoying the comforts of life (because they are short-lived, and there are many other causes of suffering). Mental bliss cannot be achieved by shaving one's head (as some people do), or by taking part in religious discussions, as many learned people do, by roaming around in the country. Emancipation cannot be achieved even by suffering while living under trees or on the mountains because if such suffering resulted in emancipation, then trees and rocks will also get emancipation as they suffer when they are cunt into pieces, are hewed, or are carved. Some people wrap chains around them to achieve emancipation; if that were the case, elephants would also get emancipation because some of them, too, are chained. Emancipation or mental bliss cannot be achieved even by eating vegetables only (as some people do) because cows also feed on grass (and are not emancipated). Only Waheguru controls individual successes, mental bliss, and emancipation, and only He can bestow them on whomever He chooses, and connects them with Him. Only that individual receives respect who recites Waheguru's Naam in his heart, oh Nanak.

(Waheguru says): All hearts are mine, and I am present in all of them; who can guide the individual whom I misguide? And who can misguide the individual whom I show the right path, and who can guide the individual whom I misguide right at the beginning of his journey? 1.

NOTE: Addressing the yogis by their names in the next five Sloaks, Guru Nanak Sahib advises the yogis of different sects that anybody can unite with God if he performs noble deeds, and recites Waheguru's Naam, no matter what type of religious (sect) label he wears. Performing noble deeds and reciting Waheguru's Naam with reverence is the only path for union with Him.

Poonn Daan = noble deeds and helping the needy. Gunga Ka Neer(u) = clean (pure) like the water of River Ganga. Eshur(u) = a leading Yogi. Sut(i) Sroop(u) = the eternal Waheguru. Perm Tunt = the Supreme Being. Raykh Na Roop(u) = (separate) physical features and looks. 2.

MEANING: The individual, who exercises control over his senses and begs for recitation of Waheguru's Naam, the ability to work hard (to worship Him), and the ability to control desires, is the true family man. Such a virtuous man also performs noble deeds and helps the needy. Such a noble family man is pure like the water of the river Ganga. If Esher also sings the praises of the eternal Waheguru, he will merge into the Supreme Being and have no distinctive physical features or appearance (becoming like Waheguru). 2.

Puttun = city. Shivpur(i) = the city of Waheguru. Churrhay = attains that height (transcendence). Gorukh(u) = one of the leading Yogis.
Word Meaning: The true "Aoudhooti" is the one who burns his selfishness and ego, and rather than begging for food as alms, he begs for (sharing) the sufferings of others (lessens their suffering); and rather than going from door to door to beg for food, he begs for the wellbeing of others, and for His Naam from Waheguru in the city of his heart. Sooruj = sun (brightness); enlightenment. Gundh(i) = union. Purraiy = collapse; weaken. Kundh(u) = body (mind). Gopi Chand(u) = another leading Yogi.
MEANING: The true "Oodaasi" is the one who nourishes (strengthens) his detachment from the worldly attractions, sees Waheguru everywhere, and enlightens his peaceful mind with Divine Knowledge. The body (mind) of such an "Oodassi" never weakens. If Gopi Chand also sings Waheguru's praise, he will merge into the Supreme Being and will have no distinctive physical features or looks. 4.

Word Meaning: Paakhundi = a fake (hypocrite) holy man. Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Purjaalay = burns (destroys) completely. Braham(u) = Waheguru. Soopnay = in dream. Bind(u) Jhurna = succumb to lust. Juraa = old age. Churput(u) = an eminent Yogi (he was a leading Yogi in "Sidh Gosht(i)".
MEANING: Even a hypocritical ascetic can free himself from the fear of old age and of death, if he purifies his body (and mind) by completely burning (killing) the fire of his desires by replacing it with the strong light of Waheguru (His Naam), and by not succumbing to the urge of lust even in his dream. If Churpat also sings Waheguru's praise, he will merge into the Supreme Being and will have no distinctive physical features or looks. 4.

Word Meaning: Biyraagi = detached from the world. Ooltay = reverses (mind). Guggun Mundul = the tenth door (in brain). Roapaiy = erects; raises. Thumm(u) = pillar. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Dhiyaan(i) = in mind. Sut Smaan(i) = like Waheguru.

MEANING: That individual is a true "Biyraagi" who reverses the direction of his thinking from Maya towards Waheguru, and erects the pillar of His Naam in his mind (supports his mind with the Naam) to connect it with Waheguru, and keeps his mind focused on Him day and night. Such a "Baiyraagi" becomes just like Waheguru. If Bherthur(i) also sings Waheguru's praise, he will merge into the Supreme Being, and will have no distinctive physical features and looks. 6.

Kaahay bheekhiya mungun(i) jaayay. 7.

Word Meaning: Kiyoun = how? Munda = evil thinking. Joogut(i) = way (of life). Bhoogut(i) = the communal sweet of the yogis. Aasut(i) = is (visibly) present. Naasut(i) = is not visible. Aiko Naaoun = Waheguru's Naam. Ukkhur(u) = word; shabad. Hiyaaou = heart; mind. Dhoop Chhaanv = discomforts (suffering) and comfort. Sum = equal. Suhhaiy = endures; treats. Kuhhaiy = remembers (the Guru). Chhay Vertaaray = the six sects (philosophies) of ascetics. Poot = sons; disciples. Bheekhiya = alms.

MEANING: How can evil thinking be eradicated, and how can one follow the path of righteousness? What does a yogi achieve by piercing his ears and by eating the sweet communal food of grace? It is Waheguru's Naam alone that operates in the universe, whether He is present invisibly or in His visible form. What is the Shabad with which His Naam may be enshrined in the heart? If one accepts discomforts and comforts the same way with Guru's Shabad, then he is considered to have recited His Naam, oh Nanak. The ascetics follow six different philosophies; they are neither truly family men nor fully renunciate. Why would a devotee, who stays absorbed in Waheguru, go begging for food (he will not)? 7.

Munmukh Hur(i) Mundar kee saar na jaan-ni, tinhi junum(u) guvaata. Subh meh(i) Ikk(u) vertda, Gur Shabadi paaya jaayee. 12.

Word Meaning: Jithoun = from where. Jaata = recognized (realized).. Maanus Dayh = in human life. Gur Buchani = Guru's Shabad. Aatum Ram(u) = Waehguru. Bidhaata = the carver of our fates (Waheguru). Guvaata = waste away. 12.
MEANING: The human body is deservingly called Waheguru's Temple because it is only in human form that the man recognizes (realizes) Waheguru, and sees Him everywhere with Guru's Shabad. We should not search for Him outside – only in our hearts. The follower of his mind does not know the worth of the human body and wastes it away. It is Waheguru alone that operates everywhere, and can be realized with the Guru's Shabad. 12.

Word Meaning: Lukkhun = signs. Kerna = acts. Moogudh = captivated by Maya. Ahunkaaro = with his ego. Ait(u) Kmaanaiy = with such deeds. Khooh(i) = in the well of Maya. Sunjum(u) = means; take steps. Ulipto = detached. Sehna = accept.
MEANING: Only a fool will listen to (obey) another fool. But what are the signs of a fool, and what kind of deeds does he do? A fool is a person captivated by Maya and spiritually dead because of his great conceit. There is always suffering in such behaviour, and a fool keeps suffering all the time. When a blind lover of Maya falls into the deep well of Maya, what means can be used to pull him out? A Sikh of the Guru reflects on the consequences of such behaviour and remains detached from Maya. He recites Waheguru's Naam, whereby he is salvaged, and all his associates who are drowning in the sea of Maya are ferried across the sea (saved). Waheguru does whatever He likes, and we have to accept all that which comes our way, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Sikh = advice. Suhhee = right; real. Laykha = account of deeds. Mungaysia = will demand. Vuhhee = the book of accounts. Tulbaan Puousun(i) = will be called in. Aakiyaan = rebels (who did not obey Waheguru's Huqam). Baaki = balance (bad deeds minus the good deeds). Israel(u) Frishta = Angel of death. Tuyyee = well prepared. Soojhyee = cannot think of. Bheerri Gulee = very narrow passage. Phuhhee = trapped (soul). Koorr(u) = falsehood. Nikhootay = runs out; one loses out. Oarruk(i) = at last. Sach(i) = truthfulness. Ruhhee = prevails; wins.

MEANING: Our mind should receive only the right advice, because Waheguru will demand an account of our deeds as recorded in our account book, oh Nanak. The rebels (who do not obey His Huqam) and have some balance owing (their bad deeds minus their good deeds) are called in. The Angel of justice comes prepared with their full accounts; at that time, trapped in a narrow passage (with strict scrutiny), one cannot think of any place to escape to. Falsehood does not work forever; only the truth prevails at the end, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Subh(u) Sreer(u) = the whole creation. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Kehn Na Jaapaiy = cannot think of right words. Raapaiy = is imbued. Huriya Hoya = comes to life. Ahunkaar(u) = conceit. Guvaapaiy = is lost (eradicated). Khayl(u) = drama. Boojhaayee = gives understanding.

MEANING: The whole creation is the body of Waheguru, and He is present everywhere. Nobody can find the worth of Waheguru (His greatness), and there are no words to explain that. Imbued in His love with Guru's grace, one can only sing His praise whereby his ego is eradicated, and he gets a new life by body and by mind. Some rare devotee learns in the shelter of the Guru that the world is only a drama of Waheguru. 13.

Word Meaning: Sehunsur = thousands. Daan = dund = punishment. Indra (the king of paradise) deceitfully raped Ahilliya, the wife of sage Gautum. When the sage came to know, he cursed Indra with thousands of female genitals on his body. Pers Ram = a Brahman sage and a great devotee of Shiva. When god Rama broke the bow of Shiva to marry Seeta, Pers Ram was enraged and arrived at the scene to punish Rama, who robbed Pers Ram of all his powers by touching his feet. Ajaiy = grandfather of Rama. Once a sage went to see king Ajaiy to beg for alms; Ajaiy was in his stable at the time, he gave horse-dung to the sage in alms. Insulted badly, the sage cursed Ajaiy who had to eat the horse-dung himself. Ram Nikaala = god Rama, who was banished for 14 years from Ayudhiya. He cried when Seeta was kidnapped by Raavun, and when Laxman, his younger brother, got gravely wounded in the battle with Raavun. Dehsir = a name for Raavun, the king of Lanka who had kidnapped Seeta, wife of god Rama, and was defeated by Rama's army thereby losing his country to Rama. Aandi = brought. Duouroo = tambourine. Vaayay = by playing. Duouroo Vaayay = with a swagger.

Pandavas = the main players of Mahabharat. After their ill-conceived loss to their rival cousins and the rulers, Kauravs, they were banished to live in hiding for 12 years. To hide their identity, they accepted labour-positions with a king, named, Vairaat. They had the support of god Krishna (their Soami).

Janmeja = a king, who killed 18 Brahmans because they laughed at his wife who appeared in a semi see-through dress. Because of killing Brahmans, he developed leprosy on his body as punishment. At the advice of some sage, he listened to the Mahabharat Epic, but doubted the possibilities of some happenings, as a result, his leprosy stayed and he cried. Khooyay Guyya = made mistake. Sheikh = a learned Muslim. Musaayik = many sheikhs. Peer = a holy Muslim. Bheerr = trouble. Kirpun = money-lovers. Suncheh(i) = accumulated. Baali = a young bride. Bhutaar(u) = husband. Jin(i) Jaayay = succeeds. Auree Kerm = other rituals. Laykhaiy Paayay = given credit.

NOTE: Using popular stories from the Hindu Granths, Guru Nanak Sahib has demonstrated that everyone in this world is suffering for one reason or another, and that nobody is happy in this world without Waheguru's Naam.

MEANING: The sage Gautam made Indra cry when he was cursed by the Sage to have thousands of female genitalia signs on his body. Pers Ram cried when he was humiliated by god Rama, who sucked all his powers by touching his feet. Ajaiy felt humiliated when he had to eat the horse-dung that he gave to a sage in alms. People are similarly punished in Waheguru's Court for their bad deeds (or choices). Rama cried when he was banished and when he got separated from his wife, Seeta, and his brother, Lukhman. Raavun, who had kidnapped Seeta with a swagger, cried when he lost his island country, Lanka, to Rama. The Pandavas cried (felt humiliated) when they had to work as labourers for the king, Vairaat, even though they had the support of god Krishna. Janmeja cried when he made a single mistake of doubting some incidents of Mahabharat, and became a sinner.

The educated and the holy Muslims cry (are afraid) when they think about the possibility of some kind of trouble at the time of their death. The kings, who became yogis for various reasons, cried (repented) when they had to have their ears pierced and go door to door to beg for food. The money-lovers cry when they lose their accumulated wealth, and the pundits cry when they lose their knowledge (lose in debates on religious issues). A young bride cries when her husband dies; thus, the whole world is suffering (without Waheguru's Naam), oh Nanak. Only that individual is honoured in Waheguru's Court who has full faith in Waheguru's Naam; no other religious ritual is recognized (not given any credit). 1.

Word Meaning: Munniyaiyn = obey Waheguru's Huqam. Kaaraan = deeds. Baad(i) = useless. Munniyaan = approved. Munniyaiy = is recognized (is honoured).

MEANING: All rituals including recitation of mantras and self-affliction, are worthless unless the individual obeys Waheguru's Huqam (recites His Naam with full faith). It is only with Guru's grace that one realizes that only that individual is honoured in Waheguru's Court who has full faith in Him, and obeys His Huqam, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Kaaya = body. Huns = swan; soul. Dhoor(i) = by Waheguru. Mayl(u) = union. Goopt(u) = hidden. Pergtaaya =makes to appear; reveals. Goon = praise.

MEANING: The union between a soul and the body it gets is predetermined by Waheguru. Waheguru operates hidden in everybody, but is revealed when a devotee comes to Satguru's shelter and sings praise of Waheguru, recites His Naam, and stays absorbed in His praise. Guru's Bani (Shabad) is eternal, is a manifestation of Waheguru, and connects one with Him. Waheguru does everything Himself, and accords honour to His devotees. 14.

Sloak M:2: Nanak undha hoyay kaiy, ruttanaa perkhun jaayay. Ruttanaa saar na jaanyee, aavaiy aap(u) lukhaayay. 1.

Word Meaning: Ruttanaa = jewels; noble qualities; virtues. Perkhun = to test; examine. Saar = worth. Lukhaayay = reveal; expose. 1.

MEANING: If a blind man goes to examine jewels, he cannot know their worth; on the contrary, he exposes his blindness to others. (Similarly, a Maya-engrossed, ignorant person has no sense of virtues and vilifies them). 1.

ਮ:2॥ ਰਤਨਾ ਕੇਰੀ ਗੁਥਲੀ ਰਤਨੀ ਖੋਲੀ ਆਇ॥ ਵਖਰ ਤੈ ਵਣਜਾਰਿਆ ਦੁਹਾ ਰਹੀ ਸਮਾਇ॥ ਜਿਨ ਗੁਣੁ ਪਲੈ ਨਾਨਕਾ ਮਾਣਕ ਵਣਜਹਿ ਸੇਇ॥ ਰਤਨਾ ਸਾਰ ਨ ਜਾਣਨੀ ਅੰਧੇ ਵਤਹਿ ਲੋਇ॥ 2॥

Word Meaning: Ruttana = jewel-like noble qualities. Kayri = of. Goothlee = bag; treasure. Ruttanee = the examiner of jewels (Satguru). Vukkhur = (seller of) merchandize (Satguru). Vunjaara = trader; buyer (Sikh). Smaayay = know the worth of. Pullaiy = in possession. Maanuk = pearls; virtues. Vunjeh(i) = deal in. Undhay = blind; ignorant. Vuteh(i) = wander around. Loyay = in the world. 2.

MEANING: Satguru is a treasure of virtues which He opens for His Sikhs; both know the worth of these virtues. Only those who deal in such pearls of virtues know their worth. Most people are blind to the worth of such virtues, and go around in the world (spend their life) in ignorance. 2.

Word Meaning: Koat(u) = fort. Bujjur = (strong like) concrete. Kpaat = doors. Unhud = Divine. Dhoon(i) = musical. Ghut = heart (mind). 15.

MEANING: The fort-like human body has nine visible doors, while the tenth door (through which one connects with Waheguru) is kept hidden. This door has concrete-like strong planks which open only with Guru's Shabad when the devotee feels as if Divine music is playing in his mind. With Waheguru's worship, the devotee's mind is enlightened, and he gets connected with Him. Waheguru, which has created the universe, operates in everybody. 15.

Soojaakha = with full sight. Oojhurr(i) = wilderness; on the wrong path. Loyin = eyes. Khusamou = from the Lord. Ghoothaiy = missed opportunity; misled. 1.

MEANING: Only a blind man will follow the path advised by another blind man; why would a man with perfect eyesight follow a path of wilderness? However, those people are not blind (of wisdom or spirituality) who do not have eyes on their face; those are truly blind who have been misled away from the Lord, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Vertaiy = deals. Suou = hundred times. Jaapyee = clear. Vertuou = dealing. Vust(u) = article; thing. Puchhaan(i) = recognize. 2.

MEANING: The individual, who has been blinded (misguided) by the Lord, can regain his vision (spiritual path) by the Will of the Lord. Otherwise, he deals with the world as per his own wisdom (nature), and does not understand the path of righteousness, even if someone advises him hundreds of times. A person uses his own whims to deal with a situation about which he has no information. How can a customer buy something (follow a spiritual path) if he cannot recognize it, oh Nanak? 2.

Word Meaning: Huqamou = by Waheguru's Will; by natural causes.

MEANING: Why should a person be called blind if he has lost his eyesight by natural causes. The real blind is the person who does not understand Waheguru's Huqam, oh Nanak. 3.

Word Meaning: Gurrh(u) = Koat(u) = fort. Disuntar = far away countries. Taarri = deep meditation. Pervaysa = has entered; is present. Srisht(i) = world. Pergutiaysa = appears, is revealed. Sojhi = understanding. 16.

MEANING: The fort-like human body is a dwelling for Waheguru, who is the creator of all the far and near countries. Present in everybody, He resides there in deep meditation (is not visible). He has created the whole universe, but keeps Himself hidden. When a devotee makes a connection with Him in the Guru's shelter (by acting on His advice), Waheguru appears in his mind. The Guru has given this understanding that Waheguru is present everywhere. 16.

Word Meaning: Khayt = fields. Lub = gluttony. Vuttar = optimum conditions. Droag(u) = deceitfulness. Beeou = seeds. Haali Raahuk = the farmer. Hayt = worldly attachments. Hul(u) = tiller; plough. Beechaar(u) = (evil) thoughts. Vikaar = vices; sensual pleasures. Mun = amount (of crop). Khuttay = earns. Aut(u) = childless; without noble deeds. Junaynda = giving birth to; produce.

MEANING: A farmer has two main crops called Haarri (mainly wheat, barley, and mustard) and Sauni (mainly rice, beans, and corn) over the year, for which he puts in a lot of hard work. A man, who sows short temper during the day for Haarri harvest, and lust during the night for his Sauni harvest in the fields of his mind, and for whom gluttony is the suitable conditions for sowing his crops, and who uses deceitfulness as the seeds, and for whom worldly attractions are his hired help in farming, harvests the crop of immoral thoughts and vices for his mental food by Waheguru's Huqam. When he is demanded the account of his deeds, he has no noble deed to show because he did not produce any, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhuou = fear (of God). Bhoyay = ground; field. Puvit(u) = purity of mind. Sut(u) = high morality. Suntokh = contentment. Bulayd = oxen (oxen were used to plough the land and for other farming needs in those days). Hul(u) = tiller; plough. Hulaymi = humility. Chit(u) Chayta = remembering (God) in mind. Vukhut Sunjog = time of union; good fortune. Beej(u) = seed. Bukhsheesh = Kerm = benevolence. Bohul = mound (amount) of grains (crop). Droag = false. Vijog = separation from God. 2.

Word Meaning: A man, who uses respectful fear for Waheguru as the field of his mind which he ploughs with high morality and contentment as the two oxen, and irrigates it with the water of purity of his mind; and who tills it (prepares it) with humility, and keeps Waheguru in mind all the time as the farmer, attains the appropriate conditions for union with the Guru where he seeds Waheguru's Naam in his mind-field, and treats the world as being false (perishable). With Waheguru's kind sight, he harvests a bumper crop of love for Waheguru as a result of which, his separation from Waheguru is eliminated forever, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Moh(u) = worldly attachments. Goobaar(u) = darkness. Doojaiy Bhaaayay = love for Maya. Neer(u) = water. Virolaiy = Muth = churns. Tutt(u) = the essence (Waheguru). Ludha = find out. Tolaiy = by searching. Bherm(i) = misbeliefs.

MEANING: The follower of his mind has the darkness of worldly attachments in his mind, has love for Maya, and talks only about that. One always suffers when one loves Maya; it is like churning water where one gains nothing, no matter how hard one churns. A Sikh of the Guru recites Waheguru Naam churning, pondering deeply on it, and realizes the true essence (Waheguru). His mind is enlightened, and he finds Waheguru (becomes connected with Him) by seeking Him. But, Waheguru Himself misguides some people by creating misgivings in their minds; so, nothing can be said about His amazing decisions. 17.

Word Meaning: Chinta = worry. Tis = Him. Junt = living beings. Opaayayun = are created. Roji = food. Hutt(u) = shopping; business. Kirs = farming. Sauda = deals. Aahaar(u) = food. Saayiraan = in oceans. Saar = looks after.

MEANING: (Work hard to earn your livelihood by honest means), but quit worrying about your needs for food because Waheguru worries about that. He has created life even in water and has made arrangements for their food there, too. There are no shops or farming there. There are no deals to make there, and one kind of animal serves as food for another. He has created life in oceans and looks after His creation. So, quit worrying about your food sources; Waheguru worries about you, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Jheever(u) = fisherman. Trishna = worldly desires. Kaal(u) = death. Munooaa = mind. Chaytyee = remembers. Achinta = unaware. Jaal(u) = net. Achayt(u) = negligent. Buddha = trapped in. Nudr(i) = kind sight.

MEANING: The man is like a fish (which is attracted to the bait, and is killed), whereas his desires for Maya are like the net of the fisherman for his spiritual death. The blind (ignorant) man does not remember Waheguru, and is caught unaware in the net of his desires. The man is negligent in mind and is increasingly trapped in the net of his worries. However, Waheguru connects some men with Him with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Saachay = connected with God. Rus(u) = sweet Naam. Sauda Keeta = made deal. Leeta = acquired. Trishna = desires. Boojhaayee = understanding. 18.

MEANING: The individuals who have enjoyed the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam get permanently connected with Him. Those who have embedded Waheguru in their heart by the grace of the Guru have made an everlasting deal. Everything is (Waheguru and the noble qualities are) present in man's heart, but only the lucky ones acquire them. One's fire of desires is killed by singing Waheguru's praise. Waheguru Himself connects His devotees to Him through the Guru and guides them. 18.

Word Meaning: Vayl(i) = ginning. Pinjaaya = carded. Kut(i) = spun. Voonaaya = woven. Koott(i) = soften by hitting gently. Khoomb Churraaya = is tempered in boiling water to remove excess flour-paste. Loha = scissors. Durjee = tailor. Put(i) = dignity. Paati = lost.

Seepaiy = is stitched; regained. Ginddhaiy = sews. Maah(u) = month. Pukh(u) = half a month. Ghurri Moohut = for a short moment. Paataiy = torn; come apart. Tichur = for as long. Jaapee = visible; shows presence. Jaapaiy = recite (Naam).

MEANING: Cotton is ginned, carded, spun, and woven to make cloth, which is hit gently to soften it. Next, it is cut into usable pieces and tempered in boiling water to remove excess flour paste. Then it is cut with scissors, and the tailor sews it with a needle and thread to make clothes to wear. (In other words, cotton has to suffer many times and go through many steps before the final product is obtained. Just like cotton, one has to put in hard labour to achieve high morality and to sing Waheguru's praise to regain one's lost respect with Waheguru, and to spend life with dignity. When a clothe becomes old, the fabric gets torn, which can be stitched again with a needle and thread; however, it does not last for months - it lasts only for a few moments. But the clothing of Waheguru's Naam never gets old, and once stitched, it never gets torn (once connected with Waheguru, the devotee never gets disconnected with Him). Until then, Waheguru appears in one's heart for only as long as the individual recites His Naam, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: (The Muslims sacrifice some animal on special occasions to please Allah. Before killing the animal, they read some holy verses from the Koran, and give a small cut on the neck of the animal, and let it bleed to a slow death. They call the process "Hulaal", and believe that the sacrificed animal goes to paradise. Guru Sahib advises a learned Muslim that if he wishes to get connected with Allah, he should give the sacrifice of his mind by killing it with the knife made of Allah's Naam, with the blade of Allah's Naam, which is sharpened with Guru's Shabad as the grinding stone, and which is stored in the scabbard of virtues. Such a knife has highly attractive moulding (workmanship). When the sheikh wounds his mind with this knife, he will see the blood of greed flowing out of it whereby, the sheikh becomes "hulaal", gets attached to Allah, and stays absorbed in Him to see His holy sight, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Gurmukh(i) Chullaiy = obeys Guru's Huqam. Khurch(u) Dhun(u) = wealth to spend. Pullaiy = possess. Achullaiy = stable -minded. Ruttan = The Naam.

MEANING: The devotee, who spends his life as per the Advice of the Guru, gets connected with the gathering of holy men (Guru) with His Shabad. Those devotees who recite Waheguru's Naam accumulate the Naam wealth as expenses for their spiritual journey in life to buy (acquire) more noble qualities and become like Him. Singing Waheguru's praise, such devotees look dignified, and attain stability of mind (which quits wandering) with the Guru's Advice. By contemplating on the Guru's Divine Shabad, they embed Waheguru's Naam in their mind. Waheguru, Himself, connects His devotees with Him through the Guru, and bestows honour on them. 19.

Word Meaning: Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Nihchul(u) = everlasting. Untarjaami = omniscient. Agumm(u) = inaccessible. Bhun(u) = say. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present.

MEANING: It is reprehensible to live in the world without Waheguru's Naam, which is the everlasting wealth. Waheguru provides for all our daily needs. The individual who recites His Naam with every breath is pure (holy). One should sing praise with his tongue of the "One"

Kaag(u) = crow (a filthy, immoral person). Jay = even if. Rijk(u) = food. Koorraiy = deceitful. Koorra = false. Pervaana = letter.

MEANING: The union of Satguru with His Sikhs is predestined by Waheguru, and that is His Will. Satguru is the source of the invaluable Waheguru's Naam and other noble qualities, which are the spiritual food for the Sikhs. Deceitful and immoral people cannot stay there, even if they are very intelligent (and are aware of the Guru's noble qualities). They do not have their mental food there because they live on different food (deceit, lies, falsehood etc.). An individual who deals in truthfulness gets connected with Waheguru, while the pride of the deceitful and the liars is false. Word Meaning: Ikk(u) = Waheguru. Vaad(i) = belligerent; enemies. Baad(i) = useless. Shaakut = worshipper of Maya. Doorjun = evil people. Bhermiya = misled.

MEANING: If Waheguru is the friend of someone (is liked by Waheguru), everybody (all his senses) becomes his friend (stays in his control); but if Waheguru is unfriendly with someone (ignores him), everybody (all his senses) becomes his enemy (gets out of his control, and harms him spiritually like an enemy). My Perfect Guru has shown me that everything is useless without Waheguru's Naam. The money-worshippers and the evil, who enjoy the taste (attractions) of Maya, are misled in life. But (I am lucky that) I have understood (made connection with) Waheguru with the grace of Satguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Thuttunhaaraiy = the creator. Thaat(u) = construction; universe. Shaah(u) = money-lord (Lord of Naam). Khuttiya = earns. Pasaar(u) = expanse; world. Ruttiya = is dyed in. Keem = worth. Brahmuttiya = Waheguru. Agumm = incomprehensible. Athaah = unfathomable. Puraiy Pruttiya = further, and further; endless. Muttiya = home; creation. Pergutiya = revealed. 1.

MEANING: The Creator has created the world (and His laws) all by Himself. He is the perfect moneylender (donor of the wealth of His Naam), and (by being present in humans), it is He who earns (acquires) it. Having created the world, He is fully imbued (is enjoying) its different colours (forms). Waheguru is incomprehensible, and nobody can ever know His worth (magnanimity). He is physically inaccessible, unfathomable, limitless and extends further and further. He, Himself, is the great emperor, and Himself, the minister (does not need any assistance). Nobody knows the extent of His creation; He is the eternal emperor, revealed through the Guru. 1.

MEANING: Please, listen to my request, and show me (connect with) Satguru (the way you got connected with Him), oh my dear friend. I will offer Him my mind, and will keep Him in my heart (mind) all the time. Without Satguru, it is condemnable to live in the world. Word Meaning: Locha = longing. Loarr(i) Luhou = find out. Jayvud = as great.

MEANING: I have a deep yearning to meet with (get connected with) Waheguru, but do not know how to see Him. I need to find a holy friend who may connect me with my Dear. The kind and the Perfect Guru connected me with Waheguru, and now I see Him wherever I look. I, a devotee of Him, have served Waheguru, who has no one as great as He is, oh Nanak.2.

Word Meaning: Dayvunhaar Dataar(u) = Provider. Mookh(i) = mouth; words. Rijk(u) = food. Smaahiyaiy = delivers. Vuss(i) = in control. Ikk Dhur = has the support of (is dependent upon) the “One”. Ker = hands. Anund Binoad = enjoys dramas. Serbdhaar = supports all. Sumruth = fully capable. Dinunt(u) = day. Gaavun Jogiya = worthy of praise. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Bhogiya = enjoy.

MEANING: What words can one use to praise Waheguru, who is the provider of all the basic necessities for His creation, and whom He protects, and delivers food with His kindness? Nothing is under the exclusive control of anyone, and everybody is dependent upon Waheguru. He raises us like His children and protects us by sheltering us with His own hands. He enjoys the drama of the world about which we know nothing. He provides support to everybody and is fully capable of doing anything and everything. I am a sacrifice for Him. We should sing praise of the praiseworthy Waheguru day and night. Only those who enjoy the sweet taste of His praise come to the Guru’s shelter. 2.

MEANING: Always remember Waheguru (recite His Naam), which makes all your tasks successful, frees you from all the difficult situations (troubles), and protects you and your family, oh man. Waheguru hugs us like our mother and father, and raises us like His children. When Waheguru casts His kind sight on someone, he feels blissful, and everybody shows kindness towards him, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Sir(i) = the topmost; biggest. Suntokheeya = providing contentment.

MEANING: Begging for anything other than Your Naam is an invitation to the biggest trouble, oh Waheguru. Kindly bestow Your Naam on me, which is the source of contentment, and which satisfies all one's appetites for Maya. Let alone the man (which is easy to give new spiritual life to), Satguru can infuse new life even into (all living beings in) forests and all vegetation, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Daatar(u) = liberal provider. Moohut, Chusaa = very short moment. Na Suraiy = cannot do without. Sung(i) = with. Look(i) = hiding. Put(i) = dignity. Bhuvjul = the world sea. Tupaa = self-afflicter. Perdhaan = leader. Bul(u) = force; ability. Juraiy = endures. Ajur(u) = unendurable (uncontrollable) spiritual state.

MEANING: Waheguru is such a great provider of everything that we cannot do (survive) without Him (His gifts like air and water) even for a short moment. So, how can we forget Him? He is with us inside and outside, so how can the man hide anything from Him? The individual, whose dignity is maintained by Waheguru (because of his virtues), swims across the world-sea (gets emancipated). Such an individual, whom Waheguru is kind to, is the true devotee, the real Giyani (has spiritual knowledge), and the real self-afflicter (devotee in his own approach). He is the true leader who is given the ability to endure the unendurable level of a high spiritual state (a high spiritual state is accompanied by supernatural powers which most people cannot control). But only that individual gets connected with Waheguru who has the Guru's Shabad in mind. 3.

Word Meaning: Dhunn(u) = great; praiseworthy. Soorungrray = lovely; sweet. Alaaput = chanting. Tikh = thirst (for worldly attractions). Soohaavrray = attractive; dignified. Junt = humans. Dhoorr(i) = dust of feet. Baanchhday = long for. Kermi = with benevolence of Waheguru. Pullaiy Paayay = acquire. Birtha = condition. Agumm Roop = inaccessible Waheguru. Jun = slave; supreme devotee. Anut Na = nowhere else.

MEANING: Praiseworthy are the sweet (holy) lyrics reciting which eradicate all one's thirst for worldly attractions. Praiseworthy are the dignified individuals who recite Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad. I am always a sacrifice for all those who worship Waheguru with a fully focused mind. I long for the dust of their feet (an opportunity to serve them), but one can get that only with good fortune. I am a sacrifice to those who are imbued with Waheguru's love. I will tell them the condition of my mind (yearning) and ask them to connect me with the friendly Royal Waheguru. When the Perfect Guru connects one with Waheguru, his suffering due to rebirths goes away. Word Meaning: Vayla = time. Ghurri, moorut(u), Pul = (all mean) short moments. Saar(u) = supreme. Sunjograa = lovely time of union. Dursaar = holy sight. Ichhaan = wishes. Mohrra = attachments; strong basis. Oodhriyya = emancipated.

MEANING: Great is the time, supreme is the moment, and wonderful is the day of union with the Guru when I have His holy sight. All my wishes were fulfilled when I realized the inaccessible and limitless Waheguru. The strong root of my worldly attachments has been broken, and Waheguru's Naam is my only support. Bhuttiya = (spiritual) food. Bhoonchaiy Bogyee = enjoys; takes in the spiritual food. Onahaa Jogiya = dedicate life. Jaaniya = recognized; made a connection with. Bhaaniya = are liked. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru gives (the love and the ability to sing) His praise and His worship to some rare individuals. He never questions those whom He gives the treasures of His worship. Those who get imbued in His love have only His Naam as the basis of their life and their spiritual food. The whole world enjoys the spiritual food of His Naam because of them (the beloved of Waheguru). Waheguru is dear to them, and they dedicate their life to Him. Sunt = the source of peace (Waheguru). Sunjog = union. Bhogay Bhog = enjoys the (mental) food.

MEANING: I am friends only with Waheguru, and have love only for Him. He is my only friend, and I keep only His company (keep Him in mind all the time). I converse only with Him who never frowns at me, and never breaks up with me. He knows the situation of my heart (mind), and never withdraws His love for me. He is my only adviser, who is fully capable of destruction and creation. He is my only provider, and is at the top of the list of all other providers; also, He keeps His kind hand on the head of everybody (provides protection). He is my only support, and is fully capable of providing support to everybody. By placing His kind hand on my forehead, Satguru connected me with the Great Waheguru, which is the source of complete bliss, and which salvages the whole world. Word Meaning: Kayri = of. Sunbundh = relationship. Bundh(u) = deep relationship. Jichur = for as long as. Tichur = for that long. Gunddh(u) = relationship. Gundh(u) = foul (unfriendly language). Saar = worth. Koorra = false; rooted in Maya. Chikkurr(i) = with mud. Phukkurr = false; spiritually worthless. Pittun Dhundh(u) = suffer in worldly affairs. Luptaaya = attached to. Huoun, Huoun = I and mine; selfishness and ego. Bihundh(u) = is spent.
MEANING: The friendship of the money-worshippers is rooted in Maya. As long as they get something to wear and to eat, they have a relationship with you, but the day they do not receive something, they begin to use foul language for you. Not only that, they never form a strong bond with you if their needs are not met, and they run away at the sight of you (if you need their help). They are ignorant and blind, and do not know the worth of your noble soul. Like a wall of stones in which the stones are joined with mud, a fake friendship (rooted in selfishness) does not last long. Such blind individuals do not even know their own interests (what is good for them, and what is bad), and suffer in (spiritually worthless) worldly affairs. They are attached to short-lived worldly attachments and spend their lives in ego and selfishness. The individuals who take Satguru's shelter with their predestined benevolence of Waheguru get salvaged, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Ruttay = imbued. Deedar = (Waheguru's) holy sight. Haak(u) = consider. Khaak(u) = dust (of feet). Maiyla = filthy. Vaykaar = vices. Paak = pure; holy. Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Residence. Bherm = doubts; misbeliefs. Taak(u) = door. Dhaak = push away. Binduk = for a short moment. Jhaak(u) = kind sight. Mustuk(i) = forehead.
MEANING: Consider only those to be connected with Waheguru who are imbued in the love of His holy sight. How can I get the dust of the feet of those who have realized Waheguru? The mind, which has become filthy with vices, is purified in their company. The door of the mind, which is shut by misbeliefs and doubts, is opened, and they see the Residence of the eternal Waheguru. Those who are able to see Waheguru's Residence are not pushed (thrown) away from His Residence. They feel blissful in body and mind, even with a short glimpse of Waheguru's sight. One can acquire Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of all the nine mythical treasures of the world, by reciting the Guru's Shabad. But only those get the dust of the feet of the Guru who have good fortune carved on their forehead. 5.

MEANING: There are a few words of spiritual advice for you which will get you salvation, oh, the beautiful young woman (human being) with big eyes like the deer. (You are very proud of your beauty, and are engaged in enjoying sensual pleasures, yet your mind is not peaceful. So, listen to the beautiful (worthy) words: my Dear Waheguru is the true support for your mind (to stabilize it and make it peaceful); but you are deeply attached to Maya, which is the basis of all evils, can you show me, tell me, the reason for that?

A: I am not short on anything, and I am not devoid of (good qualities), and I am not disappointed about that. It is just my bad fortune that I have lost (am disconnected with) my young and handsome dear Waheguru. I am not even misguided, have not missed some good opportunities, and I do not have any vices. Actually, I am doing just what Waheguru has planned for me, and that is the truth. Only that woman is loved by the dear Waheguru, and only she is lucky whom He is kind to. Waheguru holds such women to His chest (hugs them with love), destroys all their bad qualities, and grooms them with good qualities (to salvage them). They are lucky to enjoy the luxuries of His union. I am the unlucky one, waiting and always praying to Waheguru, asking Him when it will be my turn to enjoy His company even for a single night, oh Nanak. 1.

MEANING: Waheguru fulfils all our wishes, so why are you becoming disheartened, oh, my mind? Remember the Waheguru-like Satguru who eradicates all our troubles. Recite Waheguru's Naam whereby all your sins will be washed away, and you will get rid of all your vices. Those who have prewritten their fortune are imbued with Waheguru's love. They give up all the bad (immoral) tastes (enjoyments) of Maya, and accumulate the wealth of the Naam of the limitless Waheguru. They obey His Huqam, and meditate on the Naam of the "One" (keep Him in mind) all the twenty-four hours. I, Nanak, beg only for Your holy sight as I have deep love for You, oh Waheguru. 2.

Word Meaning: Kaarriya = worry; irritant. Kaaj Suvaariya = tasks made successful. Pervaan = approved. Vudpervaariya = large (whole world) family. Kool = associates.
MEANING: The (lucky) devotee who keeps You in mind, always enjoys bliss, and does not suffer at the hands of the Angel of death, oh Waheguru. He does not suffer from any worry, and all his tasks get completed successfully, as you are friends with. Such a devotee is approved in Your Court, and he has huge (spiritual) wealth. Word Meaning: Unnah = blind (of spirituality). Kooree = just for a show off. Chukkur = religious symbols. Dhaavaiy = rushes to. Viyaapiya = overpowered. Suntaapiya = suffering from. Baiyshno Naam = devotee of Vishnu. Kerm = deeds. Huoun Joogta = related to his ego and selfishness. Tooh = empty shells of grains. Huns = swans (Guru's Sikhs). Bug(u) = Bugula = heron (an imposter; hypocrite). Muchhi = fish; attractions of Maya. Taar = hook; focus of mind. Joarr(i) = match. Heera Moti = diamonds and pearls; noble qualities (it is an old belief that the swans pick only pearls). Mut(u) = lest; for the fear of.
Munj(u) Lukhaavaiy = expose self. Doash = blame. Ruttanee Bhrpooray = full of noble qualities. Praaput(i) = has in fortune. Maanuk = pearls. Toat(i) = shortage. Kootumb = family. Subbha Srisht(i) = the whole world. Chhudaavaiy = get emancipated.
MEANING: There are many people who worship their deities just to show off (are hypocrites to impress others). Spiritually, they are completely blind inside and outside (paint their bodies with spiritual symbols without knowing their significance), but rush to earn money. They have the filth of selfishness and ego, which does not come off as a result of which, they keep taking births again and again. They are overpowered by sleep and suffer from lust, but call themselves devotees of god Vishnu. With one's deeds rooted in selfishness and ego, his recitation of Vishnu's Naam is like thrashing the empty grain shells; so, what result can such a devotee hope to achieve from his such actions? Such a heron-like imposter, sitting among the swan-like Gur Sikhs, cannot become a swan because, like a heron, which focuses its mind on fish, the money-lover has its focus on monetary things.
When the swans (Gur Sikhs) ponder on the situation, they realize that the herons (money-loving imposers) are no match for them because, whereas the swans (Gur Sikhs) pick diamonds and pearls (noble qualities), the herons (money-lovers) go in search of toads (ignoble qualities). Afraid of being exposed, the heron flies away from the swans.
But even such impostors cannot be fully blamed for their behaviour, because people do the kinds of deeds for which they are preprogrammed by Waheguru, and that's what He likes. Satguru is such a holy pool which is overflowing with noble qualities, but only those who have them in their fortune acquire such qualities. The Sikhs assemble around the Satguru-Pool with His Will; pick up the jewel-like noble qualities, and never feel their shortage when they use them for themselves, or share them with others. A Gur Sikh never leaves Satguru (never becomes spiritually disconnected), and that is the Creator's wish. But only those devotees come to the shelter of the Guru who are predestined to connect with Him, oh Nanak. Not only does such a Sikh swim across the world sea, but he also ferries his associates, and in fact, the whole world, with him. 1.

Word Meaning: Buhouti Raaheen = in many ways. Korurr Moatth = a very hard, stone-like grain which does not cook. Viyaapiya = overpowered. Tishtus(i) = satisfied; peaceful. Dayha = body; mind. Koorreen = in Maya-related affairs. Joha = looks out for. Chhoho = irritation. Roha = excessive anger. Doormut(i) = Kooboodh(i) = ignoble advice (thinking). Kumoorra = extremely foolish. Thuggaiy = with the deceitful. Sraaf = goldsmith; evaluator. Ooghurr(u) Aaya = clearly visible. Rulaayay = mixed with. Purrda = curtain; coating. Munoorhoun = burnt (scrap) iron. Kunchun = gold. Nirvaiyr = unbiased. Aougun = vices; bad qualities. Shoodh(u) = pure. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead; in fortune. Sunayha = love; attachment. Vusayha = embeds.

MEANING: He calls himself a pundit (highly learned person) in many ways (explains religious books, performs ceremonies, teaches children, etc.), but has a stone-like hard heart (has no compassion for others). Because of his worldly attachments, he is always misled by his misgivings and never enjoys peace of mind (feels contentment). He wanders around in Maya-related affairs and looks out for money in every situation. If someone tells him the truth about himself, he feels highly irritated and irate. Overpowered by his ignoble thoughts and advice, the extremely foolish is attached to worldly things. He enjoys the company of deceitful people like him who have similar tastes. Because of his knowledge and his deceptive nature, he has the shine of gold (of pure and soft heart), but when the goldsmith-like Guru evaluates him with His sharp sight, he becomes clearly visible like burnt iron (impure and stone-hearted). He tries his best to hide himself among the noble people (to pass as one of them), but when the curtain is removed, his true nature is clearly exposed.

But when even a person like him comes to Guru's shelter, he gets transformed from scrap iron to pure gold. Satguru is completely unbiased (without any enmity), and He treats his sons and his enemies exactly the same way; He eradicates the bad qualities of an individual and purifies his body (and mind). However, only those individuals who have it prewritten in their fortune develop love for Satguru, oh Nanak. The Perfect Satguru's Bani (Shabad) is the real Amrit; an individual, who Waheguru is kind to, embeds it in his heart, his birth-death cycle is terminated, and he enjoys eternal blissfulness. 2.

MEANING: Only that devotee makes a connection with You whom You like, and He becomes successful in Your Court (is approved by You), oh Waheguru. The selfishness and ego of the individual on whom You cast Your kind sight are eradicated, and all his sins are destroyed who is satisfied with You. That individual becomes fearless who You side with (favour), and becomes pure like You when You are kind to him, oh Waheguru. There is only one Provider – Waheguru - we should ask for the fulfillment of our needs only from Him, as He gives you everything you need. We should remember Waheguru alone with our body, mind, every breath, and with every bite. Waheguru's Naam is the treasure of Amrit (to immortalize you by connecting with Waheguru), but it can be acquired (enshrined in the heart) only in the shelter of the Guru. Those holy saints are fortunate whose hearts are the dwelling place of Waheguru. It is only Waheguru, and none else, which is present in the waters, on the land, and in the sky. With the willingness of the Lord, Waheguru, I wish to remember His Naam and recite it, oh Nanak.2.

Nobody asks for the account of his deeds on whom You cast Your kind sight, and he enjoys all the nine treasures of the world whom You are pleased with. Those who deal in Waheguru's Naam are truly wealthy and are always blissful. Those who are in love with Waheguru's Naam enjoy the supreme bliss. I, too, worship the "One" Waheguru in the shelter of the holy saints as their slave, oh Nanak. 1.

It is again with Waheguru's Will that a devotee recites His Naam day and night, who is endowed with it. It is with Waheguru's Will (Laws) that men die and take births, and become unknown or well-known. It is with Waheguru's Will that people experience grief, happiness, or blissfulness. It is with Waheguru's Will that one recites Guru's Shabad, which destroys all his troubles. Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i)

Ramkali Kee Vaar, Raayay Bulvund(i) Tuthaa Suttaiy Doom(l) Aakhi

NOTE: Sutta and Balvund were young cousins who were appointed official bards (musicians) by Guru Angad Dev Ji. They served the holy gatherings of Guru Angad Dev Ji, Guru Amar Dass Ji, Guru Ram Dass Ji, and continued to do so for Guru Arjun Dev Ji as well. In the early years of the Guruship of Guru Arjun dev Ji, His elder brother, Pirthi Chand, who believed that being the eldest son, Guru Ram Dass Ji should have passed the guruship to him, but when that did not happen, and Guru Ram Dass Ji deemed His youngest son, Sri Arjun Dev Ji, to be the most deserving Gur Sikh for Gurushiip, Pirthi Chand proclaimed himself to be the guru, and started a parallel gathering. With the help of his agents, he was able to misguide and persuade some innocent Sikhs to attend his gatherings and not to go to Guru Arjun Sahib's holy gatherings. As a result, the attendance at Guru Arjun Sahib's gatherings became very thin, and so did the offerings. The situation became so bad that it became very difficult even to run the free kitchen for the Sikhs and the needy, which was so dear to Sikhism.

During this period, Sutta arranged his daughter's marriage and asked Guru Arjun Sahib for a large sum of money for help. Guru Sahib explained His difficult financial situation, which was also known to the Bards. Guru Sahib did provide financial help to Sutta, but it was much less than he had demanded. So, the two cousins became highly displeased and left, fuming, to join Pirthi Chand's gatherings. They were highly conceited of their musical capabilities and were very confident that they were irreplaceable. Guru Sahib tried to stop them, but they were too conceited to stay. The attendance at Guru Sahib's gatherings was already thin, but it declined further with the cousins' departure. Guru Sahib sent many prominent Sikhs to placate them and persuade them to return, but their egos went through the roof with the lavish treatment they received from the prominent Sikhs, and they refused to return.

Being of a very kind nature, Guru Sahib Himself went to the cousins to win them back, but not only did they refuse to return, they even claimed that the bards could make or break someone's guruship. They went so far as to say that the bard, Bhai Mardana ji, had made (Sri) Nanak (Dev Ji) the Guru. Guru Arjun Sahib could not hear a single word against the greatness of Guru Nanak Sahib and was deeply hurt by that low-level comment. He left and declared at the next holy gathering that He could listen to anything said against Him, but not against the Great Guru Nanak Sahib. So, nobody should ever ask them to come back or to plead on their behalf, even if they wanted to. Guru Ji was so hurt that He even proclaimed that He would blacken the face of the Sikh who asked Him to accept them back.

Guru Sahib was a great musician Himself. He designed a new musical instrument similar to the rabab and began to sing holy Shabads at His gatherings. Soon, the tables were turned, and most of the Sikhs, who were misguided by Pirthi Chand, returned to Guru Arjun Sahib's Camp, and the size of the gatherings swelled to levels never seen before. Almost no Sikhs attended Pirthi Chand's false gatherings, so he told the bard cousins to quit. Upset with their earlier bad behaviour, no Sikh would even talk to them. They began to starve to death and approached many prominent Sikhs for help so that they could be forgiven by Guru Sahib and rehired. But everybody remembered Guru Sahib's edict that the individual's face be blackened for any pleading to Him on behalf of the bard Cousins. So, nobody helped them. Finally, they approached Bhai Luddha of Lahore, known for his munificence. Bhai Laddha was moved by their woeful tale and agreed to help them. As per Guru Sahib's huqam, Bhai Luddha blackened his own face, and accompanied by the cousins, appeared before Guru Sahib with folded hands and implored for forgiveness for the cousins. Guru Sahib was so moved by Bhai Laddha's kind and selfless act that he hugged Bhai Sahib and forgave the bards. The bards realized their grave blunder and sang praise of all five Guru Sahiban as admission of their blunder and as atonement. Guru Sahib very kindly enshrined their song of praise for the Gurus in Guru Granth Sahib as follows:

ਨਾਉ ਕਰਤਾ ਕਾਦਰੁ ਕਰੇ ਕਿਉ ਬੋਲੁ ਹੋਵੈ ਜੋਖੀਵਦੈ॥ ਦੇ ਗੁਨਾ ਸਤਿ ਭੈਣ ਭਰਾਵ ਹੈ ਪਾਰੰਗਤਿ ਦਾਨੁ ਪੜੀਵਦੈ॥ ਨਾਨਕਿ ਰਾਜੁ ਚਲਾਇਆ ਸਚੁ ਕੋਟਿ ਸਤਾਣੀ ਨੀਵ ਦੈ॥ ਲਹਿਣੈ ਧਰਿਓਨੁ ਛਤੁ ਸਿਰਿ ਕਰਿ ਸਿਫਤੀ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਿਤੁ ਪੀਵਦੈ॥ ਮਤਿ ਗੁਰ ਆਤਮ ਦੇਵ ਦੀ ਖੜਗਿ ਜੋਰਿ ਪਰਾਕੁਇ ਜੀਅ ਦੈ॥ ਗੁਰਿ ਚੇਲੇ ਰਹਿਰਾਸਿ ਕੀਈ ਨਾਨਕਿ ਸਲਾਮਤਿ ਥੀਵਦੈ॥ ਸਹਿ ਟਿਕਾ ਦਿਤੋਸੁ ਜੀਵਦੈ॥ 1॥

Word Meaning: Naoun = fame; reputation. Kerta Kaadur(u) = the Creator. Boal(u) = words. Jokheenvdaiy = to evaluate. Day Goonaa = Divine qualities. Sut(i) =truthfulness; high morality. Bhaiyn Bhuraav = (like) siblings; naturally. Paarungut(i) = spiritual state required for salvation. Daan(u) = endowment. Purreenvdaiy = to acquire. Raj = kingdom (of noble principles). Sach(u) = high morality. Koat(i) = fort. Sutaani = very strong. Neenv = foundation. Chuut(u) = royal canopy. Khurrug(i) = sword. Prakooyay = power. Rehraas(i) = bowing down. Slaamut Theenvdaiy = while still in body. Tikka Ditta = established in position.

MEANING: Who am I (Balvund) to think of the right words to express the high worth (sing praise) of (Guru Nanak Sahib) whose fame had been spread by Waheguru all over the world? The Divine qualities, such as high morality and truthfulness, which are needed for salvation (and for which people work hard to acquire), were like siblings to Guru Nanak Sahib (they were innate in Him). Guru Nanak Sahib laid down the strong foundation of truthfulness and high morality to build the fort of the kingdom of noble principles and divinity, and started the noble reign (of Sikhism). He placed the canopy (crown) of Gurushiip on the head of Bhai Lehna Ji (who became Guru Angad Dev Ji), who was drinking the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam by singing His praise (with Guru Nanak Sahib's Bani). Using the Wisdom granted to Guru Nanak Sahib by Waheguru as the sword, and with His Divine force and power, Guru Nanak Sahib took out the original nature of Bhai Lehna Ji, and injected a new Divine life (soul) in him. Guru Nanak Sahib bowed down before Bhai Lehna Ji (this was the first ever time for Guru Nanak Sahib to have bowed to anyone in His life), and formally appointed Bhai Lehna Ji as His successor to Gurushiip when He was still alive. 1.

Word Meaning: Phayraayiyaiy = spread. Dohee = fame; reputation. Nanaka Khuttiyaiy = that (Guru) Nanak Sahib had earned. Jot(i) = spiritual light. Joogut = life-style. Saayay = the same. Sheh = Master; Guru (Nanak). Kaayaan = body. Jhoollaiy = waves. Nirunjuni = gifted by Waheguru. Tukhut = throne. Huttiyaiy = in the store of. Sil Alooni = tasteless rock. Joag(u) = for union. Chuttiyaiy = lick. Langar(u) = free food. Toat(i) = shortage. Ditt(i) = gift. Khehdi = used. Khaiyr(i) = as donation. Dubuttiyaiy = quickly. Noor(u) = Divine Light. Urshoun Koorshoun = from heavens. Jhuttiyaiy = dropping. Aidoon = such. Boalhoun =Words (of Command). Huttiyaiy = withdraw; refuse. Kaul(u) = commitment; Huqam. Paaliyo = honoured. Peerhoun = from Guru (Nanak Sahib). Kunnh Mooruttiyay = turned sideways; did not listen to. Khoataiy = impure. Aaki = rebellious. Oochaayin Chhuttiyaiy = carry burden (of disobedience). Thuttiyaiy = established. Oovuttiyaiy = earned; gained.

MEANING: Due to the great and holy reputation of Guru Nanak Sahib which He had earned, the fame of Bhai Lehna Ji also spread quickly as His successor as the people saw the same Divine Light in Angad Dev Ji as in Guru Nanak Dev Ji, and the same life style – it seemed as if Guru Nanak Sahib had simply changed His body (looks). The Divine canopy seemed to wave gently over Guru Angad Dev Ji's head; He took Guru Nanak Sahib's position in the shop where Waheguru's Naam was being disseminated. Guru Angad Dev Ji was just following the orders of Guru Nanak Sahib in the realm of spirituality, which was a very hard task, like licking a tasteless rock, in the path of union with Waheguru.

Guru Angad Dev Ji was running a free kitchen of spiritual food in the form of Waheguru's Naam, which never experienced any shortage. He was Himself using the Gift (of Waheguru's Naam) given by the Lord, and was also distributing it rapidly among the masses. Waheguru's praise was sung in Guru Angad Dev Ji's Court all the time, and Divine Light was dropping on Him from the heavens. People's filth of vices of their many previous incarnations was being washed away by having a holy sight of Guru Sahib.

Whatever Guru Nanak Sahib had advised, Guru Angad Dev Ji accepted as an eternal truth and never hesitated to follow it. Guru Nanak Sahib's sons did not obey their father's orders and turned their side (ears) away from Him (showing no respect). They had impure minds and became rebellious (believing that it was their right to inherit Gurushiip); they carried the burden of disobedience. It was not solely their fault, because nobody can gain or lose the Guru's favour on their own. Guru Nanak Sahib, who issued orders, also enabled Guru Angad Sahib (as per Waheguru's Will) to carry them out, and He was appointed the successor because He obeyed Guru Nanak Sahib's orders. So, who can we say lost or gained in this Divine intervention? 2.

Word Meaning: Keeti = performed (obeyed Guru's Huqam). Munn-na = is respected. Saal(u) = Saar(u) = supreme. Jivaahay = a type of long grass which grows in summer, but dies down in rain (against the natural law). Shaali = paddy; rice crop which thrives in rain (obeys natural law). Dulaali = mediation. Durhaali = right away; instantaneously. Bundh(i) Buhaali = established firmly. Saiy Daali = with hundreds of branches. Oomut(i) = disciples; Sikhs. Muskulaa = a brush, or a to remove rust. Dervaysh = dervish; a faqir. Laali = glow on the face. Kheevi = (highly respected) wife of Guru Angad Dev Ji. Chhaaoun Puturaali = dense shade of leaves. Kheer(i) Ghiyaali = rice pudding with ghee. Oojlay = radiant (with internal contentment). Theeyay = became. Puraali = pale like paddy straw. Kubool = approved. Ghaal = hard labour. Merdeen = befitting a holy man. Goyay = world. Ootthaali = accepted responsibility.

MEANING: Like paddy crop, which is better than jivaahaan because it obeys natural laws as opposed to the latter, which opposes them, the person who obeys Guru's Huqam, earns respect (and that is what Guru Angad Dev Ji did). He has become the Angel of Justice and listens to the problems of the Sikhs, takes them to Waheguru, and mediates on their behalf. Waheguru quickly accepts Guru Sahib's recommendations and fulfils them instantaneously. Guru Angad Sahib's fame spread very quickly, which Waheguru Himself established firmly for Him. It seemed as if Guru Nanak had simply changed his looks to become Guru Angad Dev Ji, and occupied the Throne (of Guruship) with hundreds of branches. Countless Sikhs were waiting at Guru Sahib's Door to diligently serve Him, and it seemed as if their rusted minds had been cleaned with the cleaning tool (Guru's Shabad). They were like faqirs at Guru Sahib's door whose faces were glowing with Waheguru's Naam and Guru's Shabad.

Balvund says, Mother Kheevi (Guru Sahib's consort) was also a very noble person who was like a shady tree with thick leaves (to provide motherly protection to the Sikhs). She was running free, but in a rich-food kitchen where Amrit-like rice pudding with lots of ghee was served (along with many other delicious foods). The Guru's Sikhs had a glow on their faces, while the faces of the money-lovers were pale like paddy straw. Mother Kheevi was also approved in Waheguru's Court when she performed the tasks befitting holy people, and it is she whose husband (Guru Angad Dev Ji) undertook the responsibility to lessen the burden of the world's sins. 3.

Word Meaning: Horiyon Gung Vuhaayiyaiy = reversed the direction of flow of River Ganga (has done something totally opposite to the tradition). Dooniyaavi = people of the world. Kiyon(u) = He did. Eshur, Jugun Nath = Lord of the world. Ooch-huddi = extremely high. Vaiyn = Words. Virkiyon(u) = spoke. Madhaana = churner. Naytur(u) = the rope to churn. Rirrkiyon(u) = He churned. Ruttan = the 14 mythical jewels. Aava-Gaun = cycle of rebirths; world. Chilkiyon(u) = polished. Aivud = such great. Pind = body (Guru Angad Dev Ji). Tthunkiyon(u) = He tested. Kiyaara Chhikiyon(u) = raised the neck (head); enhanced fame. Sayti = with. Mikiyon(u) = compared; equalized. Ghokh(i) Kaiy= searching thoroughly. J(i) = what. Kiyon(u) = has done. Soodhos(u) = tested carefully. Tikkiyon(u) = selected (appointed) for Gurushiip.

MEANING: The people of the world were totally amazed when they saw Guru Nanak Sahib bowing to His Sikh, Bhai Lehna Ji (which was completely opposite to the tradition where the disciple bows before the guru and not the other way around; and also, it was the first time ever for Guru Nanak Sahib to bow before anyone), and the people commented that it was like reversing the direction of flow of the River Ganga; what Had Guru Sahib done!! Guru Nanak Sahib, who is the Lord of the whole world (the whole universe), had uttered the Words (done an act) of highest transcendence. Comparing this action to the churning of the ocean by the gods and the demons who used the mountain Mayru as the churner and the Shesh Naag (the serpent with thousands of heads, and which is used as the bed for god Vishnu to sleep in the ocean) as the rope to spin the churner, and retrieved the 14 so called, jewels, Guru Nanak Sahib used His high concentration as the churner, and the snake-like mind as the rope, and churned the Shabad (in Waheguru's praise) to extract 14 noble jewels (the 14 Words of the Mool Mantra, and Great Souls like Bhai Lehna Ji) and enlightened the world. He displayed His great power (ability) by testing and approving a great soul like Bhai Lehna Ji for Gurushiip. He placed the canopy (crown) of Gurushiip on the head of Bhai Lehna Ji, and raised his head (honoured him) by spreading his fame to the sky. He sized Bhai Lehna ji to His own size, and injected His own Divine Light into Bhai Lehna Ji's soul. All the Sikhs saw what an amazing thing Guru Nanak Sahib had done when He chose Bhai Lehna Ji for Gurushiip after carefully examining His sons and the prominent Sikhs. 4.

Nayrraiy disaiy maat loak, Toodh soojhaiy door(u). Phayr(i) vusaaya Pheruaan(i) Satgur(i) Khaadoor(u). 5.

Word Meaning: Phayr(i) = then; next. Pheruaan(i) = son of (Baba) Pheru Mull (Guru Angad Dev Ji). Vusaaya = inhabited; enhanced its fame. Khaadoor(u) = the famous village (in Amritsar district, now in Tarn Taran) where Bhai Lehna Ji met Guru Sahib for the first time. Mooch = much. Guroor(u) = conceit. Lub(u) = too much greed. Vinaahay = destroys. Maansaan = humans. Boor(u) = algae. Vurhiyaiy = showers. Noor(u) = Light. Haath = depth. Tthuroor = cooling ocean. Bhurpoor = full to capacity. Ninda = vilification. Vunjaiy Choor = is crushed. Maat Loak = world. Door(i) = further.

MEANING: (As advised by Guru Nanak Dev Ji), Guru Angad Dev Ji took residence in the Village of Khadoor, thereby enhancing its fame. The rest of the world is highly conceited, but the commonly recognized noble qualities were innate in Guru Angad Sahib. I, Satta, recognize that too much greed destroys the spirituality (morality) of the people just like algae destroys the purity of water. Divine Light shone in the Court (holy gathering) of Guru Angad Sahib, and He was such a cooling ocean (source of comfort) whose depth could not be known. His heart-treasure was overflowing with Waheguru's Naam, and whoever vilified Him was crushed (lost all his dignity if he had any). The vision of the people is limited to the visible world, but Guru Angad Sahib's vision went much, much farther (in the realm of spirituality and for the betterment of humanity). Then Guru Angad Sahib took dwelling in Khadoor. 5.

Poata = grandson (Guru Amar Dass Ji). Nayhi = the base (support). Taan(u) = Divine power. Smoond(u) = ocean. Viroliya = churned. Mudhaan = churner. Ghorra = horse. Sehj = peaceful state of mind. Soojhios(u) = got the understandin Nivaariyo = eradicated. Neeshaan(u) = identity card. Aouturiya = took birth. Purakh Soojaan(u) = the wise (Perfect) Waheguru. Jhukkhurr Vaaou = wind storms (attacks by the evil people); troubles. Doalyee = became weak-minded. Perbut Mayraan = the very tall Sumer Mountain. Birtha =situation. Jaani Hoo Jaan(u) = knows everything of others' minds. Sooghurr Soojaan = wise and know-all. Daan(u) = donation. Bhaavsi = is liked MEANING: The majesty, the throne, and the court of Guru Amar Dass were the same, and He enjoyed the same respect and reverence among the people as Guru Angad Dev Ji and Guru Nanak Dev Ji had enjoyed. Like Guru Nanak Dev Ji, and Guru Angad Dev Ji, Guru Amar Dass Ji also churned the ocean-like Guru's Shabad using his high transcendence as the churner, Shesh Naag (the mind) as the rope to spin the churner, and the Divine power as the base for the churner, and extracted the fourteen noble qualities to enlighten the world. (To disseminate the Divine message far and wide), He made his peaceful mind as his horse to ride with chastity as the saddle. And to hunt down the evils in the society, He used high morality as the bow, and loaded it with the arrow of Waheguru's praise.

The world in the present era of injustice and dissonance was enveloped in the pitch darkness of ignorance, but Guru Amar Dass Ji was like the sun's rays, enlightening the world. He raised a crop of good humans with the seed of high morality and also protected them with it. Delicious meals cooked with flour, ghee and sugar were always available in His free kitchen. With Guru's eternal Shabad in mind, the Sikhs recognized (made a connection with) Waheguru, which is present in all four directions. The birth-death cycle of the devotees was terminated, for whom Guru Amar Dass Ji granted the card of identification (to be approved in Waheguru's Court) with His kind sight.
It seemed that Waheguru Himself had taken birth in the form of Guru Amar Dass Ji, who had such a strong mind like Mount Mayru that no storm of any trouble (mental, physical, or sensual) could weaken it. He was such a know-all (omniscient) that He knew everyone's mental state. What praise of Yours can I sing when You are so wise and know-all, oh Guru Amar Dass Ji? Any donation that You like will make me (Sutta) perfectly happy.
The masses were surprisingly happy that Guru Amar Dass Ji had the same Divine canopy over His head as Guru Nanak Sahib. Guru Amar Dass Ji had the same majesty, the same throne, and the same court as Guru Angad Dev Ji and Guru Nanak Dev Ji, and was equally revered as they were. 6.

Athaah(u) = unfathomable. Atoal(u) = immeasurable. Paaravaariya = ends; limits. Bhaaou Kur(i) = with love and reverence. Spervaariya = with the whole family. P aiyskaariya = expanse of disciples. Veechaariya = are thought of as. Sadhaariya = got support; became peaceful. 7.

MEANING: Guru Ram Dass Ji is worthy of worship; Waheguru, who created Him, also groomed Him with all the noble qualities needed for Guruship. It was a complete supernatural happening that the Creator Himself appeared in the form of Guru Ram Dass Ji. The Sikhs and the other devotees bowed to Him, acknowledging Him as a manifestation of Waheguru. You are a manifestation of the eternal, unfathomable, and immeasurable Waheguru, and nobody can find the end of your limits, oh Guru Ram Dass Ji. You salvaged those who served You with love and reverence. You eradicated the whole family of their evil qualities, like gluttony, greed, lust, rage, and worldly attractions. The place where you live is also worthy of respect, and your holy gatherings are eternal. People think of You as manifestations of Guru Nanak, Guru Angad, and Guru Amar Dass Ji. My mind becomes peaceful at the sight of Your holiness. 7.

Word Meaning: Chaaray = the first four (Guru Sahiban). Jaagay = jugay = lighted up; source of enlightenment. Punchaayin = the source of the five elements (Waheguru). Aapeenaiy, Aap(i) = Himself. Thumm(i) = pillar of support. Putti = wooden board. Kulm = pen. Oomut(i) = the world. Nuvaan Niroaa = fresh (young) and healthy. Khivvaiy = shines. Chundooa = canopy. Oogvunhoun = from sunrise. Aathunhoun = sunset. Chuhoun Chukkeen = in all the four directions. Loaa = enlightenment. Moaa = (spiritual) death. Dhoaa = support.

MEANING: With Waheguru present in them, all four Guru Sahiban enlightened the people of all four eons. Waheguru, who illuminated Himself, provides spiritual support to Guru Sahiban. He is the wooden board (on which the children write); He is also the pen and the writer, who writes the guidelines to enlighten the world through the Gurus. The whole world comes and goes, but Waheguru is always young and healthy.

Now, Guru Arjun Dev Ji has occupied the Throne of Guruship, and His spiritual royal canopy (crown) shines majestically (His grandeur is recognized everywhere). From sunrise to sunset, and from sunset to sunrise, He is enlightening the world in all four directions. Those unlucky followers-of-their-mind, who do not serve the Guru, die a spiritual death. With the eternal support of the eternal Waheguru, Guru Arjun Dev Ji's Divine power is increasing by leaps and bounds. With Waheguru present in them, all four Guru Sahiban enlightened the people of all four eons. 8.1

Word Meaning: Kaaya = body. Klaalun(i) = the vat in which jaggery is fermented. Laahun = ingredients to make alcohol. Goorr(u) = jaggery. Mutsur = jealousy. Kus(u) = spices. 1. Dulaali = fee (as the mediator). Bhur(i) = equal. Mud(u) = liquor. Klaali = sever. Pause. Chutur-Dus = four and ten = 14. Bhuvun = worlds (some religions believe that there are 14 worlds in the universe). Bhaatthi = hearth; kiln. Jaari = burned (used for fuel). Moodra = lid. Muduk = pipe to carry vapours. Sookhmun = mind-comforting. Poachunhaari = wet cloth to condense alcohol vapours. 2.
Bert = commitments. Naym = principles. Sooch(i) =external cleanliness. Sunjum = control on senses. Ruv(i) = the right nostril. Sus(i) = the left nostril (the breathing exercises of the yogis in which they inhale through the right nostril, and exhale through the left. Gehnaiy Dayoun = to pledge; to mortgage. Soort(i) = concentration of mind. Piyaal = cup. Soodha = amrit. 3. Nijhur(u) = falls. Raato = intoxicated. Mud = intoxicants. Chhoochhaiy = hollow; of very low quality. Saacho = everlasting. 4.
NOTE: In this holy Shabad, Kabir Sahib disapproves of all yogic practices for realizing Waheguru (God) and emphasizes only His Naam.
MEANING: You drink alcohol before meditating with the belief that it enhances your concentration, oh, yogi. I also drink alcohol, but I use my body as the vat (container) to mix the ingredients to prepare the alcohol that I drink. Rather than using the jaggery that you use, I use Guru's Shabad, and cut my worldly desires, lust, rage, traditional intoxicants, and my jealousy for others into small pieces (crush them – destroy them), and use them as spices for my liquor. 1. I am also looking for some holy soul in a high spiritual state, whom I will offer rituals like recitation of mantras, and self-affliction as his fee (I do not need them as they are spiritually meaningless) if he could serve me with even a drop of such liquor (as described above) for which I will serve him with my body and mind. Pause.

I have made the attractions of all the 14 worlds my kiln (burn them to use them as the fuel) to distil my liquor, and have built the fire of Waheguru's Knowledge in my body (enlightened my heart). My concentration on Waheguru in a high spiritual state is acting as a lid to prevent the escape of the vapours of my liquor from the pipe that carries them. The blissful state of mind acts as a cooling pad to condense the vapours (this is the arrangement for distilling the traditional liquor). 2. I will pledge (get rid of) the traditional rituals like pilgrimage, worthless commitments and principles, external cleanliness, efforts to control senses, and the yogic breathing exercises, and drink the supreme Amrit-like liquor as prepared above out of the cup of my high concentration in Waheguru. 3.
My mind is intoxicated with the Amrit-like liquor of which a pure stream is dropping on my mind continuously. All intoxicants, other than this Amrit-like liquor which has everlasting effect, are hollow (of very low quality and wear out quickly in their effect, oh Kabir. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Giyan = Divine Knowledge (connection with God). Muhhooa = a tree of which the flowers are used to give a special flavour to the liquor. Bhaatthi = kiln. Dhaara = stream. Sookhmun Naari = the vein between the two eyes in which the yogis hold their breath for some time. Peevunhaara = eligible to drink. 1.

MEANING: The devotee, who uses worship of God as the jaggery, his concentration as the flowers to add flavour, and his fear for Waheguru as the kiln for the liquor he wishes to prepare, drinks the resulting liquor whereby his mind attains the blissful state similar to the one which the yogis claim to attain when they hold their breath in the artery between the eyes. 1.
My mind is really intoxicated, oh yogi. Since I have tasted the intoxicating liquor which I prepare, my mind has attained the high spiritual state, and I see the Light of Waheguru everywhere in the universe. Pause.
I have used the appetite of my worldly attractions between the earth and the sky to fire up the kiln, and used my lust and rage as fuel, and have drunk the great tasting liquor thus prepared; as a result, all my worldly attachments have been cut off. 2.
With the Divine Knowledge of the Guru who is connected with Waheguru, my mind has been enlightened, and I have acquired the wisdom imparted by the Guru. I, a slave of Waheguru, am intoxicated with the liquor of that Knowledge which never runs out, oh Kabir. 3.2.

Ram Kabira ek bhuyyay haiyn, koyay na sukaiy puchhaani. 6.3.

Word Meaning: Mayru Pebut = the tallest mountain (a powerful support). Dolhou = shake; wiggle. 1. Ub ----- Kub = now, and always. Persad(i) = grace. Pause.
Bhurosaiy = with faith; rely on. Mug-hur(u) = a cursed town; it is believed that if a person dies in Mug-hur, he reincarnates as a donkey. Phoon(i) = then. Kaanshi (Varanasi, Banaras) = believed to be the city of Shiva. It is also believed that if a person dies in Banaras, he goes to paradise after death. 2. Nirdhun = poor; humble. Phoot(i) = by splitting; shamefully. Goomaani = egoists. Soola = thorn; irritating troubles. Kaadhun = to pull out. Chobh = pricks. Bilul Bilaatay = wail in pain. Puchaahi = suffer .4.
Raaday = rejected. Kaan(i) = owe obligation. 5. Singhaasun = throne of lion (king) (God); in highest spiritual state. Saaringpaani = Waheguru. Puchhaani = tell apart. 6.

MEANING: You are like the tallest mountain for me (strongest support), and I have taken Your shelter, oh God. Neither You shake (show any weakness), nor do I have any fear to fall down (of losing Your support), and You protect my dignity, oh God. 1.
I find You present everywhere, and I am always blissful with Your kindness. Pause.
With full faith in You, I took residence in Mug-hur (which is believed to be a cursed town) and the fire of my desires was put out. I had Your Sight first in Mug-hur, and then I came to reside in Banaras. 2. (People may be making a distinction between them), but I found Kaanshi (Banaras) and Mug-hur to be the same (similar). I was very poor (humble, with no ego); that is why I acquired the wealth of Waheguru's Naam, but those with great conceit suffer a very bad spiritual death. 3. Those who are conceited suffer from their pride like a thorn, and there is nobody to pull out their thorn of ego. They wail (implore for help) and suffer badly as if they were in a very frightening hell. 4.
For the holy saints, hell and heaven have no significance – they reject both of them. With the grace of my Satguru, I owe no obligation to anyone. 5.
Now, I have attained the highest spiritual state as I have been connected with Waheguru, and have become "one" with Him; nobody can tell us apart, oh Kabir. 6.3.

Phayreen = wave over head. 1. Kookur = dog. Bhuounkeh(i) = bark (to scare away the dog-like demons). Budun = mouth. Pusaar(i) = aggressively. Pause.
Dhoon(i) Sehj Kee = Shabad leading to high spiritual state. Dugaayee = branded (with Waheguru's Naam at heart). Run = battle field (to fight against vices). Joojheh(i) = fight valiantly. Kotthray = room; head. Kotthri = smaller room; brain. Perm = supreme. Bust = (the valuable) thing (Shabad).

MEANING: My body is my property (have control over it); I show all the respect for the holy saints, but punish the demons (lust, greed, etc.). I wish to massage Your feet (serve You), and use my hair as the whisk to fan over Your head (an act of reverence) day and night, oh God. 1. I am a dog in Your Court (in Your shelter) and bark aloud (sing Your praise to scare the dog-like demons away). Pause.
I was Your servant (devotee) in my previous life, the effect of which cannot be erased now (I am still Your devotee). The sweet music of Guru's Shabad in Your Court leads to the high spiritual state, and brands my forehead (is carved on my mind). 2.
Those who are branded (have Your Shabad engraved on their minds) fight valiantly against the demons in the battlefield of life, and those who are unbranded run away (yield to them). A saintly person recognizes the worth of Waheguru's worship, and Waheguru puts that in His treasure in his name (gives him full credit for that). 3.
The brain in the human head becomes a supreme place when it ponders on the Guru's Shabad. The Guru gave His Shabad to Kabir Ji, who carefully secured it in his mind. 4.
Kabir disseminated it among the people, and the lucky ones enshrined it in their minds. Those who drank the Amrit of Guru's Shabad became permanently married to Waheguru (got connected with Him). 5.4

Humray Ram Naam keh(i) oobray, Bayd bhurosay, paanday doob(i) mureh(i). 3.5.

Word Meaning: Bayd(u) = knowledge; the Vedas. Gayatari = a holy mantra of Hindus which is believed to be uttered by Brahma who is also believed to be the author of the Vedas. Bisur(u) = forget. 1. Paanday = oh, Brahman. Dojuk(u) = hell. Bhureh(i) = pay the debt; endure punishment. Pause. Hutthay Kerm = deeds for show off only. Oodur(u) Bhureh(i) = fill stomach. Pause. Chaudus = a day before the full moon. Ammavus = the day of new moon (both these days are preached to be auspicious by Brahmans). Ker = (in) hands. Koop = open well. Kaasheek = of Kaanshi. Joolha = weaver. Buraaburi = equality. Oobray = salvaged. Bhurosay = with faith in.

MEANING: (You believe that god Brahma uttered the Vedas and the Gayatri Mantra, and you teach those to the people), but why do you forget God, (who gave Brahma the wisdom to write the Vedas and the Gayatri Mantra), oh Brahman? Why do you not utter “God” whose Feet the whole world touches (shows respect)? 1.

Why do you not utter Waheguru, oh my Brahman? You do not say “God” (recite His Naam), so you will have to suffer punishment in hell. Pause.

You consider yourself to belong to the upper class, yet you eat at the homes of the lower classes to fill your stomach with fake religious rituals. You deceive people by creating (declaring) some days as being auspicious, which is (spiritually) like falling into an open well with a lamp in hand. 2.

You are an (upper-class) (conceited) Brahman, and I am a (lower-caste) (humble) weaver of Kanshi; how can we be equal? People, humble like me find salvation by reciting God’s Naam, while people conceited like you who have faith in Vedas only, die spiritual death by drowning in the world-sea, oh Brahman. 3.5.

Sehj soon(i) ikk birva oopjiya, dherti julhur(u) sokhiya, keh(i) Kabir huoun ta ka sayvuk, jin(i) eh(u) birva daykhiya. 3.6.

Word Meaning: Turvur(u) = tree. Anunt = countless. Daar = Shaakhaan = branches. Pohp = flowers. Baarri = garden. Pooraiy = Perfect. Kuriya = created. 1. Jaani = understood. Raja Ram = God. Birlaiy = rare. Pause. Bhuvur(u) = bumblebee. Beedha = attracted to; lost in itself. Baarh = the twelve petals of the (fully opened) flower. Oordhuriya = sucks the sap. Soreh ---- Jhukoriya = the yogis recite their mantra sixteen times and inhale air (a devotee recites Waheguru’s Naam with every breath). Akaashay = in the sky (high spiritual state). Phurphuriya = flaps wings; takes flight. 2.

Sehj Soon = in high spiritual state. Birva = plant (from the garden of Waheguru; His Naam). Dherti = the land of heart. Julhur(i) = cloud; mirage (desire for short-lived luxuries). Sokhiya = absorbed. Daykhiya = saw; experienced. 3.

MEANING: With my mind enlightened with God's Light (Divine Knowledge), I have come to realize the saga of the Emperor, God, which rare people understand. Pause.

I have realized that the world is like an orchard of Naam- Amrit created by God in which He is like a tree with countless branches, twigs, flowers, and leaves which are full of sweetness (of His Naam-Amrit). 1. Like a bumblebee, which, attracted by the sap of fully opened flowers, gets absorbed in itself (feels blissful) sucking the sap of the flower; and like a bird which takes flight, and enjoys in the wide-spread sky; and like a yogi who inhales and holds his breath after reciting his mantra sixteen times, a devotee takes flight in the high spiritual world by reciting God's Naam with every breath, and attains the blissful state. 2.

He feels as if a plant from God's Garden (a part of His) has been implanted in his heart, which sucks up the water of worldly desires, which are like a mirage. I will be a happy slave of the devotee who has seen such a plant (experienced the blissful state), oh Kabir. 3.6.

Punch tutt laiy hirdaiy raakhoun, ruhhaiy niraalum, taarri. Keht(u) Kabir(u), soonhou ray sunthou dherm(u) duyya kur(i) baarri. 3.7.

Word Meaning: Moan(i) = quietening (of wandering mind). Jhoali = the bag of the yogis used to collect dry food. Puttarka = the shallow dish to receive alms. Khintha = the quilt of rags that the yogis wear. Seevoun = stich with (God). Adhaar(u) = support, food. 1. Joag(u) = union with God. Kumaavhou = work for. Bhogi = enjoys. Pause.

Boodh(i) = wisdom. Bibhoot(i) = ash that the yogis coat their bodies with. Singi = bugle. Soort(i) Milaayee = focus mind on. Baiyraag(u) = detachment with the world. Kinguree = lute. 2. Punch Tutt = (the root of) the five elements (Waheguru). Niraalum = detached. Taarri = long deep meditation. Baarri = garden; crop. 3.

MEANING: (The symbols of your faith do no spiritual good for you). To connect with God, quieten (control) your mind (to make it peaceful) which should serve as your earrings; compassion for others should be your bag, and pondering on Guru's Shabad should be your shallow dish in which you receive alms, oh yogi. Stitch your body to God (connect with Him with love), making His Naam the basis of your life, which will serve as your quilt of rags. 1. Practise such Yogism, oh yogi. The qualities of recitation of mantras, self-torturing, and efforts to control their senses come to the devotees of the Guru naturally (they do not need any of those), for which you strive very hard. Pause.

Acquiring Guru's wisdom (advice) should be the ash which you coat your body with, and deep concentration on God's praise should be the bugle you blow into. I also play the lute, but, detached from the world, I search for God in my own body, which is my lute. 2.

I keep the root of the five elements (God) in my mind, which is my deep, long meditation, which keeps me detached from the world. To raise the crop of high morality and compassion in the field of their heart is the message of Kabir for the noble people. 3.7.

Word Meaning: Kaaj = purpose. Sirjay = created. Junum(i) = after taking birth. Ful(u) Paaya = made some achievement. Bhuv-Nidh(i) = the world-sea. Turn = swim(ferry) across. Taarun = ship. Chintamun(i) = a stone that is believed to fulfil all wishes (God). Nimukh = moment. 1. Upraadhi = guilty; sinner. Bhaaou-Bhugut(i) = worship with love. Saadhi = practised. Pause. Pur = of others. Ninda = vilification. Upbaad(u) = disputes. Phoon(i) = again. Persung(u) = story. 2. Phayra = visit. Lumput = lustful. Doot = evil. Mutvaaray = intoxicated; addicts. Busayra = dwelling; company. 3.
Mutsur = jealousy. Sumpaiy = wealth. Soopnuntar(i) = even in dream. 4.
Damodur = a name for God. Bhugut(i)- Buchhul = lover of His worship. Bhaiy-Haari = destroyer of fears. Bheer = difficult situation; trouble. 5.
MEANING: Do you know the objective for which you were created in the world by God, and what you have achieved after taking birth, oh my mind? You have not connected, not even for a short moment, with God, which is the ship to ferry you across the sea of Maya, and which (like the mythical precious stone), fulfills all your wishes. 1. We are Your sinners, oh God. You gave us body and life, but we have not worshipped you with love. Pause.
We have not stopped to cast an evil eye on the wealth and the women of others, to vilify them, and to pick up fights with them, oh God. As a result, our birth-death cycle never terminates, and we take rebirths again and again, and the story continues. 2.
I have never paid a visit to the house of worship where the holy saints sing Your praise, and have lived in the company of the lustful, the thieves, the evil, and the addicts. 3.
Lust, rage, money, intoxicants, and jealousy have been my wealth, and I never performed any noble deed of compassion, high morality, or service to the Guru, even in my dreams. 4. I pray to God, who is compassionate to the poor (humble), kind, a lover of His worship, and the destroyer of all fears, that I am in big trouble spiritually, kindly protect me, and allow me to serve you, begs Kabir. 5.8.

Word Meaning: Mookut(i) Dooaar(u) = door to salvation. Baiykoontth(i) = in paradise. Sunsaar(i) = in the reincarnation cycle. Toor = musical instruments. Bhurpoor = to full capacity. 1. Nunkaar(u) = hurdles (by sensual desires). Bhaar(u) = burden (of sins). 2. Kayl = enjoyments. Baandh Dhuriyo = assembled and placed Umerk(u) = immortalizes. Bikh(u) = poisons. 3.
Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Kuntth(i) Puroyay = stitch to your throat (your tongue). 4. Kaan(i) = subservience; shortage of noble qualities. Putumbur = silky bed. Taan(i) = pull over. 5. Sookhaali = comforting. Bigsaiy = blooms. 5. Bulaayay = troubles. Pohaiy = touch; affect. Maayay = Maya. 6. Rus Bhog = enjoy sweetness. Sunjog = with good fortune. 7. Tunt Na Munt = no incantation and mantra. 8.

MEANING: One cannot attain emancipation without remembering (reciting Naam of) God. So, recite only His Naam, oh my friend. Pause.

With the recitation of God's Naam, one reaches the door of emancipation, and goes to paradise (Waheguru's Residence), and is not trapped in the birth-death cycle. He attains the spiritual state of fearlessness and feels as if the Divine musical instruments are playing in his mind to full capacity (he will not feel any loss in that state). 1.

No worldly attraction (desire) can erect any obstacle in his path to union with Waheguru, and he is freed from worldly bonds, and all the burden of his sins is lifted from him. He bows to Waheguru in his heart, and his cycle of rebirths is terminated. 2.

One enjoys all the luxuries of life by reciting Waheguru's Naam as his mind is enlightened by the lamp (of Waheguru's Naam), which requires no oil, and which has been lighted up by Waheguru. Such a lamp burns away demons like lust and rage from his mind, and makes him immortal (by uniting him with Waheguru). 3.
So, remember Waheguru whose Naam should be on the tip of your tongue; by doing so, you will achieve the high spiritual state, oh my friend. If you remember Waheguru and do not ignore Him, you will swim across the world-sea with Guru's grace. 4.
Drink always the Naam-Amrit because of which you will not have to be subservient to anyone, and you will feel as if you have a comfortable sleep in a silky bed in a palace. Your heart-bed will be very comforting, and your mind will bloom with blissfulness, oh my friend. 5.
Keeping Waheguru in mind, one should sing His praise all the time, as a result of which, all his troubles disappear, and Maya has no negative impact on him. But remember, one acquires Waheguru's Naam only from Satguru. 6.
Always recite Waheguru's Naam day and night, whether you are standing or sitting, and with every breath and every bite, oh my friend. Enjoy the sweetness of the recitation of the Naam while you are awake or asleep. However, we get to recite His Naam only with good fortune. 7.
Waheguru's Naam becomes the eternal support (basis) of one's life, and he carries no burden of sins. No incantation or mantra works on (have any effect on) the devotee of Waheguru, which has no ends, oh Kabir. 8. 9.

Word Meaning: Bundhuch(i) = captivating Maya. Bundhun = stoppage; insurmountable wall. Mooktaiy = emancipator. Anul(u) = fire (of desires). Nukh = toe nails. Sikh = top of head. Cheena = studied. Mujun = bathing; cleansing of mind. 1. Puvun = wind (like unstable mind). Put(i) = master. Puvunput(i) = master of mind (human soul). Oonmun(i) = in blissful state. Khuraa = good; best. Mirt(u) = death. Juraa = old age. Pause. Shukut(i) Suhaarung(u) = support of (dependence on) Maya. Guggun Mujhaarung(i) = in high spiritual state. Baydhiulay = pierce. Chukkur = the six circles (where arteries meet together and divide into branches) that the yogis believe are there in the body. The yogis practise many breathing exercises in which they lift their breath from the bottom to the top through all these circles. They are very difficult exercises. Bhooyunga = a coiled artery which is also used in breathing exercises.2. Muyyiaasa = hopes based on worldly attachments. Sus(i) = moon (peacefulness of mind). Soor = sun (heat) (fire of desires). Giraasa = swallows. Koombhuk(u) = controlling breath (mind). Bhurpoor(i) = (with God) which is present everywhere. 3.

Buktaiy = the speaker (Guru). Soontaiy = the listeners. Saarun(g) = supreme gist. 4.

MEANING: Staying in the high spiritual state (with the recitation of Waheguru's Naam) is the supreme state for the human soul (all other approaches – including the path of Yogism - are insignificant in comparison). One does not suffer from the fear of death or of old age in this high state. Pause. The emancipator Guru put out the fire of my worldly desire by kindly giving me Waheguru's Naam, which created an insurmountable wall against the captivating Maya to protect me. When I searched (examined) my mind from top to toe, my soul had a bath (got purified) within my mind. 1.
My thinking, which had relied heavily on Maya's support before, reversed direction (towards Waheguru), and now my mind is flying in the high spiritual realm. (The yogis work very hard to connect all their body circles with control on their breath to strengthen their ability to acquire supernatural powers), But I have pierced all the circles without any special effort (I do not need to do any such exercises) as I have been connected to the Royal Waheguru without any impediment. 2. All my hopes (wishes) based on worldly attachments have disappeared, and the calmness of my mind has swallowed the fire of my desires. When the pitcher of my heart was filled completely with Waheguru (when my mind was fully absorbed in Waheguru), I began to feel as if a Divine lute was playing in my mind. 3.
The speaker, Guru, spoke His Shabad (delivered His Divine Message), and some of the listeners embedded it in their minds. Kabir gives the supreme gist of the whole Shabad, that if one recites Waheguru's Naam, he swims across the world-sea. 4.1.10.

Word Meaning: Jot(i) Sroop(u) = reflections of God. Joti = light (all creation). Anoop(u) = beautiful; lovable. 1. Pusaar(u) = all creation. Heeray = to God. Adays(u) = bow to. Nirunjun(u) = God. Alaykh(u) = incomprehensible. 2.
MEANING: (People worship Waheguru's creations like) the moon and the sun, but do not realize that they are only His reflections, and the lovable Waheguru is present in all his creations (so, He is the only power to worship). 1.
Contemplate on the Supreme Being, oh, wise man. He has placed His Light in all His creation. Pause. When I see a diamond, I bow to the real Diamond (Waheguru) who created it. Waheguru is incomprehensible, oh Kabir. 2.2.11.

Keh(i) Kabir, kool jaat(i), paant(i) tuj(i), cheenti hoyay choon(i) khaayee. 2.3.12.

Word Meaning: Hooshiyaar = be alert. Baydaar = (stay) awake. Moosiut = being robbed. Nigam = religious books (Vedas etc.). Pehrooaa = guard. Pause.

Neemb(u) = lemon tree. Aamb = mango. Kayla = banana. Jhaar(i) = thorny tree. Naaliayr = coconut. Saybur = simmal tree. 1. Khaand = sugar. Rayt(u) = sand. Bikhuriyo = mixed in. Hustee = elephant (highly conceited person). Chooniyo = picked up. Kool = clan. Paant(i) = ancestry. Tuj(i) = give up. Cheenti = ant. 2.

MEANING: Be aware, and stay alert, you are being robbed (of your spiritual wealth) while you are still awake, oh, the folks of the world. Even though you trust the religious books as being clever guards, the Angel of (spiritual death) still takes you away. Pause.

The idiotic, stupid, and ignorant people mistake a lemon for a mango, a mango for a lemon, and mistake a ripe banana for a fruit in a thorny bush. Likewise, they mistake a coconut for some ripe fruit hanging from the simmal tree, (They cannot distinguish between the noble and the ignoble qualities). 1. If we imagine Waheguru as sugar mixed in sand, then an elephant (highly conceited individual) cannot pick it; but if one gives up his pride of belonging to a high clan, his high caste, and his reputed ancestry, and becomes humble like an ant, he can enjoy its sweet taste, oh Kabir. 2.3.12.

NOTE: Bhagat Trilochan was a contemporary of the highly famous Bhagat Nam Dev Ji. Once Trilochan Ji went to see Naam Dev Ji, expecting him to be sitting in meditation, remembering God. But Trilochan Ji was shocked when he saw that Naam Dev Ji was printing bedsheets. Giving examples from everyday life, Naam Dev Ji explained to Trilochan Ji that as long as one’s mind is stitched to God, one can (and should) work with one's hands and feet while keeping God in mind.

Word Meaning: Aaneelay = brought. Gooddi = kite. Mudhay = in. Bhermiulay = fly. Punch Junaa = a few friends. Baat Butuooaa = conversation. Dori = string. 1.
Baydhiulay = stitched. Kunik Kulaa = goldsmith. Maandiulay = focus on. Pause.
Koombh = pitcher. Ooduk = water. Raj Kooaar(i) = young, unmarried. Poorunduriyay = from the town. Hust Binod = laughing and having fun. Gaagur(i) = vessel of water. 2.
Mundar(u) = big house. Guoo = cows. Churravun = to graze. Chhaadiulay = let loose. Koas = a unit of distance (about 2.2. km). Buchhra = calf. 3. Nadeo = Naam Deo. Paalun = cradle. Puoudhiulay = put in. Kaaj Biroodhi = very busy with chores.
MEANING: Like a goldsmith, who works with his hands, but keeps his mind fully focused on the ornament he is designing, my mind has been pierced (stitched) with Waheguru's Naam (even though I am working with my hands and feet), oh Trilochan Ji. Pause.
Look, the young boys buy thin paper, cut it to make a kite, and fly it high in the sky. They talk among themselves, yet their minds are always in the string (to control the kite). 1.
Young unmarried girls from the town go to a water source (pool, river, etc.) to fetch water. They fill their vessels with water, carry them on their heads, and, while walking back, joke around among themselves and have fun; yet their minds are always on balancing the vessels they carry on their heads. 2. For another example, consider the cows which are taken from a big house with ten (many) doors, to graze 10 -11 km away. While the cows are grazing, their minds are still in their calves. 3.
Lastly, a mother puts her baby in the cradle, and gets very busy with the house chores, but her baby is always on her mind, oh Trilochan. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Akhund Mundul = the eternal place (Residence). Unhud = Divine music. Bayn(u) = flute. 1.
Bairaagi = detached from the world; in love with God. Uteet = detached. Anahud(i) = in immortal God. Aakool = which has no clan (God). Pause.
Irra, Pingula, Sookhmuna = the three breathing centres of the yogis. Paunaiy = air; wind-like capricious mind. Bundh(i) = control. Chund(u) = moon - a symbol of coolness; comforts. Sooruj(u) = sun – symbol of hotness; discomforts. Braham Jot(i) = God's Light (Soul). 2. Paiysoun = enter. Sutaavoungo = cause discomfort. Ghut = heart. 3. Punch Suhaayi = with the support of the five demons. Sobha = praise. Bhulaa = noble; praiseworthy.

Raata = imbued. Soonn(i) Smaadh(i) = spiritual state where no worldly thoughts arise. Smaaoungo = am absorbed.

MEANING: (Unlike most people who perform many rituals to please their deities, I do not perform any such ritual to please my God), I simply sing His praise while detached from the worldly attractions. 1. Imbued in Waheguru's love with Guru's Shabad, and detached from the world, I get connected with Waheguru, which has no clan. Pause.

Rather than holding my breath like the yogis do in their breathing exercises, I control my ever-wandering mind, and I treat comforts and discomforts the same way, as a result of which I get absorbed in Waheguru's Soul. 2. (People take dips at holy places), But I will not enter the water so as not to scare the life in there. My Guru has shown me the 68 holy places in my own heart, where I take a dip to cleanse my mind. 3.

I do not need any praise from the people; the support of my five demons (my control on them) is my true praise. Imbued in Waheguru's love, I get absorbed in the meditative state where no worldly thoughts arise, oh Nam Dev. 4.2.

Nama prunvaiy Perm Tutt(u) haiy, Satgur hoyay lukhaaya. 3.3.

NOTE: The Hindu Granths teach that man is given a human form as a result of his deeds in previous lives. Nam Dev Ji questions this assertion in this holy Shabad (and believes that human life is given to a soul by God's kindness as well).

Word Meaning: Kerm(u) = deeds. 1. Kayra = of; belongs to. Punkh(i) = birds. Pause. Khaychur Bhoochur = inhaling and exhaling in yogic exercises. Toolsi = basil. Maala = rosary. Perm Tutt(u) = the root of all (God). Lukhaaya = shows; explains.

MEANING: (You believe that one gets human life based on his previous deeds), but (at the beginning, when there was no universe yet) there was no mother, no father, and no human body, so where did the deeds come from? When I was not there, and you were not there, how can we say who came from where? 1.

Like a tree on which the birds spend their nights, the world is a place to visit only for a short time. Nobody belongs to anyone permanently, oh God. Pause.

When there was no moon, no sun, and the water and the air were all mixed together (nothing was there). When there were no Vedas and no Shastras (which define good and bad deeds), how could the deeds be evaluated (to make a decision by God)? 2.

By Guru's grace, I learned that there is no significance in yogis' breathing exercises or in wearing a rosary of basil; Nam dev humbly submits that Satguru explained to him that only the Naam of the Supreme Being, which is the root of everything, is important. 3.3.

NOTE: The Hindus believed that they could please their deities by torturing themselves, even killing themselves, by donations to the Brahmans, and by pilgrimages. Nam Dev Ji disapproves of all such approaches and even condemns them. He advises that God can be realized only by singing His praise.

Word Meaning: Tup(u) Oolt(i) = recite some mantras by suspending upside down. Duhaiy = burn in fire. Kaaya Kulp = keep the body healthy through various means to prolong life. Asumaydh Jug = a religious ceremony in which huvuns are performed and horses are sacrificed. Gerbh = secretly. Sur(i) = equal. Tuou = all those. Poojaiy = reach. 1. Pakhundi = hypocrite. Kupt = deceitfulness. Nit Niteh = always. Pause.

Gunga, Godavari, and Gomti = are all holy rivers. Koomb(i) = at the time of a special festival which takes place once every twelve years. Kedar = a temple of Shiva in the Himalayas at a height of 11753 ft. Suffering a defeat at the hands of the Pandavas, Shiva escaped to this place, transformed him into a buffalo and hit the maintain. His head got thrust into the mountain and only the back is visible. Sehs = thousands. Guoo = cows. Hivaalay Gaaray = let body rot in the ice of Himalayas. 2.

Us = horses. Guj = elephants. Sehja Naari = bed with wife. Bhoom(i) = of land. Aatum Nirmaayil = offer self to the gods. Kunchun = gold. 3. Roas(u) = resentment. Nirmul Nirbaan = pure and detached from the worldly attachments. Pud(u) = state. Cheen = recognize; attain. Jusruth Rai = Raja Dusruth (father of Rama). Nund(u) = son. Prunvaiy = requests; humbly suggests. Tutt (u) = the root (God). Amrit(u) Rus(u) = sweetness of God's Naam.

MEANING: Quit your deceitfulness, and recite God's Naam all the time, oh hypocritical man. Pause.

You may torture yourself by dangling upside down in Banaras; or die at some holy place; or burn yourself in fire; or prolong your life by staying healthy; or perform a yagna at which you sacrifice horses; or donate gold secretly – none of such acts or efforts come even close to the recitation of God's Naam (to please Him). 1. You may go to the holy rivers - Ganga, Godavari, or Gomti - at the time of the Koombh(u) festival, or even to Kadar Nath to take dips; or donate thousands of cows; or visit holy places millions of times; or freeze your body in the ice at Himalayas - none of such performances matches God's Naam. 2.

You may donate horses, elephants, or even your wife along with the bed, or donate land, and make such donations every day; or offer yourself to the gods; or donate gold equal to your own weight – none of such donations matches God's Naam. 3.

If you do not want to recite God's Naam, then you cannot resent and blame anyone when the Angel of death takes you away. Recognize (make connection with) God to attain the pure and worldly-detached spiritual state, oh man. One should drink the sweet Amrit of the Naam of God, which is the origin of everything, and is supreme in taste. For me, God's Naam is Sri Ram Chandra, who is the son of Jusruth, oh Nam Dev. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Gooniyaiy = ponder on. Unbhuou = personal experience. Bhaaou = love; affection. Dersaiy = sight. Loha = iron (iron-like hard and rusty; stone-hearted merciless person). Kunchun(u) = Hirn(u) = gold (gold-like pure and soft-hearted person). Paarseh(i) = with elixir-stone. Pursaiy = touches. 1.
Sunsaiy = doubts; misgivings. Gaantth(i) = knot. Mud = intoxicants. Mutsur = jealousy. Punchou = five. Lootaiy = robbed. Pause. Bud = great. Kub(i) = poets. Kooleen = of high clan. MEANING: The man is so overpowered by lust, rage, Maya, intoxicants, and jealousy that he is being robbed of his good spirituality by these five demons, as a result of which he has fallen victim to doubts and misgivings which he cannot get rid of. (Like rusty and impure iron, his mind has been corrupted, and he has become merciless). Pause.
So, even though he reads the holy books and ponders on them, and listens to the Naam, he does not experience any bliss that comes with the Naam. Like iron, which cannot turn into gold unless it is touched with the elixir-stone, how can such an unholy person become pure and soft-hearted unless he comes to the shelter of the elixir-stone-like Guru? 1.
People are highly conceited of their traits, high caste, and faith etc. that their thinking of being great poets, belonging to high clans, being highly literate, or being Yogis, Sanyasis, knowledgeable, valiant, and donors etc., never goes away. 2.

Nobody understands the real purpose of life, and people are misled from the true path of life, as if they were insane, oh Ravidass. The basis of my soul is the Naam of Waheguru, which is also the wealth of my life. 3.1.

Word Meaning: Irra, Pingula, Sookhmunaa = the three arteries which the yogis use for breathing exercises. Ikk Tthaayayn = at one place. Piraag(u) = a holy place for the Hindus. Here three rivers – Ganga, Yamuna, and Sersvati (a hidden river) merge together. 1. Gum(i) = to go. Cheenaiy = recognizes; makes connection. Birla = rare. Rummuyyiya = omnipresent (God). Hoyay = is. Pause. Dayv Suthaanaiy = Waheguru's Residence. Neeshaani = signs of recognition. Teh = there. Unahud = Divine. Saakhi = Advice. Jaagi = awakens; enlightened. 2. Doormut(i) = evil thinking. Chheejaiy = weakens; vanishes. Gugnuntar(i) = the tenth door; high spiritual state. Kulaa = technique; secret. Taas(u) = him. Bhaytaiy = gets connected with. Perm Gur Deo = the Supreme Being. 3.
Agumm = inaccessible. Apaara = with no ends. Ghaati = dwelling. Haat = shop; head. Aala = niche; brain. Thaati = wealth (of Waheguru). 4.

Kubhoon Na = never. Tilok = (wealth of) the three worlds. Pulovaiy = disappears. Beej Muntar = Waheguru's Naam. Soonn meh(i) = in state above the effects of Maya. Guhhaiy = stays. 5.

MEANING: Yogis hold their breath at the junction of the three arteries (Irra, Pinugla, and Sookhmuna) for a long time with the belief that they can achieve their objective of life by doing so; and the Hindus believe that taking a dip at the confluence of the three Rives (Ganga, Yamuna, and the underground Saraswati), purifies their mind; but for a devotee of God (the Supreme Being), the mind is purified when Waheguru appears in his mind, and he is connected with Him. For the devotee, this spiritual state is the junction of the three arteries and the dip at Parag (he does not need either). But some rare devotee attains this spiritual state in the shelter of the Guru. 1 & Pause.

If someone asks what the signs are to recognize the attainment of this high spiritual state where Waheguru has appeared, then the answer is that such a devotee feels as if Guru's Divine Shabad is playing in his mind all the time. His mind is enlightened with the Guru's advice, and he feels indifferent to the comforts of the moon, the sun, the air, and the water. 2. With the Divine Knowledge enlightening his mind, his ill-thinking is eradicated, and his Tenth Door (where he feels connection with God) is drenched with the sweetness of the Naam-Amrit. A devotee, who learns the secret of this technique (reciting Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru), gets connected with God. 3.

The Tenth Door is the dwelling place of the inaccessible and the limitless Supreme Being. This Door is present in the niche (recess) of the brain, which is in the head, and that is where the truly valuable Waheguru resides. 4.

In that spiritual state, the devotee stays alert against the attacks of Maya, and never becomes unaware (negligent). All the attractions of the three worlds (universe) disappear in this spiritual state. The devotee always keeps Waheguru's Naam in mind, which reverses its direction from the attractions of the world to the love for God. 5.

Word Meaning: Na Aliya Bhaakhaiy = does not tell lies. Saakhi = advice. Urpaiy = offers. Krishan = God. 6. Ker = hands. Pulluv = leaves. Shaakhaan = branches. Jooyay = in gamble. Haaray = loses. Asoor = demons; evils. Nudee = the river (flow). Bundhaiy = controls. Mool(u) = root (Maya). Puchhim = the dark side; ignorance. Churraahvaiy Soor(u) = makes the sun rise; enlightens the mind. Ajur Juray = be able to handle the supernatural powers. Nijhur Jhuraiy = the spring of the Naam - Amrit drops into his mind. Jugunath = the Lord of the world (God). Godht(i) = meeting; union. 7. Choumukh Deeva = four-cornered lamp. Puloo = leaves; petals; flower. Anunt = limitless. Mool(u) = root of all (God). Serb Kulaa = all-powerful. Aapay Ruhhaiy = stays in himself. Maanuk(u) = pearl. Ruttanaa = Waheguru's noble qualities. Goohhaiy = stays stitched (connected). 8. Padum = lotus flower; pearl. Dooaalaiy = around. Munee = jewels. Punch Shabad = five kinds of musical instruments. Nirmaayil = pure; holy. Chuvur = royal whisk. Dhoolkay = fans over the head. Sunkh = conch. Ghun = many. Gaajay = roar. Dul(i) Mul(u) = crush completely. Daiynt-houn = the demons. Jaachaiy begs for. 9.

MEANING: Such a devotee stays awake (alert), does not tell lies, and keeps his five senses under control. He always keeps Guru's advice in mind, and offers his mind and body with love to God. 6.

He treats the world as the body parts, leaves, and branches of Waheguru (sees Him in everything, and thus does not forget Him) and does not lose his precious human life in the gamble (does not trade his noble qualities for the attractions of Maya). He erects barriers of his noble qualities around the attractions of Maya, the root of all evils. He enlightens his mind, which is darkened by the effects of Maya, by changing its direction from Maya to Waheguru and connecting with Him. He is able to control the supernatural powers (which automatically accompany this high spiritual state) and feels as if a stream of Naam-Amrit is dripping into his mind. 7. He further feels as if a four-cornered lamp of Waheguru's Light is enlightening his mind continuously. With the limitless Waheguru inside, his mind blooms like a flower. He embeds (enshrines the Naam of) the source of all powers, Waheguru, in his mind, which stays in itself (does not wander any more). His pearl-like pure mind stays stitched with the jewel-like God. 8.

With the Lord of the three worlds (universe) in his mind, his forehead begins to glow like a pearl which has jewels all around. He feels as if the pure (Divine) music of five different kinds is playing in his mind, and as if a whisk is fanning over his head and many conchs are roaring in his mind. With the Divine Knowledge imparted by the Guru, he crushes all the evil demons. I also beg for Waheguru's Naam, oh Bayni. 9.1.
