Satgur tay Naam(u) ruttan dhun(u) paaya, Satgur kee sayva bhaayi hay. 3. Bin(u) Satgur jo doojaiy laagay. Aaveh(i) jaah(i), bherm(i) mureh(i) abhaagay. Nanak, tinh kee phir(i) gut(i) hovaiy, j(i) Gurmukh(i) ruhheh(i) shernaayi hay. 4. Gurmukh(i) preet(i) sudaa haiy saachi. Satgur tay maangoun Naam(u) ajaachi. Hoh(u) duyyaal(u), kirpa kur(i) Hur(i) Jeeou, rukh(i) layvhou Gur shernaayi hay. 5. Amrit rus(u) Satguru chooaaya. Dusvaiyn Dooaar(i) pergut(u) hoyay aaya. Teh Unhud Shabad vujeh(i) dhoon(i) Bani, sehjay sehj(i) smaayi hay. 6. ----------

Word Meaning: Suvaarunhaara = decorator (with noble qualities). Soojhus(i) = think of. Beeji = other. Kaara = things to do. Gurmukh(i) = by Guru's grace (Advice). 1. Maahi = inside. Kert = by doing (uttering). 2. Pooja = worship. Dhun(u) = wealth. Bhaayi = is liked. 3. Jo = those. Bherm(i) = in misgivings. Abhaagay = unfortunate. Gut(i) = high spiritual state; salvation. Shernaayi = in the shelter. 4. Saachi = pure; everlasting. Maangoun = beg for. Ajaachi = immeasurable. 5.

Chooaaya = squeezed; poured; administered. Dusvaiy Dooaar(i) = the spiritual state when one gets connected with Waheguru. Pergut(u) = appears. Unhud Shabad = Divine Music. Dhoon(i) = the sweet tune. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru Himself adorns His devotees (with noble qualities) so that they do not contemplate any Maya-related business, but with Guru's grace, Waheguru's Naam takes dwelling in their heart, and they get absorbed in Waheguru without any special effort. 1.
Waheguru is present hidden in every heart, but it is only with the Guru's grace that a devotee attains a high spiritual state (stays above the effects of Maya). The devotees always enjoy blissfulness by reciting the Guru's Shabad and attaching their mind to His Shabad. 2.
For a devotee, Satguru (His Shabad) is the (source of) Divine Knowledge, and acting on His Shabad is the worship (of Waheguru). I will serve only Satguru, and no one else. One acquires the wealth of Waheguru's jewel-like Naam from Satguru. I love serving Him. 3.
Those who are attached to the other (Maya) are unfortunate. They die a spiritual death because of their misconceptions, and keep taking births and dying. They can find salvation only if they seek the Guru's shelter and stay there. 4.
The love of the Sikh of the Guru for Waheguru is pure (honest). I beg for Waheguru's Naam from Satguru, the worth of which can never be known. Please, be kind to me, and keep me in the shelter of the Guru, oh Waheguru. 5. Satguru squeezed the sweet Amrit of Waheguru's Naam in my mind (implanted the Naam in my mind) because of which Waheguru appeared in my Tenth Door (I attained the highest spiritual state). Now I feel as if the auto-playing Divine Music with the sweet sound of Guru's Shabad is playing in my mind. 6.

---------- Jin kuou Kertaiy dhoor(i) likh(i) paayi. Undin(u) Gur(u), Gur(u) kert vihaayi. Bin(u) Satgur ko seejhaiy naahi, Gur Churnee chit(u) laayi hay. 7. Jis bhaavaiy, tis(u) Aapay dayay. Satgur Giyan ruttan(u) ut(i) bhaari, kerm(i) milaiy sookh(u) paayi hay. 10. Gurmukh(i) Naam(u) pergutee hay soyay. Chuhoun joog(i) nirmul(u) huchha loyay. Naamay Naam(i) ruttay sookh(u) paaya, Naam(i) ruhhiya liv laayi hay. 11. ----------

Word Meaning: Dhoor(i) = from the beginning. Vihaayi = (life) is spent. Ko = any one. Seejhaiy = succeeds. Gur Churnee = Guru's Feet (Shabad). 7.
Bhaavaiy = likes. Pdaaruth(u) = the invaluable article. 8. Pergut(u) Bhuyya = appeared. Sehjay = in the high spiritual state. Luyya = acquired. Bul(i) Jaayi = offer to sacrifice. 9. Soor(u) = sun. Nis(i) = (of) night. Undhiyaara = darkness. Apaara = endless. Bhaari = powerful; source of comforts. Kerm(i) = benevolence; good fortune. 10.
Chuhoun Joog(i) = in all the four eons; always. Nirmul(u) = purifying. Huchha = good; valid. Loyay = in the world. Ruttay = imbued. Liv Laayi = deep meditation. 11.

MEANING: Those who have their good fortune prewritten by Waheguru spend their life reciting the Guru's Shabad all the time. Nobody can achieve success (get connected with Waheguru) without the grace of the Guru; so, I have attached my mind to the Guru's Feet (His Shabad). 7. Waheguru grants His invaluable Naam to the devotees of His liking through the Guru. Those who are given Waheguru's Naam by His benevolence get absorbed in Him, oh Nanak. 8. It is the greatness of Satguru, and I am always a sacrifice for my Satguru, with whose grace, the devotee acquires the invaluable Naam of Waheguru in the high spiritual state, and the jewel of Divine Knowledge appears in his mind. 9.

Just like the darkness of the night disappears with the rise of the sun, the darkness of ignorance disappears with the jewel-like Guru's Shabad in the praise of the limitless Waheguru. The jewel of Satguru's Knowledge is extremely powerful (source of comforts); one acquires it with great fortune, and enjoys blissfulness. 10.
No matter in what part of the world a devotee is, and what eon it is, Waheguru's Naam purifies his mind everywhere. The devotee, who is imbued only in the Naam, enjoys all comforts and stays absorbed in it. 11.

-------- Gurmukh(i) Naam(u) praaput(i) hovaiy. Sehjay jaagaiy, sehjay sovaiy.
(PAGE 1070): Gurmukh(i) Naam(u) smaayay, smaavaiy, Nanak, Naam(u) dhiyaayi hay. 12. Bhugtaan mookh(i) Amrit haiy baani. Gurmukh(i) Hur(i) Naam(u) aakh(i) vukhaani. Aap(i) miliya Jugjeevun(u) Daata, Nanak, unk(i) smaayi hay. 16.1.
Word Meaning: Praaput(i) = acquire. Sehjay = in high spiritual state. Dhiyaayi = remember; recite. 12. Aakh(i) Vukhaani = sing and explain. Kert= doing; reciting. 13. Sumjh = understanding. Maahi = in. 14. Jaata = Puchhaata = recognized; made connection. Serbay = everywhere. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Aatum = soul. Cheen(i) = searching. Perm Pud(u) = highest spiritual state. Soort(i) = in mind. 15. Aad(i) = from the birth (in fate). Unk(i) = in the heart. 16.
MEANING: One acquires Waheguru's Naam only by the grace of the Guru, and the devotee stays in the high spiritual state whether he is awake or asleep. By getting absorbed in Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, the Sikh gets absorbed in Waheguru. I also recite Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 12.
Waheguru's devotees have Amrit-like Guru's Shabad (Waheguru's Naam) on their tongue, and the Guru's Sikhs recite and explain Waheguru's Naam. A devotee's mind blooms when he recites Waheguru's Naam, and he keeps his mind attached to His Naam. 13.
I was foolish, who lacked Divine Knowledge, but I acquired the Divine wisdom from Satguru. Waheguru was very kind to me, who put me in the service of the Guru with His munificence. 14. Those who connect with Satguru recognize Waheguru as well (connect with Him), the source of all comforts, present everywhere. The devotee attains the highest spiritual state by searching for Waheguru in his soul, and service to Him is always there in his mind. 15.
Those who have the honour (to acquire Waheguru's Naam) preordained in their fate receive Satguru's Shabad enshrined in their minds when they meditate on it. The soul of the world, Waheguru, comes to dwell in their mind, and they get absorbed in Him, oh Nanak. 16.1.

Word Meaning: Abinaashi = immortal. Ruv(i) Ruhhiya = is present. Vaasi = dweller. Srayvhou = serv; recite His Naam. Praani = oh man. 1. Saakus(i) = can. Ootum = superior; mind purifying. Bani = His Naam. 2. Jaapaiy = seems. Kithaaoun Naahi. not anywhere; nowhere. Ta = that. Bherpoor Smaahi = fully present. Phoonn(i) = again. Choaj Vidaani = (with) amazing feats. 3. Vaydun = pain; problems. Jun = slave; devotee. Daani = provider. 4. Jeeyay Kee = of the soul (mind). Saar = condition. Ajaanaiy = oh, ignorant. Loojh(u) = quarrel; argue. Pud Nirbaani = state of full detachment. 5. Chint = Chinta = worry. Achint = unexpected. Keet = worms. Pukhaani = in rocks. 6.

MEANING: The inaccessible and the incomprehensible Waheguru is ever immortal. He is omnipresent and resides in every heart. There is no other provider like Him; He is the only one to be served, oh man. 1.

No one can kill (cause any harm to) the individual who is protected by the Guard, Waheguru. So, serve Waheguru whose Naam purifies the human mind, oh holy saints. 2.

Where it seems that there is nothing there, the Creator Waheguru is fully present even there. Recite the Naam of Waheguru, which performs amazing feats, and which injects fresh life in the spiritually dead, oh man. 3. I am a sacrifice to the Lord who knows the pain (problems) of the living beings. One should pray to the Lord, who is the provider (source) of all comforts. 4. Do not pray before anyone who does not know the situation of your mind, oh the ignorant man. Do not argue with the foolish, but recite the Naam of Waheguru to attain the highest spiritual state. 5.

Do not worry about your needs because Waheguru provides for all the living beings everywhere – in waters and on the land. Waheguru delivers food even in unexpected places, like the microbes in rocks. 6.

Word Meaning: Aas = expectation; dependence. Soot = sons. Shah = moneylender. Biyohaar = business. Puraayi = of others. Bayli = friend; supporter. Saarungpaani = a name for Vishnu (Waheguru). 7. Bunvaari = Waheguru. Pooraiy = fulfills. Thaari = Yours. Bhuv-Khundun = the eradicator of the birth-death cycle (God). Sehjay = in blissfulness. Raiyn(i) = night (of life). Vihaani = is spent. 8. Put(i) = dignity. Puraani = the Puranas. 9. Laayay = puts to. Bhaagaiy = runs away. Greh(i) = home; family. Oodaasi = detached from the world. 10. Thaayayn Na Paayay = is not rewarded. Tup = worship with self-torturing. Bhaani = is liked. 11.
MEANING: Do not expect any help from any friend, sons, your brothers, a moneylender, or from any other business in the field of spirituality, oh man. There is no real friend in spirituality other than Waheguru's Naam; so, recite His Naam. 7.
Recite the Naam of Waheguru, which fulfils all your wishes and desires, oh my friends. Waheguru's slave, Nanak, recommends that you should recite the Naam of Waheguru, which is the eradicator of your birth-death cycle, so that you may spend the night of your life blissfully in the high spiritual state. 8.
Those who serve Waheguru experience bliss as they become absorbed in His Naam in a high spiritual state. You can check the Vedas and the Puranas to see that Waheguru protects the devotee's dignity (against the attacks of Maya) when the devotee takes His shelter. 9.
But only that devotee begins to serve Waheguru whom He motivates; all misgivings and fears of the devotee run away with Guru's Shabad. Like the lotus flower, which thrives in water yet stays above its surface, such a devotee stays detached from the worldly attractions while living in the family. 10. If one serves Waheguru for selfish reasons or ego, his service is not recognized (not rewarded). Such a person stays trapped in the birth-death cycle. Only that worship, including the one that involves self-torture, is recognized that is liked (approved) by my Waheguru. 11.

Hur(i) kee shern(i) puyya, Hur(i) jaapeen, jun(u) Nanak, daas(u) dasaani hay. 16.2.

Word Meaning: Huoun = I. Untarjaami = know-all; omniscient. Vukhaani = recite; explain. 12 Joar = power; ability. Ahunkar = conceit; pride. Deebaan = support. Tayk = Dhur = support. Nimaani = humble. 13. Maan(u) = respect; honour. Kayti = much. Jhukh(i) = meaningless talk in frustration. Pukh(u) = support; favour. Gull Oopur = superior logic; make winner. Aani = bring. 14. Puchhotaani = repent. 15.
Verteh(i) = operate. Jugunath = Lord of the world. Jupaiy = recites (Naam). Mustuk(i) Haath = have blessings. Daas Dasaani = slave of slaves. 16.

MEANING: Which of Your virtues can I sing praise of, oh my Lord? (I am unable to sing Your full praise), But you are omniscient (and know my feelings). I beg only one donation from You, oh the Creator; kindly give me Your Naam so that I may recite it all the time. 12.
Some people are conceited about their ability to lecture (or discuss things forcefully), while others are conceited about the strong support of their wealth. I have no other support or shelter than that of Waheguru; I have nothing to be proud of; kindly protect my dignity, oh my Creator. 13. If You wish, You, can accord honour to the humble, oh my Waheguru. Many people come and go who talk meaningless (complain and grumble) and suffer humiliation; but You make others listen to what Your favourite devotees have to say, oh my Lord. 14. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam all the time attain the highest spiritual state with Guru's grace. Those who serve Waheguru enjoy blissfulness, but those who do not serve Waheguru repent at the end. 15.
You operate (are present) in everybody, oh, the Lord of the world. But only those who recite Your Naam are blessed by the Guru. I am the slave of Waheguru's slaves, and wish to recite His Naam in His shelter, oh Nanak. 16.2.

Sadh Sungut(i) = company of the Guru. Nihchou = for sure. Terna = find salvation. Buch = by words. Kerm = by actions. Kerta = Creator. Sujaayi = punishment; suffering. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru, who created the earth and the sky with His power, and who placed them in their appropriate places with His Laws, and who restrains the fire contained in the fuel, also protects us, oh my brothers. 1. Waheguru, the creator of the universe, who is omnipotent and unaffected by the effects of Maya, delivers food to all living beings. Waheguru, who can create and destroy anything in a short moment, is your supporter too, oh man. 2. We should always recite the Naam of the dear Waheguru whose grandeur is so great (beyond words) that he raises and nourishes the fetus in the mother's womb, and is always with him to protect him with his every breath and bite (of the natural food). 3.
(If He so chooses), He can convert rulers and the wealthy into beggars and paupers in a moment, and can honour the poor and the powerless and make them wealthy rulers. He is the destroyer of conceit and supporter of everybody, but nobody can ever know His worth (greatness). 4. That man is truly respectable or wealthy who has Waheguru (His Naam) embedded in his heart. Waheguru, which has created the world, is the true mother, the father, the son, and the close relative of everybody. 5.

When an individual comes to Waheguru's shelter, he loses all worldly fears. One is sure to find salvation in the shelter of the Guru. The individual, who serves Waheguru by his mind, his words, and his deeds, never suffers in life. 6.

Vus-hou Ghur = attain peacefulness. 9.
Jup-hou = recite. Jup(u) Jupnay = worthy of worshipping. Lukh Chauraaseeh = the 8.4 million life forms. Nerk = hell. Rusk(i) = while enjoying; with love. 10.
Khund = parts. Brahund = universe. Oodhaarunhaara = salvager. Ooch = transcendent. Athaah = unfathomable. Appara = endless. 11.

MEANING: The devotee, who has the treasure of all virtues, Waheguru, enshrined in his heart, does not go through any life form in the mother's womb. All his troubles are eradicated, and comforts come to stay in his heart, and he feels fully satisfied and contented. 7.
The Lord, who is present everywhere, is my friend. I have lost all my worries by reciting His Naam constantly. 8. Waheguru's Naam is like the support of millions of friends, and singing His praise is like having unlimited wealth. He has kindly given me the sword of Divine Knowledge to kill the five demons with a fierce attack on them. 9.
One should recite Waheguru's Naam, which is truly worthy of worship, and with which one can win over the demons (lust, greed, etc.) and all the worldly desires, and attain peace of mind. 10. Waheguru, which is highly transcendent, unfathomable, inaccessible, and endless, is the salvager of all the living beings of the whole universe, including all its worlds. The individual, whom He kind to, recites his Naam. 11.

Subhaiy-Oodhaarnhaara = salvager of all. Khusm = master; Lord. Poonni = fulfilled. Ichha = wishes. Paiyj = dignity. 16.

MEANING: Waheguru has severed all my worldly bonds with His benevolence, and has bought me as His personal slave. I have performed the holiest deed (to serve Waheguru), and now I feel as if the sweet and soft Divine Music is playing in my mind. 12.

Waheguru has won my faith in Him, so that my thoughts about my haumein have been eradicated. My Waheguru has done a great favour to me, and has enhanced (spread) my praise in the world. 13. One should always hail and sing praise of the Lord of the world. I am always a sacrifice for the Supreme Being, which is the only power in the whole world, and which has no one else like Him. 14.

I have made a connection with the eternal Waheguru with the grace of the Guru, and my mind is always imbued in His love. The Supreme Being is present everywhere, and His devotees survive spiritually by reciting His Naam. 15.

The Lord, Waheguru, is the saviour of everybody, and He is the beloved of His devotees. I am a slave of Waheguru, who has protected my dignity (against the attacks of Maya), and all my wishes have been fulfilled by the recitation of His Naam, oh Nanak. 16.1.

Word Meaning: Sungee = companions. Yogi = detached (human soul) = Pir(u). Naar = Dhun = woman (human body). Luptaani = attached tightly. Oorjh(i) = entangled; engrossed. Rung Rus Maani = enjoyment of different tastes. Kirt Sunjogi = union based on previous deeds. Bhuyyay Ikuttra = got together; got bonded. Bhog Bilaasa = enjoy luxuries of life. 1. Tut(u) = right away. Seegaari = adorned. Sungaanaiy = with. Ekuttar = together. Priyo = soul (As husband). Dilaasa = assurance; support. 2.
Buhou Bidh(i) = many different ways. Dhaavaiy = rushes. Aan(i) = by bringing. Vust(u) = thing. Puhounch(i) = reach; have access. Bhookh Piyaasa = hungry and thirsty (desirous). 3. Binou = request. Doyoo Ker Joraiy = with folded hands. Perdays(i) = foreign land; next world. Bunuj(u) = business. Greh Bheetur(i) = inside the house. Ootraiy = is removed.4. Kerm Dherm = religious rituals. Saadha = performed. Rus = sweet taste. Til(u) = miniscule; the size of a sesame seed. Laadha = acquire. Satsungay = in the holy gathering. Oolaasa = blissfulness. 5.

MEANING: The wife (human body) and the soul-husband (which, being a part of the Supreme Soul, should be detached from worldly attractions) are tightly attached to each other, and engrossed in Maya, enjoy its luxuries together. Based on the previous deeds of the soul (as husband), it is connected with the appropriate body (as wife), and they enjoy the luxuries together. 1. Whatever the soul-husband does (thinks), the body-wife accepts to do that right away, and the soul adorns the body and keeps her with it with love. The soul supports the body, and the two live together day and night. 2.
The soul (mind) rushes in many directions (makes different plans) to fulfil the wishes of the body, and shows its plans to her. But there is one thing (their union forever) that the body cannot have control over, and stays hungry and thirsty (dissatisfied) for that. 3.
The body-wife implores with folded hands to the soul-husband that he should not leave her to go away to the foreign land (to acquire Waheguru), and requests to carry out some kind of business (to connect with Waheguru) while staying in her home (in the body for ever) so that she no longer feels hungry and thirsty (worried about that). 4.
The soul explains the body-wife, that people have tried all sorts of religious rituals in the world, to purify their soul (to become immortal), but no one ever finds any comfort, not even the size of a sesame seed, without the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. (Guru) Nanak also clarifies that it is only in the company of the holy gathering that the body and the soul can enjoy blissfulness. 5.

Word Meaning: Chupul = clever. Siyana = wise. Punch Tutt(u) = the five basic elements (ingredients). Ruchun Ruchaana = the creation; world. Vukkhur = merchandize (Waheguru's Naam). 6. Vuss(u) = reside. Sukhvaasi = living in comfort. Baal Goopalay = the child-like (pure) Waheguru. Kit Na Laykhaiy = have no importance. Vuchun = word; promise. Chhoad(i) = leave. 7. Huqami Bunda = slave of Waheguru's Huqam. Oh(u) = that (God). Bhaaro Tthaakur = powerful Lord. Kaan(i) = Chhunda = subservience; any owings. Jichur(u) = as long as. Sudday = calls in. Ootth(i) Sidhaasaan = will leave. 8. Chunchul = fickle-minded. Kaachay = immature by wisdom. Buhour(i) = again. Sung(u) = company. Haasa = joke. 9.
Aagiya = Huqam. Boolaaya = called in. Mutaa Pukaaya = made a consultation. Chhootur(i) = widowed. Maati = body. Mithun = false. Mohaasa = of attachments. 10.

MEANING: The body is ignorant, but the soul (mind), even though capricious, is yet wise, and realizes that this world, which is created by Waheguru with the five basic elements (ingredients) (earth, water, air etc.), (is very attractive, and traps the man in its illusions); but the real merchandize (Waheguru's Naam) for which the soul is given the human form) It is available only from Satguru. 6. The soul finds comfort (blissfulness) in the union with the child-like (pure-hearted) Waheguru, but the body insists that he (the soul) stay with her because she is worthless without the soul; so, she asks the soul to make a promise that he would never leave her. 7. The soul explains that he is only a slave to the Huqam of Waheguru, who is the powerful Lord, and who does not owe anyone anything (so, His Huqam cannot be denied). I (the soul) can stay with you (the body) as long as Waheguru keeps us together; I have to leave when Waheguru calls me. 8.
When the soul tells the truth about their limited union, the capricious and unwise body does not understand it fully, and asks for the continuous union again and again, while the soul considers its insistence a joke. 9.
When Waheguru's Huqam arrives, the soul does not even tell or consult the body and leaves her. Watch this false worldly attraction of the soul leaving the widowed body of dust behind, oh Nanak. 10.

Khaasa = special. 13. Buchun Kay Sooray = valiant; True to His Word. Vichhurr(i) = separate. Na Kut Hee = nowhere. 14.
Goon-Nidhaan = treasure of virtues (God). Keem = worth. Deen = poor; humble. Ddookh-Bhunjun = destroyer of all discomforts. Rayn = dust of feet. Daasa = slave. 15.
MEANING: Listen, oh my greedy mind, serve Satguru day and night. Without Satguru, the Maya-worshippers burn in the fire of worldly desires, and the noose of the Angel of death is tightened around the neck of the Guru-less individuals. 11.
The follower of his mind keeps taking births and dying, and suffers this punishment again and again. The follower of his mind goes through the hells of births of all life forms, but Maya has absolutely no effect on the Sikh of the Guru. 12.
But only that individual becomes a Sikh of the Guru whom Waheguru likes. Who can erase the honour of the Sikh who is honoured by Waheguru? The fortunate individual, who is given the special robe of honour by Waheguru, enjoys permanent bliss. 13.
I am always a sacrifice to my Perfect Satguru, who provides shelter to every seeker, and who is True to His Word. Satguru has connected me with such Waheguru, who is the source of all comforts, and I will never leave His shelter for anywhere else. 14.
The Treasure of all virtues, Waheguru, is present in every heart, and in all places, and nobody can find the height of His Greatness. I have no capability, and have come to the shelter of Waheguru, which is the destroyer of all troubles. I wish to be the dust of the feet of His devotees (wish to serve them with respect), oh Nanak. 15.1.2.

Tupaavus = justice. Kayra = of. Thaan = residence. Bani = Huqam; Laws. Keeja = created. 5. Vud = great. Kaaja = tasks. Puteeja = convinced; pleased. 6.

MEANING: Present fully in every heart, my blissful Waheguru enjoys bliss and makes His own decisions for every individual. He is the True Emperor above every king of the world, and there is none other like Him. 1.
He is always gleeful (fully content), limitless, and compassionate. He is present in everybody, and is brightening them with His own Light. He creates countless forms, looks after them, and is always blissful. Being present in everybody, He also worships Himself. 2.
He creates the nature, and looks after it; and the eternal Waheguru Himself expands His universe. He makes the world play the drama of life day and night, and is pleased to hear His praise. 3. Waheguru's throne is everlasting, and so is sovereignty. His treasures are everlasting, and He is the true King. Waheguru is immortal, and so is His creation, which he supports with His eternal power (laws). He operates in the world with pure justice. 4.
The eternal Waheguru's decisions are perfectly just, and His dwelling (creation) is also everlasting. His nature is everlasting, and so are His laws governing it. Waheguru has created eternal bliss (when people sing His praise). 5. You are the only great King in the world, oh, Waheguru. All tasks get completed with Your Huqam. You know everything inside and outside, and are pleased with Your creation, oh, Lord. 6.

MEANING: (Being present in the living beings), You enjoy all the sweet tastes, and are the consumer of all goods, oh Waheguru. At the same time, you are completely unaffected by Maya and are fully detached from worldly attractions. You are the source of all comforts and blissfulness, and Your holy sight is immortalizing. 7.
You are the lone owner of Your largess (Your Naam), and You donate it to all the humans in the world, oh, Waheguru. Your treasures are always full of Your Naam, and there is never a shortage of it. All humans who receive it get fully satisfied and content. 8.
The Sidhs, the yogis, and the family men all beg for Your Naam. You are the only Lord, and the whole world is a beggar. You give Your Naam to the world. 9.
Waheguru is fully capable of creating and destroying anything and everything. Many people worship the limitless Waheguru with love. Waheguru has unlimited splendour, and people become His devotees by obeying His Huqam. 10.
You show Yourself (appear in the heart of the devotee) who makes a connection with You. They always enjoy bliss with the Guru's Shabad. But only that devotee is clever, attractive, and wise whom You like, oh Lord. 11.
The devotee, who keeps You in mind, is truly wealthy (ruler) and becomes carefree. Why should Your devotee, who keeps You in mind all the time, be afraid of anything? Who else can cause any harm to him? 12.

Word Meaning: Trishna = fire of desires. Boojhi = put out. Tthundha = cool; peaceful. Toota = disconnected. Gundha = connected. Soorut(i) = wisdom. Jaagi = awakened.
Amiyo = Amrit. Jhoal(i) = by shaking well. 13. Bhuyya = became. Abinaashi = immortal. Theevaiy = becomes. Bhermeeja = misgivings. 14. Poori = Perfect. Pooraiy = Perfect (Waheguru). Laaga = attached to. Smaani = is absorbed. Svaaya = many-fold. Toaleeja = in weight (strength). 15. Baarah = twelve maasaa (like 24 carat pure gold). Kunchun = gold. Shoodh(u) = pure. Nudr(i) Sraaf = (testing) sight of a goldsmith. Vunees = of beautiful shiny colour. Perkh(i) Churrhaaya = tested and approved. Taayija = suffers heat. 16. Bheeja = imbued. 17.
MEANING: The Guru connects a disconnected devotee who seeks His shelter with Waheguru. His mind is enlightened with Guru's Shabad when a new wisdom takes birth in him, and he drinks Guru's Shabad-Amrit by shaking it well (with full absorption). The fire of his desires is put out, and his mind becomes peaceful. 13.

Such a devotee merges into Waheguru and lives forever, never to die. The Guru dispels his misgivings about death, realizing that nobody is born and nobody dies (the soul is a part of the Supreme Soul, which never dies); he also becomes immortal. 14.
The Shabad of the perfect Guru is also perfect, connecting the devotee with the Perfect Waheguru, and he becomes absorbed in Him. His love for Waheguru grows every day, and his spirituality never wanes. 15.
Such a devotee becomes pure like the 24-carat gold, and with his beautiful shine on the face, he is approved by the Guru-goldsmith with His kind sight, and becomes a part of Waheguru's treasure. Like pure gold, which no longer suffers from high-temperature heating to purify it, such a devotee never has to undergo tough testing again. 16.
Your Naam is the true Amrit (immortalizing), oh Lord. Nanak is Your slave, and is always a sacrifice for You. I have attained the great bliss in the company of the holy gathering, and my mind is imbued with Your love to see Your holy Sight, oh Waheguru. 17.1.3.

Word Meaning: Bukhshinda = forgiving; provider. Shast = Shastras. Khut Kerma = the six rituals that the Brahmans are required to perform (to learn and to educate others; to perform yugs and make others do so; give and accept donations). Puvittar Asthaana = holy place (source of holiness). 1. Kilvikh = sins. Sung(i) = with. Phaaseh = caught in net. Upmaana = disrespect; insult. 2. Jea Daana = gift for the soul (Waheguru's Naam). 3.

Bhayt(i) = on meeting with. Bhuniyaiy = utter; sing. Klaysh = quarrels; disputes. Maana = respect. 4. Bighun = obstacle; impediment. 5.

MEANING: The Guru is a manifestation of Waheguru, and He is always kind and forgiving. The Guru is a source of holiness (purifying the hearts), and for the Sikh, He is like the Hindu holy books and the six rituals expected of the Brahmans (the Sikh does not need any of them). 1. All one's sins are washed away when he remembers the Guru (recites His Shabad), and he is not caught in the net of the Angel of death (he merges into Waheguru). One's mind is purified when he remembers the Guru, and he does not face any disrespect (in this world, or the next). 2. The devotee of the Guru worships Waheguru, and he does not go to any hell. The Guru always gives the gift of Waheguru's Naam to his devotees when they seek His shelter. 3. Waheguru's praise is sung at the Guru's Door (His place), where one can listen to that, and can also sing with their tongue. The Guru eradicates all quarrels (internal struggles) of His devotees, and gets them respect (in Waheguru's Court). 4.

The Guru "shows" the inaccessible, and the incomprehensible Waheguru to His devotees, and puts the misguided on the path of righteousness. The Guru reinforces the full Divine Knowledge in the mind of His Sikhs, who never experience any impediment in their worship of Waheguru. 5.

Sadhu dhoor(i) jaacheh(i) jun Tayray, Nanak sud koorbana hay. 9.1.4.

Word Meaning: Drishtaaya = showed. Poor(i) Ruhhiya = fully present. Gosaayeen = Lord of the world (Waheguru). Ooch = high. Oona = less than full; low. Aik Smaana = equal. 6. Trishun = fire of desires. Boojhaayi = put out. Johaiy = keep an evil eye. Maayee = Maya. Sat(u) = high morality; service to humanity. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Pea = to drink. Paana = drink-worthy. 7. Smaani = capable of staying. Vukhaani = sing for others. Nisturay = salvaged. Nihchul Thaana = permanent home; at Waheguru's Feet. 8. Mehma = greatness. Bhaanaiy = Will. Jaacheh(i) = beg for. 9.

MEANING: The Guru "shows" Waheguru, to be present everywhere - in the waters, and on the land. When one meditates on Waheguru with love, he finds that He is present equally in the high and the low. 6. One's fire of worldly desires is put out in the company of the Guru, and Maya cannot cast an evil eye on him (cannot affect him). The Perfect Guru feeds the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam, which is worthy of taking in, to His devotees who acquire high morality and contentment as a result. 7.

Guru's Shabad can stay in any devotee's mind who recites it for himself and for others to listen. All those who recite Guru's Shabad get salvaged and acquire a permanent place at Waheguru's Feet (merge into Him). 8.

Only Satguru knows His greatness (high transcendence), and whatever He does, he does so by His own Will. Waheguru's devotees beg for the dust of the feet of the Guru (long to serve Him with respect). I am always a sacrifice for Satguru, oh Nanak. 9.1.4.

(PAGE 1076): Aap(i) turaiy, suglay kool taaray, Hur(i) Durgeh put(i) siyoun jaayaynda. 6. --------

Word Meaning: Aad(i) = the origin. Nirunjun(u) = unaffected by Maya. Nirunkaara = formless. Vertaiy = operates. Niraara = detatched. Vern = the four major castes. Jaat(i) = subcaste. Chinh = physical features. Srisht(i) = world. 1. Lukh Chauraaseeh Joan(i) = the 8.4 million living species. Subaayi = all. Maanus = human. Vudiyaayi = honour. Paurri = ladder; rank. Chookaiy = misses opportunity. 2. Keeta = created. Luhhiaiy = acquire. Bhoolaayay = misleads. Boojhaiy = understands. 3. Herkh = haapiness. Soag = grief. Nugur = city; world. Oobray = salvaged. Trihaan Goona = the three effects of Maya. Sobha = praise. 4. Anik = countless. Kerm = rituals. Buhoutayray = many. Beejaiy = sows. Bundhun(u) = shackles; entrapments. Kooroota = out of season. Beej(u) = seed. Jummaiy = sprouts. Laaha = profit. Mool(u) = capital. Guvaayaynda = loses. 5. Kulyug = the present eon (world). Keertun(u) = Waheguru's praise. Perdhaana = supreme. Kool = associates. Put(i) = dignity. 6.

MEANING: The formless Waheguru, which is the root of the universe and is unaffected by Maya, operates in everybody, but is Himself fully detached from the world. He has no caste, no subcaste, and no physical features. He creates the world with His Huqam. 1.
Waheguru has created 8.4 million living species, but has given man the honour of being superior among them (the ability to merge into Him). If the man misses this special opportunity, he will keep suffering from being reborn over and over. 2.
What can be said about the man who is created by Waheguru (he has no power of his own)? A Sikh of the Guru acquires the invaluable Naam of Waheguru with His grace. Only that individual is misled who is misled by Waheguru, and the individual who is enlightened by Waheguru understands it (the importance of Waheguru's Naam). 3.
Waheguru has created this world where happiness and sadness both occur. Those who take Satguru's shelter are salvaged. The Sikh of the Guru, which stays above the three effects of Maya (with Guru's Shabad), is honoured everywhere. 4.
(Human life is given as an opportunity to unite with Waheguru by reciting and internalizing His Naam, and not to perform rituals). Like a seed that is sown out of season, it does not sprout well. Not only does any number of rituals performed in life become shackles for the man, but he also loses any spiritual benefit along with his original spirituality. 5.
Singing praise of Waheguru is the supreme thing to do in Kalyug (in the world), and one should sing it with full concentration. Not only does such a devotee find salvation for himself, but he also gets his associates saved, and goes to Waheguru's Court with dignity. 6.

Word Meaning: Khund = worlds. Putaal = underworlds. Deep = islands. Loaa = galaxies. Kaalaiy = death. Vuss(i) = under control. Nihchul = eternal. Abinaashi = immortal. 7.
Jayha = like. Bhayd(u) = difference. Maanus Dayha = in human body.
Jul Trung = water waves. Oottheh(i) = rise. Bhaanti = different forms. Sulul = water. 8.
Jaachik(u) = beggar. Dooaaraiy = at the Door. Dhaaraiy = adopts; shows. Ders(u) = sight. Triptaasaiy = satisfies. Tthehraayaynda = stabilizes. 9.
Roorro = handsome. Lorrun(i) = wish; need. Kurrayin = get done. Phayr(u) = obstacle. 10.
Aughut = difficult situation. Bunut(u) = forms; becomes. Praani = oh, man. Tithaiy = there. Saaringpani = a name for Waheguru. Kluttar(u) = wife. Bayli = friend. Chudaayaynda = frees. 11.

MEANING: Waheguru has put the worlds, the underworlds, the islands (continents), and the galaxies under the control of death (destruction) (they are all perishable). Only Waheguru is imperishable and eternal. Those who remember Him also become imperishable (by merging into Him). 7. Like the waves of water which rise on the surface of water, and then merge back into the main body of water, Waheguru's devotee also becomes like Him . Do not make any distinction between Waheguru and the devotee simply because he is in a human body. 8. I am a beggar at Waheguru's Door and beg for His sight, which makes me content and stabilizes my mind. 9.

But He becomes munificent in granting my request only when He likes it. Even though it is almost impossible to control (please) the handsome (attractive) Lord, yet He does all that His devotees want. The devotees get what they need from Waheguru, and nobody can erect any obstacles in their way to reach His Door. 10.
When one faces a difficult situation, one should remember Waheguru. Where there is no son, wife, or friend to help you, Waheguru, Himself frees (helps) you there, oh, man. 11.

Word Meaning: Athaaha = unfathomable. Kiyoun = how? Vaypervaaha = carefree. Silk = bonds; traps. Maarug(i) = (the right) path. Vaasa = dwelling. 12. Boojhaiy = understands; obeys. Booraa = bad. Bhulaa = good. Dooyay = both. Sumsur(i) = equal. Suhhiyaiy = endure; accept. Sehj(i) = blissful state. 13. Baal Soobhaayay = child-like nature. Uteet = Oodaasi = detached. Rung Kureh(i) = enjoy. Buhou Bhaanti = of many different kinds. Ludaayaynda = shows love. 14. Pergut(u) Bhuyya = appeared. Dhoor(i) = from the Source (Waheguru). Laykh = writing. 15. Kaarun Kerna = the basis (creator) of the universe. Dhuree = paced. Dhurna = earth. Laaj = dignity. 16.
MEANING: The Great Lord is inaccessible and unfathomable. So, how can one connect with the carefree Waheguru? The individual, whose worldly shackles (bonds) are severed by Waheguru, gets to be a part of a holy gathering to stay in there. 12.
That individual is considered a true devotee who understands (and obeys) Waheguru's Huqam. Such a devotee accepts the good and the bad the same way. One understands (gets connected with) Waheguru when he overcomes his selfishness and ego in Guru's shelter, and gets absorbed in the blissful spiritual state. 13.
Waheguru's devotees always live in comfort (are always blissful), and with child-like nature (pure-minded), they stay detached from the world. (With Waheguru's Naam at heart), they enjoy in many different ways like a child who is loved by his father. 14.
Nobody knows the worth (transcendence) of the inaccessible, and the incomprehensible Waheguru. One can only get connected with Him, when Waheguru connects him on His own. Waheguru appears only in the mind of that devotee in Guru's shelter, who has the union with Waheguru prewritten by Him on his forehead (in his fate). 15.
Waheguru is the origin of the whole universe, and has created, and placed the earth (in its orbit). I have taken shelter at Waheguru's Door, He will save my dignity (protect me from the attacks of Maya) if He is kind to like me, oh Nanak. 16.1.5.

MEANING: It is You, who is present in every visible thing in the world, and we listen to Your Bani (words in Your praise) with our ears, oh, Waheguru. There is none other like You which can be seen. You are supporting the whole world. 1.
You think about (look after) Your creation, and You, and only You, are present everywhere. You have created and expanded a world, and are looking after everybody. 2.

You have created some individuals to be great rulers, others who are fully detached from the world, and yet others who live in families. Some are always dissatisfied with their lot, while some are fully content, but You support all of them. 3.
You alone are immortal forever, and are closely mixed with Your creation. Your devotees are "one" with You, like the cross threads (warp and weft) in a fabric. You are hidden, as well as visible (in nature), and the whole universe is Your extension. 4.
You are highly transcendent, inaccessible, unfathomable, limitless, and have eternal existence. You fill the empty, and empty the full; such are Your amazing feats, oh God. 5.
I sing Your praise with my mouth (tongue), oh my eternal King; and see the inaccessible and unfathomable Lord with my eyes (in His creation). My mind and my body come to life when I listen to Your praise with my ears, oh the Lord, who salvages everybody. 6.

Jupeen = recite. Maahi = in. Bhuyyay = becomes. Nihaala = blessed. Ghaalna = hard labour (service to the Guru). 11.
MEANING: Waheguru looks after His creation with great care, and all the living beings ought to recite His Naam. He alone knows His nature (creation), and casts His kind sight on it (all the living beings). 7. The gathering of the holy saints is the place where one can sit with Waheguru (get connected with Him), and blissfully enjoy the stories of His amazing and entertaining feats. Waheguru's devotees sing His praise with Guru's Divine Shabad with deep concentration (and love). I also wish to sing his praise as His slave, oh Nanak. 8.
Birth and death are all Waheguru's amazing feats; the limitless Waheguru creates things and enjoys His drama. The Creator, Waheguru, creates the universe and looks after (raises) His creation. 9. I live by listening to Your praise, and am always a sacrifice for You, oh, Waheguru. I wish to remember You day and night with folded hands (with full reverence), oh my inaccessible, and endless Lord. 10. Who else, other than You, is there to sing praise of (there is none); I recite the Naam of only the "One" Lord in my mind. The service of Your devotees to You is to obey Your Huqam, and feel blessed, oh, Waheguru. 11.

Oochaarna = to recite. 16.

MEANING: We should recite Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Teachings (Shabad) and be imbued with Waheguru's love. Guru's Teachings fully burn away (eradicate) one's illusions about Maya and his worldly attachments, and sever his worldly bonds. 12.

A devotee is happy and comfortable in whatever situation Waheguru keeps him, and he gladly accepts whatever happens to him in a natural way. He has no enmity toward anyone and considers no one his enemy. He looks at everybody the same way. 13.

All fears of the devotee are eradicated, and the darkness of his ignorance is dispelled. Waheguru, who is fully detached from the world, appears in his mind. Overcoming his selfishness and ego, the devotee takes Waheguru's shelter (accepts Waheguru's Will), and serves Him to Whom he belongs. 14. There is a rare, highly fortunate individual who takes birth and recites Waheguru's Naam all twenty-four hours. Everybody in his company can find salvation, and he supports his family (of associates) to do so. 15.

I pray to the Lord with folded hands (with humbleness) that He endows me with His Naam, which I may recite all the twenty-four hours, and get absorbed in Him in the high spiritual state, oh Nanak. 16.1.6.

Triput(i), suntokh sayva Gur Pooray, Naam(u) kmaayay rusaayina. 6. ----------

Word Meaning: Soorut(i) = looks. Guvaara = oh, foolish. Mithun = false; short-lived. Mohaara = moh = worldly attachments. Pusaara = expanse. Nihchul(u) = everlasting. Naraayina = Waheguru. 1. Shernaayi = shelter. Soag(u) = sadness; grief. Drirraayay = reinforces. Aukhudh = medication. Rid = in heart. 2.

Turseh(i) = yearn for; desire strongly. Dayva = gods. Ja Kee = of whom. Anaathaan = of orphans; supportless. Deen = poor; weak. Dookh-Bunjun = destroyer of troubles. 3.

Dooaara = door; shelter. Soojhaiy = think of. Tirbhuvun = three-layered universe. Dhaavaiy = rush for. Boojhaiy = understand. Shah = Lord. Bhundaar = treasures. Ruttan = jewel-like Naam. 4. Dhoor(i) = dust of feet. Pooneeta = pure; pious. Soor(i) = gods. Nur = men. Sat(i) = immortal. Purakh(u) = living Waheguru. Bhaytut = on meeting with. Paar(i) Puraayina = swim across (the world sea). 5.

Paarjaat = a tree in paradise which is believed to fulfil all wishes. Kaamdhayn = a cow in paradise which also fulfils all wishes. Lorreh(i) = if you need. Sohee = looks attractive. Triput(i) = contentment = Suntokh. Rusaayina = source of all sweets. 6.

MEANING: Do not be misled by the looks (of the things), oh, foolish man. Worldly attachments are short-lived, and the whole expanse is perishable. Nobody has lived in the world forever; only Waheguru is everlasting. 1.

Take shelter of the perfect Guru where all your love for the worldly things, your griefs, and your misgivings will disappear. Satguru reinforces only Waheguru's Naam in your mind as the Mantra to recite, which is the perfect medication for all your ills. 2.

Waheguru's Naam, for which all the gods yearn, and by which the bhagats (devotees) serve Waheguru, which is the Guard of all the supportless people and is the destroyer of all the troubles of the weak, can be acquired from the Perfect Guru. 3.

I cannot think of any other shelter than Waheguru's. One cannot get any enlightenment from anywhere else, even if one rushes to search for it in the whole universe. The jewel-like, invaluable Naam of Waheguru can be had only from Satguru, who has the treasure of the Naam. 4. Satguru is a manifestation of Waheguru, and the dust of His Feet (His Shabad) purifies the mind, and one swims across the sea of Maya. Gods and all humans wish to have Guru's Shabad, but cannot get it (without Waheguru's benevolence). 5.

People wish to have access to the mythical Parijat tree or the mythical Kaamdhayn cow, which are believed to be the attractions of paradise, and are believed to fulfil people's wishes; but it is Waheguru's Naam granted by Satguru, which is the source of all sweet tastes, and by which one acquires satisfaction of mind and contentment. 6.

Gur mookhoun alaayay, ta sobha paayay, tis(u) Jum kay punth(i) na paayina. 11. ----------

Word Meaning: Punch Dhaatoo = the five demons. Bhaiy Parbrahm = fear of God. Paarus = the elixir stone. Pers(i) = to touch. 7. Baiykoontth = paradises. Luvaiy Laagaiy = come even close in comparison. Bupprri = poor; powerless. Tiyaagay = give up. Dersaayina = sight. 8. Soyee = the same. Laavay = attaches. Muthaayina = on the forehead. 9. Mehma = greatness. Bayd = the Vedas. Toochh = very little; negligible. Maat = size. Vukhaaneh(i) = describe. Uprumpur = limitless. Seetlaayina = becomes calm (peaceful). 10. Ja Kee = of which. Soyay = news; praise. Riday = in heart. Tthundha = cool; peaceful. Theavaiy = becomes. Alaayay = says. Sobha Paayay = wins praise. Jum Kay Punth(i) = on the way leading to (spiritual death). 11.

MEANING: Guru's Shabad kills the five demons (lust, greed, etc.), and one's mind gets purified with Waheguru's fear in mind. Satguru is such an elixir-stone whose touch purifies the mind, and one is able to "see" Waheguru. 7.

Even countless paradises do not come close to the transcendence of Satguru as a source of bliss, and the enlightened devotees ignore even the poor emancipation and prefer the Guru's shelter. Waheguru (His Naam) can be acquired only from the Guru; I am always a sacrifice for the Guru's sight. 8. Nobody knows the worth of the service to the Guru because one does not realize that the Guru is a manifestation of the inaccessible Waheguru. Only that devotee begins to serve the Guru who has great fortune written on his forehead. 9.

Even the Vedas do not know the greatness (spiritual transcendence) of the Guru. Whatever little they describe comes only from listening to others. Satguru is the manifestation of the endless Waheguru, and remembering whom, one achieves peace of mind. 10.

A devotee survives (spiritually) by listening to the praise of the Guru, and he attains peacefulness when he embeds Satguru (His Shabad) in his mind. He earns praise when he follows the Shabad uttered by the Guru, and he does not follow the path of life leading to the Angel of (spiritual) death. 11.

Word Meaning: Aagaiy = before. Dhuriya = placed. Soort(i) = wisdom. Kaayi = any. Kirmaayina = (on the) germ (worm). 12. Nirgoon = having no virtue. Rulaayay = provide shelter. Tehlaiy = in service. Peesoun = grind flour. 13. Bherm(i) = visited (without any gain). Shernaaya = came to (Your) shelter. Raakhou = keep. 14. Bhuyyay = became. Goosaayeen = Lord of the world (Waheguru). Dusaayina = of slaves. 15.

MEANING: I have sought the shelter of the Guru, and have offered my soul, my life, and my wealth to Him. I have no wisdom to serve Him; I just pray to Him that He be kind to this worm-like (filthy) slave of His. 12. I pray to Him that, even though I have no noble qualities, He will keep me in His shelter and kindly put me to His service. I will fan Him, grind flour for Him, and wash His feet to enjoy blissfulness. 13.
I have visited many doors (spiritual leaders) but have received no spiritual gain, and have come to Your shelter with Your benevolence, oh Waheguru. Kindly always keep me in the company of the Guru, and get me the gift of Your Naam from Him. 14.
My Waheguru became very kind to me, and I am able to have the holy sight of the Perfect Satguru with His benevolence. I am a slave of his slaves, and now I am always enjoying the blissfulness of the high spiritual state, oh Nanak. 15.2.7.

Word Meaning: Simreh(i) = keep (Waheguru) fresh in mind; worship; obey His Huqam (Laws). Goon-Taasa = the treasure of virtues (Waheguru). Baiysunntar = fire. Oopaarjunaa = the whole creatiomn. 1. Khund = parts of the universe; worlds. Deep = islands; continents. Loa = galaxies. Pataal = the underworlds. Pooriyaan = centres of population. Soa = that (God). Khaani = living beings of all the four sources. Bani = the whole creation. Hur(i) Junaa = Waheguru's devotees. 2. Koarr(i) Tayteesa = the 330 million gods. Jukh(i) = assistants of gods. Daiynt = demons. Agunut = countless. Jus(u) = praise. 3. Pus(u) = animals. Punkhi = birds. Bhoota = living beings. Audhoota = those who have renounced the world. Lutaa = Bulee = vines. Shaakh = vegetation. Ruv Ruhhiya = is present. 4. Thool = huge. Sookhum = miniscule; microbes. Munta = Mantar. Gooput = hidden. Pergut = visible. Bhuvun = skies. Dhunaa = Lord. 5. Asharama = the four stages of life as per the Hindu Granths. Verna = the four major casts. Gooni = having noble qualities. Chutur = wise. Sach(u) Baytay = with Divine Knowledge; enlightened. Raiyni = nights. 6.

MEANING: The earth and the sky are there in their positions with the Huqam of the treasure of all virtues, Waheguru, and so are the moon and the sun. The air, the water, the fire, and the whole creation function in accordance with Waheguru's Huqam. 1.

The worlds, the continents, and all the galaxies follow the Laws of the eternal Waheguru, and so do the underworlds, and all the centres of population. The living beings of all the four sources of reproduction, the whole creation, and the devotees of Waheguru recite His Naam (obey His Huqam). 2. Many Brahmas, many Vishnus, many Shivas, and the 330 million gods, recite Waheguru's Naam (sing His praise and obey His Huqam). All the assistants of the gods, and all the demons, sing Waheguru's praise; actually, the number of bodies that sing Waheguru's praise (or obey His Laws) is beyond calculation. 3.

All animals, birds, and other living beings sing Waheguru's praise, and so do the forests, the mountains, and the individuals who have renounced the world and live in the forests or on the mountains. The vines and the vegetation all sing Waheguru's praise, and the lord resides in everybody's mind. 4. All the living beings – from microbes to the huge elephants (or whales) – all sing Waheguru's praise, and the Sidh yogis and their disciples sing Waheguru's praise with their mantras. The hidden and the visible, all sing Waheguru's praise, which is the Lord of all worlds (the universe). 5.

The men and the women of all the four stages of life (childhood, youth, family man, and sanyasi) of all castes and subcastes, sing Waheguru's praise (obey His Will). The people with good qualities, the wise, and the enlightened, all sing Waheguru's praise, and the days and nights obey Waheguru's Huqam. 6.

Word Meaning: Ghurri; Moorut; Pul; Nimkh = (all are) small units of time. Kaal(u) = death. Akaal(u) = birth. Sooch(i) Soacha = who maintains cleanliness. Saun Shastar Sunjoga = books on fortune telling. Alukh(u) = invisible; incomprehensible. Lukhiya = comprehend. Khinaa = a small amount. 7. Kraavunhaar = making others do things. Untarjaami = omniscient. Junum(u) Pdaaruth = objective of human life. Jinaa = wins. 8. Voottha = takes dwelling. Kerm(i) = benevolence. Serb = all. Niruntar(i) = uniformly. Jaata = recognized. Joani Bherm(i) = go through rebirths. Roonna = cries; suffers. 9. Derd = pain; suffering. Sehj Anund = blissfulness of high spiritual state. Unhud Bani Dhoona = sound of Divine Shabad. 10. Dhunvuta = wealthy. Putivunta = respectable. Chhinaa = hidden; unknown; becomes famous. 11.

MEANING: Time obeys Waheguru's Laws and passes on in small units. Death, birth, and maintaining physical cleanliness of the body (observing cleanliness rituals) all occur with Waheguru's approval. The books on fortune-telling (horoscopy) are written with the wisdom given by Waheguru, but the incomprehensible Waheguru cannot be comprehended even to a small degree by their authors. 7.

Waheguru is the doer, and makes others do things of His choice, and He is the omniscient of all the hearts. The individual, whom Waheguru makes worship Him with His benevolence, wins (achieves) the objective of human life (union with Waheguru). 8.

The heart of the devotee, who recites Guru's Shabad with his good fortune (with Waheguru's benevolence), becomes a dwelling place for Waheguru, and he (the devotee) recognizes Waheguru uniformly present in every heart. Such a devotee never goes through the suffering of any rebirth. 9. All the sufferings of the devotee, who has Guru's Shabad enshrined in his heart, run away, and he enjoys the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam and of the Divine Shabad in blissful state of mind. 10.

The devotee, who recites Waheguru's Naam is truly wealthy, and the one who attends holy gatherings is truly respectable. The devotee, who has Waheguru's Naam embedded in his heart, is highly fortunate, and he becomes famous. 11.

Word Meaning: Muhhiyul = sky. Unjun = kohl; medication for eyes (mind). 12. Paara = limits. Gehr(i) = very deep. Athaah = unfathomable. Gumbheer = never changing. Atooll = which cannot be weighed (measured). Minna = measure. 13. Beeya = other. Aad(i) = at the beginning. Mudh(i) = in the middle. Unt(i) = at the end. Pasaara = expanse. Tunaa = trunk of a tree; body. 14. Doot = assistant. Nicket(i) = near; close. Munoruth = objectives. Ta kay = his. Poorun = complete. Servunee = ears. Jus(u) = praise. 15. Ootum = superior. Bhaaveh(i) = liked. Munaa = mind. 16.

MEANING: It is the same Waheguru that is present in the waters, on the land, and in the sky, there is no one else like Him worth talking about. The medication of Guru's Knowledge (His Shabad) eradicates all misgivings, and there is no one else to look to (for emancipation) beyond the "One" (Waheguru). 12. His Court is the highest in transcendence, and there is no limit to its description. The Lord is deep (incomprehensible), never-changing, and is unfathomable. He is immeasurable, so how can He be measured? 13.

You are the creator, and everything has been created by You. There is no one else like You, oh Waheguru. You were present at the beginning, are there in the middle, and will be there at the end; the whole universe is Your body (you live in Your creation). 14.
The individual, who listens to the praise of Waheguru with his ears, and sings it in the shelter (company) of the Guru, gets all his objectives achieved, and the assistant of the Angel of death does not go even close to him. 15.
Waheguru belongs to everyone, and everyone belongs to the eternal, the unfathomable, and the never-changing Waheguru. However, only those individuals are superior (are approved) who are liked by Waheguru, oh Nanak. 16.1.8.

Word Meaning: Sumruth = fully capable. Daana = provider; source. Mehrvaana = kind. Bhaykhaari = beggars. Baanchhaiy = wishes for. Jaachungna = as a beggar. 1.

Jun-Dhoor(i) = dust of the feet (opportunity to serve). Perm Gut(i) = the highest spiritual state. Deerugh Roag = long (serious) disease (of haumein). Aukhudh(i) = with the medication of. Raapaiy = be dyed. Mungna = wish for. 2. Bimul Jus(u) = mind purifying praise. Oat = shelter. Tujoun = give up. Bikh Kaami = poison of lusts. Niv(i) = by bending; kneeling down. Sookirt = noble deeds. Sungna = hesitation. 3. Rusna = tongue. Kmaatay = earned; performed. Uvgoon = ill qualities (deeds). Punch Doot = the five demons. Tungna = torturing. 4. Bohith = ship (of Waheguru's Naam). Saagur Turiyaiy = swim across the sea of Maya. Urcha Bundun = ritualistic worship of a deity with flowers and lamps. Sumut Nivassi = presence of Waheguru everywhere. Baahourr(i) = again. Nungna = feel naked (ashamed). 5. Kirpa-Nidhaan = treasure of benevolence. Deen = poor; helpless. Sukha = friend. Bhungna = separation. 6.

MEANING: I pray to Waheguru, who is fully capable of doing anything, and is the source of all comforts. that He kindly gives me the ability to recite His Naam. Waheguru is the provider, and all living beings are beggars at His door. I beg for His Naam as a beggar. 1.

I beg for the dust of the feet of His devotees (an opportunity to serve them) so that I may wash away the filth of my many previous lives, and attain the highest spiritual state. Waheguru's Naam is the medication to cure the serious disease of haumein. I wish to dye my mind with the love for the holy Naam of Waheguru. 2.

I seek the shelter of Waheguru only where I may listen to His mind-purifying praise and get rid of my poisonous lusts. I wish to offer my reverence to Waheguru's devotees by kneeling before them and touching their feet. It is a noble service for which I have no hesitation. 3.

I wish to sing Waheguru's praise with my tongue to destroy all my ill qualities. I survive spiritually by reciting Waheguru's Naam, which rids me of the five torturing demons. 4.

One boards Waheguru's ship (to get across the world-sea) by reciting His lotus-like Feet (His Naam) in the company of the Guru. Waheguru's real worship is to "see" Him everywhere, and when one does not experience the shame of rebirths, one merges with Him. 5.

You are the treasure of benevolence, and kind to the helpless; kindly make me a slave of Your salves (devotees), oh Waheguru. The Perfect Waheguru is present everywhere, and is always the friend of His devotees; once connected with Him, one never suffers separation from Him. 6.

Word Meaning: Urp(i) = offer. Pritpaaluk(u) = raiser and nourisher. Hut(i) = by killing. Tiyaagi = gave up. Huntna = killer. 7. Poorun = fully present. Untarjaami = know-all; omniscient. Achull = which cannot be robbed (misled). Bheet(i) = wall; curtain. Khoyee = removed. Serbungna = in everybody. 8. Jut, Kut = wherever. Paykhoun = I see. Sookh-Saagur = sea (unlimited source) of comforts. Toat(i) = shortage. Bhundaar = treasure. Rutnaagur = mine of jewels (noble qualities). Ageh = which cannot be held (contained). Agaah = unfathomable. Mit(i) = measurement. Boojhaiy = understands; makes connection. Kirpungna = has the blessing. 9. Seetul = Tthundha = peaceful. Dunjha = burning; suffering. Ker(u) = hand. Geh(i) = by holding. Amiyo = Amrit. Drishtungna = kind sight. 10. Trishun = fire of desires. Bhermungna = discontentment (wavering) of mind.11.

MEANING: When a devotee offers his body and mind in the service of Waheguru, his mind, which had been asleep (in the dark) for many lives, gets awakened (enlightened). He realizes that Waheguru, which created him, is his raiser and nourisher too, and his haumein (selfishness and ego), which is the destroyer of one's spirituality, is eradicated by Waheguru. 7. The omniscient Waheguru, which cannot be misled by anyone, is present in the waters, and on the land, and is also present in every heart. The Perfect Guru demolishes the wall of illusions (which separates the man from Waheguru), and one "sees" Waheguru present in everybody. 8. I see the source of all comforts, Waheguru, wherever I look. Waheguru is the mine of all noble qualities, and there is never a shortage of such qualities in His treasures. (Unlike the visible things) Waheguru cannot be held (possessed), and He is unfathomable whose limits cannot be known; but the individual, whom Waheguru is kind to, can make a connection with Him. 9.
With His Amrit-like (immortalizing) sight, Waheguru pulls out such a devotee from the world-sea (attractions of Maya) by extending His hand, whereby the devotee feels perfect peace in his body and mind, and his suffering of rebirths is eradicated. 10.
The devotee realizes that Waheguru alone is present everywhere, and there is none other like Him, and that Waheguru is present at the beginning, at present, and at the end. Also, his (devotee's) worldly desires and discontentment come to an end. 11.

Word Meaning: Bukhshund(u) = forgiving; kind donor. Jup(u) = recitation of Guru's Shabad. Juput = by reciting. Ful Paaya = gets rewarded. Deepuk(u) = lamp. Sungna = in the company of. 12. Keeno = did. Suhaayi = supporter. Tunaa = support. 13.
Jaachuk = beggar. Aardhaiy = worship; recite Naam. Putit = immoral. Paavun = pure. Sadhaiy = the Guru. Serb-Sookh = source of all comforts. Goon-Nidh(i) = treasure of virtues. Aan = other. Nihkinchna = not anything; worthless. 14.
Kaaya = body. Paatur = a container; a man eligible to receive some award. Laag(i) = touch; influence. Sungaara = in the company of. Nirmul = holy. Soyay = fame. Mujeetthaiy = fast red colour of madder which does not fade away. 15.
Solha Kulaa = perfect like the sixteen phases of moon. A perfect god is believed to have 16 powers in Hinduism. Fuliya = successful. Anut Kulaa = (Waheguru with) countless powers. Chuurrhiya = appears. Anund Binod = enjoyments. Bhoonchna = enjoy. 16.
MEANING: The Guru is a manifestation of the creator Waheguru, and is always forgiving. One is fully rewarded when he recites Waheguru's Naam with Guru's Shabad, and the lamp of Divine Knowledge enlightens his mind in the shelter of the Guru. 12.

I see Waheguru present in whatever I look at and hear only Waheguru's Shabad (His praise). I believe that whatever I do, I do so only when prompted by You, oh Waheguru. You provide shelter to all those who seek it, and You are the support of Your saints. 13.
The Perfect Guru, Waheguru, purifies even the immoral; I am a beggar at Your Door, and beg that I worship You (recite Your Naam) only. Your Naam is the best donation to beg for, because it is the source of all comforts, oh, the treasure of all virtues, Waheguru. Begging for anything else is worthless. 14.
A devotee, who is influenced (motivated) to recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, is made eligible by Waheguru to embed His Naam in his heart. With Waheguru's Bani (Naam), the devotee earns holy fame, and his heart is dyed with the madder-like permanent colour of Waheguru's love. 15.
Such a devotee feels as if the sun of Divine Knowledge, with full intensity, has enlightened his mind, and his life has become fully successful, as he has been connected with the Perfect Waheguru, endowed with countless powers. With Waheguru's Naam, he enjoys the blissfulness of all sweet tastes, oh Nanak. 16.2.9.

Word Meaning: Huoun = I. Keeta = made. Jeeou = soul. Pind(u) = body. Asaarra = ours; mine. 1. Putthaayay = sent. Bhaana = approved; liked. Kerm = deeds. Baahur(i) = outside; without. Ta Bhee = for this. Kaarra = worry. 2.
Oohaan = there; in the next world. Eehaan = here; in this world. Bhuniyaiy = utter; sing. Laykh = the writer (of the accounts of our deeds). Alaykhay = outside of such accounts. Jhaarra = dispute; argument. 3. Baarik = children. Thaaray = Yours. Khaylaayay = make us perform deeds. Oojhurr = wilderness; state of confusion. Maarug = the path of righteousness. Vaypaarra = astray; wrong path. 4. Baiysaayay = kept. Greh Untar = inside the house. Putthaayay = send. Disuntar(i) = different foreign lands. Ghaas = graze grass. Koorra = false; wrong. 5. Soorta = wise; with deep understanding. Jurraa = foolish. 6.

MEANING: You have created my body and my life, oh Waheguru. You are my Lord, and I have made myself a slave of Yours. You are the doer, and make us do whatever You wish us to do, and You are all-in-all everywhere, so we have nothing of our own. 1.
We came to this world when You sent us here, and we perform only those deeds which You make us do. Nothing happens without Your approval, so we have nothing to worry about. 2.
We hear that it is Your Huqam that rules even in the next world, and we sing Your praise in this world. You record our deeds, but You are beyond any record of accounts; we have no power to argue with You, oh Waheguru. 3. You are our father, and we are Your children; we play the game of life the way You make us play. You have created the state (path) of confusion (attractions for Mya), and the path of righteousness for us to follow, and nobody can follow the path which is different from the one on which You put us on, oh Lord. 4. You provide some people with enough wealth that they do not need to leave home for foreign lands to earn their living, while some others are not satisfied with what they earn at home, and are sent (by You) to foreign lands. Some are forced to earn their living by cutting and selling grass, while others are made rajahs (big or small rulers) by You. Which of these can we call wrong? 5. Who can achieve emancipation, and who lives in hell-like conditions? Who lives as a family man, and who becomes Waheguru's devotee? Who is wise, and who is shallow (has very low thinking and is impulsive), and who has a deep understanding of things, and who is foolish? 6.

Word Meaning: Huqamay = with Waheguru's Will. Dhurra = party. 7. Saagur = the world sea; sea of Maya. Bhaara = huge. Khurray = taken to. Rusaatul(i) = underworld; hell. Paar(i) = the other end. Sach(u) = everlasting. Bayrra = ship. 8.
Kautuk(u) Kaal(u) = drama of death. Putthaaya = sent. Opaayay = created. Smaaya = absorbed; destroyed. Rung Maanay = enjoy different tastes (events). Ruchun = creation. Akhaarra = ring to play games. 9. Naayee = grandeur. Jaayee = off-springs; creation. Atoala = immeasurable. Ahaarra = ours. 10.
Nirunjun = above the effects of Maya (Lord). Sutvunta = of high morality. Gaarrha = thick; strong. 11.
MEANING: It is with Waheguru's Huqam that some people achieve emancipation, while others live in hell-like conditions. It is through His Huqam that some lead lives as normal family men (engrossed in Maya), while others become devotees of Waheguru. It is through His Huqam that some people are shallow (impulsive, with low thinking), while others are wise; there is no party outside Waheguru's Huqam. 7. Waheguru has created the world as a huge sea of Maya, which is very tough to cross. Some foolish become worshippers of Maya with Waheguru's Huqam; they drown in the world-sea, and are taken to hell, while Waheguru ferries some across the world-sea by putting them on the eternal Satguru-ship (by making them His devotees). (Such devotees attain emancipation). 8.
Waheguru has created the drama of death to destroy the living beings created by Him. He has created the world as an arena where people struggle to overcome the attractions of Maya and to survive. Waheguru watches people struggle, and enjoys all kinds of situations. 9.
The Lord is great and so is His grandeur. His creation is huge, and he is a great provider. He is inaccessible, incomprehensible, limitless, and immeasurable, and we are non-entities before Him. 10.
Nobody knows Waheguru's worth. He, Himself, worships Him (knows His greatness). He is the source of Divine Knowledge and of concentration; He has very high morality. 11.

Word Meaning: Kayturriyaan = for a very long time. Soonn(i) Smaaya = meditated on self (before the creation of the universe). Dhoondhookaara = deep darkness. Pergutraa = appeared. 12. Shakti = Maya. Subul = all powerful. Kuhaaya = called; created. Soora = valiant; above the effects of Maya. Amar(u) = Huqam. Shiv = peace. Vertaayiun(u) = spreads; creates. Seetul(u) = cool. Tthaar Gurra = cold like hail (ice). 13.
Nivaajay = honours. Saajay = adorns with (noble qualiies). Vaajay = musical instruments. Tthukuraayi = leadership. 14. Bayunt = limitless. Goosaayeen = Lord. Haath(i) = in control. Naybayrra = final decision. 15.
Sreek(u) = rival. Bootaiy = a task that is done for free. Jubaab(u) = refusal. Choaj = amazing feats. Khurraa = standing; as a spectator. 16.

MEANING: Waheguru stayed invisible for a very long period when he meditated on Himself before creating the universe. That was a period of complete darkness for a very long time before He appeared through His creation. 12.
The all-powerful Waheguru created Maya with His Huqam, but He Himself remains above the effects of Maya, which is the source of the fire of desires for living beings. But Waheguru Himself is the source of peace and coolness (like ice), and delivers peacefulness with His Naam in the minds of the people against the fire of desires for Maya. 13.
Waheguru puts the individual, whom He wishes to honour (based on the deeds of His previous life), in the shelter of the Guru to adorn him with noble qualities. His Naam takes dwelling in the devotee's heart after he has acquired noble qualities, and he begins to feel as if Divine music is playing in his mind. 14. Nobody can describe Waheguru's greatness in words or write it on a piece of paper, because Waheguru is limitless, oh Nanak. Waheguru has been here from the beginning, is here now, and will be here at the end. The final decision in each case is in His hands (He controls them). 15.
He has no rival, and no one can refuse His Huqam in any task. My Waheguru alone is the ruler (is the supreme authority) and enjoys His own amazing feats, oh Nanak. 16.1.10.

NOTE: People call their deities by different names, and worship them for their qualities as reflected in stories (mythical or true). But Guru Arjun Dev Ji emphasizes in this holy Shabad, that Waheguru is the only Supreme Deity (no matter what names people give Him), and all the stories associated with the gods or deities (real or mythical), could not have happened without Waheguru's power behind them.

Word Meaning: Achoott = imperishable. Permayshur = the supreme Lord. Untarjaami = omniscient. Madhusoodun = the killer of the Demon, Madhu. Damodar = a threaded waste band (a name for Krishna). Rikhikaysh = the lord of senses. Goverdhundhaari = a name for Krishna, who lifted the Goverdhun mountain on his little finger to protect people from incessant rain. Moorli = flute. Manohar = attractive (Krishna). Runga = different forms (feats). 1. Maadhuv = husband of Maya. Mooraary = the killer of the Moor demon. Jugdeeshur(u) = the Lord of the world. Asoor Sunghary = killer of demons. Abinaashi = immortal. Tthaakur = Lord. Sunga = with. 2. Dhernidhur = supporter of the earth. Eash = Lord. Nursingh = a man with a lion's head. Vishnu is believed to have killed Prehlaad's evil father in this form. Narayin = Vishnu. Daarrah = molars. Ugray = on; hold with.(Once the demons hid the earth in the ocean (I do not know how this could be done!!) when Vishnu transformed him into a boar, and retrieved the earth by holding it on his molars. Baavun = midget. (Once Vishnu transformed him into a midget to defraud Raja Bul). Sayti = with. Chunga = kind. 3. Roop = forms. Raykhiya = physical features. Bunvaali = with the forest (whole vegetation) as His garland. Chukurpaan(i) = having chukra (a disc-like sharp-edged but hollow weapon) in his hand (Vishnu). Ders(i) = sight. Anoopiya = of unparalleled beauty. Sehs = thousands. Naytur = eyes. Moorut(i) = forms. Daata = provider. Munga = beggars 4. Vuchhul(u) = loving. Anaatheh = orphans; supportless. Narh(u) = Lord; Guardian. Gopi = cowgirls. Saathay = with. Baasudev = a name for Krishna. Unga = with (You); You have. 5. Mookund = emancipator. Lukhmi = Maya. Naraayin = Vishnu. Daroputi Lujja = the honour of Daropudi (the wife of the five Paandavas). Nivaar(i) Oodhaarun = protected from being shamed. Kumla Kunt = husband of Maya. Kuntoohul = amazing feats. Anund Binodi = one who enjoys. Nihsunga = unattached. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru is imperishable, is the Supreme Lord, and is omniscient. (Being present in Krishna), He is the killer of the demon, Mudhu. He wears a threaded band around his waist. He is the Lord (the creator) of the senses; He performs many amazing feats, such as empowering Krishna to lift Mount Goverdhun on his little finger, and He plays the flute beautifully. 1.

The husband of Maya, Waheguru, is mind-captivating, is the destroyer of the demon Moor, is the Lord of the world, and the killer of demons. He is the life (soul) of the world, is immortal, and the Lord resides in every heart. 2. He supports the earth, is the Lord of the world, and He killed the father of Prehlad by taking the form of a man with a lion's head. As Vishnu, He is called Narayan (living in the ocean), and He retrieved the earth from the ocean by holding it in his teeth in the form of a boar when the demons had hidden it there. It was only with Waheguru's blessings that Vishnu was able to transform him into a midget to defraud Rajah Bal. You are kind to everybody, oh Waheguru. 3.

He is also known as Ram Chand, even though He has no form or physical features. He holds a special chakra in His hand, and the whole vegetation is His garland, and His sight is of unparalleled beauty. Being present in all living beings, He has thousands (countless) eyes and countless forms. He is the only Provider while all living beings are beggars at His Door. 4. Waheguru loves His worship (devotees) and is the guardian of the orphans (supportless). Waheguru, which is above the effects of Maya, is the Lord of the cowgirls in the form of Basudev (Krishna), and resides with everyone. I cannot count all His qualities.5.
Waheguru is the emancipator, and in the form of Vishnu, He is the handsome husband of Maya. He saved the honour of Draupadi (the wife of the Pandavas) and rescued her when she was being disrobed by the Kauravas. The Husband of Maya, Waheguru, is fully detached from the worldly attractions, and enjoys performing His amazing feats. 6.

Word Meaning: Amoagh = never failing; always rewarding. Khuou = destruction. Abigut = invisible. Agoachur = incomprehensible. Lugga = attached; dependent. 7.
Sri-Rung = Maya's husband. Baiykoontth = paradise. Vaasi = dweller. Muchh(u) = fish – a carnation of Vishnu (Once the demons stole all the four Vedas and hid them in the ocean. Vishnu transformed him into a fish, and retrieved them). Kuchh(u) = Koorum = turtle – another incarnation of Vishnu (this time Vishnu transformed him as turtle to support the churner when the gods and the demons jointly churned the ocean and retrieved the fourteen Rattans. Autraasi = incarnated. Kayshuv = having long hair. Chulut = amazing feats. Niraalay = unique. Lorreh(i) = wishes. 8. Nirahaari = who needs no food. Samaya = present. Dhaar(i) = adopting; playing. Khayl = drama. Chuturbhooj = having four arms (Vishnu). Kuhaaya = is called. Saanvul = light brown. Bayn = flute. Mohaiyga = captivates. 9. Bunmaala = long garland of wild flowers. Bibhookhun = ornaments. Naiyn = eyes. Koondul = curled hair. Mookut = crown. Baiyn = flute. Sunkh = conch. Gudaa = mace. Muha Saarthi = Charioteer (Krishna was Arjun's charioteer in the battle of Mahabharat. Sutsunga = the eternal companion. 10.
Peet Peetumbur = wearing yellow clothes (Krishan). Tirbhuvun = universe. Dhunee = Lord. Jugunath = the Lord of the world. Bhunee = utter; say. Saaringdhur = having bow in hand. Beetthula = Lord. Serbunga = all qualities. 11.
MEANING: Waheguru is self-illuminating; He never takes any life form, and His sight is always rewarding. He is indestructible, and time has no effect on Him. He is immortal, invisible, and incomprehensible. Everybody is dependent upon Him. 7.

He is the husband of Maya, and dwells in paradise (every place is paradise where He lives). Vishnu Ji incarnated as the fish and as the turtle by Waheguru's Huqam. Waheguru, with long, beautiful hair, performs unique, amazing feats, and whatever He wishes comes to pass. 8. He needs no food, bears no enmity against anyone (has no rival), and is present everywhere. It is His drama when He is known as Vishnu, with four arms. He takes a beautiful form with a light brown colour and captivates everyone with the music of His flute. 9.
As Vishnu, He adorns Himself with a garland of wild flowers and with ornaments. He has beautiful eyes like a lotus flower, wears beautifully curled hair, a crown, and carries a conch, a chakra, and a mace. As Krishna, He was Arjun's charioteer and is an eternal friend of His devotees. 10. The Lord of the universe wears yellow clothes as Krishna. I recite the Naam of the Lord of the world with my tongue. Being present in everybody, the Lord, Waheguru, takes many different forms and carries a bow as Rama. He has so many qualities that I cannot describe them all. 11.

Word Meaning: Nihkuntuk(u) = without anyone to hurt Him. Nihkayvul = having no desires. Dhunujaiy = wealthy: source of all good qualities. Mihhiyaiy = in the sky. Mirt Loak = this world. Puyyaal = underworlds. Smeeput = close by. Usthir = eternal. Thaan = dwelling. Abhuga = unbreakable. 12. Nivaarun = eradicator. Bhuv-Khundun = destroyer of rebirths. Tokhit = is pleased. Bhigaa = imbues; pleased. 13. Achull = which cannot be deceived. Adolo = which never becomes weak at mind; has strong willpower. Jot(i) Sroopi = light-like. Maulo = blooms. Aap-houn = on his own. 14. Kahna = Krishna. Baana = in forests (meadows). Khupaaveh(i) = destroys. Layp = coating; effect. Til = sesame seed. Runga = worldly enjoyments. 15. Jeeh = tongue. Bukhaanaiy = describe. Sehs = thousands. Funee = heads. Shaikh = the serpent. Nuvtun = new (every time). Keh(i) Sunga = can sing. 16.
MEANING: Waheguru has no worldly desires, and there is no one in the universe capable of hurting Him (rivalling Him) in any way. The source of all noble qualities is present in the waters, on the land, and in the sky. He is close to (is present in) this world and the underworld. His dwelling is eternal and unbreakable. 12.
Waheguru purifies the immoral and is the destroyer of all fears and all troubles. He rids one of his ego, and is the eradicator of rebirths. The kind to the poor, Waheguru, is pleased with His worship, and cannot be pleased by any other quality (ritual). 13.
He is formless, cannot be deceived, and has a very strong mind which never shows any weakness. He is light-like and makes the whole world bloom. Only that individual gets connected with Him whom Waheguru Himself connects; nobody can connect with Him through their own efforts. 14. Waheguru Himself takes the role of the cowgirls and of Krishna, and Himself grazes cows in the forest (as Krishna). Waheguru, Himself, creates and destroys the world, and has absolutely no worldly desire, not even the size of a sesame seed. 15. How many virtues of Waheguru can I describe with a single tongue? Even the (mythical) serpent of Vishnu with thousands of heads does not know the limit of Waheguru's virtues, even though he is believed to utter a different name for Him day and night, and cannot describe even one of His virtues. 16.

Word Meaning: Oat = shelter. Guhhi = held; sought. Bhaiy Bhuyyaanik = frightening. Jumdoot = agent of death. Dootur = very difficult to swim across. Maya = the sea of Maya. Ichha = with Your Will. 17. Drishtmaan = the visible world. Mithayna = false; perishable. Rayna = dust (of feet). Mustuk(i) = on forehead. Perm Pud = highest spiritual state. Praaput(i) = has in possession (in fate). 18. Puraatay = stitched; acquired. Vaajunga = plays. 19. Kirtum = created names (depending upon qualities). Kuthay = descrines. Jihba = tongue. Poorbla = from inception. Rung(u) = love; blissfulness. 20. Gut(i) = high spirituality. Mit(i) = measurements; grandeur. Vukhaanaiy = explain. Sunga = with. 21.

MEANING: The sea of Maya (world-sea) is extremely difficult to swim across, and the Agent of death is very frightening (for the individual who drowns in the sea). So, I wish to seek the shelter of the Father of the world, Waheguru, and pray to Him that He provides His shelter to me with His Will, and puts me in the company of the holy saints. 17.

The whole visible world is perishable (so nothing is worth begging for in the world). I ask for only the dust of the feet of the holy saints of Waheguru to put on my forehead (an opportunity to serve them with humbleness) so as to attain the highest spiritual state. But only that individual gets this opportunity who has it prewritten by Waheguru in his fate. 18.

Those who are the source of all comforts, Waheguru, are benevolent to acquire Guru's Feet (His Shabad) in their heart. They enshrine Waheguru's Naam, which is the treasure of all comforts in their heart, and feel as if Divine music plays in their mind. 19.

People call You by many names, which are based on Your qualities; but "Sat Naam" (Eternal Lord) is Your natural name ever since Your inception, oh Lord. Your bhagats always stay in Your shelter, and enjoy the love (blissfulness) of Your holy Sight, humbly states Nanak. 20.

Only You know Your transcendence and Your grandeur, and can explain it. I, Nanak, only beg that You make me the slave of Your slaves (devotees), and keep me in their company if You please, oh Waheguru. 21.2.11.

NOTE: As you can see, Guru Sahib is addressing a Muslim faqir in this holy Shabad, and educating him about achieving union with Allah (God or Waheguru).

Word Meaning: Agumm = inaccessible. Bunday = man; servant. Khiyaal = thinking; worrying. Dhundhay = worldly affairs. Paiy = (of) feet. Khaak = dust. Faqir = an ascetic; holy man. Musafur(u) = traveller; visitor (in the world). Dervaysh = Faqir; beggar Kubool = approved. Duraa = (at Waheguru's) Door. 1. Sach(u) = Allah (His Naam). Nivaaj = Muslim prayer. Yakeen = full faith. Moosulla = a small rug on which a Muslim sits to pray. Munsa = desires. Aasa = a baton. Nivaarhou = get rid of. Museet(i) = mosque. Maulaana = Muslim priest. Kulm = Kulma = the Muslim Mantra. Paak(u) = Khuraa pure; pious. 2. Shuraah Shreeyut(i) = religious path; follow the Muslim laws. Lay = take; sing (Allah's praise). Kumaavhou = work hard. Tureekut(i) = purification of mind. Terk = logical thinking. Khoaj(i) = by searching. Tolaavhou = find out. Maarphut(i) = Divine knowledge. Abdaala = a higher level Muslim Faqir. Huqequt(i) = the highest spiritual state of Muslims. Muraa = death. 3. Kutayb = religious books of the Western spiritual state in Islam. Dus Auraat = the ten senses (five natural basic, and five practical). Budraahi = misleading. Punch Merd = the five demons. Siduk = faith Baandhou = control. Khaiyr(i) = welfare for all. Suboori = contentment. 4. Mehr = compassion. Roja = fasting during Ramadan. Bhisht = paradise. Peer Lufz = Guru's Words. Andaaja = completely. Hoor = Beautiful women of paradise (a Muslim belief). Noor = Allah's light. Mooshk(u) = fragrance. Bundgi = worship. Aala = Ahlaa = top class; supreme. Hoojra = a small room for prayer. 5.

MEANING: Allah (God) is inaccessible (and cannot be realized just by calling yourself a Muslim, oh, the man of God. You have to quit thinking (worrying) about worldly affairs (which bind one tightly to Maya). One needs to be humble like the dust of the feet of the holy men, and think of himself as a visitor in the world; only such a faqir (beggar/renouncer) is approved at Waheguru's (Allah's) Door. 1.

Allah's Naam (His praise) should be your prayer, and a strong faith in Him should be your rug to sit on to offer your prayer. Getting rid of your worldly desires should be the baton in your hand (which the faqirs carry). Think of your body as the mosque, your mind as the priest, and Allah's praise should be your supreme and holy mantra. 2.

Purifying your mind by logical thinking, searching for Allah in your mind, and singing His praise should be your religious path to follow. Control your mind by Divine Knowledge, and attain the highest spiritual state by which you can be "one" with Allah, oh, the holy faqir. 3.

Enshrine the teachings of the Quran and the other religious books in your mind, and control the ten senses which misguide you on the immoral path. Control the five demons (lust, greed, etc.) with full faith in Allah, pray for the wellbeing of everybody, and have contentment; these qualities enable you to be approved at Allah's Door. 4.

Compassion for others should be your visit to Mecca (Hajj), and humbleness should be your fasting during the month of Ramadan. Following the Guru's teachings in full will lead you to paradise, and spreading the fragrance of the Divine Message among the masses will be like enjoying the company of beautiful women in paradise (a Muslim belief). Worshipping Allah everywhere will serve as your supreme prayer room. 5.

Word Meaning: Sach(u) = (Will of) Allah. Qazi = a higher-level Muslim priest cum judge. Sodhaiy = purifies. Haji = who has visited the Great Mosque of Mecca during the Haj festival. Moolah = a Muslim priest. Mauloon = filth of vices. Nivaaraiy = removes; washes away. Sift(i) = praise of Allah. Dhuraa = support. 6. Vukhut = Vayla = times. Khaaluk(u) = the creator of the world. Maula = blooms; Allah which causes blooming. Tusbee = rosary. Dus - Merdun(u) = the destroyer (controller) of the ten senses (Allah). Soonut(i) = circumcision. Seel(u) = good nature. Bundhaan(i) = restriction; controlling. Buraa = supreme. 7. Philhaala = temporary; short-lived. Khilkhaana = family. Biraadur = brother. Humoo = all. Junjaala = bonds. Meer = ruler. Mulk = Rajahs. Oomray = wealthy. Fanaaya = perishable. Mooqaam = eternal. Duraa = Door; Palace. 8.

Uvul(i) = the first (time of nivaaj). Saboori = contentment. Hulaymi = humbleness. Khaiyri = wellbeing for everybody. Punjay = the five senses. Ikutt(u) Mooqaamaiy = at one place (in Allah). Uperpuraa = supreme. 9.

Maudeefa = a continuous recitation of the Quran. Bud Uml = bad (immoral) deeds. Kooja = a kettle. Baangaan = a Muslim call for prayer. Boorgoo = a bugle the Muslim faqirs blow. Berkhoordaar = good child. Khuraa = pure; good. 10.

MEANING: A true qazi is the individual who spends his life by the Will of Allah, and a true pilgrim to Mecca is the one who purifies his mind. Likewise, a true moolah is the individual who washes away the filth of his immorality, and a true faqir is the one who seeks the support of Allah (has full faith in Him). 6. (Muslims offer five prayers every day at fixed times every day), But Allah should be remembered all the time. Remembering Allah, which is the destroyer (controller) of the ten senses, should be your rosary, and controlling your sensual pleasures, and having a pleasant nature, should be your circumcision. 7.

Consider everything to be short-living; one's family and his brothers are all bonds (chains) of Maya. The rulers, the kings, and the wealthy are all perishable; only Waheguru's Residence (His existence) is everlasting. 8.
The first prayer of a Muslim should be Allah's praise, and patience should be his second. Humility should be his third prayer, and praying for the wellbeing of everybody should be his fourth, and finally, putting all five senses to focus on Allah should be his fifth prayer. These five prayers are the best ways to offer them (are approved by Allah). 9.
Believing in Allah's presence in everybody should be one's ongoing reading of the holy Quran, and giving up the immoral deeds should be the kettle of water to clean oneself. Believing that Allah (under different names) belongs to everyone should be the call for prayer, and becoming a good child of Allah should serve as blowing into the bugle (call for prayer). 10.

Word Meaning: Huq(u) Hulaal = honestly earned money. Bukhorhou = eat. Khaana = food. Dil Deryaou = heart, great like a river which does not discriminate between living beings for their needs. Maiylaana = filth of vices. Bhishti = eligible for paradise. Ajraeel(u) = the Angel of death. Doaj = in hell. Tthuraa = throws. 11. Kirdaar = good or bad deeds. Aurut = woman; wife. Yakeena = devoted. Rung Tmaashay = entertainments. Huqeena = to connect with Allah. Napaak = unholy. Paak(u) = pure; holy. Hudoor(i) = in Allah's presence. Hudeesa = the holy book of Islam next to Quran. Saabut Soorut (i) = no male or female circumcision, and cutting of hair. Dustaar = turban; crown. Siraa = on the head. 12. Moam = wax. Moam-Dil = wax-like soft hearted. Rung = enjoyments; attractions. Koosum = flower. Paat(u) = silk. Ghiyo = ghee; butteroil. Paak(u) = pure. Huraa = skin; hide of deer. 13. Mehr = benevolence. Mehrvaana = the benevolent (Waheguru). Merd(u) = male. Merdaana = valiant who fights against his five demons. Sheikh = a learned Muslim. Musaayik = seeking enlightenment. Nujr(i) = kind sight. Nuraa = Allah. 14. Qadir Kern = the creator of the nature. Kreema = the benevolent (Waheguru). Sift(i) = praise. Moohubutt(i) = love. Athaah = unfathomable. Raheema = the compassionate (Allah). Huq(u) = Allah. Boojh = by understanding. Bund(i) = trapped in the bonds of Maya. Khulaas = free; emancipated. Turaa = swim across the sea of Maya. 15.
MEANING: Eat the food prepared with honestly earned money, and make your heart big like a river (which does not discriminate between living beings for their needs) to wash the filth of your unethical deeds in there. The devotee, who makes a connection with (seeks the shelter of) the Guru, becomes eligible for paradise; the Angel of justice does not throw him into hell. 11. Like a devoted wife who obeys her husband, obey the Will of Allah, and please Him by performing noble deeds with your body, and enjoy the entertainments which connect you with Allah, oh, the man of God. Purifying your mind of your impure and immoral thoughts and deeds is the holy book, Hudees, that takes you close to Allah (connects with Him). Not performing male or female circumcision, and not cutting hair, is the crown that you wear (to get honoured) by Allah. 12.

A Muslim needs to be soft-hearted like wax, and needs to wash the filth of his mind. He should not even go near the enjoyments of sensual pleasures, and stay impartial like flowers, silk, ghee, and the deer-skin, which do not discriminate between people. 13.
The devotee, who is blessed by Allah, is the true valiant who fights against the five demons; and the one on whom Allah casts a kind sight is a truly learned person, an enlightenment-seeker, or a haji. 14. The individual, who understands the Creator of nature and of the world, praises and loves the compassionate Allah and His Huqam, gets emancipated from the worldly bonds, and swims across the sea of Maya, oh Nanak. 15.3.12.

Word Meaning: Ooch Biraajay = occupies the highest place. Oothaapay = destroys. Thaapay = Saajay = creates. Geht = by holding (seeking). Baalkaan = to the children (of Waheguru). 1. Gerbh Ugun(i) = heat of mother's womb. Rukut = blood. Kirm = germs.

Sunghaariya = killed. Simrun(u) = remembering; recitation of Naam. Pritpaaliya = raised and nourished. Maalka = Lord. 2. Churn Kumul = Waheguru with lotus-like soft feet. Nivaaray = remove; eradicate. Kaal = death. 3. Sumruth = Pmnipotent. Akuth = indescribable. Dayva = light-like (Waheguru). Unduj, Jayruj, Saytuj, Ootbhooj = (living beings of all) the four sources of production. Buhou Perkaari = in many different ways. Paalka = raiser and nourisher. 4. Praaput(i) Hovay = acquires. Rus(u) = sweetness. Maana = recognizes; honours. Ker(u) = hand. Leenay = embraced. Undh Koop = the deep and dark well (of Maya). Saalka = saints. 5.

MEANING: Waheguru occupies the highest place (position) above all. He creates, destroys, and creates again. We enjoy blissfulness in Waheguru's shelter, and as His children (in His shelter), no fear of any kind can impact us. 1.

Waheguru, which protects the fetus in the heat of the mother's womb with His Naam (which the fetus is believed to recite), and which does not let him get killed by the germs in the blood, and which raises and nourishes him, is the Lord of all hearts (living beings). 2.

I have found shelter in Waheguru by singing His praise in the company of the Guru. By reciting Waheguru's Naam all the time, my future suffering of rebirths has been eradicated, and there is no fear of death for me now (because I have merged into Waheguru). 3.

The light-like Waheguru is omnipotent, indescribable, and inaccessible. All the living beings serve Him (obey His Huqam). He raises and nourishes all the living beings from all four sources of reproduction, in many different ways. 4. Those who enjoy the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam in their mind are pulled out of the deep and dark well of Maya by Waheguru and are embraced by Him as His own (children). They feel as if they have acquired all the treasures of the world, but there are very few such holy saints. 5.

Word Meaning: Bherm(u) = misgivings; illusions. Tay = from. Daalid = poverty; suffering. Ghaalka = destroyer. 6. Ootum = superior. Bani = Guru's Shabad (in Waheguru's praise). Gopaala = of Waheguru. Ruvaala = dust of feet (opportunity to serve). Baasun = lust. Mayt(i) = erase; remove. Nibaasun = lust-less. Kulmul = sins. Jaalka = can be burned (destroyed). 7. Reet(i) = custom; life-style. Niraali = unique; different. Naali = with; close by. . Aalka = laziness; lethargy. 8.

Teh = there. Untarjaami = the omniscient God. Nimukh = a moment. Viserhou = be forgotten Poorun = present everywhere. Thaalka = on the land. 9.

Tutti Vaaou = hot air (slight discomfort). Anund Binod = blissfulness and enjoyments. Taalka = connection; relation. 10. Roag = ailment. Soag = grief; sadness. Gaahi = sing. Baynunti = prayer. Khaalka = oh, the Creator of the people. 11.

MEANING: It is the same Waheguru which is present at the beginning, at present, and at the end, and only that happens which the Creator wishes to do. All one's misgivings and fears are eradicated in the company (shelter) of the Guru, leaving no lethargy (indolence) or (spiritually) killing vices behind in the devotee. 6.

Singing Waheguru's praise with Guru's Shabad, and begging for the dust of the feet of the holy men (an opportunity to serve them) are the superior (best) things to do. By doing so, all one's sins and worldly desires are destroyed, and he is left with no desire for worldly attractions. 7. The holy saints lead a different lifestyle, always keeping Waheguru close to them. They remember Him with every breath, and with every bite of food, and show no laziness in worshipping Him. 8.
I see the omniscient Waheguru everywhere I look. I beg Him that I should not forget Him even for a short moment. His devotees sustain themselves spiritually by reciting the Naam of Waheguru, which is fully present in the forests, the waters, and the land. 9.
A devotee, who stays alert (against the attacks of Maya) by remembering Waheguru day and night, does not suffer even from a touch of hot air. He has no connection with (attraction for) Maya, and enjoys blissfulness by reciting Waheguru's Naam. 10.
Such a devotee sings Waheguru's praise in the company of the Guru (with His Shabad), and suffers from no ailment, grief, or any other trouble. I also pray to the Creator of the world, Waheguru, to kindly grant me His Naam. 11.

Word Meaning: Rung(i) Ruttay = imbued in love. Apaaray = oh, limitless God. Jayhay = like. Bhaalka = are found. 12. Kaahoo Bayra = anytime. Perm Pud(u) = highest spiritual state. Sungi = companion. Naalka = with; close by. 13.
Saajun = Meet = friend. Aik = the "One" God. Drirraayay = reinforces. Doormut = evil thinking. Khoyee = got rid of. Kaam = lust. Tujaayay = makes abandon. Oopdaysh(u) = teaching. Nirmaalka = purifying. 14. Pukrraayay = made me hold (drop on). Paiyra = feet (shelter). Khundiya = cut into pieces; eradicated. Unaalka = of the fire (of desires). 15. Bisraiy = forgotten. Aatth Pehr = all the twenty-four hours. Dhiyaayeen = remember. Vudaalka = great. 16.
MEANING: Your Naam is the most precious jewel, and Your devotees are imbued in Your love, oh dear and limitless Waheguru. Those who are imbued with Your love become just like You, but there are very few of them who are found in the world. 12.
My mind longs for the dust of the feet of such devotees (wish to serve them with reverence) who never forget Waheguru anytime. One attains the highest spiritual state in their company, and Waheguru becomes their permanent companion. 13.
That holy saint is one's dear friend who reinforces Waheguru's Naam in his heart, whereby he (the devotee) gets rid of his evil thinking. With the teachings of the holy saint, one's mind is purified, and he gives up (overcomes) his lust, rage, and ego. 14.
The Guru made me drop on the Feet of Waheguru (connected me with Him), and now I realize that I have no real friend other than Waheguru. I am a sacrifice to my Perfect Guru, who has cut the illusion of the fire of my desires into pieces. 15.

I pray that I do not forget my Waheguru even for the time it takes to breathe once, and wish to remember Him all twenty-four hours. Waheguru is the greatest and is fully capable of doing anything. His devotees are imbued with His love, oh Nanak. 16.4.13.

Kaam, kroadh, ninda purhuriyaiy, Hur(i) rusna Nanak gaavan. 5. ---------

Word Meaning: Churn Kumul = Waheguru's lotus-like Feet (His Naam). Dhaareen = acquire. Numuskaareen = bow to. Urp(i) = offer. Soohaavna = attractive; comforting. 1. Jeeou = life. Pind(u) = body. Suvaaray = beautifies. 2. Ja Tay = from whom. Birtha = without; empty; devoid of. Bhuj(u) = recite Naam. Achoot = immortal. 3. Chaar(i) Pdaaruth = the four desired things: high morality, wealth, fulfilment of wishes, and emancipation. Asht-Dusaa = eight and ten = 18 Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Sehj Sookh = blissfulness (of high spiritual state). Nuoun Nidh(i) = the nine mythical treasures. Serb Kulyaan = all wellbeing. Chaaheh(i) = wish for. Raavna = remember (Naam). 4. Shast Simrit(i) = the Hindu holy books. Bayd = the Vedas. Vkhaani = say. Junum Pdaaruth

= the objective of life. Praani = oh man. Purhuriyaiy = push away; get rid of. Rusna = with the tongue. 5.

MEANING: I wish to bow to the Perfect Guru every moment, and offer my body and my mind before Him, (because it is with His grace that) I can enshrine Waheguru's Naam in my mind all the time. Waheguru's Naam is very highly blissful in the world. 1.

Why should anyone drop the Lord, Waheguru, from his mind? It is Waheguru who gives the man his life and his body, and makes it beautiful. One should remember the Creator with every breath and every bite (to be spiritually rewarded) because one reaps the reward of what he sows. 2. One should keep Waheguru, which no one is devoid of, in mind all the twenty-four hours, and recite the Naam of the immortal Lord in the company of the Guru so as to earn praise in Waheguru's Court (and to merge into Him). 3.

Waheguru's Naam is the treasure of all the 18 supernatural powers, of the four desired things (high morality, wealth, fulfilment of wishes and emancipation), of the nine mythical treasures of the world, and of the blissfulness of the high spiritual state. Sing praise of the Lord in the shelter of the Guru if you wish all wellbeing for you, oh man. 4.

Even the Vedas and the other holy books teach that man should win the objective of his life (emancipation) (which can be achieved only by singing Waheguru's praise). So, get rid of your lust, and rage, and quit vilification of others, and sing Lord's praise with your tongue, (to achieve emancipation), oh, Nanak. 5.

Nanak daas sudaa shernaayi, doosur luvaiy na laavna. 10. ----------

Word Meaning: Roop = looks; form Raykhiya = physical features. Kool = clan. Poorun = Perfect; omnipresent. Poor(i) Ruhhiya = filling completely. Buhoorr(i) = again. Joani = in the womb. 6. Purakh Bidhaata = the carver of our fates, Waheguru. Julta Phiraiy = keeps suffering. Taata = hot; in suffering. Akirtghunaiy = disloyal; ungrateful. Nerk Ghor = torturous hell. 7. Nivaajiya = honoure (with superior human life). Kaahoo Siraiy Na Laavna = achieves no success. 8. Ungreh(u) = kindness. Kuchhooyaiy Naahi = nothing. Junaaveh(i) = gives understanding; enlightens. 9.

Dhoor(i) = by Waheguru. Viyaapaiy = impact. Luvaiy Na Laavna = consider equal. 10.

MEANING: The devotee, who recites day and night the Naam of the Perfect Waheguru, who has no form, no physical features, no clan, and no caste, and which is present everywhere, is highly fortunate, and never goes into the mother's womb again (never takes rebirth). 6.

The individual, who forgets the Carver of our fates, Waheguru, burns in the fire of worldly desires and keeps suffering all the time. Nobody can protect the ungrateful, and he is put in the torturous hell (suffers in rebirths). 7. The individual, who ignores Waheguru, who created him, and gave him life, body, and wealth, and who protected him in his mother's womb, and honoured him (with superior human life), and is actually imbued in the love of others (family, Maya, etc.), never succeeds in getting emancipation. 8.

You are present in every heart, and are very close to everybody, oh my Lord, Waheguru. We have no control over anything, and only that individual gets enlightened whom You enlighten, so be kind, and enlighten me too, please. 9.
Maya (worldly attractions) cannot affect the individual who has good fortune prewritten on his forehead (in his fate) by Waheguru. Waheguru's devotees are always in His shelter, and they do not acknowledge anybody else as equal to Him, oh Nanak. 10.

Bhagat(i) daan(u) mungaiy jun(u) Tayra, Nanak, bul(i), bul(i) jaavna. 15.1.14.22.24.2.14.62.
Word Meaning: Aagiya = with His Huqam. Birlay = some rare person. Cheenay = recognize. Jut Kut = everywhere. Ohee = the same (God). Sumaavna = is present. 11.
Baal-Suhaayi = supporter from childhood. Mun(i) Bhaavna = liked in mind. 12.
Mirt(u) = death. Aap(u) Vunjaavna = lose self; feel humiliation. 13.
Gaandhay = reconnects. Kur(i) Apunay = making own. 14.
Keemut(i) = worth. Achurj Roop = amazing appearances. Bhagat(i) = of worship. 15.
MEANING: All the comforts and discomforts are controlled by Waheguru with His Laws. But some rare person realizes this fact with Waheguru's Amrit-like Naam. Even though Waheguru is present everywhere, no one can gauge the worth of His virtues. 11.
Waheguru is the best Provider, but being present in everybody, He is also His own devotee (consumer). He is Perfect, and is the carver of our fates. He is a friend from childhood of the man whom He likes. 12. Death, suffering, and comforts are already prewritten by Waheguru for each individual, which never increase even slightly (not even the size of a sesame seed), and cannot be reduced by any means by man. Only that happens which is to the liking of Waheguru; the man simply feels humiliated by complaining. 13.
Waheguru pulls some individuals out of the dark well of Maya (deep attachments to Maya that kill one's spirituality) and reconnects them with Him by His choice. He embraces them as His own with His benevolence, and protects them (from the attacks of Maya) by putting them in the shelter of the Guru, where they sing His praise. 14.
Waheguru has many amazing appearances and has unparalleled majesty, but nobody can tell His worth (splendour). I beg for the gift of His worship from Waheguru, and am always a sacrifice for Him, oh Nanak. 15.1.14.22.24.2.14.62.
