Sunjogi maylaavrra, inn(i) tun(i) keetay bhog. Vijogeen mil(i) vichhurray, Nanak bhee sunjog. 4.1.

Sloak: Dhoor(i) = dust. Paykhoun = I see. Hujoor(i) = close by.

Shabad: Pichhoun Raati = early hours of the morning. Suddrra = call. Khaymay = tents. Chhutar = canopies. Sraayichay = fabric walls. Ruth = chariots. Peerray = ready. 1. Baba = a respectable person. Kermheen = unfortunate. Koorriaar = attached to falsehood and deceitfulness. Bherm Bhoola = misled by misbeliefs. Pause.
Perphoorray = proliferate. Uglay = many. Vihaayay = life is spent. 2.
Vichhoorriyaan = disconnected (with Waheguru). Khayl(u) = drama of the universe. 3.
Sunjogi = predetermined union (of soul with body). Vijogeen = separation (due to death). Bhee = again. 4.

MEANING: Sloak: I wish to be the dust of Your Feet (serve You with full reverence), oh my dear friend, Waheguru. I, Nanak, have come to Your shelter so that I may always see You close to me.

Shabad: Those who respond to the motivational call of Waheguru, and recite His Naam in the early hours of the morning, feel as if they are the king of some state, and tents, canopies, and walls of expensive fabric have been raised in their honour, and chariots are ready for them to ride. But only those who recite Your Naam get Your call, oh Waheguru. 1.
But I am unfortunate who deals in falsehood and deceit (I am a slave of my mind and sensual desires), oh Waheguru. Blinded by the desires of my mind, I was misguided by my false beliefs and did not recite Your Naam. Pause.
It is prewritten (Laws of Waheguru) that if someone enjoys sensual pleasures, his discomforts proliferate. His pleasures last for a very short time, but his discomforts multiply and stay with him till his death; so, his life is spent in difficulties. 2.

What worse separation from anything dear to them can they experience who are separated from Waheguru? And what better union can one have than one with Waheguru? We should praise the Lord who has created the drama of the universe and looks after it. 3.
Human soul gets connected with the appropriate body as predetermined by Waheguru (to sing His praise), but the man rather enjoys luxuries of life; as a result, when the soul gets detached form the body due to death, they get separated, but are reunited again, and again, and such people go through many reincarnations, oh Nanak. 4.

Word Meaning: Pind(u) = body. Kmaaya = made. Laykh = writing. Daat(i) = largess of Waheguru. Jot(i) = Light-like. Vudiyaayi = praise. Soort(i) = wisdom. 1.
Maana = conceit. Ootth(i) Chulna = leave the world. Bhaana = Will. Pause.
Tuj(i) = give up. Saad = (enjoyment of different) tastes. Sehj = peaceful mind. Chhuddnaiy = have to leave. Dhur(i) Jaayiyaiy = leave behind. Baahoorr(i) = again. 2.
Suj(u) = necklace. Putt(u) = silk. Hundaayay. Phoormayish(i) = orders. Hutheen Paudee = done with one's own hands; self-creation. Kaahay = why? 3.
Ghoomunvaani = whirlpool. Jeeou = soul. Churraaoo = passenger. Kaahoo = rare. 4.
MEANING: What are you conceited about, when you have to leave this world as per the Will of Waheguru, oh my foolish mind? Pause.
Humans come into being by the union of their parents, when Waheguru also writes in the schedule of their deeds that they should sing praise of the Light-like Waheguru, which is the provider of all gifts (necessities of life). But the man loses his wisdom (noble thoughts) in the enjoyment of the luxuries of Maya. 1.
Give up your tastes (luxuries of life) (which rob you of your peace of mind), and enjoy the blissfulness of the peaceful state of mind, oh man. We have to leave our households behind (after death) - nobody lives here forever. We should eat some and leave some here, only if we are to come back to this world (which we do not). 2. The man adorns his body with necklaces, wears expensive, silky clothes, issues many orders, and sleeps in very comfortable beds (enjoys all the luxuries of life). So, what justification does he have for crying (in the Court of Waheguru) for the deeds he committed with his own hands? 3.
The man does not realize that the boat in which he is travelling while crossing the world sea, is in a whirlpool (in a very precarious situation because of his immoral deeds), and with the load of his sins, he cannot get across. What he needs to do to get across the world sea is to build a boat of fear and respect for Waheguru (recite His Naam) and ride in that. But Waheguru gives such a boat (His worship) only to some rare people, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Kerni = deeds. Kaagud = paper. Musvaani = inkpot; pen. Boora = bad. Bhulaa = good; noble. Kirt(u) = the effect of the deeds performed. Jiyoun = the way. Chulaayay = leads. Tiyoun = like that. Tuou = Yours. Unt(u) = end. 1.
Chaytus(i) = remember. Baavuriya = foolish. Bisrut = forgetting. Guliyaa = rot. Pause.
Jaali = a small net. Ghurri = a unit of time (24 minutes). Phaahi = trap. Rus(i) = while enjoying. Choag = tasty food (of sensual pleasures). Chhootus(i) = get free. 2.
Kaaya = body. Aarun(i) = kiln. Loha = iron (to mould). Punch Ugun(i) = fire of the five demons (lust, greed etc.). Purray = act as (fuel). Sunnhi = pliers. Chint = worries. 3.
Munoor = burned (hard and brittle) iron. Kunchun = gold. Tinayha = Like that. Trishtus(i) = contented. Dayha = body; mind. 4.

MEANING: Why do not you remember Waheguru, oh foolish man? Because of your forgetting Waheguru, all your noble qualities begin to rot. Pause.
There is no end to the virtues of Waheguru, but the man is limited and simply continues to perform deeds according to his nature, shaped by the deeds of his previous lives. Man's deeds are written (as if on paper) by his mind, which acts as the pen, and writes his good and bad deeds. 1.
The man commits immoral deeds, enjoying them like a bird that picks up the food the hunter had spread for him as bait, only to get trapped. His immoral deeds act like a small net at night, a huge net during the day, and the smaller units of time act as bonds. So, what virtues can the foolish man use to get emancipation from such a trap? 2.
Man's body is like the kiln of a blacksmith in which his mind is the piece of iron (which gets moulded); his sins act as the coal on the fire of his sensual desires caused by the five demons, and his worries act as the pliers to expose the mind (to the fire of his desires) whereby his mind gets completely burned (left with no feelings of goodness like compassion, helping others, and reciting Waheguru's Naam). 3. However, his hard and brittle mind, like burnt iron, can become soft and pure, like gold, if he is connected to the right (Perfect) Guru. The Perfect Guru implants Waheguru's Naam in his mind whereby he feels fully contented by body and mind, oh Nanak. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Bimul = Nirmul = clean; pure. Mujhaar(i) = in (the middle). Busus(i) = reside. Jul = water. Pudmun(i) = lotus flower. Jaawal = algae. Sungut(i) Sung(i) = in the company of. Doakh = fault. 1. Daadur = frog. Kubheh(i) Na = never. Bhukhsh(i) = eat. Sibaal(u) = algae. Amrit = (Amrit-like) superior. Lukhus(i) = recognize. Pause. Vusut = resides. Uliul = bumblebee. Mayr = top; summit. Chucha = sucks. Goon = sap. Koomoodni = waterlily. Niv = bow to. Sus(i) = (to the) moon. Unbhuou = feelings; sensation. Kaarun(i) = because of. 2. Mudh(u) = honey. Sunchus(i) = accumulate. Chaatur = clever. Apna Aap(u) = own nature. Chhodus(i) = give up. Pisn = tic. 3. Pundit = highly learned. Aagum Shas = the Vedas and the Shastras. Sooaan = dog. Poochh(i) = tail. 4. Ikk(i) = many. Paakhundi = hypocrites. Raacheh(i) = have love for. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. Paavus(i) = gets. 5.

MEANING: The lotus flower and algae both live together in clean water, and there is no fault in them (no bad effect on each other) as they enjoy the sweet (helpful) support of water. 1. But a frog, also living in the same clean water, does not understand the taste of the superior lotus flower and feeds on algae only. Pause.

The bumblebee does not live in the water, but it knows the importance of the lotus flower and sucks the sweet sap from the top of the flower. Similarly, the waterlily (which blooms only at night in moonlight) realizes its attraction for the moon, which is far away from it, and bows to it from a distance. 2. You think you are clever, oh frog, but you do not give up your nature, and are like the tick that does not suck the milk of a cow or a buffalo, which has the sweetness of sugar or honey, and sucks their blood. 3.

You do not give up your nature, and are like many foolish people who may spend some time in the company of highly learned people, and may listen to the religious books like the Vedas and the Shastras, but never change their nature like the tail of the dog, which is never straight. 4. There are many hypocrites who show themselves off as highly religious people but have no real love for Waheguru, while there are some who have a deep attachment to Waheguru's Feet (His Naam). Everyone gets to do whatever is prewritten in their fate. You, just recite Waheguru's Naam with the tongue, oh Nanak. 5.4.

Word Meaning: Sloak: Putit = immoral. Pooneet = pure; pious. Asunkh = countless. Utt-suthh(i) = 68 (Hindu holy places). Mustuk(i) = forehead. 1.

Shabad: Sukhee = Suhayli = female friends. Gerb(i) Guhayli = gripped by conceit. Sheh Kee = of the Waheguru-husband. Baat = praise. Soohayli = comforting. 1.
Baydun = mental pain (anguish). Jeeou = mind. Ruhhaiy = becomes peaceful. Pause. Doohaagun(i) = separated from Waheguru-Husband. Khurie = much. Runjaani = troubled. Jobun(u) = young years. Dhun = soul-bride. Puchhutaani = repentant; penitent. 2.
Daana = wise. Khijmut(i) = service. Jun(u) = Bunda = slave. 3. Bhunut(i) = says. Undaysha = worry; show concern. Ruvoun = recite Naam. Sunayhi = Dear. 4.

MEANING: Sloak: Countless immoral people have been purified with their love for Waheguru's Feet (His Naam). The dips in the sixty-eight holy places are subsumed in Waheguru's Naam (the devotees do not need to have such dips), but only that devotee gets the Naam who has it prewritten on his forehead (in fate). 1

Shabad: My mind does not find peace, and I cannot live without Waheguru; how can I find peace, oh my mother? With whom should I share my anguish, which I am suffering from due to my separation from Waheguru? Pause.
(Answer): You are separated from Waheguru because you are gripped by your ego, oh my friend. (To get connected with Waheguru), You need to overcome your ego and listen to His praise, which is very comforting. 1.
At a young age, the human-bride does not remember Waheguru, but repents in her later years when she feels troubled, as the woman who is separated from her husband does. 2.
You are wise (know my feelings) and are my protection over my head, oh my Lord, Waheguru. I am Your slave, and beg for the opportunity to serve You. 3.
But most people show their concern, and wonder how they can serve You without seeing You, submits Nanak humbly. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Mooll Khureedi = bought by money. Laala = Goala = slave. Subhaaga = lucky. Bhuchnee = Words; Advice. Haat Bikaana = sold at the shop. 1.
Chuturaayi = cleverness. Kerna Jaayi = cannot fulfill. Pause.
Maa = my wisdom. Piyou = father; contentment. Jaaya = born of. Naachaiy = dances; feels zestful. Gaavaiy = sings joyfully. Raaya = Royal Waheguru. 2.
Aani = fetch. Meera = Lord. Peesun = grind wheat. Pukha Phayreen = I will fan Him. Mulovaan = massage. 3.
Loon-Huraami = disloyal. Bukhsheh(i) = forgive. Vudiyaayi = greatness. Aad(i) = from the very beginning. Joogaadi = from the beginning of the eons. Duyya-Put(i) = Lord of mercy. Vin(u) = without. Mookut = emancipation. 4.

MEANING: I am lucky that I have sold myself (have lost all my rights) at the shop of the Guru to buy His Words (in praise of Waheguru), and now I am Waheguru's slave, and will do whatever I am told to do. 1. But, as His slave, I do not have the wisdom to carry out His orders. Pause.
My mother (wisdom) is Waheguru's slave, and so is my father (contentment), and I am their creation. When I worship the Royal Waheguru, my wisdom dances zestfully, and my contentment sings joyfully. 2. I will gladly fetch (serve) water for my Lord if He is thirsty, and will grind wheat to make chapatis if He feels hungry. While reciting His Naam, I will fan Him and massage His feet (recitation of His Naam is like serving Him). 3.
I am His disloyal slave (do not serve Him perfectly); it is his greatness if He forgives me, oh Nanak. Waheguru has been the source of compassion from the very beginning of the universe and the eons. Nobody can get emancipation without His kindness. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Bhootna = ghost-like. Baytaala = out of step with the world. 1.
Divaana = crazy about. Buouraana = crazy; eccentric. Uver(u) = other. Pause.
Tuou = only then. Bhaiy = (in Waheguru's) fear. Baahra = outside of; other than. 2.
Aika Kaar = serve only Waheguru. Kaayay = of what use? 3.
Dhuray = places; does. Munda = lower; not as good. Bhulaa = good. 4.

MEANING: (People do not understand my love for Waheguru, and my mental ecstasy) and call me ghost-like or a person who is out of step with the world (misguided) while some (take pity on me), and call me a poor man. 1.
I am crazy in love with my Lord and do not recognize any power other than Him. Pause.
I call a person eccentric if he is so in the fear of the Lord, and does not acknowledge any other power than Waheguru. 2. A person is truly eccentric if he serves the "only" Lord, and recognizes His Huqam (Will). Any other wisdom carries no worth. 3.
One is eccentric if he considers himself lower than all others, and regards the rest of the world as being good, and if the Lord loves him. 4.7.

Word Meaning: Eh(u) Dhun = the wealth of Waheguru's Naam. Serb Bhurpoor(i) = omnipresent. Phireh(i) = wander around (in forests). 1.
Nistaaraiy = salvages. Pause. Tuskur(u) = thief. Doobaiy = sinks; is lost. Sujaayay = punishment. 2. Vudiyaayee = greatness. Sehjay Maatay = intoxicated in high spiritual state. 3. Anoop = beautiful. Perm Gurt(i) = highest spiritual state. 4.
Bhunut(i) = says. Akuth = indescribable (Waheguru). Kutha = story of virtues (praise). 5.

MEANING: The source of the Naam-wealth, Waheguru, is present everywhere in the universe, but the follower of his mind thinks that Waheguru is somewhere far away, and wanders around in forests looking for Him. 1. The wealth of Your Naam is in my heart, and whoever You give with Your kindness gets salvaged, oh Waheguru. Pause.
Waheguru's Naam is such a wealth that does not burn and cannot be stolen by any thief. Unlike other forms of wealth, this wealth cannot be lost, and no one is punished for possessing it (people who possess illegal money can be punished). 2.
Behold the greatness of this wealth: every day of the life of the individual who possesses this wealth is spent in the intoxication of the high spiritual state. 3.
One must note this exceptionally beautiful thing about this wealth, that nobody can attain the highest spiritual state without it. 4. Nanak shares a word of praise for the indescribable Waheguru, saying that one acquires this wealth only from the Guru. 5.8.

Word Meaning: Soor Sur = the pool of sun (fire of desires). Soas(i) Laiy = suck up; kill/ Soam Sur(u) = the pool of moon (coolness) (contentment). Poakh(i) Laiy = nurture it (make it stronger). Joogut(i) Kur(i) = make it style of life. Mert(u) = air; breaths. Su Sunbundh(u) = that relationship. Meen = fish. Chupul = fickleness. Joogut(i) = technique. Raakhiyaiy = control. Huns(u) = swan; mind. Kundh(u) = wall; body. Chheejaiy = weakens. 1. Moorray = oh, foolish. Kaayichay = for what? Bherm Bhoolla = misled by misbeliefs. Permanund = the source of supreme bliss (Waheguru). Baiyraagi = fully detached. Pause. Ajur = the temptation to acquire supernatural powers which come with the high spiritual state. Guhou = hold; control. Jaar(i) Laiy = burn it away. Amar = the immortal Waheguru. Maar Laiy = kill your (desires). Bhuraant = fickleness of mind. Tuj(i) = Chhoad(i) = give up; control. Apiyo = Naam-Amrit. 2.
Bhunut(i) = says. Ruvvaiy = recite (Naam). Muno = deep from the heart. Mun Puvun = wind-like fickle mind. Juno = slave. 3.

MEANING: Like the yogis, who exhale through the right nostril, which they call the sun-vein, you exhale (get rid of) your fire of worldly desires and the darkness of ignorance, oh my friend; and like the yogis, who inhale through the left nostril, which they call the moon-vein, inhale the moon-like coolness (strengthen your contentment). These should be your breathing exercises; when you adopt these exercises in your life, you can control your fish-like fickle mind, as a result of which, it will not take imaginary flights, and your fort-like body (moral strength) will not weaken. 1. Why are you being misguided by your misbeliefs, and do not recognize (make connection with) the fully detached Waheguru, which is the eternal source of supreme bliss, oh foolish man? Pause.
Kill your worldly desires to hold on to (get connected with) Waheguru, and control the temptation to acquire supernatural powers when you attain the high spiritual state. You will be able to drink the Amrit (enjoy the bliss of the high spiritual state) when you control the indecisiveness of your mind, oh my friend. This way, you will be able to control your fish-like, fickle mind, as a result of which it will not take imaginary flights, and your body (moral strength) will not weaken. 2. Waheguru's slave, Nanak, suggests that if one recites Waheguru's Naam from the depth of his heart, he will be able to control his wind-like, fickle mind and drink the Amrit of His Naam. He will be able to control his fish-like, fickle mind, and his fort-like body (moral strength) will not weaken. 3.9.

Word Meaning: Maya Mooyi Na = the desire for worldly attractions did not die. Sur(u) = pool; heart. Lehri = filled with waves. Maiy Mut(u) = intoxicated. Bohith = ship. Sir(i) Tur(i) = float on top. Tikaiy = stabilizes. Saacha Vukkhur(u) = the merchandise of Waheguru's Naam. Jit(u) = in which. Maanuk = pearl (Waheguru's Naam). Kut(u) = cut; whole. Raja = mind. Tukhut(i) = on the throne of heart. Gooni = (only with) noble qualities. Bhaiy Punchaayin = in the fear of God. Rut(u) = imbued. 1. Jug Jeevuna = life if the world (Waheguru). Sir(i) Sir(i) = on everybody's forehead. Laykh(u) = prewritten destiny. Pause. Rikhi = sages. Mooni = hermits. Ind(u) = Indra. Tupaiy = those who worship by torturing self. Aaki = rebels. Afaari = conceited. Jungum = a sect of yogis. Jodh = valiant. Jutee = celibates. Veechaari = pondered on. Saari = supreme. 2.
Nidhuniyaan = paupers. Nimaaniyaan = with no respect in society. Nitaaniyaan = powerless. Hoam = huvuns. Jupaa = recitation of mantras. Dhoyee = shelter. Jhoottha = who deals in the perishables; worshipper of Maya. Aavun Jaan(u) = reincarnations. 3. Triput(i) = contentment. Giyan = Lord's Naam. Buhourr(i) = again. Maiyla = filthy. Bighun = hurdle. Sir(u) = mind; wisdom. Chhootiyaiy = find emancipation. Soyay = the same (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: Waves of worldly attractions and desires rise high in the pool of man's intoxicated heart (mind). Under such conditions, he is unable to kill the mind-captivating effects of Maya, and control his mind. Because of the attractions of Maya, only that ship of one's life can stay afloat in the pool of his heart (mind) which carries the merchandize of Waheguru's Naam. Waheguru's pearl-like Naam kills one's worldly desires in one's mind as His Naam cannot suffer any cut (get a hole in the ship). The mind-king can sit on the throne (stabilize) when it acquires noble qualities by getting imbued in the respectful fear (love) of Waheguru. 1. Do not think of Waheguru as being far away from you, oh dear friend. Waheguru is the life (basis) of the whole world, His Light is present in everybody, and His Huqam is written on everybody's forehead (everybody's fate is controlled by Him). Pause. Be it Brahma, Vishnu, sages, hermits, Shiva, Indra, or the self-torturers, they are all beggars at Waheguru's Door. Only those are honoured in Waheguru's Court who obey His Huqam - the rebels suffer spiritual death for their conceit. According to the Perfect Guru, it does not matter what one calls himself – he may call himself a Jungum, a valiant, a celibate, or a sanyasi- only that person is rewarded by Waheguru who serves Him, and that service is supreme. 2.

You are the wealth of the poor, the Guru of those who have no guru, and the pride of those who have no pride at all, oh Waheguru. The mentally blind (ignorant) get enlightened in the shelter of the pearl-like Guru, and You are the power of the powerless. Waheguru cannot be realized by huvuns or by the recitation of any mantras; one can connect with Him only by the advice of the Guru. No one gets any shelter in Waheguru's Court without His Naam; the worshipper of Maya stays in the birth-death cycle. 3.
One should sing Waheguru's praise with His Naam, as a result of which one will become fully contented. If one cleanses his mind with the jewel of Waheguru's Naam, it never gets filthy again. One experiences no hurdle in the path of his union with Waheguru as long as he has Waheguru's Naam enshrined in his mind. One gets salvaged when he surrenders his head (wisdom) to Waheguru, and when Waheguru appears in his body and mind, oh Nanak. 4.10.

Word Meaning: Joogut = way of life. Nimaayil(u) = without filth (pure). Raati = a tiny amount. Nath(u) = Lord. Sungaiy = with. Gut(i) = stage. Beeti = gets past. 1. Gosaayeen = Waheguru. Kuhha = where. Kaiysay = how. Jaati = be known. Nirunti = endless; an ongoing question. Pause.
Ishnaan = bathing the self, and the idols. Paati = petals; flowers. Tirbhuvun = in the three layers of the universe. 2. Jihva = tongue. Dundee = beam. Ghut(u) = heart. Chhaaba = pan of the scale. Touloun = I weigh. Ajaachi = immeasurable. Haat = shop (to buy Naam with bad qualities). Shah = the owner of the business (Waheguru). Vunjaaray = traders; businessmen. Bhaanti = kind. 3. Dovaiy Siray = both sides (buying and selling). Nibayrray = decides. Boojhaiy = understand. Liv Laagi = connected with, mentally. Nibhraanti = clear of all doubts. Chookaayay = get cleared. 4.
Guggun = sky; the tenth door. Gorukh(u) = the Lord. Agumm = inaccessible. Poon(i) = too. Vaasi = resident. Ghur(i) = in the heart. Oodaasi = turned off; detached. 5.

MEANING: The yogi, whose way of life is based on Waheguru's pure Naam, has not even an iota of filth on his mind. The Dear Lord is always with him, and he gets past the stage of reincarnation. 1. I will also seek clarification from Waheguru when He calls me in His Residence (when I get connected with Him) on the ongoing question of the source of His Naam (how to acquire it and how to connect with Him). Pause.
A Brahman takes a dip in water to clean his body, bathes the idol, and worships the deity with flowers. But, the real bath for him is to take a dip in the pool of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit and to acquire the virtues of Waheguru, which serve as the real flowers for His worship. He should realize that it is Waheguru alone whose Light is present in the whole universe, and He is the only Lord of the Universe, and only His Naam should be worshipped (recited with respect). 2. I have made my tongue (with which I recite the Naam), the beam of the weigh scale, and my heart, the pan where I weigh (the worth of) the immeasurable Waheguru (to what extent Waheguru's Naam gets enshrined in my heart when I recite it with my tongue). There is only one shop (Guru's Court) where one can buy Waheguru's Naam, and there is only one Lord above everybody. All the traders come to Guru's shop for the same merchandise - Waheguru's Naam. 3. Satguru decides at both ends of the business – who deserves to get the Naam, and whose qualities to accept as trade-in. But only that individual understands this who is fully absorbed in Waheguru's Naam and has overcome his misgivings. Such a devotee gets rid of the illusions of Maya, and enshrines Waheguru's Naam in his heart and serves Waheguru day and night. 4. The man has the Tenth door (through which the enlightenment takes place) on the top, where the inaccessible Waheguru could come to reside with the Guru's grace. With Guru's Shabad, I have realized that the Waheguru, which is present outside, is also present in my heart, and I have become fully detached from the worldly attractions, oh Nanak. 5.11.

Ub = now; at this time. Suhou = endure. Bhaari = the burden (of punishment). 4.
Mumta = attachments. Khiyaaleen = in thoughts. Phaasehinga = will be trapped. Jaali = net. Hayt = love. Bundhun = bonds. Khooaari = humiliation. 5.
Huoun = I; me. Kerta = performer of deeds. Chaara = match; competition. 6.

MEANING: Waheguru makes some rare individuals sing His praise in the shelter of the Guru. Such individuals are those who seek Waheguru's Naam and know the worth of Waheguru's Naam-Amrit. Pause.
Such devotees stay awake (alert against the attacks of Maya) day and night, and never go to sleep (show carelessness). Their minds are pierced with the arrows of love for Waheguru, and suffer from the pain of His separation for which no physician has any cure. 1.
The human bride (soul) who falls in love with the Waheguru-husband and shows the expected love for Him gets her thirst for worldly desires quenched (removed) and enjoys the blissfulness in the high spiritual state. 2. She clears all her doubts and false illusions of Maya, and loads the bow of her mind with arrows of praise for Waheguru in the peaceful state. She kills her worldly desires, controls her mind with Guru's Shabad, beautifies her mind with noble qualities, and connects with Waheguru. 3.
(On the other hand) The individual, whose mind is charred with his ego, forgets Waheguru, and is punished severely in the court of the Angel of justice. He cannot get Waheguru's Naam at that time, even if he prays a lot for that, and has to endure the burden of the punishment. 4. The individual, who has worldly attachments caused by Maya in his thoughts, is caught in the net of the Angel of Death. He cannot break his worldly bonds and is humiliated by the Angel. 5. Satguru has kindly given me the Amrit-like Waheguru's Naam, so I have no ego, and I take no credit for my noble deeds (I simply obey Waheguru's Huqam). Nobody can compete with the devotee whom Waheguru gives His Naam; so, I am in Waheguru's shelter, oh Nanak. 6.1.12.

Word Meating: Jeh = where. Baiysaakeh(i) = makes me sit. Teh = there. Bhayjeh(i) = send. Nugri = cities; the whole world. Puvitt(u) = sacred. 1.
Vussan = I live. Sach Gaavaan = the eternal village (of Waheguru's praise) (holy gathering). Sehjay = easily. Pause. Aapus Tay = from self; haumein. Jaaniya = decided. Ehee = this (haumein). Vikaara = vices; bad acts. Foormaaya = Huqam. Vertaiy = operates. 2. Indri = senses. Dhaat = running around; dancing to their tune. Subul = powerful. Khayl = drama of the world. Boojhaiy = understands. 3.
Doobidha = indecisiveness. Tuday = because of that. Binaasi = destroyed. Bhaana = liked by; Will. Sut(i) = the only truth. Phaasi = noose. 4.
Bhunut(i) = says. Laykha = account of deeds. Chooka = cleared. Taas, Taas = dreaded. Dherm Raayay = the mythical Angel of justice. 5.1.

MEANING: Waheguru is the emperor of the whole world, and all places are sacred (where His praise is sung). I obey His Huqam and will sit wherever He wants me to sit and will go wherever He sends me. 1.
Kindly grant me the eternal place to reside where Your praise is sung (the gathering of holy saints) so that I may easily be absorbed in the high spiritual state. Pause.
Because of his ego and selfishness, the man decides the good and the bad deeds for himself, which is the root of all vices. He does not realize that it is all the Huqam of Waheguru (including his choice of deeds) which operates everywhere. 2.
Everybody says that man's senses are so powerful that they make the man dance to their tune, but they do not realize who created the senses (Waheguru, of course). Some rare individuals realize that it is Waheguru who has created the whole world like a drama. 3.
The devotee, who, with the grace of the Guru, gets absorbed only in the thoughts of Waheguru, gets his indecisiveness cleared, and obeys Waheguru's Will as the eternal Truth. Also, the noose of the Angel of death around his neck gets severed (as he merges into Waheguru). 4. Who (nobody) demands the account of the deeds from the devotee who is free from any ego, says Nanak. Even the dreaded Angel of justice recites Waheguru' Naam and begs for His shelter. 5.1.

Word Meaning: Aavun Jaana = birth and death. Theeyay = happens. Nij Ghur(i) = own mind (in Waheguru's Naam). Vaasa = dwelling. Sach(u) Khujaana = eternal treasure. Soyay = that (Waheguru). 1. Tuj(i) = giving up. Vikaar = immoral acts. Pause. Aiythaiy = here (in this world). Bhoolliyaan = forgetting. Kithaaoun Na = nowhere. Bhuvaayiun(i) = taken through. Bishta = feces; filthy sensual pleasures. Smaayay = gets absorbed. 2.
Vudbhaageen = highly fortunate. Poorub(i) Likhiya = prewritten. Undin = always. 3. Srishut(i) = the world. Saajiun = created. Nudr(i) = kind sight. Vudiyaayiyaan = honours.4.

MEANING: Births and deaths do not happen to the devotees who are endowed with the treasure of Waheguru's Naam by Him. Their mind quits wandering, and they stay focused on His Naam. But only Waheguru knows who to give this treasure. 1.
Give up all your immoral sensual pleasures, and focus on Waheguru's Naam, oh my mind. Recite His Naam with Guru's Shabad, whereby you will develop love for Waheguru. Pause. If one forgets Waheguru's Naam in this world, then he has nowhere to get support (in the next world). He is taken through many life forms, and again gets absorbed in the filthy sensual pleasures. 2.
As predestined, the fortunate people connect with the Guru, and the eternal Waheguru connects them with Him when they worship Him continuously with full dedication. 3.
Waheguru has created the whole world Himself, and looks after it with His kind sight. One receives honours because of Waheguru's Naam, but Waheguru gives His Naam only to the individuals whom He likes, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Pichhlay = previous. Goonah = sins; misdeeds. Bukhshaayay = forgive. Ub = now. Maarug(i) = the (moral) path. Aap(u) =ego and selfishness. 1.
Aikaiy Bhaayay = in the love for the One. Pause.
Jaat(i) = high caste. Put(i) = respect. Thayhou Na Thaaoun = no address or identity; a non-entity. Bhayd(i) = pierced by. Bherm(u) = misgiving; illusion. 2.
Laaluch = greed. Koorr(i) Dhundhaiy = Maya-related tasks. Viyaapiya = trapped in. Choataan Khaayay = punished severely. 3.
Bhagat(i) Khujaana = treasure of worship. Bukhshiyon = endowed. 4.
MEANING: I request You to forgive me for my previous misdeeds, and to put me on the path of righteousness now, oh Waheguru. I wish to have my selfishness and ego eradicated, and furthermore that my mind should be attracted to, and focused on Your Feet (Your Naam). 1.
Recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, oh my mind. I wish to always be attached to Waheguru's Feet (Naam) with full dedication and have exclusive love for Him. Pause.
I do not come from a high caste, have no respect in society, and have no address (identification) – I am a non-entity. However, my mind has been pierced by Guru's Shabad, through which all my misgivings have been cleared, and the Guru has explained the importance of Waheguru's Naam to me. 2.
The human mind continues to be greedy in the false affairs of Maya as a result of which he suffers punishment in the detention of the Angel of death. 3.
Waheguru controls everything in the world, and there is none other like Him, oh Nanak. Those who take Guru's shelter enjoy blissfulness as He endows them with the treasure of Waheguru's Naam. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Ruttay = imbued. Toal(i) = search for. Virlay = rare. Oojla = clean; respectable. Mooraar = Waheguru. 1.
Smaal(i) = remember. Vukkhur(u) = merchandise (Waheguru's Naam). Pause.
Sacha = eternal (Waheguru). Sayndi = serves. Dhoor(i) Bhaag(i) = prewritten fortune. Vichhurreh(i) = separated. Paaveh(i) = become one with. 2.
Saar = worth. Bherm(i) Bhoolaayay = lost in misgivings. Aap(i) = ego. Vertda = guides. 3. Khulay Keechaiy = with controlled mind. Shaabaash(i) = accolades; praise. 4.
MEANING: If you search for them in the world, you will find that there is some rare devotee who is imbued with the love of Waheguru. However, one's face (mind) is purified, and he earns respect when he recites Waheguru's Naam in their company. 1.
Get (enshrine) the invaluable Waheguru's Naam in your heart with the advice of the Guru, and remember it all the time, oh dear friend. Pause.

Everybody serves only Waheguru, but only those who have it prewritten in their fate are connected to Him. Those who get connected with Waheguru by the grace of the Guru do not get separated again and become “one” with Him. 2.
The worshippers of Maya are lost in their misbeliefs and do not know the true worth of Waheguru’s worship. They are guided by their ego and selfishness, and nothing can be done (to enlighten them). 3.
One should pray only with a fully focused mind before Waheguru, because no force or argument works with Him. One earns His praise when he enshrines Waheguru’s Naam in his heart with the guidance of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Maaru = (hot like) desert; short-tempered. Seetul(u) = calm; patient. Munoorhoun = from rusted and brittle iron (like mind). Kunchun(u) = (pure and soft like) gold. Jayvud = as great. 1. Undin(u) = all the time. Araadh(i) = worship. Pause.
Jidoon = from whom. Soajhi = understanding. Uggaiy = in the next world (in Waheguru’s Court). 2& 3. Vaypervaah(u) = care-free. Til Na = not even the size of a sesame seed. Tumaayay = desire; wish for. Bhujj(i) Puou = rush for shelter. 4.
MEANING: One should sing praise of Waheguru, who has no one else like Him, and who transforms a short-tempered man into a cool and patient (soft-hearted) person, as if a rusted and brittle piece of iron has been transformed into gold. 1.
Recite Waheguru’s Naam all the time, and worship Him (sing His praise) with Satguru’s Shabad, oh my mind. Pause. Recognize (make connection with) Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru when Satguru gives you the wisdom (enlightens you) to recite His Naam. We should also sing Satguru’s praise, who enlightens us. 2.
Forgetting Satguru (ignoring His Teachings), what will those do in the next world, who are attached to the other (Maya)? Tied in the court of the Angel of justice, they will be severely punished. 3. My Waheguru is carefree and has no desire for anything at all. So, rush to His shelter who will forgive you, and connect you with Him, oh Nanak. 4.5.

Word Meaning: Sook = a sage. Junuk = a good king, and father-in-law of god Rama. Daalud = poverty. Bhunj(i) = by eradicating. Soodaama = a childhood friend and classmate of Krishna. Bhugti Bhaayay = with love for worship. Bhugut(i)-Vuchhul(u) = lover of His worship. Kirtaaruth(u) = causing success. 1.

Dhuroo, Prehlaad = devotees of God (see “Introduction” for detail). Bidur = was a son of a maid, and the prime minister of the king Dhritrashtra in Mahabharat, and was a devotee of god Krishna. Daasi – soot = son of a maid. Pause.

Kulyug(i) = in this eon. Perdhaan = supreme. Pdaaruth = valuable article. Nama, Jaiydayo, Kabir, Tirlochun(u) = are all great souls; their banis are enshrined in SGGS. Doakh = vices; sins. Chumray = of the cobbler (Ravidass). Kilvikh = sins. 2.

Upraadhi = culprit; sinner. Purhuray = removed; dispelled. Baysooaa = prostitute. Ruvut = enjoying. Ajamul = a Brahman who married a prostitute. Oogursaiyn = father of Kuns, and grandfather of Krishna. Gut = high spiritual state. Bundhun = bonds. Mookut = emancipate. 3.

Jun = slave; devotee. Ungreh(i) = showed kindness; favour = ungikaar. Paiyj = dignity. 4.

MEANING: Sages, like Sook and Junak, became well known after they recited Waheguru’s Naam with Guru’s Shabad in His shelter (with His guidance). Sudama also met Krishna with the spirit of worship (of Waheguru) when Krishna eradicated his poverty. Waheguru loves His devotees, and with His benevolence, His Naam becomes the source of all success through the Guru. 1.

All those who recite Waheguru’s Naam get salvaged, oh my mind. Holy men like Dhuroo, Prahalad, and Bidur, who was the son of a maid, were salvaged when they recited Waheguru’s Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Pause.

Waheguru’s Naam is supreme even in this eon (In fact, in every eon) because of which His devotees are salvaged. All the sins of the Great souls like Nam Dev, Kabir, Trilochan, and Ravidass, who was a dealer in hides, were eradicated with Waheguru’s Naam. The sins of all those who recited Waheguru’s Naam with the advice of the Guru were forgiven, and they were emancipated. 2. All the misdeeds of the guilty were cleared who recited Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. Even Ajamul(u), who is considered to be a sinner because he married a prostitute and enjoyed her company, was salvaged because he recited Waheguru's Naam (Narayan) when calling his son's name, whom he had named Narayan. Similarly, Oogursaiyn(i) (the maternal grandfather of Krishna) attained the high spiritual state when all his worldly bonds were broken by Waheguru. 3.

Waheguru does favours to His devotees, and he protects the dignity of His devotees who take His shelter (surrender to Him). Waheguru was kind to His devotee, Nanak, too, when He was salvaged (merged into Waheguru) by reciting His Naam. 4.1.

Word Meaning: Smaadh(i) = in deep meditation = Liv Laayee. Moon(i) = hermits; sages. Jutee = celibates. Sutee = of high morality. Suntokheen = the contented. Inderaadik = god Indra and the like. Ruvviya = recited Naam. Tay = those. Bhaayay = liked by. Paar Puyya = were salvaged. 1. Dhunaa = a holy saint; his bani is also enshrined in SGGS. Jatt = a major caste; they are mostly farmers. Balmeek = a low-caste holy man who is believed to have written Ramayana; he was a robber earlier. Pause.
Soor(i) = gods. Gunh, Gundherb = assistants of gods. Rikh(i) Buppraiy = poor Angel of justice. Shunkar = Shiva. Dayveen = the goddesses. Mookh(i) = with the tongue. Bheena = imbued. 2. Koat(i) Taytees = 330 millions (number of Hindu gods). Rusaal(u) = source of all sweet tastes. Vussiya = resides. 3. Unut-Trungee = with countless waves (feelings) = Waheguru. Thaayeen Paayay = gives due credit. Bhaaya = like. 4.

MEANING: All those who recite Waheguru Naam in the shelter of the Guru are liked by Waheguru and are salvaged. The accomplished Sidhs recite Waheguru's Naam in their deep meditation, and so do the yogis and the hermits. The celibates, the devotees with high morality, and gods like Indra, also recited Waheguru's Naam with their tongue. Those who come to Waheguru's shelter are liked by Him, and are salvaged with the advice of Satguru.1.

People find salvation by reciting Waheguru's Naam, oh my mind. Look at Dhana Ji, who was a simple-minded farmer, and Balmeek, who was a robber – both were salvaged when they took Guru's shelter, oh my mind. Pause.
The gods, the human beings, and the assistants of the gods recite Waheguru's Naam, and so does the poor Angel of justice. Shiva, Brahma, and the goddesses all recite Waheguru's Naam with their tongues. All those whose mind gets imbued with Waheguru's love in the shelter of the Guru get salvaged. 2. The 330 million gods also recited Waheguru's Naam, but found no end to the limits of Waheguru. The Vedas, the Puranas, and the Simritis sing Waheguru's praise, and the highly literary pundits recite Waheguru's Naam with their tongue. Those who embed the Naam of Waheguru, which is the source of all sweet tastes in their mind, in the shelter of the Guru, are salvaged. 3.
I could not count the number of all those who recite Waheguru's Naam with a huge variety of feelings. With His benevolence, Waheguru recognizes the hard work of His devotees and rewards those whom He likes. The Guru was very kind to me, who reinforced Waheguru's Naam in my mind, and now I recite it all the time like a slave, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Nidhaan(u) = treasure. Gurmit(i) = with Guru's advice. Put(i) = husband; the Lord. Hult = this world. Pult = next world. Untay = at the end. Chhudaayay = emancipates. Uvghut = very difficult. Guliyaan = streets; path. Bheerriyaan = very narrow; highly scrutinized. Tithaiy = there. 1. Drirraayay = reinforce. Soot = son. Bundhpo = close relative. Uver(u) = other. Maayay = oh, my mother. Pause.
Birhee = dear. Joadrri = humble request. Dhill Na = without delay. 2.
Chaytiyo = remember. Jum Dur(i) = in the court of the Angel of justice. 3.
Shernaagti = shelter seekers. Jug-Jeevna = life of the world. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is the real treasure, and one gets connected with the Lord-husband with the advice of the Guru. Waheguru's Naam accompanies you in this world and the next, and Waheguru emancipates the devotee at the end. Where the paths are very narrow and difficult to pass through (very strict scrutiny of one's deeds before his fate is decided), Waheguru frees him from any punishment (and absorbs him in Himself). 1.
Please fortify Waheguru's Naam in my mind, oh my Satguru. Waheguru is everything for me – my mother, my father, my son, and my close relative - and I have no one else to go to, oh my mother. Pause.
Waheguru's Naam is very dear to me; I wish someone would connect me with Him, oh my mother. I will request him very humbly to connect me with my dear Waheguru. My Satguru is highly benevolent and connects with Waheguru without any delay. 2.
Those who do not remember Waheguru are unlucky and die a spiritual death. They are taken through many life forms, and they keep taking births and dying again and again. Tied in the court of the Angel of justice, they are severely punished by Waheguru. 3. You are the Lord, and I am in your shelter; kindly connect me with You, oh Royal Waheguru. Please, be kind and put me in the shelter of the Satguru, oh, the life of the world, Waheguru. (When one takes shelter of the Guru), Waheguru becomes kind to Him and connects the devotee with Him, oh Nanak. 4.1.3.

Word Meaning: Poonji = wealth = Raas(i). Dusaayaynda = ask about. Vittoun = for. Khun-Khunniyaiy = will cut myself into pieces; sacrifice life. Pirum Ka = for the Dear. Sujjun(u) = friend (Waheguru). Milaas(i) = I connect. 1.
Dheeruk = encouragement. Shabaash(i) = praise. Pause.
Lubhyee = acquire. Nirjaas(i) = verify for yourself. 2.
Saagur = sea. Toottha = pleased to be kind. Pergaas(i) = enlightenment. Vihooniyaan = empty; devoid of. Tikh = thirst. Kundhi Paas(i) = near the bank of (lake). 3.
Chireen Vichhoonniyaan = separated for a long time. Vuddrri Aas = big expectation. 4.

MEANING: I want to know the source of the wealth of Waheguru's Naam. Is there someone who would tell me about that? I will cut myself into pieces (will make any sacrifice) for him if he would connect me with Waheguru. I have deep love for the Dear (Waheguru), but do not know how I can connect with my Friend. 1.
Dear Waheguru's Naam is my wealth, is my capital, oh my mind. When the Guru reinforces Waheguru's Naam in a devotee's mind, he is assured of Waheguru's encouragement (support) and His praise (approval) for the devotee. Pause.
Waheguru Himself connects the devotee with the Guru who shows me (endows with) the wealth of Waheguru's Naam. One can verify that he cannot foster love for Waheguru in his heart without the Guru's guidance. Waheguru has placed Himself in the Guru; kudos to the Guru (it is His greatness) who connects the devotee with Waheguru. 2.
Satguru is the ocean (treasure) of Waheguru's worship. When Satguru is overpleased to be kind to a devotee, He opens the treasure of Waheguru's worship for Him, which enlightens his mind. Like an unfortunate person who dies of thirst even when sitting on the bank of a river, the followers of their mind are unfortunate and stay devoid of Waheguru's Naam even when they are physically close to Satguru. 3.
I know that the Guru is a great donor of Waheguru's Naam, and I will humbly tell Him my wish that I have a great desire for Waheguru's Naam, and beg Him to connect me with Him from whom I have been separated for a long time. I will pray to Him to listen to my request, if He so wills (approves), oh Nanak. 4.2.4.

Word Meaning: Kutha = praise of virtues. Smaani = gets embedded. Vudbhaagiya = very fortunate. Ootum = supreme. Pud(i) = spiritual state. Nirbaani = above the effects of Maya. Purteet(i) = full faith. 1.
Bhaani = is liked. Akuth Kuhaai = the praise of the indescribable Waheguru. Pause. Khoj(i) Dhundholiya = searched for. Kiyoun = how. Akuth = the indescribable (Waheguru).

Adhaar(u) = support; basis. Purakh = (living) Waheguru = His manifestation (Satguru). Soojaani = know-all. 2.
Vihooniyaan = devoid of. Raiyn(i) = night of life. Vihaani = is spent. 3.
Jaachik = beggar. Deen = poor; helpless. Sooghurr = wise. Shenaagti = shelter seeking.4.
MEANING: When a devotee listens to the praise of Waheguru from Satguru, love for Waheguru (His Naam) is cultivated in his mind with the benevolence of Satguru. The fortunate devotees attain the supreme spiritual state by reciting Waheguru's Naam. The Sikhs of the Guru have full faith in Him, and they stay absorbed in Waheguru's Naam with the benevolence of Satguru. 1.
I like to listen to the praise of Waheguru, oh my mind. You too, sing Waheguru's praise all the time for which the Guru is the source of motivation and the ability to sing. Pause.
I found the story (virtues, praise) of the indescribable Waheguru to my great liking in the company of the holy saints, and searched Waheguru in my mind; that is how you find Him (with the benevolence of the Guru). Now that I have been connected to the know-all (omniscient) Waheguru in my mind, His Naam has become the basis of my life. 2.
Satguru, who is a manifestation of Waheguru, connected me with Him, and my mind is now fully focused on the Lord of mind (Waheguru). It was my great fortune to serve my Guru, because of whom I realized the wise and the know-all Waheguru. But the night of life of those who are disconnected from Waheguru is spent in suffering. 3.
I am a humble beggar at Waheguru's Door, and beg Him to give me His Naam to recite. I prayed to my Satguru-friend to connect me with the wise and the omniscient Waheguru. I am a slave of Waheguru, and am in His shelter, and beg Him to be kind to me so that I may get fully absorbed in Him, oh Nanak.

Word Meaning: Bhaaou = love for. Baiyraagiyaan = lovers of Waheguru. Vudbhaageen = with great fortune. Sherdha = respectful love. Oopjaiy = comes into being. Rus(u) = sweet taste. Chaakh(u) = enjoy the taste. Huriya Hoya = rejuvenated. Bhaakh = utter; sing. 1. Hult = this world. Pult = the next world. Put(i) = dignity. Pause.

Keerut(i) = singing praise. Dherti = ground; field. 2.
Trishna = desire for worldly attractions. Desdis = of all directions (kinds). Lakh(u) = aim. Dhrig(u) = condemnable; reprehensible. Bishta = filth (of evil desires). Doorgundh = filth. Bhaakh(u) = food. 3. Trah(i), Trah(i) = implore. Maylaap = union. Put(i) = respect. Saakh(u) = trust. Bhaalkh(u) = recite. 4.

MEANING: The devotees, who love Waheguru, are highly fortunate, and they keep Him in mind all the time. Love and respect for Waheguru sprout in the minds of the devotees in the company of holy men, and they enjoy the sweetness of His Naam with the Guru's Shabad. One's mind and body get spiritually rejuvenated when they sing Waheguru's praise with Gurbani. 1. Enjoy the sweet taste of Waheguru's Naam, oh my mind, my dear friend. You can acquire Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru, which protects your dignity in this world as well as in the next. Pause.
We should recite Waheguru's Naam and enjoy the bliss of His praise in the shelter of the Guru. Waheguru has placed Himself in the gathering of the holy men, where we should plant the seed of His Naam in the field of our body. Waheguru's Naam is the real Amrit, the taste of which can be enjoyed in the company of the Perfect Guru. 2.
The followers of their minds are full of desires for worldly attractions, have many expectations, and aim to acquire all kinds of them. Life is reprehensible without Waheguru's Naam because otherwise, the mind of the money-worshippers stays in the filth of evil desires. They are cycled through many life forms, and filth becomes their food. 3.
I am in Your shelter, and implore You to kindly protect me against the attacks of Maya, oh Waheguru. Please, put me in the company of the Guru where I may acquire Your Naam, which earns one respect and trust. I am a slave of Waheguru, and have acquired the wealth of Waheguru's Naam by reciting His Naam, oh Nanak. 4.4.6.

Word Meaning: Bhagat(i) = of worship. Ram(u) = Waheguru. Nistaara = salvation. 1. Bunvaali = a name for God. Smaaleen = remember. Jeeurray = soul; mind. Pause. Saagur = sea; source. Mungut = beggar. Jaachaiy = begs. Pusaaou = by benevolence. Sat(i) = eternal. Bhaavaiy = likes. 2. Nuvaiy = nine. Chhider = openings; doors. Serveh(i) = secrete. Upvittra = unholy; filthy. Puvittar = purified; holy. Supersunn(i) = overpleased. Mul(u) = filth. Leh(i) Jaayay = comes off. 3.
Bikhum Bhaari = extremely difficult. Dootur = difficult to swim across. Sunsaari = the world-sea. Bohith = ship. Paar(i) Lunghaayay = ferries across. 4. Serbtur = everywhere. Baychaara = poor. Thaayayn Paayay = recognizes; rewards. 5.

MEANING: The treasures of Waheguru's worship are always full (one can worship Him anytime), but only that individual sings His praise whom He is kind to, and He salvages His devotees in the shelter of the Guru. 1.
I always remember Waheguru in my heart when He becomes kind to you, oh my mind. Recite Waheguru's Naam, which emancipates you at the end, oh my mind. Pause.
Waheguru's Naam is the sea (unlimited source) of comforts. I am a beggar at Waheguru's Door, and beg for His Naam with His benevolence. I like (love) the ever-eternal God. 2.
All nine body doors secrete (wish for) filthy enjoyments, but they get purified when one recites Waheguru's Naam. If my Lord becomes overpleased, all the filth comes off with the recitation of His Naam. 3. Attachment to Maya is so strong that it is very difficult to get rid of it. How can one swim across the world-sea (sea of Maya), which is so difficult to swim across, with such attraction for Maya? But, if Waheguru sends the Guru as the ship, one can be ferried across the sea with the recitation of His Naam. 4.
You are present everywhere, and everyone belongs to You, oh Waheguru; only that happens which He plans. I am a poor devotee of Him, and sing His praise; it is up to Waheguru if He gives me any reward for that, oh Nanak. 5.1.7.

Word Meaning: Kllvikh = sins. Sunchou = accumulate. Sukhaayee = friend; supporter. 1. Srayshut = supreme. Ootum = superior. Tthayh(u) Maarou = kills on the spot; completely destroys. 2. Chuhoun Koont = in all the four directions. Jaaniya = becomes famous. Kunkur(u) = assistant. 3. Chulta = amazing feats. Maaraiy = hurt; cause harm. Chhudaayee = protects. 4. Undin(u) = all the time. Nistaaray = salvaged. Dus-utth = 18 (Puranas). 5.

MEANING: Recite Waheguru's Naam, and He will eradicate all your sins, oh my mind. So, accumulate the Wealth of Waheguru's Naam and preserve it; it will be your supporter when you leave this world. 1.

Only that devotee recites Waheguru's Naam who is kind to, and he enjoys blissfulness by reciting His Naam all the time. One enjoys the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam with the grace of the Guru, and is ferried across the world-sea by reciting His Naam. Pause.

Waheguru is fearless (has no superior), is formless, and His Naam is the eternal recitation, which is the supreme and most superior deed in the world. You can kill your enemy - the agent of the Angel of spiritual death - on the spot (completely destroy his fear), because he does not even go near Waheguru's devotees. 2.

The devotee of Waheguru, whom He is kind to, is known all in all the four directions in all four eras. If some sinner thinks of causing any harm to him, the assistants of the Angel of death swallow him (spiritually kill him).

The creator, Waheguru, is present in everybody and enjoys His amazing feats after performing them. Who can cause any harm to His devotee who is protected by Him, and who is emancipated by Him? 4.

I always recite the Naam of Waheguru, which salvages all His devotees and His worshippers. You can ask the 18 Puranas, and the four Vedas, and you will find that it is only Waheguru's Naam that emancipates one, oh Nanak. 5.2.8.

Word Meaning: Derpaiy = is afraid of; worships; obeys Laws. Nukhuttra = stars. Amar = Huqam; Command. Kuraara = very powerful. Baiysuntar(u) = fire. Indar = Indra = the god of rain; clouds. Bichaara = poor; helpless. 1. Nirbhuou = fearless (has no law to obey). Soohayla = in comforts. Gooni = virtues (praise of Waheguru). Pause. Dayhdhaar = having bodies. Dayva = gods. Dur(i) Mooya = tremble with fear. Lukh Chauraasih = the 8.4 million living beings. Joni Joya = cycled through many life forms. 2. Raajus = living being having Rajo Goon which is one of the three effects of Maya. It is the root of worldly attachments and working for worldly comforts. Saatuk(u) = living being having Sato Goon. It is the root of good qualities like patience, service to others, donations etc. Taamus(u) = living being having Tumo Goon. It is the root of ignorance, rage, ego etc. Roop = forms. Oopaaya = created. Chhul = deceptive. Bupuri = poor; powerless. Kaula = Maya. Dherm Raaya = Angel of justice. 3. Sugul Smuggri = the whole creation. Biyaapi = is affected. Sungee = friend. Soheh(i) = look dignified; are honoured. 4.

MEANING: The earth, the sky, and the stars are in Your fear (they obey Your Laws) because of Your powerful command over them, oh Waheguru. The air, the water, the fire, and the clouds are all helpless on their own (they cannot perform their functions) and obey Your Huqam, oh Lord. 1. I have learned only this thing that Waheguru alone is fearless (no law applies to Him). So, only that individual enjoys comfort and blissfulness who sings praise of Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru. Pause.

All living beings, the gods, the Sidhs, and the yogis, tremble in Your fear. But all those of the 8.4 million life forms who do not obey Your Huqam, take births, and die again, and again, and are cycled through many life forms, oh Waheguru. 2.

All those living beings of many different kinds which Waheguru has created, and are under the three different effects of Maya, are afraid of Him. Even the deceptive Maya and the Angel of justice are powerless on their own and become effective only with Waheguru's Huqam. 3. The whole creation is under the fear of Waheguru, and only the Creator Himself is fearless (above His laws). However, Waheguru is always a friend of His bhagats (devotees), who are honoured in His Court, oh Nanak. 4.1.

Aayo saam Nanak, oat Hur(i) kee, leejaiy bhooja pusaaraiy. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Paaanch Berkh Ko = of five years. Amar Ataaray = the tall palace of immortality (highest spiritual state). Hayt(i) = for. Naraayin = Waheguru. Bidaaray = destroyed. 1. Kaytay = Agunut = countless. Deen = poor. Ulp Mut(i) = of low wisdom. Nirgoon = without any virtues. Pause. Soopchaaro = dog-eater. Budhik = hunter (who killed Krishna). Nimukh = a moment. Gujput(i) = elephant which was trapped by the octopus. Nukheh(i) = with claws. Bidaaray = destroyed. Bidur = of Mahabharat. Daasi Soot = the son of a maid. Pooneeta = purified; holy. Oojaaray =enlightened. 3. Praadh = vices. Mithiya Moh = in love for the perishable. Mugnaaray = lost in; intoxicated. Saam = Oat = shelter. Leejaiy = accept; embrace. Bhooja Pusaaray = with arms spread. 4.

MEANING: The orphan Dhuroo was only five years old when he began to recite Waheguru'//s Naam, and attained the highest spiritual state to become immortal (by merging into Waheguru). Waheguru destroyed the assistants of the Angel of death of Ajamul (who was considered a sinner for marrying a prostitute), because he used to call his son Narayan (a name for Waheguru), thus reciting His Naam - even though he did so unknowingly (see "Introduction for full story). 1.

My Lord, the Creator (Waheguru), salvaged countless people. I am poor (humble), have low wisdom, and have no good quality, but have come to You for shelter. Pause.

Baalmeek, who was a low-caste untouchable and who used to kill dogs for food, was salvaged because he recited Your Naam; and the poor hunter, who killed Krishna, was also salvaged because he too recited Your Naam. (See "Introduction" for full story). Similarly, the elephant, trapped in the tentacles of an octopus and about to drown, was rescued in an instant when it remembered God for help. 2.

Waheguru protected His devotee, the child Prahalad, from being killed by his father, Hernaakhsh, who was torn apart by god Vishnu with His claws. Similarly, Bidur (of Mahabharat), who was the son of a maid, was purified (enlightened) by Waheguru when he invited Krishna for dinner. In addition, all his associates were also enlightened. 3.

How many vices of mine can I describe!! I am always intoxicated by the false attractions in life. But I have come to Waheguru's shelter, and pray to Him to accept me with open arms, oh Nanak. 4.2.

Word Meaning: Vitt = wealth. Nuvitt = for the sake of. Bhermiyo = wandered around. Buhou Bhaanti = in many ways. Anik = countless. Jutun = efforts. Dhaayay = rushes (shows excitement) Huoun = Haumein = selfishness and ego. Tay Tay = all those. Bhuyyay = became. Ajaayay = waste; worthless. 1. Uver = others. Kaahoo Kaaj = for good cause. Pause. Kluttar = wife. Pusaara = expanse. Oorjhaayay = tangled in. Mud = liquor. Oodmaatay = intoxicated. 2. Bidh(i) = approach. Khoji = explored. Buhou Perkaara = in many ways. Dataar = donor; provider. Sumruth = fully capable. 3. Tiyaagiyo = renounced; gave up. Maan(u) = pride. Mehta = respect in society. Bhuyyay Aikaiy = became one; merged into. 4.

MEANING: The man wanders around in excitement, and in many different ways for the sake of earning money; but all those tasks that he performs due to his selfishness and ego, are worthless for his spirituality. 1. All other days (without reciting Waheguru's Naam) are spiritually worthless; kindly grant me those days on which I may sing Your praise, oh Waheguru. Pause.

The man remains tangled in worldly attractions and relations, like his sons and his wife, and in the expanse of the household. He stays intoxicated, enjoying the taste of the liquor of Maya, and never recites Waheguru's Naam. 2.

I have searched for different approaches (to get connected with Waheguru) in many ways, and have found that one cannot connect with Him without taking shelter of the holy men (the Guru). So, I have come to the great and the omnipotent Waheguru, who is the provider for all of us, to beg for the donation of His Naam. 3.

I have given up all my pride and my respect in society, and have come to Waheguru as His slave to get the dust of His Feet (His Naam). I have been connected to Waheguru and have become "one" with Him (through His kindness), oh Nanak. 4.3.

Word Meaning: Dheeriyo = settled. Naam = name calling. Bust = resides. Chihn = scar; wound. Oopur Chhohiyo = went through the roof. Gaara = name calling. 1. Aiyti Na Jaanoun = do not know even that. Kaytik Moodut(i) = for how long. Khubur(i) = knowledge. Pause. Sehn Sheel = having patience. Ur(u) = and. Busoodha = earth. Khimaa = forgiving. Nibhraantay = without doubt. Sunjoga = union. Dooraatay = bad quality. 2. Ruch(i) Ruchiya = created the world. Bidhaataiy = carver of our fates (Waheguru). 3. Bern Chihn = physical (visible) features. Mithiya = false. Pusaara = expanse. Bhunut(i) = says. Oojhaaraiy = dismantles. 4.

MEANING: Do you even know who you are, and where you have come from, oh man? You have no knowledge about the length of time you have been travelling through different life forms. Pause.

So, where does your ego still reside in your mind (which keeps you in the birth-death cycle), and what has happened to Waheguru's Naam, which resides hidden in your heart, and which can terminate your reincarnations? What wound-causing curses have you heard so that you are going through the roof, oh man? 1.
All five elements, by whose union you have come into existence, have good qualities. For example, water and the air have great patience and provide their services to all indiscriminately, and the earth is always forgiving beyond any doubt. So, what is wrong with them (that you have bad qualities like rage and ego)? 2.
(Answer)The Creator, which is also the carver of our fates, and which has created the universe, has also made selfishness and ego a part of the personality of the living beings. And, it is He who takes births and dies, and comes and goes. 3.
The creation has no permanent visible features (as things keep changing with time), and the whole expanse of the universe is false (short-lived). Waheguru alone remains behind when He folds (dismantles) the drama of the world, oh Nanak. 4.4.

Word Meaning: Maan = pride. Ur(u) = and. Vikaara = vices. Beeyo = other. Ghaaliyo = brought to mind. Goonaa = noble qualities. Bunjay = bought; acquired. Vukkhur = merchandize. 1. Orruk(i) = till the end. Nib-hee = lasted. Pause.
Aagiya = order. Morriyo = turned away. Sehj = peacefulness. Anund = blissfulness. Oaahoo = for that. 2. Soag = sadness. Herkh = happiness. Maathaiy Laiy Maaniyo = obeyed as good fortune (gladly). 3.
Suvray = refined; made successful. Hult Pulaata = this world and the next. 4.
MEANING: The love of the true devotee for Waheguru lasts till the end as he serves the Lord (recites His Naam) as long as he lives, and keeps Him in mind at the time of leaving this world. Pause.
Such a devotee deals in the noble qualities, and in Waheguru's Naam in his life, and carries this holy merchandise with him (to the next world as well). He does not let his pride, worldly attractions, greed, and other vices enter his mind. 1. (I am also a slave of Waheguru), and I never turned my face away from His orders (never refused to accept them), and rushed to carry them out happily with peace and blissfulness in my mind. 2.
If I had to stay hungry while carrying out His orders, I felt blissful even then, and never differentiated between happiness and sadness. Whatever orders He issued, I gladly accepted them. 3. The Lord became benevolent to His devotee and made both the worlds successful for me. The devotees of Waheguru, who recognize Him (make connection with Him), are praiseworthy (are highly fortunate), oh Nanak. 4.

Word Meaning: Khooliya Kerm(u) = fortune began to favour. Sherm(u) = hard work for worldly affairs. Thaaka = exhausted; ended. Bisraama = peace of mind. Mit Guyyee = ended. Dhaayee = rushing around. 1. Ub = now. Jeevun Pudvee = high spiritual state. Purakh(u) Bidhaata = the carver of our fates, Waheguru. Pause.

Nivaaray = removed; get rid of. Baiyraayee = enemies (the five demons). Haajur(u) Hujoor(i) = present close by. Naajur(u) = visible to eyes. Kuteh(i) Na = nowhere. Dooraayee = distance; separation. 2. Seetul = calm; peaceful. Sherdha = wishes. Paavun = holy; pious. Putit = immoral. Khin Bheetur(i) = in a moment. Mehma = greatness; praise. 3. Khoyay = lost; removed. Oataayee = shelter. 4.

MEANING: I remembered the Creator, Waheguru, (recited His Naam) in the company (shelter) of the holy saints, and have now attained the high spiritual state. Pause.

With good fortune in my favour, and with the benevolence of the Lord, I sang Waheguru's praise, whereby my hard efforts, and my running around to acquire worldly comforts have ended, and my mind has become peaceful. 1.

With Waheguru's benevolence, I have been able to get rid of my lust, rage, greed, and worldly attachments, and all five demons, which were my enemies, have also been destroyed (brought under control). Waheguru is close to me, visible to my eyes, and there is no separation between us, now. 2.

With the support of the holy saints, I have attained blissfulness and calmness of mind, and all my wishes have been fulfilled. They transformed me from an immoral person to a pious person; I cannot sing their praise (greatness) enough. 3.

By taking shelter of Waheguru, all my worldly fears have gone, and I have become fearless. Now, I sing the Lord's praise day and night with full faith, oh Nanak. 4.6.

Word Meaning: Jo = which. Sumruth = all capable. Naayik = master. Kubhoon Na = never. Ray = oh man. Chhoad(i) Jaayay = which leaves you. Ooaa Kuou = the same. Dhaavus(i) = rushes for. 1. Smaarus(i) = remember. Ruchiya = absorbed; friendly. Jeeura = soul; mind. Jaarus(i) = burns; suffers in. Pause.
Siyal = jackal. Bupuray = poor; weak (worldly attractions). Tikaavus(i) = stay. 2.
Jaas(u) = praise. Bhuv = world-sea. Rung(u) = love. Ulp = small; short. Utkaavus(i) = gets tangles in. 3. Kirpa-Nidh(i) = the treasure (source) of benevolence. Put(i) = respect. Trai-Goon = the three effects of Maya. Bherm(u) = illusion. Chhoota = ended.4.
MEANING: You do not sing praise of Waheguru, who is omnipotent and the master of all virtues, but rush for the thing (Maya) again and again, which can leave you in a moment, oh man. 1. Why don't you remember your Waheguru, oh foolish man? You are very friendly and in love with your enemy (Maya), which will burn your soul. Pause.
You do not come to the shelter of Waheguru listening to whose Naam even the Angel of death runs away. Take the shelter of the lion (Waheguru), which will throw away the weak jackal (Maya) out of your mind. 2. You do not foster love for Waheguru by listening to the praise of those who swim across the world-sea. But, get repeatedly tangled in the short-lived comforts which are like a dream. 3.
With the grace of the Lord, which is the source of kindness, I earned respect (by reciting His Naam) in the company of the Guru. With the kind support of Waheguru, I got emancipation from the three effects of Maya, oh Nanak. 4.7.

Word Meaning: Untarjaami = omniscient. Subh Bidh(i) = all plans. Doolaariyo = can be hidden. Hust = hands. Paanv = feet. Jhuray = drop; are burned. Jaariyo = burned. 1. Moorray = oh, foolish. Bisaariyo = forgotten. Loon(u) Khaayay = live on food provided by Waheguru. Hraamkhori = disloyalty; ungratefulness. Paykhut = see. Naiyn Bidaariyo

= with wide-opened eyes; shocked. Pause. Asaadh = incurable. Roag = illness. Turt Na = cannot be averted (treated). Tutt(u) = the basic truth. 2.

MEANING: Nothing can stay hidden from Waheguru, which is omniscient and knows everything. (So, what is the use of hiding one's misdeeds from Him, which he performs to enjoy sensual pleasures? One forgets that all parts of his body, like his hands and feet, which he had been using to assist his body in enjoying pleasures, will burn and fall from the body when he is put on fire after his death. 1.

You have forgotten Waheguru, which is your provider for everything, oh foolish man. You eat and use His gifts, but are disloyal and ungrateful to Him, and see with dilated eyes (are shocked with surprise) when you are told the reality. Pause.

(Because of forgetting Waheguru), an incurable disease (of selfishness and ego), which cannot be averted, proliferates in one's body. I have found the basic truth that the man suffers (from this disease) greatly by forgetting Waheguru, oh Nanak. 2.8.

Word Meaning: Churn Kumul Prubh = the lotus-like Feet (Naam) of Waheguru. Neeta, Neet = everyday; all the time. Aad(i) = in the beginning. Mudh(i) = in the middle (at present). Unt(i) = at the end. 1. Vuss(i) Haiy = under control. Guhhiyo = held; embedded in heart. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru, Himself, is the support of His holy saints. Pause.

The holy saints keep Waheguru's Naam in their mind all the time, and sing His praise. They do not acknowledge any other power and believe that Waheguru was present at the beginning of the universe, is present now, and will be present at the end to control the world. 1. Word Meaning: Sookh-Daata = source of all comforts. Ugiyaanuth = ignorant. Hoachha = of low quality. Baavur = crazy; insane. Doolubh = invaluable. Akaaruth = uselessly. 1. Iyaanuth = stupid mistake. Saarungdhur = a name for Waheguru. Bherm Bhoola = misled by illusions. Moh(i) Luptiyo = clinging to the worldly attractions with love. Daasi = slave (Maya). Saanuth = with. Pause.

Dhernidhur = Waheguru (which supports the earth). Tiyaag(i) = abandoning; giving up. Neech-Kool = of ignoble clan (Maya). Huoun = I, and me. Bihaavuth = life is spent. Phokut Kerm = worthless deeds (rituals). Ugiyaani = ignorant. Kuhaavuth = is called. 2.

Asut(i) = false; not real. Maaniya = believes in. = Jaanuth. Binsut = perishable. Nihchul = permanent; everlasting. Pukree = held; attached to. Bhoolaanth = misled. 3.

Shood = the lowest caste. Vaish = the second lowest caste includes businessmen, employees, farmers, etc. Turaanuth = are salvaged = Paar(i) Puraanuth. 4.

MEANING: Why have you forgotten Waheguru, which is the source of all comforts for your life and your soul, oh ignorant? You have gone insane by tasting the low-quality liquor of Maya, and have wasted away the invaluable human life uselessly, oh man. 1.

Ignoring God, you are misled by illusions and are deeply attached to Maya, which should be your slave, oh man. How could you make such a stupid mistake!! Pause.

Rather than serving Waheguru, you are worshipping the low-caste Maya (which is Waheguru's slave), and spending your life in selfishness and ego. People like you are followers of their mind (worshippers of Maya) and are called ignorant and blind because they perform rituals which are spiritually worthless. 2.

Such people consider Waheguru's Naam, which is eternal, to be unimportant, and treat the perishables as being their permanent companions. They are lost in such misbeliefs that they cling to wealth, which is not really theirs (it changes owners). 3.

It is only Waheguru's Naam with which people can find salvation, no matter what their societal caste is. Whoever listens to Guru Nanak Sahib's Teachings (and follows them) is salvaged (merges into Waheguru). 4.1.10.

Word Meaning: Goopt = secretly. Dehkaayay = deceives. Munookhaayay = people. Bikhaiy Bhogeh(i) = enjoy sensual pleasures. Tupt Thymm = red-hot pillar. 1. Pur Greh(i) = other's house. Koochul = filthy. Kutthoar = merciless. Kaam(i) = lustful. Gerdhub = donkey; idiot. Pause. Bikaar = (of) vices. Paathur = rocks (burden). Nind = vilification. Poat = bundle. Siraayay = on the head. Muhha = huge; difficult. Saagur(u) = Smoond = sea (of Maya). Lunghnaa = cross. 2.

Biyaapiyo = affected by. Naytur Phiraayay = eyes turned away; pays no attention. Dootur = difficult. 3. Soor(u) = the sun. Mookta = unbiased. Sussi = the moon. Braham Giyani = the enlightened saint. Aliptaayay = detached. Soobhaavut = by nature. Baiysuntar = fire. Alipt = impartial. Nirmulaayay = pure. 4.

Kerm(u) Khoolliya = fortune favours. Purrda = curtain of ignorance. Munniya = accepted. Soobhaayay = with love. Uvkhudh = medication. Sunkut = suffering. 5.

Inn Bidh(i) = by such means. Mirtuk(u) = who has killed his desires. Dooja Bhaaou = love for the other. Pause Two.

MEANING: The man does not realize that God is always with him, and secretly cheats people. Forgetting Waheguru, he enjoys sensual pleasures, which are like hugging a hot iron pillar (because he will be punished for his misdeeds). 1.

Why do you cast an evil eye on the household of others, oh man? Have you not heard the name of the Angel of justice, oh, filthy, merciless, lustful, and idiot person? Pause.

You have tied rocks of vices around your neck, and are carrying a load of vilification of others on your head; with such a heavy load of sins, how can one swim across the huge and difficult world-sea? 2. The man is badly influenced (overpowered) by lust, rage, greed, and worldly attractions, but he pays no attention to them. (He does not realize that) The sea of Maya is so difficult to swim across that he will not be able to keep his head above its water. 3. The enlightened holy saint is as detached from worldly attractions (impartial) as the sun, the moon, and the fire are. They are indiscriminate and pure by nature (they make no distinction among people when delivering their services). 4.

The good fortune of the individual who obeys Satguru's advice with love favours him, and the curtain of his misbeliefs is removed. The Guru gives Waheguru's Naam as the mantra, which is the source of enlightenment, as a result of which, the devotee does not go through the suffering of reincarnations, oh Nanak. 5.

If one kills his worldly desires and his love for Maya, and recites Waheguru's Naam, he can swim across the world-sea by such means, oh man. Second Pause. 2.11.

Khuou Nanak, bherm(u) Gur(i) khohiya, ta Hur(i) Mehli, Mehl(u) paaya thaa. 4.3.12.

Word Meaning: Dhoondhun = searching for. Chhoot(i) Puray = became free. Unbhuou = by feelings. Uchurj_Roop = amazing form. Paykhiya = saw. Na Kut-hoon = nowhere. 1. Maanuk(u) = pearl-like Waheguru. Paayo = acquired. Moal(i) = with money. Amoal(u) = priceless. Ruhaou.
Adisht(u) = invisible. Agoachur(u) = incomprehensible. Akuth(u) = beyond description (Waheguru). Kuhaaya = sang (praise). Unhud Shabad = auto-playing divine music. Dusm Dooaar(i) = in the spiritual state of enlightenment. Vujjiyo = played. Chooaaya = dropwise. 2. Toat(i) = shortage. Trishna = fire of desires. Boojhi = put out. Akhoot Bhundaar = inexhaustible treasure. Smaaya = absorbed. Aghurr(u) = unrefined. Ghurriyo = refined. 3. Sehjay = in peaceful state of mind. Bherm(u) = misgivings. Khohiya = removed. Mehli = the master of the Palace (Waheguru). 4.

MEANING: The Guru showed me Waheguru in my own heart, so I am free from the search for Him outdoors (my search has come to an end). I saw and experienced Waheguru in many different amazing forms. Now, my mind cannot leave Him to focus on anything else. 1.
I have acquired the pearl-like Perfect Waheguru. Waheguru, which cannot be bought with any amount of money, was acquired by me with the grace of the Guru. Pause.
I sing praise of the indescribable, invisible, and incomprehensible Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru. With Guru's Shabad, the Naam-Amrit dripped in my mind drop by drop, and I felt as if the auto-playing Divine music played in my Tenth Door (in a high spiritual state). 2.
I have acquired the inexhaustible treasure of all comforts (Waheguru's Naam) whereby my thirst for all worldly desires has been put out, and now I do not feel a shortage of anything. By dropping on the feet of the Guru, I enjoyed the sweetness of Waheguru's Naam, and my unrefined mind has been refined. 3.
Now I feel blissful everywhere, and entertain my mind with the blissfulness of Waheguru's Naam. All my illusions have been cleared by the Guru, and I have been connected with the Master of the Palace (Waheguru), oh Nanak. 4.3.12.

Paaya amoal(u) pudaartho, chhoad(i) na kut-hoon jaayay. Kuhou Nanak, sookh paaya, triput ruhhay aghaayay. 4.4.13.

Word Meaning: Saaj(i) = created. Nivaajiya = honoured. Siyoun = with. Rooch(i) = interest; love. Aan Rooti = in other (unsuitable) season. Boyiyaiy = plant; seed. Phoolaiy = grow. Taah(i) = that. 1. Vuttar = optimum conditions. Khayti = crop. Laayay Munooaa = with full concentration and care. Bhulo = good; ripe. Sumou = time. Sooaaou = objective. Pause. Khoyay = give up. Khehrra = pursuit. Dhoorhoun = from the source (Waheguru). Kaar Kmaayay = follows this path (Guru's advice). 2.
Bhaaou = love. Ghaal = hard work. Paayee Thaayayn = is rewarded. Khayt(i) = in the field (of my heart). Jummiya = sprouted. Nikhoott(i) = inexhaustible. 3. Amoal(u) = priceless. Pdaarutho = article (Waheguru's Naam). Triput = Aghaayay = contented. 4.

MEANING: If we plant a crop in an unsuitable season, it does not grow to maturity. (Similarly, the human life - and no other life form – is suitable to recite Waheguru's Naam) But the man takes no interest and does not love Waheguru, who creates him and honours him by making him superior to all other life forms. 1. Only human life is the appropriate time (opportunity) to implant Waheguru's Naam in the field of his heart; so, seed His Naam with full faith and care because this is the ripe time to achieve your objective (to merge with God), oh my mind. Pause.
Give up pursuing the illusions of your mind, and take Satguru's shelter, oh man. But only that devotee follows this path who has it prewritten in his destiny by God. 2.
I was fortunate to foster love for Waheguru in my mind, and my hard work (of worshipping Him) has been rewarded. The crop of His Naam has sprouted in my mind, which will never cease to produce (I will never quit worshipping Waheguru). 3.
I acquired the priceless Naam of Waheguru, which will never leave me for somewhere else. Now, I am fully contented and feel blissful, oh Nanak. 4.4.13.

Sach(u) thaan(u), Sach(u) baiytthka, Sach(u) sooaaou bunaaya. Sach(u) poonji, Sach(u) Vukkhuro, Nanak ghur(i) paaya. 4.5.14.

Word Meaning: Phooto = shattered. Aanda Bherm Ka = shell of illusions. Peraas(u) = enlightenment. Bayri = shackles. Pugeh Tay = from the feet. Bund(i) Khulaas(u) = emancipation from the bonds. 1. Aavun Jaan(u) = births and deaths. Tupt Kurraha = hot wok; burning of heart. Boojh Guyya = cooled down. Seetul = mind cooling. Pause. Sadhu Sung(i) = company (shelter) of the Guru. Nig-haar = which used to keep an eye on; the Angel of justice. Utuk = obstacles (attractions of Maya). Chhooti = cleared. Kotvaar = law-enforcement officer; Angel of justice. 2.

Bhaara = burden. Kerm Ka = previous deeds. Nihkerma = free of that burden. Kundhaiy Churray = landed on the shore. Dherma = huge favour. 3.
Sach(u) = eternal. Thaan = place. Baiytthka = room. Poonji = wealth. Vukkhuro = merchandise. Ghur(i) = in the heart. 4.
MEANING: The shell of my illusions has been shattered (they are cleared) and my mind has been enlightened. The Guru has cut the shackles of my worldly bonds and has freed me from them. 1. The Guru has given me the mind-pacifying Naam of Waheguru as a result of which the fire of my worldly desires, which was burning my heart (causing suffering for me) has been put out, and the cycle of my rebirths has been terminated. Pause.
The Angel of justice, which was watching my deeds, has quit watching me over ever since I took Guru's shelter. What else could he do when Waheguru, who had created obstacles (of attractions of Maya) in my path of union with Him, removed them? 2.
The Guru did me a huge favour by which the burden of my previous deeds has been removed, and I have become free of them. Moreover, because of Guru's grace, I have reached the other shore of the world-sea (crossed it to attain salvation). 3.
With Guru's grace, I realized Waheguru's Naam in my heart, which is eternal merchandise and eternal wealth for me, and I have attained eternal place in Waheguru's Palace, oh Nanak. 4.5.14.

Word Meaning: Pookaaray = reads aloud. Kamaamun Ka = earning (following) that. Mattha = slow; lazy; unmotivated. Moani = quiet for a long time. Ikaanti = in isolation. Kulpun Gaanttha = bundle of imaginations. Oodaasi = disinterested. Tuj(i) = abandoning. Chootkaiy Naahi = cannot get rid of. 1. Baat = situation. Luhhaan = acquire; find. Pause. Tupsee = by tough endurances. Saadhi = controlled some senses. Dhaana = rushes. Brahamchaar(i) = celibate. Brahmchuj(u) = celibacy. Goomaana = conceit. Sanyasi = renouncer of the world. Bhermiyo = wandered. Bigaana = ignorant. 2. Ghoonghur = anklets with bells (for dancing). Ramdaasa = (fake) devotees of Waehguru. Oopaava = to earn. Bert, Nayam, Kerm Khut = the prevalent religious rituals. Bhaykh = religious symbols. Dikhaava = to show off. Naad = music; hymns. Alaapay = sings. Gaava = sings. 3. Herkh = happiness. Soag = sadness. Reht = without. Ootri = came off. Chinta = worries. 4. Untarjaami = omniscient. Preetum = Dear. Bisur Guyyay = forgotten. Bukbaayay = useless and nonsensical deeds. Pause 2.

MEANING: The pundit reads the Vedas aloud to impress people, but himself is unmotivated to follow their advice. He sits in some isolated place to stay quiet for long times, but has a bundle of imagination going on in his mind. With the thought of renouncing the world, he leaves his house and runs away, but cannot overcome the attractions of the world. 1.

I am looking for a holy man who is connected to Waheguru so that I may tell him of my state of mind and request that he connect me to Waheguru. Pause.

Some people endure many hardships to please their deity; they may make their bodies strong, but they gain no control over their mind, which wanders in every direction. Some practise celibacy and stay celibate, but become very conceited because of their achievement. Similarly, some people become sanyasis and visit various holy places, yet remain ignorant and become highly short-tempered. 2.

Some wear anklets with bells (for dancing) to present themselves as devotees of Vishnu, but that is only a means to earn bread. They wear religious symbols, observe all the prevalent rituals like fasting, and the six deeds of the Brahmans (see the “Introduction”), sing songs and hymns, but never sing Waheguru’s praise from the depths of their heart. 3.

On the other hand, Waheguru’s holy devotees are above happiness, sadness, greed, and worldly attractions, and are pure at heart. I wish to have the dust of their feet (an opportunity to serve them) if Waheguru is kind to me. All my worries were gone when I came to the shelter of the Guru, oh Nanak. 4.

My Royal Waheguru is omniscient, and my Dear knows everything that I have in my mind. With His grace, I have forgotten all the worthless and the senseless rituals, oh Nank. Pause Second. 6.15.

Word Meaning: Koat(i) Laakh = millions. Gavaara = unrefined; foolish. 1. Put(i) = dignity. Bisrut = on forgetting. Ruliyaiy Khaak(u) = mix with dirt; become worthless. Pause.

Roop Rung = beauty. Bhogun = enjoying. Chhider = holes (for good qualities to leak out, and bad qualities to enter; weakness in morality. Vikaara = of vices. Kulyaana = source of well being. Sehj(u) = high spiritual state. 2.
Birung = robs happiness (enjoyments) . Khinaiy Meh(i) = in a moment. Baadur = cloud. Chaaya = shade. Laal Bhuyyay = dyed red (deep colour of love). Goohrray = deep. Raatay = imbued. 3. Ooch = transcendent. Mooch = huge. Apaar = endless. Agumm = inaccessible. Vudiyaayi Sobha = respect; praise. Khusm(u) = master. 4.
MEANING: The devotee, who has Your Naam at heart, feels like a ruler over millions of people; oh Waheguru. But the individual, who does not get Your Naam from Satguru, is foolish (unlucky) and stays in the birth-death cycle. 1.
Only my Satguru protects our dignity (against the attacks of Maya). Our dignity is preserved in full when we remember Him, but we mix with dust (suffer humiliation because of our vices) when we forget Him. Pause.
All enjoyments of beauty and other sensual pleasures dig holes of vices in our body (through which our noble qualities leak out, and bad qualities enter). Waheguru's Naam is the treasure of all our wellbeing, high spiritual state, and comforts. 2. Like the shade of a cloud which moves away quickly (and thus robs us of our comfort in the hot sun), Maya robs us of all our happiness in a moment. But those devotees, who sing Waheguru's praise in the company (shelter) of the Guru, get imbued in the deep colour of Waheguru's love. 3.
Waheguru is very high (transcendent), huge (limitless), and His Court is inaccessible, but one can earn praise and respect with the Naam of the dear Lord, oh Nanak. 4.7.16.

Word Meaning: Ounkar(i) = Waheguru. Ootpaati = created. Dinus = days. Vun(u) = forest. Trin(u) = vegetation. Tirbhuvun = the three-layered universe. Khaani = sources of reproduction. Khund = parts of the universe. Deep = islands; continents. Loaa = worlds. Kuvaavaiy = word; Huqam. 1. Kernaiyhaara = the creator (Waheguru). Boojhou = recognize; make connection with. Soojhaiy = think of; understand. Pause. Traiy Goon = the three effects of Maya. Pusaara = spread; expansion. Avtaara = birth. Ticken Na Paavaiy = does not stabilize. Raayee = for a short amount (of time). Goobaara = deep darkness (in mind). Nistaara = salvation. 2.

Huoun Huoun = of haumein. Kerm Kmaanay = perform deeds. Tay, Tay = all those. Bundh = bonds. Gulaanaiy = around the neck. Dhaari = adopt. Lohhari = shackles. Bhaag = fortune. Muthaanaiy = on the forehead. 3. Bhaaya = liked by. Aap-houn = by self. Vukhaani = utters; recites. Bulihaara = a sacrifice. 4.
MEANING: Waheguru has created the world, days, nights, forests, vegetation, the three-layered universe, and water. He also created all four sources of reproduction, and the four Vedas (through their authors with the wisdom provided by Him). All the parts of the universe, islands, and all worlds came into being with His one Huqam (Command). 1.
One understands all this magnanimity of Waheguru when he gets connected with the Guru. Pause. Waheguru created and spread Maya with its three effects all over the world, which is the root of one's haumein (selfishness and ego), and because of which, man's mind does not become peaceful even for a short moment, and he takes births, dies, and spends life in paradise-like or hell-like conditions. It is all darkness in one's mind without the Guru; but his mind is enlightened in the shelter of the Guru, and he gets salvaged. 2.
All those deeds that the man performs under the influence of his ego and selfishness become bonds around his neck. When one adopts a selfish attitude, his deeds become shackles for him. But the individual, who has good fortune on his forehead, recognizes (makes a connection with) the "One" Waheguru in the shelter of the Guru. 3.
No one is foolish or knowledgeable on their own. Only that individual gets connected with Waheguru whom He likes, and who recites His Naam (with His benevolence); the others, whom He misleads, are simply misled. There is no end to the limits of Waheguru, and I am always a sacrifice for Him, oh Nanak. 4.1.17.

MEANING: The mind-captivating Maya has captivated all humans, and the world is overpowered by the false greed of worldly attractions. The man accumulates wealth claiming it to be his, but it deceives him at the end (does not accompany him). 1.
But the fearless God is always kind, and raises and nurtures all living beings. Pause.
Some people earn wealth by hard work, and bury it deep in the ground, while some others do not let even a penny leave them even in their dream. The capricious wealth does not accompany even those at the end who filled bags with it when they were rulers. 2.
Some love it even more than their body and life while some accumulate it keeping it a secret from their father and mother. It does not stay even close to those who hide it from their sons, friends, and brothers. 3. Some people renounce the world and sit in meditation, while the yogis, the celibates, and the pundits ponder on their deities, trying to stay away from Maya. Still, some others live away from the world in graveyards, but Maya does not leave them alone and captivates even them in different forms. 4.
Those are lucky whose worldly bonds are broken by Waheguru, and His Naam is enshrined in their hearts. With Waheguru's kind sight, they find emancipation in Guru's shelter, and attain high spiritual state, oh Nanak. 5.2.18.

Boala = talks. Tthugauri = deceptive Maya. Kirt = the results of previous deeds. 2.

MEANING: Remember (recite the Naam of) only Waheguru, which leaves nobody with unfulfilled wishes; oh, my friends. Waheguru, which protects you in the mother's womb, also gives you life and a beautiful body (refines you from an ugly blob of blood into a healthy and lovely body). We must remember the Carver of our fates (Waheguru) every moment, who hides our many vices. Embed His lotus-like Feet (His Naam) in your heart, and protect your soul from the jungle of immoral activities. All one's misgivings are destroyed (cleared) by reciting His Naam, and all his wailings and imploring come to an end. However, some rare individual gets to recite Waheguru's Naam in the shelter of the Guru. I am all sacrifice for such a lucky devotee, oh Nanak. 1.
Waheguru's Naam is the basis of man's mind (soul) and body; whoever recites the Naam gets salvaged. Pause. The man (mistakenly) believes the perishable world to be permanent, and the foolish and the unwise get attached to it. He stays intoxicated with the liquor of lust, rage, and greed, and wastes away his precious human life for cowrie-shell-like (spiritually) worthless things. He stays imbued till the end in the love of worldly things which are not really his, and ignores (Waheguru's Naam), which is exclusively his. He enjoys the luxuries of life, but the fire of his desires is never put out. All his talks (efforts) are for Maya, but his wishes stay unfulfilled. The man comes into this world alone and leaves alone. All such talks are false when people say to each other that they are always with you. But the man is not to be fully blamed for his ignoble thinking, because Waheguru has created the world in such a way that the man is misled by the mind-captivating Maya, and continues to perform deeds under the influence of his previous deeds, the effect of which cannot be erased, oh Nanak. 2.

Word Meaning: Bhoot = Prayta = evil souls. Ur(u) = and. Bhou Bidh(i) = in many ways. Joani = life forms. Anayta = blind (of spirituality). Jaano = to go. Rehn(u) = live. Thaan-Bihoon = without any room (in Waheguru's Court). Phir Dhaavaiy = reincarnates. Baashna = lust. Bisthaara = the whole range. Uhunmayv = ego. Moottho = deceived by. Baychaara = poor; ignorant. Muhha Ugun(i) = the big fire of our desires Oobaariya = saved. Sunjum = control on senses. Agumm = inaccessible. Agaahi = unfathomable. Jeevun Pud(u) = high spiritual state. 4.

MEANING: Blinded by the short-lived enjoyments, the man keeps performing immoral deeds as a result of which he has to incarnate in many different life forms like animals, birds, and evil souls, etc. He cannot stay where he has to go at the end (Waheguru's Court), and getting no place there, he goes through many life forms again and again. He has a whole range of immoral feelings, like lust, in his mind and body. The helpless man is robbed of his spirituality by his ego and gets severely punished for his countless vices, the full extent of which is not known. Because of forgetting Waheguru, he is put in the hell (of reincarnations) where no mother, relative, friend, or his offspring can help (to end his birth-death cycles). But the individual, to whom Waheguru is kind, is salvaged, oh Nanak. 3.
After wandering around (trying many other spiritual places), I have finally come to the shelter of Waheguru, the Lord of the poor and the father and mother of the world. Waheguru is munificent, and the destroyer of all troubles and suffering. But He salvages only those whom He likes. He is the saviour who pulls us out of the deep and the dark well of ignorance; the individual who worships him with love finds salvation. He places Himself in the Guru to protect us from the grave suffering of our desires for Maya. No recitation of any mantra, self-affliction, or efforts to control senses are any match for Waheguru's Naam. The inaccessible and the unfathomable Waheguru has been there from the very beginning, is present now, and will be present at the end. I am Your slave, and beg for Your Naam, oh Waheguru. My Waheguru is the source of the highest spiritual state, oh Nanak. 4.3.19.

Sobhaayay = Naturally. Bhundaar(u) = treasure. 4.

MEANING: Those devotees are holy saints, and are always fully contented who obey the Guru's Word. Nothing can be said in their praise who are honoured with Waheguru's Naam in their heart. 1. Dear Waheguru's Naam is priceless (cannot be bought with anything), and His Naam, and the ruby-like invaluable Waheguru cannot be held (physically), and cannot be weighed (is immeasurable). Pause.

My mind has been won over by the invisible Waheguru, which is the basis of the entire universe, and which looks after His creation with great care. His Knowledge (Name) can be acquired in the shelter of the Guru by getting rid of one's ego. 2.
Those who recognize Waheguru's Residence (make a connection with Him) in the shelter of the Guru, attain permanent residence in Waheguru's Residence (get fully absorbed in Him). They stay alert (against the attacks of Maya) day and night in the shelter of the Guru, and serve Waheguru all the time (obey His Will). 3.
They are fully content and naturally stay in a meditative state. With the grace of the Guru, they acquire the treasure of Waheguru's Naam, oh Nanak. 4.7.23.

Word Meaning: Chhoad(i) = Tiyaag(i) = give up; abandon. Goomaan = conceit. Mithiya = false; short-lived. 1. Kern = (with) ears. Ugh = sins. Bupuro = poor; helpless. Jaam = Jum(u) = the Angel of death. Pause.
Deen = subservient. Biyaapaiy = affects; prevails. Bisraam = peace. Bukhaanaiy = says. Bhujun = recitation of Naam. Tutt(u) = the reality. Giyan = Divine knowledge. 2.
MEANING: Give up all your cleverness and get rid of your ego in the shelter of the Guru, oh man. Recite Waheguru's Naam with your tongue (which is your only permanent wealth) as everything else is short-lived. 1.
Listen to Waheguru's Naam with the ears, oh my mind, whereby all your sins of many, many lives will be eradicated, and the Angel of Death will be helpless against you (you will become immortal by merging into Waheguru), oh, my mind. Pause.
No discomfort, subservience to others, or any worldly fear will affect you, and you will acquire comfort and peacefulness of mind. Waheguru's Naam is the basis of all Divine Knowledge, and I recite it with Guru's grace, oh Nanak. 2.1.24.

Word Meaning: Visaariya = forgotten. Khayh = dust; suffer humiliation. Bilaas = enjoyment. Bunita = wife. Toot-tay = break. Nayh = love; bonds. 1. Jult = burn; suffer. Ugun(i) Saagur = the sea of the fire of worldly desires. Dayh = body. Pause.
Birkh Chhaya = shade of tree. Binsut = disappears. Jhoolut = blowing. Mayh = clouds.

Drirr(u) = reinforce. Kaam(i) Aavut = will be useful. 2.
MEANING: People are seen to suffer humiliation when they forget Waheguru's Naam. The bonds of one's love for his sons and his friends get broken, and his enjoyment with his wife comes to an end (they are not permanent). 1.
Always recite Waheguru's Naam because of which you will not suffer in the sea of the fire of worldly desires, and will enjoy the comforts of mind and body, oh my mind. Pause.
The worldly comforts are short-lived like the shade of a tree (which moves with the sun) or that of the cloud, which is blown away by the wind. So, reinforce Waheguru's worship in your mind in the shelter of the Guru which will always be useful to you, oh Nanak. 2.2.25.

Word Meaning: Purakh(u) = the Supreme Being. Poorun = omnipresent. Sookheh-Daata = the source of all comforts. Biyaaput = happens; affects. Oosn = hotness (discomfort). Seet = coolness (comfort). 1.
Chayt(i) = remember. Nirmul = pure; holy. Seedh(i) = success. Beedh(i) = make bond. 2.
MEANING: The Supreme Being and omnipresent Waheguru is the source of all comforts, is always friendly, and lives with (is present in) you, oh my friend. He is such a friend who does not die, does not come or go (stays with you all the time), does not vanish, and is unaffected by any comfort or discomfort. 1.
Get attached to Waheguru's Naam, oh my mind. Remember Waheguru, the treasure of everything; this is the pure (best) custom (practice) in life. Pause.
Waheguru is always kind and merciful; whosoever recites His Naam achieves success in his objectives. Pierce your mind with the Naam of (get attached to) Waheguru which is always young (full of energy), wise, and highly attractive, oh Nanak. 2.3.26.

Word Meaning: Chult = walking; travelling. Baiysut = sitting; resting. Muntar = Shabad. Ridaiy Chitaar(i). Keep in mind. Churn Shern = in the shelter of. Sadhu = Guru. Bhuv Sagur = the world sea. 1. Dhaar(i) = acquire. Sugul Bisaar(i) = forgetting all others.

Pause. Jeeou = soul. Praan = breaths; life. Aapun Aap(u) = selfishness and ego. Nivaar(i) = get rid of. Bhuj(u) = worship. Sooaaruth = objectives. Pooray = fully achieved. Kubhoon Na = never. Haar(i) = loss. 2.

MEANING: Keep (reciting) Guru's Shabad in your mind, whether you are travelling, resting, awake, or sleeping, oh my friend. Take shelter of Waheguru, and recite His Feet (Naam) in the company of the Guru to swim across the world sea. 1.

Forgetting all other sources, get in love with Waheguru by your body and mind, and acquire (enshrine) His Naam in your heart, oh my mind. Pause.

Get rid of your selfishness and ego, and offer your soul, mind, body, and life to Waheguru (as they are all given by Him). You will achieve all your objectives in life by reciting Waheguru's Naam, and will never lose (waste away) the precious human life, oh Nanak. 2.4.27.

Word Meaning: Tuj(i) = give up. Binsee = will be eradicated. Taap(u) = suffering of vices. Rayn = dust of the feet. Theeou = become. 1. Aan Saad = other tastes. Hoachhay = of very low quality. Amar(u) = immortal. Joog, Joog = for ever. Pause.

Rus Rung = enjoyments (of the life). Leeou = deep meditation. Keeou = made. 2.

MEANING: Get rid of your ego and selfishness and become humble like the dust of the feet of the Guru, whereby all the suffering of your vices will be eliminated. However, only that devotee acquires Waheguru's Naam to whom He gives it with His benevolence. 1.

All other tastes (enjoyments) of life are of very low quality (short-lived); so, taste the immortalizing Naam of Waheguru and live forever, oh my mind. Pause.

Only Waheguru's Naam is the real (permanent) enjoyment in the world. My mind is fully focused on Waheguru's Naam. Now Waheguru is my friend, my comrade, and my close relative, oh Nanak. 2.5.28.

Simer(i) Hur(i), Hur(i) sudaa Nanak, turay kuyyee anayk. 2.6.29.

Word Meaning: Pritpaal(i) = protecting. Oodur(i) = womb. Sayk = heat. Eehaan = in the world. Boojh(u) = understand. Bibayk = the ability to distinguish between good and bad. 1. Tayk = shelter. Tiseh = Him. Kern Kaarun = the creator. Pause.

Chayt(i) = remember. Tuj(i) = give up. Siyaanup = shrewdness. Bhaykh = religious sects. Turay = salvaged. Anayk = countless. 2.
MEANING: Waheguru, which protects us in the mother's womb and does not let us suffer at all, also protects us in this world and has given us the wisdom to distinguish between the good and the bad. So, understand Him with that wisdom, oh my mind. 1.
Seek the shelter of Waheguru's Naam, and make a connection with Him, who is the sole creator of the whole universe, oh my mind. Pause.
Give up your own cunning and faith in all religious sects (their philosophies), and remember Waheguru only in your mind, reciting whose Naam countless people have been salvaged, oh Nanak. 2.6.29.

Word Meaning: Putit Paavun = purifier of the immoral. Anaath = (spiritually) orphan. Nath(u) = Lord. Muhaa Bhuoujul = the extremely tough world-sea. Toolho = crude boat; raft. Maath = forehead; fortune. 1. Doobay = drowned (in the world-sea). Ghun = many. Saath = groups Raakhaiy = ptotects. Pause. Goon = Waheguru's virtues (praise). Oochaarun = recite. Amrit Paath = path to immortality. Mooraar(i) = Madho = names for God. Gaath = lecture; praise. 2.
MEANING: Countless groups of people have drowned in the world-sea (wasted away their precious human life pleasing their senses) without Waheguru's Naam. They do not keep the Creator of the universe in mind, who protects them by extending His hand. Pause.
Waheguru's Naam purifies even the immoral, and He is the guard of the spiritual orphans (who have nobody to guide them). For those who have it prewritten in their fortune, He is the raft to ferry them across the world sea. 1.
Waheguru's Naam (His praise) is the path to immortality, and the gathering of the holy saints is the place to sing His praise. Please, be kind to me (Nanak) so that I may live to listen to Your praise, oh Waheguru with many names. 2.7.30.

Bhukhaiy Bhurrhaaraiy = burns with big flames (unbearable heat). Oordh Mookh = upside down. Muhaa Goobaaray = deep darknesss. Smaalay = remembers. Khusm(i) = the Lord. 2. Visaar(i) = forgetting. Dooni = worldly things. Chit(u) = mind. Rehn(u) = permanent stay. 3.
Mihervaan(i) = the kind. Thaapay = created. Junum(u) Pudaaruth = the objective of human life. Jin(i) = by winning; achieving. Pervaan(u) = approved. 4.

MEANING: Waheguru creates the human body with the union of the five basic elements, and the union of the soul with a particular body, and their separation is also predetermined by Him. The soul enters the fetus with the Huqam of Waheguru. 1.
The temperature of the mother's womb is so high that it is intolerable for humans in the outside world; but the Lord protects the fetus even in that heat, and in the deep darkness where the fetus hangs upside down, and where the fetus is believed to recite His Naam with every breath. 2. When the child comes out of the womb into the world, he forgets Waheguru's Naam, and gets attached to the worldly attractions as a result of which he is cycled through many different life forms again, and finds no place for his permanent living. 3. Waheguru, which has created all the living beings, is basically kind and eventually salvages all such misled people. The individual, who achieves the objective of life successfully (embeds Waheguru's Naam in his heart) is approved by Him, and is absorbed in Him, oh Nanak. 4.1.31.

MEANING: No physician or his medication, and no brother or sister can help a man escape the punishment of the Angel of justice – only Waheguru is his saviour. 1.
Remember only the Supreme Waheguru, who controls all the happenings in the world, and whose Naam washes away the filth of your sins, oh man. 2.
Waheguru resides in every heart, everywhere, and has eternal Residence. 3.

Waheguru, all whose tasks are perfect, does not come or go anywhere (neither takes births nor dies). He is always around us. 4.
Waheguru is the creator of the whole universe and is the saviour of His devotees. The holy saints survive by reciting His Naam, which is the basis of their life. The omnipotent Lord is the creator of the whole universe, and I am a sacrifice for Him, oh Nanak. 5.2.32.

Word Meaning: Sookhdaayi = comforting. Ajamul = the Brahman of Kanauj who married a prostitute. Gunika = a prostitute who worshipped Waheguru while teaching a parrot. Pause. Punchaali = Daraupdi, the wife of the five Pandavas who was unsuccessfully disrobed by the Kauravas of Mahabharat. Soodh(i) = recognition. Huriyo = removed; eliminated. Kroonamaiy = the compassionate Waheguru. Paiyj = respect; faith in. Budhaayi = enhanced. 1. Kirpa-Nidh(i) = the source of benevolence (God). Bhurosaiy = faith. Guhhi Shernaayi = take shelter. Aan(i) = by coming to. 2.

MEANING: Waheguru's Naam is always a source of comfort. It was His Naam because of which Ajamul was salvaged even though he was considered a big sinner for marrying a prostitute. Similarly, Gunika (a prostitute) attained a high spiritual state by reciting Waheguru's Naam while teaching a parrot. Pause.
[see INTRODUCTION for full stories]
Punchaali (Draupadi), the wife of the five Pandavas, realized the importance of Waheguru's Naam when her dignity was protected by Waheguru when she was being disrobed (undressed) by the Kauravas (of the Mahabharat). Waheguru, the source of compassion, preserved her dignity in a difficult situation and enhanced His own faith among people. 1.
The individual who sings the praises of the benevolent Waheguru finds His support at the time of his need. With that faith in mind, I have come to Waheguru's shelter, oh Nanak. 2.1.

Word Meaning: Kuhaa Kuroun = what should I do? Bikhiun = immoral activities. Siyoun = with; in. Khoya = lost; wasted. Kunhaayi = Waheguru. Pause. Kaal = death. Phaas = noose. Gur meh(i) = around the neck. Tih = that. Soodh(i) = wisdom. Bisraayi = made to forget. Ya = in that. Sunkut = misfortune. Suhaayi = supporter. 1.
Sumput(i) = wealth. Chhin Meh(i) = in a moment. Puraayi = became of others; changed hands. Yeh = this. Soach = thoughts. Jus(u) = praise. Kubhoon Na = never. 2.
MEANING: I wasted away my whole life in immoral activities, and did not remember Waheguru. (Now, I am worried for the consequences of my actions), so, what should I do now, oh my mother? Pause.
I lost all my senses (wisdom) when the Angel of Death put his noose around my neck. Other than Waheguru, who else could help me in such misfortune? 1.
The wealth, which I had thought to be mine, changed hands in a moment. Now, I repent thinking in my mind why I did not sing Waheguru's praise, oh Nanak. 2.2.
