ਮਾਰੂ ਵਾਰ ਮਹਲਾ 3॥ ੴਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਪ੍ਰਸਾਦਿ॥

Maru Vaar, Mehla 3: Ek Onkar Satgur Persad(i):

ਸਲੋਕੁ ਮ:1॥ ਵਿਣੁ ਗਾਹਕ ਗੁਣੁ ਵੇਚੀਐ ਤਉ ਗੁਣੁ ਸਹਘੋ ਜਾਇ॥ ਗੁਣਾ ਕਾ ਗਾਹਕੁ ਜੇ ਮਿਲੈ ਤਉ ਗੁਣੁ ਲਾਖ ਵਿਕਾਇ॥

(ਅੰਗ 1087)॥ ਗੁਣ ਤੇ ਗੁਣ ਮਿਲਿ ਪਾਈਐ ਜੇ ਸਤਿਗੁਰ ਮਾਹਿ ਸਮਾਇ॥ ਮੋਲਿ ਅਮੋਲੁ ਨ ਪਾਈਐ ਵਣਜਿ ਨ ਲੀਜੈ ਹਾਟਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਪੂਰਾ ਤੋਲੁ ਹੈ ਕਬਹੁ ਨ ਹੋਵੈ ਘਾਟਿ॥ 1॥

Sloak(u) M:1: Vin(u) gaahuk goon(u) vaychiyaiy, tuou goon(u) sehgho jaayay, Goona ka gaahuk(u) jay milaiy, tuou goon(u) lakh vikaayay.

(PAGE 1087): Goon tay goon mil(i) paayiyaiy jay Satgur maah(i) smaayay. Moal(u) amoal(u), na paayiyaiy, vunuj(i) na leejaiy haat(i). Nanak, poora toal(u) haiy, kubhoon na hovaiy ghaat(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Vin(u) = without. Gaahuk = (knowledgeable) buyer. Sehgho = cheap; inexpensive. Goon Tay = Waheguru's virtues. Smaayay = get absorbed (in the shelter). Moal(u) = price. Amoal(u) = priceless. Vunuj(i) = merchandize (Waheguru's Naam) Haat(i) = worldly shops. Poora Toal = full price (offering self to Waheguru). 1.

MEANING: If we sell a product to a buyer who has no knowledge about the real qualities of the product, the product will fetch a much lower price; but if a buyer knows the real worth of the qualities of the product, it will sell for millions (at a much higher price). Similarly, Waheguru's virtues (His Naam) can be acquired only by singing praise of His qualities in the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru's Naam is priceless and it cannot be bought at any shop at any price. Its price is fixed, and one must acquire the required noble qualities (high morality and Waheguru's praise) to enshrine the Naam in the heart, and this price is never lowered. Such noble qualities can be acquired only in Satguru's shelter, who is the source of these qualities, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Vihoonay = empty; devoid of. Bhermseh(i) = wander through. Neet = everyday; continuously. Baandhay = tightly attached (to Maya). Dheeliya = loosely attached. Sach(u) = ever-true (Naam). Kerni = performance. Reet(i) = custom; lifestyle. 2.

MEANING: Those who are devoid of Waheguru's Naam go through many life forms (take rebirths) continuously. Some are strongly attached to Maya, while others are somewhat loosely attached. Yet, some others feel blissful in Waheguru's love. The best deed for the man to perform, and the best lifestyle, is to accept Waheguru's Huqam (enshrine His eternal Naam) in the heart, oh Nanak. 2.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਗੁਰ ਤੇ ਗਿਆਨੁ ਪਾਇਆ ਅਤਿ ਖੜਗੁ ਕਰਾਰਾ॥ ਦੂਜਾ ਭ੍ਰਮੁ ਗੜੁ ਕਟਿਆ ਮੋਹੁ ਲੋਭੁ ਅਹੰਕਾਰਾ॥ ਹਰਿ ਕਾ ਨਾਮੁ ਮਨਿ ਵਸਿਆ ਗੁਰੁ ਸਬਦਿ ਵੀਚਾਰਾ॥ ਸਚ ਸੰਜਮਿ ਮਤਿ ਊਤਮਾ ਹਰਿ ਲਗਾ ਪਿਆਰਾ॥ ਸਭੁ ਸਚੋ ਸਚੁ ਵਰਤਦਾ ਸਚੁ ਸਿਰਜਣਹਾਰਾ॥ 1॥

Paurri: Gur tay Giyan(u) paaya, ut(i) khurrug(u) kuraara. Dooja bherm(u) gurrh(u) kuttiya, moh(u), loabh(u) ahunkaara. Hur(i) ka Naam(u) mun(i) vussiya, Gur(u) Shabad(i) veechaara.

Sach sunjum(i), mut(i) ootma, Hur(i) lugga piyara. Subh(u) Sacho, Sach(u) vertda, Sach(u) sirjunhaara. 1.

Word Meaning: Khurrug(u) = sword (like). Kuraara = very strong. Bherm Gurrh(u) = the fort of illusions. Kuttiay = demolished. Sunjum(i) = with control on senses. Ootma = superior. Vertda = operates.

MEANING: One acquires the Divine Knowledge from the Guru, which is strong (sharp) like a sword, and which cuts into pieces (demolishes) his fort of misgivings, his worldly attachments, his greed, and his ego. By pondering on Guru's Shabad, Waheguru's Naam is embedded (enshrined) in his heart, and, with control over his senses through the Naam, his thoughts are purified, and he begins to love Waheguru; he also realizes that it is Waheguru that operates everywhere. 1.

ਸਲੋਕੁ ਮ:3॥ ਕੇਦਾਰਾ ਰਾਗਾ ਵਿਚਿ ਜਾਣੀਐ ਭਾਈ ਸਬਦੇ ਕਰੇ ਪਿਆਰੁ॥ ਸਤਸੰਗਤਿ ਸਿਉ ਮਿਲਦੋ ਰਹੈ ਸਚੇ ਧਰੇ ਪਿਆਰੁ॥ ਵਿਚਹੁ ਮਲੁ ਕਟੇ ਆਪਣੀ ਕੁਲਾ ਕਾ ਕਰੇ ਉਧਾਰੁ॥ ਗੁਣਾ ਕੀ ਰਾਸਿ ਸੰਗ੍ਰਹੈ ਅਵਗਣ ਕਢੈ ਵਿਡਾਰਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਮਿਲਿਆ ਸੋ ਜਾਣੀਐ ਗੁਰੂ ਨ ਛੋਡੈ ਆਪਣਾ ਦੂਜੈ ਨ ਧਰੇ ਪਿਆਰੁ॥ 1॥

Word Meaning: Kedara = (a less popular) Raag. Mul(u) = filth. Koolaan = of clans. Raas(i) = capital; wealth. Sungrehaiy = accumulate. Uvgun = bad qualities. Vidaar(i) = by destroying. Doojay = the other (Maya).

MEANING: Even the less popular Raag, Kedara, gets well recognized among the popular raags if Guru's Shabads are written in this Raag, and people love them. Guru's Shabad connects the devotee with the company of the holy saints, and he begins to love Waheguru. Not only does he wash away the filth of his own mind with Guru's Shabad, but he also salvages his associates. He accumulates the wealth of noble qualities and cleanses his mind by destroying his bad qualities. Only that devotee is considered to be connected with Waheguru, who does not leave the shelter of the Guru, and does not love anybody else (like attractions of Maya), oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Bohithaiy = on the Guru-ship. Lehreen = waves. Tthaak = obstruction. Dheeruk = encouragement. Titt(u) = His (God). Saavdhaan = alert. Maan(u) = pride.
MEANING: I set my journey of life by boarding the ship of Guru's Shabad in the sea of Maya, which is full of tall waves of its attractions (in the form of sensual pleasures). But with Guru's encouragement (blessings), there are no obstructions to this Ship. My Guru is very alert (a great captain), and He ferries us across the sea to Waheguru's Door (connects His devotees with Him, unaffected by the attractions of Maya). It is with His benevolence that one goes to Waheguru's Court with pride (confidence), oh Nanak. 3.

ਪਉੜੀ॥ ਨਿਹਕੰਟਕ ਰਾਜੁ ਭੁੰਚਿ ਤੂ ਗੁਰਮੁਖਿ ਸਚੁ ਕਮਾਈ॥ ਸਚੈ ਤਖਤਿ ਬੈਠਾ ਨਿਆਉ ਕਰਿ ਸਤ ਸੰਗਤਿ ਮੇਲਿ ਮਿਲਾਈ॥ ਸਚਾ ਉਪਦੇਸੁ ਹਰਿ ਜਾਪਣਾ ਹਰਿ ਸਿਉ ਬਣਿ ਆਈ॥ ਐਥੈ ਸੁਖਦਾਤਾ ਮਨਿ ਵਸੈ ਅੰਤਿ ਹੋਇ ਸਖਾਈ॥ ਹਰਿ ਸਿਉ ਪ੍ਰੀਤਿ ਊਪਜੀ ਗੁਰਿ ਸੋਝੀ ਪਾਈ॥ 2॥

Word Meaning: Nihkuntuk = without any thorn (trouble). Raj(u) = rule on mind. Kumaayi = earnings; wealth. Sach(u) = Naam. Sachaiy = eternal. Tukhut = throne. Niyaaoun Kur(i) = delivers justice. Oodaysh(u) = teachings; Shabad. Bun Aayi = have same views (love each other). Aithaiy = in this life. Sukhaayi = friend. Oopji = sprouted. Sojhi = understanding. 2.
MEANING: With the wealth of Waheguru's Naam acquired in the shelter of the Guru, one enjoys reign on his mind without any opposition from any of his senses. When such a devotee is connected with the gathering of holy saints by Waheguru, who delivers justice sitting on His eternal throne, he recites His Naam with Guru's Shabad, and earns Waheguru's love (approval). With the Guru enlightening his mind, he begins to love Waheguru. The source of all comforts, Waheguru, takes dwelling in the devotee's mind in this world, and He becomes his friend (supporter) at the end. 2.

MEANING: I followed the journey of life, misled by the attractions of Maya, and nobody showed me the right path. I wish to seek the advice of the (spiritually) wise men to get rid of my suffering. (I was told) that if I enshrine the Perfect Satguru (His Shabad) in my mind, I will also find Waheguru there (in my mind). Now, I know that one can achieve the stabilization of mind (contentment) by singing the praise of Waheguru (with Guru's Shabad), oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਆਪੇ ਕਰਣੀ ਕਾਰ ਆਪਿ ਆਪੇ ਕਰੇ ਰਜਾਇ॥ ਆਪੇ ਕਿਸ ਹੀ ਬਖਸਿ ਲਏ ਆਪੇ ਕਾਰ ਕਮਾਇ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਚਾਨਣੁ ਗੁਰ ਮਿਲੈ ਦੁਖ ਬਿਖੁ ਜਾਲੀ ਨਾਇ॥ 2॥

The ignorant and (spiritually) blind man does not understand that the sword of the Angel of death is hanging over his head. Those who have tasted the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam are salvaged with the grace of the Guru. Waheguru Himself does everything and makes others do things of His liking, and He is the guard of His devotees. 3.
ਸਲੋਕੁ ਮ:3॥ ਜਿਨਾ ਗੁਰੁ ਨਹੀ ਭੇਟਿਆ ਭੈ ਕੀ ਨਾਹੀ ਬਿੰਦ॥ ਆਵਣੁ ਜਾਵਣੁ ਦੁਖੁ ਘਣਾ ਕਦੇ ਨ ਚੂਕੈ ਚਿੰਦ॥ ਕਾਪੜ ਜਿਵੈ ਪਛੋੜੀਐ ਘੜੀ ਮੁਹਤ ਘੜਿਆਲੁ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਸਚੇ ਨਾਮ ਬਿਨੁ ਸਿਰਹੁ ਨ ਚੁਕੈ ਜੰਜਾਲੁ॥1

Without Waheguru's Naam, the worries of worldly affairs of such people never go away from their mind, and they are hit hard with them again, and again, like the big metallic bell, which is struck at regular intervals, and like the clothes which are hit hard against a hard surface (to clean them), oh Nanak. 1.

He makes them worship Him (recite His Naam) with the Guru's Shabad, which is their letter of identification (to have union with Him). The devotees, who obey the Guru's Teachings, are always pure, look dignified, and are recognized (honoured) in Waheguru's Court. Those who recognize (make a connection with) Waheguru are emancipated in this world and the next. Those who serve Waheguru are worthy of respect; I am always a sacrifice for them. 4.

No other taste (of life) gives enjoyment to the devotee who has tasted the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. Such devotees become fully content with the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, and their desires for Maya remain restrained (they come to an end). 5.

MEANING: Only that individual sits on the throne of his mind (rules it) who deserves to do so. Those who connect with Waheguru can control their minds and are kings in the true sense. The conventional rajahs of countries are not the true kings, as they suffer because of their love for Maya. What can be said in praise of the things created by Waheguru (they should not be praised), which are perishable, and do not take long to perish? Waheguru alone is eternal, and the individual who understands Him (makes a connection with Him) in the shelter of the Guru, also becomes immortal. 6.

Word Meaning: Adhik = many. Trung = waves; desires. Chhootiyaiy = get freedom. Raachaiy = get absorbed. Goohrraiy Rung(i) = in deep love. Apaar = limitless (God).

MEANING: How can one get emancipation in Waheguru's Court when countless waves of desires arise in his mind? Yes, one can get emancipation by Guru's grace if he attaches his mind with the limitless Waheguru, and gets imbued in His deep love. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is priceless; can one put a price on it? Waheguru creates the world and operates in it. If one sings His praise all the time in the shelter of the Guru, he can understand His unlimited worth. His lotus-like heart blooms with Guru's Shabad, and he enjoys the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru puts an end to his rebirths, and he sleeps in (enjoys) the bliss of the high spiritual state. 7.

Word Meaning: Maiyla = unclean. Dhoondhlaa = blurred. Bhungvaan = the colour of the yogis' outfit. Kuch = breakable; short-lived worldly attachments. Laalo Laal = deep red and only red = never fading. Rutta = imbued. Sach(u) = pure; eternal. 1.

MEANING: The devotee, whose mind gets dyed with the deep red colour of love for Waheguru (gets imbued in His deep love), becomes like Him. He never becomes unclean through vices, and his vision is never blurred (he does not discriminate against people); he does not need to wear the garb of any faith, and he never gets attached to worldly things again. 1.

Word Meaning: Sehj(i) = in high spiritual state. Vunusput(i) = vegetation. Bhuvur(u) = Bhirung(u) = bumblebee. Vussaiy = stays. Bhaiy-Khund(i) = destroying all fears. Turvur = tree (shelter). 2.

MEANING: A bumblebee goes from one flower to another, and does not stay with one flower; similarly, the man seeks sensual pleasures in many different ways. On the other hand, birds return to the same tree every night where they take shelter and feel safe. Similarly, the man who takes shelter of Waheguru alone, unlike the bumblebees, does not seek sensual enjoyments, and has all his fears eradicated, and safely enjoys the bliss of a high spiritual state, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Loojhaiy = struggles; fights. Sooray = valiant. Perdhaana = heroes. Sayti = with. Meht(u) = greatness. Tineh(i) = those. Jitaana = conquered. 8.

MEANING: Those who fight with their mind (sensual desires) are the true valiant and heroes. They analyze the self (their root - Waheguru), and stay connected with Him all the time. It is the greatness of the holy saints that their minds stay in themselves (do not wander around). They reach Waheguru's Residence (connect with Him) by focusing their minds on Him. Those who conquer their mind with the grace of the Guru, conquer the whole world (all their worldly desires). 8.

Word Meaning: Bhuvaan = roam around. Bheekhiya = beg for alms. Suntokh(u) = contentment. Kis(u), Kis(u) = to how many people? Murrhi = body; mind. Bhaykheen = in religious garbs. Haath Na Ludhiyaa = acquire. Buddhi =trapped. 1.

MEANING: (Yogis beg for their food at every door to show their detachment from the world; but they become debtors to all those people), so, disapproving this practice, Guru Amar Dass Ji says that "if I become a yogi, and beg from door to door, then how many people I will have to be answerable to when the account of my deeds is examined in Waheguru's Court? One cannot acquire Waheguru in one's heart to become immortal (yogis are known to live much longer by their yogic exercises) simply by wearing religious garbs; everybody is trapped in the net of death. However, if a man begs for the alms of Waheguru's Naam and attains contentment of mind, he has Waheguru with him all the time. Everything else is false, so remember only Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Dur = door; shelter. Laykha = account of deeds. Loarr(i) = need; find. Jayvud = as great. Chootiyaiy = get freedom (from bonds of Maya); emancipation. 2.

MEANING: Do not serve at the door of someone if the account of your deeds is still examined in Waheguru's Court (and you are punished). Seek the shelter of Satguru, who has no one as great as He is, oh my friend. One is emancipated in His shelter, and no one asks for his accounts in Waheguru's Court. Satguru reinforces Waheguru (His Naam) in His own mind, and reinforces it in the devotee's mind too, and gives His Shabad (in Waheguru's praise) to the devotee. The mind and the body of the devotee, who has Waheguru in his heart, become pure. The devotee, who obeys Waheguru's Huqam with Satguru's grace, earns everlasting praise (approval of Waheguru). The Sikh, on whom Satguru casts His kind sight, gets absorbed (merged) into Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Sooray = valiants. Ahunkaar(i) = in ego. Doojaiy = in love for the other (Maya). Puch(i) = burn at heart; suffer. Loojhday = fight. Uggaiy Pichhaiy = everywhere. Kook(i) = aloud. Vigutti = unemancipated; engrossed in Maya. 9.

MEANING: Those are not called valiant who suffer and die in their ego. Such spiritually blind do not analyze themselves, and burn in the fire of their desires for Maya. Due to their ego, they fight because of their extreme rage, and suffer everywhere (in this world and the next). Even the Vedas say aloud that Waheguru does not like ego. Those who die in their ego leave this world unemancipated and continue taking births and dying. 9.

Word Meaning: Kaagoun = from crow = a filthy-minded. Oojla = white; swan; a devotee of the Guru (a holy man). Pirm Pdaaruth = valuable (Naam) of the Dear (Waheguru). Suvaarunhaar(u) = purifier of mind (Guru). Sir(i) = on top of. Kaasht = wood. Paar(i) = floats across. Trishna = appetite of desires. Saar(u) = supreme. 1.
MEANING: Just like a crow, which cannot turn into a swan, the immoral person cannot transform into a devotee of Waheguru on his own. But, like a piece of iron on top of a wooden piece can float over water to the other end, the immoral person can be salvaged if he accepts (enshrines) Waheguru's Naam in his heart with the grace of the great Guru, who adorns his mind with noble qualities (purifies it). With his supreme way of life, he gets rid of his appetite for desires and leads his life with the fear of God in mind. 1.

Word Meaning: Maaroo = desert; wilderness. Maarun = to kill (desires of the mind). Guvaar = foolish. Loachaiy = longs for. Bhaytaiy = meet with. Soyay = as wished. 2.
MEANING: The foolish, who goes to some secluded place, to kill his mind (its desires), cannot do so. The mind can be killed (controlled) only by pondering on the Guru's Shabad. The desires cannot be killed by one's own efforts, even though everybody longs to do so. One can control his desires in his own mind, provided he seeks the Guru's shelter, who can enable him to do so, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Dovaiy Terfaan = both sides; devotees (seekers) of God, and lovers of Maya. Shakut(i) = of Maya. Shiv = Waheguru (Naam). Vaasa = presence. Binaasa = destruction; death. Shaant(i) = peace; freedom from rebirths. Giraasa = (with every bite. Sodh(i) = analyze. Ootum = superior. Thir(u) = stable; immortal. 10.
MEANING: Waheguru has created the world with Maya and His Naam as its bases, and has created two paths for humans to follow – high morality with Waheguru's Naam, and love for Maya. No one can get emancipation with his love for Maya, and such people keep taking births and dying. One achieves freedom from rebirths by serving the Guru by reciting His Shabad with every breath and with every bite. Even the Vedas and Shastras testify to the fact that Waheguru's devotees are superior (achieve emancipation). Nobody can achieve immortality without Waheguru's Naam, and I am always a sacrifice for His Naam, oh Nanak.10.

Word Meaning: Pundit = highly literary person. Joatki = fortune-teller. Mookh(i) = by heart (from memory). Poojiyaan = worshipped. Chujj(i) Veechaar(i) = because of manners and thinking (wisdom). Mut(u) = lest. Sacha Akkhur (u) = everlasting word (Naam). Chaunka = kitchen. Bhittay = impurify (caused by some lowest-caste person by his mere presence). Jhootthay = false; impure. Sacha = eternal; pure. 1.

MEANING: Brahmans study the Vedas and maintain external cleanliness to the extent that they do not allow the low-caste people to enter their kitchens. If a pundit is well-learned, tells people's fortunes, can recite all four Vedas from memory, is well known in the world because of his manners and wisdom, and maintains external cleanliness, he still cannot achieve purity of mind because all external cleanliness is short-lived, and cannot purify the mind. The important thing is that he should not forget Waheguru's Naam, which is the only thing that is eternal and which purifies the mind, oh Nanak. 1.

This fear affects everybody in the world uncontrollably, and tortures the sinners the most. But one can connect with Waheguru by acting on the Guru's Shabad and realizing that there is nothing to fear about death. One should not be misled by the attractions of the world because Waheguru demands the account of his deeds. Waheguru has the account of everybody's love and attachment (with Him or with Maya). Only those are approved by Him who guard their heart, and keep their desires under control like a holy saint.1.

MEANING: Unlike the bumblebee, which enjoys the sap of many flowers, a devotee who stays detached from worldly enjoyments, and sees Waheguru everywhere, stays embraced to Waheguru's neck (enjoys His affection) when he stitches his diamond-like pure mind with the Waheguru-diamond. 2.

They do not get this opportunity (human life) again, and suffer the punishment of the Angel of justice. Those who stay alert (against the attacks of Maya) by their love for Waheguru do not get any punishment. MEANING: Waheguru adorns His devotees with His Naam, which is like the nine mythical treasures. Also, He misleads some through the illusions of Maya; they fail to achieve their real objective in life. Some make a connection with Waheguru in the Guru's shelter. Some others perform the superior deed of listening to and obeying Waheguru's Naam. They sing praise of Waheguru's virtues, whereby love for Him sprouts in their mind. 13.

MEANING: Waheguru takes dwelling in the heart, which is innocent, has fear of Waheguru, and holds no discrimination against anyone. With extreme jealousy, one's body, mind, and wisdom - all three - get polluted, and he suffers a great deal. 1.

MEANING: The loud drum, which the Vedas have beaten, has been heard by many, many parties (the whole world). But nothing comes even close to Waheguru's Naam (in the realm of spirituality), so recite it, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: The sea of Maya, which is full of its three qualities, is unfathomable, and nobody can know its limits (and is almost impossible to swim across). However, if I can take the shelter of the great and carefree Satguru, I can swim across it. The middle (all of it) of the sea of Maya is the source of huge problems. Without Waheguru's Naam, its attractions have not satisfied anyone's appetite, oh Nanak. 3.

MEANING: Those who search their inner-self (mind) for Waheguru with the mind-adorning (purifying) Shabad of the Guru, get any and all their wishes fulfilled with the recitation of Waheguru's Naam. Those who are kind to Waheguru get connected with the Guru and sing Waheguru's praise in His shelter. The Angel of justice becomes their friend, and they are not put on the path leading to spiritual death. Those who recite Waheguru's Naam day and night get absorbed in Waheguru's Naam. 14.

Word Meaning: Vukhaaniyaiy = describe. Soorg(i) = paradise; sky. Mirt(i) =in this world. Puyyaal(i) = in underworlds. Maytiya = erased. Maarsi = will kill. Rehsi = will live forever; become immortal. Soort(i) = pure thoughts. Smaayay = gets absorbed. 1.
MEANING: It is the same Waheguru which is heard, and described in the sky, in this world, and the underworld. Waheguru's Huqam as to who dies, what causes one's death, who takes rebirths, and who becomes immortal by merging into Him by the focus of one's pure thoughts, is prewritten for everyone, and cannot be erased by anyone, and must be obeyed, to the end, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Huoun = selfishness and ego. Mein = I; mine. Paun Duriyaou = air and river (storm of sensual pleasures). Trishna = appetite of desires. Thukki = exhausted; loses urge. Rutta Naayay = imbued in the Naam. Loyin = eyes. Loyini = in eyes. Kunnie = in ears. Soort(i) = senses. Smaayay = absorbed. Rusaayin = the source of all sweetness (Naam). Choonrri = absorbent. Laal = ruby. Luvaayay = with recitation of the Naam. Mooshk(i) Jhukoliya = spreads fragrance. 2.
MEANING: Because of the storm of sensual desires in his mind, the man suffers spiritual death due to his selfishness, ego, and his nature of possessiveness. However, his appetite for worldly desires gets exhausted (he feels satisfied) when he recites Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. His eyes are imbued with love for Waheguru, and their urge to see worldly beauty remains with them. His sense of hearing pleasing sounds becomes absorbed into his ears (no longer interested in listening to such sounds). His tongue sucks the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam by its recitation, and becomes like a highly valuable ruby. His body spreads the fragrance of Waheguru's, the worth of which cannot be described. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the real treasure in the world, which accompanies the man after his death. This treasure is inexhaustible and never runs out when you use it (recite it) donate to (share with) others, or keep it in your possession, oh man. The assistants of the Angel of death, or the Angel himself, do not go near the devotee who recites Waheguru's Naam. Those who have Waheguru's Naam in their possession (in their heart) are truly wealthy and the real businessmen. One acquires Waheguru's Naam only through His benevolence when He gives it to him. 15.

Word Meaning: Saar = worth. Bikh(u) = poisonous Maya. Bihaajheh(i) = buys; deals in. Sungreh(i) = accumulates. Sudaayaynday = call themselves; look like. Gavaar = unrefined; foolish. Vaadeen = in discussions. Ahaar(u) = food; earn a living. Akaar(u) = visible things. Chaytni = remember. Maiylay = filthy; impure.

MEANING: The Maya-worshipping pundit does not realize the worth of the true business (of Waheguru's Naam). He loves the poisonous, immoral pleasures, deals in them, and accumulates (continues to deal in) them. Outwardly, the foolish and the unrefined look like a well-learned person, but he does not have any love for God, and loves to take part in worthless religious debates. He talks about discussions and earns his living by telling lies (untrue stories). Only Waheguru's Naam is pure (purifies the mind) in this world, while everything else is filthy (pollutes the mind). The foolish do not remember Waheguru's Naam, and die with a filthy mind, oh Nanak. 1.

Word Meaning: Sujaayay = punishment; suffering. Rujaayay = Will.

MEANING: One suffers in life without serving Waheguru, but all one's sufferings go away when he obeys Waheguru's Huqam (Will). Waheguru is the source of all comforts, and He also punishes the immoral. One must realize that everything happens with His Will, oh, Nanak.

Word Meaning: Nirdhun(u) = poor. Triput(i) = contentment. Bherm(i) Bhoolaaya = lost in illusions. Kerma = good fortune. Lochaahi = longs for. Chhootaahi = freedom.

MEANING: The world is (spiritually) poor without the wealth of Waheguru's Naam, and cannot have contentment without the Naam. The man is misled by his illusions about Maya and suffers because of his selfishness and ego. But one cannot acquire anything (including the Naam) without good fortune, even if one longs much for that. He continues to take births and dying, but is emancipated with Guru's Shabad. 16.

Word Meaning: Sunteen = holy saints. Itt(u) = this. Luthi = comes off. Dhoor(i) = from the Source (Waheguru). Jugut(u) = world. Nirdhun(u) = penniless. Bil-laayay = wails for. Shaant(i) = contentment. Chint Chitvuda = lost in worries. Sehsa = worry. Mut(i) Bhuvvi = has twisted wisdom (thinking). Kmaayay = implements in life. 1.

MEANING: The holy saints, who get connected with the Guru with the benevolence of Waheguru, earn the wealth (of Waheguru's Naam) in this world. Nobody can tell the worth of Waheguru's Naam, which the Guru reinforces in the mind of the devotees. One becomes fully content with this wealth and acquires blissfulness in one's mind. Those who have it preordained by Waheguru acquire His Naam in their minds. The world of the Maya-lover is poor in spiritual wealth, and he wails for Maya all the time. His appetite for wealth never goes away, and he keeps looking for it day and night. He never gets peace of mind and never acquires mental comfort. He is always lost in worries which never go away. One's thinking is twisted without the Guru's guidance, but when he connects with the Guru, he lives by His Shabad, oh Nanak. He gets absorbed in Waheguru's praise and lives in bliss at all times. 1.

Word Meaning: Maydni = world. Saar(u) = looks after. Bhaayirhou = oh, brothers. Chungiyaayiyaan = goodness. Triput(i) = contentment. Pehnun = wearing. Sift(i) Snaayay = praise. Oojla = clean; pure. Maiyla = filthy; impure. Sehjay = in high spiritual state. Ttorra = less. Sheengaar(u) = adornment. Vikhaalay = shows; enlightens. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru, which has created the world, looks after it too. There is none other like Him, so recite only His Naam, oh my brothers. If one makes Guru's Shabad and the noble qualities his mental food, he becomes fully contented forever (leaves with no appetite for worldly desires). Similarly, if he uses Waheguru's praise as his clothes to wear (to protect his dignity against the attacks by the demons), he becomes clean forever, and never becomes filthy in his mind again. He earns the wealth of Waheguru's Naam in a high spiritual state, which never lessens. Satguru's Shabad adorns his body, and he always enjoys blissfulness. But only that devotee gets the enlightenment in the shelter of the Guru, whom Waheguru enlightens Himself. 2.

MEANING: To "see" Waheguru with Guru's Shabad inside you, is the real recitation of any mantras, self-torturing, or to exercise control on your senses, oh man. One's selfishness, ego, and ignorance disappear by reciting Waheguru's Naam. The human body is full of Waheguru's immortalizing Naam, but one realizes its great taste only by tasting (reciting) it. Those who recite it become fearless and get fully contented with its sweetness. Spiritual death does not come near the individual who drinks Waheguru's Naam-Amrit with His benevolence. 17.

Word Meaning: Uvgoon = ignoble qualities. Gunttrri = bale; package. Vihaajhaiy = deal in. Gaahuk(u) = customer; dealer. Virla = rare. Paayiun(i) = acquire.
MEANING: People put together a package of ignoble qualities (accumulate) them, and do not buy (deal in) the noble qualities. There is a rare person who is a customer for noble qualities. But the individual, on whom Waheguru casts a kind sight, acquires them with Guru's grace. 2.

Word Meaning: Goon = noble qualities. Uvgoon = bad qualities. Smaan(i) = the same. Kartar(i) = God.

MEANING: A devotee, who has full faith in Waheguru, gladly accepts the good and the bad qualities in him as being given by Waheguru. One enjoys blissfulness by obeying Waheguru's Will by pondering on Guru's Shabad, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru-King has His dwelling and His Throne in everybody's heart, sitting on which He delivers His justice, and provides His support. But one can find the door to His Court only with the Guru's Shabad. He tests the deeds of everybody, and accepts the pious in His treasure (makes them a part of His) while the unholy have no room there. The eternal Waheguru operates everywhere, and His justice is always perfect. Those who realize the presence of His Naam in their heart enjoy the Amrit-like sweetness of His Naam. 18.

Gurmut(i) Alukh(u) lukhaayiyaiy, ootum mut(i) turaah(i). Nanak sohun(g) hunsa jup(u) jaap-hou, tirbhuvun Tisaiy smaah(i). 1.

Word Meaning: Boojhna = riddle; secret. Giyani = spiritually enlightened. Akuth Kutha = the indescribable tale. Tutt(u) = reality; the basis. Alukh(u) = the incomprehensible (God). Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Bherm(u) = illusions; misconceptions. Lukhaayiyaiy = comprehend. Ootum = superior; free of illusions. Turaah(i) = can swim across. Sohun(g) = I am Him. Hunsa = He is me (human soul is a part of the Supreme Soul). Tisaiy = in Him. Smaahay = are present in Him (are supported by Him). 1.

MEANING: When I operate under the influence of my haumein, I do not realize Your presence in my heart, but when I feel Your presence, all my selfishness and ego disappear, oh Waheguru. But only the spiritually enlightened saints realize this indescribable tale of Waheguru's secrets. Without the Guru's guidance, one does not realize that the incomprehensible Waheguru resides in the human body. One's selfishness, his fears, and his illusions all disappear with the Guru's Advice, and the suffering of his rebirths comes to an end. One acquires superior thinking with the Guru's Advice, and he is able to "see" (comprehend) the invisible Waheguru, and swim across the world sea. Recite the Naam of Waheguru, which supports the three-layered universe in such a way that the human soul merges into the supreme Soul, oh Nanak. 1.

ਮ:3॥ ਮਨੁ ਮਾਣਕੁ ਜਿਨਿ ਪਰਖਿਆ ਗੁਰ ਸਬਦੀ ਵੀਚਾਰਿ॥ ਸੇ ਜਨ ਵਿਰਲੇ ਜਾਣੀਅਹਿ ਕਲਜੁਗ ਵਿਚਿ ਸੰਸਾਰਿ॥ ਆਪੈ ਨੋ ਆਪੁ ਮਿਲਿ ਰਹਿਆ ਹਉਮੈ ਦੁਬਿਧਾ ਮਾਰਿ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਨਾਮਿ ਰਤੇ ਦੁਤਰੁ ਤਰੇ ਭਉਜਲੁ ਬਿਖਮੁ ਸੰਸਾਰੁ॥ 2॥

They eradicate their selfishness, ego, and their indecisiveness with the Guru's Shabad, and control their mind so that it does not wander, and stays to itself. Those who are imbued with Waheguru's Naam swim across the world-sea, which is otherwise very difficult to cross, oh Nanak. 2.

Tuttay = hot; burned (in the fire of desires). Sodhni = analyze. Vigootay = suffer humiliation. Sutay = eternal. Gutay = high spiritual state.

MEANING: The followers of their mind do not search their inner self (for Waheguru's presence), and are robbed of their good qualities because of their ego-laden thinking. They travel in all four directions in search of more money, but grow exhausted with frustration and burn in the fire of dissatisfaction. They do not analyze their religious books, and suffer humiliation. Nobody has ever acquired the Naam of the eternal Waheguru without taking shelter of the Guru. But the fact of the matter is that one attains a high spiritual state only by reciting and pondering on Waheguru's Naam. 19.

MEANING: Forgetting everything else, make friends with the “One” (Waheguru) (have faith in Him and connect with Him), oh my friend. Waheguru burns down all one’s sins, and he feels blessed by body and by mind. The cycle of his rebirths is broken, and he never takes birth or dies again. The devotee, who makes Waheguru’s Naam the basis of his life, does not burn in the fire of grief or of worldly attachments. So, accumulate the treasure (wealth) of Waheguru’s Naam in your mind, oh Nanak. 20.

Word Meaning: Dumma, Dumm = money and more money. Kerm = noble deed.

M:5: Maya saath(i) na chullyee, kiyya luptaaveh(i) undh? Gur kay Churn dhiyaayay tu, tooteh(i) Maya bundh. 2.
MEANING: Maya does not accompany one after his death; so, what are you clinging to, oh man? You should recite Satguru’s Shabad, which breaks the chains of Maya. 2.

There is no other largess as great as obeying Waheguru's Huqam with His Will. The devotee recites Waheguru's Naam for others as well. But only those devotees shape their life (to obey Waheguru's Will) who have it prewritten in their fate by Waheguru. I have come to the shelter of Waheguru, who has created the world, oh Nanak. 21.

ਸਲੋਕ ਮ:3॥ ਜਿਨ ਕਉ ਅੰਦਰਿ ਗਿਆਨੁ ਨਹੀ ਭੈ ਕੀ ਨਾਹੀ ਬਿੰਦ॥ ਨਾਨਕ ਮੁਇਆ ਕਾ ਕਿਆ ਮਾਰਣਾ ਜਿ ਆਪਿ ਮਾਰੇ ਗੋਵਿੰਦ॥ 1॥
Sloak M:3: Jinh kuou undar(i) Giyan(u) nuhhi, bhaiy kee naahi bind. Nanak, mooyaan ka kiyya maarna, j(i) Aap(i) maaray Govind. 1.
Word Meaning: Bind = extremely small amount. Mooyaan = already dead.
MEANING: Those who have no spiritual enlightenment and have no fear of Waheguru are spiritually killed by Him. So, what more is there to kill them who are already dead, oh Nanak?1.

ਮ:3॥ ਮਨ ਕੀ ਪਟ੍ਰੀ ਵਾਚਣੀ ਸੁਖੀ ਹੂ ਸੁਖੁ ਸਾਰੁ॥ ਸੋ ਬ੍ਰਹਮਣੁ ਭਲਾ ਆਖੀਐ ਜਿ ਬੂਝੈ ਬ੍ਰਹਮ ਬੀਚਾਰੁ॥ ਹਰਿ ਸਾਲਾਹੇ ਹਰਿ ਪੜੈ ਗੁਰ ਕੈ ਸਬਦਿ ਵੀਚਾਰਿ॥

Apaar(i) = limitless. 2.
MEANING: The Brahman consults the book of astrology to predict the future of his faithful, but one enjoys the supreme bliss when he ponders on the book of his own mind (analyzes for his deeds). That Brahman is considered noble who internalizes Waheguru by pondering on Him, and sings His praise and reads about Him with the Guru's Shabad. That devotee is welcome in the world (is approved) who salvages his associates by making them recite Waheguru's Naam. Nobody cares about one's caste (status in society) in Waheguru's Court; only recitation of the Guru's Shabad (in Waheguru's praise) is considered to be the supreme performance. Any other study or deed is worthless that enhances one's attachment to Maya. The follower of his mind does not enjoy peace of mind and suffers humiliation in life (wastes away his human life). Those who are imbued in Waheguru's Naam with limitless love for the Guru are salvaged, oh Nanak. 2.

It is the same Lord for everybody, and one gets imbued in His love with the Guru's Shabad. We should sing Waheguru's praise for His amazing feats in Guru's shelter. We all dance the way Waheguru makes us dance, oh Nanak. 22.1. Verified.

It was with Your approval (with the wisdom given to the authors by You) that the Vedas were written, which discuss the consequences of the noble deeds and of the sins. You also created gods like Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva, and created the three effects of Maya. Waheguru created the earth with nine regions, and beautified it in many different colours (with wide varieties). He created many different varieties of living beings and placed His power (a part of His Soul) in them. Nobody knows your limits, oh, the eternal Creator. Nobody knows Your powers, oh the omnipresent Waheguru. You are the eternal emancipator of the world, and nobody can rival You in any way. You are the creator of the whole earth (world), and have created all four eons. You have created the birth-death cycle for living beings (due to their attachment to Maya), but Maya has no effect on You (so You are immortal). cannot fly away, the man who is attracted to Maya gets trapped by it (and cannot break loose); only some fortunate ones stay free from it. 2.

MEANING: I am a bard of Waheguru, and sing His praise at His Door (which is everywhere) – but only with His kind Will. Only my Waheguru is immortal, whereas everybody else is perishable and comes and goes. I beg Him for the donation (of His Sight) which satisfies my appetite for worldly attractions. Kindly show me Your Sight with which I will find contentment. The kind Waheguru listened to my prayer and called me inside His Palace (connected me with Him). All my troubles and the fire of my worldly desires disappeared on seeing the Lord, and I was so mesmerized that I forgot to beg for anything else. All my wishes were fulfilled when I dropped on His Feet (took His shelter). The kind Waheguru endowed the poor me, who had no good qualities, with His Sight and His Naam. 9.

Satguru ferried me across the world sea, and I have won the battle against the five demons (sensual pleasures). With Guru's Advice, now I am enjoying all the luxuries of life (and have won) the huge battle of life. My highly moral Waheguru has enabled me to control all my senses; now they do whatever I tell them to do, and there is no struggle (opposition) between me and the senses. My Satguru has reversed the thinking of my mind, and now it stays within it (does not wander around), and I can have any of my wishes fulfilled. morality) at all for long, and suffers for the immoral deeds committed by it. (It is a natural law that) The hand which does a bad deed is the one to suffer. If one wants to see the results without delay, he should put one hand in fire to see that it is the one which burns, while the other is safe. I have analyzed the history of all four eons, and have found out that one's ego does not go away without the company of the holy saints, and one cannot get rid of his haumein without the holy company of the Guru. The man cannot know the limits (greatness) of Waheguru as long as he is disconnected from Him. The devotee, who serves Waheguru (recites His Naam) in the shelter of the Guru, has Waheguru's support (His appearance) in him. MEANING: The indivisible (perfect) Waheguru, which is incomprehensible and indescribable, cannot be realized (by one's own efforts). The mystics of the six faiths wander around (without realizing Him) as Waheguru is not pleased with religious outfits. Even the rituals related to the phases of the moon are worthless (to please God). People read all four Vedas, but do not see the reality of God. The Pundit takes dips in holy places and wears anointment on his forehead, but has filth (of immorality) inside. Waheguru cannot be realized by religious garbs without the True Advice (of the Guru). The misled is put on the right path (leading to union with Waheguru) only if he has good fortune prewritten on his forehead by Waheguru. Those who connect with the Guru (with mental eyes) make their lives successful. 13.

Word Meaning: Hubh = all. Jot(i) = Waheguru's Light. Jul Ghutaaoo = water container.
MEANING: Waheguru's Light is present in everybody like the image of the moon is seen in all vessels containing water. Waheguru Himself appears in the heart of the devotee who has it prewritten on his forehead, oh Nanak. 2.

MEANING: I recite Waheguru's Naam with a purified tongue (mind), and sing His praise all the twenty-four hours. Such a devotee (who was without any shelter or support before), is honoured in Waheguru's Court and given a special room there, oh Nanak. 3

Kerm Khoollah = when the luck strikes. Kaami = lends support. 14.

MEANING: The omniscient Waheguru cannot be realized by external religious garbs. The whole world is wandering around worthlessly without Waheguru's Naam. The man, imbued with family love, goes around in a state of conceit (for no reason). For what reason is the wealthy spending his life in conceit when the wealth does not take long to be lost? But, they do so because of the Will of Waheguru. When the good fortune of a devotee strikes, he gets connected with the Guru and realizes the Lord. Waheguru lends His support to the devotee who serves Him. 14.

He makes some commitments but does not come through; all his promises are unreliable. The dealer in falsehood is hollow inside, and all his talking is related to Maya. He practises enmity with perfectly unbiased people purely for his greed. Watching his immoral deeds from the very beginning, the True King (Waheguru) punishes him. The agents of the Angel of Death watch him carefully, and he suffers from their punishment. He receives perfect justice in the Court of the True Lord, oh Nanak. 15.

Your situation is like that of the donkey which carries a load of sandalwood (but cannot enjoy its fragrance). How will you swim across the sea of Maya if you do not know the worth of God's (Waheguru's) Naam? 1.

You kill an animal (to please your deity), and call it an act of religiosity. If this is a religious act, then what is your non-religious act? You establish yourself as a supreme sage by such acts; then, who do you consider a butcher? 2.

If you do not understand (analyze) yourself, then who else are you teaching, oh, the blind of mind, pundit? You are selling your knowledge for money and wasting your precious human life. 3.
Go, and read the teachings of sages like Nard, Biyas and Sook, oh pundit. They will tell you that one gets emancipation only by reciting God's Naam, otherwise you will drown in the world-sea, oh Kabir. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Buneh(i) Busay = living in the forest. Juou Luou = as long as. Tujeh(i) = give up. Bikaar = vices; immoral acts and thoughts. Sumsur(i) = equal; the same. Pooray = perfect. 1. Saar = supreme. Rung(i) Ruvhou = remember with love. Aatmaiy = deep from the soul. Pause. Jutaa = long tangled hair. Bhusm Laypun = coating of ash. Goofa = cave. Baas(u) = dwelling. Bikhiya = poisonous Maya; sensual desires. Oodaas(u) = detached. 2. Unjun(u) = kohl. Took(u) = small. Chaahun = intent. Bidaan(u) = difference. Loyin = eyes. Pervaan(u) = approved. 3. Untargut(i) = present in the heart.4.
MEANING: How can one realize God simply by living in a forest if he does not quit his evil acts and evil thinking? Only that individual is perfect in the world (approved by Waheguru) who considers his home as the forest (stays detached from worldly attractions while living in the family). 1. One acquires supreme bliss when he recites Waheguru's Naam with love deep from his soul. Pause.
What is the use of wearing tangled hair, coating one's body with ash, or living in a cave unless one wins control on his mind? An individual who can exercise control over his mind conquers his desires for the attractions of the world and becomes fully detached from them. 2.
Everybody puts kohl in her eyes, but the difference lies in the intent (some of them use kohl to look attractive, while others use it as a medication for the eyes). Only those eyes are approved by Waheguru which put the kohl of Divine Knowledge in the eyes of the mind. 3.
With the Knowledge imparted to me by the Guru, my mind has been enlightened, and I have made a connection with God, which is present, hidden in my mind. Now my mind thinks of nothing else, oh Kabir. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Ridh(i) Sidh(i) = supernatural powers. Foorie = has control by wishing. Kaaj = business; subservience. Gut(i) = level. Laaj = feel ashamed. 1. Bhuvveh(i) Baaraiy Baar = go from door to door. Pause. Dehkaiy = is misled. Ghunaa = badly. Din Dooyay = two (a few) days. Bertun = to use. Ram Ooduk = God's Naam-Water. Tih(i) = him. Buhour(i) = again. 2. Niraas(u) = Oodaas(u) = feeling of detachment. 3. Rus(u) = sweetness. Chaakhiya = tasted. Taar(i) = vibrations of the heart. Kunchun = (pure like) gold. Smoondaraiy paar(i) = on the other side of the ocean; far, far away. 4.

MEANING: You claim that you have control over supernatural powers, but you go begging from door to door, oh yogi. I feel ashamed even to talk about your claim because why would a person who has control over supernatural powers be subservient to others? But you beg from everybody. 1 and Pause.

The short-lived world is badly misled by the gimmicks of Maya, which the man can enjoy for a few days only. But an individual who drinks the Amrit of Waheguru's Naam never feels any thirst (desire) for those gimmicks again. 2.

The individual who learns the truth (the objective of human life) by the grace of the Guru is left with no wish for Maya and becomes detached from the worldly attractions. He "sees" Waheguru everywhere when he gets fully detached from the world. 3.

The individual, who tastes the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, gets his heart purified like gold, sees Him in every heart, and all his illusions run far, far away, oh Kabir. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Ooduk = Sulul = water. Smoond = sea. Saakhiya = like. Turung = waves. Soonneh(i) = Waheguru (which is above the thoughts of Maya). Soonn(i) = the devotee which has attained the state above the thoughts of Maya. Sumdershi = who sees everybody in the same light (God). Puvun Roop = like air. 1. Chookaiy = ends. Punch Dhaat Kee Ruchna = (love for) the body; worldly attractions. Bherm(u) = illusions of Maya. Dershun = philosophy; religious garbs. 2. Kerm Kmaavhengay = perform deeds. Tuou = then. 3. Poonrup(i) = again. Liv = meditation. 4.

MEANING: Just as the waves on the surface of the ocean merge back into it, and the water of a stream mixes with the water in the ocean (beyond recognition), and like the winds from different directions which mix with each other completely, the individual, who has attained the spiritual level above the effects of Maya, merges into Waheguru which is always above the effects of Maya. (and becomes indistinct). 1.

I have also attained that spiritual level to merge with Waheguru, so why would I take rebirths? Births and deaths are the Law of Waheguru; whoever realizes this Huqam (does not celebrate a new birth, and does not grieve a death in the family), merges into Waheguru. Pause.

I will get rid of all such misgivings that bind one to love for his own body and to other-worldly attractions. By abandoning all religious garbs, I will recite the Naam of Waheguru alone, and treat everybody the same way without any discrimination. 2.

The man performs only those kinds of deeds for which he is predestined by Waheguru. If Waheguru is kind to some individual, he sings God's praise with Guru's Shabad, and merges into Him. 3. If one kills his worldly desires to acquire a new spiritual life, he never takes births again. The individual, absorbed in (focused on) Waheguru's Naam, stays connected with Him through meditation, oh Kabir. 4.4.

Ubb tuou bimul bhuyyay ghut hee meh(i), keh Kabir, mun(u) maaniya. 2.5.

Word Meaning: Juou = when. Mookut(i) = emancipation. Anayk = infinite. Bhermaavhou = mislead. 1. Taar(i) = to salvage. Sodhoun = I ask. Pause. Tern = to swim across; to emancipate. Taarun = salvage others. Tubaiy Lug = only as long as. Tutt(u) = the root; Waheguru. Jaaniya = realized; made a connection. Bimul = pure.

MEANING: (People tell me that Waheguru grants emancipation, i.e., connects the devotee with Him, after one's death). But I have already attained emancipation with Your benevolence, so may I ask, what kind of emancipation You will grant me and where, oh my Lord? Pause.

I am connected with You right now, but if it is true that one gets emancipation after death, I will first be disconnected with You (which I do not accept). I know You are present everywhere, and in everyone (and I am also connected with You), so You cannot mislead me now. 1.

One talks about the salvation of self or of others as long as one is not connected with Waheguru, but my heart has already been purified (emancipated) with Your presence in there, and I am pleased with Your presence (and need no other emancipation), oh Kabir. 2.5.

Kaal(u), akaal(u) Khusm ka keena, eh(u) perpunch(u) bundhaaavun(u). Keh Kabir tay untay mooktay, jinh hirdaiy Ram rusaayin(u). 2.6.

Word Meaning: Gurrh Koat = forts. 1. Mun(i) Bhaavun(u) = follow mind. Pause. Kaal(u) = death. Akaal(u) = no death (birth). Perpunch(u) = world. Bundhaavun = chains. Rusaayin = source of all sweetness (good things). 2.

MEANING: Even Ravun (the king of Lanka, and the villain in Ramayana), who had constructed forts of gold, had to leave this world. 1.

So, why do you follow your mind (and commit evil deeds when you know that you have to leave this world), oh man? When the Angel of Death grabs you by the hair, only Waheguru's Naam can free you. Pause. Deaths and births have been created by Waheguru, and the attractions of the world are the chains for the man (which keep him in the cycle of rebirths). Only those individuals are emancipated at the end who have Waheguru, which is the source of all sweet tastes of life, embedded in their mind, oh Kabir. 2.6.

Kuhhaiy Kabir, soonhou ray sunt-hou, khayt hee kurhou nibayra. Ubb kee baar bukhsh(i) bunday kuou, buhour(i) na bhuoujul(i) phayra. 3.7.

Word Meaning: Dayhi = human body. Gaavaan = village. Jeeou = soul. Dhur = land. Mehtou = chief. Kirsaana = farmers. Naiynoo = eyes. Nuktoo = nose. Servunoo = ears. Rusput(i) = the chief of all tastes (tongue). Inderi = lust. 1. Laykha = account of deeds. Kaayith = a land revenue official. Chaytoo = Chiter and Goopt. Pause.
Dherm Raayay = the Angel of justice. Baaki = balance owing. Bhaari = huge. Va = they. Baandhiyo = arrested. Durbari = in Waheguru's Court. 2. Khayt = field; body; rebirth. Nibayra = end. Bunda = slave. 3.

MEANING: The human body is like a field in a village where the soul is the chief of the village, and one's eyes, nose, ears, tongue, and his sexual organ, are the five farmers which work in the body field, but do not listen to the soul (mind) which is the chief in the body field, and commit countless evil deeds. 1.

I no longer want to live in this body village, because Chiter and Goopt, who are like a revenue collector, ask for the account of one's deeds every moment. Pause.

When the Angel of justice checks the account of your deeds, there will be a huge balance of evil deeds against you, for which you will be punished. At that time, the five farmers run away, and the soul is held responsible for all the misdeeds in Waheguru's Court. 2.

So, the best thing to do is to get rid of the body-field (rebirths), oh, the wise men humbly suggest Kabir. I pray to God to forgive me this time, so that I do not take birth again. 3.7.

Kuhou Kabir ikk baynti baiyraagurriyay. Mo kuou bhuoujul(u) paar(i) ootaar(i) vunaa humbhaiy. 8.1.8.
Word Meaning: Unbhuou = fearless (God); Divine knowledge which one acquires naturally (without any ritual). Baiyraagurriyaiy = a person who is not fully experienced in worldly detachment. Bhaiy = worldly fears. Vunaa humbhaiy = is it possible; maybe (It seems that Kabir Sahib has used this word just to maintain the meter of the Shabad). 1. Shuhou = husband; God. Hudoor(i) = nearby. 2. Pakhund(u) = hypocrisy; show off. Rutta = imbued. 3. Trishna = appetite for worldly attractions. Paas(u) = nearness; company. Mumta = worldly attachments. Pind(u) = body. 4. Mirtuk = dead (towards worldly attractions). 5. Baiyraag = detachment from the world, and attachment with Waheguru. Loachaiy = longs for. 6. Kerm(u) = benevolence. Sehj = high spiritual state. Soyay = that. 7. Bhuoujul = world-sea. 8.
Meaning: Nobody has ever seen God with these eyes, oh, the partially detached devotee. One can only experience His presence in the heart when one has become free from all worldly fears (but has Waheguru's fear in mind). 1.
One begins to foster Waheguru's fear in mind when he feels His presence around him, and he becomes free from all worldly fears when he obeys Waheguru's Huqam. 2.
Do not be a hypocrite with Waheguru (He is not pleased with it), but the problem is that the whole world is imbued with hypocrisy. 3. Worldly attractions do not leave the man alone, and his body suffers in the fire of worldly attachments. 4.
But if a man kills his worldly desires, he can burn away his worries and the love for his body. 5. One does not get detached from the world (and attached to Waheguru) without Satguru, even if one longs for it very much. 6. But, one gets connected with Satguru only if Waheguru is benevolent to him, and he attains the high spiritual state. 7.
I have a prayer to make to Waheguru that He ferries me across the sea of Maya (connects me with Him), oh Kabir. 8.1.8.

Word Meaning: Raajun = oh Rajah Deryodhun (the ruler of Delhi and the villain of the Mahabharat). Bhaaou = affection. Bidur = was the then prime minister of Deryodhun, and his half uncle, but was considered low-caste as his mother was a maid of the queen. Greeb(u) = humble. Bhaavaiy = I like him. Pause. Hust(u) = elephants. Bherm = illusions. Bhoola = forgotten (God). Paano = water. Maaniya = enjoyed. 1.

Kheer = rice pudding. Saag(u) = a vegetable dish. Goon = Waheguru's praise. Bihaani = spent. Anund Binodi = enjoys His feats. Jaat(i) = caste; status. 2.

NOTE: Once Krishan Ji went to Hastinapur (now Delhi) and stayed with Bidur, not with Deryodhun, who expected Krishan Ji to stay with him. When Deryodhun expressed his displeasure to Krishan Ji, the latter explained the reason to him, as Kabir Ji did in this Shabad.

MEANING: Who would like to visit and stay with you, oh Rajah Deryodhun? I have seen such a deep love for me in the humble Bidur that I like him very much. Pause.

You are misled by the illusions of your wealth and elephants, etc., and have forgotten Waheguru. In contrast to your milk, I enjoyed his simple water as sweet as amrit, his vegetable dish, which tasted like rice pudding, and spent the night singing Waheguru's praise. My Lord enjoys His feats, and does not care about the caste of His devotees, oh Kabir. 2.9.

Soora so pehchaaniyaiy, ju luraiy deen kay hayt. Poorja, poorja kut(i) muraiy, kubhoon ma chhaadaiy khayt(u). 2.2.

Word Meaning: Guggun = sky; brain; the tenth door. Dumaama = drum (of Guru's Shabad). Neeshaanaiy = on the target (heart). Ghaaou = wound; piercing. Khayt = battlefield; mind. Maandiyo = ready to fight. Soorma = valiant. Joojhun = to fight valiantly. Daaou = seize the opportunity to attack. 1.

Pehchaaniyaiy = is recognized. Deen Kay Hayt = for the powerless (humble). Poorja, Poorja = into small pieces. 2

Meaning: When Guru's Shabad roared (echoed) in my tenth door (mind), it hit the target and pierced my heart. Now my strengthened mind has entered the battlefield (to fight against the five demons), and is ready to seize the opportunity to destroy them. 1.

Only that individual is the true valiant who fights to protect the powerless. He never flees the battlefield, even if he is cut into small pieces. 2.

Chaar(i) mookut(i), chaaraiy, sidh(i) mil(i) kaiy, Dooleh Prubh kee shern puriyo. Mookut(i) bhuyyo, chuhoun joog jaaniyo, jus(u) keerut(i), maathaiy chhutar dhuriyo. 1. Raja Ram juput ko, ko, na turiyo. Gur Oopdaysh(i), Sadh kee sungut(i), bhugut, bhugut, ta ko naam(u) puriyo. Ruhaou. Sunkh, chukkur, maala, tilk(u) biraajit, daykh(i) pertaap(u), Jum(u) duriyo. Naama kuhhaiy bhugut(i) buss(i) Keshuv, ujhoon Bul(i) kay dooaar khuro. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Chhar(i) Mookut(i) = four types of emancipation (Hind Granths). Sidh(i) = 18 types of supernatural powers. Dooleh = Husband; Lord. Jus(u) = Keerut(i) = (Waheguru's) praise. Chhutar(u) = royal canopy; accorded honour. 1. Sunkh = conch. Chukar = a hollow disk-like sharp weapon. Maala = necklace. Tilk = anointment (all these are symbols of Vishnu). Biraajit = look impressive. Pertaap(u) = majesty. Bul = power. Gurjit = roaring. Suntaap = suffering. Hiriyo = removed; eradicated. 2. Ambreek = a rajah and a devotee of Waheguru. Abhaiy Pud(u) = spiritual state in which the devotee becomes completely fearless. Bhubheekhun = a brother of Ravun, and a devotee of Rama who was made rajah of Lanka after Ravan was killed. Adhik Kuriya = enhanced his position. Nuou Nidh(i) = the nine treasures. Tthaakur(i) = Lord. Soodaama = a very poor but childhood friend of Krishna. Dhuroo = a prince who became a devout devotee of God at the age of five. Atull = eternal. Ajhoon = still. Na Turiyo = is present. 3. Henaakhush = the evil king and father of Prehlaad who was killed by God. Nursingh = lion-headed man. Dayh dhuriyo = acquire the body. Buss(i) = under the control. Keshuv = with long hair (God). Bul(i) = a rajah who was defrauded by Vishnu as a dwarf. Vishnu, who approached Rajah Bul in the form of a dwarf Brahman, asked for a small piece of land to build a hut in front of his palace. Bul agreed, but Vishnu pushed him down into the underworld. To live up to his promise, Vishnu is still standing in front of Bul in the ocean. 4.

Note: Most of these mythical stories are given in the "INTRODUCTION" at the beginning of this book. You can read them there.

MEANING: All four types of emancipation, and all eighteen supernatural powers, are in the shelter of the Lord, Waheguru (are His slaves). Who does not find (everybody does) salvation when he recites the Naam of the Emperor, Waheguru, in the shelter of, and with the Shabad of the Guru? People call such a devotee a bhagat. By singing Waheguru's praise, he gets emancipated, becomes famous all over the world, and is respected everywhere as if a royal canopy is adorning him above his head. 1 & Pause.

Even the Angel of death is frightened by the majesty of Waheguru (in the form of Vishnu) when he sees Him holding the conch, and the chukar (a disc-like sharp weapon) in His hands, and wearing the necklace around his neck, and the anointment on his forehead, which adorn Him. With Waheguru's power thundering in the mind, the devotee becomes completely fearless of worldly fears, and his suffering of rebirths is eradicated.

Waheguru granted the spiritual state of fearlessness to Rajah Ambreek, and the reign of Lanka to Bhubheekhun, thereby exalting their status. (With the Will of Waheguru) Krishna Ji endowed his childhood friend, Sudama, with the nine worldly treasures (making him rich), and Waheguru immortalized His child-devotee, Dhuroo, forever, which no one can undo. 3.

Waheguru killed Hernakhsh for the sake of his child-devotee Prehlad by transforming Himself into a lion-headed man. God is under the control of His devotees; that is why He is waiting at the door of Rajah Bul as Vishnu, oh Nama. 4.1.

Maru Kabir Jeeou: Deen(u) bisaariyo ray divaanay, deen(u) bisaariyo ray. Payt(u) bhuriyo, pusooaan jiyoun soyo, manookh(u) junum(u) haiy haariyo. 1. Ruhaou. Keh Kabir chaytaiy nuhhi, moorukh, moogudh(u) guvaar(u). Ram Naam(u) jaaniyo nuhhi, kaiysay ootrus paar(i)? 4.1.

Word Meaning: Deen(u) = religion; faith in God. Divaanay = crazy; foolish. Payt(u) = stomach. Haariyo = lost; wasted away. Pause. Ruchiyo = engrossed. Dhundhaiy Jhootth = the short-living affairs of Maya. Sooaan = dog. Sookur = pig. Baayis = a bird of prey. Bhutkut(u) = misled. 1. Deerugh(u) = great. Aurun Kuou = others. Lug Maat = insignificant. Munsa = by wish (mind). Baacha = by words. Kerma = by deeds. Dojuk = hell. 2. Kaami = lustful. Chaaturi = shrewd. Baajigur = swindler. Baykaam = jobless. Siraano = spend life. 3. Chaytaiy = remember. Moogudh = foolish. Guvaar(u) = unrefined. Ootrus Paar(i) = find salvation 4.

MEANING: You have lost faith in God (forgotten Him), oh, foolish. You just fill your stomach and sleep like an animal, and have wasted away your precious human life. Pause.

You have never joined the company of the holy saints, and are engrossed in the false affairs of the world. Misguided from the true path of life, you just roam around like a dog, a pig or a baayis, and will leave the world (without any noble quality). 1. The ignorant man thinks of himself as someone great and considers others as insignificant. I have seen many people who exhibit their ego in their mind, their words, and their deeds, who will go to hell. 2. There are countless people, including the lustful, the irate, the shrewd, the swindlers, and the jobless, who spend their whole life criticizing others maliciously, but never remember God. 3. The foolish, unwise, and the unrefined do not remember God, and make no connection with Him. I wonder how they will find salvation, oh Kabir. 4.1.

Chund sut bhaydiya, naad sut pooriya, soor sut khorrsa dut(u) keeya. Abul bul(u) torriya, achul chul(u) thuppiya, aghurr(u) ghurriya, tuhha Apiyo peeya. 1. Mun, Aad(i) Goon vukhaaniya. Tayri doobidha drisht(i) sumaaniya. 1. Ruhaou. Ardh(i) kuou ardhiya, Sherdh kuou sherdhiya, sulul kuou sulul(i) suman(i) aaya. Budut(i) Jaideo, Jaidev kuou rummiya, Braham(u) nirbaan(u) livleen(u) paaya. 2.1.

Word Meaning: Chund = left nostril. Sut = breaths. Bhaydiya = inhale. Naad = a vein (sookhmuna) in the forehead where the yogis hold breath. Pooriya = hold. Soor = right nostril. Khorrsa = 16 times (utter Om). Dut(u) Keeya = exhaled. Abul = the weak (mind). Chul(u) = wavering (mind). Achul Thuppiya = stabilized. Aghurr = unrefined. Gurriya = refined. Apiyo = Amrit. 1. Aad(i) = Waheguru. Goon = virtues. Vukhaaniya = discussed. Doobidha Drisht(i) = discriminating vision (nature). Sumaaniya = is levelled. Pause.

Ardh(i) = worthy of worshipping. Sherdh = worthy of reverence. Sulul = water. Budut(i) = says. Jaidev = Waheguru. Rummiya = remembered. Nirbaan(u) = above the effects of Maya. Liveleen = absorbed in self. 2.

Meaning: During their yogic exercises, the yogis inhale breath through their left nostril, which they call the moon vein, hold their breath in the Sookhmuna vein in the forehead for some time, and exhale through their right nostril, which they call the sun vein, while chanting “Om” sixteen times. But a devotee, who sings Waheguru’s praise, does not need to do any of the yogic exercises because his discriminating nature becomes unbiased. By drinking Waheguru’s Naam-Amrit, his mind, weakened by his immoral thinking and acts, acquires strength (is rejuvenated), and its bad habits are eradicated; his wavering mind is stabilized, and the unrefined thinking is refined. 1 & Pause.

When a devotee worships Waheguru, which is worthy of worship, and shows reverence to the revered God, he merges with Him, as water in one container mixes well with the water in the other. I also recite the Naam of Waheguru, who stays absorbed in Himself (is undetected from the world), and realized Him, oh Jaideo. 2.1.

Keht(u) Kabir(u) soonhou ray sunt-hou, Sadh sungut(i) tur(i) jaahinga. 3.1.

Word Meaning: Simer = remember. Puchhtaahinga = will repent. Aaj(u) Kaal(i) = today or tomorrow; soon. Ootth(i) Jaahinga = will leave. Pause. Jobun = youthfulness. Gerb(u) = conceit. Kaagud = paper. Gul(i) = dissolve; destroyed. 1. Juou = when. Na Busaahinga = helpless. Bhujun = sing praise. Duyya = mercy. Mookh(i) = on the face. Choataan = hits. 2. Laykha Maangaiy = ask for the account of deeds. Kiyya Mookh(u) = what face? 3.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru’s Naam, otherwise you will have to repent, oh my mind. My sinful mind is very greedy for worldly things, and does not realize that it will leave the world soon. Pause.

Misled by Maya's illusions, the man is wasting his precious human life in greed. He should not be conceited of his youthfulness and of his wealth because he will be destroyed like paper which dissolves (is destroyed) in water. 1.

He will have no power to resist on the day when the Angel of death grabs him by the hair and tosses him away violently. He will suffer a beating on his face because he has not remembered Waheguru and has shown no compassion for the poor and the helpless. 2. What face will he show to the Angel of justice when he demands the account of his deeds? Kabir advises affectionately that you will find salvation if you take shelter of the Guru, or the other holy men, oh wise man. 3.1.

Word Meaning: Aiysi = such. Laal = oh, Dear. Nivaaj(u) = one who honours. Chuttar = canopy; crown. Pause. Chhoat(i) = touch. Dhuraiy = melt; mind moves. Neecheh = the lowly. Ooch = high in social status. 1. Suraiy = within reach; has the capability.

MEANING: My benevolent Waheguru honours his humble devotees like a rajah with a royal canopy above his head. Who else can do something like this, oh my Lord? Only Your heart melts for the individual whose touch makes some people feel impure. My Lord is not afraid of anyone and raises the status of the lowly. 1.

The world-famous Bhagats - Namdev, Kabir, Trilochan, Sdhna and Saiyn, - were all low-caste, but You granted them emancipation, oh Lord. Listen oh holy saints, everything is within the reach of the omnipotent Waheguru, submits Ravidass, humbly. 2.1.

Word Meaning: Sookh Saagur = ocean (source) of comforts. Soor(i) Tur = the five special trees of the paradise which are believed to fulfil all one's wishes. Chintamun(i) = a special jewel. Kaamdhayn = the cow which also fulfills all wishes. Asht Muhaa Sidh(i) = the eight great supernatural powers. Ker Tul = palm of hand. 1. Buchan Ruchna = the creation of empty words. Nana Khiyan Puran = the stories of the Puranas. Bayd Bidh(i) = the ways of the Vedas (to acquire emancipation). Chautees Achhur Maahi = in the 34 letters of the Hindi Alphabet. Permaaruth(u) = the basic idea. 2. Smaadh(i) = in meditation. Oopaadh(i) = vices. Reht = free of. Liv = focus of mind. Oodaas = detached. Daas = devotee. Bhaiy Bhaagi = fears run away. 3.

MEANING: Waheguru is the ocean of all comforts, and all the five trees of the paradise, the special jewel, and the Kaadhen, all of which are believed to grant all the wishes one has, are under the control of Waheguru. Not only those, even the four desired things – religiosity (high morality), wealth, fulfilment of wishes, and emancipation – the eight great supernatural powers, and the nine treasures of the world, are at the palm of His hand. 1.

So, forgetting all other things (mantras), which are just a creation of words, why don't you recite His Naam, oh man? Pause. All the stories of the Puranas, and the different ways mentioned in the Vedas to achieve emancipation, are only the creation of the thirty-four basic letters of the Sanskrit Alphabet. After pondering carefully, the Sage Biyas, has given the ultimate truth that they do not match Waheguru's Naam. 2.

The devotee with good fortune attains the high spiritual state by meditating on Waheguru's Naam and becomes free from all vices. With his pure thinking, such a devotee loses fear of any rebirth for him, oh Ravidass. 3.2.15.
