Word Meaning: Chaupuday = a Shabad with four stanzas.
Sat = eternal. Naam(u) = Waheguru's existence (Waheguru and His Naam are synonymous). (See the first sentence of the following Shabad); His Laws. Bhaaya = cherish; revere. Vudbhaageen = highly lucky. Sidh(i) = success; perfection. Virla = rare. Gurmat(i) = Guru's advice. 1. Khurch(u) = expenses. Bunnh(i) Pullaiy = garnered; gathered. Sukhayee = close friend. Dirraya = reinforced. Nihchul = everlasting. 2. Preetum(u) = dear. Raaya = royal; king. Praan Jeevaaya = basis of (spiritual) life. Neer(u) = water (tears). Vuhaiy = flows. 3. Baal sukhayee = friend from childhood (life-long friend). 4.

NOTE: Jeeo is simply an expression of respect; it is used very frequently in the Shabads of this Raag.

MEANING: There is only one Supreme Being and His existence is eternal; He is a living power (Purakh); the creator of the whole universe and is pervading it; He is fearless (is above all the Laws of nature); He bears no enmity with anyone (his justice is perfect); He is not affected by time (always stays the same). He never takes any life form; is Self-Illuminating and is realized only through the Guru (The Guru is a manifestation of God).

I cherish Waheguru and His Naam, but only the very lucky recite His Naam. One can be successful in reciting Waheguru's Naam (connecting with Him) only by taking the shelter of the Perfect Guru. But, again, only a rare devotee follows the Guru's advice. 1.
I have garnered Waheguru's Naam as the expenses for the journey of my life. Waheguru's Naam is my life-long friend and will always be with me (even in the next world). The Perfect Guru has reinforced Waheguru's Naam in me, which has become my everlasting possession. 2. Waheguru King is my darling friend; I am looking for some holy man (Guru) who can connect me with Him, who sustains my (spiritual) life. I cannot survive without "seeing"

Him and my tears are flowing uncontrollably (in His separation). 3.
Satguru is also my lifelong friend. I cannot live without “seeing” Him, oh my mother! Please, Waheguru, be kind and connect me with the Guru so that I may acquire Waheguru’s Naam-wealth, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Madhusoodun = Waheguru (a name for Krishna because he killed a demon named Madhu). Uver(u) = other; else. Sujjan = friend. Sunt(u) = saint. 1.
Khojeen = search for. Bhaal(i) Bhulayeen = search and have searched. Kiyoun = how? Khoj(u) dusayeen = I ask for His location. 2. Rukhvaala = protector; guard. Baarik = children. Deen = powerless; ignorant. Kumal(u) = lotus flower, which thrives in water. Vigsaiy = blooms. 3. Vaydun = pain. Birhoun = pain of separation. Rehsaiy = feels blissful. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru is my mind, body, and soul. I do not acknowledge anybody else other than my Waheguru. I wish I were very lucky so as to meet a holy friend who could advise me on how to reach Waheguru. 1. I search for Him in my mind and body, and beg others to search Him for me. How can I find my dear and loving (Waheguru), oh my mother! I am advised to go to the congregation of holy devotees and seek their advice, as Waheguru is believed to be present there. 2. My dear and loving Satguru is my guard. We are Your ignorant and powerless children; please nourish us, oh Satguru! My Perfect Satguru is my mother and my father; He is like a pool of water, and we are like lotus flowers that thrive in that water. 3. I cannot sleep without “seeing” the Satguru. His separation is becoming painful for my mind and my body. Please, Waheguru, connect me with the Guru - meeting with whom my mind blooms, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Hur(i) Hur(i) Naam(u) boond mookh(i) payee. Hur(i) julnidh(i), hum jul kay meenay, jun Nanak jul bin(u) muriyaiy jeeo. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Gooniyaiy = ponder on. Kutha = story; explanations (of virtues). Bhuojul = sea of life; the world-sea. Dootar(u) = difficult; almost impossible to swim across. 1. Sukhee = female friends; devotees. Kurayha = (let us) do (make the connection). Soonayha = message. Nurhuriyaiy = Waheguru. 2. Baydun = pain (of separation). Poora = perfect. Vukhanaiy = utter; sing. Aoukhudh = medication. Mantar(u) = a collection of some special words (called mantra) the recitation of which is believed to cure some specific diseases (a Hindu belief). Oodhariyaiy = find salvation. 3. Chaatrik = (rainbird); a mythical bird who survives only if he drinks the first raindrop on a special occasion. Deen = powerless (pride-less). Boond = drop. Julnidh(i) = treasure of water – sea. Meenay = fish. 4.

MEANING: Let us read and ponder over the virtues of Waheguru as a congregation, oh my friends! Let us listen to the explanations of Waheguru's Naam. Let us sing the virtues of Waheguru in the congregation, which will enable us to swim across the world-sea, which is almost an impossible task to perform. 1. Let us join together to plan ways to connect with Waheguru, oh my friends! Maybe we will get some message (advice) about our dear Waheguru. He will be my dear friend, my darling brother, who tells me (the way to connect with) Waheguru. 2. The Perfect Guru knows my pain (of separation from Waheguru) that I cannot survive without reciting His Naam. Please, dear Perfect Guru, give me the Mantra as medication so that I may recite Waheguru's Naam by means of which one can find salvation. 3. We, human beings, are powerless like the mythical bird, chaatrik, and have come to Your shelter, oh Satguru. Please give us a drop of Waheguru's Naam-water so we can survive (spiritually). Waheguru is like the ocean, and we are like fish, and cannot live without Waheguru-ocean, oh Nanak. 4.2.

NOTE: As discussed under word meanings, Sikhs do not believe in any mantra – the only Mantra is Waheguru's Naam, which is the panacea for all diseases. Even as a chaatrik, Guru Ram Dass Ji asks for a drop of Waheguru's Naam-water.

Word Meaning: Hur(i) Jun Sunt = devotees of Waheguru (holy men). Sherdha = faith; wish (to connect with God). Jugjeevun = (source of) life of the world (God). Hur(i) Dershun = sight of Waheguru. Bheejaiy = gets imbued. 1. Bani = words of praise. Kutha = explanation (of virtues); story. Bhaani = I cherish; revere. Bhaavaiy = to my liking. 2. Bhaagheen = unlucky. Bherm(i) = in doubts; hesitations. Choataan Khaaveh(i) = suffer. 3.

MEANING: I wish to meet with some holy devotees of Waheguru who would guide me to connect with Waheguru, as I have a big appetite (longing) to connect with Him. Please, fulfill my wish and show me Your kind sight so that I may be imbued in Your Naam, oh the source of (spiritual) life, Waheguru. 1.

I wish to sing Your praise in the holy gathering, oh Waheguru. I like and revere explanations of Your virtues. Waheguru is the real Amrit (the mythical liquid of immortality), and I love it, which can be tasted only in the company of the Satguru. 2.

Only a lucky few are able to join the holy congregation, while the unlucky ones suffer greatly from doubt and hesitation (because of their love for Maya). One cannot access the holy congregation without luck, and the mind gathers filth without the holy congregation. 3.

Please, Waheguru, kindly connect me with You, and give me the gift of Your Naam. With the advice of the Guru, Waheguru's Naam tastes very sweet, and I love it. The mind of Your slave, Nanak, has been imbued in Your Naam, oh Waheguru. 4. 4.

Nanak hut puttan vich(i) kayaan Hur(i) laiynday Gurmukh(i) sauda jeeo. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Giyan(u) = (Divine) Knowledge. Rus = essence. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in His love. Tooll(i) Tooll(i) = overflowing with zest. 1. Kutha = story (of virtues). Chaunda = utters; recites. 2. Vudbhaageen = highly lucky. Sunt = Guru. Gerbh Jooni = different life forms. 3. Duyaal = kind; benevolent. Mul(u) = filth. Bikhiya = poisonous (Maya). Nivaari = dispelled. Hut = bazaar. Puttan = cities. Kayaan = human body; mind. Sauda = merchandise (of Waheguru's Naam). 4.

MEANING: I have realized the Knowledge delivered by the Guru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru, and have tasted Waheguru's Naam–essence. Now my mind is completely imbued in Waheguru's Naam. Now I recite Waheguru's Naam with my mouth (tongue), and it has become my routine conversation, and my mind is overflowing with the zest of Waheguru's Naam. 1. Now I wish to hug the holy men tightly and listen to the virtues of my dear Waheguru from them. I wish to surrender my mind to the holy man who recites Gurbani (Waheguru's praise) by his tongue. 2. With great luck, Waheguru has connected me with the Guru, and the Perfect Guru has given me the dose of Waheguru Naam-essence in my mouth (so that my tongue recites Waheguru's Naam). The unfortunate followers of their mind do not connect with the Guru, and as a result, they go through all the different forms of life. 3. The benevolent Waheguru has kindly washed away all my filth of haumein and of poisonous Maya. The followers of the Guru deal in Waheguru's Naam in the bazaars and cities of their mind, oh Nanak. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Huoun = I; me. Govind = Waheguru. Agumm = beyond our physical reach. Agoachar = incomprehensible. Rus(i) = sweetness. 1. Dhun(u) = worthy of respect. Jun = devotees. Jaata = who have realized Waheguru. Mulovaan = massage. Mul(i) = rub (gently). Peechaiy = drink. 2. Daataiy = donor; provider. Dirraaya = reinforced. Amrit = life-sustaining. 3. Sat Purakh(u) = eternal Waheguru. Kutha = description of virtues (of Waheguru). Preechaiy = (come to) like. 4.

MEANING: I recite Waheguru's Naam, and sing praise of His virtues (kindness). In the company of the holy men, I have made my heart a residence for Waheguru. Even though Waheguru is beyond our reach (physically) and beyond our comprehension, one can enjoy the essence of His Naam in the shelter of Satguru. 1. Those devotees who have made a connection with Waheguru are worthy of our respect. I wish to visit them and ask them about the noble qualities of Waheguru. I wish to massage their feet and wash them, gently rubbing, because one relishes Waheguru's Naam-essence in their company only. 2. I have had the holy sight of the Guru because of my good luck; the kind Satguru has reinforced Waheguru's Naam in my heart. Now, I enjoy the eternal life-sustaining Waheguru's Naam and recite it all the time. One can acquire the Naam-Amrit only by the grace of the Perfect Guru. 3. One can get connected with Waheguru only in the company of a holy congregation where one recites His Naam, listens to His virtues, and recites them with one's tongue. One comes to like (and love) Waheguru's Naam only by following the advice of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4. 6.

Word Meaning: Vaariyaan = glad to offer life. Ludha = found. Sujjan = friend. Vit-houn = for; from. Ghoomaayiyaan = sacrifice life. 1. Jeh Jeh = wherever. Teh Teh = there. Ghut(i) Ghut(i) = in every heart. Ruvviya = present. Untarjaami = one who knows everything. Sud = always. 2. Maati = soil; earth. Jot(i) = light (of God). Subayiya = in all. Bhin(i) Bhin(i) = different. Rulyee = mixes. Vutaaya = sacrifice. 3. Oopdaysh(u) = advise. Peroopkaariya = one who does selfless favours to others. 4.

MEANING: Let us join together (to sing praise of Waheguru), oh my dear friends! I will gladly sacrifice my life for the friend who explains to me the greatness of my dear (Waheguru). I am a sacrifice to my Satguru, who connected with me in the holy congregation, where I realized my dear friend, Waheguru. 1.

Wherever I look, I find the omnipresent Waheguru present there in every heart. I am always a sacrifice for my Perfect Satguru who “showed” me Waheguru inside me. 2.

Everybody is made from the same soil and same air with Waheguru’s light in them. Even though the same light (of Waheguru) is lighting all the different bodies, yet one light does not match with the other, no matter how hard one tries (because everybody has a different degree of awareness and wisdom). I wish to be a sacrifice for my Satguru, with whose benevolence one can still “see” the single light of Waheguru present in everybody. 3.

Waheguru’s slave, Nanak, utters the life-sustaining Bani (praise of Waheguru), which is loved by all the Sikhs of the Guru. I am a sacrifice to the selfless Guru who gives the same advice to everyone and always performs acts of kindness for others. 4.7.

Seven Shabads of the Fourth Mehla.

ਮਾਝ ਮਹਲਾ 5 ਚਉਪਦੇ ਘਰੁ 1॥ ਮੇਰਾ ਮਨੁ ਲੋਚੈ ਗੁਰ ਦਰਸਨ ਤਾਈ॥ ਬਿਲਪ ਕਰੇ ਚਾਤ੍ਰਿਕ ਕੀ ਨਿਆਈ॥ ਤ੍ਰਿਖਾ ਨ ਉਤਰੈ ਸਾਂਤਿ ਨ ਆਵੈ ਬਿਨੁ ਦਰਸਨ ਸੰਤ ਪਿਆਰੇ ਜੀਉ॥ 1॥ ਹਉ ਘੋਲੀ ਜੀਉ ਘੋਲਿ ਘੁਮਾਈ ਗੁਰ ਦਰਸਨ ਸੰਤ ਪਿਆਰੇ ਜੀਉ॥1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਤੇਰਾ ਮੁਖੁ ਸੁਹਾਵਾ ਜੀਉ ਸਹਜ ਧੁਨਿ ਬਾਣੀ॥ ਚਿਰੁ ਹੋਆ ਦੇਖੇ ਸਾਰਿੰਗਪਾਣੀ॥ ਧੰਨੁ ਸੁ ਦੇਸੁ ਜਹਾ ਤੂ ਵਸਿਆ ਮੇਰੇ ਸਜਣ ਮੀਤ ਮੁਰਾਰੇ ਜੀਉ॥ 2॥ ਹਉ ਘੋਲੀ ਹਉ ਘੋਲਿ ਘੁਮਾਈ ਗੁਰ ਸਜਣ ਮੀਤ ਮੁਰਾਰੇ ਜੀਉ॥1॥ ਰਹਾਉ॥ ਇਕ ਘੜੀ ਨ ਮਿਲਤੇ ਤਾ ਕਲਿਜੁਗੁ ਹੋਤਾ॥ ਹੁਣਿ ਕਦ ਮਿਲੀਐ ਪ੍ਰਿਅ ਤੁਧੁ ਭਗਵੰਤਾ॥

Majh Mehla 5 Chaupuday Ghur(u) 1: Mayra mun(u) loachaiy Gur dershan taayeen. Bilp kuray chaatrik kee niyayeen. Trikha na ootraiy shaant(i) na aavaiy, bin dershan Sunt piyaray jeeo. 1. Huoun gholi jeeo ghol(i) ghoomayee, Gur dershan Sunt piyaray jeeo. 1. Ruhaou. Tayra mookh(u) soohaava jeeo sehj dhoon(i) bani. Chir(u) hoya daykhay Saringpaani. Dhunn su days(u) juhaan Tu vussiya, mayray sujjan meet Mooraray jeeo. 2. Huoun gholi jeeo ghol(i) ghoomayee, Gur sujjan meet Mooraray jeeo. 1. Pause. Ikk ghurri na miltay ta Kalyug(u) hota. Hoon(i) kud miliyaiy Priyay Toodh(u) Bhugvunta.

(PAGE 97): Mohay raiyn(i) na vihavaiy, neend na aavaiy, bin(u) daykhay Gur Durbaray jeeo. 3. Huoun gholi jeeo ghol(i) ghoomayee tis(u) Sachay Gur Durbaaray jeeo. 1. Ruhaou. Bhaag(u) hoya Gur(i) Sunt(u) milaya. Prubh(u) abinashi ghur meh(i) paaya. Sayv kureen pul(u) chusa na vichhurraan, jun Nanak Daas Toomharay jeeo. 4. Huoun gholi jeeo ghol(i) ghoomayee, jun Nanak Dass Toomharay jeeo. Ruhaou. 1.8.

Word Meaning: Lochaiy = longs; pines. Bilp = cries due to the pain of separation. Chaatrik = rainbird; a mythical bird which drinks only the first drop of rainwater during a special period. Niyayeen = like. Trikha = thirst. 1.

Gholi Jeeo Ghol(i) Ghoomayee= (wish) to offer life. Sunt = Guru. Pause.

Soohaava = beautiful; comforting. Sehj = a higher spiritual state where the mind quits wandering. Bani = words of praise. Saringpaani = bow-bearing (Waheguru) (a name for Vishnu). Mooraray = Waheguru (enemy of the demon, moor; a name for Krishna because he killed the demon). 2. Ghurri = a very short period of time. Kalyug = dark (very bad and hostile) time. Bhugvunta = God; Waheguru. Raiyn(i) = night. Vihaavaiy = spend. 3. Bhaag hoya = luck has come to being. Sunt = source of peace (Waheguru). Abinashi = non-perishable (eternal). Ghur(i) = Meh(i) = in my own heart. Pul, Chusa = both denote very small periods of time; a moment. 4.

MEANING: My mind craves for, and cries like a rainbird to have a sight of the Guru. My mind does not find peace, and my thirst for His sight is not quenched until I see Him. 1.

I am gladly willing to sacrifice my life for the sight of the dear Guru. Pause.

Your face (sight) is highly comforting and Your sweet praise leads me to higher spiritual state (where Maya has no effect), oh dear Guru Ji! The place (heart) is worthy of respect where You are residing, oh my dear friend, Waheguru! 2.

I wish to sacrifice my life for my dear friend, Waheguru. Pause.

It was a dark time for me whenever I was away from You; when will I be able to see You, now, oh my dear God (Satguru)! I cannot fall asleep, and my night does not seem to be over without having a sight of Your Court (You), oh Guru Ji! 3.

I wish to sacrifice my life for the eternal Court of the Guru. Pause.

My good luck has materialized, and the Guru has connected me with Waheguru, and I have realized the eternal Waheguru in my heart. Now, I will serve Him like a slave and will never separate from Him, oh Nanak. 4.

I am glad to sacrifice my life for Waheguru, oh Nanak. Pause.

NOTE: This is the only Shabad in this set which has “Ruhaou” in it – and not just once, but as many times as the number of stanzas, 4. Each stanza is followed by “Ruhaou,” implying that there is a different idea in every stanza. That way, this holy Shabad is unique in the set. There is a story associated with this Shabad that Guru Ram Dass Sahib sent His youngest son, Arjun Dev Ji (later the Fifth Guru), to Lahore to attend a family marriage and told Arjun Dev Ji not to return to Amritsar to the Guru until he was invited back. Arjun Dev Ji had always treated his father, Guru Ram Dass Ji, more as his Guru. Quite some time passed, but Guru Sahib sent no message to Arjun Dev Ji inviting him back to Him in Amritsar. The long separation from the Guru caused unrest in Arjun Dev Ji's mind, so he began writing letters to Guru Sahib expressing his anguish over it. His letters were spiritual in nature, and each letter contained only one stanza. The first three letters were intercepted by Arjun Dev Ji's selfish elder brother, Pirthi Chand Ji. The fourth letter was delivered directly to Guru Sahib. When Guru Sahib read the affectionate letter, He called Arjun Dev Ji back immediately and passed on the Gurushipto Him. Even though the Shabad's uniqueness suggests the story is likely true, it still requires further investigation.

ਰਾਗੁ ਮਾਝ ਮਹਲਾ 5॥ ਸਾ ਰੁਤਿ ਸੁਹਾਵੀ ਜਿਤੁ ਤੁਧੁ ਸਮਾਲੀ॥ ਸੋ ਕੰਮ ਸੁਹੇਲਾ ਜੋ ਤੇਰੀ ਘਾਲੀ॥ ਸੋ ਰਿਦਾ ਸੁਹੇਲਾ ਜਿਤੁ ਰਿਦੈ ਤੂ ਵੁਠਾ ਸਭਨਾ ਕੇ ਦਾਤਾਰਾ ਜੀਉ॥ 1॥ ਤੂ ਸਾਂਝਾ ਸਾਹਿਬੁ ਬਾਪ ਹਮਾਰਾ॥ ਨਉ ਨਿਧਿ ਤੇਰੈ ਅਖੁਟ ਭੰਡਾਰਾ॥ ਜਿਸੁ ਤੂ ਦੇਹਿ ਸੁ ਤ੍ਰਿਪਤਿ ਅਘਾਵੈ ਸੋਈ ਭਗਤੁ ਤੁਮਾਰਾ ਜੀਉ॥ 2॥ ਸਭੁ ਕੋ ਆਸੈ ਤੇਰੀ ਬੈਠਾ॥ ਘਟ ਘਟ ਅੰਤਰਿ ਤੂ ਹੈ ਵੁਠਾ॥ ਸਭੇ ਸਾਝੀਵਾਲ ਸਦਾਇਨਿ ਤੂ ਕਿਸੈ ਨ ਦਿਸਹਿ ਬਾਹਰਾ ਜੀਉ॥ 3॥ ਤੂ ਆਪੇ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਮੁਕਤਿ ਕਰਾਇਹਿ॥ ਤੂ ਆਪੇ ਮਨਮੁਖਿ ਜਨਮਿ ਭਵਾਇਹਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਦਾਸ ਤੇਰੈ ਬਲਿਹਾਰੈ ਸਭੁ ਤੇਰਾ ਖੇਲੁ ਦਸਾਹਰਾ ਜੀਉ॥ 4॥2॥9॥

Raag Majh Mehla 5: Sa root(i) soohavee jit(u) Toodh(u) smaaleen. So kumm soohayla jo tayri ghaali. So rida soohayla jit(u) ridaiy Tu voottha, subhna kay Dataara jeeo. 1. Tu saanjha Sahib(u) baap humara. Naou nidh(i) Tayraiy ukhoot bhundara. Jis(u) Tu dayh(i) su triput aghaavaiy, soyee bhugat(u) Toomhara jeeo. 2. Subh(u) ko aasaiy Tayri baiyttha. Ghut ghut untar(i) Tu haiy voottha. Subhay saanjhivaal sudayin Tu kisaiy na dis-hay bahra jeeo. 3. Tu aapay Gurmukh(i) mookt(i) kurahayn. Tu aapay munmukh(i) junum(i) bhuvahayn. Nanak Daas Tayraiy buliharaiy, subh(u) Tayra khayl(u) dusahra jeeo. 4.2.9.

Word Meaning: Sa = that. Root(i) = season. Smalleen = I remember. Soohayla = fruitful; comforting. Tayri Ghaali = in Your service. Rida = heart. Voottha = reside. 1.
Saanjha = common; shared. Naou Nidh(i) = the mythical nine treasures. Ukhoot = inexhaustible. Bhundara = treasures. Triput Aghaavaiy = completely contented. 2.
Tayri Aasaiy = have hopes on You. Ghut Ghut = every heart. Voottha = reside. Saanjhivaal = having a share of You. Sudayin = are called. Bahra = outsider. 3.
Mookt(i) = salvage. Junum(i) Bhuvahayn = put through rebirths. Bulihaaray = a sacrifice. Dusahra = visible. 4.

MEANING: Only that season is worthwhile (comforting) in which I remember You, and only that task is comforting (successful) which is in Your service; likewise, that heart is beautiful (peaceful and helpful) in which You reside, oh, the provider for all, Waheguru! 1.
You are the common father of us all. All your nine treasures are inexhaustible; whoever You provide is fully contented, and only he deserves to be called Your devotee, oh Waheguru! 2. Everybody is hopeful of You (depends upon Your support) as You are residing in every heart. Everybody claims to be part of You, and You do not seem separate from anyone. 3. You, Yourself, salvage the devotees of the Guru, and You put the followers of their own minds through different life forms. The whole visible world is Your drama (creation). Your slave, Nanak, is always a sacrifice for You, oh Waheguru. 4.2.9.

Majh Mehla 5: Unhud vaajaiy sehj(i) soohayla. Shabad(i) anund kuray sud kayla. Sehj goofa meh(i) taarri laayee, aasun(u) ooch suvaariya jeeo. 1. Phir(i) ghir(i) apunay greh(i) meh(i) aaya. Jo lorreenda soyee paaya. Triput aghaayay ruhiyya haiy Sunt-hou, Gur(i) unbhuou Purakh(u) dikhaariya jeeo. 2. Aapay raajun aapay loga. Aap(i) nirbani Aapay bhoga. Aapay tukhut buhaiy Sach(u) niyayeen, subh chooki kook pookaariya jeeo. 3. Jayha dittha mein tayho kuhiyya. Tis(u) rus(u) aaya jin(i) bhayd(u) luhiyya. Joti Jot(i) mili sookh(u) paaya, jun Nanak ikk(u) pusaariya jeeo. 4.3.10

Word Meaning: Unhud = automatic and uniform divine (music). Sehj(i) = higher spiritual state. Kayla = blissful. Goofa = cave (mind). Taarri = meditate with concentration. Aasun = sitting (position, place, pose). Ooch = transcendental (Waheguru). 1.
Phir(i) Ghir(i) = returns again. Greh(i) = mind. Lorreenda = needed. Triput Aghaayay = fully contented. Unbhou Purakh(u) = fearless and omnipresent Waheguru. 2.
Raajun = ruler; king. Loga = public; subjects. Nirbani = non-existence of any desire. Bhoga = one who enjoys. Niyayeen = judge. Chooki = disappeared. Kook Pookaariya = cries and imploring; complaining. 3. Dittha = saw; noticed. Tayho = the same. Rus(u) = enjoyed the taste. Bhayd(u) = secret. Joti = light (of Wheguru) in individuals. Jot(i) = Waheguru's light. Pusaariya = spread out (present). 4.

MEANING: (By Guru's benevolence) I am feeling as if an automatic and uniform divine music is playing in my mind, which is producing comfort, and I am feeling blissful in my higher spiritual state. Adorned (with noble qualities) by Waheguru, I have found a high place (at His feet) where I am completely imbued in His Naam. 1.
After wandering for a long time, my mind has returned to its real home, having realized whatever it needed (i.e., Waheguru's Naam). Now it is completely content as the Guru has shown it the fearless and the omnipresent Waheguru, oh holy men! 2.
Waheguru, Himself is the King, and Himself His subjects. He is completely without any desire, but being present in everybody, he enjoys all the luxuries of life too. A person who believes that Waheguru is the True (impartial) Judge who sits on His eternal throne, finds all his complaints to be baseless (his doubts are cleared). 3.
I have described exactly what I have experienced, and whoever has uncovered this secret enjoys the essence of Waheguru. When the light of an individual merges with the light of Waheguru, his life becomes very blissful, and he realizes that it is solely Waheguru that pervades the whole universe. 4. 3. 10.

(PAGE 98): Thir(u) soohaag(u), Vur(u) Agumm(u) Agochar(u), jun Nanak praym sadhaari jeeo. 4.4.11

Word Meaning: Jit(u) = in which. Ghur(i) = heart. Pir(i) = husband (Waheguru). Sohaag(u) = (performed the) marriage (got connected with the individual); enlightened the heart. Sukhiyay = oh friend! Mungal Gaaya = sang songs of happiness (became blissful). Anund = bliss. Binoad = enjoyment. Titaiy = in that. Sohay = look very good. Dhun = human bride. Kunt(i) = husband (Waheguru). Shingaari = beautified; adorned. 1.
Goonvunti = having good qualities. Sealvunt(i) = calm; sweet-natured. Sohaagun = beloved. Roopvunt(i) = pretty. Sooghurr(i) = wise. Bichukkhun = wise; a leaned person. 2.
Achaarvunt(i) = having good manners; cultured. Purdhanay = leader. Shingaar = adornments. Giyaanay = due to (Divine) knowledge. Koolvunti = of good clan. Subhrayee = having good brothers. Rung(i) = in love. 3. Mehma = praise. Ung(i) = with heart. Thir(u) = eternal. Vur(u) = husband. Agumm = (physically) unreachable. Agochar(u) = incomprehensible. Sadhaari = having support. 4.

MEANING: The heart, which has been enlightened by Waheguru, feels as if the music of divine happiness is playing in it, oh my friend. Such a heart, which has been adorned (with noble qualities) by Waheguru-husband, enjoys bliss and happiness. 1.
That human bride is very lucky, acquires all the virtues, and is regarded highly in society like a woman who has many sons (has enlightened many others), is wise, and a learned person, and is loved by her husband. She is considered gorgeous, good-hearted, wise, and beloved by her husband. 2. She is considered cultured and a leader. All these adornments are due to her Divine Knowledge. The human bride, adorned with her husband's (Waheguru's) love, is considered to belong to a good clan and to have many brothers (which is a great support). 3. The praise of the human bride, which has been connected to her husband (Waheguru) by heart, is beyond description. She has an eternal husband who is physically inaccessible and incomprehensible, and she always has His support, oh Nanak. 4.4.11.

ਮਾਝ ਮਹਲਾ 5॥ ਖੋਜਤ ਖੋਜਤ ਦਰਸਨ ਚਾਹੇ॥ ਭਾਤਿ ਭਾਤਿ ਬਨ ਬਨ ਅਵਗਾਹੇ॥ ਨਿਰਗੁਨੁ ਸਰਗੁਨੁ ਹਰਿ ਹਰਿ ਮੇਰਾ ਕੋਈ ਹੈ ਜੋ ਆਨਿ ਮਿਲਾਵੈ ਜੀਉ॥ 1॥ ਖਟੁ ਸਾਸਤ ਬਿਚਰਤ ਮੁਖਿ ਗਿਆਨਾ॥ ਪੂਜਾ ਤਿਲਕੁ ਤੀਰਥ ਇਸਨਾਨਾ॥ ਨਿਵਲੀ ਕਰਮ ਆਸਨ ਚਉਰਾਸੀਹ ਇਨ ਮਹਿ ਸਾਂਤਿ ਨ ਆਵੈ ਜੀਉ॥ 2॥ ਅਨਿਕ ਬਰਖ ਕੀਏ ਜਪ ਤਾਪਾ॥ ਗਵਨੁ ਕੀਆ ਧਰਤੀ ਭਰਮਾਤਾ॥ ਇਕੁ ਖਿਨੁ ਹਿਰਦੈ ਸਾਂਤਿ ਨ ਆਵੈ ਜੋਗੀ ਬਹੁੜਿ ਬਹੁੜਿ ਉਠਿ ਧਾਵੈ ਜੀਉ॥ 3॥ ਕਰਿ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਮੋਹਿ ਸਾਧੁ ਮਿਲਾਇਆ॥ ਮਨੁ ਤਨੁ ਸੀਤਲੁ ਧੀਰਜੁ ਪਾਇਆ॥ ਪ੍ਰਭੁ ਅਬਿਨਾਸੀ ਬਸਿਆ ਘਟ ਅੰਤਰਿ ਹਰਿ ਮੰਗਲੁ ਨਾਨਕੁ ਗਾਵੈ ਜੀਉ॥ 4॥5॥12॥

Majh Mehla 5: Khojut khojut dershun chaahay. Bhaant(i) bhaant(i) bun bun uvgaahay. Nirgoon(u) Surgoon(u) Hur(i) Hur(i) mayra, koyee haiy jo aan(i) milaavaiy jeeo. 1. Khut(u) Shast bichrut mookh(i) giyaana. Pooja tiluk(u) teeruth ishnaana. Nivli kerm aasun chaurasee, in meh(i) shaant(i) na aavaiy jeeo. 2. Anik burkh keeyay jup taapa. Guvun(u) keeya dherti bhurmaata. Ikk(u) khin(u) hirdaiy shaant(i) na aavaiy, yogi buhoorr(i) buhoorr(i) ootth(i) dhaavaiy jeeo. 3. Ker(i) kirpa moh(i) Sadh(u) milaaya. Mun(u) tun(u) seetul(u) dheeruj(u) paaya. Prubh Abinashi busiya ghut untar(i), Hur(i) mungul(u) Nanak(u) gaavaiy jeeo. 4.5.12

Word Meaning: Khojut Khojut = searching for. Bhaant(i) Bhaant(i) = of many different kinds. Uvgaahay = treaded. Nirgoon(u) = formless. Surgoon(u) = present in nature (the entire visible universe is His Surgoon form). 1.

Khut(u) Shast = the six Shastras of the Hindus. Bichrut = ponder on. Tiluk = anointment. Nivli kerm = an exercise of yoga. Aasun Chaurasee = 84 different sitting positions in yoga. Shaant(i) = peace. 2. Jup Taapa = Hindu rituals of reciting mantras and of self-torture. Guvun(u) = travel; journey. Khin(u) = moment. Buhoorr(i) Buhoorr(i) = again and again. Dhaavay = rushes to. 3. Sadh(u) = Guru. Seetul = peaceful; calm. Dheeruj(u) = patience. Abinashi = non-perishable; eternal. Ghut = heart. Mungal(u) = song of happiness. 4.

MEANING: Many people tread many different forests in search of Waheguru for His holy sight. (I am also searching for the same Waheguru), Is there someone who can connect me with the formless Waheguru, which is otherwise visible in His creation (the whole universe)? 1. Some (Pundits) ponder on the six Shastras, and deliver their knowledge by explaining to people. Besides, they also anoint their foreheads, worship idols, and travel to their holy places. But like the yogis, who perform their yogic exercises and sit in eighty-four different positions to meditate, they never find peace of mind. 2.

Some others recite mantras and torture themselves to please gods for years, while some others travel around the world in search of God, but do not find mental peace even for a moment, and then again run to do the same. 3.

But Waheguru was benevolent to me, connecting me with the Guru, as a result of which my mind and body have become peaceful, and I have acquired patience (no evil thoughts bother me anymore). The eternal Waheguru has taken residence in my heart, and my heart is singing the song of happiness (I feel blissful), oh Nanak. 4.5.12.

ਮਾਝ ਮਹਲਾ 5॥ ਪਾਰਬ੍ਰਹਮ ਅਪਰੰਪਰ ਦੇਵਾ॥ ਅਗਮ ਅਗੋਚਰ ਅਲਖ ਅਭੇਵਾ॥ ਦੀਨ ਦਇਆਲ ਗੋਪਾਲ ਗੋਬਿੰਦਾ ਹਰਿ ਧਿਆਵਹੁ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਗਾਤੀ ਜੀਉ॥ 1॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਮਧਸੂਦਨ ਨਿਸਤਾਰੇ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸੰਗੀ ਕ੍ਰਿਸਨ ਮੁਰਾਰੇ॥ ਦਇਆਲ ਦਮੋਦਰ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਪਾਈਐ ਹੋਰਤ ਕਿਤੈ ਨ ਭਾਤੀ ਜੀਉ॥ 2॥ ਨਿਰਹਾਰੀ ਕੇਸਵ ਨਿਰਵੈਰਾ॥ ਕੋਟਿ ਜਨਾ ਜਾ ਕੈ ਪੂਜੈ ਪੈਰਾ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਹਿਰਦੇ ਜਾ ਕੈ ਹਰਿ ਹਰਿ ਸੋਈ ਭਗਤੁ ਇਕਾਤੀ ਜੀਉ॥ 3॥ ਅਮੋਘ ਦਰਸਨ ਬੇਅੰਤ ਅਪਾਰਾ॥ ਵਡ ਸਮਰਥ ਸਦਾ ਦਾਤਾਰਾ॥ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਨਾਮੁ ਜਪੀਐ ਤਿਤੁ ਤਰੀਐ ਗਤਿ ਨਾਨਕ ਵਿਰਲੀ ਜਾਤੀ ਜੀਉ॥ 4॥6॥13॥

Majh Mehla 5: Parbraham Uprumpur Dayva. Agumm Agochar Alukh Abhayva. Deen Duyaal Gopal Gobinda, Hur(i) dhiyavhou Gurmukh(i) gaati jeeo. 1. Gurmukh(i) Mudhsoodun nistaaray. Gurmukh(i) sungi Krishan Mooraray. Duyaal Damodar Gurmukh(i) paayiyaiy, horut kitaiy na bhaanti jeeo. 2. Nirhaari, Kayshav Nirvaira. Kot(i) junaa ja kaiy poojaiy paiyra. Gurmukh(i) hirday ja kaiy Hur(i) Hur(i), soyee bhugat(u) ikaati jeeo. 3. Amogh dershun bayunt apaara. Vud Sumruth suda Dataara. Gurmukh(i) Naam(u) jupiyaiy tit(u) turiyaiy, gut(i) Nanak virleen jaati jeeo. 4

Word Meaning: Uprumpur = limitless. Dayva = source of light. Agumm = physically inaccessible. Alukh = which cannot be understood (described). Abhayva = whose secrets are not known. Deen = powerless. Gopal = Gobind, which nourishes the earth; (Go = earth). Gaati = higher spiritual state. 1. Mudgsoodun = Waheguru. Nistaaray = salvaged. Sungi = companion. Diyaal = kind. Damodar = Waheguru (another name for Krishna). Horut = other. Bhaanti = way; means. 2. Nirhaari = which does not need food. Kayshav = having long hair (Waheguru). Kot(i) = millions. 3. Amogh = which never fails (which fulfills all wishes). Bayunt = Apaara = limitless. Sumruth = fully capable. Dataara = provider. Tit(u) = by which. Virleen = some rare person. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru is limitless and is the source of enlightenment. He is beyond our physical reach, incomprehensible, indescribable, and unknown in terms of His deep secrets.

The nourisher of all living beings is very kind to the powerless (humble); let us remember Him at all times, in the shelter of the Guru, to enhance our spiritual level, oh my friends! 1. Waheguru salvages (protects from evil attractions) all the devotees of the Guru, and He becomes a permanent companion of the Guru's devotees. The only way to realize the kind Waheguru is to recite His Naam in the shelter of the Guru; there is no other way (to realize Him). 2. The long-haired Waheguru does not need any food; He does not bear any enmity with anyone, and countless people worship His feet (Him). Taking Guru's shelter, a person who bears Waheguru's Naam in his heart, is the real devotee of only a single power – Waheguru. 3. The limitless Waheguru's sight results in the fulfillment of all one's wishes as He is capable of achieving any and everything. He is a great provider. We should recite His Naam in the shelter of the Guru by which we can swim across the sea of Maya (find salvation). But some rare devotee attains that level of spirituality, oh Nanak. 4.6.13.
NOTE: Since Waheguru is formless, He cannot have long hair, nor can we see Him with our physical eyes. These are just expressions of love and faith, or the flight of ideas, of Guru Sahib as a poet.

ਮਾਝ ਮਹਲਾ 5॥ ਕਹਿਆ ਕਰਣਾ ਦਿਤਾ ਲੈਣਾ॥ ਗਰੀਬਾ ਅਨਾਥਾ ਤੇਰਾ ਮਾਣਾ॥ ਸਭ ਕਿਛੁ ਤੂੰ ਹੈ ਤੂੰ ਹੈ ਮੇਰੇ ਪਿਆਰੇ ਤੇਰੀ ਕੁਦਰਤਿ ਕਉ ਬਲਿ ਜਾਈ ਜੀਉ॥ 1॥ ਭਾਣੈ ਉਝੜ ਭਾਣੈ ਰਾਹਾ॥ ਭਾਣੈ ਹਰਿ ਗੁਣ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਗਾਵਾਹਾ॥ ਭਾਣੈ ਭਰਮਿ ਭਵੈ ਬਹੁ ਜੂਨੀ ਸਭ ਕਿਛੁ ਤਿਸੈ ਰਜਾਈ ਜੀਉ॥ 2॥ ਨਾ ਕੋ ਮੂਰਖ ਨ ਕੋ ਸਿਆਣਾ॥ ਵਰਤੈ ਸਭ ਕਿਛੁ ਤੇਰਾ ਭਾਣਾ॥ ਅਗਮ ਅਗੋਚਰ ਬੇਅੰਤ ਅਥਾਹਾ ਤੇਰੀ ਕੀਮਤਿ ਕਹਣੁ ਨ ਜਾਈ ਜੀਉ॥ 3॥ ਖਾਕੁ ਸੰਤਨ ਕੀ ਦੇਹੁ ਪਿਆਰੇ॥ ਆਇ ਪਇਆ ਹਰਿ ਤੇਰੈ ਦੁਆਰੈ॥ ਦਰਸਨੁ ਪੇਖਤ ਮਨੁ ਆਘਾਵੈ ਨਾਨਕ ਮਿਲਣੁ ਸੁਭਾਈ ਜੀਉ॥ 4॥7॥14॥
Majh Mehla 5: Kuhhya kerna ditta laiyna. Greebaan anathaan Tayra maana. Sub kichh(u) Tu haiyn, Tu haiyn, mayray piyaaray, Tayri koodrut(i) kuou bul(i) jaayeen jeeo. 1. Bhaanaiy oojhurr bhaanaiy raha. Dershun(u) paykhut mun(u) aghaavaiy, Nanak milun(u) soobhaayee jeeo. 4.7.14.
Word Meaning: Kuhhiya = whatever (we are) told (ordered). Anathaan = orphans (without any support). Koodrut(i) = nature; magnanimity. Bul(i) = offer life. 1.
Bhaanaiy = as per (Waheguru's) wish. Oojhurr = misled from the path; directionless.
Bherm(i) = misled; no clear direction. Bhuvaiy = travels (goes) through. Buhou Jooni = many life forms. Tisaiy = His (Waheguru's). Rujayee = Will. 2.
Vertaiy = operates; happens. Agumm = (physically) inaccessible. Agochur = incomprehensible. Athaaha = unfathomable. Keemut(i) = value; magnanimity. 3.
Khaak(u) = dust (of feet); humbleness. Paykhut = on seeing. Aghaavaiy = feels contented. Milun(u) = union. Soobhaayee = with noble intentions. 4.
MEANING: Living beings obey Your Huqam (Will), and receive whatever You provide, oh Waheguru! (The rich and powerful may use unfair means to get what they want), But the poor and the powerless take pride only in You (You are their sole support). You are everything for us, oh my dear Waheguru! I gladly offer my life for sacrifice for Your magnanimity. 1.
As per Your Will, some people are misled from the path of righteousness, while some others tread the right path. As per Your will, You make some people sing Your praise in Guru's shelter. Again, it is Your Will that some people are misled by the attractions of Maya, and suffer rebirth in many life forms. 2. There is no foolish or wise individual by his choice; all that happens is Your Will. You are incomprehensible, physically unreachable, limitless, and unfathomable; nobody can describe Your worth (magnanimity). 3.

I have come to Your door, and wish to have the dust of the holy people to put on my forehead (obey their Huqam like a slave). The “sight” of Waheguru causes complete contentment as far as the worldly attractions are concerned, but such sights happen only to the devotees who have noble intentions in their mind for Waheguru. 4. 7.14.

Hirday Naam(u) day nirmul keeyay, Nanak rung(i) rusaala jeeo. 4.8.15.
Word Meaning: Vissar(i) = forgotten. Bhookh(u) = appetite (for worldly attractions) Viyapaiy = exerts; affects strongly. Bhidh(i) = ways; means. Dhaavaiy = moves quickly. Soohayla = comfortable. 1.
Vud = great. Sumrutha = capable. Jeeyay = in mind. Smaleen = remember. Huoun = haumein (selfishness and ego). Pritpaala = nourishes; looks after. 2.
Baarik Vaangi = like a child. Toat(i) = shortage. Munayeen = (I) bring around; win over. Deen Diyaal = kind to the powerless. Gopala = Waheguru. 3.
Bulihaari = sacrifice. Bundhan = bonds (of Maya). Nirmul = clean (of all evil thoughts). Rung(i) = in love. Rusaala = sources of all tastes (enjoyment). 4.
MEANING: When a person forgets Waheguru’s Naam, he begins to suffer (spiritually). Worldly desires begin to overpower him, and he tries many different means to satisfy them as quickly as possible. On the contrary, a person to whom the Kind Waheguru inspires to recite His Naam enjoys comfort all the time. 1.
My Waheguru is perfectly capable (of doing everything); all my troubles go away when I remember Him (keep Him in mind) with love, all my worries and the discomfort of my haumein are all dispelled because He looks after me in every which way. 2.
I ask Him for everything like a child; He keeps giving me, and there is never a shortage in his bounty. Countless people beg at the feet of the Kind and the Provider Waheguru, and try to win Him over for His gifts. 3. I offer my life to the Perfect Guru who has cut all my bonds to Maya and who has cleansed my mind by giving Waheguru’s Naam; now I am enjoying the bliss of Waheguru’s love, oh Nanak. 4. 8.15.

Nanak kee dhur Tu haiyn Tthaakur, Hur(i) rung(i) paar(i) preevaan jeeo. 4.9.16.

Word Meaning: Laal = ruby; dear. Gopal = Waheguru. Rungeelay = performer of uncanny feats; source of bliss. Gehr = deep; unknowable. Gumbheer = unemotional; never changing. Govinday = Waheguru. Ooch = higher (above the effects of Maya). Athaah = unfathomable. 1. Dookh Bhunjun = destroyer of discomforts (troubles). Nidhaan = treasure (of). Amolay = priceless. Akal Moorut(i) = unaffected by time. Ajooni = which never takes a life form. Sumbhou = self-illuminated. 2. Sungi = companion. Rung = situation. Pritpaala = nourishing. Rusaayin = source of all tastes (comforts). Triptaayin = providing contentment. 3. Dhiyayeen = I worship. Soomut(i) = noble advice. Dhur = support. Rung(i) = in love. Paar(i) preevaan = swim across (the sea of Maya). 4.

MEANING: Dear Waheguru is invaluable like a ruby. He is kind, a performer of uncanny feats, unknowable, never-changing, and limitless. The Lord is above the effects of Maya, unfathomable, and limitless. I survive only by reciting His Naam. 1.

He is the destroyer of all troubles, and His treasures are priceless. He is without fear, bears no enmity to anyone, is unfathomable, and immeasurable. He is unaffected by time, does not take on life forms, and is self-illuminating. I become completely peaceful when I recite His Naam. 2. The source of bliss, Waheguru, is always our companion who nourishes (looks after) all the low and high-class people. His Naam is the source of all enjoyment and of contentment; I drink His Naam-Amrit in the shelter of the Guru. 3.

I worship Him in comfort and in discomfort as advised by the guru. You are my support, and I can swim across the sea of Maya in Your love, oh Nanak. 4.9.16

Naam(i) rung(i) Naam(i) choaj tmaashay, Naoun Nanak keeyay bhoga jeeo. 4.10.17.

Word Meaning*:* Dhunn(u) = good luck (for me). Suful(u) = blissful; comforting. Paykhut = on seeing. Moorut, Chusay, Pul, Ghurriyaan = they denote very short periods of time. Sunjoga = predetermined union. 1. Oodum(u) = enthusiasm; vivacity. Bherm(u) = misbeliefs; doubts. Khoya = lost; went away. Nidhaan(u) = (source of all) treasures. Mit(i)

= erased; are removed. 2. Bani = Shabad; Huqam. Kuthi = uttered; declared. Vukhaani = explained. Uver = other. 3. Rus(u) = essence; taste. Pehnan(u) = clothes (to wear). Bhojun = meals. Rung(i) = enjoyment. Choaj Tmaashay = entertaining activities. Bhoga = source of enjoyment. 4.

MEANING: I feel very lucky for the moment when I got connected with Satguru. His sight is blissful and I got freedom from the bonds of Maya at His sight. That moment, that time was highly lucky for me, and so was the predetermined union with Him. 1.

My vivacity (to act on Guru's advice) resulted in cleaning my mind (of any evil thoughts), and all my misbeliefs were cleared when I began to follow the path advised by the Guru. As Satguru narrated the treasure of Waheguru's Naam to me, all my mental troubles were gone. 2 Satguru explained to me that Your Huqam is prevailing everywhere – inside and out. You have declared Your Huqam and explained it too. Satguru explained that there is only one Supreme Being, and that is You, and there will be none other, oh Waheguru. 3.

I acquired the essence of Naam-Amrit from Satguru. He advised me that Waheguru's Naam is like wearing costly dresses and enjoying rich foods. Not only that, Waheguru's Naam brings you the fun and enjoyment of all the activities of entertainment. Waheguru's Naam is like all the tastes of life for me, oh Nanak. 4.10.17

Word Meaning: Sugal = all. Peh(i) = from. Vust(u) = article; thing. Tiyaagoun = (I) give up. Vaar(i) = offer to sacrifice. Lukh vuriyaan = countless times. Dhoora = dust of the feet. (an expression of love and respect). 1. Daatay = provider. Bidhatay = carver of fate. Sumruth = capable of doing anything. Sookh Daatay = source of comfort. Versaavaiy = blessed; profits from. Aousur(u) = time; opportunity; objective of human life. 2.

Bhuvan = mansions; hearts. Pooneeta = holy; free of all evil. Atum Gurrh = the fort of soul (human mind). Bikhum(u) = very difficult. Jayvud = as great as. Uver(u) = other; else. Soora = gallant; hero. 3. Rayn(u) = dust (of feet). Doormut(i) = evil wisdom. Binsi = ended; destroyed. Koobudh(i) = evil mind. Abhaagi = unlucky. Koorra = mundane distractions. 4.

MEANING: With all the humbleness, I beg only one thing from all the devotees of Waheguru that please, donate me the dust of your feet (I surrender all my pride and wisdom, and wish to act on your advice). I am gladly willing to offer my life to you (serve you as your slave) (if you connect me with Waheguru). 1. You are the provider, and you are the carver of the fate of everybody, oh omnipresent Waheguru! You are capable of doing everything (are omnipotent) and a source of comfort. Everybody is blessed by You; kindly help me achieve the objective of my human life, oh Waheguru. 2.

Your sight purifies the hearts of individuals, and they are able to conquer the fort of the human soul (mind), which otherwise is impossible to conquer. You are the provider, and the carver of peoples' fate; nobody else is as great a gallant (hero, who looks after everyone) as You are! 3. I am lucky to put the dust of the feet of Your devotees on my forehead (serve them that they have connected me with You) as a result of which all my evil thoughts have been eradicated, and the unlucky bad wisdom has run away from me. When a person's mind quits wandering, and he sings the virtues of Waheguru, all his mundane distractions leave him alone, oh Nanak. 4.11.18.

Word Meaning: Vissar(u) naahi = (please) do not be forgotten. Aivud = that great. Raatay = united completely. Dhiyaayeen = (I) remember (You). 1.
Maati = soil; earth (the body of a fetus). Undhi = completely ignorant. Soorut(i) = awareness. Bhuliya Jaayee = comfortable place. Anund = enjoyment. Binod, Choj, Tmaashay = activities for entertainment. Bhaavaiy = as per (Waheguru's Will). 2. Chhuttee Amrit Bhojun = old Indian granths recognize thirty-six (amrit-like) delicious foods. Sayj = bed. Seetul(u) Puvna = cool air. Sehj = peaceful mind. Kayl, Rung = entertainment; enjoyment. 3.
Sa = that. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Visreh(i) = forget. Oat = support. 4.

MEANING: Please, do not allow me to forget You, oh great Waheguru! It is Your kindness that Your devotees are imbued in Your Naam. I, too, beg You that kindly give me the gift (enable me) that I recite Your Naam day and night. 1.
(You are so kind) that You grant the awareness to the fetus, which is nothing more than an ignorant piece of mud (earth), and You put him in a comfortable position (in the womb), and provide all the necessities for his survival and growth. (For the future), All enjoyment and activities of entertainment are there for him as per Your Will. 2. Whatever the living beings receive in life is all provided by You. Your kindness provides 36 kinds of delicious food, comfortable beds, cool air (a comfortable environment), a peaceful life, and other amenities for the man to enjoy. 3. Please give me the wisdom so that I may never forget You, and always recite Your Naam, oh Waheguru! I wish that I may sing Your virtues with every breath in the shelter of the Guru, which is my support, oh, Nanak! 4.12.19.

Word Meaning: Sift(i) Salaahun = sing praise. Rujayee = (to obey Waheguru's) Will. Bhaayee = to (Your) liking. Jup(u) = recitation (of some mantras). Bhaanaiy = Will. Poor Giyana = complete Divine knowledge (unity with God). 1. Mun(u) Maana = mutual liking for each other. 2. Pritpaala = raising and nourishing (looking after). Gopaala = Waheguru. Khuray = very much. Praana = life. 3. Jaata = understood (made a connection). Bhaanay = liked. Triput(i) Aghaana = complete contentment. 4.

MEANING: To obey Your Huqam gladly is You real praise, oh Waheguru! Only that knowledge and meditation are meaningful that are to Your liking. Only that recitation of mantras is worth which You approve, and only that knowledge is perfect which You provide, oh Waheguru. 1. Only that individual sings Your Amrit-Naam whom You like, oh Waheguru! The devotees (who are fully connected with You) belong to You, and You belong to them; You and Your devotees like (enjoy) each other. 2. You look after Your devotees, and the devotees enjoy Your company (shelter), oh Waheguru. Your devotees are very dear to You, and You are the life of the devotees (they cannot live without You). 3. I wish to sacrifice my life for the devotees who have fully recognized You (are fully connected with You), and whom You love. Their company is always comforting, and I am fully content with Your Naam-essence in their company, oh Nanak! 4.13.20.

Hur humra, hum Hur(i) kay daasay, Nanak Shabad Guru Sach(u) deena jeeo. 4.14.21.

Word Meaning: Julnidh(i) = source of water (ocean). Meen = fish. Boond = drop (the mythical first drop of the rain water for which the chaatrik laments for). Tikh-haaray = thirsty. Leena = fully absorbed. 1. Kheer(u) = milk. Aghaavaiy = contented. Trikhvunt = thirsty. Bheena = imbued. 2. Undhiyaaray = in darkness. Bherta = husband. Chitvut = having thoughts about. Preetum = beloved. Anunda = blissful. Rungeena = dyed. 3. Kirpal(i) = kindly. Rung(i) = in love. Gijhaaya = got used to; instilled. 4.

MEANING: If You are like the ocean, then we are like fish (who cannot survive without water), oh Waheguru! We are like the mythical rainbird, chaatrik, who is thirsty for- Your Naam, which is like the first rain drop for us. We are thirsty for You, and You are our hope, and our mind is imbued in Your Naam. 1. Just like a hungry child who feels satisfied after drinking milk; and just like a poor man who is overjoyed to receive money; and just like a thirsty man who is happy (satisfied) to drink cold water (on a hot day), we feel blissful to be imbued in Your Naam! 2. Just like the light of a lamp is a boon in the darkness, and just like the arrival of the husband fulfils the wish of a waiting wife, and just like the bliss that a person feels on meeting his (long separated) dear friend, my mind is completely permeated with the love of God. 3. The holy men put me on the path to Waheguru, and the kind Guru instilled love for Waheguru in me. Now, God belongs to me, and I am His slave; Guru's Shabad has connected me with the Truth (eternal Waheguru), oh Nanak. 4.14.21

Word Meaning: Nirmuliya = purifier. Dookh Bidaarun Huriya = the destroyer of discomforts (worries), Waheguru. Uver(i) = other. Saad = tastes (n); delicious dishes. Chukh(i) = taste (v). 1. Triptaavaiy = becomes content. Amar(u) = immortal. Nidhaan = treasure. Praput(i) = available, is acquired. Voottha = reside. 2. Triput(i) = Aghaana = contented. Doolaana = lose faith (or self-control). Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Bhaagittha = good luck. 3. Ikkus(u) Huth(i) = in the hand of only one person (Guru). Vursaanay = those who benefit from. Ghunayray = very many. Virleen = some rare person. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru's Amrit-like Naam always purifies one's mind because the source of all comfort, Waheguru, is the destroyer of all troubles (evils). I have tasted all other delicious dishes, but Waheguru's Naam is the sweetest of all. 1. Whosoever drinks Waheguru's Naam-Amrit becomes fully content and becomes immortal (not bodily, but spiritually as he becomes one with Waheguru). However, the treasure of Naam-Amrit (Waheguru) is available only to those who have made their heart the residence for Guru's Shabad. 2.

Those who are able to acquire the essence of Waheguru's Naam are fully contented, and their faith is never shaken. However, only those who have acquired Waheguru's Naam have good luck carved on their forehead. (It is a belief that one's luck is revealed on one's forehead. 3. Waheguru's Naam is given only to one individual – the Guru – but there are countless who can benefit from that. By obeying the Guru, many, many people have found salvation. The Naam-treasure can be had only through the Guru's benevolence, but only a few rare individuals actually realize it, oh Nanak. 4.15.22

Gur bundhun tin kay suglay kaatay, jun Nanak sehj(i) smaayee jeeo. 4.16.23.

Word Meaning: Nidh(i) = (nine) treasures of the mythical god, Kuber. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = (eighteen) supernatural powers. Junum(u) Pdaruth(u) = the objective of human life (Waheguru's Naam). Gehr = unfathomable. Gumbheeraiy = unemotional; never changing in any way. Laakh kot(i) = millions. Rung Raavaiy = enjoys. 1.
Paykhut = on "seeing". Pooneeta = holy, pious. Oodhaaray = salvaged. Agumm = (physically) unreachable. Agoachar(u) = incomprehensible. 2.
Ooch = High (above the effects of Maya). Apaar = limitless. Thaana = residence. 3.
Mookut(i) bhuyya = became free from the bonds of Maya. Vusayra = residence. Bundhun = bonds of Maya. Sehj(i) = spiritual state above the effects of Maya. 4.

MEANING: I have Waheguru's Naam in my heart, which is like having all the nine treasures of Kuber and all the 18 supernatural powers, because the unfathomable, and never-changing Waheguru, is the source of bliss, and connecting with Him is the objective of human life. For this reason, an individual who takes shelter at the Guru's feet feels blissful as if he is enjoying countless happy occasions. 1. He becomes completely free of all evil thoughts on "seeing" (connecting with) the Guru, and not only that, but he also enables his brothers and friends (his companions) to find salvation. The physically unreachable and incomprehensible Waheguru can be worshiped (and realized) only by the benevolence of the Guru. 2. Waheguru, which is searched for by all His creation, is realized only by some rare, lucky individual. The residence of Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, is unreachable and incomprehensible, and is shown by the Guru. (The Guru connects with Him). 3. Your Naam is the real life-sustaining liquid (of immortality), oh unfathomable and never-changing Waheguru! Whosoever makes his heart a residence for Your Naam becomes free from the bonds of Maya because the Guru cuts his bonds, and the devotee attains the higher spiritual state which is above the effects of Maya, oh Nanak. 4.16.23.

Saas(i) saas(i) Hur(i) gaavaiy Nanak(u), Satgur(i) dhaak(i) leeya mayra purrda jeeo. 4.17.24.

Word Meaning: Mungal = songs of happiness (or of praise of Waheguru which produces bliss). Averda = life. 1. Aoukhudh(u) = cure; medicine. Sadhu = Guru. Kilbikh = sins. Nirmul = clean (of all evil). Theeya = became. Anund = bliss. Binasay = destroyed. 2. Ung(u) = favour; support. Mookta = free (from the bonds of Maya). Sat(i) Kuray = acknowledge to be True (have full faith). Puchhaata = recognized (made a connection). 3. Jub Tay = since. Bhaytut = on meeting. Bulaayay = evil spirits; worries; troubles. Purrda = secrets (weaknesses). 4.

MEANING: I recite Waheguru's Naam and sing His blissful praise only because of His benevolence. One should recite Waheguru's Naam all his life, no matter what he is doing – standing, sitting, asleep or awake. 1. The Guru has given me Waheguru's Naam (connected me with Him), which is the cure for all (mental problems, which also give birth to physical ailments). Now all my sins are gone, and I am completely clean (of all evils). I am blissful now, and all my ailments and troubles are gone. 2.

An individual, who has the support of my dear Waheguru, is salvaged in this world. Those who have recognized the Guru (get connected with Him) have full faith in the existence of Waheguru, and are not afraid of anyone or anything. 3.

Ever since I have been connected with the Guru, all my worries and troubles have disappeared at the sight of Him. Now, I recite Waheguru's Naam with every breath, and the Guru has covered (removed) all my weaknesses, oh Nanak! 4. 17. 24.

Word Meaning = Oat(i) Poat(i) = the cross threads of fabric (weft and woof). Raata = mixed; imbued. Pritpaalay = looks after. Sookhdaata = source of all comfort. Paani, Pukkha, Peesoun = fetch water, fan (v), and grind wheat (all such services were needed before mechanization). Aahur = task; service. 1. Silk = bonds (of maya). Bhaaya = liked. Kmaavaiy = does (things). Untar(i) Baahur(i) = inside and out (mentally and physically). Maahur(u) = expert; alert. 2. Daana = wise; respectable. Bidh(i) = ways (n); possibilities; alternatives. Maaneh(i) = enjoy. Jaahur(u) = famous; revealed. 3. Pehiraaya = robed; honoured. Laykha = accountability; questions. Gehr = deep (who does not disclose his secrets). Gumbheera = not affected by conditions. Gouhur(u) = a valuable stone (of great qualities).

MEANING: The source of all comfort, Waheguru, is mixed (blended) with His devotee just as the cross threads in fabric, and He looks after his devotee in every way. I wish to serve such a devotee who is serving Waheguru all the time by fetching water for him, fanning him, and grinding flour for him. 1. Waheguru cuts all the bonds of Maya for His devotee, and the devotee gladly obeys the Huqam of His Lord. The devotee does only those things that are to the liking of the Lord, and he serves Him enthusiastically by mind and by body. 2. You are wise and know every possibility (inner feelings of the devotee), oh Waheguru! The devotees of Waheguru feel blissful under all conditions. Everything that belongs to the Lord belongs to the devotees as well, and the devotees are made prominent (famous) by Waheguru. 3. Once the Lord robes (honours) His devotee, He never questions him again. I wish to offer my life to such a devotee who has become "one" with Waheguru, and like Him, which is unfathomable, never changes and is invaluable, oh Nanak! 4.18.25

Kuhou Nanak bherm kuttay kivarra, buhourr(i) na hoyiyaiy jaoula jeeo. 4.19.26.

Word Meaning: Ghur = heart. Tolaiy = searches. Bherm(i) Bhoolaayee= lost in doubts and misbeliefs. Soohayla = in happiness; content. 1. Jhim(i) Jhim(i) = dropwise; drizzle. Anund Binoad = enjoys bliss. Kayla = detached; blissful. 2. Sadh = Guru. Sooka Huriya = dead (hopeless) and barren mind came alive. Soomut(i) = noble wisdom. Mayla = union (with Waheguru). 3. Trung = wave. Smaaya = became "one" with. Kivaarra = doors; walls. Jaoula = separate. 4.

MEANING: Everything (Waheguru's Naam) resides in man's heart, and there's nothing outside in the world. Those who search for Him in the world are lost in doubts and misbeliefs. Those who have found (got connected with) Waheguru in the shelter (guidance) of the Guru are happy and content internally and in the outside world. 1. The Naam-Amrit slowly drips into the minds of those who are connected with Waheguru (slow dripping is more effective than a flood). They drink it tastefully when they ponder on Guru's Shabad (i.e.

pondering on Guru's Shabad is equivalent to drinking Amrit). Being connected with God, which is always blissful, such individuals also feel blissful and enjoy day and night. 2. They have been united with Waheguru, from whom they had been disconnected for many lives (Sikhism strongly believes in reincarnation), and with the benevolence of the Guru, their barren mind (which never thought about Waheguru) came alive (begins to have holy thoughts). With Guru's noble wisdom, they begin to remember Waheguru, and thus get connected to Him. 3. Just as a wave on the surface of water mingles completely with water again, Waheguru's Light in humans (human soul) becomes one with His own Light (Waheguru Himself). All the walls of their doubts are smashed, and they never get separated from Him again, oh Nanak! 4.19.26.

Word Meaning: Koorbani = Bulihaari = Vaar(i) Jaayeen = to offer life. Rusna = tongue. Bhuniya = recited. Vitoun = from; for. Aaradhay = worship. 1. Churn = feet. Pukhaaleen = I (wish to) wash. Maarug(i) = path. Nihaaleen = see; have sight. Purakh(u) Duyyalay = kind Waheguru. Laadhay = found; connected. 2. Vudbhaagi = very lucky. Mudhay = in the middle; among. Aliput = unaffected by Maya. Nirbaanaiy = having absolutely no worldly attachment or desire. Bhoujul = world sea. Doot = demons. Saadhay = fixed (controlled). 3. Shern = shelter. Taan = force; power. Tuj(i) = quit. Moh undhayra = darkness of attachment. Agumm = inaccessible. Agaadhay = unfathomable. 4.

MEANING: I wish to offer my life to those who listen to You (obey Your Huqam), and to those who recite Your Naam by the tongue, and also to those who worship You by mind and body, oh Waheguru! 1. I wish to wash the feet of those who follow the path leading to You. I also wish to "see" the kind Waheguru who is pervading the whole universe. I will gladly surrender my heart (mind) to the friend who is connected with Waheguru by taking shelter of the Guru. 2. They are very lucky who have realized You, oh Waheguru! Even though You are present in everybody, yet You are unaffected by Maya, and have no worldly attachment. They have controlled all the demons (lust, rage, greed, attachment and conceit), and swim across the sea of Maya in the company of the Guru. 3.
I have taken refuge in such fortunate individuals and have gotten rid of all my ego, power, and the darkness of attachment. (I beg of them only) for fostering of Waheguru's Naam, who is inaccessible and unfathomable, oh Nanak! 4.20.27.

Nihaaliyaiy = cast sight.4.

NOTE: Mayr(u) is a mythical mountain of gold and all the precious stones. (Hindu Granths).

MEANING: If You are compared to a tree, then the whole universe is like Your branches, oh Waheguru! You have transformed from minuscule to huge (the universe). You, Yourself, are the ocean, and Yourself the suds-bubbles on the surface; no one else can be seen like You. 1. You are the thread, and also the beads in the rosary. You are the knot, and you are the main supreme (Mayru) bead. You were at the beginning of the universe, are there now, and will be there at the end; nobody else can be seen like You. 2.
You are formless, and You are in the whole universe, oh, the source of all comforts, Waheguru! You are the source of all essences, imbued with love for Your Creation, yet You are completely detached from the world. Only You know all Your amazing feats of how You look after Your Creation. 3 You are the Lord and also the devotee. You are hidden, and You are visible (in Your Creation). Please cast a kind sight on me, even if it is for a very short period of time, so that I may always sing Your virtues, begs Your slave, Nanak. 4.21.28.

Ker = hands. Binou = prayer; imploring. Puthur(u) = rock-like heavy (with evil deeds). Leeajaiy = save. Bhuyay = became. Bhaana = likes. 4.

MEANING: Only those words are worthwhile which are in Waheguru's praise. But only a few rare individuals have realized (made a connection with) such Bani by the Guru's grace. Wonderful is the time when one sings, or listens to the praise of Waheguru; such individuals are recognized in Waheguru's Court. 1. Those eyes are lucky (worthy of respect) which have had the "sight" of Waheguru. Those hands are lucky which write praise of Waheguru. Those feet are pretty (lucky) which walk on the path leading to Waheguru. I offer my life to those in whose company I may get connected with Waheguru. 2.
Listen to me, my dear friend; Waheguru salvages individuals in the company of the Guru in a moment. Their minds become pure, and all their sins are destroyed, and they are never born again. 3. With folded hands, I beg You, oh Waheguru, "save me - the stone-like heavy rock (with the weight of my sins); I am sinking in the sea of Maya (Worldly attractions)". The kind Waheguru listened to my prayer, and now Waheguru is my most favourite friend, oh Nanak. 4.22. 29.

MEANING: The words of Your praise are the real Amrit, oh Waheguru! By listening to them, I attain the supreme spiritual state (above the effects of Maya). On seeing the Satguru (connecting with Him), the burning (restlessness) of my mind has calmed down, and my mind has become peaceful. 1. With the grace of the Guru, I am reciting Waheguru's Naam with my tongue as a result of which, all my troubles have gone away, and it is all comforts for me now. I feel as if all the waters, the land, and the lakes are full to the brim with the Naam-Amrit, and there is no place without it. 2. With the kindness of the Creator, all the living beings are being looked after well, and they are fully contented. 3. All the life in the forests, in the grass, the bushes, and in the whole universe has bloomed, and it did not take the Creator even a moment to do so. Taking shelter of the Guru, I worship Waheguru, which fulfills the wishes of every mind, oh Nanak! 4.23.30

MEANING: You are my father, and You are my mother, oh Waheguru! You are my friend, and You are my brother; when You are my guard everywhere, why should I be afraid of anything, and why should I have any worries or irritations! 1.

I realize You (connect with You) with Your kindness. You are my shelter, and You are my pride. There is no other power than You, and the whole world is Your sport, and the sports ring (You enjoy Your Creation just as a sportsman enjoys his sports), oh Waheguru! 2.

You have created all the living beings, and they do exactly what You wish them to do, oh Waheguru. Whatever happens in the world happens according to Your Huqam; we have no control over it. 3. I attain great comfort by reciting Your Naam (remembering You), and my mind finds peace when I sing Your virtues. Because of the kindness of the Perfect Guru, my mind is overjoyed, and I have won the most difficult battle (fighting against the demons and the attractions of Maya) of my life, oh Nanak. 4.24.31

Anund Mungal Kalyan = blissfulness; joyful mind. Nidhana = treasure; source. Sehj = spiritual state where Maya has no effect. Vukhaana = recite. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru is the support for life and the mind. His devotees survive (spiritually) by singing the virtues of the limitless Waheguru. His Naam is the treasure of virtues and of Amrit; one finds huge comfort in reciting His Naam. 1.
In the company of the Guru (or His holy congregation), all one's conceived wishes are fulfilled, and the cycle of reincarnation is broken. On seeing and meeting the Guru (spiritually connecting with Him), all one's wishes and objectives are realized. 2.
Even though the followers of the Yogic path, the Sidh yogis, and the Giyanis recite His Naam, nobody can determine the value (magnanimity) of the unreachable and the inconceivable Waheguru. But the Guru has enlightened my mind, and all my doubts and misbeliefs have been cleared. 3. Waheguru is the treasure of all the comforts and bliss; one achieves all the comforts and the higher spiritual state (where Maya has no effect) by reciting His Naam. With His benevolence, I have acquired His Naam in my heart, oh Nanak. 4.25.32.

Word Meaning: Soyay = (Sobha); fame, praise; information. Tthaakur(u) = Lord. Ut(i) = extremely. Bhaari = great. Kertub = amazing feats. Oat = shelter. 1.
Huriya = green (comes to life). Kutha = narration (of virtues). Mul(u) = filth. Sugli = all. Khovaiy = lose; wash away. Bhaytut = on meeting (in the company). 2.
Smaaroun = remember. Dhaaroun = acquire; adopt. Pergaasa = enlightenment.
Muyya = kindness. Pritpaala = raising, looking after. 3.
Sat(i) = True; eternal. Chulit = bewitching (captivating) feats. Pergut = visible; appear. Nihaala = blissful. 4.

MEANING: I survive (spiritually) only by listening to Your praise, oh Waheguru! You are my magnanimous darling, Lord. Only You understand Your captivating feats; I am only in Your shelter, oh the provider for the world, Waheguru! 1. My mind blooms when I sing Your praise, and all the filth of my mind is washed away when I listen to the narration of Your virtues. I recite You Naam in the company of the holy saints, oh kind Waheguru! 2.
I recite the Naam of my Waheguru with every breath. I acquired this wisdom through the Guru's kindness. My heart is enlightened with Your grace, oh the provider for the whole world, Waheguru! You are kind to everybody. 3.
Only Waheguru is eternal, and He alone is there all the time. His amazing feats are visible everywhere, and I feel blissful on seeing them, oh Nanak! 4. 26.33.

Word Meaning: Versay = rain (of Waheguru's Naam) falling. Mayha = cloud. Seetal = cool. Shaant(i) = peaceful. Sehj = higher spiritual state. Tthaandh(i) = coolness; peace. 1.
Rujaaya = fed to satisfaction. Daat = gift; largesse. Dhraapay = overfed. 2.
Naayee = greatness. Moha = attachment. Binsay = ended. Suntaap = troubles; tough times. 3. Phaahay = bonds; shackles. Khin = moment. Bheetur(i) = inside. 4.

MEANING: When all the devotee friends recite Waheguru's Naam together with dedication, it feels as if His Naam begins to rain in the hearts of the devotees by His Huqam (pleasure). The mind (suffering from the heat of vile, lust, etc.) begins to feel calm and peaceful, and the comfort of the higher spiritual level (where Maya has no effect) begins to be felt with His kindness. 1 The kind God has created an excess of everything so that all the living beings are completely satisfied. The provider Waheguru bestows such great largesse that all living beings are fully content. 2. Waheguru is eternal, and so is His magnanimity; one should always remember Him in Guru's shelter. With recitation of Waheguru's Naam, all the fear of reincarnation, attachment with worldly things, and all the troubles and grief are completely eradicated. 3. I remember Waheguru with every breath as a result of which all the worldly bonds are cut, oh Nanak! When a person sings the virtues of Waheguru, all his wishes are granted in no time. 4.27.34.

NOTE: Punjab has always been an important agrarian state, but at the time of Guru Sahiban, there were no canals to irrigate the fields. The farmers depended mainly on rainfall for growing their crops. Not only that, rains also brought relief from the intense heat of May and June. In this Shabad, Guru Sahib uses the analogy of rain's importance to living beings to emphasize the importance of Waheguru's Naam.

(PAGE 105): Kur(i) kirpa Prubh(u) bhugti laavhou, Sach(u) Nanak Amrit(u) peeyay jeeo. 4.28.35.

Word Meaning: Saajun = Meet = friend. Agumm = (physically) inaccessible. Apaaray = limitless. Mooktay = free from the bonds of Maya. 1. Kilbikh = sins. Chinday = desired. Rijuk = food and other necessities. 2. Binsaiy = destroyed. Paargiraami = able to swim across the sea of Maya. Kaaruj = tasks; objectives. Theeyay = became; completed. 3. Shernaayi = shelter. Bhaavaiy = (as You) deem appropriate. Sach(u) = eternal. 4.

MEANING: Come, all my devotee friends; let us sing praise of the unreachable, and the limitless Waheguru together. All those who sing and all those who listen to the praise of our Creator, Waheguru, are emancipated. 1. When one recites the Naam of Waheguru - who nourishes all His Creation, and fulfills all other needs - all his sins of many lives are destroyed, and all his conceived wishes are granted. 2. One enjoys all the comforts, and all his fears go away when he recites Waheguru's Naam. Whoever serves Waheguru can swim across the sea of Maya, and all his tasks are realized (his noble wishes are granted). 3. I have come to Your shelter, oh Waheguru! Please connect me with You in whatever way You please. Kindly enable me to serve You (recite Your Naam with dedication) so that I (Guru Nanak) may drink the True Naam - Amrit. 4.28.35.

Naam(u) juput mun(u) tun(u) huriyavul(u), Prubh Nanak nudr(i) nihaaray jeeo. 4.29.36.

Word Meaning: Bhuyay = became. Govind = Gosayeen = provider for the earth = Waheguru. Maygh(u) = clouds. Tthaandh(i) = coolness; peace. 1. Jea Junt = living beings. Pritpaaray = provides for; looks after. Bhunjun = destroyer. Saagar = sea. Aahaaray = food. 2. Bulihaar(i) = Koorbaana = offer for sacrifice. Raiyn(i) = night. Khin = moment. 3. Soag = grief; sorrow. Suntaapay = troubles; hardships. Huriyavul(u) = blooms; joyful. Nihaaray = sees; looks kindly at. 4.

MEANING: With the kindness of Waheguru, it is raining Naam everywhere. Waheguru, who is always kind to the poor and the powerless, has brought calmness and peace to the world, which burns (suffers) with the heat of vices. 1. He looks after His creation just the way a mother looks after her baby. The Lord Waheguru, who is the destroyer of all discomforts and is the source of all comfort, provides food and support to all living beings. 2.
The kind Waheguru is present everywhere – on the land, in the waters, and in the sky - we should sacrifice our lives for Him, and must worship Him day and night. He can salvage all of us in a moment (in the twinkling of an eye). 3.
Waheguru protects all of us, and all the sorrows and troubles are eliminated. The body and mind bloom (feel blissful) when we recite Waheguru's Naam, which happens only when He casts His kind sight on us, oh Nanak. 4.29.36.

Word Meaning: Usthul = barren land; desert; deserted place. Chaubaaray = mansion. Oojaarri = uninhabited (deserted) place. 1. Rookhee = uncoated chapati without any dish (subsistence food). Smaalay = remembers Waheguru's Naam. Nihaalay = Nihaaray = sees. Budphaiyli = evil deeds. Visoo = poison. Vaarree = garden. 2.

Rung(u) = love; respect. Saakut = worshipper of wealth. Vikurm = ignoble deeds. Doolubh Dayh = priceless human life. Ugiyani = ignorant. Jurrh = root. 3.
Shern(i) = shelter. Deen = powerless; weak. Sherm = honour; self-respect. 4.
MEANING: A deserted place feels like a mansion of gold where Waheguru's Naam is recited; and a town where Waheguru's Naam is not recited feels like a deserted place. 1.
If a poor person, who has very little to eat, recites Waheguru's Naam, he has Waheguru's kind sight on him everywhere; but a person, who has very rich food to eat, but does evil deeds, is growing a garden of poison (in Waheguru's eyes). 2.
An individual who develops no love or respect for the holy devotees (of Waheguru) and, on top of that, commits ignoble deeds in the company of lovers of money is an ignorant person who uproots (destroys) his own base and wastes away his precious human life. 3.
I have come to the shelter of the Waheguru, who is kind to the powerless, is the source of all comfort, is the Guru, and is the provider for the whole world. Please be kind to me (Your slave Nanak), so that I may sing Your praise to save my honour in Your Court (to achieve my objective of being "one" with You), oh Waheguru. 4.30.37.

Word Meaning: Churn Tthaakur Kay = Lord's feet (His Naam). Ridaiy = (in) heart. Kul(i) = Kulyug (an era of time considered to be unholy in Hindu Granths. (Sikhism does not believe in any such stipulated time periods). Klaysh = bitterness; hostility. Door(i) Puyiyaanay = went away; removed. Shaant(i) = peace. Sehj = peace of mind. Dhoon(i) = concentration. Nivaasa = reside; in the company of. 1. Na Moolay = absolutely not; not at all. Bhurpooray = filling completely. Simer(i) = remembering (Waheguru). Jum kee Phaasa = noose of the angel of death. 2. Verkhaiy = drops; rains. Unhud = Divine music which plays automatically. Shaant(i) = peace; calmness. Tiput(i) Aghaayay = contented completely. Dilaasa = encouragement; support. 3. Ful(u) = success; achieved the object. Aavun Jaan = reincarnation. 4.
MEANING: A man who stays in the company of the holy men (and recites Waheguru's Naam) makes his heart the place for Waheguru's Naam to stay. All his worldly troubles and hostility towards him are eliminated, and he attains peace of mind, comfort, a higher spiritual state, and concentration of mind. 1. Once one is connected to Waheguru through his love and devotion, his connection is never broken, and he "sees" Waheguru present everywhere. I can also cut the noose of the angel of death by singing the virtues of Waheguru. 2. The rain of the Divine music of Bani (words of Waheguru's praise) is falling everywhere as a result of which peace and calmness prevail in one's body and mind. With Satguru's support, the devotees acquire full contentment in the Naam-rain. 3.

When a man surrenders to Waheguru and becomes dependent upon Him (has full faith in Him), he achieves the objective of his life. With His kindness, Waheguru connects His devotee to Him as a result of which all his wishes are fulfilled, and his reincarnation comes to an end, oh Nanak! 4.31.38.

Word Meaning: Meenh(u) = rain. Jea Junt = living beings. Sookhi Vusaaya = settled in comfort. Klaysh(u) = hostility; bitterness. 1. Pritpaaray = raised; looked after. Rukhvaaray = guard. Ghaali = hard work. 2. Jul Thul Muhhiul = water, land, and sky = the whole world. Triptaanay = contented. Churn Pukhaali = wash feet (an expression of profound love and respect). 3. Ichh = wish; desire. Poojaavunhaara = fulfiller. Bulihaara = offer life for sacrifice. Rusaalee = the source of all essences (Waheguru). 4.
MEANING: With the kindness of Waheguru, the rain of His Naam is coming down as a result of which all the living beings are having comfort in their life. By remembering Waheguru's Naam, all the troubles, and hostility against one another go away, and the everlasting comfort is achieved. 1. Waheguru, to whom all the living beings belong, looks after them, and He becomes their guard. The Lord has answered my prayers, and my efforts have been successful (in achieving the objective of human life). 2. Waheguru is the provider for all the living beings, and can be "seen" (realized) only by the grace of the Guru. I wish to wash the feet of the Guru (serve Him by obeying His advice gladly) with whose grace all the living beings in the waters, on the land, and in the sky get fully satisfied. 3.
Waheguru fulfills the wishes of the mind. I wish to sacrifice my life for Him all the time. The destroyer of all the discomforts, Waheguru, has bestowed me with the gift (of union with Him); so now I am fully imbued in the love of the source of all essences (Waheguru), oh Nanak! 4.32.39.

Word Meaning: Tthaakur(u) = Soami = Lord; Master. Pind(u) = body. Raas(i) = capital. Joar(u) = force (behind). 1. Kaar Kmaavaan = do just that. Jay Toodh Bhaavaan = by which You may like me. 2. Lehna = to receive. Gehna = ornaments; wealth. Baikoontth(u) = paradise. 3. Munoruth = objectives. Dookhaala = source of discomfort. 4.

MEANING: You are my Master and my Lord, oh Waheguru! My mind, my body, and my wealth all belong to You (are given by You). My life and by body are Your capital for me (I can use my mind and my body for noble or ignoble deeds), and You are the force behind me, oh the Provider for the whole world! 1. You are always the source of comfort; I wish to kneel down to touch Your feet (obey Your Command or Will, gladly). I wish to do only those deeds that You kindly ask me to do so that You may like me. 2.

I have to receive everything from You, and You are my wealth, oh Waheguru. Whatever you bestow on me, is for my comfort. You look after everybody, and in whatever situation You keep me in, is paradise for me. 3.

I sing Your virtues day and night, and I get all the comfort when I recite Your Naam. All my objectives in life (including the one to be “one” with You) have been fulfilled, and I will never experience any source of discomfort, oh Nanak! 4.33.40.

Word Meaning: Maygh(u) = cloud (Guru). Putthaaya = sent. Muhiul = sky. Deh Dis(i) = ten directions (in every direction). Versaaya = dropped. Shaant = calmness; peace of mind. Trishna = worldly desires. Anund = bliss. Bhuyya = happened; became. Subh Tthaayeen = everywhere. 1. Bhunjunhaara = destroyer. Bukhsh(i) = kindly forgive. Saara = looks after. Pritpaalay = raises and nourishes. Munaayeen = I ask for forgiveness; win over. 2. Gut(i) = higher spiritual state. Tthaakur(i) = Master; Lord. Jaayee = places. 3. Maan(u) = pride. Taan(u) = force; capability. Gooni Guhayra = limitless (source of) virtues. Aatth Pehr = twenty-four hours (all the time). 4.

NOTE: India, being a hot country, welcomes clouds, unless people have very poor shelters or the rain is damaging to crops. In addition to providing respite from hot days and alleviating water shortages, thereby spurring crop growth, the rains also wash the trees and other vegetation clean, and as a result, they begin to look very pretty. There is a lot of poetry written about clouds and rain. People need rain for food to satisfy their appetite, but there is another kind of rain they also need badly for their mental food: the rain of Waheguru's Naam, caused by the Guru-cloud. In this, and many more Shabads, you will find the rain to mean Naam-rain and the cloud to mean Guru-cloud.

MEANING: Just as all the living beings in the water, on the land, and in the sky are satisfied when it rains, Waheguru has sent another cloud in the form of Guru, which causes rain on the hearts of all human beings everywhere, as a result of which calmness and peace have prevailed, and all their desires for worldly possessions are satisfied. 1.

Not only is Waheguru the source of all comfort and the destroyer of all troubles, but He is also forgiving. He ignores our weaknesses, looks after His creation, and raises and nourishes them all. I, too, drop on His feet to seek forgiveness and win His favour. 2.

We should worship Waheguru (recite His Naam) with each breath whose shelter raises our spiritual level to the degree where Maya has no effect. There is no other lord to rival Waheguru, who has created all the places (the whole universe). 3.

All my pride and capability are Your gifts, oh Waheguru. You are the real Lord, and the limitless source of all virtues. Your slave (Guru) Nanak prays to You that "I should recite Your Naam all the time." 4.34.41

Word Meaning: Tootthay = pleased to be kind. Churn = feet (Shabad). Vootthay = took residence. Smaadh(i) = meditate with full concentration. Liv = make connection. Rus(u) = taste; bliss. 1. Agumm = (physically) unreachable. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Ghut = heart. Nayra = nearby. Aliput = unaffected by Maya. Virla = rare. Aap(u) = self. 2. Nishaani = recognition. Sehj(i) = in a higher spiritual state. Suntokh = contentment. Triptaasay = fully satisfied. Anund = bliss. Bhaanaiy = as per the Will. 3.

Hutheen Ditti = gives Himself (Naam). Nivaaray = dispels. Rung = enjoyments; bliss. Maanay = enjoy. 4.

MEANING: When Waheguru is pleased to be kind, all the comforts are realized, and the holy Shabad of the Perfect Guru takes residence in the heart (appears in the heart). As a result, the individual attains the higher spiritual level (above the effects of Maya), and with full concentration, he is connected to Waheguru; and only he enjoys that blissful feeling. 1.

My Lord, Waheguru, is physically unreachable and incomprehensible. He is present in every heart and is close by. The provider of all living beings, God, is above the effects of Maya, but some rare individuals recognize Him within themselves. 2.
If one wants to know how to recognize a devotee who has realized Waheguru, the answer is: that individual has only Waheguru at heart and recognizes His Will. He is always satisfied and content, and Maya has no effect on Him. He is blissful to accept Waheguru's Will. 3.
The provider Waheguru bestows (His Naam) Himself, and kills the discomfort of reincarnation. The devotees, who have been adopted (connected to Him) by Waheguru, enjoy the bliss of singing His praise, oh Nanak! 4.35.42.

Word Meaning: Duyya = benevolence; compassion. Gopal = Gosaayeen = the provider for the earth = Waheguru. Churn = feet (Shabad). Maaheen = in. Ungikaar(u) = hugged (expressed love and kindness). Dayra = home. Dhaaya = demolished. 1.
Vusiya = took residence. Bikhrra = difficult; insurmountable. Doot = demons (lust, rage etc.) Aahiya = wished for. 2. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Jaapaiy = visible; evident. Bherm Bhoolaava = misled by doubts and misbeliefs. Laahiya = removed. 3.
Churn Kumal = lotus-like feet (Shabad). Aadhaaro = support; prop. Aatth Pehr = twenty-four hours (all the time). Vaapaar = deal in. Sehj = higher spiritual state (above the effects of Maya). Anund = bliss. Smaahiya = mixed with; present. 4.

MEANING: Because of the kindness of Waheguru - the provider for the earth – Guru's feet (His Shabad) has flourished (ingrained) in my heart. The Creator did me a huge favour and demolished the home of all my discomforts. 1. Waheguru has taken residence in my body and mind, and nothing seems to be insurmountable now. By wishing only for Waheguru, all the demons (lust, rage, greed, etc.) have become my friends. 2.
Whatever Waheguru does, He does it alone, and nobody else's wisdom or intelligence is needed. He supports His devotees and clears all their doubts and misbeliefs. 3.
Waheguru's lotus-like feet are (His Naam is) the basis of the life of the devotees, and they deal in His Naam all the time. By singing the virtues of Waheguru, they enjoy a blissful state in which Maya has no effect. Waheguru is omnipresent, oh Nanak! 4.36.43.

Word Meaning: Mundar = temple; mansion. Rida = heart. Soohayla = blissful; peaceful. Soohaavi = providing comfort; pretty. Vit-houn = from; for. 1. Sach(u) = Waheguru. Vudaayee = greatness; magnanimity. Keem = value. Koodrut(i) = nature; capability. Kurm(u) = deeds; tasks. Maano = enjoy. 2. Saalahun(u) = praise. Vudbhaageen = with great luck. Rung(i) Ruttay = imbued in love. Bhaaveh(i) = are liked. Nishaano = recognition. 3. Unt(u) = limits. Thaan(i) Thanuntar(i) = (in) every place. Untarjaami = omniscient. 4.

MEANING: Only that temple is real where only Waheguru is worshipped. Only that heart is blissful which sings the virtues of Waheguru. That piece of land is a source of comfort where His devotees reside, who are always ready to sacrifice their lives for Waheguru. 1. Waheguru's magnanimity is eternal, but nobody can evaluate it. His capability and His deeds cannot be described. However, His devotees experience bliss by reciting His Naam and meditating on His Shabad (Huqam). 2. One can sing Waheguru's praise only if one is very lucky, and sing Waheguru's virtues only by the grace of the Guru. Waheguru likes those who are imbued in His love. They are recognized by the fact that they always recite Waheguru's Naam (sing His praise). 3. Nobody can find the limits of Waheguru as He is present in all the countries and beyond. We should recite His Naam all the time (no matter how isolated in some faraway place we are) because the omniscient Waheguru is everywhere, and knows everything about us, oh Nanak. 4.37.44.

Word Meaning: Raiyn(i) = night. Soohaavrri = Soohayla = pleasant; providing comfort. Mayla = together; in the company. Ghurree = Moorut = moment. Vunjeh(i) = spend; go by. Tithaayee = (only) that. 1. Doakh = allegations; sins. Laathay = removed. Saathay = with. Bhaiy = bhuou = fear. Bherm = doubts; misbeliefs. Khohiya = lost; removed. Jaayeen = places. 2. Sumruth = fully capable; omnipotent. Naun Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures of god Kuber. Luvaiy na Laayee = equals; matches. 3.

Deen Duyaala = kind to the powerless. Jaachik(u) = beggar. Jaachaiy = begs. Sadh Ruvaala = dust of Guru's feet (an expression of love and respect); favour of the Guru. Jun(u) = devotee. 4.
MEANING: When a person recites Waheguru's life-sustaining Naam in the company of the Guru, both his night and day become very pretty (comforting) for him. When every moment of life is spent in reciting Waheguru's Naam, it becomes successful (one achieves the objective of life, i.e. becomes "one" with Waheguru). 1. All the sins of the individual are washed away by reciting Waheguru's Naam, and Waheguru is always with Him inside and out. The perfect Guru dispels all his fears and misbeliefs, and the individual "sees" Waheguru all around. 2. God is omnipotent, great, transcendent (above the effects of Maya), and limitless. The treasure of Waheguru's Naam is like having all the nine mythical treasures of Kuber. Waheguru has been here since the beginning, is here now, and will always be here till the end, and no one else can rival Him. 3.
Please be kind to this beggar (me) as You are always kind to the powerless (humble), and grant me the dust of the feet of the Guru (His Shabad) which I beg of You. Your slave, Nanak, begs for Your Naam, which He wishes to recite all the time. 4.38.45.

Word Meaning: Aithaiy = here (in this world). Aagaiy = ahead (in the next world after death). Jea Juntar = living beings. Thaapay = created. Uver(u) = other. Kurtray = oh Creator! Dhur = Oat = support. 1. Rusna = tongue. Parbrahm = Prubh = God. Untarjaami = omniscient. Jooaiy = in gamble (earn wealth at the cost of Waheguru's Naam). Haari = lose. 2. Uvkhudh(u) = cure; medication. Jun = devotee. Kaari = Kaaruj = deed. 3. Drisht(i) = (kind) sight. Dhaar(i) = cast. Svaariya = made perfect (flawless). Ghut = heart. Vin(u) = without. Saari = supreme. 4.
MEANING: It is Your Huqam that is working in this world, as well as in the next, oh Waheguru! All the living beings have been created by You. There is none other (like You); I survive with Your support and in Your shelter, oh, Waheguru. 1.
I survive spiritually by reciting Your Naam with my tongue; (and You know that) as You are omniscient, oh Waheguru. Whoever serves You (obeys Your Huqam) lives in comfort (has mental peace), and he does not lose the precious human life in a gamble (risking Waheguru's displeasure while evil deeds). 2. The devotee, who implants Your Naam in the heart as the panacea for all diseases, gets the suffering of rebirth eliminated. Everybody should sing praise of Waheguru day and night because this is the only deed to perform for success (to find salvation). 3.

Waheguru makes His devotee flawless with His kind sight. Such a devotee salutes (obeys) Waheguru, which is present in every heart. This (to obey Waheguru) is the supreme wisdom to follow because there is none other than Him (who deserves praise), oh Nanak. 4.39.46.

Nanak Naam(u) vusiya jis(u) untar(i), pervaan girust oodaasa jeeo. 4.40.47.
Word Meaning: Rutta = imbued. Serbus(u) = everything. Vaaray = sacrifice. Aatth Pehr = twenty-four hours. Bisur(u) = forget. Saasa = breath; moment. 1.
Saajun = Meet(u) = friend. Sung(i) = with. Beechaara = ponder on. Treejaiy = swim across. Saagur = (world) ocean. Phaasa = noose. 2.
Chaar(i) = four. Pdaruth = invaluable articles: (1) Dherm (high morals), (2) Arth = wealth, (3) Kaam = wishes, success. (4) Moakh = salvation (according to Hindu Granths).
Paarjaat = a mythical tree in paradise which fulfills all one's wishes. Alukh = inconceivable. Abhayva = enigmatic; whose secrets cannot be known. Kilbikh = sins. 3.
Poorun Bhaag = maturation of luck. Bhuyay = became. Saaringpaani = Waheguru (a name for Vishnu for holding a bow in his hand). Girust = in family. Oodaasa = to renounce the world and live away from the family in some forest, etc. 4.
MEANING: An individual, whose body and mind are imbued with dear Waheguru's love, is gladly willing to sacrifice his life and all his belongings for Him. We should also sing Waheguru's virtues day and night (keep Him in mind), and should not forget Him even for a moment. 1. Only that individual is my friend, my pal, who ponders on the virtues of Waheguru in the company (shelter) of the Guru. It is only in the company of the Guru that one can swim across the sea of Maya (find salvation) and cut the noose of the angel of death. 2. Serving Waheguru (obeying His Huqam and reciting His Naam) is like having acquired all four invaluable articles (see above). Worshipping the inconceivable and enigmatic Waheguru is like having the mythical Paarjaat tree in your possession. The Guru rids the devotee of his lust, rage, and all sins, and all his wishes are granted. 3.
An individual whose luck matures is connected with Waheguru in the company of the Guru. An individual who has stored Waheguru's Naam in his heart is approved by Waheguru, regardless of whether he is a family man or has renounced the world to live a lonely life, oh Nanak. 4. 40.47

Gur bohith(u) paaya kirpa tay, Nanak dhoor(i) sunjoga jeeo. 4.41.48.

Word Meaning: Pergtaaya = revealed; made visible. Binsay = dispelled. Aalus = laziness; indolence. Roaga = ailments; bad habits. 1. Greh(i) = in the house (heart). Nav Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures of Kuber. Poorb = in a previous life. Giyaan = knowledge. Dhiyaan = full concentration; meditation. Joga = capable. 2. Khin = moment. Thaap(i) = after creating. Oothaapunhaara = destroyer. Ikunti = all by Himself. Psaara = expansion. Layp(u) = effect of Maya. Jugjeevun = (source of) life of the world. Lehn(i) = remove; come off. Vijoga = (pain of) separation. 3. Unchul(i) Laayay = taking under wings (in Indian Culture a custom to bond a couple together by a piece of cloth (scarf) to indicate their unwavering love. Sisht = world. Traayee = salvaged. Bohith = ship. Dhoor(i) = from the very beginning. Sunjoga = predestined union. 4.

MEANING: When one remembers Waheguru's Naam, he feels comfort at heart (feels blissful). By Waheguru's grace, such devotees, who worship Him, become well known in the world. They sing Waheguru's praise in the company of the Guru, as a result of which their bad habit of laziness is gone. 1. A person who has made his heart the residence for Waheguru (has stored Him in his memory), feels as if he has acquired all the nine mythical treasures. But Waheguru takes residence only in that heart which had worked hard to connect with Him in his previous life. Waheguru Himself is the perfect knowledge and the concentration for his devotees (a person who has been connected with Waheguru acquires all the Knowledge and concentration without any special effort), and He is capable of doing anything (is omnipotent). 2. Waheguru is capable of creating anything and destroying it in an instant. He is all by Himself (aloof from the universe), and yet pervading the whole universe. The source of life of the world, Waheguru, is totally unaffected by Maya, and all the pain of separation disappears when one "sees" Him. 3.

He can salvage the whole world by taking it under His wings (with His support). He Himself motivates and enables people to recite His Naam. Guru is the ship (to ferry people across the sea of Maya), but only those who are connected with Him with Waheguru's benevolence get to be predestined for union with Him, oh Nanak. 4.41.48.

Word Meaning: J(i) = Jo = whatever. Jithaiy = wherever. Bhulee = comfortable. Jaayay = place (situation). Putivunta = respectable. 1. Proyee = attached to; stitched to. Ikutt(u) = one and the same. Dhaagaiy = thread. Churnee Laagaiy = touches feet (makes connection). Oondh = upside down (away from Maya and towards God). Kuvul = lotus (heart). Oondh Kuvul = the heart which is turned away from Maya and is attracted to Waheguru. Pergaasa = enlightened. Serb = everywhere. Nirunjun = Unaffected by Maya (God). Deettha = sees. 2. Mehma = greatness; magnanimity. Tuhaiyn = only You. Puchhaaneh(i) = recognize. Bulihaari = sacrifice. Peettha = grinded; crushed. 3. Nirvaiyr = bear no enmity (because You have no rival) and are perfectly just. Nirmul = clean (at heart). Kulmul = sins. Binsiya = destroyed. Dheettha = stubborn. 4.

MEANING: To obey Waheguru's Huqam, and do whatever He wants us to do, and to accept gladly in whatever situation He puts us in, is in the best interest of human beings. Only that individual is wise and respectable (in the eyes of Waheguru) who accepts Waheguru's Huqam as being sweet. 1. (Just like the beads in a necklace have a common thread), All the living beings (beads) are connected to the same thread, Waheguru. However, only that individual makes a connection with Waheguru, who is prompted to do so by Waheguru Himself. A person who has turned his mind away from Maya and towards Waheguru is enlightened by the Divine Light, and he sees (finds) Waheguru everywhere. 2. Only You know Your own magnanimity, and recognize Yourself, oh Waheguru! I (do not know anything about Your greatness), but will gladly offer my life to Your devotees who have crushed (overcome) the evils like lust, rage, and greed. 3. Because You bear no animosity against anyone (You deliver perfect justice), Your devotees too, have clean hearts (bear no enmity for anyone); whosoever "sees" them (joins their company), has his sins washed away. I survive (spiritually) only by reciting Waheguru's Naam as a result of which, all my stubborn misbeliefs and fears have been dispelled, oh Nanak! 4.42.49.

(PAGE 109): Majh Mehla 5: Jhoottha mungun(u) jay koyee maangaiy. Tis kuou mertay ghurree na laagaiy. Parbraham(u) jo sud hee sayvaiy, so Gur mil(i) nihchul(u) kehna. 1. Praym bhugut(i) jis kaiy mun(i) laagi. Goon gaavaiy undin(u), nit(i) jaagi. Baanh pukarr(i) tis(u) Soami maylaiy, jis kaiy mustuk(i) lehna. 2. Churn kumul bhugutaan mun(i) vootthay. Vin(u) Permayshur suglay mootthay. Sunt junaa kee dhoorr(i) nit baanchheh(i), Naam(u)

Sachay ka gehna. 3. Ootthut baitthut Hur(i) Hur(i) gaayiyaiy. Jis simrut vur(u) nihchul(u) paayiyaiy. Nanak kuou Prubh hoyay duyyala, Tayra keeta sehna. 4.43.50.

Word Meaning: Jhoottha = perishable; mundane. Mungun = thing wished for. Sayvaiy = serves (obeys Huqam). Nihchul(u) = eternal (Waheguru). 1.

Undin(u) = day and night. Nit(i) = every day. Jaagi = awake (alert; watchful). Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Lehna = to receive. 2. Churn Kumul = lotus-like feet of (Waheguru). Vootthay = took residence; stored in memory. Vin(u) = without. Mootthay = got deceived. Baanchheh(i) = long for. Gehna = ornament; adorned with (virtues). 3.

Vur(u) = husband (Waheguru). Nihchul(u) = eternal. Sehna = endure (gladly). 4.

MEANING: It is of no use for a person to wish for mundane things because they are perishable, and can be gone in no time. (On the other hand), A person who serves Waheguru all the time will ask only for things which last forever (Waheguru's Naam) in the shelter of the Guru. 1.

A person who has developed love for Waheguru's worship, sings His virtues day and night, and is alert (against all evils) all the time. A person whose fortune is engraved on his forehead to receive (Waheguru's Naam) is held by the arm by the Lord and connected with Him. 2.

Waheguru's lotus-like feet (His Naam) take residence in the heart of the devotees (is stored in their memory). Without Waheguru's Naam, all get deceived (by the captivating Maya). I long for the dust of the feet of the devotees (wish to serve them because they connect one with Waheguru). Waheguru's Naam is the real wealth of virtues which adorn a person (spiritually) just like ornaments adorn a woman. 3.

We should recite Waheguru's Naam whether standing or sitting (all the time) because by reciting His Naam, one acquires the eternal husband (Master) – Waheguru. Waheguru has been very kind to me, who has enabled me to accept His Will, oh Nanak! 4.43.50.
