Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i)

INTRODUCTION: Hindu Granths strongly believe in the importance of the timing of events. They believe that the relative positions of the planets affect the fortune of individuals, and there are auspicious and inauspicious moments for important events in their lives. To avoid the negative effects of the planets, the Hindus perform many rituals – for example, give donations to Brahmans; not to eat on certain days; make some unusual offerings to gods; certain dos and don'ts during eclipses; undertake pilgrimages – and so on. The Hindus believe in the importance of the first day of every month and of the different phases of the moon. With such misbeliefs, they become increasingly lost in doubt and superstition and forget Waheguru completely. That is totally contrary to the Principles of Guru Granth Sahib, which promotes full belief in Waheguru and total disbelief in the importance of certain days and moments. For Sikhs, only those moments are auspicious in which one remembers Waheguru, and those in which one forgets Waheguru are inauspicious. Please pay attention to the following holy Shabads:

- ਮਾਰੂ ਮਹਲਾ 1 (1015)॥ ਸਭੇ ਰੁਤੀ ਚੰਗੀਆ ਜਿਤੁ ਸਚੇ ਸਿਉ ਨੇਹੁ॥ ਸਾ ਧਨ ਕੰਤੁ ਪਛਾਣਿਆ ਸੁਖਿ ਸੁਤੀ ਨਿਸਿ ਡੇਹੁ॥
- Maru Mehla 1 (1015): Subhay rooti chungiyaan jit(u) Sachay siyoun nayhou. Sa dhun Kunt(u) puchhaaniya, sookh(i) sooti nis(i) dayhou.

MEANING: All the seasons are delightful in which one loves God. That woman (human bride), who recognizes (makes connection with) the Waheguru-Husband, sleeps (spends life) with comfort, night and day.

- ਸਲੋਕ ਮਹਲਾ 5 (318)॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸੋਈ ਦਿਨਸੁ ਸੁਹਾਵੜਾ ਜਿਤੁ ਪ੍ਰਭੁ ਆਵੈ ਚਿਤਿ॥ ਜਿਤੁ ਦਿਨਿ ਵਿਸਰੈ ਪਾਰਬ੍ਰਹਮ ਫਿਟੁ ਭਲੇਰੀ ਰੁਤਿ॥
- Sloak Mehla 5 (318): Nanak soyee dinus(u) soohaavrra jit(u) Prubh aavaiy chit(i). Jit(u) din(i) visraiy Parbrahm, phiitt(u) bhulayri roott(i).

MEANING: Only that day is pleasant (comforting) on which one remembers Waheguru; and that season is condemnable when one forgets Waheguru, oh Nanak!

- ਬਿਲਾਵਲੁ ਮਹਲਾ 3 ਵਾਰ ਸਤ (842)॥ ------ ਆਪੇ ਪੂਰਾ ਕਰੇ ਸੁ ਹੋਇ॥ ਏਹਿ ਥਿਤੀ ਵਾਰ ਦੂਜਾ ਦੋਇ॥ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਬਾਝਹੁ ਅੰਧੁ ਗੁਬਾਰੁ॥ ਥਿਤੀ ਵਾਰ ਸੇਵਹਿ ਮੁਗਧ ਗਵਾਰ॥
- Bilawal(u) Mehla 3, Seven Days of the Week (842): ---------- Aapay Poora kuray su hoyay. Eh(i) thiti vaar dooja doyay. Satgur baajhoun undh(u) goobaar(u). Thiti vaar sayveh(i) moogudh guvaar.

MEANING: ---------- Whatever the Perfect Waheguru wishes to do, will certainly happen (superstitions about the timing are baseless). Superstitions about different phases of the moon and the days of the week sink the believer deeper into the darkness of Maya and create conflicts in the mind (between believing in Waheguru and the fortune tellers about auspicious and inauspicious times). Without the Satguru, there is complete darkness of ignorance, and only the foolish and the ill-informed believe in the effects of different phases of the moon and the days of the week.

As you can see, Guru Amar Dass Ji calls those people foolish and ill-informed who believe in the importance of certain days and phases of the moon.

How much more can be said to clarify the meaninglessness (unimportance) of timings of important events in life!! Nobody can stop events (sad or happy) from happening if Waheguru wishes them to, no matter what rituals one performs. Most Hindus consult fortune tellers to guide them on auspicious or inauspicious times for important events like marriages, buying property, entering a new home, opening a business, and so on. But their events are as successful or unsuccessful as anybody else's who do not believe in the importance of certain days or moments. (With the exception of a few, most of the Westerners have no belief in timings, but they are the most advanced on the planet. So, why believe in timings? In fact, it is a sin for a Sikh to believe in timings.

In addition to the few holy Shabads given above, there are many more such Shabads in Guru Granth Sahib. In fact, there are many long holy compositions which explain in more detail the insignificance (in fact, negative effects) of believing in the superstitions of timings. Guru Nanak Sahib has written on "twelve months" and the "phases of the moon". Guru Amar Dass Ji has written about the seven days of the week, and Guru Arjun Dev Ji on "twelve months" (the composition under discussion), "day and night", "phases of the moon" and the six seasons. Kabir Sahib has also written on the phases of the moon and the seven days of the week.

The twelve months in India correspond to the Julien Calendar (J.C.) as follows:

Month	Chayt	Vaisakh	Jaytth	Assaarr	Saavaun	Bhaadon
J.C.	Mar-April	April-May	May-June	June-July	July-Aug	Aug-Sept
Month	Assoo	Kutik	Mugghar	Poh	Maagh	Phuggun
J.C.	Sept-Oct	Oct-Nov	Nov-Dec	Dec-Jan	Jan-Feb	Feb-Mar

The first day of the Indian month falls between the 13th and the 17th of the corresponding month of the Western Calendar, as listed under J.C.

Now, let us go back to the main holy composition.

(ਅੰਗ 133)॥ ਕਿਰਤਿ ਕਰਮ ਕੇ ਵੀਛੁੜੇ ਕਰਿ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਮੇਲਹੁ ਰਾਮ॥ ਚਾਰਿ ਕੁੰਟ ਦਹਦਿਸਿ ਭ੍ਰਮੇ ਥਕਿ ਆਏ ਪ੍ਰਭ ਕੀ ਸਾਮ॥ ਧੇਨੁ ਦੁਧੈ ਤੇ ਬਾਹਰੀ ਕਿਤੈ ਨ ਆਵੈ ਕਾਮ॥ ਜਲ ਬਿਨੁ ਸਾਖ ਕੁਮਲਾਵਤੀ ਉਪਜਹਿ ਨਾਹੀ ਦਾਮ॥ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਹ ਨ ਮਿਲੀਐ ਸਾਜਨੈ ਕਤ ਪਾਈਐ ਬਿਸਰਾਮ॥ ਜਿਤੁ ਘਰਿ ਹਰਿ ਕੰਤੁ ਨ ਪ੍ਰਗਟਈ ਭਠਿ ਨਗਰ ਸੇ ਗ੍ਰਾਮ॥ ਸ੍ਰਬ ਸੀਗਾਰ ਤੰਬੋਲ ਰਸ ਸਨੁ ਦੇਹੀ ਸਭ ਖਾਮ॥ ਪ੍ਰਭ ਸੁਆਮੀ ਕੰਤ ਵਿਹੂਣੀਆ ਮੀਤ ਸਜਣ ਸਭਿ ਜਾਮ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਕੀ ਬੇਨੰਤੀਆ ਕਰਿ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਦੀਜੈ ਨਾਮੁ॥ ਹਰਿ ਮੇਲਹੁ ਸੁਆਮੀ ਸੰਗਿ ਪ੍ਰਭ ਜਿਸ ਕਾ ਨਿਹਚਲ ਧਾਮ॥ 1॥

(PAGE 133): Kirt(i) kerm kay veechhurray kur(i) kirpa maylhou Ram. Chaar(i) koont deh dis(i) bhermay, thuck(i) aayay Prubh kee saam. Dhayn(u) doodhaiy tay bahri, kitaiy na aavay kaam. Jul bin(u) saakh koomlaavti oopjeh(i) naahi daam. Hur(i) Naah na miliyaiy saajnaiy kut paayiyaiy bisraam. Jit ghur(i) Hur(i) kunt(u) na pergutyee bhutth(i) nagar say graam. Serb seegaar tumboal rus, sun(u) dayhi subh khaam. Prubh Soami kunt-vihooniya meet sujjan subh(i) Jaam. Nanak kee baynuntiya kur(i) kirpa deejaiy Naam(u). Hur(i) maylhou Soami sung(i) Prubh, jis ka nihchul dhaam. 1.

Word Meaning: Kirt(i) = done. Kerm = deeds. Veechhurray = disconnected. Chaar(i) Koont = the four major directions. Dehdis(i) = ten sub directions (8 at 45° angles plus vertically up and down). Bhermay = wandered (without any achievement). Saam = shelter. Dhayn(u) = cow (considered sacred by the Hindus). Baahri = outside of. Saakh = vegetables; crops. Koomlaavti = wilts. Daam = money. Naah(u) = Lord; Master (husband). Kut = where, how. Bisraam = rest; peace of mind. Ghur(i) = home; heart.

Pergutyee = appears. Bhutth = kiln; hell. Seegaar = adornment. Tumbol = a chewable roll of betel leaves with tobacco in it. Sun(i) = including. Khaam = weak; insufficient. Kunt = husband. Vihooniyaan = without; devoid of. Jaam = Jum = angel of death. Nihchul = permanent; eternal. Dhaam = residence. 1.

MEANING: We have been separated from You because of our previous ignoble deeds; please be kind and reconnect us to You, oh Waheguru! We have exhausted ourselves while wandering in every possible direction in search of happiness, and have finally come to Your shelter. Just like a cow which does not produce milk, or like a crop which withers away without water and is unable to result in any money, we are worthless without the dear Lord, Waheguru. How can we find peace without You? The heart, in which Waheguru does not appear, is like a town which is burning like hell. Without You, we are just like a married woman whose husband is away; all beautifications and luxuries, like betel wraps, are useless for her, including her own adorned body. All the friends and relatives seem like agents of death without You, oh our Lord-husband Waheguru! I, (Guru) Nanak, make a humble request to You to kindly grant me Your Naam. Kindly connect me with the Lord whose Residence is eternal, oh Waheguru! 1.

NOTE: Even though Guru Sahib advises certain dos and don'ts for certain months, they apply to each and every month, in fact, to each and every moment.

ਚੇਤਿ ਗੋਵਿੰਦੁ ਆਰਾਧੀਐ ਹੋਵੈ ਅਨੰਦੁ ਘਣਾ॥ ਸੰਤ ਜਨਾ ਮਿਲਿ ਪਾਈਐ ਰਸਨਾ ਨਾਮੁ ਭਣਾ॥ ਜਿਨਿ ਪਾਇਆ ਪ੍ਰਭੁ ਆਪਣਾ ਆਏ ਤਿਸਹਿ ਗਣਾ॥ ਇਕੁ ਖਿਨੁ ਤਿਸੁ ਬਿਨੁ ਜੀਵਣਾ ਬਿਰਥਾ ਜਨਮੁ ਜਣਾ॥ ਜਲਿ ਥਲਿ ਮਹੀਅਲਿ ਪੂਰਿਆ ਰਵਿਆ ਵਿਚਿ ਵਣਾ॥ ਸੋ ਪ੍ਰਭੁ ਚਿਤਿ ਨ ਆਵਈ ਕਿਤੜਾ ਦੁਖੁ ਗਣਾ॥ ਜਿਨੀ ਰਾਵਿਆ ਸੋ ਪ੍ਰਭੂ ਤਿਨਾ ਭਾਗੁ ਮਣਾ॥ ਹਰਿ ਦਰਸਨ ਕੰਉ ਮਨੁ ਲੋਚਦਾ ਨਾਨਕ ਪਿਆਸ ਮਨਾ॥ ਚੇਤਿ ਮਿਲਾਏ ਸੋ ਪ੍ਰਭੂ ਤਿਸ ਕੈ ਪਾਇ ਲਗਾ॥ 2॥

Chayt(i) Govind(u) araadhiyaiy, hovaiy anund(u) ghuna. Sunt junaa mil(i) paayiyaiy rusna Naam(u) bhunaa. Jin(i) paaya Prubh(u) aapna, aayay tiseh(i) gunaa. Ikk(u) khin(u) Tis(u) bin(u) jeevna, birtha junum(u) junaa. Jul(i) thul(i) muhhiul(i) pooriya, ruviya vich(i) vunaa. So Prubh chit(i) na aavuyee kitrra dookh(u) gunaaa. Jinhi raaviya so Prubh(u) tinnah bhaag(u) munaa. Hur(i) dershun kuoun mun(u) loachda, Nanak piyaas munaa. Chayt(i) milaayay so Prubhoo tis kaiy paayay lugaan. 2.

Word Meaning: Chayt(i) = in (the month of) Chayt(u). Anund = blissfulness. Ghuna = immense. Rusna = tongue. Bhuna = utter. Guna = consider (worthy of). Khin(u) = a small moment. Birtha = empty. Junaa = consider. Muhiul(i) = in the sky. Pooriya = has filled. Ruviya = present. Vuna = forests. Raaviya = enjoyed. Munaa = shine of fortune on the forehead. Loachda = longs for. Piyaas = thirst. 2.

MEANING: If one remembers Waheguru in the month of Chayt(u), he enjoys bliss. Waheguru can be realized by reciting His Naam with the tongue in the company of the Guru. Only those who are considered to have really been born (their lives are successful) are those who connect with Waheguru. To live without Him even for a moment is like wasting one's whole life. If one does not remember Waheguru, which is present in waters, on the land, and in the sky, he suffers countless troubles (sufferings). But only those who enjoy union with Waheguru have good fortune on their foreheads. My mind is thirsty for the sight of Waheguru and longs to see Him. I will drop on the feet (serve him like a slave) of the holy devotee (Satguru) who connects me with Waheguru in the month of Chayt(u) (any time). 2.

Preetum churni jo lugay, tin kee nirmul soyay.

(PAGE 134): Nanak kee Prubh bayntee, Prubh milhou praaput(i) hoyay. Vaisaakh(u) soohaava ta lugaiy ja Sunt(u) bhaytaiy Hur(i) soyay. 3.

Word Meaning: Dheerun = pick up courage; find peace. Klyoun = how? Vaandhiyaan = disconnected with Waheguru. Bichhoh(u) = pain of separation. Visaar(i) = forget. Dhoh(u) = deceit. Kluttar = wife. Sung(i) = with. Avinaashi = non-perishable; eternal. Pulch(i) = entangled. Jhootthaiy Dhundhay = false (spiritually worthless) tasks. Uggaiy = next world. Khoh(i) = snatch. Duyyou = loving Waheguru. Vigoochna = suffer without any achievement. Biin(u) = without. Uver(u) = other. Soyay = praise. Soohaava = pleasant; providing comfort. Praaput(i) Hoyay = is acquired (get connected with). 3.

MEANING: How can those human-brides find peace in the month of Vaisaakh who are disconnected from their Waheguru-Husband, and are suffering from the pain of separation? By forgetting Waheguru, they are getting attached to the deceitful Maya. However, they should realize that the sons, the wife, and the wealth are all perishable (will not live with him all the time); the only real friend is Waheguru, which is eternal. The whole world is dying (spiritually) by being entangled in the false (short-lived) tasks of worldly attachments (Maya). The world does not realize that when a man has to appear before God after death, only His Naam accompanies him, and he is stripped of everything else before that. The man suffers greatly from forgetting Waheguru, as no one else can help him. Those who serve Waheguru earn real praise. I, Nanak, pray to You that You connect me to You, so that I may enjoy Your union. Even though the month of Vaisaakh is very pretty in terms of the fresh beauty of nature (it is springtime), the devotees of Waheguru enjoy it only if the Guru connects them with Waheguru. 3.

Aapun leeya jay milaiy, vichhurr(i) kiyoun rovunn(i). Sadhu sung(u) praaptay Nanak rung maanunn(i). Hur(i) Jaytth(u) rungeela tis(u) dhuni ja kaiy bhaag(u) muthunn(i). 4.

Word Meaning: Joorunda = connect with. Lorriyaiy = wish; need to. Daavun(i) = seeking support; taking shelter of. Bunnh(i) = hurdle. Maanak Moti = pearls. Sunnh(i) = break-in. (Until about 60 years ago, it was quite common for thieves to drill a big hole in some outside wall of a house to gain entry to steal. Drilling of the hole was called sunn). Rung = colour; love; amazing feats. Naraayinaiy = of Waheguru. Bhaavunn(i) = mind-captivating. Lorraiy = wishes. Dhunn(i) = worthy of praise. Mannunn(i) = enjoy. Rungeela = colourful; blissful. Dhuni = rich; lucky. Muthunn(i) = on the forehead. 4.

MEANING: In the month of Jaytth(u), one needs to connect with Waheguru before everyone kneels down. If one takes shelter of Waheguru, who is a friend of everybody, nobody (including the Angel of death) can erect any hurdles in his way to salvation (unite with God). Pearls and other costly items can be stolen, but Waheguru's Naam is such a pearl which nobody can steal. Waheguru manifests Himself in many different ways (does some amazing feats), which captivate our minds when we have His Naam at heart. Waheguru does whatever He wishes to do, and the living beings also do what He wants them to do. Those are worthy of our respect whom Waheguru connects with Him. But nobody can achieve anything (including Waheguru's Naam) on their own (without Waheguru's Will); if people were able to acquire whatever they wished for on their own, they would not need to cry when they lost it (because they should be able to get it back). Waheguru's Naam can be realized only in the company of the Guru, and the devotees enjoy the bliss of union with Him. The month of Jaytth(u) is blissful for individuals who have good fortune on their foreheads (to connect with Waheguru). 4.

Word Meaning: Tupunda = sizzling hot. (Aassarr(u) is the hottest month in India).
Naah(u) = Lord; Master. Jugjeevun = Life of the world (Waheguru). Purakh(u) = Living Waheguru. Maanus = man. Sundi = of. Dooyaiy Bhaayay = in the love for the other (Maya). Vigoochiyaiy = suffer without any achievement; discomfit. Phaas = noose. Loonaiy = cuts; reaps. Raiyn(i) = night (life). Vihaani = is spent. Ootth(i) Chulli = leaves the world. Niraas = disappointed. Sadhu = Guru. Bhaytiyaiy = met; got connected. Khulass = (declared) free of any sins. Soohunda = pleasant. 5.

MEANING: The intense heat of the month of Asaarr(u) causes suffering to those who do not have Waheguru's Naam at heart, and, ignoring Waheguru, they seek the support of someone else. They suffer in vain because of their love for Maya, and the noose of the Angel of Death awaits them (they are caught in the rebirth cycle). As per their pre-written fortune, they reap the (bad) results of what they had sown. When their life is over, they leave the world disappointed and in repentance. On the other hand, those who connect with the Guru are declared free from any sins in the Court of Waheguru (are salvaged). I pray to You that, please, be kind to me so that I (Nanak) too, may have longing for Your sight (get connected with You), because there is none other like You, oh Waheguru! Even though the month of Asaarr(u) is sizzling hot, those who have embedded Waheguru's Naam in their heart find it very comforting, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Sersi = blissful; blooming of heart. Kaamni = woman (human bride). Siyoun = with. Rutta = imbued. Sach Rung(i) = in the love of God. Adhaar = support. Bikhiya = poisonous (Maya). Koorraviya = false (short-lived). Chhar(u) = ash. Boond = drop. Soohaavni = pretty; comforting; soothing. Trin(u) = vegetation. Mauliya = bloomed; zestful. Sumruth = omnipotent; capable of doing everything. Loachda = longs for. Kerm(i) = kindness; benevolence. Sukhiyaiyn = (female) friends. Muyya Kur(i) = be kind; be benevolent. Svaarunhaar = complete successfully. Sohaagni = married woman, (loved by her husband). Oor = heart. 6.

MEANING: Like the rainy months of Saavun(u) and Bhaadon, which bring respite from the sizzling heat after the hot and dry months of Jaytth and Asaarr, and infuse new life in nature, and among the living beings, the heart of the woman (human being), who has love for Waheguru with lotus-like soft Feet, begins to bloom in bliss. Her body and mind are imbued with the love of God, and Naam alone is her support in life. She realizes that the enjoyments of Maya are temporary and no more worthy than ash. The really worthy thing is the drop of Naam-Amrit, which can be tasted in the company of the Guru. The limitless Waheguru is omnipotent, and all the forests and vegetation bloom because of Him. My mind also longs to connect with Waheguru, but only His benevolence can do so. I wish to offer my life any time to those friends who have realized Him. I (Nanak) pray to Waheguru that He be kind, and adorn my life with Guru's Shabad, so that I may connect with Him to make my life successful. Women wear necklaces of gold or other precious metals around their neck to look pretty, but the month of Saavun is blissful to those who have the necklace of Waheguru's Naam in their heart. 6.

Word Meaning: Bherm(i) Bhoolaaniya = misled by misbeliefs. Doojaiy = Maya. Hayt(u) = attachment; love. Seegaar = beautification. Kaaruj(i) = useful; helpful. Kayt(u) = nowhere. Dayh = body. Binus-si = will be destroyed. Tit(u) vaylay = at that time. Prayt = belonging to past; dead. Doot Jum = agents of the Angel of death. Bhayt(u) = secret. Khinaiy Maah(i) = in a moment. Murorraiy = twist. Kupay = trembles. Siahou = from black. Sayt(u) = white. Loonaiy = cuts; reaps. Sundrra = of. Khayt(u) = field. Shernaagti = seeking shelter. Bohith = ship; boat. Hayt(u) = love. 7.

MEANING: Those who follow their minds and get attached to Maya in the month of Bhaadon (or any other month for that matter) are misled by their misbeliefs (in the realm of spirituality). No matter how hard they try to look attractive to Waheguru by adorning themselves (by wearing religious garb and performing rituals), it is of no use. (Rather than getting any recognition in Waheguru's Court after death), Their relatives call them "dead" when their soul leaves their body. The agents of the Angel of Death take control, and take them away, and disclose no secret about their destination. All the loved ones leave them alone in a moment (and move away). With the body trembling, the dying individual twists his hands, and his colour changes from dark to white (as if there is no blood there). Human life is like a field; one reaps only what one sows in the form of deeds. I (Nanak), am in the shelter of Waheguru whose "Feet" (Naam) serve as the ship to carry us across the sea of Maya. People who come to Waheguru's shelter (connect with Him) never see hell (in the month of Bhaadon or any other time*)* because the loving Guru becomes their guard. 7.

Prubh vin(u) dooja ko nuhi Nanak Hur(i) shernaayay. Assoo sookhi vusundiyaan jinha muyya Hur(i) Raayay. 8.

Word Meaning: Oomaaharra = zestful; dances. Kiyoun = how. Piyaas = thirst; longing. Ghuni = much. Suhaayee = helpful. Vin(u) = Bin(u) = without. Jaayay = place. Chaakhiya = tasted. Triput(i) = Aaghaayay = fully satisfied; contented. Aap(u) tiyaag(i) = relinquishing selfishness. Lurr(i) Laayay = (please) make your own; provide support. Vichhurr(i) = separate from. Kuteh(i) Na = nowhere. Shernaayay = in the shelter of. Muyya = kindness. 8.

MEANING: (Normally, the month of Assoo (Assun) is very pleasant in Punjab as it is neither hot nor cool yet, and every living being seems to enjoy it). In this pleasant climate, the hearts of devotees begin to feel a zest for the love of Waheguru, and they look for ways to connect with Him. There is a great thirst (longing) in my body and my mind to "see" Waheguru, and I wish that someone could connect me with Him. I know that the holy men would be helpful in my love for Waheguru, so I would better drop on their feet (request them) to connect me with Waheguru, because there is no other place than Waheguru where my mind can find peace. Those who have tasted the essence of Waheguru's love (in His Naam) become fully satisfied and contented. Relinquishing selfishness, we too, should pray to Waheguru that He kindly makes us His own (patronizes us, or connects us with Him). Those women (human brides) who are once connected to Waheguru-Husband never get separated to seek support from anyone else. There is none other than Waheguru (for support). So, I (Nanak) too, have sought the shelter of Waheguru. For those who are kind to Waheguru, the month of Assoo is very delightful. 8.

Word Meaning: Kerm = deeds; rituals. Doash(u) = blame. Na Kahoo = nobody. Viyaapun(i) = happen; attack. Vaymookh = turn face away from (ignore). Vijoag = (pain of) separation. Bhoag = enjoyments. Vich(u) = the role of the middle man. Roaj = personal problems. Likhiya Dhoor(i) Sunjoag = the relation between the body and the character (soul), is written right from the very beginning. Ootreh(i) = go away. Bundi Moach = the destroyer of all bonds. Binseh(i) = are destroyed; come to the end. Soach = worries. 9.

MEANING: (Kutik is a month of rituals for the Hindus. They perform many spiritually worthless rituals which, as you will find soon, are not approved by Guru Sahiban). The deeds you perform in the month of Kutik are worthless, but you cannot blame anyone else for your inability to deliver the expected results, because you invite many troubles by forgetting Waheguru. When one ignores Waheguru, he gets disconnected from Him for many lives (and suffers). Even the enjoyments of Maya, for which one forgets Waheguru, become painful in a moment (due to their loss or other issues). And, the sad thing is, that there is nobody to share the troubles with, as nobody can help. Moreover, one's character is prewritten, and nobody can change that with his own efforts. However, if by good fortune one connects with Waheguru, things can change, and all the troubles caused by disconnection from Waheguru are eradicated. I (Nanak) request You, please save me from the attacks of Maya, oh Waheguru - the terminator of all bonds of Maya (emancipator). If one can join the company of the Guru in the month of Kutik, all his worries are gone. 9.

Word Meaning: Munghir(i) = in the month of Mugghur. Sohundiyaan = look pretty; are successful. Pir = dear; husband. Sung(i) = in the company of. Sobha = praise; level of bliss. Mauliya = bloomed. Suhaylurriyaan = friends (female). Bahhri = without. Jum kaiy vus(i) = under the control of the Angel of death. Raaviya = enjoyed. Nit = everyday; always. Khurriyaan = alert; watchful. Kuntth(i) = around the neck. Baanchhaiy = wishes for; longs for. Dhoorr(i) = dust of the feet. Buhourr(i) = anymore; again. Junumurriyaan = (re) birth. 10.

MEANING: Like a married woman wants to sit with her husband (enjoy his company) in the cold month of Mugghar (Munghir), a human bride (devotee) loves to have the comfort of the company of her Waheguru-Husband in this month. Their praise (fortune) cannot be measured who have been connected with Waheguru. In the company of the holy friends, their body and mind bloom (enjoying the love of Waheguru). But those, who stay away from the company of the holy devotees, remain alone (disconnected from Waheguru). Those who have enjoyed the love of Waheguru are always watchful against Maya's attacks. Rather than a necklace of precious stones like rubies, around their neck for beautification, the devotees have the necklace of the priceless Naam of Waheguru around their neck (heart) (which keeps all the evils away). (Guru) Nanak says that he longs for the dust of the feet of the devotees (a sign of extreme respect) who have taken shelter of Waheguru. If one worships Waheguru in the month of Mugghar, he never takes birth again. 10.

Word Meaning: Tookhaar = extreme cold. Viyaapyee = affects. Naah(u) = Lord; Master. Baydhiya = pierced. Churnaarbind = (Churn +Aarbind) = lotus-like feet. Shah(u) = king; Waheguru. Oat = shelter. Govind, Gopaal, Raayay = all names for Waheguru. Laah(u) = benefit; in the bargain. Bikhiya = poisonous (Maya). Poh(i) Na Sukyee = cannot even touch. Sadhu = Guru. Oopji = came into being. Smaah(u) = Absorbed. Ker(u) = hand. Geh(i) = by holding. Buhourr(i) = again. Bayriaan = times. Agumm = unreachable. Agaahou = unfathomable. Sherm = accepts responsibility. Naraayin = Waheguru. Dur(i) Puyeeahou = shelter seeker. Soohunda= comforting; enjoyable. Bukhshay = to gift. Vaypervaah(u) = indifferent; carefree. 11.

MEANING: Even though the month of Poh (Pokh) is the coldest month in northern India, yet the individuals who have Lord Waheguru's Naam on their tongue do not feel any effect of the extreme cold. Their minds are pierced (stitched) with the lotus-like feet (expression of love and respect) of Waheguru (His Naam), and they long to have a sight of the King – Waheguru. They take the shelter of Waheguru and get to serve the Lord as an added benefit (spiritual wealth). They sing Waheguru's praise in the company of the Guru, as a result of which the poisonous Maya cannot even come near them. Because of their pure love (devotion), they merge into the same Waheguru who instilled that love for Him in them. Waheguru holds them in His hand and connects them to Him so they never get separated again. I wish to sacrifice my life millions of times for Waheguru, who is otherwise unreachable and unfathomable. When an individual seeks Waheguru's shelter with a pure mind, Waheguru accepts His innate responsibility and absorbs the individual in Him, oh Nanak(u). The otherwise cold month of Poh becomes enjoyable for those individuals who are given the Naam by the benevolence of Waheguru, who is indifferent to Maya. 11.

NOTE: Nanak is the common name used by all Guru Sahiban in Guru Granth Sahib, which means that their writings are in complete agreement with Guru Nanak Sahib's philosophy. But Nanak(u) is used for the specific Guru.

Word Meaning: Mujun(u) = bathing. Sung(i) = with. Dhoorri = dust of the feet. Daan(u) = donation. Kerm = deeds. Mohiyaiy = captivates. Binsaiy = is destroyed. Loabh(u) = greed. Sooaan(u) = dog. Maarug(i) = path. Oostut(i) = praise. Utth(i) Sutth(i) = 8+60 = 68 (holy places of the Hindus. Poonn(u) = noble deeds, including donations. Pervaan(u) = approved. Soojaan = wise. Soochay = clean (minded). Kaandhieh(i) = are called.
NOTE: The month of Maagh is considered very holy by Hindus. They consider it a great virtuous deed to take a dip at holy places, especially, Prayag (Allahabad, which is on the confluence of the Rivers Ganga and Jamuna), on the first day of this month, and give donations to Brahmans.
MEANING: (Rather than taking a dip at the so-called holy places), one should take a dip (in Waheguru's Naam-Amrit) in the company of, and in the dust of the feet of holy men (their Shabad; an expression for deep reverence). Recite and listen to Waheguru's Naam, and donate it to others (motivate them to recite the Naam). By taking a dip in the Naam-Amrit, one's filth of misdeeds gathered over many lives is washed away, and one's ego is eradicated. Lust and rage cannot captivate (attract) the devotee, and his dog-like greed is destroyed. The world praises those who follow the path of truth. (The Hindus consider pilgrimage to the sixty-eight holy places as a highly virtuous deed), But taking pity on a needy human being (helping him) is much more acceptable to Waheguru. That individual is really wise who is blessed with virtuous qualities by the benevolence of God. I would love to offer my life to those who are connected with Waheguru, oh Nanak. Those are considered pure (without any vice) in the month of Maagh, to whom God is kind. 12.

Phulgoon(i) nit slaahiyaiy jis nu til(u) na tmaayay. 13.

Word Meaning: Phulgoon(i) = in the month of Phulgoon (or Phuggun). Pergutay = appeared (in heart). Suhayee = helpful. Sayj = bed. Soohaavi = comforting. Jaayay = room. Ichh poonni = the wish has been granted. Vur(u) = husband. Mungul(u) = song of bliss. Allayay = recite. Uver(u) = other; else. Luvaiy = equal; rival. Hult(u) = this world. Pult(u) = the next world. Svaarioon = He adorned (with virtues). Nihchul = stable (eternal). Buhourr(i) = again. Til(u) = (the size of a) sesame seed. Tmaayay = wish; expectation.

MEANING: (if one remembers Waheguru in the first eleven months of the year) then in the twelfth month of Phuggun, Waheguru appears in the heart of the devotee, who begins to feel blissful. It is the supreme devotees of Waheguru who kindly connect individuals with Waheguru. The bed (of the heart) of the devotee becomes a source of comfort, and there are comforts everywhere, and there is no room for discomfort now. The wish of the lucky devotee is fulfilled, and she becomes Waheguru's wife. She sings the blissful song of Waheguru's praise in the company of other devotees, and is convinced that there is none other like Him (who can rival Him). Waheguru adorns (makes successful) both the worlds – the present and the next – for His devotees, and gives them an eternal place in His Mansion (connects them with Him permanently). He protects His devotees from the sea of world (Maya), and they are never born again (as they merge into Him). Waheguru has countless virtues; how can we sing His praise with only one tongue! However, one can find salvation by taking shelter of His Feet (Naam), oh Nanak. In the month of Phuggun, we should always sing praise of Waheguru, who has absolutely no expectation of any kind – not even the size of a sesame seed, oh Nanak. 13.

Word Meaning: Jin(i) jin(i) = whosoever. Kaaj = tasks. Suray = achieved successfully. Khuray = pure (no evil qualities). Nidh(i) = treasure. Bhuoujul(u) = sea of world (Maya). Bikhum(u) = tough. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya. Juray = burns (causes suffering). Koorr = false (short-lived). Doobidha = conflicting situations. Moorut = believed to be an auspicious time. Bhulay = enjoyable. 14.
MEANING: Whosoever recites Waheguru's Naam gets all his tasks completed successfully (achieves the objective of human life). By worshipping the Perfect Waheguru, the devotee is found to have achieved perfect purity of mind in the Court of the eternal Waheguru. Waheguru's Feet (His Naam) are the treasure of all comforts, and one swims across the tough sea of Maya by taking His shelter. He acquires the worship of love (for Waheguru), and the poisonous Maya cannot burn him (cause any suffering). All the false beliefs of the devotees go away, and the conflicting ideas in the mind are cleared, and they acquire complete Truth (Waheguru) now. They serve only Waheguru. For the individual who has Waheguru's kind sight on him, all the days, months, and so believed auspicious occasions, are comforting and blissful. (Guru) Nanak begs a glimpse of Your sight, please be kind and grant my request, oh Waheguru! 14.1.

Word Meaning: Din = day. Raiyn(i) = night. Sayveen = I serve. Aap(u) = selfishness. Tiyaag(i) = relinquish. Vaiyn = words; language. Vichhurriya = separated. Sujjan(u) = Saiyn = (dear) friend. Bhaiyn = oh, sister (friend). Pir = dear; husband. Chaiyn = peace of mind. Khoaj(i) = search. Gaiyn = skies; galaxies. Kmaanaiy = deeds done. Doash(u) = blame. Kahoo = somebody. Khaakoo = dust. Roolna = devalued. Soorjun = God-like; Supreme Being. Naiyn = eyes. 1.
MEANING: I wish to serve my Satguru and recite his Shabad day and night. Overcoming my selfishness, I wish to drop on His feet, talk sweetly with my tongue, and request that He connect me with the real friend – Waheguru - from whom I have been separated for many lives. Those who are disconnected from Waheguru do not enjoy real comfort (bliss), oh my friend! I have searched all the skies (wandered everywhere) for peace of mind, but there is no peace (blissfulness) without dear Waheguru. However, I cannot blame anyone for my separation, because it is the result of my own evil deeds. I beg Waheguru to kindly protect me (from the attractions of Maya so that I may connect with Him) as there is no one else who can do that for me, or make someone else do the same. It is like getting degraded to dust without You, oh Waheguru! There is no one else I can narrate my sad story to. My (Nanak's) request is to "see" You with my own "eyes", oh Waheguru. 1.

Mun(u) tun(u) untar(i) vus(i) ruhay Nanak nuhee shoomaar(u). Din raiyn(I) j(i) prubh kuoun saynvday, tin kaiy sud bulihaar(u). 2.

Word Meaning: Jea = heart. Birtha = condition; problems. Sumruth = omnipotent. Apaar(u) = without any end. Aadhaar(u) = support; basis. Payiyaiy = this world (life). Susooraiy = next world. Kunt = husband. Agumm = unreachable. Agaadh(i) = unfathomable. Bodh = wisdom. Sa = that. Bhaavsi = is liked. Chhaar(u) = dust. Deena = powerless. Nath = Lord; Master. Dayv = source of enlightenment (Guru). Putit = unholy; degraded. Aad(i) = from the very beginning. Joogaad = before the start of the eons. Keemut(i) = worth. Toalunhaar = one who weighs. Shoomaar(u) = limit. 2.

MEANING: Only the omnipotent, unreachable, and omnipresent Waheguru listens to the problems of one's heart. Therefore, He should be worshipped from birth to death (the whole life), which is the basis of all living beings. A woman (human being) who worships Waheguru, who has a big family (the whole humanity), is very high (transcendental), unreachable, unfathomable, omniscient, and limitless, all her life, belongs to the Waheguru-Husband in both worlds. Waheguru likes the service of the devotee who considers himself the dust of the feet (humble and obedient) of Waheguru's supreme devotees. The Lord of the powerless, and the source of enlightenment, Waheguru, is highly compassionate and is the saviour of the downtrodden. Waheguru's eternal Naam protects us, and has been protecting us right from the beginning (of the world). However, nobody knows the real worth (degree) of Waheguru's compassion, and nobody can measure it. Even though He is present in our body and mind, we do not know His limits, oh Nanak. I always offer my life to all those who serve Waheguru day and night. 2.

Word Meaning: Bukhshind = forgiving. Jeao = life. Pind(u) = body. Ditioon(u) = He gave. Munt(u) = mantra. Bhugvunt = lucky. Loacha = wish. Doakh = vices; sins. Hunt(u) = are destroyed. Huriya = blooming life like green vegetation. Junt(u) = living being.

MEANING: The supreme devotees always worship Waheguru, who is forgiving to everybody. Waheguru creates body and mind, and kindly puts life into it. We should worship Waheguru by Guru's Shabad, which is the holy Mantra (to please Him). (But worshipping Waheguru does not mean that one can find His limits). Nobody can find His limits as He is beyond any measurement. Yes, that individual is lucky who embeds Waheguru in his heart. One's wish is fulfilled when the mind is connected with the Lord-Husband. I survive by reciting Waheguru's Naam, which destroys all my vices (sins), oh Nanak. The heart of an individual who does not forget Waheguru day and night blooms with bliss. 3.

Word Meaning: Kula = powers. Poorno = full of. Munj(u) = me; mine. Nimaani = humble; without any ego. Thaaoun = shelter. Oat = support. Guhee = caught; acquired. Jun = supreme devotee. Sung(i) = with. Smaaoun = get absorbed. Oodum(u) = initiative; vivacity. Jaayay = place. Soojhyee = cannot think of. Kookun = pray loudly. Ugiyaan = lack of knowledge (ignorance). Binasun = destroy. Tum = darkness (ignorance). Amaao = immeasurable. Sooaao = objective. Kuliyaana = well-being; comforts. Perseen = I touch. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is complete with all powers (is omnipotent), and I am powerless with no ego at all; He is my shelter. I have taken His shelter in my mind, and survive by reciting His Naam. I pray to Waheguru that He connect me with the Guru, and make me so humble that I should feel like a part of the dust of the Guru's feet (serve Him with full humility). I should be happy and content in whatever situation You put me in, and be happy to eat and wear whatever You provide. Also, it is You who provides me with the inspiration to sing Your praise and to remain absorbed in Your Naam in the company of the Guru. I cannot think of anyone else to whom I may go and loudly narrate my wish. The transcendent (above the effects of Maya), unreachable, and immeasurable Waheguru is the only one who destroys the ignorance and the darkness (of the mind). My (Nanak's) only objective in life is for Waheguru to connect my disconnected mind with Him. All the comforts are achieved on the day (at the time) when I touch the feet of the Guru (get connected with Him). 4.1.

Sloak M:1: Gur(u) daata, Gur(u) hivaiy ghur(u), Gur(u) deepuk(u) tihou loyay. Amar pdaruth Nanaka mun(i) maaniyaiy sookh(u) hoyay.

Word Meaning: Hivaiy = ice; coolness; never gets angry. Tihou loyay = three-layered universe. Amar Pdaruth= immortal invaluable article (Waheguru's Naam)

MEANING: The Guru is the provider, and is a source of peace and calmness (patience). He enlightens the whole universe. Waheguru's Naam is an eternal, invaluable thing, and one acquires all comforts by embedding it in the mind. 1.

(PAGE 138): Aaya guyya mooyiya naaoun. Pichhaiy puttal(i) sudihou kaav. Nanak munmukh(i) undh(u) piyaar(u). Baajh Guru dooba sunsaar(u). 2

Word Meaning: Thun = breasts. Soodh(i) = ability. Bayb = sister. Oopunni = is born. Dhaat(u) = pursuit; interest. Sunj(i) = by accumulating. Oobhay Saah = difficulty in breathing. Dudha = burned. Sigeet = close friends. Dhaah = a very loud cry (a ritual performed by Hindus). Huns = soul. Dusaayay = asks. Puttal(i) = another Hindu ritual in which they distribute some edible items served on big leaves (puttal) of a tree with the misbelief that the food will reach the dead on their way to the next world. Dooba = drowned (in the sea of ignorance or Maya).

MEANING: (The human life can be divided into ten stages). Love for mother's breast milk is the first developmental stage of a child to manhood, and to the end of his life. He acquires the ability to recognize his parents in the second stage and his brothers, their wives, and his own sisters in the third stage of development. In the fourth stage, he begins to love playing. Enjoying food becomes his pursuit (interest) in the fifth stage. In the sixth stage, he is so overwhelmed with lust that he does not even care for the caste (of the girls). Accumulating wealth and establishing his own home is the seventh stage of development. In the eighth stage of development, rage destroys his health. He experiences difficulty in breathing in the ninth stage and is burned to ashes in the tenth stage. Some close friends take him to the cremation ground and make a loud cry. His soul leaves the body and embarks on a journey to the next world. He takes birth, dies, and only his name is left behind after his death. According to Hindu custom, his relatives serve some food on large leaves, believing it will reach the dead person, who will need it on his journey to the next world. However, that food never reaches the dead person, but birds like crows feast on it. The love of the follower-of-his-mind is of pure ignorance, and the world is drowning in the sea of Maya without the Guru, oh Nanak! 2.

Word Meaning: Ruvun(i) = (urge to) enjoy (lust). Pur(u) = compete (peak of life). Pug(u) = foot; step. Khisaiy = recedes; gets weak. Viohaar(u) = routine dealings (self- care). Sihjaasni = bed-ridden. Mool(i) Na = not at all. Apbal = own ability. Dhundolim(u) = search. Ditth(u) = observed; found out. Dhuvulher(u) = white-polished house.

MEANING: The first ten years of a man's life are spent in childhood, while at twenty, a man becomes lustful. At thirty, he is considered handsome, and at forty, he attains the peak of his life. At fifty, his step (ability) begins to slide, and he is considered old at the age of sixty. At seventy, he is considered to have lost his wisdom, and at eighty, he is unable to do even the routine things, including self-care. At ninety, he becomes bedridden and does not recognize his own strength. After searching extensively, I have found that the world is like a white house of smoke (which is not real forever). 3.

Word Meaning: Srisht(i) = world. Oopaarjuna = creation. Bidh(i) = ways. Bhaanti = types; kinds. Toomaati = Yours. Ikk(i) = many. Ootth(i) Jaah(i) = leave the world. Chulooliya = deep (dark) colour. Raati = imbued. Nirunjuno = Waheguru (who is above the darkness of Maya). Bidhaati = writer of fortune. Soojan = noble. 1.

MEANING: The creator of the universe, the omnipresent, and the unreachable Waheguru, created the world all by Himself, which has been created in a variety of colours; in many ways; and has many different kinds of living and non-living entities (mountains, oceans, glaciers, and deserts, etc.). Only Waheguru knows the exact details of the world as it is His sport (drama). Many living beings are born, and many die without acquiring Waheguru's Naam (die in mental suffering). But the devotees of the Guru are imbued deeply in Waheguru's love. We should serve the eternal Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, and is the writer (designer) of our fate. Waheguru is the greatest of all and is omniscient; I am a sacrifice to all those who worship Him with full devotion. 1.

Nanak Gur bin(u) naah(i) put(i), put(i) vin(u) paar(i) na paayay. 1.

Word Meaning: Jeao = soul. Bunut = shape; design. Soorut(i) = (ability) to hear. Smaayay = absorbed; stays. Ttheekur = pieces of a broken earthenware. Ghaarrut = design; structure. Put(i) = respect. Paar(i) = on the other shore of the sea of Maya (salvation). 1.

MEANING: Waheguru created the human body, infused it with life, and gave it a specific shape. He gave eyes for the man to see, a tongue to talk, and the ability to hear with the ears. He gave him feet to walk on, hands to work with, food to eat, and the material to make clothes to wear. However, the blind (ignorant) man does not acknowledge the Creator and performs tasks blindly. When he dies, his body becomes like broken earthenware, which cannot be restored to the original living man. There is no respect (in Waheguru's Court) without taking shelter of the Guru, and one cannot find salvation without that respect, oh Nanak! 1.

Word Meaning: Thaavoun = instead of; rather than. Soorut(I) = ability. Chuturaayi = cleverness. Ta Kee = his. Vukhaaniyaiy = be said; explain. Koondi = directions. Kmaavaiy = deals in; works. Khayl = game; working of the world. Jot(i) = Waheguru's light. Joti = human soul. Siyaaniyaiy = recognize. Sooghurr = Soojaan = wise; noble. 2.

MEANING: A person who appreciates the gifts rather than the provider (God), has his face turned away from the Guru (is really the follower of his mind). What (nothing) can be said about his ability, wisdom and cleverness? He tries to hide his (bad) deeds from the world, but they are known in all four directions (everywhere). An individual who performs virtuous deeds is known as a religious (noble) person, while one who commits sinful deeds is known as a sinner. However, nobody can be blamed for his evil deeds, because that is the way of the Creator – He exhorts individuals to do whatever they do; there is nobody else with such powers. As long as individuals have Your Light inside them, it is You, who speaks in them (guides them), oh Waheguru! Show me if there is someone else to recognize who can do things without Waheguru's Light in him. If one takes Guru's shelter, he will "see" only the "One" wise and noble Waheguru everywhere, oh Nanak. 2.

(PAGE 139): Sobha soort(i) soohaavni jin(i) Hur(i) sayti chit(u) laaya. 2.

Word Meaning: Dhunday Laaya = put to worldly affairs involving Maya. Tthugauli = deceiving agent. Khoovaaya = misled (got interested in Maya). Tishna = appetite for Maya. Ugun(i) = fire; burning desire. Tiptaiy = satisfied. Sehsa = worries. Kerm = rituals. Kool(u) = clan; ancestry.

MEANING: You have created the world Yourself, and put it into the routine business (involving Maya), oh Waheguru. By subjecting people to the captivating worldly attachments, You have misled them and caused the world to suffer (because of their disconnection from You), oh Waheguru. They have burning desires in mind, and their appetite for more and more never gives them satisfaction. The man dies in worries and takes rebirths; his cycle of coming and going continues. The world has exhausted itself in finding satisfaction by performing rituals to overcome its attachments, but the bond of attachments cannot be broken without the Guru. We should recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and we will get the comfort of satisfaction only when Waheguru likes us. The mother who gives birth to the individual liked by Waheguru is worthy of respect; in addition to finding salvation for himself, he also finds salvation for his clan. The wisdom and praise of the individual who connects his mind with Waheguru are great and sweet. 2.

Word Meaning: Baajhoun = without. Jeevut Merna = kill (overcome) worldly desires and connect with Waheguru.

MEANING: Waheguru cannot be seen with these eyes, nor can it be heard with our ears. We cannot walk to Him with these feet and cannot serve Him with our hands. However, we can still connect with Him if we overcome our worldly desires, at which time we can communicate with Him without our tongue, "see" Him without our eyes, and serve Him without our hands. In other words, we can connect with Him by recognizing (obeying) His Huqam. Such living is called dying (killing desires) while still alive. 1.

NOTE: The following holy Sloak further clarifies the meaning.

- ਮ:2॥ ਦਿਸੈ ਸੁਣੀਐ ਜਾਣੀਐ ਸਾਉ ਨ ਪਾਇਆ ਜਾਇ॥ ਰੁਹਲਾ ਟੁੰਡਾ ਅੰਧੁਲਾ ਕਿਉ ਗਲਿ ਲਗੈ ਧਾਇ॥ ਭੈ ਕੇ ਚਰਣ ਕਰ ਭਾਵ ਕੇ ਲੋਇਣ ਸੁਰਤਿ ਕਰੇਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕੁ ਕਹੈ ਸਿਆਣੀਏ ਇਵ ਕੰਤ ਮਿਲਾਵਾ ਹੋਇ॥

M:2: Disaiy sooniyaiy jaaniyaiy, saaou na paaya jaayay. Roohla, toonda, undhula, kiyoun gul(i) luggaiy dhaayay. Bhaiy kay churn, ker bhaav kay, loyin soorut(i) kuray. Nanak(u) kuhaiy siyaaniyay iv Kunt milaava hoyay. 2.

Word Meaning: Saaou = (enjoy) taste. Roohla = lame. Toonda = a person who is missing his one or both hands. Dhaayay = with zest. Bhaiy = fear. Bhaav = respectful love. Loyin = eyes. Soorut(i) = concentration. Kunt = husband. 2.

MEANING: The man sees Waheguru in nature, hears about Him from the devotees and tries to understand, but does not enjoy the taste of His existence. The reason is that he is lame (does not have the kind of feet to walk to Him), has no hands (the kind needed) to serve Him, and is blind (does not have the kind of eyes to see Him). So, how can he hug Him with zest? However, (Guru) Nanak advises that if we use His fear as our feet, respectful love for Him as our hands (to serve Him), and concentrating on His Naam as our eyes, we can connect with our Husband (Waheguru), oh wise person. 2.

Word Meaning: Dooja Khayl(u) = the game of Maya. Gerb = ego. Loabh(u) = greed. Bhaavaiy = like. Ikkna = some. Bukhsheh(i) = forgive Khurray = with alertness. Chaakri = personal tending. Kaar = tasks. Vaykaar = worthless. Klut(u) = wife. Kootumb = family. Alipt(u) = detached. Nirmulay = clean; pure. 3.

MEANING: You are the only eternal Supreme Being in the universe, and You have created the drama (world) of Maya (for the living beings), oh Waheguru! You have injected haumein, ego, and greed into the minds of living beings. You keep them under Your Huqam as You like, and they do exactly whatever You want them to do, oh Waheguru. You forgive (disconnect them from Maya) some of them and make them follow the advice of the Guru. Some of them serve You with alertness (being watchful of the attacks of Maya) and do not like anything other than Your Naam. You have put some in the True business (of reciting Your Naam) to connect with You with Guru's Advice (because all other routine tasks are worthless (in the spiritual world). All relations, including the son, the wife, and the family, are just Maya, but You keep some, whom You like, detached from Maya. They are pure inside and outside (while dealing with the world), and are always imbued in Your Naam. 3.

Sloak M:1: Soyinay kaiy purbat(i) goofa kureen, kaiy paani paiyaal(i). Kaiy vich(i) dherti, kaiy aakaasheen, oordh(i) ruhaan sir(i) bhaar(i). Na hhoun, na mein hoavaan, Nanak Shabad(u) veechaar(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Goofa = cave (some people worship their deity in isolation, like in a cave). Kaiy = or. Puyaal(i) = (of) underworld. Oordh(i) = (suspended) in the middle. Poor(u) = complete; full. Bugga = white. Rutta = red. Pookaar = narrate. Koocheel = filthy = Muldhaari. Doormut(i) = bad advice. Vikaar = vices. 1.

MEANING: (Like some misguided people who believe in self-hardship, and go to some isolated places to worship their deity, or perform some other rituals), if I am able to build and live in a cave in a mountain of gold, or in the waters of the underworld, or suspend myself upside down somewhere in the middle of the sky, or cover myself from head to toe with clothes, wash myself all the time (stay physically clean); or wear red, yellow or black clothes (which are the colours of various sects), or read the Vedas aloud; or stay filthy (like the followers of Jainism) is all ill-advice, and leads to lust and other sensual pleasures. I do not wish any of these. My only wish is that I should have no haumein and selfishness, and should ponder on Guru's Shabad only, oh Nanak 1.

Naamay sookh(i) smaavaiy. 2.

Word Meaning: Vustar = clothes. Pukhaal(i) = wash. Kaaya = body. Sunjum(i) = effort to control sensual pleasures. Jum Jaalay = net of the angel of death. Puraayee = somebody else's. Ghaalay = endures. Smaavaiy = gets into. 2.

MEANING: (To please their deity), some individuals wash their clothes and bodies, and claim that they have control over their sensual pleasures. However, they do not realize that their minds are still filthy, even though they wash their bodies repeatedly by rubbing them well. The blind (ignorant) is completely misguided, and is preparing himself for the net of the Angel of death. He believes that (the life), which actually belongs to someone else (Waheguru), is his, and suffers badly because of his conceit about his body. One can recite Waheguru's Naam effectively only if he first gets rid of his haumein, oh Nanak. One enjoys comfort (bliss) only if one recites Waheguru's Naam and worships Him. 2.

Word Meaning: Kaaya = body. Huns(i) = of soul. Sunjoag(u) = union. Vijoag = separation. Bhoag(u) = luxuries (necessities) of life. Hurkhoun = (from) happiness. Soag(u) = grief. Khupaaya = caused to suffer. Gunut Gunaayay = puts forward his claim of his misunderstood noble deeds. Jhugrra Paaya = becomes argumentative. Nibayrr(u) = final judgment. Na Chulaiy Chullaya = no (cleverness) works.

MEANING: After fixing the union of the body and the soul, Waheguru connects the two, but the Waheguru, which causes the union, also causes the separation of the two. But, not realizing this truth, the foolish man enjoys all the luxuries of life. The comforts that the foolish man enjoys are actually rooted in sins and result in discomfort. Such sinful happiness turns into grief when the soul leaves the body, and the man is subjected to suffering. The foolish claims credit for his misbelieved noble deeds, and becomes argumentative defending his record. (But who listens to his hollow claims? The final judgment rests with Satguru, who decides the fate of the individual. Individual's efforts do not succeed; only Waheguru's Will prevails in the end. 4.

Word Meaning: Koorr(u) = lies. Moordaar = dead body (rights of others). Moottha = robbed; deceived. Saathaiy = companions. Jaapaiy = seems; such is (are).

MEANING: A person who tells lies and usurps the rights of others, but preaches morals to others, is not only himself robbed of noble qualities by the lure of Maya, but causes his associates also to be robbed. Such are our leaders, oh Nanak! 1.

ਮਹਲਾ 4॥ ਜਿਸ ਦੈ ਅੰਦਰਿ ਸਚੁ ਹੈ ਸੋ ਸਚਾ ਨਾਮੁ ਮੁਖਿ ਸਚੁ ਅਲਾਏ॥ ਓਹੁ ਹਰਿ ਮਾਰਗਿ ਆਪਿ ਚਲਦਾ ਹੋਰਨਾ ਨੋ ਹਰਿ ਮਾਰਗਿ ਪਾਏ॥ ਜੇ ਅਗੈ ਤੀਰਥੁ ਹੋਇ ਤਾ ਮਲੁ ਲਹੈ ਛਪੜਿ ਨਾਤੈ ਸਗਵੀ ਮਲੁ ਲਾਏ॥ ਤੀਰਥੁ ਪੂਰਾ ਸਤਿਗੁਰੂ ਜੋ ਅਨਦਿਨੁ ਹਰਿ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮੁ ਧਿਆਏ॥ ਓਹੁ ਆਪਿ ਛੁਟਾ ਕੁਟੰਬ ਸਿਉ ਦੇ ਹਰਿ ਹਰਿ ਨਾਮੁ ਸਭ ਸ੍ਰਿਸਟਿ ਛਡਾਏ॥ ਜਨ ਨਾਨਕ ਤਿਸੁ ਬਲਿਹਾਰਣੈ ਜੋ ਆਪਿ ਜਪੈ ਅਵਰਾ ਨਾਮੁ ਜਪਾਏ॥ 2॥

tis(u) bulihaarnaiy jo aap(i) jupaiy, uveraan Naam(u) jupaayay. 2

Word Meaning: Alayay = utters; speaks. Maarug(i) = path. Teeruth = holy water. Chhuppurr = dirty pond. Sugvi = all. Kootumb = family; associates. Srisht(i) = world. Chhudaayay = gets (them) free from worldly bonds. 2.

MEANING: A man, who bears Waheguru's Naam in his heart, utters His Naam with his tongue, treads the path leading to union with Waheguru (performs noble deeds), and exhorts others to do the same. Most people mistake a dirty pond (an immoral guru) for the holy pool of water (the real Guru), and do not realize that filth (of mind) cannot be washed away in such a dirty pond; it is removed only by taking a dip in the holy pool (Satguru). In fact, a dip in a dirty pool deposits more dirt on the body (mind) of the person taking a dip in there. The Perfect Satguru is the real holy pool because He recites Waheguru's holy Naam day and night. Not only is the Guru and His family free from all bonds of Maya, but He is also capable of freeing the whole world from Maya. I am a slave of Waheguru, and wish to sacrifice my life for all those who recite His Naam, and make others do the same; oh Nanak. 2.

Sacha Shabad(u), Sach(u) mun(i), ghur(i) hee maaheh(i) oodaasa. Nanak Satgur(u) sayvin aapna, say aasa tay niraasa. 5.

Word Meaning: Ikk(i) = some. Kund Mool(u) = vegetables that grow beneath the surface of the ground, like carrots, radishes, and potatoes, etc. Vun Khund(i) = part of a forest. Bhungvaan = orange-yellow. Trishna = burning desires. Chhaadun = clothes. Bhoajun = food. Girhee = family man. Oodaasa = detached from the world. Jumkaal(u) = Angel of death. Tribidh(i) = three-pronged (Maya). Munsa = desire. Ghur = heart.

MEANING: Some people live in some part of a forest (in search of Waheguru), and eat only vegetables that grow beneath the surface of the earth. Some others, like the yogis and the sanyasis, roam about wearing orange-yellow clothes. But whether they belong to one sect or the other, they all have big desires, and wish for good clothes and good food. So, such people are neither family men nor detached from Maya, and thus, they waste away their precious human life. They have desires of Maya, which have three effects, and the Angel of (spiritual) death always keeps an eye on them (watches their deeds). Those who give up their ego and become very humble devotees by taking the Guru's advice never experience spiritual death. They have Waheguru and Guru's eternal Shabad at heart and are detached from Maya while living in the family. They serve their Satguru and free themselves of all desires, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Rutt(u) = blood. Jaama = robe; (dress). Pleet(u) = contemptuously filthy; unholy. Maansaan = of humans. Divaajay = show-offs.

MEANING: If a robe (or clothes) has blood stains on it, it is considered degraded (unholy). So, how can an individual who sucks the blood of other human beings (usurps their rights) be considered clean-minded? (To have a pure heart) One needs to recite Waheguru's Naam with an honest mind; all other deeds (rituals) are a simple show off, and are false.

Nanak undha hoyay kay dusay raahaiy, subhus(u) moohaayay saathaiy. Ugaiy guyya moohay moohay paaheh(i) su aisa aagoo jaapaiy. 2.

Word Meaning: Houn Naahi = I am a non-entity. Bhuriya = loaded (with bad qualities). Boojhaan = realize. Aagoo = leader. Moohayay = get robbed (deprived). Saathaiy = accompanying. Paaheh(i) = beating with shoes. 2.

MEANING: If I am a non-entity, what can I say about myself - that this is what I am, and this is what I am not? All my deeds and my utterings are full of vices, and I keep trying to wash them off. I am a type of leader who does not understand (any morality) himself, but preaches to others. If a blind (ignorant) man (religious leader) leads others on the path (of spirituality), all his companions get (spiritually) robbed, and they suffer, oh Nanak! Such a leader gets a shoe-beating on the face (suffers big humiliation) in Waheguru's Court (and there are many leaders like this). 2.

Jis da jeeo praan(u) haiy, untar(i) Jot(i) Apaara. Sacha Shah(u) ikk(u) Tu, hoar jugut(u) vunjaara. 6.

Word Meaning: Ghurri = 24 minutes. Moorut(i) = auspicious time. Guntaiy = calculations; business-type behaviour (I have done good deeds, so I deserve that). Alukh = inconceivable. Apaara = endless. Sachiyara = bearer of Truth (having noble qualities). Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light. Shaah(u) = King. Vunjaara = trader. 6.

MEANING: You are present in every month, every season, and in every day; so, it is stupidity to worry about particular timings – that this time is auspicious, and that is not, oh, the eternal, incomprehensible, and the limitless Waheguru. Nobody can realize You by keeping a record of his deeds performed at particular times. The educated, who have gluttony, greed, and ego, are the real fools. One ought to read Waheguru's Naam, understand it, and ponder on it in the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru's treasures of worship are always full, but one can earn the Naam-wealth only with the Guru's Advice. One is recognized (honoured) as the bearer of noble qualities in Waheguru's Court only if he has Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his heart. The endless Waheguru, who gives soul, life, and His Light (enlightens our minds) is the True Lord, whereas the rest of the world is only a trader (in noble or ignoble qualities). 6.

Word Meaning: Mehur = compassion; kindness. Museet(i) = mosque. Siduk(u) = faith. Moosulla = rug on which a Muslim offers nivaj. Huq(u) Hulaal(u) = honest living. Sherm = shame (Control on lust). Soonut(i) = circumcision. Seel(u) = patience; politeness. Roja = fasting. Kerni = (noble) deeds. Kaaba = A historical and sacred temple of Muslims in Mecca. Peer(u) = spiritual leader. Kulma = the holy Mantra of the Muslims. Nivaaj = Muslim prayer. Tusbee = rosary. 1.

MEANING: (Guru Nanak Sahib is advising Muslims who have great faith in the Koran, mosque, circumcision, and rosary, etc.) saying that make kindness to others your mosque; faith in Allah the rug on which you sit to offer nivaj; and let honest living be your Koran, oh my Muslim friend. Rather than having a circumcision, have control over lust; let patience and politeness be your fasting during the month of Ramzan – this is how you can be a real Muslim. Let your deeds be Kaaba, the holy Mantra, and the nivaj; and let Allah be your guru. Accepting Allah's Will gladly should serve as your rosary, and He will protect your dignity (you will be honoured in His Court), oh Nanak!

Maarun paah(i) hraam meh(i), hoyay hulaal(u) na jaayay. Nanak gulleen koorryeen koorro pullaiy paayay. 2.

Word Meaning: Huq(u) = rights. Praaya = belonging to others. Soour(u) = pork. Haama = vouch for. Moordaar(u) = dead body (sucking blood of others). Bhisht(i) = paradise. Maarun = spices (clever talk or baseless justification). Huraam = dishonest; immoral. Hulaal(u) = honestly (earned income). Koorryee = false. 2. Koorro = only falseness; bad name. Pullaiy Paayay = acquires.

MEANING: Usurping the rights of others is as evil as (eating) pork for Muslims and (eating) beef for the Hindus. A guru or peer can vouch for an individual only if he does not suck the blood of others. One cannot go to Paradise by simply preaching morality; one finds salvation only by leading an honest and moral life. One cannot change dishonesty into honesty by clever talk. Dishonest talk is baseless and earns a person a bad name. 2.

Kerni kulma aakh(i) kaiy, ta Musalman sudaayay. Nanak jaytay koorriyaar, koorraiy koorri paayayn. 3.

Word Meaning: Nivaajaan = Muslim prayers. Sach(u) = (belief in) Allah. Hulaal(u) = honesty. Khaiyr Khoodaayay = pray to God for the welfare of all. Neeut(i) Raas(i) = noble intentions. Snaayay = praise. Kerni = deeds. Kulma = the basic mantra of the Muslims. Sudaayay = called. Koorryaar = dealers in falsehood (dishonesty). Paayayn = moral strength; trustworthy. 3.

MEANING: Muslims offer five nivajes at five different times of day, each with a different name. (They end up becoming a routine ritual. According to Guru Nanak Sahib, the real nivajes should be like this) - The first one should be a strong belief in Allah, and the second should be honest living. In the third nivaj, a Muslim should pray to Allah for the welfare of all humanity; and the fourth should be based on noble intentions in mind, and finally, the fifth nivaj should be praise of Allah. Noble deeds should be his final Mantra, and that is how he deserves to be called a real Muslim. On the other hand, dishonest dealers are not trustworthy, as they lack moral strength. 3.

Word Meaning: Ruttan Pdaruth = precious articles (noble qualities; Waheguru's Naam). Kuchay = short-livid mundane stuff. Tootthaiy = pleased to be kind. Ruttan = virtues. Ludhiya = found. Bhaunk(i) = complain aloud; cry in vain for help. Doojaiy = Maya. Puch(i) = suffer. Boojhaiy = understand. Ikkus(u) = One (Waheguru). Toojaara = treasures. Bikhiya = poison. Chhaara = ash (worthless). Svaarunhaara = adorns (with virtues). 7.

MEANING: Some people deal in the precious stones (virtuous qualities; Waheguru's Naam) while some others deal in worthless (Maya-related) business. There are treasures full of good qualities in the human mind, but they can be realized only by Satguru's grace. Without the guidance of the Guru, the ignorant blind cry aloud for help to acquire such noble qualities, but are unable to do so. The followers of their mind suffer spiritual death because of their love for Maya, and do not understand the means to spirituality. They do not realize that there is none other than Waheguru to whom they can pray. There are many poor people who loudly complain about a lack of money, while others have treasures full of wealth. However, there is no real wealth without Waheguru's Naam; Maya-related wealth is all worthless, like ashes, in the realm of spirituality. Waheguru does everything Himself and makes people do whatever He wants. He adorns some people with virtues by His Huqam, oh Nanak. 7.

Word meaning: Uvel(i) = first. Oul(i) = of the First (Waheguru). Deen(u) = faith. Mittha = sweet. Muskul = wire brush to remove rust. Maana = like. Moosaavaiy = let be robbed (share wealth with the needy). Moohaanaiy = on the front. Bherm(u) = doubt; misbelief. Rujaayay = Will. Aap(u) = self(ishness). Mihrehmut = kind. 1.

MEANING: It is difficult to be a real Musalman for which one needs some noble qualities as follows: First of all, the Muslim should find the religion of Waheguru (love and equality for all humanity created by Him with no discrimination) to be sweet; and purify his mind of all the filth of discrimination, just like rust is removed with a wire brush. He should also share his wealth with the needy. On the front of new faith, he should clear all his doubts about the religion and the caste of others, and how they lead their life, and what happens to them after death. He should gladly accept the Will of Allah, have faith in His omnipotence, and kill his own ego. Moreover, he should be kind to all humanity; only then can he be called a true Muslim. 1.

Word Meaning: Purhur(i) = relinquish; quit; overcome. Ninda = malicious criticism. Tuj(i) = forego. Kaamini = woman. Unjun = Maya. Nirunjun = Waheguru (above the effects of Maya). Soot = son. Daara = wife. Piyaas = thirst (of Maya). 2.

MEANING: To be one with Waheguru, one needs to overcome his lust, and relinquish his rage, lies, malicious criticism (vilification) of others, love for Maya, and his ego. He also needs to relinquish lust and attachment for other women, only then he can realize Waheguru which is above the effects of Maya. I addition, he should also get rid of false pride, ego, and love for his sons and wife. He should overcome his thirst (desire), and any wishes to acquire worldly materials, and should connect with Waheguru with full dedication. If he does all those things, then Waheguru will come to stay in his heart, and he will always be absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 2.

NOTE: Guru Nanak Sahib had previously advised Muslims in the Shabad. Thinking that people might not assume the advice was meant only for Muslims, Guru Ram Dass Ji clarified that it was equally applicable to Hindus and Sikhs.

Word Meaning: Ruyyiut(i) = subjects; public. Sikdaar = leader. Rehsiyo = will remain. Puttan = city. Dhehsiyo = will be demolished. Bunk = beautiful. Derb(i) = wealth. Reetay = empty. Khunaiy = moment. Taaji = of Arabic origin. Tookhaar = camels. Paakhray = saddle (seat) on an elephant. Sraayaychay = fabric side walls under canopy. Shinaakhut = recognizing. 8.
MEANING: No ruler, no chief, and no subjects will remain here forever. Even the big shops, bazaars and cities will be demolished with His Huqam. The concrete and beautiful gates (buildings), and the treasures full of valuables, which the foolish considers his ownership, will become empty in a moment. Where are the Arabic chariots (horses), camels, and elephants with attractive seats on them, and estates of orchards, and big houses which the foolish once claimed to be his own? And where are the tents with walls of plush, and the beds woven with cotton strips? The only eternal power is Waheguru, which is recognized in its nature, oh Nanak! 8.

Word Meaning: Dhaynvaan = cows. Soomm = springs. Shukkar = raw (unrefined yellow) sugar. Perbut(u) = mountain. Roopa = silver. Heeray = diamonds. Laal = rubies. Jurraaou = inlaid. Bhee = still. Chaao = gusto; enthusiasm. 1.
MEANING: If all the rivers were milking cows (had milk rather than water in them) and if all the springs produced milk and butter-oil, and if all the earth were rich in raw sugar so that I could enjoy life all the time. And if I had mountains of gold and silver with inlays of diamonds and rubies (all these goodies mean nothing to me in comparison to You, oh Waheguru), I would still wish to praise You without ever losing my enthusiasm. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhaar Attharah = all the vegetation. (It is an old belief that if one leaf of each plant, tree, and vine is weighed together, it has a mass of 18 weights. One weight = about 92 kg). Mayva = raisins (fruits). Guroorra = sweet cooked rice, so tasty that it dissolves in the mouth. Nihcul(u) = immovable; permanent.
MEANING: If all the vegetation were fruits which melt in mouth like cooked rice, and if I could control the motion of the moon and the sun, and if I had a permanent (eternal) place to live, I will not care for any of these luxuries, I will still wish to praise You without any decline in my zest, oh Waheguru! 2.

Word Meaning: Dayhaiy = (to) body. Greh = possessed by. Rah(u) = a demon with two bodies – Rah(u) and Kayt(u). Jaapaiy = seems; appears. Bhaao = situation; condition.

MEANING: If my body is suffering in the grip of the two demons – Rahu and Kaytu – and if I were in a situation where blood-sucking kings were always breathing on my neck, (I would not care about such deep troubles), I will still sing Your praise and my enthusiasm will never fade, oh Waheguru!

NOTE: (According to Hindu mythology) Rahu was a demon who participated in the churning of the ocean alongside the gods when Amrit was retrieved, but the gods controlled it. When it was being served, Rahu transformed into a god and managed to take some amrit, after which he became immortal. When Vishnu learned of this deceit, he severed his head. But, because he had become immortal, he reappeared as two demons – Rahu, and Kaytu.

Word Meaning: Ugeen = fire (intense heat). Paala = cold. Mohniyaan = captivating (beauty). Jaao = perishable.

MEANING: If I had intense heat and intense cold as my only clothes to wear, and only air for food, or if I had fairies of paradise with captivating beauty to enjoy, I would not care for such suffering or enjoyment because they are all short-lived. I shall only praise my Waheguru and will never lose my enthusiasm. 4.

NOTE 1: From the above holy Sloaks, it is clear that Guru Nanak Sahib loves Waheguru so much that no worldly luxury or any bodily suffering could lessen His love for Him.

Word Meaning: Budphaiyli = immoral or sinful activities. Gaiybaana = hidden; secretly. Khusum(u) = The Lord (Waheguru). Dayvaana = crazy; lunatic. Kuleh(I) = destructive disagreement. Vaaday = futile discussion. Khupiyaiy = exhaustive arguments. Vaykaar(i) = useless. Bhermaiy = (in) doubts or misbeliefs. Puchiyaiy = useless suffering. Sijhsee = successful. Koofergo = liar; pursuing acts involving Maya. Koofraanaiy = (in) lies; acts of deceit. Dujhsee = will burn (suffer badly). Soob-haan(u) = beautiful; wonderful. Aap(u) = self; selfishness. 9.

MEANING: If a person commits some sinful deeds secretly and believes that God does not know about them, he is a lunatic who does not recognize himself. (Some people believe that debating religious subjects pleases gods), But all such debates are destructive disagreements, and are really bad because there is nothing spiritual, and only suffering in such fruitless arguments. Any discussion without Waheguru's Naam is useless, as one gets only heart - burning in doubts (because opposing views lead to doubts in the mind of the loser about his ability). There are only two choices in life – acting on the Guru's advice and doing noble deeds resulting in union with Waheguru, or indulging in Maya. But only that individual is successful who follows the first choice (obeying Waheguru's Huqam). The individual, who pursues Maya (accumulation of which is based on lies and deceit), suffers badly in this pursuit (because of his immoral acts). The whole world is very attractive, but to connect with God, one has to overcome all worldly attractions and follow the path of Truth (Waheguru's Naam). Only that individual succeeds (becomes acceptable) in Waheguru's Court who overcomes his selfishness (and ego). 9.

Word Meaning: Jeeviya = alive (spiritually). Uver(u) = other. Put(i) = dignity. Huraam(u) = immoral. Rung(u) = love; enjoyment. Nung(u) = shameless. Tthugiya = Moottha = robbed; deceived. 1.

MEANING: Only that person is (spiritually) alive who has embedded Waheguru's Naam in his heart; nobody else is (spiritually) alive. If one does seem to be alive (without Waheguru's Naam at heart), he loses his dignity, and whatever he eats is all immoral. He loves (enjoys) to rule and to have wealth; intoxicated by his power and riches, he becomes shameless in his enjoyment. He is robbed of noble qualities by deceitful Maya, and without Waheguru's Naam, he leaves the world with the loss of his dignity. 1.

Word Meaning: Kiya Hoyay = what is the achievement? Mayva = raisins (fruits). Maida = white flour. Sayj = bed. Sookhaali = comforting. Bhog bilaas = enjoying lust. Lushkur = army. Nayb Khuvaasi = assistants. Toll = things of enjoyment. 2.

MEANING: What does one achieve spiritually by eating well and wearing well if he does not have Waheguru's Naam at his heart? What is the worth of fruit, butter-oil, sweet jaggery (raw sugar), (delicious products made from) white flour, or meat; rich clothes, a comforting bed to enjoy lust, owning armies and assistants, and living in palaces? (They are all spiritually worthless). All these things of enjoyment are short-lived. The permanent joy is in Waheguru's Naam only, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Perkhiyaiy = test. Muhoura = poison. Chukhiyaiy = (if) tasted. Sirkaar = administration (Huqam). Dur(i) = Deebaaniyaiy = (Waheguru's Court). Phoormaani = obey (the Huqam). Kaar = task; duty. Putthaaya = sent. Tubalbaa= musician (of Waheguru); Satguru. Usvaar = riders; controllers of their senses. Saakhti = getting horses ready; getting ready to control the mind. Buddhay Bhaar = burden of sins. Taakhti = running around to earn more wealth. 10.

MEANING: (People take pride in their high caste or status in society), but caste has no power in nature, and can be tested easily. For example, if a person of high caste tastes poison, he too will die. It is Waheguru's Huqam that is prevailing all through the eons, and whosoever obeys His Huqam is acknowledged as the leader (honoured) in Waheguru's Court. The Guru is sent to the world by the Lord to preach that Waheguru's Huqam must be obeyed. This is the path the Guru is preaching aloud for the public to follow. To follow this path, some are already ready (they have controlled their minds), and others are preparing to do so. On the other hand, some have added the burden of their sins, while others are making arrangements to earn more money. 10.

Word Meaning: Pukka = ready to harvest. Pullar(i) = stems of the wheat crop. Vaarr(i) = fence. Sun(u) = including. Keesaar = shells. Chithiya = thrashed; whipped. Kun(u) = wheat grains. Jhaarr(i) = by beating. Poorr = grinding stones of a flour mill (quern). Peesun = grinders. Dur(i) = door; close to the axle. Oobray = survived. 1.

MEANING: When the wheat crop is ready for harvesting, it is cut and swathed, leaving the stubble and the fence behind. Next, it is thrashed and beaten to separate the shells from the grain. Finally, the grinders grind the grain manually in the mill. But the amazing thing to watch is that the grains that stick close to the axle (take shelter under the base support) survive completely. (Similarly, the humans that take the shelter of the base support, Waheguru, escape the punishment of the Angel of death). 1.

Word Meaning: Mittha = sweet (sugarcane). Khoondhaan = crushing mill. Mull = wrestlers; strong men; crushers. Kus = cleaning chemicals. Tuuttar(i) = large wok. Vil-laayay = cries; boils off as if shuddering in pain. Phoag = juiceless remains. Putriyaiy = is shamed.

MEANING: Watch the sweet sugarcane as it is cut, bundled, and punished by strong crushers when it is put through the jaws of the crushing mill to extract the juice. The juice and some cleaning agents are placed in a huge wok and heated vigorously, and it suffers badly, boiling violently as if crying for help. Even the useless residue of the sugarcane is not discarded; it is used to make fire. (Guru) Nanak says, "Watch, oh folks, how the lover of sweetness (sugarcane) is being put to shame!"

NOTE: Sugarcane is punished not because it is sweet, but because it loves sweetness (stores the sweet juice). The same is true of humans who love wealth and other sweet (attractive) things.

Word Meaning: Ikkna = some. Chit(i) = in mind. Ghunayriya = immense. Nit = everyday (always). Kariya = of; belong to. Hayriya = saw; observed. Loon Haraam = unfaithful; ungrateful. Kiya = given (by Waheguru). Budhay = under compulsion. Bhaaniya = liked. Kersun(i) = (they) do. Likhiya Paavsi = in their prewritten fate.

MEANING: Some people have big hopes or wishes (for achievements) in life, and never think of death (as if they are going to live forever). They die (spiritually) and are reborn (have fresh energy to deal in Maya) every day (all the time). They think they are doing the right things. Such money-lovers are watched closely by the Angel of Death. The money-minded people are, in fact, ungrateful because they are not thankful for what they are given by Waheguru, and are never content. Even if they show some respect for God, they are not liked by Him because their respect is not genuine; it is forced, motivated by wanting something in return. However, those who recite Waheguru's Naam and enshrine it in their heart are liked by Waheguru. They bow to the throne of Waheguru and are rewarded with whatever has been pre-written for them. 11.

Word Meaning: Taaroo = deep water in which one must swim to cross it. Paala = coldness. Khoosra = eunuch. Chundun = extract of sandalwood. Dhaat(u) = nature; character. Chauna = herd of cattle. Maarun(i) = spices (chemicals) to enhance quality. Dhuhaiy = wilt down; change into. Vinaas(u) = destructive; rubbish. 1.
MEANING: (Living and non-living bodies have certain characteristics which do not change); for example, water, no matter how deep, can cause no harm to the fish (depth of water is irrelevant to the fish), and so is the vastness of the sky for a bird. Likewise, the degree of coldness does not affect a rock. A eunuch cannot produce children to have a family, and a spray of sandal extract does not change the basic nature of the dog. A deaf person cannot be taught by reciting the Simritis, and a blind person will not be able to see even if fifty (many) lamps are lighted near him. If a herd of cattle is served gold, it will eat only grass. If some chemicals are added to iron, it will not turn into cotton. Like all these non-compatible situations, a foolish person will not change, and will always talk rubbish (unspiritual) (a fool and wisdom are non-compatible), oh, Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Kaiynha = bronze. Saar(u) = iron. Gundh(u) = patch up differences; bind together; fix the problem. Lohaar = blacksmith. Gori = beautiful (wife). Sayti = with. Bhutaar = husband. Pooteen = with sons (children). Kaalaan = famines. Meenh Jhoal = heavy rain. Baydaan = the Vedas. Nayki = kind deeds. Sut(u) = service to mankind. Ait(u) = this. Vertaiy = operates.
MEANING: If a piece of bronze or iron is broken, the blacksmith can patch the pieces up with heat. If a husband breaks up with his wife, children can keep them bonded together in the world. The subjects stay connected with the king by paying taxes. A hungry man needs food to fix the problem, and losses from famines can be repaired if rivers and heavy rains provide water. Love can be won by sweet talk. A man is connected with the Vedas if he speaks truth (the Vedas and truth are related). Dead people maintain a connection with the world if they had done some kind deeds to serve humanity. Such are the connections on which the world operates. A foolish can be fixed (corrected) if he gets beatings on the face (is advised with some force). The gist of all these examples is that one connects with Waheguru only by singing His praise, oh Nanak! 2.

Sachi Durgeh munniun(i) Gur kaiy praym piyaar(i). Gunut tinah dee ko kiya kuray jo aap(i) bukhshay Kartaar(i). 12

Word Meaning: Saaj(i) = create. Khotay = imperfect. Khuray = perfect; pure. Perkhunhaar(u) = examiner. Khujaanaiy = in the treasure (approved). Pookaar = cry for help. Saar(u) = supreme. Gunut = account (of virtues and vices). 12.

MEANING: Waheguru creates the nature (world) Himself, and Himself looks after the living beings. He also evaluates them and finds that some of them are imperfect, while others are perfect (pure). The perfect are deposited in the treasures (become "one" with Him) while the imperfect are thrown out in Waheguru's Court to decide their fate for the future. There is nobody before whom they may cry for help. The best thing to do is to run after Satguru for help. The Satguru adorns their life with His Shabad and transforms them from imperfect to perfect. Because of their love for Satguru, they are approved in the Court of Waheguru. Who else can check the accounts of their deeds when Waheguru has already forgiven them? 12.

Word Meaning: Aap(u) guvaayay = get rid of selfishness. Puchhaaniya = recognized; made a connection with. Nishaaniya = symbol; recognition. Smaaniya = merge into.

Koorriyaar = dealers in false (perishable) materials. Bherm(i) = in doubt. Vishta = feces (Maya). Paarukh(u) = evaluator.

MEANING: Your Huqam is eternal, but can be realized in the shelter of the Guru only, oh Waheguru. One can realize (connect with) You only when one gets rid of their selfishness. Your kingdom is eternal, and Guru's Shabad is Your recognition (how You are realized). One can merge into (become "one" with) You by pondering (acting) on the eternal Shabad of the Guru. The followers of their mind are always in the falsehood (Maya), and are lost in doubts (indecisiveness). Being engaged in Maya, they cannot enjoy the taste of Your Naam. They suffer badly without Waheguru's Naam, and continue in the cycle of rebirths. Waheguru Himself is the evaluator who can tell the impure apart from the pure, oh Nanak! 13.

Word Meaning: Sheenh = lion. Baaj = hawk. Churg and Koohee = are both birds of prey. Raah = path; way; law. Tibbay = mounds. Thuleen = on the land. Usgaah = sea. Keerra = worm (a powerless, humble man). Paatshaahi = kingdom. Lushkur = armies. Sooaah = ash; dust. Asaah = without breath. Girah = bites of food. 1.

MEANING: (Waheguru is omnipotent and does some unbelievable things). For example, lions, hawks, churgs and koohees, are all carnivores, but if Waheguru wants, He can force such animals to eat grass; and on the other hand, He can force the vegetarian animals to eat meat. Such are the ways of God. He can create mounds (small islands) in rivers and seas on the land. If He so chooses, He can enable a powerless and humble man to become a king who can destroy large armies to dust. All living beings live by breathing, but if He wishes, then even breathing is not necessary (He can keep a living being alive without breath). Word Meaning: Maas-haari = carnivores; predators. Trin(u) = grass. Chhuteeh Amrit = thirty-six delicious foods. Paun Shoomaari = surviving on air; practising yoga who can hold their breath for a long time. Nirunkaari = connected with Waheguru. Aadhaar(i) = based on; food. Mootthay = robbed; cheated. 2.

MEANING: (Waheguru has created) some animals to be carnivores, while others to be vegetarians. He bestows some with the thirty-six delicious foods, while some living in mud live on (survive on) mud (like earthworms). Vegetation and some Yogis survive only on air for a long time, and some, who are connected with God, do not need to eat for long times, and survive only on His Naam. Word Meaning: Kaar = task; service. Kerm(i) = by the kindness (of the Guru). Aap(u) Guvaayay = eradicate selfishness. Dooji Kaaraiy = in the business of Maya. Vis(u) = poison. Paiyjhaiy = wearing clothes. Nivaas(u) = living. Khoti = impure. Raas(i) = investment. Koorr(u) = false; perishable. Khura = pure. Salaah(i) = sing praise. Put(i) = dignity. 14.

MEANING: It is only by the benevolence of Waheguru that one gets to serve the Perfect Guru. One can recite Waheguru's Naam only if one gets rid of one's selfishness by acting on the Guru's advice. On the other hand, if one serves Maya (deals in affairs based on Maya), he wastes away his precious human life. Wearing and eating rich foods is all poison without Waheguru's Naam. One can merge into the eternal Waheguru by singing His praise by the eternal Shabad of the Guru. One cannot have peaceful living without serving the Guru (acting on His advice), and continues to be reborn again and again. Dealing in worldly affairs is not the true investment (in the realm of spirituality), as we deal in perishable goods only. If we sing praise of the Pure Waheguru, we will leave this world with honour, oh Nanak. 14.

Word Meaning: Toodh(u) = You. Bhaavaiy = like. Vaaveh(i) = play musical instruments. Bibhoota = cover body with ash. Singi = a kind of trumpet. Kutaybaan = religious books of the West – Bible, Koran, Torah etc. Sheikh = a learned Muslim. Rus Kus = delicious foods. Tayg = sword. Vugaaveh(i) = operate valiantly. Moondi = head; neck. Daysuntar(i) = foreign lands. Soon Gullan = learning the reality. Ruchaaveh(i) = get interested (in Naam). 1.

MEANING: It is all with Your Will that the man plays musical instruments, sings praise of some deity, or bathes (in holy waters to please gods), oh Waheguru! If You wish, he covers his body with ashes and plays the trumpet, as the yogis do. If You wish, he reads the holy books of Western religions and declares himself a mullah (a Muslim priest) or a learned man. I have only one request: that, other than Waheguru's Naam, everything else (no matter how much respect a man earns in society) is false, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:1॥ ਜਾ ਤੂ ਵਡਾ ਸਭਿ ਵਡਿਆਈਆ ਚੰਗੈ ਚੰਗਾ ਹੋਈ॥ ਜਾ ਤੂ ਸਚਾ ਤਾ ਸਭੁ ਕੋ ਸਚਾ ਕੂੜਾ ਕੋਇ ਨ ਕੋਈ॥ ਆਖਨੁ ਵੇਖਨੁ ਬੋਲਨੁ ਚਲਨੁ ਜੀਵਨੁ ਮਰਣਾ ਧਾਤੁ॥ ਹੁਕਮੁ ਸਾਜਿ ਹੁਕਮੈ ਵਿਚਿ ਰਖੈ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਚਾ ਆਪਿ॥2॥

M:1: Ja Tu vudda, subh(i) vudiyaayiyaan, chungaiy chunga hoyee. Ja Tu Sacha, ta subh(u) ko sacha, koorra koyay na koyee. Aakhun(u), vaykhun(u), boalun(u), chullun(u), jeevun(u) merna dhaat(u). Huqam saaj(i) Huqamaiy vich(i) rukhaiy, Nanak Sacha Aap(i). 2.

Word Meaning: Ja = if; when. Vudda = great. Koorra Koyay Na = not false at all. Dhaat(u) = character; nature. 2.

MEANING: When You are great, everything done by You is also great because a noble power will do only noble things, oh Waheguru! When Your existence is real, Your creation is also real, and no one's existence is false (as some people claim that the world is only a dream, and not for real). However, Your created nature (Maya) is so attractive that man's talking, seeing, speaking, and walking are all about Maya, which causes him to take birth and to die again, and again. Only God is eternal, and everything else is created by Him in His Huqam, and is controlled by Him, oh Nanak.2.

Sachaiy undar(i) Mehl(u), Sach(i) boolaayiyaiy. Nanak Sach(u) Sachiyaar(u), Sach(i) smaayiyaiy. 15.

Word Meaning: Nisung = without any reservation. Bherm(u) = doubt. Kaar = service. Duyaal(u) = kind. Koorr(u) = falsehood. Goobaar = darkness; ignorance. Chuvaayiyaiy = speak; tell. Sach(u) = eternal (Waheguru). Sachiyaar(u) = bearer of truth; just. 15.

MEANING: If we serve Satguru without any reservation (with full dedication), all our doubts are cleared. We should serve the Guru (obey His advice) in whatever way He tells us to do. One recites Waheguru's Naam when the Satguru is kind. By seeking Satguru's shelter, one earns the supreme benefit (wealth) of Waheguru's worship. The followers of their mind are in deep darkness of falsehood (the perishability of things), and that is what they earn. If one recites the Naam of the eternal Waheguru, he is able to have access to His door (connects with Him), and because of the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, he is invited inside Waheguru's Palace (he merges into Him). Waheguru is always just, and one merges into Him by reciting His Naam, oh Nanak.15.

Word Meaning: Kul(i) = Kulyug = the dark (unjust) world. Kaati = knife. Kasaayi = butcher. Dherm(u) = morality. Punkh = wings. Koorr(u) = lies; dishonesty. Amaavus = new moon (darkness). Keh = where. Bhaal(i) = search. Vikoonni = bewildered; frustrated. Bidh(i) = means; ways. Gut(i) = improved fate; higher spiritual state.

MEANING: The darkness (of injustice) in the world is acting like a knife, and the rulers are the butchers (who suck the blood of people). It seems as if morality has flown away from the world. The darkness of lies and dishonesty is everywhere, and the moon (light) of truth is nowhere to be seen. I am frustrated searching for honesty and morality, and can see no way out in the darkness. People's selfishness and ego are also causing suffering. What means can one use to improve their fate, oh Nanak? 1.

Word Meaning: Keerut(i) = praise (of Waheguru). Pergut(u) = visible; powerful. Ootraiy Paar(i) = swims across the sea of Maya; salvation. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Ruttan = precious, like jewels (Waheguru's Naam). 2.

MEANING: In the dark world, praise of Waheguru is the clear (powerful) source of light. (However, not everybody takes advantage of this light), And some rare individual comes to the Guru's Shelter to achieve salvation. Only those lucky individuals avail of this opportunity to whom Waheguru is kind; they receive the invaluable Naam in Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sunsaari = family men. Joarr(u) = friendship; compatibility; similarity of views. Ubhooll(u) = infallible. Khooyaayiun = misled to suffer. Koorr(u) = lies. Bikh(u) = poison. Saar = value. Vis(u) = poison. Chaakri = slavery. Dass = personal attendant. Oojlay = shiny; respectable. 16.

MEANING: Waheguru is infallible and cannot be misled by anyone. His devotees obey His Will (and do not indulge in Maya), while the family men love Maya. Therefore, the family men and the devotees of Waheguru do not share the same views. Waheguru connects His devotees who practise Truth, and only Truth, with Him, while He purposely misleads the family men to indulge in Maya; they lie (act dishonestly) to earn more and more wealth, (as a result of which they suffer). They do not recognize the value of spirituality and get more and more involved in lust and rage. The devotees, on the other hand, serve Waheguru by reciting His Naam day and night. By being humble and slaves of Waheguru's slaves (devotees), they get rid of their ego and selfishness. They are decorated with Guru's eternal Shabad, and are honoured in the Court of the Lord, Waheguru. 16.

Word Meaning: Sbhaahi = early morning. Shah = kings. Vukhtaiy = at the right time. Lurr(i) Mooyay = kill selfishness fighting against desires. Muti = thoughts. Khindiyaan = scattered. Usgaah = sea (of world); worries. Goatay = submerge. Girah = bites of food. Bhaunkiyaan = complain loudly. Sooah = dust; waste. Bhee = again. Oongh = urge to sleep. Puvaar(i) = next world; as if dead. Ruchiyon Vaad(u) = engage in worthless discussions. Pirr budhi = built the ring; guaranteed to live. Uttheen Pehreen = 24 hours. Bhuou = fear (of God). Naavun(u) = bath.

MEANING: Only those are the real kings who rise early in the morning to recite Waheguru's Naam with full concentration, and fight against their sensual desires to overcome them at the right time (in the first quarter of the day). In the second quarter of the day, the mind begins to think on many fronts, and the thoughts get scattered in worldly affairs. The man is submerged in the sea of Maya and cannot escape his worries. In the third quarter, appetite and thirst begin to complain aloud, and the man puts food in his mouth. In due time, the eaten food becomes waste, and one feels the need for food again. In the last quarter, the man feels the urge to go to sleep, and he looks like a dead body when he shuts his eyes. When he wakes up, he gets into arguments with others on petty matters as if he were guaranteed to live for centuries. All times are auspicious if one has fear of God, all twenty-four hours. Embedding Waheguru's Naam in the heart is the real dip in holy waters, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:2॥ ਸੇਈ ਪੂਰੇ ਸਾਹ ਜਿਨੀ ਪੂਰਾ ਪਾਇਆ॥ ਅਠੀ ਵੇਪਰਵਾਹ ਰਹਨਿ ਇਕਤੈ ਰੰਗਿ॥ ਦਰਸਨਿ ਰੂਪਿ ਅਥਾਹ ਵਿਰਲੇ ਪਾਈਅਹਿ॥ ਕਰਮਿ ਪੂਰੈ ਪੂਰਾ ਗੁਰੂ ਪੂਰਾ ਜਾ ਕਾ ਬੋਲੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਪੂਰਾ ਜੇ ਕਰੇ ਘਟੈ ਨਾਹੀ ਤੋਲੁ॥ 2॥

M:2: Sayee pooray shah, jinhi Poora paaya. Uttheen vaypervaah, rehn(i) Ikutaiy rung(i). Dershun(i) roop(i) uthaah, virlay paayeeh(i). Kerm(i) pooraiy, Poora Guru, poora ja ka Boal(u). Nanak Poora jay kuray, ghutay naahi toal(u). 2.

Word Meaning: Shah = kings. Poora = perfect (Waheguru). Uttheen = 8 pehr = 24 hours. Vaypervaah = care free; idifferent. Ikutaiy Rung(i) = in the love of only One (God). Athaah = unlimited. Virlay = rare. Kerm(i) = by kindness. Boal(u) = Shabad; Huqam. Toal(u) = measurement.

MEANING: Those who realize the Perfect (Waheguru) are the real kings. They are indifferent to the world and remain imbued in the love of only "One" (Waheguru) all twenty-four hours. Only a rare few get to see (the Waheguru), which is of immense beauty. The Perfect Guru with the Perfect Shabad can be realized only with the benevolence of Waheguru. If the Guru makes an individual perfect, his qualifications for being "one" with Waheguru never fall short, oh Nanak. 2.

Luyyiun khuray perkh(i), Dur(i) Beenaayiyaiy. Sauda Ikutt(u) hut(i), Pooraiy Gur(i) paayiyaiy. 17.

Word Meaning: Ja = when; if. Mootthi = deceived; robbed of noble qualities. Dhundaiy = worldly affairs. Choar = thief Mehl(u) = (Waheguru's) residence. Chit(i) Kutthoar (i) = with heart of stone. Ghut = heart. Bhunn(i) Ghurraayiyaiy = beaten (melted) to redesign; rebirth. Pooraiy Vutt(i) = standard weight (requirements). Beenaayiyaiy= (Waheguru's kind) sight. Sauda = merchandise (Waheguru's Naam). Ikutt(u) Hut(i) = at only One Shop (Satguru's). 17.

MEANING: When I sing praise of Waheguru alone, nobody else matters to me. The thief of Maya (worldly attractions) robs the man of good qualities, as a result of which he cannot have access to (Waheguru's) Palace. All the services (rituals and some accepted noble deeds) of a man who has a stone-like hard heart (which never softens) are worthless (not recognized by Waheguru). The heart, which never remembers Waheguru, is melted down and redesigned (recycled through rebirths). So, how can one acquire the qualities needed to meet the requirements to be "one" with God? Nobody will tell you that there is some qualification lower than the total eradication of haumein to be "one" with Waheguru. (Eradication of haumein is the minimum qualification). The pure (who have overcome their haumein) are tested (approved) by the kind sight of Waheguru. But the medication to eradicate Haumein (Waheguru's Naam) is available only in Satguru's shop, and can be acquired only through Him. 17.

Sloak M:2: Uttheen pehreen utth khund, naavaan khund(u) sreer(u). Tis(u) vich(i) nuoun nidh(i) Naam(u) Aik(u), bhaaleh(i) gooni guheer. Kermvunteen salaahiya Nanak kur(i) Gur(u) Peer(u). Oathaiy paap(u) poonn(u) beechaariyaiy koorraiy ghutaiy raas(i). Oathaiy khotay suttieh(i) khuray keecheh(i) shabaash(i). Boalun(u) faadul(u) Nanaka, dookh(u) sookh(u) Khusmaiy paas(i).

Word Meaning: Utth(u) Pehr = 24 hours. Khund = region. Nau Nidh(i) = nine mythical treasures. Bhaaleh(i) = searches. Gooni = possessing good qualities. Guheer = very deep. Kermvunteen = blessed. Subah = early morning. Soortiyaan = meditators. Chaaou = zest; enthusiasm. Kermi = fortunate. Pusaaou = benevolence. Kunchan = gold. Kaaya = body. Kussiyaiy = examined and refined. Sraaf = goldsmith (Waheguru). Taaou = heat. Raas(i) = capital. Shabaash(i) = praise; bravo. Faadul = useless. 1.

MEANING: If we think of the earth as divided into eight regions rather than the accepted nine, and think of the human body as the ninth region, then the human mind keeps looking for the comforts of all the eight regions of the earth all the time. Only a few lucky ones take Guru's shelter to praise Waheguru, which is fathomless, and is the source of all the virtues, to search for His Naam, which is invaluable and is like all the nine mythical treasures, in his body. In the early hours of the morning, the meditators (on Waheguru's Naam) feel zestful and look for a quiet place to focus on Waheguru's Naam and recite it with their mind and body. They share Guru's Naam-Amrit with others, and the fortunate receive (acquire) it. Just like gold is treated with heat and refined to purify it, the human mind is purified by Waheguru's Naam. Just like the goldsmith does not heat the purified gold anymore, Waheguru's devotees do not have to suffer anymore if Waheguru casts a kind sight on them. If an individual spends the rest of his time in the company of enlightened devotees, it is very helpful in boosting his morality (spirituality). In such a holy company, sins and noble deeds are discussed, thereby lowering the interest in the false worldly affairs. The impurities are shed, and the noble qualities are fostered there. It is useless to complain to the Lord because He has all the accounts of our comforts and discomforts, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:2॥ ਪਉਣੁ ਗੁਰੂ ਪਾਣੀ ਪਿਤਾ ਮਾਤਾ ਧਰਤਿ ਮਹਤੁ॥ ਦਿਨਸੁ ਰਾਤਿ ਦੁਇ ਦਾਈ ਦਾਇਆ ਖੇਲੈ ਸਗਲ ਜਗਤੁ॥ ਚੰਗਿਆਈਆ ਬੁਰਿਆਈਆ ਵਾਚੇ ਧਰਮੁ ਹਦੂਰਿ॥ ਕਰਮੀ ਆਪੋ ਆਪਣੀ ਕੇ ਨੇੜੈ ਕੇ ਦੂਰਿ॥ ਜਿਨੀ ਨਾਮੁ ਧਿਆਇਆ ਗਏ ਮਸਕਤਿ ਘਾਲਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਤੇ ਮੁਖ ਉਜਲੇ ਹੋਰ ਕੇਤੀ ਛੁਟੀ ਨਾਲਿ॥2॥

Word Meaning: Mehut(u) = great. Daayee Daaya = nannies. Vaachay = studies; evaluates. Hudoor(i) = in attendance. Kay = some. Mushukut(i) = Ghaal(i) = hard work. Oojlay = shiny; are honoured. Chhootti = are salvaged. 2.
MEANING: Air is the guru for the living beings because just as the Guru purifies our mind, the air purifies our carbon dioxide-carrying blood. Water acts like a father, nourishing us, and the earth is like our mother, as everything grows from it. The Angel of justice watches the account of noble and ignoble qualities in the presence of Waheguru (in reality, Waheguru Himself is the judge). Based on their deeds, some are close to Waheguru while others are farther from Him. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam with dedication get rewarded for their hard work. Their faces shine (are honoured in Waheguru's Court) and many of their associates are also salvaged, oh Nanak. 2.
NOTE: for a more detailed discussion of this holy Shabad, please study the meaning of this Sloak at the end of Jup(u) Ji in Volume 1.

Word Meaning: Bhojun = meal. Bhaaou = respectful love. Putiyaayaiy = please; win over. Vigsiya = blooms. Koat(i) = (in the) fort. Giraayay = (in) village. Tootthaiy = pleased to be kind. Rehsiya = feels blissful. Deebaan(i) = court. Koorr(i) = with falseness. Vukhaan = describe. Su = they. Neeshaan(i) = identity; approval. Tthaak = hurdles. Boojh(i) = unlock the secret; internalize. Khooyayiyaiy = suffer.
MEANING: The Satguru has revealed that respectful love (for Waheguru) is the real meal (for the mind). The mind blooms when it comes to like Waheguru. The real fort or village for Waheguru to reside is the human mind, where He comes to dwell when an individual loves Him. When Satguru is pleased to be kind to someone, his mind begins to bloom with the love of Waheguru's Naam. We cannot have access to Waheguru's Palace with falseness (with love for Maya). Those who tell lies suffer in His Court. With Guru's eternal Shabad as the identity of approval, no one can erect any hurdles in the path of the individual to his union with Waheguru. Those who listen to Waheguru's Naam, internalize it, and recite it, are invited inside Waheguru's Palace (to become "one" with Him). 18.

Word Meaning: Hivaiy = ice. Saar(u) = iron. Haak = command. Taraaji = weighing scale. Umbar(u) = sky. Tunk(u) = a very small weight to weigh gold. Vudhaan = become huge. Maavaan = to be contained. Nuth(i) = put a string through the nose of any animal to control it. Kuraayeen = order others. Daateen = largesse. Rujaayee = Lord of Will (Waheguru). 1.
MEANING: If I am able (have the power) to wear fire while living in a house of ice, and be able to eat only iron as my meal; and if I am able to drink all my troubles like water (enjoy them), and could move the earth by my command; and if I have the ability to put the whole sky in one pan of the scale and balance it with an extremely small weight in the other; and if I increase my size to be so huge that there is no place to contain me; and if I am able to control everybody like a domestic animal which is controlled by a rope through his nose; and if I have the power to force people to do whatever I wish them to do (they will all be meaningless for me) because the True King is Waheguru whose largesse are as large as He Himself is. The real honour lies in His Naam, which is acquired only by those to whom He is kind, oh Nanak! 1.

Word Meaning: Aakhun(u) = mouth. Rujjiya = satisfied; tired. Gaahuk = customer. Vunn = kind. Gooni = the Lord of virtues (God). 2.
MEANING: The mouth never gets tired of talking about others, and the ears never get tired of listening to the back-biting of others or filthy songs. The eyes never get tired of seeing the beauty. Each of these three is a customer (deal with) of only one kind of trait (even with a single trait, they are never satisfied) (So, how can a man) with a big appetite (with many desires) be satisfied just by talking? The only way to get contentment is to sing praise of the source of virtues (Waheguru), thereby becoming a part of Him, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Vin(u) = without. Koorr(u) = falseness. Bunn(i) = bound; shackled. Chhaar(u) = dust. Paiyjhaiy = wear. Khooyayiyaiy = made to suffer. Tthuggiyo = is cheated. Thugg(i) = the cheat (Maya). Trishna = desires. 19.
MEANING: Without Waheguru's Naam, whatever we deal in, is all false (short-lived Maya). Without Waheguru's Naam, the dealers in Maya are shackled and taken away. Without Waheguru's Naam in it, human body is just dust, and eventually mixes with dust (without any gain in spirituality). Without Waheguru's Naam, nothing that we wear and eat, satisfies our mental appetite (desires). Without Waheguru's Naam, and with love for worldly attractions, we cannot have access to Waheguru's Court. With greed for Maya, we suffer in Waheguru's Court. The whole world has been cheated by the thug, Maya, as a result of which the world is reborn again and again. The fire of desires in the body can be put out only by the Guru's Shabad. 19

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:1॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਗੁਰੁ ਸੰਤੋਖੁ ਰੁਖੁ ਧਰਮੁ ਫੁਲੁ ਫਲ ਗਿਆਨੁ॥ ਰਸਿ ਰਸਿਆ ਹਰਿਆ ਸਦਾ ਪਕੈ ਕਰਮਿ ਧਿਆਨਿ॥ ਪਤਿ ਕੇ ਸਾਦ ਖਾਦਾ ਲਹੈ ਦਾਨਾ ਕੈ ਸਿਰਿ ਦਾਨੁ॥ 1॥

Sloak M:1: Nanak Gur(u) suntokh(u) rookkh(u, dherm(u) phooll(u) ful Giyan. Rus(i) rusiya huriya suda, pukkaiy kerm(i) dhiyaan. Put(i) kay saad khaanda luhaiy, daana kaiy sir(i) daan(u). 1.

Word Meaning: Suntokh(u) = patience; contentment. Rookkh(u) = tree. Dherm(u) = high morality; virtues. Giyaan(u) = Divine knowledge (union with Waheguru). Rusiya = full of juice (sweetness). Huriya suda = evergreen; bears fruit all the time. Pukkaiy = ripens. Kerm(i) = kindness; favour. Put(i) = of the Lord (Waheguru). 1.

MEANING: The Guru is like a tree of contentment which bears flowers of virtues and fruit of Divine Knowledge, oh Nanak. He is an evergreen (always bears fruit) and full of sweetness. The fruit (of Divine Knowledge) ripens when, with the benevolence of the Guru, a devotee focuses his mind on Waheguru with full dedication. Such a devotee enjoys the bliss of union with Waheguru, which is the supreme donation (gift) of all, from the Guru. 1.

Word Meaning: Birkh(u) = tree. Pervaala= pinkish-red precious stone. Jvayhur = pearls. Laal = rubies. Ruttan = jewels. Mookh(i) Bhaakhit = words (of the Guru). Nihaal(u) = blessed. Kerm(u) = benevolence. Visaykh(u) = special. Huns(u) = cruelty. Hayt(u) = attachment. Lobh(u) = greed. Koap(u) = rage. Dujheh(i) = burn.

MEANING: The Guru is like a tree which has leaves of precious pinkish-red stone (His Word), and flowers of jewels and rubies (Guru's advice), and which bears fruit of pearls (Guru's invaluable Message). The Guru is always cheerful (in high spirits). If a devotee has good fortune written on his forehead, and with the Guru's benevolence, he worships the Guru's Feet (His Word), treating them more holy than even the sixty-eight holy places. Cruelty, worldly attachment, greed, and rage are like four streams of fire; whosoever falls into them is burned (involvement in them causes severe suffering), but those are lucky who take Guru Guru's shelter and swim across the world sea safely (are salvaged). 2.

Gur persaadi boojh(i) Sach(i) smaayiyaiy. 20.

Word Meaning: Mur(u) = death. Puchhotayiyaiy = repent. Kin(i) = some rare. Dhundhaiy Dhaayiyaiy = rushes to do daily business (earn maya). Kaal(u) = death. Khaiy = destroyer. Jundaar = unkind. Daayiyaiy = catches unaware. Mohut(u) = Chusa = moment. Vilm = delay. Bhuriyaiy paayiyaiy = when the time is over.

NOTE: In those days, time was measured by means of a simple device called a pie, which was a metal bowl with holes in it. It was placed on the surface of water in a container, where water would enter the bowl through the holes. As soon as the bowl would sink, it would indicate one Ghurri (24 minutes).

MEANING: If a person can kill the fear of death (by overcoming his desires), he does not have to repent (for his noble deeds which do not earn him any money, though). Some rare individuals realize that this world is not real in the long run. Not realizing this reality, most people do not develop love for Waheguru and rush to their daily tasks rooted in Maya. But the destructive death is hanging over the heads of the world. With Waheguru's Huqam, the unkind Angel of death kills the people unaware. However, Waheguru bestows some people with love for Him who embeds His Naam in their minds. But there is no delay in death when the time is over. With Guru's kindness, those who realize the reality merge into Waheguru. 20.

ਸਲੋਕੁ ਮ:1॥ ਤੁਮੀ ਤੁਮਾ ਵਿਸੁ ਅਕੁ ਧਤੂਰਾ ਨਿਮੁ ਫਲੁ॥ ਮਨਿ ਮੁਖਿ ਵਸਹਿ ਤਿਸੁ ਜਿਸੁ ਤੂ ਚਿਤਿ ਨ ਆਵਹੀ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਕਹੀਐ ਕਿਸੁ ਹੰਢਨਿ ਕਰਮਾ ਬਾਹਰੇ॥ 1॥

Word Meaning: Toomi = Tooma = an extremely bitter fruit which resembles a cantaloupe in colour and shape, but much smaller in size. Vish(u) = poison. Ukk(u) = another bitter plant (Calotropis procera). Dhutoora = thorn-apple (a bitter and poisonous plant). Nimm ful = fruit of the neem tree (very bitter in taste). Vuseh(i) = dwells. Hundhun(i) = spend life (aimlessly). Kerma Baahray = deprived of benevolence.

MEANING: Tooma, ukk(u), thorn-apple, and the neem fruit are well known to be extremely bitter and poisonous; however, still bitter and poisonous are the words and the thoughts of an individual who does not have Your Naam in heart, oh Waheguru! To whom should one describe the situation of such unlucky people who spend their life aimlessly without the benevolence of Waheguru (without His Naam), oh Nanak! (There is none other than Waheguru who can improve their lot). 1.

(PAGE 148): Kub chundan(i), ukk(i) daal(i), kub oochi preet(i). Nanak Huqam(i) chulaayiyaiy Sahib luggi reet(i). 2.

Word Meaning: Punkhayroo = bird. Kirt(u) = the performed deeds. Kub = sometimes. Ootum = flying high. Neech = feeling depressed. Ukk(i) = calotropis procera (a poisonous plant which has an awful smell). Daal(i) = branch. Reet(i) = custom; tradition.
MEANING: Man's past deeds shape his thinking, and his thoughts wander in different directions like a bird. As a result, sometimes a man's thoughts fly very high (he is in high spirits) while at other times he feels depressed. Sometimes his bird-like mind feels as if he is sitting on a branch of a sandal tree (feeling blissful), while at other times he feels as if he is sitting on the branch of a very bitter ukk plant. Sometimes he feels a strong love for God. (But nobody controls his own destiny) Everything happens with Waheguru's Huqam; such is the custom (laws) of God. 2.

Word Meaning: Kaytay = countless. Vukhaan = explain. Bhayd(u) = secret. Boojhiyain = realizing (connecting with Him). Khut Dershun = the six accepted types of mystics: Yogis, Sanyasis, Jains, Bairagi, Jungum, and Srayvrray. Bhaykh(i) = codes (symbols and dresses). Kissaiy = barely any. Alukh(u) = formless; invisible. Bisunkh = infinite (Waheguru). Khaaluk = the Lord of the world (Waheguru). Dhaadi = bard. 21.
MEANING: Countless people try to describe Waheguru, and leave this world (without any success). Even the Vedas can find no end to God's magnanimity, though they explain it as well. The secrets of God cannot be known by reading the Vedas or any other religious books; they can be known only by realizing (connecting with) Him. No one, wearing the symbols of any of the six popular sects of mystics, has ever found the secrets of Waheguru. The eternal Waheguru is invisible, but one can adorn oneself with virtues by the Guru's Shabad (and be "one" with Him). Whoever has full faith in Waheguru's Naam gets access to Waheguru's Residence (becomes "one" with Him). I am a bard of the Lord; I bow to Him, and sing His praise, oh Nanak. I have embedded (enshrined) Waheguru's Naam in my mind that never changes over the eons. 21.

Word Meaning: Muntrie = a person who is believed to tame some animals and make their poison ineffective by some mantra. Atthoohaan = scorpion. Naag = snake. Koocha = flame; fire. Utti = extremism. Dhukka = push; shock. Urraiy = oppose; causes trouble for. Huk(i) = of God. Doobbay = sinks very low in morality and suffers. Viopaayay = destruction and creation. 1.

MEANING: If a multitude of scorpions tries to tame a snake (meaning if an unqualified person undertakes a very risky task), he plays with fire. It is the law of the Lord, from the very beginning, that a person who goes to extremes gets a big shock. It is the justice of Waheguru that if a follower of his mind purposely causes trouble for a devotee of the Guru, he sinks very low in morality and suffers gravely (and is punished in Waheguru's Court). Waheguru is the Lord of both worlds and watches them by destroying and creating them. One must understand that whatever happens in one's life is controlled by the Will of God. 1.

Word Meaning: Perkhay = analyze. Paarukh(u) = assessor; evaluator. Boojhaiy = understands. Vaiyd = physician. Soojaan = wise. Vaat(u) = journey. Maamla = business. Mehmaan(u) = guest; visitor. Mool(u) = the source (Waheguru). Haan(u) = same age; people with similar views or qualities. Lub(i) = greed. Visht(u) = mediator. Sur(u) = arrow. Sundhay = aims. Agumm = unreachable. Vahayndurr(u) = the shooter.

Meaning: (In the world of spirituality), only that individual can be considered a judge who judges (evaluates) himself, oh Nanak. Only that physician is wise (capable) who recognizes both the disease and the treatment. Likewise, that individual is wise who realizes that he is only a visitor on the earth, and does not expand his business to accumulate unlimited wealth in the journey of life. He realizes that the source of all life is Waheguru and talks about Him (sings His praise) in the company of other devotees. Such a person has no greed, always stays with truth, and becomes an approved mediator to connect others with Waheguru. A person who shoots an arrow aiming at the sky gets hit himself because the sky is unreachable; so, how can the arrow reach there? 2.

Word Meaning: Seegaariyaan = adorned. Vaariyaan = prevented, restrained. Munjh(i) = in. Sidhaariyaan= arrived at the destination. Sukhi = (female) friends; devotees. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. Phitt(u) = condemnable.
MEANING: The human brides, who are in love with Waheguru, stay adorned (attractive to Waheguru) with their love. They worship Waheguru day and night and cannot be prevented (from worshipping) even if someone tries to stop them. They are adorned by Guru's Shabad, as a result of which they live in Waheguru's Palace (stay connected with Him). Being thoughtful, they beg only for things which are not perishable, but are eternal (like love for Waheguru). With Waheguru's Will, they have achieved their destination (union with Waheguru) and look very attractive next to Him. They are true devotees who pray to Waheguru with deep love in their hearts. Without Waheguru's Naam, life is condemnable, and the person without the Naam deserves to be cursed. Those whose life has been adorned (by Waheguru) with Guru's Shabad, drink the real Amrit (become immortal by merging into Waheguru). 22.

Word Meaning: Maaroo = desert. Triptiya = satisfied. Saayir = sea. Sook = dryness. Kayti = however much. Poochh = inquiry (seek information or knowledge).
MEANING: A desert never gets satisfied (saturated) with rain, and fire is never satisfied, no matter how much fuel is fed to it. A king is never content with his length of kingship, and dryness cannot reduce the amount of water in the ocean. (Waheguru is like the ocean, but, rather than water, He is full of virtues; no matter how many people receive (acquire noble qualities from Waheguru-ocean, there is never a shortage of noble qualities in Him). So, no matter how many rituals one performs, or how much knowledge one acquires, one never achieves contentment or bliss without Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Nihflun(g) = fruitless; waste. Tus(i) = of those. Braham = Waheguru. Bindtay = recognize; make a connection with. Kay = many. Kern Kaarun = the Creator. Sumruth(u) = omnipotent. Kaarun(u) = creation; world. Vus(i) = in control. Kul = power. Dhaar(i) = providing support. 2.
MEANING: The life of those who do not make a connection with Waheguru goes to waste (they do not acquire any spirituality, and therefore drown in the sea of Maya). However, there are many who are able to swim across this sea (are salvaged) by the benevolence of the Guru. (Guru) Nanak offers a word of wisdom: the Creator (Waheguru) is omnipotent (capable of doing anything and everything). The world is under His control, which is supported by His power. 2.

Word Meaning: Dhaadhi = bard. Vusiya = caused rain of His praise. Klaan(i) = singing praise. Kumal(u) = lotus; heart. Vigsiya = blooms. Rehsiya =overjoyed. Poora Payay = achieving the perfect (spiritual) state. Sersiya = thrive. Kaal(u) = death. Vidhousiya = destroyed. Akhuth(u) = indescribable (Waheguru). Geh(i) = by holding; accumulating. Raas(i) = capital; wealth.

MEANING: I am a bard in the Court of Waheguru to sing His praise; my heart blooms when I sing praise of the True Lord. The Lord has kindly granted me the perfect spiritual state as a result of which I feel blissful at heart. All my enemies (evil qualities) have been destroyed, and my friends (virtues) are thriving now. My virtues have guided me on the right path, and I serve my perfect Satguru. Pondering over the eternal Shabad of the Satguru, I have killed the fear of death. Adorned by Guru's Shabad, I am able to spread the Word of the indescribable (Waheguru). By accumulating the wealth of virtues, I have been able to connect with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 23.

Sloak M:1: Khutioun jummay khutay kern(i), ta khutiyaan vich(i) paah(i). Dhotay mool(i) na ootreh(i), jay sau dhovun paah(i). Nanak bukhshay bukhshiyeh(i) naah(i) ta paahi paah(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Khutay = fault; sins. Bukhshay = forgive. Paahi Paah(i) = beaten with shoes; shamed; punished. 1.

MEANING: The man is reborn because of his sins of his previous lives; he again commits sins in his life, and it becomes his character, so he continues to commit them. The filth of his sins cannot be washed away by taking dips in holy waters, even if one does that hundreds of times. His sins can be forgiven only by Waheguru, if He does; otherwise, the sinner is punished in His Court, oh Nanak! 1.

ਮ:1॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਬੋਲਣੁ ਝਖਣਾ ਦੁਖ ਛਡਿ ਮੰਗੀਅਹਿ ਸੁਖ॥ ਸੁਖੁ ਦੁਖੁ ਦੁਇ ਦਰਿ ਕਪੜੇ ਪਹਿਰਹਿ ਜਾਇ ਮਨੁਖ॥ ਜਿਥੈ ਬੋਲਣਿ ਹਾਰੀਐ ਤਿਥੈ ਚੰਗੀ ਚੁਪ॥ 2॥

Word Meaning: Jhukhna = wasteful talk; gibberish. Dur(i) = (from Waheguru's) door (treasure). Haariyaiy = lose.

MEANING: It is meaningless talking (with no reward) when a man begs Waheguru to replace his troubles with comforts, oh Nanak. Comforts and discomfort are like clothes given to a man by Waheguru, which he wears throughout his life. It is better to remain quiet where we know we are going to lose by talking. 2.

Word Meaning: Chaaray Koondaan = all the four directions. Undar(u) = (in) the heart. Bhaaliya = searched for. Purakh(i) = the Supreme Being (Waheguru). Alukh(u) = incomprehensible. Sirj(i) = having created. Nihaaliya = saw; looked after. Oojhurr(i) = wilderness. Vaah(u) = bravo; praise worthy. Ruttan = precious stone (Waheguru's Naam). Ghurahoun = within the heart. Gerb(i) = conceit. Gaaliya = suffer (in the womb). Baytaliya = out of tune; like a ghost; aimlessly.

MEANING: Having tried in every direction (everywhere), I searched for (and found) (Waheguru) in my own heart. After creating the world, the eternal, and the invisible Waheguru looks after it. The Guru shows the right path (to connect with Waheguru) to the man lost in the wilderness (the darkness of worldly affairs). It is the greatness of the Guru because of whom one remembers the eternal Waheguru. The Guru enlightens our mind, as a result of which we find the precious Waheguru in our heart (mind). By singing the praise of Waheguru through the eternal Shabad of the Guru, an individual connects with Waheguru and lives in comfort (feels blissful). On the other hand, the conceited individuals do not fear Waheguru, but are fearful of worldly situations, whereby they suffer in the womb (are reborn). Forgetting Waheguru's Naam, the world is living a ghostly (aimless) life. 24.

Sloak M:3: Bhaiy vich(i) jummaiy, bhaiy muraiy, bhee bhuou mun meh(i) hoyay. Nanak bhaiy vich(i) jay muraiy, sehla aaya soyay. 1.

Word Meaning: Bhaiy = fear (of God). Sehla = successful 1.

MEANING: The man is born with worldly fear (worries), he spends his life in worries, and dies in worries. But, if he dies with the fear of God in his mind (recites His Naam with dedication), his life becomes pleasant and successful, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਭੈ ਵਿਣੁ ਜੀਵੈ ਬਹੁਤੁ ਬਹੁਤੁ ਖੁਸੀਆ ਖੁਸੀ ਕਮਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਭੈ ਵਿਣੁ ਜੇ ਮਰੈ ਮੁਹਿ ਕਾਲੈ ਉਠਿ ਜਾਇ॥ 2

Word Meaning: Kmaayay = lives in. Kaalaiy = black (faced); degraded.

MEANING: If a man lives without the fear of God, and enjoys all the happiness in life, (it is all worthless), because if he dies without the fear of Waheguru, he leaves the world with his face blackened (degraded), oh Nanak.

Word Meaning: Duyaal(u) = kind. Sherdha = respect; wish. Jhooriyaiy = repent. Rung(u) = colour; love. Dayha = body. Nuvnidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. 25.

MEANING: If Satguru is kind, all your wishes are fulfilled, and you never have to repent (complain). If Satguru is kind, you enjoy His love and never feel any discomfort. If Satguru is kind, there is no fear of the Angel of Death, and your body is always in a blissful, comfortable life. If Satguru is kind, you feel as if you have acquired all the nine mythical treasures, and you merge into Waheguru. 25.

NOTE: In this holy Shabad, Guru Nanak Sahib has described the religious practices of Jains who have taken the principle of non-violence to the extreme, avoiding the killing of any life, including harmful lice and poisonous insects. To avoid the growth of any life, for example, lice, they pull out their hair and do not bathe so as not to harm any life in water. They do not even cook their own food; they beg for it, which, in most cases, is leftover or scraps of already-eaten food.

Word Meaning: Sir(u) khohaayay = hair pulled out from the head. Mulvaani = dirty water, like wash. Joottha = left over food; pieces of scrap food. Phoal(i) = open; scatter. Phdihut(i) = feces. Bhurraasan = (bad) smell. Sugaahi = feel shy (avoid). Sooaahi = (with) ash. Maaoo Pioo = mother father. Kirt(u) = profession. Tubbar = family. Pind(u) Puttal(i) Kiriya = are Hindu rites on the death of a person. The family put out a few balls of cooked food on big leaves with the belief that the food will be used by the dead person on his journey to his ancestors. Kithaahoon = where? Dhoyee = support. Koocheel(u) = filthy. Tikkay = anointment; expression of happiness. Jhoondi = with drooped heads; sadly. Durr(i) Deebaan(i) = congregation. Kaasay = cups. Phoomman = pompoms. Duyyay = source of kindness (Waheguru). Vigoyay = deprived of. Vigootay = humiliated; in suffering. Phitta = condemned. Vuttaiy = goes; wanders about. Gulla = herd; the whole clan. Vunjay = deprived. Bhus(u) = ash. Sir(i) khoothaiy = bald. Ruttan = precious stones (valuable items). Mayr(u) = a mountain in the Himalayas. Madhaani = churner. Thaapay = established. Poorbeen = holy days. Baani = religious songs. Soojaani = wise people. Gut(i) = better condition (stay clean). Shaitaani = followers of Satan (of their mind). Bhaani = to their liking. Vootthaiy = when it rains. Bilavul(u) = zest; gusto. Joogut(i) = way of life. Purrda = cover. Sadhun = lady. Soorhi = cows. Vilovaiy = churns. Sohaiy = looks ceremonial. Smoond(u) = ocean. Vudiyayee = honour. Chuttay = fistfuls. Chhaayee = ash.

MEANING: The Jains pull out their hair, drink unclean water (like washing), scatter their feces (to prevent the growth of any life), and inhale its repulsive smell. They shy away from water (so as not to cause any trouble for the living organisms), pull out their hair to look like the sheep that have been shaved to the skin, while their hands fill with ash. They abandon the profession of their forefathers (to earn their own livelihood), and wail at the death of a family member for which they do not even perform the prevalent Hindu rites (even though they have no spiritual value) like, putting out food balls on large leaves, and do not put any lamp on the hand to show the path to the dead body in the dark journey to his destination (all Hindu beliefs) about which nobody knows where he goes. They get no support from any of the sixty-eight holy places (because they do not visit them), and the Brahmans do not eat their food (because they do not cook). They sit with their heads drooped as if they are mourning the death of some of their relative every day (all the time), and never go to any holy congregation.

They have cups around their waists, hold pompoms in their hands to fan away any insects, and travel in a single line to avoid hurting any life.
They are neither Yogis, nor Jungums, nor Qazies, nor Mullahs. They have no connection with God, and misled by their irrational belief, the whole condemnable clan wanders in humiliation. (They do not realize that it is Waheguru, and nobody else, that kills the living beings or keeps them alive). They do not give or receive any donations, and do not undertake any pilgrimage; they get ash in their bald heads (are degraded). They do not realize that water (which they avoid) is vital to life. They should know that it was water in the ocean which spat out the fourteen valuable items when the ocean was jointly churned by the gods and the demons using the Mountain Mayr(u) as the churner (Hindu mythology). The sixty-eight Hindu holy places (which have water in the form of pools or rivers) were established for the gods (and goddesses) where special days are celebrated, and religious songs are sung. The Muslims offer nivaj only after bathing, and the Hindus perform their pooja also after bathing; all wise people bathe too. Throughout our lives, we wash our heads (bodies) to stay clean. But, the bald-head (Jains) are followers of Satan (their own mind) and do not believe in such things.
Also, all living beings feel joy when it rains because their lives depend on water. All kinds of grain crops, sugarcane, and the cotton plants which provide fabric to cover us, feel healthy when it rains. The grass thrives with rain, which the cows graze on, and provides milk and yogurt for the house lady to churn to get butter and ghee. The ghee is used in huvuns, yugs, and for worship, as well as for other happy occasions to make them pleasant.
(if they shun away from water), There is another kind of water which should be used by everyone; It is the Guru, which is the ocean of wisdom, and all His Sikhs (supreme devotees) are rivers of virtues; whoever takes a dip in the Guru-ocean or the Sikh-rivers, is honoured in Waheguru's Court. If the bald-headed Jains do not bathe in Guru-ocean (disregard Waheguru), they receive seven fistfuls of ash in their head (are humiliated) in Waheguru's Court, oh Nanak. 1
NOTE: When disapproving of the practices of Jains, Guru Sahib writes that they do not follow Hindu rites. That, in no way, implies that Guru Sahib approves Hindu beliefs. This is made clear in all His compositions, especially in Assa Dee Vaar. Guru Sahib is simply saying that the Jains have gone so far in their blind faith of non-violence that they do not even follow any of the prevalent customs of Hindu, Muslims, or other faiths.

Word Meaning: Paala = (extreme) cold. Cheeji = gift to please. Put(i) = dignity. 2.
MEANING: What can cold do to fire (meaning cold cannot restrain fire), and what does night matter to the sun? Darkness cannot stop the moonlight, and the caste of a person does not change the nature of air or water. And, just as we cannot please the earth by offering anything to it because everything is born out of the earth, we cannot please Waheguru (and thus seek His approval or respect in His Court) by offering Him any material things, including money, because He is the infinite source of everything. One can earn respect in His Court only if He is pleased by his noble qualities, oh Nanak.

Word Meaning: Soob-haan(u) = wonderful; amazing. Klaaniya = have praised. Deebaan(u) = ruler; king. J(i) = Jo = whoever. Foormaan = Huqam. Sohiya = looked pretty. Kerm(i) = because of kindness. Neeshaan(u) = stamp of approval; identity. Na Chullay = does not move; cannot be erased. Churreh(i) = rises; increases. Svaayaa = one and a quarter times (many times). Bhaaya = liked. 26.

MEANING: I have always sung Your praise, oh the eternal, and the wonderful Waheguru! Only Your Kingship is eternal, while everybody else comes and goes. Whoever begs the eternal Truth (Your Naam) in donation, becomes just like You. Your Huqam, in the form of Guru's Shabad, is eternal and majestic. Whosoever obeys Your Command, acquires the Divine Knowledge (gets connected with You), and the concentration from You. With Your benevolence, one receives the stamp of Your approval which nobody can erase. You are the True donor Who gives donations which increase every day, oh Nanak. But, I (Nanak) beg for only that donation which is to Your liking, oh Waheguru. 26.

Word Meaning: Deekhiya = advice. Boojhaaya = explained. Sifteen = with praise. Smayo = merge into. Oopdaysiyaiy = preach. 1.

MEANING: What can I preach to those who have been advised by Guru Nanak Dev! However, if I have to, then the advice to offer is, that an individual becomes "one" with Waheguru by singing His praise. 1.

ਮ:1॥ ਆਪਿ ਬੁਝਾਏ ਸੋਈ ਬੂਝੈ॥ ਜਿਸੁ ਆਪਿ ਸੁਝਾਏ ਤਿਸੁ ਸਭੁ ਕਿਛੁ ਸੂਝੈ॥ ਕਹਿ ਕਹਿ ਕਥਨਾ ਮਾਇਆ ਲੂਝੈ॥ ਹੁਕਮੀ ਸਗਲ ਕਰੇ ਆਕਾਰ॥ ਆਪੇ ਜਾਣੈ ਸਰਬ ਵੀਚਾਰ॥ ਅਖਰ ਨਾਨਕ ਅਖਿਓ ਆਪਿ॥ ਲਹੈ ਭਰਾਤਿ ਹੋਵੈ ਜਿਸੁ ਦਾਤਿ॥ 2.

Word Meaning: Boojhaayay = gives the understanding. Soojhaayay = gives the ability to think. Kuthna = describe. Loojhaiy = struggles. Akhur = inerasable. Ukhiyo = non-perishable. Bhraant(i) = doubts; misbeliefs.

MEANING: Only that individual understands the secrets of Waheguru who is given the understanding by Waheguru Himself. Whom Waheguru gives the ability to think, can think of everything. One who only says and explains to others is simply struggling and arguing for the sake of Maya. All bodies come into being by Waheguru's Huqam, and He has all the plans. His Word (Huqam) is inerasable (eternal), and so is He, oh Nanak. A person, to whom He is kind, gets all his misbeliefs cleared. 2.

Word Meaning: Dhaadhi = bard. Vaykaar(u) = worthless. Kaaraiy = in true business. Vaar = special day. Salaah = praise. Kupprra = clothes (to protect dignity); noble qualities; love for Waheguru. Bhojun(i) = meal. Rujj(i) = to satisfaction. Pusao = spread (the Word). Poora = Perfect (Waheguru). 27.

MEANING: I was a worthless person before the Lord put me to the True business of a bard - to sing His praise. The Lord called me in His eternal Palace and issued me the direct order to (spread His Message), be it day, night, or some special day. He bestowed me with the noble qualities and love for His eternal praise. I received His eternal Naam as the food for my soul. Whoever takes this holy food (Waheguru's Naam) with the advice of the Guru, becomes fully content and blissful. Now I am disseminating His Huqam that one can acquire union with the eternal Waheguru by singing His praise, oh Nanak. 27. Verified.

NOTE: Kupprra normally means 'fabric' or 'clothes'. In some situations, it also implies the human body. But Guru Sahib has already been given the human body. So, the appropriate meaning of "Kupprra" in this holy Paurri is the noble qualities (same as Waheguru has) and love for Him.
