Bayd Puran kuthay, soonay, haaray mooni anaykaan. Utth-sutth(i) teeruth buhou ghunaa, bherm(i) thaakay bhaykha. Saacho Sahib(u) nirmulo, mun(i) maanaiy Aiyka . 1. Tu ajraavur(u), amar Tu, subh chaalunhaari. Naam(u) rusaayin(u), bhaayay laiy, purhur(i) dookh(u) bhaari. 1. Ruhaou.

(PAGE 1009): Hur(i) purrhiyaiy, Hur(i) boojhiyaiy, Gurmuti Naam(i) oodhaara. Gur(i) Pooraiy, poori mut(i) haiy, Pooraiy Shabad(i) beechaara. Utth-surrh(i) teeruth Hur(i) Naam(u) haiy, kilvikh kaatunhaara. 2. Jul(u) bilovaiy, jul(u) muthaiy, Tutt(u) loarraiy undh ugiyaana. Gurmuti dudh(i) muthiyaiy, Amrit paayiyaiy Naam(u) nidhaana. Munmukh Tutt(u) na jaan-ni, pushoo maah(i) smaana. 3. Haumein, mayra, murie, mur(u), mur(i) jummaiy vaaro, vaar. Gur kaiy Shabaday jay muraiy, phir(i) muraiy na dooji vaar. Gurmuti Jugjeevun(u) mun(i) vussaiy, subh(i) kool oodhaarunhaar. 4. ------

Word Meaning: Kuthay = explaining. Mooni = hemits. Anyakaan = countless. Buhou Ghunaa = too many. Bherm(u) Thaakay = exhausted wandering (unsuccessfully). Bhaykha = religious sects. Nirmulo = pure; pious. 1. Ajraavur(u) = unaffected by old age and death. Amar = immortal. Chaalunhaari = perishable. Rusaayin(u) = source of all desirable tastes. Bhaayay = with love. Purhur(i) = gets rid of. Dookh Bhaari = suffering of reincarnations. Pause. Boojhiyaiy = understand (make connection with). Oodhaara = emancipator. Utth-Sutth(i) = the 68 Hindu holy places. Kilvikh = sins. 2. Biloyiyaiy = Muthiyaiy = churn. Tutt(u) = root = butter (Waheguru). Lorraiy = looks (wishes) for. Ugiyaana = ignorant. Dudh(i) = yogurt (the root of butter). Nidhaana = treasure. Pushoo = animal. Smaana = like; equal. 3. Murie = dies (spiritually). Mur(u) = death. Vaaro Vaar = again, and again. Jugjeevun = soul of the universe (Waheguru). Kool = associates. Oodhaarunhaar = capable of causing salvation. 4.

MEANING: Countless hermits (sages) and others got tired of explaining and listening to the Vedas and the Puranas (but did not achieve anything spiritually). Similarly, many, many people of different religious sects grew exhausted from wandering to the 68 holy places without achieving any spiritual progress. Waheguru is the only pure and eternal Lord; one should convince oneself to have faith only in Him. 1.

Only Waheguru is unaffected by old age and death, and only He is immortal, whereas everybody else is perishable. Whoever acquires His Naam with love and faith gets rid of the huge suffering (of reincarnations). Pause.
One should recite Waheguru's Naam and make a connection with Him with the Guru's Advice to find salvation. The Guru is perfect, and so is His Advice. One should ponder on His Shabad (to get connected with Waheguru). Waheguru's Naam subsumes the pilgrimage of the 68 holy places and is the destroyer of all sins. 2.
(Seeking shelter of any other power than Waheguru for spirituality) is like a blind, ignorant person churning water and expecting butter to come out of it. Just like one needs to churn yogurt to get butter, a devotee, who churns (ponders deeply and obeys) the real yogurt (Waheguru's Naam) with Guru's Advice, acquires Waheguru's Naam, which is the treasure of all comforts, and drinks the real Amrit (liquid of immortality to merge into Waheguru). The Maya-worshipper is like an animal, and does not realize the worth of the reality (Waheguru's Naam). 3. Because of their haumein, such people suffer (spiritual) death, take births, and die again, and again. If they die (kill their desires) with Guru's Advice, they will not suffer from death again (as they become immortal by merging into Waheguru). Waheguru, which is the soul of the whole world, appears in the devotee's mind with the Guru's advice, who salvages even his associates. 4.
---------- Sacha vukkhur(u) Naam(u) haiy, Sacha vapaara. Laaha Naam(u) sunsaar(i) haiy, Gurmuti veechaara. Doojaiy bhaayay kaar kmaavni, nit toata sainsaara. 5. Saachi Sungut(i), thaan(u) Sach(u), Sachay ghur baara. Sacha bhojun(u), bhaaou Sach, Sach(u) Naam(u) adhaara. Sachi Bani suntokhiya, Sacha Shabad(u) veechaara. 6. Rus bhogun, paatshaahiyaan, dookh, sookh sunsaara. Mota naaoun dhuraayiyaiy, gul(i) aougun bhaara. Maanus daat(i) na hovyee, Tu Daata saara. 7. Agumm, agoachur(u) Tu Dhunee, avigut(u) apaara. Gur Shabadi Dur(i) joyiyaiy, mooktay bhundaara. Nanak, mayl(u) na chookyee, Saachay vapaara. 8.1.
Word Meaning: Sacha Vukkhur(u) = real (eternal) merchandise. Vapaara = business. Laaha = benefit; wealth. Doojaiy Baayay = with love for Maya. Kaar Kmaavni = doing business. Toata = shortage (discontentment). 5.
Thaan(u) = place where Waheguru's praise is sung. Bhojun = meal (for the soul). Bhaaou = affection. Suntokhiya = contented. 6. Rus Bhogun = enjoying luxuries. Mota Naoun = popularity. Aougun = negative quality; burden. Maanus = humans. Daat(i) = donations. 7. Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Dhunee = Lord. Avigut(u) = invisible. Apaara = limitless. Joyiyaiy = look for. Mooktay = emancipate. Mayl(u) = union. Chookyee = ends; inseparable. 8.
MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the real (eternal) merchandise and the real business. When one ponders the Naam with the Guru's Advice, he acquires it in his heart, which is the best wealth in the world. Carrying out any other business with love for the other (Maya) results in permanent discontentment in the world. 5.
Eternal is the gathering of the holy saints (where praise of Waheguru is sung), and so is the gathering place, and the houses and the doors of the holy saints. Waheguru's Naam is the true (eternal) food for the soul, and so is the love for Him. Waheguru's Naam is the true support for life. Pondering on Guru's Bani is the eternal source of contentment. 6.
Enjoyments of luxuries, the reign of some state, discomforts, and comforts are all a part of life, and are given by Waheguru. But if one earns (undeserving) cheap popularity (by dishonest means) in the world, it becomes a huge burden around one's neck. Moreover, the man cannot be a source of any donation (which is permanent); only Waheguru is the supreme donor. 7. The Lord, Waheguru, is inaccessible, incomprehensible, invisible, and limitless. His Door can be seen (accessed) only by Guru's Shabad, which is a treasure for emancipation. Pondering on Guru's Shabad is one's real business in life as it leads to an inseparable union with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Maru Mehla 1: Bikh(u) bohitha laadiya, deeya smoond munjhaar(i). Kundhi dis(i) na aavyee, na oorvaar(u), na paar(u). Vunjhi haath(i), na, khayvtoo, jul(u) saagur(u) asraal(u). 1. Baba, jug(u) phaatha muhaa jaal(i). Gur persadi oobray, Sacha Naam(u) smaal(i). 1. Ruhaou. Satguru haiy bohitha, Shabad(i) lunghaavunhaar(u). Tithaiy puvun(u), na, paavko, na jul(u), na aakaar(u). Tithaiy Sacha, Sach(i) Naayay, bhuvjul taarunhaar. 2. Gurmukh(i) lunghay, say paar(i) puyyay, Sachay siyoun liv laayay. Aavagaun(u) nivaariya, joti, Jot(i) milaayay. Gurmuti, sehj(u) oopjaiy, Sachay ruhhaiy smaayay. 3. Supp(u) pirraayee paayiyaiy, bikh(u) untar(i), mun(i) roas(u). Poorub(i) likhiya paayiyaiy, kis nu deejaiy doash(i). Gurmukh(i) Gaarurr(u) jay soonay, munnay Naaoun, suntosh(u). 4. ----------

Word Meaning: Bikh(u) = poisonous sensual pleasures. Bohitha = boat. Laadiya = loaded. Munjhaar(i) = in. Kundhi = shore. Oorvaar(i) = the closer shore. Paar(u) = the other end. Vunjhi = bamboo (oars). Haath(i) = in the hand. Khayvtoo = the boatman. Asraal = frightening. 1. Baba = a wise man. Phaatha = is trapped. Muhaa Jaal(i) = in a strong net. Oobray = salvaged. Pause. Lunghaavunhaar = boatman to ferry across. Tithaiy = there; in that spiritual state. Puvun = air (laden filled with fragrances or music). Paavko = fire (of worldly desires). Jul(u) = water of vices. Aakaar = visible beauty. Bhuvjul = the sea of Maya. Taarunhaar = ship to ferry across. 2.
Lunghay = swim to go across. Liv Laayay = meditating on. Aavagaun = reincarnation. Nivaariya = gotten rid of. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = the Supreme Soul. Sehj(u) = state of high spirituality. Oopjaiy = comes into being. Smaayay = absorbed. 3.
Supp(u) = snake. Pirr)iaayee = box. Bikh(u) = poison. Roas(u) = resentment. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. Doash(u) = blame. Gaarurr(u) = a mantra believed to be the antidote for snake poison. Suntosh(u) = contentment 4.

MEANING: The man loads the boat of his body with poisonous immoral activities, and sets it for sail in the middle of the world-sea where he cannot see any shore. He has no bamboo (oar) in his hand, and there is no boatman to ferry him across the frightening sea. 1.

The world is trapped in the strong net of worldly attractions, oh, wise man. One can get across the world-sea (get salvaged) by Guru's grace when he recites the eternal Naam of Waheguru in His shelter. Pause.
Satguru is the boat, and His Shabad is the boatman to ferry us across the world-sea. In that spiritual state, connected with Waheguru, the devotee is in a deep meditative state, and no worldly attraction can influence him as there is no fragrance-laden or music- carrying air, no fire of worldly desires, or no water of vices. His soul merges into the Supreme Soul. That spiritual state is attained through the Guru's Advice, and the devotee remains absorbed in Waheguru. 3.
Controlling human desires without Waheguru's Naam is like a snake trapped in a box, highly resentful and full of poison (the snake of desires still bites the man). However, one cannot be fully blamed for his actions, because his nature has been predetermined by Waheguru based on his previous deeds (and he continues to perform similar deeds). But, if he listens to the Guru's Shabad, which is the antidote to the poison of immoral vices, and obeys Waheguru's Naam, he becomes fully contented (he is left with no worldly desire). 4.

--------- Maagurmuchh(u) phuhaayiyaiy, koondi, jaal(i) vutaayay. Doormut(i) phaatha faahiyaiy, phir(i), phir(i) puchhotaayay. Jummun mern(u) na soojhyee, kirt(u) na maytiya jaayay. 5. Haumein bikh(u) paayay jugut oopaaya, Shabad(u) vussaiy, bikh(u) jaayay. Juraa joh(i) na sukyee, Sach(i) ruhhaiy liv laayay. Jeevun mookt so aakhiyaiy jis(u vichoun haumein jaayay. 6.
(PAGE 1010): Dhundhaiy dhaavut jug(u) baandhiya, na boojhaiy veechaar(u). Jummun, mern(u) visaariya, munmukh moogudh guvaar(u). Gur(i) raakhay say oobray, Sacha Shabad(u) veechaar(i). 7. Soohut(u) pinjur(i) praym kaiy, bolaiy Bolunhaar(u). Sach(u) choogaiy, Amrit(u) peeyaiy, ooddaiy ta aika vaar. Gur(i) miliyaiyn Khusm(u) puchhaaniyaiy, kuhou Nanak moakh dooaar(u). 8.2.
Word Meaning: Maagurmuchh(u) = crocodile. Phuhaayiyaiy = can trap. Koondi = hook. Vutaayiyay = by casting. Doormut(i) = ill advice. Puchhotaayay = repents. Soojhyee = think of. Kirt(u) = consequences of the pervious deeds. Maytiya = erase. 5.
Haumein Bikh(u) = the poisonous haumein. Juraa = old age; impending death. Joh(i) Na = cannot caste evil eye. Jeevun-Mookt = emancipated alive. 6.
Dhundhaiy = worldly tasks rooted in Maya. Baandhiya = trapped. Veechaar(u) = pondering on (Guru's Shabad). Mogudh = foolish. Guvaar(u) = unwise. 7.
Soohut(u) = parrot. Pinjur(i) = cage. Bolunhaar(u) = deserving to be praised (Waheguru). Choogaiy = picks; feeds on. Oddaiy = flies away; leave the world. Puchhaaniyaiy = recognize (make connection with). Moakh Dooaar = at the door of salvation. 8.

MEANING: You can trap (and control) even a very powerful and dangerous animal like a crocodile by casting a hook and a net, but a man trapped in immoral acts due to his ill advice cannot control his desires, and repents again and again (because he repeats them). He cannot erase his prefixed (predetermined) nature, and trapped in the pursuit of his sensual pleasures, he cannot think of his future reincarnations. 5.
Waheguru has created the world by injecting the poisonous haumein in the living beings, but the poison of haumein is expelled if the man enshrines Guru's Shabad in his heart. Old age (the impending death) cannot cast an evil eye on the devotee whose mind remains focused on Waheguru. The devotee, who gets rid of his haumein, is called the true dead - alive. (emancipated). 6. The man is trapped in the routine worldly affairs, which are rooted in Maya, and cannot understand the worth of the Guru's Shabad. The foolish and the unwise follower of his mind forgets the cycle of future births and deaths. Those who ponder on Guru's Shabad are salvaged by Guru's grace. 7.

Like the parrot in a cage which utters love-filled words for his master, if the man sings praise of the praise-worthy Waheguru and feeds his soul with that praise, drinks the real Amrit, and his soul leaves the cage of his body only for once (never gets reincarnated). One makes a connection with the Lord in the shelter of the Guru, and reaches the door of emancipation, oh Nanak.

Bhoolay maarug(u) jo dussay, tis kaiy laagoun paayay. Gur bin(u) daata ko nuhhi, keemut(i) kehn(u) na jaayay. 4. ----------
Word Meaning: Muraiy = kill desires. Mur(u) = death. 1. Koocheel(u) = filthy (in thoughts and actions). Kauchou = with shaky mind. Mut(i)-heen = unwise. Pause.
Uvgun(i) = with ignoble qualities. Soobhur = full to brim. Ghur(i) = Waheguru's Residence. Sehj(i) = high spiritual state. Oopjaiy = is produced. Bhaagaan = fortune. Dhun(u) = wealth (of Naam). Baandhay = trapped (by the bonds of Maya). Suhaaheh(i) = endure. 2.
Visaariya = forget. Kit = for what? Aagaiy = in the future. Paachhaiy = in the past (present). Gaaday Laaday = carry heavy burden. Chhaar(u) = dust (of worthless and humiliating things). Vichhurriyaan = disconnected with Waheguru. Ghuno = immense. 3.
Bhoolay = misled. Maarug(u) = path (of righteousness). Daata = provider (of Waheguru's Naam). 4.

MEANING: Where can you run away to escape death, oh man? You can kill the fear of death by killing your desires with the Guru's Shabad. The power that dispels the fear of death is Waheguru, whose Naam is the real Amrit that immortalizes the man. Only Waheguru kills or protects us; there is no other place to escape. 1.

I am filthy by mind, have shaky faith in You, and have no wisdom, oh Waheguru. The Perfect Guru has given me the wisdom that without Waheguru's Naam, one is insignificant (has no spiritual worth, and no real respect). Pause.
I am full of ignoble qualities, and have no good qualities; how can I reach Waheguru's Palace with no good qualities? One attains the high spiritual state and blissfulness with Guru's Shabad, but one cannot have this wealth (Waheguru's Naam) without good fortune. Trapped in the bonds (net) of Maya, those who do not have Waheguru's Naam embedded (enshrined) in their heart suffer badly 2.
What objective do those achieve in the world who forget Waheguru's Naam? They carry a heavy burden of worthless and humiliating things (misdeeds) and enjoy no comfort (peace of mind) in this world, and the next. They are disconnected from Waheguru and cannot have union with Him; immense troubles await them at the door of the Angel of Justice. 3.
I do not know what is in store for me in the future (next world), but You guide the misled. I will drop at the feet of the holy saint who will put me on the path of union with You, oh Waheguru. There is no one other than the Guru who can give me Waheguru's Naam, and show me the right path; I cannot describe the greatness of the Guru. 4.

Chutur Sroop = perfectly wise personality. Theeyay = happens. Deepuk = lamp. Dhoop(u) = incense. 7. Saad = delicious tastes. Chaakh = tasted. Baad = music. Roag(u) = illness. Bhaavaiy = likes. Chuvaiy = utters; recites. Chhootaiy = leave; go away. Soag = sadness. Vijog(u) = separation. Hoag(u) = will happen. 8.
MEANING: (With Guru's grace) I am reciting Waheguru's Naam now, and the Guru will convey my prayer to Him. When I see (get connected with my dear Waheguru), I will hug Him tightly. (As a potential bride of Waheguru), I was waiting with dejected mind for union with Him; now I have been able to see Him in Guru's shelter. With Your sweet Will, You come to reside in the devotee's heart, which is a special honour for him, oh Lord. 5.
What can I ask of a person who is wandering, hungry and thirsty himself (without Waheguru's Naam)? I cannot think of anybody other than the omnipresent Waheguru (who can give the Naam), so I offer my body and mind in His service. He has created the world, and looks after it; He Himself accords honour to the devotee of His choice by giving him His Naam. 6.
The Master of the human body (Waheguru) is always young, and pure-hearted like a child, and performs amazing feats. Even though Waheguru is present in all living beings – the male, the female, and even the birds - He is formless, and has a perfectly wise persona. He is the lamp (to enlighten the world), and the incense (to make life pleasant); and only that happens in the world that He likes. 7.

I have listened to all sorts of songs, and tasted all sorts of delicious foods, but all music and tastes produce sicknesses in the body. But the devotee, who loves Waheguru and recites His Naam (sings His praise), gets rid of (rises above) all sadness and worldly detachments (and gets connected with Waheguru). I have only one request for Waheguru: that He give me the ability to accept whatever happens, and I do not forget His Naam, oh Nanak. 8.3.

Word Meaning: Kaar Kmaavni = performing deeds. Baad(i) = worthless. Mohiya = captivated. Jihva = tongue. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Chuleh(i) = leave. Bikh(u) = poison. 1. Laala = slave. Laal = extremely dear (Waheguru). Jiyoun = whatever. Foormaaveh(i) = orders; wishes. Tiyoun = the same way. Chullan = follow instructions. Pause. Undin(u) = always. Chaakri = service. Meera = Master; Lord. Dheera = stabilized; contented. Shabaash(i) = acclamation; praise. Peera = agony. 2. Goala = slave. Bhaanaiy = with His Will. Poora = omnipresent. Vichhurriyaan = separated. 3. Khuree = good. Neeki = beautiful; noble. Soort(i) = focus of mind. Soohaavni = noble. Pheeki = distasteful. Dheeruk = support. 4.
MEANING: My mind has been captivated by Waheguru, and my tongue is enjoying the taste of His Naam. There is no other real taste (enjoyment) in life without Waheguru's Naam; everything else. that the people enjoy, is (spiritually) poisonous, and becomes a burden for them. 1.

I want to tell my dear Lord that I am His slave, and I will do exactly what He orders me to do, oh my dear Waheguru. Pause. As a slave, I am at His service all the time, and He is the Master. I have sold my mind to the Guru in exchange for His Shabad (Waheguru's Naam), whereby my mind has become peaceful. My perfect Guru deserves all my praise (and thankfulness) for ridding me of my mental agony. 2.
I do not know how to sing Waheguru's praise other than to say that I am His slave. It is the Will of the omnipresent Lord that if He is kind to me, I will obey His Orders. I am all sacrifice for the Guru who connects the disconnected with Waheguru. 3.
The Guru always imparts noble wisdom to His devotees, as a result of which I have also acquired that (noble wisdom). With his mind focused on Waheguru's Naam, one's concentration (thinking) also becomes pure, but the wisdom of the follower of his mind always exhorts him to think of the distasteful (immoral) things. But no one can be really blamed for his actions because You are the Lord (who controls everything), and the body, the mind, and the wisdom (good and bad) are all given by You, oh Waheguru. It is also Your gift that You provide support to the people to recite Your Naam, oh Lord. 4.

Word Meaning: Baiysun = sitting down; resting. Bhaakhiya = language; words. Vito = income; wealth. Soobhaakhiya = in beautiful words. 5. Aalus(u) = laziness; no motivation. Ghuno = immense. Phaathay = trapped in. Ojaarri = which rob one (of his spirituality). Choogaiy = feeds on. Choagrri = bait of sensual pleasures. Bundh(u) = with such bonds. Vigaarri = ruins his (spiritual) life. Nij = his mind. Taarri = meditates. 6. Unhut(i) = in the immortal (Waheguru). Baydhiya = pierced; stitched. Hayt = for. Jeeou Bulou = soul suffers. Jhootthay = false; short-lived. Vaykaareen = immoral acts. Baad(i) = worthless. Kaaraan = acts. Tur = to swim across. Taari = boat. 7.
Tthaaur = peace. Thaaoun = shelter. Tiyaagiya = gave up. Bukhsheh(i) = be benevolent.8.
MEANING: If one listens to and obeys the Guru's beautiful and sweet Words (His Divine Shabad), Waheguru keeps him absorbed in His Naam, and the devotee keeps Him in mind whether he is sitting (resting) or standing (working), and Waheguru's Naam becomes his mental food. He enjoys the sweet taste of Waheguru's Naam, which is always in his mind, and which is his real wealth. 5. The Maya-worshipper is completely unmotivated to recite Waheguru's Naam, and he is trapped in unholy tasks which rob him of his spirituality. Trapped in the attractions of Maya, he feeds on the bait of sensual pleasures and ruins his spirituality because of such immoral bonds. With meditation on Waheguru's Naam, he gets emancipated from such bonds with the grace of the Guru. 6.
With love for the dear Waheguru, my mind, as His slave, has been pierced with (stitched to) His Naam. Without Waheguru's Naam, man's soul burns (rots) in immoral activities which provide very short-lived comfort. I have quit all the worthless activities to swim across the world-sea with Waheguru's Naam, which is the ship to ferry us across. 7.

Those who forget Waheguru's Naam find no peace and no shelter (in Waheguru's Court). I, have given up all types of greed, and acquired Waheguru's Naam in my heart. You can connect me with You with Your benevolence, oh God. I, Nanak, am all sacrifice for You. 8.4.

Word Meaning: Laala = Goala = a slave; devotee. Gaarub(u) = ego. Chhodiaya = gave up. Bhaiy = fear. Sehj(i) Soobhaayi = naturally; without any special effort. Vudiyaayi = greatness. 1. Goala = slave. Oobray = salvaged. Pause.

Kaar = responsibility to do certain things. Dhoor(i) Khusm(i) = right from the Lord. Puchhaaniya = recognize; obey. Rujaayee = Will. Meera = Master. Boojhaayi = gave the understanding. Bherm(i) = misgiving; illusion. Khooaayi = suffer humiliation. 3.

Churraiy Suvaaya = increase many-fold. Smaaya = absorbed. 4.

MEANING: With respectful fear and love for the Guru, I, a slave of Waheguru, have gotten rid of my ego and have attained the high spiritual state without any special effort. It is a great honour for me that Waheguru has connected me with Him. On connecting with Waheguru, I have attained a blissfulness that cannot be described. 1.

It is a greatness of the Lord that He has accepted me as His slave. With the grace of the Guru, I have been salvaged (connected with Waheguru) in His shelter. Pause.

As a slave of Waheguru, I have a duty to perform whatever He orders me to carry out. I have recognized and internalized His Order and will accept His Will at all times. It is a great mercy of the Lord that He forgives me if I make any mistakes. 2.

Guru's Shabad has given me the understanding that Waheguru is eternal, and so is all His creation. Only that individual serves You whom you motivate (exhort), oh Waheguru. Nobody has ever realized You (made a connection with You) without serving You; others are misled by their illusions (attractions of Maya), and suffer humiliation. 3.

Why should we forget Waheguru, who always gives us everything we need and increases it many-fold? Our soul and body are given by Him, and it is He who injected breath into us. We serve Him when He is benevolent to us, and get absorbed in Him by serving Him. 4.

Word Meaning: Jeevut Muraiy = kills selfishness and ego [aap(u)] = Trishna Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Boojhaayay = puts out. 5. Uvguniyaar(u) = full of vices. Jayvud = as great. Daata = munificent. Bukhshunhaar(u) = forgiving. Kerni Saar(u) = supreme act. 6. Amritsar = pool of Amrit. Ichhay = wish for. Ful(u) Paayay = gets the reward. Pudaaruth = (the invaluable) article. 7.
Roopa = silver. Dhaat(u) = attractions of Maya. Ruttay = imbued. Nirmulay = pure. 8.
MEANING: Only that individual is a true slave of Waheguru who kills his worldly desires, and gets rid of his selfishness and ego. All worldly bonds of such a devotee get broken, the fire of his desires is put out, and he gets emancipated. Even though everybody has the treasure of Naam in him, some rare person acquires it (enshrines it in his heart) in the shelter of the Guru. 5. I, too, call myself a slave of Waheguru, but have no good quality; I am rather full of vices. But there is no one else who is munificent like Waheguru, and He forgives me for my bad qualities. Obeying His Command is my supreme job. 6.
The Guru is a sea of Amrit (Waheguru's Naam); one can have any of his wishes fulfilled by acquiring the Naam in His shelter. The invaluable Naam immortalizes the devotee if he enshrines it in his mind. Service to the Guru is the source of blissfulness, but only that fortunate person serves Him who makes Him obey His Order (Teachings). 7.
Gold and silver are all attractions of Maya, and they become like dust (worthless) for the man after his death. Satguru has given the understanding that nothing other than Waheguru's Naam accompanies the man after his death. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam become pure like Him, and stay absorbed in Him, oh Nanak. 8.5.

Paap, poonn doyay sungmay, khoodhiya, Jumkaala. Vichhorra, bhuou veesraiy, Poora Rukhvaala. 4. ----------

Word Meaning: Huqam(u) Bhuyya = orders came. Phaatay = torn. Cheeraiy = clothes-like body. Uvgun(i) = bad qualities. Baandhiya = trapped in(full of) vices. Uvgun(i) Suhhou = endure. Gooneh = faults. Faqiraiy = (in the) the beggar 1.
Kiyoun = how? Apaara = of the limitless Waheguru. Pause.
Chullaveh(i) = guide me. Chaaou = zest; excitement. 2.
Salaahiyaiy = praise. Saachi = permanent. Put(i) = dignity. 3.
Puhounchiyaiy = arrive at. Aal Junjaala = routine tasks; bonds of Maya. Poonn = noble deeds. Sungmay = accompany. Khoodhiya = appetite (for worldly things). Jumkaala = death. Bhuou = fear. Rukhvaala = guard (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: When Waheguru Himself issues orders to tear down the clothes-like body of a man, he cannot stay in the world anymore. The human body is full of vices, so it has to endure the consequences of its actions. However, the Perfect Guru forgives the faults (the vices) of the true beggar who admits his faults and prays to Him with full faith. 1.
One should ponder on the Guru's Shabad to learn that no one can live here forever, and they have to leave this world. Waheguru connects the individuals of His choice with Him, which is the Huqam (Law) of the limitless Waheguru. Pause.
I am content with the conditions you keep me in, and am fully contented to eat whatever You provide. With Your immortalizing Naam on my tongue, I lead my life the way You guide me, oh Waheguru. Waheguru controls the union of His devotees with Him, and the devotee feels ecstatic who He bestows this honour upon. 2.
What is the use of just praising His creation (we should praise Waheguru), who has created the world and looks after it. I do not recognize anybody else, and have embedded (enshrined) only Waheguru's Naam in my heart. We should sing praise of Waheguru alone because of which we earn eternal respect. 3.
The pundit reads his holy books, but because of his attachment to Maya, he does not understand reality. With his big appetite for Maya, and with his sins and good deeds both accompanying him, he is on his path to the trap of the Angel of Death. But if someone comes to the shelter of Waheguru, his worldly fears and his separation from Waheguru are terminated. 4.

Word Meaning: Laykhay = in the account. Puvvaiy = earn. Put(i) = respect due to Waheguru's Naam in the heart. Pooray = perfect. Saachi Vudiyaayi = eternal respect. Toat(i) = shortage. Thuck(i) Paayi = get tired (contented). 5. Khaar = salty. Dhundholiyaiy = search. Muniya = pearl. Doayay Chaar(i) Din = a few days. Maati = dust. 6. Bhaavun = liked. Oojlay = clean; pure. Maiyl(u) Bhurijaiy = full of filth. Paarus = elixir-stone (Guru). Bheejaiy = imbue. Vunni = colour (of the Naam). 7. Bhaykheen = religious garbs. Haath Na Lubhyee = cannot acquire. Daanay = donations. Mootthi = robbed (of spirituality). 8.

MEANING: Those devotees who earn respect when their deeds are evaluated in Waheguru's Court are considered perfect (to merge with Waheguru). Such a perfect devotee acquires perfect wisdom from the Guru, and the respect he earns is eternal (he stays absorbed in Waheguru). Waheguru is the provider of unlimited gifts, so much so that there is never a shortage of His supplies, and the recipients grow tired of receiving them (they become fully contented). 5. If one searches the salty ocean with great effort, he may find a pearl which looks pretty for a few days, and then loses its shine and becomes like dust. On the other hand, if one serves the Guru, who is the source of Waheguru's Naam, which is an ocean of unlimited resources, he will never experience a shortage of any kind. 6. Only those are pure-minded who are liked by Waheguru; all others are full of filthy ideas. Just like a base metal gets converted into gold on touching the elixir-stone, a filthy man is purified when he gets imbued in Waheguru's Love in the shelter of the Guru, and he acquires the beautiful, deep colour of the dear Waheguru's love, the worth of which cannot be described.7.

However, Waheguru's Naam cannot be acquired by wearing garbs of different religious sects, by undertaking pilgrimages, or by large donations. You can ask even those who study the Vedas that one cannot connect with Waheguru without having deep faith in Him; without Waheguru's Naam, the world is being robbed by the attractions of Maya. Only that devotee can know the worth of Waheguru's Naam who has acquired Divine Knowledge from the Guru, oh Nanak. 8.6.

Word Meaning: Lehr(i) = wave of impulses. Tuj(i) = abandon. Vigoochaiy = suffer humiliation. Uveraan = of others. Hayraiy = watches. Dherm = responsibility. Bhaytaiy = connects with. Doormut(i) = immoral thoughts. Ghoomun Ghayraiy = whirlpool. Disuntar(u) = foreign lands. Bhuvvaiy = wanders. Trishna = desires. Kaacheen Pindeen = perishable things. Cheenaiy = understand. Oodur(u) = stomach. Dhoraiy = animals. 1.
Ruvut Ruvvaiy = life style. Sanyasi = who has renounced the world. Ruttay = imbued. Triptaasi = contented. Pause.
Gayroo = saffron colour. Vustar = clothes; outfit. Bhaykh = semblance. Bhaykhaari = beggar. Khintha = a quilt of rags. Jholi = a bag of yogis to collect dry food. Mayadhaari = money-lover. Perbodhaiy = preaches. Put(i) = respect. Haari = loses. Bherm Bhoolaana = misguided in illusions. Jooyaiy = in gamble. Baaji Haari = loses game (objective) of life. 2.
Ugun(i) = fire (of desires). Poour Taapaiy = builds fire around him (tortures self). Cheenus(u) = recognize (analyze). Aapaiy = self. Ninda = malicious criticism; vilification. Untar(i) Aatum = deep down in the mind. Jaapaiy = sees. Paapaiy = of sins. 3.

MEANING: The follower of his own mind leaves his house under the impulse of his mind, and begins to keep an eye on others' houses, and suffers humiliation. He runs away from his responsibility of looking after his family, but does not take shelter of Satguru, and is caught in the whirlpool of immoral thoughts. He wanders around aimlessly in foreign lands, gets exhausted reading holy books, but his appetite for worldly attractions rather increases many times. Chasing the perishable things, he does not recognize (does not get attached to) Guru's Shabad, and just fills his stomach like animals. 1.
But a true sanyasi leads a life of contentment by meditating deeply on the Naam and becoming imbued in it, oh Waheguru. Pause.
On the other hand, a hypocrite dyes his clothes in saffron colour, has the semblance of the yogis (to give the impression of worldly detachment) and goes begging. He makes a quilt of rags, carries a bag to collect alms for dry food, but is internally a worshipper of Maya. He preaches to the world, begs at every door, but is completely blind in mind (ignorant) and loses his respect (in Waheguru's Court). Misled by the illusions of Maya, he makes no connection with Guru's Shabad and loses the game of his precious human life in the gamble (trades his good qualities in exchange for the attractions of Maya). 2.

(To give the impression of a holy man) He tortures himself by building fires around him on hot days, but has a huge fire of desires burning in his mind, which cannot be put out without the Guru's shelter. How can he analyze self (and connect with Waheguru) when there is no worship of Waheguru without serving the Guru? However, deep down, he realizes that malicious criticism of others leads to a life in hell. Misled by his misbeliefs, he takes dips at the 68 holy places, but how can he wash away the filth of his sins? 3.

Sikh kuray, kur(i), Shabad(u) na cheenaiy, lumput haiy baajaari. Untar(i) bikh(u) baahur(i) nibhraanti, ta Jum kuray khooaari. 6. ----------
Word Meaning: Chhaani = sifted. Khaak = ash. Churrhaayi Bibhoota = coated body with ash. Mug(u) = path. Johaiy = watches. Chhohaiy = gets irritated. Paatth = religious compositions. Nigooray = without guru. Ohaiy = the same. Sohaiy = look elegant; earn respect. 4.
Moond = head. Moondaayay = shave. Jutaa = matted hair. Sikh = crest; a lock of hair on shaved head. Moan(i) = quiet (mute) for long times. Munooaa Dolaiy = mind wanders. Rut = imbued. Aatum Giyana = Knowledge for the soul (Waheguru's Naam). Amrit(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Bikh(u) = poison (of sensual pleasures). Dayvaana = crazy. Kirt(u) = previous deeds. Mityee = erased. Pushooaan = animals. 5
Kumundul(u) = a cylindrical jug to hold liquids like milk. Kaapurriya = clothed all over. Bhaari = huge. Istree = wife. Tuj(i) = abandon. Pur Naari = women of others. Sikh = disciples. Lumput = lustful. Bajaari = a joker. Nibhraanti = peaceful. Khooaari = humiliation. 6.

MEANING: (The hypocrite) coats his body with sifted ash, and watches the path for money (if someone will offer him money). He makes no connection with the Lord, who is present inside and out, and gets irritated when someone tells him the truth about himself. He reads holy books, but tells lies – this is the way people think who have no Guru. How can he enjoy comfort (peace of mind), and look elegant (holy) without Waheguru's Naam? 4.
Some people shave their heads and keep a long lock of hair in the middle, or wear a knot of matted hair, while others stay quiet (mute) for long periods, all to look holy, but they are all full of ego. Without getting imbued in Waheguru's Naam, which is the spiritual knowledge (food) for the soul, their mind wanders in every direction. Crazy for money, such a hypocrite does not drink the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam, but takes in the poison of grave immoral acts. But he cannot be fully blamed for his lifestyle, because the influence of his past deeds, which have shaped his present personality, cannot be erased (and he continues to follow the same path). He does not understand Waheguru's Laws (Will), and is just like an animal. 5.

He carries a *kumundu*l in his hand, covers himself all over with clothes (all symbols of religious sects), but has a big appetite for worldly attractions. He abandons his wife, but is overpowered by lust and gets attached to other women. He makes many disciples but has no connection with the Guru's Shabad; he is a lustful joker. He is very short-tempered inside, but poses to be very peaceful outwardly; because of this, he suffers humiliation at the hands of the Angel of death. 6.

Word Meaning: Sanyasi = renouncer of the world. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Chhaadun = clothes. Bhojun = food. Achint(u) = without worrying for; naturally. Bukaiy = talk useless. Khimaa = forgiveness. Sungrehaiy = accumulate. Taamus = rage; short temper. Girhee = family man. Chit(u) Laayay = attaches mind. 7. Niraas = have no hopes. Shaant(i) = peace; contentment. Nij Ghur = with focused mind. Taarri = deep meditation on Waheguru. Dhaavut = rushing (mind). Verj(i) Ruhaayay = keeps in check. 8.
Srayshut = supreme. Ruttay = imbued. Veechaari = thoughtful. Khaani = the four sources of reproduction. Juntaan = living beings. Jot(i) = Light; Soul. Dhoon(i) = focus of mind. Oodhaari = salvager. Chhootus = emancipation. Saachi = of Waheguru. Tur = ship. Taari = swimming; ferrying. 9.

MEANING: That individual is the true sanyasi who serves Satguru (follows His Teachings), and gets rid of his selfishness and ego. He does not expect good clothes and food from others, but is content with whatever is offered to him naturally. He does not talk about meaningless things; he accumulates the wealth of forgiveness (is very generous in forgiving) and burns away his anger with Guru's Shabad. Be he a family man, a sanyasi, or a yogi, that individual is praiseworthy (and fortunate) who attaches his mind to Waheguru's Feet (His Naam). 7.
Such a sanyasi stays above any hopes and wishes, and meditates deeply on Waheguru alone. He attains blissfulness when He drinks the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam; his mind stabilizes, and is focused only on the Naam. He understands the worth of Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter, and controls his rushing mind. He analyzes his mind (as to the objective of human life, his good and bad qualities) in the shelter of the Guru, and acquires the invaluable Waheguru's Naam. 8.
Be it Brahma, Vishnu, or Shiva, only that god is superior (approved by Waheguru) who becomes thoughtful (about Waheguru) and gets imbued in His Naam. Waheguru's Light (Soul) is present in all living beings of all four sources of reproduction, and in their ways of communication (He gives them the ability) everywhere in the three-layered universe. One attains the high spiritual state, which is the source of all comforts, by focusing one's mind on Waheguru's Naam, and is salvaged. No one can find emancipation without Waheguru's eternal Naam, which is also the ship to ferry us across the world-sea. So, you, too, board this ship to be salvaged, oh Nanak. 9.7.

Word Meaning: Sunjog(i) = union. Oopaayay = created. Rukut = blood (mother's egg). Bind = sperm. PInd(u) = body. Gerbh = womb. Oordh(i) = upside down. Saaray = remembers. Daat(i) = gift. 1. Sunsaar(u) Bhuvjul = the world sea. Afuriyo = of conceited. Afaar(u) = unbearable. Turaiy = is averted. Pause. Tay = those. Upraadhi = guilty. Baura = crazy. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Smaar(i) = taking care. 2. Chaar(i) Pudaaruth = the four worthy articles: Dherm (noble deeds); wealth, fulfilment of wishes; and emancipation. Shiv Shakti = Waheguru's created Maya. Vass(u) = dwelling (in thoughts). . Bhookh = appetite. Mug(u) = path. Johaiy = watches eagerly (looks for ways). Mookut(i) Pudaaruth = emancipation. Moh(i) Khuray = is robbed of. 3. Kern-plaav = wailing and pleading. It Oot = here and there; everywhere. Dhoondhut = searching for. Thhaak Puray = got exhausted. Koor = the perishable. Kootumb = family. 4. Peher(i) Dikhaavaiy = shows of expensive clothes. Kaal Ghuray = in the mouth of death. Turay = avoided. 5. Jayta = all that. Moh(u) = attachments. Bhoolay = misled. Chheen Khuray = snatched. Sehsaiy Sehsa = worries and fears. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru creates the human body with the union of parents when the egg of the mother and the sperm of the father combine together. The upside-down fetus remains connected to Waheguru, Who takes good care of it and gives it to the parents as a gift. 1.
What means can the (conceited) world use to swim across the sea of Maya?
(A:) If one acquires Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, the punishment of the unbearable burden of the conceit of the man can be avoided. Pause.
I am guilty of forgetting Your virtues of kindness; so, what can the insane me do now, oh Waheguru? (I know) That You are the source of compassion and forgiveness, and You look after all of us day and night, and give the gift (of Your Naam), oh Waheguru. 2.
The man is born with four good objectives in life – noble deeds, prosperity, fulfilment of his wishes, and emancipation – but, forgetting emancipation and noble deeds, his mind stays focused on the attractions of Maya. His appetite for Maya grows, and he always looks for ways to earn more and more, and gets robbed of his spirituality required for emancipation. 3. The man wails and begs for pity, leaves his home in search of emancipation, and gets exhausted looking for it everywhere, but cannot find it because he suffers badly from lust, rage, and ego, and loves his family and the perishable things. 4.
Despite the fact that he hears about, and sees with his own eyes, the bad consequences of sensual pleasures, he still loves to eat delicious foods, enjoys wearing expensive clothes, and shows them off to the world; because of his such acts, he follows the path which leads to the home of the Angel of death. He cannot recognize self without Guru's Shabad, and cannot avert (spiritual) death without Waheguru's Naam. 5.
As the man is misled by his worldly attachments and his ego, he is taken away by death, even though he claims everything to be his. His wealth and his body get destroyed in worries and in doubts, and he repents when he gets dust in his mouth (is buried or cremated) after death.6.

MEANING: When the man gets old, his youthfulness and his health slip away, and his throat is choked with phlegm. His eyes are watery all the time, his feet lose energy, and his hands begin to shake, but the Maya-worshipping man does not have the Lord's Naam in his heart. 7. His hair changes from black to grey, he loses his wisdom, and nobody likes to keep him in the house. When one forgets Waheguru's Naam, the Angel of death blames him for many things and justly punishes him by sending him to hell. 8.
One's prewritten fortune based on his previous deeds cannot be erased, which becomes the cause for his reincarnations. Whom else can he blame for his immoral acts? Without coming to Guru's shelter, one's life goes to waste, and he stays in the cycle of more births and deaths, and without Guru's Shabad, his life rots in immoral acts. 9.
The man performs spiritually useless deeds, and his worldly enjoyments lead to humiliation in Waheguru's Court. Because of his greed and his forgetting Waheguru's Naam, he loses the spirituality he was born with and receives punishment from the Angel of Justice. 10.
The devotee, on whom Waheguru casts a kind sight, sings His praise in Guru's shelter. By reciting the Naam of the omnipresent and the limitless Waheguru, he becomes pure and like Waheguru Himself. 11.
Remember Guru's Words (of praise for Waheguru), and recite Waheguru's Naam with love in the company of the holy saints, oh, the devotees of Waheguru. Such devotees are leaders (are honoured) in Waheguru's Court, and I long for the dust of their feet (wish to serve them), oh Nanak. 12.8.

Word Meaning: Aavoun = come (take birth). Vunjoun = go (die). Doomni = indecisive; caught between Maya and spirituality. Kitee = many. Dhoyee = shelter. Luhhaiy = acquire. Vaadhi = separated from Waheguru. Dheerayoun = be peaceful. 1.
Maiynda = mine. Rutta = imbued. Pir = Dear. Ghoal(i) Dhoomaayi = sacrifice. Khunniyaiyn Keeti = cut into pieces. Hikk = one. Bhori = short. Nihaal(i) = blissful. Pause.
Payiurray = parents' home; this world. Dohaagni = separated from (not connected with) Waheguru. Sahoour-rray = husband's (Waheguru's) house; next world. Gul(i) = up to the neck. Aougun = ignoble qualities. Mootthrri = robbed. Jhoor(i) Muraaoun = dying in repentance. 2. Summlaanh = remember. Vaas(u) = get to live; find acceptance. Suvundh(i) = sleep; peace. Sohaagni = loved by (Waheguru). Goontaas = source of virtues.3 Layf(u) = quilt; comforter. Nihaali = mattress. Putt = silk. Ung(i) Bunaayay = (wear) on the body. Mooti = ditched; abandoned. Dohaagni = unfortunate. Raiyn(i) = night (of life). 4.

MEANING: My mind is imbued with the love for my Dear (Waheguru). I will gladly cut myself into pieces and will sacrifice my life for Him for His kind sight, even if it is for a short moment, because it makes me blissful. Pause.
Because of indecisiveness (to choose between Waheguru and Maya), I (or anybody else) keep taking births and dying. No matter how many friends I make (no one can help me avoid reincarnations). Those human brides who are disconnected from Waheguru find no shelter (support) in Waheguru's Court, so how can they find peace (end their cycle of rebirths)? 1.
How can those human brides who remain disconnected from Waheguru-Husband in this world go to the in-laws (have union with Waheguru-Husband)? I am robbed of my good qualities by the attractions of Maya, and am full of ignoble qualities to the neck; without my Dear husband, I am dying of repentance in His separation. 2.
If I remember Waheguru in this world, I will be accepted by Him and will live with Him (merge with Him). Those who are lucky to be loved by the source of all virtues, Waheguru, spend the night of their life in comfort (in blissfulness). 3.
Those who are ditched (ignored) by their Waheguru-Husband spend the night of their life in suffering, even if they have silky beds and wear silky clothes (enjoy luxuries). 4.

Word Meaning: Kitee = no matter how many. Chkhoun Saadrray = enjoy tastes (of delicious foods). Vays = fashons; adormaents. Jobun(u) = youthfulness. Baad(i) Guyyium(u) = goes waste. Jhooranyndi = in repentance. 5. Sunda = of. Sudrra = message. Gur Veechaari = by pondering on Guru's Shabad. Sach Behna = eternal company. Nudri = (Waheguru) with the kind sight. 6. Unjun(u) = kohl (to improve sight). Daykhunhaar(u) = (Waheguru) which looks after His creation. Boojhaiy = understands. Jaaniyaiy = is recognized. 7. Tuou = You. Bhaavun(i) = are liked. Jayhiyaan = like. Moo = me. Kitiyaah = countless. Naah(u) = Lord. 8.
MEANING: No matter how many delicious foods I got to enjoy, and how many fashions I might have worn, my youthfulness (young age) has gone completely to waste without my Dear (Waheguru), and now disconnected from Him, I am crying in repentance. 5.
If one listens to the Message of the eternal Waheguru by pondering on the Guru's Shabad, the kind Waheguru casts a kind sight on the devotee, and she gets to sit with Him (is connected with His Naam). 6. The true devotee wears a kohl of Divine Knowledge in his mental eyes to enhance his (internal) sight, and is able to "see" Waheguru, who looks after His creation. Such a devotee gets the understanding (wisdom) in the shelter of the Guru to get rid of his ego, and is recognized in Waheguru's Court. 7.
Those devotees who are liked by You become like You; but there are countless (unfortunate) like me, oh Waheguru. Those who are imbued with the love for Waheguru never get separated from Him, oh Nanak. 8.1.9.

Word Meaning: Bherjaayiyaan = sisters-in-law. Sussurriyaan = mothers-in-law. Saak(u) = relationship. Suhhiyaan = (spiritual) friends. 1. Aita = that much. Bhuv Thukki = exhausted of searching. Maylim(u) Dittum(u) = connected me with Him. Pause.
Foofi = sisters of father. Naani = maternal grandmother. Maasiyaan = sisters of mother. Dayr Jitthaanurriyaan = sisters-in-law (wives of husband's brothers). Vunjun(i) = go. Poor Bhuray = boat loads. Puhhiyaan = travellers. 2. Maamay tay Mamaaniyaan = maternal uncles and their wives. Bhaayir = brothers. Saath Ludday = groups are loaded. Naatthiyaan = visitors. Bheerr Ghunee = thick (huge) crowds. Duriyaayo = river (on the shore of the world-sea). 3. Rungaavlo = dyed. Kunt(u) = Shuhou = husband (Waheguru). Rung(i) Ruvunt(u) = enjoys union with affection. 4.
Roottan = seasons. Chungiyaan = pleasant; favourable. Nayh(u) = love. Dhun = human bride. Nis(i) = night. Dayh(u) = day. 5. Puttan = ford; boat launch. Kookay = calls aloud. Paatni = boatman; Guru. Vunjou = go. Dhrook(i) = run to. Vilaarr(i) = by jumping. Paar(i) Puvundrray = crossing over. Ditth(u) = saw. Bohith = ship. 6.
Hikkni = some. Luddiya = loading the merchandise of Waheguru's Naam. Bhaaray = heavy with sins. Bhurnaal(i) = (drowned) in the world-sea. Sach(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Vunjiya = dealt in (acquired). Naal(i) = with. 7. Jayhrra = like. Soyay = Him (Waheguru). 8.

MEANING: No worldly relation lasts forever - be it your sisters, sisters-in-law, or mothers-in-law. But, the relationship with the devotees who are connected with one another through the Guru becomes permanent (they all merge into Waheguru by singing His praise in the shelter of the Guru). 1. I am a sacrifice, always a sacrifice for the Guru, who connected me with my Dear (Waheguru); before coming to the Guru's shelter, I had exhausted myself searching unsuccessfully for Waheguru. Pause.
(All of us are visitors in the world), and all relatives, including the sisters of our fathers, maternal grandmothers, sisters of our mothers, or sisters-in-law, come and go, and never stay here permanently. There are boatloads of such visitors (waiting to leave for the text world). 2. There are huge crowds of visitors near the boat launch of the world-sea (to get across to the next world), which include all maternal uncles, their wives, brothers, fathers, and mothers (so there is no permanent relative in this world). 3.

Only our husband, Waheguru, is eternal and is always full of love, oh friends. If we get imbued in His love (by reciting His Naam), we never get separated from Him, and He enjoys our union with Him. 4. All seasons are favourable for fostering love for Waheguru. Such a devotee becomes connected to the eternal Waheguru and spends her days and nights in bliss. 5. Satguru is the ship to ferry us across the world-sea, and He calls us aloud at the launch to board the ship fast by jumping on to it (but only those can board who have Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their hearts). I have seen many who have been ferried across when they board the Guru-Ship. 6.
Some people have loaded their merchandise of Waheguru's Naam (ready to get across), and some have already crossed over to the other shore with this merchandise, but there are many more who are heavily loaded with ignoble qualities, and have drowned in the world - sea. Those who dealt in Waheguru's Naam are always with the Lord. 7.
I cannot call myself good, and I do not see anyone as bad. Those who kill (get rid of) their selfishness and ego, become like Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.2.10.

Word Meaning: Rungay Raata = imbued in love. Vukhaana = recite. 1. Daana = Provider. Beena = know-all; wise. Turaaoun = find salvation. Pause. Aik(u) = One; Waheguru. Jot(i) = Soul. Moorukhaan Sir(i) Moorukh = the supreme foolish. 2.
Pullaiy Na Paayay = cannot possess (acquire). Bhaanaiy = with (His Will). Mun(i) Vussaiy = takes dwelling (is embedded) in mind. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Liv Laayay = deeply meditates on; stays connected with. 3. Rajun(g) = in ruling others. Rungun(g) = in enjoyments. Roopun(i) = enjoying beauty. Maalun(g) = in wealth. Jobun(u) = youthfulness.

Tay = those. Jooaari = gamblers. Paasaiy Khayleh(i) = play the game of dice (chaupurr). Aika = the same kind (lovers of Maya). Saari = pawns. 4. Chutur Siyaana = too wise and shrewd. Bherm Bhoolaana = misled in illusions. Bayd Smaaleh(i) = follow the (rituals of) the Vedas. Bikh(u) Bhoolay = lost in the poisonous Maya. Laykhaari = authors. 5. Kullar = saltpeter. Khayti = crop. Turvur = tree. Kuntthay = on the bank of a river. Baaga = white. Pehreh(i) = wear. Kujul Jhuraiy = where kohl (black ash) drops. Tisaiy = of that (Maya). Gerb Juraiy = burns (rots) in ego, 6. Ruyyiut = subjects. Dooh(u) Untar(i) = between the earth and the sky. Jaasi = will go (perish). Paurri = ladder to reach. Nivaasi = resident of Waheguru's Palace. 7.

MEANING: Imbued in the love of my Lord, Waheguru, I recite His Naam all the time, and do not consider anyone to be foolish or wise (I treat everybody the same). 1.

I may be foolish, but I am a sacrifice for Your Naam, oh Waheguru. You are the creator and the provider, and you know the needs of all of us. Kindly grant me Your Naam so that I may swim across the word-sea. Pause.

One may be wise or foolish, but each has Waheguru's Light in them – wise and foolish are simply two names. The individual who does not believe in Waheguru's Naam is the supreme fool. 2. One can acquire Waheguru's Naam at the door (shelter) of the Guru; no one acquires it without Satguru. Waheguru's Naam can be enshrined only with the Will of the Satguru, when the devotee meditates on Him (stays connected with Him) day and night. 3.

Those who spend their lives ruling over others and enjoying beauty and other sources of entertainment, wealth, and their own youthfulness are gamblers (who lose their spirituality in exchange for these luxuries). But we cannot blame them entirely because, restrained by Waheguru's Huqam, they are just like pawns in the game of dice, where they can be successful or losers. 4. The world considers itself to be clever and wise, but is misled by its misgivings. The religious leader calls himself a pundit, but the foolish read (follow) the advice rooted in Maya. Ignoring Waheguru's Naam, he follows the rituals of the Vedas, whose authors themselves are misled by poisonous Maya. 5.

The world is Maya's home, which blackens the minds of its residents. Whoever lives in it, rots in his ego. Playing in the hands of poisonous Maya is as unsafe as a crop seeded in a field covered with saltpeter (which makes the ground completely infertile), or like a tree right on the bank of a river which can be uprooted any time, or like a man in white clothes entering a room where kohl-like dark ash is dropping (like rain) (where he is sure to get dark ash on his clothes to ruin their shine). 6. I will say that be it a rajah, or his subjects – in fact everybody between the earth and the sky – is bound to perish. The Guru is the ladder to reach the high (transcendent) Waheguru; only those who reach the high Residence of Waheguru become immortal and become residents of His Palace, oh Nanak. 7.3.11.

Baajhoun = without. Vaiyd = physician. Munda = bad thought. 4.
Saar(u) = supreme. Trishna Bhookh = appetite of worldly desires. Kul = power; ability. 5.

MEANING: Once a devotee enshrines Your Naam in his heart with Guru's eternal Shabad with Your benevolence and without any special effort on his part, he cannot bear the pain of Your separation, oh Waheguru. Only the devotee knows the intensity of that pain, and nobody else knows any cure for that. 1. Waheguru implants His love in the devotee's heart, and Himself connects him with the Guru to be connected with Him. But only that devotee knows the worth of Your love on whom You cast Your kind sight, oh God. Pause.
Such a devotee, awakened by his enlightened wisdom, realizes the reality, gets rid of his misgivings about Maya, and attains the highest spiritual state with the grace of the Guru. The individual who follows this approach (Guru's path) is a true yogi and becomes thoughtful. 2. The fortunate human bride gets rid of her immoral thinking with Guru's Advice, and gets connected with her Waheguru-Husband as per her prewritten destiny. Because of her love for Him, she is loved by Waheguru and enjoys the blissfulness of her union with Him. 3.
Waheguru is present everywhere and is above the effects of Maya. Also, there is no physician other than Satguru who can purify one's mind. One gets over his immoral thinking in the shelter of the Guru, gets enlightened, and becomes thoughtful. 4.
Satguru's Shabad is supreme, for which one fosters love with Waheguru's benevolence, and with which the devotee's appetite for worldly desires is killed in Satguru's shelter. No one can acquire any such ability with his own efforts; only Waheguru grants one such ability with His kindness. 5.

--------- Agum, Nigum(u), Satguru dikhaaya. Kur(i) kirpa apnaiy ghur(i) aaya. Unjun maah(i) Nirunjun(u) jaata jin kuou nudr(i) Toomhaari jeeou. 6. Gurmukh(i) hovaiy, so Tutt(u) paayay. Jis(u) Tu dayveh(i) soyee paayay, Nanak Tutt(u) beechaari jeeou. 10.1.

Word Meaning: Agum = Aagum = Shastras. Nigum(u) = Vedas. Ghur(i) Aaya = mind stabilizes. Unjun = kohl; darkness of Maya. Nirunjun = Waheguru (which is unaffected by Maya). Jaata = recognized; made a connection. 6.

Tutt(u) = reality; the root (Waheguru). Dhundh(u) = Maya-related tasks. 7.

Baiyraagi = detached from the world (and in love with Waheguru). Gavaari = unrefined; foolish. 8.

Uggaiy = in Waheguru's Court. Bayli = friend; supporter. Boojhaiy = are recognized. 9.

Sookh-Daata = source of comforts. Joog Chaaray = in each of the four eons. 10.

MEANING: Satguru shows (gives the devotee) Waheguru's Naam, which subsumes the study of the Shastras and the Vedas (the devotee does not need their advice). (With Waheguru's Naam) One's mind becomes stable, and with His kind sight, he recognizes Waheguru even when living in the world of Maya. 6.

Guru's Sikh acquires Waheguru's Naam and gets rid of his haumein (selfishness and ego). One can learn by pondering Satguru's Shabad that without Satguru's Advice, people simply perform routine tasks rooted in Maya. 7.

Many people are misled by the illusions of Maya, and wander around (spend their life) in the ego. On the other hand, there are many who kill their selfishness and ego with the Guru's guidance. Those who are imbued in the love of Guru's eternal Shabad are the true renouncers (of worldly attractions), while the rest are foolish who are misled by the illusions of Maya. 8.

Those who do not acquire Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru are followers of their own mind (are worshipers of Maya) and waste away their precious human life. They will have no one to support them in Waheguru's Court, but those who ponder the Guru's Shabad are recognized there. 9.

Waheguru's Naam, which is acquired from the Perfect Guru, is the real Amrit, and the source of all comforts in each of the four eons. But only that lucky devotee enshrines it in his mind, to whom Waheguru grants it with his benevolence. Such devotees ponder on Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 10.1.

Word Meaning: Lakh Chauraasih = the 8.4 million life forms. Bhermatay Bhermatay = going through. Doolubh = rare available. 1.

Ray Moorray = oh, foolish. Hoachhaiy Rus(i) = in low-quality tastes. Luptaayo = cling to; engrossed in. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya. Oorjhaayo = deeply involved (trapped). Pause.

Ruttan Juvayhur = jewels (noble qualities); Waheguru's Naam. Bunjun(i) = to deal in. Kaalur = (harmful) saltpeter. Laad(i) = to load. 2.

Ghur = Residence after death (union with Waheguru). Cheet(i) = in mind. 3.

Atull = eternal. Akhund = indivisible; uniformly present. Nimukh = moment. 4.

Thaan(u) = place (Waheguru's Residence). Visaariyo = forgot. 5.

Kluttar = wife. Greh(i) Smuggree = house-hold. 6.

Jit = to what. Tit = the same = Taiyso. Kerm Kumaayo = performed deeds. 7.

MEANING: Wandering through the 8.4 million life forms, you have acquired the precious human form now, but you are engrossed in the low-quality enjoyments of life. The Amrit-like Waheguru's Naam is present in your mind, but you are deeply engrossed in the attractions of poisonous Maya, oh foolish man. 1 & Pause.

As a human being, you should have dealt with the jewels-like, invaluable, noble qualities. and in Waheguru's Naam, but you are rather loading (accumulating) the saltpetre-like worthless qualities (vices) rooted in Maya to take with you to the next world. 2.

You do not think of your future home (after death), where you have to go and live. 3.

You have not sung praise even for a moment of the eternal and the uniformly present Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts in your life. 4.

You have forgotten about your future home (Waheguru's Court) where you have to go after death, and have not thought of Him even for a moment. 5.

You are engrossed in the love of your sons, wife, and your household (which will be no help to you at the end). 6. (But the man cannot be fully blamed for his choices) because he performs only those kinds of tasks which fit his character (nature), given by Waheguru (and which is based on his previous deeds). 7.

When Waheguru becomes kind to someone, He connects him with the Guru, whereby he begins to recite Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 8.1.

Word Meaning: Anugreh(u) = benevolence. Raakh(i) Leeno = protected. Rus(u) = while enjoying. Misht = sweet. Goohrra = deep; dark. 1. Maan = mun = mind. Usthaan = peace; stability. Meet, Saajun, Sukha = close friends. Bundhup(u) = relative. Untarjaami = omniscient. Jaan(u) = know-all. Pause.

Sunsaar Saagur = the world sea. Oopaayo = created. Guhhi = hold; take. Kunkur = assistants. 2. Mokh(u) Mookt(i) = emancipation. Bhundaar(u) = treasure. Jea Joogut(i) = the spiritual lifestyle. Soojaan = know-all; perfectly wise. 3.

Durd = pain; suffering. Klaysh = disputes. Binseh(i) = eliminated. Mirt(u) = death. Bikhrray = challenging; difficult to handle. Bikh(u) = poison (Maya). Pohaiy = come near. Taah(i) = him. 4. Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Nuv Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Pervaah = springs. Ooch = transcendent. Agumm = inaccessible. Agaah = unfathomable. 5. Dayv = gods. Mooni Jun = hermits. Oochaar(u) = narrate; recite. Bhooncheh(i) = enjoy. Paaravaar(u) = limitless. 6.

Puraachhut = sins. Miteh(i) = get erased (obliterated). Paavun = holy; pious. 7.

Bul = power. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Soodh(i) = awareness. Serbus = all. Raas(i) = wealth. Bissur(u) = forget. .8.

MEANING: The omniscient Waheguru knows everything about us. He is my close friend and relative, and His Naam gives peace and stability to my mind. Pause.

With His kindness, he protected me (from Maya's attacks) and connected me with the Guru. Now, with deep love for Him, my tongue recites Waheguru's Naam and is enjoying its sweet taste. 1. I have come to the shelter of Waheguru, who has created the sea of worldly desires. The assistants of the Angel of Death cannot question the devotees who worship Waheguru with the grace of the Guru. 2.

The heart of the holy saints is the treasure of the Naam of Waheguru, which has emancipation at His Door (emancipation is His slave). The perfectly wise Waheguru teaches living beings the path to spirituality, and the Lord protects us at all times. 3.

All the troubles, the sufferings, and the spiritually destructive disputes of the devotee, who enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart, are eradicated. The fears of death, of hell, and of the tough situations (challenges) do not even go near him. 4.

The transcendent, inaccessible, and unfathomable Waheguru has been here uniformly from the very beginning, is here now, and will be here at the end. He is the source of all supernatural powers, of the nine mythical treasures, and of the springs of His Naam-Amrit. 5.
The accomplished yogis, the practising yogis, the hermits, and the Vedas all say the same thing: that to enjoy the blissfulness of the peaceful mental state, one should recite the Naam of the limitless Waheguru. 6.
Countless sins of the devotee who recites Waheguru's Naam deep from his heart get eradicated. Waheguru's Naam is holiest of all other means, including millions of donations and dips at holy places, for pleasing Waheguru. 7.
Waheguru's Naam is the wealth of the holy saints, which is power, wisdom, awareness, life, and everything else for them. It is my prayer as well, before Waheguru, that I do not forget Him for even a short moment, oh Nanak. 8.2.

MEANING: Recite all the time the Naam of the kind, light-like, and the compassionate Waheguru in the shelter of the holy saints who have noble qualities like patience, service to others, impartiality, and the like, oh my mind. Pause.
(To elaborate on these qualities, I will quote some examples next), oh my mind.
A tree is cut down by a sharp tool, and is felled, but it shows no resentment. It rather allows the cutter to achieve his objective (fulfil his needs) and does not blame him in the least (the holy saints are patient and generous like a tree). 1.
(If a fully exhausted traveller has to cross a mighty river by boat) He pushes it down by stepping on it and settles down. All his tiredness disappears, and the might of the river does not cause any discomfort, and he lands on the bank on the other side in a short time. (The holy saints also ferry humans across the world sea.) 2.
If someone gives a coating of sandalwood extract, the cologne of the agar tree, or camphor, the earth shows no love for the individual and no resentment toward the individual who passes his feces or urine on it, or even if he digs it bit by bit. (Such is also the nature of the holy saints who help everybody, whether one treats them with kind words or shows hostility. 3.
Like the sky, which stretches its canopy on everybody the same way, be it someone noble, of low caste, an evil person, or a godman. It does not consider anyone its friend or foe and treats everybody the same way. The holy saints provide shelter to everyone without discrimination. 4. When the sun rises, its blazing brightness dispels all darkness, and its rays touch every object – holy or unholy – without letting its feeling get hurt. 5.
The cool (comforting) and fragrance-laden wind blows at a low speed everywhere, picking up good or bad smells without hesitation when it touches different things, with no discrimination. (Like the sun and the wind, the holy saints also render service to everybody without any discrimination). 6.
Any individual who comes near a fire, with good or bad intentions, has their coldness removed. The fire does not change its nature and treats everyone the same, without any feeling of closeness or strangeness (the same goes for the saints). 7.
I have come to the shelter of, and have a guardian in the form of Waheguru. I am imbued in His deep love, and sing His praise all the time with His benevolence, oh Nanak. 8.3.

Word Meaning: Chandna = lighting. Angun(i) = yard (of heart). 1.
Aaradhna = worshipping. Neeka = good; worthy. 2.
Tiyaagan = give up; abandon. Maagna = begging. Jus(u) = praise. 4.
Laagna = get busy in; get attached. 6.
Bidh(i) = means; way. Praaptay = available; acquirement. Bhaagna = good fortune. 7.

NOTE: People perform many different rituals, such as lighting many lamps in their yards, worshiping idols, renouncing the world, going begging for food, staying awake through the night, and the like, to please their deities. Guru Arjun Dev Ji advises that all such rituals can be good (fruitful) if they are performed the proper way to sing praise of Waheguru.

MEANING: Lighting is good if one enlightens his heart with (Waheguru's Naam). 1.
Worshipping is fruitful if one worships Waheguru with His Naam. 2.
Renouncing is good if one renounces his lust, rage, and greed. 3.
Begging is good if one begs for Waheguru's praise from the Guru. 4.
Staying awake through the night is good if one stays awake to sing Waheguru's praise. 5.
To get attached to something is good, if one attaches his mind to the Guru's Feet (His Shabad). 6. But only that individual adopts these means who has good fortune written on his forehead. 7. In fact, every action is good if one seeks Waheguru's shelter (surrenders his wisdom to Waheguru, and obeys His Will), oh Nanak. 8.1.4.

Word Meaning: Servun = to listen. Pause.
Aavut = by coming. Huriya = comes alive. 1. Vaasaiy = takes dwelling. Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Mitaavan = eradicate. 2.
Boodh(i) = wisdom; thoughts. Pergaasaiy = is enlightened. Doormut(i) = ignoble thinking. Tujaavna = get rid of. 3. Bhaytut = on meeting. Hoat = becomes. Pooneeta = pure; pious. Poonrup(i) = again. Gerbh(i) = in womb; rebirth. 4.
Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Bhaavna = liked. 5. Nirgoon = having no good quality. Raakhaiy = protects. Smaavna = get absorbed. 7.

Chulut(u) = amazing feat. Mudhay = in. Raavna = enjoy blissfulness. 8.
MEANING: Please, come, and visit me; I wish to listen to, and sing Waheguru's praise in your company, oh Satguru. Pause.
My mind and my body come (spiritually) alive in Your shelter when I sing Waheguru's praise in Your company. 1. With Satguru's grace, Waheguru's Naam is implanted in the devotee's heart, and his love for Maya is eradicated. 2.
One's wisdom (thinking) is enlightened with the grace of a holy saint, and he gets rid of his suffering due to his immoral thoughts. 3.
His mind is purified at the sight of the Guru, and he never takes rebirth. 4.
The individual, who is liked by the Guru, feels as if he has acquired all the supernatural powers and all the nine treasures of the world. 5. I have no other shelter than that of the Guru, and cannot think of one where I can go to (for spiritual guidance). 6.
I have no good quality, and nobody can protect me (from Maya's attacks), but I can be absorbed in Waheguru's Naam in the company of the holy saints. 7.
It is an amazing feat (a miracle) which the Guru has performed, and I have begun to enjoy the blissfulness of my union with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 8.2.5.

Bhognaa = enjoy. Hur(i) Rus(u) = sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. Leevna = acquire; drink. 4. Taaga = thread. Sooyi = needle. Aani = bring. Seevna = stitch. 5.
Maatiya = intoxicated. Raatay = imbued. Buhourr(i) Na Kubhoon = never again. Aukheevna = lessens. 6. Nidhaana = treasures. Deevna = gives. 7.
Churn Dhoyay Peevna = show extreme reverence. 8.
MEANING: That life is successful which is lived by listening to, and by reciting Waheguru's Naam; such life becomes immortal (one never takes rebirths). Pause.
The best thing to drink is the sweet Amrit of Waheguru's Naam, by which the individual becomes fully contented. 1. Waheguru's Naam is also the best food for one's soul with which one becomes contented forever, and never has any appetite for worldly attractions. 2. (Seeking) protection of Waheguru-Husband is the best clothes to wear, whereby one never becomes naked (exposed to vices) again. 3.

The sweetness of Waheguru's Naam is the best taste to enjoy, which one acquires in the company of the Guru. 4. The best thing to stitch is to stitch one's mind with Waheguru's worship, which requires no thread or needle. 5.
The best intoxicant to have is to get intoxicated by getting imbued in the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, which never lessens. 6.
The devotee, who is given Waheguru's Naam with His benevolence, feels as if he has acquired all the treasures of the world. 7.
Serving the holy saints with full reverence is the source of all comforts, oh Nanak. 8.3.6.

Gur persad(i), sookh(u), dookh(u) sum jaanaiy, ghut(i), ghut(i) Ram(u) hiyaaliyaiy. 4. ----------

Word Meaning: Anjulee = pray with folded hands. Buhout(u) = too much (wealth). Chinta = worries (not to lose, and to earn more). Thori = not enough. Phiray Bhermunta = wanders around; looks around. Bivustha = conditions. Mookta = free. Soohayla = comfortable. 1. Greh(i) Raj = enjoying luxuries in the family. Nerk(u) = lead to hell. Oodaas = detached from the world. Kurodha = short-tempered. Sodha = analyzed. Dayhi Meh(i) = in body (mind). Alipta = detached. Poorun = successful. Ghaaliyaiy = hard labour. 2.
Vigoota = suffers humiliation. Huoun Bundhun = bonds of haumein. Nihaaliyaiy = see. 3. Bundha = gets trapped in more bonds. Ninda = gets vilified. Mugun = absorbed in. Viyaapiya = overpowered by. Chinda = worry. Sum = equal. Hiyaaliyaiy = see. 4.

MEANING: The members of the house who have too much wealth are always worried about their loss. or about earning more of it. And, the master of the house who does not have enough of it always wanders around worried (in making plans) to earn more of it. Only that household leads a life in comfort (is free from worries), which is free from both these situations (has just enough money but is fully contented). 1.
The family folks, who enjoy the luxuries (sensual pleasures) of life, are on their way to hell. And, those who leave home with the belief that they can break the worldly bonds, suffer from short temper, even if they might have read and analyzed the Vedas. Only that individual's hard labour is recognized (by Waheguru) who remains detached from worldly affairs of the mind, while still working hard to earn his living by honest means. 2.

The man stays unaware of the reality (immoral effects of Maya) even though he is visibly awake, and he suffers humiliation (in Waheguru's Court) because of his misgivings (about Maya) and its resulting consequences. Nobody can find emancipation without the Guru, oh my friend. The bonds of one's haumein are broken only in the shelter of the Guru when he sees Waheguru, and only Waheguru, everywhere. 3.
If a man performs the prevalent religious deeds, he is trapped deeper in the net of the bonds of Maya; but if he does not perform them, he suffers taunting by the society. Engrossed in the worldly attractions, the man is overpowered by worries. However, if he comes to Guru's shelter, he accepts comforts and discomforts the same way (feels fully contented) and sees Waheguru in everybody's heart. 4.

---------- Sunsaaraiy, meh(i) sehsa viyaapaiy. Akuth Kutha, Agoachur nuhhi jaapaiy. Jiseh(i) boojhaayay, soyi boojhaiy, oh(u) baaluk vaangi paaliyaiy. 5. Chhoad(i) buhhaiy, tuou chhootaiy naahi. Nanak kay Poorun Sookh-Daatay, Tu dayh(i) ta Naam(u) smaaliyaiy. 8.1.7.
Word Meaning: Sehsa = doubts; worries. Akuth = indescribable. Kutha = description of virtues; praise Agoachur = incomprehensible (Waheguru). Nuhhi Jaapaiy = cannot see. Boojhaayay = gives understanding. Vaangi = like. Paaliyaiy = raises. 5.
Chhoad(i) Buhhaiy = if renounces. Sinchaiy = accumulates. Put(i) = dignity. Chaur Dhaaliyaiy = is honoured as if royal whisk is fanned (waved) over his head. 6.
Soora = valiant. Merna = kill sensual desires. Bhaagaiy = runs away from battle against senses. Vertaayay = implements His Laws. Bhul Maanaiy = accepts as good for him. Doormut(i) = evil thinking. 7.
Juchna = His likings. Smaaliyaiy = remember; recite (Naam). 8.
MEANING: Doubts and worries do happen to people in the world, as a result of this, they do not see (get connected with) the incomprehensible and the indescribable Waheguru, and cannot sing His praise. Only that individual realizes the worth of Waheguru, whom He gives the wisdom to understand; He then raises him like a child. 5.
If someone leaves home to relinquish Maya, he cannot do so by mind (which is still engrossed in it), but if he accumulates it, he suffers from the fear of losing it. But if Waheguru protects his dignity (from the attacks of Maya) even in such a situation, he is a real holy saint, and he feels as if a royal whisk is being waved over his head. 6.
He is a true valiant who fights against his sensual pleasures and kills his desires, but the one who flees from this battlefield (fighting against desires) is taken through many, many life forms. The man should accept all that is given by Waheguru as good for him, and burn his evil thoughts by recognizing Waheguru's Will. 7.
But we cannot blame anyone because everyone has to do whatever Waheguru wishes for them as per their prewritten fortune. Waheguru does what he likes and watches His actions. My Waheguru is the perfect source of comforts, and I would like to recite His Naam if He kindly grants me, oh Nanak. 8.1.7.

Word Meaning: Birkhaiy Haytth(i) = under the (world) tree. Ikk(i) = some. Tuttay Bolun(i) = talk very impolitely. Ust(u) = sunset. Oudoat(u) = sunrise. Aoudh = life. Vihaaniya = is spent. 1. Kurayndurr = doing; committing. Surpur = for sure. Mootthay = are robbed. Ajrayeel = Angel of death. Kootthay = kills slowly. Dojuk(i) = in hell. Sirjunhaaray = the Creator. Laykha Mungaiy = demands the account of deeds. Baaniya = the Angel of justice. 2. Bhuyya = brother. Bayba = sister. Maal(u) = properties. Jobun(u) = youthfulness. Vunjaysa =will leave. Kern = the Creator . Kureem = provider of everything. Jaato = recognized (made connection). Til Ghaaniyaan = load of sesame. Peerray = crush. Jiyoun = like. 3. Khoos(i) = by snatching. Puraayi = of others. Khoodaayi = God. Lub(i) = greed of different tastes. Khaat = pit. Ugli Gull = future conequences. 4.
Sujaayay = punishment. Days(u) = country; journey. Lummaaiy = long. Jaani = learns; make connection. Puraaniya = man. 5.
MEANING: Just like the birds gather together on a tree to spend the night, the world is a tree for human beings to spend the night of life. Some of them are very impolite, while many are very sweet. As the birds leave the tree when the night is over, and the sun rises, the humans leave the world when the night of their lives is spent. 1.
Those who commit sins are robbed of their noble qualities and are punished mercilessly by the Angel of Death. The Angel of justice demands the account of their deeds, and the Creator throws them into hell (of rebirths). 2.
At the time of death, none of the deceased's brothers or sisters accompanies him, and he leaves behind all his property, his youthfulness, and his wealth. He never made any connection with the Creator (Waheguru), which provides him with all the necessities of life as a result of which he is punished like a load of sesame seeds is crushed in the crushing mill. 3. The man acquires belongings of others by snatching them without realizing that God is always with him and watches all his actions, and even listens to his plans (thoughts). With the greed to enjoy the world's different tastes, he falls into a deep pit of sin without realizing the future consequences of his actions. 4.

(As a consequence of his actions), He is set on a long journey of punishment through rebirths, taking birth and dying again and again. The (spiritually) blind man does not make any connection with his Creator, as a result of which, he suffers as he gets punishment. 5

Word Meaning: Khaaluk = Lord of the world. Thaavhoun = from place (objective). Bhoolla = missed. Moottha = robbed. Khayl(u) = drama. Booraa = bad. Rootth = displeased. Toottha = pleased. Siduk (u) = contentment. Suboori = patience. Vuttaiy = wanders aimlessly. Aapun Bhaaniya = to his own liking. 6.
Maula = Waheguru. Kuddhay = pulled out of the sea of Maya. Lehr(i) = waves; impulses. Kirt = consequences of previous deeds. Vihaaniya = as the life goes on; shows it effects. 7. Geetaan = songs. Vukhaaniya = sing. 8.
MEANING: The man forgets his objective of getting connected with Waheguru, and is thus robbed of his spirituality. The drama of life is very tough to play; sometimes he is unhappy in it (when things do not go his way), and sometimes he becomes happy when he achieves something. Led by his mind, he wanders around aimlessly and does not seek shelter with the Guru to attain contentment and patience. 6.
But again, it is Waheguru who makes the man do what He wants him to do. He pulls out some from the waves of the ocean of worldly desires, while others are overpowered by such waves. Based on their previous deeds, the humans dance as the puppets at the hands of Waheguru. 7.
The man, whom Waheguru is kind to, worships Him. One does not go to hell in the company of the holy saints. I beg for His Amrit-like Naam in donation so that I may sing songs of His praise, oh Nanak. 8.2.8.12.20.
