Saacha Sach(u) Soyee, uver(u) na koyee. Jin(i) sirji, Tin hee phoon(i) goyee. Jiyoun bhaavaiy, tiyoun raakhou rehna, Toom siyoun kiyya mookraayi hey. 1. Aap(i) oopaayay, Aap(i) khupaayay. Aapay sir(i), sir(i) dhundahiy laayay. Aapay veechaari, goonkaari, Aapay maarug(i) laayi hey. 2. Aapay daana, Aapay beena. Aapay Aap(i) oopaayay puteena. Aapay paun(u), paani, baysuntar(u), Aapay mayl(i) milaayi hey. 3. Aapay sus(i) poora, pooro, poora. Aapay Giyan(i), dhiyaan(i), Gur(u) Soora. Kaal(u), jaal(u), Jum(u) joh(i) na saakaiy, Saachay siyoun liv laayi hey. 4. ----------

Word Meaning: Saacha = Waheguru. Sirji = created. Phoon(i) = also. Goyee = destroyed. Bhaavaiy = as (You) like. Mookraayi = denial; defiance. 1. Oopaayay = create. Khupaayay = destroy. Sir(i), Sir(i) = respectively. Dhundhaiy = Maya related tasks. Goonkaari = source of virtues. Marug(i) = true path of life. 2.

Daana = wise. Beena = know-all. Puteena = is pleased. Baysuntar(u) = fire; energy. Mayl(i) = putting together. 3. Sus(i) = moon; source of coolness (patience). Pooro Poora = perfect; omnipresent. Giyan(i) = source of Divine Knowledge. Soora = sun (source of enlightenment). Jum = Angel of death. Joh(i) = keep an evil (watchful) eye. 4.

MEANING: Only Waheguru, and none else, is everlasting in the universe. The universe is created and also destroyed by Him. We have to live the way You please (wish us to live); we have no ability to defy Your Will, oh Waheguru. 1.

Waheguru, Himself creates the universe, and Himself destroys it, and Himself puts everyone to perform worldly tasks of nature based on their prewritten destiny. He is the source of all noble qualities, is thoughtful, evaluates the deeds performed by everybody, and puts them on the path of righteousness. 2.

He is very wise, knows everything about His living beings, and creates them as He pleases. Air, water, and fire (energy) are His own forms, which He puts together to create the world. 3. He is the perfect source of patience (contentment), and of enlightenment. He, Himself, is the source of Divine Knowledge and of concentration, and is the Guru. The Angel of death cannot cast an evil eye, and cannot spread his net on those who meditate on the eternal Lord (get connected with Him). 4.

--------- Aapay purakh(u), Aapay hee naari. Aapay paasa, Aapay saari. Aapay pirr baandhi jug(u) khaylaiy, Aapay keemut(i) paayi hey. 5. Aapy bhuvur(u), phooll(u), ful(u), turver. (PAGE 1021): Aapay kis hee kuss(i) bukhshay, Aapay day, laiy, bhaayi hey. 8.-----
Word Meaning: Purakh(u) = male. Paasa = game of dice. Saari = pawns. Pirr Bandhi = play ground. Keemut(i) Paayi = evaluates. 5. Bhuvur = bumblebee. Turver = tree. Thul(u) = land. Servur (u) = pool; body of water. Muchh(u) = fish. Kuchh(u) = turtle. [Incarnations of Vishnu. Once the demons stole all the four Vedas and hid them in the ocean; god Vishnu incarnated as a fish and retrieved them. When the gods and the demons churned the ocean to retrieve the 14 “jewels”, the Vishnu incarnated as a turtle to support the churner]. Kernikur(u) = creator of the universe. Roop = looks; appearances. Lukhna = comprehend. 6. Dinus(u) = day. Raiyni = night. Putejaiy = is pleased. Baiyni = Words (Shabad). Aad(i) = from the very beginning. Joogaad(i) = from the beginning of the eons. Anahud(i) = non-perishable. Rujaayi = the Lord of His Will (Waheguru). 7.
Ruttan = jewel. Anoop = unparalleled. Amolo = priceless. Purkhaiy = evaluates. Poora Tolo = perfectly just. Kuss(i) = by examining. Bukhshay = forgives; bestows. Day = gives (His Naam). Laiy = requires (high morality; acceptance of His Will, etc.). 8.
MEANING: Waheguru Himself is the male, and Himself the female (is equally present in both); Himself is the game of dice for the world, and Himself is the pawns. He has created this world as a playground for people to play their roles, in which some win while others lose, like the pawns in a game of dice. He Himself evaluates them. 5.
Waheguru Himself is the bumblebee, the flower, the fruit, and the tree (is present in all of them; plays their roles). He is present in the waters of the oceans and of the lakes, and present on the land. He is the creator of the whole universe, and is present in god Vishnu, who incarnated as the fish and the turtle. His beautiful looks cannot be comprehended. 6.
He Himself is the day and the night, and is pleased with Guru’s Shabad. He is immortal, was present at the beginning of the universe, before the eons, and is present in every heart where the Huqam of the Lord of His will prevails. 7.
He is the beautiful jewel, priceless, and has none like Him. He evaluates the performance of everybody with complete impartiality. After testing, He kindly bestows His Naam to some of them, when He requires noble qualities and acceptance of His Will in them. 8.
---------- Aapay dhunukh, Aapay serbaana. Aapay sooghurr, sroop(u), siyaana. Kehta, bukta, soonta, Soyee, Aapay bunut bunaayi hey. 9. Paun(u), guru, paani pit jaata. Oodur sunjogi dherti maata, Raiyn, dinus(u), dooyay daayi, daaya, jug(u) khaylaiy, khaylaayi hey. 10. Aapay muchhuli, Aapay jaala. Aapay guoou, Aapay rukhvaala. Serb jeeyaan Jug(i) Jot(i) toomhaari, jaiysi Prubh foormaayi hey. 11. Aapay yogi, Aapay bhogi. Aapay ruseeya perm sunjogi. Aapay vaybaani, nirunkaari, Nirbhuou taarri laayi hey.12. ---------

Word Meaning: Dhunukh = bow. Serbaana = arrow. Sooghur = wise. Sroop(u) = very attractive. Bukta = advises. Bunut Bunaayi = Laws governing the world. 9.
Pit = father. Jaata = is considered. Oodur Sunjogi = because of its role as mother's womb. Daayi Daaya = female and male nannies. Jug(u) = world. 10.
Muchhuli = fish. Jaala = net. Guoou = cow. Rukhvaala = guard. Jot(i) = enlightenment. Foormaayi = ordered; decided. 11.
Bhogi = who enjoys the worldly luxuries. Rusiya = enjoys the sweet tastes. Perm Sunjogi = because of the supreme union. Vaybaani = detached. Nirunkaari = formless. Nirbhuou = fearless. Taarri = deep meditation. 12.

MEANING: Waheguru is perfectly wise and highly attractive, and it was He who was present in god Rama when the latter broke the bow of Shiva while loading an arrow on that, and He Himself was the bow. He has created the world in such a way that it is He who says (orders), advises, and listens to the needs of His living beings. 9.
The living beings are enjoying in the lap of the days and the nights which act as nannies in the world in which the air plays the role of the Guru (the Guru purifies the mind of the humans, while the air purifies their blood and keeps them alive), the water nourishes them like the father, and the earth acts like the mother which produces everything from its womb. 10.
Waheguru Himself is the fish, and the net (fisherman), Himself, the cow and Himself its guard (is present in all of them). Everybody in the world has some degree of enlightenment in them, as granted (decided) by Waheguru. 11.
(Because of His supreme presence everywhere) Waheguru, Himself, is the yogi (detached from the world), Himself enjoys the luxuries of the world, and Himself enjoys all the tastes. He is present in all the sanyasis who live in forests to stay detached from the world. He is formless, and fearless, and Himself sits in deep meditations (is present in the yogis). 12.

---------- Khaani, baani Toojheh(i) smaani. Jo deesaiy, subh aavun jaani. Sayee, shah Svapaari, Satgur(i) boojh boojhaayi hey. 13. Shabad(u) boojhaayay, Satgur(i) Poora. Serb kulaa, Saachay bherpoora. Afuriyo, vaypervaah(u) sudaa Tu, na Tis til(u) na tumaayi hey. 14. Kaal(u) bikaal(u) bhuyyay dayvaanay. Shabad(u), sehj rus(u) untar(i) maanay. Aapay mookut(i), tripit(i) ver-Daata, bhugut(i) bhaayay mun(i) bhaayi hey. 15. Aap(i) niraalum(u), Gur gum Giyana. Jo deesaiy, Toojh(i) maah(i) smaana. Nanak(u) neech(u) bhikhiya Dur jaachaiy, mein deejaiy Naam(i) vudaayi hey. 16.1.

Word Meaning: Khaani = all living beings of all sources. Baani = ways of communication; creation. Aavun Jaani = come and go; birth and death. Sayee = those. Shah = wealthy. Boojh Boojhaayi = given the understanding. 13.
Serb Kulaa = all skills; all powers. Bherpoora = omnipresent. Afuriyo = which cannot be controlled. Vaypervaah = care-free. Til(u) = a negligible amount. Tumaayi = desire. 14.
Kaal(u) = death. Bikaal(u) = birth. Dayvaanay = crazy; confused. Sehj = blissful spiritual state. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Maanay = enjoys. Mookut(i) = of emancipation. Tripit(i) = of contentment. Ver-Daata = Lord of blessings. Bhaayay = spirit; with love. Bhaayi = is liked. 15. Niraalum = detached from the worldly attractions. Gur Gum Giyana = which can be acquired through the Guru. Smaana = to be absorbed (perishable). Neech(u) = ignoble. Bhikhiya = alms; donation. Jaachaiy = begs. Vudaayi = greatness. 16.

MEANING: Ultimately, all the living beings from all sources of reproduction, and the other creations get absorbed in You (are destroyed and become Your part), oh Waheguru. All that is visible comes and goes (is perishable). Satguru has given the understanding that only those are truly wealthy who deal in Waheguru's Naam. 13.

With His Shabad, the Perfect Guru explains that the all-powerful Waheguru is present everywhere. He further explains that Waheguru, which has absolutely no desire of any kind, is care-free and cannot be contained (controlled) by any means. 14.
Waheguru is the Lord of all blessings, contentment, and emancipation. Birth and death go crazy (have no effect) on the devotee who enjoys the sweet taste of Guru's Shabad in mind, attains a high spiritual state, and worships Waheguru with the spirit of love and devotion, which pleases Him. 15.
Waheguru is fully detached from the world and can be realized only through the Guru. Every visible thing is perishable and is eventually absorbed in Him. I am an ignoble beggar at the Door of Waheguru, and I beg for His Naam as the greatest honour for me, oh Nanak. 16.1.

Jo Toodh(u) sayveh(i), say Toodh hee jayhay, Nirbhuou baal sukhaayi hey. 4. ----------

Word Meaning: Dhaul(u) = the mythical ox that is believed to support the earth. Pergaasun(u) = enlightening. Jutee = celibate. Sutee = high morality. Suntokhi = contented. Kaar = hard work (to acquire noble qualities). 1.
Jis(u) = which (Waheguru). Maytaiy = erase; obliterate. Laykhaiy = prewritten. 2.

Punch Choar = the five demons. Chunchul = capricious. Chit(u) Chaaleh(i) = guide the mind. Joheh(i) = watch with evil eye. Ghur(u) = own home (peace). Bhaaleh(i) = look for. Kaaya Nugur = body. Dhuhhaiy = collapses. Dhayri = pile (of dirt). Put(i) = dignity. 3. Boojhaiy = get advice (ability). Tirbhuvun = the three-layered universe. Soojhaiy = understands. Munsa = desires. Munaiy = mind. Loojhaiy = fights. Baal = childlike; clean-hearted. Sukhaayi = friend. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru, Himself is the earth, the support for the earth and the sky, and Himself enlightens the people with His virtues. He Himself is the celibate, Himself the individuals with high morality, the contented, and Himself works hard to achieve these qualities (is present in all of them, and makes them follow the path to achieve such virtues). 1.

He is the doer, and watches whatever He does. Nobody can obliterate His written plans. He does everything himself, makes others do whatever He wishes, and gives credit to those who deserve it. 2.

The five capricious demons (lust, greed, etc.) guide (or control) the human mind, which keeps an evil eye on the houses of others (their wealth, and women), and does not look after its own house (mind to stabilize). Finally, the human body collapses, becomes a pile of rubble, and without Guru's Shabad, the man loses his dignity in Waheguru's Court. 3.

The man, who seeks Guru's advice, struggles with his mind to overcome his evil desires and comes to understand the secrets of the universe. Those who serve Waheguru become like Him, and the fearless and pure Waheguru becomes their friend. 4.

Bin(u) Naavaiy, mein uver(u) na deesaiy, Naavhoun gut(i), mit(i) paayi hey. 8. -------

Word Meaning: Soorg(u) = paradise; sky. Muchh(u) = the world. Puyyaala = the underworld. Jot(i)-Sroopi = light-like. Baala = great; supreme. Jutaa = tangled hair. Bicket = dreadful. Bikraal-Sroopi = having frightening looks. Roop Raykhiya = physical features. Kaayi = any. 5. Kutaybeen = the western religious books (Bible, Quran, Torah etc.). Bhayd(u) = secrets. Jaata = came to know. Soot = sons. Saiyl = rocks; mountains. Alukh(u) = invisible; incomprehensible. 6. Thaaki = got tired. Meet = friends. Ghunayray = immense; many. Uvgoon = vices; bad qualities. Soor(i) = gods. Nath(u) = accomplished yogis. Sahib(u) = Lord. Bhaayay = with love. Bhuou = fear. 7.

Bhoolay Chookay = misguided. Maarug(i) = on the path (of righteousness). Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Mit(i) = measurements; size. 8.

MEANING: Waheguru is present in the sky, on the earth, and in the underworld. The light-like and the supreme Waheguru may appear in many different and frightening forms, some of which may include figures with dreadful tangled hair, and other frightening looks; and yet He has no physical features. 5. The Vedas and the Western holy books like the Bible, the Torah, and the Quran could not find the secrets of Waheguru, which has no mother, father, sons, or brothers. He creates huge mountains, and then eliminates them. But the invisible Waheguru cannot be comprehended. 6.

I have made many friends, but none of them has been able to rid me of my vices (bad qualities). But, Waheguru, which is the Lord above all the gods, humans, and the accomplished yogis, can be accessed with love whereby all one's fears (and bad qualities) run away. 7.

Waheguru shows the path of righteousness to the misguided. But it is also Him who misguides some individuals on purpose (because of their repeated bad deeds) while guides some others. One can comprehend the high transcendence and the vastness of Waheguru only by reciting His Naam; I cannot see any other way than His Naam with which one can connect with Him. 8.

Word Meaning: Kayl = places where Krishna enjoyed (Brinda Bun). Kaanshi = Banaras (now Varanasi). Poori Dooaara = Dwarka Puri. Baiyni Sungum = Allahabad (confluence of Ganga, Yamuna, and Sersvati Rivers). Utth-sutth(i) = the 68 (holy places). Unk(i) Smaayi = absorbed in the heart (of Waheguru). 9.
Sidh = accomplished yogis. Saadhik(u) = practising yogism. Veechaari = evaluator. Raajun(u) = Emperor. Punchakaari = appoints assistants. Tukhut(i) = on the throne. Udli = judge. Bherm(u) = misgivings; illusions. Bhayd(u) = gap; separation. Bhuou = fears. 10. Qazi = a religious leader in Islam who also acts as a judge. Moolah = a Muslim preacher. Abhooll(u) = infallible. Na Kubhoon = never. Mehr = kindness. Duyya-Put(i) = Lord of mercy. Daata = provider; source. Baiyraayi = enemy. 11.
Bukhshay = bestows; kind to. Vudiyaayi = honour. Til(u) Na Tumaayi = not even a miniscule (the size of a sesame seed) desire. Bhrpoor(i) = omnipresent. Dhaar(i) Ruhhiya = providing support. Nihkayvul = pure; pious. Goopt(u) = hidden. Pergut(u) = visible. 12.
MEANING: All the sixty-eight holy places, including the Rivers Ganga, Yamuna, and their confluence at Allahabad, where the underground Saraswati also joins them, and the cities of Banaras, Kaanjiverm, Dwarka Puri, and the places where Krishna spent his childhood, are all present in You (the recitation of Your Naam subsumes all of them), oh Waheguru. 9.
Waheguru Himself is present in the accomplished yogis and in the yogis, and evaluates them. He, Himself, is the emperor, and Himself appoints His assistants. Waheguru sits on His throne as the judge, and clears all the misgivings, separations from Him, and the fears of the people (whom He connects with Him). 10.
He, Himself, is the Qazi and the Moolah; He is infallible, and never makes any mistakes. He is the Lord of kindness and of mercy, and bears no enmity with anyone. 11.
He honours those whom He is kind to, and endows them with gifts, but Himself has absolutely no desire. The pious and omnipresent Waheguru supports the whole universe and is present everywhere, whether hidden or visible. 12.

Word Meaning: Salaaheen = sing praise. Agumm = inaccessible. Apaaraiy = without limits. Sirjunhaar = creator. Mooraaraiy = a name for Waheguru. Malay = unites. 13.
Bishan(u) = Vishnu. Mahesh(u) = Shiva. Oobhaiy = standing; with alertness. Kayti = much. Bil-laandi = crying for help. 14. Saachi = everlasting. Keerut(i) = praise. Bani = Guru's Shabad. Poonji = wealth. Dhur(i) = support; shelter. 15.
Hosi = will be there. Mersi = will die. Neech(u) = ignoble. Liv Laayi = deep meditation. 16.
MEANING: How can I praise (have no words to praise) the inaccessible, the limitless, the eternal, and the Creator Waheguru? He connects the devotee with Him whom He is kind to. Such a devotee stays connected with Him with His benevolence. 13.
The popular gods, Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva, wait at the door to serve Waheguru, which is incomprehensible and limitless. I cannot count the many others who cry at His door for help. 14. Recitation of Guru's eternal Shabad is the everlasting praise of Waheguru (which accompanies the man even after his death). No such praise of Waheguru can be found in the Vedas and the Puranas. Singing praise of the eternal Waheguru is my everlasting wealth; I have no other support (do not need any). 15.
Waheguru is there in every eon, is here at present, and will be here even in the future; everything else is perishable. I am an ignoble myself (lack noble qualities), but will make a request to all of you that you can "see" Waheguru's Door by meditating deeply on His Naam, oh Nanak. 16.2.

Word Meaning: Dooji = the other (Maya) Doormut(i) = ill advice (immoral thinking). Boali = deaf. Kaam = lust. Kroadh = rage. Kuchi Choli = perishable body. Vur(u) = Pir(u) = husband (Waheguru). Chhohur(i) = ignorant. 1. Ugun(i) = fire (of desires). Bhurrkaaray = with huge flames (with full force). Koondaan = directions. Vudaayi = honour. 2.
Nivaaray = get rid of. Tuskur Punch = the five thieves (demons). Sunghaaray = kill. Giyan = Divine Knowledge. Khurrug(u) = sword. Loojhaiy = fights. Munsa = desires. 3.
Rukut = blood; egg. Bind(u) = sperm. Dhaara = (mixes) to create. Soorut(i) = good looks. Daat(i) = largess. Kerta = Creator. 4.

MEANING: The human body is perishable and is home to lust and rage (different forms of Maya). Thoughts about Maya make a person blind and deaf (he fails to see and to listen to the truth (about God and spirituality), and lead to immorality. The ignorant human bride does not realize that her Waheguru-Husband is present in her own heart, and cannot enjoy good sleep (life of peace and contentment by forgetting Him). 1.
The Maya-worshipper has the fire of desires burning with full force in his heart, and he seeks peace in all four directions. But how can one find comfort without Satguru (which is the source of Waheguru's Naam)? The honour of peaceful life rests with Waheguru (as His Naam is the source of all comforts). 2. To have a blissful life, one needs to kill (get rid of) their lust, rage, ego, and the control of the five demons on them; all of them can be controlled with the Guru's Shabad. When a devotee fights with his mind using the sword of Divine Knowledge, all his desires get buried in his mind. 3.
The limitless Waheguru combines the mother's egg with the father's sperm in the mother's womb and creates the good-looking human body. All the souls and the natural gifts are given (created) by Waheguru, and He is present everywhere. 4.

Dhaavut = rushing; wandering fast. Tthaak(i) Ruhaaya = controlled. Kumul = lotus-like heart. Bigaas = blooms. Huray = green; thrive with new spirit. Sur = pool; senses. Soobhur = full to the brim (with Naam-Amrit). Aatum Ram(u) = God. Sukhaayi = friend. 6.
Mundul = world. Kiyoun = how? Chulna = (have to) leave. Pur Thhaayayn = the other place; next world. Sacha Amar(u) = Waheguru (His Laws) are immortal. Amrapur(i) = the eternal place. Vudaayi = honour (of union with God). 7. Siriya = created. Dhundhaiy Laaya = put in the business of Maya-related affairs. Keemut(i) = worth. 8.

MEANING: I have come to learn from the Guru that life and death are created by Waheguru, so what should I be afraid of (when He controls death)? All one's discomforts and sufferings run away from his body when Waheguru casts a kind and merciful sight on him. 5.

A devotee, who controls His ever-rushing mind with Guru's Shabad, and stays focused on that in his peaceful mind, kills all his fears; and all his sense-pools get filled with Waheguru's Naam Amrit, and his lotus-like heart blooms with new life (spirit). All his fears are destroyed, and Waheguru becomes his friend. 6.
The man is born in the world with his death prewritten. So, how can we live in this world forever when we know that we have to leave for the next world? Waheguru's Laws are eternal, and so is His Palace (Court). Those who acquire Waheguru's Naam in their heart also become Truthful (holy and pure) and are honoured in His Court. 7.
Waheguru has created the world and has put it in the business of Maya-related affairs. There is no one to be seen who is above Waheguru. He knows His own worth. 8.

Sehsa = worries; doubts. Dooyaiy Teeyaiy = in dealing about others (Maya). Nirunjun(u) = above Maya (God). 12.
MEANING: The world is a short-lived drama in which all the living beings are visitors and ignorant players (actors) who play their roles like a man who makes some unintelligible sounds in his dream at night. 9.
Those who acquire the fearless Waheguru, which is omnipresent in the universe, in their heart by fully focusing their mind on Him, are honoured in His Court. 10.
Waheguru's Kingdom is eternal, and so is His throne. The individual, who enshrines Waheguru in his heart in the shelter of the Guru, attains blissfulness. Such devotees have their accounts of their misdeeds erased because their haumein is destroyed, and they become like Waheguru and are honoured in His Court. 11.
If one keeps account of his noble and ignoble deeds as established by religious norms, he suffers from doubts and worries. How can one enjoy peace and contentment while dealing in Maya-related business? Only the Provider Waheguru is pure and above the effects of Maya. One can achieve the honour of enshrining Him (His Naam) in the heart in the shelter of the Guru. 12.

Word Meaning: Joog(i),Joog(i) = in each eon. Virleen = some rare. Jaata = recognized; made connection with. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Oat = shelter. Guhhi = took. 13.
Rusaayin(i) = (in Waheguru's Naam which is the source of all sweet tastes). Raati = imbued. Sungi = companion. Bhuraanti = restiveness. Servun = ears. Sroat = listening to. Rujjay = contented. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = the Supreme Soul. 14.
Puou = carefully. Dherna = ground; path of life. Jut Kut = wherever. Bhaaveh(i) = is liked. Bun Aayi = have friendship. 15.
Untkaal(i) = at the time of death. Bayli = friend; supporter. Salaaheen = sing praise. Baiyraagi = in love with God. Nij Ghur(i) = in own mind. Taarri Laayi = deep meditation. 16.
MEANING: Some rare devotee realizes Waheguru (gets connected with Him) in the shelter of the Guru in each eon. The devotee, whose mind is imbued in Waheguru's love, sees Him present everywhere. By taking Waheguru's shelter, one gets complete rid of the filth of his body and mind (does not think of immoral deeds by mind, and does not do them with his body), and enjoys blissfulness. 13.
Waheguru becomes the companion (friend) of the devotee whose tongue is imbued with Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of all sweet tastes, and he does not suffer from any fear or restiveness. His ears become satisfied by listening to Guru's Shabad (do not want to listen to anything else), and his soul merges with the Supreme Soul. 14.
Such a devotee treads the path of his life very carefully (takes no step leading to immoral acts), and finds himself in Waheguru's shelter everywhere. I love you whether I suffer or enjoy comforts, and You are my only friend, oh Waheguru. 15.
There is no supporter at the time of one's death. I have learnt in Guru's shelter (that You are the true friend even then), so I sing Your praise, oh Waheguru. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam are truly in love with God and are detached from the world. They stay in deep meditation, remembering Waheguru, oh Nanak. 16.3.

NOTE: Contrary to the beliefs of Hindu religious books that there were different characters of people, and different ways to realize God in different eons, Guru Nanak Sahib preaches emphatically in this holy Shabad that there is only one approach to realize Waheguru, no matter what the eon is. He further explains that the yugas do not shape the character of the people, it the character of the people which defines yugas.

Word Meaning: Apur Apaaray = which needs no external help; omnipotent. Nirunjun = on which Maya has no effect (Waheguru). Khusm = Lord. Saachay = the eternal Waheguru. Joag Joogut(i) = the means to union with Him. Taarri = deep meditation. 1.
Kayturriyaan = for many. Dhoondhukaara = darkness (the state about which nothing is known). Sirjunhaara = the Creator. Vudiyaayi = greatness; majesty. 2.
Sut(u) = high morality. Sreera = in human bodies. Sat(i) = eternal Waheguru. Gehr = unfathomable. Gumbheera = never changing. Perkhaiy = tests; evaluates. 3.
Soora = valiant. Nivaasa = dwelling. Rujaayi = Will. 4.

MEANING: Our eternal and omnipotent Lord, Waheguru, which is the origin of the universe, which has been there before the eons, and which has thought out the means to connect humans with Him, had been in deep meditation (before the creation of the universe). 1.
It was complete darkness for an infinite time over which the creator, Waheguru, had been in deep meditation. Waheguru's Naam (His laws) are eternal like Him, and so is His Majesty, His throne, and His praise. 2. The Hindu Granths believe that in Satyug, the first eon, the humans had high morality and were fully contented, but according to Guru Nanak Sahib, it was not universally true. It was still the eternal, unfathomable, and never-changing Waheguru that operated everywhere. The eternal Lord ran the universe with His own Huqam (Laws), and He evaluated everybody very fairly for their deeds, and only those were living in true Satyug who had Waheguru in their mind, and obeyed His Huqam. 3.
The perfect Guru is the one who has high morality and is fully contented. Whoever obeys His Shabad (His Advice) is a true valiant. Waheguru makes the heart of the devotee, who obeys His Huqam and His Will, a dwelling for Him, and the devotee is honoured in His Court. 4.

(PAGE 1024): Gurmukh(i) virla cheenaiy koyee. Dooyay pug Dharam(u) dhuray dhernidhur, Gurmukh(i) Saach(u) tithaayee hey. 8. -------

Word Meaning: Mun(i) = in mind. Mukh(i) = in mouth; on the tongue. Bherm-Bhuou-Bhunjun = destroyer of all doubts and fears (Waheguru). Sukhaayi = friend. 5.
Traytaiy = the second eon. Dharam Kulaa = one of the four religious powers; one of the four legs of the mythical ox which is believed to support the earth. Churn = feet; legs. Chooki = lost; removed. Doobidha = indecisiveness; discrimination. Shooki = become effective. Puchaiy = suffers. Avaayi = in obstinacy. 6.

Seejhaiy = successful. Reejhaiy = pleases. Baandhay = attached to worldly attractions. Sojhi Boojh = understanding. 7. Duyya = compassion. Dooaapur = the third eon. Uddhi = half. Virla = rare. Cheenaiy = recognizes. Dooyay = two. Pug = feet. Dhernidhur = support of the earth. Tithaayee = there (In Waheguru's Naam). 8.
MEANING: According to the Hindu Granths, everybody told the truth in Satyug, but according to Guru Nanak, no matter what the eon is, it is true Satyug for the individuals who recite Waheguru's Naam, and believe firmly that it is the eternal Waheguru which operates everywhere. With the Advice of the Guru, they have Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all misbeliefs and of all fears in their mind and on their tongue when Waheguru becomes their friend. 5. Again, according to the Hindu Granths, in the following eon, Trayta, the mythical ox that supports the earth, loses one of its four powers, when it is left with only three feet (legs), and indecisiveness overtakes people's minds (find it hard to choose between Waheguru and Maya). But again, no matter what the eon is, the devotee of the Guru recites Waheguru's Naam, and the Maya-worshipper suffers in his own obstinacy. 6.
The follower of his mind (worshipper of Maya) never becomes successful in Waheguru's Court (never receives approval). How can his mind be pleased (become blissful) without the Guru's Shabad? Such individuals have no enlightenment, and are born with their attachment to Maya, and leave the world still attached to Maya. 7.
According to Hindu Granths, in Dooaapur, the third eon, the degree of compassion among humans was reduced to half, and the ox under the earth was left with only two feet. But some rare Sikhs of the Guru realize that there is no such ox (and that support is provided by Waheguru). 8.

Word Meaning: Purthaayay = for some cause (personal gain). Aasa Bubdhay = hoping to have some wish fulfilled. Kerm Kmaayi = performing rituals. 9.
Kerm Dherrm = religious rituals. Mungaahi = beg for. Pdaaruth(u) = (valuable) thing. Perpunch = the drama of the world. Bhermaayi = captivated; misguided 10.
Mumta = attachment. Chhodi = give up. Sach(u) Kaar = Waheguru's praise. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Ruttay = imbued. Veechaari = thoughtful. Bun Aayi = have love for. 11.
Jup = recitation of some mantras. Tup = enduring hardships to please some god. Toodh Bhaayaiy = as You please. Chulaaveh(i) = give life style. Hutth(i) Nigreh(i) = control senses by persistent efforts. Upteej = which cannot be pleased (mind). Bheejaiy = imbues. Kin = who? none. Put(i) = honour (in Waheguru's Court). 12.
MEANING: In Dooaapur, the rajahs performed the accepted religious rituals as per the Hindu Granths to achieve some personal objectives. They would make donations in the hope of becoming wealthier and also being emancipated. But according to Guru Nanak Sahib, no one can achieve emancipation without Waheguru's Naam, even if they get exhausted by performing such rituals. 9.
The rajahs perform the religious rituals to get emancipation, but do not realize that the valuable thing that leads to emancipation is to sing praise of Waheguru. Waheguru has created illusions in people's minds through the drama of the mid-captivating Maya. Emancipation from the bonds of Maya cannot be achieved without the Guru's Shabad. 10.

One cannot overcome their attachment to Maya; only those who make Waheguru's praise their daily routine and work hard for it get emancipated from its bonds. Such thoughtful devotees are imbued in Waheguru's worship day and night, and they are liked by Waheguru for their love for Him. 11.
Some people read mantras, endure hardships, and take dips in holy places to please their gods. But the never-pleasing mind cannot achieve blissfulness by one's sheer obstinacy to control his senses. No one can receive any honour in Waheguru's Court without reciting His Naam in the shelter of the Guru. But we cannot really blame anyone, because it is Waheguru which controls everybody's lifestyle. 12.

Word Meaning: Kulee Kaal = Kaliyuga. Bhaakhi = explained. Koorr(u) = in perishable. Vertaara = dealings. Bherm(u) = doubts; illusions of Maya. 13.
Vaypervaah(u) = care-free. Sirunda = creator. Kaan(i) = subservience; owes. Chhunda = expectation. Bunda = humans. Tis(u) = Him (Waheguru). Abinaashi = immortal. Suntaayay = tortures. 14. Kartaaray = Waheguru. Koat(i) = millions. Asunkh = countless. Oodhaaray = salvaged. Jugjeevun(u) = soul of the world. 15.
Jaacheh(i) = beg for. Bhundaari = treasurer; Lord of the treasure (of Waheguru's Naam). Alukh = invisible; incomprehensible. Rujaayi = (with the) Will. 16.
MEANING: According to Hindu Granths, the mythical ox was left with only one leg to support the earth in the present eon of Kaliyuga. The follower of his mind, deals in the perishable things rooted in Maya, and such are his daily dealings. But only the Perfect Guru explains that the illusions of Maya do not go away without (Waheguru's Naam). 13.
Satguru also explains that the Creator, Waheguru, is always care-free, and the devotee, who serves Him, also becomes immortal by merging into Him, and the fear of death does not torture him. Such a devotee owes nothing to the Angel of death and has no expectations of other men. 14. Waheguru, which is perfectly pure (has no filth of Maya), is fearless, is the provider for all, and is the soul of the world, has placed Himself (His Light) in the Guru, which salvages countless individuals. 15.
The Guru, which is a manifestation of the invisible and the limitless Waheguru, and which is above the effects of Maya, is also the Lord of the treasure of Waheguru's Naam, while all humans beg for it (the Naam). I, Nanak, also beg for Waheguru's Naam so that I may recite it. Kindly grant me it at Your Will, oh Satguru. 16.4.

Word Meaning: Bhaana = Will; likes. Sehj(i) = in the high spiritual state. Tirbhuvun = the universe. Dhuree = placed. Uver(u) = other. Bhaayi = oh brother. 1.
Chaakur = servants. Puteejaiy = is moved (pleased). Abhayva = whose secrets cannot be known. Goonkaari = source of virtues. Bukhsh = forgive. 2.
Toat(i) = shortage. Mookur Paunday = deny. Kaachay = followers of own mind; ungrateful. Mool(u) = origin; root. Saach(i) = in Waheguru. Reejhaiy = pleased. 3.
Jaag(i) Ruhhay = stay alert. Liv = focus on. Lootay = robbed. Saabut(i) = do not lose. 4.

MEANING: With His Will, Waheguru connects His devotees with Him when they recite Guru's Shabad (sing Waheguru's praise), and stay in the high spiritual state. Waheguru has placed His Light in the whole universe (is omnipresent). There is none other like Him. 1. The incomprehensible Waheguru, whose secrets cannot be known, is pleased with Guru's Shabad. It pays only if a person serves his master (provider), so, the man should serve (sing Waheguru's praise) who is the true Provider for all. The Creator (Waheguru) is the source of all the noble qualities for His devotees, and it is an honour for the devotees who acquire such qualities. 2. Waheguru never experiences any shortage in His largesse to the living beings, but the ungrateful deny receiving them (they believe that they acquired them with their own efforts). They do not realize the root (the source) of all the gifts (Waheguru), are not pleased (impressed) with Him (His gifts), and are misled by the illusions of Maya. 3. Guru's Sikhs learn to meditate on Waheguru's Naam from the Guru, and stay alert day and night against the attacks of the five demons, and do not lose their noble qualities, whereas the Maya worshippers are negligent and are robbed of their good qualities. 4.

Word Meaning: Koorraiy = dealers in the perishables. Raati = imbued; intoxicated. Paiyndhay = are given the robe of honour. Soort(i) = mind. 5.
Mootthi = robbed = Tthuggi. Tthugg = robbers (the five demons). Vaarri = crop. Oojaarri = plundered. Saad(i) = tasty. Bisriyaan = forgetting. 6.
Aghaayi = contentment. Cheenaiy = recognizes; analyzes. Soyee = Waheguru. Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Soul. 7. Choataan Khaayay = is punished; suffers. Siyaanup = cleverness. Bherm = illusions. Puch(i) Puch(i) = in suffering. Achayt = negligent. Chayteh(i) = remember. Ujgur Bhaar(i) = python (heavy load). 8.

MEANING: Those who are imbued with the love for the perishables work for them, and keep taking births and dying. But, the minds of the Guru's Sikhs stay focused on Waheguru's Naam because of which they get connected with Him, and are honoured in His Court. 5.
Like a crop in the wilderness (unguarded), which is plundered by others, the dealers in perishables are robbed of their qualities by the five demons as robbers. The man suffers by forgetting Waheguru, and does not find anything spiritually tasteful (enjoyable). 6.
However, one becomes fully contented when he takes the food of Waheguru's jewel-like Naam, which is the everlasting honour for him. The man, who analyzes himself, also recognizes Waheguru (gets connected with Him), and his soul merges with Him. 7.
On the other hand, the man who forgets (ignores) Waheguru's Naam suffers in life. The wiser he thinks of himself, the more he is misled by the captivating Maya. The unaware (ignorant) does not remember Waheguru, and burdens himself with sinful deeds, and suffers from spiritual death. 8.

Word Meaning: Baad = disputes. Birodheh(i) = opposition. Urp(i) = offer. Bunut Bunaayi = created system. 9. Gut(i) = transcendence. Mit(i) = measurements. Vudaayi Khaayay = feeds on his ego. Dateen = in His largess (endowments). Sugli = the whole world. 10.
Vaypervaahay = the care-free God. Daan = gifts. Smaahay = delivers. Sehj(i) = in peaceful state. Rujaayi = with His Will. 11.
Ikk(i) = many. Sogi = suffering in grief. Roag(i) Viyaapay = gripped by ailments. Bhaaou = love. Unhud(i) = in the immortal Waheguru. Lukhaayi = shows self. 12.

MEANING: There is no one in this world who is not involved in disputes and in opposing others. I will sing praises of such an individual if you show me one. Waheguru, which is the soul of the world, has created such a system for union with Him that He can be connected with Him only when the devotee offers his mind (wisdom) and his body in His service. 9.
Nobody can find the transcendence and the size of Waheguru. If someone considers himself great, he feeds on his ego (and ignores Waheguru). But, Waheguru, which has created the whole world, keeps giving His gifts (even to the egoists) without experiencing any shortage. 10. It is an amazing greatness of Waheguru that He creates the world, delivers food and other gifts (like coal, gas, metals, etc.) to the living beings, and is yet care-free. The compassionate Waheguru is not far from us, and we can be connected with Him in the high spiritual state as per His Will. 11.

Some suffer from grief, while others are gripped by many ailments, but it is Waheguru who controls everything. Waheguru reveals Himself to the devotee who worships Him with love and with the perfect Advice of the Guru, and the devotee feels as if auto-playing Divine music is playing in his mind. 12.

Word Meaning: Naangay = without clothes. Bhuvveh(i) = wander around. Bhuvaayay = made to wander by Waheguru. Hutth(u) = obstinacy. Mureh(i) = die (spiritually). Gut(i) = high spirits. Uvigut(i) = in low spirits. Saar = worth. Boojhaiy = understand. 13.
Unn(u) = food. Khupaaveh(i) = cause suffering for. Kit(u) Bidh(i) = by what means. Paar(i) Lunghaayi = go across (the world-sea). 14.
Oojhurr(i) = in wilderness (lost far away from the destination). Avaayi = unfortunate. Puch(i) Puch(i) = in suffering. Boodeh(i) = drown; fail. Koorr(u) = falsehood. Koorr(i) = in falsehood. Kaal(u) = (spiritual) death. Baiyraayi = enemy. 15. Kaar = business of the Naam. 16.
MEANING: (Strange things happen in the world), Waheguru makes some people wander around hungry and unclothed, while some invite spiritual death because of their obstinacy (and ego), for which they get no recognition in Waheguru's Court. They do not know the worth of the high and low spirits (in spirituality) which can be understood (realized) only by acting on the Advice of the Guru. 13.
Some people take dips at holy places and do not eat grain foods, while others torture themselves by building fire around them on hot days to please some god, but cannot achieve emancipation. There is no other way to swim across the world-sea (get emancipation and merge with Waheguru) without His Naam. 14. Those who do not follow the Guru's Advice are misled away from their destination (of union with Waheguru). The worshippers of Maya do not recite Waheguru's Naam because of their obstinacy (ego), and suffer by drowning in the world-sea (get strongly trapped in Maya), and work harder and harder for the perishables, which become their enemy, and lead to their spiritual death. 15.
The man comes to the world with Waheguru's Huqam, and leaves it with His Huqam. Those who understand Waheguru's Huqam merge into Him. One connects with Waheguru when he loves Him and leads his life following the Guru's Advice, oh Nanak. 16.5

Word Meaning: Purakh(u) = Living Power. Bidhaata = the carver of our fates. Puchhaata = recognizes; looks after. Srisht(i) = world. 1. Nayrraiy = close. Boojheh(i) = understand. Pooray = perfect (full of noble qualities). Ehinis(i) = day and night. Laaha = benefit. 2. Bhulay = noble; acceptable to Waheguru. Rusn = tongue. Rusayray = with sweetness. Oostut(i) = praise. Purhur(i) = push away; get .rid of. Daalud(u) = poverty; laziness. Chint Puraayi = worry; concern (that they may be ridiculed by others). 3.
Oye = they. Kool = all. Preeseh(i) = disseminate. Kulmul = sins. Tay = those. Nirmul(u) = pure. Liv Laayi = stay connected. 4.

MEANING: The Supreme Being Waheguru, who is also the carver of our fates, creates the world by Himself and looks after it. He Himself is the eternal Guru, and being present in everyone, He is also the devotee. He Himself has created the world. 1.
He is very close to us and not far away. Those who internalize this fact in the shelter of the Guru become perfect (possess all the God-like noble qualities). One benefits spiritually in their company; this is the greatness of the Guru's shelter (His guidance). 2.
There have been such noble devotees of Yours in every eon, who sing Your praise with the tongue while enjoying its sweetness, oh Waheguru. Not worrying about any negative criticism by others, they sing Waheguru's praise whereby all their sufferings, and their laziness (poverty of mind) disappear. 3. They always stay alert against the attacks of Maya, and are never seen to be negligent. They disseminate Waheguru's Message, and salvage all those in their company. They are pure at heart and have no filth of vices. They worship Waheguru by staying connected to Him. 4.

Word Meaning: Boojhou = understand. Jobun(u) = youth. Dayh = body. Pooraani = ages. Aaj(u) Kaal(i) = any time. Jup(u) = recitation. Jup(i) = by reciting. Ridaiy = in heart. 5.
Koorr(u) Kubaarra = talks about Maya. Kaal(u) = death. Oochhaahrra = with enthusiasm (vigour). Saakut = worshippers of Maya. Koorr(i) = in thoughts of perishables. Pucheh(i) = suffer. Doohoon Maarug(i) = on two paths – love for Maya, and haumein. 6.
Chhodihou = give up. Ninda = vilification. Taat(i) = jealousy. Puraayi = of others. Dujheh(i) = burn at heart; suffer. Shaant(i) = peacefulness. Slaahou = praise. Aatum Ram(u) = God. Sukhaayi = friend. 7. Booriyaayi = bad deeds. Dhundh(u) = tasks rooted in Maya; greed. Lumptaayi = lust. Ooburhou = find salvation. Bhuvjul = the world-sea. 8.

MEANING: Understand (internalize) Satguru's Bani, oh, the devotees of Waheguru. The youthfulness of today will change into old age, and you will have difficulty in breathing, and you can die anytime, oh man. So, recite Waheguru's Naam from the core of your heart, now. 5. Forget all your talking about Maya (the perishables). (Spiritual) death kills such people with vigour. Full of ego, the Maya-worshippers suffer because of their pursuit of the perishables. These two paths – love for Maya, and haumein – cause huge suffering and humiliation (in Waheguru's Court). 6.
Quit vilification and jealousy of others, oh my friends. Pundits read the holy books, but never attain peace of mind. Sing praise of Waheguru in the company of the holy saints, when Waheguru will be your friend forever, oh my friends. 7.
Quit (control) your lust, rage, and bad deeds. Get rid of your haumein, lust, and greed, and take Satguru's shelter, oh my friends. This is how you can swim across the world's seas and find salvation. 8.

Bighun(u) naahi, Gurmukh(i) tur(u) taari, iyoun bhuvjul(u) paar(i) lunghaayi hey. 12. ---------
Word Meaning: Aagaiy = on the path. Bimul Ugun(i) = pure fire. Bikh(u) = poisonous worldly desires (sensual pleasures). Jhayla = large flames. Bhurr Bhurr = roaring flames. Lehri = mind-captivating waves. Purr(i) Taayeen = falling on. 9.
Peh(i) = with; in possession. Mookut(i) Daan(u) = donation of emancipation (Waheguru's Naam). Bhaanaiy = with own Will. Bidh(i) = ways; means. Sayv Kmaayi = serving the Guru (obeying His Advice). 10.

Oorjh(i) = trapped in. Baykaara = vices. Khooaara = causes humiliation. Baandhay = trapped. Ninduk = vilifiers. Puraayi = of others. 11.
Puchhaanhou = recognize. Nundar(i) = deep sight. Bighun(u) = impediment. Tur(u) = swim. Paar(i) Lunghaayi = ferries across. 12.
MEANING: (Without taking Satguru's shelter), there is a river of pure fire (of worldly desires), and huge flames of poisonous attractions of Maya on the journey of life of the Maya-worshippers. The man is all alone on his journey, and there is nobody to help him, as the roaring flames in the ocean of mind-captivating worldly attractions engulf him, and he suffers from the burning of his soul (mind). 9.
The Guru is the source of emancipation, and He gives (Waheguru's Naam) as donation at His Will (to whom He likes). Only those who know the means (how to acquire it) receive it. If you ask them, they will tell you that one acquires blissfulness by serving the Guru. 10.
Without the Guru's shelter, trapped in immoral activities, one suffers spiritual death. The Angel of justice hits him on the head, and the individual suffers humiliation. Trapped in their own behaviour (nature), the vilifiers of others, drown in the world-sea and do not get salvation. 11. Recite Waheguru's Naam, and recognize Him in your heart. If you watch carefully, you will see that He is not far from you. If one learns how to swim across the world-sea in the shelter of the Guru, he experiences no impediment to go across (and be united with Waheguru). 12.

Word Meaning: Dayhi = body; heart. Nivaasi = resident. Abinaashi = immortal. Kur(i) Daykhaiy = creates, and looks after. Shabad(i) = Huqam. Rujaayi = the Lord of Will. 13. Undhiyaara = darkness. Sachiyaara = source of pure truth. Koorraiy = dealers in falsehood. Aayi Jaayi = come and go. 14. Tutt(u) = the essence (Waheguru) Luhheh(i) = acquire. Untargut(i) = in the heart. 15. Pitraan = ancestors. Taaray = bring credit to. Laala Goala = slave. Liv Laayee = are connected with Waheguru. 16.
MEANING: The eternal Waheguru is the creator of the universe, and His Naam (Soul) resides in everybody's heart. (Because man's soul is a part of the Supreme Soul), it never dies, and cannot be killed. It is Waheguru, which creates the world with His Huqam, and looks after it as per His Will. 13. Waheguru is perfectly pure, and there is no darkness of any ignorance in His presence. The source of pure Truth (Waheguru) reigns over the universe. The worshippers of the perishable Maya are tied up and taken through many life forms as a result of which, they keep taking births and dying. 14.
Guru's devotees are dear to Satguru (Waheguru). They occupy the throne of their heart (have full control on their mind) and acquire Waheguru in their heart by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. Guru's Shabad is used to sing Waheguru's praise in the holy gathering. 15.
A true devotee finds salvation for himself and brings credit to his ancestors. Those who join their company (and recite the Naam) are ferried across the world-sea. I am a slave of the devotee who stays connected with Waheguru in Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 16.6.

Aapay choaj kuray rung Mehli, hoar Maya moh pusaara hey. 4. -------

Word Meaning: Kaytay = many. Vertaiy = operated; passed. Goobaaraiy = in darkness. Taarri = deep meditation. Apur Apaaraiy = which needs no external help; omnipotent. . Dhoondhukaar(i) = in darkness. Niralum = unaffected by Maya. Dhundh(u) Pusaara = expanse of worldly business. 1. Chhuteeh Joog = 36 eons. Tinaiy = Him (Waheguru). Bhaana = as He liked. Chulaayay = ran the affairs. Sreek(u) = rival. 2. Gooptay = hidden. Boojhou = understand. Chutooaaray = four. Oodhur Mujhaaray = in the belly (heart). Aika Aikee = alone. 3. Bind(u) = male sperm. Rukut = blood; female egg. Pind(u) = body. Suriyaa = created. Jeeya = living beings. Rung Choaj = amazing feats of different kinds. Mehli = the Master of His Palace (universe). 4.

MEANING: There was complete darkness for many eons before the creation of the universe, when the omnipotent and limitless Waheguru was in deep meditation. There was no expanse of Maya, and worldly affairs were yet to come. 1.

Thirty-six eons (a Hindu belief) went by in such darkness, and Waheguru did whatever He liked (stayed in darkness). The Supreme and the limitless Waheguru have no rival. 2.

After the creation of the universe, Waheguru has been, and is, operating hidden in the minds of the people for the last four eons. (Regardless of what the people thought about the supreme power which controls the universe), A devotee learns in the shelter of the Guru that it is only Waheguru which controls the universe, no matter what the eon is. 3.

Waheguru has created the human body from the union of male sperm and female egg, and all living beings by assembling the basic ingredients – air, water, and fire, etc. Waheguru, which is the Lord of the whole universe, performs amazing feats of different colours, and has created the expanse of Maya, which captivates the living beings. 4.

---------- Gerbh koondul meh(i) oordh dhiyaani. Aapay jaanaiy Untarjaami. Saas(i), saas(i) Sach(u) Naam(u) smaalay, untar(i) oodhur mujhaara hey. 5.

Maya kaarun(i) royay vigoocheh(i), dhrig(u) jeevun sunsaara hey. 8.--
Word Meaning: Gerb Koondul = in the womb. Oordh = upside down. Dhiyaani = meditating. Untarjaami = omniscient. Saas(i) = breath. Smaalay = remembers. 5.
Chaar Pdaaruth = the four wished things – morality, wealth, fulfilment of wishes, and salvation. Shiv Shakti = Waheguru's Maya. Aik = Waheguru. Visaaray = forget. Pirr Haaray = loses the rink (game of life). 6. Baaluk(u) = child. Leela = lovely games (naughtiness). Rungeela = colourful. Bhoola = mistaken 7.
Bhur(i) Jobun(i) = in the prime of youth. K(i) Keejaiy = what can be done. Kaarun = for the sake of. Vigoocheh(i) = suffer humiliation. Dhrig(u) = condemnable. 8.
MEANING: The fetus, which grows upside down in the mother's womb, is believed to focus its mind on Waheguru and to recite His Naam with every breath. The omniscient Waheguru knows the truth. 5. The man becomes attached to Maya from the moment he is born and wishes for four things in life: morality, wealth, the fulfillment of wishes, and emancipation. But he loses the game (purpose) of life if he forgets Waheguru's Naam, which the blind (ignorant) man exactly does. 6.
It is also one's attachment to Maya (worldly bonds) that makes him cry at the death of a relative. If a child dies in the family, the family cries to remember their lovely and colourful naughtiness. However, they are mistaken to cry over the loss, because he entered the family as per the Will of Waheguru, and He took him back with His own Will. 7.
What can the man do if a relative dies in the prime of his youth? (He is helpless and cannot do anything about that. The family again cries that he was theirs (which, actually, he never was). Such a life is condemnable (not approved by Waheguru) in which people cry due to the loss of worldly attachments (things which are not their true possessions). 8.

Sahoor-rray ghur(i) vaas(i) na paayay, payiurraiy sir(i), maara hey. 12.
Word Meaning: Phoon(i) = then. Dhaulay = grey hair. Guth(u) = initial capital (spirituality). Guvaayay = loses. Doormut(i) = immoral thinking. Binaasaiy = is destroyed. Mootthay = robbed. 9. Rovaiy = cries; repents. Bujjur Kpaat = (indestructible) doors of concrete guarding the mind. Nistaara = salvation. 10. Birdh Bhuyya = becomes old. Chheejaiy = weakens. Dayhi = body. Snayhi = loving; friend. 11.

Koorriyaaro = deales in falsehood (the perishables). Sir Chhaaro = dust on the head (are disgraced). Sahoor-rray Ghur(i) = in the next world (Waheguru's Court). Vaas(i) = stay. Payiurraiy = this world. Sir Maara = suffer humiliation. 12.
MEANING: Man's black hair (youth) turns into grey (old age); but without Waheguru's Naam, the blind of spiritual wisdom, leaves the world, losing even his original spirituality (he was born with). Robbed of his noble qualities because of his immoral thinking, such an individual invites spiritual death and then cries for help. 9.
Nobody repents for (realizes) his own mistakes with his own thinking. He comes to realize them only in the shelter of the Guru. The strong doors closing his mind to reality do not open without taking the Guru's shelter. One achieves emancipation only with the Guru's Shabad. 10. When the man gets old, his body becomes very weak, and he cannot recite Waheguru's Naam, which is one's true friend at the time of his death. Forgetting Waheguru's Naam, he leaves the world disgraced, and the dealers in falsehood (worldly attractions) suffer humiliation in Waheguru Court. 11. The dealers in perishables leave this world without remembering Waheguru and suffer disgrace by undergoing a long birth-death cycle. They suffered even in this world and are not accepted in Waheguru's Court. 12.

Nanak, Naam(u) jup-hou tur(u) taari, Sach(u) taaray, Taarunhaara hey. 16.1.7
Word Meaning: Paijhaiy = wears. Rulee Kureejaiy = enjoy luxuries. Ubh = deep from the heart. Baad(i) = uselessly. Sur Upsur = appropriate and inappropriate times. Saar = worth. Chaara = match; ability to fight. 13.
Pervirti = involvement in worldly affairs. Nurvirt(i) = non-involvement; abstaining. Ghur(u) = permanent residence (union with Waheguru). Munda = bad. Chullaiy = leave the world. Khuraa = pure. Sachiyaara = truthful; having noble qualities. 14.
Sijhaiy = approved. Paiyjhaiy = is honoured. Gerb(u) = conceit. Nivaara = gets rid of. 15. Puchhaanaiy = recognizes. Joogeh Jooguntar(i) = of many eons. Bidh(i) = means; secrets. 16.1.7.
MEANING: The man spends his life eating and wearing well, and enjoying other luxuries of life, but one cannot enjoy true bliss without Waheguru's worship, and suffers spiritual death. They do not know the importance of the appropriate and the inappropriate times, as a result of which the Angel of death punishes them, against which they have no ability to fight. 13.
The true devotee of the Guru understands the significance of the extent of involvement in worldly affairs and of staying detached from them; by singing the Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's praise) in His shelter, he finds his real home (union with Waheguru). Such a devotee with noble qualities leaves this world calling no one bad, and is found to be pure (is honoured) in Waheguru's court. 14.
Nobody is approved (is successful) in Waheguru's Court without His Naam; but the devotee, who sings Waheguru's praise, is given the robe of honour in His Court. Waheguru forgives His favourites eradicate their selfishness and ego, and salvage them. 15.

The true devotee recognizes Waheguru's Huqam with the grace of the Guru, and understands the path which the devotees have followed for eons to get connected with Waheguru. The path (means) to swim across the world-sea is to recite the Naam of the eternal Waheguru which ferries the devotees across the world-sea, oh Nanak. 16.1.7.

Durgeh mookut(i) kuray kur(i) kirpa, bukhshay uvgoon keena hey. 4. ----------

Word Meaning: Sa = like. Meet(u) = friend. Soort(i) = awareness. Smoyee = injected. Pritpaal(i) = raise and nourish. Smaalay = looks after. Daana = wise; provider. Beena = know-all. 1. Servur = pool (ocean) of water. Huns = swans. Ruttan, Laal = jewels and rubies (noble qualities). Moti, Maanuk = pearls. Heera = diamond. Jus(u) = praise. Bheena = imbued. 2. Agumm = inaccessible. Aghaa(u) = which cannot be searched for. Aghaadh(i) = unfathomable. Niraala = unique; detached. Rung(i) = in love. Leena = absorbed. 3. Kinayhi = of what kind? Aad(i) = from the beginning. Sunayhi = loving. Uvgoon Keena = the ignoble deeds performed. 4.

Meaning: There is no friend like Waheguru, who gives you a body and mind and infuses them with awareness. The wise and the know-all Waheguru, which looks after all the living beings, and which raises and nourishes them, is present in your mind. 1.
Satguru is like an ocean full of jewels, pearls, rubies, and diamonds (noble qualities), whereas we are like swans which feed on and can pick the noble qualities from the Satguru ocean. One's mind gets imbued with love for Waheguru when he sings His praise. 2.
Waheguru, which is inaccessible and unfathomable, is also detached from the world, and nobody can find His ends. The captain, Waheguru, ferries us across the world-sea when we act on Guru's Advice, and connects us with Him when we get absorbed in His love. 3.
What kind of emancipation is that without Satguru (there is no emancipation without Him)? His devotees are very dear to Waheguru, who has been here from the very beginning, and before the start of the eons. He forgives our ignoble deeds and grants us emancipation in His Court. 4.

Kirt(i) bandha grus(i) leena hey. 9. -------
Word Meaning: Daata = provider; Lord. Rus(u) = sweetness. Jagaati = taxman for ignoble deeds. Kur(i) = tax. Ugun(i) = fire (of desires). Tthur(u) = cool; peaceful. Seena = heart; mind. 5. Kaaya = body. Huns = swan; human soul. Dhaari = maintain. Yogi Purakh(u) = wandering like a yogi. Ehinis = day and night; always. Bhogaiy = enjoys. Choaj Binodi = enjoying different tastes of life. Ootth(i) Chullay = when leaves. Mutaa = consultation. 6.
Chhaajaiy = keeps cover on; protects. Gaajaiy = roar; provide shield. Munooa = mind. Dolaiy = wavers. Doot = the five demons. Keena = (result of the) deeds done. 7.
Doakh(u) = blames. Suhhiyaiy = endure. Bhuyya = happened; issued. Koop = deep well. Gotay Khaavaiy = submerges; suffers. Meena = fish. 8.
Chaurassih Nerk = the hell-like conditions in the womb for 8.4 million births in different life forms. Kirt Bandha = result of the deeds done. Grus(i) = trapped in. 9.
MEANING: The Lord of emancipation, Satguru, rids us of our mental (spiritual) ailments, and feeds us the sweet-tasting Waheguru's Naam-Amrit because of which the Angel of justice can impose no tax (punishment for ignoble deeds) on us; our fire of desires is put out, our mind becomes calm (quits wandering), and we get emancipated. 5.
The soul loves the body very much, as if it were a beautiful woman. But the soul is like a yogi, who does not stay at any one place for a long time. The man enjoys the different tastes of life day and night, but the soul does not even consult the body when it leaves it. 6.
After creating the world, Waheguru protects it with the air, water, and fire (energy), which act as a shield. But man's weak mind does not become peaceful under the effect of the five demons; so, it has to suffer the consequences of its deeds. 7.
The man suffers from the accusations of his ignoble deeds, and endures them, and he has to leave the world at the Orders of Waheguru. He suffers in the dark well of hell like a fish out of water. 8. The Maya-worshipper is taken through the hell of the mother's womb in 8.4 million (countless) life forms. He reaps the results of his own doings. He gets trapped in the routine of his ignoble deeds and cannot find emancipation without Satguru. 9.

Gurmukh(i) khoaj luhheh(i) jun Pooray, iyoun Sumdershi cheena hey. 13. --------

Word Meaning: Khundaydhaar ------ Bheerree = the narrow path like the edge a sharp dagger. Laykha = account of the deeds done. Til ---- Peerri = like the crushing of sesame seeds in the mill. Kluttar = wife. 10. Sukhay = friends. Kaytay = many. Puraayin = support. Undin(u) = everyday; always. 11. Koorr(u) = falsehood; love for the perishables. Choad(i) = by giving up. Dhaavhou = rush to. Ichhou = as wished. Vukkhur = merchandise. Vapaari = traders. Virlay = rare. Laaha = benefit. Sauda keen = strike deal. 12. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. Mehlou = Lord of the world. Waheguru. Khoaj Luhheh(i) = acquire by searching. Sumdershi = unbiased. Iyoun = like this. Cheena = recognizes. 13.

MEANING: The path to the next word is extremely narrow, like the sharp edge of a dagger (the soul has to go through a very tough scrutiny), and the Angel of justice demands the account of the deeds done by the man, and the guilty are punished like the sesame seeds which are crushed in the crushing mill. There is no friend (to help the man) there, including one's mother, father, wife, sons, or any other relative. Without the recitation of Waheguru's sweet Naam, no one gets emancipation. 10.

One may make many close friends in the world, but there is none other than Waheguru to help in His Court. Only service to the Guru (obeying His Advice) supports emancipation, so I sing Waheguru's praise every day. 11. So, quit your love for perishables, and rush to connect with Waheguru whenever your wishes are fulfilled, oh my friends. But only a few individuals deal in the merchandise of Waheguru's Naam and benefit (spiritually) from it. 12. A devotee, who appears in Waheguru's Court with Waheguru's Naam as his merchandise (wealth), gets to have a sight of the Lord of the World (Waheguru) in the high spiritual state. They acquire Waheguru by searching for Him in the shelter of the Perfect Guru; that is the way to recognize (realize) the unbiased Waheguru. 13.

Haumein maar(i) kurhou Gur sayva, jun Nanak, Hur(i) rung(i) bheena hey. 17.2.8.

Word Meaning: Bayunt = limitless. Aatum Raamaiy = Waheguru. Leena = absorbed. 14. Nard = a son of Brahma. Shard = Sharda Devi (Saravati, wife of Brahma, goddess of fine arts). Sayvuk = servants. Tirbhuvun = the three-layered universe. Vudhou Vudayray = great (the well known) sages. Kaarun Keena = creation. 15.

Durd = pain; suffering. Vunjaayay = lose; get rid of. Paiyndhay = are honoured. Bubdhun = bonds. Chit Chunchul = fickle mind. Chullun(i) = wander. 16.

Cheenou = recognize. Bidh(i) = means. Gunut = account of deeds. Maar(i) = by killing. Rung(i) = in love. Bheena= imbued. 17.

MEANING: Waheguru is limitless; some rare devotee realizes Him by acting on the Advice of the Guru when he convinces his mind with His Shabad. Believe in Satguru's Bani as the Divine truth; that is how you will realize Waheguru, oh my friends. 14.
Even the well-known sages like Nard and goddesses like Sarasvati, who are believed to be great in the universe, are Waheguru's slaves. You have created the whole universe, and it is all Your nature (power) that You are the provider for everybody, oh Waheguru. 15.
Some devotees serve Waheguru at His Door (obey His Will diligently) and get rid of their mental suffering. Emancipated by Satguru, they are honoured in Waheguru's Court. Satguru breaks the bonds of their haumein and enables them to control their capricious mind. 16.
The means to realize Waheguru is to come to the shelter of Satguru, where one gets connected with Waheguru, and nobody asks for the account of his deeds. Kill your haumein, and serve the Guru; that is how you will get imbued in Waheguru's love, oh Nanak. 17.2.8.

Jiyoun baysooa poot, baap(u) ko kuhhiyaiy, tiyoun phokut kaar vikaara hey. 5. -------

Word Meaning: Asoor = demons. Sughaarun = destroyer. Rumuyyiya = attractive; present. Naalay = with. Alukh = invisible; incomprehensible. Lukhiyaiy = comprehend. Na Moolay = not at all. 1. Sadhu = Guru. Paar(i) Ootaari = ferry across. Ugun(i) Paani = water of fires (of desires). Ut(i) Gehra = extremely deep. 2.
Sojhi = understanding. Mityee = erase; obliterate. Khooaara = humiliation. 3.
Ghur(i) = in own heart. Vaas(u) = live; stay. Kirt Kay Baandhay = under the influence of the previous deeds. Lobh(u) = greed. 4.
Seegaara = adornment. Pur Pir = another lover (Maya). Raati = imbued in the love of. Visaara = forgotten. Baysooa = prostitute. Phokut = useless. 5.

MEANING: Dear Waheguru, which is present in every heart, is the destroyer of the (five) demons. Even though the invisible Waheguru resides with us, we cannot see him. One can only write His Naam on his heart in the guidance of the Guru, and ponder on the Naam (by which he can "see" Him). 1.
Those who take Waheguru's shelter with the guidance of the Guru are ferried across the world-sea (are salvaged) with His kindness. The world-sea, which is full of fire (of worldly desires) rather than water, is extremely deep; only Satguru can ferry us across it. 2.
The followers of their mind (disconnected with Waheguru) are (spiritually) blind, suffer spiritual death, and keep taking births and dying. The consequences of their previous deeds cannot be obliterated (and they continue performing ignoble deeds) as a result of which, the blind suffer humiliation at the door of the Angel of justice. 3.
Many people keep taking births and dying, and do not find peace of mind (and salvation); they keep committing sins under the influence of the effects of their previous deeds. The blind (ignorant) still do not realize that greed and conceit are bad for spirituality. 4.
What is the good of the adornment of a woman if she is not loved by her husband? She forgets her husband because of her love for some other person. Likewise, who can be called the father of the child born to a prostitute? Similarly, what is the use of decorating the body with religious symbols and performing religious rituals to a Maya-worshipper who ignores Waheguru, the real Lord? All such deeds are the root of immoral deeds. 5.
------- Prayt pinjur meh(i) dookh ghunayray. Nerk(i) pucheh(i) ugiyaan undhayray. Dhermraayay kee baaki leejaiy, jin(i) Hur(i) ka Naam(u) visaara hey. 6. Sooruj(u) tupaiy, ugun(i) bikh(u) jhaala. Jum kay phaahay Satgur(i) torray, Gurmukh(i) Tutt(u) beechaara hey.

Word Meaning: Prayt = (soul) possessed by the five demons. Pinjur = skeleton (body). Ghunayray = too many. Pucheh(i) = burn; suffer. Ugiyaan = ignorance. Dherm Raayay = the Angel of justice. Baaki = balance owing (excess of ignoble deeds over good deeds). 6. Tupaiy = heats up. Jhaala = flames. Uputt(u) = shameless; disgraced. Pushoo = animal. Baytaala = out of step with the reality of life. Munsa = desires. Booriyaara = source of badness. 7.

Kullur = saltpeter (worthless things). Lunghus = go across. Bohith = ship. Aad(i) Joogaadi = from the beginning of the universe; in every eon. Nistaara = salvation. 8.
Kluttar = wife. Hayt(u) = love. Pasaara = expanse. Phaahay = noose. Tutt(u) = the root; Waheguru. 9.
MEANING: The body in which the soul is possessed (is in the control) of the five demons, suffers a great deal in hell-like conditions, and the individual, who forgets Waheguru's Naam in the darkness of ignorance, is called in by the Angel of justice as he owes a debt for his bad deeds. 6. The poisonous fire of worldly attractions burns with huge flames (with a great intensity) in the heart of the Maya-worshipper as a result of which, he acts like an animal, and is out of step with the reality of life, and is disgraced. With big hopes and desires, he deals in falsehood (the perishables) and suffers from the bad illness of greed and ego. 7.
Like a farmer sowing a crop in the field covered with saltpetre (which does not carry any worth), the Maya-worshipper carries the burden of worthless dealings. So, how can he swim across the world-sea with such a worthless and heavy burden? He does not realize that Satguru is the ship in every eon to ferry one across the world-sea if he keeps Waheguru's Naam in mind. 8.
The man is strongly bonded to his love for his sons, his wife, and the worldly possessions, which are just an expanse of Maya. It is Satguru who severs the noose of the Angel of death when His Sikhs ponder on the root of the universe (Waheguru). 9.

Kern plaav kuray buhoutayray, nerk(i), soorg(i) avtaara hey. 12. Maya bikh bhooyungum naalay. Inn(i) doobidha, ghur buhoutay gaalay. Satgur baajhoun, preet na oopjaiy, bhugut(i) ruttay, putiyaara hey. 13.
Word Meaning: Koorr(i) = attractions of Maya. Mootthi = robbed. Chaalaiy = spends life; plans. Daajhaiy = burn; suffer badly. Purr(i) = getting involved. Bhaahi = fire (of desires). Daana = wise; provider. Saara = supreme. 10.
Toottha = pleased to be kind. Dri-rraya = reinforces. Maytay = eradicate. Maarug(i) = path of righteousness. Kunda = thorn. Na Moolay = not at all. Guddyee = pricks. 11.
Khayhoo = dust. Chheejaiy = weakens. Saiyl = stone (hearted). Bheejaiy = imbues. Kern Plaav = wailing and begging. Avtaara = incarnations; births. 12.
Bikh Bhooyungum = poisonous snake. Doobidha = indecisiveness. Ghur = heart. Gaalay = ruined. Oopjaiy = comes into being. Putiyaara = is pleased. 13.
MEANING: Robbed (captivated) by the attractions of Maya, the human mind makes plans for many things, and the Maya-worshippers burn in the fire of desires. The Guru is the great provider of Waheguru's Naam, which is the true Amrit. One should recite Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of supreme comfort. 10.
Pleased with one's efforts to recite Waheguru's Naam, the Guru becomes kind to him and reinforces Waheguru's Naam in his mind. He shows the devotee the path of righteousness and removes all his sufferings. The devotee, who is protected by the Guru, does not suffer even from the prick of a thorn in his foot. 11.
The Maya-worshipper is like a rock whose mind does not get imbued in Waheguru's love, even though his body might have become very weak, and he might be close to death, whereby his body will become a pile of rubble and mix with dust. He may wail and pray a lot, but because of his bad deeds, he continues to reincarnate in hell or in paradise-like conditions.

12. The snake-like Maya is always with the man (influencing him), which causes indecision (between Waheguru and Maya) in his mind and leads to the ruin (pollution) of many minds. One cannot foster love for Waheguru in his mind without Satguru; the devotees are convinced of Waheguru's favours and are always imbued with His love. 13.

(PAGE 1030): Ram Naam(u) Sadhu shernaayi. Satgur Buchnee, gut(i), mit(i) paayee. Nanak, Hur(i) jup(i) Hur(i) mun mayray, Hur(i) maylay, maylunhaara hey. 17.3.9

Word Meaning: Shaakut = money-worshipper. Dhaaveh(i) = rush to. Trihou Goon = the three effects of Maya (complete darkness; some awareness; good awareness and good qualities). Khupeh(i) = suffers; struggles. Paar Ootaara = salvation. 14.
Kookur = dog. Sookur = swine. Kooriyaara = dealer in falsehood. Bhaunk = bark; complain about trivial things. Haara = loses (the battle of life). Doormut(i) = with evil thinking. 15. Taykaiy = becomes peaceful. Praykaiy = who has taken the shelter. Amoluk(u) = invaluable. Jus(u) = praise. 16. Buchnee = Shabad. Gut(i) = transcendence. Mit(i) = measurement. Maylunhaara = connector. 17.

MEANING: The money-lover rushes to make more of it, but how can he enjoy any comfort with money alone when he ignores Waheguru's Naam (which is the real source of comfort)? He struggles, and suffers (and also causes suffering for others) under the three effects of Maya, and cannot find salvation. 14.
The dealers in falsehood can be compared with dogs (for their greed), and with pigs for enjoying the filth (of Maya). They complain about trivial things and invite spiritual death by complaining too much. They are impure by body and by mind, and deal in the perishables. Because of their immoral thinking, they lose in Waheguru's Court. 15.
However, one's mind finds peace in the shelter of the Guru who grants him Waheguru's Naam, because of which his mind becomes peaceful. The Guru gives the invaluable wealth of Waheguru's Naam (His praise) to His devotee, which is dear to Waheguru. 16.
Waheguru's Naam can be acquired only from the Guru in His shelter when the devotee realizes the high transcendence and the limits of Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad (that He is limitless). I advise my mind to recite Waheguru's Naam whereby the connector Waheguru connects the devotee with Him, oh Nanak. 17.3.9.

Word Meaning: Ghur(i) ruhou = stay in yourself. Moogudh = foolish. Iyaanay = ignorant. Untargut(i) = with full focus. Laaluch = greed. Ruchou = mix (connect) with. Uprumpur(i) = (Waheguru) which does not need any external help (omnipotent). Iyoun = like this. 1. Johun(i) = keep a close eye. Phoon(i) = then. Jeaurraiy = oh my mind. Perm Tutt(u) = the supreme essence (Waheguru). 2. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Deettha = sees; realizes. Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in love. Tup(u) = enduring hardships. Sunjum = efforts to control senses. Saara = supreme. 3. Buchnee = Shabad. Tolhou = search; look for = Khoaj. Ghur(u) = permanent dwelling. Buhourr(i) = again. Gerbh = womb. 4.

MEANING: Stay inside yourself (do not take meaningless flights, i.e., do not make worthless plans), oh, my foolish and ignorant mind, and recite Waheguru's Naam with full focus. Give up your greed and connect with the omnipotent Waheguru. That is the way to reach the door of emancipation. 1. Recite the Naam of the Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru, forgetting whom, the Angel of justice begins to watch you closely, and you lose all the comforts, while discomforts lie ahead for you. This is the way to ponder on the Supreme Essence (God), oh my mind. 2. Recite Waheguru's sweet-tasting Naam, which one can realize (enshrine in mind) in his heart in the shelter of the Guru. Stay imbued in the love of Waheguru day and night; this is the true recitation of mantras, self-torture, and the efforts to control one's senses (which are spiritually worthless, but many people use them to please their deities). 3.

Recite Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad in His company (shelter) where you can search for (acquire) the sweetness of the Naam. Find your permanent dwelling (union with Waheguru) with Guru's Advice, and you will not have to go in mother's womb again. 4. Sing Waheguru's praise which is like having a dip in the true holy place. Meditate with full focus, to ponder on the root (origin) of the universe – Waheguru. If you recite the Naam of the dear Waheguru, the Angel of death will not be able even to cast a sight on you at the time of your death (you will become immortal by merging with Waheguru). 5.

Bin(u) simrun aaveh(i) phoon(i) jaaveh(i), gerbh joani nerk mujhaara hey. 9. –
Word Meaning: Purakh(u) = Supreme Being. Daata = donor; provider. Daana = wise; know-all. Saach(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Chooka = goes away; ends. Bhaiy Bhaara = huge fear. 6. Tutt(u) = the fundamental ingredients. Kaaya = body. Laiy Cheeni = recognize. Aatum Ram = Waheguru. 7. Sat = high moral. Suntokh = contemtment. Khima = forgiveness. Guhou = adopt. Praatum = Waheguru. Nistaara = decision; conclusion. 8. Kuput = deceitfulness. Tayka = belief; dependence. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Anayka = countless times. 9.
MEANING: Satguru is a manifestation of Waheguru, is the provider (of Waheguru's Naam), and knows everything about us. The individual who has Waheguru's Naam in his heart gets absorbed in Him with Guru's Shabad. The individual who Waheguru connects with Him through the Guru loses the huge fear of the Angel of death. 6
Waheguru creates the human body by assembling the five basic ingredients (earth, water, etc.) and also places His jewel-like Soul (Naam) in there, by which one can recognize Him (make a connection with Him). Waheguru, and His Soul, are the same; Waheguru can be realized by contemplating on the Guru's Shabad. 7.
Take Satguru's shelter (surrender to Him) to live with high morality and in contentment, and practise forgiveness. Analyze yourself to recognize (make a connection with) Waheguru. You can arrive at this conclusion in the company of the Guru. 8.
The money-lover depends on falsehood and deceit; he vilifies others countless times day and night. Without the recitation of Waheguru's Naam, he keeps coming and going by going through the hell of his mother's womb. 9.

Word Meaning: Shaakut = money-worshipper. Kaan(i) = owings; debt. Chookaiy = paid off; ends. Dund(u) = punishment. Na Kubhoon = never. Mookaiy = ends. Baaki = balance. Dherm Raayay = the Angel of justice. Afuriyo = conceited. Afaara = unbearable. 10. Turiya = salvaged. Bhuvjul(i) = in the world sea. Paar-Ootara = ferry across the world sea; salvation. 11.

Daat(i) = donation; largesse. Soyee = the same (God). Apur Apaara = with no ends. 12. Bhoolay = miss the opportunity. Phoon(i) = again. Moor = foolish. Achayt = unaware; negligent. Chayteh(i) = remember. Pookara = call on; pray to. 13.

MEANING: The debt of misdeeds owing to the Angel of justice by the Maya-loving individual is never paid off, and his punishment never ends. Such a conceited individual carries an unendurable burden of misdeeds, and the Angel of justice recovers the balance of debt of his misdeeds (by punishing him appropriately). 10.

Because of his ego, the money-lover is caught in the world-sea, and no such individual has ever found salvation without the Guru. One can swim across the world-sea only by reciting Waheguru's Naam. 11. Nobody can prevent the donation of (Waheguru's Naam) to a devotee; whoever is bestowed with Waheguru's Naam, is ferried across the world-sea by Him. Waheguru has no ends (is limitless), and the suffering of reincarnation does not even come near the devotee who has acquired His Naam in his mind. 12.

Those who miss the opportunity to take the Guru's shelter keep taking births, dying, and committing similar sins again. The foolish Maya-lover is unaware of the worth of Waheguru's Naam, and does not remember Him; he prays for His help only in suffering. 13

Word Meaning: Poorb Junum = of previous life. Doash = blame. Praani = oh, man. Suhou = endure. Kuraara = strong; really bad (deeds). 14.

Mumta = attachment. Chulaaya = taken away. Bikh = poisonous results. Laaday = loaded with. Chaar Bikaara = dust-like immoral deeds. 15. Akuth(u) = indescribable (Waheguru). Kuthou = discuss; sing praise. Muneh(i) = in own mind. Ootth(i) Chulta = rushing. Tthaak(i) Rukhou = keep in control. Kattunhaara = the destroyer. 16.

Oat = shelter. Puraati = took. Jaati = understand; realize. Ootum = superior. 17.

MEANING: One's comforts or sufferings are the result of his deeds of previous life, but only Waheguru, who has given those to the individual, knows this fact. So, whom can the individual blame for his suffering? He has to endure the result of his deeds. 14.

The man has been suffering from his ego and worldly attachment from the very beginning, and bonded strongly to his hopes and wishes, he is taken away (by the Angel of death). (Even close to his death), The man believes everything to be his, and laden with the poisonous dust of his immoral deeds, he is taken away. 15.

Worship the indescribable Waheguru, and sing His praise with full concentration, oh my brothers. Control the fast-wandering mind so that it stays in itself (in Waheguru's Naam) and the destroyer of all suffering, Waheguru, will eradicate all your suffering. 16.

The Sikhs of the Guru seek the shelter of the Perfect Guru, and Waheguru, and learn how to meditate on Waheguru's Naam with a focused mind with the guidance of the Guru. Waheguru bestows superior (noble) thinking to the devotee who recites His Naam, and ferries him across the world-sea, oh Nanak. 17.4.10.

Word Meaning: Gurdayv = the supreme god. Sumruth(u) = fully capable. Mooraari = destroyer of demons. Choaj = amazing feats. Purakh(u) = Supreme Being. Bidhaata = carver of our fates. 1. Aad(i) Joogaadi = from the very beginning. Pritpaala = raising and nourishing. Roop(u) Anoop(u) = having no equal in attractiveness. Chulaaveh(i) = run the lives of. Kumaata = performs deeds. 2. Jot(i) = Soul. Bhulee = kind; favourable to all. Jugjeevun = Soul of the world (Waheguru). Bhogaiy = enjoys. Rus(u) = sweetness. Tihou Loyeen = in the whole (three-layered) universe. Pit = father. Daata = provder. 3. Oopaayay = having created. Khayl(u) Ruchaaya = created the drama. Nuou Durvaajay = nine body doors. Dusvaan = the Tenth Door (through which one connects with Waheguru). Goopt = hidden. 4.

MEANING: You are fully capable of doing anything, are merciful, and are the destroyer of all demons (lust, greed, etc.), oh Waheguru. I have come to Your shelter, oh, the great God. Nobody knows Your amazing feats; You are the carver of our fates, oh, the Perfect Lord. 1.

You have been raising and nourishing Your living beings ever since the beginning of the universe. The kind Waheguru with unparalleled beauty is present in every heart. You make the humans do whatever You wish them to do; everybody performs the kind of deeds which You have planned for them. 2.
Waheguru's kind Soul is present in every heart where He enjoys all tastes, and drinks His own sweet Naam-Amrit. He gives His gifts, and takes them back from some of them. He is the father-like provider in the whole universe. 3.
Assembling the basic ingredients of air, water, and fire, etc., He has created the drama of the world. He has created the human body with nine doors, and has kept the Tenth door hidden (through which one gets enlightenment). 4.

Word Meaning: Chaar(i) Nudee = four rivers: violence (aggression), greed, worldly attachments, and rage. Usraala = frightening. Niraala = detached. Doormut(i) = evil. thinking. Daajheh(i) = burns; suffers. 5. Up(u) = water. Tayj(u) = fire. Vaayay = air. Punch Tutt(u) = the five ingredients. Tuj(i) = by giving up. Bhuraanta = indecisiveness. 6. Bhejaiy = imbues. Puteejaiy = is pleased. Tayk = support. Tikeejaiy = stabilize. Choar(u) = thief (Maya-captivated mind). Inn(i) = this. Moohaiy = robs. Doot(u) = demon. Jaata = recognized. 7. Doondur = make much noise. Doot = the five demons. Bhoot = (invisible like) ghosts. Bheehaalay = frightening. Khinchotaan(i) = pull in opposite directions (compete). Baytaalay = unsynchronized. Soort(i) = awareness. Put(i) Khoyee = lose respect; are disgraced. 8.
MEANING: There are four rivers (sources) – aggression, greed, worldly attachments, and rage – which, along with the fire of desires, rob the man of his spirituality. But some rare individual realizes this fact with Guru's Shabad, and stays detached from (unaffected by) them. Because of his ill thinking, the money-lover burns in the fire of desires, and drowns in these rivers. But the Guru protects those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam and stay focused on it. 5. Everybody is made up of the same five basic ingredients – water, fire, air, earth, and awareness – (but each has a different nature), Waheguru's devotees get rid of their selfishness, ego, and indecisiveness, and stay imbued in Waheguru's love with Guru's Shabad. 6. The individual, whose mind is pleased (convinced) with Guru's Shabad, gets imbued in Waheguru's Naam. What is the source of support of the mind without Waheguru's Naam? Without Waheguru's Naam, the money-lover does not realize that his Maya-captured mind is the demon-like thief in his body, robbing him of his spirituality. 7. Without the focus of the mind on Guru's Shabad, the five ghost-like (invisible) and frightening demons in one's mind make too much noise (exhort the man to commit immoral deeds), and unsynchronized, they pull his mind in different directions, resulting in the man losing his respect in Waheguru's Court, and taking rebirths. 8.

--------- Koorr(u) kullur(u), tun(u) bhusmaiy dhayri. Bin(u) Naavaiy kaiysi put(i) tayri. Baandhay mookut(i) naahi joog chaaray, Jum kunkur(i) kaal(i) puraata hey. 9. Jum(i) dur(i) baandhay mileh(i) sujaayi. Tis(u) upraadhi gut(i) nuhhi kaayi. Kern pulaav kuray bil-laavaiy, jiyoun

Word Meaning: Koorru(u) = falsehood. Kullur(u) = saltpetre (a harmful substance). Bhusmaiy = of dirt. Dhayri = pile. Baandhay = trapped (in the affairs of Maya). Joog Chaaray = in all the four eons. Kunkur(i) = assistants. Kaal(i) = of death. Puraata = arrested; trapped. 9. Sujaayay = punishment. Upraadhi = sinner. Gut(i) = condition. Kern Pulaav =pleading and praying. Bil-laavaiy = wails. Koondi = hook. Meen(u) = fish. 10.
Doohayla = in great discomfort. Soojhaiy = think of. Aaj(i) Kaal(i) = today and tomorrow; everyday. Puch Jaata = gets tortured. 11. Bayli = friend. Aithaiy = here (in this world). Oathaiy = there (next world). Raakha = guard. Sulul = water. 12.

MEANING: Dealings in Maya (the perishables) are worthless, like purchasing saltpetre (and enjoyments from them are short-lived), because eventually the human body becomes a pile of dirt. Without Waheguru's Naam, even the worldly respect (if any) because of them is of no use for the man. Without Waheguru's Naam, one does not attain freedom from the bonds of Maya, no matter what eon it is, and he is arrested by the agents of the Angel of Death. 9.
Tied up at the door of the Angel of justice, such a sinner gets severe punishment to be in a highly miserable condition where even his wailing and pleading do not help him, and he suffers like a fish on the hook. 10.
Under the full control of the Angel, the blind (ignorant) suffer in great discomfort when they are alone (helpless) and hanged (punished). Without Waheguru's Naam, he gets (mental) torture every day, and cannot think of emancipation from the bonds of Maya. 11.
There is no real friend without Satguru in the world. Only Waheguru is one's guard in this world and the next. He (Satguru) gives Waheguru's Naam with his benevolence when the devotee's soul merges into Waheguru's soul as water from one vessel mixes well with water from another vessel. 12.

Nanak Hur(i) jus(u), Hur(i) jun kee sungut(i) deejaiy, jin Satgur(u), Hur(i) Prubh(u) jaata hey. 17.5.11.

Word Meaning: Bhoolay = misled. Oojhurr(i) = astray. Maarug(i) = path (of righteousness). Dookh-Bhunjun = destroyer of suffering (Waheguru). Sung(i) = with. Sukhaata = Sakha = friend. Praani = man. Mahesh = Shiva. Kiyoun = how? Lukhiyaiy = comprehend; "see". Puchhaata = recognize. 14. Praaput(i) = acquires. Dershun(u) = (holy) sight. Persun(u) = touch (of Waheguru's Feet). Ehinis(i) = day and night. Nirmul = pure. Subaayee = in the whole universe. Ghut(i) = in the heart. Deepuk = lamp (of Waheguru's Light); enlightenment. 15. Bhojun = food (for soul). Chaakhiya = tasted. Deettha = saw. Baiyraagi = devotee; detached from the world. Munsa = wishes. Smaata = gets absorbed. 16. Perdhaana = respected. 17.

MEANING: Satguru advises (enlightens) the Sikhs and puts the misled on the path of righteousness. Serve the Guru day and night when the destroyer of all suffering – Waheguru – will become your permanent friend, oh my friends. 13.

What can the common man know about the importance of the Guru's worship when His worth is not known even to the gods like Brahma, Indra, and Shiva? How can one see (comprehend) Satguru, who is a manifestation of the incomprehensible Waheguru? Only those who are bestowed with the ability to do so recognize Him (connect with Him). 14.

Those who have love for Waheguru get to have His holy sight, and those who can touch His feet (get connected with Him) who have love for Gurbani (Satguru's Shabad). Waheguru's pure (holy) Light is present in the whole universe, but only those who recognize the lamp (the source of the Light – Waheguru) in their heart, who come to the Guru's shelter. 15.

Knowledge about Waheguru (singing His praise) is extremely sweet; those who taste it get to have His sight (get connected with Him). Such a devotee, who loves Waheguru, is truly detached from the world, and gets rid of his desires and wishes, "sees" Waheguru, and gets absorbed in Him. 16. Those devotees who serve Satguru "see" Waheguru in every heart and earn respect everywhere. I beg Waheguru for his praise to sing, and for the company of those holy devotees who have recognized (made connection) with Satguru, and Waheguru, oh, Nanak. 17.5.11.

Word Meaning: Sirjunhaaray = the Creator. Dhur = of the earth. Chukur = orbits. Veechaaray = very carefully. Vaypervaaha = carefree. 1. Vayki, Vayki = of different kinds. Junt = living beings. Pundi = teachers. Dooyay Raah = two paths – love for God, and love for Maya. Chulaayay = started; set. Laaha = (spiritual) benefit. 2. Boojheh(i) = understands. Bherm Bhoolaana = misled by illusions. Bidh(i) = (the correct) way. Vuddhi = bribery. Oogaahi = depose; bear witness. Doormut(i) = evil thinking. 3. Vaad Vukhaana = debates. Tutt(u) = essence; truth; God. Soochay = pure at mind. 4.

MEANING: The immortal Lord (Waheguru), who is the creator of the universe, has placed the earth in its orbits with great thought. He looks after His creation all the time, yet He is carefree. 1. He created many kinds of living beings, guided by two types of teachers (thoughts), as a result of which they follow two different paths (lifestyles) – love for Waheguru or love for Maya. One cannot get emancipation without the guidance of the Guru, who explains that one can benefit spiritually only by reciting Waheguru's Naam. 2.

The Maya-worshippers do read religious books, but they do not follow the right spiritual path. They do not understand the worth of Waheguru's Naam and are lost in the illusions of Maya. With the net of evil around them, they accept bribes to stand as witnesses to lies and deceit. 3. Such people may read the religious books like the Shastras and the Puranas, but only to take part in worthless discussions, and do not realize the truth (Waheguru's Naam). Without the guidance of the Perfect Guru, one cannot acquire the eternal Truth (Waheguru). Those who recite Waheguru's Naam follow the path of righteousness and get their minds purified. 4.

Dookh, sookh hee tay bhuyyay niraalay, Gurmukh(i) seel(u) sunaaha hey. 8.

Word Meaning: Salaahay = praise. Daana = wise. Puraakhaiy = tests; judges. 5. Kayti = much of the world. Alukh(u) = the invisible (God). Lukhaayay = shows. Akuth = indescribable. Boodh(i) = wisdom. Taaha = his. 6. Vaajeh(i) = play music Vadhaayay = congratulations. Sohilrray = songs of joy. Surpur = for sure. Kirt Puyya = based on deeds. Saaha = the date (of death). 7. Sunjog(u) = union. Vijog = separation. Niraalay = unaffected. Seel(u) = calmness; sweet nature. Sunaaha = armour. 8.

MEANING: After listening to others, everybody begins to sing Waheguru's praise, but the wise Waheguru tests them for their genuineness. Those, on whom Waheguru casts His kind sight, sing His praise with Guru's Shabad. 5.

By listening to the importance of Guru's Shabad, many people recite it, but one cannot find His limits by simply reciting the Bani. Only that individual acquires the wisdom to sing praise of the indescribable and the incomprehensible Waheguru, who reveals Himself. 6.

When a boy is born in a family, the ignorant play music and sing joyous songs, and people congratulate them. They do not realize that whoever is born must die for sure on the day already determined by Waheguru, based on his deeds performed earlier (in his previous lives). 7.

Unions of the souls with the bodies are determined by Waheguru. He creates the world and causes people enjoyment and suffering. But, the Sikhs of the Guru wear the armour of sweet nature all the time, and stay above (detached from) comforts or discomforts in life. 8.

Dookh(u) na mitaiy bin(u) Gur kee sherna. Dookheen oopjaiy, dookheen binsaiy, kiyya laiy aaya, kiyya kaiy jaaha hey. 12. ------
Word Meaning: Neekay = in blissfulness; pure. Sach(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Sauda = merchandize. Pullaiy = in possession. Omaaha = zestfulness; high spirits. 9.
Kaacheen Saudeen = dealings in the perishables. Tota = loss. Vunuj = business. Poonji = Raas(i) = capital; wealth. Saabut(u) = complete. Slaamut(i) = safe. Chooka = ends. 10.
Aapun Bhaanaiy = as per one's liking. Doojaiy Boal(i) = other words (in Waheguru's praise). Boali = deaf. 11.
Oopjaiy = comes into being; takes birth. Binsaiy = is destroyed; dies. 12.
MEANING: With the advice (wisdom) of the Guru, His Sikhs deal in Waheguru's Naam, and enjoy bliss. Those who have the wealth of Waheguru's Naam in their possession (heart) feel highly zestful by reciting the Guru's eternal Shabad. 9.
Quite often, one suffers monetary losses in his dealings in perishables, while the Sikhs of the Guru deal in those things which are liked by Waheguru; their wealth (of Waheguru's Naam) does not suffer any loss, is always safe, and their connection with the Angel of death comes to an end (they never experience spiritual death). 10.
Everybody talks about things which they like. The followers of their mind do not talk about anything other than their selfishness and ego. Such people are blind and deaf to reality, and their thinking is likewise (they do not listen to anything good for spirituality). They suffer badly from being born and dying again and again. 11.
Such people are born in discomfort, and die in suffering. Their troubles (due to their attractions for Maya) do not go away without taking Guru's shelter. They come to this world due to their bad deeds, and die committing sins; so, what did they gain by taking birth as humans, and what will they leave with (other than bad deeds)? 12.

Nanak Saach(u) milaiy, put(i) raakhou, Tu sir(i) shaahan, Paatshaaha hey. 16.6.12.
Word Meaning: Sachi Kerni = life of purity. Sir Kaara = top (supreme) deeds. Dhaara = acquirement; accountable. Daal = branches (attractions of Maya). Tuttt(u) = Waheguru. Mool(u) = the origin (root). Puraata = get attached to. Saacha = everlasting. Omaaha = zestfulness. 13. Punth(i) Kuraaraiy = on the tough path. Kaaha = opposition. 14.

Oarr(u) = end. Kuthnaiy = description. Sujaayi = beautified (with words). Rujaayi = in Will. Soohaylay = with comfort. 15. Ghunayray = many. Vudday Vudayray = the so-called great gods. Put(i) = dignity. 16.

MEANING: Leading a life of purity with the Guru's advice is the topmost service to Him. Such Sikhs of the Guru do not take rebirths, and are not accountable to the Angel of death. They disconnect themselves from the attractions of Maya, get attached to the root of the universe (Waheguru), and feel highly zestful at mind. 13.

The Angel of death cannot kill (or punish) Waheguru's devotees (because they merge with Him), and they do not experience any trouble on the very tough journey of life. With Waheguru's worship on their heart, they experience no attacks by the five demons. 14.

There is no end to the praise of the beautified (loaded with virtues) Waheguru. His devotees stay happy in His Will - whatever He likes. With the Huqam of the eternal Emperor (Waheguru), they reach His Court with ease and are honoured there. 15.

There are countless people who describe Your virtues, so what can I say about You, oh Waheguru? But even the great gods could not find the end to Your virtues. Waheguru is the Emperor of all the worldly kings, and I have only one request to make to Him that He grant me His Naam so as to protect my dignity in His Court, oh Nanak. 16.6.12.

Buldi, jul(i) niveraiy, kirpa tay, Aapay julnidh(i) paayaynda. 4. ----------

Word Meaning: Kaaya = body. Gurrh = forts. Vaasa = dwelling. Gugnundar(i) = in the sky (the tenth door). Usthir = eternal. Nirmaayil(u) = pure; holy. 1. Chujjay = porch. Hutnaalay = bazars. Vust(u) = merchandize (Waheguru's Naam). Smaalay = controls. Bujjur = concrete; strong. Kupaat = doors. Jurray = anchored. 2.
Bheetar(i) = inside. Goofa = cave. Jaayi = place. Nuoun Ghur = the nine body outlets. Alayp(u) = detached. Apaari = limitless. Alukh(u) = invisible. Lukhaayaynda = reveals. 3. Khayl(u) Tumaasha = dramas. Buldi = the burning fire (of desires). Niveraiy = removed; put out. Julnidh(i) = ocean; water, source of life 4.
MEANING: The fort-like human body has the tenth door (in the brain) where the eternal Waheguru resides. This is the permanent residence of the pure (holy) Waheguru, which He has created for Himself. 1.
The human body can be imagined as a city with bazars adorned with porches where the merchandise of Waheguru's Naam is traded (Waheguru takes one's bad qualities and gives His Naam), which He fully controls (not everyone can have it). Waheguru has anchored very strong doors to the human brain, which open only with the Guru's Shabad. 2.
Waheguru, the Lord of His Huqam, has created the human body with nine visible doors and a cave-like tenth door where, detached from the world, the limitless Waheguru resides. With His own Will, the invisible Supreme Being reveals Himself. 3.
With the union of air, water, and fire, Waheguru has created the drama and the show of the world, in which the fire of desires is burning in the minds of the people. This fire can be put out with the holy water of Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of life; Waheguru Himself pours this water on the minds of His devotees. 4.

Sufliyo birkh(u) Amrit ful(u) paaveh(i). Gurmukh(i) sehj(i) ruvvaiy, goon gaavaiy, Hur(i) rus(u) choag choogaaynda. 7. Jhilmil(i), jhilkaiy chund(u), na taara. Sooruj kirn(i) na bijul(i) gaiynaara. Akuthi, kuthoun, chihun nuhhi koyee, poor(i) ruhhiya, mun(i) bhaayaynda. 8.
Word Meaning: Dhermsaala = place to acquire noble qualities. Ootput(i) = creation. Purlou = destruction. Niraala = detached. Kulaa = power. Khinch(I) = pull out. Dhuhaayaynda = demolishes. 5. Bhaar Utthaarha = the whole vegetation. Maalun(i) = gardener (to offer flowers). Chaur(u) = the royal whisk. Dhoollaiy = fans. Phayri = moving. Sus(i) = in the moon. Soor(u) = sun. Smaayaynda = is absorbed. 6.
Punkhi = birds. Punch = the five senses. Oodur = fly. Dhaavaiy = rush. Sufliyo = laden with (Waheguru's Naam-Amrit) as fruit. Birkh(u) = tree. Sehj(i) = in the blissful state. Ruvvaiy = recites Naam. Choag = bird food. Choogaayaynda = feeds. 7.
Jhilmil(i) = shimmer. kirn(i) = ray. Gaiynaara = in the sky. Akuthi = indescribable. Chihun = physical feature. Poor(i) Ruhhiya = present everywhere. Bhaayaynda = loveable. 8.
MEANING: Waheguru has created the earth as the place to acquire and to practise noble qualities (high morality). He creates and destroys the world, but stays detached from it. The air sustains life everywhere, and He destroys the world by pulling out His power 5.
(People worship their deities and perform aarti for them by placing flowers and lamps in a platter), But the whole vegetation is there to offer you flowers, and the sun and the moon are the lamps (in the platter of the sky), with the moon acquiring brightness by absorbing the sun's rays in it. The moving air serves as the royal whisk to fan you, oh Lord (So, His aarti is taking place all the time). 6.

The Guru is like a tree laden with Waheguru's Naam-Amrit as the fruit. The Sikhs of the Guru recite the Naam and sing Waheguru's praise in the high spiritual state, as a result of which their five bird-like senses do not take flight (think about sensual pleasures). Waheguru feeds these birds with His sweet Naam as their mental food. 7.
The high spiritual state of the Sikhs cannot be described, as it has no physical features; yet no rays of the sun, the moon, sparkling stars, or lightning equal the brightness of their enlightened mind. They see Waheguru's presence everywhere. 8.

-------- Pusree kirn(i), Jot(i) oojiyaala. Kur(i), kur(i) dakhaiy Aap(i) Duyyaala. Unhud roonjhoonkaar(u) sudaa dhoon(i), nirbhuou kaiy ghur(i) vaayaynda. 9.

Aiko Aik(u) su Apurprumpur, perkh(i) khujaaanaiy paayaynda. 12. -----
Word Meaning: Pusree = spread. Kirn(i) = ray. Oojiyaala = enlightens. Unhud = auto-playing Divine music. Roonjhoonkaar = sweet and soft. Dhoon(i) = tune; sound. Nirbhuou = fearless. Ghur(i) = state. Vaayaynda = plays (music). 9. Bherm(u) = misgivings. Bhuou = fears. Biyaap(i) Ruhhiya = influencing (omnipresent). Chhaajaiy = protects. Sohaiy = looks attractive (respectable). 10. Aad(i) = origin. Nirunjun(u) = unaffected by Maya (Waheguru). Bhaavaiy = is liked. Gerb(u) = conceit. Guvaayaynda = gets rid of. 11.
Jaana = acknowledge. Dooaa Teeya = second and third; any other. Apurprumpur = omnipotent (who does not need any external help). Perkh(i) = by testing. Khujaanaiy Paayaynda = deposits in the treasure (absorbed in Him). 12.
MEANING: With the benevolence of Waheguru, when a human heart is enlightened by the ray of His Light, it begins to feel as if a sweet and soft auto-playing Divine music is playing in his mind. Such a sweet tune becomes a permanent source of music, and he attains the state of fearlessness. 9. With the Divine Shabad in mind, all his illusions and fears disappear when the omnipresent Waheguru becomes his guard. Waheguru is the Lord of the whole universe and is realized in the shelter of the Guru. The Sikh of the Guru looks very attractive (earns respect) singing praise of Waheguru at His Door. 10.
I recognize only the "One" Supreme Being, Waheguru, who is the origin of the whole universe, is perfectly pure, is above the effects of Maya, and is none other (like Him). When Waheguru takes dwelling in a devotee's heart, the devotee loves Him, and his haumein and ego are eradicated. 11. I took in the Naam-Amrit with the grace of the Guru, and I do not acknowledge anybody else. The omnipotent Waheguru is the only power in the universe, and He absorbs the devotees in Him after carefully examining them. 12.

Nanak(u), Saach(u) kuhhaiy baynunti, hur(i) dershun(i) sookh(u) paayaynda. 16.1.13.
Word Meaning: Gehr = unfathomable. Gumbheera = unaffected by conditions. Cheera = Huqam. Jayti Haiy = all the (creation). Jaachaiy = begs for. Kerm(i) = with benevolence. 13. Haath(i) = in (Your) hands. Akhhott(u) = never running out. BHundaaraiy = treasures.

14. Dikhaavaiy = shows self; reveals. Thaap(i) = creating. Oothaapay = destroys. Jorr(i) = connecting. Vichhorraiy = separates. 15.
Toodh Undar(i) = under Your control (in Huqam). Bij = concrete; eternal. 16.
MEANING: The unfathomable, and the never-changing Waheguru is the source of all knowledge and of concentration of mind. Nobody knows how His Huqam (Laws) work. The whole world, which has been created by Waheguru, begs (longs) for His Naam, but only that individual gets His Naam (connects with Him) whom He is benevolent to. 13.
People perform many different religious rituals, but the real deed is to recite Waheguru's Naam, which He controls (whom to give and whom not to give). Waheguru is carefree, and all His treasures are always full which never run out. The eternal Waheguru is always kind, and compassionate. He, Himself connects His devotees with Him. 14.
Waheguru looks after His creation, and reveals Himself. He creates the world and destroys it at His Will. He connects the soul with the appropriate body, and disconnects them. He kills (severs) the worldly bonds of some people, and gives new spiritual life to them. The whole world is under His control, and He watches it from His eternal Residence. I have to make one humble suggestion to everyone, which is ever true, that one attains blissfulness only by having a holy sight of Waheguru (by connecting with Him), oh Nanak. 16.1.13.

Word Meaning: Dershun(u) = sight. Bhaavaan = liked. Bhaayay = with the spirit of. Rusn = tongue. Rusaayaynda = sweetens. 1. Sohun(i) = look dignified (are honoured). Mookut(i) Bhuyyay = became emancipated. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in love. 2. Easher = Shiva. Tupay = self-torturers. Moon(i) = hermits. Jutee = celibates. Sutee = of high morality. 3. Jaanaayay = giving understanding. Bhaanaiy = Will. Saah luvaayaynda = allows to breathe. 4.

MEANING: I can sing Your praise with love and with the spirit of a dedicated devotee, and have Your holy sight (get connected with You) only if You like (approve) it, oh Waheguru. It is only with the sweet Will that I can love You, and sweeten my tongue with the recitation of Your Naam, oh the Creator. 1. Waheguru's slaves (supreme devotees) are exalted (honoured) in Waheguru's Court as they are salvaged. Imbued in Waheguru's love, they recite His Naam all the time and get rid of their selfishness and ego. 2.

All the gods and goddesses - including Shiva, Brahma, Indra - the hermits, the devotees who torture themselves, the celibates, the people with high morality, and countless forest dwellers whose number is not known to anyone, are in Waheguru's service. 3.

Without Waheguru's understanding, nobody knows that whatever happens in the world happens only by Waheguru's Will. All the 8.4 million life forms which He has created breathe only with His Will. 4.

Word Meaning: Nihchou = definitely. Gunaayay = shows off (brags about). Bhoolla = misguided; disconnected. Tthaur = shelter. 5. Oojul = clean; pure. Hunsa = soul. Unsa = a part. Amrit(u) = sweet; good. Peevaiy = drinks; accepts. Baahoorr(i) = again. 6. Saadoun = from tastes (luxuries). Praaput(i) = acquire. Bhog-hou = enjoy; endure. Roag = ailments; suffering. Vigovaiy = suffers humiliation. Hurkhoun = from enjoyments. Soag = griefs. Mityee = go away. Na Kubhoon = never. Vin(u) = without. Bhermaayaynda = is misled. 7.

Vihooni = devoid of; without. Bhuvaiy = wanders aimlessly. Subaayi = the world. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Nirbhuou = fearless. Jaata = recognized. Jot(i) = Supreme Soul. 8.

MEANING: Whatever Waheguru wishes, happens for sure. The follower of his own mind brags about his own achievements, for which he has to cry (suffer) later. Disconnected from the Source (Waheguru), such an individual finds no shelter and suffers in his continuous rebirths and deaths. 5. The human body, which is pure and has a pure soul in it, becomes home to Waheguru's Naam. Such a devotee accepts all suffering as a sweet gift from Waheguru and has never suffered again. 6.

One invites ailments (suffering) from enjoying too many luxuries, and gets humiliated while enduring suffering from such ailments. His griefs resulting from his enjoyments never go away, and without accepting Waheguru's Will, he continues to be misled. 7.

By focusing on Waheguru's Naam, one realizes that Waheguru is present everywhere, and without the enlightenment, the whole world wanders aimlessly (in the dark). With Guru's Shabad, one realizes the fearless Waheguru, and his soul is connected with Him. .8.

Roop = looks. Raykhiya = features. Mit(i) = measurement. Bhayd(i) = by piercing (mind). Putiyaayaynda = is pleased. 9.
Saadhik = search for ways (to connect with God). Bhulay = with noble qualities. Jin Jaasi = will be the winner (approved by Waheguru). Drirraayaynda = reinforces. 10.
Pullaiy = in possession. Saachay = like Waheguru. Sachiyaara = dealer in Waheguru's Naam. Tirbhuvun(i) = in the universe. Kulaa Dhur = with His power. Thaapi = created. 11.
Sojhi = enlightenment. Veechhur(i) = disconnected. 12.
MEANING: Waheguru is eternal, firm, and limitless. He can demolish things instantaneously and rebuild them. He has no physical form or features, and His worth cannot be measured. He can be pleased only when one's mind is pierced with the Guru's Shabad (he enshrines the Shabad in his mind). 9.
The devotees, who search for ways to get connected with Waheguru and ponder on His virtues, are noble (are approved by Waheguru). I am a slave of such dear slaves of Waheguru. Those who obey Waheguru's Naam (His Will) win the battle of life, but it is Waheguru Himself who reinforces His Naam in the minds of His devotees. 10.
Those who deal in Waheguru's Naam acquire the Naam in their mind and become like Him. Waheguru likes those who recite the Guru's Shabad, which is dear to Him. The devotees realize that Waheguru has created and supports the universe with His power; they are pleased (feel blissful) with His Naam. 11.
Everybody says that Waheguru is very large (and great), but nobody gets the real understanding without the Guru. Those who connect with Waheguru through the Guru's Shabad are liked by Him; they never suffer separation from Him again. 12.

Word Meaning: Dhoorhoun = from the source (Waheguru). Vichhoonnay = disconnected. Dhaahi Roonnay = wail loudly. Moohlut(i) = span of life. Poonnay = is over. Bukhshay = bestows; forgives. Puchhotaayanda = repents. 13. Bhoogta = who receives and enjoys.

Tripta = contented. Mookta = free from all bonds. Mooktisur(u) = the Lord of emancipation. Mumta = attachments. Moh = love. Chookaayaynda = eradicates; ends. 14.
Daana Kaiy Sir(i) Daan(u) = the supreme donation (gift). Veechaara = thinking; wisdom. Kern Kaarun = the creator. Sumruth(u) = fully capable. Apaara = with no ends. Kerni Kaar = deeds worth performing. 15.
Say = those. Smaaveh(i) = are absorbed. Baynunti = humble suggestion. 16.
MEANING: Those who are disconnected from the Source (Waheguru) wail with loud screams. They die when they reach the end of their life span and are born again. But those who are forgiven by Waheguru get honoured by Him, and He never repents to connect them with Him (because they stay connected with Him). 13.
Waheguru, Himself creates things, and (being present in the living beings), Himself enjoys them. He, Himself, is content, and Himself detached. He is the Lord of emancipation, and gives the donation (gift) of emancipation to people when He severs their bonds of love for their families, and for other worldly attachments. 14.
The limitless Waheguru is the creator of the universe and is capable of doing anything. He grants pure and noble thinking to His devotees, which is the best donation of all. He watches His creations and makes people do deeds that are worth performing. 15.
Only those devotees sing Waheguru's praise whom He likes. You created them, and they get absorbed in You, oh Waheguru. I have only one humble suggestion to make: that one enjoys bliss only by connecting with Waheguru, oh Nanak. 16.2.14.

Word Meaning: Erbud Nerbud = for extremely long (infinite) time. Dhoondhookaara = darkness. Dhern = earth. Gugna = sky. Soonn(i) = a mental state where no thought originates; Waheguru. Smaadh(i) = in meditation. 1. Khaani = sources of reproduction (living beings). Bani = languages; ways of communication. Ooput(i) = creation. Khuput(i) = destruction. Aavun Jaani = coming and going; births and deaths. Khund = parts of universe. Putaal = Puyyala = underworlds. Suput Saagur = seven oceans. Neer(u) = water. Vuhaayaynda = flowing. 2. Tud(i) = then. Soorg(u) = heaven; sky. Muchh(u) = the earth. Dojuk(u) = Nerk = hell. Bhisht(u) = Soorg = paradise. Khaiy = destroying. Kaala = death. 3. Naar(i) = female. Purakh(u) = male. Jaat(i) = caste.4.

MEANING: (Before the creation of the universe) there was complete darkness for an infinite period of time, and there was no earth, no sky, nor the Laws of the infinite Waheguru. There was no day, night, moon, or sun at that time while Waheguru was in deep meditation. 1.
There was no source of reproduction of life, nor ways of communication. There was no air, water, creation or destruction, or births and deaths. There was no part of the universe, underworld, the seven seas, or rivers with water flowing in them. 2.
There was no sky, no earth, no underworld, hell, heaven, or the destroying death. There was no hell, no paradise, no births and no deaths (coming and going). 3.
There was no Brahma, Vishnu, or Shiva. There was nobody else to see other than the only Supreme Being. There was no caste, and no birth, so there was no one who was in suffering or enjoying life. 4.

Word Meaning: Jutee = celibate. Sutee = high morality. Bunvaasi = forest dweller; sanyasi. Saadhik = a yogi in training. Sookh-Vaasi = living in comfort = family man. Jungum = a sect of yogis. Bhaykh(u) = faith. Nath = guru of the yogis. 5. Jup = recitation of mantras. Tup = self-torturing. Sunjum = control on senses. Bert = fasting or other rituals. Pooja = idol worship. Aakh(i) Vukhaanaiy = utter to describe. Vigsaiy = blooms. 6.
Sooch(i) = external cleanliness. Toolsi = basil. Maala = rosary. Gopi = the cowgirls that grazed cattle with Kahn (Krishna). Guoou Goalaa = cowboys. Tunt(u) = incantation. Munt = mantras. Paakhund = hypocrisy. Vuns(u) = flute. 7.
Kerm Dherm = religious rituals. Maakhi = honeybee (honeycomb), sweet. Mumta = worldly attractions. Kaal(u) = death. Maathaiy = forehead (over the head). 8.

MEANING: There was no celibate man with high morality, or a forest-dweller (sanyasi) at that time. There was no Sidh, yogi, or family man. There was no Yogism, Jungums, or any other faith, and there was no one who could call himself the guru of the yogis. 5.
There was no recitation of any mantras, self-torture, efforts to control senses, fasting or idol-worship, and there was none to describe any other power than the Supreme Being. Waheguru Himself creates the universe and feels overjoyed to watch His creation; only He knows His own worth (splendour). 6.

At that time, there was no ritualistic cleanliness, no effort to control senses, no worship of basil, and no rosary. There was no Krishna, no cowgirls, or cowboys at that time. There was no incantation, recitation of mantras, any hypocrisy, or anyone to play flute (Krishna). 7.
There was no religious ritual, sweet (captivating) Maya, any caste system, or births to see. There was no net of worldly attachments, or the fear of the looming death, and there was no one to worship any deity. 8.

Word Meaning: Nind(u) = vilification. Bind(u) = undeserving praise. Jeeou = soul. Jindo = life. Gorukh, Maachhindo = popular gurus of yogis. Giyan(u) = religious discussions. Dhiyaan(u) = meditation. Kool Oaput(i) = start of clans. Gunut Gunaayaynda = self-praise; bragging. 9. Vern = caste-system. Dayou = god. Dayhoora = temple. Gayatri = the basic mantra of the Hindus. Hoam = huvun. Jugg = yugga (sacrificial ceremony at which huvuns are performed, animals are sacrificed, and meals served to sages and Brahmans. 10. Moolah = a Muslim preacher. Qaaji = Qadi (a Muslim religious leader and judge). Sheikh = a highly leaned Muslim. Musaayik = many Sheikhs. Ruyyiut(i) = subjects. Raaou = rajah. Haumein = selfishness and ego. Vunjaara = trader. 12.
MEANING: There was no soul and no life at that time, so there was no vilification or undeserving praise of others. There was no guru of the yogis like Gorakh(u) Nath, or Muchhindar Nath. There was no discussion on religious issues or any meditation. There was no start of any clans, and no one to brag about himself. 9.
There was no caste system, and therefore, no Brahman, no Khatri, and no symbols of any faith at that time. There was no god, no temple, no cow (to worship), and no Gayatri mantra to recite. There was no huvun or yugna to perform, no dips at holy places to take, and no idol-worshipping at that time. 10.
There was no Muslim preacher, no Qadi at the time, and no highly literary Muslim or a Hajji. There was no rajah, and no subjects, and no world of ego, and no one to call him great. 11.
There was no love for Waheguru, and no worshipping of Maya. There was no friendship and no union of males and females. Waheguru Himself was the owner of treasures, and Himself the trader; this is what He liked. 12.

Bhaana = with the Will. Baajh(u) = without. Kulaa = power; visible support. Aadaan(u) = universe. Ruhaaya = puts in place. 14. Virla = rare. Subaaya = all. Brahmund = universe. Aarumbhay = started. Gooptoun = from hiding. Pergutiaayaynda = appear. 15. Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. Bismaadi = lost in amazement. 16.

MEANING: There were no religious books of Hindus, Muslims or Christians, and there was no sunrise or sunset. The incomprehensible and the invisible Waheguru Himself was the speaker, and the narrator of His virtues to reveal Himself. 13.

He created the universe at His own Will, and put everything in place without any visible support. He created Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva, and generated increasing love for Maya. 14. He narrates Guru's Shabad to a rare few so as to reveal that He creates and looks after the whole world with His Huqam. He began creating the parts of the universe (galaxies) and the underworlds, which began to appear from their hiding places (out of nowhere). 15. Nobody can find Waheguru's limits; only the Perfect Guru enlightens the minds of the people about the majesty of Waheguru. Those who are imbued with the love of Waheguru are amazed at His majesty; lost in amazement, they sing His virtues, oh Nanak. 16.3.15.

Alukh Apaaraiy = of the incomprehensible and the limitless (God). Saayir Suput = the seven pool-like parts (five senses, mind, and wisdom). Jul(i) Nirmul(i) = pure water (of Waheguru's Naam). 2. Ruv(i) = sun. Sus(i) = moon. Deepuk = lamps. Jot(i) = light. Subaayi = everywhere. Vudiyaayi = grandeur. Sachay = Waheguru (His Naam) Sobha = praise. 3. Gurrh = fort of body. Haat = shops. Puttun = cities. Vunjaara = trader (God). Ruttan = Naam. Visaahaiy = buys. 4.
Vaypervaahay = carefree (God). Pooraiy = full. Bhundaaraiy = treasures. Kulaa = powers. Kisaiy = some rare. Boojhaayaynda = gives wisdom (enlightens). 5.
Bhaytaiy = connects with. Jundaar = evil. Phaytay = whips. Bigaasi = blooms. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru has created the universe Himself, but stays detached from it. By combining air, water, fire (energy), etc., Waheguru has created the human body, which is the permanent place for Him to reside. 1.
The incomprehensible and the limitless Creator has created nine visible doors in the human body, but He resides in the Tenth Door (in the brain). The devotee, who takes Guru's shelter (follows His Advice), gets all his five senses, his mind, and his wisdom full with the pure water of Waheguru's Naam because of which, he never acquires the filth of immorality. 2.
The sun and the moon, which are the lamps to light up the whole world, owe their light to Waheguru, who watches (enjoys) His own grandeur (wonders). The light-like Waheguru is always the source of comforts, and the devotee who recites His Naam is praised (honoured) by Him. 3. The human body is like a city with shops to deal in Waheguru's virtues and His Naam, and where the trader Waheguru charges full price for His Naam in terms of devotee's dedication and his acquirement of noble qualities. This price is never lowered. Being present in everybody, Waheguru Himself buys the invaluable noble qualities and decides their worth (what degree of spirituality to inject in the devotee-trader, and how much more work the devotee needs to put in to be fully approved for union with Him). 4.
Waheguru is carefree, but His treasures are always full. He decides the worth of His Naam. He gives some rare individuals the understanding (enlightens) that He is supporting the whole world with His powers and is present everywhere. 5.
Waheguru connects the individual, on whom He casts His kind sight, with the Guru because of which the evil Angel of death cannot whip him (punish him in any way). Just as a lotus flower blooms in water, Waheguru feels very happy to recite His own Naam while sitting in the mind of his devotee (He exhorts His devotee to recite His Naam). 6.

Word Meaning: Verkhaiy = showers. Ruttan, Juvayhur, Laal = jewels and rubies (noble qualities). Praym Pudaaruth(u) = love for Waheguru. 7. Luhhaiy = acquires. Amolo = priceless. Kubhee Na = never. Ghaatus(i) = lessens. Tolo = weight. Sacho Sauda = eternal merchandize; Waheguru's Naam. 8. Virla = some rare. Puchhaanaiy = recognizes. Smaayaynda = gets absorbed. 9.
Soorg(u) = paradise; sky. Muchh(u) = the earth. Puyyaala = underworlds. Kulaa = power.10. Dhaul = the ox that is believed to support the earth. Gaiynaarun(g) = sky. Shiv Shuktee = Maya. Khayl = drama; amazing things. 11.

MEANING: The limitless Waheguru showers the stream of His Naam-Amrit, which is invaluable like jewels and rubies. But one can realize the dear, beloved, and the Perfect Waheguru through the Guru. 7.
Once a devotee acquires the invaluable Naam of the beloved Waheguru, its worth never decreases, and his Love for Waheguru's Naam for which he paid the full price (by acquiring the required noble qualities) never lessens. The dealer in Waheguru's Naam acquires the eternal merchandise of His Naam (he merges into Him). 8.
But a rare person acquires the eternal Naam of Waheguru in the shelter of the Perfect Guru who connects him with Waheguru. Guru's Sikh recognizes Waheguru's Huqam, and merges with Him by accepting His Huqam. 9. The man comes to this world with Waheguru's Huqam, and merges with Him with His Huqam, and the whole world that we see comes into being with His Huqam. The universe with the earth, the sky, and the underworld, was created with Waheguru's Huqam, and is supported with the power of His Huqam. 10.
The earth and the mythical ox, which is believed to support the earth, were created with His Huqam. The air, the water, and the sky came into being with His Huqam, and it is with Waheguru's Huqam that the man finds his home in Maya (he lives for Maya). The whole drama of the world is being played with His Huqam. 11.

Nanak sehj(i) milaiy Jugjeevun(u), Gur Shabadee put(i) paayaynda. 16.4.16.

Word Meaning: Aadaanay = Aagaasi = sky. Vaasi = resident (Waheguru). Giraas = bite (of food). Phoonn(i) = then. 12. Dus Autaara = the ten incarnations of Vishnu. Dayv = gods. Daanuv = demons. Paiyjhaiy = is given the robe of honour. 13.
Joog Chhutteeh = 36 eons (the infinite time that Waheguru spent without the creation of the universe). Veechaaray = thinkers. Nath = Lord. Nuthee = stitched to; under control. Bukhshay = bestows; with benevolence. 14. Nayb = Khuvaas = courtiers. Bhulaa Durvaaja = the spiritually noble tenth door. Mithiya = falsehood. Lobh(u) = greed. Ghur(i) = in itself. Lub(u) = gluttony. Paap(i) = in sins. Puchhutaayaynda = repents. 15.
Sat(u) = high morality. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Nugur = city (body). Kaari = prevail. Jut(u) = celibacy. Sunjum = control of senses. Morraari = Waheguru = Jugjeevun. Sehj(i) = in a blissful state of mind. Put(i) = dignity. 16.

MEANING: The skies came into being with Waheguru's Huqam, and so did the water, the land, and the whole universe in which He resides. The living beings breathe, and have bites of food with His Huqam. He looks after the world with His Huqam and also reveals Himself through it. 12. The ten incarnations of god Vishnu, countless other gods, and the demons, were created with Waheguru's Huqam (Laws). Those who obey Waheguru's Huqam are honoured in His Court and are connected with Him (they merge into Him). 13.
It was with His own Huqam (Wish) that Waheguru spent 36 eons without creating the universe, and He creates accomplished yogis, yogis, and other wise people with His Huqam. He is the Lord, and everyone else is under His control. He emancipates some with His benevolence. 14. In his fort-like body, man's mind is the raja with his senses as his courtiers. The tenth door is noble through which the mind can connect with Waheguru, and stay in itself (quits wandering). But because of his falsehood, his greed, and the man's gluttony, his mind keeps taking flights (does not become peaceful), and he keeps committing sins for which he has to repent. 15.
Noble qualities like high morality, contentment, control over lust, service to others, and control over senses begin to prevail in the body-city of those who take Waheguru's shelter. One attains a high spiritual state with the Guru's Shabad and becomes connected with Waheguru, the source of life of the world, and is honoured by Him, oh Nanak. 16.4.16.

Word Meaning: Soonn(u) = absence of the universe; time when there was no universe yet, and Waheguru was in meditative state; Waheguru alone. Kulaa = power; state. Uprumpur(i) = omnipotent (who does not need any external help). limitless Waheguru. Dhaari = acquired. Niraalum = fully detached. Appur Apaari = with no ends. 1. Saajay = created. Kaaya Gurrh = fort-like body. Rajay = mind as the raja. Soonnay = in Himself. 2. Vertay = operates. Pud = spiritual state. Chookaayaynda = ends; is cleared. 3. Suput Surovar = the seven sources to run the human body (five senses, mind, and awareness). Sut Sur = the pool of holy gathering. Gurmukh(i) = in Guru's shelter. 4. Gaiynaaray = skies. Alukh = invisible, incomprehensible. Taarri = deep meditation. 5.

MEANING: Before He created the universe, the omnipotent Waheguru was in a state of deep meditation, and was fully detached from the world (above the effects of Maya). He created everything purely from Himself and now looks after His creation. 1.

He created air and water from Himself, and He created the universe; He created the fort-like human bodies in which the mind rules the body. Waheguru's Light (Soul) is present in fire, in water, and in all life, and He keeps everything in its position by His power. 2.

Waheguru created Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva from Himself, and His power operates in every eon. A devotee, who ponders on this unique state of Waheguru (internalizes it), becomes perfect, and all the illusions and doubts of the individual, who seeks the advice of such a holy devotee, get cleared. 3. Waheguru created the seven sources to run the human body (five senses, the mind, and awareness) from Himself, and keeps all His created living beings in mind (looks after them). The man who takes Guru's shelter and takes dips in the holy pool of His devotees never takes any life form again. 4.

Waheguru created the moon, the sun, and the sky from Himself, and His Light is present in the whole universe. The invisible and the omnipotent Waheguru stays detached from the world, and goes into deep meditation. 5.

Word Meaning: Thumma = pillars (visible support). Raakhay = keeps in place. Kul = power. Maykhuli = string; chain. Khupaayaynda = destroys. 6. Khaani = sources of reproduction. Baani = ways to communicate. Oopji = came into being. Ootbhooj = all living beings. Chult(u) = amazing drama. Sir(i) = the initial. Shabad(i) = with His Huqam. 7.
Oput(i) = creation. Khuput(i) = destruction. Ateeta = unaffected by Maya. Amar(u) Nij Ghur(u) = the eternal residence (union with Waheguru). 8.
Shaam, Rig, Joojur(u), and Athurbun = the four Vedas. Mookh(i) = from the mouth. 9.
Suput Pataal = seven underworlds. Bhuvun = the universe with three layers. Rukhay = protects. Liv Laayay = with great care. Kaarun Keeya = created. Kumaayaynda = lives accordingly. 10. Ruj, Tum, Sut = the three effects of Maya. Kul = power. Chhaaya = reflection. Goon(i) Chauthaiy = the fourth state (above the three effects of Maya). Mookut(i) = free from the bonds of Maya. 11.
MEANING: Waheguru created the earth and the sky from Himself, and the eternal Waheguru has placed everything in position with His power without any visible support. Having created the universe, Waheguru has bonded it with Maya; He creates the universe, and destroys it at His own accord. 6.
Waheguru created the sources of reproduction, and the different ways of communication from Himself, and everything created by Him gets absorbed in Him (is destroyed). The creation of life is a mesmerizing feat of Waheguru, which He brought into being with His Huqam. 7.
Waheguru created days and nights both, from Him, and made production, destruction, comforts, and suffering as parts of life. But a devotee, who takes the Guru's shelter, stays detached from worldly attractions and finds his eternal home (union with Waheguru). 8.
The four Vedas, which are believed to be uttered by Brahma and which discuss only the three effects of Maya, are also created by Waheguru's Huqam. Nobody can tell the worth of Waheguru's Huqam; everybody describes His worth to the extent restricted by Waheguru. 9. Waheguru created the 7 underworlds (and the seven heavens – a Muslim faith) from Himself, and looks after them with great care. The omnipotent Waheguru created the world Himself, and everyone performs according to his preordained fate. 10.
All three effects of Maya are Waheguru's reflection (created by Him). He has created birth, death, comforts, and discomforts for the living beings. He puts those whom He is kind to in Guru's shelter, where they attain the spiritual state above the three effects of Maya, and are emancipated. 11.

Word Meaning: Soonnhoun = from Waheguru Himself. Dus Avtaara = the ten incarnations of Vishnu. Srishut(i) = the world. Pasaara = expansion. Dayv = gods. Daanuv = demons. Gun, Gundherb = assistants of gods. Kerm Kmaayaynda = perform deeds; follow the path.

12. Roag(u) = mental confusion. Paurri = ladder; path to union with Waheguru. Koyee = some rare individual. Mookut(i) Puraayin = support for emancipation. 13. Pergaasa = appeared; came into being. Sunjogi = with the union of the five elements. Kerm Abhiyaasa = perform deeds. Boora = bad. Bhulaa = noble. Beejaayaynda = sows the seeds. 14. Ootum = superior. Niraalay = detached. Mutvaalay = intoxicated. Ridh(i) = supernatural powers 15.
Nayhou = love; attachment. Ghunayra = immense. Giyani = enlightened person. Nibayra = decision. Sehsa = worries; doubts. Nur(u) = man. Lobhi = greedy. 16.
Soonn(u) = beyond he effects of Maya. Baara = doors. Nirmul(u) = pure. Dhoon(i) = focus of mind. 17.

MEANING: Waheguru created the world and expanded the universe. He created the ten incarnations of Vishnu and the other gods, demons, devotees of Shiva, and the musicians of the gods. But all of them perform the kinds of deeds prewritten in their fate by Waheguru. 12. The devotee, who gets the understanding in the shelter of the Guru (is enlightened by Him), does not suffer any mental trouble. Some rare devotees realize that the Guru's Teachings are the stairs leading to the union with Waheguru. Guru's Teachings have been the support for emancipation over the eons, and the individual who follows them is emancipated and is honoured in Waheguru's Court. 13.
Waheguru created the five basic ingredients to form the human body, united for the man to do his tasks. Man's ignoble and noble deeds are recorded on his forehead, which serve as the seeds for his future sins and noble deeds. 14.
Satguru is the superior human being who stays detached from the world. Those who get imbued in Satguru's Shabad are always intoxicated in Waheguru's sweet Naam. One acquires supernatural powers, wisdom, and Divine Knowledge from the Guru, but it is only with great fortune that one gets connected with Satguru. 15.
The human mind is greatly attached to Maya. But some rare enlightened person understands this and draws this conclusion. On the other hand, a greedy person, who has high hopes and great desires, suffers from ego and worries and deals in falsehood. 16.
One acquires noble thinking from Satguru, and by meditating on Waheguru (His Naam), he stays connected with the eternal Lord. With focus on Guru's Shabad, his mind becomes pure, and he stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 17.5.17.

Word Meaning: Deen-Duyyala = kind to the weak (Waheguru). Joogut(i) = the way to live. Niraalum(u) = detached. Raaya = the Emperor (God). 1. Chhaaya = reflection. Maya = mother. Bhuraou = brother. Kmaaya = assistant. Oput(i) = creation (birth). Khuput(i) = destruction; death. Kool = clan. Ujraavur = God of gods. Mun(i) Bhaaya = favourite. 2. Purakh(u) = living Supreme Power. Kaala = time; death. Alaykh = indescribable. Agumm = inaccessible. Niraala = detached. Sut = service to mankind. Suntokh(i) = in contentment. Ut(i) Seetul(u) = perfectly calm (peaceful). Sehj = high spiritual state. Bhaayay =with love. Liv Laaya = meditates. 3.
Traiy = the three effects of Maya. Vertaayay = operate. Chauthaiy Ghur(i) = in the fourth state (above the three effects of Maya). Kaal = death. Bikaal = birth. Ikk Graasa = in one bite (under full control). JugJeevun(u) = Waheguru. Unhud = Divine. Dikhaaya = showed.4. Ootum = superior. Bhulay = noble; good for the people. Maatay = intoxicated in. 5.

MEANING: I see Waheguru, which is very kind to the weak, in every direction. The compassionate Waheguru does not come or go (does not take birth, or dies). He has infused the means (taught them) to live life into living beings, yet the Emperor, Waheguru, is fully detached from the world. 1.
The world is a reflection (a manifestation) of the Waheguru, which has no father and no mother. He has neither a sister, a brother, nor an assistant. He is neither created nor can be destroyed, and has no clan or caste. The Supreme God of gods is my favourite. 2.
The Supreme Being is unaffected by time, and no death looms on His head. The Supreme Waheguru is indescribable, inaccessible, and fully detached. The devotee, who, with Guru's Shabad, meditates on Him with love and in a high spiritual state, lives in contentment, serves humanity, and stays extremely calm (in a blissful state). 3.
Waheguru has placed the world under the three effects of Maya, but He lives in the fourth state (above those effects). He has full control over life and death as if He has consumed (controlled) them in a single bite. With His Divine Shabad, the Guru shows (reveals) the pure Light of Waheguru, which is the Soul of the whole world. 4.
Waheguru's saints are superior (exalted), are dear to Him, and always work for the goodness of the masses. Intoxicated in the love of Waheguru, they salvage the people. I have acquired Word Meaning: Untarjaami = know-all; omniscient. Daata = provider; Lord. Sayvuk = servants. Giyan Ruttan = the jewel-like Divine Knowledge. Deepaaya = enlightened. 6. Aatum Ram = Waheguru. Theeya = happened; achieved. Kerm Kurtoot(i) = noble deeds. Amrit = Waheguru's Naam. 7. Piyaas = thirst. Ghut(i) = in the heart. Kayvul = only. Bairyraagi = Waheguru-loving. Bhaayay Sobhaaya = in the spirit of love. 8.

Adhiyaatum Kerm = deeds that connect with God. Niruntar(u) = continuous. Jaati = recognized. Rusaal(u) = source of all sweetness. Rusn Rus(i)) = the supreme sweet taste. Rusna = tongue. Bayn(u) = flite. Vujaaya = feels the music. 9.
Tirbhuvun = (present in the) three-layered universe. Bidh(i) = means; approach. 10.
MEANING: All the living beings are Yours (You created them), and You are omniscient, oh, Waheguru. You are the Lord, and we are Your servants. Kindly grant me Your Amrit-like Naam through the Guru, which enlightens the mind with the jewel-like (precious and pure) Divine Knowledge. 6. One enjoys bliss when they connect with Waheguru, who created the human body by combining the five basic ingredients. When one performs noble deeds (as advised by the Guru), he is rewarded with the jewel-like Waheguru's Naam, which he enshrines in his mind. 7. Imbued in the sweetness of only Waheguru's Naam, such a Waheguru-loving devotee sees Waheguru, which never experiences appetite or thirst, and which is above the effects of Maya, in every heart, and his mind is fully convinced with Waheguru when he recites His Naam with love and devotion with Guru's Advice. 8.
Such a devotee performs Waheguru-related deeds day and night, and sees His Pure Light everywhere. He enjoys the supreme sweetness of Guru's Shabad, which is the source of all sweetness, and feels as if a sweet music of the flute is playing in his mind. 9.
Only that devotee feels the sweetness of such flute music in his mind who acquires knowledge about (gets connected with) Waheguru, which is present in the whole universe. The approach to meditate on Waheguru's Naam can be learnt only with the Guru's Advice (His guidance), oh Nanak. 10.

Word Meaning: Aiysay = such. Virlay = a few. Niraaray = detached. Tureh(i) = is salvaged. Suful = successful. 11.
Dur(u) = door. Mundar(u) = palace. Jaanaiy = gets access. Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. Mehal Mehlee = the Lord of the body-palace. Tukhut = throne. 12.
Chutur-Dus = the fourteen skies (seven above, and seven below the earth (a Muslim thought). Haat = shops. Deevay Dooyay = the two lamps – the moon and the sun. Saakhi = witness. Sayvuk = slaves. Punch = the five (demons). Bikh(u) = poison (of sensual pleasures). Vust(u) = the real thing (Waheguru). Anoop = of unparalleled beauty. Nirmoluk = invaluable. 13. Laayik = deserving; capable. Paayik = servant. Aad(i) = from the beginning. Joogaai = before the eons. Hosi = will be there Sehsa = worries. Bherm = doubts; illusions. Chookaaya = end. 14.
Slaam(u) = bowing to; show respect. Vudaayi = praise; respect Jaati = recognize; make connection with. Tur(u) Taari = to swim across. Sukhaayi = friend; supporter. 15.
MEANING: There are only a few such devotees who ponder on the Guru's Shabad (internalize it) and stay detached from the world. Their coming into the world (taking birth) is successful (is welcome in the world) when they are salvaged themselves and get all their associates salvaged as well. 11. Only that devotee gets access to Waheguru's residence, His door, and His mansion (merges into Him), who gets enlightenment from the Perfect Guru. Waheguru has established His Palace in a fort-like human body where the Eternal Lord sits on His throne in the heart of the devotee. 12.
Even though the invaluable Waheguru with unparalleled beauty resides in every heart, a devotee acquires the wealth of His Naam only in the Guru's shelter. All five demons (lust, greed, etc.) become slaves of such a devotee, and the whole universe, including the moon and the sun, becomes his witness that he never pursues the poisonous sexual pleasures. 13. With Waheguru, which has been here from the beginning and from before the yugas (eons), is here now, and will be here even in future in his mind, such a devotee gets all his worries, and his illusions eradicated. With Guru's Advice, he becomes perfectly fit (capable) to rule his mind, and occupies the throne of his mind. The five demons become his slaves and are absorbed in his mind (come under his control). 14.
Such a devotee-rajah who gets connected with Waheguru with Guru's Advice, and meditates on His Naam, is accorded respect day and night, which becomes his permanent possession. One should recite Waheguru's Naam to swim across the world sea when Waheguru becomes his friend at the end, oh Nanak. 15.1.18.

Word Meaning: Sunchou = accumulate; earn. Tuskur = robber (lust, greed etc.). Laagaiy = attack; rob. Dhoon(i) = musical note. Oopjaiy = comes into being. Jugaaya = enlightens (mind). 1. Ekunkaar(u) = Waheguru. Niraalum(u) = without support; sovereign. Suvaareh(i) = make successful. Kaaja = tasks. Adoal(u) = firm; unchangeable. Amoluk(u) = priceless. Usthir Thaan)i) = in eternal residence. Soohaaya = looks majestic. 2. Ootum Thaana = holy place. Punch Loak = Perdhaana = holy saints. Oopur(i) = above everybody. 3. Nuoun Dervaajaay = nine doors (openings). Sir(i), Sir(i) = for everybody. Kernaiyhaaraiy = the Creator. Saajay = created. Ateet(u) = Niraala = detached; unconnected. Lukhaayaynda = shows; reveals. 4. Deevaana = Court. Neeshaana = identification. Khoj(u) Luhhou = search for. Ghur(u) Apna = own heart. 5.

MEANING: Serve Satguru, and accumulate (earn) the wealth of Waheguru's Naam in His shelter, oh my brothers. No robber (lust, etc.) can rob you of your noble qualities when the Divine music of the Guru's Shabad enlightens your mind. 1.

The immortal, firm, limitless, and priceless Waheguru is perfectly Sovereign (does not require any support of any kind) in the universe, and looks majestic in His eternal Palace (everywhere). He ensures that His devotees' tasks are completed successfully. 2. The body of the holy saints, who are connected with Waheguru (which is supreme and above everybody) in their meditative state above the effects of Maya, becomes a holy place. 3.

The Creator Waheguru has created the human body with nine visible doors, but the incomprehensible Waheguru, detached from the world, resides in the tenth door (in the brain), through which He reveals Himself. 4.

The Court of the indescribable Waheguru is also eternal, from where He runs the universe with His eternal Huqam, which is also His identification (Waheguru and His Huqam are the same). Waheguru's Naam is present in everybody's mind; one needs to search for Him in his own heart by reciting His Naam, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Serb = everywhere. Soojaana = wise; know-all. Udl(u) = justice. Smaana = get absorbed. Gurdun Maaray = severs neck; destroys completely. Chookaaya = ends. 6. Saachaiy Thaan(i) = eternal place. Aap(i) Puchhaanaiy = analyzes self. Aavun Jaam(u) = birth and death. 7. Chullaiy = wander. Paun(u) = wind-lie capricious mind. Oodaayaiy = take flights. Yogi = connected with Waheguru. Vaayay = Plays music. Punch Shabad = the five kinds of musical instruments. Jhoonkaar = sweet and melodious. Niraalum(u) = without any external support. 8.
Baiyraaga = stung with love. Tiyaagi = abandoned; got rid of. Unjun(u) = kohl (of enlightenment). Saar(i) = by putting in; wearing. 9. Dookh-Bhaiy-Bhunjun = the destroyer of all suffering and fears (Waheguru). Abinaashi = immortal. Phaasi = noose; lasso. 10.

MEANING: Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, and knows everything about His creation, is present everywhere. He delivers perfect justice so that whoever gets enlightened by the Guru gets absorbed in Him (merges with Him). Such a devotee is able to destroy his lust and rage completely, and his ego and his greed also disappear. 6.
The dwelling of the formless Waheguru is eternal (in human hearts). The individual, who recognizes self (that he is a part of Waheguru) by pondering on the Guru's Shabad, becomes a permanent resident of Waheguru's dwelling (by merging with Him), and his cycle of rebirths is terminated. 7. Connected with Waheguru, such a devotee's mind (which is highly capricious otherwise) does not wander or take flights for Maya. Guru's Divine Shabad plays Divine music in his mind. He feels as if all five kinds of auto-playing musical instruments are playing melodiously in his mind at the command of Waheguru. 8.
A devotee, who is stung with Waheguru's love and His fear, overcomes his haumein, and, imbued in Waheguru's love, he attains a high spiritual state. The Guru puts the kohl of enlightenment in the devotee's mind as a result of which, he gets connected with the Emperor Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, and "sees" Him everywhere. 9. Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all fears and suffering, is immortal. He eradicates all ailments and severs the noose of the Angel of death. Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all fears, is realized in the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 10.

Word Meaning: Kaalaiy Kuvul(u) = chews death in one bite; has no fear of death. Kerm(u) = with benevolence. Jaanaiy = makes connection with. Choaj(u) = wondrous feat. 11. Shah(u) = Lord. Vunjaara = trader. Perkhaiy = tests; evaluates. Perkhunhaara = evaluator. Kus(i) = by grazing. Kusvutti = touch stone. Keemut(i) = worth. 12.

Duyya = benevolence. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Bunvaari = a name for Krishna (Waheguru). Ateet(u) = detached. Nihkayvul = pious. Purakhaiy = Waheguru-like. 13.
Daana = donor (provider); know-all. Beena = wise; know-all. Gerb(u) = ego. Guvaayay = removes; eradicates. Dooja = the other (Maya). Maytaiy = eradicates. Niraalum(u) = detached. Joani = which takes births (man). Akool = having no clan. 14.
Giyani = enlightened. Laaha = benefit. Sach(u) = eternal. 15.
MEANING: A devotee, who gets connected with Waheguru, understands that it is because of Waheguru's benevolence that he got connected with Him. Such a devotee has no fear of death and connects with the Guru's Shabad (internalizes it). He is convinced that Waheguru knows and recognizes the feelings of His living beings, and that the wondrous drama of the world is His creation. 11. Waheguru Himself is the Lord, and Himself the trader. The evaluator Waheguru evaluates the deeds of everybody. (Like a goldsmith tests the purity of a gold sample by grazing it on the touchstone) Waheguru tests the purity of His humans and determines their worth (level of purity). 12.
Waheguru is present in every heart, but He connects His devotees with Him with His benevolence through the Guru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru. 13.
Waheguru, who is wise and knows everything about His men, rids His devotees of their ego and reveals Himself to them when their love for Maya is eradicated. Such a man (devotee) sings praise of Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, and has no clan. With Waheguru's praise in mind, he stays detached from the world in which everybody spends their life on hopes and wishes. 14.
That devotee is truly enlightened who ponders on (analyzes) the self, and gets rid of his selfishness and ego by the Guru's Shabad, and lives in comfort (blissfulness). When a devotee sings Waheguru's praise in the gathering of holy saints, he acquires the benefit (wealth) of eternal bliss, oh Nanak. 15.2.19.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = Waheguru (Naam). Jeevut Murhou= kill worldly desires while living in family. Bohith = ship. Bayrri = boat. Toolha = (crude) raft. 1. Binaasun(u) = disappear. Mooktay = freedom from. Aasun(u) = seat; stay. Oopur(i) = high (in the tenth door). Uprumpur(u) = omnipotent (who does not need external help). 2.
Liv = deep meditation. Turiyaiy = swim across. Akool = without any clan (Waheguru). Jut Jut = wherever. Tut, Tut = there. Dootiya = second; other. 3.
Sherna = shelter; support. Akuth(u) = indescribable (God). Kuthaiy = describes (sings praise). Phoon(i) = again. Gerbh(i) = in womb. Jaaya = is born. 4.
Sut(u) = serving humanity. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Aavaiy, Jaavaiy = is born, and dies. Mool Muntar(u) = the basis of all mantras. Rusaayin = source of all sweet tastes (enjoyments). Poora = Perfect. 5.

MEANING: One needs to recite Waheguru's Naam to live with Him (to connect with Him); and one needs to kill their worldly desires while living in the family to swim across the world sea. Guru is the ship, the boat, and the raft to ferry across the world-sea; so, one should worship Waheguru (Guru), oh my mind. 1.
The devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, gets rid of his haumein, worldly attachments, and greed, and becomes free from the lusts of his nine (body) doors. He stays connected with Waheguru, who appears in his tenth door, and who is omnipotent, is further and further (endless), and who has created the universe all by Himself. 2.
One needs to take the Guru's Advice to meditate on Waheguru so as to swim across the world-sea. Why would a devotee, who sings praise of Waheguru, which has no clan, have any fear of the Angel of death? I see Waheguru wherever I look, and I do not sing praise of anybody else. 3. Waheguru's Naam is eternal, and so is His shelter. Guru's Shabad is also eternal, by the recitation of which one swims across the world-sea (finds salvation). A devotee, who sings praise of the indescribable Waheguru, "sees" (gets connected with) the limitless Waheguru, and is never born in any life form again. 4.
One cannot acquire virtues like serving humanity and contentment without Waheguru's Naam. He cannot get emancipated without the Guru, and keeps taking rebirths (and dying). Waheguru's Naam is the basis of all mantras, and is the source of all sweet tastes (enjoyments); one gets connected with the Perfect Waheguru by reciting His Naam, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Bhuvjul = the world sea. Smoond(u) = sea. Athaah(u) = unfathomable. Muhaa Bikh(u) = severe poisons (captivating worldly attractions). Ateet(u) = detached. Oopur(i) = above. Nirbhuou = fearless. 6. Hit = love; attachments. Jhootthi = false = short-lived. Chuturaayi = shrewdness. Bilm = delay. Abhimaani = conceited. Oojaiy = comes into being; is born. Binus(i) Khupaaya = suffers in destruction (death). 7. Bundhun Bumdhay = tied in bonds. Phundhay = shackles of Maya. Jum Pur(i) = the city (court) of the Angel of death. 8. Moakh = Mookut(i) = emancipation. Kiyoun = how? Dhiyaayiyaiy = remember; recite. Bhuv = world sea. Dootur(u) = extremely difficult to swim across. 9. Krishan(i) Govardhun Dhaaray = it is believed that Krishna once lifted Govardhun Mountain on his little finger to provide cover for the people during an incessant rain. Saayir = sea. Paahun = rocks (it is believed that Rama built a bridge across the sea between India and Sri Lanka by floating rocks bearing his name to attack Lanka). Perm Pud = the highest spiritual state. 10.

MEANING: One cannot swim across the unfathomable world-sea (to get connected with Waheguru), which is full of extremely poisonous worldly attractions, without Waheguru's Naam. The devotee, who acts on the Guru's Shabad, stays detached from and above the effects of the worldly attractions and lives with (merges into) the fearless Waheguru. 6. One's shrewdness and his love of worldly attractions are short-lived because worldly enjoyments do not take long to disappear, and the man is caught in the cycle of rebirths. The egoists leave the world without Waheguru's Naam and suffer by taking births and dying. 7. Tied in the bonds of worldly attractions, the man is caught in the shackles and chains of Maya around his neck, and keeps taking births and dying. The individual, who does not receive Guru's Advice to recite Waheguru's Naam, is tied up and taken to the court of the Angel of death. 8. One cannot recite Waheguru's Naam or find emancipation without the Guru. One needs to receive (act on) the Guru's Advice to swim across the world sea, which is otherwise extremely difficult; on being emancipated, one becomes blissful. 9. *Krishan Ji is believed to have lifted Mount Govardhan on his little finger to provide cover to the people in an incessant rain; but one thing is certain, that a devotee can lift the mountains of loads of his sins from His mind with Guru's Advice. *Also, Ram Ji is believed to have floated stones on the surface of the sea to build a bridge to link Lanka with India to attack Lanka. But a devotee can swim across the world sea with the Guru's Advice even if he had a stone-like heart before. 10.

NOTE: As explained below, Guru Nanak Sahib is not certifying these two events to be true in this holy Shabad for two reasons. He is only emphasizing the importance of the Guru's Wisdom (Advice).

(1). Guru Nanak Sahib does not support or promote the use of supernatural powers for personal achievement to impress others. He only uses such examples to glorify the greatness of Waheguru and the Guru.

(2). As you will note in the following holy Shabad by Guru Nanak Sahib in Raag Assa, He disapproves of such performances by these two gods. As you know, Ram Ji is believed to have killed Ravan, the king of Lanka, when the latter kidnapped Sita, the wife of Ram Ji. Krishan Ji is believed to have overpowered a huge serpent, Kaali, that lived in the River Yamuna and terrorized the people. Guru Nanak Sahib has commented on these two events in the following Shabad.

- ਆਸਾ ਮਹਲਾ 1 (ਅੰਗ 350)॥ ਪਉਣੁ ਉਪਾਇ ਧਰੀ ਸਭ ਧਰਤੀ ਜਲ ਅਗਨੀ ਕਾ ਬੰਧੁ ਕੀਆ॥ ਅੰਧੁਲੇ ਦਹਸਿਰਿ ਮੂੰਡ ਕਟਾਇਆ ਰਾਵਣੁ ਮਾਰਿ ਕਿਆ ਵਡਾ ਭਇਆ॥ 1॥ ----- ਜੀਅ ਉਪਾਇ ਜੁਗਤਿ ਹਥਿ ਕੀਨੀ ਕਾਲੀ ਨਥ ਕਿਆ ਵਡਾ ਭਇਆ॥ ----- 7॥

Meaning: After creating, air, water, and fire, Waheguru created the earth, and supported it. The blind (foolish) ten-headed Ravan had his head severed because of his misdeed; so, what greatness did Ram Ji achieve by killing him? --------- Waheguru has created the living beings, but controls their lifestyles (how they live and survive); what greatness did Krishan Ji achieve by overpowering the serpent, Kaali?

For these reasons, this slave interpreted the holy Shabad differently.

------- Gurmut(i) layhou, turhou Sach(u) taari. Aatum cheenou, ridaiy Mooraari. Jum kay phaahay kaateh(i) Hur(i) jup(i), Akool Nirunjun(u) paaya. 11. Gurmut(i), punch sukhay Gur bhaayi. Gurmut(i) ugun(i) nivaar(i) smaayi. Mun(i) mukh(i) Naam(u) jup-hou Jugjeevun, rid untar(u) Alukh(u) lukhaaya. 12. Gurmukh(i) boojhaiy,Shabad(i) puteejaiy. Oostut(i), ninda kis kee keejaiy. Cheenhou app(u), jup-hou Jugdeeshur(u), Hur(i) Jugunath mun(i) bhaaya. 13. Jo Brehmund(i), khund(i) so jaanhou, Gurmukh(i) boojhou, Shabad(i) puchhaanou. Ghut(i), ghut(i) bhogaiy Bhogunhaara, ruhhaiy ateet(u) subaaya. 14. Gurmut(i) bolhou Hur(i) jus(u) Soocha. Gurmut(i) aankheen daykhou Oocha. Servuni Naam(u) soonaiy Hur(i) Bani, Nanak Hur(i) rung(i) rungaaya. 15.3.20.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) Taari = swimming to get connected with God. Aatum = soul. Mooraari = Waheguru. Phaahay = noose. 11. Punch = the five noble qualities (service to mankind, contentment, compassion, high morality (religiosity) and patience) (See Assa M:5 page 430: Punch manaayay, punch roosaayay). Sukhay = close friends. Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Nivaar(i) = remove. Mun(i) = by mind. Mukh(i) = by tongue. Lukhaaya = shows; reveals. 12. Puteejaiy = is pleased. Oostut(i) = praise. Ninda = vilification. Jugunath = the Lord of the world (God). Bhaaya = liked. 13. Brehmund(i) = in the universe. Khund(i) = part of the universe; earth; mind. Boojhou = understand. Bhogay = enjoys. Bhogunhaara = who enjoys (Waheguru). Subaaya = everywhere. 14.

Soocha = purifying. Oocha = transcendent. Servuni = with ears. Bani = Shabad. Rung(i) = in love. Rungaaya = dyes his mind. 15.3.20.

MEANING: One needs to take Guru's Advice to analyze his soul, and to enshrine Waheguru's Naam in his heart, which will be his real swim across the world-sea and his connection with Waheguru. By reciting Waheguru's Naam, the devotee gets the chains of the Angel of death severed, and merges into Waheguru, which has no clan, and which is above the effects of Maya. 11. With Guru's Advice, the five noble qualities (service to humanity, contentment, compassion, high morality, and patience) become his close friends as if they are his disciple-mates of the same Guru. One eradicates (puts out) the fire of worldly desires with the Guru's Advice, and merges into Waheguru. When one recites Waheguru's Naam with his mind and his tongue, the incomprehensible Waheguru shows Himself (appears) in his heart. 12. In the shelter of the Guru, one realizes that Waheguru is pleased with the Guru's Shabad. In that spiritual state, he neither showers undeserved praise on anyone nor vilifies anyone. When an individual recognizes himself by reciting Waheguru's Naam, he begins to love Waheguru, who is the Lord of the world. 13.

One realizes in Guru shelter that Waheguru, which is present in the whole universe, is also present in its parts (in his heart too), and makes a connection with Him with Guru's Shabad. Being present in every heart, Waheguru enjoys the different tastes of life, and yet remains fully detached from the whole world. 14.

If an individual sings the mind-purifying praise of Waheguru with Guru's Advice, he sees the transcendent Waheguru with his eyes. His mind is dyed with Waheguru's love when he listens to Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad with his ears, oh Nanak. 15.3.20.

Word Meaning: Purhur(u) = give up. Pur = of others. Ninda = malicious criticism. Tuj(i) = by giving up. Nachinda = worry-free. Sungul = chains; shackles. Niraala = detached. 1. Nis(i) = at night. Daamun(i) = lightening. Chumuk(i) = flashes. Chundaayin = brightness. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light. Nituntar(i) = omnipresence. Paykhaiy = sees. Anund-Roop(u) = source of bliss. Anoop-Suroopa = with unparalleled beauty. 2.
Sus(i) Ghur(i) = in moon's house. Soor(u) = sun. Gaiynaaray = in the sky. Adisht = invisible. Liv Laagi = in meditation. Subaaya = everywhere. 3.
Trishna = (fire of) desires. Bhuou = fears. Pud = state; level. Aap(u) Guvaayaiy = gets rid of selfishness and ego. s Kmaaya = worked for. 4. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Apaara = with no ends. Ut(i) = extremely. Unt(u) = end. 5.

MEANING: A devotee, who gives up (controls) his lust, rage, vilification of others, gluttony, and greed, becomes free from all worries. He breaks the chains of all misgivings and illusions, and stays detached from the world; he realizes Waheguru in his mind, and enjoys the sweetness of His presence there. 1.

Just like one sees brightness in the flash of lightning at night, he sees the Light of Waheguru everywhere, day and night. The Perfect Guru shows (reveals) Waheguru, which is the source of all bliss, and which has unparalleled beauty, to such a devotee. 2.
Just like the moon in the sky absorbs the rays of the sun, and becomes a lamp like the sun, the devotee absorbs Waheguru's Light (His Naam) in his heart in the shelter of Satguru, and becomes like Him (Waheguru). Such a devotee "sees" the invisible Waheguru to be present everywhere in the universe, and stays focused on Him. 3.
When a devotee gets rid of his selfishness and ego by acquiring the sweet Amrit of Waheguru's Naam in his heart, all his worldly desires and his fears get eradicated, and he attains the spiritual state of fearlessness. By working on Guru's Shabad (following His Advice in real life), his mind is purified, and he attains the highest spiritual state. 4.
The Naam(u) of the invisible, and the incomprehensible Waheguru is extremely sweet, and is very dear to the devotees. I beg for the sweet praise of Waheguru in every eon (in every life), but nobody can find His limits by singing His praise, oh Nanak. 5.

Word Meaning: Praaput(i) = acquires. Heera = jewel-like (Waheguru). Dheera = becomes stable. Dooghut = difficult path. Ghut = path; journey. Bhuou-Bhunjun = the destroyer of all fears (Waheguru). Bahourr(i) = again. 6. Hayt(i) = for. Trunga = waves; zestfulness. Pdaaruth(u) = the valuable article. Bhaavaiy = likes. 7.
Vaa Kay = his. Kunkur = assistants. Pug Taa Kay = at his feet. Ootum = superior. Gut(i) = spiritual state. Mit(i) = spiritual knowledge. Jug(u) Bhuoujul(u) = the world-sea. 8. Doobidha = indicisiveness; dichotomy. Juriyaiy = endure; burn. Punch = the five noble qualities. Baan = arrows. Gugnuntar(i) = in the sky (in the tenth door). Dhunukh(u) = bow. Churraaya = loaded. 9. Shaakut = Maya-worshipper. Soort(i) = focus of mind. Kiyoun = how? Puraayin(u) = support; means. 10.
MEANING: With Waheguru Naam at heart, a devotee gets the diamond-like Waheguru to appear in his heart. One's mind finds peace in itself (quits wavering) when he recites Waheguru's Naam, and he gets connected with Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all fears, and which makes the very tough journey of life easy for him. Such a devotee is never born again. 6. Guru's Shabad generates waves (zestfulness) in the mind of the devotee to worship Waheguru, and he begs for the invaluable Waheguru's Naam to sing His praise from the Guru. With Waheguru's Will, the Guru connects the devotee with Him, which can salvage the whole world. 7. The devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Advice, receives the assistance of the Angel of Death, who becomes his slave and drops at his feet. In the superior (holy) company of the holy saints, the spiritual state, and the spiritual knowledge of the devotee also become very superior (of high quality), which become the vehicles to ferry him across the world-sea. 8.

One can kill his indecisiveness internally with Guru's Shabad, and swim across the world-sea. Such a devotee can kill the fear of the Angel of death with the arrows of the five noble qualities (service to mankind, contentment, compassion, high morality, and patience), loaded on the bow of Guru's Shabad, and aimed at the tenth door (connected with Waheguru). 9.
How can a worshipper of Maya (egoist disconnected with Waheguru) focus his mind on the Guru's Shabad and realize God? Without focus on Guru's Shabad, one keeps taking births and dying. The Shelter of the Guru is the means for an individual to attain freedom from the bonds of Maya, but Waheguru connects one with the Guru only through his great fortune, oh Nanak. 10.

Word Meaning: Nirbhuou = fearless. Rukhvaala = guard. Dhoon(i) = sound. Anund = blissfulness. Nirunjun(u) = unaffected by Maya (Waheguru). 11.
Laykha = account of deeds. Alaykh = indescribable. Ateet(u) = detached. Ajoani = does not take births. Sumbhou = self-illuminated. 12.
Gut(i) = situation. Puchhaanaiy = recognizes; makes connection. Nituntur(i) = the continuously present (God). Unut = for something else. Dolaaya = weakens; falls for. 13.
Ubh Untar(i) = in the heart. Ehinis(i) = day and night. Rusiya = sweetens the mind. Sehjay = without any special effort. Sehj(i) = in a high spiritual state. 14.
Uliput = detached. Chultay = wavering mind. Ghur(i) Aanaiy = comes to stabilize. Oopur(i) = above. Aad(i) = the origin (root) of everything (God). Tihou Loyee =in the three worlds (universe). Rus(u) = sweetness. 15.
MEANING: The fearless Satguru is the guard of the devotees, and grants them (implants in their mind) the worship of Waheguru. With Guru's Shabad, the devotees acquire Waheguru in their minds and feel as if a blissful Divine music is playing a melodious tune there. 11.
Waheguru, which is fully detached from the world, does not take any life-form, is self-illuminated, incomprehensible, and is seen in nature, can be realized with the Guru's Advice. A devotee, who acquires Waheguru in his heart, becomes fearless, and no account of his deeds is kept anywhere. 12.
Satguru knows the internal situation of His devotee's mind, and the devotee who makes a connection with Waheguru through the Guru's Advice becomes fearless. He sees the omnipresent Waheguru in his heart and understands Him. His mind does not fall for anything else. 13. The devotee, who gets Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his heart, becomes fearless and enjoys day and night the sweetness of the Naam of Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya. A devotee, who sings Waheguru's praise in the company of the holy saints, gets connected with Waheguru in the high spiritual state without any special effort on his part, oh Nanak. 14.
Such a devotee recognizes Waheguru within and without, and remains detached from the world. His fickle and wandering mind comes to stabilize in itself. I have acquired the Amrit-like sweetness of the Naam of Waheguru, which is the origin of the whole universe, is present everywhere, and is above everybody else (rules over everybody), oh Nanak. 15.4.21.

Word Meaning: Kernaiyhaaa = creator. Keetay = the created. Chaara = ability; option. Rijuk = food and other necessities. Sir(i), Sir(i) = everybody. Chulaaya = implements; controls 1. Bhurpooray = omnipresent. Goopt = hidden. Pergut = visible. Vertaiy = operates. Taak(u) = alone. Subaaya = everywhere. 2. Soort(i) Smaayay = with mind fully absorbed. Dhiyaayay = remembers. Anund-Roop = bliss-like (source of bliss). Anoop = unparalleled beauty. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Bherm(u) = misgivings; illusions. 3. Sukhaayi = friend; supporter. Chullunvaara = at the time of death. Moh Pusaar = expanse of attachments. Bayli = friend. 4.
Soora = valiant. Srayvhou = serve. Bhoola = misled. 5.

MEANING: There is no limit to the abilities of the Creator of nature (the universe). He creates the living beings and provides them with food and other necessities of life. He controls the life of everybody, and the created living beings have no power or option (other than to obey

His Huqam). 1. Controlling the universe with His Huqam, Waheguru is present everywhere. So, how can I say that He is close to some and far from others? He can be seen in every heart, hidden or visible. He runs the universe all alone. 2.
The individual, who Waheguru connects with the Guru, recites His Naam with the Guru's Shabad with a fully focused mind. When the Guru connects the devotee with Waheguru, who has unparalleled beauty and is the source of all bliss, all his doubts disappear. 3.
The devotee finds Waheguru's Naam, which is his supporter at the time of his death, to be dearer to him than his own mind, body, and wealth. None of one's expanse of worldly attachments is helpful at the time of his death. Nobody has ever achieved any comfort (blissfulness) without Waheguru and the Guru. 4.
The devotee, on whom the Perfect Guru casts a kind sight, stays connected with the Guru's Shabad with His Advice, and the devotee becomes a valiant to fight against the evil demons. One should serve the Feet (obey the Advice) of the Guru who puts the misled on the right path (leading to union with Waheguru), oh Nanak. 5.

---------- Sunt junaa Hur(i) dhun(u), jus(u) piyara. Gurmut(i) paaya Naam(u) Toomhaara. Jaachik(u) sayv kuray Dur Hur(i) kaiy, Hur(i) Durgeh jus(u) gaaya. 6. Satgur(u) milaiy, ta Mehl(i) boolaayay. Saachi Durgeh gut(i), put(i) paayay. Shaakut tthaaur naahi Hur(i) Mundar, junum, muraiy, dookh(u) paaya. 7. Sayvhou Satgur smoond(u) athaaha. Paavhou Naam(u) ruttan(u) dhun(u) laaha. Hur(i) Gur moorut(i) aika vertaiy, Nanak Hur(i), Gur bhaaya. 10. ----------
Word Meaning: Jus(u) = praise. Jaachik = beggar. 6.
Mehl(i) = in His Palace. Gut(i) = high spiritual state. Put(i) = honour. Shaakut = worshipper of wealth. Tthaaur = shelter. Mundar(i) = palace. 7.
Smoond(u) = ocean. Athaaha = unfathomable. Ruttan Dhun = wealth of jewel-like (Naam). Laaha = benefit. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya. Mul(u) = filth. Amritsar = in the pool of Naam-Amrit. Gur-Sur = pool of the Guru (His Shabad). Suntokh(u) = contentment. 8.
Shunk = doubt. Niraas(u) = detached. Sunsa-Dookh-Binaasun = the destroyer of all doubts (worries) and suffering (Waheguru). Roag = sickness (filth of sensual pleasures). 9.
Vudiyaayay = honours. Dooja = other. Moorut(i) = persona. Bhaaya = liked. 10.
MEANING: The holy saints enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their heart with the Advice of the Guru; and they love Waheguru's Naam and His praise, which is their real wealth. The beggars (seekers) of Waheguru's Naam serve at the Door of Waheguru and sing His praise in His Court (in their heart, which is the Court of Waheguru). 6.
A devotee is called in by Waheguru to His Palace if he gets connected with the Guru (takes His shelter), where he attains the high spiritual state, and is honoured. But there is no shelter in Waheguru's Palace for the Maya-worshipper. He (the Maya-worshipper) keeps suffering from taking births and dying. 7. Serve Satguru, which is like an unfathomable sea of jewel-like noble qualities (and of Waheguru's Naam) and get the benefit of Waheguru's Naam wealth, oh my friends. Take a dip in the pool of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit with Guru's Shabad (remember, the city of Amritsar did not exist at the time of Guru Nanak Sahib; it was founded by Guru Ram Dass Ji, the Fourth Guru, in 1574) to wash away the filth of poisonous Maya (sins). One also achieves contentment in the holy Pool of Guru's Shabad. 8.
Serve Satguru without any doubt (about His manifestation of Waheguru), and stay detached from the worldly attractions while living in the family, oh my friends. Serve (recite the Naam of) Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all doubts, and all suffering, when you will never suffer from the disease of doubts, worries, and sins. 9. Waheguru honours the devotees He likes. There is none other who can make any suggestions to Him. Satguru and Waheguru operate in this world as one entity. I like (love) Waheguru and the Guru, oh Nanak. 10.

Ram Naam(u) bin(u) kiyoun sookh(u) paayiyaiy, bin(u) Satgur bherm na jaaya. 13. Niyoli kerm, bhooyungum, bhaatthi. Raychuk, koombhuk, pooruk, mun haatthi. Pakhund(u) dherm(u), preet(i) nuhhi Hur(i) siyoun, Gur Shabad muhaa rus(u) paaya. 14. Koodrut(i) daykh(i), ruhhay mun(u) maaniya. Gur Shabadi subh(u) Braham(u) puchhaaniya. Nanak, Aatum Ram(u) subaaya, Gur, Satgur Alukh(u) lukhaaya. 15.5.22.
Word Meaning: Vaacheh(i) = studies. Beh(i) = by setting (with full devotion). Kaana = ears. Ujgur = (very strong like) Python. Kuput(u) = door. Tutt(u) = the root (Waheguru). 11. Bibhoot = Bhusmaiy = (coat body with) ash. Kroadh(u) = rage. Chundaal(u) = savage. Paakhund = hypocrisy. Joag(u) = union with Waheguru. Alukh(u) = incomprehensible (God). 12. Vert = commitment (fasting etc.) Naym = with full discipline. Oodiyaana = wilderness. Jut(u) = celibacy. Sutu) = high morality. Sunjum(u) = control on senses. Kutheh(i) = discuss. 13. Niyoli Kerm = to shake the veins violently to keep the stomach clean (one of the many yogic exercises). Bhooyungum = a (snake-like) coiled vein which connects the bottom to the tenth door. It becomes active with yogic exercises whereby the yogis feel blissful. Bhaatthi = the tenth door. Raychuk = exhale. Koombhuk = hold the breath for a long time. Pooruk = inhale. Mun Haatthi = with persistence of mind. Siyoun = with. Muhaa = great. 14. Aatum Ram(u) = Waheguru. Subaaya = everywhere. Lukhaaya = showed. 15.

MEANING: Some people study the religious books like the Vedas and the Puranas, while others listen to them with their ears with full devotion, and share them with others. But the very heavy (strong) doors closing their minds, cannot open without the guidance of the Guru, and they cannot realize the root of the world – Waheguru. 11.
The yogis make ash and coat their bodies with it to look unattractive, but they have savage rage, selfishness, and ego in their minds. One cannot realize the incomprehensible Waheguru with hypocrisy, and without the shelter of Satguru. 12.
Some others visit holy places, observe fasting, follow certain principles strictly, live in wilderness, exercise celibacy and high morality, try hard to control their senses, and preach knowledge, but they cannot get rid of their misgivings (illusions of Maya) without Satguru, and without Waheguru's Naam, and cannot enjoy bliss. 13.
The yogis perform all their yogic rituals with dedication, but do not have real love for Waheguru in their hearts. One cannot realize Waheguru by hypocrisy. One enjoys the great sweetness of connection with God, only with the Guru's Shabad. 14.
When one recognizes Waheguru everywhere with Guru's Shabad, his mind is convinced (pleased) when he sees Him in nature. Waheguru is omnipresent, and Satguru reveals Him, oh Nanak. 15.5.22.
