Untar(i) piyar(u), bhugti raata, sehj(i) mutay bun(i) aayi hey. 6.

Word Meaning: Sehjay = without any special effort. Vudiyaayi = greatness. Smaayi = present. 1. Goobaara = darkness (of ignorance). Veechaara = to ponder on. 2. Keemut(i) = worth; grandeur. Bil-laandi = wailing in desperation. Khooyaayi = suffers humiliation. 3. Put(i) = dignity. Raachaiy = gets imbued. Saachaiy = by connecting with God. 4.

Tay = from. Munsa = desires. Khayl = dramas; amazing feats. Boojhaayi = understanding. 5. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Raata = imbued. Sehj(i) Mutay = wisdom of high spiritual state. Bun(i) Aayi = liking for each other. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru created the world without any effort, and now watches His own greatness in His creation. He does (creates) things all by Himself, and makes the living beings do what He wishes. He is present in the whole universe by His own Will. 1.
The whole world is in the darkness of ignorance, but a devotee, who ponders on the Guru's Shabad in His shelter, gets enlightened. But only that devotee gets connected with the Guru, and gets enlightened, on whom Waheguru casts His kind sight. 2.
Waheguru accords the honour to the individual whom He connects with the Guru, who (the devotee) realizes His high worth with the grace of the Guru. On the other hand, the Maya-worshipper suffers humiliation for his love for Maya, and wails in desperation. 3.
Waheguru created haumein (selfishness and ego) in living beings, and also Maya when He created the world; followers of their own mind are easily misled by Maya's gimmicks and lose respect (in Waheguru's Court). But a devotee of the Guru gets imbued with his love for Waheguru's Naam and stays absorbed in the Naam. 4.
One acquires the jewel-like Naam and the Divine Knowledge from the Guru, and his mind stays in itself (quits wandering) when he kills his worldly desires by the Guru's Shabad. It must be stressed that it is Waheguru who creates every drama of life, and Himself gives their understanding to His devotees. 5. A devotee, who serves the Guru, overcomes his selfishness and ego, and gets connected with his Dear (Waheguru) with the Guru's Shabad, and enjoys blissfulness. With love for Waheguru in his mind, such a devotee remains imbued in Waheguru's worship in his high spiritual state, and because of this, each (the devotee and Waheguru) has a liking for the other. 6.
-------- Dookh(i)-Nivaarun(u) Gur tay jaata. Aap(i) miliya, Jugjeevun(u) Daata. Jis nu laayay, soyee boojhaiy, bhuou bherm sreerhoun jaayi hey. 7. Aapay Gurmukh(i), Aapay dayvaiy, Sachaiy Shabad(i) Satgur sayvaiy. Juraa, Jum(u) tis(u) joh(i) na saakaiy, Sachay siyoun bun(i) aayi hey. 8. Trishna ugun(i) julaiy sunsaara. Jul(i), jul(i) khupaiy, buhout(u) vikaara. Munmukh(i) tthaur na paayay kubhoon, Satgur boojh boojhaayi hey. 9. Satgur sayvun(i) say vudbhaagi. Saachaiy Naam(i) sudaa liv laagi. Untar(i) Naam(u) ruvviya, nihkayvul, trishna Shabad(i) boojhaayi hey. 10. Sacha Shabad(u), Sachi haiy Bani. Gurmukh(i) virlaiy kinaiy puchhaani. Sachaiy Shabad(i) ruttay baiyraagi, aavun, jaan(u) ruhaayi hey. 11. -------
Word Meaning: Dookh(i)-Nivaarun(u) = remover (destroyer) of troubles (God). Jaata = recognized. Jugjeevun(u) = soul of the world (Waheguru). Daata = provider; Lord. Laayay = connects (with His Naam)/ Bhuou = fears. Bherm = illusions. 7. Juraa = old age. Joh(i) = keep an evil eye. 8. Trishna Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Khupaiy = suffers without any gain. Vikaara = immoral activities; vices. Tthaaur = shelter. Na Kubhoon = never. 9. Liv Laagi = deep meditation. Nihkayvul = above the effects of Maya. 10.
Virlaiy = rare. Puchhaani = recognized. Baiyraaagi = disconnected with the world; Waheguru-loving. Ruhaayi = comes to stop; is terminated. 11.
MEANING: One recognizes and makes a connection with Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all troubles; in fact, Waheguru Himself, who is the soul of and the provider for the whole world, connects the devotee with Him. The devotee, whom Waheguru exhorts to recite His Naam, understands Waheguru's Will, and all his fears and illusions are dispelled. 7.
The devotee, whom Waheguru connects with the Guru and gives the gift of His Naam, serves Him (the Guru) by reciting His Shabad (singing Waheguru's praise). He comes to love Waheguru so much, and Waheguru loves him so much, that he becomes "one" with Him, and no fear of old age or of the Angel of death can affect him. 8.
The world burns (suffers) in the fire of worldly desires, and uselessly suffers more because of its immoral activities. The follower of his mind finds no shelter anywhere, while the devotee is advised by the Guru (and recites Waheguru's Naam). 9.

Those who serve Satguru (obey His Advice) are fortunate and stay deeply meditated on (connected with) Waheguru. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, the devotee puts out the fire of worldly desires with Guru's Shabad and stays above the effects of Maya. 10.
Some rare devotee realizes in the shelter of the Guru that His Shabad, His Bani, is eternal (always connected with Waheguru no matter what eon is). The devotee, who loves Waheguru and is imbued with the Guru's eternal Shabad, gets his birth-death cycle terminated. 11.

------- Shabad(u) boojhaiy, so maiyl(u) chookaayay. Nirmul Naam(u) vussaiy mun(i) aayay. Satgur(u) apna, sud hee sayveh(i), haumein vichoun jaayi hey. 12. Gur tay boojhaiy, ta Dur(u) soojhaiy. Nanak daas(u) kuhhaiy baynunti, bheekhiya Naam(u) Dur(i) paayi hey. 16.1.
Word Meaning: Sud Hee = always. 12. Soojhaiy = gets the understanding. Vihoona = empty; devoid of. Kuth(i) = discuss. Loojhaiy = burns (suffers) in the fire of jealousy and desires. 13. Daat(i) = gift. Vujaayi = enjoys (the Divine music). 14.
Dhoor(i) = from the source, by Waheguru. Kerm Kmaaya = perform deeds. Foormaaya = ordered. Vaasa = stay; become part. 15.
Taarri = deep meditation. Bheekhiya = alms. 16.
MEANING: The devotee, who understands the importance of the Guru's Shabad, washes the filth of his sins with it, and Waheguru's Naam gets enshrined in his pure mind. He always serves His Guru, and overcomes his haumein with Guru's Shabad. 12.
With the Advice of the Guru, he gets the understanding about Waheguru's Door (how to connect with Him), but the follower of his mind, who is devoid of Waheguru's Naam, may discuss Waheguru with others for selfish reasons, but burns in the fire of desires. It is the greatness of serving Satguru that one's appetite for worldly desires is quenched. 13.
When one gets connected with self (analyzes self), he understands the worth of Waheguru's Naam; but the individual, who is devoid of Waheguru's Naam, cannot get that understanding. With Guru's gift of Waheguru's Naam always in his mind, he enjoys the bliss of the Divine music of Guru's Shabad in his mind. 14.
One performs the same kind of deeds which have been prewritten by Waheguru, in his fate; nobody can erase the Orders written for him by Waheguru. Only those become a part of the holy gatherings who have it prewritten in their fate. 15.
Only those get the gift of Waheguru's Naam on whom He casts his kind sight. They stay meditated on (connected with) Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad. I am a slave of Waheguru, and beg at Waheguru's Door for the alms of His Naam(u), oh Nanak. 16.1.

Word Meaning: Virla = rare. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Uver(u) = other. 1. Lukh Chauraasih = 8.4 million (life forms). Jea = living beings. Dhiyani = meditators. Rijk(u) = food and other necessities. Smaahay = delivers. Keemut(i) = assess the needs. Hoar = other. 2. Undhaara = darkness. Pusriya = spread; visible. Pasaara = expanse. Undin(u) = everyday; always. Shaant(i) = peace. 3. Jorr(i) = putting together. Vichhorraiy = separates. Thaap(i) = create. Oothaapay = destroys. 4. Laayay = connects; makes to do. Boojhaiy = understands. 5. Poorub(i) LIkhiya = prewritten. Maytna = erasing. 6.

MEANING: Some rare devotee recognizes in the shelter of the Guru, that it is Waheguru alone that is operating in the universe. He alone is present in everybody, and there is none other than Him. 1. All the spiritually knowledgeable people and the meditators explain that Waheguru, which has created the 8.4 million kinds of living beings, assesses their needs, delivers food to them, and meets their needs. There is no one else who does that. 2. Because of the attachments in Maya, the world is completely enveloped in ignorance, and the expanse of selfishness, ego, and possessiveness is visible everywhere. The whole world is burning constantly in the fire of selfishness, ego, and jealousy, and it cannot find peace without the Guru. 3. Waheguru connects the soul with the appropriate body, and separates them as he wishes; He creates and destroys with His own Will. His Huqam and His expanse (creation) are eternal; nobody else has the power to issue any orders. 4. Only that devotee gets attached to Waheguru's Naam whom He stimulates. With Guru's grace, the devotee's fear of the Angel of death is dispelled. Some rare individual realizes in the shelter of the Guru that the source of all comforts, Waheguru, which is present in his heart, can be realized (acquired) with His Shabad. 5.

Waheguru Himself connects the devotee of His choice with Him through the Guru. Whatever is prewritten by Waheguru in one's fate cannot be erased. The devotee serves Waheguru (recites His Naam constantly) under the guidance of the Guru. 6.

------- Satgur sayv sudaa sookh(u) jaata. Aapay aayay miliya subhna ka Daata. Haumein maar(i) trishna ugun(i) nivaari, Shabad(u) cheen(i) sookh(u) hoyee hey. 7. Kaaya, kootumb(u) moh(u), na boojhaiy. Untar(i) Maya moh goobaara, jiyoun soopnaiy soodh(i) na hoyee hey. 11. --------
Word Meaning: Jaata = realize; acquire. Daata = provider; Lord. Trishna Ugun(i) = fire of desires. Nivaari = removed; extinguished. Cheen(i) = pondering on; making connection; reciting. 7. Kaaya = body. Kootumb = family. Moh(u) = attachment. Boojhaiy = understands. Aakhee = the said (Guru's Word); with eyes. Soojhaiy = understands; realizes. Ruvaiy = remembers; recites. Preetum = Dear (Waheguru). 8. Dhaat(u) = Maya. Laaga = is attached. Junmut = right at birth. Kee = why? Mooyo = died. Abhaaga = unfortunate. Aavut, Jaat = birth and death. Birtha = worthless. Guvaaya = wasted. 9. Koosoodh = impure. Dhopaiy = wash. Huchhi = good; pure. Mool(i) Na = not at all. 10. Punch Doot = the five demons. Sunghaaraeh(i) = ruins. Goobaara = darkness. Soodh(i) = understanding. 11.
MEANING: When a devotee serves Satguru, the Lord of all, Waheguru, connects the devotee with Him on His own, and he acquires the everlasting bliss. By pondering on Guru's Shabad, the devotee kills his selfishness and ego, extinguishes the fire of his desires, and acquires all comforts. 7. Because of his attachment to his body and family, the man does not realize the value of Waheguru's Naam. But with Guru's Word (Advice) and with faith in Him, he understands the importance of Waheguru's Naam, and by reciting Waheguru's Naam day and night, he gets connected with Dear Waheguru, and enjoys blissfulness. 8.
(On the other hand), The follower of his mind is attached to the other (Maya), because of which, he wastes away his precious human life, and keeps taking births and dying. Why does not such a person die right after his birth? He cannot get salvation without the Guru. 9.
Man's body (mind) accumulates the filth of selfishness and ego, which cannot be washed away even if he washes his body countless times. However, if he washes it with Guru's Shabad, it gets purified, and then never gets filthy again. 10.
The five demons (lust, greed, etc.) ruin one's body (and mind); he does not ponder on the Guru's Shabad, and keeps taking births and dying. With the darkness of Maya's attachment in mind, he cannot think clearly and spends his life in dreams. 11.

Word Meaning: Ikk(i) = some. Laagay = attached. Vudbhaagay = fortunate. Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in love. Sehj(i) Smaavaiy = absorbed in high spiritual state. Soyee = the same; that. 12. Chaal = philosophy; thinking. Jaapaiy = becomes visible. Sinyaapaiy = is recognized. Ruvaiy = present. Rusna = tongue. Rus(u) = sweetness. Chaakhaiy = tastes. Sach(u) = Waheguru-like. 13. Oor(i) = in the heart. Dhaaray = enshrines. Aikus = the "One" Huoun = I; me. Jaana = acknowledge. Sehjay Hoyay = happens naturally. 14. Khoyee = lose; get rid of. 15. Goon-Daata = source of virtues (Waheguru). Pukki = successful. Saari = the pawn in the game of dice. Put(i) = dignity. 16.

MEANING: Some people kill (control) their five demons (lust, rage, etc.) by reciting Guru's Shabad with love when Satguru Himself connects such fortunate devotees with Him. With Waheguru (His Naam) in their mind, they remain imbued with His love and absorbed in Him in a high spiritual state. 12.

Guru's philosophy is revealed by His lifestyle, and the perfect devotee is known by his recitation of Guru's Shabad. Such a devotee tastes the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam by his tongue (by reciting it), and his life is guided by Guru's Shabad. 13.

He kills his haumein (gets rid of it) by Guru's Shabad, and enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart. I do not recognize anybody else other than Waheguru, and accept whatever happens naturally. 14. Nobody can attain the high spiritual state without the Guru; a devotee of the Guru understands this fact and stays absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. He gets rid of His haumein with Guru's Shabad, and serves the eternal Waheguru by reciting Guru's eternal Shabad. 15. The source of all virtues, Waheguru, thinks about (evaluates) His devotees, and gives them the gift of His Naam through the Guru. Such devotees become successful in life like the pawns in a game of dice. Such devotees get absorbed in Waheguru with His Naam, and earn respect everywhere, oh Nanak. 16.2.

Undin(u) julut ruhheh(i) din raati, bherm(i) bhaykh(i) bhermaayi hey. 6. ---------

Word Meaning: Jugjeevun(u) = the soul of the world (Waheguru). Puchhaata = recognized; get connected. Amar(u) = Huqam. Paatshahi = kingdom. Sir(i), Sir(i) = for everybody. Kaar = deeds to perform. 1. Sookh-Daata = the source of all comforts (God). Rutti = imbued. Put(i) = dignity. 2. Vudiyaayi = honour. Ninduk(i) = vilifier. Perm Huns = supreme swan (extremely pure devotee). Baiyraagi = detached from the world. Taarri = deep meditation. 3. Muraiy = kills desires. Poora = perfect. Amritsar(u) = the pool of Waheguru's Naam. Bhaayay Soobhaayi = with love. 4. Uvraan = others. Khubur = information. Thaakay = exhausted. Shaant(i) = peacefulnes.5. Ikk(i) = some. Bhusm = ash. Bhaykhdhaari = in religious garb. Jult ruhheh(i) = keep burning (in the fire of desires). Bherm(i) = in illusions. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru alone is the eternal provider for (Lord of) the world. One can realize Him by serving the Guru with His Shabad (by acting on it). There is only the Huqam of the "One", and only one kingdom (of Waheguru) in the world. He has created such a system that He makes everyone perform certain kinds of deeds. 1.

The mind of the individual, who recognizes himself (that he is a part of Waheguru, and what his objective in life is), becomes pure; and Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts, connects the devotee with Him on His own. Such a devotee sings praise of Waheguru with his tongue, which is imbued in His love, and is honoured in His Court. 2.

A Sikh of the Guru, who recites and acts on the Guru's Shabad, is honoured everywhere, but the follower of his mind (Maya-worshipper) vilifies others and loses his respect. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam are His supreme devotees, and, detached from the world, they remain meditating on Waheguru with a focused mind. 3.

The valiant Guru has clearly explained that the individual who kills his desires with the Guru's Shabad becomes perfect. The human body has the pool of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit in it, and the devotee drinks it (takes it in) with love for Him. 4.

A learned Brahman reads the holy books and explains that to others, but knows nothing about his own heart, which is burning in the fire of desires. People exhaust themselves reading the holy books (without any spiritual gain); they do not know that no one can acquire Waheguru's Naam without the Guru and cannot attain peace of mind. 5.

Many people coat their bodies with ash and wander around wearing religious garbs, but nobody can kill their haumein without the Guru's Shabad. Misguided by the illusion of their "holy" garbs, they wander around burning in the fire of desires and jealousy. 6.

--------- Ikk(i) greh(i) kootumb(u) meh(i) sudaa oodaasi. Shabad(i) mooyay Hur(i) Naam(i) nivaasi. Undin(u) sudaa ruhheh(i) rung(i) raatay, bhaiy bhugut(i) chit(u) laayi hey. 7. Munmukh(u) ninda kur(i), kur(i) vigoota. Untar(i) lobh(u) bhaunkaiy jis(u) kootta. Jum- kaal(u) tis(u) kuday na chhodaiy, unt(i) guyya puchhutaayi hey. 8. Sachaiy Shabad(i) Sachi put(i) hoyee. Bin(u) naavaiy mookut(i) na paavaiy koyee. Bin(u) Satgur ko Naaoun na paayay, Prubh(i) aiysi bunut bunaayi hey. 9. Ikk(i) Sidh, saadhik buhout(u) veechaari. Ikk(i) ehnis(i) Naam(i) ruttay Nirunkaari. Jis nu Aap(i) milaayay so boojhaiy, bhugut(i) bhaayay bhuou jaayi hey. 10. Ishnaan(u) daan(u) kureh(i) nuhhi boojheh(i). Ikk(i) munooaa maar(i) munaiy siyoun loojheh(i). Saachaiy Shabad(i) ruttay Ikk rungee, Saachaiy Shabad(i) milaayi hey. 11. --------

Word Meaning: Greh(i) = in households. Kootumb(u) = family. Oodaasi = detached. Mooyay = killed desires. Nivaasi = dweller; stay absorbed. Bhaiy Bhugut(i) = worship with fear (love) in mind. Chit(u) = mind. Laayi = attached. 7.
Vigoota = suffers humiliation. Lobh(u) = greed. Bhaunkaiy = barks; makes much noise. Puchhutaayi = repenting. 8. Aiysi Bunut = such system. 9.
Saadhik = one who follows the Yogic path. Veechaari = thinkers; debaters. Nirunkaari = in formless (Waheguru). Boojhaiy = understands. Bhaayay = in the spirit of; with love. 10. Ishnaan = dips at holy places. Munooaa = mind. Maar(i) = by controlling. Loojheh(i) = fight. Ikk Rungee = in love with only the "One" (God). 11.

MEANING: (On the other hand), there are some who stay detached from worldly attractions while living at home with their families. They kill their desires with Guru's Shabad and stay absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. They remain imbued in Waheguru's love day and night, and keep their minds attached to Him with respectful fear in His worship. 7.
The follower of his mind suffers humiliation for the vilification of others, and the dog of greed in their mind, barks aloud (their greed prods them strongly) to commit immoral acts. The Angel of Death never spares him, and he leaves the world repenting. 8.
One earns everlasting respect with the Guru's eternal Shabad, but nobody can attain emancipation without Waheguru's Naam. Also, Waheguru has created a system in which no one can acquire His Naam without the Guru. 9.
There are many Sidhs (accomplished yogis), many yogis, and many thinkers who take part in religious debates (without any gain in spirituality); while there are many, who stay imbued in Waheguru's Naam day and night. But only that individual understands the worth of Waheguru's Naam whom He connects with Him. All the fears of such a devotee are dispelled when he worships Waheguru with love and dedication. 10.
Many people take dips at holy places and make big donations, yet still do not understand the worth of Waheguru's Naam. But there are many who fight (struggle) with their mind and kill its desires. They imbibe the love of the "One" (God) through the Guru's eternal Shabad and connect with Waheguru. 11.

(PAGE 1047): Aap-houn hoa, na, kichh(u) hosi. Nanak Naam(u) milaiy vudiyaayi, Dur(i) Saachaiy put(i) paayi hey. 16.3.
Word Meaning: Sirjay = creates. Bhaanaiy = Will. Vussiya = takes dwelling; gets embedded. Foormaayi = His Huqam. 12. Saachay = pure. Jaanun(i) = understand. Kaachay = weak-minded. Laayi = puts on that path. 13.
Pooraiy Bhaag(i) = with perfect fortune. Puchhata = gets connected; learns. Vichhoorray = get separated. Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. 14.
Maiyl(u) = filth. Dooja = the other (Maya). Bhaaya = liked. Liv = meditate. 15. Kersi = will do. Aap-houn = by self (the man). Na hosi = will not happen. Vudiyaayi = honour. 16.
MEANING: Waheguru creates the world, and Himself confers honour on some of the lucky individuals by connecting them with Him by His Will. It is with His Huqam that God appears in the hearts of some individuals on whom He casts His kind sight. 12.
The minds of the individuals who serve Satguru are purified. The worshippers of Maya are weak-minded and do not know the worth of serving Satguru. Waheguru looks after His creation and creates attachment among His living beings for different types of deeds (intentions) as He pleases. 13.
With good fortune, one learns in the shelter of the Guru with His Shabad that Waheguru is the lone Provider (Lord) for the entire world, no matter what the eon is, and gets connected with Him. Once connected with Waheguru with Guru's Shabad in the high spiritual state, and with the kind sight of Waheguru, the devotee never gets separated from Him. 14.
Those who acquire the filth of haumein and other forms of Maya keep taking births and dying because of their love for Maya. One can verify, by meditating on the Guru's Shabad, that no one can attain salvation without serving the Satguru. 15.
Waheguru does what He likes; the man cannot do anything on his own and will never be able to do so. One earns respect with Waheguru's Naam, and is honoured at Waheguru's door, oh Nanak. 16.3.

Pir ka saaou na jaanaiy moorukh(i), bin(u) Gur boojh na paayi hey. 6. -----

Word Meaning: Aaya = comes; is born. Jaasi = will go; die. Baandha = tied. Jun = devotees. Oobray = salvaged. Saach(i) = with Waheguru's Naam. 1.
Laykhaiy = is counted (considered); given credit. Giyan(u) = Divine Knowledge. Soojhaiy = understands. Ugiyani = ignorant. Undh(u) Kmaayi = performs worthless deeds. 2.
Sehsa = doubts; worries. Sehjay = easily. 3. Dhundhaiy = in Maya-related tasks. Dhaavut = rushing. Bhuyya = became. Munoora = hard and brittle like burnt (scrap) iron. Kunchun = gold. Bhaytaiy = gets connected. Bukhsh(i) = endows. 4.
Doormut(i) = evil thinking. Jhootthi = dishonest. Booriyaar(i) = source of immorality. Aougunaari = full of bad qualities. Kuchee = weak-minded. Pheeka = tasteless. 5.
Kunt = Pir = husband; Waheguru. Bhaavaiy = liked. Jootthi = impure. Kmaavaiy = works for. Saaou = taste; bliss. Boojh = understanding. 6.

MEANING: Everybody who comes to the world (takes birth) must leave (someday). But, for his love for Maya, he is trapped in the noose of the Angel of Death. However, those protected by Satguru are salvaged and merge into Waheguru through His eternal Naam. 1.
The Creator creates and looks after His living beings, but only those are given credit for spirituality on whom He casts His kind sight. The devotee, who acquires Divine Knowledge in the shelter of the Guru, understands everything, whereas the (Maya-engrossed) ignorant continues to perform spiritually worthless deeds. 2.
The follower of his mind suffers from doubts and worries, and does not understand the worth of spirituality, and wastes away his precious human life, as a result of which he continues to take births and to die. But Guru's Sikh is always imbued in Waheguru's Naam. He enjoys bliss and merges with Waheguru in a high spiritual state. 3.
The mind of the man who pursues Maya-related tasks becomes hard and brittle (merciless and weak) like scrap iron, but can become pure like gold if he is lucky to come to the shelter of the Perfect Guru. Waheguru forgives him for his misdeeds, and he enjoys all comforts and connects with Him through the Guru's Shabad. 4.
The woman (human being) with evil thinking is bad and dishonest, and is a source of immorality. She has bad qualities and is also the source of bad qualities. With a weak mind (which changes quickly), she uses tasteless (Maya-related) language; no one can ever acquire Waheguru's Naam with evil thinking. 5.

Waheguru does not like people with bad qualities because a man with an impure (dishonest) mind (thinking) performs dishonest deeds. Without the Guru, she does not know the worth of Waheguru's Naam, and the foolish cannot enjoy union with Waheguru. 6.

---------- Doormut(i) khoati, khoat(u) kmaavaiy. Sheegaar(u) kuray, Pir, Khusm, na bhaavaiy. Goonvunti sudaa Pir(u) raavaiy, Satgur(i) mayl(i) milaayi hey. 7. Aapay Huqam(u) kuray, subh(u) vaykhaiy. Satgur sayva tay sookh(u) paaya, Hur(i) kay Naam(i) smaayi hey. 11. ------

Word Meaning: Khoati = impure. Khoat(u) = impurity. Sheegaar(u) = adornment; religious symbols. Khusm = master; husband. Goonvunti = having noble qualities (virtuous). Raavaiy = worships; recites Naam. 7. Ikkna = some. Bukhsh(i) = forgives. Dhoor(i) = prewritten by Waheguru. Laykhaiy = accounts of bad deeds. 8.
Dhaat(u) = Maya. Moh = attachments. Rus(i) = in the sweetness of. Laayi = attached to. Saachi Liv = honest attachment; deep meditation. 9. Ikk(i) = many. Jaagay = enlightened; stay alert. Abhaagay = unfortunate. Kerna = ability to do. 10.
Maar(i) = kill; control. Nivaaray = remove; take off. Oordhaaray = acquire in the heart. 11.

MEANING: The ill-advised man has an impure mind and carries out his daily business rooted in dishonesty. He wears religious symbols with the false belief to be religious, but is not liked by the Lord. (On the other hand), A virtuous man always recites Waheguru's Naam, which connects the devotee with Him through the Guru. 7.
Waheguru looks after everybody with His Huqam (Will), and forgives some (connects them with Him) as per their prewritten fate. Always imbued in the love for Waheguru's Naam, such devotees get connected with Waheguru, and the Naam keeps them connected with Him. 8.
Waheguru has created love for Maya, selfishness, and ego among living beings, who enjoy their (false) sweetness. However, the Sikhs of the Guru remain absorbed in a high spiritual state through their honest attachment to (meditation on) Waheguru's Naam. One does not realize that, without the Guru, Waheguru Himself connects the devotees with Him; He watches (and enjoys) His own performances. 9.
Some people always stay alert (against the attacks of Maya) by pondering on Guru's Shabad, while some unfortunate are unaware of the worth of Waheguru's Naam, and sleep away their life in the attachment of Maya. But it is Waheguru which does everything, and makes others do whatever He wishes. Nobody else has the ability to do anything on his own. 10.
The devotee, who kills the fear of death, his selfishness, and ego, with Guru's Shabad, keeps Waheguru's Naam at heart. By serving the Guru, and with Waheguru's Naam, he gets absorbed in Waheguru, and enjoys bliss. 11.

Word Meaning: Doojay Bhaayay = in the love of the other (Maya). Dayvaani = crazy. Smaani = trapped in. Bhaykh = religious garbs. 12.

Raah(i) Chulaayay = puts on the path (make perform deeds). Mehrvaan(u) = kind to do favours. Sookh-Daata = provider of comforts. 13. Bhoogta = receiver; one who enjoys. Sunjum(u) = self-controller. Joogta = mixed with (present in) everything. Madhusoodun(u) = destroyer of demons (lust, ego etc.). Maytiya = erase; undo. 14.

Jaata = recognized; made connection. Ikuthaiy = at one place. Goopt(u) = hidden. Pergut(u) = visible. 15. Puchhaata = recognized. Vudaayi = respect. 16.

MEANING: Crazy in love with Maya, people go around doing their business. Trapped in Maya's attachments, they suffer greatly. One cannot realize Waheguru simply with religious garb, and cannot enjoy the comforts (peace of mind) without the Guru. 12.

But whom can we blame when Waheguru is making people do the types of deeds they perform? He puts people on the path He chooses for them (based on their previous deeds). Even though the source of all comforts, Waheguru, is very kind, yet He makes people do the type of deeds that He decides for them. 13. Waheguru Himself is the creator and (being present in the living beings), Himself enjoys His endowments. He, Himself, is connected with everybody, and Himself lives within means. He is perfectly pure, compassionate, and the destroyer of the demons (evil), and nobody can undo His Huqam. 14. Those who recognize only (believe in) the “One” are lucky. The soul of the world, and the provider, Waheguru, is present in every heart. The man learns in the shelter of the Guru that Waheguru is present as hidden at one place, and as visible at another. With this understanding, the devotee becomes free from any doubts and fears (that people are different, so he treats them the same way). 15.

With Waheguru’s Naam at heart, the Sikhs of the Guru acknowledge only the “One” and make a connection with Waheguru through the Guru’s Shabad. However, only that devotee acquires Waheguru’s Naam at heart, whom He grants with His kindness, and one earns respect with His Naam, oh Nanak. 16.4.

Word Meaning: Salaaheen = I sing praise. Gehr = unfathomable. Gumbheeraiy = never-changing. Cheeraiy = in His Huqam. Bhogvaiy = enjoys. Sookh-Nivaasi = stays in comforts (in blissfulness). 1. Naayee = greatness; majesty. Vussiya = comes to stay. Ghut = heart. 2. Sayveen = serve. Ootum = superior. Kumul(u) Pergaasi = blooming of lotus-like heart. 3. Kaachi = perishable. Kaagud Mikdaara = paper-like. Boond = drop of rain (water). Binsaiy = is destroyed. Dheht = collapsing. Na Baara = in no time. Kunchun Kaaya = gold-like pure body. Nivaasi = residing. 4. Sacha = love for Waheguru (His Naam). Chaunka = outdoor kitchen. Soort(i) = focused mind. Kaara = boundary lines drawn around the kitchen. Bhojun(u) = meals. Adhaara = support. Triput(i) = contented. Puvittar = Paavun = holy. Jit(u) = which. 5. Bulihaari = sacrifice. Laagay = attached to. Jaagay = awake; alert. Rusna = tongue. Raasi = sweetened with (the Naam). 6.

MEANING: I sing praise of the unfathomable Waheguru, which never changes, no matter what the conditions are. The whole world is under His Command. Sitting in every heart, he enjoys His gifts day and night, and is always blissful. 1. The Lord is eternal, and so is His majesty; one can embed the Great Waheguru in his heart with the grace of the Guru. Waheguru, Himself, comes to reside in a devotee's heart with His own kindness whereby the noose of the Angel of death is severed (the devotee merges with Waheguru). 2.
Whom should I serve, and whose praise should I sing? (A)I should serve Satguru and sing Waheguru's praise with His Shabad. One's thinking becomes superior (highly pure) with Satguru's eternal Shabad, and his heart blooms like a lotus flower. 3.
The human body is perishable like paper, which gets destroyed by raindrops and dissolves quickly. But the body of the devotee, who has Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his heart with Guru's Advice, becomes pure like gold. 4. (For the sake of purity, the Brahmans cook their own food by building a temporary outdoor kitchen during their travels, and draw contour lines to mark the boundary. Disapproving of such meaningless practices, Guru Sahib says: a true devotee builds the kitchen with Waheguru's Naam at his heart and focuses his mind on the Naam, which serves as the contour lines; he cooks the meal of Waheguru's

Naam, and takes shelter of Waheguru. The devotee, who has Waheguru dwelling in his heart, is always contented and is pure and pious. 5.
I am a sacrifice for all those who are attached to Waheguru, sing His praise, and stay awake (alert) day and night against the attacks of Maya. With their tongue sweetened with Waheguru's Naam, they always enjoy the eternal bliss in their mind. 6.

Word Meaning: Chaytaan = I remember (recite). Poojaan = worship. Sayveen = serve. 7. Bherm(i) Bherm(i) = wandering through. Joani = in life forms. Bhoola = misled. Cheenaiy = recognizes; makes a connection. Abinaashi = immortal. 8.
Kaam(i) = lust. Apraadhi = guilty. Kiyya Mooh(u) = with what face? Saadhi = performed. Paathur = (heavy like) stones (with sins). Abinaashi = immortal. 9.
Kernaiy Joga = able to perform. Bukhsh(i) = forgive. Nivaai = stays. 10.
Apaara = the limitless God. Sayti = with. Vunuj(u) Vupaara = dealings. Jummiya = sprouted. Toat(i) = shortage. 11.
MEANING: I remember Waheguru (recite His Naam) only, and worship no one else. I serve only the "One" and nobody else. The Perfect Guru has shown me that Waheguru is present everywhere, and I have enshrined His Naam in my heart. 7.
The man wanders through many life forms again and again, but it is not known if he is misled on his own or by the Lord. With Waheguru's grace, the devotee realizes the worth of Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and recognizes (gets connected with) the immortal Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad. 8.
We are full of lust and rage and are guilty of such evil thoughts. With what face can I pray to the Guru, since I have no noble qualities and have not rendered any service to Him? Loaded with sins, we are heavy like a stone, and are drowning in the world-sea. We pray to You that You be kind to us and connect us to You through the Guru's eternal Shabad. 9.
Nobody has ever done (achieved) anything on their own, nor are they able to do anything. Only that happens which Waheguru does Himself, or makes others do the same. Only that individual enjoys blissfulness whom He grants His Naam to enshrine in his heart. 10.
Treat your body like a field, and sow the seed of Guru's Shabad in there, and deal only in Waheguru's Naam. When you do that, Waheguru's Naam will sprout in your heart to stay there forever, and you will never feel a shortage of this wealth, oh my friends. 11.

Word Meaning: Uvguniaaray = having bad qualities. Put(i) = dignity. Ikkut(u) = of the "One". Sumjh = understanding; enlightenment. Koyee = some rare. 13. Unul = fire (of desires). Vaaou = air; storm of vices. Bherm(i) = in illusions. Bhoolaayi = misled. Soodh(i) = awareness of spirituality. Kaayi = any. Soojhaiy = think of. Pergaasi = enlightened. 14. Sootay = in deep slumber. Unt(i) = at the end. Ghur(u) = house; heart. Vigootay = suffer humiliation. Chinta = worries. 15.

Kaar Kuraayi = makes do things. Boojhaayi = understanding. 16.

MEANING: I have all bad qualities; kindly inject noble qualities in my mind, oh dear Waheguru. Forgive me for my bad qualities, and implant Your Naam in my heart. The Sikh of the Guru earns respect when he enshrines the Naam only of Waheguru in his mind in the shelter of the Guru. 12.

The man has the wealth of Waheguru's Naam in his heart, but does not realize it; some rare individual realizes this fact with Guru's grace. One acquires this wealth in the shelter of the Guru when Waheguru's Naam is embedded (enshrined) in his heart forever. 13.

With attachment to Maya, the man has no awareness of spirituality; overpowered by the fire of desires and storms of vices, he is misled by his misbeliefs and illusions. The (spiritually) blind follower of his mind cannot think of spirituality, whereas the mind of the Sikh is enlightened with the Advice of the Guru and with Waheguru's Naam. 14.

Because of their love for Maya and their ego, the followers of their mind stay asleep (unaware of the loss of their spirituality). They do not keep their own house (heart) in order, and suffer humiliation at the end. They maliciously criticize others, and burn (suffer) in worries. Their whole life is spent in suffering. 15.

(But they cannot be blamed entirely) because it is Waheguru, which makes the followers of their mind perform such ignoble deeds, and gives the understanding to the devotees of the Guru. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam have pure hearts, and Waheguru's Naam is enshrined in their hearts forever, oh Nanak. 16.5.

Word Meaning: Sudaa Thir(u) = Saacha = eternal; immortal (Waheguru). Laaga = attached. Kaacha = weak-minded. Puteejaiy = is pleased. 1. Jaata = recognized. Bheejaiy = imbues. 2. Lehr(i) = wave; impulse. Nivaari = removes; crushes. Sehjay = in peaceful state. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in love. Rusna = tongue. Ruveejaiy = recites. 3. Vihaani = is spent. Iyaani = ignorant. Ghurree Mooht(u) = every moment of life. Nihaalay = watches. Arjaa = lifespan. Chheejaiy = becomes weaker; is shortened. 4. Lobh = greed. Sir Oopur = above the head. Aiythaiy = here (in this world). Kmaana = deeds done. Uggaiy = in the next world. 5.
Soyay = praise. Doohaan Siryaan = of both ends (the two worlds). Bheejaiy = is pleased. 6.

MEANING: I serve (worship) only the eternal Waheguru. The whole world is attached to Maya, which makes it weak-minded. I always sing praise of the eternal Waheguru with Guru's Advice, and my mind enjoys bliss by reciting his Naam. 1.
You have too many noble qualities, but (because of my ignorance) I do not recognize even a single one of them, oh my Waheguru. It is the great kindness of Waheguru, who is the provider for and the soul of the world, that He makes His devotees get attached to His Naam. With the Advice of the Guru, a devotee's mind gets imbued with Waheguru's love, and the Lord honours His devotees by granting them His Naam. 2.
Such a devotee crushes the impulse of Maya with the Guru's Shabad, and his mind gets purified when he gets rid of his haumein. Imbued in His love, the devotee sings Waheguru's praise by reciting His Naam with his tongue in the high spiritual state. 3.
But the follower of his mind goes around in ignorance and does not understand the worth of Waheguru's Naam. His whole life is spent claiming everything to be his while his lifespan goes on decreasing with every passing day and night; at the same time, the Angel of Death watches every moment of his life. 4. With greed inside him, the man does not understand the worth of Waheguru's Naam, and does not realize that the Angel of death is watching him over his head. He has to face the consequences in the next world for the deeds he performed in this world. So, what can he do about them at the time of his death? 5.
Those who are attached to Waheguru's Naam enjoy a noble reputation, but the follower of his mind has to cry (suffer consequences) for his attachment to Maya. Waheguru is the Lord at both ends (He controls one's deeds in this world, which are based on his previous deeds, and gives His judgment for his deeds in the next world); He is pleased with his role for both the worlds. 6.

Word Meaning: Sohaiy = earns praise. Rusaayin = the source of all sweetness. Mohaiy = captivates. Moh = attachment. Putung(u) = a very small amount. 7.
Soyee = the same (Waheguru). Pergut(u) = appears. Naayay = with the Naam. 8.
Kilbikh = sins. Nivaarunhaara = destroyer. Sayviya = served; worshipped. 9. Shaant(i) = peace; calmness. 10. Indraasun(i) = on Indra's seat. Chhoadaiy = spares. 11.
MEANING: With the Guru's Shabad in his mind, a devotee always earns respect. His mind is captivated by Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of all sweet tastes. He gets absolutely no filth from the attractions of Maya, and with Guru's Advice, his mind gets imbued in his love for Waheguru's Naam. 7. Waheguru alone operates hidden in everybody, but appears in the devotee's mind with the Guru's Advice. Such a devotee drinks the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam and enjoys eternal bliss by destroying (controlling) his selfishness and ego. 8.
By pondering on Guru's Shabad, the devotee serves Waheguru, who is the destroyer of all sins and all suffering. With the Advice of the Guru, the devotee realizes that it is Waheguru which operates everywhere, and his body and his mind get imbued in Waheguru's love. 9.
The world suffers in the fire of desires for Maya, but the Guru's Sikh extinguishes such fire by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. He recites Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Advice, and attains peace of mind and everlasting bliss. 10.
Even the gods like Indra, sitting on their thrones, do not find them safe and are afraid of the Angel of death, which does not spare them even if they perform many religious rituals. One can get salvaged only if he takes Guru's shelter (surrenders his mind and body to His service) where he drinks Waheguru's Naam-Amrit with his tongue. 11.

Word Meaning: Bhugut(i) = worship. Puvittar = Paavun = holy; pious. Bani = Guru's Shabads. 12. Bishan(u) = Vishnu. Mahesh(u) = Shiva. Traiygoon = the three effects of Maya. Budhuk = trapped in. Niraari = away from. Ruveejaiy = recite. 13.

Bayd = the Vedas. Boojheh(i) = recognize. Loojhaiy = fight; get irritated. Dootur(u) = difficult to swim across (the world sea). Treejaiy = swims. 14.
Vukhaaneh(i) = describe; explain. Bheejaiy = imbues. Drirraaya = reinforce. 15.
Sacho, Sach(u) = only the immortal (Waheguru). 16.
MEANING: The follower of his mind cannot worship Waheguru (because Maya and Waheguru's worship cannot coexist), but the devotee of the Guru acquires peace and comfort with Waheguru's worship. Guru's Shabad is always holy and pious, and the devotee's mind gets imbued in Guru's and in Waheguru's love. 12.
If you consider the popular gods, Brahman, Vishnu, and Shiva, even they were trapped in the three effects of Maya, and emancipation was far away from them. With the Divine Knowledge of the Guru, a devotee recognizes only the "One" (Waheguru), and recites His Naam day and night. 13. The pundit studies the Vedas, but does not understand the worth of Waheguru's Naam. He reads them to the people just to earn money and gets irritated (if he does not get enough). The ignorant and spiritually blind have the filth of Maya on their mind, so how can they swim across the world-sea, which is so tough to swim across? 14.
One may read and explain the Vedas to others, but neither his mind gets imbued in Waheguru's love, nor does he recognize the worth of the Guru's Shabad. The Vedas simply discuss the importance of noble deeds and the bad consequences of sins, but (disregarding all that) the Guru's Sikh drinks the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam. 15.
Waheguru is the only Eternal Being in the universe; there is none other like Him. Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam become like Him. So, one should recite only His Naam, oh Nanak. 16.6.

Word Meaning: Tukhut = throne. Ruchaaya = created. Nij Ghur(i) = in own heart. Vussiya = made dwelling. Tithaiy = there. Kerni = performance. Saari = supreme. 1.
Sauda = merchandize. Vapaara = dealings. Pasaara = expanse; system. Khuttiyaan = earning. Toat(i) = shortage. Veechaari = thoughtful 2. Laayay = attached. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead (in fortune). Vud Bhaagay = highly fortunate. Veechaari = thinkers. 3. Paurri = ladder. 4. Bhaaya = liked; approved. Tikha = thirst (of desires). Nivaari = removed. 5. Cheena = recognized. Kmaavaiy = works towards. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru has established His eternal throne (the whole universe), where He resides above the effects of Maya and is detached from worldly bonds. A devotee, who performs supreme noble deeds under the guidance of the Guru, gets Waheguru (His Naam) enshrined in His heart forever. 1.
Dealing in Waheguru's Naam is the true (everlasting) merchandise, and the true business. There is no room for any illusions about Maya and for any expanse of (wish for) Maya in such a devotee's heart. One never experiences any shortage in Waheguru's Naam-wealth when he earns it. But some rare individuals think about (realize) this fact. 2.
Only those devotees who are prompted by Waheguru become attached to Waheguru's Naam. Such devotees are highly fortunate who have Waheguru's Naam at heart. Imbued in Waheguru's Naam, they ponder on Guru's Shabad, and sing Waheguru's praise all the time.3.
I sing praise only of the immortal Waheguru, and "see" only the "One" and no one else. The jewel-like (precious) Divine Knowledge (of the Guru) is a ladder to reach the inaccessible Waheguru (become "one" with Him) as one can kill his haumein with Guru's Shabad, and become pure like Waheguru, to be one with Him. 4.
One burns his attachment for Maya with Guru's Shabad, and Waheguru takes dwelling in his (the devotee's) mind when He likes it. All the performances of such a pure devotee are also pure, as he destroys his haumein and his thirst for Maya, with Guru's Shabad .5.
Some rare devotee, in the shelter of the Guru, realizes that Waheguru Himself has created attachment for Maya among the living beings. A Sikh of the Guru deals in Waheguru's Naam, which is the supreme dealing of all. 6.

Word Meaning: Kaar Kmaayi = perform deeds. Trishna = (fire of) desires. Boojhaayi = put out. Seetul(u) = calm; peaceful. 7. Soohaayaiy = are respected. Aithaiy = here (in this world). Saachay = truthful; pure, holy. Nudri = the kind (Waheguru). Suvaari = adorned (with noble qualities); made successful. 8. Subaaya = all; everywhere. Jaapaiy = realize; feel. Bhaari = huge. 9. Tinhi = those. 10.
Smaadhi = in deep meditation. Kertiyaan doing (reciting). Nirmul(u) = pure. 11.

MEANING: Only the performance of those deeds is worthwhile which are liked (approved) by my Waheguru - that too only when one kills away his haumein (selfishness and ego) with Guru's Shabad. With Guru's Advice in his mind all the time, such a devotee enjoys the calmness (bliss) of mind. 7. Those who are attached to Waheguru (recite His Naam with love) accept everything that happens to them. With Waheguru's Naam, and with Guru's eternal Shabad, they get respect everywhere. Those who are pure in this world are also pious in Waheguru's Court, as they are adorned (approved) with His kind sight. 8.
Those who are attached to Maya stay devoid of Waheguru's Naam and suffer badly for their love for Maya. Without the Guru's guidance, they suffer in life and find no comfort, as Maya inflicts immense suffering. 9. Those who like the Guru's eternal Shabad do so because of their prewritten fortune. They serve Waheguru, recite His Naam, and, imbued in His love, they ponder on Him (with Guru's Shabad). 10.
Those who find it sweet to serve the Guru, stay in the comforting (blissful) meditation of Waheguru's Naam all the time. One's mind is purified by reciting Waheguru's Naam, and they love to serve the Guru. 11.

Word Meaning: Say = those. Raakhay = protected. Oobray = salvaged. Khooaari = humiliation; disgrace. 12. Puchhata = recognized; made connection. Kootumb(u) = family. Ruvviya = present. Adhaari = support; basis. 13.
Na Chullaiy = no effort works (against). Dhoor(i) Khusm(i) = rom the source (Lord). 14.
Dayh(i) = grant. Bhundaari = treasures. 15.
Chulaayay = runs (the world). Bhaana = Will. Baiyraagi = detached. Suvaari = adorned.16.

MEANING: Those devotees who are attached to Waheguru's Naam by Satguru are blissful. Waheguru connects devotees to Him by His own Will. Those devotees, who are protected by Satguru, are salvaged; the others who are attached to Maya suffer humiliation. 12
With Guru's Shabad in mind, His Sikh recognizes (gets connected with) Waheguru only, which has no mother and no family, and which is present in everybody, and is the basis of all living beings. 13. With his attachment to Maya, the man suffers from haumein and possessiveness. But the man is also, to a great degree, helpless because he cannot do anything against what has been preordained in his fate from the very beginning by Waheguru.

With the guidance of the Guru, a devotee performs noble deeds and gets rid of all his discomforts with Waheguru's Naam. 14.
The devotee, whom Waheguru gives (implants in the heart) His Naam, enjoys blissfulness, and deals in Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad. Waheguru's treasures of His worship are always full, so with Waheguru's Naam at heart, the body and the mind of the devotee are purified with His worship at any time. 15. Waheguru runs the world with His Huqam and looks after it. He makes the world obey His Will. Those devotees, who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam, are fully detached from the world, and with Waheguru's Naam on their tongue, their mind and body are adorned with noble qualities, oh Nanak. 16.7.

Word Meaning: Oopunna = came into being. Perchhunna = hidden. Saar Kuray = looks after. Puchhaata = recognized (full worth). 1. Sir(i) Sir(i) = respectively. Dhundhaiy = tasks rooted in Maya. Maylay = connects. 2 AavaGaun(u) = birth-death cycle. Chitaiy = thinks of; dream about. Bikaara = lustful acts. 3. Thir(u) = eternal. Mool(i) = root; origin (Waheguru). Daali = branches; Maya. Amrit Baata = Guru's life-sustaining Words. 4. Toleh(i) Toal = evaluates and delivers full justice. 5. Bhaana = like. Kaariy Laayay = put to work. Uvgun = ignoble qualities. Smaayay = absorb; embrace. 6.

MENING: Waheguru became visible (in His nature) when He illuminated Himself. He operates hidden in everybody. Waheguru, which alone knows His worth, looks after everybody. 1. Waheguru, which created Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva, puts everyone into the business of Maya. Waheguru connects those with Him whom He likes, and who recognize only Him (make a connection with Him), with the Guru's guidance. 2.

People dream about many immoral acts, as a result of which they keep taking births and dying. But those who recognize the worth of the eternal Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad, always sing His praise. 3.

Some people are attached to Waheguru (recite His Naam with love) and enjoy bliss, while those who are attached to Maya waste away their precious human life. But only those are rewarded with Waheguru's Naam-Amrit who recite Guru's Amrit-like sweet Shabad. 4.

What can I, who has no quality, say about Waheguru? But the kind Waheguru looks after everybody, evaluates their deeds carefully, and delivers full justice. We have to live by His decision, but the Sikh of the Guru has full faith in Waheguru's judgment. 5.

Waheguru causes the devotees of His choice to perform noble deeds when they kick out their bad qualities and embrace noble ones. With Guru's Shabad and noble qualities, such devotees become connected to the pious Waheguru. 6.

Na Hoyee = does not (acquire). Tthaur = shelter. Joog(i) Joog(i) = in every eon. 10.

Kaar Kuray = performs deeds. Subaayay = all. Dur(i) = (at Lord's) Door. 11.

MEANING: I see only Waheguru wherever I look. I have gotten rid of my evil thinking with Guru's Shabad. It seems that Waheguru is fully mixed into (uniformly present in) His creation. He seems fully happy with Himself (carefree). 7.

The lotus-like human body has to wither (die) eventually, but the ignorant follower of his mind does not realize it, and does not understand the worth of the Guru's Shabad. But with His Shabad, a Guru's Sikh searches Waheguru in his body, and realizes the Lord, and the soul of the world, Waheguru, in there. 8. A devotee, who has enshrined Waheguru's Naam in his heart, is freed from the grasp of many sins committed by his body. Like the never-fading fast colour of madder, the devotee who is imbued with the never-decreasing love for Waheguru is rewarded with the fulfilment of all his wishes. 9.

A money-worshipper may discuss the virtues of Waheguru, but is unable to acquire Him in his mind. He takes birth again and again, but finds no shelter (in Waheguru's Court). But, a Sikh of the Guru sings praise of Waheguru's Divine Knowledge all the time, and believes that Waheguru is the Lord in each eon. 10.
The follower of his mind performs deeds which all become a source of trouble for him. How can he reach Waheguru's Court when he does not have Guru's Shabad at heart? A Guru's Sikh has Guru's Shabad, and Waheguru's Naam embedded in his heart, and he always serves (obeys the Will of) Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts. 11.

Word Meaning: Sojhi = understanding. 12. Puvitt(u) = pure; holy. Neera = water. Ikkna = some. 13. Boojh Boojhaayi = gave the understanding. Vudiyaayi = praise; greatness. Sehj(i) = in blissful state; without any special effort. 14. Nugur = city (human body). Dhuhhaiy = collapses. Dhayri = pile. Phayri = return to the world; rebirth. 15.
Nudr(i) = kind sight. Nirunkaari = devotee of the formless Waheguru. 16.
MEANING: The perfect Guru has given me the understanding (wisdom) because of which I find You present everywhere, wherever I look, oh Waheguru. By reciting Waheguru's Naam all the time, my mind is imbued with His Naam now. 12. The body (and mind) of the devotee, who is imbued with Waheguru's Naam, becomes pure and pious. Without Waheguru's Naam, the man gets drowned in the world-sea, which has (fire of desires) rather than water. Some make a connection with Waheguru with Guru's Shabad, while those who do not realize (make a connection) with Waheguru's Naam keep taking births and dying. 13. The Perfect Guru imparts the understanding (wisdom) that no one can find salvation without Waheguru's Naam. One earns respect only with Waheguru's Naam, and, imbued with love for Waheguru's Naam, he remains in a high spiritual state. 14.
The body-city of the man eventually collapses to become a pile of dirt, and without Guru's Shabad, his birth-death cycle does not end. But those who realize Waheguru in Guru's shelter, sing Waheguru's praise, and merge into Him. 15.
But only that individual acquires Waheguru's Naam on whom He casts His kind sight when Guru's eternal Shabad gets enshrined in his mind. Those who get imbued in Waheguru's Naam become like Him, and are recognized (honoured) in Waheguru's Court as such (like Waheguru), oh Nanak. 16.8.

Word Meaning: Kerna = has to do. Sherna = shelter; dependent upon. Goopt(u) = hidden. Vertaiy = operates. Puchhaata = recognize; make connection. 1. Bhugut(i) = of worship. Veechaara = pondering on. Kurseh(i) = does. 2. Amolo = invaluable. Nudree = who casts kind sight. Tolay Tolo = examines. 3. Dhoor(i) = from the source (beginning). Chookaiy = ends. Phayri = return to the world (rebirths). Joog(i) = in each eon. 4. Oopaaya = created. Dayv = gods. Subaaya = all. Giyan Mutee = the wisdom needed for spiritual knowledge. 5. Poonn(u) = noble deeds (favouring others). Herkh = happiness. Soag(u) = sadness; grief. Bhaara = huge. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru does everything Himself that He has to do. All the living beings are dependent upon Him. He operates hidden in everybody, but is recognized (can be connected) with Guru's Shabad. 1.

Waheguru's treasures are full of His worship, but He grants the ability to ponder on Guru's Shabad only to those whom He likes (to have access to His treasures). When a devotee's mind is imbued with His love, he realizes that Waheguru does only that which He likes. 2.

Waheguru is priceless, like some diamonds and jewels. He evaluates the deeds of everybody with His kind sight. All the living beings are dependent upon Him; He recognizes (evaluates) their needs with His kind sight. 3. The birth-death cycle of the individual on whom Waheguru has kind sight from the very beginning is terminated, and he does not take birth or die again. Such a fortunate individual sings Waheguru's praise day and night and realizes that Waheguru alone is the Supreme Being in every era. 4.
Waheguru has created an attachment for Maya among all living beings in the world. Even Brahma, Vishnu, and other popular gods were strongly influenced by Maya. But those whom You like get attached to You and connected with You through the Guru's Advice, oh Waheguru. 5. The world performs sinful or noble deeds (without making any connection with Waheguru), as a result, they experience happiness or huge suffering in grief. But a Sikh of the Guru connects with Waheguru's Naam and enjoys bliss. 6.

Word Meaning: Kirt(u) = the result of deeds done. Maytunhaara = destroyer. Moakh Dooaara = door of emancipation. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. 7. Moh(i) = in attachment with. Chit(u) = mind. Ghunaa = immense. Aagaiy = in front of; next world. Bherm(i) Bhoollay = misled in illusions. Bhaykhdhaari = in religious garbs. Untkaal(i) = at the time of death. Puchhutaata = repents. 8.
Bhaanaiy = with Will. Kilvikh = sins. Sayti = with. Raata = imbued. 9.
Goon-Nidh = treasure of noble qualities (Waheguru). Tthaak Ruhaayay = keeps under control. Uvgun = bad qualities. Virleen = some rare. 10. Nirmul(u) = pure; holy. Ut(i) = extremely. Bukhshay = forgives; endows. Drirraayay = reinforces. 11.
MEANING: Nobody can undo the results of the deeds he had performed previously. But one can reach the door of emancipation through the Guru's Shabad, as a preordained result of his noble deeds, and he connects with Waheguru by killing his selfishness and ego. 7.
One cannot feel attachment with Waheguru while he is deeply attached to Maya. Huge suffering lies ahead in the next world for the individual who is engrossed in Maya at present. The follower of his mind is misled by his false belief that he can please Waheguru by wearing religious garbs, but he has to repent at the time of his death. 8.
With Waheguru's Will, a devotee sings Waheguru's praise when all his sins and all his suffering are eradicated. He realizes that Waheguru is perfectly pure (pious), and so is Guru's Bani, and his mind gets imbued with his love for Waheguru. 9.
The individual on whom Waheguru casts His kind gaze controls his selfishness, ego, and possessiveness and connects with Him. But some rare devotee realizes in the shelter of the Guru, that Waheguru is the Lord of both - the noble and the ignoble qualities (It is Waheguru's choice as to who gets which qualities). 10. My limitless Waheguru is extremely pure, and connects the devotees with Him with His own Will when they ponder (act) on the Guru's Shabad. He kindly grants (implants) His Naam in the devotee's heart, and reinforces it in him as a result, the body and the mind of the devotee get imbued in His love. 11.

Nanak, Naam(u) milaiy vudiyaayi, joog(i), joog(i) Aiko jaata hey. 16.9.

Word Meaning: Maiyla = impure; filthy. Jot(i) Apaara = Light (Soul) of Waheguru. Boojheh(i) = unserstands; unravels. Rusna = tongue. Sayv(i) = serve; recite Naam. 12. Gurrh = fort. Kaaya = body. Hutt = shops. Sohaiy = looks honourable (is honoured). 13. Amoluk = priceless. Vaychaara = poor in noble qualities. 14. Simrit(i) Shastar = the Hindu religious books. Bisthaara = expanse. Pusriya Pasaara = spread; expanse. 15. Kuray = does. Kuraayay = makes others do. Drirraayay = reinforces. Vudiyaayi = respect; praise. 16.

MEANING: An individual, who ponders on Guru's Advice, realizes that Waheguru's Jot(i) (Soul) is present even in the hearts of the people who have filthy bodies and minds. By reciting the Naam of the Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts, with his tongue, such a devotee kills his haumein and gets his mind purified forever. 12.

The fort-like human body has many shops and bazars (trading centres) to trade for the Naam of the limitless Waheguru. A devotee, who uses Guru's Shabad (acts on it) to trade his bad qualities (haumein) for Waheguru's Naam, gets rid of his haumein, and gets connected with Waheguru, and is honoured in His Court. 13.

The inaccessible, limitless Waheguru is like a priceless jewel. How can a poor (devoid of noble qualities) man know the worth (transcendence) of Waheguru? However, he can evaluate the worth of Waheguru's Naam through the Guru's Shabad when he connects with Waheguru. 14. The Hindu holy books, the Srimad Bhagavatam and the Shastras, discuss the effects of Maya extensively and explain that attachment to Maya is widespread (but offer no solution for connecting with Waheguru). The foolish man reads them, but does not understand the worth of Guru's Shabad; some rare devotee realizes the worth of Guru's Shabad in His shelter. 15.

But the Creator, Waheguru, controls everything, implants Guru's eternal Shabad in the minds of some, and reinforces it (while others remain attached to Maya). Waheguru is recognized as the Supreme Being in every eon, and one earns respect only with Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 16.9.

Word Meaning: Sayvihou = serve (obey His Huqam). Nivaarunhaara = eradicator. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Athaaha = unfathomable. 1. Sach(u) = blissfulness. Vertaayay = is a source of blissfulness. Kmaaveh(i) = deal in. Smaaha = absorbed; attain the state of. 2. Dhoor(i) = with the prewritten fortune. Laaha = benefit; reward. 3. Vunuj(u) = business. Uver(u) = other. Vunjaaray = businessmen; traders. Poonji = wealth. Visaaha = bought. 4. Srisht(i) = world. Saachay = pure; pious. Phaaha = noose. 5. Bhunnaiy = destroys. Ghurraiy = creates. Suvaaray = adorns (with noble qualities). Saajay = creates. Paajay = puts into. Undh(u) = dark (immoral) deeds Jayvrra = chain; noose. 6.

MEANING: The Creator (Waheguru) is the only eternal being; so serve only Him, oh my friends. He eradicates all your troubles with Guru's Shabad. But nobody can tell the worth of the inaccessible, and the incomprehensible Waheguru; only the unfathomable God knows His worth. 1. Waheguru is always blissful and is the source of bliss. He connects some with Him, who serve the eternal Waheguru (recite His Naam) and attain the state of blissfulness with His Naam. 2.

He connects His devotees, who have it prewritten in their fortune with Him on His own, and makes them recite His eternal Naam. The real benefit (wealth) of human life is to sing Waheguru's praise with the Guru's eternal Shabad. 3.

Guru's Sikhs recognize (analyze) themselves (to determine their good and bad qualities) with His guidance and deal in Waheguru's Naam. They do not acknowledge anybody other than Waheguru. The Lord is perfectly pure, and Guru's Sikhs become like the Lord by dealing in Waheguru's Naam, which is their true wealth. 4.

Waheguru Himself creates the world, and enlightens some rare devotees with Guru's Shabad that those who serve Satguru (sing Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad) become like Waheguru, and the noose of the Angel of death for them is severed. 5.
Waheguru destroys, creates, and beautifies the world. He puts some in the business rooted in the attractions of Maya. The money-lovers go around performing dark (immoral) deeds, and the Angel of death tightens His noose around their neck. 6.

Alukh = invisible; incomprehensible. Abhayva = whose secrets cannot ne known. Lukhaaha = shows; reveals. 10.
Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. Jupeen = recite. Gaaha = sing. 11.
MEANING: With His kindness, Waheguru makes some lucky people serve Him (recite His Naam with full faith) with the guidance of the Guru, and implants His Naam in their mind. They recite eternal Waheguru's Naam all the time. The recitation of Waheguru's Naam is the greatest wealth in the world. 7. Waheguru is eternal, and so is His praise (Naam), which He endows to His devotees in the shelter of (through) the Guru when the Naam is enshrined in their minds. The debt of all sins of the devotees with Waheguru's Naam enshrined in their minds is completely paid off, and they are approved in Waheguru's Court. 8. Nobody can know the worth (greatness) of the inaccessible, and incomprehensible Waheguru; only His Naam can be enshrined in the mind with Guru's grace. Nobody can ask the account of the deeds of the devotee who always sings praise of the source of all virtues, Waheguru, with the Guru's Shabad. 9.
Even the gods like Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva serve the invisible Waheguru, whose secrets cannot be known, yet they do not know the end of His limits. However, the Guru reveals the incomprehensible Waheguru to the devotee whom Waheguru favours. 10.
The devotee, whose mind is enlightened by Satguru, embeds only Waheguru's Naam in his mind, and reaches the Residence of Waheguru (gets connected with Him) by reciting His Naam and singing His praise. 11.

Word Meaning: Sayvuk = devotee. Saara = worth. Vaypervaaha = carefree. 12. Dhaavut = rushing (mind). Raakhaiy = control. Ikutt(u) Ghur(i) = in the same house (heart). Aanaiy = brings. Baiyraagi = detached from the world. Taaha = theirs. 13. Pergut(u) = appears. Nij = own. Vaasa = dwelling. 14. Dhiyaaha = recites. 15. Bhaavaan = be liked. Baynunti = request. Dayvhou = grant (Naam). 16.
MEANING: A devotee serves Him when he obeys the Huqam of the limitless Waheguru. But, the follower of his mind does not know the worth of Waheguru's Huqam, and does not realize that it is because of obeying Waheguru's Huqam that one is respected in society, earns praise, and becomes carefree like Waheguru. 12.
A devotee, who recognizes Waheguru's Huqam with the grace of the Guru, is able to control his ever-rushing mind so that it stays in itself; imbued in his love for the Naam, he is always detached from the world, and the jewel-like precious Naam is embedded in his mind. 13.
Waheguru alone operates hidden in the whole world, but appears in the devotee's mind with Guru's grace. A devotee, who sings Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad, gets his mind purified, which stays in its own home (quits taking flights). 14.
The devotees of the inaccessible and the incomprehensible Waheguru always stay in His shelter, yet do not know His full worth. They recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, and are always content in the conditions in which He keeps them. 15.
I pray to Waheguru that He grants me His eternal Naam so that I always sing His praise, and that He likes me, and I always stay absorbed in His Naam, oh Nanak. 16.1.10.

Word Meaning: Sayvun(i) = those who serve. Liv = deep meditation. Ruvviya = present. Omaaha = gusto; zest. 1. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Sookh – Daata = Waheguru. 2. Mumta = worldly attachments. Ikk Rungee = in the love of the “One”. Kaaha = disagreement; quarrel. 3. Ghor Undhaara = deep darkness. Paara = the other end. Muhaa Baiyraagi = completely detached. Laaha = benefit; wealth. 4. Dhoor(i) = from the beginning. Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other (Maya). Vertaaya = created; instilled. Alipto = detached. Vaysaaha = relying on. 5. Bhaiy = fear. Saar = worth. Saaha = breath. 6.

MEANING: Those who serve Satguru are fortunate. They stay in deep meditation on Waheguru’s Naam all the time. They always feel the presence of the source of all comforts, Waheguru, in their mind, and are always zestful with Satguru’s Shabad in God’s s praise. 1.

When Waheguru is kind to a devotee, He connects him with the Guru, which implants Waheguru’s Naam in his heart. When the source of all comforts, Waheguru, takes dwelling in the devotee’s heart, he feels highly zestful with Guru’s Shabad. 2.

When Waheguru is kind to a devotee, He connects him with Him through the Guru (with His benevolence), and the devotee burns away his selfishness, ego, and worldly attachments with the Guru’s Shabad. With love for Waheguru in mind, he always stays detached from the attractions of Maya and has no quarrel with anyone. 3.

It is complete darkness without Satguru. No one can swim to the far side of the world-sea without Guru’s Shabad. Those who are imbued in the Guru’s Shabad stay completely detached from the world. Getting connected with Waheguru with Guru’s Shabad is the real benefit (wealth) for the devotee. 4. Comforts and discomforts are prewritten by Waheguru in the fate of the individuals, and He, Himself, has created love for Maya in the minds of the living beings. The Sikhs of the Guru spend their lives detached from Maya, but the followers of their mind cannot be relied upon (they have fickle minds). 5.

The followers of their mind do not connect with the Guru’s Shabad and do not know the value of fear (respect) for Waheguru. No one can acquire the fearless Waheguru without the fear of the Guru in their mind, and the Angel of death kills them. 6.

Word Meaning: Afuriyo = uncontrollable. Nayrr(i) = near. Mut(u) = lest. Vaypervaaha = carefree. 7.

Sirkaara = reign. Vichaara = helpless. Bunda = servant. Kmaavaiy = obeys. 8.

Akaara = creation; world. Pusriya = spread out. Pasaara = expanse. Taaha = him. 9

Jaata = recognized (got connected with). Kerm(i) Bidhaata = the carver of our fates. Smaaha = absorbed in. 10.

Salaahay = sings praise. Oodhaaray = salvages. Visaaha = bought; acquired. 11.

MEANING: The unstoppable Angel of death cannot be killed (defeated), but He does not go even near the devotee who recites Guru's Shabad. He runs away even from a distance when he hears Guru's Shabad afraid of being killed by the carefree Waheguru. 7.

It is the reign of Waheguru in the universe, so, what can the poor (helpless) Angel of death do? He is a slave of Waheguru, and simply obeys His Huqam. It is with Waheguru's Huqam that the Angel stops the breathing of an individual. 8.

A devotee realizes in the shelter of the Guru that it is Waheguru who has created the world, and the whole expanse of the universe. It is in the shelter of the Guru that a devotee realizes that His Shabad in praise of Waheguru, is the source of all comforts. 9.

A devotee makes connection with Waheguru which is the carver of our fates, in the shelter of the Guru only, and no matter what the eon is, one realizes Him only with Guru's Shabad. A devotee (Sikh) of the Guru gets absorbed in Guru's Shabad (and merges into Waheguru); so, he does not die, and does not take birth again. 10.

Waheguru is inaccessible, incomprehensible, and carefree; a Sikh of the Guru recites His Naam with Guru's Shabad. One finds salvation with Waheguru's Naam only in any of the four eons, and Waheguru's Naam can be acquired only with Guru's Shabad. 11.

Word Meaning: Shaant(i) = calm; in peace. Doormut(i) = ill-advice; evil thinking. 12.

Saach(i) Oopjaiy = Waheguru's Naam is implanted. Jooni = in life forms. Rung(i) Raatay = imbued in love. 13. Soheh(i) = look dignified; are honoured. Suvaaray = adorned (with noble qualities). Sayti = with. Ghur(i) = Waheguru's Residence (union with Him). 14.

Patishaaha = the Emperor (Waheguru). 15.

Daata = Provider; Lord; source. Bigsaiy = heart blooms. Baypervaaha = carefree. 16.

MEANING: Guru's Sikh enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart as a result of which, he is always calm and enjoys bliss. Guru's Sikh realizes the worth of Waheguru's Naam, and severs the chain (shackle) of evil thinking (gets rid of it). 12.

Waheguru's Naam is enshrined in the mind of the Sikh of the Guru, and he stays absorbed in it as a result of which, he does not take rebirths and does not take any life form. Such Sikhs stay imbued in Waheguru's Naam all the time, and earn huge spiritual benefit (wealth). 13. Adorned with Guru's eternal Bani and His Shabad, Guru's Sikhs are honoured in Waheguru's Court. They sing Waheguru's praise day and night, and merge into Him in the high spiritual state. 14. The Perfect Satguru advises His Sikhs through His Shabad to worship Waheguru continuously with full focus of mind. As Waheguru is the Emperor (source) of all noble qualities, the devotee, who sings His praise, also gets his mind purified. 15. Some rare individual, as a Sikh of the Guru, realizes that Waheguru is the only source of noble qualities. Such a devotee always recites Waheguru's Naam as a result of which his heart blooms, and the Naam leads to his union with the carefree Waheguru, oh Nanak. 16.2.11.

MEANING: Serve the inaccessible and the limitless Waheguru whose limits cannot be known by anyone, oh my friends. The devotee, who enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart by the grace of the Guru, acquires the wisdom to connect with the unfathomable Waheguru. 1. Waheguru operates hidden in every heart, but appears in some lucky heart by the Guru's grace. The soul of the world, Waheguru, raises and nourishes everybody and delivers food to everybody. 2. The Perfect Satguru enlightens the mind that the whole world has been created with Waheguru's Huqam. Waheguru's Huqam rules over even the kings, and the individual who obeys Waheguru's Huqam enjoys all comforts. 3.
Satguru is a manifestation of Waheguru, and His Shabad (connects with the) limitless Lord. The world finds emancipation with Satguru's Shabad. The Creator (Waheguru) looks after His creation and gives breath (life) and food to everybody. 4.
Satguru gives understanding (enlightens the mind of) a devotee among millions who remembers Waheguru with love through His Shabad. The source of all comforts, Waheguru, grants His worship to such a devotee who always sings His praise. 5.
The devotees, who serve Satguru (obey His Shabad), become pure like Waheguru, while those who are weak-minded (cannot decide whether to love Maya or obey Guru's Advice) keep taking births and dying. Joani Paayay = is born in different life forms. Bikhiya = poisonous (sensual pleasures). Kaarun(i) = for the sake of. Doraaha = two paths (duality of mind). 9.

Chit(u) Laayay = connects mind. Bheenaiy = is imbued. Salaaha = sing praise. 10. Saacha; eternal; pure; just. Asoor = demons (lust, greed, etc.). Sunghaarun(i) = destroyer. Nistaarun(u) = emancipator. Sir(i) Shaahaan = above the kings. 11.

MEANING: The Perfect Guru reinforces Waheguru's Naam in the devotee's mind who sings Waheguru's praise with His eternal Shabad. The source of all virtues (Waheguru) dwells within everyone and determines the span of their life to the last breath. 7.

The devotee in Guru's shelter feels Waheguru to be always close to him, and feels fully contented by serving Him (obeying His Will) with Guru's Shabad. He zealously serves Waheguru continuously with the Guru's eternal Bani (Shabad). 8.

The spiritually blind and ignorant person forces his mind and unwillingly performs many religious rituals with no spiritual gain, and keeps taking births in many different life forms. To satisfy his sensual pleasures, he engages in gluttony and greed, and because of his evil thinking, he cannot choose the path of righteousness in life. 9.

The Perfect Guru reinforces Waheguru's worship and instills love for Waheguru's Naam with His Shabad in the devotee's mind, whereby his mind gets imbued with Waheguru's praise, His worship, and the devotee feels the presence of Waheguru in his body and mind. 10.

My eternal Waheguru is the destroyer of the five demons, and salvages His devotees with the Guru's Shabad. My Waheguru is eternal, and is the Emperor above all the worldly kings (which are mortal). 11.

Word Meaning: Sachay = true; fully devoted. Bhaayay = liked. Keertun(u) = praise of Waheguru. Soohaayay = dignified; honourable. Nirdhun = poor. Vaysaaha = dependence; wealth. 12. Vichhorraiy = separates. Sahib(u) = Lord. 13. Jaani = understands (makes connection). Kuthee = explained. Akuth Kahaani = the indescribable story of His virtues. Sumbaaha = delivers; gets connected with. 14. Sirjunhaara = carver of our fates. Maytunhaara = who can undo. Sehsa Gunut = doubts; worries. Taaha = to him. 15.

Sachay = approved to be pure. Bhaayay Piyaray = with the spirit of love. Kaaruj(u) Soha = objective is successfully achieved. 16.

MEANING: Only those are the true devotees whom Waheguru likes. They are honoured in Waheguru's Court when they sing His praise with Guru's Shabad. They sing Waheguru's praise all the time with Guru's eternal Bani (Shabad). Waheguru's Naam is the true wealth of a poor man. 12. Waheguru never separates His devotees from Him once He has connected them with Him. They always praise Him with the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru is the only Lord of everybody, and His praise can be sung (Naam recited) with the Guru's Shabad. 13. Nobody can connect with Waheguru without the Guru's Shabad. He Himself describes (reveals) His indescribable story (of His majesty). He Himself is the source of Guru's Shabad. (Guru and Waheguru are the same), and one connects with Waheguru by reciting His Naam (Guru's Shabad). 14.

Waheguru is the Creator of the world and the carver of our fates. Nobody can erase (undo) the prewritten fate of a man. You, Yourself, endow Your Naam to a devotee through the Guru, oh Waheguru. Such a devotee does not suffer from any doubts or worries. 15.
Your devotees serve You with Guru's Shabad with love, and are approved to be pure in every way in Your Court, oh Waheguru. Imbued in the love of Waheguru's Naam, they are always detached from worldly attractions, and their objective (to merge into Waheguru) is successfully completed with His Naam, oh Nanak. 16.3.12.

Word Meaning: Khayl(u) Ruchaaya = created a drama (of the world). Vigsaiy = blooms. Rus = sensual pleasures; senses; likes and dislikes. Dayhi = body. 1.
Vaajaiy Paun = breathing process. Shakti = Maya. Oolti Hovaiy = reversal of thinking. Taaha = that devotee. 2. Chaanun(u) = enlightenment. Vertaiy = operates. Beeya

= other. Boodh(i) = wisdom; thinking. 3. Gehn = deep; high. Gut(i) = spiritual state; transcendence. Vukhaanaiy = describe. Giyani = knowledgeable; with high wisdom. Boojhaiy = understands. Sift Salaaha = praise (of Waheguru). 4.
Vust(u) Apaara = the invaluable of Naam. Kupt = doors (of brain). Khoolaavunhaara = opener. Sehjay = in a peaceful state of mind. Trishna Ugun(i) = fire of desires. 5.
Undar Khojay = search inside. Kaahay = why? 6.
MEANING: My Waheguru has created the drama of the world in such a way that nobody resembles completely with someone else (even the identical twins have different irises-amazing!!). Waheguru's mind blooms (He enjoys) watching the differences He has created. He has given the senses the ability to enjoy different tastes in the body. 1.
One breathes because He created the mechanism for breathing. He has also created senses (attractions) for Maya in the human body. However, one's thinking is reversed by Guru's grace, and he acquires the jewel-like, precious Divine Knowledge with Guru's Shabad. 2.
The darkness of ignorance and the enlightenment of spirituality, too, have been created by Waheguru, and one realizes that it is Waheguru alone who operates in the world, and there is none other like Him. When one recognizes the self (that he is a part of Waheguru) in the shelter of the Guru, he acquires the wisdom by which his mind blooms like a lotus flower. 3.
Only Waheguru knows His high transcendence; others just describe Him by listening to others. A spiritually wise devotee learns in the Guru's shelter that one should sing praise of the eternal Waheguru. 4.
Waheguru's invaluable Naam is present in the human body (mind), and Waheguru Himself opens the doors of the devotee's mind who drinks the Amrit of the Naam in the high spiritual state in the shelter of the Guru, whereby the fire of his desires is put out. 5.
Some rare devotee acquires the understanding in Guru's shelter that Waheguru has put all the senses in the human body; so, he searches for His Naam inside his body (mind), and does not leave home to go to forests to search for him. 6.

Word Meaning: Vin(u) Chaakhay = without tasting. Saad = taste; blissfulness. Amrapud(u) = state of immortality. Rus(u) = sweet taste; enjoyment. 7. Aap(u) Puchhaanaiy = (if) recognizes self. Vukhaanaiy = recites. Chookaaha = is removed; ends. 8. Guvaayay = loses; gets rid of. Sookh-Daata = source of all comforts (Waheguru). Soha = is adorned; earns respect. 9. Sayvuk = servant; devotee. Bukhshay = endows. Permul Vaas = fragrance of sandalwood. 11.
MEANING: One takes in the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, but no one can enjoy its blissfulness without tasting it. By taking in the Amrit of the Naam, one attains the spiritual state of immortality and keeps enjoying the blissfulness of the Guru's Shabad. 7.
The devotee, who analyzes his inner self, acquires all the virtues, and recites Waheguru's

Naam with the Guru's Shabad. Imbued in Waheguru's Naam day and night, such a devotee severs all his bonds with Maya. 8.
Such a devotee acquires everything with his service to the Guru, and gets rid of his selfishness, ego, and possessive nature. When Waheguru becomes kind to Him, he adorns the devotee with Guru's Shabad (to be approved by Him). 9.
Guru's Bani, His Shabad, is the real Amrit (immortalizes the devotee) who recites Waheguru's Naam day and night with the Shabad. The heart of such a devotee becomes perfectly pure for Waheguru to take dwelling in there. 10. Imbued always in Waheguru's love, the devotee serves Waheguru by singing His praise with Guru's Shabad. Waheguru Himself endows the devotee with the Guru's Shabad and connects him with Him, and the devotee feels as if his mind has been fragranced with sandalwood. 11.

Word Meaning: Akuth(u) = indescribable. Kuthay = discuss. Salaahay = sings praise. 12. Tthaur = shelter. Kerm Kmaayay = performs those deeds. Bikhiya = poisonous sensual pleasures. Khojaiy = looks for. 13. Maahay = inside. Alukh(u) = invisible; incomprehensible. Athaaha = unfathomable. 14. Daatay= source of benevolence. Lukh Koati = millions. Vussiya = takes dwelling. 15. Dhoor(i) = from the beginning; with Waheguru's Will. Sohaayay = adorned (to be acceptable). Gooni = the source of all virtues (Waheguru). Smaaha = absorbed. 16.
MEANING: Praise of my eternal, indescribable, and carefree Waheguru can be sung only with the Guru's Shabad. The source of all noble qualities, Waheguru, connects His devotees with Him, who enjoy the blissfulness of the Shabad. 12.
The follower of his mind is misled by the attractions of Maya and finds no shelter (peace of mind) anywhere. He performs only those deeds that have been preordained by Waheguru in his fate. Intoxicated with the poisonous sensual pleasures, he keeps looking for them, and as a result, he suffers in rebirths and deaths. 13.
Waheguru Himself implants Guru's Shabad (in His own praise) in the minds of His devotees, so that He sings His own praise. Waheguru Himself is the source of all virtues. The incomprehensible and the unfathomable Waheguru is eternal, and so is Guru's Shabad. 14.
But nobody can acquire the noble qualities of Waheguru without the benevolence of the Guru, even if they perform millions of prevalent rituals. It is with Guru's Shabad that a devotee sings Waheguru's praise, which takes dwelling in the devotee's heart with the benevolence of the Guru. 15. Only those devotees get connected with Waheguru, whom He connects with His own Will, and who are adorned with Guru's eternal Shabad. Such devotees sing Waheguru's praise all the time and get absorbed in Him, oh Nanak. 16.4.13.

Word Meaning: Nihchul = non-perishable. Soyee = the same (Waheguru). Sojhi = understanding; enlightenment. Bheenay = imbued. Seel(u) = calmness; patience. Sunaaha = armour. 1. Rung(u) = love (for God). Sachiyaara = pure; having noble qualities. Nau-Nidh(i) = (the source of the) nine treasures (God). Laaha = benefit; attachment. 2. Ruyyiut(i) = subjects. Doormut(i) = ill-advice; poor thinking. Doyee =indecisiveness. Aik(u) = the "One" (God). Tinaaha = of those (Waheguru). 3. Tisaiy Tay = from that (Waheguru). Gut(i) = high spiritual state. 4. MEANING: A devotee gets the enlightenment from the Perfect Guru that Waheguru alone is non-perishable and everlasting. Patience is the armour of such a devotee, and imbued in the blissfulness of Waheguru's Naam, he always recites His Naam. 1.

With love for Waheguru in mind, his mind is always pure (has noble qualities), and he recites the Naam of the dear Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru's Naam, which is the source of all the nine treasures, takes dwelling in the devotee's heart who rises above all the (false) benefits of Maya. 2.

The kings and their subjects both suffer from ignoble thinking and indecisiveness (duality of mind). They cannot have the firmness of their mind without serving the Guru. They always enjoy blissfulness when they serve the "One" whose reign is everlasting. 3.
No one can save them from rebirths; only Waheguru controls births and deaths. One should recite Waheguru's Naam all the time in the shelter of the Guru because one acquires emancipation and a high spiritual state from Waheguru. 4.
Permanent control over the senses can be acquired only at the Guru's Door, where one kills (gets rid of) his selfishness, ego, and rage with the Guru's Shabad. One acquires ongoing bliss, patience, and contentment by serving the Guru. 5.
Haumein and worldly attachments take root and flourish in the world, which is destroyed by them when people forget Waheguru's Naam. But without serving the Guru, one cannot enshrine the Naam, which is the real wealth of human life. 6.

Gurmukh(i) hovaiy, su tutt(u) bilovaiy, rusna Hur(i) rus(u) taaha hey. 11. -------
Word Meaning: Amar(u) = Huqam. Soohaava = comforting. Punch Shabad = the five kinds of musical instruments. Vaaja Vaaya = play music. Kaaruj(u) = task. Soohayla = in comfort. Kayha = of what comfort? 7. Khin = a short moment. Dooji = (love for someone) other (than Waheguru). Sunjog(u) = union. Vijog(u) = separation. Kirt(u) = the results of previous deeds. Chullaiy = erased; undone. Chulaaha = trying to erase or change. 8. Kmaayay = work towards. Vudiyaayi = respect; praise. Taaha = him. 9. Rus Kus = different tastes. Pind(u) = body; belly. Bhaykh = religious garb. Roag(u) = ailment. Bishta = filth (of immoral activities). 10. Baad(u) Vukhaaneh(i) = takes part in useless discussions (t boost ego). Braham = Waheguru. Tutt(u) = the essence (Waheguru's Naam). Bilovaiy = churns; ponders on. Taaha = his. 11.
MEANING: One understands Waheguru's Huqam through the Guru's Shabad, finds it comforting, and feels as if the five kinds of musical instruments are playing in his mind. With Waheguru's Naam at heart, such a devotee finds every task in life to be comfortable. Without the Guru's Shabad, no task provides any spiritual comfort to the individual. 7.
(Without Guru's Shabad), The human mind does not find peace, and the man feels happy at one moment, and sad in the next; and because of his love for Maya, his evil-thinking mind is not contented with any type of job (and he cannot achieve union with Waheguru). Union and separation (with Waheguru or with worldly things) are prewritten by Waheguru in one's fate based on his previous deeds. No one has the ability to change their fate, no matter how hard they try. 8. One becomes emancipated while still living in the world by following the Guru's Shabad as he stays absorbed in Waheguru's love. With Guru's grace, he does not suffer from the ailment of selfishness and ego and earns respect. 9.

Without the Guru's Shabad, one indulges in enjoying the different tastes of life and enlarges one's belly. He does wear religious garbs, but does not live by the Guru's Shabad (His Advice). He stays absorbed in the filth of sensual pleasures and suffers heavily from this serious disease. 10. He reads the Vedas, but only to take part in spiritually useless discussions, and does not recite the Guru's Shabad to recognize the Supreme Being, which is present in his heart. The Sikh of the Guru, ponders on His Shabad to acquire Waheguru's Naam and enjoys the sweet taste of Guru's Shabad by reciting it with his tongue. 11.

Word Meaning: Vuth(u) = (the invaluable) thing (Waheguru's Naam). Chhodeh(i) = ignores. Dhaveh(i) = rushes. Un Rus = in other tastes. Pheeki =tasteless. Rus(u) = blissfulness. Mool(i) Na = not at all. 12. Bherm(u) = misbeliefs; illusions. Bhutaaro = husband (the guided or the controller). Doormut(i) = evil thinking. Khooaaro = suffers humiliation. Doojaiy Laaya = attached to the other (Maya). Soopnaiy = in dream. 13.
Kunchun = gold-like. Bhoag Bhoagay = enjoys blissfulness. Mehlaan = palace-like (hearts). Gaiyr-Mehl = who does not own any palace (home) (Waheguru). Bhaana = Will. 14.
Davunhaara = the Provider (God). Chaara = ability to resist or take away. Shabad = Huqam. Athaaha = unfathomable; incomprehensible. 15.
Jeeou = soul. Pind(u) = body. Kayra = of. Tthaakur = Lord. Smaaha = absorbed. 16.

MEANING: The ignorant, and the spiritually blind follower of his mind, does not recognize the blissfulness of the presence of the real invaluable thing (Waheguru's Naam) in his heart, and rushes to the forests in His search. Imbued in the tastes of other things in life, he talks about spiritually tasteless things, and enjoys absolutely no sweet taste of Waheguru's Naam. 12. The Maya-worshipper's mind is guided by his misbeliefs and his illusions. He dies a spiritual death and suffers humiliation all the time. Because of his lust and his rage, his mind is attached to Maya, and he gets no comfort (peace of mind) even in his dreams. 13. But a devotee, whose life is guided by Guru's Shabad, becomes pure at heart like gold, and enjoys blissfulness with love for Waheguru's Naam all the time. He finds Waheguru present in his heart, and stays absorbed in Him by understanding His Will. 14.
However, the benevolent Waheguru bestows His Naam only to those whom He likes, and nobody has the ability to force Him to change His decision. He connects His favourite devotees with Him with Guru's Shabad, and His Huqam is incomprehensible. 15.
My Waheguru is eternal, and our bodies and souls are given by Him. One acquires Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, and gets absorbed in Him by reciting His Naam, oh Nanak. 16.5.14.

MEANING: The Sikh of the Guru acquires Divine Knowledge with the focus of his mind on the Guru's Shabad, and unlike the yogis or some other faiths, he does not need to play on any musical instrument, or to ponder on the Vedas (they are subsumed in the Guru's Shabad). A Sikh of the Guru performs only those deeds that are liked (approved) by Waheguru, and he becomes connected with the Perfect Waheguru. 1.

A Sikh of the Guru reverses the thinking of his mind from Maya towards Waheguru, and plays the music of the Guru's Shabad. Imbued in Waheguru's love, the Guru's Sikh is fully detached from the world, and makes his mind a dwelling for Waheguru's Naam (his mind stays focused on Waheguru's Naam). 2. The Guru's Teachings are life-sustaining and are in praise of Waheguru. The Guru has uttered His holy Shabad in Waheguru's praise with deep love. With Guru's Shabad, my mind is imbued with the love for Waheguru, and one can merge into Waheguru with Guru's eternal Shabad. 3.

The Sikh of the Guru purifies his mind by taking a dip in the holy pool of Guru's Amrit-like Shabad; his mind does not catch any filth again, and he gets absorbed in Waheguru. He reinforces Waheguru's eternal worship in his mind, and always deals in His Naam. 4. The conversations of a Sikh of the Guru are about Waheguru, and he sees Him everywhere with his eyes. The daily dealings of the Sikh of the Guru are also rooted in Waheguru's praise. He always keeps Waheguru in mind day and night and makes others recite His Naam. 5. The Sikh of the Guru recites the supreme and eternal Shabad of the Guru and shares only Waheguru's Naam with others. The Sikh serves Waheguru alone and sings Waheguru's praise by reciting the Guru's Shabad for others. 6.

Word Meaning: Sojhi Paayay = is enlightened. Guvaayay = overcomes. Paurri = steps to union with Waheguru. 7. Sunjum(u) = control on senses. Saar(u) = supreme. Mokh = emancipation. Bhaayay = with love. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. 8. Khoaj = by searching. Soonaayay = shares with others. Kersi = does. Bhaavaiy = likes. 9. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in love. 10. Mun Hutth(i) = unwillingly; but with the obstinacy of mind. Chheejaiy = becomes spiritually weaker. Bheejaiy = imbues. 11.

MEANING: A Sikh gets enlightenment by the Teachings of the Guru, and he overcomes his selfishness, ego, and illusions of Maya. Guru's Teachings are like a ladder which leads the Sikh to have union with the high (transcendent) Waheguru. The Sikh always sings Waheguru's praise with his mind focussed at Waheguru's Door (Naam). 7.

The Sikh has an exemplary high level of morality in his daily performance, in which he keeps control of his sensual pleasures, recites Waheguru's Naam, and attains emancipation. Imbued in the love of Waheguru's worship, he kills his selfishness and ego, and gets absorbed in Waheguru. 8. The Sikh of the Guru searches Waheguru in his mind, and stays focused on Waheguru's Naam, and explains the importance of Waheguru's Naam to others. He performs only those deeds that are liked by Waheguru. 9.

Waheguru takes dwelling in a devotee's heart when He likes, and the devotee stays always imbued in His love with the Will of Waheguru. Waheguru implants His Naam in the devotee's heart with His own Will. 10. An individual who unwillingly performs rituals out of persistence suffers from a weakened spirituality. His mind does not get imbued in Waheguru's love, even by wearing religious symbols. On the contrary, intoxicated with poisonous sensual pleasures, he slips into troubles and stays in bigger and bigger troubles. 11.

Word Meaning: Kmaayay = works towards. Sum = equal; the same. 12.

Sooheh(i) = looks dignified; is honoured by Waheguru. Pervaan = is approved. 13.
Chookaaya = got rid of. Sobha = praise. 14.
Aapay = Waheguru, Himself. Thaap(i) = having created. Oothaapay = demolishes; destroys. Laykhay Paayaynda = is given credit. 15. Veechaari = ponderers. 16.
MEANING: The Sikh of the Guru performs deeds which become the source of comforts for him. He gains a deep understanding of life and death (that the soul is immortal and simply changes bodies). A devotee who treats life and death equally is liked by Waheguru. 12.
With Guru's Shabad, the Sikh recognizes life and death as Waheguru's Will. So, when such a Sikh of the Guru dies, he is approved by Waheguru and is honoured in His Court. The mind of the Sikh does not wander around, and stays in itself, and he does not suffer from rebirths. 13. Those who are highly fortunate get connected with the Guru (take His shelter); they overcome their haumein and the worldly attachments. Their purified mind does not get filthy with evil thoughts again, and they are honoured in Waheguru's Court. 14.
Waheguru does everything Himself and makes others do whatever He wishes. He creates the world, looks after it, and destroys it with His Will. Waheguru likes the service of a devotee to the Guru, and rewards the devotee when He listens to him reciting His Naam. 15.
The Sikh of the Guru deals only in Waheguru's Naam, and he does not catch the filth of immoral activities. Imbued in Waheguru's Naam, he always ponders on His Naam, and stays absorbed in His Naam, oh Nanak. 16.1.15.

Word Meaning: Srisht(i) = world. Saaji = created. Nivaaji = adorned; made beautiful. Niyaayoun = justice. Saachay = purified. Saach(i) = with the Naam. 1. Kaaya Koat(u) = fort-like body. Akaara = world. Pusriya = spread out. Pasaara = expanse. Bhusmaiy = of dust. Dhayri = pile. Khayhoo = dust. 2. Kunchun = gold (pure). Apaara = the limitless (God). Ruvviya = is present. Preetum = Dear (Waheguru). 3.
Mundar(u) = palace. Suvaaray = adorns. Mooraaray = the destroyer of demons (God. Vunjun(i) = do business. Vapaari = businessmen. Nudree = with kind sight. 4.
Soocha = pure. J(i) = Jo = which. Nivaaray = gets rid of. Kerta = creator (Waheguru). 5. Niraali = detached from Maaya; severer of worldly bonds. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru created the world with His Huqam (laws), and beautified it with its nature. The eternal Waheguru delivers perfect justice and connects the purified devotees with Him with His Naam. 1. The affairs of the whole world are run by the expanse of Maya, and the fort-like human body is attracted to its illusions. Without the Guru's Shabad, the human body is nothing more than a pile of dust, and will mix with dust at the end. 2.
But the body that has the Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's Naam) enlightening it is pure like gold. The Sikh of the Guru always sings the virtues of Waheguru, and enjoys the bliss of union with Him. 3. The body, which Waheguru chooses for His dwelling, is adorned by Him, and the destroyer of the demons, Waheguru, takes His dwelling in there. The devotee-traders deal in His Naam when He connects them with Him with His kind sight. 4.
The devotee, who realizes the worth of Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, and adorns his soul with noble qualities, gets rid of his rage, and becomes pure in mind. But it is Waheguru, who does everything, and makes His devotees (exhorts them to) recite His Naam, and Himself takes dwelling in their hearts. 5.
Waheguru's worship is mind-purifying and severs devotees' bonds with Maya as he washes the filth of evil thoughts from his mind and body by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. With His benevolence, Waheguru makes His devotee worship Him (sing His praise) because of which, the devotee stays imbued in His love day and night. 6.

Disuntar(u) bhuvvaiy, untar(u) nuhhi bhaalay. Maya moh(i) baandha Jum kaalay. Jum kee phaansi kubhoon na tootaiy, doojaiy bhaayay bhemaayaynda. 11. ---------

Word Meaning: Munooaa = mind. Dhaavaiy = rushes. Pullar(i) = (trade noble qualities) for chaff (worthless qualities). Tiyaag(i) = abandoning; giving up. Bhaytay = meeting with.

Tthaur = shelter; peacefulness. Khayl(u) = drama. 7. Uprumpur = endless. Veechaari = contemplator. Kerni = Kaar = performance of deeds. Saari = supreme. Bukhsh(i) = by bestowing. 8. Poora = Perfect. Muhha Bul = immensely powerful. Soora = valiant. 9. Virla = rare. Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Rusna = tongue. 10. Disuntar(u) = many foreign places. Bhaalay = searches for. Baandha = tied up. Jum Kaalay = Angel of death. Phaansi = noose. Bhermaayaynda = taken through. 11.

MEANING: In the palace-like human body, the human mind rushes in every direction, and suffers heavily when the individual trades his noble qualities for the worthless (harmful) vices. He cannot find peace anywhere without Satguru's shelter. But it is Waheguru again who creates such dramas in life. 7. The limitless Waheguru Himself ponders, makes decisions, and connects the individuals with Him who have supreme performance of noble deeds. The individuals are incapable of performing any noble deeds or of connecting with Waheguru; it is Waheguru who connects them to Him through His benevolence. 8.
Waheguru Himself connects His devotee with the Perfect Satguru who becomes an immensely powerful valiant (to fight against the evil demons). Waheguru connects the devotee, whose mind gets attached to Him, with Him, and accords him honour. 9.
However, some rare individuals realize in the shelter of the Guru that Waheguru is present in their own hearts. When the devotee recites Waheguru's Naam with his tongue, the treasure of the Naam, Waheguru, takes residence in his heart. 10.
The Maya-engrossed man wanders around in foreign lands in search of Waheguru, but does not search for Him in his own heart. With deep attachment to Maya, he is caught in the net of the Angel of Death. Because of his love for Maya, the Angel's noose is never cut off, and he is taken through many different life forms. 11.

Nanak daas(u) kuhhaiy baynunti, Sach(i) Naam(i) chit(u) laayaynda. 16.2.16.

Word Meaning: Jup(u) = recitation of mantras. Tup(u) = enduring hardships. Sunjum = control on senses. Jub Lug = as long as. Kamaahi = work for. 12. Subul = powerful. Pasaara = expanse. 13. Baiysuntar = fire. Chookaayanda = ends. 14.
Ikk(u) = some. Gerb(i) = conceit. Viyaapay = happens; influences. Aapay = themselves. Khubur(i) = news; information. Unt(u) = at the end. 15.
Bidh(i) = the means. Daas(u) = slave. Baynunti = request. Chit(u) = mind. 16.

MEANING: So long as one does not work (perform deeds) according to the Guru's Shabad (His Teachings), no recitation of mantras, self-torturing and efforts to control one's senses work to have union with Waheguru. One achieves union with Waheguru only with the Guru's Shabad and gets absorbed in Him. 12.
The world is overpowered by powerful lust and rage; one keeps suffering from them, no matter how many religious rituals one performs. One enjoys blissfulness by serving the Guru when he gets connected with Waheguru with the Guru's Shabad. 13.
All bodies are made up from the natural elements of air, water, and fire, but everybody is still attached to Maya. But one's love for Maya is eradicated when he connects with Waheguru, who created the man and the Maya. 14.

Many are overpowered by their love for Maya and by their conceit, so much so that only selfishness and ego operate in their bodies and minds. They are totally unaware of the Angel of Death and repent as they leave the world. 15.
Only the Creator knows the ways to avoid recurring death, and the Sikh of the Guru makes a connection with Waheguru with His Shabad. Nanak makes this humble submission that such a devotee gets attached to Waheguru's Naam. 16.2.16.

be. Saajay = creates. Saar Kuray = looks after. Rijk(u) = food and other supplies. 3. Alukh = invisible; incomprehensible. Apaara = limitless. Pervaara = family (of creations). Puchhaaneh(i) = knows the self's greatness. Boojhaayaynda = reveals. 4.
Pataal = the underworlds. Pooriyaan = centres of population. Loe = worlds. Aakaara = the visible world. Kuraara = powerful. Dhaahay = demolishes. 5.
Slaahay = praises. Vaypervaahay = carefree. 6.
MEANING: With Guru's Shabad, one can connect with Waheguru, which is the source of mercy (compassion), which has been here from the very beginning and before the eons, and which is the provider for the whole world. Those who serve Waheguru become like Him, and Waheguru Himself connects them with Him. 1
All the living beings are dependent upon Waheguru for their survival, but nobody knows the worth (greatness) of the inaccessible and incomprehensible God. Waheguru runs their life the way He wants, and puts them on the path of righteousness. 2.
Waheguru, which is here now and will be here in the future, creates the universe all by Himself, and there is none other like Him. The source of all comforts, Waheguru, looks after everyone and provides them with food and other necessities. 3.
Nobody knows the limits of the inaccessible, incomprehensible, and the limitless Waheguru. Only He knows His greatness and reveals Himself with the Guru's Shabad. 4.
His powerful Huqam operates in all the underworlds, in centres of populations, and in all parts of the universe. He creates and destroys things with His Huqam, and connects His devotees with Him with His Huqam. 5.
The individual, who understands His Huqam, praises it (accepts it gladly). One acquires the kind of wisdom (thinking) that the inaccessible, incomprehensible, and the carefree Waheguru injects in him, and enlightens him with Guru's Shabad. 6.

Word Meaning: Undin(u) = all the time. Arja = life span. Chhijdi = decreases. Saakhi = witnesses. Chaytaiy = remembers. Moorra = foolish. Kaal(u) = death. Rooaayaynda = frightens. 7. Seetul(u) = peaceful. Bherm(i) = illusions. Bolaayaynda = utter; speak. 8. Kerm-Bidhaata = carver of out fates. Jut(i) Put(i) = caste and clan. 9.
Kutthoar = hard like stone. Abhaaga = unfortunate. Kerm(u) = good fortune; Waheguru's benevolence. Sehjay = without any special effort. 10. Lulh Chauraasih = 8.4 million (life forms). Maanus = human. Junum = life. Bishta = filth of sensual enjoyments. 11
MEANING: Night and day are the witnesses (are proof) that one's life span goes on decreasing all the time. The blind and the foolish follower-of-his-mind does not remember this fact (does not realize) that frightening death looms over his head (and still does not remember Waheguru). 7. The mind and the body of the individual, who comes to the shelter of the Guru, become peaceful as all his misconceptions and his fears are eradicated (by the Guru). Singing Waheguru's praise with Guru's Bani (Shabad), he is always blissful. 8.
The highly fortunate devotee, who makes a connection with the carver of our fates, Waheguru, with Guru's Shabad, gets rid of his haumein, and Waheguru, which becomes the caste and the clan for the devotee, absorbs him (makes him a part of His). 9.

The individual, who is attached to Maya, becomes stone-hearted (loses compassion for others), and the unfortunate is misled by his misgivings. However, he connects with the Guru when Waheguru becomes benevolent toward him, and he enjoys bliss. 10.
Waheguru has created 8.4 million different life forms (a Hindu belief), but it is in the human form that He is worshiped (only humans can worship Waheguru). Without Waheguru's worship, the man keeps enjoying the filth of sensual pleasures, and takes rebirths to enjoy the same filth. 11.

Word Meaning: Drirraayay = reinforce. Jiyoun Bhaavaiy = as He likes. 12. Tutt(u) = reality; the root (Waheguru). Bhoolaayaynda = misleads. 13. Sir(i), Sir(i) = respectively. Dhundhaiy Laayay = dealings in Maya. Thaap(i) = by creating. Oothaapay = destroys. 14. Gehr = unfathomable. Gumbheera = never changing. Dheera = becomes peaceful (contented). 15. Niraalum = detached. Loyee = world. Ghut Untar(i) = in the heart. 16.
MEANING: If one is fortunate, the Guru reinforces Waheguru's worship in his mind; no one gets motivation to worship Waheguru without good fortune. Waheguru does everything Himself, and makes others do whatever He wishes – He runs the affairs of the world, the way He wishes. 12. The Simritis and the Shastras do not know the limits of Waheguru; the foolish and the (spiritually) blind man reads them, but does not recognize the real root (origin) of the universe (Waheguru). But it is Waheguru who makes people do whatever He wishes, and He Himself misleads them through misconceptions. 13.
Waheguru makes individuals do whatever He wishes, and puts them in Maya-related affairs. He creates, demolishes, and looks after the world, and reveals Himself to the devotee in the shelter of the Guru. 14.
The eternal Waheguru is unfathomable and is never-changing; the man becomes peaceful (contented) when He sings Waheguru's praise all the time. Nobody knows the real worth (magnanimity) of the inaccessible and the incomprehensible Waheguru, but He takes dwelling in the mind of the devotee who is in the shelter of the Guru. 15.
A rare individual in Satguru's shelter understands that Waheguru is fully detached from the world, but He still involves people in Maya-related affairs. With Guru's Wisdom (Advice), Waheguru takes residence in the heart of the Guru's devotee, and connects him with Him, oh Nanak. 16.3.17.

Dhiyaayaynda = recites. 5. Jayvud = as great as. Laaha = benefit. Naamo = only Naam. 6.

MEANING: (Hindu holy books say that You created pitch darkness for 36 eons), but only You know the exact situation, oh, the Creator, Waheguru. Nobody else has the ability to know Your secrets, so what can they say or explain? Only You know Your greatness. 1. Waheguru has created the drama of the whole world, which is His greatness. The eternal Waheguru has created all the different varieties of living beings and other things, and creates and destroys them. 2. The devotee, who obeys the Guru's Shabad, realizes that the creation of the world is like an acrobatic show of an acrobat. Such a devotee attaches his mind to Waheguru and stays detached from the world. 3.

Waheguru is present hidden in every heart, but appears with the Divine musical notes of Guru's Shabad, which Waheguru creates Himself. Guru's Shabad in praise of Waheguru resonates in every heart, revealing Waheguru's presence there. 4.
A devotee overcomes his haumein with Guru's Shabad, and has full faith that whatever Waheguru plans to do, happens for sure. Through the Guru, Waheguru bestows honour on some rare devotee who recites His Naam only. 5.
There is no benefit greater than serving the Guru. A devotee of the Guru sings praise of Waheguru with His Naam, and enshrines it in his mind. Waheguru's Naam is the source of all comforts, and one benefits (spiritually) only from the Naam. 6.

Hur(i) kaiy Naam(i), tun(u), mun(u) seetul(u) hoa, sehjay sehj smaayaynda. 11. -------
Word Meaning: Buhou = many. Kerm = rituals. Kmaaveh(i) = perform. Vudhay = increase. Vikaara = vices. 7. Kisaiy = some rare. Bundhun = bonds; attachments. Torreh(i) = break. Mookti = emancipation. Ghur = mind; spiritual state. 8. Gunut Gunaiy = worries and calculations about wealth. Julaiy = suffers heart burning. Sehsa = worries; doubts. 9. Sach(u) = Waheguru. Sach(i) = with the Naam. Pergut(u) = appears. Rung(i) Raata = imbued in the love (of God). 10. Kilvikh = sins. Kaatunhaara = the destroyer (God). Seetul(u) = peaceful. Sehjay = without any special effort. Sehj(i) = with peaceful mind. 11.
MEANING: The whole world suffers without Waheguru's Naam. People perform many, many rituals in the belief that their sins will be washed away, so they feel safe to commit more evil acts. How can they enjoy comforts (peace of mind) without Waheguru's Naam? Actually, they suffer more troubles without the Naam. 7.
Some rare individual is enlightened by Guru's grace that Waheguru does everything, and makes people do things of His choice. The Sikh of the Guru breaks all the worldly bonds and attains the spiritual state of emancipation. 8.
The individual who calculates wealth burns in the fire of worry. His doubts and worries about his immoral acts never go away. The Sikh of the Guru gets rid of his doubts and worries with Waheguru's Naam, and gets absorbed into Him. 9.
One acquires Waheguru's Naam only if He grants it to him (implants in the devotee's heart) and Waheguru appears in his mind with Guru's grace. With the grace of the Guru, and imbued in Waheguru's love, the Sikh sings Guru's praise, and enjoys blissfulness. 10.
Waheguru's Naam subsumes the recitation of all mantras, self-torturing, and efforts to control one's senses (the devotee does not need them), as all the sins of the devotee are eradicated by Waheguru. The devotee's mind acquires peace of body and mind with Waheguru's Naam, and he easily gets absorbed in the high spiritual state. 11.

Nanak, Naam(u) smaal(i), sudaa Tu Gurmutee munn(i) vusaayaynda. 16.4.18.

Word Meaning: Loabh(u) = greed. Maiylaiy = filthy. Mul(u) = filth. Koorrou Koorr(u) = only Maya-related; dishonest. Vapaara = dealings. Koorr(u) = lies. 12.
Ko = rare. Sehsa = doubt; worries. Bhaanaiy = by His Will. 13.
Sirunda = creator. Khupaayay = destroys. 14.
Anyak = countless. Jutun = efforts. Indree = senses. 15.
Mayra, Tayra = mine and yours; discrimination. Jeeya = living beings. 16.

MEANING: The human mind, which is already filthy with greed, attracts more filth and suffers because of its filthy acts. The dishonest man deals in dishonest things and suffers badly by telling lies. 12. Some rare individuals embed Guru's pure Bani in their hearts and, with Guru's grace, dispel their doubts and worries. He obeys Waheguru's Will in his life day and night, and enjoys bliss by remembering (reciting) Waheguru's Naam. 13.
Waheguru is the creator of the universe, and He Himself creates and destroys things. The Guru's Sikh always sings Waheguru's praise (in happiness and in sadness), and enjoy bliss by connecting with Him. 14.
A man may try countless different approaches, but he cannot control his senses, and everybody burns in the fire of lust and rage. But he can control his mind (and his senses) by serving Satguru, kill his desires, and attain complete peace. 15.
Waheguru Himself has created the feeling of discrimination about others in the minds of all His living beings. One should always remember Waheguru's Naam, which gets enshrined in his mind with the Advice of the Guru, oh Nanak. 16.4.18.

Word Meaning: Til(u) Na Tmaayay = Has no desire – not even the size of a sesame seed. Vaypervaaha = carefree; indifferent. Uppurr(i) = reach. 1. Nihchou = for sure. 2. Chaudaah Bhuvun = 14 skies and the underworlds (A Muslim belief). Hutnaalay = bazars (for dealings in Waheguru's Naam). Untar(i) = inside. Naalay = with. Vapaari = dealer. Ko = some rare. 3. Sehj Anunda = blissfulness of the high spiritual state. Voottha = takes dwelling. Govinda = Waheguru. Sehjay = in peaceful state. 4.
Vichhurray = disconnected. Maariyeh(i) = punished. Subaaya = all. Muthay = forehead; face. Kaalay = disgraced. 5. Vudbhaagi = fortunate. Sehj Bhaayay = unfaltering love. Liv Laagi = deep focus. Kmaaveh(i) = deals in. 6.

MEANING: The provider Waheguru is inaccessible and unfathomable. He is so indifferent that He has no worldly desire at all – not even the size of a sesame seed. Nobody has access to Him on their own; He connects devotees through His own Will with the Guru. 1.
Whatever Waheguru plans to do, happens for sure. There is no other provider like Him. Only that individual acquires His Naam whom He endows to, and He connects the devotee with Him with the Guru's Shabad. 2. Satguru explains that the fourteen layers of the universe are the trading centres for Waheguru's Naam, which is always with us. A dealer in the Naam acquires it with Guru's Shabad. 3.
When a devotee serves Satguru, Waheguru takes dwelling in his heart, and he enjoys blissfulness in the high spiritual state. Waheguru Himself makes him worship Him (recite His Naam), and the devotee worships Him day and night. 4.
Those who are disconnected from Satguru (do not follow His Advice) suffer heavily as they are punished (for their misdeeds). With disgraced faces, they cannot access Waheguru's Residence (cannot unite with Him), and continue to suffer all the time. 5.
Those who serve Satguru are highly fortunate, and their minds stay focused on Waheguru's Naam with unfaltering love for Him. Such devotees always deal in Waheguru's Naam because of which Waheguru connects them with Him. 6.

Word Meaning: Bherm(u) = misgivings; illusions. Chookaayay = gets rid of. Sachaiy = Waheguru's Naam. 7. Boojhaayay = gives the understanding; enlightens. Bukhshay = endows; bestows. 8. Guvaaya = wasted. Aagaiy = in Waheguru's Court. Chookaiy = is not eradicated; does not leave behind. Til = sesame seeds. Ghaani = batch; a lot. Peerraayaynda = to crush. 9. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Jumkaal(u) = the Messenger of death 10. Tayray Huth(i) = in Your control. Vudiyaayi = honour. 11.

MEANING: But only that lucky devotee acquires His Naam in mind whom Waheguru grants Himself. With Waheguru's Naam in his mind, the devotee gets rid of all his misgivings. Waheguru Himself is the provider of His Naam, and only that devotee gets it implanted in his mind, whom Waheguru gives Himself. 7. Waheguru is the creator of everybody, but the mind of only that devotee is enlightened who Waheguru is kind to. Waheguru honours some individuals by bestowing His Naam on them and connects them with Him. 8.

The man wastes away his precious human life in his selfishness and ego. His bonds with Maya are not broken in this world, and he takes his attachment with Maya to the next world, where the Angel of death demands the account of his deeds, and punishes him severely as if he is being crushed like the sesame seeds in the crushing mill. 9.

With Waheguru's benevolence, a rare and highly fortunate devotee gets to serve the Guru. The Angel of Death does not even go near him, and he enjoys blissfulness in Waheguru's Residence (he merges into Waheguru). 10.

But only those devotees enjoy such bliss who Waheguru likes, and who He puts in the service of the Guru. Only Waheguru has the power to honour a devotee with His Naam, which he receives (acquires). 11.

Word Meaning: Pergaas(u) = enlightenment. Pudaaruth = invaluable article. Chaanun = light. 12. Doojaiy Laagaiy = get attached to Maya. Abhaagay = unfortunate. Chulldiyaan = at the time of death. Ghur Dur = Waheguru's Residence. Jum = Angel of death. Baandha = tied up. 13. Mumta = worldly attachments. Liv = deep focus of mind. Vunjeh(i) = deal in. Vapaari = dealers. Laaha = benefit. 15.

Mookta = emancipated. Naamo Naam = only Naam. Dhiyaayaynda = worships. 16. 5.19.

MEANING: When a devotee's mind is enlightened by the Guru, he embeds the invaluable Naam of Waheguru in his mind. With the jewel-like precious Naam, his mind is enlightened, and the darkness of ignorance is expelled from his mind. 12.

The spiritually ignorant and blind man gets attached to Maya, and the unfortunate drowns in the world-sea, which has no liquid water. Attached to Maya, he cannot see (think of) Waheguru's Residence and His Door on his journey of life; so, tied up in the court of the Angel of death, he suffers badly after death. 13. You can check with any spiritually knowledgeable person or a holy man who meditates on Waheguru's Naam to find out that no one can achieve emancipation without serving Satguru. A devotee who serves Satguru earns respect everywhere and earns praise in Waheguru's Court. 14.

Satguru severs the bonds of His devotee with Maya, and instills love for Waheguru in his mind. Waheguru Himself connects such a devotee with Him. Such a devotee always deals in Waheguru's Naam and benefits spiritually from it (acquires Naam-wealth). 15.
But it is the Creator, Waheguru, who does everything and makes others do whatever He wishes. Only that devotee is emancipated who kills his worldly desires with the Guru's Shabad. Waheguru's Naam takes dwelling in his heart, and he recites only, and only Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 16.5.19.

Word Meaning: Toodh(u) = You (Waheguru). Bhaanay = His Will (Huqam). Virla = rare. 1. Bhaavaiy = likes. Sehjay = easily; routinely. Lochiaye = longs for. Buhoutayri = much; many. 2. Kisay = some rare person. 3. Pudaaruth = the invaluable article. Srisht(i) = world. 4. Chuturaayi = over cleverness; slyness. Ghur Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Residence; connection with Him. 5.
Dhoor(i) = from the Source (Waheguru). Foormaayi = ordered; predetermined. 6.
MEANING: Some rare devotee realizes Waheguru's Will (Huqam) that He has created whatever He had to create. Whoever obeys (gladly accepts) Waheguru's Will (Huqam) acquires blissfulness. 1. Guru's Sikhs accept Waheguru's Huqam and routinely perform deeds of high morality, and enjoy blissfulness. Many people long to obey His Huqam, but only those who obey it whom He makes to do (whom He is kind to). 2.
Those who gladly accept Your Will are connected to You and merge with You, oh Waheguru. One earns great respect by accepting Waheguru's Will, but Waheguru makes some rare (deserving) devotees accept His Huqam. 3. When Waheguru likes some devotee, He connects him with Satguru in whose shelter (with whose grace) the devotee acquires Waheguru's Naam in his mind. Waheguru has created the whole world with His own Will (Huqam); the devotee whom Waheguru enables to obey His Will, loves His Will too. 4.
The Maya-lovers are spiritually blind, try to be over-clever, and do not accept Waheguru's Will, because of which they suffer badly. Misguided by the illusions of Maya, they keep taking births and dying and never get connected with Waheguru. 5.
Waheguru honours only those devotees of Him by connecting them with Satguru for whom the connection with Satguru is prewritten in their fate, also by Him. The devotee acquires Waheguru's Naam only if he serves Satguru (obeys His Huqam), and enjoys blissfulness by reciting the Naam. 6.

MEANING: Everybody comes to this world with Waheguru's Huqam, and dies with His Huqam as well. One's mind and body get imbued with love for Waheguru with the grace of the Guru. When one's tongue recites Waheguru's Naam, it gets imbued with its sweetness, and he enjoys blissfulness with the sweetness of the Naam. 7.

A rare person attaches His mind with Waheguru with Guru's Shabad, making his body a dwelling for Him (Waheguru). But only that devotee acquires Waheguru's Naam in his mind, whom Waheguru endows, whereupon the devotee gets connected with Him. 8.
The man suffers from forgetting Waheguru, and invites the disease of love for Maya (disease, because it causes his spiritual death). Without Waheguru's Naam, man's mind and body are sick as if suffering from the incurable disease of leprosy, and as if living in hell. 9.
With love for Waheguru in His mind, the soul (mind) of the devotee is always blissful, and being imbued in Waheguru's Naam, his body is pure like gold. With the praise of Naam in his mind, the devotee enjoys blissfulness all the time and stays connected with Waheguru, which (union with God) becomes his eternal home. 10.
Everybody does some kind of business in life, but without Waheguru's Naam, the whole world suffers from spiritual loss. The man comes to this world empty-handed and leaves empty-handed, and suffers more without Waheguru's Naam. 11.

Word Meaning: Ghut Untar(i) = in heart. Dhiyaayaynda = recites. 12. Lochaiy = yearns for. Jayti = all those. Poorub(i) Kmaayee = previous deeds. 13. Kaaya Koat(u) = fort-like body. Appara = (of) the limitless God. Beh(i) = by sitting. Niyaaoun = justice. Niihchul = everlasting. 14. Bunkay = beautiful. Thaan(u) = place. Soohaaya = attractive. It(u) = in this. Nibhaiy = lasts till the end. 15. Bunut Bunaayi = created a system. Subh Vuth = everything. Vunheh(i) = deal in. Gurmukh(i) = Guru's Sikh. 16.
MEANING: Only that individual acquires Waheguru's Naam whom Waheguru Himself endows with, and the devotee enshrines it in his heart with Guru's Shabad. With Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his heart with Guru's grace, the devotee recites only His Naam. 12.
All those who come to this world long for Waheguru's Naam, but only those acquire it who have earned and deserved it from the very beginning because of their previous noble deeds. They are highly fortunate who acquire Waheguru's Naam, for they are connected with Waheguru through the Guru's Shabad. 13. The fort-like human body is a place for Waheguru to reside, where He sits down to make His decisions. Dealing in Waheguru's Naam is the true business for which He delivers His perfect justice, that the dealer in His Naam becomes an eternal resident in Waheguru's home (he becomes a part of Waheguru). 14.
The place where Waheguru's praise is sung (the gathering of holy saints) becomes very beautiful (source of blissfulness) and highly attractive. But some rare individual, as a Sikh of the Guru, comes to such a beautiful place and sings Waheguru's praise, which lasts with him till the end. The devotee enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart by singing Waheguru's praise. 15. My Creator (Waheguru) has created a system in which He has placed the highly valuable thing (His Naam) in every human heart. But there are very few who, imbued in His love, deal in Waheguru's Naam in Guru's shelter, oh Nanak. 16.6.20.

Word Meaning: Kunchun = (pure like) gold. Tithaiy = there. Paaravaara = ends. Sachi Bani = Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's praise). 1. Chaytay = remember. Bulihaaray = sacrifice. Dhoor(i) = dust of feet. Mustuk(i) = on the forehead. Satsungut(i) = gathering of holy saints. 2. Soohaavaan = look pleasant (pure). Chuhoun Koondi = in all the four directions. 3. Saacha = true (successful) devotee. Untar(u) = inside. Bhaalay = searches for. Nihaalay = sees. Unjun(u) = kohl (as medication). Nudree = the kind Waheguru. 4. Maanus Junum(i) = in human form. Chit(u) = mind. Kiseh(i) = some rare. 5. Ikk(u) = some. Kit(u) = for what purpose? Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for the other (Maya). Vayla = time; opportunity. Pug(i) Khisiyain = slipping of feet; at the time of death. 6.

MEANING: The human body, which ponders on Guru's Shabad, becomes pure like gold, and the limitless Waheguru takes dwelling in there. The man should serve Waheguru (sing His praise) all the time with Guru's Shabad; Waheguru connects the devotees with Him with Guru's Shabad. 1. I am a sacrifice for those who remember Waheguru (recite His Naam). I will connect with them through Guru's Shabad. I will put the dust of their feet on my forehead (show reverence for them) and sing Waheguru's praise in their holy company. 2. But I can sing Waheguru's praise only if He likes me. I will look elegant (pious) with Waheguru's Naam in my mind. Guru's Shabad can be listened to in all four directions (Waheguru's praise/Naam is sung everywhere), and one merges into Him with His Naam. 3. That individual is the true devotee who searches for Waheguru inside him. Waheguru casts a kind sight on such a devotee who recites the Guru's Shabad. The devotee puts the kohl (medication) of Divine Knowledge in the eyes of his mind with the Guru's Shabad when the kind Waheguru connects him with Him with His kind sight. 4.
One acquires a human body with great fortune because it is only in the human form that a man can attach his mind to the Guru's Shabad. It is complete darkness of ignorance without Guru's Shabad; It is some rare individual whose mind is enlightened with Guru's Shabad by Waheguru's benevolence. 5.
The Maya-worshippers love the short-lived attractions of Maya. What purpose do such people achieve when they waste away their precious human life by ignoring Waheguru? They cannot recall this opportunity (human life) again, and repent when death approaches them. 6.

Word Meaning: Puvittar(u) = pious; holy. Gooni = source of virtues. Guheera = unfathomable. 7. Gunut = account; plans. Nivaaray = removes; gets rid of. Oordhaaray = keep in mind. 8. Chaytay = remembers. Vaykhaiy = watches. Boojhaiy = understands. Smaayaynda= is present. 9.
Vuth(u) = (the valuable) article (Waheguru's Naam). Puchhaanaiy = recognizes. Nirmul(u) = pure. 10. Kaaya = body. 11.
MEANING: The human body becomes pure (pious) with the Guru's Shabad, and the source of all virtues, and the unfathomable Waheguru takes dwelling in that. Such a devotee sees only Waheguru everywhere and enshrines His Naam by listening to it. 7.
With Guru's Shabad in mind, he gets rid of his different plans to boost his ego and keeps Waheguru's Naam in mind all the time. He sings Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad, and enjoys blissfulness by connecting with Waheguru. 8.
However, only that individual remembers Waheguru, whom He makes to do so, and Waheguru dwells in his heart through Guru's Shabad. Waheguru is present everywhere; He watches everybody, and understands their wishes (needs). 9.
Only Waheguru knows that He has placed His Naam in every heart – but the devotee recognizes that with Guru's Shabad. The devotee, who recognizes the presence of Waheguru's Naam in his heart with Guru's Shabad, is pure (pious), and he sings Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad for himself and for others too. 10.

The body of the devotee, who remembers the unfathomable Waheguru (recites His Naam), which is the source of all virtues, becomes pure. Imbued in His love, the devotee sings Waheguru's virtues all the time, and merges into Him. 11.

Word Meaning: Mool(u) = root. Doojaiy Bhaayay = love for Maya. 12. J(i) = Jo = those. Pervaan(u) = approved. Huns(u) = soul. Jaan(u) = recognized; honoured. 13. Bin(u) Bhaagaan = without good fortune. Bil-laayay = wail. 14.
Pukkay = very strong. Hutnaalay = bazars (for demons to attack). Vust(u) = Vuth(u) = Waheguru's Naam. Smaalay = protect. Ootum = superior. Pudvee = level; state. 15. Sookh-Daata = provider (source) of comforts. 16.
MEANING: Maya is the root of the rebirths of humans (they are reborn because of their attraction for Maya), and the man is misled by its illusions. Without remembering Waheguru, the man always suffers from his attraction to Maya. 12.
The individual, who serves Waheguru, is approved (loved) by Waheguru. Because of the purity of his body and soul (mind), he is recognized (honoured) in Waheguru's Court. By serving Waheguru (obeying His Huqam, and singing His praise), he enshrines Him in his heart, and looks elegant (is honoured) when he sings Waheguru's virtues. 13.
One cannot serve the Guru without good fortune. The Maya-worshippers are misled and wail for their spiritual death. But Waheguru connects those with Him who have the Guru's kind sight on them. 14. Those Sikhs of the Guru, who have very strong walls of their body fort against the attacks of the demons, acquire the invaluable Naam of Waheguru in Guru's shelter, and protect it from the demons. They recite Waheguru's Naam day and night, and attain the superior spiritual state. 15.
Waheguru is the eternal source of all comforts with whom a devotee can connect with the Guru's Shabad. But some rare devotee, with great fortune, sings Waheguru's praise, and gets connected with Him, oh Nanak. 16.7.21.

Word Meaning: NItunkaar(i) = the formless (Waheguru). Aakaar(u) = universe. Oopaaya = created. Khayl = drama. Saacha = Waheguru's Naam (His virtues). 1. Maayee = mother. Traiy-Goon = with three effects of Maya. Persoot(i) Jumaaya = gave birth; produced. Foormaaya = ordered; allocated. Vurhay = years. Maah = months. Vaar = days of week. Thiti = phases of the moon. 2.
Kerni = performance. Saar = supreme. Verti = operates; supreme. 3.
Vaad = discussions. Chaytaiy = keeps in mind. Buddha = in the net of. Bherm(i) Bhoolaayaynda = misled in illusions. 4. Aikus Siyoun = with the "One". Tribidh(i) = of the three effects of Maya. Munsa = desires. Muneh(i) = within the mind. Mookta = emancipated. Chookaayaynda. = gets rid of. 5.
Dhoor(i) = predestined (by Waheguru). Raatay = imbued. Hoon(i) = now. Maatay = intoxicated. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru created the universe with His Huqam and instilled love for Maya in the minds of the living beings. He has created this drama of the world, but one can enshrine Him in his mind by listening to His great virtues (His Praise/Naam). 1.
With Waheguru's Huqam, Maya plays the role of the mother and produces living beings as its offspring (Maya's attraction for them is the root of their reincarnation), which are heavily influenced by its three effects. He created even the gods and the four Vedas, which are attributed to Brahma as their author. Waheguru created the years, subdivided them into months, weeks, and phases of the moon, and enlightened the world (through the Guru). 2.

Serving the Guru is the supreme service in life, and one should keep Waheguru in mind at all times. Guru's Shabad is supreme in the world; one enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart with Guru's Shabad. 3. Some people study the Vedas all the time, but only to take part in useless discussions. They do not recite Waheguru's Naam, and are caught in the net of spiritual death. With love for Maya, they are misled by its three effects and suffer badly. 4. Guru's Sikhs focus their minds only on Waheguru and kill their desires regarding the three effects of Maya within their minds. With the eternal Shabad of the Guru in mind, they overcome their attachment to Maya and remain always emancipated. 5.
Those who are predestined to be imbued in Waheguru's love get imbued in His love now, and with Satguru's grace, feel intoxicated in the high spiritual state. They are always blissful to serve Satguru, and Waheguru Himself connects them with Him. 6.

Word Meaning: Sooha Rung = pink colour (which looks pretty but fades away quickly). Attractions of Maya are compared with the pink colour. Thorraiy = a few. Bilm = delay. 7. Bhaiy = fear (of God. Bhaayay = love. Itt(u) = this. Rung Churraayaynda = dyes. 8. Abhimaan(u) = conceit. Kub Hee Na = never. Maan(u) = respect. 9.
Lookaaya = hid. Sach = eternal. Amoluk = priceless. 10. Keemut(i) = worth. Tthaakur(i) = Lord. Bunut Bunaayee = created the system. Sodhaiy = improves; purifies. 11.
MEANING: Guru's Sikhs are not misled by the love for Maya, but those who are attached to Maya suffer badly (do not get peace of mind). Like the beauty of the pink colour, which fades away quickly, the enjoyments of Maya are also short-lived, and it does not take long before they disappear. 7. The individual, who dyes his mind with the colour of fear and love for Waheguru, merges into Him with this colour. But only a highly fortunate devotee acquires this colour with the Advice of the Guru. 8. The followers of their mind are highly conceited and never win respect in Waheguru's Court. Without the enlightenment of the mind, they waste their precious human life through attachment to Maya. They suffer heavily because of their lack of understanding (enlightenment). 9.
My Waheguru has hidden Himself in the human mind, but one connects with Him through the grace of the Guru. The dealings in the eternal Waheguru are everlasting (accompany the man even after his death) as the devotee acquires the priceless Naam of Waheguru. 10.
My Lord has created this world in such a way that no one knows the real worth of the human body (which can connect with Waheguru only in human form). The Sikh of the Guru knows this secret, and he purifies his body (and mind) as a result of which, Waheguru Himself, connects him with Him. 11.

Word Meaning: Toata = loss. Laaha = gain. Vaypervaaha = the carefree (God). Vunuj(i) = business; dealings. 12. Mehl(u) = Waheguru's Residence. Bhundaara = treasures. Davunhaara = Provider. 13. Vust(u) = the (priceless) article (Waheguru's Naam). Vudiyaayi = respect. Hutt(u) = shop; trade centre. Puchhotaayaynda = repents. 14. Sehj(i) = in the blissful spiritual state. 15. Bherm(u) = illusions. 16.

MEANING: When an individual deals in Maya, he sometimes suffers losses and makes gains at other times; But the Sikh of the Guru searches for the carefree Waheguru (which never causes any loss in spirituality). He always enjoys bliss while dealing in Waheguru's Naam and easily gets absorbed in a high spiritual state. 12.

Waheguru's Residence (His existence) is eternal, and His treasures are always full. The Provider delivers everything Himself. The Sikh of the Guru always sings praise of the source of blissfulness, Waheguru, and keeps Him in mind as he realizes the worth of His largesse. 13. Waheguru's Naam is there in the human body, but the man does not realize its worth. But Waheguru honours Guru's Sikhs by bestowing His Naam to them. Waheguru, which owns the trading centre of His Naam, knows the worth of His Naam. He grants it to Guru's Sikhs (who earn it), and never has to repent. 14.

Waheguru is present in everybody, but can be realized only with the grace of the Guru. Waheguru Himself connects the Sikh with the Guru, who is easily absorbed in the high spiritual state through the Guru's Shabad. 15.

Waheguru connects His devotees with the Guru's Shabad, who get rid of their illusions (about Maya) with the Guru's Shabad. One earns respect with Waheguru's Naam, and enjoys blissfulness with the Naam too, oh Nanak. 16.8.22.

Word Meaning: Agumm = inaccessible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Vaypervaahay = carefree. Mehrvaan = compassionate. Athaahay = unfathomable. Uppurr(i) = reach. 1. Toodh(u) = you. Sach(i) = in Waheguru. Ruveh(i) = remember. Rusna = tongue. Rus(u) = sweetness. 2. Mern(u) = death. Suvaareh(i) = beautifies. Oordhaaray = enshrines in the heart. Suful = successful. Bhaaou = love for. Chookaaya = finished. 3. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Raatay = imbued. Laaha = benefit; gain. 4.
Kuhaan = describe. Paara = ends. Duyya = mercy. Gooni = who has acquired virtues. 5. Pasaara = expanse. Ugiyani = ignorant. Undh(u) Undhaara = complete darkness. Dhundhaiy = Maya-related tasks. Dhaavut = rushing for. 6.

MEANING: The benevolent Waheguru is inaccessible, incomprehensible, and unfathomable. No one can reach (match) Him; He can be accessed only with the Guru's Shabad. 1.
Only those can serve You, whom You like, oh Waheguru. They merge into You with Guru's Shabad. They sing Your virtues day and night when their tongue enjoys the sweetness of Your Naam, oh Lord. 2. Those who kill their desires with Guru's Shabad, and enshrine Waheguru's Naam in their heart, make their death beautiful (because their souls merge into Waheguru). Those who get attached to Waheguru's Feet (His Naam) terminate their love for Maya and make their life successful. 3.
Those who kill their selfishness and ego with Guru's Shabad become connected with Waheguru through His own Will. Imbued in Waheguru's worship day and night, they acquire the benefit (wealth) of their union with Waheguru in the world. 4.
I sing Your virtues, but am unable to do so completely (because there are too many of them). There is no end to them, and I do not know their true worth. It is with Waheguru's benevolence that the devotee, who sings Waheguru's virtues, gets absorbed in Him. 5.
This world is an expanse of worldly attachments. The Maya-worshipper is ignorant (about spirituality), and is in complete darkness. He wastes away his precious human life rushing to complete Maya-related tasks and suffers greatly without Waheguru's Naam. 6.

Word Meaning: Kerm(u) = benevolence; good fortune. Maiyl(u) = filth. Julaayay = burns; destroys. Chaanun = brightness. 7.
Anayk = countless. Sehj(i) = in the high spiritual state. 8.
Amoluk(u) = priceless. Apaara = with no ends. Tolunhaara = one who weighs; assessor. 9. Jut(u) = celibacy. Sut(u) = high moral character. Sunjum(u) = control on senses. J(i) = if; who. Sach(u) Kmaavaiy = follows Guru's Advice. Bikh(u) = poisonous world of Maya. Amrit = Waheguru's Naam. 11.

MEANING: If one is fortunate, he gets connected with Satguru and burns away the filth of his selfishness and ego with Guru's Shabad. His mind is purified and enlightened with the jewel-like Divine Knowledge, whereby his darkness of ignorance is dispelled. 7.
You have countless names, yet no one knows Your true worth. Nobody can tell Your worth, but individuals can embed Your Naam in their hearts through Your benevolence and get absorbed in You in a high spiritual state, oh Lord. 8.
The Naam of the inaccessible, and the limitless Waheguru, is priceless, and no one can assess its real worth. Waheguru Himself assesses His worth and enables His devotees to do the same when He connects them with Him through the Guru's Shabad. 9.
The devotee serves Waheguru and prays to Him when He connects the devotee with Him, and makes him sit with Him (honours him). The source of all comforts, Waheguru, is the provider for everybody, and people worship Him with His benevolence. 10.
A person becomes a celibate, acquires high morality, and is able to control his senses without any effort if he follows the Guru's Advice. It is the Will of my Waheguru that the mind of the devotee is purified when he sings His praise, and he acquires Waheguru's Amrit-Naam even in this poisonous world of Maya (of immorality). 11.

Word Meaning: Boojhaayay = enlightens. Boojhaiy = gets the understanding. Soojhaiy = acquires the wisdom. Tthaak Ruhaayay = keeps under control. 12.
Ghunayri = too much (many). Chookaiy Na = does not end. Phayri = return to the world; rebirth. Bikh(u) = poisonous sensual pleasures. Kmaavaiy = pursues them. Na Kubhoon = never. 13. Bhaykh = religious garbs. Bhaykhdhaari = hypocrites; impersonators. Kin = who? (nobody). Jeevut Muraiy = kills desires while living in family. Naayay = with the Naam. 14. Trishna = appetite for (fire of) desires. Tuneh(i) = body. Boojhaiy = is put out; is killed. Seetul(u) = peaceful. Nivaaray = removes; eradicates. 15.
Sachi = everlasting. Virlaiy = rare. Baynunti = humble suggestion. 16.

MEANING: Only that individual realizes the worth of Waheguru's Naam whose mind is enlightened by Waheguru, Himself. He sings of Waheguru's virtues and internalizes spiritual wisdom. He is able to control his senses and acquire Waheguru's Naam without any special effort. 12. There are countless people who wander around without Waheguru's benevolence (do not recite His Naam). They keep taking births, and dying, and their return to different life forms (reincarnation) never ends. Intoxicated in sensual pleasures, they continue to stay in that cycle and never attain peace of mind. 13.
People who wear different religious garbs are actually impersonators, but no one has ever been able to kill their haumein without Waheguru's Naam. A person who kills his desires with Guru's Shabad while living in the family finds emancipation and gets absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. 14. Lack of spiritual knowledge, and the fire of worldly desires burns the human body (causing mental suffering for him). Only that person is able to put out this fire who follows Guru's Shabad whereby his rage is destroyed (is controlled), and his body and mind become peaceful, and by overcoming his haumein, he gets absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. 15. Waheguru is eternal, and the honour He bestows on His devotees is also everlasting. But a rare individual is accorded such honour with the Guru's grace. I have only this humble suggestion: one gets absorbed in Waheguru only with His Naam, oh Nanak. 16.1.23.

Word Meaning: Nudreen = with kind sight. Oobreh(i) = are salvaged. 1. Soohaavi = comforting (blissful). Bhaayi = liked by. Chit(u) = mind. 2. Julaiy = burns; suffers. Kerm(u) = benevolence; good fortune. Ugiyan(u) = ignorance. Boojhaayay = eradicates. 3. Kmaayay = deals in. Sunkut = suffering. Joani Bhermaayay = is taken through many life forms. Javrra = rope; noose. 4. Aavun Jaana = taking birth and dying. Nivaaray = is terminated. 5. Perj = masses. Vigoyee = suffers humiliation. Thir = immortal (by merging with Waheguru). Joti = human soul. Jot(i) = the Supreme Soul. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru's devotees always sing His praise with full devotion, and with His kind sight, Waheguru connects them with Him. The Creator, Waheguru, connects His devotees with Him through the Guru, and they find salvation in His shelter. 1.

Waheguru's worship becomes comforting (blissful) with Guru's Shabad because Waheguru likes it, and the devotee acquires blissfulness in his mind. When a devotee attaches his mind to Waheguru, his body and mind get imbued in His worship. 2.

Man's body suffers constantly because of his selfishness and ego, but he connects with the Perfect Guru if he is fortunate. Satguru's Shabad eradicates the darkness of his ignorance, and he acquires blissfulness in His shelter. 3.

The Maya-engrossed individual is spiritually blind, and he deals in Maya-related affairs, which increase his blindness even more, and he suffers badly as he is taken through many different life forms. The noose of the Angel of spiritual death never loosens, and he suffers badly. 4.

Man's birth-death cycle gets terminated with Guru's Shabad when he keeps Waheguru's Naam in mind all the time. When one kills his desires with Guru's Shabad, his haumein is also killed, and he gets absorbed in Waheguru. 5.

The masses suffer humiliation due to their continuous rebirths, and no one becomes immortalized (achieves union with Waheguru) without the Guru. With Guru's Shabad, one acquires Waheguru's Light in his mind, and he enjoys eternal bliss when his light (soul) merges into the Supreme Soul of Waheguru. 6.

Ghuraiy = in the heart. Ghur(u) = permanent dwelling (union with Waheguru). Sehj Soobhaayay = without any special effort. Oathaiy = in that spiritual state. Soag(u) = grief. Vijoag(u) = separation. Viyaapaiy = affects. Sehj(i) = in a high spiritual state. 10.
Dooshtaan = evils. Vaasa = thoughts revolve around. Bhaunday Phireh = roam around. Buhou = much. Moh Piyaasa = thirst of worldly attachments. Koosungut(i) = evil company. Buhheh(i) = joins; friends with. Dookho Dookh(u) = only suffering. 11.
MEANING: This world is an expanse of Maya (people are strongly attached to the attractions of Maya), and the five senses of man always think about the evil sensual pleasures. However, the five senses can be controlled by serving the Guru (following His Advice) once a man becomes emancipated. 7. Without the Guru, it is complete darkness (of ignorance) in the world due to the attachments of the man with Maya, and he drowns in the sea of Maya again and again. But when the man gets connected with Satguru, He (Satguru) reinforces Waheguru's Naam in his mind, and the man comes to like it (the Naam). 8.
Those who serve the dear Waheguru with Guru's Shabad, realize that Waheguru's Door and His Court are eternal (one can have access to Him any time, and His justice is Perfect). I, too, wish to sing His praise with full devotion to become "one" with Him. 9.
It is rare for an individual to acquire his permanent residence (union with Waheguru) in his own mind through love for Guru's Shabad. When the devotee attains that high spiritual state (union with Waheguru) without any special effort, no grief or separation from Waheguru occurs in that high spiritual state. 10.
When one loves the attractions of Maya, his thoughts revolve around evil activities, and he wanders about seeking to quench his thirst for such sensual pleasures. He seeks the company of like-minded evil friends and performs deeds that only bring him trouble. 11.

Word Meaning: Paar = (swim to) the other end. Ruveh(i) = remember; recite. 12.
Birkh(u) = tree. Punkhi = bird (mind). Choogeh(i) = picks up. Nivaasa = dwelling. Oodeh(i) = take flights. Na Moolay = not at all. Nij Ghur(i) = in own house (mind). 13.
Sodhe(i) = purifuies. Tthugauri = mind captivating. Bherm(u) = illusions. Nivaareh(i) = get rid of. 14. Nayrraiy = close by. Jaanhou = think; believe. Nujeek(i) = nearby. Bigsaiy Kumul = the lotus like heart blooms. Kirn Pergaasaiy = in sun's rays. Pergut(u) Kur(i) = show. 15.
Maar(i) Jeevaalay = injects new life after killing desires. Uver(u) = other. Vudiyaayi = praise; respect. Aap(u) = selfishness and ego 16.
MEANING: There is no holy gathering without the Guru (His Shabad), and nobody can swim across the sea of Maya (find salvation) without the Guru's Shabad. A devotee, who sings Waheguru's virtues (His praise) in the high spiritual state day and night, gets his soul merged into that of Waheguru. 12.
The soul (mind) in the human body is like a bird on a tree. If the mind chooses Guru's Amrit-like Shabad as its food, it stays on the tree (in itself). Unlike the bird, it takes absolutely no flights (does not wander around), and does not take rebirths. It stays in its permanent home (achieves union with Waheguru). 13.

The devotee purifies his body (and soul) by pondering on the Guru's Shabad, and overcomes his illusions of the captivating Maya. The source of all comforts, Waheguru, becomes benevolent to him and connects the devotee with Him on His own. 14.
Waheguru is always close to us, so do not think Him to be far away from you, and make a connection with Him with Guru's Shabad. Just like the lotus flower, which blooms in the sun's rays, the Guru shows Waheguru to the devotee with the light of His Shabad. 15.
The eternal Waheguru is the creator of the universe, and there is none like Him. He, Himself, kills the worldly desires of the devotee, and injects a new spiritual life into him. When the devotee kills his selfishness and ego with Waheguru's Naam, he is respected everywhere and enjoys blissfulness, oh Nanak. 16.2.24.
